Art. 7654. Compensation.—There shall be paid for the collection of taxes, as compensation for the services of the collector, beginning with the first day of September of each year, five per cent on the first ten thousand dollars collected for the state, and four per cent on the next ten thousand dollars collected for the state, and one per cent on all collected over that sum; for collecting the county taxes, five per cent on the first five thousand dollars of such taxes collected, and four per cent on the next five thousand dollars collected, and one and one-fourth per cent on all such taxes collected over that sum; and, in counties owing subsidies to railroads, the collectors shall receive only one per cent for collecting such railroad tax; and, in cases where property is levied upon and sold for taxes, he shall receive the same compensation as allowed by law to sheriffs or constables upon making a levy and sale in similar cases, but in no case to include commissions on such sales. [Acts of 1883, p. 101, sec. 1; amended Act 1897, 1 S. S., p. 8, sec. 9.]

Art. 7655. [5207] For occupation tax.—And on all occupations and license taxes collected, five per cent. [Acts 1883, p. 101, sec. 2.]

Art. 7656. [5208] Compensation for one levy only, etc.—In making levies upon different tracts of land belonging to the same individual, corporation or company, the collector shall be entitled to charge for only one levy; and in all cases of advertisement of lands for tax sales he shall be entitled to charge for any one tract the exact proportion of the amount paid for the whole advertisement which said tract bears to all other tracts advertised, and no more. And, for any greater charge under this article, the collector shall be deemed guilty of extortion and be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

Art. 7657. [5209] Taxes upon lands of non-residents in unorganized counties.—The taxes upon lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and upon lands situated in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be paid and collected at the office of the comptroller of public accounts, under such regulations as he may adopt for that purpose. [Const., art. 8, sec. 12.]

Art. 7658. [5210] Payment of moneys.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to the state, and pay the same over to the state treasurer whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the comptroller of public accounts; provided, that tax collectors shall have thirty days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 5.]

Art. 7659. [5211] Same.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to their respective counties, cities or towns, and pay the same over to the respective county treasurers or city treasurers, whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the respective county judges, or county commissioners' courts, or mayor or board of aldermen; provided, that tax collectors shall have ten days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7660. [5212] Notification to pay, etc.—The notification and direction provided for in the two preceding articles may be verbal, written, or by telegram; and, if written or by telegram, proof of the deposit in the postoffice or telegraph office of such notification and direction, with postage or charges duly prepaid and correctly addressed, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such notification and direction having been given, and of the time when the same was given. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7661. [5212a] Duty of district and county attorneys to sue for taxes on personal property.—Hereafter it shall be the duty of the district or county attorney of the respective counties of this state, by order of the commissioners' court, to institute suit in the name of the state for the recovery of all money due the state and county as taxes due and unpaid on unrendered personal property; and, in all suits where judgments are obtained under this act, the person owning the property on which there are taxes due the state and county shall be liable for all costs; provided, such suits may be brought for all taxes so due and unpaid for which such delinquent taxpayer may be in arrears for and since the year 1886; and provided, further, the state and county shall be exempt from liability for any costs growing out of such action; provided, all suits brought under this article for the recovery of taxes due on personal property shall be brought against the person or persons who owned the property at the time such property should have been listed or assessed for taxation; provided, that no suit shall be brought until after demand is made by the collector for taxes due; and provided, further, that no suit shall be brought for an amount less than twenty-five dollars. [Report joint committee, Sen. Jour., 1895, p. 486, No. 113.]

Art. 7662. [5212b] Limitation not available to delinquent taxpayer.—No delinquent taxpayer shall have the right to plead in any court or in any manner rely upon any statute of limitation by way of defense against the payment of any taxes due from him or her either to the state or any county, city or state [town]. [Acts of 1895, S. S.]

Article 7663. [5213] Back taxes on unrendered lands.—In all cases where lands or real estate have not been assessed for taxation for any year since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the same shall be assessed and the taxes thereon collected in the mode prescribed in this chapter. [Act. Aug. 19, 1876, p. 214, sec. 1.]

Art. 7664. [5214] Comptroller to prepare list each year.—On the first day of July of each year, the comptroller of public accounts shall cause to be prepared a list of all unrendered lands in each county subject to taxation and not assessed, in which shall be specified the name of the original grantee, the abstract number, the number of acres, the year for which such lands were unrendered, and the rate of state and county taxes for such year. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7665. [5215] And forward same to boards of equalization.—Upon completion of such lists, the comptroller shall forward the same to the board of equalization of the respective counties, with the verification that the said list is a true and correct statement of all the unrendered land and real estate in ——— county for the year ———, as shown by the records of his office. [Id.]

Art. 7666. [5216] The board to value such lands.—Upon receipt of such list or lists by the board of equalization of such county, it shall be their duty to value each and every tract of land or parcel of real estate so mentioned and described in the said lists at their true and full value, as near as can be ascertained, for the year it was omitted to have been rendered. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7667. [5217] And cause three rolls to be made.—When the board of equalization shall have completed the valuation, they shall cause to be made out three separate rolls, in such manner as may be prescribed by the comptroller; they shall place one in the hands of the collector of taxes, forward one to the comptroller of the state, and file one in the office of the county clerk for the inspection of the public. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7668. [5218] Collector to give notice.—Upon receipt of the rolls by the collector of taxes, he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in his county, and, if no paper is published in his county, by posting printed circulars in not less than eight public places in his county, for four consecutive weeks, that the rolls for the collection of taxes on unrendered land and real estate have been placed in his hands, and that unless the taxes are paid within sixty days after the date of said notice he will proceed to collect the same as provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes. [Id. p. 215, sec. 5.]

Art. 7669. [5219] And enforce collections after sixty days.—After the expiration of said sixty days, if the taxes on any such lands are not paid, the collector of taxes shall proceed to enforce the collection of said taxes in the mode provided in the preceding chapter for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes; and he shall be entitled to the same fees and penalties as are allowed him for the collection of other delinquent taxes. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7670. [5220] Comptroller to make out list of lands sold to state, etc.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, on or before the first day of each year, to make out and forward to the collector of taxes in each county of the state a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the state for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale by payment or tender of payment, to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the state, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed. [Acts of 1879, p. 79, sec. 1.]

Art. 7671. [5221] Sale, when and how made.—It shall be the duty of each collector of taxes, within ninety days after receipt of said list, to call to his aid the county surveyor of his county, and, near as may be, ascertain if any lands contained in said list do not in fact exist in said county, or are embraced in other surveys conflicting therewith, and upon which the taxes have been paid; and, after deducting the same from said list, he shall proceed to sell each tract of land therein described, whether belonging to residents or non-residents, for the payment of such sums of money as may be designated on said list as due thereon, together with all costs that may accrue in advertising and selling the same as herein provided. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7672. [5222] Advertisement of sale and redemption by owner.—The collector of taxes shall, prior to the sale of any real estate that has been previously bid off to the state at tax sales, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same, advertise the real estate to be sold in some newspaper published in the county for six successive weeks, if there be such newspaper published therein, otherwise he shall post advertisements of said sale at the court house door and at one public place in each justice's precinct of his county for at least six weeks, giving in said advertisement, whether published or posted, such description of the lands to be sold as shall be given on the comptroller's list, and stating the time, place and terms of sale, which shall be between legal hours on the first Tuesday of some specified month at the court house door at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash; provided, that no real estate shall in any case be sold for less than the amount designated by the comptroller as due thereon, together with all costs of advertisements and sale; and provided, further, that no sales shall be made under the provisions of this chapter until six months after the same goes into effect; and provided, further, that the former owner of any such real estate, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the comptroller as due thereon, with costs of advertisement; and provided, further, that, if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the comptroller that any land has been sold to the state for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been canceled, which certificate shall release the interest of the state, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Acts of 1884, S. S., p. 31. Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7673. [5223] Land sold, how.—At the time and place appointed for said sale, the collector of taxes shall offer for sale each separate parcel of the real estate advertised, and shall sell the same to the bidder who will offer the largest amount of money therefor. [Acts of 1879, p. 79, sec. 4.]

Art. 7674. [5224] Sale may be continued, etc.—If the sale of the real estate advertised as provided herein shall not be completed on the day it is commenced, said sale may be continued for ten consecutive days, from day to day, by announcement of the tax collector to that effect; and the said collector may, if there be on any day a less number than three bidders present, adjourn said sale to the first Tuesday in the following month. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7675. [5225] Deed executed, when and how.—When a sale has been made of any real estate as herein provided, the collector of taxes, upon payment of the amount bid for the same, shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for such real estate, specifying in said deed the cause and date of sale, the number of acres sold, if the same can be ascertained, the name of the person, firm, corporation or company in whose name the land was assessed, and all such descriptive information as may be necessary to identify the property conveyed; provided, that the purchaser may, after payment, as described in this article, ask a delay of sixty days within which to have said real estate surveyed by the county surveyor, said survey to be made at the expense of the purchaser, and, upon a certificate from the collector directed to the surveyor that the person named in the certificate has purchased and paid for the same, not to exceed one dollar for each survey, to be paid for out of the sale of such survey. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7676. [5226] Same.—When a survey has been made, as provided in the preceding article, and a copy of the field-notes, certified to as true and correct by the county surveyor, filed with the collector of taxes, the said collector shall thereupon make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to said real estate, which deed shall, in addition to the requisite hereinbefore named, contain the field-notes certified by the county surveyor. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7677. [5227] Effect of deed, etc.—Deeds made, executed and delivered by collectors of taxes under the authority of this chapter shall be held to vest a good and perfect title to the real estate therein described in the purchaser, and may be impeached only by frauds; provided, that the former owner shall have two years from the date of said deed to redeem the same by paying to the purchaser double the amount paid for said land by the purchaser at such sale, together with all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser, with eight per cent interest on the amount of such subsequent taxes. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7678. [5228] Report of sales.—Within thirty days after sales made under the provisions of this chapter, the collector of taxes shall make a report to the commissioners' court of his county, and also to the comptroller of public accounts, giving in said reports such description of the real estate sold as is given in the comptroller's list, and stating the amounts due the state, county and collector respectively, and the amount for which said land was sold, and the name of the party to whom each tract was sold. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7679. [5229] Proceeds of sale paid to whom.—Collectors of taxes shall, within sixty days after payments for real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter, after deducting from the proceeds of sale all costs due to them or their predecessors in said office, pay into the county treasury of the county in which said real estate is situated the amount of taxes shown by the comptroller's list to be due to said county, and the balance of said proceeds shall be paid by him into the treasury of the state within the said sixty days, in such manner as may be directed by the comptroller of public accounts. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7680. [5230] Collections applied, how.—Taxes collected by state or county, by sales made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be placed to the credit of the different funds for which originally assessed under the direction respectively of the comptroller of public accounts and the commissioners' court of the county in which the sale is made; the balance of the proceeds, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs accrued, shall, under the direction of the comptroller, be placed in the treasury of the state as a special tax sale fund, and be subject to be reclaimed by the owner or owners of the land on proof as required in case of escheated estates. [Acts of 1884, p. 31.]

Art 7681. [5231] Costs deducted by collector, etc.—The collector of taxes shall be entitled to deduct and retain out of the proceeds of sale of each separate parcel of real estate sold, as hereinbefore provided:

1. Such amount as may be designated in the comptroller's list as costs due thereon to the collector.

2. If the advertisement of sale is published in a newspaper, such a proportion of the actual amount paid for advertising as the number of acres in such separate parcel sold bears to the whole number of acres advertised; or, if the advertisements are posted, the sum of one dollar.

3. Two dollars for every deed made, executed and delivered under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts of 1879, p. 79, sec. 12.]

Art. 7682. [5232] Unsold land reported to comptroller.—If, after the expiration of ninety days after the receipt by the collector of taxes of the comptroller's list, any real estate described in said list shall remain unsold, it shall be the duty of the said collector to make separate reports of such fact to the commissioners' court of his county and the comptroller of public accounts respectively; and the said parcels of real estate shall be embraced in the next list furnished by the comptroller of public accounts to the collector of taxes. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 7683. All land and improvements subject to taxation.—For the purpose of taxation, real property shall include all lands within the state, and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appertaining thereto, except such as are expressly exempted by law. [Acts 1895, p. 50; amended act 1897, p. 132.]

Art. 7684. Delinquent taxes a lien on land.—All lands or lots which have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the state, or to any city or town, for taxes due thereon since the first day of January, A. D. 1885, or which may hereafter be returned delinquent or reported sold to the state, or to any city or town, shall be subject to the provisions of this act; and said taxes shall remain a lien upon the said land, although the owner be unknown, or though it be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner; and though the ownership be changed, the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7685. Lands delinquent to be listed by tax collector.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county in this state immediately upon the taking effect of this chapter to cause to be prepared by the tax collector, at the expense of the county (the compensation for making out the delinquent tax record to be fixed by the commissioners' court), a list of all lands, lots or parts of lots sold to the state for taxes since the first day of January, 1885, and which have not been redeemed, in their respective counties and unorganized counties attached thereto, and to have such lists recorded in books to be called the "Delinquent Tax Record," showing when the lands or lots were reported delinquent or sold to the state for taxes, also the name of the owner at the time of such sale or delinquency, if known, the number of acres, the amount of taxes due when first sold, and the amount of all taxes assessed against the owner thereof and returned delinquent for each year as shown by the records of the tax collector's office; and, in making up the list or lists contemplated by this chapter, corrections and omissions in the description of any real estate embraced in such list or lists shall be made, so that, when the corrections are made and the omissions supplied, the description will be such as is given in the abstracts of all the titled and patented lands in the state of Texas, or, as required in section 12 of this act [article 7694 of this chapter], such as may be furnished by the commissioner of the general land office, and it shall be required, in bulk assessments, to apportion to each tract or lot of land separately, its pro rata share of the entire tax, penalty and cost. The list for each county, when certified to by the county judge, and assessment rolls and books on file in the tax collector's office, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers charged with any duty thereunder, as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying of all the taxes therein mentioned, and reporting as delinquent or sold to the state any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in cases in which the description of the property in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to properly identify the same, and of which property there is a sufficient description in the inventories in the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. This delinquent tax record for each county shall be delivered to and preserved by the county clerk in his office; and the commissioners' court shall cause a duplicate of same to be sent to the comptroller; provided, that, where the records are incomplete in any county, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to furnish such county with a certified copy of the delinquent list for any year or years. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7686. Delinquent tax lists to be recorded by county clerks.—On receipt of such delinquent tax record containing a complete list of the lands or lots that have been reported delinquent or sold to the state for taxes for any year or number of years since January 1, 1885, and containing also the data and information mentioned in article 7685 of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of each of the counties of this state, respectively, to certify the same to the commissioners' court for examination and correction, and shall thereafter cause the same to be recorded in a book, which book shall be labeled the "Delinquent Tax Record of County." The delinquent tax record shall be arranged numerically as to abstract numbers, and shall be accompanied by an index showing the names of delinquents in alphabetical order. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7687. Delinquent tax list to be published.—Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any county in this state, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county, for three consecutive weeks; but, if no newspaper is published in the county, such list may be published in a newspaper outside of the county, to be designated by the commissioners' court, by contract duly entered into, and a publisher's fee of twenty-five cents shall be taxed against such tract or parcel of land so advertised; which fee, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury; and the commissioners' court of said county shall not allow for said publication a greater amount than twenty-five cents for each tract of land so advertised; and said publication, and any other publications in a newspaper provided for in this act, may be proved by the affidavit of the printer of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman, or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication, specifying the times when and the paper in which the publication was made; provided, that all corrections made in said record, under this article, be noted in the minutes of the commissioners' court, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the comptroller, who shall note the same upon his delinquent tax record; provided, that in the event such delinquent tax record be not published correctly in accordance with the copy furnished such newspaper, then no compensation shall be allowed for such publication. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7688. Suits to foreclose tax liens on delinquent lands.—Twenty days after the publication of such notice, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the commissioners' court, or the county judge acting for said court, shall file a list of all lands so advertised for taxes due for any year or number of years, the tax on which remains unpaid, with the county clerk of the county in which such lands are located, or if unorganized, then with the county clerk of the county to which said unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes, and are to be sold under the provisions of this act, for all the taxes, interest, penalty, and costs, and shall cause suit to be filed in the name of the state of Texas, in the district court of said county, or if unorganized, then in the district court of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, stating therein, by apt reference to lists or schedules annexed thereto, a description of all lands or lots in such county upon which taxes and penalty have remained unpaid for any year or number of years since the first day of January, 1885, and the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for the sale thereof at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the payment of the several amounts so specified therein, and in default thereof, that such lands be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief to which the state may be entitled under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes, as provided in this chapter, shall take precedence and have priority over all other suits pending in the district court. The petition in such suits shall be signed by the attorney bringing the suit, and shall be verified by the affidavit of said attorney, or the county judge, to the effect that the averments contained in said petition are true to the best knowledge and belief of affiant; and the pleadings of the defendant, except those of law, shall be verified by like affidavit of the defendant, his agent or attorney. The county collector, county clerk and county assessor shall furnish all affidavits, certified copies of the records of their respective offices, and such other evidence as may be in their possession by virtue of such office, as may be applied for by the county attorney. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7689. Proceedings in suits to foreclose tax lien.—The proper persons shall be made parties defendant in such suits, and shall be served with process and other proceedings had therein as provided by law for suits of like character in the district courts of this state; and, in case of foreclosure, an order of sale shall issue, and the land sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but, if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the sheriff or other officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in less tracts than the whole, together with a description of such subdivisions, then such officer shall sell the lands in said subdivisions as the defendant may request, and in such case shall only sell as many subdivisions, as near as may be, to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalties and costs; and, after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff to the clerk of the court out of which said execution or other final process issued, to be retained by him subject to the order of the court for the period of two years, after which time the court may order the same to be paid to the state treasurer, who shall hold same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed; provided, any one claiming the same shall make proof of his claim to the satisfaction of the state treasurer, within ten years after the sale of said lands or lots, after which the same shall be governed by the law regulating escheats; provided, that no suit shall be brought to enforce such lien upon any land that a sufficient description to identify the same can not first be had; and provided, further, that, if there shall be no bidder for such land, that the county attorney shall bid said property off to the state for the amount of all taxes, penalties, interest and costs adjudged against said property; and, in the absence of the county attorney, the sheriff is authorized to bid to the state, when there are no bidders, and it shall be the duty of the district clerk to immediately make report of such sale in duplicate, one to the comptroller of public accounts, and one to the commissioners' court, on blanks to be prescribed and furnished by the comptroller. And, in all such cases where the property is bid off to the state, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to make and execute deeds to the state, using forms to be prescribed and furnished by the comptroller, showing in each case the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs for which sold, and the clerk's fee for recording deeds as herein-after provided. He shall cause such deeds to be recorded in the records of deeds, by the county clerk of his county, and when so recorded shall forward the same to the comptroller; and the county clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for recording each such deed to the state, to be taxed as other costs. And, when lands thus sold to the state shall be redeemed, it shall be the duty of the collector of taxes, when any such redemption is made, to make the proper distribution of the moneys received by him in such redemption, paying to each officer the amount of costs found to be due, and to the state and county the taxes, interest and penalties due each respectively. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7690. Sheriff to execute deeds.—In all cases in which lands have been sold, or may be sold, for default in the payment of taxes, it shall be lawful for the sheriff selling the same, or any of his successors in office, to make a deed or deeds to the purchaser or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this state to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7691. Attorneys to represent state; fees, etc.—The county attorney, or district attorney in counties where there is no county attorney, shall represent the state and county in all suits against delinquent taxpayers that are provided for in this act, and all sums collected shall be paid immediately to the county collector. In no case shall the compensation for said county attorney be greater than three dollars for the first tract in one suit, and one dollar for each additional tract, if more than one tract is embraced in same suit to recover taxes, interest, penalty and costs; provided, that those county attorneys, who may have heretofore or may hereafter institute said suits, shall be entitled to an equal division with their successors in office of the fees allowed herein on all suits instituted by them, where the judgment has not been obtained prior to the vacation of their office. The collector of taxes, for preparing the delinquent list and separating the property previously sold to the state from that reported to be sold as delinquent for the preceding year, and certifying the same to the commissioners' court shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for each correct assessment of the land to be sold, said fee to be taxed as costs against the delinquent. The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for selling and making deed thereto to each purchaser of land that he sells under judgment for taxes, which fee shall be taxed as costs of suit; and the district clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar and fifty cents in each case, to be taxed as costs of suit. And the county clerk for making out and recording the data of each delinquent assessment, and for certifying the same to the commissioners' court for correction, and for noting the same in the minutes of the commissioners' court, and for certifying the same, with corrections, to the comptroller, and noting the same on his delinquent tax record, shall receive the sum of one dollar, to be taxed as costs against the land in each suit; provided, that in no case shall the state or county be liable for such fees, but in each case they shall be taxed as costs against the land to be sold under judgment for taxes and paid out of the proceeds of sale of same after the taxes, penalty and interest due thereon to the state are paid; provided, that where two or more unimproved city or town lots belonging to the same person and situated in the same city or town shall all be included in the same suit and costs, except those of advertising, which shall be twenty-five cents for every ten lots, or any number less than ten, taxed against them collectively just as if they were one tract or lot; and provided, further, that where suits have been brought by the state against delinquents to recover tax due by them to the state and county, the said delinquent may pay the amount of the tax, interest, penalties and all accrued costs to the county collector during the pendency of such suit; and the county attorney shall receive as compensation therefor two dollars for the first tract and one dollar for each additional tract embraced in said suit; and the district clerk shall receive only one dollar, and the sheriff only one dollar in each case; but these fees shall be in lieu of the fees provided for such officers where suits are brought as hereinbefore provided. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7692. Assessor to list unpaid taxes annually, etc.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law until the thirty-first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment rolls of the county to the comptroller, a penalty of ten per cent on the entire amount of such taxes shall accrue; which penalty, when collected, shall be paid proportionately to the state and county; and the collector of taxes shall, by virtue of his tax rolls, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with the penalty above provided, interest and all costs accruing thereon. If no personal property be found for seizure and sale, as above provided, the collector shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year for which the state and county taxes, for the preceding year only, remain unpaid, make up a list of the lands and lots on which the taxes for such preceding year are delinquent, charging against the same all taxes and penalties assessed against the owner thereof. Said list shall be made in triplicate and shall be presented to the commissioners' court for examination and correction of any errors that may appear; and, when so examined and corrected by the commissioners' court, such lists in triplicate shall be approved by said court, and one copy thereof shall be filed with the county clerk, and one copy retained and preserved by the collector, and one copy forwarded to the comptroller with his annual settlement reports. When such list of lands and lots, delinquent for the preceding year only, is corrected, as provided for in this article, then such list shall be immediately advertised, as provided for in section 5 of this act [article 7687 of this chapter], and, after such advertisement, suit shall be instituted against delinquents for all taxes and penalties due, in the district court as above provided; and such list, as furnished by the tax collector, and corrected by the commissioners' court, and the assessment rolls or books on file in the collector's office, or either said list or assessment rolls or books, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers or courts charged with any duty thereunder as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying all taxes therein mentioned, and reporting as delinquent any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in cases in which the description of the real estate in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to identify the same, and of which property there is a sufficient description in the inventories of the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. In the counties where the delinquent tax record for former years has not been furnished, as provided for in article 7685, the collector of taxes shall also at the same time, make in triplicate a list of all lands and lots that have been previously sold to the state for taxes of former years, which have not been redeemed and on which the taxes are delinquent for the preceding year, and shall present the same to the commissioners' court for examination and correction of any error that may appear; and, when so examined and corrected by the commissioners' court, such lists, in triplicate, shall be approved by said court, and one copy thereof shall be filed with the county clerk, one retained and preserved by the collector, and one copy forwarded to the comptroller with his annual settlement reports. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7693. Law available to incorporated cities and towns.—Any incorporated city or town or school district shall have the right to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes due it under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 7694. Exemptions from this chapter.—Real estate which may have been rendered for taxes and paid under erroneous description given in assessment rolls, or lands that may have been doubly assessed and taxes paid on one assessment, or lands which may have been assessed and taxes paid thereon in a county other than the one in which they are located, or lands which may have been sold to the state and upon which taxes have been paid and through error not credited in the assessment rolls, shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of this chapter. When called upon, the commissioner of the general land office shall furnish the county judge of any county compiling its own delinquent tax record, officially, with such information as may be necessary to enable him to determine the validity or locality of such surveys and grants as have not been shown by the printed abstracts of the land office. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 7695. Delinquent owners may redeem before sale.—Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the state for taxes due thereon, or any one having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon since January first, 1885, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and all costs and the penalty of ten per cent, as provided for in article 7692 of this chapter; provided, such penalty has accrued under the provisions and since the passage and taking effect of this chapter. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 7696. May redeem in two years by paying double.—Where lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, the owner, or any one having an interest therein, shall have the right to redeem said land, or his interest therein, within two years from the date of said sale upon the payment of double the amount paid for the land. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 7697. May redeem from state, when and how.—The owner or any one having an interest in lands or lots heretofore sold to the state, or any city or town, under decree of court in any suit or suits brought for the collection of the taxes thereon, or by a collector of taxes or otherwise, shall have the right within two years from the twelfth day of August, 1909, to redeem the same upon the payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs, penalties and interest now required by law, and also the payment of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs on or against said lands or lots at the time of said redemption. And, where lands or lots shall hereafter be sold to the state, or to any city or town, for taxes under decree of court, in any suit or suits brought for collection of taxes thereon, or by a collector of taxes or otherwise, the owner having an interest in such lands or lots shall have the right to redeem the same within two years after such sale, upon payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs, penalties and interest now required by law, and also the payment of all the taxes, interest, penalties, cost on or against said land or lots at the time of redemption. [Act 1909, 2 S. S., p. 400.]

Art. 7698. Proceedings against delinquents, unknown or non-resident.—Wherever the owner or owners of any lands or lots returned delinquent or reported sold to the state, or that may hereafter be reported sold or returned delinquent for the taxes due thereon for any year or number of years, are non-residents of the state, or the name of the owner or owners of said land or lots be unknown, then, upon affidavit setting out that the owner or owners are non-residents, or that the owner or owners are unknown to the attorney for the state, and after inquiry can not be ascertained, said parties shall be cited and made parties defendant by notice in the name of the state and county, directed to all persons owning or having or claiming any interest in the following described land delinquent to the state of Texas and county of _____, for taxes, to-wit: (here set out description of the land as contained on the assessment roll and such further description obtainable in the petition), which said land is delinquent for taxes for the following amounts, $_____ for state taxes, and $_____ for county taxes, and you are hereby notified that suit has been brought by the state for the collection of said taxes, and you are commanded to appear and defend such suit at the _____ term of the district court of _____ county, and state of Texas, and show cause why judgment shall not be rendered condemning said land (or lot), and ordering sale and foreclosure thereof for said taxes and costs of suit, which notice shall be signed by the clerk and shall be published in some newspaper published in said county one time a week for three consecutive weeks. If there is no newspaper published in the county, then notice may be given by publication in a paper in an adjoining county. A maximum fee of two and one-half cents per line (seven words to count a line) for each insertion may be attached for publishing the citation as above provided for. If the publication of such citation can not be had for the compensation provided for in this article, then publication of the citation herein provided may be made by posting a copy at three different places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door. It shall be lawful in all cases to set forth in the petition the name of all parties interested as far as ascertained, and make them parties, and also to join and make defendants all persons having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in the land described in the petition; and such suit, after such publication, shall be proceeded with as in other cases; and, whether any party or parties make defense or not on the trial of said case, the state and county shall be entitled to prove the amount of taxes due, and shall have a decree for the sale of said land or lot as in those cases where defendant owners have been personally served and defend suit; and a sale of said land or lot shall be had and be as binding as where defendants were personally served with process. In all suits for taxes due, the defendant shall be entitled to credits he can show due him for any year or number of years for which he may be able to produce receipts; but the state shall have judgment and foreclosure of tax lien for any year or years sued for where the defendant can not offer receipt or other positive proof showing the payment of the claim for the taxes. [Acts 1897, p. 132, sec. 15.]

Art. 7699. Similar proceedings by city or town.—In any incorporated city or town, in which any lots or blocks of land situated within the corporate limits of said city or town have been returned delinquent or reported sold to said city or town for the taxes due thereon, the city council may prepare lists of delinquents in the same manner as is provided for in article 7685, and; when such lists shall be certified to as correct by the mayor of said city or town, the city council may direct the city attorney to file suit in the district court of the county in which said city or town is situated, for the recovery of the taxes due on said property, together with penalty, interest and costs of suit; which suits may be brought in the same manner as is provided in article 7687 of this chapter, for the bringing of suits by the county attorney. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7700. Lands to be platted and numbered.—In counties in which the subdivisions of surveys are not regularly numbered, and in cities or towns in which the blocks or subdivisions are not numbered, or are so irregularly numbered as to make it difficult or impossible for the assessor to list the same, the commissioners' court of such counties may have all the blocks and subdivisions of surveys platted and numbered so as to identify each lot or tract, and furnish the assessor with maps showing such numbering; and an assessment of any property by such numbering on said maps shall be sufficient description thereof for all purposes; and such maps, or a certified copy of same or any part thereof, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts; provided, that the cost of making said survey and plats shall be defrayed by the county in which said property is situated, and of which the said commissioners' court ordered the said surveys and plat made; provided, that the cost of any map of a town or city shall be paid by such town or city when ordered by the town or city. [Id. sec. 17.]

CHAPTER SIXTEEN.

EVIDENCE OF TITLE TO REDEEM LAND.

Evidence of title to redeem land.....	Article. 7701
---------------------------------------	------------------

Article 7701. Evidence of title to redeem land.—In all cases where lands in this state have been or may be sold for taxes, and the owner of the land, at the time of such sale, shall desire to redeem the same, under the provisions of the constitution of this state, or of laws enacted on that subject, it shall be sufficient to entitle such owner to redeem from the purchaser or purchasers thereof for him to have had a paper title to such land, or to have been in possession of such land in person or by tenant, at the time of the institution of the suit under which the sale was made, or when such sale was made; and the existence of such facts and conditions shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of ownership to entitle the party so claiming ownership to the right to redeem such land; and he shall not be required to disavow title from the sovereignty, nor shall any hiatus or defect in his chain of title defeat the offered redemption. Nothing herein contained shall be held to limit the right of one offering to redeem to prove ownership otherwise than herein provided, nor prevent any one having the superior title from redeeming such land within two years from the date of the tax sale by paying to the person who had previously redeemed such lands all amounts paid by him with legal interest. [Act 1905, p. 118.]

Article 7702. Property omitted from tax rolls, etc., list of.—Whenever the commissioners' court of any county in this state shall discover, through notice from the tax collector or otherwise, that any real property has been omitted from the tax rolls for any year or years since 1884, or shall find that any previous assessments on any real property for the years mentioned are invalid, or have been declared invalid for any reason by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes on said properties, they may, at any meeting of the court, order a list of such properties to be made in triplicate and fix a compensation therefor; the said list to show a complete description of such properties, and for what years such properties were omitted from the tax rolls, or for what years the assessments are found to be invalid, and should be canceled and re-assessed, or have been declared invalid, and thereby canceled by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes; provided, that no re-assessment of any property shall be held against any innocent purchaser of the same, if the tax records of any county fail to show any assessment (for any year so re-assessed) by which said property can be identified and that the taxes are unpaid. The above exception, with the same limitation, shall also apply as to all past judgments of district courts canceling invalid assessments. [Act 1905, p. 318, sec. 1.]

Art. 7703. Property listed to be assessed, how.—When said list has been made up in the manner prescribed in article 7701 [7702] the commissioners' court may, at any meeting, order a cancellation of such properties in said list that are shown to have been previously assessed, but which assessments are found to be invalid and have not been canceled by any former order of the commissioners' court, or by decree of any district court; and shall then refer such list of properties to be assessed or re-assessed to the tax assessor, who shall proceed at once to make an assessment of all said properties, from the data given by said list (the certificate of the state comptroller as to assessments or re-assessments made by the tax assessor shall not be necessary as required under article 7675, Revised Statutes, but he shall furnish all blank forms needed, that uniformity may be had in all counties), and when completed shall submit the same to the commissioners' court, who shall pass upon the valuations fixed by him; and, when approved as to the values, shall cause the taxes to be computed and extended at the tax rate in effect for each separate year mentioned in said list; and, in addition thereto, shall cause to be added a penalty equal in amount to what would be six per cent interest to the date of making said list from the date such properties would have been delinquent had same been properly rendered by the owner thereof at the time and for the years stated in said list; provided, that the certificate of any tax collector of this state, given during his term of office, that all taxes have been paid to the date of such certificate on any certain piece of property, which is fully described in such certificate, or if the tax rolls of any county fail to show any assessments against such property sufficient to identify it, and that the same was unpaid at the dates such rolls may have been examined to ascertain the condition of any property as to taxes unpaid, this shall be a bar to any re-assessment of such property under this act for any years prior to the date of such certificate, or such examinations; provided, that the property referred to, when re-assessed, shall be held by an innocent purchaser, who has relied upon the correctness of such certificate, or the tax rolls heretofore referred to. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7704. List to operate a lien on property.—The said list, when complete in all respects, as directed in the preceding articles, and filed with the tax collector, shall constitute a valid lien against all the properties mentioned in said list for the full amount of taxes, penalties, officers' costs, advertising and six per cent interest from the date of said list to the date of the payment of the full sum due on each separate piece of property. A copy of said list and all cancellation orders shall be furnished to the state comptroller, and a copy filed with the county clerk. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7705. To be advertised.—The commissioners' court shall proceed to have such list of properties advertised in the manner provided in article 7687; after which, suit may be filed in the same manner as provided by law for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7706. Assessments reduced, when.—In all cases of delinquent taxes of unrendered and unknown property, where there appears to be an assessment of the same at a valuation excessive and unreasonable, the commissioners' court of any county shall be authorized to correct or reduce such values on the request of the tax collector with a full statement of the facts in each case; which statement and the action had thereon and the name of each commissioner voting for or against the reduction in valuation asked for shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and a certified copy of the action had thereon shall be furnished to the comptroller of the state, and, when the values are so corrected or reduced, payment of taxes shall be accepted in accordance with such reduction, to which shall be added interest, penalty, advertising and costs, as provided by law. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7707. Commissioners' court may contract for collection.—If the commissioners' court of any county in this state shall deem it expedient to contract with any person to enforce the collection of any delinquent state and county taxes, or to make up a list of properties referred to in this chapter, and to enforce the collection of taxes thereon for a per cent of the taxes, penalty and interest actually collected and paid to the collector of taxes, the state comptroller shall be authorized to join in said contract and allow the same per cent for state taxes that is contracted to be paid by the commissioners' court for the collection of county taxes, which shall not exceed ten per cent, except in case of absolute necessity to employ an attorney to push the filing and prosecution of tax suits, and to pay for report of an abstract company as to the owner of property assessed as unknown or unrendered, and as to the holder of any liens against the same, in which case fifteen per cent additional may be allowed. It shall be the duty of the county attorneys of the several counties, or of the district attorney where there is no county attorney, to actively assist the person with whom the contract is made, by filing and pushing to a speedy conclusion all necessary suits for the collection of delinquent taxes under any contract; provided, that where any district or county attorney shall fail or refuse and in good faith to prosecute such suits, he shall not be entitled to any fees from such suits; provided, that, where any district or county attorney fails or refuses to bring these suits when requested to do so by the commissioners' court, or by the person having a contract herein provided for, then the contractor shall be authorized to employ some other attorney to file these suits in the name of the state, in the same manner provided by law now to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7708. Bulk assessments validated, when.—In all suits to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, where the assessment of any property for any year is invalid by reason of the failure of the assessor to comply with the provisions of law for the description of any lot, block or tract of land, or to give a separate value on each lot, block or tract of land, known as “bulk assessments,” or to enter upon the lists (similar to that used for the listing of rendered property, to be signed by the owner) all items of property assessed to unknown owners, all such assessments are hereby validated and given the same force and effect as if the descriptions, the separate valuations, and the listing were in all respects strictly in compliance with law; provided, as to description, that the descriptions given are sufficient to identify the property, as to separate values, that the valuations and the taxes shown upon the tax rolls (in what are called “bulk assessments”) can be fairly prorated to each separate lot, block or tract of land; and, as to listing, that the valuation given on the tax rolls upon properties assessed as unknown are found to have been entered upon the assessor’s block book as the original assessment, instead of listing as in rendered assessments, and then entering upon the tax rolls. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7709. Delinquent tax record to be published.—The various counties of this state which have not heretofore made and published a delinquent tax record, under the provisions of chapter 103, acts of the regular session of the twenty-fifth legislature, are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to make and publish the same to date hereof, and, when so done, it shall have the same force and effect as if made and published under that act; and any county which has heretofore made a delinquent tax record for any number of years is hereby authorized and empowered to re-compile the same to date hereof, and may compile each year thereafter under the provisions of said act. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7710. Property listed by comptroller, when.—Whenever it shall appear to the comptroller of public accounts of the state, from an inspection of the tax rolls of any county of the state, or otherwise, that any lands in such county subject to taxation have not been assessed for taxation for any year since and including the year 1900, it shall be his duty and he is hereby required to make a list of such lands and send the same to the tax collector of such county by registered letter, properly addressed, accompanying such list with instructions to such tax assessor to assess such lands for taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed as shown by said list. [Act 1905, p. 321, sec. 1.]

Art. 7711. List to be posted.—Upon receipt of such list, the tax assessor shall immediately post a copy of such notice and list at the court house door of his county, noting upon such copy the date of such posting; and the owners of the lands embraced in such list shall have the right, at any time within twenty days of such posting, to render the same to the tax assessor for the taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed for taxes, or for any of such years as shown by such notice, in the same manner as is provided for the rendition of other property for taxes under the provisions of the general laws for that purpose. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7712. Lands not rendered to be assessed, how.—Should any of the said lands remain unrendered by the owners or owner thereof, under the provisions of article 7711, for any of the years for which the same have not been assessed according to said notice and lists, for twenty days after the date of the posting of such notice, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor, and he is hereby required, immediately upon the expiration of such time, to assess for taxes at their true value such lands so remaining unrendered and unassessed for each of the years since and including the year 1900, and including the year such lists are made up by the comptroller, listing the same in the name of unknown owners, and charging up to said lands the taxes, state and county, for which they are liable for each of such years, valuing such lands at their true and full value as provided in article 7530, Revised Civil Statutes. If any of said lands are lands purchased from the state as belonging to the school fund, the university, or any of the asylums of the state, and held under such contract of purchase upon which a part of the purchase money is still due, such lands being unpatented, no deduction shall be made in the value of said lands for, or on account of, such unpaid purchase money, but they shall be valued at their full and true value as though paid out and patented. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7713. Duty of commissioners' court.—The tax assessor shall make up lists showing such assessments, and deliver the same to the county judge, who shall at once, unless a regular session is held within ten days thereafter, call a meeting of the commissioners' court in special session, as a board of equalization, for the purpose of passing upon said assessment lists in the manner provided in case of regular assessments, in so far as the provisions of the statute with regard thereto are applicable. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court without delay to act upon said supplemental assessment lists, as to the value of the property embraced, and, when said values have been equalized as required by law, to approve the same, and to approve the rolls made up by the tax assessor in accordance therewith; provided, that the commissioners' court shall have no authority to alter said assessment lists, or in any way interfere with such assessments, except as to the values of property embraced therein, in equalizing the same as provided by law, and to strike therefrom any lands that have been already assessed for taxes at their true market value for the years for which they are assessed on said supplemental rolls and such taxes paid. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7714. Supplemental tax rolls to be prepared.—After such supplemental assessment lists, as are herein provided for, have been passed upon by the board of equalization as herein provided, supplemental tax rolls shall be prepared by the tax assessor and approved by the commissioners' court as is required by law in case of the regular assessment for taxes; and thereafter the taxes due according to such supplemental rolls shall be collected as in case of other taxes, and, if not paid, such proceedings shall be had for their collection as in case of other taxes. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7715. Fees of assessor.—For making the supplemental assessments provided herein, the tax assessor shall be entitled to the same fees to be paid in the same manner as is provided by law in case of regular assessments. This chapter is cumulative of all other laws upon the same subject. [Id. sec. 7.]

To be collected by city officers.....	7717	To be paid over every month.....	7720
Bond of the officers.....	7718	If insufficient, additional levy to be made.....	7721

Article 7716. [5233] Such taxes, how applied.—All taxes levied, assessed and collected for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of bonds heretofore issued by cities or towns to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvement, shall be applied solely to the objects for which they were levied, under the direction of the comptroller, as follows: First, to the payment of expenses of assessing and collecting the same; second, to the payment of the annual interest of such bonds, and not less than two per cent of the principal; and, if there be any excess on hand after making the above payments for the current year, it shall be used in the purchase and cancellation of said bonds. [Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 174, sec. 1.]

Art. 7717. [5234] To be collected by city officers.—All such taxes shall be assessed and collected by the same officers whose duty it is to assess and collect the other municipal taxes, who shall receive the same rates of commission allowed for assessing and collecting the ad valorem tax of such city. The same remedies shall be used to enforce the assessment, collection and paying over such taxes as are or may hereafter be provided by law to enforce the assessment, collection and paying over of other municipal taxes. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7718. [5235] Bond of the officer.—The officer whose duty it is to collect the aforesaid taxes shall give bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the mayor and board of aldermen of such city, in a sum fifty per cent greater than the estimated annual amount of said taxes; which bond shall be payable to the state, and shall be conditioned for the faithful assessing, collecting and paying over of said tax into the state treasury, as provided by law; and said assessor shall be amenable and subject to all laws enacted to secure the honest and faithful performance of the duties of collectors of taxes. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7719. [5236] Taxes may be paid in what.—It shall be lawful for the collector to receive in payment of the taxes herein specified current money or the matured coupons of the bonds for the payment of which such tax may have been levied. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7720. [5237] To be paid over every month.—The collector of taxes levied under the provisions of this chapter shall pay over to the state treasurer, at the beginning of each and every month, all moneys or coupons he may have collected during the preceding month, deducting his legal commissions on the amount so paid, and shall make a report of his collections to the mayor and city council at its first regular meeting in each month. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7721. [5238] If insufficient, additional levy to be made.—If it shall be ascertained, at any time, that the tax which has been levied for the payment of the city bonds issued under the provisions of law is insufficient to pay the annual interest and two per cent annually of the principal of such bonds, besides the expenses of assessing, collecting and paying over such tax, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to inform the mayor of said city of the fact; and it shall be the duty of the city council, and they shall, upon such information, levy such additional tax, and cause the same to be collected, as will be sufficient to make such payments; which levy shall be continued in force until the whole amount of principal and interest of said bonds shall have been fully paid. [Id. sec. 6.]

Article 7722. [5239] When new counties are created, etc.—Where any county now or hereafter created out of a part of any one or more organized counties, or when any unorganized county may be organized by the election and qualification of its officers, it shall be the duty of the person in charge of the assessor's roll in the county or counties from which such new county or any part of it, has been taken, or to which such unorganized county has been attached for judicial purposes, to allow such person as the commissioners' court of the newly organized county may appoint for that purpose access to the rolls for the purpose of making the transcripts hereinafter provided for. [Acts of 1885, p. 107, sec. 1.]

Art. 7723. [5240] Transcripts of unpaid assessments.—It shall be the duty of the person so appointed to make from such assessor's rolls two transcripts of the unpaid assessments, both on person and property, in that portion of the county included within the limits of the new county, or, as the case may be, in the limits of the former unorganized county. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7724. [5241] To be verified.—The collector of the county from which such territory has been taken, or to which such unorganized county has been attached, shall examine and verify the transcripts herein provided for and attest their correctness over his official signature. For such service he shall receive twenty dollars from the county for which the transcript has been made, to be paid on the order of its commissioners' court. He shall also have the commissioners' court of his county to approve the transcript rolls, and shall deliver one of them to the collector of the new county; the other he shall forward to the comptroller; and, when received by the comptroller, it shall authorize him to give the proper credit to the collector of the old county and to charge the same to the collector of the new county. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7725. [5242] Compensation of collector.—The collector of such new county shall receive the same compensation, and shall have the same authority to collect and enforce the collection of the taxes found to be due by such transcripts as is enjoyed by the collectors of the other counties in this state. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7726. [5243] Compensation for transcribing rolls.—The person selected by the commissioners' court of the new county to make such transcripts shall receive for his services such compensation as he may agree on with such commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 7727. [5244] Log brands.—Any person engaged in floating or rafting timber upon the waters of any river or creek of this state shall have a log brand with which to brand every log or stick that he may float or haul and put into the waters for sale or market, the same to be distinctly branded. [Acts of 1879, p. 81, sec. 1.]

Art. 7728. [5245] To be recorded.—He shall have said brand recorded in every county in which he cuts any of said timber, and in the county where he proposes to sell or market said timber, by the county clerk, in a book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose, for which said clerk shall receive a fee the same as is by law allowed for recording stock brands. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7729. [5246] Written report to be filed with county clerk.—Any persons who float any logs or timber in this state shall, on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of September, and on the first day of January of each year, or within fifteen days of said dates, make a written report under oath showing the number of logs cut or floated during the next preceding three months, the survey or surveys of land from which they were cut or carried, and the number cut from each, and a description of the brand placed thereon, and shall file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the timber was cut; and such clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and index it, and receive therefor the sum of fifty cents from the party presenting the same; provided, that this law shall not apply to pickets, posts, rails or firewood. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7730. [5247] Evidence of ownership, how proved.—A certificate under the hand of the county clerk, containing a description of a log brand and the name of the owner thereof, with a transfer on the back of it signed and acknowledged by such owner, or proved as other instruments for record, shall be prima facie evidence that the person to whom the transfer is made owns the logs described thereon. Article 7731. [5248] Method of trying titles to land, etc.—All fictitious proceedings in the action of ejectment are abolished, and the method of trying titles to lands, tenements or other real property shall be by action of trespass to try title. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, sec. 1. P. D. 5292.]

Art. 7732. [5249] Rules in other cases observed how far.—The trial shall be conducted according to the rules of pleading, practice and evidence in other cases in the district court, and conformably to the principles of trial by ejectment, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5293.]

Art. 7733. [5250] The petition shall state what.—The petition shall state:

1. The real names of the plaintiff and defendant and their residence, if known.

2. It shall describe the premises by metes and bounds, or with sufficient certainty to identify the same, so that from such description possession thereof may be delivered, and shall also state the county or counties in which the same are situated.

3. The interest which the plaintiff claims in the premises, whether it be a fee simple or other estate; and, if he claims an undivided interest, he shall state the same and the amount thereof.

4. That he was in possession of the premises or entitled to such possession.

5. That the defendant afterward unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed him of such premises, stating the date, and withholds from him the possession thereof.

6. If rents and profits or damages are claimed, such facts as show the plaintiff to be entitled thereto and the amount thereof.

7. It shall conclude with a prayer for the relief sought. [Id. sec. 1. P. D. 5292.]

Art. 7734. [5251] Indorsement on petition.—The plaintiff shall indorse on his petition that the action is brought as well to try the title as for damages. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5293.]

Art. 7735. [5252] Warrantor, etc., may be made a party.—When a party is sued for lands, the real owner or warrantor may make himself, or may be made, a party defendant in the suit, and shall be entitled to make such defense as if he had been the original defendant in the action.

Art. 7736. [5253] Landlord may become defendant.—When such action shall be commenced against a tenant in possession, the landlord may enter himself as the defendant, or he may be made a party on motion of such tenant; and he shall be entitled to make the same defense as if the suit had been originally commenced against him. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 5296.]

Art. 7737. [5254] The possessor shall be defendant.—The defendant in the action shall be the person in possession, if the premises are occupied, or some person claiming title thereto in case they are unoccupied.

Art. 7738. [5255] May join as defendants, whom.—The plaintiff may join as a defendant with the person in possession, any other person who, as landlord, remainderman, reversioner or otherwise, may claim title to the premises, or any part thereof, adversely to the plaintiff.

Art. 7739. [5256] May file plea of "not guilty" only.—The defendant in such action may file only the plea of "not guilty," which shall state in substance that he is not guilty of the injury complained of in the petition filed by the plaintiff against him, except that if he claims an allowance for improvements he shall state the facts entitling him to the same as provided in the succeeding chapter. [Act Feb. 2, 1844. Id. sec. 5. P. D. 5307.]

Art. 7740. [5257] What proof may be made under such plea.—Under such plea of "not guilty," the defendant may give in evidence any lawful defense to the action, except the defense of limitation, which shall be specially pleaded. [Id.]

Art. 7741. [5258] Answer taken as admitting possession.—Such plea or any other answer to the merits shall be an admission by the defendant, for the purpose of that action, that he was in possession of the premises sued for, or that he claimed title thereto at the time of commencing the action, unless he states distinctly in his answer the extent of his possession or claim, in which case it shall be an admission to such extent only. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, sec. 6. P. D. 5297.]

Art. 7742. [5259] What is sufficient title, etc.—All certificates for head-right, land scrip, bounty warrant, or any other evidence of right to land recognized by the laws of this state which have been located and surveyed, shall be deemed and held as sufficient title to authorize the maintenance of the action of trespass to try title. [Act Feb. 5, 1841, sec. 23. P. D. 5303.]

Art. 7743. [5260] Either party may demand abstract of title.—After answer filed, either party may, by notice in writing, duly served on the opposite party, or his attorney of record, not less than ten days before the trial of the cause, demand an abstract in writing of the claim or title to the premises in question upon which he relies.

Art. 7744. [5261] Abstract must be filed in twenty days, etc.—Such abstract of title shall be filed with the papers of the cause within twenty days after the service of the notice, or within such further time as the court on good cause shown may grant; and, in default thereof, no evidence of the claim or title of such opposite party shall be given on trial.

Art. 7745. [5262] Abstract shall state what.—The abstract mentioned in the two preceding articles shall state:

1. The nature of each document or written instrument intended to be used as evidence, and its date; or,
2. If a contract or conveyance, its date, the parties thereto and the date of the proof or acknowledgment, and before what officer the same was made; and,
3. Where recorded, stating the book and page of the record.
4. If not recorded in the county when the trial is had, copies of such instrument, with the names of the subscribing witnesses, shall be included.

If such unrecorded instrument be lost or destroyed, it shall be sufficient to state the nature of such instrument and its loss or destruction.

Art. 7746. [5263] Amended abstract.—The court may allow either party to file an amended abstract of titles, under the same rules which authorize the amendment of pleadings so far as they are applicable; but in all cases the documentary evidence of title shall, at the trial, be confined to the matters contained in the abstract of titles.

Art. 7747. [5264] Surveyor appointed, etc.—The presiding judge of the court may, either in term time or in vacation, at his own discretion, or on motion of either party to the action, appoint a surveyor, who shall survey the premises in controversy pursuant to the order of the court, and report his action under oath to such court; and, if said report be not rejected for good cause shown, the same shall be admitted as evidence on the trial. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, sec. 3. P. D. 5294.]

Art. 7748. [5265] Survey unnecessary when.—Where there is no dispute as to the lines or boundaries of the land in controversy, or where the defendant admits that he is in possession of the lands or tenements included in the plaintiff's claim or title, an order of survey shall be unnecessary. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 5308.]

Art. 7749. [5266] Common source of title, proof of.—It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to deraign title beyond a common source, and proof of a common source may be made by the plaintiff by certified copies of the deeds showing a chain of title to the defendant emanating from and under such common source; but before any such certified copies shall be read in evidence they shall be filed with the papers of the suit three days before the trial, and the adverse party served with notice of such filing as in other cases; provided, that such certified copies shall not be evidence of title in the defendant, unless offered in evidence by him; and the plaintiff shall not be precluded from making any legal objection to such certified copies, or the originals thereof, when introduced by the defendant. [Act Sept. 28, 1871, p. 3, sec. 1. P. D. 6829.]

Art. 7750. [5267] Judgment by default.—If the defendant, who has been personally served with citation according to law, fails to appear and answer by himself or attorney within the time prescribed by law for other actions in the district court, the proper judgment by default may be entered against him and in favor of the plaintiff for the title to the premises, or the possession thereof, or for both, according to the petition, and for all costs, without any proof of title by the plaintiff.

Art. 7751. [5268] Proof ex parte, when made.—If the defendant has been cited only by publication, and fails to appear and answer by himself, or by attorney of his own selection, or if any defendant, having answered, fails to appear by himself or attorney when the case is called for trial on its merits, the plaintiff shall make such proof as will entitle him prima facie to recover, whereupon the proper judgment shall be entered.

Art. 7752. [5269] When defendant claims part only.—Where the defendant claims part of the premises only, the answer shall be equivalent to a disclaimer of the balance.

Art. 7753. [5270] When plaintiff proves part.—Where the defendant claims the whole premises, and the plaintiff shows himself entitled to recover part, the plaintiff shall recover such part and costs.

Art. 7754. [5271] May recover a part, etc., when.—When there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, any one or more of the plaintiffs may recover against one or more of the defendants the premises, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or damages, according to the rights of the parties.

Art. 7755. [5272] The judgment, etc.—Upon the finding of the jury, or of the court where the case is tried by the court, in favor of the plaintiff for the whole or any part of the premises in controversy, the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the title or possession, or both, as the case may be, of such premises, describing them, and where he recovers the possession, that he have his writ of possession.

Art. 7756. [5273] Damages, etc., when recovered.—Where it is alleged and proved that one of the parties is in possession of the premises, the court or jury, if they find for the adverse party, shall assess the damages for the use and occupation of the premises, and, if special injury to the property be alleged and proved, the damages for such injury shall also be assessed, and the proper judgment shall be entered therefor, on which execution may issue; but damages shall not be assessed under this article for use and occupation, or for injuries done over two years prior to the commencement of the suit. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 7757. [5274] Considered with claim for improvements, when.—When the defendant or person in possession has claimed an allowance for improvements in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding chapter, the claim for use and occupation and damages mentioned in the preceding article shall be considered and acted on in connection with such claim by the defendant or person in possession.

Art. 7758. [5275] Final judgment conclusive.—Any final judgment rendered in any action for the recovery of real estate shall be conclusive as to the title or right of possession established in such action upon the party against whom it is recovered, and upon all persons claiming from, through or under such party, by title arising after the commencement of such action.

Art. 7759. [5276] Former laws shall govern, when.—Nothing under this title shall be so construed as to alter, impair or take away the rights of parties, as arising under the laws in force before the introduction of the common law, but the same shall be decided by the principles of the law, or laws, under which the same accrued, or by which the same were regulated or in any manner affected. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 5297.]

Article 7760. [5277] Suggestion of improvements in good faith.—The defendant in any action of trespass to try title may allege in his pleadings that he and those under whom he claims, have had adverse possession in good faith of the premises in controversy for at least one year next before the commencement of such suit, and that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements on the lands sued for during the time they have had such possession, stating the improvements and their value respectively, and stating also the grounds of such claim. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, P. D. 5300.]

Art. 7761. [5278] Issue as to.—Where the defendant has filed his claim for an allowance for improvements in accordance with the preceding article, if the court or jury find that he is not the rightful owner of the premises sued for, but that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements thereon, being possessors thereof in good faith, the court or jury shall at the same time estimate from the testimony—

1. The value at the time of trial of such improvements as were so made before the filing of the suit not exceeding the amount to which the value of the premises is actually increased thereby.

2. The value of the use and occupation of the premises during the time the defendant was in possession thereof (exclusive of the improvements thereon made by himself or those under whom he claims), and also, if authorized by the pleadings, the damages for waste or other injury to the premises committed by him, not computing such annual value for a longer time than two years before suit, nor damages for waste or injury done before said two years.

3. The value of the premises recovered without the improvements made as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 7762. [5279] Rents and profits to be offset against.—If the sum estimated for the improvements exceeds the damages estimated against the defendant and the value of the use and occupation as aforesaid, there shall then be estimated against him, if authorized by the testimony, the value of the use and occupation and the damages for injury done by him or those under whom he claims, for any time before the said two years, so far as may be necessary to balance the claim for improvements, but no further; and he shall not be liable for the excess, if any, beyond the value of the improvements.

Art. 7763. [5280] Judgment for excess, etc.—If it shall appear from the finding of the court or jury, under the two preceding articles, that the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages exceed the estimated value of the improvements, judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff for the excess and costs in addition to a judgment for the premises; but, should the estimated value of the improvements exceed the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages, judgment shall be entered for the defendant for the excess.

Art. 7764. [5281] Writ of possession not to issue, unless, etc.—In any action of trespass to try title, when the lands or tenements have been adjudged to the plaintiff, and the estimated value of the improvements in excess of the value of the use and occupation and damages has been adjudged to the defendant, no writ of possession shall be issued for the term of one year after the date of the judgment, unless the plaintiff shall pay to the clerk of the court for the defendant the amount of such judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, sec. 9. P. D. 5301.]

Art. 7765. [5282] On failure of plaintiff, defendant may pay, etc., and keep premises.—If the plaintiff shall neglect for the term of one year to pay over the amount of said judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon, as directed in the preceding article, and the defendant shall, within six months after the expiration of said year, pay to the clerk of the court for the plaintiff the value of the lands or tenements without regard to the improvements, as estimated by the court or jury, then the plaintiff shall be forever barred of his writ of possession, and from ever having or maintaining any action whatever against the defendant, his heirs or assigns, for the lands or tenements recovered by such suit.

Art. 7766. [5283] Defendant failing to pay, etc., within six months, writ may issue, etc.—If the defendant, or his legal representatives, shall not, within six months aforesaid, pay over to the clerk for the plaintiff the estimated value of the lands or tenements, as directed in the preceding article, then the plaintiff may sue out his writ of possession as in ordinary cases.

Art. 7767. [5284] Judgment.—The judgment or decree of the court shall recite the estimated value of the premises without the improvements, and shall also include the conditions, stipulations and directions contained in the three preceding articles, so far as they may be applicable to the case before the court.

Art. 7768. [5285] Duty of clerk on receiving payment, etc.—Whenever payment shall be made to the clerk of the court by the plaintiff or defendant, as provided in the preceding articles, it shall be the duty of such clerk to enter a memorandum of such payment, with the date thereof, on the page of the record on which the judgment was entered; and he shall, on demand, pay over the money to the party entitled, taking his receipt therefor, dated and signed on the page of the record aforesaid.

Article 7769. [5286] Claimant must make affidavit.—Whenever any sheriff or other lawful officer shall levy a writ of execution, sequestration, attachment or other like writ upon any personal property, and such property, or any part thereof, shall be claimed by any person who is not a party to such writ, such person or his agent or attorney may make oath in writing, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, that such claim is made in good faith, and present such oath in writing to the officer who made such levy. [Act March 18, 1846, p. 140, sec. 1. P. D. 5310.]

Art. 7770. [5287] Bond.—He shall also execute and deliver to the officer who made such levy his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, payable to the plaintiff in such writ, for an amount equal to double the value of the property so claimed to be assessed by such officer; provided, however, that, when more than one writ has been levied, said bond may be made payable to all the plaintiffs in the several writs levied. Said bond shall inure to the benefit of all the plaintiffs in the several writs according to their respective priorities in time of levy. Upon the approval of such bond and delivery of the property to the claimant, the same shall be deemed in custodia legis, and shall not be taken out of his possession by any other like writ or writs; but said writs may be levied on the same by giving notice to the claimant; and in such cases the claimant's bond shall also inure to the benefit of the several plaintiffs in such writs according to their respective priorities. [Acts of 1887, p. 104.]

Art. 7771. [5288] Condition of bond.—The bond shall be conditioned that the party making such claim, in case he fails to establish his right to such property, shall return the same to the officer making the levy, or his successor, in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase and fruits thereof from the date of said bond, or, in case he fails so to return said property and pay for the use of the same, he shall pay the plaintiff the value of said property, with legal interest thereon from the date of the bond, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

Art. 7772. [5289] Property to be delivered to claimant.—It shall be the duty of the officer receiving such oath and bond to deliver the property so claimed to the person so claiming it. [Id.]

Art. 7773. [5290] Return of oath and bond.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond, as provided for in this chapter, if the writ under which said levy was made was issued by any justice of the peace or court of the county where such levy was made, the sheriff or other officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on the writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, and shall also indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath to the proper justice or court having jurisdiction to try such claim, as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5311.]

Art. 7774. [5291] Form of bond.—The form of such bond shall be substantially as follows:

“Whereas, by virtue of a writ of _____ [here describe the writ] issued out of the _____ court (or by _____, justice of the peace for precinct No. _____, _____ county) in favor of _____ [here insert name of plaintiff] versus _____ [here insert name of defendant], and tested on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____, _____ [here insert name and title of officer seizing], has seized and taken the following described personal property, viz.: _____ [here describe the property], the value of which property has been assessed by said officer at _____ dollars. And, whereas, _____ [here insert name of claimant] has claimed said property and presented to said officer his oath in writing that such claim is made in good faith; now therefore we _____ [here insert name of claimant], as principal, and _____ and _____ as sureties, acknowledge ourselves bound to pay to the said _____ [insert name of plaintiff] the sum of _____ dollars, being double the value of said property, conditioned that the said _____ [here insert name of claimant], in case he fails to establish his right to said property, will return the same to the said _____ [insert the name of the officer] or his successor in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase or fruits of the same from the date of this bond and costs, or in case he fails to return said property and pay for the use, hire, increase or fruits thereof, that he will pay the plaintiff the value of the same with legal interest thereon from date, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

“Witness our hands this the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

“Approved: _____ sheriff (or constable) of _____ county.”

Art. 7775. [5292] Form immaterial.—Any other form of bond which shall be a substantial compliance with the requirements of article 5291 [7774] shall be a sufficient bond.

Art. 7776. [5293] Return of oath, bond and copy of writ when levy made in county other than that where writ issued.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond as provided for herein, if the writ under which such levy was made was issued by any justice of the peace or court of another county than that in which such levy was made, then the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath, with a copy of the writ, to the justice or court of the county in which such levy was made having jurisdiction according to the value of the property as assessed by said officer.

Art. 7777. [5294] Return of original writ.—The sheriff or other officer taking such bond shall also indorse on the original writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, the names of the sureties and to what justice or court the bond has been returned; and he shall forthwith return such original writ to the justice or court from which it is issued.

Art. 7778. [5295] Jurisdiction.—Cases arising under this chapter shall be tried as follows:

1. Where the assessed value of the property does not exceed two hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to a justice of the peace, as before provided.

2. Where the value assessed is more than two hundred dollars and does not exceed five hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to the proper county court.

3. When the assessed value is more than five hundred dollars, the writ shall be returned to the proper district court. [Const., art. 5, secs. 8, 16, 19.]

Art. 7779. [5296] Cause, how docketed.—Whenever any oath and bond for the trial of the right of property shall be returned, as provided for in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court, or of such justice of the peace, to docket the same in the name of the plaintiff in the writ as the plaintiff, and the claimant of the property as defendant. [Act March 18, 1848, p. 140, sec. 3. P. D. 5312.]

Art. 7780. [5297] Issue to be made up, etc.—At the first term of the court thereafter, if both parties appear, the court or justice shall direct an issue to be made up in writing between the parties and tried as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7781. [5298] Requisites of issue.—Said issue shall consist of a brief statement of the authority and right by which the plaintiff seeks to subject the property levied on to his execution, and of the nature of the claim of the defendant thereto.

Art. 7782. [5299] Judgment by default against defendant, when.—If the plaintiff appears and the defendant fails to appear or neglects or refuses to join issue under the direction of the court or justice, within the time prescribed for pleading, the plaintiff shall have judgment by default, as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7783. [5300] Judgment of non-suit against plaintiff, when.—If the plaintiff does not appear at the said first term, the case shall be continued to the next term, when, if he appears, the like proceedings may be had as at the said first term; but, if he does not then appear on or before the appearance day of said term, he shall be non-suited. [Id.]

Art. 7784. [5301] Proceedings, how conducted.—The proceedings and practice on the trial shall be as nearly as practicable the same as in other cases before such court or justice.

Art. 7785. [5302] Burden of proof on plaintiff, when.—In all cases arising under this title, if the property was taken from the possession of the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. [Id.]

Art. 7786. [5303] Burden of proof on defendant, when.—If it was taken from the possession of the defendant in such writ, or any other person than the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the claimant. [Id.]

Art. 7787. [5304] Damages.—In all trials of the right of property under the provisions of this title, if the claimant shall fail to establish his right to the property, the court or justice trying the same shall give judgment against all the obligors in the claimant's bond for ten per cent damages on the value of the property. [P. D. 5314.]

Art. 7788. [5305] Where value of property exceeds judgment.—When such value is greater than the amount claimed under the writ, by virtue of which such property was levied upon, the damages shall be on the amount claimed under said writ. [Id.]

Art. 7789. [5306] Copy of writ evidence, when.—In all trials of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, in any county other than that in which the writ issued under which the levy was made, the copy of the writ herein required to be returned by the officer making the levy shall be received in evidence in like manner as the original could be. [P. D. 5315.]

Art. 7790. [5307] Judgment upon failure to establish title, etc.—In all cases where any claimant of property, under the provisions of this title, shall fail to establish his right thereto, judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, with legal interest thereon from the date of such bond. Such judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the writ, or of the several plaintiffs, if more than one, and shall fix the amount of each plaintiff's claim. [Acts of 1887, p. 104.]

Art. 7791. [5308] Execution shall issue.—In case such judgment should not be satisfied by a return of the property as provided in article 5310 [7793] then execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff for the amount of his claim, or of all the plaintiffs for the sum of their several claims, provided the amount of such judgment exceed such claim or sum; and in such cases the excess of such judgment shall inure to the benefit of any person who shall show superior right or title to the property claimed as against the claimant; but, if such judgment be for a less amount than the sum of the several plaintiffs' claims, then the respective rights and priorities of the several plaintiffs shall be fixed and adjusted in the judgment. [Id.]

Art. 7792. [5309] Execution not to issue within ten days.—On such judgment, no execution shall issue for ten days.

Art. 7793. [5310] Return of property by claimant within ten days.—If, within ten days from the rendition of said judgment, the claimant shall return such property in as good condition as he received it, and pay for the use of the same, together with the damages and costs, such delivery and payment shall operate as a satisfaction of such judgment.

Art. 7794. [5311] Claim operates a release of damages.—A claim made to property, under the provisions of this chapter, shall operate as a release of all damages by the claimant against the officer who levied upon said property. [P. D. 5317.]

Art. 7795. [5312] Levy may be made on other property.—Proceedings for the trial of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, shall in no case prevent the plaintiff in the writ from having a levy made upon any other property of the defendant. [P. D. 5318.]

Article 7796. "Trusts" defined.—A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, or either two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create, or which may tend to create, or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce or aids to commerce or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or to create or carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of any business authorized or permitted by the laws of this state.

2. To fix, maintain, increase or reduce the price of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the cost of insurance, or of the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

3. To prevent or lessen competition in the manufacture, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the business of insurance, or to prevent or lessen competition in aids to commerce, or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

4. To fix or maintain any standard or figure whereby the price of any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce, or the cost of transportation, or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, shall be in any manner affected, controlled or established.

5. To make, enter into, maintain, execute or carry out any contract, obligation or agreement by which the parties thereto bind, or have bound, themselves not to sell, dispose of, transport or to prepare for market or transportation any article or commodity, or to make any contract of insurance at a price below a common standard or figure, or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article or commodity or charge for transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation, at a fixed or graded figure, or by which they shall in any manner affect or maintain the price of any commodity or article or the cost of transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation between them or themselves and others, to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or business of transportation or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or unite any interest they may have in connection with the sale or purchase of any article or commodity, or charge for transportation or insurance or charge for the preparation of any product for market or transportation, whereby its price or such charge might be in any manner affected.

6. To regulate, fix or limit the output of any article or commodity which may be manufactured, mined, produced or sold, or the amount of insurance which may be undertaken, or the amount of work that may be done in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

7. To abstain from engaging in or continuing business, or from the purchase or sale of merchandise, produce or commodities partially or entirely within the state of Texas, or any portion thereof. [Act 1903, p. 119, sec. 1.]

Art. 7797. "Monopoly" defined.—A monopoly is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations when effected in either of the following methods:

1. When the direction of the affairs of two or more corporations is in any manner brought under the same management or control for the purpose of producing, or where such common management or control tends to create a trust as defined in the first article of this chapter.

2. Where any corporation acquires the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights, or the physical properties, or any part thereof, of any other corporation or corporations, for the purpose of preventing or lessening, or where the effect of such acquisition tends to affect or lessen competition, whether such acquisition is accomplished directly or through the instrumentality of trustees or otherwise. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7798. Conspiracies against trade, what constitutes.—Either or any of the following acts shall constitute a conspiracy in restraint of trade:

1. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, who are engaged in buying or selling any article of merchandise, produce or any commodity, enter into an agreement or understanding to refuse to buy from or sell to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons, any article of merchandise, produce or commodity.

2. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or association of persons shall agree to boycott or threaten to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons for buying from or selling to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7799. Acts and things mentioned declared illegal.—Any and all trusts, monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade, as herein defined, are prohibited and declared to be illegal. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7800. Charters forfeited.—Any corporation holding a charter under the laws of the state of Texas which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall thereby forfeit its charter and franchise, and its corporate existence shall cease and determine. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7801. Attorney general to institute quo warranto proceedings.—For a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or any anti-trust laws of this state, by any corporation, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, upon his motion and without leave or order of any judge or court, to institute suit or quo warranto proceedings in Travis county, or at the county seat of any county in the state which the attorney general may select, for the forfeiture of its charter rights and franchises, and the dissolution of its corporate existence; and for such purposes, venue is hereby given to each district court in the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 6; amended Acts 1909, p. 281.]

Art. 7802. Successors to defaulting corporations prohibited from doing business.—When a corporation organized under the laws of this state shall have been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, and its charter and franchise has been forfeited, as provided in article 7800, no other corporation to which the defaulting corporation may have transferred its properties and business, or which has assumed the payment of its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas. [Act 1903, p. 119, sec. 7.]

Art. 7803. Foreign corporations prohibited from doing business.—Every foreign corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter is hereby denied the right and is prohibited from doing any business within this state; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to enforce this provision by injunction or other proceedings in the district court of Travis county, in the name of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7804. Quo warranto proceedings.—The provisions of title 114, to prescribe the remedy and regulate the proceedings by quo warranto, etc., shall, except in so far as they conflict herewith, govern and control the proceedings when instituted to forfeit any charter under this title. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7805. Successor to defaulting foreign corporation prohibited from doing business.—When any foreign corporation has been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, and its right to do business in this state has been forfeited, as provided in article 7803 of this chapter, no other corporation to which the defaulting corporation may have transferred its properties and business, or which has assumed the payment of its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 7806. Penalties; venue; fees of attorney general.—Each and every firm, person, corporation or association of persons, who shall in any manner violate the provisions of this chapter, shall, for each and every day that such violation shall be committed or continued, forfeit and pay a sum of not less than fifty nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the state of Texas in the district court of any county in the state of Texas, and venue is hereby given to such district courts; provided, that when any such suit shall have been filed in any county and jurisdiction thereof acquired, it shall not be transferred to any other county, except upon change of venue allowed by the court; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or the district or county attorney under the direction of the attorney general, to prosecute for the recovery of the same; and the fees of the district or county attorney for representing the state in all anti-trust proceedings, or for the collection of penalties for the violation of the anti-trust laws of this state, shall be ten per cent of the amount collected up to and including the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and five per cent on all sums in excess of the first fifty thousand dollars, to be retained by him when collected; and all such fees which he may collect shall be over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill; provided, that the provisions of this chapter as to the fees allowed the prosecuting attorney shall not apply to any case in which judgment has heretofore been rendered in any court, nor to any moneys to be hereafter collected upon any such judgment heretofore rendered in any court, whether such judgment or judgments are pending upon appeal or otherwise; and provided, further, that the district or county attorney who joins in the institution or prosecution of any suit for the recovery of penalties for a violation of any of the anti-trust laws of this state, who shall, previous to the collection of such penalties, cease to hold office, he shall be entitled to an equal division with his successor of the fee collected in said cause; and in case of the employment of special counsel by any such district or county attorney, the contract so made shall be binding upon such prosecuting officer making such contract and thereafter retiring from office; provided, further, that in case any suit is compromised before any final judgment in the trial court is had, then the fees herein provided for shall be reduced one-half. [Id. sec. 11; amended Acts 1909, p. 281.]

Art. 7807. All agreements in violation of, void.—Any contract or agreement in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be absolutely void and not enforceable either in law or equity. [Act 1903, p. 119, sec. 12.]

Art. 7808. Actions under this chapter to have precedence.—All actions authorized and brought under this chapter shall have precedence, on motion of the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general, of all other business, civil and criminal, except criminal cases where the defendants are in jail. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 7809. Recovery against one does not bar recovery against others.—Recovery against any person or persons for any violation of the provisions of this chapter shall not bar recovery against any other person or persons for the same offense. [Acts 1907, p. 456, sec. 20.]

Article 7810. Evidence preliminary to prosecutions, how secured.—Upon the application of the attorney general, or of any of his assistants, or of any district or county attorney, acting under the direction of the attorney general, made to any county judge, or any justice of the peace, in this state, stating that he has reason to believe that a witness, who is to be found in the county in which such county judge or justice of the peace is an officer, knows of a violation of any of the provisions of the preceding chapter, it shall be the duty of the county judge, or of the justice of the peace, as the case may be, before whom such application is made, to have summoned and to have examined such witness in relation to violations of any of the provisions of said chapter, said witness to be summoned as provided for in criminal cases. The said witness shall be duly sworn; and the county judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, such sworn statement shall be delivered to the attorney general, his assistants, or the district or county attorney, upon whose application the witness was summoned. Should the witness summoned as aforesaid fail to appear, or to make statements of the facts within his knowledge, under oath, or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court, and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in the county jail until he shall make a full statement of all the facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. Any person who shall testify before any county judge, or justice of the peace, as provided for in this article, or who shall testify as a witness for the state in the course of any statutory proceeding to secure testimony for the enforcement of the provisions of the preceding chapter.

or in the course of any judicial proceeding to enforce the provisions of said chapter shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he shall so give evidence, documentary or otherwise. [Acts 1907, p. 221, sec. 15.]

Art. 7811. Witnesses examined; books and papers produced.—Whenever any suit shall be instituted, or is pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by the attorney general, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction, against any corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, or association of individuals, or joint stock associations, or co-partnerships under any law of this state, against trusts, monopolies, or conspiracies in restraint of trade, or under any laws of this state regulating or controlling corporations, domestic or foreign, the attorney general, district or county attorney, as the case may be, may, in addition to the means now provided by law, examine and procure the testimony or evidence of witnesses and have books, papers and documents produced as evidence, in the manner herein provided. [Acts 1907, p. 16, sec. 1.]

Art. 7812. Evidence, how taken.—Whenever any action is commenced or is pending, as contemplated in the preceding article of this chapter, by the attorney general, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction, and said officer representing the state, either upon the trial of the case, or in preparation for the trial thereof, desires to take the testimony of any officer, director, agent or employe of any foreign or domestic corporation or joint stock association proceeded against, or in case of any co-partnership, any member thereof, or in case of any individual or individuals, either of them, and the person or persons whose testimony is desired, resides either within or without the state of Texas, the said officer shall file in said court where the action is brought, either in term time or in vacation, or with any special commissioner, who may be appointed by the court to take testimony, as provided for in this act, a statement in writing setting forth the name or names and residence of the person or persons whose testimony he desires to take, and in a general way shall designate any books, papers or documents he desires produced, and the time when and place where, either within or without this state, he desires such person to appear and testify, or to produce books, papers and documents, if any are desired; and thereupon the judge of said court, or the commissioner, as the case may be, before whom said testimony is being or shall be taken, shall immediately issue a notice in writing, directed to the attorney or attorneys of record in said cause, or the agent, officer, or employe of any corporation or joint stock association, or directed to the attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership, individual or individuals, or to any member of such co-partnership, or to any individual or individuals, who are defendant or defendants in said action, notifying said attorney or attorneys of record, or officer, agent or employe, aforesaid, or member or members of any co-partnership, or individual, as herein provided, that the testimony of the person or persons named in said notice is desired, and requiring said attorney or attorneys of record, or such officer, agent or employe aforesaid, or member of such co-partnership, or any individual to whom said notice is delivered, or upon whom the same is served, to notify and have said witness or witnesses, whose testimony or evidence it is desired to take, at the place named in said notice, at the time fixed therein, before the court or special commissioner named, then and there to testify, and then and there to have and produce such books, papers and documents as are called for, and for any of the purposes herein provided; provided, that, if the taking of such evidence be not concluded on the day and date specified in said notice, the court or the commissioner, as the case may be, may continue the taking of same from day to day, or adjourn from day to day, at the same place, until the taking of such evidence has been concluded. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7813. Judgment by default on failure to produce books, papers, etc.— Whenever any officer, director, agent or employe of any foreign or domestic corporation, or joint stock association, authorized to do business in this state, or any member of any co-partnership, or any individual, against whom suit has been filed, or is pending, as provided for in this chapter, or the attorney or attorneys of record of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, shall be notified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter that any of the books, papers or documents belonging to such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, are wanted before the court, or special commissioner, as provided in this chapter, it shall be the duty of such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, as the case may be, to produce and present, or cause to be produced and presented, as required in said notice, all such books, papers and documents belonging to any such defendant, or under such defendant's control, as may be specified in said notice, in court or before said special commissioner, at the time and place so specified; and, in the event of the failure or refusal of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual, to comply with any of the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the court, upon the motion of the officer representing the state, to strike out all the pleadings, answers, motions, reply or demurrer theretofore or thereafter filed in such case by such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, as the case may be, and render judgment by default against any such defendant. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7814. Notice to attorneys on failure to produce documents; judgment by default, when.— Whenever any attorney or attorneys of record, or any agent, officer, or employe of any corporation or joint stock association, proceeded against as herein provided, shall be notified that any officer, director, agent or employe of any such corporation or joint stock association is wanted before said court, or any special commissioner, as provided herein, to give his testimony or to produce any such books, papers or documents of said corporation or joint stock association, as the case may be, or if any attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership or individual shall be notified that any member or members of said co-partnership or any individual, who are defendants in any such action, are desired as witnesses, or to produce books, papers or documents before any court, or before any special commissioner appointed to take testimony in said proceeding, as herein provided, it shall be the duty of such attorney or attorneys of record, or any such officer, director, agent or employe to immediately notify any such person of the time and place where he shall attend and give his testimony, or produce any such books, papers or documents, if any are desired; and, if the person or persons whose testimony is desired as herein provided, shall fail to appear, or appearing shall refuse to testify, or shall fail to produce whatever books, papers or documents he or they may be ordered to produce, as before provided, then it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the attorney general, district or county attorney, as the case may be, on proof of such refusal, failure or dereliction, to strike out the answer, motion, reply, demurrer or other pleading theretofore or thereafter filed in such action, by said delinquent defendant, who has himself, or being a corporation or joint stock association, whose officer, agent, director or employe, as herein provided, has refused or failed to attend and testify, or to produce all books, papers or documents demanded, which were in the custody or subject to the control of such witness or witnesses, or corporation or joint stock association; and said court shall, in the event of any such refusal or failure, proceed to render judgment by default against any such defendant; provided, however, that if any such defendant shall file a sworn denial in writing, in said court, setting forth that such failure or refusal did not arise by reason of any fault or procurement of defendant, the court shall hear evidence upon that issue; and if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that any witness who failed to attend did not do so at the instance or procurement of said defendant, or that the books, papers or documents demanded were not in its possession or control and could not be produced, and that such defendant had complied with all the provisions of this chapter, within such defendant's power to perform, then in that event the answer, motion, reply, demurrer, or other pleadings shall not be stricken out or judgment by default taken because of the failure of the witness to attend, who could not be so procured, or because of the failure to produce the books, papers or documents not in the possession or under the control of such defendant; but the court shall have the power to enter such further orders in respect to the matter in controversy as it may deem necessary for the proper administration of justice; provided, further, that, in any proceeding had before a special commissioner as herein provided, the certificate of the special commissioner showing the failure or refusal of any such witness or witnesses to appear and testify, or to produce any books, papers or documents desired, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of such failure, refusal or dereliction on the part of any such defendant, when same is filed in court. Any witness attending any proceeding herein provided for in compliance with any notice or subpoena issued by authority of this act shall receive as compensation one dollar per day for each day of his attendance, and four cents per mile traveled, computed upon the shortest practicable route; any claim for fees and mileage shall be filed with the court, or special commissioner, and sworn to by said witness, and shall be taxed up as costs, and collected as other costs in civil cases. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7815. Special commission to take testimony; powers of; compensation.—The court, or presiding judge thereof, in which any proceeding as herein provided is pending, in term time or in vacation, upon application therefor made by the attorney general, or district or county attorney acting under his direction, shall appoint some well qualified disinterested person as special commissioner to take testimony in any such case, at any point either within or without the state, as designated in such application, or where requested by either party to said cause of action, upon the issues joined in said cause. Such special commissioner shall have full power and authority to issue notices provided for in article 7812 of this chapter, and to issue subpoenas for witnesses, compelling the attendance of such witnesses, the production of books, papers or documents, to issue attachments, to punish for contempt to the same extent as provided by law for said court, to administer oaths to witnesses, to have all witnesses examined orally, which testimony shall be reduced to writing and may be taken down by a competent stenographer and transcribed, and shall be signed and sworn to by said witness. The person appointed as special commissioner in any case shall qualify by taking oath prescribed by the constitution of this state for officers, and shall, with all convenient speed, certify and return the testimony taken by him to the court appointing him; and said commissioner shall note all objections to testimony, and shall not exclude any testimony; and all questions as to the materiality or admissibility of same shall be reserved for the court trying the case; and such testimony so taken may be read in evidence upon the trial of the suit in which same was taken, subject to any legal objections which might be made to same. The compensation of such commissioner shall be his actual expenses in traveling and such fees as are allowed a notary public in taking depositions, to be taxed up as costs and collected in the same manner as now provided by law for district clerks in civil cases. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7816. Ten days' notice to require witnesses to appear.—When any notice is issued and served, as provided for in this chapter, ten full days exclusive of the day of service shall elapse before any witness so requested shall be compelled to appear and testify, or produce any books, papers or documents called for; and, if the taking of testimony shall not be concluded on the date named in said notice, the witness or witnesses shall remain in attendance from day to day until same is completed or said witness is finally discharged by the court, or commissioner, as the case may be; service of said notice and the return thereon may be made by any sheriff or constable of this state, or by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact, and shall be made by said person executing the same by delivering to the person or persons, attorney or attorneys to be served, a true copy of such notice, and return of such service shall be indorsed on or attached to the original notice; it shall state when the same was served and the manner of service, and upon whom served, and shall be signed; and, if served by any person other than an officer, shall be sworn to by the party making the service before some officer authorized by law to take affidavits; and such affidavit shall be certified under the hand and official seal of such officer. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7817. Witnesses testifying not subject to prosecution.—Any witness for the state, who shall testify or produce any books, papers or documents in any proceeding or examination under the provisions of this chapter, shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing, concerning which he truthfully testifies or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7818. Provisions of this chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative of all laws of this state, and shall not be construed as repealing any other law relating to the taking of testimony or evidence; but shall be construed as providing an additional means of securing evidence for the enforcement of the laws, as herein provided. [Id. sec. 8.]

Article 7819. Who and what are public warehousemen and warehouses.—

All persons, firms, companies or corporations who shall receive cotton, tobacco, wheat, rye, oats, rice, whisky, oil, or any kind of produce, wares, merchandise or any description of personal property in store for hire, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed and taken to be public warehousemen; and all warehouses which shall be owned or controlled, conducted and managed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed and taken to be public warehouses; provided, that a public warehouse for the storage of cotton may, within the meaning of this chapter, include a lot or parcel of land inclosed with a lawful fence, the gates or entrances to which shall be kept securely locked at night. [Acts 1901, p. 251, sec. 1.]

Art. 7820. Certificate and bond of public warehousemen.—The owner, proprietor, lessee or manager of any public warehouse, whether an individual, firm or corporation, before transacting any business in such public warehouse, shall procure from the county clerk of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, a certificate that he is transacting business as a public warehouseman under the laws of the state of Texas; which certificate shall be issued by said clerk upon a written application, setting forth the location and name of such warehouse or warehouses, and the name of each person, individual, or a member of the firm, interested as owner or principal in the management of the same; or, if the warehouse is owned or managed by a corporation, the names of the president, secretary and treasurer of such corporation shall be stated; which application shall be received and filed by such clerk and preserved in his office; and the said certificate shall give authority to carry on and conduct the business of a public warehouse within the meaning of this chapter, and shall be revokable only by the district court of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, upon a proceeding before the court, on complaint by written petition of any person, setting forth the particular violation of the law, and upon process, procedure and proof, as in other civil cases. The person receiving a certificate, as herein provided for, shall file with the county clerk granting same a bond payable to the state of Texas, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said clerk, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as a public warehouseman; which said bond shall be filed and preserved in the office of such clerk. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7821. Form and record of warehouse receipts; duplicates, when issued.

—On application of the owner or depositor of the property stored in a public warehouse, the warehouseman shall issue, over his own signature, or that of his duly authorized agent, a public warehouse receipt therefor, to the order of the person entitled thereto; which receipt shall purport to be issued by a public warehouse, shall bear date of the day of its issue, and shall state upon its face the name of the warehouse and its location, the description, quantity, number and marks of the property stored, and the date on which it was originally received in warehouse, and that it is deliverable upon the return of the receipt properly endorsed by the person to whose order it was issued, and on payment of all charges for storage. All such receipts shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their issue; and, when such receipt is for cotton, the receipt shall state whether the cotton therein described is exposed to the weather or is under shelter; and a correct record of such receipts shall be kept in a well-bound book, which shall be, at all reasonable hours, open to examination by any interested person; and no two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during the same year, nor shall any duplicate receipt be issued, except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case the new receipt shall bear the same date and number as the original, and shall be plainly marked on its face, "Duplicate;" and provided, that no such duplicate receipt shall be issued by the public warehouseman until adequate security, acceptable to the warehouseman, be deposited with or to the order of said warehouseman to protect the party or parties who may finally hold the original receipt in good faith and for a valuable consideration. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7822. No receipts without actual storage of goods.—No public warehouse receipt shall be issued, except upon the actual previous delivery of the goods into the public warehouse or on the premises and under the control of the public warehouseman by whom it purports to be issued, and the name of the warehouse shall invariably be specified in such receipt. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7823. Must deliver property immediately upon production of receipt.—On the presentation and return to the warehouseman of any public warehouse receipt issued by him and properly indorsed, and the tender of all proper warehouse charges upon the property represented by it, such property shall be delivered immediately to the holder of such receipt; but no public warehouseman, who shall issue a receipt for goods, shall, under any circumstances or upon any order or guarantee whatsoever, deliver the property for which receipts have been issued until the said receipt shall have been surrendered and canceled, except in case of lost receipts, as provided for in article 7821; and, in default of the strict compliance with the provisions of this article, he shall be held liable to the legal holder of the receipt for the full value of the property therein described, as it appeared on the day of the default, and shall, furthermore, be liable to the special penalty herein provided. Upon delivery of the goods from the warehouse upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked in ink across its face with the word, "canceled," with the name of the person canceling the same, and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put in circulation. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7824. Limitations of liability in receipts prohibited.—No public warehouseman shall insert in the public warehouse receipt issued by him any language limiting or modifying his liabilities or responsibilities as imposed by the laws of this state, excepting, "not accountable for leaking or depreciation," or words of like import and meaning. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7825. Force and effect of warehouse receipts; negotiable, etc.—The receipts issued against property stored in public warehouses, as herein provided for, shall be negotiable and transferable by endorsement in blank, or by special endorsement, and delivery in the same manner and to the same extent as bills of exchange and promissory notes now are, without other formality; and the transferee or holder of such public warehouse receipt shall be considered and held as the actual and exclusive owner, to all intents and purposes, of the property therein described, subject only to the lien and privileges of the public warehouseman for storage and other warehouse charges; provided, however, that all such public warehouse receipts as shall have the words, "not negotiable," plainly written or stamped on the face thereof, shall be exempt from the provisions of this article; and provided, further, that no public warehouseman shall issue warehouse receipts against his own property in his own warehouse, but, upon sale of such property in good faith, may issue to the purchaser his public warehouse receipt in form and manner as herein provided; which issue and delivery of the receipt shall be deemed to complete the sale, and shall constitute the purchaser full owner, as aforesaid, of the property therein described. Nothing in this last clause shall be construed to exempt the issuer of said receipt, for his own goods in his own public warehouse, from complying with and being subject in all respects, to all other articles and provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 7826. Liability for damages.—Every and all persons aggrieved by the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall have the right to maintain an action against the person or persons, corporation or corporations, so violating any of the provisions of this chapter, for the recovery of damages which he or they may have sustained by reason of such violation aforesaid, before any court of competent jurisdiction, whether such person or persons so violating shall have been convicted of criminal offense under this chapter or not. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7827. Limiting the operation of this law.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to private warehouses, or to the issue of receipts by their owners or managers under existing laws, or to prohibit public warehousemen from issuing such receipts as are now issued by private warehousemen under existing laws; provided, that such private warehouse receipts issued by public warehousemen shall never be written on a form or blank indicating that it is issued from a public warehouse, but shall, on the contrary, bear on its face in large characters the words: “Not a public warehouse receipt.” [Id. sec. 9.]

Article 7828. [4308] Appointment and term of office.—The governor is authorized and required to appoint five persons as public weighers in every city which receives annually one hundred thousand bales of cotton on sale or for shipment. In all of the counties in this state in which there are no city or cities in which the governor is authorized to appoint public weighers, the commissioners' court of said county, when presented with a petition signed by a majority of the qualified voters of any justice precinct in their county, praying for the appointment or election of public weighers for said precinct, shall appoint, or order to be elected at the next general election, one or more suitable persons for public weighers for said justice precinct, the number of weighers for any one precinct to be determined by said court; and, should they appoint a public weigher for said justice precinct, he shall hold his office until the next general election, when there shall be elected for said justice precinct his successor, a public weigher, in the manner and form governing the election of other precinct officers; provided, the majority of the qualified voters shall be determined by a comparison with the whole number of votes cast at the last general election in such justice precinct for the office of governor; and it is further provided, that no person shall be elected or appointed a public weigher, unless he shall be a qualified elector in the city or justice precinct for which he is appointed or elected. All public weighers appointed by the governor or elected for justice precinct shall hold their office for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed or elected, as the case may be, and qualified, subject to removal for misconduct or incompetency in office; provided, no person shall be appointed or elected public weigher, or deputy public weigher, who is interested in the purchase or sale of cotton, wool, sugar or grain to be weighed, either as principal, agent, factor, commission merchant or employe; provided, further, that the commissioners' court may unite two or more justice precincts for the purpose of electing public weighers; provided, further, that, when the people of any county or subdivision thereof that has an elective weigher, may wish to abolish said office of public weigher, the commissioners' court of said county shall, upon petition to abolish said office signed by qualified voters at least one-third in number of the whole vote cast for governor at the last preceding election in the county or weigher's precinct, as the case may be, order an election to decide whether such office of public weigher of the county, or subdivision named in the petition, shall be abolished or not. Said election shall be held in the same manner as other elections; and, if a majority of the votes of the county, or subdivision of the county ordering said election, shall be cast in favor of abolishing any office of public weigher, the commissioners' court shall declare such office to be abolished within thirty days after the election; and another election for this purpose shall not be held for two years; and no election shall be held for this purpose until two years after said office of public weigher has been created. [Acts 1883, p. 83. Amended Acts 1899, p. 264.]

Art. 7829. [4309] Oath and bond.—Every person appointed or elected public weigher shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution for other officers, and shall execute a bond with good and sufficient sureties in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, and payable to the county judge, or his successors in office, conditioned upon the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; provided, the bond for the public weigher for a justice precinct shall be two thousand five hundred dollars where not over five thousand bales of cotton are received for sale or shipment; provided, further, that the commissioners' court shall be authorized to accept as surety on such bond any surety company or corporation having a permit in this state to execute indemnity bonds. [Acts 1903, p. 216.]

Art. 7830. [4310] Duties.—When a person is appointed or elected public weigher, and shall have qualified as provided in article 7829, he shall enter upon the duties of his office and weigh, without unnecessary delay, all cotton, wool, sugar, hay, pecans, or grain, required to be weighed by him. He shall prepare a convenient place or places of easy access to the public in which to perform his duties. He shall mark upon the bales of cotton, hogshead or barrels of sugar, and bales of wool, or on tags attached thereto, the weights thereof in figures, and shall deliver to the owner, or his agent, of all cotton, wool, hay, sugar, pecans, or grain a certificate or a statement at the option of the owner in writing with ink or an indelible pencil, setting forth the weights of such cotton, wool, sugar, hay, pecans, or grain weighed by him, over his official signature. And where a certificate is issued it shall be negotiable by delivery and indorsement of the owner; and it shall be the duty of the public weigher issuing such certificate, if the produce for which the same was given is left with him on storage, to keep the produce for which the same was issued in his possession, and not remove or permit to be removed such produce until such certificate is returned and delivered to him; and he shall immediately stamp or mark in writing with ink such certificate, "canceled," and shall make a corresponding memorandum upon his book; provided, that, where the holder of such certificate desires to ship or receive from the possession of the public weigher a portion of the produce for which such certificate was given, he may deliver to the public weigher the certificate; whereupon it shall be the duty of the public weigher to deliver such portion of the produce, and, in lieu of the original certificate, he shall give the holder a new certificate for the balance remaining in his possession, and shall cause the original certificate to be canceled, and make the memorandum above provided for. He shall keep in a well-bound book a record of each bale of cotton, sack of wool, or barrel or hogshead of sugar, hay, grain, or pecans weighed by him, numbering the same, giving the gin's marks of cotton bales and number, with the name of the seller and purchaser thereof; which book shall be open at all reasonable hours for the inspection of the public; and he shall, upon application therefor by any one, issue certified copies of such certificate, for which he may charge the sum of ten cents, including certificate thereto. The provisions of this article shall also apply to private weighers who are engaged in weighing for the public, as well as to public weighers. [Id.]

Art. 7831. [4311] Deputies.—The public weighers who shall have been appointed or elected under the provisions of this title, after they have taken the oath of office, and their bonds shall have been approved and recorded in the same manner as the bonds of county officers, shall have power and authority to appoint as many deputies as may be necessary to enable them to expeditiously weigh all cotton, wool, sugar, hay and grain offered to be weighed in the cities and justice precincts for which they are elected or appointed; provided, that no public weigher shall appoint deputies for any place or places not situated in the city or justice precinct for which he is elected or appointed. The public weigher for any justice precinct shall, on request of twenty bona fide citizens of any town, railroad station or other place in his precinct, who are engaged in the buying or selling of cotton, wool, sugar, hay, or grain, appoint a deputy for such town, railroad station, or other place. The deputies of public weighers shall take the oath required of their principals; and their principals may require of them a bond with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, to be approved by said principals, and conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties; and the said principals shall have the right to recover, in any court having jurisdiction, satisfaction on said bonds for any damages sustained by reason of said deputy or deputies failing to properly perform the duties of their office. [Acts 1899, p. 264.]

Art. 7832. [4312] Shall keep accurate scales.—All public weighers appointed or elected under the provisions of this chapter shall keep accurate and well adjusted scales and balances and give accurate weights, and shall have the same tested and certified to as provided by law. Such public weighers shall be held responsible for their official acts and the official acts of their deputies, and shall be liable at suit for all damages that may have accrued to any person or persons by reason of their failure to perform their official duties, or the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter; and their bonds shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time, in the name of the person or persons injured until the whole thereof is recovered. [Id.]

Art. 7833. [4314] Factor or commission merchant not to employ.—It shall not be lawful for any factor, commission merchant, or other person or persons, to employ any other than a public weigher, or his deputies, to weigh cotton, wool, sugar, hay, or grain, or other produce, sold or offered for sale in any city or justice precinct having a public weigher duly qualified; and any person or persons violating the provisions of this article shall be liable at the suit of the public weigher of such city or justice precinct to damages in any sum not less than five dollars for each bale of cotton, bale or sack of wool, ton of hay, or ton of grain, so unlawfully weighed, to be recovered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7834. [4316] Owner may weigh, etc.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent any person, firm or corporation from weighing his own cotton, wool, sugar, hay, grain, or pecans in person; provided, that in places where there are no public weighers appointed or elected any person who shall weigh cotton, wool, sugar, grain, hay, or pecans for compensation shall be required before weighing such produce to enter into a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, approved and payable as in the case of public weighers referred to in this chapter, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office and turn over all property weighed by him on demand of the owner; provided, that this article shall not apply to merchant flouring mills. [Acts 1905, p. 117.]

Art. 7835. [4316a] Weigher liable for damages, when.—Any weigher who qualifies under the preceding article, and shall violate any of the provisions or fail to comply with any of such provisions, shall be liable at the suit of any person injured upon his bond for damages that may have accrued to such person by such violation or failure. Article 7836. [5322] Legal standard.—The standard of weights and measures adopted and used by the government of the United States is hereby declared the only legal standard of weights and measures in this state. [Act May 7, 1846, p. 180, sec. 4. P. D. 5352.]

Art. 7837. [5323] Weights of corn, etc.—The following shall be the legal number of pounds per bushel: Wheat, sixty pounds; corn, shelled, fifty-six pounds; corn in the ear, shucked, seventy pounds, unshucked, in the ear, seventy-two pounds; oats, thirty-two pounds; barley, forty-eight pounds; rye, fifty-six pounds, buckwheat, forty-two pounds; white beans, sixty pounds; Irish potatoes, sixty pounds; sweet potatoes, fifty-five pounds; onions, fifty-seven pounds; turnips, fifty-five pounds; dried apples, twenty-eight pounds; dried peaches, twenty-eight pounds; bran, twenty pounds; Hungarian grass seed, forty-eight pounds; hemp seed, forty-four pounds; flax seed, fifty-six pounds; stone coal, eighty pounds; charcoal, twenty-two pounds; salt, fifty pounds; clover seed, sixty pounds; timothy seed, forty-five pounds; cotton seed, thirty-two pounds; millet seed, fifty pounds; peaches, fifty pounds; tomatoes, fifty-five pounds; apples, forty-five pounds. [Acts of 1883, p. 73. Amended Acts 1901, p. 271.]

Art. 7838. [5324] Governor to procure standards.—The governor shall procure, if necessary, at the expense of the state, a set of weights and measures in conformity with the standard used by the government of the United States, and cause the same to be deposited with the treasurer of the state, by him to be safely kept. [Act Feb. 13, 1858, p. 200, sec. 1. P. D. 5353.]

Art. 7839. [5325] And furnish copies to counties.—The governor is authorized to cause correct copies of such weights and measures to be made under such appropriate seal as he may adopt, and to deliver, or cause to be delivered, after the inspection and approval of some competent person by him appointed for that purpose, a full set of such weights and measures to the county judges of the several counties, on their application, and at the cost and expense of their respective counties. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5354.]

Art. 7840. [5326] Commissioner of agriculture may sell.—The commissioner of agriculture is authorized to sell sets, or parts of sets, of standard weights and measures heretofore manufactured in accordance with the preceding article of the Revised Statutes, at the cost of manufacturing. [Acts of 1889, p. 32.]

Art. 7841. [5327] Counties to pay for same.—When such copies have been made, it shall be the duty of the several commissioners' courts to appropriate a sufficient amount of money to enable the county judges of the respective counties to pay for and procure a full set thereof for the use of their counties, and said county judges shall take charge of and keep the same. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 5356.]

Art. 7842. [5328] License to make and vend.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties are authorized and directed to grant a license to such suitable person or persons as they may think proper to make and vend weights and measures agreeing with the standard furnished by the governor, under such rules and regulations as they may think proper to prescribe; provided, however, that no such weights and measures shall be sold or distributed, unless the same have been first examined and approved by the commissioners' court, or some competent person under their direction and approval. [Act May 7, 1846, p. 180, sec. 3. P. D. 5351.]

Art. 7843. [5329] Testing and stamping.—Any person desirous of having his weights and measures tested may have the same done by applying to the county judge, who, if he finds them correct, shall seal them with a seal to be provided by the commissioners' court for that purpose, on which shall be the capital letter "T," and also the letter with which the name of the county begins. [Act Feb. 13, 1858, p. 200, sec. 5. P. D. 5357.]

Art. 7844. [5330] False weights and measures.—Any person who shall sell by any weight, balance or measure that does not correspond to and agree with such copies, or who shall keep the same for the purpose of buying or selling thereby, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every month he may continue to keep the same, one-half of which shall go to the county in which such offense shall have been committed, and the other to the county judge, and it shall be his duty to sue for the penalty incurred by the commission of every such offense before some court of competent jurisdiction. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 5359.]

Art. 7845. [5331] Private informer may recover, when.—If the county judge shall fail to sue for any such penalty within three months after the same shall have been incurred, any other person may sue therefor and recover one-half thereof for his own use and the other half for the use of the county. [Id. sec. 8. P. D. 5360.]

Art. 7846. [5332] Forfeitures merely cumulative.—Nothing in the two preceding articles contained shall be construed to affect any provision of the Penal Code relating to the use of false weights and measures, nor shall a recovery of any forfeiture by civil action relieve an offender from criminal prosecution, or an action for damages resulting therefrom.

Article 7847. Wells, how cased.—The owner or operator of any well being constructed for the production of petroleum oil, natural gas, or mineral water, shall, before drilling into the oil or gas bearing rock, incase such well with good and sufficient wrought iron or steel casing, in such manner as shall exclude all surface or fresh water from the lower part of such well from penetrating the oil or gas bearing rock. Should any well be drilled through the first into a lower oil or gas bearing rock, the same shall be cased in such manner as will exclude all fresh water above the last oil or gas bearing rock penetrated. [Acts 1899, p. 68.]

Art. 7848. Abandoned wells to be filled.—The owner or operator of any well constructed for either or any of the purposes named in the preceding article, when about to abandon or cease operating the same, and before drawing the casing therefrom, shall securely fill such well with rock, sediment or with mortar, composed of two parts sand and one part cement or other suitable material to the depth of two hundred feet above the top of the first oil or gas bearing rock, and also in such manner as shall prevent the gas and oil from escaping therefrom. If the owner or operator of any such well shall fail to or shall inefficiently comply with the provisions of this article, then the owner of the land upon which the well is situated shall forthwith comply therewith. If all the persons hereinbefore named shall fail to or inefficiently fill such well in the manner hereinbefore described, then it shall be lawful for any person, after written demand therefor to any of said persons, to enter the premises where such well is situated, take possession thereof and fully comply with the provisions of this article. The reasonable cost and expense thereof shall forthwith be paid by the owner or operator of the well, and on his default by the owner of the land. The amount of such reasonable cost and expense shall forthwith be a lien upon the fixtures and machinery and leasehold interest of the owner and operator of said well, as upon the title and interest of the land owner in the land upon which said well is situated, and may be recovered and enforced against said owner or operator, in the order named, in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7849. Gas to be confined until utilized.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation in possession, either as owner, lessee, agent or manager, of any well producing natural gas, in order to prevent the said gas from wasting by escape, shall, within ten days after penetrating the gas bearing rock in any well hereafter drilled, shut in and confine the gas in said well until and during such time as the gas therein shall be utilized for light or fuel or power; provided, that this shall not apply to any well that is operated for oil. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7850. Limitations on use of gas for illuminating purposes.—It shall be unlawful for any person, co-partnership or corporation to use natural gas for illuminating purposes by what are known as flambeau lights; but nothing herein shall prohibit the use of "Jumbo" burners, or any other burners consuming no more gas than such "Jumbo" burners, but the person, co-partnership, or corporation, consuming such gas and using such burners in the open air, shall inclose the same in glass globes or lamps; and any one using such gas in the open air, or in or around derricks, shall turn off said gas not later than eight o'clock in the morning of each day such lights are burning or used, and shall not turn on or relight the same between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7851. Penalties; disposition of fines.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with the cost of suit in a civil action, in the name of the state of Texas, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of the state of Texas, without security or liability of cost. The amount of said penalty when collected shall be paid, one-half into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought, and one-half to said person at whose instance said suit shall be brought. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7852. Duties of persons where salt water appears in wells.—If any person or persons in this state, in boring any well or wells for oil, gas or mineral waters, shall pierce any cap-rock or other geological formation in such manner as to cause a flow of salt water or fresh water injurious to any oil well or wells already bored, or to any oil or gas deposits, and which shall or may probably result in the injury of such oil or gas field, or to such gas or oil wells already bored, such person or persons shall, if the flow of water can not be cased off, immediately abandon all work upon such well and plug and fill up the same in such manner and with such materials as will stop the flow of said water; and it shall be unlawful for any well owner, or person boring any such well, to remove the casing from the well drilled until the flow of water shall be stopped, either by casing off or plugging such well. The provisions of this article shall only apply where such cap-rock or other formation is pierced at a depth below the horizon at which oil or gas has already been discovered. If any well shall be abandoned from any cause, the same shall be securely plugged and sealed. [Acts 1905, p. 228. sec. 7.]

Art. 7853. District courts; jurisdiction and supervision; may appoint superintendent, make regulations, etc.—The district courts of each county in this state, and the judges thereof in vacation, shall have jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this chapter; and they are hereby authorized and empowered, either in term time or in vacation, upon the application of any person or persons interested either as land owners, lessees of land or as well owners, in any oil or gas field in this state, in its discretion, to appoint some suitable person or persons as superintendent of such oil or gas field, and to require of such person a bond, the amount thereof to be fixed by the court, conditioned that such superintendent shall obey and carry out the rules, regulations, orders and decrees which may be from time to time prescribed and entered by said court for the protection of such oil or gas field, and the persons employed therein, from fire or other causes likely to be injurious to the properties and operations in such field, and with power and authority to enforce, under the orders of said court, a strict compliance by all persons with all the requirements of the laws of this state governing the boring and operation of oil or gas wells in oil or gas fields; and said courts are authorized and empowered to make from time to time such rules and regulations for the government of such oil and gas fields and the operations carried on therein, and the handling of the oil or gas products, as may, in the discretion of the court, be necessary or requisite for the protection of the several interests in said oil and gas field from fire or other probable injurious cause. The court may require of the persons who apply for the appointment of a superintendent of any oil or gas field or other protective order proper security for the payment of any and all costs of court, including the salaries of any superintendents, or necessary employes under him, as well as for such other costs and expense as may be necessary to be expended in the protection of such oil or gas field and enforcement of the orders of said courts. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 7854. Suits and penalties, how brought.—Any person or persons, co-partnership, corporation, or association of persons, violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or who shall fail or refuse to obey any order or decree, rule or regulation, made or promulgated by said district courts requiring any act to be done or omitted shall be liable to penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, to be ascertained by the verdict of the jury of the court trying the cause; said sum to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action brought for that purpose in the name of the state of Texas, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in the county in which the act complained of shall have been committed or omitted; and such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of the state of Texas, without security or liability for costs; and the amount of said penalty when collected shall be paid into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought. Such suit may be brought at the instance of either the district attorney or the county attorney of the county in which the act was committed or omitted. [Id. sec. 9.]

Article 7855. [5333] Persons competent to make a will.—Every person aged twenty-one years or upward, or who may be or may have been lawfully married, being of sound mind, shall have power to make a last will and testament, under the rules and limitations prescribed by law. [Act Jan. 28, 1840; July 24, 1856. P. D. 5361, 3868.]

Art. 7856. [5334] What may be devised, etc., by will.—Every person competent to make a last will and testament may thereby devise and bequeath all the estate, right, title and interest in possession, reversion or remainder, which he has, or at the time of his death shall have, of, in or to any lands, tenements, hereditaments or rents charged upon or issuing out of them, or shall have of, in, or to any personal property whatever, subject to the limitations prescribed by law. [P. D. 5361-2.]

Art. 7857. [5335] Requisites of a will.—Every last will and testament, except where otherwise provided by law, shall be in writing and signed by the testator or by some other person by his direction and in his presence, and shall, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses above the age of fourteen years, subscribing their names thereto in the presence of the testator. [Act Jan. 28, 1840. P. D. 5361.]

Art. 7858. [5336] Will wholly written by testator.—Where the will is wholly written by the testator the attestation of the subscribing witnesses, as required in the preceding article may be dispensed with. [Id.]

Art. 7859. [5337] Revocation of written will.—No will in writing, made in conformity with the preceding articles, nor any clause thereof or devise therein, shall be revoked, except by a subsequent will, codicil or declaration in writing, executed with like formalities, or by the testator destroying, canceling or obliterating the same, or causing it to be done in his presence. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 7860. [5338] Nuncupative will.—Any person who is competent to make a last will and testament, under article 7856 [7855] may dispose of his property by a nuncupative will made under the conditions and limitations hereinafter prescribed. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 7861. [5339] Requisites of.—No nuncupative will shall be established, unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, at his habitation or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick from home and dies before he returns to such habitation; nor when the value exceeds thirty dollars, unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 7862. [5340] Notice and proof.—No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor until those who would have been entitled by inheritance, had there been no will, have been summoned to contest the same, if they desire to do so. [P. D. 5371.]

Art. 7863. [5341] Testimony to be committed to writing, etc.—After six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove a nuncupative will, unless the testimony, or the substance thereof, shall have been committed to writing within six days after making the will. [P. D. 5367.]

Art. 7864. [5342] Wills of soldiers, etc., disposing of chattels.—Any soldier in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his chattels without regard to the provisions of this title. [P. D. 5369.]

Art. 7865. [5343] Posthumous children.—When a testator shall have children born and his wife enceinte, the posthumous child, if unprovided for by settlement and pretermitted by his last will and testament, shall succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as such child would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 7866. [5344] Children born after making a will.—If a testator having a child or children born at the time of making his last will and testament shall, at his death, leave a child or children born after the making of such last will and testament, the child or children so after-born and pretermitted shall, unless provided for by settlement, succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as they would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward raising which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament, in the same manner as is provided in article 7865. [P. D. 5364.]

Art. 7867. [5345] The same.—Every last will and testament made when the testator had no child living, wherein any child he might have is not provided for or mentioned, if at the time of his death he shall leave a child, or leave his wife enceinte of a child which shall be born, shall have no effect during the life of such after-born child, and shall be void, unless the child die without having been married and before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 7868. [5346] Term "children" includes descendants.—Under the name of "children," as used in this title, are included descendants of whatever degree they may be, it being understood they are only counted for the child they represent. [P. D. 5373.]

Art. 7869. [5347] Bequests to children, etc., not to lapse.—Where a testator shall devise or bequeath an estate or interest of any kind by will to a child or other descendant of such testator, should such devisee, or legatee, during the lifetime of the testator, die leaving children or descendants who shall survive such testator, such devise or legacy shall not lapse by reason of such death; but the estate so devised or bequeathed shall vest in the children or descendants of such legatee or devisee in the same manner as if he had survived the testator and died intestate. [P. D. 5365.]

Art. 7870. [5348] Bequest to subscribing witness.—Should any person be subscribing witness to a will, and be also a legatee or devisee therein, if the will can not be otherwise established, such bequest shall be void, and such witness shall be allowed and compelled to appear and give his testimony in like manner as if no such bequest had been made. But, if in such case the witness would have been entitled to a share of the estate of the testator had there been no will, he shall be entitled to so much of such share as shall not exceed the value of the bequest to him in the will. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 179.]

Art. 7871. [5349] Will in such case may be proved how.—In the case provided for in the preceding article, such will may be proved by the evidence of the subscribing witnesses, corroborated by the testimony of one or more other disinterested and credible persons, to the effect that the testimony of such subscribing witnesses necessary to sustain the will is substantially true; in which event the bequest to such subscribing witnesses shall not be void. [Id.]

Art. 7872. [5350] Husband or wife may authorize survivor to manage separate estate.—The husband or wife may, by last will and testament, give to the survivor of the marriage the power to keep his or her separate property together, until each of the several heirs shall become of lawful age, and to manage and control the same under the provisions of law relating to community property, and such other restrictions as may be imposed by such will; provided, the surviving husband or wife is the father or mother, as the case may be, of the minor heirs; and provided, further, that any child or heir entitled to any part of said property shall, at any time upon becoming of age, be entitled to receive his distributive portion of said estate. [Act Aug. 26, 1856, p. 51, sec. 8. P. D. 4653.]

Art. 7873. [5351] Original wills, etc., to be deposited with county clerk, etc.—All original wills, together with the probate thereof, shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county wherein the same shall have been probated, and shall there remain, except during such time as they may be removed to some other court, by proper process, for inspection. [P. D. 5372.]

Art. 7874. [5352] To be recorded, etc.—Every such will, together with the probate thereof, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county court in a book to be kept for that purpose; and certified copies of such will and the probate of the same, or of the record thereof, may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence as the original might be. [Id.]

Art. 7875. [5353] How foreign will may be proved.—When any will or testament, or testamentary instrument of any character, conveying or in any manner disposing of land in this state, has been duly probated according to the laws of any of the United States or territories, a copy thereof and its probate, attested by the clerk of the court in which such will and testament or testamentary instrument was admitted to probate, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate from the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, may be filed and recorded in the register of deeds in any county in which said real estate is situated, in the same manner as deeds and conveyances are required to be recorded, and without further proof or authentication; provided, that, at any time within four years from the date of the record of such will in this state, the validity of such will may be contested in a proceeding instituted for that purpose, as the original might have been. [Acts of 1887, p. 38, sec. 1.]

Art. 7876. [5354] Prima facie evidence, when.—A copy of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate so attested, together with the certificate that said attestation is in due form, as required by the preceding article, shall be prima facie evidence that said will has been duly admitted to probate, according to the laws of the state wherein it has been admitted to probate, and shall be sufficient to authorize the same to be recorded in the proper county or counties in this state. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7877. [5355] Shall take effect, when.—Every such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, which shall be attested and proven, as provided in article 7875, and delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded, shall take effect and be valid and effectual as a deed of conveyance of said property; and the record thereof shall have the same force and effect as the record of deeds or other conveyances to land from the time when such instrument was delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7878. [5356] Shall operate as notice, etc.—The record of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, duly attested and proven, as provided in the preceding articles, and duly made in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such will and testament, and of the title or titles conferred thereby. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 7879. [5357] Inspector of sheep to be appointed, when.—Whenever it appears from the assessor's rolls of any county that there are as many as five hundred sheep owned and assessed for taxes in any county in this state, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of said county, upon the application of one or more resident owners of sheep of said county, to appoint an inspector of sheep, who shall be a resident citizen of such county and well versed in the scab and diseases which usually affect sheep; and said inspector shall hold his office for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said inspector may appoint one or more deputies, who shall likewise be well versed in scab and other diseases of sheep, who shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, and may lawfully perform the same acts as the inspector of sheep; and the inspector may require of his deputies so appointed bonds payable to himself for the faithful performance of their duty as such deputies. [Acts of 1891, p. 140, sec. 1.]

Art. 7880. [5358] Bond.—Said inspector of sheep shall, within twenty days after receiving notice of his appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by the commissioners' court, not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon him as inspector of sheep. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners' court and be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county as other official bonds. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 7881. [5359] Duties.—It shall be the duty of the inspector of sheep, or his deputy, to carefully and minutely examine and inspect at any time sheep in his county, or which may be driven into or through his county, in which he has reason to believe, or is informed in writing by any one or more sheep owners of his county, or of any adjacent and contiguous county, is infected with scab or any other infectious or contagious disease; and, when one or more sheep affected with scab are found in any flock so inspected, the entire flock shall be condemned by said inspector or deputy and considered as affected with said disease. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 7882. [5360] Compensation.—The inspector shall be entitled to receive the sum of two cents per head, unless otherwise provided in this title, for all sheep inspected and condemned under the provisions of this title; provided, the inspector shall be entitled to receive only one cent per head of any number he may inspect for any one person in excess of two thousand head. In no one case shall his fee exceed fifty dollars; such fee to be paid by the owner or person in charge of the sheep so inspected and condemned; provided, that, when an inspector shall inspect any sheep and find no scab to exist in the flock of sheep so inspected, then the fees for such service shall be paid by the person at whose instance such inspection was made; and provided, further, that the inspector shall have a lien upon all sheep so inspected and condemned by him for his fees as provided in this article; provided, further, that, if any owner or person in charge of sheep affected with scab or other contagious disease shall report the same in writing to said inspector or his deputy, and that he proposes to take means forthwith to cure such disease, it shall not be lawful for the inspector to inspect such flock within twenty days after such report; provided, that if, after the expiration of the twenty days aforesaid, the said sheep have not been thoroughly cured, then the said sheep shall be subject to inspection as hereinbefore provided. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 7883. [5361] Duties as to diseased sheep.—It shall be the duty of the inspector of sheep, or his deputy, to arrest and take in charge any flock or flocks of sheep, the property of owners who do not reside in his county, or have no certain or fixed ranch therein, found traveling through his county, and found after inspection to be affected with scab, and to hold and dip said sheep at the cost of the owner or person in charge of such flock or flocks until the same shall be cured; and said inspector shall be entitled to recover from the owner or person in charge of such flock or flocks of sheep so held by him the sum of two dollars per day as compensation for holding such sheep, in excess of inspection fees provided for in article 7882, and said inspector shall have a lien upon all sheep so held by him until all fees and expenses for holding and dipping incurred by him are paid; provided, that said inspector shall not in any case hold said flock or flocks of sheep exceeding twenty days. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 7884. [5362] Same.—Whenever any flock of sheep in any county in this state has been inspected, as provided for in this chapter, and found to be affected with scab, it shall be the duty of the owner or person in charge of such flock to thoroughly cure the same within twenty days from said inspection. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 7885. [5363] May be paid fees by wool growers.—Whenever in any county in this state there shall not be sufficient scab or other contagious and infectious diseases among the sheep to pay the sheep inspector a fair remuneration, under the fees provided by this chapter, it shall be lawful for any association of wool growers in such county to pay such inspector such additional sums of money as to them may seem right and proper in order to keep such inspector in the performance of the duties of his office. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 7886. [5364] Exempted counties.—The counties of Grayson, Freestone, Gonzales, Morris, Titus, Cass, Marion, Bowie, Red River, Trinity, San Jacinto, Polk, Anderson, Van Zandt, Cameron, Collin, Colorado, Grimes, Houston, Webb, Hunt, Hopkins, Ellis, Dallas, Rockwall, Denton, Fannin, Henderson, Brazos, Smith, Panola, Gregg, Lamar, Wood, Rains, Limestone, Cooke, Brown, Comanche, Cherokee, Mills, Montgomery, Shelby, Lee, Burleson, Rusk, Lavaca, Milam, Upshur, Robertson, Camp, Parker, Franklin, Navarro, Karnes, Wilson, Atascosa, San Augustine, Sabine, Fayette, Austin, Leon, Madison, Hill, Bosque, Waller, Fort Bend, Washington, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Hays, Tarrant, Johnson, Clay, Montague, Erath, Hood, Somervell, Bastrop, Harris, Harrison, Camp, Orange, Jefferson, Hardin, Liberty, Chambers, Newton, Tyler, Jasper, Kaufman, Nacogdoches, DeWitt, Victoria, Jackson, Refugio and Goliad, are exempt from the provisions of this title. [Amended Act 1901, p. 271.]

Article 7887. [5365] Appointment of wreck-masters.—The governor shall appoint not less than one and not more than three persons of good character in each maritime county of the state as wreck-masters for such county. [Act April 30, 1846, p. 158, sec. 1. P. D. 5375.]

Art. 7888. [5366] Bond and oath.—Each person so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge of the county for which he is appointed, and to be approved by such officer, conditioned that the person so appointed shall faithfully discharge the duties of his office; which bond shall be deposited with the clerk of the county court of such county. The appointee shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution for all officers; which oath shall be indorsed on said bond before the same is filed. [Id.]

Art. 7889. [5367] His duties.—It shall be the duty of each wreck-master so appointed, as soon as he may be apprised of any wreck in his county, or the portion of such county allotted to him, to repair at once to the place where such wreck has occurred, and, if the property so wrecked be found abandoned, to attend to the salvaging thereof, to use his best endeavors for the preservation of the same, and to attend generally to the interests of the owners of such property or whom it may concern; and the wreck-master shall have the command and direction of all persons engaged in saving and preserving such property. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5376.]

Art. 7890. [5368] To be controlled by pilot commissioners.—Wreck-masters shall be subject to the control and direction of the commissioners of pilots for the principal ports of their counties, if such there be; but, in case there are no such officers in such county, then wreck-masters shall be under the control of the county judge of their county. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 5377.]

Art. 7891. [5369] To take possession of wrecked property and sell.—Each wreck-master shall take into his custody and safely keep all wrecked property salvaged by him, or under his direction, or found wrecked and abandoned in his county, or that portion of the county under his supervision and jurisdiction; and, after the notice required by law, he shall sell the same at public auction for the benefit of the owners or underwriters and the salvagers, to all of whom he shall faithfully account. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 5379.]

Art. 7892. [5370] To keep a record, etc.—Each wreck-master shall keep a true account of all property salvaged by him, or under his direction, with the circumstances under which it was salvaged, and the names of the person engaged in salvaging, the time that each was so employed and other circumstances needful for the proper apportionment of salvage. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 5378.]

Art. 7893. [5371] Additional record and reports.—He shall also keep a true account, in a book to be kept for that purpose, of all sales made by him and the proceeds thereof, commissions, expenses, salvage, balance left, and the condition and disposition of the same; and, within one month after each sale, and at other times when required, he shall make an abstract report in writing, signed by him, of the matters and things provided for in this and the preceding article, to the commissioner of pilots or the county judge, as the case may be, and he shall also, when required, report the same, together with all needful information in his possession, to the court or other tribunal before which cases of salvage may be pending. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 5378.]

Art. 7894. [5372] Fees and perquisites.—Wreck-masters shall receive a commission of five per cent upon the amount of all sales made by them, after deducting all expenses, not including salvage, with such reasonable expenses as may be allowed by the authority which may control them, or the court before which the case may come; which expenses may include the wages and mileage of a crier, at a rate to be fixed by such controlling authority. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 5379.]

Art. 7895. [5373] Special duty to prosecute.—It shall be the special duty of each wreck-master to prosecute before the proper tribunal any person who may be guilty of wasting, stealing or embezzling any property coming within the description of wrecked property. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 5380.]

OF COTTON SALVAGE.

Wrecked cotton to be advertised.....7896 And delivered to owner, when.....7897 If no owner appear, to be sold.....7898	Article. Article. And proceeds paid into state treasury...7899 If no wreck-master, county clerk to act.7900 Warrant to issue for suspected cotton..7901
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 7896. [5374] Wrecked cotton to be advertised.—It shall be the duty of the person taking up cotton afloat, abandoned in rivers, or in the waters of the gulf of Mexico on the coast of this state, or in the bays or bayous thereof, to place the same in a secure place out of the weather, and give early notice by advertisement, or by other means, at the port to which said cotton was destined, if within this state, and, if without the limits of the state, or its destination be unknown to the finder, then at the nearest port of entry in this state to the locality where it may be taken up, of the finding of the same, giving a description of the marks or brands on said cotton, together with the place of finding and the name of the finder. [Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76, sec. 1. P. D. 1030.]

Art. 7897. [5375] And delivered to owner, when.—It shall be the duty of the person finding, or other person having said cotton in his possession, to deliver the same to the owner, insurer or consignee thereof, on demand, upon being paid the expense of advertisement, and five dollars upon each bale so saved and delivered. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 1031.]

Art. 7898. [5376] If no owner appear, to be sold.—If no owner, insurer or consignee of the cotton appear within three months after such advertisement, the person finding shall cause the same to be sold at auction by a legal wreck-master of the county in which said cotton is deposited, at public outcry to the highest bidder; and the wreck-master shall, from the proceeds of such sale, pay the necessary expenses attending the storage, advertising and sale of said cotton, and to the finder the salvage of five dollars for each bale as aforesaid. The remainder, less his commissions and other necessary expenses, he shall hold in trust for the benefit of the owner or others concerned. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 1032.]

Art. 7899. [5377] And proceeds paid into state treasury.—If, at the expiration of one year thereafter, no legal claimant appears therefor, said proceeds shall be paid over by said wreck-master to the treasurer of the county in which the sale took place; and said county treasurer shall immediately pay the same over to the treasurer of the state, who shall pay the same over to the person entitled thereto, on proof being made of the right of the claimant, in the manner provided for the recovery of money paid into the treasury of the state by executors or administrators of estates where no heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate appear to claim the fund of the estate on the final settlement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7900. [5378] If no wreck-master, county clerk to act.—In case there shall be no wreck-master in the county in which the cotton is deposited, then it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court to perform all the duties required of wreck-masters by the two preceding articles, and such clerk shall be entitled to receive the same compensation for his services as is allowed to wreck-masters under this chapter. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 1033.]

Art. 7901. [5379] Warrant to issue for suspected cotton.—Upon affidavit being made before any justice of the peace that the affiant has good reason to believe, and does believe, that certain cotton within his county has been so found, or having been found without such county has been brought therein, and that reasonable time has elapsed, and that the finder has neglected to comply with the requirements of the foregoing articles, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to issue his warrant and cause said cotton, or its proceeds, to be seized by a legal officer and delivered to the wreck-master of said county, to be disposed of according to the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 1035.]

Section 2. Revised Civil Statutes, how known and cited.—Be it further enacted, that these Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas shall be known and may be cited as the “Revised Statutes.”

Sec. 3. To be liberally construed.—That the rule of the common law that statutes in derogation thereof shall be strictly construed shall have no application to the Revised Statutes; but the said statutes shall constitute the law of this state respecting the subjects to which they relate; and the provisions thereof shall be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects and to promote justice.

Sec. 4. Repealing clause.—That all civil statutes of a general nature, in force when the Revised Statutes take effect, and which are not included herein, or which are not hereby expressly continued in force, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. Repeal does not affect, what.—That the repeal of any statute, or any portion thereof, by the preceding section, shall not affect or impair any act done, or right vested or accrued, or any proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced in any cause before such repeal shall take effect; but every such act done, or right vested or accrued, or proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced shall remain in full force and effect to all intents or purposes as if such statute, or part thereof so repealed, had remained in force, except that where the course of practice or procedure for the enforcement of such right, or the conducting of such proceeding, suit or prosecution shall be changed, the same shall be conducted as near as may be in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 6. Same subject.—That no offense committed and no liability, penalty or forfeiture, either civil or criminal, incurred prior to the time when any statute, or part thereof, shall be repealed or altered by the Revised Statutes, shall be discharged or affected by such repeal or alteration; but prosecutions and suits for such offenses, liabilities, penalties or forfeitures shall be instituted and proceeded with in all respects as if such prior statute, or part thereof, had not been repealed or altered, except that where the mode of procedure or matters of practice have been changed by the Revised Statutes the procedure had after the Revised Statutes shall have taken effect in such prosecution or suit shall be, as far as practicable, in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 7. Validating and legalizing statutes not repealed.—That no general or special law heretofore enacted validating or legalizing the acts or omissions of any officer, or any law, act or proceeding whatever, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title; but all such validating or legalizing statutes whatsoever now in force in this state are hereby continued in force, and the same shall be as effectual for all purposes after as before the Revised Statutes go into effect.

Sec. 8. Laws relating to public debt, etc., not repealed.—That no law relating to the public debt or the public credit shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 9. Laws relating to university and school funds, etc., not repealed.—That no law relating to the university or public school fund, or in relation to the agricultural and mechanical college fund, or the investment of any such funds, or making any reservation in favor of the same, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, except where altered or amended by the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 10. Laws creating, etc., counties and county seats not repealed.—That no statute, or part of a statute, creating, adding to or organizing any county, or establishing any county seat, in this state shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, or by any law relating to the establishment of county boundaries contained in this act. [Acts of 1879, chap. 157.]

Sec. 11. Judicial districts, and times of holding district courts.—That the laws now in force organizing the several district and other courts, and prescribing the times for holding the district courts therein, are continued in force.

Sec. 12. No person, etc., released from any duty, etc.—That nothing in the repealing clause of this title shall be construed as releasing any person or corporation from any duty enjoined in the limitation or condition imposed by any law that may be repealed by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 13. Laws as to reservations for actual settlers and public buildings not repealed.—That no law in reference to land reservations, or setting apart portions of such reservations for the benefit of actual settlers, or for the construction or repairing of the public buildings of the state, nor any law establishing or providing for the maintenance of any public institution, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, unless expressly altered or repealed in some of the preceding articles of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 14. Laws for the payment of unpaid school teachers, etc., and as to public libraries, not repealed.—That no law providing for the payment of unpaid school teachers in the public schools, or giving authority to cities or towns to establish public libraries, or for like purposes, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause herein.

Sec. 15. Certain local laws not repealed.—That all laws, civil or criminal, of a local nature operating in particular counties, cities or towns, or of a temporary nature operative when these Statutes go into effect, and all laws of a private nature operating on particular persons or corporations, are not affected by the said repealing clause.

Sec. 16. Shall be construed as continuation of former law, etc.—That the provisions of the Revised Statutes, so far as they are substantially the same as the statutes of this state in force at the time when the Revised Statutes shall go into effect, or of the common law in force in this state at said time, shall be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments of the same.

Sec. 17. Laws of the thirty-second legislature not affected.—That no laws, general or special, enacted by the thirty-second legislature, shall be in any way affected by the repealing clause of this title; but any and all such laws shall continue to be the law of this state, this act of revision to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 18. Revised Statutes not to be printed in pamphlet laws.—That the Revised Statutes shall not be printed in the pamphlet laws of the first session of the thirty-second legislature, but shall be printed, published and distributed at such time and in such manner as may be provided by law.

Sec. 19. When to take effect.—That these Revised Statutes shall take effect and be in force at twelve o'clock, meridian, on the first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

Sec. 20. It is provided, however, that the annotations printed under the several articles of these Revised Civil Statutes shall not be construed to be any part of said Statutes, but shall be so printed merely for convenience as references.

Sec. 21. Nothing in this act shall be construed or held to repeal or in anywise affect the validity of any law or act passed by this legislature in its regular session.

Sec. 22. Emergency clause.—The importance and great length of this act, the length of time required for its publication, and the near approach of the end of the present session of the legislature, create an imperative public necessity requiring that the constitutional rule which requires that bills be read on three several days in each house should be and the same is hereby suspended.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

I, C. C. McDonald, Secretary of State of the State of Texas, do hereby certify that the foregoing act entitled: "An Act to adopt and establish the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas and declaring an emergency" and known as Senate Bill No. 288 of the Regular Session of the Thirty-second Legislature, was submitted to the Governor for his approval on March the 11th, A. D. 1911, and was approved by him on April the 1st, A. D. 1911, and was received and filed in the Department of State on April the 1st, A. D. 1911, and by the terms of said act became effective on September the 1st, A. D. 1911, at 12 o'clock meridian.

I further certify that I have carefully compared the foregoing act with the original copy now on file in this department and the same is true and correct.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused to be impressed hereon [SEAL] the Seal of State at my office in the City of Austin, Texas, this 9th day of May, A. D.
1912.

C. C. McDONALD,
Secretary of State.
