the commissioners' court of said county shall make the necessary provision for paying the expenses thereof. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5324. [4092] Transcript to be obtained from land office, when.—Whenever the maps, field-notes of surveys or other records, or any part thereof, of the surveyor's office in any county or land district shall from any cause be lost or destroyed, or when any new county shall organize, or new land district is created, it shall be the duty of such county or district surveyor to obtain from the commissioner of the general land office a transcript of such maps, field-notes of surveys or other records of his office of his county or land district, certified to as required by law, and for obtaining which he shall be entitled to five cents per hundred words, and the state shall be entitled to ten cents per hundred words, to be paid by the commissioners' court of his county; said transcript of records so certified shall answer all the purposes and have the same force and effect in law that the original could have. [Acts of 1885, p. 92. Amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 482.]

Art. 5325. [4093] Authorized to rent office.—The district and county surveyors are authorized to rent some suitable building or room in which to keep their offices in case the said surveyors can not be provided with offices in the court houses of their respective counties. [Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 196.]

Art. 5326. [4094] Rent of office, how paid.—The county commissioners' court shall make the necessary arrangement for paying the rent of an office rented by said surveyors, upon satisfactory evidence showing that the rent was reasonable and the office necessary, and that there was no office provided for said surveyors in the court house of their county. [Id.]

Art. 5327. [4095] To have a deputy in office, when.—In all cases where the county surveyors do not reside at the county seats of their respective counties, they shall and are hereby required to have deputies in their respective offices residing at said county seats, who shall keep their offices open and the records thereof subject to the examination of any person interested therein, and who shall have authority to receive and file land certificates or other evidences of right to land, and also to receive and record all files or designations of land to be surveyed. [Act Feb. 25, 1863. P. D. 1093.]

Art. 5328. [4098] Right to examine books, etc.—Any person interested for himself, or as agent or attorney of another, shall at all times have the right to examine the books, papers, plats, maps or other archives belonging to the office of any district, county or special surveyor, on the payment of the fee fixed by law. [Act Jan. 26, 1858. P. D. 1086.]

Art. 5329. [4100] Transcripts, etc., by whom paid for.—The transcripts of records and maps, together with the examination of the same, shall be paid for by the county for the benefit of which they are made, allowing ten cents for every one hundred words in copying said records, and three dollars per day for each day the draftsman may be actually and necessarily engaged in copying maps, as provided by law; and clerks and district surveyors for examining and certifying transcripts of records shall have three dollars per day. [Act March 20, 1848. P. D. 1078.]

Art. 5330. [4101] Surveyors to establish true meridian, etc.—The district or county surveyors of the several counties, in order to secure uniformity in the courses indicated by the different surveyors' compasses or other instruments used within their several jurisdictions, shall, in some convenient place at their respective county seats, establish a true meridian by a substantial monument, to be erected at the expense of the county, and shall adjust, or cause to be adjusted, to the said meridian all such instruments before being used within their respective jurisdictions, and shall keep in their offices a standard chain of the true measurement of ten varas, to which all chains used by themselves or their deputies shall be adjusted before being used in the measurement of lines of surveys. [Act June 2, 1873, p. 173. P. D. 7099sss.]

Art. 5331. [4102] Responsible for neglect or failure, etc.—All surveyors shall be held responsible to parties interested for any cost that may accrue in rectifying any errors that may occur in their work by reason of neglect or failure to comply with the requirements of the preceding article. [Id. P. D. 7099ttt.]

Art. 5332. [4103] Shall turn over records, etc.—Upon the removal from office, or at the expiration of the term of office, of any county or district surveyor, he shall deliver to his successor all records, books, papers, maps and other things appertaining to his office. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 4525.]

Art. 5333. [4104] County clerk shall take charge of books, etc., when.—Whenever an organized county from any cause has not a qualified county surveyor, the county clerk of such county is hereby required to take charge of all records, maps and papers belonging to the county surveyor's office and safely keep the same in his office. [Act Oct. 18, 1866, p. 31.]

Art. 5334. [4105] Surveyor's records may be transcribed.—Whenever the county commissioners' court of any county shall deem the same necessary, they shall order the surveyor's records to be transcribed in good and substantial books, in a plain hand, by the surveyor or special deputies sworn to make true copies of the same, for which services they shall be allowed not more than ten cents per hundred words, to be paid out of the county treasury. [Act Nov. 6, 1871, p. 18.]

Article 5335. [4142] What authorizes a survey.—All surveys shall be made by authority of law, and by a county, district or deputy surveyor duly appointed or elected and qualified.

Art. 5336. [4144] Field-notes shall describe what.—The field-notes of every survey shall state—

1. The county or land district in which the land is situated.
2. The authority under or by virtue of which it is made, giving a true description of same.
3. The land by proper field-notes with the necessary calls and connections for identification (observing the Spanish measurement by varas).
4. A diagram of the survey.

5. The variation at which the running was made.
6. It shall show the names of the chain carriers.
7. It shall be dated and signed by the surveyor.
8. The correctness of the survey, and that it was made according to law, shall be certified to officially by the surveyor who made the same; and also that such survey was actually made in the field, and that the field-notes have been duly recorded, giving book and page.
9. When the survey has been made by a deputy, the county or district surveyor shall certify officially that he has examined the field-notes, has found them correct, and that they are duly recorded, giving book and page of record.

Art. 5337. [4146] Copy obtained on loss of original field-notes.—When the original field-notes of any survey made by authority of law shall have been heretofore, or may be hereafter, lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the party who owned the same, or his agent, on making affidavit of the loss or destruction of such field-notes and filing the same in the office of the county or district surveyor, to apply to such surveyor of the county where the survey was made and recorded and obtain from him a certified copy of the record thereof, which copy shall be as valid and efficient in law as the original was, and shall secure to the party all the rights before the commissioner of the general land office that the original would have done. [Id. P. D. 4552.]

Art. 5338. [4147] Surveys on navigable streams.—All lands surveyed for individuals, lying on navigable water courses, shall front one-half of the square on the water course and the line running at right angles with the general course of the stream, if circumstances of lines previously surveyed under the laws will permit; and all streams, so far as they retain an average width of thirty feet, shall be considered navigable streams within the meaning hereof, and they shall not be crossed by the lines of any survey. [Act Dec. 14, 1837. P. D. 4529.]

Art. 5339. [4148] Surveys shall be in a square.—All surveys not made upon navigable water courses shall be in a square, so far as lines previously surveyed will permit. [Id.]

Art. 5340. [4150] Notice to settlers.—It shall be the duty of the surveyor in all cases, before he runs a division line between two settlers or occupants claiming lands, to notify in writing the parties interested before running the same; and any survey which may be made contrary to the true intent and meaning of this article shall not be a lawful one. [Act Dec. 14, 1837. P. D. 4528.]

Art. 5341. [4151] Trial as to disputed line before justice of the peace.—When two or more persons can not agree to a division line of any land which has never been surveyed agreeably to law, it shall be lawful for either party to apply to any justice of the county or territory in which the land lies, or if there be no justice of the peace in the county or territory, then to the nearest justice in any county or territory, and make oath that he has tried and has not been able to settle the dispute between himself and one or more other persons (naming them) concerning a division line; and the said justice shall issue a warrant to any lawful officer to summon the party or parties defendant, together with six disinterested jurors, to meet upon the premises in dispute, together with such witnesses as either party may choose to have summoned, to give evidence on a certain day, naming at what time and place; the justice shall also meet the parties, examine all the testimony before the jury, who shall on oath hear and determine the case in dispute, and shall also determine who shall pay the costs of suit; each juror in such case shall be allowed two dollars per day for such services, the other officers, such fees as have already been established by law for other similar services; provided, that, if the land in dispute shall be on a county line, it shall be lawful for a justice of either county in which part of the land may be to act in such case; and in case either party be dissatisfied with the decision they shall have the right to appeal to the county court within ten days upon giving bond and security for the costs. [Id. P. D. 4527.]

Art. 5342. [4152] When surveys void.—All surveys represented upon the maps of the general land office, the field-notes of which shall not be returned to the general land office, under the provisions of this chapter, and for which there are no titles on file in said office, shall be null and void, and be stricken from the maps of said office, when it is made to appear to the commissioner of the general land office, by the certificate of the county clerk of the county in which the land is situated, that there is no title to said survey on record in said county, and by the affidavits of two credible citizens of said county that the said land is not occupied by the owner nor by some person holding for him. [Acts of 1885, p. 50.]

Art. 5343. [4153] Liability for failing to survey.—If any district or county surveyor shall fail, neglect or refuse, when the amount of lawful surveying fees of any location of land may be tendered to him by any person legally entitled to the survey, to make or cause the survey of the same to be made within one month of the time of the tender to him of said surveying fees, he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond to the party or parties legally entitled to the same, in the amount of damages or injury said party or parties may sustain by reason of such neglect, refusal or failure, to be recovered before any competent tribunal. [Id. P. D. 4569.]

Art. 5344. [4154] Field-notes to be sent back for correction, when.—If, upon examination of the field-notes of a survey in the general land office, they are found to be incorrect, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to cause a plain statement of the errors, with a sketch of the map, to be forwarded by mail, or by the party interested, to the surveyor who made the survey, with a requisition to correct the same and return corrected field-notes to the general land office. [Act Oct. 24, 1871, p. 11. P. D. 7091.]

Art. 5345. [4155] The same corrected and returned, how.—It is hereby made the duty of surveyors who shall have made and delivered incorrect field-notes, upon the requisition of the commissioner of the general land office, provided for in the preceding article, or of the party interested, to make corrected field-notes and return the same to the general land office without delay and without any additional compensation. [Id. P. D. 7092.]

Art. 5346. [4156] Correction by certificate, when made.—When a conflict of survey does not exist on the ground, but appears only on the maps or in the field-notes, it shall only be required of the surveyor to make an official certificate of the facts and furnish a true sketch of the survey with its connections. [Id.]

Art. 5347. [4261] Commissioner to have surveys made, when.—For the purpose of ascertaining the conflicts and errors in and making proper corrections of surveys of lands made for the common school, university or asylum funds, or other surveys in which the state may be interested, directly or indirectly, in cases where, from discrepancies or imperfections in field-notes, it may become necessary for the proper compilation of maps, or for the proper location and identification of said lands upon the ground, the commissioner of the general land office is hereby invested with full power and authority to have such surveys made as he may deem necessary, and to appoint competent surveyors for this purpose. [Acts of 1887, p. 107.]

Art. 5348. [4262] Bonds, etc.—Any surveyor appointed under the provisions of this law shall make and execute a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned and payable the same as bonds of county and district surveyors; he shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution for other officers; said bond to be approved by the commissioner of the general land office, and shall be conditioned as other surveyor's bonds. He shall be under the control and direction of the commissioner of the general land office; and, under such direction, may survey the common school, university and asylum lands, or other lands in which the state may be interested, and prepare and return field-notes of same and certify to any and all facts, and generally do and perform such official acts as might lawfully be done by a county or district surveyor, and shall sign his name officially as "state surveyor." [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5349. [4263] May have lands surveyed, when.—The commissioner of the general land office may have any lands belonging to the common school, university or asylum funds, or other lands in which the state may be interested, or lands alternating therewith, surveyed or resurveyed, and field-notes or corrected field-notes of same returned to his office by any surveyor appointed under this law, which field-notes shall have the same force and effect as if made by the county or district surveyor of the county or district in which said land lies; and, upon the adoption and approval of said field-notes by the commissioner of the general land office, he shall forward to the surveyor of the county or district in which said land lies, certified copies of said field-notes, which thereafter shall be a part of the records of said surveyor's office. In carrying out the provisions of this law, the commissioner of the general land office may, when requested by the owner of lands alternating with the lands resurveyed under the provisions of this law, cancel patents, and in lieu thereof issue patents in accordance with said resurvey; provided, that all such owners shall pay the expenses incurred in making such corrected surveys of their lands and in issuing said patents; provided, that no claims shall be created against the state for services performed under this law in the absence of a previous appropriation therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5350. Mineral lands to be surveyed; points marked; surveyor appointed; his salary.—The commissioner of the general land office of Texas may employ a state surveyor, or surveyors, whose duty it shall be to definitely locate on the ground such school land surveys, or blocks of surveys as the said commissioner may designate between the Pecos river and the Rio Grande, commencing at such point in the mineral bearing territory of Brewster county as may appear to be most advantageous to the state. The said surveyor, or surveyors, shall qualify as now provided by statute for state surveyors before entering upon his duties, and shall be under the direction of and subject to the orders of said commissioner. He shall file in the general land office the field-notes and maps of his work; and, when approved by the commissioner, the lines so established, as evidenced by such field-notes and maps, shall be the established lines of the surveys or blocks of surveys represented thereby. All surveys made shall be marked by permanent natural or artificial objects. The said surveyor shall receive for his services, not to exceed one hundred and sixty-five dollars per month, and to be paid in the same manner as are other employes of the said land office. [Act 1907, p. 285, sec. 1.]

Art. 5351. Land commissioner to co-operate with United States geological survey; regulations as to co-operation.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized to confer with the director of the United States geological survey, and to accept the co-operation of the United States with this state in the execution of a topographic survey and map of the territory which is hereby authorized to be surveyed. The said commissioner shall have the power to arrange with said director, or other authorized representative of the United States geological survey, concerning the details of said work and the method of its execution; provided, that the said director of the United States geological survey shall agree to expend on the part of the United States upon said work a sum equal to that hereby appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to secure the proper topographic map or maps. In arranging details heretofore referred to, the said commissioner shall, in addition to such other provisions as he may deem wise, require that the topographer in charge shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned and payable the same as that required of the surveyor provided for above, and that the maps resulting from this survey shall be similar in general design and quality to the Van Horn quadrangle of El Paso county, edition of March, 1906, made by the United States geological survey, and shall show the outlines of all surveys, and kinds of timber and vegetable growth of commercial value, the location of all natural or artificial water roads and shall show the contour lines showing the elevation and depression for every one hundred feet in vertical interval of the surface of the county; that the resulting map or maps shall wholly recognize the co-operation of the state of Texas and that as each manuscript quadrangle of the map or maps is completed, the commissioner shall be furnished by the United States geological survey with photographic copies of the same, and as the engraving on each quadrangle is completed, the commissioner shall be furnished by said director with the resulting maps. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5352. Persons owning private lands may co-operate.—Should any person or persons, owning private lands which alternate with the school land, desire to co-operate with the commissioner of the general land office in having the surveying done and in having the topographic map or maps made, as above provided for, such services and co-operation may be accepted upon a fair division of the expense. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5353. General authority of commissioner to have surveys made; compensation of official; state surveys, etc.—Whenever the commissioner of the general land office shall deem it to the best interest of the state to cause to be made a survey or resurvey of any land or lands which are now, or which may be, owned or claimed by the state of Texas, or which commissioner may deem it expedient to have surveyed, or resurveyed, in order to determine whether such land or lands are owned or should be claimed or sued for by the state of Texas, he may designate and employ one or more competent and experienced surveyors, each to be known as, "Special state surveyor," to do such work, and shall be authorized to allow and pay, as hereinafter provided, reasonable compensation for such services, the amount of such compensation to be determined by such commissioner, not exceeding in any instance the rate of two hundred dollars per month, and may also incur and pay, as hereinafter provided, any and all reasonable expenses which may be incidentally involved in or connected with the making of any and all such surveys and resurveys. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5354. Official surveyors, how commissioned; qualified.—Any such designation of any and all such surveyors shall be evidenced by a written instrument which shall be signed by the commissioner of the general land office, officially, and attested by his seal of office, and such written instrument shall designate, in at least general terms, the land or lands which such surveyor or surveyors may be so designated and employed to survey or resurvey; and before doing any such work, such surveyor or surveyors shall take and subscribe before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths within this state, an affidavit to the effect that affiant will faithfully, impartially and to the best of his knowledge and ability make the survey or resurvey called for in such instrument of designation; and such affidavit shall be endorsed upon or attached to such instrument of designation. Such instrument of designation, together with such affidavits, shall be filed in the general land office before any such work shall be done thereunder. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5355. Field-notes to be returned; force and effect of.—Field-notes and a plat of any and all such surveys and resurveys, signed by such special state surveyor, or surveyors, shall be returned to and filed in the general land office, and shall thereafter have the same force and effect as if made and returned by a district or county surveyor under existing laws. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5356. Conflicts in alternate surveys; how adjusted.—In all cases where land certificates granted by the state have been located in a block or blocks of two or more alternate surveys, and either or all of such surveys are found to be either wholly or partly in conflict with older valid surveys, such individual surveys as may not be patented in such block or blocks, and which may conflict as aforesaid, and such school surveys, except those which may be sold, or those which may have been sold and were in good standing on the thirty-first day of October, 1898, or those for which there may be pending purchase applications in general land office at the time said commissioner of the general land office shall issue his instructions to the surveyor, as hereinafter provided, may be adjusted under the direction of the commissioner of the general land office as provided herein. [Act 1899, p. 330, sec. 1.]

Art. 5357. Surveyor's duties in adjusting conflicts.—When any such adjustment is desired, as mentioned in the preceding article, the said commissioner shall, upon request of the party owning such individual survey or surveys, or, in the absence of such application, upon his own judgment, direct the proper surveyor of the county in which such conflicting surveys may be situated, to survey such sections as may be in conflict, and so alter or change the field-notes of each and every survey for which an adjustment is sought, except where the school survey has been sold or applied for as above provided; and, in making such change or alteration, the said surveyor shall divide the total area of the individual survey and its alternate school survey equally between the individual and the school survey, unless there is an excess, in which case the excess shall go to the school survey, and patents shall issue accordingly; provided, that the state shall not be required to pay any costs in the matter of resurveying and setting the boundary lines of said lands as provided for in this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5358. In case of conflict, to issue in what cases.—The commissioner of the general land office shall ascertain the entire number of acres in the school surveys wholly or partly free from conflict, exclusive of any excess there may be in each of said school sections, in any particular block, and also the entire number of acres in the individual surveys free from conflict in such block, and shall issue patents on enough of the individual surveys, if there be enough, to equal in area the total area of said school surveys so wholly or in part free from conflict, without considering the excess in each school section; and, in case the total area of the individual surveys in any particular block exceeds the total area of the school surveys, then such excess shall be equally divided between the individual and the school surveys, and patents shall issue accordingly; and if in any case the total area of the school surveys in any particular block, not including any excess there may be in each school section, nor to give any individual any more than their respective total complement by reason of such resurvey, exceeds the total area of the individual surveys, then such excess shall be equally divided between the individual and school surveys, and patents shall issue accordingly; provided, sufficient amount of the school surveys not sold or applied as aforesaid remain to admit of such division. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5359. In cases of conflict number of surveys changed; correction made to protect purchasers.—Where purchasers of school lands have been misled as to the correct lines of their surveys, and have improvements thereon, the commissioner of the general land office may, by the written consent of the purchaser of the school survey and the owner of the individual survey, filed in the general land office, be authorized to change the number of surveys, or have them so corrected as to protect the improvements of the purchaser of the school lands. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5360. Third persons protected.—The provisions of this chapter shall not affect prior valid rights of third persons. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 5361. [4175] Requisites of patent.—Every patent for land emanating from the state shall be issued in the name and by the authority of the state, under the seal of the state, and under the seal of the general land office, and shall be signed by the governor and countersigned by the commissioner of the general land office; and before the delivery thereof to the party entitled thereto it shall be registered in a well-bound book kept in the general land office for the recording of patents. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 4279, 4281.]

Art. 5362. [4176] When patent to be issued.—Whenever the field-notes of a survey and the land certificate by virtue of which the same was made have been returned to and filed in the general land office within the time prescribed by law, if it shall appear after due examination that such survey was correctly and legally made upon vacant and unappropriated land, and that the land certificate is genuine and unsatisfied, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to make out and deliver to the rightful owner thereof, his agent or legal representative, a patent for the land described in said survey. [Act Jan. 20, 1840. P. D. 4286.]

Art. 5363. [4177] When to be referred to attorney general.—Should it appear to the commissioner of the general land office, from the records of his office or from information on oath given him, that there is some illegality in the claim, he shall, if he deems it necessary, refer the matter to the attorney general, whose decision in writing shall be sufficient authority for him to issue or withhold the patent as the case may be.

Art. 5364. [4178] Map of county to be filed.—No patent shall be issued upon any claim, unless a map of the county in which the same is situated shall be on file in the general land office. [Act Jan. 19, 1841. P. D. 4305. Acts of 1879, ch. 121, p. 129.]

Art. 5365. [4179] Patents on surveys in two counties.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to issue patents in all cases upon surveys of land lying in two or more counties or districts, where no conflict between such surveys and others exist, and to which there is no other objection than that of a division in said surveys, occasioned by a county or district boundary passing through them; provided, the field-notes shall have been recorded in the office of the county or district surveyor of both counties or districts. [Act May 9, 1846. P. D. 4315.]

Art. 5366. [4180] Patents on more than two surveys, when.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to issue patents to the legal owner of a land certificate in all cases where the same has been located in two surveys, and where the same is bounded by other surveys. [Act April 7, 1846. P. D. 4314.]

Art. 5367. [4181] In case of conflict, how patent may issue.—In cases where conflicts exist between surveys, the commissioner of the general land office shall be authorized and is hereby required to issue patents to such portions of such surveys as are free from conflicts. [Act May 9, 1846. P. D. 4316.]

Art. 5368. [4182] Shall issue patent to assignee, when.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby required to issue patents to, and in the name of, the assignee of any genuine land certificate issued in conformity to law. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 4294.]

Art. 5369. [4183] Before issuing to assignee, transfers, etc., must be filed.—Before any patent shall issue to the assignee under the preceding article, he must present and file a sufficient and properly authenticated chain of transfer, assignment or obligation for title, or a power of attorney showing a transfer from the original grantee to the assignee. [Id.]

Art. 5370. [4184] Patent may issue to assignee without transfer, when.—All patents may issue in the name of the assignee when the certificate was granted in the name of the assignee, without an exhibition of a chain of transfers as prescribed in the preceding article. [Act Feb. 3, 1845. P. D. 4292.]

Art. 5371. [4185] Patents to deceased persons shall inure to whom.—All patents which have heretofore been issued by the authorities of the republic or the state of Texas, in the names of persons deceased at the time of issuing such patents, and all patents for lands which may be issued hereafter by authority of the state of Texas, in the names of persons deceased at the time at which said patents may be issued, shall be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and effectual to convey and secure to the heirs or assignee, as the case may be, of such deceased persons, the land so patented, or which may be so patented, as though such deceased persons had been in being at the time such patents bear date. [Act. Dec. 24, 1851. P. D. 4228a.]

Art. 5372. [4186] In what order patents shall issue.—The commissioner of the general land office is authorized and required to patent surveys in the order in which they may be made ready for patenting, without regard to the order of filing in the general land office or the order of application; provided, that, when application is made for patent on any claim, and the office fees therefor have been paid, such claim shall have preference over claims for which no application has been made; provided, such surveys shall have been regularly mapped, or there be sufficient evidence that no previous survey has been legally filed in the land office covering the same ground as represented on the maps of the office. [Act April 8, 1861. P. D. 4300. Acts of 1879, S. S., ch. 27.]

Art. 5373. [4187] Patents on unrecommended certificates prohibited.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby prohibited from issuing a patent upon any survey that shall have been made by authority of a certificate issued prior to March 16, 1840, and has not been returned as genuine and legal by the commissioners appointed by the act of January 29, 1840, or by authority of a warrant issued for military services, unless the same shall have been presented to and approved by the secretary of war, the adjutant general, or the commissioner of the court of claims, as heretofore prescribed by law, or unless said certificate or warrant shall have been issued by authority of a special act of the legislature; and any patent issued contrary to the provisions of this article shall be null and void, unless the person claiming such patent shall produce to the commissioner of the general land office the judgment or decree of a district court of the republic or state of Texas, from which no appeal was taken within the time prescribed by law, that he is justly entitled to the amount of land under the constitution and laws. [Act Jan. 29, 1840. P. D. 4288. Acts of 1879, ch. 121, p. 129.]

Art. 5374. [4189] Patent may be canceled in whole or in part, where issued by mistake.—Where a patent to land has been or may hereafter through mistake be issued upon any valid claim for land which is afterward found to be in conflict with any older title, it shall be competent for the owner of such patent, or any part of the land embraced therein, and within such conflict, to return the same to the commissioner of the general land office for cancellation, or in case the owner of such land in conflict can not obtain the patent, then he shall return instead thereof legal evidence of his title to such patent, or part thereof; and in either case he shall make and file with the said commissioner an affidavit in writing that he is still the owner of the same, and has not sold or transferred it; and, should it appear from the records of the general land office, or from a duly certified copy of a judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction before which the title to such land may have been adjudicated, that such conflict really exists, it shall be lawful for him to cancel the patent, or such part thereof as shall appear to belong to the party so applying. [Act March 10, 1885, p. 76.]

Art. 5375. [4190] When in partial conflict, may be canceled.—In cases where there is only a partial conflict, the commissioner of the general land office may, under like circumstances and in like manner as is provided for in the preceding article, cancel any patent presented to him, and issue a patent to the applicant for such portion of the land covered by his patent as may not be in conflict with the older title, where from the field-notes the same may be done. [Act Feb. 3, 1874. P. D. 4302.]

Art. 5376. [4191] Commissioner required to deliver patent, when.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to issue and deliver all patents now or hereafter ready for delivery to the person entitled to receive the same, when it appears from the books of said office that the legal fee for said patent has been at any time heretofore deposited in said office and not withdrawn. [Acts of 1891, p. 182.]

Art. 5377. Patents on homestead claims, to issue when.—The commissioner is directed to issue patents to all homestead claimants, pre-emptors, and other persons who settled upon public lands in good faith and attempted to purchase the same and had the field-notes thereto returned to and actually filed in said land office prior to October 23, 1898, where the law under which said settlement, pre-emption or purchase was made is complied with, and patent could legally issue thereto, had it not been for the decision of the supreme court of the state of Texas in the case of Hoge vs. Baker, rendered on October 23, 1898; provided, proof of occupancy shall be filed in the land office and payment of patent fees made. [Amended Act 1903, p. 228, sec. 9.]

Art. 5378. [4192] Refunding of fee when patent can not issue.—Upon proper proof being made to the comptroller that deposits have been made in any special funds of moneys, for which deposits and payments no patents for lands can be issued for which such payment may have been or may hereafter be made, the comptroller is authorized to issue his warrant in favor of such parties for such amount as may be found to be due; provided, this article shall not apply to surveys, the errors in which may be corrected. [Acts of 1883, p. 113.]

Art. 5379. [4193] When patent may be delivered to agent.—No patent shall be delivered in any case to an agent or legal representative until he shall have filed written authority from the owner.

Art. 5380. [4194] Commissioner required to issue patents on certificates not reported by clerks, when.—The commissioner of the general land office is authorized and required to issue patents to lands that have been surveyed and returned to the general land office and have been suspended because the clerks of the county courts have failed to make reports as required by law, when said commissioner is satisfied from evidence in his office that such patents should issue. [Acts of 1883, p. 82.]

Art. 5381. [4195] Penalty for failure to pay fees on patents; venue, etc.—If any patents remain in the land office six months after the owners are notified of the issuance, and to pay the dues on the same, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to add to the amount of said fees a penalty of ten per cent per month for the whole time the fees may remain unpaid, and to collect said penalty and fees from the persons or corporations to whom said patents have been granted; and said commissioner shall have no authority to deliver any patent for land or certified copy of field-notes or certificate thereof until the whole amount of said fees and penalty shall have been paid, and it is made the duty of the attorney general to bring suit for the same in the district court of Travis county. [Acts of 1879, p. 62.]

Art. 5382. [4196] State shall have a lien to secure the fees.—The state of Texas has and shall hereafter have a lien upon all the land conveyed by or included in all patents to land granted by the state for the amount of fees and penalties provided for in the preceding article, and said land shall be subject to be sold in satisfaction of the same. [Id.]

Article 5383. [4265] Locations validated.—Any and all public lands heretofore surveyed by railroads, or corporations, or any company, or any person in this state, for the benefit of the public free schools of this state, by virtue of any certificate, valid or invalid, void or voidable, be and the same are hereby declared to be lands belonging to the public free schools of this state. [Acts of 1883, p. 4.]

Art. 5384. [4266] Lands sold for taxes to state, etc.—When lands are sold in unorganized counties and bid in by the comptroller for the state for the taxes due thereon, and are not redeemed by the owner thereof, nor his agent, within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which said land was sold, then the land thus sold and unredeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund, to be sold and disposed of as other lands belonging to the public free school fund are to be sold and disposed of by law. [Acts of 1879, p. 140.]

Art. 5385. All unappropriated lands declared part of permanent school fund.—All lands heretofore set apart under the constitution and laws of Texas, and all of the unappropriated public domain remaining in the state of Texas, of whatever character, and wheresoever located, including any lands hereafter recovered by the state, except that included in lakes, bays and islands along the Gulf of Mexico within tidewater limits, is set apart and granted to the permanent school fund of the state; and all such lands heretofore or hereafter recovered from railway companies, firms, persons, or other corporations by the state, by suit or otherwise, and constituting a part of said school fund as herein provided, shall be disposed of as other school lands, except as otherwise provided by law. In all cases where said land, or any portion thereof, has been surveyed into tracts of six hundred and forty acres, more or less, and field-notes thereof returned to and filed in the general land office, the same is hereby declared a sufficient designation of said land; and the commissioner of the general land office shall dispose of the same by the survey and block numbers contained in said field-notes. [Acts 1900, p. 29. Acts 1899, p. 123.]

Art. 5386. [4253] One-half of public domain added to permanent fund, etc.—After the payment of the amounts due from the state to the common free school fund out of the proceeds of the sales heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, of that portion of the public lands set aside for the payment of the public debt by an act approved July 14, 1879, and an act amendatory thereof approved March 11, 1881, and the payment directed to be made to the common school and university funds by an act approved February 23, 1883, the remainder of said land, not to exceed two million of acres, contained in the counties and territory specially mentioned in said acts, or the proceeds thereof, set aside by said acts for the payment of the public debt, heretofore or hereafter to be received by the state, shall one-half thereof constitute a permanent endowment fund for the University of Texas and its branches, including the branch for the instruction of colored youths. [Acts of 1883, p. 71.]

Art. 5387. [4254] The asylum lands.—The four hundred thousand acres of land set apart for the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the asylum for the deaf and dumb, and an orphan asylum, in equal portions of one hundred thousand acres for each of said asylums, by the provisions of an act of the legislature entitled, "An act setting aside and appropriating land for the benefit of asylums," approved August 30, 1856, is hereby recognized and set apart to provide a permanent fund for the support, maintenance and improvement of such asylums. [Const., art. 7, sec. 9. Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76.]

Article 5388. [4211] No officer shall be interested in public land, etc.—No person elected or appointed to any position of trust in the general land office, or employed in such land office, shall, directly or indirectly, be concerned in the purchase of any right, title or interest in any public land, either in his own name, right or interest for any other person, or in the name or right of any other person in trust for himself; nor shall take nor receive any fee or emolument for negotiating or transacting the business of said office, other than those fees allowed by law. [Act Dec. 14, 1837. P. D. 4090.]

Art. 5389. [4215] Abstract to be corrected when necessary.—The commissioner of the general land office shall make it the special duty of one of his clerks to constantly correct the abstract of patented, titled and surveyed lands required to be kept in his office according to errors discovered, changes by cancellation of patents, changes of county lines, and creation of new counties, and to add all new patented surveys at the date of the patent. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5390. [4216] Supplemental abstract furnished, when.—During the month of August of each year hereafter, the commissioner of the general land office shall have made out and furnished to the comptroller of public accounts a supplementary abstract of all patents that have been issued from his office during the year ending on the thirty-first day of August. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5391. [4217] Abstract to be printed, etc.—The comptroller of public accounts is hereby authorized to have one thousand copies of said supplementary abstracts printed and bound for distribution among those officers of the state and counties whose duties require the use of said abstract, the surplus copies to be sold at a reasonable price to parties applying for them; provided, that, if the demand for copies of said abstract shall be greater than the supply provided for by this article, an additional number of five hundred copies may be printed. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5392. [4218] Printing of, how paid for, etc.—The sum necessary to pay for the printing and binding of said supplemental abstracts shall be paid out of the general appropriation made by the legislature for printing; and all moneys received by the comptroller by the sale of said abstracts shall be paid into the treasury to the credit of said appropriation. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5393. [4218a] Certain locations validated.—The titles to all lands located by virtue of certificates issued to railroad companies in whole or in part for sidings, switches or turnouts, and which lands were transferred by any of said companies, or their duly appointed receivers or assigns, prior to the first day of January, A. D. 1891, to purchasers in actual good faith for value, and are now owned by such purchasers, their heirs or assigns, be and the same are hereby validated to such purchasers, their heirs or assigns, and also to all actual settlers on such lands so far as the state may have any claim, and that the titles to all public free school, university, or asylum lands located by virtue of such certificates are also validated, whether the locations were voidable or not by reason of their having been made by the wrong surveyor; provided, that this article shall not apply to lands for the recovery of which suit has already been instituted by the state, nor be construed to validate locations made on lands that were at the time appropriated or reserved from such locations, nor shall it be construed to in any manner apply to or affect the rights of third parties heretofore acquired in good faith; provided, further, this article shall not apply or be held to validate titles in the following other cases:

1. Where said lands were transferred through foreclosure proceedings against such companies to trustees or mortgagees or other persons or corporations interested in mortgages on said lands, or who held said lands for such interested persons or corporations, and where the apparent title to said lands was still in said companies or their receivers or their transferees at such foreclosure sale on January 1, 1891, and have not been subsequently transferred to actual settlers on such land or to bona fide purchasers thereof for value and without notice.

2. Where said lands have been transferred by said companies in evasion and fraud of the laws of alienation applicable thereto and the title is now in the name of the original vendees of said companies. [Act of 1895, p. 36.]

Art. 5394. Failure to alienate, no forfeiture when.—The failure of any railway company or other original grantee of any valid alternate land certificate to alienate their lands or any portion thereof, granted to them within the periods specified in the laws under which said lands were granted, or by any other law of the state of Texas, shall not be deemed a sufficient cause for forfeiting such lands, or any part thereof, by the state of Texas; provided, it shall appear that such lands have in fact, by a bona fide sale, been already alienated to actual purchasers; and provided, further, that all lands now held by such original grantee shall be sold to actual bona fide purchasers on or before the first day of July, 1910, otherwise such lands as are not so alienated shall revert to and become the property of the state of Texas; provided, further, that all lands affected by this article shall be alienated in tracts not to exceed four sections to any one person or persons, and that no person, persons, or corporations shall make more than one purchase of said lands. [Act 1903, p. 130.]

Art. 5395. Must alienate within what time.—Any railway company which has in any manner whatsoever acquired title to or interest in any land in this state, not required in the construction, operation or repair of its railway, or for yards, stations, or other facilities, shall alienate the same in good faith on or before the first day of July, 1910, otherwise the same shall be forfeited to the state at the suit of the attorney general. [Id.]

Art. 5396. [4274] Surplus segregated from public domain, when.—Surveys and blocks of surveys made by virtue of valid alternate scrip be and the same are hereby declared to segregate from the mass of the public domain all land embraced in said surveys, or blocks of surveys, as evidenced by the corners and lines of same, or by calls for natural or artificial objects, or the calls for the corners and boundaries of other surveys, or by the maps and other records in the general land office. [Acts of 1889, p. 104.]

Art. 5397. [4275] Belong to public free school fund.—All excess in said surveys are donated and declared to belong to the public free school fund of the state; and it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office to ascertain, by any and all means practicable, the existence and extent of such excesses, and to provide for and direct such surveys, or corrected surveys, as may be necessary for this purpose; provided, that, where such surveys were made in blocks of two or more surveys, said respective surveys shall remain on the ground consecutively as placed therein, as shown by the maps, sketches and field-notes originally returned to the general land office; provided, that the person who has already purchased, or who may hereafter purchase from the state the particular section to which surplus shall by such resurvey be made contiguous, shall have the prior right for the period of six months after such resurvey shall have been made, in which to purchase such excess on the same terms on which such purchaser has already bought or may buy. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5398. [4276] Excess to be added.—All such surveys which, under the direction of the commissioner of the general land office have been or may be hereafter corrected, so that all excess in the original surveys shall be placed in the surveys belonging to the public free schools, are hereby validated, and the action of the commissioner is hereby ratified; and he is directed and authorized to issue patents to the owners thereof, and to sell such surveys belonging to the public free schools, securing to the state the benefit of such excesses. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5399. [4277] Shall not affect.—The provisions of this law shall not apply to nor affect the rights of the third persons heretofore acquired in good faith. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5400. [4278] Conflicts.—Nothing in the preceding four articles shall apply to any lands for which patents have been issued. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5401. [4279] Even numbered surveys in conflict, etc.—Where the common school or even numbered surveys in conflicting locations, made by virtue of alternate land certificates, are not identical or upon the same land, the commissioner of the general land office may, where he deems it to the interest of the state to do so, change the numbers of the surveys in the conflicting locations so as to make the common school or even numbered surveys in both locations identical; provided, that the commissioner of the general land office shall not change the numbers of surveys without the written consent of the owner of the certificates by virtue of which said surveys are made. [Acts of 1889, p. 104.]

Art. 5402. [4271] Land, how sold and proceeds invested.—Each county may sell or dispose of the lands granted to it for educational purposes in such manner as may be provided by the commissioners' court of such county; and the proceeds of any such sale shall be invested in bonds of the state of Texas, or of the United States, and held by such county alone as a trust for the benefit of public free schools therein, only the interest thereon to be used and expended annually. [Id.]

Art. 5403. [4272] Actual settlers to have preference.—In any sale of county school lands, under the provisions of the preceding article, the actual settlers residing on said lands shall be protected in the prior right of purchasing the same to the extent of their settlement, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, at the price fixed by the commissioners' court, which price shall not include the value of existing improvements made thereon by such settlers. [Id.]

Art. 5404. [4159c] Land purchase money refunded, when.—Upon proper proof being made to the comptroller that money has been in good faith paid into the state treasury upon lands for taxes, lease and purchase money, for which, on account of conflicts, erroneous surveys, or illegal sales, patents can not legally issue, or upon lands which patents have issued and have been or may hereafter be legally canceled, the comptroller is hereby authorized to issue his warrant for the amount so paid into the treasury in favor of the parties who have in good faith paid such money, for which they receive no consideration; provided, that this article shall not apply to surveys, the errors in which may be corrected; and provided, further, that whenever the official records of the general land office shall show that patents for such lands can not legally issue upon such surveys, on account of conflicts, erroneous or illegal sales; or that patents issued on such lands have been legally canceled, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to issue his certificate to that effect, which certificate filed with the comptroller shall be sufficient proof to authorize him to act under the provisions hereof. [Id. p. 162.]

Article 5405. [4218b] Sale and lease of public lands provided for.—All lands set apart for the benefit of the public free schools, the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, and the orphan asylum shall be sold and leased under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1895, p. 63.]

Art. 5406. [4218c] Duties of commissioner of the general land office.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby vested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion of all matters pertaining to the sale and lease of said lands, and their protection from free use and occupancy and from unlawful enclosure, with such exceptions and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the provisions of this chapter, or by the constitution of the state. He shall, as soon as practicable, adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution or this chapter as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, and may from time to time alter or amend such regulations so as to protect the public interest; but all regulations shall be submitted to the governor for his approval before adoption or promulgation. He shall adopt all necessary forms of applications for sales or leases, and all other forms necessary or proper for the transaction of the business imposed upon him by this chapter, and may, from time to time, call upon the attorney general to prepare such forms; and it shall be the duty of that officer to furnish the commissioner of the general land office with such advice and legal assistance as may be requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this chapter; and it shall be the duty of such commissioner to call upon the attorney general for advice whenever there is any doubt as to the meaning of this chapter, or any provisions thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5407. Classification and valuation.—The commissioner of the general land office may, from time to time, as the public interest may require, classify or reclassify, value or revalue, any of the lands set apart for the benefit of the public free school, lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum and the orphan asylum, designating the same as agricultural, grazing, or timbered land, according to the fact in the particular case; and he may prescribe such regulations in relation thereto as he may deem necessary to secure a correct classification; provided, all agricultural lands shall be sold at not less than one dollar and fifty cents per acre, and all grazing lands shall be sold at not less than one dollar per acre. He may also reclassify any lands heretofore erroneously classified, upon the official certificate of the commissioners' court of the county in which said land is situated, or of the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes, certifying what the proper classification should be, said certificate to be signed by the entire commissioners' court, including the county judge, or upon such other evidence as may be satisfactory to the commissioner. And it shall be his duty to notify in writing the county clerk of each county the classification and valuation affixed upon each section of land in his county, and each county attached to it for judicial purposes; and he shall forward the same to the county clerk of the county for which said list was made, or to the county clerk of the county to which the said county is attached for judicial purposes. The said commissioner shall also notify said clerk of each and every sale as soon as they are made. Upon receipt of said list, or any notice required to be given under the provisions of this act, the county clerk receiving the same shall forthwith file and record said list or notice in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose. When informed of the sale of any land, the clerk shall enter on his books, opposite the description of the land so sold, the name of the purchaser and the date sold, and the said list and notice of sale so furnished the said clerk, and the said books shall be considered public records, and be open to public inspection; and it is hereby made the duty of the county clerk to exhibit the said book and the records to any person who shall apply therefor. When any portion of said land has been classified to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the general land office, under the provisions of this chapter, such land shall be subject to sale, but to actual settlers only, except where otherwise provided by law; provided, that the purchaser shall not include in his purchase more than two sections of agricultural land. [Act 1905, p. 159, sec. 1. Art. 4218e, Act 1895, amended Act 1897, p. 184. Art. 4218b, Act 1895. Art. 4218e, Act 1895, amended Act 1897, p. 184. Act of 1905, p. 159, part of sec. 1. Art. 4218f, Act 1895.]

Art. 5408. Advertisement of land.—In cases where lands may be leased and the same shall come on the market by reason of the expiration of such lease, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to notify the county clerk ninety days, when practicable, before the expiration of such lease of the date of such expiration. When a lease is for any cause canceled, he shall notify the county clerk of that fact and fix a date not less than ninety days thereafter on and after which applications to purchase may be filed. All notices of expiration and cancellation of leases shall be forthwith recorded as required for notices of classification and valuation. The commissioner shall adopt such means as may be at his command that will give the widest publicity as to when land will be on the market for sale by reason of expiration of any lease. Such publicity shall, when practicable, be given ninety days in advance of such expiration. When a lease is canceled for any cause, the land shall not be for sale until ninety days thereafter. Immediately after the cancellation of a lease or leases the commissioner shall proceed to give publicity to the fact, the same as is herein required with reference to publicity of expiring leases. If there are no other satisfactory or sufficient means at the command of the commissioner that will give the necessary publicity, he shall have printed at the expense of the state, to be paid out of the appropriation for public printing, a list or lists of the lands, and send them out in the mail and to every person requesting them. Such lists shall also contain a brief statement as to how one shall proceed to purchase the land. [Acts 1905, p. 159, sec. 2.]

Art. 5409. [4218g] Sales by commissioner, how made.—The purchaser shall transmit to the land commissioner one-fortieth of the aggregate purchase money for the particular tract of land, together with his application, affidavit and his obligation to the state, duly executed, binding the purchaser to pay to the state on the first day of November of each year thereafter, until the whole purchase money is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price, with interest at the rate of three or five per cent per annum, according to his purchase, on the whole unpaid purchase money, which interest shall also be payable on the first day of November of each year; and, upon receipt of one-fortieth of the purchase money, and the affidavit and obligation aforesaid, by the commissioner, the sale shall be deemed and held effective from the date the application, affidavit and obligation are filed in the general land office. [Acts 1895.]

Art. 5410. Actual settlers, applications.—All sales shall be made by the commissioner of the general land office, or under his direction. Any person desiring to purchase any of the surveyed land mentioned in this chapter shall make a separate application in writing for each tract applied for and be addressed to the commissioner of the general land office. It shall sufficiently designate the tract sought to be purchased, and give the price offered therefor, which shall not be less than the appraised value fixed by the commissioner. Each application shall contain the affidavit of the applicant to the effect that he desires to purchase the land for a home, or as additional to the home applied for, or as additional to his own land which has been theretofore purchased from the state, or as additional to his own private land, as the case may be, and that he is or will, as the case may be, in good faith, become in person an actual bona fide settler on some portion of the land he purchases, or upon his other land, as the case may be, within ninety days from the date his application is accepted, also that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is directly or indirectly interested in the purchase thereof; also every application shall be accompanied by the obligation of the applicant in a sum equal to the amount of the deferred payment offered for the land. Said application, affidavit and obligation shall be filed in the land office through due course of mail and not by any one in person, in an envelope addressed to the commissioner of the general land office at

Austin, Texas; and, when the land is to come on the market at some future date, the envelope shall have endorsed thereon as follows: "Application to buy land; Sections, Block, Grantee, County, Date on market," and the blanks shall be properly filled out. When the envelope so endorsed is received in the land office, it shall be safely and securely kept and preserved by the commissioner, or his chief clerk, without being opened until the day following the date endorsed thereon as to when the land comes on the market, and one or both of them shall begin at ten o'clock a. m., on the day following the day the land comes on the market, to open the envelopes for inspection of the applications, and such action as is herein provided for, and in the presence of the applicants, if they desire to be present, or in the presence of such person as they may designate to represent them; and said applications shall immediately be filed, together with all other applications received up to that time for the same land. [Acts 1905, p. 159, sec. 3.]

Art. 5411. Cash payments, how remitted.—Such applicants shall transmit with their applications the required first payment in the form of money or remittance collectible on demand in Austin, and convertible at par into money on the order of the state treasurer, without liability; provided, that, should a remittance be made payable to the commissioner of the general land office, such payment shall not be invalid for that reason, but the commissioner shall endorse it to the state treasurer without incurring liability and the same shall be treated as if payable to the treasurer. If the payment is not made as required in this article, the application shall be void. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5412. Remittances, how accounts kept.—When an envelope enclosing an application to purchase land is opened and the remittance for the first payment is in the general land office, the commissioner shall cause such remittance to be listed in triplicate daily, and in such form as to show the purpose and amount of each remittance, the name and address of the applicant, and transmit the remittance and two of the lists to the treasurer. On receipt thereof, the treasurer shall check the remittances with the lists, and, if found to be correct, he shall receipt one of the lists and return it to the commissioner and retain the other list; and thereupon the commissioner shall deliver the third list retained by him to the comptroller of public accounts. The treasurer shall at once collect all collectible remittances and report to the commissioner and comptroller all remittances not collectible in Austin. The items not collected shall be returned to the commissioner, and the application for which such remittances were made shall be void. All first payments thus collected by the treasurer shall be retained by him until he receives notice from the commissioner of the final disposition of the applications to purchase; and thereupon he shall at once return to each applicant the amount shown to have been paid on his rejected applications. A duplicate of the notice to the treasurer of accepted and rejected applications and the amount of first payment shall be transmitted to the comptroller. On the last working day of each month, the treasurer shall deposit in the treasury to the credit of the proper fund the sum collected by him on accepted applications during that month. [Id.]

Art. 5413. Awards, how made; notice and accounts of.—Notices of awards shall be prepared and issued by the commissioner, and shall be appropriately numbered, and shall be so worded as to constitute a receipt for first payment when signed as such by the commissioner. Books shall be prepared containing two copies of the notice of award and a suitable number of coupons to be used by the applicant in making subsequent payments on the land. The notice of award shall be prepared in duplicate, one to be detached from the book and retained in the land office, the other, with the coupons attached, to be sent to the applicant. The coupons in each book shall be prepared in duplicate, each of which shall be numbered with the same number as that on the notice of award. The form of the coupons shall be so prepared as to be suitable for, and shall be used by the remitter in making all subsequent payments on the land, the original to be so worded as to be used as a receipt for remittances when signed as such by the commissioner. The remitter shall describe each tract of land on which he is making remittance by properly filling in the blanks on both the original and duplicate coupons, and shall enter in the proper blanks the amount remitted as interest, and the amount remitted as principal, and both the original and duplicate shall be mailed to the commissioner with the remittance. The commissioner shall likewise furnish former purchasers with similar coupon books, without notice of award, which coupon shall be used by them in the same manner as herein provided when making remittances for interest or principal, or both. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5414. Remittances, disposition of and accounts of.—All accounts with purchasers and lessees of the lands mentioned in the preceding articles and university land shall be kept in the general land office. A remittance payable to the commissioner of the general land office shall not be invalid for that reason, but he shall endorse it to the treasurer without incurring liability. Immediately on receipt thereof the commissioner shall list in triplicate, separate from first payments, all money and other forms of remittances received for the purposes stated in this article and in such form as to show the amount of each remittance, the name and address of the remitter, and the probable fund to which the remittance should be deposited. The remittances and two of the lists aforesaid shall be transmitted to the treasurer. On receipt thereof, the treasurer shall check the remittances with the list, and if found to be correct he shall receipt one of the lists and return it to the commissioner and retain the other list, and thereupon the commissioner shall deliver the third list retained by him to the comptroller. The treasurer shall at once collect all collectible remittances and report to the commissioner and comptroller all remittances not collectible in Austin. The items not collected shall be returned to the commissioner. On the last working day of each month, the treasurer shall deposit into the treasury to the credit of the proper fund, as indicated by the lists theretofore furnished him by the commissioner, eighty per cent of all collections which have come into his hands during that month upon such lists, and hold the remaining twenty per cent thereof upon deposit receipts issued therefor by the comptroller; provided, when the commissioner shall have issued receipts to the remitters for remittances, he shall immediately notify the comptroller and treasurer definitely the fund or funds to which the whole of such remittances so receipted for should have been applied; and thereupon the treasurer shall deposit to the credit of the proper fund or funds the remaining twenty per cent of such remittances so receipted for. The commissioner shall furnish all available data to the state board of education when requested to do so by said board. The commissioner, treasurer and comptroller shall each keep an account with each fund mentioned in the preceding articles according to the lists and notices given and received by them. [Id.]

Art. 5415. Purchaser's name to be given; permanent records to be kept.—Persons making payments of interest, principal or lease rentals on land shall give the name of the original purchaser or lessee and sufficiently designate the land. All lists and notices provided in the preceding articles, to be given by the commissioner to the treasurer and comptroller, shall be retained in each of those departments as permanent records thereof. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5416. Award and settlement.—When the applications and obligations aforesaid have been filed in the general land office, and upon inspection they are found correct and the land is found to be classified and valued, and on the market for sale the day the application was filed or on any prior date and still unsold, and the first payment made as required by law, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to award the land to the one offering the highest price therefor. If two or more applicants offer the same price for the same land, the same being the highest price offered, they shall be advised of that fact and a date fixed not less than thirty days thereafter within which time they may again file applications, and notice shall be sent to the clerk and other publicity shall be given that said lands are still on the market to any one, and the time in which applications to purchase the same may be filed as in the first instance. The applicant offering the highest price shall receive the award. If the second or subsequent applications should be found to offer the same price, the procedure shall be as in the first instance. An application at a less price than the former application contained shall not be considered. An application to purchase land coming on the market at some future date shall not be considered for award prior to the day next following the day the land comes on the market for sale. Land that is or may be on the market, and not filed on as herein provided, may be filed on and sold to any one at any time upon proper applications filed in the land office as herein provided, and in accordance with law, except the envelope enclosing the application shall not be required to have any memorandum thereon, and, if two or more applications should be filed the same day for the same land, the one offering the highest price shall be accepted, but, if two or more such applicants should offer the same price, the commissioner shall proceed as herein provided for in the first filing. All sales shall date from the day the successful applicant's application was filed in the land office. The applicant shall have ninety days from the date of the acceptance of his application within which to actually settle upon the land so purchased; and he shall within thirty days after the expiration of said ninety days given within which to make settlement, file in the land office his affidavit that he has in good faith actually in person settled upon the land purchased by him. Should the applicant fail to make and file the affidavit and proof of settlement as herein provided within the time specified, the commissioner of the general land office shall indorse that fact upon his application, cancelling the same, and immediately place the same upon the market by notice to the clerk, fixing a date not less than thirty days thereafter when applications may be filed for the purchase thereof; and any sum which may have been paid upon a former application, canceled as aforesaid, shall be forfeited to the fund to which the same belonged. All sums paid in by an unsuccessful applicant shall be returned to him. Provided, if for any cause a designated home tract can not be awarded to an applicant and there be no other obstacle to the award of one or more tracts as additional thereto, such applicant shall be permitted, without prejudice, to designate one of the additional tracts as a home tract, which shall, with such other tracts as he has applied for and are within five miles thereof, be awarded to the applicant. The commissioner shall advise the applicant why he can not award to him the home tract and request a new designation by his affidavit; and, in default of such affidavit being filed in the land office within thirty days after such notice, the commissioner may reject all the applications of such applicant, but, should no rights intervene, such affidavit may be considered at any time prior to a rejection. The affidavit shall be sufficient authority for the change of the home tract, and shall relate back to the date of the filing of the application in the land office. A purchaser may live on any tract designated as a home, or move from any designated home tract to any of his additional land, at any time during the required three years residence on the land. The applicant shall accompany the application aforesaid with his obligation to the state, duly executed, binding the purchaser to pay to the state at the land office at Austin, Texas, on the first day of November of each year thereafter, until the whole purchase price is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum on the whole unpaid purchase money, which interest shall also be payable on the first day of November of each year; and in default of the interest the land shall be forfeited as now provided by law. At the same time the applicant applies to purchase the land, he shall also deposit in the land office one-fortieth of the aggregate price of the same as the first payment thereon. A purchaser shall not transfer his land prior to his actual settlement thereon, and evidence of that fact filed as herein provided; and any attempt to so transfer by deed, bond for title, or other agreement shall operate as a forfeiture of the land to the fund to which the same belonged, together with all the payments made thereon; and when sufficiently informed of the facts which operate as a forfeiture, the commissioner shall note the fact of forfeiture upon the application and proceed to place the land on the market by notice to the proper county clerk and advertisement in the manner provided for canceled leases. [Acts 1905, p. 159, sec. 4.]

Art. 5417. To whom awarded, when application rejected.—If for any cause an application for land or timber which offers the highest price can not be accepted, those offering the next highest price and filed on same day shall be considered in their order of price until one may be awarded. [Acts 1907, p. 490, sec. 6e.]

Art. 5418. Eight section counties; complement of land.—One who has not purchased any land since April 19, 1901, may purchase, on condition of settlement, in the counties of Brewster, Crockett, Edwards, El Paso, Jeff Davis, Kinney, Pecos, Presidio, Sutton, Terrell and Val Verde, not to exceed eight sections of six hundred and forty acres each, more or less, which are wholly within said counties. One who has heretofore, or who may hereafter, purchase a complement as aforesaid, shall not purchase any more. One who has purchased or may hereafter purchase on condition of settlement four sections of six hundred and forty acres each, more or less, wholly or partly within any county other than those hereinabove named since said date, shall not purchase any more on condition of settlement. One who has purchased less than a complement, as aforesaid, may hereafter purchase in any county such number of sections as his lack of a complement in the county of the former purchase bears to a complement in the county of such former purchase. One who has heretofore purchased land on condition of settlement, which lies partly within an eight-section county and partly within a four-section county, shall be considered for the purpose of future purchase by him as having purchased in a four-section county. Every additional survey applied for shall be situated within five miles of the designated home tract, except the survey on which the lessee, who may apply [to buy] out of his lease, may have placed permanent and immovable improvements of the value of five hundred dollars, need not be within such radius. No survey shall be sold in any county except as a whole, notwithstanding it may be leased in two or more parts. [Acts 1907, 1 S. S., p. 490, sec. 6.]

Art. 5419. Settlement and residence.—All of the surveyed school land wholly or partly within the counties of Andrews, Brewster, Cameron, Crane, Crockett, Dimmit, Duval, Ector, Edwards, El Paso, Gaines, Hidalgo, Jeff Davis, Kimble, Kinney, La Salle, Loving, Maverick, McMullen, Midland, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves, Starr, Sutton, Terrell, Terry, Upton, Uvalde, Val Verde, Ward, Webb, Winkler, Yoakum, Zapata and Zavala shall be sold on condition of settlement as provided by this act and existing statutes, except tracts of one hundred acres or less shall be sold for cash. The land purchased by one, either for cash or on deferred payment without condition of settlement, shall not be computed against him in his purchase on condition of settlement. Every purchaser on condition of settlement shall in person reside continuously on either the designated home tract or on some portion of the land purchased as additional thereto, for three consecutive years next succeeding the date of the award of the home tract, or from the date of the award of the first tract, as additional to a home already owned, as the case may be, including the ninety days allowed to settle. The proof of such settlement and residence shall be made as now provided by statute. [Id. sec. 6a.]

Art. 5420. Limitations as to purchases.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby prohibited from selling to the same party more than one complement of four or eight sections of land, according to the county; and all applications to purchase land shall also disclose the prior lands purchased by the applicant from the state, if any, and the residence of the applicant, at said time; and, if it appear therefrom, or from the records in the land office, that said applicant has already purchased land aggregating four or eight sections, according to county, since April 19, 1901, his application shall be rejected; provided, this shall not apply to sales made to a purchaser and afterwards canceled as invalid for some reason other than abandonment, and where the purchaser himself was not at fault. [Acts 1901, p. 292, sec. 3.]

Art. 5421. Right of lessees.—An original lessee of a lease executed prior to April 15, 1905, who has never parted with any interest in his lease, except by purchase, may purchase out of such lease in whole surveys only one complement of sections, or such part thereof as will make his total purchase since April 19, 1901, not to exceed eight or four sections, according to the county; provided, an original lessee who has not heretofore exercised his right to buy one complement of sections out of one or more leases and should not hereafter desire to do so, may assign one or more leases to a qualified purchaser, and his assignee shall have the same right to purchase out of the leases one complement of sections, or such number thereof as the assignor may be qualified to purchase, or such number as the assignee may be qualified to purchase; provided, that in case the assignment should have been made and acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments the assignee may exercise that right as provided for under the act of April 15, 1905. Only one complement shall be sold out of any lease, including that heretofore sold out of it. One who desires to buy land out of his lease shall first give written notice to the commissioner of the general land office, and specify the land he wants to buy not less than sixty days prior to expiration of the lease. The commissioner shall make, or cause to be made, an inspection of the land, if he is not already in possession of sufficient information, and appraise same at its reasonable market value, and advise such person and the proper county clerk of the value placed thereon. Thereafter the land shall be subject to sale to the lessee only during the life of the lease. After a lease expires or is canceled, no one shall have any preference to purchase any land contained therein. [Acts 1907, p. 490, sec. 5.]

Art. 5422. Sales without settlement.—The surveyed school and asylum land and the timber thereon situated wholly within any county other than those named in article 5419 shall be sold in whole tracts only, and without condition of settlement or limit as to quantity, and either for cash with the right to patent at once, or for one-fortieth cash with five per cent interest on the deferred payment, together with all the pains and penalties of forfeiture for non-payment as is now or may hereafter be provided by law. All applications for the purchase of land without settlement, and either for cash or on deferred payment, shall be in writing and accompanied by the affidavit of the applicant that he desires the land for his own benefit and not for any other person or corporation. When any such purchase is fully paid for, the land may be patented. No land on which there is merchantable timber shall be sold until the timber is sold for cash and fully paid for. Should two or more applicants offer the same price for any tract on the same date, the same being the highest price offered, and one should offer full cash payment and another should offer one-fortieth cash payment and balance on time, the application on deferred payment shall be accepted. Such of the land in the counties included within this section as is now sold, but which may hereafter become subject to sale, shall not be subject to sale until the former sale shall have been canceled and the land and timber, if any thereon, shall be reappraised by the commissioner, and a date fixed not more than sixty days from the date of such cancellation, when it may be subject to sale to the one offering the highest price therefor. Notice of such cancellation and reappraisal shall be mailed to the proper county clerk, together with the date when the land and timber, if any, will be subject to sale. [Acts 1907, p. 490, secs. 6b and 6e.]

Art. 5423. [4218] Forfeiture of purchase by non-payment of interest, etc.—If upon the first day of November of any year any portion of the interest due on any obligation remains unpaid, the commissioner of the general land office shall endorse on such obligation, "Land Forfeited," and shall cause an entry to that effect to be made on the account kept with the purchaser; and thereupon said land shall thereby be forfeited to the state without the necessity of re-entry or judicial ascertainment, and shall revert to the particular fund to which it originally belonged, and be resold under the provisions of this chapter, or any future law; provided, the purchaser of land prior to August 20, 1897, shall have the right, at any time within six months after such endorsement of "Lands Forfeited" to institute a suit in district court of Travis county, Texas, against the commissioner of the general land office, for the purpose of contesting such forfeiture and setting aside the same, upon the ground that the facts did not exist authorizing such forfeiture, but, if no such suit has been instituted as above provided, such forfeiture of the commissioner of the general land office shall then become fixed and conclusive. In any cases where lands have been forfeited to the state for the non-payment of interest, the purchasers, or their vendees, may have their claims reinstated on their written request, by paying into the treasury the full amount of interest due on such claim up to the date of reinstatement, provided that no rights of third persons may have intervened. In all such cases, the original obligations and penalties shall thereby become as binding as if no forfeiture had ever occurred. If any purchaser shall die, his heirs or legal representatives shall have one year in which to make payment after the first day of November next after such death, and shall be absolved and exempt from the requirement of settlement and residence thereon; provided, that all necessary and temporary absence from such land of such purchaser, for the time of not more than six months in any one year, for the purpose of earning money with which to pay for the land, or for the purpose of schooling his children, shall not work a forfeiture of his title; provided, further, that nothing in this article contained shall be construed to inhibit the state from instituting such legal proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such forfeiture, or to recover the full amount of the interest and such penalties as may be due the state at the time such forfeiture occurred, or to protect any other right to such land; which suits may be instituted by the attorney general, or under his direction, in the proper court of the county in which the land lies, or of the county to which such county is attached for

Art. 5424. Permanent improvements to be erected by purchaser; forfeiture.—Every purchaser shall be required within three years after his purchase to erect permanent and valuable improvements on the land purchased by him, which improvements shall be of the reasonable market value of three hundred dollars. If any purchaser shall fail to reside upon and improve in good faith the land purchased by him as required by law, he shall forfeit said land and all payments made thereon to the state, to the same extent as for the non-payment of interest, and such land shall be again upon the market as if no such sale and forfeiture had occurred; and all forfeitures for non-occupancy shall have the effect of placing the land upon the market without any action whatever on the part of the commissioner of the general land office; and, if any purchaser shall be forced to yield possession of the land purchased by him from the state on account of any writ or other judicial process issued from a court of competent jurisdiction, or be compelled to temporarily yield his possession from a well-grounded fear of death or serious bodily injury, such absence shall not work the forfeiture provided by law for non-occupancy; but no writ of injunction shall issue in any case involving the title or possession of lands herein referred to where the applicant has an adequate remedy at law by sequestration or otherwise. [Acts 1901, p. 292, sec. 3.]

Art. 5425. Forfeiture for failure to settle on land, etc.—One who has heretofore, or who may hereafter, purchase land out of a lease or otherwise on condition of settlement in the counties named in article 5419 and fails to settle thereon within the required time, or fails to file in the land office his affidavit of settlement within the required time, or fails to comply with the law as to residence on the land, or executes a transfer contrary to the provisions hereof, except those stated in this chapter as not being void, he shall forfeit the land and all payments made thereon to the fund to which the land belongs; and, when the commissioner shall be sufficiently informed of the facts which operate as a forfeiture, he shall cancel the award or sale by noting the act of forfeiture on the obligation, and mail notice of that fact to the proper county clerk. Such land shall not be subject to sale again at a less price than the former sale price, unless the commissioner shall have re-appraised the land at a less price after noting the act of forfeiture. [Acts 1907, p. 490, sec. 6e.]

Art. 5426. [4218ff] Forfeiture of home tract works forfeiture of other land, when.—When any purchaser buys and settles upon a section, or part of a section, of school lands, and buys, either at the same time or subsequently, other lands in addition thereto, a forfeiture for any legal cause of the part on which he resides, at any time before the three years residence thereon has been completed, shall work a forfeiture of the entire purchase, except such part thereof as he may have previously sold to another. But, after the three years residence has been completed, a forfeiture of the home tract shall not of itself work a forfeiture of the other tract or tracts. [Acts 1895, amended Acts 1897, p. 184.]

Art. 5427. [4218h] Terms of repurchase of forfeited agricultural lands.—The owner of land which is in fact agricultural, purchased prior to August 20, 1897, and which land is not subject to forfeiture at said date, shall not be permitted, in case said land is forfeited, to purchase said forfeited land from the state for a less price per acre than the contract price under the former sale. [Acts 1895, amended Acts 1897, p. 184.]

Art. 5428. [4218f] Purchasers prior to July 30, 1895; rights of under forfeiture.—Where any of the lands referred to have been sold prior to July 30, 1895, in quantities greater or less than forty acres or multiples thereof, and are in good standing as to interest payments, they may be patented in such quantities. Any owner of land purchased prior to said date, and which land has been or may be forfeited for non-payment of interest, shall have ninety days prior right, after the land is again placed upon the market, to purchase said land without the condition of settlement and occupancy, in case it has been occupied for three consecutive years as required by law; but, if not, then he shall reside thereon until the occupancy under the first and last purchase shall together amount to said term of three years; provided, that, when any forfeiture has been made, the commissioner of the general land office shall add to the appraised value of such land the amount of interest due thereon at the time of forfeiture, which shall be paid in cash with the first payment of one-fortieth of the appraised value of the land when purchased under the preference right to purchase given herein. [Acts 1895, amended 1897, p. 184. Art. 4218j, Act 1895.]

Art. 5429. Timber lands defined; regulations for sale of.—The commissioner of the general land office shall adopt such regulations for the sale of timber on timbered lands as may be deemed necessary and judicious, subject to the provisions of this chapter. By timbered lands is meant lands valued chiefly for the timber thereon. [Acts 1901, p. 296, sec. 8.]

Art. 5430. Same.—One who applies to purchase the timber shall file his application in writing in the general land office in the manner now provided for the filing of applications for the purchase of land, and pay to the land office the full cash payment according to the price offered therefor, but not at a less price than that fixed by the commissioner. Should two or more persons each apply to purchase the timber and land on the same day, and one should offer more for the timber but less for the land than a competitor, then the one offering the highest price for the timber shall have an option for thirty days, as now provided by law for designating home tracts, to take the land at the highest price offered by such competitor. Should the one offering the highest price for the timber not want the land at such highest price, but should want the timber, it shall be awarded to him. Should one who applies for both timber and land offer the highest price for the land, but a lower price for the timber, he shall have an option of thirty days as aforesaid to purchase the land, if it should not be purchased by the one who offers the highest price for the timber; but, should the one who offers the highest price for the timber and the lesser price for the land not want the land at such high price, nor should he exercise his option by purchasing the timber alone, then the land and timber shall be awarded to the one offering the highest price for the land, and next highest price for the timber. The commissioner shall appraise all timber at its reasonable market value, and it shall not be sold at a price less than that so fixed by him. Should two or more applications for timber alone be filed on the same day, the one offering the most therefor shall be accepted. All timber shall be sold in full tracts. The purchaser of timber without the land shall have the right of ingress and egress upon the land for a period of five years after date of award for the purpose of removing or protecting the timber thereon, and the purchaser shall be entitled to all the timber thereon for that period and no longer. After that time the title to the timber shall revert to the fund to which the land belonged and be again subject to sale by the state, unless the land shall sooner be sold and fully paid for and patent issued thereon; and in that event the timber shall revert to the owner of the land. The owners of timber heretofore purchased, which has not been removed and the five years in which to remove same or to purchase the land have not expired, but may expire on or before November 1, 1907, may purchase the land on that date at the price fixed by the commissioner and without condition of settlement, either for cash or on deferred payment, with five per cent interest as provided in this chapter for other purchasers without settlement. In case the five years do not expire before said date, only the owner of the timber shall have the right to purchase the land as herein provided at any time prior to the removal of the timber and within the five years allowed in which to remove same. Land on which timber has heretofore been sold, and the timber has been or may be removed, or the five years shall have expired and the land not purchased by the owner of the timber, shall not be sold until it is re-classified and re-appraised by the commissioner, and a date fixed not more than sixty days after such action for the sale thereof. Notice of such action and date fixed for sale shall be mailed to the proper county clerk. [Acts 1907, p. 490, sec. 6c.]

Art. 5431. Timber and lands sold prior to August 12, 1907.—The purchaser of timber prior to August 12, 1907, shall have five years from that date within which to remove the timber therefrom, and, in case of failure to do so, such timber shall thereby be forfeited to the state without judicial ascertainment; provided, that all timbered lands sold prior to such date, from which the timber has been cut and taken off, may be placed on the market and sold as agricultural or grazing lands, according to classifications to be made by the land commissioner; provided, that upon application of the purchaser or his vendees of any such timber made within five years from the purchase of such timber, the commissioner of the general land office shall have said land classified at the expense of the owner of said timber as agricultural or grazing land, and the owner of said timber shall have the right to purchase said land at the valuation fixed by said commissioner on the same terms and conditions as other lands of like classification are sold under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1901, p. 296, sec. 8.]

Art. 5432. Unsurveyed or scrap lands.—Any person desiring to purchase any portion of the unsurveyed school lands shall first make a written application to the surveyor of the proper county or district in which the land, or a portion thereof, is situated, signed and sworn to by the applicant, giving his postoffice address, and designating the land he desires by metes and bounds, as nearly as practicable, and stating that he desires to have the land surveyed with the intention of buying it, and that he is not acting in collusion with or attempting to acquire land for another person or corporation. It shall be the duty of the surveyor to file and record such application, and to survey the land and file the application and field-notes in the land office within ninety days from the date of the filing of the application, together with a properly prepared and certified sketch of the survey, with the variations at which all lines were run. The land shall be surveyed under the instructions of the commissioner of the general land office. The applicant shall pay to the surveyor one dollar as a filing fee, and his further lawful fees for surveying the land. When the surveyor returns the application and field-notes to the land office, he shall report under oath the classification and market value of the land, and also the timber thereon and its value, which may be considered in connection with such other evidence as may be required in determining the class and price to be given the land or timber. If, upon inspection of the papers, the commissioner is satisfied, from the report of the surveyor and the records of the land office, that the land is vacant and belongs to the school fund, and the survey has been made according to law, he shall approve same and notify the applicant that the land is subject to sale to him, stating the classification, price and terms, which shall be the same as that for surveyed lands, except as herein provided; provided, all unsurveyed vacant tracts not disclosed by the official maps in use in the land office at the time an application for the survey is filed, may be sold for cash, or for one-fortieth cash with five per cent interest on the deferred principal, and without condition of settlement and improvement, and with the right to pay the same out at any time and obtain patent; all unsurveyed vacant tracts which are subject to overflow, or situated in bottoms or swamps or otherwise so as to be unsuitable for settlement, may be sold for cash or for one-fortieth cash, with five per cent interest on deferred principal, and without condition of settlement and improvement, and with the right to pay the same out at any time and obtain patent; all unsurveyed vacant tracts not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, and not less than one hundred acres, which are disclosed by the official maps in use in the land office at the time an application for a survey is filed, and which are now or may be entirely surrounded by valid surveys or sold school surveys, shall be sold as a whole, and may be sold for cash, or for one-fortieth cash with five per cent interest on deferred principal, and without the condition of settlement and improvement, and with the right to pay same out at any time and obtain patent; all unsurveyed vacant tracts of one hundred acres or less shall be sold for cash only; all other unsurveyed vacant tracts disclosed by the official maps in use in the land office when an application for survey is filed, shall be sold on condition of settlement and improvement as provided by law for the sale of surveyed land; provided, that land heretofore or hereafter recovered by the state from claimants holding or claiming same under Spanish or Mexican titles shall be considered as vacancies disclosed by the official maps, and the person who in good faith so held or claimed such land under the claim aforesaid shall have a prior right for ninety days after the date of the final recovery of such land hereafter, to file on and purchase four sections of six hundred and forty acres each for cash, or for one-fortieth cash with five per cent interest on the deferred principal, and without the condition of settlement, and with the right to pay same out at any time and obtain patent. When the land is applied for and purchased under this article, without condition of settlement and improvement, the application to purchase shall otherwise conform to the requirements of applications for surveyed land, except as to settlement and designation of home tract. In all cases of the sale of any land on deferred payments and without the condition of settlement and improvement, as provided for in this article, the merchantable timber thereon, if any, shall first be paid for in cash. All land appropriated to the public school fund by the act of February 23, 1900, and which has heretofore been surveyed at private expense, may be sold under the provisions of this article relating to undisclosed vacancies and swamp lands. If within sixty days from the date of the notice of approval of any survey as herein provided, the applicant shall not have filed in the land office his purchase application at the appraised value fixed on the land, and in compliance with this article, such land shall be placed on the market for sale, upon the same terms and conditions as other surveyed school land. When any land, lying between older surveys, is held by the commissioner of the general land office to be unsurveyed or vacant land appropriated to the public school fund by the act of February 23, 1900, and is sold as such under the provisions of this chapter, and thereafter any suit arises between the owner or owners of such older surveys, and the purchaser from the state or his vendees, any final judgment rendered in such suit shall be deemed and held conclusive as to the existence or non-existence of such vacancy; provided, if in any suit judgment is obtained through collusion or fraud against the state, the same may be set aside and vacated at the suit of the state any time within five years thereafter. All unsurveyed tracts of six hundred and forty acres or less shall be sold as a whole, and all tracts of more than six hundred and forty acres shall be sold in such tracts as may be required or approved by the commissioner. No one shall hereafter have any preference to purchase any unsurveyed land, except as provided in this chapter for original lessees out of leases. All tracts containing one hundred acres or less, wheresoever situated, shall be sold for cash and without condition of settlement. All applications to purchase land under any preference right, which were filed in the land office prior to August 12, 1907, shall be accepted. No corporation shall purchase any land under the provisions of this chapter. [Act 1907, p. 490, sec. 8.]

Art. 5433. Minerals, gayule and lechuguilla reserved.—The land which is now or may hereafter be classed as mineral may be sold for agricultural or grazing purposes, but all sales of such land shall be upon the express condition that the minerals shall be and are reserved to the fund to which the land belongs, and such reservation shall be stated in all applications to purchase; provided, should any person who has no authority or right to do so cut or remove any mineral, gayule or lechuguilla from the land belonging to the public free school fund, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code, and in addition thereto judgment shall be rendered against the defendant in behalf of the state in a sum of money equal to the value of the substance so cut or removed, which shall be collected as under execution; and when collected, the money shall be remitted to the state treasurer and by him credited to the fund to which the land belongs. The commissioner shall adopt all the necessary rules and regulations for the execution of the several provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 490, sec. 6f.]

Art. 5434. Sale of gayule and lechuguilla.—The commissioner of the general land office may, with the consent and approval of the governor and attorney general, sell the gayule, lechuguilla, growing or found upon the public free school land, exclusive of timber. The sales may be upon such terms, conditions and limitations as they may deem most advantageous, having in view the protection of the interest of the school fund and the state. They may also enter into such contracts as they may deem wise for the purpose of having determined the commercial properties and value of any and all such material, and for such purpose they may enter into executory contracts of sale; provided, they shall not in such contracts cause the expenditure of public money nor incur any liability on the state. [Act 1907, p. 251.]

Art. 5435. Transfers.—One who hereafter buys land on condition of settlement shall not sell any part of such purchase prior to one year after date of award of the home tract, nor prior to one year after date of the award of the first additional tract purchased to a formerly acquired home, unless the required residence has sooner been completed. After the lapse of the time aforesaid, the purchaser may sell all of his land, or any part thereof, in whole tracts, according to his purchase, to another qualified purchaser, who will become an actual bona fide settler on some part thereof at date of his transfer, if the residence is not complete, and such assignee shall complete the residence on the land by continuous residence thereon as required of his vendor; and if the vendor does not sell all of his purchase he shall continue to reside upon his home tract, or on some part of that retained, until the completion of the residence required of him. A purchaser on condition of settlement under this chapter, or any former law, who may have the right to sell his land, or a part of it, may sell his whole home tract, or one or more of his additional tracts, as a whole, according to his purchase, to another purchaser who owns a designated home tract within five miles of each of such tracts as he may purchase as assignee, and the assignee may take each of the tracts as additional to his own designated home tract; provided, the total tracts so purchased by an assignee prior to the completion of the residence of the vendor, together with the former purchase of the assignee, shall not exceed one complement of sections. In such cases, the assignee shall continue to reside in person upon either his formerly designated home tract, or on one of his formerly acquired additional tracts, or on one of his additional tracts purchased as assignee, continuously until the completion of the residence required of him under his former purchase and that of his vendor. No tract hereafter purchased shall be transferred, except as a whole, prior to the issuance of patent thereon; but, should a transfer of less than a whole tract be made after the purchaser has the right to sell in whole tracts under the provisions of this chapter, such transfer shall not be void, but the owner shall not be substituted as assignee on the records of the land office. The failure to pay the interest on the whole of such tract shall operate as a forfeiture of every part thereof. [Act 1907, p. 490, sec. 6d.]

Art. 5436. [4218k] Lands patented, when.—Purchasers shall have the option of paying the purchase money for their lands in full at any time after they have occupied the same for three consecutive years; and when they have made such payment in full, together with the proof that they have occupied the land for three consecutive years, they shall receive patents for the same upon payment of the patent fee prescribed by law. Purchasers prior to August 12, 1907, may also sell their lands, or a part of the same, in quantities of forty acres, or multiples thereof, at any time after the sale; and in such cases the vendee, or any subsequent vendee, or his heirs or legatees, shall file his own obligation with the commissioner of the general land office, together with the duly authenticated conveyance or transfer from the original purchaser and the intermediate vendee's conveyance or transfer, if any there be, duly recorded in the county where the land lies, or to which said county may be attached for judicial purposes, together with his affidavit, in case three years residence has not already been had upon said land and proof made of that fact, stating that he desires to purchase the land for a home, and that he has in good faith settled thereon, and that he has not acted in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation, and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase, save himself; and thereupon the original obligation shall be surrendered or canceled or properly credited, as the case may be, and the vendee shall become the purchaser direct from the state, and be subject to all the obligations and penalties prescribed by law, and the original purchaser shall be absolved in whole or in part, as the case may be, from further liability thereon; and, if he or his vendor has already resided on his home section for three years, or when he or his vendor, or both together, shall have resided upon it for three years, the additional lands purchased may be patented at any time. [Acts 1895.]

Art. 5437. Same.—Land which has been sold by the state prior to August 12, 1907, and which has been or may be subsequently transferred in tracts other than in legal multiples, may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be so patented. [Acts 1905, p. 159, sec. 9.]

Art. 5438. [4218k] Payments and patents for town sites.—Whenever a town shall be located and established upon any lands sold under this or any former law, the purchaser or his vendee shall be permitted to pay the entire balance of principal and interest due the state upon such land and obtain a patent therefor at any time; but no such payment shall be permitted or patent issued until such purchaser or owner of such land shall file in the general land office a certified plat of such town, made by a surveyor, which shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner of such land, corroborated by the affidavit of five disinterested and credible citizens of the county, to the effect that a town, giving its name, has been located and established upon the land, and that there has been erected therein, and is being occupied by bona fide citizens, twenty business and residence houses, or either, or both. [Act 1895.]

Art. 5439. Application of railroad to buy, to contain what.—Any railroad company owning, operating or constructing a line of railway in this state, desiring to purchase any portion of the public free school, university or asylum lands in this state, under the provisions of this law and the succeeding articles, for the location and establishment thereon of town sites, depots, stations, yards, divisional terminals, shops, round houses or water stations, shall file with the commissioner of the general land office, if the land desired be public free school or asylum lands, and with the board of regents of the state university, if the land desired is university land, an application to purchase each tract so desired, supported by the affidavit of its president, vice-president or chief engineer, which application shall:

First. Describe by metes and bounds or otherwise sufficient to satisfy the commissioner of the general land office, or the board of regents of the state university, as the case may be, of the particular tract or tracts of land that it desires to purchase under the provisions of this law.

Second. Said application shall show that said land so applied for is desired and needed by said railway company for some one or more of the purposes for which the sale of such lands are authorized by this article, and that it is the intention of said railway company to speedily use said land for such purpose or purposes.

Third. That said application is not made for the use or benefit of any other person or corporation than the applicant, nor in collusion with, or in the interest of any other person or corporation whatsoever; and

Fourth. That said railway company applying for said land shall furnish the commissioner of the general land office, or board of regents of the state university, as the case may be, with a plat and map, together with the field-notes of each tract of land so applied for, if required by such commissioner, or board of regents, which plat and map shall accompany said application and affidavit. [Act 1905, p. 58.]

Art. 5440. Land, how sold and patent issued.—When any such application or applications shall be filed with the commissioner of the general land office for the purchase of public school land, or with the board of regents for the purchase of university land, under the provisions hereof, said commissioner, or said board of regents, as the case may be, shall investigate the matter therein set forth; and, if after such investigation, he or they shall be satisfied that the statements made in such application are true, he or they shall then determine and fix the fair and reasonable value of such tract or tracts of land, regardless of any lease thereon, unless the lessee should have two hundred dollars worth of improvements thereon, in which event the consent of the lessee shall be first obtained, and he or they shall advise the applicant of the price so fixed; and, if said railway company desires said land at the price so fixed, it shall pay therefor in cash to the state treasurer the price so fixed by the commissioner of the general land office, or said board of regents, as the case may be; and the treasurer shall give his receipt showing such payment, whereupon there shall be issued and delivered to the said railway company a patent for said tract or tracts of land, to be properly executed by the governor and the commissioner of the general land office upon payment of the patent fee therefor; provided, that no mineral land shall be sold under this law. [Act 1903, p. 127.]

Art. 5441. Limitations as to purchase.—The amount of land that may be purchased by any one railway company, or for any one railway company, under the provisions of this law, for the several purposes named in these articles, and the conditions and limitations imposed thereon, shall be as follows: If such land is desired for the purpose of the location and establishment thereon of depots, stations, yards, divisional terminals, shops or round houses, said railway company shall be permitted to purchase only such an amount of land as may be necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of said railway, which fact shall be determined by said commissioner of the general land office, or said board of regents, as the case may be; and, if desired by them, they may, for that purpose, have the advice and assistance of the engineer of the railroad commission of Texas; and, if said land applied for be desired for water stations at points on or near said line of railway where it is necessary to construct and maintain a dam and reservoir for the impounding of rain water, for the operation and use of said railway, sufficient land may be sold for such purpose as may be necessary for the proper construction, preservation and maintenance of such water station, not to exceed six hundred and forty acres for each water station. And, if said land be desired for the location and establishment thereon of a town site, not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres shall be sold for each town site. Provided, that, if any railway company shall fail to use said land so purchased by it under any of the provisions of these articles, for the purpose for which same was sold, within five years from the date of the patent for each tract of land sold, said land, and all improvements thereon belonging to said railway company shall revert to the fund to which it formerly belonged. And provided, further, that, if said land is sold for town site purposes, such tract must be at least eight miles distant from any other tract of land sold for the same purpose to said railway company, and, after such sale, no other tract or tracts of land shall ever be sold to said railway company, or its assigns, for town site purposes, adjoining said tract sold for such purpose. And provided, further, that if the land applied for be for the purpose of depots, stations, yards, divisional terminals, shops or round houses, the land applied for for such purposes must adjoin the line of road, railroad tracks or right of way of said railway company; and all lands sold for town sites must either adjoin said railway tracks, line of road or right of way, or adjoin land sold under the provisions hereof to said railway company for depots, stations, yards, divisional terminals, shops or round houses. And provided, further, that all lands acquired for town site purposes under these articles shall be in good faith placed upon the market for sale, and said railway company shall alienate the title to said land so sold to said railway company within the term of ten years after acquiring title to same. And provided, further, that, if said land be desired for a water station and reservoir for the impounding of rain water for the use and operation of said railway, each tract sold for such purpose must be within three miles of the line of road of said railway company, and must be at least eight miles distant from any other tract sold to the same railway company for same purpose; and, when said tract of land sold for water stations does not adjoin said line of road of said railway company, said railway shall have the right of way over any lands belonging to either of the funds mentioned in this act for its water mains from its said water station to its line of railway. Act 1905, p. 58.]

Art. 5442. Applications for less than 320 acres to particularly describe.—If any railway company desires to purchase any public free school land under the conditions and provisions of the foregoing articles out of any tract of such public free school land containing less than three hundred and twenty acres, it shall, in its application therefor, describe by metes and bounds, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the general land office, the particular portion of any existing survey which it may so desire to purchase, and such commissioner shall be and is hereby authorized to sell such number of acres so applied for, though less than the whole survey, under the provisions and conditions of the foregoing articles, but all sales of less than the entire tract shall be in eighty acre tracts, or multiples thereof. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5443. No actual settlement required.—This law shall not be construed to require any character of actual settlement to be made upon the land sold under its provisions previous to the sale and patent thereof, nor shall it be construed as in any way changing or modifying the present laws in relation to the sale of public free school, university and asylum lands of this state, except as provided for in the preceding articles. Whenever any land is sold to railway companies for the purposes mentioned in this chapter and shall be used for any other purposes than those mentioned in this chapter, then such land shall revert back to the state. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [Act 1903, p. 127.]

Art. 5444. [4218j] Regulations as to occupancy.—The commissioner of the general land office shall prescribe suitable regulations whereby all purchasers shall be required to reside upon, as a home, the land purchased by them for three consecutive years next succeeding the date of their purchase, except when otherwise provided. Such regulations shall require the purchaser to reside upon the land for three consecutive years herein mentioned, and to make proper proof of such residence and occupancy to the commissioner of the general land office within two years next after the expiration of said three years, by his affidavit, corroborated by the affidavits of three disinterested and credible persons, to be certified by some officer authorized to administer oaths; and on making such proof the commissioner shall issue to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, a certificate showing that fact. If any person has sold the whole, or any part of, his purchase under this or any former law, his vendee, or if he refuses to do so, the vendor himself, may make proof of occupancy as provided herein.

Art. 5445. Certificates of occupancy to be recorded, etc.—If a proof of occupancy has heretofore been, or should hereafter be, filed in the general land office, in accordance with the statute under which the purchase was made, or may be made, and it should be approved by the commissioner by the issuance of the certificate of its sufficiency, the said certificate may be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county or counties in which the land is situated, and shall thereafter be a muniment of title of the home tract and additional land purchased to such home tract. [Act 1907, p. 490.]

Art. 5446. [4218m] Coupling occupancy under second purchase to cure defects of first.—In all cases where persons have purchased, or may hereafter purchase, state, school or asylum lands under any act of the legislature authorizing the sale thereof and requiring a residence of three years thereon, and said persons have so resided upon said land, or may hereafter reside thereon, for the period of three years as required by law, and their files have been, or may hereafter be, canceled and purchases annulled by the commissioner of the general land office on account of conflict with other surveys, said persons shall have the right to purchase other lands of the classes mentioned in this article without being required to reside thereon. Persons desiring to avail themselves of the benefits of this provision shall make satisfactory proof to the commissioner of the three years' residence under their first purchase. [Acts 1895, p. 163.]

Art. 5447. [4218n] Vendees of original purchasers protected.—In all cases where any of the lands mentioned in this chapter have been sold prior to July 30, 1895, under any law authorizing the sale thereof, and the original purchaser shall have sold, or may hereafter sell, any part of his purchase in quantities of forty acres or multiples thereof, and the conveyance to his vendee or vendees is filed in the general land office after having been duly recorded in the proper county, the commissioner shall credit his account with the value of the land sold, and shall open up new accounts with the original purchaser and such vendee or vendees, and the commissioner shall patent said land to the owners thereof in quantities of forty acres or multiples thereof; provided, that when any of such land is situated within three miles of a county seat it may be patented in twenty acre tracts. [Id.]

Art. 5448. [4218o] Cemetery, church and school house sites.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized to patent in quantities of not less than one nor more than five acres any of the vacant and unappropriated public domain of Texas, or any of the lands mentioned in this chapter, as sites for cemeteries, churches or school houses. When the land is desired as a location for a school house, the patent shall issue to the county judge of the proper county and his successors in office in trust for that purpose; and, when desired for a church house or a cemetery, it shall be issued to trustees designated by those requesting the patent. If the land has been previously sold by the state and not patented, the owner thereof shall execute a deed therefor to the county judge, or trustees, as the case may be, and cause the same to be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the proper county, and to be filed in the general land office, and shall be entitled to credit on his account with the state for the value therefor. The value of the land and patent fee shall be paid to the commissioner of the general land office before patent issues. Such land shall be taken from the margin of a tract or section, or of a subdivision thereof, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 5449. [4218p] Accounts, etc., with purchasers to be kept.—The commissioner of the general land office shall retain in his custody as records of his office all applications, affidavits, obligations and all other papers relating to sales of said lands, and shall cause to be kept accurate accounts with each purchaser. All purchase money due upon lands, as well as accrued interest, and all other moneys arising from the sales or leases of said lands shall be paid by the purchaser or lessee direct to the land commissioner, who shall cause an accurate account to be kept with each purchaser. [Id.]

LEASES.

Art. 5450. [4218y] Commissioner may withhold agricultural lands from lease, when.—The commissioner of the general land office may withhold from lease any agricultural lands necessary for the purpose of settlement; and no agricultural lands shall be leased, if, in the judgment of the commissioner, they may be in immediate demand for settlement, but such lands shall be held for settlement, and sold to actual settlers only, under the provisions of this chapter. [Amended 1897, p. 184.]

Art. 5451. [4218r] Commissioner to advertise lands for lease, how.—All leases under the provisions of this chapter may be advertised by the commissioner in such manner as he may think best, and let to the highest responsible bidder in such quantities and under such regulations as he may think to the best interest of the state not inconsistent with the equities of the occupant. All bids and offers to lease may be rejected by him prior to signing the lease contract, for fraud or collusion, or other good and sufficient cause.

Art. 5452. Leases, how and when made.—Any person desiring to lease any portion of the lands belonging to any of the funds mentioned in this chapter shall make application in writing to the commissioner of the general land office, specifying and describing the particular lands he desires to lease; and thereupon the commissioner, if the lands applied for are subject to lease, and not in immediate demand for actual settlement, shall notify the applicant in writing who offers the highest price, that his proposition to lease is accepted; and thereupon he shall execute to the lessee in the name and by the authority of the state of Texas a lease of said lands for such time as may be agreed upon, not to exceed five years; and, when satisfied that the lessee has paid to the state the rent for one year in advance, he shall deliver said lease to the clerk of the county court of the county in which the land is situated, or of the county to which said county is attached for judicial purposes; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to record in a well-bound book kept in his office, open to public inspection, a memorandum or abstract of said lease, showing the number of the survey or surveys leased, the name of the original grantee, the amount leased, the name of the lessee, the date of the lease and the number of years it has to run; and for entering said memorandum the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents. Upon payment of said fee, the clerk shall deliver the lease to the lessee, and no other record of leases hereafter made shall be required, except said memorandum. When any of such leases are filed for record, the clerk shall make the memorandum or abstract above provided for. All lands which may be leased shall be subject to sale at any time, except where otherwise provided herein. This provision in regard to the sale of leased lands shall apply to leases heretofore made as well as to those hereafter to be made. Any section, or part of a section, which may be leased shall not be sold except to the lessee, nor shall the lessee be disturbed in his possession thereof during the term of his lease, when he has placed on such section, or part of a section, improvements to the value of two hundred dollars. [Acts 1901, p. 292, sec. 4.]

Art. 5453. Regulations as to leases in absolute lease districts.—The following counties shall constitute the absolute lease district, to wit: El Paso, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Reeves, Pecos, Loving, Winkler, Ward, Yoakum, Terry, Gaines, Andrews, Ector, Midland, Upton, Crane, Crockett, Sutton, Val Verde, Edwards, Kinney, Maverick, Zavala, Dimmit, La Salle, McMullen, Webb, Duval, Nueces, Kimble, Zapata, Starr, Hidalgo and Cameron. All tracts of land lying partly inside and partly outside of the absolute lease district shall be considered, for the purpose of sale and lease, as being wholly without said district. And lands situated in the absolute lease district which may be leased shall not be sold during the term of the lease, except as provided herein. On the expiration of any lease in the absolute lease district, the lands shall remain subject to sale for a period of ninety days, and, if it has been previously classified and valued by the commissioner of the general land office, and notice given to the county clerk, it shall not be necessary to give the clerk any further notice in order to put the land on the market, but it shall be considered as already on the market and subject to sale. During said period of ninety days, the commissioner of the general land office shall suspend action upon any application to lease said land, and shall award it upon any legal application to purchase made during said time. The party purchasing any of said lands, whether inside or outside of the absolute lease district, within the inclosure of another, shall not turn loose any stock within the inclosure until he shall have provided sufficient water for the stock so turned loose, and any violation of this provision shall be an offense, and, upon conviction, the party so offending shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code. If no application to purchase has been filed within ninety days after the expiration of the lease, then the former lessee shall have a preference right over any one else for thirty days thereafter to re-lease such lands, or any part thereof, but his lease shall run from the expiration of his old lease. In all cases where the lease is terminated under any of the provisions of this chapter before the expiration of the term of lease, the lessee shall have a pro rata credit upon his next year's rent or the money refunded to him by the treasurer, as he may elect. On the expiration of his lease or its termination under the provisions of law, or by a final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, the lessee shall have the right for the period of sixty days to remove any or all improvements he shall have placed upon the leased premises. No purchaser or other person than the lessee shall be permitted to turn loose within such lessee's inclosure more than one head of horses, mules or cattle or in lieu thereof, four head of sheep or goats, for every ten acres of land so purchased, owned or controlled by him and uninclosed. Each violation of the provisions of this chapter which restrict the number of stock which may be turned loose in such inclosure shall be an offense, and the offender, on conviction, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code. The commissioner of the general land office is hereby prohibited from renewing any lease before its expiration, as shown on the face of the original lease contract; and no lease contract shall be canceled, except in cases where the land has been, or may be, sold as provided by law, or where the lessee fails to pay the annual rental due the state within sixty days from the date it becomes due. And when the lessee shall fail to pay his annual rental within sixty days after it becomes due, the commissioner of the general land office shall cancel said lease, and immediately notify the county clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated, of the cancellation and the date when canceled, and the clerk shall note the date of cancellation on his lease record. [Act 1901, p. 292, sec. 5.]

Art. 5454. Expired leases; regulations as to.—When a lease expires or is canceled for any cause, the commissioner shall not consider an application to lease the land prior to ninety days from such expiration or cancellation, and no lease on any land shall be made if it is in demand by purchasers. An original lessee, or the assignee of an entire leasehold, who was such owner at the date of the termination thereof, shall have a preference to another lease of the land at the expiration of the ninety days over another applicant to lease, provided he is willing to pay and will pay as much therefor as another, after due publicity; provided, no lease shall be made at less than three cents per acre. [Act 1905, p. 159, sec. 7.]

Art. 5455. [4218t] Where lessees secure permanent water, rights of.—Any person desiring to lease any portion of the lands aforesaid on which no permanent water supply exists, shall notify the commissioner of the general land office in writing that he desires to lease lands, specifying and describing them, provided he can obtain the necessary supply of water by boring or otherwise, and that he will within ninety days lease said lands, provided such water supply can be obtained; he shall also make and file with the commissioner of the general land office his bond, with good and sufficient personal security, in a sum equal to one year's rental of the quantity of land applied for, payable to the state of Texas, conditioned that he will diligently and in good faith try to secure water on such land during such ninety days, and if secured will lease the designated lands for the term prescribed herein; and thereupon the commissioner shall for such ninety days withhold the lands thus designated from lease to any other person; within or at the expiration of said ninety days and annually thereafter such applicant to lease shall pay to the state of Texas, in advance, one year's rental of the land applied for by him; on satisfactory proof of which payment the commissioner shall execute and deliver to the lessee a lease of the said lands, signed by himself officially and attested by the seal of the land office, together with which he shall deliver up the bond of said lessee, marked, "Satisfied." If the said lessee shall fail to apply for his lease and make the payment aforesaid within said ninety days, and shall also within said ninety days fail to make proof to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the general land office within that time that he has in good faith and diligently used proper means and expended proper efforts to secure a water supply on such land and failed, then and in that case the commissioner shall mark said bond, "Forfeited," and shall deliver the same to the attorney general of the state, who shall at once cause the said bond to be sued upon and collected; and such collection shall become a part of the available school fund. The penalty stated in such bond is hereby declared to be liquidated damages, and judgment for that sum shall in all cases be recovered by the state. Proof satisfactory to the commissioner of the general land office that proper, suitable and diligent effort had been made by such applicant to secure water, and that sufficient water could not be secured, shall relieve the principal and sureties on said bond from all responsibility therein, and it shall be marked, "Satisfied," by said commissioner and delivered to the principal therein. No lease of less than four sections of unwatered pasture lands shall be made, unless such less number includes all unleased land in that vicinity belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter. Lessees or their vendees who shall have at their own expense secured water on their leaseholds in accordance with the provisions of this article shall, at the expiration of their lease contract, have the right to a renewal of their leases for another term of five years at the price then provided by law, by giving sixty days' written notice to the commissioner, as provided in the preceding article. [Act 1895, p. 63.]

Art. 5456. [4218v] Lease, how forfeited; lien on improvements for rents.—If any lessee shall fail to pay the annual rent due, in advance, for any year, within sixty days after such rent shall become due, the commissioner shall cancel said lease by writing under his hand and seal of office, which writing shall be filed with the other papers relating to such lease, and thereupon such lease shall immediately terminate. During the continuance of all leases, and after forfeiture, the state shall have a lien upon all property owned by the lessee upon the leased premises to secure the payment of all rents due, which lien shall be superior to all other liens whatsoever; and it shall not be essential to the preservation or validity of such lien that it shall be reserved in the instrument of lease. [Acts 1901, p. 29, sec. 5.]

Art. 5457. [4218w] Lessees may remove improvements, when.—All improvements made by lessees on lands leased by them are hereby declared to be personal property, which may be removed by such lessees on the expiration of their lease contracts; and they shall have sixty days after such expiration in which to remove the same.

Art. 5458. One year to assert right to leased or sold land.—All persons claiming the right to purchase or lease any public free school lands, or any lands belonging to the state university, or either of the state asylums, which have been heretofore, or which may be hereafter, sold or leased to any other person under any provision of the law authorizing the sale or lease of any of said lands, shall bring his suit therefor within one year after the date of the award of such sale or lease, and not thereafter. [Act 1905, p. 35.]

Art. 5459. Same.—If no suit has been instituted by any person claiming the right to purchase or lease any of said land within the period of time limited in the foregoing article, it shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of the law with reference to the sale or lease of such lands have been complied with; provided, that nothing in this and the preceding article shall be construed to affect the state of Texas in any action or proceeding that may be brought by it in respect to any of said lands. [Id.]

Article 5460. State land agents, appointment and salary.—The commissioner of the general land office, with the consent and approval of the governor, shall appoint two state land agents, who shall hold their office at the pleasure of the governor and commissioner, and receive a salary of thirteen hundred dollars each per annum. [Act 1899, p. 176, sec. 1.]

Art. 5461. Duties of such agents.—Such agents shall have the power, and it is made their duty, to investigate and make inquiries into and concerning the location, valuation and condition of any and all lands controlled or owned by the state; also concerning the free use, occupancy or inclosure of any of said lands without authority of law, and all depredations upon timber of said lands. They shall also procure and furnish information as to location and quality of such lands to all persons desiring to purchase or lease same. [Id.]

Art. 5462. Agents to make monthly reports.—Such agents shall make monthly reports to the commissioner or governor touching any and all matters investigated by them, and make such other reports and perform such other duties relating to such lands as may be required of them by the commissioner and governor. [Id.]

Art. 5463. May administer oaths; traveling expenses paid.—For the purpose of this law, such agents shall have authority to administer oaths. In addition to the salary of such agents, they shall be allowed their actual traveling expenses, not to exceed the sum of one thousand and five hundred dollars per annum, for the expenses incurred by both of such agents, the same to be allowed only upon the duly sworn itemized statement that said sum was actually paid and necessary to the discharge of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 5464. Suits to be brought.—When said agents shall have reported that any public free school, asylum, or other public lands is or has been used or occupied or inclosed without authority of law, or that any timbered land belonging to any of said fund has been or is being destroyed, or depredated upon to the injury of such land, or the detriment of such fund, the governor shall investigate same, and in his discretion direct that suit be instituted for the recovery of such sums as may appear to be proper under this law and article 5467, or he may transmit such documents as he may deem proper to the proper officer or court for the purpose of criminal proceeding, as provided for in articles 850, 851, 852, 853, 859, 860 of the Penal Code and neither of said remedies shall be exclusive of the other, but the one shall be cumulative of the other, and the state may use either or both remedies; provided, that this shall not repeal any pre-existing criminal law. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5465. Damages recoverable.—In civil suits, the amount of damage for use or occupancy, or unlawful inclosure, shall be not less than five cents per acre per annum. [Id.]

Art. 5466. Sums recovered, how appropriated.—All recoveries under the preceding articles shall be paid into the state treasury for the benefit of the available school fund, or to the fund to which such land, upon which such recovery is had, may belong. For the purpose of recovery herein, the state shall not be required to prove a continuous daily use or occupancy or herding or line riding by the defendant, or any one for him; provided, that, if any person who is so unlawfully using any of said lands will either buy or lease same, and pay the arrears due thereon, no action shall be begun or continued against him. This action shall apply to individuals or corporations. [Id.]

Art. 5467. [4218x] Suits to recover lands illegally occupied.—If the governor shall at any time be credibly informed that any portion of the public lands, or the lands belonging to any of the several funds named in this chapter, have been inclosed or that fences have been erected thereon without authority of law, he is authorized in his discretion to direct the attorney general to institute suit in the name of the state for the recovery of such lands and damages, and a fee of not less than ten dollars for the attorney when the sum recovered is less than one hundred dollars, and, when it is over that sum, the fee shall be ten per cent, to be paid by the defendant for the use and occupancy of the same, and the removal of such inclosures and fences; and such damages shall not be for a less sum than five cents per acre per annum during such occupancy. For the recovery by the state of all lands sold under the provisions of this or former laws which have been, or may hereafter be, forfeited to the state for any reason, and for the recovery of any money due the state on leases made under this or former laws, and for the recovery of damages for the unlawful use and occupancy of such lands, as provided in this article, or any former laws, jurisdiction is expressly conferred on the courts of Travis county having jurisdiction thereof under the constitution concurrently with courts of the districts in which the land is situated; and all such suits shall be instituted by the attorney general, or under his direction. In suits provided for in this article, the court shall issue a writ of sequestration directed to any sheriff of the state, commanding and requiring such officer to take such land and all property thereon belonging to the person or persons so unlawfully occupying said lands into his actual custody, and hold the same subject to further orders of the court; and the state shall not be required to give bond. Such writ of sequestration may be executed by any sheriff of the state into whose hands it may be delivered, and it shall be the duty of any sheriff into whose hands it may come to proceed and execute such writ. The defendant in such suit may replevy as in ordinary cases by giving bond as prescribed by law; and such cases shall have precedence on the docket and stand for trial before all other cases; and, in case judgment is recovered by the state in such suit, the court shall order such inclosure or fences to be removed, and shall tax the costs of the suit against the defendant; and all property found upon the land belonging to the defendant, not exempt from execution, shall be liable to the payment of such costs and damages in addition to the personal liability of the defendant. Appeals may be prosecuted from all judgments in such cases as in ordinary cases, except that the state shall not be required to give bond to perfect its appeal, and such cases on appeal shall have precedence over all other cases. If any person shall make a lease contract, and after the same is inclosed by fence shall for any cause decide not to continue payment of his lease, either in whole or in part, he shall give public notice by publication in any local paper having the largest circulation, for at least sixty days before the time in which his next annual payment shall become due, that he will not continue his lease after the year for which payment is made, and shall also state the number and block of the land which he will not lease inside his inclosure if he only intends to surrender a part of his lease, and shall post and shall keep posted for said sixty days notice on all gates of his pasture of such intention; then, and then only, he shall not be subject to the suit nor liable for the damages provided for in this article. [Act 1895, p. 63. amended p. 75. Act 1899, p. 176.]

Art. 5468. The attorney general to bring suits for lands.—When any of the lands described in this title, or any of the other public lands of the state held or owned by any fund, or any lands in which this state, or any such funds, have an interest, are held, occupied or claimed by any person or association or corporation adversely to the state, or to such fund, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute suit therefor, together for rent thereon, for any damages thereto; and for the purpose of any such suits for such lands, or affecting the title thereto, or right growing out of the same, the venue thereof is fixed in Travis county, Texas, concurrently with the county of defendant's residence, and the county where the land is situated; and the courts of said county shall have the same jurisdiction over the defendant and the subject matter of the same as if such defendant resided, and such property was situated, in said county. [Act 1900, p. 29, sec. 8.]

Art. 5469. Suit for mineral and timber depredations.—It shall be the duty of the attorney general of the state of Texas to bring suit against every person, firm, association of persons, or corporations, for the value of all minerals or other property of value taken from school, university, asylum and other public lands and for all timber which has been, or may hereafter be, cut, destroyed, sold, used or otherwise appropriated by them off of any such public lands. [Act 1905, p. 38.]

Art. 5470. Venue.—The venue of said suits shall be in any county in Texas, or in the county where the injury occurs, or a part thereof, or in the county of the residence of the defendant, at the discretion of the attorney general. [Id.]

Art. 5471. To report offenders to attorney general.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office and the county attorneys of the state to report to the attorney general semi-annually, or oftener if they desire, the names and residence of every person, firm, association of persons, or corporations, who have cut, used, destroyed, sold or otherwise appropriated any timber on the aforesaid lands or taken any minerals or other property of value therefrom, and such other data and evidence as shall come to their knowledge. [Id.]

Art. 5472. Attorney general may compromise.—The attorney general shall have power by and with the consent of the governor to compromise and settle with or without suit any of the aforesaid liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 5473. Money to be turned over to school fund.—Whatever sums are collected or received by the attorney general shall be turned over by him to the permanent funds to which they belong. [Id.]

Art. 5474. Attorneys' fees in such cases.—As compensation for said services, the attorney general and county attorneys shall receive the following compensation, respectively, to be paid by the defendant as part of the costs to be taxed against the defendant, to wit: The attorney general, ten per cent; the county attorney, five per cent of the amount recovered if recovered by suit, and if recovered by compromise, then said officers shall receive one-half of the above amounts, respectively; provided, that the county attorneys shall receive compensation only from cases reported by them to the attorney general. It shall be the duty of county attorneys to assist the attorney general in whatever way they may be requested in relation to such cases. [Id.]

Article 5475. [3235] Landlords shall have preference lien.—All persons leasing or renting lands or tenements, at will or for a term, shall have a preference lien upon the property of the tenant hereinafter indicated, upon such premises, for any rent that may become due and for all money and the value of all animals, tools, provisions and supplies furnished by the landlord to the tenant to enable the tenant to make a crop on such premises, and to gather, secure, house and put the same in condition for market, the money, animals, tools, provisions and supplies so furnished being necessary for that purpose, whether the same is to be paid in money, agricultural products, or other property; and this lien shall apply only to animals, tools and other property furnished by the landlord to the tenant, and to the crop raised on such rented premises. [Act April 4, 1874, p. 55. P. D. 7418c.]

Art. 5476. [3236] Tenant not to remove property, subject.—It shall not be lawful for the tenant, while the rent and such advances remain unpaid, to remove, or permit to be removed, from the premises so leased or rented any of the agricultural products produced thereon, or any of the animals, tools or property furnished as aforesaid, without the consent of the landlord. [Id.]

Art. 5477. [3237] When lien expires.—Such preference lien shall continue as to such agricultural products and as to the animals, tools and other property furnished to the tenant as aforesaid, so long as they remain on such rented or leased premises and for one month thereafter; and such lien, as to agricultural products and as to animals and tools furnished as aforesaid, shall be superior to all laws exempting such property from forced sales. [Id.]

Art. 5478. [3238] Does not apply to, etc.—Such lien shall not attach to the goods, wares and merchandise of a merchant, trader or mechanic, sold and delivered in good faith in the regular course of business to the tenant. [Id.]

Art. 5478a. [3239] Removal not a waiver, etc.—The removal of the agricultural products with the consent of the landlord for the purpose of being prepared for market shall not be considered a waiver of such lien, but such lien shall continue and attach to the products so removed the same as if they had remained on such rented or leased premises. [Id.]

Art. 5479. [3240] Distress warrant.—When any rent or advances shall become due, or the tenant shall be about to remove from such leased or rented premises, or to remove his property from such premises, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rents or advances are payable, his agent, attorney, assigns, heirs, or legal representatives to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the premises are situated, or in which the property upon which a lien for rents or advances exists, may be found, or to any justice having jurisdiction of the cause of action, for a warrant to seize the property of such tenant; provided, that when a distress warrant shall be issued by any justice, other than the justice of the peace of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside, such warrant shall be made returnable to, and the affidavit and bond upon which it is issued shall be transmitted by, the justice issuing such distress warrant to some justice of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside. [P. D. 7418d. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879. Acts of 1881, p. 98.]

Art. 5480. [3241] Oath and bond.—The plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make oath that the amount sued for is for rent or advances, such as are mentioned in the first article of this title, or shall produce a writing signed by such tenant to that effect, and shall further swear that such warrant is not sued out for the purpose of vexing and harassing the defendant; and the person applying for such warrant shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace, payable to the defendant, conditioned, that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages as he may sustain in case such warrant has been illegally and unjustly sued out, which bond shall be filed among the papers of the cause; and, in case the suit shall be finally decided in favor of the defendant, he may bring suit against the plaintiff and his sureties on such bond, and shall recover such damages as may be awarded to him by the proper tribunal. [Id.]

Art. 5481. [3242] Distress warrant, issued by whom.—Upon the filing of such oath and bond, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to seize the property of the defendant, or so much thereof as will satisfy the demand, which warrant shall be, if the same is within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, returnable to said justice; but, if the amount in controversy exceeds two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to the county court. If the amount in controversy exceeds five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, and does not exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to either the county or district court of the county, as the plaintiff in such writ may direct. If the amount in controversy shall exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, the writ shall be made returnable to the district court of the county. When the writ is made returnable to the district or county court, the justice of the peace shall transmit all the papers in said cause to the court to which such writ is made returnable, on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Art. 5482. [3243] Duty of officer.—It shall be the duty of the officer to whom such warrant is directed to seize the property of such tenant, or so much thereof as shall be of value sufficient to satisfy such debt and costs, and the same in his possession safely keep, unless the same is replevied as herein provided, and make due return thereof to the court to which said warrant is returnable, at the next term thereof.

Art. 5483. [3244] Defendant may replevy.—The defendant shall have the right at any time within ten days from the date of said levy to replevy the property so seized, by giving bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties in double the amount of the debt, or, at his election, for the value of the property so seized, conditioned that if the defendant be cast in the action he shall satisfy the judgment that may be rendered against him or pay the estimated value of the property, with lawful interest thereon from the date of the bond.

Art. 5484. [3245] Judgment against sureties.—When the property levied on has been replevied as provided in the preceding article, and final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant, such judgment shall be also against him and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such bond.

Art. 5485. [3246] Perishable property sold.—If the property is of a perishable or wasting kind, and the defendant fails to replevy as herein provided, the officer making the levy, or the plaintiff, or the defendant, may apply to the court, or judge thereof, to which the warrant is returnable, either in term time or vacation, for an order to sell such property; and, if any person other than the defendant apply for such order of sale, the court shall not grant such order, unless the person applying shall file with such court an obligation, payable to the defendant, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court, that they will be responsible to the defendant for such damages as he may sustain in case such sale be illegally and unjustly applied for, or be illegally and unjustly made, which sale shall be conducted as sales under execution. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 5486. [3247] Citation for defendant.—It shall be the duty of the justice of the peace at the time he issues the warrant to issue a citation to the defendant requiring him to answer before such justice, if he has jurisdiction to finally try the cause, and, upon its being returned served, to proceed to judgment as in ordinary cases; and, if he has not such jurisdiction, the citation shall require the defendant to answer before the court to which the warrant was made returnable, and shall be returned with the other papers to such court; provided, that, if the defendant has removed from the county without service, the proper officer shall state this fact in his return on the citation; and the court shall proceed to try the case ex parte, and may enter the proper judgment. [P. D. 7418f.]

Art. 5487. [3248] Petition.—When the warrant is made returnable to the district or county court, the plaintiff shall not be obliged to file his petition before suing out said warrant, but may file the same on or before the appearance day of the term of the court to which said papers are returnable. [Id.]

Art. 5488. [3249] Rights of tenant.—Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to prevent landlords and tenants from entering into such stipulations or contracts in regard to rents and advances as they may think proper; and, should the landlord, without any default on the part of the tenant or lessee, fail to comply in any respect with his part of the contract, he shall be responsible to said tenant or lessee for whatever damages may be sustained thereby; and, to secure such damages to such tenant or lessee, he shall have a lien on all the property in his possession not exempt from forced sale, as well as upon all rents due to said landlord under said contract. [Act Aug. 14, 1876, p. 137.]

Art. 5489. [3250] Tenants shall not sub-let without consent, etc.—If lands or tenements are rented by the landlord to any person or persons, such person or persons renting said lands or tenements shall not rent or lease said lands or tenements during the term of said lease to any other person without first obtaining the consent of the landlord, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5490. [3251] Owners of buildings to have preference lien, etc.—All persons leasing or renting any residence, storehouse or other building, shall have a preference lien upon all the property of the tenant in such residence, storehouse or other building, for the payment of the rents due and that may become due; provided, the lien for rents to become due shall not continue or be enforced for a longer period than the current contract year, it being intended by the term, "current contract year," to embrace a period of twelve months, reckoning from the beginning of the lease or rental contract, whether the same be in the first or any other year of such lease or rental contract. Such lien shall continue and be in force so long as the tenant shall occupy the rented premises, and for one month thereafter: but this article shall not be construed as in any manner repealing or affecting any act exempting property from forced sale. [Acts of 1889, p. 11.]

Art. 5491. [3252] Distress warrant, how obtained.—When any rent shall become due, or the tenant about to remove from such leased or rented buildings, or remove his property therefrom, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rent is payable, his agent, attorney or assignee, to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the building is situated for a distress warrant, which shall be issued on an affidavit and bond; and the same proceedings shall be had on the issuance, trial and return of such warrant as is now provided by law in this chapter; the object of this and the preceding article being to extend the operation of such law so as to include and protect liens on residences and storehouses and other buildings occupied or used by tenants, and conferring on the owners thereof the same rights and privileges as are now conferred by law on other landlords. [Acts of 1879, ch. 119, p. 128.]

		Proof of posting.....	5501

Article 5494. [3260] Notice of intention to apply for special law, etc.—Any person intending to apply for the passage of any local or special law shall give notice of such intention by having a statement of the substance of such law published in some newspaper published in the county embracing the locality to be affected by said law, at least once a week for the period of thirty days prior to the introduction into the legislature of such contemplated law. [Const., art. 3, sec. 57. Act May 23, 1876, p. 7, sec. 1.]

Art. 5495. [3261] Where no newspaper is published, notice, how.—Where there is no newspaper published in said county, a written copy of such statement shall be posted on the court house door and in five other public places in the immediate locality to be affected thereby in said county, for said thirty days, and such notice shall accurately define the locality to be affected by said law. [Id.]

Art. 5496. [3262] Notice in more than one county, when.—Where the locality to be affected by said law shall extend beyond the limits of any one county, such notice shall be given for each county to be affected.

Art. 5497. [3263] Affecting persons, where published.—Whenever any person intends applying for the passage of a special law which shall affect persons chiefly, and not directly affect any particular locality more than others, such persons, if residing within this state, shall make publication of notice of such intention in the county of the residence of such person in the same manner as if the said law was to affect such locality. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5498. [3264] Where applicant is a non-resident.—If residing without the limits of this state, said publication need only be made in a newspaper published at the capital, in like manner as if such person resided at the seat of government. [Id.]

Art. 5499. [3265] Details need not be embraced in notice.—It shall not be necessary to embrace in said notice the particular form and terms of such contemplated law, but a statement only of the general purposes and nature of the same shall be sufficient. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5500. [3266] Proof of publication in newspaper.—The publication in a newspaper at the county of the locality, or at the residence, or at the state capital, as the case may be, may be shown by the affidavit of the publisher, or one of the several publishers of such newspapers, accompanied with the printed copy of the notice as published. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5501. [3267] Proof of posting.—The posting on the court house door, and at five other public places of the county, provided for in this chapter, may be shown by the return of the sheriff or constable, or by the affidavit of any credible person made on a written copy of the notice so posted, showing the fact of such posting, and such proof or other competent proof of the giving of said notice shall accompany the introduction of every local or special law. Article 5502. [3268] General rules of construction.—The following rules shall govern in the construction of all civil statutory enactments:

1. The ordinary signification shall be applied to words, except words of art or words connected with a particular trade or subject matter, when they shall have the signification attached to them by experts in such art or trade, or with reference to such subject matter.
2. The present or past tense shall include the future.
3. The masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter.
4. The singular and plural number shall each include the other, unless otherwise expressly provided.
5. A joint authority given to any number of persons or officers may be executed by a majority of them, unless it is otherwise declared.
6. In all interpretations, the court shall look diligently for the intention of the legislature, keeping in view at all times the old law, the evil and the remedy.
7. Whenever one law which shall have repealed another shall itself be repealed, the former law shall not be thereby revived without express words to that effect. [Act Jan. 16, 1840. P. D. 4577.]

Art. 5503. [3269] Grammatical errors, etc., shall not vitiate.—Grammatical errors shall not vitiate a law, and a transposition of words and clauses may be resorted to when the sentence or clause is without meaning as it stands; and in no case shall the punctuation of a law control or affect the intention of the legislature in the enactment thereof.

Art. 5504. [3270] Meaning of certain words.—The following meaning shall be given to each of the following words, unless a different meaning is apparent from the context:

1. "Property" includes real and personal property.
2. "Person" includes a corporation.
3. "Written" or "in writing" includes any representation of words, letters or figures, whether by writing, printing or otherwise.
4. "Oath" includes affirmation.
5. "Swear" or "sworn" includes affirm.
6. "Signature" or "subscribe" includes the mark of a person unable to write.
7. "Justice," when applied to a magistrate, means justice of the peace.
8. "Preceding," when used by way of reference to title, chapter or article, means the next preceding.
9. "Succeeding," in like manner, means the next succeeding.
10. "Month" means a calendar month.
11. "Year" means a calendar year.
12. "Effects" includes all personal property and all interest therein.

---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 5506. [3272] Who may organize the legislature.—Those persons receiving certificates of election to the senate and house of representatives of the legislature, and those senators whose terms of office shall not have terminated, and none others, shall be competent to organize the senate and house of representatives. [Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 311, sec. 29.]

Art. 5507. [3273] Secretary of state to preside for purpose of organization.—For the purpose of organization, as provided for in the preceding article, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to preside at each recurring session of the legislature. [P. D. 5437.]

Art. 5508. [3274] Secretary of state to attend meeting and appoint clerk.—He shall attend at the time and place designated for the meeting of the legislature, and shall appoint a clerk, who shall have been chief clerk of the house the preceding session, if he be present, to take a minute of the proceedings. [Id.]

Art. 5509. [3275] The clerk to call counties in alphabetical order.—The clerk, under direction of the secretary of state, shall call all the counties in alphabetical order. [Id.]

Art. 5510. [3276] Clerk to administer oath.—When the counties are called and the members elect appear and present their credentials, it shall be the duty of the clerk, under the order and direction of the secretary of state, to administer to each the oath prescribed by the constitution. [Id.]

Art. 5511. [3277] All counties to be called whether election returns are made or not.—Should returns of election in any county for members of the legislature not be made to the office of secretary of state, the clerk shall nevertheless call such county. [Id. P. D. 5438.]

Art. 5512. [3278] Parties sworn in on any proper evidence.—Any person appearing at said call and presenting the proper evidence of his election shall be admitted or qualified in the same manner as though the return of his election had been made to the office of secretary of state. [P. D. 5438.]

Art. 5513. [3279] When quorum not present on day for meeting.—Should there not be a quorum in attendance on the day appointed for the meeting of the legislature, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state and clerk to attend from day to day until a quorum shall appear and be qualified as above. [P. D. 5439.]

Art. 5514. [3280] Election of speaker.—When a quorum shall have appeared and been qualified, the house shall proceed to the election of a speaker, unless a majority of the members present shall think proper to defer said election. [P. D. 5440.]

Art. 5515. [3281] Election of necessary officers.—When an election for speaker shall have been had, the speaker elect shall immediately take the chair, and the house proceed to its further organization by electing the necessary officers, to whom the speaker shall administer the oath of office. [P. D. 5441.]

Art. 5516. [3282] In absence of secretary of state, attorney general to preside.—Should there be no secretary of state, or in case he be absent or unable to attend from any cause, the attorney general shall attend and perform the duties prescribed in this title. [P. D. 5442.]

5520	5524

Article 5517. May administer oaths, etc.—In the investigation of any public officer elected by the legislature, or the qualified voters of the state of Texas, or of any nominee of any political party in said state for election by the legislature, or qualified voters thereof, to any public office in respect to matters or charges that reflect upon the personal or official integrity of such public officer or nominee, or that disqualifies, or tends to disqualify, such public officer to hold the office to which he has been elected or nominated by any political party, or any investigation of any other matter, or for any other purpose that may be ordered by the legislature of this state, or either house of such legislature, before any committee heretofore appointed by the legislature of this state, or by either house of said legislature, and now pending, or before any committee that may hereafter be appointed by the legislature of this state, or either house thereof, at this or any subsequent session, such investigating committee, and each member thereof, shall have full power and authority to administer oaths to officers, clerks and stenographers that it may employ in connection with the performance of its duties, and to any witnesses and parties called to testify before it; and said investigating committee shall have full power and authority to issue any and all process that may be necessary to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of any books, papers and other written documents it may designate, and to compel any witness to testify in respect to any matter or charge by it being investigated, in answer to all pertinent questions propounded by it, or under its direction, and to fine or imprison any witness for his failure or refusal to obey the process served on him by such committee, or to answer any such pertinent questions propounded; provided, that such fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars, nor shall imprisonment extend beyond the date of adjournment of the legislature then in session; and provided, further, that the testimony given by a witness before such investigating committee shall not be used against him in any criminal action or proceeding, nor shall any criminal action or proceeding be brought against such witness on account of any testimony so given by him, except for perjury committed before such committee. [Acts 1907, p. 6, sec. 1.]

Art. 5518. Sergeant-at-arms may serve process.—The sergeant-at-arms, or assistant sergeant-at-arms, of either house of the legislature of this state, or any sheriff or constable of this state, may serve any process that may be issued by said investigating committee, or by any commission by them appointed, for the attendance of witnesses who reside within this state; and, if such service is made by any sheriff or constable, he shall be allowed the same fees and mileage allowed for similar process by the district courts of this state in civil cases. Should said investigating committee so direct, any witness visiting or being within the state may be summoned before such committee by having a brief statement of the process issued for such witness transmitted by telegram to any sheriff or constable of the county within which such witness may reside, or is supposed to be, at the time such process may be issued. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5519. Special committee to take certain testimony.—Whenever such investigating committee before which any investigation, such as herein above defined, is pending, shall deem it necessary or advisable to procure the testimony of any witness or witnesses residing or being at a great distance from the city of Austin, within this state, or residing or being without this state, or procure the evidence contained, or supposed to be contained, in any books, papers or written documents without this state, such investigating committee may name, appoint and delegate any two of its members as a special commission to go to any such distant point or points within this state, or beyond the confines of this state, where such witness resides, or is supposed to be, or where such evidence may probably be had, for the purpose of procuring the testimony of such witness or witnesses, or of such evidence, and shall seek to procure the same as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5520. Notice of taking same to be given.—When such special commission as hereinabove defined shall be appointed and delegated by said investigating committee, notice thereof shall be forthwith given to the party under investigation, or his attorneys of record, and the point or points to which such special commission is directed to go, as far as may then be known, shall be stated in such notice, and the order in which such points are to be visited as far as may then be known; provided, that such special commission may visit any other point or points than those named by such investigating committee, if in the judgment of such commission necessary to procure such testimony or any other material testimony. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5521. Authority to issue process, etc.—Such special commission shall have authority to issue any and all process that may be necessary to compel the attendance of witnesses before them, administer oaths to witnesses, compel witnesses to produce before them any books, papers and other written documents designated in any process by them issued, and take the testimony of any witness in respect to any matters or charges pending before said investigating committee, and to compel any witness to answer any questions propounded by them, or under their direction, pertinent to such matters or charges; and, should said commissioners disagree as to the admissibility of any evidence to which objection is made, they shall receive the same, together with such objections, to be referred to the investigating committee for its decision. Whenever any witness is subpoenaed by said commissioners to appear before them, such subpoena shall state the time when and the place where such witness is expected to appear to testify in respect to such matters and charges; and reasonable time, to be determined by said commissioners, shall be given such witness to make his appearance and produce any books, papers and documents that he may be required by the process served on him to produce before said commissioners. Said commissioners shall employ an expert stenographer to take down all questions propounded to any witness and his answers thereto, whether said witness is examined before them or before some officer of the state in which such examination is being had as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5522. Judges and other officers may take testimony, when.—Said commissioners, if they elect so to do, may file with any judge of any court of record, justice of the peace, commissioner of deeds for the state of Texas, or notary public of the county and state where any witness whose testimony is desired may reside or be found, a brief statement of the matters or charges under investigation by the legislature of the state of Texas, or either house of such legislature, in respect to which the testimony of such witness is sought, the name of the witness and where he can probably be found, the reasons why such witness is believed to possess the information sought, and, when books, papers and other documents are accessible to such witness are desired, such a description thereof as will enable the witness to produce the same, and thereupon ask that such judge, justice of the peace, or commissioner of deeds, or notary public, shall summon such witness to appear before him with any books, papers, and other written documents that may be so designated, and testify in answer to any and all pertinent questions that may be propounded to him by said commissioners, or under their direction, in respect to said matters and charges. Any subpoena or other process issued by said judge, justice of the peace, commissioner of deeds, or notary public, shall state the time and place of holding such examination, and otherwise conform to the laws of the state in which the same is issued; and the examination of such witness shall be in the same manner and subject to the same rules of procedure as provided by law for taking the deposition of witnesses in answer to oral interrogatories and cross interrogatories under a commission issued upon agreements of the parties litigant by the district courts of the state of Texas to take the deposition of non-resident witnesses, except, that no notice shall be required to be given to any one other than the witness and the party being investigated by the legislature of the state of Texas, or either house of said legislature. Any process that may be issued by any officer without this state hereinabove named may be served by any sheriff, constable or policeman of the county and state in which such witness may reside or be found, and for such service shall receive the same fees and mileage as may be provided by the law of said state for service of process in the district or circuit courts of such state in civil cases. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5523. Process, by whom served.—Any process issued by said commissioners, or by any of the officers named in article 5522, when the same is to be served without this state, shall be served by any of the officers named in article 5522, by delivering a true copy of such process to the witness therein named; and such officer shall make his return on such service showing how and when the same has been served and service of process in this state shall be the same as service of similar process in civil cases in the district courts of this state. [Id. sec 7.]

Art. 5524. Testimony to be written, etc.—When any witness appears to testify either before said commissioners or any of the officers named in article 5522, the questions propounded and answers thereto shall be taken down by a competent stenographer and thereafter transcribed, together with all objections thereto, and shall be returned to the investigating committee to be incorporated in the record as a part of the evidence in such investigation, subject to the ruling of said investigating committee as to the admissibility of any evidence therein contained. Any officer named in article 5522 shall have power and authority to compel any witness appearing before him to testify in answer to any and all pertinent questions propounded; and upon the failure or refusal of such witness to testify such officer may fine or imprison such witness for contempt to the extent and as may be provided by the laws of the state in which such witness is examined. The commission provided for by this act shall have the authority to employ and have to accompany them not more than one attorney who is not a member of such committee and who is a citizen of the state of Texas, at the expense of the state, but shall not have the authority to employ attorneys who are not citizens of this state at the expense thereof. [Id. sec. 8.]

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 5525. Board, who constitutes.—The state levee and drainage board shall be composed of the governor, who shall be chairman of said board, the attorney general, and the commissioner of the general land office. [Acts 1909, p. 136, sec. 1.]

Art. 5526. Commissioner, appointment, qualifications, traveling expenses.—Said board shall have general charge of the work provided for in this chapter and shall appoint a commissioner to be known as state levee and drainage commissioner, who shall act as technical assistant and adviser to the board, and who shall be a thoroughly experienced and skilled topographer, and who shall serve without compensation from the state for a term of two years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified; provided, said commissioner, with the approval of the board, may be reimbursed for his actual and necessary traveling and station expenses while in the field in behalf of the state, and may be reimbursed from any money hereinafter appropriated to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5527. Duties of commissioner.—Such commissioner, with the advice and consent of the board, is authorized to confer with the director or representative of the United States geological survey, and to accept its co-operation with this state in the preparation and completion of contour topographical surveys and maps within this state, which are hereby authorized to be made; and the said commissioner, with the consent of the said board, is further authorized to accomplish an agreement for the co-operation herein provided for, and to arrange, on behalf of the state, the details of such surveys and maps as are necessary in the future work of planning and constructing levee systems and drainage, and such other public improvements as may be required to reclaim for agricultural uses the overflowed valleys of the following rivers within this state, to wit: Red river, the Sulphur river, Navasota river, the Trinity river, the Brazos river below Waco, the Little Brazos, the Colorado river below Austin, and the valleys of such other rivers as may be deemed advisable by the levee and drainage board to carry out the purposes of this chapter; provided, that similar surveys and maps for similar purposes may also be made of the marsh and swamp lands and overflowed areas in the coastal plain of this state; and the said board shall have the power to determine at what point such work shall begin and be continued. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5528. May co-operate with United States geological survey.—The commissioner, with the consent of said board, is authorized to expend in co-operation with the said United States geological survey for these purposes all or part of the money appropriated; provided, that the said board may accept or reject the co-operation of the United States geological survey at any time upon thirty days' notice. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5529. To confer with representatives of drainage districts.—It shall further be the duty of the said commissioner to confer in a technical capacity, from time to time, with the proper representatives of the several state drainage and reclamation districts, with a view to the adequate execution of proposed levee and drainage systems, and, with the approval of the board, to maintain within the state capitol for public reference duplicate or original copies of all final results of this survey, such as field-notes, maps, photographs, photolithographs and other estimates as are or may be of value to the people of the state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 5530. Commissioners' court to establish improvement districts.—The commissioners' court of the several counties of this state may hereafter create, establish and define one or more improvement districts in their respective counties in the manner hereinafter provided, and may, or may not include within the boundaries and limits of such districts, villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any portion thereof; but no land at the same time shall be included within the boundaries of more than one improvement district created under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 140, sec. 1.]

Art. 5531. Improvement districts may control levees, etc.—Such improvement districts, when so created, established and defined, may build and construct, or cause to be built and constructed and maintained, levees or other improvements on all rivers, creeks and streams within such districts, or which may border on the same, to prevent overflows thereof, and issue bonds in payment therefor, and the maintenance thereof, and levy and collect taxes for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon, as hereinafter provided, and may acquire, by grant, condemnation or otherwise, such levees or other improvements as may have been already constructed in such district. [Id.]

Art. 5532. Petition to establish district and issue bonds.—Upon the presentation to the commissioners' court of any county in the state of a petition signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers in the proposed district, or in the event there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district, then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers of such district, praying for the establishment of an improvement district, the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax in payment thereof, and setting forth the necessity and feasibility and proposed boundaries thereof, and designating the name for such, the name to include the name of the county, the said commissioners' court shall, if in session when said petition is presented at said session of the court, set said petition down for a hearing at some regular or special session of the court called for that purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the presentation of said petition, and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the filing of the said petition, and of the date and place of hearing, by posting written or printed notices thereof in five public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door of the said county, and four of which shall be within the limits of the proposed improvement district. Such notices shall be posted for twenty days prior to the time set for such hearing. Said clerk may depute some other person to perform such service, and the affidavit of such clerk or his deputy that such notices have been so posted shall be held conclusive thereof. Said clerk shall receive as compensation for such services one dollar for each of such notices and five cents per mile for each mile necessary to be traveled in posting same. Should said commissioners' court not be in session, at the time of the filing of said petition, it may be filed with the county judge of the county, who shall thereupon make and enter an order upon the minutes of said commissioners' court, setting said petition for hearing at some regular or special term of said commissioners' court, called for that purpose not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the filing of said petition, and shall order the clerk of the said commissioners' court to give said notice as is herein provided for in this article, and which notice shall be posted for the time and as is provided for in this article. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5533. Objection to creation of district, how made.—At the time set down for the hearing of said petition, any person who would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before the said court and contest or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony to show that the said district is or is not necessary and would or would not be of public utility, and the creation of said district would or would not be feasible or practicable. Said commissioners' court shall have exclusive or final jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the same; and said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all subsequent proceedings of said district, when organized, except as herein provided, and may adjourn hearings on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments, orders or decrees rendered by said court in relation thereto shall be final, except as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5534. Duty of court on hearing.—If, upon the hearing of said petition, it shall appear to the court that the improvement of said river or rivers, creek or creeks or streams within such district, or which may border on the same, to prevent overflows, is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed and would be a public benefit, then the court shall so find, and shall render judgment reciting such findings, and create and establish such improvement districts, and cause such judgment to be entered of record. But, if the court should find that the improvement of such river or rivers, creek or creeks and streams is not feasible or practicable, or that it is not needed and would not be a public benefit, then the court shall enter such findings of record and dismiss such petition at the cost of the petitioners. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5535. Engineer appointed, compensation, assistants.—Should the court render judgment establishing such improvement district according to the boundaries set out in such petition, then the court shall appoint a competent engineer, who shall receive a sum of not more than ten dollars per day for his services for the time he is actually engaged in the work for which he is appointed; and said engineer may, with the consent of the commissioners' court, or the county judge, employ such assistants as may be necessary, at such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, or the county judge. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5536. Engineer to give bond.—Before entering upon his official duties, the civil engineer shall enter into a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by and payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of the improvement district, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties under this chapter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5537. Duty of engineer.—Said civil engineer shall, as soon as practicable, go upon the lands and rivers, creeks and streams embraced in said district, or bordering thereon, and examine such river, creek or stream proposed to be improved by levee or otherwise, and make an estimate of the probable cost of making and completing such levee or other improvement, and shall also designate the river or rivers, creek or creeks or streams necessary to be improved and the estimated cost of each, and also the estimated probable cost of maintaining same per year and make a detailed report of his work to the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5538. Report of engineer.—Such report shall be accompanied by maps showing the initial or beginning point of such improvement, and the nature and character and location of same, with the estimated cost thereof, together with the location and size of all levees, and the number of cubic yards of earth necessary to construct the same. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5539. Hearing on report.—When the said report is filed with the clerk of the commissioners' court, it shall be the duty of the said court, if then in session, to make and enter of record an order setting said report down for a hearing at some subsequent regular or special term of not less than thirty nor more than forty days from said filing, and to require the clerk to give notice of such hearing by posting written or printed notices in the manner and places and for the length of time and for the same compensation as is provided for in article 5532 of this chapter in regard to original notices of the filing of the petition. Should said court not be in session at the time of the filing of such report, then the county judge shall make the orders and cause written or printed notices to be given and posted as provided for in this chapter; and, if there should be no regular session of the said court within thirty days after such filing, he shall call a special session of the commissioners' court to act on such report, not less than thirty nor more than forty days from such filing. At the hearing of the said report, any taxpayer of said district, whether he resides in said district or not, may appear and object to any and all of such improvements and levees for the reason that they are located at the place or places, or that they are not sufficient in capacity to prevent an overflow. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5540. Proceedings on approval of report.—If there should be no objection to said report, or if there should be objections thereto and the court shall find that the objections are not well taken, the report shall be approved, and the said report and the fact of such approval entered of record in the minutes of said commissioners' court, but the commissioners' court shall not be confined to the nature and character of the improvements or to the initial point, course and end of such improvements as shown by the report of the engineer, but may change the location and add to or reduce the size, length and height of the levees and order the engineer to locate any additional levees and improvements as may be ordered by the commissioners' court, and the commissioners' court, if it is deemed necessary, may refer the entire report back to the engineer for a compliance with the order of said court; provided, that if the said commissioners' court shall not adopt, in whole or in part, the original report of the said engineer, as provided herein, they shall require, and it shall be the duty of the said engineer, to make and file with the said commissioners' court a further report in writing of the probable cost of said improvements, as said improvements may be modified or changed by said commissioners' court, as provided for in this chapter. Before the said commissioners' court shall make any change or alterations in such improvements, as reported by such engineer and as provided for in this article, such proposed action of the court shall be set down for hearing, and notice thereof shall be given by posting written or printed notices for the same length of time and in the same manner as provided for in article 5539 of this chapter, in regard to the hearing of the said original report of said engineer. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5541. Election, form of ballot.—After the approval of the engineer's report or reports, as provided for in the preceding articles of this chapter, and at the same session of the said commissioners' court, the said court shall order an election to be held within such improvement district at the earliest possible time, at which time there shall be submitted the following proposition, and none other: "For the improvement district and the issuance of bonds and levies of tax in payment therefor," "Against the improvement district and the issuance of bonds and levies of tax in payment therefor." [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5542. Notice of election; election, how conducted.—Notice of said election, stating the time and place or places of holding the same, shall be given by the clerk of the county commissioners' court by posting written or printed notices thereof in five public places in such proposed improvement district, and one at the court house door of the county in which such district is situated. Such notices shall contain the propositions to be voted upon as set forth in article 5541 of this chapter, and shall also state the estimated cost of such improvement as reported by the engineer, and approved by the commissioners' court, and also the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, together with the rate of interest the same shall bear, and when the said bonds shall be due, and for a tax to be levied and collected to pay said bonds and interest thereon. The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election law of the state of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of the said proposed improvement district, shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the county commissioners' court at such election. The commissioners' court shall name the polling place or places for such election within the proposed improvement district, and shall also select and appoint judges and other necessary officers of the election, and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots for said election as there are qualified resident taxpaying voters within such district as shown by the tax rolls of the county. Such ballots shall have printed thereon these words, and none others: "For the improvement district and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment therefor," "Against the improvement district and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment therefor." [Id. secs. 12 and 13.]

Art. 5543. Oath of voters.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter, shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is hereby authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter of.....county, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed improvement district voted on in this election, and I have not voted before at this election." [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 5544. Returns of election; result disclosed; form of certificate.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judge at each polling place shall make returns of the result in the same manner as provided for in elections for state and county officers and return the ballot boxes to the county clerk, who shall keep the same in a safe place, and deliver them, together with the returns from the several polling places, to the commissioners' court at its next regular session, or special session called for the purpose of canvassing the votes; and the county commissioners' court shall at such session canvass the vote; and, if it be found that a two-thirds of all of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon shall have been cast in favor of the improvements and the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes, then the court shall declare the result of the election to be in favor of the said improvement district, and bonds and taxes, and shall enter the same in the minutes of the said court as follows:

"The county commissioners' court of.....county, Texas,.....term, A. D....., in the matter of the petition of.....and others, praying for the establishment of an improvement district, the issuance of bonds and the levy of a tax in payment thereof, in said petition fully described and designated by the name of.....Improvement District....." Be it known that at an election held for said purposes in said district on the.....day ofA. D.....a two-thirds of all of the resident property taxpayers voting at said election, voted in favor of the creation of said improvement district and the issuance of bonds and the levy of taxes. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said improvement district be and the same is hereby established by the name ofImprovement District within the following named metes and bounds, to wit: (Giving boundaries of the district). [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5545. Commissioners appointed; term of office; compensation.—After the establishment of this district, as herein provided, the commissioners' court shall appoint three improvement commissioners, by a majority vote of said court, whose duty shall be as hereinafter provided, who shall each receive for his services a sum of not more than three dollars per day for the time actually engaged in the work of said district; provided, that the compensation, if any, shall have been definitely fixed in the order of the court making said appointment; and, before any amount shall be paid to said commissioners, or either of them, they shall make a detailed report to the commissioners' court of the time actually engaged in the work for said district, and of the work done; and such report shall be audited and approved by the commissioners' court. Said improvement commissioners shall hold office for a term of two years and until their successors shall be qualified, unless removed by a majority vote of the commissioners' court for malfeasance, or for non-feasance, in office; upon the expiration of the term of office of the said improvement commissioners, or in case of the resignation, death or refusal to act of any such improvement commissioners, the commissioners' court shall appoint their successors by a majority vote of said court. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5546. Oath of commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, all improvement commissioners shall take and subscribe before the county judge an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of their doings to the court by which they are appointed, whenever required to do so, which oath shall be filed by the clerk of the said commissioners' court and preserved as a part of the records of said improvement district. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5547. Bond of commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, each of the said improvement commissioners shall make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of said improvement district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duty. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5548. Commission to organize.—The improvement commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary, and two of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5549. Appointment of engineer; compensation and duties.—After the establishment of said district, the improvement commissioners shall employ a competent civil engineer, upon a salary not to exceed the sum of ten dollars per day, for the time actually engaged in the work, whose term of office shall be at the will of said commissioners, which civil engineer shall proceed to make a map of such improvement district, showing the boundary lines thereof, with the original surveys therein, and also make maps and profiles of the several levees, or such other improvements located in such district; but a copy of the land map of the county, as it applies to such district, showing the name and number of surveys and showing the area or number of acres contained in such district, shall be a sufficient compliance with such order, in so far as making a map of the district is required; and any recognized map of any city or town which may be embraced within the boundaries of the district shall be sufficient as to such site of the town; provided, however, that where boundary lines of such improvements, or any of them, cornered at original surveys, the map shall show how many acres of such original survey are included within such improvement district. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5550. Maps and profiles of levees.—The map and profile of such levees and other improvements required by the provisions of this chapter to be made shall show the relations that each levee or other improvement bears to each tract of land through which it passes, and the shape in which it divides each tract; and, where the levee or other improvements cut off any tract of land less than twenty acres, then the map shall show the number of acres so divided therefrom, and the number of acres in the whole tracts, and its relation to such levees or other improvements; and such profile map shall also show the number of cubic yards of earth necessary to be excavated to make each levee or other improvement located in such district, and give the estimated cost of each; and when said maps, profiles and estimates shall have been completed by the said engineer, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the clerk of the said commissioners' court. It is hereby further made the duty of such engineer to supervise and control the construction of any levee or other improvements made in said district as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 5551. Bonds to be issued; limitations upon.—After the establishment of any such improvement district, and after the making and filing of such maps and profiles and estimates; as herein provided for, and after said election authorizing the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, the commissioners' court shall make an order directing the issuance of improvement bonds for such districts sufficient to pay for such proposed improvements, and the maintenance thereof for a period of not exceeding two years; provided, however, that said bonds shall not exceed in the amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property of such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for the state and county taxation, and shall not exceed the estimate made by such engineer made before the election, and voted on at the election in this chapter provided for; provided, however, that, if after an election has been held establishing the district, levying a tax and issuance of bonds it should become necessary for said improvement district to make further improvements, or alterations in the improvements already constituted, or to repair or maintain the improvements so created, and there shall be no sufficient funds in the construction and maintenance funds with which such improvements, alterations, repairs and maintenance may be made, then the improvement commissioners may apply to the commissioners' court for an election to be ordered by said court to issue additional bonds, stating the necessity therefor and the amount of bonds necessary, and the character of such improvements, repairs and maintenance, and the estimated cost therefor as made by such engineer, which shall accompany said application; and, upon the filing of such application, the commissioners' court shall set same down for hearing at some future regular or special session, and cause the county clerk to give notice of such hearing, which notice shall state the character of such improvements, etc., together with the estimated cost therefor and the amount of such bonds and the rate of interest thereon, and the date when due. Said written or printed notices shall be posted in the same manner and places and for the same length of time as required by this chapter for the original petition for the creation of such district. If, upon said hearing, the court should find that the necessity for the issuance of such additional bonds, and that the taxable values of the real property of the said district as shown by the last annual assessment rolls for state and county taxes will admit of an additional bond issue, then the court shall order an election within said district for the purpose of voting on said proposed bond issue and the levy of taxes to pay said bonds and the interest thereon. The manner of holding such election and making returns, and the notices for said election, manner and time of giving notice thereof, and the qualifications of the persons entitled to vote therein, shall be the same as, and in all things governed by, the provisions of this chapter for the election held for the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in the first instance; and the commissioners' court shall meet and canvass the returns of such election as in the said first election; and, if it be found that two-thirds of the resident property taxpayers voting at said election vote in favor of the issuance of said additional bonds and the levy of said tax, then the said commissioners' court shall enter an order reciting the result of said election, and ordering the issuance of said additional bonds and issuance and sale and registration of such additional bonds and levy of said tax; and the issuance and sale and registration of such additional bonds shall in all things be governed by the provisions of this chapter in regard to the bonds first issued. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 5552. Form and terms of improvement bonds.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the improvement district, and shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the clerk of the county court with the seal of the county court affixed thereto; and such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, and shall bear interest at a rate of interest not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually at such times as may be specified therein. Such bonds and interest shall be made payable at the county treasurer's office of the county in which such improvement district is located, or in the city of Austin, and no bond shall be made payable for more than forty-years after its date. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 5553. Bonds to be submitted to attorney general.—Any improvement district in the state of Texas, desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this chapter, shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the attorney general of this state a copy of the bond to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax to pay interest and providing a sinking fund for the payment of such bonds, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such improvement district as such, including the series of bonds proposed and the assessed value of the property for the purpose of taxation, as shown by the last official estimate by the county, together with such other information as the attorney general may require. Whereupon, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to carefully examine the said bonds in connection with the facts and the constitution and laws of the state of Texas governing and controlling the execution of said bonds; and, if as a result of the examination, the attorney general shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the constitution and laws and that they are valid and binding obligations upon said improvement district in which they are issued, he shall officially so certify. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 5554. To be registered by comptroller; not to be impeached.—When such bonds have been examined by the attorney general, and his certificate attached thereto, they shall be registered by the state comptroller in a book to be kept for that purpose; and the certificate of the attorney general as to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record for use in event of litigation. Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the attorney general, and having been registered in the comptroller's office, as herein provided, shall thereafter be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is, or may be brought into question, a prima facie, valid and complete obligation; and in every action brought to enforce the collection of such bonds, the certificate of the attorney general, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence on the validity of such bonds, together with the interest coupons thereto attached; provided, that the only defense that can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. But this article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limits fixed by the constitution, or contrary to its provisions, but all such bonds shall, to the extent of such excess levy, be void. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 5555. Books of bonds to be kept; sinking fund provided.—Before issuing any bonds under the provisions of this chapter, the county commissioners' court shall first provide a well-bound book in which a record shall be kept by the clerk of said court of all bonds issued, with their number, amount, rate of interest and date of issuance, when due, where payable, and amount received for the same, and the tax estimate to pay the interest on said bonds; and said commissioners' court shall provide for a sinking fund for their payment, which shall be set forth in said book; and said book shall at all times be open to the inspection of all parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers or bondholders; and, upon the payment of any bond, an entry thereof shall be made in said book. The county clerk shall receive for his services in recording all bonds and other instruments of the improvement district, the same fees as provided for other like records. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 5556. Bonds, how sold; proceeds, how applied.—When such bonds have been registered as provided for in the preceding articles of this chapter, the county commissioners' court may appoint the county judge, or some other suitable persons, to sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible; provided, that none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon; and, as fast as said bonds are sold, all money received therefrom shall be paid into the county treasury and shall by him be placed to the credit of such improvement district. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 5557. County judge to give bond before selling bonds.—Before the county judge, or such other person as may be appointed by the commissioners' court, shall be authorized to sell any of said improvement bonds, the county judge, or other person so appointed, shall execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the commissioners of such improvement district, to be approved by the commissioners' court of said county, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duty, which bonds shall be subject to the approval of said improvement commissioners; and the person selling said bonds shall be allowed one-half of one per cent of the amount received for sale of the bonds sold by him in full payment for his services in their behalf. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 5558. Expenses after filing petition, how paid.—All expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any improvement district under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance funds of such improvement district; which funds shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other moneys or property received by such district whatsoever the source, except tax collections applied to the sinking funds and the payment of interest on the improvement bonds; provided, that should the proposition for the creation of such improvement district and the issuance of bonds be defeated at the election called to vote upon the same, then all expense up to and including said election shall be paid for as provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 5559. Deposit to accompany petition.—When the petition praying for the establishment of an improvement district is filed with the county commissioners' court, it shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of the said county commissioners' court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said improvement district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners' court, as hereinbefore provided; and, should the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of such district, then the said two hundred dollars shall be by the said clerk returned to the signers of the said original petition, or their treasurer or attorney; but, should the result of said election be against the establishment of said improvement district, then the said clerk shall pay out of the said sum of two hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed improvement district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 5560. Tax to be levied.—Whenever any such improvement bonds shall have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy, and cause to be assessed and collected, improvement taxes upon all property within said improvement district, whether real, personal or mixed, or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall fall due, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in the sinking funds sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity. If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as shall be approved by the attorney general of the state. If any of said bonds shall be offered for payment and redemption before the date of their maturity, it shall be the duty of the county judge of the county, and the county treasurer, to pay and redeem same upon request of the improvement commissioners, if there be at the time a sufficient amount of money in said sinking fund for that purpose. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 5561. County assessor to assess property; removal for failure.—The county commissioners' court shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of the assessor and collector of taxes and the county clerk for such improvement district, and charge the cost of same to the said district. It shall be the duty of the county tax assessor, when ordered to do so by the commissioners' court, to assess all property within such improvement district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished by the said commissioners' court for that purpose and return said books or rolls at the same time when he returns the other books or rolls of the state and county taxes for correction and approval; if the said commissioners' court shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve the same and order the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of said tax assessor, to be paid from the funds of said improvement district. The tax assessor shall receive for his services such compensation as the said county commissioners' court shall deem proper to compensate him for the amount of work done; provided, that the said county assessor shall in no event be allowed less than what he is now allowed by law for like services. Should the tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of the commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all property in such improvement district as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duty by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 5562. Tax collector to give special bond.—The tax collector of the county shall be charged by the county commissioners' court with the assessment rolls of the improvement district, and he shall be allowed such compensation for the collection of such taxes as he is now allowed for the collection of other taxes. The county commissioners' court shall require the tax collector of the county to give an additional bond of security, in such sum as they may deem proper and safe, to secure the collection of said taxes; and, should any collector of taxes fail or refuse to give such additional bond or surety as herein provided when required by the commissioners' court, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 5563. Delinquent taxes to be collected as other taxes.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make a certified list of all delinquent property, upon which the improvement taxes have not been paid, and return the same to the county commissioners' court, and said court shall proceed to have said taxes collected by the sale, by the collector, or by suit, in the same manner as now provided for the collection of delinquent state and county taxes; and at any sale of such property for such delinquent improvement taxes, the improvement commissioners may become the purchasers of the same for the benefit of the improvement district. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 5564. County treasurer to keep account.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to open an account with the improvement district and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district, and all moneys paid out by him. He shall pay out no money, except upon a voucher signed by two of the improvement commissioners and countersigned by the county judge, and he shall carefully preserve all orders for the payment of money; and, as often as required by the said improvement commissioners or the commissioners' court, he shall render a correct account to them on all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 5565. Tax a lien on property assessed.—All taxes levied, or authorized to be levied by this chapter shall be payable and shall mature and become delinquent as is provided by the laws of this state for state and county taxes, and, upon the failure to pay such taxes when due, the same penalties shall accrue and be collected as provided by the laws of the state of Texas for the non-payment of state and county taxes. All taxes shall be a lien upon the property for which said property is assessed. In the assessment and collection of the taxes levied, or authorized to be levied, by this chapter, the assessor and collector of taxes shall, respectively, have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules and regulations as provided by the laws of the state of Texas for the assessment and collection of state and county taxes, unless herein otherwise provided. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 5566. Treasurer to give additional bond.—The county treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the improvement commissioners and their successors in office of such district, and in the county where said district is located, in a sum equal to one and one-fourth the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer of such district, which bond shall be approved by said improvement commissioners; and the treasurer shall be allowed as compensation for his services as such treasurer, one-half of one per cent. Such treasurer may make said bond with any guaranty or surety company as may be approved by such improvement commissioners; and the premiums due such guaranty or surety company making said bond shall be paid out of the maintenance fund of the improvement district, and shall not be a charge against the county treasurer. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 5567. Condemnation proceedings. Acquisition of right of way.—The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon all improvement districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of acquiring the fee-simple title, easement or right of way to and over and through any and all lands, waters, or lands under waters, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes) within or bordering on such districts, necessary for making, constructing and maintaining all levees and all other improvements for the improvement of a river or rivers, creek or creeks or streams within or bordering on such districts, to prevent overflows thereof. All condemnation proceedings or suits in the exercise of eminent domain under this chapter shall be instituted under the direction of the improvement commissioners and in the name of the improvement district, and all suits or other proceedings for such purposes and for the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the statutes of the state of Texas for condemning and acquiring land or the right of way thereon, by eminent domain, by railroad corporations; provided, that no appeal from the judgment or order of condemnation of the commissioners assessing damages to any one whose land is sought to be condemned shall have the effect of preventing the said improvement district from going upon and using the land so sought to be condemned during the pendency of said appeal; provided, however, that the said improvement district shall deposit with the county clerk of the county, in which such proceedings are pending, a sum equal to double the amount of money adjudged by them to be paid for said land, or the right of way thereon, and all costs thereon accrued.

The improvement commissioners of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all levees and other necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, and may by the same method acquire any levees or other improvements already constructed within the territory in any such improvement district, and, if acquired by grant or purchase, such purchase shall be subject to the approval of the county commissioners' court. [Id. secs. 38-39.]

Art. 5568. Commissioners and employes may enter upon lands, when.—The improvement commissioners of any district and the civil engineer, from time of their appointment, are hereby authorized to go upon any lands or water courses lying within said districts, or bordering thereon, for the purpose of examining the same, and locating all levees and other improvements, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help and instruments, without subjecting themselves to an act of trespass. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 5569. Commissioners to repair and improve levees.—It shall be the duty of such improvement commissioners to keep the levees and other improvements made under the provisions of this chapter in repair, and they shall be given authority to supervise and control the construction and maintenance of same; and no county or improvement district, nor the taxpayers therein, shall be held for damages occasioned by the construction, maintenance or repair of levees or other improvements under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 42.]

Art. 5570. Contracts let to lowest bidder.—Contracts for making and constructing levees and other improvements, and all necessary work in connection with any improvement district, shall be let by the improvement commissioners to the lowest bidder, after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state of Texas once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days in five public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and at least two of which shall be within said improvement district; and the contract for such levee and other improvement may be let in separate sections or parcels, or all together; provided, that all the improvements included in the report of improvement engineer and approved by the court as provided for in this chapter, shall be constructed. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art. 5571. Bids, how submitted.—Any person, or corporation, or firm desiring to bid on the construction of any work, advertised as provided for in this chapter, shall, upon application to the improvement commissioners, be furnished a copy of the engineer's report, showing location, profile and estimate of such as is provided for in this chapter; provided, such person shall pay the county clerk for making same, and all bids or offers to do any work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the improvement commissioners, together with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into the proper contract, if his bid is accepted, and any and all bids may be rejected by the said commissioners. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 5572. Contracts approved and filed.—All contracts made by the improvement commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractor and the commissioners, and approved by the county judge, and a copy of same shall be filed with the county clerk for reference. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 5573. Contractor's bond.—The party, firm, or corporation, to whom any such contract is let, shall give bond payable to the improvement commissioners for said district, and in the county where said district is located, in double the amount of the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of their contracts, and in default thereof will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by such commissioners and the county judge. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 5574. Construction under supervision of engineer and commissioners.—The improvement engineer shall furnish the contractor with a sectionized profile of the work contracted for, showing the height, width and slope, brim and location of all levees and the number of cubic yards of earth to be removed and other work to be done by the contractor, together with drawn plans and specifications for such work; and such work shall be done by the contractor under the management and control and supervision of said improvement engineer and improvement commissioners, who shall indicate to the said contractor the beginning point and termination of all levees and other improvements called for by said contract; and, when such work is completed according to the contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the improvement commissioners, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and, if not, in what particular it has not been complied with. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 5575. Right of way across railroads, etc.—The said improvement commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary levees, bridges and culverts to, across, and under any railroad tracks and right of way of any such railroads to enable them to construct and maintain any levees or other improvements necessary to be constructed as a part of the levee system of such district, such levees, bridges, or culverts to be paid for by such improvement district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by such improvement commissioners to the railroad authorities to build or construct levees, bridges or culverts; and the railway company shall be allowed thirty days in which to build or construct the same at its own expense, if it should so desire according to its own plans; provided, that such levees, bridges, or culverts shall be constructed so as not to interfere with the purpose of said levee or other improvement, nor with the operation of said railway. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 5576. Payment of warrants.—The said improvement commissioners shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, at all times during the progress of the work being done under contract, to inspect the same; and upon the completion of any contract to their satisfaction, and when they have accepted the improvements as completed according to contract, they shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of the contract price, or so much thereof as remains unpaid at that time, in favor of the contractor, or his assigns, which warrant shall, when approved by the county judge, be paid out of the improvement funds of said district. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 5577. Partial payments.—If the said improvement commissioners shall deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise and contract for work to be paid in partial payments as the work progresses; but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate seventy-five per cent of the amount to be paid under the contract, the amount of work completed to be shown by certified report of the engineer, and no payment to be made for work not completed. [Id. sec. 50.]

Art. 5578. Annual report of commissioners.—The improvement commissioners shall make an annual report of their acts and doings as such commissioners, and file the same with the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of January of each year, which report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done in the district, the cost of the same, and other data necessary to show the conditions of improvements under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 51.]

Art. 5579. May employ attorneys.—The improvement commissioners are hereby empowered and authorized to employ counsel to represent such districts in the preparation of any contracts, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of such improvement commissioners upon such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them and approved by the county judge; and such commissioners may draw a warrant in payment of such legal services, to be paid out of the fund of said district upon approval by the county judge. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 5580. May acquire property; sue and be sued.—The improvement districts established under this chapter may acquire property, and, through the improvement commissioners, sue and be sued in all the courts of this state in the name of such improvement district; and all courts of this state shall take judicial notice of such said districts. [Id. sec. 54.]

Art. 5581. May lease or rent land.—The improvement commissioners, for the purpose of protecting any levees or other improvement constructed under the authority of this chapter, shall be authorized to keep the space between any levees or other improvement, and the stream or streams the overflow of which is intended to be prevented, free and clear from all obstructions; and, if any district should by gift, purchase, or condemnation become the owner of any such land, or any other land not needed and used for the purpose of drainage, the said improvement commissioners shall have authority to lease any such land for any purpose which shall not interfere with the work or use of such district, on such terms and for such rental as said improvement commissioners may see fit; and all moneys received therefrom shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use of said district. [Id. sec. 55.]

Art. 5582. May let use of levees, etc.—The improvement commissioners shall have the authority, with the consent of the county judge, to let the use of any levee for a public highway, or street, or railway, or street railway, or interurban railway right of way, or for telegraph, telephone, or electric poles upon such terms as such improvement commissioners and the county judge shall deem proper; but provisions shall be made in any such contract for the payment by the levy of an equitable portion of the cost and expense of thereafter maintaining such levee in good condition for the purposes for which such levee was constructed; and any money received for such rental use shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use of such district. [Id. sec. 56.]

Art. 5583. May dispose of surplus material.—The improvement commissioners shall have authority to dispose of, by sale, any and all earth or any material acquired by the district and not needed for the construction or maintenance of the improvements being constructed under the provisions of this chapter pertaining to this district; and any money received from same shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use and benefit of the district. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 5584. Land to be sold; form of conveyance.—The improvement commissioners, with the consent of the commissioners' court, shall have authority to sell and convey any land, the fee of which has been acquired by such district by purchase, gift, or condemnation, and not needed at the time, or likely to be thereafter needed, for the use of the district, upon such terms as said improvement commissioners and the county judge may deem best for the district; and the money received from any such sale shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use of the district. The deed of conveyance of such lands shall be executed by the chairman of such improvement district commissioners, in the name of the improvement district. [Id. sec. 58.]

Article 5585. Seawalls and breakwaters, how established.—The county commissioners' court of all counties, and the municipal authorities of all cities, bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, shall have the power and are authorized to establish, locate, erect, construct, maintain and keep in repair, seawalls and breakwaters, and to incur indebtedness and issue bonds therefor, and to levy taxes not to exceed in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars of taxable values of said county or city for the payment thereof as hereinafter provided. [Act 1901, 1. S. S., p. 23, sec. 1.]

Art. 5586. Burdens on streets and highways for seawalls.—Said county commissioners' court, and municipal authorities, shall have the power to impose such additional uses and burdens upon all streets, alleys, public highways and other public grounds as they may deem necessary for the location, erection, construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters, and to license, regulate or grant such additional uses of said seawalls or breakwaters as will not impair their efficiency. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5587. To take land for; exercise right of eminent domain.—Said counties and cities shall have the power to take and appropriate such land and other property as may be deemed necessary for the establishment, location, construction and maintenance of said seawalls and breakwaters, and to define the area of land needed, and to acquire, take, hold and enjoy the same for the purposes aforesaid, and to that end shall have the right to exercise the right of eminent domain and to condemn lands for the uses and purposes aforesaid, in the manner and under the conditions provided by law in case of railroad corporations; provided, nevertheless, that said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall be empowered to take the fee simple estate to the land condemned or acquired hereunder, whenever deemed necessary for the purposes of this act; and, provided, further, that before exercising the power of eminent domain hereunder said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall, by order, ordinance, or resolution duly entered on the minutes of the county commissioners' court, or the city council, define and describe lands needed, and determine whether an easement or fee-simple estate in said land shall be taken. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5588. Issue of bonds; elections; qualification of voters, etc.—Before incurring any indebtedness, and before issuing the bonds of the county, or city, for the purposes authorized by this chapter, said county commissioners' court, or municipal authorities, shall prescribe the amount of the bonds to be issued, the rate of interest thereon, and provide for an election, at which all taxpayers who are qualified voters entitled to vote in said county, or city, shall be allowed to vote for or against the proposed taxation for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5589. Election, how conducted; board of inquiry, duties of.—For the purpose of ascertaining whether two-thirds of the taxpayers of said county, or city, have voted in favor of the proposed taxation, the county judge, the county assessor and the county collector, or three members of their own body selected by the municipal authorities, as the case may be, are hereby constituted and appointed a board of inquiry. Whenever an election is ordered hereunder, said board shall make out from the latest completed assessment rolls of said county, or city, a list of all taxpayers of said county, or city, who are qualified voters and taxpayers entitled to vote hereunder; and from the date of the notice of said election until five days before the day thereof, said board shall sit daily for the purpose of making additions to and corrections of said list, and all taxpayers being qualified voters shall, during said period, have the right to apply to said board and to have their names entered on said list. During the period of five days before said election, said board shall make out under certificate and file with the county or city clerk, as the case may be, a complete alphabetical list of all taxpayers who are qualified voters at said election, and shall furnish printed copies of said list to the officers at each poll at said election. Said printed list furnished by said board, and the returns and poll lists of said election, shall be returned to the county, or city clerk, as the case may be. The ballots at said election shall be printed or written on white paper, without any outward mark or device to distinguish the same, and shall contain the words, in substance, "In favor of the proposed tax," or, "Against the proposed tax." Said election shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be ordered and conducted in the same manner in all respects as are general state and county, or municipal, elections, so far as the same are applicable, not including, however, registration, and provisions incidental thereto, and the returns thereof shall be made in like manner, as far as may be; provided, nevertheless, that said election may be held on thirty days' notice thereof at any time fixed by the county commissioners' court, or municipal authorities. And the proposition to levy a tax hereunder may be renewed until the power to tax hereunder shall have been exhausted. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5590. Election returns; canvass; two-thirds vote required.—The county commissioners' court, or municipal authorities, shall, as soon as practicable after said election, meet and canvass the returns thereof, and with the aid of the returns and lists herein provided for, together with such other evidence as may be required, ascertain and record in the minutes of the commissioners' court, or of the municipal authorities, the total number of taxpayers of said county or city who are qualified voters on the day of said election, the number of said taxpayers voting in favor of the proposed taxation, and the number of said taxpayers voting against the same. In the event that two-thirds of the taxpayers of said county or city, who are qualified voters therein, shall have voted in favor of the proposed tax, the said county or city shall thereupon have power to issue its bonds for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5591. Interest, sinking fund; levy of taxes for.—Whenever bonds are issued under the preceding article, the county commissioners' court, or municipal authorities, shall annually levy, assess and collect, in the mode prescribed by law for other county or municipal taxes, a tax on the real estate and personal or mixed property in said county, or city, sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund of not less than two per cent of the principal of all of said bonds; and all taxes collected by virtue hereof shall be held in trust by said county, or city, as a special and inviolable fund for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds; provided, however, that any surplus above the amount required to meet the annual interest may be invested for the benefit of the sinking fund in the bonds issued hereunder, or in bonds of the state of Texas, or of the United States. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5592. Cession of state lands for the benefit of.—The better to enable said counties and cities to secure the protection herein provided for, and to aid in the construction of said works, the right to the use and control for the purposes prescribed by this chapter, of so much of the land or sea bottom below high tide as may be deemed necessary by said county commissioners' court, or municipal authorities, is hereby ceded by the state of Texas to counties and cities availing themselves of the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5593. City and county treasurers custodian of funds, exclusive use of.—All funds, revenues and moneys derived from the sale of the bonds herein authorized, and from the sale or rent of reclaimed or other lands acquired under this chapter and from additional uses of said works as herein authorized, shall be deposited with the county or city treasurer, as the case may be, and shall be held in trust exclusively for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters, including the purchase of the right of way therefor; and all moneys derived from the assessment and levy of taxes as aforesaid are declared to be a trust fund for the payment of interest and principal of bonds to be issued under this chapter; and the use or diversion of such moneys for any other purposes whatsoever is hereby prohibited, and a violation of this article shall constitute a misapplication of public money, and the person or persons so offending shall be punished as provided in article 96 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5594. Bonds to be issued in cases of counties, cities and towns.—All bonds issued hereunder shall be issued under and subject to the provisions of articles 616-620, 622-625, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes of this state now in force, in so far as said articles do not conflict with the provisions of this chapter, and this chapter shall apply to all cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, whether said cities are incorporated by general or special laws; and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [Id. sec. 10.]

[Note.—For local statute as to Galveston seawall, see act 1905, p. 54.]

TITLE 84.

LIBEL.

	Article.	Article.
Definition	5595	What matters deemed privileged..... 5597
Mitigation of damages.....	5596	To be construed, how..... 5598

Article 5595. Definition.—A libel is a defamation expressed in printing or writing, or by signs and pictures, or drawings, tending to blacken the memory of the dead, or tending to injure the reputation of one who is alive, and thereby expose him to public hatred, contempt or ridicule, or financial injury, or to impeach the honesty, integrity, or virtue, or reputation of any one, or to publish the natural defects of any one and thereby expose such person to public hatred, ridicule, or financial injury. [Acts 1901, p. 30, sec. 1.]

Art. 5596. Mitigation of damages.—In any action for libel, the defendant may give in evidence, if specially pleaded, in mitigation of exemplary or punitive damages, the circumstances and intentions under which the libelous publication was made, and any public apology, correction or retraction made and published by him of the libel complained of. The truth of the statement or statements in such publication shall be a defense to such action. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5597. What matters deemed privileged.—The publication of the following matters by any newspaper or periodical, as defined in article 5595, shall be deemed privileged, and shall not be made the basis of any action for libel without proof of actual malice:

1. A fair, true and impartial account of the proceedings in a court of justice, unless the court prohibits the publication of the same, when in the judgment of the court the ends of justice demand that the same should not be published, and the court so orders; or any other official proceedings authorized by law in the administration of the law.

2. A fair, true and impartial account of all executive and legislative proceedings that are made a matter of record, including reports of legislative committees, and of any debate in the legislature and in its committees.

3. A fair, true and impartial account of public meetings, organized and conducted for public purposes only.

4. A reasonable and fair comment or criticism of the official acts of public officials and of other matters of public concern published for general information. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5598. To be construed, how.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to amend or repeal any penal law on the subject of libel. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 5599. Object and purposes of commission.—The Texas library and historical commission shall consist of five members, which commission shall be assigned suitable offices at the capitol; and whose object and purposes shall be to control and administer the state library, and to adopt and to enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing its administration and control, to aid and encourage libraries, to collect materials relating to the history of Texas and the adjoining states, to preserve, classify and publish the manuscript archives and such other matters as it may deem proper, to diffuse knowledge in regard to the history of Texas, to encourage historical work and research, to mark historic sites and houses and secure their preservation, to aid those who are studying the problems to be dealt with by legislation, and to perform such other duties as may be enjoined by law. [Acts 1909, p. 122, sec. 1.]

Art. 5600. Commission how constituted.—The governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint three persons who, together with the superintendent of public instruction and the head of the school of history of the state university, shall constitute the Texas library and historical commission. Appointments shall be made for the term of two years, except appointments to fill vacancies, which shall be made by the governor for the unexpired term. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5601. Meetings; salary and duties of state librarian.—The commission shall hold at the state capitol at least one regular meeting annually, and as many special meetings as may be necessary. The state librarian, hereinafter provided for, shall be secretary of the library and historical commission. No member of the commission shall receive any salary or per diem or other compensation for his services as such commissioner, but the actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings of the commission, or by any member thereof in visiting and establishing libraries, shall be paid for by the state. The commission shall elect a state librarian, who shall not be of their number, and who shall be an experienced librarian. Said state librarian shall serve at the will of the commission, shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and shall give to the governor an acceptable bond in the sum of five thousand dollars for the proper care of the state library and its equipment. He shall record the proceedings of the commission, keep an accurate account of its financial transactions, and perform such other duties as may be assigned him by said commission. In addition to his salary, the state librarian shall be allowed his actual expenses when traveling in the services of the commission. Such expenses shall be certified to under oath and approved by the chairman or acting chairman of the commission. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5602. Powers and duties of the commission.—The commission is authorized and empowered to purchase, within the limits of the annual appropriation allowed by act of the legislature from time to time, suitable books.

pictures, etc., the same to be the property of the state. The commission shall give advice to such persons as contemplate the establishment of public libraries, in regard to such matters as the maintenance of public libraries, selection of books, cataloguing, and library management. The commission shall have conducted library institutes and encourage library associations. The state librarian shall ascertain the condition of all public libraries in this state and report the results to the commission. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5603. Commission may receive gifts.—The commission shall have power and authority to receive donations or gifts of money or property upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper; provided, no financial liability is thereby entailed upon the state. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5604. State library, all books, etc., belong to.—All books, pictures, documents, publications and manuscripts received through gift, purchase or exchange, or on deposit, from any source, for the use of the state, shall constitute a part of the state library, and shall be placed therein for the use of the public. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5605. Books, pictures, etc., transferred from department of insurance and banking.—So much of the law relating to the department of insurance and banking as places under the jurisdiction of that department the custody and control of books, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementoes, flags, works of art, etc., now in said department, and places upon said department the duty of collecting and preserving historical data, is hereby repealed. The custody and control of books, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementoes, flags, works of art, etc., and the duty of collecting and preserving historical data, is transferred to the Texas library and historical commission. To avoid all misunderstanding, it is hereby expressly declared that the gallery of the portraits of the presidents of the republic and of the governors of the state of Texas constitutes a part of the state library. The commission shall adopt such rules and regulations for the government of the state library as will insure the careful preservation of the books, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementoes, flags, works of art, etc., deposited therein and particularly shall all materials relating to the history of Texas be carefully safeguarded. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5606. Duties of state librarian.—The duties of the state librarian, acting under the direction of the Texas library and historical commission, shall be as follows:

First. He shall have charge of the state library, and all books, pictures, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementoes, flags, etc., therein contained.

Second. He shall endeavor to collect all manuscript records, relating to the history of Texas, in the hands of private individuals, and, where the originals can not be obtained, he shall endeavor to procure authenticated copies. He shall be authorized to expend the money appropriated for the purchase of books relating to Texas, and he shall seek diligently to procure a copy of every book, pamphlet, map or other printed matter giving valuable information concerning this state. He shall collect portraits or photographs of as many of the prominent men of Texas as possible. He shall endeavor to complete the files of the early Texas newspapers in the state library, and he shall cause to be bound the current files of not less than ten of the leading newspapers of the state, and the current files of not less than four leading newspapers of other states, and of as many of the county papers, professional journals, denominational papers, agricultural papers, trade journals and other publications of this state as seem necessary to preserve in the state library an accurate record of the history of Texas.

Third. He shall demand and receive from the officers of state departments, having them in charge, all books, maps, papers, manuscripts, docu ments, memoranda and data not connected with or necessary to the current duties of said officers relating to the history of Texas, and carefully classify, catalogue and preserve the same. The attorney general shall decide as to the proper custody of such books, etc., whenever there is any disagreement as to the same.

Fourth. Any state, county or other official is hereby authorized and empowered in his discretion to turn over to the state library for permanent preservation therein any official books, records, documents, original papers, maps, charts, newspaper files and printed books not in current use in his offices, and the state librarian shall receipt for the same.

Fifth. The state librarian shall endeavor to procure from Mexico the original archives which have been removed from Texas and relate to the history and settlement thereof; and, in case he can not procure the originals, he shall endeavor to procure authentic copies thereof. In like manner, he shall procure the originals or authentic copies of manuscripts preserved in other archives beyond the limits of this state, in so far as said manuscripts relate to the history of Texas.

Sixth. He shall preserve all historical relics, mementoes, antiquities, and works of art connected with, and relating to, the history of Texas, which may in any way come into his possession as state librarian. He shall constantly endeavor to build up an historical museum worthy of the interesting and important history of this state.

Seventh. He shall make and certify to copies of papers or documents in the state library, upon application of any person interested, and shall charge the same fees as are allowed the secretary of state for similar services. And such certified copies of papers and documents shall be received in evidence by the courts the same as like papers and documents of other state departments. He shall collect all such fees in advance and turn them over to the state treasurer quarterly, and shall be authorized to approve the vouchers for all expenditures made in connection with the state library.

Eighth. He shall give careful attention to the proper classification, indexing, and preservation of the official archives that are now or may hereafter come into his custody.

Ninth. He shall make a biennial report to the Texas library and historical commissioners to be by them transmitted to the governor, to be accompanied by such historical papers and documents as he may deem of sufficient importance. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5607. Books, pictures, etc., transferred from other departments.—All books, pictures, papers, maps, documents, manuscripts, memoranda and data which relate to the history of Texas as a province, colony, republic, or state, which have been, or may hereafter be, delivered to the state librarian by the secretary of state, comptroller, commissioner of the general land office, or by any of the heads of the departments, or by any persons or officers in pursuance of law, shall be deemed books and papers of said state library, and shall constitute a part of the archives of said state library; and copies therefrom shall be made and certified by the said state librarian upon application of any person interested: which certificate shall have the same force and effect as if made by the officer originally in custody of them, and for which the same fees shall be charged, to be collected in advance and turned over to the state treasurer quarterly. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5608. Assistant librarian for legislature; duties, etc.—The said library and historical commission is authorized and directed to maintain for the use and information of the members of the legislature, the heads of the several state departments, and such other citizens as may desire to consult the same, a section of the state library for legislative reference and information. The commission shall appoint an assistant librarian competent to conduct the work of said legislative reference section. Said assistant librarian shall have available for use explanatory check lists and catalogues of the current legislation of this and other states, catalogues of the bills and resolutions presented in either branch of the legislature, check lists of the public documents of the several states, including all reports issued by the various departments, boards and commissions of this state, digests of such public laws of this and other states as may best be made available for legislative use. Said assistant librarian shall give the members of the legislature such aid and assistance in the drafting of bills and resolutions as may be asked. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5609. Biennial report of commission shall contain what.—The commission shall make a biennial report to the governor, which shall include the biennial report of the state librarian. Said report shall present a comprehensive view of the operation of the said commission in the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter, shall present a review of the library conditions in this state, present an itemized statement of the expenditures of the commission, make such recommendations as their experience shall suggest, and present careful estimates of the sum or sums of money necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter. Said report shall be made and printed, and by the governor be laid before the legislature as are other department reports. [Id. sec. 12.]

Article 5610. [3283] Clerk of county court shall keep a judgment record.—Each clerk of the county court shall keep in his office a well-bound book, to be called the "Judgment record," in which he shall record all abstracts of judgments filed in his office for record, which are authenticated in the manner hereinafter, required.

Art. 5611. [3284] Clerks of courts shall make and deliver abstracts of judgments.—It shall be the duty of each clerk of a court, when the person in whose favor the judgment was rendered, his agent, attorney or assignee, applies therefor, to make out and deliver to such applicant, upon the payment of the fee allowed therefor by law, an abstract of such judgment, and certify thereto under his hand and official seal.

Art. 5612. [3285] Abstract shall show what.—The abstract provided for in the preceding article shall show:

1. The names of the plaintiff and of the defendant in such judgment.
2. The number of the suit in which the judgment was rendered.
3. The date when such judgment was rendered.
4. The amount for which the same was rendered and the amount still due upon the same.
5. The rate of interest, if any is specified in the judgment.

Art. 5613. [3286] Justice of the peace shall deliver abstracts.—It shall also be the duty of each justice of the peace to make out and deliver an abstract of any judgment rendered in his court in the manner provided in the two preceding articles, certified to under his hand.

Art. 5614. [3287] Clerk of county court shall record and index abstracts.—When any such abstract, as is provided for in the three preceding articles, is presented to the clerk of the county court for record, he shall file and immediately record the same in the judgment record, noting in such record the day and hour of such record, and shall also at the same time enter it upon the index.

Art. 5615. [3288] Index shall show what.—The index to such judgment record shall be alphabetical, and shall show the name of each plaintiff and of each defendant in the judgment, and the number of the page of the book upon which the abstract is recorded.

Art. 5616. [3289] Lien of judgment, when.—When any judgment has been recorded and indexed, as provided in the preceding articles, it shall, from the date of such record and index, operate as a lien upon all of the real estate of the defendant situated in the county where such record and index are made, and upon all real estate which the defendant may thereafter acquire situated in said county.

Art. 5617. [3290] Lien exists, how long.—When a lien has been acquired, as provided in this chapter, it shall continue for ten years from the date of such record and index, unless the plaintiff shall fail to have execution issued upon his judgment within twelve months after the rendition thereof, in which case said lien shall cease to exist.

Art. 5618. [3219] Satisfaction of judgment, shown how.—Satisfaction of any judgment in whole or in part may be shown:

1. By return upon an execution issued upon said judgment, or by a certified copy of such return, certified by the officer to whom the return is made, such certificate showing the names of the parties to the judgment, the number and style of the suit, the date and amount of the judgment, the court in which rendered, and the dates of the issuance and return of the execution.

2. By a receipt, acknowledgment or release signed by the party entitled to receive payment of the judgment, or his agent, or attorney of record, and acknowledged or proven for record in the same manner as deeds are required to be.

Art. 5619. [3292] Satisfaction of judgment to be entered on judgment record.—Sufficient space shall be left at the foot of each abstract of a judgment recorded in the judgment record for the entry of credits upon and satisfaction of such judgment, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter such credits and satisfaction whenever the same are made to appear, as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 5620. [3293] Abstract from U. S. courts may be recorded, etc.—An abstract of a judgment rendered in this state by any United States court may be recorded and indexed in the same manner provided for the judgments of the courts of this state, upon the certificates of the clerks of such United States courts; and the record and index of such judgments shall have the same force and effect as that of a judgment of a court of this state.

Article 5621. [3294] In favor of whom.—Any person, or firm, lumber dealer, or corporation, artisan, laborer, mechanic, or sub-contractor, who may labor or furnish material, machinery, fixtures or tools to erect any house or improvement or to repair any building or improvement whatever, or furnish any material for the construction or repair of any railroad within this state under or by virtue of a contract with the owner or his agent, trustee, receiver, contractor or contractors, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter, shall have a lien on such house, building, fixtures, improvements or railroad, and all its properties, and shall also have a lien on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith, to secure payment for the labor done, lumber, material, machinery or fixtures and tools furnished for construction or repair. The word "improvement," as used herein, shall be construed so as to include wells, cisterns, tanks, reservoirs or artificial pools or lakes made for supplying or storing water, and all pumps, syphons, wind mills or other machinery or appliances used for raising water for stock, domestic use, or for irrigation purposes. [Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5622. [3295] When to be filed.—In order to fix and secure the lien herein provided for, it shall be the duty of every original contractor, within four months, and every journeyman, day laborer or other person seeking to obtain the benefits of the provisions of this law, within thirty days after the indebtedness shall have accrued, to file his or their contract in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, and cause the same to be recorded in a book to be kept by the county clerk for that purpose; provided, that, if such journeyman, day laborer or other persons have no written contract, it shall be sufficient for them to file an itemized account of their claim, supported by affidavit, showing that the account is just and correct, and that all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits known to the affiant have been allowed. [Acts of 1889, p. 110.]

Art. 5623. [3296] Written notice to owner.—Any person, firm, or corporation, who may furnish any material to any contractor, sub-contractor, agent, or receiver, to be used in the erection of any house, building or improvement, or to repair any house, building or improvement, or to construct or repair any railroad, or its properties, by giving written notice to the owner or his agent of such house, building or improvement, or the railroad company, its agent or receiver, of each and every item furnished, and by showing how much there is due and unpaid on each bill of lumber or material furnished by said lumberman, corporation, or material man under said contract, or at any time within ninety days after the indebtedness shall have accrued, may fix and secure the lien provided for in this chapter as to the material furnished at the time or subsequent to the giving of the written notice above provided for by filing in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such property is situated, and, if it be a railroad company, in any county through which its road may pass, an itemized account of his or their claim, as provided in this article, and cause the same to be recorded in a book kept by the county clerk for that purpose; provided, that in no case shall the owner be compelled to pay a greater sum for or on account of labor performed or material, machinery, fixtures and tools furnished as provided in this chapter than the price or sum stipulated in the original contract between such owner and the original contractor or builder of such house, building, fixtures, improvements or repairs. [Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5624. [3297] Form of fixing lien on unwritten contract.—If there be no written contract, it shall be the duty of the person seeking to obtain the benefit of this chapter to deliver to the clerk of the county court a sworn account as provided for in articles 5622 and 5623, to be filed and recorded as therein provided, and in such cases when the labor is performed for or the material is furnished to the owner of the building or improvements, or the owner or receiver of any railroad, the following form may be used, and will be sufficient to fix the meaning contemplated by this chapter:

The State of Texas,
County of _____.

A B, affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed (or material furnished) C D, of _____ county, Texas, and that the prices thereof as set forth in said account hereto annexed are just and reasonable, and the same is unpaid; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for said C D at the time in said account mentioned, under and by virtue of a contract between affiant (or affiant's principal) and C D, and that due notice was given by affiant (or his principal) of the labor performed (or material furnished) in accordance with article 3296 [5623]; and affiant further makes oath and says that he is informed that C D was at the time said contract was made and entered into and said labor was performed (or material furnished) the owner of the house (or improvements) described as follows: (Here describe the house or improvements.) And the said house (or improvements) is situated upon a certain lot or tract of land which affiant is informed is owned by said C D, and which is described as follows: (Here describe the lot or lots or the land.) And this affiant (or his principal) claims a lien upon said house (or improvements) and upon said land. (Or if the material was furnished to any railroad company, its agent or receiver, to construct or repair its railroad or other property, then the affiant shall describe said railroad by giving its charter name and the name of the receiver, if any, and the agent of said company, if any, with whom the contract was made, and that affiant or his principal claims a lien on said railroad and its property); provided, however, a substantial compliance with the above form shall be deemed sufficient to fix and secure the lien. [Id. sec. 4. Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5625. [3298] Form when material is furnished to contractor or builder and not the owner of property.—If the labor is performed for, or the material is furnished to, a contractor, builder, agent or receiver, and not the owner of the property, then the following form shall be deemed sufficient to fix the lien provided for by this chapter:

The State of Texas,
County of _____.

known to affiant; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for (or to) said C D, to be used in the erection of a house (or building or improvements, or in the repair of the house, building or improvement, or in the construction or improvement of the railroad or its property), owned, as affiant is informed and believes, by E F, of _____ county, Texas, and that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) to (or for) said C D, under and by virtue of his contract between affiant (or his principal) and said C D. (And in case of material furnished, affiant shall further swear that he has given to the owner, his agent or representative or receiver, notice in writing of each item of said account as required in article 3296 [5623] as the same was furnished to said C D; provided, however, that a substantial compliance with the above form shall be deemed sufficient to fix and secure the lien.) [Id. sec. 5. Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5626. [3299] Description of property.—In case the contract is filed and recorded as provided for in article 5527 [5622], a like description of the house, building or improvement, and the lot or tract of land, shall accompany the same, as is required in the foregoing forms, except that the same is not required to be under oath. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5627. [3300] What is sufficient diligence; what included on property in city and country.—When a contract or account is filed and recorded as required by the preceding article, it shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure this lien. If this lien is against land in a city, town or village, it shall extend to or into the lot or lots upon which such house, building or improvement is situated, or upon which such labor was performed; and, if the lien is against land in the country, it shall extend to and include fifty acres upon which such house, building or improvements are situated, or upon which such labor has been performed; and, if the lien is against a railroad company, it shall extend to and include all of its property. [Id. sec. 7. Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5628. [3301] Priority of lien.—The lien herein provided for shall attach to the house, building, improvements or railroad for which they were furnished, or the work was done, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land upon which the houses, buildings or improvements, or railroad, have been put, or labor performed, and the person enforcing the same may have such house, building or improvement, or any piece of the railroad property, sold separately; provided, any lien, encumbrance or mortgage on the land or improvement at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and holders of such liens need not be made parties in suits to foreclose liens herein provided for. [Id. sec. 8. Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5629. [3302] When improvements sold separately, purchaser may remove.—When the house, building, improvement, or any piece of the railroad's property are sold separately, the officers making the sale shall place the purchaser in possession thereof; and such purchaser shall have the right to remove the same within a reasonable time from the date of the purchase. [Id. sec. 9. Amend. 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5630. [3303] Sale must be under judgment.—Every sale must be upon judgment rendered by some court of competent jurisdiction, foreclosing such lien and ordering sale of such property. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5631. [3304] On homestead, how fixed.—When material is furnished, labor performed, erections or repairs made upon a homestead, if the owner thereof is a married man, then to fix and secure the lien upon the same, it shall be necessary for the person or persons who furnished the material or performed the labor, before such material is furnished or labor is performed, to make and enter into a contract in writing, setting forth the terms thereof, which shall be signed by the owner and his wife, and privily acknowledged by her, as is required in making sale of homestead. And such contract shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where such homestead is situated, in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose; provided, when such contract has been made and entered into by the husband and wife and the contractor or builder, and the same has been recorded, as heretofore provided, then the same shall inure to the benefit of any and all persons who shall furnish material or labor thereon for such contractor or builder. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5632. [3305] Notice of sub-contractor or laborer to owner of property.—Every person, except the original contractor or builder, or those claiming under article 5523 [5623] who may wish to avail himself of the benefits of this law, shall give at least ten days' notice in writing before the filing of the lien, as herein required, to the owner or owners, or agent, or either of them, that he holds a claim against such house, building or improvement, setting forth the amount, and from whom the same is due; and thereafter said owner, or owners, or agent, shall be authorized to retain in his hands the amount claimed until the same is settled or determined not to be owing. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5633. [3306] Diligence, what is sufficient.—A compliance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix the liability of the owner of such house, building or improvement for the payment of such demand, subject to the subsequent provisions of this law. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5634. [3307] Contractor to be furnished by owner with account.—Whenever any such account shall be placed in the hands of such owner, or his authorized agent, it shall be the duty of such owner, or his agent, to furnish his contractor with a true copy of said attested account; and, if said contractor shall not, within ten days after the receipt of said copy of attested account, give the owner written notice that he intends to dispute said claim, he shall be considered as assenting to the demand, which shall be paid by the owner when it becomes due. [Acts of 1876, p. 91, sec. 7.]

Art. 5635. [3308] Original contractor to defend suits by sub-contractors, etc.—In all cases when a lien shall be filed under a provision of this chapter by any person other than the original contractor or builder, it shall be the duty of the original contractor to defend any action brought thereupon, at his own expense; and, during the pending of such action, the owner may withhold from the contractor or builder the amount of money for which such lien shall be filed, and, in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, he shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due by him to the contractor the amount of said judgment and costs; and, if he shall have settled with the contractor or builder in full, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor any amount so paid by the owner for which the contractor or builder was originally the party liable. But no owner or proprietor shall in any case be required to pay, nor his property be liable for, any money that he may have paid to the contractor before the fixing of the lien or before he has received written notice of the existence of the debt; and all sub-contractors, laborers and material men shall have preference over other creditors of the principal contractor or builder; provided, further, a copy of each bill of lumber furnished to the contractor or builder, as the same is furnished, shall be delivered to the owner of said homestead, said bill specifying each item so furnished, how much is paid thereon, and what is due for lumber or material furnished for said contract prior thereto; provided, when the debt is paid under the contract for such building or improvements, the party for whose interest the contract was recorded shall enter a relinquishment showing a full compliance of said contract to the extent of all money due them from the original contractor or builder on account of labor done or material furnished; and the money due said original contractor or builder from the person owning or having improvements made shall not be garnisheed by other creditors to the prejudice of such sub-contractors, mechanics, laborers or material men. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 5636. [3309] When indebtedness accrues.—When labor is performed by the day or week, then the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the end of each week during which labor is performed. When material is furnished, the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the last delivery of such material, unless there is an agreement to pay for such material at a specified time. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5637. [3310] Liens upon equal footing.—The liens for work and labor done or material furnished, as provided in this chapter, shall be upon an equal footing, without reference to date of filing the account or lien; and, in all cases when a sale shall be ordered and the property sold, which may be described in any account or lien, the proceeds arising from such sale, if not sufficient to discharge all the liens against the same, without reference to the date of filing the account or lien, shall be paid pro rata on the respective liens; provided, such accounts or liens shall have been filed and suit brought as provided by this law; provided, that nothing in this law shall be so construed as in any manner affecting the contract between said owner and original contractor as to the amount, manner or time of payment of said contract price. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5638. Enforcement of.—Whenever any mechanic or artisan shall perform any labor or service for any contractor, sub-contractor, agent or receiver, in the erection of any house, building, fixture or improvement, or to repair any house, building, fixture or improvement, or as a necessary incident in connection with such work of construction or repair, it shall be the duty of the owner of such property, or such agent or receiver, to retain in his hands, to secure the payment of the artisans and mechanics who may perform such labor or service, ten per cent of the contract price of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, and, in the event there be no fixed contract price, then a sum equivalent to ten per cent of the value of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof; provided, that the amount so retained by the owner, agent or receiver as the work progresses shall not fall below one-tenth of the value of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, measured by the proportion that the work done bears to the work to be done thereon, and using the contract price or the reasonable value of the completed building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, as a basis of computation of value. Such fund or funds shall be retained by the owner, or agent, or receiver for the purpose herein named during the progress of the work of construction upon such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereon, and for thirty days subsequent to the completion thereof. Any mechanic or artisan who may file a mechanic's lien upon said building, fixture or improvement so made or erected or repaired in accordance with the law applying thereto, shall have a preference lien upon said fund so retained in the hands of such owner, or agent, or receiver; provided, that all mechanics and artisans filing such lien shall be entitled to share ratably therein. In the event the owner of such building, fixture or improvement, or such agent, or receiver shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of this law, and to retain such fund or funds in his hands as herein provided, the mechanics and artisans performing work thereon and in connection therewith, who may file liens thereon in accordance with law, shall have ratably among themselves preference liens, to be preferred above all other liens and claims whatsoever upon such house, building, structure, fixture or improvement, and all its properties, and on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith, to secure payment for such labor thereon. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to deprive artisans and mechanics of the remedies given them for enforcement of their liens as set out in other provisions of this chapter, except in so far as they may be in conflict herewith; and the provisions of this article shall be cumulative of the other provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 184, sec. 1.]

Art. 5639. Release to be filed by mechanics, etc., when.—All parties who are authorized under this law to file a lien, and have done so, and had such lien recorded, shall, when such lien is paid or satisfied, or have received their proper lienable parts for which the owner of the building would be liable under this law, shall record a relinquishment and satisfaction of such lien. [Acts 1876, p. 91, sec. 18.]

LIENS OF RAILROAD LABORERS.

	Article.		Article.
Railroad laborers to have lien.....	5640	Venue	5642
Lien, how foreclosed.....	5641	Lien ceases, when.....	5643

Article 5640. [3312] Railroad laborers, etc., to have lien, when.—All mechanics, laborers and operatives who may have performed labor, or worked with tools, teams or otherwise, in the construction, operation or repair of any railroad, locomotive, car or other equipment of a railroad, and to whom wages are due or owing for such work, or for the work of tools or teams thus employed, or for work otherwise performed, shall hereafter have a lien prior to all others upon such railroad and its equipments for the amount due him for personal services, or for the use of tools or teams. [Acts of 1887, p. 17, sec. 1.]

Art. 5641. [3313] Lien, how foreclosed.—In all suits for wages due by a railroad company for such labor as heretofore mentioned, upon proof being satisfactorily made that such labor had been performed, either at the instance of said company, a contractor or sub-contractor, or agent of said company, and that such wages are due, and the lien given by the preceding article is sought to be enforced, it shall be the duty of the court having jurisdiction to try the same to render judgment for the amount of wages found to be due, and to adjudge and order said railroad and equipments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy said judgment. In all suits of this kind, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to make other lienholders defendants hereto, but such lienholders may intervene and become parties thereto and have their respective rights adjusted and determined by the court. [Acts of 1879, p. 8, sec. 2.]

Art. 5642. [3314] Venue.—Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this state where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action, or part thereof, accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated, and in all such suits service of process may be made in the manner now required by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5643. [3315] Lien ceases, when.—The lien created by article 5640 shall cease to be operative in twelve months after the creation of the lien, if no steps be sooner taken to enforce it. [Id. sec. 4.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

Article 5644. Who entitled to liens.—Whenever any clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, artisan, craftsman, factory operative, mill operative, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or common laborer, farm hand, male or female, may labor or perform any service in any office, store, saloon, hotel, shop, mine, quarry, manufactory or mill of any character, or on any farm, under or by virtue of any contract or agreement, written or verbal, with any person, employer, firm, corporation, or his, her, or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, in order to secure the payment of the amount due by such contract or agreement, written or verbal, the hereinbefore mentioned employes shall have a first lien upon all products, machinery, tools, fixtures, appurtenances, goods, wares, merchandise, chattels or thing or things of value of whatsoever character that may be created in whole or in part by the labor of such persons, or necessarily connected with the performance of such labor or service, which may be owned by, or in the possession of, the aforesaid employer, person, firm, corporation, or his, her, or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees; provided, that the lien herein given to a farm hand shall be subordinate to the landlord's lien now provided by law. [Act 1897, p. 218, sec. 1.]

Art. 5645. Liens, how fixed.—Whenever any person, employer, firm, corporation, his, her or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, shall fail or refuse to make payments as hereinafter prescribed in this law, the said clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, farm hand, artisan, craftsman, operative, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or laborer, who shall have performed service of any character, shall make or have made duplicate accounts of such service, with amount due him or her for the same, and present, or have presented, to aforesaid employer, person, firm or corporation, his, her or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, one of the aforesaid duplicate accounts within thirty days after the said indebtedness shall have accrued. The other of the said duplicate accounts shall, within the time hereinbefore prescribed, be filed with the county clerk of the county in which said service was rendered, and shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book kept for that purpose. The party or parties presenting the aforesaid account shall make affidavit as to the correctness of the same. A compliance with the foregoing requirements in this article shall be necessary to fix and preserve the lien given under this law; and the liens of different persons shall take precedence in the order in which they are filed; provided, that all persons claiming the benefit of this law shall have six months within which to bring suit to foreclose the aforesaid lien; and provided, further, that a substantial compliance with the provisions of this article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure the lien hereinbefore given; provided, that any purchaser of such products from the owner thereof shall acquire a good title thereto, unless he has at the time of the purchase actual or constructive notice of the claim of such lienholder upon such products, said constructive notice to be given by record of such claim, as provided for in this law, or by suit filed. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5646. Wages, when paid.—Under the operation of this law, all wages, if service is by agreement performed by the day or week, shall be due and payable weekly, or, if by the month, shall be due and payable monthly; all payments to be made in lawful money of the United States. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5647. Right of assignment.—Any of the parties named in article 5644 may transfer or assign their rights hereunder, and their assignee or assignees shall have the same rights and privileges as are conferred upon such persons enumerated in article 5644. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5648. Lien ceases, when.—The lien created by this chapter shall cease to be operative after six months after the same is fixed, unless suit is brought within said time to enforce such lien. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5649. Laws not repealed.—This chapter shall not be so construed as to repeal chapter 2 of this title, relating to liens of mechanics, contractors, builders and material men. [Id. sec. 6.]

LIEN—LIVE STOCK.

	Article.		Article.
Lien of keeper of stallion.....	5652	Period of such lien.....	5653

Article 5652. [3335] Keeper of stallion, etc., a lien.—The owner or keeper of any stallion, jack, bull or boar, who keeps the same confined for the purpose of standing him for profit, shall have a preference lien upon the progeny of such stallion, jack, bull or boar, to secure the payment of the amount due such owner or keeper, for the services of such stallion, jack, bull or boar, and such lien shall exist by reason of the force and effect of the provisions hereof, and it shall never be necessary in order to secure and fix said lien to secure, file or register any contract or statement thereof with any officer, nor shall it be necessary that the owner of such progeny execute any contract whatever, but that such preference lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as the statutory landlord's lien is by law enforced; provided, that where parties misrepresent their stock by false pedigree, no lien shall obtain. [Acts of 1889, p. 115, amended 1905, p. 24.]

Art. 5653. [3336] Period of such lien.—The lien herein provided for shall remain in force for a period of ten months from the birth of said progeny, but shall not be enforced until five months shall have elapsed after such birth. [Id.]

Article 5654. [3327] Reservations of title, mortgages, and to be recorded.—All reservation of the title to or property in chattels, as security for the purchase money thereof, shall be held to be chattel mortgages, and shall, when possession is delivered to the vendee, be void as to creditors and bona fide purchasers, unless such reservations be in writing and registered as required of chattel mortgages; provided, that nothing in this law shall be construed to contravene the landlord and tenant act. [Acts of 1885, p. 76.]

Art. 5655. [3328] All instruments intended to operate as liens to be recorded.—Every chattel mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument of writing, intended to operate as a mortgage of or lien upon personal property, which shall not be accompanied by an immediate delivery and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the property mortgaged or pledged by such instrument, shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor or person making same, and as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees or lien holders in good faith, unless such instrument, or a true copy thereof, shall be forthwith deposited with and filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property shall then be situated, or if the mortgagor or person making the same be a resident of this state, then, of the county of which he shall at that time be a resident; provided, that written contracts for the conditional sale, lease or hire of railroad equipments and rolling stock, by which the purchase money is therein agreed to be paid at any time or times after the date of such contract, with a reservation of title or lien in the vendor, lessor or bailor until the same has been fully paid, shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state, in a book of records to be kept by him for that purpose; and, on payment in full of the purchase money and the performance of the terms and conditions stipulated in any such contract, a declaration in writing to that effect may be made by the vendor, lessor or bailor, or his or its assignee, which declaration may be made on the margin of the record of the contract, duly attested, or it may be made by a separate instrument to be acknowledged by the lessor, vendor or bailor, or his or its assignee, and recorded as aforesaid; and for such services the secretary of state shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars for recording each of said contracts and each of said declarations, and a fee of one dollar for entering such declaration on the margin of the record. [Act of 1879, p. 134, sec. 1. Amended act 1897, p. 209.]

Art. 5656. [3329] Duty of clerk receiving.—Upon the receipt of such instrument, the clerk shall endorse thereon the day and hour when the same was deposited in his office for record, and shall keep the same on file in his office for the inspection of all parties interested until satisfaction thereof shall be entered, as provided in article 5659; provided, that if a copy be presented to the clerk for filing, instead of the original instrument, he shall carefully compare such copy with the original, and the same shall not be filed unless it is a true copy thereof, and a copy can be filed only when the original has been witnessed by two subscribing witnesses or acknowledged or proven for record and certified as required in case of other instruments for the purpose of being recorded. [Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 479.]

Art. 5657. [3330] Copy of instrument evidence of what.—A certified copy of any such instrument so filed as aforesaid, certified to under the hand and seal of the clerk of the county court in whose office the same shall have been filed, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner as the original might be, unless the execution of the original has been denied under oath by the party sought to be charged thereby; provided, that the party desiring to use such instrument shall file the same in the papers of the cause before announcing ready for trial, and not afterwards; and such certified copy shall in all cases be received as evidence of filing and entry thereof in chattel mortgage record according to the endorsement of the clerk thereon. [Id. 480.]

Art. 5658. [3331] County clerk to keep book.—The county clerk shall keep a book in which shall be entered a minute of all such instruments, which shall be ruled off into separate columns, with heads as follows: Time of reception, name of mortgagor, name of mortgagee or trustee and cestui que trust, date of instrument, amount secured, when due, property mortgaged, and remarks; and the proper entry shall be made under each of such heads. Under the head of property mortgaged, it will be sufficient to enter a general description of the property pledged and the particular place where located, and index shall be kept in the manner as required for other records. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5659. [3332] Satisfaction to be entered.—When the debt secured by any such instrument shall have been paid or satisfied, it shall be the duty of the mortgagee, his assignee, attorney or legal representative to enter, or cause to be entered, and attested by the clerk, as aforesaid, satisfaction thereof, in the record book in which the instrument is entered, which may be done under the head of "remarks;" and any instrument acknowledging payment or satisfaction need not be recorded at length, but the entry as above provided showing the same has been paid shall be sufficient, and the original instrument or copy thereof on file shall then be delivered to the mortgagor or maker upon demand, or the clerk may mail the same to him. [Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 480.]

Art. 5660. [3333] Property not to be removed.—The person making any such instrument shall not remove the property pledged from the county, nor otherwise sell or dispose of the same without the consent of the mortgagee; and, in case of any violation of the provisions of this article, the mortgagee shall be entitled to the possession of the property, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether the same has become due or not. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5661. [3334] Not to be recorded at length.—Chattel mortgages and other instruments intended to operate as mortgages of or liens upon personal property shall not hereafter be recorded at length as heretofore required; and, when deposited and filed in accordance with the provisions of this law, shall have the force and effect heretofore given to a full registration thereof, and all persons shall be thereby charged with notice thereof, and of the rights of the mortgagee, his assignee or representative thereunder, but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to in any manner affect the rights of any person under any instrument heretofore recorded as required by law. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5662. Destruction of chattel mortgages.—All chattel mortgages filed with the county clerks of this state in accordance with law shall be prima facie presumed to have been paid after the expiration of six years from the date of the maturity of the debts such mortgages were intended to secure, unless the owner or holder of such mortgage, his agent or attorney, shall, within three months next before the expiration of said time, file an affidavit in writing with the county clerk stating that such debt has not been paid, and the amount still due thereon. If such affidavit is not filed, the clerk shall, at the expiration of said time, make disposition of such mortgage, either by delivering the same to the maker or by burning the same. [Act 1907, p. 272.]

Article 5663. [3318] Lien in favor of hotels and boarding houses.—Proprietors of hotels and boarding houses shall have a special lien upon all property or baggage deposited with them for the amount of the charges against them or their owners if guests at such hotel and boarding house. [Act May 2, 1874, p. 200, sec. 1. P. D. 7116f.]

Art. 5664. [3319] Lien of livery stable keepers and pasturers.—Proprietors of livery or public stables shall have a special lien on all animals placed with them for feed, care and attention, as also upon such carriages, buggies or other vehicles as may have been placed in their care, for the amount of the charges against the same; and this article shall apply to and include owners or lessees of pastures, who shall have a similar lien on all animals placed with them for pasturage. [Id. Amend. 1895, p. 96.]

Art. 5665. [3320] Mechanics may retain possession of article repaired, when.—Whenever any article, implement, utensil or vehicle shall be repaired with labor and material, or with labor and without furnishing material, by any carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman in this state, such carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman is authorized to retain possession of said article, implement, utensil or vehicle until the amount due on same for repairing by contract shall be fully paid off and discharged. [Act April 7, 1874, p. 68, sec. 1. P. D. 7116a.]

Art. 5666. [3321] Where no price is agreed upon.—In case no amount is agreed upon by contract, then said carpenter, mechanic, artisan or other workman shall retain possession of such article, implement, utensil or vehicle, until all reasonable, customary and usual compensation shall be paid in full. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 5667. [3322] When property may be sold for charges.—When possession of any of the property embraced in the four preceding articles has continued for sixty days after the charges accrue, and the charges so due have not been paid, it shall be the duty of the persons so holding said property to notify the owner, if in the state and his residence be known, to come forward and pay the charges due, and, on his failure within ten days after such notice has been given him to pay said charges, the persons so holding said property, after twenty days' notice, are authorized to sell said property at public sale and apply the proceeds to the payment of said charges, and shall pay over the balance to the person entitled to the same.

Art. 5668. [3323] When owner lives out of the state or residence is unknown.—If the owner's residence is beyond the state or is unknown, the person holding said property shall not be required to give the ten days' notice mentioned in the preceding article before proceeding to sell.

Art. 5669. [3324] Balance, how disposed of.—If the person who is legally entitled to receive the balance mentioned in this chapter is not known, or has removed from the state or from the county in which such repairing was done, or such property was so held, it shall be the duty of the person so holding said property to pay the balance to the county treasurer of the county in which said property is held, and take his receipt therefor. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5670. [3325] What is to be done finally with the balance.—Whenever any balance mentioned in this chapter shall remain in the possession of the county treasurer for the period of two years unclaimed by the party legally entitled to the same, such balance shall become a part of the county fund of the county in which the property was so sold, and shall be applied as any other county fund or money of such county is applied or used. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5671. [3326] Other liens and contracts not affected.—Nothing in this title shall be construed or considered as in any manner impairing or affecting the right of parties to create liens by special contract or agreement, nor shall it in any manner affect or impair other liens arising at common law or in equity, or by any statute of this state, or any other lien not treated of under this title.

Article 5672. [3340] Three years' possession, when a bar.—Every suit to be instituted to recover real estate, as against any person in peaceable and adverse possession thereof under title or color of title, shall be instituted within three years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, p. 119, sec. 15. P. D. 4622.]

Art. 5673. [3341] "Title" and "color of title" defined.—By the term "title," as used in the preceding article, is meant a regular chain of transfer from or under the sovereignty of the soil, and by "color of title" is meant a consecutive chain of such transfer down to such person in possession, without being regular, as if one or more of the memorials or muniments be not registered, or not duly registered, or be only in writing, or such like defect as may not extend to or include the want of intrinsic fairness and honesty; or when the party in possession shall hold the same by a certificate of head-right, land warrant, or land scrip, with a chain of transfer down to him in possession. [Id. sec. 15. P. D. 4622.]

Art. 5674. [3342] Five years' possession, when a bar.—Every suit to be instituted to recover real estate as against any person having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same and paying taxes thereon, if any, and claiming under a deed or deeds duly registered, shall be instituted within five years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward; provided, that this article shall not apply to any one in possession of land, who in the absence of this article would derain title through a forged deed; provided, further, that no one claiming under a forged deed, or deed executed under a forged power of attorney, shall be allowed the benefits of this article. [Id. sec. 16. P. D. 4623. Acts of 1879, ch. 125, p. 132.]

Art. 5675. [3343] Ten years' possession, when a bar.—Any person who has the right of action for the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, shall institute his suit therefor within ten years next after his cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. [Id. sec. 17. P. D. 4621-4624.]

Art. 5676. [3344] Ten years' possession construed to embrace, what.—The peaceable and adverse possession contemplated in the preceding article, as against the person having right of action, shall be construed to embrace not more than one hundred and sixty acres, including the improvements or the number of acres actually inclosed, should the same exceed one hundred and sixty acres; but when such possession is taken and held under some written memorandum of title, other than a deed, which fixes the boundaries of the possessor's claim and is duly registered, such peaceable possession shall be construed to be co-extensive with the boundaries specified in such instrument. [Id. P. D. 4624.]

Art. 5677. [3345] Land surrounded by other lands, etc., peaceable possession of defined.—A tract of land owned by one person, entirely surrounded by a tract or tracts owned, claimed or fenced by another, shall not be considered inclosed by a fence inclosing the circumscribing tract or tracts, or any part thereof; nor shall the possession by the owner or claimant of such circumscribing land of such interior tract be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by article 5675, unless the same be segregated and separated from the circumscribing land by a fence, or unless at least one-tenth thereof be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes. [Acts of 1891; p. 76.]

Art. 5678. [3346] Same subject.—Possession of land belonging to another by a person owning or claiming five thousand acres or more of lands inclosed by a fence in connection therewith, or adjoining thereto, shall not be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by article 5675, unless said land so belonging to another shall be segregated and separated by a substantial fence from said lands connected therewith or thereto adjoining, or unless at least one-tenth thereof shall be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes, or unless there be actual possession thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5679. [3347] Possession gives full title, when.—Whenever in any case the action of a person for the recovery of real estate is barred by any of the provisions of this chapter, the person having such peaceable and adverse possession shall be held to have full title, precluding all claims.

Art. 5680. [3348] "Peaceable possession" defined.—"Peaceable possession," within the meaning of this chapter, is such as is continuous and not interrupted by adverse suit to recover the estate. [Acts of 1841, p. 119, sec. 14. P. D. 4621.]

Art. 5681. [3349] "Adverse possession" defined.—"Adverse possession" is an actual and visible appropriation of the land, commenced and continued under a claim of right inconsistent with and hostile to the claim of another.

Art. 5682. [3350] Possession may be held by different persons.—Peaceable and adverse possession need not be continued in the same person, but when held by different persons successively there must be a privity of estate between them.

Art. 5683. [3351] Right of the state not barred, etc.—The right of the state shall not be barred by any of the provisions of this chapter, nor shall any person ever acquire, by occupancy or adverse possession, any right or title to any part or portion of any road, street, sidewalk or grounds which belong to any town, city or county, or which have been donated or dedicated for public use to any such town, city or county by the owner thereof, or which have been laid out or dedicated in any manner to public use in any town, city or county in this state; provided, this law shall not apply to any alley laid out across any block or square in any city or town. [Id. secs. 15-17. P. D. 4622-4. Acts of 1887, p. 28.]

Art. 5684. [3352] Does not run against infants, etc.—If a person entitled to commence suit for the recovery of real property, or to make any defense founded on the title thereto, be at the time such title shall first descend or the adverse possession commence—

1. Under the age of twenty-one years; or,
2. Of unsound mind; or,

3. A person imprisoned; the time during which such disability shall continue shall not be deemed any portion of the time limited for the commencement of such suit, or the making of such defense; and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this chapter; provided, that limitation shall not begin to run against married women until they arrive at the age of twenty-one years; and, further, that their disability shall continue one year from and after July 29, 1895, and that they shall have thereafter the same time allowed others by the provisions hereof; and, further, that this article shall in no way affect suits then pending, and all such suits shall be tried and disposed of under the law then in force. [Acts of 1841, p. 109, secs. 14-17. P. D. 4621-4. Amend. 1895, p. 35.]

Article 5685. [3353] Actions to be commenced in one year.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within one year after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in courts of the following description:

1. Actions for malicious prosecution or for injuries done to the character or reputation of another by libel or slander.

2. Actions for damages for seduction, or breach of promise of marriage. [Acts Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 1; Feb. 2, 1860, sec. 1. Amended act 1897, p. 12.]

Art. 5686. [3353a] Survival of cause of action.—Causes of action upon which suit has been or may hereafter be brought by the injured party for personal injuries other than those resulting in death, whether such injuries be to the health or to the reputation, or to the person of the injured party, shall not abate by reason of his death, nor by reason of the death of the person against whom such cause of action shall have accrued; but, in the case of the death of either or both, such cause of action shall survive to and in favor of the heirs and legal representatives of such injured party and against the person, receiver or corporation liable for such injuries and his legal representatives; and so surviving, such cause may be thereafter prosecuted in like manner and with like legal effect as would a cause of action for injuries to personal property. [Act of 1895, p. 143.]

Art. 5687. [3354] Actions to be commenced in two years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within two years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions of trespass for injury done to the estate or the property of another.

2. Actions for detaining the personal property of another, and for converting such personal property to one's own use.

3. Actions for taking or carrying away the goods and chattels of another.

4. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is not evidenced by a contract in writing.

5. Actions upon stated or open accounts, other than such mutual and current accounts as concern the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents. In all accounts, except those between merchant and merchant, as aforesaid, their factors and agents, the respective times or dates of the delivery of the several articles charged shall be particularly specified, and limitations shall run against each item from the date of such delivery, unless otherwise specially contracted.

6. Action for injury done to the person of another.

7. Action for injury done to the person of another where death ensued from such injury; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued at the death of the party injured. [Acts Feb. 5, 1841, p. 163, sec 1; Feb. 16, 1852, p. 128, sec. 1. P. D. 4604. Amended act 1897, p. 12.]

Art. 5688. [3356] What actions barred in four years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is evidenced by or founded upon any contract in writing.

2. Actions for the penalty or for damages on the penal clause of a bond to convey real estate.

3. Actions by one partner against his co-partner for a settlement of the partnership accounts, or upon mutual and current accounts concerning the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued on a cessation of the dealings in which they were interested together. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, p. 163, sec. 1. P. D. 4604.]

Art. 5689. [3357] On bond of executor, administrator or guardian.—All suits on the bond of any executor, administrator or guardian shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years next after the death, resignation, removal or discharge of such executor, administrator or guardian, and not thereafter. [Acts March 20, 1848; Aug. 9, 1876, p. 102, sec. 42. P. D. 1375, 3923.]

Art. 5690. [3358] All other actions barred, when.—Every action other than for the recovery of real estate, for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed, shall be brought within four years next after the right to bring the same shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Art. 5691. [3359] Actions on foreign judgments barred, when.—Every action upon a judgment or decree rendered in any other state or territory of the United States, in the District of Columbia, or in any foreign country, shall be barred, if by the laws of such state or country such action would there be barred, and the judgment or decree be incapable of being otherwise enforced there; and, whether so barred or not, no action against a person who shall have resided in this state during the ten years next preceding such action shall be brought upon any such judgment or decree rendered more than ten years before the commencement of such action.

Art. 5692. [3360] Actions for specific performance.—Any action for the specific performance of a contract for the conveyance of real estate shall be commenced within ten years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward.

Art. 5693. Time in which power of sale may be exercised.—No power of sale conferred by deed of trust or mortgage on real estate executed after

July 14, 1905, shall be enforced after the expiration of ten years from the maturing of the indebtedness secured thereby; and any sale under such power after the expiration of such time shall be void, and such sale may be enjoined. [Act 1905, p. 334, sec. 1.]

Art. 5694. Rights under vendor's lien barred, when.—When a vendor's lien is retained to secure purchase money in any sale of real estate after July 14, 1905, the right to recover such real estate by virtue of the superior title retained shall be barred after the expiration of ten years from the maturity of the debt; and if suit is not brought for recovery of such real estate within such term, the purchase money therefor shall be conclusively presumed to have been paid. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5695. Contracts of extension, how made and construed.—When the date of maturity of either debt referred to in either of the foregoing articles is extended, if the contract of extension is not signed and acknowledged according to law by the parties to the contract of extension, and filed in the county clerk's office of the county in which the land is situated, the date of maturity as set out in the deed of trust, mortgage or deed, as the case may be, or, if there be one or more extensions of the date of maturity, the date of maturity set out in the latest contract of extension so acknowledged and filed shall be conclusive evidence of the date of maturity of the indebtedness. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5696. [3361] Judgment shall be revived, when.—A judgment in any court of record within this state, where execution has not issued within twelve months after the rendition of the judgment, may be revived by scire facias or an action of debt brought thereon within ten years after the date of such judgment, and not after. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 2. P. D. 4608.]

Art. 5697. [3362] On motion for returning execution.—Where execution has issued and no return is made thereon, the party in whose favor the same was issued may move against any sheriff or other officer and his sureties for not returning the same within five years from the day on which it was returnable, and not after. [Id. P. D. 4608.]

Art. 5698. [3363] On the action of forcible entry, etc.—No action of forcible entry or forcible detainer, as provided for by law, shall be prosecuted at any time after two years from the commencement of the forcible entry or detainer.

Art. 5699. [3364] On actions to contest a will.—Any person interested in any will which shall have been probated under the laws of this state may institute suit in the proper court to contest the validity thereof, within four years after such will shall have been admitted to probate, and not afterward. [Act. Aug. 9, 1876, p. 94, sec. 3.]

Art. 5700. [3365] In case of forgery, etc., action accrues, when.—Any heir at law of the testator, or any other person interested in his estate, may institute suit in the proper court to cancel a will for forgery or other fraud within four years after the discovery of such forgery or fraud, and not afterward. [Id. sec. 3.]

Article 5701. [3366] Suspension during late war.—The laws of limitation of civil suits in this state shall be considered as suspended during the late civil war, commencing on the twenty-eighth day of January, 1861, and ending on the thirtieth day of March, 1870; but nothing herein shall be held to revive any cause of action heretofore barred. [Const., art. 16, sec. 18.]

Art. 5702. [3367] Time of temporary absence not counted.—If any person against whom there shall be cause of action shall be without the limits of this state at the time of the accruing of such action, or at any time during which the same might have been maintained, the person entitled to such action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such person after his return to the state, and the time of such person's absence shall not be accounted or taken as a part of the time limited by any of the provisions of this title. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 22. P. D. 24.]

Art. 5703. [3368] Death of owner, etc., shall stop limitation until, etc.—In case of the death of any person in whose favor there may be cause of action, the law of limitation shall cease to run against such cause of action until twelve months after such death, unless an administrator or executor shall have sooner qualified according to law upon such deceased person's estate; then and in that case the said law of limitation shall only cease to run until such qualification. [Act Feb. 16, 1852, sec. 3. P. D. 4607.]

Art. 5704. [3369] Death of person, etc., against whom, etc.—In case of the death of any person against whom there may be a cause of action, the law of limitation shall cease to run against such cause of action until twelve months after such death, unless an administrator or executor shall have sooner qualified according to law upon such deceased person's estate; then and in that case the said law of limitation shall only cease to run until such qualification. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 4606.]

Art. 5705. [3370] Acknowledgment must be in writing.—When an action may appear to be barred by a law of limitation, no acknowledgment of the justness of the claim made subsequent to the time it became due shall be admitted in evidence to take the case out of the operation of the law, unless such acknowledgment be in writing and signed by the party to be charged thereby. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 12. P. D. 4617a.]

Art. 5706. [3371] Limitation must be pleaded, etc.—The laws of limitation of this state shall not be made available to any person in any suit in any of the courts of this state, unless it be specially set forth as a defense in his answer. [Act Feb. 16, 1852, sec. 5. P. D. 4629.]

Art. 5707. [3372] Presumption of death when, etc.—Any person absenting himself beyond sea or elsewhere for seven years successively shall be presumed to be dead, in any cause wherein his death may come in question, unless proof be made that he was alive within that time; but an estate recovered on such presumption, if in a subsequent action or suit the person presumed to be dead shall be proved to be living, shall be restored to him who shall have been evicted, and he may moreover demand and recover the rents and profits of the estate during such time as he shall be deprived thereof, with lawful interest. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 10. P. D. 23.]

Art. 5708. [3373] Limitation shall not run against infants, etc.—If a person entitled to bring any action other than those mentioned in chapter one of this title be at the time the cause of action accrues, either—

1. Under the age of twenty-one years;
2. A married woman;
3. Of unsound mind; or
4. A person imprisoned; the time of such disability shall not be deemed a portion of the time limited for the commencement of the action; and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this title.

Art. 5709. [3374] Action against immigrant barred, when.—No action shall be brought against any immigrant of the state to recover a claim which was barred by the law of limitations of that state or country from which he emigrated; nor shall any action be brought to recover money from an immigrant who was released from its payment by the bankrupt or insolvent laws of the state or country from which he emigrated. [Id. sec. 13. P. D. 4618.]

Art. 5710. [3375] Debts incurred prior to removal of person to this state.—No demand against any person who shall hereafter remove to this state, incurred prior to his removal, shall be barred by the statute of limitation until he shall have resided in this state for the space of twelve months; provided, that nothing in this article shall be construed to affect the provisions of the preceding article. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 4620.]

Art. 5711. [3376] One disability not tacked to another.—The period of limitation shall not be extended by the connection of one disability with another; and, when the law of limitation shall begin to run, it shall continue to run, notwithstanding any supervening disability of the party entitled to sue or liable to be sued.

Art. 5712. [3377] Claims barred under pre-existing laws, etc.—No one of the provisions of this title shall be so construed as to revive any claim which is barred by pre-existing laws; and all claims against which limitation under said laws had commenced to run shall be barred by the lapse of time which would have barred them had those laws continued in force; provided, the said time be shorter than that by which they would have been barred by the other articles of this title.

Art. 5713. [3378] No agreement shortening period of limitation valid.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association or combination of whatsoever kind to enter into any stipulation, contract, or agreement, by reason whereof the time in which to sue thereon is limited to a shorter period than two years. And no stipulation, contract, or agreement for any such shorter limitation in which to sue shall ever be valid in this state. [Acts of 1891, p. 20, sec. 1.]

Art. 5714. [3379] Notice of claims for damages; rule as to.—No stipulation in any contract requiring notice to be given of any claim for damages as a condition precedent to the right to sue thereon shall ever be valid, unless such stipulation is reasonable; and any such stipulation fixing the time within which such notice shall be given at a less period than ninety days shall be void, and, when any such notice is required, the same may be given to the nearest or to any other convenient local agent of the company requiring the same; provided, that no stipulation in any contract between a person, corporation or receiver operating railroad, or street railway, or interurban railroad, and an employe or servant requiring notice of a claim by an employe or servant for damages for injury received to the person, or by a husband, wife, father, mother, child or children of a deceased employe for his or her death, caused by negligence as a condition precedent to liability, shall ever be valid.

In any suit brought under this and the preceding article it shall be presumed that notice has been given, unless the want of notice is especially pleaded under oath. [Amended act 1907, p. 241, sec. 1.]

Article 5715. [3384] Commissioners' courts may order elections.—The commissioners' court of each county in the state, whenever they deem it expedient, may order an election to be held by the qualified voters of said county, or of any commissioner's or justice's precinct, or school district, or any two or more of any such political subdivisions of a county, as may be designated by the commissioners' court of said county, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in such county, or commissioner's or justice's precinct, or school district, or any two or more of any such political subdivisions of such county, or in any town or city; provided, it shall be the duty of said commissioners' court to order the election as aforesaid whenever petitioned so to do by as many as two hundred and fifty voters in any county, or fifty voters in any other political subdivision of the county or school district, as shall be designated by said court, or in any city or town, as the case may be; provided, that if the precinct or precincts designated embrace within the limits an incorporated town or city, then such election shall only be ordered when the petition for the same is signed by qualified voters, not less than one-tenth in number of the total vote cast for governor at the next preceding general election in such incorporated town or city; and, in case an election is asked for a subdivision of said county, composed of two or more complete commissioners' or justices' precincts, or school districts, such petition shall describe such subdivision by metes and bounds, as well as by the proper numbers of such precincts, or school districts; and said petition and the description of such subdivision shall be recorded in full in the minutes of the commissioners' court, and such description shall be embraced in the notice given for such election; provided, that where a school district, city or town, may be composed in part of two or more subdivisions of the county, named hereinbefore, the right to order and hold an election in such school district, city or town, shall not be denied; and provided, further, that no city or town shall be divided in holding a local option election for any of the other subdivisions named herein; nor shall any school district which has adopted local option be divided in a subsequent election held for any other of such subdivision covering a part of the territory of such school district. [Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48. Amended act 1897, p. 235.]

Art. 5716. [3385] What not prohibited.—The preceding article shall not be so construed to prohibit the sale of wines for sacramental purposes, nor alcoholic stimulants as medicines in cases of actual sickness, but such stimulant shall only be sold upon the written prescription of a regular practicing physician, dated and signed by him, and certified, on his honor, that he, the physician, has personally examined the applicant, naming him, and that he finds him actually sick and in need of the stimulant prescribed as medicine; provided, that a physician who does not follow the profession of medicine as his principal and usual calling shall not be authorized to give the prescription provided for in this article; and provided, further, that no person shall be permitted to sell more than once on the same prescription, nor shall any person be permitted to sell at all on the prescription of a physician not herein authorized to give it, nor on a prescription which is not dated, signed, and certified as above required; provided, that every person selling such stimulants upon the prescription herein provided for shall cancel such prescription by indorsing thereon the word "canceled," and file the same away. [Id. sec. 5. Amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5717. [3386] Where voting to take place.—When the commissioners' court, of their own motion, or upon the petition provided for in article 5715, shall order the election as herein provided for, it shall be the duty of said court to order such election to be held at the regular voting place or places within the proposed limits, upon a day not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of said order; and the order thus made shall express the object of such election, and shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions necessary to give it validity, or to clothe the court with jurisdiction to make it, have been fully complied with; provided, that if there is no regular voting place within the proposed limits of a subdivision less than a justice's or voting precinct, then the commissioners' court shall designate some suitable place within said subdivision, where said election shall be held, and said place shall be named in the notices of election, and said court will appoint such officers to hold such election as are now required to hold general elections. [Id. Amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5718. [3387] Notice.—The clerk of said court shall post, or cause to be posted, at least five copies of said order at different places within the proposed limits, for at least twelve days prior to the day of election, which election shall be held and the returns thereof made in conformity with the provisions of the general laws of the state, and by the officers of election appointed and qualified under such laws. [Id. Amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5719. [3388] Form of ballot, etc.—At said election the vote shall be by official ballot, which shall have printed or written at the top thereof in plain letters the words "Official Ballot." Said ballot shall have also written or printed thereon the words "For Prohibition" and the words "Against Prohibition;" and the clerk of the county court shall furnish the presiding officer of each voting box within the proposed limits with a number of such ballots, to be not less than twice the number of qualified voters at such voting boxes; and the presiding officer of each such voting box shall write his name on the back of each ballot before delivering the same to the voter, and the person offering to vote at such election shall, at the time he offers to vote, be furnished by such presiding officer with one such ballot; and no voter shall be permitted to depart with such ballot, and shall not be assisted in voting by any person except such presiding officer or by some officer assisting in the holding of such election, under the direction of such presiding officer when requested to do so by such voter.

Those who favor the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors within the proposed limits, shall erase the words "Against Prohibition" by making a pencil mark through same, and those who oppose it shall erase the words "For Prohibition" by making a pencil mark through same. No ballot shall be received or counted by the officers of such election that is not an official ballot, and that has not the name of the presiding officer of such election written thereon in the handwriting of such presiding officer, as required by this article. [Acts of 1893, p. 48. Amended act 1909. 1 S. S., p. 338.]

Art. 5720. [3389] How election to be held.—The officers holding said election shall, in all respects not herein specified, conform to the general election laws now in force regulating elections; and after the polls are closed shall proceed to count the votes, and, within ten days thereafter, make due report of said election to the aforesaid court. [Amended act 1909, 1 S. S., p. 338.]

Art. 5721. [3390] To hold session for counting votes, when.—Said court shall hold a special session on the eleventh day after the holding of said election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of opening the polls and counting the votes; and, if a majority of the votes are "For prohibition," said court shall immediately make an order declaring the result of said vote, and absolutely prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the prescribed limits, except for the purposes and under the regulations specified in this title, until such time as the qualified voters therein may at a legal election held for that purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise; and the order thus made shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding said election, and in counting and returning the votes and declaring the result thereof. [Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5722. [3391] Result to be declared.—The order of court declaring the result and prohibiting the sale of such liquors shall be published for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein such election has been held, which newspaper shall be selected by the county judge for that purpose. If there be no newspaper published in the county, then the county judge shall cause publication to be made by posting copies of said order at three public places within the prescribed limits for the aforesaid length of time. The fact of publication in either mode shall be entered by the county judge on the minutes of the commissioners' court. And entry thus made, or a copy thereof certified under the hand and seal of the clerk of the county court, shall be held sufficient prima facie evidence of such fact of publication. [Id. Amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5723. [3392] Order when against prohibition.—If a majority voting at such election vote "Against prohibition," the court shall make an order declaring the result, and have the same entered of record in the office of the clerk of said court. [Acts of 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5724. [3393] Second election, when.—No election under the preceding articles shall be held within the same prescribed limits in less than two years after an election under this title has been held therein, the result declared, and the notices published as provided in the preceding articles. Such time shall date from the time of publication of the last notice; provided, that, where no such notice is required to be published, then such time shall date from the time such result is declared; but at the expiration of that time the commissioners' court of each county in the state, whenever they decree it expedient, may order another election to be held by the qualified voters of said county, or of any justice's precinct, or such subdivision of a county as may be designated by the commissioners' court of such county, for the same purpose; provided, it shall be the duty of such court to order the election aforesaid whenever petitioned to do so by as many as two hundred voters in any county, or fifty voters in any justice's precinct, or subdivision of such county, as the case may be, to order an election for the same purpose, which election shall be ordered held, notice thereof given, the votes returned and counted, and the result declared and published, in all respects as provided by this title for a first election; and the order granting such other elections, as well as that declaring the result, shall, if prohibition be carried, have the same force and effect, and the same conclusiveness, as are given to them in the case of a first election by the provisions of this title; provided, that, where no such notice is required to be published, then such time shall date from the time such result is declared. [Amended act 1905. p. 378.]

Art. 5725. [3394] Order, etc., on second election.—When such second election results against prohibition, the court shall enter an order setting aside the previous order enforcing prohibition, and shall officially announce and publish the same as provided where the election resulted in prohibition. [Acts of 1887, p. 96; amend. 1893, p. 48. Id.]

Art. 5726. [3395] May hold second election in subdivision.—The failure to carry prohibition in a county shall not prevent an election for the same from being immediately thereafter held in a justice's precinct, or subdivision of such county as designated by the commissioners' court, or of any town or city in such county; nor shall the failure to carry prohibition in a town or city prevent an election from being immediately thereafter held for the entire justice's precinct or county in which said town or city is situated; nor shall the holding of an election in a justice's precinct in any way prevent the holding of an election immediately thereafter for the entire county in which the justice's precinct is situated; but, when prohibition has been carried at an election ordered for the entire county, no election on the question of prohibition shall be thereafter ordered in any justice's precinct, town or city of said county until after prohibition has been defeated at a subsequent election for the same purpose, ordered and held for the entire county, in accordance with the provisions of this title; nor in any case where prohibition has carried in any justice's precinct shall an election on the question of prohibition be ordered thereafter in any town or city of such precinct until after prohibition has been defeated at a subsequent election ordered and held for such entire precinct. [Amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5727. [3396] Penalty.—When any such election has been held and has resulted in favor of prohibition, and the aforesaid court has made the order declaring the result, and the order of prohibition, and has caused the same to be published as aforesaid, any person who shall thereafter, within the prescribed bounds of prohibition, sell, exchange, or give away, with the purpose of evading the provisions of this title, any intoxicating liquors whatsoever, or in any way violate any of the provisions of this title, shall be subject to prosecution by information or indictment, and shall be punished as prescribed in the Penal Code. [Acts of 1893, p. 48. P. C. 378.]

Art. 5728. [3397] Election, how contested.—At any time within thirty days after the result of the election has been declared, any qualified voter of the county, justice's precinct or subdivision of such county, or any town or city of such county in which such election has been held, may contest the said election in the district court of the county in which such election has been held, which shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all suits to contest such election; and the proceedings in such contest shall be conducted in the same manner as has been, or may hereafter be, prescribed; and said court shall have jurisdiction to try and determine all matters connected with said election, including the petition of such election and all proceedings and orders relating thereto, embracing final count and declaration and publication of the result putting local option into effect; and it shall have authority to determine questions relating to the legality and validity of said election, and to determine whether by the action or want of action on the part of the officers to whom was entrusted the control of such election, such a number of legal voters were denied the privilege of voting as had they been allowed to vote might have materially changed the result; and, if it shall appear from the evidence that such irregularities existed in bringing about said election or in holding same, as to render the true result of the election impossible to be arrived at, or very doubtful of ascertaining, the court shall adjudge such election to be void, and shall order the proper officer to order another election to be held, and shall cause a certified copy of such judgment and order of the court to be delivered to such officer upon whom is devolved by law the duty of ordering such election. It is further provided that all such cases shall have precedence in the district court and appellate courts, and that the result of such contest shall finally settle all questions relating to the validity of said election, and it shall not be permissible to again call the legality of said election in question in any other suit or proceeding; and provided, further, that if no contest of said election is filed and prosecuted in the manner and within the time provided above, it shall be conclusively presumed that said election as held and the result thereof declared, are in all respects valid and binding upon all courts; provided, also that pending such contest the enforcement of local option law in such territory shall not be suspended, and that all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed. [Act 1887, p 96, amended 1893, p. 48. Amended act 1907, 1 S. S., p. 447.]

Art. 5729. [3398] Refunding of license tax.—In all cases where any person, firm or association of persons pursuing the occupation of liquor dealers under license issued in accordance with the laws of this state has been or shall hereafter be prevented from pursuing such occupation for the full time to which he would be otherwise entitled by reason of the adoption of local option in any county, precinct, subdivision of such county, town or city, a proportionate amount of the taxes paid by him for the unexpired term shall be refunded to him. [Acts of 1883, p. 110; amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Art. 5730. [3399] District judges to give in charge to grand juries.—It is hereby made the duty of the district judges to give this law in charge to the grand juries; and it is made the special duty of the county attorneys to file or have filed a complaint in the county court of said county against all houses, and the keepers thereof, used for the sale, exchange or gift of any kind of intoxicating liquors, in any county, justice's precinct or subdivision of such county, or of any town or city in such county in this state when local devices are resorted to, to prevent or avoid detection of the keeper thereof; and, upon said complaint being filed with any justice of the peace, describing the place where the device is kept, and the name of the person violating this law, if known, said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant commanding any sheriff or constable to search said place, and, if the law is being violated, to arrest the person or persons so violating the law; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county wherein such house or place where such device is kept, for the sale or gift of intoxicating liquors, to demand admission into the same; and, upon admittance being refused, the sheriff is hereby authorized and required by law to force open the same and arrest and hold for trial before the courts all such persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this title; and it is the duty of the county judges and justices of the peace, having jurisdiction in the premises, to see that this law is rigidly enforced; provided, no arrest or search shall ever be made until the sheriff shall first procure a warrant therefor, issued by the proper authority. [Acts of 1879, p. 41; amend. 1893, p. 48.]

Article 5733. Medical board established.—A board, to be known as the board of medical examiners for the state of Texas, shall consist of eleven men learned in medicine, legal and active practitioners in the state of Texas, who shall have resided and practiced medicine in this state under a diploma from a legal and reputable college of medicine of the school to which said practitioner shall belong for more than three years prior to their appointment, and no one school shall have a majority representation on said board. Said board shall be appointed by the governor of this state within ninety days after his inauguration, and the term of office of its members shall be two years or until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. No member of said board shall be a stockholder or a member of the faculty or a board of trustees of any medical school. Vacancies occurring in the board shall be filled by the governor. The word "medicine," as used in this article, shall have the same meaning and scope as given to it in article 5745. [Act 1907, p. 224, sec. 1.]

Art. 5734. Organization, meetings, etc., of the board.—The members of said board shall qualify by taking the oath of office before a notary public, or other officer empowered to administer oaths, in the county in which each shall respectively reside. At the first meeting of said board after each biennial appointment, the board shall elect a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Six members shall constitute a quorum. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice a year, at such times and places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the board. Special meetings may be held upon a call of three members of the board. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws, in harmony with the provisions of this chapter, for its own proceedings and government for the examination of applicants for the practice of medicine and obstetrics. Said board, or any member, shall have power to administer oaths for all purposes required in the discharge of its duties, and to adopt a seal to be affixed to all of its official documents. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5735. Board shall keep register.—The board of examiners shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing name, age, place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in medical study in respective medical schools, and the year and school from which degrees were granted; said register shall also show whether applicants were rejected or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall, on March 1 of each year, transmit an official copy of said register to the secretary of state for permanent record, certified copy of which, with hand and seal of the secretary of said board, or secretary of state, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5736. Physicians required to register.—It shall be unlawful for any one to practice medicine in any of its branches upon human beings within the limits of this state, who has not registered, in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resides, his authority for so practicing, as herein prescribed, together with his age, postoffice address, place of birth, school of practice to which he professes to belong, subscribed and verified by oath, which, if wilfully false, shall subject the applicant to conviction and punishment for false swearing as provided by law. The fact of such oath and record shall be indorsed by the district clerk upon the certificate. The holder of the certificate must have the same recorded upon each change of residence to another county, and the absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5737. District clerks to keep register.—It is hereby made the duty of the district clerk of each county in this state to purchase a book of suitable size, to be known as the "Medical Register" of such county, and set apart one full page for the registration of each physician, and to record in the same the name and record of each practitioner who presents a certificate from the state board of examiners, issued under this law. The clerk shall receive the sum of one dollar from each physician so registered, which shall be his full compensation for all duties required under this law. When any physician shall die, or remove from the county, or have his license revoked, it shall be the duty of said clerk to make a note of facts at the bottom of the page as closing the record. On the first day of January in each year, said clerk shall, on request of the board, certify to the office of the state board of medical examiners a correct list of the physicians then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. A copy from the medical register pertaining to any person, certified to by said clerk under the seal of said court, also a certificate issued by said officer certifying that any person named has or has not registered in said office as required by this chapter, shall be admitted as evidence in all trial courts. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5738. Reciprocity allowed.—The board of medical examiners may, at its discretion, arrange for reciprocity in license with the authorities of other states and territories having requirements equal to those established by this law. License may be granted applicants for license under such reciprocity on payment of twenty dollars. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5739. Applicants for license to pass examination, etc.—All applicants for license to practice medicine in this state, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of law, must successfully pass an examination before the board of medical examiners established by this law. Applicants to be eligible for examination must present satisfactory evidence to the board that they are more than twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of bona fide, reputable medical schools. Such schools shall be considered reputable within the meaning of this law, whose entrance requirements and courses of instruction are as high as those adopted by the better class of medical schools of the United States, whose course of instruction shall embrace not less than four terms of five months each. Application for examination must be made in writing under affidavit to the secretary of the board, on forms prepared by the board, accompanied by a fee of fifteen dollars; except when an applicant desires to practice obstetrics alone, the fee shall be five dollars. Such applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. Applicants to practice obstetrics in the state of Texas, upon proper application, shall be examined by the board in obstetrics only, and upon satisfactory examination shall be licensed to practice that branch only; provided, this shall not apply to those who do not follow obstetrics as a profession, and who do not advertise themselves as obstetricians or midwives, or hold themselves out to the public as so practicing. In case any applicant, because of failure to pass examination, be refused a license, he or she shall, after one year, be permitted to take a second examination without an additional fee. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5740. Disposition of fees.—The fund realized from the aforesaid fees shall be applied first to the payment of necessary expenses of the board of examiners; any remaining funds shall be applied by the order of the board to compensating members of the board in proportion to their labors. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5741. Examination, how conducted, and to include what.—All examinations shall be conducted in writing, and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals and every school of medicine, the applicants being known by numbers, without names or other method of identification on examination papers by which members of the board may be able to identify such papers, until after the applicants have been granted licenses or rejected. Examinations shall be conducted on the scientific branches of medicine only, and shall include anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, pathology, bacteriology, physical diagnosis, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, hygiene, and medical jurisprudence. Upon satisfactory examination under the rules of the board, applicants shall be granted licenses to practice medicine. All questions and answers, with grades attached, shall be preserved for one year. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions in each of the above branches. All certificates shall be attested by the seal and signed by all members of the board, or a quorum thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5742. Does not apply to whom.—Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to discriminate against any particular school or system of medical practice. This law shall not apply to dentists legally qualified and registered under the laws of this state who confine their practice strictly to dentistry; nor to nurses who practice only nursing; nor to masseurs, in their particular sphere of labor, who publicly represent themselves as such; nor to commissioned or contract surgeons of the United States army, navy or public health and marine hospital service, in the performance of their duties, but such shall not engage in private practice without license from the board of medical examiners; nor to legally qualified physicians of other states called in consultation, but who do not open offices or appoint places in this state where patients may be met or called to see. This law shall be so construed as to apply to persons other than licensed druggists of this state not pretending to be physicians, who offer for sale on the streets or other public places remedies which they recommend for the cure of disease. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5743. Board may refuse to admit certain persons.—The state board of medical examiners may refuse to admit persons to its examinations, or to issue the certificate provided for in this law, for any of the following causes:

1. The presentation to the board of any license, certificate or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination.

2. Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony, or one which involves moral turpitude, or procuring, or aiding or abetting the procuring of a criminal abortion.

3. Other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public; or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction calculated to endanger the lives of patients; provided, that any applicant who may be refused admittance to examination before said board shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court of the county in which some member of the board shall reside. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5744. Revocation of license.—The right to practice medicine in this state may be revoked by any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof of the violation of the law in any respect in regard thereto, or for any cause for which the state board of medical examiners is authorized to refuse to admit persons to its examinations as provided in the preceding article; and it shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this state to file and prosecute appropriate judicial proceedings in the name of the state, on request of any member of said board. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5745. Who regarded as practicing medicine.—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this law:

1. Who shall publicly profess to be a physician or surgeon and shall treat, or offer to treat, any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury, by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof;

2. Or who shall treat or offer to treat any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof and charge therefor, directly or indirectly, money or other compensation. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5746. Definitions.—The terms, “physician,” and, “surgeon,” as used in this law, shall be construed as synonymous, and the terms, “practitioners” and “practitioners of medicine,” and, “practice of medicine,” as used in this law, shall be construed to refer to and include physicians and surgeons. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5747. Malpractice cause for revoking license.—Any physician or person who is engaged in the practice of medicine, surgery, osteopathy, or who belongs to any other school of medicine, whether they use the medicines in their practice or not, who shall be guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct, or of any malpractice, or shall, by any untrue or fraudulent statement or representations made as such physician or person to a patient or other person being treated by such physician or person, procure and withhold, or cause to be withheld, from another any money, negotiable note, or thing of value, may be suspended in his right to practice medicine or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such physician or person resides, or of the county where such conduct or malpractice or false representations occurred, in the manner and form as is provided for revoking or suspending license of attorneys at law in this state. [Act 1905, p. 370, sec. 1.]

Article 5748. Board of nurse examiners.—The board of nurse examiners for the state of Texas shall be composed of five members who shall be trained nurses of at least twenty-three years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of a training school connected with a general hospital or sanitarium of good standing, presided over by a graduate nurse where a two years training with a systematic course of instruction is given in the wards. [Acts 1909, p. 228, sec. 1.]

Art. 5749. By whom appointed.—Said board shall be appointed by the governor of this state biennially, within sixty days after his inauguration, and the term of office shall be two years, or until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. Vacancies occurring in the board shall be filled by the governor. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 5750. Regulations governing board.—The members of said board shall as soon as organized, annually in the month of April, elect from their members a president and secretary who shall also be the treasurer. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and special meetings shall be called by the secretary upon the written request of any two members. The board is authorized to make such by-laws and rules as shall be necessary to govern its proceedings, and to carry into effect the purpose of this law. The board shall adopt Robert's Rules of Order to guide it in the transaction of its business. The secretary shall keep a record of all the meetings of said board, including a register of the names of all nurses duly registered under this law, which shall at all seasonable times be open to public scrutiny; and said board shall cause the prosecution of all persons violating any of the provisions of this law, and may incur necessary expenses on that behalf. The president and secretary shall make biennial report to the governor on or before the first day of January immediately preceding the convening of the legislature, together with a statement of the receipts and disbursements of said board. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5751. Board to meet, examine applicants, etc.—After organization, it shall be the duty of said board to meet regularly once in every six months, notice of which meeting shall be given to the public press and in one nursing journal one month previous to the meeting. At every regular meeting, namely, every six months, it shall be the duty of the board to examine all applicants for registration under this law. Upon filing application for examination, each applicant shall pay an examination fee of ten dollars, which shall in no case be returned to the applicant whether the examination be passed or not, but, in case the applicant passes the examination, then no further fee shall be required for registration. The examination shall be of such a character as to determine the fitness of the applicant to practice professional nursing as contemplated by this law; provided, said board shall prepare questions for examinations and shall examine applicants on the following subjects: Practical nursing, surgical nursing, obstetrical nursing, materia medica, anatomy, physiology, hygiene, dietetics, and gynecology. If the result of the examination shall be satisfactory to the majority of the board, the board shall sign and issue a certificate to the applicant to that effect, which certificate shall be attested by the secretary; whereupon the person named in the certificate shall be duly qualified to practice professional nursing in this state. Any registered nurse from any other state where the laws with reference to professional nursing are up to the standard of the laws of the state of Texas, who shall show to the satisfaction of the board that he or she is a trained, graduate nurse of a hospital or sanitarium, the standard of instruction and training of which shall meet the requirements of the rules prescribed by said board, and who shall be otherwise properly qualified, may receive a certificate and be registered as a nurse of this state without examination. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5752. Persons entitled to registration without examination.—All nurses who were engaged in nursing on the eleventh day of June, 1909, and who show to the satisfaction of the said board that they are of good moral character and were graduated prior to April, 1906, from a training school, connected with a hospital or sanitarium giving a two years general training, or prior to the year, 1901, having given eighteen months general training and which maintains in other respects proper standards, shall be entitled to registration without examination. All persons who were in training in the wards of a general hospital or sanitarium in this state where a two years training with a systematic course of instruction is given on the eleventh day of June, 1909, and shall graduate thereafter, and possess the above qualification, shall be entitled to registration without examination; provided, such application has been made to said board before the first regular meeting. All nurses who have served in the army or navy of the United States and have been honorably discharged shall be entitled to registration without examination. It shall be unlawful hereafter for any person to practice nursing as a trained, graduate, or registered nurse without a certificate from the state board of nurse examiners. A nurse who has received his or her certificate according to the provisions of this law shall be styled and known as a "Registered Nurse." No other person shall assume such title or use the abbreviation "R. N.," or any other letters to indicate that he or she is a trained, graduate, or registered nurse. The board in each instance shall require a registration fee of ten dollars. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5753. Board to have power to revoke certificates, etc.—The state board of nurse examiners shall have the power to revoke any certificate issued in accordance with this law, by a unanimous vote of said board, for gross incompetency, dishonesty, habitual intemperance, or any act derogatory to the morals or standing of the profession of nursing as may be determined by the board; but, before any certificate shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be entitled to at least thirty days notice in writing of the charge against him or her and of the time and place of hearing and determining of such charges, at which time and place he or she shall be entitled to be heard; and, in the event said certificate shall be revoked by said board, the holder of such certificate shall have right of action within thirty days thereafter in the district court of the county of the residence of any member of the board, and said certificate shall remain in force until the question is finally decided by the courts. Upon revocation of any certificate, it shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to strike the name of the holder thereof from the roll of registered nurses. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5754. Disposition of fees.—All fees received by the state board of nurse examiners under this law shall be paid to the treasurer of said board, who shall pay the same out on vouchers issued and signed by the president and secretary of said board upon warrants drawn by the president of the state board of examiners. All money so received and placed in said fund may be used by the state board of nurse examiners in defraying its expenses in carrying out the provisions of this law. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5755.—Law does not apply, when.—This law shall not be construed to affect or apply to the gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family, or to any person nursing the sick for hire who does not in any way assume the practice as a trained, graduate, or registered nurse. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 5756. Board, how constituted; duties of.—The professor of anatomy and the professor of surgery of each of the medical schools or colleges now incorporated, and the several medical and dental schools and colleges which may hereafter be incorporated in this state are constituted a board, to be known as the anatomical board of the state of Texas, for the distribution and delivery of dead human bodies, hereinafter described, to and among such institutions as, under the provisions of this chapter, are entitled thereto. The said board shall have the power to establish rules and regulations for its government, and to appoint and remove proper officers, and shall keep full and complete minutes of its transactions, and records sufficient for identification shall also be kept, under its direction, of all bodies received and distributed by said board and of persons to whom the same may be distributed, which minutes and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of each member of said board and of any district attorney or county attorney of this state. [Act 1907, p. 117, sec. 1.]

Art. 5757. Regulations for delivering dead bodies.—All public officers, agents, and servants, and all officers, agents, and servants of any county, city, town, district, or other municipality, and of any and every almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital, or any other public institution, other than the state orphans' home, the confederate home, the state blind institute, and the state deaf and dumb institute, insane asylum, and epileptic colony, or any other home for the indigent, or other eleemosynary institution maintained by the state, having charge of, or control of, dead human bodies required to be buried at public expense, are hereby required, after notification in writing by said board of distribution or its duly authorized officers, or persons designated by the authorities of said board, then and thereafter to announce to said board, its authorized officer or agent, whenever such body or bodies come into his or their possession, charge, or control, and shall without fee or reward greater than the value of such fee as may be paid in any county, city, town, or municipality on the third day of April, 1907, for the burial of pauper bodies, deliver such body or bodies, and permit and suffer the said board and its agents and the physicians and surgeons, from time to time designated by them, who may comply with the provisions of this chapter, to take and remove all such bodies as are not desired for post mortem examinations by the medical staff of public hospitals or institutions for the insane, to be used within this state for the advancement of medical science; but no such notice need be given, nor any such body be delivered, if any person claiming to be and satisfying the authorities in charge of such body that he or she is of a kindred or is related by marriage to the deceased, or is a bona fide friend or representative of an organization of which the deceased was a member, shall claim the said body for burial, but it shall be surrendered, without cost to such claimant for interment, or shall, upon such claimant's request, be interred in the manner provided for the interment of bodies not coming within the operation of this chapter, nor shall notice be given for the body to be delivered, if the deceased died of contagious disease, save tuberculosis, or syphilis; nor shall notice be given, if such deceased person were a traveler who died suddenly, in which case, the body shall be buried. It is further required that due effort be made by those in charge of such almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital, or other public institution having charge or control of such dead human bodies, to find kindred or relatives of such deceased and notify him or her of the death; and failure to claim such body by kindred or relation within twenty-four hours after receipt of such notification shall be recognized as bringing such body under the provisions of this chapter, and delivery shall be made as soon thereafter to said board, its officers, or agents as may be possible. Such person in charge of such public institution shall file with the county judge an affidavit that he has made diligent inquiry and stating such inquiry as he has made. In case a body is claimed by relatives within ten days after it has been delivered to an institution or person entitled to receive the same under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be delivered to them for burial and without cost. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5758. Distribution of bodies to various institutions.—The board, or their duly authorized agents, may take and receive such bodies so delivered as aforesaid, and shall, upon receiving them, distribute and deliver to and among the schools, colleges, physicians and surgeons aforesaid in the manner following: Those bodies needed for lecture and demonstration, in the said incorporated schools and colleges, shall first be supplied; the remaining bodies shall then be distributed proportionately and equitably, the number assigned to each to be based upon the number of students receiving instruction or demonstration in normal or morbid anatomy and operative surgery, which number shall be certified by the dean of each school or college to the board at such times as it may direct. Instead of receiving and delivering said bodies themselves through their agent or servant, the said board may, from time to time, either directly or by their designated officer or agent, authorize physicians and surgeons who shall receive them, and the number which each shall receive. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5759. Regulations for moving bodies; records to be kept.—The board may employ public carriers for the conveyance of said bodies, which shall be carefully deposited, with the least possible public display. Sender shall keep on permanent file a description by name, color, sex, age, place and cause of death of each body transmitted by him; or where the body shall be one of a person unknown, the color, age, sex, place and supposed cause of death; and any other data available for identification, such as scars, deformities, etc., shall be put on record. A duplicate of this description shall be mailed, or otherwise safely conveyed, to the person or institution to whom the body is being sent; and the person or institution receiving such body shall, without delay, mail or otherwise safely convey to sender a receipt for the same in the full terms of the description furnished by sender. All these records shall be filed in a manner to be determined by the board so that they may be at any time available for inspection by the board, or any district or county attorney of this state. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5760. Schools, colleges, etc., may dissect bodies.—Any and all schools, colleges, and persons who may be designated by said anatomical board of the state of Texas, shall be, and are, by this chapter authorized to dissect, operate upon, examine, and experiment upon such bodies hereinbefore described and distributed for the furtherance of medical science; and such dissections, operations, examinations, and experiments shall not be considered as amenable under any already existing laws for the prevention of mutilation of dead human bodies. Such persons, schools, or colleges shall keep a permanent record, sufficient for identification of each body received from such anatomical board or agent, which record shall be subject to inspection by the board, or its authorized officer or agent. The board shall also have power to authorize incorporated schools or colleges and individual physicians and surgeons to experiment on the lower animals under bond as hereinafter designated. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5761. Parties receiving bodies to give bond.—No school, college, physician, or surgeon shall be allowed or permitted to receive any such body or bodies until bond shall have been given to the state by such physician or surgeon, or by or in behalf of such school or college, to be approved by the clerk of the county court in and for the county in which such physician or surgeon may reside, or in which such school or college may be situated, and to be filed in the office of said clerk; which bond shall be in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that all such bodies which the said physician or surgeon, or said college, shall receive thereafter shall be used, and all such experiments on the lower animals shall be conducted only for the promotion of medical science; and whosoever shall sell or buy such body or bodies, or in any way traffic in the same, or shall transmit or convey, or cause or procure to be transmitted or conveyed, said bodies to any place outside the state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, be punished as provided in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5762. Expenses, by whom paid.—Neither the state, nor any county, nor municipality, nor any officer, agent or servant thereof, shall be at any expense by reason of the delivery or distribution of any such body; but all expense thereof, and of said board of distribution, shall be paid by those receiving the bodies in such manner as may be specified by said anatomical board of the state of Texas, or otherwise agreed upon. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5763. Compensation of board.—No compensation other than actual traveling expenses shall be received for their services in this capacity by members of this board. [Id. sec. 9.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

	Article.		Article.
Active and reserve militia.....	5764	Exemptions	5766
Who are subject to military duty.....	5765	Governor to be commander-in-chief.....	5767

Article 5764. Active and reserve militia.—The militia of this state shall be divided into two classes, the active and the reserve militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of this state, which shall be known as the Texas national guard; the reserve militia shall consist of all those liable to service in the militia, but not serving in the Texas national guard. [Acts 1905, p. 167, sec. 2.]

Art. 5765. Who are subject to military duty.—All able-bodied male citizens, and able-bodied males of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens, who are more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age, who are residents of this state, and who are not exempted by the laws of the United States, or of this state, shall constitute the militia and be subject to military duty. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 5766. Exemptions.—In addition to the persons exempted by the laws of the United States, the following persons shall be exempt from military duty in this state, namely:

1. The lieutenant governor and the heads of the several departments.
2. The judges and clerks of all courts of record.
3. The members and officers of both houses of the legislature.
4. The sheriffs, district attorneys, county attorneys, county assessors, county collectors, county treasurers, and county commissioners.
5. The mayor, alderman, assessor and collector of incorporated cities and towns.
6. The officers and guards of state prisons, houses of correction, and the officers and instructors and attendants of other state institutions; keepers, attendants and assistants of poor houses; superintendents, nurses and assistants of all hospitals.
7. The members of any regularly organized and paid fire or police department in any city or town, but no member of the active militia shall be relieved from duty because of his joining any such fire company or department.
8. All ministers of the gospel exclusively engaged in their calling; all teachers engaged in public institutions and public schools.
9. All persons who shall have served in the active militia of this state for the term of seven years, and have been honorably discharged therefrom.
10. Idiots, lunatics, vagabonds, confirmed drunkards, persons addicted to the use of narcotic drugs, and persons convicted of infamous crimes.
11. Any person who conscientiously scruples to bear arms; provided he shall pay an equivalent for personal service.

12. All such exempted persons, except those enumerated in subdivision 10, shall be liable to military duty in case of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5767. Governor to be commander-in-chief.—The governor of this state, by virtue of his office, shall be the commander-in-chief of the military forces of this state, except of such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. Whenever the governor is unable to perform the duties of commander-in-chief, the adjutant general of this state shall command the military forces of this state, except in cases where the lieutenant governor, or the president of the senate, under the laws of this state, is required to perform the duties of governor. [Id. sec. 4.]

	Power of governor to call out militia...5776
	Reserve militia to be mustered in, when..5777

Article 5768. Reserve militia not subject to military duty, except, etc.—The reserve militia shall not be subject to active military duty, except when called into the service of this state, or of the United States, in case of war, insurrection, invasion, or for the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, tumults and breaches of the peace, or to aid the civil officers in the execution of the law and the service of process, in which case, they or so many of them as the necessity requires, may be ordered out for actual service by draft or otherwise, as the governor may direct. The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted shall be mustered into the service for such period as may be required, and the governor may assign them to existing organizations of the active militia, or organize them as the exigency of the occasion may require. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5769. Governor may order enrollment.—Whenever the governor deems it necessary, he may order an enrollment of all persons, other than members of the active militia, liable to military duty, to be made by the county assessor of each county, or by other persons designated by the governor. Such enrollment shall state the name, residence, age, color, and occupation of the persons enrolled. Enrolling officers shall have power to question under oath, which they are hereby authorized to administer, any person deemed liable to perform military duty, but who denies the same; and, if any person refuses to be sworn, the enrolling officer shall enroll his name in the same manner as though he had admitted his liability. The assessor, or such other person as may be designated by the governor to act as enrolling officer, shall, within such time as may be required by the governor, prepare and file three copies of such enrollment, properly certifying that he has enrolled all persons residing in his county, who are liable to perform military duty, one copy to be filed in the office of the adjutant general, one copy in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the enrollment was made, and one copy retained by the enrolling officer. Upon filing the lists of enrollment, as herein provided, the enrolling officer shall be paid eight cents for each person so enrolled and notified, as hereinafter set out, out of the treasury of the county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5770. Officer making enrollment to serve notice, etc.—The officer making the enrollment shall, at the time of making the same, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him, or leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion, at his place of residence, or by mailing such notice at the expense of the county to his last known place of residence or abode. All persons claiming exemption must, within ten days after receiving such notice, file a written statement of such exemption, verified by affidavit, in the office of the county clerk. Such clerk shall thereupon, if such person be exempted according to law, mark the word, "exempt," opposite his name; and the remainder of all thus enrolled, and not thus found to be exempt, shall constitute the militia of this state and be subject to military duty; and such clerk shall transmit a copy of such corrected list of enrollment to the adjutant general within twenty days after the filing of the original list of enrollment by the enrolling officer, for which he shall be allowed two cents for each name on such list, to be paid by the county. The officer highest in rank in the active militia, and the heads of the fire and police departments in each city or town, shall, whenever an enrollment is ordered, file, within ten days, in the office of such county clerk a certified list of the names of all persons in the active militia of such county or in such department. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5771. Persons making enrollment to have access to assessment rolls.—The assessor in each county of this state shall allow persons appointed to make such enrollment, if persons other than the assessor be appointed, at all proper times to examine their assessment rolls and make copies thereof. All persons shall, upon the application of any person making such enrollment, give the name of and all other information concerning any person within their knowledge liable to be enrolled, under penalty of ten dollars for every concealment, or false information, or refusal to give the information requested, to be recovered in the name of the state of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney in the justice court, Austin, Texas, or precinct of his residence, with costs. The officer making the enrollment shall, within ten days, report all persons who shall fail or neglect to give information to the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5772. Governor may draft for military duty, when.—Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the reserve militia for active duty, the governor may apportion the number by draft according to the population of the several counties of the state, or otherwise, as he shall direct. The governor shall direct his order to the sheriff of each county from which any draft is required, setting forth the number of persons such county is to furnish. Upon the requisition of the governor being received by the sheriff, he shall immediately personally notify the county clerk, who shall repair to his office and in public shall copy by name or number, from the corrected list of enrollment of such county on file in his office, all persons who are so returned as liable to perform military duty; such names, or their corresponding numbers, shall be placed on slips of paper of the same size and appearance, as near as practicable, which slips, so named or numbered, shall be placed in a box suitable for that purpose, and the number required to fill such draft or requisition shall be drawn therefrom, in the same manner as jurors are by law now drawn. All persons so drawn and liable to perform military duty shall be determined to be legally held to serve, in the manner and for the purpose and time specified in the requisition; and the sheriff shall notify the persons so drafted by registered letter, or personally in writing, at what time and place they shall appear; for which service he shall receive expense of postage and five cents each, to be paid by the county. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5773. Persons drafted shall report, etc.—Every member of the reserve militia ordered out, or who volunteers, or is drafted, under the provisions of this law, who does not appear at the time and place designated by the sheriff, or his commanding officer, within twenty-four hours from such time, or who does not produce a sworn statement of physical disability from a physician in good standing, to so appear, shall be taken to be a deserter and dealt with as prescribed for deserters by law. [Id. sec 10.]

Art. 5774. Persons drafted may furnish substitute.—Any person in the reserve militia of this state, who has been drawn to perform military duty, may, at any time, be exempt until again required in his turn to serve, by furnishing an acceptable substitute on or before the day fixed for his appearance; but, if, during any period of service, any man who is serving in the active militia as a substitute for another, becomes liable to service in his own person, he shall be taken for such service, and his place as substitute shall be supplied by the man in whose stead he was serving, or another substitute. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5775. Officer neglecting or refusing to perform duty in drafting, liable for penalty.—If any sheriff, or constable, county assessor, or county clerk, shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon him by this law, in addition to criminal liability, the person or persons guilty of such refusal or neglect shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered against him or his bondsmen in the name of the state of Texas, by suit instituted by a judge advocate, district or county attorney, in the proper court of Travis county, or the county of which such person is the sheriff, constable, assessor or clerk. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5776. Power of governor to call out militia.—The governor shall have power, in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, or breach of peace, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the active service of this state any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia of this state, or a part thereof, is called forth under the constitution and laws of the United States, the governor shall order out for service the active militia, or such part thereof as may be necessary; and, if the number available be insufficient, he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the militia in the service of the United States, their state designations shall not be given to new organizations. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5777. Reserve militia to be mustered in, when.—The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted into the service, as indicated in articles 5768 and 5772 of this chapter, shall be immediately mustered into the service for such period as the governor may direct, and shall be organized into troops, batteries, companies and such other organizations as may be necessary, which may be arranged in squadrons, battalions, regiments, or corps, or assigned to organizations of the active militia already existing. The governor is authorized to appoint the officers necessary to commence or complete, or to command any organization thus created. Such new organization shall be equipped, disciplined and governed according to the military laws and military regulations of this state. [Id. sec. 14.]

ORGANIZATION.

Article 5778. National guard to consist of existing military organizations.—The Texas national guard shall consist of the existing military organizations, and such others as may be organized hereafter, and such persons as are held to military duty under the laws of this state, or such persons as are exempt under said laws who may accept appointment or voluntarily enlist therein, or of such persons of the reserve militia as may be mustered therein; as provided in articles 5768 and 5777 of this title; but at no time, except in case of war, insurrection, invasion, the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, or the aiding of the civil authorities in the execution of the laws of this state, shall the maximum strength thereof exceed seven thousand officers and enlisted men. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5779. Governor to prescribe regulations for government of national guard.—The governor is hereby authorized, and it shall be his duty, to prescribe such regulations as he may see fit for the organization of the Texas national guard; and he shall, from time to time, as he may deem for the best interests of the service, change such regulations, which shall be in accordance with this chapter, and conform as near as practicable to the organization of the regular army of the United States. He may, at any time for cause deemed good and sufficient by him, muster out of the service or reorganize any portion of the Texas national guard or the reserve militia, or discharge any officer or enlisted man thereof, and he shall have full control and authority over all matters touching the military forces of this state, its organization, equipment and discipline. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5780. Governor to make and publish regulations.—The governor is hereby authorized, and it shall be his duty, to make and publish regulations in accordance with existing military laws, for the government of the military forces of this state, which shall embrace all necessary orders and forms of general character for the performance of all duties incumbent on officers and men in the military service, including rules for the government of courts martial; the existing regulations to remain in force until the governor shall have published such regulations. The governor shall, as he may see fit from time to time, create new regulations, or amend, modify, or repeal existing regulations. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5781. Governor's staff.—The governor shall have a staff consisting of the adjutant general and nine aids-de-camp. The adjutant general shall have rank and be appointed as provided by this chapter, the nine aids-de-camp shall have the rank of lieutenant colonel while so serving, and shall be appointed by and serve during the pleasure of the governor. Three of the aids-de-camp shall be selected from officers of the Texas national guard below the grade of colonel, and six shall be selected without restriction as to source of selection. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5782. Military organizations deemed bodies corporate, etc.—Whenever any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band is mustered into the active militia of this state by the authority of the governor, such troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band shall, from the date of such muster-in, be deemed and held in law a body corporate and politic, with power under its corporate name to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to prosecute and defend in the courts of this state, or elsewhere; to have and use a common seal, of such devices as it may adopt; to ordain and establish by-laws for the government and regulation of the company affairs not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state and of the United States, and the orders and regulations of the governor; and such by-laws to alter and amend at will; and generally to do and perform any and all things necessary and proper to be done in carrying out and perfecting the purpose of its organization, of which the officers, and in case of a band, the non-commissioned officer shall be directors, the senior president. [Id. sec. 54.]

Art. 5783. Discipline to conform to that of the United States army—The system of discipline and exercise of the active militia of this state shall conform generally to that of the army of the United States, as it is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the president, and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided by law, or by the regulations issued by the governor. [Id. sec. 67.]

Art. 5784. Prohibiting organization of military companies, except, etc.—No body of men, other than the regularly organized militia of this state and the troops of the United States, shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization or parade in public with firearms in any city or town of this state; but students in the educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction, and soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States, and confederate veterans, may, with the consent of the governor, drill and parade with firearms in public. This article shall not be construed to prevent parades by the active militia of any other state as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 74.]

ADJUTANT GENERAL.

Art. 5785. Adjutant general's department.—There shall be at the seat of government of this state an executive department known as the adjutant general's department, and the adjutant general shall be the head thereof. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5786. Rank of adjutant general.—The adjutant general shall have the rank of brigadier general, and shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, if in session. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5787. Term of office and salary of adjutant general.—The adjutant general shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until the appointment and qualification of his successor in office. In case of a vacancy in such office, the appointment shall be made for the unexpired term only. He shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 5788. Oath and bond of adjutant general.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, the person appointed adjutant general shall enter into a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, which bond shall be in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of said office. He shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution for all officers, which oath and bond shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 5789. Shall have a seal.—The adjutant general shall procure and keep in his office, a seal for the authentication of all certificates and other instruments emanating from his office, when such authentication is required by law or necessary, the device upon which seal shall consist of a star of five points with the words, "Office of Adjutant General, State of Texas," around the margin. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 5790. Shall have control of military department of the state.—The adjutant general shall be in control of the military department of this state and subordinate only to the governor in matters pertaining to said department, or the military forces of this state; and he shall perform such duties as may, from time to time, be entrusted to him by the governor relative to the military commissions, the military forces, the military stores and supplies, or to other matters respecting military affairs of this state; and he shall conduct the business of the department in such manner as the governor shall direct. And he shall have the custody and charge of all books, records, papers, furniture, fixtures, and other property relating to his department; and shall perform, as near as practicable, such duties as pertain to the chief of staff, the military secretary and other chiefs of staff departments, under the regulations and customs of the United States army. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 5791. Duties of adjutant general.—The adjutant general shall, from time to time, define and prescribe the kind as well as the amount of supplies to be purchased for the military forces of this state, and the duties and powers respecting such purchases; and shall prescribe general regulations for the transportation of the articles of supply from the places of purchase to the several camps, stations of companies, or other necessary places for the safe-keeping of such articles, and for the distribution of an adequate and timely supply of the same to the regimental quartermasters, and to such other officers as may, by virtue of such regulations, be entrusted with the same; and shall fix and make reasonable allowance for the store rent and storage necessary for the safe-keeping of all military stores and supplies; and shall control and supervise the transportation of troops, munitions of war, equipments, military property and stores throughout the state. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 5792. Same.—The adjutant general is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations to be observed in the preparation and submission and opening of bids for contracts under the adjutant general's department; and he may, at his discretion, require any bid to be accompanied by a bond in such penal sum as he may deem advisable, with good and sufficient security, conditioned that the bidder will enter into a contract agreeable to the terms of his bid, if the same be awarded to him, within sixty days from the date of the opening of the bids, or otherwise pay the penalty. No bid shall be withdrawn by the bidder within the said period of sixty days. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 5793. Same.—The adjutant general is authorized to prescribe regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government of his department, the conduct of its officers and clerks, the distribution and performance of its business, the custody, use and preservation of the records, papers and property appertaining to it. He shall superintend the preparation of such returns and reports as may be required by the laws of the United States from this state, and perform such other duties prescribed for him by this act or by other laws of this state, or by the governor. He shall keep a register of all officers of the militia of this state, and keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein. He shall, at the expense of this state, when necessary, cause the military law and regulations of this state to be printed, indexed and bound in proper and compact form and distributed to the commissioned officers, sheriffs, clerks and assessors of the counties of this state at the rate of one copy to each; and to each commissioned officer and headquarters he shall issue one copy of the necessary text books, and of such annual reports concerning the militia as the governor may direct. He shall cause to be prepared and issued all necessary blank books, blanks, forms and notices required to carry into full effect the provisions of this act. All such books and blanks shall be and remain the property of this state. He shall make such regulations pertaining to the preparation of the reports and returns, and to the care and preservation of property for military purposes, whether belonging to this state or to the United States, as, in his opinion, the conditions demand; such regulations to be operative and in force when promulgated in the form of general orders, circulars, or letters of instruction. He shall report annually to the governor:

1. A statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since his last annual report.

2. An account of all arms, ammunition, and other military property belonging to this state, or in possession of this state, from what source received, to whom issued, and its present condition, so far as he may be informed.

3. The number, condition and organization of the Texas national guard and reserve militia.

4. Any suggestions which he may deem of importance to the military interests and conditions of this state and the perfection of its military organization. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 5794. Annual report to be printed.—The annual report provided for in the preceding article shall be printed annually and laid before the legislature for its information. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 5795. To hire clerks and laborers.—All necessary clerks and employes will be appointed and laborers will be hired by the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 5796. Assistant adjutant general.—The adjutant general shall have one assistant adjutant general, who shall fill the position of chief clerk, with the rank of colonel, one assistant quartermaster general, with the rank of colonel, and such necessary clerks, employes, and laborers as may be required, from time to time, to carry on the operations of his department, all of whom shall be under the direction and control of the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 5797. Assistant adjutant general to be appointed by the governor.—The assistant adjutant general shall be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the adjutant general, and shall remain in office during the pleasure of the governor, and until his successor is appointed and qualifies. He shall receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, and shall, during his term of office, be entitled to all rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas national guard. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas national guard, which oath shall be deposited in the office of the adjutant general. He shall aid the adjutant general by the performance of such duties as may be assigned him, and shall, in case of absence or inability of the adjutant general to act, perform all such portions of the duties of the adjutant general as the latter may expressly delegate to him. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 5798. Authorized to administer oaths to officers of militia, etc.—The assistant adjutant general is hereby authorized and directed, on application and without compensation therefor, to administer oaths of office to officers of the active militia, and to employes of the adjutant general's office required to be taken on their appointment or promotion. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 5799. To issue certificates to organizations, etc.—On the muster-in to the active militia of this state of any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band, the adjutant general shall issue to such organization a certificate to the effect that such organization has been duly organized in accordance with the laws and regulations of the militia service of this state, and that such organization is entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred by such laws and regulations. Such certificate shall be in such form as the adjutant general may prescribe. Such certificate shall be evidence in all courts of this state that the organization therein named is duly incorporated; but, in suits by or against any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band of the active militia of this state, it shall not be necessary for either party, where the incorporation is alleged, to prove such incorporation, unless that fact is denied under oath by the opposite party. [Id. sec. 55.]

Art. 5800. To purchase certain military stores, etc.—The adjutant general may, after the appropriations are made for that purpose, purchase and keep ready for use, or issue to the military forces of this state, as the best interests of the service may require, such amount and kind of quartermaster's, ordnance, subsistence, medical, signal, engineer's, and all other military stores and supplies as shall be necessary; he shall see that all military stores and supplies, both the property of this state and of the United States, are properly cared for and kept in good order, ready for use; and all accounts which may accrue against this state under the provisions of this chapter shall, if correct, be certified and approved by the adjutant general and paid out of the state treasury as other claims are paid. Any military stores belonging to this state which may become unserviceable, obsolete, or unfit for further use, may be disposed of in such manner as the governor or adjutant general may prescribe by regulations or order; and the adjutant general is hereby authorized to sell or destroy, as he may see fit for the best interests of the service, any unserviceable, or obsolete, or unsuitable military stores belonging to this state, the sums realized from the sale thereof to be turned into the state treasury, to be credited to any fund appropriated for the use of the active militia of this state, as shall be determined at the time by the governor or adjutant general; or he may, in his discretion, exchange such stores for such other military stores as the interest of the service may require, for the use of the active militia of this state. [Id. sec. 101.]

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER GENERAL.

Art. 5801. Assistant quartermaster general.—The assistant quartermaster general shall be appointed by the governor on recommendation of the adjutant general, and shall remain in office during the pleasure of the governor, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, and shall, during his term of office, be entitled to all rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas national guard. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, which bond shall be in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office, and conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office and disburse and account for all moneys, and to faithfully keep, issue and account for all military stores, supplies and other property of this state, or of the United States, coming into his possession or entrusted to his care for the use of the military forces of this state. He shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas national guard, which oath and bond shall be deposited in the office of the adjutant general. He shall, under the immediate direction of the adjutant general, perform, as near as may be, the duties pertaining to the chiefs of the quartermaster, subsistence, and ordnance departments under the regulation and customs of the United States army. He shall, upon assuming the duties of his office, receipt to the adjutant general for all military property of whatever kind belonging to this state, or to the United States, which may be on hand and intended for the use of or issue to the military forces of this state, and he shall also receipt to the adjutant general for such other military property as may, from time to time, be received from the United States, or from other sources. He shall be responsible for all quartermaster's, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies belonging to this state, or which may be issued to this state by the United States, except such of the above mentioned stores and supplies as may be issued to officers and organizations of the military forces of this state in accordance with the regulations in force. He shall issue and receive such quartermaster's, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies as the governor, or the adjutant general, may direct. He shall attend to the care, preservation, safe keeping, and repairing of the arms, ordnance, accoutrements, equipments and all other military property belonging to this state, or issued to this state by the United States, for the purpose of arming and equipping the military forces of this state. He shall prepare such returns of all quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies that have been issued this state by the United States at the times and in the manner required by the secretary of war, and shall render semi-annually to the adjutant general returns of all military stores and supplies on hand or issued, in such manner as required by the adjutant general. He shall render to the adjutant general annually, or oftener if required, a statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since last report. He shall perform the duties of quartermaster, commissary, and paymaster of the ranger force, and such other duties as may be required of him by the governor or the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 33.]

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS.

Art. 5802. Officers to be commissioned by governor.—All officers in the military service of this state shall be appointed and commissioned by the governor, at his discretion; and no one shall be recognized as an officer, unless he shall have been duly commissioned, and shall have taken the oath of office. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 5803. Commissions.—All commissions in the military service of this state shall be in the name and by the authority of the state of Texas, sealed with the state seal, signed by the governor, and attested by the secretary of state, and recorded by the adjutant general in a record book kept in his office for that purpose; provided, no fee for issuing such commissions shall be charged, or collected. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 5804. Qualifications of commissioned officers.—Commissioned officers must be citizens of the United States and residents of this state of the age of eighteen years or upward. No person who has been dishonorably discharged from the military service of this state, or expelled from any military organization, shall be commissioned, unless he produces the written consent to such appointment of the commanding officer of the organization from which he was expelled or dishonorably discharged, and of the commanding officer who approved such expulsion, or issued such dishonorable discharge. No person shall be commissioned, unless he shall possess the additional requirements herein prescribed for the particular office to which he is to be commissioned. A general officer, at the time of appointment, must be an officer above the grade of captain in the military service of this state, and must have been, for six successive years immediately preceding his appointment, a commissioned officer in such service, or he must have had previous service as a commissioned officer in the military service of this state, or of the United States, or both, for nine years. A colonel of a regiment, at the time of his appointment, must be an officer in the active service of the military forces of this state, and for five successive years immediately preceding his appointment must have been an officer in such active service, or must have had previous service of at least eight years in the active military forces of this state, or of the United States, or both. A lieutenant colonel, or a major of the line, at the time of his appointment, must be an officer in active service of the military forces of this state, and for four successive years immediately preceding his appointment must have been an officer in such active service, or must have had previous service of at least seven years in the active military forces of this state, or of the United States, or both. Staff officers, on promotion to colonel, must have had two years previous service as an officer in the active military forces of this state, or of the United States, or both; on promotion to lieutenant colonel or major, one year previous service as above. A judge advocate must be a counsellor at law of the supreme court of this state of at least ten years standing, if of the grade of colonel, or lieutenant colonel; of at least seven years, if of the grade of major, and of at least four years standing, if of the grade of captain. Surgeons and assistant surgeons must be graduates of a reputable school of medicine, and of at least ten years practice, if of the grade of lieutenant colonel; of at least seven years practice, if of the grade of major; of at least five years, if of the grade of captain; and of at least two years, if of the grade of lieutenant. An engineer officer of the military forces of this state must have been educated as a military or civil engineer. A signal officer must have a knowledge of signaling, telegraphing, topography, and map making. A veterinary surgeon must be a graduate of a reputable incorporated school of veterinary science. A chaplain must be a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 5805. Officers to pass examination.—Before receiving a commission consequent upon an original appointment, or before being commissioned to a higher grade as a result of promotion, every officer must have passed a satisfactory examination before a board as to his knowledge of military affairs and general knowledge and fitness for the service. Anyone failing to pass such examination shall not be eligible for an office in the militia of this state, or for promotion, for the period of one year from the date of such failure. Judge advocates, medical officers, and veterinary surgeons shall be examined as to their general and professional knowledge and fitness for the service only. The following are exempt from examination: General officers, chaplains and enlisted men placed on the retired list as brevet second lieutenants. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 5806. Boards of examiners to be appointed by governor.—Boards of examination under the preceding article shall be appointed by the governor. Such boards shall consist of not less than three officers, and shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court martial. When returns of appointments are received by a board, the persons appointed shall by it be ordered before it for examination, and the result of the examination, with all papers in the case, shall be forwarded to the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 5807. Officers to take oath within ten days after appointment.—Every officer duly commissioned shall, within ten days after his commission is tendered to him, or within ten days after he shall have been notified personally or by mail that the same is held in readiness for him by a superior officer, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed before an officer authorized to administer an oath, or some general or field officer, or an officer who shall hold the assimilated grade of a field officer, who has taken the oath himself, and who is hereby authorized to administer the same. In case of neglect or refusal to take and subscribe such oath within the time mentioned, such commission shall be canceled by the governor, and a new appointment shall be made; such oath of office shall be filed in the office of the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 5808. Governor may confer brevet commissions.—The governor may, upon the recommendation of their commanding officers, confer brevet commissions of a grade higher than the ordinary or brevet commissions ever held by them, upon officers of the military service of this state for gallant conduct, or meritorious service of not less than twenty-five years. He may also confer upon officers in active service in the military service of this state, who have previously served in the forces of the United States in time of war, brevet commissions of a grade equal to the highest grade in which they previously served. Such commissions shall carry with them only such privileges or rights as are allowed in like cases in military service of the United States. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 5809. Supernumerary list.—Officers who shall be rendered surplus by reduction or disbandment of organizations, or in any manner provided by this law, now or hereafter, shall, at the discretion of the governor, be withdrawn from active service and placed upon the supernumerary list. The governor may detail supernumerary officers for active duty, in which case they shall rank in their grade from the date of such detail, and he may relieve them from such duty and return them to the supernumerary list at his discretion. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 5810. Retirement.—Any officer of the active militia who has reached the age of sixty-four years may be placed upon the retired list by the governor. Any officer who shall have served as an officer in the same grade in the military service of this state for the continuous period of eight years, or as an officer in the military service of this state continuously for ten years, or as an officer in the military service of this state for twelve years, or as an officer and enlisted man in the military service of this state for eighteen years, may, upon his own request, be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command by the governor. Any officer who has become, or who shall hereafter become, disabled, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be withdrawn from active service and placed on the retired list by the governor. Any officer who has become, or shall hereafter become, unfit or incompetent, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be discharged upon the recommendation of his commanding officer, or the recommendation of an inspecting officer. Such retirement or discharge shall be by order of the governor, and, in either case, shall be subject to the provisions of this article. Before making such order, the governor shall, at his discretion, appoint a board of not less than five commissioned officers, one of whom shall be a surgeon, whose duty it shall be to determine the fact as to the nature and cause of incapacity of such officer as appears disabled or unfit, or incompetent, from any cause to perform military service, and whose case shall be referred to it. No officer whose grade or promotion would be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decisions of the board in such case. Such board is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, shall report such fact to the governor, stating cause of incapacity, whether from disability, unfitness, or incompetency, and if he approves such finding such officer shall be placed on the retired list, or discharged, as herein provided. The members of the board shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, be sworn to an honest and impartial performance of their duties as members of such board. No officer shall be placed upon the retired list, or discharged by the action of such board, if appointed by the governor, without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if upon the notice he shall demand it, and the governor in his discretion shall think proper to appoint such board. It shall not be necessary to refer to any case for the action of such board arising under this article, unless the officer designated be placed on the retired list or discharged shall, within twenty days after being notified that he will be so retired or discharged, serve on the adjutant general a notice in writing that he demands a hearing and examination before such board, and the governor approve such demand. The governor may withdraw from active service and command and place upon the retired list any officer who has been twenty-five years in the military service of this state, on the recommendation of the commanding officer of his organization and the commanding officer of the brigade or division. Vacancies created by the operations of this article shall be filled in the same manner as other vacancies. [Id. sec. 42.]

Art. 5811. Governor may order board to examine character, etc., of officers.—The governor may, whenever he may deem that the good of the service requires it, order any officer before a board of examination, to consist of not less than three nor more than five officers above the grade of captain, which is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and such board shall examine into the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of such officer, and record and return the testimony taken and a record of its proceedings. If the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the governor, he shall be discharged from the service. No officer whose grade or promotion would in any way be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Failure to appear when ordered before a board constituted under this article shall be a sufficient ground for a finding by such board that the officer ordered to appear be discharged. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art. 5812. Governor may require bond from officers.—When required to do so by the governor, any officer of the active militia of this state shall give good and sufficient bond in such sum as the adjutant general may direct, payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office, at Austin, Texas, conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and faithfully to expend all public money of this state and account for the same, and to account for and safely keep all public property of this state, or of the United States issued and intended for use of the military forces of this state, which he may receive from time to time, and to promptly turn over the same to whomsoever the governor may direct. Such bond shall be signed by at least two good and sufficient sureties, or executed and guaranteed by any corporation having power to guarantee the fidelity of persons holding positions of public or private trust, which such corporations are hereby authorized to execute, which may be authorized to carry on business in this state; such bond shall be in such sum as may be prescribed by the adjutant general, and shall be approved by him and filed in his office; and such bond shall not extend to the reasonable wear and tear of arms, equipments, and other military supplies, incident to the military service; provided, that the commanding officer of every troop, battery, company, or signal corps and the chief musician of every band mustered into the military service of this state shall file the bond provided by this article in the office of the adjutant general, before the commission of such officer shall be issued, or any arms, uniforms, equipments, or other military property shall be issued for the use of his organization; and, provided, further, that when required to do so by the governor any non-commissioned officer or enlisted man of the military forces of this state shall make and file the bond as provided by this article. Whenever such bond is sued upon, the principal and sureties therein shall pay a reasonable attorneys' fee, not to exceed ten per cent, and said fee shall not be less than ten dollars, and they shall also pay all court costs in connection with such suit. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 5813. Records admissible as evidence.—Copies of all bonds and other papers filed in the office of the adjutant general, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or any other law of this state, certified under the hand and seal of office of the adjutant general, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts of this state, in the same manner and with like effect as the original would be if duly proven. [Id. sec. 53.]

Art. 5814. Commanding officers may make certain deductions.—The commanding officer of any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band is hereby authorized to deduct from any pay for military service due any officer or enlisted man of his organization such amount as such officer or enlisted man may owe his organization for dues and fines, as provided by the by-laws of such organization. [Id. sec. 56.]

Art. 5815. Company commanders custodians of company funds.—The commanding officer of each company shall be the custodian of the company fund, and it shall be his duty to receive, safely keep, and properly disburse, as may be required by the governor, all money that may be entrusted to his care, and to render, on June 30 and December 31 of each year, to adjutant general, an itemized statement of all money by him received and disbursed for the preceding six months. [Id. sec. 60.]

Art. 5816. In case of absence or disability duty shall descend to next ranking officer.—The duties assigned to an officer by title in this chapter shall devolve, in case of absence or disability to command of the officer named, upon the line officer next in rank, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 63.]

Art. 5817. Officer can excuse from duty, when.—The officer ordering any military duty shall have the power to excuse any officer or enlisted man for absence therefrom upon good and sufficient grounds. [Id. sec. 65.]

Art. 5818. Commissioned officers to furnish arms, etc.—Every commissioned officer shall provide himself with the arms, uniforms, and equipments prescribed and approved by the governor. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 5819. Certain applicants for commissions exempt from examination.—Any person who graduates from any college or school of this state, wherein there is a prescribed course of military instruction under the supervision of an officer of the United States army, or an officer of the active militia of this state, shall, if he applies for appointment as a commissioned officer in the active militia of this state, in the grade of second lieutenant, within two years after graduation, be exempt from examination in all military subjects, except the militia law of this state, and examination as to personal qualifications and physical condition; and in no case shall such graduate be drafted to serve in any capacity other than that of a commissioned officer; provided, that, when an officer of the active militia of this state is military instructor, the adjutant general shall prescribe the course of military instruction to be given, and when such colleges or schools do not follow the course of instructions so prescribed, the graduates thereof shall not be entitled to the exemptions and privileges specified in this article. [Id. sec. 102.]

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN.

Art. 5820. Who may voluntarily enlist in militia.—Any male citizen of the United States, or any male who has declared his intention to become such citizen, who is a resident of this state, if more than eighteen or less than forty-five years of age, able-bodied, free of disease, and of good character and temperate habits, may voluntarily enlist in the active militia of this state; provided, persons may enlist who are under eighteen and over forty-five years of age on the written authority of the adjutant general. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 5821. Enlistment for a term of three years.—All enlistments in the active militia of this state shall be for the term of three years; and no soldier shall be again enlisted in the active militia of this state whose service during his last preceding term of enlistment has not been honest and faithful. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 5822. Persons enlisting shall take oath.—Every person who enlists or re-enlists in the active militia of this state shall sign and make oath to an enlistment paper, which shall be filed in the office of the adjutant general. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed to before a field officer, or the commanding officer of a signal corps, troop, battery, or company who are hereby authorized to administer such oaths; and such oaths may be taken before any officer authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths. A person making a false oath to any statement contained in such enlistment paper shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of false swearing and punished accordingly. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 5823. Disqualifications for enlistment, how removed.—No minor shall be enlisted without the written consent of his parents or guardian. A man who has been expelled, or dishonorably discharged, from the military service of this state, or of the United States, shall not be eligible for enlistment or re-enlistment, unless he produce the written consent to such enlistment of the commanding officer of the organization from which he was expelled, or dishonorably discharged, and of the commanding officer who approved such expulsion, or issued such dishonorable discharge. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 5824. Non-commissioned officers, how appointed.—Commanding officers of regiments and of battalions and squadrons not part of regiments shall appoint and warrant the non-commissioned staff officers of their respective regiments, battalions, or squadrons, and they shall, in their discretion, warrant the non-commissioned officers of the troops, batteries and companies of their respective regiments, battalions and squadrons from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troops, batteries and companies, respectively. In troops, batteries and companies not a part of a regiment, battalion or squadron, and in signal and hospital corps, the non-commissioned officers shall be warranted by the commanding officer of the brigade or division, in his discretion, to which such organization may be attached, from the members of such organization upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troop, battery, company, signal, or hospital corps. To be eligible for appointment as sergeant, first class, of the hospital corps, a candidate must be a registered pharmacist. A sergeant of the hospital corps must be appointed from the hospital corps. The officer warranting a non-commissioned officer shall have power to reduce to the ranks for good and sufficient reasons the non-commissioned officers named in this article. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 5825. Discharged and re-enlisted men entitled to credit.—Men who have been discharged by reason of disbandment may be re-enlisted, and shall then receive credit for the period served at the time of such disbandment. A man discharged for physical disabilities shall, if such disability cease, and he again enlists, or a man discharged upon his own request shall, if he again enlists, receive credit for the period served prior to such discharge. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 5826. Governor may appoint second lieutenants by brevet.—The governor may appoint and commission enlisted men, who have served well and faithfully in the active militia of this state for a period of not less than twenty-five years, without examination, second lieutenants by brevet; provided, such enlisted men, so appointed and commissioned, shall be immediately placed on the retired list. [Id. sec. 50.]

Art. 5827. Physical examination.—No applicant for appointment or enlistment in the active militia of this state will be commissioned or enlisted without first passing a satisfactory physical examination. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 5828. Assignment of pay invalid.—No assignment of pay by any officer or an enlisted man shall be valid, except as otherwise provided by the governor. [Id. sec. 58.]

Art. 5829. Veterans of Spanish-American war entitled to credit for time served in service of United States.—For all purposes under this title, officers and enlisted men of the active militia of this state who entered the United States service in the Spanish-American war shall, on re-entering the active militia of this state, be entitled to credit for the time served in the forces of the United States in that war, as if this service had been rendered in the active militia of this state. [Id. sec. 61.]

Art. 5830. No fee allowed for administering oaths, etc., to soldiers.—No officer, civil or military, shall be entitled to charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering or certifying any oath administered or certified under the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 62.]

SERVICE AND DUTIES.

Art. 5831. Governor may call out militia, when.—When an invasion of, or an insurrection in, this state is made or threatened, or when the governor may deem it necessary for the enforcement of the laws of this state, he shall call forth the active militia, or any part thereof, to repel, suppress, or enforce the same, and if the number available is insufficient he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. [Id. sec. 75.]

Art. 5832. Same.—When there is in any county, city, or town in this state tumult, riot, or body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony, or breach of the peace, or to do violence to person or property, or by force to break or resist the laws of this state, or when such tumult, riot, mob, or other unlawful act or violence is threatened and that fact is made to appear to the governor, he may issue his order to any commander of a division, brigade, regiment, squadron, battalion, troop, battery or company of the active militia of this state to appear at the time and place directed, to aid the civil authorities to suppress or prevent such violence and in executing the laws; provided, whenever the necessity for military aid in preventing or suppressing such violence and in executing the laws is immediate and urgent, and it is impracticable to furnish such information to the governor in time and secure military aid by his order, the district judge of the judicial district in which the disturbance occurs, or the sheriff of such county, or the mayor of such city, or town may call for aid upon the commanding officer of the active militia stationed therein, or adjacent thereto; such call shall be in writing, and the civil officer making the call shall as soon as possible notify the governor of his action. [Id. sec. 76.]

Art. 5833. Duty of officer on receipt of order.—The officer to whom the order of the governor, or the call of the civil authority, is directed shall, upon its receipt, forthwith order his command, or such portion thereof as may be ordered or called for, to parade at the time and place appointed, and shall immediately notify the governor of his action. [Id. sec. 77.]

Art. 5834. Commanding officer's duty in case of riot.—When such troops have appeared at the appointed place, the commanding officer thereof shall obey and execute such general instructions, which shall be in writing if practicable, otherwise verbal instructions given in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, as he may there and then receive from the civil authorities charged by law with the suppression of riot, or tumult, or the preservation of the public peace, but such commanding officer shall exercise his discretion as to the proper method of practically accomplishing the instructions received; the kind and extent of force to be used, and the particular means to be employed to accomplish the object specified by the civil authority shall be left solely to such commanding officer. [Id. sec. 78.]

Art. 5835. Governor may order active militia to assist civil authorities, etc.—The governor may order the active militia, or any part thereof, to assist the civil authorities in guarding prisoners, or in conveying prisoners from and to any point in this state, or discharging other duties in connection with the execution of the law as the public interest or safety at any time may require. [Id. sec. 79.]

Art. 5836. Commanding officer may order closing of saloons, when.—Whenever any part of the active militia of this state is on active duty pursuant to the order of the governor, or call of civil authority, to aid in the enforcement of the law, the commanding officer of such troops may order the closing of any place where intoxicating liquors, arms, ammunition, dynamite or other explosives are sold, and forbid the selling, bartering, lending, or giving away any of said articles so long as any of the troops remain on duty in such place or in the vicinity where such place may be located, whether any civil officer has forbidden the same or not. [Id. sec. 80.]

Art. 5837. Organizations shall drill, etc.—Officers and enlisted men of each troop, battery, and company of the active militia of this state shall assemble for and undergo drill and instruction at company, battalion, or regimental armories (troop, squadron, or battery armories for cavalry or field artillery) or rendezvous or for target practice, not less than twenty-four times during each calendar year preceding the annual allotment of funds under section 1661, Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended. During the same period, there shall be at least one inspection of each troop, battery, and company by an officer of the active militia of this state, or by an officer of the regular army of the United States, at such times as the governor may direct. In addition to such drills and parades, the commanding officer of any organization may require the officers and enlisted men of his command to meet for parade, drill, or instruction at such times and places as he may appoint. [Id. sec. 93.]

Art. 5838. Shall participate in practice marches, etc.—Each troop, battery, or company of the active militia of this state, not especially excused by the governor, will be required to participate for at least five consecutive days annually in practice marches or camps of instruction, under such regulations as the governor may prescribe, and under such instructors as he may appoint. [Id. sec. 94.]

COMPENSATION AND PRIVILEGES.

Art. 5839. Pay of militia in active service.—The military forces of this state, when called into actual service of this state in time of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, or the prevention of invasion, shall, during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay, rations, and allowances for clothing as is now or may hereafter be established by the laws for the army of the United States. [Id. sec. 81.]

Art. 5840. Same.—When the military forces of this state, or any part thereof, are called into active service under articles 5832, 5833, 5834 and 5835, officers shall, during their term of service, receive the same pay as is now or may hereafter be established by law for the army of the United States, and enlisted men shall be paid for such time per day as follows: Chief musician of cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineers, three dollars; first-class sergeants of signal corps and hospital corps, two dollars and seventy-five cents; battalion sergeants major of engineers, battalion quartermaster sergeants of engineers, sergeants major of artillery senior grade, first sergeants of engineers, company quartermaster sergeants of engineers, sergeants of engineers, sergeants of sig-

Art. 5841. Members of militia exempt from certain taxes.—All officers and enlisted men of the active militia of this state, who comply with their military duties as prescribed by this chapter, shall be entitled to exemption from the payment of all poll taxes, except the poll tax prescribed by the constitution for the support of the public schools; exemption from the payment of any road or street tax, and from any road duty whatsoever under the laws of this state, and exemption from jury service or duty of every character and description. [Id. sec. 83.]

Art. 5842. Same.—In order to entitle any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band of the active militia of this state to the exemption from the payment of poll taxes as specified in the preceding article, the commanding officer of such organization shall, between the first days of January and April of each year, file with the assessor of taxes for his county a list of all members of his command who have discharged the military duties required of them for the preceding year, and who have been present for at least twenty-four drills or parades, or have been excused for non-attendance thereof by reason of illness or other necessary cause; such list shall be certified to by such commanding officer, and the persons whose names appear on such list shall not be assessed for any poll taxes whatever, other than the poll tax of one dollar prescribed by the constitution for the support of public schools for the current year; and it shall be the duty of assessors with whom such lists are filed to note the exemptions on his assessment roll as set forth in such lists, and furnish such information to all concerned as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this article. [Id. sec. 84.]

Art. 5843. Same.—In order to entitle any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band of the active militia of this state to exemption from the payment of road or street taxes, jury service or duty, and road duty as specified in article 5841 of this chapter, the commanding officer of such organization shall, between the first and thirty-first days of January of each year, file lists similar to that set forth in the preceding article, certified to by him, one copy with the clerk of the district court of his county, and one copy with the clerk of the county court of his county; and the names appearing on such lists shall thereafter be exempt from jury service or duty of every character and description, from the performance of any road duty, and from the payment of any road or street tax in such county for the current year. Clerks of the county courts shall furnish information of the person so exempt to the proper road overseers and to all others concerned. [Id. sec. 85.]

Art. 5844. Same.—In order to entitle any general, field or staff officer of the active militia of this state to the exemptions as set forth in article 5841 of this chapter, such officer shall, between the first days of January and April of each year, file with the assessor of taxes for his county his certificate to the effect that he is an officer of the active militia of this state in good standing, and that he has faithfully discharged all the military duties required of him during the preceding year, and, on filing the certificate as herein required, such officer shall not be assessed for any poll tax whatever other than the poll tax of one dollar prescribed by the constitution for the support of public schools for the current year; and such officer shall file similar certificates between the first and thirty-first days of January of each year, with the district and county clerks of his county, and, on filing such certificates, shall thereafter be exempt from jury service or duty of every character and description, from the performance of any road duty and from the payment of any road or street tax in such county for the current year. [Id. sec. 86.]

Art. 5845. Same.—In order to entitle any non-commissioned staff officer, member of the engineer or hospital corps, or other enlisted man of the active militia of this state, not belonging to the regular organization, to the exemptions as set forth in article 5841 of this chapter, such non-commissioned officer or soldier shall prepare and file affidavits similar to the certificate provided in the preceding article for officers, with the assessor, district and county clerks of his county; such affidavits shall be filed during the same period and in the same manner as set forth above for officers, and, on filing such affidavits, such non-commissioned officer or soldier shall be entitled to the same exemptions in the same manner as provided for such officers. [Id. sec. 87.]

Art. 5846. State to provide for wounded or disabled, when.—Every member of the military forces of this state who shall be wounded or disabled while in the service of this state, in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, resistance to process, invasion, insurrection or imminent danger thereof, or whenever called upon in aid of the civil authorities shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of this state. [Id. sec. 88.]

Art. 5847. State to pay for transportation, etc.—The state shall make suitable provision for the pay, transportation, subsistence and quarters of all troops of this state who may attend at any annual encampment, or when called into active service of this state. [Id. sec. 95.]

Art. 5848. Members of militia exempt from arrest, when.—No persons belonging to the active militia of this state shall be arrested on any civil process while going on duty to or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty, except in cases of treason, felony, or breach of the peace. [Id. sec. 70.]

ARMS, EQUIPMENT, ETC.

Art. 5849. Enlisted men to return property.—An enlisted man who has not returned all the public property for which he is responsible shall, under no circumstances, receive a full and honorable discharge. [Id. sec. 51.]

Art. 5850. Officers and soldiers liable for damage to equipment, etc.—The cost of arms, equipment and all other military supplies and stores, and the cost of repairs or damage done to arms, equipment and all other military supplies and stores, shall be deducted from the pay of any officer or soldier in whose care or use the same were when such loss, destruction or damage occurred, if said loss, destruction or damage was occasioned by the carelessness, neglect or abuse of said officer or soldier. [Id. sec. 59.]

Art. 5851. Government property not for private use.—No officer or enlisted man of the active militia of this state having property in charge shall loan for private use, or permit to be used for any other purpose than the legitimate purpose intended, any public property that he may be responsible for to the governor. All property issued to a brigade, regimental, battalion, or company commander, or to any band, corps, or auxiliary squad or to any military or ganization whatever, when not in legitimate use, shall be carefully stored and protected from waste, theft, loss or injury. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 5852. Arms, equipment, etc., to be provided by state.—All organizations shall be provided by this state with such arms, equipments, books of instruction and of record and other supplies as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duty required of them by this chapter; and each organization shall keep such property in proper repair and in good condition. [Id. sec. 68.]

Art. 5853. Sheriff may seize arms, etc., when.—Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the governor, on the affidavit of a credible person, that persons having arms, equipments, or other military property issued by this state for the use of the military forces of this state, without authority of law, and that such persons fail or refuse to deliver up such property, it shall be his duty forthwith to issue his warrant to the sheriff of the county where such persons may be or reside, commanding such sheriff to seize and take into his possession such arms, equipments or other military property, and the same keep subject to the further order of the governor. [Id. sec. 89.]

Art. 5854. Sheriff in executing such warrant may call on militia.—Any sheriff receiving a warrant such as is specified in the preceding article shall proceed without delay to execute the same in the manner therein directed, and in executing such warrant he may summon to his aid the power of the county and any command of the active militia of this state that may be convenient. [Id. sec. 90.]

Art. 5855. Sheriff to collect arms, etc., when.—The sheriffs of the several counties of this state shall, from time to time, collect such arms or property as may be liable to loss or in the hands of unauthorized persons, and such property, when collected and turned over to them, safely keep subject to the order of the governor, to whom a report of such collection shall be made; and the official bond of sheriffs shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this and the preceding articles. [Id. sec. 91.]

Art. 5856. Arms, etc., exempt from forced sale.—Arms, equipments, clothing, or other military supplies issued by this state to organizations or members of the active militia for military purposes, shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution for debt, or in any other legal proceedings. [Id. sec. 92.]

Art. 5857. Governor to draw arms, etc., from U. S. government.—The governor in his official capacity is authorized to draw from the United States government all arms, equipments, munitions, or other military stores to which this state may, from time to time, be entitled, for the use of the militia, and may execute such bonds in the name of the state of Texas as may be necessary or requisite to secure their issuance. [Id. sec. 96.]

Art. 5858. Arms, etc., to be stored, where.—The governor shall cause all arms, equipment, munitions, or other military property belonging to or under the control of this state, to be stored at such points as he may deem most conducive to the interests of this state and the convenience of the people. [Id. sec. 97.]

Art. 5859. Uniform, same as that prescribed for United States army.—The uniform for officers and enlisted men of the active militia of this state shall be the same as that prescribed for the United States army, with such modifications as the governor may deem necessary from time to time. All uniforms and other military property issued by this state shall be used for military purposes only, and when issued shall be receipted for, and kept and accounted for in such manner as the adjutant general may prescribe. [Id. sec. 100.]

ARTICLES OF WAR.

Art. 5860. Rules and articles for the government of the military forces.—The military forces of this state shall be governed by the following rules and articles:

The word, "officer," as used therein, shall be understood to designate commissioned officers; the word, "soldier," shall be understood to include non-commissioned officers, musicians, artificers, privates and other enlisted men; the word, "company," shall be understood to include troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps, bands and detachments, and the convictions mentioned therein shall be understood to be convictions by court martial.

Article 1. Enlistment in the active militia of this state shall be voluntary, and every person who enlists therein shall take and subscribe an oath (or affirmation) in the following form:

"I, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the state of Texas and to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the governor of Texas, and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the laws, rules and articles for the government of the military forces of the state of Texas."

Art. 2. Every officer who knowingly enlists or musters into the military service of this state any minor over the age of sixteen years without the written consent of his parents or guardian, or any minor under the age of sixteen years, or any insane or intoxicated persons, or any deserter from the military service of this state or of the United States, or any person who has been convicted of any infamous crime, shall, upon conviction, be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 3. No enlisted man, duly sworn, shall be discharged from service without a discharge in writing, signed by a field officer of the regiment to which he belongs, or by the commanding officer when no field officer is present; and no discharge shall be given to any enlisted man before his term of service has expired, except by order of the governor, the adjutant general, or by order of a court martial.

Art. 4. Any officer who knowingly musters as a soldier a person who is not a soldier, shall be deemed guilty of knowingly making a false muster, and punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 5. Any officer who takes money, or other thing, by way of gratification, on mustering any regiment, or company, or on signing muster rolls, shall be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military, in the service of the state of Texas, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 6. Every commanding officer shall, in the beginning of January and July of each year, and oftener if required by the governor, transmit to the adjutant general's department an exact return of the troops under his command, specifying the names of the officers absent from their posts, with the reasons for and the time of their absence. Such returns shall be made in the form and forwarded in the manner prescribed by the adjutant general; and any such officer, who through neglect or design omits to send such return, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 7. Every officer who knowingly makes a false return to the adjutant general's department, or to any of his superior officers authorized to call for such returns, of the state of the regiment or company under his command, or of any arms, ammunition, clothing or other stores thereunto belonging, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 8. Every officer who signs a false certificate relating to the absence or pay of any officer or soldier shall be dismissed from the service, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 9. Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or horse, or who signs, or directs, or allows, the signing of any muster roll, knowing the same to contain a false muster, shall, upon proof thereof by two witnesses before a court martial, be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military, in the service of the state of Texas.

Art. 10. Any officer who wilfully or through neglect suffers to be lost, damaged, or spoiled any military stores or supplies belonging to this state, or to the United States, which have been received for use of the military forces of this state, shall make good the loss or damage and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 11. Any soldier who sells or through neglect loses or spoils the arms, uniforms, equipments, accoutrements, or any other military stores or supplies issued to him for his use or in his charge, shall make good the loss or damage, and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 12. Any officer or soldier who shall strike his superior officer, or offers any violence to him, the said superior officer being engaged in the reasonable execution of his official duties, or if any officer or soldier disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer, he shall suffer punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 13. Any officer or soldier who begins, excites, causes, or joins in any mutiny or sedition in any regiment, company quarters or guard, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 14. Any officer or soldier who, being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or having knowledge of any intended mutiny or sedition, does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 15. All officers, of what conditions soever, have power to part and quell all quarrels, frays and disorders, whether among persons belonging to their own or to any regiment or company, and to order officers into arrest, and non-commissioned officers and soldiers into confinement who take part in same, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. And who-soever being so ordered refuses to obey such officer or non-commissioned officer, or draws a weapon upon him, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 16. No officer or soldier shall send a challenge to another officer or soldier to fight a duel, or accept a challenge so sent. Any officer who so offends shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 17. Any soldier who absents himself from his company or guard, without leave from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 18. Any officer or soldier who fails, except when prevented by sickness or other necessity, to repair, at the fixed time, to the place of parade, exercise, or other rendezvous appointed by his commanding officer, or goes from the same, without leave from his commanding officer, before he is dismissed or relieved, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 19. Any soldier who is found one mile from camp, without leave in writing from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 20. Any officer who is found drunk on his guard, party or other duty, shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 21. Any sentinel who is found sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 22. Any officer or soldier who quits his guard, without leave from his superior officer, except in case of urgent necessity, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 23. Any officer who, by any means whatsoever, occasions false alarms in camp, command, or quarters, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 24. Any officer or soldier who misbehaves himself before the enemy, runs away, or shamefully abandons any place, post or guard, which he is commanded to defend, or speaks words inducing others to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 25. Any officer or soldier who, having been duly enlisted or drafted in the military service of this state, deserts the same, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 26. Every soldier who deserts the military service of this state shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such soldier shall be tried by a court martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried.

Art. 27. Any officer who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post or proper duties, without leave and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of the acceptance of the same, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter.

Art. 28. No soldier shall enlist himself in any other regiment or company, without a regular discharge from the regiment or company in which he last served, on a penalty of being reputed a deserter and suffering accordingly. And in case any officer shall knowingly receive and entertain such soldier, or shall not, after his being discovered to be a deserter, immediately give notice thereof to the command in which he last served, the said officer shall, by court martial, be dismissed.

Art. 29. In time of war, insurrection or rebellion, larceny, robbery, burglary, arson, mayhem, manslaughter, murder, assault and battery with intent to kill, wounding by shooting or stabbing with intent to commit murder, rape, or assault and battery with an intent to commit rape, shall be punishable by the sentence of a general court martial when committed by persons in the military service of the state; and punishment in every such case shall not be less than the punishment provided for like offenses by the Penal Code of this state.

Art. 30. When any officer or soldier is accused of a capital crime, or of any offense against the person or property of any citizen of this state, which is punishable by the laws of this state, the commanding officer and the officers of the regiment or company to which the person so accused belongs are required, except in time of war, upon application duly made by or in behalf of the party injured, to use their utmost endeavors to deliver him over to the civil authority and to aid the officers of justice in apprehending and securing him in order to bring him to trial. If, upon application, any officer refuses or wilfully neglects, except in time of war, to deliver over such accused person to the civil authorities, or to aid the officers of justice in apprehending him, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 31. Any person in the military service of this state who makes, or causes to be made, any claim against this state or the United States, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who presents, or causes to be presented, to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against this state, or the United States, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud this state, or the United States, by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this state, or the United States, or against any officer thereof makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing, or other papers, knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this state, or the United States, or any officer thereof, makes, or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper, knowing such oath to be false; or

Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against this state, or the United States, or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits or procures or advises the forging or counterfeiting of any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses, or procures or advises the use of, any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

Who, having charge, possession, custody or control of any money or other property of this state, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this state, knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered, to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Who, being authorized to make or deliver any papers certifying the receipt of any property of this state, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this state, makes or delivers to any person, such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, or with intent to defraud this state, or the United States; or

Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and wilfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, money or other property of this state, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this state; or

Who knowingly purchases, or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any soldier, officer or other person who is a part of, or employed in, said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores or other property of this state, or the United States, such soldier or officer, or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court martial may adjudge, or by any or all of said penalties. And if any person, being guilty of any of the offenses aforesaid, while in the military service of this state, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge or been dismissed.

Art. 32. Any officer, who is convicted of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, shall be dismissed from the service.

Art. 33. All crimes not capital, and all disorders and neglects, which officers and soldiers may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, though not mentioned in the foregoing articles, are to be taken cognizance of by a general or a regimental, or a summary court martial, ac-according to the nature and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court.

Art. 34. Whenever, by any of these articles of war for the government of the military forces of this state, the punishment or conviction of any military offense, is left to the discretion of the court martial, the punishment therefor shall not be in excess of a limit which the governor may prescribe.

Art. 35. The officers and soldiers of any troops, whether active or reserve militia of this state or otherwise, appointed, enlisted, mustered or drafted into the military forces of this state, shall at all times, and in all places be governed by these articles, and shall be tried by courts martial.

Art. 36. All retainers of the camp and all persons serving with the military forces of this state in the field, though not enlisted soldiers, shall be subject to these rules and articles in the same manner as enlisted men.

Art. 37. Officers charged with crime shall be arrested and confined in their quarters or tents, or other place, and deprived of their swords by the commanding officer. And any officer who leaves his confinement before he is set at liberty by his commanding officer shall be dismissed from the service, and suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

Art. 38. Soldiers charged with crime shall be confined until tried by court martial, or released by proper authority.

Art. 39. Any provost marshal, or any officer commanding a guard, who shall refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to his charge by an officer belonging to the military forces of this state, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct; provided, the officer committing shall, at the same time, deliver a statement in writing, signed by himself, of the crime charged against the prisoner.

Art. 40. Every officer to whose charge a prisoner is committed shall, within twenty-four hours after such commitment, or as soon as he is relieved from his guard, report in writing to the commanding officer the name of such prisoner, the crime charged against him, and the name of the officer committing him; and, if he fails to make such report, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 41. Any officer who presumes, without proper authority, to release a prisoner committed to his charge, or suffers any prisoner so committed to escape, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

Art. 42. No officer or soldier put in arrest shall be continued in confinement more than five days, or until such time as a court martial can be assembled.

Art. 43. When an officer is put in arrest for the purpose of trial, except at remote stations, the officer by whose order he is arrested shall see that a copy of the charges on which he is to be tried is served upon him within five days after his arrest, and that he is brought to trial within ten days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of said ten days. If a copy of the charges be not served, or the arrested officer be not brought to trial, as herein required, the arrest shall cease. But officers released from arrest, under the provisions of this article, may be tried, whenever the exigencies of the service shall permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest.

Art. 44. The governor, or any general, or other officer, commanding a division or brigade, may appoint general courts martial whenever necessary. But when any such general or other officer is the accuser or prosecutor of any officer under his command, the court shall be appointed by the governor; and its proceedings and sentence shall be sent directly to the adjutant general, by whom they shall be laid before the governor for his approval or orders in the case.

Art. 45. Officers who may appoint a court martial shall be competent to appoint a judge advocate for the same.

Art. 46. General courts martial may consist of any number of officers, from five to thirteen, inclusive, but they shall not consist of less than thirteen when that number can be convened without injury to the service. A decision of the appointing authority as to the number that can be assembled without injury to the service is conclusive.

Art. 47. When the requisite number of officers to form a general court martial is not present in any command or detachment, the commanding officer shall, in cases which require the cognizance of such a court, report to the governor, who shall thereupon order a court to be assembled at the nearest and most convenient place at or near which there may be such a requisite number of officers, and shall order the party accused, with the necessary witnesses, to be transported to the place where the said court shall be assembled.

Art. 48. Every officer commanding a camp or other place where the troops consist of different corps, and every officer commanding a regiment, separate squadron or battalion, shall be competent to appoint for such camp or other place, or such regiment, separate squadron or battalion, regimental courts martial, consisting of three officers, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital; but such courts martial shall be appointed and the officers designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable. Such courts martial shall have power to award punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, or forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and, in case of a non-commissioned officer, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto.

Art. 49. Every commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and the commanding officer of each company at its home station, shall have power to appoint for such place, command or station summary courts martial to consist of one officer to be designated by him, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital; but such summary courts martial may be appointed and the officer designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable; and, when but one commissioned officer is present with a command, he shall hear and finally determine such cases. Such summary courts shall have power to adjudge punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and, in case of non-commissioned officers, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto; provided such summary courts shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, unless the accused shall, before trial, consent in writing to trial by said court; but, in case of refusal to so consent, the trial may be had either by general, regimental or by said summary court, but in case of trial by said summary court, without consent of as aforesaid, the court shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, or forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine. The officer holding the summary court shall have power to administer oaths and to hear and determine cases cognizable by said court, and when satisfied of the guilt of the accused, adjudge the punishment to be inflicted, which said punishment shall not exceed the limit prescribed in this article.

Art. 50. There shall be a summary court record kept at the headquarters of the proper command in the field, each regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station, for which summary courts martial have been appointed, in which shall be entered a record of all cases heard and determined and the action had thereon. And the commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station, for which summary courts martial have been appointed shall, on the last day of every month and oftener if required, make a report to the adjutant general of the number of cases determined by summary courts, during the period, setting forth the offenses committed and the penalties awarded.

Art. 51. The judge advocate of any general or regimental court martial shall administer to each member of such court, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath (or affirmation): "You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try and determine, according to evidence, the matter now before you, between the state of Texas and the prisoner to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice, without partiality, favor or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government of the military forces of this state, and if any doubt should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, the best of your understanding, and the customs in like cases; and you do further swear (or affirm) that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be published by the proper authority, except to the judge advocate; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God."

Art. 52. When the oath (or affirmation) has been administered to the members of a court martial, the president of the court shall administer to the judge advocate, or person officiating as such, an oath (or affirmation) in the following form: "You, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that you will not disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law; nor divulge the sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until it shall be duly disclosed by the same. So help me God."

Art. 53. A court martial may punish, at discretion, any person who uses any menacing words, signs or gestures in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder.

Art. 54. All members of a court martial are to behave with decency and calmness.

Art. 55. Members of a court martial may be challenged by a prisoner, but only for causes stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time.

Art. 56. When a prisoner, arraigned before a court martial, from obstinacy and deliberate design, stands mute or answers foreign to the purpose, the court may proceed to trial and judgment as if the prisoner had pleaded not guilty.

Art. 57. The judge advocate general, or some person deputed by him, or by the governor, or general, or officer commanding the division, brigade, camp or other place, regiment, separate squadron or battalion shall prosecute in the name of the state of Texas; but when the prisoner has made his plea he shall so far consider himself counsel for the prisoner as to object to any leading question to any of the witnesses and to any question to the prisoner, the answer to which might tend to criminate himself. And whenever a court martial shall sit in closed session the judge advocate shall withdraw, and, whenever his legal advice or his assistance in referring to recorded evidence is required, it shall be obtained in open court.

Art. 58. The judge advocate general and the officers of his department, the judge advocate of court martial and the trial officers of summary courts are hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purpose of the administration of military justice and for other military purposes.

Art. 59. The depositions of witnesses for the accused residing beyond the limits of the state, or the county in which any military court may be ordered to sit, may be taken and read in evidence as provided by the laws of this state.

Art. 60. All persons who give evidence before a court martial shall be examined on oath (or affirmation) which shall be administered by the judge advocate in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

Art. 61. A court martial shall, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as may appear to be just; provided, that if the prisoner be in close confinement the trial shall not be delayed for a longer period than sixty days.

Art. 62. Members of a court martial, in giving their votes, shall begin with the youngest in commission.

Art. 63. Officers shall be tried only by general courts martial; and no officer shall, when it can be avoided, be tried by officers inferior to him in rank.

Art. 64. No officer shall be discharged or dismissed from the service, except by order of the governor, or by sentence of a general court martial.

Art. 65. When an officer is dismissed from the service for cowardice or fraud, the sentence shall direct that the crime, punishment, name and place of abode of the delinquent shall be published in the newspapers in and about the state and in the county in which the offender lives, or where he usually resides; and, after such publication, it shall be scandalous for an officer to associate with him.

Art. 66. When a court martial suspends an officer from command, it may also suspend his pay and emoluments for the same time, according to the nature of his offense.

Art. 67. No person shall be tried the second time for the same offense.

Art. 68. No person shall be liable to be tried or punished by a general court martial for any offense, except for desertion in the face of an enemy, committed more than two years before the arraignment of such person for such offense, unless he shall meanwhile have absented himself from this state, in which case the time of his absence shall be excluded in computing the period of the limitation; provided, that said limitation shall not begin until the end of the term for which said person was mustered into service.

Art. 69. No sentence of a court martial respecting a general officer, and no sentence of a court martial directing the dismissal of any officer, shall be carried into execution until it shall have been confirmed by the governor.

Art. 70. No sentence of a court martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being.

Art. 71. All sentences of a court martial may be confirmed and carried into execution by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being, where confirmation by the governor is not required by these articles.

Art. 72. Any officer who is authorized to confirm and carry into execution the sentence of a court martial shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by it, except the punishment of dismissal of an officer; and the governor shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by any court martial.

Art. 73. Every judge advocate, or person acting as such, at any general or regimental court martial, shall, with such expedition as the opportunity of time and distance of place may admit, forward the original proceedings and sentences of such court to the adjutant general, in whose office they shall be carefully preserved.

Art. 74. Every party tried by a general or regimental court martial shall, upon demand thereof, made by himself or by any person in his behalf, be entitled to a copy of the proceedings and sentence of such court.

Art. 75. A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any transaction of, or accusation or imputation against, any officer or soldier may be ordered by the governor, or by any commanding officer; but such courts of inquiry shall never be ordered by any commanding officer, except upon a demand by the officer or soldier whose conduct is to be inquired of.

Art. 76. A court of inquiry shall consist of one or more officers, not exceeding three, and a recorder to reduce the proceedings and evidence to writing.

Art. 77. The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath: "You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you, without partiality, favor, affection, prejudice or hope of reward. So help you God." After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath: "You, A. B., do swear that you will, according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God."

Art. 78. A court of inquiry and the recorder thereof shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to courts martial and the judge advocates thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath which is taken by witnesses before courts martial, and the party accused shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine them so as fully to investigate the circumstances in question.

Art. 79. A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired of, unless specially ordered to do so.

Art. 80. The proceedings of a court of inquiry must be authenticated by the signatures of the recorder and the president thereof, and delivered to the commanding officer.

Art. 81. The proceedings of a court of inquiry may be admitted as evidence by a court martial in cases not extending to the dismissal of an officer; provided, that the circumstances are such that oral testimony can be obtained.

Art. 82. The foregoing articles shall be read once in every twelve months to every company in the military service of this state, and shall be duly observed and obeyed by all officers and soldiers in said service. [Id. sec. 103.]

COURTS MARTIAL.

Art. 5861. Evidence in courts martial.—The rules of evidence in all courts martial shall follow in general, so far as apposite, the common law rules of evidence as observed by the courts of this state in criminal cases; but a certain latitude in the introduction of evidence and the examination of witnesses by an avoidance of restrictive rules is permissible, when it is in the interest of the administration of military justice. [Id. sec. 104.]

Art. 5862. Privileges of accused.—In all trials before courts martial, the accused shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to be presented with a copy of the charges. He shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both; shall be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor. [Id. sec. 105.]

Art. 5863. Counsel for defendant to be detailed, when.—The officer ordering a general or regimental court martial will, at the request of any prisoner who is to be arraigned, detail as counsel for his defense a suitable officer, one not acting as a summary court; provided, such request is made within a reasonable time before trial. If there be no such officer available, the fact will be reported to the adjutant general for his action. An officer so detailed should perform such duties as usually devolve upon counsel for defendant before civil courts in criminal cases. [Id. sec. 106.]

Art. 5864. Judge advocate to appoint reporter.—The judge advocate of a military court shall have power to appoint a reporter, who shall record the proceedings of, and testimony taken before, such court, and may set down the same, in the first instance in shorthand. The reporter shall, before entering upon his duty, be sworn or affirmed faithfully to perform the same. [Id. sec. 107.]

Art. 5865. Judge advocate may issue process, etc.—The president or judge advocate of every general or regimental court martial shall have power to issue like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify, which courts of criminal jurisdiction within this state may lawfully issue; and such process shall be issued in the same style and manner and executed by the same officers as when issued by such court. [Id. sec. 108.]

Art. 5866. Process generally.—The president of any court martial, and any summary court officer, shall have authority to issue, under his hand, in the name of the state of Texas, directed to any sheriff or constable, whose duty it shall be to serve or execute the same in the same manner in which like process is served or executed when issued by a magistrate, all necessary process, subpoenas, attachments, warrants of arrest and warrant of commitment. [Id. sec. 109.]

Art. 5867. Penalty for disobeying, etc.—Every person, who being duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a regimental or general court martial, who wilfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or produce documentary evidence which such person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and prosecuted in the proper justice court, and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars; provided, such witness may plead as a defense that he was not tendered or paid one day's fee and mileage for the journey to and from the place of trial, as provided by this chapter, such amounts to be paid by the adjutant general's department out of any appropriation or funds available for that purpose; provided, that no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself, or to answer any questions which may tend to incriminate or degrade him. [Id. sec. 110.]

Art. 5868. Witnesses entitled to transportation.—Persons in the employ of this state, but not belonging to the military forces thereof, when traveling upon summons as witnesses before military courts, are entitled to transportation in kind from their place of residence to the place where the court is in session and return. If no transportation be furnished, they are entitled to reimbursement of the cost of travel actually performed by the shortest usually traveled route. They are also entitled to reimbursement of the actual cost of meals and rooms at a rate not to exceed two dollars per day for each day actually and unavoidably consumed in travel, or in attendance upon the court under the order or summons. No allowance will be made to them when attendance upon court does not require them to leave their place of residence. [Id. sec. 111.]

Art. 5869. Compensation of.—A person not in the employ of this state and not belonging to the active military forces thereof, who has been duly summoned to appear as a witness before a military court, will receive one dollar and fifty cents per day for each day actually in attendance upon the court, and six cents a mile for going from his place of residence to the place of trial or hearing, and six cents a mile for returning. Civilian witnesses will be paid by the adjutant general's department. [Id. sec. 112.]

Art. 5870. Same.—The charges for return journeys of witnesses will be made upon the basis of the actual charges allowed for travel to the court, and the entire account thus completed will be paid upon discharge from attendance without waiting for completion of return travel. [Id. sec. 113.]

Art. 5871. Attachment may issue for witnesses.—In all cases where a witness has been subpoenaed and fails to attend, attachment shall issue, and he shall be liable for the costs of such attachment, unless good cause be shown to the court why he failed to obey the subpoena, which cost may be recovered by civil suit in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved. [Id. sec. 114.]

Art. 5872. No fees allowed, except, etc.—No fees shall be allowed to a person as witness fees, unless such person has been subpoenaed, attached, or recognized as a witness in the case. [Id. sec. 115.]

Art. 5873. Governor may order arrest, etc.—When charges against any person in the military service of this state come before the governor, or any officer authorized to order a court martial for the trial of such person, and the governor, or such officer, believes that such charges can be sustained, and has reason to believe that the person so charged will not appear for trial, or intends to flee from justice, the governor, or such officer, may issue a warrant of arrest to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the person so charged, resides, or wherein he is supposed to be, commanding such sheriff or constable to take the body of the person so charged and confine him in jail until such time as his case may finally be disposed of; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable, on the order of the governor, or officer ordering the court, to bring the person so charged before the court martial for trial, or to turn over to whoever the order may direct; it shall be the duty of the governor, or the officer issuing the warrant of arrest, to indorse thereon the amount of bail to be required; and it shall be a violation of duty on the part of any sheriff or constable to permit a person so committed to remain out of jail, except that he may, when such person desires it, permit him to give bail in the sum indorsed on the warrant of arrest, conditioned for his appearance, from time to time, before such court martial as he may be ordered for trial, and until his case is finally disposed of, or until such time as he may surrender to the sheriff or constable as directed by the reviewing authority of the court martial before which he may be ordered for trial. [Id. sec. 116.]

Art. 5874. Suit on bonds, etc.—Upon the failure of any person, who has been admitted to bail conditioned for his appearance for trial before a court martial, or upon the failure of any person admitted to bail to appear as a witness in any case before a court martial, as conditioned in the bail bond of any such person, the court martial shall certify the fact of such failure to so appear to the officer ordering the court martial, or the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be; and it shall be the duty of such officer to cause a judge advocate, district or county attorney, to file suit in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved in Austin, Texas. [Id. sec. 117.]

Art. 5875. Code of Criminal Procedure to govern in giving bail, etc.—The rules laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure of this state relating to the giving of bail, the amount of bail, the number of sureties, the persons who may be sureties, the property exempt from liability, the responsibility of parties to the same and all other rules of a general nature not inconsistent with this law are applicable to bail taken as provided by this chapter. [Id. sec. 118.]

Art. 5876. Warrant of arrest to extend to every part of the state, etc.—A warrant of arrest issued by the governor, or other officer authorized to order a general court martial, and all subpoenas and other process issued by general courts martial shall extend to every part of the state; but warrants of arrest issued by an officer, other than those named above, and all subpoenas and other process issued by other military courts can not be executed in any other county than the one in which they were issued, except they be indorsed by the governor, or an officer authorized to order a general court martial, in which case they can be executed anywhere in the state. The indorsement may be, "Let this process be executed in any county of the state of Texas." The indorsement shall be dated and signed officially by the governor, or officer making it. [Id. sec. 119.]

Art. 5877. Dedendant liable for costs.—The judgment of every court martial shall direct that all costs incurred in any trial shall be paid by the defendant; and it shall be the duty of the officer ordering the court, or the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be, to enforce the collection thereof in the manner prescribed by this law; and when the defendant is imprisoned for costs, as hereinafter provided by this law, the adjutant general shall pay said cost out of any funds which may be available. [Id. sec. 120.]

Art. 5878. Same.—Upon conviction of any person by a court martial, the cost accruing for witness fees and the fees for sheriffs or constables for executing the process, subpoenas, writs of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be taxed against defendant; and any sheriff or constable executing any process, subpoena, writ of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be allowed the same fees as provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure in this state. [Id. sec. 121.]

Art. 5879. Procedure in cases of conviction of felony.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same in whole or in part, and such sentence as approved exceeds two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which such court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county until a duly accredited agent of the state penitentiary shall take charge of such person for confinement in the state penitentiary; and it shall be the duty of such reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, to certify a copy of the proceedings, as approved, of the court martial in the case of such person to be confined, to the superintendent of the state penitentiary, which shall be sufficient authority for, and it shall be the duty of, such superintendent to send for and confine such person in the state penitentiary for the period named in the proceedings of the court martial as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and it shall be the duty of the state penitentiary board to make such provisions as may be necessary for receiving from the sheriff as aforesaid and confining such person in such manner as persons are received and confined in the state penitentiary on sentence of district courts in this state. [Id. sec. 122.]

Art. 5880. Procedure in cases of misdemeanor with jail sentence.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same, in whole or in part, and such sentence, as approved, does not exceed two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which such court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county for the period named in such sentence, as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and such confinement shall be carried out as prescribed for confinement in the county jail by the Code of Criminal Procedure of this state. [Id. sec. 123.]

Art. 5881. Conviction in cases of fine and costs.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges a fine and cost against any person, and such fine and cost has not been fully paid within ten days after the confirmation thereof, the governor, or officer ordering the court, or the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment directed to the sheriff of the county in which the court martial was held, directing him to take the body of the person so convicted and confine him in the county jail; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to take the body of the person convicted and confine him in the county jail for one day for any fine not exceeding one dollar, and one additional day for every dollar above that sum, and one additional day for each dollar of cost. [Id. sec. 124.]

Art. 5882. Fines to be paid to whom in cases of general court martial.—All fines and forfeitures, imposed by general or regimental courts martial, shall be paid to the officer ordering such courts, or to the officer commanding for the time being, and by said officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, paid to the adjutant general, who shall disburse the same as he may see fit for military purposes. [Id. sec. 125.]

Art. 5883. Fines to be paid in cases of summary courts.—All fines and forfeitures imposed by summary courts martial shall be paid to the officer ordering the court, or the officer commanding for the time being, and by such officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, placed to the credit of the company fund of the company of which the person fined was a member when the fine was imposed. [Id. sec. 126.]

Art. 5884. Sheriff to execute lawful process from courts martial.—When any lawful process, issued by the proper officer of any court martial, comes to the hand of any sheriff or constable, he shall perform the usual duties of such officer and perform all acts and duties by this chapter imposed or authorized to be performed by any sheriff or constable. [Id. sec. 127.]

Art. 5885. Jurisdiction presumed.—The jurisdiction of the courts and boards established by this chapter shall be presumed, and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceeding. [Id. sec. 131.]

Art. 5886. Acts by or under military authority exempt from punishment.—No action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against a member of the military forces of this state, or officer or person acting under its authority or reviewing its proceedings, on account of the approval or imposition or execution of any sentence, or the imposition or collection of any fine or penalty, or the execution of any warrant, writ, execution, process, or mandate of a military court. [Id. sec. 132.]

Art. 5887. Change of venue in certain cases.—Any officer or member of the military forces of this state, who is indicted or sued for any injury to persons or property done while performing, or endeavoring to perform, any duty required of him by this law, shall have the right, and it is hereby made the duty of the court in which such indictment or suit is pending, upon the application of the person so indicted or sued, to remove the venue of such cause to some court of competent jurisdiction in another county not subject to the same or some other disqualification; provided, such application is supported by the affidavit of two credible persons to the effect that they have good reason to believe that the defendant can not have a fair and impartial trial before such court. [Id. sec. 133.]

GENERALLY.

Art. 5888. Commissioners' court and city council may make appropriations for militia.—The commissioners' court of each [county,] and the council of any city or town in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to appropriate a sufficient sum, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the necessary expenses of the troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps and bands of the active militia of this state located in their respective counties, cities or towns, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per month for such expenses of any one organization. [Id. sec. 69.]

Art. 5889. Militia entitled to right of way on streets.—The commanding officer of any portion of the active militia of this state, parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway, may require any or all persons in such street or highway to yield to the right of way to such militia; provided, that carriage of the United States mails, the legitimate functions of the police and the progress and operations of hospital ambulances, fire engines and fire departments shall not be interfered with thereby. [Id. sec. 71.]

Art. 5890. Unlawful disposition of property; illegal wearing of uniform, etc.—Any person who shall secrete, sell, dispose of, offer for sale, purchase, retain after demand made by a commissioned officer of the active militia of this state, or in any manner pawn or pledge, any arms, uniforms, equipments, or other military property, issued under the provisions of this chapter, or of the military regulations of this state, and any person who shall wear any uniform, or part thereof, or device, strap, knot or insignia of any design or character used as a designation of grade, rank, or office, such as are by law or by general regulations duly promulgated, prescribed for the use of the active militia of this state, or similar thereto, except members of the army of the United States, or the active militia of this state, or any other state, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code, and in addition thereto shall forfeit to this state one hundred dollars for each offense, to be sued for in the name of the state of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney. All money recovered by any action or proceeding under this article shall be paid to the adjutant general, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia of this state. [Id. sec. 72.]

Art. 5891. Arrest of trespassers; may prohibit sale of liquor, etc.—The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty may place in arrest, during the continuance thereof, any person who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory or other place devoted to such duty, or shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to and returning from any duty. He may prohibit and prevent the sale or use of all spirituous liquors, wine, ale or beer, the holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling within the limit of the post, camp ground, place of encampment, parade or drill under his command, or within limits not exceeding one mile therefrom, as he may prescribe. And he may in his discretion abate as common nuisances all such sales. [Id. sec. 73.]

Art. 5892. Insurrection may be declared, when.—Whenever any portion of the military forces of this state is employed in aid of the civil authority, the governor, if in his judgment the maintenance of law and order will thereby be promoted, may, by proclamation, declare the county or city in which the troops are serving, or any specified portion thereof, to be in a state of insurrection. [Id. sec. 98.]

Art. 5893. Troops to enter state only by permission.—No armed military force from another state, territory or district shall be permitted to enter this state without the permission of the governor, unless such force is part of the United States army. [Id. sec. 99.]

Article 5894. Packages, how marked; standard weights.—Every lot or parcel of concentrated feeding stuffs, as defined in article 5896, used for feeding farm live stock, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in the state of Texas for use within this state, shall have printed on a tag described in article 5898, a plainly printed statement clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds of feeding stuff in the package, stating the name or names of material of which such weight is composed, where the contents are of a mixed nature, the name, brand, or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer or importer, the place of manufacture, such information as is required by article 5902, if any, and a chemical analysis stating the minimum percentages it contains of crude protein, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal six and one-fourth per cent of protein, of crude fat, of nitrogen-free extract, and the maximum percentage it contains of crude fiber; these constituents to be determined by the methods adopted at the time by the association of official agricultural chemists of the United States. Mill products hereinafter mentioned shall have the following standard weights, viz.: Flour, one hundred and ninety-six pounds per barrel, or forty-eight pounds per sack; corn meal, bolted or unbolted, thirty-five pounds per sack; rice bran, one hundred and forty-three pounds per sack; rice polish, two hundred pounds per sack; and other feeds made from cereals of any kind, whether pure, mixed, or adulterated, one hundred pounds per sack. Fractional barrels and sacks shall weigh in the same proportion, and those weights shall be net and exclusive of the barrel or sack in which said product is packed. [Act 1905, p. 207; amended Act 1907, p. 243, sec. 1.]

Art. 5895. Unground or unbroken grain or seed not included in definition.—The term, "concentrated commercial feeding stuffs," as herein used, shall not include hay or straw, the whole seed or grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, rice, buckwheat, or broom corn, or any other whole or unground grains or seeds. [Act 1905, p. 207, sec. 2.]

Art. 5896. Concentrated feed stuffs, definition.—The term, "concentrated feed stuffs," as herein used, shall include wheat bran, wheat shorts, linseed meals, cotton seed meals, pea meals, cocoanut meals, gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feeds, sugar feeds, dried brewer's grains, malt sprouts, hominy feeds, cerealine feeds, rice meal, rice bean, rice polish, rice hulls, oat feeds, corn and oat chops, corn chops, ground beef, or mixed fish feeds, and all other materials of similar nature not included herein. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5897. Sample to be deposited.—Before any concentrated feeding stuff, as defined in article 5896 of this chapter, is so offered or exposed for sale, the importer, manufacturer and party who causes it to be sold, or offered for sale, within the state of Texas for use within this state, shall, for each and every feed stuff bearing a distinguishing name and trade mark, file with the director of the Texas agricultural and experiment station a certified copy of the statement named in article 5894, and shall also deposit with said director a sealed glass jar or bottle containing not less than one pound of the feeding stuff to be sold, or offered for sale, accompanied by an affidavit that it is a fair average sample thereof, and corresponds within reasonable limits to the feeding stuff which it represents in the percentage of protein, fat and crude fiber, and nitrogen-free extract which it contains. This shall not be construed to apply to farmers who grind their own feed stuff, and who do not adulterate same. [Act 1905, p. 207; amended 1907, p. 243, sec. 4.]

Art. 5898. Tax tags; disposition of funds collected.—The manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of each concentrated commercial feeding stuff as defined in article 5896 of this chapter, shall, before the article is offered for sale, pay to the director of the Texas agricultural experiment station an inspection tax of ten cents per ton for each ton of such concentrated feeding stuff sold, or offered for sale, in the state of Texas for use within this state, and shall affix to each lot shipped in bulk, and to each bag, barrel or other package of such concentrated feeding stuffs, a tag to be furnished by said director, stating that all charges specified in said article have been paid. The director of said Texas agricultural experiment station is hereby empowered to prescribe the form of such tags, and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this law. Whenever the manufacturer or importer or shipper of a concentrated feeding stuff shall have filed a statement named in article 5894 of this chapter, and have paid the inspection tax, no agent or seller of said manufacturer, inspector or shipper shall be required to file such statement or pay such tax. The amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by said director shall be paid into the state treasury. So much of the inspection tax and penalties collected under this chapter shall be paid by the state treasurer to the treasurer of the Texas agricultural and mechanical college as the director of the Texas agricultural experiment station may show by his bills has been expended in performing the duties required by this chapter, but in no case to exceed the amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by the state treasurer under this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5899. Manufacturers and importers to furnish list of, and marks.—All manufacturers and importers of concentrated commercial feeding stuffs, or dealers in same, shall, when requested, furnish the director of the Texas experiment station with a complete list of names or trade marks of such feeding stuffs. [Acts 1905, p. 207, sec. 8.]

Art. 5900. How samples secured; analysis; publication.—The director of the Texas agricultural experiment station shall cause one analysis or more to be made annually of each concentrated commercial feeding stuff sold or offered for sale under the provisions of this chapter. Said director is hereby authorized in person or by deputy to take a sample not exceeding two pounds in weight for analysis from any lot or package of concentrated commercial feeding stuff which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent, dealer or buyer in this state; but said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of said party or parties in interest, or their representatives, and shall be taken from a parcel, lot or number of parcels which shall not be less than five per cent of the whole lot inspected, and shall be thoroughly mixed and divided into two samples, and placed in glass or metal vessels carefully sealed, and a label placed on each, stating the name or brand of the feeding stuff, or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample is drawn, and the date and place of taking such sample, and said label shall be signed by the director or his deputy and the party or parties at interest, or their representative present at the taking and sealing of said sample; provided, that where the party or parties at interest refuse to be present and take part in the sampling of the said feed stuffs, the director or his deputy may take said samples in the presence of two disinterested witnesses, one of said duplicate samples shall be retained by the director and the other shall be left with the party whose stock was sampled, and the sample or samples retained by the director shall be for comparison with the certified statements made in articles 5894 and 5897 of this chapter. The result of the analysis of the sample or samples so prescribed, together with such additional information as circumstances advise, shall be published in reports or bulletins by the Texas agricultural and mechanical college from time to time. [Acts 1905, p. 207, sec. 9.]

Art. 5901. Term "importer" defined.—The term, "importer," for all the purposes of this chapter shall be taken to mean all such persons as shall bring into or offer for sale within this state concentrated commercial feeding stuffs manufactured without this state. [Acts 1905, p. 207, sec. 10.]

Art. 5902. What feed stuffs deemed adulterated.—For the purpose of this chapter, a feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if it contains any sawdust, dirt, damaged feed, or any foreign matter whatever, or if it is in any respect not what it is represented to be, or if any rice hulls or chaff, peanut shells, corncobs, oat hulls, or other similar substances of little or no feeding value are admixed therewith; provided, that no wholesome mixture of feeding stuffs shall be deemed to be adulterated if the true percentage of constituents thereof is plainly and clearly stated on the package and made known to the purchaser at the time of the sale. It shall be the duty of the director of the experiment station to examine, or have examined for adulteration, all suspicious samples of feeding stuffs, and such other samples as may be desirable. [Acts 1905, p. 207. Amended Acts 1907, p. 243, sec. 11.]

Art. 5903. Duties and powers of director of experiment station.—The director of the experiment station is empowered to adopt standards or definitions for concentrated feeding stuffs, and such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the law. The said director shall have the power to refuse the registration of any feeding stuff, under a name which would be misleading as to the material of which it is made up, or which does not conform to the standards or definitions aforesaid. Should any of said materials be registered and it is afterwards discovered that they are in violation of the above provisions, the said director shall have the power to cancel the registration ten days after notice. The director of the Texas experiment station is hereby empowered to adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of all the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 243, sec. 11a.]

Art. 5903a. Disposition of funds for concentrated commercial feed stuffs.—That all money or moneys heretofore or hereafter collected by the officers and employes of the agricultural and mechanical college, under the provisions of the pure feed acts, passed by the twenty-ninth legislature, being chapters 108 and 118 of said acts, and amended by chapter 131, Acts of the thirtieth legislature, regulating the sale of concentrated commercial feed stuffs and so forth, and paid into the state treasury, and not heretofore expended for and on behalf of the agricultural and mechanical college, be and the same are hereby transferred and appropriated to the use and benefit of the agricultural and mechanical college of Texas; and the treasurer of this state shall keep an account on his books, to be designated and known as "Pure Feed Fund of the Agricultural and Mechanical College," and to which said fund he shall at once transfer from the general fund all funds heretofore collected and paid into the general fund by said pure feed department of the agricultural and mechanical college under said acts (and not expended for the use of the agricultural and mechanical college), and shall place all funds hereafter collected under said acts to said fund.

Art. 5903b. Same.—Said fund so appropriated and collected shall be used by the board of directors of the agricultural and mechanical college for making all necessary repairs at the agricultural and mechanical college, erection of buildings and other improvements, and for such other purposes as may be deemed advisable by the board of directors; and said funds shall be paid out by the state treasurer on warrants issued by the president and secretary of the board of directors. The said board of directors shall, on the thirty-first day of August of each year, file a sworn report with the governor, giving an itemized statement of all receipts and disbursements of said fund for the year ending on said date.

Article 5904. [3498a] Reserved lands opened to exploration and purchase, etc.—All public school, university, asylum and public lands specially included under the operation of this title, all the lands now owned by the state situated within the reservation known as the "Pacific Reservation," which were taken off the market and reserved from sale by an act approved January 22, 1883, containing valuable mineral deposits, are hereby reserved from sale or other disposition, except as herein provided, and are declared free and open to exploration and purchase under regulations prescribed by law, by citizens of the United States and those who have declared their intention of becoming such. [Act 1895, p. 197.]

Art. 5905. [3498c] Mining district created.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the general land office in all lands designated as mineral lands to unite a suitable number of mineral locations into mining districts, in each of which shall be a surveyor, who must either be the surveyor of the district or county or a regular appointed deputy and an officer qualified to administer oaths. [Id.]

Art. 5906. [3498d] Mining claims limited, etc.—A mining claim upon veins or lodes of quartz or other rocks in place bearing silver, gold, cinnabar, lead, tin, copper and other valuable metals, excluding deposits of kaolin, baryta, salt, marble, fire clay, iron ore, coal, oil, natural gas, gypsum, nitrates, mineral paints, asbestos, marls, natural cement, clay, onyx, mica, precious stones, or any other non-metallic mineral, and stone valuable for ornamental or building purposes, or other valuable building material, may equal but shall not exceed one thousand five hundred feet along the mine or vein or lode. No such claim shall exceed twenty-one acres in total area. The end lines of each claim shall be parallel to each other, and all claims shall be in the form of a parallelogram or square, unless such form is prevented by adjoining rights or boundaries of the section in which the claim lies. The locator under this title shall be entitled to the use of all the superficial area between the inclosing lines of the claim, and to all minerals thereon and between the side and end lines, extending downwards vertically, until the rights secured by posting are forfeited as provided; and in all conflicts priority of location shall decide. [Id.]

Art. 5907. [3498e] Locator to post claim.—The locators of any mining claim shall post up at the center of one of the end lines of the same a written notice, stating the name of the location and of the claim and date of posting, and describe the claim by giving the number of feet in length and width and the direction the claim lies in length from the notice, together with the section, if known, and the county, and shall place stone monuments at the four corners and otherwise describe the corners so that they can be readily found. The notice shall be placed in a conspicuous place so it can be readily seen. [Id.]

Art. 5908. [3498f] Application for survey of claim, requisites of.—The locator shall, within three months after the date of posting the required notice, file with the county surveyor of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated an application in writing for the survey of the claim, giving the name of the claim and such designation of its boundaries and location as to enable the surveyor to identify the land. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty dollars, unless its tender is waived, and also with an affidavit attached thereto that the applicant has found valuable minerals, stating the kind, on the claim, also the date of the first posting of the notice on the claim by the applicant and that the notice has not been post-dated nor changed in its date. Upon receiving the application and affidavit and fee, the surveyor shall record the application and affidavit and shall forthwith proceed to survey the claim. After the field-notes are recorded and a plat of the survey is made by the surveyor, he shall deliver the application and affidavit, together with the field-notes and plat, to the applicant or his agent, who shall forward same to the commissioner of the general land office with one dollar as a filing fee. When the applicant forwards the papers aforesaid to the commissioner, he shall at the same time forward to the state treasurer one-fifth of the aggregate price of the land as the first payment thereon. The applicant shall also file in the land office with his other papers his obligation to the state for the remaining unpaid purchase money, binding himself to pay to the state of Texas at the state treasury in Austin, Texas, one-fifth of the unpaid purchase price, together with four per cent interest annually after the date of the filing of said papers in the land office, and until the entire purchase price and interest are fully paid. The papers aforesaid shall be filed in the land office within sixty days from the date the application was filed with the county surveyor, and not thereafter. The fee of twenty dollars shall cover all charges by the surveyor in connection with any one claim. A claim filed on under this title for gold, silver, cinnabar, lead, tin or copper, zinc, tungsten, molybdenum and uranium, may be paid out in full at any time within five years from the date the papers were filed in the land office. All mineral lands shall be sold at such price as may be fixed by the land commissioner, but in no event shall the same be sold at a price less than twenty-five dollars per acre, nor until he has ascertained approximately their value; provided, that no person, firm, or corporation, or association of persons shall be permitted to locate or file on more than five claims of twenty-one acres within a radius of five miles. This article shall apply only to the claims filed on land containing the minerals herein named. [Id. Amended Act 1905, p. 148.]

Art. 5909. [3498g] Claimant must do what pending patent.—Upon the failure of any one of the several owners to contribute his proportion of the expenditure required in this title within the necessary time, the co-owner or co-owners who have paid the fees, or interest or principal, may, at the expiration of the time in which the payment was to be made and was so made by him, give notice in writing to such defaulting co-owner, or give such notice by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the claim is, if any, if none in such county, then in the newspaper published nearest the mining claim, for at least once a week for ninety days. If, after such personal notice in writing, or by publication, such delinquent shall fail or refuse to contribute his proportion of the expenditure required, his interest in the claim shall cease beyond the amount which he may have previously expended thereon, and become the property of his co-owners who may have made the required expenditures. An affidavit by the co-owners of the facts accompanied with the notice given shall, when recorded in the proper county surveyor's office, be sufficient evidence of such delinquency and forfeiture in all interest in such claim. If patent should be applied for on such claim, it shall be issued to the owners, if the proper evidence of forfeiture of such interest be filed in the land office. This article shall apply only to the claims filed on land containing the minerals named in the preceding article. [Id. Amended Act 1905, p. 148.]

Art. 5910. [3498h] Rights accruing to the claimant.—When a tunnel is run for the development of a vein or lode, or for the discovery of mines, the owner of such tunnel shall have the right of possession of all veins or lodes within two thousand feet of the face of such claim on the line thereof, not previously known to exist, discovered in such tunnel to the same extent as if discovered from the surface; and locations on the line of such tunnel of veins or lodes not appearing on the surface made by other parties after the commencement of the tunnel and while the same is being prosecuted with reasonable diligence shall be invalid; but failure to prosecute the work in the tunnel for six months shall be considered as an abandonment of the right of all undiscovered veins on the line of said tunnel. [Acts 1895, p. 197.]

Art. 5911. [3498i] Conditions precedent to issue of patent.—Whenever the owners of any mining claim shall desire a patent, they shall, within five years after the filing of the application for survey, file their application for a patent upon their claim with the commissioner of the general land office, accompanied by the receipt of the state treasurer showing that twenty-five dollars per acre has been paid by the applicant for patent to the state treasurer. Whereupon such patent shall issue, unless protest is filed as hereinafter provided for in article 5913. [Id.]

Art. 5912. [3498j] Right of purchase.—Within twelve months after the filing of the affidavit hereinafter provided for, any person or association of persons, qualified as required by article 5904, shall have the right to purchase and obtain patent by compliance with this title or any of the lands of the state which are specified or included in article 5904, containing valuable deposits of kaolin, baryta, salt, marble, fire clay, iron ore, coal, oil, natural gas, gypsum, nitrates, mineral paints, asbestos, marl, natural cement, clay, onyx, mica, precious stones or any other non-metallic mineral and stones valuable for ornamental or building purposes, or other valuable building material, in legal subdivisions, in quantity not exceeding one section; provided, that where any such parties shall have heretofore expended, or shall hereafter expend, five thousand dollars in developing the aforesaid mineral resources of any of said lands, such party shall have the right to buy one additional section and no more, and to include in the purchase any section, or part thereof, on which the work may have been done. The land so purchased may be in different sections, and all embraced in one or more obligations, not to exceed the quantity stated. The purchaser shall pay not less than fifteen dollars per acre where the land shall be situated ten miles or less of any railroad in operation, and not less than ten dollars per acre where the land is over ten miles from such railroad, one-tenth of the purchase money to be paid in cash to the state treasurer on or before the expiration of the twelve months aforesaid; and the purchasers shall file the treasurer's receipt with the commissioner of the general land office, together with an obligation to pay the state of Texas the remainder in nine equal annual installments, with interest at four per cent per annum from date, subject to forfeiture as in other cases; and all said lands are reserved from sale or other disposition than under this title; and where application is made to buy any of the lands herein named, except under this title, the purchaser shall swear that there are none of the minerals named in this title on said lands, so far as he knows, or has reason to believe, or does believe; provided, further, this article shall not authorize the sale of lands containing valuable deposits of gold, silver, lead, cinnabar, copper, or other valuable metal; provided, further, that any person desiring to acquire any lands under the provisions of this article shall have the right to prospect said land for a period of twelve months before making any payment thereon, upon condition that said prospector shall file with the proper surveyor his affidavit in writing, setting forth that he has gone upon the land in good faith with the intention of purchasing the same under the provisions of this article, and in said affidavit give a reasonable description of said land. After the filing of said affidavit, the said surveyor shall immediately forward same to the commissioner of the general land office, who shall take said section off the market until the expiration of said twelve months after the filing of said affidavit with the surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 5913. [3498k] Contest of patent.—Any person desiring to contest the issuance of patent may do so by filing with the commissioner of the general land office a protest setting forth the grounds of objection—generally, and that protestant has an interest in the subject matter; which protest shall also state that the same is presented in good faith and not to injure or delay the applicants, or any of them, and the same shall be verified by affidavit. Whereupon it shall be the duty of the commissioner to withhold patent until the controversy is ended; provided, that, if the protestant shall not, within thirty days after filing his protest, institute suit in the court having jurisdiction thereof in the county where the claims are located, his protest shall constitute no further barrier to the issuance of patent. A certified copy of the petition, or a certificate of the clerk of the court where suit is pending, shall be sufficient evidence to the commissioner of the pendency of the suit, and of the date of filing said suit. When the land in controversy lies partly in two counties, suit may be brought in either. More than one claim shall not be embraced in the same patent or application. The suits here provided for shall be entitled to precedence of trial on the docket. [Id.]

Art. 5914. [3492] Location on land disposed of since April 14, 1883.—When a location has been made and land disposed of by the state since the passage of the Act of 1883, for disposition of minerals on the land embraced in article 5904 of this title, if such location was made subsequent to the disposition by the state of such lands, and the locator or his assignees have not abandoned said claim, but are working it in good faith, the locator and his assignees shall nevertheless be entitled to the mineral and to the use of the superficial area as in other cases; and, if the case is such that the fee in the land can not pass by patent, a patent may issue to all the minerals in the claims, and shall be a license from the state to enter upon and work said claim and extract the mineral therefrom. In cases provided for in this article when the fee does not pass, the price shall be twenty dollars per acre, and the locator, or his assignee, shall in addition pay to the owner of the land in fee the fair value of the land so taken up by his claim, and roads and fences necessary to give him ingress and egress thereto, and be liable for any damages which may result to owner of the land in fee. All other provisions of this title shall apply to said location. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5915. [3498l] Forfeiture of claims.—If the application and affidavit provided for in article 5908 are not filed with the proper county surveyor within ninety days from the date of the first posting, and if the application, affidavit, field-notes, filing fee and obligation are not filed in the land office, or the first payment is not paid to the state treasurer, within the sixty days as required in article 5908, the file and claim thereunder shall be void. If any part of an annual interest, or any part of an annual payment of principal, remains unpaid for thirty days after it becomes due on any claim, such claims shall be subject to forfeiture by the commissioner of the general land office by an indorsement on the obligation, "Forfeited," signed officially by him, and thereupon all payments shall also be forfeited to the fund to which the land originally belonged. All forfeited claims may be reinstated upon written request of one or more owners filed in the land office and payment of all interest and principal due; provided, no rights of another has not intervened at date of filing such request in the land office. One interested in a claim at the time it was forfeited shall not be eligible to re-locate or re-file upon the same land for himself or on behalf of any other person, and any such location or attempt to locate by such person shall be wholly void. Whenever any land theretofore covered by a forfeited claim shall be re-located, the locator or locators and each of them shall make an affidavit that the location is made without any contract or agreement or understanding of any kind; that none of the parties theretofore owning an interest in the forfeited claim before the re-location have or is to have any interest in the same under the new location. In all other cases where an affidavit is required by this title, it may be made by one or more of the parties cognizant of the facts. This article shall apply only to claims filed on land containing the minerals named in article 5908. [Id. Amended Act 1905, p. 148.]

Art. 5916 [3498n] Applicant to make oath.—Whenever any application shall be made to buy or obtain title to any of the lands embraced in article 5914 [5904], except where the application is made under this title, the applicant shall make oath that there is not, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any of the minerals embraced in this title thereon; and, when the commissioner has any doubt in relation to the matter, he shall forbear action until he is satisfied. Any such sale or disposition of said lands shall be understood to be, with the reservation of the minerals thereon, to be subject to location as herein provided. [Acts 1895, p. 197.]

Art. 5917. [3498o] Placer claims subject to location.—Claims usually called placers, including all forms of metallic deposits, excepting veins of quartz or rock in place, shall be subject to entry and patent under like circumstances and conditions and upon similar proceedings as are provided for vein or lode claims. All placer claims located shall conform as near as practicable with existing surveys and their subdivisions; and no such location shall include more than forty acres for each individual claimant, and shall not exceed three hundred and twenty acres for any association of persons. The price which shall be paid for such placer shall not be less than ten dollars per acre, together with all costs of proceedings as before provided. [Id.]

Art. 5918. [3498p] Application may embrace non-adjacent non-mineral land.—Where non-mineral land not contiguous to the vein or lode is issued by the prospector of such vein or lode for mining or milling purposes, such non-adjacent surface ground may be embraced and included in an application for a patent for such vein or lode, and the same may be patented therewith, subject to the same preliminary requirements as to survey and notice as are applicable to veins or lodes; but no location of such non-adjacent lands shall exceed ten acres, and payment for the same must be made at the same rate as fixed by this title for the superficies of the lode. The owner of a quartz mill or reduction works, not owning a mine in connection therewith, may also receive a patent for a mill site, as provided in this section. [Id.]

Art. 5919. [3498q] Purposes for which timber may be felled.—Any owner or worker of mining claim under this title is authorized to fell and remove for building and mining purposes any timber or any tree growing or being upon unoccupied lands as described in article 5914 [5904], said lands being mineral and subject to entry only as mineral lands, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the protection of timber and undergrowth upon such lands and for other purposes. [Id.]

Art. 5920. [3498r] Vested rights not affected.—Nothing in this title shall ever be so construed as to either destroy, invalidate or impair any valid claim, right or interest existing in, to or concerning any lands whatever at the passage of this title, of any pre-emptor, purchaser, claimant, actual settler, locator or other person whatsoever. [Id.]

Art. 5921. [3498s] Proceeds appropriated.—The net proceeds of all sales of mining lands under the provisions of this title shall inure to the benefit of the state and the respective funds for which the lands mentioned in article 5914 [5904] are set apart under the constitution and the laws of the state; and it shall be the duty of the comptroller, state treasurer and commissioner of the general land office to see to it and have said proceeds so paid rightly placed to the credit of the particular and proper fund.

Art. 5922. [3498t] Surveyors to administer oaths.—For the purpose of effectually carrying out the provisions of this title, all county or district surveyors are hereby especially authorized and empowered to administer oaths, take affidavits and make certificates thereof.

Article 5923. State mining board; duties of.—For the purpose of securing efficiency in the mine inspection service, a board of examiners, to be known as the state mining board, whose duty it shall be to make formal inquiry into and pass upon the practical and technical qualifications and personal fitness of persons seeking appointments as state inspector of mines, shall be appointed by the governor. [Act 1907, p. 331, sec. 14.]

Art. 5924. Appointment, qualifications and terms of office of members of board.—Said board shall be composed of seven members, three of whom shall be practical miners, three shall be mine operators; and it shall be the first duty of the six members thus appointed to nominate to the governor the seventh member of said board; provided, that if the six members aforesaid shall fail for a period of ten days after their appointment to so nominate the seventh member, the same shall be appointed by the governor. Said board shall hold office for a period of two years and until their successors have been appointed and qualified. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5925. Board to select mining inspector; place of meeting.—The board shall meet in the capitol building, at Austin biennially, for the purpose of hearing applications for the office of state mining inspector. It shall be the duty of the board to thoroughly examine all applicants who may come before it, and to select from among such applicants the person who in its opinion is best qualified to perform the duties of state mining inspector; and, upon the nomination of said board, the governor shall appoint the person so recommended. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5926. Qualifications of mining inspector; term of office.—The state mine inspector shall be a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in the state of Texas for one year, of temperate habits, of good repute, a man of personal integrity, shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have had at least five years experience working in and around coal mines, and shall not have any pecuniary interest whatever in any mine in this state. He shall hold office for a period of two years, unless sooner removed as provided herein. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5927. State mine inspector under supervision of board; how removed from office.—It shall be the duty of the state mining board to exercise supervision over the acts of the state mine inspector, and, in the event of his incompetency or the neglect of his duty being proved to the board, said board shall recommend to the governor that he be removed from office, and his successor shall be chosen as herein provided. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5928. Semi-annual meetings of board; reports of inspector.—The state mining board shall meet twice each year, and at such time and place as the majority may select, for the purpose of receiving reports from the inspector and instructing him in the performance of his duty. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5929. Compensation of members of board.—The members of the state mining board shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five dollars per day for a period not exceeding thirty days in any one year, and traveling expenses in going to and returning from board meetings. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5930. Inspector to enforce law; salary and expenses.—It shall be the duty of the state mining inspector to enforce the provisions of this chapter under the instructions of the state mining board, and to make a report to said board at its semi-annual meetings, and oftener if required. He shall receive for his services the sum of two thousand dollars per year, and actual traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his duty; provided, that his traveling expenses shall not in any one year exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. Said mining inspector shall file an itemized statement, showing the actual amounts expended, and the number of times he inspected each mine or mines. [Id. sec. 21. Amended act 1909, p. 163.]

Art. 5931. Discrimination prohibited.—It shall be the duty of the state mining inspector to enforce the provisions of this chapter under the instruction of the state mining board, and to make report to said board at its semi-annual meetings and oftener if required; provided, that neither the instructions of said board nor the acts of said inspector shall ever discriminate in favor of or against any mine or mines, nor against any owner, operator or employe, of any mine or mines; but said acts, either of the board, or of the inspector, shall be impartial, fair and just to all persons or corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5932. Bond of inspector; liability for discrimination.—Before receiving his appointment by the governor, the inspector of mines shall be required to enter into and deliver to the governor a good and sufficient bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with at least three good, lawful and sufficient sureties for the faithful and impartial performance of his duty; and the sureties herein required shall make affidavit before some officer authorized to administer oaths that they, in their own right, over and above all exemption, are worth the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties, said bond to be approved by the governor, provided he is satisfied as to its sufficiency, and said bond shall be conditioned that there shall be no discrimination in favor of or against any mine or mines, nor against any owner, operator or employe of any mine or mines; provided, further, if the fact may be shown that said inspector has discriminated against and to the injury of any mine or mines, or against and to the injury of any owner, operator or employe, then the said owner, operator or employe may sue upon the bond herein provided for, and shall be entitled to recover such liquidated damages as may be proven and shown in such suit.

MINING REGULATIONS.

Art. 5933. Mine shafts, how constructed and equipped.—Any shaft in process of sinking, and any opening projected for the purpose of mining coal of all kinds, shall be subjected to the provisions of this chapter. At the bottom of every shaft and every caging place therein, a safe commodious passageway must be cut around said landing place, to serve as a traveling way by which employes shall pass from one side of the shaft to the other without passing under or on the cage. The upper and lower landings at the top of each shaft, and the openings of each intermediate seam from or to the shaft, shall be clear and free from loose materials and shall be securely fenced with automatic or other gates or bars so as to prevent either men or materials from falling into the shaft. Every hoisting shaft must be equipped with substantial cages fitted to guide rails running from the top to the bottom. Said cages must be safely constructed, they must be furnished with suitable boiler iron covers to protect persons riding thereon from falling objects, and they must be equipped with safety catches. Every cage on which people are carried must be fitted with iron bars, rings or chains in proper place and in sufficient number to furnish a secure handhold for every person permitted to ride thereon. At the top landing, cage supports, where necessary, must be carefully set and adjusted so as to work properly and securely hold the cages when at rest. In all cases where the human voice cannot be distinctly heard, there shall be provided a metal tube or telephone from the top to the bottom of the shaft or slope through which conversation may be held between persons at the bottom and top of such shaft or slope, and that there shall also be maintained an efficient system of signaling to and from the top of the shaft or slope and each seam or opening. Every underground place on which persons travel, worked by self-acting engines, windlasses or machinery of any description, shall be provided with practical means of signaling between the stopping places and the ends of the plane, and shall further be provided, at intervals of not more than sixty feet, with sufficient manholes for places of refuge. [Act 1907, p. 331, sec. 1.]

Art. 5934. Mine must be suitably propped.—Every mine shall be supplied with props and timbers of suitable length and size; and, if from any cause the timbers are not supplied when required, the miners shall vacate any and all such working places until supplied with timber needed. [Id.]

Art. 5935. Abandoned workings to be cut off.—All openings connecting with worked-out or abandoned portions of every operated mine likely to accumulate explosive gases or dangerous conditions shall be securely gobbed and blocked off from the operated portions thereof, so as to protect every person working in such mines from all danger that may be caused or produced by such worked-out portions of such mines. [Id.]

Art. 5936. Ventilation.—Throughout every mine there shall be maintained currents of fresh air sufficient for the health and safety of all men and animals employed therein, and such ventilation shall be produced by a fan or some other artificial means; provided, a furnace shall not be used for ventilating any mine in which explosive gases are generated. The quantity of air required to be kept in circulation and passing a given point shall be not less than one hundred cubic feet per minute for each person, and not less than three hundred cubic feet per minute for each animal, in the mine, measured at the foot of the downcast; and this quantity may be increased at the discretion of the inspector, whenever in his judgment unusual conditions make a stronger current necessary. Said current shall be forced into every working place throughout the mine, so that all parts of the same shall be reasonably free from standing powder smoke and deleterious air of any kind. The measurement of the current of air shall be taken with an anemometer at the foot of the downcast, at the foot of the upcast and at the working face of each division or split of the air current. The main current of air shall be split or subdivided as to provide a separate current of reasonably pure air to every one hundred men at work; and the inspector shall have authority to order separate currents for smaller groups of men, if in his judgment special conditions make it necessary. The air current for ventilating the stable shall not pass into the intake air current for ventilating the working parts of the mine. Whenever the inspector shall find men working without sufficient air, he shall at once give the mine manager or operator notice and a reasonable time in which to restore the current; and, upon his or their refusal or neglect to act promptly, the inspector may order the endangered men out of the mine. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5937. Same.—It shall be the duty of the mine foreman to see that proper cut-throughs are made in all the pillars at such distances as in the judgment of the mine inspector may be deemed requisite, not more than twenty yards nor less than ten yards apart, for the purpose of ventilation; and the ventilation shall be conducted through said cut-throughs into the rooms and entries by means of check doors made of canvas or other material, placed on the entries or in other suitable places; and he shall not permit any room to be opened in advance of the ventilating current. Should the mine inspector discover any room, entry, airway, or other working place, being driven in advance of the air current contrary to the requirements of this article, he shall order the workmen in such places to cease work at once until the law is complied with. Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5938. Dangerous gases and fires; inspector notified.—Immediate notice must be conveyed by the miner or mine owner to the inspector upon the appearance of any large body of fire damp in any mine, whether accompanied by any explosion or not, and upon the concurrence of any serious fire within the mine or on the surface. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5939. Cages, how operated.—Cages on which men are riding shall not be lifted or lowered at a rate greater than six hundred feet per minute, except with the written consent of the inspector. No persons shall carry any tools or material with him on a cage in motion, except for use in making repairs; and no one shall ride on a cage while the other cage contains a loaded car. No cage having an unstable or self-dumping platform shall be used for the carriage of men or materials, unless the same is provided with some convenient device by which said platform can be securely locked, and unless it is so locked whenever men or material are being conveyed thereon. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5940. Powder.—No miner or other person shall carry powder into the mine, except in the original keg, or in a regulation powder can securely fastened, and the can in otherwise air tight condition. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5941. Inspector may require use of safety lamp.—At any mine where the inspector shall find fire damp is being generated so as to require the use of a safety lamp in any part thereof, the operator of such mine, upon receiving notice from the inspector that one or more such lamps are necessary for the safety of the men in the mines, shall at once procure and keep for use such number of safety lamps as may be necessary. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5942. Rules to be observed by miners.—It shall be unlawful for any miner, workman or other person knowingly or carelessly to injure any shaft, safety lamp, instrument, air-course or brattice, or to obstruct or throw open an air-way, or to carry any open lamp or lighted pipe, or fire in any form, into a place worked by the light of safety lamps, or within three feet of any open powder, or to handle or disturb any part of the hoisting machinery, or to enter any part of the mine against caution, or to do any wilful act whereby the lives or health of persons working in mines, or the security of the mine machinery thereof, is endangered. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5943. Rules to be posted.—It shall be the duty of every operator to post on the engine house and at the pit top of his mine, in such manner that the employes of the mine can read them, rules not inconsistent with this law, plainly printed in the English language, which shall govern all persons working in the mine. And the posting of such notice, as provided, shall charge all employes of such mine with legal notice of the contents thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5944. Coal scales.—The owner or operator of every mine shall provide adequate and accurate scales for weighing coal; and it shall be the duty of the mine inspector to examine such scales; and, if same are not found to be accurate, he shall notify the owner to repair same; and, if such owner fails or refuses to repair same within a reasonable time, said inspector shall institute proceedings under the law against the proper parties. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5945. Employes may employ check weighman.—The employes in any mine in this state shall have the right to employ a check weighman at their own option and their own expense. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5946. Kind of oil to be used.—No miner, or other person employed in a mine, shall use any kind of oil other than a good quality of lard oil for lighting purposes, except when repairing downcast or upcast shafts. [Id. sec. 12.]

Article 5947. [3499] When may have disabilities removed.—Any minor in this state over the age of nineteen years, who may desire to have his disabilities as a minor removed, shall, by a bill or petition, present to the district court of the county where he may reside the cause or causes existing which make it advisable or advantageous to said minor to have his disabilities removed, which bill or petition shall be sworn to by some person cognizant of the facts set out in said bill or petition. [Acts of 1881, p. 16, sec. 1.]

Art. 5948. [3500] Proceedings for removal.—Said petition or bill shall be docketed on the trial docket of the court, and may be heard by the court, either in regular order or at any time during term time; and, if it shall appear to the court that the ground or causes set out are sufficient, and that it is advisable, or will be advantageous to such minor, in person or property, to have his disabilities as a minor removed, the court shall enter up a decree removing the disabilities of said minor, and cause it to be entered of record among the decrees and judgments of court. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5949. [3501] Shall be deemed of full age.—After the removal of such disabilities of minority, the said minor shall be deemed and held, for all legal purposes, of full age, and shall be held responsible, and shall have all the privileges and advantages as if he were of full age, saving only that he shall not vote until he arrives at the full age of twenty-one years. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5950. [3502] Notice, on whom served.—In all proceedings under this title, a copy of the petition shall be served upon the father of the minor, if living within the state, and, if he be dead, that fact shall be mentioned in the petition. If the father of the minor be not living, then a copy of the petition shall be served upon the county judge of the county in which the proceeding is instituted; and in all such cases the court hearing the application shall appoint a special guardian, whose duty it shall be, in connection with the county judge, to represent the true interests of the minor, as they shall understand it, in aiding or resisting the application of the minor. An allowance shall be made by the district judge presiding to the special guardian, which shall be paid out of the estate of the minor. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 5951. [377] [336] Application for change of name to district court.—When any person shall desire to change either his Christian or surname, or both, and to adopt another name instead thereof, he shall file his application in the district court of the county of his residence, setting forth the causes which induce him to desire a change of name and to adopt another; whereupon the judge of the said court, if in his opinion it should be for the interest or benefit of the applicant to change his name and to adopt another, shall by a judgment of said court order that the adopted name of the party shall be substituted for the original name. [Act Feb. 5, 1856. P. D. 32.]

Art. 5952. [378] [337] Minors by guardian.—Whenever it shall be to the interest of any minor under the age of twenty-one years to change his name and to adopt another name instead of the original name, the guardian or next friend of said minor shall file his application in the district court of the county of the said minor's residence, setting forth the causes which induced the minor to desire to change the original name, accompanied with the full name which the minor wishes to adopt; whereupon the judge of said court, if the facts contained in the application shall satisfy him that it will be for the benefit and interest of the minor to change his name and to adopt another, shall grant authority to change his original name and to adopt another instead thereof. [Id. P. D. 33.]

Art. 5953. [379] [338] Not to injure third persons.—Whenever any person shall change his original name and adopt another instead thereof, it shall not operate so as to release the person from any responsibility which he may have incurred by the original name, nor shall it operate by said change of name to defeat or destroy any rights or property or action which the person had or held in his original name. [Id. P. D. 34.]

Art. 5954. [380] [339] In divorce suits name may be changed.—In suits for divorce, the court may, in its discretion, on the final disposition of the case, enter a decree changing the name of either party to said suit, if such change of name is specially prayed for in the pleadings of such party.

Article 5955. Districts may include, what.—One or more districts may be established in the several counties of this state, to be known as navigation districts, in the manner hereinafter provided; and such districts may or may not include within their boundaries and limits villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any parts thereof. Such navigation districts, when so established, may make improvement of rivers, bays, creeks, streams and canals running or flowing through such districts, or any part thereof, and may construct and maintain canals and waterways to permit of navigation or in aid thereof, may issue bonds in payment thereof as hereinafter provided. [Act 1909, p. 32, sec. 1.]

Art. 5956. Application to commissioners' court to contain what; notice given.—Upon the presentation to the county commissioners' court of any county of this state of a petition, accompanied by the deposit provided for in article 5981 of this chapter, signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers, or in the event there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district, then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers of any proposed navigation district, praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvement or improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and praying for the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof, and designating a name for such navigation district, which name shall include the name of the county, said petitioners shall make affidavit to accompany said petition of their said qualification; and the said commissioners' court shall, at the same session when said petition is presented, set same down for hearing at some regular term of said court, or at some special session of said court called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition, and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door of said county, and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed navigation district, which said notices shall be posted not less than twenty days prior to the time set for the hearing. The said clerk shall receive as compensation for such services one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5957. Navigation boards in cities and towns with special charters.—In the event the boundaries of the proposed district shall include a city or cities, or a part or parts thereof, acting under special charter granted by the legislature, the hearing of said petition, hereinafter provided for, shall be had before the county judge and members of the commissioners' court and the mayor and aldermen or commissioners, as the case may be, of said city or cities; and said persons shall constitute a board to be known and designated as the navigation board, to pass upon the petition aforesaid. Each individual member of the said board shall be entitled to a vote. A majority in number of the individuals composing said board shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a majority of the quorum shall control. [Id.]

Art. 5958. Notice of hearing before navigation board.—In the event the hearing of said petition shall be had before the navigation board, the commissioners' court of said county shall set the petition down for hearing not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the presentation of said petition without reference to any term of the commissioners' court, but said hearing shall be held at the regular place of meeting of the commissioners' court, and notice shall be given of the hearing in the manner and for the time as hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

Art. 5959. Proceedings to be recorded by county clerk.—The county clerk shall enter and record the proceedings of the navigation board in a record book kept for this purpose, which record shall be a public archive. [Id.]

Art. 5960. Duties imposed without compensation.—The duties and powers herein conferred upon the county judge and members of the commissioners' court, and upon the mayor and aldermen or commissioners of cities, and upon the county clerk and other officers, are made a part of the legal duty of said officials, which they shall render and perform without additional compensation, unless otherwise provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 5961. Objections and contest on hearing.—Upon the day set by said county commissioners for the hearing of said petition, any person who has taxable property within the proposed district, or who may be affected thereby, may appear before the said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, and contest the creation of said district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of the said district, to show that the proposed improvement or improvements would or would not be of any public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvement or improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. Said county commissioners' court, or navigation board, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation and establishment of the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, except as hereinafter provided, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments or decisions rendered by said court, or navigation board, in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein otherwise provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5962. Finding of board at hearing.—If, at the hearing of said petition, it shall appear to the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility; and, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set out in said petition, then the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be recorded in the records of the commissioners' court, or minutes of the navigation board, as the case may be. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility, but does not approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set forth in the petition, the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements, and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be entered of record, together with a map thereof. Providing, however, that before any change is made by said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, of the boundaries, notice and a hearing thereof shall be given and had as provided for in article 5956 of this chapter. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is not feasible or practicable, or that it would not be a public benefit or public utility, and that the establishment of such navigation district is therefore unnecessary, then the court, or navigation board, shall enter such findings of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of petitioners, but the order dismissing said petition shall not prevent or conclude the presentation at a later date of a similar petition. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5963. Election; form of ballot.—After the hearing upon the petition, as herein provided, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of a navigation district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition, or as changed or modified as above provided by the said court, or navigation board, the commissioners' court of said county shall order an election, in which order provision shall be made for submitting to the qualified property taxpaying voters resident in said district whether or not such navigation district shall be created, and whether or not a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem said bonds at maturity, said order specifying the amount of bonds to be issued, together with the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear as said matters have been determined by the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, under the provisions of article 5962 of this chapter. Said election to be held within such proposed navigation district at the earliest legal time; at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions and none other: "For the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." Provided, that said bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district as made by the last annual assessment thereof for state and county taxation. [Id.]

Art. 5964. Election notice.—Notice of such election, stating the time and place of holding the same, shall be given by the clerk of the county court by posting notices thereof in four public places in such proposed navigation district, and one at the court house door of the county in which such district is situated, for thirty days prior to the date set for the election. Such notices shall contain the proposition to be voted upon as set forth in article 5963 of this chapter, and shall also specify the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued, and the amount of said bonds, and shall contain a copy of the order of the court ordering the election. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5965. Election to conform to general election law.—The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of the state of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said proposed district, shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the county commissioners' court at such election. The county commissioners' court shall create and define, by an order of the court, the voting precincts in the proposed navigation district, and shall name a polling place or places within said precincts, taking into consideration the convenience of the voters in the proposed navigation district, and shall also select and appoint the judges and other necessary officers of the election, and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots as there are qualified resident property taxpaying voters within such navigation district. Said ballot shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5966. Electors; form of oath before voting.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place wherein he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is hereby authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter of county, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed navigation district voted on at this election, and I have not voted before at this election." [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5967. Commissioners' court to canvass returns; declare result.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judge at each polling place shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in elections for state and county officers, and return the ballot boxes to the county clerk, who shall keep same in a safe place and deliver them, together with the returns from the several polling places, to the commissioners' court at its next regular session, or special session called for the purpose of canvassing the vote, and the county commissioners shall, at such session, canvass the vote; and, if it be found that a two-thirds majority of those voting at such election shall have been cast in favor of the navigation district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said navigation district, and shall enter same in the minutes of the court as follows:

"Commissioners' court of county, Texas term, A. D., in the matter of petition of and others, praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition fully described and designated by the name of Navigation District. Be it known that an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the . . . day of, A. D. . . ., a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said navigation district be, and the same is hereby established by the name of Navigation District, and that the bonds of said district in the amount of dollars be issued, and a tax of cents on the hundred dollars of valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be levied upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purposes, same shall be increased until same is sufficient. The metes and bounds of said district, being as follows, to wit: [Giving the metes and bounds]. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5968. Navigation commissioners, how appointed; qualifications; compensation, term of office.—After the establishment of any navigation district, as herein provided, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint three navigation and canal commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the proposed navigation district, who shall be freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county, whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided, and who shall each receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners' court and made of record. Said navigation and canal commissioners shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the county commissioners, or navigation board, as the case may be, for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. Upon the expiration of the term of office of said navigation and canal commissioners, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint their successors by a majority vote. Should any vacancy occur through the death or resignation or otherwise of any commissioner, the same shall be filled by the commissioners' court, or the navigation board, as the case may be. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5969. Oath of commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, all navigation and canal commissioners shall take and subscribe before the county judge an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of their doings to the court, or navigation board, by which they are appointed whenever required to do so, which oath shall be filed by the county clerk and preserved as a part of the records of said navigation district. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5970. Bond of commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, each of the navigation and canal commissioners shall make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of said navigation district, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5971. Organization; quorum.—Said commissioners shall also organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary, and two of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5972. Engineers appointed; duties; compensation; U. S. government aid; proceedings in case of.—Said commissioners shall have authority to employ a competent engineer, whose term of office shall be at the will of said commissioners, and who shall receive such compensation as may be determined by said commissioners. It shall be the duty of the engineer to make all necessary surveys, examinations, investigations, maps, plans and drawings with reference to the proposed improvements. He shall make estimate or estimates of the cost of same, shall supervise the work of improvement, and shall do and perform all such duties as may be required of him by the commissioners. Provided, that if the river, creek, stream, bay, canal, or waterway, to be improved is navigable or the improvement proposed be of such nature as requires the permission or consent of the government of the United States, or any department or officer of the government of the United States, the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to obtain the required permission or consent of the government of the United States, or any proper officer or department thereof; and, in lieu of the employment of an engineer as herein provided, or in addition thereto, the navigation and canal commissioners shall have power to adopt any survey of the river, creek, canal, stream, bay, or waterway theretofore made by the government of the United States, or any department thereof, and to arrange for surveys, examinations and investigations of the proposed improvement, and for supervision of the work of improvement by the government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof; provided, that said commissioners shall have full power and authority to co-operate and act with the government of the United States, or any officer or department thereof, in any and all matters pertaining to or relating to the construction and maintenance of said canals, and the improvement and navigation of all such navigable rivers, bays, creeks, streams, canals, and waterways, whether by survey, work or expenditure of money made or to be made either by said navigation and canal commissioners, or by said government of the United States, or any proper officer or department thereof, or by both; and, to the end that the said government of the United States may aid in all such matters, the said commissioners shall have authority to agree and consent to the said government of the United States entering upon and taking management and control of said work, in so far as it may be necessary or permissible under the laws of the United States, and the regulations and orders of any department thereof. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 5973. Commissioners' court to issue bonds, when and how.—When said commissioners shall have determined the cost of the proposed improvement or improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto and cost of maintenance thereof, they shall certify to the commissioners' court of the county in which such district is situated the amount of bonds necessary to be issued; and thereupon the said court, at a regular or special meeting, shall make an order directing the issuance of navigation bonds for such navigation district in the amount so certified; provided, that the amount of bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by the election theretofore held. In the event the proceeds of bonds issued by such navigation district should be insufficient to complete the proposed improvement or construction, or in the event said commissioners shall determine to make other and further construction or improvements, or shall require additional funds with which to maintain the improvements made, they shall certify to the commissioners' court of the county in which such district is situated the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required and the purpose of the same, the rate of interest of said bonds and the time for which they are to run; whereupon the commissioners' court shall issue such bonds, unless the amount previously authorized shall have been exhausted, in which case the commissioners' court shall order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such navigation district at the earliest possible legal time, and in the manner hereinbefore provided for the original issue of bonds, at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions and none other: "For the issuance of bonds, and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of bonds, and levy of tax in payment thereof." Notices of such election shall be given as provided in article 5964 of this chapter; and the election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided in articles 5965 and 5966 of this chapter. Only those who are qualified property taxpaying voters, as provided in this chapter, shall vote at such election, and the returns of such election shall be canvassed as provided in article 5964 [5967] of this chapter. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5974. Bonds, when issued; assessments, limitation of.—If, upon a canvass of the vote, the commissioners' court shall determine that a two-thirds majority of the votes cast at said election shall have been cast in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, the said court shall make an order directing the issuance of said bonds and levy of tax; provided, however, that the outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for state and county taxation. [Id. sec. 15a.]

Art. 5975. Bonds, form of; denominations, term.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the navigation district, signed by the county judge and attested by the clerk of the county court, with the seal of the commissioners' court affixed thereto, and such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, and such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum. Such bonds and interest shall by their terms be made payable at the county treasurer's office of the county in which such navigation district is located, or elsewhere, as may be fixed by said navigation and canal commissioners; and no bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after date. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5976. Attorney general to certify to validity of.—Any navigation district in the state of Texas desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the attorney general a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax, copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such navigation district as such, including the series of bonds proposed and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment by the county, together with such other information as the attorney general may require; whereupon it shall be the duty of the attorney general to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds; and, if as the result of such examination the attorney general shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such navigation district by which they are issued, he shall so officially certify. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5977. Certificate of attorney general; effect of.—When said bonds have been examined by the attorney general, and his certificate issued to that effect, they shall be registered by the state comptroller, in a book to be kept for that purpose; and the certificate of the attorney general to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Such bonds, after being approved by the attorney general, and after having been registered in the comptroller's office as herein provided, shall thereafter be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought in question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And, in every action brought to enforce collection of said bonds or interest thereon, the certificate of the attorney general, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided.

that the only defense that can be offered against the validity of said bonds or coupons shall be forgery or fraud. But this article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds or coupons as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the constitution, or contrary to its provisions, but all such bonds shall, to the extent of such excess, be held void. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5978. Record of bonds to be kept; duties and fees of clerk.—Before issuing any bonds under the provisions of this chapter, the county commissioners' court shall provide a well bound book, in which a record shall be kept by the county clerk of all bonds issued, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest, and date of issue, when due, where payable, and amount received for the same, and the annual rate per cent assessment made each year to pay the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for their payment. And said book shall at all times be open to the inspection of all parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers or bond holders or otherwise; and, upon the payment of any bond, an entry thereof shall be made in said book. The county clerk shall receive for his services in recording all bonds and other instruments of the navigation district the same fees as provided by law for other like records. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5979. Bonds sold, how; limitations on sale.—When such bonds have been registered, as provided for in the preceding article of this chapter, the chairman of the navigation and canal commission shall offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon; and, as fast as said bonds are sold, all moneys received therefor shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall by him be placed to the credit of such navigation district. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5980. Chairman to give bond.—Before the said chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to sell any of the navigation bonds, he shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of said county, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 5981. Cost of proceedings to establish district; how provided.—All expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any navigation district organized under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such navigation district; which fund shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatever source, except the tax collections applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the navigation bonds; provided, that, should the proposition of the creation of such navigation district and issuance of bonds be defeated at the election called to vote upon same, then all expenses up to and including said election shall be paid in the following manner: When the original petition praying for the establishment of a navigation district is filed with the county commissioners' court, it shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said county commissioners' court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said navigation district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners' court, as hereinbefore provided; and, should the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then the said five hundred dollars shall be by said clerk returned to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney; but, should the result of said election be against the establishment of said district, then the said clerk shall pay out of the said five hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, of said five hundred dollars to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 5982. Taxes for interest and sinking fund.—Whenever any such navigation district bonds shall have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 5983. Available sinking fund, how invested.—If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested by the commissioners' court of the county in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as shall be approved by the attorney general of the state. [Id.]

Art. 5984. Tax proceedings; compensation of assessor.—The county commissioners' court shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of the assessor and collector of taxes and the county clerk for such navigation district, and charge the cost of same to the said navigation district. It shall be the duty of the county tax assessor, when ordered to do so by the commissioners' court, to assess all property within such navigation district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said commissioners' court for that purpose, and return said books or rolls at the same time when he returns the other books or rolls of the state and county taxes for correction and approval; and, if the said commissioners' court shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve the same, and, in all matters pertaining to the assessment of property for taxation in said district, the tax assessor and board of equalization of the county in which said district is located shall be authorized to act, and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for assessing and equalizing property for state and county taxes, except as herein provided. All taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter shall be a lien upon the property upon which said taxes are assessed, and said taxes may be paid and shall mature and be paid at the time provided by the laws of this state for the payment of state and county taxes; and all the penalties provided by the laws of this state for the non-payment of state and county taxes shall apply to all taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter. The tax assessor shall receive for said services such compensation as the said navigation and canal commissioners shall deem proper; provided, that said county assessor shall in no event be allowed more than he is now allowed by law for the like services. Should the tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of the commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all the property in such navigation districts, as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 5985. Compensation of tax collector; additional bond required.—The tax collector of the county shall be charged by the county commissioners' court with the assessment rolls of the navigation district, and he shall be allowed no more compensation for the collection of said taxes than he is now allowed for the collection of other taxes, same to be fixed by the navigation and canal commissioners. The county commissioners' court shall require the tax collector of the county to give an additional bond or security in such a sum as they may deem proper and safe to secure the collection of said taxes; and, in all matters pertaining to the collection of taxes levied under the provisions of this chapter, the tax collector shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for the collection of state and county taxes, except as herein provided; and suits may be brought for the collection of said taxes and the enforcement of the tax liens created by this chapter. Should any collector of taxes fail or refuse to give such additional bond or security, as herein provided, when requested by the commissioners' court, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 5986. Delinquents; tax sales.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the navigation tax has not been paid, and return the same to the county commissioners' court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such delinquent property in the same manner, both by suit and otherwise, as is now provided for the sale of property for the collection of state and county taxes; and, at the sale of any property for any delinquent tax, the navigation and canal commissioners may become the purchasers of the same for the benefit of the navigation district. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 5987. County treasurer; duties.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to open an account with the navigation district, and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district and of all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money, except upon a voucher signed by the chairman or any two of the said navigation and canal commissioners, and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and, as often as required by the said commissioners, or the county commissioners' court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 5988. Treasurer to give bond; compensation.—The county treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district, in a sum equal to twice the amount of bonds issued, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer of such district, which bond shall be approved by said commissioners, and the treasurer shall be allowed such compensation for his services as such treasurer as may be determined by said commissioners, not exceeding the same per cent as is now allowed by the county for his services as county treasurer. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 5989. Condemnation proceedings.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all navigation districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through any and all lands, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for the improvement of any river, bay, creek, or stream, and the construction and maintenance of any canal or waterway, and for any and all purposes authorized by this chapter. All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the navigation and canal commissioners, and in the name of the navigation district, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the statutes of the state of Texas for condemning and acquiring the right of way by railroads; provided, that no appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing a suspension of work by the navigation commissioners in prosecuting the work of improvement in all of its details; provided, that no right of way can be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities of such city or town. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 5990. May acquire property for navigation purposes.—The navigation and canal commissioners of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind for all necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 5991. Commissioners may enter lands to make surveys.—The navigation and canal commissioners of any district, and the engineers, from the time of their appointment, are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 5992. Work, how done; contracts, how let when U. S. government fails to act.—If the improvement or improvements be not carried out and performed by the government of the United States, as herein provided, the contract or contracts for such improvement or improvements shall be let by the navigation and canal commissioners, and the same shall be awarded to the lowest and best responsible bidder, after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state of Texas once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days in five public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and at least two of which shall be within said navigation district. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of more than one improvement, and where more than one improvement is to be made, the contract may be let separately for each or one contract for all such improvements. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 5993. Bids for work, how awarded.—Any person, corporation, or firm, desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for as provided under the preceding article of this chapter, shall, upon application to the navigation and canal commissioners, be furnished the survey, plans and estimates for the said work, and all bids or offers for any of such work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners, together with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract, if his bid is accepted. Any and all bids may be rejected at the discretion of the navigation and canal commissioners. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 5994. Contracts to be in writing and filed.—All contracts made by the navigation and canal commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors, and navigation and canal commissioners, or any two of said commissioners, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk for reference. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 5995. Contractor's bond.—The party, firm, or corporation, to whom any such contract is let, shall give bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners for said district, in twice the amount of the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of their contract, and that in default thereof will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by such navigation and canal commissioners. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 5996. Work supervised by engineer; his report.—All work contracted for by the navigation and canal commissioners, unless done under the supervision of the government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof, shall be done under the supervision of the engineer; and, when the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the navigation and canal commissioners, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with, according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been so complied with. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 5997. Commissioners to inspect work; payment, how made.—The commissioners shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, during the progress of the work being done under contract, to inspect the same; and, upon the completion of any contract, they shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee, which warrant shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such district; provided, that, if the navigation and canal commissioners shall deem it advisable, they may contract for the work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses; but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, the amount of work completed to be shown by a certificate of the engineer; and provided, further, that nothing in this article shall affect the provisions of this chapter providing for the carrying out and performing of the improvement or improvements by the government of the United States. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 5998. Commissioners report of work to contain what.—The commissioners shall make an annual report of their acts and doings as such commissioners, and file the same with the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of January each year; which report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same, and the amount paid out on order, for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 5999. Commissioners may employ assistant engineers and legal counsel.—The commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to employ such assistant engineers and other employes as may be necessary, paying such compensation as they may determine; and the said commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the navigation and canal commissioners on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them; and such commissioners shall have the authority to draw warrant or warrants in payment of such legal services, and for the salary of the engineer, his assistant, or any other employes, and for all expense incident and pertaining to the navigation district. [Id.]

Art. 6000. Unlawful for officers to be interested in contracts.—Neither the county judge, nor any county commissioner, nor member of the navigation board, nor the navigation and canal commissioners or engineer shall be directly or indirectly interested for themselves, or as agents for any one else, in the contract for the construction of any work to be performed by such navigation district. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 6001. Commission may sue and be sued.—All navigation districts established under this chapter may, by and through the navigation and canal commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this state in the name of such navigation district; and all courts of this state shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all such districts. [Id. sec. 41.]

Article 6002. [3503] Governor shall appoint.—There shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a convenient number of notaries public for each organized county, and not to exceed six notaries public for each unorganized county in this state, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years from the first day of June after appointment at a regular session of the legislature; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to exempt them from jury service. [Acts 1889, p. 89. Acts 1885, p. 1. Acts 1903, p. 158.]

Art. 6003. [3504] Bond and oath.—Every person who may be appointed a notary public, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the county court of his county, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, with the certificate of the officer administering the same; said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and deposited in said office, and shall not be void on the first recovery, and may be sued on in the name of any party injured from time to time until the whole amount thereof has been recovered. [Acts of 1881, p. 94.]

Art. 6004. [3505] To be removed, when.—Every notary public who shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of duty or malfeasance in office may be removed from office in the manner provided by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6005. [3506] Office to become vacant, when.—Whenever any notary public shall remove permanently from the county for which he was appointed, or an ex officio notary public from his precinct, his office shall thereupon be deemed vacant. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6006. [3507] Seal, and what it shall contain.—Every notary public shall provide a seal of office, whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points, and the words, "Notary Public, County of, Texas," around the margin (the blank to be filled with the name of the county for which the officer is appointed), and he shall authenticate all his official acts therewith; and any notary public or other officer required by law to keep and use a seal, who shall us, in attesting any instrument any seal not such as is required by law to keep and use for that purpose, or shall fail or refuse to deliver to the county clerk of his county his seal, record books and all public papers pertaining to his office, or any of them, in case of his resignation or removal from the county, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6007. [3508] Duty of county clerk when office becomes vacant.—Whenever the office of notary public shall be vacated by resignation, removal or death, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county where said notary resides to obtain and deposit in his office the seal, record books and all public papers belonging in the office of said notary; provided, that the seal of any notary vacating his office may be sold by the owner thereof to any qualified notary public in the county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6008. [3509] Their powers.—Notaries public may take acknowledgments or proof of all instruments of writing in the manner provided by law, to entitle them to registration, and give certificates of all such acknowledgments and proof under their hand and official seals; they may take the examination and acknowledgments of married women to all deeds and instruments of writing, conveying or charging their separate property, of their interest in the homestead, in the manner provided by law. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6009. [3510] Duty on vacating office.—Whenever any notary public shall vacate his office in any manner, his record books and all public papers in his office shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of his county.

Art. 6010. [3511] Shall have power to administer oaths, etc.—Every notary public shall have power to administer oaths and give certificates thereof under his hand and official seal. He may take the proof or acknowledgments of all instruments of writing relating to commerce and navigation, and also letters of attorney and other instruments of writing, make declarations and protest, and certify under his hand and seal the truth of the matters or things done by virtue of his office. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6011. [3512] Shall keep a well-bound book.—Every notary public shall procure and keep a well-bound book, in which shall be entered the date of all instruments acknowledged before him, the date of such acknowledgments, the name of the grantor or maker, the place of his residence or alleged residence, whether personally known or introduced, and, if introduced, the name and residence or alleged residence of the party introducing him; if the instrument be proved by a witness, the residence of such witness, whether such witness is personally known to him or introduced; if introduced, the name and residence of the party introducing him; the name and residence of the grantee; if land is conveyed or charged by such instrument, the name of the original grantee thereof shall be kept, and the county where the land is situated. The book herein required to be kept, and the statements herein required to be entered, shall be an original public record, and the same shall be open to inspection by any citizen at all reasonable times; and such notary public shall give a certified copy of any record in his office to any person applying therefor on payment of all fees thereon. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6012. [3513] May take depositions.—Notaries public shall have power to take the depositions of witnesses in the manner prescribed by law; to attest the oath of any person to a petition or answer in any suit, and the same when so attested shall be valid in all the courts of this state. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6013. [3514] Copies of records.—Copies of all records, declarations, protests and other official acts of notaries public may be certified by the county clerk with whom they are deposited, and shall have the same authority as if certified by the notary by whom they were originally made. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6014. [3515] Printed list to be furnished by secretary of state.—When notaries public have been appointed by the governor and shall have qualified, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish to the clerks of the county courts a printed list of all notaries public so appointed and qualified; and it shall be the duty of said clerks to preserve said list for public inspection and post a copy thereof on the court house door. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6015. [3516] To qualify, when.—When a notary is appointed, the secretary of state shall forward the commission to the clerk of the county court of the county where the party resides; and the said clerk shall immediately notify said party to appear before him within ten days, pay for his commission, and qualify according to law; provided, that, if said party be absent from the county, or sick at the time of reception of said commission by the clerk, then he shall have ten days from his return to said county in which to appear and qualify. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6016. [3517] Clerk shall notify secretary of state.—The clerk receiving the commission shall indorse thereon the day on which notice was given, and, if the party pay the state fee for commission and qualify according to law, the said clerk shall notify the secretary of state of his qualification, giving date of same, and remit the fee to said officer; but if the party fails to qualify and pay the fee within the limited time the appointment shall be void, and the clerk shall certify on the back of the commission that the party has failed to qualify, and return it to the secretary of state. [Id.]

Article 6017. [3518] State and district officers removable by impeachment.—The governor, lieutenant-governor, attorney general, treasurer, commissioner of the general land office, comptroller, commissioner of agriculture, the commissioner of insurance and banking and the judges of the supreme court, court of criminal appeals, courts of civil appeals and district courts, and the judges of the criminal district court of Galveston and Harris counties and of Dallas county, shall be removable from office by impeachment in the manner provided in the constitution. [Const., art. 15, secs. 1, 2. Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 226, sec. 26.]

Art. 6018. [3519] Judges of supreme, appellate and district courts, and commissioner of agriculture, etc., removed by address.—The judges of the supreme court, court of criminal appeals, courts of civil appeals, district courts, the judge of the criminal district court of Galveston and Harris counties and of Dallas county, and the commissioner of agriculture, and commissioner of insurance and banking, shall be removed from office by the governor on the address of two-thirds of each house of the legislature, for wilful neglect of duty, incompetency, habitual drunkenness, oppression in office, breach of trust, or other reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment. [Const., art. 15, secs. 7, 8. Id.]

Art. 6019. [3520] Cause for removal to be set out.—The cause for such removal shall be stated at length in such address, and entered on the journals of each house. [Id.]

Art. 6020. [3521] Notice to be given.—The officer so intended to be removed shall have notice of the cause assigned for his removal, and shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defense before any vote for such address shall be heard. [Id.]

Art. 6021. [3522] Vote, how taken.—In all such cases, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals of each house respectively. [Id.]

Art. 6022. [3523] District judges removed by supreme court.—Any judge of the district court who is incompetent to discharge the duties of his office, or who shall be guilty of partiality or oppression, or other official misconduct, or whose habits and conduct are such as to render him unfit to hold such office, or who shall negligently fail to perform his duties as judge, or who shall fail to execute in a reasonable measure the business of his court, may be removed by the supreme court. [Const., art. 15, sec. 6.]

Art. 6023. [3524] Preceding article shall apply to the criminal district judge.—The provisions of the preceding article shall also apply to the criminal district judge of the counties of Galveston and Harris and the criminal district judge of Dallas county. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6024. [3525] Jurisdiction of supreme court in such cases.—The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine the causes aforesaid when presented in writing, upon the oaths taken before some judge of a court of record of not less than ten lawyers practicing in the courts held by such judge, and licensed to practice in the courts of civil appeals. [Id.]

Art. 6025. [3526] Presentment shall be founded upon what.—The presentment provided for in the preceding article shall be founded either upon the knowledge of the person making it, or upon the written oaths, as to facts, of credible witnesses. [Id.]

Art. 6026. [3527] Supreme court may issue process, etc.—The supreme court may issue all needful process, and prescribe all needful rules to give effect to the four preceding articles, and such cases shall have precedence and be tried as soon as practicable. [Id.]

Art. 6027. [3528] State officers appointed by the governor, how removed.—All state officers appointed by the governor, or elected by the legislature, where the mode of their removal is not otherwise provided by law, may be removed by him for good and sufficient cause, to be spread on the records of his office, and to be reported by him to the next session of the legislature thereafter. Article 6028. [3529] Certain convictions work a removal from office.—All convictions by a petit jury of any county officers for any felony, or for any misdemeanor involving official misconduct, shall work an immediate removal from office of the officer so convicted; and such judgment of conviction shall, in every instance, embody within it an order removing such officer. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6029. [3530] Appeal supersedes order of removal.—When an appeal is taken from such judgment by the officer removed, such appeal shall have the effect of superseding such judgment, unless the court rendering such judgment should deem it to the public interest to suspend such officer from the office pending such appeal; and in that case the court shall proceed as in other cases of the suspension of officers from office as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6030. [3531] Officer's removal by the district judge.—All district attorneys, county judges, commissioners, and county attorneys, clerks of the district and county courts, and single clerks in counties where one clerk discharges the duties of district and county clerks, county treasurer, sheriff, county surveyor, assessor, collector, constable, cattle and hide inspector, justice of the peace, and all other county officers now or hereafter existing by authority either of the constitution or laws, may be removed from office by the judges of the district court for incompetency, official misconduct, habitual drunkenness, or drunkenness not amounting to habitual drunkenness, as hereafter defined in this chapter. [Const., art. 5, sec. 24; art. 15, sec. 7. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6031. [3532] Causes to be set forth in writing.—In every case of removal from office for the causes named in the preceding article, the cause or causes thereof shall be set forth in writing, and the truth of said cause or causes be found by a jury. [Const., art. 5, sec. 24. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6032. [3533] "Incompetency," what is.—By "incompetency," as used in this title, is meant gross ignorance of official duties, or gross carelessness in the discharge of them; or an officer may be found to be incompetent when, by reason of some serious physical or mental defect, not existing at the time of his election, he has become unfit or unable to discharge promptly and properly the duties of his office. [1 Bish. Cr. L., secs. 230, 237, 240. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6033. [3534] "Official misconduct," what is.—By "official misconduct," as used in this title with reference to county officers, is meant any unlawful behavior in relation to the duties of his office, wilful in its character, of any officer intrusted in any manner with the administration of justice, or the execution of the laws; and under this head of official misconduct are included any wilful or corrupt failure, refusal or neglect of an officer to perform any duty enjoined on him by law. [Trigg v. State, T. L. J., June 26, 1878; 2 Bouv. Dic. in verb. Bishop supra. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6034. [3535] Two preceding articles apply to mayor and aldermen.—The two preceding articles shall apply also to mayors and aldermen, whose removal is hereafter provided for in this title. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6035. [3536] "Habitual drunkenness," what is.—By "habitual drunkenness," as used in this title in relation to county officers, is meant the frequent and customary use to excess of intoxicating drinks, resulting in that condition of the body and the mind produced by the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, spirituous, vinous or malt, confirmed by habit. [Trigg v. State, Bish. Cr. Law, ch. 15, secs. 298, 305. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6036. [3537] Further defined.—In order to constitute habitual drunkenness under this title, it shall not be necessary to show that the officer is incapable of discharging the duties of his office, or of taking care of himself; but the proof of the fact of habitual drunkenness to the satisfaction of the judge and jury shall be sufficient cause of removal without reference to his capacity or incapacity to discharge the duties of his office. [Trigg v. State, T. L. J., June 26, 1876. Act Aug. 16, 1876, p. 135, sec. 3.]

Art. 6037. [3538] "Drunkenness not habitual" defined.—By "drunkenness not amounting to habitual drunkenness," as named in this chapter in connection with county officers, is meant the immoderate use of any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors to such a degree as to incapacitate the officer for the time being or permanently from the discharge of the duties of his office. [Trigg v. State. Act July 31, 1876, p. 76, secs. 1, 4.]

Art. 6038. [3539] Must be three times convicted.—No county officer shall be removed from office on the charge of drunkenness, as defined in the preceding article, until he shall have been three times convicted of such offense of drunkenness. [Act July 21, 1876, p. 76, sec. 4.]

Art. 6039. [3540] Three convictions sufficient ground for removal, etc.—The fact of a third conviction, as provided in the preceding article, shall be sufficient ground for his removal from office by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner provided in this chapter for bringing before him other causes of removal. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6040. [3541] Failure to give bond ground for removal.—All county officers who are required to give official bonds, who shall fail to execute their bonds within the time prescribed by law, or who, when required in accordance with law to give a new bond or additional bond or security, and shall fail to do so, may also be removed from office for such failure by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner hereinafter provided for bringing such matters before the court. [Id.]

Art. 6041. [3542] Proceedings, how commenced, and by whom.—The proceedings for the removal of said officers may be commenced, either in term time or vacation, by first filing a petition in the district court of the county where the officer resides, by a citizen of the state who has resided for six months in the said county where he proposes to file such petition, and who is not himself at the time under indictment in said county. [Id.]

Art. 6042. [3543] Requisites of the petition.—The petition shall be addressed to the district judge of the court in which it is filed, and shall set forth in plain and intelligible words the cause or causes alleged as the grounds of removal, giving in each instance, with as much certainty as the nature of the case will admit of, the time and place of the occurrence of the alleged acts; the petition shall, in every instance, be sworn to at or before the filing of the same by at least one of the parties filing the same, and the proceedings shall be conducted in the name of "The State of Texas," upon the relation of the person filing the same. [Id.]

Art. 6043. [3544] General issue alone submitted—verdict.—In these cases, the judge shall not submit special issues to the jury, but shall, under a proper charge applicable to the facts of the case, instruct the jury to find from the evidence whether the cause or causes of removal set forth in the petition are true in point of fact or not; and, when there are more than one distinct cause of removal alleged, the jury shall by their verdict say which cause they find sustained by the evidence before them, and which are not sustained. [Trigg v. State, T. L. J., June 26, 1876. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6044. [3545] Citation, how and when to issue.—After the filing of such petition, the person or persons so filing the same shall make a written application to the district judge for an order for a citation and a certified copy of the said petition to be served on the officer against whom the petition is filed, requiring him at a certain day named, which day shall be fixed by the judge, to appear and answer to the said petition; and until such order is granted and entered upon the minutes of the court (if application is made during term time) no action whatever shall be had thereon; and, if the judge shall refuse to issue the order so applied for, then the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the relator, and no appeal or writ of error shall be allowed from such action of the judge. [Smith v. Brennan, T. L. J., July 24, 1878, p. 373. R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6045. [3546] Application made in vacation.—If the application for said citation is made to the judge in vacation, he shall indorse his action, whatever it may be, on such petition, and shall order it spread on the minutes of the court at the next ensuing term. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6046. [3547] Citation shall issue.—Upon the order being granted, and, if granted during term time, also spread upon the minutes, the clerk shall issue the citation, accompanied with a certified copy of the petition. [Id.]

Art. 6047. [3548] Time to answer.—In no case whatever shall the period fixed by the judge in his order, in which the officer is to answer, be less than five days from the date of such service, to be computed as time is computed in other civil suits. [Id.]

Art. 6048. [3549] How trial shall be conducted.—The trial and all the proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted as far as it is possible in accordance with the rules and practice of the court in other civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 6049. [3550] May be suspended from office, how.—At any time after the issuance of the order for the citation, as herein provided, the district judge may, if he sees fit, suspend temporarily from office the officer against whom the petition is filed, and appoint for the time being some other person to discharge the duties of the office; but in no case shall such suspension take place until after the person so appointed shall execute a bond in such sum as the judge may name, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, on such conditions as the judge may see fit to impose, to pay the person so suspended from office all damages and costs that he may sustain by reason of such suspension from office, in case it should appear that the cause or causes of removal are insufficient or untrue. [Id.]

Art. 6050. [3551] Appeal or writ of error will lie.—An appeal or writ of error to the court of civil appeals may be sued out by either party from the final judgment in these cases as in other civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 6051. [3552] Bond for costs, when.—If the party has not been temporarily suspended from office, no other bond, when an appeal is taken or writ of error sued out by him, shall be necessary than a bond for all the costs that have or may accrue in the district and courts of civil appeals. [Id.]

Art. 6052. [3553] Relator to give security for costs.—On the order for citation being granted, the clerk of the district court will be authorized to demand of the relator security for costs as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6053. [3554] Against district attorneys, where commenced.—Proceedings under this title may be commenced against any district attorney either in the county of his residence or the county where the alleged cause of removal occurred, if in a county of his judicial district. [Id.]

Art. 6054. [3555] Criminal district attorney included in district attorney.—Under the name of "district attorney," as used in this chapter, is included the district attorney for the criminal district court of Galveston and Harris counties; and the judge of said criminal district court shall have the same power as to his removal and proceed in the same manner as the district judges of the state have in reference to all county officers. [Id.]

Art. 6055. [3556] Not to be removed for acts done prior to his election.—No officer shall be prosecuted or removed from office for any act he may have committed prior to his election to office. [Id.]

Art. 6056. [3557] Appeal or writ of error.—In these cases, an appeal may be taken or writ of error be made returnable to the court of civil appeals, and such cause shall have precedence of the ordinary business of the court and be decided with all convenient dispatch. [Amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 480.]

Art. 6057. [3558] Mandate when to issue.—When so decided, unless the judgment be for some cause set aside or suspended, the mandate of the court shall issue within five days after the judgment of the court is rendered. [R. S. 1879.]

Article 6065. [3566] Causes of removal.—The mayor and aldermen of any incorporated town or city may be removed from office for official misconduct, wilful violation of any of the ordinances of such town or city, habitual drunkenness, incompetency, or for such other cause as may be prescribed by the ordinances of such town or city. [Act March 6, 1875, p. 63, secs. 1, 2.]

Art. 6066. [3567] Complaint against an alderman and proceedings thereon.—When complaint in writing and under oath, charging any alderman with any act or omission which may be cause for his removal, shall be presented to the mayor, he shall file the same and cause the alderman so charged to be served with a copy of such complaint, and shall set a day for the trial of the case, and notify the alderman so charged and the other aldermen of such town or city to appear on such day. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6067. [3568] Who shall try an alderman.—The mayor and aldermen of such town or city, except the aldermen against whom complaint is made, shall constitute a court to try and determine the case. [Id.]

Art. 6068. [3569] Proceedings against a mayor.—When any complaint, such as is prescribed in article 6066, is made against the mayor of any incorporated town or city it shall be presented to an alderman of such town or city, who shall file the same, and cause such mayor to be served with a copy thereof, and shall set a day for the trial of the case, and notify the mayor and other aldermen to appear on such day. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6069. [3570] Who shall try a mayor.—A majority of the aldermen shall constitute a court to try and determine the complaint against the mayor, and they shall select one of their number to preside during such trial. [Id.]

Art. 6070. [3571] Rules which govern proceedings and trial.—The rules governing other proceedings and trials in the courts of justices of the peace, mayors and recorders shall govern in the cases provided for in this chapter.

Art. 6071. [3572] Judgment.—If two-thirds of the members of the court present, upon the trial of the case, find the defendant guilty of the charges contained in the complaint, and find that such charges are sufficient cause for removal from office, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer of the court to enter judgment, removing such mayor or alderman, as the case may be, from office, and declaring such office vacant; but, should the party charged be found not guilty, judgment shall be entered accordingly. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6072. [3573] Officer removed ineligible for two years.—Any officer removed under the provisions of this chapter shall not be eligible to reelection to the same office for two years from the date of such removal. [Id.]

Art. 6073. [3574] This chapter does not apply, when.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any town or city, except such as are incorporated under the general laws of this state. [Id.]

[Acts 1909, p. 85, sec. 6, par. 2.]

Art. 6075. Removals; proceedings.—Such removal from office shall be made in conformity to the provisions of the constitution of this state concerning removal from office in all cases to which they may be applicable. All other removals from office under the provisions of this law shall be by quo warranto proceedings. All removals from any such position, clerkship, employment or duty aforesaid shall be summarily made, forthwith, by the appointing power in the particular instance, whenever the judgment of conviction in a criminal prosecution in the particular case shall become final; provided, that, if such removal be not so made within thirty days after such judgment of conviction shall become final, the person holding such position, clerkship or employment, or performing such duty, may be removed therefrom as herein provided with reference to removal from office. [Id.]

Art. 6076. Suits by attorney general; venue.—All quo warranto proceedings mentioned shall be instituted by the attorney general in one of the district courts of Travis county, or in the district court of the county in which the defendant may reside; and concurrent jurisdiction in such suits is hereby conferred upon such courts. [Id.]

Art. 6077. Attorney general to be assisted by district or county attorney.—In such suits, the district attorney, or the county attorney of the county in which such suit may be filed, shall assist the attorney general whenever he shall so direct. [Id.]

Article 6078. [3575] Official bonds to be recorded.—All official bonds of county officers that are required by law to be approved by the commissioners' court, and which have been so approved, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county court in a book kept for that purpose.

Art. 6079. [3576] Sureties on, to be relieved.—Any surety on any official bond of any county officer may apply to the commissioners' court of the county to be relieved from his bond, and the clerk of the county court shall thereupon issue a notice to said officer, and a copy of the application, which shall be served upon said officer by the sheriff or any constable of the county. [Act Aug. 12, 1876, p. 132, sec. 1.]

Art. 6080. [3577] Officer shall cease to act, etc.—Upon the service of such notice, said officer so notified shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, except to preserve any records or property committed to his charge, and in case of sheriffs and constables, to keep prisoners, preserve the peace and execute warrants for the arrest of persons charged with offenses. [Id.]

Art. 6081. [3578] Must give new bond.—Said officer so notified shall give a new bond within twenty days from the time of receiving such notice, or his office shall become vacant. [Id.]

Art. 6082. [3579] Discharge of sureties.—If a new bond be given and approved, the former sureties shall be discharged from any liability for the misconduct of the principal after the approval of such new bond. [Id. sec. 2.]

[Act July 22, 1876, p. 54, sec. 17.]

Art. 6084. [3581] Officer to be cited.—The said court shall cause the officer whose bond is complained of to be cited to appear at a term of their court not less than five days after service of said citation, and shall take such action thereon as they may deem best for the interest of the state and county. [Id.]

Art. 6085. [3582] No appeal allowed.—From the decision of the commissioners' court in reference to said official bond no appeal shall be allowed, and their decision shall be final and conclusive.

CHAPTER ONE.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD.

	Article.		Article.
Governor to appoint.....	6086	Shall examine applications for pardon,
Shall keep record.....	6087	etc.	6088

Article 6086. [3582a] Governor shall appoint.—The governor is hereby authorized to appoint two qualified voters of the state of Texas, and who shall perform such duties as may be directed by him consistent with the constitution, as he may deem necessary in disposing of all applications for pardon. The said two voters shall be known as the board of pardon advisers, and shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated a salary of two thousand dollars each per annum on monthly vouchers approved by the governor. [Amended acts 1905, p. 68.]

Art. 6087. Shall keep record.—Said board shall be required to keep a record, in which will be entered every case sent it by the governor, giving the docket number of the convict, his name, when and where convicted, his sentence, his offense, when received from the governor, the action taken by said board, and the date of said action. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6088. Shall examine applications for pardons, etc.—Said board shall be given a room in the capitol, properly furnished with necessary furniture and file cases, and provided with such stationery, letter books and other appliances which may be necessary for the speedy and proper transaction and dispatch of the business for which it is organized. In addition to the thorough examination of each application which the governor may refer to said board, and reporting its recommendation thereon to him, it shall perform any other work in connection with said business the governor may direct; and said board shall spend such time each year as may be necessary in personally looking into the condition of such convicts as it may desire, or as may be designated by either the governor, the superintendent of penitentiaries, or either of his assistants, or by the prison physician, or either of the commissioners, giving special attention to the cases of those of long service, who may be thus designated, and who have no means or facilities for getting a proper petition before the governor, to the end that the board may have before it such data as will enable it to judge the condition of each. All cases shall be taken up, considered and acted upon by said board in the regular order of reference by the governor, except when it appears to said board there is extraordinary emergency in any case. [Id. sec. 3.]

Law does not apply to whom.....	6092

Article 6089. Convicts paroled, when.—The prison commissioners and the board of pardons shall have power to make and establish rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the governor, under which meritorious prisoners, who are now or hereafter may be imprisoned under a sentence to penal servitude, and who may have served not less than one-fourth of their respective terms of imprisonment, may be allowed to go upon parole outside the buildings and jurisdiction of the penitentiary authorities, subject to the exceptions hereinafter contained; provided, that in no case shall a convict be paroled until he shall have served two years of his term. [Acts 1905, p. 33, sec. 1.]

Art. 6090. Under control of prison commissioners.—While on parole, such prisoners shall remain under control of the prison commissioners and subject at any time to be taken back within physical possession and control of said board, as under their original sentence. And full power to make and establish rules and regulations for the re-taking and re-imprisoning of any convict so upon parole is hereby conferred upon the said prison commissioners, subject to the approval of the governor. And all orders and warrants issued thereunder shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named therein to return to actual custody any paroled convict, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers to execute such orders as ordinary criminal process. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6091. Must be recommended by whom.—No convict confined in the Texas penitentiaries shall be considered eligible for parole, and no application for parole shall be considered by the prison commissioners until such prisoner is recommended as worthy of such consideration by the superintendent, assistant superintendent, and chaplain of the penitentiaries, and, before consideration by the prison commissioners, notice of such recommendation shall be published in a newspaper in the county from which such prisoner was sentenced, and, if none be there published, then in the county whose county site is nearest thereto, provided the expense of such publication shall not exceed one dollar; and in no case shall any prisoner be paroled, unless there is in the judgment of the prison commissioners reasonable ground to believe that he will, if released, live and remain at liberty, without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with the welfare of society; and such judgment shall be based upon the record and character of the prisoner established in prison, and his general reputation for honesty and peace prior to conviction. And no petition or other form of application for the release of any prisoner shall be entertained by the said commission, and no attorney or outside persons of any kind shall be allowed to appear before the prison commissioners as applicants for the parole of a prisoner. But these requirements shall not prevent the said prison commissioners from making such inquiries as they may deem desirable in regard to the previous history or environment of such prisoner, and in regard to his probable surroundings if paroled; but such inquiries shall be instituted by the prison commissioners, superintendent, and assistant superintendent, board of pardons, and all such information thus received shall be considered and treated as confidential. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6092. Law does not apply to whom.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any convict, unless it be his first conviction for a felony. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6093. Same.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all convicts, except those convicted of rape, robbery by the use of firearms or any deadly weapon, and murder; provided, that any person convicted of murder in the first degree, and robbery by use of firearms or any deadly weapon, may be paroled after serving fifteen years without commutation for good behavior; and any person convicted of murder in the second degree may be paroled after serving ten years without commutation for good behavior. [Id.]

Art. 6094. Convicts declared delinquent, when.—Any prisoner violating the conditions of his parole, as prescribed by rules issued by said commissioners, when by a formal order entered in the proceedings of same, or issued by the superintendent of penitentiaries, he is declared delinquent, shall thereafter be treated as an escaped prisoner, owing service to the state, and shall be liable when arrested to serve out the unexpired period, and the time from the date of his declared delinquency to the date of his arrest shall not be counted as any part or portion of time served. Any prisoner at large upon parole committing a fresh crime, and, upon conviction thereof, being sentenced anew to the penitentiary, shall be subject to serve a second sentence after the first sentence is served or annulled, to commence from the date of termination of his liability upon the first or former sentence. [Id.]

Art. 6095. Entitled to discharge.—When a convict who has been paroled shall have complied with the rules and conditions governing his parole until the end of the term to which he was sentenced, and without a revocation of his parole, he shall, upon a written or printed discharge from the superintendent and prison commissioners, setting forth these facts, be entitled to a restoration of his citizenship by the governor of the state of Texas. [Id.]

Article 6096. [3606] Joint owner may compel partition.—Any joint owner or claimant of any real estate, or of any interest therein, may compel a partition thereof between the other joint owners or claimants thereof, in the manner provided in the succeeding articles of this chapter. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6097. [3607] Petition for and what it shall state.—Such joint owner or claimant may file his petition in the district court of the county in which the real estate sought to be partitioned, or a portion thereof, is situated, which petition shall state:

1. The names and residence, if known, of each of the other joint owners, or joint claimants, of such real estate.

2. The share or interest which the plaintiff and the other joint owners, or claimants, of said real estate own or claim so far as known to the plaintiff.

3. The real estate sought to be partitioned shall be described in such manner as that the same may be distinguished from any other real estate, and the estimated value thereof stated. [Id.]

Art. 6098. [3608] Citation and service.—Upon the filing of a petition for partition, the clerk shall issue citation for each of the joint owners, or joint claimants, named therein, as in other cases, and such citations shall be served in the same manner and for the same length of time provided for the service of citation in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6099. [3609] Citation and service where defendant is unknown.—If the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, at the commencement of any suit, or during the progress thereof, for the partition of land, shall make affidavit that an undivided portion of the land described in the plaintiff's petition in said suit is owned by some person or persons unknown to affiant, the clerk of the court shall issue a citation to the proper officer, which shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the suit, and a description of the interest of the unknown owner or owners, commanding said officer to summon such unknown owner or owners by making publication of the citation in some newspaper in the county where the writ issued, if there be a newspaper published in said county, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, for four successive weeks previous to the return day of such process; when such notice is given, and no appearance is entered within the time prescribed for pleading, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend in behalf of such owner or owners, and proceed as in other causes where service is made by publication; and it shall be the special duty of the court in all such cases to see that its decree protects the rights of the unknown parties thereto; and the judge of the court shall fix the fee of the attorney so appointed, which shall be entered and collected as costs against said unknown owner or owners. [Acts of 1879, p. 46.]

Art. 6100. [3610] Court shall determine, what.—Upon the hearing of the cause, the court shall determine:

1. The share or interest of each of the joint owners or claimants in the real estate sought to be divided.

2. All questions of law or equity affecting the title to such real estate, or any part thereof, which may arise. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6101. [3611] Decree of the court and appointment of commissioners.—The court shall determine before entering the decree of partition whether the property, or any part thereof, is susceptible of partition; and, if the court determines that the whole of such property, or any part thereof, is susceptible of partition, then the court for that part of such property held to be susceptible of partition shall enter a decree directing the partition of such real estate, describing the same, to be made in accordance with the respective shares or interests of each of the parties entitled thereto, specifying in such decree the share or interest of each party, and shall appoint three or more competent and disinterested persons as commissioners to make such partition in accordance with such decree and the law, a majority of which commissioners may act. [R. S. 1879. Amended Act 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6102. [3612] Writ of partition.—The clerk shall issue a writ of partition, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding such sheriff or constable to notify each of the commissioners of their appointment as such, and shall accompany such writ with a certified copy of the decree of the court directing the partition. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6103. [3613] Service of writ of partition.—The writ of partition shall be served by reading the same to each of the persons named therein as commissioners, and by delivering to any one of them the accompanying certified copy of the decree of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6104. [3614] Court may also appoint surveyor.—The court may also, should it be deemed necessary, appoint a surveyor to assist the commissioners in making the partition, in which case the writ of partition shall name such surveyor, and shall be served upon him in the same manner as upon a commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 6105. [3615] Writ returnable, when, and return thereof.—A writ of partition, unless otherwise directed by the court, shall be made returnable to the first day of the next term of the court from whence the same issues; and the officer serving the same shall indorse thereon the time and manner of such service. [Id.]

Art. 6106. [3616] Commissioners shall proceed to partition, etc.—The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed to partition the real estate described in the decree of the court, in accordance with the directions contained in such decree and with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6107. [3617] May cause land to be surveyed.—Should the commissioners deem it necessary, they may cause to be surveyed the real estate to be partitioned into several tracts or parcels. [Id.]

Art. 6108. [3618] Shall divide real estate, how.—The commissioners shall divide the real estate to be partitioned into as many shares as there are persons entitled thereto, as determined by the court, each share to contain one or more tracts or parcels, as the commissioners may think proper, having due regard in the division to the situation, quantity and advantages of each share, so that the shares may be equal in value, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the respective interests of the parties entitled. [Id.]

Art. 6109. [3619] Shall allot shares.—The commissioners shall then proceed by lot to allot and set apart to each of the parties entitled one of said shares, as determined by the decrees of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6110. [3620] Report of commissioners and what it shall contain.—When the commissioners have completed the partition, they shall report the same in writing and under oath to the court, which report shall show:

1. The real estate divided, describing the same.
2. The several tracts or parcels into which the same was divided by them, describing particularly each of such tracts or parcels.
3. The number of shares and the land which constitutes each share, and the estimated value of each share.
4. The allotment of each share.
5. The report shall be accompanied by such field-notes and maps as may be necessary to make the same intelligible. [Id.]

Art. 6111. [3621] When property is incapable of division, same shall be sold, etc.—Should the court be of the opinion that a fair and equitable division of the real estate, or any part thereof, can not be made, it shall order a sale of so much of such real estate as is incapable of partition, which sale shall be for cash, or upon such other terms as the court may direct, and shall be made as under execution, or by private sale through a receiver, if the court so order, and the proceeds thereof shall be returned into court and be partitioned among the persons entitled thereto, according to their respective interests. [R. S. 1879. Amended Act 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6112. [3622] Objections may be filed to report, etc.—Either party to the suit may file objections to any report of the commissioners in partition, and in such case a trial of the issues thereon shall be had as in other cases; and, if the report be found to be erroneous in any material respect, or unequal and unjust, the same shall be rejected, and other commissioners shall be appointed by the court, and the same proceedings had as in the first instance. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6113. [3623] Partition not prejudicial to reversion, etc.—When a partition is made between a joint owner who holds an estate for a term of years or for life with others who hold equal or greater estates, such partition shall not be prejudicial to those entitled to the reversion or remainder of such estates. [Id.]

Art. 6114. [3624] Each party shall hold in severalty, subject, etc.—When any partition is made, each party to whom a share has been allotted shall hold the same in severalty under the same conditions and covenants that it was held before such partition was made; and no warranty, lease or right whatsoever shall be impaired or affected by such partition. [Id.]

Art. 6115. [3625] Decree of court shall vest title.—The decree of the court confirming the report of the commissioners in partition, when a partition has been made, shall vest the title in each party to whom a share has been allotted, to such share as against the other parties to such partition suit, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, as fully and effectually as the deed of such parties could vest the same, and shall have the same force and effect as a full warranty deed of conveyance from such other parties and each of them. [Ross v. Armstrong, 25 Texas Sup., p. 355. R. S. 1879.]

Article 6116. [3626] Part owners may compel partition.—Part owners of personal property may be compelled to make partition between them in the manner provided in the succeeding articles of this chapter. [Act Dec. 24, 1851. P. D. 4711.]

Art. 6117. [3627] Suit shall be commenced, in what court.—Suit for partition shall be commenced in the court having jurisdiction of the value of such property, in the same manner as other civil suits are commenced, and the several owners or claimants of such property shall be cited as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6118. [3628] Court shall ascertain, what.—The separate value of each article of such personal property, and the allotment in kind to which each owner is entitled, shall be ascertained by the court, with or without a jury. [Id. P. D. 4712.]

Art. 6119. [3629] Decree of court executed, how.—When partition in kind of personal property is ordered by the judgment of the court, a writ shall be issued in accordance with such judgment, commanding the sheriff or constable of the county where the property may be to put the parties forthwith in possession of the property allotted to each respectively. [Id. P. D. 4713.]

Art. 6120. [3630] Property shall be sold, when.—When personal property will not admit of a fair and equitable partition, the court shall ascertain the proportion to which each owner thereof is entitled, and shall order the property to be sold. [Id. P. D. 4714.]

Art. 6121. [3631] How sold and partition of proceeds.—In the case provided for in the preceding article, execution shall be issued to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the property may be, describing such property and commanding such officer to sell the same as in other cases of execution, and pay over the proceeds of sale to the parties entitled thereto, in the proportion ascertained by the judgment of the court. [Id. P. D. 4715.]

Article 6122. [3632] Provisions of this title shall not affect, what.—The provisions of this title shall not affect the mode of proceeding prescribed by law for the partition of estates of decedents among the heirs and legatees, nor shall such provisions preclude partition in any other manner authorized by the rules of equity; which rules shall govern in proceedings under this title in all things not provided for in this title. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6123. [3633] Rules of pleading, practice and evidence.—The same rules of pleading, practice and evidence which govern in other civil causes shall govern in suits for partition, when not in conflict with any provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 6124. [3634] Pay of commissioners.—The commissioners in partition and the surveyor, if any has been appointed, shall receive for their services three dollars each per day for each day they are engaged in making and returning such partition, and the same shall be taxed and collected as other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 6125. [3635] Costs to be adjudged, how.—The court shall adjudge the costs in a partition suit to be paid by each party to whom a share has been allotted in proportion to the value of such share. [Id.]

Article 6126. [3583] Limited partnerships authorized.—Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or other business, except banking or insurance, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities herein prescribed. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 279, sec. 1. P. D. 4717 et seq.]

Art. 6127. [3584] General and special partners.—Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called the general partners, and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners now are by law; and of one or more persons who shall contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners, and who shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by him or them to the capital. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6128. [3585] General partners only to act.—The general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership and to bind the same. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6129. [3586] Such partnerships, how formed.—The persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain:

1. The name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted.
2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.
3. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their respective places of residence.
4. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.
5. The period at which the partnership is to commence, and the period at which it is to terminate. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6130. [3587] Certificate to be acknowledged.—The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same, before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments for record, and such acknowledgment shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgment of the conveyances of land. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6131. [3588] And filed and recorded.—The certificate so acknowledged and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the principal place of business of the partnership shall be situated, and shall also be recorded by him at large in a book to be kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. If the partnership shall have places of business situated in different counties, the certificate and acknowledgment thereof shall be filed and recorded in like manner in the office of the clerk of the county court of every such county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6132. [3589] General partner to file affidavit.—At the time of filing the original certificate with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as before directed, an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners, to the common stock, have been actually and in good faith paid in cash. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6133. [3590] Prerequisites indispensable.—No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed and recorded, nor until an affidavit shall have been filed as above directed; and, if any false statement be made in such certificate or affidavit, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6134. [3591] Terms to be published.—The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership when registered for at least six weeks immediately after such registry, in such newspapers as shall be designated by the clerk in whose office such registry shall be made; and if such publication be not made the partnership shall be deemed general. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6135. [3592] Publisher's affidavit.—An affidavit of the publication of such notice by the publisher of the newspapers in which the same shall be published may be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be evidence of the facts therein contained. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6136. [3593] Renewals to be with like formalities.—Every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice given in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued shall be deemed a general partnership. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6137. [3594] Certain alterations a dissolution.—Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership according to the provisions of the last article. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6138. [3595] Firm name.—The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a firm in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, without the addition of the word "company," or any other general term; and if the name of any special partner be used in such firm, with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6139. [3596] Suits by and against.—Suits in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners, in the same manner as if there were no special partners. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6140. [3597] Capital of special partner not to be withdrawn.—No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the character of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if, after the payment of such interest, any profits shall remain to be divided he may also receive his portion of such profits. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 6141. [3598] If reduced, to be made good.—If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the capital, with interest. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 6142. [3599] Powers of special partner.—A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6143. [3600] Partners to account, and liability for fraud.—The general partners shall be liable to account to each other, and to the special partners, for the management of the concern, both in law and equity, as other partners are by law; and every partner who shall be guilty of any fraud in the affairs of the partnership shall be liable, civilly, to the party injured to the extent of his damage. [Id. secs. 18, 19.]

Art. 6144. [3601.] Assignments by partnership void, when.—Every sale, assignment or transfer of any property or effects of the partnership made by such partnership when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of insolvency of any partner, with the intent of giving a preference to any creditor of such partnership, or insolvent partner, over other creditors of such partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partnership under the like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 6145. [3602] Assignments in contemplation of insolvency.—Every such sale, assignment, or transfer of any of the property or effects of a general or special partner made by such general or special partner when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of the insolvency of the partnership, with the intent of giving to any creditor of his own, or of the partnership, a preference over the creditors of the partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partner under like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of the partnership. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 6146. [3603] Effect of concurrence by special partner.—Every special partner who shall violate any provision of the last two preceding articles, and who shall concur in or assent to any such violation of the partnership by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 6147. [3604] Partnership creditors preferred.—In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as creditor until the claims of all other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 6148. [3605] Dissolution before the time agreed on.—No dissolution of such partnerships by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded and published once in each week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in each of the counties where the partnership may have a place of business, if there be such papers, and if there be no newspapers published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the nearest county where there is one. [Id. sec. 24.]

UNINCOPORATED JOINT STOCK COMPANIES—PERMITTING SUIT IN COMPANY NAME.

	Article.		Article.
May sue or be sued in its company name	6149	Effect of judgment, where agent of company only is cited.....	6152
Citation, upon whom served.....	6150	Effect of judgment where individual stockholders are also cited.....	6153
Judgment against, conclusive against stockholders	6151	This chapter cumulative; not to impair existing rights	6154

Article 6149. May sue or be sued in its company name.—Hereafter any unincorporated joint stock company or association, whether foreign or domestic, doing business in this state, may sue or be sued in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter in its company or distinguishing name; and it shall not be necessary to make the individual stockholders or members thereof parties to the suit. [Act 1907, p. 240, sec. 1.]

Art. 6150. Citation, upon whom served.—In suits against such companies or associations, service of citation may be had on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such unincorporated companies. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6151. Judgment against, conclusive against stockholders.—In suits by or against such unincorporated companies, whatever judgment shall be rendered shall be as conclusive on the individual stockholders and members thereof as if they were individually parties to such suits. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6152. Effect of judgment where agent of company only is cited.—Where suit shall be brought against such company or association, and the only service had shall be upon the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such company or association, and judgment shall be rendered against the defendant company, such judgment shall be binding on the joint property of all the stockholders or members thereof, and may be enforced by execution against the joint property; but such judgment shall not be binding on the individual property of the stockholders or members, nor authorize execution against it. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6153. Effect of judgment where individual stockholders are also cited.—In a suit against such company or association, in addition to service on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such companies or associations, service of citation may also be had on any and all of the stockholders or members of such companies or associations; and, in the event judgment shall be against such unincorporated company or association, it shall be equally binding upon the individual property of the stockholders or members so served, and executions may issue against the property of the individual stockholders or members, as well as against the joint property; but executions shall not issue against the individual property of the stockholders or members until execution against the joint property has been returned without satisfaction. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6154. This chapter cumulative; not to impair existing rights.—The provisions of this chapter shall not affect nor impair the right allowed unincorporated joint stock companies and associations to sue in the individual names of the stockholders or members, nor the right of any person to sue the individual stockholders or members; but the provisions of this chapter shall be construed as cumulative merely of other remedies now existing under the law. [Id. sec. 6.]

Article 6155. [3636] Definition of "pawnbroker."—A "pawnbroker" is one who pursues the business of lending money upon interest and receiving upon deposit, as security for the payment of such loan and interest, any personal property. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6156. [3637] Pawnbroker shall give bond, and its requisites.—No person shall pursue the business of a pawnbroker without first having given bond, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, and approved by and filed with the clerk of the county court of the county in which such person proposes to pursue said business, conditioned that such person will faithfully comply with each and every requirement of the law governing such business. [Act April 28, 1874, p. 153. P. D. 7168p.]

Art. 6157. [3638] Bond shall be recorded and new bond shall be given every 12 months.—The bond required by the preceding article shall be recorded and safely kept in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such pawnbroker pursues such business, the recording fees thereof to be paid by such pawnbroker; and a new bond shall be given, filed and recorded in the same manner as the first one every twelve months during the continuance of such business. [Id. P. D. 7168q.]

Art. 6158. [3639] Shall keep a register, and what the same shall show.—Each pawnbroker shall keep a well-bound book, in which he shall register all his transactions as a broker at the time the same occurs. Such register shall show:

1. The article of property received, giving an accurate description of the same.
2. From whom received.
3. The time and the amount for which the article is pawned.
4. The probable value of the article.
5. The rate of interest agreed upon.
6. The final disposition made of such property, and, if sold, to whom sold and the amount for which each article was sold. [Id. P. D. 7168p.]

Art. 6159. [3640] Book shall be open for inspection, etc.—Such book shall be kept open for inspection and the broker shall give, to the party pledging, a ticket corresponding to the entry on the book of registry. [Id.]

Art. 6160. [3641] Property pawned shall be sold after notice, when.—If any article deposited with such broker as a pawn shall not be redeemed at or before the time agreed upon, the broker shall sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at his usual place of business, after giving at least five days' notice of such sale. [Id. P. D. 7168q.]

Art. 6161. [3642] How notice shall be given.—Such notice of sale shall be given by posting written or printed advertisements at not less than three public places in the county where such sale is to take place, one of which places shall be the court house of such county. [Id. P. D. 7168q.]

Art. 6162. [3643] Advertisement shall state what, and copy shall be filed in office of county clerk.—The written advertisements of sale shall state the time and place of such sale, and shall contain a full description of the article or articles to be sold, and the name or names of the person or persons depositing the same; and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale takes place. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6163. [3644] Within what hours sales shall be made.—All sales made by a pawnbroker shall be made between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., and no sales shall be made upon Sunday or upon a legal holiday. [Id.]

Art. 6164. [3645] Report of sales to be made, and what the same shall show.—When a sale has been made, the pawnbroker shall, within five days thereafter, file with the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale was made, a report in writing and under oath, showing:

1. The time and place of such sale.
2. The notice given thereof.
3. A full description of the property sold and by whom deposited.
4. By whom purchased and the amount which each article was sold for.
5. The amount due the broker, principal, interest and expenses upon each article sold.

6. The amount of surplus of the proceeds of sale of each article, if any, after deducting the amount due the broker of principal, interest and expenses. [Id.]

Art. 6165. [3646] What expenses shall be allowed and deducted.—The expenses named in the preceding article shall be such expenses as have been agreed upon by the parties to the contract; or, if there be no agreement in regard thereto, then the reasonable expenses of the sale only, such as reasonable auctioneer's commissions, shall be allowed and deducted. [Id.]

Art. 6166. [3647] Owner or depositor entitled to surplus for thirty days after sale.—The owner or depositor of the property so sold shall be entitled upon demand to receive from such broker the surplus of the proceeds of such sale at any time within thirty days after such sale; and, if no demand therefor be made within thirty days after such sale, such surplus shall become the property of the county where such sale was made. [Id.]

Art. 6167. [3648] Surplus shall be paid to county treasurer, when.—Should there be any surplus of the proceeds of any sale made by a broker, he shall, at the expiration of thirty days from the day of such sale, pay such surplus to the county treasurer of the county where such sale was made, or he shall file with such county treasurer the receipt of the owner or depositor of the property sold, for such surplus, at the expiration of said thirty days. [Id. P. D. 7168q.]

Art. 6168. [3649] Suit upon bond for surplus and damages.—Suit may be brought upon the bond of the pawnbroker by the county, or by any party entitled to the surplus of any sale made by him; and upon recovery judgment shall be rendered against such pawnbroker and the sureties upon his bond for the amount of such surplus, together with ten per cent per month on such amount for each month or fraction of a month that such surplus has been illegally withheld by such pawnbroker. [Id. P. D. 7168r.]

Art. 6169. [3650] Party injured may sue upon bond.—Any person injured by the failure of a pawnbroker to comply faithfully with his contract, or with any requirement of law governing the business of pawnbrokerage, may sue upon the bond of such pawnbroker and recover such damages as he may prove himself entitled to, not to exceed the penalty of such bond. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6170. [3651] Injured parties may sue officer, when.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any of the provisions of the law governing pawnbrokerage shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such failure, refusal or neglect. [Id. P. D. 7168s.]

Art. 6171. [3652] Common law shall govern, except, etc.—The rules of the common law pertaining to and governing the business of pawnbrokerage shall govern the civil liability of pawnbrokers, except in so far as the same may be contrary to or inconsistent with any statute. [R. S. 1879.]

Article 6172. Policy of prison system.—It shall be the policy of this state, in the operation of its prison system, to so manage and conduct the same that those convicted of violating the law and sentenced to a term in the penitentiary shall have humane treatment and shall be given opportunity, encouragement and training in the matter of reformation. [Acts 1910, 4 S. S., p. 143, sec. 1.]

Art. 6173. Prison system includes what.—The prison system of this state, as referred to in this title, shall include the state penitentiary at Huntsville, the state penitentiary at Rusk, and such other penitentiaries as may hereafter be established, and all farms or camps where state prisoners are or may be kept or worked, together with all property of every character belonging thereto or connected therewith. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6174. Prison labor not to be leased to private parties.—It is hereby declared the policy of this state to work all prisoners within the prison walls, and upon farms owned by the state, and in no event shall the labor of a prisoner be sold to any contractor or lessee to work on farms or elsewhere, nor shall any prisoner be worked on any farm or otherwise upon shares, or upon any other farm or place other than that owned or controlled by the state of Texas, after January 1, 1914; provided, that all contracts for prison labor in existence January 20, 1911, shall terminate not later than January 1, 1914; and no contract for any prison labor shall be made which would extend beyond January 1, 1914; provided, further, that the board of prison commissioners shall change from the system of leasing and hiring out of prisoners at the earliest practicable time. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6175. Board of prison commissioners; appointment; term.—To better carry out such policy, the management and control of the prison system of the state of Texas shall be vested in a board to be known as the board of prison commissioners, and for the purposes of this title shall be referred to as the prison commission. Said board of prison commissioners shall be composed of three men, to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, whose term of office shall be two years from date of appointment, except those first appointed under this act, who shall hold their offices respectively for eight, sixteen and twenty-four months from the date of their appointment and qualification. In the appointment of said commissioners first to be appointed under this chapter, the governor shall designate the term each one shall hold under such appointment; provided, however, that in the event of a change in the constitution, extending the term of office of the prison commissioners, then the members of said board of prison commissioners then in office shall adjust their terms of office by lot or in conformance with the provisions of such constitutional amendment without the necessity of further legislative enactment. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6176. Commissioners to give bond.—Each member of said commission shall, within ten days after his appointment, execute a bond payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office for the use of the state in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office, which said bond shall be executed with two or more good and sufficient sureties, or with some indemnity, fidelity or bonding companies authorized to do business in Texas; the form of which bond shall be prepared by the attorney general, and the sufficiency of the sureties thereon approved by, and the same shall be filed with, the secretary of state; which said bond shall not be void on the first recovery of part or of the whole of the penalty, but shall thereafter continue in force for the whole amount of the penalty thereof, and may be sued on from time to time, and shall be deemed to extend to the faithful performance of the duties of his trust, until his successor shall be duly qualified, and shall have entered upon the duties of his office. And it shall be the duty of the attorney general, upon notice of default or failure to perform the duties as contemplated by law by any member of said prison commission, to bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, for the forfeiture and collection of said bond; and, before entering upon the duties of his office, each member of said board shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6177. Salary.—Each member of the board of prison commissioners shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of three hundred dollars per month, to be paid at the end of each month; and in addition thereto he shall be allowed all reasonable and necessary traveling expenses actually incurred when traveling on business of the prison system, to be paid, together with said salary, out of the funds of the prison system, all such expense accounts to be itemized and sworn to in duplicate, and approved by the board of prison commissioners, or a majority of said board, one copy to be kept with the records of the board of prison commissioners, and one copy to be filed with the comptroller of public accounts. Each member of said board of prison commissioners shall reside at Huntsville, in Walker county, Texas, which is hereby designated as the headquarters of the prison system, and shall be permitted to occupy free of rent the residence houses belonging to the state at Huntsville. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6178. Commissioners to devote whole time to office.—Each member of the prison commission shall devote his entire time to the discharge of the duties of said office, and shall not engage in any other occupation or business during his term of office, nor shall either of the members of said board be directly or indirectly connected with or interested in any contract, sale or purchase of any property or thing whatsoever which may be made during his term of office, and in which either the state or the prison system are interested. And any violation of any of the provisions of this article shall be sufficient ground for his removal from office. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6179. Shall have exclusive management.—Said prison commission shall be vested with the exclusive management and control of the prison system of this state, and shall be held responsible for the proper care, treatment, feeding, clothing and management of the prisoners confined therein, and at all times for the faithful enforcement of the spirit, intent and purpose of the laws and rules governing said system; provided, that the prison commission shall be held responsible for maltreatment of prisoners, and, if permitted, it shall be grounds for removal from office. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6180. Appointment of under-officers.—The said prison commission shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to appoint all necessary officers, all physicians, chaplains, teachers, and all clerical help needed in conducting said prison system, including a secretary of the prison commission; and they shall require all appointees, who, in discharging their duties, are charged with handling any funds of the system or state, to execute bond in such amount as may be fixed by the prison commission, payable to the prison commission for the use and benefit of the state, to be conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6181. Quorum; chairman; assignment of duties.—A majority of said prison commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The commissioners shall select one of their number as chairman. They shall designate one member to have supervision over the finances and financial transactions of the prison system, one who shall supervise the feeding, clothing, care and treatment of the prisoners, and one who shall supervise the work of all the officers and employes of the prison system, and who shall also be known and designated as the superintendent of parole, and shall direct the enforcement of any parole law, or indeterminate sentence law, which may now or hereafter be in force in this state, unless otherwise directed by law; provided, that the work of each member so designated shall be under the general supervision of and he shall report his actions to the prison commission. The provisions of this article are intended to facilitate the work of the prison commission, and shall not be construed as relieving the full board of prison commissioners of any authority or general responsibility for the management of the prison system. The prison commission shall keep, or cause to be kept, in a well-bound book a minute of the proceedings of all meetings held by them. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6182. May discharge under-officers and employes.—The prison commission shall have the authority at all times to discharge any officer or any employe of the prison system for failure to comply with the rules, regulations or laws governing the prison system, or for any dereliction in duty, or whenever they may deem it to be for the best interests of the service. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6183. May purchase instrumentalities for employment of convicts.—The prison commission shall have the power to purchase, or cause to be purchased, with such funds as may be at their disposal, any lands, buildings, machinery, tools or supplies for the benefit of said prison system, and may establish such factories as in their judgment may be practicable and that will afford useful and proper employment to prisoners confined in the state prison, under such regulations, conditions and restrictions as may be deemed best for the welfare of the state and the prisoners, it being the purpose of this title to clothe said board of prison commissioners with all power and authority necessary for the proper management of the prison system of this state. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6184. Purchases of land, how made.—The prison commission shall have power, with the approval of the governor, to purchase such land as may, in their judgment, be necessary in the operation of said system, and the employment of prisoners confined in said prison; and in the purchase thereof they may pay such sum in cash as may be agreed upon with the vendor; and, for the unpaid purchase money to become due upon said land, they shall execute to the vendor notes payable in such sum and at such time as may be agreed upon between the parties, and the payment of which shall be secured by a deed of trust upon such land in the usual form, and containing such covenants as may be agreed upon between the parties, and may pledge a sufficient amount of the net revenues of the property so purchased to pay the deferred installments of purchase money thereon; and it shall be expressly provided in the conveyance to said land, the notes executed for the unpaid purchase money and the deed of trust, that the vendor relies alone upon the lien created by the deed of trust upon said land and the net revenues so pledged, and that no personal liability against the prison commission or the state of Texas shall arise out of said transaction beyond said liens; and the purchase money paid originally, as well as the installments paid upon the deferred payments, may be paid out of any funds belonging to said prison system. The title to all lands purchased by the prison commission under the terms of this chapter shall be examined, passed upon and approved as good and sufficient by the attorney general; and all conveyances, notes and trust deeds and other instruments executed under the provisions of this chapter shall be prepared, passed upon and approved by the attorney general. The title to all lands so purchased shall vest in the prison commission, and their successors in office, as trustees for the state. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6185. Lands to be bought sufficient for employment of prisoners.—The prison commission may buy annually so many acres of land as will, not later than January 1, 1914, or sooner if practicable, enable all prisoners hired out or employed on share or contract farms, and who are not otherwise employed by the state, to be employed directly on farms belonging to the prison system. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6186. Modern buildings to be erected and equipped.—The prison commission is authorized, and it shall be its duty, to cause to be constructed upon land now belonging to the prison system, and upon such land as may be bought hereafter, all necessary modern fireproof, well ventilated prison buildings, providing a separate cell or room for each prisoner, as far as conditions and the welfare of the prisoners demand, with proper bathing facilities and all necessary sanitary water closets and other sanitary arrangements within such buildings; also sanitary kitchens, dining rooms, hospitals, school rooms, and chapels, and other necessary conveniences for the benefit of the prisoners. The provisions of this article shall be carried out to completion as rapidly as is practicable, so that the same shall be completed in the entire prison system within six years from January 20, 1911. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 6187. Farm and factory products, movable and real property, how sold.—The prison commission shall have power to sell and dispose of all farm products and the products of all factories connected with the prison system, and all personal and movable property, at such prices and on such terms as may be deemed best by them, and they may, with the approval of the governor, sell or lease any real estate or other fixed property and appurtenances belonging thereto, upon such terms as to them seem best; and upon the sale thereof they shall have power to execute proper conveyances to the title thereto; which instruments of conveyance shall be prepared and approved by the attorney general. The prison commission shall in the purchase or sale of all real estate, or in the purchase or sale of any machinery or equipment for the prison system, exceeding in value the sum of five thousand dollars, advertise in the manner prescribed by the prison commission for bids for such property in at least three daily papers in this state having a general circulation, and shall give all such bids received to the public press at least thirty days before any such contract is let. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 6188. Prison funds.—On Monday of each week, the prison commission shall remit to the state treasurer all moneys received by them as such, from whatever source during the preceding week and belonging to the system. The treasurer shall hold such fund as bailee for the prison commission, which fund shall be known as the prison commission account; and he shall give to the prison commission a deposit receipt for same, and shall pay out same on draft drawn by the officer designated by article 6192. The prison commission is authorized to draw upon the prison commission account with the state treasurer such sum or sums of money and at such time or times, as in their judgment may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the system; provided, they shall not draw for a sum that will give them in hand and in bank, subject to disbursement, a sum in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars; and provided, further, the account of the prison system with the state treasurer shall in no event be overdrawn, and in no event shall the state treasurer ever permit an overdraft against the prison commission account to be paid. On December 1 of each year the state treasurer shall ascertain the interest earned by the fund belonging to the prison system from the state depositories, and place said sum to the credit of the prison commission account and send deposit receipt to the prison commission. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6189. Commission may make regulations.—The prison commission may at any time issue such orders and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government of the prison system of this state, not inconsistent with the law, as it may deem proper, or to provide such details not embraced herein, and for such contingencies as may at any time arise concerning the management of the prison system, or its proper and effective operation; and such rules and regulations shall be made with a view of carrying out the general principles on which the penal laws are founded, and for which the prison system is established, and shall be binding on all under-officers, employes, and all persons whomsoever in any way connected with the state prisons, or its management, or its prisoners within and without the walls. The prison commission shall have all laws, rules and regulations of the prison printed in pamphlet form for the information and guidance of all connected with the management of the prison system; and such parts of said rules as relate to the duties of subordinate officers and prisoners shall be printed in suitable form and posted in conspicuous places about the prison, or wherever prisoners may be confined, for the information of all concerned. All officers, employes and guards having supervision of prisoners shall be furnished with a copy of the law, rules and regulations governing the prison system, and shall give a receipt therefor; and the prison commission shall from time to time require examination of such officers, employes and guards as will ascertain their knowledge of such law, rules and regulations; and any such officer, employe or guard, who shall fail to familiarize himself with the law, rules and regulations of the prison system, shall be dismissed from the service. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 6190. Commissioners to visit camps and farms.—It shall be the duty of some member or members of the prison commission to spend at least one whole day each month, without notice, at each prison, camp or farm where prisoners are kept or worked, and to carefully inspect same with reference to the food, clothing and treatment of the prisoners, the general sanitary conditions existing at such prisons, camps or farms, reporting upon such conditions, the efforts at reformation, the general conduct of all officers and employes connected therewith, and punishment administered for the enforcement of prison discipline; provided, that the various prisons, camps and farms where prisoners are kept may be divided for the purpose of this inspection between two or more members of the prison commission, or such other person as may be designated by the prison commission. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 6191. Inventories.—The prison commission shall cause to be made annually, on January 1, a full and complete inventory of all lands, buildings, machinery, tools, live stock, and all other property of every description, belonging to the prison system, and shall cause to be set opposite each item the book value, and also the actual value of the same so as to afford an easy comparison with the previous annual statement. And the prison commission shall cause to be kept in the accounting department of the prison system a system of books, showing a separate account with each industry and farm and for the system as a whole, showing the losses, profits, and net earnings of each industry and farm connected with the system, and shall make a report of the same annually on January 1 to the governor; which report shall be published by the governor in a sufficient number of copies to give general publicity to such report; such report to include the rules and regulations in force for the management of said system, and the methods of dealing with the convicts thereof. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 6192. Prison accounts, how kept.—The member of the prison commission designated by the board to have supervision over the finances and financial transactions of the prison system shall keep, or cause to be kept, correct and accurate accounts of each and every financial transaction of the prison system, including all receipts and disbursements of every character. He shall receive and receipt for all money paid to the prison commission from every source whatsoever, and shall sign all vouchers or warrants authorizing the payment or disbursement of any sum or sums on account of the prison system; and no money shall be paid out on any account of the prison system, except upon a warrant or voucher signed by him. He shall keep full and correct accounts with each industry, department and farm, and with all firms, persons or corporations having financial transactions with the prison system. He shall have power to require all necessary reports from any department, officer or employe at stated intervals. All deposits of prison funds with banks shall be kept in the name of the officer in his official capacity, and all funds of the prison system shall be kept separate from private funds. Such accountants and clerical assistance as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article shall be provided by the prison commission, in order that a full, complete and correct account may be kept of all financial transactions of the prison system. In the absence of such officer, one of the other prison commissioners may sign such receipts, warrants or vouchers. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 6193. Auditor, appointment and duties.—On the taking effect of this act, and annually thereafter, there shall be appointed by the comptroller of public accounts, the attorney general and the state treasurer, a permanent auditor for the prison system, who shall hold his office for a term of one year, subject to discharge at any time, as hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of such auditor to audit all accounts, vouchers, payrolls and all other business transactions of the prison system, and to check all property, material and supplies received and disposed of by or distributed within the prison system, and he shall make a full report thereof to the governor on the first day of January of each year. Such auditor shall be subject to discharge at any time by the comptroller of public accounts, attorney general, and state treasurer, or by a majority of said officers, for any incompetency, neglect, failure or refusal to discharge the duties of his office, or for any wrongful conduct that, in the judgment of the comptroller of public accounts, attorney general, and state treasurer, renders him unfitted for said office; and, in the case of the discharge or resignation of any auditor, another shall be appointed by said officers or a majority of said officers. During the term of his services, such accountant shall be paid monthly a salary of two hundred dollars per month and all actual and necessary traveling expenses, to be paid at the end of each month, out of any moneys belonging to the prison system, such traveling expenses to be evidenced by an itemized sworn statement by the auditor filed with the board. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 6194. Commissioners may take oaths and examine witnesses.—Each member of the board of prison commissioners in the discharge of his duties is authorized to administer oaths, to summon and examine witnesses, and take such other steps as he deems necessary to ascertain the truth of any matter about which he may have the right to inquire. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 6195. Commissioners, removal of.—If any member of the board of prison commissioners shall be guilty of malfeasance or nonfeasance in office, or shall become incapable or unfit to discharge his official duties, or shall wilfully fail, refuse or neglect to discharge the duties of his office, such member shall be subject to removal from office as provided by article 6027. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 6196. Salaries and qualifications of under-officers and employes.—The prison commission shall, except as provided in this title, fix the salaries of all officers and employes of the prison system upon such basis as the labor and ability of the officer or employe entitles him to, such salary to be paid monthly at the end of each month. They shall pay to those employed as guards of the convicts a salary of not less than thirty-five dollars per month, and furnish them board and lodging free; provided, that, for meritorious service and adaptability to the work, the prison commission may increase the pay of any guard to an amount not to exceed forty dollars per month. No person shall be employed as a guard to guard convicts who is not at least twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and who is not able to read and write and has not a fair knowledge of the English language; and the prison commission may provide such other qualifications as they may deem expedient; provided, that no person shall be employed as a guard who is in any way addicted to the use of alcoholic or intoxicating liquors; and the prison commission shall require all officers and employes connected with the prison system to familiarize themselves with and conform to the rules and regulations and laws governing the prison system of this state; provided, the prison commission shall require all officers and employes connected with the prison system of this state to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by the constitution. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 6197. Fraudulent conversion of prison property; penalty.—Any officer or employe of the prison system, who shall fraudulently convert to his own use and benefit any food, clothing, or other property belonging to or under control of the prison system, shall be guilty of theft, and, upon conviction, be punished as prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 55.]

Art. 6198. Dishonesty of officers or employes; penalty.—Any officer, agent or employe in any capacity connected with the prison system of this state, who shall be financially interested, either directly or indirectly, in any contract for the furnishing of supplies or property to the prison system, of the purchase of supplies or property for the prison system, or who shall be financially interested in any contract to which said prison system is a party, or who shall knowingly and fraudulently sell or dispose of any property belonging to said prison system below its reasonable market value, or who shall be financially interested in any other transaction connected with the prison system, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided by the Penal Code, and each transaction shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. sec. 56.]

Art. 6199. Unauthorized punishments; penalty.—Any sergeant, guard or other officer or employe of the prison system of this state, who shall inflict any punishment upon a prisoner not authorized by the rules of the prison system, shall be guilty of an assault, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as prescribed by law; and it shall be the duty of the prison commission to make complaint before the proper officer of any county in which such assault was committed upon such prisoner. Provided, that, in all cases where any person is charged by complaint or indictment with an offense against a prisoner, prisoners and ex-prisoners shall be permitted to testify. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 6200. Seal of commission.—The prison commission shall provide a seal whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points and the words, "Board of Prison Commissioners of Texas," around the margin, which seal shall be used to attest all official acts. [Id. sec. 59.]

Article 6201. After conviction prisoners must first be sent to Huntsville.—It shall be the duty of the prison commission to make suitable provision and regulation for the safe and speedy transportation of prisoners from counties where sentenced to the penitentiary at Huntsville, by the sheriffs of such respective counties, if such sheriffs are willing to perform such service as cheaply as said commission can have it done otherwise. Said transportation shall be on state account; and in no instance shall the prisoners be carried direct from the county jails to the state farms, but shall first be carried to the penitentiary at Huntsville, where the character of labor which each prisoner may reasonably perform shall be determined. Upon the arrival of each prisoner at the penitentiary at Huntsville, the prison commission shall cause a statement to be made by the prisoner, giving a brief history of his life, and showing where he has resided, the names and postoffice addresses of his immediate relatives, and such other facts as will tend to show his past habits and character; and the prison commission shall, by correspondence or otherwise, verify or disprove such statements, if practicable, and shall preserve the record and information so obtained for future reference. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 6202. Prison uniforms.—Except for third class prisoners, within a reasonable time and not later than six months after January 20, 1911, the prison commission shall abolish striped or checked clothes for prisoners, except as a mode of punishment for the violation of prison discipline, substituting therefor some suitable uniform. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 6203. Instruction and recreation of prisoners.—The prison commission shall, as soon as practicable, provide at each prison, farm and camp where prisoners are kept or worked, schools for instruction of prisoners in elementary branches of the English language and industrial education, and such other instruction as they may prescribe, and shall provide suitable recreation for the prisoners at reasonable hours, including music; and they shall employ such number of competent teachers to instruct the prisoners in the same, as in the judgment of the prison commission may seem necessary; and the prison commission shall make reasonable rules and regulations whereby the prisoners may attend such schools. The prison commission shall prescribe and furnish to the prisoners suitable books and other reading matter, and to this end may establish and operate among the prisoners a circulating library, and may adopt such other means of distributing among the prisoners good and wholesome literature as in the judgment of the prison commission will best enable the prisoners to avail themselves of the same; provided, that all teachers herein provided for shall, as far as practicable be taken from the convicts, and such teachers may be excused from further labors. The chaplain shall be ex officio librarian of the penitentiary, passing upon all library books, and direct such other work as may be prescribed for such library management. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 6204. Religious services.—The prison commission shall provide for religious services at prisons, farms and camps where prisoners are kept or worked. They shall employ such chaplains as may be necessary to afford all prisoners an opportunity to attend at least two religious services each month, said chaplains to devote their entire time to religious and moral training and education of the prisoners under their care, teaching them the principles and practice of every Christian and moral duty; provided, that chaplains may also be teachers as provided for in this chapter. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 6205. Food.—The prison commission shall see that all state prisoners are fed good and wholesome food, properly prepared under wholesome, sanitary conditions, and in sufficient quantity and reasonable variety, and they shall hold all under-officers performing this work strictly to account for any failure to carry out this provision. That the food may be properly prepared, the prison commission shall provide for the training of prisoners as cooks. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 6206. Monthly reports to board shall contain what.—The prison commission shall require, at the end of each month, reports showing fully the condition and treatment of the prisoners, and the changes in prison population during the month, including itemized statements of all different items of food, clothing and utensils used and on hand in each of the units of the prison system, and such other matters as they may require. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 6207. Prison register to show what.—The prison commission shall keep a register of all prisoners belonging to the prison system, showing the number of each prisoner, giving the aliases, name, age, height, color of hair, color of eyes, complexion, marks on person, sex, nativity, residence, county where convicted, offense of which convicted, date of sentence, date of receipt, previous occupation and habits, if known, and may adopt such other means of identification as they may deem proper and necessary. They shall keep a record of the general conditions and conduct of each prisoner, noting all punishments, forfeitures, bad conduct, changes and incidents of importance that may occur during his confinement; and, to the end that complete records may be kept, they may require from all under-officers such monthly and other reports as they may deem proper. They shall issue discharges to such prisoners as are entitled thereto by expiration of sentence or otherwise. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 6208. Classification of prisoners; uniforms; punishments.—That persons confined in the state prisons of this state may have every opportunity and encouragement for moral reform, it shall be the duty of the prison commission, in addition to the requirements of this title, to provide every reasonable and practicable means for the encouragement of such reforms. To this end, the prison commission shall provide for the classification of all prisoners, separating them into the following classes: In the first class shall be included young men, first offenders, those appearing to be corrigible, or less vicious than others, and likely to observe the laws, and to maintain themselves by honest industry after their discharge. In the second class shall be included those appearing to be less corrigible, or more vicious, but content to work and reasonably obedient to prison discipline as not to seriously interfere with the productiveness of their labor, or with the labor or conduct of those with whom they may be employed. In the third class shall be included those appearing to be incorrigible or so insubordinate or so vicious in their nature as to seriously interfere with the labor and moral development of those with whom they must come in contact. The prison commission shall make rules and regulations for the promotion and reduction of the prisoners from one class to another, and shall transfer them from one class to another, from time to time, as they may seem to merit promotion or reduction. The prisoners in each of the classes hereinbefore named shall be kept in or upon different or separate prisons or farms. Any prisoner, upon entering the prison system, shall be assigned to one of its institutions according to his class, as hereinbefore provided, and shall be entered in said institution in a neutral grade which shall be known as grade No. 2, and in which he shall be furnished with a suitable uniform designated for that grade. The prison commission shall adopt rules for a higher grade which shall be known as grade No. 1, as a reward for obedience to prison discipline and good conduct, and shall provide a suitable uniform for this grade; and they shall provide for a lower grade as a punishment for misconduct and violation of prison discipline, which grade shall be known as No. 3, and in which the prisoner shall be clothed in stripes. The uniforms for grades Nos. 1 and 2 shall not be stripes. The prison commission shall provide rules for promotion of prisoners from any grade to another for good conduct and obedience to prison discipline, and for demotion of prisoners for misconduct and violation of prison discipline. The prison commission shall provide specifically for the extension or denial of privileges for the various grades herein provided. In order that prison discipline may be enforced, the prison commission may adopt such modes of punishment as may be necessary, such punishment being always humane; and placing prisoners in stocks shall be prohibited. Whipping with not exceeding twenty lashes on the bare rump and thighs may be resorted to with prisoners of the third class, who can not be made to observe the rules by milder methods of punishment. The strap to be used must be of leather, not over two and one-half inches wide, and twenty-four inches long, attached to a wooden handle; no convict shall be whipped until same has been authorized by at least two members of the prison commission upon their written order; and such order so issued shall be executed only in the presence of a prison physician, and a sworn report shall be made by the officer executing such order to the penitentiary commission, who shall keep a record of all such reports in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be at all times open to public inspection; and such report so to be made by such officer executing the order of the penitentiary commission shall state the name of the convict whipped, the number of strokes administered, the size of the strap used, the time and place thereof, in whose presence same was done, and the cause thereof. It shall further be the duty of the penitentiary commission to make a semi-annual report of the whipping of convicts to the district judge of the county where such whippings occurred, who shall report [same to the grand jury, which is hereby authorized to make investigation] thereof, if they deem same advisable. The utmost care must be used by the officer executing the order of the commission not to break the skin of the prisoner whipped; and any person guilty of whipping a prisoner more lashes or other than as provided herein, or striking a prisoner, except in self-defense, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months. White and negro prisoners shall not be worked together when it can be avoided, and shall be kept separate when not at work. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 6209. Female prisoners shall be kept separate.—All female prisoners shall be kept separate and apart from the male prisoners. Where practicable, the prison commission shall keep the female prisoners upon a separate farm, or at a separate prison, from the male prisoners, and shall provide reasonable rules and regulations for the government of the same. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 6210. Labor for female prisoners; physical condition.—The prison commission shall provide such labor for said female prisoners as in their judgment they can reasonably perform, but the prison physician for such female prisoners shall at any time have the authority to say whether the physical condition of said female prisoners is such that they can perform any physical labor; provided, that in the absence of the physician the matron shall pass upon the physical condition of said female prisoners. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 6211. Whites and negroes kept separate.—The prison commission shall keep the white female prisoners separate and apart from the negro female prisoners, and shall select and place over said female prisoners a matron or matrons, whose duty it shall be to give her personal attention to the welfare of such female prisoners. The matron or matrons so employed to look after the welfare of the female prisoners shall reside at the place where female prisoners are kept. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 6212. Only married men employed as guards.—At the place where female prisoners are kept, none but married men shall be employed as guards; and the houses for such guards and their families shall be provided by the state, in which the families of the guards shall live. And said guards shall be allowed ten dollars per month in addition to his salary in lieu of his board, said houses not to be situated further than one hundred yards from the main prison building where such female prisoners are kept. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 6213. Children of female prisoners.—If a female prisoner be received with an infant, or if any child be born in the penitentiary, the child shall be permitted to remain with its mother until three to six years of age, in the discretion of and as prescribed by the prison commission. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 6214. Compensation paid prisoners, when.—Every prisoner who shall become entitled to a diminution of his term of sentence by good conduct shall receive compensation from the earnings of the state prison to the amount of ten cents per day for the time said prisoner is confined in prison; provided, that, whenever any prisoner shall forfeit any part of his good time for misconduct or violation of the rules or regulations of the prison, he shall forfeit out of the compensation allowed under this section twenty-five cents per day for each day of such good time so forfeited; provided, that, when such prisoner has a family or relatives within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity dependent upon him, such saving shall be paid semi-annually to such of them as may be designated by the prisoner; but if he have no such dependent relatives, then said saving shall be paid to him upon his discharge from prison. And if he be a life term prisoner such saving may be paid as directed by him, with the approval of the prison commission. But if he should die in prison without such dependent relations such saving shall revert to the state. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 6215. Sunday labor.—No prisoner shall be worked on Sunday, except in cases of extreme necessity; and all prisoners so required to work on Sunday shall be paid out of the funds of the prison system the sum of one dollar per day for each Sunday so worked. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 6216. Intent of law.—The various provisions of this title are designed to secure to the prisoners humane treatment, suitable moral instruction, to provide for their health, and to extend to them such comforts and privileges as may be consistent with their situation, and at the same time to require of them a due attention to their various duties and a strict observance of the discipline, rules and regulations of the prison. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 6217. Reward for good conduct; relaxation of discipline; parole; commutation.—In order to encourage prison discipline, a distinction may be made in the treatment of prisoners so as to extend to all such as are orderly, industrious and obedient comforts and privileges according to their deserts. The rewards to be bestowed on prisoners for good conduct shall consist of such relaxation of strict prison rules and extension of social privileges as may not be inconsistent with proper discipline. Commutation of time for good conduct shall be granted by the prison commission, and the following deductions shall be made from the term or terms of sentences when no charge of misconduct has been sustained against a prisoner, viz.: Two days per month off the first year of sentence; three days per month off the second year of sentence; four days per month off the third year of sentence; five days per month off the fourth year of sentence; six days per month off the fifth year of sentence; seven days per month off the sixth year of sentence; eight days per month off the seventh year of sentence; nine days per month off the eighth year of sentence; ten days per month off the ninth year of sentence; fifteen days per month off the tenth year and all succeeding years of sentence. A prisoner under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence. For each sustained charge of misconduct in violation of any rule known to the prisoner, in any year of the term, the commutation allowed for one month of such year may be forfeited; for any sustained charge of escape, or attempt to escape, mutinous conduct, or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of the prisoner up to that day shall be forfeited, unless in case of escape the prisoner voluntarily returns without expense to the state, such forfeiture may be set aside by the prison commission. For extra meritorious conduct on the part of any prisoner, he shall be recommended to the favorable consideration of the governor for increased commutation or pardon; and, in the case of any prisoner who shall have escaped and been captured, part or all of his good time thereby forfeited may be restored by the prison commission, if in their judgment his subsequent conduct entitles him thereto. [Id. sec. 42.]

Art. 6218. Commutation of life or long term sentence.—Hereafter, life or long term prisoners who have actually served fifteen years and have no sustained charges of misconduct, and have a good prison record, and who shall be favorably recommended to the governor, may receive at the hands of the governor a reasonable commutation of sentence; and, if a life sentence is commuted to a term of years, then such convict shall have the benefit of the ordinary commutation, as if originally sentenced for a term of years, except the governor shall otherwise direct. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art. 6219. Clothing.—Suitable clothing of substantial material, uniform make and reasonable fit, and such footwear as will be substantial and comfortable, shall be furnished the prisoners; and no prisoner shall be allowed to wear other clothing than that furnished by the prison authorities, except in case of extra meritorious conduct only, the prison commission may allow the prisoners to wear citizen underwear. Sufficient food of wholesome quality and variety and wholesomely prepared shall be furnished to all, and such provisions shall be made for serving the food to prisoners as will tend to encourage and elevate them. It shall be the duty of every officer charged with the preparation and serving of food to the prisoners to post in the dining room each Monday morning for the coming week the bill of food for that week, and the rules promulgated by the prison commission shall prescribe the quality, kind and variety of food to be furnished. Prisoners shall not be allowed spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, except upon the prescription of the physician. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 6220. Restrictions on amount of labor required.—Prisoners shall be kept at work under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the prison commission; provided, that no prisoner shall be required to work more than ten hours per day, except in case of an extreme and unavoidable emergency, which time shall include the time spent in going to and returning from their work, but not to include the intermission for dinner, which shall not be less than one hour. And in case of such extreme and unavoidable emergency, said prisoner shall receive out of the funds of the prison system the sum of ten cents per hour for such work so performed more than ten hours per day. In going to and returning from work, prisoners shall not be required to travel faster than a walk. No greater amount of labor shall be required of any prisoner than his physical health and strength will reasonably permit, nor shall any prisoner be placed at such labor as the prison physician may pronounce him unable to perform. No prisoner upon his admission to the prison shall be assigned to any labor until first having been examined by the prison physician. Any officer or employe violating any provision of this article shall be dismissed from the service. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 6221. Physical condition.—Prisoners who have been reported by the physician or other officer in charge as in a condition of health which requires their removal to some other place shall be accordingly removed. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 6222. Prisoners searched; disposition of money in their possession.—Prisoners when received into the penitentiary shall be carefully searched. If money be found on the person of the prisoner, or received by him at any time, it shall be taken in charge by the prison commission and placed to the prisoner's credit, and expended for the prisoner's benefit on his written order, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law or the rules. Any officer or employe having charge of a prisoner's money who misappropriates the same, or any part thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term of not more than five years. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 6223. Death of prisoner; disposition of remains.—If any prisoner shall die while in prison, the officer in charge of the prisoner at the time of his death shall immediately report the same to the prison commission, and, if he knows the address or place of residence of any relative within the third degree, either by consanguinity or affinity, shall also notify by wire said relative of the death of such prisoner; and, if the relative of such prisoner claim the body or will take charge of same, then the body of such prisoner shall be turned over to such relative, and the expense of shipping the body to where it is to be buried, provided it is within this state, shall be paid by the prison commission out of any available penitentiary funds on hand upon the request of such relative. If the residence and address of the relative of such prisoner is unknown, such prisoner shall be decently buried in citizen's clothes, and the grave marked by a stone with the name of said prisoner, date of death and age, if known, inscribed thereon. If the body of such prisoner is not claimed by the relatives, the prison commission shall at once notify the county judge of the county from which the prisoner was sentenced of his death, the date and cause of death and place of burial. The prison commission shall cause to be made and kept a record of the deaths of prisoners; and certified copies of same made by the custodian thereof shall be admissible in evidence under the rules of law applying to official records. Any officer or employe of the prison system of whom any duties are required by this article, who shall fail to discharge such duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided by the Penal Code [Article 1612.] [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 6224. Proceedings in case of death of prisoner.—The prison commission, or other person in charge of prisoners, upon the death of any prisoner under their care and control, shall at once notify the nearest justice of the peace of the county in which said prisoner died, of the death of said prisoner; and it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace, when so notified of the death of such prisoner, to go in person and make a personal examination of the body of such prisoner, and inquire into the cause of the death of such prisoner; and said justice of the peace shall reduce to writing the evidence taken during such inquest, and shall furnish a copy of the same to the district judge of the county in which said prisoner died; and the copy so furnished to said district judge shall be turned over by the district judge to the succeeding grand jury; and the said judge shall charge the grand jury, if there should be any suspicion of wrong doing shown by the inquest papers, to thoroughly investigate the cause of such death. Any officer or employe of the prison system having charge of any prisoner at the time of the death of such prisoner, who shall fail to immediately notify a justice of the peace of the death of such prisoner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and by confinement in the county jail not less than sixty days nor more than one year; provided, that the justice of the peace making such examination shall be paid a fee as is now provided by law for holding inquests, said fee to be on sworn account therefor approved by the prison commission. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 6225. Medical attention.—The prison commission shall provide for competent medical attention for all prisoners, and shall establish rules whereby all physicians shall be required to keep a record of all cases of sickness, accident or injury which they treat. The physicians so employed shall be reputable practicing physicians of not less than two years of experience in practice. Each physician employed in the prison system shall, at the end of each month, file with the prison commission a report in writing, subscribed and sworn to by him; which report shall state the names, race and sex of each prisoner treated or examined by him during said month, the malady or disease with which each was afflicted, and, if any shall be suffering with wounds or injuries inflicted by accident or some individual, he shall state the nature and extent of said injuries, by whom and by what means inflicted, or how the same occurred, and all such other information concerning said matters, and the condition of each prisoner treated or examined by him during said months, as he may possess; provided, further, that for a failure to make such a report, or any false statement knowingly made by any such physician in any such reports, he shall be prosecuted for the offense of perjury or false swearing, as provided by law. [Id. sec. 50.]

Art. 6226. Dentists.—The prison commission shall also provide a competent dentist or dentists, whose duty it shall be to care for the teeth of the prisoners. Such dentist or dentists shall, at the direction of the prison commission, visit the various places where prisoners are kept or worked, at such intervals as may be prescribed. [Id. sec. 51.]

Art. 6227. Discharge of prisoner.—When a prisoner is entitled to a discharge from prison, he shall be furnished with a written or printed discharge from the prison commission, with seal affixed, signed by the chairman of the board of prison commissioners, giving prisoner's name, date of sentence, from what county sentenced, amount of commutation received, if any, the trade he has learned, if any, his proficiency in same, and such other description as may be practicable. He shall be furnished with a decent outfit of citizen's clothing of good quality and fit, two suits of underwear, five dollars in money in addition to any money held to his credit, and unredeemable and non-transferable railroad transportation to the nearest depot from whence sentenced; but, if such prisoner prefers, he may receive such transportation to any point in this state designated by him. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 6228. Visitors admitted, when.—The governor and all other members of the executive and judicial departments of the state, and members of the legislature, shall be admitted into the prisons, camps and other places where prisoners are kept or worked, at all proper hours, for the purpose of observing the conduct thereof, and may hold conversation with the convicts, apart from all prison officers. Other persons may visit the penitentiary under such rules and regulations as may be established. [Id. sec. 53.]

Art. 6229. Reward for escaped convict.—The prison commission, with the governor's approval, may offer such reward for the apprehension of an escaped prisoner as may be fixed by the prison commission, and to be paid as directed by the prison commission. [Id. sec. 54.]

Art. 6230. Gambling forbidden; penalty.—No gambling shall be permitted at any prison, farm or camp where prisoners are kept or worked. Any officer or employe engaging in or knowingly permitting gambling at any such prison, farm or camp shall be immediately dismissed from the service. [Id. sec. 58.]

Art. 6231. Convicts employed on public or private works, when.—The prison commission, by and with the consent of the governor, shall have the power to work convicts on public works, when they can not employ them on the state farms or within the walls by reason of some unforeseen calamity, such as failure of crops, or the destruction of crops by wind or flood. When convicts are worked on public works owned by the state, or a subdivision of the state, the humane provisions of this chapter shall be strictly complied with. [Id. sec. 60.]

Article 6232. [3727] Commissioners' courts to establish workhouses, etc.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties may provide for the erection of a workhouse, and the establishment of a county farm in connection therewith, for the purpose of utilizing the labor of county convicts, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution. [Const., art. 16, sec. 3. Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 9, sec. 229. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879. R. S. 1879, 3585-3601.]

Art. 6233. [3728] "County convict" defined.—A "county convict," within the meaning of the preceding article, is any person who may have been convicted of a misdemeanor or petty offense, and whose punishment has been assessed at imprisonment in the county jail for any term; or who, under a like conviction, has been adjudged to pay a pecuniary fine, and is unable so to do. [Id. p. 230, sec. 16.]

Art. 6234. [3729] Certain convicts only to do manual labor.—When the punishment assessed in a conviction for misdemeanor is confinement in the county jail for a period less than one day, the convict shall not be required to labor, either in the workhouse or elsewhere; but, when such punishment is confinement in the county jail for a longer time than one day, the convict shall be required to do manual labor in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 6235. [3730] Commissioners' court to control workhouses.—County workhouses and farms shall be under the control and management of the commissioners' court; and such courts are authorized to adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws, as they may deem necessary for the successful management and operation of said institutions and for effectively utilizing the labor of county convicts. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6236. [3731] Officers to obey their orders, etc.—The sheriff and all other peace officers shall obey the orders and regulations of the commissioners' court, made in pursuance of the preceding article, shall execute such process as may be directed by said court, and shall render all the aid possible in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, and the regulations made in pursuance thereof. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6237. [3732] Overseers and guards, etc.—Such overseers and guards may be employed under the authority of the commissioners' court as may be necessary to prevent escapes and to enforce labor on the part of convicts, and they shall be paid out of the county treasury such compensation as said court may prescribe.

Art. 6238. [3733] To labor on public works, etc.—County convicts shall be put to labor upon the public roads, bridges, or other public works of the county, when their labor can not be utilized in the county workhouse or farm, and they shall be required to labor not less than eight nor more than ten hours each day. Sundays excepted. [Id. p. 228, sec. 1.]

Art. 6239. [3734] Where confined when off duty.—When not at labor, county convicts may be confined in the county jail or workhouse, as may be most convenient, or as the regulations of the commissioners' court may prescribe.

Art. 6240. [3735] Refractory convicts to be punished.—When a convict refuses to labor, or is otherwise refractory or insubordinate, he may be punished by solitary confinement on bread and water, or in such other manner as the commissioners' court may direct.

Art. 6241. [3736] Female convicts.—Female convicts shall, under all circumstances, be kept separate and apart from male convicts; and they shall in no case be required to do manual labor, except in the workhouse, or when hired out as is hereinafter provided.

Art. 6242. [3737] Aged or disabled convicts not to work.—A convict who, from age, disease or other disability, physical or mental, is unable to do manual labor, shall not be required to work, but shall remain in jail until his term of imprisonment is ended, or until the fine and costs adjudged against him are discharged, at the rate of one dollar for each day of such confinement in jail.

Art. 6243. [3738] Inability, how determined.—The inability of the convict to do manual labor may be determined by the opinion of a competent physician appointed for that purpose by the county judge or commissioners' court, who shall be paid for such service such compensation as the commissioners' court may allow.

Art. 6244. [3739] How to be credited on fine, etc.—When a convict who has been committed to jail in default of payment of fine and costs is required to do manual labor, he shall be credited upon such fine and costs at the rate of fifty cents for each day he may labor, and upon satisfaction of such fine and costs in full at said rate he shall be discharged; provided, such work shall be performed on public streets or roads, or on county poor farms. No convict under this chapter shall ever be required to work or be hired for more than one year. [Acts 1889, p. 14.]

Art. 6245. [3740] Mechanic, etc., to have extra credit.—If a convict of the kind described in the preceding article be an artisan or mechanic, and be put to labor at his trade or calling in any workhouse, or on any public work, he may be credited upon the fine and costs against him with such extra compensation for his labor as the county judge may determine to be just and proper. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6246. [3741] Convicts to be guarded, etc.—Convicts shall be so guarded while at work as to prevent escapes; and no convict shall be compelled to labor at any kind of work nor in any avocation that would endanger his life or health. [Act of 1876, p. 230, sec. 11.]

Art. 6247. [3742] Costs to be paid officers.—Whenever a convict, who has been committed to jail in default of payment of fine and costs adjudged against him, has satisfied such fine and costs in full by labor in the workhouse, on the county farm, on the public roads of the county, or upon any public works of the county, said county in which said conviction was had shall be liable to each officer and witness having costs in the case against said convict for only one-half of such costs; and the county judge of said county shall issue his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each officer and witness for one-half of all such legal costs as may have been taxed up against said convict, not to include commissions; and the same shall be paid out of the road and bridge fund of the county, or out of any other county funds not otherwise appropriated. [Id. p. 229, sec. 8; amend. 1895, p. 179.]

Art. 6248. [3743] Convict may commute his labor.—A convict condemned to imprisonment in the county jail as the punishment, either in whole or in part, for his offense, may avoid manual labor in the workhouse or elsewhere by payment into the county treasury of one dollar for each day of the term of his imprisonment; and the receipt of the county treasurer to that effect shall be sufficient authority to the sheriff to detain such convict in jail without labor.

etc.	6250	Record in relation to county convicts...	6255
Hirer shall give bond, and its requisites.	6251	Officers' costs, how paid.....	6256
Liability when convict escapes.....	6252

Article 6249. [3744] Convicts may be hired out.—Any person who may be convicted of a misdemeanor, or petty offense, and who shall be committed to jail in default of the payment of the fine and costs adjudged against him, may be worked upon the public roads, or upon the county farms, of the county in which such conviction is had, or be hired out to any individual, company or corporation within the county of conviction, to remain in said county; and the proceeds of said hiring, when collected, shall be applied, first, to the payment of the costs, and second, to the payment of the fine; and every convict shall be entitled to a credit of twenty-five cents on his fine and costs for each day he may serve under such hiring, including Sunday; and he shall be discharged at any time upon payment of the balance due on his fine and costs, or upon the expiration of his term of service, his term of service in no event to be greater than one day for each fifty cents of fine and costs; provided, that in no case shall the counties be responsible to the officers for their costs, and in no case shall such convicts be hired out for a longer period than one year for failure to pay a fine and costs; and on the expiration of said time, unless by his hire such fine and costs have been sooner paid off, said convicts shall be finally discharged. [Acts of 1887, p. 11. R. S. 1879, 3602-3609.]

Art. 6250. [3745] Either publicly or privately, generally or especially.—Such hiring may be either by private contract or at public auction, as may be deemed best for the interest of the county, or it may be by general contract for any specified term, embracing the labor of all county convicts of the class prescribed in the preceding article, at some fixed rate per day, week or month.

Art. 6251. [3746] Hirer shall give bond and its requisites.—Hirers of convicts shall execute bond payable to the county judge of the county, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the amount of hire agreed upon, conditioned as follows:

1. That the hirer will promptly and faithfully pay the amount of money mentioned in the bond when the same becomes due, and it shall be stated in the bond when the same becomes due.
2. That he will treat the convict humanely while in his employment.
3. That he will furnish the convict with a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food, with comfortable clothing and medicine when sick.
4. That he will not require the convict to work at unreasonable hours, or for a longer time during any one day than other laborers doing the same kind of labor are accustomed to work.

Such bond shall be approved by the county judge and filed in the office of the clerk of the county court. [Id. pp. 228-230, sec. 4, 12.]

Art. 6252. [3747] Liability of hirer when convict escapes.—If a convict, hired out, escapes from the hirer, such hirer shall nevertheless be liable for the full amount of the bond, unless such convict is rearrested and placed in the custody of the sheriff of the county in which he was convicted before such bond becomes due; in which case such hirer shall only be liable to pay for the time that such convict remained with him. [Id. p. 229, sec. 4.]

Art. 6253. [3748] Suit on bond.—Upon the breach of such bond, the county judge, or commissioners' court, shall cause such bond to be sued upon in any court having jurisdiction thereof; and the amount collected thereon, after deducting therefrom the collection fees and costs, shall be paid into the county treasury by the officer collecting the same, and constitute a part of the road and bridge fund of the county. [Id. sec. 5. Const., art. 16, sec. 24.]

Art. 6254. [3749] Convict shall receive full credit for labor.—All moneys arising from hiring out convicts shall be paid over to the county judge, and by him paid into the county treasury, and in every case the convict shall receive full credit for the amount of his labor, to be counted and entered in discharge of the fine and costs adjudged against him; and, whenever his earnings shall be sufficient to pay in full such fine and costs, he shall be discharged. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6255. [3750] Record in relation to convicts shall be kept.—County judges shall cause a record of all proceedings in relation to the employment or hiring out of convicts to be kept in well-bound books to be provided for that purpose. Said record shall contain:

1. A descriptive list of all persons known as "county convicts."
2. How such convict has been or is employed.
3. The name of the party hiring a convict.
4. The time when and the price at which such convict has been employed or hired out.
5. The amount credited such convict for such employment or hire.
6. The amount of such hire collected.
7. The amount of fine and costs due by such convict.
8. Such other information as may be necessary and requisite under the rules adopted by the commissioners' court. [Acts Aug. 21, 1876, p. 230, sec. 15.]

Art. 6256. [3751] Officer's costs, how paid.—Whenever the amount realized from the hire of a convict is sufficient to discharge in full the fine and costs adjudged against him, the county judge shall issue a warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each officer, to whom costs may be due, for the amount of his costs, and the same shall be paid out of the road fund of the county, or out of any other funds in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated. [Id. sec. 8.]

Article 6257. [3752] To whom granted.—To every surviving indigent soldier, or indigent volunteer, who was in the actual military or naval service of Texas at the time of the siege of Bexar, in December, 1835, or at the time of the battle of San Jacinto, in April, 1836, or who actually participated in any battle in Texas in 1836, or who was in such actual military service for as much as six weeks between the commencement of the revolution at Gonzales in 1835, and the first day of January, 1837, and to every indigent surviving signer of the declaration of independence of Texas, and to every indigent surviving widow of any such soldier, volunteer or signer, who is and has always been unmarried since the death of such soldier, volunteer or signer, and so long as such widow may remain unmarried, there shall be and is hereby granted an annual pension of one hundred and fifty dollars as hereinafter provided. [Acts of 1889, p. 43, sec. 1.]

Art. 6258. [3753] Application.—Each applicant for a pension under this law shall make application in writing for the same to the county judge of the county of his or her residence, and shall post a copy of such application on the court house door of the county for at least thirty days before the application is acted on by the county judge. Such application shall state the name, age and residence of the applicant, whether or not this applicant received any pension or veteran donation land certificate under any previous law, a list of the real and personal property owned by the applicant, and the present value of the same, and what property and the value thereof that such applicant has sold or conveyed within twelve months prior to the date of such application; and shall further state that the applicant is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent upon his or her labor or on the charity of others for a support; provided, that the word "indigent," within the meaning of this law, shall not allow the ownership of property to exceed one thousand dollars; and that the applicant has not transferred to others any property or values of any kind for the purpose of becoming a beneficiary under this law; and still further, that such applicant is and was for one year preceding the date of the passage of this law a bona fide resident citizen of this state. And in addition to the foregoing, each male applicant shall further state the time he rendered such service, and the command he served in; and each female applicant shall state the name of her deceased husband, the date of his death; that she is unmarried, and has so remained since the death of the husband for whose services she claims a pension; and shall further state, as accurately as she can, the time her said deceased husband rendered such service, and the command he served in. Should the applicant be a signer of such declaration of independence, or a widow of such signer, he or she shall state all that is hereinbefore required, except as to the military service, and in lieu of which it shall state that the applicant was a signer of such declaration of independence, or is the widow of such signer, which application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, and the same shall be supported by affidavits of at least two credible witnesses who reside in the state, and shall show that the facts stated by the applicant is known and regarded in his or her neighborhood as a Texas veteran or signer of the declaration of independence, or the widow of a Texas veteran or signer of the declaration of independence. Any veteran whose application and proof heretofore made to the comptroller are in compliance with the requirements of this law shall be entitled to his or her pension on presenting such application and proof to the comptroller, without further proof being made; and, where such application and proof has been returned to the applicant by the comptroller, said applicant may refile the same as if made under this law; provided, that such application has not heretofore been declared fraudulent. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6259. [3754] Proceedings to obtain.—Such application so signed and sworn to by the applicant and two credible witnesses shall be presented to the county judge, who shall in open court, at a regular term thereof, hear evidence as to the truth of the statements made in such application; and if he believe from the evidence that the applicant really performed the service for which the pension is claimed, or is a widow of a soldier or volunteer of the Texas revolution, or a signer of the declaration of Texas independence; that he or she is now, and was at the time of the passage of this law, and for ten years previous thereto, a bona fide resident of the state of Texas; that the applicant is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent on his or her labor or on the charity of others for a support, and has not at any time transferred any property for the purpose of becoming a beneficiary under this law; then he shall make his certificate under the seal of his office, attested by the county clerk, reciting the facts as shown by the evidence. Upon the hearing of such application, the state shall be represented by the county or district attorney; and it shall be the duty of such attorney to summon witnesses to testify in behalf of the state who know the pecuniary condition of the applicant, or any other facts affecting the rights of the applicant to obtain a pension, and to examine the assessor's rolls and the records of his county, and any other source of information which may seem to him advisable; and he shall prepare a statement of the testimony given by each witness, including the name of such witness, and also of the facts disclosed by investigating any other source of information, which statements shall be approved by the county judge. For his services in behalf of the state, the attorney shall be allowed a fee of ten dollars, to be paid as follows: He shall present his account for the same to the county judge, who shall approve it if he find it correct, shall date and sign the same officially, and shall cause it to be filed in the office of the county clerk. The said judge shall thereupon give the attorney a draft upon the county treasurer, and the same when presented to the treasurer shall be paid out of any moneys in his hands not otherwise legally appropriated, in the same manner as jury certificates are paid; provided, that, if the applicant shall be proved not to be an indigent, and shall have his application defeated on that ground, then the attorney representing the state shall be entitled to an additional fee of ten dollars, to be taxed against the applicant as costs of suit. [Acts of 1885, p. 94, sec. 3.]

Art. 6260. [3755] To be filed with comptroller.—Such application so prepared and certified to, together with the statements of the county judge and attorney hereinbefore provided for, shall be filed with the comptroller of public accounts, whose duty it shall be to examine critically such application and statements, and any other accessible evidence that may prove or disprove the right of the applicant to claim a pension, and may require further proof of the statements made in such application; and if in his opinion the applicant has not established his or her legal right to a pension, then he shall refuse such application and file reasons therefor in his office; provided, no pension shall be granted to any one under this title whose claim has been rejected by the veteran board of this state as fraudulent. [Acts of 1885, p. 94, sec. 4.]

Art. 6261. [3756] Must be indigent.—No person shall be entitled to receive a pension under this title, unless it shall be made to appear to the comptroller, from the evidence, that said person is in indigent circumstances, and is dependent upon his labor or the charity of others for a support. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6262. [3757] Shall commence, when.—The pension herein provided for shall begin at the date when the comptroller receives the application, and shall be paid quarterly in advance. The comptroller shall draw his warrant for the same on the treasurer, and, upon presentation, the treasurer shall pay the same out of any money in the treasury which may be appropriated for this purpose. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6263. [3758] Proof to be made each quarter.—On or after the first of each quarter, the pensioner shall make his affidavit stating the county of his residence, and that he is the identical person to whom a pension has been granted under this law; which affidavit shall be supported by the affidavit of some other credible person to the same fact, and which affidavit may be made before any one authorized to administer oaths, which affidavit shall be filed with the comptroller, and, upon the filing of the same, the comptroller shall draw his warrant for the quarter found to be due. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6264. [3759] Investigated by grand jury.—It shall be the duty of the district judges of this state to specially charge every session of the grand jury to investigate violations of this law. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6265. [3760] Attorney's fee.—No person shall receive a greater fee than ten dollars to procure a pension for another, and any contract for a larger sum shall not be enforced by the courts. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6266. [3761] Lists to be sent county judges for posting.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller, at least once in each year, to forward to the county judge a printed list of the pensioners in their respective counties, which list shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of said judge. It shall also be the duty of the comptroller, on the application of a grand jury, to forward to it, through the district clerk of the county in which the grand jury is convened, copies of any or all original papers on file in his office connected with an application for a pension which said grand jury may desire to investigate; and such copies, with their correctness attested by the comptroller, shall have the same force and value in a court of law that the original papers would have had. [Id. sec. 10.]

Article 6267. To whom granted.—There shall be paid an annual pension of eight dollars per months, the same to be paid quarterly on the first days of September, December, March and June of each year, to every surviving disabled and indigent Confederate soldier or sailor who is a native of this state, or who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1880, and who is either over sixty years of age or whose disability is the proximate result of the actual service in the Confederate army or navy for a period of at least three months; their widows in indigent circumstances who have never remarried and who have been bona fide residents of Texas since March 1, 1880, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors anterior to March 1, 1880; provided that said aid shall not exceed eight dollars per month; and provided, further, that, in the event the appropriation made by the state legislature for any one year shall prove insufficient to pay in full said pensions, that there shall not thereby be created a deficiency outstanding as a valid claim against the state of Texas, and each pensioner shall only receive, except as herein otherwise provided for, his pro rata according to the amount appropriated for that year. [Acts 1909, p. 231, sec. 1.]

Art. 6268. Application, how made.—Each applicant for a pension under the law shall make application in writing and under oath for the same to the county judge of the county of his residence. Such application shall state the name, age and residence of the applicant, and his occupation, if able to engage in one, his physical condition, as well as the company and regiment in which he enlisted in the Confederate army, or, if an officer commissioned by the president of the Confederate states, the date of his commission and his rank in the army, or if detailed directly under the provisions of the conscript law for duty in any of the armories or shops of the Confederate government, or for any other labor necessary for the maintenance of the army in the field, or where he served in the Confederate navy, and time of service in each case, what property, effects or income he possesses, and shall furnish the testimony of at least two credible witnesses who personally know that he enlisted in the service and performed the duties of a soldier or a sailor claimed by him; provided, however, that, if an applicant for a pension can not secure the testimony of two witnesses, then he may furnish such documents or evidence in connection with his service in the army as may establish his claim for a pension. These proofs shall be made before the county judge of the county of the residence of the applicant. The county judge shall certify to the trustworthy character of the witnesses and to the citizenship of the applicant, who must have been a bona fide resident of the county in which he makes his or her application for a period of six months next before the date of said application. He shall in every case administer an oath to each applicant and witness, before they sign the affidavits. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6269. Widow not to be granted pension, unless, etc.—No widow shall be entitled to a pension should her husband, if living, be debarred by reason of his inability to comply with the requisites described in this chapter as to his service in the Confederate army or navy. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6270. Widow may make proof by affidavit, etc.—Any widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, entitled to a pension under the provisions of this chapter, may make oath to the county judge in writing that she is in fact the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, that her said husband rendered valuable service to the Confederacy as such, that he did not desert, and was either killed or died, or was honorably discharged from the army; that she has made diligent search for all information as to the number of regiment and company in which her deceased husband served, and has been unable to learn same; which affidavit shall be filed with the county clerk; whereupon the county judge may proceed to take such other evidence as he may deem necessary; and, if in his judgment he finds that she is the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, that all witnesses to the said fact are dead, or their whereabouts unknown to said widow and are unascertainable, he may, upon his own motion, recommend to the pension commissioner the grant of a pension to the said widow; and, if the pension commissioner is satisfied that said widow is entitled to a pension under the provisions of this chapter, he may grant same. [Id. sec. 3a.]

Art. 6271. Soldier to have served honorably; evidence, how taken.—Every Confederate soldier applying for a pension under this chapter shall have served honorably from the date of his enlistment until the close of the late civil war between the states, or until he was discharged or paroled in some military organization regularly mustered into the army or navy of the Confederate States until the surrender. It shall be the duty of the county judge to take down the evidence in writing of all witnesses examined by him, which shall be paid for by the applicant at the rate of five cents per hundred words; provided, that the applicant is authorized to have such evidence taken down by his attorney, or by such other person as he or she may employ under the contract of employment to secure his or her pension; and provided, that no greater fee than hereafter provided shall be charged by such attorney, or representative of such applicant; and the county judge shall certify to the written statement of the evidence when taken before him. The application, affidavit and certified statement of the evidence shall be forwarded to the commissioner of pensions of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6272. What constitutes indigency.—To constitute indigency, within the meaning of this chapter, neither the applicant himself nor his wife nor both shall be the owners of property, real or personal, in excess of the value of one thousand dollars, household goods and wearing apparel excluded, nor in the enjoyment of an income annuity, the emoluments of an office or wages for their services in excess of one hundred and fifty dollars a year, or who is in receipt of aid or of a pension from any state, or the United States, or from any other source, or who is an inmate of the Confederate home, or other public institution, at the expense of the state, shall not be entitled to a pension under this chapter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6273. Payments to be made when.—The payments of such pensions shall begin on the first day of March and September of each year, payable at the end of each quarter; and on and after the first of each quarter the pensioner shall make his or her affidavit, stating the county of his or her residence and postoffice address, and that he or she is the identical person to whom a pension has been granted under this law, and that the conditions which existed at the time of making his or her application and on which the pension was originally granted still exist; which affidavit shall be supported by the affidavit of some other credible person to the same fact, and which affidavit may be made before any one authorized to administer oaths, which affidavit shall be filed with the commissioner of pensions for examination; and, if approved by him, the comptroller of public accounts shall draw his warrant to the amount of such pension on the treasurer; and upon presentation the treasurer shall pay the same out of any money in the treasury which may be appropriated to this purpose. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6274. Pensions denied to whom.—No application shall be allowed, nor shall any aid be given or pension paid in any case, to any soldier or sailor, or the widow of any soldier or sailor under the provisions of this chapter, where it shall appear that any such soldier or sailor deserted his command, or voluntarily abandoned his post of duty, or the said service during the said war, nor shall any application be allowed, nor any aid given, nor any pension paid, to any widow of any soldier or sailor who has been divorced from any such soldier or sailor, being her husband, nor to any widow who voluntarily abandoned and without cause any such soldier or sailor, being her husband, and continued to live separately from him up to the time of his death, nor to any such soldier or sailor who served as a substitute for another, nor to the widow of said substitute. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6275. Grand jury to be charged.—It shall be the duty of the district judges of this state to specially charge the grand jury at every session to investigate violations of this law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6276. Fees limited.—No person shall receive a greater fee than five dollars to secure a pension for another, and any contract for a larger sum shall be unlawful and shall not be enforced by the courts. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6277. Fees of county judge.—A county judge shall be allowed a fee of two dollars for hearing an application and taking proof therein, said fee to be paid by the applicant, and before hearing of application is had thereon; provided, that all fees received by such county judge shall be reported as other fees of office and be otherwise controlled by the law as it now exists, regulating the fee of the county judges; and provided, further, that said fee of two dollars shall be the only fee allowed to the county judge for all the work performed by him in securing a pension. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6278. Certain persons not entitled to.—No person shall, while an inmate of the Texas Confederate home, nor shall any person while confined in any of the asylums of this state, at the expense of the state, or confined in the state penitentiary to satisfy a judgment of conviction, receive a pension under this chapter; and any person having been granted a pension under the provisions of this chapter, and afterwards become an inmate of said home, asylum or penitentiary, shall, while such inmate, forfeit his pension, it being intended that no person shall at the same time receive benefits from both sources, and no pensioner who leaves this state for a period of over six months shall draw a pension while so absent. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6279. Appropriations shall be prorated.—On the first day of September and on the first day of March each year, the commissioner of pensions shall first allot to each blind, maimed and totally disabled soldier and sailor, or the blind and totally disabled widow of such soldier or sailor, the sum of eight dollars per month for each year; and the remainder of said appropriation shall be equally prorated among the pensioners who are in indigent circumstances only, and whose claims to pensions have been established and filed with the commissioner of pensions, as provided by law; and the comptroller shall issue his warrants for the amount due said pensioners in the manner provided by law, and all pensioners to be paid at the end of each quarter, and all such pensions shall begin on the first day of September and March after the filing and establishment of such application; provided, however, that the commissioner of pensions is authorized to fill, after the apportionment is made, any vacancies created by death or other causes, at any time between the first day of March and the first day of September in each year. [Id. sec. 15.]

PERPETUATION OF EVIDENCE.

Art. 6280. Certain persons may make statement under oath.—Any Confederate veteran, soldier, or sailor, who may be entitled to a pension under and by virtue of the pension laws of Texas, who may be desirous of establishing such right by the evidence of any person who may be cognizant of such facts as would prove and establish his such right, may cause such person or persons to go before the county judge, or any notary public, of the county of the residence of such person, and make a statement in writing of all facts within his knowledge concerning and relating to the service as a soldier or sailor in the army or navy of the southern Confederacy during the civil war, such statement in writing when made to be duly subscribed and sworn to by the person making the same. [Acts 1909, p. 215, sec. 1.]

Art. 6281. Statement to be filed with secretary of state.—Any such statement as provided for in the preceding article, made and reduced to writing duly authenticated, shall be filed with the secretary of state, and by him recorded in a book to be kept for such purpose, a properly certified copy of which shall be admitted and used in evidence, at any future time, to prove and establish the right of the soldier or sailor in whose behalf, or at whose instance, the same may have been made to such pension as may be provided by law. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6282. Widow may establish identity in same way.—The widow of any soldier or sailor who may be entitled to a pension as such, under the laws of this state, shall be entitled to establish her identity and right to such pension in the same way and manner as is herein provided for soldiers and sailors. [Id. sec. 3.]

COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS.

Art. 6283. Salary and general duties of.—There shall be a commissioner of pensions, whose term of office shall be two years, with a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, who shall be appointed by the governor. It shall be the duty of said commissioner of pensions to examine and pass on all pension claims under the existing law, to keep a correct record of all approved claims, with the name, disability, service, county and amount paid, to furnish the county judges with suitable blanks for use of claimants. The said commissioner of pensions shall, on the first day of September of each year, make to the governor a written report, showing the whole number of pensioners, the number of claims allowed for the past year and the amounts paid, together with such information pertaining to his office as the governor may ask. All records, books, claims or other matters connected with the office of said commissioner of pensions shall be kept open to inspection, and under the charge and direction of the governor, and all rulings made by said commissioner shall be subject to revision and change by the governor. This office shall continue for ten years only, unless continued by further legislation. The said commissioner of pensions shall not exercise the power of attorney to draw any pension. [Act 1909, p. 231, sec. 5.]

Art. 6284. Shall strike certain persons from roll.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of pensions, when it shall come to his knowledge that any person has been granted a pension through fraud or perjury, or that any one on the pension roll has, by reason of acquiring property or annuity, emolument or other income that would have prevented the granting of a pension had such conditions existed at the date of said application, to strike the name of such persons from the pension roll. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6285. Copies of certain instruments evidence before grand jury.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of pensions, on the application of the grand jury, to forward to the district clerk of the county in which the grand jury is convened, copies of any and all original papers on file in his office connected with an application for a pension, which said grand jury may desire to investigate; and such copies, with their correctness attested by the commissioner of pensions, shall have the same force and value in law that the original papers could have had. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 6286. Governor to appoint board.—The governor shall, on or before September 1, after his inauguration, appoint five persons, licensed as pharmacists, who are actively engaged in the practice of pharmacy within this state at the time of their appointment, and shall have been so engaged for the past five years or more immediately preceding their appointment. The Texas state pharmaceutical association may recommend to the governor, on or before August 1, after his inauguration, a list of names of persons who are licensed pharmacists of this state, of twice the number to be appointed, and the appointments may be made by the governor from this list. The five persons so appointed shall constitute a board to be styled, "The Texas Board of Pharmacy," who shall hold their office for two years, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified; provided, however, that no person who is connected with any school or college of pharmacy in any way shall be appointed as a member of the Texas state board of pharmacy; and any member of the board may be removed by the governor for good cause shown him. Provided, further, that no two members of the board shall reside in the same county. In case of a vacancy from death or other cause, the governor shall appoint a successor to fill out the unexpired term, with qualifications as above set forth. [Acts 1907, p. 394, sec. 7.]

Art. 6287. Organization of board; secretary, his salary and bond; compensation of board.—The persons so appointed and constituting the Texas state board of pharmacy shall, within thirty days after their appointment, and annually thereafter, meet and organize by the election of a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their office for the term of one year from the date of their election. The president and the treasurer shall be elected from the members of the board, and the secretary need not be a member of the board. The secretary shall receive such salary as may be prescribed by the board of pharmacy, and his necessary expense while engaged in the performance of his official duties. The board may adopt such by-laws and regulations as they shall deem necessary to carry into execution the provisions of this chapter, but which shall not be inconsistent with this chapter. The treasurer and secretary shall give bond in such sum as the board may determine, which at no time shall be for less amount than the sum handled by them annually. The expense of making such bonds shall be paid by the board. The secretary shall collect all money due the board from all sources, and shall pay the same over to the treasurer within ten days after the taking his receipt therefor. The bonds of the treasurer and secretary of the board shall be payable to the governor of the state of Texas, and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties imposed by law, or by order of the board of pharmacy. The board shall prescribe the pay of the members thereof, but at no time shall the amount exceed five dollars per day for each member, and this amount to be paid to them for such days during which they are actually engaged in the discharge of their official duties; and they are to receive such additional amounts as they may actually incur for expenses in the discharge of their duties for mileage, hotel bills, stamps and stationery; provided, no bill either for services of a member of such board or any expense of such member shall be paid until an itemized statement of such service and each item of expense has been made out and sworn to by such member of such board, before some officer authorized under the law to administer oaths, and such account shall have been filed with and approved by said board; provided, that the state shall never be liable for the salary and expense of any members of this board. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6288. Oath.—The persons so appointed and constituting the Texas state board of pharmacy, before entering upon the duties of said office, shall take the oath prescribed by the constitution of the state of Texas for state officers, and shall file the same in the office of the secretary of state, who shall thereupon issue to each of said members a certificate of appointment. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6289. Duty of; shall make report of money, etc.—It shall be the duty of the board to examine all applications for registration of such persons as may be entitled to the same under the provisions of this chapter, and to make an annual report to the governor, a copy of which shall be furnished to the Texas state pharmaceutical association, upon the condition of pharmacy in Texas; which report shall embrace all the proceedings of the board, and give an itemized account of all money received and disbursed by said board; and said itemized account of money paid out by said board shall show to whom paid and specifically for what purpose it was paid, and also the names of all pharmacists duly registered under this chapter. And it shall be the further duty of the board to deliver all money on hand at the end of the term of each board, after all outstanding debts have been paid, over to their successors in office. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6290. Shall hold meetings for examination, when.—The Texas state board of pharmacy shall hold meetings for the examination of applicants for registration, and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before it, at least once in four months, and such additional meetings as may be necessary; provided, that said regular meetings shall be held on the third Tuesday of January, May and September of each year, in such cities or places as the said board may select, or such cities or places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the board thirty days in advance of said meetings. Three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any and all business. The president and secretary shall have the power to administer oaths in all matters pertaining to the examination and registration of pharmacist and assistant pharmacist. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings and a register of all persons to whom certificates or license as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist and permits have been issued, and all renewals thereof; and the books and register of the board, or a copy of any part thereof certified by the secretary, shall be accepted as competent evidence in all the courts. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6291. May issue temporary certificates.—Any member of the board of pharmacy may issue a temporary certificate upon satisfactory proof that the applicant is competent; said temporary certificate shall be null and void after the first meeting of the board of pharmacy next after the granting said temporary certificate; provided, that not more than one temporary certificate shall ever be granted to any one person. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6292. Fees of board.—The board of pharmacy shall be entitled to charge and collect the following fees: For the examination of an applicant for license as a pharmacist, five dollars; for the examination of an applicant for license as an assistant pharmacist, two dollars and fifty cents; for renewing the license as a pharmacist, one dollar; for renewing the license as assistant pharmacist, one dollar; for issuing license to any proprietor or employe to conduct a drug store in towns of not more than one thousand inhabitants, one dollar. All fees shall be paid before any applicant may be admitted to examination, or his name placed upon the register of pharmacists or assistant pharmacists, or before any license or permit or any renewal thereof may be issued by the board. [Id., sec. 13.]

Art. 6293. Pharmacists to be licensed.—It shall be unlawful for any person not licensed as a pharmacist, within the meaning of this chapter, to conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop, or other place of business, for the retailing, compounding or dispensing of any drug, chemical or poison, or for the compounding of physician's prescriptions, or to keep exposed for sale at retail any drug, chemicals or poisons, except as hereinafter provided, or for any person not licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, within the meaning of this chapter, to compound, dispense or sell at retail any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician or otherwise, or to compound physician's prescriptions, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist under this chapter. And it shall be unlawful for any owner or manager of a pharmacy or drug store, or other place of business, to cause or permit any other than a person licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any medicine or poison, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist; provided, however, that nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any person from engaging in the business herein described as proprietor and owner thereof, provided such proprietor or owner shall have employed in his business to conduct same some one qualified under this chapter, nor to interfere with any legally registered practitioner of medicine or dentistry in the compounding of his prescriptions, or to prevent him from supplying his patients such medicine as he may deem proper, nor with exclusively wholesale business of any dealer who shall be licensed as a pharmacist, or who shall keep in his employ at least one person who is licensed as a pharmacist, nor with the selling at retail of non-poisonous domestic remedies, nor with the sale of patent or proprietary preparations, when sold in unbroken packages, nor with the sale of poisonous substances which are sold exclusively for use in the arts, or for use as insecticides, when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing a label having plainly printed upon it the name of the contents, the word poison and the names of at least two readily obtainable antidotes. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 6294. Certain persons entitled to be registered without examination.—All persons registered by district boards of pharmaceutical examiners prior to the nineteenth day of July, 1907, upon presenting proof of such registration in accordance with the law relating to the practice of pharmacy then in force, and the payment of one dollar, shall be entitled to a certificate of registration as a licensed pharmacist under the meaning of this chapter from the said board of pharmacy, without examination; provided, the application for such certificate shall have been made to the said board of pharmacy within ninety days after the first meeting of said board after its creation. Proprietors, and employes of such proprietors, who were on the nineteenth day of July, 1907, actively engaged in the preparation of physician's prescriptions and compounding and vending of medicines in towns of less than one thousand inhabitants in the state of Texas, and also proprietors, and employes of such proprietors, who may become so engaged in such towns during the five years next succeeding the date aforesaid, shall be exempt from examination; provided, he or she shall have registered as required by this chapter, and upon paying said board of pharmacy one dollar, shall receive a certificate of registration, which shall entitle such person to practice pharmacy in towns of one thousand inhabitants or under; and provided, further, that, should such persons have failed to apply for registration within ninety days from and after the first meeting of said board after its creation, said person shall be required to pay the same fees as for original registration. Every person, except in the cases named, who desires to be licensed as a pharmacist, shall file with the secretary of the board of pharmacy an application upon blanks furnished by the board of pharmacy for that purpose, duly verified under oath, setting forth the name and age of the applicant, the place or places at which and the time spent in the study of the science and art of pharmacy, the experience in compounding physician's prescriptions which the applicant has had under the direction of a legally licensed pharmacist, and shall appear at a time and place designated by the board of pharmacy, and submit to an examination as to his or her qualifications for registration as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist; provided, however, if any applicant should fail to pass a satisfactory examination, he or she may at any subsequent meeting of the board of pharmacy, within six months, be permitted to be re-examined without cost. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6295. Qualifications of applicants.—In order to be licensed as a pharmacist, within the meaning of this chapter, an applicant shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been licensed as an assistant pharmacist for not less than two years prior to his application for license as a pharmacist, or he shall present to the board satisfactory evidence that he is a graduate of a reputable school or college of pharmacy, or that he has had four years practical experience in pharmacy under the instruction of a pharmacist; and he shall also pass a satisfactory examination by or under the direction of a board of pharmacy. In order to be licensed as an assistant pharmacist, within the meaning of this chapter, an applicant shall not be less than eighteen years of age, and shall have a sufficient preliminary general education, and shall have had not less than two years experience in pharmacy, and shall pass a satisfactory examination by or under the direction of the board of pharmacy; provided, however, that in the case of persons who have attended a reputable school or college of pharmacy, the actual time of attendance at school or college of pharmacy may be deducted from the time of experience required of pharmacist and assistant pharmacist, but in no case shall less than two years experience be required for registration as a licensed pharmacist. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6296. Board to issue license, when.—If the applicant for license as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist has complied with all the requirements of the two preceding articles, the board of pharmacy shall enroll his name upon the register of pharmacists or assistant pharmacists, and issue to him a license which shall entitle him to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist for a period of two years from the date of said license. The board of pharmacy may refuse to grant a license to any person guilty of felony or gross immorality, or who is addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors or narcotic drugs to such an extent as to render him unfit to practice, and the board of pharmacy, after due notice, may revoke a license for like cause, or any license which has been procured by fraud. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6297. Applicants legally registered in foreign countries to be granted license, when.—The board of pharmacy may issue license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist in this state, without examination, to such persons as have been legally registered or licensed as pharmacists or assistant pharmacists in other states, or foreign countries; provided, that the applicant for such license shall present satisfactory evidence of qualifications equal to those required from licentiates in this state, and that he was registered or licensed by examination in such other state, or foreign country, and that the standard of competency required in such other state, or foreign country.

accords similar recognition to the licentiates of this state. Applicants for license under this article shall, with their application, forward to the secretary of the board of pharmacy the same fees as are required of other candidates for license. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6298. License to be posted; renewals, etc.—Every certificate of license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, and every license to any proprietor or employe to conduct a drug store in towns of not more than one thousand inhabitants as above provided and every renewal of such license shall be conspicuously exposed in the pharmacy or drug store or place of business of which the pharmacist or assistant pharmacist or other person to whom it is issued is the owner or manager, or in which he is employed. Every licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist who desires to continue in the practice of his profession shall, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of his license or permit, file with the board an application for the renewal thereof, which application shall be accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed. If the board shall find that the applicant has been legally licensed in this state and is entitled to renewal of license, or to a renewal of such permit, it shall issue to him a certificate attesting the fact. If any pharmacist or assistant pharmacist shall fail, for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license, to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist; and such person, in order to become registered as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall be required to pay the same fee as in the case of original registration. The name of the responsible manager of every pharmacy, drug store, or apothecary shop, shall be conspicuously displayed outside of such place of business. [Id. sec. 6.]

Article 6299. [3790] Governor to appoint.—The governor shall appoint, with the consent of the senate, for each port whose population and circumstances will warrant it, and also for Matagorda and Lavaca bays from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, a board of five persons of respectable standing, under the denomination of “commissioners of pilots” for such port and bays, three of whom shall be practical seamen and the other two merchants, who shall be commissioned by the governor for the term of two years; and the governor shall, during the recess of the legislature, be authorized to suspend, until the next session of the same, any of said commissioners, and to fill, until the same period, any vacancies in the board caused by death, resignation or otherwise; provided, however, that no member of the board of commissioners shall be directly or indirectly pecuniarily interested in any pilot boat or branch pilot in the business of their trust. [Act April 17, 1846, p. 79, sec. 2; Feb. 9, 1861, p. 19. P. D. 4762, 4775.]

Art. 6300. [3791] Duties of commissioners.—Said board of commissioners shall be authorized, if they deem it advisable, to examine and decide on the qualifications of any branch or deputy pilot whom they find already appointed at the time of their organization; and it shall be their duty to examine each new applicant for the office of branch or deputy pilot, and to decide on his qualifications, recommending to the governor, where new appointments are proper, such as are meritorious; and it shall also be their duty to examine into any case of alleged or supposed misconduct or inefficiency in branch or deputy pilots; and they shall be authorized, after a due hearing of accusation, testimony and defense, to suspend such pilot if sufficient cause appear, and during such suspension he shall not be allowed to exercise the functions of his office; the governor shall, however, have power at his will and pleasure to remove any branch pilot, or to reinstate any one of the same who has been suspended by the commissioners. [Act April 17, 1846, p. 79, sec. 3. P. D. 4763.]

Art. 6301. [3792] Term of residence and probation for pilots.—The board of commissioners of pilots of each port shall require a certain term of residence in the state of Texas, not less than two years, to authorize any person to exercise the functions of branch pilot for their port or said bays; as also to establish a term of probation not exceeding one year, as a deputy pilot, before any person can exercise the functions of branch pilot. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 4764.]

Art. 6302. [3793] Further powers and duties.—The board of commissioners of pilots shall have authority, within the limits provided in this title, to fix rates of pilotage, and to establish regulations respecting the stations whereat and the times wherein pilots shall be on duty, with provisions for leave of absence; as also respecting the class, condition, number and use of pilot boats, and such other minor regulations, compatible with the provisions of this title, as may be needed for the government of pilots and for the order and good effect of the proceedings of the board, of which proceedings a record shall be kept; provided, no regulation shall be adopted repugnant to the constitution. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 4766.]

Art. 6303. [3794] Same subject.—The board of commissioners of pilots shall be authorized and required to hear and determine all disputes that may arise respecting pilots and pilotage; to award to pilots extra compensation for extra services to vessels in distress; as also compensation for injurious loss of time incurred by pilots in waiting on vessels or by being carried off to sea on vessels by default of the master or owner when such pilots might have been landed; provided, always, that no more than three dollars for each day shall be awarded for mere loss of time; and it shall be the duty of said board to superintend and generally attend to all matters appertaining to pilots and pilotage; but from any decision of said board an appeal may be taken to the court having cognizance of the case. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 4767.]

Art. 6304. [3795] County judge to appoint committee, etc., to act in place of board.—At any port whose population and circumstances do not warrant the appointment of a board of commissioners of pilots in the manner before provided, the governor may authorize the county judge of the county to appoint a provisional committee of from three to five persons of good character and maritime experience, who shall be authorized under this chapter to establish the rates of pilotage and the rules for governing pilots; to examine the qualifications of pilots and applicants for the office; to investigate the case of any pilot charged with misconduct or inefficiency, and to suspend him if sufficient cause appear. [Id. sec. 13. P. D. 4773.]

Article 6305. [3796] Appointment, term and vacancies.—The governor is authorized and required to appoint at each of the ports such number of branch pilots as may from time to time be necessary, each of whom shall hold his office for the term of two years. In case of a vacancy in said office, the appointment shall be for the unexpired term. [Act April 17, 1846, p. 79, sec. 1. P. D. 4761.]

Art. 6306. [3797] Bond and oath.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each branch pilot shall enter into bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the board of commissioners of pilots for the port, or if there be no such board, by the county judge of the county in which the port is situated, and forwarded to the governor, to be by him deposited in the office of the secretary of state. Each pilot shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, and together with the bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such port is situated before being forwarded to the governor; and certified copies of said bonds, under the hand and seal of the county clerk, may be used as evidence in all the courts with like effect as the originals. [Id. sec. 5. Act Feb. 9, 1861, p. 19, sec. 1. P. D. 4765, 4775.]

Art. 6307. [3798] May appoint deputies.—Each branch pilot may appoint, subject to examination and approval by the board of commissioners, two deputies, for whose acts the branch pilot so appointed shall be responsible; and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said board shall forfeit his own appointment; and the said board shall have authority to restrict all deputy pilots from piloting over the bar vessels of over a certain draught of water. [Id. sec. 8. P. D. 4768.]

Art. 6308. [3799] Malfeasance and punishment.—Any branch or deputy pilot who shall be guilty of taking charge of a vessel in a state of inebriety shall, upon proof of the same, for the first offense be suspended for one month, and for the second offense be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity; and if any branch or deputy pilot shall wilfully or by neglect cause the wreck of a vessel, he shall be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity, and shall be subject to such punishment as is prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 10. P. D. 4770.]

Art. 6309. [3800] Pilotage.—The rate of pilotage on any class of vessels shall not, in any port of this state, exceed four dollars for each foot of water which the vessel at the time of piloting draws, and whenever a vessel, except of the classes below excepted, shall decline the services of a pilot, offered outside the bar, and shall enter the port without the aid of one, she shall be liable to the first pilot, whose services she so declined, for the payment of half pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot, shall go out without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who brought her in, or, if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, though offered outside, she shall, on so going out, be liable for the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who had first offered his services before she came in, but if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, or the offer of one outside, she shall not, in case of going out without a pilot, be liable to half pilotage. At any port where vessels shall receive or discharge their cargoes at an anchorage outside of the bar, such vessel shall be liable to pilotage at the above rate to such anchorage, but shall not be liable for or compelled to pay pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and if any vessel bound from the open sea to such anchorage, while under way, shall decline the services of a pilot, and shall afterward receive or discharge any portion of her cargo at such anchorage, on the lighters or otherwise, she shall be liable for the payment of half pilotage, at the above rate, to such anchorage to the first pilot whose services shall have been tendered to and declined by her, but not liable for any pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and when a pilot takes charge of a vessel twenty miles outside of the bar, and brings her to it, he shall be entitled to one-fourth pilotage for such off-shore service, in addition to what he is entitled to recover for bringing her in, but if such off-shore service be declined, no portion of said compensation shall be recovered. [Act Sept. 26, 1866, pp. 14, 15. P. D. 7201. Acts of 1879, ch. 89, p. 99.]

Art. 6310. [3801] Exemptions from extra pilotage.—The following classes of vessels shall be free from any charge for pilotage, unless for actual service, to-wit: All vessels of twenty tons and under, all vessels of whatsoever burthen owned in the state of Texas and registered and licensed in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port of the state of Texas; all vessels of seventy-five tons and under owned and licensed for the coasting trade in any part of the United States, when arriving from or departing to any port in the state of Texas; all vessels of seventy-five tons or under owned in the state of Texas and licensed for the coasting trade in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port in the United States. [Id. p. 15. P. D. 7201.]

Art. 6311. [3802] Consignee responsible for pilotage.—The consignee of any vessel shall be held responsible for the pilotage of said vessel. [Act April 17, 1846, p. 79, sec. 12. P. D. 4772.]

Art. 6312. [3803] Unauthorized pilot to forfeit $50.—If any person not appointed a branch or deputy pilot shall pilot any ship or vessel out of or into any port when a branch or deputy pilot has offered such service, the person so piloting shall forfeit and pay to such branch or deputy pilot the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered before any court having cognizance of the case. [Id. sec. 11. P. D. 4771.]

Art. 6313. [3804] Pilots for mouth of Brazos.—The governor shall also appoint a sufficient number of competent pilots for the mouth of the Brazos river, whose terms of office, mode of qualification and pilotage shall be the same as prescribed in the preceding articles for branch pilots; and they shall be entitled to all the privileges, and shall exercise all the powers, and discharge all the duties prescribed for branch pilots, and be subject to like penalties. [Act March 18, 1848, p. 144. P. D. 4776, 4782.]

Art. 6314. [3805] Bond, by whom approved.—The bonds of pilots for the mouth of the Brazos river shall be approved by the county judge of Brazoria county. [Id.]

Art. 6315. [3806] Pilots for Matagorda and Lavaca bays.—The governor shall also appoint not less than two nor more than four competent pilots for

Matagorda and Lavaca bays, from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, who shall hold their offices for the same term as branch pilots, and whose mode of qualification, powers and privileges, in so far as the same are applicable, shall be the same; the bonds of such pilots shall be approved by the county judge of Calhoun county. [Act Feb. 9, 1861, p. 19. P. D. 4775.]

Art. 6316. [3807] To keep channels staked out.—It shall be the duty of pilots appointed under the preceding article to keep the channels of said bays properly staked and marked out, and in default thereof they shall be subject to removal or suspension. [Id.]

Art. 6317. [3808] Pilotage for said bays.—The rate of pilotage for said bays shall be two dollars and fifty cents for each foot of water the vessel may draw at the time of piloting; and all vessels that may draw five feet or more shall be subject to pay any licensed pilot for said bays, whose services are tendered and declined, one-half the pilotage herein prescribed. [Id.]

Art. 6318. [3809] Rules for branch pilots applicable.—All the provisions of this chapter relating to branch pilots at ports, in so far as the same are applicable and not expressly qualified, shall apply to and govern pilots appointed for the mouth of the Brazos river and for Matagorda and Lavaca bays. [Id.]

Art. 6319. [3810] Penalty for unlicensed pilot.—If any person not a licensed pilot or deputy shall pilot any vessel into or out of the mouth of said river, or through the channel of said bays, up or down, he shall forfeit and pay to any pilot licensed or commissioned for the mouth of said river, or for said bays, full pilotage for such vessel, to be recovered by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 6320. Organized counties to hold elections.—In all organized counties in Texas, upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any such county, the commissioners' court of such county shall order an election to be held on some day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders to determine whether or not the prairie dogs shall be exterminated in said county. [Act 1903, p. 70, sec. 1.]

Art. 6321. Thirty days' notice of election.—Upon filing such petition, the commissioners' court, at its next regular term, shall order an election to be held in such county on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order, the election to be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections in so far as the same are applicable. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6322. Order for election.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners' court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election, giving thirty days' legal notice, said notice reciting the petition and the action of the commissioners' court, and naming the date for said election. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6323. Election, where held; managers and their pay.—The election shall be held at the regular election boxes in said county by the regularly appointed managers of elections; and for holding said election, those holding the same shall be paid the legal fees as provided by law for such services. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6324. Qualifications of electors.—No person shall vote at any election under the provisions of this title unless he be a freeholder in the county, and is also a qualified voter under the constitution and laws of this state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6325. Form of ballot, and returns.—The ballots to be voted in any such election shall either have written or printed on them, "For extermination of prairie dogs," or, "Against extermination of prairie dogs," and those holding the election shall make within ten days time legal returns showing number of votes cast for and against the same to the county judge of the county, who shall tabulate and count the vote in the presence of the commissioners' court and ascertain the result of said election. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6326. Twelve months allowed to exterminate dogs.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be, "For extermination of the prairie dogs," the county judge immediately after counting the votes shall issue his proclamation declaring the result of the election, which proclamation shall be posted at the court house door, and, after the expiration of twelve months from its issuance, it shall be unlawful for any land owner or lessee of land in said county to allow to run at large any prairie dog on any lands owned or leased by him, and it shall be his duty to kill the same within twelve months from issuance of proclamation by the county judge. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6327. Who liable, and measure of damages for non-compliance.—After the issuance of proclamation by the county judge in any county, declaring that the election has been held and that the result was, "For extermination of prairie dogs," at the expiration of twelve months any land owner, or lessee owning land in said county who shall wilfully fail or refuse to kill the prairie dogs inhabiting his land shall be liable for damages to the owners of contiguous land who have complied with the law; and the measure of damages is hereby fixed at two dollars and fifty cents per month for each and every month that he permits the prairie dogs running on his land to run at large. Any land owner owning adjoining lands, who has in good faith complied with the law and removes the dogs from his lands, should his lands be invaded by prairie dogs from the adjoining land, he may bring a suit for damages against such land owner, the amount of damages being hereby fixed at two dollars and fifty cents per month, and such suits are to be filed in the courts having competent jurisdiction; provided, further, that any party desiring to bring suit must notify the party from whom he claims damages, in writing, ninety days prior to the filing of said suit, and no damages shall accrue until after the expiration of said ninety days; provided, however, that in all cases where lands infested with prairie dogs owned by non-residents, and such land or lands are being used by some other person, or inclosed under the fence of another who is paying the owner thereof no compensation for the use thereof, then in all such cases the duty herein imposed as to the extermination of such prairie dogs shall devolve upon the person so using such land or lands or having the same inclosed under his fence. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6328. Venue of suits.—The venue of all suits for damages under this title shall be in the county or precinct where the lands of the plaintiff are situated. [Id. sec. 8a.]

Article 6329. [3811] Surety may require suit to be brought.—Any person bound as surety upon any contract for the payment of money or the performance of any act, when the right of action has accrued, may require, by notice in writing, the creditor or obligee forthwith to institute suit upon such contract. [Act Feb. 5, 1858. P. D. 4783.]

Art. 6330. [3812] Discharged by failure to sue, when.—If the creditor or obligee, not being under legal disability, shall fail to bring his suit to the first term of court thereafter, or to the second term, showing good cause why he did not bring it to the first term and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety giving such notice shall be discharged from all liability thereon. [P. D. 4784.]

Art. 6331. [3813] May have question of suretyship tried, when.—When any suit is brought against two or more defendants upon any contract, any one or more of the defendants being surety for the others, the surety may, upon a written statement of the matter being set out in his answer, cause the question of suretyship to be tried and determined upon the issue made for the parties defendant at the trial of the cause, or at any time before or after the trial, or at a subsequent term; but such proceedings shall not delay the suit of the plaintiff. [P. D. 4785.]

Art. 6332. [3814] Execution, levied first on property of principal.—If the finding of such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff to levy the execution first upon the property of the principal subject to execution, and situate in the county in which the judgment was rendered, before a levy shall be made upon the property of the surety, if so much property of the principal can be found as will in the opinion of the sheriff be sufficient to make the amount of the execution; otherwise the levy to be made on so much property of the principal as may be found, if any, and upon so much of the property of the surety as may be necessary to make the amount of the execution; and the clerk shall make a memorandum of such order on the execution. [P. D. 4786.]

Art. 6333. [3815] Rights of surety who makes payment on a judgment.—When any person, being surety in any undertaking whatever, shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, the said judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of such surety, and shall be considered as assigned to such surety, together with all the rights of the creditor thereunder, to the extent of the payment thereon made by such surety, and interest thereon; and such surety shall be entitled to have execution thereon in the name of the creditor for the use of such surety against the principal debtor for the full amount of such payment and interest thereon and all costs, which execution shall be issued upon the application of such surety to the clerk, or court, as the case may be, and shall be levied, collected and returned as in other cases. [P. D. 4787.]

Art. 6334. [3816] One surety may have execution against a co-surety, when.—Should there be more than one surety, and one or more of them has failed to pay his proportionate part of the judgment, execution may issue, as provided in the preceding article, against the principal for the use of the surety who has paid more than his proportionate part for the whole amount paid by him and interest thereon, and also against his co-sureties for their proportionate part of the excess so paid by him, and interest thereon. [P. D. 4788.]

Art. 6335. [3817] Sheriff, etc., has same rights as surety, when.—If a sheriff or other officer shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over any money collected, or for wasting property levied on, such sheriff or other officer shall be entitled to have execution therefor against the principal defendant in such judgment as provided in the case of a surety. [P. D. 4787.]

Art. 6336. [3818] Surety not to be sued alone, unless, etc.—No surety shall be sued, unless his principal is joined with him, or unless a judgment has previously been rendered against his principal, except in the cases provided for in article [1843].

Art. 6337. [3819] Who is surety within this title.—The remedy provided for sureties by this title extends to indorsers, guarantors, drawers of bills which have been accepted, and every other suretyship, whether created by express contract, or by the operation of law. [P. D. 4789.]

Article 6338. [4219] Board of public printing provided for.—The attorney general, the state treasurer, and the secretary of state shall constitute a board of public printing, and a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. [Act June 27, 1876, p. 31, secs. 1, 16.]

Art. 6339. [4220] Record of the proceedings of the board, etc.—The secretary of state shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board and of all acts done by him in connection with the public printing, under the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 6340. [4221] Board shall contract for public printing, etc.—The board of public printing is authorized and required to contract, as herein-after prescribed, with some suitable person or persons, who shall be a resident of this state, to print and bind the laws and the journals of the senate and house of representatives, and to do such other printing and binding, and to furnish such stationery as may be required by law, or may be needed by any department of the state government, or by either house of the legislature, not to include such work as may be done at the deaf and dumb asylum, nor such stationery, printing and binding as may be needed by the judicial department. They are authorized to make a separate contract when printing is to be done in any other language than the English; and in such case the printing board shall employ a competent person, at a price not to exceed thirty cents per hundred words, to translate the matter required into such other language. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 6341. [4222] An expert may be employed, etc.—The board of public printing shall be authorized to employ a competent practical printer at a salary not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month, who shall be ex officio instructor in the art of printing at the deaf and dumb asylum, and whose further duty it shall be to advise with and assist the board in advertising for proposals for printing and stationery, and in making contracts therefor; and to examine the work done and stationery furnished under such contracts, and to certify to the board whether the same are correct and in accordance with law and with the contracts of the contractors. [Id. sec. 15. Act March 13, 1875, p. 91, sec. 1.]

Art. 6342. [4223] Printing classified; prices to be paid.—The public printing shall be divided into four classes, as follows:

First. First class.—The first class shall include the printing and binding of the laws, journals, department reports, governor's messages and like documents which shall be printed on white calendered book paper of uniform color, twenty-five by thirty-eight inches in size, and weighing not less than forty-five pounds to the ream, from long primer type (except tabular work which may be from such type smaller than long primer as the nature of the work and good taste may require); the pages of the laws, department reports, governor's messages and like documents to be twenty-six ems pica wide and forty-six ems pica long, including head and foot lines, and to contain not less than one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four ems; and the journals shall be printed in octavo form, the pages to be twenty-six and one-half picas wide and forty-six ems pica long, including head and foot lines, from brevier type, two columns to the page, each column thirteen ems pica wide, and each page to contain not less than two thousand eight hundred ems. When printed, the laws and reports shall be neatly folded, stitched, covered and trimmed, and the journals and messages folded, stitched and trimmed. Cover paper shall not be less than thirty-five pounds to the ream. The index to the laws shall be printed from brevier type, and the index to the journals from nonpareil type. The maximum prices for the material and work of the first class shall be: For paper, white and cover, per pound, fifteen cents, and no allowance shall be made for waste; composition, seventy-five cents per thousand ems, printers' measurement; press work, sixteen pages to the form, unless the nature of the work requires a smaller number of pages, fifty cents a token of two hundred and forty impressions or less; binding, forty cents per hundred, for folding, stitching, covering and trimming first signature of sixteen pages, and twenty cents per hundred for each additional signature of sixteen pages or less; for folding, stitching and trimming without covering, thirty cents per hundred for first signature of sixteen pages, and fifteen cents per hundred for each additional signature of sixteen pages or less. No matter shall be leaded, except by the express direction of the printing board. The printing board shall, at the same time the contract is let for the printing of the journal of the two houses of the legislature, include in said contract the printing and delivery of each day's proceedings of the two houses while in session, the same to be printed in octavo form, as provided in this act for the printing of the regular journals of the two houses, five hundred copies for the use of the house of representatives and two hundred copies for the use of the senate, the same to be delivered by the hour of meeting of the day following that on which such proceedings were had.

Second: Second class.—Work of the second class shall consist of all blanks and printed stationery required by any department of the state government, except the judicial department, and shall be on first-class sized and calendered white wove unruled flat papers of such dimensions and weights as the nature of the work may require. The maximum prices for such work shall be as follows: For composition, fifty cents per one thousand ems, printers' measurement; for press work, on forms the size of flatcap sheet or less, forty cents per token; on forms larger than flatcap, fifty cents per token; and a token shall be two hundred and forty impressions or less when the number of copies of a job ordered shall require a less number of impressions. The maximum prices for paper required for work of the second class shall be twenty-five cents per pound. For ruling work of the second class, the maximum price shall be twenty cents per one hundred sheets for each actual and necessary passage through the ruling machine. For numbering with a numbering or paging machine, per one hundred pages or more, one hundred numbers, ten cents. For binding work of the second class, the maximum price shall be, for pads of one hundred copies each of any printed job, quarter sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per pad, five cents; for pads of two hundred copies of any printed job, half sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per pad, ten cents; for quarter binding quarter sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, ten cents; for quarter binding, half sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, fifteen cents; for quarter binding whole sheet, cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, twenty cents; for half binding quarter sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, twenty-five cents; for half binding and half sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, thirty-five cents; for half binding whole sheet cap, demy, post or medium, per quire, forty-five cents. A quire, within the meaning here intended for binding work of the second class, is not less than forty leaves.

Third: Third class.—Work of the third class shall consist of blank books, either ruled and printed, or ruled without printing. The paper shall be made of linen stock and of the quality known among paper dealers as "P" paper; and the maximum prices shall be as follows: Cap paper, eighteen pounds to the ream, plain ruled half bound sixty cents per quire; ditto printed heads, eighty-five cents per quire; ditto plain ruled, extra full bound, one dollar per quire; ditto printed heads, one dollar and twenty-five cents per quire. Demy paper, twenty-eight pounds to the ream, plain ruled, half bound, seventy-five cents per quire; ditto printed heads, one dollar per quire; ditto plain ruled, extra full bound, one dollar and thirty-five cents per quire; ditto printed heads one dollar and fifty cents per quire. Medium paper, forty pounds to the ream, extra full bound, Russia leather ends and bands, canvas cover with Russia leather corners, plain ruled, three dollars per quire; ditto, printed heads, four dollars per quire. Super royal paper, fifty-four pounds to the ream, extra full bound, Russia leather ends and bands, canvas cover with Russia leather corners, plain ruled, four dollars and fifty cents per quire; ditto, printed heads, five dollars per quire. A quire shall not be less than forty leaves in work of the third class. No extra charge to be allowed for vowelings, paging, labeling, lettering, or gilding. Where changes in the printed heads occur in any blank book ordered, the maximum price shall be fifty cents for each change in ruling and printing together.

Fourth: Fourth class.—Work of the fourth class shall consist of the printing of bills, resolutions, committee reports and such other like work as may be ordered by the legislature, or either house thereof, and shall be on first-class sized and calendered white wove, flat cap paper, of fourteen pounds to the ream, printed on pica type, lines numbered in the margin, with space between the lines of the size of pica, the printing to be thirty-two ems pica wide and sixty-five ems in length. The maximum price for work of the fourth class will be: For two hundred copies, or any number of copies less than two hundred, ordered by either house of the legislature, including composition, paper, press work and binding, two dollars per page for as many pages as are contained in one copy thereof, and when more than two hundred copies of work mentioned in this class are ordered by either house of the legislature, the printer shall be paid only for the paper, press work and binding of such additional copies at such rates as are contracted for, for work of the second class; provided, that the printing board, in having schedules prepared for the use of printers for the first and second class of printing, may fix on other and lower maximum prices than those designated in this article for work and material of the first and second class of printing; and that such schedules may call for bids by the ream on all papers required for the first and second classes, giving dimensions and weights, in no wise to exceed the basis of twenty-five cents per pound, or may call for bids by the ton for all papers required for said class; and provided, that the printing board may in their discretion receive separate proposals and make separate contracts for furnishing in part or all the printing papers required under the provisions of this article for the printing of the first and second classes, under like conditions required by law for contracts to do the printing and furnish the paper; and in the event of such separate contracts the printing board shall cause the papers so furnished to the state to be delivered to the contractor, to do the printing and binding on written requisition of such contractor, and under proper guards and checks, at such times and in such quantities as the requisites of any job or jobs of printing may require. [Amended Act 1903, p. 12.]

Art. 6343. [4223a] Proclamations, etc., how published.—No contract with the public printer shall be made for the publication of executive proclamations, advertisements, and other like documents; but the maximum price for such work shall be one dollar per square of one hundred words for the first publication, and fifty cents per square for each subsequent publication that may be ordered, and fractional parts of a square at proportionate rates, and each square shall contain not less than one hundred words. [Amend. 1895, No. 73, Sen. Jour., p. 482.]

Art. 6344. [4224] When published in more than one paper.—When proclamations, advertisements and like publications are authorized or required by law to be published in more newspapers than one, they shall be published under like rules; provided, that proclamations and like documents shall not be published in more than two newspapers in each congressional district, and at different points, and shall not be inserted for a longer period than three months; and proposed amendments to the constitution shall be published once a week for four weeks, commencing at least three months before the time specified by the legislature for an election thereon, in one weekly newspaper in each county in which such newspaper may be published; and all claims presented for publishing advertisements shall be accompanied by a copy of the advertisement as printed, and shall state the dates when the same was published. [Acts of 1876, p. 31, sec. 4.]

Art. 6345. [4225] Stationery, maximum prices of.—The maximum rates for stationery shall be as follows:

Legal cap paper—Eighteen pounds to the ream, seven dollars and twenty cents per ream; sixteen pounds to the ream, six dollars and forty cents per ream; fourteen pounds to the ream, five dollars and sixty cents per ream.

Inkstands—C. H. number three, sixty cents each; glass, flat, eighty cents each.

Paper fasteners—Forty cents per box. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6346. [4226] Other printing and stationery.—All printing and stationery not embraced within the provisions of the preceding articles of this title shall be furnished by the contractor at rates proportionate to those stipulated for in the contract for work and stationery of similar character, to be fixed by the board of public printing. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6347. [4227] Current printing of legislature to be done at Austin.—The current printing of the legislature shall be done at the seat of government. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6348. [4228] Number of copies of laws, etc.—There shall be printed not less than eight thousand copies of the laws of a general nature, and as many more as the printing board may require, not to exceed twelve thousand in all; and fifteen hundred copies of the special laws, including all acts for private relief, all acts incorporating towns and cities, all acts having local application, all of a personal nature, and all acts incorporating private associations of every description that may be passed at each session of the legislature; and one thousand copies of the journals of each house of the legislature. [Acts of 1883, p. 5.]

Art. 6349. [4229] Of the governor's messages, etc.—There shall be printed such number of copies of the messages of the governor and other documents as the legislature, or either house thereof, may order. [Acts of 1876, p. 31, sec. 7.]

Art. 6350. [4230] Of other public documents.—There shall be printed, under the supervision of the secretary of state, eleven hundred copies of the annual reports of the comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, commissioner of the general land office, superintendent of the penitentiary, superintendent of the lunatic asylum, of the asylums of the blind, deaf and dumb, and the reports of all other officers who are required to report to the governor, or the legislature; three hundred copies of which reports shall be delivered by the secretary of state to the two houses of the legislature for their use, at as early a day as practicable after they are printed; three hundred copies shall be delivered to the officer making the report for his use, and the remaining five hundred copies shall be kept by the secretary of state for public use; but the printing board may increase the number of copies of such reports required to be printed, not to exceed two thousand. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6351. [4231] Advertisement for proposals to do public printing, etc.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, on the first day of August next, and every two years thereafter, or as soon after the first day of August as may be practicable, to advertise for sealed proposals to furnish said stationery and to do such public printing and binding as may be required by the several departments of the government under the provisions of this title. Such advertisement shall be published for thirty days in not less than two nor more than five newspapers published within the state and having the largest circulation therein. It shall invite separate proposals to furnish the stationery and to do the printing and binding, and shall state as nearly as practicable the probable amount of such printing, binding and stationery which will be required under the contract. It shall also state the time and place of opening the bids and of awarding the contract, which shall be at the office of the secretary of state, not exceeding forty days from the date of the first publication of such advertisement. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6352. [4232] Proposals to include what.—Separate proposals shall be made for furnishing the stationery and for doing the printing and binding; and the proposals for printing and binding shall embrace all such work as is included under articles 6342 and 6345, except such as may be done at the deaf and dumb asylum, and the material therefor; and the proposals for stationery shall embrace all material specified in article 6345, and such other articles as are usually included under the term stationery. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6353. [4233] Bid to be accompanied by bond.—Each bid shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that, should the contract be awarded to him, he will, without delay, upon being notified of such award, enter into a written contract in accordance with law, and with his said proposal, and will give bond and security, as required by law, for the faithful performance of such contract. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6354. [4234] No officer to be interested in contract.—No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in such contract, except in contracts for the translation of any public document into some other language. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6355. [4235] Proposals, to whom addressed.—Such proposals shall be sealed and addressed to the secretary of state at the seat of government, and shall be indorsed with a memorandum showing that they are proposals for the public printing and binding, or for stationery for the several departments, as the case may be; and upon their receipt they shall be filed by the secretary of state; and the seals thereof shall not be broken until the day named in the advertisement for awarding the contracts, when they shall be opened in the presence of the printing board and such bidders and others as may desire to be present. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6356. [4236] Awarding of contract.—It shall be the duty of the printing board on the day fixed in such advertisement, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to make a careful examination and comparison of such bids, and to award the contracts to the lowest and best responsible bidder whose bid may be below the maximum rates as herein prescribed; provided, such bid shall be approved by the governor and comptroller of public accounts. [Id.]

Art. 6357. [4237] Successful bidders to be notified.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state, upon the making of such awards, immediately to notify the successful bidders, respectively, of the acceptance of their said bids, and that they will be required without delay to execute and deliver to him their contracts with the state for the due performance of their said undertakings.

Art. 6358. [4238] Requisites of the contract.—Such contract shall be in writing and shall be signed by the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the printing board in such sum as they shall prescribe, made payable to the state, and conditioned for his faithful compliance with his bid, and with the provisions of the law relating thereto, for the period of two years, and until a new contract shall have been made and approved; the contract shall also be signed on behalf of the state by the members of the printing board, and shall be approved by the governor and comptroller, and filed in the office of the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6359. [4239] Suits on contractor's bond.—On breach by the contractor of the bond provided for in the preceding article, the same may be put in suit on the order of the governor; and such suit may be brought in the proper court of the county in which the seat of government may be; and such bond shall not become void on the first recovery, but suits may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof shall be recovered. [Id.]

Art. 6360. [4240] Secretary of the senate and chief clerk of house to furnish journals, etc., to contractor.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate, and of the chief clerk of the house of representatives, to deliver to the contractor for the public printing the journals of their respective houses for the purpose of being printed, together with a comprehensive index to the same, to be printed at the end thereof; and it shall be the duty of the contractor to carefully use the same, and to return them without delay, uninjured, to such secretary and clerk respectively when the printing thereof is completed. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6361. [4241] Secretary of state to furnish laws, etc.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to deliver to such contractor, as soon as practicable after their passage or approval, copies of all laws and resolutions adopted by the legislature, together with a comprehensive index to the same. [Id.]

Art. 6362. [4242] Secretary of state to compare copies and certify, etc.—It shall also be the duty of the secretary of state to read and revise the proofs of such laws and resolutions, and to superintend the printing of the same, and to compare the same with the originals in his office, and to certify that the laws and resolutions as published are true copies of such originals; which certificate, together with a statement of the date on which the legislature adjourned, shall be appended to and printed at the end of each volume of such laws and resolutions. But the provision requiring the secretary of state to read and revise the proofs shall not dispense with the duty of the contractor to see that such proofs are properly read and corrected. [Id. secs. 9, 11.]

Art. 6363. [4243] Work to be delivered to whom.—The whole number of laws and journals, reports of public officers, and other public documents authorized to be printed, shall be delivered to the secretary of state at his office, except such printing as may be ordered by the two houses of the legislature, or either of them, for their use, which shall be delivered to such persons at such times as such houses, or either of them, may direct. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6364. [4244] When to be delivered.—The laws and journals shall be delivered within sixty days after the last copy shall have been furnished to the contractor. The reports of public officers shall be delivered to the governor by the respective officers making the same in sufficient time to be delivered to the contractor one month before the meeting of the legislature, and if so furnished to said contractor shall be delivered by him to the secretary of state within the first week of said session; and if furnished less than one month before the meeting of the legislature, or after, the same shall be delivered by the contractor to the secretary of state within one month after they are so furnished. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6365. [4245] Account, how audited and paid.—All accounts for printing done or stationery furnished, under the provisions of this title, except that for the legislature when in session, shall be audited as follows: The account shall be verified by the affidavit of the contractor that said account is just and correct; that the amount of work charged for has actually been performed, or the actual amount of stationery delivered, and that the prices charged in said account are in accordance with the stipulations of the contract, and shall be accompanied with a sample of the work done and stationery furnished. After which it shall be examined by the practical printer and printing board, and, if found correct, approved by said board. Such claim, when thus examined and approved, shall be sufficient authority for the comptroller to issue his warrant, to be paid out of the appropriations for public printing or stationery. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6366. [4246] Accounts for current printing of legislature.—All accounts for printing done or stationery used in either house of the legislature shall, in addition to the requirements contained in the preceding article, be approved by the chairman of the committee on public printing and the chairman of the committee on contingent expenses of the house ordering the work, before being presented to the printing board; for which account, when thus approved, the comptroller is authorized to draw his warrant, payable out of the contingent fund. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6367. [4247] Legislature may alter maximum rates, etc.—It shall be competent for the legislature, at any time, to change by law the maximum rates hereinbefore prescribed for stationery or printing and binding, and, should the contractors decline to do such work, or to furnish such stationery, at the maximum rates so fixed, the printing board shall immediately proceed to re-let such contract. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6368. [4248] Contract may be abrogated, when, etc.—The contracts for printing and stationery herein provided for may be abrogated by the legislature when in session, or by the printing board, with the consent of the governor and comptroller, when the legislature is not in session, if the contractor should fail to perform the work, or to furnish the supplies, in accordance with law and with his contract, and as promptly as the exigencies of the public service demand. [Id.]

Art. 6369. [4249] Board may re-let contract, etc.—Should there be no bid for the public printing or stationery within the maximum rates as fixed by law, or should the successful bidder fail to execute the bond with security as herein required, or should the contract be abrogated, it shall be the duty of the printing board, with or without advertisement, as the interest of the state and the exigencies of the public service may seem to require, to proceed to let out a new contract as hereinbefore provided; and they may, in their discretion, make such temporary arrangements to meet the emergency as is demanded by the public interest. [Id.]

Art. 6370. [4250] Supplies to reporters.—The reporters for the supreme court and court of criminal appeals shall be furnished by the state printing board with all stationery necessary for the performance of their duties. [Acts 1889, p. 7, sec. 2.]

Article 6373. Persons in control of state property must make inventory.—It shall be the duty of every official or other person who has in his possession, or under his control, or for which he is in anywise responsible, any personal property belonging to the state of Texas, or in which it has an interest, to make out in triplicate a correct and full list and inventory of all such personal property which is or was in his possession when he assumed charge of such office or position, or had under his control, or for which he is in any way responsible, and which inventory shall contain the name of the article or articles of such personal property, the cost thereof, a fair and reasonable estimate of the present value thereof, a statement of the present condition of the same, how long said property has been in use, and the extent of the probable service, use and benefit that such property will be to the state in future; and, if sold during his term of office, or while in his possession, or under his control, he shall state the selling price thereof, and the disposition of the proceeds. [Act 1899, p. 307, sec. 1.]

Art. 6374. How made and to whom rendered.—A copy of said list and inventory, duly sworn to, shall be by such person charged with keeping said property, or who has the same under his control, management, or who is responsible for the same, transmitted by registered letter to the secretary of state at Austin, Texas, whose duty it shall be to enter such list and inventory on a book to be kept by him for the purpose, under its appropriate heading; and said secretary of state is hereby authorized to purchase such book or books as shall be necessary to record all such lists and inventories so made to him, and he shall be responsible for the correct entry of all said articles in such book or books, and shall be responsible for the safe keeping of the original sworn report from each of the persons named in this chapter, including the governor of this state, comptroller of public accounts, treasurer, attorney general, adjutant general, commissioner of insurance and banking, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, the commissioner of the general land office, chief justice of the supreme court, court of criminal appeals, and the several courts of civil, appeals, and the clerks thereof, the managers of each and every asylum in the state of Texas, superintendents and assistant superintendents of the penitentiaries and reformatories, superintendents and managers of all state farms, superintendents and managers of the university and the several branches thereof, normal schools, all the officers and employes of either branch of the legislature having personal property belonging to the state in their possession, and each and every other person holding any personal property in trust for the state of Texas, or having the same under his control, or in his possession, or for which he is in any wise responsible, all of whom are included in this chapter and subject to its provisions. A duplicate of said list and inventory, so sent to the secretary of state, shall be forwarded to the comptroller of public account, who shall carefully preserve the same in his office; and it is made the duty of the person so making out the list to retain in his possession for his successor in office a true copy thereof, and whose duty it shall be to deliver same to such successor within three days after his qualification and assuming charge of such position, office or agency. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6375. When made.—Upon qualification at the beginning of the terms of office of any of the persons named herein, after each succeeding general election, and within thirty days after taking charge of any personal property as herein named, it shall likewise be his duty to make said report as herein required of the officers now holding any of said positions, and to forward same to the officers herein named, who shall receive them and who shall continue to keep the registration of said reports, lists and inventories, as herein required of the secretary of state under the foregoing article hereof, and who shall, when said lists are received, make comparisons with former reports and note all articles of property not included in former lists, or which were included in former lists, but are not in the list last filed, and shall designate all such articles which are either dropped from or added to those of former lists and inventories. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6476. Persons in control of property responsible for same.—Every person herein named or referred to, in charge of any public institution of Texas, or having under his control any personal property belonging to the state of Texas, is hereby made responsible for the same and the full value thereof; and all persons hereafter coming into any of the offices or positions herein enumerated shall at once become and shall remain responsible for the preservation and safe keeping of all personal property herein named or referred to, whether such persons be under official bonds or not; and all official bonds made by any of the persons herein named or referred to shall be intended as security to the state of Texas for the full value of all such personal property in any such institution or department, or otherwise belonging to the state over which such person is in control, or for which he is by this act made responsible. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6377. Incoming and outgoing officers to check inventory.—Hereafter, when any of the officers named in this chapter, or who are hereby referred to and required to take charge of any of the properties of the state, shall take charge of same, they shall require of their predecessors in such positions, whose duty it is hereby made to furnish same, to make out for them a full list and inventory as above mentioned, of all properties in their possession, or under their control and management, or for which they are in any wise responsible, belonging to the state of Texas; and such outgoing and incoming officers shall together check up said list and inventory and ascertain that the same and each article in said list named is then on hand or duly accounted for. Said incoming officer shall give his receipt to his said predecessor in office for all of such property before he shall be entitled to possession of the same, and said receipt shall be by him delivered to said secretary of state for registration in his office, and a copy of the same shall be likewise delivered to the comptroller of public accounts for preservation in his office. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6378. Penalty for non-compliance.—Should any of the officers, persons, or employes named in this chapter fail to make out said list and inventory, or fail to perform any of the duties herein required of him, he shall become immediately responsible to the state of Texas for the value of any and all articles of furniture, implements, goods, wares, merchandise, live stock and all other personal property which have come into his hands, or for which he may be responsible, and be subject to suit in the name of the state of Texas for the value of the same, and; should he fail to do or perform any of the acts and things required of him by this chapter, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code. The jurisdiction for all suits under this chapter shall be either in the county court of Travis county, or in the county where such officer shall reside at the time of the institution of said suit or prosecution, or where such property may be situated. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6379. Law cumulative.—This chapter is not intended to repeal any law now in force for the preservation and protection of any state property, but is cumulative thereof, and all said laws are hereby kept in full force and effect where the same do not specifically conflict with this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 6380. [3820] Appointment and term of office of superintendent.—The governor shall appoint a suitable person as superintendent of public buildings and grounds, who shall hold his office for a term of two years. In case of a vacancy in said office the appointment shall be for the unexpired term. [Act April 29, 1874, p. 165. P. D. 7234f.]

Art. 6381. [3821] Bond and oath.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, the superintendent of public buildings and grounds shall execute a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, payable to the state, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of said office. He shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 7234g.]

Art. 6382. [3822] Removal and liability on bond.—The superintendent of public buildings and grounds may be removed from office at any time by the governor for neglect of duty, incompetency, or other sufficient cause; and he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond for all damages occasioned by the injury or loss of any public property under his care, or resulting from any neglect of duty on his part. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 7234.]

Art. 6383. [3823] Superintendent to have charge of public buildings.—It shall be the duty of the superintendent to have and take charge and control of all public buildings, grounds and property of the state, which may not be used by the different officers of the state government, including the state cemetery, and to properly care for and protect the same from damage, intrusion or improper uses. [Acts of 1884, p. 60.]

Art. 6384. [3824] Duties pertaining to state cemetery.—The superintendent shall also control, superintend and beautify the grounds of the state cemetery. He shall preserve such grounds and everything pertaining thereto from depredation and injury, and shall procure and erect at the head of each grave without a permanent monument an obelisk of marble, on which shall be engraved the name of the deceased therein buried. [Act April 14, 1871, p. 35. P. D. 5885.]

Art. 6385. [3825] Shall file inventory of property.—Upon his qualification, the superintendent shall file in the office of the secretary of state a true and correct inventory of all public personal property committed to his custody, verified by his affidavit, and a like inventory for all additions to such property during his term of office; and on his retirement from office such property shall be delivered to his successor, who shall receipt for the same. [Act April 29, 1874, p. 165, sec. 2.]

Art. 6386. [3826] Diferent public rooms and buildings, under whose control.—The executive mansion, and grounds belonging to the same, and the executive offices in the state capitol, and the rooms therein occupied severally by the secretary of state, the comptroller, the treasurer, the attorney general, the adjutant general, the board of education, the commissioner of agriculture, and other officers shall be under the charge and control of each of said officers occupying or using the same; and the rooms on the third floor wherein are the supreme court library and the rooms used and occupied as the offices of the clerks of the supreme court, court of criminal appeals, and court of civil appeals, shall be under the control and in the charge of the clerks of said courts. [Acts of 1884, p. 60.]

Art. 6387. [3827] Public property to be sold, when.—All property belonging to the state situated or being in the city of Austin, or to any department, board or office of the state, when the same shall become unfit for use or no longer needed, shall be turned over to the said superintendent, who shall sell the same at public auction, after advertising it for not less than five days; and the money arising therefrom, less the expense of advertising and selling, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the department, board or office from which it was obtained, to be expended by the said superintendent for improvements or repairs whenever needed by the said departments, boards or offices, or for the state cemetery. The said superintendent shall make his report in writing to the comptroller, stating articles received, articles sold, to whom and at what price, and also a report showing how said funds were expended. [Id.]

Art. 6388. [3828] Shall have charge of halls, rooms, etc., when.—Said superintendent, during the recess of the legislature, shall have the charge and control of the halls and committee rooms of said capitol, except as hereinbefore provided; and before the assembling of each session of the legislature he shall prepare the different rooms for the uses of the legislature. [Acts of 1884, p. 60.]

Art. 6389. [3829] Not to be used for private purposes.—No room, apartment or office in said building shall at any time be used by any person as a bedroom or for any private purposes whatever; provided, that this article shall not apply to the rooms occupied by the judges of the supreme court and courts of civil and criminal appeals, on the third and fourth floors of the capitol. [Id.]

Art. 6390. [3830] Authority as a policeman.—The watchmen employed about and around the capitol and other buildings and grounds shall have all the powers and authority of a policeman of the city of Austin; and whenever, for the purpose of properly executing the provisions of this law, under the approval of the governor, by the said superintendent, there may arise a conflict with any ordinances or authority granted or given under or by virtue of the charter of the city of Austin, then and in that event so much of the said charter as authorizes the granting of such ordinances or the giving of such authority, be and the same is hereby repealed in so far as they prevent the said superintendent from efficiently performing his duties hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 6391. [3831] Shall frequently inspect all state property.—It shall be the duty of the said superintendent to frequently inspect all the public buildings and property of the state at the capital, and at such other places as the governor may direct; to act as adviser to all state boards in the preparation of specifications and plans for improvements and repairs to public buildings or property of the state, and to superintend the construction of said work, where the same is not otherwise specially provided for by law. The said state boards and departments shall notify the said superintendent of improvements and repairs needed for their respective buildings and offices, and the same shall be made under his direction. He shall also be required to give his special attention to the effective maintenance of the state sewers and their connections, in use at the public buildings, and to keep the same in such sanitary condition at all times as to prevent the dissemination of disease therefrom, and to see that the gas and water pipes, with their connections and appliances, are maintained in working order, ready at any time for immediate use. He shall also be required to prepare and have in his office a copy of the plans of all public buildings and improvements thereto under his charge, showing the exact location of all water, gas and sewerage pipes, so that in case of needed repairs or inspection, their position can be determined without unnecessary expense. [Id.]

Art. 6392. [3832] To make reports.—It shall be the duty of said superintendent to make a report to the governor on the first day of December, biennially, showing the manner in which he has discharged his duties, the improvements and repairs that have been made under his superintendence, with an itemized account of his receipts and expenditures, and the condition of all property under his charge, including an estimate of needed improvements and repairs to same. [Id.]

Art. 6393. [3835] Sheriffs to have charge of court houses.—The sheriffs of the several counties shall have charge and control of the court houses of their respective counties, subject to such regulations as the commissioners' court may prescribe; and the official bonds of such sheriffs shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this article.

Art. 6394. The Alamo.—The part of the old Alamo Mission property purchased by the state, adjoining the building known as the Alamo church, together with the Alamo church, are delivered to the care and custody of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, to be maintained by them in good order and repair, without charge to the state, as a sacred memorial to the heroes who immolated themselves upon that hallowed ground, and, by the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, to be maintained or remodeled upon plans adopted by them, and approved by the governor of Texas; provided, that no changes or alterations shall be made in the Alamo church proper, as it now stands, except such as are absolutely necessary for its preservation; all of said property being subject to future legislation by the legislature of the state of Texas. [Acts 1905, p. 7, sec. 3.]

SAN JACINTO STATE PARK.

	Article.		Article.
Establishing state park on battlefield.....	6395	}	Duties of commissioners.....
Commissioners	6396		6397

Article 6395. Establishing state park on battlefield.—The lands owned and acquired by the state, commonly called the San Jacinto battlefield, shall be known and styled, “The San Jacinto State Park,” and, with the exceptions, reservations and limitations herein mentioned, the said San Jacinto state park shall be under the care and direction of the state superintendent of public buildings and grounds. Said superintendent and the commissioners shall jointly endeavor to improve, preserve and protect the lands and property within and connected with said San Jacinto state park. [Acts 1907, p. 104, sec. 9.]

Art. 6396. Commissioners.—The governor shall, every two years, appoint three resident citizens of the state, who shall be known as “San Jacinto State Park Commissioners,” and whose duties shall be to advise with and assist the superintendent of public buildings and grounds in the improvement, care and preservation of the lands now owned and hereafter acquired by the state, known as the San Jacinto battlefield; provided, that one or more of said commissioners may, in the discretion of the governor, be selected from the patriotic organization known as San Jacinto chapter, daughters of the republic of Texas, or from any kindred organization; provided, further, that said commissioners shall serve without compensation. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6397. Duties of commissioners.—It shall be the duty of said commissioners, acting with the advice and consent of the superintendent of public buildings and grounds, to cause to be erected upon a site by them selected a keeper’s cottage and other necessary buildings; to arrange for or employ a keeper who shall reside upon the grounds and who shall be clothed with all the powers and authority of a peace officer of the county for the purposes of caring for and protecting the property of the state; to provide the necessary teams, implements and other utensils for the use of such keeper and other employes in the work of beautifying, improving and protecting said grounds; to cause to be erected around, about and upon said grounds such fence and fences as shall, in the judgment of the commissioners and superintendent of public buildings and grounds, serve the best interests of the state in the care and protection of its property; to provide for and outline a plan, diagram and design of the work to be done from time to time, copies of which shall be kept in the office of the superintendent for reference, and to do any and all things necessary to be done, with the intent and purpose of beautifying, improving and protecting the state’s interest therein. [Id. sec. 7.]

[Note.—For the acts of the legislature providing for the purchase of the land upon which this park is situated, see twenty-fifth legislature, p. 144; twenty-sixth legislature, p. 6 and p. 238, and thirtieth legislature, p. 104.]

Article 6398. [4343] Quo warranto, when.—In case any person shall usurp, intrude into or unlawfully hold or execute, or is now intruded into, or now unlawfully holds or executes any office or franchise, or any office or any corporation created by the authority of this state, or any public officer shall have done or suffered any act which by the provisions of law works a forfeiture of his office, or any association of numbers of persons shall act within this state as a corporation without being legally incorporated, or any incorporation does or omits any act which amounts to a surrender or a forfeiture of its rights and privileges as a corporation, or exercises power not conferred by law, or if any railroad company doing business in this state shall charge an extortionate rate for the transportation of any freight and passengers, or refuse to draw or carry the cars of any other railroad company over its line as required by the laws of this state, the attorney general, or district or county attorney of the proper county or district, either of his own accord, or at the instance of any individual relator, may present a petition to the district court of the proper county, or any judge thereof, in vacation, for leave to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto in the name of the state of Texas; and, if such court or judge shall be satisfied that there is probable ground for the proceeding, the court or judge may grant the petition and order the information to be filed and process to issue. [Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 43.]

Art. 6399. [4344] Joinder of parties in one action, when.—When it appears to the court or judge that the several rights of divers parties to the same office or franchise may properly be determined on one information, the court or judge may give leave to join all such persons in the same information in order to try their respective rights to such office or franchise. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6400. [4345] Citations to issue.—When the information is filed, as hereinbefore provided, the clerk shall issue citations in like form as in civil suits, commanding the defendant to appear at the return term of said court to answer the relator in an information in the nature of a quo warranto. If the information is filed in vacation, the citation shall be returnable on the first day of the next succeeding term; if in term time, it may be made returnable on any day of the same term, not less than five days after the date of the writ, as shall be directed by the court. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6401. [4346] Proceedings as in civil cases.—Every person or corporation who shall be cited as hereinbefore provided shall be entitled to all the rights in the trial and investigation of the matters alleged against him, as in cases of trial of civil causes in this state; and, in cases of appeal to which either party shall be entitled, the said court shall give preference to such case and hear and determine the same at the earliest day practicable; and all such appeals shall be prosecuted to the term of the court in session, or the first term to be held, if not in session, after judgment has been rendered in the district court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6402. [4347] Judgment of court.—In case any person or corporation against whom any such proceeding is filed shall be adjudged guilty, as charged in the information, the court shall give judgment of ouster against such person or corporation from the office or franchise, and may fine such person or corporation for usurping, intruding into or unlawfully holding and executing such office or franchise, and shall also give judgment in favor of the relator for costs of the prosecution. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6403. [4348] Remedy cumulative.—The remedy and mode of procedure hereby prescribed shall be construed to be cumulative of any now existing. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6404. [4349] Venue of suit for state office.—Suits against persons illegally claiming or holding any state office or appointment, as contradistinguished to a county or district office, shall be brought in the district court of Travis county. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 6405. [4350] Not less than ten persons may form company.—Any number of persons, not less than ten, being subscribers to the stock of any contemplated railroad, may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating such railroad, by complying with the requirements of this chapter. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 141, sec. 1.]

Art. 6406. Who may build railroads.—No corporation, except one chartered under the laws of the state of Texas, shall be authorized or permitted to construct, build, operate, acquire, own or maintain any railway within this state. [Act 1903, p. 90.]

Art. 6407. [4351] Amount of stock which must be subscribed and paid.—No railroad corporation shall be formed until stock to the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of said road so intended to be built shall be in good faith subscribed, and five per cent of the amount subscribed paid in to the directors of such proposed company. [Act 1876, p. 141.]

Art. 6408. [4352] Articles of incorporation shall contain what.—The persons proposing to form a railroad corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain:

1. The name of the proposed corporation.
2. The places from and to which it is intended to construct the proposed railroad, and the intermediate counties through which it is proposed to construct the same; provided, however, that local suburban railways may be constructed for any distance less than ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town, in addition to such mileage as they may have within the same; and in such case the general direction shall be given from the beginning point.

3. The place at which shall be established and maintained the principal business office of the proposed corporation.

4. The time of the commencement and the period of the continuation of the proposed corporation.

5. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation.

6. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation.

7. The names of the members of the first board of directors, and in what officers or persons the government of the proposed corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested.

8. The number and amount of shares in the capital stock of the proposed corporation. [Acts of 1889, p. 17.]

Art. 6409. [4353] Articles shall be submitted to attorney general, etc.—The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the attorney general of the state, whose duty it shall be to carefully examine the same; and, if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and not in conflict with the laws of the United States or of this state, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect. [Acts of 1876, p. 141, sec. 2.]

Art. 6410. [4354] Shall be filed in office of secretary of state.—When said articles have been examined and certified as provided in the preceding article, the same shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, accompanied by an affidavit in writing, signed and sworn to by at least three of the directors named in such articles, before some officer of the state authorized by law to administer oaths, which affidavit shall state that the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of such proposed road has been in good faith subscribed, and that five per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the secretary of state shall cause such articles, together with said affidavit, to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles and return the same to such corporation. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6411. [4355] Existence of corporation begins when.—The existence of such corporation shall date from the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state; and the certificate of the secretary of state, under the seal of the state, shall be evidence of such filing. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6412. [4356] Corporators may proceed to act, when.—When the articles of incorporation have been filed and recorded as herein provided, the persons named as corporators therein shall thereupon become and be deemed a body corporate, and be authorized to proceed to carry into effect the objects set forth in such articles, in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6413. [4357] Corporation shall not be for more than fifty years, etc.—No railroad corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years in the first instance, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time for periods not longer than fifty years, in the manner provided in the succeeding articles. [Id. p. 144, sec. 8.]

Art. 6414. [4358] Manner of renewing corporation.—The manner of renewing a railroad corporation which has expired by lapse of time shall be as follows:

1. By a resolution in writing adopted by a majority of three-fourths of the stockholders of the company at a regular meeting of the stockholders, which resolution shall specify the period of time for which the corporation is renewed.

2. Those desiring a renewal of the corporation shall purchase the stock of those opposed thereto at its current value.

3. The resolution, when adopted, shall be certified to by the president of the company; and he shall state in his certificate thereto that it was adopted by a majority vote of three-fourths of all the stockholders of said company at a regular meeting of such stockholders, and that the stockholders desiring such renewal have purchased the stock of those who oppose such renewal, and such certificate shall be attested by the secretary of the company under the seal of the company.

4. The said resolution and certificate shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and the renewal of said corporation shall date from said filing. [Id.]

Art. 6415. [4359] Where authorized to be sold or conveyed under special law.—Whenever any line or lines of railway or railway properties within this state are by special law authorized to be sold and conveyed, the persons contemplating or engaging for the purchase thereof may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating such line or lines of railway by complying, as far as is applicable, with the requirements of this chapter. In the formation of such corporation, the requirements of article 6407 and so much of article 6410 of the Revised Statutes as relates to the affidavit therein provided for may be dispensed with, and words applicable to the case of a purchase may be used and substituted when necessary or proper, in the articles of incorporation or elsewhere, for or in lieu of words applicable to the building or construction of a railway. And when such corporation has been formed it shall have the power to purchase, acquire, own, maintain and operate such line or lines of railway and properties pertaining thereto, and all rights, powers and privileges given by the laws of this state to railway companies, including the right to complete and extend such line or lines of railway, and to construct branch lines thereto; and any proposed extension or branch lines may be provided for and included in the original articles of incorporation, or the same may, by amendment thereto at any time thereafter, be projected and provided for by such company. [Acts of 1891, p. 128.]

Art. 6416. [4360] Shall take property subject to liens, etc.—Every railroad company organized under the preceding article shall take the property so purchased subject to all incumbrances, judgments, claims, suits, claims for damages and for right of way against the old company and subject to all debts and claims for damages accruing against any receiver who may have been appointed for the old company to the same extent that such property would have been liable in the hands of the railroad company from which it was purchased; and such new company may be made a party to every suit pending against the company from which it purchased, or which may be pending against any receiver of such company, to enforce any right against such new company; and the new company may be sued to enforce any such rights, without joining the old company, or the receiver; and, in case any judgment has been rendered against the company from which the purchase is made, or against a receiver for such last named company, and for which the property is liable, execution may be issued on such judgment against such property in the possession of the new company without any suit therefor. When any corporation shall be formed under the provisions of article 6415, service of process may be had upon any agent of such corporation in any county where suit may be pending. Such service shall bind each and every railroad operated or owned under such charter, in the same manner as if it were one railroad. [Id. sec. 2.]

Article 6417. [4361] Corporation may amend articles, etc.—Any railroad corporation may amend or change its articles or act of incorporation in the manner provided in the following articles of this chapter. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 142, sec. 5.]

Art. 6418. [4362] How amendment, etc., shall be made.—Said amendment or change shall be made in the manner following:

1. It shall be in writing and signed by the president and board of directors of the corporation and attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation.

2. It shall be submitted to the attorney general as in the case of original articles of incorporation, and examined and certified by him in the same manner.

3. It shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

4. In the case of a corporation created by a special act of the legislature, the said amendment or change, together with the original charter and such amendments and changes as have been made by special act of the legislature, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6419. [4363] Shall take effect, when.—Such amendment or change shall be in force from the date of the filing of the same in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6420. [4364] Shall not amend, when.—Where, by the special act or articles of incorporating any railroad company, any privileges, rights or benefits are conferred upon said corporation, such as it could not claim, exercise or receive under this title, or the general laws, then the said corporation shall not be permitted so to amend or change its charter or articles of incorporation as to relieve it from any of the requirements of such special act or acts conferring said privileges, rights or benefits. [Id.]

Art. 6421. [4365] May project, etc., a branch line by amendment.—Any railroad company may, by its original articles of incorporation, or by its amendments to its charter, project and provide for the locating, constructing, owning and operating of branch lines from any points on its main line, or from any points on its branch line, constructed or projected, to any other points making an angle of at least twenty-five degrees in the general course from the main line, if the branch commence from the same; or from the branch line, if it commence at a point on the same; provided, that the same may commence at the terminus of a branch line and continue in its general course; and may, by amendment to its charter, provide for the continuation in its general course of the main line; that any and all amendments of charters, acts or articles of incorporation approved by the attorney general of the state, or his lawful representative, by which any branch railroad or railroads has or have been constructed in accordance with the provisions of this article as herein provided are authorized, validated, sanctioned and confirmed to the same extent as though this article had always read as now amended. [Id. p. 143, sec. 7. Amended act 1901, p. 258.]

Art. 6422. [4366] Branch line shall complete 10 miles first year, etc.—Any such corporation making such amendment to its charter, as is authorized by the preceding article, shall complete and put in good running order at least ten miles of its said branch line in said amendment proposed within one year from the filing of such amendment, and an additional extent of at least twenty miles each and every succeeding year until the entire extent of the projected branch line is completed. [Id.]

Article 6423. [4367] Shall keep offices in this state.—Every railroad company chartered by this state, or owning or operating any line of railway within this state, shall keep and maintain permanently its general offices within the state of Texas at the place named in its charter for the locating of its general offices; and, if no certain place is named in its charter where its general offices shall be located and maintained, then said railroad company shall keep and maintain its general offices at such place within this state where it shall have contracted or agreed, or shall hereafter contract or agree, to locate its general office for a valuable consideration; and, if said railroad company has not contracted or agreed for a valuable consideration to maintain its general office at any certain place within this state, then such general offices shall be located and maintained at such place on its line in this state as said railroad companies may designate to be on its line of railway. And such railroads shall keep and maintain their machine shops and round houses, or either, at such place or places as they may have contracted to keep them for a valuable consideration received; and, if said general offices and shops and round houses, or either, are located on the line of a railroad in a county which has aided said railroad by an issue of bonds in consideration of such location being made, then said location shall not be changed; and this shall apply as well to a railroad that may have been consolidated with another as to those which have maintained their original organization. [Acts of 1889, p. 130, sec. 1.]

Art. 6424. [4368] What officers are to keep offices in this state.—It shall be the duty of said railroad company to keep and maintain at the place within this state where its said general offices are located the office of its president, or vice-president, also the office of its secretary, treasurer, local treasurer, auditor, general freight agent, traffic manager, general manager, general superintendent, general passenger and ticket agent, chief engineer, superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, master of transportation, fuel agent, general claim agent; and each and every one of its general offices shall be so kept and maintained, by whatsoever name it is known, and the persons who perform the duties of said general offices, by whatever name known, shall keep and maintain their offices at the place where the said general offices are required to be located and maintained; and the persons holding said general offices of a railroad shall reside at the place and keep and maintain their offices at the place where the general offices of said railroad are required by law to be kept and maintained; and, if the duties of any of the above named offices are performed by any person, but his position is called by a different name, it is hereby made the duty of the said railroad company to have and maintain said offices at the place where its general Texas offices are kept and maintained, as required by this chapter; provided, that if the judgment of the court shall be to forfeit the charter, then it shall allow the railroad company six months from the date of the judgment within which to comply with the requirements of this chapter, and if said railroad company shall comply with the said time no forfeiture shall occur; but if the railroad company shall not comply then the judgment shall be final; the object and meaning of this statute being to require every railroad company owning or operating a line of railway within this state to keep and maintain its general offices within this state at such place as required herein; and the name of the general offices shall not be understood to allow the railroad company to have any of the offices usually known as general offices at any other place than the one it is required to keep its general offices at; and each and every railroad is hereby required to have and maintain its general offices at the place named herein; provided, further, that where the principal shops of any company are situated on its line in the state, at a place other than the place where its general offices are located, the superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, either or both, may have his office and residence at such place where such principal shops are located; and provided, further, that the railroad commission of Texas, where it is made to appear that any officer, other than the general officers of any company, can more conveniently perform his duties by residing at some place on the line in Texas other than the place where the general offices are situated, may, by an order entered on its record, authorize any such officer to so reside and keep his office at such place. [Acts of 1889, p. 130, sec. 2. Amended act 1899, p. 117.]

Art. 6425. [4369] Forfeiture for violation of, etc.—Each and every railroad company chartered by this state, or owning, operating or controlling any line of railroad within this state, which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the charter by which it operates its railroad in this state to the state of Texas; and it is hereby made the duty of the attorney general of this state, upon the application of any interested party, or on his own motion, to proceed at once against every railroad company owning, operating or controlling any line of railway within this state by quo warranto to forfeit the charter of the railroad company so offending, or violating any of the provisions of this law; [and every such railroad company] shall in addition to forfeiting the charter to that part of the railroad situated within this state be subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars for each and every day it violates any of the provisions of this chapter; said penalty to be recovered in the name of the state of Texas by a suit which shall be filed by the attorney general in any court in this state having jurisdiction; and on the trial the court shall, if it finds that the railroad company has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, render judgment in the name of the state of Texas at the rate of the sum of five thousand dollars for each and every day said court shall find that said railroad company violated any of the provisions of this chapter. And any money recovered from any railroad company under the provisions of this law shall be paid over into the state treasury and become a part of the available public free school fund. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6426. Required to do repair work in Texas.—All railroad corporations operating in the state of Texas, and having their repair shops within the state, shall and are hereby required to repair, renovate, or rebuild in the state of Texas any and all defective or broken cars, coaches, locomotives or other equipment owned or leased by said corporations in the state of Texas, when such rolling stock is within the state of Texas; provided, that such railway shall have, or be under obligation to have, proper facilities in the state to do such work; and provided, this and the two succeeding articles shall not be so construed as to require any railway corporation to violate the safety appliance law of the Congress of the United States; and provided, further, that no railway shall be required to haul such disabled equipment a greater distance for repairs at a point within the state of Texas than would be necessary to reach their repair shops in another state; and provided, further, that no such railway company shall haul, or be permitted to haul for purposes of repair, any disabled equipment by or past any shop owned or operated by any such company where said disabled equipment can be repaired, in order to reach some other repair shop at a greater distance for purposes of repairing said disabled equipment; provided, that the provisions of this and the two succeeding articles shall not apply to companies having less than sixty continuous miles of railroad in operation in this state. [Act 1909, p. 73, sec. 1.]

Art. 6427. Rolling stock, etc., not to be removed for repair.—All such railroad corporations, having their repair shops within the state, shall be prohibited from sending or removing any of their cars, coaches, locomotives or other equipment out of the state of Texas to be repaired, renovated or rebuilt, when the same is in a defective or broken condition and within the state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6428. Not to apply in cases of strikes, fires, etc.—The provisions of the two preceding articles shall not apply in cases of strikes, fires, or other unforeseen casualties and emergencies. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6429. [4370] What books shall contain; open to inspection, etc.—At the public or general offices of the said railroad companies, established as provided for in this chapter, the principal business of said corporation shall be conducted, and stock transferred and claims for damages settled and adjusted by duly authorized officers and agents of said corporations, and where there shall be kept for the inspection of stockholders of such corporation books, in which shall be recorded:

1. The amount of capital stock subscribed.
2. The names of the owners of the stock and the amounts owned by them respectively.
3. The amount of stock paid and by whom.
4. The transfer of stock with the date of the transfer.
5. The amount of its assets and liabilities.
6. The names and places of residence of each of its officers.

Provided, that railroad corporations shall be required to keep such office at some place on the line of its road in this state, as heretofore provided. [Acts of 1885, p. 67.]

Art. 6430. [4371] President shall report, etc.—The president or superintendent of every railroad company doing business in this state shall report annually under oath to the comptroller, or governor, the true status of said railroad, and such other matters and things as may be inquired about by said comptroller, or governor. [Const., art. 10, sec. 3.]

Art. 6431. [4372] Books to be kept where.—The books of such corporation kept at its public office shall at all reasonable business hours be open to the inspection of each stockholder, and to any officer or agent of the state whose duty it may be to inspect such books. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6432. [4373] Legislature may examine.—The legislature may, by committee or otherwise, examine the books of any railroad corporation at such times and as often as may by said legislature be deemed necessary. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6433. [4374] Penalty for failure, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad or other corporation to fail or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter; and, if said railroad or other corporation shall fail to refuse to comply with any part thereof, it shall be liable to pay to the state of Texas the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every month that said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply therewith, said sum to be recovered by the state in any court in this state of competent jurisdiction; provided, that an honest mistake in the entries in its books shall not subject a railroad company to the penalties of this article, if the office of said company shall be kept in this state, as herein provided. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6434. [4375] Duties of attorney general.—It shall be the duty of the attorney general of this state to bring suit against said corporations, and prosecute them to judgment for any violation of the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6435. [4376] May change public office.—Every railroad corporation may change at pleasure its public office by publishing a notice of such change in some newspaper published on the line of its road, if any there be, and, if not, then in some newspaper in the state and having a general circulation in the state, for four successive weeks prior to such a change; provided, however, that the right to make such change shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions herein contained. [Act Feb. 7, 1854. P. D. 4888.]

Art. 6436. [4377] Notice of establishment of public office, in first instance, shall be given.—Every railroad corporation shall also, as soon as it has in the first instance established its public office, give notice of such establishment by a like publication as required in the preceding article.

Art. 6437. [4378] Public office the domicile of the corporation.—The public office of a railroad corporation shall be considered the domicile of such corporation. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 150, sec. 32.]

Article 6438. [4379] Board of directors.—Every railroad corporation shall have a board of directors of not less than seven nor more than nine persons. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 144, sec. 11.]

Art. 6439. [4380] Qualifications of directors.—Each director shall be a stockholder in said corporation; and a majority of said directors shall be resident citizens of this state, and shall so remain resident citizens during their continuance as such directors. [Id. p. 145, sec. 14.]

Art. 6440. [4381] Directors shall be elected by stockholders.—The board of directors shall be elected by the stockholders of the corporation at their regular annual meeting in each year, in such manner as may be prescribed by the by-laws of such corporation, and by this title, and the directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected. [Id. p. 144, sec. 11.]

Art. 6441. [4382] Majority of stock required to elect a director.—It shall require a majority in value of the stock of such corporation to elect any member of such board of directors. [Id. p. 145, sec. 14.]

Art. 6442. [4383] By-laws in regard to election of directors shall not be changed, except, etc.—The by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe the manner and time of electing directors, and the mode of filling a vacancy in the office of director; and such provisions in such by-laws shall not be changed, except at a regular annual meeting of the stockholders, and by a majority in value of the stockholders of such corporation. [Id. p. 144, sec. 11.]

Art. 6443. [4384] Manner of voting for directors.—In all elections for directors of such corporation, every stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy for the number of shares of stock owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he may see fit; and such directors shall not be elected in any other manner. [Id. p. 149, sec. 29.]

Art. 6444. [4385] Failure to hold election for directors.—In case it shall happen at any time that an election of directors shall not be made on the day designated by the by-laws of the corporation for that purpose, the stockholders shall meet and hold an election for directors in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws of the corporation. [Id. p. 145, sec. 14.]

Art. 6445. [4386] Corporate powers vested in directors.—All the corporate powers of every railroad corporation shall be vested in and be exercised by its legally constituted board of directors. [Id. p. 144, sec. 11.]

Art. 6446. [4387] President and other officers.—There shall be a president of the corporation, who shall be chosen from and by the board of directors, and such other subordinate officers as the corporation by its by-laws may designate, who may be elected or appointed, and shall perform such duties and be required to give such security for the faithful performance thereof as the corporation, by its by-laws, shall require. [Id. p. 145, sec. 15.]

Art. 6447. [4388] Majority of directors required to elect or appoint officers.—In all cases, it shall require a majority of the directors to elect or appoint any officer of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6448. [4389] Directors liable when false and fraudulent dividend is declared.—If the directors of any railroad company shall declare and pay any dividend when the company is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts of the company then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted so long as they shall respectively continue in office; provided, that, if any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making the dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall within thirty days thereafter, or after their return, if absent, file a certificate of their absence or objection in writing with the clerk of the company and with the clerk of the county in which the principal office of said company is located, they shall be exempt from said liability. [P. D. 4886.]

Art. 6449. [4390] All the officers liable when false representations are made.—If any certificate or report made, or public notice given, by the officers of any such company, in pursuance of the provisions of this title, shall be false in any material representation, all the officers who shall have signed the same shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company contracted while they are officers or stockholders thereof. [P. D. 4887.]

Article 6453. [4394] Railroad stock is personal estate and transferable.—The stock of a railroad corporation shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation; but no such transfer shall be valid until the same shall have been made on the stock and transfer books of the company; nor shall any share be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been paid. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 145, sec. 17; p. 144, sec. 10.]

Art. 6454. [4395] Directors may require payment of stock, etc.—The directors of such corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner and in such installments as the directors may deem proper. [Id. p. 145, sec. 16.]

Art. 6455. [4396] Sale of stock when owner neglects to pay.—If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment as required by a resolution or order of the board of directors, the said board shall be authorized to advertise said stock for sale by publication once a week for thirty days in some newspaper published on the line of said road, if there be one, and, if not, in some newspaper published in the state having a general circulation in the state; which notice shall name the stock to be sold and the time and place of such sale; and all stock so sold shall be sold at the public office or place of business of such company, and between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., and to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of such sale to be credited to the delinquent stockholder. [Id. p. 145, sec. 16.]

Art. 6456. [4397] Stockholders shall have access to books, etc., of corporation.—All stockholders shall at all reasonable hours have access to and may examine all books, records and papers of such corporation. [Id. p. 145, sec. 13.]

Art. 6457. [4398] Funds of corporation shall be used only for legitimate purposes.—It shall not be lawful for any railroad corporation to use any of the funds thereof in the purchase of its own stock, or that of any other corporation, or to loan any of its funds to any director or other officer thereof, or to permit them, or any of them, to use the same for other than the legitimate purposes of the corporation. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6458. [4399] Extent of stockholder's liability for debts of corporation.—Each stockholder of any railroad corporation shall be held individually liable to the creditors of such corporation to an amount not exceeding the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for any and all debts and liabilities of such corporation until the whole amount of the capital stock of such corporation so held by him shall have been paid. [Id. p. 146, sec. 20.]

Art. 6459. [4400] Persons holding stock who are not liable.—No person holding stock in any railroad corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stockholder of such corporation; but the estate or person owning such stock shall be considered as holding the same and liable as a stockholder accordingly. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 6460. [4401] Capital stock may be increased.—In case the capital stock of any railroad corporation shall be found insufficient for constructing and operating its road, such corporation may, with the concurrence of two-thirds in value of all its stock, increase its capital stock from time to time to any amount required for the purposes aforesaid. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 6461. [4402] Notice of meeting for such increase, etc.—Such increase shall be sanctioned by a vote in person or by written proxy of two-thirds in amount of all the stock of such corporation, at a meeting of such stockholders called by the directors of the corporation for such purpose, by giving notice in writing to each stockholder, to be served personally, or by depositing the same in a postoffice directed to the postoffice addresses of each of said stockholders severally, postage prepaid, at least sixty days prior to the day appointed for such meeting, and also by advertising the time, place and purpose of such meeting in some newspaper published in each county through or into which the said road shall run, or be intended to run, if any newspaper shall be published therein, at least sixty days next preceding the day appointed for such meeting. [Id.]

Art. 6462. [4403] Notice shall state what.—Such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting; the object thereof, and the amount to which it is proposed to increase such capital stock. [Id.]

Art. 6463. [4404] Increase may be not exceeding amount named in notice.—At such meeting, the capital stock of the corporation may be so increased by a vote of two-thirds in amount of the capital stock of the corporation to an amount not exceeding the amount mentioned in the notice so given. [Id.]

Art. 6464. [4405] Order or resolution increasing shall be recorded.—Every order or resolution increasing the capital stock of any such corporation shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state; and such increase shall not take effect until such order or resolution has been so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6465. [4406] President and directors shall furnish statement to stockholders at regular meeting.—At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders, it shall be the duty of the president and directors to exhibit a full, distinct and accurate statement of the affairs of the corporation to the stockholders. [Id. p. 145, sec. 13.]

Art. 6466. [4407] May be required to furnish statement at special meeting.—The stockholders may, at any special meeting of stockholders, require statements similar to the one required by the preceding article from the president and directors, and when so required it shall be the duty of such president and directors to furnish the same. [Id.]

Art. 6467. [4408] Stockholders may fix amount of loans and interest thereon.—At a regular annual meeting of stockholders, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, the stockholders may, by a majority in value of all the stock of such corporation, determine the amount of loans which may be negotiated by such company for the construction of its railway and its equipment, and fix the rate of interest which may be paid, and provide for the security of such loans. [Id.]

Art. 6468. [4409] Stockholders may remove officers and elect others.—The stockholders may, by a two-thirds vote in value of all the stock, at any regular or special meeting of stockholders, remove the president or any director or other officer of such corporation, and elect others instead of those so removed, in accordance with the by-laws of such corporation, and this title. [Id.]

Art. 6469. [4410] No stock shall be issued, except, etc.—No railroad corporation shall issue any stock or bonds, except for money, labor or property actually received and applied to the purpose for which such corporation was organized; nor shall it issue any shares of stock in said company, except at its par value and to actual subscribers who pay or become liable to pay the par value thereof. [Id. p. 148, sec. 25. P. D. 4921.]

Art. 6470. [4411] Fictitious dividends, etc., void.—All fictitious dividends and other fictitious increase of the capital stock or indebtedness of any such corporation shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6471. [4412] Penalty for violation of two preceding articles.—Every officer or director of a railroad company, who shall violate or consent to the violation of either of the two preceding articles, shall become personally liable to the stockholders and creditors of such company for the full par value of such illegal stock, or for the full amount of such fictitious dividends, increase of stock, or indebtedness, as the case may be. [P. D. 4921.]

Article 6472. [4413] Annual meeting of directors.—The directors of every railroad company shall hold one meeting annually at their office in this state, public notice of which shall be given at least thirty days before said meeting, said notice to be published in some daily newspaper printed and published in this state. [Const., art. 10, sec. 3. Acts of 1885, p. 67.]

Art. 6473. [4414] Annual meeting of stockholders.—The stockholders of every railroad corporation shall hold at least one meeting annually at the public office or place of business of such corporation in this state; and it shall be the duty of the board of directors to cause public notice to be given of the time and place of such meeting for thirty days previously thereto, as provided in the preceding article. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 144, sec. 12.]

Art. 6474. [4415] Directors and stockholders may meet at same time and place.—The annual meetings of the board of directors and of the stockholders provided for in the two preceding articles may be called to meet and may be held at the same time and place, in which case one notice shall answer the purpose of both meetings; provided, it be so stated in such notice.

Art. 6475. [4416] Quorum of directors and stockholders.—A majority of the directors of any railroad corporation shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and a majority in value of two-thirds of all the stock owned by such corporation shall constitute a quorum of stockholders to transact business. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6476. [4417] Special meeting of stockholders.—A special meeting of stockholders may be called at any time during the interval between the regular annual meetings of such stockholders by the directors, or by stockholders owning not less than one-fourth of all the stock of such company. [Id.]

Art. 6477. [4418] Notice of special meeting.—When any special meeting of stockholders is called, notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given for at least thirty days prior to the time fixed for such meeting, in the same manner as is required in the case of a regular annual meeting; and such notice shall specify the purpose or purposes for which the said special meeting is called; and no other business shall be transacted at such special meeting, except that specified in such notice. [Id.]

Art. 6478. [4419] If quorum of stockholders should not meet.—If at any meeting of stockholders a majority in value of the stockholders equal to two-thirds of the stock of such corporation shall not be represented in person or by proxy, such meeting shall be adjourned from day to day, not exceeding three days without transaction of any business; and, if within said three days two-thirds in value of such stock shall not be represented at such meeting, then the meeting shall be adjourned and another meeting called, and notice thereof given as hereinbefore provided. [Id. p. 145, sec. 14.]

Art. 6479. [4420] Proxy must be dated within what time.—Every proxy from a stockholder shall be dated within six months previous to the meeting of the stockholders at which it is proposed to vote by virtue thereof, and if not dated within such time shall not be voted. [P. D. 4908.]

Art. 6480. [4421] What stock shall not vote.—Stock issued within thirty days before any stockholders' meeting shall not entitle the holder to vote thereat, except at the first stockholders' meeting under their articles or act of incorporation for organization; nor shall any stock be voted upon, except in proportion to the amount paid thereon, or secured to be paid by good security in addition to the subscription and stock. [P. D. 4923.]

Article 6481. [4422] Right to construct, etc., road anywhere in the state.—Any railroad corporation shall have the right to construct and operate a railroad between any points within this state and to connect at the state line with railroads of other states. [Const., art. 10, sec. 1.]

Art. 6482. [4423] Right of way over public lands.—Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any lands belonging to this state, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land.

Art. 6483. [4424] Lineal survey.—Every railroad corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed railway to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purpose may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damage that may be occasioned thereby. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 147, sec. 23.]

Art. 6484. [4425] May lay out road two hundred feet wide, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its railway, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing the railway, making compensation in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6485. [4426] Right to construct across streams of water, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across, along, or upon any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal which the route of said railway shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal thus intersected or touched to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossing in repair.

Art. 6486. [4427] Opening through fences, etc.—All railway corporations in this state, which have or which may hereafter fence their right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through their fence and over their roadbed along their right of way every one and one-half miles thereof; provided, that, if such fence shall divide any inclosure, that at least one opening shall be made in said fence within such inclosure. [Acts of 1887, p. 39.]

Art. 6487. [4428] Width of crossings.—Such crossings shall not be less than thirty feet in width, and shall be made and kept in such condition as to admit of the free and easy passage of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and all other domesticated animals, wagons and other vehicles.

Art. 6488. [4429] Where may be made.—Such crossings shall be made at such times and places as may be demanded by any two or more citizens of the state who either live or own land within five miles of the place where such crossings may be demanded. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6489. [4430] Demand to be in writing.—Such demand shall be made in writing, of the nearest local agent of such railway company to the place where such crossing or crossings are demanded, and shall state when and where such crossing is desired. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6490. [4431] Thirty days' time for completion.—No railway company shall be required to complete such crossing as may be demanded under this chapter in a shorter time than thirty days from the day on which such demand is first made, nor shall they be required to make any crossings where they have already left such crossings in each one and one-half miles of their road, except inside of inclosures, as provided in article 6486. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6491. [4432] Distance from place.—Any railway company, upon such demand, shall be deemed to have complied therewith upon making such crossings within four hundred yards of the place where they are demanded, within the time herein allowed. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6492. [4433] Failure, etc.—Whenever any railway company shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this chapter, after demand is made in accordance herewith, such railway company shall pay to the persons who made such demand each the sum of five hundred dollars for each and every month they shall so fail or refuse to comply with such demand, the same to be recovered by suit in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the amount. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6493. [4434] Intersections of roads and streets.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to affect the law requiring railroad companies to provide proper crossings at intersection of all roads and streets. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6494. [4435] Crossings of public roads.—It shall be the duty of every railroad company in this state to place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way over or across which any public county road may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public; and, in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed by the overseer of such public road, it shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars for each and every week such railroad company may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved in a suit in the name of the county in which the cause of action accrued. [Acts of 1885, p. 45.]

Art. 6495. [4436] Shall first construct necessary culverts, or sluices.—In no case shall any railroad company construct a roadbed without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices, as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary drainage thereof. [Acts of 1876, p. 147.]

Art. 6496. [4437] Navigable waters shall not be obstructed.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize the erection of any bridge, or any other obstruction across or over any stream or water navigable by steamboats or sail vessels at the place where any bridge, or other obstruction, may be proposed to be placed so as to prevent the navigation of such stream or water. [Id.]

Art. 6497. [4438] Streets, etc., of incorporated cities or towns shall not be taken without, etc.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize the construction of any railroad upon or across any street, alley, square, or highway of any incorporated city or town without the assent of the corporation of said city or town. [Id.]

Art. 6498. [4439] In case of highways, plank roads, etc.—In case of the construction of any railway along highways, plank roads, turnpikes, or canals, such railroad corporation shall either first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having control or jurisdiction of the same or condemn the same under the provisions of law. [Id.]

Art. 6499. [4440] Shall have the right to cross, intersect, etc., other railways.—Such corporation shall have the right to cross, intersect, join and unite its railway with any other railway before constructed at any point on its route and upon the grounds of such other railway corporation, with the necessary turnouts, sidings and switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its connection. [Id.]

Art. 6500. [4441] Intersected railways shall do what.—Every corporation whose railway is or shall be hereafter intersected by any new railway shall unite with the corporation owning such new railway in forming intersections and connections and grant to such new railway facilities therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6501. [4442] When the two corporations can not agree.—If the two corporations can not agree upon the amount of compensation for any such crossing, intersection or connection, or the points and manner of the same, their differences shall be adjusted in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6502. [4443] May enter upon adjacent land and take material, etc.—Any railroad corporation may enter upon and take from any land adjacent to its road earth, gravel, stone, or other materials, except fuel and wood, necessary for the construction of its railway, paying, if the owner of such land and the corporation can agree thereto, the value of such material taken and the amount of damage occasioned to any such land or appurtenances, and, if such owner and corporation can not agree, then the value of such material and the damage occasioned to such real estate may be ascertained, determined and paid in the manner provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 6503. [4444] Value of same and damages shall first be paid.—The value of such material and the damage to such real estate shall in all cases be ascertained, determined and paid before such corporation can enter upon and take such material. [Id.]

Art. 6504. [4445] In case corporation and owner can not agree, etc.—If any railroad corporation shall at any time be unable to agree with the owner for the purchase of any real estate, or the material thereon, required for the purposes of its incorporation or the transaction of its business for its depots, station buildings, machine and repair shops, for the construction of reservoirs for the water supply, or for the right of way, or for new right of way for change or re-location of road bed to shorten the line, or any part thereof, or to reduce its grades, or any of them, which is hereby authorized and permitted, or for any other lawful purpose connected with or necessary to the building, operating, or running its road, such corporation may acquire such property in the manner provided in this chapter; provided, that the limitation in width prescribed in article 6484, shall not apply to real estate, or any interest therein, required for the purposes herein mentioned, other than right of way, and that real estate, or any interest therein, to be acquired for such other purposes or any of them need not adjoin or abut on the right of way; provided, further, that no change of the line through any city or town, or which will result in the abandonment of any station or depot, shall be made, except upon written order of the railroad commission of Texas, authorizing such change; and provided, further, that no railroad corporation shall have the right under this act to condemn any land for the purposes mentioned in this article situated more than two miles from the right of way of such railroad corporation. [Id. p. 146, sec. 21. Amended Act 1901, p. 46.]

Art. 6505. [4446] Shall not enter upon land, etc., except for a lineal survey.—No railroad company shall enter upon, except for a lineal survey, any real estate whatever, the same being private property, for the purpose of taking and condemning the same, or any material thereon, for any purpose whatever, until the said company shall agree with and pay the owner thereof all damages that may be caused to the lands and property of said owner by the condemnation of said real estate and property, and by the construction of such road. [P. D. 4922.]

Art. 6506. [4447] Statement to be filed with county judge.—If such company and said owner can not agree upon the damages, it shall be the duty of said company to state in writing the real estate and property sought to be condemned, the object for which the same is sought to be condemned, the name of the owner thereof and his residence, if known, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such property, or a part thereof, is situated; provided, if the owner resides in either county in which a portion of the land is situated, the same shall be filed in the county of his residence. [Acts of 1885, p. 54.]

Art. 6507. Regular judge disqualified; special judge appointed.—Where any petition or statement for condemnation is presented to a county judge, as provided in the preceding article, and such judge shall be disqualified to act by reason of any of the matters mentioned in article 1736, he shall indorse his certificate of such disqualification upon such petition, or statement for condemnation, and file the same with the county clerk, who shall make a certified copy of such petition, or statement for condemnation, and of such indorsement thereon, and forward the same forthwith to the governor; whereupon the governor shall proceed to appoint some person learned in the law to act as special judge, who shall have and exercise all of the powers conferred upon the county judge by this chapter, and shall proceed to make the appointment of commissioners as provided by the succeeding article upon the said petition or statement for condemnation already filed, and in the event objections shall be filed by either party to the award of commissioners, the person so appointed by the governor shall preside at all trials of the cause in the county court until such time as the disqualification of the county judge may have ceased; provided, that any time before such disqualification is so certified to the governor, the parties by agreement may select such special judge. [Acts 1901, p. 20, sec. 1.]

Art. 6508. [4448] County judge shall appoint commissioners.—Upon the filing of such statement, the county judge shall forthwith, either in term time or in vacation, appoint three disinterested freeholders of said county as special commissioners to assess said damages, giving preference to those that may be agreed on between said corporation and said owner. [Acts of 1860, p. 60.]

Art. 6509. [4449] Commissioners shall be sworn.—The said commissioners shall be sworn by the county judge, or by any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, to assess said damages fairly and impartially and in accordance with law. [Id.]

Art. 6510. [4450] Commissioners shall select a day and place of hearing.—Said commission shall, without delay, appoint a day and place for hearing said parties; and the day appointed shall be the earliest practicable day, and the place selected for such hearing shall be as near as practicable to the property in controversy, or at the county seat of the county in which the property is situated. [Id.]

Art. 6511. [4451] Shall issue written notice to parties.—The commissioners shall issue a notice in writing to each of the parties, notifying them of the time and place selected for the hearing. [Id.]

Art. 6512. [4452] Manner of serving notice.—Said notice shall be served upon said parties at least five days before the day of hearing, exclusive of the day of service, and shall be served by delivering a copy of the same to the party, his agent or attorney, and may be served by any person competent to testify.

Art. 6513. [4453] Return of notice.—The person making such service shall return the original notice to said commissioners, or any one of them, on or before the day set for the hearing, with his return in writing thereon, stating how and when the same was served.

Art. 6514. [4454] When the property belongs to estate or to a minor, notice shall be served on whom.—When the property in controversy is the property of the estate of a deceased person, or of a minor, and such estate has a legal representative, or such minor has a guardian, the notice shall be served upon such legal representative, or guardian. [Id.]

Art. 6515. [4455] Property of non-resident, unknown owner, or one who secretes himself.—When the property in controversy belongs to a non-resident of this state, or to an unknown person, or to a person whose residence is unknown, or who secretes himself so that the process of law can not be served upon him, such notice may be served upon such owner by publication in the same manner as is provided for service of citation in article 1874 of the Revised Civil Statutes. [Acts of 1885, p. 54; amend, 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 83, p. 482.]

Art. 6516. [4457] Proceedings of commissioners.—When service of notice has been perfected, the commissioners shall, at the time and place appointed, or at any other time and place to which said hearing has been adjourned, proceed to fully hear said parties; but, if upon the day set for the hearing, the service of notice has not been perfected the said hearing shall be postponed from time to time until such service has been perfected.

Article 6517. [4458] Power of commissioners.—Said commissioners for the purpose mentioned in this chapter shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of testimony, and to administer oaths and punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district or county court.

Art. 6518. [4459] Rule of damages.—Said commissioners shall hear evidence as to the value of the property sought to be condemned, and as to the damages which will be sustained by the owner thereof by reason of such condemnation, and as to the benefits that will result to the remainder of such property belonging to such owner, if any, by the construction and operation of such railroad, and shall according to this rule assess the actual damage that will accrue to such owner by said condemnation.

Art. 6519. [4406] Same subject.—When the whole of a person's real estate is condemned, the damages to which he shall be entitled shall be the market value thereof in the market in which the same is located.

Art. 6520. [4461] Same subject.—When only a portion of a person's real estate is condemned, the commissioners shall estimate the injuries sustained and the benefits received thereby by the owner as to the remaining portion of such real estate; whether such remaining portion is increased or diminished in value by such condemnation, and the extent of such increase or diminution, and shall assess the damages accordingly.

Art. 6521. [4462] Injuries and benefits which shall not be estimated.—In estimating either the injuries or the benefits, as provided in the preceding article, those injuries or benefits which the owner of such real estate sustains or receives in common with the community generally, and which are not peculiar to him and connected with his ownership, use and enjoyment of the particular parcel of land, shall be altogether excluded from such estimate.

Art. 6522. [4463] Assessment shall be in writing, dated, signed, etc.—When the said commissioners shall have assessed the damages, they shall reduce their decision to writing, stating therein the amount of damages due to the owner of such real estate, if any be found to be due, and shall date the same and sign it, and shall file the said assessment, together with all other papers connected with the case, with the county judge without delay.

Art. 6523. [4464] Other commissioners may be appointed, when.—Should the said commissioners, or either of them, from any cause be unable or fail to act as such, the county judge may at any time appoint another commissioner or commissioners to supply the place or places of those who are unable or who fail to act.

Art. 6524. [4465] Pay of commissioners.—Commissioners appointed under this chapter shall be entitled to receive for their services three dollars each for every day they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such commissioners, and they may withhold their decision until their said fees are paid to them.

Art. 6525. [4466] Corporation shall pay expenses of serving notice.—The railroad company seeking to condemn property shall defray all expenses of serving notice upon the owner of such property, but shall be entitled to recover said expenses from such owner in case it shall be decided that said owner shall pay the costs of the proceeding.

Art. 6526. [4467] Commissioners shall make out cost bill, etc.—The commissioners may adjudge the costs against either party, and shall make out a statement in writing of all the costs which have accrued before them, and shall state therein against which party the said costs have been adjudged, and shall sign the same and deliver it, with the other papers of the cause, to the county judge.

Art. 6527. [4468] Either party, if dissatisfied with decision, may remove cause, etc.—If either party be dissatisfied with the decision of such commissioners, he may, within ten days after the same has been filed with the county judge, file his opposition thereto in writing, setting forth the particular cause or causes of his objection; and thereupon the adverse party shall be cited, and said cause shall be tried and determined as in other civil causes in said court. [P. D. 4922.]

Art. 6528. [4469] Decision shall be made the judgment of the court, when.—If no objections are filed to such decision within the time prescribed in the preceding article, the county judge shall cause the said decision to be recorded in the minutes of his court, and shall make the same the judgment of said court, and may issue the necessary process to enforce the same.

Art. 6529. [4470] How costs awarded.—The costs of the proceedings before the commissioners and in the court shall be determined as follows, to-wit: If the said commissioners shall award greater damages than the said company offered to pay before the proceedings commenced, or if objections are filed to the decision in the county court under the provisions of this chapter, and the judgment of the court is for a greater sum than the amount awarded by the commissioners, then the said company shall pay all costs; but if the amount awarded by said commissioners as damages, or if the judgment of the county court shall be for the same or less amount of damages than the amount offered by the company before proceedings were commenced, then the costs shall be paid by the owner of the property. [Id.]

Art. 6530. [4471] Damages must be paid before property is taken.—In no case shall such corporation be entitled to enter upon and take the property condemned, without first having paid whatever amount of damages and costs may have been awarded or adjudged against it by such commissioners, or deposited money to cover the same in the court wherein such condemnation proceedings are pending. But if the plaintiff in the condemnation proceedings should desire to enter upon and take possession of the property sought to be condemned, pending litigation, it may do so at any time after the award of the commissioners, upon the following conditions, to-wit:

First. It shall pay to the defendant the amount of damages awarded or adjudged against it by the commissioners, or deposit the same in money in court, subject to the order of the defendant, and also pay the costs awarded against it.

Second. In addition thereto, it shall deposit in said court a further sum of money equal to the amount of the damages awarded by the commissioners, and which shall be held, together with the award itself, should it be deposited in court instead of being paid, exclusively to secure all damages that may be awarded or adjudged against the plaintiff; and it shall also execute a bond with two or more good and solvent sureties, to be approved by the judge of the court in which such condemnation proceedings are pending, conditioned for the payment of any further costs that may be adjudged against it, either in the court below or upon appeal.

Third. Should it be determined on final decision of the case that the right to condemn the property in question does not exist, the plaintiff shall surrender possession thereof, if he has taken possession pending litigation, and the court shall so adjudge and order a writ of possession for the property in favor of the defendant, and the court may also inquire what damages, if any, have been suffered by the defendant by reason of the temporary possession of the plaintiff, and order the same paid out of the award or other money deposited; provided, that in any case where the award paid the defendant or appropriated by him exceeds the value of the property as determined by the final judgment, the court shall adjudge the excess to be returned to the plaintiff.

If the cause should be appealed from the decision of the county court, the appeal shall be governed by the same law as in other cases; except the judgment of the county court shall not be suspended thereby. The rules hereinbefore laid down for governing railroad corporations shall likewise apply to all persons and corporations having the right of eminent domain. [Const., art. 1, sec. 17. Amended Act 1899, p. 105.]

Art. 6531. [4472] Practice in case specified.—When any railroad company is sued for any property occupied by it for railroad purposes, or for damages thereto, the court in which such suit is pending may determine all matters in dispute between the parties, including the condemnation of the property, upon petition or cross-bill asking such remedy by defendant, but the plea for condemnation shall be an admission of the plaintiff's title to such property. [Acts of 1889, p. 18.]

Art. 6532. [4473] The right of way, how construed.—The right of way secured or to be secured to any railway company in this state, in the manner provided by law, shall not be so construed as to include the fee simple estate in lands, either public or private, nor shall the same be lost by the forfeiture or expiration of the charter, but shall remain subject to an extension of the charter or the grant of a new charter over the same way without a new condemnation. [Act Feb. 7, 1861, p. 12.]

Art. 6533. [4474] Right of way reserved out of lands granted to railroad companies.—The right of way is hereby reserved to any railroad companies incorporated by the laws of this state, or that may hereafter be so incorporated, to the extent of one hundred feet on each side of said road, or roads that cross over, or extend through any lands granted, or that may be hereafter granted, to any railroad company by the legislature, with the right to take from the lands so granted such stone, timber and earth as such road may need in the construction of its line of road. [P. D. 7389a.]

Art. 6534. [4475] Right of way vested by judgment of the court.—Whenever the right of way has been acquired, as hereinbefore provided, the judgment of the court shall vest such right in the company so acquiring the same.

Article 6535. [4476] Shall have succession, etc.—All railroad corporations shall have succession, and in their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 142, sec. 4.]

Art. 6536. [4477] May have a seal.—Any such corporation may have and use a seal, which it may alter at pleasure. [Id.]

Art. 6537. [4478] Shall have the right to purchase and hold lands and other property.—Any railroad company shall have the right to purchase, hold and use all such real estate and other property as may be necessary for the construction and use of its railway and the stations and other accommodations necessary to accomplish the objects of its incorporation, and to convey the same when no longer required for the use of such railway. [Id. p. 143, secs. 6, 23.]

Art. 6538. [4479] Shall have the right to receive and hold grants, etc.—Such corporations shall have the right to take, hold and use such voluntary grants of real estate and other property as shall be made to it in aid of the construction and use of its railway, and to convey the same when no longer required for the uses of such railway, in any manner not incompatible with the terms of the original grant. [Id.]

Art. 6539. [4480] Shall alienate lands, except, etc.; forfeiture.—All lands acquired by railroad companies under the provisions of this chapter, or any general laws, shall be alienated by said companies, one-half in six years, and one-half in twelve years, from the issuance of patents to the same, and all lands so acquired by railroad companies, and not alienated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the state and become a part of the public domain and liable to location and survey as other unappropriated lands. All lands purchased by or donated to a railroad corporation, except such as are used for depot purposes, reservations for the establishment of machine shops, turn-outs and switches, shall be alienated and disposed of by said company in the same manner and time as is required when lands have been received from the state. [Id.; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 84, p. 482.]

Art. 6540. [4481] Preceding articles to apply to all companies.—The three preceding articles shall apply to such corporations as are prohibited by their acts of incorporation from purchasing or receiving donations of land, as well as to those corporations that are not so prohibited. [Id. p. 143, sec. 6.]

Art. 6541. [4482] Right to convey persons and property.—Such corporation shall have the right to receive and convey persons and property on its railway by the power and force of steam or by any mechanical power. [Id. p. 147, sec. 23.]

Art. 6542. [4483] Right to erect and maintain buildings, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to erect and maintain all necessary and convenient buildings and stations, fixtures and machinery for the accommodation and use of passengers, freights and business interests, or which may be necessary for the construction or operation of its railway; but no railway company shall have the power, either by its own employes or other persons, to construct any buildings along the line of their railroad to be occupied by their employes or others, except at their respective depot stations and section houses, and at such places only such buildings as may be necessary for the transaction of their legitimate business operations, and for shelter for their employes, nor shall they use, occupy or cultivate any part of the right of way over which their respective roads may pass, with the exception aforesaid, for any other purpose than the construction and keeping in repair their respective railways. [Id.]

Art. 6543. [4484] Right to regulate time, etc., of transportation.—Such corporation shall have the right to regulate the time and manner in which passengers and property shall be transported, and the compensation to be paid therefor, subject nevertheless to the provisions of this or any other law that may hereafter be enacted. [Id.]

Art. 6544. [4486] Right to borrow money, issue bonds, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right, from time to time, to borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing, improving or operating its railway, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchise to secure the payment of any debt contracted by such corporation for the purposes aforesaid, subject, however, to other provisions of this title. [Id. p. 147, sec. 23.]

Art. 6545. [4487] Mortgage invalid, unless, etc.—No mortgage by such corporation shall be valid, unless authorized by a resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the stock of such company, after notice in a manner provided in this title for increasing the capital stock of such corporations. [Id.]

Art. 6546. [4488] Resolution authorizing mortgage shall be recorded.—When any such resolution has been adopted in the manner provided in the preceding article, it shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and no such resolution shall take effect until so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6547. [4489] Directors may pay bonds with stock.—The directors shall be empowered, in pursuance of any such resolution, to confer on any holder of any bond for money so borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal of such bond into the stock of such corporation at any time not exceeding ten years after the date of such bond, under such regulations as may be provided in the by-laws of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6548. [4490] When terminus on coast is destroyed.—Any railway company in the state of Texas having a terminus on the coast, the said terminus being a county site, and the same having been destroyed by storms and cyclones, and when said county site has been removed back from the coast near the line of said railway, it shall be lawful for said railway company to remove and take up its track from its original terminus on the coast to a point opposite or near said new county site; provided, said railway company make its terminus at and build its road to said new county site. [Acts of 1887, p. 6.]

Article 6549. [4491] Road shall pass through county seat, when.—No railroad hereafter constructed in this state shall pass within a distance of three miles of any county seat without passing through the same and establishing and maintaining a depot therein, unless prevented by natural obstacles, such as streams, hills or mountains; provided, such town or its citizens shall grant the right of way through its limits and sufficient ground for ordinary depot purposes. [Const., art. 10, sec. 9.]

Art. 6550. [4492] Shall survey 25 miles of road, locate depot, etc.—Every railroad company organized under this title shall make an actual survey of its route or line for a distance of twenty-five miles on its projected route, and shall designate the depot grounds along said first twenty-five miles before the roadbed is begun; and no railroad company shall change its route or depot grounds after the same have been so designated. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 142, sec. 5.]

Art. 6551. [4493] Subsequent survey of each twenty-five miles of road.—Every railroad company organized under this title shall, on the completion of the first twenty-five miles of its roadbed, make a survey of the next twenty-five miles, and of each subsequent twenty-five miles as the preceding twenty-five miles shall be completed, and every subsequent twenty-five miles shall be controlled by the provisions applicable to the first twenty-five miles of the road. [Id.]

Art. 6552. [4494] Trains to be regular, and notice to be given.—Every such corporation shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodations for the transportation of all such passengers and property as shall, with a reasonable time previous thereto, offer or be offered for transportation at the place of starting and at junctions of other roads and at sidings and stopping places established for receiving and discharging way passengers and freights, and shall take, transport and discharge such passengers and property at, from, and to such places, on the due payment of the tolls, freight or fare legally authorized therefor. Failure on the part of railroad companies to comply with the requirements of this article shall be deemed an abuse of their rights and privileges and subject to regulation and correction by the railroad commission. [P. D. 4893. Amended act 1903, 1 S. S., p. 21.]

Art. 6553. Train dispatcher, to maintain, and duties of.—And every such railroad corporation operating trains in this state shall employ a competent train dispatcher, whose duty it shall be to keep informed of the movement of all trains upon the lines of such railroad corporation. Said train dispatcher shall also keep all agents at stations having telegraph offices in or near them informed of the movement of all passenger trains thirty minutes prior to the time such passenger train or trains are due, according to the published schedules at such stations; and, if such train dispatcher fails or refuses to furnish the information concerning the movement of trains to agents as required herein, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished as may be provided by law. [Act 1903, 1 S. S., p. 21.]

Art. 6554. [4496] Refusal to transport passenger or property.—In case of the refusal by such corporation or their agents so to take and transport any passenger or property, or to deliver the same, or either of them, at the regular appointed time, such corporation shall pay to the party aggrieved all damages which shall be sustained thereby, with costs of suit; and in case of the transportation of property shall in addition pay to such party special damages at the rate of five per cent per month upon the value of the same at the time of shipment, for the negligent detention thereof beyond the time reasonably necessary for its transportation; provided, that in all suits against such corporation under this law the burden of proof shall be on such corporations to show that the delay was not negligent. [Acts of 1887, p. 116.]

Art. 6555. [4502a] Double-decked cars for sheep, etc.—All railroad companies operating any railroad, or any part thereof, within the limits of this state, are required to provide cars with double decks for the shipment of sheep, goats, hogs and calves; the said cars must be in every way as large as those now in use upon the respective roads of this state; the distance between the floor and the second deck shall be the same as the distance between said second deck and the roof; the floor of said second deck shall be so constructed as to protect the animals beneath; and said cars must be furnished by the railroad company to any person who shall offer to ship at one time hogs, sheep, goats, or calves, in carload lots. [Acts of 1887, p. 57, sec. 1; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 483, No. 88.]

Art. 6556. [4502b] Rates of freight; penalty.—It shall not be lawful for any railroad company to charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, goats, hogs, or calves than is charged for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses the same distance, and in the same direction; and any railroad company that shall fail or refuse to furnish double-decked cars of the dimensions prescribed in the preceding article to any person who may wish to ship as much as a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, or shall charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, than for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses for the same distance and in the same direction, shall be liable to pay to the owner or shipper of said sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that if any railroad companies shall transport sheep, hogs, goats, and calves, on single-decked cars at one-half the price per carload charged for shipping horses, or other cattle, then the penalties prescribed in this article for failure to provide double-decked cars shall be inoperative. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6557. Shall not collect more than specified in the bill of lading.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company in this state, its officers, agents or employes, to charge and collect, or to endeavor to charge and collect, from the owner, agent or consignee of any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, a greater sum for transporting said freight, goods, wares and merchandise than is specified in the bill of lading. [Act 1899, p. 70.]

Art. 6558. Freight to be delivered on payment of charges.—Any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes, having possession of any goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, shall deliver the same to the owner, his agent or consignee, upon payment of the freight charges, as shown by the bill of lading. [Id.]

Art. 6559. Penalty for refusal to deliver freight.—Any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes that shall refuse to deliver to the owner, agent or consignee, any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, upon the payment, or tender of payment, of the freight charges due as shown by the bill of lading, the said railroad company shall be liable in damages to the owner of said freight, goods, wares and merchandise, to an amount equal to the amount of freight charges, for every day said freight, goods, wares and merchandise is held after payment, or tender of payment, of the charges due as shown by the bill of lading, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 6560. [4503] Conductor, etc., shall wear badge.—Every conductor, baggage master, engineer, brakeman, or other servant of such railroad corporation employed in a passenger train, or at stations for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office and the initial letters of the style of the corporation by which he is employed. [P. D. 4891.]

Art. 6561. [4504] Without badge shall not receive fare, etc.—No conductor or collector without such badge shall demand or be entitled to receive from any passenger any fare, toll, ticket, or exercise any of the powers of his office, and no other of the said officers or servants, without such badge, shall have any authority to meddle or interfere with the passengers, their baggage or property. [Id.]

Art. 6562. [4505] Baggage shall be checked, etc.—A check shall be affixed to every package or parcel of baggage when taken for transportation by the agent or servant of such corporation, and a duplicate thereof given to the passenger or person delivering the same on his behalf; and, if such check be refused on demand, the corporation shall pay to such passenger the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt; and, further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger; and, if such passenger shall have paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the train. [P. D. 4895.]

Art. 6563. [4506] Signs shall be erected at cross-roads, etc.—Such corporations shall erect at all points where its road shall cross any first or second class public road, at a sufficient elevation from such public road to admit of the free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railroad and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for the cars; and any company neglecting or refusing to erect such signs shall be liable in damages for all injuries occurring to persons or property from such neglect or refusal. [P. D. 4890.]

Art. 6564. [4507] Bell and steam whistle; duty as to.—A bell of at least thirty pounds weight and a steam whistle shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and the whistle shall be blown and the bell rung at the distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, and such bell shall be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such public road, or stopped; and each locomotive engine approaching a place where two lines of railway cross each other, shall, before reaching such railway crossing, be brought to a full stop; and any engineer having charge of such engine, and neglecting to comply with any of the provisions of this article, shall be punished for such neglect as provided in the Penal Code; and the corporation operating such railway shall be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of any such neglect; provided, however, that the full stop at such crossings may be discontinued when the railroads crossing each other shall put into full operation at such crossing an interlocking switch and signal apparatus, and shall keep a flagman in attendance at such crossing. [Acts of 1883, p. 28; amend. 1893, p. 87.]

Art. 6565. Duty to equip with electric headlights.—It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation, or receiver or lessee thereof, operating any line of railroad in this state, to equip all locomotive engines used in the transportation of trains over said railroad with electric headlights of not less than fifteen hundred candle power, measured without the aid of a reflector, or other headlights of not less than fifteen hundred candle power, measured without the aid of a reflector; provided, that this article shall not apply to locomotive engines regularly used in the switching of cars or trains. [Acts 1907, p. 54, sec. 1.]

Art. 6566. Penalty for failure.—Any railroad company or the receiver or lessee thereof, doing business in the state of Texas, which shall violate the provisions of the preceding article, shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalties shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of the state of Texas, in a court of proper jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the attorney general, or by the county or district attorney in any county, in or through which such line of railroad may be operated; and such suits shall be subjected to the provisions of article 6673. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6567. Shall keep lighted from sunset to sunrise, except, etc.—It shall be the duty of every railway corporation operating any line of railway in the state of Texas to place and maintain good and sufficient switch lights on all their main line switches connected with the main line, and to keep the same lighted from sunset until sunrise; provided, that this article shall not apply to railways which have all their locomotives equipped with electric headlights. [Act 1905, p. 77, sec. 1.]

Art. 6568. Shall place derailing switches on sidings, when, etc.—It shall be the duty of every railway corporation operating any line of railway in the state of Texas to place and maintain good and safe derailing switches on all of their sidings connecting with the main line of such railway, and upon which sidings cars are left standing; provided, that no derailing switches shall be required where the siding connects with main line on an up grade in the direction of the main line of one-half of one per cent or over; provided, further, that no derailing switches shall be required on inside tracks at terminal points where regular switching crews are employed. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6569. Penalty.—Any railway corporation which shall wilfully violate any of the provisions of the two preceding articles shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalty shall be recovered and suits therefor be brought by the attorney general, or under his direction, in the name of the state of Texas, in Travis county, or in any county through which such railway may run or be operated; and such suits shall be subject to the provisions of article 6673; provided, the provisions of article 6567 shall not apply on railroad lines or divisions on which no trains are regularly run or operated at night. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6570. [4508] Passenger trains, how formed.—In forming a passenger train, baggage, or freight, or merchandise, or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of passenger cars; and if they or any of them shall be so placed and any accident happen to life or limb, the officer or agent who so directed or knowingly suffered such arrangement and the conductor and engineer of the train shall each and all be held guilty of intentionally causing the injury, and be punished accordingly. [P. D. 4896.]

Art. 6571. [4517] Brakes and brakeman.—Every such company shall have a good and sufficient brake upon the hindmost car on all trains transporting passengers and merchandise, and also permanently stationed there a trusty and faithful brakeman, under a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered by suit in the name of the state. [P. D. 4907.]

Art. 6572. Passenger trains without full crew, unlawful to run.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, doing business in the state of Texas, to run over its road, or part of its road, outside of the yard limits, any passenger train with less than a full passenger crew consisting of four persons, one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and one brakeman. [Act 1909, p. 179, sec. 1.]

Art. 6573. Freight, etc., trains, without full crew, unlawful to run.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, doing business in the state of Texas, to run over its road, or part of its road, outside the yard limits, any freight train, gravel train or construction train with less than a full crew consisting of five persons, one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and two brakemen. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6574. Light engine without full crew, unlawful to run.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, doing business in the state of Texas, to run over its road, or part of its road, outside of the yard limits, any light engine without a full train crew consisting of three persons, one engineer, one fireman and one conductor; provided, that nothing in the two preceding articles shall be construed as applying in the case of disability of one or more of any train crew while out on the road between division terminals, or to switching crews in charge of yard engines, or which may be required to push trains out of yard limits. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6575. Penalty and venue of suits.—Any railroad company, or any receiver of any railroad company, doing business in the state of Texas, which shall violate any of the provisions of the three preceding articles shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of the state of Texas in a court of proper jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the attorney general, or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any county [in], or through which such line of railroad may be operated; and such suits shall be subject to the provisions of article 6673. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6576. To what articles apply.—The provisions of the four preceding articles shall not apply to or include any railroad company, or receiver or manager thereof, of any line of railroad in this state, less than twenty miles in length. [Id. sec. 4a.]

Art. 6577. Certain kind of ash pans required.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, engaged in moving commerce in the state of Texas by railroad, to use in moving such commerce in said state any locomotive not equipped with an ash pan which can be dumped or emptied and cleaned without the necessity of any employe going under such locomotive. [Act 1909, p. 67, sec. 1.]

Art. 6578. Penalty; evidence; venue of suits.—Any such common carrier using any locomotive in violation of the provisions of the preceding article shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars and of not more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalty shall be recovered, and suit brought in the name of the state of Texas, in any court of proper jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, or in any county into or through which such carrier may be operating a line of railroad, by the attorney general, or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any such county. The rules of evidence in suits arising under this article shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions; and the same compensation shall be allowed to the attorney bringing such suit as is provided in article 6673 of the Revised Statutes of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6579. "Common carrier" defined.—The term, "common carrier," as used in the two preceding articles, shall include the receiver or receivers, or other persons or corporations charged with the duty of managing and operating the business of a common carrier. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6580. Articles do not apply.—Nothing contained in the three preceding articles shall apply to any locomotive upon which, by reason of the use of oil, electricity or other such agency, an ash pan is not necessary. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6581. Shall provide suitable places for employes to work.—Every person, corporation, or receiver, engaged in constructing or repairing railroad cars, trucks or other railroad equipment, shall erect and maintain a building or shed at every station or other point where as many as five men are regularly employed on such repair work, the building or shed to cover a sufficient portion of its track so as to provide that all men regularly employed in the construction and repair of cars, trucks, or other railroad equipment shall be sheltered from rain and protected from other inclement weather. The provisions of this article shall not apply at points where less than five men are regularly employed in the repair service, nor at division terminals, or other points where it is necessary to make light repairs only on cars, nor to cars loaded with time or perishable freight, nor to cars when trains are being held for the movement of said cars. [Act 1910, p. 123, sec. 1.]

Art. 6582. Penalty.—Any person, corporation, or receiver who shall violate the provisions of the foregoing article shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty in any sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and each ten days of such failure or refusal to so comply shall be considered a separate infraction authorizing the recovery of a separate penalty; provided, however, that all persons, corporations, or receivers, affected by the preceding article, shall have until June 1, 1911, within which to comply with the provisions thereof. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6583. Suits; fees of attorneys.—Suit for recovery of penalties hereunder shall be brought by the attorney general of this state or by the county or district attorney of the county in which suit is brought, and the county or district attorney, as the case may be, shall receive a fee of ten per cent upon each penalty recovered and collected by him, and said fee shall be over and above the fee allowed him by law at this time, and over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill in force in this state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6584. Employees limited to sixteen hours labor.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, operating any line of railroad in whole or in part in this state, or any officer, or agent of such railroad company or receiver to require or permit any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours; and whenever any such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours, he shall be relieved and shall not be required or permitted again to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty; and no such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty. [Act 1909, p. 180, sec. 1.]

Art. 6585. Penalties, suits for, venue, etc.—Any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad, operating a line of railroad in whole or in part in this state, or any officer or agent of such railroad or receiver who shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding article shall be liable to a penalty of not to exceed five hundred dollars for each and every violation; and any such penalty shall be recovered and suit therefor shall be brought in the name of the state of Texas in any court having jurisdiction of the amount, in Travis county, or in any county into or through which said railroad may pass. Any suit or suits to recover a penalty or penalties for violating any of the provisions of the preceding article may be brought either by the attorney general, or under his direction, or by the county attorney or district attorney of any county or judicial district into or through which said railroad may pass, and such attorney bringing any such suit or suits shall be entitled to compensation of one-third of any penalty or penalties recovered therein. In all prosecutions under this and the preceding article against any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, such company or receiver shall be deemed to have had knowledge of all acts of all of its officers and agents; provided, that the provisions of this and the preceding article shall not apply in any case of casualty or unavoidable accident, or the act of God; nor where the delay was the result of a cause not known to the carrier or its officer or agent in charge of any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman at the time such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman left a terminal, and which act could not have been foreseen; provided, further, that the provisions of this and the preceding article shall not apply to crews of wrecking or relief trains. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6586. Railroad telegraph and telephone operators, eight hours a day work.—It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or association, operating a railroad within this state, to permit any telegraph or telephone operator who spaces trains by the use of the telegraph or telephone under what is known and termed, "Block System," defined as follows: Reporting trains to another office or offices, or to a train dispatcher operating one or more trains under signals, and telegraph or telephone levermen who manipulate interlocking machines in railroad yards, or on main tracks out on the lines connecting side tracks or switches, or train dispatchers in its service whose duties substantially, as hereinbefore set forth, pertain to the movement of cars, engines or trains on its railroad by the use of the telegraph or telephone, in dispatching or reporting trains, or receiving or transmitting train orders, as interpreted in this article, to be on duty for more than eight hours in any twenty-four consecutive hours; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to railroad telegraph or telephone operators at stations where the services of only one operator is needed. [Act 1907, p. 222, sec. 1.]

Art. 6587. Penalty, suit, and disposition of funds.—Any violation of the preceding article by any person, corporation or association, shall subject him or it to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each violation thereof, to be recovered by an action of debt in the name of the state of Texas for the use of the state; said action to be instituted in any court of the state having appropriate jurisdiction; and the penalty, when so recovered, shall be paid into the public school fund of the state of Texas. [Id. secs. 2, 4 and 5.]

Art. 6588. [4518] Shall carry U. S. mails, and compensation therefor.—Every such corporation shall, when applied to by the postmaster-general, convey the mail of the United States on its road or roads; and in case such corporation shall not agree as to the rate of transportation therefor, and as to the time, rate of speed, manner and condition of conveying the same, it shall be lawful for the governor to appoint three commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after fifteen days' notice in writing of the time and place of meeting, to the corporation, shall determine and fix the prices, terms and condition aforesaid; but such price shall not be less for conveying such mails in the regular passenger trains than the amount which such corporation would receive as freight on a like weight of merchandise transported in their merchandise trains, and a fair compensation for the postoffice car; and in case the postmaster-general shall require the mail to be carried at other hours, or at a higher speed than the passenger train be run at, the corporation shall furnish an extra train for the mail and be allowed an extra compensation for the expenses and wear and tear thereof, and for the services, to be fixed as aforesaid. [P. D. 4903.]

Art. 6589. [4519] Station depots shall be erected, etc.—Each and every railroad company is hereby required to erect at each and every depot, station or place established by such company for the reception and delivery of freight, suitable buildings or inclosures to protect produce, goods, wares and merchandise and freight of every description from damage by exposure to the weather, stock or otherwise; in default of which such railroad company shall be liable to the owner of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise for the amount of damages or loss sustained by reason of such improper exposure, together with all costs and expenses of recovering the same, including necessary attorney's fees. [P. D. 4923.]

Art. 6590. [4520] No storage to be charged, except, etc.—Railroad companies shall in no case be allowed to charge storage upon freight received by them for delivery, unless the owner or consignee thereof neglect to remove it from the depot of the company within three days after notice of its reception; which notice may be given by posting the same on the depot door; and, after the expiration of such time, the company may remove and store said freight at the expense of the owner or consignee, and said freight shall be held liable for the freight and charges due thereon. [P. D. 4923.]

Art. 6591. [4521] Passenger depots opened, lighted, warmed, etc.; penalty for failure.—Every railroad company doing business in this state shall keep its depots or passenger houses in this state lighted and warmed, and open to the ingress and egress of all passengers who are entitled to go therein, for a time not less than one hour before the arrival and after the departure of all trains carrying passengers on such railroad; and every such railroad company, for each failure or refusal to comply with the provisions of this article, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas the sum of fifty dollars, which may be sued for and recovered in the name of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall be liable to the party injured for all damages by reason of such failure. [Acts of 1891, p. 29; Sen. Jour., 1895, No. 89, p. 483.]

Art. 6592. Water closets to be erected.—Each railroad and railway corporation operating a line of railway in the state of Texas for the transportation of passengers thereon are required to construct and maintain, and keep in a reasonably clean and sanitary condition, suitable and separate water closets or privies for both male and female persons at each passenger station on its line of railway, either within its passenger depot or in connection therewith, or within a reasonable and convenient distance therefrom at such station for the accommodation of its passengers who are received and discharged from its cars thereat, and of its patrons and employes who have business with such railroads and corporations at such station. [Act 1909, p. 175, sec. 1.]

Art. 6593. Separate closets, how constructed and maintained.—Said railroads and corporations are hereby required to keep said water closets and depot grounds adjacent thereto well lighted at such hours in the night time as its passengers and patrons at such stations may have occasion to be at the same, either for the purpose of taking passage on its trains, or waiting for the arrival thereof, or after leaving the same for at least thirty minutes before the schedule time for the arrival of its said train and after the arrival thereof at said station; provided, that said railroad or incorporation shall not be required by the provisions hereof to keep said closets lighted at such stations where the said railroad does not receive and discharge thereat in the night time passengers on and from its cars. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6594. Penalties, and suits for.—Any railroad or railway corporation which fails, neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of the two preceding articles shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas the sum of fifty dollars for each week it so fails and neglects. The county attorney of the county in which such station is located, and in case there is no such county attorney, then the attorney for the district including said county, shall, upon credible information furnished him, institute suit or suits in the name of the state of Texas against such defaulting railroad or railway corporation for the recovery of said penalties; and, in case of said recovery, the said attorney shall be entitled to one-fourth the amount thereof as commission for his said services, and the remainder thereof shall be paid into the road and bridge fund of said county; provided, that the state of Texas shall in no event be liable for any costs in suit authorized by this law to enforce its provisions. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6595. [4522] Switch cars shall be furnished.—When a company constructs a switch on its road for the accommodation of freighters, they shall be bound to furnish a sufficient number of cars for the transportation of freight therefrom when requested so to do, and in default shall be subject to the same penalties as in other cases of neglect of the like character. [P. D. 4934.]

Art. 6596. [4523] Cattle-guards and stops at what places.—Each and every railroad company, whose railway passes through a field or inclosure, is hereby required to place a good and sufficient cattle-guard or stop at the points of entering such field or inclosure, and keep them in good repair. [P. D. 4925.]

Art. 6597. [4524] Same subject.—In case an inclosure or field through which a railway passes shall be enlarged or extended, or the owner of the land over which a railway runs shall clear and open a field so as to embrace the track of a railway, such railroad company is hereby required to place good and sufficient cattle-guards or stops at the margins of such extended inclosures or fields, or such new fields and keep the same in repair.

Art. 6598. [4525] Character of cattle-guards and stops.—Such cattle-guards or stops shall in all cases be so constructed and kept in repair as to protect such fields and inclosures from the depredations of stock of every description.

Art. 6599. [4526] Owner may place and keep in repair cattle-guards and stops at cost of company, when.—Should any such company fail to construct and keep in repair such cattle-guards and stops, the owner of such inclosure or field may have such cattle-guards and stops placed at the proper places and kept in repair, and may recover the costs thereof from such railroad company, unless it be shown that the enlargement or extension, as above provided, was made capriciously and with intent to annoy and molest such company. [P. D. 4925.]

Art. 6600. [4527] Liability of company for neglect to place and keep in repair cattle-guards and stops.—Should any such company neglect to construct the proper cattle-guards and stops and keep the same in repair as required by law, such company shall be liable to the party injured by such neglect for all damages that may result from such neglect, to be recovered by suit in any court having jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 6601. Johnson grass not permitted to go to seed on right of way.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad or railway company or corporation doing business in this state to permit any Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon any right of way owned, leased or controlled by such railroad or railway company or corporation in this state. [Act 1901, p. 283.]

Art. 6602. Penalty and damages.—If it shall appear upon the suit of any person owning, leasing or controlling land contiguous to the right of way of any such railroad or railway company or corporation that said railroad or railway company or corporation has permitted any Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon their right of way, such person so suing shall recover from such railroad or railway company or corporation the sum of twenty-five dollars, and any such additional sum as he may have been damaged by reason of such railroad or railway company or corporation permitting Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon their right of way; provided, any owner of land, or any person controlling land, contiguous to the right of way of any such railroad or railway company, who permits any Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon said land, shall have no right to recover from such railroad or railway company as provided for in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6603. [4528] Liability of companies for stock killed or injured.—Each and every railroad company shall be liable to the owner for the value of all stock killed or injured by the locomotives and cars of such railroad company in running over their respective railways, which may be recovered by suit before any court having competent jurisdiction of the amount. Such liability shall also exist in counties and subdivisions of counties which adopt the stock law prohibiting the running at large of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle; provided, however, that in all cases, if the railroad company fence its road, it shall only be liable for injury resulting from a want of ordinary care. [Acts 1905, p. 226.]

Art. 6604. [4529] Consolidation prevented.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad corporation, or other corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any railroad corporation, to consolidate the stocks, property, works or franchises of such corporation with or lease or purchase the stocks, property, works or franchises of any other railroad corporation owning or having under its control or management a competing or parallel line; nor shall any officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of such railroad corporation act as or become an officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of any other railroad corporation in leasing or purchasing any parallel or competing line. [Acts of 1887, p. 137.]

Art. 6605. [4530] Corporation defined.—Railroad corporation, or other corporation, as used in the preceding article, is declared to mean any corporation, company, person or association of persons who own or control, manage or operate any line of railroad in this state. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6606. [4531] Consolidation, etc.—No railroad company organized under the laws of this state shall consolidate, by private or judicial sale or otherwise, with any railroad company organized under the laws of any other state, or of the United States.

Art. 6607. [4532] Map and profile of road, etc., shall be recorded.—Every such corporation shall, within a reasonable time after their road shall be located, cause to be made:

1. A map and profile thereof, and of the land taken or obtained for the use thereof, and file the same in the office of the railroad commission. Every such map shall be drawn on a scale and on paper to be designated by the railroad commission and certified and signed by the president of the corporation.

2. A certificate specifying the line upon which it is proposed to construct the railroad and the grades and curves, certified and signed and filed as aforesaid.

3. Any railroad company failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this article shall forfeit to the state of Texas any sum not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county through which such railway company may pass; and each day such railroad company fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law shall be considered a separate offense. [P. D. 4904.]

Art. 6608. [4535] To receive freights and passengers from connecting lines.—All railway companies doing business in this state shall be and they are hereby required to receive from all other railway companies with which they may connect at the state line of this state, or at any place within this state, or at any or all places where they may cross the line of any other railway doing business, or operating a line of railway, in this state, all freights and passengers coming to it from such connecting line and destined to points on its line, or to points beyond its line or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the next connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against the line from which such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such line for like or similar service against any other railway in or out of this state with which it does business; provided, however, that the words, "without delay or discrimination," as used herein, are hereby declared to mean that the freight received for transportation as herein required shall be shipped in the order in which it is received, giving preference in all cases to live stock and other perishable freight in the order received; and the charges for the business required by this article to be interchanged shall be no greater pro rata per cent per mile for freight, and no greater rate per mile for passengers and baggage, than is charged to any other line for transporting like freight and passengers and baggage, or that it accept for itself when transported wholly on its own line, no matter on what part of the line or in what direction the transporting is done. [Acts of 1887, p. 110.]

Art. 6609. [4536] What are connecting lines.—Whenever any two or more railroads doing business in this state shall connect with each other by crossing each other's tracks or otherwise so as to form a continuous or connected line from one point in the state to another point in this state, such lines so crossing are hereby declared to be connecting lines; and when such connecting lines receive from any other railway or transportation line passengers or freight for transportation over the combined line at a rate or division agreed upon between themselves and such other railway or transportation line from which the business is received as aforesaid, then, in every such case, it shall be the duty of such connecting railways forming such through line, and of either or both of them, to receive from every other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them may connect by crossing of track or otherwise, all passengers or freight that may be destined to points on either of the lines making up such combined line, and transport the same to the point of destination, if on such combined lines, or either of them, or to the next connection or crossing in the direction of the destination of such freight or passengers, without delay or discrimination, and at no greater rate than is paid, and on the same conditions as is or shall be required by such combined line for like or similar services from any other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them shall interchange business. [Id.]

Art. 6610. [4537] Terms for receiving, etc.—Every railroad, or person, or corporation operating a railway for the carriage of freight and passengers in this state shall receive freight, passengers and baggage for transportation to or into this state, or through any part thereof, from every other connecting railway, upon the same terms and conditions as to the division of charges for carrying or transporting the same upon a mileage, or any other basis, and upon terms and conditions as to bills of lading, way-bills, tickets, coupon tickets and baggage checks, that any such person, or corporation or transportation line may receive or contract to receive from any other person or corporation engaged in like business in this state; and, where railroads within this state receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be the first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another; and in case of failure to do so they shall be liable for all loss occurring while the goods remain, and for all damage occasioned or in any wise resulting from delay; provided, that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of bill of lading, and as having ended upon the arrival of freight at point of destination, and written notices served upon the consignee that it is ready for delivery upon payment of freight and charges; provided, further, that should the consignee of the goods fail to receive them promptly after such notice is served the liability of the railroads thereafter shall be the same as that of warehousemen. [Id. Acts of 1883, p. 69.]

Art. 6611. All water craft freight to be received on same terms.—All railway companies doing business in this state shall be and they are hereby required to receive from all steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, at their usual places for receiving such freights at the several ports on the coast of Texas, and on the inland waterways in this state, all freights and passengers coming to it from such steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, and destined to points on its line, or to points beyond its line, or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against such steamship line, steamboat owner or company, or the owner of any other water craft or other vessels from whom such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such railway company for like or similar service with any other person, steamship company, steamboat company or owners, or any other water craft or vessel, with which it does business at such points or stations as aforesaid. [Act 1899, p. 101, sec 1.]

Art. 6612. Penalty.—If any railway company doing business in this state shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any steamship line or company, or any steamboat line or company, or any other water craft or vessel, on the same terms and conditions, or for the same compensation or pro rata that it interchanges business with any other steamship line or company, steamboat line or company, or any other water craft or vessel, it shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this chapter; and every railroad company so offending shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, to be collected in the manner and in the courts as prescribed for the collection of other penalties, in article 6673, and in addition thereto shall forfeit and pay to the corporation, person or persons aggrieved thereby, the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each and every act of discrimination or violation of this law which may be recovered in a civil action in any court in this state having jurisdiction by law of the amount in controversy, in the name of the corporation, person or persons so suing; provided, that nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any other damages by an aggrieved person, firm or corporation accruing by reason of the violation of this article, or to relieve any railway company, or its officers, managers or agents, from prosecution under any penal law of this state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6613. Provisions of two preceding articles, how construed.—The two preceding articles shall not have the effect to relieve or waive any right of action by the state, or any other person, firm or corporation for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen, or may hereafter arise, under any law of this state; and all penalties accruing under the two preceding articles shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6614. [4538] Declared to be trustees, etc.—Every railway which may interchange business with any other connecting railway under the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise, is hereby declared to be a trustee for such connecting railway to the extent of all sums of money received by it for the joint business interchanged between them, and which may properly belong to such other railway. Such sums of money shall be due and payable from one connecting line to the other once every ninety days; and each connecting railway shall have a lien upon the property and franchises of connecting railways to the extent of balances due each quarter, which lien shall be superior to all other liens upon said property and franchises, save and except laborers' liens, as already provided by law, and may be enforced in any of the courts of this state having jurisdiction by law of the subject matter and the parties. [Id.]

Art. 6615. [4539] Penalty for refusing to receive from connecting lines.—If any railway company doing business in this state shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any other railway company, or shall fail or refuse to interchange business on the same terms or for the same pro rata that it interchanges business with any other railway company in this state, or shall fail or refuse to honor or receive the tickets, coupon tickets, way-bills or baggage checks of any connecting railway upon the same terms and conditions that it receives or honors the tickets, coupon tickets, waybills or baggage checks of any other railway company, or shall violate in any manner any other provisions of this and the four preceding articles, such railway company so offending shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this title, and shall forfeit and pay to the person or corporation aggrieved thereby the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each and every act of discrimination or violation of this law, which may be recovered in a civil action in any of the courts of this state having jurisdiction by law of such an amount, in the name of the person or corporation so suing; provided, nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any other damages by any aggrieved person, firm or corporation, occurring by reason of the violation of this or the four preceding articles, nor to relieve any railway company, or its officers, managers or agents, from prosecution for violation of any penal law of this state. [Acts of 1887, p. 112.]

Art. 6616. [4540] Equal facilities to be furnished.—Every railroad company operating a railroad within this state shall furnish reasonable and equal facilities and accommodations, and upon reasonable and equal rates, to all corporations and persons engaged in the express business, for the transportation of themselves, agents, servants, merchandise and other property, and for the use of their cars, depots, buildings and grounds and for exchanges at points of junction with other roads. [Acts of 1887, p. 113.]

Art. 6617. [4541] Damages for failure to comply, etc.—Any railroad company, which shall fail to comply with the provisions hereof, shall be liable to the aggrieved party, in an action on the case, for damages; and such railway company, in addition to liability to said action for damages, shall be subject to a writ of mandamus, to be issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel compliance with the provisions of the preceding article; and the said writ of mandamus shall issue at the instance of any party or corporation aggrieved by a violation hereof, and any violation of said writ shall be punishable as a contempt. [Id. sec. 2]

Art. 6618. [4542] Passenger fare three cents per mile.—The passenger fare upon all railroads in this state shall be three cents per mile, with an allowance of baggage to each passenger not to exceed one hundred pounds in weight; provided, however, that, where the fare is paid to the conductor, the rate shall be four cents per mile, except from stations where no tickets are sold, and that the minimum charge in no case shall be less than twenty-five cents; and provided, further, that when the passenger fare does not end in five or naught, the nearest sum so ending shall be the fare; provided, further, that in no case shall children under ten years of age be charged a higher rate of fare than two cents per mile; provided, further, railroads shall be required to keep their ticket offices open half an hour prior to the departure of trains, and upon failure to do so they shall not charge more than three cents per mile. [Acts of 1883, p. 70, sec. 9.]

Article 6619. [4543] Property of company subject to execution.—The rolling stock and all other movable property belonging to any railroad company or corporation shall be considered personal property, and its real and personal property, or any part thereof, shall be liable to execution and sale in the same manner as the property of individuals, and no such property shall be exempt from execution and sale. [Const., art. 10, sec. 4.]

Art. 6620. [4544] Notice required in reducing wages.—All persons in the employment of such railway company shall be entitled to receive thirty days' notice from said company before their wages can be reduced by such company; and, in all cases of reduction, the employe shall be entitled to receive from such company wages at his contract price for the full term of thirty days after such notice is given, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts of 1887, p. 20.]

Art. 6621. [4545] Service of notice and how given.—The notice referred to in the preceding article is declared to mean thirty full days immediately prior to the day upon which such reduction is to take effect, and may be given by posting written or printed handbills, specifying the parties whose wages are to be reduced and the amount of such reduction, in at least three conspicuous places in or about each shop, section house, station, depot, train or other places where said employes are at work; provided, such employe shall, within fifteen days from the date of such notice, inform such railway company, by posting like notices as given by such railway company, whether he will or will not accept such reduction; and, if no such information is given such company by such employe, then such employe shall forfeit his right to such notice, and such reduction shall take effect from the date of such notice, instead of at the expiration of thirty days. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6622. [4546] Penalty.—Any railway company violating or evading any of the provisions of the preceding article shall pay to each employe affected thereby one month's extra wages, to be recovered by such employe in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6623. [4547] When wages to be paid discharged employe.—Whenever any railroad company shall discharge any employe, or whenever the time of service of any employe of a railroad company shall expire, or whenever any railroad company shall be due and owing any employe, such railroad company, upon such discharge, or upon the termination of the term of such service, or upon the maturity of said indebtedness, shall, within fifteen days after demand therefor upon the nearest station agent of said railroad company, pay to such employe the full amount due and owing him; and in case said railroad company fails or refuses to pay such employe, then it shall be liable and pay to such employe twenty per cent on the amount due him, as damages, in addition to the amount so due, in no case the damages to be less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts of 1887, p. 72.]

Art. 6624. [4549] Road, etc., liable to be sold for debts.—In case of the sale of the property and franchises of a railroad company, whether by virtue of an execution, order of sale, deed of trust, or any other power, or by a receiver acting under judgments heretofore or to be hereafter rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale and associates, if any, shall acquire full title to such property and franchises, with full power to maintain and operate the railroad and other property incident to it, under the restrictions imposed by law; provided, however, that said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, shall not be deemed and taken to be the owners of the charter of the railroad company and corporators under the same, nor vested with the powers, rights, privileges and benefits of such charter ownership as if they were the original corporators of said company, unless the purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, shall agree to take and hold said property and franchises, charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and for personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company, and by any receiver thereof, and for loss of and damage to property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company and by any receiver thereof, and for the current expenses of such operation, including labor, supplies and repairs; provided, that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of said property and franchises, or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed or when the sale was made, in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within the two years; such agreement to be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed and acknowledged by said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, and filed in the office of the secretary of state of the state of Texas; and, provided, further, that such charter, together with the powers, rights, privileges and benefits thereof, shall pass to said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, subject to the terms, provisions, restrictions and limitations imposed and to be imposed by law; and provided, further, that the amount of stock and bonds which may be held against said property and franchises, after the sale thereof, as well as the manner of issuance of such stock and bonds shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the railroad commission of Texas at its discretion save that the total encumbrance secured by the lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by article 6718 of the Revised Statutes of Texas. [P. D. 4912, amended 4 S. S. 1910, p. 120.]

Art. 6625. [4550] New corporation, in case of sale, may be formed, how.—
In case of any sale heretofore or hereafter made of the property and franchises of a railroad company within this state, the purchaser or purchasers thereof and associates, if any, shall be entitled to form a corporation under chapter one of this title, for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintainng and operating the road so purchased, as if such road were the road intended to be constructed by the corporation; and, when such charter has been filed, the new corporation shall have the powers and privileges then conferred by the laws of this state upon chartered railroads, including the power to construct and extend; provided, that, notwithstanding such incorporation, the property and franchises so purchased shall be charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold-out company and by any receiver thereof, and for loss of and damage to property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold-out company and by any receiver thereof, and for the current expenses of such operation, including labor, supplies and repairs; provided, that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of such property and franchises, or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed, or when the sale was made; in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within two years; and provided, that by such purchase and organization no right shall be acquired in conflict with the present constitution and laws, in any respect, nor shall the main track of any railroad once constructed and operated be abandoned or moved; and provided, further, that the amount of stock and bonds which may be issued by said new corporation, as well as the manner of their issuance, shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the railroad commission of Texas at its discretion, save that the total encumbrance secured by lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by article 6718 of the Revised Statutes of Texas. This and the preceding articles shall not be construed to in any wise repeal or impair the provisions of chapter 16 of this title, except in so far as the same may be changed thereby. [Acts of 1889, p. 19. Amended 4 S. S. 1910, p. 120.]

Art. 6626. [4551] Jurisdiction, etc.—No railway company availing itself of any of the privileges herein provided shall claim to be under the jurisdiction of the federal courts by reason thereof; and any railway company which may avail itself of the said privileges which shall claim to be subject to the jurisdiction of the federal courts in pursuance of this article shall ipso facto forfeit its reorganization and be remanded to the same condition as it was prior to said reorganization. [Id. p. 20, sec. 2.]

Art. 6627. [4552] Sale under deed of trust, when and where made.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights and privileges of any railroad company is made by virtue of any deed of trust or power the same shall be made at the time and place mentioned in the deed of trust or power and in accordance with the provisions of the same as to notice, and in other respects; and, if the same be not specified, such sale shall be made as hereinafter provided for sales under execution or order of sale. [P. D. 4913.]

Art. 6628. [4553] Judgment, execution, levy and sale.—Whenever judgment is rendered against any railroad company, execution shall issue thereon and be levied and collected as in other civil causes, except that when the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of said railroad company is levied upon, the levy and sale must take place in the county where the principal office of such company is situated, and the entire roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of such company shall be levied upon and sold. The provisions of this article shall be observed so far as they are applicable in all cases where, by any decree of a competent court, a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of any railroad company is directed to be made. [P. D. 4914.]

Art. 6629. [4554] Unpaid stock subscriptions of stockholders of sold-out company.—The sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be held to pass or convey to the purchaser any right or claim to recover from the former stockholders of said company any sums which may remain due upon their subscriptions of stock, but the said stockholders shall continue liable to pay the same in discharge and liquidation of the debts due by the sold-out company, as hereinafter provided. [P. D. 4915.]

Art. 6630. [4555] After sale old directors to be trustees.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges is made as hereinbefore provided (unless other persons shall be appointed by the legislature or by some court of competent authority), the directors or managers of the sold-out company at the time of the sale, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be the trustees of the creditors and stockholders of the sold-out company, and shall have full powers to settle the affairs of the sold-out company, collect and pay the outstanding debts, and divide among the stockholders the money and other property that shall remain after the payment of the debts and other necessary expenses; and the persons so constituted trustees shall have authority to sue by the name of the trustees of such sold-out company, and may be sued as such, and shall be jointly and severally responsible to the creditors and stockholders of such company, to the extent of its property and effects that shall come to their hands. [P. D. 4916.]

Art. 6631. [4556] Suits not to abate.—No suit pending for or against any railroad company at the time that the sale may be made of its roadbed, track, franchise and chartered privileges shall abate, but the same shall be continued in the name of the trustees of the sold-out company. [Id.]

Art. 6632. [4557] This title not to apply to state loans, etc.—The provisions of this title shall not apply to any debt, execution, or deed of trust held by the state against any railroad company, because of any loan made by the state to any company under the provisions of the act to provide for the investment of the special school fund, or any other law which authorizes the loan of money to railroad companies; nor shall any creditor of any railroad company be allowed to make the state a party to any suit brought for the enforcement of any debt, mortgage or deed of trust or lien on any railroad, or permitted to require the state to foreclose any lien which it may have upon any road, but the lien of the state and its right to enforce the same shall continue as if this title had never been passed, and as if no sale had been made under the provisions of the same. [P. D. 4917.]

CHAPTER TWELVE.

FORFEITURE OF CHARTER.

Forfeiture for failure to build, etc.....	Article. 6633	Relief of, for failure to comply with law.	Article. 6635
Branch lines.....	6634	Neglect to make annual report.....	6636

Article 6633. [4558] Forfeiture for failure to build and equip.—If any railroad corporation organized under this title shall not, within two years after its articles of association shall be filed and recorded as provided in this title, begin the construction of its road, and construct, equip and put in good running order at least ten miles of its proposed road, and, if any such railroad corporation, after the first two years, shall fail to construct, equip and put in good running order at least twenty additional miles of its road each and every succeeding year until the entire completion of its line, such corporation shall, in either of such cases, forfeit its corporate existence, and its powers shall cease as far as relates to that portion of said road then unfinished, and shall be incapable of resumption by any subsequent act of incorporation. The provisions of this article shall not apply to or in any manner affect railway companies incorporated for the construction and operation of urban, suburban and belt railroads for a distance of less than ten miles, as provided in clause two of article 6408, chapter one, of this title; provided, that all such companies shall, within twelve months from the date of their charter, complete a portion of their road and commence and continue the running of cars thereon. [Acts of 1889, p. 17.]

Art. 6634. [4559] Same as to branch lines.—The preceding article shall apply as well to branch lines as to main lines of railroads. [Acts of 1876, p. 143, sec. 7.]

Art. 6635. Relief of, for failure to comply with the law.—Any railway company holding a charter filed in the office of the secretary of state since the first day of January, 1900, of which by amendment to its articles of incorporation filed with the secretary of state of this state since the first day of January, 1900, has provided for the construction of one or more branch lines, and which has since the first day of January, 1906, constructed and put in operation fifty miles of railroad in this state, or thirty miles of railroad in the state of Louisiana, or which since the first day of January, 1906, shall have expended not less than twenty thousand dollars for right of way or terminal facilities within or immediately adjacent to any city in this state with a population of not less than forty thousand, as shown by the last Federal census; also any railway company which had been incorporated by articles of incorporation filed in the office of the secretary of state of this state since the first day of January, 1900, and which has since the first day of January, 1902, constructed and put in operation not less than nine miles of railroad within this state, and the length of whose line authorized by its charter does not exceed fifty miles, or which has since January 1, 1906, graded not less than fifty miles of road bed on its line in this state, or which has, in good faith, acquired since January 1, 1907, its right of way for the entire length of its line, and the length of whose line authorized by its charter does not exceed forty miles, or any railroad company which since the first day of January, 1901, and during the first year of its incorporation, did construct and put in operation not less than twenty miles of railroad in this state, shall have two years from the eleventh day of June, 1909, in which to comply, as to its main line or its branch or branches projected by such articles of incorporation or amendments, with the provisions of articles 6422, 6633 and 6634, and each such railway company which shall have forfeited its right to construct, or its corporate existence, as to any part of its said main line, or is about to do so, or any of its said branches, or any part thereof, shall have, and such corporate existence and right to construct same is hereby restored and preserved to it, and it shall enjoy all of its corporate franchises, property rights and powers held or acquired by it previous to any cause of forfeiture on account of such failure; provided, that no such railway company shall claim or exercise any right or franchise not allowed, granted or permitted to other railway corporations under the laws now in force in this state, and every such railway company shall comply with the laws now in force in this state pertaining to railway corporations. [Act 1909, p. 227, sec. 1.]

Art. 6636. [4560] Neglect to make annual report.—Any railroad corporation which shall neglect to make the annual report to the comptroller, or governor, required by this title, and which has been notified by the comptroller; or governor, of such failure, and shall still neglect to make such report, within three months after such notice, shall forfeit its charter. [P. D. 4902.]

TICKET AGENTS—AUTHORITY AND DUTY.

	Article.		Article.
Authorized agent for sale of tickets.....	6637	Same	6639
Duty of agents.....	6638

Article 6637. [4560a] Authorized agents for the sale of tickets.—It shall be the duty of all railroad companies doing business in this state, or the receiver of any such railroad company, through their duly authorized officers, to provide each agent who may be authorized to sell tickets, or other evidences, entitling the holder to travel upon any such railroad, with a certificate setting forth the authority of such agent to make such sale. Such certificate shall be duly attested by the corporate seal of such railroad company, or the signature of the receiver, if any there be, of such railroad company, or by the signature of the officer whose name is signed upon the tickets or coupons which such agent may be authorized to sell, [Acts 1893, p. 97.]

Art. 6638. [4560c] Duty of agent.—It shall be the duty of every agent who shall be authorized to sell tickets, or parts of tickets, or other evidence of the holder's right to travel over any railroad within this state, upon demand, to exhibit to any person desiring to purchase a ticket, or to any officer of the law who may request it, the certificate of his authority to sell, and to keep said certificate posted in a conspicuous place in his office for the information of travelers. [Amended Act 1903, p. 162.]

Art. 6639. Same.—It shall also be the duty of every such railway agent, at stations having telegraph communication with the train dispatcher of the road, to ascertain thirty minutes before the schedule time of the arrival of passenger trains, if such train is on time, and, if on time, to bulletin that fact on a board provided by the company and placed in some conspicuous place at the station; and if the train is late he shall bulletin how late, and from what cause the delay is due. If later than thirty minutes, said agent shall thereafter ascertain the latest news from such train dispatcher, or some other reliable source, every thirty minutes and bulletin such information and the time of the probable arrival of such train. It shall also be the duty of such agent to keep waiting rooms provided by the company for passengers lighted and heated in accordance with the law of this state. If any such depot agent shall fail or refuse to perform the duties required of him by this and the preceding article, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Article 6640. Liabile for injury to fellow-servant.—Every person, receiver, or corporation operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this state, shall be liable for all damages sustained by any servant or employe thereof while engaged in the work of operating the cars, locomotives or trains of such person, receiver, or corporation, by reason of the negligence of any other servant or employe of such person, receiver or corporation, and the fact that such servants or employes were fellow-servants with each other shall not impair or destroy such liability. [Act 1897, S. S., p. 14, sec. 1.]

Art. 6641. Who are vice-principals.—All persons engaged in the service of any person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this state who are intrusted by such person, receiver, or corporation with the authority of superintendence, control or command of the other servants or employes of such person, receiver, or corporation, or with the authority to direct any other employe in the performance of any duty of such employe, are vice-principals of such person, receiver, or corporation, and are not fellow-servants with their co-employes. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6642. "Fellow-servants" defined.—All persons who are engaged in the common service of such person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, and who while so employed are in the same grade of employment and are doing the same character of work or service, and are working together at the same time and place, and at the same piece of work and to a common purpose, are fellow-servants with each other. Employes who do not come within the provisions of this article shall not be considered fellow-servants. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6643. Contract limiting liability void.—No contract made between the employer and employe based upon the contingency of death or injury of the employe and limiting the liability of the employer under the preceding articles of this chapter, or fixing damages to be recovered, shall be valid or binding. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6644. Contributory negligence a defense, except, etc.—Nothing in the preceding articles of this chapter shall be held to impair or diminish the defense of contributory negligence when the injury of the servant or employe is caused proximately by his own contributory negligence, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6645. When assumed risk not available as defense.—In any suit against a person, corporation, or receiver, operating a railroad or street railway, for damages for the death or personal injury of an employe or servant, caused by the wrong or negligence of such person, corporation, or receiver, that the plea of assumed risk of the deceased or injured employe where the ground of the plea is knowledge or means of knowledge of the defect and danger which caused the injury or death, shall not be available in the following cases:

First. Where such employe had an opportunity before being injured or killed to inform the employer, or a superior entrusted by the employer with the authority to remedy or cause to be remedied the defect, and does notify, or cause to be notified, the employer, or superior thereof, within a reasonable time; provided, it shall not be necessary to give such information where the employer, or such superior thereof, already knows of the defect.

Second. Where a person of ordinary care would have continued in the service with the knowledge of the defect and danger, and in such case it shall not be necessary that the servant or employe give notice of the defect as provided in subdivision one of this article. [Act 1905, p. 386, sec. 1.]

Art. 6646. No assumed risk where safety appliance not provided.—Any employe of any common carrier engaged in any intrastate commerce, as provided in articles 6640 and 6641 of this title, who may be injured or killed shall not be held to have assumed the risk of his employment, or to have been guilty of contributory negligence, if the violation of such carrier of any of the provisions of said articles contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Acts 1909, p. 64, sec. 7.]

Art. 6647. Double-header trains; no assumed risk by employes.—Employees of railway companies employed by said companies in the operation of trains within this state, propelled by two or more engines, shall not be held to assume the risk, if any there be, incident to their employment; provided, they be injured while engaged in operation of such trains; and provided, further, that such injury was occasioned by reason of the operation of two or more engines on such train instead of one. [Act 1900, S. S., p. 15, sec. 3a.]

Art. 6648. Liable for injury or death of employe.—Every corporation, receiver, or other person, operating any railroad in this state, shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is employed by such carrier operating such railroad, or in case of the death of such employe, to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow and children, or husband and children, and mother and father of the deceased, and, if none, then of the next kin dependent upon such employe for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents or employes of such carrier; or by reason of any defect or insufficiency due to its negligence, in its cars, engines, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, wharves, or other equipment; provided, the amount recovered shall not be liable for the debts of deceased and shall be divided among the persons entitled to the benefit of the action or such of them as shall be alive, in such shares as the jury, or court trying the case without a jury, shall deem proper; and provided, in case of the death of such employe, the action may be brought without administration by all the parties entitled thereto, or by any one or more of them for the benefit of all, and, if all parties be not before the court, the action may proceed for the benefit of such of said parties as are before the court. [Act 1909, 1 S. S., p. 279, sec. 1.]

Art. 6649. Contributory negligence, rule as to.—In all actions hereafter brought against any such common carrier or railroad under or by virtue of any of the provisions of the foregoing article and the three succeeding articles to recover damages for personal injuries to an employe, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employe may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employe; provided, that no such employe who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violations by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employes contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6650. Assumed risk, rule as to.—Any action brought against any common carrier under or by virtue of any of the provisions of the two preceding articles to recover damages for injuries to or the death of any of its employes, such employe shall not be held to have assumed the risks of his employment in any case where the violation of such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employes contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6651. Contract changing liability void.—Any contract, rule, regulation or device whatsoever, the purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any common carrier to exempt itself from any liability created by the three preceding articles shall to that extent be void; provided, that, in any action brought against any such common carrier under or by virtue of said articles, such common carrier may set off therein any sum it has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief benefit or indemnity that may have been paid to the injured employe, or the person entitled thereto, on account of the injury or death for which said action was brought. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6652. Articles of this chapter construed.—Nothing in the provisions of the four preceding articles shall be held to limit the duty or liability of common carriers, or to impair the rights of employes, under other articles of this chapter, or under the provisions of the Revised Civil Statutes, but, in case of conflict, these articles shall prevail; and nothing in said articles shall affect the prosecution of any pending proceeding or right of action under any of the laws of this state. [Id. secs. 5 and 6.]

Article 6653. [4561] Railroad commission created, etc.—A railroad commission is hereby created, to be composed of three persons to be appointed by the governor, as follows: If the legislature be in session, the governor shall, by and with the advice of the senate, appoint said commissioners, but, if the legislature be not in session, the governor shall make such appointments; and each commissioner so appointed shall hold his office until the second Monday after the inauguration of the next succeeding governor, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Each succeeding governor shall, on the second Monday after his inauguration, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint said commissioners, who shall each hold his office until the second Monday after the inauguration of the next succeeding governor, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

1. Qualifications of commissioners.—The persons so appointed shall be resident citizens of this state, and qualified voters under the constitution and laws, and not less than twenty-five years of age. No person shall be appointed as such commissioner who is directly or indirectly interested in any railroad in this state, or out of it, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or in the earnings of any such road; and if such commissioners shall voluntarily become so interested his office shall become vacant; and, if any railroad commissioner shall become so interested otherwise than voluntarily, he shall within a reasonable time divest himself of such interest; failing to do this, his office shall become vacant.

2. Shall hold no other office, etc.—No commissioner hereunder shall hold any other office under the government of the United States, or of this state, or of any other state government; and shall not, while such commissioner, engage in any occupation or business inconsistent with his duties as such commissioner.

3. Vacancies.—The governor shall fill all vacancies in the office of commissioner by appointment; and the person so appointed shall fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor.

4. Oaths, etc.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said commissioners shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and shall, in addition thereto, swear that he is not directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, nor in the bonds, stock, mortgages, securities, contracts or earnings of any railroad, and that he will to the best of his ability faithfully and justly execute and enforce the provisions of this chapter, and all laws of this state concerning railroads, which oath shall be filed with the secretary of state.

5. Salary.—Each of said commissioners shall receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars, payable in the same manner that salaries of other state officers are paid.

Sessions; may appoint clerks, etc.; their salaries.—The commissioners appointed shall meet at Austin and organize and elect one of their number chairman of said commission. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum to transact business. Said commission may appoint a secretary at a salary of not more than two thousand dollars per annum, and may appoint not more than two clerks at a salary of not more than fifteen hundred dollars per annum each, and such other persons as experts as may be necessary to perform any duty that may be required of them by this chapter. The secretary shall keep full and correct minutes of all the transactions and proceedings of said commission, and perform such duties as may be required by the commission. The commission shall have power to make all needful rules for their government and for their proceedings. They shall be known collectively as, "Railroad Commission of Texas," and shall have a seal, a star of five points, with the words, "Railroad Commission of Texas," engraved thereon. They shall be furnished with an office in the capitol at Austin, and with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies, and all necessary expenses, to be paid for on the order of the governor.

Expenses.—The commissioners, secretary and clerks shall be entitled to receive from the state their actual necessary traveling expenses, which shall include the cost only of transportation while traveling on the business of the commission, to be paid out on the order of the governor upon an itemized statement thereof, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense, and approved by the commission.

May hold sessions at any place, etc.—Said commissioners may hold sessions at any place in this state when deemed necessary to facilitate the discharge of their duties. [Acts 1891, p. 55, secs. 1, 2.]

Art. 6654. [4562] Powers and duties.—The power and authority is hereby vested in the railroad commission of Texas, and it is hereby made its duty, to adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations to govern and regulate railroad freight and passenger tariffs, the power to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination and extortion in rates of freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads in this state, and to enforce the same by having the penalties inflicted as by this chapter prescribed through proper courts having jurisdiction.

1. To classify freights.—The said commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty to fairly and justly classify and subdivide all freight and property of whatsoever character that may be transported over the railroads of this state into such general and special classes or subdivisions as may be found necessary and expedient.

2. To fix reasonable rates.—The commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix to each class or subdivision of freight a reasonable rate for each railroad subject to this chapter for the transportation of each of said classes and subdivisions.

3. Classifications to be uniform.—The classifications herein provided for shall apply to and be the same for all railroads subject to the provisions of this chapter.

4. May fix different rates.—The said commission may fix different rates for different railroads and for different lines under the same management, or for different parts of the same lines if found necessary to do justice, and may make rates for express companies different from the rates fixed for railroads.

5. Rates for connecting lines.—The said commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix and establish for all or any connecting lines of railroad in this state reasonable joint rates of freight charges for the various classes of freight and cars that may pass over two or more lines of such railroads.

6. Commission to fix when there is disagreement.—If any two or more connecting railroads shall fail to agree upon a fair and just division of the charges arising from the transportation of freights, passengers or cars over their lines, the commission shall fix the pro rata part of such charges to be received by each of said connecting lines.

7. Old rates to exist until changed by the commission.—Until the commission shall make the classifications and schedules of rates as herein provided for, and afterwards if they deem it advisable, they may make partial or special classifications for all or any of the railroads subject hereto, and fix the rates to be charged by such roads therefor; and such classifications and rates shall be put into effect in the manner provided for general classifications and schedules of rates.

8. May alter, abolish, etc.—The commission shall have power, and it shall be its duty, from time to time, to alter, change, amend or abolish any classification or rate established by it when deemed necessary; and such amended, altered or new classifications or rates shall be put into effect in the same manner as the originals.

9. May adopt rules and regulations.—The commission may adopt and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper to hear and determine complaints that may be made against the classifications or the rates, the rules, regulations and determinations of the commission.

10. Empty cars.—The commission shall make reasonable and just rates of charges for each railroad subject hereto for the use or transportation of loaded or empty cars on its road; and may establish for each railroad or for all railroads alike, reasonable rates for the storing and handling of freight and for the use of cars not unloaded after forty-eight hours' notice to the consignee, not to include Sundays.

11. May fix rates for all services.—The commission shall make and establish reasonable rates for the transportation of passengers over each or all of the railroads subject hereto, which rates shall not exceed the rates fixed by law. The commission shall have power to prescribe reasonable rates, tolls or charges for all other services performed by any railroad subject hereto.

12. Railways to maintain depots, etc.—It shall be the duty of each and every railway subject to this chapter to provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at its several stations for the accommodation of passengers; and said depot buildings shall be kept well lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public; and all such roads shall keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for the receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freights handled by such roads; provided, that this shall not be construed as repealing any existing laws on the subject. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6655. [4563] Notice to be given when rates fixed.—Before any rates shall be established under this chapter, the commission shall give the railroad company to be affected thereby ten days' notice of the time and place when and where the rates shall be fixed; and said railroad company shall be entitled to be heard at such time and place, to the end that justice may be done; and it shall have process to enforce the attendance of its witnesses. All process herein provided for shall be served as in civil cases.

1. May fix rules for all investigations.—The commission shall have power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of railroad companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, orders, charges and other acts required of it under this law; provided, no person desiring to be present at any such investigation by said commission shall be denied admission.

2. May administer oaths, etc.—The chairman and each of the commissioners, for the purposes mentioned in this chapter, shall have power to administer all oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of papers, way-bills, books, accounts, documents and testimony, and to punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district or county court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6656. [4564] Rates to be held conclusive until, etc.—In all actions between private parties and railway companies brought under this law, the rates, charges, orders, rules, regulations and classifications prescribed by said commission before the institution of such action shall be held conclusive, and deemed and accepted to be reasonable, fair and just, and in such respects shall not be controverted therein until finally found otherwise in a direct action brought for that purpose in the manner prescribed by articles 6657 and 6658 of this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6657. [4565] When railway dissatisfied, may file petition, etc.—If any railroad company or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the commission, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rate, rule, charge, classification, or order, or to either or all of them, in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis county, Texas, against said commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court, at either of its terms; and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that, if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6658. [4566] Burden of proof.—In all trials under the foregoing article, the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6659. [4567] Railroads to be furnished with schedule of rates fixed.—The said commission shall, as soon as the classifications and schedules of rates herein provided for are prepared by them, furnish each railroad subject to the provisions of this chapter with a complete schedule in suitable form, showing the classification of freight made by them and the rates fixed by said commission to be charged by such road for the transportation of each class of freight, and shall cause a certified copy of such classification and schedule of rates to be delivered to each of said railroads at its principal office in this state, if it has such office in this state, and, if not, then to any agent of said company in this state; which said schedule, rules and regulations shall take effect at the date which may be fixed by said commission, not less than twenty days. Each of said railroad companies shall cause said schedule to be printed in type of a size not less than pica, and shall have the same posted up in a conspicuous place at each of its depots, so as to be inspected by the public. Said commission may at any time abolish, alter, or in any manner amend, the said schedules, or abolish or amend any such regulations; and in that event certified copies of the schedules, rules or regulations, showing the changes therein, shall be delivered to each road as herein specified. In all cases where the rates shall not have been fixed by the commission, no changes shall be made, except after ten days' notice to and consent of the commission. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6660. Emergency freight rates.—In addition to the powers conferred on the railroad commission of Texas by articles 6655 and 6659, said commission shall have the power, when deemed by it necessary, to prevent interstate rate wars and injury to the business or interests of the people or railroads of the state, or in case of any other emergency, to be judged of by the commission, it shall be its duty to temporarily alter, amend or suspend any existing freight rates, tariffs, schedules, orders and circulars on any railroad or part of railroad in this state, and to fix freight rates where none exist. [Act 1899, p. 311, sec. 1.]

Art. 6661. To what roads apply.—Said emergency rates, so made by the commission, shall apply on any one or more of all the railroads in this state, or part of railroads, as may be directed by the commission. [Act 1897, p. 51, sec. 2.]

Art. 6662. Rates take effect, when, and how long continued.—Said rates, so made, shall take effect at such time and remain in force for such length of time as may be prescribed by the commission. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6663. Temporary freight and passenger tariffs, power to make.—In addition to all other powers conferred by law upon the railroad commission of Texas, said commission shall have the power to make temporary freight and passenger tariffs, to take immediate effect or at such times as shall be fixed by said commission, whenever an emergency arises, the sufficiency of which shall be judged of by said commission, in order that justice may be done or injury prevented any person, place or locality; and said commission shall have the power at once to suspend temporarily any existing freight or passenger tariff, and to establish freight and passenger tariffs, rules and regulations for temporary use, to have immediate effect where none exists. [Act 1907, p. 220, sec. 1.]

Art. 6664. [4568]. Complainants may apply to commission. Proceedings thereunder.—Any person, firm, corporation, or association, or any mercantile, agricultural, or manufacturing association, or any body politic, or municipal organization, complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any railroad subject hereto, in violation of any law of this state, or the provisions of this chapter, for which penalty is provided, may apply to said commission in such manner and under such rules as the commission may prescribe; whereupon, if there shall appear to the commission to be any reasonable grounds for investigating such complaint, it shall give at least five days' notice to such railroad of such charge and complaint, and call upon said road to answer the same at a time and place to be specified by the commission. The commission shall investigate and determine such complaint under such rules and modes of procedure as it may adopt. If the commission finds that there has been a violation, it shall determine if the same was wilful; if it finds that such violation was not wilful, it may call upon said road to satisfy the damage done to the complainant thereby, stating the amount of such damage, and to pay the cost of such investigation; and if the said railroad shall do so within the time specified by the commission there shall be no prosecution by the state; but if said railroad shall not pay said damage and cost within the time specified by said commission, or if the commission finds such violation to be wilful, it shall institute proceedings to recover the penalty for such violation and the cost of such investigation. All such complaints shall be made in the name of the state of Texas upon the relation of such complainant. All evidence taken before said commission in the investigation of any such complaint, when reduced to writing and signed and sworn to by the witness, may be used by either party, the state, complainant, or the railroad company, in any proceeding against such railroad involving the same subject matter; provided, further, that the commissioners may require the testimony so taken before them to be reduced to writing when they may deem it necessary, or when requested to do so by either party to such proceedings; and a certified copy, under the hand and seal of said commission, shall be admissible in evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such railroad, involving the same subject matter and between the same parties. The provisions of this article shall not abridge nor affect the rights of any person to sue for any penalty that may be due him under the provisions of this chapter, or any other law of this state. [Acts 1891, p. 55, sec. 9.]

Art. 6665. [4569] May inspect books, etc.—The commissioners, or either of them, or such persons as they employ therefor, shall have the right, at such times as they may deem necessary, to inspect the books and papers of any railroad company and to examine under oath any officer, agent or employe of such railroad in relation to the business and affairs of the same. If any railroad shall refuse to permit the commissioners, or either of them, or any person authorized thereto, to examine its books and papers, such railroad company shall, for each offense, pay to the state of Texas not less than one hundred and twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each day it shall so fail or refuse; provided, that any persons other than one of said commissioners who shall make any such demands shall produce his authority, under the hand and seal of said commission, to make such inspection. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6666. [4570] To ascertain cost of railway, etc.—The commission shall ascertain as early as practicable the amount of money expended in construction and equipment per mile of every railway in Texas, the amount of money expended to procure the right of way, and the amount of money it would require to reconstruct the roadbed, track, depots and transportation, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the railroad. It shall also ascertain the outstanding bonds, debentures and indebtedness, and the amount respectively thereof, when issued, and rate of interest, when due, for what purpose issued, how used, to whom issued, to whom sold, and the price in cash, property or labor, if any, received therefor, what became of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, the amount purporting to be due thereon, the floating indebtedness of the company, to whom due and his address, the credits due on it, the property on hand belonging to the railroad company, and the judicial or other sales of said road, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid and in what manner paid therefor. The commission shall also ascertain the amounts paid for salaries to the officers of the railroad and the wages paid its employes. For the purpose in this article named, the commission may employ sworn experts to inspect and assist them when needed, and from time to time, as the information required by this article is obtained, it shall communicate the same to the attorney general by report.

and file a duplicate thereof with the comptroller for public use; and said information shall be printed from time to time in the annual report of the commission. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6667. [4571] Blanks for information to be prepared.—The said commission shall cause to be prepared suitable blanks with questions calculated to elicit all information concerning railroads, and as often as it may be necessary furnish said blanks to each railroad company. Any railroad company receiving from the commission any such blanks shall cause said blanks to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and in case they are unable to answer any question, they shall give a satisfactory reason for their failure; and the said answers, duly sworn to by the proper officer of said company, shall be returned to said commission at its office in the city of Austin within thirty days from the receipt thereof.

1. Penalty for failure to fill out blanks. Commission to adopt system of bookkeeping.—If any officer or employe of a railroad company shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks as above required, or fail or refuse to answer any questions therein propounded, or give a false answer to any such questions, where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or shall evade the answer to any such questions, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined for each day he shall fail to perform such duty after the expiration of the time aforesaid a penalty of five hundred dollars, and the commission shall cause a prosecution therefor in the proper court; and a penalty of a like amount will be recovered from the company when it appears that such persons acted in obedience to its direction, permission or request in his failure, evasion or refusal. Said commission shall have the power to prescribe a system of bookkeeping to be observed by all the railroads subject hereto, under the penalties prescribed in this article.

2. Annual reports.—The said commission shall make and submit to the governor annual reports containing a full and complete account of the transactions of their office, together with the information gathered by such commission as herein required, and such other facts, suggestions and recommendations as may be by them deemed necessary, which report shall be published as the reports of the heads of departments.

3. Duty as to through freights.—The said commission shall have power, and it is hereby made its duty, to investigate all through freight rates on railroads in Texas; and when the same are, in the opinion of the commission, excessive or levied or laid in violation of the interstate commerce law, or the rules and regulations of the interstate commerce commission, the officials of the railroads are to be notified of the facts and requested to reduce them or make the proper corrections, as the case may be. When the rates are not changed or the proper corrections are not made according to the request of the commission, the latter is instructed to notify the interstate commerce commission and to apply to it for relief. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6668. [4572] Power to issue subpoenas. Pay of witnesses. Proceedings to compel attendance of witnesses.—The said commission, in making any examination or investigation provided in this chapter, shall have power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses by such rules as they may prescribe. Each witness who shall appear before the commission by order of the commission, at a place outside of the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance one dollar per day and three cents per mile traveled by the nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said commission, which shall be ordered paid by the comptroller of public accounts upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness, and approved by the chairman of the commission; provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in any railroad in this state or out of it, or who is in any wise interested in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of any such road, or who shall be the agent or employe of such road, or an officer thereof, when summoned at the instance of such railroad; and no witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may have traveled on such free transportation. In case any witness shall fail or refuse to obey such subpoenas, said commission may issue an attachment for said witness, directed to any sheriff or any constable of the state of Texas, and compel him to attend before the commission and give his testimony upon such matter as shall be lawfully required by them. If a witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail or refuse to attend or to answer any question propounded to him, and which he would be required to answer if in court, the commission shall have the power to fine and imprison such witness for contempt, in the same manner that a judge of the district court might do under similar circumstances. The claim that any such testimony may tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse such witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding; provided, the commission shall in all cases have the right in its discretion to issue proper process and take depositions instead of compelling personal attendance of witnesses. The sheriff or constable executing any process issued under the provisions of this article or under any other provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the commission, not to exceed fees as now prescribed by law for similar services. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6669. [4573] Penalty for extorting.—If any railroad company, subject to this chapter, or its agent or officer, shall hereafter charge, collect, demand or receive from any persons, company, firm or corporation a greater rate, charge or compensation than that fixed and established by the railroad commission for the transportation of freight, passengers or cars, or for the use of any car on the line of its railroad, or any line operated by it, or for receiving, forwarding, handling, or storing any such freight or cars, or for any other service performed or to be performed by it, such railroad company and its said agent and officer shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6670. [4574] “Unjust discrimination” defined.—If any railroad subject hereto, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device, shall charge, demand, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service, such railroad shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited.

1. Same.—It shall also be an unjust discrimination for any such railroad to make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, or to subject any particular description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice, delay or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

2. Same.—Every railroad company which shall fail or refuse, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commission, to receive and transport without delay or discrimination the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line of railroad, and every railroad which shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commission, fail or refuse to transport and deliver without delay or discrimination any passengers, tonnage or cars, loaded or empty, destined to any point on or over the line of any connecting line of railroad, shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination; provided, perishable freights of all kinds and live stock shall have precedence of shipment.

3. Same.—It shall also be an unjust discrimination for any railroad subject hereto to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of like kind of property or passengers for the shorter than for a longer distance over the same line; provided, that upon application to the commission any railroad may in special cases, to prevent manifest injury, be authorized by the commission to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for transporting persons and property, and the commission shall from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated railroad may be relieved from the operations of this provision; provided, that no manifest injustice shall be imposed upon any citizen at intermediate points; provided further, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the commission from making what are known as “group rates” on any line or lines of railroad in this state.

4. Penalty for unjust discrimination.—Any railroad company violating any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, and shall for each offense pay to the state of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

5. Law does not apply, when.—Nothing herein shall prevent the carriage, storage or handling of freight free or at reduced rates, or to prevent railroads from giving free transportation or reduced transportation, under such circumstances and to such persons as may be allowed or permitted by the law of this state. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 6671. [4575] Damages; penalty; venue in cases of discrimination.—In case any railroad subject to this chapter shall do, cause to be done, or permit to be done any matter, act or thing in this chapter prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing herein required to be done by it, such railroad shall be liable to the person or persons, firm or corporation injured thereby for the damages sustained in consequence of such violation; and in case said railroad company shall be guilty of extortion or discrimination as by this chapter defined, then, in addition to such damages, such railroad shall pay to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county into or through which such railroad may run; provided, that such road may plead and prove as a defense to the action for said penalty that such overcharge was unintentionally and innocently made through a mistake of fact; provided, that any such recovery as herein provided shall in no manner affect a recovery by the state of a penalty provided for such violation. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6672. [4576] Penalty not otherwise provided.—If any railway company doing business in this state shall hereafter violate any other provision of this chapter, or shall do any other act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any other duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided by law, or shall fail, neglect or refuse to obey any lawful requirement, order, judgment or decree made by the railroad commission of Texas, for every such act of violation it shall pay to the state of Texas a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars. [Id. sec. 18. Amended Acts 1901, p. 265.]

Art. 6673. [4577] Venue of suits for recovery of penalty.—All of the penalties herein provided, except as provided in article 6671, shall be recovered and suits thereon shall be brought in the name of the state of Texas in the proper court having jurisdiction thereof in Travis county, or in any county to or through which such railroad may run, by the attorney general, or under his direction; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the state. In all suits arising under this chapter, the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the state under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury of the state; provided, however, suits brought under the acts of 1907, chapter 42, page 93, set out in the Penal Code in title 18, chapter 16, for the recovery of penalties, may be brought in any court in this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter in any county: (1) where an act violative of the provisions hereof is committed; (2) where such company or receiver has an agent or representative; (3) where the principal office of such company is situated, or such receiver or receivers, or either, reside; and one-half of all moneys collected under the provisions of said act, less the commission and expenses allowed by law, shall be paid into the state treasury and constitute a part of the general revenue of the state, and the remainder thereof shall be paid into the treasury of the county where such suit or suits may be maintained and constitute a part of the jury fund of such county; and be it further provided, that, it is hereby made the duty of the railroad commission of Texas, the attorney general, and the district and county attorneys of this state, under the direction of the attorney general, to see that the provisions of said act are enforced and obeyed, and penalties due the state are recovered and collected; and said commission shall report to the attorney general all violations within their knowledge, with the facts in their possession, and request him to institute, or have instituted, the proper proceedings for the recovery of any penalty that may be due the state. Any provision or provisions of said act which exempt or except any person, corporation or class of persons from the operation and effects of the same, or which authorize any such persons, corporations or class of persons to give, grant, issue, receive or accept free transportation or transportation at any rate other than is granted to any and all persons of this state, shall be held unconstitutional or invalid, such holding as to any such provision or provisions shall not invalidate any other portion of said act. [Act 1891, p. 55, sec. 19.]

Art. 6674. [4578] Certified copies of commission rates to be evidence. Effect given to classifications, when.—Upon application of any persons, the commission shall furnish certified copies of any classification, rates, rules, regulations, or orders; and such certified copies, or printed copies published by authority of the commission, shall be admissible in evidence in any suit and sufficient to establish the fact that any charge, rate, rule, order, or classification therein contained and which may be in issue in the trial, is the official act of the commission. A substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter shall be sufficient to give effect to all the classifications, rates, charges, rules, regulations, requirements and orders made and established by the commission, and none of them shall be declared inoperative for any omission of a technical matter in the performance of such act. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 6675. [4579] All violations of duty to be reported to attorney general.—It is hereby made the duty of such railroad commission to see that the provisions of this chapter and all laws of this state concerning railroads are enforced and obeyed, and that violations thereof are promptly prosecuted, and penalties due the state therefor recovered and collected. And said commission shall report all such violations, with the facts in their possession, to the attorney general, or other officer charged with the enforcement of the laws, and request him to institute the proper proceedings; and all suits between the state and any railroad shall have precedence in all courts over all other suits pending therein.

1. Duty to investigate all charges and see that the law is enforced.—It shall be the duty of the commission to investigate all complaints against railroad companies subject hereto, and to enforce all laws of this state in reference to railroads. But any two connecting railroads may enter into a contract whereby any part or all of the passengers, freight or cars, empty or loaded, hauled or transported by one and destined to points on or beyond the line of the other, shall be delivered to, received and transported by the other; which contract, however, shall be submitted to the railroad commission for examination and approval, and when so approved shall be binding; but, if the said contract be not approved by the commission, the same shall be void; provided, that any connecting line delivering freight to the owner or consignee of such freight may be sued by the owner thereof in the county where the freight is delivered for any damage that may be done to such freight in its transportation. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 6676. [4580] “Road,” “railroad,” “railroad companies,” etc., defined. Law applies only to railroads in this state. One train a day to be run.—The terms, “road,” “railroad,” “railroad companies,” and, “railroad corporations,” as used herein, shall be taken to mean and embrace all corporations, companies, individuals and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, that may now or hereafter own, operate, manage or control any railroad, or part of a railroad, in this state, and all such corporations, companies and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, as shall do the business of common carriers on any railroad in this state.

1: The provisions of this chapter shall be construed to apply to and affect only the transportation of passengers, freight and cars between points within this state; and this chapter shall not apply to street railways nor suburban or belt lines of railways in or near cities and towns.

2. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to see that, upon every railroad and branch of same carrying passengers for hire in this state, shall be run at least one train a day, Sundays excepted, upon which passengers shall be hauled, and the commission shall have no power to relax this provision, and shall further regulate passenger train service by requiring all passenger trains carrying passengers for hire to stop for a time sufficient to receive and let off passengers at such stations as may be designated by the commissioners; provided, that four trains each way, carrying passengers for hire, if so many are run daily, Sundays excepted, be required to stop as aforesaid at all county seat stations. [Id. sec. 22. Amended Act 1903, p. 183.]

Art. 6677. [4581] Law cumulative.—Any of the provisions of this chapter which may be inconsistent or in conflict with the act of 1907, chapter 42, page 93, relating to free passes and free transportation of goods, etc., incorporated in and made a part of the Penal Code of the state of Texas, shall be void and inoperative, but to that extent only. And the provisions of the foregoing articles of this chapter shall not have the effect to release or waive any right of action by the state, or any person, for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen or may hereafter arise under any law of this state; and all penalties accruing under this chapter shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Act 1891, p. 55, sec. 23.]

AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF COMMISSION OVER OTHER SUBJECTS.

Art. 6678. [4497] Railroad to furnish cars when demanded.—When the owner, manager, or shipper of any freight of any kind shall make application in writing to any superintendent, agent, or other persons in charge of transportation, to any railway company, receiver, or trustee operating a line of railway at the point the cars are desired upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railway company, receiver, trustee, or other person in charge thereof, to supply the number of cars so required, at the point indicated in the application within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed six days from the receipt of such application, and shall supply such cars to the persons so applying therefor, in the order in which such applications are made, without giving preference to any person; provided, if the application be for ten cars or less, the same shall be furnished in three days; and provided, further, that, if the application be for fifty cars or more, the railway company may have ten full days in which to supply the cars. [Acts of 1887, p. 133. Amended Act 1899, p. 67.]

Art. 6679. [4498] Application shall state what.—Said application for cars shall state the number of cars desired, the place at which they are desired, and the time they are desired; provided, that the place designated shall be at some station or switch on the railroad. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6680. [4499] Penalty for failure to furnish.—When cars are applied for under the provisions of this chapter, if they are not furnished, the railway company so failing to furnish them shall forfeit to the party or parties so applying for them the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car failed to be furnished, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, and all actual damages that such applicant may sustain. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6681. [4500] Applicant shall make deposit.—Such applicant shall, at the time of applying for such car or cars, deposit with the agent of such company one-fourth of the amount of the freight charge for the use of such cars, unless the said road shall agree to deliver said cars without such deposit. And such applicant shall, within forty-eight hours after such car or cars have been delivered and placed as hereinbefore provided, fully load the same; and upon failure to do so, he shall forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars for each car not used; provided, that where applications are made on several days, all of which are filled upon the same day, the applicant shall have forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the first application, and the next forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the next application, and so on; and the penalty prescribed shall not accrue as to any car or lot of cars applied for on any one day, until the period within which they may be loaded has expired. And if the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him, and shall so notify the said company or its agent, he shall forfeit and pay to the said railroad company, in addition to the penalty herein prescribed, the actual damages that such company may sustain by the said failure of the applicant to use said cars. [Id. sec. 4. Amended Act 1899, p. 67.]

Art. 6682. [4501] To deliver loaded cars in reasonable time.—When cars have been supplied and loaded, it shall be the duty of the railway company to deliver the same to the party or parties to whom they are consigned within a reasonable time; and the party or parties to whom the cars are consigned shall unload the same within forty-eight hours after delivery and notice, or forfeit to the railway company the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car so left unloaded, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6683. [4502] Necessary for applicant to show what.—It shall be necessary for the party or parties bringing suit against any railroad company under the provisions of this law to show by evidence that he or they had on hand at the time any demand for cars was made the amount of lumber, cotton, wool, hides or other freight necessary to load the cars so ordered; provided, that the provisions of this law shall not apply in cases of strikes or other public calamity. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6684. Duty to furnish cars, etc.—It is hereby declared to be the duty of every railroad company incorporated under the laws of the state of Texas and doing business in this state, under limitations and regulations prescribed by the railroad commission of Texas, to equip and provide sufficient motive power and rolling stock to handle all passenger and freight traffic expeditiously and without delay. [Act 1907, p. 297, sec. 1.]

Art. 6685. Commission to require and authorize mortgage, etc.—The railroad commission shall have authority, and it is hereby made its duty, to see that each and every railroad corporation chartered under the laws of this state, holding itself out as a public highway and common carrier, shall provide and equip itself with sufficient motive power and rolling stock, or other equipment necessary, to handle all passenger and freight traffic expeditiously and without delay. The railroad commission of Texas shall be vested with full power to require of such common carriers the purchase of such rolling stock and motive power as will properly equip such common carrier and facilitate the movement of all traffic, passenger and freight, and that will supply the transportation accommodations which such common carrier offers to perform as an inducement to the public to travel or ship via the lines of such railroad company, or common carrier. The railroad commission is also authorized and empowered to approve liens or mortgages that may be given by such railroad companies and common carriers to secure the purchase or lease price of any equipment or motive power which may be deemed by the railroad commission necessary for the proper discharge of its duty as a common carrier. If in the judgment and discretion of the commission any railroad company in this state, which now has an excessive issue of bonds and stocks outstanding, has not sufficient passenger and freight equipment and motive power to handle the passenger and freight business of such common carrier and railroad company, it shall be the duty of said railroad commission of Texas, after not less than five days' notice and hearing, to issue an order requiring the purchase of such rolling stock as in the judgment and discretion of the commission may be deemed necessary for the prompt, expeditious and comfortable transportation of freight and passengers over the line of such railroad company and common carrier; and in such case, the railroad commission of Texas is authorized to approve contracts or liens for the purpose of securing the purchase or lease price of such rolling stock, motive power and equipment. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6686. Penalty for failure to comply.—Any railroad company or common carrier failing to comply with the provisions of the two preceding articles, or to obey the orders of the railroad commission, made in pursuance of the provisions hereof, shall be deemed guilty of an abuse of their rights and privileges, and, upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars for a violation or failure to comply with any order that may be issued by the railroad commission as is provided said commission may do by article 6685, and each day that such railroad company or common carrier neglects, fails or refuses to comply with such orders shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6687. Shall furnish freight facilities, interchange cars, etc.—It is hereby declared to be the duty of every railroad company operating a line of railroad within this state, to provide sufficient tracks, switches, sidings, yards, depots and other facilities for receiving and delivering freight, motive power, cars and all other needful facilities and appliances, to enable it with reasonable dispatch to perform all of its duties as to all traffic which with ordinary foresight and diligence could be anticipated, as a common carrier; and to furnish all necessary and suitable cars and vehicles of transportation for all freight offered or tendered, or to be offered or tendered, to it for shipment within a reasonable time after demand therefor made by any shipper of such freight; and to supply within a reasonable time, at its station or stations, spurs, sidings, switches, or other places, at which it receives freight for transportation, and from which such shipper gives notice to such railway company that he desires to ship such freight, at the time designated by the shipper, where it is within reasonable time, sufficient suitable cars in which to load the same; and as to all services to be performed within the limits of this state, as to such freight and cars to transport same within a reasonable time to destination, when destined to a point upon the line of such railway receiving such freight, and, if destined to a point beyond the line of such railroad, then to transport and deliver within a reasonable time such freight in such loaded car or cars to the connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such shipment is made, or to be made, for the purpose of transportation by such connecting carrier on to the destination of such freight, or for delivery by it to the connecting line or lines forming any part of the route over which same is to be transported to its ultimate destination; and it shall likewise be the duty of each connecting line of railroad engaged in such transportation, as to all such service to be performed, as to all such freight and cars in which the same is carried within this state, to receive and transport within a reasonable time such loaded car or cars offered or tendered to it, if in suitable condition for movement, and deliver the same at the destination thereof, if destined to a point upon its line of railroad, and, if destined to a point beyond its line of railroad, then to its connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such car or cars are to be transported, subject to the same duties and obligations as if such freight had originated upon such line of railroad; provided, that where such freight forms less than a carload, or where it may be necessary to unload the same because of any accident or injury thereto, or to the car in which the same is being transported, or where such freight is unloaded at the request of the shipper en route, or where, by reason of any accidental or unavoidable cause, or in order to comply with any law or regulation provided by law, such freight is unloaded, or it is reasonably necessary to do so, or where it is for any other reason necessary to unload such freight in order to forward, or before it can be forwarded, in any such cases where suitable cars may be supplied. Provided, that as to freight carried wholly within this state, the railroad commission of Texas shall have the power, and authority is hereby vested in it, to make all needful rules and regulations for unloading cars at junction points, or otherwise forwarding cars, furnishing cars for forwarding or reloading and the exchange of cars and forwarding of such freight in the same or other cars. Provided, also, that whenever by reason of any accidental or unavoidable cause which can not be reasonably provided against by the use of reasonable foresight or diligence, such railroad company fails to so furnish cars and shall use reasonable diligence to do so promptly after the happening of such accidental or unavoidable cause, it shall not, on account of such failure, be liable to the penalties of attorney's fees, or as otherwise herein prescribed. But nothing in this article shall in any wise affect the right or remedy of any shipper or other person as same may exist at common law or under any statute to recover on account of the failure, delay, refusal to furnish cars for transportation of any freight, or other failure to perform any other legal duty, nor to in any wise exempt any such railroad company from any of the provisions of the statutes of this state, or other duties imposed by law. [Acts 1907, p. 343, sec. 1.]

Art. 6688. To interchange cars at junction points.—For the purpose of facilitating the movement, preservation and exchange of freight, it shall be the duty of every railroad company in this state, whose line of railroad connects with the line of any other railroad company in this state, to exchange at such connecting or junction points, the loaded and empty cars used in or for the transportation of freight carried upon such lines of railroad forming any part of the route over which said freight is carried or to be carried; and it shall be the duty of any such railroad companies forming any part of the through or joint route over which any freight is carried or to be carried, or having or participating in the joint rates on which such freight is carried or to be carried, on demand of any such connecting line, delivering to it any such loaded car or cars of freight at junction points within this state, to furnish to such delivering line within a reasonable time after such loaded cars are so received, at such junction point in this state, as many cars suitable for the carriage or transportation of similar freight as may be so delivered to it loaded, by such connecting line; and, upon the demand of the owner thereof, or the railroad company entitled thereto, or to the use thereof, it shall be the duty of every such railroad company so receiving the cars of another to return the same at the place where they were received, or at such place as may be by said railroads agreed upon, within a reasonable time after demand therefor; and as to cars exchanged in transporting freight wholly in this state within the time and according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the railroad commission of Texas. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6689. Commission to make rules and regulations.—The railroad commission of Texas is hereby authorized and empowered, as to all freight carried wholly within this state and the cars used therefor, to make and establish all needful rules and regulations, general and special, which may be different according to the circumstances and conditions to different railroads and localities and for different kind and classes of freight and cars, providing for the time, place and manner of demanding cars for or giving notice of shipment of such freight and the time, place, manner and order in which the same shall be furnished to shippers for the purpose of shipping freight between points in this state; and to prescribe rules and regulations for the furnishing, exchanging and interchanging of cars, loaded and empty, by railroad companies as between each other; the time, place, terms and conditions upon which such cars shall be furnished and such interchange shall be made, and in the absence of an agreement of such railroad companies, the reasonable compensation to be paid by each railroad company for the use, loss, injury or destruction of the cars of another railroad company in the transportation of such freight; the time within which, and the manner by which railroad companies shall give notice or make demand upon each other for cars to be furnished by one railroad company in exchange for loaded cars, or to have its cars returned, the reasonable free time to be allowed the shippers for the loading of such car or cars without incurring liability for demurrage, the free time which shall be allowed to the shipper or consignee in which to unload such freight without incurring any liability for demurrage; a schedule of reasonable demurrage charges reciprocal or otherwise, for the use of cars, irrespective of damages or penalties herein provided, which may be different for different railroads and different traffic and localities, to be paid by shippers for the detention or use of cars either in loading or unloading; or by the railroads for failing in a reasonable time to furnish cars, or to make delivery of loaded cars, subject to the penalties and damages herein provided, and the rules and regulations with respect thereto. Said commission, whenever it may deem same necessary in order to secure the prompt transportation of freight and preservation of the property, shall be authorized to prescribe the minimum speed at which freight shall be moved when being transported between points within this state, including the time for transfer and delivery as between connecting railroads. It shall be the duty of every such railway company to conform to all of the rules and regulations and orders of the commission made in accordance with the two preceding and the three succeeding articles; and the failure of any such railroad company to observe the rules and regulations of the commission, or to comply with the provisions of this law, as to freight carried wholly within this state, shall be deemed an abuse subject to correction by the railroad commission of Texas, and shall subject such railroad company to the penalties hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6690. Liable for damages, when.—Every railroad company which, in violation of any of the provisions of this law, shall fail to furnish any car or cars for the shipment of any freight within a reasonable time, or in case of the shipment of freight between points when within this state, then within the time prescribed by the railroad commission of Texas, in the event it shall prescribe the time by rules or regulations as provided for herein, and, if it shall fail to do so then within a reasonable time, or shall fail to receive and forward any loaded car or cars or to exchange cars as provided for herein, shall be liable to the shipper or other person injured or damaged thereby for all such injury and damages as may result to such shipper, and all special damages of which such railroad company had notice at the time of the shipment, or which shall occur after written notice thereof, and shall be liable in addition thereto for an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for the recovery of such damage; and in case of the failure or refusal to so furnish within a reasonable time any car or cars for the shipment of live stock, green fruit, vegetables or other perishable freight, such railroad company for such failure to furnish such car or cars within a reasonable time shall be liable to the shipper for the damage caused thereby, and a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought to recover the same. Every railroad company which shall fail to furnish cars or to exchange as required by the provisions of this law, or by the rules and regulations of the railroad commission as provided for herein, shall be liable to the railroad company injured thereby for all such damage as may result to it, and in addition thereto an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case of suit brought for the recovery of any damage. Every railroad company using cars of another railroad company, or which have been delivered to it by such railroad company, shall be liable to the party entitled thereto to pay for the reasonable use and hire thereof, and for injury or damage thereto, or destruction thereof, while in its possession or under its control, for the amount of such injury; and, in case of cars in the shipment of freight between points wholly within this state, the amount for the use or hire thereof may be prescribed by the railroad commission of Texas, except where the owners of such cars and such railway companies agree upon such compensation, in which case, the amount so fixed shall govern. And, where any such railroad company, or owner of any such car or cars, shall be dissatisfied with the amount fixed by the commission for such use, hire, loss or destruction, or damage to such car, or where the railroad company liable therefor shall fail to pay for the same, the railroad commission, or person entitled thereto, or which is liable for the use, hire, loss, injury or destruction of such cars, shall be entitled to establish the reasonable value thereof in a suit brought in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the parties, and of the amount in controversy; and such court shall render such judgment as to it shall seem just and reasonable; provided, that no railroad company shall be compelled to furnish its own cars to any other railroad company which is involved, except upon reasonable security furnished to it to protect it from loss of or damages to or destruction of such cars and compensation for the use thereof, and in no event shall any railroad company be required to furnish any cars to any connecting line, except to exchange for other cars reasonably suitable for the transportation of freight. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6691. Other penalty; "shipper" defined.—Every railroad company which shall wilfully, by its own gross negligence, or by the gross negligence of its agents having charge and management of the matter of furnishing cars, fail or refuse to furnish or exchange cars as herein provided for, or to transport or deliver the same within the time prescribed by the commission, as to freight carried between points wholly within this state, or if not so prescribed then within a reasonable time, shall, in addition to the other liabilities herein provided for, forfeit to the state of Texas, for each of such violations, not less than one dollar nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense; and each day of such failure or neglect as to each car which it, by such wilful or gross negligence, shall fail or refuse to furnish or exchange shall be treated as a separate offense; such penalties to be recovered at the suit of the attorney general of the state of Texas in the court having jurisdiction of the amount, at Austin in Travis county.

"Shipper" defined.—By the term, "shipper," as herein used, is meant any person, firm, or corporation tendering freight for shipment, and any consignor or consignee of any bill of lading, or other person, firm or corporation having the right of a consignor or consignee. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6692. "Reasonable time" defined.—It shall be deemed prima facie a reasonable time within which to order cars that any shipper shall give written notice thereof to the station agent at the place of shipment, or in his absence, to the nearest station agent of the railroad company to which such application is made, three days before such shipment of five cars or less, and five days for less than ten or more than five cars, and eight days for ten cars or more, and it shall be the duty of the railroad companies to furnish their station agents with printed blanks upon which shippers may make application for their cars; provided, that nothing in this and the five preceding articles shall be construed to exempt any railroad company from the obligation to furnish cars for shipment without such written notice, but it shall only be subject to the penalties of this law for failure to furnish cars to shippers where notice thereof shall be given in writing, or in case of shipment of freight wholly between points in this state, then in accordance with the rules and regulations of the railroad commission of Texas. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6693. Duty to provide suitable freight and passenger depots.—It shall be the duty of all railroad companies in this state to provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at their several stations for the accommodation of passengers, and to keep said depot buildings well lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public; provided, further, that said railroad companies shall keep and maintain separate apartments in such depot buildings for the use of white passengers and negro passengers, and to keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for the receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freights handled by such roads. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 401, sec. 1.]

Art. 6694. Commission to require compliance.—Power is hereby conferred upon the railroad commission of Texas to require compliance by railroad companies with the provisions of the preceding article under such regulations as said commission may deem reasonable, and all railroad companies shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with such requirements. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6695. Commission may order construction of union depots.—Where two or more railroad companies reach the same city or town in this state, it shall be the duty of the railroad commission of Texas to ascertain whether it is practicable and feasible for such railroad companies to use a joint or union passenger depot; and, if the railroad commission finds upon investigation that it is practicable for such railroad companies to join in the construction and use of a passenger depot, then it shall give notice to said railroad companies, and, after investigation and public hearing, may require the construction and maintenance of such union passenger depot by the railroad companies entering any such city or town; provided, that it shall appear to the railroad commission that the construction and maintenance of such joint or union passenger depot are just and reasonable to the railroad companies involved, and demanded by the public interest. The railroad commission may specify the requirements of such union depot as to kind and character; and said railroad commission may apportion the cost of constructing and maintaining the same to each railroad company in cases where the interested railroad companies can not themselves agree. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 399, sec. 1.]

Art. 6696. Penalty for failure.—Failure upon the part of any railroad company to observe and obey the orders of the railroad commission, issued in compliance with the preceding article, shall subject such railroad company to the fines and penalties prescribed by law for failure to obey the lawful requirements, orders, judgments and decrees made by the railroad commission of Texas. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6697. Right to lease another road.—Any railroad not exceeding thirty miles in length, connecting at or near the state line with any other railroad, may be leased by the company owning such other railroad, on such terms and for such time, not exceeding ten years, as may be approved by the railroad commission of Texas; provided, that said commission may refuse to approve the same for any cause which it may deem sufficient; and provided, further, that at any time before or after the expiration of such lease, the same may be renewed or another lease executed, subject to the provisions and limitations of this chapter; and provided, further, that the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to railroads whose total mileage in this state may exceed thirty miles, although a portion thereof so connecting at the state line may not exceed thirty miles in this state. [Acts 1899, p. 73, sec. 1.]

Art. 6698. Lessor company subject to jurisdiction of commission.—During the term of such lease, the lessor company shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the said railroad commission of Texas, and, notwithstanding such lease, shall be liable for any and all things occurring on or in connection with such road to the same extent as it would be if such lease had not been made, it being the intent hereof that the lease shall not operate to exempt the lessor company from any liability that would otherwise exist against it; but this article shall not be so construed as to release the lessee company from any liability. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6699. Exception as to general office, etc.—Any company whose road may be leased under the provisions of the two preceding articles is hereby exempted from the laws of this state requiring general offices to be maintained and the general officers to reside in this state, except in so far as it may be required by section 3, article 10, of the constitution of the state of Texas, and except in so far as may be required by the order or orders of said railroad commission. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6700. Process served upon whom.—In any suit against the lessor company, for the purpose of service of process, the officers and agents of the lessee company shall be the officers and agents of the lessor company. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6701. Railroad crossings under control of commission.—Where it should become necessary for the track of one railroad company to cross the track of another railroad company, it shall be the duty of the railroad commission of the state of Texas to ascertain and define by its decree the mode of such crossings which will occasion the least probable injury upon the rights of the company owning the road which is intended to be crossed; and, if it should appear to the said commission that it is reasonable and practicable to avoid a grade crossing, said commission shall by its order prevent the same. [Acts 1901, p. 255, sec. 1.]

Art. 6702. Interlocking, etc., switches to be used.—In any case where the tracks of two or more railways cross each other at a common grade in this state, it shall be the duty of such railroad company to protect such crossings by interlocking or other safety devices and regulations to be designated by the railroad commission of Texas, to prevent trains colliding at such crossings. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6703. Expenses of grade crossing to be paid by whom.—In case any railway company shall hereafter seek to cross, at grades with its track or tracks, the track or tracks of another railroad, the railroad seeking to cross at grade shall be compelled to interlock, or protect such crossings by safety devices to be designated by the railroad commission, and to pay all costs of appliances together with the expense of putting them in; provided, that this law shall not apply to crossings of side tracks. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6704. Trains may pass crossings without stopping, when.—Whenever interlocking or other safety devices are constructed and maintained in good order to the satisfaction of the railroad commission in compliance with the two preceding articles, then and in that case it shall be lawful for the engines and trains of such railroad or railroads to pass over such crossings without stopping. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6705. Penalty, etc.—Any company, corporation, receiver or person operating any railroad who shall refuse or neglect to comply with any order made by the said railroad commission in pursuance of the terms of the four preceding articles shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a penal sum of five hundred dollars per week for each week of such refusal and neglect; which said sum may be recovered in suit or suits to be brought by the attorney general of the state of Texas in the name of the state of Texas, upon duly verified information of such refusal and neglect, by any such railway company being lodged with said attorney general by the said railroad commission. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6706. Double-header trains, use prohibited, except when.—Where an unreasonable degree of hazard results to its employes, it is hereby declared to be an abuse of its franchise and privileges for any railroad company, or receiver, operating a line of railroad in this state to run or operate more than one working locomotive at the same time in propelling or moving any one train of cars, except in moving trains up steep grades, or where a locomotive propelling the train becomes temporarily disabled after leaving the terminal; and it shall be the duty of the railroad commission to investigate such abuses and see that the same are corrected, regulated, or prohibited as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1900, S. S., p. 15, sec. 1.]

Art. 6707. Use to be regulated by commission.—After such investigation, should the railroad commission decide to regulate or forbid the practice of using more than one working locomotive in the operation of any train at the same time on any railroad, or part of railroad, within this state, then it shall be their duty to make and record an order fully setting forth their decision and clearly designating the railroad, or part of railroad, on which such practice is forbidden or regulated, and how regulated. Notice of said order shall be served upon said railroad affected by it. Said notice shall contain in full

a copy of said order, and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the general offices of such railroad are located; and a copy of the same shall be delivered by the officer executing the same to the president, or the vice-president, or the general manager, or the general superintendent, or any general officer of said railroad in this state residing in said county; and said officer executing said writ shall make his return on the original, and deliver the same with his return forthwith to the commission. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6708. Penalty and venue of suits.—It shall be the duty of such railroad to obey said order; and any railroad corporation, or receiver, who shall at any time after such notice shall have been served for ten days violate the order of the commission, shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalty shall be recovered, and suits therefor shall be brought in the name of the state of Texas in the proper court having jurisdiction thereof in Travis county, Texas, or in any county into or through which such railroad may run, by the attorney general, or under his direction; and such suit shall be subject to the provisions of article 6673. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6709. Equipments to be used; commission to supervise.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier engaged in intrastate commerce by railroad within the state of Texas to use on its lines in moving intrastate traffic within said state any locomotive engine not equipped with a power driving wheel brake and appliances for operating the train brake system, or to run any train in such traffic that has not a sufficient number of cars in it so equipped with power or train brakes that the engineer on the locomotive drawing such train can control its speed without requiring brakemen to use the common hand brake for that purpose, or to run any train in such traffic that has not all of the power or train brakes in it used and operated by such engineer, or to run any train in such traffic that has not at least seventy-five per centum of the cars in it equipped with power or train brakes; and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect the objects of this and the five succeeding articles, the railroad commission of Texas may, from time to time, after full hearing by public order, increase the minimum percentage of cars in any train which shall be equipped with power or train brakes; and after such minimum percentage has been so increased it shall be unlawful for any common carrier to run any train in such traffic which does not comply with such increased minimum percentage. [Acts 1909, p. 64, sec. 1.]

Art. 6710. Improved couplers to be used.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, engaged in commerce as aforesaid, to haul or permit to be hauled or used on its line of railroad within the state of Texas, any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle employed in moving intrastate traffic within the said state which is not equipped with couplers, coupling automatically by impact, and which can be coupled and uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the ends of locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6711. Drawbar of engine, length of.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, engaged in commerce as aforesaid, to use in moving intrastate traffic within said state any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle, any drawbar of which, when measured perpendicularly from the level of the tops of the track rails upon which such locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle is standing to the center of such drawbar, is more than thirty-four and one-half inches in height, or less than thirty-one and one-half inches in height. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6712. May refuse rolling stock not properly equipped.—When any person, firm, company, corporation or receiver engaged in commerce as aforesaid, shall have equipped a sufficient number of its locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles so as to comply with the provisions of article 6709, it may lawfully refuse to receive from connecting lines of road or shippers any locomotives, tenders, cars, or similar vehicles not equipped sufficiently, in accordance with article 6709, with such power or train brakes as will work and readily interchange with the brakes in use on its own locomotives, tenders, cars, and similar vehicles, as required by this law. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6713. Rolling stock to be provided with grab irons, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, engaged in commerce as aforesaid, to use in moving intra-state traffic within said state any locomotive, tender, cars, or similar vehicle which is not provided with sufficient and secure grab irons, hand holds and foot stirrups. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6714. Penalty, how recovered.—Every such common carrier, whether a co-partnership, a corporation, a receiver, or an individual or association of individuals, violating any of the provisions of the five preceding articles shall be liable to the state of Texas for a penalty of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense; and such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of the state of Texas, in any court of proper jurisdiction in the county of Travis, or in any other county in said state into or through which such line of railroad may run, by the attorney general, or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in the county in which the suit is brought; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the state; and the fees and compensation so allowed shall be over and above the fees allowed such attorney under other provisions of law. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6715. To build sidings, etc., when.—All railroads in Texas shall be required to build sidings and spur tracks sufficient to handle the business tendered such railroads, when ordered to do so by the railroad commission, as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1903, p. 93, sec. 1.]

Art. 6716. Commission to enforce compliance.—Power is conferred on the railroad commission of Texas to require compliance by railroad companies with the provisions of the preceding article, under such regulations as said commission may deem reasonable; and all railroad companies shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with the requirements of the railroad commission as provided herein. [Id. sec. 2.]

Article 6717. [4584a] Regulation of issue of stocks, bonds, etc., by railroads vested in state.—Among other things, the power and authority of issuing or executing bonds, or other evidences of debt, and all kinds of stock and shares thereof, and the execution of all liens and mortgages by railroad corporations in this state are special privileges and franchises, the right of supervision, regulation, restriction, and control of which has always been, is now, and shall continue to be vested in the state government, to be exercised according to the provisions of this and other laws. [Acts 1893, p. 57.]

Art. 6718. [4584b] Issue of incumbrance above value of the road prohibited; except, etc.—Hereafter no bonds or other indebtedness shall be increased or issued or executed by any authority whatsoever, and secured by lien or mortgage on any railroad, or part of railroad, or the franchises or property appurtenant or belonging thereto, over or above the reasonable value of said railroad property; provided, that in case of emergency, on conclusive proof shown by the company to the railroad commission that public interests or the preservation of the property demand it, the said commission may permit said bonds, together with the stock in the aggregate, to be executed to an amount not more than fifty per cent over the value of said property. [Id.]

Art. 6719. [4584c] Railroad commission to ascertain and report railroad values; proceeding incident thereto.—It shall be the duty of the railroad commission to ascertain, and in writing report to the secretary of state, the value of each railroad in this state, including all its franchises, appurtenances and property. After it shall have prepared said report of value, the commission shall give the company interested ten days notice in writing, by registered letter to the president, treasurer or receiver of said railroad, to the effect that said report is ready to be made, and that if it have any objections thereto it must file them, in writing, within forty days after said service, or the same will be so deposited with the secretary of state as correct. Should the company, or its duly authorized representative, file with said commission any objections to said report of value, the commission shall duly investigate and pass on the same. On investigation, if the commission conclude that its report of value is too low or too high, then it shall make the necessary correction before filing it. Should no objections be filed within the time permitted, or being filed and on examination found without merit, the commission shall forthwith file its said report in the office of the secretary of state, where it shall remain as a public record, as a limitation for the issuance of indebtedness under the limitations prescribed in article 6718. To promote public interests and protect private rights, the commission, after due notice under the rule herein prescribed, may correct its report of value of any railroad at any time it may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 6720. [4584d] Effect of judicial or other sale of railroad.—Every judicial or other sale of any railroad in this state hereafter made, which shall have the effect to discharge the property so sold from liability in the hands of purchasers for claims for damages, unsecured debts, or junior mortgages against such railroad company so sold out, shall have the effect to annul and cancel all claims of every stockholder therein to any share in the stock of such railroad; and it shall not be lawful for said purchasers, or for any railroad company organized hereafter to operate said railroad, to issue any stock in lieu of the old stock or to allow any compensation therefor in any manner whatever, nor shall all or any part of the debt to satisfy which such sale is made be continued or held as a claim or lien on said property. [Id.]

Art. 6721. [4584e] Purchasers complying with law may issue bonds, etc.—The purchasers of said property who procure it clear of incumbrance, or any company organized by their consent to operate said railroad under and in pursuance of the laws of this state, may issue stock and bonds in the proportion that they may deem advisable, subject to the rules, restrictions and limitations prescribed in the three preceding articles.

Art. 6722. [4584f] Authority to issue bonds before completion of roads must be obtained, etc.—Should any company or corporation authorized to construct, own or operate a railroad in this state desire to issue bonds or other indebtedness, to be secured by lien or other mortgage on its franchises and property, in advance of the completion of the said railroad, it shall make application to and first procure the consent of the railroad commission thereto. In said application, it shall exhibit to the commission its contract with the construction company, if it have any, the profile of its completed road or part of road, the evidence of its right of way, depot grounds, terminal facilities, the extent and value of work done or in process of completion, the amount of property received, the amount of stock subscribed and the amount paid in, and all other necessary facts showing the value of the franchises and property proposed as security for said contemplated debts. If, on investigation, the commission is satisfied that the company is acting in good faith, and that its contract with the construction company is reasonable and fair to the public, then it shall authorize the execution of said indebtedness and lien to the extent necessary for the demands of the work, at no time to be more than fifty per cent over the value of the whole property and franchises. In executing said bonds, the company shall comply with article 6723, and have them registered, as required in article 6724. [Id.]

Art. 6723. [4584g] Prescribing how certificates of stock shall issue.—Each railroad company now existing, or that shall hereafter be organized, or that shall be reorganized under the laws of this state, or which shall increase its stock under the laws of this state, shall issue certificates to the subscribers to its said stock under the following regulations: A majority of the board of directors shall meet in person in the state of Texas, at the principal office of such company, and shall cause to be made a list of the subscribers to such stock, showing the number of shares subscribed by each, the amount of stock represented by each share and the amount actually paid, labor done or property received on each share of stock, and shall cause to be affixed to each name on said list a number, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any certificate previously issued. The president of the board, or presiding officer of the meeting at which the issuing of such certificates of stock is authorized, shall make a certificate to said statement to the effect that the same is correct, and that the amount of money paid, labor done and property received as stated is correct, and shall sign the same in person. Such statement shall thereupon be entered at large upon the minutes, and, after having the seal of the company affixed thereto, shall be attested by the secretary of the company, and deposited with the railroad commission, and by it filed and preserved in the office. The secretary of the company shall then be authorized to make out and deliver to each stockholder in said list a certificate corresponding with said statement in number, name, number of shares, amount of stock represented by each share, and the amount of money or its equivalent paid upon each share; which certificate shall be signed by the president of the said railroad company, attested by the secretary, with the seal of said company affixed. No railroad company shall hereafter increase its stock, unless all existing shares of stock shall have been paid in full, or all unpaid shares of such stock have been sold out as forfeited under the law. When the certificates to be issued are for increase of stock, the statement herein required to be made by the board of directors shall state that all existing shares of stock have been paid in full, or that all shares not paid in full have been sold out or forfeited under the law. In no event shall the stock exceed the value of the railway property, and the correct aggregate amount of stock so issued by each railway company shall be certified to and registered in the office of the secretary of state by or at the instance of the railroad commission. [Id.]

Art. 6724. [4584h]. Prerequisites to the issue by railroad companies of bonds, etc.—Whenever any railroad company in this state shall hereafter desire to make, issue, and sell any bonds, or evidences of debt, which are to become a lien on its property, it shall comply with the laws of this state regulating the same, and in addition thereto shall have said bonds prepared, signed by the president of the company, and attested by the secretary, with the seal of the company attached thereto. Each bond shall be numbered, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any preceding bond issued by it, and continue consecutively until all are numbered. The bonds shall be dated, made payable at a time not exceeding thirty years from date, and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. The said bonds, when thus prepared, shall be presented to the railroad commission of this state, with a statement in writing, signed and sworn to by the president of said company, showing the amount of the stock of said company, and the amount of outstanding bonds, if any, of said company. If said bonds are such as are permitted under this law, and the railroad commission shall be so satisfied, it shall approve said bonds, and shall issue to the secretary of state a direction to register said bonds, specifying the numbers, dates, and amounts thereof. And said commission shall keep in its office a correct record of the bonds so approved by it, giving the name of the company, the numbers, dates of execution and maturity of the bonds, the amount and rate of interest of each, and the date of approval; provided, that this provision shall not apply to receivers' certificates where the amount does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 6725. [4584i]. Duty of secretary of state.—When any such bonds shall be presented to the secretary of state with the direction aforesaid to register, he shall register said bonds by entering a description thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall show the date, number, amount, when due, the rate of interest on each bond, and also the date when the same is registered. The secretary of state shall indorse on each bond, under the seal of his office and his official signature, together with the date thereof, as follows: "This bond is registered under the direction of the railroad commission of Texas." No bond, or other evidence of debt, hereafter issued by or under the authority of any person, firm, corporation, court, or railroad company, whereby a lien is created on its franchise or property situated in this state, shall be valid or have any force until the same has been registered as required herein.

Art. 6726. [4584j]. Forfeiture of charter.—If any railroad company owning or operating a railroad in this state shall hereafter issue or consent to or cause to be issued any bonds or other evidences of debt to be or become a lien on its railroad property so owned or operated, or shall issue any stock not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, such action shall work a forfeiture of the charter of said company; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to forfeit the same. [Id.]

Art. 6727. [4584k] Certificates, bonds, etc., void.—Every certificate of stock in any railroad company, and every bond and other evidence of debt operating as a lien upon the property of such railroad company, which shall be made, issued or sold without a compliance with this chapter, shall be void.

Art. 6728. [4584l] Penalties hereunder; venue.—Each and every railroad director, president, secretary, or other official, who shall knowingly make any false statement upon which to secure the registration of any bond or other evidence of debt as aforesaid, or who shall by false statement knowingly made procure of the railroad commission direction to the secretary of state to register the same, and which shall be by the secretary of state registered, or shall with knowledge of such fraud negotiate, or cause to be negotiated, any such bond or other security issued in violation of this chapter, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code, and shall likewise be liable to any creditor of such company for the full amount of damages sustained by such wrongful conduct. Venue in such cases shall be in either of the district courts held in Travis county, or in the county where the principal office of the railway company whose property is sought to be so incumbered or affected is located.

Art. 6729. [4584m] State not liable, etc.—Nothing in this law, and no act done or performed under or in connection with it, shall be held or construed to bind or make the state of Texas liable to pay or guarantee, in any manner whatsoever, any obligation, debt, or claim executed or assumed under or by virtue of its provisions.

Art. 6730. Amendment of charter; construction of branch lines; issuance of bonds.—Any corporation incorporated for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating a railroad under the laws of this state, and which on April 15, 1901, owned a line of railway already constructed, which has outstanding stocks and also outstanding bonds secured by a mortgage lien upon its property, or by any other character of lien, may amend its charter in accordance with chapter 1 of this title, and in accordance with the constitution and laws of this state, and may provide by such amendment for the making of any extension or extensions, or branch line or lines, that it may desire to construct, and may issue stocks and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable value of such extension, or extensions, or such branch line or lines, and such terminal properties as it may acquire, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and the railroad commission of the state of Texas is hereby empowered to authorize the execution and issuance of such stocks and bonds, or bonds, and, in determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, said commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock or indebtedness, or bonds previously issued and secured by lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed; provided, that any existing mortgages or liens upon the property of such corporation constructed or owned prior to the time of making such amendment of its charter and to the construction of such extension or extensions, or branch line or lines, or to the acquiring of such terminal properties, shall not attach to or become a lien upon the extension or extensions, branch line or lines, or terminal properties constructed or acquired under such amended charter. This article shall not be so construed as to in any wise repeal or impair any other of the provisions of this chapter, or of the existing laws of this state, except in so far as the same may be changed by the provisions of this article. [Acts 1901, p. 257, secs. 1 and 2.]

Art. 6731. Suburban railroad stocks and bonds valid, when.—In all cases in which the railroad commission of the state of Texas may decide that any corporation created under chapter 1 of this title for the purpose of operating a local suburban railway not exceeding ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town, in addition to such mileage as it may have within the same, is not for any reason subject to the control of said railroad commission in reference to the issuance of stock and bonds, or either, under the act of the legislature of this state entitled, "An Act to define franchises, to make public the value of railroads, to make effective section 6, article 12, of the constitution of the state of Texas; to declare the effect of judicial and other sale of railroads; to limit the amount of stocks and bonds and other indebtedness that may be issued by railroad companies, and to regulate the manner of issuing, registering and securing the same; to prescribe penalties for violating the provisions of this act, and to prescribe the duties of the railroad commission and the attorney general in relation thereto," being chapter 50 of the acts of the legislature of Texas of 1893, and this chapter. Said corporation, after such decision of said railroad commission, shall have the right to issue its said stock and bonds, or either, and also to increase its stock and bonds, or either, without the control of said railroad commission, and without complying with the acts aforesaid in reference thereto; and said stock and bonds, when so issued, shall in all respects be as valid and binding as they would be if there were no such acts. [Acts 1903, p. 29, sec. 1.]

Art. 6732. Stocks and bonds may issue for double tracks.—Any railroad company chartered under the laws of this state, whenever the railroad commission shall find it advisable to authorize it to do so, may construct, own and operate an additional line of road upon its right of way, together with all necessary sidings, switches and turnouts, and may issue stock and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable cost of such improvements, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and the railroad commission of the state of Texas is empowered to authorize the execution and issuance of such stock and bonds, or bonds; and, in determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, or bonds, the said commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock, indebtedness or bonds previously issued and secured by lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed. [Acts 1903, p. 131, sec. 1.]

Article 6733. Right of eminent domain.—All corporations chartered for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, maintaining and operating lines of electric railway between any cities and towns in the state of Texas, for the transportation of freight or passengers, or both, shall have the right of eminent domain, as fully to all intents and purposes as is now conferred by law upon steam railroad corporations, and shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation whomsoever for the purpose of acquiring rights of way upon which to construct and operate their lines of railways and sites for depots and power plants; provided, that no cemetery grounds, nor any part thereof, shall be so taken or condemned. [Acts 1907, p. 23, sec. 1.]

Art. 6734. Width of right of way, survey, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right and power to lay out rights of way for their railways not to exceed two hundred feet in width, and to construct their railways and appurtenances thereon, and, for the purpose of cuttings and embankments, to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of their said railways, and to cut down any standing trees, or remove any other structure that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing such railway, compensation being made therefor in accordance with law. And to the accomplishment of these ends, such corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey of their proposed railways to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purposes may enter upon the lands, or waters of any person or corporation subject to responsibility for all damages that may be occasioned thereby. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6735. May construct across streams, streets, etc.—Such corporations shall have the right and power to construct their railways along, across and over any stream of water, water course, bay, navigable water, arm of the sea, street, highway, steam railway, plank road, turnpike or canal which the route of such railway shall touch, and shall have the right to erect and operate bridges, trams, trestles, or causeways over, along or across any such stream, water course, navigable water, bay, arm of the sea, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal; provided, however, that any such bridge or other structure shall be so erected as not unnecessarily or unreasonably to prevent the navigation of any such stream, water course, bay, arm of the sea, or navigable water; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the construction of any such railway upon or across any street, alley, square, or property of any incorporated city or town, without the assent of said corporation of said city or town, and that in case of the construction of any electric railway along and upon highways, plank roads, turnpikes or canals, such interurban electric railway company shall first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having the jurisdiction of the same. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6736. Same powers of eminent domain as steam railroads.—All rights and powers of eminent domain and condemnation of property in this title

hereinbefore set out and conferred upon steam railway companies of this state, and the manner of exercise thereof, are hereby conferred upon interurban railway companies mentioned in this chapter. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6737. May condemn easement over other electric railway tracks, etc.—The right of condemnation herein given to interurban electric railway companies shall include the power and authority to condemn, for their use and benefit, easements and rights of way to operate interurban cars along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company owning, controlling or operating such track or tracks upon any public street or alley in any town or city of this state for the purpose hereinafter mentioned, subject to the consent, authority and control of the city council of such town or city. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6738. Proceedings to condemn easement.—Any such interurban electric railway company, seeking to avail itself of the benefits of this chapter shall have the right to condemn an easement along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company for the purposes only of securing an entrance into and an outlet from a town or city upon a route to be designated by the city council or other city authorities in control of the streets and alleys of such city. And in any proceeding to condemn an easement or right of way for the purposes above mentioned, the court, or the jury trying the case, shall define and fix the terms and conditions upon which such easement or right of way shall be used; provided, the court rendering such judgment shall be authorized upon a subsequent application or applications by either of the parties to the original proceedings, or any one claiming through or under them, to review and reform the terms and conditions of such grant and the provisions of such judgment, and the hearing upon such application shall be in the nature of a retrial of said cause with respect to the terms and conditions upon which said easement shall be used; but the court shall not have power upon any such rehearing to declare such easement forfeited, or to impair the exercise thereof; provided, that no application for a rehearing shall be made until two years after the final judgment on the last preceding application. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6739. "Interurban railway company" defined.—An interurban electric railway company, within the meaning of this chapter, is a corporation chartered under the laws of this state for the purpose of conducting and operating an electric railway between two cities or between two incorporated towns, or between one city and one incorporated town in this state; and the rights secured under this chapter by any interurban company shall be inoperative and void if the road to be constructed under the charter of said company is not fully constructed from a city or incorporated town to some other city or incorporated town within twelve months from the date of the final judgment awarding to said company said easements and right of way. Any interurban company availing itself of the privileges conferred by this chapter is hereby prohibited from receiving for transportation at any point on that portion of the track or tracks so condemned, without the consent of the company over whose track or tracks the easement is condemned, any freight or passengers destined to a point or points between the termini of the track or tracks so condemned; and a wilful violation by the company of this provision of this article shall operate to forfeit such easements or rights of way. If this article shall be held by the courts of this state invalid for any reason, such invalidity shall not affect any other article or portion of this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6740. Chartered rights include sale of electric lights and power.—Such interurban electric railway companies shall also have the right and authority to produce, supply and sell electric light and power to the public and to municipalities. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6741. Provisions of this chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be held and construed to be cumulative of all general laws of this state on the subject of interurban electric railways when not in conflict herewith; but nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to have the effect to confer the power of eminent domain, or any of the powers herein conferred, except those conferred in the preceding article, upon any interurban railroad or interurban railroad company, or upon any person, firm, association, corporation, or to add to the powers already possessed by any such railroad, or railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation, so as to enable or authorize it to condemn any land or ground occupied by any portion of its line or track, already constructed March 5, 1907, or to condemn any land or ground for the purpose of changing the location of any track or line already constructed at said date; provided, that nothing contained in this article shall be construed to take from any interurban railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation, any power of eminent domain already possessed by it. [Id. sec. 7.]

Half fare for children in cities of forty thousand or more inhabitants.....	6742	Free fare for children under five years of age.....	6744
Reduced tickets, how used and sold, etc....	6743	Transfers regulated.....	6745

Article 6742. Half fare for children in cities of forty thousand and more inhabitants.—All persons or corporations, owning or operating street railways in or upon the public streets of any town or city in this state of not less than forty thousand inhabitants, are required to carry children of the age of twelve years or less at and for one-half the charge or fare regularly collected by such person or corporation for the transportation of adult persons; provided, that this article shall not apply to street cars carrying children or students to and from schools, colleges, or other institutions of learning, situated at a distance of one mile or more beyond the limits of the incorporated city or town from which said cars run. [Acts 1903, p. 182, sec. 1.]

Art. 6743. Reduced tickets, how used and sold, etc.—All such persons or corporations, owning or operating street railways, shall sell or provide for the sale of tickets in lots of twenty, each good for one trip over the line or lines owned or operated by such person or corporation, at and for one-half the regular fare or charge collected for the transportation of adult persons, to students not more than seventeen years of age in actual attendance upon any academic, public or private school, of grades not higher than the grades of the public high schools of this state, situated within or adjacent to the town or city in which such street railway is located. Such tickets are required to be sold only upon the presentation by the student desiring to purchase the same of the written certificate of the principal of the school upon which he is in attendance, showing that he is not more than seventeen years of age, is in regular attendance upon such school, and is within the grades hereinbefore provided. Such tickets are not required to be sold to such students, and shall not be used, except during the months of the year when such schools are in actual session, and such students shall be transported at half fare only upon the presentation of such tickets. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6744. Free fare for children under five years.—All such persons or corporations are required to transport children of the age of five years or less, when attended by a passenger of above said age, free of charge. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6745. Transfers regulated.—All such persons or corporations are required to accord to all passengers referred to in the foregoing articles of this chapter the same rights as to the use of transfers issued by their own or other lines as are or may be accorded to passengers paying full fare. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 6746. Separate coaches for white and negro passengers.—Every railway company, street car company, and interurban railway company, lessee, manager, or receiver thereof, doing business in this state as a common carrier of passengers for hire, shall provide separate coaches or compartments, as hereinafter provided, for the accommodation of white and negro passengers, which separate coaches or compartments shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience. [Acts 1907, p. 58.]

Art. 6747. "Negro" defined.—The term "negro," used herein, includes every person of African descent as defined by the statutes of this state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6748. Separate coaches, how defined and marked.—Each compartment of a railroad coach, divided by good and substantial wooden partitions with a door therein, shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this chapter; and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart; and each compartment of the street car or interurban car, divided by board or marker placed in a conspicuous place, bearing appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart, shall be sufficient as a separate compartment within the meaning of this chapter. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6749. Penalty.—Any railway company, street car company, or interurban railroad company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, which shall fail to provide its cars bearing passengers with separate coaches or compartments, as above provided for, shall be liable for each and every failure to a penalty not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction; and each trip, run with such train or street car or interurban car without such separate coach or compartment shall be deemed a separate offense. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6750. Exceptions and limitations as to provisions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to prohibit nurses from traveling in any coach or compartment with their employer, or employes upon the train or cars in the discharge of their duty, nor shall it be construed to apply to such freight trains as carry passengers in cabooses; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent railroad companies in this state from hauling sleeping cars, dining or cafe cars, or chair cars, attached to their trains, to be used exclusively by either white or negro passengers, separately but not jointly. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6751. Law to be posted conspicuously.—Every railroad company carrying passengers in this state shall keep this law posted in a conspicuous place in each passenger depot and each passenger coach provided in this law. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6752. Does not apply to excursions.—The provisions of this law shall not apply to any excursion train or street car or interurban car as such for the benefit of either race. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6753. Conductors to exclude passengers from wrong car.—Conductors of passenger trains, street cars, or interurban lines, provided with separate coaches, shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach or compartment in which they are not entitled to ride under the provisions of this law; and the conductor in charge of the train or street car, or interurban car, shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to remove from a coach or street car, or interurban car, any passenger not entitled to ride therein under the provisions of this chapter, and upon his refusal to do so knowingly shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code of this state. [Id. sec. 9.]

Article 6754. Organization.—The ranger force, authorized to be organized by the governor, is for the purpose of protecting the frontier against marauding or thieving parties, and for the suppression of lawlessness and crime throughout the state. [Acts 1901, p. 41, sec. 1.]

Art. 6755. To consist of four companies.—The ranger force shall consist of not to exceed four separate companies of mounted men, each company to consist of not to exceed one captain, one first sergeant and twenty privates, and one quartermaster for the entire force. The captains of companies and the quartermaster shall be appointed by the governor, and shall be removed at his pleasure; unless sooner so removed by the governor, they shall serve for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6756. Compensation.—The pay of officers and men shall be as follows: Captains, one hundred dollars each, per month; sergeants, fifty dollars each, per month; and privates, forty dollars each, per month. The payments shall be made at such times and in such manner as the adjutant general of the state may prescribe. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6757. Quartermaster.—The governor shall appoint a quartermaster for this force, who shall discharge the duties of quartermaster, commissary and paymaster, and shall rank and receive the pay of a captain. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6758. Under command of governor.—This force shall always be under the command of the governor, to be operated by his direction, in such manner, in such detachments, and in such localities as the governor may direct. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6759. Members to serve two years.—The governor is authorized to keep this force, or so much thereof as he may deem necessary, in the field as long as in his judgment there may be necessity for such a force; and men who may volunteer in such service shall do so for such term not to exceed two years, subject to disbandment in whole or in part at any time, and reassemblage or reorganization of the whole force, or such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary by order of the governor. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6760. Quartermaster to purchase supplies.—The quartermaster, or, if so directed by the adjutant general, company commanders shall purchase all supplies hereinafter provided for, and shall make a certificate on the voucher of the party or parties from whom the supplies are purchased, to the effect that the account is correct and just, and the articles purchased were at the lowest market price. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6761. Members to furnish equipment, etc.—Each officer, non-commissioned officer and private of said force shall furnish himself with a suitable horse, horse equipment, clothing, etc.; provided, that if his horse is killed in action it shall be paid for by the state at a fair market value at the time when killed. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6762. Arms and equipment.—The state shall furnish each member of said force with one improved carbine and pistol at cost, the price of which shall be deducted from the first money due such officer or man, and shall furnish said force with rations of subsistence, camp equipage and ammunition for the officers and men, and also forage for horses. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6763. Rations and forage.—The amount of rations and forage shall not exceed the following, to wit: For each man's daily allowance, twelve ounces bacon or twenty ounces beef, twenty ounces of flour or corn meal, two and two-fifths ounces of beans or peas, one and three-fifths ounces of rice, three and one-fifth ounces of coffee, three and one-fifth ounces of sugar, one-sixth gill of vinegar or pickles, one-sixth ounce candles, one-third ounce of soap, two-thirds of an ounce of salt, one-twenty-fourth of an ounce of pepper, four and four-fifths ounces of potatoes, sixteen-twenty-fifths of an ounce of baking powder. The forage for each horse shall not exceed twelve pounds of corn or oats, and fourteen pounds of hay per day, and two ounces of salt per week; provided, that, when in case of emergency the members of said force are employed in such duty that it is impracticable to furnish the rations herein provided for, each member of said force so employed shall be allowed for his necessary actual expenses for such subsistence not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents per day; and provided, further, that, when it becomes necessary to move the members of said force from one place to another by railroad, the actual necessary expenses of such transportation shall be paid [by the state]. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6764. Clothed with powers of peace officers.—The officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of this force shall be clothed with all the powers of peace officers, and shall aid the regular civil authorities in the execution of the laws. They shall have authority to make arrests, and to execute process in criminal cases, and in such cases they shall be governed by law regulating and defining the powers and duties of sheriffs when in discharge of similar duties; except that they shall have the power, and shall be authorized to make arrests and to execute all process in criminal cases in any county in the state. They shall, before entering on the discharge of these duties, take an oath before some authority legally authorized to administer the same, that each of them will faithfully perform his duties in accordance with law. In order to arrest and bring to justice men who have banded together for the purpose of committing robbery, or other felonies, and to prevent the execution of the laws, the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of said force may accept the services of such citizens as shall volunteer to aid them; but while so engaged such citizens shall not receive pay from the state for such services. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6765. In case of arrest to convey prisoner to county jail.—When said force, or any member or members thereof, shall arrest any person charged with the commission of a criminal offense, they shall forthwith convey said person to the county where he or they stand charged with the commission of an offense, and shall deliver him or them to the proper officer, taking his receipt therefor, and all necessary expenses thus incurred will be paid by the state. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6766. Regulations to be made by governor and adjutant general.—The governor, and adjutant general, shall cause to be made such regulations for the government and control of the organization herein provided for, and for the enlistment and employment of non-commissioned officers and privates, as they may deem necessary, to the end that the force so provided shall be as effective as possible. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 6767. [4585] Old records to be transcribed, when and how.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of any county, when the records or indexes of such county have become or may become defaced, worn, or in any condition endangering their preservation in a safe and legible form, to procure a good and well-bound book or books, as the case may be, and require the county clerk to transcribe, or have transcribed by a sworn deputy, the records contained in such book or books, in a plain, legible hand and with some standard ink of a permanent black color. [Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 84, sec. 1.]

Art. 6768. [4586] Shall conform to the original record and be compared.—The book or books so transcribed shall conform in all respects to the original record as indexed; and the designation of such transcribed book or books, whether by letter or number, shall not be changed from the original and they shall be carefully compared with the original record by said clerk or sworn deputy so transcribing the same, assisted by some other sworn deputy. [Id. secs. 1, 2.]

Art. 6769. [4587] Correctness to be certified to, and effect of same.—When said record or records shall have been found to be truly and correctly transcribed, the county clerk, with the sworn deputies so transcribing and verifying the same, shall certify officially, at the conclusion of the record, with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page to the correctness of the same, reciting the number of pages contained in said book, from one to the highest number; after which said transcribed record or records shall have all the force and effect in judicial proceedings in the courts of the state as the original records. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6770. [4588] Original books to be preserved.—The original book or books transcribed according to the provisions of this chapter shall be carefully kept and preserved by such clerk, as other archives of his office. [Id.]

Art. 6771. [4589] To what records this chapter shall apply.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all records belonging to the district court, county court and commissioners' court, including all records used for registration, except the records of the surveyor's office; but the clerk of the district court shall perform all the duties herein required of the county clerk so far as the same appertains to the records of the said district clerk's office; and the records so transcribed by the district clerk shall have the same force and effect as the original records.

Art. 6772. [4590] Commissioners' court to have records transcribed, when.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of any county in this state which may have been created, either in whole or in part from the territory of any other county or counties in this state, or to which may have been added since its creation the territory of any other county or counties in this state, to secure a well-bound book or books, as the case may be, and require the county clerk to transcribe, or have transcribed, from the record of said other county or counties by a sworn deputy, all the deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title affecting or in any wise relating to all lands and real property which are or may be embraced in the territory so acquired from another county or counties, and which deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title appear of record in said county or counties from which said territory may have been taken as having been there recorded prior to the transfer of territory as aforesaid; and, when the acquired territory may have been from more than one county, then the clerk shall provide a separate record book for each county, which said book or books shall be indexed and arranged as is now required for record books in case of deeds and mortgages. [Acts of 1879, p. 105.]

Art. 6773. [4591] How to be transcribed.—Said records shall be transcribed in a plain, legible hand, and with some standard ink of a permanent black color, and when so transcribed shall be carefully compared with the original record by the said clerk or sworn deputy so transcribing the same, assisted by some other sworn deputy. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6774. [4592] To have effect of judicial proceedings, when.—When said record or records shall have been found to be truly and correctly transcribed, the county clerk, with the sworn deputies so transcribing and verifying the same, shall certify under their official oath of office at the conclusion of the record with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page the correctness of the same, after which said transcribed record or records shall have all the force and effect in judicial proceedings in the courts of this state as the original records. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6775. [4593] Compensation.—The county clerk, or person making such transcript, shall be entitled to compensation therefor at the rate of fifteen cents for one hundred words, and for comparing and verifying the same, payable out of the county treasury upon warrant issued under order of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6776. [4593a] Translations may be authorized by commissioners' court.—The county commissioners of any county of this state are authorized and empowered to contract with the clerk of the county courts of their respective counties to cause to be translated into the English language, by themselves or their deputies, the archives and records of their offices, or any part thereof, now in the Spanish language, in their official custody, relating to titles to land, and copy said translations in a well-bound book or books: provided, that they shall not contract to pay more than fifteen cents per hundred words for both the translation and recording. [Acts of 1893, p. 168.]

Art. 6777. [4593b] Effect of such translations, etc.—When said archives and records, now in Spanish, are translated and recorded as hereinbefore provided, said records in English shall have the same force and effect as if the archives and instruments were originally made and recorded in the English language, and certified copies may be used as evidence and otherwise, for like purposes and with like effect as the originals are and certified copies of records of the originals can now be used; and said record books hereinbefore provided for shall be and are hereby made permanent archives and records of the county clerk's office of the counties when so translated and recorded. [Id.]

SUPPLYING LOST RECORDS, ETC.

Article. Lost records may be supplied by proof, etc. 6778 Proceedings to establish lost records, etc. 6779 Judgment, etc. 6780 Proceedings in the county court. 6781	Article. Effect of judgment, etc. 6782 Certified copies may be recorded. 6783 Original deeds, etc., recorded again, when 6784 Judgment shall have force of originals. 6785
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 6778. [4594] Lost records may be supplied by proof, etc.—All deeds, bonds, bills of sale, mortgages, deeds of trust, powers of attorney and conveyances of any and every description which are required or permitted by law to be acknowledged or recorded, and which have been so acknowledged or recorded, and any and every judgment of a court of record in this state, and which record and minutes of court containing such judgment have been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, may be supplied by parol proof of the contents thereof; which proof shall be taken in the manner hereinafter provided. [Act July 13, 1876, p. 45, sec. 1.]

Art. 6779. [4595] Proceedings to establish lost records, etc.—Any person having any interest in any such deed, instrument in writing, or any judgment, order or decree in the district court, the record or entry of which has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed, or carried away, may, in addition to any mode now provided by law for establishing the existence of such record and the contents thereof, file with the clerk of the district court of the county where such loss or destruction took place, his written application setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought; whereupon such clerk shall issue a citation to the grantor in such deed, or to the party or parties interested in such instrument of writing, or to the party or parties who were interested adversely to the applicant at the time of the rendition of any such judgment, or who may be now interested, or the heirs and legal representatives of such parties, to appear at a term of the district court to be designated in said citation, and contest the right of the applicant to have any such deed, instrument in writing, or judgment substituted and recorded; and service shall be as now provided for process in other cases. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6780. [4596] Judgment, etc.—On hearing said application, if the court shall be satisfied from the evidence of the existence of such deed, instrument in writing, record, judgment, order or decree, and of the loss, destruction or carrying away of the same, as alleged by the applicant, and the contents thereof, an order shall be entered on the minutes of the district court to that effect, which order shall contain a description of the lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record, and the contents thereof, and a certified copy of such order may be recorded in the records of the proper county. [Id.]

Art. 6781. [4597] Proceedings in the county court.—Whenever any judgment, order or decree duly entered in the county court of any county has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, any person interested therein may file his written application with the clerk of the county court to which the original record belonged, setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought, when the same proceedings shall be had and the court shall enter a like judgment as provided in the two preceding articles, so far as applicable.

Art. 6782. [4598] Effect of judgment, etc.—Whenever such judgment, order or decree rendered in the district or county court shall be duly entered, it shall stand in the place of and have the same force and effect as the original of said lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record; and when duly recorded may be used in evidence in any of the courts of this state with like effect as the original thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6783. [4599] Certified copies may be recorded.—All certified copies from the records of such county, the record of which has been or may hereafter be lost, destroyed or carried away, and all certified copies from the records of the county or counties from which said county was created, may be recorded in such county; provided, the loss of the original shall first be established. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6784. [4600] Original deeds, etc., recorded again, when.—When any of the original papers mentioned in the first article of this chapter may have been saved or preserved from loss, the record of said originals having been lost, destroyed or carried away, the same may be recorded again, and this last registration shall have force and effect from the filing for original registration; provided, said originals are recorded within four years next after such loss, destruction or removal of the records; and certified copies from any record authorized by the provisions of this title to be made may be received in evidence in any of the courts of this state in the same manner and with like effect as certified copies of the original record. [Id. sec. 4. Acts of 1879, ch. 35, p. 35.]

Art. 6785. [4601] Judgments shall have force of originals.—Judgments, orders and decrees, when substituted as hereinbefore provided, shall carry all the rights thereunder in every respect as the originals, especially preserving the liens from the date of the originals, and giving the parties the right to issue executions under the substituted judgments as under the originals. Article 6786. [4602] County clerks shall be recorders.—The county clerks of the several counties shall be the recorders for their respective counties; they shall provide and keep in their offices well-bound books in which they shall record in a fair and legible hand all instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in the recorder's office of their respective counties, in the manner hereinafter provided. [Act May 12, 1846, sec. 1. P. D. 5001.]

Art. 6787. [4603] What shall be his seal.—The seal of the county court shall be the seal of the recorder, and shall be used for the authentication of all his official acts. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5002.]

Art. 6788. [4604] Shall provide books, etc.—Each recorder shall provide suitable books and presses for his office, and keep regular and faithful accounts of the expenses thereof, and such accounts shall be audited by the commissioners' court and paid out of the county treasury. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 5003.]

Art. 6789. [4605] Shall keep a memorandum and give receipts, etc.—When any instrument of writing authorized by law to be recorded shall be deposited in the recorder's office for record, if the same shall be acknowledged or proved in the manner prescribed by law for record, the recorder shall enter in a book to be provided for that purpose, in alphabetical order, the names of the parties and date and nature thereof, and the time of delivery for record; and shall give to the person depositing the same, if required, a receipt specifying the particulars thereof. [Id. sec. 12. P. D. 5012.]

Art. 6790. [4606] Shall record without delay in the order presented.—Each recorder shall, without delay, record every instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, which is deposited with him for record, with the acknowledgments, proofs, affidavits and certificates written or printed on the same, and all other papers referred to and thereto annexed, in the order and as of the time when the same shall have been deposited for record, by entering them word for word and letter for letter, and noting at the foot of such record all interlineations, erasures and words visibly written on erasures, and noting at the foot of the record the hour and the day of the month and year when the instrument so recorded was deposited in his office for record. [Id. sec. 13. P. D. 5013.]

Art. 6791. [4607] Record shall take effect from date of deposit.—Every such instrument of writing shall be considered as recorded from the time it was deposited for record; and the recorder shall certify under his hand and seal of office to every such instrument of writing so recorded, the hour, day, month and year when he recorded it, and the book and page or pages in which it is recorded; and when recorded deliver the same to the party entitled thereto or to his order. [Id. sec. 14. P. D. 5014.]

Art. 6792. [4608] Shall keep alphabetical indexes.—Each recorder shall make and enter in a well-bound book an index, in alphabetical order, to all books of records wherein deeds, mortgages or other instruments of writing concerning lands and tenements are recorded, distinguishing the books and pages in which every such deed or writing is recorded. [Id. sec. 15. P. D. 5015.]

Art. 6793. [4609] What they shall contain.—It shall be a cross-index and shall contain the names of the several grantors and grantees in alphabetical order; and, in case the deed be made by a sheriff, the name of the sheriff and defendant in execution; and, if by executors, administrators or guardians, their names and the names of their testators, intestates or wards; and, if by attorney, the name of such attorney and his constituents, and, if by a commissioner, the name of such commissioner and the person whose estate is conveyed. [Id. sec. 16. P. D. 5016.]

Art. 6794. [4610] Same subject.—Each recorder shall, in like manner, make and keep in his office a full and perfect alphabetical index to all books of record in his office, wherein all instruments of writing in relation to goods and chattels, or movable property of any description, marriage contracts and powers of attorney, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office are recorded; and a like index of all the books of record wherein official bonds are recorded, the names of the officers appointed, and of the obligors in any bond recorded, and a reference to the book and page where the same are recorded. [Id. sec. 17. P. D. 5017.]

Art. 6795. [4611] Shall give attested copies, when.—It shall be the duty of the recorder to give attested copies whenever demanded of all papers recorded in his office; and the recorder shall receive for all such copies, and all other writings required of him by virtue of his office, such fees as may be provided by law. [Act Dec. 20, 1836, sec. 36. P. D. 4979.]

Art. 6796. [4612] Mortgages, etc., to be recorded in separate book.—All deeds of trust, mortgages, judgments which are required to be recorded in order to create a judgment lien, or other instruments of writing intended to create a lien, shall be recorded in a book or books separate from those in which deeds or other conveyances are recorded.

Article 6797. [4613] Before whom acknowledgments may be made in this state.—The acknowledgment or proof of an instrument of writing for record may be made within this state before either:

1. A clerk of the district court.
2. A judge or clerk of the county court.
3. A notary public. [Act May 6, 1871, sec. 1. P. D. 7418.]

Art. 6798. [4614] Without this state and within the United States.—The acknowledgment or proof of an instrument of writing for record may be made without this state, but within the United States or their territories, before either:

1. A clerk of some court of record having a seal.
2. A commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of this state.
3. A notary public. [Id.]

Art. 6799. [4615] Without the United States.—The acknowledgment or proof of an instrument of writing for record may be made without the United States before either:

1. A minister, commissioner or charge d' affaires of the United States, resident and accredited in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.
2. A consul-general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States, resident in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.
3. A notary public. [Id.]

Art. 6800. [4616] Acknowledgment, how made.—The acknowledgment of an instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by the grantor or person who executed the same appearing before some officer authorized to take such acknowledgment, and stating that he had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein stated; and the officer taking such acknowledgment shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his seal of office. [Act May 12, 1846, sec. 7. P. D. 5007.]

Art. 6801. [4617] Party must be known or proven.—No acknowledgment of any instrument of writing shall be taken, unless the officer taking it knows or has satisfactory evidence on the oath or affirmation of a credible witness, which shall be noted in his certificate, that the person making such acknowledgment is the individual who executed and is described in the instrument. [Id. sec. 10. P. D. 5010.]

Art. 6802. [4618] Acknowledgment of married woman, when and how taken.—No acknowledgment of a married woman to any conveyance or other instrument purporting to be executed by her shall be taken, unless she has had the same shown to her, and then and there fully explained by the officer taking the acknowledgment, on an examination privily and apart from her husband; nor shall he certify to the same, unless she thereupon acknowledges to such officer that the same is her act and deed, that she has willingly signed the same, and that she wishes not to retract it. [Act April 30, 1846, sec. 1. P. D. 1003.]

Art. 6803. [4619] Certificate of officer.—Any officer taking the acknowledgment of a deed, or other instrument of writing, must place thereon his official certificate, signed by him and given under his seal of office, substantially in form as hereinafter prescribed.

Art. 6804. [4620] Form of certificate of acknowledgment.—The form of an ordinary certificate of acknowledgment must be substantially as follows:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me _____ [here insert the name and character of the officer] on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and acknowledged to me that he executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed.

“Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day

[Seal] of _____, A. D. ____.

“_____.”

Art. 6805. [4621] Form of acknowledgment by a married woman.—The certificate of acknowledgment of a married woman must be substantially in the following form:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me, _____ [here insert the name and character of the officer] on this day personally appeared _____, wife of _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and having been examined by me privily and apart from her husband, and having the same fully explained to her, she, the said _____, acknowledged such instrument to be her act and deed, and declared that she had willingly signed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed, and that she did not wish to retract it.

“Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day

[Seal] of _____, A. D. ____.

“_____.”

[Id. P. D. 1003.]

Art. 6806. [4622] Proof of instrument by witness.—The proof of any instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by one or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before some officer authorized to take such proof, and stating on oath that he or they saw the grantor or person who executed such instrument subscribe the same, or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his or their presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein stated, and that he or they had signed the same as witnesses at the request of the grantor or person who executed such instrument; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his official seal. [Act May 12, 1846, sec. 8. P. D. 5008.]

Art. 6807. [4623] Witness must be personally known to officer.—The proof by a subscribing witness must be by some one personally known to the officer taking the proof to be the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a witness, or must be proved to be such by the oath of a credible witness, which fact shall be noted in the certificate. [Id. sec. 10. P. D. 5010.]

Art. 6808. [4624] Form of certificate or proof by witness.—The certificate of the officer, where the execution of the instrument is proved by a witness, must be substantially in the following form:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me, _____ [here insert the name and character of the officer], on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____), to be the person whose name is subscribed as a witness to the foregoing instrument of writing, and after being duly sworn by me stated on oath that he saw _____, the grantor or person who executed the foregoing instrument, subscribe the same (or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed), and that he had signed the same as a witness at the request of the grantor [or person who executed the same].

“Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day
[Seal] of _____, A. D. _____.

“_____.”

Art. 6809. [4625] Handwriting may be proved, when.—The execution of an instrument may be established for record by proof of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one of the subscribing witnesses in the following cases:

1. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are dead.
2. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are non-residents of this state.
3. When the place of their residence is unknown to the party desiring the proof, and can not be ascertained.
4. When the subscribing witnesses have been convicted of felony, or have become of unsound mind, or have otherwise become incompetent to testify.
5. When all the subscribing witnesses to an instrument are dead or are non-residents of this state, or when their residence is unknown, or when they are incompetent to testify, and the grantor in such instrument refuses to acknowledge the execution of the same for record.

Art. 6810. [4626] Evidence must prove what.—The evidence taken under the preceding article must satisfactorily prove to the officer the following facts:

1. The existence of one or more of the conditions mentioned therein; and,
2. That the witness testifying knew the person whose name purports to be subscribed to the instrument as a party, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
3. That the witness testifying personally knew the person who subscribed the instrument as a witness, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
4. The place of residence of the witness testifying.

Art. 6811. [4627] Proof, how made when grantor made his mark.—When the grantor or person who executed the instrument signed the same by making his mark, and when also any one or more of the conditions mentioned in article 6809 exists, the execution of any such instrument may be established by proof of the handwriting of two subscribing witnesses and of the place of residence of such witnesses testifying. [Act March 6, 1863, sec. 1. P. D. 5009.]

Art. 6812. [4628] Proofs, how made and certified.—The proof mentioned in the three preceding articles must be made by the deposition or affidavit of two or more disinterested persons in writing; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, and sign and seal the same with his official seal; which proofs and certificate shall be attached to such instrument. [Id. P. D. 5009.]

Art. 6813. [4629] Officers are authorized to administer oath, etc.—Officers authorized to take the proof of instruments of writing under the provisions of this chapter are also authorized in such proceedings—

1. To administer oaths or affirmations.
2. To employ and swear interpreters.
3. To issue subpoenas.
4. To punish for contempt as hereinafter provided.

Art. 6814. [4630] Subpoena shall issue when.—Upon the sworn application of any person interested in the proof of any instrument required or permitted by law to be recorded, stating that any witness to the instrument refuses to appear and testify touching the execution thereof, and that such instrument can not be proved without his evidence, any officer authorized to take the proof of said instrument shall issue a subpoena requiring such witness to appear and testify before such officer touching the execution of such instrument. [Act Feb. 9, 1860, sec. 1. P. D. 5020.]

Art. 6815. [4631] May compel attendance and answers of witness.—When such witness shall fail to appear in obedience to such subpoena, said officer shall have the same power to enforce his attendance and to compel his answers on oath touching the execution of such instrument as a judge of the district court has to compel the attendance and answers of witnesses; provided, that an attachment shall in no case issue without the same compensation is made or tendered to each witness as is allowed to witnesses in other cases; and provided, further, that no witness shall be required to go beyond the limits of the county of his residence, unless he shall, for the time being, be found in the county where the execution of such instrument is sought to be proved for registration.

Art. 6816. [4632] Statement of acknowledgment, etc., to be recorded.—All officers authorized or permitted by law to take the acknowledgment or proof of any deed, bond, mortgage, bill of sale, or any other written instrument required or permitted by law to be placed on record shall procure a well-bound book, in which they shall enter and record a short statement of each acknowledgment or proof taken by them, which statement shall be by them signed officially. [Act April 28, 1874, p. 155, sec. 1. P. D. 7418b.]

Art. 6817. [4633] What the statement for record shall contain.—Such statement shall recite the true date on which such acknowledgment or proof was taken, the name of the grantor and grantee of such instrument, its date, if proved by a subscribing witness, the name of the witness, the known or alleged residence of the witness and whether personally known or unknown to the officer; if personally unknown, this fact shall be stated, and by whom such person was introduced to such officer, if by any one, and the known or alleged residence of such person. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 6818. [4634] Statement shall further recite.—Such statement shall also recite, if the instrument is acknowledged by the grantor, his then place of residence, if known to the officer; if unknown, his alleged residence, and whether such grantor is personally known to the officer; if personally unknown, by whom such grantor was introduced, if by any one, and his place of residence. If land is conveyed or charged by the instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be mentioned, and the county where the same is situated. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 6819. [4635] The book to be a public record.—The book herein required to be procured and kept, and the statements herein required to be recorded in the same shall be an original public record, and shall be delivered to his successor, and the same shall be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen at all reasonable times. [Id.]

Art. 6820. [4636] Action for damages will lie by person injured.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, before any court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such neglect, failure or refusal. [Id.]

Article 6821. [4637] Patents and grants may be recorded without proof.—Letters patent from the state of Texas, or any grant from the government, executed and authenticated pursuant to existing law, may be recorded without further acknowledgment or proof.

Art. 6822. [4638] Copies of archives recorded.—Copies of all deeds, transfers, or any other written evidence of title to land, which have been filed in the general land office, in accordance with law, or copies when the originals remain in the public archives, and were executed in conformity with the laws existing at their dates, duly certified by the officers having lawful custody thereof, shall be admitted to record in the county where such land lies. [Act Jan. 19, 1839, sec. 2. P. D. 4984.]

Art. 6823. [4639] What may be recorded.—The following instruments of writing, which shall have been acknowledged or proved according to law, are authorized to be recorded, viz.: All deeds, mortgages, conveyances, deeds of trust, bonds for title, covenants, defeasances or other instruments of writing concerning any lands or tenements, or goods and chattels, or movable property of any description. [Act May 12, 1846, sec. 4. P. D. 5004.]

Art. 6824. [4640] All sales, etc., to be void as to creditors and purchasers, unless registered.—All bargains, sales and other conveyances whatever, of any land, tenements and hereditaments, whether they may be made for passing any estate of freehold of inheritance or for a term of years; and deeds of settlement upon marriage, whether land, money or other personal thing; and all deeds of trust and mortgages shall be void as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless they shall be acknowledged or proved and filed with the clerk, to be recorded as required by law; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to all subsequent purchasers, with notice thereof or without valuable consideration, shall nevertheless be valid and binding. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 69, sec. 4. P. D. 4988.]

Art. 6825. [2322] Located lands have priority over unrecorded titled lands, when.—Titles to land which may have been deposited in the general land office subsequently to the time when the land embraced by such titles had been located or surveyed, by virtue of valid land warrants or certificates, shall not be received as evidence of superior title to the land against any such location or survey, unless such elder title had been duly recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the land may have been situated prior to the location and survey, or unless the party having such location or survey made had actual notice of the existence of such elder title before he made such location or survey. [Acts 1866, p. 32. P. D. 5825.]

Art. 6826. [4640a] English language to be used.—No deed, conveyance or other instrument, whether relating to real or personal property, if in any other than the English language, shall be admitted to record; provided, that all such instruments executed prior to the twenty-second day of August, 1897, may be filed and recorded if accompanied by a correct translation thereof, the accuracy of which is sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. Such translations shall be recorded with the original, and if correct shall operate as constructive notice from and after the date of its filing, if the original be authenticated in the manner required by law. [Act 1897, p. 11.]

Art. 6827. [4641] Deeds, etc., to be recorded in county where land is situated.—All deeds, conveyances, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other written contracts relating to real estate, which are authorized to be recorded, shall be recorded in the county where such real estate, or a part thereof, is situated; provided, that all such instruments, when relating to real estate situated in an unorganized county, shall be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, in a well-bound book, or books, to be kept for that purpose, separately from the records of the county to which it is attached and from other unorganized counties; and it shall be the duty of the clerk or other officer having the custody of such books, when such unorganized county shall be organized, or has been detached therefrom and attached to another county for judicial purposes, to deliver such book, or books, without charge, to the proper officer of such newly organized county, or of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes, when demanded by him; and, where such records have been heretofore kept in separate books, they shall also be delivered in like manner as above, and in each case the same shall become archives of the county to which it is so delivered. Where such records have not heretofore been kept separately, upon the organization or attachment of such unorganized county to another organized county, a certified transcript from the records of such instruments so recorded shall be obtained by such new clerk or officer; and when so made the same shall in like manner become archives of such newly organized county, or county to which such unorganized county may be attached, as the case may be. [Acts of 1887, p. 94.]

Art. 6828. [4642] Deed, etc., valid, against subsequent creditors from, etc.—Every conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage in this chapter mentioned, or certified copies of any such original conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage copied from the deed or mortgage records of any county in the state where the same has been regularly recorded, although the land mentioned may not have been situated in the county where such instrument was recorded, and which shall have been acknowledged, proved or certified according to law, may be recorded in the county where the land lies; and when delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded shall take effect and be valid as to all subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to all creditors from the time when such instrument shall have been so acknowledged, proved or certified and delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only; provided, however, that all certified copies filed and recorded under the provisions of this article shall take effect and be in force from the time such certified copy was filed for record; and provided, further, that nothing in this shall be construed to make valid any instrument which was at the time of its execution from any cause invalid. [Acts of 1895, p. 157. P. D. 4994.]

Art. 6829. [4643] Marriage contract, when valid.—No covenant or agreement made in consideration of marriage shall be good against a purchaser for a valuable consideration, or any creditor not having notice thereof, unless such covenant or agreement shall be duly acknowledged or proven and recorded in manner and form as provided by law for deeds and other conveyances. [Acts of 1887, p. 94, sec. 2. P. D. 4987.]

Art. 6830. [4644] Recorder shall record, etc.—Each recorder shall also record in books to be provided for that purpose all marriage contracts and powers of attorney, and all official bonds required to be recorded in his office, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office, which shall be proved or acknowledged according to law and delivered to him for record. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 236, sec. 5. P. D. 5005.]

Art. 6831. [4645] Copies from land office to be recorded.—Each recorder shall record all copies of titles recorded in the general land office presented for record; provided, such copies are attested with the seal of the general land office. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 5006.]

Art. 6832. [4646] Judgments to be recorded when.—Each recorder shall also record all judgments and abstracts of judgments rendered by any court of this state presented to him for record; provided, such judgments or abstracts of judgments are attested under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court where such judgment was obtained. [Id. P. D. 5006.]

Art. 6833. [4647] Transfers of judgment to be recorded, etc.—The sale of a judgment, or any part thereof, of any court of record within this state, or the sale of any cause of action, or interest therein, after suit has been filed thereon, shall be evidenced by a written transfer; which, when acknowledged in the manner and form required by law for the acknowledgment of deeds, may be filed with the papers of such suit, and when thus filed by the clerk it shall be his duty to make a minute of said transfer on the margin of the minute book of the court where such judgment of said court is recorded; or, if judgment be not rendered when said transfer is filed, the clerk shall make a minute of such transfer on the court trial docket where the suit is entered, giving briefly the substance thereof; for which services he shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying therefor; and this article shall apply to any and all judgments, suits, claims and causes of action, whether assignable in law and equity or not. When said transfer is duly acknowledged, filed and noted as aforesaid, the same shall be full notice and valid and binding upon all persons subsequently dealing with reference to said cause of action or judgment, whether they have actual knowledge of such transfer or not. [Acts of 1889, p. 103.]

Art. 6834. [4648] Judgment in justice courts, how recorded.—Whenever land is sold under execution or order for sale issuing out of a justice court in this state, upon the application of any party interested in said land, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace having the custody of the execution and judgment upon which said execution issued to make from said records a complete transcript of said judgment and the execution issued thereon and levied on land, together with the levy and return of the officer executing the same thereon indorsed, and to certify to the correctness thereof officially; then said transcript shall be admitted to record in the county where the land is situated in the same manner in which deeds are recorded and with like effect; which said transcript, or certified copy thereof, under the hand and seal of the county clerk of the county where said transcript has been recorded, shall be admitted in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner and with like effect that the original judgment and execution with indorsements thereon would have if offered. [Acts of 1889, p. 133.]

Art. 6835. [4649] Partition to be recorded.—Every partition of any tract of land or lot, made under any order or decree of any court, and every judgment or decree by which the title of any tract of land or lot is recovered shall be duly recorded in the clerk's office of the county court in which such tract of land or lot or part thereof may lie; and until so recorded, such partition, judgment or decree shall not be received in evidence in support of any right claimed by virtue thereof. [Act Feb. 9, 1860, p. 75, sec. 4. P. D. 5023.]

Art. 6836. [4650] Decree may be abbreviated.—It shall not be necessary in the cases mentioned in the preceding article to record the proceedings or the decree rendered in such cases in full; but a brief statement by the clerk of the court in which the same is made, under his hand and seal, setting forth the case in which the partition or decree was made, and the date thereof, and the names of the parties in the suit for partition, and the particular land or lot lying in the county in which the record is made and the name of the party to whom the same is decreed, shall be deemed and held to be a sufficient record of such partition, judgment or decree. [Id.]

Art. 6837. Suit for land; notice to be filed.—During the pendency of any suit or action, legal or equitable, involving the title to real estate, or seeking to establish any legal or equitable estate, interest or right, present or future, vested or contingent, therein, or to enforce any lien, charge or encumbrance against the same, any party plaintiff, as also any party defendant seeking affirmative relief therein, may file with the county clerk of each county where such real estate, or any part thereof, is situated a notice of the pendency of such suit, to be signed by the party filing the same, or his agent or attorney, setting forth the number and style of the cause, the court in which pending, the names of the party thereto, the kind of suit and a description of the land affected. [Act 1905, p. 316, sec. 1.]

Art. 6838. Record of, how made.—The county clerk shall record such notice of pendency in a well-bound book, to be styled, "Lis Pendens Record," and at the same time index the same, both direct and reverse, under the names of each and all parties to the suit. For such performance of duty, the clerk shall be allowed a fee of fifteen cents per hundred words recorded, not to be less than fifty cents. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6839. Transfers without notice, valid.—The pendency of such suit or action shall not prevent effective transfers or encumbrances to a third party for a valuable consideration and without other notice, actual or constructive, by a party to the suit of any such real estate as against a subsequent decree for the adverse party, unless such notice shall have been properly filed under the name of the party attempting to transfer or encumber in the county or counties in which said land is situated. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6840. Effect of notice.—Such notice of pendency shall not be deemed constructive notice, but merely a memorandum that shall refer all intending purchasers and encumbrancers to an examination of the court records and pleadings to determine whether there is in fact a lis pendens concerning the real estate in question, and it shall be effective for such purpose from the time of its filing. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6841. [4651] Titles to chattels, where recorded.—Every deed, mortgage, or other writing, respecting the title of personal property hereafter executed, which by law ought to be recorded, shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court of that county in which the property shall remain; and if afterwards the person claiming title under such deed, mortgage, or other writing, shall permit any other person in whose possession such property may be to remove with the same, or any part thereof, out of the county in which the same shall be recorded, and shall not, within four months after such removal, cause the same to be recorded in the county to which such property shall be removed, such deed, mortgage, or other writing, for so long as it shall not be recorded in such last mentioned county, and for so much of the property aforesaid as shall have been removed, shall be void as to all creditors and purchasers thereof for valuable consideration without notice; provided, that written contracts for the conditional sale, lease or hire of railroad rolling stock and equipments by which the purchase money is therein agreed to be paid at any time or times after the date of such contract, with a reservation of title or lien in the vendor, lessor or bailor, until the same has been fully paid, shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state in a book of records to be kept by him for that purpose; and on payment in full of the purchase money and the performance of the terms and conditions stipulated in any such contract a declaration in writing to that effect may be made by the vendor, lessor or bailor, or his or its assignee, which declaration may be made on the margin of the record of the contract, duly attested, or it may be made by a separate instrument to be acknowledged by the lessor, vendor, or bailor, or his or its assignee, and recorded as aforesaid; and for such services the secretary of state shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars for recording each of said contracts, and each of said declarations, and a fee of one dollar for entering such declaration on the margin of the record. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 12. P. D. 4993. Amended Act 1897, p. 209.]

Art. 6842. [4652] Record of any grant, etc., when notice.—The record of any grant, deed or instrument of writing authorized or required to be recorded, which shall have been duly proven up or acknowledged for record and duly recorded in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such grant, deed or instrument.

Article 6849. [4660] Penalty for failing to record, etc.—If any recorder to whom any instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, and proved or acknowledged according to law, which shall be delivered for record, shall neglect or refuse to make an entry thereof, or give receipt therefor, as required by law, or shall neglect or refuse to record such instrument of writing within a reasonable time after receiving the same, or shall record any instrument of writing affecting the same property, or any part thereof, before another first deposited in his office and entitled to be recorded, or shall record any such instrument incorrectly, or shall neglect or refuse to provide and keep in his office such indexes as required by law, he shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered on motion in the district court, one-half to the use of the county, and the other half to the use of the person who shall sue for the same, such clerk having three days' notice of such motion, and shall also be liable to the party for all damages he may have sustained thereby, to be recovered by suit on the official bond of such recorder, given by him as the clerk of the county court, against such clerk and his sureties. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 236, sec. 18. P. D. 5018.]

Art. 6850. [4661] Conveyances heretofore made to be governed by the then existing laws.—The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form or record of any conveyance or other instrument heretofore made, executed, acknowledged, proved or recorded, shall not be affected by anything contained in this title, but shall depend for its validity and legality upon the laws in force when the act was performed.

Art. 6851. [4662] Recording, and as evidence, to be governed by the then existing laws.—All conveyances of real property heretofore made and acknowledged or proved, according to the laws in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence, and may be recorded in the same manner and with the like effect as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of this title.

Art. 6852. [4663] Party may have action to correct error where certificate is imperfect.—When the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of any instrument in writing may be properly made, but defectively certified, any party interested may have an action in the district court to obtain a judgment correcting the certificate.

Art. 6853. [4664] May obtain judgment of proof of any instrument.—Any person interested under any instrument in writing entitled to be proved for record may institute an action in the district court against the proper parties to obtain a judgment proving such instrument.

Art. 6854. [4665] Effect of judgment in such action.—A certified copy of the judgment in a proceeding instituted under either of the two preceding articles, showing the proof of the instrument, and attached thereto, shall entitle such instrument to record, with like effect as if acknowledged.

Art. 6855. [4666] Record of certain titles confirmed.—Any grant, deed, or other instrument of writing, for the conveyance of real estate or personal property, or both, or for the settlement thereof in marriage, or separate property, or conveyance of the same in mortgage, or trust to uses, or on conditions, as well as any and every other deed or instrument required or permitted by law to be registered, and which shall have been prior to the ninth day of February, 1860, registered or recorded, shall be held to have been lawfully registered, with the full effect and consequences of existing laws; provided, the same shall have been acknowledged by the grantor or grantors before any chief justice, or associate justice, or clerk of the county court, or notary public in any county within the late republic or the now state of Texas, or judge of the department of Brazos, or any primary judge, or judge of the first instance in 1835 or 1836, or proven before any such officer by one or more of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and certified by such officer, whether such acknowledgment or proof shall have been made before any such officer of the county where such instrument should have been recorded or not. [Act Feb. 9, 1860, sec. 2. P. D. 5021.]

Art. 6856. [4667] Shall be evidence, when.—All such instruments which shall have been acknowledged or proven before any officer named in the preceding article, and which shall have been afterward recorded in the proper county, or certified copies thereof, shall be evidence in the courts, as full and sufficient as if such acknowledgment had been taken or proof made in accordance with existing laws; but this article and the article preceding shall not be construed so as to affect or bind, in any manner, any person or party with constructive notice of the existence of any deed or other instrument of writing as a recorded deed or instrument, except after the ninth day of February, 1860, and in the future. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 5022.]

Art. 6857. [4668] Old registration operative after creating new county.—Where an instrument in writing has been duly registered in the proper county, and any property conveyed or incumbered by such instrument shall fall within another county subsequently created, the prior registration shall not be deemed to be thereby invalidated or in any manner affected, but shall still continue to be equivalent to an actual notice of its contents to all persons whomsoever; and it shall be the duty of the county court of the new county (and at the expense thereof) to cause a transcript of the record of all such instruments to be made and duly certified and deposited in the recorder's office of said new county, for public inspection, and indexes of the same to be made.

Art. 6858. [4669] Attachments to be recorded, when.—Whenever an attachment is levied upon real estate, the officer levying the writ shall immediately file with the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate so levied upon is situated, a copy of the writ, together with a copy of so much of his return as relates to the land in said county. Said clerk shall enter in a book, to be kept for that purpose, the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in attachment, the amount of the debt and the return of the officer in full. Should the writ of attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated, the court in which the attachment suit is pending shall cause a certified copy of said order to be sent to the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate levied upon is situated. Said clerk shall, upon the receipt of the same, enter in the book aforesaid the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and record the order of the court in full. If the real estate levied upon is situated in any county other than the one in which the suit is pending, then, in case of failure to make the record aforesaid, the attachment lien shall not be valid against subsequent purchasers for value and without notice and subsequent lienholders in good faith. The county clerk of every county in this state shall keep a well-bound book for the record of the matters aforesaid, and shall keep a direct and reverse index thereto in which shall be entered the names of all the plaintiffs and defendants in the various attachments recorded by him; and the order of the court aforesaid shall be indexed in the same manner; and certified copies of such records shall be admissible in lieu of the original writ and entries. Clerks of the county court shall receive the same fees for recording the matter herein provided for as they are now allowed by law for recording deeds, to be paid by the plaintiff, and said fees to be taxed as a part of the costs in the case in which the attachment is issued and paid and collected as other costs. Sheriffs shall receive a fee of one dollar for making the copy and return herein provided for, to be taxed and collected as other costs in the suit. [Acts of 1889, p. 80.]

Article 6859. [4670] What roads are declared to be public.—All public roads and highways that have heretofore been laid out and established agreeably to law, except such as have been discontinued, are hereby declared to be public roads. [Act July 29, 1876, p. 64, sec. 6.]

Art. 6860. [4671] Commissioners' courts to open, etc.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall have full powers and it shall be their duty to order the laying out and opening of public roads when necessary, and to discontinue or alter any road whenever it shall be deemed expedient as hereinafter prescribed. [Acts of 1889, p. 21.]

Art. 6861. [4672] Shall not be changed, except, etc.—No public roads shall be altered or changed, except for the purpose of shortening the distance from the point of beginning to the point of destination, unless the court upon a full investigation of the proposed change finds that the public interest will be better served by making the change; that said change shall be by unanimous consent of all the commissioners elected. [Id.]

Art. 6862. [4673] Roads in towns and cities where no incorporation.—In all cities and incorporated towns in the state of Texas in which from any cause there is not a de facto municipal government in the active discharge of their official duties, the commissioners' court of the county in which such city or incorporated town is situated shall assume and have control of the streets and alleys thereof, and shall have the same worked under the law and regulations for the working of public roads; and such streets and alleys for the purposes of this article shall be held and denominated public roads; provided, that all residents of any city or town, having no de facto city government, not otherwise exempt from road duty, shall be liable to road service as in other cases. [Acts of 1885, p. 25.]

Art. 6863. [4674] First class roads from county site to county site.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall see that at least one first class road of the width prescribed by law is laid out and opened from the county seats of their respective counties on the most direct and practicable route to the lines of their county in the direction of the county seats of each adjacent county, where no part of another county intervenes between the county seats of such counties; or, if a border county, to meet the nearest road to the border; and, if any adjacent county is not organized, then in the direction of the center of such county. And the commissioners' court of a county to which one or more unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall lay out and open at least two first class roads sixty feet in width through the extent of each such unorganized county to intersect at right angles as nearly as may be at the center of the county, and to meet at the county lines similar roads of the adjacent counties. In counties now having public roads substantially complying with the preceding requirement as to course, the court shall be required only to give such roads the width of sixty feet and clear them of obstructions; such roads, however, shall not be laid out across orchards, yards, lots or graveyards, or within one hundred feet of a residence, without the consent of the owner; provided, that this law shall not apply to counties where there already exists a sufficiency of public roads. [Acts of 1884, p. 63, sec. 1.]

Art. 6864. [4675] Jury of view to be appointed.—It shall be the duty of each commissioners' court on their own motion to appoint a jury of view to lay out the roads required in the preceding article, and to mark and define them, and to report in writing such marks and any prominent natural objects that may aid in defining the route selected. And upon the report of the jury of view such roads shall be declared public highways of the first class; and the court shall order the overseer to open the same, and where the country is open prairie to plow a furrow on each side of the road and establish monuments at convenient intervals. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6865. [4676] Damages, how assessed.—If damages are claimed by any owner of land so appropriated for public highways, or by any person where inclosed premises are crossed, a jury to assess such damages shall be appointed as now provided in article 6877 of the Revised Statutes. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6866. [4677] When damages are excessive, etc.—If the damages assessed be excessive, the court may appoint another jury to assess them; and upon the second report, if the damages are deemed excessive, the court may change the road so as to avoid the property so greatly damaged; provided, such change will not divert the road more than one-quarter of a mile from a direct line; provided, further, that in all cases where the owner or owners of lands over which such roads shall pass shall have the right of appeal to the district court where the same shall be tried (by first giving a bond in a sufficient amount to cover all costs); and, if a greater amount of damages is there obtained, the county shall pay the excess and the costs, but if no greater damages are obtained the party taking the appeal shall pay all costs; provided, that such appeal shall in no case delay or prevent the immediate opening of such road after the damages assessed as above have been tendered. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6867. [4678] Owners of inclosed lands shall have nine months, etc.—Persons through whose inclosed premises such roads are laid out shall have nine months to remove and adapt their fences to the road. Where the county is unorganized, the owners of fences shall not be required to remove them until such county shall become organized, and not then until fifty residents of such county shall petition the commissioners' court for the removal of such fences; provided, that at all times the owners of such fences shall have at the crossing of such road convenient gates not less than twelve feet wide. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6868. [4679] Compensation of jurors.—The juries of view and the juries to assess damages shall, for the organized counties, be allowed such compensation as is now provided by law; and, for the unorganized counties, the sum of two dollars per day for the actual time employed, and five cents per mile for the actual distance traveled to mark and lay out the road or to assess the damages, which amounts, on sworn accounts, shall be paid out of the respective county funds. And any person summoned as a viewer as provided in this chapter who shall fail or refuse to perform the service required of him by law as such viewer shall be fined for contempt by the commissioners' court for every such failure not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, to be collected as other fines are collected; provided, that all reasonable excuses shall be heard. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6869. [4680] In unorganized counties, etc.—Where there are no persons in the unorganized counties to act or willing to serve on the jury of view or jury to assess damages, the court shall designate citizens of their own county to perform the service. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6870. [4681] Such roads to be changed, when.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to prohibit the opening of other roads as is now provided by law. Roads laid out under the provisions of article 6863 shall not be changed, except for the purpose of securing a better and more direct route, and then only after an actual view by a majority of the commissioners' court of that portion of the road sought to be changed. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6871. [4682] To classify all public roads.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts to classify all public roads in their counties into first, second and third class roads, and to act as supervisors of roads in their respective precincts, as hereinafter provided, and commissioners' courts may, on their own motion, where it is deemed necessary, open new roads or straighten existing ones. [Acts of 1884, p. 20.]

Art. 6872. [4683] First class roads.—First class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than forty feet nor more than sixty feet wide; all stumps over six inches in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off, all stumps six inches and under to be cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least sixteen feet wide. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6873. [4684] Second class roads.—Second class roads shall be clear of all obstructions and not less than thirty feet wide; stumps six inches and over in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off; and all stumps less than six inches in diameter to be cut smooth with the ground; all causeways to be made at least sixteen feet wide. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6874. [4685] Third class roads.—Third class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than twenty feet wide; stumps six inches and over in diameter to be cut down to six inches of the surface and rounded off; all stumps less than six inches in diameter to be cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least twelve feet wide. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6875. [4686] Application for new road, etc., shall not be granted until notice has been given, etc.—The commissioners' court shall in no instance grant an order on an application for any new road, or to discontinue an original one, unless the persons making application therefor, or some one of them, shall have given at least twenty days' notice by written advertisement of their intended application, posted up at the court house door of the county and at two other public places in the vicinity of the route of the proposed new road, or the road proposed to be discontinued. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6876. [4687] Application, how made.—All applications for a new road, and all applications to discontinue an existing one, shall be by petition to the commissioners' court, signed by at least eight freeholders in the precinct or precincts in which such road is desired to be made or discontinued, specifying in such petition the beginning and termination of such road proposed to be opened or discontinued; provided, that where one or more persons live within an inclosure either or all of them may petition the commissioners' court for a third class road or neighborhood road to their nearest trading points, mills, gins, school and church houses and county seats, and the courts shall open such roads, as hereinafter provided in the opening of third class roads; and provided, further, that no part of a public road shall be discontinued unless a new road connecting that part of such road not discontinued shall first be opened; and provided, further, that no part of a first or second class road shall be reduced to a road of a lower class. [Acts of 1884, p. 20.]

Art. 6877. [4688] How laid out.—All roads hereafter ordered to be made shall be laid out by a jury of freeholders of the county to be appointed by the commissioners' court. Said jury shall consist of five persons, a majority of whom may proceed, with or without the county surveyor, as ordered by the commissioners' court, to lay out, survey and describe such road to the greatest advantage to the public, and so that the same can be traced with certainty; and the field-notes of such survey or description of the road shall be included in the report of the jury; and, if adopted, shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners' court. [Id.]

Art. 6878. [4689] Oath of jury.—The jurors provided for in the preceding article shall, before proceeding to act as such, take the following oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to-wit:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear that I will lay out the road now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed from the commissioners' court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my skill and knowledge. So help me God." [Id.]

Art. 6879. [4690] Duty of jury to perform the work and report.—It shall be the duty of such jurors, when qualified as provided in the preceding article, to proceed to lay out and mark the road in accordance with the order of the court and the law, and to report their proceedings in writing to the next regular term of the commissioners' court. [Id.]

Art. 6880. [4691] Notice to owner.—The jury of freeholders provided for in article 6877 shall issue a notice in writing to the land owners through whose lands such proposed road may run, or to his agent or attorney, of the time when they will proceed to lay out such road, or when they will assess the damages incidental to the opening of the same, which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day therein named. If such owner is a non-resident of the county the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants as to actions in the district or county court, and the road may be established after four weeks' publication, the cost of publishing to be paid as directed by judgment of the court. [Acts of 1884, p. 21.]

Art. 6881. [4692] Statement by owner of damages.—The owner of any such land may, at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a statement in writing of the damages claimed by him, if any, incidental to the opening of such road, and thereupon the jury shall proceed to assess the damages, returning their assessment and the claimant's statement with their report, to the commissioners' court. [Id.]

Art. 6882. [4693] If report approved, damages to be paid, etc.—If the commissioners' court shall approve of the report and order such road to be opened, they shall consider the assessment and damages by the jury and the claimant's statement thereof, and allow to such owner just damages and adequate compensation for the land taken, and when paid or secured by deposit with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner they may proceed to have such road opened. If the owner of the land is not satisfied with the assessment by the commissioners' court he may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal from judgment of justice's court, but such appeal shall not prevent the road from being opened, but shall be only to fix the amount of damages. If no claim of damages is filed with such jury after notice as provided in the preceding article the same shall be considered as waived.

Art. 6883. [4694] Court may order opening of road, but damages assessed must be first paid, etc.—If, in the judgment of the commissioners' court, from the report of the commissioners named in the two preceding articles, the road should be deemed of sufficient importance, the court may order the survey or opening of the same; but the court shall first order the payment of the damages assessed, if any, by the commissioners of view to be made to the owner of the land out of the county treasury, and the county treasurer shall have paid the same or secured its payment by a special deposit of the amount in his office, subject to the order of such owner, and shall notify such owner by mail or otherwise of such deposit. [Acts of 1876, p. 64.]

Art. 6884. [4695] Road shall be established, etc., if no objection be made.—If no objection be filed, upon the report of a jury appointed upon an application to open a new road, the court shall proceed to establish and classify such road and order the opening out of the same, and shall appoint an overseer and apportion hands for the same, as in other cases. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6885. [4696] May change roads, when.—The commissioners' court may alter or change the course of any public road, in accordance with article 6861 of this chapter, after notice and upon application in the same manner as provided in this chapter for the discontinuance of a road, except that the application need not be signed by more than one freeholder of the precinct in which such alteration or change is proposed to be made.

Art. 6886. [4697] Duty of clerk when jury of view is appointed.—When juries of view are appointed, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to make out copies of the order appointing them in duplicate, and to deliver such copies to the sheriff of the county within ten days after such order of appointment was made, indorsing on such copies the date of such order. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6887. [4698] Service of order of appointment on juror.—The sheriff receiving such copies shall serve the same upon the jurors by delivering to each of them in person a copy of the order of appointment provided for in the preceding article, or by leaving one of said copies at the usual place of abode of such juror. Service shall be made within twenty days after the sheriff receives said copies, and he shall make his return to the clerk on the duplicate copies, stating the date and manner of service, or if service has not been made, stating the cause of his failure to make the same. [Id.]

Art. 6888. [4699] Defaulting juror shall be punished, how.—Any juror of view, summoned as such, who shall fail or refuse to perform the service required of him by law as such juror, shall forfeit and pay for every such failure the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by judgment on motion of the district or county attorney, in the name of the county, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which such defaulter may reside. [Id.]

Art. 6889. [4700] Roads on lines.—For the further and better providing for public roads, any lines between different persons or owners of land, any section line, or any direct line through an inclosure containing twelve hundred and eighty acres of land or more, may, upon the conditions provided for in the following articles of this chapter, be declared public highways, and left open and free from all obstructions for fifteen feet on either side of said lines, but the marked trees and other objects used to designate said lines, and the corners of surveys, shall not be removed or defaced. [Acts of 1884, p. 22.]

Art. 6890. [4701] Ten freeholders may make an application for.—Whenever ten freeholders may desire the boundary lines between different persons or owners of land to be declared a public highway, in order to give them a nearer, better or more practicable road to their church, county seat, mill, timber or water, they may apply to the commissioners' court for an order establishing such road. [Acts of 1876, p. 65.]

Art. 6891. [4702] Requisites of application.—The application provided for in the preceding article shall be in writing, and shall be signed and sworn to by the applicants. It shall designate the lines sought to be opened and the names and residences of the persons or owners to be affected by such proposed road, and shall state the facts which show a necessity for such road. [Id.]

Art. 6892. [4703] Clerk shall issue notice.—Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue a notice reciting the substance thereof, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county commanding him to summon the owners of the land, naming them, whose lines are proposed to be left open, to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners' court and show cause why said lines should not be declared public highways. [Id.]

Art. 6893. [4704] Service of notice and return of same.—The notice provided for in the preceding article shall be served in the manner and for the length of time provided for the service of citations in civil actions in justices' courts, and shall be returned in like manner as such citation.

Art. 6894. [4705] May open lines, when.—At a regular term of the court, after due service of notice as provided in the preceding article, the commissioners' court may, in its discretion, should it deem the road of sufficient public importance, issue an order declaring the lines designated in the application to be public highways, and direct the same to be opened by the owners thereof and left open for a space of fifteen feet on each side of said line. [Acts of 1884, p. 24.]

Art. 6895. [4706] Notice of the order of the court shall be served upon the owners of the land.—When an order as provided in the preceding article is made, the clerk shall, without delay, issue a notice reciting said order or its substance, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to serve the owners of such lines named in such notice with a true copy thereof, and the officer to whom said notice is delivered shall, without delay, serve the same as therein directed and return the same to the clerk, indorsing thereon the manner and date of such service. [Id.]

Art. 6896. [4707] Such roads not required to be controlled by the public.—The commissioners' court shall not be required to keep any such road as is mentioned in the last seven articles worked by the road hands as in the case of other public roads. [Id.]

Art. 6897. [4708] Costs, etc.—All costs attending the proceedings provided for in relation to opening of neighborhood roads shall be paid by the county if the application be granted. [Acts of 1884, p. 24.]

Art. 6898. [4709] Neighborhood road may be discontinued, how.—The commissioners' court may discontinue any neighborhood road which has been established as a public highway in the same manner provided in this chapter for discontinuing other public roads.

Art. 6899. [4710] Right to erect gates.—The owners of the land whose lines have been or may be declared public highways, and also any person through whose land a third class road may run, shall have the right to erect a gate or gates across said road or roads when necessary, said gate or gates to be not less than ten feet wide and free of obstructions at the top; provided, that when the right of way for any third class road or neighborhood road has been granted to the county without cost the owner of such land shall have the right to put a gate across such road or roads, but where such right of way has been condemned and paid for according to existing law the county commissioners' court shall have the right to prevent any obstruction of such a road by a gate. [Acts of 1884, p. 24.]

Art. 6900. [4711] Damages, how assessed.—The amount of damages to be allowed to the owners of said lands for opening the line of a neighborhood road, as provided in this chapter, shall be assessed as provided for in the case of first, second and third class roads in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6901. [4712] Commissioners as supervisors.—The county commissioners of the several counties are hereby constituted supervisors of public roads in their respective counties, and each commissioner shall supervise the public roads within his commissioner's precinct once each year, and shall receive as compensation therefor three dollars per day for the time actually employed in the discharge of his duties, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund of the county; provided, that no commissioner shall receive pay for more than ten days in each year. He shall also make a report to the first regular term of the commissioners' court held in his county during the year, said report to be made under oath, and to state:

1. The condition of all roads and parts of roads in his precinct.
2. The condition of all culverts and bridges.
3. The amount of money remaining in the hands of overseers subject to be expended upon the roads within his precinct.
4. The number of mile posts and finger boards defaced and torn down.
5. What, if any, new roads of any kind should be opened in his precinct, and what, if any, bridges, culverts or other improvements are necessary to place the roads in his precinct in good condition and the probable cost of such improvements; also, the name of every overseer who has failed to work on the road, or in any way neglected to perform his duty.

Said report shall be spread upon the minutes of the court, to be considered in improving public roads and determining the amount of taxes to be levied therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6902. [4713] Not to be discontinued, unless.—No entire road of the first or second class shall hereafter be discontinued except upon vacation by orders of the commissioners' court or non-use for a period of three years. [Acts of 1884, p. 24.]

Art. 6903. [4714] Reports, etc.—The report made by the supervisors of public roads to the commissioners' court, as provided for in article 6901, shall be submitted, together with all contracts made by said court since its last report for any work on any road, to the grand jury, at the first term of the district court hereafter. [Id.]

Art. 6904. [4715] Across public lands, etc.—No public road shall be opened across lands owned and used or for actual use by the state, educational, eleemosynary, or other public state institutions for public purposes and not subject to sale under the general laws of the state, without the consent of the trustees of said institution and the approval of the governor of the state; and the roads heretofore opened across such lands may be closed by the authorities in charge of any such lands whenever they deem it necessary to protect the interests of the state, upon repayment to the county where the land is situated, with eight per cent interest, the amount actually paid out by said county for the condemnation of said lands as shown by the records of the commissioners' court.

Article 6905. [4716] County shall be laid off into road precincts.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall lay off their respective counties into convenient road precincts, and shall number each precinct; and in the order establishing the same shall specify as definitely as practicable the boundaries thereof. [Act July 29, 1876, p. 63, sec. 5.]

Art. 6906. [4717] Overseers to be appointed, when.—An overseer shall be appointed and hands apportioned by said court for each road precinct at the time of establishing the same; and at the first regular term of court in each year the said court shall appoint an overseer for each road precinct in the county, and shall at the same time designate all the hands liable to work on public roads, and apportion them to the several overseers; provided, that hands shall as nearly as practicable be apportioned to work on the road precinct nearest to their place of abode; and provided further, that the supervisor of public roads shall at any time apportion any hands in his precinct who from any cause may not have been apportioned as otherwise provided in this chapter. [Acts of 1884, p. 25.]

Art. 6907. [4718] Appointment of overseers, etc., may be made at any time.—If from any cause the said court should fail to perform the duties required of it by the preceding article at its first regular term in each year, it shall be competent and legal for said court to perform said duties at any subsequent term, whether the same be a regular or called term. [Acts of 1876, p. 63.]

Art. 6908. [4719] Vacancy in overseership, how filled.—In case of the death, removal or other inability to act, of any road overseer, it shall be the duty of the county judge, immediately upon information of the fact, to appoint an overseer to fill such vacancy, who shall be notified on his appointment as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6909. [4720] Duty of clerk to make out copies of order of appointment, etc.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to make out copies of all orders appointing overseers of roads in duplicate, and deliver the same to the sheriff of the county within ten days after any such order shall have been made, indorsing on such copies the date of the orders of appointment. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6910. [4721] Order of appointment of overseer shall show what.—All orders appointing overseers shall embrace the designation of hands liable to work under such overseer, as far as known, and shall specify the boundaries of such overseer's road precinct as laid off by the court. [Id.]

Art. 6911. [4722] Service of order and return.—The sheriff shall, within twenty days after the reception of the copies of any order appointing an overseer, deliver to or leave at the usual place of abode of such overseer one of such copies, and shall return duplicate of such copy to the clerk of the county court, indorsing thereon the date and manner of service, and if not served the cause of his failure to serve the same. [Id.]

Art. 6912. [4723] Term of service of overseer.—The term of service of a road overseer shall be from the time of the service of the order of appointment until the first regular term of the commissioners' court in the succeeding year. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6913. [4724] Persons not compelled to serve as overseers, when.—No person shall be compelled to serve as an overseer who is lawfully exempt from road duty, nor shall any one be compelled to serve as overseer more than one year in every three successive years. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 6914. [4725] Overseer not liable shall notify clerk of non-acceptance.—It shall be the duty of every person appointed overseer of a road who is lawfully exempt from road duty to notify the clerk of the county court of his non-acceptance within ten days after his being notified of his appointment. [Id.]

Art. 6915. [4726] County judge shall thereupon appoint another.—If any person appointed overseer of a road who is lawfully exempt from road duty shall notify the clerk of his non-acceptance as provided in the preceding article, the clerk shall forthwith report the same to the county judge, who shall immediately appoint another overseer for said road precinct. [Id.]

Art. 6916. [4727] Unless overseer give notice of non-acceptance shall be considered as accepting.—Should any person appointed overseer, and who is lawfully exempted from road duty, fail to notify the clerk of his non-acceptance within ten days after being notified of his appointment, it shall be considered an acceptance of the appointment, and he shall not be permitted thereafter to plead his exemption from road duty as a defense against any neglect or failure to perform any of the duties of such overseer. [Id.]

Art. 6917. [4728] Clerk shall insert what on copies of appointment.—It shall be the duty of the clerk to insert on the copies of all orders of appointments of overseers issued by him the duties required of overseers in regard to their non-acceptance of such appointment. [Id.]

Art. 6918. [4729] Clerk shall post list of overseers, etc.—The clerks of the county courts of the several counties shall post up in their respective court houses, on the first day of each term of the district court held in his county, a list of the names and the road precincts of all the overseers of roads in the county. [Id. sec. 29.]

Article 6927. [4737] Roads shall be worked twice each year.—Every overseer shall cause the roads through his precinct to be worked twice in each year. [Act July 29, 1876, p. 68, sec. 16.]

Art. 6928. [4738] Power to call out hands.—Overseers of roads shall have the power to call out all persons liable to work upon public roads at any time such overseer may deem it necessary, or when ordered by the commissioners' court or other competent authority, and such hands may be called out in detail, or the whole force at any one time, as may be deemed best, or as they may be directed, for the better improvement of the public roads. [Acts of 1889, p. 21.]

Art. 6929. [4739] Hands not designated shall be summoned.—In case any person liable to work on roads shall not have been designated and apportioned by the commissioners' court, the overseer of the road nearest to which such person lives shall summon such person to work on such road the same as if such person had been designated and apportioned to such overseer. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6930. [4740] Mode of summoning hands.—It shall be the duty of the overseer to give three days' previous notice, by summons in person or in writing, to each person within his road precinct liable to road duty in said precinct, of the time and place when and where such person is required to appear to work on the road, and the number of days such person will be required to work. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6931. [4741] Summons in writing may be served how.—If the summons be in writing it may be served by leaving the same at the usual place of abode of the person summoned, with some person residing at such place who is not less than ten years of age, or if no person ten years of age or over can be found at such place of abode, the overseer may serve the same by posting it on the door of such place of abode.

Art. 6932. [4742] Overseer may appoint some one to summon hands.—The overseer shall have the power to appoint some one to summon the hands to work on the road, and such person shall be exempt from working on the roads as many days as he was actually engaged in summoning the hands. [Id.]

Art. 6933. [4743] To file complaints, where, etc.—It shall be the duty of the overseer, within ten days after he has had his road worked, to file with the county attorney of his county, or the justice of the peace of his precinct, a complaint in writing and under oath against each person who has been summoned to work and who has failed to work and failed to furnish a substitute, and has failed to pay one dollar for each day he has so failed to work or furnish a substitute, and also against each person so summoned who has refused to do a reasonable amount of work on the road or who has refused to perform the reasonable directions of the overseer. [Acts of 1884, p. 26, sec. 3.]

Art. 6934. [4744] Timber for causeways and bridges.—When to the overseers it may appear expedient to make causeways and build bridges, or to gravel any public road, the timber, gravel, earth, stone or other necessary material most convenient therefor may be used, but in such case the owner of such timber, or gravel, earth, stone or other necessary material shall be paid out of the county treasury a fair compensation for the same, to be determined by the commissioners' court upon the application of such owner. [Acts of 1876, p. 68. Amended act 1897, p. 84.]

Art. 6935. [4745] Construction of causeways. Ditches may be cut on land of adjacent owners, when.—The earth necessary to construct a causeway shall be taken from both sides, so as to make a drain on each side of such causeway. Whenever it is necessary to drain the water from any public road, the overseer shall cut a ditch for that purpose, having due regard to the natural water flow, and with as little injury as possible to the adjacent land owner; provided, that in such cases the commissioners' court shall cause the damages to such premises to be assessed and paid out of the general revenues of the county, and in case of disagreement between the commissioners' court and such owner, the same may be settled by suit as in other cases. [Id. Acts of 1884, p. 27.]

Art. 6936. [4746] Overseer may exchange labor for wagons, etc.—When it may be necessary to use a wagon for any purpose in working a road, or a plow or scraper, the overseer of such road is authorized to exchange the labor of any hand or hands bound to work on such road, for the use of a wagon or wagons, plows or scrapers, and the necessary teams to operate the same, at reasonable rates, to be employed as aforesaid. [Acts of 1876, p. 68.]

Art. 6937. [4747] Road shall be measured and mile posts set up.—It shall be the duty of all overseers of roads to measure such parts of roads as are in their respective precincts in continuation, and set up posts of good lasting timber or stone at the end of each mile leading from the court house or some other noted place, and to mark on said posts in legible and enduring figures the distance in miles to said court house or other noted place. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 6938. [4748] Index boards shall be placed where.—It shall also be the duty of overseers to place conspicuously and permanently at the forks of all public roads in their respective precincts, and at all roads crossing or leading away from such public roads, index boards, with directions plainly marked thereon, stating the most noted place to which each of said roads leads. [Id.]

Art. 6939. [4749] Mile posts and index boards to be replaced when removed.—When a mile post or index board shall be removed or defaced by any means whatever, the overseer shall cause the same to be replaced immediately by another, marked as the original one. [Id.]

Art. 6940. [4750] Overseer may exchange labor for index boards and mile posts.—The overseer is authorized to exchange the labor of any hand or hands bound to work on his road, for the making of index boards or mile posts, or either. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 6941. [4751] Overseer shall apply money how.—Overseers of roads shall apply all money coming into their hands as such overseers to the improvement of their roads in an impartial manner, by repairing or building bridges, hiring hands or teams to work on the road, or in such other manner as he may deem best. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 6942. [4752] Overseer shall report to commissioners' court, when, etc.—It shall be the duty of each overseer to report in writing and under oath to the commissioners' court of his county, at the first regular term thereof in each year, giving the number of the hands and their names in his precinct liable to work on the roads; the number of days he has caused his road to be worked; the condition of such road; the amount of the funds received by him for his road; from whom received, and for what purpose, and to whom and for what purpose said funds have been paid out, and the amount of such funds, if any, that remain in his hands; and he shall at the same time pay over to said court any such funds which may remain in his hands. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 6943. [4753] Compensation, etc., of overseers.—Overseers shall retain out of money that may come to their hands as such overseers ten per cent thereof as compensation for their services, and during their term of service they shall be exempt from serving upon juries. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 6944. [4754] Money shall be expended under order of court, etc.—All moneys appropriated by law, or by order of the commissioners' court, for working public roads or building bridges, shall be expended under the order of the commissioners' court, except when otherwise herein provided, and said court shall from time to time make the necessary orders for utilizing such money and for utilizing convict labor for such purposes. [Const., art. 16, sec. 24.]

Art. 6945. [4755] Overseers to dismiss hands, when.—Overseers shall dismiss from the road any hand or hands, whether working for themselves or as substitutes for others, who shall fail to do good and efficient work, or who shall hinder other hands from doing their work properly, or dismiss any hand who may be intoxicated, or who shall refuse to obey any reasonable order of the overseers; and the overseer shall proceed against such hand or hands so dismissed in the same manner as if they had refused to obey the summons to work upon the road. [Acts of 1889, p. 22.]

Article 6946. [4756] Commissioners' court may employ four road commissioners.—Each county commissioners' court of this state may employ not exceeding four road commissioners for their respective counties, who shall be resident citizens of the district for which they are employed, and when more than one is employed, the district that each road commissioner is to control shall be defined and fixed by the court; such road commissioners when employed shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon by the court, not to exceed two dollars per day for the time actually engaged. Each road commissioner when employed, before he enters upon his duties, shall execute a bond, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, and conditioned for a faithful performance of his duties. [Acts of 1889, p. 134.]

Art. 6947. [4757] Powers and duties.—A road commissioner when employed shall have control over all overseers, hands, tools, machinery and teams to be used upon the roads in his district; and shall have the power to require overseers to order out his hands in any number he may designate for the purpose of opening, working or repairing the roads or building or repairing bridges or culverts of his district; and it shall be the duty of such road commissioner to see that all the roads and bridges of his district are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction and control of the commissioners' court, inaugurate a system of grading and draining public roads in his district, and see that such system is carried out by the overseers and hands under his control, and shall obey all orders of the commissioners' court; and he shall be responsible for the safe keeping and liable for the loss or destruction of all machinery, tools or teams placed under his control, unless such loss is without his fault, and when he shall be discharged he shall deliver them to the person designated by the court. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6948. [4758] Expenditure of money by, etc.—He shall expend such money as may be placed in his hands by the commissioners' court under its direction in the most economical and advantageous manner on the public roads, bridges and culverts of his district; and all his acts shall be subject to the control, supervision, orders and approval of the commissioners' court; he shall work the convicts and such other labor as may be furnished him by the commissioners' court; and when the road commissioner shall have funds in his hands to expend for labor on the roads, and when it shall be necessary for any overseer or overseers in his district to work more than five days during any one year upon the public roads, he may employ such overseers to continue their duties as such for such a length of time as may be necessary, and pay them for their services not more than one dollar and fifty cents per day for the time actually employed after the five days; provided, that hands shall not be required to work when there shall be on hand, after building and repairing bridges, a sufficient road fund to provide for the necessary work on the roads; and said road commissioner shall report to the commissioners' court at each regular term under oath, showing an itemized account of all money he has received to be expended on roads and bridges and what disposition he has made of the money, and showing the condition of all roads, bridges and culverts in his district, and such other facts as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports and at such time as the court may desire. [Id. secs. 3 and 4.]

Art. 6949. [4759] Commissioners' court to see to expenditure of road fund.—The commissioners' court shall see that the road and bridge fund of their county is judiciously and equitably expended on the roads and bridges of their county, and, as nearly as the condition and necessity of the roads will permit, it shall be expended in each county commissioners' precinct in proportion to the amount collected in such precinct; and in expending money in building permanent roads the money shall first be used only on first or second class roads, and on those which shall have the right of way furnished free of cost to make as straight a road as is practicable to obtain and having the greatest bonus offered by the citizens of money, labor or other property. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6950. [4760] May make rules and regulations for working roads.—The commissioners' courts are authorized to make all reasonable and necessary rules and orders for the working and repairing of public roads, and to utilize the labor to be used and money expended thereon, not in conflict with the laws of this state, and enforce such rules and orders; and they are further authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools or teams, and hire such labor as may be needed in addition to the labor now required of citizens to build or repair the roads. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6951. [4761] May accept donations of money, etc.—Commissioners' courts or road commissioners may accept donations of money, lands, labor of men, teams or tools, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building roads in their counties, and may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road for the purpose of draining his land, and require the person draining his land to do such work under the direction of the road commissioner. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6952. [4762] Law cumulative.—This chapter shall not be construed to repeal any existing law, but it is cumulative and in aid of existing law; provided, that when road commissioners are employed the county commissioners are not required to supervise the roads as required by article 6901 of the Revised Statutes; provided, nothing in this law shall be construed so as to require more than five days' service in one year of any citizen. [Id. sec. 9.]

Article 6953. [4763] Commissioners' court may employ superintendent for county.—The commissioners' court of any county in this state may appoint one road superintendent for such county, or one superintendent in each commissioners' precinct, and such courts are authorized by an order made at any regular term thereof to determine whether there shall be one road superintendent for the county or one for each of the commissioner's precincts therein. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of such court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be sufficient; provided, no county shall be under the operation of this law whose commissioners' court does not appoint a road superintendent or superintendents as herein provided. [Acts of 1891, p. 149, sec. 1.]

Art. 6954. [4764] May determine number to be appointed.—In case such commissioners' court shall determine that there shall be one road superintendent, as provided in the preceding article, such court shall appoint a competent road superintendent for such county, and in case it is determined that there shall be four superintendents, then such court shall appoint a competent person as road superintendent for each commissioner's precinct in such county. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6955. [4765] Oath and bond of superintendent.—Each road superintendent, whether county or precinct, shall within twenty days after his appointment take and subscribe the oath required by the constitution, and enter into bond payable to the county judge and his successors in office, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, conditioned that he will faithfully do and perform all the duties required of him by law or the commissioners' court and that he will pay out and disburse the funds subject to his control as the law provides, or the commissioners' court may direct, which bond shall be filed and recorded as other official bonds and shall not be void for the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time until the full amount is exhausted. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6956. [4766] Qualifications.—Every road superintendent shall be a qualified voter in the county or precinct, as the case may be, for which he is appointed, and shall hold his office for two years or until his successor is appointed and qualified, but in all cases where the condition of the roads does not demand the continued services of the superintendent, his salary may in the discretion of the commissioners' court be suspended. The commissioners' court may for good cause remove any road superintendent, and in case of vacancy from any cause may appoint a successor, who shall hold his office for the unexpired term. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6957. [4767] Salary.—Each road superintendent shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, to be paid on the order of said court at stated intervals, but the salary of the county superintendent, in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants, shall never exceed one thousand dollars per annum, and in counties of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, it shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The salary of precinct superintendents in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and in counties of over fifteen thousand inhabitants it shall never exceed four hundred dollars per annum. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6958. [4768] Shall have supervision, etc., over roads subject to commissioners' court.—The road superintendent, subject to the orders and directions of the commissioners' court, shall have the general supervision over all the public roads and highways of his county or precinct, as the case may be, and shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making and changing of roads therein, the building of bridges therein (except where otherwise contracted), the working of the roads therein and all repairs to be made on the same, and over all county convicts worked on such roads, but this shall not prevent the commissioners' court from employing a person to watch and manage such convicts and direct the work to be done by them. Said road superintendent shall take charge of all tools, machinery, implements and teams placed under his control by the commissioners' court, and execute his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the county clerk, and he shall be responsible for the safe keeping of all such machinery, tools, implements and teams, and the proper expenditure and paying out of all money belonging to the road fund that may come into his hands, and shall be liable for the loss, injury or destruction of any such tools, teams, implements or machinery, unless such loss occurred without his fault, and for the wrongful or improper expenditure of any such money, and upon the expiration of his term of office, or in case of his resignation or removal, he shall deliver all such money and property to his successor or such other person as the commissioners' court may direct. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6959. [4769] Roads and bridges to be kept in repair; his duty, etc.—It shall be the duty of each road superintendent to see that all of the roads and bridges in his county or precinct, as the case may be, are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction of the commissioners' court, inaugurate and carry out a system of working, grading and draining the public roads in his county or precinct, and shall see that every person subject to road duty in his county or precinct performs the work to which he is liable under the law. He shall act as supervisor of the roads in his county or precinct, as the case may be, and perform all the duties of supervisor that now devolve on the county commissioners under the existing laws in counties not adopting this law, and he shall do and perform such other service as may be required of him by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6960. [4770] County shall be divided into precincts or districts.—Each road superintendent in counties where the commissioners' court so directs, as soon as practicable, shall divide his county or precinct, as the case may be, into road districts of convenient size, to be approved by the commissioners' court, and define the boundaries thereof and designate the same by number, which boundaries shall be recorded in the road minutes of the commissioners' court; and he shall ascertain the names of all persons subject to road duty in each district and keep a record thereof and report the same to the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6961. [4771] Shall call out all persons liable to work, etc.—Every road superintendent shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to call out all persons liable to work on the public roads at any time and in such numbers as he may deem necessary to work the roads in their respective districts, and he shall utilize all such labor to the best advantage in connection with other labor on the roads. The call shall be summons served in the manner and for the length of time prescribed by the law regulating the calling out of hands by overseers, but no person shall be compelled to work outside of his road district. The road superintendent may appoint any person subject to road duty in any district to summon the hands to work the roads therein, and such person shall be exempt from road service as many days as he was actually engaged in summoning the hands, and in case of emergency he may appoint a deputy to supervise any particular work. He may also contract with any person subject to road duty for the use of teams, and permit such person to discharge his road duty by the use of such double team, but he shall never allow more than two dollars a day for any team, nor more than three dollars for any hand and double team. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6962. [4772] Shall make reports.—Each road superintendent shall make a report, under oath, to the commissioners' court at each regular term thereof, showing an itemized account of all money belonging to the road fund he has received, from whom received, and what disposition he has made of the same, the condition of all roads and bridges in his county or precinct, as the case may be, and such other matters as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other report at such times as such court may require. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6963. [4773] Commissioners' court may hire or purchase all machinery, etc., for working roads.—The commissioners' court of any such county is authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools, implements, teams and labor required to grade, drain or repair the roads of such county, and said court is authorized and empowered to make all reasonable and necessary rules, orders and regulations not in conflict with law for laying out, working and otherwise improving the public roads, and to utilize the labor and money expended thereon, and to enforce the same. But no change in any road shall be made that lengthens the same without it is to the benefit of the traveling public or for the protection of private property, and then only upon the unanimous consent of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6964. [4774] May employ sufficient force, etc.—Each road superintendent shall employ sufficient force to enable him to do the necessary work in his county or precinct, as the case may be, having due regard for the condition of the county road and bridge fund and the quality and durability of the work to be done, and shall buy or hire such tools, teams, implements and machinery as the commissioners' court may direct, and he shall work such roads in such manner as the commissioner may direct, and such work shall at all times be subject to the general supervision of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6965. [4775] Shall make the best contracts, etc.—Each road superintendent shall make the best contract possible for all labor, tools, implements or machinery that he is authorized to hire or purchase, and in payment therefor he shall issue to the person entitled thereto his certificate, showing the amount due and the purpose for which it was given, and upon approval by the commissioners' court a warrant shall issue therefor to the holder thereof on the county treasurer, to be paid by him out of the proper fund as other warrants. All such certificates shall be dated, numbered and signed by the road superintendent, and he and his sureties on his official bond shall be liable for all loss or damages caused by the wrongful issue of any such certificate or any extravagance in the amount thereof. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 6966. [4776] May improve roads and bridges by contract.—The commissioners' court of any such county may, when deemed best, construct, grade, gravel or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract. In such case said court or the county judge may advertise, in such manner as said court may determine, for bids to do such work and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall enter into bond with good and sufficient sureties for the faithful compliance with such contract, but said court shall have the right to reject any and all bids. At the time of making any such contract the said court shall direct the county treasurer to pass the amount of money stipulated in such contract to a particular fund for that purpose, and the treasurer shall keep a separate account of such fund; and the same shall not be used for any other purpose, and can only be paid out on the order of said court. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 6967. [4777] May require county convicts to work on roads.—The commissioners' court may require all county convicts not otherwise employed to labor upon the public roads under such regulations as may be most expedient. Each county convict worked on the public roads in satisfaction of any fine and costs shall receive a credit thereon of fifty cents for each day he may labor. And the commissioners' court may order that the county pay to the officers of court as much as one-half of the costs due them and adjudged against such convict, and upon such order such payment shall be made. But no such costs nor any part thereof shall ever be paid until such convict has worked out the entire amount of such fine and costs as provided by law, and then only upon a certificate from such county or precinct superintendent to the effect that such costs have been so worked out. The commissioners' court may grant a reasonable commutation of time for which a convict would be compelled to work to pay his fine and costs, or for which he is committed, as a reward for faithful services and good behavior, and such court shall make proper rules and regulations under which such commutations may be granted. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 6968. [4778] May accept donations, etc.—The commissioners' court may accept donations of money, land, teams, tools or labor, or any other kind of property or material, to aid in building or keeping up roads in the county, and said court or any road superintendent, by and with the concurrence of the commissioners, may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road, the same to be done under the direction of the road superintendent, or such other person as said court may direct. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 6969. [4779] May retain old system of working roads.—The commissioners' court of any county may retain the system of working hands under road overseers as provided by general laws, and place such overseers under control of a county or precinct superintendent, under such lawful regulations as said court may prescribe, or may work with overseers without any superintendent, as may be deemed best. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 6970. [4780] May, in counties levying special tax, exempt persons from working roads.—The commissioners' court of any county in any county in which a special tax for the maintenance of the public roads is levied and collected, as provided for in section 9 of article 8 of the constitution, shall not be compelled to require persons subject to road duty to work on the roads, as prescribed in existing general laws, but in such counties the roads shall be worked wholly by taxation, or by taxation in connection with road service, as such court may deem best. In any such county such court may reduce the number of days that persons liable to road duty may be required to work on the roads, but can never increase the number above five days in any one year. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 6971. [4781] Superintendent to keep accounts.—Each road superintendent shall keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him on account of the road or bridge fund, and pay the same over to the county treasurer within ten days after its collection, taking his receipt for the same. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 6972. [4782] Parties misplacing bridge shall be liable, etc.—Any person who shall knowingly or wilfully destroy, injure or misplace any bridge, culvert, drain, sewer, ditch, signboard, mile post or tile, or anything of like character, placed upon any road for the benefit of the same, shall be liable to the county and any person injured for all damages caused thereby. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 6973. [4783] Delinquent poll tax payers to be subject to three days' road duty.—The county superintendent or the precinct superintendent, as the case may be, shall obtain from the tax collector of their counties as soon after the first day of January of each year as practicable, and before the first day of May thereafter, a full list of the delinquent poll tax payers of such county for the previous year, and the persons so appearing on said list and who are such delinquent poll tax payers shall be subject to road duty for the period of three days during such year, and they shall be summoned, as in other cases, to work the roads in the road district or precinct in which such person may reside; and the performance of the road service provided for in this article shall not exonerate the persons from any other road duty to which the persons performing the same may be subject, but this shall be taken as cumulative. The persons required to do road duty under the provisions of this article shall be subject to prosecution as provided in this chapter or other law of this state, and subject to the same liabilities and punishments provided for in other cases for failing to appear or do good work, when summoned so to do, as provided for by this chapter or other law of this state, and all such laws shall apply to parties required to work under the provisions of this article. And when they are convicted for so failing to work the roads, shall satisfy the fine and costs as in other misdemeanor convictions. But any person summoned to work on the road under the provisions of this article may satisfy such summons and be relieved from such duty by paying to the county road or precinct superintendent, as the case may be, three dollars; one-third of which sum shall go to the free school fund, and the balance to the road and bridge fund. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 6974. [4784] "Roads," "work" and "working" defined.—The term, "road," as used in this chapter, includes roadbed, ditches, drains, bridges, culverts, and every part of such road, and the terms, "work" and “working” include the opening and laying out of new roads, widening, constructing, draining, repairing, and everything else that may be done in and about any road. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 6975. [4785] Law cumulative.—This law shall be cumulative of all other general laws on the subject of roads and bridges not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein such general laws shall apply; but in case of conflict with other general laws the provisions of this chapter shall govern. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 6976. [4785a] Counties exempt.—The counties of Grayson, Travis, Houston, Dallas, Limestone, Fayette, Galveston, Cherokee, Gonzales, Wood, Rains, Harrison, Shelby, San Augustine, Sabine, Newton, Jasper, Tyler, Morris, Marion, Victoria, Goliad, Refugio, Aransas, Calhoun, Jackson, DeWitt, Hopkins, Comal, Upshur, Blanco, Camp, Gillespie, Lavaca, Parker, Panola, Milam, Lamar, Hill, Smith, Gregg, McLennan, Harris, Washington, Titus, Cass, Franklin, Delta, Angelina, Nacogdoches, Bowie, Montgomery, Walker, Trinity, Red River, Henderson, Van Zandt and Tarrant counties are exempted from the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the county commissioners’ courts of Dallas and Collin counties may accept and adopt the provisions of this chapter in lieu of the special acts of Dallas, Collin, Grayson and other counties, if in their judgment its provisions are better suited to Dallas and Collin counties than the said special laws. [Acts of 1891, ch. 97; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 483. Amended act 1909, p. 82.]

Article 6977. Members of commissioners’ courts to be ex officio road commissioners; their duties; bond.—In all counties of this state, as shown by the United States official national census of 1900 to contain as many as forty thousand inhabitants, the members of the commissioners’ court shall be ex officio road commissioners of their respective precincts; and under the direction of the commissioners’ court shall have charge of the teams, tools and machinery belonging to the county and placed in their hands by said court; and it shall be their duty, under such rules and regulations as the commissioners’ court may prescribe, to superintend the laying out of new roads, the making or changing of roads and the building of bridges. Each of the county commissioners shall, before entering upon the duties of road commissioner, execute a bond of one thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the county judge, and his successors in office and to be approved by the county judge for the use and benefit of the road and bridge fund, conditioned that he will perform all the duties required of him by law, or by the commissioners' court, and that he will account for all money or other property belonging to the county that may come into his possession. [Act 1901, p. 277, sec. 1.]

Art. 6978. Their powers.—The commissioners' court shall have full power and authority, and it shall be their duty, to adopt such system for working, laying out, draining and repairing the public roads as they may deem best, and, from time to time, said court may change their plan or system of working. The commissioners' court shall have the power to purchase such teams, tools and machinery as may be necessary for the working of public roads. Said court shall have the power to construct, grade, or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract. In such cases, said court or county judge may advertise in such manner as said court may determine for bids to do the work; and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall enter into a bond, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, for the use and benefit of the road and bridge fund, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court, and in such sum as said court may determine, for the faithful performance of the terms of said contract, but said court shall have the right to reject any or all bids. At the time of making any such contract the court shall direct the county treasurer to pass the amount of said contract to a particular fund for that purpose; and the treasurer shall keep a separate account of said fund, and the same shall not be used for any other purpose, and can only be paid out on the order of said court; and the said court shall have authority to employ any hands and teams on the public roads under such regulations and for such prices as they may deem best. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 6979. May work convicts.—The commissioners' court shall require all male county convicts, not otherwise employed, to labor on the public roads, under such regulations as they may prescribe, and each convict so worked shall receive a credit of fifty cents on his fine first, and then on the costs, for each day he may labor. The commissioners' court shall at each term allow the officers and witnesses such amount of their costs as have been satisfied in full by labor of such convicts, for the arrest and conviction of said convicts as it may deem best, not to exceed one-half of such costs; which amount shall be paid to the officers and witnesses out of the road and bridge fund on the warrant of the county judge; provided, that this shall not be so construed as to relieve any convict from the payment of all costs for which he may be liable under the laws of this state. The commissioners' court may grant a reasonable commutation of time for which a convict is committed as a reward for faithful service and good behavior; provided, that such commutation shall in no case exceed one-tenth of the whole time. The commissioners' court may provide the necessary houses, prisons, clothing, bedding, food, medicine, medical attention and superintendents and guards for the safe and humane keeping of the convicts. The commissioners' court may provide such reasonable regulations and punishment as may be necessary to require such convicts to perform good work, and to provide a reward not to exceed ten dollars, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund, for the recapture and delivery of any escaped convict, to be paid to any person other than the guard or person in charge of such convict at the time of his escape. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6980. Shall have control of overseers.—Each road commissioner shall have control of all road overseers in his precinct, and shall deliver to each of them such teams, tools and machinery necessary in working the roads in the precinct of said overseer, so far as he has been supplied therewith by the commissioners' court, taking a receipt therefor, specifying each item and giving its value, which receipt shall be a full answer for the liability of the road commissioner, and shall fix the liability of the road overseer; and the road commissioner or road overseer, who shall have been intrusted with any teams, tools or machinery belonging to the county, shall be liable for all damages that may occur to the same while in his possession caused by his negligence or want of due care of same. It shall be the duty of the road overseer, when he has finished work on his road, to return to said road commissioner all teams, tools and machinery received from him and take up the receipt given therefor. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6981. Shall direct work.—It shall be the duty of each county commissioner, when acting as road commissioner, to inform himself of the condition of the public roads in his precinct, and shall determine what character of work shall be done on said roads, and shall direct the manner of grading, draining or otherwise improving the same, which directions shall be followed and obeyed by all road overseers of his precinct. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6982. May cause road hands to be called out, when; credit allowed for use of teams; penalty for non-compliance with instructions.—The road commissioner may require each road overseer in his precinct to call out the hands in such numbers as may be sufficient to perform the work, but no road hand shall be required to work exceeding five days in any one year, unless the term of service as now provided by law shall be extended beyond that time; and provided, that all road hands in a particular road precinct shall as far as practicable be worked a uniform time. Each road overseer shall have full control of all road hands in his precinct, and shall see that each hand, when called out, shall perform a good day's work; and, if any hand when so called out shall fail or refuse to do a good day's work, or to work in the manner the overseer may direct, he shall be liable to the same penalty as if he had failed to appear in obedience to the summons. And the road overseer may, when he deems expedient or when so directed to do by the road commissioner of said commissioner's precinct, and at the time of notifying any hand to work upon the road, also summon such hand as may be the owner of a team suitable for road work, to bring such team with him to be used in working upon the public roads during such time as the hand may be notified to work upon the public roads; and, after such notice given, if such hand shall fail or refuse to bring his team with him as notified to do, he shall be liable to the same penalty as if he had failed to appear in obedience to the summons; provided, that any hand for so doing shall be credited with and allowed two and one-half days upon his time for which he is liable for road duty for each day he may work in connection with and while furnishing such team, and one and one-half days for his team without such hand. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6983. Persons exempted from road duty, how.—A person liable for road duty, who shall, on or before the first day of February of any year, pay to the county treasurer the sum of three dollars, shall be exempt from road duty for such year, beginning on the first day of February. The county treasurer shall receive and receipt for all money so paid him and place the same to the credit of the road and bridge fund, and he shall keep a separate account for each precinct from which it is received. The county treasurer shall, on the third day of February, or as soon thereafter as practicable, furnish to each road commissioner a list of all persons in their respective precincts that have paid said sums, as provided in this article. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6984. May take material for road work; compensation; condemnation proceedings.—When to the commissioners' court it may appear expedient to build, repair or maintain any public road in their county, the timber, earth, stone, gravel, or other necessary material, most convenient therefor may be used; but in such case the owner thereof shall be paid out of the road and bridge fund of such county a fair compensation for the same as may be agreed upon by the owner thereof, or his agent, and the commissioners' court; provided, however, that should said owner, or his agent, and the said commissioners' court fail to agree upon the compensation to be paid therefor, then the county, upon the order of said court, shall proceed to condemn the same in the same manner that a railroad company can condemn lands for right of way; and the same proceedings shall be had as would exist if the proceedings were by a railroad company, except as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6985. County not to give bond; compensation of commissioners appointed to condemn.—The county shall not be required, in proceedings to determine the compensation to be paid for material to build, repair or maintain public roads, in any case to give bond for costs, and the commissioners appointed to condemn such property necessary as aforesaid shall receive for their services two dollars for each and every day that they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties as such commissioners, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund on the order of the commissioners' court, and the compensation awarded by said commissioners for the necessary material shall be paid to the owner or deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner, and when so paid or deposited the county shall have the right to enter upon and use said material. If the owner of such material, or said county, is not satisfied with the compensation awarded said owner, he or said county may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal in proceedings by railroad companies to condemn right of way. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6986. Penalty for failure to comply with road duty.—If any person liable to work upon the public roads, after being legally summoned, shall fail or refuse to attend, either in person or by able and competent substitute, or fail or refuse to furnish his team or tools at the time and place designated by the person summoning him, or to pay to such road overseer the sum of one dollar for each day he may have been notified to work on the public roads, or to pay to such overseer the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for each day he may have been notified to furnish his team for road work, or having attended shall fail or refuse to perform good service, or any other duty required of him by law, or the person under whom he may work, or if any one shall fail to comply with any duty required of him as provided by law, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, punished as provided in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 6987. Compensation of commissioners.—Each county commissioner, as compensation for his services as ex officio road commissioner of his precinct, shall be entitled to such sum as may be prescribed by the commissioners' court of his county, not to exceed four dollars per day for the services actually performed; provided, that he shall not receive more than fifty dollars per month; which amount shall be paid monthly out of the road and bridge fund, when the account shall have been allowed by the commissioners' court; and said court shall not approve said account unless the road commissioner presenting it shall sign an oath that the account is just, true and unpaid, and specifying the number of days' work actually performed by him, nor shall he be entitled to any other or further compensation for supervising public roads, except what is allowed by this act. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 6988. This chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be held and construed to be cumulative of all general laws of this state on the subject of roads, when not in conflict therewith, but in case of such conflict this chapter to control; and provided, this chapter shall not be in operation in any county of this state, unless the commissioners' court thereof in their judgment may deem it advisable, and then only by an order of the commissioners' court when all the members are present, made at some regular term thereof, accepting the provisions of this chapter. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of said court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance with the provisions thereof shall be sufficient. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 6989. Certain counties excepted.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the counties of Fannin, Lamar, Grayson, Collin, Hunt, Dallas and Bell. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 6990. What roads are public; commissioners to cause drains to be constructed.—For the purpose of this chapter, all public roads and highways that have been heretofore, or that may hereafter be, laid out and established agreeable to law, and all roads and highways that have been opened to and used by the public for a period of ten years prior to March 25, 1897, and which have not been discontinued or closed to the use of the public agreeably to law, are hereby declared to be public roads.

The commissioners' court of any county in this state, at any regular session thereof, may, in the manner hereinafter provided, and the said court shall have power to cause to be constructed and maintained, as herein-after provided, ditches, drains and watercourses on and within the exterior lines of all public roads situated within any of the said counties, sufficient in capacity to carry off and into the natural waterways of the county, all surface water reasonably adjacent and liable to collect in said ditch, drain, or watercourse from natural causes, or by means of the construction of private lateral ditches as hereinafter provided for, and shall also have power to construct, in connection with such drain or watercourse any side, lateral, spur or branch ditch or watercourse necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of this act; provided, however, that no ditch, drain, or watercourse shall be constructed along any public road without there being constructed, at the same time, a ditch, drain, or watercourse as an outlet to a natural waterway, sufficient in capacity to carry off all water that may collect therein; provided, further, that the word, "ditch," in this chapter hereafter shall be construed to embrace any ditch, drain, or watercourse that may be constructed under the provisions of this act. [Acts 1897, p. 66, secs. 1 and 2.]

Art. 6991. Shall not change natural course of stream.—No road overseer, or any court, shall, on petition or otherwise, have the power to change the natural course of any branch, creek or water stream, but such volume of water shall always enter and cross said road at its natural crossing; and overseers shall always, in draining their roads, provide a culvert sufficiently broad and tall to permit said stream to flow at high tide, from its intersection with said road, across its natural outflow at the opposite natural channel. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 6992. Petition.—Before the commissioners' court of such county shall have the power to order the construction or establishment of any ditch, drain, or watercourse, provided for in this chapter, there shall be filed with the county clerk of the county court of said county a petition signed by at least one hundred taxpayers and voters of said county, which petition shall set forth the necessity and availability for such drainage system, and the number of miles of public roads within such county, as accurately as the same may be known, and as near as practicable, the width and depth required for the ditches to be constructed along the first class roads of the county. Said petition shall, also, separately state the name and location of each of the natural waterways of such county crossed by each of the first-class public roads of the said county, and the distance of said natural waterways, one from the other, along said road; said petition shall also state the names and residences, if known, of the owners of the lands adjacent to each of said first class public roads, and within one mile thereof, and, if unknown, the same shall be stated therein. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 6993. Notices.—Upon the filing of said petition with the clerk of the county court, he shall issue five notices in writing, containing a brief statement of the contents of said petition, commanding all persons interested to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners' court of such county and contest the same. One of said notices shall be posted at the court house door of such county, and one each at four other public places in such county, no two of which shall be in the same town or city, for twenty days prior to the first day of the next regular term of the commissioners' court after the issuance thereof. Said notices shall be posted by the sheriff of the county, who shall make due returns to the clerk of the county court of such notices, on or before the said first day of the term; and for such services the sheriff shall receive a fee of three dollars, and the clerk shall receive a fee of one dollar and fifty cents. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 6994. Protests, hearing.—At the next regular term after the filing of the petition and issuance of notices, the commissioners' court shall hear and determine the same in connection with all protests, remonstrances or objections thereto; and, if they find that the adoption of the drainage system provided for herein is necessary, advisable, or for the public benefit, or for the best interest of the county, the said court shall so order, and the order shall be entered at length upon the minutes of the court, and become a part of the record thereof, and the same shall recite the time, character, and manner of service of notice; and, if it appears therefrom that notice has been given as provided for herein, the said order shall be final, and thereafter no question shall be raised as to the power of the court to hear and determine said application. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 6995. Surveyor employed.—At the same or any succeeding term of the commissioners' court after the entry of the order adopting the drainage system provided for herein, the commissioners' court shall employ a competent surveyor, who shall be an engineer, to run a line of levels along the public roads of the county, and to measure the same from the beginning to the terminus of said road, and to measure the distance of each waterway crossed by said roads from the beginning point, together with the frontage of each tract of land abutting on said road, and also the distance from said road of any adjacent natural waterway, with line of levels thereto; provided, that the said survey and the drainage system herein provided for shall be first applied to the first class roads of such county, and thereafter to roads of the second and third class; and provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the said court from constructing one or more ditches at the same time, as the financial condition of the county will permit. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 6996. Survey made; report.—The surveyor shall, as soon as practicable after his employment, proceed to make an accurate survey and system of levels as provided for in the preceding article, and shall cause stakes or monuments to be placed along said line at intervals of one hundred feet, together with such intermediate stakes as may be necessary, numbered progressively, and shall establish permanent bench marks along said lines at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary, and shall establish, by stake or monument of a different character and appearance from all other stakes or monuments, the highest point upon said road between each of the natural waterways crossed by the road; said surveyor shall also measure and establish, by suitable marks, the frontage of each tract of land abutting on said road; and, if there be a natural waterway adjacent to the line of said road and ditch and the same is necessary to be utilized as an outlet for the water at any point on said ditch, the surveyor shall measure the distance to same, and run the line of levels thereto, at the nearest practicable point on said road and ditch. He shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch or ditches, together with the position of stakes or monuments with numbers corresponding with those on the ground, and the position of bench marks, with their elevations referred to an assumed or previously determined datum. Said map shall also show the lines and boundaries of adjacent land, and the courses and distances of any adjacent watercourse, together with a profile of the line of the ditch, which shall show the assumed datum and the grade line of the bottom of the same, and the elevation of each stake, monument, or other important feature along the line, such as top of banks, and bottom of all ditches or watercourses, and surface of water, top of rail, and bottom of tie, foot of embankment, bottom of borrow pits of all railroads. And said map, or the explanation accompanying the same, shall, in tabular form, give the depth of cut, width at bottom and width at top, at the source, outlet, and at each one hundred feet stake or monument to said ditch, drain or watercourse. Said map, or the explanation accompanying the same, shall show the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch between each natural waterway into which the water is to be conveyed, and an estimate of the cost of each portion of the said ditch or ditches lying between natural waterways crossed by said road, together with an estimate of total cost of the whole work. The surveyor shall, as soon as the survey is completed, prepare and file, together with his report and map as herein provided for, specifications in detail for the execution of the same; and, whenever in the opinion of the surveyor it may be advantageous to run said ditch underground through drainage tiles, he shall so state in said report, map and specifications, together with the statement of the locality of said underground ditch, and length thereof, and the dimensions or character of tiling or other material required therefor. The survey, report, map, explanation and estimate herein provided for shall be made and filed with the county clerk of the county by the surveyor as soon after his employment as may be practicable, having in view an accurate and complete report upon the physical conditions to be met in the construction of said ditch or ditches. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 6997. Jury of viewers, duties; report.—At any regular or called session of the commissioners' court after the filing of the report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate of the surveyor, provided for in the preceding article, the court shall appoint a jury of five freeholders of the county not interested directly in the construction of the proposed work as a land owner adjacent to or abutting on said ditch or ditches, and not of kin to any of the parties so directly interested therein, who shall constitute a jury of viewers who shall meet at a time and place to be specified by the said court in the order appointing them; and it shall be the duty of the county clerk thereupon to issue to the said viewers a certified copy of the petition and order of the court, together with the original report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate of the surveyor; and, if said jury of viewers shall fail or refuse from any cause to perform the duties required under such appointment, or if their report, from any cause should not be adopted, the court may, at any succeeding term, appoint another jury of viewers, whose appointment and duties shall be the same as required in the first instance. The jury of viewers shall proceed at the time and place specified in the order of the court appointing them, after having given notice to each abutting land owner, and owner of land within one mile of said ditch, as hereinafter provided, and after viewing the line of the proposed ditch, and after hearing all protests, claims and remonstrances offered, they shall take the several partial estimates, and the estimate of the total cost of the work as made by the surveyor as a basis, and they shall set apart and apportion to each parcel of land abutting on said road and ditch, or within one mile of the same, and to each person, firm or corporation owning the same, the proportionate share chargeable to such tract of the one-half of the total cost of the said ditch, drain and watercourse, taking into consideration the relative amount of benefit derived by said land from the construction thereof; and they shall assess the amount of damages or compensation due to each land owner through whose land any spur, branch, or lateral ditch, is or may be constructed under the order of appointment, which sum shall be paid by the county before the opening of such ditch is begun; provided, that said jury of viewers shall have lines run parallel to the line of said ditch at a distance of one mile upon either side of the same; and no lands lying outside of said lines shall be assessed with any portion of the cost of such ditch and drain, but all lands and tracts of land lying within said lines may be assessed their proportionate share of said one-half of the total cost, taking into consideration the amount or value of benefits derived by said lands, or tracts of land, from the construction of such ditch. The jury of view shall make a report to the commissioners' court, under oath, as soon as practicable after their meeting, signed by at least three of said jury, and duly verified under oath, and shall return with their report a description, as accurate and complete as may be, of each tract or parcel of land assessed by them, together with the number of acres and the name of the owner or owners thereof, and the amount by them assessed against each tract, and the owner thereof. The jury of viewers shall also return with their report the map, profile, explanation and estimates of the surveyor, together with a copy of the specifications; and the same shall be filed with the clerk, and shall become a public record and be preserved as such, and the court shall act upon said report at the next regular or called term, and approve or reject the same; provided, that the court may appoint separate juries of view for each road and ditch to be constructed, if deemed desirable or of advantage to the public. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 6998. Oath of viewers.—The said jury of viewers, before proceeding to act as such, shall take the following oath before an officer authorized to administer the same, to-wit: "I do solemnly swear that I am not directly interested in the construction of the proposed ditch, either as the owner or otherwise, of adjacent land lying within one mile thereof, and that I am not of kin to any person who is so interested. I further swear that I have no bias or prejudice towards any person directly interested in said ditch, and that I will assess the amount of expense due on and by all adjacent lands lying within one mile of said ditch, according to law, without fear, favor, hatred or hope of reward, to the best of my knowledge and ability. So help me God." [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 6999. Assessment of abutting owners.—The said jury of view, as provided for in this chapter, shall issue a notice in writing to the land owner of each abutting tract along said ditch, and to each land owner, any part of whose land lies within one mile of the line of said ditch, or to his or their agent or attorney, of the time and place when they will assess the one-half of the expense incidental to the construction of the ditch or ditches specified in the order of appointment; which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day named therein; said notice may be served by any person competent to testify; and a duplicate of said notice, together with the returns of said service, shall be returned and filed with the report of the jury of viewers. If such owner is a non-resident of the county, and has no resident agent or attorney therein, the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants in actions in the district courts; and said notice shall be complete after four weeks publication thereof prior to the date named for the meeting of the jury of view; and at any time thereafter the jury of viewers may proceed to assess the proportionate part of such expense against said non-resident land owner, and the land owned by him subject thereto. The cost of such publication shall be paid by the county, on an order of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7000. Action of commissioners court on protests final.—Any person who may be affected by such ditch, drain, or water course, or any citizen of the county, shall have the right to appear before the commissioners' court on the hearing of the petition for the establishment of the drainage system, and shall have the right to be heard upon their protest, remonstrances and objections thereto; but the action of the court thereon shall be final; and, in case the court shall refuse to adopt the drainage system provided for herein, no application therefor shall be filed or heard by said court for one year thereafter. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7001. Objections and claims submitted in writing to viewers; failure to submit same a waiver of claim.—Any person whose land may be affected by such ditch, drain or water course shall have the right to appear before said viewers and freely express their opinions on all matters pertaining to the assessment of expense against them; and the owner of any such lands may at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a statement in writing of any objections to, or dissatisfaction therewith, and any claim for damages which he may have sustained by reason of the making of said ditch or drain; and a failure to make such objection or claim for damages or compensation in writing as herein specified shall be deemed a waiver of all claim or right thereto, all of which said claim or objection shall be returned to the commissioners' court in connection with the report of the viewers; provided, that any adjacent land owner shall have the right to appear before and be heard by the commissioners' court on his protest or remonstrance or claim against the action of the jury of viewers. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7002. Appeals.—Any person, firm, or corporation, aggrieved by the assessment of expense for construction of any ditch or ditches by the jury of view, or any person, firm, or corporation, aggrieved by the assessment of damages or compensation allowed by the jury for land taken or applied to the construction of any lateral spur, or branch ditch, may appeal from the final order of the commissioners' court approving the report of said jury to any court within the county having jurisdiction of the amount of such assessment, by giving notice of appeal in open court and having the same entered as a part of the judgment of the court, and by filing, within ten days thereafter, a transcript of the proceedings had in the commissioners' court, with the justice or clerk of the court to which appeal is taken, together with an appeal bond with at least two good sureties, to be approved by such clerk or justice, in double the amount of the probable costs to accrue, conditioned that the appellant will prosecute his appeal to effect, and pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court; and, if the appeal is taken from an assessment of expense levied by the jury of viewers against the appellant, the said appeal shall be heard upon the following issue, to-wit: Whether the assessments made against the appellant for the construction of such ditch are in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom. And if the appeal is taken from an assessment of compensation made by the jury of viewers in favor of appellant for land taken and applied to the construction of such ditch, or any portion of the same, the said appeal shall be heard upon the following issue, to-wit: Whether the assessment of compensation made by the jury is adequate to the injury occasioned and to the value of the land. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7003. Trial on appeal.—In the trial of all cases so appealed from the order of the commissioners' court, the burden of proof shall rest upon the appellant; and the court or jury trying the cause shall state the correct amount of expense chargeable to appellant, or the correct amount of compensation due to appellant, as found by them, and the same shall be entered as the judgment of the court thereon, and from such judgment no further appeal shall be allowed to either party; and, if the verdict of the jury shall find the appellant chargeable with a less amount of expense, or that the appellant is entitled to a greater amount of compensation as damages than was found by the jury of viewers, the costs shall be adjudged against the county; otherwise the same shall be adjudged against the appellant. Within five days after the entry of such judgment, the clerk or justice shall issue and return to the commissioners' court a certified copy of such judgment, to be filed with the papers pertaining to such ditch, and the same shall be entered by the commissioners' court as the judgment of said court, and thereafter the appellant shall be holden for, or claim, as the case may be, the amount specified in said judgment. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 70040. Appropriation; construction.—The commissioners' court of such county may, at the next term thereof, after the filing of the report of the jury of viewers and the entry of the order approving the same, if the report be approved, make an order setting aside such portion of the road and bridge fund, and such portion of the special road and bridge fund, if any, as may be necessary for the construction of the ditch or ditches described in the report of the jury of viewers, and shall also enter an order to the overseer or overseers of the road adjoining said ditch or ditches, or to the supervisor of the road, or to the road commissioner, commanding him to construct such ditch or ditches in accordance with the specifications of the surveyor, which shall be turned over to him for his information, and that the earth taken therefrom shall be used in making a raised road adjoining said ditch or ditches; and the court shall further order that all the road hands apportioned to said road, and that any teams, tools or materials belonging to the county, and necessary to the execution of such work, be apportioned to said overseer, supervisor, or commissioner, for the completion thereof; and shall authorize such overseer, supervisor, or commissioner, to employ such additional labor and teams, and to purchase tools and implements as may be necessary, to be paid for out of the road and bridge fund set aside therefor, on the order of the commissioners' court, and the said order shall further show the amount of compensation to be allowed to the said overseer, supervisor, or road commissioner for his services. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7005. Special overseer employed, when; duties, powers and compensation.—The commissioners' court may employ some suitable and competent person, other than the overseer, road commissioner or supervisor, if to the best interest of the county, and such person shall have the same powers, duties, and responsibilities as provided for overseers, road commissioners, and supervisors in the preceding article, and the court shall enter an order showing the amount of compensation to be paid him for his services. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7006. List of assessments; certificates to issue.—At the same or at any succeeding term after the entry of the order for the construction of the ditches and roadway, as provided in article 7004 of this chapter, the commissioners' court shall make and enter upon the minutes of the court a list showing the names of the owners, amounts due, the tract of land, original grantees, number of acres covered by each assessment of expense, as made and reported by the jury of viewers, and as approved by the court; and the county clerk shall issue a certificate against each person on said list showing the amount of such assessment, and for what ditch or road the same was issued, and the tract of land on which said amount was assessed; which certificate shall be signed by the county judge in open court, and attested under the hand and seal of the said county clerk, which fact shall be noted upon the minutes of said court. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 7007. County treasurer to collect on certificates.—The county judge shall deliver the certificate to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the papers and archives concerning such ditch; and the county treasurer shall collect the sums due on such certificates, and deposit the amount so collected to the credit of the road and bridge fund. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7008. Enforcement by suit.—In case any person against whom any such certificate may be issued shall fail or refuse to pay the same to the county treasurer on demand therefor, such treasurer shall turn same over to the county attorney, who shall at once file suit thereon, and have the lien on said land, herein provided for, foreclosed, or for a personal judgment, as may be lawful. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7009. Operates a lien.—All assessments, sums, and charges by the said viewers, or order of court, assessed against any lands or land and the owner or owners thereof, shall be a lien thereon, unless prohibited by the constitution of this state, and the same shall be collected in the manner provided in the preceding article; and any damages for compensation awarded by said jury of viewers to any land owner, on the order of the court, shall be paid out of the county treasury on the order of said court, from the fund set aside for the construction of such ditch or ditches. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 7010. Compensation of viewers and surveyor.—The said jury of viewers shall each receive the sum of three dollars per day as compensation for their services for each day so actually engaged; and said surveyor and engineer shall receive as compensation such sum as may be allowed by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 7011. Lateral ditches.—Any owner of lands or tracts of land abutting on said road or ditch, or the owner of any tract of land lying wholly or partially within one mile of such road or ditch, may construct lateral drainage ditches and connect the same with such main ditch or ditches as shall be constructed under the provisions of this chapter, provided the same be done at his own cost. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7012. This chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative to all other provisions of law, and shall not be held to repeal any existing law upon the subject of drainage. [Id. sec. 23.]

CHAPTER NINE.

BRIDGES.

Shall take security from contractors to keep bridges in repair, etc.	7016		Funds available for the purpose.	7020

Article 7013. [4791] Overseer shall have bridges built, when, etc.—Overseers of roads shall cause bridges to be erected across all such water courses and other places as may appear to them necessary and expedient; and should there be a water course or other place that requires a bridge, dividing any two road precincts, the overseer of each of such precincts, together with their hands, shall meet at the same time and place to construct such bridge, and the overseer chosen by a majority of the hands present shall superintend the building of such bridge until finished. [Act July 29, 1876, p. 67, sec. 20.]

Art. 7014. [4792] Commissioners' court, power to have bridges built, etc.—The commissioners' court shall have full power and authority to cause all necessary bridges to be built and kept in repair in their respective counties, and to make appropriations of money of the county therefor, when necessary. [Act July 22, 1876, p. 51, sec. 4.]

Art. 7015. [4793] May contract for building of toll bridges.—The commissioners' courts through whose county large creeks or water courses shall pass, over which it may be too burdensome for the the overseers, with the hands apportioned to them to work on roads, to build bridges, may contract with a proper person or persons to build a toll bridge, for which the court shall lay the toll to be levied on all persons, cattle, horses, carriages, etc., passing over the same, to be granted to the undertaker for such a number of years as the said court may think proper, not to exceed ten years; and the builder or builders and their successors shall keep the bridge in constant repair during the term of the contract, and in default thereof shall forfeit all right and claim to the toll of such bridges. [Act Dec. 20, 1836; P. D. 5244.]

Art. 7016. [4794] Shall take security from contractor to keep bridges in repair, etc.—The commissioners' court, before granting a license to any person to build a toll bridge, shall take bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that the undertaker or undertakers shall build and keep in constant repair the bridges so contemplated for the term of years agreed upon between the undertaker or undertakers and the court; and, if any person or persons shall sustain damages in consequence of the owner or keeper of any toll bridge not having complied with the conditions of his bond, the person or persons so damaged may bring an action of debt against the owner or keeper of such toll bridge, on his or their bond, in the county in which such license was granted, and recover judgment for the damages so sustained. [Id. P. D. 5245.]

Art. 7017. [4795] When streams form dividing line of counties expense of bridge to be joint, etc.—Whenever any stream is the division line between counties, or when two or more counties are jointly interested in bridges, it shall be lawful for the counties so divided or interested to jointly erect bridges over said dividing stream, upon such equitable terms as the commissioners' court of each county interested may agree upon. [Act Nov. '28, 1871, p. 42; P. D. 5883.]

Art. 7018. [4796] Tolls assessed to pay bonds, etc.—Whenever any county bonds have been or may hereafter be issued for the purpose of building bridges, it shall be lawful for the commissioners' courts of the county or counties interested to assess and collect tolls on said bridges sufficient to pay the interest on bonds so issued; and, if thought proper, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity, all of which shall be done under such rules and regulations as the commissioners' courts of the counties interested may prescribe. [Id. P. D. 5884.]

Art. 7019. Coast counties may buy and lease causeways and bridges.—The commissioners' court of any county bordering on the Gulf of Mexico that has within its limits an island that is separated from the mainland by a bay or arm of the sea, that is over one mile in width, shall have the right and authority to purchase a roadway upon and along any causeway and bridge that may be constructed across any such bay or arm of the sea, and to operate and maintain the same as a public highway; and said commissioners' court shall also have the right and authority to lease for a period not to exceed thirty years, a roadway upon and along any such causeway and bridge for a public highway, and to make such terms and conditions, and to pay such amounts of money as may be agreed upon with the company owning or operating such causeway and bridge. [Acts 1905, p. 424, sec. 1.]

Art. 7020. Funds available for the purpose.—For the purpose of paying for the purchase or lease of a roadway, as provided for in the preceding article, the commissioners' court shall have the right to levy and collect such taxes as are now or may hereafter be authorized by law, and also to appropriate out of county revenue funds, levied and collected for county revenue purposes, such additional amounts as may be necessary, from time to time, to pay the obligations that may be incurred under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Article 7021. [4797] Who are entitled to license to keep.—Every person owning the land fronting upon any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, shall be entitled to the privilege of keeping a public ferry over or across such water course, stream, lake or bay; if he owns the lands on both sides or banks, he shall be entitled to the sole and exclusive right of ferriage at such place; if he owns the lands on one side only, he shall have the privilege of a public ferry from his own shore, with the privilege of landing his boat and passengers on the opposite shore, with the consent of the owner of the land on said shore; if such consent can not be obtained, he may apply to the commissioners' court for the establishment of a public road from said opposite shore; and said court shall act on such applications as in other cases. [Act Jan. 23, 1850; P. D. 3841.]

Art. 7022. [4798] Shall not be for hire without license.—No person shall keep any ferry over or across any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, so as to charge any compensation for crossing the same, without first procuring a license from the commissioners' court of the county in which such ferry is situated. [Id. P. D. 3842.]

Art. 7023. [4799] Where stream is part of state boundary.—When a water course, navigable stream, lake or bay makes a part of the boundary line of this state, if any tax or charge shall be assessed or collected by any such adjoining state for the privilege of a ferry landing on the shore or bank of such state from this state, then the same tax or charge may be assessed and collected by the commissioners' court for the like privilege of landing on the bank or shore of this state. [Id. P. D. 3842.]

Art. 7024. [4800] License, how obtained.—Any person wishing to establish a ferry across any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay in this state, shall apply to the commissioners' court of the county in which such ferry site may be; and, on the applicant showing that he is the lawful owner of such land as the ferry is sought to be established on, and also satisfying the court that the public convenience will be promoted thereby, such court shall grant such license. [Id. P. D. 3844.]

Art. 7025. [4801] Rates of ferriage shall be established, etc.—When a commissioners' court shall establish a ferry, they shall state in their record the rates of toll or ferriage which may be demanded for ferrying passengers, carriages, wagons, carts, beasts and such other property as is usually transported by ferries; and the said courts may, at their first term in each year, and shall at any other term, upon the petition of twenty respectable citizens of the county, revise, and, if deemed expedient, change the rates of toll or ferriage at all ferries that have been or may be established in their county. [Act Jan. 5, 1854; P. D. 3845.]

Art. 7026. [4802] Change of rates.—All changes of the rates of ferriage shall be entered of record and notice thereof furnished by the county clerks to the owners of ferries affected by such change; provided, no change of rate shall take effect until the expiration of thirty days from the day on which said change may be made. [Id.]

Art. 7027. [4803] When owner refuses to keep ferry at the established rates.—Where any owner of a ferry shall refuse to keep up the same at the rates allowed by the commissioners' court, said court may issue a license to any one who will do so; but in all such cases the party receiving such license shall be bound to take the ferry-boat in use at said ferry, if desired by the owner, at such valuation as two respectable citizens of the vicinity, one to be chosen by each party, shall place upon it. [Id.]

Art. 7028. [4804] License and bond to be renewed annually.—The owners of all ferries shall annually obtain a renewal of their license, and shall annually enter into bond, payable to the county judge of their county, in such sum as the commissioners' court shall direct, not less than one thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such county judge, conditioned that the owner of such ferry will at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and will also keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank, and that said ferry shall be well attended at all times, and that he will comply with all the requisitions of the law relating to or governing ferries, which bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court. [Act Jan. 23, 1850. P. D. 3846-7.]

Art. 7029. [4805] License not to issue until, etc.—Upon producing the receipt of the county treasurer for the payment of the tax assessed by the commissioners' court for the privilege of such ferry, and executing the bond required by the preceding article, such commissioners' court shall grant a license to such applicant for the term of one year from the date of such license; and no license for any ferry that has been or may hereafter be established shall be granted until such payment shall be made and bond executed. [Id. P. D. 3848.]

Art. 7030. [4806] Rates of, to be delivered to person obtaining license.—In all cases where any person shall obtain a license for a ferry, the clerk of the court shall make out and deliver to such person a copy of the rates of toll or ferriage established by the court for such ferry, which shall be under his hand and official seal. [Id. P. D. 3849.]

Art. 7031. [4807] Rates of, to be posted at the ferry.—Every owner of a ferry licensed shall keep a list of the rates of toll or ferriage established for his ferry posted up, either at the ferry or ferry house, for the inspection of all persons. If any such owner shall fail or neglect to do so, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of four dollars for every such neglect, which may be recovered before any justice of the peace of the county on the complaint of any person, one-half of said amount to go to the county and the other half to the prosecutor; and every week that he shall so fail or neglect shall be deemed a separate offense, for which he shall be liable as aforesaid. [Id. P. D. 3850.]

Art. 7032. [4808] Where ferryman delays or refuses, etc., to cross person.—If any person licensed to keep a ferry shall, on being tendered his lawful fees, refuse or neglect, without any reasonable cause, to cross any person, his horse or other property usually transported by such ferry, every such ferryman shall, for every delay of thirty minutes, forfeit and pay to the person injured the sum of two dollars, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace for the county in which the ferry is situated, with costs of suit; and the oath of the party shall be received in evidence of the fact. [Id. P. D. 3851.]

Art. 7033. [4809] Duties of ferryman.—Every licensed ferryman shall at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and shall keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair, and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank; and shall give ready and due attendance on all passengers, horses, wagons and other property. [Id. P. D. 3852.]

Art. 7034. [4810] Where ferryman charges more than, etc.—If any licensed ferryman shall charge and receive from any person a higher rate of toll or ferriage than has been established for his ferry by the commissioners' court, he shall forfeit and pay to such person five dollars for every such offense, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is established, with costs of suit; and the oath of the complainant shall be received in evidence. [Id. P. D. 3853.]

Art. 7035. [4811] Penalty for keeping, etc., without license.—If any person shall keep any ferry over any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, for which he shall charge any person any money or other valuable thing, without complying with the provisions of this chapter in relation to paying the tax, obtaining license and entering into bond, he shall forfeit and pay to every other person having a licensed ferry on the same water course, stream, lake or bay in the same county five dollars for every person so ferried, and the same sum for every wagon or other article so transported which may be subject to a separate charge, to be sued for and recovered before any justice of the peace of the county, with costs of prosecution; and shall, moreover, forfeit and pay a like sum in like manner to the county, which may be sued for and recovered in like manner by the county treasurer. [Id. P. D. 3854.]

Art. 7036. [4812] Proceedings against sureties of ferryman.—In all cases where a recovery shall be had against the ferryman for violation of this law, if after judgment execution shall be returned that no estate of such ferryman can be found whereon to levy and make the money demanded in such execution, the justice to whom such execution is so returned shall cite the sureties of such ferryman to appear and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for the amount of the execution that is not satisfied, and unless such cause is shown judgment shall be so entered and execution shall issue therefor. [Id. P. D. 3855.]

Art. 7037. [4813] Suit on bond.—Any person injured by breach of the bond of any ferryman shall have the right to sue thereon in his own name; and no such bond shall be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time until the whole penalty is recovered. [Id. P. D. 3856.]

Art. 7038. [4814] Temporary license.—Any person wishing to establish a public ferry between the regular terms of the commissioners' court may obtain a temporary license for such ferry from the county judge, which shall authorize him to keep such ferry until the next regular term of the commissioners' court for the county, and to charge and receive for such time such rates of toll or ferriage as are charged at other ferries on the same water course, stream, lake or bay. [Id. P. D. 3857.]

Art. 7039. [4815] License tax.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties shall have power to assess and collect an annual tax for the privilege of each and every ferry in their county, which tax shall not exceed one hundred dollars per annum. [Id. P. D. 3858.]

Art. 7040. [4816] Where stream is part of county boundary.—If any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay shall form a portion of the boundary of any county, so that one bank shall be in one county and the other in a different county, at the place where it is proposed to establish a ferry, or where a ferry has been established, the application for a license shall be made to the commissioners' court of the county wherein the applicant resides or has his ferry house, and upon the granting of such license by the said court, the person or persons so licensed shall have the right to own and operate a ferry upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as are provided by this chapter for the owners or keepers of ferries operated exclusively in one county, and no county tax shall be assessed and collected upon a ferry by any other commissioners' court than the one granting the license therefor. [Id. P. D. 3859.]

Art. 7041. [4817] Charges on cattle, etc., swimming stream.—The commissioners' court shall not authorize a charge of more than one cent per head on cattle or horses swimming rivers at licensed ferries, including the use of pens and boats necessary for the control of such stock. [Act Jan. 9, 1862; P. D. 3862.]

Article 7042. [4786] Election for road tax, how ordered, etc.—The commissioners' court of any county shall, upon presentation to it at any regular session, of a petition signed by two hundred qualified voters, they being property taxpayers of the county, to order an election to determine whether there shall be levied upon the property within said county by said commissioners' court a road tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property under the provisions of the amendment of 1889, to the constitution of the state of Texas, adopted in 1890, order said election as hereinafter provided. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of such petition before the court can act on the same, but the court may act thereon without notice, and may make an order for such election, fixing the amount to be levied, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, the election to take place at any time thereafter, not less than twenty nor more than ninety days from the date of making the order therefor. [Acts of 1891, p. 51, sec. 1.]

Art. 7043. [4787] Same.—It shall not be necessary to give any formal notice of such election, except the county judge shall issue his election proclamation; and the fact that such election is to be held shall be published in the newspapers of the county as fully as practicable, and tickets for the election shall be printed by the county and sent to each voting precinct by the county judge before the election opens, and as long before such time as practicable. The expenses of the election shall be paid for by the county. If an election be ordered within ninety days of a general election, it shall be held on the day of the general election and as elections on other questions are held, but otherwise the commissioners' court shall order a special election to determine whether said tax shall be levied, which shall be conducted as other elections, and the officers to conduct the same shall be appointed as in other cases. [Id., sec. 2.]

Art. 7044. [4788] Who are qualified to vote; manner of voting.—Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the county shall be permitted to vote at such election. The tickets printed and to be voted shall have written or printed on them the words: "For the tax," and, "Against the tax," and those who favor the tax shall vote the ticket, "For the tax," and those who oppose the tax shall vote the ticket, "Against the tax." [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7045. [4789] Duty of commissioners' court upon obtaining result of election.—If at any such election the majority of the qualified voters voting thereat shall vote for such tax, it shall not be necessary to make further proclamation of that fact than to count the votes as in other cases, and officially announce the result, and the commissioners' court shall thereby be authorized and required to levy a road tax in the same manner that other taxes are levied, in the amount specified in said order for such election, never to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. Such levy shall be made at the same time other county taxes are levied, if such election is held in time therefor, but otherwise it may be made at any time before the rolls are made out and settlement effected. If, at the election, the proposition for said tax shall carry, no petition for its repeal shall be granted in less than two years. But, if it fail to carry, another petition may be granted in one year, but not sooner; and the order granting the second or any subsequent petition may fix a greater or less rate of levy, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, and if no greater rate is levied for any one year the commissioners' court may lower the rate for the next year without a petition therefor. An election to repeal the levy may be ordered and held as in other cases, but there must be satisfactory proof presented to said commissioners' court that there is great dissatisfaction with such tax and that it is probable that a majority of the citizens of the county who are authorized to vote for said tax would vote for the repeal of the law, and unless such proof be made the petition to repeal shall not be granted. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7046. [4790] No bonds to issue.—No bonds shall ever be issued under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Payable monthly.....	7087	Who entitled to compensation.....	7090
May be compelled to produce evidence of qualification, when.....	7088	Enumeration of officers and salaries in this title does not repeal provisions found elsewhere.....	7091

Article 7086. [4853] Salaries shall not be changed during term of office.—The salaries of officers shall not be increased nor diminished during the term of office of the officers entitled thereto.

Art. 7087. [4854] Salaries payable monthly.—Officers entitled to salaries may demand monthly payment of the same; and upon filing with the comptroller of public accounts proper vouchers, the comptroller shall issue his warrant upon the treasurer for the amount of salary due to the officer applying therefor; and the treasurer shall pay such warrant out of the fund appropriated for the payment of the same.

Art. 7088. [4858] Required to produce evidence of qualifications to comptroller, when.—The comptroller of public accounts, the state treasurer; county commissioners' courts, county treasurers, and any and all other officers of this state, or of any municipal division thereof, whether herein enumerated or not, who are authorized or required by law to audit, or pay, or order to be paid, claims due from the state, or any county or municipal division thereof, to any person or persons, as a salary, or as fees, compensation, perquisites or emoluments for official services rendered by such person, as an officer thereof, shall, upon the demand of any citizen of this state, before auditing, paying, or ordering to be paid, any such claims as aforesaid, require such person presenting such claim to produce the certificate of his election or appointment to such office directed by the laws of this state to be issued to such officer; or, if his claim be founded upon the judgment or decree of a court of this state, authorized by the laws of this state to hear and determine the claims of persons to office, then a copy of the record of such judgment or decree certified under the hand and seal of the legal custodian of such record to be a true copy thereof. [Acts of 1881, p. 7, sec. 1.]

Art. 7089. [4859] Salary to be paid only, when.—It shall not be lawful for any officer or court of this state, or of any municipal division thereof, to allow, audit, pay or order to be paid, the claim of any person for salary, compensation, fees, perquisites, emoluments, or services, as an officer of the state, or of any municipal division thereof, except to such person as has been duly elected such officer by the qualified voters of this state, and whose election has been ascertained and certified or declared in the manner required by the laws of this state, or who has been appointed such officer by the lawful appointing power under the constitution and laws of this state, or who has been adjudged entitled thereto by a state court of competent jurisdiction of this state, and has qualified as such officer in accordance with the requirements of the laws of this state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7090. [4860] Who entitled to compensation.—No person shall be held by the laws of this state entitled to pay for services as an officer thereof, or of any county, or municipal division thereof, or to exercise any of the powers of jurisdiction of an officer thereof, unless he shall have been elected, appointed or adjudged entitled thereto, as specified in article 7089; and the official acts of any person claiming a right to exercise such power or jurisdiction, contrary to the provisions of this law, are and shall be held to be null and void. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7091. Enumeration in this title not to affect provisions found elsewhere.—The enumeration of various officers and their salaries in this title shall not operate to repeal or affect provisions of law found elsewhere in the statutes, or any appropriation bills permitting or authorizing the existence, or prescribing the compensation of other officers.

Article 7094. [4864] In what cases to be issued.—Judges and clerks of the district and county courts, and justices of the peace, shall, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit, before final judgment, have power to issue writs of sequestration, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. When a married woman sues for divorce, and makes oath that she fears her husband will waste her separate property, or their common property, or the fruits or revenue produced by either, or that he will sell or otherwise dispose of the same so as to defraud her of her just rights, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

2. When a person sues for the title or possession of any personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

3. When a person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien upon personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the county during the pendency of the suit.

4. When any person sues for the title or possession of real property, and makes oath that he fears the defendant, or person in possession thereof will make use of his possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the fruits or revenue produced by the same.

5. When any person sues for the title or possession of any property from which he has been ejected by force or violence, and makes oath of such fact.

6. When any person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien on real estate, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of such possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the timber, rents, fruits or revenue thereof.

7. When any person sues to try the title to any real property, or to remove cloud upon the title to any such real property, or to foreclose a lien upon any such real property, or for a partition of real property, and makes oath that the defendant, or either of them in the event there be more than one defendant, is a non-resident of this state. [Acts of 1887, p. 30.]

Art. 7095. [4865] Affidavit, and what it shall state.—No sequestration shall issue in any cause until the party applying therefor shall file an affidavit in writing stating:

1. That he is the owner of the property sued for, or some interest therein, specifying such interest, and is entitled to the possession thereof; or,

2. If the suit be to foreclose a mortgage or enforce a lien upon the property, the fact of the existence of such mortgage or lien, and that the same is just and unsatisfied, and the amount of the same still unsatisfied, and the date when due.

3. The property to be sequestered shall be described with such certainty that it may be identified and distinguished from property of a like kind, giving the value of each article of the property and the county in which the same is situated.

4. It shall set forth one or more of the causes named in the preceding article entitling him to the writ. [Acts of 1866, p. 120. P. D. 5095a.]

Art. 7096. [4866] Petition must be filed, when.—If the suit be in the district or county court, no writ of sequestration shall issue, unless a petition shall have been first filed therein, as in other suits in said courts. [Id. p. 122, sec. 4.]

Art. 7097. [4867] Bond for the writ.—Nor shall a writ of sequestration issue in any case until the party applying therefor has filed with the judge, clerk or justice of the peace to whom he applies, a bond payable to the defendant for a sum of money not less than double the value of the property to be sequestered, as stated in his affidavit, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such judge, clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, conditioned that the plaintiff or person suing out such writ will pay to the defendant all such damages as may be awarded against him, and all costs in case it shall be decided that such sequestration was wrongfully issued. [Act March 15, 1848. P. D. 5096-7.]

Art. 7098. [4868] Writ may issue when claim is not due, when, etc.—When any person has a mortgage or lien upon personal property of any description, and makes affidavit and gives bond as required in the two preceding articles, the writ of sequestration may issue, although the right of action upon such mortgage or lien has not accrued; and the same proceeding shall be had thereon as in other cases of sequestration, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until the right of action on such mortgage or lien shall have accrued. [Id. P. D. 5098.]

Art. 7099. [4869] Writ and its requisites.—The writ of sequestration may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county wherein the property is alleged to be situated, which allegation may be made either in the original or in a supplemental affidavit. It shall command the sheriff or any constable to take into his possession the property, describing the same as it is described in the affidavit, if to be found in the county, and keep the same subject to the future order of the judge, court or justice of the peace who issued the writ, unless the same is replevied according to law. [Act Nov. 9, 1866. Id. p. 124, sec. 4.]

Art. 7100. [4870] Duty of officer while he retains custody of property.—The officer executing a writ of sequestration, while he retains custody of the property sequestered, shall take care of and manage the same in a prudent manner, and if he confides the same to the custody of other persons he shall be responsible for their acts in regard thereto, and shall be responsible to the party injured for any neglect or mismanagement by himself, or by those to whom he has confided the custody or management of the property. [Act Nov. 9, 1866. p. 121, sec. 3.]

Art. 7101. [4871] Compensation of officer.—The officer retaining custody of property by virtue of a writ of sequestration shall be entitled to receive a just compensation and all reasonable charges therefor, to be determined by the judge or justice from whose court the writ issued, to be taxed in the bill of costs against the party cast in the suit, and collected in the same manner as the other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 7102. [4872] Officer expending money may retain property until, etc.—If the officer be compelled to expend any sum of money in the security, management or care of the property, he may retain possession of said property until said money be refunded by the party offering to replevy said property, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 7103. [4873] Defendant may replevy by giving bond.—When property has been sequestered, the defendant shall have the right to retain possession of the same by delivering to the officer executing the writ his bond, payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, for an amount of money not less than double the value of the property to be replevied. [Act Feb. 8, 1860. P. D. 5100.]

Art. 7104. [4874] Bond in case of personal property.—If the property to be replevied, as provided in the preceding article, be personal property, the condition of the bond shall be that the defendant will not remove the same out of the county, or that he will not waste, ill-treat, injure, destroy or sell or dispose of the same, according to the plaintiff's affidavit, and that he will have such property, with the value of the fruits, hire or revenue thereof, forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, or that he will pay the value thereof and of the fruits, hire or revenue of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 7105. [4875] In case of real estate.—If the property be real estate, the condition of such bond shall be that the defendant will not injure the property, and that he will pay the value of the rents of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 7106. [4876] Return of bond and judgment thereon.—The bond provided for in the three preceding articles shall be returned with the writ to the court from whence the writ issued, and in case the suit is decided against the defendant final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied, and the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 7107. [4877] Defendant may discharge judgment by return of property, etc.—The defendant shall have the right, at any time within ten days after the rendition of the judgment provided for in the preceding article, to deliver to the sheriff or constable of the court in which such judgment is rendered, the property, or any portion thereof, which he has bound himself to have forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, and the sheriff or constable to whom such possession is tendered shall receive such property, if the same has not been injured or damaged since the replevy, and receipt to the defendant therefor, and shall immediately deliver such property to the plaintiff; and the defendant in such judgment shall, upon filing with the papers in the cause the receipt of the sheriff or constable, be credited by the clerk or justice of the peace upon such judgment with the value of the property so returned.

Art. 7108. [4878] When the property has been injured, etc.—If the property tendered back by the defendant has been injured or damaged while in his possession under such bond, the sheriff or constable to whom the same is tendered shall not receive the same, unless the defendant at the same time tenders the reasonable amount of such injury or damage, to be judged of by such sheriff or constable.

Art. 7109. [4879] Execution shall issue, when.—If the property be not returned and received, as provided in the two preceding articles, execution shall issue upon said judgment for the amount due thereon, as in other cases

Art. 7110. [4880] Plaintiff may replevy, when, and his bond.—When the defendant fails to replevy the property within ten days after the levy of the writ, if such defendant, his agent or attorney, is present in the county, or within twenty days if absent from the county at the time of such levy, the officer having the property in possession shall deliver the same to the plaintiff upon his giving bond payable to the defendant in a sum of money not less than double the value of such property, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the forthcoming of such property, together with the fruits, hire, revenue and rent of the same, to abide the decision of the court. [Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 122, sec. 3. P. D. 5101a.]

Art. 7111. [4881] Bond shall be returned, and the proceedings thereon if forfeited.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned with the writ, and, in case the suit is decided against the plaintiff, final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied, and for the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof, as the case may be, and the same rules which govern the discharge or enforcement of a judgment against the obligors in the defendant's replevy bond, as hereinbefore provided, shall be applicable to and govern in case of a judgment against the obligors in the plaintiff's replevy bond.

Art. 7112. [4882] Defendant not required to account for hire, etc., when.—In suits for the enforcement of a mortgage or lien upon property, the defendant, should he replevy the property, shall not be required to account for the fruits, hire, revenue or rent of the same, but this exemption shall not apply to the plaintiff in case he shall replevy the property. [P. D. 5100.]

Art. 7113. [4883] Property likely to waste, etc., may be sold, when.—If after the expiration of ten days from the levy of a writ of sequestration the defendant has failed to replevy the same, if the plaintiff or defendant shall make affidavit in writing that the property levied upon, or any portion thereof, is likely to be wasted or destroyed, or greatly depreciated in value, by keeping, and if the officer having possession of such property shall certify to the truth of such affidavit, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace to whose court the writ is returnable, upon the presentation of such affidavit and certificate, either in term time or in vacation, to order the sale of said property, or so much thereof as is likely to be so wasted, destroyed or depreciated in value by keeping, but either party may replevy the property at any time before such sale. [Id. P. D. 5099a.]

Art. 7114. [4884] Order of sale in such case.—The judge or justice granting the order provided for in the preceding article shall issue an order directed to the officer having such property in possession, commanding such officer to sell such property in the same manner as under execution. [Id.]

Art. 7115. [4885] Return of order of sale.—The officer making such sale shall, within five days thereafter, return the order of sale to the court from whence the same issued with his proceedings thereon, and shall, at the time of making such return, pay over to the clerk or justice of the peace the proceeds of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 7116. [4886] Where debt is not due, property may be sold, when, etc.—If the suit in which the sequestration issued be for a debt or demand not yet due, and the property sequestered be likely to be wasted, destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, the judge or justice of the peace shall, under the regulations hereinbefore provided, order the same to be sold, giving credit on such sale until such debt or demand shall become due. [Act March 15, 1884. P. D. 5098.]

Art. 7117. [4887] Purchaser shall give bond, etc.—In the case of a sale, as provided for in the preceding article, the purchaser of the property shall execute his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer making the sale, and payable to such officer, in a sum not less than double the amount of the purchase money, conditioned that such purchaser shall pay such purchase money at the expiration of the time given. [Id.]

Art. 7118. [4888] Bond shall be returned and judgment, etc., thereon, when.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned by the officer taking the same to the clerk or justice of the peace from whose court the order of sale issued, with such order, and shall be filed among the papers in the cause; and, in case the purchaser does not pay the purchase money at the expiration of the time given, judgment shall be rendered against all the obligors in such bond for the amount of such purchase money, interest thereon and all costs incurred in the enforcement and collection of the same; and execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff in the suit, as in other cases, and the money when collected shall be paid to the clerk or justice of the peace to abide the final decision of the cause. [Id.]

ELECTION AND QUALIFICATION.

Article 7119. [4890] Election and term of office.—There shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county one sheriff, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. [Const., art. 5, sec. 23. Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, sec. 1. P. D. 5108.]

Art. 7120. [4891] Vacancies, how filled.—Should a vacancy occur in the office of sheriff, the commissioners' court of the county shall fill such vacancy by appointment; and the person appointed, after qualifying in the manner prescribed by law for persons elected to said office, shall discharge the duties of sheriff for the unexpired term and until the election and qualification of his successor. [Id.]

Art. 7121. [4892] Oath and bond.—Every person elected to the office of sheriff shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by such court, not less than five nor more than thirty thousand dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned that he will account for and pay over to the persons authorized by law to receive the same all fines, forfeitures and penalties that he may collect for the use of the state or any county, and that he will well and truly execute and due return make of all process and precepts to him lawfully directed, and pay over all sums of money collected by him by virtue of any such process or precept to the persons to whom the same are due, or their lawful attorney, and that he will faithfully perform all such duties as may be required of him by law, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, which bond and oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court and deposited in said office. Said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, sec. 2. P. D. 5109.]

Art. 7122. [4893] May act without a commission.—When any person elected or appointed sheriff, in accordance with the preceding article, shall have given bond and taken the oath of office he may enter at once upon the discharge of his duties, and his acts shall be as valid in law before receiving his commission from the governor as afterward. [Act Dec. 20, 1836, p. 179, sec. 2. P. D. 5102.]

Art. 7123. [4894] Neglect to qualify.—When any person elected sheriff shall neglect, refuse or fail from any cause whatever to give bond and take the oath of office within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant; and the county commissioners' court shall proceed to appoint a sheriff to fill the vacancy, who shall hold his office for the unexpired term. [Acts of 1885, p. 89.]

Art. 7124. [4895] Failure to give new bond when required.—Whenever any of the sureties of a sheriff shall die, remove permanently from the state, become insolvent, or be released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners' court shall deem the sheriff's bond insufficient, said court shall cite said sheriff to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond with good and sufficient security; and, if such sheriff shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond on or before the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts of 1836, p. 178. P. D. 5110.]

POWERS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES

Art. 7125. [4896] May appoint deputies, etc.—Sheriffs shall have the power, by writing, to appoint one or more deputies for their respective counties, to continue in office during the pleasure of the sheriff, who shall have power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of their principals; and every person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on his appointment, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; and such appointment and oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk and deposited in said office; provided, that the number of deputies appointed by the sheriff of any one county shall be limited to not exceeding three in the justice precinct in which is located the county site of such county; and a list of these appointments shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the clerk's office so that all can see them; provided, further, that no person shall be appointed a deputy sheriff who stands convicted for a felony; and an indictment for a felony of any deputy sheriff appointed shall operate a revocation of his appointment as such deputy sheriff; provided, that any sheriff may appoint one deputy in addition to the above enumerated for each justice precinct in addition to the precinct where the county site is situated; and all sheriffs having more deputies than are provided for in this law shall make the number of his deputies conform to the provisions of the same. [Acts of 1889, p. 23.]

Art. 7126. [4897] Responsible for their acts.—Sheriffs shall be responsible for the official acts of their deputies, and they shall have power to require from their deputies bond and security; and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and sureties as any person can have against a sheriff and his sureties. [Acts of 1846, p. 265. P. D. 5113.]

Art. 7127. [4898] May employ guards.—Whenever in any county it may become necessary to employ guards for the safe keeping of prisoners and the security of jails, the sheriff may, with the approval of the commissioners' court, or in case of emergency, with the approval of the county judge, employ such number of guards as may be necessary; and his account therefor, duly itemized and sworn to, shall be allowed by said commissioners court and paid out of the county treasury. [Id.]

Art. 7128. [4899] Shall receive prisoners from constables, etc.—It shall be the duty of sheriffs to receive from constables and other officers all persons who shall be apprehended by such constables or other officers for offenses against the state, and them safely keep, subject to the order of the proper court. [Act Dec. 20, 1836, p. 179, sec. 14. P. D. 5104.]

Art. 7129. [4900] To attend upon courts.—Each sheriff shall attend upon all district, county and commissioners' courts for his county; and, in counties where the supreme court and court of appeals shall hold their sessions, the sheriffs of such counties shall attend upon such court. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, sec. 13. P. D. 51.]

Art. 7130. [4901] Shall execute all legal process.—Each sheriff shall execute all process and precepts directed to him by legal authority, and make return thereof to the proper court, on or before the day to which the same is returnable; and any sheriff who shall fail so to do, or who shall make a false return on any process or precept shall, for every such offense, be liable to be fined by the court to which such process is returnable, as for a contempt, not exceeding one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court; which fine shall go to the county treasury; and such sheriff shall also be liable to the party injured for all damages he may sustain. [Id. sec. 8. P. D. 5115.]

Art. 7131. [4902] And all legislative process.—Sheriffs are required also to execute all subpoenas and other process issued by the speaker of the house of representatives, or the president of the senate, or chairman of a committee of either house of the legislature, to them directed, under like pains and penalties as are incurred by failure to execute process issued by a court; and for such services they shall receive the fees prescribed by law for similar services in the courts, to be paid on the certificate of the authority issuing such process. [Act March 28, 1873, p. 19. P. D. 7102a et seq.]

Art. 7132. [4903] To discharge all duties imposed by law.—Sheriffs shall also do and perform all such duties as may be imposed upon them by the Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure, or other laws.

Art. 7133. [4904] List of fugitives to be sent to adjutant general.—It shall be the duty of each sheriff in this state, upon the close of any regular term of the district court in his county, or within thirty days thereafter, to make out and forward by mail to the adjutant general of this state a certified list of all persons who, after indictment for a felony, have fled from said county. Such lists shall contain the full name of each of such fugitives, with a description giving his age, height, weight, color and occupation, the complexion of skin and the color of eyes and hair, and any peculiarities in person, speech, manner or gait that may serve to identify such fugitive, so far as the sheriff may be able to give them, and shall state the offense with which such person is charged. The adjutant general shall prescribe, have printed and forward to the sheriffs of the several counties the necessary blanks upon which are to be made the lists herein required. [Acts of 1887, p. 44, sec. 1; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour. No. 97, p. 484.]

Art. 7134. [4905] Shall indorse all process.—Every sheriff and deputy sheriff or constable shall indorse on all process and precepts coming to their hands the day and hour on which they received them, the manner in which they executed them, and state at what time and place the process was served, as well as the distance actually traveled in serving such process, and shall sign their returns officially. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, sec. 14; P. D. 5121; amend. Act 1903, p. 81.]

Art. 7135. [4906] May summon posse comitatus.—Whenever a sheriff or any of his deputies shall meet with resistance in the execution of any legal process, they shall call to their aid the power of the county; and any person who shall neglect or refuse to aid and assist any sheriff or deputy in the execution of any legal process when summoned so to do shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered on motion of such sheriff or his deputy, and proof of such neglect or refusal before the court from which such process issued, three days' notice of such motion being given to the party accused, and in addition thereto may be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 10; P. D. 5117.]

Art. 7136. [4907] Unfinished business.—When any sheriff shall from any cause vacate his office, all unfinished business whatsoever in his hands shall be transferred to his successor, and be completed by him in the same manner as if commenced by himself. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 265, sec. 15. P. D. 5122.]

1. ELECTION, QUALIFICATION, ETC.

Article 7137. [4908] Term of office.—There shall be elected at each general election by the qualified voters of each justice's precinct a constable for such precinct, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified; provided, that, when in any such justice's precinct there may be a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint no more than two deputies, who shall qualify as required of deputy sheriffs. [Acts of 1885, p. 17; amend. Act 1897, p. 194.]

Art. 7138. Only one deputy.—Be it further provided, that, in cities and towns of twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, said constable may appoint no more than one deputy, who shall qualify in such manner as is required by law. [Id.]

Art. 7139. [4909] Appointed, how, in unorganized counties.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have power to appoint a constable for each of the unorganized counties attached to said counties for judicial purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the law now in force authorizing such appointment in organized counties. [Acts 1879, p. 89.]

Art. 7140. [4910] Vacancies, how filled.—Vacancies in the office of constable shall be filled by the commissioners' court until the next succeeding general election.

Art. 7141. [4911] Bond and oath.—Every person who may be elected to the office of constable shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by said court, not less than five nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties required of him by law; and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; which bond and oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and deposited in said office; said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time in the name of the party injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. [Act May 12, 1874, p. 251, sec. 2. P. D. 981.]

Art. 7142. [4912] May act without commission.—Whenever any person is elected or appointed to the office of constable and has given bond and taken the oath prescribed in the preceding article, he may enter at once upon the duties of the office, and his acts shall be as valid in law as if he had been duly commissioned.

Art. 7143. [4913] Neglect to qualify.—Whenever any person elected constable shall neglect or refuse to give bond and take the oath of office as required in the preceding articles within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant; and the commissioners' court of the county shall fill the same as in other cases of vacancy. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 251, sec. 4. P. D. 983.]

Art. 7144. [4914] Failure to give new bond.—Whenever any of the sureties of a constable shall die, remove permanently from the state, or become insolvent, or are released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners' court shall deem the bond of any constable to be insufficient, said court shall cite said constable to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond, with good and sufficient security; and, if such constable shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond at the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 982.]

2. POWERS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES.

Art. 7145. [4915] Duties in general.—Each constable shall execute and return according to law all process, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, and shall attend upon all justices' courts held in his precinct, and shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law. [Id. sec. 8. P. D. 987.]

Art. 7146. [4916] May summon posse comitatus.—When any constable shall meet with resistance in the execution of any lawful process, or in the arrest of offenders, he may call to his aid any citizen of the county who may be convenient; and any person who shall fail or refuse to obey such call may be fined as for a contempt by any justice of the peace, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, on motion of such constable, three days' notice thereof having been given to the party accused, and may also be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 986.]

Art. 7147. [4917] Failure to execute or return process.—If any constable shall fail or refuse to execute and return, according to law, any process, warrant, or precept to him lawfully directed and delivered, he shall be fined for a contempt, on motion of the party injured, before the court from which such process, warrant or precept issued, in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred, with costs; which fine shall be for the benefit of the party injured; and said constable shall have ten days' notice of such motion. [Id. sec. 11. P. D. 990.]

Art. 7148. [4918] Failure to pay over collections.—If any constable shall receive from any person any bonds, bills, notes or accounts for collection, and shall give his receipt therefor, in his official capacity, and shall fail to pay to such person, on demand, any amount he may have collected on the same, such constable and his sureties shall be responsible on his official bond for all such amounts as he may have collected on such bonds, bills, notes or accounts not paid over. [Id. sec. 12. P. D. 991.]

Art. 7149. [4919] May execute process, where.—Every constable may execute any process, civil or criminal, throughout his county and elsewhere, as may be provided for in the Code of Criminal Procedure, or other law. [Id. sec. 14. P. D. 993.]

Art. 7150. [4920] Unfinished business.—Whenever any constable shall vacate his office, all unfinished business remaining in his hands shall be transferred to his successor, and be completed by him in the same manner as if commenced by himself. [Id. sec. 13. P. D. 992.]

[Acts 1883, p. 76.]

Art. 7153. [4923] Owner may put county brand on his stock.—The owners of all horses and cattle, in addition to their private brand, may place said county brand on all horses and cattle owned by them, and shall be placed upon the neck of all animals so branded. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7154. [4924] When stock removed from county may be counterbranded.—Whenever any horses or cattle branded with the county brand are removed to another county, the owners of such stock may counterbrand with said county brand, and a bar under said county brand shall be used and known as the "county brand," and when so counterbranded the brand of the county in which said stock may be newly located may be placed on said stock. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7155. [4925] Secretary of state to furnish lists of brands.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish a printed list of the county brands to the county clerks of this state, who shall securely post the same in their office. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7156. [4926] Brands of minors.—Minors owning cattle or hogs, separate from that of the father or guardian, may have a brand and mark, which shall be recorded; the father or guardian shall be responsible for the proper use of such mark and brand of any such minor. [Acts of 1848, p. 156. P. D. 4660.]

Art. 7157. [4927] When stock to be branded.—Cattle shall be marked with the ear mark or branded with the brand of the owner on or before they are twelve months old; hogs, sheep and goats shall be marked with the ear mark of the owner on or before they are six months old. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 4656.]

Art. 7158. [4928] Disputes, how settled.—If any dispute shall arise about any ear mark or brand, it shall be decided by reference to the book of marks and brands kept by the clerk of the county court, and the ear mark and brand of the oldest date shall have the preference. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 4657.]

Art. 7159. [4929] Marks and brands to be recorded.—It shall be the duty of the clerks of the county courts in their respective counties to keep a well-bound book, in which they shall record the marks or brands of each individual who may apply to them for that purpose, noting in every instance the date on which the brand or mark is recorded; which record shall be subject to the examination of every citizen of the county at all reasonable office hours, free of charge for such examination. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 4658.]

Art. 7160. [4930] Unrecorded brands no evidence.—No brands except such as are recorded by the officers named in this chapter shall be recognized in law as any evidence of ownership of the cattle, horses or mules upon which the same may be used. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 4659.]

Article 7161. [4931] County judge to order inspection when glanders, etc., exist.—If at any time it shall come to the knowledge of any county judge of any county in this state, by affidavit of any credible citizen of his county, stating that affiant has reason to believe and does believe that glanders or farcy exists among any horses, mules, jacks or jennets in said county, naming owner or owners of such animal or animals so infected, if known, if unknown, so stating, it shall be the duty of such county judge, upon the filing of said affidavit, to immediately appoint three disinterested and intelligent citizens of said county, whose duty it shall be to carefully and minutely examine said animal or animals so reported to be diseased with glanders or farcy; said three citizens, before entering upon the duties required of them by this chapter, shall take an oath before some officer legally qualified to administer oaths that they will discharge their duties as prescribed by this chapter in a fair and impartial manner. [Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 11, sec. 1.]

Art. 7162. [4932] Report of county judge; duty of inspector.—If, after carefully and minutely examining the animal or animals so reported to be affected with glanders or farcy, said three citizens shall be of the opinion that the animal or animals so examined by them are diseased with glanders or farcy, they shall condemn the same; and it shall be their duty to appraise such animal or animals at their just and full value at the time of such examination and condemnation, and shall forthwith report their action in writing to the county judge, giving in said report the number of animals condemned, if any, the owner or owners of same if known, and if unknown so stating it, with the appraised value of same. But if the said citizens have any reasonable doubt as to the diseased animals being affected with glanders or farcy, before condemning as above provided for, they shall require the owner or owners to have said diseased animals separated from contact with all other animals subject to contagion, for a reasonable time; and, when they are fully satisfied that the disease is glanders or farcy, then they shall proceed to condemn and destroy said animals as provided for in this article. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7163. [4933] Condemned animals killed.—The county judge, upon the receipt of the report named in the preceding article, shall issue his order to the sheriff or any constable of his county, commanding him to seize said diseased animal or animals and take same to some secluded place and kill them and bury or burn the carcass. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7164. [4934] Payment for animals killed; fee, etc.—After said animal or animals are killed, as provided in the preceding article, the party owning such animal or animals so killed may present his claim to the commissioners' court of the county where said animal or animals were killed, for the value of such animal or animals at the time the same were killed (if such animal or animals had any value); and the amount of such claim, or so much thereof as may be allowed by said court, shall be paid out of the general revenue of the county, as other claims against such county. The sheriff or constable killing, burying or burning said animal or animals shall be paid by the county such sum as the commissioners' court thereof may determine the service worth. [Id. sec. 4. Amended act 1899, p. 303.]

Art. 7165. [4935] Law cumulative.—This law is cumulative of all other laws now in force for the prevention of glanders and farcy. [Act 1892, S. S., p. 11, sec. 6.]

Art. 7166. [4936] Compensation for killing wolves, etc.—When any person in this state shall kill any wolf, panther, Mexican lion, tiger, leopard, wildcat, or catamount, he shall be paid in the county in which he kills such animal, or animals, the sum of fifty cents for each coyote wolf, wildcat, or catamount, and the sum of five dollars each for any other kind of wolves, and the sum of five dollars for each Mexican lion, tiger, leopard or panther. [Act 1903, p. 113, sec. 1.]

Art. 7167. [4937] Proof, how made, etc.—The commissioners' court of each county in this state shall order to be paid to the person or persons having killed any of said animals in their respective counties, as fixed in the preceding article, upon their exhibiting the scalp or scalps of the animals so killed by him or them to the commissioners' court of said county, accompanied by the written affidavit of such person or persons, stating when and where such animal or animals were killed, the kind of each, and that affiant or affiants and no other killed said animal or animals. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7168. [4938] Same.—The scalps named in the preceding article shall consist of a sufficient portion of the hide of the animal killed, including the ears thereof, to enable the court to determine the kind of animal killed; and said court shall, in all cases where it is not satisfied of the truth of the matter set forth in said affidavit, reject any and all claims. The said court shall split each ear of the scalp as received, and destroy the same as soon as warrants shall have been issued for the payment of said scalp, but shall cause the affidavits mentioned herein to be filed by the clerk of said court for inspection of the public for two years from the date of filing, after which time said affidavits may be destroyed. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7169. Exemptions.—The provisions of the three foregoing articles of this chapter shall not apply to the following counties: Armstrong, Archer, Angelina, Anderson, Austin, Atascosa, Bee, Briscoe, Bailey, Baylor, Bowie, Brazos, Burleson, Brazoria, Bastrop, Bexar, Bell, Carson, Collingsworth, Castro, Childress, Cottle, Cass, Camp, Cherokee, Chambers, Colorado, Caldwell, Coryell, Cooke, Comanche, Comal, Cameron, Collin, Dallas, Deaf Smith, Donley, Dickens, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Dimmit, Ellis, Erath, Eastland, Floyd, Foard, Franklin, Fayette, Falls, Frio, Fannin, Freestone, Galveston, Grayson, Grimes, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Go-liad, Gray, Gregg, Hill, Hood, Hamilton, Hays, Hidalgo, Hansford, Hartley, Hutchinson, Hemphill, Hale, Haskell, Hardeman, Hall, Hopkins, Harrison, Hardin, Harris, Houston, Henderson, Hunt, Jasper, Jefferson, Johnson, Jack, Jones, Knox, King, Kaufman, Karnes, Lipscomb, Lamb, Lamar, Liberty, Limestone, Leon, Lee, Lavaca, La Salle, Live Oak, Moore, Motley, Matagorda, Milam, McLennan, Montague, McMullen, Morris, Marion, Madison, Montgomery, Mason, Nacogdoches, Navarro, Newton, Nueces, Orange, Ochil-tree, Oldham, Parmer, Panola, Polk, Parker, Palo Pinto, Red River, Rockwall, Rains, Robertson, Roberts, Randall, Rusk, Sherman, Swisher, Stonewall, Smith, Shelby, San Jacinto, San Patricio, San Augustine, Sabine, Somervell, Stephens, Shackelford, Starr, Tarrant, Titus, Tyler, Travis, Throckmorton, Upshur, Van Zandt, Wood, Walker, Washington, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wharton, Wise, Wil-son, Webb, Wheeler, Young and Zapata. Article 7170. [4940] Bill of sale to be always taken.—Upon the sale, alienation or transfer of any horse, mare, mule, gelding, colt, jack, jennet, cow, calf, ox, or beef steer by any person in this state, the actual delivery of such animals shall be accompanied by a written transfer from the vendor, or party selling, to the purchaser, giving the number, marks and brands of each animal sold and delivered. [Act Nov. 13, 1866, p. 223, sec. 1. P. D. 7445.]

Art. 7171. [4941] Possession prima facie illegal, without.—Upon the trial of the right of property of any animal, such as is mentioned in the preceding article, in any court of this state, the possession of such animal without the written transfer therein specified shall be deemed prima facie illegal. [Id.]

Art. 7172. [4942] Stock animals sold by mark and brand, etc.—Persons may dispose of stock animals of the kind mentioned in article 7170, as they run in the range, by the sale and delivery of the brands and marks; but in every such sale the purchaser, in order to acquire title thereto, shall have his conveyance or bill of sale of such stock recorded in the county clerk's office, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and such sale or transfer shall be noted on the record of original marks and brands in the name of the vendee or purchaser. [Id.]

Art. 7173. [4943] Butchers to report to commissioners' court.—Every person in this state engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market shall make a regular report, under oath, to the county commissioners' court of the county, giving the number, color, age, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered, which report shall be made to each regular meeting of the court, and be filed with and kept on file by the county clerk for the inspection of any one interested. Each report shall be accompanied by the bill of sale or written conveyance to the butcher for every animal that he has purchased for slaughter, and, if any of the animals slaughtered have been raised by himself, it shall be so stated in the report. Said butcher's report so made to the commissioners' court may be destroyed within the discretion of the county clerk after a period of five years. [Id. p. 224, sec. 3. P. D. 6557. Amended act 1907, p. 239.]

Art. 7174. Butchers to register with county clerk.—Before engaging in the business of slaughter and sale of animals for market, every person, firm, or corporation desiring to so engage, must first register his name, or their names, with the county clerk, indicating their purpose to engage in such business; and upon failure to so first register their names they may be punished as provided for in the Penal Code for this offense; provided, nothing in this law shall be construed to apply to slaughter houses in this state slaughtering as many as three hundred cattle per day. [Acts 1907, p. 239.]

Art. 7175. [4944] Bill of sale and description to be recorded before driving.—Any person who shall purchase animals of any class named in article 7170, for the purpose of driving to market out of the county where purchased, or out of the state, shall, before moving the animals out of the county where purchased, deposit with the clerk of the county court, for record, a bill of sale and correct list of the number, marks, brands and kind of animals, signed and acknowledged by the vendor or vendors, which, together with the postoffice or place of abode of the vendee, shall be recorded in the book kept by the clerk for that purpose, and with his certificate of record, under seal attached, shall be returned to the purchaser upon payment of the recording fees. [Id. pp. 223-4, sec. 2. P. D. 6556.]

Art. 7176. [4945] Owners to file sworn descriptive lists.—Persons intending to drive stock raised by themselves to market out of the county where raised, or out of the state, shall, before driving, deposit with the clerk of the county court for record a correct list of such animals, with a particular description of their marks and brands, verified by their own affidavit; which list the county clerk shall record and certify, as in other cases of registration, and return to the owner. [Id. p. 224, sec. 2.]

Art. 7177. [4946] Register of cattle shipped or slaughtered to be kept.—The commanders or agents of all vessels, and the agents of all railroads on which cattle are exported from the state, and the proprietors or agents of all establishments for the slaughter of cattle within the state, shall keep a register of all cattle shipped or slaughtered, with the marks, brands and general description of such animals, and the names of the persons shipping or selling the same, the dates of their shipments or purchase, and the county from which they were driven. [Act Sept. 5, 1850, p. 27, sec. 1. P. D. 460.]

Art. 7178. [4947] County clerk to make a copy.—Such register shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of the county where the cattle were shipped or slaughtered on the first day of each month; and such clerk shall at once copy the same in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose, and return the original to the party depositing it. The record kept by the county clerk shall be open at all times to public inspection without charge. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 461.]

Art. 7179. [4948] Butchers' bond, etc.—Every person, before he shall set up and carry on the trade of a butcher or slaughterer of cattle in the state of Texas, shall file a bond, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which he desires to carry on the business, in a sum of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, conditioned that he shall keep a true and faithful record, in a book kept for that purpose, of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, with a description of the animal, including marks, brands, age, weight, and from whom purchased, and the date thereof; that he will have the hide and ears of such animal inspected by the inspector or some magistrate of the county within five days after it is slaughtered; and that he will not purchase any cattle that has been slaughtered by another, unless the hide and ears of such slaughtered animal accompanies said animal offered for sale; and that he will not purchase any animal that has been slaughtered by another when the ear marks or brands on the hide accompanying such animal when offered for sale have been changed, mutilated or destroyed. [Acts of 1889, p. 84.]

Art. 7180. [4949] Shall keep a record, etc.—Every person who shall carry on the business of butcher or slaughterer of cattle shall keep a true and faithful record, in a book kept for that purpose, of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, together with a description of each animal, including mark, brand, age, weight and from whom purchased and the date thereof, and shall have the hide and ears of such animal or animals inspected by the inspector or some magistrate of the county within five days after such animal is slaughtered. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7181. [4950] Shall be open to inspection.—The record provided for in the preceding article shall be open to inspection of all persons. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7182. [4951] May be sued upon bond.—Any butcher or slaughterer of cattle who shall violate any of the conditions of the bond referred to in article 7179 may be sued upon his bond at the instance of the county or district attorney of the county where such bond is given, and all sums recovered by suits upon said bonds shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the available school fund of such county. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7183. [4952] Inspector to keep a record, etc.—It shall be the duty of the inspector or magistrate who inspects such hides as are mentioned in this chapter to keep a record of the marks, brands, color and a general description of such hide, and for whom inspected, with the date of such inspection, and return the same to the clerk of the county court within ten days after such inspection, and shall be entitled to receive the sum of twenty-five cents for each hide so inspected, to be paid by the party having the hide inspected. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7184. [4953] Exempted counties.—The provisions of the five preceding articles shall in no wise apply to the following counties: Anderson, Bell, Clay, Gonzales, Coryell, Hamilton, Mills, Brown, Comanche, Lavaca, Llano, San Saba, Concho, Runnels, Coleman, Travis, Grayson, Cooke, Montague, Colorado, Bexar, Jasper, Newton, Orange, Jefferson, Polk, San Jacinto, Tyler, Chambers, Hardin, Liberty, Harrison, Smith, Upshur, Gregg, Wood, Rains, Bowie, Cass, Morris, Titus, Lee, Bastrop, Fayette, Hill, Johnson, Ellis, McLennan, Falls, Robertson, Milam, Brazos, Galveston, Brazoria, Matagorda, San Patricio, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Hays, Blanco, Comal, Tarrant, Wise, Parker, Jack, Dallas, Nacogdoches, San Augustine, Sabine, Shelby, Panola, Rusk, Hunt, Hopkins, Delta, Franklin, Camp, Angelina, Houston, Leon, Grimes, Madison, Kaufman, Rockwall, Fannin, Lamar, Red River, Van Zandt, Henderson, Cherokee, Bosque, Hood, Erath, Somervell, Collin, Denton, Trinity, Walker, Montgomery, Harris, Austin, Washington, Wharton, Fort Bend, Waller, Burleson, Limestone, Freestone, Navarro, Young, Karnes, Mason, Medina, Kim-

Article 7185. [4954] Who may take up stray animal, etc.—Hereafter when any stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox shall be found on the plantation or land of any citizen or his lessee for one year or more, such citizen or lessee may forthwith advertise the same (describing the animal's color and specifying the marks and brands, if any, also, giving the age and flesh marks of every kind) at three public places in the county in which such citizen resides, one of which notices shall be at the court house door, for at least twenty days, and shall also deliver to the clerk of the county court a copy of said notice, which shall be by him securely posted up in his office: after the expiration of which time, if no owner apply, it shall be the duty of the taker-up of said animal or animals to appear before some justice of the peace in said county and estray the same. [Act Oct. 26, 1866, p. 54. P. D. 6810.]

Art. 7186. [4955] Oath, appraisalment and bond.—Any citizen entitled to stray any animal, as provided in the preceding article, shall make oath that the animal which he proposes to stray was taken upon his plantation, or on his lands adjoining the same; that the marks and brands thereof have not been altered or disfigured since the same was taken up; that notice has been given as the law requires, and that no owner has been found; which affidavit shall be sworn to and subscribed by the person estraying, and attested by the justice and filed; whereupon the said justice shall cause to appear before him, by summons or otherwise, two disinterested householders of his county, who are in no way related to the person estraying, commanding them, after being sworn, to value and appraise the same and certify the valuation, together with a particular description of the animal, including stature, marks, brands, color and age, under oath, which shall be attested by said justice, who shall thereupon require of the taker-up a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in double the value of such animal or animals, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, conditioned that the taker-up shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, which bond, affidavit and appraisalment shall be transmitted by such justice to the clerk of the county court within twenty days thereafter, for which said justice shall receive the same fees that are allowed for similar services by law. [Act Oct. 26, 1866. P. D. 6811.]

Art. 7187. [4956] Ownership, how proven, etc.—At any time within twelve months, and before the sale of any estrays, it shall be lawful for the owner of any stray animal enumerated in the first article of this chapter to prove his property by the affidavit of any respectable witness, which shall specify a particular description of the animal claimed, including the kind, marks, brands, stature, color and age of the same, which certificate may be sworn to and subscribed before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths in the county where such animal may have been estrayed, which certificate shall be delivered to the taker-up and by him filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, and on the delivery of such certificate and the payment of all costs incurred in posting such stray or estrays, to the taker-up, such owner shall be entitled to demand and receive the animal. [Id. P. D. 6812.]

Art. 7188. [4957] Proof of respectability, when required.—When the respectability of the witness named in the preceding article is not known to the officer administering the oath, the party claiming the stray shall produce satisfactory evidence of the respectability of such witness, certified to by a notary public, county clerk or county judge of the county in which such witness resides. [Id.]

Art. 7189. [4958] When taker-up not entitled to compensation.—If the owner of any animal which has been estrayed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter be a resident citizen of the county in which such animal has been estrayed, and shall have had his mark and brand recorded in said county, and the animal so estrayed shall be in the mark and brand of the owner at the time it was taken up, then and in that case the taker-up shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for expense incurred in estraying said animal. [Id.]

Art. 7190. [4959] Estray not to be used until, etc.—Any animal taken up as an stray according to the provisions of the preceding articles shall not be used for any purpose whatsoever until the party taking up such animal shall have given bond as required by article 7186. [Id. P. D. 6810.]

Art. 7191. [4960] When county commissioner to return estrays.—If any stray of any kind shall be found running at large and not estrayed, and the owner of the same be unknown, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners, or any of them, to return the same, with a full description thereof, to the county clerk of their respective counties, who shall advertise the same in the manner specified in this chapter, and if such animal shall not be proven away by the owner within the time allowed by law the commissioner returning the same, or his successor in office, shall proceed to sell such animal and report the sale thereof to the clerk of the county court, and after paying the clerk's fee and retaining twenty per cent of the proceeds of such sale, he shall pay the remaining sum into the county treasury. [Id. P. D. 6813.]

Art. 7192. [4961] County clerk to record papers.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court to record the papers transmitted to him, as provided in article 4571 [7186] in a separate book, to be kept by him for that purpose, for which he shall be entitled to demand and receive the same fees that are allowed by law for similar services, to be paid in all cases by the taker-up. [Id. P. D. 6814.]

Art. 7193. [4962] Two or more animals to be in one entry.—When two or more animals are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be included in the same entry, and no more fees (including fees for posting and advertising hereinafter mentioned) shall be charged than is allowed by law for one such animal. [Id.]

Art. 7194. [4963] Clerk to advertise, etc.—The clerk of the county court shall cause a statement of the appraisement and a description of the animals so estrayed to be advertised at least three times in some newspaper published in the county where such animal was estrayed, if there be one; and if there be no newspaper published in the county, then the clerk shall cause the same to be advertised in the newspaper nearest to the county, and also by posting up notices at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door thereof; and the printer of such notice shall furnish the said clerk with a copy of the paper containing said notice, and it shall be the duty of the said clerk to file and preserve the same in his office for the inspection of all persons who may be interested; and for such publication the printer shall be entitled to receive from the party estraying the same the sum of two dollars, to be collected by the county clerk and paid to the order of the printer. [Id.]

Art. 7195. [4964] Property in estrays, etc., sales, etc.—The property of every stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox taken up as aforesaid and not proven away within twelve months after such appraisalment shall be deemed vested in the county wherein such stray or estrays may have been posted, and the taker-up shall immediately thereafter proceed to sell the same for cash to the highest bidder at the court house door of the county, after giving notice of the same as required in the case of sheriffs' sales; and within ten days after such sale, he shall, after deducting the expenses incurred in estraying said animals, pay into the county treasury seventy-five per cent of the proceeds of the same, and retain the other twenty-five per cent for his own use and benefit. [Id. P. D. 6815.]

Art 7196. [4965] Return of sale.—Whenever a sale of an estray shall be made according to the provisions of the preceding article, the taker-up shall make a return of such sale, duly sworn to by him, to the clerk of the county court of the county in which the sale was made, who shall file the same in his office. [Id.]

Art. 7197. [4966] Sales made on first Monday.—All sales of estrays, horses, mares, fillies, geldings, colts, mules, jacks, jennets or work oxen shall be made on the first Monday in the month, and between the hours of one and three o'clock p. m. of said day. [Id.]

Art. 7198. [4967] Hogs, sheep, etc., how estrayed, etc.—Any citizen taking up any stray hogs, sheep, goats or cattle, other than work oxen, shall proceed in the same manner as is required in the case of horses, etc., except advertising in a newspaper; and any person estraying the same, at the expiration of six months from the day of appraisalment, shall proceed to give notice as in the case of sheriffs' or constables' sales, and sell such estrays where they were taken up; provided, there be not less than three adult bidders in attendance at said sale, beside the family of the taker-up. [Id. P. D. 6816.]

Art. 7199. [4968] Not to be estrayed until after four months.—No animal enumerated in article 7198, except work oxen, shall be subject to be estrayed, unless the same shall have been known to the taker-up as being an estray for at least four months previous to the time of estraying the same. [Id. Amended Act 1899, p. 234.]

Art 7200. [4969] Names of bidders to be given.—In making the returns of sales under this title, when the sale has been made at the residence of the taker-up or other place than at the court house door of the county, the taker-up shall, in all cases, give the names of at least three of the bidders who were present at said sale, who were not members of his family. [Acts 1866, p. 54. P. D. 6817.]

Art. 7201. [4970] Taker-up liable for damages, when.—If any person estraying an animal enumerated in this chapter shall send or take away the same out of the county in which the same was taken up and estrayed, or sell or otherwise dispose of the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon their bond in an action for damages in favor of the party injured. [Id. P. D. 6818.]

Art. 7202. [4971] Taker-up may use, when.—The taker-up of an estray may use the same in moderation, after having executed bond as provided in article 7186, but should he abuse or injure the same he and his sureties shall be liable upon his bond in damages for such abuse or injury, and may be sued therefor by the owner for his own use, or by the county judge for the use of the county.

Art. 7203. [4972] Death, etc., of estray to be reported.—Whenever an estray animal shall be found dead, or shall escape, the taker-up shall, without delay, make report thereof, in writing, to the clerk of the county court, under oath; which report shall be recorded by said clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and any person who shall make a false report shall be liable on his bond, together with his sureties, for the value of the animal or animals estrayed; and shall also be liable to be indicted and punished as for perjury. [Id. P. D. 6819. P. C. 188.]

Art. 7204. [4973] Proceeds of sale, how disposed of.—All moneys arising from the sales of estrays, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall be by him applied exclusively to the jury fund of the county. [Id. P. D. 6820.]

Art. 7205. [4974] If taker-up refuse to deliver, liable for damages.—If any person having in charge an estray shall refuse to deliver the same to the owner thereof, on his complying with the requisitions of this chapter, such owner shall be entitled to his action therefor with damages. [Id. P. D. 6821.]

Art. 7206. [4975] Owner may reclaim money in twelve months.—At any time within twelve months after the sale of any estray made under the provisions of this chapter, the owner of such estray may apply to the county treasurer of the county in which such estray has been sold, and upon proof of such ownership shall be entitled to receive from said treasurer the amount deposited on account of such sale, after paying such costs as may be necessary to establish his right thereto. [Id. P. D. 6822.]

Art. 7207. [4976] County clerk to send notice of estray, etc.—Whenever any person shall stray any animal on which any county brand may be found, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county in which said estray may be to immediately send a notice containing a full description of said animal, together with the marks and brands, to the county clerk of the county to which the county brand may belong; and it shall be the duty of the county clerk of said county brand to record said notice in a book kept for that purpose, and post the same on the court house door; and it shall further be his duty to ascertain from his record of brands to whom said animal may belong, and to notify said owner by letter or otherwise; and for such services he shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner; and the county clerk furnishing the notice shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner. [Acts of 1883, p. 76, sec. 5.]

Art. 7208. [4977] Liability for failure.—Any county clerk who shall fail to send a notice as required in article 7207 of this chapter, the county clerk so failing shall become liable to the original owner of said estray in an amount equal to the value of said estray. [Id. sec. 6.]

Article 7209. [4978] Commissioners' court to order election.—Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of a county, the commissioners' court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision, on some day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs, sheep or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision. [Const., art 16, sec. 22. Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 150, sec. 1. Amended act 1909, p. 164.]

Art. 7210. [4979] Election may be ordered in subdivisions, when.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the stock law, and in such intervening territory there is less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory, and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. [Acts of 1881, p. 110.]

Art. 7211. [4980] Requisites of petition.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the preceding articles which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county or subdivision, as the case may be; and, if the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Acts of 1876, p. 150.]

Art. 7212. [4981] Election, how ordered and conducted.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners' court, at its next regular term thereafter, shall pass an order directing an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 7213. [4982] Notice, how given.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners' court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notice thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the court house door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 7214. [4983] Requisites of the order.—The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners' court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 7215. [4984] Voting places.—If the election is ordered for the whole county, the same shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts; but, if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7216. [4985] Managers to be appointed, when.—If the election be for a division of the county, the county judge shall, at the time he issues the order for such election, appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks. [Id. pp. 150-1, sec. 4.]

Art. 7217. [4986] Freeholders only to vote.—No person shall vote at any election under the provisions of this chapter, unless he be a freeholder and is also a qualified voter under the constitution and laws. [Const., art. 16, sec. 23. Id. p. 150, sec. 2.]

Art. 7218. [4987] Manner of voting.—All votes at any election in pursuance of this chapter shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to prevent the animal designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing such animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the stock law." [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7219. [4988] Returns of election.—On or before the tenth day after any election under the provisions of this chapter, the persons holding such election shall make due return of all the votes cast at their respective voting places for and against said proposition to the county judge of the county, who shall tabulate and count said returns and ascertain the result of said election. [Id. p. 151, sec. 4.]

Art. 7220. [4989] Returns, how opened.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or two respectable freeholders of the county. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7221. [4990] Proclamation of the result, and its effect.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be, "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the court house door, and after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within the limits designated any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Id.]

Art. 7222. [4991] Stock may be impounded, when.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated land of any person other than the owner of such stock, without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this chapter have become operative in the manner provided in the preceding articles, the owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound said stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him. [Acts of 1887, p. 56.]

Art. 7223. [4992] Not to be impounded, when.—No animals shall be impounded, unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or be found roaming about the residence, lots or cultivated land of another; and whenever any stock is impounded notice thereof shall at once be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Id.]

Art. 7224. [4993] Fees and damages.—Any owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of enclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: Ten cents per day per head for hogs, ten cents per day per head for goats, and five cents per day for sheep. The damages done by such stock, if any, and the fees due to the taker-up of stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall upon the application of the taker-up of the stock be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. Where said justice shall fail or refuse to make appointment, or where the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this chapter has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due to the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees, in writing, and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders, to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with the justice of the peace, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days' notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision, and one at the door of the court house of the county; and provided, further, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken for the payment of the same under the provisions of this chapter. [Amend. 1895, p. 84.]

Art. 7225. [4994] Stock may be sold, when.—After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in the preceding article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like services in civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 7226. [4995] May be sold, when and how.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, the taker-up may make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to affiant, which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice, to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such assessment, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case where the owner is known; and, if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the clerk of the county court, and pay the same over to the county treasurer, to be received and disbursed by him as in case of sales of estrays; or the taker-up may at his option, after the expiration of five days, stray such stock, according to the laws regulating estrays in this state. [Id.]

Art. 7227. [4996] Lawful fence.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county or subdivision, any fence within such county or subdivision shall be deemed a lawful fence if it be sufficient to keep out the classes of stock not affected by the provisions of this chapter; and no person within such county or subdivision shall be required to fence against stock not permitted to run at large. [Acts of 1876, p. 150, sec. 5.]

Art. 7228. [4997] Subsequent elections in case of defeat.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this chapter for any county or subdivision, and the proposition for a stock and fence law, as herein provided, is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter. But the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county; nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7229. [4998] May be impounded when fence law in force; lawful fence.—Should any stock not permitted to run at large enter any enclosure of any owner or lessee of land, entitled to the benefit of this chapter, without his or their consent, it shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of said enclosure to impound said stock; and it shall be the duty of the owner or lessee of said land to give notice immediately to the owner of said stock of their impounding and detention; and the owner of said stock shall be entitled to the possession of his or her stock on payment of expenses incurred in impounding and keeping said stock; provided, that in such county or subdivision said owners or lessees shall not be required to fence against the stock not permitted to run at large; and any fence in said county or subdivision which is sufficient to keep out ordinary stock permitted to run at large under this chapter shall be deemed a lawful fence. Three barbed wires with posts not more than thirty feet apart, and one or more stays between them, or pickets four feet high and not more than six inches apart, shall constitute a lawful fence. If boards or rails are used, then three boards to be not less than five inches wide and one inch thick, or four rails shall constitute a lawful fence; provided, that all fencing built under the provisions of this chapter shall be four feet high. [Acts of 1879, p. 66, sec. 6. Amended, act 1901, p. 290.]

Art. 7230. [4999] Stock not to be injured, etc.—If any person whose fence is insufficient under this law shall, with guns, dogs or otherwise, maim, wound or kill any cattle or any horse, mule, jack, or jennet, or procure the same to be done, such person or persons so offending shall give full satisfaction to the party injured for all damages by such person or persons sustained, to be recovered as in other suits for damages; provided, that this article shall not be so construed as to authorize any person in any event to maim, kill or wound any horse, mule, jack, jennet or cattle belonging to another. When a trespass has been committed by any cattle or horses on the cleared or cultivated land of any person who has complied with the provisions of this chapter, in the erection of a lawful fence, it shall be lawful for such person to complain thereof to the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such trespass shall have been committed; and such justice is hereby authorized and required to cause two disinterested and impartial freeholders to be summoned, who shall on oath view and examine whether such complaint be sufficient or not, and what damages he has sustained by said trespass, and certify the same in writing; and, if it shall so appear that said fence be sufficient, then the owner of such cattle or horses shall make just satisfaction for the trespass to the party injured, to be recovered before any tribunal having proper jurisdiction. In case of a second trespass by the same cattle or horses, the owner or lessee of the premises upon which the trespass is committed may, if he deem it necessary for the protection and preservation of his premises or growing crops thereon, cause said stock to be penned and turned over to the sheriff or constable, and held responsible to the person damaged for all damages caused by said stock and all costs thereof. It shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of such inclosures as are contemplated in this chapter to charge the following rates for impounding such stock as referred to in this chapter, to-wit, twenty-five cents per day per head. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7231. [5000] Lawful fence may be determined by election.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the freeholders of any county, or subdivision of a county, where the stock law prevails from deciding by a majority vote whether or not three barbed wires without a board or plank shall constitute a lawful fence in such county or subdivision of same; the election for such purpose to be conducted in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as elections provided for in the act authorizing the passage of stock and fence laws, approved August 15, 1876.

Art. 7232. [5001a] No election until lapse of two years.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county or subdivision, no election under the preceding articles shall be held within the same prescribed limits in less than two years after an election under this title has been held therein; but at the expiration of that time the commissioners' court of each county in the state, whenever petitioned to do so by a majority of the freeholders, who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, or by a majority of the freeholders, who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of the subdivision of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, shall order another election to be held by the freeholders, who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of such county, or subdivision, to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county, or subdivision, which election shall be ordered, held, notice thereof given, the votes returned and counted in all respects as provided by this title for a first election. [Act 1899, p. 80.]

Art. 7233. [5001b] Proclamation to be issued.—If, in a county or subdivision which has formerly adopted the stock law, a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "Against the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the court house door, and after the expiration of one hundred and eighty days from its issuance it shall be lawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation; if a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," he shall so state in his proclamation, and the operation of the law shall be in no way affected by such election. [Id.]

Art. 7234. [5001c] In cases where there are less than fifty freeholders.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted a stock law, or when there is territory adjoining a subdivision which has adopted a stock law, and in such territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on a petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. And in cases where there are no freeholders on such intervening or adjoining territory, then, on the petition of the owner or owners of the land to the commissioners' court, the said commissioners' court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision; and any person or persons who own enclosed lands adjoining any other lands which have been added to territory in which a stock law prevails, shall have the same right; and on petition of the owner or owners of such land to the commissioners' court, the said commissioners' court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivisions. [Id. Amended act 1907, p. 150.]

Article 7235. Election to put law in operation.—Upon the written petition of one hundred freeholders of any of the following counties: Anderson, Austin, Bastrop, Bee, Bell, Bexar, Blanco, Borden, Bosque, Brazos, Brown, Caldwell, Calhoun, Callahan, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Clay, Coleman, Collin, Colorado, Cooke, Comal, Comanche, Coryell, Crosby, Cochran, Crane, Dallas, Dawson, Delta, Denton, Eastland, Ector, Ellis, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Fayette, Franklin, Frio, Fisher, Gaines, Guadalupe, Garza, Glasscock, Gillespie, Grayson, Harrison, Haskell, Hays, Hill, Hood, Hopkins, Howard, Hockley, Hunt, Jack, Jackson, Jones, Johnson, Kaufman, Knox, Lamar, Lavaca, Limestone, Lynn, Llano, Lubbock, Mason, McLennan, Martin, Midland, Milam, Mitchell, Montague, Morris, Navarro, Nolan, Nueces, Parker, Rains, Matagorda, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, San Patricio, Scurry, Smith, Somervell, Tarrant, Taylor, Terry, Titus, Travis, Upshur, Victoria, Van Zandt, Washington, Williamson, Wilson, Wise, Ward, Wood, Winkler, Wilbarger, Freestone, Hidalgo, San Saba, Starr, Swisher, Donley, Childress, Foard, Wharton, Clay, DeWitt, Robertson, Hamilton, Mills, Burnet, Atascosa, Medina, and Waller, or upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any such subdivision of a county as may be described in the petition and defined by the commissioners' court of any of the above named counties, the commissioners' court of said county shall order an election to be held in such county, or such subdivision of a county, as may be described in the petition and defined by the commissioners' court, on the day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county, or such subdivision of a county as may be described in the petition and defined by the commissioners' court to determine whether horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle shall be permitted to run at large in such county, or such subdivision of a county, as may be described in the petition and defined by the commissioners' court; provided, that, where there is an application for an election to include an entire county, there shall not be less than twelve freeholders from each justice precinct of said county as signers to the petition for such election. [Acts 1909, p. 121, sec. 1.]

Art. 7236. Election to repeal law.—Upon the written petition of two hundred freeholders of any of the above named counties, or upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any subdivision of the above named counties, if the law be in force in that subdivision only, the commissioners' court shall be authorized and required to order an election on the date therein named to determine whether or not said law be repealed; provided, that such petition be not filed within less than two years from the date this law goes into effect; and provided, further, that such petition be signed by at least twenty-four freeholders from each justice precinct in such county. But if this law becomes operative over any of the above named counties, as prescribed, it can in no case be repealed by any subdivision, except by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the freeholders of such counties, at an election held in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7237. Intervening territory; election in.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the stock law, and in such intervening territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. [Act 1899, p. 220, sec. 2.]

Art. 7238. Petition shall state what.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the first article of this chapter, which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county, or subdivision, as the case may be; and, if the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7239. Order for election by commissioners' court.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners' court at the next regular term thereafter shall pass an order directing an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7240. County judge to issue order and notice.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners' court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notices thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one, if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the court house door and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7241. Recitals in order.—The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners' court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7242. Election places.—If the election is ordered for the whole county, the same shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts; but, if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7243. Officers of election.—If the election be for a subdivision of the county, the county judge shall, at the time he issues the order for such election, appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7244. Qualifications of electors.—No person shall vote at any election under the provisions of this chapter, unless he be a freeholder and is a qualified voter under the constitution and laws. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7245. Election by ballot, form of.—All votes at any election, in pursuance of this chapter, shall be by ballot, and voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the Stock Law," and those in favor of allowing such animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the Stock Law." [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7246. Election returns.—On or before the tenth day after any election under the provisions of this chapter, the persons holding such election shall make due return on all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against said proposition to the county judge of the county, who shall tabulate and count said returns and ascertain the results of said election. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7247. Same, effect of.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or by [of] two respectable freeholders of the county, and an order showing the result shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the commissioners' court in the said county. And the order showing the result of said election thus determined, certified and recorded, shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law have been complied with in presenting the petition, the action of the court thereon ordering the election, the giving of notice and holding said election, and in counting and returning the votes and declaring the result thereof, and, if said election be then declared to be in favor of the stock law, then after thirty days from said date, it shall be prima facie evidence that the proclamation required by law has been made and published as required by law. [Act 1907, p. 123, sec. 12.]

Art. 7248. Proclamation and time law goes into effect.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the Stock Law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result, which proclamation shall be posted at the court house door, and, after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance, it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Act 1899, p. 220, sec. 13.]

Art. 7249. Impounding stock.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the enclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated lands of any person other than the owner of such stock without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this chapter have become operative in the manner provided in the preceding article, the owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound such stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7250. Same.—No animals shall be impounded, unless they have entered upon the enclosed lands or be found roaming about the residence, lots or cultivated land of another, and, whenever any stock is impounded, notice thereof shall be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7251. Fees for impounding.—Any owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of enclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: Twenty-five cents per day per head for horses and mules, fifteen cents per day per head for cattle, and ten cents per day per head for jacks and jennets. The damages done by such stock, if any, and the fees due to the taker-up of stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall, upon the application of the taker-up of the stock, be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. When such justice shall fail or refuse to make appointments, or when the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this chapter has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees in writing and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders to the effect that said assessment is just, and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with the justice of the peace, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown, then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision, and one at the door of the court house of the county; and provided, further, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce, by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction, any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken up for the payment of the same under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7252. Sale of impounded stock; fees.—After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in the preceding article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale, as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like service in civil cases. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 7253. Unknown owner.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, the taker-up may make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to affiant; which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such assessment, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case when the owner is known; and, if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the clerk of the county court, and pay the same over to the county treasurer, to be received and disbursed by him as in case of sales of estrays; or the taker-up may, at his option, after the expiration of five days, stray such stock according to the laws regulating estrays in this state. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7254. Lawful fence, what constitutes.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county, or subdivision, any fence within such county or subdivision shall be deemed a lawful fence if it be sufficient to keep out the classes of stock not affected by the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7255. Second election when proposition is defeated.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this chapter for any county or subdivision, and the proposition of a stock law as herein provided is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter; but the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county, nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Id. sec. 20.]

Article 7256. [5002] Inspector to be elected.—Each organized county, not expressly excepted herein, shall constitute an inspection district for the inspection of hides and animals; and at each general election an officer to be styled, "Inspector of hides and animals," shall be elected by the qualified voters of such county in the same manner as other county officers are elected. [Const., art. 16, sec. 23. Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 265, sec. 1.]

Art. 7257. [5003] Governor may appoint in unorganized county.—The governor is authorized to appoint a hide inspector for each unorganized county in this state [Acts of 1879, p. 89.]

Art. 7258. [5004] Term of office.—Inspectors of hides and animals shall hold their offices for the term of two years and until the election and qualification of their successors in office. [Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 295, sec. 2.]

Art. 7259. [5005] Vacancies, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in such office, the commissioners' court shall fill the same by appointment for the unexpired term; and until such vacancy is filled by such appointment the sheriff of the county shall discharge the duties of the office. [Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 217, sec. 1.]

Art. 7260. [5006] Bond and oath.—Every person elected to the office of inspector of hides and animals, before entering on the duties of his office, shall enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of the county constituting his district, which bond shall be in a sum to be fixed by said court, not less than one thousand dollars, nor more than ten thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform the duties of his office, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and he shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed on or attached to said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, which bond and oath shall be deposited and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county. The bond herein provided for shall not be void for want of form or on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time, in the name of any person injured by a breach thereof, until the whole penalty shall have been recovered. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7261. [5007] Appointees also to give bond.—Persons appointed to fill vacancies in the office of inspector shall give bond and take the oath in like manner as prescribed in the preceding article, and shall not enter upon the duties of the office until such bond is given and approved and such oath is taken; but a sheriff acting temporarily as inspector, pending a vacancy in such office, shall not be required to give additional bond, but his official bond as sheriff shall extend to and include the faithful and proper performance of his duties as inspector ad interim. [Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 217, sec. 1.]

Art. 7262. [5008] Seal of office.—The county commissioners' court of each county shall furnish to the inspector for such county a seal of office, having upon it the words, "Inspector of Hides and Animals, ——— county, Texas" [the blank to be filled with the name of the county], and each inspector and his deputy shall certify their official acts with the impress of such seal. Upon his retirement from office, the inspector shall deliver such seal, together with the books, papers and records of his office, to his successor. [Act Aug. 23, 1876, p. 296, sec. 6.]

Art. 7263. [5009] Deputies may be appointed.—Every inspector shall have power to appoint as many deputies as shall be necessary to perform the duties imposed on them by this chapter; and such deputies shall have the same power and authority to perform the duties of their office as their principal; and the inspectors shall require bond and security of their deputies for the faithful performance of their duties; and the said deputies shall, before entering upon their duties, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same, shall be indorsed upon the bonds. [Id. p. 295, sec. 4.]

Art. 7264. [5010] Appointment to be recorded.—The appointment of each deputy shall be in writing, with the seal of the inspector thereon, and shall, with their bonds and oath of office, be recorded by the clerk of the county court of the county constituting their district; and the inspectors shall be responsible to any persons injured thereby for the official acts of each of their deputies, and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and their sureties as any person can have against the inspectors and their sureties. [Id. pp. 295-6, sec. 5.]

Art. 7265. [5011] Meaning of terms.—Whenever in this chapter the word "inspector" is used, it shall be taken and deemed to be "the inspector of hides and animals," the words "deputy inspector" shall be taken to mean the "deputy inspector of hides and animals," and the words "county," "district" or "inspection district" shall be held to include each organized county in this state not herein excepted, together with any unorganized county that may be attached for judicial purposes to any such county. [Id. p. 301, sec. 27.]

Art. 7266. [5012] May authenticate instruments.—Every inspector shall have authority to authenticate bills of sale of animals, and give certificates of acknowledgment of the same under his hand and seal. [Id. p. 302, sec. 30.]

Art. 7267. [5013] Inspections and record thereof.—It shall be the duty of the inspector, in person or by deputy, to faithfully examine and inspect all hides or animals known or reported to him as sold, or as leaving or going out of the county for sale or shipment, and all animals driven or sold in his district for slaughter, packeries or butcheries; and the inspector shall keep a record, in a well-bound book, in which he shall record a correct statement of the number, ages, marks and brands of all animals inspected by him, and the number, mark and brand of all hides inspected by him, and whether the same are dry or green, and the name or names of the vendor or vendors, and of the purchaser or purchasers thereof. [Id. p. 296, sec. 7.]

Art. 7268. [5014] Monthly returns to county clerk.—He shall return a certified copy of all entries made in such record during each month to the clerk of the county court of the county on the last day of each month, which report shall be filed among the records of the county court. The book of records herein provided for shall at all times be open for the inspection of any person interested therein. [Id.]

Art. 7269. [5015] Exemptions from inspection.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to include sheep, goats, swine, or hides of either, nor to involve the re-inspection of salted hides in packeries or other slaughter houses taken from animals previously inspected and returned, as provided in the preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 7270. [5016] Shall not certify unbranded animals, etc.—No inspector shall grant any certificate of inspection of any unbranded hides or animals, or of hides or animals upon which the marks and brands can not be ascertained, and he shall prevent the same from being taken or shipped out of the county, unless they are identified by proof or by a bill of sale signed by the owner of such hides or animal, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7271. [5017] May seize certain animals, etc.—Every inspector shall have power to and may seize and sequesterate all unmarked or unbranded calves or yearlings, and all calves or yearlings freshly marked or branded, and on which the fresh marks or brands are unhealed, which are about to be slaughtered, or driven or shipped out of the county, unless such animals are accompanied by the mothers thereof, or are identified by the presentation of a bill of sale from the person proved to be the owner thereof, signed by him or his legally authorized agent, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7272. [5018] Also unbranded hides and animals.—Every inspector shall have power to and may seize and sequesterate all unbranded animals or hides, and animals and hides upon which the mark or brand can not be ascertained, which are about to be taken or shipped out of the county, or which animals are to be slaughtered, unless such animals or hides are identified as provided in the preceding article. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7273. [5019] Procedure in cases of seizure.—When the inspector has seized any hides or animals, as provided for in the two preceding articles, he shall report the fact to some judge of the district or county court, or justice of the peace, according as the value of the property seized may come within the jurisdiction of either of said courts; and it shall be the duty of said judge or justice to issue or cause to be issued a citation addressed, "To all whom it may concern," setting forth a seizure of said property, with a description of the same, commanding them to appear at a day named in said citation to show cause why the said property should not be forfeited to the county wherein the same was seized and sold for the benefit of said county; said citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of said county, who shall cause certified copies of the same to be posted in three public places in said county for a period of ten days before the day mentioned in said citation. Upon the proof of the posting of said citation, as herein required, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace issuing said citation to proceed to condemn the property mentioned in said citation, unless satisfactory proof should be made of the ownership of said property, or other sufficient cause be shown why the same should not be condemned; and in case of condemnation he shall order the same to be sold by the inspector at public auction to the highest bidder. The inspector shall be entitled to retain one-fourth of the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting therefrom all expenses connected therewith, and he shall immediately pay the remaining three-fourths thereof into the county treasury; and all sums so paid in shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of such county. [Id. p. 304, sec. 44.]

Art. 7274. [5020] Bill of sale to be taken.—Every person who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for sale or shipment out of any county, or who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for slaughter, shall, at the time of purchasing and before driving the same, procure a bill of sale from the owner or owners thereof, or from his or their legally authorized agent; which bill of sale shall be in writing, properly signed and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state. Such bill of sale shall distinctly enumerate the number, kind and age of animals sold, together with all the marks and brands discernable on said animals; and said animals shall, before leaving the county in which they have been gathered, be inspected by the inspector of such county or his deputy. [Id. p. 297, sec. 11.]

Art. 7275. [5021] Also in sale of hides.—Every person who shall purchase any hides of cattle shall, at the time of purchasing the same, obtain from the owner thereof, or from his legally authorized agent, a bill of sale in writing, certified to by the inspector, or by any officer authorized to take acknowledgments, which bill of sale shall recite in full the marks and brands of each hide, the weight thereof, and whether the same is dry or green. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7276. [5022] Certificate of inspection to be given.—Whenever an inspector shall have inspected any animal or animals, as herein provided, he shall, on the presentation of a bill of sale or power of attorney from the owner or owners of such animal or animals, or his or their agent, duly authorized in writing, which bill of sale, power of attorney or authority shall be in writing, duly signed and acknowledged by the person executing the same before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this state, and on payment to said inspector of his legal fees, deliver to the purchaser of the animals mentioned in such bill of sale or power of attorney, or his agent, a certificate setting forth that he has carefully examined and inspected such animal or animals, and that said purchaser has in all respects complied with the provisions of this chapter, which certificate shall not be complete until the same and bill of sale herein provided for shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county, and be certified to by said clerk under his hand and seal. Such certificate shall be then delivered to the purchaser or purchasers, and shall protect him or them from the payment of inspection fees in any other district for the animals therein described, except from the county from which the same may be exported. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7277. [5023] Same subject.—Any person or persons driving cattle in his or their own mark and brand shall be entitled to the certificate of inspection provided for in the preceding article, on payment of fees to the inspector, and on presentation to the inspector of the certificate of the clerk of the county court of the county where such mark and brand is recorded, to the effect that the mark and brand named therein is duly recorded in his office as the mark and brand of the person so driving such cattle. [Id. sec. 14; amend, 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 101a, p. 484.]

Art. 7278. [5023a] Road brand.—Any person or persons who shall drive any cattle to market beyond the limits of this state shall, before removing such cattle from the county where the same are gathered, place upon each and every animal so to be driven a large and plain road brand, composed of any device he may choose, which brand shall be branded on the left side of the back behind the shoulder; and every person or persons using or causing to be used any road brand shall place the same on record as in the case of other brands, in the county from which the animals are to be driven, and before their removal from such county. [Acts of 1876, p. 295; Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 484.]

Art. 7279. [5023b] Exportation of cattle to Mexico.—Any person intending to drive or ship any animals to the Republic of Mexico may ship the same from any point on the coast of Texas, or may drive or ship them across the Rio Grande river at any point where a custom house of the United States is located, and shall not drive or ship such animals across the Rio Grande at any other point or points; and he shall cause all such animals to be inspected by the inspector of the district in which the point of shipment or place at which they are to be driven across said river is situated; such inspection shall be made before shipment from the state or passage across said river of said animals. [Id.]

Art. 7280. [5023c] Herds in transit may be inspected.—Whenever a drove of cattle may be passing through any county, it shall be the duty of the inspector, if called upon to do so by any person, to stop and inspect said drove without any unnecessary detention of the same; and he shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in the inspection of such cattle as are prescribed in articles 7267, 7271 and 7272. [Id.]

Art. 7281. [5023d] Fees, how paid.—If any cattle be found in said drove not included in the certificate of the inspector of the county in which the drove may have been gathered, the fees of the inspector shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said cattle, but if no cattle shall be found in said drove except those covered by the inspector's certificate, then the inspector's fee shall be paid by the person at whose instance and request said drove was inspected. [Id.; Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 485.]

Art. 7282. [5023e] Hides imported from Mexico.—The hides of all cattle imported into this state from Mexico shall be inspected by the inspector of hides and animals of any county or district into which the same may be introduced or imported; and, should the importer of said hides fail or refuse to pay the inspection fees as required by law, the inspector is hereby authorized to retain possession of said hides and sell a sufficient number thereof, after public notice of three days, to the highest and best bidder, to pay said inspection fees and all necessary expenses in connection therewith. [Id.]

Art. 7283. [5023f] Horses and mules.—Horses and mules imported from Mexico into this state shall be inspected in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article, and with like authority to retain and sell as therein provided for a failure to pay the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 7284. [5023g] Suspicious hides to be seized.—Should an inspector of hides and animals find among hides imported from Mexico any hides which, from the brand or from other evidence, he has reason to believe have been stolen from the lawful owner, it shall be his duty to separate said hides from the others undergoing inspection, and to notify any person he believes to be interested therein to come forward and institute suit for the recovery of the same. [Id.]

Art. 7285. [5023h] Procedure upon seizure.—Should no person appear to claim said hides, the inspector shall, within twenty-four hours, make oath before the county judge of the county, or before a justice of the peace of the county, that he has reason to believe that said hides have been stolen; whereupon said county judge or justice of the peace shall issue a citation, directing the importer or party claiming the same to appear before him at his office within a time specified, not to exceed twenty-four hours, to show cause why said hides should not be condemned.

Art. 7286. [5024] Importer to recover on proof.—Should said importer or claimant make proof that he is the lawful owner of said hides by showing a bill of sale from the owner of the same, or his legally authorized agent, and by showing a complete chain or transfer of title from the original owner of the brand to himself, or his firm, as the case may be, the county judge or justice of the peace shall direct that the same be delivered to said importer or claimant upon his paying the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 7287. [5025] Hides to be sold, if not proven away.—Should the importer or claimant of said hides fail to establish his claim as the lawful owner of the same, or to any number of said hides so seized, it shall be the duty of the county judge or the justice of the peace to direct that said hides be sold at public auction by the inspector of hides and animals, or his deputy, after a notice of ten days, published in a newspaper, should there be one published in said county, or if no newspaper be published in the county, then by notice in writing, posted at the court house and two or more other places in said county, and the said hides shall be sold to the highest and best bidder. [Id.]

Art. 7288. [5026] Fees of inspector in such cases.—The inspector of hides and animals shall retain twenty-five per cent of the purchase money, after having deducted and paid all necessary expenses incurred by reason of said sale, and he shall deposit the remainder of said purchase money with the county treasurer, and take his receipt therefor; and said county treasurer shall place one-half of said sum of money to the credit of the school fund and the other half to the credit of the jury fund of said county. [Id.]

Art. 7289. [5027] Hides to be delivered to true owner, etc.—Should any person appear either by himself, his agent or attorney, and claim any hides imported from Mexico at any time before said hides shall have been sold as above directed, and should said claim be established before the county judge or a justice of the peace of said county, such hides shall be delivered to the claimant, and all costs accruing therein shall be paid by the importer; provided, that at any time before proceedings shall have been commenced as above directed, the importer may be permitted to pay the lawful owner, his agent or attorney, for any hides imported by him from Mexico and presented in any county of this state for inspection, and upon such payment, and the fees for inspection, such hides shall be released. [Id.]

Art. 7290. [5028] Revised list of marks and brands.—The clerk of the county court in each county shall transcribe the list of all recorded marks and brands in his county and revise the same. Such revised list shall be written in a well-bound book, kept for that purpose only, and shall be arranged as follows, viz.: All brands of the letter class shall be placed in alphabetical order, following which shall be the numeral, character and device brands in the order of the date of their registration. Opposite each brand shall be stated the marks corresponding to said brand, the name of the owner of the brand, his place of residence; if the same be sold, the name of the person to whom sold, and his residence; the date of registration of brands and marks, particulars relating thereto. Before each brand shall be placed its number, commencing at one for the first brand on the revised list; and the name of the owner of each brand shall be indexed, reference being had in such index to the list number of the brand or brands of such owner; and all new brands and marks placed on record shall be immediately recorded and indexed in said book, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of all persons; provided, that the provisions of this article shall apply only to counties in which the work of transcribing the records has not already been done, in accordance with law. [Id. p. 300, sec. 23.]

Art. 7291. [5029] Same brand, etc., not to be recorded twice, etc.—In all cases where application for registration of any mark or brand shall be made, the clerk of the county court shall receive and record the same, unless an examination of the recorded list of marks and brands shows that a similar mark and brand is already upon record in such county, in which event he shall refuse to register or give any certificate for the same; provided, that if such applicant shall have previously had such mark and brand recorded in some other county, and shall have a certificate from the clerk of the county in which said brand had been recorded, stating that said brand and mark had been recorded in said county at some time anterior to the time of the registration of the similar mark and brand in the county in which the applicant may desire to have his brand recorded, then said brand and mark shall be recorded; and the clerk shall, on the record, make a minute setting forth said facts. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 7292. [5030] In the county where cattle range.—All marks and brands of cattle shall be recorded in the county or counties in which they usually range; provided, that when cattle are gathered near the county line the bills of sale of the same shall be recorded in both counties; and, when any stock of cattle is sold, the fact shall be noted on the record opposite or near the record of its mark and brand, giving the name of the vendor and vendee and date of sale, and this shall be done as often as there is a sale. It is made the duty of the inspector to procure certified copies of the marks and brands of this county for himself and his deputies, and, monthly, to have added thereto the marks and brands that may be recorded. [Id. p. 301, sec. 28.]

Art. 7293. [5031] Only one mark and brand to be used.—No person owning and claiming stock shall, in originally marking and branding animals, make use of more than one mark and brand; provided, that any person may own and possess animals in many marks and brands, the same having been by him acquired by purchase; and bills of sale in writing, properly acknowledged, from the previous owner or owners of his or their legally constituted agent, shall be sufficient evidence of such purchase, but the increase of such animals, or of any animal counterbranded by such person from other stocks of cattle owned by him, shall be branded or counterbranded by one and the same brand; and when marked by such person shall be marked in one and the same mark. [Id. p. 300, sec. 22.]

Art. 7294. [5032] Counterbranding.—In all cases where the counterbranding of any cattle shall be deemed necessary or expedient, the person so counterbranding shall counterbrand the existing brand of the animal by which the owner thereof is then known, or by which it is then claimed and owned, by branding below the said brand its facsimile, that is, similar letters, characters or numbers, as the case may be; and he shall also place on said animals the brand of the then owner thereof; but no person shall change or alter the ear marks of any animal, but in counterbranding shall leave the ears bearing the same mark or marks as before counterbranding. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 7295. [5033] Authority to gather, etc.—Any person having marks and brands recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court may file with the inspector a list of his recorded marks and brands, certified by the clerk under his seal, to which certified list shall be attached the names of any person or persons whom the owner of said stock may wish to authorize to gather, drive or otherwise handle his stock; and the filing of said list with the inspector shall be deemed sufficient authority to the person or persons named in such list to gather, drive or otherwise handle any animals of the marks and brands therein described. [Id. p. 209, sec. 20.]

Art. 7296. [5034] Inspections to be personal.—In making inspections, the inspector shall not trust to the statement or representations of any persons, but he shall in person carefully inspect and examine each animal or hide separately so as to identify the marks and brands, and in case of animals, the ages and sexes. [Id., p. 301, sec. 29.]

Art. 7297. [5035] Certificate of inspection.—He shall also carefully examine the bills of sale and lists of brands and marks for the cattle inspected by him; and, if satisfied that the person claiming the cattle inspected has correct bills of sale or chain of transfer in writing from the recorded owner, or is the owner himself in whole or part of the mark and brand of each animal in his drove or herd which should be inspected, and that he has none other in said herd or under his control to be carried with it, he will then, and not until then, make out a certificate, which he shall first enter in his record, under his hand and seal, containing the number of cattle in each mark and brand, with their respective ages and sexes, thus inspected, and that they appear to be the property of the person for whom they were inspected, naming him or her, as appears by bills of sale from the recorded owner of the marks and brands on the cattle inspected by him, or the owner of the brand and mark himself or herself, and that he has none other in his herd or under his control that should be inspected; and that he intends to drive or ship them, naming the place in the state, for sale or slaughter; or, if out of the state, he shall then name the place on the border of the state through which it is proposed to drive or ship such stock. [Id.]

Art. 7298. [5036] Inspection before exportation.—Whenever any person shall be about to drive or ship any stock out of the state, if the inspector shall believe, or is informed by any credible person, that said person has other stock in his herd than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly attested by proper bill of sale, the inspector at said point of shipment, or border county where said person leaves the state, shall be authorized to inspect said stock in the same manner as in the original inspection; and, if any stock is found in said herd other than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly and properly authenticated by bill of sale, the fees of said inspection shall be paid as provided in article 7281 of this chapter, provided, that the said inspector shall in no case be authorized to receive or demand more than three cents per head for each head of cattle inspected; but if not, then said fees shall be paid by the person at whose instance said inspection was made; and, if said inspection is made by the inspector, at his own instance, and no stock is found in said herd, except those properly accounted for under the provisions of this article, then said inspector shall receive no fees for said inspection. [Acts of 7879, S. S., ch. 22.]

Art. 7299. [5037] Certificate, where filed.—One of these certificates the inspector shall immediately remit by mail, postage paid, to the first inspector.

and the party owning the cattle shall deposit the other with him in two months from the date of the original inspection, both to be kept by him in his office. [Id.]

Art. 7300. [5038] Seizure of cattle not inspected originally.—But if the inspector at the point of destination shall find, upon inspection, that the owner of the herd or person in charge has in his herd other cattle besides those inspected originally in the county from which said herd was driven, he shall seize said cattle and take them into possession, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as are prescribed in article 7271. [Id.]

Art. 7301. [5039] Writ of sequestration if necessary.—If the person in charge of any such cattle shall refuse to deliver the same into the possession of the inspector, such inspector may apply for and obtain a writ of sequestration from any justice of the peace, county judge or district judge, according as the value of such cattle may come within the jurisdiction of either. Such writ may be obtained upon the affidavit of the inspector, stating that he believes such cattle have been unlawfully acquired, and shall issue without bond, and be forthwith executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county; and thereupon the proceedings referred to in the preceding article shall be had before the officer issuing the writ, either in term time or in vacation. [Id.]

Art. 7302. [5040] Proceeds paid into county treasury subject to claims.—The net proceeds of the sale of cattle condemned under the two preceding articles, save one-fourth of such proceeds retained by the inspector for his compensation, shall be paid into the county treasury, subject to the claim of the true owner of such cattle; and if no claim be set up and established thereto within one year from the date of its deposit, such proceeds shall pass into the general fund of the county, and all claims thereto shall thereafter be barred. [Id.]

Art. 7303. [5041] Description, etc., of cattle also filed.—At the time such proceeds are originally deposited in the county treasury the inspector shall accompany such deposit with a certified statement, under his hand and seal, of the number of cattle sold, the mark and brand of each animal, the amount for which each sold. [Id.]

Art. 7304. [5042] Change of destination.—If the owner of the inspected herd should desire to sell, slaughter or ship the cattle, or any of them, at any other place than the destination named in the original certificate of inspection, he may do so by first having his herd inspected at the point of destination therein named and a new certificate of inspection issued to him at that point, naming the new point of destination or shipment; and upon his arrival at such new point of destination like proceedings shall be had in the way of inspection, comparison and return of the certificates of inspection as are prescribed for the original point of destination. [Id.]

Art. 7305. [5043] Counties exempted.—The counties of Anderson, Angelina, Aransas, Archer, Armstrong, Atascosa, Austin, Bailey, Bandera, Bastrop, Baylor, Bee, Bell, Bexar, Bowie, Bosque, Brazoria, Brazos, Brewster, Briscoe, Brown, Burleson, Burnet, Caldwell, Callahan, Calhoun, Camp, Carson, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Childress, Clay, Cochran, Collin, Collingsworth, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Cottle, Crockett, Crosby, Dallam, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Dickens, Donley, Duval, Eastland, Ellis, El Paso, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Fayette, Floyd, Foard, Fort Bend, Franklin, Freestone, Frio, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gonzales, Gray, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hall, Hamilton, Hardeman, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hartley, Hays, Hemphill, Henderson, Hiladgo, Hill, Hockley, Hood, Hopkins, Houston, Hunt, Irion, Jackson, Jack, Jasper, Jeff Davis, Jefferson, Johnson, Karnes, Kaufman, Kendall, Knox, Kinney, Lamar, Lamb, Lampasas, Lavaca, Leon, Liberty, Limestone, Lipscomb, Live Oak, Llano, Loving, Madison, Marion, Mason, Medina, Maverick, McLennan, Milam, Mills, Mitchell, Montague, Montgomery, Morris, Motley, Nacogdoches, Navarro, Newton, Orange, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Pecos, Polk, Presidio, Rains, Red River, Refugio, Robertson, Rockwall, Rusk, Reeves, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, San Patricio, Schleicher, Shackelford, Shelby, Smith, Somervell, Stephens, Tarrant, Terrell, Throckmorton, Titus, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Val Verde, Van Zandt, Victoria, Walker, Ward, Washington, Webb, Wharton, Wheeler, Williamson, Wilson, Wise, Ward, Winkler and Young, are hereby exempted from the provisions of this chapter, and from all laws regulating the inspection of hides and animals. [Acts 1909, pp. 30, 113.]

LOCAL OPTION AS TO HIDE AND ANIMAL INSPECTION.

Art. 7306. Commissioners' court to order election, when.—Whenever twenty-five of the qualified voters of each justice precinct in any county, or a majority thereof, shall petition the commissioners' court for an election to determine whether such county shall have a hide and animal inspector, said court shall, either at general or special term, order such election to be held after thirty days notice having been given by posting such notice in each of such justice precincts and by publishing same in some newspaper published in said county, if there be one so published. It shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to prepare said notices and the sheriff to put up same and make return of such posting and file with said clerk, showing time and place of such posting. [Acts 1909, p. 127, sec. 1.]

Art. 7307. Result to be declared, etc.—The commissioners' court at the time of ordering said election shall appoint two persons to act as judges, designating one of such as presiding judge, and two persons to act as clerks, who shall hold said election, count the votes and foot up same, showing the number of votes for and against the issue; the result shall be prepared in duplicate and sealed up, one copy for the commissioners' court and the other to be retained by the presiding judge; and the presiding judge shall deliver or cause to be delivered one copy of the result of said election to the clerk of the county court for said commissioners' court within five days after said election. Within five days after such delivery of such returns to said clerk, the commissioners' court shall count the votes and declare the results and enter the same on the election record. The county shall pay the expenses of holding such election. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7308. Ballots.—The election shall be held under the law as now provided for holding local and general elections, and all qualified voters shall be entitled to vote, and each ballot shall have written or printed on same, "For Inspector," or, "Against Inspector." [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7309. In case election is carried.—If at such election a majority of the votes cast be "For Inspector," then the persons holding such offices shall retain same to the next general election until his successor is elected and inducted into office as now provided by law; but, in counties having no inspector, the commissioners' court shall appoint one to serve until the next general election, who shall give bond and take the oath of office as now provided by law. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7310. Fees of inspector.—Such inspector as herein provided for shall be entitled to such fees for his services as are now provided by law; provided, that no inspector herein provided for shall be entitled to any fee, unless he shall make a personal inspection of each animal or hide to be inspected as provided by law. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7311. Election not to be held oftener than two years.—No election shall be held oftener than every two years under this law. [Id. sec. 6.]

Article 7312. [5043a] Commission created; oath, bond and term of office.—There shall be appointed by the governor, and with the consent of the senate, a live stock sanitary commission of the state of Texas, composed of three members. Before entering upon the duties of their office, said commissioners shall take and subscribe to the usual oath of office and file the same with the secretary of state; and they shall also, before entering upon the performance of their duties, execute a bond, to be approved by the state comptroller, in the sum of ten thousand dollars each, conditioned that they will faithfully perform the duties of their office, which said bond they shall file with the secretary of state. The term of office of said commissioners shall be for a period of two years next from the day of their qualification, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified. [Acts of 1893, p. 70.]

Art. 7313. [5043b] Qualifications of commissioners.—The commissioners, whose appointment is provided for in the preceding article, shall each be practical live stock raisers in the state of Texas, and shall have been actively engaged in said business for at least five years next preceding the date of their appointment, and shall be bona fide residents of and stock raisers in the particular section of the state from which they may be appointed. One of said commissioners shall be appointed from the west, one from the south, and one from the eastern portion of said state. [Id.]

Art. 7314. [5043c] Duties and powers of the commission.—It shall be the duty of the commission provided for in article 7312 to protect the domestic animals of this state from all contagious or infectious diseases of a malignant character, whether said diseases exist in Texas or elsewhere; and for this purpose they are hereby authorized and empowered to establish, maintain, and enforce such quarantine lines and sanitary rules and regulations as they may deem necessary. It shall also be the duty of said commission to co-operate with live stock quarantine commissioners and officers of other states and territories, and with the United States secretary of agriculture, in establishing such interstate quarantine lines, rules and regulations as shall best protect the live stock industry of this state against Texas or splenic fever. It shall be the duty of said commission, upon receipt by them of reliable information of the existence among the domestic animals of the state of any malignant disease, to go at once to the place where any such disease is alleged to exist, and make a careful examination of the animals believed to be affected with any such disease, and ascertain, if possible, what, if any, disease exists among the live stock reported to be affected, and whether the same is contagious or infectious; and, if said disease is found to be of a malignant, contagious or infectious character, they shall direct and enforce such quarantine lines and sanitary regulations as are necessary to prevent the spread of any such disease. And no domestic animal infected with disease, or capable of communicating the same, shall be permitted to enter or leave the district, premises, or grounds so quarantined, except by authority of the commissioners. The said commission shall also, from time to time, give and enforce such directions and prescribe such rules and regulations as to separating, feeding, and caring for such diseased and exposed animals as they shall deem necessary to prevent the animals so affected with such disease from coming in contact with other animals not so affected. And the said commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon any grounds or premises to carry out the provisions of this act. [Id.]

Art. 7315. [5043d] When the governor shall proclaim quarantine.—When the commission shall have determined the quarantine lines and other regulations necessary to prevent the spread among domestic animals of Texas of any malignant, contagious, or infectious disease found to exist among the live stock of this state, or elsewhere, and given their orders as hereinbefore provided, prescribing quarantine and other regulations, they shall notify the governor of the state of Texas, who shall issue his proclamation, proclaiming the boundary of such quarantine around such diseased stock, and the orders, rules, and regulations prescribed by the commission; and such commission shall give such notice as may to them seem best to make the quarantine established by them effective. [Id.]

Art. 7316. [5043e] Commission to purchase supplies, etc.—The commission provided for in this chapter shall have power to purchase such supplies and material as may be necessary to carry into full effect all orders by them given, as hereinbefore provided; which said supplies and material and wages, and expenses of the veterinarian hereinafter provided for, shall be paid out of the moneys hereinafter appropriated, on the warrant of the comptroller, issued to said commissioners, upon their filing with the comptroller an itemized account thereof, properly verified by affidavit; provided, that no material or supplies may be purchased by the commissioners, except such as may be necessary to carry into effect the quarantine and other regulations prescribed by them. And such commissioners shall have the power to employ a competent veterinarian to assist them in the investigation of the diseases amongst the live stock of this state, whenever they may deem the services of one necessary; provided, that the compensation of such veterinarian shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars per day and actual expenses while so employed; and provided, further, that the expenditures for the compensation of veterinarians shall not exceed nine hundred dollars in any one year. [Id.]

Art. 7317. [5043f] Railways to keep clean transporting cars.—It shall be the duty of the railway corporations doing business in the state to cleanse and disinfect the cars used by them in transporting live stock in or through this state, at such times and places as the commissioners may designate, whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners, any such order may be necessary to prevent the spread of infectious or contagious disease; and such corporations violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered in a civil action, to be prosecuted under the direction of the attorney general in the name of the state of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 7318. [5043g] Knowledge or suspicion of infection to be reported.—It shall be the duty of any owner or person in charge of any domestic animal or animals, who discovers, suspects or has reason to believe that any of his domestic animals, or domestic animals in his charge, are affected with any contagious or infectious disease, to immediately report such fact, belief or suspicion to the commission and to the sheriff and county clerk of the county in which said domestic animals are found.

Art. 7319. [5043h] Compensation of commissioners.—The commissioners appointed by the governor, as hereinbefore provided, shall receive five dollars per day for the time by them necessarily employed in the discharge of the duties required by this chapter; and said commissioners, hereinbefore provided for, shall receive in addition thereto the actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred by them and paid in the discharge of the duties required of them by the provisions of this chapter; which said per diem and expenses shall be drawn from the treasury on the warrant of the comptroller, to be issued to said commisisoners on their filing with the comptroller an itemized account thereof, properly verified by affidavit.

Art. 7320. [5043i] Sheriffs and constables subject to orders of commissioners.—The live stock sanitary commission shall have power to call upon any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or constable to execute their orders, and such officers shall obey the orders of said commissioners; and the officer or officers performing these duties shall each be entitled to two dollars and fifty cents per day for himself and horse, which payment shall be made upon a sworn account, approved by said commissioners; provided, said expenses under this article shall not exceed in any event five hundred dollars per annum. [Id.]

Art. 7321. [5043j] Appropriation for purposes of this chapter.—The sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of the general revenue fund not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the exhaustion of the appropriation herein made shall terminate the liability of the state for the two years next following, and absolve it from any future claims of any and all persons who may have claims, real or pretended, under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7322. [5043k] Quarantine line.—Any quarantine line that may be fixed by the live stock sanitary commission against Texas or splenetic fever shall be so fixed as to conform to the federal quarantine line established or that may be established by the United States department of agriculture. [Amended Act 1897, p. 4.]

Art. 7323. [5043l] Concurrence of two commissioners, etc.—No quarantine line shall be established at any time, nor regulations made in relation thereto, unless two of the live stock sanitary commissioners agree thereto.

Art. 7324. [5043m] Cumulative law.—This chapter does not repeal any law in force for the protection of domestic animals, but is cumulative thereto.

Article 7325. State purchasing agent; appointment; forbidden to receive rebates, etc.—The state purchasing agent shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, every two years, and shall hold his office for the term of two years from the date of his qualification, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said purchasing agent shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars, which shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office, and he shall not receive, directly or indirectly, any extra compensation in the way of commissions or otherwise. Said agent shall not be interested in, or in any manner connected with, any contract or bid for furnishing supplies or articles of any kind to any of said institutions, or to any other department or institution of the state, or with any person, firm or corporation who is interested in, or in any manner connected with, any kind of contract with the state or any of its institutions and departments, nor shall he collect or be paid his salary, or any part thereof, while he is in any manner or degree indebted to the state, or in arrears in his accounts and reports as such agent. Neither shall said agent accept or receive from any person, firm or corporation to whom any contract may be awarded, directly or indirectly, by rebate, gift or otherwise, any money or other thing of value whatever, nor shall he receive any promise, obligation or contract for future reward or compensation from any such party. [Act 1899; p. 138, sec. 1.]

Art. 7326. Oath; bond; forbidden to be concerned in sale of merchandise, etc., to state.—Upon being appointed and confirmed as aforesaid, said agent shall take the constitutional oath of office, and enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the state of Texas, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, to be approved by the governor of the state, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and that he will correctly and honestly pass upon and award all bids and contracts for supplies, and will fully and accurately account to and pay over to the state, or to the persons authorized to receive the same, all moneys, merchandise and articles of value that shall come into and pass through his hands as such agent, or for which he may be responsible; and also conditioned that he will honestly, faithfully and accurately disburse and account for all moneys controlled or handled by him in the performance of his duties. It is unlawful and within the conditions of said bond for said agent to sell or be in any manner concerned in the sale of any merchandise, supplies or other articles to any of the institutions herein named, or to any other department or institution of the state. It shall also be within the conditions of said bond and the same shall provide that said purchasing agent shall not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, by rebate, commissions or in any other manner whatever any money or other thing of value from any person, firm or corporation to whom said agent may award any contract, directly or indirectly. The said bond shall be filed in the office of the comptroller, and recoveries may be had on the same until exhausted. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7327. Storekeepers; appointment; bond; duty.—There shall be appointed by the superintendents, with the advice and consent of the boards of managers, of said institutions, storekeepers and accountants, one for each of said institutions, who shall hold their offices for two years from date of qualification, or until their successors shall have qualified, unless sooner removed by the boards of managers at the suggestion of the superintendent, or upon the complaint of the purchasing agent, for inefficiency, incompetency, neglect of duty or other adequate cause affecting their faithful and satisfactory performance of duty. Said storekeepers or accountants shall receive a compensation not to exceed the sum of nine hundred dollars per annum, to be charged and paid as part of the current expenses of said institutions; and they shall not be entitled to charge, collect or receive any other compensation or commutation or commission, unless their own individual board and lodging, if they shall be required to reside within the institutions to which they are attached. Each of said storekeepers or accountants shall, before entering upon the performance of his duties, make and file with the comptroller of public accounts a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved by the governor and filed with the comptroller, which bond shall be conditioned for the full, faithful, accurate and honest performance of his duties; and it shall not be lawful for said storekeepers or accountants to sell or be in any way concerned in the sale of any merchandise, supplies or other articles to any of the institutions herein named, or to have any interest in any bid or contract therewith, or with any other institution or department of the state government. The offices or positions of steward, quartermaster or other similar position heretofore existing in any and all of said named institutions are abolished, and said storekeepers or accountants shall hereafter perform all the duties, except such as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter heretofore imposed upon such abolished officers or employes, as well as such other duties as may be required of them by the management of said institutions. They shall also keep the purchasing agent constantly advised as to the amount and character of supplies on hand, and the amount and character required in order to keep the institutions constantly provided for. They shall also furnish any other information respecting such matters as may be desired by the said purchasing agent. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7328. Manner of contracting for supplies.—It shall be the duty of the purchasing agent aforesaid to contract for all supplies, merchandise and articles of every description needed for the maintenance and operation of said institutions, except those supplies that are of a strictly perishable character, basing his contract or contracts upon estimates to be furnished him by the superintendents and approved by the boards of said institutions respectively, by the first day of May of each year, for an entire year; and all such contracts shall be made after full notice by advertisement of not less than four weeks in at least four of the leading papers of the state, to be selected by said agent and within the limit of appropriations made by the legislature for such purposes, regard being had to the appropriation for each institution. Such advertisement shall call for sealed bids or proposals to furnish the aggregate of the desired articles and supplies as estimated for by such institutions, naming the articles and supplies and the quantities and character required; and all such bids or proposals shall be for the entire period of one year; such supplies, articles and merchandise to be delivered at such times, in such quantities, and to such institutions as said agent may from time to time designate; and, should the supplies, or any portion thereof, as contracted for, be not sufficient for the year for which the contract or contracts shall be made, then the contractor or contractors shall be required to furnish such additional supplies at the prices named for similar articles under the contract or contracts; provided, that should said purchasing agent at any time discover that he could purchase the same supplies for less money for any one year by buying the same for a less length of time than one year, he shall have the authority to make such purchases for a shorter length of time, but not less than three months. It being the purpose of this chapter to authorize and require said purchasing agent to make such contracts upon such terms as will secure the best and cheapest rates for the state in the purchase of supplies and articles of necessity for said institutions, and to that end he shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids, or to accept any bid in part or reject it in part; and if none of the bids and proposals are deemed advantageous and satisfactory, he may buy in the open market until a proper and satisfactory bid is offered. The period for which such bids or proposals are invited shall be clearly stated in said advertisements, as well as the terms and conditions contemplated by the provisions of this chapter. When the same article is estimated for by two or more institutions, but of different brands or grades, the purchasing agent may determine which of the brands or grades shall be purchased, so as to produce uniformity in use by all the institutions; provided, that other things being equal, supplies offered by bidders who have an established local business in this state shall have preference. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7329. Bids, submission of.—Any and all bids or proposals under this chapter shall be accompanied by a good and sufficient bond or a certified check, in such sum as the said purchasing agent may require, the same to be stated in the advertisements aforesaid; and the said agent may, if he deems it advisable, advertise for the various articles and supplies needed separately or together, and may accept the bid or bids for the same to be furnished separately or all by one bidder, as may be most advantageous to the state, and when purchases are made by the state purchasing agent, preference shall be given to state or home products, all things being equal. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7330. Bids, opening and acceptance of.—All bids shall be opened on the date and at the place specified in the advertisement for the same, and such opening and inspection of the bids shall be made by the purchasing agent in the presence of the governor and comptroller of public accounts and of the superintendent and board of managers, if they desire to be present. The supplies and articles furnished under all bids and contracts shall be such as are called for by requisitions of the superintendents of the several institutions named, and equal to and of the same quality as the sample furnished purchasing agent; and all supplies furnished by contract as provided herein shall be equal to the sample which is required by article 7328 to accompany the bid. And when the supplies delivered under contract do not come up to the sample, the superintendent shall refuse to accept the same. The estimates furnished said purchasing agent as aforesaid, upon which he makes his advertisements and contracts, shall, as near as practicable, state the quantity and quality of the articles and supplies needed, and when possible, the brand of the same, and copies of such estimates shall be filed with the comptroller and be open to public inspection. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7331. Invoices, payment of.—Invoices of all supplies of whatever kind shall be furnished in triplicate by the contractor or seller at the time of each delivery of said supplies, two of which shall be transmitted to the storekeeper of the institution to which supplies are sent, and one by the same mail to the purchasing agent. As soon as the supplies shall have been received and examined by the storekeeper of the institution to which the same shall have been shipped, and if he shall find them to correspond in every particular with the invoices transmitted him and the samples by which the supplies were sold, he shall transmit to the purchasing agent one of said invoices with a certificate thereon that the supplies received correspond in every particular with the invoice and the sample by which the supplies were sold; and if the purchasing agent shall, upon further examination, find such invoice to be correct, he shall transmit it with his approval to the comptroller; and when such invoice so approved by the storekeeper of the institution to which the supplies named therein have been furnished, and by the purchasing agent, shall have been further approved by the comptroller, he shall draw his warrant for the amount due on the invoice, or upon so much thereof as has been allowed, upon the state treasury, and it shall be charged against the institution so furnished. And the contractor or seller, to the invoice to be transmitted by him to the storekeeper, thence to the purchasing agent, and thence to the comptroller, shall append an affidavit made and subscribed to by him before any officer having a seal and authorized to administer oaths, that the invoice is correct, and that it corresponds in every particular to the supplies furnished and shipped. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7332. Successful bidder must give bond.—When any bid shall have been accepted, the purchasing agent shall require of the successful bidder a bond payable unto the state, with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum not less than one-third of the amount of the bid, to be approved by the comptroller, conditioned that he will fully, faithfully and accurately execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered, said bond to be filed in the office of the comptroller, and recoveries may be had on such bond until exhausted. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7333. Emergency purchases.—In case any temporary and unforeseen exigency should arise in any of the institutions named, and it shall be made to appear upon the written statement of the superintendent to the board of managers of such institution that a serious detriment will be caused to the service if the method of purchase, as hereinbefore defined, shall be pursued, then such board, if upon examination it shall deem an immediate purchase necessary, may by appropriate order, to be approved by the governor and duly entered upon its minutes, authorize the purchase of such supplies as may be needed to meet such temporary and unforeseen exigency, and which are not embraced in any existing contract; and the superintendent may thereupon direct the storekeeper to purchase the same in open market. A report of such purchase, together with a copy of the application of the superintendent, and the order of the board, shall be transmitted to the purchasing agent, and he shall transmit the same, with his endorsement thereon, to the comptroller, and upon it the comptroller shall issue his warrant upon the treasury of the state for the amount so expended. The provisions of this article shall only apply to articles and supplies that are not of a strictly perishable character. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7334. Purchases must accord with appropriations.—All purchases by contract or otherwise, as herein authorized, shall be in accordance with such appropriations as have been made by the legislature for the support of the several institutions respectively. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7335. Purchase of perishables.—The governor, comptroller, and purchasing agent shall frame and transmit to each institution a system of rules and regulations for the purchase of such supplies as are strictly perishable in their character, and to which conformity by all the institutions is hereby required. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7336. Purchasing agent's clerk.—The purchasing agent shall have authority to appoint one clerk to assist him in his duties, with a salary not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum, and shall make an annual report to the governor at the end of each fiscal year covering all his acts and doings; and such report shall be laid before the legislature at its next session thereafter. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7337. Institutions contemplated by this chapter.—The institutions herein contemplated are those for the care of the insane, the deaf and dumb, the blind, the orphans, the Confederate home, and all others of a charitable and eleemosynary character, to be hereafter established under state patronage and control. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7338. Payment only on affidavit.—No account for goods, wares or merchandise purchased by any officers to whom this chapter refers shall be paid, unless sworn to as required by article 3712, which affidavit shall further state that no commission or other compensation has been or will be paid as a consideration for such purchase, and that affiant knows such facts. [Id. sec. 15.]

Article 7339. [2929] Board of contractors; duration of contract.—The attorney general, treasurer, and secretary of state are constituted a board of contractors, and required to contract with any suitable person or persons, firm or firms, who are residents of and doing business in this state, to furnish such fuel as may be required by law or needed by any department of the state government, except the judicial department; and said contracts shall be for the term of one year, and until a new contract shall be made and approved. [Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 273, sec. 1; Const., art. 16, sec. 21.]

Art. 7340. [2930] Advertisement for proposals.—The secretary of state shall every year, and at such other times as are necessary, advertise for thirty days in one or more newspapers published in the city of Austin, and having the largest circulation, for sealed proposals for furnishing such fuel, and shall in said advertisement state a time and place when and where said proposals shall be received and opened and contract awarded, not exceeding forty days from the date of the first publication of said advertisement; and he shall in said advertisement give such specifications and estimates of the probable amount and quality of fuel that will be required as may be practicable. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7341. [2931] Proposals, how made.—All proposals shall be sealed and addressed to the secretary of state, and shall be indorsed with the statement that they are proposals for fuel, and when received shall be filed carefully away by the secretary of state in his office, and the seals thereof shall not be broken until the day named in the advertisement for awarding the contract, and shall be opened in the presence of the contracting board and such bidders as may desire to be present. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7342. [2932] Contract awarded to lowest bidder.—The bids shall be examined by the contracting board, a careful comparison made, and the contract awarded to the lowest and most responsible bidder, whose bid shall be below such maximum rates as are hereinafter prescribed. [Id.]

Art. 7343. [2933] Bids to be guaranteed.—Each bid shall be accompanied by a guarantee, signed by at least two responsible citizens, guaranteeing that if the contract be awarded to said bidder that he or they will enter into contract, and give a good and sufficient bond to carry out the same. [Id.]

Art. 7344. [2934] Contractor's bond.—The party to whom any contract is awarded shall immediately after such award enter into bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the board of contractors, payable to the state, and with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the board, conditioned for the faithful performance of such contract; which bond shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state.

Art. 7345. [2935] Rescission of contract.—At any time after a contract has been made and entered into with any person or firm, as herein provided, the legislature may annul said contract if not executed, and may alter or amend by enactment the maximum rates for such fuel. The board of contractors shall have power and is hereby required when the legislature is not in session to cancel the contract whenever the party or parties fail to comply with the contract as promptly as the exigencies of the public service demand; and it shall be their duty to let out a new contract in the manner herein provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7346. [2936] No officer to be interested in contracts.—No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in said contracts; and all such contracts shall be in writing and signed by the board of contractors, and approved in writing by the governor, secretary of state, and comptroller. [Id. p. 274, sec. 5.]

Art. 7347. [2937] Rate for fuel.—The rate paid for fuel in said contracts shall not exceed six dollars and ten cents per cord for dry cedar, and five dollars and ten cents per cord for dry oak and other kinds of wood, except cedar. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7348. [2938] Record of proceedings.—The secretary of state shall keep a record of his proceedings and the proceedings of the board of contractors; and a majority of said board shall be competent to do business.— [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 7349. Board constituted.—The governor, comptroller of public accounts, and treasurer of this state, are constituted a board to calculate the ad valorem tax to be levied and collected each year for state and public free school purposes. [Act 1907, p. 464, sec. 1.]

Art. 7350. Tax assessor to make certificate to comptroller.—It shall be the duty of the tax assessor of each county in this state to make to the comptroller of public accounts, on or before the fifteenth day of July of each year a statement, showing as nearly as can be ascertained from his inventories or assessments, the total amount of property in each county subject to taxation; provided, that the tax for state and public free school purposes shall not be calculated and carried out upon said rolls. [Id. Amended Act 1909, p. 371, sec. 2.]

Art. 7351. Method of ascertaining tax rate.—Within five days after the comptroller of public accounts has received such certified statements from every assessor within this state, said board shall meet for the purpose of calculating the ad valorem rate for taxes to be collected for the state and public free school purposes. In calculating said rates, the board shall calculate the same by the following rules and upon the following basis: They shall find, by adding together all the property subject to taxation in all the counties as shown by the certified statements returned by the assessors, the total valuation of all property within this state subject to ad valorem taxes. They shall find, by adding together the sums appropriated by the legislature, which will or which may become due by the state during the following fiscal year, the total sum which will or which may become due by the state, during the following fiscal year. They shall find, by adding all sums paid into the state treasury as taxes for state purposes from all sources other than as ad valorem taxes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the last preceding calendar year, the total sum paid into the state treasury from said sources during said time. They shall find, by subtracting from the total sum which will or which may become due by the state during the next succeeding fiscal year the total sum which was paid into the state treasury as taxes for state purposes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the last preceding calendar year, the total sum for state purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes. They shall add to such remainder twenty per cent of said remainder. They shall divide the total sum for state purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes added to twenty per cent of such total sum by the quotient of the total valuation of all property within this state divided by one hundred. The quotient shall be the number of cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to be collected for the current year for state purposes; provided, that said quotient shall not be run to more than three decimals; and provided, that the rate for state purposes shall never exceed the rate fixed by law on the one hundred dollars valuation of property. In calculating the rate to be collected for public free school purposes, the said board shall take into consideration the number of children in the state within the scholastic age to be determined from the most recent official school census; and shall fix a rate that will yield and produce for such fiscal year four dollars per capita for all the children within the scholastic age, as shown by said scholastic census; provided, the rate so fixed for any year shall never exceed the rate fixed by law. [Act 1907, p. 464, sec. 3.]

Art. 7352. Comptroller to certify rate to tax assessor.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to certify to the assessor of taxes of each county in this state, through registered letter, the rate of taxes for state purposes and for public free school purposes for the current year, and shall also publish immediately such rate for thirty days in some newspaper published in the state and having a general circulation therein; and as soon as such tax assessor has received notice of such rate he shall calculate the taxes due the state for state purposes, and also the taxes due for public free school purposes, on all taxable property within his county, as set out in article 7351, and shall carry the same out upon the copies of the tax rolls of the county to be delivered to the tax collector and to the clerk of the county court and to be returned to the comptroller of public accounts, as provided by law. After he has so completed the said copies of the tax rolls, he shall return to the comptroller of public accounts a copy of same. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7353. Commissioners' court to calculate the county rate, when.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state, all the members thereof being present, at either a regular or special session, may at any time after the tax assessors of their respective counties have forwarded to the comptroller of public accounts the certificate required in article 7350 and prior to the time when the tax collector of such county shall have begun to make out his receipts, calculate the rate and adjust the taxes levied in their respective counties for general purposes to the taxable values shown by the assessment rolls. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7354. [5048] Poll tax.—There shall be levied and collected from every male person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, resident within this state, on the first day of January of each year (Indians not taxed, and persons insane, blind, deaf and dumb or those who have lost one hand or foot, excepted) an annual poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents, one dollar for the benefit of free schools, and fifty cents for general revenue purposes; provided, that no county shall levy more than twenty-five cents poll tax for county purposes. [Acts 1882, p. 18.]

Art. 7355. [5049] Occupation taxes.—There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm, company or association of persons pursuing any of the occupations named in the following numbered subdivisions of this article, an annual occupation tax, which shall be paid annually in advance, except where herein otherwise provided, on every such occupation or separate establishment, as follows:

Section 1. Itinerant merchants.—From every merchant who may remove from place to place and offer for sale “bankrupt stocks” of goods, or advertising “fire sales,” or “water and fire damaged stocks for sale,” for a limited period of time, there shall be collected one hundred dollars per month for the first month, or less than a month, for each and every place where such business is located; and for each additional month that such sales are continued, at any given place, said merchant shall pay an additional sum of twenty dollars; provided, that where they remain for six months in one place, in addition to the one hundred dollars charged for the first month, they shall pay an additional sum of ten dollars per month; and provided, further, that, if they remain in one place for the period of twelve months, they shall be required to pay, in addition to the one hundred dollars for the first month, the sum fixed in the preceding paragraph, according to class and amount of goods sold in one year.

Sec. 2. Traveling vendors of patent medicines.—From every traveling person selling patent or other medicines, one hundred dollars; and no traveling person shall so sell until said tax is paid; provided, that this tax shall not apply to commercial travelers, drummers or salesmen making sales, or soliciting trade for merchants engaged in the sale of drugs or medicines by wholesale.

Sec. 3. Auctioneers.—From every auctioneer, an annual tax of ten dollars.

Sec. 4. Ship brokers and agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of ship brokers or ship agents, an annual tax of ten dollars.

Sec. 5. Persons selling on commission.—From every person, firm or association of persons selling on commission, ten dollars.

Sec. 6. Itinerant physicians, etc.—From every itinerant physician, surgeon, oculist or medical or other specialist of any kind, traveling from place to place in the practice of his profession, except dentists practicing from place to place in the county of their residence, an annual tax of fifty dollars.

Sec. 7. Shooting gallery.—From every person or firm keeping a shooting gallery at which a fee is paid or demanded, an annual tax of thirty dollars in each county.

Sec. 8. Billiard and pool tables.—From every billiard or pool table, or any thing of the kind used for profit, twenty dollars; and any such table used in connection with any drinking saloon or other place of business where intoxicating liquors, cigars or other things of value are sold or given away, or upon which any money or other thing of value is paid, shall be regarded as used for profit.

Sec. 9. Nine and ten pin alleys.—From every nine or ten pin alley, or any other alley used for profit, by whatever name called, constructed or operated upon the principle of a bowling alley, and upon which balls, rings or other devices are used as [or] substitutes thereof are rolled, without regard to the number of pins used, or whether pins are used or not, or whether the balls, rings or other device are rolled by hand or with a cue or any other device, one hundred dollars. Any such alley used in connection with any drinking saloon, or any drug store, or with any drug store where intoxicating liquors are sold or given away, or upon which money or anything of value is paid, shall be regarded as used for profit.

Sec. 10. Hobby horses, etc.—From all persons keeping or using for profit any hobby-horse, flying-jenny, or device of that character, with or without name, fifteen dollars for each county wherein the same are kept or used.

Sec. 11. Foot peddlers.—From every foot peddler, five dollars in each county in which he peddles; from every peddler with one horse or one pair of oxen, the sum of seven dollars and fifty cents in the county in which he peddles; from every peddler with two horses or two pair oxen, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued; from every peddler with sail or other boat in streams along coasts or bays of this state, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to include traveling vendors of literature or traveling vendors of poultry, vegetables, fruits or other country produce exclusively, and fruit trees exclusively.

Sec. 12. Clock peddlers.—From every person or firm who peddles out clocks, agricultural implements, cooking stoves or ranges, wagons, buggies, carriages, surreys and other similar vehicles, washing machines and churns, an annual tax of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid in each county in which said occupation is pursued; provided, that a merchant shall not be required to pay this special tax for selling the articles named in this chapter when sold in his place of business.

Sec. 13. Theaters.—From every theater or dramatic representation for which pay for admission is demanded or received in towns or cities of fifteen hundred inhabitants or less, one dollar; in towns and cities of fifteen hundred and not over three thousand, two dollars; in towns and cities of over three thousand and not less than five thousand, three dollars; in towns and cities over five thousand and not over ten thousand, four dollars, and in towns and cities of over ten thousand inhabitants, five dollars per day for every day they may perform; provided, that theatrical or dramatic representations given by performers for instruction only, or entirely for charitable purposes, shall not be herein included; provided, however, that this tax shall not be collected where the performances are exhibited in regularly recognized opera houses or theaters; but in lieu of said tax the managers of said opera houses or theaters shall pay an annual occupation tax of twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 14. Circus.—From every circus wherein equestrian or acrobatic feats and performances are exhibited, for which pay for admission is demanded or received, for each performance or exhibition where an admission fee of one dollar is charged, two hundred and fifty dollars; for each performance or exhibition where admission fee of seventy-five cents is charged, two hundred dollars; for each performance where fifty cents or less is charged, one hundred dollars; provided, that the amount of fee charged for reserved seats shall be considered as a part of such admission fee; provided, that where there is a combination of circus and menagerie, or circus and other exhibitions, the highest tax fixed by this law for any division or department of the combination shall be collected; provided, further, that every show or exhibition which advertises itself as a circus and menagerie, or a combination of circus and menagerie, shall be held and construed to be a circus or a menagerie, or a circus and menagerie, whether it be such or not.

Sec. 15. Menagerie, etc.—From every menagerie, wax-works, side show or exhibition, whether connected with a circus or not, where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every performance or exhibition in which fees for admission are received.

Sec. 16. Acrobatic performances.—From every exhibition where acrobatic feats are performed and an admission fee charged for profit, not connected with the circus or theater, ten dollars for each performance.

Sec. 17. Sleight of hand performances.—From every sleight of hand performance or exhibition of legerdemain, not connected with a theater or circus, twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 18. Waxworks, etc.; benevolent associations exempt.—From every menagerie, wax-works or exhibition of any kind where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every day on which fees for such admission are received; provided, that exhibitions by associations organized for promotion of art, science, charity or benevolence, shall be exempt from taxation; and provided, further, that persons who form a museum composed entirely of the products of Texas shall have the right to exhibit the same for a fee without paying any occupation tax.

Sec. 19. Concerts, etc., exemptions.—From every concert where a fee for admission is demanded or received, two dollars; provided, that entertainments when given by the citizens for charitable purposes, or for the support or aid of literary or cemetery associations are exempt.

Sec. 20. Insurance adjusters and general agents.—From each and every person acting as general adjuster of losses, or agents of fire and marine insurance companies, who may transact any business as such in this state, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars. By "general agent," as used in this law, is meant any person or firm, representative of any insurance company in this state, or who may exercise a general supervision over the business of such insurance company in this state, or over the local agency thereof in this state, or any subdivision thereof.

Sec. 21. Lightning rod agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons, dealing in lightning rods, an annual tax of thirty-six dollars to the state and eighteen dollars as county tax to the county in which such business is carried on; and upon every person canvassing for the sale of lightning rods, an annual tax of one hundred dollars to the state and fifty dollars as county tax, in each county in which such canvassing is done.

Sec. 22. Cotton brokers and commission merchants.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of cotton broker, cotton factor, or commission merchant, in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or over, thirty-five dollars; and in all cities and towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of eighteen dollars; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax under this law shall not be considered as a cotton broker. A "commission merchant," in the meaning of this article, is every person, firm or association of persons, receiving country produce, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, grain, corn, hay, lumber, shingles, wood, coal, goods, wares and merchandise, or anything else for sale, to be accounted for to the owner when sold, and charging a commission therefor.

Sec. 23. Pawnbrokers.—From every pawnbroker, an annual tax of one hundred and fifty dollars.

Sec. 24. Sewing machine dealers.—From every person, firm, agency, or association of persons dealing in sewing machines, an annual tax of fifteen dollars to the state and seven dollars as a county tax in every county where such business may be carried on; provided, that a merchant who pays an occupation tax, as required by this article, shall not be required to pay this special tax to sell sewing machines when sold in his place of business.

Sec. 25. Gas companies.—From each gas company, manufacturing gas in towns and cities of ten thousand or more inhabitants, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars.

Sec. 26. Electric light companies.—From each electric light company operating an electric light plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars.

Sec. 27. Waterworks companies.—From each waterworks company operating a waterworks plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars.

Sec. 28. Money lenders.—From every person, firm, or association of persons loaning money as agent or agents for any corporation, firm or association, either in this state or out of it, an annual occupation tax of one hundred and fifty dollars for the state, for the principal office, and a county tax of fifteen dollars from each agent for each county in which he may do business, and no additional occupation tax shall be levied by any county, city or town in this state.

Sec. 29. Credit associations.—From each person, party, partnership or corporation engaged in the business of inquiring into and reporting upon the credit or standing of persons engaged in business in this state, or acting as agent or business manager in this state for any such person, party, partnership, joint stock association, or corporation, three hundred dollars; and provided, further, that no county, city or town shall levy or collect any occupation tax upon or from any such person, party, partnership, joint stock association, or corporation. The payment of this tax, evidenced by the receipt of the comptroller of public accounts, shall exempt the company or party paying the same from the payment of this tax in any other county; and payment of such tax shall not be required of any sub-agent or correspondent of the party or company carrying on such business in this state.

Sec. 30. Skating rinks.—From each and every owner or keeper of any skating rink used for profit, twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 31. Ball parks.—From every manager of a base ball park in a city or town containing five thousand or more inhabitants, where an admission fee is charged, twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 32. Ice dealers.—From each person or corporation, who are wholesale dealers, selling imported or home-made ice to the trade to be sold again, in cities and towns of twenty thousand inhabitants, or more, fifty dollars; in cities and towns of less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or more than ten thousand inhabitants, thirty dollars; in cities and towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, and more than five thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars; in cities and towns of less than five thousand inhabitants, ten dollars.

Sec. 33. Race tracks.—From every owner or manager of every race track, one mile or more in length, used for profit, one hundred dollars; from each owner or manager of every race track, one-half mile or less in length, fifty dollars per annum; provided, this shall not apply to race tracks owned by private individuals and used only for training purposes, or in connection with agricultural fairs and expositions.

Sec. 34. Street car companies.—From every street car company in this state, two dollars per mile on each mile of track owned by said company or corporation.

Sec. 35. Phonographs, etc.—From each owner or manager of every phonographic, electric battery, graphophone or other like machines or instruments, where a fee is charged, an annual tax of twenty-five dollars; provided, that when an electric battery is used by a regularly authorized physician on a patient no tax shall be charged.

Sec. 36. Moving picture shows.—From each owner or keeper of every kinesiograph, cinematograph or similar machine or instrument used for profit, which shows the life-like motions of persons or animals, an annual occupation tax of twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 37. Panorama or view shows.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every panorama or view show, used for profit, exhibiting in a wagon, room, tent or elsewhere, an annual occupation tax of ten dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars per annum. A panorama or view show, in the meaning of this act, is a show exhibiting pictures, statuary or other works of art which are to be viewed through stereoscopic or magnifying lenses.

Sec. 38. Medicine shows, etc.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every show or company of persons giving exhibitions of music, songs, recitations, sleight of hand, gymnastic, dancing or other kinds of performances in a tent, house or elsewhere, which said exhibitions are used for profit by sale of medicines, electric belts or other articles of value, whether charge is made only for seats or not, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars and fifty cents for every such performance or exhibition; provided, this tax shall not be assessed when these performances are given inside the grounds of any state or county fair during the time that said state or county fair is giving its annual exhibition.

Sec. 39. Brokers.—From every person, firm or association of persons selling on commission, if in a city of more than ten thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; if in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars. This article is intended to cover every person, firm or association of persons selling on samples only, and who do not carry any stock of merchandise or anything else on hand; provided, that this tax shall not apply to commercial travelers or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade from merchants.

Sec. 40. Cigarette dealers.—From all dealers in cigarettes in this state, the sum of ten dollars per annum, a cigarette being within the meaning of this act the same as defined by the laws of the United States government; provided, that this tax shall be in addition to the occupation tax levied on merchants, and any other tax levied under the law; and provided, further, that each dealer shall be required to procure an annual license from the county clerk of the county where he proposes to sell cigarettes, which shall be granted for no shorter or longer period than one year; and provided, further, that the license shall describe the house and locality where the dealer proposes to sell cigarettes. [Acts 1897, 1 S. S., p. 49.]

Art. 7356. Tax on dealers in cannon crackers, etc.—There shall be levied upon every person, firm or corporation engaged in the occupation of selling cannon crackers, or toy pistols used for shooting or exploding cartridges, within this state, an annual tax of five hundred dollars, and counties and incorporated cities or towns in which such business shall be located shall have the power to levy a tax of one-half the above amount as now provided by law in addition to the above tax, and such person, firm or corporation so selling such cannon crackers shall be required to pay an additional tax in the above amount and take out an additional license for each separate establishment or place in which such cannon crackers shall be sold. By the term, "cannon cracker," is meant any fire cracker or other combustible package more than two inches in length, and more than one inch in circumference commonly sold and exploded for purposes of amusement. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prohibit the sale of or to place a tax on the sale of cartridges, combustible packages or explosives commonly used for fire arms or artillery, mining, excavating earth or stone, scientific purposes or for any public or private work. [Act 1909, p. 174.]

Art. 7357. [5050] County ad valorem, etc.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state shall have the power to levy, for county revenue purposes, a tax of one-fourth of one per cent, and, for roads and bridges, fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property subject to a state tax by the provisions of this title; and, for the payment of debts incurred prior to September, 1883, and for the erection of public buildings and other permanent improvements, they shall have power to levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year; and, for the improvement of public roads, a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation under the restrictions provided in chapter seven of title ninety-seven, and shall have power to levy a special tax for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection within each school district of school buildings therein in counties not exempt from the district school system; provided, that two-thirds of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, and shall have the right to levy one-half of the occupation tax levied by the state upon all occupations not herein otherwise specially exempted; provided, any one wishing to pursue any of the vocations named in this chapter, upon which a county occupation tax may be levied, may do so by paying the same quarterly; and provided, further, the receipt of the proper officer under seal shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such taxes as are herein named; and provided, further, the provisions of this law shall not be deemed to affect the provisions of any law specially authorizing any commissioners' court to levy a different rate of tax; and provided, further, no person shall be allowed license for selling intoxicating or spirituous liquors, or for keeping any nine or ten pin alley, or billiard, bagatelle, pigeon-hole, jenny-lind, devil-among-the-tailors table, or anything of the kind used for profit, for a period of less than twelve months; and provided, further, the mayor and board of aldermen of any incorporated town or city shall in no case levy a greater tax on any occupation than that authorized by this chapter to be levied by the county commissioners' court; and be it further provided, that in all cases where any dealer in merchandise, wares or goods of any kind, subject to ad valorem or occupation taxes, or both, under the provisions of this law, who shall after the rendition of said merchandise, wares or goods for taxation, or after becoming liable for any occupation tax, become bankrupt or make assignment of said merchandise, wares or goods, then the collector of taxes shall at once present to the receiver or assignee of said dealer for payment of the amount due for said taxes by said dealer; and in case of failure of said receiver or assignee to at once pay the amount of said taxes, the said collector shall levy upon, seize and sell from the said merchandise, wares or goods, enough to satisfy the amount of said taxes; and said taxes until paid shall constitute a prior lien on said merchandise, goods and wares in default of said taxes. [Acts of 1885, p. 105. Acts of 1891, p. 51.]

Art. 7358. [5051] Taxes payable in what.—The taxes herein levied by this chapter are hereby made payable in the currency or coin of the United States; provided, that persons holding scrip issued to themselves for services rendered the county may pay their county ad valorem taxes in such scrip. [Act 1897, 1 S. S., p. 38.]

Art. 7359. [5052] Collector to keep books, etc.—The collector of taxes shall keep a book of such size and character as may be necessary, in which shall be entered quarterly, at the following dates, to-wit, January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1, or within ten days thereafter, in which to require the returns to be made under the provisions of this chapter, the several amounts as shown by such returns for which and upon which any person, firm or association of persons is or may be liable to a tax upon occupations under article 7355; and within fifteen days from the time of receiving and making up the several amounts and the sums due upon such amounts as occupation tax, the collector shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts a transcript or duplicate of the return and the amount as shown by his record, this transcript and record from which it is taken to show the amount of such quarterly returns and the tax due thereon from every person, firm or association of persons liable to such tax; provided, that nothing contained in this article is intended to affect the liability, which, in the absence of this statute, would be incurred under any special enactment of this state. [Acts of 1879, p. 143.]

Art. 7360. [5053] Tax collector to be furnished books, etc.—The comptroller of public accounts shall be authorized and required to furnish tax collectors the necessary books and blanks required to be used by such collectors under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7361. [5054] Tax to be paid before occupation begins.—The payment of the specific tax herein provided for shall be required by the collector of taxes to be made before any person, firm or association of persons shall be allowed to engage in any occupation requiring a license under the provisions of this law, this payment to be made for a period not less than three months. All arrearages of taxes that may be due by reason of any such business having been carried on shall be a lien upon all the stock and fixtures owned or used in or making a part of any business or vocation liable to such tax under the provisions of this chapter, and which lien shall authorize the collector to sell, after due notice, so much stock or other personal property of any person, firm or association of persons owing taxes under the provisions of this chapter, as will satisfy such claim, together with the cost of such proceeding. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7362. [5055] Occupation tax receipts furnished collectors.—The comptroller shall cause occupation tax receipts for each occupation to be printed, with his signature, for all occupations payable to the collectors, annual receipts for those that are paid annually, and quarterly receipts for all that can be paid quarterly; such receipts shall state the name of the occupation and the amount of the tax, and have blanks for the year, month and name of licensee, and also have a blank space for signature of the collector; these receipts shall each have a stub attached, stating briefly the substance of the attached receipt, and shall be bound in books; and he shall forward to each collector a proper number of said receipts, and charge him with the amount represented therein, and cause him to account therefor. The collector, whenever collecting any occupation tax, shall fill the blanks in the receipt and stub by writing thereon the time for which he collects and the name of the licensee, and shall sign the receipt and stub officially; and no person shall pursue any occupation, unless he has a receipt, signed as herein provided, by the comptroller and collector; and every person, firm or corporation keeping an office or having a local place of business shall keep posted up in a conspicuous place his or their said licenses. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7363. Account of occupation tax receipts by collectors.—When the comptroller furnishes collectors with blank occupation tax receipts, he shall furnish the commissioners' courts with the numbers and value of the receipts furnished to their respective collectors; and such courts shall charge their respective collectors with the number and such proportion of the value of the receipts so furnished as shall apply to the county tax, when such collectors shall make their settlements with the comptroller. The comptroller shall furnish the commissioners' court with the numbers and value of the receipts returned, and with the amount of the occupation taxes collected by their respective collectors. [Act 1897, 1 S. S., p. 49, sec. 2.]

Art. 7364. [5056] License, transfer of.—Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, who shall be the legal owners or holders of any unexpired occupation license issued in accordance with the laws of this state, shall be and are hereby authorized to transfer the same on the books of the officer by whom the same was issued. [Acts of 1885, p. 27, sec. 1.]

Art. 7365. [5057] Purchaser of unexpired license may pursue occupation, when, etc.—The assignee or purchaser of such unexpired occupation license shall be authorized to pursue such occupation under such unexpired license for and during the unexpired term thereof; provided, that such assignee or purchaser shall, before following such occupation, comply in all other respects with all the requirements of the law provided for in original applications for such licenses; and provided, further, that nothing in this law shall be so construed as to authorize two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons to follow the same occupation under one license at the same time; and provided, further, that whenever any person, firm, corporation or association of persons following an occupation shall be closed out by legal process, the occupation license shall be deemed an asset of said person, firm, corporation or association of persons, and sold as other property belonging to said person, firm, corporation or association; and the purchaser thereof shall have the right to pursue the occupation named in said license, or transfer it to any other person; provided, such occupation license shall under no circumstances be transferred more than one time. [Id. sec. 2.]

REVENUE AGENT.

Art. 7366. [5058] Powers and duties of state revenue agent.—The governor is authorized to appoint a suitable person as revenue agent for the state, for the purpose of securing a better enforcement of the revenue laws of the state. The agent provided for herein shall be known as the state revenue agent. Said revenue agent shall be subject to the directions of the governor, who may, whenever in his judgment the public service demands it, direct the said revenue agent to investigate books and accounts of the assessing and collecting officers of this state, and all officers and persons disbursing, receiving or having in their possession public funds, and to make such other investigations and perform such other duties in the interest of the public revenues as the governor may direct. Whenever any such investigation is ordered by the governor, the revenue agent shall report to him in writing the results of such investigation, and point out the particulars, if any, wherein the revenue laws have been violated, their enforcement neglected, together with the names of the parties delinquent therein. Whereupon the governor shall institute civil and criminal proceedings through the attorney general in the name of the state against such delinquent parties who are reported by such agent to be delinquent. Said revenue agent shall have power at any time to examine and check up all and any disbursements or expenditures of money appropriated for any of the state institutions or for any other purpose or for improvements made by the state on state property or money received and disbursed by any board authorized by law to receive and disburse any state money. Said revenue agent shall also have power and authority, and it is hereby made his duty, to fully investigate any and all state institutions when so directed by the governor or required by information coming to the knowledge of said agent. He shall investigate the manner of conducting the same and the policy pursued by those in charge thereof, and the conduct or efficiency of any person employed therein by the state. He shall examine into and report upon the character and manner as well as the amount of expenditures thereof. He shall also investigate and ascertain all sums of money due the state from any source whatever, the ascertainment and collection of which does not devolve upon other officers of this state under existing law; and he shall report all such facts to the governor, who shall proceed therein as provided by this or any other law of this state. [Acts 1891, p. 87, amended Act 1899, p. 26.]

Art. 7367. [5059] Shall have access to books, etc.—When said revenue agent, acting under the direction of the governor, calls on any person connected with the public service to inspect his accounts, records or books, said officers or official so called upon shall submit to said agent all books, records and accounts so called for without delay. [Id.]

Art. 7368. [5060] Compensation, etc.—Said revenue agent shall receive as compensation for his services not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, together with his actual traveling expenses, which shall be paid on the approval of the same by the governor; provided, said revenue agent shall not be allowed traveling expenses for any service connected with the examination and investigation of the accounts of any institution in Travis county. [Id.]

Article 7369. Express companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association doing an express business, by railroad or water, in this state, shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from charges and freights within this state paid to or collected by such individual, company, corporation or association on account of money, goods, merchandise or other character of freight carried within this state during the twelve months next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations or associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the year beginning on said date equal to two and one-half per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Act 1907, p. 479, sec. 1.]

Art. 7370. Telegraph companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, controlling or managing any telegraph lines in this state, or owning, operating, controlling or managing what is known as wireless telegraph stations, for the transmission of messages, or aerograms and charging for the transmission of such messages or aerograms, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual, or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such companies, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this state during the preceding quarter, in the payment of telegraphic or aerograms charges, including the amount received on full rate messages and aerograms and half rate messages and aerograms, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within the state during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two and three-fourths per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7371. Gas, electric lights, power or waterworks.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating or managing or controlling any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks or water and light plant, within this state and charging for gas, electric lights, electric power or water, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from the business done within this state in the payment of charges for gas, electric lights, electric power and water for the quarter next preceding. Said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report for any town or city of ten thousand inhabitants and less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-fourth of one per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report; and, for any town or city of twenty-five thousand inhabitants or more, the said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; provided, that nothing herein shall apply to any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks or water and light plant within this state owned by any city or town. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7372. Collecting or commercial agency.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating, managing or controlling any collecting agency, commercial agency, or commercial reporting credit agency within this state, and charging for collections made, or business done, or reports made, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing from business done within this state the gross amount received in the payment of charges for collections made and business done and reports made during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations or associations at the time of making said report shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7373. Car companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, residing without the state of Texas, or incorporated under the laws of any other state or territory, or nation, and owning stock cars, refrigerator and fruit cars of any kind, tank cars of any kind, coal cars of any kind, furniture cars or common box cars and flat cars, and leasing, renting or charging mileage for the use of such cars within the state of Texas, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, and report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from such rentals, or mileage, or from other sources of revenue received from business done within this state, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies and corporations, and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to three per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7374. Pipe line companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this state, or of any other state or territory, or of the United States, or of any foreign nation, which owns, manages, operates, leases or rents any pipe line or pipe lines within this state, whether such pipe line or pipe lines be used for transmission of oil, natural or artificial gas, whether such oil or gas be for illuminating or fuel purposes, or for steam, for heat or power, or for any other purpose, and whether such pipe line or pipe lines be used for the transmission of articles by pneumatic or other power, shall, on or before the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, pay to the state of Texas an occupation tax equal to two per cent of its gross receipts, if such pipe line or pipe lines lie wholly within this state; and, if such pipe line or pipe lines lie partly within and partly without the state, such individuals, companies, corporations and associations shall pay a tax equal to two per cent of such proportion of its gross receipts, as the length of such line or lines within the state bears to the whole length of such line or lines; provided, that if satisfactory evidence is submitted to the comptroller of public accounts at any time prior to the date fixed by this article for the payment of the tax herein imposed, that any other proportion more fairly represents the proportion which the gross receipts of any pipe line or pipe lines for any quarter within this state bears to its total gross receipts, it shall be his duty to collect for such quarter from every such pipe line or pipe lines a tax equal to such other proportion of two per cent of its total gross receipts. For the purpose of determining the amount of such tax, the individual or the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, association or corporation, shall quarterly, on the dates aforesaid, make a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross receipts of such pipe line or pipe lines from every source whatsoever for the quarter next preceding, and shall immediately pay to the state treasurer an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date, calculated on the gross receipts so reported. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7375. Sleeping, palace or dining car companies.—Every sleeping car company, palace car company, or dining car company doing business in this state, and each individual, company, corporation or association leasing or renting, owning, controlling or managing any palace cars, dining cars, or sleeping cars within this state for the use of the public, for which any fare is charged, shall, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts earned from any and all sources whatever within this state, except from receipts derived from buffet service, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to five per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. The tax herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other taxes now levied upon sleeping car, palace car or dining car companies, except the tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars of the capital stock of such car companies as provided by law. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7376. Insurance companies.—Every fire, fire and marine, marine, and marine inland insurance company, and every life and accident, life and health, accident, credit, title, steam boiler, live stock, fidelity, guaranty, surety, and casualty company, and all other insurance companies doing business in this state, except fraternal life and domestic benevolent life insurance companies, and life insurance companies, at the time of filing its annual statement, shall report to the commissioner of insurance and banking the gross amount of premiums received in the state upon property located in the state, and from persons residing in this state, during the preceding year; and each of such companies shall pay an annual tax upon such gross premium receipts as follows: All companies enumerated above shall pay a tax of two per cent of such gross premiums; provided, that any company doing life insurance business in connection with any other class of insurance enumerated shall pay the same tax upon the gross receipts from life insurance of a company conducting a purely life insurance business; and the gross premium receipts are understood to be a premium receipt reported to the commissioner of insurance and banking by the insurance companies upon the sworn statement of two principal officers of such companies. Upon receipt by him of sworn statements showing the gross premium receipts by such companies, the commissioner shall certify to the state treasurer the amount of taxes due by each company, which tax shall be paid to the state treasurer for the use of the state, on or before the first of March following, whose receipt shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes; and no insurance company shall receive a permit to do business in this state until such taxes are paid. And if any such insurance company shall have as much as one-fourth of its entire assets, as shown by said sworn statement, invested in any or all of the following securities: Real estate in the state of Texas, bonds of the state or of any county, incorporated city or town of this state, or other property in this state in which by law such companies may invest their funds, then the annual tax of any such companies shall be one per cent of its said gross premium receipts; and, if any such company shall invest as aforesaid as much as one-half of its assets, then the annual tax of such company shall be one-half of one per cent of its gross premium receipts, as above defined; and provided, further, that no occupation tax shall be levied on insurance companies, herein subjected to a gross premium receipt tax, by any county, city or town; provided also that all mutual fraternal benevolent associations, now or hereafter doing a life insurance, or a life and accident insurance business in this state under the lodge system and on the assessment plan, whether organized under the laws of this state, or a foreign state or country, are exempt from the provisions of this article. The taxes aforesaid shall constitute all taxes and license fees collectible under the laws of this state against any such insurance companies; and no occupation or other taxes shall be levied on or collected from any insurance company by any county, city or town, but this law shall not be construed to prohibit the levy and collection of state, county and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such companies; provided, that this shall not relieve agents from paying an occupation tax; provided, further, that purely co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property and not for profit shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7377. Wholesale dealer in oils; "wholesale dealer" defined.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association created by the laws of this state, or any other state or nation, which shall engage in his own name, or in the name of others, or in the name of its representatives, or agents in this state in the business of wholesale dealers in coal oil, naphtha, benzine or any other mineral oils refined from petroleum, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount collected and uncollected from any and all sales made within this state of any of said articles during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two per cent of said gross receipts and amount uncollected from said sales as shown by said report. A wholesale dealer, within the meaning of this article, is any individual, company, firm, partnership, corporation or association who buys any of the articles hereinbefore mentioned, either in his own name or in the name of others, or in the name of their representative or agent, and sells same either in his name, or in the name of others, or in the name of their representatives or agents, to any person, firm, corporation or association to be sold again. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7378. Interurban and electric railway companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating or controlling any interurban, trolley, traction or electric street railway in this state and charging for transportation on said railway, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from said charges for transportation on said railway paid to or uncollected by said individuals, company, corporation or association for the quarter next preceding. Said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report, if in or if connecting any town or city of less than twenty thousand inhabitants, shall pay to the treasurer of the state as an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; if in a city of more than twenty thousand inhabitants, said individual, company or corporation or association, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to three-fourths of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; provided, that in ascertaining the population of any city or town, the same shall be ascertained by the last United States census; and provided, further, that where any interurban railroad shall connect any town having a population of more than twenty thousand with another of a less population, that it shall be liable for the taxes measured by the population of the largest town; provided, further, that the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any street railway or traction company wholly within any town of less than ten thousand inhabitants. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7379. Wholesale dealers in or distributors of liquors; "wholesale dealer" defined.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association created by the laws of this state or any other state, who shall engage in his own name or in the name of others, or in the name of its representatives or agents in this state, in the business of a wholesale dealer or a wholesale distributor of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount collected and uncollected from any and all sales made within this state of any of said articles during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date, equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts from said sale as shown by said report. A wholesale dealer or distributor, within the meaning of this article, is any individual, company, association or corporation selling any of the articles hereinbefore mentioned, either in his own or in the name of others, or in the name of its representatives or agents, to retail dealers, or who deliver on consignment to their agents for retail. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7380. Dealers in pistols.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association created by the laws of this state or any other state, who shall engage in his own name or in the name of others, or in the names of its representatives or agents in this state, in the business of a wholesale or retail dealer of pistols, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of said company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount collected and uncollected from any and all sales made within this state of all such firearms during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to fifty per cent of said gross receipts from sales of all firearms as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7381. Text or law book publishers.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this state, or of any other state or nation, engaged in publishing, printing, or selling text books used in the schools of this state, or law books of any character, or owning, controlling or managing any such business, as text books or law book purchasers, within the state or out of it, and having state agencies within this state for the purpose of selling any book or books to be used in any of the schools of this state, or any law books, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, or of the person owning, controlling or managing any such business, showing the gross amount received from such business done within this state from any and all sources during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7382. Telephone companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, managing or controlling any telephone line or lines or any telephones within this state, and charging for the use of the same, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this state during the preceding quarter, in the payment of charges for the use of its line or lines, telephone and telephones, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within this state during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax, for the quarter beginning on said date, equal to one and one-half per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7383. Oil well companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other state or territory, or of the United States, or any foreign country, which owns, controls, manages or leases any oil well within this state, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the total amount of oil produced during the quarter next preceding and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of the total amount of all oil produced, at the average market value thereof, as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7384. Terminal companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other state, or territory, or of the United States, or any foreign country, which owns, controls, manages or leases any terminal companies, or any railroad doing a terminal business within this state, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the comptroller of public accounts, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever within this state, during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the treasurer of the state of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever, as shown by said report. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7385. Tax to be paid when business is begun after beginning of quarter.—If any individual, company, corporation, firm or association, in this chapter mentioned, shall begin and engage in any business for which there is an occupation tax herein imposed, on or after the beginning day of the quarter for which said tax is imposed, then, and in all such cases, the amount of such tax for said beginning quarter shall be and is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty dollars, payable to the treasurer of the state of Texas in advance, but for the next succeeding quarter, and all other succeeding quarters, the tax shall be determined by reports to the comptroller of public accounts of the business for the preceding quarter, or part thereof, as herein otherwise in this chapter provided; and reports and payments of such tax shall be made subject to all other provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 7386. Penalty for failure to report.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to make report for thirty days from the date when said report is required by this chapter to be made, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a penalty of not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7387. Penalty for failure to pay tax.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to pay any tax for thirty days from the date when said tax is required by this chapter to be paid, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas a penalty of ten per cent upon the amount of such tax. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7388. Penalties to be recovered by attorney general.—The penalties provided for by this chapter shall be recovered by the attorney general in a suit brought by him in the name of the state of Texas; and venue and jurisdiction of such suit is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis county, Texas. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 7389. Permit not granted until tax is paid.—No individual, company, corporation or association, failing to pay all taxes imposed by this chapter, shall receive a permit to do business in this state, or continue to do business in the state, until the tax hereby imposed is paid. The receipt of the treasurer of the state of Texas shall be evidence of the payment of such tax. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 7390. Tax in addition to all other taxes.—Except as herein stated, all taxes levied by this chapter shall be in addition to all other taxes now levied by law; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing any county or city to levy an occupation tax on the occupations and business taxed by this chapter. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7391. Comptroller may require additional reports.—If for any reason the comptroller of public accounts is not satisfied with any report from any such person, company, corporation, co-partnership or association, he may require additional or supplemental reports containing information and data upon such matters as he may need or deem necessary to ascertain the true and correct amount of all taxes due by any such person, firm, or corporation. Every statement or report required by this chapter shall have affixed thereto the affidavit of the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer of the person, corporation, co-partnership or association, or one of the persons or members of the partnership making the same, to the effect that the statement is true. The comptroller shall prepare blanks to be used in making the reports required by this chapter. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 7392. Revenue agent to examine books, etc.—If the comptroller has reason to believe, or does believe, that any individual, company, corporation, association, receiver or receivers, subject to the provisions of this chapter, has made a false return or has failed or omitted to make a full return of gross receipts, or other statement of business done, required by any of the provisions of this chapter, he shall report the same in writing to the governor; and it shall be the duty of the governor to immediately require the revenue agent of the state of Texas to examine any books, papers, documents, or other records or evidence showing or tending to show such unlawful act or omission. Said revenue agent shall check the report made with such books, papers, documents or other records or evidence, and make his report to the comptroller; and, if it appears from said report that any false or incorrect return has been made, or that any individual, or the president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or any member of any firm required by this chapter to make reports, has failed or omitted to make a full return, as required by law, then the comptroller shall notify such individual, or the president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or receiver or receivers of any company, corporation or association, or any member of any firm, to make forthwith an additional or supplemental report; and, if any such individual or the president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or any member of a firm, or any receiver or receivers of any company, corporation or association making said original report, shall fail or refuse to make said additional or supplemental report, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code; and venue of such prosecution is fixed in Travis county, Texas. If it appears from the report of the state revenue agent, or if the comptroller has reason to believe or does believe, that any individual, or any president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or any receiver of any corporation or association, or any member of any firm, has wilfully and deliberately made a false report, the comptroller shall report the matter to the grand jury of Travis county, Texas, for its action; and venue of any offense arising out of such transaction is hereby fixed in Travis county, Texas. Said state revenue agent, in the performance and discharge of the duties imposed upon him by this article, shall have the right to examine, either by himself or by any person acting under his direction, any books, papers, documents, records or evidence which he may believe material and proper to examine. [Id. sec. 24.]

Article 7393. Tax to be paid by domestic corporations.—Except as herein provided, each and every private domestic corporation heretofore chartered, or that may hereafter be chartered, under the laws of this state, shall on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the secretary of state a franchise tax for the year following, which shall be computed as follows, viz: Fifty cents on each one thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the authorized capital stock of such corporation, unless the total amount of capital stock of such corporation issued and outstanding, plus its surplus and undivided profits, shall exceed its authorized capital stock; and in that event the franchise tax of such corporation for the year following shall be fifty cents on each one thousand dollars of capital stock of such corporations issued and outstanding, plus its surplus and undivided profits; provided, that such franchise tax shall not in any case be less than ten dollars; provided, that, where the authorized capital exceeds one million dollars, such franchise tax shall be fifty cents for each one thousand dollars up to and including one million dollars, and for each additional one thousand dollars, in excess of one million dollars, it shall be twenty-five cents. [Act 1907, p. 503, sec. 1.]

Art. 7394. Tax to be paid by foreign corporations.—Except as herein provided, each and every foreign corporation, authorized, or that may hereafter be authorized to do business in this state, shall on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the secretary of state a franchise tax for the year following, which shall be computed as follows, viz: One dollar on each one thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the authorized capital stock of the corporation up to and including one hundred thousand dollars, and two dollars on each five thousand dollars or fractional part thereof of such stock in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and up to and including one million dollars, and two dollars on each twenty thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of such stock in excess of one million dollars, and up to and including ten million dollars, and two dollars on each fifty thousand dollars of such stock in excess of ten million dollars, unless the total amount of the capital stock of such corporation issued and outstanding, plus its surplus and undivided profits, shall exceed its authorized capital stock; and in that event the franchise tax of such corporation for the year following shall be two dollars on each one thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the authorized capital stock of such corporation, issued and outstanding, plus its surplus and undivided profits, up to and including one hundred thousand dollars, and two dollars on each five thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of such stock, surplus and undivided profits in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and up to and including one million dollars, and two dollars on each twenty thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of such stock, surplus and undivided profits in excess of one million dollars, and up to and including ten million dollars, and two dollars on each fifty thousand dollars of such stock, surplus and undivided profits in excess of ten millions dollars; provided, that such franchise tax shall not in any case be less than twenty-five dollars. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7395. Only part of tax to be paid, when.—Whenever a private domestic corporation is chartered in this state, and whenever a foreign corporation is authorized to do business in this state, and such corporation shall be required to pay in advance to the secretary of state, as its franchise tax from that time down to and including the thirtieth day of April next following, only such proportionate part of its annual franchise tax, as hereinabove prescribed, as the period of time between the date of filing of its articles of incorporation or the issuance of its permit to do business, as the case may be, and on the first day of May next following, bears to a calendar year. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7396. Certain affidavits may be required.—For the purpose of determining the amount of the first franchise tax payment required by this chapter of any domestic corporation which may be hereafter chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter apply for a permit to do business within this state, and also for the purpose of determining the correctness of any report which is provided for in this chapter, the secretary of state may, whenever he may deem it necessary or proper to protect the interests of the state, require any one or more of the officers of such corporations to make and file in the office of the secretary of state an affidavit or affidavits in writing, which shall be subscribed by such officer, and by him sworn to before some officer who is by law duly authorized to administer oaths, and verified by his seal of office, setting forth fully the facts concerning the amount of the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such domestic or foreign corporation; and until the secretary of state shall be fully satisfied as to the amount of such surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, he shall not file the articles of incorporation of such proposed domestic corporation, or issue such permit, or accept such franchise tax. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7397. Reports to be filed, etc.—For the purpose of ascertaining and determining the amount of any annual franchise tax prescribed by this chapter, excepting only the first tax to be paid by any domestic corporation which may hereafter be chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter be authorized to do business in this state, the president, vice-president, general manager, secretary, treasurer and superintendent of each and every domestic or foreign corporation embraced within the provisions of this chapter, shall annually and between the first and tenth days of March, and also whenever called upon by the secretary of state to do so, report to the secretary of state, in writing, and under oath, as required by the preceding article, the total amounts of the capital stock issued and outstanding, and the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such corporation on the first day of March next preceding; and the secretary of state may ascertain such facts from other sources; and, if the true aggregate of such amounts shall exceed the authorized capital stock of such corporation as disclosed by its then current original or amended articles of incorporation, the amount of its annual franchise tax for the year beginning the first day of May next thereafter shall be thereon collected and paid; otherwise, its annual franchise tax shall be calculated and paid upon the amount of its authorized capital stock as shown by its aforesaid original or amended articles of incorporation. The making and filing by any one of such officers of such corporation of the record required by this article shall relieve the other officers of such corporation from the duty of making any report required by this article, except such report or reports as may be required by the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7398. Supplemental tax to be paid when capital increased.—In the event of increase in the authorized capital stock of any domestic or foreign corporation, it shall also pay in advance a supplemental franchise tax thereon for the remainder of the year down to and including the thirtieth day of April next thereafter, the amount of which shall be determined as is provided in article 7395 in case of the first franchise tax payment to be made under this chapter by a domestic corporation which may be hereafter authorized to do business within this state. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7399. Failure to pay tax; charter forfeited, when; penalty.—Any corporation, either domestic or foreign, which shall fail to pay any franchise tax provided for in this chapter when the same shall become due and payable under the provisions of this chapter, shall thereupon become liable to a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount of such franchise tax due by such corporation; and, if the amount of such tax and penalty be not paid in full on or before the first day of July thereafter, such corporation shall for such default forfeit its right to do business in this state; which forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the secretary of state entering upon the margin of the record kept in his office relating to such corporation, the words, "right to do business forfeited," and the date of such forfeiture; and any corporation whose right to do business shall be thus forfeited shall be denied the right to sue or defend in any other courts of this state, except in a suit to forfeit the charter of such corporation; and, in any suit against such corporation on a cause of action arising before such forfeiture, no affirmative relief shall be granted to such corporation, unless its right to do business in this state shall be revived as provided by this chapter. And each and every director and officer of any corporation whose right to do business within this state shall be so forfeited shall, as to any and all debts of such corporation which may be created or incurred, with his knowledge, approval and consent, within this state, after such forfeiture by any such directors or officers, and before the revival of the right of such corporation to do business, be deemed and held liable thereon in the same manner and to the same extent as if such directors and officers of such corporation were partners. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7400. Notice of forfeiture.—The secretary of state shall, during the month of May of each year, notify each domestic and foreign corporation which may be or become subject to a franchise tax under any law of this state, which has failed to pay such franchise tax on or before the first day of May, that unless such overdue tax together with said penalty thereon shall be paid on or before the first day of July next following, the right of such corporation to do business in this state will be forfeited without judicial ascertainment. Such notice may be either written or printed and shall be verified by the seal of the office of the secretary of state, and shall be addressed to such corporation and mailed to the postoffice named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to any other known place of business of such corporation; and a record of the date of mailing such notice shall be kept by the secretary of state. Such notice and said record thereof shall constitute legal and sufficient notice thereof for all the purposes of this chapter. Any corporation whose right to do business may have been forfeited, as provided in this chapter, shall be relieved from such forfeiture by paying the secretary of state any time within six months after such forfeiture the full amount of the franchise tax and penalty due by it, together with an additional amount of five per cent of such tax for each month, or fractional part of a month, which shall elapse after such forfeiture; provided, that such amount shall in no case be less than five dollars. When such tax and all such penalties shall be fully paid to the secretary of state, he shall revive and reinstate the right of the corporation to do business within this state by cancelling the words, "right to do business forfeited," upon his record and endorsing thereon the word, "revived," and the date of such revival. If any domestic corporation whose right to do business within this state shall hereafter be forfeited under the provisions of this chapter, shall fail to pay the secretary of state, on or before the first day of January next following the revival, amounts necessary to entitle it to have its right to do business revived under the provisions of this chapter, such failure shall constitute sufficient grounds for the forfeiture, by judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, of the charter of such domestic corporation. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7401. Foreign corporations may withdraw.—Should any foreign corporation which may have or hereafter obtain a permit to do business within this state desire at any time to withdraw from doing business in this state, it may surrender such permit to the secretary of state, who shall thereupon mark or stamp such permit, "surrendered," dating and signing same officially, and shall endorse upon the record of such permit in his office the word, "surrendered," and the date thereof; and thereafter such corporation may, by complying with the provisions of this chapter, secure a new permit to do business in this state without having made any further payment of franchise tax under such old permit. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7402. No business to be done after forfeiture; penalty.—In any and all cases in which the charter, or right to do business, of any private domestic corporation, heretofore or hereafter chartered under the laws of this state, or the permit of any foreign corporation, or its right to do business within this state, shall have been or shall hereafter be forfeited, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons who were or shall be stockholders, or officers, of such corporation at the time of such forfeiture to do business within this state, in or under the corporate name of such corporation, or to use signs or advertisements of such corporation or similar to the signs or advertisements which were used by such corporation before such forfeiture; and each and every person who may violate any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code; provided, the inhibition and penalties prescribed by this article shall not apply where the right of such corporation to do business within this state has been revived in the manner provided by law and is at the time in good standing. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7403. Certain corporations not required to pay tax, when.—The franchise tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to any insurance company, surety, guaranty or fidelity company, or any transportation company, or any sleeping, palace car and dining car company which now is required to pay an annual tax measured by their gross receipts, or to corporations having no capital stock and organized for the exclusive purpose of promoting the public interest of any city or town, or to corporations organized for the purpose of religious worship, or for providing places of burial not for private profit, or corporations organized for the purpose of holding agricultural fairs and encouraging agricultural pursuits, or for strictly educational purposes, or for purely public charity. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7404. Attorney general to bring suit, when.—The attorney general shall be authorized, and it shall be his duty, to bring suit therefor against any and all such corporations which may be or become subject to or liable for any and all franchise tax or taxes or penalties under this or any former law; and, in case there may now be or shall hereafter exist valid grounds for the forfeiture of the charter of any domestic private corporation, or failure to pay any franchise tax or franchise taxes or penalty or penalties to which it may have become or shall hereafter be or become subject or liable under this or former law, it shall be his duty to bring suit for a forfeiture of such charter; and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter by civil suits, venue is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis county concurrently with the courts of the county in which the principal office of such corporation may be located as shown by its articles or amended articles of incorporation. Such courts shall also have authority to restrain and enjoin a violation of any and all of the provisions of this chapter. In any and all cases in which any court having jurisdiction thereof shall make and enter judgment forfeiting the charter of any such corporation, the court may appoint a receiver thereof and may administer such receivership under the laws regulating receiverships. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7405. Forfeiture of charter by court; duty of clerk.—Upon the rendition by the district court of any judgment or forfeiture under the provisions of this chapter, the clerk of that court shall forthwith mail to the secretary of state a certified copy of such judgment; and, upon receipt thereof, he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the words, "judgment of forfeiture," and the date of such judgment. In event of an appeal from such judgment by writ of error or otherwise, the clerk of the court from which such appeal is taken shall forthwith certify to the secretary of state the fact that such appeal has been perfected, and he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the word, "appealed," and the date upon which such appeal was perfected. When final disposition of such appeal shall be made, the clerk of the court making such disposition thereof shall forthwith certify such disposition and the date thereof to the secretary of state, who shall briefly note same upon the record of such charter in his office and the date of such final disposition. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7406. Payment of tax by corporations in process of liquidation.—In case a corporation is actually in process of liquidation, such corporation shall only be required to pay a franchise tax calculated upon the difference between the amount of stock actually issued and the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid upon such stock; provided, that the president and secretary of such corporation shall make affidavit as to the total amount of capital stock issued and as to the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid and that such corporation is in an actual bona fide state of liquidation. Article 7407. State tax board, of whom composed; tax commissioner, appointment of.—There is hereby created a state tax board, which shall be composed of the comptroller of public accounts, the secretary of state and a third member, to be known as tax commissioner of the state of Texas. Except as herein otherwise provided, such tax commissioner shall be appointed by the governor in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 12 of article 4 of the constitution of Texas, and shall hold his office for two years and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, and shall receive an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars, in equal installments payable at the end of each month. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum to do business. A record of the proceedings of said board shall be kept at the state capitol, and shall be open to the inspection of the public. [Act 1909, p. 469.]

Art. 7408. Bond of tax commissioner.—Before the tax commissioner shall enter upon or proceed with the discharge of his official duties, he shall execute a bond payable to the state of Texas, at Austin, in Travis county, Texas, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties as such tax commissioner, and shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state, which bond and oath shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7409. Secretary.—The state [tax] board may employ for not more than four months in each year a secretary, who shall be an expert stenographer, and who shall receive for his services as secretary and stenographer a salary of one hundred dollars per month. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7410. Duties of board.—It shall be the duty of said tax board—

(a) To make such rules and regulations as said board shall deem proper with respect to its own meetings and procedure, and to effectually carry out the purposes for which said board is constituted.

(b) To examine all books, papers and accounts and to interrogate under oath, or otherwise, any and all persons whom said board, or any member thereof, may desire to examine for the purpose of obtaining or acquiring any and all information that may in any manner aid in securing a compliance with any tax law or revenue law of this state by any and all persons, companies, corporations or associations liable to taxation or to pay any license fee under any law of this state, which is now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted.

(c) To make diligent investigation and inquiry concerning the revenue laws and systems of other states and countries, so far as the same are made known by published reports, or statistics, or can be ascertained by correspondence with officers thereof; and, with the aid of information thus or otherwise obtained, together with experience and observation of the operation of the laws of this state, to recommend to the legislature at each regular session thereof, such amendments, changes or modifications of the laws of this state, and such additional laws as may to said board, or any member thereof, seem necessary or proper to remedy injustice or irregularity in taxation, and to facilitate the assessment of taxes and collection of public revenues.

(d) To report to the legislature, at each regular session thereof, the whole amount of state revenues collected in this state for all purposes, and the sources thereof, the amount of such revenues which may be lost to the state through failure to make collection and the cause of such losses, a summary of the proceedings of said board since the date of its last report, and such other matters concerning the public revenues as said board, or any member thereof, may deem to be of public interest. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7411. Same.—Said tax board, or any member thereof, or the state revenue agent under the direction of said board or of the governor of Texas, shall, at least once in each year, visit such counties of the state as said board, or the said governor, may direct, for the purpose of investigating into and aiding in the enforcement of all revenue laws of this state, and especially those concerning the rendition, assessment and collection of taxes. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7412. Powers of board.—Each member of said state tax board shall have power to administer oaths and to subpoena and examine witnesses, and to issue subpoenas duces tecum, and shall have access to and power to order the production before such board, or any member thereof, of any and all books, documents and papers which may be in the possession or under the control of any person, company, corporation or receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or bailee, whenever such board, or any member thereof, may consider same necessary or proper in the prosecution of any injury [inquiry] under or in the execution of any provision of this chapter; and all such process shall be served under the provisions of law governing the service of process in civil cases, in so far as applicable. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7413. Failure to obey subpoena; penalty.—Any person who shall disobey any such subpoena, or subpoena duces tecum, issued by any member of said board, or any such order of said board, or who shall fail or refuse to attend as by such subpoena directed, or to testify when so required to do so by any member of said board, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and may be punished therefor by said board under the provisions of laws applicable to the district courts in such cases. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7414. Tax on intangible assets; law applies to whom.—Each and every incorporated railroad company, ferry company, bridge company, turn-pike or toll company, doing business wholly or in part within the state of Texas, whether incorporated under the laws of this state, or of any other state, territory, or foreign country, and every other individual, company, corporation or association doing business of the same character in this state, in addition to the ad valorem taxes on intangible properties which are or may be imposed upon them, respectively, by law, shall pay an annual tax to the state, beginning with the first day of January of each year, on their intangible assets and property, and local taxes thereon to the counties in which its business is carried on; which additional tax shall be assessed and levied upon such intangible assets and property in the manner provided in this chapter. The county or counties in which such taxes are to be paid, and the manner of the apportionment of the same, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7415. Same.—Between the second day of January and the first day of March of each year, every individual, company, corporation and association embraced within the provisions of the next preceding article of this chapter, or coming within its scope and intent, shall make out and deliver into the possession of said tax commissioner a statement containing the information required of it by this chapter, which statement shall be duly verified by the affidavit of the individual, or one of the officers of the company, corporation or association in whose behalf it is made, or by the receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7416. Statement to contain what.—Each such statement shall show the following items and particulars as the same stood on the first day of January next preceding, to-wit:

(a) The name of the individual, company, corporation, or association making such statement; and the character of its business.

(b) If incorporated, the authority by which it was incorporated and the purposes of its incorporation as expressed in its original or amended articles of incorporation or articles of association.

(c) The locality of its principal office and the amount and kind of business done by it in this state and the total gross receipts derived from its business within this state, including a due proportion of its interstate business, if it has done any business of that character.

(d) Its total authorized capital stock and the number of shares thereof which have been issued and are outstanding, and the par face value of each such share, and the amount of the capital actually employed in the aforesaid business within the state.

(e) The market value of said shares of stock, or, if they have no market value, the actual value thereof.

(f) The assessed value and also the true value of all the tangible property owned by such individual, company, corporation or association in each county in this state and the total assessed value and also the true value thereof.

(g) The assessed value and also the true value of the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association, outside of this state, and not specifically used in the business of such individual, company, corporation or association, same to be given by states, and the total assessed value and also the true value of the same.

(h) A statement of each and every existing lien, mortgage or other charge upon the whole, or any part, of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association, and of the property thereby charged or encumbered, and of the amount of unpaid debt secured by each such mortgage, lien or charge, and of the interest charged thereon, and to what extent such interest has been paid, and of the true and fair market value of every such debt.

(i) A statement of the gross receipts and net income and earnings for the next preceding twelve months, including therein all interest on investments, and all rents, fruits, revenues and receipts from every source whatsoever, and a statement of the income used for repairs, and of the amounts used for betterments, and the amount used for extensions within that period of time.

(j) Every such railroad company shall also show in each statement made by it:

1. The total length of all lines of said company, whether within or without this state.

2. The total length of such lines as are within the state.

3. The length of its lines in each of the counties in this state into which its lines extend. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7417. Date of receipt to be endorsed on statement; board may demand additional statements.—The tax commissioner shall receive all tax statements rendered to him under the provisions of this chapter, and shall endorse upon each the date of receipt thereof, signing such endorsement officially. Said state tax board shall examine all such statements as soon as may be practicable; and, if said board shall deem any of them insufficient, or shall believe other or further information necessary or proper, said board shall at once demand of such individual, company or corporation, or association, such additional statements and such further information as it may think proper. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7418. Statements placed before board, when.—On the first Monday after the first day of March of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, said tax commissioner shall place before said state tax board all such statements, facts and information as may have come into its possession or knowledge under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7419. Duties and powers of board in passing upon statement.—Said state tax board shall thereupon carefully examine and consider the said statements, facts and information; and, if they deem it advisable to do so, shall hear evidence, and shall require such individual, company, corporation or association to make such additional reports, if any, as such board may deem proper, and shall otherwise secure further additional information so far as may be in their power, to show the true value of the properties aforesaid, and the true value of that portion of every such property which is situated within the state and within the respective counties thereof, sufficient to enable said board to make the preliminary estimate herein provided for; and, for that purpose as well as for the purpose of carrying into effect any and all the provisions of this chapter, said board, and each member thereof, may require and compel, as provided in this chapter, any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, and the officers and agents thereof, and such receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, assignees and bailees, to appear before such board at a time or times to be designated by said board, with any and all such books, papers, documents and information as said board may require, and to submit themselves to examination by said board. Upon consideration of such statements and information and such additional evidence, books, papers, documents and information, if any, said state tax board shall make in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, a preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment of the true value of the intangible property within this state, of each of said individuals, companies, corporations, or associations, and shall, on or before the thirty-first day of May of each year, by registered mail, notify each and every such individual, company, corporation, or association, receiver or assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding such property for the benefit of creditors, of such preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment, and the amounts thereof; and all such individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons shall have fifteen days from the time of mailing such notice by registered mail to appear before such state tax board, at Austin, in Travis county, Texas, on a date to be fixed in such notice, and request of such board a change or changes in such valuation and apportionment, or either, or a cancellation of such valuation and apportionment; and said individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons may appear before such board, in person or by attorney, or in person and by attorney, and introduce evidence. Said board may, upon its own motion, or upon the written request of any interested party, and each member of said board may summon, swear and examine witnesses under the same rules which govern the summoning, swearing and examination of witnesses in the district courts of this state; and such board shall have the same jurisdiction, authority and power, under the same penalties, to require the production and to secure the examination of any and all books, documents and papers of such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons as is now or may hereafter be conferred by the laws of this state upon the railroad commission of Texas. Upon or after such hearing, said board may change such valuation and apportionment, or either, or cancel such valuation and apportionment, as said board may deem just and proper in the premises. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7420. Same.—In so far as the other evidence and information adduced before said state tax board does not make it appear to the members of said board to be improper or unjust to do so, said board shall, in fixing the true value of the entire property of such individual, company, corporation or association embraced within the provisions of this chapter, take as a basis therefor the aggregate market or true value of all its shares of stock, adding thereto the aggregate market or true value of all indebtedness secured by any mortgage, lien or other charge upon its property or assets, and the sum so produced shall be deemed and treated as the true value of said entire property. And where the individual, company, corporation or association does business and has property, both within this state and outside of it, in ascertaining the true value of its property within this state, said tax board shall next ascertain from said statements, reports and evidence, if any, or otherwise, the true value, in the locality where the same is situated, of each such several pieces of real estate situated outside of this state, and of its other properties, if any, outside thereof, and not specifically used in the business of said individual, company, corporation or association, and the aggregate of said value shall be deducted from the gross value of the property as above ascertained; and the result of said deduction and the sum or value thereby obtained shall be deemed and treated as the true value of all property of such individual, company, corporation or association in actual use in its business. Said tax board shall then fix the true value of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this state, using as a basis and being guided so far as it shall not believe it unjust to do so, by the proportion which it finds to exist between the total lines or total receipts within this state and outside of it, and lines controlled or operated, or the receipts obtained, entirely within this state, so that there shall be apportioned to this state, as the true value of the property within its borders of each individual, company, corporation and association doing business within and outside of its limits, such proportion of the true value of all the property of such individual, company, corporation or association which is specifically used in its business, as is borne by its total lines or total receipts within this state when compared with the total lines or total receipts both inside and outside of the state of Texas. From the entire value of the property within this state, when ascertained as directed by this chapter, said state tax board shall deduct the true value of all the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this state, as so ascertained by said state tax board, and the residue and remainder of value shall be by said state tax board fixed, determined and declared as the true value of the intangible properties owned and held by such individual, company, corporation or association within this state. Said state tax board shall apportion the sum of the said total taxable values within this state to the counties in which such individual, company, corporation or association does business, in proportion to the amount of business done in and the receipts derived from each such county, except that, in case of a railroad company, the apportionment to each county shall be in proportion to the line or lines of such individual, company, corporation or association therein. In apportioning the value of the aforesaid properties, said state tax board shall have the right and it shall be its duty to make use of and consider all evidence which may be put before it and all material facts at its command; and, if it shall believe that some method of calculation other than that specifically prescribed in this chapter is necessary in order to produce just and lawful results, said board shall follow that method of calculation which it believes best calculated, under all circumstances, to bring about a just, fair, equitable and lawful valuation and apportionment of such property. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7421. Unincorporated companies and individuals; capital, how ascertained.—Whenever any person, or association of persons, not being a corporation, nor having a capital stock, shall engage in this state in any character of business embraced within the provisions of article 7414, then the capital and property, or the certificate or other evidences of the rights or interests of such person or association of persons engaged in such business, shall be deemed and treated as the capital stock of such person, or association of persons, for the purpose of taxation, and for all other purposes, under this chapter, and shall be estimated and valued; and the intangible property of such person or association of persons, when ascertained, shall be apportioned, distributed, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this chapter, in like manner as if such person or association of persons were a corporation; and each such person and association of persons shall, annually, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter, make the statements and reports and furnish and supply the information required by this act of the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations, and shall be subject in like manner as the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations to all the terms and provisions of this chapter, including penalties. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7422. Board to certify amount of intangible assets to assessors.—Thereafter, and not later than the twentieth day of June of each year, said state tax board shall make, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, a final valuation and apportionment of the intangible assets aforesaid, of each and every such individual, company, corporation and association, and shall, as soon after such twentieth day of June as practicable, certify to the tax assessor of each county in this state to which any portion of such intangible assets of any such individual, company, corporation or association is found by said board to be apportionable for taxation and so apportioned, the amount thereof, as fixed, determined and declared by said board, and thereunto apportioned by said board, together with the name and place of residence or place of business of the owner or owners of the property embraced in such valuation and apportionment; provided, that such final valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets, properly apportionable and apportioned by such state tax board to any unorganized county shall be by said board so certified to the tax collector of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. It shall be the duty of the tax assessor of such county, upon receiving such certificate or certificates of said state tax board, to place, set down and list, upon forms prescribed by the comptroller of public accounts for such purpose, upon the tax rolls of his county, and of each unorganized county which is attached to his county for judicial purposes, as the case may be, any and all such intangible assets, at the value so fixed, determined, declared and certified by said state tax board. Such county tax assessor shall extend and prorate upon said rolls the state and county taxes upon all such intangible assets in the same manner as taxes upon other property are extended and prorated. Said assessment, valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets so fixed, determined, declared and certified by such state tax board shall not be subject to review, modification or change by the tax assessor of such county, nor by the board of equalization of such county; and the state and county taxes thereon shall be collected by the tax collector of such county and accounted for by him in the same manner and under the same penalties as taxes upon other property. All state and county ad valorem taxes upon all intangible property in this state belonging to any individual, company, corporation or association embraced by this chapter, shall be assessed under its provisions and not otherwise; but ad valorem taxes upon all other property of any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations shall be assessed as is now or as may hereafter be provided by law. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7423. Failure of tax assessor to comply; penalty.—Any county tax assessor who shall violate or in any respect fail to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, and any member of any board of equalization and any county tax assessor who shall modify or change, or vote to modify or change, in any manner whatsoever the finding, valuation or apportionment of any of said intangible assets as so fixed, determined, declared and certified by said state tax board, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 7424. Failure to make statement, etc.; penalty.—Every individual, company, corporation and association, embraced within the provisions of this chapter, which shall fail to make any return, statement and report provided for by this chapter, within fifteen days after the day on which it is required by this chapter to be made, or to make any additional report or statement, or to furnish any additional information which may be required by said state tax board, or any member thereof, under the provisions of this chapter, within fifteen days after the mailing of a registered notice or demand therefor in writing, signed by any member of said board and addressed to such individual, company or corporation or association, at its proper postoffice address or principal place of business, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas not more than five thousand dollars, which amount may be recovered by suit which may be brought therefor in behalf of the state by the attorney general; and venue of such suits is hereby fixed within the county of Travis, in said state; and the courts of said county are hereby vested with jurisdiction of said causes. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7425. Receivers and trustees in bankruptcy to make reports, etc.—If the property of any such individual, company, corporation or association shall be in the hands of any receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding under any court, or for the benefit of any creditor or creditors, then the statements, reports, information, books and papers aforesaid shall be furnished by such receiver, assignee, trustee or other person, by some officer or agent acting under him, in the same manner and to the same extent as is hereinbefore provided in cases where an individual, company or association is in possession; and as to such receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy or other person, officer or agent, all of the provisions of this chapter, in so far as they are applicable, shall apply and govern. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7426. Persons complying with this chapter relieved of other taxes.—Whenever any individual, company, corporation or association, embraced within article 7414, shall pay in full, and within the year for which same may be assessed, all its state and county taxes for that year upon all its intangible properties as determined, fixed and assessed under the provisions of this chapter, such individual, company, corporation or association shall thereby be relieved from liability for and from payment of any and all occupation taxes measured by gross receipts for or accruing during that year under any law of this state; but no such individual, company, corporation or association shall be entitled to any such exemption, except for the year for which it shall, before same shall become delinquent, pay all its aforesaid intangible state and county taxes for that year. [Id. sec. 21.]

Article 7427. Tax to be collected.—There shall be collected from every person, firm or association of persons selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in this state, not located in any county, or subdivision of a county, justice precinct, city or town where local option is in force under the laws of Texas, an annual tax of three hundred and seventy-five dollars on each separate establishment as follows: For selling such liquors or medicated bitters in quantities of one gallon or less than one gallon, three hundred and seventy-five dollars; for selling such liquors or medicated bitters in quantities of one gallon or more than one gallon, three hundred and seventy-five dollars; provided, that in selling one gallon the same may be made up of different liquors in unbroken packages aggregating not less than one gallon; for selling malt liquors exclusively sixty-two dollars and fifty cents; provided, further, that nothing in this article shall be so construed as to exempt druggists who sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, on the prescription of a physician or otherwise, from the payment of the tax herein imposed; provided, further, that this article shall not apply to the sale by druggists of tinctures and drug compounds, in the preparation of which such liquors or medicated bitters are used and sold on the prescription of a physician or otherwise, and which tinctures and compounds are not intoxicating beverages prepared in the evasion of the provisions of this chapter nor the local option law. The commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state shall have the power to levy and collect from every person or association of persons selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, a tax equal to one-half of the state tax herein levied; and, where any such sale is made in any incorporated city or town, such city or town shall have the power to levy and collect a tax upon such sale equal to that levied by the commissioners' court of the county in which such city or town is situated; provided, that where any special charter gives the right to any city to refuse a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors, no license issued on behalf of the state or county shall become operative therein until a license therefor has been issued by such city. [Act 1909, 1 S. S., p. 293, sec. 1.]

Art. 7428. "Retail liquor dealer" defined.—A "retail liquor dealer" is a person or firm permitted by law, being licensed under the provisions of this law, to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in quantities of one gallon or less, which may be drunk on the premises. Any person who sells intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon shall be governed by the provisions of this law and be required to take out license hereunder. [Act 1909, 1 S. S., p. 294, sec. 2.]

Art. 7429. “Retail malt dealer” defined.—A “retail malt dealer” is a person or firm permitted by law, being licensed under the provisions of this law, to sell malt liquors capable of producing intoxication, exclusively in quantities of one gallon or less, which may be drunk on the premises. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7430. Liquor dealer’s license.—No person shall, directly or indirectly, sell spirituous or vinous liquors capable of producing intoxication, in quantities of one gallon or less, without taking out a license as a retail liquor dealer. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7431. Malt dealer’s license.—No person shall sell, directly or indirectly, malt liquor capable of producing intoxication, in quantities of one gallon or less, without taking out a license as a retail malt dealer; provided, that this article shall not apply to a retail liquor dealer, and that a retail liquor dealer’s license shall be construed to embrace a retail malt dealer’s license. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7432. Right of wine growers to sell wine.—This law shall not be so construed as to deny the right of wine growers to sell wine of their own production in any quantity without license; provided, that such wine grower shall not permit nor suffer any wine so sold by him to be drunk on his premises; and provided, further, that this article shall not be so construed as to give any wine grower the right to sell any wine to any minor without the permission of the parent, master or guardian of such minor first had and obtained, or any habitual drunkard, after being notified by any relative of such drunkard not to make such sale, gift or disposition. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7433. Transfer of license, etc.—No retail liquor dealer nor retail malt dealer shall carry on said business at more than one place at the same time under the same license, nor shall any such license be voluntarily assigned more than once; but, before the assignee of such license can engage in business thereunder, he shall comply with the provisions of this law, as required of the original licensee; and provided, further, that the sale of such license, whether in the name of the original licensee or assignee, may be made under execution or mortgage; and the purchaser of such license at such sale shall have the right to surrender such license to the state or county which issued the tax receipt which is the basis therefor, and shall receive therefor the pro rata unearned portion of such license; provided, further, that, should said original licensee, or his assignee, desire to change the place designated in said license, he may do so by applying to the county judge as in case of original application for license as provided in article 7435 of this chapter, but it shall not be necessary to furnish another certificate from the comptroller of public accounts. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7434. Forfeiture of license.—Any person or firm having a license as a retail liquor dealer, or a retail malt dealer, who shall violate any of the provisions of this law, or the provisions or conditions of the liquor dealer’s bond required by this law to be given by such person or firm, shall forfeit his or their license as a retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, as the case may be; and, if affidavit is filed by any property taxpaying citizen in the office of the clerk of the county court that such person or firm, having either of such licenses, has been guilty of violating any of the provisions of this law, or the provisions or conditions of said liquor dealer’s bond, it shall be the duty of the judge of said county court to immediately cause to be issued a notice in writing to such person or firm so having such license, notifying them of the filing of such affidavit; and it shall also be the duty of the judge of said county court to set a time for the hearing of said affidavit and evidence upon the same at a time not less than six days nor more than ten days after the date of filing of said affidavit; and, upon the hearing of said affidavit and the proof for and against the same, if it shall be determined that said person or firm so having such license has violated any of the provisions of this law, or any of the provisions or conditions of their said liquor dealer's bond, then it shall be the duty of the judge of said court to enter an order on the minutes of said court declaring the said license forfeited, and said license shall be canceled from said date. In case it is determined that the said person or firm so having such license has violated any of the provisions of this law, or any of the provisions or conditions of his said liquor dealer's bond, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court to immediately notify the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas, at Austin, Texas, of the result of such hearing. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to prosecute all complaints made as hereinbefore provided for, or in any other manner in this law provided for, against any person or firm engaged in the business of a retail liquor dealer, or a retail malt dealer, as the case may be, at the time which is designated by the county judge for the hearing of said complaint. In case either party make affidavit showing good cause why he can not at that time try the matters in issue, then said hearing may be postponed for a time not to exceed three days; and provided that no more than two postponements shall be granted to either party. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7435. Application for license.—Any person or persons desiring to obtain a retail liquor dealer's license in this state or a retail malt dealer's license, shall, before filing his or their petition for such license with the county judge as now provided by this law, make application under oath to the comptroller of public accounts of this state for a permit to apply for a license to engage in such business, which application shall be in form substantially as follows:

To the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas:

I, or we, and of the county of state of Texas, hereby apply for a permit to apply for a license to engage in the business of retail liquor dealer or dealers (or retail malt dealer or dealers) under the laws of this state, said business to be conducted at No. street, in in the county of, state of Texas; that there is now no statute or ordinance of the city in force prohibiting the retail sale of liquors at said place; that I, or we, have resided for the past two years in county, state of Texas, and during said time have been engaged in the business of; that I am, or we are, not disqualified under the laws of this state from engaging in the proposed business; that no other person or corporation is in any manner interested in or to be interested in the proposed business; that I, or we, have not, since the first day of May, A. D. 1909, as owner, or as the representative, agent or employe of any other person, kept open any saloon or place of business where spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, were sold, or sold, aided or advised any other person in selling in or near any such house or place of business any such liquor after twelve o'clock midnight on Saturday, and between that hour and five o'clock a. m. of the following Monday of any week; or since said date, either in person or by agent or employe, knowingly sold or permitted to be sold or given away in or near any such place of business, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to any student of any institution of learning, or to any habitual drunkard, after having been notified in writing through the sheriff, or other peace officer, by the wife, sister, father, mother or daughter, of such person not to sell to such habitual drunkard; or permitted any person not over the age of twenty-one years to enter and remain in such house or place of business, or permitted any games prohibited by the laws of this state to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about such house or place of business, or rented or let any part of the house or place of business in which such business was conducted to any person or persons for the purpose of conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state; or knowingly sold or given away any adulterated or impure liquors of any kind, or sold or permitted, aided or advised in selling under a retail malt dealer's license any other liquors than those defined by the law as malt liquors. And if the permission herein sought be granted and the said retail license be issued, I, or we, will not either in person, or knowingly by any agent, employe or representative, during the year for which such license shall run, keep open house or place where liquors shall be sold under such license for the sale thereof, or transact such business in such house or place of business after twelve o'clock midnight on Saturday and between that hour and five o'clock a. m. on the following Monday of any week; or knowingly sell in or near any such place of business, or give away, or permit to be given away, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to any student of any institution of learning, or to any habitual drunkard, after having been notified in writing, through the sheriff, or other peace officer, by the wife, mother, father, daughter or sister not to sell to such habitual drunkard; or to permit any person not over the age of twenty-one years to enter and remain in such house or place of business; or permit any game prohibited by the laws of this state to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about such house or place of business, or rent or let any part of the house or place of business in which such business is conducted to any person or persons, for the purpose of conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state; or knowingly sell or give away any impure liquor or adulterated liquors of any kind; and, if the application be for a retail malt dealer's license, it shall further state that he or they under the said license will not sell any other liquors than those defined by law as "malt liquors." And it is hereby agreed that, if the license to be applied for be issued, that the same will be issued upon condition that it shall remain in force only so long as I, or we, observe and carry out each and all of the declarations herein made, and that in the event I, or we, violate any of the promises or do or perform any one or more of the acts which it is herein declared shall not be done or performed, that either the county judge or the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas, in the manner provided in this law, may rescind, cancel and annul the said state and county license granted in pursuance of this application, and that all money paid for such license shall be forfeited to the state and county or city to whom paid; and that I, or we, will at once, upon the cancellation of such license, close up the place where such business is being conducted, and cease to do such business, and will not within five years from that date again, either as owner, agent, representative or employe of any other person, attempt to enter into or engage in the retail liquor business, unless the order of the comptroller cancelling and rescinding such license shall be annulled, in case such licenses shall have been canceled by the comptroller.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, a....., within and for the county of, state of Texas, by on this, the day of, 19....

(L. S.)

(Signature of officer.)

That, upon receiving such application, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to file the same and keep it as a permanent record in his office, to examine and act upon the same; and, if he is satisfied that such applicant is entitled to such permit, he shall upon the payment to him by the applicant of two dollars issue to him such permit, under his hand and the seal of his office, which, together with a copy of such application, duly certified to under the hand and seal of the comptroller, shall be delivered by him to the applicant; and the said permit, together with the certified copy of said application, shall be filed with the county judge, together with the petition for license to be filed with the county judge, and shall remain a permanent record in the office of the county judge; and no petition for license shall be entertained by the county judge until said certified copy and permit have been filed with him by the applicant. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7436. Comptroller may revoke license.—In addition to the power conferred by this law upon the county judge to cancel or revoke license, the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas shall likewise have power to cancel or revoke such license in the following manner:

If the comptroller shall at any time be advised, or receive information, that any person or persons to whom a retail liquor dealer's license, or retail malt dealer's license, has been issued, has violated any of the conditions and provisions set out in the application filed with the comptroller for a permit to apply for such license, as provided in the preceding article, it shall be his duty to at once institute an inquiry and ascertain, if possible, the names and residences of all persons who know and will testify to the facts concerning such violation; and, if it shall be necessary in making such inquiry to do so, he may call to his aid the state revenue agent, whose duty it shall be, upon the request of the comptroller, to make a careful investigation of the charges and ascertain the names of the persons by whom such facts can be proven; and neither the comptroller nor the state revenue agent shall disclose the name of any person who shall become an informer, or who shall aid in securing the names of such witnesses, or evidence relating to such matters. [Id. sec. 9a.]

Art. 7437. Same.—Upon securing the names of such witnesses, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to, in his discretion, either notify the county judge of the proper county of the alleged violation of this law by the licensee, or to issue a commission addressed to an officer to be selected by the comptroller, who is authorized under the laws of this state to take depositions in the county in which the place of business is located, where he is advised such violation occurred, stating therein the violation of the law charged, and the name or names of the persons charged therewith, and directing him to take the deposition of the witnesses named in the commission, and the depositions of such other persons as may be required or necessary, and, when such depositions are taken, to return the same to the comptroller in like manner as is provided by law governing the taking of depositions in civil suits in this state; provided, that if the comptroller shall notify the county judge as above provided, it shall be his duty to proceed at once to cause to be instituted against such licensee the proper proceedings in his court as provided by this law, and, if the county judge shall within ten days after receiving such notice cause to be instituted against such licensee the proper proceedings in his court, then the comptroller shall proceed no further in the premises; but, if the county judge shall upon receiving such notice, fail or refuse to cause such proceedings to be instituted against the licensee, or should the comptroller elect to proceed himself without notifying the county judge, then, in either of such cases, the comptroller shall proceed himself as in this law provided. [Id. sec. 9b.]

Art. 7438. Same.—Upon receipt of said commission, such officer shall set a day for taking the depositions of the witnesses, and shall issue a subpoena commanding them to appear before him and testify on said day, and place the same in the hands of the proper officers for service on said witnesses; and shall also notify the county attorney of such county of the time when and the place where said depositions shall be taken, requesting him to appear at said time and place and interrogate said witnesses; and he shall also notify the person or persons who are charged with having conducted such business in violation of the law, and whose conduct is to be investigated, of the character of the charge, and of the time and place where said investigation will be conducted, and that he or they shall have the right to appear in person, or by attorney, and cross examine the said witnesses, and, if they so desire, to testify themselves or to offer the testimony of other witnesses relating to the matter under investigation; and the person whose conduct is to be investigated shall have the right to all proper process to compel the attendance of witnesses whose testimony he may desire. [Id. sec. 9c.]

Art. 7439. Same.—If the said witnesses shall fail to obey the said subpoena, then the said officer shall issue and cause to be served upon them attachments to compel their attendance; and he may punish them for contempt for failure to attend and testify as provided by law in case of taking depositions in civil suits in this state. [Id. sec. 9d.]

Art. 7440. Same.—If the county attorneys shall fail or refuse to appear and conduct the examination of said witnesses, the said officer authorized to take such depositions may appoint some practicing attorney of said county to act in the absence of the county attorney, as special county attorney; and the said officer taking the depositions shall have the power, independently of the county attorney or any other person, to interrogate the witnesses so as to develop fully the facts. [Id. sec. 9e.]

Art. 7441. Same.—At the time fixed, the said officer shall proceed to take the depositions of said witnesses in answer to oral questions to be propounded to them, and shall cause the questions and answers to be written down, and the depositions to be subscribed and sworn to by the witnesses, respectively, as provided by law for taking depositions; and such officers shall make a thorough investigation of the facts relating to the charges and he may summon other witnesses than those whose names have been furnished to him; and, when the taking of the testimony is concluded, and the depositions subscribed and sworn to by the witnesses, he shall certify thereto and shall seal up the commission together with the depositions in an envelope or package in like manner as is required by law in returning depositions in civil suits in this state, and deposit the same in the postoffice, postage prepaid, addressed to the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas at Austin, Texas. [Id. sec. 9f.]

Art. 7442. Same.—Upon receipt of the said depositions, the comptroller shall open and proceed to consider the same, and, if he shall determine from the preponderance of the credible evidence therein contained, that at any time after the issuance of said license the house or place where the business of selling liquors under said license was conducted, was kept open and business conducted therein after midnight on Saturday and between that hour and five o'clock a. m. on the following Monday of any week, or that any intoxicating liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, were knowingly sold, permitted to be sold or given by the holder or holders of such license to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to any student of any institution of learning, or to any habitual drunkard after having been notified in writing through the sheriff, or other peace officer, by the wife, mother, father, daughter or sister of such habitual drunkard not to sell same to him, or that any person not over the age of twenty-one years had been permitted to enter and remain in such house or place of business, or that games prohibited by laws of this state had been permitted to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about such house or place of business, or that the person or persons holding such license had rented or let any part of the said house or place of business where such business is conducted to any person or persons for the purpose of conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state, or that the person or persons holding such license had knowingly sold or given away any adulterated or impure liquors of any kind, or sold or knowingly permitted to be sold, or aided or advised in selling, under a retail malt dealer's license, any other liquors than those defined by law as malt liquors, he shall rescind, vacate and withdraw such license, and shall issue a certificate in triplicate under his hand and the seal of said office, declaring the rescission of such license, theretofore issued, to such person or persons, one copy of which certificate shall remain on file in his office, and one copy shall be forwarded by the comptroller by mail to the county judge of the county where the place of business of the person or persons whose license is withdrawn and rescinded is located, and the other copy shall be forwarded by mail to the person or persons whose license has been so rescinded and withdrawn; and it shall be unlawful thereafter for such person or persons to continue such business, and any attempt to do so shall subject him or them to the penalty herein provided for pursuing such business without a license; and any person or persons whose license has been so rescinded and withdrawn shall forfeit to the state, county and city all money paid therefor, and they shall never have any claim against the state, county or city on account of any money paid for such license. [Id. sec. 9g.]

Art. 7443. Same.—Any person feeling himself aggrieved by the action of the comptroller in vacating, annulling and rescinding such license under this law, may bring suit in the district court of the county of his residence in Texas against the comptroller to reinstate such license, but the business conducted under such license shall be suspended during the pendency of such suit, and shall not be reopened, unless the order of the comptroller shall be set aside by final judgment of the proper court; but, if such order shall be by a final judgment set aside, then such licensee shall have the right to pursue such occupation under such license without paying any additional tax for a period to be added to the time of the license equal to the time his right to do business was suspended. [Id. sec. 9h.]

Art. 7444. Same.—The county attorney, or his substitute, shall receive five dollars per day for attending the taking of depositions and interrogating the witnesses during the time necessarily consumed in the investigation herein provided for; the officer taking the deposition shall receive the same fees as are provided by the law for taking depositions, and the witnesses shall receive the same fees provided in criminal cases, the amount of which shall be fixed by the certificate of the officer taking the depositions, and shall be paid by the state upon warrants issued by the comptroller. [Id. sec. 9i.]

Art. 7445. Number of licenses limited.—The comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas shall not issue any permits to any person or firm for any city or town or justice precinct of any county in excess of the number of permits actually issued and existing on the twentieth day of February, 1909, in such city or town, or justice precinct, respectively, unless such number of permits are less than one for each five hundred inhabitants, in which event he shall, if applied for, issue permits not exceeding one for each five hundred inhabitants of such city or town or justice precinct. In case the number of permits issued and existing on the twentieth day of February, 1909, for each said city or town or justice precinct is in excess of one for each five hundred inhabitants, the number of permits existing on the twentieth day of February, 1909, as applied for, shall be granted; but that number shall not be increased until the number of inhabitants of such city or town or justice precinct increases to the extent that the permits issued and actually in existence on February 20, 1909, is less than one for each five hundred inhabitants; but the provisions of this article shall not apply to hotels now in existence, or which may hereafter be opened, when located in the business section of a city or town having a population of over twenty thousand; and provided that in granting permits for licenses as a retail liquor dealer, or a retail malt dealer, the comptroller of public accounts shall give preference to those applicants who apply for a permit to do business at the places and locations in said city or town, or justice precinct, where permits had heretofore been issued and granted; provided, further, that at least one permit may be issued in any city, town or justice precinct, where local option is not in force. The population of each city, town and justice precinct in the state shall be ascertained by the commissioners' court of such county at the August term thereof of each and every year in the following manner: It shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction for such county, upon the request of such commissioners' court, to inform such commissioners' court of the total school census of each city and town and justice precinct; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court in determining the population of such city, town or justice precinct to estimate the population at the rate of six persons for every one name on such scholastic census, and upon such basis, at the August term of said court of each year, to ascertain and determine the population of such city, town and justice precinct, and to enter an order and decree upon the minutes of said court finding and determining what such population is, and shall send a certified copy thereof to the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 9j.]

Art. 7446. Petition for license.—Any person or firm desiring a license as a retail liquor dealer, or as a retail malt dealer, may, in vacation or in term time, file a petition with the judge of the county court of the county in which he desires to engage in such business, which petition shall have attached thereto as exhibits the permit and copy of application required by article 7435, and shall state that the applicant is a law-abiding, taxpaying male citizen of the state of Texas, over the age of twenty-one years, and has been a resident of the county wherein such license is sought for more than two years next before the filing of such petition; and that his license as a retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, has not been revoked or forfeited within five years next before the filing of such petition; that he desires a license as a retail liquor dealer, or as a retail malt dealer, as the case may be, specifically stating the place where such business is to be conducted, describing with reasonable certainty the house or place wherein the same is to be conducted, and, if the place of business be in any block or square of any town or city where there are more bona fide residences than there are business houses in said block or square, or in any block where there is a church or school, then said petition shall be accompanied with written consent of a majority of the bona fide householders or residents in said block or square, who have resided for at least six months preceding such application, and those within three hundred feet of such place of business. Upon the filing of the petition herein provided for, the county judge shall set the same for hearing at a time not less than ten or more than twenty days from the filing of same, and if, upon the trial or hearing thereof, he finds that facts stated in said petition are true and that the same is accompanied by the permit aforesaid, he shall grant a license such as prayed for; provided, however, that, upon the filing of such petition, the clerk of the county court shall give notice of the filing thereof, by posting on the court house door a written notice of such petition, together with the substance thereof; and the petition when filed shall remain with said clerk until the same is acted upon by the county judge and shall be open to the inspection of any person desiring to see the same. And any resident taxpaying citizen residing or owning property in the block or square where said business is to be conducted, or any such citizen residing or owning property within three hundred feet of the proposed place of business, or the county or district attorney shall be permitted to contest the facts stated in such petition and the applicant's right to obtain the license sought, upon giving security for all costs which may be incurred in such suit, should the same be decided in favor of applicant; provided, no county nor district attorney shall be required to give bond for such costs, but the county or state, as the case may be, shall be liable therefor. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7447. License not to be granted for business within three hundred feet of a church.—The county judge shall in no case grant a license in any village, town or city, where the proposed place of business is within three hundred feet of a church, school or other educational or charitable institution, the measurements to be along the property lines of the street fronts, and from front door to front door, and in a direct line across intersections where they occur; provided, the proposed place of business is not within a business block, or within three hundred feet thereof, as such block is defined in the preceding article. [Id. sec. 10a.]

Art. 7448. Judge shall hear petition, etc.—Upon the hearing of the petition, as provided in article 7446, the county judge shall determine the truth or falsity of the facts alleged, and shall render his judgment granting or refusing the license accordingly, and shall cause the same to be recorded at length in a book kept for that purpose, which book shall be a record of said court and shall be preserved by the clerk as an archive of his office. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7449. Clerk to furnish certified copy of judgment.—Upon the granting of a license by the county judge, as provided by law, the clerk shall furnish the applicant with a certified copy of the judgment, which, when exhibited to the county tax collector of the license tax herein provided for, said collector shall receive said license tax and issue to such applicant his receipt therefor, showing the amount paid, date of payment, for what paid, whether retail liquor dealer's or retail malt dealer's license, and where such business is to be conducted. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7450. Clerk to issue license, when.—Upon the presentation to the county clerk by the applicant of the tax collector's receipt provided for in the preceding article, and delivery to him of the bond provided for in article 7452 of this chapter, he shall examine such bond and receipt; and, if such bond conforms to the provisions of said article 7452, and if the said receipt conforms to the judgment authorizing the same, he shall issue to the applicant the proper license, which shall be by him signed, be under the seal of his office, be dated, state on its face for what it is issued, the date when it will expire, by whom and where such business is to be conducted, and shall describe the place where the same is to be kept. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7451. Regulating hours of closing, etc.—Every person or firm having a license under the provisions of this law, who may be engaged in or who may hereafter engage in the sale of intoxicating liquors to be drunk on the premises in any locality of this state, other than where local option is in force, shall close and keep closed their houses and places of business and transact no business therein or therefrom from and after twelve o'clock midnight until five o'clock a. m. of each week day, and shall close and keep closed their houses and places of business and transact no business therein or therefrom from and after twelve o'clock midnight Saturday until five a. m. of the following Monday of each week. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7452. Bond.—Every person or firm desiring to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to be drunk on the premises, shall, before engaging in such sale, be required to enter into a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars; provided, however, that any person or firm dealing exclusively in malt liquors shall be required to give bond only in the sum of one thousand dollars, with at least two good, lawful and sufficient sureties, and the sureties required by law on the bonds of liquor dealers shall make affidavit, before some officer authorized to administer oaths, that they, in their own right, over and above all exemptions, are each worth the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties; and no county judge shall approve any such bond, unless the affidavit as provided for in this article shall have been duly made. The approval of any such bond by the county judge without such affidavit shall make said county judge liable for any penalty recovered on such liquor dealer's bond; and any person who shall make any false affidavit, as required by this law, shall be punished as provided for in the Penal Code of this state; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the making of such bond by a surety company as permitted by law, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved as to security by the county judge; which bond shall be conditioned that said person or firm so selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, shall not, either in person or knowingly by any agent, employe or representative, during the year for which such license shall run, keep open the house or place where liquors shall be sold under such license for the sale thereof, or transact such business in such house or place of business, after twelve o'clock midnight on Saturday and between that hour and five o'clock a. m. on the following Monday of any week; and that such person or firm shall keep an open, quiet and orderly house or place for the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, and that such person or firm, or his or their agent or employe, will not sell or permit to be sold in his or their house or place of business, nor give nor permit to be given, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to a student of any institution of learning, or any habitual drunkard, after having been notified in writing, through the sheriff or other peace officer, by the wife, father, mother, daughter or sister of such habitual drunkard, said notice shall be in force and effect for a period of two years, not to sell to any such person, and that he or they will not permit any person under the age of twenty-one years to enter and remain in such house or place of business; that he or they will not permit any games prohibited by the law of this state to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about such house or place of business, and that he or they will not rent or let any part of the house or place in which he or they have undertaken to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, to any person or persons for the purpose of running or conducting any game or games prohibited by the laws of this state, and that he or they will not adulterate the liquors sold by them in any manner, mixing the same with any drug, and that he or they will not knowingly sell or give away any impure or adulterated liquors of any kind; which said bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where such business is conducted, and shall be recorded by such clerk in a book to be kept for such purpose; for which service said clerk shall be entitled to a fee of seventy-five cents; which said bond may be sued on at the instance of any person or persons aggrieved by the violations of its provisions, and such person shall be entitled to recover the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages for each infraction of the conditions of such bond; and the said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on until the full penal sum named therein shall have been recovered. In addition to civil proceedings for individual injuries brought on said bond, as above indicated, if any person or firm shall violate any of the conditions of the bond herein required, it shall be the duty of the county and district attorney, or either of them, to institute suit thereupon; or any person owning real property in the county may institute suit thereupon, in the name of the state of Texas, for the use and benefit of the county, but no compensation shall be allowed such citizen, and he may be required to give security for costs; and the amount of five hundred dollars as a penalty shall be recovered from the principals and sureties upon the liquor dealer's bond, upon the breach of any of the conditions thereof; and hereafter, when any recovery is had by any person, or by any county or district attorney, for the use and benefit of the county in any action in any court of competent jurisdiction, upon the bond of any person or firm engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or malt liquors exclusively, to be drunk on the premises, in any locality other than where local option is in force, upon the ground that such licensee sold, or permitted to be sold, or gave or permitted to be given, any such liquors to a minor in his place of business, or permitted a minor to enter or remain in his place of business, or sold such liquor to any habitual drunkard after having been notified in writing not to sell to such habitual drunkard, or that such licensee permitted prostitutes or lewd women to enter and remain in his place of business, or permitted any games prohibited by the law to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about his place of business, or of renting or letting his place of business, or any part thereof, for such purpose or purposes, the license of such person or firm shall, by reason of such recovery, be forfeited, revoked and canceled; and the court entering judgment of recovery shall also enter an order declaring forfeited, revoked and canceled such license; and the unearned portion of the occupation tax paid therefor shall not be refunded, but shall be forfeited to the state and county, city or town to which the money for the same may have been paid. And any person or firm who shall sell any such liquors or medicated bitters in any quantity, to be drunk on the premises, without first giving bond as required by this law, or who shall sell the same after said license shall have been forfeited, revoked or canceled, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined in the same amount provided for sales where no license has been obtained. An open house, in the meaning of this chapter, is one in which no screens or other device is used or placed inside or outside of such house or place of business for the purpose of or that will obstruct the view through the open door or place of entrance into any such house or place where intoxicating liquors are sold to be drunk on the premises. A quiet house or place of business, in the meaning of this chapter, is one in which no music, loud or boisterous talking, yelling or indecent or vulgar language is allowed, used or practiced, or any other noise calculated to disturb or annoy any person residing or doing business in the vicinity of such house or place of business, or those passing along the streets or public highways. By an orderly house is meant one in which no prostitutes or lewd women or woman are allowed to enter or remain; and it is further provided, that said house must not contain any vulgar or obscene pictures. Any surety on such bond may relieve himself from further liability thereon by giving the principal in said bond notice in writing that he will no longer remain as surety thereon, and by filing with the county judge an affidavit that such notice has been given; and, if within five days after such notice the principal fails to make a new bond, he shall cease to pursue said business until a new bond is given. Any person who shall continue to pursue said business, after such notice is given and such affidavit is filed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in cases where no license has been procured; provided, that where the sale was made in good faith, or the minor permitted to enter and remain in good faith, with the belief that the minor was of age, and there is good ground for such belief, that shall be a valid defense to any recovery on such bond; provided, further, that where the sale to an habitual drunkard is made in good faith, with the belief that he is not an habitual drunkard, and there are good grounds for such belief, that shall be a valid defense to any recovery on such bond; provided, the provisions of this law shall apply to suits by the state or of any individual. Provided, that no license shall be issued under this law to any person who has been convicted of a felony and served such term of conviction. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 7453. Unearned portion returned in case of death.—In the event of the death of any licensee under this law leaving an unearned portion of any license issued under this law, the heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives of such deceased person may present the license of such person to the state and county and receive payment of the unearned portion of such license tax collected by them, respectively. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7454. Clerk to make out statement.—The clerk of the county court shall make out a statement of all such licenses granted by him and the amount paid the collector on each for state and county taxes and report the same to the comptroller of public accounts of the state. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 7455. Duty of clerk to certify forfeitures, etc.—Hereafter, when the license issued to any person or firm to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or malt liquors exclusively, to be drunk on the premises, in the locality other than where local option is in force, has been declared forfeited, by either the county or district court, revoked or canceled, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county or district court to immediately certify such forfeiture under the seal of such court to the comptroller of public accounts of the state of Texas, which said certificate shall state the date of such forfeiture, the number and the nature of the cause, and the name and residence of the licensee or defendant, the name of the person and style of the firm, and the names and places of residence of the individual members of any such firm, or the name and place of residence of any such person, as the case may be, as shown by the application for license filed by such person or firm in the county court; for which service the clerk shall receive a fee of one dollar, to be taxed against the defendant or defendants. And it shall be the duty of the comptroller, upon receiving any such certificate, to file and record the same in a book to be kept by him for such purpose, and he shall likewise record all such forfeitures by him made; and thereafter no permit or license shall be issued to any such person or firm, or to any member of any such firm, to engage in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or malt liquors exclusively, within the period of five years from and after the date of entry of such forfeiture. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7456. Act of servant deemed to be act of master.—Any sale, gift or other disposition of intoxicating liquors knowingly made to any minor, or to any habitual drunkard, or on any Sunday or election day by an agent, clerk or other person acting for any retail liquor dealer or retail malt dealer, or other person, shall be deemed and taken to be for all purposes of this law as the act of such retail liquor dealer or retail malt dealer or other person. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 7457. No license issued to person whose license has been revoked, until five years.—No retail liquor dealer's, nor retail malt dealer's license shall be issued to any person whose license as either a retail liquor dealer or retail malt dealer has been revoked or forfeited within five years before the filing of his application for license, or who has had in his employ in his business of retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, any person whose license has been revoked or forfeited within five years next before the filing of such application. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7458. License not to be issued, when.—No license shall be granted to any person as a retail liquor dealer, or as a retail malt dealer, who shall have carried on any such business after the expiration of his license previously issued and without having received a license for such purpose, or whose license shall have been revoked or forfeited under the provisions of this law, within five years before the filing of his application for such license. No license shall be issued to any person to do business as a retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, in any house or building used for the purpose of prostitution, or as a house of assignation, or as a house of ill-fame, or gambling house. If, after a license has been issued to a retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, the building in which the same is located shall be used for the above mentioned purposes, or any of them, with the knowledge and consent of such licensee, his license may be revoked, as hereinbefore provided. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 7459. Law not to conflict with local option law.—This law, or any of the provisions thereof, shall not be construed to be in conflict with any local option law now or hereafter to be in force in this state, and no license to any retail liquor or retail malt dealer shall be issued or shall be effective at any place where local option law is in force and operation. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 7460. License to be posted.—Any license required by this law shall be posted in some conspicuous place in the house where the business or occupation for which such license is necessary is carried on before engaging in such business or occupation. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 7461. List of licenses to be delivered to grand jury.—The county clerk of any county in this state where intoxicating liquors are sold, having a population of more than fifty thousand inhabitants, shall make out a list of all persons then having a license under the provisions of this law, and shall deliver the same to each grand jury impaneled in such county. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order, shall give the names of the persons to whom same were issued, the date of its issue, the date it will expire, stating whether the same is a retail liquor dealer's, or retail malt dealer's license, and shall describe where said license was to be used. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 7462. District judge to charge law to grand jury.—The judges of the district courts in this state shall give this law in special charge to each grand jury impaneled in their respective districts. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 7463. Fees of officers.—The county clerk, county judge and other officers shall receive for services rendered in the carrying out of this law such fees as are now allowed by law for similar services. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 7464. In case of forfeiture, may dispose of stock in bulk.—In case the license of any retail liquor dealer, or retail malt dealer, is forfeited under any of the provisions of this law, nevertheless such licensee shall be authorized to sell or dispose of in bulk any stock of intoxicating liquors he may have on hand at the time such license is forfeited. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 7465. "Intoxicating liquor" defined.—The term "intoxicating liquor," as used in this law, shall be construed to mean fermented, vinous or spirituous liquors, or any composition of which fermented, vinous or spirituous liquors is a part; and all of the provisions of this law shall be liberally construed as remedial in character. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 7466. Law to be valid, even though part is held to be invalid.—If, for any reason, any article or part of this chapter shall be held by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, then that fact shall not invalidate any other part of this chapter, but the same shall be enforced without reference to the parts, if any, which shall be so held to be invalid, unless the entire chapter shall be held to be invalid. [Id. sec. 35a.]

Article 7467. [5060a] Tax for selling intoxicating liquors on prescription in local option territory.—There shall be collected from every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, for every separate establishment selling vinous, malt or spirituous liquors or medicated bitters, within this state and located within a county, subdivision of a county, justice precinct, town or city, in which local option is in force under the laws, the sum of two hundred dollars; provided, the same shall not be sold in such locality, except on prescription and in compliance with the laws governing sales in such localities; provided, further, that nothing in this article shall be so construed as to exempt druggists who sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, on the prescription of a physician or otherwise, in either locality as above set forth, from the payment of the tax herein imposed; provided, further, that this article shall not apply to the sale by druggists of tinctures and drug compounds, in the preparation of which such liquors or medicated bitters are used and sold on the prescription of a physician or otherwise, and which tinctures and compounds are not intoxicating beverages prepared in the evasion of the provisions of this chapter nor the local option law. [Act 1897, p. 223.]

Art. 7468. [5060b] Counties may levy.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state shall have the power to levy and collect from every person or association of persons selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, a tax equal to one-half the state tax herein levied; and where any such sale is made in any incorporated city or town, such city or town shall have the power to levy and collect a tax upon such sale equal to that levied by the commissioners' court of the county in which such city or town is situated. [Acts 1893, p. 177.]

Art. 7469. Prerequisites to the issue of license to sell.—Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, desiring to engage in the business of selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in this state, in any county, justice precinct, school district, town, city, or other subdivision of a county where the qualified voters thereof have, by a majority vote, determined that the sale of such intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited therein, except for sacramental and medicinal purposes, shall, before engaging in such business, and in addition to all the requirements of law now in force, file with the county judge of the county in which the said business is to be pursued, an application in writing for a license to engage therein, and shall state the county and the particular portion thereof in which the said business is to be pursued, and describe the building in which it is to be pursued; said application shall give the name, residence and address of every person connected with the said association, corporation, or other applicant, and shall state that each person so connected with said applicant is a bona fide resident of the county where said business is to be pursued; said application shall have attached thereto a petition addressed to said county judge, requesting that a license be granted to said applicant or applicants, naming them, authorizing them to engage in the business of selling such liquors on prescriptions of physicians in a justice precinct and building to be named therein; said petition to be signed in person by a majority of the qualified voters of the justice precinct where said business is to be conducted at the time said petition is filed; said majority of qualified voters to be determined by the poll tax receipts and the exemption certificates issued by the tax collector of said county. There shall be attached to said petition an affidavit from some credible person or persons to the effect that every name signed to said petition is the genuine signature of the person represented to have signed the same. Upon the filing of said application for license and said petition with the county judge, the said judge shall set the same down for hearing, either in term time or in vacation, for some day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the day the same is filed; and said judge shall at once notify the county attorney of the day said hearing will be had. Upon the day so designated, or at some time thereafter to which the same may be postponed, the said county judge shall hear the said matter; and the county attorney, or any bona fide citizen of said justice precinct, may appear and contest the genuineness of the signatures to said petition, and whether or not a majority of the qualified voters have signed the same; and upon such hearing, if the said judge is convinced that the applicant or applicants have complied with all the requirements of law, he shall make his order authorizing the issuance of said license by the county clerk of said county, when the said applicant or applicants shall have paid all occupation taxes, given the required bond, and met all other requirements of existing laws concerning said business; but in no case shall such license be issued for a longer or shorter period than one year. [Act 1910, 3 S. S., p. 35.]

Art. 7470. [5060d] License to issue, when.—After the county judge has entered an order authorizing the issuance of a license, as provided in article 7469, and the applicant shall have complied with the provisions of said order, the county clerk of said county shall issue to said applicant a license to sell spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, at the place and in the manner and quantities set forth in the application, and no sale shall be made until such license is procured. The receipt of the tax collector shall be evidence of the payment of the tax. For issuing licenses herein provided for, county clerks shall be entitled to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for each license. [Acts 1893, p. 177.]

Art. 7471. [5060e] License to issue for one year, and shall designate place of sale, etc.—No license shall be granted for a longer or shorter period than one year. The particular place and house in which the liquors are to be sold shall be designated in the license, and no license shall authorize any person to sell spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, at any other place or house than that designated in the license; provided, that if any person, or association of persons, having a license to sell such liquors, desires to change his or their place of business, such change may be made by presenting the license to the clerk of the county and having the new place of business inserted therein, but in no case to admit of the temporary closing of one place of business to sell at another place. [Id.]

Art. 7472. Licenses to be posted.—The license provided for in this chapter, and the occupation tax receipts, together with the internal revenue receipt issued by the United States, shall be posted by the licensee in a conspicuous place in his or their place of business; and, on failure to so post such license, receipt or internal revenue receipt, he or they so failing shall be considered as having no license and subject to all the pains and penalties as if no such license had issued.

Art. 7473. [5060f] County clerk to report applications for license to state revenue agent.—The county clerk in each and every county in this state shall, between the first and tenth day in each month, forward to the state revenue agent a sworn statement, giving the names of all persons who have filed applications for license during the preceding month; and the tax collector of each county shall keep a register in which shall be entered the names of all persons paying taxes under this chapter, with the date of payment, and shall, between the first and tenth day of each month, make to the state revenue agent a sworn report, giving the names of all persons who have paid a liquor tax during the preceding month, and the character of tax paid by each. The reports provided for in this article shall be made upon blank forms to be furnished by the comptroller. [Acts 1893, p.177.]

Art. 7474. [5060i] Producers of domestic wines exempt.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to wines produced from grapes grown in this state, while the same is in the hands of the producers or manufacturers thereof.

Art. 7475. [5060j] Dealer must give bond before license will issue.—Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, before engaging in the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in any county, subdivision of a county, justice precinct, town or city, in which local option is in force, shall enter into a bond in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, payable to the state of Texas, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which such sales are to be made, conditioned that said person, firm, corporation or association of persons, so selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, shall not sell in any quantity, except on the prescription of a regular practicing physician, addressed to such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, written with ink on white paper in the handwriting of such physician, dated, numbered and signed by such physician, giving his and applicant's place of residence, and certifying on his honor, that he has in person carefully examined the applicant or patient, and that he finds him or her actually sick, giving the malady or disease with which he or she is suffering, as near as he can ascertain, and that he or she is in immediate need of an alcoholic stimulant, such as prescribed; and there shall not be sold more than one quart on any one prescription, which shall be sold at one time and in one package, and delivered to the purchaser at time of sale; and that he or they shall not permit the same to be drunk on the premises where sold, nor on any other premises owned or controlled by him or them; and that he or they shall not sell more than once on the same prescription, and shall not sell on any prescription bearing the same number of another prescription given by the same physician and dated during the same year; and that he or they shall not sell on a prescription bearing date more than three days prior to the date of its presentation nor upon the prescription of a physician not known to him or them to be a regular practicing physician, authorized under the laws of Texas to practice his profession, nor permit a minor to remain on his premises or his place of business, except the house or place of business of a regular pharmacist; and that he or they shall not permit any games prohibited by the laws of this state to be played, dealt or exhibited in or about such house or place of business; and that he or they shall not rent or let any part of the house or place of business or premises in which or on which they are selling such liquors or medicated bitters, to any one, for the purpose of carrying on any business in violation of the local option laws, or the penal laws of the state; and that he or they shall not adulterate the liquors or medicated bitters sold by him or them, nor knowingly sell or give away such adulterated liquors; and that he or they shall keep an open, orderly house, and shall not use any screen or other device for the purpose of or which shall obstruct the view through the door or doors opening out on the street or alley; which said bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where such business is carried on, and recorded by him in a book to be kept for that purpose; and for recording same he shall receive a fee of seventy-five cents. For every breach or violation of any of the provisions of said bond, the person, firm, corporation or association of persons, and the sureties on said bond, shall be liable in damages to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons injured thereby. In addition to the proceedings by parties sustaining damages by the violation, it shall be the duty of the county and district attorneys to institute suit in the name of the state of Texas for each and every infraction or violation thereof, for the use and benefit of the county; and the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars shall be recovered for each infraction, against the principal and sureties on said bond, as liquidated damages; which said sum shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the road fund of said county. Said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued upon for each infraction thereof until the full penal sum named therein shall be exhausted. If said bond shall be exhausted, or become in danger of being exhausted by suits, said person, firm, corporation or association of persons shall be required to execute another bond; notice of such requirement shall be given by the county judge of the county, and such parties shall have ten days after notice to comply, and upon failure to do so shall be subject to all the pains and penalties from the time such notice was given as if no bond had been given in the first instance; provided, that, in case the county judge shall fail to give the notice herein required, then any citizen of the county, over the age of twenty-one years, may do so; and in case of failure to execute another bond within the time required, as above set forth, said person may bring suit in the district court of the county to require such person, firm, corporation or association of persons to execute a new bond; provided, further, that, in case the sureties on such bond shall become insolvent, or found to be insolvent after the execution of such bond, it shall be the duty of the county judge of the county to require of them a new bond, the same as above set forth; and, in case of his failure to do so, any citizen, as above set forth, may proceed in the district court aforesaid to compel them to execute such bond; and in case the insolvency of said sureties or either of them is established, which shall be done under the rules of evidence governing other like cases, or in case it is shown that said bond is exhausted or in danger of being exhausted by suit, said court shall enter up its judgment requiring said parties to enter into a new bond within ten days from the date of the judgment, and adjudge the cost against defendants, and assess a reasonable attorney's fee against them as cost. In case of an appeal from such judgment, the bond shall be in an amount sufficient to cover all costs and damages, to be fixed by the judge trying the cause; and, in addition to the conditions now required in appeal bonds, be conditioned further to pay all damages occasioned by the breach or violation of the local option and penal laws of the state from the date of the institution of the suit until the final termination of such suit. In case appellants are cast in the suit and the same is finally determined against him or them, said appeal bond may be sued upon and recoveries had the same as provided in this chapter and article for suits and recovery on the original bond; provided, further, that, when suit is instituted hereunder by a citizen, the suit shall be prosecuted without bond for cost or appeal bond. [Act 1897, p. 223.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

TAX ON DEALERS IN NON-INTOXICATING MALT LIQUORS.

Amount of tax.....	Article. 7476	County clerk to report license.....	Article. 7478
Application for license to state what; must be paid in advance.....	7477

Article 7476. Amount of tax.—There is hereby levied upon all firms, persons, associations of persons and corporations, selling non-intoxicating malt liquors, an annual state tax of two thousand dollars. Counties, incorporated cities and towns where such sales are made may each levy an annual tax of not exceeding one thousand dollars upon all such persons, firms or corporations; provided, that this article shall not prevent the sale of such proprietary remedies as “malt extract,” “malt medicine” and “malt and iron” manufactured and used exclusively as medicine and not as a beverage, when sold upon the prescription of a regular practicing physician; provided, further, that not more than one sale shall be made upon any one prescription. [Acts 1909, p. 51, sec. 1.]

Art. 7477. Application for license to state what; must be paid in advance.—Each person and each firm and each corporation and each association of persons desiring to engage in the business mentioned in the preceding article, before engaging in same, shall file with the county clerk of the county in which the business is proposed to be pursued an application in writing for a license to engage therein and shall state the place or house in which said business is to be pursued, and, if within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, that fact shall be so stated; and any such person or firm or corporation or association of persons shall pay to the tax collector of the county the entire amount of annual tax levied by the state and the entire amount of the annual tax upon such business as may be levied by the commissioners’ court of said county, and, if the business is to be pursued in an incorporated city or town, shall pay to the collector of taxes of such city or town the tax that may be levied on such business by said city or town; and all such taxes shall be paid in advance; and no license shall be issued by the county clerk until the person, or firm, or corporation, or association of persons, applying therefor shall exhibit receipts showing the payment of all taxes levied and authorized by this chapter; and the county clerk shall be entitled to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for the issuance of such license; and it shall be unlawful to carry on business under said license in more than one place at the same time, or in any place other than that named in said application for said license, unless the party carrying on said business shall first file with the county clerk of the county in which said business is carried on a written statement showing such change of place of business. [Act 1909, p. 51. Amended 2 S. S., p. 397.]

Art. 7478. County clerk required to report licenses.—The county clerk is hereby required to make report of all licenses issued by authority of this chapter, as in other cases. [Acts 1909, p. 51, sec. 3.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

TAX ON PERSONS SOLICITING ORDERS OR OPERATING COLD STORAGE FOR INTOXICATING OR NON-INTOXICATING BEVERAGES IN LOCAL OPTION DISTRICTS.

Amount of tax for soliciting orders.....	Article. 7479	Application for license.....	Article. 7481
Amount of tax for keeping cold storage.....	7480	County clerk to report licenses issued.....	7482

Article 7479. Amount of tax for soliciting orders.—In all counties, justice precincts, towns, cities or other subdivisions of a county, where the qualified voters thereof have by a majority vote determined that the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited therein, there is hereby levied upon all firms, persons, associations of persons and corporations that pursue the business of selling, or offering for sale, any intoxicating liquors by soliciting or taking orders therefor in any quantities whatsoever, in any such county, justice precinct, town, city, or other subdivision of a county, an annual state tax of four thousand dollars; and each county and also each incorporated city or town may levy an annual tax not exceeding two thousand dollars in any such county or incorporated city or town where such business is pursued. [Act 1909, p. 53, sec. 1.]

Art. 7480. Amount of tax for keeping cold storage.—In all counties, justice precincts, towns, cities or other subdivisions of a county, where the qualified voters thereof have by a majority vote determined that the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited therein, there is hereby levied upon all firms, persons, associations of persons and corporations that pursue the business of keeping, maintaining or operating what is commonly known as a "cold storage," or any place by whatever name known or whether named or not, where intoxicating or non-intoxicating liquors or beverages are kept on deposit for others, or where any such liquors are kept for others under any kind or character of bailment, an annual tax of two thousand dollars. Counties, incorporated cities and towns, where such business is located, may each levy an annual tax of not exceeding one thousand dollars upon each such place so kept, run, maintained or operated. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7481. Application for license.—Each person and each firm and each corporation and each association of persons desiring to engage in the business mentioned in articles 7479 and 7480 of this chapter in said local option territory, before engaging in same shall file with the county clerk of the county in which the business is to be pursued an application in writing for a license to engage therein, and shall state the county, or portion of the county, in which the business is to be pursued; and, if within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, that fact shall be so stated; and any such person or firm or corporation or association of persons shall pay to the tax collector of the county the entire amount of annual tax levied for the state, and the entire amount of the annual tax upon such business as may be levied by the commissioners' court of said county, and, if the business is to be pursued in an incorporated city or town, shall pay to the collector of taxes of such city or town the tax that may be levied on such business by said city or town; and all such taxes shall be paid in advance; and no license shall be issued by the county clerk until the person or firm or corporation or association of persons applying therefor shall exhibit receipts showing the payment of all taxes levied and authorized by this chapter, and the county clerk shall be entitled to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for the issuance of such license. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7482. County clerk to report licenses issued.—The county clerk shall be and is hereby required to make report of all licenses issued by authority of this chapter as in other cases. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 7483. Amount of tax.—Any person, firm or corporation doing business in this state shall, at each office or place kept, operated or maintained by such person, firm or corporation at which intoxicating liquors legally deliverable are delivered upon payment of purchase money therefor, commonly designated as shipments C. O. D., pay annually for each office or place so kept an annual occupation tax to the state of Texas of five thousand dollars; and any county or any incorporated city or town, wherein such office or place is located, may levy an annual occupation tax upon such person, firm or corporation herein referred to for each of said offices, not to exceed one-half of the amount hereby levied by the state, such tax to be due and payable annually. [Act 1907, p. 3.]

Art. 7484. Penalty for failure to pay tax.—The maintaining or operating such office or offices, place or places, by any person, firm or corporation in this state without paying the occupation tax required in section one [article 7483] of this chapter shall subject such person, firm or corporation so operating and maintaining such office or offices, place or places, to pay to the state of Texas the sum of fifty dollars, and to the county and any incorporated city or town in which said offices or places are located, each the sum of fifty dollars for each day such office or offices, place or places, may be maintained or operated, and for each office or place so operated; and the state or county, or any incorporated city or town, may sue for and recover, either jointly or severally, each the said sum, for each day that each of said offices or places may be maintained and operated without prepayment of the aforesaid occupation tax. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7485. No one required to keep office.—No person, firm or corporation shall be required to keep, operate or maintain any office at which intoxicating liquors are deliverable upon the payment of the purchase price thereof, nor shall any such person, firm or corporation be compelled to receive, transport or deliver any intoxicating liquors, the purchase price of which, or any part thereof, is to be paid said person, firm or corporation on delivery. [Act 1907, p. 149, sec. 2a.]

Art. 7486. Invalidity of part not to affect whole chapter.—In the event any article of this chapter should be attacked, or for any reason held invalid, such action shall not affect the force or legality of the other articles of this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 149, sec. 2c.]

Article 7487. Property subject to the tax.—All property within the jurisdiction of this state, real or personal, corporeal or incorporeal, and any interest therein, whether belonging to inhabitants of this state or not, which shall pass absolutely or in trust by will, or by the laws of descent of this or any other state, or by deed, grant, sale or gift made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or donor, shall upon passing to or for the use of any person except the father, mother, husband, wife or direct lineal descendants of the testator, intestate, grantor or donor, or any public corporation or charitable, educational or religious organization within this state when such bequest, gift or devise is to be used for charitable, educational or religious purposes within this state, be subject to a tax for the benefit of the state, as follows:

1. If passing to or for the use of a lineal ascendant or a brother or sister, or a lineal descendant of a brother or sister, the tax shall be two per cent on any value in excess of two thousand dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; two and one-half per cent of any value in excess of ten thousand dollars, and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; three per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; three and one-half per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

2. If passing to or for the use of an uncle or aunt, or a lineal descendant of an uncle or aunt of the decedent, the tax shall be three per cent on any value in excess of one thousand dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars, and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, and eight per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

3. If passing to or for the use of any other person, natural or artificial, the tax shall be four per cent of any value in excess of five hundred dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; five and one-half per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars, and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; eight and one-half per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; ten per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, and twelve per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars. [Act 1907, p. 496, sec. 1.]

Art. 7488. Property passing in two or more estates.—If the property passing as aforesaid shall be divided into two or more estates, as an estate for years or for life and a remainder, the tax shall be levied on each estate or interest separately according to the value of the same at the death of the decedent. The value of estates for years, estates for life, remainders and annuities shall be determined by the "Actuaries' Combined Experience Tables," at four per cent compound interest.

Art. 7489. Property bequeathed to executor or trustee in lieu of commission, taxed when.—If a testator bequeaths or devises to his executor or trustee property in lieu of the latter's commission, the value of such property in excess of reasonable compensation, as determined by the county judge on his own motion, or on the application of any officer on behalf of the state, shall be subject to taxation under this chapter.

Art. 7490. Inventory to be filed when; penalty.—Every executor, administrator and trustee of the estate of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, whether such property passes by will or by the laws of descent or otherwise, shall, within three months after his appointment, make and file an inventory thereof in the county court having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent. Any executor, administrator or trustee, refusing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this article, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action brought in behalf of the state by the district or county attorney upon notice from the judge of the county court.

Art. 7491. County court to appoint administrator.—If within three months after the death of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, no application for letters testamentary or of administration shall be made, it shall be the duty of the county court to appoint an administrator. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to report to the judge of the county court all such estates, whether the property subject to taxation passes by will or by laws of descent or otherwise. For each decedent's estate thus reported, the county attorney shall receive a compensation of ten per cent of the tax payable, but not to exceed twenty dollars in any one estate. Such payment shall be made by the collector of taxes, on the certificate of the county judge, out of the taxes paid him on property belonging to such estate.

Art. 7492. Appraisers appointed; notice to be given, etc.—Said tax shall be assessed upon the actual or market value of the property. The judge of the county court having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent shall, as often as and whenever occasion may require, appoint two competent disinterested persons as appraisers to fix the value of property subject to said tax. The appraisers, being first sworn, shall forthwith give notice to all persons known to have a claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the executor, administrator or trustee, and the collector of taxes of the county, of the time and place when they will appraise the same. At such time and place they shall appraise such property at its actual or market value at the time of the death of the decedent, and shall thereupon make report thereof in writing to said county judge, who shall file such report. Each appraiser shall be paid, on the certificate of the county judge, two dollars for each day employed in such appraisal, together with his actual necessary expenses incurred therein, which payments shall be made by the collector of taxes out of any moneys in his hands received under this chapter; provided, however, that upon the agreement of the parties interested to dispense with the appointment of appraisers, the county judge shall himself appraise the property and make and file a report thereof. If the same decedent shall leave property subject to this tax to more than one person, a separate appraisal and report shall be made for the property of each person.

Art. 7493. County judge to regulate tax.—Immediately upon the filing of the report of the appraisement, the county judge shall calculate and determine the amount of tax due on such property under this chapter, and shall in writing certify such amount to the collector of taxes, to the executor, administrator or trustee, and to the person to whom or for whose use the property passes. Said tax shall be a lien upon such property from the death of the decedent until paid, and shall bear interest from such death until paid, unless payment shall be made within six months after such death, in which case no interest shall be charged.

Art. 7494. Property withheld until tax paid.—If such property be in the form of money, the executor, administrator or trustee shall deduct the amount of the tax therefrom before paying it to the party entitled thereto; if it be not in the form of money, he shall withhold the property until the payment by such party of the amount of tax; in any case the executor, administrator or trustee shall be liable for the amount of the tax and shall have the right, in case of neglect or refusal after due notice of the party entitled to the property to pay such amount, to sell, at public sale, after due notice to such party, the property, or so much thereof as may be necessary. Out of the sum realized on such sale, the executor, administrator or trustee shall deduct the amount of the tax and the expenses of the sale, and shall pay the balance to the party entitled thereto.

Art. 7495. Tax charged on real estate, when.—Whenever any legacy subject to said tax shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee, before paying the legacy, shall deduct the amount of the tax therefrom, and pay the amount so deducted to the executor, administrator or trustee; the amount of the tax shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor or trustee in the same manner as the payment of the legacy itself could be enforced.

Art. 7496. Tax paid, when.—All taxes received under this act by any executor, administrator or trustee, shall be paid by him within thirty days thereafter to the collector of taxes of the county whose county court has jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent. Upon such payment, the collector shall make duplicate receipts thereof; he shall deliver one to the party making payment, the other he shall send to the comptroller of public accounts, who shall charge the collector with the amount thereof, and shall countersign and affix his seal of office to such receipt and transmit same to the party making payment.

Art. 7497. Collector to sue for, when.—In case such tax shall not be paid to the collector of taxes within six months after the county judge has notified the amount thereof as hereinbefore provided, the collector shall commence an action to recover the amount of such tax against the executor, administrator or trustee, and the party to whom or for whose use the property has passed; provided, that the county judge may by certificate to the collector extend such time of payment whenever the circumstances of the case require.

Art. 7498. Collector pays to state treasurer.—The collector of taxes of each county shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the state treasurer all taxes received by him under this law before the first day of that month, deducting therefrom all lawful disbursements made by him under this act, and also his compensation at the rate of one per cent of all taxes collected under this act.

Art. 7499. Tax deposited to credit of general fund.—The moneys received by the state treasurer under this chapter shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the fund now there existing and known as the general revenue fund.

Art. 7500. Tax refunded when.—Whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent after the distribution of property on which the tax has been paid, and a refund is made by the distributee, a due proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if still in his hands, or by the collector of taxes, if it has been paid to him. The collector shall pay such sums upon the order of the county judge out of any money in his possession under this law; and the comptroller of public accounts shall credit the collector with all sums so paid out by him.

Art. 7501. Final account not allowed until tax is paid.—No final account of an executor, administrator or trustee shall be allowed by the county judge, unless such account shows and said judge finds that all taxes imposed under this law on any property or interest passing through his hands as such have been paid; and the receipt of the collector of taxes for such taxes shall be the proper voucher for such payment.

Art. 7502. Appointment of administrator dispensed with.—If for any reason administration of the estate of a decedent, leaving property subject to taxation under this law, shall not be necessary in this state, except in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, it shall be in the discretion of the county judge, upon the filing of a satisfactory inventory of the taxable property by the trustee or owner, to dispense with the appointment of an administrator. Upon the filing of such inventory, the appraisal and other proceedings required by this chapter shall be had as in other cases.

Article 7503. [5061] All property to be taxed.—All property, real, personal or mixed, except such as may be hereinafter expressly exempted, is subject to taxation, and the same shall be rendered and listed as herein prescribed. [Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 275, sec. 1.]

Art. 7504. [5062] Real property includes what.—Real property, for the purpose of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether laid out in town lots or otherwise; and all the buildings, structures and improvements, or other fixtures of whatsoever kind thereon, and all the rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and fossils in and under the same. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7505. [5063] Personal property includes what.—Personal property shall, for the purposes of taxation, be construed to include all goods, chattels and effects, and all moneys, credits, bonds and other evidences of debt owned by citizens of the state, whether the same be in or out of the state; all ships, boats and vessels belonging to inhabitants of this state, if registered in this state, whether at home or abroad, and all capital invested therein; all moneys at interest, either within or without this state, due the person, to be taxed over and above what he pays interest for; and all other debts due such person over and above their indebtedness; all public stock and securities; all stock in turnpikes, railroads, canals and other corporations (except national banks) out of the state, owned by inhabitants of this state; all personal estate of moneyed corporations, whether the owners thereof reside in or out of this state, and the income of any annuity, unless the capital of such annuity be taxed within the state; all shares in any bank organized or that may be organized under the law of the United States; all improvements made by persons upon lands held by them, the title to which is still vested in the state of Texas, or in any railroad company, or which have been exempted from taxation for the benefit of any railroad company, or any other corporations, or any other corporation whose property is not subject to the same mode and rule of taxation as other property. [Acts of 1879, ch. 40, p. 39, sec. 3.]

Art. 7506. [5064] Definition of terms.—The term, “money,” or, “moneys,” wherever used in this title shall, besides money or moneys, include every deposit which any person owning the same or holding in trust and residing in this state, is entitled to withdraw in money on demand.

“Credits.”—The term, “credits,” wherever used in this title, shall be held to mean and include every claim and demand for money or other valuable thing, and every annuity or sum of money receivable at stated periods, due or to become due, and all claims and demands secured by deed or mortgage, due or to become due.

“Tract or lot.”—The term, “tract or lot,” and, “piece or parcel,” of real property, and piece and parcel of land, wherever used in this title, shall each be held to mean any quantity of land in possession of, owned by or recorded as the property of the same claimant, person, company or corporation.

“Singular and plural.”—Every word importing the single number only may extend to and embrace the plural, and every word importing the plural number may be applied and limited to the singular number; and every word implying the masculine gender only may be extended and applied to females as well as males.

“Oath.”—Wherever the word, “oath,” is used it shall be held to mean oath or affirmation; and the word, “swear,” may be held to mean affirm.

“Town or district.”—The words, “town or district,” wherever used shall be held to mean village, city, ward or precinct, as the case may be.

“Value.”—The term, “true and full value,” wherever used shall be held to mean the fair market value, in cash, at the place where the property to which the term is applied shall be at the time of assessment, being the price which could be obtained therefor at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale.

“Person.”—The term, “person,” shall be construed to include firm, company or corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 275, sec. 4.]

Art. 7507. [5065] Exemption from taxation.—The following property shall be exempt from taxation, to-wit:

1. Schools and churches.—Public school houses and houses used exclusively for public worship, the books and furniture therein and the grounds attached to such buildings necessary for the proper occupancy, use and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit. All public colleges, public academies, all buildings connected with the same, and all the lands immediately connected with public institutions of learning, and all endowment funds of institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit, and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been, or shall hereafter be, bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages; provided, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer; and all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes. This provision shall not extend to leasehold estate of real property held under authority of any college or university of learning.

2. Cemeteries.—All lands used exclusively for graveyards or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company or corporation with a view to profit, or for the purpose of speculating in the sale thereof.

3. Public property.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to this state, or any political subdivision thereof, or the United States, except that in each county in this state, where the state of Texas has heretofore or may hereafter acquire and own land for the purpose of establishing thereon state farms and employing thereon convict labor on state account, it shall be the duty of the penitentiary board or board of penitentiary commissioners, or other officers of the penitentiary having the managing of same, to render said land for taxes to the tax assessor of said county; and the taxes on same shall be assessed and collected in the manner required by law for the assessment and collection of other taxes; provided, that said taxes shall be assessed and collected for county purposes only; and said county taxes shall be paid annually out of the revenue derived from such state farms respectively, by the officer or officers having the management thereof, and same shall be charged to the expense account of operating such farm; and no debt shall be created against the general revenue of the state in case of the failure to pay said taxes out of the revenues of any such farm; and provided, further, that in arriving at the amount to be paid in taxes to the counties the value of the land only shall be considered and not the value of the buildings and other improvements owned by the state and situated on said land.

4. County buildings.—All buildings belonging to counties for holding courts, for jails, or for county officers, with the land belonging to and on which such buildings are erected.

5. Poor-houses.—All lands, houses and other buildings belonging to any county, precinct or town, used exclusively for the support or accommodation of the poor.

6. Public charities.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the lands belonging to and occupied by such institutions not leased or otherwise used with a view to profits, unless such rents and profits and all moneys and credits are appropriated by such institutions solely to sustain such institutions and for the benefit of the sick and disabled members and their families and the burial of the same, or for the maintenance of persons when unable to provide for themselves, whether such persons are members of such institutions or not. An institution of purely public charity under this act is one which dispenses its aid to its members and others in sickness or distress, or at death, without regard to poverty or riches of the recipient, also when the funds, property and assets of such institutions are placed and bound by its laws to relieve, aid and administer in any way to the relief of its members when in want, sickness and distress, and provides homes for its helpless and dependent members and to educate and maintain the orphans of its deceased members or other persons.

7. Fire engines.—All fire engines and other implements owned by towns and cities used for the extinguishment of fires, with the buildings used exclusively for the safekeeping thereof.

8. Market houses, etc.—All market houses, public squares, or other public grounds, town or precinct houses or halls used exclusively for public purposes, and all works, machinery or fixtures belonging to any town used for conveying water to such town.

9. Public libraries.—All public libraries and personal property belonging to the same.

10. Furniture.—All household and kitchen furniture not exceeding at their true and full value two hundred and fifty dollars to each family, in which may be included one sewing machine. [Id. sec. 24.]

11. Pensions.—All annual pensions granted by the state, or United States. [Act 1907, p. 302. Amended Act 1910, S. S., p. 122.]

Art. 7508. [5066] When property to be rendered.—All property shall be listed for taxation between January 1 and April 30 of each year, when required by the assessor, with reference to the quantity held or owned on the first day of January in the year for which the property is required to be listed or rendered. Any property purchased or acquired on the first day of January shall be listed by or for the person purchasing or acquiring it. If any property has, by reason of any special law, contract or fact, been exempt or has been claimed to be exempted from taxation for any period or limit of time, and such period of exemption shall expire between January 1 and December 31 of any year, said property shall be assessed and listed for taxes as other property; but the taxes assessed against said property shall be for only the pro rata of taxes for the portion of such year remaining. [Act 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7509. [5067] How to be rendered.—All property shall be listed or rendered in the manner following:

1. By the owner.—Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his real estate, moneys, credits, bonds or stock of joint stock or other companies (when the property of such company is not assessed in this state), moneys loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other property.

2. As agent.—He shall also list all lands or other real estate, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation whatsoever, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or drafts and credits due from or owing by any person, body corporate or politic.

3. Minor.—The property of a minor child shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. Wife.—The property of a wife, by her husband, if of sound mind; if not, by herself.

5. Idiot.—The property of an idiot or lunatic, by the person having charge of such property.

6. Cestui que trust.—The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee of the estate; of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

7. Receivers.—The property of corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers.

8. Corporations.—The property of a body politic or corporate, by the president or proper agent or officer thereof.

9. Copartnership.—The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

10. Manufactories.—The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent, in the name of his principal, as real, personal and merchandise.

11. Nurseries.—The stock of nurseries, growing and otherwise, in the hands of nurserymen shall be listed and assessed as merchandise. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7510. [5068] Where to be rendered.—All property, real and personal, except such as is required to be listed and assessed otherwise, shall be listed and assessed in the county where it is situated; and all personal property, subject to taxation and temporarily removed from the state or county, shall be listed and assessed in the county of the residence of the owner thereof, or in the county where the principal office of such owner is situated. [Act 1897, p. 203.]

Art. 7511. [5069] To be rendered in but one county.—Lands lying on county boundaries, which have not been accurately and legally surveyed, determined or fixed, shall not be assessed or taxed in more than one county. [Acts of 1879, p. 153; amend. 1895, No. 104, Sen. Jour., p. 485.]

Art. 7512. [5070] Live stock, when and how rendered.—All persons, companies and corporations owning pastures in this state which lie on county boundaries shall be required to list for assessment all live stock of every kind owned by them in said pastures in the several counties in which such pastures are situated, listing in each county such portion of said stock as the land in such county is of the whole pasture. All persons, companies and corporations owning any kind of live stock in pasture not their own shall list said live stock in the several counties in which such pastures are situated in the same manner; and in both cases the tax upon such live stock shall be paid to the tax collectors of the several counties in which such live stock is listed and assessed. [Acts of 1889, p. 29.]

Art. 7513. [5071] Taxes not to be paid twice, etc.—Any lands which may have been assessed in any county according to the abstract of land titles, and the taxes paid thereon according to law, shall not be afterwards subject to the payment of taxes for the same period in a different county, although a subsequent survey and determination of the county boundaries may show said lands to be in a different county from that in which they were originally assessed; and any sales of such lands for alleged delinquency shall be illegal and void. [Acts of 1879, p. 153, sec. 2.]

Art. 7514. [5072] Vessels, where listed.—All persons, companies and corporations in this state owning steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats and other water crafts shall be required to list the same for assessment and taxation in the county in which the same may be enrolled, registered or licensed, or kept when not enrolled, registered or licensed. [Acts of 1876, p. 277.]

Art. 7515. [5073] Railroads, telegraphs, etc.—All railroad, telegraph, plank road and turnpike companies shall list all of their real and personal property, giving the number of miles of roadbed and line in the county where such roadbed and line is situated, at the full and true value, except when such company may own personal property or real estate in an unorganized county or district, then they shall list such property to the comptroller. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7516. [5074] Listing for others.—Persons required to list property on behalf of others shall list it in the same manner in which they are required to list their own, but they shall list it separately from their own, specifying in each case the name of the person, estate, company or corporation to whom it belongs. [Id. p. 278, sec. 12.]

Art. 7517. [5075] Shall list under oath.—Each person required by law to list property shall make and sign a statement, verified by his oath, as required by law, of all property, both real and personal, in his possession, or under his control, and which he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof, or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7518. [5076] The statement and its requisites.—Such statement shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, and a description sufficient for the identification of any real estate belonging to such owner.
2. The number of acres.
3. The value of the land.
4. The number of the lot or lots.
5. The number of the block.
6. The value of town lots.
7. The name of the city or town.
8. The number of miles of railroad in the county.
9. The value of railroads and appurtenances.
10. Number of miles of telegraph in the county.
11. Value of telegraph and appurtenances in the county.
12. Number and amount of land certificates and value thereof.
13. Number of horses and mules and the value thereof.
14. Number of cattle and the value thereof.
15. Number of jacks and jennets and value thereof.
16. Number of sheep and value thereof.
17. Number of goats and value thereof.
18. Number of hogs and dogs and value thereof.
19. Number of carriages, buggies, wagons, automobiles, bicycles, motor cycles, or other vehicles of whatsoever kind and the value of each one thereof.
20. Number of sewing machines and knitting machines and value thereof.
21. Number of clocks and watches and value thereof.
22. Number of organs, melodeons, piano fortes, and all other musical instruments of whatsoever kind and value thereof.
23. The value of household and kitchen furniture over and above the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars.
24. Office furniture and the value thereof.
25. The value of gold and silver plate.
26. The value of diamonds and jewelry.

27. Every annuity or royalty, the description and value thereof.
28. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats, barges or other water craft, and the value thereof.
29. The value of goods, wares and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant (in hand on the first day of January of each year.)
30. Value of materials and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.
31. Value of manufacturers' tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.
32. Number of steam engines, including boilers, and the value thereof.
33. Amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
34. Amount of credits of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
35. Money on hand or on deposit, in or out of the state, with banks, trust companies, corporations, firms or individuals, and subject to order, check or draft, including certificates of deposit.
36. Amount of credits other than of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.
37. Amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States bonds.
38. Amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this state.
39. Value of all property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.
40. Value of stock and furniture of saloons, hotels and eating houses.
41. Value of every billiard, pigeon hole, bagatelle or other similar tables, together with the number thereof.
42. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.
43. Value of all other property not enumerated above. [Act 1876, p. 278, amended act 1905, p. 357.]

Art. 7519. [5077] Certain credits and stocks not to be listed.—No person shall be required to list or render a greater portion of his credits than he believes will be received or can be collected, or to include in his statement as a part of his personal property which is required to be listed any share or portion of the capital stock or property of any company or corporation which is required to list or return its capital and property for taxation. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7520. [5078] Rendition of real estate.—Persons listing or rendering real estate shall make a statement, duly signed and under oath, which shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, abstract number, number of survey, the number of the certificate, the name of the original grantee, the number of acres, and the true and full value thereof.
2. The number of the lot and block and the true and full value thereof, together with the name of the town or city.
3. When the name of the original grantee, or abstract number, or number of certificate, or number of survey is unknown, say "unknown," and give such description so that land or lot can be identified and the true and full value thereof can be determined. [Id. p. 279, sec. 15.]

Art. 7521. [5079] Assessment of personal property by rendition by banker, broker, etc.—Every bank, whether of issue or deposit, banker, broker, dealer in exchange, or stock jobber, shall at the time fixed by this chapter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the assessor of taxes a sworn statement showing:

1. If a national bank, the president or some other officer of such bank shall furnish to the assessor of the county in which such bank is located a list of the names of all the shareholders of the stock, together with the number and amount of the shares of each stockholder of stock in said bank; and the shareholders of the stock in national banks shall render to the tax assessor of the county in which said bank is located the number of their shares and the true and full value thereof. All shares of stocks in national banks not rendered to the assessor of taxes in the county where such bank is located within the time prescribed by law for listing property for taxes shall be assessed by the assessor against the owner or owners thereof as unrendered property is assessed; but the tax roll shall show the name of the owner or owners thereof as per statement furnished by the president or other officers of said bank.

2. National banks shall render all other bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stock or stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets, together with all other personal property belonging or pertaining to said bank, except such personal property as is specially exempted from taxation by the laws of the United States.

3. National banks shall be required to render all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered; and all the personal property of said national banks herein taxed shall be valued as other personal property is valued.

4. All other banks, bankers, brokers or dealers in exchange, or stock jobbers shall render their list in the following manner:

(1) The amount of money on hand or in transit or in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others subject to draft, whether the same be in or out of the state.

(2) The amount of bills receivable, discounted or purchased and other credits due or to become due, including accounts receivable, interest accrued but not due, and interest due and unpaid.

(3) From the aggregate amount of the items named in the first and second of the last two subdivisions shall be deducted the amount of money on deposit.

(4) The amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets.

(5) All other property belonging or appertaining to said bank or business, including both personal property and real estate, shall be listed as other personal property and real estate. [Acts of 1895, p. 37.]

Art. 7522. [5080] Assessment of real estate by banks.—Every banking corporation, state or national, doing business in this state shall, in the city or town in which it is located, render its real estate to the assessor of taxes at the time and in the manner required of individuals. At the time of making such rendition the president or some other officer of said bank shall file with said assessor a sworn statement showing the number and amount of the shares of said bank, the name and residence of each shareholder, and the number and amount of shares owned by him. Every shareholder of said bank shall, in the city or town where said bank is located, render at their actual value to the assessor of taxes all shares owned by him in such bank; and in case of his failure so to do, the assessor shall assess such unrendered shares as other unrendered property. Each share in such bank shall be taxed only for the difference between its actual cash value and the proportionate amount per share at which its real estate is assessed. The taxes due upon the shares of banking corporations shall be a lien thereon, and no banking corporation shall pay any dividend to any shareholder who is in default in the payment of taxes due on his shares; nor shall any banking corporation permit the transfer upon its books of any share, the owner of which is in default in the payment of his taxes upon the same. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to tax national or state banks, or the shareholders thereof, at a greater rate than is assessed against other moneyed capital in the hands of individuals. [Acts of 1885, p. 106.]

Art. 7523. [5081] No deductions in certain cases.—No person, company or corporation shall be entitled to any deduction on account of any bond, note or obligation of any kind given to any mutual insurance company, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any religious, literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on account of any subscription to or installment payable on the capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated. [Acts of 1876, p. 280, sec. 17.]

Art. 7524. [5082] Assessment by railroads.—It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation in this state to deliver a sworn statement, on or before the thirtieth day of April of each year, to the assessor of each county and incorporated city or town, into or through which any part of their road may run or in which they own or are in possession of real estate, a classified list of all real estate owned by or in possession of said company in said county, town or city, specifying:

1. The whole number of acres of land, lot or lots, exclusive of their right of way and depot grounds, owned, possessed or appropriated for their use, with a valuation affixed to the same.

2. The whole length of the railroad and the value thereof per mile, which valuation shall include right of way, roadbed, superstructure, depots and grounds upon which said depots are situated, and all shops and fixtures of every kind used in operating said road.

3. All personal property of whatsoever kind or character, except the rolling stock belonging to the company or in their possession in each respective county, listing and describing the said personal property in the same manner as is now required of citizens of this state. [Act 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7525. [5083] Railroads to return sworn statements, when, etc.—It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation in this state to deliver a sworn statement, on or before the first day of April in each year, to the assessor of the county in which its principal office is situated, setting forth the true and full value of the rolling stock of said railroad, together with the names of all the counties through which it runs, and the number of miles of roadbed in each of said counties; and said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which its principal office is situated for review, as is provided by article 7564 of this Code, and the other laws of this state, in respect to boards of equalization, on the first Monday in June in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable; and such board shall certify such final valuation when made without delay to the comptroller of public accounts, who shall proceed at once to apportion the amount of such valuation among the said counties in proportion to the distance such roads shall run through any such county, and shall certify such apportionment to the assessors of such counties, and the same shall constitute part of the tax assets of such counties; and the assessor of each of said counties shall list and enter the same upon the rolls for taxation as other personal property situated in said county. And said railroad corporation shall also report in a separate sworn statement all rolling stock operated by it, under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract, which it does not render for taxation, giving the true and full value of such rolling stock and the amount paid or promised to be paid for rental, hire, lease or use under other form of contract, together with the name of person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock, and together with the postoffice address of such person or firm, or if it be a corporation or association, then the city, county and state of its principal office; and if from said statement it appear that said rolling stock belongs to any person residing in the state of Texas, or to any firm doing business in the state of Texas, or to any corporation or association organized under the laws of the state of Texas, then said statement shall be certified by the tax assessor to whom it is made to the tax assessor of the county in which such person lives, or such firm does business, or such corporation or association has its principal office; and said statement shall be, by the tax assessor to whom it is certified, submitted to the board of equalization of the county for review, and the same shall be equalized by the board of equalization of such county, and certified to the comptroller, and apportioned by the comptroller in the same manner as other rolling stock is certified and apportioned under the preceding provisions of this article; and, if it appears from said statement that the person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock is a non-resident of the state of Texas, then said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which the principal office of the railroad company using the same under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract is situated, which statement shall be reviewed by said board of equalization, and said property assessed against the owner, and certified to the comptroller, and the valuation apportioned against said owner by the comptroller in the same manner as rolling stock belonging to the railroad corporation furnishing the list. [Act 1885, p. 30, amended act 1907, p. 192.]

Art. 7526. [5084] Assessments and collections of corporate property.—All property of private corporations, except in cases where some other provision is made by law, shall be assessed in the name of the corporation; and in collecting the taxes on the same all the personal property of such corporation shall be liable to be seized whenever the same may be found in the county, and sold in the same manner as the property of individuals may be sold for taxes. All statements and lists made by corporations that are required to be sworn to shall be verified by the affidavit and signature of the secretary of said corporation, and, if they have no secretary, the officer who discharges the duties of secretary of said corporation. [Acts of 1876, p. 280, secs. 20, 21.]

Art. 7527. [5085] Assessments in owner's name.—All real property subject to taxation shall be assessed to the owners thereof in the manner herein provided; but no assessment of real property shall be considered illegal by reason of the same not being listed or assessed in the name of the owner or owners thereof. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 7528. [5086] Lien for taxes.—All taxes upon real property shall be a lien upon such property until the same shall have been paid. And should the assessor fail to assess any real estate for any one or more years, the lien shall be good for every year that he should fail to assess for; and he may, in listing property for taxes any year thereafter, assess all the back taxes due thereon, according to the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7529. [5087] Leasehold interests in public lands.—Property held under a lease for a term of three years or more, or held under a contract for the purchase thereof, belonging to this state, or that is exempt by law from taxation in the hands of the owner thereof, shall be considered for all the purposes of taxation, as the property of the person so holding the same, except as otherwise specially provided by law. Timber held by persons or corporations, heretofore or hereafter purchased from the state under the various laws for that purpose, shall likewise be subject to assessment for taxes, and the value thereof for taxation shall be ascertained as the value of other property is ascertained. And, should the owner of such timber fail or refuse to pay the taxes assessed against it, the same shall be sold for the taxes thereon, as provided in this title for the sale of personal property for taxes, provided the same can be found by the collector; but, if the timber can not be found, then the collector shall collect the taxes due as the taxes on other personal property are collected; provided, further, that the commissioner of the general land office shall furnish by the first of January each year to the various commissioners' courts and the tax assessors of the state of Texas a full and complete list of all timber sold by the state belonging to the school funds, giving the number of acres, price and to whom sold, in the respective counties where the timber so sold is situated. In case of the sale of such timber for taxes as herein provided, the purchaser shall take and hold the same under the same terms and conditions as the original purchaser thereof from the state. [Act 1905, p. 72.]

Art. 7530. [5088] Valuation of property for taxation.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing or ungathered thereon.

In determining the true and full value of real and personal property, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such a price as such property, including a mine or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family, or any other person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money or property, of any kind, shall be valued at the full value of the same so payable. If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 7531. [5088a] United States paper money taxable.—Circulating notes of national banking associations and United States legal tender notes and other notes and certificates of the United States, payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency, and gold, silver and other coin, shall be hereafter subject to taxation as money on hand or on deposit, under the laws of this state. [Acts 1895, p. 49.]

Art. 7532. [5088b] Assessed as money on hand.—The assessor of taxes shall assess the same in the same manner as money on hand or on deposit or other personal property, as provided for in the general assessment laws of this state. [Id.]

Article 7533. [5089] Election and term of assessor.—There shall be elected by the qualified electors of each county within this state, at the same time and under the same law regulating the election of state and county officers, an assessor of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. [Const., art. 8, sec. 14: Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 265, sec. 1.]

Art. 7534. [5090] Vacancies, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in the office of assessor of taxes, the same shall be filled by the county commissioners' court for the unexpired term only, and until the election and qualification of an assessor at the succeeding general election; and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall qualify in the same manner as is prescribed by law for assessors of taxes, and shall have all the rights and perform all the duties required by law of the assessor elected.

Art. 7535. [5091] Oath and bond.—Every assessor of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to one-fourth the amount of the state tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all the duties of said office; and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which oath, together with said bond, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the comptroller, to be deposited in his office. [Id. p. 266, sec. 2.]

Art. 7536. [5092] Purview of the bond.—Said bond shall be deemed to extend to the faithful performance of the duties of his office as assessor of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but suit may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof be recovered. [Id.]

Art. 7537. [5093] New bond.—Assessors of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond and additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners' court, it may be advisable; and, should any assessor of taxes fail to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id.]

Art. 7538. [5094] Bond for county taxes.—The assessor of taxes shall give a like bond with like conditions to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than one-fourth of the amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed five thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county; which bond shall be recorded and deposited in the county clerk's office of the county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and the assessor of taxes may be removed from office for a failure to furnish a new bond or additional security in the manner prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7539. [5095] May appoint deputies.—Each assessor of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the assessment of taxes, and may require such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the assessor of taxes shall in all cases be liable and accountable for the proceedings and misconduct of his deputies. [Id. p. 267, sec. 7.]

Art. 7540. [5096] Authority of deputies.—The deputies appointed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall do and perform all the duties imposed and required by law of assessors of taxes; and all acts of such deputies done in conformity with law shall be as binding and valid as if done by the assessor of taxes in person. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7541. [5097] May administer oaths.—Assessors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full, complete and correct assessment of all taxable property situated in their respective counties. [Id. p. 266, sec. 4.]

Art. 7542. [5098] The oath.—The assessor of taxes shall also require each person rendering a list of taxable property to him for taxation, under the assessment laws, to subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, which shall be written or printed at the bottom of each inventory, to-wit: "I,
....., (filling the blank with the name of the person subscribing) do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the above inventory rendered by me contains a full, true and complete list of all taxable property owned or held by me in my own name (or for others, as the case may be, naming the person or firm for whom he rendered the list) in this county, subject to taxation in this county, and personal property not in this county subject to taxation in this county by the laws of this state, on the first day of January, A. D. 19.. (filling the blank with the year), and that I have true answers made to all questions propounded to me touching the same. So help me God." [Id. p. 267, sec. 5. Amended act 1897, p. 204.]

Art. 7543. [5099] Where and how the oath may be made.—The owner or agent who is required under the laws of this state to render any property for taxation may render the same in the county where the same is situated by listing the same and making oath thereto, as required in this title, before any officer authorized to administer oaths in this state, or any officer out of this state that is authorized by law to take acknowledgments of instruments for record in this state, and may forward the same to the assessor of the county by mail or otherwise, and the assessor shall enter the said property on his tax rolls. If the assessor is satisfied with the valuation as rendered in said list, he shall so enter the same; if he is not satisfied with the valuation, he shall refer the same to the board of equalization of the county for their action, and shall immediately notify, by mail or otherwise, the person from whom he received said list that he has referred said valuation to the board of equalization. [Acts 1876, p. 267, sec. 5.]

Art. 7544. [5100] Penalty for failure to attest oath, etc.—The assessor of taxes, for every failure or neglect to administer the oath or affirmation prescribed in article 5098 to each person rendering a list of taxable property to him, unless the person refuses to qualify, shall forfeit fifty dollars, to be deducted out of his commissions upon full and satisfactory information furnished the county judge; and for each and every failure or neglect to attest the oath subscribed to as provided in said article, shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars upon satisfactory information furnished the county judge. The forfeitures imposed by this article shall be deducted from the assessor's commissions on the assessment for county taxes. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7545. [5101] Fraud upon the public revenue.—Any evasion by means of artifice or temporary or fictitious sale, exchange or pretended transfer upon any bank books, of gold and silver coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this state for United States non-taxable treasury notes or any notes or bonds not so subject to taxation, and any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer not made in good faith, and by actual exchange and delivery of the funds so sold, exchanged or transferred and made only by entry on bank books, or by any express or implied understanding not to immediately make a bona fide and permanent sale, shall be deemed prima facie to be a fraud upon the public revenue of this state. [Acts of 1891, p. 39, sec. 1.]

Art. 7546. [5102] Taxpayer to make oath.—All assessors of taxes in this state shall require all taxpayers when assessed by them to make oath as to any such sale, exchange or transfer made by them on the first day of January or within sixty days before said first day of January of any year for which any such assessment is made, as to the good faith and bona fide business transaction of any such sale, exchange or transfer, as above set forth, if any such should have been made by them; and, if it should be disclosed that any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer has been made for the purpose of evading taxation, then and in that event the assessor shall list and render against such person the coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this state; provided, that if any person shall make a false affidavit as to any of the foregoing facts he shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished as is now provided by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7547. [5103] When assessments to be made.—Assessors of taxes shall, between the first day of January and the thirtieth day of April of each year, proceed to take a list of taxable property, real and personal, in his county and assess the value thereof in the manner following, to-wit: By calling upon the person, or by calling at the office, place of business or the residence of the person and listing the property required by law in his name, and requiring such person to make a statement under oath as prescribed by article 7542, of such property in the form hereinafter prescribed. [Act 1876, p. 265, sec. 9. Amended act 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7548. [5104] Irregular assessments valid.—Should any property be listed or assessed for taxation after the thirtieth day of April of any year, or should the assessor of taxes or his deputy fail to administer the requisite oath or attest the same in the mode prescribed by law, or should the party rendering property for taxation fail to subscribe to the list, yet the assessment shall, nevertheless, be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as if made in strict pursuance of law. [Id.]

Art. 7549. [5105] If taxpayer is absent, etc.—If any person, who is required by this title to list property, shall be sick or absent when the assessor calls for a list of his property, the assessor shall leave at the office, or usual place of residence or business of such person, a written or printed notice requiring such person to meet him and render a list of his property at such time and place as the assessor of taxes may designate in said notice. The assessor of taxes shall carefully note in a book the date of leaving such notice. [Id. p. 268, sec. 10.]

Art. 7550. [5106] Or refuses to list.—In every case where any person whose duty it is to list any property for taxation has refused or neglected to list the same when called on for that purpose by the assessor of taxes, or has refused to subscribe to the oath in regard to the truth of his statement of property, or any part thereof, when required by the assessor of taxes, the assessor shall note in a book the name of such person who refused to list or to swear; and in every case where any person required to list property for taxation has been absent or unable from sickness to list the same, the assessor of taxes shall note in a book such fact, together with the name of such person. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7551. [5107] Duty of assessor in such cases.—In all cases of failure to obtain a statement of real and personal property from any cause, it shall be the duty of the assessor of taxes to ascertain the amount and value of such property and assess the same as he believes to be the true and full value thereof; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as if such property had been rendered by the proper owner thereof. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7552. [5108] Commissioner of general land office to furnish abstracts to assessors.—The commissioner of the general land office shall furnish to each assessor of taxes in this state a correct abstract of all the surveys of land and number of acres therein in their respective counties; and on the first day of January of each year said commissioner of the general land office shall furnish said assessors an additional list of all new valid surveys in his county during the year; provided, that, in case the records of the land office do not show the quantity of acres in a survey, the surveyor of the district shall furnish said assessor a certified statement of the number of acres therein. [Acts of 1879, p. 24.]

Art. 7553. [5109] Books to be furnished assessors; how to be filled by assessors.—The commissioners' courts of each county in this state shall procure and furnish the assessor of said county three well-bound books of not less than six hundred and forty pages each, and an index book for same, and such other stationery as may be necessary; said books to be of the best material and make, and shall have printed headings as per following form: [Id. sec. 2.]

Abstract No. Assessor's Abstract for Co.

P A T E N T										C E R T I F I C A T E
No.	Vol.	To Whom Issued	Date			Acres	No.	Class	Character	To Whom Issued	Year	Value	Acres	By Whom Rendered	Year	Value
			Month	Day	Year

Rendered for Taxation

Art. 7554. [5110] How to be filled by assessor.—The blanks to be filled by the assessor with the abstract number, name of party to whom the certificate was issued, the number, class and character of the certificate, the name of the party to whom the patent issued, number of volume of patent, the month, day and year it was issued, and the number of acres each survey contains; which whole survey shall stand as a debit against the assessor. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7555. [5111] Blocks and lots in cities.—Each assessor shall be required to make an abstract of all the blocks or subdivisions of each of the cities or towns or villages of his county, in a book or books of at least four hundred and eighty pages each, to be furnished him by the commissioners' court of his county for that purpose, with an index book to the same, which said book or books shall have a blank space for a diagram or plot of each block or subdivision, giving the number of the lots as per form following:

Block No. _____ Assessor's Abstract of City Lots in _____ County, City of _____
Year	Owner's Name
Year	Owner's Name	No. Lot	Value
Year	Owner's Name	No. Lot	Value

And the said assessor shall draw a plot of each block in the blank space left for that purpose, giving the number of each lot. And the whole of said block or subdivision shall be a debit against the assessor. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7556. [5112] Duties of assessor as to same.—Each assessor in this state, when he shall have made the assessment of his county for each year, shall, on the first day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, carry from each person's assessment the number of acres and its value on each survey of lands, lots or blocks to that particular survey, lot or block found on the abstract books provided in articles 5110, 5111 and 5119 [7554, 7555 and 7563]; and that all the parts of each survey or block placed on said abstract books shall be a credit to the assessor on that particular survey. And said assessor shall deduct the total number of acres rendered on each survey or block from the total number of acres of the whole survey or block as is shown by said abstract; and, if any part is left unrendered, then he shall assess the same to the owner or owners thereof, if known, and, if unknown, then to "unknown owners," and the value thereof shall be affixed by him, sanctioned by the board of equalization; provided, that the owner or owners of any survey and grant of land may show by a survey, to be made by the county surveyor of the county, that the survey and grant in which they are interested does not contain the full complement of acres, showing how many acres are in fact embraced within the calls of the particular survey and grant. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7557. [5113] To be kept in office.—The assessor's abstracts shall be kept in his office at the county seat of his county, as records of his office, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. The index book shall show the original grantee, the number of acres, the abstract number, and the volume and page in which each survey is placed. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7558. [5114] Lands not on abstract to be placed there.—Should there be any survey of lands, lots or blocks not on the abstract book or books which are by law subject to taxation, the assessor shall enter such lands, lots or blocks on the assessment list as though the same appeared on said abstract books. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7559. [5115] Certificate from board of equalization.—Each assessor of taxes shall procure from the board of equalization of his county a certificate that all the surveys and parts of surveys of lands in his county, and all the lots and blocks of the cities and towns of his county, are rendered for taxation; which certificate shall be forwarded to the comptroller of this state before he shall issue to said assessor a draft on the tax collector of his county. And the same rule shall apply to the commissioners' court before they issue drafts on the county treasurer for his pay for assessing the county taxes. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7560. [5116] Substitute to be employed if assessor fails.—The board of equalization or the county commissioners' court shall, if the assessor fails to perform the duties required by this chapter within a reasonable time, employ some other competent person to have the requirements of this law carried out, and the compensation therefor shall be deducted from the assessor's pay for that year. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7561. [5117] Unorganized counties.—The comptroller of this state shall be required to have this law carried out in the unorganized counties of this state, where lands are located. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7562. [5118] Manner and form of assessing.—The manner and form for assessing property for taxation shall be substantially as follows, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner.
2. Abstract number.
3. From whom and how acquired.
4. The name of the original grantee.
5. The number of acres.

31. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharves, boats, barges, or other water craft, and the value thereof.
32. The value of goods and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant in hand on the first day of January of each year.
33. The value of material and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.
34. The value of manufactures, tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.
35. Number of steam engines and boilers and value thereof.
36. The amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker, stock jobber or any other person.
37. The amount of solvent credits of bank, banker, broker, stock jobber or any other person.
38. The amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States bonds.
39. The amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this state.
40. The value of property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.
41. The value of stock and furniture of saloons, hotels and eating houses.
42. The value of every billiard, pigeon hole, bagatelle, and other similar table, together with the number thereof.
43. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.
44. The value of all other property not enumerated as above. [Acts of 1895, p. 38.]

Art. 7563. [5119] Assessment of property not rendered.—If the assessor of taxes discovers any real property in his county subject to taxation which has not been listed to him, he shall list and assess such property in the manner following, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner; if unknown, say “unknown.”
2. Abstract number and number of certificate.
3. Number of the survey.
4. Name of the original grantee.
5. Number of acres.
6. The true and full value thereof.
7. The number of lot or lots.
8. The number of the block.
9. The true and full value thereof.
10. The name of the city or town, and give such other description of the lot or lots or parcels of land as may be necessary to better describe the same; and such assessment shall be as valid as if rendered by the owner thereof. [Id. p. 269, sec. 14.]

Art. 7564. [5120] Boards of equalization.—The commissioners’ courts of the several counties of this state shall convene and sit as boards of equalization on the second Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable before the first day of June, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessors of their counties for inspection, correction or equalization and approval.

1. They shall cause the assessor to bring before them at such meeting all said assessment lists, books, etc. for inspection, and see that every person has rendered his property at a fair market value, and shall have power to send for persons, books and papers, swear and qualify persons, to ascertain the value of such property, and to lower or raise the value on the same.

2. They shall have power to correct errors in assessments.

3. They shall equalize improved lands in three classes, first-class to embrace the better quality of land and improvements, the second class to embrace the second quality of lands and improvements, and the third-class to embrace lands of but small or inferior improvements. The unimproved lands shall embrace first, second and third class, and all other property made as nearly uniform as possible.

4. After they have inspected and equalized as nearly as possible, they shall approve said lists or books and return same to the assessors for making up the general rolls, when said board shall meet again and approve the same, if same be found correct.

5. Whenever said board shall find it their duty to raise the assessment of any person’s property, it shall be their duty to order the county clerk to give the person written notice who rendered the same, that they desire to raise the value of the same. It shall be their duty to cause the county clerk to give ten days written notice before their meeting by publication in some newspaper, but, if none is published in the county, then by posting a written or printed notice in each justice’s precinct, one of which must be at the court house door.

6. The assessors of taxes shall furnish to the board of equalization, on the first Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refuse to swear or to qualify or to have signed the oath or affirmation as required by law, together with the assessment of said person’s property made by him through other information; and the board of equalization shall examine, equalize and correct assessments so made by the assessor, and when so revised, equalized and corrected, the same shall be approved. [Acts of 1879, p. 44; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., No. 108, p. 486; amended act 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7565. [5120a] Assessment of real property for previous years.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any real property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation for any year since 1870, he shall list and assess the same for each and every year for which it has not been assessed, in the manner prescribed in the preceding article; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof; but no such real property shall be assessed by the assessor, unless he has ascertained by the certificate of the comptroller of public accounts the fact that the records of his office do not show that the property has been rendered or assessed for the year in which he assesses it. [Acts of 1888, p. 4; Id. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 486.]

Art. 7566. [5121] Assessment of back taxes on personal property.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any property, or, outside of his county but belonging to a resident of the county, and personal property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation every year for two years past, he shall list and assess the same for each and every year thus omitted which it has belonged to said resident, in the manner prescribed for assessing other property; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof. [Acts of 1887, p. 127.]

Art. 7567. [5121a] Unlisted property; supplemental roll.—Collectors of taxes of counties, cities and towns, when any taxpayer applies to them for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of his taxes, and the collector finds that his name or his property does not appear on the tax roll, shall, and it is hereby made their duty to, assess said taxpayer then and there, collect the taxes and enter the same upon a supplemental tax roll to be made by him. He shall make out, on forms to be furnished by the comptroller, three copies of such supplemental roll, one copy to be delivered to the comptroller of public accounts, one to be delivered to the county clerk, and one to be filed in the collector's office. Said supplemental tax roll shall be made out and delivered to the county commissioners' court with all other papers pertaining to the final settlement of said tax collector, and the same shall be examined and approved by the county commissioners' court, in like manner as upon the tax roll of the tax assessor. The collectors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full and correct assessment of all taxable property assessed by them under this act. The oath shall be the same as is administered by tax assessors under existing law. The collector of taxes shall receive the following compensation for his services on all assessments made by him under this act, to-wit: For assessing the state and county taxes, four cents for each one hundred dollars of property so assessed, and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll; which fee shall be paid in the same way as the tax assessor's fee in article 5133 [7583]. [Acts of 1895, p. 103.]

Art. 7568. [5122] Assessor to follow instructions.—The assessors of taxes, in the execution of their duties, shall use the forms and follow the instructions which shall from time to time be prescribed by the comptroller of public accounts, and furnished to them by the county judge in pursuance of law. [Acts of 1876, p. 265.]

Art. 7569. [5123] Equalization of assessments.—Hereafter when any person, firm or corporation renders his, their or its property in this state for taxation to any tax assessor, and makes oath as to the kind, character, quality and quantity of such property, and the said officer accepting said rendition from such person, firm or corporation of such property is satisfied that it is correctly and properly valued according to the reasonable cash market value of such property on the market at the time of its rendition, he shall list the same accordingly; but, if the assessor is satisfied that the value is below the reasonable cash market value of such property, he shall at once place on said rendition opposite each piece of property so rendered an amount equal to the reasonable cash market value of such property at the time of its rendition, and, if such property shall be found to have no market value by such officer, then at such sum as said officer shall deem the real or intrinsic value of the property; and, if the person listing such property or the owner thereof is not satisfied with the value placed on the property by the assessor he shall so notify the assessor, and if desiring so to do may make oath before the assessor that the valuation so fixed by said officer on said property is excessive; then it shall be the duty of such officer to furnish such rendition, together with his valuation thereon and the oath of such person, firm or officer of any corporation, if any such oath has been made, to the commissioners' court of the county in which said rendition was made, which court shall hear evidence and determine the true value of such property as is hereinafter provided; and in this connection it is provided that such officer or court shall take into consideration what said property could have been sold for any time within six months next before the rendition of said property. [Id. p. 270, sec. 17. Amended act 1907, p. 459.]

Art. 7570. [5124] Boards may equalize without complaint.—The boards of equalization shall have power, and it is made their official duty, to supervise the assessment of their respective counties, and, if satisfied that the valuation of any property is not in accordance with the laws of the state, to increase or diminish the same and to affix a proper valuation thereto, as provided for in article 7569 of this chapter; and, when any assessor in this state shall have furnished said court with the rendition as provided for in article 7569 of this chapter, it shall be the duty of such court to call before it such persons as in its judgment may know the market value or true value of such property, as the case may be, by proper process, who shall testify under oath the character, quality and quantity of such property, as well as the value thereof. Said court, after hearing the evidence, shall fix the value of such property in accordance with the evidence so introduced and as provided for in article 7569 of this chapter; and their action in such case or cases shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7571. [5124a] Penalty for neglect of duty by assessor.—If any tax assessor in this state shall fail, refuse or neglect to place upon any rendition as provided for in article 7569 of this chapter, the true value or market value in accordance with the method of fixing such value as provided for herein, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to return to the commissioners' court such rendition, together with the oath of the owner or person listing such property for taxes when such oath has been made, as provided for in this chapter, or, if the assessor accepts the rendition from any person rendering property for taxation without reading to such person the oath and having it signed and sworn to as provided by law, such failure, refusal or neglect shall be deemed malfeasance on the part of such officer, and shall be cause for his removal from office. [Act 1907, p. 459.]

Art. 7572. [5124b] Oath of assessor.—Every tax assessor and deputy tax assessor in this state, in addition to the oath prescribed by the constitution of this state, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor, as the case may be) in and for _____ county, Texas, do solemnly swear that I will personally view and inspect all the real estate and improvements thereon subject to taxation lying in said county that may be rendered to me for taxation by any corporation or individual, or by their agent or representative, as fully as may be practicable, and that I will, as fully as is practicable, view and inspect all other taxable property in said county rendered to me as aforesaid; that I will to the best of my ability make a true estimate of the cash value, the market value of such property, if such property has a market value, and if it has no market value, then the real value of all such property, both real and personal, on the first day of January next preceding; and that I will make up and attach to each assessment sheet made up and sworn to by the said property owners, their agents or representatives, a true assessment and valuation of said property, together with a memoranda of all facts which I may learn bearing upon the value of said taxable property, and that I will make all possible inquiry relative to the true value of such property; and that I will attach said memoranda and statement of facts that I may ascertain as aforesaid to the said assessment sheets of the respective property owners. That I have read and understand the several provisions of the constitution and laws of this state relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully do and perform every duty required of me as tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor), by the constitution and laws of this state. So help me God." This oath shall be administered by the county clerk and shall be in duplicate; the original shall be by the clerk filed and recorded in the records of the county, and the duplicate shall be retained by the assessor, or the deputy, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 7573. [5124c] Oath of board.—When a commissioners' court in this state convenes as a board of equalization, before considering the subject of equalization of property values for the purposes of taxation, each member of the court, including the county judge, shall take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, a member of the board of equalization of _____ county, for the year A. D. _____, hereby solemnly swear that, in the performance of my duties as a member of such board for said year, I will not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of said county for said year at any sum which I believe to be less than its true market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as a member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed for said year at less than its true market value, or real value, raised on the tax rolls to what I believe to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value, if not, then to its real value; and that I will faithfully endeavor to have the assessed valuation of all property subject to taxation within said county stand upon the tax rolls of said county for said year at its true cash market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value. I further solemnly swear that I have read and understand the provisions contained in the constitution and laws of this state relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me under the constitution and laws of this state. So help me God." Said oath shall be filed and recorded in the commissioners' court record as a part of the proceedings of that term of court. [Id.]

Art. 7574. [5124d] Neglect of duty cause for removal from office; attorney general to file suit.—If, in passing upon the value of any property by a commissioners' court sitting as a board of equalization in this state, the court shall fix a value upon any property for the purpose of taxation and a minority of said court do not concur in the judgment of the court, the clerk shall record in the minutes of the court the names of the members, including the county judge, who do not concur in fixing such values (if the county judge shall cast the deciding vote in such matter); and, if any tax assessor or members of any commissioners' court in this state shall knowingly fail or refuse to fix the value of property rendered for taxes in compliance with this chapter, and all other laws of this state, such failure, neglect or refusal shall constitute malfeasance in office on the part of such assessor or member or members of said court, and such failure, neglect or refusal shall be cause for his or their removal from office. Whenever the fact is brought to the knowledge of the attorney general of this state that any tax assessor, deputy tax assessor, county judge, or member of the commissioners' court, has failed, refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this chapter, he shall at once file suit for the removal from office of such officer or officers thus offending. Such proceedings for the removal of such officer or officers herein provided for shall be brought in the district court of the county of such officer's residence; and such suit shall be brought by the attorney general of the state or under his direction. [Id. art. 5124e, R. S. 1895.]

Art. 7575. [5125] Assessor to furnish list of delinquents.—The assessor of taxes shall furnish the board of equalization on the first Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refused to swear or to qualify, or to sign the oath or affirmation, as prescribed in this title; also a list of the names of those persons who refused to render a list of taxable property as required by this title. And should any person so failing or refusing to take the oath prescribed, or to render a list of their property, or to subscribe to the oath, as required by the provisions of this title, fail to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to the board of equalization within one month from the date of the filing of said list by the assessor, as required by this article, the board of equalization shall return a list of all persons who have failed to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to render, qualify or subscribe to the oath or affirmation, as the case may be, to the assessor of taxes, who shall present the said list to the grand jury of his county next impaneled after the board of equalization has furnished him with the list above required. [Acts 1876, p. 270, sec. 18.]

Art. 7576. [5126] And submit lists to board of equalization.—The assessor of taxes shall submit all the lists of property rendered to him prior to the first Monday in June to the board of equalization of his county on the first Monday in June, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for their inspection, approval, correction or equalization; and, after the board of equalization shall have returned the corrected and approved lists of taxable property, the assessor of taxes shall proceed to assess all the unrendered property of his county as provided for in this title, and shall proceed to make out and prepare his rolls or books of all the real and personal property listed to him, in the form and manner prescribed by the comptroller of the state. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 7577. [5127] Shall make out rolls in triplicate.—As soon as the board of equalization shall have examined, corrected and approved the assessor's list, the assessor of taxes shall prepare and make out a roll or book, as may be required by the comptroller, from the list so corrected and approved, and three exact copies of the same, the original to be furnished to the collector of taxes, the second to the comptroller of public accounts, and the third to be filed in the county clerk's office for the inspection of the public. He shall also prepare a roll or book, and two exact copies thereof, to be distributed, the first to the collector of taxes, the second to the comptroller, the third to be filed in the county clerk's office, of all the real and personal property which has not been listed to him. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7578. [5128] Also rolls of unrendered property.—The assessor of taxes shall, after his list of unrendered real and personal property shall have been examined, corrected and approved by the board of equalization as provided by law, prepare and make out his rolls or books of all unrendered real and personal property listed by him in the manner and form prescribed by the comptroller of the state. [Id. p. 271, sec. 21.]

Art. 7579. [5129] And add up columns.—The assessor of taxes shall add up and note the aggregate of each column on his roll or book, and he shall also make in each book or roll, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and he shall add up and set down under the respective headings the total of the several columns. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 7580. [5130] Return and oath.—The assessor of taxes shall, on or before the first day of August of each year for which the assessment is made, return his rolls or assessment books of the taxable property rendered to him or listed by him for that year, after they have been made in accordance with the provisions of this title, to the county board of equalization, verified by his affidavit, substantially on the following form:

The State of Texas, }
 County. }

I,, assessor of county, do solemnly swear that the rolls (or books) to which this is attached contain a correct and full list of the real and personal property subject to taxation in (fill the blank with the name of the county) county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; that I have sworn every person listing property to me in the county, or caused the same to be done in manner and form as provided by law; and that the assessed value set down in the proper column opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property is the true and correct valuation thereof as ascertained by law, and the footings of the several columns in said books and the tabular statement returned is correct, as I verily believe. [Id. sec. 23; Amend. Act 1897, p. 204.]

Art. 7581. [5131] All lists, etc., filed in county clerk's office.—The assessor of taxes shall at the same time deliver to the board of equalization all the lists, statements of all property which shall have been made out or received by him, and arranged in alphabetical order, together with the roll withdrawn to aid him in the past assessment. The lists and statements shall be filed in the county clerk's office, and remain there for the inspection of the public. [Acts 1870, p. 271, sec. 24.]

Art. 7582. [5132] Rolls, how distributed.—After the board of equalization shall have examined the rolls or assessment books and made all corrections, if any be necessary, the assessor shall send one copy of each to the comptroller of public accounts, one copy of each to the collector of his county, and he shall file the other copies in the county clerk's office until the next assessment, when the assessor shall have the right to withdraw them and use as provided in this title: [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 7583. Compensation.—Each assessor of taxes shall receive the following compensation for his services, which shall be estimated upon the total values of the property assessed, as follows: For assessing the state and county tax, on all sums for the first two million dollars or less, five cents for each one hundred dollars of property assessed; and on all sums in excess of two million dollars and less than five million dollars, two and one-fourth cents on each one hundred dollars; and on all sums in excess of five million dollars, one and seven-tenths cents on each one hundred dollars; one-half of the above fees shall be paid by the state and one-half by the county; and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll, which shall be paid by the state. The commissioners' court may allow to the assessor of taxes such sums of money, to be paid monthly from the county treasury, as may be necessary to pay for clerical work, taking assessments and making out the tax rolls of the county, such sums so allowed to be deducted from the amount allowed to the assessor as compensation upon the completion of said tax rolls; provided, the amount allowed the assessor by the commissioners' court shall not exceed the compensation that may be due by the county to him for assessing. [Acts of 1883, p. 33. Amended Act 1, S. S., 1897, p. 8, sec. 8.]

Art. 7584. [5134] How paid by state.—The comptroller, on receipt of the rolls, shall give the assessor an order on the collector of his county for the amount due him by the state for assessing the state taxes, to be paid out of the first money collected for that year. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 7585. [5135] By the county.—The commissioners' court shall issue an order on the county treasurer of their county, to the assessor, for the amount due him for assessing the county tax of their county, to be paid out of the first money received from the collector on the rolls of that year. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 7586. [5136] Penalties for neglect of duty.—Should any assessor of taxes fail or neglect to make out and return his rolls or books to the commissioners' court in the time and manner provided for in this chapter, it shall be competent for the commissioners' court to deduct from his compensation such amount as they may deem proper and right for such neglect or failure; and, should his rolls or books, when presented for approval to the commissioners' court, prove to be imperfect or erroneous, the court shall have the same corrected or perfected, either by the assessor or some other person than the assessor of taxes. Such person so employed by the commissioners' court shall be entitled to such part of the commissions to which such assessor is entitled as the court may allow; and said court shall so certify to the comptroller, who shall pay such person in the same manner as the assessor of taxes is paid; and the amount so paid shall be deducted by the comptroller from the commissions of the assessor of taxes, whose duty it was to have performed such work. [Id. sec. 29. See Acts of 1879, ch. 47.]

Art. 7587. [5137] Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties, etc.—Lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and lands lying in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be assessed by the comptroller of public accounts in accordance with such regulations as he may adopt and establish for that purpose. [Const., art. 8, sec. 12.]

PROPERTY IN UNORGANIZED COUNTIES.

Art. 7588. [5138] Lands in unorganized counties.—All lands and other property situated in the unorganized counties of this state, owned by residents of such unorganized counties, shall be assessed by the assessor of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and the taxes collected by the collector of such organized county; and the same remedies for the enforcement of the assessment and collection of such taxes shall apply as the law directs for the assessment and collection of the taxes on property situated in organized counties of this state. [Acts of 1879, p. 141.]

Art. 7589. [5139] Duties of comptroller in relation thereto.—The comptroller of the state is authorized, empowered and required to assess and collect the state and county taxes on all lands in this state which are situated in unorganized counties thereof and owned by non-residents thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 2. Amended Acts 1897, p. 43.]

Art. 7590. [5140] Same.—The comptroller may at any time prior to the return of the assessment rolls to his office of the organized county to which such unorganized county or counties are attached for judicial purposes, receive the assessment of and collect the taxes on any lands situated in such unorganized county or counties which are owned by non-residents thereof. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7591. [5141] Same.—As soon as the tax rolls of the organized county to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have been received by the comptroller, he shall, by comparing the lands rendered to the assessor of the organized county by the residents of such unorganized county or counties with those previously rendered to him by non-residents, make out a list of all unrendered lands situated in such unorganized county, and place such value upon the lands thus found to be unrendered as he, as a sworn officer, may deem just and fair; provided, nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the comptroller from receiving the assessment and taxes due at any time prior to the completion of the unrendered list of such unorganized county. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7592. [5142] Same.—After the completion of the unrendered list provided for in this chapter, the owner or owners must pay according to the value and assessment made thereon by the comptroller. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7593. [5143] May appeal from comptroller's assessment.—Assessment of lands rendered to the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall be made by the party rendering the same under oath as to their value; but if the comptroller thinks the valuation too low he shall object, and, if the comptroller and the party rendering the land can not agree, then the comptroller shall assess the same at such value as he as a sworn officer may think it is worth; and, if the party rendering feels that the assessment is too high, he may appeal to the board of equalization, which for such purposes shall consist of the governor, attorney general and the secretary of state, and their decision shall be final. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7594. [5144] May levy upon and sell, when.—Three months after the completion of the unrendered list of each unorganized county respectively, the comptroller shall proceed to levy upon and advertise all lands in such counties upon which the taxes are due and unpaid, giving notice of the amount due upon each separate tract of land, and giving such description of the land upon which taxes are due and unpaid as he may be in possession of; such notice to be given by publication in some weekly newspaper published in the state for four consecutive weeks; said notice to state that on a certain day therein named the comptroller will proceed to sell the land therein described, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay the state and county taxes due, and the cost of advertising the same. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7595. [5145] Sale.—The sale shall commence on the day named in said notice, and may continue from day to day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) until completed; such sale shall be had in front of the comptroller's office, in the city of Austin, between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of each day. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7596. [5146] May be bought by state, when.—Should there be no purchaser of said lands, then the comptroller shall bid the same in to the state for the taxes due thereon and the costs of sale, and make a deed to the state to the same, including in one deed all lands bid in for the state or any one else. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7597. [5147] Redemption.—Should the lands bid in by the comptroller for the state not be redeemed by the owner thereof or his agent within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which the said land was sold, then the said lands thus sold and unredeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund, to be sold and disposed of as other lands belonging to the public free school fund are to be sold and disposed of by law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7598. [5148] Tax deed.—The comptroller shall give to the purchaser of any lands, the sale of which is provided for in this chapter, a deed to the same, giving in such deed such description of the land as may be necessary to identify the same, or such description as he may be in possession of. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7599. [5149] List of purchasers to be kept in office.—The comptroller shall keep a list of the purchaser or purchasers of all such lands in his office, showing the name and postoffice of the purchaser or purchasers, together with the amount and description of the land sold and the amount for which it was sold, and the date of sale. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7600. [5150] Deed shall vest good title, when.—The deed given to the purchaser or purchasers by the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall vest a good and sufficient fee simple title in the purchaser or purchasers, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud; provided, the former owner or owners thereof do not redeem the same within two years from the date of the deed, either by paying to the purchaser or purchasers double the amount for which said land was sold, or by making a tender of the same to him or his agent, or by depositing with the comptroller before the expiration of the two years double the amount for which such land was sold, to be paid by the comptroller, when called upon, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7601. [5151] County taxes to be paid, when.—All county taxes collected under the provisions of article 5147 [7597] shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7602. [5152] Comptroller to keep taxes of unorganized counties until.—All county taxes, other than taxes to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, due unorganized counties, collected by the comptroller, shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the total sum to the credit of the county shall reach the sum of five thousand dollars. Then he shall, upon the demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, when the same shall have organized, pay said sum, or whatever amount is held to the credit of said county, over to said treasurer. And all county taxes collected by the comptroller after the amount to the credit of such unorganized county shall reach the amount of five thousand dollars shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id. sec. 15; amended act 1897, p. 43.]

Art. 7603. [5152a] Same.—Where the amount to the credit of any unorganized county now exceeds five thousand dollars the comptroller shall keep said sum to be paid to the treasurer of such unorganized county when the same shall organize; and all county taxes, other than taxes collected to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, hereafter collected by the comptroller in such counties, shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes. [Act 1897, p. 43.]

Art. 7604. [5153] Special deposit to be made by comptroller.—All money received by the comptroller on deposit for the redemption of land sold and bought by individuals shall be by him deposited in the state treasury as a special deposit, subject to the order of the party to whom the conditional deed to such land was given. So also shall all county taxes collected by the comptroller under the provisions of this law be deposited in the state treasury as a special fund, subject to the order of the comptroller, to be paid to the county treasurers as provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 16.]

Article 7605. [5154] Election and term of collector.—In each county having ten thousand inhabitants, to be determined by the last preceding census of the United States, there shall be elected by the qualified voters, at the same time and under the same law regulating the election of state and county officers, a collector of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. [Const., art. 8, sec. 16. Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 259, sec. 1.]

Art. 7606. [5155] Vacancies, how filled.—Should the office of collector of taxes from any cause become vacant before the expiration of said term, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court in the county in which such vacancy shall occur, to appoint a collector of taxes, who shall be qualified in the same manner and subject to like bonds as the collector of taxes elected; and the collector of taxes so appointed shall hold his office for and during the unexpired term of his predecessor and until his successor shall have been qualified; and the collector of taxes so appointed shall have all the rights and perform all the duties required by law of the collector of taxes elected. [Id.]

Art. 7607. [5156] Sheriff a collector, when.—In each county having less than ten thousand inhabitants, the sheriff of such county shall be the collector of taxes, and shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges, be subject to all the requirements and restrictions, and perform all the duties imposed by law upon collectors; and he shall also give the same bonds required of a collector of taxes elected. [Const., art. 8, sec. 16. Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7608. [5157] Bond and oath.—Every collector of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give a bond based upon unincumbered real estate of the sureties subject to execution, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to the whole amount of the state tax of the county as shown by the last preceding assessment, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, which shall be further subject to the approval of the comptroller, and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, which, together with said bonds, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of said county and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the comptroller to be deposited in his office. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as collector of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but suit may be maintained thereon until the whole amount thereof be recovered. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7609. [5158] New bond.—The collector of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond or additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners' court or comptroller of public accounts, it may be advisable. Should any collector of taxes fail to give a new bond and additional security, when required, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 7610. [5159] Bond for county taxes.—Collectors of taxes shall give a like bond, with like conditions, to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than the whole amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county; which bond shall be recorded and deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court. A new bond and additional security may be required; and, for a failure to give such new bond or additional security, the collector of taxes may be removed from office in the manner prescribed by law. [Id. p. 260, sec. 4.]

Art. 7611. [5160] All bonds to be first approved.—No collector of taxes shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office until all the bonds required of him by law for the collection of any taxes, state, county or special, shall have been given and approved.

Art. 7612. [5161] May appoint deputies.—Each collector of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the collection of taxes, and may take such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the collectors, in all cases, shall be liable and accountable for his proceedings and misconduct in office. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7613. [5162] Rolls to be a warrant.—When the collector of taxes of any county shall have received the assessment rolls or books of the county, he shall receipt to the commissioners' court for the same; and said rolls or books shall be full and sufficient authority for the county collector of taxes to receive and collect the taxes therein levied. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7614. [5163] Collector for all taxes.—The collector of taxes shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes assessed upon the tax list in his county, whether assessed for the state or county, school, poorhouse or other purpose; and he shall proceed to collect the same according to law, and place the same when collected to the proper fund, and pay the same over to the proper authorities, as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7615. [5164] Collections, when to begin.—The collector of taxes of each county shall begin the collection of taxes annually on the first day of October, or so soon thereafter as he may be able to obtain the proper assessment rolls, books or data upon which to proceed with the business; and he shall post up notices—not less than three—at public places in each voting or magistrate's precinct in his county, at least twenty days previous to the day said taxpayers are required to meet him for the purpose of paying their taxes, stating in said notice the times and places the same are required to be paid;

and it shall be the duty of said collector, or his deputy, to attend at such times and places for the purposes aforesaid, and shall remain at each place at least two days; and, if the collector shall, from any cause, fail to meet the taxpayers at the time and place specified in the first notice, he shall, in like manner, give a second notice. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7616. [5165] Shall keep office at county seat.—The collector of taxes shall keep his office at the county seat of his county; and it shall be the duty of every person who has failed to attend and to pay his taxes at the times and places in his precinct named by the collector, as provided in the preceding article, to call at the office of the collector and pay the same before the last day of December of the same year for which the assessment is made. [Acts of 1887, p. 127.]

Art. 7617. [5166] Tax receipt and its requisites.—The collector of taxes or his deputy, whenever any tax is paid, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of state ad valorem tax, amount of state poll tax, the amount of county ad valorem tax, the amount of county poll tax, and the year or years for which such tax was levied; said receipt shall also show the number of acres of land in each separate tract, number, abstract and name of original grantee; the said receipt shall have a duplicate stub showing the name of the person, the date, the amount of each separate tax and the date of payment. The collector of taxes shall provide himself with a seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points, surrounded by the words, "Collector of taxes, ——— County" [the blank to be filled with the name of the county], and shall impress said seal to each receipt given by him for taxes collected on real estate; and said receipt having the seal attached shall be admissible to record in the county in which the property is situated in same manner as deeds duly authenticated, and when so recorded shall be full and complete notice to all persons of the payment of said tax. [Acts of 1876, p. 261, sec. 10.]

Art. 7618. [5167] Quarterly reports; requisites of; duties of collector.—

1. At the end of each month, the collector of taxes shall, on forms to be furnished by the comptroller of public accounts, make an itemized report under oath to the comptroller, showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all state taxes collected.

2. He shall present such report, together with the tax receipt stubs, to the county clerk, who shall, within two days, compare said report with said stubs; and, if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates, and amounts, he (the clerk) shall certify to its correctness, for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the commissioners' court twenty-five cents for each certificate and twenty-five cents for each two hundred taxpayers on said report.

3. The collector of taxes shall then immediately forward his reports so certified to the comptroller, and shall pay over to the state treasurer all moneys collected by him for the state during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected; and, to enable him to do so, he may, at his own risk, send the same to the state treasurer at the least cost to the state, on which he shall be allowed credit by the comptroller upon filing receipts showing actual amount of exchange paid; provided, that the state treasurer shall accept no payment other than money orders or direct cash payments, which may be made through express companies, banks, or any other source. The state treasurer, whenever he may receive a remittance from a collector of taxes, shall promptly pay the money so remitted to the state treasury, on the deposit warrant of the comptroller, and the money when so deposited shall be a credit to the said collector of taxes.

4. The collector of taxes shall pay over to the state treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the state, and finally adjust and settle his account with the comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year; and, to enable him to do so, the commissioners' court shall convene on or before the third Monday in April for the purpose of examining and approving his final settlement papers.

5. The allowance of a delinquent and insolvent list to the collector, in accordance with article 7621, shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes; but it shall be the duty of the collector to use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due thereon, after it is allowed by the commissioners' court; and he shall issue special tax receipts therefor, to be furnished by the comptroller; which blank receipts shall be numbered and charged to the collector, who shall account for same at his next annual settlement, in the same manner as occupation tax receipts; he shall also make itemized monthly reports of such collections, using special blanks for that purpose.

6. To enforce the prompt and speedy collection and remittance of taxes, and to provide for the proper accounting of same, the comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by collectors of taxes, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations as he may deem necessary in regard thereto. It shall be his imperative duty to enforce a strict observance of all the provisions of these articles.

7. It shall be the duty of the comptroller to notify the district attorney of the district, or the county attorney of the county, in which the collector resides, and the sureties on the bond of the collector, of any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this article. [Acts of 1893, p. 90.]

Art. 7619. [5168] Duties of clerk and collector.—1. The collector of taxes shall at the end of each month make like reports to the commissioners' court of all the collections made for the county, conforming as far as applicable and in like manner to the requirements as to the collection and report of taxes collected for the state. The county clerk shall likewise, within two days after the presentation of said report by the collector, examine said report and stubs, and certify to their correctness as regards names, dates and amounts; for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the collector of taxes fifty cents each month, which amount shall be allowed to the collector by the commissioners' court.

2. The clerk shall file said report intended for the commissioners' court, together with the tax receipt stubs, in his office for the next regular meeting of the commissioners' court.

3. The collector of taxes shall immediately pay over to the county treasurer all taxes collected for the county during said month, after reserving his commissions for collecting the same, and take receipts therefor, and file with the county clerk.

4. At the next regular meeting of the commissioners' court, the collector of taxes shall appear before said court and make a summarized statement, showing the disposition of all moneys, both of the state and county, collected by him during the previous three months. Said statement must show that all taxes due the state have been promptly remitted to the state treasury at the end of each month, and all taxes due the county have been paid over promptly to the county treasurer, and shall file proper vouchers and receipts showing same.

5. The commissioners' court shall examine such statement and vouchers, together with the itemized report and tax receipt stubs filed each month, and shall compare the same with the tax rolls and tax receipt stubs. If found correct in every particular, and if the collector of taxes has properly accounted for all taxes collected, as provided above, the commissioners' court shall enter an order approving said report, and the order approving same shall be recorded in the minutes, as other proceedings of said court.

6. The collector of taxes shall finally adjust and settle his account with the commissioners' court for the county taxes collected, at the same time and in the same manner as is provided in the foregoing article in his settlement with the state. [Id.]

Art. 7620. [5169] Report not to be approved, unless.—If any collector of taxes shall have failed at the end of each month, or within three days thereof, to promptly remit to the state treasurer the amount due by him to the state, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, the commissioners' court, at the next regular meeting, shall ascertain the facts; and, if the collector of taxes fails or refuses to pay or remit the same and file proper vouchers therefor, as provided in the foregoing article, the commissioners' court shall not approve his reports and accounts, but shall ascertain the amounts due by him, both to the state and county, and enter an order requiring him to pay the same to the proper treasurers, as is provided in articles 7658 and 7659 of the Revised Statutes, and notify such collector, as is provided for in article [article 7660], under penalty for failure to do so, in section 4 of said article [as provided for in the Penal Code.] Whenever the collector of taxes shall fail or refuse to remit to the state treasurer the amounts due the state, when requested, the comptroller shall notify him under articles [7658]; 7659, 7660 and 7661, and for such failure be subject to the penalties provided in the Penal Code. [Acts of 1893, p. 90.]

Art. 7621. [5170] List of delinquents and insolvents to be made out.—The collector of taxes shall make out on forms, to be furnished for that purpose by the comptroller of public accounts, between April 1 and 15 of each year, lists of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, the caption of which shall be, the "list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers." In this list he shall give the name of the person, firm, company, or corporation from whom the taxes are due, in separate columns; and he shall post one copy of these delinquent or insolvent lists at the court house door of the county, and one list at the court house door, or where court is usually held, in each justice precinct in his county; and the collector of taxes, upon the certificate of the commissioners' court that the persons appearing on the insolvent or delinquent lists have no property out of which to make the taxes assessed against them, or that they have moved out of the county, and that no property can be found in the county belonging to such persons, out of which to make the taxes due, shall be entitled to a credit on final settlement of his accounts for the amounts due by the persons, firms, companies, or corporations certified to by the commissioners' court, as above provided for. [Id.]

Art. 7622. [5171] Collector to endeavor to collect delinquent list.—The allowance of an insolvent list to the collector in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes; but it shall be the duty of the collector to use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due on the insolvent list after it is allowed, and report and pay over to the proper officers all amounts collected on the same. [Id. p. 262, sec. 13.]

Art. 7623. [5172] Non-residents.—Non-residents of counties, owing state or county taxes, are hereby authorized to pay the same to the comptroller of public accounts; provided, that all taxes due by said non-residents shall be paid at the comptroller's office on or before the first day of January next after the assessment of such taxes; provided, further, that the collectors of taxes shall be entitled to the commissions on all moneys paid by non-residents to the comptroller of public accounts, due their counties respectively. [Acts of 1879, p. 41.]

Art. 7624. [5173] Forced collections to begin, when.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law, until the first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll of the county to the comptroller, the collector of taxes shall, by virtue of his tax roll, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with all costs accruing thereon; provided, there shall be no levy on property when the owner thereof has the right to pay at the comptroller's office, until a list of the persons who have paid their taxes at said office has been furnished the collector of taxes by the comptroller. The comptroller shall forward said list of paid taxes on or before the first day of February of each year; and the tax collector shall, immediately on receipt of said list from the comptroller, levy on and sell the property of such non-residents as have not paid their taxes, in accordance with the law regulating the sale of property for taxes. [Acts of 1887, p. 127.]

Art. 7625. [5174] Personal property may be pointed out.—If any person shall point out to the collector of taxes sufficient personal property belonging to him to pay all taxes assessed against him before the first day of January of any year, the collector shall immediately levy upon and sell such property so pointed out, in accordance with the laws regulating tax sales of a similar class of property. [Id.]

Art. 7626. [5175] When property about to be removed from county.—If it comes to the knowledge of the collector that any personal property assessed for taxes on the rolls is about to be removed from the county, and the owner of such property has not other property in the county sufficient to satisfy all assessments against him, the collector shall immediately levy upon a sufficiency of such property to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the law regulating sales of personal property for taxes, unless the owner of such property shall give bond, with sufficient security, payable to and to be approved by the collector, and conditioned for the payment of the taxes due on such property, on or before the first day of January next succeeding. [Id.]

Art. 7627. [5175a] Tax lien superior to assignment, attachment, inheritance or devise, except.—In all cases where a taxpayer makes an assignment of his property for the payment of his debts, or where his property is levied upon by creditors, by writs of attachment or otherwise, or where the estate of a decedent is or becomes insolvent, and the taxes assessed against such person or party, or against any of his estate remains unpaid in part or in whole, the amount of such unpaid taxes shall be a first lien upon all such property; provided, that, when taxes are due by an estate of a deceased person, the lien herein provided for shall be subject to the allowances to widows and minors, funeral expenses, and expenses of last sickness; and such unpaid taxes shall be paid by the assignee, when said property has been assigned by the sheriff out of the proceeds of sale in case such property has been seized under attachment or other writ, and by the administrator or other legal representative of decedents; and, if said taxes shall not be paid, all said property may be levied on by the tax collector and sold for such taxes in whomsoever's hands it may be found. [Report joint committee, 1895, No. 111, Sen. Jour., p. 486.]

Art. 7628. Execution on property in other counties than that where tax is due.—Whenever it shall appear to the collector of taxes in any county in this state that any person who is delinquent in the payment of his or her taxes has no property in his county out of which said amount of taxes can be collected, it shall be the duty of such collector to make out from the assessment list a true and complete list or schedule of the taxes due by said delinquent, which shall be certified to under the official seal and signature of said collector, and to forward the same to the collector of taxes of any county or counties where he shall have reason to believe said delinquent has property of any description, and, if said property is in any of the unorganized counties of this state, then to the collector of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes; and, when received by said collector, he shall at once proceed to the collection of said tax by seizure and sale, in the same manner as if said taxes were originally assessed and due in his said county, and shall report to the collector from whom said list was received the taxes so collected by him. [Act 1905, p. 317.]

Art. 7629. Tax collector not allowed credit for delinquents, when.—No tax collector in this state shall be allowed credit for lists of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, as provided by article 7621 of the Revised Statutes of this state, until he makes oath in writing that he has exhausted all resources to collect said delinquent taxes under this chapter and under articles 7624, 7625, 7626 and 7627. [Id.]

Art. 7630. [5176] All property liable for taxes.—All real and personal property held or owned by any person in this state shall be liable for all state and county taxes due by the owner thereof, including taxes on real estate, personal property and poll tax; and the collector of taxes shall levy on any personal or real property to be found in his county to satisfy all delinquent taxes, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [Acts of 1879, p. 46.]

Art. 7631. [5177] Sales of property, how made.—In making sales of personal property for taxes, the collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale, together with a brief description of the property levied on and to be sold, for at least ten days previous to the day of sale, by advertisements in writing to be posted at the court house door, and at two other public places in the county; and such sale shall take place at the court house door of the county in which the assessment is made, by public auction. [Acts of 1876, p. 259, sec. 15.]

Art. 7632. [5178] If property is insufficient.—If personal property levied upon prove insufficient to satisfy the taxes and penalties due and costs accrued thereon, the collector shall levy upon and sell so much other personal taxable property belonging to the person as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes, penalties and costs in the same manner as an original levy and sale; and, in all cases of sales for taxes, if there be an excess remaining in the hands of the collector, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs, the same shall be paid over to the original owner by the collector, or deposited in the hands of the county treasurer subject to the order of such owner. [Id.]

Art. 7633. [5179] Sales of real property, when made.—If the delinquent is not possessed of a sufficiency of personal property in the county, subject to seizure and sale, to satisfy all taxes due by him, the collector of taxes shall seize so much of the real estate of such delinquent, situated in the county, as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7634. [5180] Advertisements of real property for sale, etc.—In making sales of real property for taxes, the collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one; and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation not exceeding twenty-five cents for each tract or parcel of land so advertised, to be taxed as other costs of sale against such land; provided, the cost of advertising in a newspaper shall be deducted from the fees allowed the collector for advertising; and provided, that the comptroller shall allow the collector twenty-five cents per tract for each tract of land bid off by the state; and, if there be no newspaper published in the county, or, there being a newspaper published in the county, and the publisher thereof refuses to publish the advertisement at the price herein fixed, then advertisement shall be made by posting the same for thirty days previous to the day of sale, at the court house door and three other public places in the county where the land or lots are situated, giving in said advertisement such description as is given to the same on the tax rolls in his hands, stating the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown say "unknown," together with time, place and terms of sale; said sale to be for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry, at the court house door, and between legal hours, on the first Tuesday of the month. [Acts of 1881, p. 15.]

Art. 7635. [5181] List to be posted.—Prior to the sale of any real property for taxes in any county in this state, the collector of taxes shall advertise the same by posting a list of the names of the delinquents for thirty days as follows: One copy at the court house door of the county, and a copy at two other public places in the county where the lands or lots are situated. [Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 46.]

Art. 7636. [5182] May be continued from day to day.—As far as may be practicable, all the lands and town lots levied upon for taxes shall be advertised in one notice and be sold on the same day; and such sales may be continued from day to day until concluded; but at the close of each day's sale the collector of taxes shall make proclamation of such continuance on the following day. No sale shall be considered complete until the payment of the purchase money; and, if the same is not paid before the completion of the tax sales, the collector shall resell the property, and continue such sale until the same is complete. [Acts of 1876, p. 289.]

Art. 7637. [5183] Homesteads liable only for their own taxes.—No real estate set apart, used or designated as a homestead shall be sold for taxes other than the taxes due on such homestead. [Id.]

Art. 7638. [5184] Sales of land, how made.—The collector of taxes, in making sales for taxes due upon real estate, shall sell at auction, at the time and place appointed, so much of said real estate as may be necessary to pay the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and shall offer said real estate to the bidder who will pay the taxes and penalties due, and costs of sale and execution of deed, for the least amount of said real estate, who shall be deemed the highest bidder. Should a less amount of said real estate than the whole tract or parcel of said real estate levied upon be sold for the taxes and penalties due and all costs of sale and execution and deed, the collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser, begin at some corner of said tract or parcel of land or town lot and designate the same in a square as near as practicable. [Id. p. 263, sec. 17.]

Art. 7639. [5185] The tax deed and its requisites.—The collector of taxes shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, upon the payment of the amount for which the estate was sold, and costs and penalties, a deed for the real estate sold, which deed shall vest a good and perfect title to said land in the purchaser, if not redeemed in two years, as hereinafter provided; which deed shall state the cause of sale, the amount sold, the price for which the real estate was sold, the name of the person, firm, company or corporation on whom the demand for the taxes was made, provided, the name is known, and if unknown say "unknown," the same description of the land as is given in the tax rolls, and such other description as may be practicable for better identification; and when real estate has been sold he shall convey, subject to the right of redemption provided for in Article 7641, all the right and interest which the former owner had therein at the time when the assessment was made. [Const., art. 8, sec. 13; Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 7640. [5186] Sales to be reported to commissioners' court.—When the collector of taxes shall have made sale of any real estate under this chapter, it shall be his duty to make immediate return of said sale to the commissioners' court, stating in said return the land sold, the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown, state the fact, the time of sale, the amount for which said sale was made, together with the name of the purchaser, which return shall be entered of record on the minute books of said court. [Id.]

Art. 7641. [5187] Redemption of land sold for taxes.—The owner of real estate sold for the payment of taxes, or his heirs or assigns or legal representatives, may, within two years from the date of sale, redeem the estate sold by paying or tendering to the purchaser, his heirs or legal representative, double the amount of money paid for the land. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 7642. Redemption within two years, when.—The owner or any one having an interest in lands or lots heretofore sold to the state or any city or town under the decree of court in any suit or suits brought for the collection of the taxes thereon, or by a collector of taxes or otherwise, shall have the right within two years from August 3, A. D. 1909, to redeem the same upon the payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs, penalties and interest now required by law, and also the payment of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs on or against said lands or lots at the time of said redemption. And, where lands or lots shall hereafter be sold to the state, or to any city or town, for taxes under decree of court in any suit or suits brought for collection of taxes thereon, or by a collector of taxes or otherwise, the owner having an interest in such lands or lots shall have the right to redeem the same within two years after such sale upon payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs, penalties and interest now required by law, and also the payment of all the taxes, interest, penalties, cost on or against said land or lots at the time of redemption. [Act 1909, p. 400, sec. 1.]

Art. 7643. [5188] Redemption from private purchasers.—Any person having the right to redeem any land sold at tax sale may do so by payment, within the time prescribed by law, to the collector of taxes of the county in which the said land was sold, of the amount which the law requires to be paid; provided, that the owner of said land, or his agent, shall first have made affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, that he has made diligent search in the county where said land is situated for the purchaser thereof at the tax sale, and has failed to find him, or that the purchaser at such tax sale is not a resident of the county in which the land is situated, or that he and the purchaser can not agree on the amount of redemption money. In such cases only shall the owner or agent be authorized to redeem the same by the payment to the collector of taxes. [Act 1879, S. S., p. 29.]

Art. 7644. [5189] Receipt of collector notice when.—It shall be the duty of any collector of taxes, to whom payment is made under the provisions of this chapter, to give a receipt therefor, signed by him officially, in the presence of two witnesses; which said receipt, when duly recorded, shall be notice to all persons that the land therein described has been redeemed; and the collector of taxes shall, on demand, pay over to the purchaser at said tax sale the money thus received by him. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7645. [5190] Relief, when.—Any person whose land has been rendered for taxation, whether the same was rendered in the name of the original grantee or not, and has also been placed upon the unrendered rolls for the same year, shall be entitled to relief upon complying with the requirements hereinafter indicated. [Acts of 1881, p. 107.]

Art. 7646. [5991] Same.—If any such lands shall have been sold for the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls, and bought by the state, the owner thereof, his agent or attorney, shall present to the tax collector of the county in which the land is situated a sworn statement to the effect that the same land has been rendered for taxation, and placed upon the regular assessment rolls for the year mentioned. Said affidavit shall contain an accurate description of the land, and be accompanied with the certificate of the assessor that the same is true and correct; and the tax collector shall thereupon present such person with a written statement, officially signed, that said tax has been canceled, and make a note of the same upon the unrendered rolls; provided, the provisions of this article shall apply to such lands at any time after the collector shall receive the rolls until the same shall have gone into the hands of a private purchaser; and if the owner shall have paid the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls at any time previous he shall be entitled to the warrant of the comptroller for the amount so paid, in the same manner as is provided in article 7647 of this chapter, in cases of redemption from individual purchasers; provided further, that the tax collector shall make no charge whatever for the duties herein mentioned. [Acts of 1881, p. 107, sec. 2.]

Art. 7647. [5192] Certificate of redemption from collector.—When the owner of such lands shall have redeemed the same from a private purchaser, it shall be the duty of the tax collector to furnish him a certificate to that effect; and, upon presentment of said certificate to the comptroller, the comptroller shall issue to him a warrant upon the treasury of the state for the amount of such tax. This warrant shall be receivable for all taxes to the state. For issuing the certificate provided for in this article, the tax collector shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7648. [5193] Lands to be bid in for state, when.—Should the collector of taxes fail to make sale of any real estate for want of a purchaser, he shall bid the same off for the state for the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and execute a deed to the state; and one deed shall include all tracts of land bid off to the state at such tax sale, and make due return thereof, under such forms and directions as the comptroller may furnish and direct; and, after sale and purchase by the state of any real estate, it shall not be lawful for said collector to levy upon or advertise or sell the same for any remaining or accrued taxes due thereon until the same shall have been redeemed by the owner or is sold by the state. Said collector shall, on final settlement of his accounts with the commissioners' court and the comptroller of public accounts, be entitled to a credit for the amount of taxes due the state and county, respectively, for which the land and lots were bid off to the state. [Acts of 1879, S. S., p 36, sec. 1.]

Art. 7649. [5194] May redeem, how.—The owner, or his agent, of any lands that may have been conveyed to the state under the provisions of the foregoing article, desiring to redeem the same, may do so by depositing with the collector of the county in which the lands were sold double the amount of the purchase money and all accrued taxes thereon, within two years from the date of the deed to the state; and it shall be the duty of such collector to execute a receipt to such owner, or agents, giving therein the amount of money received, and a description of the land so as to identify the same, and sign and seal the same officially; and, upon presentation of such receipt to the comptroller of public accounts, he shall execute to the owner a relinquishment under his signature and seal of office, which may be admitted to record in like manner with other conveyances of land. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7650. [5195] If not redeemed.—In case said land shall not have been redeemed as provided in article 7648 [7649], then the same may be sold as provided by article 7648. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7651. [5196] May redeem by paying costs, etc.—The owner of real estate which has been bought in by the state for taxes, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the comptroller as due thereon with costs of advertisement; and provided, further, that if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the comptroller that any land has been sold to the state for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been canceled; which certificate shall release the interest of the state, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7652. [5197] Commissioners' court to sit as a board of inquiry, when.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state shall, at the regular terms of said courts, sit as a court of inquiry in cases where land has been erroneously rendered for taxes; and any land owner whose land has been or may be sold to the state for taxes may appear before said court in person or by proxy and show to the satisfaction of a majority of said court that the taxes for which his or her lands have been sold have been paid, although the same was rendered in an incorrect abstract number or survey or original grantee; thereupon said commissioners' court shall issue to the said land owner a certificate setting forth fully said facts, which certificate shall be signed officially by the county judge of said county; and, upon the presentation of said certificate to the comptroller of public accounts, he shall execute and deliver to said land owner a valid deed relinquishing all the right, title and interest the state may have acquired in and to said land by reason of such tax sale. [Acts of 1889, p. 31.]

Art. 7653. [5202] Collector to file complaint, when.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make an affidavit before any justice of the peace against any person, firm or association of persons engaged in or pursuing any occupation on which, under the laws of this state, a tax is imposed, who fails or refuses to pay the same. [Acts of 1887, p. 127.]
