State of Texas

A BILL to be entitled "An Act to Adopt and Establish the 'REVISED CIVIL STATUTES of the State of Texas, and declaring an emergency."

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, That the following titles, chapters and articles shall hereafter constitute

The Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas

TITLE 1.

ADOPTION.

[See "Descent and Distribution," Article 2463.]

	Article.		Article.
How heir adopted.....	1	Right of adopted child to support, etc....	5
Rights of adopted heir.....	2	Adopter may not transfer authority, etc..	6
Parents may transfer authority, etc., how.....	3	Authority of court.....	7
Parents thereafter barred, etc.....	4	No white child to be adopted by negro, and vice versa.....	8

Article 1. [1] How heir adopted.—Any person wishing to adopt another as his legal heir may do so by filing in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which he may reside a statement in writing, by him signed and duly authenticated or acknowledged, as deeds are required to be, which statement shall recite, in substance, that he adopts the person named therein as his legal heir, and the same shall be admitted to record in said office. [Act Jan. 16, 1850, pp. 36, 81; P. D. 30.]

Art. 2. [2] Rights of adopted heir.—Such statement in writing, signed and authenticated or acknowledged, and recorded as aforesaid, shall entitle the party so adopted to all the rights and privileges, both in law and equity, of a legal heir of the party so adopting him; provided, however, that if the party adopting such heir have, at the time of such adoption, or shall thereafter have, a child begotten in lawful wedlock, such adopted heir shall in no case inherit more than one-fourth of the estate of the party adopting him. [P. D. 31.]

Art. 3. Parents may transfer authority, etc., how.—The parent or parents of any child, who is to be adopted as provided in Articles 1 and 2 of this title, may, by an instrument in writing, duly signed and authenticated or acknowledged as deeds are required to be, transfer their parental authority and custody over said child so adopted to the party so adopting such child. [Acts 1907, p. 103.]

Art. 4. Parents thereafter barred, etc.—After the execution of such an instrument of writing, duly acknowledged or authenticated as aforesaid, the parents shall thereafter be barred from exercising any authority, control or custody over such child as against the party so adopting him. [Id.]

Art. 5. Right of adopted child to support, etc.—The child or children so adopted shall have the same rights as against the person or persons adopting said child or children for support and maintenance, and for proper and humane treatment, as a child has, by law, against lawful parents. [Id.]

Art. 6. Adopter may not transfer authority, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person adopting any child under this title to transfer his authority and custody to any other person. [Id.]

Art. 7. Authority of court.—Nothing in this article shall prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from taking away from such adoptive parent the custody of the adopted child and awarding the same to its natural parents, or either of them, or to any other person, upon proof of the bad moral character of such adoptive parent, or upon proof of abuse, neglect, or ill treatment of such adopted child by the adoptive parent. [Id.]

Art. 8. No white child to be adopted by negro, and vice versa.—No white child can be adopted by a negro person, nor can a negro child be adopted by a white person. [Id.]

TITLE 2.

AFFIDAVITS, OATHS AND AFFIRMATIONS.

	Article.		Article.
Form of oath, etc.....	9	All affidavits must be in writing and	12
Oaths, etc., generally, who to administer.	10	signed	13
Affidavit may be by agent or attorney....	11	Officers authorized to take affidavits....	13
		Other oaths, etc.....	14

Art. 9. [3] [3] Form of oath, etc.—All oaths and affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience of the individual taking the same, and shall be taken subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. [Const. Bill of Rights, Art. 1.]

Art. 10. [4] [4] Oaths, etc., generally by whom administered.—All oaths, affidavits or affirmations necessary or required by law may be administered, and a certificate of the fact given, by any judge or clerk of a court of record, justice of the peace, or by any notary public, within this state. [Act Feb. 5, 1887, p. 5.]

Art. 11. [5] [5] Affidavit may be made by agent or attorney.—Whenever, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit or judicial proceeding, it may be necessary or proper for any party thereto to make an affidavit, such affidavit may be made by either the party or his agent or attorney. [Act Jan. 11, 1856, p. 13; P. D. 35.]

Art. 12. [6] [6] All affidavits must be in writing, and signed.—All affidavits provided for in this title shall be in writing and signed by the party making the same.

Art. 13. [7] [7] Officers authorized to take affidavits.—Affidavits may be made before either of the following officers, who are authorized to take such affidavits and give a certificate thereof:

1. If taken within this state, before the officers named in article 10 of this title.

2. If taken without this state, and within the United States, before any clerk of a court of record having a seal, any notary public, or any commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of this state, within some other state or territory.

3. If without the United States, before any notary public, or any minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States, resident in and accredited to the country where the affidavit may be taken; or any consul general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States, resident in such country.

Art. 14. [8] [8] Other oaths, etc.—Oaths and affirmations may also be administered, and affidavits taken, and certificates thereof given in such other cases, and by such other officers, as are or may be prescribed by law.

TITLE 3.

ALIENS.

[For the mode of taking property by devise or descent, see title "Descent and Distribution." For qualification of electors, see "Elections."]

	Article.		Article.
Alien ownership of land inhibited.....	15	May convey before escheat proceedings, good faith, etc.....	19
Under certain circumstances and conditions permitted.....	16	Proceedings to escheat, by whom instituted and when; notice required.....	20
Interest in liens and acquisitions of land under foreclosures and to collect debts permitted.....	17	Judgment and proceedings after judgment of escheat.....	21
May hold for ten years, provided, etc..	18

Article 15. [9] Alien ownership of lands inhibited.—No alien or person who is not a citizen of the United States shall acquire title to or own any lands in the State of Texas, except as hereinafter provided; but he shall have and enjoy in the state of Texas such rights as to personal property as are or shall be accorded to citizens of the United States by the laws of the nation to which such alien shall belong, or by the treaties of such nation with the United States, except as the same may be affected by the provisions of this title and the general laws of the state. [Acts of 1892, S. S. p. 6, and Acts 1854. p. 98.]

Art. 16. [10] Under certain circumstances and conditions permitted.—This title shall not apply to land now owned in this state by aliens so long as it is held by the present owners, nor to any alien who is or shall become a bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas; and any alien who is or shall become a bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas shall have the right to acquire and hold lands in this state upon the same terms as citizens of the state of Texas during the continuance of the bona fide residence of such alien in this state; provided, that if any such resident alien shall cease to be a bona fide inhabitant of this state, then such alien shall have ten years from the time he ceases to be such bona fide inhabitant in which to alienate such lands. The provisions of this title shall not be construed to prevent any persons not citizens of the United States from acquiring or holding lots or parcels of lands in any incorporated or platted city, town, or village in this state; provided, further, that any alien who shall become an actual resident of this state, and shall in conformity with the naturalization laws of the United States have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, shall have the right to acquire and hold real estate in this state in the same manner as if he was a citizen of the United States. [Acts 1892, p. 6.]

Art. 17. [11] Interest in liens and acquisitions of land under foreclosures, and to collect debts, permitted.—The provisions of this title shall not prevent aliens from acquiring lands, or any interest therein, in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts; nor from acquiring liens upon real estate, or any interest therein; nor from lending money and securing the same upon real estate, or any interest therein; nor from enforcing any such lien; nor from acquiring and holding title to such real estate, or any interest therein, upon which a lien may have heretofore or may hereafter be fixed, or upon which a loan of money may have been heretofore or hereafter may be made and secured. [Id.]

Art. 18. [12] May hold for ten years, provided, etc.—All non-resident aliens who may hereafter acquire real estate in Texas by devise, descent, or by purchase under the provisions of this title may hold the same for ten years; provided, that if any such non-resident alien is a minor he may hold such real estate for ten years from the time of reaching his or her majority, or if of unsound mind for ten years after the appointment of a legal guardian. [Id.]

Art. 19. [13] May Convey before escheat proceedings, good faith required.—Any alien who shall hereafter hold lands in Texas, in contravention of the provisions of this title, may, nevertheless, convey the fee simple title thereof at any time before the institution of escheat proceedings as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that if any such conveyance shall be made by such alien either to an alien or to a citizen of the United States, in trust, and for the purpose and with the intention of evading the provisions of this title; such conveyance shall be null and void; and any such land so conveyed shall be forfeited and escheated to the state absolutely. [Id.]

Art. 20. [14] Proceedings to escheat; by whom instituted and when; notice required.—It shall be the duty of the attorney general, or the district or county attorney, when he shall be informed, or have reason to believe, that lands in the state are being held contrary to the provisions of this title, to institute suit in behalf of the state of Texas in the district court of the county where such lands are situated, praying for the escheat of the same on behalf of the state, as in cases of estates of persons dying without the devise thereof and having no heirs; provided, before any such suit is instituted, the attorney general, district or county attorney, as the case may be, shall give ninety days notice by registered letter of his intention to sue, directed to the owner of said land, or the person who last rendered same for taxes, or his agents, and to all of the persons having an interest in such land, of which the plaintiff has actual or constructive notice. [Id.]

Art. 21. [15] Judgment and proceedings after judgment of escheat.—If it shall be determined upon the trial of any such escheat proceedings that lands are held contrary to the provisions of this title, the court trying said cause shall render judgment condemning such lands, and shall order the same to be sold under execution; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the cost of such suit, shall be paid to the clerk of such court so rendering judgment; and said funds shall remain in the hands of such clerk for one year from the date of such payment, subject to the order of the alien owner of such lands or his heirs or legal representatives, and if not claimed within the period of one year, such clerk shall pay the same into the treasury of the state for the benefit of the available school fund of the state of Texas; provided, that when any money shall have been paid to the treasurer, as hereinbefore provided, an alien, his heirs or assigns, may recover the same from the state in the same manner prescribed in articles 3583, 3584, 3585, 3586, 3587 and 3591 of chapter 28, title 52, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas, relating to the recovery of funds of estates of decedents by the heirs, etc., where the same has been paid into the treasury by the administrator or executor; provided, that the defendant at any time before final judgment may suggest that he has conformed with the law, which being admitted or proved, said suit shall be dismissed on payment of costs and reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. [Id.]

TITLE 4.

AMUSEMENTS—PUBLIC.

	Article.		Article.
Defining places of public amusement....	22	Leases	22

Article 22. Defining places of public amusement.—All buildings constructed, fitted and equipped for the purpose of theaters, commonly called theaters, opera houses, playhouses, or by whatever name designated, which are and shall hereafter be used for public performances, the production and exhibition of plays, dramas, operas and other shows of whatever nature, to which admission fees are charged, are hereby declared to be public houses of amusement, and the same shall be subject to regulation by the public will as expressed by ordinance, statute, or other law; provided, that owners and lessees shall have the right to assign seats to patrons thereof, and to refuse admission to objectionable characters. [Acts 1907, p. 21, sec. 1.]

Art. 23. Leases.—All leases and renewals of leases taken and made for a term upon such houses of public amusement, as defined in the preceding article, shall contain a provision therein to the effect that the lessee or his assigns, shall, in good faith, comply with the provisions of the law governing such places of public amusement; and upon the failure or refusal of any such lessee, or his assigns, to comply with the law governing such places of public amusement, or upon conviction of the violation of any of the provisions of the Penal Code relating to discrimination in the booking of plays, opera shows, or other productions, by whatever name known, which are and shall hereafter be used for public performances, shall forfeit his lease and all rights and privileges thereunder. [Id. sec. 4.]

In the county of Marion, on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in February and the fourth Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Bowie, on the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in February and the fourth Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of; provided, adjournment shall be had prior to the first Monday in February and the fourth Monday in August of each year. [Acts 1907, p. 198.]

6. The sixth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Fannin, Lamar and Red River, and the district court shall be begun and held in said counties as follows: [Acts 1903, p. 89.] In the county of Fannin, on the first Monday in February of each year, and may continue in session nine weeks; also on the third Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session seven weeks. [Acts 1909, p. 55.] In the county of Lamar, on the ninth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session seven weeks. In the county of Red River, on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session six weeks. [Acts 1903, p. 89.] The clerk of the district court of Lamar county as heretofore constituted, and his successors in office, shall be the clerk of both the sixth and sixty-second judicial district courts in said Lamar county, and shall perform all the duties pertaining to the clerkship of both of said courts. The district court of the sixth judicial district, and the district court of the sixty-second judicial district, in the county of Lamar, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other throughout the limits of Lamar county, of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the constitution and laws of the state of Texas. [Acts 1905, p. 75.]

7. The seventh judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Upshur, Smith, Van Zandt, Wood and Camp, and the district courts therein shall be held as follows: In the county of Smith, on the first Mondays in February and September in each year, and may continue in session six weeks. In the county of Van Zandt, on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in February and September of each year, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Wood, on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in February and September of each year, and may continue in session for four weeks. In the county of Camp, on the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in February, and may continue in session three weeks, and on the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in September of each year, and may continue in session for two weeks. In the county of Upshur, on the first Monday in January and on the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in February of each year, and may continue in session for four weeks. In the county of Smith, on the twenty-first Monday after the first Monday in February of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of; provided, the term is not to extend beyond August 31. [Acts 1909, p. 120.]

8. The eighth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Hunt, Hopkins, Delta and Rains, and the district court shall be held therein as follows: In the county of Delta, on the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session three weeks, and on the first Monday in June of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. In the county of Hopkins, on the fourth Mondays in January and August of each year, and may continue in session six weeks. In the county of Hunt, on the sixth Monday after the fourth Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session nine weeks, and on the sixth Monday after the fourth Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks. In the county of Rains, on the fifteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session two weeks, and on the fourteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1897, p. 111.]

The district court of the eighth judicial district, and the district court of the sixty-second judicial district, in the county of Hunt, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other in said county, throughout the limits of the county of Hunt, of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the constitution and laws of the state of Texas; and the district court of the eighth judicial district, and the district court of the sixty-second judicial district, in the county of Delta, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other in said county, throughout the limits of the county of Delta, of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the constitution and laws of the state of Texas; provided, that the judge of the sixty-second judicial district shall never impanel the grand jury in said court in the counties of Lamar, Hunt and Delta, unless in his judgment he thinks it necessary. Either of the judges of the district court of the county of Hunt may, in their discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, that may at any time be pending in his court, to the other district court in said county of Hunt, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court making such transfer; and, where such transfer or transfers are made, the clerk of said court shall enter such case or cases upon the dockets of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally filed in said court. Either of the judges of the district courts of the county of Delta may, in their discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any case or cases of a civil or criminal nature, that may, at any time, be pending in his court, to the other district court in said Delta county, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court, making such transfer; and, when such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said case or cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally filed in said court. The clerks of the district courts of Delta and Hunt counties, respectively, as heretofore constituted, and their successors in office, shall be the clerks of both the eighth and sixty-second district courts in said counties, respectively, and shall perform all the duties pertaining to the clerkship of both of said counties. [Acts 1905, p. 75.]

9. The ninth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Montgomery, Liberty, Chambers, Hardin, San Jacinto and Polk, and the district courts therein shall be held as follows: In the county of Montgomery, on the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Liberty, on the fourth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session five weeks. In the county of Chambers, on the ninth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Hardin, on the eleventh Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session five weeks. In the county of San Jacinto, on the sixteenth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Polk, on the twentieth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1909, p. 128.]

10. Galveston county shall constitute the tenth judicial district, as well as the fifty-sixth judicial district. The district courts of Galveston county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction, such criminal jurisdiction having been by law exclusively vested in a criminal district court. Said district courts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of Galveston county, in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the constitution and laws of the state. The terms of the district courts of the tenth judicial district shall be held therein as follows: On the first Mondays in February, April, June, October and December, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. The judges of said tenth and fifty-sixth judicial districts shall be elected at the time and in the manner provided by law, by the qualified voters of Galveston county. In all suits, actions or proceedings, it shall be sufficient in every instance for the address or designation to be merely the "District Court of Galveston County;" and the clerk of said courts shall file and docket the even numbers thereof in the court of the tenth judicial district, and the odd numbers thereof in the court of fifty-sixth judicial district; but any case pending in either of said courts may, in the discretion of the judge thereof, be transferred from one of said district courts to the other, and so from time to time; and in case of the disqualification of the judge of either of said courts in any case, such case, on his suggestion of disqualification, shall stand transferred to the other of said courts, and be docketed by the clerk accordingly. The clerk of the court of the tenth judicial district shall perform the duties of clerk of the court of the fifty-sixth judicial district; in case of vacancy in said office of said clerk, the same shall be filled by appointment by the judge of the tenth judicial district. [Acts 1909, p. 116.]

[For provisions as to criminal district courts of Galveston and Harris counties, see Chapters 1 to 4 of Title 39.]

11. Harris county shall constitute the eleventh judicial district, as well as the fifty-fifth and the sixty-first judicial districts. The said district courts of Harris county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction, such criminal jurisdiction having been by law vested exclusively in a criminal district court. Said district courts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of Harris county, in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the constitution and laws of the state. The terms of the district court of said eleventh judicial district shall be begun and holden in said Harris county on the first Monday in February, April, June, October and December of each and every year, and may continue in session until the business of the court is disposed of. The judges of each and all of said courts shall be elected at the times and in the manner provided by law, by the qualified voters of Harris county; and the judges of the eleventh and fifty-fifth judicial districts shall continue as judges thereof, holding their offices as provided by law. In all suits, action or proceedings, it shall be sufficient in every instance for the address or designation to be merely "the District Court of Harris County;" and the clerk of said court shall docket alternately on the dockets of the eleventh judicial district, of the fifty-fifth judicial district, and the sixty-first judicial district, all cases filed, and all cases shall in this manner be docketed in and divided between said courts; but any cases pending in said courts may, in the discretion of the respective judges thereof, be transferred from one of said courts to the other, and so from time to time; in case of the disqualification of the judge of either of said courts in any case, such case, on his suggestion of disqualification, shall stand transferred to one or the other of said courts, and be docketed by the clerk accordingly. The clerk of the district court of Harris county shall perform the duties of the clerk of the district court of the sixty-first judicial district in like manner as he fills the duties of the clerk of the eleventh and fifty-fifth judicial districts; and, in case of vacancy in said office, the same shall be filled by such appointee as may be selected by all or a majority of the judges of the three courts herein named. [Acts 1903, p. 22.]

12. The twelfth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Trinity, Leon, Walker, Madison and Grimes, as now constituted, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: In the county of Trinity, on the last Monday in January and July, and may continue in session four weeks, instead of three, as now provided by law. In the county of Leon, on the fourth Monday after the last Monday in January and July, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Walker, on the eighth Monday after the last Monday in January and July, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Madison, on the thirteenth Monday after the last Monday in January and July, and may continue in session three weeks. In the county of Grimes, on the seventeenth Monday after the last Monday in January and July, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1905, p. 55.]

13. The thirteenth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Limestone, Freestone and Navarro, and the district courts shall be begun and holden therein as follows: In the county of Limestone, on the first Monday in January and on the third Monday in June, and each term may continue in session six weeks. In the county of Freestone, on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in January, and on the first Monday in September, and each term may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Navarro, on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in January, and on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in September, and each term may continue in session twelve weeks. [Acts 1899, p. 38.]

14. Dallas county shall constitute the fourteenth judicial district, as well as the forty-fourth judicial district and the sixty-eighth judicial district. [Acts 1907, p. 131.] The said district courts of Dallas county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction, such criminal jurisdiction having been by law exclusively vested in a criminal district court. Said courts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of Dallas county, in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the constitution and laws of the state. The district courts of the fourteenth judicial district shall be held therein on the second Mondays in March, May, September and December, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. The judges of the fourteenth, forty-fourth and sixty-eighth judicial districts shall be elected as provided by the constitution and laws of the state for the election of district judges. The clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore existing, shall be and remain the clerk for each of said district courts, as well as the criminal district court of said county, and shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified; provided, however, in case of vacancy by death, resignation or removal, his successor shall be appointed by a majority of the judges of said three district courts, and the judge of the criminal district court, acting together; and, in case they fail to make an appointment within twenty days after such vacancy is created, then such appointment shall be made by the commissioners' court of Dallas county. The clerk shall place upon the docket and the court papers, opposite the number of each case on the docket of the district court for the fourteenth judicial district the letter A; and shall place upon the docket and the court papers, opposite the number of each case on the docket of the forty-fourth judicial district court, the letter B; and shall place upon the docket and the court papers, opposite the number of each case on the docket of the sixty-eighth district court, the letter C. And this requirement shall be observed as to all cases filed in either of said courts, so that the letter A opposite the file number shall indicate that the case pends in the fourteenth judicial district court, the letter B opposite the file number shall indicate that the case pends in the forty-fourth judicial district court, and the letter C opposite the file number shall indicate that the case pends in the sixty-eighth judicial district court. All cases, prosecutions and proceedings filed with said clerk shall by him be entered upon the dockets of said courts alternately, beginning with the fourteenth district court, next the forty-fourth district court, and third the sixty-eighth district court, and so continuing in this order, that the business may be equally distributed among said courts, and numbering said cases consecutively, beginning with the last file number on said dockets. Either of said judges may, at his discretion, transfer any case or cases pending in his court to either of the other courts herein provided for, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer is made the clerk shall enter such case or cases upon the docket of the court to which the transfer is made. And in such case, unless the parties are present in court and take notice of such transfer, reasonable notice of such order or orders shall be given to the parties or their attorneys of record; provided, that, in cases wherein ancillary writs be granted by either of the judges, the transfer may be made to the court of the judge granting such writ, without such notice. [Acts 1909, p. 5.]

[Note.—For provisions as to Dallas criminal district court, see Chapter 5, Title 39.]

15. The fifteenth judicial district of the state of Texas shall be composed of the county of Grayson, and the district court shall be held therein as follows: Beginning on the first Monday in October, and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the first Monday in January. Beginning on the first Monday in January, and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the first Monday in April. Beginning on the first Monday in April, and continuing until the first Monday in October, or until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1903, p. 2.] The district court of the fifteenth judicial district, and the district court of the fifty-ninth judicial district, in the county of Grayson, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other throughout the limits of Grayson county, of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the constitution and laws of the state; provided, that the judge of the fifteenth judicial district shall never impanel the grand jury in Grayson county, except that, when, in the discretion of said court, it is deemed by him proper so to do, he may draw and impanel such grand jury for any terms of his court as provided by law for other district courts for impaneling grand juries. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 393.] Either of the judges of the district court of Grayson county may, in their discretion, either in term time or in vacation, transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, that may, at any time, be pending in his court to the other district court in Grayson county, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court making such transfer; and, where such transfer or transfers are made, the clerk of said court shall enter such case or cases upon the dockets of the courts to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally in said court. [Acts 1903, p. 3] The clerk of the district court of Grayson county, as heretofore constituted, and his successor in office, shall be the clerk of both the fifteenth and fifty-ninth district courts in said Grayson county, and shall perform all the duties pertaining to the clerkship of both of said courts.

16. The sixteenth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Denton, Montague and Cooke, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: In the county of Montague, on the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session six weeks. In the county of Denton, on the sixth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session eight weeks. In the county of Cooke, on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in January and second Monday in July, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of.

17. Tarrant county shall constitute the seventeenth, forty-eighth and sixty-seventh judicial districts. [Acts 1907, p. 338.] The district courts of the seventeenth, forty-eighth and sixty-seventh judicial districts shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of Tarrant county of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district court by the constitution and laws of the state; and grand and petit juries for said courts, respectively, shall be selected and drawn from the body of the county.

The judges for the seventeenth, forty-eighth and sixty-seventh judicial districts shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county. [Acts 1907, p. 339.] The district court of the seventeenth judicial district shall be held on the first Mondays in January, April, July and October of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1907, S. S., p. 442.] The judges of said courts may, in their discretion, transfer any suit or case, civil or criminal, from one of said courts to any other of said courts. [Acts 1907, p. 339.] The clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall make up a civil docket and a criminal docket for each of said courts. All cases, prosecutions and proceedings filed with the clerk shall by him be entered upon the dockets of said courts, alternately, so that the business may be equally distributed between said courts; provided, that the reference above to a civil docket in the singular number shall be taken to embrace the various civil dockets required by law to be used and kept by the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county, so as to make it incumbent upon said clerk, in dividing the civil business between said courts, as herein before required, to open for each court the number and kind of dockets heretofore kept by him and to enter upon each the cases belonging to the same; provided, that all garnishment cases shall follow the cases in which they are sued out, and that such garnishment cases shall not be estimated by the clerk in dividing business. In all injunctions granted by either of said judges, the suits wherein granted shall be docketed in the court of the judge who granted such injunctions; and in all cases wherein receivers may be appointed by either of said judges, the suit wherein such receivers shall be appointed shall be docketed in the court of the judge who appointed such receivers. In causes filed in said county cognizable by the district court, it shall be sufficient for the petition to state the court in which suit is filed as "The district court of Tarrant county," and it shall be sufficient to address the petition to "The district court of Tarrant county." [Acts of 1891, p. 2.] In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or removal of the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county, his successor shall be appointed by the said three district judges of said three districts. [Acts 1907, p. 339.]

18. The counties of Johnson and Bosque be and the same are hereby constituted the eighteenth judicial district. The district courts in the counties comprising the said eighteenth judicial district shall be holden as follows: In the county of Johnson, on the first Monday in January, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the third Monday in March; on the first Monday in May, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the first Monday in July; on the first Monday in October, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the first Monday in December. In the county of Bosque, on the third Monday in March, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the first Monday in May; on the first Monday in September, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the first Monday in October; on the first Monday in December, and may continue in session until and including Saturday before the first Monday in January. [Acts 1905, p. 37.]

19. The nineteenth judicial district shall be composed of the county of McLennan, and the district court shall be held therein as follows: On the first Monday in January, April, July and October in each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of; provided, the October term shall not continue longer than the last Saturday before the twenty-fifth day of December. [Acts 1893, p. 52.]

20. The twentieth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Milam, Robertson and Brazos, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: In the county of Robertson, on the first Monday in January and second Monday in June, and may continue in session eight weeks. In the county of Lamar, beginning on the first Monday in August, and may continue in session eight weeks, and on the first Monday in December, and may continue in session until Saturday night next before the fourth Monday in January. [Acts 1905, p. 75.]

[For special provisions relating to this district, and to the sixth and eighth districts, see subdivisions 6 and 8 of this article.]

63. The sixty-third judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Pecos, Terrell, Val Verde, Kinney and Maverick, as now constituted, and the district courts shall be held therein as follows: In Jeff Davis county, on the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In Presidio county, on the second Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session three weeks. In Brewster county, on the fifth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session three weeks. In Pecos county, on the eighth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In Terrell county, on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In Kinney county, on the twelfth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In Maverick county, on the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session three weeks. In Val Verde county, on the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in January and August, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1909, p. 110. Acts 1905, S. S., p. 426. Acts 1903, p. 77.]

64. The sixty-fourth judicial district of the state of Texas shall be composed of the counties of Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum, and the unorganized counties of Bailey, Cochran and Hockley. The terms of the district court shall be held in the counties of said district in each year as follows, to-wit: In the county of Floyd, on the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Briscoe, on the second Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Swisher, on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session three weeks. In the county of Castro, on the seventh Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Lamb, on the ninth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Yoakum, on the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Terry, on the twelfth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Lynn, on the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Lubbock, on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Hale, on the eighteenth Monday after the first Monday in February and August, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1909, p. 13.] The unorganized county of Bailey shall be attached to the county of Castro for judicial purposes, and the unorganized counties of Cochran and Hockley shall be attached to the county of Lubbock for judicial purposes. [Acts 1905, p. 11.]

66. The county of Hill shall be and the same is hereby constituted the sixty-sixth judicial district. The district court in the said sixty-sixth judicial district shall be holden as follows: On the first Mondays in January, March, May, July, September and November of each year; and each term of said court shall continue in session until the Saturday before the beginning of the next succeeding term, or until all the business is disposed of. [Acts 1905, p. 37.]

67. Tarrant county shall constitute the sixty-seventh judicial district, as well as the seventeenth judicial district and the forty-eighth judicial district; and the jurisdiction of the district courts of said judicial districts shall be concurrent and co-extensive with the limits of said county. [Acts 1907, p. 338.] The district court of the sixty-seventh judicial district shall be held on the first Mondays in March, June, September and December of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1907, S. S., p. 442.]

[For special provisions relating to the seventeenth, forty-eighth and sixty-seventh judicial districts, see subdivision 17 of this article.]

68. Dallas county shall constitute the sixty-eighth judicial district, as well as the fourteenth judicial district and the forty-fourth judicial district; and the jurisdiction of the district courts in and for said judicial districts shall be concurrent and co-extensive with the limits of said county, but shall extend to civil cases only. The terms of district court of the sixty-eighth judicial district shall be held as follows: Beginning on the first Mondays in February, May, September and December of each year, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1909, p. 4.]

[For special provisions relating to the fourteenth, forty-fourth and sixty-eighth, see subdivision 14 of this article.]

69. The sixty-ninth judicial district shall be composed of the counties of Dallam, Sherman, Moore, Oldham, Hartley, Parmer and Deaf Smith; and the terms of the district courts shall be held therein each year, as follows: In the county of Sherman, on the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Moore, on the second Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Oldham, on the fourth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Hartley, on the sixth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Dallam, on the eighth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session six weeks. In the county of Parmer on the fourteenth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Deaf Smith, on the sixteenth Monday after the second Monday in January and July, and may continue in session until the business is disposed of. [Acts 1909, pp. 16, 69.]

70. The seventieth judicial district of Texas shall be composed of the following counties: Midland, Ector, Gaines, Glasscock, Reeves, Ward, Andrews, Winkler, Upton, and the unorganized counties of Crane and Loving, and the terms of the district court shall be holden in the organized counties thereof each year as follows: In the county of Midland, on the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Ector, on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session two weeks. In the county of Winkler, on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Gaines, on the seventh Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Andrews, on the eighth Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Glassecock, on the ninth Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Upton, on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session one week. In the county of Reeves, on the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in February and September, and may continue in session four weeks. In the county of Ward, in the year 1910, on the fifteenth Monday after the first Monday in September, and may continue in session two weeks, and thereafter in the county of Ward on the first Monday in January and on the fifteenth Monday after the first Monday in February, and may continue in session four weeks. [Acts 1910, 3 S. S., p. 18.] The unorganized county of Crane is hereby attached to Ector county for judicial and all other purposes, and the unorganized county of Loving is hereby attached to Reeves county for judicial and all other purposes. [Acts 1909, p. 11.]

Art. 31. Where apportionment law amended.—Rule as to return of writs and process, as to grand and petit jurors, appearance bonds and recognizances, and witnesses.—Wherever the law declaring what counties shall compose a judicial district, or the law prescribing the time or places for holding the terms of the district court of any judicial district, shall have been or may hereafter be amended, in every such case, all process and writs theretofore issued from any such district court and made returnable to a term of such court as fixed by law at the time of such issuance, shall be returnable to the next ensuing term of such court as prescribed by such amended law; and all such writs and process shall be as legal and valid as if the same had been made returnable to the term of such court as fixed by such amendment. Also all grand and petit jurors selected and drawn under theretofore existing laws in any county of any such judicial district shall be considered lawfully drawn and selected for the next term of the district court of such county as fixed by the amended law; and the obligees in all appearance bonds and recognizances taken in and for any such district court, as well as all witnesses summoned to appear before such district court under pre-existing law, shall be required to appear at the next term of such court as fixed by the amended law.

[Note.—This article is a consolidation of the provisions on the subject, found in practically all of the Acts reorganizing judicial districts.]

Article 32. [23] [18] When minor may be apprenticed.—The county court may bind a minor as an apprentice—

1. When such minor is an orphan and without sufficient estate for his maintenance and education.

2. When the parents of such minor have suffered him to become a charge upon the county.

3. When the parents of such minor, not being a charge on the county, shall consent in writing to such apprenticeship, which consent shall be signed by them, and filed and entered of record in such court. [Const., art. 5, sec. 16.]

Art. 33. [24] [19] Minor shall not be apprenticed to what persons.—A minor shall in no case be apprenticed to any one who is not legally competent to act as the guardian of such minor.

Art. 34. [25] [20] Duration of apprenticeship.—The duration of apprenticeship shall be until the minor, if a male, arrives at the age of twenty-one years; if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries, if she marries before that age.

Art. 35. [26] [21] Shall not be apprenticed without notice.—A minor shall not be apprenticed without citation in the same manner as is provided in the case of an application for the guardianship of a minor.

Art. 36. [27] [22] In what county minor shall be apprenticed.—A minor shall be apprenticed in the county in which he resides, and shall not be apprenticed to any person who is not at the time a resident of such county.

Art. 37. [28] [23] Obligation shall be entered into and its conditions.—The person to whom such minor is apprenticed shall enter into an obligation in writing, payable to such minor, in the sum to be fixed by the county judge, not less than one thousand dollars, and to be approved by such county judge, conditioned—

1. That he will furnish said minor sufficient food and clothing.

2. That he will treat said minor humanely.

3. That he will teach, or cause to be taught, to said minor some trade or occupation, the same to be specified in such obligation.

4. That he will furnish said minor medicine and medical attention when necessary.

5. That he will, if practicable, send said minor to school at least three months in each year during the continuance of such apprenticeship, after said minor has arrived at the age of ten years, and while such minor is within the scholastic age.

6. That he will not remove said minor out of the county without the leave of the court.

7. That he will not remove said minor out of the state. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 38. [29] [24] Minor 14 years of age may select, etc.—A minor who is fourteen years old, or over, may select the person to whom he desires to be apprenticed; and the court shall, if such person be competent, apprentice the minor to the person so selected.

Art. 39. [30] [25] Obligation shall be approved, filed and recorded.—The obligations provided for by article 37, when approved by the court, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court and recorded upon the minutes of the court.

Art. 40. [31] [26] Order of the court apprenticing minor.—When such obligation has been approved and filed, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes, reciting the fact that such obligation has been approved and filed, and directing that the same be recorded in the minutes, and authorizing the person to whom such minor is apprenticed to take charge and control of the person of such minor, and to retain the same until such minor arrives at the age of twenty-one years; or, if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries, if she marries before that age; and the age of such minor at the time of entering such order shall be distinctly stated in such order.

Art. 41. [32] [27] Certified copy of order sufficient authority, etc.—A certified copy of such order, under the seal of the court, shall be sufficient evidence of the authority of the person named therein to control the person of such minor.

Art. 42. [33] [28] Moderate chastisement may be inflicted on minor.—The person to whom a minor has been apprenticed shall have the right, in the management and control of such minor, to inflict such moderate corporal chastisement as may be necessary and proper.

Art. 43. [34] [29] Rights of persons to whom minor is apprenticed.—The person to whom a minor has been apprenticed shall have the right to control the person of such minor, and shall be entitled to his services; and to all the profits arising from any such service during the continuance of such apprenticeship.

Art. 44. [35] [30] Not lawful for apprentice to reside out of the county, etc.—It shall not be lawful for any apprentice to reside out of the county in which he has been apprenticed without the order of the county judge of such county, entered upon the minutes of the court. When such leave is obtained, a certified copy of the order granting the same shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the future residence of the minor is to be, together with a certified copy of the obligation and order apprenticing such minor; and the same shall be filed and recorded upon the minutes of the county court of such last named county; and thereafter such court shall have the same power and control over the case as if it had been originally commenced therein.

Art. 45. [36] [31] Apprentice kept out of county over thirty days without leave is discharged.—When an apprentice has been removed out of the county in which he was apprenticed, by the person to whom he was apprenticed, or with the knowledge or consent of such person, and without an order authorizing such removal, as provided in the preceding article, and shall be detained out of said county for more than thirty days, such apprentice shall not be held bound for a further compliance with his apprenticeship, and can only be retained at the pleasure of such apprentice.

Art. 46. [37] [32] Proceedings when apprentice runs away, etc.—If any apprentice shall run away from or leave the employment of the person to whom he is apprenticed without permission, such person may pursue and recapture such apprentice and bring him before the county judge having jurisdiction of the case, who shall investigate the case; and if satisfied that said apprentice ran away or left the employment of such person without good and sufficient cause, he shall order such apprentice to return to his service; and upon his failure or refusal to do so the court may punish him as for contempt of court.

Art. 47. [38] [33] Apprentice discharged when, etc.—Upon the investigation provided for in the preceding article, if the court be satisfied that such apprentice had good and sufficient cause for running away from or leaving the employment of the person to whom he was apprenticed, the court shall discharge said apprentice and revoke all authority granted to the person to whom such minor was apprenticed, and shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes.

Art. 48. [39] [34] County judge may cause person to whom minor is apprenticed to be cited, etc.—The county judge may, upon the complaint of the minor or any other person, or without complaint, cause the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed to be cited to appear before him at any time and place mentioned in such citation, and show cause why his authority over such minor should not be revoked and the minor discharged from his apprenticeship. And upon the return of such citation served, the judge, if satisfied that such person is incompetent from any cause to properly control such minor, or that such person has in any material respect violated the obligation entered into by him, shall enter an order upon the minutes revoking such authority granted to such person over such minor, and discharging such minor from such apprenticeship.

Art. 49. [40] [35] Person to whom minor is apprenticed may be released, when.—A person to whom a minor has been apprenticed may at any time, upon good cause shown to the county judge, be released from future liability upon his obligation of apprenticeship; and in such case an order shall be entered upon the minutes revoking the authority of such person over such minor, and declaring such apprenticeship at an end.

Art. 50. [41] [36] County judge shall inquire into treatment, etc.—The county judge shall, from time to time, inquire into the treatment of the minors apprenticed by him, or by his predecessors in office, and shall defend them from all cruelty, neglect, breach of contract or misconduct on the part of the persons to whom they are apprenticed.

Art. 51. [42] [37] Minor may be again apprenticed, when.—When the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed dies, or when his authority has been revoked, the minor may be again apprenticed as in the first instance.

Art. 52. [43] [38] Proceedings may be in term time or vacation, except, etc.—The proceedings provided for in the preceding articles of this title may be had either in term time or in vacation, except that a minor shall be apprenticed only at a regular term of the court for probate business, and after notice as in the case of the appointment of a guardian.

Art. 53. [44] [39] Suit upon obligation.—In case of a breach of the obligation on the part of the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed, the minor, or the county judge, or any person for the use of the minor, may sue upon such obligation in any court of the county where such obligation, or certified copy thereof, has been filed and recorded, having jurisdiction of the amount claimed, and shall be entitled to recover such damages as the minor may have sustained by reason of such breach; and all such damages shall be the property of such minor.

Art. 54. [45] [40] Costs shall be paid by whom.—In all proceedings apprenticing a minor, or discharging him from apprenticeship, and in all other proceedings connected with such apprenticeship, the person to whom such minor was apprenticed shall pay the costs of such proceedings, and the same shall be adjudged against him and collected as in other cases, except in a suit brought under the preceding article, in which case the costs shall be adjudged as in other civil suits.

Art. 55. [46] [41] No guardian of person when minor is apprenticed.—When a minor is apprenticed, the person to whom such minor is apprenticed supplies the place of the guardian of the person of such minor, and in such case there shall be no guardian of the person of such minor.

Article 56. [47] [42] Right to arbitrate.—All persons desiring to submit any dispute, controversy, or right of action supposed to have accrued to either party, to arbitration, shall have the right so to do in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Const., art. 16, sec. 13.]

Art. 57. [48] [43] Agreement to be in writing and name arbitrators, etc.—Such persons shall sign an agreement in writing, as plaintiff and defendant, to arbitrate their differences or matters in dispute, and in such agreement each party shall name for himself one arbitrator, who shall be over the age of twenty-one years, not related to either party by consanguinity or affinity, possessing the qualifications of a juror, and who is not interested in the result of the cause to be submitted for his decision. [Act April 25, 1846, p. 127. P. D. 60-63.]

Art. 58. [49] [44] Agreement to be filed in court having jurisdiction.—If the amount in dispute is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, such agreement shall be filed with some justice of the peace of the county in which the defendant resides or in which the controversy arose. If the matter in dispute exceeds two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, then such agreement shall be filed with the clerk of the district or county court of the county in which the controversy arose, according as the amount involved or matter in dispute may come within the jurisdiction of one court or the other. [Id.]

Art. 59. [50] [45] Day of trial to be designated by justice or clerk, etc.—When such agreement is filed, the justice of the peace or the clerk of the county or district court, as the case may be, shall forthwith designate a day for the trial of the cause, not less than two days thereafter, and shall issue process for such witnesses as either party may desire, returnable on the day fixed for trial. [Id. sec 5. P. D. 62.]

Art. 60. [51] [46] Oath of arbitrators.—On the assembling of the arbitrators on the day of trial, the justice or clerk shall administer an oath to each, substantially as follows: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fairly and impartially decide the matter in dispute between A B, the plaintiff, and C D, the defendant, according to the evidence adduced and the law and equity applicable to the facts proved. So help you God." Id. sec. 5. P. D. 64.]

Art. 61. [52] [47] Continuances permissible.—After being sworn, the arbitrators may, for good cause shown, continue the hearing to some other day, and during the progress of any trial, for like good cause, may adjourn the same over to some other time.

Art. 62. [53] [48] Procedure on trial.—The justice or clerk shall administer the necessary oath to the witnesses, and the trial of the cause shall proceed in like manner with trials in the courts of this state, the plaintiff holding the affirmative, and entitled to open and conclude the argument.

Art. 63. [54] [49] Award to be written out, filed and entered as judgment.—After hearing the evidence and arguments, if any, the arbitrators shall agree upon their award and reduce the same to writing, specifying plainly their decision, which award they shall file with the justice or clerk, as the case may be, and at the succeeding term of the court such award shall be entered and recorded as the judgment of the court, with like effect as other judgments of said court, and upon which execution may issue as on ordinary judgments. [Acts 1846, p. 127, sec. 7. P. D. 66.]

Art. 64. [55] [50] Umpire to be selected in case of disagreement.—If the arbitrators chosen as aforesaid can not agree, they shall select an umpire with like qualifications as themselves, or in case they disagree in the choice of an umpire, the justice or clerk shall select such umpire, and he shall be sworn in like manner as the arbitrators; and the cause may be tried anew at such time as the board of arbitration thus constituted may designate, with like proceedings as are prescribed in the preceding article. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 65.]

Art. 65. [56] [51] Appeal from an award.—If a right of appeal is not expressly reserved in the original agreement to arbitrate, no such right shall exist, but the decision of the arbitrators shall be final. But if such right of appeal is reserved, and either party desire to appeal from such decision or award, he shall file his written application to that effect with the justice or clerk, as the case may be, on or before the return day of the term of the court next thereafter. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 66.]

Art. 66. [57] [52] Procedure in case of appeal.—When an application for appeal is filed, as prescribed in the preceding article, the same shall be noted on the docket of the court, and the opposite party served with a citation, as in ordinary cases of suit by petition. Upon return of service upon the opposite party, the cause shall stand for trial de novo as in ordinary cases.

Art. 67. [58] [53] Costs.—The arbitrators may award the costs to either party; and, if their decision or award is silent as to costs, the same shall be taxed equally against both parties.

Art. 68. [59] [54] Penalty for refusing to proceed.—After an agreement to arbitrate is filed, as prescribed in article 58, the parties thereto shall be bound to that mode of trial under the following penalties, to-wit: Such agreement may be pleaded in bar to any suit thereafter brought by a plaintiff in such agreement for the same cause of action, when such plaintiff has refused to proceed under such agreement; and said agreement may be pleaded in bar to any right claimed or defense set up by defendant in such agreement who has refused to proceed thereunder, where such right or defense existed at the time of filing such agreement. [Act 1846, p. 127.]

Art. 69. [60] [55] Corporations, executors, etc., may arbitrate.—The provisions of this title shall apply to corporations as well as natural persons; and executors, administrators and guardians may also consent to an arbitration of any controversy or matter of dispute relating to or affecting their respective trusts, with the consent of the court in which such administration or guardianship is pending.

Art. 70. [61] [56] Right to other mode of arbitration not affected.—Nothing herein shall be construed as affecting the existing right of parties to arbitrate their differences in such mode as they may select.

Article 71. [61a] Board of arbitration authorized.—Whenever any grievance or dispute of any nature, growing out of the relation of employer and employes, shall arise or exist between employer and employes, it shall be lawful, upon mutual consent of all parties, to submit all matters respecting such grievance or dispute in writing to a board of arbitrators to hear, adjudicate, and determine the same. Said board shall consist of five persons. When the employes concerned in such grievance or dispute, as the aforesaid, are members in good standing of any labor organization which is represented by one or more delegates in a central body, the said central body shall have power to designate two of said arbitrators, and the employer shall have the power to designate two others of said arbitrators; and the said four arbitrators shall designate a fifth person as arbitrator, who shall be chairman of the board. In case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute, as aforesaid, are members in good standing of a labor organization which is not represented in a central body, then the organization of which they are members shall designate two members of said board; and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; and in case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute, as aforesaid, are not members of any labor organization, then a majority of said employes, at a meeting duly held for that purpose, shall designate two arbitrators for said board; and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; provided, that when the two arbitrators shall have been selected by each of the respective parties to the controversy, the district judge of the district having jurisdiction of the subject matter shall, upon notice from either of said arbitrators that they have failed to agree upon the fifth arbitrator, appoint said fifth arbitrator. [Acts 1895, p. 85, sec. 1.]

Art. 72. [61b] District judge to establish board, etc.—Any board, as aforesaid selected, may present a petition in writing to the district judge of the county where such grievance or dispute to be arbitrated may arise, signed by a majority of said board, setting forth in brief terms the facts showing their due and regular appointment, and the nature of the grievance or dispute between the parties to said arbitration, and praying the license or order of such judge establishing and approving of said board of arbitration. Upon the presentation of said petition, it shall be the duty of said judge, if it appear that all requirements of this law have been complied with, to make an order establishing such board of arbitration and referring the matters in dispute to it for hearing, adjudication and determination. The said petition and order, or a copy thereof, shall be filed in the office of the district clerk of the county in which the arbitration is sought. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 73. [61c] If controversy involves different labor organizations, concurrent action is necessary.—When a controversy involves and affects the interests of two or more classes or grades of employes belonging to different labor organizations, or of individuals who are not members of a labor organization, then the two arbitrators selected by the employes shall be agreed upon and selected by the concurrent action of all such labor organizations, and a majority of such individuals who are not members of a labor organization. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 74. [61d] Submission must be in writing and must show what.—The submission shall be in writing, shall be signed by the employer or receiver and the labor organization representing the employes, or any laborer or laborers to be affected by such arbitration who may not belong to any labor organization, shall state the question to be decided, and shall contain appropriate provisions by which the respective parties shall stipulate as follows:

1. That pending the arbitration the existing status prior to any disagreement or strike shall not be changed.

2. That the award shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which said arbitration is held, and shall be final and conclusive upon both parties, unless set aside for error of law, apparent on the record.

3. That the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same, and that the same may be specifically enforced in equity so far as the powers of a court of equity permit.

4. That the employes dissatisfied with the award shall not, by reason of such dissatisfaction, quit the service of said employer or receiver before the expiration of thirty days, nor without giving said employer or receiver thirty days written notice of their intention so to quit.

5. That said award shall continue in force as between the parties thereto for the period of one year after the same shall go into practical operation; and no new arbitration upon the same subject between the same parties shall be had until the expiration of said one year. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 75. [61e] Arbitrators to take oath, etc.—The arbitrators so selected shall sign a consent to act as such and shall take and subscribe an oath before some officer authorized to administer the same to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties as such arbitrator, which consent and oath shall be immediately filed in the office of the clerk of the district court wherein such arbitrators are to act. When said board is ready for the transaction of business, it shall select one of its members to act as secretary, and the parties to the dispute shall receive notice of a time and place of hearing, which shall be not more than ten days after such agreement to arbitrate has been filed. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 76. [61f] Powers and duties of chairman and board.—The chairman shall have power to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas for the production of books and papers and for the attendance of witnesses, to the same extent that such power is possessed by a court of record, or the judge thereof, in this state. The board may make and enforce the rules for its government and transaction of the business before it and fix its sessions and adjournment, and shall herein [hear and] examine such witnesses as may be brought before the board, and such other proof as may be given relative to the matter in dispute. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 77. [61g] Adjudication terminates the powers of the board, unless, etc.—When said board shall have rendered its adjudication and determination, its powers shall cease, unless there may be at the time in existence other similar grievances or disputes between the same class of persons mentioned in article 71, and in such case such persons may submit their differences to said board, which shall have power to act and adjudicate and determine the same as fully as if said board was originally created for the settlement of such difference or differences. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 78. [61h] Status quo to be preserved pending arbitration.—During the pendency of arbitration under this chapter it shall not be lawful for the employer or receiver party to such arbitration, nor his agent, to discharge the employes parties thereto, except for inefficiency, violation of law, or neglect of duty, or where reduction of force is necessary, nor for the organization representing such employes to order, nor for the employes to unite in, aid or abet strikes or boycotts against such employer or receiver. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 79. [61i] Compensation of board, witnesses, etc.—Each of the said board of arbitrators shall receive three dollars per day for every day in actual service, not to exceed ten days, and traveling expenses not to exceed five cents per mile actually traveled in getting to, or returning from, the place where the board is in session. The fees of witnesses of the aforesaid board shall be fifty cents for each day's attendance and five cents per mile traveled by the nearest route to, and returning from, the place where attendance is required by the board. All subpoenas shall be signed by the secretary of the board and may be served by any person of full age authorized by the board to serve the same. And the fees and mileage of witnesses and the per diem and traveling expenses of said arbitrators shall be taxed as costs against either or all of the parties to said arbitration, as the board of arbitrators may deem just, and shall constitute part of their award; and each of the parties to said arbitration shall, before the arbitrators proceed to consider the matters submitted to them, give a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in an amount to be fixed by the board of arbitration, conditioned for the payment of all expenses connected with the said arbitration. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 80. [61j] Award to take effect when.—The award shall be made in triplicate. One copy shall be filed in the district clerk's office, one copy shall be given to the employer or receiver, and one copy to the employes or their duly authorized representative. The award, being filed in the clerk's office of the district court, as hereinbefore provided, shall go into practical operation, and judgment shall be entered thereon accordingly at the expiration of ten days from such filing, unless within such ten days either party shall file exceptions thereto for matter of law apparent on the record; in which case said award shall go into practical operation, and judgment shall be rendered accordingly when such exceptions shall have been fully disposed of by either said district court or on appeal therefrom. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 81. [61k] Judgment to be entered, unless appeal, etc.—At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court, upon exceptions taken to said award as aforesaid, judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during the said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the court of civil appeals holding jurisdiction thereof. In such case, only such portion of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said exceptions and to be decided. The determination of said court of civil appeals upon said questions shall be final, and being certified by the clerk of said court of civil appeals, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court. If exceptions to an award are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment, when entered, shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award. [Id. sec. 11.]

Article 82. [62] [57] What shall be considered archives of the general land office.—The following shall be deemed the records, books and papers of the general land office and constitute a part of the archives of the same:

1. All the records, books, titles, surveys, maps, papers and documents which in any manner pertain to the lands of the late republic, now state of Texas, which have been, prior to the eighteenth day of April, A. D. 1876, delivered to the commissioner of the general land office in pursuance of, and in accordance with, the requirements of any law of the republic or state of Texas, by any of the empresarios, political chiefs, alcaldes, regidores, commissioners, special or general, for extending titles.

2. All books, papers, records, documents and archives pertaining to the lands of the republic or state of Texas that have heretofore been delivered by the commissioner of the court of claims to the comptroller and by him turned over to the commissioner of the general land office, in pursuance and by authority of law.

3. All other books, records, papers and archives of the colony of Martin de Leon heretofore delivered by the secretary of state, in accordance with law, to the commissioner of the general land office.

4. The duly certified copy of the book or register of land certificates, usually known as the "Lost Book of Harris county," transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office by the clerk of the county court of Harris county, in accordance with law.

5. All other books, transfers, powers of attorney, field-notes, maps, plats, legal proceedings, official reports, original documents and other papers appertaining to the lands of the republic or state of Texas that have been deposited or filed in the general land office in accordance with any law of the republic or state of Texas. [Act Dec. 22, 1836, p. 216, sec. 5; Hart Dig. 1786; Act June 12, 1837, p. 263, sec. 6; Hart Dig. 1819; P. D. 69; Act Dec. 14, 1837, p. 44, sec. 1; Hart Dig. 1835; P. D. 70-1; Act Dec. 2, 1850, p. 32; P. D. 73; Act Dec. 14, 1837, p. 62, sec. 6; P. D. 71.]

6. All owners of lands between the Nueces and Rio Grande rivers, under grants or titles from the former government, which grants or titles are such as are described in section 4 of article 13 of the present constitution, and have been, previous to the adoption of this constitution, recorded in the respective counties where the land is situated, but have not yet been deposited or archived in the general land office of this state, be and they are hereby authorized and required to deposit and archive said grants or titles in said general land office; and provided, further, that such titles when so archived shall be subject to all defenses and objections to which they would have been subject if not so archived; and said act of archiving shall invest said titles with no greater validity than they before had as titles recorded in the proper county; and the commissioner of the general land office is hereby authorized and required to receive the same as archives of said office. [Acts 1881, p. 37.]

Art. 83. [63] [58] Effect to be given to archives deposited in general land office.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to give any of the said books, records or other papers named in said article any greater force or validity by reason of their being so recognized as archives of the general land office than was accorded them by the laws in force at the date of their execution and deposit in the general land office.

Art. 84. [64] [59] Deeds, etc., which are not archives.—Deeds and other instruments of writing which were executed or issued prior to the second day of March, A. D. 1836, upon stamped paper of the second or third seal, and which deeds or instruments of writing are not original documents in the general land office, or expressly declared by law to be archives of the said office, are hereby declared to constitute no part of the archives of said office. [Act Feb. 11, 1850, p. 200; P. D. 76. Act Jan. 11, 1862, p. 35; P. D. 77.]

Art. 85. [65] [60] How such deeds, etc., may be withdrawn.—The owners of any land to which the deeds or other instruments of writing named in the preceding article relate may withdraw the same from the general land office, on making a written application therefor, under oath, to the commissioner of the general land office, setting forth the fact of such ownership; and, if the commissioner shall be satisfied that the person applying is in fact the owner of the land to which such deed or instrument of writing relates, he may deliver the same to such applicant, taking his receipt therefor, and describing in such receipt the deed or instrument of writing delivered, with a summary of its contents and the name of the original grantee of the land to which such deed or instrument of writing may relate or refer. Article 91. [71] General assignment, how made and construed; preferences void.—Every assignment made by an insolvent debtor, or in contemplation of insolvency, for the benefit of his creditors, shall provide, except as herein otherwise provided, for a distribution of all his real and personal estate, other than that which is by law exempt from execution, among all his creditors in proportion to their respective claims, and, however made or expressed, shall have the effect aforesaid, and shall be construed to pass all such estate, whether specified therein or not; and in every assignment made under this title, whether for the benefit of all creditors, or accepting creditors, any attempted preference of one creditor, or creditors, of the assignor shall be deemed fraudulent and without effect. [Act of July, 24, 1879, p. 54.]

Art. 92. [72] Assignment acknowledged, etc., and recorded. Inventory attached, what shall contain and how verified.—Every assignment shall be proved or acknowledged and certified and recorded in the same manner as provided by law in conveyances of real estate or other property; and the debtor shall annex to such assignment an inventory containing the following statement:

1. A full and true account of all the creditors of such debtor or debtors.
2. The place of residence of each creditor, if known to such debtor or debtors, and if not known, that fact to be so stated.
3. The sum owing to each creditor, and the nature of each debt or demand, whether arising on written security, account, or otherwise executed.
4. The true cause and consideration of such indebtedness in each case, and the place where such indebtedness arose.
5. A statement of any existing judgment, mortgage, collateral or other security for the payment of any such debt.
6. A full and true inventory of all such debtor's estate at the date of such assignment, both real and personal, in law or in equity, and the incumbrances existing thereon, and of all vouchers and securities relating thereto, and the value of such estate according to the best knowledge of such debtor or debtors.
7. An affidavit shall be made by such debtor or debtors, and annexed to, and delivered with, such inventory or schedule, that the same is in all respects just and true according to the best of such debtor or debtors' knowledge and belief. Nothing contained in this chapter shall affect the assignor's right to retain all such of his property as is by the constitution and laws of this state exempt from execution, but such list and inventory shall not be conclusive, except as against the debtor making the same. [Id.]

Art. 93. [73] Assignment for creditors accepting, etc., and discharging assignor.—Any debtor, desiring so to do, may make an assignment for the benefit of such of his creditors only as will consent to accept their proportional share of his estate, and discharge him from their respective claims; and in such case the benefits of the assignment shall be limited and restricted to the creditors consenting thereto; and such debtor shall thereupon be and stand discharged from all further liabilities to such consenting creditors on account of their respective claims, and when paid they shall execute and deliver to the assignee for the debtor a release therefrom; provided, that such debtor shall not be discharged from liabilities to a creditor who does not receive as much as one-third of the amount due and allowed in his favor as a valid claim against the estate of such debtor. [Acts 1883, p. 46.]

Art. 94. [74] Notice of assignee's appointment, when and how given.—Every assignee shall, within thirty days after the execution of the assignment, give public notice of his appointment, in some newspaper printed in the county where the assignor resides, or where his principal business was conducted, or, if no newspapers be printed therein, then in the newspaper published nearest to such place of residence or business, and which notice shall be published for three successive weeks; and, so far as he can, the assignee shall also give personal notice, or notice by mail, to each of the creditors of the assigning debtor. [Act July 24, 1879, p. 37.]

Art. 95. [75] How and when consenting creditors may accept.—The creditors of the assignor consenting to such assignment shall make known to the assignee their consent in writing, within four months after the publication of the notice provided in the preceding article, and no creditor not assenting shall receive or take any benefit under the assignment; provided, however, that any creditor, who had no actual notice of such assignment, may make known his assent at any time before any distribution of assets under the assignment has been made; and provided, further, that the receipt by a creditor of any portion of his claim from the assignee, shall be conclusive evidence of the assent of such creditor to the assignment. [Id.]

Art. 96. [76] Where assignee shall reside and his preliminary duties and bond approved by county or district judge.—Every such assignee shall be a resident of this state and of the county in which the assignor resides, or in which his principal business was conducted; and he shall forthwith, after the execution and delivery of the deed of assignment, cause the same to be recorded as herein provided, in the county of such assignee's residence, and also in every county in which there is any real property conveyed to him by such deed of assignment, and shall execute a bond, with sureties, to be approved by the judge of the county court of the county in which the assignee resides, or by the judge of the district court of the judicial district in which such county is situated, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duties as such assignee, and that he will make proportional distribution of the net proceeds of the assigned estate among the creditors entitled thereto; which bond shall be payable to the state of Texas, and shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such assignee resides, and shall inure to the benefit of the assignor, and the creditor or creditors, who may maintain an action thereon against such assignee and sureties, in his or their own name, jointly or severally, for any breach thereof, or violation of this law, by reason of which such assignor or creditor shall sustain damage; and upon the filing of said bond the assignee shall take possession of the assigned property, and proceed to execute the assignment; and, if such assignee shall not, within five days after the delivery of the deed of assignment, execute an approved bond and file the same with the county clerk, as herein provided, such assignment shall nevertheless take effect as against the assignor and his creditors; and it shall be the duty of the county judge, or judge of the district court, as aforesaid, upon the application of the assignor, or any creditor, and being satisfied that such bond has not been given, approved and filed, to appoint in writing another competent assignee, who shall, upon the execution of such bond, approved and filed as herein provided, take possession of the assigned property and proceed to execute the assignment. [Acts 1883, p. 46.]

Art. 97. [77] Fraud of assignor will not defeat assignment.—No fraudulent act, intent or purpose of the assignor or assignee shall have the effect to defeat the assignment or to deprive the creditors consenting thereto from the benefits thereof, but any such fraudulent act, intent or purpose on the part of the assignee shall be sufficient cause for his removal, as being an unsuitable person to perform the trust; and any consenting creditor may be or become a party to prosecute or defend in any suit or proceeding necessary or proper for the enforcement of his rights under such assignments, or for the protection of his interests in the assigned property. [Id.]

Art. 98. [78] Proof of claim, when and how made.—Every creditor consenting to an assignment shall, within six months from the time of the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the assignee, file with such assignee a distinct statement of the particular nature and amount of his claim against the debtor, which shall be supported by an affidavit of the creditor, his agent or attorney, that the statement is true, that the debt is just and that there are no credits or offsets that should be allowed against the claim, except as shown by the statement; and no creditor shall take any benefit under any assignment whatever who neglects to file such statement. [Acts of 1879, p. 57.]

Art. 99. [79] Surplus subject to garnishment.—Any creditor not consenting to the assignment may garnishee the assignee for any excess of such estate remaining in his hands, after the payment to the consenting creditors the amount of their debts and the costs and expenses of executing the assignment. [Id.]

Art. 100. [80] Property fraudulently sold by assignor passes by the assignment and may be recovered by assignee, etc.—All property conveyed or transferred by the assignor previous to and in contemplation of the assignment, with the intent or design to defeat, delay or defraud creditors, or to give preference to one creditor over another, shall pass to the assignee by the assignment, notwithstanding such transfer; and the assignee, or in case of his neglect or refusal, any creditor or creditors may in his name, upon securing such assignee against cost or liability, sue for, recover and collect the same, and cause the same to be applied for the benefit of creditors as other property belonging to the debtor's estate in the hands of the assignee; but, if it shall appear in such action that the purchaser of any such property bought the same of the assignor in good faith and for a valuable consideration, and without any reason to believe that the debtor was conveying or transferring the same with the intent or design aforesaid, such purchaser shall be held to have acquired as against the assignee and creditors aforesaid a good and valid title to such property. [Id.]

Art. 101. [81] Failure to attach inventory presumption of fraud, but does not vitiate assignment; assignor, etc., may be examined.—No assignment shall be declared fraudulent or void for want of any inventory or list, as provided herein, but the absence of the same shall be deemed prima facie evidence that the assignor or debtor has concealed or secreted some of his estate from his assignee or creditors; and whether the said list and inventory be prepared and filed or not, the judge of the district or county court, in whose court the proceedings shall have been filed, and having jurisdiction of the estate assigned, may, on the application of the assignee, or of any creditor of the assignor or debtor, or without such application, if the judge see fit, at all times require, upon such reasonable notice as the judge may direct, the assignor or debtor, or any other person, to attend and submit to an examination, on oath, upon all matters relating to the disposition made, or status of, the property of the estate assigned, including all transactions in the past bearing upon the rights of the assignee or creditors with respect to the estate in assignment, as contemplated in law. The judge may enforce attendance and obedience to the orders made, by a writ or order directed to the sheriff, or any constable, commanding the arrest of the persons referred to in the writ or order, to be brought before the judge at a time named for the purpose of examination, as provided herein, and such examination shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the persons examined, and shall be attested or sworn to before the clerk of the court wherein the proceedings are pending and filed with such clerk, for the use of those interested in the estate; provided, nevertheless, that no assignor or debtor shall be prosecuted or punished for any matter or thing disclosed by him on such examination as had above. The costs of such proceedings to be paid out of the estate assigned, or by the applicant for the examination, as the judge in each case may deem right and proper to order. [Acts 1883, p. 46.]

Art. 102. [82] Verified claims shall be allowed by assignee unless contested.—The statement of a creditor, verified and filed with the assignee as hereinbefore provided, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence to justify the assignee in allowing it as a valid claim against the estate, and shall be so allowed, and such creditor shall be entitled to his proportional share of the debtor's estate, unless the assignor, or another creditor disputing the same, shall, within sixty days after the expiration of the time within which the creditors are required by this title to file their statements, institute an action in the district or county court of the proper county to set aside the allowance and to restrain the payment thereon, for which purpose the assignor or any disputing creditor or creditors may have a remedy, jointly or severally, by injunction or other proper action to try the justness and validity of the disputed claim; and, if it appears that an action could not successfully be maintained at law by the creditor against the assignor upon such claim or any disputed part thereof, the same shall be disallowed, in whole or in part, as the case may be, and the assignee restrained from paying the same, or such portion thereof as may be disallowed; and, for the information of the assignor and creditors, it is further provided, that the assignee shall allow them, or any of them, to take a copy of any creditor's statement of his claim that has been filed with such assignee as herein provided. [Acts 1879, p. 57.]

Art. 103. [83] Unmatured claims discounted and collateral securities estimated and deduction for same.—Claims that are not due may be allowed at their present value, by discounting them at the rate of interest mentioned in the contract, if any, otherwise at the legal rate, and if any creditor holds collateral security of less value than his debt, the value thereof may be estimated by the assignee, and only the difference between such sum and the debt shall be allowed. [Id.]

Art. 104. [84] Assignee may be removed, and vacancy from any cause filled, how.—If any assignee becomes unsuitable to perform the trust, refuses or neglects so to do, or mismanages the property, the county judge or judge of the district court may, upon the application of the assignor, or one or more of the creditors, upon reasonable notice to all parties interested, by publication or otherwise, as such judge may direct, remove such assignee, and, in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise, shall appoint another in his place, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as the original assignee. [Id.]

Art. 105. [85] Dividend declared, when and how.—Allowance to assignee.—Whenever any assignee shall have in his hands funds sufficient to pay ten per cent of the debts due by the assignor, he shall make a pro rata distribution of the same among said creditors, and the assignee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for his services and his necessary costs and expenses, including also his attorneys' fees, all to be allowed, in case of difference between the parties, by the county judge or judge of the district court. [Id.]

Art. 106. [86] Final report and discharge of assignee.—Whenever any assignee shall have fully performed the duties of his trust and desires to be finally discharged therefrom, he may make a report of his proceedings under the assignment, showing the moneys and assets that have come into his hands, and how the same have been disbursed and disposed of, the truth of which shall be verified by his affidavit; and such report shall thereupon be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the assignment is recorded; and no action shall be brought against such assignee by reason of anything done by him under the assignment as shown by his report unless the same be brought within twelve months from the time of the filing thereof, as aforesaid; and any moneys or funds on hand shall be deposited in the district court, subject to be paid out upon the decree of said court. [Id.]

Article 107. [87] [66] Lunatic asylum recognized and continued.—The asylums heretofore established by law and any others that may hereafter be established for the care and treatment of insane persons shall be managed and controlled in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Act 1883, p. 103.]

1. THE BOARDS OF MANAGERS.

Art. 108. [88] Board of managers provided for.—The general control, management and direction of the affairs of the Texas asylums for the insane shall be vested in boards of managers, to be styled, the boards of managers of the lunatic asylums, subject only to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the legislature. Three of the members of each board shall reside within five miles of their respective asylums. [Id.]

Art. 109. [89] [67] Board of managers, how constituted and appointed.—The governor shall appoint for each lunatic asylum a board of managers consisting of five members, who shall hold their office for two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and whenever a vacancy occurs in said boards it shall be filled by the governor, and the term of office of the person so appointed shall be for the unexpired term of the person whose place is made vacant. The board of managers shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. [Id.]

Art. 110. [90] [68] Compensation of members of board.—Each of the members of the boards of managers shall be paid five dollars per day and five cents a mile for going and returning from the asylums for the purpose of holding their monthly meetings provided for by this act; and no member shall be paid, except in case of his actual attendance on said meetings; and the certificate of the president of the boards of managers, approved by the superintendent, shall be a sufficient voucher for the comptroller to draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the amount due each member of said board for his attendance on said meetings; provided, no meeting shall be for a longer time than one day. [Id.]

Art. 111. [91] [69] Organization of the board.—The boards of managers shall choose one of their number president, and the superintendent of the asylum shall be ex officio secretary of the board. A majority of the members of the boards shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. [Acts Feb. 5, 1858, p. 114, sec. 3; p. 116, sec. 6. P. D. 114, 118.]

Art. 112. [92] [70] Meetings and records of the boards.—The boards of managers shall hold monthly meetings at the asylums, and a full account of all their acts and proceedings shall be recorded by the secretary in a book to be provided for that purpose. [Acts 1883, R. S., p. 103.]

Art. 113. [93] [71] Powers of the board.—The members of said boards of managers shall be persons distinguished for their philanthropy; and, when appointed in accordance with this act, they shall have the general direction and control of all the property and business of the asylums, in accordance with the requirements of law; and in all those cases not provided for by law they shall have such direction and control of the property and business of the asylums according to the by-laws, rules and regulations of the asylums. They may take and hold in trust any gift or devise of real or personal estate for the benefit of the said asylums, and apply the same as the donor or devisor may direct. [Id.]

Art. 114. [94] [72] Same subject.—The board of managers shall have power—

1. To make all necessary by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, for the government of their institutions, officers, employes and inmates, and for the admission of visitors.

2. To determine the salaries and wages of all officers and employes of the asylums.

3. To discharge, upon the recommendation of the superintendent, any officer, employe, or patient, in the asylums.

4. Upon the nomination of the superintendents, to appoint the assistant physician, steward, matron and apothecary to the asylums.

5. To examine the accounts and vouchers of the superintendents and to reject or approve the same as they may deem right and proper.

6. To exercise a careful supervision over the general operations and expenditures of the asylums, and to direct the manner in which their revenues shall be disbursed.

7. They shall also cause to be kept a clinical record of all cases admitted in the asylums. [Id.]

Art. 115. [95] [73] Monthly inspections.—The managers shall maintain an effective inspection of their asylums, a committee for which purpose shall visit them once every month, a majority once every quarter, and the whole board once a year, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws.

In a book kept by the managers for this purpose, the visiting manager or managers shall note the date of each visit, the condition of the house, patients, etc., with remarks of commendation or censure, and all the managers present shall sign the same. [Id.]

Art. 116. [96] [74] Biennial reports by the board.—The general result of these inspections, with suitable hints and suggestions, shall be inserted in the biennial report detailing the past year's operations and actual state of the asylums, which the boards shall make to the legislature in the month of January of each alternate year, accompanied by the report of the medical superintendents and stewards. [Id.]

Art. 117, [96a] Board authorized to dispose of artesian water.—The members of the board of managers of the Southwest Texas lunatic asylum, situated at San Antonio, Texas, are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease, or dispose of the water belonging to the state, and flowing from any of the artesian wells on the grounds of said asylum, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem to the best interest of the state; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years. [Act 1893, p. 20.]

Art. 118. [96b] Same.—The members of the board of managers of the state lunatic asylum, situated at Austin, Texas, are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease or dispose of the water belonging to the state, and flowing from any of the artesian wells on the grounds of said asylum, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem to the best interest of the state; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years. [Act 1895, p. 107.]

2. THE SUPERINTENDENTS.

Art. 119. [97] [75] Their appointment, term, qualifications, etc.—The boards of managers of the lunatic asylums shall elect a medical superintendent of their respective asylums, who shall hold his office for two years. He shall be a married man, a skillful physician, and also be experienced in the treatment of insanity. He shall reside at the asylum with his family, and he shall devote his whole time exclusively to the duties of his office. [Act 1885, p. 9.]

Art. 120. [98] [77] Oath and bond.—The superintendent shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath prescribed by the constitution for all officers of the state, and shall enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the treasurer of the state, payable to the state, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as superintendent. [Act Aug. 28, 1856, p. 60; sec. 64; act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 116; P. D. 111, 118.]

Art. 121. [99] [78] Bond, where filed, etc.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be filed in the office of the treasurer of the state, and shall not become void upon a first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the full penalty is recovered. And certified copies of such bond, under the hand and official seal of the state treasurer, may be used in evidence in all courts and proceedings in this state with like effect as the original.

Art. 122. [100] [79] Removal of superintendent.—The boards of managers shall have power to remove the superintendent for good and sufficient cause only. [Acts 1883, p. 103.]

Art. 123. [101] [80] Powers and duties of superintendent.—The superintendent shall be the chief executive medical and disbursing officer of the institution, and, subject to the by-laws, shall have general care and control over everything connected therewith. He shall attend to the enforcement of the laws of this state relating to the asylums and the by-laws of the institution, and shall take care that all employes connected therewith diligently and faithfully perform the duties assigned to them; and it shall be his duty to admit any of the board of managers into every part of the asylum, and to exhibit to them, or either of them, on demand, all the books, papers and accounts belonging to the institution or pertaining to its business, management, discipline or government, also to furnish copies, abstracts and reports whenever required by the board. [Id.]

Art. 124. [102] [81] Same subject.—The superintendent shall also, with the consent of the board of managers, employ such officers, attendants and other persons as may be required for the service of the institution, and with like consent may discharge them at pleasure. He shall also receive and discharge patients, superintend repairs and improvements, and take care that all moneys intrusted to him are judiciously and economically expended. [Id. p. 116, P. D. 118.]

Art. 125. [103] [82] Accounts and reports of superintendents.—The superintendent shall keep also an accurate and detailed account of all moneys received and expended by him, specifying the sources from which such moneys were received, and to whom and on what account paid out; and, on the first days of January and July of each year, he shall report the same under oath to the governor. [Id. P. D. 118; const., art. 4, sec. 24.]

Art. 126. [104] [83] Same subject.—The superintendent shall also keep a register of all patients received into the asylum and discharged therefrom, together with a full record of all the operations of the institution; and, on the first day of November of each year, he shall report such operations in full to the governor, accompanied with such suggestions and recommendations concerning the management and operations of the asylum as he may deem important. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 116, sec. 7; P. D. 119.]

Art. 127. [105] [84] Annual inventory.—On the first day of November of each year, the superintendent shall cause an inventory of all the personal property belonging to the asylum to be prepared, in which inventory the estimated value shall be set opposite each article, and shall submit the same to the board of managers. [Id. p. 116, sec. 6; P. D. 118.]

3. FISCAL MANAGEMENT.

Art. 128. [106] [85] Officer not to deal with asylum.—No manager or other person connected with the asylums shall sell or be in any way concerned in the sale of any merchandise, supplies or other articles to the asylums, or have any interest in any contract therewith. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 120, sec. 23.]

Art. 129. [107] [86] Asylum money to remain in the treasury.—The appropriations made from time to time by the legislature for the support and maintenance of the asylums shall remain on deposit in the state treasury and be paid out, as are other public funds, upon the warrant of the comptroller of public accounts.

Art. 130. [108] [87] Board may regulate expenditures.—The boards of managers may adopt such regulations as they deem proper and necessary for the payment of expenses other than salaries, the supplies provided for in chapter three of this title, and such other expenditures as may be regulated by law; but under such regulations no money appropriated by law shall be drawn from the treasury, except upon vouchers specifying in detail the exact purpose for which the same is needed, certified as true and correct by the superintendents and approved by the presidents of the boards of managers.

Art. 131. [109] [88] Funds from outside sources, how disposed of.—All funds of every character received into or belonging to the asylums, other than the sums of money appropriated for their support from time to time by the legislature, shall, as soon as received, be paid over to the state treasurer by the superintendents or other persons receiving it; and the treasurer shall keep the same separate and apart from all other funds in his hands, and shall pay the same out only on the order of the superintendents, approved by the presidents of the boards of managers.

Art. 132. [110] [89] Requisites of the order.—The order mentioned in the preceding article shall specify on its face the purpose for which it is drawn and shall be deemed a sufficient voucher for the payment of the amount of money therein specified. [R. S. 1879, p. 89.]

Art. 133. [111] [90] Duties of the treasurer.—The treasurer of the state shall keep an exact account of the moneys received by him belonging to the asylums, from what source received, and to whom paid out and on what account; and to each annual report that he may be required to make by law to the governor or the legislature, he shall append a full report of his account with the asylum, showing the receipts and expenditures thereof for the year for which such report is made. [R. S. 1879, p. 90.]

4. ADMISSION AND DISCHARGE OF PATIENTS.

Art. 134. [112] [91] Who may be admitted.—The following persons may be admitted into the asylums as patients:

1. All persons who have been adjudged insane by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state and ordered to be conveyed to the asylum. This class shall be known as public patients.

2. All persons who may be certified to be insane by some respectable physician, under the regulations hereinafter prescribed. This class shall be known as private patients. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 117, sec. 13; P. D. 125.]

Art. 135. [113] [92] Procedure for admission of private patients.—Before any person can be received as a patient under paragraph 2 of the preceding article, the parent or legal guardian of such person, or, in case he has no parent or legal guardian, then some near relative or other person interested in him must present a written request to the superintendent for his admission, setting forth the name, age and residence of the lunatic, together with such other particulars as may be required by the superintendent or the by-laws of the institution; which written request must be under oath of the party presenting it, and be accompanied with the affidavit of the physician certifying to the insanity that he has made careful examination of the person for whom admission is applied for and verily believes him to be insane. [Id.]

Art. 136. [114] [93] County judge must certify.—The application referred to in the preceding article must also be accompanied by a certificate from the county judge of the county where the lunatic resides that the physician certifying to the insanity of the person is a respectable physician in regular practice, which certificate of the county judge must be attested by the seal of the county court of his county. [Id.]

Art. 137. [115] [94] Indigent patients at state expense.—All indigent public patients shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the state. [Acts Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, sec. 4.]

Art. 138. [116] [95] Public patients also, but state may be reimbursed.—All public patients not indigent shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the state in the first instance, but in such cases the state shall be entitled to reimbursement in the mode pointed out in articles 158 and 159 of this chapter.

Art. 139. [117] [96] Private patients at their own expense.—All private patients shall be kept and maintained at the asylum at their own expense or the expense of their relatives or friends; and for the board of such patients, the superintendent may make a special contract at a rate of not less than five dollars per week; and, at the time of the admission of any such patient into the asylum, his board must be paid in advance for six months, and bond and security given for the prompt payment of all future expenses of such patient as may from time to time be required by the by-laws of the institution. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, pp. 117-18, sec. 13; P. D. 125; act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 9.]

Art. 140. [118] [97] Preferences in admission.—If application be made for the admission of more patients than can be accommodated in the asylum, preference shall be given, in all instances, to public over private patients, and, of the former class, to cases of less than one year's duration over chronic cases, and to indigent patients over others possessed of property; and no private patients shall be admitted during pendency of an application by a public patient, nor shall any public non-indigent patient be admitted during the pendency of an application by an indigent public patient. [Acts of 1883, p. 105.]

Art. 141. [119] [98] Idiots, etc., not to be admitted.—No idiot who can be safely kept in the county to which he belonged, nor any person laboring under a contagious or infectious disease, shall be received into the asylum as a patient. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 117, sec. 12, P. D. 124.]

Art. 142. [120] [99] Discharge of patients.—Any patient, except such as are charged with, or convicted of, some offense, and have been adjudged insane in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, may be discharged from the asylum at any time upon the recommendation of the superintendent, approved by the board of managers. Any patient coming within the above exception can only be discharged by order of the court by which he was committed. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 118, secs. 11, 15; 127; P. D. 128.]

Art. 143. [121] [100] Same subject.—No patient shall be discharged without suitable clothing and sufficient money to pay his necessary expenses home; and, when a patient is discharged uncured, he shall be provided with a suitable guard and conveyed to his friends or to the county from which he was sent. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 118, sec. 16; P. D. 128.]

Art. 144. [122] [101a] Insane discharged convict, proceedings as to.—When a convict shall be discharged from one of the state penitentiaries, and is insane at the time of his discharge, and it shall be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction within thirty days after his discharge that said convict is insane and that he should be placed under restraint, he shall be delivered to the superintendent of the penitentiaries, or to one of the assistant superintendents of the penitentiary, to be conveyed to one of the lunatic asylums of this state by said superintendent, or under his direction; and the expenses incurred in said adjudication and in keeping and conveying such patient to the asylum, including such clothing as shall be necessary for his comfort, shall be paid by the state upon the certificate of the superintendent of the penitentiary. [Acts of 1895, p. 164.]

Art. 145. [123] [101] County to pay expenses of conveying public patients.—The expenses of conveying all public patients to the asylum shall be borne by the counties, respectively, from which they are sent; and said counties shall pay the same upon the sworn account of the officer or person performing such service, showing in detail the actual expenses incurred in the transportation. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 6.]

Art. 146. [124] [102] County to be reimbursed, when.—In case any public patient is possessed of property sufficient for the purpose, or any person legally liable for his support is so possessed of property, the county paying the expenses of such transportation shall be entitled to reimbursement out of the estate of the lunatic or the property of the person legally liable for his support, which may be recovered by the county in an ordinary action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 147. [125] [103] Transportation home by the state.—The expense of conveying to their homes public patients discharged from the asylums, and the necessary clothing furnished to them at the time of their discharge, shall be paid by the state. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 6.]

Art. 148. [126] [104] Escape from asylum.—If any person confined in the asylum shall escape therefrom, it shall be the duty of any sheriff or peace officer to apprehend and detain him and to report the same to the county judge of the county, and also to the superintendent of the asylum, and upon the order of either to convey such patient back to the asylum. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 119, sec. 22; P. D. 133.]

Art. 149. [127] [105] Fees for conveying patient back.—Any officer who may convey a patient to the asylum in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be paid for such service out of the funds of the asylum, at the rate of ten cents per mile for himself and each necessary guard he may employ, going and returning, and the same for the patient going, the distance to be determined by the superintendent, according to the most direct traveled route. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, pp. 119-20, sec. 22; P. D. 134.]

5. JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS IN CASES OF LUNACY.

Art. 150. [128] [106] Apprehension of lunatics.—If information in writing and under oath be given to any county judge that any person in his county is a lunatic, or non compos mentis, and that the welfare of himself or of others requires that he be placed under restraint, or that such lunatic is a convict confined in the state penitentiary, and such county judge shall believe such information to be true, he shall forthwith issue his warrant for the apprehension of such person, or, upon the filing of such complaint before any justice of the peace, said justice may issue the warrant for the apprehension, returning said complaint and warrant to said county judge; and said county judge shall fix a day and place for the hearing and determining of the matter, which place shall be either in the court house of the county or at the residence of the person named, or at the state penitentiary, if he be a state convict, as the county judge may deem best for such person. [Acts 1903, p. 236; acts 1899, p. 172; acts 1876, p. 138.]

Art. 151. [129] [107] The writ and its requisites.—The warrant provided for in the preceding article shall run in the name of the "State of Texas," shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county; and the officer receiving it shall forthwith take into custody the person named therein, and at the designated time and place have him before the county judge for trial and examination. [Id.]

Art. 152. [130] [108] Jury to be summoned.—At the time of issuing the warrant mentioned in the preceding article the county judge shall also issue an order to the sheriff or constable, directing him to summon a jury of six competent jurors of the county, to be and appear before such judge at the time and place designated in said order, for the hearing and determination of the matter. [Id.]

Art. 153. [131] [109] Cause to be docketed, etc.—The cause shall be docketed on the probate docket of the court in the name of the state of Texas as plaintiff, and of the person charged to be insane as defendant. The county attorney shall appear and represent the state on the hearing, and the defendant shall also be entitled to counsel; and in proper cases the county judge may appoint counsel for that purpose. [Act Aug. 15, 1878, p. 138, sec. 1.]

Art. 154. [132] [110] Jury impaneled and sworn.—At the time appointed for the hearing, or at any other time to which the proceeding may have been postponed, the cause shall be called for trial and a jury of six men impaneled, to whom shall be administered the following oath:

“You and each of you do solemnly swear, (or affirm) that upon all the issues about to be submitted to you in the matter of the state of Texas against A B, you will a true verdict render according to the evidence. So help you God.”

Art. 155. [133] [111] Special issues to be submitted.—After the evidence is heard the county judge shall submit the matter to the jury upon the following special issues:

1. Is A B, the defendant, of unsound mind?
2. If the defendant is of unsound mind, is it necessary that he should be placed under restraint?
3. If you answer both the foregoing questions in the affirmative, then what is the age and nativity of the defendant?
4. How many attacks of insanity has he had, and how long has the present attack existed?
5. Is insanity hereditary in the family of defendant or not?
6. Is defendant possessed of any estate, and, if so, of what does it consist and its estimated value?
7. If the defendant is possessed of no estate, are there any persons legally liable for his support? If yea, name them. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 138, secs. 1-2.]

Art. 156. [134] [112] Verdict.—The jury shall return plain answers in writing to the issues named in the preceding article, but, if they find either the first or second issue in the negative, they need not determine further, and the defendant shall be discharged.

Art. 157. [135] [113] Judgment.—Upon return of a verdict finding that the defendant is of unsound mind, and that it is necessary that he be placed under restraint, judgment shall be entered adjudging the defendant to be a lunatic, and ordering him to be conveyed to the lunatic asylum for restraint and treatment.

Art. 158. [136] [114] Reimbursement to the state from lunatics not indigent.—The special issues submitted to the jury, with the answers thereto, shall be incorporated in the judgment, and, if it be found that the defendant is possessed of property, or that some other person is legally liable for his support, the county judge may, from time to time, upon request of the superintendent of the lunatic asylum, cite the guardian of such lunatic, or other person legally liable for his support, to appear at some regular term of the county court for civil business, then and there to show cause why the state should not have judgment for the amount due it for the support and maintenance of such lunatic; and, if sufficient cause be not shown, judgment may be entered against such guardian or other person for the amount found to be due the state, which judgment may be enforced as in other cases.

Art. 159. [137] [115] Limitation as to amount and procedure.—The state, in cases provided for in the preceding article, shall in no instance recover more than five dollars per week for the support of any lunatic, and the certificate of the superintendent of the lunatic asylum as to the amount due shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the court to render judgment.

Art. 160. [138] [116] County attorney to represent state.—The county attorney shall appear and represent the state in all cases provided for in the two preceding articles.

Art. 161. [139] [117] Warrant to convey lunatic to asylum.—Immediately after any person is adjudged a lunatic, the county judge shall communicate with the superintendent of the asylum, and, if notified by the latter that there is a vacancy in the institution or that the patient can be accommodated, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff or some other suitable person, directing him to convey the lunatic to the asylum without delay, which warrant shall prescribe the number of guards to be allowed, in no case to exceed two, and shall be executed with all convenient dispatch. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, sec. 3.]

Art. 162. [140] [118] Relative or friend may give bond, etc.—No warrant to convey a lunatic to the asylum shall issue if some relative or friend of the lunatic will undertake, before the county judge, his care and restraint, and will execute a bond in a sum to be fixed by the county judge, payable to the state, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that the party giving such bond will restrain and take proper care of the lunatic so long as his mental unsoundness continues, or until he is delivered to the sheriff of the county or other person, to be proceeded with according to law; which bond shall be filed with, and constitute a part of, the record of the proceedings, and may be sued and recovered upon by any party injured, in his own name. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 138, sec. 1.]

Art. 163. [141] [119] Record made up and forwarded.—The proceedings in any inquisition of lunacy shall be entered of record in the probate minutes of the county court by the clerk thereof; and before any patient is sent to the asylum the county judge shall cause a complete transcript of the proceedings to be made up and certified by the clerk of the county court under the seal of said court, which transcript he shall forward by mail to the superintendent of the asylum. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, pp. 138-9, secs. 1, 3.]

Art. 164. [142] [120] Suitable clothing to be provided.—Before sending any patient to the asylum, the county judge shall take care that the patient is provided with two full suits of substantial summer clothing and one full suit of substantial winter clothing. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 139, sec. 3.]

Art. 165. Fees of officers in lunacy cases.—In judicial proceedings in cases of lunacy, as prescribed in this chapter, in each case the sheriff and county clerk shall be allowed the same fees as are now allowed said officers for similar services in misdemeanor criminal cases, the county attorney shall be allowed a fee of five dollars, provided, that such fees shall be allowed only when a conviction is obtained; said costs to be paid out of the estate of the defendant, if he shall have an estate sufficient therefor, otherwise said costs shall be paid out of the county treasury; and the jurors in such cases shall be allowed fifty cents each, to be paid out of the county treasury. Justices of the peace who may take complaints, issue warrants and subpoenas in such lunacy cases, shall receive the same fees as are now allowed them by law for taking complaints, issuing warrants and subpoenas in criminal misdemeanor cases. Constables shall receive for executing warrants and serving subpoenas in lunacy cases the same fees as are now allowed them by law for similar services in criminal misdemeanor cases; such fees to be paid upon conviction out of the estate of the defendant, if he shall have an estate sufficient therefor, otherwise the same shall be paid by the county upon an account approved by the county judge. [Acts 1903, p. 110.]

Article 171. [143] [121] Board of trustees.—The general control, management and direction of the affairs, property and business of the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, the orphan asylum, the Confederate home, the deaf, dumb and blind asylum for colored youths, and the epileptic colony, shall be vested in a board of trustees for each, to be styled, the board of trustees of said several asylums. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to each of said asylums, except where they conflict with special provisions relating to particular asylums.

Art. 172. [144] [122] Boards, how constituted.—The governor shall appoint a board of trustees for each, consisting of five members each, who shall hold their office for two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and, whenever a vacancy occurs in said board, it shall be filled by the governor, and the term of office of the person so appointed shall be for the unexpired term of the person whose place is made vacant. The appointment of said board shall be by and with the advice and consent of the senate. [Acts of 1883, p. 109.]

Art. 173. [145] [123] Organization of the boards.—Each board of trustees shall choose one of its members as president; and the superintendent of the asylum to which it pertains shall be ex officio the secretary of the board, and shall keep a true record of all its acts and proceedings. A majority of each board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

Art. 174. [146] [124] Meetings of the boards.—The boards of trustees shall hold monthly meetings at their respective asylums, and at such other times as they may be called together by their president, or the by-laws of the institution may prescribe. [Acts 1905, p. 47.]

Art. 175. [147] [125] Powers of the boards.—The boards of trustees shall have power—

1. To examine and pass upon all accounts and expenditures of the superintendent, and to approve or disapprove the same.

2. To make all contracts and necessary arrangements for the erection of any buildings, or the making of any improvements, upon the grounds of the asylum. [Act March 6, 1875, p. 66, sec. 2.]

Art. 176. [148] [126] May make requisition for improvements, etc.—All moneys appropriated by the legislature for the erection of buildings, or the making of improvements upon the grounds of an asylum, shall be subject to requisition by the board of trustees of such asylum, for the amount actually necessary to pay for such building or improvements; but no money shall be paid except it be upon estimate of completed work, furnished by the contractor, and approved by the architect and board of trustees; provided, that in no case shall more than three-fourths of the actual cost of building or improvements be paid until the work is completed and accepted. [Acts 1875, p. 66; acts 1899, p. 318.]

Art. 177. [149] [127] Statement and itemized account to be filed with comptroller.—In cases provided for in the preceding article, the board of trustees shall file with the comptroller a statement of the work done, together with an itemized account of the cost of the same, and thereafter the comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer, in favor of such board of trustees, for the amount specified. [Act March 6, 1875, p. 66.]

Art. 178. [150] [128] Duplicate receipts to be taken.—The board of trustees shall take receipts in duplicate for all moneys paid out under the two preceding articles, one of which shall be filed with the comptroller of public accounts. [Id.]

Art. 179. [151] [129] Reports of the trustees.—On the first of January of each year, the board of trustees shall report in writing to the legislature the general operations of their respective asylums for the past two years, and accompany the same with such suggestions as they may deem important to the welfare of the institution. [Acts of 1883, p. 103.]

Art. 180. [152] [130a] Compensation of trustees.—The members of the respective boards of trustees shall be paid five dollars each per day and mileage at the rate of three cents per mile, in going to and returning from their respective asylums, for their services in attending the monthly meetings provided for in article 174; provided, that no member shall draw pay for said monthly meetings, unless he shall have actually attended said meeting; and provided, further, that no member can draw pay under this article for more than one day's attendance upon said monthly meeting; and the certificate of the president of the board, approved by the superintendent, shall be sufficient evidence upon which the comptroller can draw a warrant upon the treasurer of the state to pay the amount provided for in this article. [Acts 1905, p. 47; acts 1883, p. 103.]

Art. 181. [153] [130] Superintendent, appointment and term of office.—The board of trustees of each of said asylums, respectively, shall elect a superintendent of each of said asylums, who shall hold his office for the period of two years. Each of said superintendents shall have had special advantages and practical experience in the management of the persons committed to his charge by virtue of his appointment. [Acts of 1883, p. 103.]

Art. 182. [154] [131] Oath and bond.—The superintendent of each of said asylums shall, within twenty days after notification of his appointment, enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the state, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of said office; and he shall also take the oath prescribed by the constitution, which oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. [Id.]

Art. 183. [155] [132] Removal of superintendent.—The board of trustees of each of said asylums shall have power to remove the superintendent for good cause only. [Id.]

Art. 184. [156] [133] Powers of superintendent.—The superintendent shall be the administrative head of the asylum for which he is appointed, and shall have the power—

1. To establish such rules and regulations for the government of the institution as, in his judgment, will best promote the interest and welfare of all who may be placed in his charge.

2. Where not otherwise provided by law, to appoint the subordinate officers, the necessary number of teachers and all other employes, and, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, to fix their salaries.

3. To remove at his discretion any officer, teacher or employe who does not discharge his duty, or whose conduct may be such as to endanger the morals of the pupils or the best interests of the asylum. [Act March 6, 1875, p. 67, secs. 4, 5.]

Art. 185. [157] [134] Same subject—The superintendent shall also have the care and custody of the buildings, grounds, furniture and other property pertaining to the asylum, and shall act as the general financier and purchasing agent of the asylum for all supplies not furnished by contract in accordance with the provisions of chapter one of title 125. [Id.]

Art. 186. [158] [135] Report of receipts and expenditures.—At each regular meeting of the board of trustees, the superintendent shall present an itemized account of all receipts and expenditures by him on account of the asylum, which account shall be verified by his own affidavit; and for any expenses other than the supplies provided for in chapter one of title 125, the comptroller shall not draw his warrant upon the treasurer, unless the account upon which such warrant is drawn is certified as correct and just by the superintendent and is approved by the president of the board of trustees. [Id.]

Art. 187. [159] [136] Reports of superintendent.—On the first days of January and July of each year, the superintendent of each asylum shall report to the governor, under oath, a full statement of all moneys and choses in action received by him and disbursed or otherwise disposed of; and, on the first day of November of each year, he shall make his annual report to the governor, showing in detail the operations of the institution for the year, accompanied with such suggestions and recommendations as he may deem important to the well being of the institution over which he presides. [Const., Art. 4, sec. 24.]

2. PARTICULAR PROVISIONS.

a. Blind Asylum.

Art. 188. [160] [137] Appointment of oculist and qualifications.—The board of trustees and the superintendent shall appoint an oculist for the blind asylum, who shall be skilled in his profession and a married man, and who shall attend regularly at the asylum and administer treatment to all cases of blindness among its pupils deemed curable. [Acts of 1883, p. 109; amend. 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478.]

Art. 189. [161] [138] Removal of oculist.—The oculist shall hold his office for the period of two years, and the board of managers and the superintendent may remove him for good cause only. [Id.]

b. Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

Art. 190. [162] [139] Pupils to learn printing.—A certain number of the pupils at the deaf and dumb asylum, to be designated by the superintendent and trustees of that institution, shall each year receive instruction in the art of printing in all its branches; and the studies of such pupils shall be so arranged as not to interfere with such instruction and the execution of any public printing by them for the state. [Act March 13, 1875, pp. 91-2, secs. 1,2.]

Art. 191. [163] [140] Instructor, how appointed.—The board of public printing shall employ some competent practical printer as instructor at said asylum in the art of printing; and the person so employed shall, in addition, discharge such other duties as may be required of him by such board. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 192. [164] [141] His salary and removal.—The instructor provided for in the preceding article may be paid a compensation not to exceed one thousand dollars annually, and may be discharged at any time by the board of public printing. [Id.]

Art. 193. [165] [142] Public printing at asylum.—Any public printing for the state may be executed at the deaf and dumb asylum without regard to any contract with an individual to do the public printing thereof. [Id.; act June 27, 1876, p. 35, sec. 7.]

Art. 194. Provision for all deaf, dumb, and blind children.—The superintendent of the deaf and dumb asylum is hereby authorized and directed to make such provision as he may deem necessary for the maintenance, care and education of all children in the state who are deaf, dumb and blind. [Acts 1901, S. S., p. 20.]

Art. 195. Who to apply to.—Application for the maintenance, care and education of all such children shall be made by the parent or guardian of such child, or children, to the superintendent of the deaf and dumb asylum, under such rules as may be prescribed by him; provided, said children shall be placed in a reputable school established for the purposes herein mentioned. [Id.]

c. Orphan Asylum.

Art. 196. [166] Designation of institution.—This institution shall be known as the state orphan home or asylum. [Acts 1887, p. 129; acts 1899, p. 303.]

Art. 197. [166] Superintendent appointed how; duties.—The board of trustees of the orphan asylum shall appoint a superintendent for said home or alsyum, upon the nomination of the governor, whose duties of office shall be the supervision of the affairs of said home or asylum, under the direction of the board of trustees. [Id.]

Art. 198. [166] Industrial manager, appointed how; duties, salary.—The said board shall also elect an industrial manager for said home or asylum, whose duties and salary shall be prescribed by the board of trustees, subject to legislative appropriation, not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 199. [167] Children admitted, when.—Said board shall admit all children under the age of fourteen years, subject only to such restrictions as they may deem requisite to the welfare and good government of said asylum. [Acts 1887, p. 129.]

Art. 200. [168] List of children to be made, etc.—In addition to the other duties of said superintendent, he shall keep a carefully prepared list containing the names and ages of each and every child, as well as such other data concerning the history of said children as the board of trustees may prescribe, said lists to be recorded in a well bound book for said purpose, and subject to the inspection of all persons who may desire to examine its contents. He shall annually deliver over to the proper authorities a list of all children within the scholastic age, and see that their pro rata of the public free school fund is set aside to their credit, and that they are provided with proper educational facilities. He shall promptly answer all inquiries, by correspondence or otherwise, concerning the orphans under his charge, and promptly inform the board of trustees when an opportunity is presented to secure a good and permanent home for any child under his charge. [Id.]

Art. 201. [169] Child removed from, how.—No person shall be permitted to remove a child from said asylum except under such lawful rules and regulations as the board of managers may adopt; and in no case shall a child be removed therefrom by any person other than the natural guardian of said child, or the duly qualified guardian of the person of such child, or the parent of said child by adoption. [Id.]

Art. 202. [170] Salary of superintendent.—The superintendent of said home or asylum shall receive such salary each year as may be provided by the board of trustees, subject to legislative appropriation, not to exceed one thousand dollars. [Acts 1899, p. 304. Acts 1887, p. 129.]

Art. 203. [171] Matron's salary, etc.—There shall be a matron of said asylum to be chosen by the superintendent, with the consent of the board of trustees, whose salary shall not exceed forty-five dollars per month. [Acts 1887, p. 129.]

Art. 204. [171a] Board to dispose of artesian water.—The board of trustees of the state orphans home, situated at Corsicana, Texas, are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, lease or dispose of the surplus water belonging to the state, and flowing from the artesian well on the grounds of said orphans home, for such price and upon such terms and conditions as the said board may deem best; provided, that the term of said lease shall not exceed ten years. [Acts 1895, p. 15.]

d. Confederate Home.

Art. 205. [172] Board of trustees, term of office, duties, etc.—The governor shall appoint a board of trustees of five ex-confederate soldiers for the management of said home, said trustees to remain in office two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and they shall be governed in their regulations of the affairs of said home by the laws now in existence relative to the deaf, dumb and blind institutions of this state, so far as the same may be applicable, and shall make and prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the internal government, discipline and management of the home, and shall have power to enforce obedience to and compliance with said rules and regulations by discharging from the home, if in its judgment it be necessary, any inmate who may violate said rules and regulations; and said board shall be required to make such examinations from time to time as it may deem necessary, as to the qualifications and record as a soldier in the confederate army or navy of any inmate, and to discharge at once any said inmates who procured admission to the home by fraud or misrepresentation; and said board shall, every three months, cause to be examined by a board of physicians, consisting of the home physician and two others not connected with the home, any inmate who may be designated by the superintendent and the home physician, or by any member of the board of trustees, as to the physical condition of such inmate, and, if it be shown from said examination and report of said examining board that any inmate so examined has sufficiently recovered from his disabilities to be able to earn a living, such inmate shall be given an honorable discharge from the home, with transportation to the place from which he entered the home; provided, however, that such inmate be given twenty days notice of his dismissal, and that he be subject to all the rules and regulations governing the home during said twenty days, or such part of that time as he may remain in the home after said notice of dismissal be given. The two physicians assisting the home physician in such examinations shall be selected by the board of trustees; and they shall be paid for such service two dollars and fifty cents each for each examination made by them; and that said board of managers shall also have charge of all the property received from the John B. Hood camp confederate veterans, or from any other source, for the maintenance of said home. Said board of trustees shall make annual reports to the governor on the first day of each December, embracing a full statement of all expenditures and transactions of the institution for the fiscal year next preceding. They shall visit the home at least once each month. [Acts 1891, p. 14; and 1895, p. 42.]

Art. 206. [173] Superintendent's term of office, duties, etc.—The said board of trustees shall appoint a superintendent, who shall be an ex-confederate soldier, whose duties of office shall be the supervision of the affairs of said home, keeping the accounts of the same, and its general management, under the direction of the board of trustees. He shall be under the control of and subject to removal (for cause, duly spread upon the records of said home) by said board, and unless sooner removed by said board, for cause, shall hold his office for the term of two years, or until his successor shall be appointed and qualified.

In addition to his other duties he shall keep in a book prepared for that purpose the name and age of each inmate, date of admission to the home, the company and regiment or other command or capacity, in which the military service was performed, and the state from which he entered the service, and such other data concerning the history of the inmates as the board of trustees may prescribe. The superintendent of said home shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum. [Id.]

Art. 207. Secretary to superintendent; appointment, duties, compensation, etc.—The superintendent of said home shall be authorized to employ one clerk or secretary, who shall keep the books of the institution and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the superintendent. He shall be furnished board and lodging similar to other employes of the home, and receive as compensation for his services the sum of seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum, to be paid from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. [Acts 1903, p. 54.]

Art. 208. [174] Applications for admission, etc.—All applications for admission to said home must show on the oath of applicant—

1. Name of applicant.
2. His age.

3. His residence (county and postoffice address).
4. The company, regiment, brigade and army in which he served.
5. That he is disabled and indigent, and is not receiving a pension from any source, and is now a bona fide citizen of Texas. And further (if he did not serve in a Texas command) that he was a bona fide resident of Texas on January 1, 1895. Proof of the honorable service of applicant, as stated by himself, must be made by affidavit of two reputable persons, or by his written discharge, duly authenticated with sufficient proof of identity, or such other proof in manner and form as may be entirely satisfactory to the board of trustees. The application must also be accompanied by a certificate of a regular practicing physician that the applicant is unable to provide a support for himself, giving the character of the disability, and that the applicant is not a lunatic, and is not afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease. All applications for admission to said home shall be referred to and passed upon by the board of trustees. [Id.; amend., 1895, p. 42.]

e. Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum for Colored Youths.

Art. 209. [175] Qualification and term of office of the superintendent for the asylum for colored youths.—The board of trustees of this asylum shall appoint a superintendent of said asylum, whose salary shall be fifteen hundred dollars per year. Said superintendent shall be a man of mature years and experience and familiar with the duties of the position to which he may be elected. He shall be under the control of, and subject to removal, by said board, and, unless sooner removed by said board for cause, shall hold his office for a term of two years. [Acts of 1887, p. 150.]

Art. 210. [176] Powers and duties of board of trustees, and regulations for asylum.—The board of trustees shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the government of said asylum, said rules and regulations to conform as nearly as may be practicable with the rules and regulations of the asylums for like purposes in this state. Said board of trustees shall prescribe the duties of all subordinate officers or assistants in said asylum; shall appoint and may remove all such officers or assistants, determine their duties and their compensation; but said rules, appointments, and compensation shall not be in force until approved by the governor. The admission of all applicants to said asylum, their treatment, instruction, and continuance therein, all questions relating to their dismissal or removal, or voluntary departure from said asylum, or employment therein or thereabout, shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the state asylums for white youths for the deaf and dumb and blind. [Id.]

f. Epileptic Colony.

Art. 211. Asylum established, and name.—There shall be built, established and maintained a branch asylum for the care, treatment and support of the epileptic insane of the state, and such other insane persons as it may become necessary from time to time to confine and treat in said asylum. Said branch asylum shall be known as the epileptic colony. [Acts 1899, p. 4, sec. 1.]

Art. 212. Managers appointed by governor, powers.—The governor shall appoint a board of trustees for said branch asylum, with such powers and duties as are provided in this title. [Id. sec. 5.]

Support and management.—The support and general management of said asylum shall be the same as is now provided for other branch asylums of the state. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 213. Who admitted to colony.—All persons afflicted with epilepsy, who shall have been bona fide residents of this state for one year next preceding the filing of his application with the county judge, as herein provided, shall be admitted into the epileptic colony under the provisions of this subdivision with the following exceptions:

1. Idiots and imbeciles who are afflicted with epilepsy.
2. Those who are infirm and bedridden, or suffering from contagious or infectious disease.

By the terms idiot and imbecile are meant children or persons who, by arrest of development before or soon after birth, have but little or no mind. [Acts 1903, p. 163.]

Art. 214. Transfer of epileptics from insane asylums.—All epileptics, with the above exceptions, confined in the three insane asylums when the epileptic colony is ready for occupancy shall at once be transferred to the colony. When any person is admitted to any of the insane asylums, and it shall be found that such person is an epileptic, he shall at once be transferred to the epileptic colony. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 215. Transfer of transcripts and histories.—It shall be the duty of the superintendents of the insane asylums to transmit to the superintendent of the epileptic colony all transcripts of legal proceedings and histories of all epileptics transferred, which they may have in their possession. [Id., sec. 2.]

Art. 216. Transportation, etc., expenses, how paid.—The expense of the transportation of all patients and necessary attendants transferred from the insane asylums to colony shall be paid out of the appropriation for the support and maintenance of the colony. [Id., sec. 2.]

Art. 217. Classification of transferred patients.—All patients so transferred shall be received in the epileptic colony as of the class in which they were admitted into the insane asylums; that is, as indigent public patients, public patients not indigent, or private patients. [Id., sec. 2.]

Art. 218. Classification of patients admitted.—Patients admitted to the epileptic colony shall be of three classes, viz.:

1. Indigent public patients.
2. Non-indigent public patients.
3. Private patients. [Id., sec. 3.]

Art. 219. Indigent public patients defined; supported by state.—Indigent public patients are those who possess no property of any kind, nor have any one legally liable for their support and able to reimburse the state. This class shall be supported entirely at the expense of the state. [Id., sec. 3.]

Art. 220. Non-indigent public patients defined; maintained by state, but reimbursement; suit; duties of county attorney and superintendent.—Non-indigent public patients are those who possess some property, out of which the state may be reimbursed, or who have some one legally liable for their support and able to reimburse the state. This class shall be kept and maintained at the expense of the state in the first instance; but in such cases the state shall have the right to be reimbursed for the support of such patients, and the claim of the state for such support shall constitute a valid indebtedness against any such patient, or in case he has a guardian, against his estate, or against the person or persons who may be legally liable for his support and financially able to contribute thereto, as herein aforesaid, and such claim may be collected by suit or other proceedings in the name of the state by the county attorney of the county from which said patient is sent, against such patient, his guardian, or the person or persons liable for his support, as the case may be; such suit or proceeding to be instituted upon the request in writing of the superintendent of the colony, accompanied by his certificate as to the amount due the state, which shall in no case exceed five dollars per week. In all such suits or proceedings the certificate of the superintendent shall be sufficient evidence of the amount due the state for the support of such patient. It shall be the duty of the county attorney, upon such request being made, to institute and conduct such suit or proceedings, and for which he shall be entitled to a commission of ten per cent of the amount collected. All moneys so collected, less the commission above provided, shall be by the county attorney paid into the state treasury, and placed in the general funds. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 221. Private patients admitted how; maintained at own expense or that of relatives, etc., contract and terms.—Private patients may be admitted into said colony upon application of parent, guardian, or friend, under such regulations as the board of managers and superintendent may prescribe, not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision. Such patients shall be kept and maintained at the colony at their own expense, or at the expense of their guardian, relatives, or friends, and, for the board and care of such patients, the superintendent may make a special contract at a rate not less than five dollars per week; and at the time of the admission of any such patient into the colony his board must be paid in advance for six months and bond and security given for the prompt payment of all future expenses of such patient, as may from time to time be required by the rules and regulations of the colony. All moneys so collected shall be paid directly into the state treasury and placed in the general fund. [Id., sec. 3.]

Art. 222. Application for admission of public patient; requisites.—The parent, guardian, or friend of any epileptic, not seeking admission as a private patient, may make application in writing and under oath to the county judge of the county wherein such epileptic resides, for the admission of the epileptic into the epileptic colony, which application shall show, (1) the name of the epileptic, (2) sex, (3) age and nativity, (4) whether possessed of any property, and if so, what, and the estimated value thereof, (5) whether the epileptic has any one legally liable for his support, if so, whom, what property possessed by such person, and the estimated value thereof, (6) residence of the epileptic for the year next preceding the date of application, (7) occupation, trade or employment, (8) parent or parents, if living, or guardian, if any, (9) name of husband or wife, if any, (10) children, if any, number, age and sex, (11) relatives similarly affected, insane, inebriate, consumptive or criminal. [Id., sec. 4.]

Art. 223. Certificates to accompany application; requisites.—Said application shall be accompanied with a certificate of a reputable practicing physician, stating that he has carefully examined the person for whose admission application is made and that such person is afflicted with epilepsy, and which certificate shall also show, (1) the age of the epileptic at first attack, (2) the date of the last attack, (3) physical condition, (4) accompanying bodily disorders; and it shall be the duty of the county judge to certify that the physician making this certificate is a reputable physician actively engaged in the practice of his profession, and has complied with the laws of this state granting license to physicians to practice medicine. [Id., sec. 5.]

Art. 224. County judge's duty if not satisfied.—If the county judge is not satisfied as to the showing made in said application and certificate, or either, he may subpoena witnesses and examine them under oath touching such matters. [Id., sec. 6.]

Art. 225. County judge's duty if applicant appears entitled.—If it be made to appear to the county judge that such epileptic is entitled to admission into the colony under the provisions of this subdivision, he shall forward an application for admission to the superintendent of the colony, which application shall be accompanied with full copy of the proceedings had in such case, and the original shall be filed in the office of the county clerk. [Id., sec. 6.]

Art. 226. Where applicant appears not indigent.—If the county judge should find that the person for whom application is made is in fact not indigent, then he shall make application for his admission as a non-indigent patient, and so show in his application to the superintendent. The object of this provision is to make it the duty of the county judge upon careful investigation to determine whether such person shall be admitted into the colony as an indigent public patient, or a non-indigent public patient. [Id., sec. 6.]

Art. 227. Compensation of county judge.—For all services needed in connection with such matter in each case, the county judge shall be paid by the county the sum of three dollars. [Id., sec. 6.]

Art. 228. Patients to be received when there is room; preference to indigents and to public patients.—When there is room in the colony, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to receive such patient, and, when application is made for more patients than can be admitted, he shall give preference to indigent public patients over non-indigent public patients, and shall at all times give preference to both of the classes mentioned over private patients. [Id., sec. 7.]

Art. 229. Clothing to be supplied patients.—It shall be the duty of the county judge to see that each patient admitted to the colony is supplied with three full suits of substantial clothing. [Id., sec. 8.]

Art. 230. Clothing and transportation of indigent patients paid by county; that of non-indigents by them, etc.—The expense of such clothing and the transportation of indigent public patients and necessary escort, and compensation to such escort, shall be paid by the county from which the patient shall be sent. [Id., sec. 8.]

Art. 231. Clothing, etc., non-indigent to pay for; escort, pay of.—Non-indigent public patients shall pay for such clothing and transportation and escort, or the same may be paid by his parent, guardian or friend. In no case shall such escort be entitled to charge or receive more than two dollars per day and expenses actually necessary in going to and returning from the colony. [Id., sec. 8.]

Art. 232. Object of colony.—The object of the colony being to secure the humane, scientific and economical treatment of epileptics, to fulfill this design it shall be the duty of the superintendent and board of managers of the colony to prepare and adopt by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the colony, prescribing the duty of all officers and employes, and for enforcing the necessary discipline and restraint of all patients. [Id., sec. 9. Acts 1901, p. 11; 1900, p. 16; 1899, p. 4.]

Article 240. [186] [152] Attachments may be issued by whom.—The judges and clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace may issue writs of original attachment, returnable to their respective courts, upon the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, making an affidavit in writing, stating—

1. That the defendant is justly indebted to the plaintiff and the amount of the demand; and
2. That the defendant is not a resident of the state, or is a foreign corporation, or is acting as such; or
3. That he is about to remove permanently out of the state, and has refused to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff; or
4. That he secretes himself so that the ordinary process of law can not be served on him; or
5. That he has secreted his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors; or
6. That he is about to secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors; or
7. That he is about to remove his property out of the state, without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts; or
8. That he is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the county where the suit is brought, with intent to defraud his creditors; or
9. That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors; or
10. That he is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; or
11. That he is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or

12. That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. [Acts Dec. 16, 1863, p. 37.]

Art. 241. [187] [153] What facts must further appear.—The affidavit shall further state—

1. That the attachment is not sued out for the purpose of injuring or harassing the defendant; and

2. That the plaintiff will probably lose his debt unless such attachment is issued. [Act Dec. 16, 1863, p. 37. P. D. 142.]

Art. 242. [188] [154] Not to issue until suit begun.—No such attachment shall issue until the suit has been duly instituted; but it may be issued in a proper case either at the commencement of the suit or at any time during its progress. [Act March 11, 1848. P. D. 165.]

Art. 243. [189] [155] Attachment may issue on debt not yet due, but no judgment until debt becomes due.—The writ of attachment above provided for may issue, although the plaintiff's debt or demand be not due, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as in other cases, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until such debt or demand shall become due. [Act March 11, 1848. P. D. 154.]

Art. 244. [190] [156] Plaintiff must give bond with security.—Before the issuance of any writ of attachment, the plaintiff must execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the defendant, in a sum not less than double the debt sworn to be due, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his suit to effect, and will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment. [Act March 11, 1848. P. D. 143.]

Art. 245. [191] [157] Bond to be approved and filed.—Such bond shall be delivered to and approved by the officer issuing the writ, and shall, together with the affidavit, be filed with the papers of the cause.

Art. 246. [192] [158] Form of bond.—The following form of bond may be used:

“The State of Texas,

“County of—

“We, the undersigned, A B, ——— as principal, and ——— and ——— as sureties, acknowledge ourselves bound to pay to C D the sum of ——— dollars, conditioned that the above bound A B, plaintiff in attachment against the said C D, defendant, will prosecute his said suit to effect, and that he will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment. Witness our hands this ——— day of ——— 19—

“A B, “E F,
“G H.”

[Act March 11, 1848, P. D. 163.]

Art. 247. [193] [159] Attachment abated for want of affidavit or bond.—Every original attachment issued without affidavit and bond, as herein provided, shall be abated on motion of the defendant; but such affidavit and bond shall not be void for want of form, provided they contain all essential matters. [Act March 11, 1848. P. D. 147-8.]

Art. 248. [194] [160] Upon execution of affidavit and bond, writ to issue instant.—Upon the execution of such affidavit and bond, it shall be the duty of the judge or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, immediately to issue a writ of attachment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county where property of the defendant may be supposed to be, commanding him to attach so much of the property of the defendant as shall be sufficient to satisfy the demand of the plaintiff and the probable costs of the suit. [Act March 11, 1848. P. D. 145.]

Art. 249. [195] [161] Several writs.—Several writs of attachment may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession, and sent to different counties, until sufficient property shall be attached to satisfy the writ.

Art. 250. [196] [162] Form of the writ.—The following form of writ may be issued:

“The State of Texas,

“To the sheriff or any constable of ——— county, greeting:

“We command you that you attach forthwith so much of the property of C D, if to be found in your county, repleviable on security, as shall be of value sufficient to make the sum of ——— dollars, and the probable costs of suit, to satisfy the demand of A, B, and that you keep and secure in your hands the property so attached, unless replevied, that the same may be liable to further proceedings thereon, to be had before our court in ———, in the county of ———, on the ——— day of ——— 19—, when and where you shall make known how you have executed this writ.” [Id. P. D. 163.]

Art. 251. [197] [163] Writ to be dated, tested and lodged with sheriff, etc.—The writ of attachment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer issuing it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Art. 252. [198] [164] Duty of sheriff, etc.—The sheriff or constable receiving the writ shall immediately proceed to execute the same by levying upon so much of the property of the defendant subject to the writ, and found within his county, as may be sufficient to satisfy the command of the writ. [P. D. 145.]

Art. 253. [199] [165] May demand indemnity.—Whenever an officer shall levy an attachment, it shall be at his own risk; and such officer may, for his own indemnification, require the plaintiff in attachment to execute and deliver to him a bond of indemnity to secure him, if it should afterward appear that the property levied upon by him does not belong to the defendant. [P. D. 151.]

Art. 254. [200] [166] Property subject to attachment.—The writ of attachment may be levied on such property, and none other, as is, or may be, by law subject to levy under the writ of execution.

Art. 255. [201] [167] Levy, how made.—The writ of attachment shall be levied in the same manner as is, or may be, the writ of execution upon similar property.

Art. 256. [202] [168] Personal property to remain in the hands of officer, unless.—When personal property is attached, the same shall remain in the hands of the officer attaching until final judgment, unless a claim be made thereto and bond be given to try the right to the same, or unless the same be replevied or be sold as provided by law. [P. D. 145.]

Art. 257. [203] [169] Claimant's bond and affidavit.—Any person other than the defendant may claim the personal property so levied on, or any part thereof, upon making the affidavit and giving bond required by the provisions of the title relating to the trial of the right of property. [P. D. 5310.]

Art. 258. [204] [170] Replevy by the defendant.—At any time before judgment, should the property not have been previously claimed or sold, as provided in this chapter, the defendant may replevy the same, or any part thereof, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer who levied the writ, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, or, at the defendant's option, for the value of the property replevied, to be estimated by the officer, conditioned that, should the defendant be condemned in the action, he shall satisfy the judgment which may be rendered therein, or shall pay the estimated value of the property with lawful interest thereon, from the date of the bond. [P. D. 150.]

Art. 259. [205] [171] Sale of perishable property, etc.—Whenever personal property which has been attached shall not have been claimed or replevied as above provided, the judge, or justice of the peace, out of whose court the writ was issued, may, either in term time or in vacation, order the same to be sold, when it shall be made to appear that such property is in danger of serious and immediate waste or decay, or that the keeping of the same until the trial will necessarily be attended with such expense or deterioration in value as greatly to lessen the amount likely to be realized therefrom. [P. D. 155.]

Art. 260. [206] [172] Procedure for sale of perishable property, etc.—In ascertaining the facts which authorize the making of such order of sale under the preceding article, the judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, may require or dispense with notice to the parties, and may act upon such information, by affidavit, certificate of the attaching officer, or other proof as may seem to him necessary to protect the interest of the parties.

Art. 261. [207] [173] Sale of perishable property, how made.—Such sale shall be conducted in the same manner as sales of personal property under execution, except as to the time of advertisement, which may be fixed by the judge, or the justice, for a shorter period, according to the exigency of the case. [P. D. 155.]

Art. 262. [208] [174] Return of sale of perishable property, etc.—The proceeds of such sale shall, within five days thereafter, be paid over by the officer making the sale to the clerk of the court, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, accompanied by a statement in writing, signed by such officer officially, to be filed with the papers, stating the time and place of the sale, the name of the purchaser, and the amount received, with an itemized account of the expenses attending the sale. [P. D. 155.]

Art. 263. [209] [175] Judge may make necessary orders for the preservation, etc. of property not replevied.—If the personal property be not replevied or claimed or sold under the several provisions of this chapter, the judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, may either in term time or in vacation make such order for the preservation or use of the same as shall appear to be to the interest of the parties.

Art. 264. [210] [176] Return of the writ.—The officer executing the writ of attachment shall return the writ, with his action indorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, to the court from which it issued, on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Art. 265. [211] [177] Requisites of the return.—Such return shall describe the property attached with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state when the same was attached, and whether any personal property attached remains still in his hands, and, if not, the disposition made of the same; and when personal property has been replevied he shall deliver the replevy to the clerk to be filed with the papers of the cause.

Art. 266. [212] [178] Report of disposition of property, made after return of original writ.—When the property levied on is claimed, replevied, or sold, or otherwise disposed of, after the writ has been returned, the officer having the custody of the same shall immediately make a report in writing, signed by him officially, to the clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, showing such disposition of the property; and such report shall be filed among the papers of the cause.

Art. 267. [213] [179] Attachment creates a lien.—The execution of the writ of attachment upon any property of the defendant subject thereto, unless the writ should be quashed or otherwise vacated, shall create a lien from the date of such levy on the real estate levied on and on such personal property as remains in the hands of the attaching officer, and on the proceeds of such personal property as may have been sold.

Art. 268. [214] [180] Judgment of foreclosure.—Should the plaintiff recover in the suit, such attachment lien shall be foreclosed as in case of other liens, and the court shall direct the proceeds of the personal property sold to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, and the sale of personal property remaining in the hands of the officer and of the real estate levied on, to satisfy the judgment; provided, however, that when an attachment issued from a county or justice court has been levied upon land, no order or decree foreclosing the lien thereby acquired shall be necessary, but the judgment shall briefly recite the issuance and levy of such attachment, and such recital shall be sufficient to preserve such lien. The land so attached may be sold under execution after judgment, and the sale thereof shall vest in the purchaser all the estate of the defendant in attachment in such land, at the time of the levy of such writ of attachment. [Acts of 1885, p. 73.]

Art. 269. [215] [181] Judgment when property is replevied.—When personal property has been levied on, as hereinbefore provided, the judgment shall also be against the defendant and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such replevy bond.

Art. 270. [216] [182] Order of court when attachment quashed; pending appeal, property may be replevied.—Should the attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated by interlocutory judgment or order of the court, the court shall make the proper order making disposition of the property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has been sold under order of the court directing that it be turned over to the defendant. But the property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has not been replevied, shall remain in the hands of the officers pending the final disposition of the main case and until it shall be finally disposed of, or until the time for perfecting an appeal has elapsed and no appeal has been perfected, when said order disposing of the property shall be carried into effect; provided, that, pending the final disposition of the main case, the defendant shall have the right at any time to replevy the property in the same manner as is provided for in article 258 of this chapter; or if the property has been sold he may replevy the proceeds of such sale by giving a bond in double the amount of the money arising from such sale, with like conditions as are contained in article 258. And any replevy bond given in such case, whether before or after the quashing or vacating such attachment, shall be as valid and binding as if such attachment had never been quashed or vacated. [Acts of 1891, p. 29.]

Article 271. [217] [183] Writ of garnishment, who may issue and when.

—The clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace may issue writs of garnishment, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. Where an original attachment has been issued as provided in the foregoing chapter.

2. Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the defendant has not within his knowledge property in his possession within this state, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such debt; and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee.

3. Where the plaintiff has a judgment and makes affidavit that the defendant has not, within his knowledge, property in his possession within this state, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such judgment. [P. D. 157. P. D. 3785. Act April 20, 1874, p. 113, sec. 1.]

Art. 272. [218] [184] Bond when no attachment has issued and no judgment has been rendered.—In the case mentioned in subdivision two of the preceding article; the plaintiff shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that he will prosecute his suit to effect and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment. [Act April 20, 1874, p. 113, sec. 1.]

Art. 273. [219] [185] Application for the writ, etc.—Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment, the plaintiff shall make application therefor in writing, under oath, signed by him, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant, or that he has in his hands effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein.

Art. 274. [220] [186] Case shall be docketed, etc.—When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the judge, or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant; and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before the court out of which the same is issued, on the first day of the ensuing term thereof, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant, and was when such writ was served, and what effects, if any, of the defendant he has in his possession, and had when such writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the defendant or have effects belonging to him in their possession. [P. D. 157.]

Art. 275. [221] [187] Requisites when writ is against incorporated or joint stock company to subject shares, etc.—Where it appears from the plaintiff's affidavit that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is the owner of shares, or is interested therein, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company, or owned when such writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, or had when such writ was served. [Act March 13, 1875, p. 102, secs. 1, 2.]

Art. 276. [222] [188] Form of writ.—The following form of writ may be used:

“The State of Texas,

“To the sheriff or any constable of ——— county, greeting:

“Whereas, in the ——— court of ——— county [if a justice's court, state also the number of the precinct], in a certain cause wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff, claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of ——— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against E F, who is alleged to be a resident of your county [or to be within your county, as the case may be]; therefore you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before the said court at the next term thereof, to be held at ———, in said county, on the ——— day of ———, 19—, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D, and was when this writ was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession, and had when this writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; [and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or interested therein, then the writ shall proceed: And further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company, and owned when such writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this writ make due return as the law directs.”

Art. 277. [[223] [189] Writ to be dated, tested and delivered to the sheriff, etc.—The writ of garnishment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer who issued it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Art. 278. [224] [190] Sheriff, etc., to execute and return writ forthwith.—The sheriff or constable receiving the writ of garnishment shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof as of other citations.

Art. 279. [225] [191] Effect of service of writ; defendant may replevy.—From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt or to deliver to him any effects; nor shall the garnishee, if an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest; and any such payment or delivery, sale or transfer, shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, effects, shares, or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand; provided, however, that the defendant may, at any time before judgment, replevy any effects, debts, shares, or claims of any kind seized or garnished, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the officer who issued the writ of garnishment, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, and conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be rendered against the said garnishee in such suit, which bond when properly approved shall be filed among the papers in the cause in the court in which the suit is pending; and in all proceedings in garnishment where the defendant gives bond as herein provided for, such defendant may make any defense which the defendant in garnishment could make in such suit. [Acts of 1889, p. 1.]

Art. 280. [226] [192] Answer to the writ must be in writing, under oath and signed.—The answer of the garnishee shall be under oath, in writing, and signed by him, and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment.

Art. 281. [227] [198] Garnishee to be discharged on his answer, when.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant, and was not so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served on him, and that he has not in his possession any effects of the defendant and had not when the writ was served, and when the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of any shares of stock or interested therein, if it shall further appear from such answer that the defendant is not and was not, when the writ was served, the owner of any of such shares, or interested in such company, and should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee.

Art. 282. [228] [194] Judgment by default, when.—Should the garnishee, being a resident of the county where the proceeding is pending, fail to make answer to the writ, it shall be lawful for the court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, and on or after default day, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs. [P. D. 159.]

Art. 283. [229] [195] When garnishee residing in another county fails to answer, commission to issue.—If the garnishee resides in some other county than that in which the proceeding is pending, and fails to make answer to the writ, the court shall, on motion of the plaintiff, issue a commission addressed to the clerk of the district court, the county judge, the clerk of the county court, or any notary public of the county in which the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, requiring him to cite such garnishee to answer the writ of garnishment. [P. D. 167.]

Art. 284. [230]. [196] Form of commission.—The following form of commission may be used:

“The State of Texas,

“To the clerk of the district court, the county judge, clerk of the county court, or any notary public of _____ county, greeting:

“Whereas, on the _____ day of _____, _____, in a certain cause pending in this court wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of ——— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, a writ of garnishment was issued by this court against E F, of your county, which was afterward returned duly served on the ——— day of ———, 19——; and whereas the said E F has failed to make answer to the said writ; now, therefore, you are hereby commanded worthwith to summon the said E F before you, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D and was when the said writ of garnishment was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession and had when the said writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; [and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, or interested therein, the commission shall proceed: And further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company and owned when the said writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in said company, and had when the said writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this commission make return forthwith.”

Art. 285. [231] [197] Tested, how.—The commission shall be dated and tested as writs usually are.

Art. 286. [232] [198] Duty of officer receiving commission.—Upon the receipt of such commission, by any of the officers named in the preceding article, he shall immediately issue a citation, directed to the sheriff or any constable of his county, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before him at a time and place to be named in the citation, to answer upon oath as directed in article 230. [284.] [P. D. 167.]

Art. 287. [233] [199] Form of writ to be issued by commissioner for garnishee residing in another county.—The following form of writ may be used in such cases:

“The State of Texas,

“To the sheriff or any constable of ——— county, greeting:

“Whereas, in a certain cause pending in the ——— court of ——— county [if a justice’s court state the number of the precinct], wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, wherein the plaintiff claims of the said defendant the sum of ——— dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, a writ of garnishment was issued against E F of your county, which was duly served upon him on the ——— day of ———, 19——, requiring him to answer thereto before the said court at its late term, and whereas the said garnishee has failed to answer as required by said writ, and whereas a commission has been issued by the said court and lodged in my hands, whereby I am commanded to summon the said E F before me to make such answer; therefore, you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before me, at my office in ———, on the ——— day of ———, 19——, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the aforesaid C D, and was when the aforesaid writ of garnishment was so served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession and had when the said writ was so served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; and if the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, or interested therein, the writ shall proceed: And further, to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company and owned when the said writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, and had when the said writ was served.] Herein fail not, but of this writ make return forthwith.”

Art. 288. [234] [200] Writ to be dated and tested, how.—The writ shall be dated and tested by the officer issuing it, with his official signature and seal of office.

Art. 289. [235] [201] Sheriff, etc., to execute and return writ forthwith.—The sheriff or constable receiving such writ shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof without delay to the officer who issued it.

Art. 290. [236] [202] Duty of commissioner when garnishee in another county appears and answers.—Should the garnishee appear and answer, in obedience to the writ, the officer executing the commission shall return the same, together with the answer of the garnishee, duly certified under his hand and seal of office, to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace who issued it; whereupon, like proceedings shall be had as provided in cases of answers of a garnishee residing in the county. [P. D. 167.]

Art. 291. [237] [203] Duty of commissioner when he fails to appear and answer.—Should the garnishee fail to appear in obedience to the writ, or having appeared, should he fail or refuse to answer, or to answer fully, the officer holding such commission shall return the same, together with the citation for the garnishee issued by him, and the service indorsed thereon, and a statement duly certified by him under his hand and seal of office of such failure or refusal, to the clerk of the court or justice of the peace who issued the commission. [P. D. 167.]

Art. 292. [238] [204] Proceedings on return of certificate of such refusal to answer.—Upon the return of such commission with the citation for the garnishee, and the return thereon, and the certificate of such failure or refusal of the garnishee to answer, as mentioned in the preceding article, it shall be lawful for the court at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, and on or after default day, to render judgment against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs, unless the defendant shall have previously filed a full and complete answer to the writ, and shall have also shown some good and sufficient excuse for his failure to appear and answer before the officer holding such commission. [P. D. 167.]

Art. 293. [239] [205] Judgment against the garnishee when he is indebted.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, made in either of the modes provided for in this chapter, or should it be otherwise made to appear, as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant in any amount, or was so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against the garnishee, for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount shall exceed the amount of the plaintiff's judgment against the defendant, with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such judgment, interest and costs. [P. D. 157.]

Art. 294. [240] [206] Judgment against the garnishee for effects.—Should it appear from the garnishee's answer, or otherwise, that the garnishee has in his possession, or had when the writ was served, any effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff or any constable presenting an execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [P. D. 157.]

Art. 295. [241] [207] Remedy when garnishee refuses to deliver effects found to be in his possession.—Should the garnishee be adjudged to have effects of the defendant in his possession, as provided in the preceding article, fail or refuse to deliver them to the sheriff or constable on such demand, the officer shall immediately make return of such failure or refusal, whereupon, on motion of the plaintiff, the garnishee shall be cited to show cause at the next term of the court why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal; and should the garnishee fail to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure or refusal, he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such effects.

Art. 296. [242] [208] Judgment against incorporated companies, etc., for shares of stock or interest.—Where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and it appears from the answer, or otherwise, that the defendant is, or was when the writ of garnishment was served, the owner of any shares of stock in such company, or any interest therein, the court shall render a decree, ordering the sale under execution, in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, of such shares, or interest, of the defendant in such company, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [Act March 13, 1875, p. 103, sec. 3.]

Art. 297. [243] [209] Sales of shares of stock, etc., how made.—The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution; and the sheriff or constable making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares or interest to the purchaser, with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold. [Act March 13, 1875, p. 103, sec. 5.]

Art. 298. [244] [210] Effect of such sale.—Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, or in such company; and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the same had been made by the defendant himself. [Act March 13, 1875, p. 104, sec. 3.]

Art. 299. [245] [211] Plaintiff may traverse answer to garnishee.—If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of any garnishee, he may controvert the same by an affidavit in writing, signed by him, stating that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particular he believes the same is incorrect. [P. D. 161.]

Art. 300. [246] [212] Defendant may traverse the answer.—The defendant may also, in like manner, controvert the answer of the garnishee. [P. D. 160.]

Art. 301. [247] [213] Trial of issue on controverted answer.—If the garnishee whose answer is controverted, as provided in the two preceding articles, is a resident of the county in which the proceeding is pending, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases. [P. D. 161.]

Art. 302. [248] [214] Trial of issue on controverted answer when garnishee resides in another county.—If the garnishee whose answer is so controverted be a resident of some county other than that in which the proceeding is pending, the plaintiff may file in any court of the county where the garnishee may reside, having jurisdiction of the amount of the judgment in the original suit, a duly certified copy of such original judgment and of the proceedings in garnishment, including the plaintiff's application for the writ and the answer of the garnishee and the affidavit controverting the same. [P. D. 161.]

Art. 303. [249] [215] Case to be docketed and notice to issue.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of such court or the justice of the peace, as the case may be, on receiving such certified copies, to docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant, and to issue a notice to the garnishee, stating that his answer has been so controverted, and that the issue between him and the plaintiff will stand for trial at the next term of court. [P. D. 164.]

Art. 304. [250] [216] Notice, to whom directed and how executed.—Such notice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and shall be dated and tested as other process from such court, and shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant.

Art. 305. [251] [217] Issue tried as other cases.—Upon the return of such notice served, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases. [P. D. 161.]

Art. 306. [252] [218] Current wages not subject to garnishment.—No current wages for personal service shall be subject to garnishment; and where it appears upon the trial that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for such current wages, the garnishee shall nevertheless be discharged as to such indebtedness. [Const., art. 16, sec. 28.]

Art. 307. [253] [219] Costs.—Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer, the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and the garnishee is held thereon, such costs shall be taxed against the defendant and included in the execution provided for in this chapter; where the answer is contested, the costs shall abide the issue of such contest.

Art. 308. [254] [220] Garnishee discharged from liability to defendant.—It shall be a sufficient answer to any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee, or on the possession by him of any effects, or where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock or other interest therein, for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid, or such effects were delivered, or such shares of stock or other interest in such company were sold under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Article 309. [256] [222] Boards of legal examiners; appointment; qualifications; oath, terms, etc.—Each of the courts of civil appeals shall, every two years, appoint a board of legal examiners for their respective districts, which said board shall consist of three members, possessing the same qualifications required for eligibility to the office of district judge, and who shall reside in the district for which they are appointed during their term of office. Said members shall each, before entering upon their duties, take and subscribe the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of legal examiner, as required by law and the rules and regulations of the supreme court of the state of Texas, to the best of my skill and ability. So help me God." And said legal examiners shall hold their office for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified, and the majority of said members shall constitute a quorum. [Acts 1897, p. 17. Acts 1846, p. 245. Acts 1903, p. 59.]

Art. 310. [256] [222] Duties of boards; sessions. It shall be the duty of said board of legal examiners to examine, in writing, applicants for license in practice of law in the manner hereinafter required. They shall hold not less than four sessions in each year, which sessions shall be held at the place where their respective courts are located, and may hold other sessions in other parts of their respective districts, if they should see proper to do so. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 311. Course of study prescribed by supreme court for examination.—It shall be the duty of the supreme court to prescribe a course of study to be pursued and the subjects in which applicants shall be examined and such general rules governing such examinations as said court may find necessary, and the same shall be uniform throughout the state. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 312. [256] [222] Application for license; certificate of residence, character, etc.—Any person desiring to obtain any license to practice as attorney and counselor at law, in the courts of this state, shall make application to one of the boards of legal examiners, accompanied with a certificate from the county commissioners' court of the county of his residence, that he has been a resident of the state at least six months, that he is twenty-one years of age, and that he has a good reputation for moral character and honorable deportment. Such applicant shall also furnish such other evidence of moral character and honorable deportment as may be required by the rules of the supreme court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 313. [256] [222] Examination.—The applicant shall appear at some meeting of said board within six months next thereafter, and be examined as prescribed by the rules of the supreme court and this article. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 314. [256] [222] Applicant refused must apply again to same board.—When any applicant, upon examination, is refused license, all subsequent applications by such applicant must be made to the same board of legal examiners that refused the license. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 315. [256] [222] Examinations, how conducted.—All applicants shall be examined in writing on all of the subjects prescribed by the supreme court, and their answers shall be graded; and no applicant shall be granted a license, unless he makes a grade of not less than fifty in all branches and a general average of not less than seventy-five. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 316. [256] [222] License granted to whom.—All applicants who make the required grade shall be granted by said board a permanent license to practice as attorney and counselor at law in all courts of this state, the same to be signed by all or a majority of said board, and sealed with the seal of their respective courts. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 317. [257] [222a] License to holder of diploma from university of Texas; conditions; clerk to issue; oath.—Any person holding a diploma from the law department of the university of Texas shall be entitled to a license to practice as an attorney and counselor at law in all the courts of this state, without any further examination, upon presentation to the clerk of the supreme court of the state such diploma within twelve months from the issuance of the same together with a certificate from the commissioners' court of the county in which such person resides, showing that such person bears a good reputation for moral character and honorable deportment, that he has resided in such county for at least six months, is at least twenty-one years of age, and such other and further facts as may be required by the supreme court of this state; and the clerk of the supreme court of Texas is hereby authorized and empowered to issue said license upon payment of the fee of ten dollars, as required by law; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to exempt the applicant for license from taking the oath required by law; and provided, further, that any diploma issued by said university on a grade less than that prescribed by the supreme court for examinations of applicants shall not entitle the holder thereof to such license. [Acts 1903, p. 60. Acts 1897, p. 17. Acts 1846, p. 245. Acts 1905, p. 150.]

Art. 318. [258] [223] Immigrant attorney granted license, how.—Any person who immigrates to this state from any other state of the United States, with a view of permanently residing herein, and who has been granted a license to practice in the courts of record in said state, may file his said license, together with a certificate of a good reputation for moral character and honorable deportment given under the hand and seal of a judge of a court of record of the county or district of his residence in the state from which he removes, said certificate to be of date not exceeding three months prior to his removal to this state, with the board of legal examiners, in lieu of his certificate from the commissioners' court, and be examined in the same manner as resident applicants. [Acts 1897, p. 17. Acts 1846, p. 245. Acts 1903, p. 60.]

Art. 319. Board to keep records.—Said board of legal examiners shall keep a record of all applicants and the grades made by them, and abstract of all licenses issued, which said records shall be kept in the office of the clerk of their respective courts of civil appeals, and shall be a part of the record of said court. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 320. Fees of examiners.—The board of legal examiners shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars for each applicant examined by them, or to whom a license is granted, said fee to be paid in advance by the applicant. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 321. Supreme court, entry of attorney's name on rolls of, how effected.—All attorneys desiring their names entered on the rolls of the supreme court shall forward their license or diploma to the clerk of the supreme court, who shall enter the name of said attorney on the roll of said court, and return said license and diploma without charge. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 322. [260] [225] Oath of attorney.—Every person admitted to practice law shall, before receiving license, take an oath that he will support the constitution of the United States and of this state; that he will honestly demean himself in the practice of the law, and will discharge his duty to his client to the best of his ability; which oath shall be indorsed upon his license, subscribed by him and attested by the officer administering the same. [Act Jan. 18, 1860, p. 25. P. D. 172.]

Art. 323. [261] [226] Persons convicted of felony shall not be licensed.—No person convicted of a felony shall receive license as an attorney at law; or, if licensed, any court of record in which such person may practice shall, on proof of a conviction of any felony, supersede his license and strike his name from the roll of attorneys. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 245. P. D. 173.]

Art. 324. [262] [227] Misbehavior or contempt, how punished.—Each attorney at law shall be subject to fine or imprisonment by any court in which he may practice for misbehavior or for contempt offered to such court; but no attorney shall be suspended or stricken from the rolls for contempt, unless it involve fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice. [Act Jan. 18, 1860, p. 25. P. D. 177.]

Art. 325. [263] [228] May be suspended or license revoked, when.—Any attorney at law who shall be guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct, or of any malpractice, or of contempt, involving fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, may be suspended, or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such attorney resides, or of the county where such conduct or malpractice occurred in manner and form as hereinafter provided. [Id. P. D. 177.]

Art. 326. [264] [229] Shall be cited to show cause, etc., when.—If any district court observes any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice by any attorney at law, or if complaint be made to the district court of such conduct or malpractice by a judge of any court, a practicing attorney, a county commissioner or justice of the peace, such court shall order the attorney to be cited to show cause why his license shall not be suspended or revoked.

Art. 327. [265] [230] Complaint, how made, etc.—Such complaint shall be made in writing, shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and filed with the clerk of the court. If the citation be ordered upon the observation of the court, the charge and the grounds thereof shall be set out distinctly in the order of the court.

Art. 328. [266] [231] Citation, how issued and when served.—The citation shall be issued in the name of the state of Texas and in manner and form as in other cases; and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least five days before the trial day.

Art. 329. [267] [232] Trial, how conducted.—Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial and conducted in the name of the state of Texas against the defendant, and the state shall be represented by the county or district attorney. A jury of twelve men shall be impaneled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as other cases.

Art. 330. [268] [233] Judgment of the court.—If the attorney be found guilty, or if he fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the said court, by proper order entered on the minutes, may suspend his license for a time, or revoke it entirely, and may also give proper judgment for costs.

Art. 331. Barratry, forfeiture of license by, etc.—Any attorney or counselor at law who shall violate any of the provisions of the Penal Code, relating to barratry, shall, in addition to the penalty therein provided, forfeit his right to practice law in this state, and shall be subject to have his license revoked, and be disbarred in the manner provided by law for dishonorable conduct or malpractice, whether he has been convicted for violating said penal provision or not. [Acts 1901, p. 126.]

Art. 332. [269] [234] Penalty for refusing to pay over money.—Each attorney who receives or collects money for his client, and refuses to pay over the same when demanded, may be proceeded against by motion of the party injured or his attorney before the district court of the county in which such attorney usually resides, or in which he resided when he collected or received the money; notice of which motion with a copy thereof shall be served on such party at least five days before the trial thereof; and, in case the motion be sustained, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for the amount by him collected or received, with legal interest, and also not less than ten nor more than twenty per cent damages on the principal sum. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 245, sec. 11. P. D. 178.]

Art. 333. [270] [235] Allowed to inspect papers.—Each attorney at law, practicing in any court, shall be allowed at all reasonable times to inspect the papers and records relating to any suit or other matter in which he may be interested without being required to take copies thereof; but no person whatever shall be allowed to take any papers out of the office to which they belong without the permission of the clerk or keeper of the records; and the party withdrawing said papers shall leave a descriptive receipt for the same. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 334. [271] [236] Officers not allowed to appear as attorney.—No judge of the supreme court, or court of criminal or civil appeals, or district court, sheriff, or deputy sheriff, clerk, or deputy clerk of any court, or constable, shall be allowed to appear and plead as an attorney in any court of record in this state; nor shall any county judge be allowed to appear and practice as an attorney at law in any of the county courts or courts of the justices of the peace in this state. [Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 216. Id. sec. 8. P. D. 174.]

Art. 335. [272] [237] Attorney for plaintiff may be required to show his authority as such.—Any defendant in any suit or proceeding pending in any court of this state may, by motion in writing under oath, stating that such defendant believes that such suit or proceeding was instituted against him or is being prosecuted against him without authority on the part of the plaintiff's attorney, cause such attorney to be cited to appear before such court and show by what authority he instituted, or by what authority he prosecutes, such suit or proceeding, notice of which motion shall be served upon such attorney at least five days before the trial of such motion.

Art. 336. [273] [238] Proceeding upon his failure to show authority.—Upon the hearing of the motion provided for in the preceding article, the burden of proof shall devolve upon the defendant therein to show sufficient authority from the plaintiff in such suit or proceeding to institute or prosecute the same; and, upon his failure to show such authority, the court shall refuse to permit such attorney to appear in said cause, and, if no person who is authorized to prosecute said cause shall appear, the same shall be dismissed.

Art. 337. [274] [239] Cause shall not be continued or delayed by motion.—The trial of the cause in which the motion provided for in the two preceding articles has been filed shall not be continued or delayed for the hearing of such motion; but such motion may be heard and determined at any time before the parties to the cause have announced ready for trial.

Article 338. [275] [240] Legislature may provide for election of, etc.—The legislature may provide for the election of district attorneys in such districts as may be deemed necessary; and they shall hold office for the term of two years and until their successors are qualified, and shall be commissioned by the governor. [Const., art. 5, sec. 21.]

Art. 339. [276] [241] What districts shall elect district attorneys.—The following judicial districts in the state shall each respectively elect a district attorney, viz.: first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, twelfth, thirteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, forty-sixth, forty-seventh, fiftieth and fifty-first, also the twenty-sixth and fifty-third districts combined, and the criminal district composed of Galveston and Harris counties. [Acts 1901, p. 127.]

Art. 340. [277] [242] Bond and oath of.—Each district attorney, before entering on the duties of his office, shall give a bond, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the district judge of their respective districts, conditioned that such district attorney will faithfully pay over, in the manner prescribed by law, all money which he may collect or which may come to his hands for the state or for any county; and he shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of the state; which bond and oath shall be deposited in the office of the comptroller of public accounts. [Act May 13, 1846. P. D. 181.]

Art. 341. [278] [243] Failure to attend courts shall forfeit, etc.—When any district attorney shall fail to attend any term of the district court of any county in his district, the clerk of the district court of such county shall certify the fact of such failure under his official seal to the comptroller of public accounts, and, unless some satisfactory reason for such failure is shown to the comptroller, such district attorney shall receive no salary for the time that he has so failed to attend. [Id. P. D. 183.]

Art 342. Assistant district attorneys appointed when; qualifications, bond, etc.; authority; term.—The governor shall appoint one assistant district attorney in districts in which there is situated a city of fifty thousand population or over, according to the United States census of 1900, and in which there is no criminal district court established by law; provided, the district attorney or district judge in said district shall furnish data to the governor showing that the district attorney is in need of an assistant, and is himself unable to attend to all of the duties required of him by law, and that it is necessary to the best interests of the state that an assistant district attorney be appointed. Every person so appointed shall be a qualified resident attorney of the district in which said appointment is made, and shall give bond and take the oath of office required of district attorneys by this state, and shall have the power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of district attorneys under the law of this state; and such appointment shall be for such time as the governor shall deem best in the enforcement of the law, not to be less than one month. [Acts 1909, p. 94.]

Art. 343. Compensation of assistant district attorney.—Such assistant district attorney shall be paid for the time of actual service rendered at the rate of the sum of two thousand dollars per annum, by the comptroller of the state of Texas, and said amounts to be paid in monthly payments, upon certificate of the district clerk and district judge of said district, that said assistant district attorney has performed his duties, and is entitled to pay. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 344. Removal of assistant district attorney.—The governor of the state of Texas, at any time he deems said assistant unnecessary in any district, or that the person appointed is not attending to his duty as required by law, remove said person from office, by merely writing the district attorney and district judge of said district to that effect. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 345. [279] [244] Vacancy in office of, how filled, etc.—When a vacancy occurs in the office of district attorney, the governor shall appoint a qualified person, resident of the district, to fill the same; and the person so appointed shall take the oath and give the bond required of district attorneys, and shall hold the office until the next general election and until his successor is qualified.

Article 346. [280] [245] Election and term of office.—A county attorney for counties in which there is not a resident criminal district attorney shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county, who shall be commissioned by the governor and hold his office for the term of two years. [Acts of 1883, p. 2.]

Art. 347. [281] [245a] May appoint assistants.—County attorneys shall have power, by consent of the commissioners' court, to appoint in writing one or more assistants, not to exceed three, for their respective counties, to continue in office during the pleasure of their principals, and who shall have the power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of their principals, and who shall have the qualifications prescribed by law for county attorneys; and every person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, which shall be indorsed upon his appointment, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; and such appointments and oaths shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk, and deposited in said office. [Acts of 1891, p. 91.]

Art. 348. [282] [246] Vacancy in office of, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in such office, the county commissioners' court of the county shall have power to appoint a county attorney until the next general election.

Art. 349. [283] [247] No county attorney when there is resident criminal district attorney.—When a resident criminal district attorney is elected and has qualified, and there is in the county of his residence a county attorney, such county attorney shall cease to perform the functions of such office, and there shall be no county attorney in such county during the time there may be a resident criminal district attorney therein. By the term, criminal district attorney, is meant an attorney for a criminal district court. [Acts of 1883, p. 2.]

Art. 350. [284] Joint duties of county and district attorneys.—In counties where there is a county attorney, it shall be his duty to attend the terms of the county and other inferior courts of his county, and to represent the state in all criminal cases under examination or prosecution in said county, and also to attend the terms of the district court, and to represent the state in all cases in said court during the absence of the district attorney, and to aid the district attorney, when so requested; and, when representing the state alone, he shall be entitled to and receive the fees allowed by law to the district attorney; and when, at the request of the district attorney, he shall aid him in the prosecution of any case in behalf of the state, he shall receive one-half of the fee allowed by law, and the district attorney the remainder. [Acts of 1879, p. 94.]

Art. 351. [285] [248] Bond and oath of.—Each county attorney, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties of such office, shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of the state, and shall execute a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully pay over, in the manner prescribed by law, all moneys which he may collect, or which may come to his hands for the state or any county; which bond and oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of his county, and deposited in the comptroller's office. Article 352. [286] [249] Shall be licensed attorneys.—District and county attorneys shall be attorneys at law, duly licensed to practice in the district courts of this state, and no person who is not so licensed shall be eligible to either of said offices. [Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 85, sec. 2.]

Art. 353. [287] [250] Duties and powers of.—The duties and powers of district and county attorneys shall be such as are prescribed in this title and in the Code of Criminal Procedure of this state.

Art. 354. [288] [251] Residence of.—District attorneys shall severally reside in the districts for which they were elected, and county attorneys shall severally reside in the county for which they were elected. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 355. [289] [252] Shall notify attorney general and comptroller of residence, etc.—District and county attorneys shall notify the attorney general and comptroller of public accounts of the county of their residence and of their postoffice address respectively, as soon after their election and qualification as practicable. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 356. [290] [253] Shall give opinion, etc., to officers.—The district and county attorney shall give to the assessor of taxes, the collector of taxes, or the treasurer of a county within his district or county, upon request, an opinion in writing touching their duties concerning the revenue of the state or county, and shall also give such advice in writing to the clerk, sheriff or other officer of his district or county as he may deem necessary to insure the prompt collection of all money for which judgments may have been rendered in favor of the state or of a county. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 357. [291] With the consent of attorney general to buy property.—In any case wherein any property shall be sold by virtue of any execution or order of sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the state except execution issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias, the agent or attorney representing the state, by and with the advice and consent of the attorney general of the state, is authorized and required to attend such sales, and bid on and buy in for the state said property, when it shall be deemed proper to protect the interest of the state in the collection of such judgment; provided, that in no case shall the amount bid by him exceed the amount necessary to satisfy said judgment and all costs due thereon. [Acts of 1879, p. 9.]

Art. 358. [292] May sell property bought for state, with consent of attorney general.—The agent or attorney of the state, buying for the state any such property at such sale, shall be authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the attorney general, at any time to sell or otherwise dispose of said property so purchased, in the manner and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem most advantageous to the state; and, if sold or disposed of for a greater amount than is necessary to pay off the amount due upon the judgment and all costs, the remainder shall be paid into the state treasury and placed to the credit of the general revenue; and, when such sale is made, the attorney general shall, in the name of the state, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance to said property; which deed, when so signed by him, shall vest all the right and title to the same in the purchaser thereof. [Id.]

Art. 359. [293] May sell property of county.—When any such property is sold under execution or order of sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the county, including executions issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias in the name of the state, the attorney or agent so representing the county, by and with the advice and consent of the commissioners' court, shall have the same authority to buy in and dispose of such property for the county as the agent or attorney for the state is given in article 357 in similar cases; and, when any property is so purchased by the agent or attorney of the county, the officer so selling the same shall execute and deliver to the county a deed of conveyance to the same; and, whenever the property so bought in for the county is sold, the county commissioners' court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof a deed of conveyance in the name of the county to such property. [Id.]

Art. 360. [294] [254] Shall give receipt for money collected.—It shall be the duty of a district or county attorney, upon the collection of any money for the use of the state, or of any county, to deliver to the person paying the same a receipt therefor. [Acts 1876, p. 85, sec. 4. Act May 13, 1846. P. D. 188.]

Art. 361. [295] [255] Shall report collections for state, etc.—Each district or county attorney shall, on or before the last day of August of each year, file in the office of the comptroller of public accounts an account in writing, verified by the affidavit of such attorney, of all money received by him, by virtue of his office, during the preceding year, payable into the state treasury. [Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 86, sec. 5.]

Art. 362. [296] [256] Shall report collections for county.—Such attorney shall also, on or before the last day of August of each year, file with the county treasurer of each county for which money has been collected by him, an account in writing, verified by his affidavit, of all moneys received by him, by virtue of his office, during the preceding year, payable into the treasury of such county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 363. [297] [257] Shall pay over money collected in thirty days.—Whenever a district or county attorney has collected money for the state, or for any county, he shall, within thirty days after receiving the same, pay it into the treasury of the state, or of the county to which it belongs, after deducting therefrom and retaining the commissions allowed him thereon by law. Such district or county attorney shall be entitled to ten per cent commissions on the first thousand dollars collected by him in any one case for the state or county from any individual or company, and five per cent on all sums over one thousand dollars, to be retained out of the money when collected, and he shall also be entitled to retain the same commissions on all collections made for the state or for any county; provided, that ten per cent shall be allowed on all such sums heretofore collected since the adoption of the Revised Statutes. This article shall also apply to money realized for the state under the escheat law. [Id. secs. 5, 6.]

Art. 364. [298] [258] Shall keep register of official acts, etc.—Each district and county attorney shall keep in proper books, to be procured by them for that purpose at their own expense, a register of all their official acts and reports, and all actions or demands prosecuted or defended by them as such attorneys, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver such books to their successors in office; and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person appointed by the governor, or by the county commissioners' court of a county, to examine the same. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 365. [299] [259] Shall not receive fee, etc., to prosecute case.—A district or county attorney shall not take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift, or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, to prosecute any case which he is required by law to prosecute; nor shall he take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift, or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, in consideration of, or as a testimonial for, his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 366. [300] [260] Shall institute proceedings against officers, when, etc.—When it shall come to the knowledge of any district or county attorney that any officer in his district or county, intrusted with the collection or safe keeping of any public funds, is in any manner whatsoever neglecting or abusing the trust confided in him, or is in any way failing to discharge his duties under the law, he shall institute such proceedings as are necessary to compel the performance of such duties by such officer, and to preserve and protect the public interests. [Act Aug. 7, 1876, p. 86, sec. 9.]

Art. 367. [301] To sue for penalty against railroads.—It shall be the duty of the county attorney to sue for and recover the penalties against railroad companies for failing to keep in repair public crossings, as prescribed in article 6494 of these statutes; and it shall be the duty of the county attorney, upon the making of an affidavit of the facts by any person, to at once institute against the company violating the provisions of said article 6494 suit in the proper court to recover such penalty or penalties; and his wilful failure or refusal to do so shall be sufficient cause for his removal from office, unless it is evident that such suit could not have been maintained. The proceedings under said article shall be conducted in the same manner as civil suits; and the county attorney attending to such suits shall be entitled to a fee in each case of ten dollars, to be taxed as a part of the costs of the case; provided, that when two or more penalties are sought to be recovered in one and the same suit, but one such fee shall be allowed; and provided, further, if the county be cast in the suit, no costs shall be charged against the county. [Acts 1885, p. 45; amend., 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478, sec. 13.]

Art. 368. [302] To institute quo warranto proceedings.—It shall be the duty of district and county attorneys to institute and prosecute quo warranto proceedings against persons and corporations in such cases and under such circumstances as are prescribed in article 6403 herein, and in such other cases as may be prescribed by law. [Acts of 1879, S. S., p. 43.]

Art. 369. [303] [261] Admission made by, shall not prejudice the state.—No admission made by the district or county attorney, in any suit or action in which the state is a party, shall operate to prejudice the rights of the state. [Act May 1, 1846, p. 295, sec. 13. P. D. 193.]

Article 370: Banks, incorporated how.—Five or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who shall have associated themselves by articles of agreement, in writing, as provided by the general corporation law, for the purpose of establishing a bank of deposit or discount, or both of deposit and discount, may be incorporated under any name or title designating such business. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 489, sec. 1.]

Art. 371. Articles of association, requisites.—The articles of association shall set out:

1. The corporate name of the proposed corporation, which shall not be the name of any corporation heretofore incorporated in this state for similar purposes, or any imitation of such name, and which shall include as a part thereof, either the word “bank,” or “banking.”

2. The name of the city or town and county in which the corporation is to be located.

3. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; that the same has been bona fide subscribed, and actually paid up in lawful money of the United States, and is in the custody of the persons named as the first board of directors or managers.

4. The names and places of residence of the several shareholders, and the number of shares subscribed by each.

5. The number of directors or managers, and the names of those agreed upon for the first year.

6. The number of years the corporation is to continue, which in no case shall exceed fifty years. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 372. To be signed, acknowledged, recorded, etc.—Such articles shall be signed by and acknowledged by the parties thereto and filed in the office of the secretary of state; and a certified copy thereof shall be returned by the secretary of state to the incorporators, which said certified copy shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the corporation is to be located. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 373. No certificate of incorporation valid, unless, etc.—No certificate of incorporation under this title shall be valid, unless, at the time the articles of agreement were acknowledged, the capital stock therein mentioned shall have been bona fide subscribed and paid up in lawful money. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 374. Board of directors.—The affairs and business of every banking corporation shall be managed by a board of directors or managers, consisting of not less than five nor more than twenty-five shareholders, who shall be elected annually, a majority of whom shall be bona fide resident citizens of the state, and each of whom shall be a bona fide owner of at least ten shares of the capital stock thereof; provided, that, where the capital stock of such corporation does not exceed ten thousand dollars, each director shall be a bona fide owner of at least five shares of the capital stock thereof; nor shall any person be a director in any bank against whom such bank shall hold a judgment. Every person who shall be elected a director of a bank shall, within thirty days after said election, qualify himself as such director by filing with the officers of such bank a written acceptance of the position, a copy of which said acceptance shall be spread upon the records of the acts of the directors. Failure to comply with this provision, within the time specified, shall work a forfeiture of the position; and, when any vacancy occurs by such failure, the board of directors shall, at the next regular meeting thereafter, enter the fact of such vacancy upon their records, and immediately proceed to elect some competent person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. In the event of vacancy happening from any cause in the board, previous to the annual election, remaining members thereof may fill such vacancy. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 375. Capital stock prescribed; to be fully paid up.—The capital stock, which shall be fully paid up, shall not be less than ten thousand dollars for banks located in towns and cities having less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, nor less than twenty-five thousand dollars for banks located in towns and cities having twenty-five hundred or more and less than ten thousand inhabitants, nor less than fifty thousand dollars for banks located in towns and cities having ten thousand or more and less than twenty thousand inhabitants, nor less than one hundred thousand dollars in towns and cities having twenty thousand inhabitants or more. The population of all towns and cities for the purpose of fixing the minimum capital stock of banks, under this title, shall be ascertained by reference to the last United States census taken prior to their incorporation. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 376. Powers of corporation.—Every such corporation shall be authorized and empowered to conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, and allowing interest thereon, and of buying and selling exchange, gold and silver coins of all kinds; of loaning money upon real estate and personal property and upon collateral and personal securities at a rate of interest not exceeding that allowed by law; provided, that no bank organized under this title shall loan more than fifty per centum of its securities upon real estate; and no such bank shall make a loan on real estate of an amount greater than fifty per centum of the reasonable cash value thereof; also of buying, selling and discounting negotiable and non-negotiable paper of all kinds, as well as all kinds of commercial paper. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 377. Cash reserve.—Every banking corporation shall, at all times, have an amount of cash on hand and cash due from other banks equal to at least twenty-five per cent of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits, ten per cent of which is to be actual cash in the bank. Whenever the reserve of a bank, as hereinbefore required, shall fall below twenty-five per cent of the demand deposits, then such bank shall not make any new loans or discounts until it shall, by collections, restore its lawful reserve. The reserve fund, or any part thereof, together with the current receipts, may be kept on hand or on deposit, payable on demand, in any bank or banking association of the state of Texas, or any bank, banking association, or trust company, regularly chartered and operating under the laws of any other state, or under the laws of the United States, approved by the commissioner of insurance and banking, and having a paid up capital stock of fifty thousand dollars or more; but the deposits in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty per cent of the total deposits, capital and surplus of said bank. [Acts 1907, p. 60, sec. 7. Acts 1905, S. S., p. 491.]

Art. 378. Duties of Directors.—The board of directors of each and every bank organized under this title, shall meet at least once per month, and pass upon the business of the bank back to the previous meeting of the board, and shall keep a written record of its approval or disapproval of each and every loan; and, at each monthly meeting, the records shall show the aggregate of the then existing indebtedness and liability of each of the directors and officers of the bank; and no bills payable shall be made, and no bills shall be rediscounted by the bank, except with the consent of the board of directors. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 491, sec. 6.]

Limitation upon borrowing, etc., by directors and officers.—No director of a bank in this state shall be permitted to borrow any of the money of the bank of which he is a director, in excess of ten per cent of the capital and surplus, without the consent of a majority of the directors of the bank (other than the borrower) first having been obtained at a regular meeting of the board; said consent to be made a matter of record before loan is made; and no officer, whether a director or not, shall be indebted to such bank in any sum whatever without the consent of the board, obtained and recorded in like manner. [Id.]

Art. 379. No branch bank to be maintained, etc., except, etc.—No such corporation shall maintain any branch bank, receive deposits, or pay checks, except over the counter of and in its own banking house, except where such corporation is a county or state depository, in any county other than that of its home, or is a county depository and is not located at the county seat; and provided, that nothing in this article shall prohibit ordinary clearing house transactions between banks. Corporations created under the terms of this title shall not be authorized to engage in business at more than one place, which shall be designated in their charters. [Id. sec. 4.]

Powers of corporation	385

Article 380. Bank and trust company incorporated how; definition.—Any five or more persons, a majority of whom are residents of this state, who shall have associated themselves by articles of agreement, in writing, as provided by law, for the purpose of establishing a banking and trust company, may be incorporated under any name or title designating such business. "Trust company," wherever appearing in the following articles of this title, is intended to mean "banking and trust company," and to refer to corporations created under this and the succeeding articles of this title, relating to banking and trust companies. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 492, sec. 8.]

Art. 381. Articles of agreement; requisites.—The articles of agreement shall set out:

1. The corporate name of the proposed corporation, which shall not be the name of any other corporation heretofore incorporated in this state for similar purposes, or an imitation of such name.

2. The name of the city or town and county in which the corporation is to be located.

3. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation authorized by the articles of agreement, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; that said capital is subscribed and actually paid up in lawful money of the United States, and is in the custody of the persons named as the first board of directors and managers.

4. The names and places of residence of the several shareholders and the number of shares subscribed by each.

5. The number of the board of directors or managers, and the names of those agreed upon for the first year.

6. The number of years the corporation is to continue, which in no case shall exceed fifty years.

7. The purposes for which the association or company is formed, which shall be the establishment of a bank of deposit or discount, or both of deposit and discount, with the power set out in article 376, and may include any one or more of the purposes set out in article 385. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 382. To be signed, acknowledged, recorded, etc.—The articles of agreement shall be signed and acknowledged by the parties thereto, and recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and a certified copy thereof returned by the secretary of state to the incorporators, which shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such corporation is to do business. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 383. Board of directors.—The property or business of the corporation shall be controlled and managed by directors, not less than five nor more than twenty-five in number, who shall respectively be stockholders of such corporation, and a majority of whom shall be bona fide citizens of this state, to be elected by ballot by the shareholders of such corporation for one year, if the number of directors of such corporation does not exceed five, at such time and place as shall be directed by the by-laws of such corporation, of which time and place at least two weeks notice shall be published in some newspaper, published at least once a week, in the city or county in which the corporation is located, which circulates in the locality where such corporation is located. Such election shall be made by such shareholders as shall attend in person, or by proxy in writing; and, in case the election shall not be made on the day named, the corporation shall not thereby be dissolved, but the election may be had at any other time, agreeably to the by-laws of said corporation; and the persons so elected shall hold their office until others are elected and qualified. If the board of directors of such corporation named in the articles of the association shall exceed five in number, they shall, as soon as may be after their organization, divide themselves by ballot into three classes of equal number, as near as may be, designated the first, second and third class, of which the first class shall remain in office one year, the second class two years, and the third class three years; and at each annual election, conducted in the manner heretofore designated, directors shall be elected for the term of three years to fill the vacancies created by the retiring class. In case of death or resignation of one or more of said directors, the survivors shall fill the vacancy until the next election. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 384. Capital stock prescribed.—The amount of capital stock of any trust company shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than ten million dollars. [Id., sec. 12.]

Art. 385. Powers of corporation.—Corporations may be created under articles 380 and 381 for the purpose of establishing a bank of deposit or discount, or both of deposit and discount, with the powers set out in article 376, and any one or more of the following purposes:

1. To act as the fiscal or transfer agent of any state, municipality, body politic, or corporation, and, in such capacity, to receive and disburse money; to transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, and to act as agent of any corporation, foreign or domestic, for any lawful purpose.

2. To receive deposits or trust moneys, securities and other personal property from any person or corporation, and to loan money on real or personal securities.

3. To lease, hold, purchase and convey any and all real property necessary in the transaction of its business, or which it shall acquire in satisfaction, or partial satisfaction, of debts due the corporation, under sales, judgments or mortgages, or in settlement, or partial settlement, of debts due the corporation by any of its debtors; which shall be alienated in good faith to some person other than some one interested in the company, within five years from the date of its acquisition.

4. To act as trustee under any mortgage or bond issue, by any municipality, body politic or corporation, and accept and execute any other municipal or corporate trust not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

5. To accept trusts from, and execute trusts for, married women, in respect to their separate property, and to be their agent in the management of such property, or to transact any business in relation thereto.

6. To act under the order or appointment of any court of record as guardian, receiver or trustee of the estate of any minor, the annual income of which shall not be less than one hundred dollars, and as depository of any moneys paid into court, whether for the benefit of any such minor or other persons, corporation or party.

7. To take, accept and execute any and all such legal trusts, duties and powers, in regard to the holding, management and disposition of any estate, real or personal, and the rents and profits thereof, or the sale thereof, as may be granted or confided to it by any court of record, or by any person, corporation, municipality or other authority; and it shall be accountable to all parties in interest for the faithful discharge of every such trust, duty or power, which it may so accept.

8. To take, accept and execute any and all such trusts and powers of whatever nature or description, as may be conferred upon or intrusted or committed to it by any person or persons, or any body politic, corporation or other authority, by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or otherwise, or which may be intrusted or committed or transferred to it or vested in it by order of any court of record, and to receive and take and hold any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust.

9. To purchase, invest in, guarantee and sell stocks, bills of exchange, bonds and mortgages and other securities; and when moneys, or securities for moneys, are borrowed or received on deposit, or for investment, the bonds or obligation of the company may be given therefor, but it shall have no right to issue bills to circulate as money.

10. To act as executor under the last will or as administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or as guardian of any infant, insane person, idiot or habitual drunkard, or trustee for any convict in the penitentiary under appointment of any court of record having jurisdiction of the estate of such deceased person, infant, insane person, idiot, habitual drunkard or convict.

11. To guarantee the fidelity and diligent performance of their duty by persons or corporations holding places of private or public profit or trust, in all cases where individual bonds are not required by law, to guarantee or become surety on any bond given by any person or corporation, and to reinsure or guarantee any person or corporation against loss or damage by reason of any risk assumed by insuring the fidelity or the diligent performance of duty of any such person or corporation, or by guaranteeing or becoming surety on any bond; provided, this act shall never be construed as authorizing the granting of a trust not lawful as between individuals. [Id. sec. 11.]

Article 386. Savings banks, incorporated how.—Any five or more persons who shall have associated themselves by articles of agreement, in writing, may be incorporated as a savings bank, under any name or title designating such business, such agreement in writing to constitute the articles of association of such corporation. [Acts 1905, S. S., pp. 489, 491, sec. 13.]

Art. 387. Articles of association, requisites.—Such agreement shall set out:

1. The corporate name of the proposed corporation, which shall not be the name of any other corporation heretofore incorporated in this state for similar purposes, nor an imitation of such name.

2. The name of the city, town or county in which such corporation is to be located.

3. The amount of capital stock of the corporation, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and that the entire amount thereof has been subscribed and actually paid up, in lawful money of the United States, and is in possession of the persons named as the first board of directors.

4. The names and places of residence of the several shareholders, and the number of shares subscribed by each.

5. The number of the board of directors, and the names of those agreed upon for the first year.

6. The number of years the corporation is to continue, which in no case is to exceed fifty years.

7. The purpose for which the corporation is formed. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 388. Further requisites.—The articles of association shall state that the entire amount of the capital stock of such proposed corporation has been paid in. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 389. To be signed, acknowledged and recorded.—Said articles of association shall be sworn to and shall be signed and acknowledged by the parties thereto, and filed in the office of the secretary of state, and by him recorded, and a certified copy returned to the incorporators, who shall record the same in the county clerk's office of the county of the domicile of such corporation. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 390. Board of directors and other officers.—The property and business of savings banks shall be controlled and managed by a board of directors, not less than five nor more than thirteen in number, who shall be stockholders of the corporation, and a majority of whom shall be bona fide citizens of the state, to be elected by ballot of the shareholders of the corporation, for one year, at such time and place as shall be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, of which time and place at least two weeks' notice shall be published in some newspaper, published at least once a week, in the city or county where such corporation is located. Such election shall be made by such of the shareholders as shall attend in person or by proxy in writing. In case the election shall not be made on the date named, the corporation shall not thereby be dissolved, but an election may be held any other time, agreeably to the by-laws of the corporation; and the persons so elected shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. If the board of directors shall exceed five, they shall, as soon as may be after organization, divide themselves by ballot into three classes of equal number, as near as may be, designated the first, second and third class, of which the first class shall remain in office for one year, the second class two years and the third class three years; and, at each annual election, conducted in the manner hereinbefore designated, directors shall be elected for the term of three years, to fill vacancies created by the retiring classes. In case of death or resignation of one or more of such directors, the survivors shall fill the vacancies until the next election. The directors shall elect from their number a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer, and may appoint such other officers and agents as they may deem necessary for the proper conducting of the business of the corporation, and may allow them reasonable compensation for services rendered; and the vote of a majority of the full board shall be requisite for the appointment of any officer receiving a salary therefrom, or to fix or increase the salary of any officer. No person shall be disqualified from being a director by reason of his being a director or officer of a bank or savings institution organized under the laws of this state. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 391. Meetings of board of directors, quorum.—Regular meetings of the board of directors of savings banks shall be held at least once in each month, for the purpose of receiving reports of the officers and committees, and for the transaction of other business. A quorum at any regular, special or adjourned meeting shall consist of not less than a majority of directors, but less than a quorum may adjourn from time to time, until the next regular meeting. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 392. Capital stock prescribed, to be subscribed and paid up.—The capital stock of any savings bank shall not be less than ten thousand dollars, in cities having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or under, and not less than fifty thousand dollars in cities having a population of more than fifty thousand; the entire amount of capital stock to be subscribed in good faith, and actually paid up in lawful money of the United States at the time of filing of article of association. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 393. Capital stock limited, requirements as to increase of.—No savings bank formed under the provisions of this chapter shall have a capital stock of more than five million dollars, and any such corporation may increase its capital stock in any amount within the limit of this article; but all increase of stock shall be subscribed for in good faith and shall be paid up in full in lawful money of the United States, at the time of filing the certificate of increase; provided, that stockholders shall have the first right to subscribe to such increase in capital stock in proportion to the amount of stock held by each. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 394. Stock a guarantee fund, and invested, etc.—Said capital stock, however, shall be regarded as a guarantee fund, for the security of depositors, and shall be invested as provided in article 403. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 395. Powers of corporation.—Savings banks shall have authority:

1. To receive, accumulate and safely keep any deposits of money from any persons, corporations or societies, and to invest, hold and repay the same, crediting and paying interest thereon, as in this act authorized and provided, and not otherwise.

2. At its option, in connection therewith, to take and receive as bailee, for safe keeping and storage, jewelry, plate, money, specie, bullion, stocks, bonds, securities and valuable papers of any kind, and other valuables, guaranteeing their safety upon such terms and for such compensation as may be agreed upon, and to let out vaults, safes, and other receptacles for the use, benefit and purposes of such corporations. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 495. Acts 1907, p. 305, sec. 16.]

Art. 396. May limit deposits, etc.—Every such corporation shall have the right to limit the aggregate amount which they will receive from any one person or society to such sum as they may deem expedient, and may, in their discretion, refuse to receive the sum offered, and may also at any time return all or any part of any sum received; provided, that the aggregate amount that may be received from any one individual or corporation shall not exceed four thousand dollars, inclusive of dividends. But this limitation shall not apply to moneys arising from judicial sales or trust funds, or if received pursuant to order of a court of record, or to moneys or property received as bailee for safe keeping and storage only. [Act 1905, S. S., p. 489, sec. 26.]

Art. 397. Payment of deposits; regulations; notice, interest.—Deposits made with savings banks shall be paid to depositors, or their representatives, when requested, under regulations as the board of directors may prescribe, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, which regulations shall be printed and conspicuously posted in all places where deposits are received, accessible and visible to all depositors; but no alteration in such regulations shall in any manner affect depositors in respect to any deposits or interest thereon, made prior to such alterations, and it shall be lawful to require sixty days written notice of the withdrawal of any deposit. Any account may be closed at any time upon notice to the depositor, and, after such notice, the deposit shall cease to draw interest; provided, nothing in this section [article] shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of certificates of deposit, payable on demand, or such other time as may be agreed upon by the depositor and this bank or corporation. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 398. Pass book, requirements as to.—A pass book shall be issued by savings banks to each depositor, containing the rules and regulations adopted by the board of directors, governing deposits, in which book shall be entered each deposit made by, and each payment made to, such depositor; and no payment or check against any such savings account shall be made, unless accompanied by, and entered in, the pass book issued therefor, except for good cause and on assurance satisfactory to the officers of the bank. At least once in every three years the pass book of all depositors shall be called in and verified in such manner as the board of directors shall elect. The directors may provide for making payments in case of loss of pass book or other exceptional case, when its production may produce loss or serious inconvenience to the parties. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 399. Deposit in name of minor or female thereafter married.—Whenever any deposit shall be made with any savings bank by or in the name of any person being a minor or a female, being or thereafter becoming a married woman, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such depositor, and free from the control or lien of all persons whatsoever, except creditors, and shall be paid, together with the interest thereon, upon production of, and proper entry in, the pass book at the time of such payment, and in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation, to the person in whose name the deposit shall have been made, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor or female shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge for such deposit, or any part thereof, to the corporation. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 400. Deposit in trust.—Whenever any deposit shall be made by any persons in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to the bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same, or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the said deposit was made. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 401. No interest paid or declared until when, nor unless, etc.—No interest shall be paid or declared by savings banks until the board of directors of such corporation cause an examination to be made of the assets and securities, and find the amount of such interest and dividend has been actually earned and accrued, and no interest or dividend shall be paid or declared, unless authorized by a vote of the board of directors, at a regular meeting duly entered on the minutes. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 402. Interest rate paid, to be regulated by directors.—It shall be the duty of the board of directors of savings banks to regulate, from time to time, the rate of interest to be allowed to depositors out of the net profits, and to pay or credit the same semi-annually on semi-annual interest dates, to be fixed by the by-laws; provided, however, that the directors of any such corporation may classify its depositors according to character, amount and duration of their dealings with the corporation, and regulate the interest allowed in such manner that each depositor shall receive the ratable portion of interest as all others of the same class. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 403. Deposits invested, how.—All sums so received, except those held as bailee, for safe keeping and storage only, and the income derived therefrom, and all moneys intrusted to any such corporation by order of court, shall be invested as follows:

1. In bonds or interest bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or of those for which the faith of the United States is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

2. In bonds of the state of Texas, or of any state in the union that has not, within the last five years previous to making such investments, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof.

3. In bonds of any city, county, town or school district of this state, which has not defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof, within five years previous to making such investments.

4. In the first mortgage bonds of any steam railroad, the income of which is sufficient to pay all operating expenses and fixed charges, which has its domicile in the state.

5. In bonds or notes secured by first mortgages or deed of trust on unincumbered real estate worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon. But the mortgage investment of such corporation shall not exceed sixty per cent of its total assets.

6. In real estate sufficient to reasonably furnish a domicile for such corporation, and no more. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 404. Same subject.—It shall be the duty of the directors of any such savings bank, as soon as practicable, to invest such fund of money, by purchase or otherwise, in the securities mentioned in article 403, and, from time to time, sell and invest the proceeds of such investments, but, for the purpose of meeting current demands and expenses in excess of the receipts, any of the securities may be sold or pledged. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 405. Application for loans, how made; record of; presented to board.—All applications for loans shall be made in writing through the treasurer of the corporation, who shall keep a record thereof, showing the date, name of applicant, amount asked for and security offered, and shall cause the same to be presented to the board of directors. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 406. Cash reserve.—There shall be kept an available cash fund of not less than fifteen per cent of the whole amount of its assets, and the same, or any part thereof, may be kept, on hand or on deposit, payable on demand, in any bank or banking association of the state of Texas, or under the laws of the United States, approved by the superintendent of banking, and having a paid up capital stock of fifty thousand dollars or more, but the deposits in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty per cent of the total deposits, capital and surplus of such savings banks. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 407. Indemnity fund and guaranty fund.—When the guaranty fund of any savings bank amounts to a sum equal to the capital stock of the corporation, and after interest on the deposits and dividends on the capital stock have been paid, as herein provided, the board of directors shall, at the time of making the regular semi-annual dividends, set aside and reserve from the remaining net profits which have accumulated during the preceding six months, a sum not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent of the total deposits on such interest day, to be known as indemnity fund, until such fund amounts to ten per cent of the whole deposits; and such fund shall thereafter be maintained and held to meet any contingency or loss from depreciation of securities or otherwise. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 408. Guaranty and indemnity funds, rule in determining per cent of.—In determining the per cent of the guaranty and indemnity funds so held by savings banks, the interest-bearing notes and bonds shall not be estimated above their par value, or above their market value, if below par; its bonds and mortgages and deeds of trust, not in arrears of interest for a period longer than one year, at their face; its real estate at not above cost. All debts due any savings bank or institution on which the interest is past due for a period of twelve months, unless well secured and in process of collection, shall be considered as bad debts, and shall be charged to profit and loss account at the expiration of that time. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 409. No dividend over ten per cent, etc.; nor except as provided.—No dividend exceeding ten per cent per annum shall be paid on its capital stock in any event, and no dividend shall be paid except as herein provided. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 410. Dividend not over ten per cent may be declared when, etc.—Whenever interest at rate of not less than three per cent per annum shall have been paid or credited by savings banks out of the net profits of the current six months on all savings or trust funds which may be entitled thereto, the board of directors may, out of the remaining net earnings of such six month, if any there be, declare and pay a dividend on the capital stock of the corporation, not exceeding the rate of ten per centum per annum on the par value thereof; provided, however, that no such dividends shall be declared or paid until at least one-tenth of the profits of the corporation for such period of six months shall be carried to the credit of the guaranty fund, until such fund equals the amount of the capital stock, which sum shall be invested as provided herein for the investment of the capital fund. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 411. Dividends, further provisions as to, and as to net profit.—If, for any period of six months, the net profits shall not be sufficient to pay a dividend on the capital stock of any savings bank, amounting to three per cent for such six months, then, if there are any net profits in any succeeding six months period or periods, over the interest required to be paid depositors for such period or periods, and the amount required to be carried to the guaranty fund, such excess or net profits shall be applied to the arrears of the dividend on the capital stock, until such arrears of dividend are paid in full; and no part of the net profit shall be credited on the indemnity fund, as provided in article 407, or to the payment of the extra interest to the depositors, as provided in article 412. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 412. Division of net profit, guaranty and indemnity funds.—Once in every term of three years, if the net profits of savings banks which have accumulated over and above the guaranty and indemnity funds, as provided in articles 407 and 410, amount to one per cent of the deposits which have remained with such corporation, for at least one year next preceding, such net profits shall be divided among the depositors whose deposits shall have remained therein at least one year next preceding, in proportion to the amount of interest which has been paid on their deposits during the three years then next preceding. But nothing in this section [article] shall be so construed as to require the payment of any interest on money or property received as bailee for safe keeping and storage only. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 413. Safety deposit box rent, default in payment of; proceedings on.—Any corporation which has been authorized, or may hereafter be authorized, to own or control a safety vault and rent the boxes therein, may, if the amount due for the use of any safe or box in the vault of such corporation shall not have been paid for two years, at the expiration thereof, cause to be sent to the person in whose name such safe or box stands on its books, a notice in writing, in a securely closed, postpaid, registered letter, directed to such person at his postoffice address, as recorded upon the books of the corporation, notifying such person that, if the amount then due for the use of such safe or box is not paid within sixty days from the date of such notice, the corporation will then cause such safe or box to be opened in the presence of its president, or vice president, or secretary, or treasurer, and of a notary public, not an officer or in the employ of the corporation, and the contents thereof, if any, to be sealed up by such notary public in a package, upon which such notary public shall distinctly mark the name and address of the person in whose name such safe or box stands upon the books of the corporation, and the estimated value thereof. And the package so sealed and addressed, when marked for identification by such notary public, will be placed by such notary public in one of the general safes or boxes of the corporation, and retained by the corporation, subject to the payment of all rent that may be unpaid, and of all expenses incurred in opening the safe or box, and also of a reasonable compensation for the safe-keeping of the contents, after their removal from the safe or box. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 414. Powers of savings bank as to real estate.—It shall be lawful for any savings bank to purchase, hold, sell and convey real estate as follows:

1. The house and lot on which is the domicile of such corporation, and from portions of which, not required for its own use, any revenue may be derived, not to exceed in value twenty per cent of the capital of such association.

2. Such as shall be purchased by it at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages or deeds of trusts owned by such corporations, or upon judgments or decrees rendered for debts due to it, or purchased or taken in settlement to secure such debts, and all such interest shall be sold by such corporation within five years after same shall be vested in it, unless the superintendent shall extend the time within which such sale shall be made. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 415. Corporation, etc., shall not repurchase lands sold.—At the sale of lands or real estate acquired by said corporation the said corporation shall not repurchase said real estate, directly or indirectly, nor shall any officer, director or person holding stock in said corporation be a purchaser of said real estate for the use of the corporation. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 416. Powers of directors.—The board of directors of any such corporation shall have power, from time to time, to make such laws, rules and regulations as they may think proper for the election of officers, for prescribing their respective powers and duties, and the manner of discharging same; for the appointment of committees, and generally for transacting, managing and directing the affairs of the corporation; provided, such by-laws, rules and regulations be not repugnant thereto, nor inconsistent with the provisions of this title, nor the constitution of this state, nor of the United States. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 417. Notices and rules posted, effect of.—Notices and rules, posted conspicuously by savings banks in the room where such business is transacted, shall be equivalent to a personal notice, to each person or party interested. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 418. Compensation of directors, when and how allowed.—It shall be lawful for directors, acting as officers of savings banks, whose duties may require their regular and faithful attendance at the institution, to receive such compensation as the majority of the board of directors shall deem just and reasonable; but such majority shall be exclusive of any director to whom such compensation shall be voted. But it shall not be lawful to pay the directors as such for attendance at the meetings of the board. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 419. No director to receive pay for services, except, etc.—No director shall, directly or indirectly, receive any payment or emolument for his services as such of any savings bank, except as provided in article 418. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 420. Restriction as to fees, brokerage, etc.—No such corporation, or any person acting in its behalf, shall negotiate, take or receive a fee, brokerage, commission or gift, or other consideration, for or on account of the loan made by and in behalf of such corporation, other than appears on the face of the note or contract by which such loan purports to be made. But nothing contained herein shall apply to any reasonable charge for services in the examination of title, and the preparation of conveyance to such corporation as security for its loan. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 421. No director or officer to borrow funds, nor use, except, etc., nor be surety, etc., for loans to bank.—No director or officer of such corporation shall, directly or indirectly, for himself, or as agent or partner of others, borrow any of the funds of the corporation, or funds in its custody, or in any manner use the same, except to make necessary current payments for the corporation, or to make investments, or to deposit for safety, under the direction and authority of the board of directors; nor shall any director or officer of such corporation be an indorser or surety or in any way be an obligor for moneys loaned by or borrowed of the corporation. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 422. Fees, etc., to member of board, to be reported.—All sums paid for services, fees, or otherwise, to a member of the board of directors shall be reported in detail at each regular meeting of the directors. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 423. Penalty for directors borrowing, being surety, failure to attend meetings, etc.—Whenever a director of such corporation shall borrow, directly or indirectly, any of the funds of the institution of which he is a director, or become surety or guarantor for any money borrowed of, or loan made by, such corporation; or, upon his failure to attend regular meetings of the board, or to perform any duties devolved upon him as such director, for three successive months, without having been excused by the board for such failure, the office of such director shall become vacant; but the director vacating his office, for failure to attend meetings, or to discharge his duties, may, in the discretion of the board, be eligible to re-election. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 424. Security from officers, agents, etc., for fidelity.—The board of directors of savings banks may, from time to time, require from the officers, employes and agents such security for their fidelity and good conduct as may be necessary. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 425. Annual report of savings banks, etc., to commissioner; form; requisites.—Every savings bank organized under this title shall, on or before the first day of November in each year, make a report in writing to the commissioner of insurance and banking, in such form as he may prescribe, of its condition on the first day of September preceding. Such report shall state the amount loaned on bonds and mortgages, together with a list thereof; the par value and the estimated market value of all bond investments, designating each particular kind, and the amount invested in each; the amount loaned upon pledge of deposits, with a statement of the amount held as collateral for such loans; the amount of cash on hand and on deposit in banks or trust companies, with their names and amount deposited in each; the amount of all assets, including interest accrued and not enumerated above, and such other information as the commissioner may require. [Id. sec. 69.]

Art. 426. Report continued and requisites.—Such reports shall also state all liabilities of such savings bank, on the morning of the first day of September, the amount due depositors, which shall include any dividend to be created to them for six months on that day, and any other claims against the corporation which are or may be charged against its assets. Such reports shall also state the amount of all deposits made during the fiscal year ending that day, and the amount drawn out during the same period; the whole amount of interest received and earned, and the amount of interest paid and credited to depositors, together with the amount of each semi-annual credit of interest; the number of accounts opened and re-opened, the number closed during the year, and the number of open accounts at the end of such year, and such other information as the commissioner may require. [Id. sec. 70.]

Art. 427. Report continued, and requisites, examination of books as basis, etc., forfeiture for failure to report.—Such report shall be verified by the oath of the two principal officers of such savings bank; and the statement of the assets shall be verified by the oath of at least three of the board of directors, who shall examine the same pursuant to the requirements of this section [article.] It shall be the duty of not less than three of the directors, on or about the first day of September of each year, to thoroughly examine the books, vouchers and assets of such institution, and its affairs generally; and the statement of assets and liabilities reported to the commissioner on the first day of November of each year shall be based upon such examination; but nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the directors from requiring such examination at such other times as they shall prescribe. Any such corporation failing to furnish to the commissioner any report or statement required by this act shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars per day for every day such report or statement shall be so withheld; and the commissioner may maintain an action in his name of office to recover such penalty, and, when collected, the same shall be paid into the treasury of the state, and be applied to the school fund; but the commissioner may, for sufficient cause, extend the time for making such report, not exceeding thirty days. [Id. sec. 71.]

Art. 428. Commissioner may give directions to savings bank, etc., when; communication to attorney general; his duties; order of court.—Whenever it shall appear to the said commissioner, from any such examination or report, that any such savings bank is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal, direct the discontinuance of such illegal and unsafe, or unauthorized practices, and strict conformity with the requirements of the law, and with safety and security in its transactions; and whenever any such corporation shall refuse or neglect to make any such report, as is hereinbefore required, or comply with any such orders, as aforesaid, or whenever it shall appear to the commissioner that it is unsafe or inexpedient for any such corporation to continue to transact business, or that extraordinary withdrawals of money are jeopardizing the interests of remaining depositors, or that any director or officer has abused his trust, or been guilty of misconduct or of malversation in his official position, injurious to the institution, or that it has suffered a serious loss by fire, burglary, repudiation or otherwise, he shall communicate the facts to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute such proceedings as the nature of the case may require. Such proceedings may be for an order restraining the institution from paying more than ten per cent of its funds in any six months, or until a further order of court, or for the removal of one or more of the board of directors, or for the appointment of a receiver or receivers, to wind up the affairs of such corporation. And the court before which such proceedings shall be instituted shall have the power to grant such orders, and, in its discretion, from time to time, modify or revoke the same, and to grant such relief as the evidence, situation of the parties and the interests involved shall seem to require; and, whenever in such proceedings, an order shall be granted, restraining such corporation from paying out or disposing of any money or property of or held by such corporation, the commissioner may, and, if directed by the court, shall, take temporary possession of all the assets, property and rights of or held by such corporation, and hold such possession until restored to the directors, or until further order of the court. [Id. sec. 74.]

Art. 429. Visitation of savings banks, etc., by commissioner, etc.; powers, expenses; certificate; report.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner, once in two years, either personally or by one or more competent persons to be appointed by him, to visit and examine every such savings bank in this state. The commissioner shall also have the power in like manner to examine any such corporation whenever, in his judgment, it may be deemed necessary or expedient. The commissioner and every other such examiner shall have the power to administer an oath to any person whose testimony may be required on any such examination, and to compel the appearance and attendance of any such person for the purpose of such examination by summons, subpoena, or attachment, in the manner now authorized in respect to the attendance of persons as witnesses in the courts of record of the state; and all books and papers, which it may be deemed necessary to examine by the superintendent or examiner so appointed, shall be produced, and their production may be compelled in like manner. The expense of every such special examination, if any, shall be paid by the corporation examined, in such manner as the commissioner shall certify to be just and reasonable; but, whenever such special examination shall be made by the commissioner in person, or by one or more of the regular clerks in his department, no charge shall be made except for necessary traveling and other actual expenses. The result of any such examination shall be certified by the examiners, or one of them, upon the records of the corporation examined; and the result of all the regular examinations during the previous year shall be embodied in the annual report of the commissioner required by this chapter to be submitted to the legislature. [Id. sec. 73.]

Art. 430. Commissioner to report to legislature, requisites.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner on or before the first day of February, during the session of the legislature, to communicate to the legislature a statement of the condition of every such savings bank from which a report has been received for the past preceding years; also the name and location of the savings banks and institutions for savings authorized by him during the previous two years, with the date of their incorporation. [Id. sec. 72.]

Article 431. Bank, etc., desiring to establish savings department, etc., shall do what.—Any state bank or banking and trust company, incorporated under the laws of this state, desiring to maintain a savings department or to use or continue to use the word “savings” as part of its corporate name, or in or as part of any sign or advertisement, or in or upon any stationery used or to be used by it, shall establish and maintain a savings department in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Such savings department may be established by the board of directors adopting a resolution providing therefor, at a regular meeting, which shall contain a copy of this chapter; and a certified copy of which shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of insurance and banking, and also recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such bank or banking and trust company is located; such copies to be filed in the bank or banking and trust companies maintaining such savings departments and using the word “savings” as above provided, which desire to continue to do so, and be filed by banks desiring to establish such savings departments prior to the establishment of such department. All banks or banking and trust companies establishing or maintaining a savings department or using the word "savings," as above provided, or which, having such departments or using the word "savings," shall continue to maintain such departments or to so use the word "savings," shall keep the business of such department entirely separate and distinct from the general business of such bank or banking and trust company, and shall keep all moneys received as such savings deposits and the funds and securities in which the same may be invested at all times segregated from and unmingled with the other moneys and funds of the bank or banking and trust company. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 406, sec. 13.]

Art. 432. Shall invest not over eighty-five per cent of savings deposits, how; power to sell and reinvest.—Such banks or banking and trust companies may invest not more than eighty-five per cent of the total amount of such savings deposits in any of the following classes of securities, and not otherwise, to wit:

1. In bonds or interest bearing notes or obligations of the United States or of those for which the faith of the United States is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

2. In bonds of any city, county, town or school district or other subdivision of this state, now organized or which may hereafter be organized, and which is now or may hereafter be authorized to issue bonds under the constitution and laws of this state, which has not defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof, within five years previous to making such investments.

3. In bonds of the state of Texas, or of any state of the union that has not within the last five years previous to making such investment defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof.

4. In the first mortgage bonds of any steam or electric railroad, the income of which is sufficient to pay all operating expenses and fixed charges, which has its domicile in the state.

5. In bonds or notes secured by first mortgage, deed of trust or other valid lien on unincumbered, improved real estate to run for a term of not longer than ten years, situated in the state, worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon, such bonds or notes to be always accompanied by a complete abstract of title to the property mortgaged and an attorney's certificate or title insurance policy in some company incorporated under the laws of this state, certifying said bonds or notes to be the first lien on the land mortgaged.

It shall be the duty of the directors of such bank or banking and trust company, as soon as practicable, to invest the moneys and funds of such savings department, by purchase or otherwise, in the securities above described. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 433. May sell securities and reinvest proceeds.—The directors shall, from time to time, sell and reinvest the proceeds of such investments. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 434. To meet current demands, securities may be sold, or taken up by bank, etc., out of guaranty fund.—For the purpose of meeting current demands in excess of the receipts, any of the securities may be sold, or taken up and replaced in cash, by the bank or banking and trust company, out of its general fund. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 435. Not less than fifteen per cent of deposits to be kept on hand in cash in savings department.—There shall be kept on hand, at all times, not less than fifteen per cent of the whole amount of such deposits in actual cash, in such savings department. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 436. Notice of withdrawal of deposits.—It shall be lawful to require sixty days written notice of the withdrawal of any savings deposits, as provided for in this chapter, at the option of the bank or banking and trust company. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 437. Exclusive prior lien of savings depositors on cash of savings department, etc.—In case of the insolvency or liquidation of any state bank or banking and trust company which shall establish or maintain a savings department, under the terms of this chapter, its savings depositors shall have an exclusive prior lien upon all the assets, including cash, of such savings department, and which shall be first paid; and the remainder, after they have been paid in full, shall be applied to the payment of claims of general creditors. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 438. Statement of assets and liabilities of savings department; no savings deposits to be received unless, etc.—It shall be the duty of the president of each state bank or banking and trust company, maintaining a savings department under the provisions of this chapter, to file with the commissioner of insurance and banking, not less than ten days after the first day of each calendar month, a statement of the assets and liabilities of such savings department, upon a form to be prescribed by the commissioner of insurance and banking; and it shall be unlawful for any officer of any state bank or banking and trust company to receive or assent to the receiving of any savings deposits, when the last preceding monthly statement, as herein provided for, is not conspicuously posted in the office from wherein its business is transacted. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 439. Directors may provide for interest on savings deposits, etc., provided, etc.—The directors of any state bank or banking and trust company establishing or maintaining, or continuing to maintain, a savings department, may provide that such rate of interest shall be paid on the savings deposits, as it may see fit, payable at such periods and upon such terms and conditions as may be reasonable; provided, that in any case the earnings of such savings department are insufficient to pay any interest due upon any savings deposits, such interest, or the deficiency therein, shall be paid by the bank or banking and trust company out of its general funds. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 440. Accumulated earnings of savings department may be transferred to general fund of bank, etc., when.—At the end of any period for which such bank or banking and trust company may lawfully declare a dividend upon its stock, it shall be proper to transfer to the general fund of such bank or banking and trust company all accumulated earnings of the said savings department, after the payment or credit of all interest due on the accrued savings deposits and the legitimate expenses of such department have been provided for. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 441. Savings department governed by provisions of this title, etc.—All such savings departments shall be governed by the terms and provisions of this title, so far as the same are applicable and are not in conflict with the special provisions of this chapter, and shall also be governed by such provisions of laws of the state applicable to savings banks as are not in conflict with any of the provisions of this title or of this chapter. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 442. Directors may adopt regulations; to be submitted to commissioner, etc.—Such reasonable rules and regulations for the control of such savings departments may be adopted and put in force by the board of directors at any regular meeting of the stockholders at any annual meeting; provided, that such rules and regulations shall not become effective until they have been submitted to the commissioner of insurance and banking, and by him approved. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 443. Certain acts forbidden.—It shall be unlawful for any director or officer of any bank or banking and trust company, which shall establish or maintain, or continue to maintain, a savings department, or which shall use the word "savings," as provided in this chapter, to knowingly misappropriate any moneys or funds belonging to such savings department, or to use or consent to the use of any such moneys or funds, otherwise than for the payment of lawful demands of savings depositors, and in the making of such investments as are prescribed in this chapter, and in the payment of such dividends to the shareholders as are allowed by the law to be paid therefrom, or to borrow any of the funds belonging to such savings department, or to in any way be an obligor for moneys loaned by or borrowed of such savings department, or to receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any commission, brokerage or other valuable thing or favor of any kind by reason or on account of any loan or investment made out of the funds of such savings department, or to sell such savings department any security or other investment. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 444. Assets not to be reduced below deposits, and fifteen per cent to be cash.—It shall be unlawful for any director or officer of any bank or banking and trust company, which shall establish or maintain, or continue to maintain, a savings department, or which shall use the word "savings," as provided in this chapter, to wilfully and knowingly do or perform any act or transaction by or as a result of which, at any time, the assets of such savings department, including cash, shall not at least equal in amount the deposits in such savings department, at least fifteen per cent of which shall be actual cash in such savings department. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 445. What banking, etc., corporations may protect depositors under provisions of this chapter.—Each and every corporation which may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state, with banking and discounting privileges, and each banking and trust company in this state heretofore incorporated under the provisions of Chapter 10 of the Acts of the first called session of the Twenty-ninth Legislature, and known as the state banking law, or hereafter incorporated under the provisions of this title, shall, at its option, protect its depositors in the manner hereinafter prescribed, either by availing itself of the depositors' guaranty fund herein provided for, or by the depositors bond security system hereinafter set forth. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 406, sec. 1.]

Art. 446. State banking board created, powers, etc.—A state banking board is hereby created, which board shall be composed of the attorney general, commissioner of insurance and banking and the treasurer of this state. Said board shall have the control and management of the depositors guaranty fund hereinafter provided for, and shall have the power to adopt all necessary rules and regulations in harmony with this chapter, for the management of said fund. Said board shall have the general supervision and control of the depositors bond security system provided for in this chapter, and shall have the power of the regulation, control and supervision of all state banking corporations and trust companies as hereinafter provided in this title. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 447. Such bank, etc., to have option of methods of securing deposits, must adopt one, when, etc.—Each and every bank and trust company, mentioned in article 445, shall have the right and privilege, at its option, to secure its depositors by the manner, method, and under the terms, provisions and regulations, as set forth in this title for the depositors guaranty fund or the bond security system; provided, that all such banks and trust companies shall secure their deposits by one of said plans on January 1, 1910; provided, further, that such option shall be exercised on or before October 1, 1909; and provided, that such option shall be exercised by the holders of the majority of the stock; and the president or cashier of such bank shall notify the commissioner of insurance and banking by registered mail of such action. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 448. Bank, etc., electing guaranty fund method, to pay what and when for creation of fund.—Any such bank or trust company which shall elect to secure its deposits under the depositors guaranty fund, provided for by this chapter, shall pay to said banking board, provided its application is approved by said board as prescribed in article 451, on January 1, 1910, one per cent of its daily average deposits, for the preceding year ending November 1, 1909, not including United States, state or other public funds, if otherwise secured, for the purpose of creating a depositors guaranty fund. Annually after the first payment to said fund, each bank and trust company subject to the provisions of the guaranty fund plan of this chapter, shall pay to said board one-fourth of one per cent of its daily average deposits for the year ending November 1 of the preceding year, as above defined, which amount shall be added to said guaranty fund; provided, that when the amount available in said guaranty fund shall reach the sum of two million dollars, the bank commissioner shall notify all banks and trust companies subject to this chapter, at least thirty days before the next annual payment; and thereafter the banks and trust companies participating shall not pay any further amount into said fund until said fund be depleted. In the event of the depletion of said fund from any cause so that it falls below two million dollars, or below the amount of the guaranty fund on January 1, preceding, or in the event of necessity to meet an emergency at any time, said board shall have authority to require the payment for the current year of two per cent of such average deposits, or such part thereof as may be necessary to restore said fund to the maximum above named, or to its amount as of January 1, preceding, or to meet the emergency; but no bank or trust company coming under the provisions of this chapter shall ever be required to pay more than two per cent of said average daily deposits for any one year; provided, further, that first payment herein provided for shall be made to said board without reference to said maximum sum. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 449. Fund paid to whom, and how; how paid out; no diversion; not state fund; duty of board.—The fund provided for in this chapter shall be paid to the state banking board as follows: Twenty-five per cent of each payment required of each such bank or banking and trust company shall be paid to said board in cash, and shall be by it deposited for safe keeping only with the state treasurer, as bailee for the state banking board, and shall be paid out by the state treasurer on warrants drawn by the order of said board; and said fund shall never be diverted from the purpose specified in this chapter, nor shall it ever be considered state funds. The remaining seventy-five per cent of each payment required shall be paid by each such bank or banking and trust company crediting the state banking board with such amount as a demand deposit subject to check upon the order of said board. It shall be the duty of said board to keep, at all times, twenty-five per cent of the amount of said fund deposited with the state treasurer in cash as provided herein. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 450. Certain bank and trust companies to pay what; credit fund.—State bank and trust companies, organized less than one year prior to the taking effect of this law, or hereafter organized, on approval of their applications, as provided for in article 451, shall pay into said guaranty fund three per cent of the amount of their capital stock and surplus, which amount shall constitute a credit fund, subject to adjustment on the basis of their deposits as provided for other banks now existing, at the end of one year; provided, however, that said payment shall not be required of banks and trust companies formed by the reorganization or consolidation of banks that have previously complied with the terms of this chapter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 451. Board to admit, etc., only such banks, etc., as they deem solvent, etc.; applications; grounds of refusal to be stated.—The state banking board shall admit to the benefits and protection of this chapter only such banks and trust companies as, in their opinion, are solvent and properly officered and conducted, and shall prescribe the form of application and statement which shall be made by each and every bank and trust company, and which shall be sworn to by two of the chief officers of the bank, blank copies of which application and statement shall be mailed to each state bank and trust company in this state at least ten days before this chapter requires the initial payment, and which shall be filled out, signed and sworn to and returned promptly to said board; and such copies shall be mailed to any other bank within this state on request. Should said board decline the application of any bank and trust company, it shall state the ground of such declination to such institution, and whether the objection can be removed, and the condition thereof. [Id., sec. 7.]

Art. 452. National banks may avail of protection of guaranty fund; may withdraw when.—Any national bank in this state may voluntarily avail its depositors of the protection of the depositors guaranty fund, upon the same terms, payments, conditions and in the same manner as herein provided for state banks; provided, that in the event national banks should be required by federal enactment to pay assessments to any bank guaranty fund of the federal government, and thereby the deposits in national banks in this state should be guaranteed by virtue of federal laws, that the national banks having availed themselves of the benefits of this chapter, may withdraw therefrom and have returned to them the unused portion of all assessments levied upon and paid by said banks. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 453. Commissioner may wind up affairs of bank, by receiver, or, etc.; bond; notice.—Whenever any state bank or trust company shall become insolvent and shall voluntarily, or by law, or in any manner as provided in this title, come into the hands of the commissioner of insurance and banking, he may proceed to wind up its affairs, either through a receiver or through some competent person, who shall give bond as may be required by the board, payable to the board, for the faithful performance of all duties imposed upon him. Said bond may be recovered upon for the benefit of said guaranty fund, or any party at interest. On taking possession of the property and business of any such state bank, the commissioner shall forthwith give notice of such fact to any and all banks, trust companies, associations and individuals holding or in possession of any assets of any such state bank. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 454. No bank, etc., notified shall have a lien or charge against assets for payment, etc., thereafter.—No bank, trust company, association, or individual, knowing of such taking possession by the commissioner, or notified as aforesaid, shall have a lien or charge for any payment, advance of clearance thereafter made, or liability thereafter incurred against any of the assets of the state bank of whose property and business the commissioner shall have taken possession as aforesaid. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 455. Bank, etc., may resume business with the consent of board, when, etc.—Such state bank may, with the consent of the state banking board, resume business upon such condition as may be approved by such board, which permission shall be evidenced by a written statement to that effect from the commissioner. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 456. General powers and duties of commissioner.—Upon taking possession of the property and business of such state bank, the commissioner is authorized to collect moneys due to such corporation, and do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and shall proceed to liquidate the affairs thereof as provided in this chapter. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 457. Shall collect debts, etc.—The commissioner shall collect all debts due and claims belonging to such state bank. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 458. On order of court, etc., may sell, etc., bad debts, or real or personal property.—Upon the order of the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, of the county in which such state bank was located and transacting business, the commissioner may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and, on like order, may sell the real or personal property of such state bank, on such terms as the court shall direct. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 459. May enforce liability of stockholders; if, etc.—The commissioner may, if necessary to pay the debts of such state bank, enforce the individual liability of the stockholders. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 460. May appoint agents, etc., and give what authority.—The commissioner may, under his hand and official seal, appoint one or more special agents to assist him in the duty of liquidation and distribution, the certificate of appointment to be filed in the office of the commissioner, and a certified copy in the office of the clerk of the county court in which such state bank was located and transacted business. The commissioner may, from time to time, authorize a special agent to perform such duties connected with such liquidation and distribution as the said commissioner may deem proper. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 461. May employ counsel and expert assistance, etc.—The commissioner may employ such counsel and procure such expert assistance as may be necessary in the liquidation and distribution of the assets of such state bank, and may retain such of the officers or employes of such state bank as he may deem necessary. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 462. May require security from agents, etc.—The commissioner shall require from a special agent, and from such assistants, such security for the faithful discharge of their duties as he may deem proper. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 463. Notices to claimants and creditors; statement therein.—The commissioner shall cause notice to be given, by advertisement in such newspapers as he may direct, weekly, for three consecutive months, calling on all persons who may have claims against such state bank to present the same to the commissioner, and make legal proof thereof, at a place and within a time not earlier than the last day of publication, to be therein specified, which notice shall contain a statement, in larger type than that in which the body of such notice is printed, specifically stating that all such claims of guaranteed depositors must be presented and legal proof thereof made at the place designated within forty-five days after the date when the property and business of such state bank was taken possession of by the commissioner, and that all claims of guaranteed depositors presented after expiration of forty-five days shall not be entitled to payment of any portion thereof out of the depositors guaranty fund. The commissioner shall mail a similar notice to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the state bank. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 464. May reject claim if, etc., notice, etc., action on.—If the commissioner doubts the justice and validity of any claim, he may reject the same, and serve notice of such rejection upon the claimants, either by mail or by written notice personally served. An affidavit of the service of such notice, which shall be prima facie evidence thereof, shall be filed with the commissioner. The action upon the claim so rejected must be brought within six months after such service. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 465. Claims presented after expiration of time; rights of.—Claims presented after the expiration of the time fixed in the notice to the creditors shall be entitled to share in the distribution only to the extent of the assets in the hands of the commissioner equitably applicable thereto. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 466. Inventory of assets of bank; and list of claims; requisites; filing; open to inspection.—Upon taking possession of the property and assets of such state bank, the commissioner shall make an inventory of the assets of such bank in duplicate, one to be filed in the office of the commissioner, and one in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such state bank was located and transacting business; upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, the commissioner shall make a full and complete list of the claims presented, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him, and showing fully all claims and amounts paid to guaranteed depositors out of the depositors guaranty fund, and the amount to which said fund is entitled by reason of its subrogation to the rights of such guaranteed depositors so paid, and all amounts held by him on account of claims of guaranteed depositors, which have been rejected or are in dispute, one to be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such state bank was located and transacted business. Such inventory and list of claims shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 467. Compensation of agents, etc.; expenses.—All compensation of special agents, counsel and other employes and assistants, and all expenses of supervision and liquidation, shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, of the district in which such state bank was located and transacting business, on notice to such state bank; provided, that the compensation of such special agents shall always be the same as is provided by law for state bank examiners, and shall, upon the certificate of the commissioner, be paid out of the fund of such state banks in the hands of the commissioner. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 468. Disposition of moneys collected by commissioner.—The moneys collected by the commissioner shall be, from time to time, deposited in one or more state banks, and, in case of the suspension or insolvency of the depository, such deposits shall be preferred before all other deposits. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 469. Dividends may be declared when, and how.—At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims, the commissioner may, out of the funds remaining in his hands after the payment of expenses, declare one or more dividends, and, after the expiration of one year from the first publication of a notice to creditors, he may declare a final dividend, such dividends to be paid to such person and in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, of the district in which such state bank was located and transacted business. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 470. Guaranty fund to receive its portion of dividends with interest; how paid.—In the declaration and payment of all such dividends, the depositors guaranty fund shall be entitled to receive, as its dividend, such portions of the amounts due and payable to guaranteed depositors as shall have been paid to them out of the depositors guaranty fund, together with six per cent interest thereon from the date or dates upon which checks were drawn upon all state banks, as hereinafter provided for the payment of the guaranteed deposits of such state banks; and the commissioner shall forthwith distribute such dividends to state banks, upon which checks were drawn for such payment of guaranteed deposits, in proportion to the amounts of such checks, respectively. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 471. Objections to allowed claims.—Objections to any claim not rejected by the commissioner may be made by any party interested, by filing a copy of such objections with the commissioner, who shall present the same to the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, at the time of the next application to declare a dividend. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 472. Provision by court for unproved or unclaimed deposit.—The court may make proper provision for unproved or unclaimed deposits. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 473. Bank aggrieved may enjoin proceedings by commissioner.—Whenever any such state bank, of whose property and business the commissioner has taken possession, as aforesaid, deems itself aggrieved thereby, it may, at any time, apply to the district court, if in session, or to the judge thereof, if in vacation, of the district in which such bank is located and transacting business, to enjoin further proceedings; and said court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties and determining the facts, may, upon the merits, dismiss such application, or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and direct him to surrender such business and property to such state bank. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 474. Continued liquidation by commissioner decided by stockholders.—Whenever the commissioner shall have paid to each and every depositor and creditor of such state bank (not including stockholders, except for the amount of their deposits over and above their liability under the law as stockholders), whose claim or claims as such creditor or depositor shall have been duly proven and allowed, the full amount of such claims, and shall have repaid to the depositors guaranty fund all amounts paid out of it to guaranteed depositors of such state bank, together with six per cent interest thereon, from the date when the checks to provide for such payment were drawn, and shall have made proper provision for unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends, and shall have paid all the expenses of the liquidation, the commissioner shall call a meeting of the stockholders of such state bank, by giving notice thereof for thirty days in one or more newspapers in the county where such state bank was located and transacted business. At such meeting, the stockholders shall determine whether the commissioner shall be continued as liquidator, and shall wind up the affairs of such state bank, or whether an agent or agents shall be elected for that purpose, and, in so determining, the said stockholders shall vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, each share of stock entitling the holder to one vote; and a majority of the stock shall be necessary to a determination. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art 475. Continued liquidation by commissioner.—In case it is determined to continue the liquidation under the commissioner, he shall complete the liquidation of such corporation, and, after paying the expenses thereof, shall distribute the proceeds among the stockholders in proportion to the several holdings of stock, in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the district court. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 476. Continued liquidation by agent of stockholders; selection; bond.—In case it is determined to appoint an agent or agents to liquidate, the stockholders shall, thereupon, select such agent or agents by ballot, a majority of the stock present and voting, in person or by proxy, being necessary for a choice. Such agent or agents shall execute and file with the commissioner a bond, in such amount, with such sureties, and in such form, as shall be approved by the commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 477. Transfer, etc., by commissioner; and his discharge from liability.—Upon the filing and approval of such bond, the commissioner shall transfer and deliver to such agent or agents all the undivided and unclaimed or other assets of such state bank then remaining in his hands; and, upon such transfer and delivery, the said commissioner shall be discharged from any further liability to such state bank and its creditors and stockholders. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 478. Duties of agent continuing liquidation.—Such agent or agents shall convert the assets coming into his or their possession into cash, and shall account for, and make distribution of, the property of said state bank, as herein provided in the case of distribution by the commissioner, except that the expenses thereof shall be subject to the direction and control of the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, of the district in which such state bank was located and transacted business. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 479. On death, etc., of agent, successor selected; powers, etc.—In case of the death, removal, or refusal to act, of such agent or agents, the stockholders, on the same notice to be given by the commissioner, upon proof of such death, removal, or refusal to act, being filed with him, and by the same vote herein provided, may select a successor who shall have the same power and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 480. Dividends and unclaimed deposits unpaid, disposition of.—Dividends and unclaimed deposits remaining unpaid in the hands of the commissioner for six months after the order for final distribution shall be by him deposited in some state bank to be designated by the state banking board, to the credit of the commissioner in his name of office, in trust for the several depositors with, and creditors of, the liquidated state bank from which they were received, who are entitled thereto. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 481. Commissioner's report to show what.—The commissioner shall show in his official report the names of the state banks so taken possession of and liquidated, and the amounts of unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends, with respect to each of them, respectively. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 482. Commissioner to pay over moneys on order of board, etc., order of court, if, etc.—The commissioner shall pay over the moneys so held by him to the persons respectively entitled thereto, upon the order of the state banking board, who shall direct such payment to such persons, upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same. In case of doubt or conflicting claims, the state banking board may require an order of the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, authorizing and directing the payment thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 483. Interest on such moneys how applied; report to include amount.—The state banking board may apply the interest earned by the moneys held by the commissioner, or may authorize him to apply the same, toward defraying the expenses incurred in payment and distribution of such unclaimed deposits or dividends to the depositors and creditors entitled to receive the same, and the commissioner shall include in his official report a statement of the amount of interest earned by such unclaimed dividends. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 484. Bank may place affairs under commissioner, how, etc.—Any state bank may, at any time, place its affairs and assets under the control of the commissioner, by posting a notice on its front door, as follows: "This institution is in the hands of the commissioner of insurance and banking of the state of Texas." [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 485. Effect of posting notices by commissioner; bars attachment, etc.—The posting of this notice, or of the same notice by the commissioner or any state bank examiner, at any time when he shall have taken possession of the property and business of a state bank, shall be sufficient to place all its assets and property, of whatever nature, in the possession of the commissioner, and shall operate as a bar to any attachment proceedings whatever. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 486. Depositors paid in full out of guaranty fund, etc., excepting interest bearing and secured deposits, paid pro rata from assets.—In the event the commissioner of insurance and banking shall take possession of any bank or trust company, subject to the depositors guaranty fund plan of this chapter, as herein provided, the depositors of said bank or trust company, as specified in article 448, shall be paid in full out of the cash in said bank or trust company that can be made immediately available from such bank; and the remainder shall be paid out of the depositors guaranty fund through the said board, in the event the cash available in said institution shall be insufficient; provided, that deposits upon which interest is being paid, or contracted to be paid, directly or indirectly by said bank, its officers or stockholders, to the depositor and deposits otherwise secured, shall not be insured under this chapter, but shall only receive the pro rata amount which may be realized from the assets, resources and collections of and from such banks and trust companies, its stockholders or directors. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 487. State to have first lien on assets, for benefit of guaranty fund; deposits not insured, etc., share in dividends of assets, etc.—The state shall have, for the benefit of the depositors guaranty fund, a first lien upon all assets of such bank or trust company and all liabilities owing or accruing to such bank or trust company in the event of the closing, as provided by law, of any such state bank or trust company, operating under the depositors guaranty fund plan; which lien shall attach and be in force from the time such bank or trust company is legally closed, upon all the property and assets then in possession of such bank or trust company; provided, however, that any deposits on which said bank was paying interest and any other deposits or debts not insured under this chapter, and which are entitled to share in the assets, shall share in the dividends and proceeds of such assets and collections pro rata or as may be provided by law. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 488. National bank receiver to refund amounts paid depositors out of guaranty fund.—In the event the depositors guaranty fund, or any part thereof, shall be used by said banking board to pay off the depositors of a national bank which has accepted the provisions of this law, then said banking board shall receive from the receiver, or other officer in charge of said bank, the pro rata share of the proceeds of the assets and collections which would be due to said depositors to the amount so paid by the banking board. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 489. Savings department deposits not included in estimate of payment into guaranty fund.—In computing the aggregate amount of average annual deposits of any bank or banking and trust company, for the purpose of determining the amount required to be paid into the depositors guaranty fund, as provided in this chapter, the deposits of its savings department as provided in chapter 4 of this title shall not be included. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 490. When depositors paid in full, pro rata of guaranty fund returned.—In the event of the voluntary liquidation of any bank or trust company, operating under the provisions of the depositors guaranty fund, when it shall be made to appear to the state banking board that all depositors have been paid in full, said board shall return to such bank or trust company the pro rata part paid by it into such fund when unused. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 491. Banks, etc., electing bond security to file bond, when and where; requirements; approval.—Each and every state bank or trust company now or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this state, which shall elect to come under the provisions of the bond security system of this chapter shall, on January 1, 1910, and annually thereafter, file with the commissioner of insurance and banking, and his successors in office, for and on behalf of the lawful depositors of such bank, a bond, policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity in an amount equal to the amount of its capital stock, which said bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity, shall be for and inure to the benefit of all depositors. Such instrument and the security thereby provided shall be approved by the county judge of the county in which such business is domiciled, and shall take effect and be in force from and after it is approved and filed in the office of the commissioner of insurance and banking. Every such corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, as herein provided; and every such corporation that may hereafter be incorporated shall comply with the provisions of this chapter as to the depositors guaranty fund plan, or the bond security system, on filing its charter, before it shall be permitted to receive deposits. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 492. Bond to secure depositors at time of filing and for twelve months thereafter.—Every such bond or policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity, filed as provided for in this chapter, shall secure depositors at the time said bond is filed and approved, and all deposits made during the period of twelve months thereafter. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 493. Requirements in case of personal security.—In case the bond herein provided for shall be executed by personal obligation or security, then in no event shall such bond be deemed adequate and sufficient, unless and until it shall have been executed by at least three different persons or individuals of financial responsibility and solvency, satisfactory to the authorities herein authorized by this chapter, to approve such bond. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 494. Who may make bonds, etc., and who not.—The bond or other form of guaranty provided for in this chapter may be made by any person, firm, or corporation, authorized to execute the same, and any and all corporations incorporated under the provisions of articles 380 and 381, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to execute such bonds or guaranties, either singly or collectively, subject to approval as herein provided for; provided, that any such corporation which is at the time operating under the guaranty fund system provided for by this chapter shall not be accepted as a surety on any such bond. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 495. Who may take advantage of bond security system; shall file bond; requirements; approval; certificate.—Any person, firm or corporation, other than as described in article 445, transacting lawfully a banking business in this state, or lawfully receiving funds on deposit, shall be authorized to take advantage of the provisions of the bond security system of this chapter and to file with the commissioner of insurance and banking a bond, or policy, or other guaranty of indemnity. Any such corporation shall, in such event, file a bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, in like manner as it would be required to file if incorporated under the laws of Texas.

Any such person or firm transacting the business of a private bank shall, in such event, file a bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, in any amount to be fixed by the commissioner of insurance, which amount shall in no case be less than one-half the amount of the average of the daily deposits with such person or firm for the preceding period of twelve months; provided, that no person or firm shall be permitted to take the benefit of this article, unless such person or firm shall have been engaged in such business in the state of Texas for the period of at least twelve months; provided, that any such person, firm or corporation shall submit to the commissioner of insurance and banking such reports and statements concerning its deposits and concerning the solvency of such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, as he may require, in order to enable him to determine the sufficiency of such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, and shall pay all such reasonable expenses as may be incurred by him in the making of an examination thereof; provided, further, that such bond, policy of insurance, or other guaranty, shall be approved by the county judge and filed with the commissioner of insurance and banking as provided for in article 491.

Upon the filing of such bond or other form of guaranty, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to furnish a certificate of such fact. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 496. On default by bond, etc., secured bank, duty of commissioner, etc. In the event of default by any person, firm or corporation transacting such business or receiving deposits, which shall make, execute or file the bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, provided for herein, in the payment of a deposit lawfully demanded, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance and banking, when such default shall be made known to him, to at once make an examination of such bank, and, if in his judgment the bank is insolvent, he shall take charge of such bank, as provided by law for the liquidation of state banks. Upon taking charge of a bank, as above provided, the commissioner of insurance and banking shall at once give notice thereof to each and all persons who may be obligated by reason of such default, and of the conditions of such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, and upon such notice the full amount of the same shall thereby become due and payable within sixty days. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 497. Sureties, etc., to pay commissioner full amount of bond, or, etc., in trust for depositors; to be paid pro rata to depositors, etc.—When any bond or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, provided for herein, shall become due and payable in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the makers and signers thereof to pay over the full amount of the same to the commissioner of insurance and banking, or such part thereof as he may demand, to be held by him in trust for the depositors, with the person, firm or corporation furnishing such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity. All proceeds thus arising, either from voluntary payment or otherwise, shall be payable to the commissioner of insurance and banking, and shall be by him promptly paid over pro rata to unpaid depositors upon presentation to him of satisfactory proofs of their claims, which proofs shall be received and filed before payment thereof shall be approved by him. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 498. Texas corporation surety, etc., refusing, etc., to pay, etc.; charter subject to forfeiture, etc.; attorney general's duty.—In the event any maker or signer as surety of such bond, or policy of indemnity, shall be a corporation incorporated under the laws of Texas, and it shall refuse or fail to pay over, within sixty days, as herein provided, the full amount due by it upon such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, its charter shall thereby become subject to forfeiture; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, upon receiving notice thereof from the commissioner of insurance and banking, to bring suit in the district court of Travis county, Texas, within thirty days, to forfeit such charter, and, upon hearing thereof, decree and judgment may be rendered, annulling and forfeiting the charter of such corporation. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 499. Foreign corporation surety, etc., refusing, etc., to pay, permit subject to forfeiture; duty of secretary of state.—In the event any maker or signer as surety of such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, shall be a corporation incorporated elsewhere than in the state of Texas, and transacting business in this state under a permit from the state, and it shall refuse or fail to pay over, within sixty days after demand shall have been made therefor by the commissioner of insurance and banking, as herein provided, the full amount of its liabilities upon such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, it shall thereupon be the duty of the commissioner of insurance and banking to notify the secretary of state of said facts; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of state and the commissioner of insurance and banking thereafter to refuse any permit to said corporation to transact business in the state, until it shall show to the satisfaction of such officers that it has fully discharged its liabilities upon such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, upon which default was thus made. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 500. Suit by attorney general, etc., in case of default on bond, etc.—In the event such person, firm or corporation shall default in the payment of a lawful demand, and shall so continue for the period of ninety days from the beginning thereof, and the obligation of such bond of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, is not discharged, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or any district or county attorney, acting at his instance, to bring suit upon such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, in the name of the governor, and for the benefit of all persons who may be beneficiaries thereof by reason of its terms and conditions. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 501. Venue of suit on bond, etc.; limitation.—Such suit shall be instituted in the district court of the county where the person, firm or corporation furnishing such bond, policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, transacted such business at the time of the filing thereof, or in any county immediately adjacent thereto, at the option of the attorney general. Any action upon such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, shall be brought within twelve months of the date therein fixed for the termination thereof. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 502. Surety, etc., paying, subrogated to rights of depositors.—Whenever any maker or signer of any bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, other than the principal therein, shall be required under the provisions of this chapter to pay over for the benefit of the depositors, with any person or corporation, any sum or sums of money, such maker or signer making or participating in such payment, shall thereby become subrogated to the rights of a depositor to the extent of the payments so made, and entitled to assert such right in accordance with the laws of the state, secondary and subject to the rights of all depositors secured by such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 503. Fees for examination of bank with view to bond.—The commissioner of insurance and banking, when in his judgment it is necessary to make an examination of a bank in order to determine whether or not it is authorized to make bond under this chapter, or to determine the amount of such bond, shall charge a fee of not to exceed twenty dollars against each corporation incorporated under the laws of the state to do a banking business, or to receive funds on deposit, for the examination of the bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, provided for in article 491, and the examination of the solvency thereof, and for the filing of the same, and shall be authorized to charge an examination fee sufficient to cover the actual expenses thereof, against any other person, firm or corporation permitted to file such bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 504. Form of guaranty bond.—The bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, herein provided for, shall contain substantially the following provisions:

“State of Texas,
County of.....

Know all men by these presents: That we,.....
as principal, andand.....
as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the governor of the state of Texas, and his successors in office, in trust for the benefit of depositors having funds deposited with.....in the sum of.....
.....dollars, payable as provided by the laws of Texas, at the time of the execution hereof, conditioned that the above bound.....
will pay, upon demand, or in accordance with the certificate of deposit, to the persons entitled thereto, all deposits in said bank at the date of said bond, and all other deposits made therein during the period of one year from the date hereof. Upon payment of any sum or sums made obligatory by reason of the terms hereof, any surety herein making or participating in such payment, shall thereby be subrogated to the rights of a depositor and entitled to assert such rights in accordance with the laws of the state, secondary and subject to the rights of all depositors secured by the terms hereof.” [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 505. Security may be divided into two or more bonds, etc.—The security for the benefit of depositors provided for by this chapter may be divided into two or more bonds, policies of insurance, or other guaranties of indemnity, or any part thereof may be given in either of such forms of guaranty of indemnity; provided, that the aggregate thereof shall be equal to the total amount of the security required in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 506. Additional security where deposits excessive; penalty.—Whenever the deposits of any corporation incorporated under the laws of Texas, which shall have filed a bond, or policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity, with the commissioner of insurance and banking, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall exceed six times the amount of its capital and surplus, it shall be its duty to furnish, in addition to the security theretofore so given, additional security for the protection of its depositors, which additional security shall consist of one or more bonds, or policies of insurance, or other guaranties of indemnity, as herein provided, in a sum or sums, which shall, in the aggregate, be equal to the total amount of such excess of deposits above six times the amount of the capital and surplus of such corporation. In the event any such corporation shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of this article, after demand by the commissioner of insurance and banking, it shall be his duty to report the facts to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute suit in the district court of Travis county to forfeit the charter of such corporation; and such court shall, upon hearing and proof thereof, enter a decree and judgment therein, forfeiting and annulling the charter of such corporation. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 507. Upon failure to give bond, etc., or avail of guaranty fund, suit to forfeit charter.—If any corporation organized under the general laws of this state to do a banking business or to receive funds on deposit shall fail or refuse to file the bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, provided for in articles 491, 492, 493, 494 hereof, in accordance herewith, or avail itself of the depositors guaranty fund plan as provided in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance and banking to promptly report such failure to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute suit in the district court of Travis county to forfeit the charter of such corporation; and such court shall, upon hearing and proof thereof, enter decree and judgment therein, forfeiting and annulling the charter of such corporation. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 508. New or additional security may be required, when; penalty for failure to give; powers of commissioner and attorney general.—If at any time it shall appear to the state banking board that any bond, or policy of insurance, or other guaranty of indemnity, filed as provided for herein, by any corporation organized under the laws of Texas, is insufficient, they shall have the authority, and it shall be their duty, to require such corporation to file new or additional security in an amount sufficient to protect its depositors, in accordance with this chapter. In the event such corporation shall refuse or fail to comply with such requirements, they shall communicate the facts to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute such proceedings and take such steps as the nature of the case may require. The commissioner of insurance and banking and the attorney general shall, in such event, have and exercise, for the protection of depositors, all the authority conferred upon them by article 523, and all authority conferred by the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 509. National bank may avail depositors of protection of bond security system.—Any national bank in this state may voluntarily avail its depositors of the protection of the bond security system herein provided for state banks. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 510. Certain banks and trust companies created by special acts, may avail of provisions of this chapter.—Any bank or trust company created by virtue of a special act of the legislature of the state of Texas, now or hereafter engaged in the general banking business in Texas, and which at the time has only one place of business, and which has heretofore accepted or may hereafter accept one or more of the provisions of this title, thereby submitting itself to the jurisdiction of the state banking department, may, with the approval of the state banking board, avail itself of the provisions of this chapter, either as a bond security bank, or as a guaranty fund bank, by vote, as prescribed for state banks. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 511. Bank, etc., to have certificate of authority posted.—All state banks transacting business in this state shall be required, on or after the first day of January, 1910, to hold a certificate of authority to transact a banking business issued by the commissioner, in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and to keep same conspicuously posted at all times in the banking house where such business is transacted. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 512. Certificate issued by commissioner to bank, etc., approved by board; form.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance and banking to issue to each state bank which the state banking board shall have approved and certified to him, as provided in this chapter, as being entitled to transact a banking business, a certificate of authority in such form as the state banking board shall approve, to be signed by him under his official seal, certifying that such state bank is authorized, under the laws of this state, to engage in the banking business. Such certificate of authority, when issued to guaranty fund banks, shall contain the following statement on the face thereof in bold type: "The non-interest bearing and unsecured deposits of this bank are protected by the state bank guaranty fund." And, when issued to bond security banks, shall contain the following statement on the face thereof, in bold type: "All deposits of this bank are protected by security bond under the laws of the state of Texas." And, when issued to the state banks other than guaranty fund banks and bond security banks, it shall contain neither of these, nor any similar statement. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 513. Commissioner shall close banks when disapproved by board; procedure.—The commissioner of insurance and banking shall close all state banks which the state banking board shall disapprove and determine not entitled, under the laws of this state, to transact a banking business, and shall proceed in such cases in the manner provided by law, with respect to insolvent banks, unless such banks shall go into voluntary liquidation. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 514. Secretary of state, issuing charter to deliver to commissioner, duty of latter.—The secretary of state shall, on issuance of any charter to any bank or banking and trust company, deliver the same to the commissioner of insurance and banking, who shall deliver such charter to such corporation, together with the certificate herein provided for, upon such corporation showing to the satisfaction of the state banking board that it has complied with the state banking laws. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 515. Advertisements and designations of banks, etc., regulated.—All guaranty fund banks provided for in this chapter are hereby authorized and empowered, if they desire so to do, to publish, by any form of advertising which they may adopt, or upon their stationery, the following words: "The non-interest bearing and unsecured deposits of this bank are protected by the depositors guaranty fund of the state of Texas." All bond guaranty banks, provided for in this chapter, are hereby authorized and empowered, if they desire so to do, to publish, by any form of advertising which they may adopt, or upon their stationery, the following words: "The deposits of this bank are protected by guaranty bond under the laws of this State." Said banks are authorized to use the terms "guaranty fund bank," or, "guaranty bond bank," as the case may be, but they are hereby prohibited from describing said forms of guaranty by any other terms or words than herein named. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 516. If certain articles of this title held unconstitutional, etc., remainder unaffected.—Should the courts declare any section of chapter 15 of the Acts of 1909, second called session, as embodied in this title (being chapters 4 and 5, and articles 521, 522, 530, 548 and 564 to 574, inclusive) unconstitutional or unauthorized by law, or in conflict with any other section or provision of said chapter 15, then such decision shall affect only the section or provision so declared to be unconstitutional, and shall not affect any other section or part of said chapter, as embodied in this title. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 517. Provisions of certain chapters and articles cumulative.—The provisions of the articles and chapters mentioned in the preceding article shall be held to be cumulative of all laws now in force applicable to state banks or banking and trust companies, incorporated under the laws of Texas, not in conflict therewith. [Id. sec. 47.]

Article 518. Commissioner of insurance and banking; bond; seal; not to be interested, etc.; salary.—The commissioner of insurance and banking shall, in addition to his duties as now prescribed by law, be superintendent and inspector of all corporations incorporated under the provisions of this title, availing themselves of its provisions, under the title and designation of commissioner of insurance and banking. He shall give, in addition to the bond now required of him by law, a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the state of Texas, with two or more securities, to be approved by the governor and filed in the office of the secretary of state, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as commissioner. The secretary of state shall provide the commissioner of insurance and banking with an official seal with which he shall authenticate all instruments of writing executed by him under this title. The commissioner of insurance and banking shall not be, either directly or indirectly, interested in any such corporation, and shall receive as compensation or salary, for his services under this act, the sum of five hundred dollars per annum, in addition to his compensation as now fixed by law. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 501, sec. 38.]

Art. 519. Commissioner may employ examiners.—Such commissioner shall employ, from time to time, such clerks and examiners as he may need to discharge, in a proper manner, the duties imposed upon him by law, who shall perform such duties as he shall assign to them. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 520. Examiners; qualifications; oath; bond; right of action on bond for false report.—Every examiner appointed by the commissioner shall be an expert bookkeeper and bank accountant, and, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, take and file in the office of the secretary of state an oath to support the constitution of the state, to faithfully demean himself in office, to make fair and impartial examinations, and that he will not accept, as presents or emoluments, any pay, directly or indirectly, for the discharge of any act in the line of his duty other than the remuneration fixed and accorded him by law, and that he will not reveal the condition of any bank or trust company examined by him, or any information secured in the course of any examination of any bank or trust company, to any one, except the commissioner. No such examiner shall be appointed who has not had practical experience in the banking business for at least five years. No such examiner shall be appointed who is an officer or stockholder in any bank organized under this act. No such examiner shall be appointed receiver of any bank whose books, papers and affairs he shall have examined pursuant to his appointment; and every such examiner shall enter into a bond, payable to the state, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, to be approved by the commissioner and deposited in the office of the state comptroller, conditioned that he will faithfully perform his duties as such examiner; and, in case any such examiner shall knowingly report any such financial company, bank or trust company, in an insolvent condition, or in case he shall report any such financial company, bank or trust company, to be solvent, knowing the same to be otherwise, and any person be injured thereby, such person shall have a right of action on such bond for his injuries. Such action shall be brought in the name of the state on the relation of the injured party. [Id. sec. 43.]

Indictment disqualifies, until, etc.—Upon indictment of any such examiner for any violation of the provisions of chapters 5 and 6 of this title, he shall be disqualified from further discharging the duties of such office, until such indictment is fully disposed of. [Id. sec. 68.]

Art. 521. Appointment and compensation, etc., of examiners; accounts.—The commissioner of insurance and banking, from time to time, shall appoint such number of state bank examiners as may be necessary to make the examination of banking corporations required by law, which number shall at no time exceed one for each forty banking corporations then subject to examination under the laws of this state. As full compensation for the performance of the duties of examiners, each person so appointed shall be entitled to receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, besides necessary traveling expenses. An itemized account of such expenses shall be rendered monthly, under oath, by each examiner and shall be approved by the commissioner. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 505. Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 424, sec. 33.]

Art. 522. Commissioner to examine banks quarterly, etc.; power of commissioner and examiners to administer oaths; examination fees how paid, proportioned, etc.; when collected, to be paid into treasury to credit general revenue fund; payments for salaries and expenses of examinations, etc., in enforcing certain provisions of law, made how.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner of insurance and banking, at least once in each quarter of each calendar year, to cause each banking corporation, heretofore or hereafter incorporated under the general laws of the state of Texas, subject by law to examination, to be thoroughly and fully examined, and any such corporations may be examined whenever such commissioner may deem it necessary or expedient. Such commissioner and all state bank examiners shall have the power to administer oaths to any person whose testimony may be desired for the purpose of any such examinations. The expense of every general and special examination shall be paid by the corporation examined in such amount as the commissioner of insurance and banking shall certify to be just and reasonable. Provided, such expenses shall be paid in proportion to the amount of capital stock of the various corporations as follows: Those with a capital stock of ten thousand dollars shall not pay more than twelve and one-half dollars; those with a capital stock of more than ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars shall not pay more than fifteen dollars; those with a capital stock of more than twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars shall not pay more than twenty dollars; those with a capital stock of more than fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars shall not pay more than thirty dollars; those with a capital stock of more than one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall not pay more than thirty-seven and one-half dollars; those with a capital stock of more than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars shall not pay more than seventy-five dollars; those with a capital stock of more than five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars shall not pay more than one hundred and twenty-five dollars; those with a capital stock of more than one million dollars and not exceeding two million dollars shall not pay more than one hundred and fifty dollars; those with a capital stock of more than two million dollars and not exceeding four million dollars shall not pay more than two hundred dollars; and those with a capital stock exceeding four million dollars shall not pay more than three hundred dollars. The permanent surplus of any such corporation shall be reckoned in ascertaining the fees for examination as a part of its capital stock. All sums collected as examination fees shall be paid by the commissioner of insurance and banking directly into the state treasury, to the credit of the general revenue fund. Payments for salaries and expenses of examinations and for expenses of the commissioner of insurance and banking in enforcing this title shall be made upon the certificate of the commissioner of insurance and banking by warrant of the comptroller upon the state treasurer. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 501, 1909, 2 S. S., p. 422, sec. 26.]

Art. 523. Duties of commissioner in cases of certain derelictions, etc., of banks, etc.; duties of attorney general.—Whenever the commissioner shall have reason to believe that the capital stock of any corporation, subject to the provisions of this title, is reduced, by impairment or otherwise, below the amount required by law, or by its certificates or articles of association, he shall require such corporation to make good the deficiency. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner, from any examination made by him or his examiners, that any such bank or trust company is conducting its business in an unsafe, unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal, direct the discontinuance of such illegal and unsafe and unauthorized practices, and strict conformity with the requirements of the law, and with safety and security in its transactions; and, if wrong entries or unlawful uses of the funds of such corporation have been made, he or they shall require that such entries shall be corrected and such sums unlawfully paid out shall be restored by the person or persons responsible for the wrongful or illegal payment thereof; and, whenever any corporation shall refuse or neglect to make any such report, as is hereinbefore required, or to comply with any such orders as aforesaid, or whenever it shall appear to the commissioner that it is unsafe or inexpedient for any such corporation to continue to transact business, or that extraordinary withdrawals of money are jeopardizing the interest of remaining depositors, or that any director or officer has abused his trust, or been guilty of misconduct or malversation in his official position, injurious to the institution, or that it has suffered a serious loss by fire, burglary, repudiation or otherwise, he shall communicate the facts to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute such proceedings as the nature of the case may require. Such proceedings may be for an order of officers or members of the board of directors [or] for any other remedy suggested by the conditions disclosed to the court; and the court, or judge thereof, in vacation, before whom such proceedings shall be instituted, shall have power forthwith to grant such orders, and, in its or his discretion, from time to time, to modify or revoke the same, and to grant such relief as the evidence, situation of the parties and the interests involved, shall seem to require. If, from an examination made by the commissioner, or by one of his examiners, it shall be discovered that any bank or trust company organized under this act is insolvent, or that its continuance in business will seriously jeopardize the safety of its depositors or other creditors, and, if the action is taken from an examination by an examiner, such examiner shall recommend the closing of the bank, then it shall be the duty of the commissioner, if he approves such recommendation, by himself or one of his examiners, immediately to close said bank or trust company, and take charge of all the property and effects thereof. Upon taking charge of any bank or trust company, the commissioner shall, as soon as practicable, ascertain, by a thorough examination into the affairs, its actual financial condition; and, whenever he shall become satisfied that such corporation cannot resume business or liquidate its indebtedness to the satisfaction of all its creditors, he shall report the fact of its insolvency to the attorney general, who shall, immediately upon the receipt of such notice, institute proper proceedings in the proper court for the purpose of having a receiver appointed to take charge of such bank or trust company and to wind up the affairs and business thereof, for the benefit of its depositors, creditors and stockholders; and it is made the duty of the court, or the judge thereof, in vacation, summarily to appoint said receiver to take possession of the property and assets of said bank, for the purpose of winding up the business thereof, any complaint or opposition of the bank or trust company, or its officers, subsequently to be heard in open court. The commissioner may appoint a special agent to take charge of the affairs of insolvent banks or trust companies temporarily, until a receiver is appointed, such agent to qualify, give bond and receive compensation the same as a regularly appointed bank examiner, such compensation to be paid by the bank, or allowed by the court, as costs in case of the appointment of a receiver; provided, that in no case shall any bank continue in charge of such special agent for a longer period than sixty days. Any incorporated bank or trust company doing business in this state, under the laws cited in this title, may place its affairs and assets under the control of the commissioner, by posting a notice on its front door as follows: "This institution is in the hands of the commissioner of insurance and banking of the state of Texas." The post of this notice, or of a notice by the commissioner, that he has taken possession of any bank, shall be sufficient to place all its assets and property, of whatever nature, in the possession of the commissioner, and shall operate as a bar to any attachment proceedings whatever. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 502, sec. 40.]

Art. 524. Refusal to submit to inspection, etc., to be reported to attorney general, his duty.—If any corporation, subject to the provisions of this title, shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of the commissioner, or any of his examiners, or if any officer or director thereof shall refuse to submit to be examined on oath touching the concerns of said corporation, or if it shall be found to have violated its charter, or any law of the state binding upon it, the commissioner shall report the fact to the attorney general, who shall institute such action or proceedings against such corporation as is authorized in article 523 against insolvent banks. [Id. sec. 42.]

Art. 525. Directors to furnish statement under oath, etc., when required by commissioner, etc.—The board of directors of any such bank, savings bank, or trust company, whenever required thereto by the commissioner, shall furnish a statement, to be filed in his office, under oath before a notary public, by the president, cashier or secretary, and attested by three of the directors, of the actual condition of the affairs of such bank or trust company at the close of business on the day designated, and which day shall be prior to such call; such statement to be upon the form prescribed by the commissioner. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 526. Form of statement.—The statement required by article 525 shall be in the following form, to wit:

“Official statement of the financial condition of the.....

indictment or information, before a competent tribunal, he shall be punished by removal from office and by a fine as provided by the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 528. Publication of statement, etc., and posting.—Publication of the statement shall be made by banking corporations in one or more newspapers published in the town, city or county where it is located, if there is one so published; provided, if said banking corporation is located in a town or city having a population exceeding ten thousand inhabitants, then such publication must be in a daily newspaper, if such is published in such city; but, if such corporation is located in a town or city having a population of ten thousand inhabitants or less, then said publication may be in either a daily or weekly newspaper published in said city or town as aforesaid; and in all cases, a copy of the said statement shall be posted in the banking house, accessible to all. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 529. Books and records to be open for inspection of persons interested.—The books and all records of the proceedings of such corporation shall be kept open for inspection of all persons interested. [Id. sec. 62.]

Art. 530. Directors may appoint and remove officers, etc.; authority of officers, etc.; acts without authority void.—The directors of any bank or trust company organized under this title may appoint and remove any officer or other employe at pleasure. The officer or employe shall have no power to endorse, sell, pledge, or hypothecate any note, bond or other obligation received by such corporation for money loaned, until such power and authority shall have been given such officer or employe by the board of directors in a regular meeting of the board, a written record of which proceedings shall have first been made upon the minutes of the corporation; and all acts of endorsing, selling, pledging or hypothecating, done by said cashier, or other officer or employe of any such bank or trust company, without the authority of the board of directors given as here provided, shall be null and void. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 510. Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 425, sec. 34.]

Art 531. Reduction of capital stock permitted and regulated.—Every corporation doing a banking business in this state may, at any time, reduce its capital stock to any sum not less than ten thousand dollars, and every trust company may reduce its capital to not less than one hundred thousand dollars, in accordance with the provisions of this act; the capital stock of any corporation doing banking business in this state shall not be reduced below the amount provided for in article 375, said amount regulated by the population of towns and cities in this state. The capital stock of every trust company so reduced must conform to the provisions of article 384. The capital stock of savings banks shall not be reduced contrary to the provisions of article 392; provided, that no reduction of such stock shall be made except upon the written consent of the owners of not less than two-thirds of the stock of such corporation. Notice of the intention to so reduce the capital stock shall be published for thirty days, in some daily newspaper in the city or county where such bank is located, or in a weekly paper, for four insertions before the time when such reduction shall be effected, and the last insertion of such notice shall be at least ten days before the date of the reduction; provided, that a statement of such reduction of capital stock, acknowledged by the officers of the corporation, shall be recorded and filed in the same manner as provided in articles 372 and 382 for the original articles of agreement. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 508, sec. 51.]

Art. 532. Increase of capital stock permitted and regulated.—Any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at any time, increase its capital stock to any amount not exceeding ten million dollars, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, with the consent of the persons holding a majority of the stock of such corporation, which shall be obtained at a meeting of the shareholders, called for that purpose. Upon the presentation of a petition signed by the owner or owners of a majority of the stock, asking for such increase, the board of directors shall call a meeting for the purpose of voting on such proposition, sixty days notice of which said meeting shall be published in some daily or weekly newspaper printed and published in the city or town in which the corporation is located, the last insertion to be not more than five days before the day fixed for such meeting, giving the time, place and the amount of the proposed increase. If, upon a canvass of the votes at such meeting, it is ascertained that the proposition has carried, it shall be so declared by the president of the meeting, and the proceedings entered of record. When the full amount of said proposed increase has been bona fide subscribed and paid in cash to the board of directors of said corporation, then a statement of the proceedings, showing a compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the increase of capital, actually subscribed and paid up, shall be made out, signed and verified by the affidavit of the president and countersigned by the secretary, and such statement shall be acknowledged by the president and received in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county or city in which such corporation is located; and a certified copy of such recorded instrument shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Upon the filing of such certified copy, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate that such corporation has complied with the law made and provided for the increase of capital stock, and the amount to which said capital stock has been increased. Thereupon the capital stock of such corporation shall be increased to the amount specified, and such certificate or certified copies thereof shall be taken in all the courts of the state as evidence of such increase. [Id. sec. 52.]

Art. 533. Power to increase or diminish stock, and extend business.—Any corporation which may hereafter be formed for any of the purposes contemplated by this title may increase or diminish its capital stock by complying with the provisions of this chapter, in any amount within the limits of this chapter, and may also extend its business to any other purposes authorized by this title, subject to the provisions and liabilities thereof. [Id. sec. 63.]

Art. 534. Notice of meeting to avail of privileges of this title; increase or diminish stock, etc.—Whenever any corporation shall desire to call a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of availing itself of the privileges and provisions of this title, or for increasing or diminishing the amount of its capital stock, or for extending or changing its business, it shall be the duty of the directors to publish a notice, signed by at least a majority of them, in a newspaper of the county, if any shall be published therein, at least sixty days, and to deposit a written or printed copy thereof in the postoffice, postage prepaid, addressed to each stockholder at his usual place of residence, at least sixty days previous to the day fixed upon for holding such meeting, specifying the object of the meeting, the time and place when and where such meeting shall be held, and the amount to which it shall be extended or changed. The notice provided for in this article shall be published at least once a week, and the first publication must be at least sixty days before the day of such meeting. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 535. Vote of majority of stock necessary to increase stock, etc.—An affirmative vote of the persons holding the larger amount in value of all the shares of stock shall be necessary to increase or diminish the amount of its capital stock, or to extend or change its business as aforesaid, or to enable a corporation to avail itself of the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 536. How to proceed at each meeting; statement to be made, etc., and recorded with secretary of state; certificate; effect.—If, at any time and place specified in the notice provided for in article 534, stockholders shall appear in person or by proxy, in number representing not less than a majority of all the shares of stock of the corporation, they shall organize, by choosing one of the directors chairman of the meeting, and a suitable person for the secretary, and proceed to a vote of those present, in person or by proxy; and if, on canvassing the vote, it shall appear that a sufficient number of votes has been given in favor of increasing or diminishing the amount of capital, or of extending or changing its business as aforesaid, or availing itself of the privileges and provisions of this title, a statement of the proceedings, showing a compliance with the provisions of this title, the amount of capital actually paid in, the business to which it is extended or changed, the amount of assets and liabilities of the corporation and the amount to which the capital stock shall be increased or diminished, shall be made out, signed and verified by the affidavit of the chairman, and be countersigned by the secretary; and such statement shall be acknowledged by the chairman and recorded, as provided in articles 372, 382 and 389; and a certified copy of such recorded instrument shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who shall thereupon issue a certificate that such corporation has complied with the law made and provided for the increase or decrease of capital stock, as the case may be, and the amount to which said capital stock is increased or decreased; and such a certificate shall be taken in all courts of this state as evidence of such increase or decrease of stock; and thereupon the capital stock of such corporation shall be increased or diminished to the amount specified in such certificate, and the business extended or changed as aforesaid, and the corporation shall be entitled to the privileges and provisions and be subject to the liabilities of this title. [Id. sec. 65.]

Art. 537. Executor, etc., and pledgor to represent and vote stock.—Every such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall represent the shares of stock in his hands at all meetings of the corporation, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder; and every person who shall pledge his stock as aforesaid, may, nevertheless, represent the same at all such meetings, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder. [Id. sec. 61.]

Art. 538. Directors may invest money on what securities.—The directors of banks and trust companies created under this title shall have power of investing the moneys placed in their charge, in loans secured by real estate or other sufficient collateral security, in public bonds of the United States or of this state, in the bonds of any incorporated city, or county, or independent school district in this state. [Id. sec. 58.]

Art. 539. Loans limited.—No incorporated bank nor trust company in this state, organized under this title, shall loan its money to any individual, corporation or company, directly or indirectly, or permit any individual, corporation or company, to become, at any time, indebted or liable to it in a sum exceeding twenty-five per cent of its capital stock actually paid in, or permit a line of loans or credits to any greater amount to any individual or corporation; a permanent surplus, the setting apart of which shall have been certified to the secretary of state, and which cannot be diverted without due notice to said officer, may be taken and considered as a part of the capital stock for the purposes of this article; provided, such surplus is equal to, or in excess of, fifty per cent of the capital stock of said bank; provided, that the provisions in this section [article] shall not be construed as in anywise to interfere with the rules and regulations of any clearing association in this state in reference to the daily balances between banks; provided, that this section [article] shall not apply to balances due from correspondents subject to draft; and provided, further, that the discount of the following classes of paper shall not be considered as money borrowed within the meaning of this article, viz.

1. The discount of bills of exchange, drawn in good faith, against actually existing values.

2. The discount of paper upon the collateral security of warehouse receipts, covering agricultural and manufactured products in store in elevators and warehouses, under the following conditions: First, that the actual market value of the property held in store and covered by such receipts shall, at all times, exceed by at least twenty-five per cent the amount loaned upon the same. Second, that the full amount of the loans shall at all times be covered by policies of fire insurance issued by the companies admitted to do business in this state, to the extent of their ability to cover such loans, and then by companies having sufficient paid up capital to be so admitted, and all such policies shall be made payable in case of loss to the bank or holder of the warehouse receipts. [Id. sec. 53.]

Art. 540. Company may qualify as guardian, executor, etc., or be sole guarantor or surety on bonds, upon what conditions; evidence of compliance.—Any company, which may hereafter be organized under the provisions of this title to do business in this state, which shall make the state treasurer a deposit of fifty thousand dollars, consisting of cash, treasury notes of the United States, or government, state, county, municipal or other bond, or bonds, notes or debentures, secured by first mortgages or deeds of trust, or mortgages or deeds of trust on unincumbered real estate in this state, worth at least double the amount loaned thereon, or such other first class securities as the said commissioner may approve, said bonds or securities not to be received or held at a rate above par, but if their market value is less than par, they shall not be held above their actual market value, and which shall satisfy said commissioner of its solvency, and shall have received the certificate of said commissioner that such company has made said deposit and has satisfied him of its solvency, it being hereby made the duty of said commissioner to issue such certificate in accordance with the facts, shall be permitted to qualify as guardian, curator, executor, administrator, assignee, receiver, trustee by appointment of any court or under will, or depository of money in court, without giving bond as such, and become sole guarantor or surety in or upon any bond required to be given under the laws of this state, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding; and, whenever any such company shall exhibit to the court, judge, clerk or other officer making such appointment, or whose duty it is to approve such bond, the certificate of the commissioner of banking of the state that such company has complied with the provisions of this chapter with respect to said deposit, and proof of solvency, the court or officer making such appointment, or whose duty it is to approve such bond, may appoint such company to such office or trust, and permit it to qualify as such without giving bond, and permit such company to become sole guarantor or surety upon any bond required to be given under the laws of this state, without requiring any other surety therefor. Provided, said company maintain a premium reserve of the amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks, to be determined by taking fifty per cent of the premiums on all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all gross premiums on risks that have more than one year to run, and further that they be required to file with the insurance department, within sixty days after the first of January of each year, a report sworn to by president and secretary, or by two of its principal officers, as to the surety and bond business done by the same, and that they shall pay taxes thereon as required of other surety companies. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 541. Deposit primarily liable for said obligation, and solely until, etc.—The funds so deposited with the state treasurer shall be primarily liable for the obligation of such company as guardian, curator, executor, administrator, assignee, executor trustee by appointment of the court, or under will, depository of money in court, guarantor or surety in or upon any bond required to be given under the laws of this state, or other fiduciary capacity, under appointment of any court, and shall not be liable for any other debt or obligation of the company until all trust liabilities aforesaid of such company have been discharged. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 542. Statutes applicable.—All articles of the statutes, so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, shall apply to all companies doing business under article 540. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 543. Substitution of securities when.—And, in case the interest on any security deposited with the state treasurer under articles 540 and 541, shall not be paid at maturity, and shall remain unpaid for six months thereafter, it shall be his duty to require the company which deposited the same to remove them and deposit there in their place other securities, equal in amount to those removed, upon which the interest has not been defaulted. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 544. Who else may enjoy privileges conferred by article 540, and how.—Any person or association of persons, or any other corporation, organized under the laws of this state, doing the business specified in article 540, shall enjoy the privileges conferred by said article by complying with the provisions thereof. And any corporation, organized under the laws of any other State, may do the business specified in said article by complying with the laws of this State relating to insurance other than life. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 545. Company complying with provisions of article 540, not to exercise certain powers; unless.—Any company that complies with the provisions of article 540 shall not exercise any other of the powers enumerated in article 385, except such as are mentioned in said article 540, unless such company shall have, at the time of making such deposit, a paid up capital or surplus of at least one hundred thousand dollars in addition to said deposit of fifty thousand dollars. [Id. sec. 66.]

Art. 546. Bank, etc., not to employ its moneys in trade, commerce or industrial plants, provided, etc.—No corporation organized under this title shall employ its moneys, directly or indirectly, in trade or commerce, by buying and selling ordinary goods, chattels, wares and merchandise, or by owning or operating industrial plants; provided, that it may sell all kinds of property which may come into its possession as security for loans, or in the ordinary collection of debts. [Id. sec. 54.]

Art. 547. Power to own real estate limited.—Banks and trust companies, created under this title, shall own only such real estate as may be required for the transaction of their business, and such as they may acquire in the enforcement and collection of debts or liabilities due to them, which lands so acquired by any such corporation shall be alienated by it, within five years after its acquisition, to some one not interested, directly or indirectly, in said company. [Id. sec. 58.]

Art. 548. Restrictions as to withdrawal of capital and dividends; liability of officers, etc.—No bank and no bank or trust company, or any member of either, shall, during the time it shall continue in banking or banking and trust operations, withdraw, or permit to be withdrawn, either in the form of dividends or otherwise, any portion of its capital. If losses have at any time been sustained by any such association equal to or exceeding its undivided profits then on hand, no dividend shall be made; and no dividend shall ever be made by a bank or bank and trust company while it continues its banking and trust operations to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand, deducting therefrom its losses and bad debts. All debts due to any state bank, on which interest is past due and unpaid for a period of six months, unless the same are well secured or in process of collection, shall be considered bad debts within the meaning of this article. The board of directors of any bank or trust company, organized under this title, may declare a semi-annual or quarterly dividend, if such dividend has been earned, provided the corporation be fully solvent, without such earnings proposed to be divided. But they shall not declare a dividend at any time when the capital of such corporation shall have become impaired to such an extent that it is not worth in good resources the full amount paid in after the payment of all liabilities; and any officer or director of such corporation, who shall assent to declaring and paying dividends where the capital stock is so impaired, shall be personally liable to the creditors of the corporation to the amount of his proportion of the proposed dividend, if any loss occur by reason of the payment of such dividend. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 507. Acts 1909, 2 S. S. p. 426, sec. 38.]

Art. 549. Dividends, regulation of; liability of directors for violations provided, etc.—Dividends of the profits of the corporation may be declared by the trustees or directors thereof, every six months or oftener, as the directors may elect; but no such dividend shall be made and paid to the stockholders while such corporation is in an insolvent condition, nor shall any dividend be declared which would render such corporation insolvent; and, if the directors of any such corporation shall knowingly declare and pay any dividends, when the corporation is insolvent, or of any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts of the corporation then existing, and for all that shall thereafter be contracted while they shall respectively continue in office; provided, that if any of the directors shall object to the declaring of such dividend; or to the payment of the same, and shall, at any time before the time fixed for the payment thereof, file a certificate of their objections in writing with the clerk of the corporation, and with the county clerk of the county, they shall be exempt from the said liability. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 511, sec. 58.]

Art. 550. Dividends regulated; surplus fund.—The board of directors of any bank or trust company in this state organized under this title, when it shall declare a dividend, shall first set apart to the surplus fund ten per cent of the net profits of the bank for the period covered by the dividend until the same shall amount to fifty per cent of its capital stock; and said surplus shall not be diminished, except for the payment of any losses which may occur; provided, if there are undivided profits, these shall first be used in payment of such losses. [Id. sec. 55.]

Art. 551. Bank, etc., shall not make voluntary general assignment, etc.; duty in failing condition; duty of commissioner, no attachment, etc.—It shall be unlawful in this state for a bank, savings bank or trust company, organized under this title, to make a voluntary general assignment of its business and affairs. In case it shall find itself to be in a failing condition, it shall immediately place itself in the hands of the commissioner. Any deed of voluntary general assignment, executed by any such bank or trust company, shall be null and void; and, in case the officers or directors of any such institution shall endeavor to make any voluntary general assignment of its assets, the commissioner shall immediately take possession thereof and proceed as heretofore provided in the case of insolvent banks in this state, for the appointment of a receiver by court. All transfers of the notes, bonds, bills of exchange or other evidence of debt, owing to any bank or trust company organized under this title, or of deposits to its credit, all assignments of mortgages, securities on real estate, or of judgment or decrees in its favor, all deposits of money, bullion or other valuable thing for its use, or for the use of any of its shareholders or creditors, and all payments of money to it made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, made with a view to prevent the application of its assets in the manner prescribed by this title, or with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, shall be utterly null and void. No attachment, injunction or execution shall be issued against such bank or trust company, or its property, before final judgment in any suit, action or proceeding in any court. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 552. Stockholder's liability for debts of bank, etc., defined.—If default shall be made in the payment of any debt or liability contracted by any bank, trust company, surety and guaranty company, [or] savings bank, each stockholder of such corporation, as long as he owns shares therein, and for twelve months after the date of a transfer thereof, shall be personally liable for all debts of such corporation existing at the date of such transfer, or at the date of such default, to an amount additional to the par value of such shares so owned or transferred, equal to the par value of such shares so owned or transferred. [Id. sec. 59.]

Art. 553. Responsibility of directors for certain losses.—For any losses of money which the capital stock shall not be sufficient to satisfy, the directors of corporations shall be responsible in the same manner and to the same extent that directors are now responsible in law or equity. [Id. sec. 59.]

Art. 554. Receipt of deposits or creation of debts after knowledge of insolvency, etc., liability of officers, etc., for.—No president, director, manager, cashier, or other officer or agent, of any bank or banking institution organized and doing business under the provisions of this title, shall receive [or] assent to the reception of deposits, or create and assent to the creation of any debts by such bank or banking institution, after he shall have knowledge of the fact that it is insolvent or in failing circumstances. Every person violating the provisions of this article shall be individually responsible for such deposits so received, and all debts so contracted; provided, any director who may have paid more than his share of the liabilities mentioned in this article may have the proper remedy at law against such other persons as shall not have paid their full share of such liabilities; and provided, further, that in case of the insolvency of one or more of such officers, agents or managers, the same shall be paid, for the time being, by those who are solvent, in equal proportion. [Id. sec. 67.]

Art. 555. Suit for recovery of deposits or debts received or created after insolvency; prima facie evidence.—In all suits brought for the recovery of the amount of any deposits received or debts created, all officers, agents or managers of any bank, savings bank, or trust company, charged with having so assented to the reception of such deposits, or the creation of such debt, may be joined as defendants, or proceeded against severally; and the fact that such banking institution was so insolvent or in failing circumstances at the time of the reception of the deposit charged to have been received, or the creation of the debt charged to have been created, shall be prima facie evidence of such knowledge and assent to such deposit, or creation of such debt on the part of such officer, agent or manager so charged therewith. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 556. Who liable where stock held by executor, etc., or as security.—No person holding stock in the corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as stockholder in such corporation; but the person pledging such stock shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as stockholder accordingly. And the estate and funds in the hands of such executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator or intestate, or the ward or person interested in such trust fund would have been if he had been living and competent to act and hold the same stock in his own name. [Id. sec. 60.]

Art. 557. No incorporated bank, etc., to do business, etc., otherwise in state, except, etc.; forfeitures for violation.—It shall not be lawful after ninety days from the time this bill takes effect for any incorporated bank other than corporations chartered by the United States, or trust company, savings bank, or any corporations save and except such as are organized under the provisions of this act [title], or which take advantage of this title, as provided in article 563, or corporations created by virtue of the acts of the legislature passed prior to the adoption of the constitution of 1876, and now authorized to do business in this state, to advertise or put forth any sign as a bank, trust company or savings bank, or in any way solicit or receive business as such or as any such, or to use as their name, or part of their name, or any sign, advertising or letterhead or envelope, the word "bank," "banker," "banking," "trust," "trust company," "savings bank," "savings," or any other term which may be confused with the name of corporations organized under this title; provided, that corporations heretofore organized under the general laws of the state, and foreign corporations heretofore or hereafter authorized to do business in this state, authorized by their charters to use such name or parts of names, as are hereby prohibited, may continue to use the same by using thereafter the words "without banking privileges." Any such corporation violating the provisions of this article shall forfeit its charter, or, if a foreign corporation, its permit to do business within this state, and the attorney general shall, upon information lodged with him to that effect, bring an action against such corporation to wind up its affairs, as now provided by law for insolvent corporations, and, in addition thereto, any corporation or officer or agent thereof, who shall offend against those provisions, shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of one hundred dollars per day for every day such offense shall be continued, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the state, by prosecuting attorneys of the several counties, in any court of cognizance thereof, for the use of the school fund in the county in which such offense shall be committed.

This title shall not apply to corporations chartered by the acts of the legislature before the adoption of the present constitution, and now authorized to do business in this state; but such corporations may accept any one or more of the provisions of this title, by complying as to such provisions with article 563, and shall, as to the provisions so accepted, be subject to the terms of this law as to reports and examinations. [Id. sec. 76.]

Art. 558. Private individuals or firms in banking business, requirements as to.—It shall be the duty of private individuals or firms, engaging in the banking business, to use after the name under which the business is conducted the word in parenthesis "unincorporated," and failure to comply with this article shall subject the offender to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be collected in the manner provided in article 557. [Id. sec. 76.]

Art. 559. No foreign corporation, except national banks, shall do banking and discount business in this state.—No foreign corporation other than the national banks of the United States shall be permitted to do a business of banking and discount in this state. [Id. sec. 79.]

Art. 560. Corporations created, etc., charged with public use; banks, etc., created etc., subject to state control and regulation by legislature.—Corporations created for the purposes mentioned in this title are hereby declared to be charged with the public use, and all banks or trust companies or corporations created under this title shall be under state control and be subject to such legislation as the legislature may enact for the government and regulation of such banks and trust companies or corporations in this state. The right, privileges and powers conferred by the terms of this title to corporations taking advantage thereof or incorporating hereunder are to be held subject to the right of the legislature to amend, alter or reform the same. [Id. sec. 80.]

Art. 561. Business of solvent corporation may be closed, how.—Whenever the board of directors of any solvent corporation, organized under, or subject to, the provisions of this title, shall deem it necessary, expedient or desirable, to close the business of the corporation, they shall call a meeting of the stockholders to vote upon the proposition to close the business of the corporation, first having given sixty days notice thereof, by publication once every week, in a newspaper published in the county or city in which such corporation is located, also by mailing notices, at least sixty days prior to the day fixed for such meeting, addressed to the stockholders at their usual place of business or residence. The vote upon such proposition shall be taken by ballot, and the resolution and vote thereon shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors. If, at such meeting, at least two-thirds of the shares of the corporation are voted in favor of such proposition, the board of directors shall proceed to wind up the business of such corporation, as in this article provided; a copy of such proceedings, to be certified by the president and secretary of such corporation, shall be filed with the secretary of state. The board of directors shall thereupon give notice to all depositors, creditors and stockholders of the adoption of such resolution, by publication once a week thereof, in a daily or weekly newspaper, for three months thereafter, and by a written or printed notice, personally served upon, or mailed to, every depositor, creditor or stockholder of such corporation, at last known residence, postage fully paid. Within six months after the filing of such certificate in the office of the secretary of state, the corporation shall pay all sums due depositors and creditors, whom they can discover, and who claim the moneys due them, and, upon the expiration of six months after the filing of such certificate, it shall be the duty of the corporation to make a statement from the books of said corporation, certified by the president and secretary, of the names of all depositors and creditors who have not claimed, or have not received the balances to their credit, or due them respectively, and to file the same with the state treasurer, and to pay the said state treasurer all such unclaimed deposits, moneys and credits, for the use and benefit of such depositors and creditors. Whenever all the depositors and creditors have been paid in full, or the amounts due those who can not be found, or who have not claimed same, have been deposited with the treasurer of the state, for their use and benefit, the board of directors shall divide the capital stock, guaranty and indemnity fund, and all other assets, or the proceeds thereof, securities or real estate in which same may have been invested, among the stockholders ratably. The board of directors shall thereupon, after having divided the remaining property among the shareholders, as herein provided, file in the office of the secretary of state a certificate surrendering the corporate franchise. [Id. sec. 77.]

Art. 562. Who may accept provisions of this title, and how.—Any bank, trust company, or savings bank organized under the general or any special laws of this state, whose capital is fully paid up and unimpaired, may, with the consent of a majority of the stockholders, accept the provisions of this title, by filing with the secretary of state a certificate of such acceptance, signed by its president and secretary. The consent of the stockholders of such acceptance may be in writing, or by a vote of the stockholders, at any meeting at which all of the stockholders have due notice, and vote in favor of such acceptance. Upon the filing of such certificate of acceptance, such corporation shall thereupon become subject in all respects to the provisions of this title, and to the general laws of this state relating to corporations with like effect, as if it had been originally incorporated under the provisions of this title; and it shall take such action as may be necessary to make its corporate organization conform in all respects to the provisions of this title. And when any existing corporation shall determine to avail itself of the provisions of this title, and shall do so by amending its charter or filing a certificate as hereinbefore provided, and it shall not thereafter transact any corporate business until it has fully complied with the provisions of this title; provided, that when an existing corporation accepts the benefit of this title, such corporation shall be deemed and held to have abandoned, waived and surrendered all of its charter powers granted under charters heretofore issued, and shall derive their sole powers under the terms of this title. [Id. sec. 75.]

Art. 563. Who may accept privileges of this chapter, and how.—Any private corporation now incorporated under the laws of Texas, possessing banking powers or privileges, or any of the powers or privileges by this title conferred upon savings banks or upon trust companies, may, by a vote of the majority of its capital stock, accept the provisions of this title, and amend its charter, and shall have thereafter such powers as are hereby conferred upon other "banks," "savings banks," or "trust companies." The vote authorizing such amendment shall be certified to the superintendent of banking [commissioner of insurance and banking] together with an application as provided herein; and, upon compliance with all the other requirements of this title, for the organization of corporations hereunder, the superintendent of banking [commissioner of insurance and banking] shall issue his certificate as provided herein, authorizing such amendments, and thereafter such corporation shall be authorized to do business under and subject to the terms of this title, with succession from the date of said amendment of its charter for the term herein specified for corporations organized under this title. Corporations amending their charter as herein provided shall have the right to continue business under their corporate names, as designated by the charter amended, or by any name to which it may have been changed by amendments made under and by virtue of the existing general laws of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 78.]

Art. 564. Increase of stock for excessive ratio of deposits to stock and surplus, required; penalty.—If, from the sworn statement of the average daily deposits of any bank, for the year ending on the first day of November, 1909, or of any subsequent year, filed with the commissioner as provided in this title, it shall appear that such average daily deposits for such year amounted to more than five times the capital stock and surplus of such bank on November 1 of each year, if the capital stock of such bank is not more than ten thousand dollars, or more than six times such capital stock and surplus, if the capital stock is more than ten thousand dollars and less than twenty thousand dollars, or seven times such capital stock and surplus, if the capital stock is twenty thousand dollars or more and less than forty thousand dollars, or eight times such capital stock and surplus, if the capital stock is forty thousand dollars or more and less than seventy-five thousand dollars, or nine times such capital stock and surplus, if the capital stock is seventy-five thousand dollars or more and less than one hundred thousand dollars, or ten times such capital stock and surplus, if such capital stock is one hundred thousand dollars or more, then, in any such case, it shall be the duty of the state banking board to require that such state bank shall, within sixty days thereafter, increase its capital by twenty-five per cent thereof; and it shall be the duty of the commissioner to immediately furnish such state bank with a certified copy of the order making such requirement; and, upon receipt of such requisition, the directors of such state bank shall, within the time required, cause such increase to be made in its capital stock; and, if the same is not done within such time, it shall be unlawful for such bank to thereafter receive any deposits at any time when its total demand and time deposits shall in the aggregate amount to more than the limitation herein placed upon deposits. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 423, sec. 27.]

Art. 565. Bank purchasing assets of another bank must first increase stock as above.—Any state bank which purchases the assets of any other bank shall, before the purchase of the assets of such other bank, increase its capital to such an amount that the same will have the ratio to the total deposits of the bank the assets of which it has purchased, as defined and required in the last preceding article. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 566. Savings department deposits not included in estimate for increase of stock.—In computing the aggregate amount of average annual deposits of any bank or banking and trust company, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not it shall be required to increase its capital stock, as provided in this chapter, or for the purpose of determining the amount required to be paid into the depositors guaranty fund, as provided in chapter five of this title, the deposits of its savings department as provided in chapter four of this title shall not be included. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 567. No bank, etc., to own over ten per cent of stock of another, or loan on its stock, if, etc., unless, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any state bank or trust company to own more than ten per cent of the capital stock of any other banking corporation, or to make a loan secured by the stock of any other banking corporation, if, by the making of such loan, the total stock of such other banking corporation held by it as collateral will exceed in the aggregate ten per cent of the capital stock of such other banking corporation, unless the ownership or the taking of a greater percentage of such capital stock as collateral shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and any such excess so taken as collateral or owned by such state bank shall not be held as collateral nor owned by it for a longer period than six months. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 568. Bank, etc., may loan or discount on security of cotton and cotton seed products, as national banks.—All state banks and trust companies shall be permitted to loan upon or discount commercial or business paper secured by lien upon cotton and cotton seed products, to the same extent and upon the same conditions as is now or may be provided for national banks under the laws of the United States. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 569. Bank may not loan on security of its own stock, unless, etc.; penalty.—No state bank shall make any loan or discount on the security of the shares of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent a loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and stock so purchased or acquired shall, within six months from the time of its purchase, be sold or disposed of at public or private sale; or, in default thereof, such state bank shall be considered to have its capital stock impaired to the extent of the par value of such shares. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 570. Restrictions, etc., upon pledge of securities of bank, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any such bank to hypothecate or pledge as collateral security, for money borrowed upon bills payable or certificates of deposit, or otherwise, its securities to an amount more than fifty per cent greater than the amount borrowed thereon, or for any state bank to issue or execute any bills or other evidences of indebtedness secured, or to be secured, by the pledge or hypothecation of any of its securities, which shall not contain a provision that in the event such state bank shall, for any cause, have its property and business taken possession of by the commissioner, at any time before such pledge or hypothecation shall have been actually foreclosed, a grace of thirty days after the date of such taking possession shall be allowed in which such bank or commissioner shall be permitted to redeem such securities so hypothecated or pledged, by the payment of the amount due as principal and interest on such indebtedness. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 571. No bank, etc., to loan to commissioner, etc.; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any state bank or banking and trust company in this state to, directly or indirectly, loan to the commissioner of insurance and banking, or any other person interested in or employed by the department of insurance and banking, and it is hereby expressly provided that a violation of this ar-title shall render such corporation liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered for the benefit of the state. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 572. Neither commissioner, clerks, employes, nor examiners, shall be interested in bank, etc., or indebted to same; penalty.—Neither the commissioner of insurance and banking, nor any regularly appointed clerks or employes of the department of insurance and banking, nor any state bank examiner, shall, at any time during his incumbency, be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in any state bank or banking and trust company subject to the supervision of the department of insurance and banking, or knowingly be or become indebted, either directly or indirectly, to any such state bank or banking and trust company. The violation of the provisions of this article by any officer or employe named therein shall work a forfeiture of the office or position held by him. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 573. Board may change form of statements required of banks.—The state banking board shall have the power, from time to time, to make such changes in the form of the statements required of each banking corporation as it may deem advisable, and to require any additional statements which it may deem necessary as to average daily deposits, capital stock, surplus, character of deposits and such other matters as it may deem necessary to the enforcement of this title. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 574. Bonds of cashier and treasurer.—Every officer of every state bank, upon whom the powers of a cashier or treasurer may be imposed by the board of directors, shall, before entering or being permitted to enter upon the exercise of such powers, or the duties of his office, give a good and sufficient bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the board of directors may approve, and in such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner of insurance and banking, conditioned to pay the bank such pecuniary loss as the bank may sustain of money or other valuable securities embezzled, wrongly abstracted or wilfully misapplied by said officer, in the course of his employment as such, and in the course of his employment in any other position in the bank to which he may be appointed, reappointed, elected, re-elected, or temporarily assigned. Such bond shall be approved by the board of directors in writing on the minutes of the corporation; and no member of the board of directors or officers of such state bank shall become surety thereon; and the same shall be deposited in some safe place, inaccessible to the maker thereof or the sureties thereupon, to be prescribed by the board of directors and shown upon the minutes of the corporation. [Id. sec. 35.]

TITLE 15.

BEES.

Bees affected with foul brood or other contagious disease to be reported to state entomologist; powers of.....	Article 575	Upon failure of owner, etc., to carry out instructions of the state entomologist.	Article 577
State entomologist to prescribe rules, etc., duties in case of refusal to comply	576	Duty of latter and of county attorney.	577
		Disposition of moneys recovered.....	578

Article 757. Bees affected with foul brood or other contagious disease to be reported to state entomologist; powers of.—If any owner of, or any person having control or possession of, any honey bees in this state knows that any bees so owned or controlled are affected with foul brood, or any other contagious disease, it shall be, and is hereby made, his duty to at once report said fact to the state entomologist, setting out in his said report all the facts known with reference to said infection. The state entomologist shall have full power in his discretion to order any owner or possessor of bees dwelling in hives without movable frames, or not permitting of ready examination, to transfer such bees to a movable frame hive within a specified time. In default of such transfer, the state entomologist may destroy, or order destroyed, such hives, together with the honey, comb, frames and bees contained therein, without recompense to the owner, lessee or agent thereof. [Acts 1903, p. 196, sec. 1.]

Art. 576. State entomologist to prescribe rules, etc.; duties in case of refusal to comply.—The state entomologist shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may in his judgment seem necessary for the eradication of all contagious diseases of bees; and, if at any time the entomologist finds, or has reason to believe, that the owner or keeper of any bees, or the owner of any apiary has refused, or is refusing, to comply with all of any such rules and regulations, then and in that event, the state entomologist is hereby authorized to inspect said bees, and, if necessary, burn diseased colonies, appliances and honey, and do any and all things necessary in the premises to eradicate foul blood [brood] or any other infectious disease of bees. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 577. Upon failure of owner, etc., to carry out instructions of state entomologist; duty of latter and of county attorney.—When any owner or possessor of bees shall fail to carry out the instructions of the state entomologist, as provided in articles 575 and 576, the state entomologist, or his assistant, shall carry out such destruction or treatment, and shall present to the owner of said bees a bill for the actual cost of such destruction or treatment. In the failure of the owner or possessor of such bees to pay said bill within thirty days after the delivery of same to himself, tenant or agent, or within thirty days after mailing same to his usual postoffice address, the state entomologist shall certify to the county attorney of the county wherein such bees are located, the amount and items of such bill; and the county attorney shall file suit for the recovery of said account. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 578. Disposition of moneys recovered.—All moneys recovered by the county attorney for such destruction or treatment shall be paid into the hands of the county treasurer, to become a part of the fund for carrying out the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 3.]

Article 579. [304] [262] Liability of drawer, etc., how fixed by suit in district or county court.—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note, assignable or negotiable by law, may secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser of such bill of exchange, and every indorser of such promissory note, without protest or notice, by instituting suit against the acceptor of such bill of exchange, or against the maker of such promissory note, before the first term of the district or county court to which suit can be brought, after the right of action shall accrue; or by instituting suit before the second term of said court, after the right of action shall accrue, and showing good cause why suit was not instituted before the first term next after the right of action accrued. [Act May 20, 1848, p. 187, sec. 1. P. D. 229.]

Art. 580. [305] [263] How fixed by suit in justice's court.—Whenever the amount of such bill of exchange or promissory note shall be within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the holder thereof may secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser by instituting suit against the acceptor or maker within sixty days next after the right of action shall accrue. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 230.]

Art. 581. [306] [264] Drawer of bill liable on non-acceptance.—The drawer of any bill of exchange which shall not be accepted when presented for acceptance shall be immediately liable for the payment thereof; and the holder of such bill may secure and fix the liability of any indorser thereof by instituting suit against such drawer, within the time and in the manner prescribed by this title. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 231.]

Art. 582. [307] [265] Assignee may sue in his own name.—Any person to whom any of the said negotiable instruments may have been assigned may maintain any action in his own name which the original obligee or payee might have brought; but he shall not only allow all just discounts against himself, but, if he obtained the same after it became due, he shall also allow all just discounts against the assignor before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant; but, should he obtain such instrument before its maturity, by giving for it a valuable consideration, and without notice of any discount or defense against it, then he shall be compelled to allow only the just discounts against himself. [Act June 25, 1840, p. 144, sec. 2. P. D. 221.]

Art. 583. [308] [266] Non-negotiable instruments may be assigned.—The obligee, or assignee, of any written instrument not negotiable by the law merchant may transfer to another, by assignment, all the interest he may have in the same. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 222.]

Art. 584. [309] [267] Assignee of non-negotiable instrument may sue in his own name.—The assignee of any instrument mentioned in the preceding article may maintain an action thereon in his own name, but he shall allow every discount and defense against the same which it would have been subject to in the hands of any previous owner before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant; and in order to hold the assignor as surety for the payment of the instrument, the assignee shall use due diligence to collect the same. [Id.]

Art. 585. [310] [268] Waiver of diligence is not to be shown by parol.—Parol testimony shall be inadmissible to prove that the assignor, drawer, or indorser of any of the aforesaid instruments has released the holder thereof from his obligation to use due diligence to collect the same. [Act Jan. 25, 1840, p. 144, sec. 7. P. D. 225.]

Art. 586. [311] [269] Assignor liable to assignee.—The assignee of any instrument not negotiable by the law merchant shall be entitled to recover from any previous assignor thereof; but, in any suit brought against a remote assignor of such instrument, he shall be subject only to such recovery and shall have the benefit of all defenses which he would have been entitled to had the suit been instituted by any intermediate assignee. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 223.]

Art. 587. [312] [270] Assignor, indorser, etc., may be sued alone, when.—Assignors, indorsers and other parties not primarily liable upon any of the instruments named in this title may be jointly sued with their principal obligors, or may be sued alone in the cases provided for in articles 1842 and 1843. [Id. sec. 6. P. D. 225. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 588. [313] [271] Assignment, how put in issue.—When a suit shall be instituted by an assignee or indorsee of any written instrument, the assignment or indorsement thereof shall be regarded as fully proved, unless the defendant shall deny in his plea that the same is genuine, and moreover shall file, with the papers in the cause, an affidavit stating that he has good cause to believe, and verily does believe, that such assignment or indorsement is forged. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 224.]

Art. 589. [314] [272] Consideration, failure of, when it constitutes a defense.—The defendant in any action that may be instituted upon any written instrument may plead a want or failure, or partial failure, of consideration, where such written instrument shall remain in the possession of the original payee or obligee, or when it shall have been transferred or assigned after the maturity thereof, or when the defendant may prove a knowledge of such want or failure of consideration on the part of the holder prior to such transfer. [Id. sec. 7. P. D. 227.]

Art. 590. [315] [273] Liability of drawer, etc., fixed by protest.—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note assignable or negotiable by the law merchant may also secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser of such bill of exchange or promissory note, for the payment thereof, without suit against the acceptor, drawer or maker, by procuring such bill or note to be regularly protested by a notary public for nonacceptance or nonpayment, and giving notice of such protest to such drawer or indorser, according to the usage and custom of merchants. [Act. March 20, 1848, p. 187, sec. 4. P. D. 232.]

Art. 591. [316] [274] Protest, how made, and evidence of.—It shall be the duty of any notary public who shall protest any bill of exchange or promissory note, for nonacceptance or nonpayment, to set forth in his protest and in his notarial record a full and true statement of what shall have been done by him in relation thereto, according to the facts, by specifying therein whether demand was made of the sum of money in such bill or note specified, of whom, and when and where such demand was made. It shall also be his duty to make the requisite notices of protest for the drawers and indorsers who are sought to be made liable, and when any such notice shall be served by him, he shall note in his protest and notarial record on whom and when such notice was served; and when such notice shall be deposited in the postoffice by him he shall specify when and where mailed, and to whom and where directed; and such protest, or a copy of such notarial record, certified under the hand and seal of such notary public, shall be admitted in all the courts of this state as evidence of the facts therein set forth. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 233.]

Art. 592. [317] [275] Damages on protested bill recoverable, when.—The holder of any protested draft or bill of exchange, drawn by a merchant within the limits of this state upon his agent or factor living beyond the limits of this state, shall, after having fixed the liability of the drawer or indorser of any such draft or bill of exchange, be entitled to recover and receive ten per cent on the amount of such draft or bill as damages, together with interest and costs of suit thereon accruing. [Act Dec. 24, 1851, p. 23, sec. 1. P. D. 236.]

Art. 593. [318] [276] Days of grace allowed on all bills and notes.—Three days of grace shall be allowed on all bills of exchange and promissory notes assignable or negotiable by law. [Act. Jan. 11, 1862, p. 43, sec. 1. P. D. 234.]

Article 594. Discrimination.—Either or any of the following acts shall constitute discrimination against persons seeking employment:

1. Where any corporation, or receiver of the same, doing business in this state, or any agent or officer of any such corporation or receiver, shall blacklist, prevent, or attempt to prevent, by word, printing, sign, list or other means, directly or indirectly, any discharged employe, or any employe who may have voluntarily left said corporation's service, from obtaining employment with any other person, company, or corporation, except by truthfully stating in writing, on request of such former employe, the reason why such employe was discharged, or why his relationship to such company ceased.

2. Where any corporation, or receiver of the same, doing business in this state, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver shall, by any means, directly or indirectly, communicate to any other person or corporation any information in regard to a person who may seek employment of such person or corporation, and fails to give such person in regard to whom the communication may be made, within ten days after demand therefor, a complete copy of such communication, if in writing, and a true statement thereof if by sign or other means not in writing, and the names and addresses of all persons or corporations to whom said communication shall have been made.

3. Where any corporation, or receiver of the same, doing business in this state, or any agent or employe of such corporation or receiver, shall have discharged an employe, and such employe demands a statement in writing of the cause of his discharge, and such corporation, receiver, agent or employe thereof fails to furnish a true statement of the same to such discharged employe, within ten days after such demand, or where any corporation or receiver of the same, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver, shall fail, within ten days after written demand for the same, to furnish to any employe voluntarily leaving the service of such corporation or receiver, a statement in writing that such employe did leave such service voluntarily, or where any corporation or receiver of the same, doing business within this state, shall fail to show in any statement under the provision of this title the number of years and months during which such employe was in the service of the said corporation or receiver in each and every separate capacity or position in which he was employed, and whether his services were satisfactory in each such capacity or not, or where any such corporation or receiver shall fail within ten days after written demand for the same to furnish to any such employe a true copy of the statement originally given to such employe for his use in case he shall have lost or is otherwise deprived of the use of the said original statement.

4. Where any corporation, or receiver of same, doing business in this state, or any agent or officer of the same, shall have received any request, notice or communication, either in writing or otherwise, from any person, company or corporation, preventing, or calculated to prevent, the employment of a person seeking employment, and shall fail to furnish to such person seeking employment, within ten days after a demand in writing therefor, a true statement of such request, notice or communication, and, if in writing, a true copy of same, and, if otherwise than in writing, a true statement thereof, and a true interpretation of its meaning, and the names and addresses of the persons, company or corporation furnishing the same.

5. Where any corporation, or receiver of the same, doing business in this state, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver, discharging an employe, shall have failed to give such employe a true statement of the causes of his discharge, within ten days after a demand in writing therefor, and shall thereafter furnish any other person or corporation any statement or communication in regard to such discharge, unless at the request of the discharged employe.

6. Where any corporation, or receiver of same, doing business in this state, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver, shall discriminate against any person seeking employment on account of his having participated in a strike.

7. Where any corporation, or receiver of the same, doing business in this state, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver, shall give any information or communication in regard to a person seeking employment having participated in any strike, unless such person violated the law during his participation on such strike, or in connection therewith, and unless such information is given in compliance with subdivision 1 of this article. [Acts 1907 p. 142. Acts 1909, p. 160, sec. 1.]

Art. 595. Discrimination prohibited, etc.—Any and all discriminations against persons seeking employment as defined in this title are hereby prohibited and are declared to be illegal. [Acts 1907, p. 142, sec. 2.]

Art. 596. Foreign corporations to forfeit permit for violating provisions; duty of attorney general.—Every foreign corporation violating any of the provisions of this title is hereby denied the right, and is prohibited from doing any business within this state, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to enforce this provision, by injunction or other proceeding in the district court of Travis county, in the name of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 597. Every person or corporation violating provisions liable to forfeiture; suit; venue; duty of attorney general; fees.—Each and every person, company or corporation, who shall in any manner violate any of the provisions of this title shall, for each and every offense committed, forfeit and pay the sum of one thousand dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the state of Texas, in any county where the offense was committed, or where the offender resides, or in Travis county; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or the district or county attorney under the direction of the attorney general, to sue for the recovery of the same. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 598. Fees of prosecuting attorney.—The fees of the prosecuting attorney for representing the state in proceedings under this title shall be over and above the fees allowed him under the general fee bill. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 599. Prima facie evidence of agency.—In prosecutions for the violation of any of the provisions of this title, evidence that any person has acted as the agent of a corporation in the transaction of its business in this state shall be received as prima facie proof that his act in the name, behalf or interest of the corporation of which he was acting as the agent, was the act of the corporation. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 600. On application of attorney general, justice of peace to have witness examined.—Upon the application of the attorney general, or of any district or county attorney, made to any justice of the peace in this state, and stating that he has reason to believe that a witness, who is to be found in the county of which such justice of the peace is an officer, knows of a violation of any of the provisions of this title, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to whom such application is made to have summoned and to have examined such witness in relation to violations of any of the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 601. Witness sworn and examined, how; statement in writing and disposition of.—Such witness shall be summoned as provided for in criminal cases. He shall be duly sworn, and the justice of the peace shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, and such sworn statement shall be delivered to the attorney general, district or county attorney, upon whose application the witness was summoned. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 602. Failure of witness to appear, contempt, etc.—Should the witness summoned as aforesaid fail to appear or to make statements of the facts within his knowledge under oath, or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in the county jail until he shall make a full statement of all the facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 603. Immunity of witness, if, etc.—Any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of the provisions of this title about which he may testify fully and without reserve. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 604. Written statement of cause of discharge, not to be used as cause of action, civil or criminal.—Said written statement of cause of discharge, if true, when so made by such agent, company or corporation, shall never be used as the cause for an action for libel, either civil or criminal, against the agent, company or corporation so furnishing same. [Id. sec. 8.]

Article 605. Election on bonds required.—It shall be unlawful for the commissioners' court of any county, or the city or town council of any incorporated town or city in this state, to issue the bonds of said county, or town or city, for any purpose authorized by law, unless a proposition for the issuance of such bonds shall have been first submitted to a vote of the qualified voters, who are property taxpayers of said county, town or city; and unless a majority of the said qualified property taxpayers, voting at said election, be in favor of the proposition for the issuance of bonds, then the said bonds shall not be issued. If the proposition for the issuance of bonds be sustained by a majority of such property taxpayers, voting at such election, then such bonds shall be authorized and shall be issued by such commissioners' court, or city or town council; provided, that this article shall not be construed to authorize and render valid bonds without being first submitted to the attorney general, and certified to by him, as now required by law. [Acts 1899, pp. 103 and 258.]

Art. 606. Proposition submitted, how.—The proposition to be submitted for the issuance of bonds shall distinctly specify the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount thereof, the time in which they are payable, and the rate of interest; and all voters desiring to support the proposition to issue bonds shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words, "For the issuance of bonds," and those opposed shall have printed upon their ballots the words, "Against the issuance of bonds." [Acts 1899, p. 258, sec. 2.]

Art. 607. Time and place of election determined how.—The commissioners' court, or city or town council of such incorporated town or city, shall determine the time and place or places of holding said election; and the manner of holding the same shall be governed by the laws of the state regulating general elections. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 608. Do not apply in what cases.—The preceding articles of this chapter shall not apply to funding bonds issued, or to be issued, for the funding of any valid outstanding bonds of such county, town or city; nor to any bond issue for a sum less than two thousand dollars, when issued for the purpose of repairing buildings or structures for the building of which bonds are allowed to be issued. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 609. Sections of special charters in conflict herewith repealed.—All sections of any special charter of any city or town in conflict with the terms of the preceding articles of this chapter are expressly repealed. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 610. [877] Courthouse, jail and bridge bonds, authorized.—The county commissioners' court of any county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to issue the bonds of said county for the following purposes:

1. For the erection of a county courthouse and jail, or either.

2. For purchasing or constructing bridges for public purposes, within the county or across a stream that constitutes a boundary line of the county, or for the purpose of improving and maintaining the public roads in the county; provided, that this article shall not be construed as authorizing the commissioners' court to issue bonds for any of the said purposes without submitting the same to a vote of the people of said county as provided in the preceding articles of this chapter; provided, further, that when the commissioners' court deem it advisable to issue bonds for both the purchase or construction of bridges, and the improvement and maintenance of the public roads, both questions may be submitted and voted on as one proposition. [Acts 1893, p. 112. Acts 1903, 1 S. S., p. 9.]

Art. 611. [878] To run not exceeding forty years; redeemable when.—All bonds issued under this chapter shall run not exceeding forty years, and shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the county at any time after five years after the issuance of the bonds, or after any period not exceeding ten years, which may be fixed by the commissioners' court. [Acts 1893, p. 112.]

Art. 612. [879] Interest on such bonds.—Said bonds shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable on the tenth day of April; or interest may, in the discretion of the commissioners' court, be made payable semi-annually, on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October, respectively. Interest shall be evidenced by attached coupons. [Id.]

Art. 613. [880] Bonds to be based on and limited by taxable values.—The issue of bonds under this chapter shall be based upon the taxable values of the county according to the last approved assessment, and shall be limited as follows: Courthouse and jail bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding two per cent of said taxable values; bridge bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding one per cent of said taxable values. In determining the amount of the bonds of the respective kinds to be issued, previous indebtedness for said several purposes shall be considered. The total indebtedness of any county shall not be increased by any issue of bonds to a sum exceeding five per cent of its said taxable values. [Id.]

Art. 614. [881] Interest and sinking fund provided.—The commissioners' court shall levy annual ad valorem taxes sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund for their redemption; which said taxes shall not exceed, for courthouse and jail bonds, one-fourth of one per cent; for bridge bonds, fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 615. [882] Bonds to be signed, countersigned, registered and sold at not less than par, etc.—The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer before delivery. The county treasurer shall keep an account of the amount of principal and interest paid on each, and no bond shall be sold at less than its par value and accrued interest, exclusive of commissions. [Id.]

Art. 616. [918a] Annual tax to meet interest and sinking fund.—Hereafter any county, city, or town, acting through its commissioners' court, city council, or board of aldermen, as the case may be, in authorizing the execution of any bonds in pursuance of law, shall, at the time, provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually of sufficient amount with which to pay the annual interest and a sinking fund with which to pay such bonded indebtedness at maturity. [Acts 1895, p. 184.]

Art. 617. [918b] Rate of interest; terms of sale.—Hereafter no bonds executed by any county, city, or town shall bear a higher rate of interest than six per cent per annum, and shall not be sold at less than its par value and accumulated interest, exclusive of commissions. [Id.]

Art. 618. [918c] No bond to run longer than forty years.—Hereafter no county, city, or town shall execute a bond to mature later than forty years from the date of its execution. [Id.]

Art. 619. [918d] Conditions precedent to the issuance of bonds; examination by attorney general, etc.—Any county, city, or town in the state of Texas, desiring to issue bonds as authorized by the constitution and laws of this state, shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the attorney general the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order, or ordinance, levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, with a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such county, city, or town, including the series of bonds proposed, and the assessed value of property for purposes of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment, of such county, city or town, together with such other information as the attorney general may require; whereupon it shall be the duty of the attorney general to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds, and if, as the result of such examination, the attorney general shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such county, city, or town, by which they are executed, he shall so officially certify. [Id.]

620. [918e] Bonds to be registered by comptroller.—When said bonds have been examined by the attorney general, and his certificate attached thereto, they shall be registered by the comptroller, in a book to be kept for that purpose. [Acts 1895, p. 184. Acts 1901, p. 16.]

Art. 621. [469] [423] Comptroller's indorsement on bond and certificate.—In case of city bonds, the comptroller shall indorse on each bond so registered his certificate of registration, and give, at the request of the mayor, his certificate certifying to the amount of bonds so registered in his office up to date. [Acts 1875, p. 113, sec. 79.]

Art. 622. [918e] Certificate of attorney general recorded.—The certificate of the attorney general to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record, for use in the event of litigation. [Acts 1895, p. 184. Acts 1901, p. 16.]

Art. 623. [918e] Funding or refunding bonds not registered until old bonds presented for cancellation.—In the case of funding or refunding bonds, the comptroller shall not register the same until the old bonds, in lieu of which such funding or refunding bonds are issued, are presented to him for cancellation. [Acts 1895, p. 184. Id.]

Art. 624. [918e] Old bonds canceled and new bonds delivered; provided, etc.—After registration of the new bonds, the comptroller shall cancel the old, and deliver such new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, further, that the old bonds may be so presented for cancellation, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as herein provided. [Acts 1895, p. 184. Id.]

Art. 625. [918f] Certificate of attorney general and registration prima facie evidence of validity.—Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the attorney general, and having been registered in the comptroller's office, as provided herein, shall thereafter be held, in every action, suit, or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And in every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds, the certificate of the attorney general, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided, the only defense which can be offered against the validity of said bonds shall be for forgery or fraud. But this article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the constitution, or contrary to its provisions, but all such bonds shall, to the extent of such excess, be held void. [Acts 1895, p. 184.]

Art. 626. [918g] Law not applicable in certain cases.—Nothing in this law shall be construed to apply to the issuance of any bonds in cases where provisions for their issuance have been made, in whole or in part, before the passage of this law. [Id.]

1. PUBLIC ROADS—CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE OF.

Article 627. Power to issue road, etc., bonds and levy tax for interest and sinking fund.—Any county in this state, or any political subdivision or defined district, now or hereafter to be described and defined, of a county, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds, or otherwise lend its credit, in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county, or political subdivision, or defined district thereof, and to levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest upon such bonds and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turn-pikes, or in aid thereof. [Acts 1909, p. 186. Acts 1907, p. 251. Acts 1909, S. S., p. 271.]

Art. 628. Election for; propositions, restrictions and requirements.—Upon the petition of fifty, or a majority, of resident property taxpaying voters of any county, or political subdivision or defined district of any county in this state, to the county commissioners' court of such county, such court shall have the power, and it is hereby made its duty, at any regular or special session thereof, to order an election to be held in such county, political subdivision or defined district thereof, to determine whether or not the bonds of such county, or political subdivision or defined district thereof, shall be issued in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county, or political subdivision, or defined district, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining or operating of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turn-pikes, or in aid thereof; and, at such election, there shall also be submitted to such resident property taxpaying voters the question as to whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county, or political subdivision or defined district thereof, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. The amount of bonds proposed to be issued, with rate of interest thereon and date of maturity, shall be stated in the order ordering said election, and in the notice therefor. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 629. Notice of election.—Notice of said election shall be given by publication, in a newspaper published in the county for four successive weeks, and in addition thereto by posting notices at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, for three weeks prior to said election, if said proposed issue of bonds and levy of taxes is for the entire county. If said proposed issue of bonds and levy of taxes is for any political subdivision or defined district of the county, notice of such election shall be given by publishing, in a newspaper published in the political subdivision or defined district in which such bond is proposed, and, if no newspaper is published in such political subdivision or defined district, then in some newspaper published in the county, for four successive weeks, and by posting in at least three public places in such political subdivision or defined district of the county, for three successive weeks prior to said election. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 630. Time, place and manner of holding election.—The commissioners' court of the county shall determine the time and place or places of holding such election; provided, no such election shall be held at any time less than thirty days from the time of making of the order ordering the election. The manner of holding said election shall be governed by the general laws of the state when not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, and the returns of said election shall be made as now provided by law for making returns of elections held for the purpose of determining whether or not county bonds shall be issued. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 631. If election carried by two-thirds vote, bonds to be issued.—If, after the result of said election is known, it shall appear to the commissioners' court of the county in which said election was held, that a two-thirds majority of the vote cast at such election were in favor of the issuance of bonds, it shall be the duty of said commissioners' court, as soon thereafter as practicable, to issue said bonds on the faith and credit of said county, or of said political subdivision or defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined, within the state of Texas, and which may or may not include towns, villages, or municipal corporations of the county, as the case may be. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 632. Bonds, term, interest, examination, registry, custody; sale; disposition of proceeds; disbursement, regulation of.—Such bonds shall run not less than twenty nor more than forty years, with such option of redemption as may be fixed by the commissioners' court; and such bonds shall bear not more than five and one-half per cent interest per annum, and which bonds shall be examined by the attorney general of Texas, and registered by the comptroller of public accounts of Texas. Such bonds, when so issued, shall continue in the custody of, and under the control of the commissioners' court of the county in which they were issued, and shall be by said court sold to the highest and best bidder, for cash, either in whole or in parcels, at not less than their par value, and the purchase money therefor shall be placed in the county treasury of such county to the credit of the available road fund of such county, or of such political subdivision or defined district of such county, as the case may be. Such funds shall be paid out by the county treasurer upon warrants drawn on such funds issued by the county clerk of the county, countersigned by the county judge, upon certified accounts approved by the commissioners' court of the county, when such funds belong to the entire county; and, when such funds belong to a political subdivision or defined district of a county, such funds shall be paid out by the county treasurer upon warrants issued by the county clerk, upon certified accounts of the road superintendent of such road district, and approved by the commissioners' court of the county. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 633. General laws applicable.—The general laws of Texas relative to county bonds, not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter shall apply to the issuance, approval, registration, sale and payment of the bonds provided for in said provisions. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 634. Tax for interest and sinking fund; levy, assessment and collection; treasurer to be custodian, and to deposit with depository.—Before said road bonds shall be put on the market, the county commissioners' court of the county in which such election was held shall levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to produce a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at maturity; provided, that said tax herein authorized shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as now provided by law for the assessment and collection of other road taxes, if for a whole county, and, if for a political subdivision or other defined district of a county, then it shall be assessed and collected as is now provided by law for the assessment and collection of common school district special local taxes. And it is hereby made the duty of such commissioners' court to levy such tax, and it is hereby made the duty of the tax collector and assessor of such county wherein such taxes have been levied to assess and collect the same in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes. And said taxes, when so collected by such collector, shall be by him paid over to the county treasurer of such county, as and when other taxes are paid to the county treasurer. And the county treasurer of said county shall be custodian of all funds collected by virtue of this law, and shall deposit the same with the county depository as county funds. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 635. Treasurer to pay interest and sinking fund.—The treasurer shall pay the interest and principal as it becomes due on such bonds out of the funds so collected, in the same manner as the law directs in case of county courthouse bond funds. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 636. Numbering of districts and bonds to correspond, etc.; designation of bonds. Provision not applicable to bonds of whole county, designation of latter.—For the purpose of operating and being known under the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, each political subdivision or defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined for the employment of said subdivision, in any county in this state shall be known as "Road District No. of county, Texas," and the bonds herein provided for in such political subdivision or defined district in any county, shall be known as "Road Bonds of Road District No. . . . of county, Texas," being definitely numbered and bearing the name of the county in which it is located. This article shall apply only to districts composing less than a county, and shall not apply to bonds issued hereunder by a whole county, which county bonds shall be known as " County Special Road Bonds," taking the name of the county issuing the same. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 637. District accepting provisions to be body corporate; powers.—For the purpose of this subdivision of this chapter, any political subdivision of a county or defined district, now or hereafter to be described and defined, accepting the provisions of said subdivision, by voting such tax, is hereby made and created a body corporate, which may sue and be sued in like manner as counties. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 638. Road district not liable for torts.—No road district created under the provisions of said subdivision shall ever be held liable for torts. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 639. County commissioner to be ex officio road superintendent, powers.—The county commissioner, in whose commissioner's precinct such political subdivision or defined district, now or hereafter to be described and defined, is located, shall be ex officio road superintendent of said road district, with power to contract for and in behalf of such road district; provided, such contract shall not exceed the sum of fifty dollars, which shall be approved by the commissioners' court, and all contracts exceeding the sum of fifty dollars shall be awarded by the entire court, which contracts shall be binding on said county, political subdivision or defined district. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 640. Bids to be taken on contract work; contract to be let to lowest and best bidder. Rights to reject.—When work is done by contract in any county, political subdivision or defined district, bids shall be invited by publishing an advertisement in a newspaper or newspapers published in such county, and in a paper or papers outside of the county, when the commissioners' court may deem it advisable to do so, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder; provided, however, that the commissioners' court shall have the right to reject any and all bids. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 641. County operating under special road tax law may take advantage of provisions.—Any county operating under a special road tax law may take advantage of any of the provisions of this subdivision. [Id. sec. 9.]

2. CAUSEWAYS, VIADUCTS, BRIDGES, ETC., CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE AND USE OF.

Art. 642. Elections in certain counties to authorize bonds for causeways, viaducts, bridges, etc.—Whenever the county commissioners of any county in the state of Texas, having a population in excess of fifty thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding census taken by the United States, deem it expedient so to do, they may order an election, to ascertain the will of the qualified voters of such county, to determine the propriety of a bond issue to provide for the construction and maintenance of causeways, viaducts, bridges, and approaches, across any river and bottoms within the limits of such county, irrespective of any municipal boundaries. [Acts 1909, p. 46.]

Art. 643. Preliminary surveys and estimates; order for election to prescribe amount and terms of bonds.—The commissioners' court of such county shall, prior to ordering any such election as referred to in article 642, provide for preliminary surveys and estimates for such work, and shall, in the order for such election, prescribe the amount and terms of such bond issue. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 644. Resolution for election to be recorded, and submitted to vote, how.—Whenever the commissioners' court of such county deem it necessary or expedient to order such election, the resolution therefor shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners' court, and the resolution shall be submitted to the property owning qualified voters of said county, at any regular or special election which may be ordered by said court for that purpose, and if, at such election, a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be for such resolution, the same shall be deemed to be adopted, but if a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election shall be against said resolution, it shall be deemed to be rejected. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 645. General laws to govern election, etc., proclamation posted; publication.—Said election shall be governed in all respects by the law governing elections in this state, and the returns shall be made and canvassed in the same manner, and the results declared by proclamation of the county judge of said county; which proclamation shall be posted in at least three public places in said county, and, at the option of said county judge, published in some newspaper in said county. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 646. Qualifications for voting.—No person shall be permitted to vote at any election provided for in article 644, unless he is a property owner and taxpayer and qualified voter of said county. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 647. Ballot, form, etc., restrictions.—Those desiring to vote for the resolution shall have written or printed on their tickets the words, "For the Resolution to Issue Bonds to" [here insert purpose of the proposed bond issue as set forth in said resolution], and those desiring to vote against the resolution shall have written or printed on their tickets the words, "Against the Resolution to Issue Bonds to" [here insert such purpose of the proposed bond issue, as set forth in said resolution]. Such tickets shall be written or printed on plain white paper, with black ink or pencil, and shall contain no distinguishing mark or device, except as above provided, and, if printed, shall be in type of uniform size and face. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 648. If election carried by majority, etc., bonds to be prepared and executed, how, terms, regulations, etc.—If, at the election herein provided for, a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon at such election shall vote in favor of the resolution provided for in article 644, and after the commissioners' court has canvassed said vote and declared the result, and after the proclamation of said county judge, declaring the result, it shall be the duty of said court, under the supervision and direction of the comptroller of this state, to prepare and execute the bonds of the county for such sums as may be deemed advisable by said county, not exceeding the amount stipulated in said resolution, said bonds to bear not exceeding five per cent interest, payable annually, and which shall be redeemable in not less than five years and not more than forty years from the date thereof, the time of maturity to be expressed on the face of the bonds, and shall have such bonds registered or enrolled as in case of other county bonds, and the same shall not be sold nor negotiated at less than their par value; provided, that in no case shall said court issue bonds under this subdivision of this chapter for a greater sum or amount than that a levy for this purpose of five cents on the one hundred dollars property valuation of said county will yield sufficient revenue to pay such interest, as it accrues, and will at the same time create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of such bonds at maturity. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 649. Levy of tax annually for interest and sinking fund.—When the bonds of the county are issued and sold, under the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, it shall be the duty of said commissioners' court to levy an annual ad valorem tax on all property of the county; which tax, when collected, shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on said bonds and creating a sinking fund to pay the principal of same. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 650. Commissioners may contract for privilege of using causeways, etc., or constructing, etc., tracks, telegraph lines, etc., no exclusive, etc., contracts; previous notice, etc.—The commissioners' court of such county is authorized to contract with individuals, firms or corporations, for the privilege of using such causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, or constructing and maintaining and using tracks, telegraph lines, or other such privileges as said commissioners may deem expedient, but shall make no exclusive nor preferential contracts, and before executing any such contracts shall give notice by posting at the courthouse door and in three other public places in said county the full terms and nature of such proposed contracts before execution of same. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 651. Revenues to be appropriated to maintenance and repair of structures; excess to road and bridge fund of county.—Any revenues that may accrue from any contract or contracts made in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article may be appropriated by the commissioners' court to the maintenance and repair of such structure or structures; and such court shall have the authority to make adequate provision for such maintenance and repair, as in the case of any other structure under its control. In the event the revenues accruing from the use of any such structure shall exceed the expenditures for its maintenance and repair, any such excess shall be applied to the road and bridge fund of the county. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 652. Commissioners may make regulations, etc., for use of structures.—The commissioners' court shall have authority to make rules and regulations for the use of any structure erected under the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, and to provide for the enforcement thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 653. Power of condemnation, etc.—Said county, acting through its commissioners' court, shall have the power, and is hereby authorized to take and appropriate such lands and other property, situated within or without the limits of any city or town, as may be deemed necessary for the establishment, location, construction, maintenance, repair or security of said causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, and to define the area of land needed not to exceed two hundred feet in width, and to acquire, take, hold and enjoy the same, for the purposes aforesaid, and shall have the right to exercise the power of eminent domain, and to condemn lands for the uses and purposes aforesaid; said condemnation proceedings to be instituted in the name of the county before the judge of the court having jurisdiction by law to act in condemnation proceedings for rights of way for railroad companies; and all laws in reference to applications and proceedings for the condemnation of rights of way for railroad companies shall apply to condemnations under this subdivision of this chapter, the county occupying the position of the railroad company, except that in no case shall the county be required to give bond; provided, nevertheless, that said county, acting through its commissioners' court, shall be empowered to take the fee simple estate to the land condemned or acquired hereunder, whenever deemed necessary for the purposes of this said subdivision; provided, further, that before exercising the power of eminent domain hereunder said county commissioners' court shall, by order duly entered on its minutes, define and describe the lands needed and determine whether an easement or fee simple estate in said land shall be taken. [Acts 1910, 3 S. S., p. 22.]

Art. 654. Use, etc., of streets, etc., may be granted for purposes of causeway, etc.—And the county commissioners' court of any county, with the consent of any city, given by its duly authorized municipal authorities, or the municipal authorities of any city in which said causeway, viaduct, bridge, and approaches are to be constructed and maintained, shall have power, and are hereby authorized, to grant the use of, and impose such additional uses upon all streets, alleys, public highways and other public grounds as they may deem necessary for the location, construction and maintenance of said causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, and may authorize the construction of same across or upon any such street, alley, public highway or public grounds. [Id.]

Art. 655. May condemn land of railway, etc.—Said county, acting through its commissioners' court, is authorized to enter upon any lands owned by any railway, telegraph or telephone corporation, in fee or in any less estate, whether acquired by purchase or condemnation, or by virtue of any provision in the charter of such corporation, for the purposes of this subdivision of this chapter, and, from time to time, to define and appropriate so much of said lands as may be necessary for the establishment, location, construction and maintenance of said causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, and shall have the right of access to construct and maintain said causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, and when constructed to repair the same, and may proceed to obtain the right of way, and to condemn lands for the use of the county in the manner provided by law in the case of railway corporations. Said county shall have the right to cross and intersect the line of any such railway, telegraph or telephone corporation; and, in case any differences shall arise between the county and said railway, telegraph or telephone corporation, as to the manner or mode of any crossing or intersection made by said causeway, viaduct, bridge and approaches, their differences shall be adjusted by the special commissioners appointed hereunder to assess damages for the land condemned. [Id.]

1. GENERAL POWERS OF FUNDING, REFUNDING AND COMPROMISING DEBTS.

Article 656. [890] Debts may be funded, when and how.—All counties, incorporated cities and towns in this state owing debts are hereby authorized to fund the same in bonds of said counties, cities and towns, in such sums and at such rate of interest as may seem best to the authorities of said counties, cities and towns; provided, that in no case shall the rate of interest be greater than six per cent per annum; and provided, further, that this article and articles 658 and 659 shall not apply to any indebtedness of any counties, cities or towns made and undertaken since the eighteenth day of April, 1876, and shall not apply to any bonds issued under an act entitled, "An act to authorize counties, cities and towns to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvements," approved April 12, 1871; provided, further, that no city shall issue bonds to a greater amount than is authorized by its charter, where a limit is placed on the issue of bonds in its charter. [Acts of 1879, p. 61.]

Art. 657. [883] Old bonds of legal issue may be substituted by new.—Where bonds have been legally issued, or may be hereafter issued, by any county for any of the purposes named in article 610, new bonds bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued, in conformity with existing law, in lieu thereof. [Acts 1893, p. 112. Acts 1901, p. 16.]

Art. 658. [891] Debts may be compromised.—All the counties, incorporated cities and towns of this state are hereby authorized to scale their debts of every description, bonded or otherwise, by adjustment and compromise with their creditors, and may issue bonds, as provided for in article 656; in any sums and at any rate of interest not greater than six per cent per annum, in settlement or compromise with said creditors, or with any one or more of them. [Acts of 1879, p. 61.]

Art. 659. [892] Sinking fund to be provided and tax levied.—Said counties, cities and towns, in funding and scaling their said indebtedness made and undertaken before said eighteenth day of April, 1876, as herein provided, shall provide a suitable sinking fund of two per cent per annum, to be applied to the payment of the principal of the bonds issued under article 656, and shall annually levy and collect a sufficient tax on all the taxable property of said counties, cities and towns to pay the interest and sinking fund aforesaid; provided, that, should there be annually collected more than is necessary to pay the interest already due and the two per cent sinking fund, such excess and sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of the bonds for which said sinking fund is set aside. [Id.]

2. STORMS, FLOODS, OR OTHER GREAT DISASTERS—FUNDING, REFUNDING AND COMPROMISE OF DEBTS IN CASE OF.

Art. 660. Storms, etc., bonds, power to fund, refund and compromise.—Any county or city incorporated under the general laws of the state, in which there has been heretofore, or may be hereafter, great destruction or damage of property or depreciation of the value of taxable property, by reason of storms, floods, or other great disasters, is hereby authorized and empowered to fund or refund, compromise or settle its valid outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness in such manner as may be deemed to the best interest of such county or city. [Acts 1901, S. S., p. 18.]

Art. 661. Bonds issued for said purpose, regulations as to.—For the purpose of effecting the compromise or settlement, authorized by the preceding article, the said counties and cities are hereby severally authorized and empowered to issue bonds in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or settlement, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding indebtedness; and the bonds hereby authorized may be exchanged for bonds, warrants, scrip, or other evidences of outstanding indebtedness of such county or city, or said bonds may be sold and the proceeds applied in the purchase of outstanding bonds or the payment of outstanding floating indebtedness; and said bonds may be issued without submitting the question of issuance to a vote of the taxpayers, and may be exchanged or sold from time to time in such amounts as may be required for refunding said outstanding bonds and funding or settling said floating debts; and said bonds may be issued, if deemed necessary, to an aggregate amount not exceeding six per cent of the taxable value of the remaining taxable property in such county or city. [Id.]

Art. 662. Order of commissioners' court, prerequisite, recitals, etc.—Before issuing any bonds, authorized by the two preceding articles, and not later than two years from and after the date of the storm or other disaster, the commissioners' court of the county, or the city council of the city, in which such storm or other disaster has occurred, shall, by an order or ordinance, as the case may be, duly entered on the minutes, recite the nature and date of such disaster, the taxable value of the remaining property subject to taxation in said city or county, as shown by the first approved assessment roll of such county or city made after such storm, flood, or other great disaster, and the amount of said bonds that will in the judgment of said commissioners' court, or the city council, be sufficient to fund, refund or compromise, or settle the outstanding valid bonded and floating indebtedness of such county or city, stating, also, the amount of said new bonds that will be required for refunding or settling each outstanding issue of bonds, and the amount of said new bonds that will be required in funding or settling the outstanding indebtedness charged against each particular fund. [Id.]

Art. 663. Classification of bond issues.—Separate classes of bonds shall be issued to refund or settle, respectively, each separate issue of outstanding bonds, and to fund or settle, respectively, the indebtedness against each particular fund. [Id.]

Art. 664. Apportionment of taxes, record.—Said court or council shall determine and record in the minutes the proportion of the several annual ad valorem taxes authorized by law that can be applied, respectively, in payment of the interest and sinking funds of the several classes of bonds without depriving the city or county of the funds which, in the judgment of said court, or city council, will be required to meet the necessary current annual expenses of such county or city. [Id.]

Art. 665. Levy for interest and sinking fund, proportioned, how.—A levy in proportion to such excess or excesses beyond the amount required for current annual expenses may be made to pay the interest and sinking fund, respectively, of the said several classes of bonds. [Id.]

Art. 666. Constitutional limit not to be exceeded.—The constitutional limitation as to the rates and purposes of the several taxes shall not be exceeded or disregarded. [Id.]

Art. 667. Commissioners to prescribe form and class of bonds, and for issuance.—Said commissioners' court, or city council, shall, also, by said order, or ordinance, prescribe the form and the classes of said bonds, and provide for the issuance thereof, at such dates as may be expedient. [Id.]

Art. 668. Term of bonds, etc.—Said bonds may be made payable at any date deemed expedient by such commissioners' court, or city council, not later than forty years from the date of the execution. [Id.]

Art. 669. Redemption of bonds.—Provision may be made for the redemption of said bonds after five years, or after such longer period, as may be deemed expedient. [Id.]

Art. 670. Interest rate.—Said bonds shall bear interest as stipulated and specified in coupons attached thereto, not to exceed four per cent per annum. [Id.]

Art. 671. Bonds to conform to requirements of certain articles not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision.—Said bonds shall be issued under and subject to all requirements of articles 616 to 620, inclusive, and articles 622 to 625, inclusive, of this title, which are not in conflict with the requirements and provisions of this subdivision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 672. Signature and attestation of bonds.—Said bonds shall be signed by the county judge, or mayor, and attested by the county or city clerk, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 673. Registry by comptroller, after examination, etc., by attorney general.—When examined and certified by the attorney general, in compliance with article 619, said bonds shall be registered by the comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 674. Registry without presentation and cancellation of old bonds.—The bonds shall be registered by the comptroller without requiring the old bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness to be presented to him for cancellation. [Id.]

Art. 675. Bonds delivered to county or city treasurer and registered by him.—Said bonds shall be delivered to the county or city treasurer, as the case may be, and said officer shall register said bonds in a book kept for that purpose, and said bonds may thereafter be sold or exchanged as herein authorized. [Id.]

Art. 676. Bonds not to be sold, etc., for less than par value and accrued interest.—Said bonds shall never be sold or exchanged for less than their face value and accrued interest. [Id.]

Art. 677. Date of sale, etc., indorsed and certified and attested, how, before delivery of bonds.—Before delivery of the bonds issued hereunder, the date of sale or exchange of said bonds shall be indorsed and certified on such bonds by the county judge or mayor, whose signature shall be attested by the county or city clerk, as the case may be. [Id.]

3. RAILROAD, ETC., SUBSIDY BONDS, ETC.—COMPROMISE, ADJUSTMENT AND REFUNDING OF.

Art. 678. [909] Railroad, etc., subsidy bonds, how adjusted and paid.—Any county, city or town that has heretofore issued bonds to aid in the construction of railroads and other works of internal improvements are hereby authorized to compromise or adjust such indebtedness so created, in such manner as may be deemed to the best interest of such county, city or town; provided, that the amount of the debt and the rate of interest thereon shall not be thereby increased; and provided, further, that no debt which has become barred by the statute of limitation shall be thereby revived. For the purpose of carrying out the compromise or adjustment hereby authorized, the said counties, cities and towns are authorized to issue bonds, in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or adjustment, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding bonds. [Acts of 1887, p. 77.]

Art. 679. [910] Bonds sold and exchanged, how.—The bonds authorized by the preceding article may be exchanged for the bonds heretofore issued, or they may be sold and the proceeds used to buy up the old bonds as it may be necessary; provided, that the said bonds shall not be exchanged for the old bonds at a greater rate than par, except that the old bonds may be taken at a discount, and the new at the face value, according to agreement; and provided, that the new bonds issued hereunder shall not be sold for less than the amount for which the old bonds can be purchased. No such bonds shall be sold until there has been a contract by which the proceeds can be invested in the purchase of the old bonds. [Id.]

Art. 680. [911] Authority for executing bonds and terms and conditions of same.—If any county, city or town shall desire to avail itself of the provisions of articles 678 to 686, inclusive, and when arrangements shall have been made for the compromise or adjustment of any of the bonds, as hereinbefore mentioned, the commissioners' court of such county, or the city council of such town or city, shall enter an order, or adopt an ordinance, as the case may be, authorizing the issuance of bonds, which shall prescribe the amount to be issued, and shall cause blank bonds to be prepared for the purpose aforesaid. The bonds shall be made payable to bearer, and shall be payable such time after date as may be fixed and agreed upon, not to exceed fifty years, and shall bear such rate of interest as may be agreed upon, which shall not exceed the rate of interest that the old bonds now bear. The interest may be made payable annually, or semi-annually, and at such place as may be specified. Coupons shall be attached, representing each installment of interest as specified, which shall also include two per cent of the face of the bond as a sinking fund. The bonds issued by the county shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, with the seal of the county, and the coupons shall be signed by the county judge. The bonds that may be issued by any city or town under the provisions hereof shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city secretary or recorder, with the seal of such city or town attached, and the coupons shall be signed by the mayor. [Id.]

Art. 681. [912] Bonds may be exchanged or sold.—The bonds as herein authorized to be issued may be exchanged or sold from time to time, and in such amounts as can be procured of the old bonds by purchase or exchange. [Id.]

Art. 682. [912] Levy of tax for interest and sinking fund.—Whenever any bonds shall be issued, the county commissioners' court, or council of such city or town shall levy upon the last assessment of the property for such city or town, as the case may be, a tax sufficient to pay the interest and sinking fund of not less than two per cent upon such bonds. The tax so levied shall remain as the levy for that purpose until a new levy may be made for that purpose; provided, that such commissioners' court or council may, from time to time, increase or diminish such tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable values of the property of the county or city or town and the amount to be collected; provided, further, that the amount shall not at any time be reduced so that it will not raise an amount sufficient to pay the annual interest and sinking fund on all the bonds sold or exchanged under the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 683. [913] Collector liable on bond for failure of duty; new collector appointed, when.—If the tax collector, or any officer charged with the duty of collecting the tax levied to pay the interest and sinking fund upon said bond, shall refuse to collect the said tax at any time, he shall be liable upon his official bond to any person who may be injured thereby. If any collector shall refuse to collect said taxes, then, upon the complaint of any citizen or person interested, or upon their own motion, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county, or the city council of such city or town, to appoint some suitable person, who shall qualify as required of the collector aforesaid, and shall proceed to collect said tax until the next general election, and until a collector shall be elected and qualified who will collect the same. If the commissioners' court or council aforesaid shall fail or refuse to appoint some person as aforesaid, then the governor of the state shall make such appointment of some suitable person who shall collect said taxes until the next general election and until some collector shall be elected who will collect the same; and such person so appointed by the governor shall qualify as the regular collector is or may be required by law. [Id.]

Art. 684. [914] Bonds to be registered in comptroller's office, how and effect of.—Before the bonds that may be issued hereunder shall be delivered, they shall be registered in the office of the comptroller of the state, who shall indorse upon each bond the date of such registration; and, when so registered and delivered, the said bonds shall not be subject to any defense that existed prior to the delivery of them, and this shall be stated in the face of the bonds. [Id.]

Art. 685. [915] Assessment of taxes and compensation of assessor.—The taxes levied hereunder shall be assessed by the officer whose duty it is by law to make the assessment for such county, city or town, who shall receive for such assessment one per cent for making such assessment. The officer whose duty it is by law to collect the taxes for such county, city or town, shall collect the taxes levied hereunder, and shall receive as compensation therefor one per cent of the amount collected. [Id.]

Art. 686. [916] Surplus fund, how applied.—If after all the matured coupons upon any series of bonds that may be issued hereunder have been paid off there shall remain a surplus of the taxes so collected for the payment thereof, then the commissioners' court of such county, or the council of such city or town, may use the surplus so remaining to purchase any of the outstanding bonds at not more than par. If said bonds can not be purchased at par, then the said surplus may be applied to the payment of the next maturing coupons upon their maturity, and the taxes for that year remitted to that extent. [Id.]

Art. 687. [893] May compromise and fund indebtedness.—The county commissioners' court of any county, or the mayor and board of aldermen of any city or town in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to compromise and fund any existing bonded indebtedness by such county, city or town issued, and the coupons due thereon, to aid in the construction of railroads or other works of internal improvement, or other bonds issued by authority of law; and for this purpose they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue new bonds in denomination of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable annually at the office of the state treasurer; said new bonds to become due and payable in twenty years, and to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding eight per cent per annum, as in their discretion may best subserve the purpose intended. [Acts of April 18, 1879, p. 109.]

Art. 688. [894] Authority to compromise limited.—No compromises shall be made under the provisions of articles 687 to 695, inclusive, by which any debt barred by the statute of limitation, or which may be barred at the time of such compromise, shall be revived, nor shall such new bonds, to be used in funding the principal of such old bonds, be issued for any greater amount than three-fourths of the principal of the old bonds outstanding; provided, that when the rate of interest of such new bonds is not more than five per cent per annum, then new bonds may be issued to the full amount of the old bonds outstanding; and provided, further, that the amount of new bonds to be issued for the funding of the matured interest shall be left to the discretion of the county commissioners' court or the mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, but in no case to exceed the amount of such matured interest. [Id.]

Art. 689. [895] Bonds exempt from taxation.—The new bonds thus issued by any county shall be exempt from the payment of all county taxes, general and special, in the county by which they are issued; and the new bonds thus issued by any city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 690. [896] Issued and registered, how.—The county commissioners' court or mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, shall cause to be prepared the necessary blank bonds to give effect to the provisions hereof, the cost of which shall be paid out of the treasury of such county, city or town; said bonds, when issued by any county, shall be signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk of such county, with the seal of the county court affixed; and when issued by any city or town shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk or secretary, with the seal of such city or town affixed; and such new bonds, whether issued by any county, city or town, shall be registered in the office of the state comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 691. [897] May be exchanged or sold.—Such new bonds may be exchanged for the old bonds at the rate specified in article 688, or they may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase of such old bonds at the rate specified in said article; provided, that no delivery of such new bonds shall take place unless a contract has already been entered into for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds; and provided, further, no bonds so issued shall be sold at less than par; each bond sold shall be made to bear the lowest rate of interest that will give it par value. [Id.]

Art. 692. [898] Tax laws to be continued in force.—All laws in force providing for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such existing bonds shall apply and be in force for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such new bonds; provided, that the sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of such new bonds whenever the same can be bought at not more than their par value. [Id.]

Art. 693. [899] Same subject.—The object and intention of these provisions being to enable the counties, cities or towns in this state which have granted subsidy bonds to railroads or other works of internal improvement, or created any bonded indebtedness whatever, to compromise the same and thereby reduce the burden of taxation, it is hereby declared, as an inducement to the holders of said bonds to accept the compromise, that whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith, either by the holder of the present bonds or by any person purchasing said new bonds as provided in the foregoing articles, that all laws in force or which may hereafter be in force for the assessment and collection of the state taxes, shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of the taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suits which may be instituted to enforce the payment of said new bonds or coupons against any such county, city or town, no defense either in law or equity shall be admitted in any of the courts of this state, except such as originated upon or subsequent to the issuance of such new bonds. [Id.]

Art. 694. [900] Collector liable for failing to collect tax, and when to be appointed by governor.—Whenever a collector of taxes shall neglect or refuse to collect the taxes levied for the payment of the interest and sinking fund of such new bonds, he shall be liable on his official bond at the suit of any person or persons holding any of said bonds or coupons for all such damages as said person or persons shall have sustained by reason of his neglect or refusal; nor shall such collector or his sureties be relieved of such liability by his resignation of the office; and whenever any person who may be elected collector of taxes of any county, city or town shall fail, neglect or refuse to give the bond required by law for the collection of such tax, or whenever the commissioners' court or the mayor or board of aldermen, as the case may be, shall appoint any person who shall fail, neglect or refuse to give said bond, or whenever they shall fail, neglect or refuse to appoint some person who will give said bond and collect said tax, then it is hereby made the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person to collect said taxes, who shall perform all the duties required herein or [by] any other law of this state relating to the collection of said taxes from the time of his said appointment until the next general election. [Id.]

Art. 695. [901] Compromise by vote of the people; notice of election, how given.—No compromise which may be agreed upon between the commissioners' court or the mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, and the bondholders or others, shall be binding upon the taxpayers of any county, city or town until the terms of said compromise shall have been submitted to a vote of the property taxpayers at an election held by order of the commissioners' court, or mayor and board of aldermen, as the case may be, and a majority of the said taxpayers shall vote in favor of and ratify the terms of said compromise; said election shall be held in accordance with the general law regulating elections; provided, that none but property taxpayers shall vote at any such election; provided, further, that notice of such election shall be published for thirty days in some newspaper published in the county, city or town, as the case may be; and in case there shall be no paper published in such county, city or town, then by posting in ten public places in such county, city or town, as the case may be, for thirty days prior to any election hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 696. [917] Counties and city authorities may adjust tax to conform to interest and sinking fund for bonded indebtedness.—The county commissioners' court of any county, or the mayor and board of aldermen or city council of any city or town that have heretofore issued bonds to aid in the construction of railroads or other works of internal improvement, are hereby authorized and empowered to reduce the rate of taxation heretofore levied for the purpose of paying the interest and sinking fund on such bonds, so as to raise the amount necessary to pay the said interest and sinking fund which may become due annually according to the terms of the said bonds; and any county, city or town, by its said commissioners, or city council, or mayor and aldermen, may from time to time hereafter increase or diminish its rate of taxation according to the valuation of its taxable property, so as to raise the amount necessary for the payment of said interest and sinking fund annually; provided, that the taxes shall never be reduced below the rate that will raise the amount that is annually due upon such bonds. [Act of 1887, p. 29.]

Art. 697. [918] How amount of levy determined and fees of collector.—The levy of tax provided for in the preceding article shall be made upon the assessed valuation of the property of such county, city or town for the previous year, and shall remain in force from year to year until there has been a new levy, according to the provisions hereof. It shall be the duty of the officer who shall make the assessments annually for such county, city or town to make the levy of the taxes aforesaid upon the assessment of property made for general purposes, and to so return his rolls as to show the said tax due from each person the same as the other taxes are shown. No additional fees shall be allowed for said work. For collecting the said taxes, the tax collector of such county, city or town shall receive one and one-half per cent upon the amount collected. [Id.]

Article 698. Sinking fund of county, city, town, school district or school community to be invested in United States, state, city or town bonds, provided, etc.—The commissioners' court of any county, the city council of any incorporated city or town, and the board of trustees of any independent school district, or of any other school district or school community, in the state of Texas, are authorized and empowered, whenever they may deem it advisable, to invest any sinking fund or sinking funds now on hand or hereafter acquired for the redemption and payment of any outstanding bonds of such county, city or town, or independent school district, or any other school district or school community, in bonds of the United States, of the state of Texas, of any county of the state of Texas, or of any incorporated city or town; provided, that no such bonds shall be so purchased which, according to their terms, mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created; and, provided, further, that in the event any commissioners' court, city council or board of trustees is unable to purchase any securities of the character above mentioned, which mature at a date prior to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created, then they are authorized, in their discretion, to invest such funds in the bonds of any independent school district, or of any other school district or school community authorized to issue bonds, under the same restrictions as herein mentioned. [Acts 1905, p. 25, sec. 1.]

Art. 699. Report, annual, of county or city treasurer to comptroller, requisites of.—It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each county in this state and of each city, whether incorporated under the general law or by special charter, to make an annual report to the comptroller of public accounts of this state on the first day of August of each year, showing the condition of the interest and sinking fund for each set of bonds of said county or city outstanding on the thirtieth day of June of each year, which said report shall be made under oath, and shall show:

First. The outstanding bonded indebtedness of said city or county, giving date when issued, the amount of each set of bonds, the rate of interest they bear and when they mature.

Second. The tax levy in force to provide for the interest and sinking fund on each set of said bonds.

Third. The amount on hand to the credit of the interest and sinking fund of each set of said bonds, showing whether in cash or securities.

Fourth. The amount received by the said fund since last report, and from what source.

Fifth. The disbursements from said fund since last report, and for what purpose.

Sixth. The amount of said bonds redeemed since last report, and the amount still outstanding. [Acts 1899, p. 45.]

Art. 700. Draft on sinking fund not to be honored by treasurer except for interest, redemption or investment.—No city or county treasurer shall honor any draft upon the interest and sinking fund provided for any of the bonds of such city or county, nor pay out nor divert any of the same, except for the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds or for redeeming the same, or for investment in such securities as may be provided by law. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 701. Penalties for failure to report or for diversion or misapplication.—Any treasurer who shall fail to make the reports provided for in article 699, or who shall divert said fund or apply said fund for any other purpose than as permitted by article 700, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the state, and, in addition thereto, shall be liable for the amount of such fund so diverted. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 702. Comptroller to notify attorney general, district or county attorney; suit to recover fund; payment into treasury.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, whenever the reports of any treasurer show that he has diverted said funds, or when he shall fail to make such reports, to notify the attorney general of the state, or the district attorney of the district in which such treasurer resides, or county attorney in counties in which there is no district attorney provided for by law, of the fact, who shall thereupon institute suit against such treasurer and his official bondsmen for the amount of such penalty and of said fund so diverted; and the amount of such penalty so recovered shall be paid into the state treasury, and the amount of the diverted fund so recovered shall be paid into the county or city treasury to the credit of the fund from which it was so diverted. [Id. sec. 3.]

TITLE 19.

BRANDS, TRADE MARKS, ETC.

Trade marks of carbonated goods.....	Article 703	Infringements enjoined	Article 705
Disposition of penalty funds.....	704	Trade mark to be filed.....	706

Article 703. [318a] Trade marks of carbonated goods, how established.—All manufacturers or dealers in carbonated goods, mineral waters, soda water, wine, cider, or other beverage, or manufacturers of medicine or other compound requiring the use of kegs, casks, barrels, boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, upon which the names, brands, marks, or trade marks, or other designation of ownership or proprietorship is stamped, engraved, etched, blown in, impressed, or otherwise produced upon such boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the principal place or office of business is situated, a fac simile or description of the name or names, marks or devices, so used by such manufacturer or dealer in such wares herein enumerated, and cause such description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks; and the act of so filing and causing to be recorded by the county clerk, and publishing, shall operate as a trade mark, securing to the said manufacturer the full protection of the law as a trade mark, entitling the said manufacturer to the sole and exclusive use in Texas of said mark, name, or device; for which services the clerk shall be allowed the sum of one dollar, to be paid by the party having such brands, etc., recorded. [Acts 1893, p. 125.]

Art. 704. [318b] Disposition of penalty funds.—All moneys collected as fines or penalty, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be returned by the justice of the peace into the county treasury, to become a part of the public road fund. [Id.]

Art. 705. [318c] Infringement of trade mark may be enjoined.—Every person, association or union of workingmen, incorporated or unincorporated, having adopted a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, as aforesaid, may proceed by suit to enjoin the wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale of any such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, and the manufacture, use, display or sale of any such counterfeit or imitation; and all courts having jurisdiction thereof shall grant injunctions to restrain such manufacture, use, display or sale, and shall award the plaintiff in such suit such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale as by him may have been sustained. Where such association or union is not incorporated suits under this law may be commenced and prosecuted by any officer or member of such association or union in his own name, for himself and for the use and benefit of such association or union. [Act 1895, p. 108.]

Art. 706. [318d] Trade mark to be filed, etc.—Every person, association or union of workingmen, incorporated or unincorporated, that has heretofore or shall hereafter adopt a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, shall file the same in the office of the secretary of state by leaving two copies, counterparts or fac similes thereof, with the secretary of state, and said secretary shall deliver back to such person, association or union so filing the same one of said copies, counterparts or fac similes, along with and attached to a duly attested certificate of the filing of same, for which he shall receive a fee of one dollar from such person, association or union. Such certificate of filing shall in all suits and prosecutions under this chapter be sufficient proof of the adoption of such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, and of the right of such person, association or union to adopt the same. No label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisements shall be filed as aforesaid that would probably be mistaken for a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement already of record; provided, that no person or associations shall be permitted to register as a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement any emblem, design or resemblance thereto that has been adopted or used by any charitable, benevolent or religious society or association without their consent; and provided, further, that all persons, institutions or associations now using a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement shall have thirty days time after this law takes effect in which to file such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement under the provisions of this law, before the same can be registered by others. [Id.]

Article 707. [319] [277] Common law shall govern, except, etc.—The duties and liabilities of carriers in this state shall be the same as are prescribed by the common law, and the remedies against them shall be the same, except where otherwise provided by this title.

Art. 708. [320] [278] Carriers can not limit their responsibility.—Railroad companies and other common carriers of goods, wares and merchandise, for hire, within this state, on land or in boats or vessels on the waters entirely within the body of this state, shall not limit or restrict their liability as it exists at common law, by any general or special notice, or by inserting exceptions in the bill of lading or memorandum given upon the receipt of the goods for transportation, or in any other manner whatever, and no special agreement made in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this article shall be valid. [Act Dec. 4, 1863. P. D. 452.]

Art. 709. [321] [279] Bound to carry goods, when.—Upon the tender of the legal or customary rates of freight on goods offered for transportation, to any common carrier whatever, such carrier shall receive and transport such goods, provided his vehicle or vessel has capacity safely to carry the goods so offered on the trip or voyage then pending, and such goods are of the kind usually carried upon such vehicle or vessel, and are offered at a reasonable time. Any common carrier refusing to transport goods, as above provided, taking in the same in the order presented, shall be liable to the party injured for damages sustained by reason of his refusal, and shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in any court having jurisdiction in the county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides; provided, this article shall not affect such corporations as are embraced in article 6554 of these statutes. [Id. sec. 453; amend., 1895, Sen. Jour., p. 478, sec. 14.]

Art. 710. [322] [280] Must give bill of lading.—Common carriers are required, when they receive goods for transportation, to give to the shipper, when it is demanded, a bill of lading or memorandum in writing, stating the quantity, character, order and condition of the goods; and such goods shall be delivered, in the manner provided by common law, in like order and condition to consignee, the unavoidable wear and tear and deterioration in due course of transportation only excepted; and in case such common carrier shall fail to deliver goods as above required, they shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, as at common law; and in case of their refusal to execute and deliver a bill of lading or memorandum in writing, as above required, they shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered as in the preceding article. [Act Feb. 4, 1860. Id. 454.]

Art. 711. [323] [281] Liability as warehousemen, etc.—Railroad companies and other common carriers having depots and warehouses for storing goods, shall be liable as warehousemen are at common law for goods and the care of the same stored in such depots or warehouses before the commencement of the trip or voyage on which said goods are to be transported; but shall be liable as common carriers from the commencement of the trip or voyage until the goods are delivered to the consignee at the point of destination. [Id. 455.]

Art. 712. [324] [282] Diligence as to delivery.—If the carrier at the point of destination shall use due diligence to notify the consignee, and the goods are not taken by the consignee, and have in consequence to be stored in the depots or warehouses of the common carriers, they shall thereafter only be liable as warehousemen. [Id.]

Art. 713. [325] [283] Shall forward in good order, etc.—Where common carriers receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another; and in case they shall fail to do so, they shall be liable, absolutely, for all losses occurring while the goods remain, and for all damages occasioned or in any wise resulting from the delay; provided, that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of the bill of lading, and the liability of the common carrier shall attach, as at common law, from and after such signing. [Id.]

Art. 714. [326] [284] Shall feed and water live stock.—It shall be the duty of a common carrier who conveys live stock of any kind to feed and water the same during the time of conveyance and until the same is delivered to the consignee or disposed of as provided in this title, unless otherwise provided by special contract; and any carrier who shall fail to so feed and water said live stock sufficiently shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, and shall be liable also to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the owner of such live stock in any court having jurisdiction in any county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

Article 715. Certain common carriers, etc., to issue bills of lading and certify, etc., same when demanded by shipper, etc.—It shall be the duty of all railroad companies, steamship companies, and other common carriers, or receivers thereof, except express companies and pipe line companies, upon the receipt of freight for transportation, to issue bills of lading therefor, and to authenticate, validate or certify such bills of lading, when the same shall be demanded by the shipper, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1910, 4 S. S., p. 138, sec. 1.]

Art. 716. Requisites, etc., of certificate, etc.—Each bill of lading issued by a common carrier, to which the provisions of this chapter apply, for an intrastate shipment, shall contain and each bill of lading issued by such carrier for interstate or foreign shipment may contain, within the written or printed terms, in addition to the other requirements of this chapter, the following:

- (a) The date of its issuance;
- (b) The name of the person from whom the goods have been received;
- (c) The place where the goods have been received;
- (d) The place to which the goods are to be transported;
- (e) A statement of whether the goods will be delivered to a specific person or the order of a specific person;
- (f) A description of the goods or the packages containing them, which may, however, be in terms such as may be approved by the railroad commission;
- (g) The signature of the carrier or the duly authorized agent of the carrier; said bill of lading shall be so signed with pen and ink, and the person signing the same shall attach his signature below all written, printed or stamped matter contained in said bill of lading, except the words, "Authorized Agent of" (stating the name of his principal), which shall appear below his signature.

(h) The carrier may insert in a bill of lading issued by him any other terms and conditions; provided such terms and conditions shall not be contrary to law or public policy or the orders promulgated by the railroad commission; and provided, further, that no language shall be inserted in any bill of lading having the effect of limiting or avoiding any of the provisions of this chapter; provided, that when any form of bill of lading has been approved by the interstate commerce commission, and has been adopted by any carrier and made a part of its tariff, then such bill of lading, as to interstate and foreign shipments, shall be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this article. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 717. "Straight" and "order" bills of lading defined, and issuance of "order" bills of lading regulated.—A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specific person is a "straight" bill of lading, and a bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to the order of any person named in such bill of lading, is an "order" bill of lading. Order bills of lading shall not be issued in sets or in duplicate, but copies thereof may be issued; provided, such copy has written or printed across the face thereof: "Copy—Not Negotiable." [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 718. Authority of agent to be posted in station, his signature attached.—It shall be the duty of the carriers affected by this chapter to keep posted for public inspection in some conspicuous place in the station or place where freight is received an instrument of writing authorizing the agent of such carrier, or person authorized to act for such carrier, selected for such purpose, to execute, sign and issue bills of lading; and the agent or person so authorized to act for said carrier, so selected, shall attach his signature to such instrument in the same manner that he signs bills of lading. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 719. Bill of lading issued by authorized agent, to be held act of carrier, etc., liability thereon; effect of certificate, etc.—Each and every bill of lading issued by the authorized agent of any carrier or receiver thereof, affected by the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed and held to be the act and deed of such carrier or receiver thereof, and the principal shall be liable thereon in accordance with the terms thereof. When any such bill of lading shall be validated, authenticated or certified in accordance with the rules and regulations herein provided for, and as may be prescribed by the railroad commission in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and in the hands of an innocent holder for value, it shall be incontestable as to the matters and things therein set forth. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 720. Carrier's liability in case of delivery of goods without taking up, etc., "order" bill of lading; exception.—If the carrier shall deliver goods for which an "order" bill of lading has been issued, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel said bill of lading, such carrier shall be liable for the failure to deliver the goods to any one who, for value, in good faith, purchases such bill of lading, whether the purchaser acquired title to the bill of lading before or after the delivery of the goods by the carrier, notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto, except when goods are sold to satisfy the carrier's lien, and except when compelled to do so by legal process. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 721. Same subject, where part of goods are delivered, etc., exception.—If a carrier delivers part of the goods for which an "order" bill of lading has been issued, and fails to take up and cancel the bill of lading, or to place plainly upon the bill of lading that a portion of the goods had been delivered, with a description which may be in general terms, either of the goods or packages that had been so delivered, or of the goods or packages which still remain in the carrier's possession, he shall be liable for the failure to deliver all of the goods specified in the bill of lading, to any one, who for value, and in good faith, purchases it, whether such purchaser acquires title to the bill of lading before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto, except when goods are sold to satisfy the carrier's lien, and except when compelled to do so by legal process. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 722. Procedure in case of loss of "order" bill of lading; carrier not relieved from liability to innocent purchaser, etc., proviso.—When an "order" bill of lading shall have been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction, in term time or in vacation, may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction, and upon the giving of a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, to protect the carrier or any person injured by such delivery from any liability or loss incurred by reason of the original bill of lading remaining outstanding. The court may also, in its discretion, order the payment of the carrier's reasonable costs and counsel fees; but the delivery of the goods under an order of court, as provided for in this article, shall not relieve the carrier from liability to a person to whom the order bill of lading has been or shall be negotiated for value, and without notice of the proceedings or the delivery of the goods; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the carrier from delivering the property covered by such lost bill of lading to any party claiming the same, on such terms as such party and the carrier may agree upon. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 723. Carriers not liable, etc., when.—The carrier shall not be liable under the provisions of this chapter, where the property has been replevied or levied upon or taken from the possession of the carrier by other legal process, or has been lawfully sold to satisfy the carrier's lien, or in case of the sale or disposition of perishable, hazardous or unclaimed goods, in accordance with law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 724. Duties and powers of railroad commission.—It shall be the duty of the railroad commission to adopt and prescribe forms, terms and conditions for the authentication, certification or validation of bills of lading issued by common carriers referred to in article 715, and to regulate the manner and method of their issuance, and to take such steps as it may deem necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter; and it shall have authority to amend, alter and modify, from time to time, as may seem to it expedient, any regulations which may be adopted by it in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, after giving due notice thereof to all carriers interested and to the public. [Id. sec. 17.]

Article 725. [327] [285] Unclaimed freight may be sold, when and how.—When any freight or baggage has been conveyed by a common carrier to any point in this state, and shall remain unclaimed for the space of three months at the office or depot nearest or most convenient to destination, and the owner, whether known or unknown, fails within that time to claim such freight or baggage, or to pay the proper charges if any there be against it, then it shall be lawful for such common carrier to sell such freight or baggage at public auction, offering each box, bale, trunk, valise or other article separately as consigned or checked. [Act May 2, 1874, p. 203. P. D. 5884a.]

Art. 726. [328] [286] Notice of such sale.—Thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale, and a descriptive list of the packages to be sold, with names and numbers or marks found thereon, shall be posted up in three public places in the county where the sale is to be made, and on the door of the depot or warehouse, if any, where the goods are, and shall also give notice in at least one newspaper in the county, if any be published therein, for thirty days before sale; and out of the proceeds of such sale the carrier shall deduct the proper charges on such freight or baggage, including costs of storing and costs of sale, and hold the overplus, if any, to the order of the owner any time within five years, on proof of ownership made by the claimant or his duly authorized agent or attorney. [Id. P. D. 5884b.]

Art. 727. [329] [287] Carrier shall keep an account of sales, etc.—The carrier shall keep an account of sales, copy of the notice, a copy of the sale bill, and the expense thereof proportioned to each article sold. [Id. P. D. 5884c.]

Art. 728. [330] [288] Carrier may sell live stock, when.—Should any live stock remain unclaimed for the space of forty-eight hours after its arrival at the place of its destination, the carrier may sell the same at public auction after giving five days' notice of the time and place of such sale, as prescribed in article 726, and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, after deducting reasonable expenses for keeping, feeding and watering said live stock from the time of its arrival at the place of its destination until disposed of as herein provided; and such carrier shall also keep an account of any such sale, copy of the notice, copy of the sale bill, and an account of all expenses. [Id. P. D., 5884d.]

Art. 729. [331] [289] Carrier shall sell perishable property, when.—Should any perishable property remain unclaimed after arrival at its place of destination until in danger of depreciation, it shall be the duty of the carrier to sell the same at public auction, after giving five days' notice of the time and place of sale, as prescribed in article 726, and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, and keep an account of such sale, copy of the notice, copy of the sale bill, and an account of all expenses. [Id. P. D. 5884d.]

Art. 730. Disposition of unclaimed intoxicating liquor.—When any express company, railroad company or other common carrier, within this state, shall receive any package or parcel of whatsoever nature, whether from a point within or without this state, containing any intoxicating liquor, for transportation to any point within any county, justice precinct, school district, city or town, or subdivision of a county, where the sale of intoxicating liquors has been prohibited under the laws of this state, such express company, railroad company or other common carrier shall forthwith transport such intoxicating liquor to the place of its destination; and, upon the arrival of same at its place of destination, there shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose the names of the consignor and the consignee, the exact time of the arrival of such package or parcel at the place of its destination, the place from where shipped, the quantity and character of such intoxicating liquor, as shown on such package or parcel, the exact time delivered to the consignee, if delivered, and the signature of such consignee, who shall sign in person for same before delivery thereof; and such book shall be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any officer of the law or any member of the grand jury. If such package or parcel be not called for and taken away by the consignee, and all charges thereon, if any, paid by such consignee, it shall be the duty of such express company, railroad company, or other common carrier, to start such package or parcel in transit back to the consignor thereof within seven days from the time of its arrival at the place of its destination; and the consignor shall be liable to such express company, railroad company, or other common carrier for the express or freight charges in transportation and returning same. Any express company, railroad company, or other common carrier, violating any of the provisions of this article or articles, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each infraction thereof, to be recovered in the name of the state of Texas in any court of competent jurisdiction, in any county where such express company, railroad company or other common carriers have an office or an agent or a line of railway; and each day that such intoxicating liquor shall be kept at the place of its destination after the expiration of seven days from the time of its arrival shall be deemed a separate infraction. [Acts 1905, p. 379. Acts 1910, 3 S. S., p. 33.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

CONNECTING LINES OF COMMON CARRIERS.

Connecting lines of common carriers de- fined	Article 731	Liability of such connecting lines.....	Article 732
--------------------------------------------------------	----------------	-----------------------------------------	----------------

Article 731. [331a] Connecting lines of common carriers defined.—All common carriers over whose transportation lines, or parts thereof, any freight, baggage or other property received by either of such carriers for through shipment or transportation by such carriers between points in this state on a contract for through carriage recognized, acquiesced in, or acted upon, by such carriers shall, in this state, with respect to the undertaking and matter of such transportation, be considered and construed to be connecting lines, and be deemed and held to be the agents of each other, each the agent of the others, and all the others the agents of each, and shall be deemed and held to be under a contract with each other and with the shipper, owner and consignee of such property for the safe and speedy through transportation thereof from point of shipment to destination; and such contract as to the shipper, owner or consignee of such property shall be deemed and held to be the contract of each of such common carriers; and, in any of the courts of this state, any through bill of lading, waybill, receipt, check or other instrument issued by either of such carriers, or other proof showing that either of them has received such freight, baggage or other property for such through shipment or transportation, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the subsistence of the relations, duties and liabilities of such carrier as herein defined and prescribed, notwithstanding any stipulations or attempted stipulations to the contrary by such carriers, or either of them. [Acts 1895, p. 186.]

Art. 732. [331b] Liability of such connecting lines.—For any damages for injury or damage to, or loss or delay of, any freight, baggage or other property, sustained anywhere in such through transportation over connecting lines, or either of them, as contemplated and defined in the next preceding article of this chapter, either of such connecting carriers which the person or persons sustaining such damages may first elect to sue in this state therefor shall be held liable to such person or persons; and such carrier so held liable to such person or persons shall be entitled in a proper action to recover the amount of any loss, damage or injury it may be required to pay such person or persons from the carrier through whose negligence the loss, damage or injury was sustained, together with costs of suit. [Id.]

Article 733. [332] [290] Certiorari to county court, issued when.—Any person interested in the estate of a decedent or ward may have the proceedings of the county court therein revised and corrected at any time within two years after such proceedings were had, and not afterward; provided, that persons non compos mentis, infants and femes covert shall have two years after the removal of their respective disabilities within which to apply for such revision and correction. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, secs. 7, 9. P. D. 480, 482.]

Art. 734. [333] [291] Application for.—All applications for the writ of certiorari to the county court shall be made to the district court, or a judge thereof. It shall state the names and residences of the parties adversely interested, and shall distinctly set forth the error in the proceeding sought to be revised. [Id. P. D. 480.]

Art. 735. [334] [292] Shall be granted on execution of bond.—The writ of certiorari shall, in all cases, be granted upon the application of a party therefor, upon the applicant entering into bond in such sum as shall be required by the judge, sufficient to secure the costs of the proceeding.

Art. 736. [335] [293] Not to operate as supersedeas, unless bond given.—A writ of certiorari shall not operate as a supersedeas of the judgment of the county court, unless the applicant therefor shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in such sum as shall be fixed by the order of the district judge, payable to the adverse party, and conditioned for the performance of the judgment of the district court, in case such judgment shall be against the applicant.

Art. 737. [336] [294] Writ to issue to contain what.—The writ of certiorari shall be issued by the clerk of the district court upon the compliance of the party with the order of the district court or the judge thereof. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and shall command him to cite the clerk of the county court to make out a certified transcript of the proceedings designated in the writ, and transmit the same to the district court to which the writ is returnable, on or before the return day of the next succeeding term thereof.

Art. 738. [337] [295] When supersedeas granted.—When an order for a supersedeas has been made, it shall also require the clerk and all officers of said court to stay further proceedings on the judgment specified in said writ.

Art. 739. [338] [296] Citation as in ordinary cases.—Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation, as in ordinary cases, for the party named in the application, as being adversely interested in the proceedings sought to be revised.

Art. 740. [339] [297] Trial de novo; judgment to be certified below.—The cause shall be tried de novo in the district court, but the issues shall be confined to the grounds of error specified in the application for the writ. The judgment shall be certified to the county court for observance. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 60. P. D. 1460.]

Art. 741. [340] [298] Appeals and writs of error allowed.—Appeals and writs of error to the supreme court, from the judgments of the district courts in cases of certiorari, shall be allowed, and shall be governed by the same rules as in other cases.

Article 742. [341] [299] Certiorari to justices' court.—After final judgment in a court of a justice of the peace, in any cause, except in cases of forcible entry and detainer, the cause may be removed to the county court by writ of certiorari (or if the jurisdiction, civil or criminal, has been transferred from the county to the district court, then to the district court) in the manner hereinafter directed. [Acts of 1879, p. 125.]

Art. 743. [342] [300] On order of the county or district court or judge.—The writ of certiorari shall be issued by order of the county court or the judge thereof, (or district court or the judge thereof, if jurisdiction is transferred to said district court) as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 744. [343] [301] Requisites of the writ.—It shall command the justice of the peace to make and certify a copy of the entries in the cause on his docket, and transmit the same, with the papers in his possession, to the proper court on or before the first day of the next term thereof; but if there is not time for such transcript and papers to be filed at such term, then they shall be so filed at the next succeeding term of said court. [Act March 20, 1848, p. 163, sec. 67. P. D. 468.]

Art. 745. [344] [302] Affidavit of sufficient cause.—The writ shall not be granted unless the party applying for the same, or some person for him having knowledge of the facts, shall make affidavit in writing, setting forth sufficient cause to entitle him thereto. [Id.]

Art. 746. [345] [303] What application for certiorari must show.—In order to constitute a sufficient cause, the facts stated must show that either the justice of the peace had not jurisdiction, or that injustice was done to the applicant by the final determination of the suit or proceeding, and that such injustice was not caused by his own inexcusable neglect. [Id.]

Art. 747. [346] [304] Within what time granted.—Such writ shall not be granted after ninety days from the final judgment of the justice of the peace. [Id.]

Art. 748. [347] [305] Bond with sureties required.—The writ shall not be issued unless the party applying therefor shall first cause to be filed a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to the adverse party, in such sum as the judge shall direct, to the effect that the party applying therefor will perform the judgment of the county or district court, if the same shall be against him. [Id.]

Art. 749. [348] [306] Bond, affidavit and order to be filed.—The bond and affidavit, with the order of the judge, when made in vacation, shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which the same is returnable.

Art. 750. [349] [307] Writ to issue instant.—As soon as such affidavit, order of the judge and bond shall have been filed, the clerk shall issue a writ of certiorari, as directed in article 744. [Act May 10, 1850, p. 60, sec. 2. P. D. 470.]

Art. 751. [350] [308] Justice shall stay proceedings and make return.—Upon service of such writ of certiorari being made upon the justice of the peace, he shall stay further proceedings on the judgment and forthwith comply with said writ; but if there be not time for the transcript and papers to be filed at such first term, then they shall be so filed at the next succeeding term of said court. [Id. sec. 67. P. D. 468.]

Art. 752. [351] [309] Citation as in other cases.—Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation, as in ordinary cases, for the party adversely interested.

Art. 753. [352] [310] Cause to be docketed, and how.—The action shall be docketed in the name of the original plaintiff, as plaintiff, and of the original defendant, as defendant.

Art. 754. [353] [311] Motion to dismiss at first term.—At the first term of the court to which the certiorari is returnable, the adverse party may move to dismiss the certiorari for want of sufficient cause appearing in the affidavit, or for want of sufficient bond.

Art. 755. [354] [312] No amendment of bond or oath.—No amendment of the affidavit or bond shall be made in the county or district court, nor shall a new affidavit or bond be filed.

[Note—See article 2104.]

Art. 756. [355] [313] Judgment of dismissal.—If the certiorari be dismissed, the judgment shall direct the justice of the peace to proceed with the execution of the judgment below.

Art. 757. [356] [314] Pleading same as in justice's court, except, etc.—No pleading other than that required by law in the justice's court shall be necessary, except in cases of amendment, as hereinafter provided.

Art. 758. [357] [315] Issues made up under direction of the court.—When no pleadings have been filed in justices' courts, and none were necessary, the issues shall be made up under the direction of the court.

Art. 759. [358] [316] New matter may be pleaded, etc.—Either party may plead any new matter in the county or district court which was not presented in the court below; but no new cause of action shall be set up by the plaintiff, nor shall any set-off or counter claim be set up by the defendant which was not pleaded in the court below; and in all such cases the pleadings shall be in writing, and filed in the cause before the parties have announced themselves ready for trial.

Art. 760. [359] [317] Trial de novo.—The cause shall be tried de novo, in the county or district court; and judgment shall be rendered, as in cases of an appeal from justices' courts. [Act to establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 761. [360] [318] Appeals and writs of error in certiorari cases.— Appeals and writs of error from the judgments of the county or district court, in cases of certiorari from justices' courts, shall be allowed, subject to such rules and limitations as apply in cases appealed from justices' courts

Article 762. [381] [340] Cities, towns and villages may accept provisions of this title.—Any incorporated city, town or village in this state, containing one thousand inhabitants or over, including those incorporated under chapter fourteen of this title, or chapter eleven of title eighteen of the Revised Statutes of 1895, and other laws, general and special, may accept the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in lieu of any existing charter, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village; which action by the council shall be had at a regular meeting thereof and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same, signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings as aforesaid. When such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns and vested with all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises therein conferred. [Acts of 1881, p. 115. Acts of 1885, p. 57.]

Art. 763. [382] [341] Provisions of this title do not apply until accepted.—The provisions of this title shall not apply to any city, town or village until such provisions have been accepted by the council in accordance with the preceding article. [Act. March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 157.]

Art. 764. [383] [342] General powers of the corporation.—All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of this title shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and those herein granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic, and, under the same name, shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 765. [573] [502] Property, officers, etc., not affected by this title.—All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any city accepting the provisions of this title, is hereby vested in the corporation created by this title, and the officers of said corporation, in office at the date of its acceptance, shall continue in the same, until superseded in conformity with the provisions of this title, from and after it takes effect. [Acts of 1875, p. 256.]

Art. 766. [572] [501] Rights, actions, etc., not affected by this title.—All rights, actions, fines, penalties and forfeitures in suits or otherwise, which have accrued under the laws heretofore in force, shall be vested in and prosecuted by the corporation hereby created; and no suit pending shall be affected by the passage and acceptance of this title, but the same shall be prosecuted or defended, as the case may be, by the corporation hereby created. [Id. sec. 153.]

Art. 767. [571] [500] Cemetery lots exempt from forced sale.—The cemetery lots which have, and may hereafter be laid out and sold for said city for private places of burial shall, with their appurtenances, be forever exempt from taxes, executions, attachments or forced sales. [Id. sec. 152.]

Art. 768. [570] [499] City exempt from giving bond in suits.—It shall not be necessary in any action, suit or proceeding in which the city, accepting the provisions of this title, shall be a party, for any bond, undertaking or security to be executed in behalf of the city; but all such actions, suits and proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner as if such bond, undertaking or security had been given, and, for all the purposes of such actions, suits and proceedings, the city shall be liable in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if the bond, undertaking or security in ordinary cases had been duly given and executed. [Id. sec. 151.]

Art. 769. Powers of city, etc., owning waterworks, sewers, gas and electric lights, to own land within or without limits.—Any town or city in this state, which may have been or may hereafter be chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special act or charter, and which city or town owns or operates waterworks, sewers, gas or electric lights shall have the power and right to own land for such purposes, within or without the limits of such town or city. [Acts 1909, p. 159.]

Art. 770. May purchase, construct and operate systems inside or outside limits, and regulate, etc.—Such town or city may purchase, construct and operate water, sewer and gas and electric light systems, inside or outside of such town or city limits, and regulate and control same, in a manner to protect the interests of such town or city. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 771. May sell water, etc., to persons outside, permit connections, etc.—Such town or city shall have the power and right to sell water, gas, electric light or power and sewer privileges to any person or corporation outside of the limits of said town or city, and to permit them to connect therewith under contract with such town or city, under such terms and conditions as may appear to be for the best interests of such town or city. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 772. May prescribe kind of mains and appliances, etc., inspect, etc., make regulations and prescribe penalties.—Such town or city owning or operating such water or gas mains or sewer pipes and electric appliances shall have the right to prescribe the kind of water or gas mains or sewer pipes and electric appliances, within or beyond the limits of such town or city, and to inspect the same and require them to be kept in good order and condition at all times, and to make such rules and regulations, and prescribe penalties, concerning same, as shall be necessary and proper. [Id. sec. 2.]

[Note.—For other powers of, and restrictions upon, city councils, in reference to waterworks, see article 865; and for power of condemnation for waterworks purposes, public or private, see articles 1003 and 1004.]

Art. 773. [384] [343] Limits of corporation to remain the same until extended, etc.—The bounds and limits of said municipality shall be and remain the same as fixed and defined by the provisions of the act of incorporation, substituted by the provisions of this title; provided, that said limits of said corporation may be hereafter extended by adding additional territory to the same, whenever the majority of the qualified electors of said territory shall indicate a desire to be included within the limits of said corporation, in the manner provided in article 781 of this title. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 2.]

Art. 774. [385] Cities, towns and villages may incorporate under.—Any city or town containing one thousand inhabitants or over may be incorporated as such, with all the powers, rights, immunities and privileges mentioned and described in the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in the manner prescribed in chapter fourteen of this title for incorporating towns and villages, except that the application to become incorporated shall be signed by at least fifty electors, residents of such city or town, and except that when an election is held according to the provisions of such chapter the words "towns and villages" shall be construed to read, and read, "cities and towns." When the entry by the county judge, provided in article 1041 in said chapter fourteen, is made with reference to a city or town of one thousand inhabitants and over, such city or town shall be invested with all the rights and privileges of such cities conferred by this title. [Acts of 1881, p. 63. Acts of 1881, p. 115.]

[Note.—See validating act of 1895, p. 45, remaining in force by virtue of section twenty of the final title.]

Art. 775. [386] [340c] Validating incorporations.—That all towns and cities of one thousand inhabitants or more which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of this title and to become incorporated cities of one thousand inhabitants or more, under the general laws of Texas, and have failed to comply with all the requirements of said general law, or which are not included within the literal meaning of those cities which are authorized to accept the provisions of said general law, and all towns and villages incorporated under chapter eleven of title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895, or by special charter, or otherwise, but which now have one thousand inhabitants or more, and which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of this title in lieu of their said town or village charter and become incorporated cities of one thousand inhabitants or more, but which said cities have from and after the dates of their several attempted incorporations and their several efforts to accept the provisions of this title exercised the functions of cities of the class named, and were by the state of Texas recognized as such cities are hereby declared to be cities of one thousand inhabitants or more; and the several acts whereby they attempted to accept the provisions of said law are hereby, in all things, validated; and that all subsequent acts of said cities and towns done and performed as a city of one thousand inhabitants or more, after they had attempted to accept the provisions of said law as aforesaid are hereby validated and declared to be as binding as if said cities had been duly and legally incorporated; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as validating any act of said cities, or the councils thereof, unless same were authorized by the general laws of the state under which they were attempting to act at the several dates when said acts were done; and provided, further, that the provisions of this article shall not validate the act of any town or city in unlawfully adding additional territory to such town or city, without the consent of such inhabitants so added to said town or city. [Acts of 1891, p. 26.]

Art. 776. Validating incorporations.—All cities or towns of one thousand inhabitants or over incorporated since March 30, 1895, which have heretofore attempted to accept the provisions of chapter one, title eighteen, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895, and which have attempted to be incorporated under the provisions of said general law, but which said attempted incorporation is invalid by reason of the failure of said cities or towns to comply with all the requirements of the law relating to the incorporation of towns or villages, but which said cities or towns have from and after the dates of their several efforts to accept the provisions of law relating to the incorporation of cities or towns of one thousand inhabitants or over exercised the functions of cities or towns of the class named and been recognized as such cities or towns are hereby declared to be cities of one thousand inhabitants or over; and their incorporation as such is hereby in all things validated; provided, that nothing in this act shall be held to validate the incorporation of cities or towns that had less than one thousand inhabitants at the time of their attempted incorporation as such cities or towns of one thousand inhabitants or over. [Acts 1897, p. 59.]

Art. 777. [386a] Territorial boundaries of cities and towns, etc.—No city or town in this state shall be hereafter incorporated under the provisions of the general charter for cities and towns contained in title twenty-two of the Revised Civil Statutes of this state, with a superficial area of more than two square miles, when such town or city has less than two thousand inhabitants, nor more than four square miles, when such city or town has more than two thousand and less than five thousand inhabitants, nor more than nine square miles, when such city or town has more than five and less than ten thousand inhabitants. It shall be the duty of the mayor and board of aldermen, immediately after they qualify as such officers, to pass an ordinance causing an actual survey of the boundaries of such town to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for incorporation, and the field-notes thereof recorded in the minute book of such town or city, and also in the record books of deeds in the county in which such town or city is situated. [Acts of 1895, p. 17.]

Art. 778. [386b] Excessive territory to be relinquished.—It shall be the duty of the mayor and the board of aldermen of any town or city in this state heretofore incorporated under title eighteen of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895 of this state, and whose boundaries have been established so as to include more territory than is specified in article 777, to immediately cause a resurvey of the boundaries of such city or town to be made, so as not to include more territory than is provided for in article 777; such resurvey to be made and the field-notes thereof to be recorded as provided in article 777. [Id.]

Art. 779. [386c] Validating certain incorporations.—All cities and towns in this state whose charters may be void by reason of a failure to properly define their limits, or that may have included in such limits more territory than was provided for in article 386a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1895, that shall have, within ninety days from the taking effect of an act of the twenty-eighth legislature, general laws of 1903, regular session, chapter 49, page 68, complied with article 386b, Revised Civil Statutes, 1895, are hereby declared to be valid; and such charters and incorporations are hereby in all things validated, the same as if such territorial limits had at first been properly established. [Acts 1903, p. 68.]

Art. 780. [386d] Discontinuing territory.—Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city or town organized under the general laws within this state territory to the extent of at least ten acres, contiguous, uninhabited, and adjoining the lines of any such city or town, the mayor and city or town council may by ordinance duly passed discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town; and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the mayor shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and, from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town. [Act of 1895, p. 178.]

Art. 781. [574] [503] Adjoining inhabitants may become part of city, how.—Whenever a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the state legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city incorporated under, or accepting the provisions of, this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact, to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may, by ordinance, receive them as part of said city; from thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto, and passed in pursuance of this title. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 155.]

Art. 782. [575] [503a] Segregating territory from city.—Whenever fifty qualified voters of any territory within the limits of any incorporated town shall sign and present a petition to the mayor of such city, praying that such territory, setting the same out by metes and bounds, be declared no longer a part of such town, it shall be the duty of the mayor thereof to order an election within thirty days thereafter, to be holden at the different voting precincts of said town; and if a majority of the legal voters of said town voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said town, the mayor of said city shall declare such territory no longer a part of said city, and shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city council; and from and after the date of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said town; provided, no city or town shall thus be reduced to a less area than one square mile or one mile in diameter around the center of the original corporate limits. [Acts of 1883, p. 99.]

Art. 783. [576] [503b] Liable for debts, etc.—Whenever any territory shall withdraw as above provided, and such city or town shall at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawing territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness; but it shall be the duty of said city council to continue to levy an ad valorem tax each year on the property of said territory of the same rate as is levied upon other property of such city, until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city or town at the time of the withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting the same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the inhabitants of said territory from paying in full, at any time, their pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city. [Id.]

Article 784. [387] [344] Municipal government consists of what.—The municipal government of the city shall consist of a city council composed of the mayor and two aldermen from each ward, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at called meetings or meetings for the imposition of taxes, when two-thirds of a full board shall be required, unless herein otherwise specified; provided, that where the city or town shall not be divided into wards, the city council shall be composed of the mayor and five aldermen, and the provisions of this title relating to proceedings in a ward shall apply to the whole city or town. The other officers of the corporation shall be a treasurer, an assessor and collector, a secretary, a city attorney, a marshal and city engineer, and such other officers and agents as the city council may from time to time direct; provided, that the office of treasurer, assessor and collector, city attorney, and city engineer may be dispensed with by an ordinance of the city or town council; and the powers and duties herein prescribed for such officers may be conferred by said council upon other officers. The above named officers shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, as hereinafter provided for, and shall hold their offices for two years, and until the election and qualification of their successors. [Acts of 1881, p. 115.]

Art. 785. [388] [345] Manner of electing officers, etc.—An election shall be held in each of the wards of said city, on the first Tuesday in April, next after the acceptance of the provisions of this title, and annually thereafter, at such place or places as the city council may direct, and of which thirty days' previous notice shall be given. Such election shall be ordered and notice thereof shall be given, and election officers and supervisors appointed, as provided by article 2934. The presiding officers and judges must be qualified voters in the city. The city council shall provide for their compensation, and, by ordinance, regulate and define their powers and duties. [Id. Acts 1905, S. S., p. 533, sec. 56.]

Art. 786. [389] [346] Election, etc., of mayor and aldermen.—At the first election under this title, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city, voting by ballot, a mayor, who shall hold his office for two years from the date of his election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; and at the first election held under this title there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city two aldermen from each ward in said city, one of whom shall hold his office for one year, and the other for two years, from the date of their election; and the term for which each shall hold office shall be determined at the first regular meeting after said election by lot; provided, that there shall be one alderman for the long term and one for the short term from each of said wards respectively; and provided, further, that at each annual election thereafter there shall be elected one alderman from each ward, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and provided, further, that where the city or town shall not be divided into wards, the city council may determine by proper ordinance what number of aldermen shall go out of office in one year, and the mode and manner of deciding which members shall hold for the long term and which for the short term. [Acts of 1895, p. 8.]

Art. 787. [390] [347] Time of holding election, and returns thereof.—At all elections under this title, the ballots of each ward shall be taken separately, the polls being opened in each ward for one day only, from eight o'clock a. m. until six o'clock p. m., with the privilege of a recess of one hour from twelve o'clock to one o'clock. Should the polls not be promptly opened for the reception of votes by eight o'clock a. m., the time thus lost shall be extended beyond the hour of six p. m., so as to secure the full period of nine hours for voting purposes. On closing the polls, the managers of election shall immediately proceed to count and cast up the votes for each candidate and certify and sign the returns in duplicate, one of which shall be sealed up and returned by the presiding officer for future use as a reference in case of a contested election; the other copy shall be sealed up with the name of the presiding officer written across the seals, and by the presiding officer, or in his absence or inability, by one of the judges or clerks, delivered in open session to the city council the next day or as soon thereafter as practicable. The officer so delivering the same shall make oath before the mayor or one of the aldermen that the returns by him delivered have not been altered or opened since being signed and sealed, as aforesaid. As received, the city council shall immediately open the returns from each ward, casting up the votes of the wards for mayor, city attorney, tax assessor and collector, treasurer, city marshal, city engineer and secretary, and for aldermen of the several wards as hereinbefore provided for; and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the offices of mayor, city attorney, tax assessor and collector, treasurer, city marshal, city engineer, secretary, and aldermen shall be declared elected to their respective offices; provided, that at the first election held under this statute the two persons from the same ward receiving the highest number of votes in the city for aldermen of the wards for which they are candidates shall be declared elected aldermen of such wards respectively in which they were candidates; and at all subsequent elections held thereunder, only one alderman shall be elected from each ward by the qualified voters of such town or city. The newly elected officers may enter upon their duties on the fifth day thereafter, Sundays excepted; provided, that any officer may qualify at any time within thirty days after his election; otherwise the office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election held to fill the same. It shall be the duty of the secretary to notify all persons elected or appointed to office of their election or appointment; and the city council-elect shall meet at the usual place of meeting on the fifth day, Sundays excepted, after their election, or as soon thereafter as possible, and be installed under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 788. [391] [348] Who are qualified voters for city officers.—Every person not disqualified by law who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and is entitled to vote for members of the legislature of this state, and is duly registered, and shall have resided within the corporate limits of said city for six months next preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote for the officers of said city; provided, nevertheless, that no person belonging to the regular army of the United States shall be so entitled. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 7.]

Art. 789. [392] [349] Managers of election shall be sworn; their powers and duties.—The managers of election shall be sworn well and truly to conduct the election, without partiality or prejudice, and agreeably to law, and according to the best of their skill and understanding; which oath shall be administered by the mayor or any justice of the peace. The presiding officer and judges thus qualified shall have power to administer oaths necessary to the performance of their official duties. When any person offering a vote shall be objected to by any one qualified to vote at such election, the managers shall examine him on oath touching the points objected to; and, if he fail in establishing his qualification to their satisfaction, his vote shall be rejected. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 790. [393] [394a] Proceedings where vote challenged.—In any election, state, county or municipal, being held in any city or town of ten thousand inhabitants or more according to the last preceding United States census, when the right to vote of any elector offering to vote is challenged, the following proceedings shall be had: The judges of election shall refuse to accept such vote of such elector, unless, in addition to his own oath, he proves by the oath of one well known resident of the ward that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such ward. When such vote is accepted, the judges shall cause the clerk of election to make a minute of the name of the elector and the party testifying under oath as to his qualifications; and such memoranda shall be kept by the clerk of the county court for six months after such election is held, subject to the order of the district judge. Whenever the right of an elector to vote is challenged, the word "challenged" shall be entered on the ballot, if accepted by the judges. Any elector voting at any election who does not possess the legal qualifications shall be punished as now provided by law for illegal voting; and any person swearing falsely as to his own qualifications or those of a challenged elector shall be punished as now provided by law for false swearing. [Acts of 1891, p. 47.]

Art. 791. [394] [350] Proceedings in case of a tie vote, etc.—Whenever it so happens in any election that there is a tie between two or more candidates for the same office all of whom cannot be elected, the city council shall declare such election void as between such candidates only, and immediately order a new election for the office, first giving not less than five days' notice thereof. In the event of a failure to meet on the part of the city council to examine the election returns and declare the result, the mayor shall discharge that duty. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 9.]

Art. 792. [395] [351] Who are eligible to the office of mayor and alderman.—No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor unless he possesses the qualifications of an elector, and shall have resided twelve months next preceding the election within the limits of the city; and no person shall be eligible to the office of alderman unless, in addition to the above qualifications, he be a resident of the ward from which he may be elected at the time of the election; provided, that if any alderman shall remove from the ward in which he was elected, his office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election ordered to fill the same. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 793. [566] [495] Member of city council ineligible to other office, and shall not be contractor, surety, etc.—No member of the city council shall hold any other employment or office under the city government while he is a member of said council, unless herein otherwise provided; and no member of the city council, or any officer of the corporation, shall be directly or indirectly interested in any work, business or contract, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the city treasury, or by an assessment levied by an ordinance or resolution of the city council, nor be the surety of any person having a contract, work or business with said city, for the performance of which security may be required, nor be the surety on the official bond of any officer of the city. [Acts 1875, p. 256.]

Art. 794. [562] [491] None but resident voters eligible to office.—No person other than an elector resident of the city shall be appointed to any office by the city council. [Id. sec. 143.]

Art. 795. [563] [492] Resignation of officers.—Resignation by any officer authorized to be elected or appointed by this title shall be made to the city council in writing, subject to their approval and acceptance; provided, that nothing in this article shall apply to appointments by the mayor. Any such appointee wishing to resign shall present his resignation to that officer, in writing, for his action. [Id. sec. 144.]

Art. 796. [564] [493] Power of city council to remove officers.—The city council shall have power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defense. In addition to the foregoing power of removal, the city council shall have power at any time to remove any officer of the corporation elected by them, by resolution declaratory of its want of confidence in said officer; provided, that two-thirds of the aldermen elected vote in favor of said resolution. [Id. sec. 145.]

Art. 797. [396] [352] Vacancy, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor or alderman, by refusal to accept or failure to qualify, or by death, resignation or otherwise, the city council shall order a new election to fill such vacancy; and all special elections shall be conducted as herein provided for in the annual election; provided, that in all special elections to fill vacancies ten days' notice shall be deemed sufficient. In case of a vacancy in any other office in the city than mayor or alderman, by refusal to accept or failure to qualify, or by death, resignation or otherwise, the mayor or acting mayor, shall fill such vacancy by appointment to be confirmed by the city council. [Acts of 1887, p. 41.]

Art. 798. [397] [353] Election to fill vacancy ordered by commissioners' court, when.—Whenever a vacancy occurs, by resignation or otherwise, in the municipal offices of any incorporated town or city in this state, so that the vacancy can not be filled under the charter of said town or city, or under the laws of this state now in force, then, and in that event, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of said county in which said town or city is situated, upon a petition of not less than twenty-six taxpaying voters living in said city, to order an election to be held to fill such vacancy, giving notice of not less than ten days in the usual manner provided for such elections; provided, where such town or city has been chartered by special act of the legislature, and such town or city contains more than two hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants, and the offices of such town or city have been vacant for a period of ten years or more, such charter of said town or city shall become void and forfeited, and no election of officers in such town or city shall be had; but the inhabitants of such town or city may reincorporate under the general laws of this state, relating to towns and cities, in the manner as now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by the laws of this state. [Acts 1897, p. 159. Acts 1875, p. 256.]

Art. 799. [398] [354] Election, etc., in such case, how conducted, etc.—Said election shall, in all things, be carried on as required by law in similar elections; and the officers so elected shall in like manner be qualified and installed into office. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 2.]

Art. 800. [565] [494] Outgoing officer shall deliver books, etc., to his successor, etc.—Whenever any person shall be removed from any office, or the term for which he was elected or appointed has expired, or he has resigned, or has ceased to act in his official capacity, he shall deliver over to his successor all books, papers and effects in any way appertaining to his office. Every person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be deemed an offender within the meaning of any law of the state punishing such offenses, and, in addition thereto, he shall, on conviction before the mayor or recorder, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not exceeding six months or either. Any officer who shall have been intrusted with the collection or custody of funds belonging to said city who shall be in default to said city, besides being liable to criminal prosecution and a civil action for debt, shall thereafter be incapable of holding any office under said city, until the amount of his defalcation shall have been fully paid to said city, with twelve per cent interest. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 146.]

Art. 801. [399] [355] City council composed of mayor and aldermen, etc.—The city council shall be composed of the mayor and aldermen provided for by this title. The mayor shall be president of the council, and in case of a tie on any question he shall give the casting vote. At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure, inability or refusal of the mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties and receive the fees and compensation of the mayor. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 256, sec. 12.]

Art. 802. [553] [482] Wards of city to remain unchanged until, etc.—The wards of each city accepting the provisions of this title shall be and remain unchanged by its acceptance; provided, that the city council shall have power from time to time to cause a division of said city to be made into as many wards as they may deem necessary, and for the good of the inhabitants of said city, and may change the boundaries of the same; but no such division or change shall be made unless it be done at least three months preceding the city election next ensuing; and said wards so established shall contain as far as practicable an equal number of voters. [Id. sec. 134.]

Article 803. [400] [356] Officers shall take official oath.—Every person elected by the voters of said city to fill any office, or by the city council, under this title, shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take and subscribe the official oath prescribed in the constitution of this state; and the city council may, by ordinance, require such additional oath as they may deem best calculated to secure faithfulness in the performance of their duties by such officers. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 804. [401] [357] Duties of mayor.—The mayor of the city shall be the chief executive officer of said corporation, and shall be vigilant and active at all times in causing the laws and ordinances for the government of said city to be duly executed and put in force. He shall inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers in the government thereof, and, as far as it may be in his power, shall cause all negligence, carelessness and positive violations of duty to be prosecuted and punished. He shall have power, whenever in his judgment the good of the city may require it, to summon meetings of the city council; and he shall, from time to time, communicate to that body all such information, and recommend all such measures, as may tend to the improvement of the finances, the police, health, security, cleanliness, comfort, ornament and good government of said city. [Acts of 1881, p. 115, secs. 1 and 2.]

Art. 805. [402] [358] Mayor may summon citizens to act as a special police force, etc.—Whenever the mayor shall deem it necessary, in order to enforce the laws of the city, or to avert danger, or protect life or property, in case of riot or any outbreak or calamity or public disturbance, or when he has reason to fear any serious violation of law or order, or any outbreak, or any other danger to said city, or the inhabitants thereof, he shall summon into service, as a special police force, all or as many of the citizens as in his judgment and discretion may be necessary and proper; and such summons may be by proclamation or order addressed to the citizens generally, or those of any ward of the city, or subdivision thereof; or such summons may be by personal notification. Such special police force, while in service, shall be subject to the orders of the mayor, shall perform such duties as he may require, and shall have the same power while on duty as the regular police force of said city; and any person so summoned and failing to obey, or appearing and failing to perform any duty that may be required by this title, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 1256, sec. 15.]

Art. 806. [403] [359] Powers of the mayor.—The mayor shall have like power, with a justice of the peace, to administer oaths of office. He shall possess and execute, in the city, in criminal cases, all the powers and duties of a justice of the peace. He shall have authority in case of a riot or any unlawful assemblage, or with a view to preserve peace and good order in said city, to order and enforce the closing of any theater, ball-room, grog-shop, tipping-house, bar-room or other place of resort, or public room, or building, and may order the arrest of any person violating, in his presence, the laws of the state, or any ordinance of the city; and he shall perform such other duties and possess and exercise such other power and authority as may be prescribed and conferred by the city council. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 807. [404] [360] Ordinances and resolutions adopted shall not take effect until, etc.—All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and if the mayor approve thereof, he shall sign the same; and such as he shall not sign, he shall return to the city council, with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered; and if, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force; and if the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any such proceedings for a longer period than three days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect. [Id. sec. 17.]

[Note.—For provisions as to recorder and clerk of corporation court, see chapter, "Corporation Court."]

[Note.—The Act of 1899, chapter 3, page 40, creating corporation courts (embodied in chapter 5 of this title) abolished the municipal court and officers of judge, recorder and clerk thereof, in every city, town, or village (as theretofore established) after the due and legal organization of the corporation court therein.]

Art. 808. May appoint police officers; salary, fees, tenure, etc., bond; powers.—The city council or town council in any city or town in this state, incorporated under the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, may, by ordinance, provide for the appointment, term of office and qualifications of such police officer, or officers, as may by such city council be deemed necessary. Such police officer or officers so appointed by such city council shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, as shall be fixed by the city council; and such city council may, by ordinance, provide that such police officer or officers so appointed shall hold their office at the pleasure of the city council and for such term as the city council may from time to time direct. Such police officer or officers, so appointed by such city council, shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties, as the city council may require; and such police officer or officers so appointed shall have like powers, rights and authority as are by said title vested in city marshals. [Acts 1907, p. 299.]

Art. 809. [407] [483a] [363] Duties and powers of the marshal.—The marshal of the city shall be ex officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies; the appointment of which deputies shall only be valid upon the approval of the city council. Said marshal shall, either in person or by deputy, attend upon the recorder's or mayor's court while said court is in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court; he shall have like power, with the sheriff of the county, to execute the writ of search warrant; he shall be active in quelling riots, disorder and disturbances of the peace within the limits of said city, and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the recorder's or mayor's court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinances or laws of the city; it shall be his duty to arrest, without warrant, all violators of the public peace and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbances whatever; to prevent a breach of the peace or preserve quiet and good order, he shall have authority to close any theater, bar-room, ball-room, drinking house, or any other place or building of public resort; and in the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders, he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority and jurisdiction as the sheriff of the county under the laws of the state. He shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, to be fixed by the city council. The marshal shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may require; and he shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers, rights and authority as the city council may, by ordinance, require and confer, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

Certain cities may dispense with office of marshal, etc.—A city council or town council of any city or town within this state having less than three thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding census, may, by an ordinance of said [city] council or town council, as the case may be, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time, by such ordinance, confer the duties of said office upon any peace officer of said county; provided, that when the city marshal has been elected by the people, he shall not be removed during his term of office, under the provisions of this article. [Acts 1875, p. 256; Acts 1901, p. 289; Acts 1903, p. 114.]

Art. 810. [408] [364] Duties of the secretary.—It shall be the duty of the city secretary to attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and to engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council, to keep the corporate seal, to take charge of, and preserve and keep in order, all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council, to countersign all commissions issued to the city officers and licenses issued by the mayor, and to keep a record or register thereof, and to make out all notices required under any regulation or ordinance of the city. He shall draw all warrants on the treasurer, and countersign the same, and keep an accurate account thereof in a book provided for the purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation, and shall keep in books regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause of receipt and disbursement, and also accounts with each person, including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting amounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall also keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council; and he shall do, and perform, all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order of the city council. He shall receive for his services an annual salary, payable at stated periods, and such additional fees as may be allowed by the city council.

Art. 811. [409] [365] Treasurer shall give bond; his duties, etc.—The treasurer of said city shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as may be required by the city council, and with sufficient security, to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation; provided, that no order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter, and whensoever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do; at the end of every half year he shall cause to be published, at the expense of the city, a statement, showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the six months next preceding, and the general condition of the treasury; and he shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require; and, for his services, he shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the city council. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 812. [411] [367] Powers of city council over officers.—The city council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties of all officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties of all officers appointed or elected to any office under this title whose duties are not herein specially mentioned, and fix their compensation. They may also require bonds to be given to the said corporation by all officers for the faithful performance of their duties. The city council shall provide for filling vacancies in all offices, not herein provided for; and, in all cases of vacancy, the same shall be filled only for the unexpired term. [Id. sec. 24.]

Article 813. [412] [368] City council, who shall preside over it, etc.—The mayor and aldermen shall constitute the city council of the city. The city council shall meet at such times and places as they shall by resolution direct. The mayor, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the city council, and shall, in all cases, have a casting vote, except in elections. In his absence and absence of president pro tempore, any one of the aldermen may be appointed to preside. [Acts 1875, p. 256, sec. 25.]

Art. 814. [413] [369] Shall hold stated meetings; may call special meetings; petitions, etc., to, etc.—The city council shall hold stated meetings; and the mayor, of his own motion, or on the application of three aldermen, may call special meetings, by notice to each of the members of said council, the secretary and city attorney, served personally or left at their usual place of abode. Petitions and remonstrances may be presented to the council in writing only; and the council shall determine the rules of its proceedings, and be the judge of the election and qualifications of its own members, and have the power to compel the attendance of absent members, and punish them for disorderly conduct. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 815. [567] [496] Attendance, etc., of officers.—Each alderman shall be fined three dollars for each meeting which he fails to attend, unless on account of his own sickness or that of his family. Any member of the city council remaining absent for three regular consecutive meetings of the board, unless prevented by sickness, without first having obtained leave of absence at a regular meeting, shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and the mayor shall proceed to fill the vacancy in accordance with the charter. [Id. sec. 148.]

Art. 816. [569] [498] Salary of officers shall be fixed by city council, etc.—The city council shall, on or before the first day of January next preceding each and every election, fix the salary and fees of office of the mayor to be elected at the next regular election, and shall, at the same time, establish the compensation or salary to be paid to the officers elected or appointed by the city council; and the compensation or salary so established shall not be changed during the term for which said officers shall be elected or appointed. [Id. sec. 150.]

Art. 817. [464] [418] Power to pass, etc., ordinances, etc., and other powers.—The city council shall have power to pass, publish, amend or repeal all ordinances, rules and police regulations, not contrary to the constitution of this state, for the good government, peace and order of the city and the trade and commerce thereof, that may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers vested by this title in the corporation, the city government, or in any department or officer thereof; to enforce the observance of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations, and to punish violations thereof by fines, penalties and imprisonment in the prison, workhouse, or house of correction, or to work on the streets or other public works, or either, in the discretion of the court before whom conviction may be had; but no fine or penalty shall exceed one hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment more than fifteen days for any offense, unless a larger fine and longer period of imprisonment is herein allowed; and for any fine, penalty and costs imposed by the mayor or recorder in the trial of any cause or complaint before him, execution may issue to collect such fine and costs, to be levied and executed in the same manner that executions are from the district court. The same shall be issued by the mayor or recorder to the marshal, who, in levying on property and selling, shall have like power and authority as the sheriff of the county in executions issued from the district court; and the laws of the state, so far as applicable, shall apply to and be in full force and effect as to the executions issued from the mayor's or recorder's court; and any person upon whom any fine or penalty is imposed may be committed until the payment of the same, with costs, and in default thereof may be imprisoned in the city prison or workhouse, or house of correction, or may be required to work on the streets or other public work of the city for such time and in such manner as may be provided by ordinance; provided, such imprisonment shall not exceed fifteen days, unless a longer period is herein allowed. [Id. sec. 74.]

Art. 818. [559] [488] Style of ordinances.—The style of all ordinances shall be, “Be it ordained by the city council of the city of ——” (inserting the name of the city); but it may be omitted when published in the form of a book or pamphlet. [Id. sec. 140.]

Art. 819. [557] [486] Ordinances, when and how published.—Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine, imprisonment or forfeiture shall, after the passage thereof, be published in every issue of the official paper for ten days; if the official paper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof; and proof of such publication shall be made by the printer or publisher of such paper, making affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, and filed with the secretary of the city or town, and shall be prima facie evidence of such publication and promulgation of such ordinances in all courts of the state; and such ordinances so published shall take effect, and be in force, from and after the publication thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ordinances not required to be published shall take effect, and be in force, from and after the passage, unless otherwise provided. If any town or city shall desire to publish its ordinances in pamphlet or book form, it shall not be necessary to republish such ordinances as have been previously published. [Acts of 1889, p. 4.]

Art. 820. [560] [489] Ordinances, etc., remain in force until, etc.—All ordinances, regulations or resolutions in force in any city accepting the provisions of this title, and not in conflict with this title, shall remain in force under this title until altered, amended or repealed by the city council. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 144.]

Art. 821. [558] [487] Published ordinances admissible in evidence.—All ordinances of the city, where printed and published by authority of the city council, shall be admitted and received in all courts and places without further proof. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 139.]

[Acts 1875, p. 256, sec. 72.]

Art. 851. [445] [401] May tax, etc., dogs.—To tax, regulate or restrain and prohibit the running at large of dogs, and to authorize their destruction when at large contrary to ordinances, and to impose penalties on the owners or keepers thereof for violations of such ordinances. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 852. [449] Sanitary regulations by cities and counties.—To co-operate with the commissioners' court of the county in which the municipality is situated in making such improvements as may, by it and said court, be deemed necessary to improve the public health and promote efficient sanitary regulations, and to arrange for the construction of, and payment for, said improvements. [Acts of 1879, p. 9.]

Art. 853. [433] [389] Incorporated cities may establish libraries.—Any incorporated city or town in this state is authorized to establish a free library in such city or town, and to adopt rules and regulations for the proper management thereof, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the management and increase of such free library as the municipal government of such city or town may determine. [Acts Feb. 26, 1874, p. 13, sec. 1. R. S. 1879, 389.]

Art. 854. [419] [375] Control over streets, alleys, etc.—To have the exclusive control and power over the streets, alleys and public grounds and highways of the city, and to abate and remove encroachments or obstructions thereon; to open, alter, widen, extend, establish, regulate, grade, clean and otherwise improve said streets; to put drains or sewers therein, and to prevent the incumbering thereof in any manner, and to protect the same from encroachment or injury; and to cause all able-bodied male inhabitants above eighteen years of age, except ministers of the gospel, to work thereon not exceeding five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute or a sum of money, not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded, to employ said substitute, and to enforce the same by appropriate ordinances; and to regulate and alter the grade of premises; and to require the filling up and raising of the same; and such city council shall also have power to alter or vacate the alley in any block of ground within the city, upon the written application of the owner of the block, or if there be more than one owner of such block, then upon the written application of all the owners thereof uniting in such application; and such alley so vacated shall thereupon revert to, and become the property of, the owner of the block of which it was a part, or if more than one, then to the owners of the adjoining lots therein, each extending to the center of the alley so vacated. [Acts of 1889, p. 1. R. S. 1879, 375.]

Art. 855. [426] [382] May prevent the incumbering of streets, etc., and cause unsafe buildings to be removed, etc.—To prevent the incumbering of the streets, alleys, sidewalks and public grounds, with carriages, wagons, carts, hacks, buggies, or any vehicle whatsoever, boxes, lumber, timber, firewood, posts, awnings, signs, or any other substance or material whatever, or in any other manner whatever; to compel all persons to keep all weeds, filth and any kind of rubbish from the sidewalks and streets and gutters in front of the premises occupied by them; to require and compel the owners of property to fill up, grade, gravel, and otherwise improve the sidewalks in front of same.

Art. 856. [550] [479] City council may cause dangerous buildings, etc., to be removed.—Whenever, in the opinion of the city council, any building, fence, shed, awning or any erection of any kind or any part thereof is liable to fall down and endanger persons or property, they may order any owner or agent of the same, or any owner or occupant of the premises on which such building, shed, awning or other erection stands or to which it is attached, to take down and remove the same, or any part thereof, within such time as they may direct; and to punish by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect, failure or refusal to comply therewith. The city council shall, in addition, have the power to remove the same at the expense of the city, on account of the owner of the property or premises, and assess the expenses on the land on which it stood or to which it was attached, and shall, by ordinance, provide for such assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice and the means of recovering any such expenses. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 131.]

Art. 857. [420] [376] May construct bridges, etc., sewers, sidewalks, etc.—To establish, erect, construct, regulate and keep in repair, bridges, culverts and sewers, sidewalks and crossways, and to regulate the construction and use of the same, and to abate and punish any obstructions or encroachments thereon; and the cost of construction of sidewalks shall be defrayed by the owner of the lot, or part of lot or block, fronting on the sidewalk; and the cost of any sidewalk constructed by the city shall be collected, if necessary, by the sale of the lot, or part of lot or block on which it fronts, together with the cost of collection, in such a manner as the city council may by ordinance provide; and a sale of any lot or part of lot or block to enforce collection of costs of sidewalks shall convey a good title to the purchaser; and the balance of proceeds of sale, after paying the amount due the city and costs of sale, shall be paid by the city to the owner. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 858. [446] [402] May prohibit, etc., the firing of arms, etc., the use of velocipedes, ringing of bells, etc.—To prohibit and restrain the firing of fire-crackers, guns and pistols, use of velocipedes, or use of any pyrotechnic or any other amusements or practices tending to annoy persons passing in the streets or sidewalks, or to frighten horses or teams; to restrain and prohibit the ringing of bells, blowing of horns and bugles, crying of goods, and all other noises, practices and performances tending to the collection of persons on the streets and sidewalks, by auctioneers and others, for the purpose of business, amusement or otherwise. [Id. sec. 58.]

Art. 859. [463] [417] May prevent, etc., the driving of animals into or through the city.—To prevent, regulate and control the driving of cattle, horses and all other animals into or through the city. [Id. sec. 73.]

Art. 878. [416] [372] Power to provide special funds for special purposes, etc.—To provide by ordinance special funds for special purposes, and to make the same disburseable only for the purpose for which the fund was created; and any officer of the city misappropriating said special fund shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and shall, on complaint of any one interested in said funds misappropriated, be removed from office, and be incapable thereafter to hold any office in said city. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 879. [466] [420] To appropriate revenues and for what purposes; to issue bonds, etc.—To appropriate so much of the revenues of the city, emanating from whatever source, for the purpose of retiring and discharging the accrued indebtedness of the city, and for the purpose of improving the public markets and streets, erecting and conducting city hospitals, city hall, waterworks, and so forth, as they may from time to time deem expedient. And, in furtherance of these objects, they shall have power to borrow money upon the credit of the city, and issue coupon bonds of the city therefor in such sum or sums as they may deem expedient, to bear interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum, payable semi-annually at such place as may be fixed by city ordinance; provided, that the aggregate amount of bonds issued by the city council shall, at no time, exceed six per cent of the value of the property within said city subject to ad valorem tax. [Id. sec. 76. R. S. 1879, 420.]

Art. 880. [467] [421] City bonds shall specify, what.—All bonds shall specify for what purpose they were issued; and when any bonds are issued by the city a fund shall be provided to pay the interest and create a sinking fund to redeem the bonds; which fund shall not be diverted, nor drawn upon for any other purpose; provided, however, that said sinking fund may, as it accumulates, be invested in bonds of the United States, the state of Texas, or counties in said state; and the city treasurer shall honor no draft upon said fund except to pay interest upon or to redeem the bonds for which it was provided, or for investment in other securities as above provided. [Acts of 1889, p. 2. R. S. 1879, 421.]

Art. 881. [468] [422] Bonds shall be signed, etc., and payable where and when, etc.—Said bonds shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the secretary, and payable at such places and at such times as may be fixed by ordinance of the city council, not less than ten nor more than forty years. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 78.]

Art. 882. May issue bonds for public improvements; regulations as to.—All cities and towns providing for permanent public improvements, as contemplated by article 925, shall have the power to issue coupon bonds of the city therefor in such sum or sums as they may deem expedient, to bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum; provided, that the aggregate amount of bonds issued for the construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers and other permanent improvements shall never reach an amount where the tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity; and provided, also, that the amount of bonds issued for street improvement purposes shall never reach an amount where the tax of fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity; and the amount of bonds legally issued under acts passed prior to the adoption of the present constitution shall not be computed and estimated in the amount of bonds which may be issued for the above named city improvements. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 444.]

Art. 883. [482] Gulf cities may issue bonds for harbors, etc.—The boards of aldermen, or other constituted municipal authorities of cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, are hereby authorized and empowered to appropriate money to improve, and to aid in the improvement of, their harbors and of the bars at the entrance thereof; provided, that they shall not thereby increase their aggregate debt beyond the amount of indebtedness limited by their charters respectively; such appropriations to be made out of any surplus funds which may at any time be on hand, and by the use or sale of any bonds heretofore authorized to be issued; provided, such bonds are not needed for the purposes for which they were specially authorized; and, also, if necessary therefor, to issue and dispose of bonds with interest coupons attached in such amounts as may be necessary, not to exceed the limit of indebtedness fixed by their charters. [Acts of 1883, p. 48.]

Art. 884. [483] Interest and sinking fund tax to be levied, interest paid and bonds sold at not less than par.—The city council, or other constituted municipal authorities, as the case may be, shall levy an annual ad valorem tax on the property in said city, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds, as required by the constitution. The interest on said bonds shall be paid semi-annually, and it shall not exceed five per cent. Said bonds shall not be sold at less than par. [Id.]

Art. 885. [578a] Board of examiners of finances.—It shall be the duty of the mayor of each city or incorporated town within this state, incorporated under the general laws of the state, at the first regular meeting in January of each year of the board of aldermen or city council, by and with the advice and consent of such board of aldermen or city council, to appoint three resident citizens of such city or incorporated town, who shall constitute and compose a board of examiners of the finances of said city or incorporated town. [Acts 1895, p. 41.]

Art. 886. [578b] Duties of board.—It shall be the duty of such examiners when appointed to proceed to examine the books and accounts of the various officers of such city or incorporated town, and to make a true report of the financial condition thereof under oath to the mayor and board of aldermen or city council of such city or incorporated town as soon after their appointment as practicable; provided, that in no instance shall the return of such report under oath be deferred longer than the first regular meeting of the board of aldermen or city council in March of each year. [Id.]

Art. 887. [578c] Compensation.—Such examiners shall receive for their services such compensation as the board of aldermen or city council shall fix each, for every day actually employed in their investigations, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, which sum shall be paid by order of the board of aldermen or city council. [Id.]

Art. 888. [578d] Council to pass on such report.—The annual report of such board of examiners shall be passed upon by the board of aldermen or city council, and spread upon the minutes of their meeting at the first regular meeting of said board or council after the return of such report. [Id.]

Art. 889. [556] [485] Statement of receipts and expenditures, etc., shall be published annually.—The city council shall, at least ten days before the expiration of each municipal year, cause to be published in a city newspaper a correct and full statement of the receipts and expenditures from the date of the last annual report, together with the sources from which the funds were derived, and showing for what purpose disbursed, the condition of the treasury, together with such information as may be necessary to a full understanding of the financial condition of the city. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 137. R. S. 1879, 485.]

Art. 890. [465] [419] May pass ordinances to fund debt, etc.—To pass all necessary ordinances to provide for funding the whole or any part of the existing debt of the city, or of any future debt, by cancelling the evidences thereof, and issuing to the holders or creditors notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest at any annual rate not to exceed ten per cent. The council shall also provide by ordinance for issuing the bonds of the city in such sums as may be agreed upon for railroad subsidies heretofore voted, or that may be hereafter voted, in accordance with the laws of this state. [Id. sec. 75. R. S. 1879, 419.]

Art. 891. [471] May compromise debts and issue bonds.—The mayor and board of aldermen are authorized and empowered, by resolution or ordinance of said board of aldermen by referring to this and the succeeding articles of this chapter relating hereto and adopting the same, to compromise and fund any existing valid indebtedness by the city or town issued, whether bonded or floating, and the coupons due upon the bonded debt; and for this purpose, they are authorized and empowered to issue new bonds, in denomination of not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable semi-annually at the office of the state treasurer or at such other place as said board of aldermen shall provide; said new bonds to become due and payable in not exceeding thirty years, and to bear such rate of interest, not exceeding six per cent per annum, as in their discretion may best subserve the purpose intended. [Acts of 1887, p. 50]

Art. 892. [472] Barred debts can not be compromised.—No compromise shall be made under the provisions of this chapter, by which any debt shall be funded which is barred by the statute of limitations. [Id.]

Art. 893. [474] Bonds when executed must be registered with comptroller.—The mayor and board of aldermen shall cause to be prepared the necessary blank bonds to give effect to the provisions of this chapter, the cost of which shall be paid out of the treasury of such city or town; said bonds when issued by any city or town shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary (or recorder if there be no secretary), with the seal of such city or town affixed; and such new bonds shall be registered in the office of the state comptroller. [Id.]

[Note.—See provisions as to submission of bonds to attorney general, etc., article 619 et seq.]

Art. 894. [475] Bonds when issued, how disposed of, etc.—Such new bonds may be exchanged for the old bonds, or they may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase of such old bonds; provided, that no delivery of such new bonds shall take place, unless a contract has already been entered into for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds; and provided further, no bonds issued under this chapter as a compromise of existing indebtedness shall be sold at less than par; and each bond shall be made to bear the lowest rate of interest that will give a par value. [Id.]

Art. 895. [476] Tax laws to remain in force.—All laws in force providing for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such existing bonds shall apply and be in force for the collection of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such new bonds; provided, that the sinking fund may be used in the purchase and cancellation of such new bonds whenever the same can be bought at not more than their par value. [Id.]

Art. 896. [479] The method of liquidating compromise bonds.—Whenever a compromise of the debt of any city or town shall be effected, as hereinbefore provided, and the bonds are delivered to the creditors, a board of liquidation, consisting of five reputable citizens of such city or town shall be appointed forthwith in the manner following: The mayor of the city or town shall appoint one; the governor of the state shall appoint one; and the district judge of the district in which such city or town shall be situated shall appoint one; the city council of the city or town shall appoint one; and the holders of said indebtedness, or a majority of them, shall appoint one; and each shall fill vacancies in the office of their respective appointee in said board; and, in case of failure, neglect or refusal of any one or all of said officers to appoint a member of said board, or to fill vacancies therein, then the holders of said bonds, or any one or more of them, shall have the right to apply to the district court of the district in which such city or town shall be situated, or to the judge thereof in vacation, for the appointment of a member or members of said board necessary to complete the same; and it shall be the duty of said court or judge to make said appointment. The members of said board shall serve without compensation, and shall hold their offices for the term of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each member of said board shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said board, or a majority thereof, shall select some solvent depository for all moneys coming under their control, as hereinafter provided, and for whose acts they shall be responsible, and shall, in writing signed by them, notify the collector of taxes of said city or town of said selection. It shall thereupon become the duty of such collector to deposit at the close of business each day one-half of all moneys collected by him for the twenty-four hours next preceding, on account of all the taxes of whatever nature levied by said city or town, with the said depository, whose receipt therefor shall be an acquittance to said collector; and said collectors shall be liable on their official bonds for any failure to promptly make such deposits and for ten per cent per month of such amounts, and in addition thereto as penalty; which sums may be recovered by said board of liquidation in a suit therefor; and it shall be their duty to promptly institute such suits. But whenever the total of said deposits shall equal the annual interest on said bonds, it shall be lawful for such collector to discontinue said deposits, until he shall be notified in writing by said board that said deposits are reduced below that sum. Said funds of cities or towns shall be subject to the order of said boards of liquidation, and shall be applied by them to the payment, first, of the interest on said bonds as the same matures, and, secondly, to the payment of the principal thereof, and thirdly, to the payment of interest on any valid bonds issued by such city and not embraced in any issue of bonds issued under the provisions hereof, and, fourthly, to the payment of the principal of bonds of the character last referred to on the maturity of same. The members of said board shall be liable for the prompt payment of said interest out of said funds, and in case of failure or refusal they shall, in addition, be liable to ten per cent of the amount of such interest as damages to be recovered by any person aggrieved thereby, in any court of competent jurisdiction. Whenever there shall be in the hands of such depositories a sufficient sum to pay two per cent of the principal of said bonds, in addition to one year's interest, it shall be the duty of said board of liquidation to use the same in the purchase of outstanding bonds, provided in article 895; which bonds when so purchased shall be canceled, and shall, together with all coupons which have been paid, be returned to the council of the city or town. Expenses incurred by said board in advertising for purchase of bonds shall be paid out of said funds. Said boards shall make semi-annual reports to the said councils of their acts and of all receipts and disbursements of moneys coming under their control. [Id.]

Art. 897. [477] Laws to enforce collection continued in force, and all defenses to bonds cut off.—The object and intention of these provisions being to enable the cities or towns in this state which have granted subsidy bonds to railroads or other works of internal improvement, or created any other indebtedness whatever, whether bonded or floating, to compromise the same, and thereby reduce the burden of taxation, it is hereby declared, as an inducement to the holders of said bonds to accept the compromise, that whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith either by the holders of the present bonds or by any persons purchasing such new bonds as provided herein, that all laws in force, or which may hereafter be in force, for the assessment and collection of the state taxes shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of the taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suits instituted to enforce the payment of said new bonds or coupons against any such city or town, no defense either in law or equity shall be admitted in any of the courts of this state, except such as originated upon, or subsequent to, the issuance of such new bonds. [Id.]

Art. 898. [478] Tax collector; liability; governor to appoint, when.—Whenever a collector of taxes shall neglect or refuse to collect the taxes levied for the payment of the interest and sinking fund of such new bonds, he shall be liable on his official bond, at the suit of any persons holding any of said bonds or coupons, for all such damages as said person or persons shall have sustained by reason of his neglect or refusal; nor shall such collector or his sureties be relieved of such liability by his resignation of the office; and whenever any person who may be elected collector of taxes of any city or town shall fail, neglect or refuse to give the bond required by law for the collection of such tax, or whenever the mayor and board of aldermen shall appoint any person who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to give said bond, or whenever they shall fail, neglect, or refuse to appoint some person who will give said bond and collect said tax, then it is hereby made the duty of the governor to appoint some suitable person to collect said taxes, who shall perform all the duties required by these provisions or any other laws of this state relating to the collection of said taxes, from the term of his said appointment until the next general election. [Id.]

Art. 899. [480] Receiver appointed, when.—Any city or town so situated as is herein set forth, which fails to effect a compromise of its debts, or pending the negotiation of a compromise, shall be permitted, on its application setting forth its financial condition and insolvency, to have the district court of the county in which said city or town is situated take charge of the collection and appropriation of all taxes levied and assessed by said city or town, except so much thereof as is necessary to pay the current expenses of the city or town; and to that end, said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint a receiver, or may make the assessor and collector of said city or town its receiver, to collect and pay into a named depository all taxes levied by said city or town for the payment of its debts; and said courts shall decide all questions of priority between conflicting claimants of said funds, and shall provide for the ratable and equitable distribution of said funds among all creditors entitled thereto. But it shall not be lawful for any court to appoint a receiver of or concerning any city or town except upon the voluntary application of such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 900. [473] Compromise bonds exempt from taxation and may be used to pay taxes.—The new bonds thus issued by any city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town; and the taxes levied to pay said new bonds may be paid in said bonds or coupons thereof if matured; provided, said coupons and bonds shall only be received in payment of taxes levied for the purpose of paying such bonds and coupons. [Id.]

Art. 901. [481] Other instances when debts may be compromised and bonds issued, etc.—Cities and towns shall also have authority to fund, compromise and liquidate their indebtedness and issue bonds therefor, under such conditions, restrictions and limitations as are prescribed under title 18 (bonds—county, municipal, etc.) conferring such authority on counties cities and towns, and as may be otherwise provided by law.

Art. 902. [555] [484] Official paper, and contract for publishing, etc.—The city council shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of each municipal year, contract as they may by ordinance or resolution determine with a public newspaper of the city as the official paper thereof, and to continue as such until another is elected, and shall cause to be published therein all ordinances, notices, and other matters required by this title or by the ordinance of the city to be published. [Acts 1875, p. 256, sec. 136.]

Article 903. Corporation court created.—There is hereby created and established in each of the cities, towns and villages of this state, now or hereafter incorporated, whether by general or special act, a court to be known as the corporation court in such city, town or village, which court shall have jurisdiction and organization hereinafter prescribed. [Acts of 1899, p. 40, sec. 1.]

Art. 904. Jurisdiction.—Said court shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of said city, town or village, within which it is established, in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the said city, town or village, now in force, or hereafter to be passed, and shall also have jurisdiction concurrently with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which said city, town or village is situated, in all criminal cases arising under the criminal laws of this state, in which the punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed two hundred dollars and arising within the territorial limits of such city, town or village. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 905. Judge or recorder elected or appointed, how; term, mayor ex officio recorder, when.—Such court shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the recorder of such court, in such city, town or village, who, in cities, towns or villages incorporated under special charter or charters, shall be elected or appointed in the manner and under the respective provisions of the charter now in force concerning the election or appointment of the magistrate to preside over the municipal court in such city, town or village, and all such provisions are hereby made applicable to the recorder herein provided for; and in cities, towns and villages not incorporated under special charter, such recorder shall be elected by the qualified voters of such city, town or village, in the same manner as the mayor of such city, town or village, and whose term of office shall be the same as such mayor; provided, in such cities, towns and villages not incorporated and acting under special charter, the mayor of such city, town or village shall be ex officio recorder of such court, and shall act as such, unless the city council or board of aldermen of such city, town or village shall, by ordinance, authorize the election of a recorder. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 906. Recorder elected or appointed, when and how; discretion in council; term of office, etc.; vacancy; council may make mayor ex officio recorder, when.—Every two years there shall be elected or appointed in each city, town or village within this state, now or hereafter incorporated, a recorder, who shall preside over the corporation court hereby created and established, and who shall be elected or appointed as provided in article 905; provided, however, that whenever by the provisions of the charter under which such city, town or village is now incorporated, it is provided that the magistrate now presiding over the municipal court therein is to be elected by the people, then in such case the city council of any such city, town or village may order an election for the recorder, or, in its discretion, may appoint the recorder, who shall hold his office until the next general election for city officers; provided, further, that wherever in any such city, town or village, the office of the presiding magistrate of the municipal court therein shall not have expired when the recorder is elected or appointed therein, the said recorder, first elected or appointed, shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of the said magistrate; and every two years thereafter such recorder shall be elected or appointed for a term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. In case of vacancy in the office of recorder or clerk of the court in any city, town or village, such vacancy shall be filled by the council or board of aldermen for the unexpired term only; provided, further, that the board of aldermen may provide by ordinance for the mayor to act as ex officio recorder in all cities and towns not operating under special charter. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 907. Clerk of corporation court elected by council, when; provided; terms; duties.—There shall be a clerk of said corporation court elected by the council or board of aldermen of each such city, town or village, at the same time at which the recorder is elected; but, in such city, town or village, it may be provided by ordinance that the city secretary shall be ex officio clerk of the said court, and may be authorized to appoint a deputy, who shall have the same powers as the said secretary. The clerk of said court shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. In case of an ex officio clerk as aforesaid, he shall hold his office during his term as city secretary. It shall be the duty of said clerk to keep a minute of the proceedings of the said court; to issue all process, and generally to do and perform all of the duties of a clerk of a court as prescribed by law for the clerk of the county court, in so far as the said provisions may be applicable. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 908. [406] [362] Right of trial before jury.—Every person brought before the mayor or recorder, to be tried for an offense for which the penalty may be fine or imprisonment, or both, shall be entitled, if he shall demand it, to be tried by a jury of six legal voters of the city, who shall be summoned, impaneled and qualified as jurors in justices' courts under the laws of the state. [Acts 1875, 2 S. S., p. 113, sec. 19.]

Art. 909. Rules of pleading, practice and procedure.—All rules of pleading, practice and procedure now established for the county court shall apply in said corporation court in each such city, town or village, in so far as the same are applicable, except that the proceedings in said court shall be commenced by complaint in the manner and under the regulations, as now provided by law, in cases prosecuted before justices of the peace, and except that the recorder need not charge the jury except upon charges requested in writing by the defendant or his attorney; which such charges he shall have power to give or refuse under the same rules and regulations now applicable to the granting or refusing of such charges by the county judge in criminal cases. Complaints before such court hereby created and established may be sworn to before the recorder, clerk of said court, the city secretary, the city attorney or his deputy, each and all of which officers, for that purpose, shall have power to administer oaths; or it may be sworn to before any other officer authorized by law to administer oaths; provided, that, in all cities, towns and villages in this state not operating under special charters, the rules of pleading, practice and procedure now established for justices courts shall apply to said corporation courts in such cities, towns and villages in so far as the same are applicable. [Acts 1899, p. 42, sec. 6.]

Art. 910. Seal of corporation court.—The said corporation court shall have a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and words, "Corporation Court in _____, Texas," the impress of which shall be attached to all proceedings, except subpoenas, issued out of said court, and shall be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and of the recorder, where he is authorized or required to use the seal of office. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 911. Complaint, how commenced and concluded; prosecution conducted by city attorney or deputy; county attorney may also represent state, but no fees; process.—In all prosecutions in said court, whether under an ordinance or under the provisions of the Penal Code, the complaint shall commence in the name of the State of Texas, and shall conclude, "against the peace and dignity of the State;" and, where the offense is covered by an ordinance, the complaint may also conclude, as "contrary to the said ordinance;" and all prosecutions in such court shall be conducted by the city attorney of such city, town or village, or by his deputy; but the county attorney of the county in which said city, town or village is situated may, if he so desires, also represent the state of Texas in such prosecutions, but, in all such cases, the said county attorney shall not be entitled to receive any fees or other compensation whatever for said services, and in no case shall the said county attorney have the power to dismiss any prosecution pending in said court, unless for reasons filed and approved by the recorder of said court. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 912. Council to prescribe rules for collecting fees and costs, practice, etc.; rules in meantime.—The council or board of aldermen of each such city, town or village shall, from time to time, by ordinance, prescribe such rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter nor other laws of this state, as in the discretion of the council or board of aldermen may be proper to enforce, by execution against the property of the defendant, or imprisonment of the defendant, the collection of all costs and fines imposed by such court as herein created and established, and shall also have power to adopt such rules and regulations concerning the practice and procedure in such court as said council or board of aldermen may deem proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter nor other law of this state; and, until the passage of such ordinance, all rules and regulations of such city, town or village now in force concerning the municipal courts therein, and the enforcement of collection of fines and costs imposed by such court, shall be applicable to the court hereby created and established. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 913. Fines and costs paid into city treasury, etc.—All costs and fines imposed by the said court in any city, town or village, in any prosecution therein, shall be paid into the city treasury of said city, town or village, for the use and benefit of the city, town or village. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 914. Costs to be collected as provided by ordinances, but not greater than in justices' courts.—There shall be taxed against, and collected of, each defendant, in case of his conviction before such court, such costs as may be provided for by ordinance of the said city, town or village; but in no case shall the council or board of aldermen of any such city, town or village, prescribe the collection of greater costs than are prescribed by law to be collected of defendants convicted before justices of the peace. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 915. Jury and witness fees, and enforcing attendance of witnesses according to Code of Criminal Procedure.—The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure now in force regulating the amount and collection of jury and witness fees, and for enforcing the attendance of witnesses in criminal cases tried before a justice of the peace, shall, so far as applicable, govern and be applicable to the trial of cases before the corporation court herein created and established. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 916. Judge may punish for contempt as county judge; may take recognizances, admit to bail, etc., under rules in county court.—The judge of said corporation court shall have the power to punish for contempt to the same extent and under the same circumstances as the county judge may punish for contempt of the county court. He shall have power to take recognizances, admit to bail, and forfeit recognizances and bail bonds under such rules and regulations as now govern the taking and forfeiture of the same in the county court. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 917. Process how served; defendant entitled to notice of complaint, if demanded.—All process issuing out of said corporation court shall be served by the chief of police or any policeman or marshal of the city, town or village within which it is situated, under the same rules and regulations as are now provided by law for the service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of the county court, so far as the same are applicable. But each defendant shall be entitled to at least one day's notice of any complaint against him, if such time be demanded. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 918. [551] [480] Writs of mayor, etc., may be executed anywhere in the county.—Writs issued by the mayor or recorder of said city for offenses against the laws may be executed, and the accused person or persons arrested by the marshal or his deputies anywhere within the county in which such city is situated. [Acts 1875, p. 256, sec. 132.]

Art. 919. [552] [481] Proceedings when a peace bond, etc., given before mayor, etc., has been forfeited.—Whenever any person has been required by the mayor or recorder to give a peace bond, or a bond for good behavior, or any similar bond under this title, and has complied with such orders, and been guilty of a violation or infraction of such bond, and the same is proved or established to the satisfaction of that officer in any trial or complaint, such party so offending may be fined in the sum of two hundred dollars and imprisoned for two months; and the city in its corporate name may sue in any court having jurisdiction for the recovery of the penalty of such bond. [Id. sec. 133. R. S. 1879, 481.]

Art. 920. Fees of recorder, etc., how prescribed; paid out of city treasury; fines and costs collected and disposed of, how; committals; city liable to officers of appellate court, when; court to be always open.—Unless provided by special charter, the council or board of aldermen of each city, town or village shall, by ordinance, prescribe the compensation and fees which shall be paid to the recorder, city attorney, city secretary and other officers of said court, which compensation and fees shall be paid out of the treasury of the said city, town or village. In all such cases, the fines imposed on appeal, together with the costs imposed in the corporation court, and the court to which the appeal is taken, shall be collected of the defendant and his bondsmen, and such fine and the costs of the corporation court shall, when collected, be paid into the treasury of the city, town or village. When the defendant in such cases is committed to custody, he shall be committed to the custody of the chief of police or city marshal of such city, town or village, to be held by him in accordance with the ordinance of such city, town or village, providing for the custody of prisoners convicted before such corporation court; and said city, town or village shall be liable to the officers of the court to which the appeal is taken for the costs due them when such defendant has fully discharged such fine and costs. Such corporation court shall hold no terms, and shall be at all times open for the transaction of business. [Acts 1899, p. 43, sec. 15.]

Art. 921. Appeals to what courts; trial de novo; appeals how governed.—Appeals from judgments rendered by such corporation courts shall be heard by the county court, except in cases where the county courts have no jurisdiction, in which counties such appeals shall be heard by the district court of such counties, unless in such county there is a criminal district court, in which case the appeal shall be from the corporation courts to the said criminal district court; and, in all such appeals to such county court, district court, or criminal district court, the trial shall be de novo, the same as if the prosecution had been originally commenced in that court. Said appeals shall be governed by the rules of practice and procedure for appeals from justices' courts to the county court, as far as the same may be applicable. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 922. Until organization of corporation courts municipal court as now established has jurisdiction, but thereafter abolished.—Until the due and legal organization of the said court in any city, town or village, as herein provided for, the municipal court in said city, town or village, as now established, shall continue to exercise its powers and jurisdiction. After the due and legal organization of the said corporation court, the said municipal court and the office of the judge and recorder and clerk thereof shall be abolished, and the said municipal court in each city, town or village shall be entirely superseded by the corporation court and such officers herein created and established, as the same shall be and become duly and legally organized. [Id. sec. 17.]

Article 923. [484] [425] Ad valorem tax.—The city council shall have power within the city, by ordinance, to annually levy and collect taxes, not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent on the assessed value of all real and personal estate and property in the city not exempt from taxation by the constitution and laws of the state. [Id. sec. 81. Const., art. 11, sec. 4. R. S. 1879, 425.]

Art. 924. [485] May levy and collect tax for improvements, buildings, etc.—The city or town council or board of aldermen of any incorporated city or town within the limits of this state shall have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of not exceeding twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property within such city or town for the erection, construction or purchase of public buildings, streets, sewers and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have assumed or which may hereafter assume the exclusive control and management of the public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits. [Acts of 1885, p. 99.]

Art. 925. [486] [425c] May levy tax for interest and sinking fund on certain bonds; for current expenses, permanent improvements, roads, etc.—The city or town council of any city or town in this state incorporated under the general law shall have the power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax, sufficient to meet the interest and sinking fund on all indebtedness legally incurred prior to the adoption of the constitutional amendment in 1883, regarding the power of cities and towns to levy and collect taxes, etc., and may levy and collect twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property in such city or town for current expenses, and may levy and collect an additional twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town, and shall also have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect a tax not exceeding fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city or town within its limits. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for the public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have assumed, or may assume hereafter, the exclusive control and management of the public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 444.]

[Note.—For provisions as to bonds, contained in this act, see article 882.]

Art. 926. [487] [426] Cities of 10,000 inhabitants and over to levy and collect tax; validating act.—Cities having more than ten thousand inhabitants may levy, assess and collect taxes not exceeding one and one-half per cent on the assessed value of real and personal estate and property in the city, not exempt from taxation by the constitution and laws of the state; and assessments, levy and collection of taxes made by such cities for the year 1889 are hereby made valid to the amount aforesaid; and such cities are hereby authorized to levy, assess and collect a further tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property for the purpose of paying the debts of such city lawfully contracted prior to the first day of January, 1889, not to include any bonded debt. Any funding warrants that may be issued for such debt by any such city shall not be included in the limit of six per cent prescribed by article 879; provided, that this article shall not apply to, or in any manner affect, any city organized under a special charter, and shall not be construed to validate any debt contracted by any city without authority of law existing at the time the same was contracted. [Acts of 1889, p. 3.]

Art. 927. [489] [428] Poll tax.—The city council shall have power to levy and collect an annual poll tax, not to exceed one dollar, of every male inhabitant of said city over the age of twenty-one years (idiots and lunatics excepted), who is a resident thereof at the time of such annual assessment. [Acts of 1875, p. 113, sec. 82.]

Art. 928. [490] [429] Occupation tax.—The city council shall have power to levy and collect taxes, commonly known as licenses, upon trades, professions, callings and other business carried on; and each and every person and firm engaging in the following trades, professions, callings and business, among others, shall be liable to pay such license tax; but this enumeration shall not be construed to deprive the city council of the right and power to levy and collect other license taxes, and from other persons and firms, under the general authority herein granted. [Id. sec. 83.]

Art. 929. [491] [430] Occupations that are subject to taxation.—Every person and firm engaged in selling goods, wares and merchandise; every person or firm keeping a billiard table, ball alley, or nine or ten-pin alley, or any similar game; every person or firm selling goods, wares and merchandise at public auction; every merchandise or cotton broker, or commission business; every person or firm pursuing the occupation of hawker or peddler of goods or any article whatever. [Id. sec. 84.]

Art. 930. [492] [431] Same subject.—Nothing herein contained shall in any wise prevent or restrain the city council from collecting the license, and each license tax hereinbefore provided for by this title; each establishment shall be liable to said license tax; and any person or firm pursuing occupations, business, avocations or callings subject to said tax shall pay on each, and no license shall extend to more than one establishment, or include more than one occupation, avocation, business or calling. [Id. sec. 85.]

Art. 931. [493] [432] Power of city council to provide for assessing, etc., taxes.—The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the assessing and collecting of the taxes aforesaid, and to determine when taxes shall be paid by corporations, and when by the individual corporators; provided, no tax shall be levied unless by consent of two-thirds of the aldermen elected. [Id. sec. 86. R. S. 1879, 432.]

Art. 932. [494] [433] Collection of license tax, etc.—The license tax shall be collected by the assessor and collector, and shall be paid to that officer by each and every person and firm owing such license and before engaging in any trade, profession, business, calling, avocation or occupation subject to said tax; and, if any person shall engage in any business, calling, avocation or occupation which by an ordinance of the said city is subject to a license tax, without first having obtained said license, he, she or they shall, on conviction before the mayor or recorder's court, be liable to imprisonment or a fine of ten dollars, or both imprisonment and such fine, for each day such violation of said ordinance may continue; and this article shall apply to all persons owing any license and failing to pay the same; provided, that the city council may collect said license tax by suit in any court having jurisdiction, under such rules and regulations as they may provide by ordinance; said taxes, commonly known as licenses, laid as herein provided, shall not be construed to be a tax on property within the meaning of the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 87.]

Art. 933. [554] [483] Occupation license to be suspended or revoked, etc., when.—In all cases where, by any provision of this title, or by ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, a person is required to obtain a license for any calling, occupation, business or avocation, and has, on complaint before the mayor or recorder, been adjudged guilty of violating any rule, regulation, or ordinance of the city council in relation thereto, the mayor or recorder, in addition to fine and imprisonment, or either, may suspend or revoke the license so granted. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 135.]

Art. 934. [495] [434] Real estate includes what.—The term real estate or property, as used in this title, shall be construed to include lots, lands and all buildings or machinery and structures of every kind erected upon and affixed to the same. [Id. sec. 88.]

Art. 935. [496] [435] Personal estate includes what.—The term personal estate or property, as used in this title, shall be construed to include all household furniture, money, goods, capital, chattels, public stocks and stocks of corporations, moneyed or otherwise, and generally all property which is not real. [Id. sec. 89.]

Art. 936. [497] [436] City council may provide for the exemption of property from taxation, etc.—The city council may, by ordinance, provide for the exemption from taxation of such property as they may deem just and proper; provided, nothing contained in this chapter on taxation shall be construed to prevent the city council from imposing, levying and collecting special taxes and assessments for the improvement of the avenues, streets and alleys, as hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 90. R. S. 1879, 436.]

Art. 937. [498] [437] Taxes for payment of indebtedness.—The city council may also levy, assess and collect taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken; but all such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from those levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor; and such taxes may be paid in the coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied. [Const., art. 11, sec. 6. R. S. 1879, 437.]

Article 938. [499] [438] Power of city council to provide for collection of taxes.—The city council may and shall have full power to provide, by ordinance, for the prompt collection of all taxes assessed, levied and imposed under this title, and due or becoming due to said city, and are hereby authorized, and to that end may and shall have full power and authority to sell, or cause to be sold, real as well as personal property, and may and shall make all such rules and regulations, and ordain and pass all ordinances, as they may deem necessary to the levying, laying, imposing, assessing and collecting of any of the taxes herein provided. [Acts of 1875, p. 113, sec. 91.]

Art. 939. [500] [439] Power of city council to regulate tax lists, assessment of taxes, etc.—The city council shall have power, by ordinance, to regulate the manner and mode of making out tax lists or inventories and appraisements of property therein, and to prescribe the oath that shall be administered to each person on such rendition of property, and to prescribe how and when property shall thus be rendered, and to prescribe the number and form of assessment rolls, and fix the duties and define the powers of the assessor and collector, and adopt such measures as they may deem advisable to secure the assessment of all property within the limits of said city, and collect the tax thereupon; and may by ordinance provide that any person, firm or corporation having property subject to taxation or being liable for any tax under the provisions of this title, and neglecting to render a list, inventory and appraisal thereof, as required by ordinance of said city, shall be liable to fine and imprisonment. [Id. sec. 92.]

Art. 940. [501] [440] Duty of taxpayers to render inventory of property, etc.—Every person, partnership and corporation owning property within the limits of the corporation shall, within two months after published notice, hand in to the assessor and collector of the city a full and complete inventory of the property possessed or controlled by him, her or them within said limits not exempt from taxation, on the first day of January of the current year, verified as required by ordinance; and any person failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this article shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, and the city council shall, by ordinance, clearly define the duties of taxpayers herein, and make all necessary rules and regulations to secure the rendition of property and the collection of taxes due thereon. [Id. sec. 93.]

Art. 941. 410] [366] Assessor and collector, powers, duties, bond, etc.—The assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all property taxed by the city, and make duplicate rolls thereof, and, on completion of the rolls, shall deliver one of them to the city secretary. He shall collect all taxes due the city, and in the event of nonpayment of any taxes, shall proceed to sell the property to raise the amount of taxes so due; and shall, in the performance of his duties, observe the provisions of this title, and the ordinances of the city relating thereto. He shall give bond, in such amount and in such form as the city council may prescribe, with good and sufficient sureties; and the city council may require a new bond whenever, in their opinion, the existing bond is insufficient; and whenever such bond is required, he shall perform no official act until said bond shall be given and approved. He shall, at the expiration of every week, pay to the treasurer all money by him collected, and shall report to the city council, at the first meeting in every month, all moneys so collected and paid; and he shall perform all such other duties, and in such manner and according to such rules and regulations as the city council may prescribe. The assessor and collector is authorized to require the owners of all property subject to taxation to render a correct account of the same, under oath, to be administered by him. The assessor and collector shall receive such fees and commissions for his services as may be allowed by the ordinances of the city. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 942. [502] [442] Duty of assessor and collector to make lists of personal property, etc.—It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector to make out a list of all personal property which has not been given in for assessment according to the provisions of this title, and assess the same in the name of the owner, if he be known; if not, then it shall be assessed by description of the property and as unknown owner; and the value of such property shall be determined by the board of equalization, and the same may be sold as in other cases, if the tax be not paid in the time prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 95.]

Art. 943. [503] [443] Unrendered property shall be ascertained, etc., by assessor.—It shall be the duty of the assessor and collector, at the expiration of the time fixed by ordinance for the rendition of property, to ascertain such property in the city subject to taxation as has not been rendered; and the same shall be by him presented to the board of equalization for valuation by said board; and the same shall be by him entered in a supplement to the assessment roll as unknown, specifying the year for which said tax is not paid within the time prescribed by law; said property shall be sold at the same time and with like effect as other property. [Id. sec. 96.]

Art. 944. [504] [444] Assessment for back taxes.—Whenever the assessor and collector shall ascertain that any taxable property, real or personal, has not been assessed for the past year, he shall assess the same in a supplement to his next assessment roll, at the same rate under which such property should have been assessed for such year, stating the year for which such property should have been assessed; and the taxes thereon shall be collected in the same manner as other assessments. In all cases where any party has omitted to render property for taxation for any former year or years, and such taxes have not been paid, such party shall give such property in for assessment for the years thus omitted and pay such taxes; and the assessor and collector shall enter all such property in a supplement to his next assessment roll, under the head of payments for former years. [Id. sec. 97.]

Art. 945. [505] Appointment and duties of board of equalization.—The city councils of the several cities and towns of this state incorporated under the general laws shall annually, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter, a resident and property-owner of the city or town for which he is appointed, who shall be styled the board of equalization; and at the same meeting said council shall, by ordinance, fix the time for the meeting of such board of equalization. [Acts of 1887, p. 152.]

Art. 946. [506] Annual meetings of said board.—The board of equalization shall convene annually, at the time fixed by the city council, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal, and approval; and at all meetings of said board the city secretary shall act as secretary thereof. [Id.]

Art. 947. [507] Shall value property.—The board of equalization shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time fixed for the convening of said board, all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for their examination, that they may see if each and every person has rendered his property at a fair market value; and said board shall have power to send for persons and papers, to swear and qualify persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property; and, if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and, if too low, they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said board shall also have power to correct any errors that may appear on the assessor's lists or books. [Id.]

Art. 948. [508] Values to be equalized by board.—The board of equalization shall equalize as near as possible the value of all the improved lots within the corporate limits of their city, having reference to the size and location of said lots and the improvements thereon, and shall equalize the value of unimproved lots as near as possible, having reference to the size and location thereof, and all other property of the same kind shall be made as nearly equal as possible. Any person may file with said board at any time before the final action of said board a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said board shall hear said complaint; and said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses summoned in sustaining said complaint as to the insurance on said property, or the rents and profits it may bring the holder thereof. [Id.]

Art. 949. [509] Unrendered property list to be examined by board.—The city assessor, at the same time that he delivers to said board his lists and books, as provided in article 947, shall also furnish to said board a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse to swear or qualify or to sign the oath or affirmation as required by law, together with a list of the property of such persons situated within the corporate limits of their city, as made by him through other information; and said board shall examine said lists and appraise the property so listed by the assessor. [Id.]

Art. 950. [510] Notice to property owners.—In all cases where the board of equalization shall find it their duty to raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor, they shall, after having fully examined such lists or books and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said board to give written notice to the owner of such property or to the person rendering the same of the time to which said board may have adjourned, and that such owner or person rendering said property may at that time appear and show cause why the value of said property should not be raised; which notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city postoffice. [Id.]

Art. 951. [511] Board to lower values, when.—The board of equalization shall meet at the time specified in said order of adjournment, and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised, and, if said board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value. [Id.]

Art. 952. [512] Approval of lists and rolls by board.—The board of equalization, after they have finally examined and equalized the value of all property on the assessor's lists or books, shall approve said lists or books and return them, together with the lists mentioned in article 949, that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by law; and, when said general rolls are so made up, the board shall meet again to examine said rolls and approve the same, if found correct. [Id.]

Art. 953. [513] Action of board final.—The action of said board at the meeting provided for in article 951 shall be final, and shall not be subject to revision by said board or by any other tribunal thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 954. [514] Compensation of board.—The members of the board of equalization and the city secretary, while acting as secretary of said board, shall receive such compensation for their services, to be allowed by the city council, as said council may deem just and reasonable. [Id.]

Art. 955. [515] Oath to be taken.—Before said board shall enter upon their duties, they shall be sworn, by any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially discharge all duties incumbent upon them by law as such board. [Id.]

Art. 956. [516] [445] Duty of assessor and collector in regard to collection of taxes.—The assessor and collector, after the completion of the assessment roll, as required by ordinance, shall proceed to collect the taxes therein mentioned within the time, and give such notice as may be prescribed by the city council, and for that purpose shall call once upon every person taxed, or on the agent or attorney of such person at the usual place of his or her residence, office, place of business, or elsewhere, and demand the payment of the tax charged upon his or her person or property, if the person is to be found, and if not, then a written demand, specifying the amount of taxes due, left at the residence with some adult member of the family, shall be a sufficient demand; provided, that if any person thus owing taxes has no residence, office or place of business, and no agent in the city or known to the assessor and collector, then the said demand shall not be necessary, and the ordinary published notice required by ordinance shall be sufficient. [Acts of 1875, p. 256, sec. 98.]

Art. 957. [517] [446] Property of taxpayer shall be levied on and sold for taxes, when.—If any person shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay the taxes imposed on him and his property, within the time prescribed by the ordinances of said city, the assessor and collector shall, by virtue of his tax list and assessment roll, levy upon so much property liable to taxation belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes; and the assessor and collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale by advertisement in writing (if not unknown property), the property and amount of taxes, costs and fees due thereupon; such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in said city; and at the expiration of such notice, and on the day therein specified, the assessor and collector shall proceed to sell such property at public auction, in front of the court house door of the city, or such building as may be used for such purpose; provided, that when real estate is offered for sale the smallest portion of grounds (to be taken from the east side of the premises) shall be sold for which any person will take the same and pay the taxes, costs and fees. [Id. sec. 100.]

Art. 958. [518] [447] Assessor and collector shall make deed to purchaser to property sold for taxes; effect of deed, right of redemption, etc.—The assessor and collector shall, when any property has been sold for the payment of taxes, make, execute and deliver a deed for said property to the person purchasing the same, and such deed shall be prima facie evidence in all controversies and suits in relation to the right of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, to the premises thereby conveyed, of the following facts:

First. That the land or lot or portions thereof conveyed was subject to taxation or assessment at the time the same was advertised for sale, and had been listed or assessed in the time or manner required by law.

Second. That the taxes or assessment were not paid at any time before the sale.

Third. That the land, lot, or portion thereof conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed, and shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts:

1. That the land, lot or portion thereof sold was advertised for sale in the manner and for the length of time required by law.
2. That the property was sold for taxes or assessments as stated in the deed.
3. That the grantee in the deed was the purchaser.
4. That the sale was conducted in the manner prescribed by law.

And in all controversies and suits involving the title to land claimed and held under and by virtue of such deed, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat said title, either that the land was not subject to taxation at the date of the sale, that the taxes or assessment had been paid, that the land had never been listed or assessed for taxation and assessment, as required by this title or some ordinance of the city, or that the same had been redeemed according to the provisions of this title, and that such redemption was made for the use and benefit of the person having the right of redemption under the law; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by the said deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims title, had title to the land at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained after the sale; provided, however, that the owner of such property shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years of the day and date of the sale thereof, upon paying to the purchaser double the amount of taxes for which the same was sold, together with the costs of such sale and double the amount of all taxes paid by the purchaser since such sale. The assessor and collector shall have full power to levy upon any personal property to satisfy any tax imposed by this title; all taxes shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are assessed, and, in case any property levied upon is about to be removed out of the city, the assessor and collector shall proceed to take into his possession so much thereof as will pay the taxes assessed and costs of collection. [Id. sec. 100.]

Art. 959. [519] [448] Sale may take place at another time than that first advertised, when, and may be continued from day to day.—If, from any cause, the sale of property levied upon or seized for taxes shall not take place at the time first appointed, the assessor and collector shall appoint some other time, give like notice, and proceed to sell such property in the manner prescribed in the first instance; and, in case said property levied upon or seized for taxes can not be sold on the day advertised, such sale may be postponed from day to day until completed, of which postponement the assessor and collector shall give verbal notice at the expiration of sale each day. [Id. sec. 101.]

Art. 960. [520] [449] Property shall be struck off to city, when.—If, at any sale of real or personal property or estate for taxes, no bid shall be made for any parcel of land or any goods and chattels, the same shall be struck off to the city, and thereupon the city shall receive, in the corporate name, a deed for said property, and shall be vested with the same right as other purchasers at such sale, and shall have power to sell and convey the same. [Id. sec. 102.]

Art. 961. [5198] [4760] Certain provisions of general tax law applicable, except, etc.—The provisions of chapter thirteen of title 126, in reference to the seizure and sale of real and personal property for taxes, penalties and costs due thereon, shall apply as well to collectors of taxes for towns and cities as for collectors of taxes for counties and collectors of taxes for cities and towns shall be governed, in selling real and personal property, by the same rules and regulations in all respects as to time, place, manner and terms and making deeds, as are provided for collectors of taxes for counties, except as in this chapter otherwise provided. [Acts 1876, p. 259, sec. 20.]

Art. 962. [521] [450] Property of infant, etc., may be redeemed, when.—If the real estate of an infant, feme covert, or lunatic be sold under this title, the same may be redeemed at any time within one year after such disability be removed. [Id. sec. 103.]

Art. 963. Redemption of lands sold for taxes.—All lands sold under and by virtue of decree and judgment of court, for taxes due any incorporated city or town within this state, may be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the date of deed, upon the payment to the purchaser, or his assigns, of double the amount so paid, including costs of court; provided, that purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and his assigns, shall not be entitled to the possession of the property sold for taxes until the expiration of two years from the date of deed. [Acts 1899, p. 50.]

Art. 964. [522] [452] Taxes, etc., collectible in current money only.—Taxes levied to defray the current expenses of the city government, and all license and occupation taxes levied, and all fines, forfeitures, penalties and other dues accruing to cities, shall be collectible only in current money. [Const. article 11, sec. 4. Acts 1875, p. 256, sec. 105.]

Article 965. [523] [453] City council may regulate and control the erection, etc., of wooden buildings.—The city council, for the purpose of guarding against the calamities of fire, may prohibit the erection, building, placing, moving or repairing of wooden buildings within such limits within said city as they may designate and prescribe; and may within said limits prohibit the moving or putting up of any wooden building from without said limits, and may also prohibit the removal of any wooden building from one place to another within said limits, and may direct, require and prescribe that all buildings within the limits so designated and prescribed, as aforesaid, shall be made or constructed of fire-proof materials, and to prohibit the rebuilding or repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits when the same shall have been damaged to the extent of fifty per cent of the value thereof, and may prescribe the manner of ascertaining such damage; may declare all the dilapidated buildings to be nuisances and direct the same to be repaired, removed or abated in such manner as they shall prescribe and direct; to declare all wooden buildings in the fire limits which they deem dangerous to contiguous buildings, or in causing or promoting fires, to be nuisances, and require and cause the same to be removed in such manner as they shall prescribe.

Art. 966. [524] [454] May prohibit, etc., dangerous condition of chimneys, etc.—The city council shall have power: To prevent and prohibit the dangerous condition of chimneys, flues, fire-places, stovepipes, ovens, or other apparatus used in or about any building or manufactory, and to cause the same to be removed or placed in a secure and safe condition when considered dangerous. [Id. sec. 106.]

Art. 967. [525] [455] May prevent deposits of ashes in improper places, etc.—To prevent the deposit of ashes in places where they would be liable to produce fire, or in any wooden box or barrel, or within any wooden building, and to appoint one or more officers to enter into all buildings and inclosures to examine and discover whether the same are in a dangerous state, and to cause such as may be dangerous to be put in a safe condition. [Id. sec. 107.]

Art. 968. [526] [456] May require the inhabitants to keep fire buckets, etc.—To require the inhabitants to keep and provide as many fire buckets and ladders or other means to reach the roof as they shall prescribe, and to regulate the use thereof in times of fire. [Id. sec. 108.]

Art. 969. [527] [457] May regulate carrying on of business dangerous in promoting fires.—To regulate or prevent the carrying on of manufactories and works dangerous in promoting or causing fires; to prohibit or regulate the building and erection of cotton presses and sheds. [Id. sec. 109.]

Art. 970. [528] [458] May regulate, etc., use of fireworks and firearms.—To regulate or prevent and prohibit the use of fireworks and firearms. [Id. sec. 110.]

Art. 971. [529] [459] May control, etc., the storing of gunpowder, etc.—To direct, control or prohibit the keeping and management of houses or any buildings for the storing of gunpowder and other combustible, explosive or dangerous materials within the city; to regulate the keeping and conveying of the same. [Id. sec. 111.]

Art. 972. [530] [460] May regulate, etc., the building of parapet and party walls.—To regulate and prescribe the manner and to order the building of parapet and party walls. [Id. sec. 112.]

Art. 973. [531] [461] May compel owners of buildings to have scuttles, etc.—To compel the owners or occupants of houses or other buildings to have scuttles in the roofs and stairs or ladders leading to the same. [Id. sec. 113.]

Art. 974. [532] [462] May provide regulations for extinguishment of fires.—To authorize the mayor, officers of fire companies, or any officer of said city, to keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle, disorderly and suspicious persons, and arrest and imprison the same, and compel all officers of the city and all other persons to aid in the extinguishment of fires and in the preservation of property exposed to danger thereat, and in preventing goods from being stolen. [Id. sec. 114.]

Art. 975. [533] [463] Same subject.—And generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as the city council may deem expedient. [Id. sec. 115.]

Art. 976. [534] [464] May procure fire engines, etc.—The city council may procure fire engines and other apparatus for the extinguishment of fires, and have control thereof, and provide engine-houses for keeping and preserving the same; and shall have power to organize fire, hook and ladder, hose and ax companies, and fire brigade; and the companies so organized, with such assistant engineers as may be provided for, and the chief engineer, shall constitute the fire department of the city. Each company shall have the right to elect its own members and officers. The engineers shall be chosen in such manner as said department may determine, subject to the approval of the city council, who shall define the duties of said officers and pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the interest and welfare of said department and to contribute to the efficiency thereof; all officers so elected and approved shall be commissioned by the mayor; and the said companies, officers and members shall observe and be governed by the ordinances of said city relating to the fire department; said companies shall have power to adopt their own constitution and by-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this title and the ordinances of said city; and said department shall take the care and management of the engines and other implements and apparatus provided and used for the extinguishment of fires; and their powers and duties shall be prescribed and defined by the city council. [Id. sec. 116.]

Art. 977. [535] [465] Building may be torn down or blown up, etc., when, and the damages in such cases.—When any building in the city is on fire, it shall be lawful for the chief or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, to direct such building, or any other building which they may deem hazardous and likely to take fire and communicate to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up or destroyed, and no action shall be maintained against any person or against the city therefor; but any person interested in any such building so destroyed or injured may, within six months, and not thereafter, apply in writing to the city council to assess and pay the damage he has sustained, and, if the city council and the claimant can not agree on the terms of adjustment, then the application of such claimant shall be referred to three commissioners, one to be appointed by the claimant, one by the city council, and the third by both. They shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duty according to the best of their ability, shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses and shall give all parties a fair and impartial hearing, and give notice of the time and place of meeting; said commissioners shall be qualified voters and owners of real estate in the city, shall take into account the probabilities whether the said building would have been destroyed by fire if it had not been so pulled down and destroyed, and the loss of insurance upon said property, if any, caused by pulling down, blowing up or destroying said building, and may report that no damage should equitably be allowed to such claimant. [Id. sec. 117.]

Art. 978. [536] [466] Damages satisfied, how.—Whenever a report shall be made, and finally confirmed for the appraising of said damages, a compliance with the terms thereof by the city council shall be deemed a full satisfaction of said damages.

Article 979. [537] [467] City council may appoint health physician, etc.—The city council shall appoint a health officer, and as many health inspectors as they may deem necessary, and shall prescribe, by ordinance, the powers and duties and compensation of the same. [Id. sec. 119. Acts 1909, p. 340, sec. 20.]

Art. 980. [538] [468] Power to make regulations in regard to pestilence and disease.—The city council shall have power to take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilence, contagious or infectious diseases into the city; to stop, detain and examine, for that purpose, any person coming from any place infected, or believed to be infected, with that disease; to establish, maintain and regulate pest-houses or hospitals at some place within the city, or not exceeding five miles beyond its bounds; to cause any person who shall be suspected of being infected with any such disease to be sent to such pest-house or hospital; to remove from the city or destroy any furniture, wearing apparel, or property of any kind which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with pestilence, or which shall be likely to pass into such a state as to generate or propagate diseases; to abate all nuisances of every description which are or may become injurious to the public health, in any manner that they may deem expedient; and from time to time do all acts, make all regulations, and pass all ordinances which they shall deem expedient for the preservation of health and the suppression of disease in the city. [Id. sec. 120.]

Art. 981. [539] [469] Owner, etc., of public conveyance conveying into city persons sick with contagious disease, liable to punishment, when.—The owner, driver, conductor or person in charge of any stage, railroad car or public conveyance, which shall enter the city, having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person became sick on the way and could not be left, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment; and such owner, driver, conductor or person in charge, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health officer; and every neglect to comply with these provisions shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either. [Id. sec. 121.]

Art. 982. [540] [470] Any person liable to punishment, when.—Any person who shall bring, or cause to be brought, into the city any person or property of any kind, tainted or infected with malignant fever, or pestilential, or infectious disease, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either. [Id. sec. 122.]

Art. 983. [541] [471] Inn-keeper, physician, etc., shall report persons sick with smallpox, etc.—Every keeper of an inn, hotel, tavern, boarding or lodging house in the city, in which any inmate thereof shall be sick with smallpox, varioloid, yellow fever, or other infectious or pestilential disease, shall, upon such fact coming to his knowledge, forthwith report the same to the health officer. Every physician in the city shall report, under his hand, to the officer above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient. A violation of either of the provisions of this article, or any part of either of them, shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either. [Id. sec. 123.]

Art. 984. [542] [472] Power of city council to have city cleansed, etc.—The city council shall have power to require the filling up, draining and regulating of any lot or lots, grounds or yards, or any other places in the city, which shall be unwholesome, or have stagnant water therein, or from any other cause be in such condition as to be liable to produce disease; also to cause all premises to be inspected, and to impose fines on the owners of houses under which such stagnant water may be found, and to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and for the making, filling up, altering or repairing of all sinks and privies, and directing the mode and material for constructing them in future, and for cleansing and disinfecting the same; and for cleansing of any house, building, establishment, lot, yard or ground, from filth, carrion or impure or unwholesome matter of any kind, and to punish any owner or occupant violating the provisions of any ordinance so passed, as aforesaid; and the city council shall, also, in addition to the foregoing remedy, have the power to cause any of the improvements above mentioned to be done at the expense of the city, on account of the owners, and cause expenses to be assessed on the real estate, or lot or lots, benefited thereby; and, on filing with the county clerk of the county in which the city is situated a statement, by the mayor, of such expenses, shall have a first and privileged lien on such property to secure such expenditure, and twelve per cent interest thereon. For any such expenditures and interest, as aforesaid, suit may be instituted and recovery had in the name of the corporation, in any court having jurisdiction; and the statement so made, as aforesaid, or a certified copy thereof, shall be full proof and satisfactory evidence of the amount expended in any such improvement. [Id. sec. 124.]

Art. 985. [543] [473] Health physician may be authorized to do what.—The health officer may be authorized by the city council, when the public interest requires, to exercise for the time being such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the chief of police as the city council may in their discretion direct, and authorized to enter all houses and other places, private or public, at all times, in the discharge of his duties, under this title, having first asked permission of the owners or occupants; the city council shall have power to punish, by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect or refusal to observe the orders and regulations of the health officer. [Id. sec. 125.]

[Note.—For power of condemnation for hospitals, pest-houses, etc., see article 1003, and for other powers in reference to public health, see articles 838 and seq.]

Art. 986. Cities to regulate sewer, etc., connections, draining, plumbing.—Every city in this state, whether organized under the general laws of the state or by special act of the legislature, having underground sewers or cesspools, shall pass ordinances regulating the tapping of said sewers and cesspools, regulating house draining and plumbing. [Acts 1897, p. 236. Acts 1909, p. 162, sec. 1.]

Art. 987. Examining and supervising board of plumbers.—Such cities shall create a board for the examination of plumbers, to be known as the examining and supervising board of plumbers, to provide for an inspection of plumbing. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 988. Composition of board.—The said board shall consist of the following five persons: A member of the local board of health, if there be such a board of health, and if there be no local board of health, then the city physician or the city health officer, the city engineer, the city inspector of plumbing, a master plumber of not less than ten years active and continuous experience as a plumber, and one journeyman plumber of not less than five years of such active and continuous experience. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 989. Term regulated and vacancies filled by mayor and aldermen, etc.—The mayor and the board of aldermen, or the board of commissioners, as the case may be, shall regulate the length of term each member shall serve; they shall fill all vacancies occurring in the examining and supervising board of plumbers, appointments to said vacancies to be for the unexpired term of the member whose place is filled. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 990. Inspector of plumbing elected, when and how.—In any such city where there is no city inspector of plumbing provided for by special charter, the board of commissioners, or board of aldermen, as the case may be, shall elect such inspector of plumbing, who shall hold office for a period of time to be fixed by such board; provided, that such city inspector of plumbing may be the city engineer, if the board should see fit to elect him. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 991. Board to examine plumbers and plumbing inspectors; licenses and register of.—The examining and supervising board of plumbers, herein created, shall examine and pass upon all persons now engaged in the business of plumbing, whether as a master plumber, employing plumber, or journeyman plumber, in their respective cities, and all persons who may hereafter wish to engage in the business of plumbing as master plumber, employing plumber, or journeyman plumber, within their respective jurisdictions, and also all persons who may apply for the office of plumbing inspector. They shall issue a license to such persons only as shall successfully pass a required examination. They shall also register, in a book to be kept for that purpose, the names and places of business of all persons to whom a plumber's license is issued. [Acts 1897, p. 236.]

Art. 992. Licenses not to issue for more than one year, renewable, etc.—They shall not issue licenses for more than one year, but the same shall be renewed from year to year, upon proper application. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 993. License fees; disposition of.—Each applicant for examination for plumber's license shall pay, to such person as the examining and supervising board of plumbers may designate to receive the same, the sum of three dollars for each master plumber examined, and the sum of two dollars for each journeyman plumber examined, which fees may be used by said board to defray any of its legitimate expenses, the residue, if any, to be paid over to the treasurer of the city in which said board shall operate. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 994. Members of board to receive no compensation.—Members of the examining and supervising board of plumbers shall receive no compensation for their services on said board. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 995. License not transferable.—Said license shall be non-transferable. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 996. Examination and fee not required of same person but once.—The examination and examination fee shall not be required of the same person more than once. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 997. No license until examination passed.—The license shall not be issued to any person or firm to carry on or work at the business of plumbing, or to act as inspector of plumbing, until he or they shall have appeared before the examining and supervising board for examination and registration, and shall have successfully passed the required examination. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 998. Every plumbing firm to have one member a practical plumber.—Every firm carrying on the business of plumbing shall have at least one member who is a practical plumber. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 999 [544] [474] Power of city council to have streets, etc., graded, etc.—The city council shall be invested with full power and authority to grade, gravel, repair, pave or otherwise improve any avenue, street or alley, or any portion thereof, within the limits of said city, whenever, by a vote of two-thirds of the aldermen present, they may deem such improvement for the public interest; provided, the city council pay one-third and the owner of the property two-thirds thereof, except at the intersection of streets, from lot to lot across the streets either way, shall be paid for by the city alone; and said costs shall be assessed on the property fronting on said street so improved, to be collected in equal annual payments, not less than five in number; and all moneys collected from these assessments shall be appropriated exclusively to the payment of the bonds issued for the payment of the cost of said improvement. [Id. sec. 126.]

Art. 1000. [545] [475] Estimate of cost of improvements shall be made, etc.—Whenever the city council shall determine to make any such improvement, they shall cause an estimate to be made of the probable cost thereof by the city engineer, or by some other officer of the city, or by a committee of three aldermen; and such engineer or other officer or committee shall also report a full list of all lots or fractional lots, giving number and size of the same, and the number of the block in which situated, and the names of the owners thereof, if known, and such other information as may be required by the city council; and if there be any lot or fractional lot the owner of which is not known, the same shall be entered on said list as unknown; it shall be the duty of the officer or committee aforesaid to enter on said list, opposite each lot or fractional lot lying and being on each side of the street, avenue or alley so to be improved as aforesaid, one-third of the estimated expense for such work or improvement on such avenue, street, or alley, fronting, adjoining or opposite such lot or fractional lot; and, on the acceptance and approval of said report and list by the city council, said amount shall be imposed, levied and assessed as taxes.

and shall be a lien upon the property until the payment of the same. [Id. sec. 127.]

Art. 1001. [546] [476] Property levied on and sold for taxes for improvements, when and how, etc.—After such action on the part of the city council as above provided for, such officer or committee shall give such notice as may be required by ordinance, of said tax being due and within what time payable, and shall commence forthwith to collect the same. And after the expiration of the period for payment of said tax, said officer or committee shall levy on so much of any property on said list on which said tax has not been paid as will be sufficient to pay the same, and the same notice of sale as is required in sales for other tax shall be given; and, if said tax be not paid before the day of sale, said officer or committee shall sell said property in the name and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the same conditions which are or may be provided by ordinance for sale of real estate in the city, charged with the payment of taxes imposed by the said corporation; and said officer or committee shall execute a deed to the purchaser at any such sale; and all other provisions of this title in reference to a deed drawn by the assessor and collector shall apply to the deed provided for in this article. [Id. sec. 128.]

Art. 1002. [547] [477] Suit against owner of property for improvement tax, when, etc.—In addition to the power and authority granted to the city council to collect said assessment of taxes as aforesaid, they shall have the further power and additional remedy of instituting suit in the corporate name in any court having jurisdiction for the recovery against any owner of property for the amount due for any such work so made as aforesaid; and the city council shall provide, by resolution or ordinance under the provisions of this title, for carrying out and executing the powers in this chapter conferred, and may adopt such resolutions and enact such ordinances and make such regulations as they may deem necessary. [Id. sec. 129.]

Art. 1003. [548] Condemnation of property.—That whenever a city council of an incorporated city or town shall deem it necessary to take any private property, in order to open, change or widen any public street, avenue or alley, or for the construction of water mains, or supply reservoirs, or stand pipes for water works or sewers, or for the purpose of establishing thereon one or more hospitals or pest-houses, within or without the limits of such city or town, or for the purpose of constructing and maintaining sewer pipes, mains and laterals and connections and also private property upon which to maintain vats, filtration pipes and other pipes, and which to use and occupy as a place for ultimate disposition of sewerage in or out of the town or city limits, whenever it be made to appear that the use of any such private property is necessary for successful operation of such sewer system, and when it be also made to appear that such sewer system is beneficial to the public use, health and convenience, such property may be taken for such purposes by making just compensation to the owner thereof. If the amount of such compensation cannot be agreed upon, it shall be the duty of such city council to cause to be stated in writing the real estate or property sought to be taken, the name of the owner thereof, and his residence, if known, and file such statement with the county judge of the county in which said property is situated. [Acts 1909, p. 9.]

Art. 1004. [548] Condemnation of property by private corporations.—Any company or corporation, chartered under the laws of this state, for the purpose of constructing water works, or furnishing water supply for any town or city, shall have the same right to condemn property necessary for the construction of supply reservoirs or stand pipes for water works, when deemed necessary to preserve the public health, that is given towns and cities under this article. Upon the filing of the statement provided for in this article, it shall be the duty of said judge, in term time or vacation, to appoint three disinterested freeholders and qualified voters of the county, as special commissioners to assess the damages to accrue to the owner by reason of such condemnation. And repealing all laws in conflict herewith. [Acts 1891, p. 172. Id.]

Art. 1005. [549] Rules for condemning property for railroads followed.—The commissioners so appointed shall, in their proceedings, be governed and controlled by the law in force in reference to the condemnation of the right of way for railroad companies and the assessment of damages therefor—the city, town, company or corporation occupying the position of the railroad company. And all laws in reference to applications for the condemnation for right of way of railroad companies, including the measure of damages, the right of appeal, and the like, shall apply to an application by a city or town, company or corporation, under this and the preceding article, for the condemnation of property for the purpose of opening, changing or widening streets, avenues or alleys, or for the construction of water mains, sewers, supply reservoirs or stand pipes—the city, town, company or corporation to occupy the position of the railroad company. [Acts of 1889, p. 3.]

Article 1006. Powers acquired by accepting benefits of this chapter, and by whom.—Towns, cities and villages, incorporated under either general or special law, which shall accept the benefits of this chapter as herein provided, shall have power to improve any street, avenue, alley, highway, public place or square, or any portion thereof, within their limits, by filling, grading, raising, paving or repaving the same in a permanent manner, or by the construction or reconstruction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, or by widening, narrowing or straightening the same and to construct necessary appurtenances thereto, including sewers and drains. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 402, sec. 1.]

Art. 1007. Terms defined.—The term “city,” whenever used herein, shall include all incorporated towns, cities and villages; that the term “governing body,” whenever used herein, shall include the governing or legislative bodies of all incorporated towns, cities or villages, whether known as councils, commissions, boards of commissions, common councils, boards of aldermen, or city councils, or whatever name such bodies may be known or designated under general or special laws; that whenever the term “highway” is used herein, it shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, or public place or square, or portion thereof, dedicated to public use. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1008. Governing body to order improvement of highways, etc.—The governing body of any city shall have power to order the improvement of any highway therein, or part thereof, and to select the materials and methods for such improvement, and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of such improvements out of any available funds of the city, or as herein provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1009. Cost of improvements, how paid, etc.; assessments.—The cost of making such improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the owners of property abutting thereon; provided, that in no event shall more than three-fourths of the cost of any improvement, except sidewalks and curbs, be assessed against such property owners or their property; but the whole cost of construction of sidewalks and curbs in front of any property may be assessed against the owner thereof or his property. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1010. What cost assessed against railroad, etc.; special tax lien; enforceable, how.—Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power to assess against the owner of any railroad or street railroad occupying any highway ordered to be improved, the whole cost of the improvement between or under the rails and tracks of said railroad or street railroad and two feet on the outside thereof, and shall have power, by ordinance, to levy a special tax upon said railroad, or street railroad, and its road-bed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchises, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim, except state, county and municipal taxes and which may be enforced, either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law in the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit against the owner in any court having jurisdiction. The ordinance levying said tax shall prescribe when same shall become due and delinquent, and the method or methods of enforcing the same. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1011. Cost, how assessed; certificates; costs; attorney's fees; liens.—Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power, by ordinance, to assess the whole cost of constructing sidewalks or curbs, and not to exceed three-fourths of the cost of any other improvement, against the owners of property abutting on such improvement and against their abutting property benefited thereby, and to provide for the time and terms of payment of such assessments and the rate of interest payable upon deferred payments thereon, which rate of interest shall not exceed eight per centum per annum, and to fix a lien upon the property and declare such assessments to be a personal liability of the owners of such abutting property; and such governing body shall have power to cause to be issued in the name of the city assignable certificates, declaring the liability of such owners and their property for the payment of such assessments, and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificate.

If any such certificate shall recite that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with law, and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate, and the personal liability, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited, and no further proof thereof shall be required in any court.

The ordinance making such assessments shall provide for the collection thereof, with costs and reasonable attorneys fees, if incurred. Such assessments shall be secured by, and constitute a lien on, said property, which shall be the first enforceable claim against the property against which it is assessed, superior to all other liens and claims, except state, county and municipal taxes. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1012. No lien on exempt property; owner personally liable; lien not invalidated, how; enforcement.—Nothing herein contained shall be construed to empower any city to fix a lien by assessment against any property exempt by law from sale under execution; but the owner of such exempt property shall nevertheless be personally liable for the cost of improvements constructed in front of his property, which may be assessed against him. The fact that any improvement is omitted in front of exempt property shall not invalidate the lien of assessments made against other property on the highway improved, not so exempt. The lien created against any property, or the personal liability of the owner thereof, may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law for the sale of property for ad valorem city taxes. The recital in any deed made pursuant to such sale, that all legal prerequisites to said assessment and sale have been complied with, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited and shall in all courts be accepted without further proof. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1013. Notice and hearing before assessment, etc.; no assessment in excess of benefit.—No assessment of any part of the cost of such improvement shall be made against any property abutting thereon or its owner, until a full and fair hearing shall first have been given to the owners of such property, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof given to said owners, their agents or attorneys. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city, town or village, where such tax is sought to be levied, if there be such a paper there, if not, the nearest to said city, town or village, of general circulation in the county in which said city is located, the first publication to be made at least ten days before the date of the hearing. The governing body may provide for additional notice cumulative of notice by advertisement. Said hearing shall be before the governing body of such cities, at which hearing such owners shall have the right to contest the said assessment and personal liability, and the regularity of the proceedings with reference to the improvement, and the benefits of said improvement to their property, and any other matter with reference thereto. But no assessment shall be made against any owner of abutting property or his property in any event in excess of the actual benefit to such owner, in the enhanced value of his property, by means of such improvement, as ascertained at such hearing.

The governing body of any city making improvements under the terms hereof shall, by ordinance, adopt rules and regulations providing for such hearings to property owners, and for giving reasonable notice thereof. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1014. Governing body may correct mistake, etc., in assessment proceedings, etc.; may reassess, etc.—The governing body of any city shall be empowered to correct any mistake or irregularity in any proceedings with reference to such improvement, or the assessment of the cost thereof against abutting property and its owners, and in case of any error or invalidity, to reassess against any abutting property and its owner the cost or part of the cost of improvements, subject to the terms hereof, not in excess of the benefits in enhanced value of such property from such improvement, and to make reasonable rules and regulations for a notice to and hearing of property owners before such reassessment. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1015. Suit to set aside or correct assessment.—Any property owner, against whom or whose property any assessment or reassessment has been made, shall have the right, within twenty days thereafter, to bring suit in any court having jurisdiction, to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto, on account of any error or invalidity therein. But thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns or successors, shall be barred from any such action, or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessments or reassessments in any action in which the same may be brought in question. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1016. Referendum on adoption of provisions of this chapter; ordinances to carry out same.—The benefits of the provisions of this chapter shall apply to any city, and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof to a vote of the resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said city, at a special election called for the purpose by said city. And said election shall be held as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in said city; but said governing body is hereby empowered, by resolution, to order said election, and prescribe the time and manner of holding the same. Said body shall canvass and determine the results of such election; and, if a majority of the voters voting upon the question of the adoption of this chapter, at such election, shall vote to adopt the same, the result of the election shall by said governing body be entered upon their minutes, and thereupon all the terms hereof shall be applicable to and govern such city adopting the same. A certified copy of said minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the result of such election and the regularity thereof; and the facts therein recited shall in all courts be accepted as true. Whenever the provisions of this chapter shall have been adopted by any city, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances or resolutions necessary or proper to give full force and effect thereto and to every part thereof. Whenever one hundred qualified voters in any city shall in writing petition for an election to determine the adoption of this chapter, it shall be the duty of its governing body to order such election. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 1017. Provisions of this chapter cumulative; subordinate to special charter.—This chapter shall not repeal any law, general or special, already in existence, pertaining to the making of such improvements, but the provisions of this chapter, and of resolutions or ordinances passed pursuant thereto shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, such existing laws; provided, that in any case in which a conflict may exist or arise between the provisions of this chapter and the provisions of any law granting a special charter to any city in the state, the provisions of such special charter shall control. [Id. sec. 12.]

Article 1018. City council may regulate rates.—The city council of all cities and towns in the state of Texas of over two thousand population, incorporated under the general laws thereof, shall have the power to regulate, by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged by all water, gas, light and sewer companies, corporations or persons using the streets and public grounds of said city or town, and engaged in furnishing water, gas, light or sewerage service to the public, and also to prescribe rules and regulations under which such commodities shall be furnished, and service rendered, and to fix penalties to enforce such charges, rules and regulations; provided, that the city council or board of aldermen shall not prescribe any rate or compensation which will yield less than ten per cent per annum net on the actual cost of the physical properties, equipments and betterments. [Acts 1907, p. 217, sec. 1.]

Art. 1019 Mayor, etc., not to accept franks, privileges, etc.—It shall be unlawful for the mayor or any member of any city council or board of aldermen, of any such city, or town in this state, to accept directly or indirectly any frank, privilege, free light or water, or sewerage service, or other service, or a lower rate therefor than the regular rate established by said council or board of aldermen, or any gift or anything of value from any of the companies, corporations or persons heretofore mentioned in article 1018 of this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1020. Council may pass ordinances to protect company, etc.—The city council shall have the power to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary or proper to protect any of said companies, corporations or persons, in the free and full enjoyment of all their rights and franchises, to prevent any interference with their property or privileges, and to prevent the free or unauthorized use or waste of the water or other commodity or service furnished, and to prescribe penalties to enforce such ordinances. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1021. Company to make reports.—Any such company, corporation, or person, who may be engaged in furnishing to the inhabitants of any city or town mentioned in article 1018, any water, light, gas or sewerage service, shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, file with the mayor of such city or town a report, in writing, sworn to by the manager, secretary, or president of such corporation, by a member of such company, and by any such person, which report shall show:

- (a) The amount of any lien or mortgage upon the properties composing such plant;
- (b) All other indebtedness pertaining to such enterprise and the consideration therefor;
- (c) The actual cost of the visible physical properties, date when installed and the present value thereof, and herein the lands, machinery, buildings, pipes, poles, circuits, mains, shall each be treated separately;
- (d) The annual cost of operating such plant, showing under separate items, the amount paid for actual salaries, amount paid for labor of all kinds, fixed charges, including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately, amount paid for fuel, for extensions and repairs, giving each separately, and particularizing the extension and repairs, the cost of maintenance, amount paid for damages, claims or suits for damages, identifying each claim or suit, amount paid for miscellaneous expenses, and, if any machinery or equipment is abandoned, worn out or its use discontinued within the preceding year, the same shall be stated, the original cost thereof shall be given, and the present value thereof shall be stated;

(e) The report shall give the gross earnings from any such plant, including revenues from every source whatever, stating items separately, amount received by each department. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1022. Penalties.—Any such corporation, or any member of such company, or any such person mentioned in this chapter, who shall for thirty days wilfully fail or refuse to file the report in the manner provided by this chapter, shall forfeit and pay to any such city or town the sum of one hundred dollars per day for each and every day during which it shall continue in default; or, if any such corporation, or company, or person, shall file any report, knowing that the same does not truly report the facts about the matters mentioned therein, it shall forfeit and pay to such city or town the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each such wilfully false report; all of which forfeitures and penalties shall be recovered at the suit of such city or town, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county wherein such city or town is located. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1023. City council of city owning plants may regulate rates; also may establish and operate plants.—The city council of any city or town in the state of Texas, incorporated under the general laws thereof, shall have the power, where such city or town owns the plant, to regulate, by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged the public by such city or town for water, sewerage, gas, electricity or other fluid or substance used for lights, heat or power, to establish and operate necessary plants for the manufacture, generation or production thereof, and to sell and distribute the same to the public within and throughout the limits of any such city or town. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1024. This chapter does not repeal, what.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as repealing or invalidating any provision of chapter 13 of this title or chapter 5 of title 25. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 1025. Extortionate, etc., rates, unlawful; district courts given jurisdiction to regulate, etc., provided, etc.—All extortionate and unreasonable rates charged by public utility corporations, as hereinafter defined, are hereby declared to be unlawful; and the district courts of this state are hereby vested with jurisdiction and full power and authority to regulate, prevent and abolish the same; and, to this end, said courts are given the power and authority, whenever the public interest may require, to fix and establish rates for the service and products of all public utility corporations, and, whenever the public interest may require and to carry out the provisions herein conferred, said courts are hereby expressly authorized to issue injunctions, quo warranto, and all other writs for the purpose of carrying out and making effective the purposes of this chapter, and said writs shall be governed by the rules and regulations now prescribed by law; provided, that no proceeding shall be begun in a district court having for its purpose the fixing of rates of public utility corporations, until and unless the city council of the city or town desiring to invoke the power herein conferred upon the district courts shall comply with the provisions of article 1026 of this chapter. [Acts 1905, p. 348, sec. 1.]

Art. 1026. City council to pass resolutions, etc.; copy to be delivered to president, etc.—If the city council of any city or town, incorporated under the general laws of this state, shall desire to invoke the power of the district court granted in article 1025 of this chapter, such council shall, by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to said council, pass a resolution setting forth the matters complained of, naming the corporation against which the complaint is made, and in a general way the reasons for such complaint, and shall cause a copy of the same to be delivered to the president, vice president or secretary of said corporation, or cause to be left a copy of said resolution at the principal office of such corporation. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1027. After twenty days, suit in district court, if, etc.—If, within twenty days after the said corporation has been furnished with a copy of the resolution of the city council, the wrongs complained of shall not be corrected to the satisfaction of the city council, a petition setting forth the wrongs and grievances complained of, and stating the relief sought, may be filed in the name of the city or town as plaintiff against the corporation as defendant in any district court of the county in which such city or town may be situated; and process shall be issued upon said petition, and be served upon such corporation, as now provided by law in civil cases, and the case shall be set for trial in the same manner as other civil cases, except that it shall have precedence over all cases of a different character filed in such court as to the time of trial. Process shall issue in said cause at the instance of either party, in the same manner as process is now, or may hereafter issue in civil cases; and the right of trial by jury of the issues involved shall also be given upon the demand of either party, as provided by law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1028. What to be considered in fixing rates; books to be produced; rate to yield ten per cent, etc., and to stand three years, unless, etc.—Upon the trial of the cause, it shall be the duty of the court or jury, in arriving at a decision as to whether or not the rates complained of are reasonable or extortionate, and in fixing the rates, to consider the cost of construction of the plant of the public utility corporation against which the petition is filed, the cost of the operation of such plant, its maintenance and repairs, the fixed charges that may be against the corporation, amount invested in such plant, and such other matters as may be material to the issues. And the court trying the same shall have the power to order the corporation to make perfect of its books and records for inspection in court for its information in determining the question in issue. After a full hearing of all the evidence adduced by the parties, the court or jury shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix the rates which may be charged by such public utility corporation; provided, that the rates fixed must be sufficient to yield such public utility company not less than ten per cent upon the investment, and the same shall continue in force for a period of three years. The rates fixed shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the court, and shall be held conclusive, as reasonable, fair and just, and shall remain for three years as the rates to be charged by such corporation, unless changed or modified by the judgment of said district court, or by the appellate courts to which either of the parties to said suit may appeal, or have writ of error. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1029. Appeal may be taken, etc.—If either party to the suit shall be dissatisfied with the decisions of the court and the rate thereby established, an appeal may be taken by either party to the court of civil appeals of the supreme judicial district in which such district court may be located; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said court of civil appeals, and shall have precedence in such court of all cases of a different character therein pending; and the said parties to said suit may have their writ of error from the supreme court. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1030. Upon judgment fixing rate, decree enforcing same on pain of forfeiture of charter or permit; duty of attorney general or county or district attorney, under, etc.; to institute suit for forfeiture, etc.—When final judgment is rendered in any cause fixing the rates to be charged by said corporation, the court rendering such judgment shall order in its decree the enforcement of the same; and to this end and to carry out and execute such judgment, the court is hereby specially authorized and empowered to provide in its decree that, if the same is not obeyed according to the terms thereof, the said corporation shall forfeit its charter, if the same be a domestic corporation, or its permit to do business in this state, if the corporation be a foreign corporation; and, if said order or decree be violated, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or county or district attorney under the direction of the attorney general, to institute suit in the district court of the county in which such corporation may have its principal office, or in Travis county, Texas, for the forfeiture of the charter of such corporation, or the cancellation of its permit, as the case may be, and, if said charter be forfeited or permit canceled, the offending corporation shall thereafter be prohibited from carrying on its business within this state. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1031. What public utilities herein included.—The public utilities included within the meaning of this chapter are defined to be water companies, furnishing water to the public; gas companies, furnishing gas to the public; electric light or power companies, furnishing light or power to the public; telephone companies, furnishing telephones to the public; and sewerage companies, conducting sewerage for the public, whether said companies are incorporated under the laws of this state or a foreign state. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1032 Any city incorporated under special charter may avail itself of provisions, but cumulative.—Any city within this state, incorporated under a special law, may, at its option, avail itself of the provisions of this chapter, but the same shall be cumulative of any other method which may now be provided in such special charter, and this chapter shall not repeal any provisions of such special charter. [Id. sec. 8.]

Article 1033. [579] [506] May be incorporated, when.—When a town or village may contain more than five hundred and less than ten thousand inhabitants, it may be incorporated as a town or village in the manner prescribed in this chapter. [Acts 1881, p. 63. Acts 1897, p. 193.]

Art. 1034. [580] [507] Towns and villages incorporated, when.—If the inhabitants of such town or village desire to be so incorporated, at least twenty residents thereof, who would be qualified voters under the provisions of this chapter, shall file an application for that purpose in the office of the judge of the county court of the county, in which the town or village is situated, stating the boundaries of the proposed town or village, and the name by which it is to be known, if it be incorporated, and accompany the same with a plat of the proposed town or village, and including therein no territory except that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes; provided, that if any town or village be situated on both sides of a line dividing two counties, application may be made to the judge of the county court of either county in which a portion of said town or village is located, in manner and form as is hereinbefore provided; provided, further, that in towns and villages that may be incorporated on territory in two counties, in the trial of the offense before the mayor or recorder for a violation of the laws of the state, or the ordinances of the corporation, an appeal shall be to the county court of the county in which the offense may have been committed, in cases in which said mayor or recorder has not final jurisdiction; but when said mayor or recorder are sitting as an examining court, parties brought before them as such examining court, charged with an offense against the laws of the state, shall be bound over by them to the county court of the county in which said offense is alleged to have been committed, or the district court, as the case may be, and provided, that a new election shall not be ordered in less than one year. [Acts 1889, p. 5. Id.]

Art. 1035. Adjoining territory, how added.—Whenever a majority of the inhabitants who are qualified voters of any territory adjoining the limits of any town or village, incorporated or hereafter incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said town or village, any three of them may make affidavit to such fact, and file such affidavit with the mayor of said town or village, and such mayor shall certify the same to the council of said town or village. Thereupon, such council may, by ordinance, receive such inhabitants as a part of said town or village; thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said town or village, and the inhabitants shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens and bound by all the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto, and passed in pursuance of this chapter; provided, however, that the area of no town or village shall ever exceed that of cities or towns, as provided for in article 777, chapter one, title twenty-two, Revised Statutes of Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 116.]

Art. 1036. [581] [508] County judge to order election to determine, etc.—If satisfactory proof is made that the town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, it shall be the duty of the county judge to make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated, and at a place designated within the town or village, for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people.

Art. 1037. [582] [509] Officers appointed to hold election.—The county judge shall appoint an officer to preside at the election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it; and after a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

Art. 1038. [583] [510] Qualifications of electors.—Every male person who has attained the age of twenty-one years, and who has resided within the limits of the proposed town for the six months next preceding, and is a qualified elector under the laws of the state, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

Art. 1039. [584] [511] Tickets, written or printed.—On each ticket the voter must write, or cause to be written or printed, "corporation" or "no corporation."

Art. 1040. [585] [512] Returns of election.—If a majority of the votes are cast in favor of incorporation, the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge of the county within ten days after the same was held.

Art. 1041. [586] [513] Duty of county judge to make entry, etc.—The county judge shall, within twenty days after the receipt of the returns, make an entry upon the records of the commissioners' court, that the inhabitants of the town or village are incorporated within the boundaries thereof; which boundaries shall also be designated in the entry, and a certified copy of such entry, together with the plat of the town or village, shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record of deeds of such county. [Acts 1897, p. 193.]

Art. 1042. [587] [514] Powers of corporation.—When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the town shall be invested with all the rights incident to such corporations under this chapter, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to hold and dispose of real and personal property; provided, such real property is situated within the limits of the corporation.

Art. 1043. [588] [515] Election of mayor, etc.—The county judge shall immediately order an election for a mayor, a marshal and five aldermen.

Art. 1044. [589] [516] Who are eligible for offices.—No person shall be eligible to any of said offices, nor shall any person be qualified to vote at any election to fill any of them, unless he possess the requisites provided by article 1038.

Art. 1045. [590] [517] Commission of mayor, etc.—The county judge shall, immediately after the returns have been made, commission the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, and shall deliver certificates of election to the other officers elected. [R. S. 1879, 517.]

Art. 1046. [591] [518] Officers; term of office.—The mayor, aldermen and all other officers elected at the first election under this chapter, regardless of the time of such first election, shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified at the next succeeding annual election, according to the provisions of the succeeding article. [Act May 26, 1873, p. 99, sec. 5.]

Art. 1047. [592] [519] Annual election of officers.—The annual election of officers of all towns and villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall take place on such day as may be fixed by law for municipal elections throughout the towns and cities of the state. Should no such uniform day be fixed, then the elections herein provided for shall take place on the first Tuesday in April of each and every year. The mayor, or, in case of his inability or refusal to act, any two aldermen, shall order such annual election by notices posted for at least ten days at three public places within the corporate limits. The returns of such election shall be made to the town or village council, and certificates of election given by the mayor, or person acting as such, to the persons elected to the various offices for such corporation. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1048. [593] [520] Quorum may pass by-laws.—The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen, and shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the state, as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

Art. 1049. [594] [521] May prevent and remove nuisances, regulate markets, etc.—The board of aldermen shall have and exercise exclusive control over the streets, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits, and shall have the power to cause the male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties, to work on the streets and public alleys not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute, or a sum of money (not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded) to employ such substitute. They shall, as far as practicable, prevent any nuisances within the limits of the corporation, and cause such as exists to be removed at the expense of the person by whom they were occasioned or upon whose property they may be found; they may establish markets and may do whatever else may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this chapter; provided, that, with the consent of the board of aldermen, where streets are continuations of public roads, the commissioners' court shall have power to construct bridges and other improvements thereon which facilitate the practicability of travel on said streets. [Acts 1895, p. 89.]

Art. 1050. [595] [522] Board of aldermen may levy tax.—The board of aldermen shall have power to levy and collect an occupation tax of not more than one-half the amount levied by the state; also to levy taxes on persons and property, real and personal, within the corporation, subject to taxation by the laws of the state; but the tax on persons and property shall not, in any one year, exceed the rate of one-fourth of one per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation. [Acts of 1891, p. 171.]

Art. 1051. [596] [523] Aldermen may prescribe fine, etc.—The board of aldermen shall have power to prescribe the fine to be imposed by the mayor for the violation of any by-law or ordinance, which shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars; but no fine shall be imposed except upon the verdict of a jury, should the defendant demand a trial by jury.

Art. 1052. [597] [524] Vacancies, how filled.—When a vacancy shall occur in any of the offices created by this chapter, or by the board of aldermen under its provisions, the acting aldermen shall fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

Art. 1053. [598] [525] Additional officers may be appointed.—The board of aldermen shall have power to appoint such officers, other than those mentioned in this chapter, as shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the same, to prescribe their duties and to fix their compensation; and shall also have power to dismiss them at any time, and appoint others in their stead.

Art. 1054. [599] [526] Board must prescribe amount of bonds, etc.—The board shall prescribe the bonds and security which the marshal and such other officers as may be appointed shall give, which shall be executed and approved by the mayor, before the marshal or other officer shall enter upon the discharge of his duties. Said bond shall be payable to the corporation.

Art. 1055. [600] [527] If bond is not given in five days after, etc.—If the bond required in the preceding article is not given within five days after the marshal is elected, or the officer appointed, the board shall have the power to appoint another marshal or officer in the place of the one so elected or appointed.

[Note.—The Act of 1899, chapter three, page forty, creating corporation courts (embodied in chapter five, title twenty-two) abolished the municipal court and the offices of judge, recorder and clerk thereof, in every city, town or village (as theretofore established) after the due and legal organization of the corporation court therein.]

Art. 1056. [607] [534] Powers, duties and fees of marshals.—The marshal shall have the same power within the town that constables shall have within their precincts, and shall be entitled to the same fees. He shall discharge all other duties that may be prescribed by the by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be fixed by the board.

Art. 1057. [608] [535] Taxes, by whom collected, etc.; sale of property for, etc.—The corporation tax shall be assessed and collected by the marshal; and, if the same be not voluntarily paid, he shall have power to make the collection in the same manner and with like effect as is prescribed in chapter seven of this title, for collection of taxes in cities, so far as is applicable.

Art. 1058. [609] [536] Real estate sold may be redeemed, etc.—Real estate sold for taxes due the corporation may be redeemed as provided in chapter seven of this title.

Art. 1059. [610] [537] Where purchaser is a non-resident.—Where the purchaser does not reside within the limits of the corporation, the estate may be redeemed by making the payment into the treasury of the corporation for the benefit of the purchaser.

Art. 1060. [611] [538] Ordinances not to be enforced until.—No ordinance or by-law shall be enforced until it has been published at least ten days in three public places in the town or in a newspaper, if one be published in the corporation. [R. S. 1879, 538.]

Art. 1061. [612] 539] Where property is liable for taxes and owner is unknown.—When any property shall be liable to assessment for corporation taxes, and the owner is unknown, such property shall be valued by the marshal and assessed by its description, stating that the owner of the property is unknown; unless the taxes are paid, the property shall be sold for the payment thereof, as nearly as may be, in the manner in which such property when duly rendered is required to be sold, and the sale shall be equally valid. [R. S. 1879, 539.]

Art. 1062. [613] Charters amended, how.—Towns and villages heretofore incorporated by the congress of the republic or the legislature of the state may, by a resolution of the board of aldermen and a two-thirds vote of the voters at an election held therefor, amend their charters in any particular not in conflict with the constitution of the state or the Revised Statutes. [Acts of 1881, p. 83.]

Art. 1063. [614] Takes effect, when.—In order to amend the charter of any town or village, it shall be necessary, before said amendment shall go into effect, for the board of aldermen to adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment; and a certified copy of the same shall be approved by the attorney general and recorded in the office of the secretary of state before the same shall take effect. [Id.]

Art. 1064. [616] [541] Property of any reincorporating city or town vested, how; assumption of indebtedness.—When any town or city shall reincorporate, under chapters one or fourteen of this title, upon a majority vote of the legal voters, taxpaying property owners of said town or city, all property, real and personal, of the old or de facto corporation, shall be vested in the new one; and the new corporation shall assume all the legal indebtedness, contracts and obligations of the old corporation; and, where cities and towns have reincorporated under chapters one or eleven of title eighteen, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895, upon a majority vote of the legal voters taxpaying property owners of said city or town, all property, real or personal, of the old or de facto corporation, shall be vested in the new corporation; and the new corporation shall assume all the legal indebtedness, contracts, and obligations of the old corporation. [Acts 1891, p. 95. Acts 1897, p. 64.]

Art. 1065. Certain incorporations validated.—All towns and villages which have heretofore attempted to be incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, but which, in said attempted incorporation, failed to comply with all the requirements of said chapter, but which said towns or villages have, from and after the date of their several attempted incorporations, as aforesaid, exercised the functions of towns and villages, and been recognized as such towns or villages, be and are hereby declared to be towns and villages of the class named, and their incorporations be and the same are hereby declared to be as legal and valid as if the original acts of incorporation had been in strict compliance with the requirements of the law; provided, that nothing in this article shall be held to validate the incorporation of towns and villages that had less than two hundred inhabitants at the time of this attempted incorporations of such towns and villages. [Acts 1895, p. 90.]

Art. 1066. Condemnation of railroad right of way and roadbed for streets.—Any town or village in this state, incorporated under this chapter, or by special charter, shall have the right, and they are hereby empowered, to condemn the right of way and roadbed of any railway company whose roadbed runs within the corporate limits of such towns or villages, when deemed necessary and so declared, by a majority vote of the board of aldermen, for the purpose of opening, widening or extending the streets of such town or village; provided, there are less than four railroad tracks. [Acts 1897, p. 216, sec. 1.]

Art. 1067. Proceedings for.—Whenever the board of aldermen of any town or village, incorporated as aforesaid, shall have passed an ordinance or resolution to open, widen or extend a street to any point within its corporate limits, and such street is to be opened, widened or extended over or across any railroad bed and right of way, if such town or village, and the company over whose roadbed and right of way such street is to be opened, widened or extended, cannot agree as to the damages to be paid said railway company for the right of way over and across their roadbed and right of way, it shall be the duty of the mayor of such town or village to state in writing the point on said railroad right of way where said street is desired to be opened, widened or extended, giving the width and length of that portion of the right of way of the railroad sought to be condemned, and describing it so that it can be clearly identified, the object for which it is sought to be condemned, the name and style of the railway company, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such town or village is situated. Upon the filing of such written statement with the county judge, the same proceedings shall be had for the purpose of condemning the right of way for the street that are now required by law for the condemnation of right of way for the benefit of railroad companies. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1068. Duty of railroad to keep in condition for travel portion of roadbed and right of way crossed by streets; penalty.—It shall be the duty of every railroad company in this state to place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way over or across which any public street of any incorporated town or village may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public; and, in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed, by the town marshal of such town or village, it shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every week such railroad may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, in a suit in the name of such town or village. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1069. Condemnation for same purpose by county commissioners.—County commissioners shall have the right, upon petition of twenty freeholders of any community, or unincorporated town or city, to condemn roadbed of railroads for same purpose. [Id. sec. 4.]

Article 1070. Election to determine.—Whenever ten per cent of the qualified voters of any village, town or city in this state, having a population of less than ten thousand inhabitants, to be determined by the last preceding federal census, or if no such census has been had, then of the vote cast for governor at the last preceding primary election, shall petition the county judge when such village, town or city shall be unincorporated, or if incorporated, then to the mayor of such village, town or city, requesting that an election be ordered to determine whether such village, town or city shall adopt the commission form of government; then such county judge or mayor shall order such election, giving thirty days' notice thereof, by posting three written or printed notices at three public places in such village, town or city, and by publishing such notice in some newspaper published therein, if there be one. such notices to be under the official signature of such county judge or mayor. [Acts 1909, p. 189, sec. 1.]

Art. 1071. Qualification of voters; form of ballot.—A qualified voter under this chapter shall be any one entitled at the time of the election to vote at a general election. Each voter shall have written or printed on the ballot, "For Commission," or "Against Commission." [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1072. Judges and clerks; elections, how held; returns; order; effect.—The said county judge or mayor shall appoint two judges, one of which shall be designated as the presiding judge, and two clerks, to hold said election. The election shall be held under the general election laws of this state, and the returns made to said county judge or mayor, as aforesaid, within two days after said election; and, if a majority of the votes cast are, "For Commission," then said county judge or mayor, as the case may be, shall enter an order to this effect upon the minutes of said commissioners' court or mayor's court, and after said entry of said order, said village, town or city, shall be under the commission form of government. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1073. Officers to be elected; term; vacancy, how filled.—At such election, there shall be elected from the qualified voters of said village, town or city, a mayor and two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Tuesday in April following. The term of office of said commissioners and mayor shall be two years; and they shall be elected on the first Tuesday in April every two years, after said first election. In case of death or resignation of the mayor or commissioners, the others shall fill the place by appointment, and in case of a tie vote the county judge shall vote off the tie. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1074. Clerk, appointment, duties, bond; city attorney and police, appointment and salary.—Said commission shall have authority to appoint some one to be clerk of said commission, and said clerk shall perform the duties of clerk, assessor, collector of taxes and treasurer. Said clerk shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, in double the estimated amount of the annual current revenues of such village, town or city, said estimate to be made by said mayor and two commissioners, said bond to be approved by said mayor and commissioners and filed and recorded in the minutes of said commission, and they shall have authority to appoint a city attorney and such police force as they may deem necessary, and shall fix the salary of all such officers. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1075. Commissioners, powers and duties.—The said commissioners shall have all the duties, authority and powers conferred by the general laws of the state in force at the time of the taking effect of this law, applying to city councils of villages, towns and cities of less than ten thousand inhabitants, and such other duties, authority and powers as they may designate by ordinances not in conflict with the said general laws, as aforesaid, of this state. [Id. sec. 6.]

This act cumulative.—This act shall not repeal any laws under which such villages, towns or cities may now operate, but is intended to be cumulative. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1076. Meetings and compensation.—Said commissioners shall hold a regular meeting once a month for one day, and shall receive for their services five dollars per day for each regular meeting; and the mayor or the two commissioners may call a special meeting whenever they deem it necessary, but shall not be entitled to pay for any special meeting so called. This chapter shall not repeal any laws under which such villages, towns or cities may now operate, but is intended to be cumulative. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 1077. [617a] Abolition of corporation provided.—Cities and towns incorporated under the general laws of the state, and cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or less chartered under special law, including those which may have heretofore accepted the provisions of chapter one. of this title, may abolish their corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts 1895, p. 166.]

Art. 1078. [617b] Petition and election to abolish, provided, etc.—When one hundred of the property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of any such city or town, desire the abolishment of such corporation, they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such city or town, as in the case of its incorporation; provided, that when a majority of the property taxpayers, who are qualified voters, of any such city or town is less than one hundred in number, then the county judge shall order an election as above provided for upon the presentation to him of a petition signed by a majority of the property taxpayers of such city or town, who are qualified voters thereof, paying [praying] for same. [Acts 1899, p. 245.]

Art. 1079. [617c] Qualified voters at such election; duty of county judge.—All persons who are legally qualified voters of the state and county in which any such election is ordered, and are resident property taxpayers in the city or town where such election is to be held, as shown by the last assessment roll of such city or town, shall be entitled to vote at such election; and, if a majority of such qualified voters voting at such election shall vote to abolish such corporation, the county judge shall declare such corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners' court, and from the date of such order, said corporation shall cease to exist. [Acts 1895, p. 166.]

Art. 1080. Receiver of abolished corporation; appointment; bond, etc.—In all cases where any city or town having theretofore had a valid corporate existence, under the laws of the state of Texas, has abolished said corporate existence in the manner provided by law, and in all cases where any city or town having a valid corporate existence under such laws, may hereafter abolish their corporate existence, any creditor of any such city or town may apply to the judge of the district court of the judicial district, in which such city or town may be situated, for the appointment of a receiver for said corporation; and, after having posted up in at least three public places in the county wherein such city or town is located, one of which shall be in said city or town, written notices stating the substance of the application, when and before whom the same will be heard, such judge, either in term time or vacation, may appoint a suitable person as such receiver for such corporation, and shall fix the amount of bond to be given by such receiver in at least double the probable amount of the indebtedness or value of the property of such city or town, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such officer, and for the paying over and delivery of all money and property coming into his hands as such receiver, to the party or parties entitled to receive same, such bond to be approved by the judge making the appointment; and same, together with the order of appointment, shall be filed with, and recorded in, the minutes of said court by the clerk of the district court of the county wherein such city or town is situated. [Acts 1905, p. 325.]

Art. 1081. Duties of receiver.—A receiver appointed under the preceding article, after having given the required bond, and after having same filed and recorded as therein directed, shall take charge of all the real and personal property, including moneys, minute books, ordinances, etc., except such property as pertains to the public free schools or devoted exclusively to public use, and shall return an inventory of all such property, money, books, etc., so received by him to the next succeeding term of the district court for the county in which such city or town is situated; and, for the purpose of securing such property, money, books, etc., he may, under the order of said court, or the judge thereof, made in vacation, bring suit or suits against any person or persons in possession of such property, books or moneys, or indebted to said city or town, the same as such city or town could were it still incorporated. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1082. Claims against city; proceedings to collect.—Any person, firm or corporation, having any claim against such city or town, shall, within six months from the appointment of said receiver, present to him a statement of the amount of such claim, duly verified, which, if he finds correct, he will mark allowed, and file same in said district court; and at its next regular term, if no protest be filed as hereinafter provided, said claim shall be approved by said court and shall thereafter be considered a valid debt against such city or town; provided, however, that no such claim or account against such city shall be allowed or approved by the receiver of such city without notice of the presentment thereof first having been given, by publication in some newspaper, if any in the town or city where same is filed or presented, for four successive weeks, and in case there be no newspaper published in such town or city, then by posting written or printed notice of the presentment of such claim, to be posted at the courthouse door of the county in which said town or city is situated for four weeks prior to the allowance of said claim or account. And such notice, whether published or posted, shall state the name and residence of the creditor, the amount and date of said claim and account, and for what purpose incurred. In case such receiver finds any claim so presented to him unjust, in whole or in part, he shall endorse his finding thereon, and return same to the claimant, who may file same with the district court, if he desires to accept the finding of the receiver, and such claim for the amount allowed by the receiver may be acted upon by the said court as other claims. In case any protest by any taxpayer of said city or town be filed against any claim filed in said court, together with a bond of sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court, that he will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant establishes his claim in full, in any state court in which he may sue thereon, then such district court shall refuse to approve such claim until it shall have been established by judgment, recovered thereon in a state court of competent jurisdiction; and such suit to establish such claim, or any claim disallowed in part or in whole, may be brought against the receiver, who shall make all legal defenses against such claim; but the court trying said claim is hereby authorized to hear and consider any material defense that may be, or may have been, urged against said claim, except that of limitation, though such claim, prior thereto, may have been reduced to judgment, but such judgment shall be considered, upon such trial as prima facie evidence of the justness of such claim. Any judgment recovered against such receiver upon a claim against such city or town shall be allowed by the receiver and approved by the district court wherein the receivership is pending; but, in all suits upon claims wherein protest and bond were filed in the district court, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he recovers judgment for the full amount for which he asked the approval of the said district court; and, in suits upon claims rejected in part by the receiver, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he establishes his claim for a greater amount than was allowed by the receiver. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1083. Limitation not to run, when.—Limitations shall not run, begin to run, or be plead against any claim against such city or town, at any time prior to six months after the appointment of such receiver. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1084. No receiver for corporation dissolved, when, etc.—No receiver shall be appointed for any such city or town whose corporate existence was dissolved prior to July 17, 1905, where the application therefor was not filed in said court within two years from and after July 10, 1905. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1085. No suit to be brought on protested claims, after what time.—No suit shall be brought against such receiver upon any claim, against the allowance of which a protest has been filed, as herein provided for, at any time after six months from the date of filing such protest, nor after the expiration of six months from the date of the disallowance of any such claim, in whole or in part, where the claim has not been filed in the district court, after such disallowance as hereinbefore provided. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1086. Payment of claims, and priority; sale of property in hands of receiver.—It shall be the duty of the district court of the county in which such town or city is situated, and in which such receivership is pending, to provide for the payment of all claims legally established against such city or town, and to determine the priority of any claims, and to order the sale of all property in the hands of the receiver subject to sale for such purpose, and to direct such receiver to pay such claims. [Id. sec. 4.]

Court to levy tax, when, etc.—In case the money and proceeds of property are insufficient to pay such indebtedness, then it shall be the duty of said court, at the request of any creditor, at the first regular term of said court in each year, to levy a tax upon all the property and real and personal estate, situated within the limits of said city or town, as previously incorporated, on the first day of the preceding January, not exempt from taxation under the constitution and laws of this state, sufficient to discharge the indebtedness, but not to exceed the rate allowed by existing law for such purposes in incorporated cities and towns. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1087. County assessor and collector to assess and collect tax; compensation.—Whenever the district court, having jurisdiction in the premises, has heretofore ordered, or may hereafter order, the assessment and collection of taxes for the payment of the indebtedness of such town or city, it shall be the duty of the county tax assessor for the county in which such town or city is situated to assess the taxes so ordered in like manner as taxes in rural school districts; and it shall be the duty of the county tax collector for such county to collect such taxes in like manner as taxes in rural school districts; provided, that this article shall not repeal any part of articles 1081 and 1082. For the services rendered under this article the assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation as for like services for the assessment and collection of taxes in rural school districts; and it shall be the duty of said collector to pay such taxes, when collected, to the receiver of such city or town. [Acts 1905, p. 327. Acts 1909, p. 68.]

Art. 1088. Suits by receiver against delinquent taxpayers.—Suits may be brought by the receiver against delinquents, and a lien shall exist upon all property for such taxes, the same as though the corporate existence of such city or town had never been abolished, and such levy and assessment had been made by its council and assessor. [Acts 1905, p. 327, sec. 4.]

Art. 1089. Compensation of receivers.—Receivers appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the court. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1090. Receivers compensation and costs to be prior claims.—The compensation of the receiver, together with all court costs and expenses, shall constitute a prior claim against such city or town, and shall be first paid out of any money on hand or collected. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1091. Claims paid pro rata according to priority.—In case of taxation, the money collected each year shall be paid pro rata upon all claims according to their priorities, until all claims established and all costs and expenses are fully paid. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1092. Balance turned over to trustees, etc., of public schools.—On final settlement of such receivership, any money or property left on hand shall be turned over to the trustees or other officers in charge of the public free school situated in said city or town for the benefit of such school. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1093. [617e] Public free school management, etc.—Where the public free schools of any such city or town are under the management of trustees appointed or elected by the voters of the city or town, or by the city or town council, at the time its corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, such trustees shall have the management of said schools for the remainder of the term for which they were appointed or elected, subject to the supervision of the commissioners' court, unless such city or town shall sooner become incorporated for school purposes only. [Acts 1895, p. 166.]

Art. 1094. [617f] Collection of municipal or school taxes.—All taxes for municipal or school purposes which shall have been levied at the date of abolishment of such corporation, and which shall have not been paid, shall be collected by the collector of the county in the same manner provided by law for the collection of state and county taxes, and paid into the county treasury; but the portion of such taxes levied for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools of such city or town shall be paid over to the trustees of public free schools of said city or town and applied by them to the purposes for which they were levied.

Art. 1095. [617g] Public buildings of abolished corporations.—When any corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at the time of such abolishment own any public buildings, public parks, public works or other property, and the same shall not have been sold or disposed of as provided in this chapter, the same shall be managed and controlled by the commissioners' court of such county for the purposes to which same were originally used and intended; and, for this purpose, the commissioners' court shall have and exercise, with reference thereto, the powers originally conferred by charter upon the mayor and aldermen of such city.

Art. 1096. [615] [540] Corporation may be abolished, how.—When twenty-five of the qualified voters of any incorporated town or village shall desire the abolishment of such corporation they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such town or village, as in the case of its incorporation; and, if there be a majority of the voters of said corporation, voting at such election in favor of abolishing such corporation, the county judge shall declare the corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners' court; and, from and after the date of such order, the said corporation shall cease to exist; provided, nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to repeal or otherwise affect any laws now upon the statutes of this state providing for the incorporation of towns and villages for school purposes; said towns and villages having not less than two hundred inhabitants. [Acts 1897, p. 194.]

[618] [542] Appointment of commissioners and terms of office.—The governor of the state of Texas is hereby authorized to name, appoint, and commission one or more persons in each or any of the other states of the United States, the District of Columbia, or in each or any of the territories of the United States, or in each or any foreign country, upon the recommendation of the executive authority of said states, District of Columbia, or territories or foreign country, as he may deem expedient, which commissioners shall hold office for two years or until their successors are qualified, and shall have authority to take the acknowledgements and proofs of the execution of any deed, mortgage, or other conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and also to take the privy examination, acknowledgement and declaration of married women as to all such instruments when executed by them. [Acts of 1885, p. 98.]

Art. 1098. [619] [543] Oath of commissioner.—Every commissioner, appointed as aforesaid, before he shall proceed to perform any duty under and by virtue of this title, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, before the clerk of any court of record in the city or county in which such commissioner may reside, well and faithfully to execute and perform all the duties of such commissioner, under and by virtue of this title, or the laws of this state; which oath or affirmation, certified to by the clerk, under his hand and seal of office, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state in this state. [Act May 8, 1846, sec. 4. P. D. 3765.]

Art. 1099. [620] [544] Commissioner may administer oaths or affirmations; their effect.—Every commissioner appointed by virtue of this title shall have full power and authority to administer an oath or affirmation to any person who shall be willing and desirous to make such oath or affirmation before him; and such oath or affirmation, made before such commissioner, shall be, and is hereby declared to be, as good and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if taken by any officer in this state competent to take the same. [Id. sec. 3. P. D. 3764.]

Art. 1100. [621] [545] Acknowledgments thus taken; their force.—Any contract, letter of attorney, or other writing, to be used or recorded in this state, and such acknowledgment or proof taken or made in the manner directed by the laws of this state, and certified by any one of said commissioners, before whom the same shall be taken or made, under his seal—which certificate shall be indorsed on, or annexed to, said deed or instrument aforesaid—shall have the same effect, and be as good and valid in law for all purposes, as if the same had been made or taken as now required by law. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 3763.]

Art. 1101. [622] [546] Commissioners to take depositions.—Every commissioner appointed under this title shall have power and authority to take depositions under a commission issued to him according to law, from any court in this state, to be used as evidence in any cause pending in a court of the same, when returned as prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 3766.]

Art. 1102. [623] [547] Commissioners' seal.—Every commissioner under this title shall provide for himself a seal with a star of five points in the center, and the words, "Commissioner of the State of Texas," engraved thereon, which seal shall be used to certify all the official acts of such commissioner; and, without the impress of said seal upon any instrument, or to certify any act of such commissioner, said act shall have no validity in this state. [Act. Dec. 31, 1861, p. 21, sec. 5. P. D. 3771.]

Article 1103. [624] [548] Conveyances must be in writing, signed and delivered.—No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than one year, in lands and tenements, shall be conveyed from one to another, unless the conveyance be declared by an instrument in writing, subscribed and delivered by the party disposing of the same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. [Act. Feb. 5, 1830. P. D. 997, 3875.]

Art. 1104. [625] [549] Purchaser or creditor, without notice, not to be affected.—A conveyance, such as is described in the preceding article, shall not be good and effectual against a purchaser in good faith, without notice thereof and for a valuable consideration, nor against any creditor, unless such conveyance be acknowledged by the party who shall have signed or delivered it, or proved, in the manner required by law, and before some officer authorized by law to take such acknowledgement or proof, and be filed for record with the clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated. [Id. P. D. 997.]

Art. 1105. [626] [550] Conveyance of the greater estate passes the less.—All alienations of real estate, made by any person purporting to pass or assure a greater right or estate than such person may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as alienations of so much of the right and estate in such lands, tenements or hereditaments as such person might lawfully convey; but shall not pass or bar the residue of said right or estate purporting to be conveyed or assured; nor shall the alienation of any particular estate on which any remainder may depend, whether such alienation be by deed or will, nor shall the union of such particular estate with the inheritance by purchase or by descent, so operate as to defeat, impair or in any wise affect such remainder. [Id. P. D. 998.]

Art. 1106. [627] [551] An estate deemed a fee simple, when.—Every estate in lands which shall hereafter be granted, conveyed or devised to one, although other words heretofore necessary at common law to transfer an estate in fee simple be not added, shall be deemed a fee simple, if a less estate be not limited by express words or do not appear to have been granted, conveyed or devised by construction or operation of law. [Id. P. D. 999.]

Art. 1107. [628] [552] Form of conveyance.—The following form, or the same in substance, shall be sufficient as a conveyance of the fee simple of any real estate with a covenant of general warranty, viz.:

“The state of Texas,

“County of _____,

“Know all men by these presents, That I, _____, of the _____ [give name of city, town or county], in the state aforesaid, for and in consideration of _____ dollars, to me in hand paid by _____, have granted, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do grant, sell and convey unto the said _____, of the [give name of city, town or county], in the state of ———, all that certain [describe the premises]. To have and to hold the above described premises, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances thereto in any wise belonging, unto the said ———, his heirs or assigns forever. And I do hereby bind myself, my heirs, executors and administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the said ———, his heirs and assigns, against every person whomsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof.

“Witness my hand, this ——— day of ———, A. D. 19—.

“Signed and delivered in the presence of ———.”

[Id. P. D. 1000.]

Art. 1108. [629] [553] Other forms and clauses valid.—No person shall be obliged to insert the covenant of warranty, or be restrained from inserting any clause or clauses in conveyances hereafter to be made, that may be deemed proper and advisable by the purchaser and seller; and other forms not contravening the laws of the land shall not be invalidated. [Id. P. D. 1000.]

Art. 1109. [630] [554] Must be witnessed or acknowledged.—Every deed or conveyance of real estate must be signed or acknowledged by the grantor in the presence of at least two credible subscribing witnesses thereto; or must be duly acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and properly certified to by him for registration. [R. S. 1879, 554.]

Art. 1110. [631] [555] Conveyance by sheriff or other officer will pass title, when.—Every conveyance of real estate by a commissioner, sheriff or other officer legally authorized to sell, under or by virtue of a decree or judgment of any court within this state, shall be good and effectual to pass the absolute title to such real estate to the purchaser thereof; but nothing herein shall be construed to affect the right, title or interest of any person or persons other than the parties to such conveyance, decree or judgment, and those claiming under them. [Id.]

Art. 1111. [632] [556] Estates in futuro.—An estate or freehold or inheritance may be made to commence in futuro, by deed or conveyance, in like manner as by will. [Id. P. D. 1002.]

Art. 1112. [633] [557] Implied covenants.—From the use of the word “grant” or “convey,” in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.
2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance.

Art. 1113. [634] [558] Incumbrances include what.—The term “incumbrances” includes taxes, assessments and all liens upon real property.

Art. 1114. [635] [559] Conveyance of separate lands of the wife, how made.—The husband and wife shall join in the conveyance of real estate, the separate property of the wife; and no such conveyance shall take effect until the same shall have been acknowledged by her privily and apart from her husband before some officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments to deeds for the purpose of being recorded, and certified to in the mode pointed out in articles 6802 and 6805. [Acts 1897, p. 41.]

Art. 1115. [636] [560] Conveyance of homestead, how made.—The homestead of the family shall not be sold and conveyed by the owner, if a married man, without the consent of the wife. Such consent shall be evidenced by the wife joining in the conveyance, and signing her name thereto, and by her separate acknowledgment thereof taken and certified to before the proper officer, and in the mode pointed out in articles 6802 and 6805. [Id.]

Art. 1116. [637] [561] Failing as a conveyance, shall be valid as a contract.—When an instrument in writing, which was intended as a conveyance of real estate, or some interest therein, shall fail, either in whole or in part, to take effect as a conveyance by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the same shall nevertheless be valid and effectual as a contract upon which a conveyance may be enforced, as far as the rules of law will permit.

Article 1120. [641] [565] Private corporations may be created.—Private corporations may be created by the voluntary association of three or more persons for the purposes and in the manner hereinafter mentioned. [Acts 1874, p. 120. Acts 1897, p. 188; P. D. 5935.]

Art. 1121. [642] [566] For what purposes corporations may be created.—The purposes for which private corporations may be formed are:

1. The support of public worship.
2. The support of any benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertaking.
3. The support of any literary and scientific undertaking; the maintenance of a library or promotion of painting, music and other fine arts.
[Note.—For old sec. 3a, see sec. 16.]
4. The encouragement of agriculture and horticulture by associations for the maintenance of public fairs and exhibitions of stock and farm products.
5. The maintenance of a public or private cemetery or crematory.
6. The construction and maintenance of any species of roads and bridges in connection therewith.
7. The construction and maintenance of a bridge which may be used for any or all modes of travel and transportation.
8. The construction and maintenance of a telegraph and telephone line.
9. The establishment and maintenance of a ferry.
10. The establishment and maintenance of a line of stages.
11. The building and navigation of steamboats and vessels and the carriage of persons and property therein.
12. The supply of water to the public.
13. The manufacture and supply of gas, and the supply of light, heat, and electric motor power, or either of them, to the public by any means.
14. The transaction of any manufacturing or mining business, and the purchase and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise used for such business.
15. The transaction of a printing or publishing business, and in connection therewith, the sale of goods, wares, and merchandise of a stationery and blank book manufacturing business.
16. For the establishment and maintenance of oil companies, with authority to contract for the lease and purchase of the right to prospect for, develop, and use, coal and other minerals, and petroleum; also, the right to erect, build and own, all necessary oil tanks, cars, and pipes, necessary for the operation of the business of the same. [Acts 1897, p. 188.]
[Note.—For old sec. 16, see sec. 70.]
17. The erection or repair of any building or improvement, and the accumulation and loaning of money for said purposes, and for the purchase, sale and subdivision of real property in towns, cities and villages, and their suburbs not extending more than two miles beyond their limits and for the accumulation and loaning of money for that purpose. [Acts 1897, p. 189.]
18. The transportation of goods, wares and merchandise, or any valuable thing.
19. The promotion of immigration.
20. The construction and maintenance of sewers.
21. For constructing or acquiring, with power to maintain and operate, street railways and suburban railways and belt lines of railways within and near cities and towns, for the transportation of freight and passengers, with power also to construct, own and operate union depots; and any such company using electricity as the motive power for the operation of its lines shall have the right and authority to supply and sell electric light and power to the public and municipalities; and for the establishment of companies to buy, own, sell and convey right of way upon which to construct railroads; provided, that all street and suburban railways engaged in transporting freight shall be subject to the control of the railroad commission. But no street railway company shall ever be exempted from payment of assessments that may be legally levied or charged against it for street improvement. Any corporation heretofore organized under the general laws of this state, and which now owns or operates with electric power any street or suburban railway within the state, shall be, and the same hereby is, authorized to supply and sell electric light and power to the public or municipalities, and to acquire or otherwise provide the necessary appliances therefor, and may, by proceeding in the manner provided by existing laws, amend its articles of incorporation so as to expressly include such authority. [Acts 1897, p. 189. Acts 1903, p. 62.]

22. The erection and maintenance of market houses and market places.

23. The construction, maintenance and operation of dams, reservoirs, lakes, wells, canals, flumes, laterals, and other necessary appurtenances for the purpose of irrigation, navigation, milling, mining, stock raising and city water works.

24. The purchase and sale of goods, wares and merchandise, and agricultural and farm products.

25. The buying and selling of goods, wares and merchandise of any description, by wholesale or wholesale and retail; provided, that no corporation created under this subdivision shall be chartered with a capital stock of less than twenty thousand dollars; and provided, further, that such wholesale and retail business shall not be conducted apart or in separate establishments.

26. The construction of harbors and canals on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

27. The growing, selling and purchasing of seeds, plants, trees, etc., for agricultural, horticultural and ornamental purposes, and to purchase and lease all lands necessary for that purpose.

28. The construction or purchase and maintenance of mills, gins, cotton compresses, grain elevators, wharves, and public warehouses for the storage of products and commodities, and the purchase, sale and storage of products and commodities by grain elevator and public warehouse companies, and the loan of money by such elevator or public warehouse companies.

29. The accumulation and loan of money; but these subdivisions shall not permit incorporations with banking or discounting privileges.

30. The construction and maintenance of stock yards and pens.

31. The construction and maintenance of establishments for slaughtering, refrigerating, canning, curing, and packing meat, and loaning or advancing money by such establishments on any class of live stock.

32. The construction and maintenance of establishments for the preserving and canning of fruits, vegetables and fish.

33. The establishment and maintenance of clearing houses.

34. To construct and maintain water power.

35. The constructing of railroads and bridges for railroad companies.

36. To support and maintain bicycle clubs, and other innocent sports. [Acts 1897, p. 189.]

37. To act as trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian or receiver, when designated by any person, corporation or court so to do, and to do a general fiduciary and depository business; to act as surety and guarantor of the fidelity of employes, trustees, executors, administrators, guardians or others appointed to or assuming the performance of any trust, public or private, under appointment by any court or tribunal, or under contract between private individuals or corporations; also on any bond or bonds that may be required to be filed in any judicial proceeding; also to guarantee any contract or undertaking between individuals, or between private corporations, or between individuals or private corporations and the state and municipal corporations or counties, or between private corporations and individuals; to act as executor, and testamentary guardian, when designated as such by decedents; or to act as administrator or guardian, when appointed by any court having jurisdiction; provided, that, when any executor's, administrator's, or guardian's bond, or any bond required to be filed in any judicial proceeding, may be signed as surety by any corporation organized by authority of this subdivision, and if such corporation shall be deemed and considered by the officer charged by law with the duty of accepting and approving such bond as sufficient security for the amount of such bond, such bond may be accepted and approved by the officer charged by law with the duty of accepting and approving the same without being signed by other sureties than such corporation; and any statute or law to the contrary, or requiring any such bond to be signed by two or more good and sufficient sureties, shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of this subdivision; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to permit any corporation to go upon any bond of any state or county official in this state; provided, that each corporation organized under this subdivision, shall publish in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where such company is organized, on the first day of February of each year, a statement of its condition on the previous thirty-first day of December, showing under oath its assets and liabilities, that a copy of this statement be filed with the commissioner of insurance and banking, and a fee of twenty-five dollars is paid to that officer for filing the same, and that an examination of its affairs be made at any time by the commissioner of insurance and banking, such examination to be at the expense of the company; provided, the guaranty and fidelity companies organized under the provisions of this subdivision shall have a paid up capital stock of not less than one hundred thousand dollars, and shall keep on deposit with the state treasurer money, bonds, or other securities, in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars, said securities to be approved by the commissioner of insurance and banking, and that this amount to be kept intact at all times. [Act 1897, p. 190. Acts 1903, p. 197.]

38. The establishment of transportation companies; with power to buy, construct, lease, own, operate, maintain and convey all kinds of steamships, vessels and other water crafts, and may navigate the same between all parts of the globe, and upon rivers, and construct, buy, lease, own, maintain, operate and convey warehouses, docks and wharves, and to buy, lease, receive, own, hold, and enjoy real and personal property necessary in the transaction of its business; to receive, purchase, hold, use and convey such rights, privileges, franchises and property, and to exercise beyond the jurisdiction of this state such power as may be granted to or conferred upon it by any foreign government, state or municipality; to have officers and agents, and to maintain offices at all points at which the company may do business; to act as principal or agent in buying or selling merchandise in all foreign countries; to carry passengers, freight, express and mail. [Acts 1897, p. 191.]

39. For the purpose of doing business in any state or foreign country:

(a) The establishment of land companies to buy, own, sell and convey real estate and minerals, and engage in mining, agriculture and stock raising.

(b) Doing a general business in merchandise and manufactures.

(c) The acquisition, construction, maintenance, operating and owning of power and illuminating plants, and systems of every character.

(d) The acquisition, construction, maintenance, operating and owning of urban and other lines of railway and all other kinds of transportation and communication.

(e) The improvement of harbors and rivers, and the acquisition, construction, ownership and operating of canals, irrigation works, wharves and warehouses, and all kinds of machinery, tools and materials used for all the purposes enumerated in this subdivision; provided, that any corporation organized under the provisions of this subdivision shall only own such real estate in this state as may be necessary for its office; provided, further, that, for every charter granted under the provisions of this act which may include more purposes than are contained in any one paragraph of this subdivision, a separate franchise fee or tax shall be paid to the state of Texas for the additional purposes for which such corporation is organized under the various paragraphs of this subdivision. [Acts 1897, p. 191. Acts 1901, p. 70.]

40. The making, compiling and owning of abstracts of titles to lands, and liens of all characters on any property, or any other abstracts of records of this state or any county thereof, required by law.

41. The improvement of rivers and other waterways in this state, and to render the same navigable for steam vessels and other water crafts, with the authority to charge and collect tolls for the navigation of such rivers and waterways.

42. The protection and preservation and propagation of fish, oysters, and game.

43. The organization and maintenance of volunteer fire companies.

44. The protection of women and children and the prevention of cruelty to animals.

45. The erection and maintenance of sanitariums. [Acts 1897, p. 191.]

46. The organization of fire, marine, life and live stock insurance companies; provided, that such live stock insurance companies may be organized with an authorized and paid up capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars; and provided, further, that all insurance companies mentioned in this subdivision shall be in all other respects subject to, and shall comply with, all of the provisions of title 71, of the Revised Statutes of Texas. [Acts 1897, p. 191. Acts 1907, p. 292.]

47. To construct steam and electric plows for breaking, cultivating and draining of lands.

48. The organization of laborers, workingmen, wage earners and farmers to protect themselves in their various pursuits. [Acts 1897, p. 191.]

49. The promoting and taking stock in manufacturing companies or corporations.

50. The organization of mutual fire, or storm, or lightning insurance companies, without an authorized capital; provided, that the members of said mutual fire insurance companies applying for such charters shall be resident citizens of the state of Texas, which fact shall be proven by the affidavit of a credible person accompanying the articles of incorporation when filed with the secretary of state, and such affidavit shall state that the person making the same is cognizant of the facts therein stated; provided, further, that no permit to transact business within this state shall be granted to any mutual fire, or storm, or lightning insurance company without an authorized capital, incorporated under the laws of any other state.

51. The raising, buying and selling of live stock.

52. The establishment and carrying on of dairies and creamery companies. [Id. p. 192.]

53. The construction, maintenance and operation of terminal railways; and any such terminal railway company, in addition to the rights conferred by law upon corporations generally, shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred upon railroad companies by chapters 8 and 9 of title 115 of the Revised Statutes of Texas relating to railroads, including the right to issue bonds in excess of its authorized capital stock; provided, that its stock and bonds shall be issued under the direction of the railroad commission of this state, in accordance with the stock and bond law regulating the issuance of stocks and bonds by railroads; and the commission shall fix the values of the property, rights and franchises of such terminal railway company; and its stocks and bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by the railroad commission of Texas; and jurisdiction over the issuance of the bonds herein authorized is hereby expressly vested in the railroad commission; provided, that no such terminal company shall have the right to charge any railroad company for terminal facilities a greater amount than may be, from time to time, designated and established by the railroad commission, which shall have authority to prescribe such rates and rules for the operation of all such terminal companies as will prevent discrimination by them against any common carrier with respect to either charges or service; provided, further, that the provisions of articles 6656, 6657 and 6658 of the Revised Statutes of Texas shall apply to any and all orders, rulings, judgments and decrees of the railroad commission made, entered or held under the provisions of this subdivision in regard to such terminal railway companies. [Act 1907, p. 300. Act 1905, p. 211; 1897, p. 130.]

54. To build, maintain and operate a line of railroad to mines, gins, quarries, manufacturing plants, breweries and mills, and to condemn land necessary for the right of way for such road, from and between such mine, gin, quarry, manufacturing plant or mill, and the nearest line of railroad; but no corporation created under the provisions of this subdivision shall have the power to condemn private property until said corporation shall declare itself a public highway and common carrier, thus placing said road under the control of the railroad commission of this state.

55. To excavate, maintain and operate drainage ditches, canals, and flumes, and to condemn land necessary for the right of way and machinery plants for such drainage ditches, canals and flumes. [Acts 1897, p. 192.]

[Note.—The legislature skipping a number gave to this subdivision the number 57, and so continued the numbering down to subdivision 65. These numbers have been changed so as to run consecutively.]

56. For the organization of cotton exchanges, chambers of commerce and boards of trade, with power to provide and maintain suitable rooms for the conduct of their business, and to establish and maintain uniformity in the commercial usages of cities and towns, to acquire, preserve and disseminate valuable business information, and to adopt rules, regulations and standards of classification, which shall govern all transactions connected with the cotton trade, and with other commodities where standards and classification are required, and generally to promote the interest of trade and increase the facilities of commercial transactions. [Acts 1899, p. 58.]

57. For the organization of companies for growing and selling of fruits, vegetables and tobacco.

58. For the organization of exchanges, with authority to deal in the stocks of mining companies.

59. For conducting the business of undertaker and embalmer. [Acts 1901, p. 70.]

60. The construction, acquiring, maintaining and operating lines of electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol, or naphtha motor railways, within and between any cities or towns in this state for the transportation of freight or passengers, and may also construct, own and operate union depots; but no electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol or naphtha railways, incorporated under this subdivision, shall ever be exempt from the payment of assessments that may be legally levied or assessed against it for street improvements. Corporations created under this subdivision shall be and are authorized to exercise the right of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring right of way upon which to construct their railway lines and sites for depots and power plants, upon the same conditions and in the same manner as railroad corporations are now required to do under the laws of this State, and shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as are now granted to interurban electric railway companies by chapter 17 of title 115, of the Revised Civil Statutes, and all the powers of whatsoever kind or character conferred by said chapter; provided, no property upon which is located a cemetery shall ever be condemned, unless it shall affirmatively be shown and so found by the court trying in such condemnation suits that it is necessary to take such property, and no other route is possible or practicable; and provided, that the electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol, or naphtha railways, incorporated under provisions of this subdivision which shall engage in transporting freight, shall be subject to the control of the railroad commission. [Acts 1903, p. 204. Acts 1897, p. 130. Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 396.]

61. For the organization of companies for the purpose of growing, preparing for market, and selling rice, with power to construct, maintain, and operate such dams, reservoirs, lakes, wells, canals, flumes, laterals, and other appurtenances as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of irrigating.

62. For the organization of companies for the purpose of growing and selling sugar cane with the right to make and refine sugar, molasses, and all by-products of sugar cane, and to sell the same. [Acts 1905, p. 28.]

63. For the organization of companies for constructing, operating and maintaining causeways, or causeways and bridges, which may be used for any and all modes of travel and transportation, with the right to demand, receive and collect charges as fares or tolls. Any company organized under this subdivision, that shall construct a causeway and bridge of at least one mile in length across any bay or arm of the sea contiguous to a city having not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, within this state, shall have authority to borrow money and issue bonds without being limited in the amount of such issue by the provisions of article 1162. [Acts 1905, p. 87.]

64. For the organization of companies to conduct and carry on a general apiary business, and in connection therewith to manufacture bee hives and bee keepers' supplies, and the purchase and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise used, manufactured and produced in such business. [Acts 1907, p. 11.]

65. For the establishment and maintenance of fishing, hunting and boating clubs; the protection, preservation and propagation of fish and game; the purchase and ownership of such lands and bodies of water as may be desirable in connection therewith; the erection of suitable improvements thereon; and the raising of such live stock for profit only as the preserves of such club will maintain; provided, also, that fishing and hunting clubs heretofore chartered in this state, may amend their charters and take advantage of this law by complying with existing regulations for the amendment to charters of private corporations.

66. The auditing of books, accounts and transactions of persons, firms or corporations, private, public or municipal.

67. To construct, purchase, maintain and operate warehouses at one or more places in the state for the storage of products of the soil, with authority to issue negotiable receipts therefor. Any corporation organized under this subdivision, shall, by provision of its charter, or by amendment thereof, limit the amount of its capital stock that may be owned or controlled directly or indirectly by one stockholder, and the number of votes that may be cast in any stockholders' meeting by one stockholder to not exceeding one thousand dollars of its capital stock.

68. To manufacture and sell denatured alcohol and its by-products. Any corporation organized under this subdivision may, by provision in its charter, or by amendment thereof, limit the amount of its capital stock that may be owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one stockholder, and the number of votes that may be cast in any stockholders' meeting by one stockholder.

69. To guarantee titles to lands and indemnify the holders thereof against losses by reason of defects in titles. [Acts 1907, p. 291.]

70. The establishment, maintenance, erection or repair of a hotel, office building, opera and play house, apartment house, or steam laundry. [Acts 1897, p. 189.]

71. For the purpose of guaranteeing and assuring the validity of bills of lading and other contracts.

72. Private corporations may be created for, or after being created, may be so amended as to include two or more of the following purposes, namely: The construction or purchase and maintenance of mills and gins; the manufacture and supply to the public, by any means, of ice, gas, light, heat, water and electric motor power, or either, in connection with such mills and gins, or either, the harvesting of grain, or the harvesting and threshing of grain; provided, that the authorized capital stock of all incorporations, authorized by this subdivision shall not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. [Acts 1903, p. 227.]

73. A private corporation may be created for or after being created may so amend its charter as to include two or more of the following purposes, namely: The supply of water to the public, the manufacture and supply of ice, gas, electric light and motor power, or either of them, to the public; and the manufacture, supply and sale of carbonated water and the operation of cotton seed oil mills or cotton compresses; provided, that private corporations including more than one of the purposes mentioned in this subdivision in their charters, shall each pay the franchise tax as provided by law for each of the purposes included in their respective charters; and provided, further, that the authorized capital stock of incorporations authorized by this subdivision shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to cities of over ten thousand inhabitants. [Acts 1907, p. 291, sec. 2, and Id. p. 294.]

74. Corporations may be formed and chartered for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, drains and ditches outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns in any county in the state of Texas. [Acts 1897, p. 109. Acts 1893, p. 109; 1891, p. 161; 1888, S. S. p. 1; 1887, p. 40; 1885, p. 59.]

Art. 1122. [643] [567] Charter and what it must set forth.—A charter must be prepared setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is formed.
3. The place or places where its business is to be transacted.
4. The term for which it is to exist.
5. The number of its directors or trustees, and the names and residences of those who are appointees for the first year.

6. The amount of its capital stock, if any, and the number of shares into which it is divided.

7. The charter of a bridge or ferry company shall also state the stream intended to be crossed by the bridge or ferry.

8. The charter of a road company shall also state: First, the kind of a road intended to be constructed; second, the places from and to which the road is intended to be run; third, the counties through which it is intended to be run; fourth, the estimated length of the road. [P. D. 5937.]

Art. 1123. [644] [568] Charter must be subscribed and acknowledged.—The charter of an intended corporation must be subscribed by three or more persons, two of whom at least must be citizens of this state, and must be acknowledged by them before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds; provided, that all charters for the purposes named in clauses two and three of article 1121 of this chapter and title may be subscribed by married women, who may also be stockholders, officers and directors thereof; and their acts, contracts and deeds shall be as binding and effective for all the purposes of said corporation as if they were males; and the joinder and consent of their husbands and privy examinations separate and apart from them shall not be required. [Acts of 1887, p. 103.]

Art. 1124. [679] [603] Business firm shall give notice of intention to incorporate.—Whenever any banking, mercantile or other business firm desires to become incorporated without a change of the firm name, such firm shall, in addition to the notice of dissolution required at common law, give notice of such intention to become incorporated, for at least four successive weeks, in some newspaper published at the seat of state government, and in the county in which such firm has its principal business office, if there be a newspaper in such county, and, if not, then in some newspaper published in some adjoining county; and until such notice shall have been so published for the full period above named, no change shall take place in the liability of such firm or the members thereof.

Art. 1125. Private corporations for profit must subscribe full amount of stock and pay fifty per cent of same, before being chartered.—The stockholders of all private corporations created for profit with an authorized capital stock under the provisions of this chapter, shall be required, in good faith, to subscribe the full amount of its authorized capital stock, and to pay fifty per cent thereof before said corporation shall be chartered. [Acts 1901, p. 18. Acts 1897, p. 192. Acts 1907, p. 309, sec. 1.]

Art. 1126. Secretary of state to receive, file and record charter, on satisfactory evidence of compliance, and payment of fees and franchise tax.—Whenever the stockholders of any such company shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the secretary of state that the full amount of the authorized capital stock has in good faith been subscribed, and fifty per cent thereof paid in cash, or its equivalent in other property or labor done, the product of which shall be to the company of the actual value at which it was taken, or property actually received, it shall be the duty of said officer, on payment of office fees and franchise tax due, to receive, file and record the charter of such company in his office, and to give his certificate showing the record thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1127. Satisfactory evidence defined.—Satisfactory evidence above mentioned shall consist of the affidavit of those who executed the charter, stating therein:

1. The name, residence and postoffice address of each subscriber to the capital stock of such company.
2. The amount subscribed by each, and the amount paid by each.
3. The cash value of any property received, giving its description, location and from whom and the price at which it was received.
4. The amount, character and value of labor done, from whom, and price at which it was received. [Id.]

Art. 1128. Secretary of state may require other evidence.—If the secretary of state is not satisfied, he may, at the expense of the incorporators, require other and more satisfactory evidence before he shall be required to receive, file and record said charter. [Id.]

Art. 1129. Certain corporations exempt from provisions.—Corporations created under subdivisions 21, 29, 37, 53, 54 and 60 of article 1121, as well as corporations formed for the construction, purchase and maintenance of mills and gins, having a capital stock of not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars, mutual building and loan associations, and also waterworks, ice plants, electric light plants and cotton warehouses in cities of less than ten thousand inhabitants are exempt from the provisions of articles 1125 to 1128, inclusive. [Id.]

Art. 1130. Subscriptions and payment of stock required of excepted corporations.—The stockholders of all private corporations such as are designated in the last preceding article, created for profit and with an authorized capital stock under the provisions of this chapter shall be required to pay in at least one hundred thousand dollars in cash of their authorized capital stock, or to subscribe at least fifty per cent, and pay in at least ten per cent of their authorized capital before they shall be authorized to do business in this state; and whenever the stockholders of any such company shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the secretary of state that at least one hundred thousand dollars of its authorized capital stock has been paid in, in cash, or that at least fifty per cent of its authorized capital has been subscribed and ten per cent paid in, it shall be the duty of said officer to receive, file and record the charter of such company in the office of the secretary of state, upon application and the payment of all fees therefor, and to give his certificate showing the record of such charter and authority to do business thereunder. [Acts 1901, p. 18, sec. 1; modified by Act 1907, p. 309.]

Art. 1131. [645] [569] Must be filed with secretary of state, etc.—Such charter shall thereupon be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who shall record the same at length in a book to be kept for that purpose, and retain the original on file in his office. A copy of the charter, or of the record thereof, certified under the great seal of the state, shall be evidence of the creation of the corporation. [Act April 23, 1874, sec. 9. P. D. 5940.]

Art. 1132. [646] [570] Corporation shall exist from time of filing charter, etc.—The existence of the corporation shall date from the filing of the charter in the office of the secretary of state, and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be evidence of such filing. [Id. sec. 10. P. D. 5941.]

Art. 1133. [647] [571] Charter may be amended, how.—Any private corporation heretofore organized or incorporated, or which may hereafter be organized or incorporated, for any of the purposes mentioned in this chapter may amend or change its charter or act of incorporation by filing, authenticated in the manner required by this chapter as to an original charter of incorporation, such amendments or changes with the secretary of state; and, in case of a corporation, created by special act of the legislature, said corporation shall cause the amendments or changes to its charter to be authenticated as required in the case of an original charter of incorporation, and filed with the secretary of state, together with the original charter of such company, and such amendments thereto, or changes therein, if any, as have been made by special act of the legislature; and the same shall be recorded by the secretary of state, followed by the proposed amendments or changes thereof. [Id. sec. 10. P. D. 6011b.]

Art. 1134. [648] [572] When amendments shall take effect.—The amendments or changes provided for in the preceding article shall take effect and be in force, from the date of the filing thereof with the secretary of state; and the certificate of the secretary of state shall be evidence of such filing. [Id.]

Art. 1135. [649] [573] Amendments, what void and what valid.—No amendment or change violative of the constitution or laws of this state or any of the provisions of this title shall be of any force or effect; amendments or changes may include additional purpose for which private corporations may be incorporated to that contained in its original or amended charter, as are specified in subdivision 72 of article 1121; but such amendments which so change the original purpose of such corporation as to prevent the execution thereof shall be of no force or effect. [Acts 1903, p. 227.]

Art. 1136. Renewal of charter of certain benevolent, etc., corporations, how.—Any private corporation created either by special act of the legislature or under the provisions of the general law for the support of any benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertaking, the support of any literary or scientific undertaking, the maintenance of a library, or the promotion of painting, music or other fine arts, whose charter may expire or may have expired by limitation, may revive such charter, with all the privileges and immunities and rights of property, real and personal, exercised and held by it at the date of the expiration of its said charter, by filing, with the consent of a majority of its stockholders, a new charter under the provisions of the general law of the state of Texas, reciting therein such original privileges and immunities and rights of property, and by filing therewith a certified copy of such original expired charter. [Acts 1907, p. 301. Acts 1909, p. 226.]

Art. 1137. Renewal and consolidation of two or more such corporations, etc., how.—Any two or more of such corporations may revive and consolidate their charters under a new corporate name, or under the name of either, with all privileges, immunities and rights of property, real and personal, enjoyed by each at the date of the expiration of their several charters, by, in like manner, filing a charter, which shall recite the fact of consolidation, accompanied by certified copies of said original charters; provided, the provision thereof shall not be construed to relieve any corporation from the payment of occupation taxes, now or hereafter required by law. [Id.]

Art. 1138. [675] [599] Existence of corporation shall not be disputed collaterally.—No person who assumes an obligation to an ostensible corporation, as such, shall resist the enforcement of such obligation, on the ground that there was in fact no such corporation, until that fact shall have been adjudged in a direct proceeding had for the purpose.

Art. 1139. [650] [574] Legislature may alter, reform or amend.—All charters or amendments to charters, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the power of the legislature to alter, reform or amend the same. [Acts April 23, 1874, sec. 9.]

Article 1140. [651] [575] General powers of corporations.—Every private corporation, as such, has power:

1. To have succession by its corporate name for the period limited in its charter, not to exceed fifty years, and when no period is limited, for twenty years.

2. To maintain and defend judicial proceedings.

3. To make and use a common seal.

4. To purchase, hold, sell, mortgage or otherwise convey such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, and also to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal, or mixed, as shall be requisite for such corporation to acquire in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability due, or belonging to, the corporation.

5. To appoint and remove such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require, and to allow them a suitable compensation.

6. To make by-laws not inconsistent with existing laws for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs and the transfer of its stock.

7. To enter into any obligation or contract essential to the transaction of its authorized business.

8. To increase or diminish by a vote of its stockholders, cast as its by-laws may direct, the number of its directors or trustees, to be not less than three nor more than twenty-one; provided, that any corporation formed under subdivisions 1, 2 and 3, article 1121, may increase the number of its directors or trustees to not more than twenty-five. [Id. Acts 1907, p. 301. Acts 1909, p. 225. P. D. 5942.]

Art. 1141 Unpaid stock payable when; proof of payment.—The stockholders of all corporations chartered as provided in articles 1125 to 1128, inclusive, as modified by article 1129, shall, within two years from the date of the filing of such charter by the secretary of state, pay in the unpaid portion of the capital stock of such company; proof of which shall, within said time, be made to the secretary of state, in the manner provided in articles 1126 to 1128, inclusive, for the filing of charter. [Acts 1907, p. 309, sec. 2.]

Art. 1142. On default of payment, secretary of state to forfeit charter, how.—In case of the failure to pay the unpaid portion of capital stock, and to make proof thereof to the secretary of state within two years from the date of the filing of the charter, the charter of such company shall, because thereof, become forfeited; which forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the secretary of state entering upon the margin of the ledger kept in his office relating to such corporations the word "forfeited," giving the date and reason therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1143. Notification of forfeiture; record of same; relief from forfeiture within six months, conditions of, etc.; revival.—The secretary of state shall notify such corporation by mailing to the postoffice named as its principal place of business, or to any other place of business of such corporation, addressed in its corporate name, a written or printed statement of the date and fact of such forfeiture; a record of the date and fact of such notice must be kept by such officer; provided, that the stockholders of any such corporation whose charter has been forfeited as above provided who shall, within six months from the date of such forfeiture, and not thereafter, pay in full the unpaid capital stock of such company and furnish to the secretary of state proof of such fact as required herein, and, in addition, shall pay the secretary of state, as fees belonging to his office, the sum of five dollars per month for each month and fractional part thereof between the date of forfeiture and settlement, the company shall be relieved from such forfeiture; and said officer shall write on the margin of said ledger the word "revived," giving the date thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1144. On failure to revive, affairs of corporation wound up; provided right to avoid forfeiture within two years, but no prejudice to creditor.—If the stockholders should fail to cause the charter powers of said corporation to be revived, as just provided, then, and in such event, the affairs of such company shall be administered and wound up as on dissolution; provided, however, the stockholders of any such company shall have the right, at any time within the two years given, to make payment of the unpaid portion of the capital stock, to reduce the same so that by reduction, or reduction and payment, the full amount of the capital stock authorized by such reduction shall be paid, and thus avoid a forfeiture of the charter; but no creditor of said company shall in any wise be prejudiced by such reduction of its capital stock in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against such company or any stockholder or officer thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1145. [652] [576] May increase its capital stock, how.—A corporation may increase its authorized capital by a two-thirds vote of all its stock; provided, that no stock shall be issued except for money paid, labor done or property actually received. And when such vote is given in favor of the increase, the same may be done by the board of directors, trustees, or managing board, of such corporation; and, upon such increase of stock being made in accordance with the above provisions and certified to the secretary of state by the directors, together with satisfactory proof, which shall be the affidavit of the directors showing that the full amount of the increase has been in good faith subscribed, and fifty per cent thereof paid, and in other respects conforming to the proof required as an original application for charter, or showing that such portion thereof has been subscribed or subscribed and paid, as is required for the corporation, thus increasing its stock, and, if the secretary of state is satisfied that the increase of stock has been made in accordance with law and that the requirements of law have been complied with as to the subscription and payment of stock and in other respects, as on an original application for charter, he shall file such certificate of increase; and thereupon the same shall become a part of the capital stock of such corporation. Such certificate shall be filed and recorded in the same manner as the charter. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1146. Watering stock prohibited; forfeiture for violation.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in the state, shall issue any stock whatever, except for money paid, labor done, which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received, reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the company. Any corporation which violates the provisions of this article shall, on proof thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, as the case may be, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from or by virtue of the laws of this state. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1147. Watered stock and bonds not for money, etc., quo warranto suit to cancel.—Where any corporation has issued and has outstanding any stocks or bonds, given or issued for any purpose, other than money paid to, labor done for, or property actually received by the corporation, it shall be the duty of the attorney general of this state, when convinced that the facts exist which authorize the action, to institute quo warranto or other appropriate judicial proceedings in some court of competent jurisdiction in Travis county, or in any other county of this state where such corporation may be sued, to have any such stocks or bonds issued in violation of the constitution and statutes of this state, canceled, expunged and held for naught; and, within the meaning of the above, is included any bond or stock given in renewal, or in lieu of any originally issued, for purposes other than those mentioned above, also any issued by any corporation with which the corporation originally issuing any such stock or bonds has merged or been consolidated and given by said issuing corporation, in the place of those originally issued for purposes other than as mentioned above. [Acts 1907, p. 342, sec. 3.]

Art. 1148. Suit may be dismissed or not brought under what conditions.—If any suit authorized under article 1147 has been instituted, the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant, or if not instituted, no action shall be brought, if the defendant corporation shall surrender, or cause to be surrendered, to the court or to the railroad commission of Texas, for destruction, all such illegal stocks complained of, and also the illegal bonds complained of, with proper and legal releases thereof, suitably executed for record, with such other written evidences and documents as may be necessary to show that such stocks or bonds are no longer outstanding against the corporation. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1149. Remedies cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by the last two articles are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this state for the enforcement, payment, or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1150. [652a] Increase in certain cases validated.—That in all cases where the amount of the capital stock of any corporation has heretofore been increased by more than one increase thereof to an amount in excess of double the amount of the original capital, and such increase has been made with the sanction of the secretary of state, under his construction of the law, such increase shall be, and the same is hereby, validated and declared legal. [Acts 1893, p. 123.]

Art. 1151. Unpaid increase of stock payable when; forfeiture for default.—In case of failure by the stockholders to pay the unpaid portion of an increase of stock within two years from the date of the filing of the certificate of increase in the office of the secretary of state, the charter of such company shall be forfeited; and the provisions of article 1145 of this chapter shall govern the same, as in case of an original creation of a corporation. [Acts 1907, p. 311, sec. 3.]

Art. 1152. May decrease stock, how.—A corporation may decrease its capital stock by such amount as its stockholders may decide by a two-thirds vote of all its outstanding stock, in like manner as is required for an increase as above provided; but no such decrease shall prejudice the rights of any creditor of such corporation in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against the company, or any stockholder or director thereof; nor shall such decrease become effective until full proof is made by affidavit of the directors to the secretary of state of the financial condition of such corporation, giving therein all its assets and liabilities, with names and postoffice addresses of all creditors and amount due each; and the secretary of state may require, as a condition precedent to the filing of such certificate of decrease, that the debts of such corporation be paid or reduced. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1153. [665] [579] Quorum of directors and annual elections.—A majority of the directors or trustees shall constitute a quorum, and be competent to fill vacancies in the board, and to transact all business of the corporation. An annual election shall be held for directors or trustees, at such time and place as the by-laws of the corporation may require. [Id. sec. 15. P. D. 5946.]

Art. 1154. [656] [580] President and secretary to be chosen.—The directors or trustees shall choose one of their number president, and shall appoint a secretary and treasurer and such other officers as they may deem necessary for the corporation. [Id. sec. 16. P. D. 5947.]

Art. 1155. [657] [581] By-laws may be adopted, altered, etc.—The directors or trustees may adopt by-laws for the government of the corporation: but such by-laws may be altered, changed or amended by a majority vote of the stockholders at any election or special meeting ordered for that purpose by the directors or trustees, on a written application of a majority of the stockholders or members. [Id. sec. 17. P. D. 5948.]

Art. 1156. [658] [582] May increase number of directors or trustees.—All corporations heretofore created, and now in existence, under any law of this state, are hereby authorized to increase the number of directors or trustees of any such corporation. [Id. sec. 18. P. D. 5949.]

Art. 1157. [659] [583] Failure to elect directors shall not dissolve, etc.—In case it should happen that an election for directors or trustees should not be held on the day appointed by the by-laws of any corporation, such corporation shall not, for that reason, be deemed to be dissolved; but it shall be lawful on any other day to hold a meeting and elect its directors or trustees, in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws thereof. [Id. sec. 19. P. D. 5950.]

Art. 1158. [660] [584] Trustees to be elected to control religious corporation.—The secular affairs of a religious corporation shall be under the control of a board of trustees, to be elected by the members of such corporation; and the title to all property of any such corporation shall vest in such trustees. [Id. sec. 20. P. D. 5951.]

Art. 1159. [661] [585] Directors shall have general management, etc.—The directors or trustees shall have the general management of the affairs of the corporation, and may dispose of the residue of the capital stock, at any time remaining unsubscribed, in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe. [Id. sec. 21. P. D. 5952.]

Art. 1160. [662] [586] Directors shall cause record to be kept, etc.—They shall cause a record to be kept of all stock subscribed and transferred, and of all business transactions; and their books and records shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any and every stockholder. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 1161. [663] [587] Shall report to stockholders and make dividends.—They shall, also, when required by one-third of the stockholders thereof, present reports in writing of the situation and amount of business of the corporation, and declare and make such dividends of the profits from the business of the corporation as they shall deem expedient, or as the by-laws may prescribe. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 1162. [653] [577] May borrow money.—Corporations shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the corporation, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, and may execute bonds or promissory notes therefor, and may pledge the property and income of the corporation. [Acts 1883, p. 98, sec. 13. P. D. 5944.]

Art. 1163. [664] [588] Existing corporations may accept provisions of this title, etc.—Any corporation heretofore organized, and now in existence, under any general or special law of the republic or state of Texas, may, by a vote of its board of directors, accept any or all of the provisions of this title, and have and exercise all of the rights, power and privileges conferred by this title, by filing a copy of their acceptance with the secretary of state; whereupon, that portion of its charter inconsistent with this title, or the portion accepted, shall cease to be applicable to such corporation; and it shall have the exclusive right to carry out the objects of said corporation, as described in its act of incorporation, or certificate, filed with the secretary of state, if acting under a general law within the limits or boundaries described in said act of incorporation, or certificate, as the case may be, without any limitation as to time, and shall possess all the privileges and franchises conferred by its act of incorporation or certificate filed with the secretary of state, not abandoned in the copy of acceptance of any or all the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 22. P. D. 5953.]

Art. 1164. [665] [589] Corporation restricted to objects of its creation.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state, shall employ or use its stock, means, assets, or other property, directly or indirectly, for any other purpose whatever than to accomplish the legitimate objects of its creation or those permitted by law. [Acts 1907, p. 312, sec. 5.]

Art. 1165. [665] [580] Restrictions upon creation of debts.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state, shall create any indebtedness whatever except for money paid, labor done, which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received, reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1166. Contributions to political parties or candidate, etc., by corporation officers, etc., forbidden.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in the state shall, directly or indirectly, contribute or pay any part of its assets, property or funds to any political party, or to any officer or campaign manager of any political party, or to any person whatsoever, for or on account of such party, nor to any candidate for any office, before or after nominations are made, or to aid in defraying the expenses of any candidate for office, or to any person for or on account of aid in defraying the expenses of a candidate for office, or to any person whatsoever, for, or on account of aid in maintaining or defraying the expenses of any campaign or political headquarters, or to any person whatsoever, for or on account of the success or defeat of any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this state, or any subdivision thereof. [Acts 1907, p. 312, sec. 5.]

Art. 1167. Penalty for violation of either of the last three preceding articles.—Any corporation which shall violate any of the provisions of either of the three last preceding articles, shall, on proof thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, as the case may be, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from, or by virtue of, the laws of this state.

Whenever it appears that the money, assets, property, or funds of a corporation have been issued, paid out, or used, in violation of any of the provisions of either of the three last preceding articles, by any agent, attorney, director, or officer of such corporation, it shall be held and considered the act of the corporation, unless, within one year from the date of such violation, it has caused to be entered through its board of directors on its records in this state, an order repudiating the wrong and permanently dismissing from its service all persons directly or indirectly connected with such violation. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1168. [666] [590] Stock of corporation is personal estate.—The stock of any corporation created under this title shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe. [Id. sec. 24. P. D. 5955.]

Art. 1169. [667] [591] Directors may require payment of stock.—The board of directors or trustees of any corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner, and in such installments, as may be required by the by-laws. [Id. sec. 25. P. D. 5956.]

Art. 1170. [668] [592] Stock forfeited, when and how.—If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment, as required by the board of trustees, the directors or trustees may declare his stock and all previous payments forfeited to the use of the company; but no stock shall be forfeited until the directors or trustees have caused a notice in writing to be served on him personally, or by depositing the same in the postoffice, properly directed to him at the postoffice nearest his usual place of residence, stating that he is required to make such payment at the time and place specified in said notice, and that if he fails to make the same his stock and all previous payments thereon will be forfeited for the use of the company; which notice may be served, as aforesaid, at least thirty days previous to the day on which such payment is required to be made. [Id. sec. 26. P. D. 5957.]

Art. 1171. [669] [593] Corporation may sue its own members.—All bodies corporate may sue for, recover and receive from, their respective members all arrears or other debts, dues or other demands which are now, or hereafter may be, owing to them, in like mode, manner and form as they might sue for, recover and receive the same from any person not a member of their body. [Id. sec. 27. P. D. 5958.]

Art. 1172. [674] [598] Misnomer shall not vitiate.—No misnomer of any corporation shall defeat or vitiate any gift, grant, conveyance, devise, or bequest to the same. [P. D. 5965.]

Art. 1173. [676] [600] Corporation may convey lands, how.—Any corporation may convey lands by deed, sealed with the common seal of the corporation, and signed by the president or presiding member or trustee of said corporation, or in common form without seal by its attorney in fact, where the instrument constituting such attorney in fact is executed in said manner first mentioned; and such deed, when acknowledged by such officer or attorney in fact to be the act of the corporation, or proved in the manner prescribed for other conveyances of lands, may be recorded in like manner and with the same effect as other deeds; and all conveyances by corporations heretofore executed in the manner herein set forth shall be held valid so far as regards the manner of execution. [Acts 1905, p. 230. P. D. 5966.]

Art. 1174. [673] [597] Principal office must be kept in state.—Each corporation or joint stock company of every description, whether organized and acting under a special charter or general law of the state, shall keep its principal office within this state. [P. D. 5962.]

Article 1175. Purchase of land, unless necessary to business or to secure debts, prohibited.—No private corporation shall be permitted to purchase any land under the provisions of this chapter, unless the lands so purchased are necessary to enable such corporation to do business in this state, or except where such land is purchased in due course of business, to secure the payment of debt. [Acts 1893, p. 36. Acts 1897, p. 48.]

Art. 1176. [749c] Excess of land over necessary amount to be alienated, when.—All private corporations authorized by the laws of Texas, as provided in article 1121, to do business in this state, whose main purpose is not the acquisition or ownership of lands, as mentioned in the preceding articles, which have, heretofore, or may hereafter, acquire by lease, purchase or otherwise more land than is necessary to enable them to carry on their business, shall, within fifteen years from the time this law takes effect, or the date said land may be hereafter acquired, in good faith, sell and convey in fee simple all lands so acquired, and which are not necessary for the transaction of their business. [Id.]

Art. 1177. [749a] Certain corporations forbidden to acquire lands.—No private corporation heretofore or hereafter chartered or created whose main purpose of business is the acquisition or ownership of land by purchase, lease or otherwise shall hereafter be permitted to acquire any land within this state by purchase, lease or otherwise. [Acts 1893, p. 36.]

Art. 1178. [749b] Lands previously acquired, to be alienated when.—All private corporations whose main purpose or business is the acquisition or ownership, by purchase, lease or otherwise, of lands in this state, shall, within fifteen years from the time this law takes effect, make an actual bona fide sale of all lands, or interest therein acquired, before this law takes effect, and shall, within said fifteen years, by proper deed, convey in good faith all their right and title to said land. And lands acquired by corporations in payment of debts due such corporations shall be sold and conveyed as herein provided, within fifteen years from the date of the acquisition of such land. [Id.]

Art. 1179. Purchase, subdivision and sale of city, etc., lands not prohibited.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the lease, purchase, sale or subdivision of real property within incorporated towns, cities or villages, and their suburbs not extending more than two miles beyond their corporate limits, by corporations whose charters authorize them to lease, purchase, sell and subdivide real estate, within towns, cities and villages, and their suburbs whether their suburbs be stated to be measured from the limits, merely, or the corporate limits, of such towns, cities and villages; and provided, further, that all such corporations now existing, or which may be hereafter created, shall be authorized to lease, sell, or subdivide real property in any unincorporated city, town or village, or the suburbs thereof, within this state; provided, if there be a courthouse in such city, town or village, such lease, sale or subdivision may extend two miles in any direction from such courthouse. If there be a depot or depots, and no courthouse, then the two miles shall be measured from the depot nearest the center of such city, town, or village; and, in case there be neither courthouse nor depot, then the two miles shall be measured from the center of such city, town or village. [Acts 1893, p. 36. Acts 1897, p. 48.]

Art. 1180. [749d] Forfeiture prescribed; duty of attorney general.—All corporations holding lands contrary to the provisions of this law shall hold the same subject to the forfeiture and escheat proceedings; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or other attorney appointed by the governor for that purpose, when he is informed or has reason to believe that any corporation is holding lands in violation of this law, to institute suit in the name of the state of Texas, in the district court of Travis county, or in the district court of any county in Texas where such corporation may have an agent, or in any county where any part of the land may be situated, against such corporation, as is provided in title 51, for the escheat of estates of deceased persons dying without devise thereof and having no heirs. [Acts 1893, p. 36.]

Art. 1181. [749e] Proceeds of such forfeitures to be covered into the treasury.—If it shall be determined upon the trial of said suit that lands are held contrary to this law, the court trying said cause shall enter judgment condemning such lands and ordering them to be sold as under execution. The proceeds of such sale to be applied; first, to the payment of costs of such suit, and balance to be paid into the state treasury, subject to be paid to the stockholders, or persons entitled to receive the same as owners, upon proper proof made within twelve months from date of sale; and if the legal representatives of such corporation fail to claim the said balance of money realized on sale of said land, then it shall escheat absolutely to the state and be applied to the available school fund of the state of Texas. The court trying said cause shall allow the attorney representing the state a reasonable fee, to be taxed as cost in the suit, but in no case shall the state be liable for costs or fees unless it is successful in said suit. [Id.]

Article 1182. Certain corporations to make reports to secretary of state.—Every corporation within this state owning, leasing or operating in this state, in cities or towns of over twenty-five hundred population, according to the last official census of the United States, a street railway, electric lighting or power plant furnishing light or power to the public, gas plant furnishing gas to the public, water plant furnishing water to the public, and sewerage company furnishing sewerage to the public, shall annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, file a report with the secretary of state, upon blank forms to be furnished by the secretary of state, showing the following facts:

1. The authorized capital stock of such corporation, the amount of such stock that has actually been issued, and how much of such stock actually issued is common, and how much preferred, and how much is due upon unpaid stock.

2. The bonded indebtedness of such corporation, and how many bonds have been actually sold, the rate of interest upon such bonds, and when such bonds mature, and the price at which such bonds were sold.

3. Any other fixed lien or mortgage upon such property, and the amount thereof.

4. The floating indebtedness of such corporation, including all bills payable of whatever nature.

5. The value of the visible tangible property of such corporation, giving separate values of lands, machinery, buildings, tracks and equipment, and in gross, all bills receivable and cash on hand.

6. The annual cost of operating such corporation, showing under separate items: (a) amount paid for salaries; (b) amount paid for labor; (c) fixed charges, including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately; (d) amount paid for fuel; (e) amount paid for extensions, repairs and maintenance, giving each separately; (f) amount paid for claims or suits for damages; (g) amount paid for miscellaneous expenses.

7. The annual gross earnings of such corporation, including revenues from every source, showing by separate items amount received by departments, such as amount received for light, amount received for sewerage, for power, water, gas, amount received for street railway fares and tickets. [Acts 1905, p. 40, sec. 1.]

Art. 1183. Same subject.—The corporations mentioned in article 1182 shall also make to the secretary of state, upon blanks to be furnished by him, reports as to the price charged the public for sewerage, gas, water, light, power, and the price charged per passenger upon street railways, and if any such corporations have contracts with cities or towns for furnishing water or light, then, the amount of such charge. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1184. Reports to be under oath, etc.—The reports provided for in articles 1182 and 1183 shall be under oath, and shall be made by any officer of the corporation having knowledge of the facts, or its general manager or superintendent. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1185. Copies of reports to be filed with mayor and with county clerk, recorded, etc.—A true copy of the reports required by the provisions of this chapter, sworn to as provided, shall be filed annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, with the mayor of the city or town where the corporation has its principal place of business; and there shall also be filed at the same time a true copy of said reports with the clerk of the county court of the county in which such corporation has its principal place of business; and the same shall be, by said clerk, delivered to the commissioners' court; and such reports shall be recorded in a properly indexed book, to be kept for that purpose, and open to the inspection of the public at all times. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1186. Penalty.—Any such corporation as described in article 1182, which shall for thirty days wilfully fail or refuse to file the reports in the manner provided by this chapter, shall forfeit and pay to the state one hundred dollars for each and every day during which it shall continue in default; which shall be recovered by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction by the attorney general of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 5.]

BOOKS, RECORDS, ETC.—EXAMINATION OF.

Attorney general, etc., may examine books, etc.	Article. 1187	Domestic corporation to forfeit charter rights for refusal, etc.	Article. 1190
Same subject; not to be made public, etc., except, etc.	1188	Venue of suits in Travis county.	1191
Foreign corporation to forfeit permit for refusal, etc.	1189	Provisions cumulative.	1192

Article 1187. Attorney general, etc., may examine books, etc.—Every corporation doing business in this state by virtue of a permit or charter granted under the laws of this state shall permit the attorney general, or any of his assistants or representatives when authorized in writing by the attorney general, to make examination of all the books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws, and other records of said corporation as often as he may deem it necessary. The attorney general, or his assistant or assistants, or representative or representatives, shall present a request in writing to the president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, manager, agent or other officer of said corporation at the time the attorney general or his assistant or assistants, or representative or representatives, desire to examine said books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws and other records belonging to said corporation; and it shall be the duty of the officer or agent of any corporation to whom said request is presented to immediately permit the attorney general, or his authorized assistant or assistants, or representative or representatives, to inspect and examine all the books, records and other documents of said corporation, as hereinabove set forth. [Acts 1907, p. 34, sec. 1.]

Art. 1188. Same subject; not to be made public, etc.; except, etc.—The attorney general, or any of his assistants or representatives when authorized in writing by the attorney general, shall have the power and authority to make diligent investigation into the organization, conduct and management of any corporation authorized to do business within this state, and shall have power to inspect and examine all or any books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws, and other records of such corporation, and take copies of any or all of such records or documents herein set forth as in his judgment may show or tend to show that said corporation has been or is engaged in acts or conduct in violation of its charter rights and privileges, or in violation of any law of this state; provided, that the attorney general, or his assistant or assistants, or representative or representatives, shall not make public or use said copies or any information derived in the course of said examination of said records or documents as hereinabove set forth, except in the course of some judicial proceedings of which the state is a party, or in a suit by the state to cancel the permit or forfeit the charter of such corporation, or to collect penalties for a violation of the law of this state, or for the information of any of the officers of this state charged with the enforcement of its laws. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1189. Foreign corporation to forfeit permit for refusal, etc.—Any foreign corporation doing business in this state under a permit granted under the laws of this state, or any officer or agent thereof, who shall fail or refuse to permit the attorney general, or his authorized representative or representatives, assistant or assistants, to examine any or all of its books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws and other records of said corporation, whether same be situated within this state or in any other state within the United States, or shall fail or refuse to permit said attorney general or his authorized assistant or assistants, or representative or representatives to take copies of same, as provided for in article 1188, shall thereby forfeit its right to do business in this state; and its permit shall be canceled. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1190. Domestic corporation to forfeit charter rights for refusal, etc.—Any domestic corporation chartered under the laws of this state which shall fail or refuse to permit the attorney general, or any of his authorized assistants or representatives, to examine any or all of its books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws, and other records of said corporation, whether the same be situated within this state or in any other state within the United States, or shall fail or refuse to permit said attorney general, or any of his authorized assistants or representatives, to take copies of same as provided for by article 1188, shall forfeit its charter rights and privileges. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1191. Venue of suits in Travis county.—All suits to forfeit charters of domestic corporations or to cancel the permits of foreign corporations for violating the provisions of this act shall be prosecuted by the attorney general in the district courts of Travis county; and venue of said suits is hereby given to said courts. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1192. Provisions cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative of all other laws now in force in this state, and shall not be construed as repealing any other right, power or means afforded by law for securing testimony or inquiring into the charter rights and privileges of corporations. [Id. sec. 7.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

LIEN OF STATE FOR FINES AND PENALTIES, ETC.

Article.	Article.
State to have lien on property within state for fines, etc., from date of suit to forfeit charter, etc.....1193	Attorney general may bring suit to fore-close lien; service.....1195
Action not to abate by dissolution, etc.; receivership when; writs; lien.....1194	Rights and remedies cumulative.....1196
	No compromise without trial, without consent of attorney general.....1197

Article 1193. State to have lien on property within state for fines, etc., from date of suit to forfeit charter, etc.—Whenever any corporation created under the laws of this state, or any foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state, shall violate any law of this state, including any law against trusts, monopolies and conspiracies, or combinations or contracts in restraint of trade, for the violation of which fines or penalties or forfeitures are provided, all property of such corporation within this state at the time of such violation, or which may thereafter come within this state, shall, by reason of such violation, become liable for such fines or penalties and for all costs of suit and of collection; and the state of Texas shall have a lien on all such property from the date that suit shall be instituted by the attorney general, or district or county attorney acting under his direction, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this state, for the purpose of forfeiting the charter or canceling the permit of such corporation, or for such fines or penalties. The institution of such suit for such fine, penalties or forfeiture shall constitute notice of such lien. Where any such law has heretofore been violated, or shall be violated, before the taking effect of this act, and a cause of action exists for such fine, penalties or forfeiture, or shall come into existence before the taking effect of this act, and suit shall be filed in such case, the state shall have a lien, to secure the payment of such fine, penalties and costs from the time this act shall take effect, on all property of such corporation within this state or which shall thereafter become or be brought within the state. [Acts 1907, p. 175, sec. 1.]

Art. 1194. Action not to abate by dissolution, etc.; receivership when; writs; liens.—Any action or cause of action for any fine, forfeiture or penalty that the state of Texas has, or may have, against any corporation chartered under the laws of this or any other state, territory or nation, shall not abate or become abated by reason of the dissolution of such corporation, whether voluntary or otherwise, or by the forfeiture of its charter or permit. Whenever a corporation against which the state has heretofore instituted suit, or shall hereafter institute suit, for forfeiture of its charter, or cancellation of its permit, or for fines or penalties under any law of this state, shall dissolve in this or any other state, or shall have a judgment rendered against it in this or any other state, for the forfeiture of its charter, the court in this state in which such suit is pending shall appoint a receiver for the property and business of such corporation within this state, or that may come or be brought within this state during such receivership; or the court may, in any case wherein the state is suing any such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter, or of its permit to do business in this state, or for fines or penalties, appoint a receiver for such corporation, whenever the interest of the state may seem to require such action. If such dissolution shall take place or judgment of forfeiture be rendered against such corporation before this act takes effect, the court shall, upon the taking effect of this act, appoint a receiver for the property and business of such corporation in this state; and the state shall have the right to writs of attachment, garnishment, sequestration or injunction, without bond, to aid in the enforcement of its rights created by this act; and all property that may come into the possession of any receiver appointed under the provisions of this act, not otherwise exempt by law, shall be subject to the lien herein created, and for the payment of any such fine or penalty. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1195. Attorney general may bring suit to foreclose lien; service.—The attorney general or any district or county attorney acting under his direction, may bring suit in the name of the state of Texas, for the foreclosure of such lien in the district court of any county in the state of Texas; and, in case the suit for foreclosure should be brought against any corporation which has dissolved or had a judgment for the forfeiture of its charter or the cancellation of its permit rendered against it, pending any suit by the state of Texas against such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter or cancellation of its permit, or for penalties or fines, service may be had upon any person within this state who acted and was acting as agent of any such corporation in this state at the time of such dissolution or forfeiture of charter or cancellation of permit. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1196. Rights and remedies cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by this act shall be construed as cumulative of all other laws in force in this state, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this state for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1197. No compromise without trial without consent of attorney general.—In case any suit should heretofore be brought in any of the courts of this state for the recovery of penalties mentioned in this act, the same shall not be settled or compromised without trial upon the merits thereof, without the consent and approval of the attorney general of the state. [Id. sec. 5.]

LIABILITY OF STOCKHOLDERS AND DIRECTORS.

When and how stockholders may be made liable on execution.....	Article. 1198	Directors liable for debts of corporation, when and to what extent.....	Article. 1200
Secretary shall furnish names, etc., of stockholders to plaintiff.....	1199

Article 1198. [671] [595] When and how stockholders may be made liable on execution.—If any execution shall have been issued against property or effects of a corporation, except a railway or a religious or charitable corporation, and there can not be found any property whereon to levy such execution, then the execution may be issued against any of the stockholders to an extent equal to the amount of the stock unpaid; but no execution shall issue against any stockholder, except upon an order of the court in which the action, suit or other proceeding shall have been brought or instituted, made upon motion in open court, after a reasonable notice in writing to the person or persons sought to be charged; and, upon such motion, such court may order execution to issue accordingly; or the plaintiff in execution may proceed by action to charge the stockholders with the amount of his judgment, in accordance with the liability of the stockholders. [P. D. 5960.]

Art. 1199. [672] [596] Secretary shall furnish names, etc., of stockholders to plaintiff.—The secretary or other officer having charge of the books of any corporation, on demand of the plaintiff in any execution against the corporation, his agent or attorney, shall furnish such plaintiff, his agent or attorney with the names and places of residence of the stockholders as far as known, and the amount of stock held by each, as shown by the books of the corporation. [P. D. 5961.]

Art. 1200. [670] [594] Directors liable for debts of corporation, when and to what extent.—If the directors of any corporation shall knowingly declare and pay any dividend when the corporation is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the corporation then existing, and for all debts of the corporation which thereafter, during the time such directors respectively remain in office, shall be contracted. The amount for which they shall be so liable shall not exceed the amount of such dividend; and if any of the directors shall be absent at the time of declaring the dividend, or shall object thereto, at the time such dividend is declared, and shall file their objections in writing with the secretary or other officer of the corporation having charge of the books, they shall be exempted from said liability. [Acts 1874. p. 120. Acts 1871, 2 S. S., p. 66. Acts 1893, p. 123. P. D. 5959.]

Article 1201. Unlawful for insolvent corporations to do business in state.—It shall be unlawful for any insolvent corporation, domestic or foreign, to do business in this state, or to exercise or retain any franchise or permit or charter granted from or by the state. [Acts 1907, p. 341, sec. 1.]

Art. 1202. Attorney general, etc., to bring quo warranto, etc., to forfeit charter or cancel permit; receiver, etc.—It is hereby made the duty of the attorney general of this state, when convinced that any corporation is insolvent, to institute quo warranto or other appropriate proceedings in some court of competent jurisdiction, either in Travis county or in any other county in which said corporation may be sued, to forfeit its charter, if a domestic corporation, and to cancel its permit, if a foreign corporation.

It shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this state, to bring and prosecute the proceedings mentioned above whenever directed so to do by the attorney general of Texas; and the court trying said cause, after the corporation has been shown to be insolvent, may, in its discretion, appoint a receiver or receivers for said corporation and all its properties, with full power to settle its affairs, collect its outstanding debts and divide the moneys and other properties belonging to said company among the stockholders thereof, after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation, and all expenses incident to the judicial proceedings and receivership; and the court may continue the existence of such corporation for three years, and for such further reasonable time as may be necessary to accomplish the objects and purposes of this act. [Id. sec. 2.]

Suit may be dismissed or not brought on what conditions.—If any suit authorized by this article has been instituted the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant; or, if not instituted, the same shall not be begun, if the defendant corporation, through its stockholders, shall pay off its indebtedness or reduce the same by paying, so that it is relieved of insolvency. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1203. Stockholders or creditors may sue to dissolve when; by leave of court, with notice, etc.—Stockholders of any insolvent corporation who own twenty-five per cent of its stock, or creditors of any such insolvent corporation who own twenty-five per cent of its indebtedness, may institute and prosecute a suit for the dissolution of such corporation; provided, that before any petition is filed by either the attorney general, or under his authority, or by stockholders or creditors, as provided in this chapter, leave therefor shall be first granted by the presiding judge of the court in which the proceeding is to be instituted; and, on presentation of any petition, it shall be the duty of such judge, before granting leave to file the same, to carefully examine the same; and he may also require an examination into the facts; and it shall be made to appear with reasonable certainty from said petition, or from the petition and the facts, as the case may be, that the relief sought should be granted; and it is further provided that any such corporation proceeded against shall have ten full days notice prior to the day set for the hearing, on an application for the appointment of a receiver. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1204. Rights and remedies cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by this chapter are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this state for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties. [Id. sec. 6.]

DISSOLUTION OF PRIVATE CORPORATIONS.

Corporation is dissolved, how.....	Article. 1205	Liability of stockholders to creditors and to each other.....	Article. 1208
Unless receiver appointed, president etc., to be trustees, and close business.....	1206	Stockholder may compel contribution.....	1209
Trustees responsible to creditors, etc., to what extent.....	1207	Only liable for unpaid stock.....	1210
		Members or officers of defunct corporation not to do business under old corporate name, etc.....	1211

Article 1205. [680] [604] Corporation is dissolved, how.—A corporation is dissolved:

1. By expiration of the time limited in its charter.
2. By a judgment of dissolution rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

3. Where four-fifths in interest of all the stock outstanding shall vote in favor of a dissolution at a stockholders' meeting called for that purpose on notice signed by a majority of the directors, stating time, place and object of the meeting, served personally, or by mail, at least thirty days next before the meeting. If, at said meeting, four-fifths in interest of all the stockholders of said company shall signify their consent in writing to the dissolution of the corporation, such consent in writing, together with a list of the directors and officers of the company, giving postoffice address and place of residence of each, certified by the president and secretary and treasurer as true and correct action of the stockholders, shall be filed with the secretary of state; or when, without a stockholders' meeting, all the stockholders of the corporation consent in writing to a dissolution, the same shall be certified to as above and filed with the secretary of state. When any such certificate as above mentioned is filed with the secretary of state, he shall issue a certificate that such consent has been filed and that the corporation is dissolved; and said officer shall so note on the ledger in his office. [Acts 1907, p. 311, sec. 4. P. D. 5968.]

4. A corporation is dissolved whenever, under any special provision of law, its charter is forfeited without judicial ascertainment.

5. Where a corporation created under this title or a general law of this state shall fail to commence active operations within three years after filing its charter with the secretary of state, its charter is hereby forfeited, and the corporation is dissolved. [P. D. 5969.]

6. Whenever a corporation upon proper judicial ascertainment is found to be insolvent.

Art. 1206. Unless receiver appointed, president, etc., to be trustees, and close business.—Upon the dissolution of any corporation, unless a receiver is appointed by some court of competent jurisdiction, the president and directors or managers of the affairs of the corporation at the time of its dissolution, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be trustees of the creditors and stockholders of such corporation, with full power to settle the affairs, collect the outstanding debts, and divide the moneys and other property among the stockholders, after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation at the time of its dissolution, as far as such money and property will enable them after paying all just and reasonable expenses; and to this end, and for this purpose they may, in the name of such corporation, sell, convey and transfer all real and personal property belonging to such company, collect all debts, compromise controversies, maintain or defend judicial proceedings, and to exercise the full power and authority of said company over such assets and properties; and the existence of every corporation may be continued for three years after its dissolution from whatever cause for the purpose of enabling those charged with the duty to settle up its affairs; and, in case a receiver is appointed by a court for this purpose, the existence of such corporation may be continued by the court so long as in its discretion it is necessary to suitably settle up the affairs of such corporation. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1207. [683] [607] Trustees responsible to creditors, etc., to what extent.—The trustees mentioned in the preceding article shall be severally responsible to the creditors and stockholders of such corporation to the extent of its property and effects that shall have come into their hands. [P. D. 5971.]

Art. 1208. [684] [608] Liability of stockholders to creditors and to each other.—If any corporation created under this title or any general statute of this state, except railway, or charitable or religious corporations, be dissolved, leaving debts unpaid, suit may be brought against any person or persons who were stockholders at the time of such dissolution, without joining the corporation in such suit; and if judgment be rendered and execution satisfied, the defendant or defendants may sue all who were stockholders at the time of dissolution for the recovery of the portion of such debt for which they were liable; and the execution upon the judgment shall direct the collection to be made from property of each stockholder respectively; and if any number of stockholders defendants in the case shall not have property enough to satisfy his or their portion of the execution, then the amount of deficiency shall be divided equally among all the remaining stockholders, and collections made accordingly, deducting from the amount a sum in proportion to the amount of stock owned by the plaintiff at the time the company dissolved. [P. D. 5972.]

Art. 1209. [685] [609] Stockholder may compel contribution.—If any stockholder pay more than his due proportion of any debt of the corporation, he may compel contribution from the other stockholders by action. [P. D. 5973.]

Art. 1210. [686] [610] Only liable for unpaid stock.—No stockholder shall be liable to pay debts of the corporation beyond the amount unpaid on his stock. [P. D. 5974.]

Art. 1211. Members or officers of defunct corporation not to do business under old corporate name, etc.—When any charter or permit heretofore or hereafter granted under the laws of the state of Texas to any corporation to do business in said state shall have been forfeited, it shall be unlawful for any persons who were members or officers of said defunct corporation at the time of such forfeiture to do business in Texas under the old corporate name of such corporation, or to use the same or like signs or advertisements which were used by such corporation before such forfeiture. [Acts 1905, p. 335.]

[713] [637] Powers and privileges of.—Any religious society, charitable, benevolent, literary, or social association (other than colleges, universities, academies or seminaries), and also any military or fire company, may, by the consent of a majority of its members, become a body corporate under this title, electing directors or trustees, and performing such other things as are directed in the case of other corporations; and when so organized shall have all the powers and privileges, and be subject to all the restrictions in this title contained, for the objects named in the charter, and shall have the same power to make by-laws for the regulation of their affairs as other corporations. [Acts 1899, p. 236.]

Art. 1213. [713] [637] Directors, etc., not to usurp spiritual functions.—Such directors or trustees shall not usurp or exercise the functions of the officers in charge of the spiritual affairs of any society. [Id.]

Art. 1214. Certain orders may incorporate how.—The grand lodge of Texas, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, the grand Royal Arch chapter of Texas, the grand commandery of Knights Templars of Texas (Masonic); the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Texas, and other like institutions and orders organized for charitable or benevolent purposes may, by the consent of their respective bodies, expressed by a resolution or otherwise, become bodies corporate under this title. [Id.]

Art. 1215. Incorporation of grand body to include what; rights of subordinate bodies.—The incorporation of any such grand body shall include all of its subordinate lodges, or bodies holding warrant or charter under such grand body; and each of such subordinate bodies shall have all the rights of other corporations under and by the name given it in such warrant or charter issued by the grand body to which it is attached, such rights being provided for in the charter of the grand body. [Id.]

Art. 1216. Grand and subordinate bodies may elect their own trustees, etc., other powers.—Such grand bodies and their subordinates may elect their own trustees or directors, or name certain of their officers as such, and perform such other acts and things as are directed or provided by law in the case of other corporations, and shall have full power to make constitutions and by-laws for the government and regulation of their affairs. [Id.]

Art. 1217. May acquire and hold land and personalty necessary for sites, etc., sell, mortgage, etc.—Such institutions or orders, grand and subordinate, as are mentioned or included within this chapter shall have the right to acquire and hold such lands and personalty as may be necessary or convenient for sites upon which to erect buildings for their use and occupancy, and for homes and schools for their widows, orphans or aged or decrepit or indigent members, and to sell or mortgage the same, such conveyances to be executed by the presiding officer, attested by the secretary and the seal; but the power and authority of such subordinate bodies to sell or to mortgage shall be subject to such conditions and prerequisites as may be from time to time prescribed or established by the grand body to which the subordinate is attached. [Id.]

Art. 1218. Subordinate bodies subject to grand, etc.—Such subordinate bodies shall, at all times, be subject to the jurisdiction and control of their respective grand bodies, and subject to have their warrants or charters revoked by such grand body. [Id.]

Art. 1219. On demise of subordinate body property vests in grand body, subject, etc.—Upon the demise of any subordinate body so incorporated, all property and rights existing in such subordinate body shall pass to, and vest in, the grand body to which it was attached, subject to the payment of all debts due by such subordinate body; but the grand body shall never be liable for any sum greater than the actual cash value of the effects of such subordinate actually received by it, or its authority. [Id.]

Art. 1220. Grand body may loan certain funds, take liens on real estate, etc.—Any grand body incorporated under this chapter shall have the right and authority to loan any funds held and owned by it for charitable purposes, for the endowment of any of its institutions or otherwise, and may secure such loans by taking and receiving liens on real estate, or in such other manner as it may elect; and upon sale of any real estate under such lien, such grand body may become the purchaser thereof and hold title thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1221. Grand body may provide in charter, what, etc.—Any grand body incorporating under this chapter may provide in its charter for the expiration of its corporate powers at the end of any given number of years; or it may provide in its charter for its perpetual existence, and by its corporate name have perpetual succession of officers and members. [Id.]

Art. 1222. Rights of grand body now chartered.—Any such grand body or subordinate body now having a valid chartered existence may continue under its present charter, or reincorporate under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1223. Franchise tax not required.—Bodies incorporated under this chapter shall not be subject to, or required to, pay a franchise tax. [Id.]

Art. 1224. [714] [638] Not required to state capital stock in charter.—No religious, literary, social, scientific, industrial, benevolent or other society, association, company, corporation or institution that does not have a capital stock will be required in its charter to make any statement of the amount of capital stock or amount of each share; but such charter, if it contains the other statements therein required, and also an estimate of the value of the goods, chattels, lands, rights and credits owned by the corporation will be sufficient. [P. D. 6001.]

Article 1225. [707] [631] Faculty of, and their powers.—The president, professors or principals shall constitute the faculty in academy, college or university corporations, and shall have power to enforce the rules and regulations enacted by the directors or trustees for the government and discipline of the students, and to suspend and expel offenders, as may be deemed necessary. [P. D. 5994.]

Art. 1226. [708] [632] Directors, etc., may make by-laws, etc.—The directors or trustees named in the charter, as required by this title, of any college, academy, university or other corporation to promote education, and their successors, may make all necessary by-laws, elect and employ officers, provide for filling vacancies, appoint and remove professors, teachers, agents, etc., and fix their compensation, confer degrees, and do and perform any and all necessary acts to carry into effect the objects of the corporation. [P. D. 5995.]

Art. 1227. [709] [633] May procure shops, etc., for manual labor purposes.—Such corporations may procure, to be used as a part of the course of education, shops, tools and machinery, land for agricultural purposes, and necessary buildings for carrying on their mechanical and agricultural operations. [P. D. 5996.]

Art. 1228. [710] [634] May convert property into stock or scholarships.—Any such corporation may convert its property, except when held upon some special trust, into stock or scholarships, and file a certificate of their action, as required in the case of an increase of capital stock of a corporation. Such conversion can only take place by the consent of a majority of the stockholders. [P. D. 5997.]

Art. 1229. [711] [635] Limitation as to debts and liability of directors.—The directors of any such corporation, whose property is held not as stock, but upon trust or devise, donation, gift or subscription, shall not contract debts beyond the means of the corporation. If they do contract debts to a larger amount, they shall be held individually liable for the same, after the means of the corporation are exhausted. [P. D. 5998.]

Art. 1230. [712] [636] May change location, etc.—Any such corporation may, by a vote of three-fourths of the directors, or if the same is owned in shares of stock, then by a vote of three-fourths of the stockholders, change the location and name of the institution, and transfer the effects thereof to where removed, or may apply the property thereof to other purposes of education than those named in the original charter filed with the secretary of state. [P. D. 5999.]

May enter upon lands, etc.	1232	Cities, etc., may direct as to posts, etc.	1235
One company can not contract to exclude another	1233	Manner of consolidating with another company	1236

Article 1231. [698] [622] May set poles, etc., across public roads.—Corporations created for the purpose of constructing and maintaining magnetic telegraph lines are authorized to set their poles, piers, abutments, wires and other fixtures along, upon and across any of the public roads, streets and waters of this state, in such manner as not to incommode the public in the use of such road, streets and waters. [P. D. 5984.]

Art. 1232. [699] [623] May enter upon lands, etc.—Such companies are also authorized to enter upon any lands, whether owned by private persons in fee or in any less estate, or by any corporation, whether acquired by purchase or by virtue of any provision in the charter of such corporation, for the purpose of making preliminary surveys and examinations with a view to the erection of any telegraph lines, and from time to time to appropriate so much of said lands as may be necessary to erect such poles, piers, abutments, wires and other necessary fixtures for a magnetic telegraph, and to make such changes of location of any part of said lines as may from time to time be deemed necessary, and shall have a right of access to construct said line, and, when erected, from time to time as may be required, to repair the same, and may proceed to obtain the right of way and to condemn lands for the use of the corporation in the manner provided by law in the case of railway corporations. [Acts 1873, p. 123. P. D. 5985.]

Art. 1233. [700] [624] One company cannot contract to exclude another.—No corporation shall have power to contract with any owner of land for the right to erect and maintain a telegraph line over his lands to the exclusion of the lines of other companies. [P. D. 5986.]

Art. 1234. [701] [625] Company may own line in or out of state, and may join with other company.—Any corporation created as herein provided may contract, own, use and maintain any line or lines of telegraph, whether wholly within, or wholly or partly beyond, the limits of this state, and shall have power to lease or attach to the line or lines of such corporation other telegraph lines, by lease or purchase, and may join with any other corporation or association in constructing, leasing, owning, using or maintaining their line or lines, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the directors or managers of the respective corporations, and may own and hold any interest in such line or lines, or may become lessees thereof on such terms as the respective corporations may agree. [P. D. 5987.]

Art. 1235. [702] [626] Cities, etc., may direct as to posts, etc.—The corporate authorities of any city, town or village through which the line of any telegraph corporation is to pass may, by ordinance or otherwise, specify where the posts, piers or abutments shall be located, the kind of posts that shall be used, the height at which the wires shall be run; and such company shall be governed by the regulations thus prescribed; and, after the erection of said telegraph lines, the corporate authorities of any city, town or village shall have power to direct any alteration in the erection or location of said posts, piers or abutments, and also in the height at which the wires shall run, having first given such company or its agents opportunity to be heard in regard to such alteration. [P. D. 5988.]

Art. 1236. [703] [627] Manner of consolidating with another company.—Any telegraph company now organized, or which may hereafter be organized under the laws of this state, may, at any regular meeting of the stockholders thereof, by vote of persons holding a majority of shares of the stock of such company, unite or consolidate with any other company or companies now organized, or which may hereafter be organized, under the laws of the United States, or of any state or territory, by the consent of the company with which it may consolidate or unite; and such company so formed may hold, use and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of Texas on companies separately organized under the provisions of this title, and be subject to the same liabilities. [P. D. 5989.]

Telephone companies, etc., shall connect lines at common points, how, etc.	1238	Companies to comply with order of council, etc., or forfeit what; provided, etc.; appeal, etc.	1241
Telegraph companies, etc., shall transmit transferred messages, etc., when	1239

Article 1237. Corporations owning or operating lines, etc., shall arrange for transfers, etc., as follows.—All companies and corporations that own or operate telephone or telegraph lines for the purpose of transmitting messages from one point to another are hereby required to arrange for conversations or transfer of messages as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1907, S. S., p. 462.]

Art. 1238. Telephone companies, etc., shall connect lines at common points, how, etc.—All companies, individuals, firms or corporations doing a telephone business in this state shall be compelled to make physical connections between their toll line at common points, for the transmission of messages or conversations from one line to another; such connection to be made through the switchboard of such individuals, companies, firms or corporations, if any is maintained at such points, so that persons so desiring may converse from points on one of such lines to points on another. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1239. Telegraph companies, etc., shall transmit transferred messages, etc., when.—All telegraph companies or persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, which are now, or shall hereafter be, engaged in the business of accepting and transmitting messages to and from different points in this state, where the use of a telegraph instrument or instruments is necessary in the conduct of such business, shall, if there be any other persons, firm, corporation or association engaged in such business at the same point or in the same town, city or village, provide means whereby all messages conveyed to such points over the lines of any such companies shall be transferred to the lines of either or all other such companies engaged in such business at such common points, and transmitted to their final destination; and such facilities shall be provided as will guarantee the transfer of such messages in compliance with the provisions of this chapter; provided, that in no case shall any message be transferred from one line to another against the will of the company first handling same when it is possible for such company to deliver said message direct to the party for whom it is intended by way of the line or lines operated and owned by said company; and provided, further, that no telegraph or telephone company shall, under the provisions of this chapter, be compelled to receive from the wires or lines of any other telegraph or telephone company and convey to its final destination any message originating at any point on its own lines. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1240. City council, etc., to hear and determine whether transfers be necessary and just, etc.—The city council in incorporated cities, and the commissioners' court at points where there is no city council, shall, on the application of one hundred resident citizens, or upon its own motion, hear such evidence as they think necessary; and, upon a final hearing they shall determine whether or not it would be necessary for public convenience, and just to the telephone or telegraph companies, to make such connection or arrange for transfer of messages; whereupon they shall enter of record their findings, and shall also set out in their order the conditions upon which such arrangements for conversation or transfer of messages shall be made, and shall decide what proportion of expense shall be paid by each of said connecting lines. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1241. Companies to comply with order of council, etc., or forfeit what; provided, etc., appeals, etc.—Whenever the city council or commissioners' court shall enter an order in compliance with article 1239, requiring telephone or telegraph companies to arrange for conversation or transfer or [of] messages, it shall be compulsory on said company to arrange for such conversation or transfer of messages, and, failing to do so, shall forfeit to the state of Texas, on suit by the county or district attorney, the sum of ten dollars for each and every day they so neglect; provided, that the penalty herein assessed shall not be operative against a company which is prevented from making connections as herein required, through the fault or omission of another company, so long as such fault or omission shall cause such failure on its part to so connect; provided, further, that any company ordered to arrange for conversations or to transfer messages between its line and another line as herein provided shall have the right to appeal from such order to the court having jurisdiction over said matter, and the court shall, if it shall find that appellant had reasonable grounds for prosecuting such appeal, suspend the penalty herein provided for until such appeal is finally determined. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 1242. [744a] Corporations to construct union passenger depots, how formed.—Corporations may be formed for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating union passenger depots in any city or town in which any two or more railroad companies may own or operate a railroad. Such corporations may be formed in the manner provided in this title. [Acts 1895, p. 187. Acts 1897, p. 42.]

Art. 1243. Powers.—Such corporations shall have power and authority to acquire, own or lease, maintain and operate railroad tracks in any city or town, for the purpose of enabling railroad companies to run their trains to and from the union depot; such tracks not to extend to a greater distance than three miles from such union depot; and such corporations may also add additional stories to their depot buildings, and rent the same for offices, or other purposes; and may also provide on their property buildings for express purposes, and rent the same to express companies. [Id.]

Art. 1244. Authority of railroad commission.—The railroad commission of Texas shall have the same supervision and control over said railroads and tariff rates and depots that it has over any other lines of railroad and depot buildings in this state. [Id.]

Art. 1245. [744b] Stock and bonds, issuance how governed.—The provisions of chapter 16, title 115, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas shall govern and control the issuance of stock and bonds of such companies, as far as the same are applicable. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1246. Railway companies may subscribe to and own stock and bonds.—Railway companies existing under the laws of this state, whether under general or special law, and railway companies incorporated under any general or special law of the United States are authorized and empowered to subscribe to the stock, and purchase and own stock and bonds, of any depot company formed under the authority of this act. [Acts 1895, p. 187. Id.]

Art. 1247. Right to condemn, etc., land for depot purposes, etc., may acquire fee simple.—Corporations hereafter or heretofore incorporated for the purposes contemplated by this chapter, either under the provisions of this chapter or under any other general law, may secure, by condemnation, such land or real estate as may be necessary for the business and purposes of such corporation, including all lands necessary for depot buildings, passenger sheds, yards or tracks, requisite to the convenient use of the depot; and such corporations, by such condemnation, may acquire the fee simple title. [Acts 1899, p. 49.]

Art. 1248. Condemnation, governed how.—As far as applicable hereto, the provisions of chapter 8, title 115, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the state of Texas of 1895 [1911] shall apply to, and govern, the proceedings of such corporation in acquiring such land or real estate by condemnation. After the award by commissioners and pending further litigation, the corporation may enter upon, and take possession of, the land sought to be condemned by complying with the terms and conditions of any general laws of this state now or hereafter passed, authorizing any corporation having the right to condemn to so enter upon, and take possession of, such land or real estate. Article 1249. [721] [644a] This chapter embraces, what.—This chapter shall embrace and include the creation of private corporations for the purpose of constructing, owning and operating deep water channels from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico along and across any of the bays on the coast of this state to the mainland, for the purposes of navigation and transportation, and for the construction, owning and operating docks on the coast of this state for the protection and accommodation of ships, boats and all kinds of vessels for navigation and their cargoes. [Acts of 1887, p. 91.]

Art. 1250. [722] Added powers.—Every such channel corporation shall, in addition to the powers herein conferred, have power:

1. To cause such examination and survey for its proposed channel to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route for such purpose, by its officers, agents or servants; to enter upon any of the waters of such bays and upon any of the lands of this state, or of any person.

2. To take and hold such voluntary grant of real estate and other property as shall be made to it to aid in the construction and maintenance of its deep water channel and works pertinent thereto.

3. To construct its channel across, along, through, or upon, any of the waters of the bays within the jurisdiction of this state, and so far into the mainland as may be necessary to reach a place for its docks that will afford security from cyclones, storms, swells and tidal waves, with such depth as may suit its convenience and the wants of navigation, not less than five feet, and a width of not less than forty feet.

4. To furnish to vessels and boats adapted to the purpose facilities for navigating in and along the entire length of its channel, and to charge and collect a toll therefor, to be prescribed and established by its by-laws, not to exceed one cent per barrel bulk of the capacity of each vessel for each mile of the length of its channel used by the vessel going either way.

5. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, finishing, or operating its channel, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid; provided, that damages for any property appropriated by such corporation shall be assessed and paid for as is provided for in case of railroads.

6. To enter upon and condemn and appropriate any lands of any persons or corporation that may be necessary for the uses and purposes of such channel corporation; the damages for any property thus appropriated to be assessed and paid for in the same manner as provided by law in the case of railroads; provided, that no damages shall be assessed against or paid by it for any portion of the route of the channel embraced within and covered by the waters of any bay or lake on the coast of this state, nor for any portion of any island belonging to the state that may be requisite and necessary to the construction and successful operation of its channel; and provided, further, that its right of way shall not be less than the actual width of its channel, and not more than seven hundred feet in width on each side of its channel; provided, that when the land sought to be condemned under this chapter is arable land, such right of way shall not extend further than six hundred feet on each side of the channel from the edge or boundary of said channel.

7. To construct, own, and operate its channel so far into the waters of the Gulf of Mexico as may be necessary to obtain an adequate depth of water at its gulf entrance to facilitate the ingress and egress of such vessels as may navigate the same in so far as this state may have the power to grant such right, which shall be in subordination to that of the government of the United States, in so far as that government has the constitutional power to control the same. [Acts 1895, p. 185. Acts 1887, p. 91. Acts 1897, p. 19.]

Art. 1251. [723] [644c] Dock corporations; added powers.—Every such dock corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power:

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction and operation of its docks, approaches, entrances, moorings and ways and the construction, use and enjoyment of such warehouses, stores and sheds as may be necessary to the receiving and discharging of freights, goods, wares and merchandise, and the proper protection and preservation thereof; provided, that no such dock corporation shall ever have the right or power to take or condemn to its use any private property without the free consent of the owner thereof, expressed by a sufficient deed in writing.

2. To construct its dock or docks in such manner and of such size and depth as it may deem meet and proper to suit the convenience of such vessels as may see fit to use and occupy the same, and to collect from the vessels using the same, or from their masters, owners or consignees, such sum or sums for the use thereof as may be authorized by its by-laws and agreed to by such masters, owners or consignees.

3. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing or operating its dock or docks, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for such amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid. [Acts 1895, p. 185.]

Art. 1252. [724] [644d] Corporations created under this chapter; additional power granted.—Every such corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power:

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of its harbor, approaches, entrances, and ways thereto, and the construction of wharves, piers and warehouses.

2. To construct, own and maintain its harbor by building piers and breakwaters so far into the gulf as may be necessary to obtain sufficient depth of water to facilitate the ingress and egress, and the safety while in port of such vessels as may enter the same, in so far only as the state may have the power to grant such right, which, however, shall be exercised subject and in subordination to the government of the United States, in as far as it may have constitutional power to control the same.

3. To provide facilities to vessels and boats entering its harbor for anchorage, receiving and discharging cargoes and passengers, and to charge and collect fair and reasonable tolls and wharfage therefor, to be prescribed by its by-laws.

4. To borrow money in such amounts and on such terms as may be necessary for constructing and finishing or operating its harbor or piers, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 1253. [725] [644f] Rates, tolls and charges subject to legislative control.—All rates, tolls or charges made by any corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the right of the legislature from time to time to alter, revise, change or amend the same. [Id.]

Article 1254. [726] Corporations acting under authority of congress may purchase certain coast lands from the state.—Any corporation organized under the laws of Texas which is now authorized or which may hereafter be authorized by an act of congress of the United States to construct, own, operate or maintain, with private capital, a deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves on the gulf coast of Texas shall be permitted to purchase from the state of Texas, at two dollars per acre, so much of any public lands, islands, shores or shallow bays belonging to the state of Texas as may be situated within one-half mile from any point or points on the construction works of any jetties or any such deep water channel leading into the main harbor from the open sea; provided, that in no case shall such strip or body of land be more than one-half mile in width; and such company or corporation may also purchase from the state, at the same price per acre, any lands, shores, islands or shallow bays within one fourth mile of each side of every navigable channel that such company or corporation may construct through or across such shallow bays in the prosecution of such work. [Acts of 1891, p. 166.]

Art. 1255. [727] May purchase certain other lands.—Any such company or corporation owning, in whole or in part, any lands fronting or abutting upon any shallow bays in which any such work is being constructed, may purchase at the same price per acre any lands, shores or shallow bays adjoining and lying in front of such lands; provided, that such purchase shall not extend into such bay so as to include land covered with water having an average depth of more than three and one-half feet at mean low tide. That the purchases under the provisions of this article shall not extend a greater distance along the front of the survey on the shore than three miles, nor a greater distance into the bay than one-half mile; provided, that the islands known as Tolly island and Lydia Ann islands, situated in Aransas bay, shall not be subject to purchase under the provisions herein; provided, that one-half of the proceeds of the sale of the lands as provided for herein shall belong to the permanent free school fund of this state. [Id.]

Art. 1256. [728] Applications for purchase, how made.—All applications of a purchaser to buy under the foregoing articles shall be made in writing to the commissioner of the general land office, accompanied by one-fifth of the purchase money, and also by a copy of the act of congress authorizing the construction of such deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves, and a complete plat or map showing the location and design of such improvements; and said plat or map shall also show the public lands, shores, islands and shallow bays applied for, and the depth of such shallow bays in feet, determined by actual survey or as shown by the United States coast survey map. [Id.]

Art. 1257. [729] Regulating surveys, payment of purchase money, forfeiture, etc., under foregoing articles.—Upon the payment of one-fifth of the purchase money as hereinbefore provided, the commissioner of the general land office shall issue a receipt therefor, and attach thereto a copy of the application and plat filed by said purchaser; which said receipt shall be sufficient authority to the proper county surveyor to survey the lands, shores, islands or shallow bays sold; provided, that the remainder of the purchase money may be paid at any time within five years after the date of first payment; and deferred payments shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable annually. If any company or corporation purchasing any land, island or shallow water bays, under these provisions shall fail to secure twenty feet of water over the bar between the Gulf of Mexico and the main harbor within five years from the date of such purchase and maintain said twenty feet of water continuously for two years, then, all such rights shall revert to the state. If the purchaser of any island, shallow water bay, land, or either, under these articles, shall fail to pay the annual interest upon any part of the purchase money when such interest shall become due, or if such purchaser shall fail to pay the principal when the same shall become due, then, all rights acquired under such purchases shall be forfeited, with all payments made thereon, without any judicial ascertainment of such forfeiture; and the commissioner of the general land office shall indorse upon the contract of purchase, that the same is forfeited, whereby all rights so acquired shall be forfeited and revert to the state. If any such corporation shall fail to conform to the act of congress in prosecuting such work, or if such corporation shall fail to secure twenty feet of water at low tide upon the bars and other obstructions between the main harbor and the Gulf of Mexico within five years after the twenty-first day of April, 1891, if such corporation then existed, or within five years of the date of the filing of the charter of any such company as hereafter formed, then, all islands, lands, shallow bays and other rights acquired under this chapter shall be forfeited and shall revert to and vest in the state of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 1258. [730] Right to construct docks, etc., charge tolls subject to railroad commission and general laws regulating rights of said corporations.—Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, which has such authority as mentioned in article 1254 conferred upon it by act of the congress of the United States, may construct, own and maintain upon the gulf coast of Texas, in connection with its deep water harbor and navigable channels, docks and wharves and navigable channels for the accommodation of commerce, and such corporation may charge, demand and receive reasonable and just tolls, and charge for the use of such docks and wharves; but all navigable channels so constructed shall forever remain open and free to all vessels without fee or charge; the tolls and charges for the use of said docks and wharves shall be equal, just and uniform to all vessels, persons and corporations, without discrimination as to amount charged or delay in handling the same; and all such tolls and charges shall be under the control of the legislature of the state of Texas; and, until otherwise directed by the legislature, shall be subject to control and regulation by the railroad commission, under the rules prescribed for the regulation of railroads, so far as applicable. Any railroad, or other means of transportation, which may be constructed between the mainland and any deep water harbor or channel shall be a public highway; and all rates and charges for the transportation of freights and passengers thereon shall be subject to the control and regulation of the railroad commission as a railroad; such railroad or other means of transportation shall receive from each and every ship, boat and vessel, or from the wharf on which the same is discharged, all freights and passengers, and transport and deliver them to the consignee, or any connecting line of railroad, without discrimination as to charges or delay in transportation and delivery, and shall in like manner receive from every person and from every connecting line of railroad all freight and passengers and transport and deliver the same to each and every ship, boat, vessel, person or corporation for delivery to such ship, boat or vessel on like equal and just terms, without discrimination as to charges and delay in transportation or delivery thereof. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect any rights acquired before the enactment of this law. The acceptance of the provisions herein, or the exercise of any rights or privileges granted herein, by said corporation, or any person or corporation holding under the same, shall be deemed and held to be a contract with the state; that any wilful violation of these provisions or the doing of any act herein prohibited shall work a forfeiture of all rights acquired hereunder, so far as then held or claimed by the person or corporation guilty of such violation. [Id.]

Art. 1259. [731] Rights, power and privileges granted shall not interfere with, what.—The privileges and rights granted herein shall never be exercised so as to, in any way, hinder or interfere with the completion of any railroad heretofore chartered to be built to and upon Harbor island, in and upon the location designated in such charter; nor with any such railroads acquiring and controlling all necessary depot grounds, wharf grounds and deep water fronts that it may or could have acquired legally had not this law been enacted. [Id.]

Art. 1260. [732] Shall file release with secretary of state of right of control by congress.—Before any rights can vest in any corporation by virtue of any purchase of public lands, islands, shores or shallow bays, the said corporation shall file with the secretary of state a release to the state of Texas of all claim or right to have its tolls or charges imposed for any use to be made of such property or structures thereon regulated by any act of congress now existing or hereafter to be passed. [Id.]

Article 1261. Authority for incorporation.—Corporations may be formed and chartered under the provisions of this chapter, and under the general incorporation laws of the state of Texas, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, drains and ditches outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns in any county in the state of Texas. [Acts 1897, p. 109, sec. 23.]

Art. 1262. Corporation may contract for drainage and charges subject to control of legislature; lien.—Such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts for permanent drainage of any tract of land and the charges therefor, said charges subject to the control of the legislature; and the rights therein shall be secured by a lien herein expressly given upon the lands benefited by said drain or canal other than homesteads. [Id.]

Art. 1263. Drains, etc., to be reported to and approved by commissioners' court.—All drains and canals, so constructed by such corporations, shall be reported to the commissioners' court of the county wherein constructed, and approved by the same. [Id.]

Art. 1264. May acquire lands for business, how.—Any corporation, so organized under the provisions of the general laws of the state of Texas, or the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of drainage, shall have power to acquire lands for the purpose of its business, or in payment of stock or drainage rights, and to hold and dispose of such lands and all other property. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 1265. May borrow money for construction, etc., issue bonds; mortgage property, etc.—Such corporation may borrow money for the construction, maintenance and operation of its ditches and canals and laterals, and may issue bonds, and mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debts contracted for the same. [Id.]

Art. 1266. Lands to be alienated, except.—Land acquired by such corporations; except such as are designated in the next succeeding article, shall be alienated within fifteen years from the date of acquiring same, or be subject to judicial forfeiture. [Id.]

Art. 1267. Excepted lands.—Lands used for the construction, maintenance and operation of canals, drains, ditches and laterals, shall be excepted from the requirements of the last preceding article. [Id.]

Article 1268. [687] [611] May enter upon lands, make surveys, etc.—It shall be lawful for any corporation created for the purpose of constructing a macadam or plank road, by its agents and servants, to enter upon any lands, to make surveys, estimates and locations. [Acts 1873, p. 123. P. D. 5975.]

Art. 1269. [688] [612] May condemn land, etc.—If any such corporations shall require, for the construction or repair of its road, or any bridge thereof, any stone, timber or other material, from land adjoining to or near said road, and can not contract for the same with the owner thereof, such corporation may proceed to have the value of the same assessed; and the same proceedings shall be had therefor as is provided by law to be taken by railway corporations in like cases; and all macadam or plank road corporations shall have the right also to condemn, in like manner, and occupy, any quantity of land, not exceeding one acre at any one place, for the purpose of erecting toll-houses thereon. [P. D. 5976.]

Art. 1270. [689] [613] If road is out of repair, charter may be forfeited.—If any road, or any part thereof, after it shall have been completed, shall be suffered to be out of repair, so as to be impassable for the space of two months, unless when the same is being repaired, the company owning such road shall be liable to forfeit its corporate powers and privileges; and such forfeiture may be enforced by suit, as in other cases of forfeiture of charter by incorporated companies. [P. D. 5977.]

Art. 1271. [690] [614] Shall not collect tolls when road is out of repair.—If any such company shall suffer the road to be out of repair, to the injury, hindrance or delay of travelers, for an unreasonable time, such company shall have no right to collect tolls thereon until the same is again repaired. [P. D. 5977.]

Art. 1272. [691] [615] Width of road and how to be constructed.—All macadam or plank roads shall be opened not exceeding sixty feet wide, thirty feet of which shall be cleared of brush and logs; and at least sixteen feet in width shall be made an artificial road, composed of stone, gravel, wood or other convenient material, in such manner as to secure a firm and substantial road. [P. D. 5978.]

Art. 1273. [692] [616] No toll-gates permitted in town, etc.—No company, or association of individuals, which has been, or may hereafter be, incorporated, for the purpose of making such road, shall erect or keep any toll-gate, or receive any toll within the corporate limits of any incorporated city, town or village, or within one-half mile of such limits. [P. D. 5978.]

Art. 1274. [693] [617] Tolls to be regulated by commissioners' court.—As soon as such road shall have been completed, or any part thereof, not less than five miles together in any part of the road, unless the same is less than five miles long, and so from time to time, as often as five miles in addition shall be completed adjoining any five miles previously constructed, the commissioners' court of the county in which such finished road lies, or, in case the road lies in two or more counties, the commissioners' court of either of said counties, shall, on application of the agent of the company, appoint three judicious house-holders, who shall, on oath, examine the same, and report their opinion to the court in writing; and, if such report shall state that the road, or such part thereof, be completed agreeably to the provisions of this chapter, the court shall by license, in writing, authorize the company to erect gates at suitable distances and demand and receive of persons traveling such road the toll that may be fixed by the commissioners' court. [P. D. 5979.]

Art. 1275. [694] [618] Persons exempt from tolls.—Any person or persons going to or from public worship on the Sabbath, common schools and other institutions of learning, funerals, militia muster, the troops of the United States and of this state, may pass over such road free from toll. [P. D. 5980.]

Art. 1276. [695] [619] Mile posts and rates of toll.—All macadam or plank road companies shall put up a post or stone at the end of each mile, with the number from beginning of said road, fairly cut or painted thereon; and also in a conspicuous place near each gate shall be placed a board with the rates of toll painted thereon; and no toll shall be demanded unless such rates are kept up. [P. D. 5981.]

Art. 1277. [696] [620] Any person may complain of non-repairs; proceedings in such case.—If any macadam or plank road company shall fail to keep their road in repair for five days successively, any person may file a complaint in writing before any justice of the peace of the county, setting forth the nature of the defect complained of, designating the place in the road where it exists; and it shall be the duty of the justice to appoint two disinterested persons as inspectors, to meet at the place complained of, within five days, and, of the time and place of meeting, reasonable notice shall be given to the gate-keeper nearest to the place of meeting; and the inspectors shall then examine into the truth of the matter complained of; and, if they shall find the complaint to be true, they shall send a certified copy of the complaint and of the finding thereon to the keeper of each of the gates between which such defective place shall be, and thereafter no toll shall be received at such gates for the intermediate distance until the part of the road complained of shall be fully repaired; and the inspectors and justice of the peace shall be entitled to two dollars and a half per day for their services, and shall be paid by the company, if the complaint be sustained, and, if it shall fail, then by the complainant. [P. D. 5982.]

Art. 1278. [697] [621] Travelers practicing fraud may be sued, etc.—If any person using any part of said road shall, with intent to defraud such company, falsely represent himself to any toll-gatherer as entitled to exemption from paying toll, or shall make any untrue statement as to the distance he has traveled or intends to travel on the road, or shall practice any fraudulent means, and thereby lessen or avoid the payment of tolls, each and every person concerned in any such fraudulent practices shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay such company the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by such company in an action of debt before any justice of the peace of the county where the offender may be found. [P. D. 5983.]

Article 1286. Incorporation and powers; charter to state what.—Corporations for the purpose of owning and maintaining public or private cemeteries, or for the purpose only of maintaining and caring for cemeteries, may be formed under and in accordance with the provisions of this title, and when so organized, shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by this chapter. In framing a charter for such corporation, if desired to confer upon it the powers specified in this chapter, the charter shall state that the corporation is organized in pursuance of this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 37, sec. 1.]

Art. 1287. Owners of lots shareholders, etc.—Each owner of a lot or lots which may be embraced in any cemetery subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be a shareholder in any corporation to which the land may belong, and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of a shareholder, whether the title to the lot or lots was acquired from the corporation, or was owned before its organization. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1288. Directors and officers chosen how; married woman may be, etc.—The directors and officers of any corporation created in pursuance of this chapter shall be chosen under, and in accordance with, the provisions of this title, except that married women may be directors and officers in such corporations, and may perform any duties and execute any deed or contract appertaining to the duties of the office so held, without the concurrence of their husbands. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1289. Power to acquire and hold land, including land dedicated to burial purposes.—Every corporation organized under this chapter shall have the power to acquire, own and hold all lands and other property which may be necessary or suitable to the accomplishment of its purposes, and may acquire lands which have been previously dedicated to burial purposes, by conveyance from the person or persons in whom title may be, or from any person who may hold such land in trust, with the power to transfer it to preserve the trust. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1290. Owners of lots in dedicated land so purchased may participate in organization.—In case the land purchased as herein specified, or any portion of it, has been used as a cemetery, then the owners of lots therein shall have the right to participate in the organization of the corporation, and shall be shareholders therein after the company has been organized. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1291. Divisions of dedicated land so purchased, to be preserved, etc.—Whenever any corporations organized under this chapter shall acquire lands already used for burial purposes, the division of the said ground into lots, streets, etc., existing at the time of its acquisition, shall be preserved so far as is necessary to protect the rights of those who have already acquired lots therein. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1292. Ground to be laid out, plotted, approved, attested, and recorded.—It shall be the duty of any such corporation, after its organization, to cause the ground which it may acquire for cemetery purposes to be laid out in proper avenues and alleys, blocks and lots, as may be found convenient and necessary for the proper use thereof; and the corporation shall cause a plot to be made of said cemetery ground, which shall be approved by the board of directors, and shall be attested by the president and secretary of the corporation, after which it shall be recorded in the county clerk's office of the county. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1293. Corporation may make by-laws and regulations.—Every corporation organized under this chapter shall have the power to make all necessary by-laws as prescribed by this title, and also to make all rules and regulations necessary to govern in the sale of lots and the use of the same by the purchasers thereof. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1294. Directors may make rules to keep lots in order, etc., but, etc.—The board of directors shall have authority to make reasonable rules, requiring the lot owners to keep their lots clean from improper growth, so as to preserve the good order and proper appearance of the grounds, but shall not have power to require of any lot owner a particular character of improvement therein. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1295. Meeting of lot owners to create corporation to take title, etc.; notice of; majority determines action; selection of directors.—When it is desired to create a corporation under this chapter to receive the title to lands theretofore dedicated to the purpose of a cemetery, notice of the time and place of a meeting of the lot owners shall be published in a newspaper in the county, if there be one, for thirty days; and printed notices shall be posted at, and upon, such cemetery for thirty days prior to the time fixed for the meeting. When the lot owners and other persons uniting in the formation of the corporation shall assemble, the majority of those present and voting shall decide upon the question of incorporation, and the conveyance of the land to it. Such meeting shall select the board of directors to be named in the charter, which may consist of lot owners alone, or persons may be chosen as directors who are not owners of lots in the cemetery. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1296. Directors to elect officers.—The board of directors shall elect the officers of such corporation required by this title. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1297. Corporation not required to make reports.—Corporations formed under this chapter shall be exempt from any provision of law requiring periodical reports to be made to any department of the state government. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1298. City council may control location of cemetery and limit price of lots.—The city council of any city in which the cemetery is to be located shall have the power to control the location of any such cemetery, and to prescribe the maximum price at which lots therein shall be sold to the public. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1299. Commissioners' court may limit price of lots of cemetery outside of city.—When any such cemetery is located without the limits of any city, the commissioners' court of such county shall have the power to prescribe the maximum at which lots therein shall be sold. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1300. [715] [639] Powers of.—Cemetery corporations shall have power to divide the land of the cemetery into lots and subdivisions for the purposes of the cemetery, and to tax the property for the purpose of its general improvement. [P. D. 6002.]

Art. 1301. [716] [640] May convey lots for purposes of sepulture.—Such corporation shall have power to convey, by deed or otherwise, any lot or lots of the cemetery for purposes of sepulture. When such lots shall have been surveyed and platted, the survey and plat shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county wherein the same are situated, and shall not afterward be changed or altered. No lots shall be sold or disposed of until such plat shall have been recorded. [P. D. 6003.]

Art. 1302. [717] [641] Owners of lots are members of corporation.—All owners of lots purchased of any such corporation shall become members thereof, and be entitled to vote in the election of its officers and upon any other matters to the same extent as stockholders in other corporations. [P. D. 6004.]

Article 1303. How corporation may be formed.—Any number of persons, not less than three, may organize themselves into a corporation for the purpose of storing, transporting, buying and selling of oil and gas, salt, brine and other mineral solutions in this state. [Acts 1899, p. 202, sec. 1.]

Art. 1304. Same subject.—The manner and method of organizing such corporations shall be the same as provided by law for the organization of private corporations in chapter 2 of this title, and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all corporations already organized for any of the purposes of this chapter. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1305. Powers of corporation.—Such corporations shall have power to store and transport oil and gas, brine and other mineral solutions, and to make reasonable charges therefor; to buy, sell and furnish oil and gas for light, heat and other purposes; to lay down, construct, maintain and operate pipe lines, tubes, tanks, pump stations, connections, fixtures, storage houses, and such machinery, apparatus, devices and arrangements as may be necessary to operate such pipes and pipe lines between different points in this state; to own, hold, use and occupy such lands, rights of way, easements, franchises, buildings and structures as may be necessary to the purpose of such corporation. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1306. Right of condemnation.—Such corporation shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation, and shall have the right to lay its pipes and pipe lines across and under any public road or under any railroad, railroad right of way, street railroad, canal or stream in this state, and to lay its pipes and pipe lines across or along and under any street or alley in any incorporated city or town in this state, with the consent and under the direction of the board of aldermen or city council of such city or town. The manner and method of such condemnation shall be the same as is provided by law in the case of railroads; provided, that such pipes or pipe lines shall not pass through or under any cemetery, church or college, school house, residence, business or store house, or through or under any building in this state, except by the consent of the owner or owners thereof; and provided, further, that all such pipes and pipe lines, when same shall pass through or over the cultivated or improved lands of another, shall be well buried under ground at least twenty inches under the surface, and such surface shall be properly and promptly restored by such corporation unless otherwise consented to by the owner or owners of such land; provided, further, that, if such pipes or pipe lines shall be laid over or along any uncultivated or unimproved lands of another, and such lands shall thereafter become cultivated or improved, such pipes or pipe lines shall be buried by said corporation as hereinbefore provided, within a reasonable time after notice by the owner of such lands, or his agent, to said corporation or any agent thereof; and provided, further, that whenever such pipes or pipe lines shall cross any public road or highway, railroad, street railroad, or street or alley, the said pipes and pipe lines shall be so buried and covered as not to interfere with the use and occupancy of such road, highway, street or alley by the public, or use and occupancy of such railroad or street railroad by the owner or owners thereof; and provided, further, that such pipe lines so laid shall not exceed eight inches in diameter. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1307. Right to borrow money, issue stock, mortgage franchises, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to borrow money, to issue stock and preferred stock, to mortgage its franchises and property to secure the payment of any debt contracted for any of the purposes of such corporation, and shall possess all the rights and powers of corporations for profit in this state, wherever the same may be applicable to corporations of this character. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1308. Discrimination unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any corporation organized under this chapter to discriminate against any person, corporation, firm, association, or place in the charge for such storage or transportation, or in the service rendered, but shall receive, store or transfer oil or gas for any person, corporation, firm or association upon equal terms, charges and conditions with all other persons, corporations, firms, or associations for like service. [Id. sec. 6.]

---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 1309. Deposit with state treasurer.—Every corporation, company or individual, doing business in this state as a bond investment company, or company to place or sell bonds, certificates or debentures on the partial payment or installment plan, shall, and the same is hereby required to, deposit with the state treasurer, in cash or securities approved by the state treasurer, the sum of five thousand dollars; and, in addition thereto, they shall be required to deposit semi-annually with the state treasurer, in cash or securities, to be approved by said officer, ten per cent of all the net premiums received, until the sum deposited shall amount to the sum of one hundred thousand dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 119.]

Art. 1310. Forfeiture of charter in default of deposit; attorney general to sue for; and receivership; duties of receiver, etc.—If any such company, being a domestic corporation, shall fail, for sixty days after the passage of this act, or for sixty days after the organization of such company, to make with the state treasurer the deposit required by this act, it shall be considered to have forfeited its charter; and the attorney general shall, immediately upon receiving information thereof, bring suit in the name of the state, in the district court of Travis county, to have such charter or certificate of incorporation declared forfeited and of no effect, and said court shall declare such charter forfeited, and appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be, under the order of the court, to distribute to the shareholders the assets of the company. The court shall, out of the assets of the company, make such allowance for compensation for the receiver as shall be equitable and just. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1311. In case of failure of corporation, receiver appointed how; duties; deposit used; treasurer to pay out how.—In case of the failure of any company covered by this chapter, the district court of the county or city in which the principal office is located, upon the application of one or more shareholders, shall appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be to wind up its affairs, liquidate its debts, and distribute its assets, using therefor, upon the order of the court, the deposit previously made, to secure the shareholders, with the state treasurer; and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay out such deposit in accordance with requisitions made upon the state comptroller by said receiver, and approved by the court, upon the warrant of the state comptroller. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1312. Interchange of cash and securities in deposit; approval of attorney general.—At any time, when requested so to do by any company, such as is mentioned in this chapter, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to permit such company to interchange cash for the securities, or securities for the cash, deposited by such company with the state treasurer, under the provisions of this chapter, such securities always to be approved by the state treasurer on the written advice of the attorney general. [Acts 1901, p. 282.]

Art. 1313. Return of deposit in what case.—Should any such company, such as is mentioned in this act, cease to do business in this state, and shall satisfy the comptroller and the attorney general that it has no liabilities in this state, the comptroller shall issue his warrant to the state treasurer; and the state treasurer is authorized, and it is made his duty, upon such warrant of the comptroller, to return to such company the cash or securities deposited by it under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Rights under permit.....1317	Evidence.....1321

Article 1314. [745] Permit to do business, etc., in state must be obtained, and how.—Hereafter, any corporation for pecuniary profit, except as hereinafter provided, organized or created under the laws of any other state, or of any territory of the United States; or of any municipality of such state or territory, or of any foreign government, sovereignty or municipality, desiring to transact business in this state, or solicit business in this state, or establish a general or special office in this state, shall be, and the same is hereby, required to file with the secretary of state a duly certified copy of its articles of incorporation; and, thereupon, the secretary of state shall issue to such corporation a permit to transact business in this state. [Acts 1897, p. 167.]

May be limited to one or more purposes.—If such corporation is created for more than one purpose, the permit may be limited to one or more purposes. [Id.]

Showing as to stock by foreign corporations.—Provided, that foreign corporations obtaining permits to do business in this state shall show to the satisfaction of the secretary of state that at least one hundred thousand dollars, in cash, of their authorized capital stock has been paid in, or that fifty per cent of their authorized capital stock has been subscribed, and at least ten per cent of the authorized capital has been paid in, before such permit is issued. [Acts 1901, pp. 18-19.]

Art. 1315. Permit to do business, affidavit as condition of issuance; requisites of.—As a condition precedent to the issuance by the secretary of state of a permit to any foreign corporation, authorizing it to do business in this state, the president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer, or two of the directors of such corporation, shall make and subscribe an affidavit in writing stating that such corporation is not a trust or organization in restraint of trade in violation of the laws of this state, has not, within twelve months next preceding the making of such affidavit, become or been a party to any trust agreement of any kind or character whatsoever, which would constitute a violation of any anti-trust law of the state existing at the date of such affidavit, and has not, within that time, entered into, or been in anywise a party to, any combination in restraint of trade, within the United States of America, and that no officer of such corporation has, within the knowledge of affiant, within twelve months next preceding the date of such affidavit, made on behalf of such corporation or for its benefit, any such contract, or entered into, or become a party to, any such combination in restraint of trade. Such affidavit in writing shall be personally subscribed and sworn to by such affiant or affiants before some officer who is by law duly authorized to administer oaths, and the jurat of such officer shall be attested by his official signature and seal of office; and such affidavit in writing so attested shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state before the issuance of any such permit. [Acts 1909, S. S. pp. 267-8. Id.]

Art. 1316. Secretary of state to require proof in what case.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to require satisfactory proof as to the amount of capital actually invested in this state before issuing any permit to any foreign building and loan company to do business in this state. [Id. p. 267.]

Art. 1317. Rights under permit.—Such corporation, on obtaining such permit, shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of this state on corporations organized under the laws of this state. [Acts 1897, p. 167.]

Right to purchase, hold, sell, mortgage, etc., real and personal estate; provisions as to alienation.—Such corporations, under such permits, shall be authorized and empowered to hold, purchase, sell, mortgage or otherwise convey such real estate and personal estate as the purposes of such corporation may require, and also, to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal or mixed, as may be requisite for such corporation to acquire, in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability due, or which may become due, or belonging to, the corporation; provided, that, if such corporation so obtaining a permit to do business in this state, shall acquire any real estate under the powers herein conferred, it shall alienate all real property so acquired by it not necessary for the purposes of such corporation, within fifteen years from the time of acquisition, and provided, further, that such corporation shall alienate all real estate acquired by it for the purposes of such corporation, within fifteen years from the expiration of the time for which the permit is issued, or, if such permit be renewed, or such corporation be otherwise authorized to carry on business in this state, then such corporation shall alienate such real estate within fifteen years after the expiration of the time for which such permit is extended, or it is so authorized to carry on business in this state; and provided, further, that, if such corporation shall cease to carry on business in this state, that it shall alienate all such real estate so acquired by it, within fifteen years after the time it shall so cease to carry on business in this state. [Id.]

Art. 1318. [746] No such corporation can maintain any suit, unless.—No such corporation can maintain any suit or action, either legal or equitable, in any of the courts of this state upon any demand, whether arising out of contract or tort, unless at the time such contract was made, or tort committed, the corporation had filed its articles of incorporation under the provisions of this chapter in the office of the secretary of state for the purpose of procuring its permit. [Id.]

Art. 1319. [747] Corporations exempted from provisions hereof.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to corporations created for the purpose of constructing, building, operating or maintaining any railway, or to such corporations as are required by law to procure certificates of authority to do business from the commissioner of insurance and banking. [Id.]

Art. 1320. [748] Permit to extend for period of ten years.—No permit shall be issued for a longer period than ten years from the date of filing such articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state. [Id.]

Art. 1321. [749] Evidence.—Either the original permit or certified copies thereof by the secretary of state shall be evidence of the compliance on the part of any corporation with the terms of this chapter. A certificate of the secretary of state to the effect that the corporation named therein has failed to file in his office its articles of incorporation shall be evidence that such corporation has in no particular complied with the requirements of this chapter. [Id.]

TITLE 26.

COTTON—BALING OF.

Baling of cotton regulated; penalty.....	Article. 1322	Duty of commissioner of labor.....	Article. 1324
Person, firm, etc., receiving for storage, transportation, etc., cotton not baled as required, liable for injuries to employe, duty of inspection.....	1323

Article 1322. Baling of cotton regulated; penalty.—That every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, owning or operating a compress in this state, and their agents and employes, are hereby required, in compressing, recompressing, baling or rebaling cotton bales, to so bind and tie every bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, that no such bale shall be delivered to any railroad company, or other common carrier, by such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, their agents or employes, unless such bale of cotton shall be free from all or any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale of cotton. And any such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, who shall fail to bind or tie any bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, in the manner above provided, and shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, any such bale of cotton, to any railroad company, or other common carrier, such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, shall forfeit and pay to the state of Texas the sum of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, which may be recovered in a civil suit brought in the name of the state of Texas in a court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1910, 4 S. S. p. 118, sec. 1.]

Art. 1323. Person, firm, etc., receiving for storage, transportation, etc., cotton not baled as required, liable for injuries to employe; duty of inspection.—Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, receiving for storage, loading for transportation, or transporting, any such compressed bale or bales of cotton, in this state, containing any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton, shall be liable in damages for injury to any person in the employ of such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, occasioned by reason of such dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton, while in the discharge of the duties of such employment. The duty of inspection of such bales of cotton shall be on the employer and not on the employe. [Id. sec. 1.]

Art. 1324. Duty of commissioner of labor.—It shall be especially the duty of the commissioner of labor and his deputies to see that the provisions of articles 1322 and 1323 hereof are observed and enforced; and, in pursuance thereof, he shall obtain and collect evidence of all violations of said provisions upon the part of persons, firms, corporations and associations of persons engaged in the business of compressing cotton, who shall fail to comply with the said provisions. The commissioner of labor shall file annual statements with the governor, showing in detail all expenses incurred by him in connection with his duties under this act. [Id. sec. 2.]

Article 1325. [750] [645] Counter claim may be pleaded, when.—Whenever any suit shall be brought for the recovery of any debt due by judgment, bond, bill or otherwise, the defendant shall be permitted to plead therein any counter claim which he may have against the plaintiff, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 62. P. D. 3443.]

Art. 1326. [751] [646] Requisites of the plea.—The plea setting up such counter claim shall state distinctly the nature and the several items thereof, and shall conform to the ordinary rules of pleading. [P. D. 3444.]

Art. 1327. [752] [647] Judgment over in defendant's favor, when.—On the trial of such issue, if the defendant shall establish a demand against the plaintiff exceeding that established against him by the plaintiff, the court shall render judgment for the defendant for such excess. [P. D. 3446.]

Art. 1328. [753] [648] Judgment for costs, how determined.—Whenever a counter claim is pleaded under the provisions of this chapter, the party in whose favor final judgment is rendered shall also recover his costs, unless it should be made to appear on the trial that the counter claim of the defendant was acquired after the commencement of the suit, in which case, if the plaintiff establishes a cause of action existing at the commencement of the suit, he shall recover his costs. [Id. and Act Jan. 2, 1860, p. 5. P. D. 3445-6.]

Art. 1329. [754] [649] Certain and uncertain damages not to be set off against each other.—If the plaintiff's cause of action be a claim for unliquidated or uncertain damages, founded on a tort or breach of covenant, the defendant shall not be permitted to set off any debt due him by the plaintiff; and, if the suit be founded on a certain demand, the defendant shall not be permitted to set off unliquidated or uncertain damages founded on a tort or breach of covenant on the part of the plaintiff. [P. D. 3447.]

Art. 1330. [755] [650] Matters incident to plaintiff's cause of action may be set off.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be so construed as to prohibit the defendant from pleading in set off any counter claim founded on a cause of action arising out of, or incident to, or connected with, the plaintiff's cause of action.

Article 1331. [756] [651] Legislature may create counties.—The legislature shall have power to create counties for the convenience of the people, subject to the following provisions of this chapter: [Const., art. 9, sec. 1.]

Art. 1332. [757] [652] Must have 900 square miles, unless, etc.—In the territory of the state, exterior to the counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. [Id.]

Art. 1333. [758] [653] Exterior territory may be divided at any time.—The territory referred to in the preceding article may at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population, and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties. [Id.]

Art. 1334. [759] [654] Counties created out of other counties must have 700 square miles.—Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than seven hundred square miles; nor shall any such county now existing be reduced to a less area than seven hundred square miles. [Id.]

Art. 1335. [760] [655] Line of new county shall not approach nearer than 12 miles to an established county seat.—No new counties shall be created so as to approach nearer than twelve miles of the county seat of any county from which it may, in whole or in part, be taken. [Id.]

Art. 1336. [761] [656] Counties with less than 900 square miles may be created, how.—Counties of a less area than nine hundred, but of seven hundred or more, square miles, within counties now existing, may be created by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals. [Id.]

Art. 1337. [762] [657] Existing counties may be reduced to 700 square miles, how.—Any county now existing may be reduced to an area of not less than seven hundred square miles by a like two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals. [Id.]

Art. 1338. [763] [658] New county shall pay its part of the liabilities of the old county.—When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into, another county, the part stricken off shall be holden for, and obliged to pay, its proportion of all the liabilities then existing of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as the law shall provide. [Id.]

Art. 1339. [764] New counties to pay pro rata of indebtedness.—Any county which has heretofore been created, or may hereafter be created, by the legislature of the state of Texas, out of any other county or counties, shall be held liable for, and bound to pay its proportion of all the liabilities of the county or counties from which it was taken, existing at the date of its creation of such new county, according to the proportionate value of the property in the excised territory, and the value of the property remaining in the old county; and a suit to recover the same may be brought by the parent county, either in the district court of such parent county, or in the district court of the newly created county; and the court shall have power to make any order or render any judgment necessary to carry out and satisfy its decree therein; provided, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any county, the claims against which have already been placed before courts having jurisdiction thereof and tried or dismissed under laws that were at such time constitutional. [Acts of 1893, p. 124.]

Art. 1340. [765] Such indebtedness, how apportioned.—Where any suit has been, or shall be, brought to enforce payment of the indebtedness created by the parent county or counties, or for the pro rata share of the excised territory, the assessment rolls of the parent county or counties for the year in which such new county was created shall be conclusive evidence of the property and value thereof remaining in the parent county and in the excised territory at the date of the creation of such new county; provided, that when the new county was organized and made assessment rolls for the same year as that in which it was created, such rolls shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the property therein and the taxable values thereof at the date of the creation of such new county; and the assessment rolls of the parent county for the same year shall be conclusive evidence of the property and the value thereof remaining in the parent county at the date of the creation of such new county. [Id.]

Art. 1341. [765a] Suits to have precedence; special tax to pay judgments.—All suits brought under this law are hereby declared to be of general public interest, and shall be given precedence upon the dockets of the courts of this state; and, if the plaintiff shall recover, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the newly created county to levy a special tax on all property in the territory taken from the plaintiff county sufficient to pay off the judgment, and, if the first levy be insufficient, to make said levy annually till said judgment is satisfied, and the judgment of the court shall order said commissioners' court to make such levies. [Id.]

Art. 1342. [766] Non-residents to pay to comptroller.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to assess and collect from the non-residents of unorganized counties such rate of taxation, to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such unorganized county, as the commissioners' court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt, and a certified statement of the commissioners' court making the levy in the parent county, giving the amount of the levy, shall be authority for his action. [Acts of 1889, p. 136.]

Art. 1343. [767] When territory is added, duty of commissioners in organized counties.—When the territory taken is added to, and made a part of, an organized county, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county to levy and have collected on all property in such territory a tax sufficient to pay their pro rata of the indebtedness, said tax not to exceed the constitutional limit; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes to levy and have collected on all property in such unorganized county owned or held by resident citizens a tax for the purpose of paying such indebtedness. [Id.]

Art. 1344. [768] Tax for pro rata indebtedness.—When any county has organized, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of such county to levy and have collected on all property in this county such rate of taxation to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such county as the commissioners' court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt. [Id.]

Art. 1345. [769] Tax collected in unorganized counties by comptroller.—All county taxes due unorganized counties collected by the comptroller shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the same shall have been organized; then he shall, upon demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, pay the same over to the said treasurer; provided, that in case any unorganized county is indebted to any county from which the same has been created, and which debt existed at the time of its creation, the comptroller shall use so much of said fund as may be necessary to pay the pro rata share of such debt due by such unorganized county; and an order of the commissioners' court of the parent county stating the amount due from the unorganized county shall be authority for the comptroller to draw his warrant for said amount; and the provisions of this article shall apply to all money now held by the comptroller for unorganized counties and to all money hereafter collected. [Id.]

Art. 1346. [770] County bonds held by school funds apportioned between counties, when.—When any new county has been created wholly and entirely out of any existing county, if any bonds were legally issued by the parent county prior to the severance of a part of its territory, such of said bonds and the coupons due thereon as are held by the school fund of the state of Texas shall be apportioned between the parent county and the county or counties created out of the parent county, by the comptroller of public accounts, on the basis now provided by law. [Acts of 1891, p. 39.]

Art. 1347. [771] Commissioners' court to levy tax for pro rated.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the parent county, or any county created out of the parent county, which has now or may hereafter be organized, to levy and have collected on all property in such county a tax to pay such county's pro rata share of the debt. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of any county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes to levy and have collected on all property in said unorganized county owned by resident citizens thereof a tax for the purpose of paying said county's part of the debt; and it shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to assess and collect on all property in such unorganized counties owned by non-residents a tax to pay said counties' pro rata part of said debt; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the levy and collection of any tax in excess of that now allowed by the constitution of this state. [Id.]

Art. 1348. [772] [659] Part of existing county shall not be detached, etc., except, etc.—No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted to a vote of the electors of both counties, and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each. [Const., art. 9.]

Art. 1349. [773] [660] Election shall be ordered, when, etc.—An election for the purpose named in the preceding article shall be ordered by the county judge, or county judges, of the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach any portion thereof, or to attach any portion thereto, upon the application in writing of not less than fifty qualified voters of said county or counties.

Art. 1350. [774] [661] Application shall show, what.—The application provided for in the preceding article shall designate particularly, by metes and bounds, the portion of territory proposed to be detached, and shall show the number of square acres contained within said bounds, and the number of square acres remaining in the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach such part or parts, and the distance on a direct line of the county seat of any such county or counties from the nearest boundary line of the territory which it is proposed shall be detached.

Art. 1351. [775] [662] Notices of such election shall contain what.—The notices of such election shall contain, substantially, the boundaries and statements contained in the application, and in the order of election.

Art. 1352. [776] [663] Question to be voted upon.—The question to be voted upon at such election shall be, for or against the proposition, and the ballots shall be, "For the proposition," or "Against the proposition."

Art. 1353. [777] [664] Law governing other elections shall govern this.—Such election shall be governed by the law governing other elections so far as the same may be applicable, and not in conflict with any of the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 1354. [778] [665] Returns of elections, how and to whom made.—The returns of such election shall be made to the county judge, or county judges, of the county or counties in which the election takes place; and such county judge, or county judges, shall estimate the vote and make duplicate statements of the same, and shall certify to such statements officially; and one of said statements, together with a copy of the application certified to by him officially, he shall seal in an envelope, writing his name across the seal, and indorsing upon the package "Election returns of county," and direct and transmit the same by mail or other safe conveyance to the speaker of the house of representatives at the seat of government, in time for the same to be received at as early a day as practicable during the next session of the legislature.

Art. 1355. [779] [666] Another election for same purpose shall not be held for five years.—When any such election has been held in a county, and the proposition to detach a portion thereof has been defeated, no other election for the same purpose shall be ordered or held for the period of five years thereafter.

Article 1356. [780] [667] Old county shall organize new one.—Whenever any new county shall hereafter be established, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of the county from which the territory of such new county, or the greater part thereof, was taken, at least one month previous to the general election of county officers next after such new county shall have been established, to lay off and divide such new county into convenient precincts for the election of justices of the peace, county commissioners and constables, defining particularly the boundaries of such precincts; and also to designate convenient places in such new county where elections shall be held; of all which they shall cause a record to be made by the clerk, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted to the county judge of such new county when elected. [Act March 20, 1848, P. D. 1063.]

Art. 1357. [781] [668] Election to be ordered when and by whom.—It shall be the duty of the county judge of every county from which any new county has been so taken, at least one month previous to the general election of county officers next after such new county has been established, to order an election to be held in such new county, on said general election day, for all county officers authorized to be elected by the people of such new county, and to appoint a presiding officer for each place designated in such new county, for holding elections; such order of elections shall specify the number of precincts, their boundaries, and the officers to be elected in such county. Such presiding officers shall hold such elections in accordance with the laws regulating elections, and shall make their returns to the county judge who ordered such election, who shall open and examine such returns and give certificates to the persons elected. [Id. P. D. 1064.]

Art. 1358. [782] [669] County commissioners may act, when.—In all cases where the office of county judge shall be vacant, any two of the county commissioners shall be authorized to perform all the duties required of the county judge by the provisions of this chapter. [Id. P. D. 1065.]

Art. 1359. [783] [670] New county subject to old until organized.—Until a new county is organized in accordance with law, the territory thereof shall remain in all respects subject to the county from which the same has been taken. [9 Texas, 336; 12 Tex. 397.]

Art. 1360. [784] [671] Disorganized counties to be attached to other counties, until, etc.—All legally organized counties that, from any cause, may have lost, or may hereafter lose, their county organization, shall be, for all judicial and surveying purposes, and for the registration of deeds, mortgages and all other instruments that are now, or may hereafter be, required or permitted by law to be recorded, attached to the organized county whose county seat is nearest to the county seat of such disorganized county, and so remain attached until such disorganized county shall again be legally organized. [Act Nov. 5, 1866, p. 90.]

Art. 1361. [785] [672] County attached to another may be organized, how.—When any unorganized or disorganized county has been attached to another county for judicial or other purposes, and desires to be organized or reorganized, a petition expressing such desire, signed by not less than one hundred and fifty qualified voters residing in such unorganized or disorganized county, may be presented to the commissioners' court of the county to which such unorganized or disorganized county is attached, and thereupon it shall be the duty of said court to proceed without delay to the organization or reorganization of such county, as the case may be, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the organization of new counties. [Act May 1, 1874, p. 188, sec. 2.]

Art. 1362. [786] [673] Certificates of election in such cases shall be issued by whom and bonds taken, etc.—It shall be the duty of the county judge of the county conducting the organization of another county to issue the certificates of election to the officers elected in such organized or reorganized county, and to approve the bonds of such officers, and administer to them the oath of office in accordance with law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1363. [787] [674] Books, etc., shall be delivered to such officers.—It shall be the duty of all officers of the county from which any new county has been created, or to which any such newly organized or reorganized county has been attached, and the duty also of all other persons who may have in their possession any books, records, maps or other property belonging to such newly organized or reorganized county, to deliver the same to the proper officers of such newly organized or reorganized county within five days after such officers have been legally qualified as such; and any officer or person who shall wilfully fail to make such delivery upon demand made therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in the Penal Code. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1364. [788] [675] Elections in unorganized counties.—In all cases where a county is not organized, and there is no officer in the same authorized by law to organize such county, the county judge of the nearest county which is organized may order elections for county officers in any such disorganized county, and appoint the presiding officers and managers and clerks of election, as prescribed by law in other cases. [Act March 26, 1848. P. D. 3624.]

Article 1365. [789] [676] County a body corporate.—Each county which now exists, or which may be hereafter established, shall be a body corporate and politic. [Act May 11, 1846. P. D. 1044.]

Art. 1366. [790] [677] Suits against.—No county shall be sued unless the claim upon which such suit is founded shall have first been presented to the county commissioners' court for allowance, and such court shall have neglected or refused to audit and allow the same, or any part thereof. [P. D. 1045.]

Art. 1367. [791] [678] Inhabitants may be jurors, etc., in such suits.—In all suits instituted by or against any county, the inhabitants of the county so suing or being sued may be jurors or witnesses, if otherwise competent and qualified according to law. [P. D. 1049.]

Art. 1368. [792] [679] Execution shall not issue against county.—No execution shall be issued on any judgment against any county; but, when a judgment shall be rendered against a county, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of such county to settle and pay such judgment in like manner and pro rata as other claims of a similar description are settled and paid by said court. [P. D. 1050.]

Art. 1369. [793] [680] Deeds, grants, etc., to counties valid, etc.—All deeds, grants and conveyances heretofore made, or which may be hereafter made and duly acknowledged, or proven, and recorded as other deeds of conveyance, to any county, or to the courts or commissioners of any county, or any other person or persons, by whatever form of conveyance, for the use and benefit of any county, shall be good and valid to all intents and purposes to vest in such county in fee simple or otherwise all such right, title, interest and estate as the grantor in any such deed or conveyance had at the time of the execution thereof in the lands conveyed and was intended thereby to be conveyed. [P. D. 1051.]

Art. 1370. [794] [681] Commissioners to sell real estate of.—The county commissioners' court may, by an order to be entered in the minutes of said court, appoint a commissioner to sell and dispose of any real estate of the county at public auction; and the deed of such commissioner, made in conformity to the order of said court, under his proper hand and seal, for and in behalf of the county, duly acknowledged and proven and recorded, shall be sufficient, to all intents and purposes, to convey to the purchasers all the right, title and interest and estate whatever which the county may have in and to the premises to be conveyed; provided, however, that nothing contained in this article shall authorize the county commissioners' court of any county to dispose of any lands given, donated or granted to such county for the purposes of education in any other manner than shall be directed by law. [P. D. 1052.]

Art. 1371. [795] [682] Contracts with a county valid.—All notes, bonds, bills, contracts, covenants, agreements or writings, made, or to be made, whereby any person is, or shall be, bound to any county, or to the court or commissioners of any county, or to any other person or persons, in whatever form, for the payment of any debt or duty or the performance of any matter or thing to the use of any county, shall be valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, to vest in said county all rights, interests and actions which would be vested in any individual, if any such contract had been made directly to him. [P. D. 1053.]

Art. 1372. [796] [683] Suits on notes, etc., by county.—Suits may be commenced and prosecuted on such notes, bonds, bills, contracts, covenants, agreements and writings, in the name of such county, or in the name of the person to whom they were made, for the use of the county, as fully and effectually as any person may or can sue on like notes, bills, contracts, covenants, agreements or writing made to him. [P. D. 1054.]

Art. 1373. [797] [684] Agents to contract for county may be appointed.—The county commissioners' court may appoint an agent or agents to make any contract on behalf of the county for the erection or repairing of any county buildings, and to superintend their erection or repairing, or for any other purpose authorized by law; and the contract or acts of such agent or agents, duly executed and done, for and on behalf of the county, and within his or their powers, shall be valid and effectual to bind such county, to all intents and purposes. [P. D. 1055.]

Art. 1374. [798] [685] Costs in suit against county.—When the plaintiff in any suit against a county shall fail to recover a greater amount than the county commissioners' court of such county shall have allowed to such plaintiff on the presentation of his claim to such court, such plaintiff shall pay all costs of such suit. [P. D. 1056.]

Article 1375. [799] Survey made.—Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the county court of any county in this state, or notice shall be given such court by the commissioner of the general land office, that the boundary, or any part thereof, of the county is not sufficiently definite and well defined, such court shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain, by actual survey, the boundary, or any part thereof, of said county, and to make and establish the lines and corners in a manner herein prescribed; and the court, in the order making the appointment, shall specify the line or lines to be run, and the corners to be established and marked; and shall in all things conform to the law defining the boundaries of said county. [Acts of 1879, p. 137.]

Art. 1376. [800] Boundary how marked.—The initial corners of the surveys herein provided for shall be designated by posts, mounds, or stone monuments; the posts shall be of hewn cedar, cypress or bois d'arc, at least eight inches in diameter, five feet long, and set in the ground not less than three feet; the mounds shall be of stone when practicable, otherwise of earth, and not less than two feet high; that at the end of each mile in said boundary a like post, mound, or stone monument shall be established; the initial corners shall be described on the post or monument established there.

Art. 1377. [801] Natural objects to be named.—In the field-notes of the surveys of the lines ordered to be run, the surveyor shall give an accurate description of all prominent natural objects crossed by, or adjacent to, said lines, as well as of the corners and lines of surveys on or near said boundaries.

Art. 1378. [802] Notice to other counties.—It shall be the duty of the court making such order to cause a copy thereof to be sent to the county courts of the counties interested in such boundary, stating the time and place, which time shall not be later than twenty days after the meeting of the county court of the county notified, for the commencement of the survey, and such notice shall be given at least ten days before the meeting of said county court; and it shall be the duty of the court so notified to appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor to proceed at the time and place to assist in running and establishing such line.

Art. 1379. [803] Oath and bond of surveyors.—The surveyors herein provided for shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for county surveyors, and shall, before entering upon the duties herein prescribed, enter into bond with two or more sureties to be approved by the county court, in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty.

Art. 1380. [804] Field-notes to be returned and recorded.—When the line shall have been surveyed and marked as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the surveyor to make due return of the field-notes and map to the county court; which field-notes and map shall be recorded by the clerk, and a certified copy thereof returned to the general land office.

Art. 1381. [805] In the absence of one surveyor the other shall act.—If either of the surveyors appointed to run and mark such line shall fail to attend at the time and place appointed, the one in attendance shall proceed alone to perform the duties assigned him, and make his report to the county court of the county employing him, which, being approved by such court, shall be recorded as evidence of the line in question; and the line so surveyed and marked shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties.

Art. 1382. [806] Commissioner of the land office to direct survey in case of disagreement.—Should the surveyors above provided for fail to agree as to the true boundary line between their respective counties, the facts of such disagreement, with a full statement of the questions at issue between them, shall be by them reported to the commissioner of the general land office, whose duty it shall be to examine the disputed matter at once; and from such data as the maps and archives of his office furnish, shall designate to such surveyors the line to be run, stating at what specific point they shall begin and to what specific point they shall run, adhering as nearly as possible to the line designated in the act creating such county line, which instruction shall be authority for said surveyors to run such line; and the line so run as above directed shall thereafter be the true dividing line between said counties. [Acts of 1879, p. 137.]

Art. 1383. [807] Expense to be divided between counties.—The expense of surveying and marking such line shall be divided between the counties interested, in proportion to the frontage of each county upon the line, and paid for by each county as proportioned. The surveyors appointed as herein provided shall receive for their services the sum of three dollars per mile for each mile run. The expense of establishing the posts, mounds, or stone monuments shall be paid by the counties interested, and they shall be erected under the supervision and direction of the surveyor.

Art. 1384. [808] Land districts to be surveyed.—Before any county in this state, not already organized as a separate land district under existing law, shall be recognized as such, the county court shall cause the boundary lines of the county to be surveyed and marked and the field-notes and map of such survey, duly recorded, returned to the general land office as provided in this chapter.

Art. 1385. Suit to establish boundary; venue; jurisdiction and powers of court; rule for determination of matter.—Notwithstanding the preceding articles of this chapter, any county in this state may bring suit against any adjoining county or counties, for the purpose of establishing the boundary line between them. Such suit shall be brought in the district court of the county in an adjoining judicial district whose boundaries are not affected by the suit, and whose county seat is nearest the county seat of the county suing. And said court shall try said cause as other causes, and shall have full and complete jurisdiction to determine where such boundary line is located, and, if necessary, shall order the same to be remarked and resurveyed. And if, in the trial of any such cause, it shall be found that the boundary line between the counties involved has never been established and marked, or, if marked, has become indefinite and undefined, said court shall have power to re-establish the same and order it marked. And any boundary line so established by such judgment shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties in question; provided, that if it shall be found in any such cause that the boundary line in question has been heretofore established under the law then in force, the same shall be declared to be the true line, and shall be resurveyed and established as such. [Acts 1897, p. 222.]

Art. 1386. Land commissioner not to place line on map until filing of certified copy of judgment and field-notes.—Provided, further, that it shall be unlawful for the commissioner of the general land office to mark, fix or place on any of the maps in said office any contested county line at any definite point thereon, until a certified copy of the final judgment of the court, herein provided, is filed in the general land office, together with a certified copy of the field-notes of the line so established by such judgment. [Id.]

Article 1387. [809] Election for county seats.—In the organization of any county or counties now existing, or hereafter to be created by the legislature, it shall be the duty of the county judge holding the election in such new county for county officers thereof to order an election for the location of a county seat therein, which shall be conducted in the same manner as that regulating the election of the officers of such new county; and the place receiving a majority of all the votes cast by the electors voting on the location of such county seat shall thereafter be the county seat of such county, subject to be removed as other county seats; provided, that when any county has been organized, and no county seat has been located, the county judge of such county shall order an election for the location of a county seat. [Acts of 1883, p. 82.]

Art. 1388. [810] Two-thirds vote necessary, when, to create.—No county seat first established in a newly organized county shall be located at any point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county in this state, unless by a two-thirds vote of all the electors voting on the subject in said county. [Acts of 1881, p. 67.]

Art. 1389. [811] Election for removal of, when.—Hereafter, no county seat situated within five miles of the geographical center of any county shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; nor shall any county seat be removed from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county to any other point more than five miles from such center, nor from a point within five miles of the geographical center to any other point within five miles of such center, except by a two-thirds vote of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; provided, that no person shall be allowed to vote except he be a bona fide citizen of the county in which he offers to vote. A majority of said electors, however, voting at such election may remove a county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of the county to a point within five miles of such center; in either event the center to be determined by a certificate from the commissioner of the general land office, in the manner hereinafter set forth. [Acts of 1879, p. 84.]

Art. 1390. [812] Proceedings for removal of county seat.—When it becomes desirable to remove the county seat of any county, it shall be the duty of the county judge of said county, or, in case of his failure or inability to act, then two of the county commissioners of said county, upon the written application of not less than one hundred freeholders and qualified voters, who are resident citizens of said county thereof, to make an order in writing upon the minutes of said commissioners' court for the holding of an election at the various voting precincts in said county, on a day therein named, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days from date of said order, for the purpose of submitting the question to the electors of said county; provided, that, when a county seat has been established for a longer term than ten years, it shall require two hundred freeholders and qualified voters to make said application; provided, further, that in counties having less than three hundred and fifty legal voters, to be determined by the number of votes cast at the last preceding election for the state and county officers, such application may be made by one hundred resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county; and provided, further, that, when a county seat has been established for a longer term than forty years, it shall require a majority of the resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county to make the application, said majority of freeholders and qualified voters to be ascertained by the county judge, or, in case of his failure or inability to act, then by any two of the county commissioners of said county, from the assessment rolls thereof. [Acts 1893, p. 164. Acts 1903, p. 118.]

Art. 1391. [813] Geographical center, how designated.—The commissioner of the general land office, upon being notified by the county judge of any county that a proposition is submitted to the people of such county, or that it is desirable on the part of the people thereof, that the center of such county should be designated, preliminary to the removal of any county seat, shall, from the maps, surveys and other data on file in his office, designate the center of such county, and shall certify the same to the county judge of such county, who shall cause the same to be spread upon the records of deeds of his county. [Acts of 1879, p. 84.]

Art. 1392. [814] Who may vote and form of ballot.—All persons who are qualified electors under the constitution and laws of the state shall be entitled to vote at said election; and, on each ticket, the voter shall write or cause to be written or printed: "For removal to" [inserting the name of the place]; or, should the voter be in favor of the county seat remaining where the same is already located, he shall write or cause to be written or printed on his ticket: "For remaining at" [inserting the name of the place]. [Id.]

Art. 1393. [815] Election how conducted and ordered.—The county judge or commissioners shall order said election in each voting precinct in said county, which shall be conducted, as near as may be, as elections for county officers; and the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the officer ordering said election, within ten days after the same was held, who shall then proceed to open said returns and count the same, and declare the result, which shall be entered upon the records of said commissioners' court, and shall also state the name of the place from which the same is removed, and the name of the place to which the same is removed; and a certified copy of such entry shall thereupon be, by the county clerk of said county, recorded in the proper record deeds of such county. [Id.]

Art. 1394. [816] County seats removed, when.—When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the county seat, if the election be held to move the county seat from a point within five miles of the geographical center to a point more or less than five miles from the geographical center, or from a point more than five miles from the geographical center, to any other point more than five miles from such center, shall be removed to the place receiving the votes of two-thirds of all the electors voting on the subject; and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. But, if the election be held to move the county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center to a point within five miles of such center, then the county seat shall be moved to the place receiving a majority of all the electors in the county voting at such election, and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. [Id.]

Art. 1395. [817] No change by election until after five years.—Whenever an election for the location or removal of a county seat shall have been voted on by the electors of any county and the question settled by said electors, it shall not be lawful for a like application to be made for the same purpose within five years thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 1396. [818] [704] Courts shall be held at county seat.—All terms of the district, county and county commissioners' courts shall be held at the county seat. [R. S. 1879, 704.]

Art. 1397. [819] [705] Court house, jail, etc., to be provided.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court of each county, as soon as practicable after the establishment of a county seat, or after its removal from one place to another, to provide a court house and jail for the county, and offices for county officers at such county seat, and keep the same in good repair. [R. S. 1879, 705.]

Art. 1398. [820] When commissioners' court may fix place of holding court.—Until the county seats of new counties are established, as required by the provisions of this chapter, the courts of such new counties shall be held at such place as may be appointed by the county commissioners' court of such county. [Acts of 1879, p. 84.]

Art. 1399. [821] [706] Officers shall keep offices at county seats.—The county judge, sheriff, clerks of the district and county courts, county treasurer, assessor of taxes and collector of taxes, county surveyor and county attorney of the several counties of this state shall keep their several offices at the county seats of their respective counties. [Act March 16, 1848. Act May 13, 1848. R. S. 1879, 706. O. & W., 282, 284.]

CHAPTER SIX.

Article 1401. [823] [934] Duty of commissioners' court to procure ledger, etc.—The several county commissioners' courts shall each procure a well-bound ledger and index, and shall cause to be entered in said book a full, complete and orderly statement of the condition of the finances of the county.

Art. 1402. [824] [935] Duty of county clerk to keep accounts.—It is hereby made the duty of the clerk of the county court to open and keep in said book, which shall be known as a finance ledger, an account with each and every officer of the county, district, or state, who is now, or may hereafter be authorized or required by law to receive or collect any money or other property for the use of, or belonging to, the county. The clerk shall also keep such other accounts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this title; that all items shall be entered daily under their respective heads, and said finance ledger shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. [Act 1893, p. 160.]

Art. 1403. [824a] [935a] Same.—It shall be the duty of the said clerk to balance each account so kept, and make a tabular statement, under oath, at each regular term of the commissioners' court for the three months next preceding the month when such court meets in regular session, to be presented to said court during the second day of its term, specifying therein the names of the creditors of said county, and the items of indebtedness, with their respective dates of accrual, and also the names of persons to whom moneys have been paid, with the amounts paid each; the names of persons from whom moneys have been received, with the date of receipt, and for what account received, during the quarter for which such statement is prepared; said statement shall also show the amount to the credit or debit of each fund separately. [Id.]

Art. 1404. [824b] [935a] Same.—It shall be the duty of said clerk, immediately after the first regular term of the commissioners' court in each year, to publish for one time in some weekly newspaper published in his county (or if there be no paper published therein, then by posting four copies of such exhibit, one in each commissioners' precinct, one of which shall be at the court house door, the other three at public places in such precincts), an exhibit showing the aggregate amount received and the aggregate amount paid out of each fund for the four preceding quarters, and the balance to the credit or debit of each fund; also the amount of indebtedness of said county, with their respective dates of accrual, and to whom and for what due; also the amount to the debit or credit of each officer or other persons with whom an account is kept. The cost for publishing the same shall be paid by order of the commissioners' court out of the general fund of the county. [Id.]

Art. 1405. [824c] [935b] Compensation of clerk.—The clerk shall receive annually as compensation for the labor performed in keeping the finance ledger as provided for in article 1402, and making the quarterly statement as provided for in article 1403, the sum of five dollars for each one thousand dollars tax assessed as due the county, to be paid quarterly on order of the commissioners' court out of the general fund of the county; provided, the same be not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Art. 1406. [825] [936] Accounts shall be opened how, and shall be indexed.—Said accounts shall be opened by stating at the top of the page the name of the officer and his office; and all of said accounts shall be properly indexed for convenient reference.

Art. 1407. [826] [937] Account with the tax collector.—The accounts of the tax collector shall be kept as follows: A separate account shall be kept for each separate fund that may be upon the tax rolls; each account shall state the name of the collector, the character of the fund entered therein, and the year for which the same is assessed.

Art. 1408. [827] [938] Receipt of collector for tax rolls.—Whenever the tax rolls are ready for delivery to the tax collector, the court or officer having control of the same shall take from the collector a written receipt for the same, specifying the amount therein assessed and due the county, stating separately the amount assessed to each fund, and shall deliver said receipt to the clerk of the county court, who shall charge the collector with the amount stated in said receipt in the proper account; and said amounts shall be treated as debts due the county by the collector.

Art. 1409. [828] [939] How the collector may discharge his indebtedness.—The collector shall discharge said indebtedness within the time prescribed by law, by filing with said clerk receipts for the same, as follows:

1. The commission due the collector.
2. The assessor's receipt for commissions due such assessor, if any are to be paid by the county.
3. Proper vouchers for such payments as he is now, or may hereafter be required to pay out of any money on hand.
4. The receipt of the county treasurer for the money paid into the treasury.

Art. 1410. [829] [940] Collector shall make separate lists of indigent and delinquent taxpayers, etc.—The collector shall make separate lists of the indigent and delinquent taxpayers, showing their names, and the amount due by each taxpayer; and the court shall carefully examine said indigent and delinquent list, and shall make an order and enter the same upon the minutes of the court, stating the names and amounts that are adjudged uncollectible; and the collector shall have credit for the amounts included in said order in the proper accounts.

Art. 1411. [830] [941] No credit shall be entered for delinquent taxes until allowed by the court.—No credit for indigent or delinquent taxes shall be entered in said collector's accounts until an order of the court has been made and entered allowing the same.

Art. 1412. [831] [942] Taxes for each year shall be kept separate.—In keeping accounts with the collector, the taxes assessed for each year shall be kept separate and distinct.

Art. 1413. [832] [943] Tax collector going out of office shall deliver tax rolls to successor, etc.—Whenever a tax collector shall go out of office, he shall deliver to his successor the tax rolls in his possession, and shall receive from his successor a receipt in writing for the amount of taxes due on the tax rolls so delivered, specifying the amount of each fund and each year separately, and also the amount due on the indigent and delinquent list; which receipts he shall deliver to the clerk of the county court, who shall enter them to the credit of the collector presenting them, to the extent that the same are allowed by the court as hereinbefore provided, and shall charge the amounts so credited to the successor in office of such collector, in the proper accounts.

Art. 1414. [833] [944] Collector shall collect occupation tax, and receipt for same.—All occupation taxes due the county shall be collected by the tax collector of the county without assessment, and the collector shall give to the party paying the tax a receipt in writing, stating the name of the person paying the same, the occupation paid for, the time such occupation is to be pursued, and the amount collected for the state and for the county.

Art. 1415. [934] [945] County clerk shall issue occupation license, when.—Upon the presentation of the receipts provided for in the preceding article to the clerk of the county court of the county in which such tax has been paid, such clerk shall issue a license in the name of the state or county, or both, in accordance with the tax paid, to the person paying such tax, authorizing him to pursue the occupation named in such receipt during the time for which he has paid the tax.

Art. 1416. [835] [946] County clerk shall make two reports of licenses issued at end of each month.—Said clerk shall, at the end of every month, make two reports in writing, one of licenses issued on taxes paid to the state, which he shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts, by mail; the other of licenses issued on taxes paid to the county, and file the same in his office.

Art. 1417. [836] [947] What the reports shall state, etc.—The reports required by the preceding article shall state the name of the licensee, the occupation, the time for which the license is issued and the amount of taxes paid therefor, and shall be dated and signed officially by such clerk and attested by his seal of office.

Art. 1418. [837] [948] Clerk shall keep occupation tax account with collector.—The clerk shall keep an occupation tax account with the collector of the county, in which he shall charge the collector with all licenses issued for the county; and the collector shall have credit in said account for his commissions, and the amount paid into the treasury upon filing the proper receipt of the county treasurer with such clerk.

Art. 1419. [838] [949] Clerk shall keep account with sheriff.—An account shall be kept by the clerk with the sheriff of each county, in which such sheriff shall be charged with all judgments, fines, forfeitures and penalties, payable to the county, rendered in the district or county courts of the county, or any other court of his county, and with the collection of which he is, by law, made chargeable.

Art. 1420. [839] [950] How sheriff may free himself from liability under preceding article.—The sheriff may free himself from liability from the charge required in the preceding article by—

1. Producing the receipt of the county treasurer showing the payment of such judgment, fine, forfeiture or penalty.

2. By showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners' court that the same cannot be collected, or that the same has been discharged by imprisonment or labor, or by escape, without his fault or neglect; and none of the credits herein provided for, except those on the receipts of the treasurer, shall be entered without an order of the commissioners' court allowing the same.

Art. 1421. [840] [951] Clerks, etc., shall report fines, judgments and jury fees monthly.—Clerks of the district and county courts, county judges, county treasurers, sheriffs, district and county attorneys, constables and justices of the peace, who shall collect or handle any money for the use of the county, shall make a full and complete report, under oath, in writing, to the commissioners' court, at each regular term thereof, of all fines imposed and collected and all judgments rendered and collected for the use of the county, and all jury fees collected in their respective courts in favor of, or for the use of, the county; and at the same time to present their receipts and vouchers showing what disposition has been made of the money collected, fines imposed and judgments rendered; which reports, receipts and vouchers shall be carefully examined by the said commissioners' court, and, if found to be correct, shall cause the clerk to enter the same on the financial ledger, and, if found to be incorrect, shall summon said officer before them, and have the same corrected; and said reports, receipts and vouchers shall be filed in the county clerk's office. [Acts 1887, p. 36.]

Art. 1422. [841] [952] What the reports shall show.—The reports required by the preceding article shall state fully—

1. The name of the party fined and the amount of the fine, or the name of the party against whom judgment was rendered and the amount of such judgment, as the case may be.

2. The style and number of the cases in which fines have been imposed or judgments rendered, and the date thereof.

3. The amount of jury fees collected, and the style and number of the case in which each jury fee was collected and from whom collected.

Art. 1423. [842] [953] Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices shall be charged against them, etc.—Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices of the peace shall be charged against the justice of the peace imposing or rendering the same; and he may discharge said indebtedness by filing with the clerk of the county court the treasurer's receipt for the amount thereof, or by showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners' court that he has used due diligence to collect the same without avail, or that the same have been satisfied by imprisonment or labor.

Art. 1424. [843] [954] District attorney shall make report, etc.—The district attorney of each district shall, at each term of the district court for each county in his district, make a report in writing, to the clerk of the county court, of all moneys received by him since the last term of the district court for such county, for the use of such county.

Art. 1425. [844] [955] County attorney shall make report.—The county attorney of each county in the state shall make a similar report to the one required in the preceding article to the clerk of the county court of his county, at the end of each month.

Art. 1426. [845] Judgment not collectible may be sold.—Whenever the principal and sureties upon any judgment, the proceeds of which revert to, and belong to, any county, are insolvent so that under any existing process of law said judgment or any part thereof can not be collected, the commissioners' court of said county are hereby constituted a board to dispose of such judgment, and are hereby empowered and authorized, by such advertising as they may deem necessary, to offer for sale, as they may deem to be the best interests of the county, all the right of the county to such judgment. And, if by public sale, if the amount bid on the same shall not be deemed sufficient, they shall refuse to accept the same, and dispose of the same in any manner deemed by them most advantageous to the interest of the county, and, upon sale, shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser. [Acts of 1879, p. 9.]

Art. 1427. [846] [956] Any officer collecting money for county shall report the same.—When any officer collects money belonging to, and for the use of, any county, he shall, except where otherwise provided in this title, forthwith report the same in writing to the clerk of the county court of the county to which such money belongs, stating fully in such report from whom collected, the amount collected, the time when collected, and by virtue of what authority or process collected.

Art. 1428. [847] [957] Money collected by officer shall be charged to him, etc.—When any officer reports to the clerk of the county court any money collected by such officer for the use of the county, the amount of money so collected shall be charged to such officer, and he may discharge himself from such indebtedness by producing the receipt of the proper county treasurer therefor.

Art. 1429. [848] [958] Estray account.—There shall also be kept in the ledger, provided for in article 1401, an estray account, in which shall be entered on the debit side of each application made to the clerk of the county court to estray any animal in his county by entering the date of the application, the name of the person estraying, and a brief description of the animal, or animals, to be estrayed; and the amount of such charge shall be left blank until said person shall file his account of the sale of said animal or animals; and, upon the filing of said account, the net amount due the county from such sale shall be entered in the blank.

Art. 1430. [849] [959] Same subject.—When the receipt of the county treasurer is presented to the clerk, showing any amount paid into the treasury on account of the sale of an estray, the same shall be entered on the credit side of the account, showing the date, name of payer, amount paid and a brief description of the estray, and such amount shall be charged on the debit side of the county treasurer's account.

Art. 1431. [850] [960] Clerk shall keep account with county treasurer.—An account shall also be kept in said ledger by the clerk with the county treasurer, in which such treasurer shall be charged separately with the amount of each fund for which he gives a receipt to the sheriff, collector, or other person paying the same into the treasury; and such treasurer shall have credit for all moneys paid out by him, when the commissioners' court has approved his reports of the same, and for his legal commissions.

Art. 1432. [851] [961] County treasurer shall register claims against the county.—The county treasurer of each county shall keep a well-bound book in which he shall register all claims against his county, when presented to him for registration; and no claim, or any part thereof, against a county shall be paid by such county treasurer, nor shall the same, or any part thereof, be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county, until it has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this title.

Art. 1433. [852] [962] Claims shall be classified.—Claims against a county shall be registered in three classes, as follows:

1. All jury scrip and scrip issued for feeding jurors.
2. All scrip issued under the provisions of the road law or for work done on roads and bridges.
3. All the general indebtedness of the county, including feeding and guarding prisoners, and paupers' claims.

Art. 1434. [853] [963] Manner of registering claims.—Each claim shall be entered in the register, stating the class to which it belongs, the name of the payee, the amount, the date of the claim, the date of registration, the number of such claim, by what authority issued, and for what service the same was issued.

Art. 1435. [854] [964] What shall be written on registered claim.—When a claim has been registered, the treasurer shall write on the face of the same its registered number, the word "registered," the date of such registration, and shall sign his name officially thereto.

Art. 1436. [855] [965] Claims shall be numbered, in what order.—Claims shall be numbered in the order presented, and, if more than one claim is presented at one and the same time, they shall be numbered in the order of their date.

Art. 1437. [856] [966] Order in which claims shall be paid.—The treasurer shall pay off the claims in each class in the order in which they are registered.

Art. 1438. [857] [967] Classification of county funds.—The funds received by the county treasurer shall be classed as follows:

1. All jury fees, all money received from the sale of estrays, and all occupation taxes; and this class of funds shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class first, described in article 1433.
2. All money received under any of the provisions of the road and bridge law, including the penalties recovered from railroads for failing to repair crossings, prescribed in article 6494, and all fines and forfeitures; and this fund shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class second.

3. All money received, not otherwise appropriated herein or by the commissioners' court; and the funds of this class shall be appropriated to the payment of all claims registered in class third. [Const., art. 16, sec. 24.]

Art. 1439. [858] [968] Commissioners' court may create other classes of funds, etc.—The commissioners' court shall have power to cause such other accounts to be kept, creating other classes of funds, as it may deem proper, and require the scrip to be issued against the same and registered accordingly.

Art. 1440. [859] [969] Said court may transfer one class of funds to another, except, etc.—The commissioners' court shall have power, by an order to that effect, to transfer the money in hand from one fund to another, as in its judgment is deemed necessary and proper, except that the funds which belong to class first shall never be diverted from the payment of the claims to which the same are appropriated by article 1438, unless there is an excess of such funds.

Art. 1441. [860] [970] County treasurer shall report registered claims each month.—The county treasurer shall, at the end of each month, file in the office of the clerk of the county court of his county a report in writing, showing the total amount of claims registered by him during said month, stating each class separately.

Art. 1442. [861] [971] Clerk shall enter report upon ledger, etc.—The clerk with whom the report required by the preceding article is filed shall enter the same upon the ledger under the head of "Registered indebtedness of the county," keeping a separate account of each class of indebtedness, and, from the reports of the treasurer of disbursements made, credit said accounts with the total amount of vouchers of each class of claims paid.

Art. 1443. [862] [972] Party receiving payment of claim shall receipt thereon.—The county treasurer, or any other officer disbursing money for the county, or receiving county claims in payment of dues of any kind, shall require the party receiving payment of, or credit for the same, his agent or attorney, to receipt in writing upon the face of such claim for the amount so paid or received thereon.

Art. 1444. [863] [973] Officer receiving claim in payment of debt to county shall report list of same.—Every officer who shall collect any fine, penalty, forfeiture, judgment, tax or other indebtedness due the county, in claims against the county, shall keep a descriptive list of such claims, and shall when he reports such collection file with his report a list stating the party in whose favor each claim was issued, the class and registered number thereof, the name of the party paying in such claim, and the amount received, and for what purpose received.

Art. 1445. [864] [974] Claims received by other officer than county treasurer shall be reported to county treasurer.—Claims received for the county by any officer other than the treasurer shall be turned over together with the list mentioned in the preceding article to the county treasurer, who shall give a proper receipt for the same, and the county treasurer shall file said list with his report in the office of the clerk of the county court.

Art. 1446. [865] [975] County treasurer shall keep accounts, etc.—The county treasurer shall keep accurate accounts showing all the transactions of his office in detail; and all warrants by him paid off shall be punched at the time he pays them; and the vouchers relating to and accompanying each report shall be presented to the commissioners' court with the corresponding report, when it shall be the duty of said court to compare the vouchers with the report, and all proper vouchers shall be allowed and the treasurer credited with the amount thereof. [Acts of 1889, p. 6.]

Art. 1447. [866] [976] Claim shall be canceled, when and how.—When a claim presented as a voucher has been found by the court to be correct, the court shall cause the same to be canceled by writing or stamping upon the face thereof the word "canceled," and the clerk shall attest the same by his official signature.

Art. 1448. [807] [977] Report of treasurer, order approving; to recite what; credit.—When the commissioners' court has compared and examined the quarterly report of the treasurer, and found the same correct, it shall cause an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court, stating the approval thereof, which order shall recite separately, the amount received and paid out of each fund by the treasurer since the preceding treasurer's quarterly report, and the balance of such fund, if any, remaining in the treasurer's hands, and the court shall cause the proper credit to be made in the accounts of the treasurer, in accordance with said order. [Acts 1897, p. 27.]

Art. 1449. [867] [977] Commissioners to inspect and count cash, etc., in hands of treasurer, etc.—Said court shall actually inspect and count all the actual cash and assets in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the county at the time of the examination of his said report. [Id.]

Art. 1450. [867] [977] Affidavit of compliance, etc.; filing, record and publication of, etc.—Prior to the adjournment of each regular term of the court, the county judge and each of the commissioners shall make affidavit in writing that the requirements of articles 1448 and 1449 have been in all things fully complied with by them at said term of said court, and that the cash and other assets mentioned in said county treasurer's quarterly report made by said treasurer to said court, and held by him for the county, have been fully inspected and counted by them, giving the amount of said money and other assets in his hands; which affidavits of the members shall be filed with the county clerk of the county, and by him recorded in the minutes of the said county commissioners' court of the term at which the same were filed; and the same shall be published in some newspaper published in the county, if there be a newspaper published in the county, for one time, to be paid for at the same rate as other legal notices. [Id.]

Art. 1451. [868] [978] Commissioners' court shall examine and correct all accounts and reports, etc.—The commissioners' court shall, at each regular term, examine all accounts and reports relating to the finances of the county, and compare the same with the vouchers accompanying them, and cause such corrections to be made as are necessary, in order to make said accounts and reports correct, and shall cause all orders made by them, appertaining to said accounts and reports, to be properly entered upon the minutes of said court and noted upon said accounts and reports.

Art. 1452. [869] [979] Reports and vouchers shall be filed and preserved in county clerk's office.—All reports and vouchers shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and shall be carefully preserved therein, and shall be briefly noted in the proper account upon the ledger.

Art. 1453. [870] [980] District judge shall appoint committee to examine into the finances of county.—At each term of the district court, the district judge, upon request of the grand jury, may appoint a committee consisting of three citizens of the county, men of good moral character and intelligence, and experienced accountants, to examine into the condition of the finances of the county.

Art. 1454. [871] [981] Duty of such committee.—It shall be the duty of the committee provided for in the preceding article to examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and orders of the commissioners' court relating to the finances of the county that have not been examined and reported upon by a previous committee; to count all the money in the office of the county treasurer belonging to the county, and to make such other examination as to them may seem necessary and proper in order to ascertain the true condition of the finances of the county, and the court shall, if necessary, upon the application of said committee, send for persons and evidence to aid them in their investigation.

Art. 1455. [872] [982] Report of committee.—Said committee shall, at the earliest practicable day after their appointment, make to said district court a report in writing, in detail, stating whether the books and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of this title are correctly kept in accordance with said provisions, and setting forth fully the condition of the finances of the county, the state of each officer's account, and specifying all irregularities, omissions or malfeasance of any kind that they may discover. Said report shall be signed and sworn to by said committee and filed in the office of the clerk of said district court, and the attention of the grand jury called thereto as soon after the filing of the same as practicable.

Art. 1456. [873] [983] Pay of committee.—Said committeemen shall each be entitled to receive for their services three dollars for each day, not to exceed five days, that they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such, which fees shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the certificate of the district judge stating the number of days served.

Art. 1457. [874] [984] All reports shall be sworn to.—All reports required under any of the provisions of this title shall be sworn to by the officer making the same, before some officer authorized to administer oaths.

Art. 1458. [875] [985] Monthly reports shall be filed, when.—All monthly reports required by any of the provisions of this title shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the proper county within five days after the end of each month.

Art. 1459. [876] [986] Warrants issued against county by judge or court shall be attested by clerk, etc.—All warrants or scrip issued against the county treasurer by any judge or court shall be signed and attested by the clerk or judge of the court issuing the same, under his official seal; and no justice of the peace shall have authority to issue warrants against the treasury for any purpose whatever, except as provided in article 1117 [1170] of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

1. APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS, BONDS.

Article 1460. County auditor appointed in what counties; title; term; salary.—In any county of this state, having a population of forty thousand inhabitants or over, or having therein a city with a population of twenty-five thousand or over, according to the last United States census, there shall be appointed an auditor of accounts and finances, the title of said office to be county auditor, who shall hold his office for a term of two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified; and who shall receive an annual salary of twenty-four hundred dollars, to be paid out of the general fund of the county upon the order of the commissioners' court. [Acts 1907, p. 315. Acts 1905, p. 381.]

Art. 1461. Appointment by whom; reported to commissioners; recorded.—The county judge shall convene a special meeting of the judges of the county and district courts, or courts having jurisdiction in the county, who shall jointly appoint the auditor, a majority vote ruling. The action shall then be reported by the county judge to the commissioners' court in regular or special session, which shall have said appointment entered upon the minutes of said court. [Acts 1905, p. 381, sec. 2.]

Art. 1462. Qualifications.—The auditor to be appointed must be a man of unquestionably good moral character and intelligence, thoroughly competent in business details; he must be a competent accountant who has actually had practical experience in auditing and accounting. The judges empowered with this appointment must carefully investigate and consider the qualifications of said person before appointment. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1463. Bond; oath, requisites of.—The auditor shall, within twenty days of his appointment, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, make a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the commissioners' court. In addition to said bond, he shall make the usual oath of office and an additional one in writing, stating that he is in every way qualified under the provisions and requirements of this chapter, and giving fully the positions of private or public trust he has heretofore held, and the length of service under each of said employments or appointments. He shall further include in his oath that he will not personally be interested in any contract with the county. [Id. sec. 4.]

2. ASSISTANT AND CLERICAL HELP.

Art. 1464. May appoint assistant, with consent of county judge.—The auditor may, at any time, appoint an assistant to act in his stead, and who may discharge the duties of the auditor during his absence or unavoidable detention, said appointment to be made with the consent of the county judge, who shall require said assistant to take the usual oath of office for faithful performance of duty. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 1465. May appoint clerical help, with consent of county judge.—The auditor shall also have the power to appoint additional clerical help when needed, with the consent of the county judge, or of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 5.]

3. BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

Art. 1466. Books and stationery.—The auditor shall, at the expense of the county, provide himself with all necessary ledgers, books, records, blanks and stationery. [Id. sec. 5.]

4. DUTIES AND POWERS OF AUDITOR.

Art. 1467. General duties of auditor.—It shall be the duty of the auditor to have a general oversight of all the books and records of all the officers of the county, district or state, who are now, or who may hereafter be, authorized or required by law to receive or collect any money, funds, fees or other property for the use of, or belonging to, the county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1468. Access to and right to examine accounts, orders of commissioners, etc.—He shall have continual access to, and shall examine, all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of any of the officers, and also the orders of the commissioners' court relating to the finances of the county. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1469. Reports, monthly, under article 1421, examination of.—All reports required under article 1421 shall also be carefully examined and reported on by him. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1470. Reports and books of officers, quarterly examination and checking of.—He shall at least once in each quarter check the books and examine all the reports of the tax collector, the treasurer and all other officers, in detail, verifying the footings and correctness of same, and shall stamp his approval thereon, or note any differences, errors or discrepancies. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1471. Report, quarterly, of treasurer, examination of.—He shall carefully examine the quarterly report of the treasurer, of all the disbursements, together with the canceled warrants which have been paid, and shall verify the same with the register of warrants issued as shown on the books of the auditor. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 1472. Count, etc., cash in hands of treasurer or depository, how, when, etc.—It shall be the duty of the auditor, without giving any notice beforehand, to examine fully into the condition of, or to inspect and count the cash in the hands of, the county treasurer, or in the bank in which he may have placed same for safe keeping, not less than once in each quarter, and oftener as desired. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1473. Law, see to enforcement of.—The auditor shall see that the law is strictly enforced. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1474. Balances, see that all to credit of funds are on hand.—The auditor shall see that all balances to the credit of the various funds are actually on hand in cash. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1475. Investment of funds, see that none unauthorized.—He shall fully investigate and see that none of said funds are invested in any manner, except as the law may otherwise authorize. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1476. Forms for collection, mode of keeping, etc., accounts; time for reports, shall prescribe.—He shall prescribe and prepare the forms to be used by all persons in the collection of county revenues, funds, fees and all other moneys, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and the time, mode and manner of making their reports to the auditor, also the mode and manner of making their annual report of office fees collected and disbursed, and the amount refunded to the county in excess of those allowed under the general fee bill law. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1477. Regulation for collecting, accounting, etc., may adopt and enforce.—He shall have the power to adopt and enforce such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper collection, checking and accounting of the revenues and other funds and fees belonging to the county. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1478. Deposits in treasury to be made how.—All deposits that are made in the county treasury shall be upon a deposit warrant issued by the county clerk in triplicate; said warrants shall authorize the treasurer to receive the amount named, for what purpose, and to which fund the same shall be applied. The treasurer shall retain the original; the duplicate shall be signed and returned to the county clerk for the county auditor, and the triplicate signed and returned to the depositor. The auditor shall then enter same upon his books, charging the amounts to the county treasurer and crediting the party depositing same. The treasurer shall not, under any circumstances, receive any money in any other manner than that named herein. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 1479. Bids for stationery, etc.; purchase from lowest bidder, etc.—Bids shall be hereafter asked for all supplies of stationery, books, blanks, records, and other supplies for the various officers for which the county is required to pay, and the purchase made from the lowest bidder, after filing said bid with the auditor for record. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 1480. Bids for supplies, etc.—Supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments or institutions, must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the commissioners' court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to advertise for a period of two weeks in at least one daily newspaper, published and circulated in the county, for such supplies and material according to specifications, giving in detail what is needed. Such advertisement shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give time and place for receiving such bids. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office and shall be subject to inspection by any one desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the county auditor to the county judge and to the commissioners' court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the said judge, or county commissioners, it shall be the duty of the county auditor to reject said bids and readvertise for new bids; provided, that in cases of emergency, purchases not in excess of fifty dollars may be made upon requisition, to be approved by the commissioners' court, without advertising for competitive bids. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 1481. Claims, etc., to be filed in what time; not to be paid until, etc.—All claims, bills and accounts against the county must be filed in ample time for the auditor to examine and approve same before the meetings of the commissioners' court; and no claim, bill or account shall be allowed or paid until same shall have been examined and approved by the county auditor. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 1482. Shall examine and approve claims; to be verified.—It shall be the duty of the auditor to examine such claims, bills and accounts, and stamp his approval thereon. If deemed necessary by the auditor, all such accounts, bills, or claims must be verified by affidavit touching the correctness of the same, before some person authorized to administer oaths. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 1483. May administer oaths, when.—The auditor is hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purposes of this chapter. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 1484. Restrictions and requirements in audit and approval of claims, requisition, etc., bids for supplies, etc.—He shall not audit or approve any claim against the county, unless the same has been contracted as provided by law, nor any account for the purchase of supplies or material for the use of said county or any of its officers, unless, in addition to other requirements of law, there is attached thereto a requisition signed by the officer ordering same and approved by the county judge; which said requisition must be made out and signed and approved in triplicate by the said officers, the triplicate to remain with the officer desiring the purchase, the duplicate to be filed with the county auditor, and the original to be delivered to the party from whom said purchase is to be made before any purchase shall be made. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 1485. Warrants, to countersign, except jury.—All warrants on the county treasurer, except warrants for jury service, must be countersigned by the county auditor. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 1486. Register, shall keep, of warrants issued by clerks and judges; who shall report, etc.—He shall keep a register of all warrants issued by the judges or clerks on the county treasurer, and their dates of payment by the treasurer. In order that he may do so, the clerks of the county and district courts, or the judges therefor, who are authorized to issue any warrant on the county treasurer, shall on forms prepared by the auditor daily furnish to the auditor an itemized report specifying the warrants that have been issued, their numbers, their several amounts, the names of the persons to whom payable, and for what purpose. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 1487. Accounts, shall keep, with officers named, relieving clerk of finance ledger.—It shall be his duty to keep an account with each and every person named in the preceding sections [articles] and in doing so he shall relieve the county clerk of keeping the finance ledger required in article 1402. His books shall show the detailed items of the indebtedness against all of said officers and the manner of discharging same. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1488. Statements to be required from persons receiving money or property of county.—He shall require all persons who shall have received any moneys belonging to the county, or having the disposition or management of any property of the county, to render statements to him. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1489. Books, general set of, showing transactions of county, shall keep.—He shall keep a general set of books, which shall show all the transactions of the county relating to accounts, contracts, indebtedness of the county, and its receipts and disbursements of all kinds. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1490. Report tabulated, shall make for each regular meeting of commissioners.—He shall make tabulated reports of said funds and accounts for each regular meeting of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1491. Reports, quarterly and annual, to be made to commissioners, showing what, etc.—He shall make quarterly and annual reports to the commissioners' court, setting forth all the facts of interest, and showing the aggregate amounts received and disbursed out of each fund, the condition of each and every account on the books, the amount of bonded and other indebtedness of the county, together with such other information and suggestions as he may deem proper, or the commissioners' court may require. This annual report shall be made to include all transactions during the year ending July 31 of each year, and shall be completed and filed at a special term of the commissioners' court in September. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 1492. Estimate, shall prepare for commissioners; who shall prepare budget.—He shall prepare an estimate of all the revenues and expenses, and annually furnish same to the commissioners' court, which court shall carefully make a budget of all appropriations to be set aside for the various expenses of the county government in each branch and department. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1493. Expenses, shall see that do not exceed appropriations.—He shall carefully keep an oversight of same to see that the expenses of any department do not exceed said budget appropriation, and keep the commissioners' court advised of the condition of said appropriation accounts from time to time. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1494. Account with each appropriation, shall open, etc.—He shall open an account with each appropriation in said budget, and all warrants drawn against same shall be entered to said account. [Id. sec. 10.]

5. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Art. 1495. Provisions of this chapter cumulative, but controlling.—The provisions of this chapter are cumulative, and, where conflicting with any existing law, the provisions of this chapter shall control. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 1496. County clerks duties, how affected.—Where the provisions of this chapter impose upon the auditor like duties as are now required of the county clerk, the provisions of this chapter shall prevail, and to such extent only is the county clerk relieved of his duties. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 1497. Removal of auditor, grounds, mode.—Whenever an auditor, appointed under the provisions of this act, has been sufficiently proven guilty of official misconduct, or has proven to be incompetent to faithfully discharge the duties required of him, he may, after due investigation by the same power which appointed him, be removed, and his successor appointed as provided in articles 1461 and 1462. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 1498. Bell county exempt from provisions.—Bell county shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909. p. 238.]

Article 1499. [919] [987] Election and term of office.—At each regular biennial election for state and county officers, there shall be elected in each county, by the qualified voters thereof, a county treasurer, whose term of office shall be two years and until his successor is qualified. [Const., art. 16, sec. 44. Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 199.]

Art. 1500. [920] [988] Oath and bond of.—The county treasurer, before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state and shall give a bond payable to the county judge of his county, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his hands as county treasurer, and render a just and true account thereof to said court at each regular term of said court, which oath and bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of such county and safely preserved. [Act May 13, 1846. P. D. 1096.]

[Note.—Old art. 921 substituted by Act 1905, p. 263, sec. 31; for which see title "Education, Public," art. 2768. Also see Acts 1909, p. 22, sec. 154a.]

Art. 1501. [922] [990] Shall be required to give new bond, when.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court, whenever they may consider the bonds, or either of the bonds, of a county treasurer, from any cause, insufficient or doubtful, to require such treasurer to give another bond or bonds, or to give additional bond or bonds, as the case may be.

Art. 1502. [923] [991] Office to be declared vacant, when.—Should the person elected treasurer fail to give the bonds required by this title and take the oath of office within twenty days after receiving his certificate of election, it shall be the duty of the county judge to declare the said office vacant; and, should a treasurer fail to give another or an additional bond or bonds when required to do so, as provided in the preceding article, within twenty days after notice of such requirement, he shall be removed from said office in the manner provided by law.

Art. 1503. [924] [992] Vacancy, how filled.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of the county treasurer, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of the county in which such vacancy occurs to fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointment to be made by a majority vote of the commissioners present, at a regular or special term of such court, and such appointment shall continue in force until the next general election and until a successor is qualified. [Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 217.]

Art. 1504. [925] [993] Appointee shall take oath and give bonds.—The person appointed to fill the vacancy, as provided in the preceding article, shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of such office, and within twenty days after he has been notified of such appointment, take the oath and give the bonds required, as in the case of an election to such office. [Id.]

Art. 1505. [926] [994] Shall receive moneys belonging to county, etc.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived, and to pay and apply the same as required by law, in such manner as the commissioners' court of his county may require and direct. [Act May 13, 1846. P. D. 1097.]

Art. 1506. [927] [995] Shall keep true accounts and superintend collection of money, etc.—The county treasurer shall keep a just and true account of the receipts and expenditures of all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the debts due to and from his county; and direct prosecutions according to law for the recovery of all debts that may be due his county, and superintend the collection thereof. [Id. P. D. 1098.]

Art. 1507. [928] [996] Shall report to commissioners' court.—The county treasurer shall render a detailed report at every regular term of the commissioners' court of his county of all the moneys received and disbursed by him, of all debts due to and from his county, and of all other proceedings in his office, and shall exhibit to said court at every such term all his books and accounts for their inspection and all vouchers relating to the same, to be audited and allowed. [Id. P. D. 1099.]

Art. 1508. [929] [997] Shall deliver money, etc., to successor in office.—He shall deliver the moneys, securities, and all other property of the county in his hands, together with all documents, instruments of writing, papers and books belonging to, or for the use of, the county to his successor in office, and perform all such other acts as may be required of him by said commissioners' court. [Id. P. D. 1100.]

Art. 1509. [930] [998] Shall not pay out money except, etc.—The county treasurer shall not pay any money out of the county treasury except in pursuance of a certificate or warrant from some officer authorized by law to issue the same; and, if such treasurer shall have any doubt of the legality or propriety of any order, decree, certificate or warrant presented to him for payment, he shall not pay the same, but shall make report thereof to the commissioners' court for their consideration and direction. [Id. P. D. 1101.]

Art. 1510. [931] [999] Shall examine docket, accounts, etc.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to examine the accounts, dockets and records of the clerks, sheriff, justices of the peace, constables and tax collector of his county, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any moneys of right belonging to his county are in their hands which have not been accounted for and paid over according to law, and shall report the same to the commissioners' court at their next term, to the end that suit may be instituted for the recovery thereof. [Id. P. D. 1102.]

Art. 1511. [932] [1000] Shall perform such other duties as may be required by law.—The county treasurer shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law.

Art. 1513. [934] [1002] Election and tenure of office.—The chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state at a general election. The judges of said court now in office shall hold their office until the expiration of the term for which they were elected, and until their successors are elected and qualified. As soon as practicable after the election of the successors to the present incumbents, the newly elected judges shall cast lots for the term of office. That one who shall draw number one shall hold his office for two years; the one drawing number two shall hold his office for four years, and the one drawing number three shall hold his office for six years; each to hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified; and each justice of the supreme court elected thereafter shall hold his office for six years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall each receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars. [Acts of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1514. [935] [1003] Qualifications of judges.—No person shall be eligible to the office of chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court, unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this state, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in this state, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years. [Id.]

Art. 1515. [936] [1004] Vacancies, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in the office of chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court, the governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the state. [Id.]

Art. 1516. [969] [1040] Disqualification of judges.—No judge of the supreme court shall sit in any cause wherein he may be interested in the question to be determined, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity, within the third degree, or where he shall have been of counsel in the cause; and, when the court or any two of its members shall be thus disqualified to hear and determine any cause or causes in said court, the same shall be certified to the governor, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons, learned in the law, for the trial and determination of said cause or causes. [Const. art. 5, sec. 11; Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 1575.]

Art. 1517. [970] [1041] Equal division of judges.—Whenever the supreme court shall be equally divided in opinion on hearing any appeal or other matter, it shall be the duty of the chief justice or presiding judge of the court to certify the same to the governor; also, all other causes of disability of said court, as prescribed in the preceding article; whereupon, the governor shall immediately commission the required number of persons learned in the law for the determination of said case or cases; provided, that the person or persons so commissioned shall possess all the qualifications hereinbefore and hereinafter prescribed for judges of the supreme court. [P. D. 1576.]

May ascertain jurisdictional facts.....	1525
May issue writs	1526

Article 1521. [940] [1011] Appellate jurisdiction of supreme court.—The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the state, which shall extend to questions of law arising in all civil cases of which the courts of civil appeals have appellate but not final jurisdiction. [Acts' of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1522. [941] [1011a] Writs of error, in what cases.—All causes shall be carried up to the supreme court by writs of error upon final judgment and not on judgments reversing and remanding causes, except in the following cases, to-wit:

1. Where the state is a party or where the railroad commissioners are parties.
2. Cases which involve the construction and application of the constitution of the United States, or of the state of Texas, or of an act of congress.
3. Cases which involve the validity of a statute of the state.
4. Cases involving the title to a state office.
5. Cases in which a civil court of appeals overrules its own decisions or the decision of another court of civil appeals or of the supreme court.
6. Cases in which the judges of any court of civil appeals may disagree.
7. Cases in which any two of the courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same question of law.
8. When the judgment of the court of civil appeals reversing a judgment practically settles the case, and this fact is shown in the petition for writ of error, and the attorneys for petitioners shall state that the decision of the court of civil appeals practically settles the case, in which case, if the supreme court affirms the decision of the court of civil appeals, it shall also render final judgment accordingly. [Id. Amend. 1895, p. 145.]

Art. 1523. [944] [1011d] Court to make rules, etc.—The supreme court shall, from time to time, make and promulgate suitable forms, rules and regulations for carrying into effect the articles of this title relating to the jurisdiction and practice of the supreme court. [Acts 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1524. [947] [1014] To prescribe rules of practice.—The supreme court shall have power to make, establish and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, for the government of said court and all other courts of the state, so as to expedite the dispatch of business in said courts. [Id.]

Art. 1525. [945] [1011e] May ascertain jurisdictional facts.—The supreme court shall have the power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as the court may determine, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 1526. [946] [1012] May issue writs.—The supreme court, or any justice thereof, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus as may be prescribed by law; and the said court, or the justices thereof, may issue writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and all writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said court; and, in term time or vacation, may issue writs of quo warranto or mandamus against any district judge or officer of the state government, except the governor of the state. [Id.]

[Note.—See title “Mandamus.”]

Art. 1527. [948] [1015] May punish contempt.—The supreme court shall have power to punish any person for a contempt of said court, according to the principles and usages of law in like cases, not to exceed one thousand dollars fine, and imprisonment not exceeding twenty days. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 1577.]

Art. 1528. [949] [1016] May issue mandamus to compel district judge to proceed to trial.—The said court, or any judge thereof, in vacation, may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause, agreeably to the principles and usages of law, returnable to the supreme court on or before the first day of the term, or during the session of the same, or before any judge of the said court, as the nature of the case may require. [P. D. 1579.]

Art. 1529. May issue writs of habeas corpus when, and admit to bail.—The supreme court of Texas, or any one of the justices thereof, shall have power, either in term time or vacation, to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases where any person is restrained in his liberty by virtue of any order, process or commitment, issued by any court or judge, on account of the violation of any order, judgment or decree, theretofore made, rendered or entered by such court or judge in any civil cause; and said supreme court, or any one of the justices thereof, shall have power, either in term time or vacation, pending the hearing of the application for such writ, to admit to bail any person to whom the writ of habeas corpus may be so granted. [Acts 1905, p. 20.]

Seal of court, clerk to procure.....1533	His duties as such.....1538
Shall file and preserve transcripts, docket causes.....1534

Article 1530. [950] [1017] Appointment, qualification and bond.—There shall be appointed for the supreme court one clerk, who shall reside at the place of holding court, which appointment shall be made by the court, or the judges thereof, and shall be entered of record in the proceedings of the court; and each person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution, before some officer authorized to administer oaths generally, and shall enter into a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court or judges thereof, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the penalty of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and that he correctly record the judgments, decrees, decisions and orders of the said court, and deliver over to his successor in office all records, minutes, books and papers, and whatever belongs to his said office of clerk; which bond and oath shall, without delay, be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and shall not be void on first recovery, but may be put in suit and prosecuted by any party injured until the amount thereof be recovered. [Acts of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1531. [951] [1018] Vacancy in vacation, how filled.—If, in vacation, the office of clerk may become vacant, the appointment shall be made by the chief justice and the associates of said court, or any one of said associates and chief justice; and the person so appointed shall give bond and take the oath as prescribed in the preceding article, the bond to be approved by any judge of the court; which bond and oath shall be deposited in the same manner as though the appointment had been made in term time, and may be prosecuted and put in suit in like manner; copies of said bond, certified under the hand of the secretary of state and the seal of state, shall be received in evidence in any court in this state, in the same manner as the original would be were it presented in court; and the said appointment shall continue until the next regular term of the said court, or until a regular appointment shall be made. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 1564.]

Art. 1532. [952] [1019] Term of office and salary.—The clerk of the supreme court shall hold his office for the term of four years from his appointment, but may be removed therefrom for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, by the supreme court, on motion, of which the clerk against whom complaint is made shall have ten days previous notice, specifying the particular charges of negligence or misconduct in office preferred; and in every such case the court shall determine the law and the facts; and whenever the necessity occurs, the supreme court may appoint a clerk pro tempore. The clerk of the supreme court shall receive as compensation for his services a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, and he shall collect and pay into the treasury of the state all fees and costs to be collected by him over and above the salaries allowed him and his deputies, under such further rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the comptroller, not in conflict with this chapter; such rules and regulations to be subject to the approval of the judges of the supreme court, to be entered of record in the minutes of said court. [Acts 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1533. [953] [1020] Seal of court, clerk to procure.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court to procure a seal for the use of the court, which shall have a star of five points, with the words "Supreme Court of the State of Texas" engraved thereon. [Act May 12, 1846. P. D. 1569.]

Art. 1534. [954] [1021] Shall file and preserve transcripts and docket causes.—The clerk of the supreme court shall file and carefully preserve the transcripts of all records certified to said court, and all papers relative thereto, and shall docket all causes in the order in which the court shall direct. [P. D. 1583.]

Art. 1535. [955] [1022] Shall record proceedings.—The said clerk shall faithfully record the proceedings and decisions of said court, and certify their judgments to the courts from which the causes were brought. [P. D. 1584.]

Art. 1536. [956] [1023] Deputies, appointment, etc.; bond, compensation, duties.—The clerk of the supreme court may appoint one deputy when authorized to do so by a majority of the judges of the supreme court, which authority shall appear of record in the minutes of said court. Said deputy may discharge all the duties required by law of said clerk, and shall be required to give bond in the same manner and amount as the clerk of said court, and to be approved by the judges of said court. Said deputy shall receive as compensation for his services such sum as shall be unanimously agreed on by the judges of the supreme court, this action to appear of record in the minutes of the court, not to exceed the sum of two thousand dollars per annum, to be paid out of the fees collected by the clerk of said court. If the business of the court shall require it, the judges may, by order entered upon the minutes, authorize the clerk of said court to appoint another deputy who shall have like powers as the first, and shall give bond in such sum as may be specified by the court. The court shall, in its order, fix the compensation of the additional deputy at a sum per month, not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum, to be paid out of the fees of the office collected by the clerk; and the court in said order shall specify the time for which the appointment may be made. The judges of the supreme court may dispense with the services of either or both of said deputies, or for any length of time as in their discretion they may deem to the public interest. [Acts 1903, p. 115.]

Art. 1537. [957] [1024] Clerk to be librarian.—The clerk of the supreme court shall be librarian in charge of the library of said court. [Acts 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1538. [958] [1025] His duties as such.—It shall be the duty of such librarian to take charge of and keep together and in good order and make catalogues of the books of said libraries, which shall be open to the public use under such rules as may be prescribed by the court for the safe keeping thereof; provided, the books shall not be removed from the library room, except by the judges of the court and by members of the legislature during the session of the legislature, upon their receipt for the same to the clerk. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

STENOGRAPHER.

Court stenographer and salary.....	Article. 1539
------------------------------------	------------------

Article 1539. [952] [1019] Court stenographer and salary.—The supreme court shall appoint a stenographer for said court, at an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. [Acts 1892, p. 22.]

THE WRIT OF ERROR—PROCEEDINGS TO OBTAIN, ETC.

Petition for writ of error; requisites of and bond	Article. 1540	Conclusions of fact, may suspend action on petition to obtain.....	Article. 1542
Filing; time of, etc.....	1541	Writ granted, when, etc.....	1544
Petition with record, etc., to be for- warded; provided deposit, etc.....	1542	Bond required, when.....	1543

Article 1540. [942] [1011b] Petition for writ of error; requisites of and bond.—Any party desiring to sue out a writ of error before the supreme court shall present his petition addressed to said court, stating the nature of his case and the grounds upon which the writ of error is prayed for, and showing that the supreme court has jurisdiction thereof; and the petition shall contain such other requisites as may be prescribed by the supreme court. [Id. Amend. 1895. p. 144.]

Art. 1541. [942] [1011b] Filing, time of, etc.—The petition shall be filed with the clerk of the court of civil appeals within thirty days from the overruling of the motion for rehearing, and thereupon the said clerk of the court of civil appeals shall note upon his record the filing of said application. [Id.]

Art. 1542. [942] [1011b] Petition with record, etc., to be forwarded; provided deposit, etc.—The clerk of the court of civil appeals shall forward to the clerk of the supreme court the said petition, together with the original record in the case, and the opinions of the court of civil appeals, and the motion filed therein, and certified copies of the judgments and orders of the court of civil appeals; provided, that the party applying for the writ of error shall deposit with the clerk of the court of civil appeals a sum sufficient to pay the expressage or carriage of the said record to and from the clerk of the supreme court, which sum shall be charged as costs in the suit. [Id.]

Art. 1543. [943] [1011c] Conclusions of fact, may suspend action on petition to obtain.—If, upon an inspection of the petition for writ of error and the record of the cause, it shall appear that a court of civil appeals has failed to file conclusions of fact, or that it has not complied with the requirements of the law, in filing its conclusions of fact, and, if it shall further appear that such conclusions of fact are necessary to enable the supreme court to properly determine the rights of the parties, then the supreme court may suspend action on the petition for writ of error, and return the record to the court of civil appeals, with the instructions to make and return conclusions of fact upon the points indicated by the supreme court. [Acts 1901, p. 122.]

Art. 1544. [943] [1011c] Writ granted, when.—If, upon examination of a petition for writ of error the supreme court shall find that there is error in the judgment of the court of civil appeals, it shall grant a writ of error, returnable within the time and in the manner prescribed by the rules of that court. [Id.]

Art. 1545. [942] [1011b] Bond required, when.—If the writ of error be granted and the plaintiff in error has given no bond, then the supreme court in granting the writ shall specify what bond shall be given; and the plaintiff in error shall file said bond in the trial court, to be approved by the clerk of said court, and a certified copy thereof shall at once be transmitted to the supreme court; and, upon the filing of said certified copy, the clerk of the supreme court shall issue the citation in error as may be prescribed by the rules of the supreme court. [Acts 1895, p. 144.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

PROCEEDINGS IN CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT.

	Article.		Article.
Trial on questions of law only.....	1546	Briefs filed	1547

Article 1546. [967] [1033] Trial to be on questions of law only.—In all cases of writs of error or questions certified to the supreme court, the trial shall be only upon the question of law upon which the writ of error was allowed, or which was certified to the supreme court from a court of civil appeals; but the supreme court may require at any time the original transcript to be sent up. [Acts of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1547. [968] [1039] Briefs filed.—When any cause or suit may be taken to the supreme court by writ of error, the briefs and arguments filed in the courts of civil appeals shall be submitted to the supreme court; and, in addition thereto, the attorney for either party may file additional briefs, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the supreme court. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

HEARING CAUSES.

	Article		Article.
Order of trial of causes.....	1548	Death of parties no abatement, when.....	1549

Article 1548. [971] [1042] Order of trial of causes.—Causes on the docket of said court may be tried by districts, or in such order as to the judges of said court may seem best calculated to promote the interest and convenience of the parties or their attorneys. [Act Feb. 11, 1850. P. D. 1585.]

Art. 1549. [973] [1044] Death of parties no abatement, when.—If any party to the record, in any cause now pending in, or hereafter taken to, the supreme court or court of civil appeals, by appeal or writ of error, shall have died heretofore, or shall hereafter die, after the appeal bond has been filed and approved, or after the writ of error has been served, and before such cause has been decided by the supreme court or courts of civil appeals, such cause shall not abate by such death; but the court shall proceed to adjudicate such cause and render judgment therein as if all the parties thereto were living, and such judgment shall have the same force and effect as if rendered in the lifetime of all the parties thereto. [Id.]

JUDGMENT OF THE COURT.

Article.	Article.
Judgments in open court; opinions in writing	1550	Same subject	1556
Judgment on affirmance or rendition, etc.	1551	Affidavit of inability to pay or secure costs	1557
If judgment reversed, may remand to court of civil appeals or district court.	1552	Mandate to issue to what court.	1558
No reversal or dismissal for want of form	1553	No mandate to be taken out after twelve months, in case of reversal and remand; certificate and dismissal.	1559
When judgment shall become final.	1554	Mandate recalled where judgment set aside	1560
Mandate to issue, when.	1555

Article 1550. [974] [1047] Judgments in open court; opinions in writing.—In all cases decided by the supreme court, the judgment or decree of the court shall be pronounced in open court; and the opinion of the court shall be reduced to writing in those cases which the court, in its discretion, may deem of sufficient importance to be reported, and such opinions shall be recorded by the clerk of the court in a book kept by him for that purpose. [Act. Nov. 10, 1866, p. 134. P. D. 6417.]

Art. 1551. [975] [1049] Judgment on affirmance or rendition, etc.—Whenever the supreme court, on the trial of a cause brought from any court of civil appeals, shall affirm the judgment or decree of such court, or when said court shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as should have been rendered by the court of civil appeals, and such judgment shall be for the same or a greater amount, or of the same nature as rendered in the court below, said supreme court shall render judgment against plaintiff in error and his sureties on his bond, a copy of which shall always accompany the transcript of the record. [Acts 1892, p. 19. Acts 1907, S. S., p. 467.]

Art. 1552. [975] [1049] If judgment reversed, may remand to court of civil appeals or district court.—If the judgment of a court of civil appeals shall be reversed, the supreme court may remand the case to the court of civil appeals from which it came for another trial, or the district court, as to the supreme court may seem proper. [Id.]

Art. 1553. [972] [1043] No reversal or dismissal for want of form.—There shall be no reversal or dismissal for want of form; provided, that the requirements of the law and the rules of the court be sufficiently complied with in presenting the case to enable the court to determine the same upon its merits. In each case, the supreme court shall affirm the judgment, reverse and render the judgment which the courts of civil appeals ought to have rendered, or reverse the judgment and remand the case to the lower court, if it shall appear that the justice of the case demands another trial. [Acts of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1554. [976] [1050] When judgment shall become final.—The judgment of the supreme court shall be final at the expiration of fifteen days from the rendition thereof, when no motion for rehearing has been filed. [Acts 1897, p. 200. Acts 1892, p. 19. Acts 1901, p. 122.]

Art. 1555. [976] [1050] Mandate to issue, when.—Upon the rendition of final judgment, the clerk of the supreme court, or court of civil appeals, upon payment of costs, shall issue the mandate in the case. [Id.]

Art. 1556. [984] [1058] Same subject.—The clerk of the supreme court shall not deliver the mandate of said court until all costs of said court and of the court of civil appeals shall have been paid; subject, however, to the provisions of the next succeeding article. [Acts 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1557. [976] [1050] Affidavit of inability to pay or secure costs.—If the party against whom the costs are adjudged by the supreme court, or the court of civil appeals, shall make affidavit of his inability to pay the costs, or give security therefor, he may apply to the supreme court, or the court of civil appeals, as the case may be, for an order to require the clerk of the court to issue the mandate in the cause; which motion shall be sustained, unless the clerk of the court, or a party to the record, shall controvert the truth of such affidavit and satisfy the court that such motion should not be granted. [Acts 1897, p. 200. Acts 1901, p. 122.]

Art. 1558. [976] [1050] Mandate to issue to what court.—All mandates from the said court shall issue to the court in which the original judgment was rendered. [Acts 1897, p. 200, Id. p. 123.]

Art. 1559. No mandate to be taken out after twelve months, in case of reversal and remand; certificate and dismissal.—In cases which are, by the supreme court, or courts of civil appeals, reversed and remanded, no mandate shall be taken out of either of said courts and filed in the court wherein said cause originated, unless such mandate shall be so taken out within the period of twelve months after the rendition of final judgment of the supreme court, or court of civil appeals, or the overruling of a motion for rehearing. And if any cause is reversed and remanded by the supreme court, or court of civil appeals, and if the mandate is not taken out within twelve months as hereinbefore provided, then, upon the filing in the court below of a certificate of the clerk of the supreme court, or court of civil appeals, that no mandate has been taken out, the case shall be dismissed from the docket of said lower court. [Id. p. 123.]

Art. 1560. [976] [1050] Mandate recalled where judgment set aside.—If, for any cause, the supreme court or court of civil appeals should set aside its judgment, after the mandate has been issued, the clerk of the court shall at once notify the party to whom the mandate was directed to return it at once. [Acts 1897, p. 200. Id. p. 123.]

Motion for, when and how made.....	1561	Service on one of several parties.....	1564
Notice of	1562	When motion heard.....	1565
Service and return of officer.....	1563

Article 1561. [977] [1051] Motion for, when and how made.—Any party desiring a rehearing of any matter determined by said court may, within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment or decision of the court, file with the clerk of said court his motion in writing for a rehearing thereof, in which motion the grounds relied upon for the rehearing shall be distinctly specified, and the name and residence of the counsel of the opposing party if known, and if not known, then the name and residence of the opposing party as shown in the record; provided, that should the court adjourn within less time than fifteen days after the rendition of the judgment, it may make such rules and regulations in reference to the filing of the motion as to it may seem best for the promotion of the interest of all the parties concerned. [Act May 2, 1874, p. 216, sec. 2. P. D. 6463q.]

Art. 1562. [978] [1052] Notice to opposing party or attorney.—Upon the filing of such motion with the clerk of said court, he shall make a certified copy of such motion and transmit the same by mail to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the attorney, or opposing party, as the case may be, is alleged in said motion to reside, together with a precept commanding him to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in such precept. [Act May 2, 1874, p. 216, sec. 4. P. D. 6463r.]

Art. 1563. [979] [1053] Service and return of officer.—Upon the receipt of such precept and copy of motion by the officer, it shall be his duty to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in said precept, if found in his county, and to return said precept to the court, by mail, stating thereon at what time, and to whom, he delivered the copy of the motion, or that the party named in the precept is not to be found in his county, as the case may be. [Id. P. D. 6463p.]

Art. 1564. [980] [1054] Service on one of several parties.—Service of said motion on any one of several parties or their attorneys to a cause shall be sufficient service on all.

Art. 1565. [981] [1055] When motion heard.—At any time, after five days from the return of such precept served, it shall be lawful for said supreme court to hear and determine such motion for rehearing, and not sooner. [Id. P. D. 6463p.]

Judgment enforced, how	1567	Money due clerk of court of civil appeals to be paid by clerk of supreme court; remedy	1571
Execution issued, when	1568
Execution returnable, when	1569

Article 1566. [982] [1056] Process, how tested, directed and executed.—All writs and process issuing from the supreme court shall bear the test of the chief justice or presiding judge of said court, and be under the seal of said court and signed by the clerk thereof, and may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the state, and shall be by such officer executed according to the demand thereof, and returned to the court from which they emanated; and whenever such writs or process shall not be executed, the clerk of the said court is hereby authorized and required to issue another like process or writ, upon the application of the party suing out the former writ or process to the same or any other county. [Acts of 1892, p. 19.]

Art. 1567. [983] [1057] Judgment enforced, how.—Upon the rendition by the supreme court of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated by article 1551, it shall not be necessary for the lower court from which the cause was removed to make any further order or decree therein, but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the supreme court or court of civil appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 1568. [984] [1058] Execution issued, when.—If the costs have not been paid at the end of fifteen days from the date of judgment or from the overruling of a motion for rehearing, the said clerk may issue an execution for the costs of the supreme court and the court of civil appeals, specifying the amount of each, and attaching to said execution a correct list of all costs accruing in each of said courts. Said execution shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county from which the cause was removed, or to any county in which the person or persons, liable under such execution, or either of them, may have property. It shall be the duty of every sheriff or constable receiving such execution to execute and return the same under the same rules, regulations and liabilities as provided for executions from the district court. [Acts 1892, p. 23.]

Art. 1569. [985] [1059] Execution returnable, when.—All executions for costs of the supreme court, as authorized by law, shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed, within four months from the date thereof. [Act March 9, 1875, p. 70, sec. 2.]

Art. 1570. [986] [1060] Officer failing to make return; remedy by motion.—In case any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs, if he has collected the same within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of said supreme court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before the said supreme court, and show cause, if any he can, why he has not collected and returned such costs and execution; and failing to show cause, said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for twice the amount of said costs, together with the cost of such proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 1571. [986] [1060] Money due clerk of court of civil appeals to be paid by clerk of supreme court; remedy by motion.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court, when he shall receive any money due the clerk of any court of civil appeals, to pay the same over to such clerk of the courts of civil appeals; and, if he refuses to do so upon demand, the clerk of the said courts of civil appeals may file in the supreme court a motion against the said clerk so failing; and, upon ten days' notice given to him, the said supreme court may enter judgment against said clerk of the supreme court and the sureties on his official bond for double the amount of the costs so collected by him and due to said clerk of the courts of civil appeals. [Id.]

Records and manuscripts; duties of re- porters.....	1574	Sale of reports.....	1578
Court to designate the cases to be re- ported.....	1575	Reports, how printed.....	1579

Article 1572. [959] Appointment and removal of reporters.—The judges of the supreme court, after their election to each term of office, shall appoint some person or persons learned in the law, being a licensed attorney, to report the decisions of the supreme court, and of the courts of civil appeals, who shall be removable at the pleasure of the court, and who shall be paid for the services required three thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly on the certificate of the chief justice; provided, however, that he may be allowed such additional compensation for reporting the decisions of the courts of civil appeals as the supreme court may deem just. [Acts of 1882, p. 71.]

Art. 1573. [960] Stationery, how furnished.—The reporter shall be furnished by the state printing board with the necessary stationery for the performance of the duties imposed by the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 1574. [961] Records and manuscript; duties of reporter.—The reporter shall obtain from the clerks of the courts the records of cases to be reported, with the briefs and opinions in such cases as soon as such cases are finally disposed of and the opinions are recorded, which shall be returned after the report thereof is completed. He shall, without delay, under the direction of the court, prepare such decisions, with appropriate syllabus, and statements when necessary, for publication in book form, and shall, from time to time, deliver the same to the secretary of state for the board of public printing as hereinafter provided. The secretary of state shall receipt for the same and deliver to the expert printer appointed by the board of public printing for publication. [Id.]

Art. 1575. [962] Court to designate the cases to be reported.—The supreme court shall designate, by orders or otherwise, the cases to be reported; and only such cases as are designated shall be reported and published; and only the main propositions made in the briefs and considered by the court in the opinion, with the authorities cited in support of such propositions, shall be incorporated in the report. [Id.]

Art. 1576. [963] Duties of printing board.—As fast as the board of public printing shall receive through the secretary of state the manuscript copy of reported cases for the reporter, said board shall cause the same to be printed, with proper index, tables of cases cited, and of cases reported, at the printing office at the deaf and dumb asylum of Texas, and have one thousand copies bound of each volume of reports. The index, tables of cases cited, and of cases reported shall be prepared by the reporter. The expert printer appointed by the printing board shall, after revising the printing, deliver a revise as the work progresses to the reporter, who shall correct and return to said expert. [Id.]

Art. 1577. [964] Requisites of volume.—The decisions of said courts shall be printed and bound. Each volume shall not contain less than seven hundred pages nor more than eight hundred pages. Each page shall be twenty-six ems pica wide and forty-six ems pica long. The type used shall be long primer and minion of the same size used in volume twenty-three, Wallace's United States supreme court reports. The lines shall be leaded with not thicker than eight to pica leads. The paper, presswork and binding shall be of the same style and at least equal quality in every respect with the volumes of Moore & Walker's reports heretofore published. The volumes containing the supreme court decisions shall be styled "The Texas Reports," and shall be so styled on the title page and back, and the volumes shall be numbered. The name of the reporter may be printed on the back of each volume. Each volume shall be copyrighted in the name of the reporter, who shall immediately on delivery of the edition transfer and assign the same to the state. It shall be electrotyped, and the plates shall be owned by the state and preserved by the secretary of state. [Id.]

Art. 1578. [965] Sale of reports by secretary of state.—When printed and bound, the reports shall be delivered to the secretary of state, who shall sell single copies for two dollars, exclusive of postage or express charges; and he shall also, for the same price, sell single copies of any former volume of reports for either of said courts heretofore published under the state's copyright and now owned by the state. The secretary of state shall deliver to the state treasurer the proceeds of all sales so made by him, of which and of his operations hereunder and of the transactions of the said board hereunder he shall make a full statement and showing in his biennial report. [Id.]

Art. 1579. [966] Reports, how printed.—Should the expert printer, whose duty it is to supervise and have promptly executed the printing, binding and delivering of the reports to the secretary of state, fail to have the work executed with promptness and in accordance with the provisions hereof, he shall be removed from his trust and another appointed; and whenever the board of public printing shall ascertain that the work of printing and binding the reports can be done more speedily, better and more economically by contract, or that ample material and means to carry out the provisions hereof are not at their control, they shall at once let the printing and binding of the reports out by contract, requiring security for the performance of the work, and the delivery to the state of the electrotype plates. No copies of reports shall be furnished to any county except upon payment made by such county to the secretary of state, as in sale to private parties. The secretary of state may transmit advance sheets of the reports as the publishing progresses on receiving two dollars for the volume, the purchaser to have the right on returning all the forms of the volume to the secretary of state to have the same bound without further expense, on his paying the expense of transmitting the same to and from the state department. [Id.]

Article 1580. [987] One chief and two associate justices.—Each of the courts of civil appeals now or hereafter organized in this state shall consist of a chief justice and two associate justices, and the concurrence of two justices shall be necessary to the decision of a case. [Acts of 1892, S. S., p. 25.]

Art. 1581. [988] Elected alternately, how; term of office.—The chief justice and associate justices of each of the courts of civil appeals shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective districts, composed of the counties returnable to the several courts, at a general election. Upon their qualification, after the first election after the creation of any court of civil appeals in this state, the justices thereof shall draw lots for the terms of office; and those drawing number one shall hold their offices for the term of two years; those drawing number two shall hold their offices for a term of four years, and those drawing number three shall hold their offices for the term of six years from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Each of said offices shall be filled by election at the next general election at which terms as aforesaid would expire; and the person elected shall thereafter hold his office for six years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall receive each an annual salary of thirty-five hundred dollars, and no more. [Id.]

Art. 1582. [989] Qualifications of judges.—No person shall be eligible to the office of chief justice or associate justice of the courts of civil appeals, unless he be at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this state and a resident of the district for which he is elected, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in this state, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years. [Id.]

Art. 1583. [990] Vacancies, how filled.—In case of a vacancy in the office of chief justice or associate justice of any court of civil appeals the governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers; and, at such general election, the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the district composed of counties returnable to said court. [Id.]

Art. 1584. [1021] Disqualification of judges.—No judge of the courts of civil appeals shall sit in any cause wherein he may be interested in the question to be determined, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree, or where he shall have been of counsel in the cause; and where the court, or any two of its members, shall thus be disqualified to hear and determine any cause or causes in said courts, that fact shall be certified to the governor, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons, learned in the law, for the trial and determination of said cause or causes. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO.

TERMS OF THE COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS.

Terms of court.....	Article.....1585	Transfer of causes.....	Article.....1587
Places where courts of civil appeals shall be held	1586	Quorum, what, and court adjourned, when	1588

Article 1585. Terms of court.—The terms of the courts of civil appeals, in and for the several supreme judicial districts in the state of Texas, shall commence on the first Monday in October of each year and shall continue in session until the first Monday in July of each succeeding year. [Acts 1892, S. S., p. 25. Acts 1897, p. 132.]

[Note.—For division of the state into supreme judicial districts, see title “Apportionment,” article 29.]

Art. 1586. [993] Places where courts of civil appeals shall be held.—The courts of civil appeals shall be held at the following places, respectively:

1. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the first supreme judicial district, in the city of Galveston, in the county of Galveston.
2. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the second supreme judicial district, in the city of Fort Worth, in the county of Tarrant.
3. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the third supreme judicial district, in the city of Austin, in the county of Travis.
4. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the fourth supreme judicial district, in the city of San Antonio, in the county of Bexar.
5. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the fifth supreme judicial district, in the city of Dallas, in the county of Dallas. [Acts 1892, S. S., p. 25.]
6. One of the courts of civil appeals shall be held in the sixth supreme judicial district, in the city of Texarkana, in the county of Bowie; provided, that if said court is located at Texarkana, the citizens thereof will furnish, provide, and equip a suitable room or rooms for said court and the members thereof, and the necessary law library therefor, without cost or expense to the state. [Acts 1907, p. 324, sec. 3.]

Art. 1587. [994a] Transfer of causes.—It shall be the duty of the supreme court to equalize, as nearly as practicable, the amount of business upon the dockets of the different courts of civil appeals, by directing the transfer of cases from such of said courts as may have the greater amount of business upon their dockets to those having a less amount of business upon their dockets; such transfers to be made as soon as practicable after the passage of this article, and thereafter at least once each year, in such manner and under such rules and regulations as the supreme court shall provide. And said courts of civil appeals, to which such cases shall be transferred, shall have jurisdiction of all such cases transferred without regard to the districts in which cases were originally tried and returnable on appeal; provided, that cases transferred from any court of civil appeals shall be taken from cases appealed from the counties nearest to the place where the court to which the cases are transferred is held. [Acts 1895, p. 79. Acts 1893, p. 171. Acts 1909, p. 88.]

Art. 1588. [995] Quorum, what, and court adjourned, when.—A majority of the judges of the several courts of civil appeals shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The said courts may adjourn from day to day or for such time as may be deemed proper by the judges thereof. But, if a sufficient number of the judges shall not be present at the first or any day of the term, any judge of the court, or the sheriff attending the same, may adjourn the court from time to time until a quorum shall be in attendance, but the court shall not be finally adjourned for the term. [Acts 1895, p. 79.]

Judgment conclusive, when	1599	May punish for contempt.....	1594
Same subject	1591	May mandamus district courts.....	1595
Issue writs of mandamus, etc.....	1592

Article 1589. [996] Jurisdiction defined.—The appellate jurisdiction of the courts of civil appeals shall extend to civil cases within the limits of their respective districts:

1. Of which the district courts have original or appellate jurisdiction.
2. Of which the county court has original jurisdiction.
3. Of which the county court has appellate jurisdiction, when the judgment, or amount in controversy, or the judgment rendered, shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs. [Id.]

Art. 1590. [996] Judgment conclusive, when.—The judgments of the courts of civil appeals shall be conclusive in all cases on the facts of the case. [Id.]

Art. 1591. [996] Same subject.—The judgments of the courts of civil appeals shall be conclusive on the law and fact, nor shall a writ of error be allowed thereto from the supreme court in the following cases, to-wit:

1. Any civil case appealed from a county court or from a district court, when, under the constitution, a county court would have had original or appellate jurisdiction to try it, except in probate matters and in cases involving the revenue laws of the state or the validity of a statute.
2. All cases of boundary.
3. All cases of slander.
4. All cases of divorce.
5. All cases of contested elections of every character, other than for state officers, except where the validity of the statute is attacked by the decision.
6. The judgments of said courts of civil appeals shall be final in all appeals from interlocutory orders appointing receivers or trustees or such other interlocutory appeals as may be allowed by law.

7. The judgment of said court shall be final in all other cases as to law and facts, except where appellate jurisdiction is given to the supreme court and not made final in said courts of civil appeals.

Art. 1592. [997] May issue writs of mandamus, etc.—The said courts and the judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of mandamus and all other writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said courts. [Id.]

Art. 1593. [998] May inquire into facts touching jurisdiction.—The said courts shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the courts may be thought proper, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of their jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 1594. [999] May punish for contempt.—The said courts shall have power to punish any person for a contempt of said court, according to the principles and usages of law in like cases, not to exceed one thousand dollars fine or imprisonment not exceeding twenty days. [Id.]

Art. 1595. [1000] May mandamus district courts.—The said courts, or any judge thereof, in vacation, may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause, agreeably to the principles and usages of law, returnable on or before the first day of the next term or during the session of the same, or before any judge of the said court, as the nature of the case may require. [Id.]

[Note.—For further provisions as to jurisdiction of courts of civil appeals, see chapter 20, title 37.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

CLERKS OF THE COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS.

Article	Article.
Clerk; appointment, qualification and bond 1596	To record judgments, etc.; certify decisions to lower court 1601
Temporary appointment to fill vacancy 1597	Deputy clerks 1602

Seal of court 1599	Library regulations 1604
Duties as to records, transcripts, dockets, etc. 1600	Semi-annual report of costs collected . . . 1605

Article 1596. [1001] The clerk, his appointment, qualification and bond.—There shall be appointed for each of the courts of civil appeals one clerk, who shall reside at the place of holding court, which appointment shall be made by the court, or the judges thereof, and shall be entered of record in the proceedings of the court; and each person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the constitution before some officer authorized to administer oaths generally, and shall enter into a bond, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, or any judge thereof, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and that he will correctly record the judgments, decrees, decisions and orders of said courts, and deliver over to his successor in office all records, minutes, books and papers and whatever belongs to his said office of clerk; which bond and oath shall, without delay, be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be put in suit and prosecuted by any party injured, until the amount thereof is recovered. [Id.]

Art. 1597. [1002] Temporary appointment to fill vacancy, how and when made.—If, in vacation, the office of clerk may become vacant, the appointment shall be made by the chief justice and the associates of said courts, or by any one of said associates and chief justice; and the person so appointed shall give bond and take the oath as prescribed in the preceding article, the bond to be approved by any judge of the court; which bond and oath shall be deposited in the same manner as though the appointment had been made in term time, and may be prosecuted and put in suit in like manner; copies of said bond, certified under the hand of the secretary of state and the seal of state, shall be received in evidence in any court in the state, in the same manner as the original would be were it presented in court; and the said appointment shall continue until the next regular term of the said court, and until a regular appointment shall be made. [Id.]

Art. 1598. [1003] Term of office, and how removed.—The clerk of each of said courts shall hold his office for a term of two years from his appointment, but may be removed therefrom for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, by the courts of civil appeals, on motion of which the clerk against whom complaint is made shall have ten days' previous notice, specifying the particular charges of negligence or misconduct in office preferred; and in every such case the court shall determine both the law and the facts; and, whenever the necessity occurs, the court may appoint a clerk pro tempore. [Id.]

Art. 1599. [1004] Seal of court.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of each court of civil appeals to procure a seal for the use of the court, which shall have a star of five points, with the words: "Court of Civil Appeals of the state of Texas," engraved thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1600. [1005] Duties as to records, transcripts, dockets, etc.—The clerks of said courts shall file and carefully preserve the transcripts of all records certified to said court, and all papers relative thereto, and shall docket all causes in the order in which they are filed. [Id.]

Art. 1601. [1006] To record judgments, etc., and to certify decisions to lower court.—The said clerk shall faithfully record the proceedings and decisions of said courts, and certify their judgments to the court from which the causes were brought. [Id.]

Art. 1602. [1007] Deputy clerks, appointment of, and fees.—The clerk of each court may appoint deputies, who, in the name of said clerk, may discharge all the duties required by law of said clerk, and said deputies may be required to give bonds, with sureties, to said clerk, for the faithful discharge of their duties; which deputies shall be paid out of the fees collected by the clerk, not to exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum to each deputy. [Id.]

Art. 1603. [1008] Shall be librarian, except, etc.—The clerk of each of said courts shall be librarian in charge of the libraries of said court, except the library at Austin, which shall be under the control of the supreme court. [Id.]

Art. 1604. [1009] Library regulations.—It shall be the duty of such librarian to take charge of, and keep together in good order and make catalogues of, the books of such library, which shall be open to the public use, under such rules as may be prescribed by the courts for the safe keeping thereof; provided, the books shall not be removed from the library room, except by the judges of the courts. [Id.]

Art. 1605. [1010] Semi-annual report of costs collected.—The clerks of each of the courts of civil appeals shall, within ten days after the first day of January and July, make a report under oath to said courts showing the amount of costs collected by him during the preceding six months, and also the cases in which the same was collected, and the disposition made of such cause. Such report shall be filed and recorded in the minutes of the court. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

STENOGRAPHER.

Court stenographer and salary.....	Article. 1606
------------------------------------	------------------

Article 1606. [1012] Court stenographer and salary.—Each court of civil appeals shall be authorized to appoint one stenographer, who shall be a typewriter, who shall discharge such duties as may be required by the court, shall be sworn to keep secret all matters which may come to his knowledge as such stenographer and typewriter, and who shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, and shall give bond with two or more sureties in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be approved by the presiding judge of said court, payable to the state of Texas, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such stenographer and typewriter. [Acts 1899, p. 115. Acts 1895, p. 79. Acts 1893, p. 165. Acts 1905, p. 19.]

Article 1607. [1014] Case, how brought before the court for trial.—In all cases of appeal or writ of error to the courts of civil appeals, the trial shall be on a statement of facts or agreed statement of the pleadings and proof as agreed upon by the parties or their attorneys, or the conclusions of law and fact, as the case may be, certified to by the judge of the court below; or should the parties fail to agree, then the judge of the court below shall certify the facts; or on a bill of exceptions to the opinion of the judge; or on a special verdict; or on an error in law, either assigned or apparent on the face of the record; and, in the absence of all these, the case shall be dismissed with costs alone, or with costs and damages, at the discretion of the court. And the court shall admit, as part of the record to be examined by them in the trial of a cause, every bill of exceptions not signed by the judge trying the cause below, upon its appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the facts are fairly stated therein; that said bill was prepared in accordance with the law governing the preparation of such bills, and that the judge trying the cause refused to sign the same; and the truth of any such bill of exceptions shall be determined by the court on the copies of the affidavits required by law to be made in such case, such copies to be contained in, and to form a part of, the record transmitted to the court of civil appeals. [Id.]

Art. 1608. [1015] Transcript filed, when.—In any appeal or writ of error as provided for in this chapter, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file the transcript with the clerk of the courts of civil appeals within ninety days from the performance of the appeal or service of the writ of error; provided.

that, for good cause, the court may permit the transcript to be thereafter filed upon such terms as it may prescribe.

Art. 1609. [1025] New appeal bond allowed, when.—When there is a defect of substance or form in any appeal or writ of error bond, on motion to dismiss the same for such defect, the court may allow the same to be amended by filing in the said courts of civil appeals a new bond, on such terms as the court may prescribe. [Id.]

[Note.—See art. 2104, amendment of appeal bonds and recognizances generally.]

Art. 1610. [1016] Certificate of affirmance, and proceedings thereon.—In case the appellant or plaintiff in error shall fail to file a transcript of the record, as directed in this chapter, then it shall be lawful for the appellee or defendant in error to file with the clerk of said court a certificate of the clerk of the district or county court in which any such appeal or writ of error may have been taken, attested by the seal of his court, stating the time when such appeal was perfected or such citation was served; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the courts of civil appeals to affirm the judgment of the court below, unless good cause can be shown why such transcript was not filed by the appellant or plaintiff in error. If a copy of the bond accompanies such certificate of the clerk of the district or county court, the judgment shall, in like manner, be affirmed against the sureties on such bond. [Id.]

Art. 1611. [1017] Transcript filed and cause heard after affirmance on certificate, when.—In all cases where the courts of civil appeals shall have affirmed the judgment of the court below, under the provisions of the preceding article, said court may, at any time within fifteen days after such affirmance, permit the transcript to be filed by the appellant or plaintiff in error, and the case to be tried on its merits; provided, that appellant or plaintiff in error shall show to the court good cause why the transcript was not filed by him in accordance with the provisions of article 1608, and shall also show to said court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intentions to apply for such permission to file said transcript; and, in cases where the court shall adjourn within fifteen days after any judgment shall have been affirmed under the provisions of the next preceding article, the court may permit the appellant or plaintiff in error to file said transcript at such time as may be deemed proper, and have said cause tried on its merits; provided, said appellant or plaintiff in error shall show good cause why said transcript was not filed as herein directed, and shall show to the court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intention to apply for permission to file said transcript. [Id.]

Art. 1612. [1018] Assignment of error; requisite of.—The appellant or plaintiff in error shall in all cases file with the clerk of the court below all assignments of error, distinctly specifying the grounds on which he relies, before he takes the transcript of the record from the clerk's office; all errors not distinctly specified are waived. [Id.]

Art. 1613. [1022] Docket of causes and disposition of same.—When a cause is carried to the courts of civil appeals by writ of error, it shall be docketed in the order of the date received; and the clerk shall transfer the said cause to the trial docket thirty days after the same has been received and docketed; provided, that the court may, upon motion of either party, of which notice shall be given to the adverse party, extend the time for placing said cause on the trial docket for good cause shown. [Id.]

Art. 1614. [1019] Appearance by brief, etc.—When any cause or suit may be taken up from any inferior court to the court of civil appeals, whether by appeal, writ of error, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the attorney for both the plaintiff and defendant to file, in the papers of said suit or cause, written or printed briefs or argument, if written not to exceed fifteen pages; and the said court shall be required to notice the same as if it were the personal appearance of said attorney, and shall not dismiss any suit or cause where such brief or argument of counsel is filed with the papers for want of other or further prosecution. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 270.]

Art. 1615. [1020] Notices to attorneys, how given.—All notices required herein to be given by the court of civil appeals to the parties or their attorneys of record in any case shall be served by the clerk of said court, transmitting said notice to said attorneys by registered letter through the mail properly directed. Registration receipts shall be filed and kept by the clerk with the record of the cause. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

HEARING CAUSES.

Hearing of cases, order of.....	Article. 1616	Death does not abate, when.....	Article. 1618
Order of decision, etc.....	1617

Article 1616. [1022] Hearing of cases, order of.—Causes on the trial docket of said court shall be heard in the order of the date of filing, except as hereinafter provided, unless continued to some future time for good cause shown; and it shall be the duty of the clerk, under the directions of the court, to notify the parties or the attorneys of record of the date when the cause is set for hearing. [Id.]

Art. 1617. [1023] Cases decided in their order, except, etc., and disposed of, how.—The cases filed in the courts of civil appeals shall be decided in the order in which they are filed at each term of the court, but the following cases shall have precedence of all others in the order named:

1. All cases in which the railway commission is a party.
2. Cases in which the state is a party.
3. Cases which shall be submitted on oral argument for all parties to the cause.
4. Such other cases as the court, by order or rule, may direct.

On the call of cases, the court shall set down the causes for argument for such time as the same can be heard, and notice of which shall be given to counsel as heretofore provided; and said cause shall be determined upon argument or as soon thereafter as practicable, or it shall be set down for further argument, but may be postponed by order of the court to a later day in the term. [Id.]

Art. 1618. [1026] Death does not abate, when.—If any party to the record in any cause hereafter taken to the courts of civil appeals, by appeal or writ of error, or transferred from the supreme court or courts of appeals, shall have died heretofore, or shall hereafter die, after the appeal bond has been filed and approved, or after the writ of error has been served, and before such cause has been decided, such cause shall not abate by such death; but the court shall proceed to adjudicate such cause and render judgment therein as if all parties thereto were still living; and such judgment shall have the same force and effect as if rendered in the lifetime of all the parties thereto. [Id.]

Proceedings on certificate of dissent	Action of supreme court on; effect and finality of
1621	1625
Decision of supreme court certified back, judgment on 1622

Article 1619. [1043] Questions of law certified to supreme court.—Whenever, in any case pending before the court of civil appeals, there should arise an issue of law which said court should deem it advisable to present to the supreme court for adjudication, it shall be the duty of the presiding judge of said court to certify the very question to be decided by the supreme court; and, during the pendency of the decision by the supreme court, the cause in which the issue is raised shall be retained for final adjudication in accordance with the decision of the supreme court upon the issue submitted. [Acts 1893, p. 100.]

Art. 1620. [1040] Dissenting opinion; point of dissent certified to supreme court.—When any one of said courts of civil appeals shall, in any cause or proceeding, render a decision in which any one of the judges therein sitting shall dissent as to any conclusions of law material to the decision of the case, said judge shall enter the grounds of his dissent of record; and the said court of civil appeals shall, upon motion of the party to the cause, or on its own motion, certify the point or points of dissent to the supreme court. [Acts 1893, p. 89.]

Art. 1621. [1041] Proceedings on certificate of dissent.—When a certificate of dissent is sent up by any court of civil appeals, it shall be the duty of the clerk to send up a certified copy of the conclusions of fact and law as found by the court, and the questions of law upon which there is a division, and the original transcript, if so ordered by the supreme court; and, thereupon, if the supreme court so direct, the clerk shall set down the same for argument, and notify the attorneys of record. [Id.]

Art. 1622. [1042] Decision of supreme court certified back; judgment on.—After the question is decided, the supreme court shall immediately notify the court of civil appeals of their decision, and the same shall be entered as the judgment of said court of civil appeals. [Id.]

Art. 1623. Conflict with decision of another court of civil appeals; question and record transmitted and certified to supreme court.—Wherever, in any cause at any time pending in any of the courts of civil appeals of the several supreme judicial districts of the state of Texas, any one of said courts may arrive at an opinion in the decision of any such cause that may be in conflict with the opinion heretofore rendered, or hereafter rendered, by some other court of civil appeals in this state on any question of law, and such court of civil appeals refuses to concur with the opinion so rendered by such other court of civil appeals, it shall be the duty of such court failing to concur with the opinion in conflict with the opinion so arrived at by such court, through its clerk, to transmit the question of law, duly certified to, involved in the cause wherein said conflict of opinion has arisen, together with the record or transcript in such cause, to the supreme court of the state of Texas for adjudication by the supreme court. [Acts 1899, p. 170.]

Art. 1624. Proceedings on same in supreme court.—When said record shall have been received by the clerk of the supreme court, he shall docket the same; and the supreme court shall set such cause down for hearing at some future day; and the clerk of the supreme court shall at once notify the parties or their attorneys of record of such setting, and such case shall be set for a time sufficiently far in the future to give such attorneys reasonable time to prepare briefs and arguments if they so desire. [Id.]

Art. 1625. Action of supreme court on; effect and finality of.—It shall be the duty of the supreme court, on receiving such record, together with such certified question of law, from the court of civil appeals transmitting the same, to examine such record and such certified question of law, and render an opinion in such cause, as in other cases; which opinion, when so rendered by said supreme court, on the record and question of law presented therein, shall be final, and shall be the law on the question involved, until said opinion shall have been overruled by the said supreme court, or abrogated by legislative enactment, and the courts of civil appeals shall be governed thereby. [Id. sec. 2.]

No reversal for want of form.....	1628	Affidavit of inability to secure or pay	1635
Affirmance with damages in case of delay.....	1629	costs	1635
Remittitur	1630

Article 1626. [1027] If judgment reversed, when reformed, when remanded.—When the judgment or decree of the court below shall be reversed, the court shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as the court below should have rendered, except when it is necessary that some matter of fact be ascertained or the damage to be assessed or the matter to be decreed is uncertain, in either of which cases the cause shall be remanded for a new trial in the court below. [Id.]

Art. 1627. [1028] Judgment on affirmance or rendition, etc. Damages adjudged, when. Finality.—Whenever the courts of civil appeals, on the trial of cases brought from an inferior court, shall affirm the judgment or decree of such inferior court, or when said courts shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as should have been rendered by the court below and such judgment shall be for the same or a greater amount, or of the same nature, as rendered in the court below, said courts shall render judgment against the appellant or plaintiff in error and his sureties on the appeal bond, a copy of which shall always accompany the transcript of the record; and said courts of civil appeals shall in their discretion include in their said judgment or decree such damages, not exceeding ten per cent on the amount of the original judgment, as the court may deem proper; and the judgment or decree of said courts rendered as contemplated in this article shall be final. [Acts 1892, S. S. p. 25, sec. 37, Id.]

Art. 1628. [1024] No reversal for want of form.—There shall be no reversal on appeal or writ of error, nor shall the same be dismissed for want of form, provided sufficient matter or substance be contained in the record to enable the court to decide the cause upon its merits. [Acts 1892, S. S. p. 25, sec. 29.]

Art. 1629. [1024] Affirmance with damages in case of delay.—Where the court shall be of opinion that an appeal or writ of error has been taken for delay, and that there was no sufficient cause for taking such appeal, then, and in that case, the appellant or plaintiff in error, if he be the defendant in the court below, shall pay ten per cent on the amount in dispute as damages, together with the judgment, interest and cost of suit thereon accruing. [Id.]

Art. 1630. [1024] Remittitur.—If, in any judgment rendered in the district or county court, there shall be an excess of damages rendered, and before the plaintiff has entered a release of the same in such court in the manner provided by law, such judgment shall be removed to the courts of civil appeals; it shall be lawful for the party in whose favor such excess of damages has been rendered to make such release in the courts of civil appeals in the same manner as such release is required to be made in the district or county court; and, upon such release being filed in the said court, after revising said judgment, said courts of civil appeals shall proceed to give such judgment as the court below ought to have given if the release had been filed therein. [Id.]

Art. 1631. [1029a] Suggestion of remittitur.—In all civil cases, now pending, or that may hereafter be appealed to any court of civil appeals of this state, and such court shall be of the opinion that the verdict and judgment of the trial court is excessive, and for that reason only, said cause should be reversed, then it shall be the duty of such court of civil appeals to indicate to the party in whose favor such judgment was rendered, or his attorneys of record, the amount of the excess of such verdict and judgment; and said court shall, at the same time, indicate to such party, or his attorney, within what time he may file a remittitur of such excess; and, if such remittitur shall be so filed, then the court shall reform and affirm such judgment in accordance therewith; if not filed as indicated, then to be reversed. [Acts 1893, p. 89.]

Art. 1632. [1029b] Refusal to remit not subject to comment on subsequent trial.—Whenever any court of civil appeals shall indicate that a verdict is excessive, as provided in the preceding article, and no remittitur shall be filed, as provided in said article, no evidence shall be allowed nor allusion made, in any subsequent trial, of the action of such court of civil appeals in reference to the amount of excess of such verdict. [Id.]

Art. 1633. [1029] Mandate issued when.—If no writ of error be sued out, or motion for rehearing be filed, within thirty days after the conclusion or decision of the court has been entered in any court of civil appeals, the clerk of the court shall, upon application of either party and the payment of all costs, issue a mandate upon said judgment. [Id.]

Art. 1634. [1036] No mandate to issue until costs paid.—On the rendition of any final judgment or decree in the court of civil appeals, the clerk of said court shall not issue and deliver the mandate of the court, nor certify the proceedings to the lower court, until all the costs accruing in the case in the court of civil appeals shall have been paid, subject, however, to the provisions of the next succeeding article. [Acts 1897, p. 18.]

Art. 1635. [1036] Affidavit of inability to pay or secure costs.—If the party against whom the costs are adjudged shall make affidavit of his inability to pay the same or give security therefor, he may apply to the court of civil appeals in which the case is pending for an order to require the clerk to issue the mandate or to certify the proceedings, as the case may be; which motion shall be granted by said court, unless the clerk or a party to the record shall controvert the truth of such affidavit and satisfy the court that such motion should not be granted. [Acts 1897, p. 18.]

[Note.—For limitation upon time for taking out mandates in cases of reversal and remanding, in supreme court and courts of civil appeals, see art. 1559.]

CHAPTER TEN.

CONCLUSIONS OF FACT AND LAW.

Conclusions of law and fact to be filed, when	Article. 1636	Court shall decide all issues of fact or law, and announce conclusions.....	Article. 1639
Reason for judgment to be stated, when.....	1637	Supreme court shall return record for supplemental conclusions, when.....	1640
Supplemental findings, motion for refusal assignable as error.....	1638

Article 1636. [1039] Conclusions of fact and law to be filed, when.—In all cases hereafter decided by the courts of civil appeals, in which the supreme court has jurisdiction of an application for writ of error, it shall be the duty of the court of civil appeals, within thirty days after the decision of the case, to make and file a conclusion of fact and law upon each material point assigned as error in that court. The evidence need not be stated, except when necessary to determine upon the correctness of some ruling of the court. [Acts 1901, p. 121.]

Art. 1637. [1039] Reason for judgment to be stated, when.—In cases where the judgment of the trial court shall be reversed and the cause remanded, the court of civil appeals shall state its reason for the judgment. [Id.]

Art. 1638. Supplemental findings, motion for; refusal assignable as error.—If either party to a case, hereafter decided by a court of civil appeals, shall be of the opinion that the findings of fact are insufficient upon any material issue assigned in that court as error, such party may, in his motion for rehearing, specify the point upon which there is no finding of fact, or upon which the finding made by the court is insufficient, and ask the court of civil appeals to make and file conclusions of fact upon the points indicated in the motion. If that court shall refuse to make such finding, or if the finding made be insufficient, such action may be assigned as error in the application to the supreme court for a writ of error. [Id.]

Art. 1639. Court shall decide all issues of fact or law, and announce conclusions.—It shall be the duty of the courts of civil appeals to decide all issues presented to them by proper assignments of error by either party in all causes now pending, or which may hereafter be pending before them, whether such issues be of fact or of law, and announce in writing their conclusions so found. [Acts 1905, p. 71.]

Art. 1640. Supreme court shall return record for supplemental conclusions, when.—If the court of civil appeals has failed to file a conclusion of fact upon any material issue in the case properly assigned in that court, and in the supreme court, and, by reason of such failure, the supreme court is not able to pass upon such assignment, it shall be the duty of said supreme court to return the record to the court of civil appeals, from which it came, with directions to make and file a conclusion of fact upon each of such issues, and to return the same with the record to the supreme court. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN.

REHEARING.

Motion for rehearing, requisites and notice of	Article. 1641	Service of notice and return.....	Article. 1643
Notice, how given.....	1642		When motion determined.....

Article 1641. [1030] Motion for rehearing; requisites and notice of.—Any party desiring a rehearing of any matter determined by said courts may, within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment or decision of the courts, or the filing of the findings of fact and conclusions of law, file with the clerk of said courts his motion in writing for a rehearing thereof, in which motion the ground relied upon for the rehearing shall be distinctly specified, and the name and residence of the counsel of the opposing party if known, and if not known then the name and residence of the opposing party as shown in the record; provided, that, should the court adjourn within less than fifteen days after the rendition of the judgment, the motion may be made at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules to be made by the supreme court. [Id.]

Art. 1642. [1031] Notice, how given.—Upon the filing of such motion with the clerk of said courts, he shall make a certified copy thereof and transmit the same by mail to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the attorney or opposing party, as the case may be, is alleged in said motion to reside, together with a precept commanding him to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in such precept. [Id.]

Art. 1643. [1032] Service of notice and return.—Upon the receipt of such precept and copy of motion by the officer, it shall be his duty to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in said precept, if found in his county, and to return said precept to the court from which it issued, by mail, stating thereon in what manner he executed the same or that the party named in the precept is not to be found in his county, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 1644. [1033] When motion determined.—At any time, after five days from the return of such precept served, it shall be lawful for said courts to hear and determine motion for rehearing, and not sooner. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWELVE.

EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT.

	Article.		Article.
Writ, how tested, directed, executed and returned, and alias issued, when.....	1645	Appellant on reversal to recover costs of appeal	1648
Judgment enforced, how.....	1646	Return of execution, when.....	1649
Execution to issue, when; mandate.....	1647	Officer failing to make return, remedy by motion	1650

Article 1645. [1034] Writ, how tested, directed, executed and returned; and alias issues, when.—All writs and process issuing from the courts of civil appeals shall bear the test of the chief justice or presiding judge of said court, under the seal of said court and signed by the clerk thereof, and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the state, and shall be, by such officer, executed according to the command thereof and returned to the court from which they emanated; and, whenever such writ or process shall not be executed, the clerk of said court is hereby authorized and required to issue another like process or writ upon the application of the party suing out the former writ or process to the same or any other county. [Id.]

Art. 1646. [1035] Judgment enforced, how, when.—Upon the rendition by the courts of civil appeals of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated by article 1627, it shall not be necessary for the lower court from which the cause was removed to make any further order or decree therein; but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the supreme court or courts of civil appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 1647. [1036] Execution to issue, when; mandate.—If neither party shall pay the costs and take out the mandate within thirty days after the time when the same can be issued by law, then it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue execution for the costs accruing in his court against the party or parties against whom such costs have been adjudged, and to send such execution by mail to the proper officer for collection; but he shall retain the mandate until the costs have been paid or collected, subject, however, to the provisions of article 1635. [Acts 1897, p. 18.]

Art. 1648. [1029] Appellant on reversal to recover costs of appeal.—In any cause reversed by a court of civil appeals, the appellant shall be entitled to an execution against the appellee for costs occasioned by such appeal, including costs for the transcript, said costs to be taxed by the clerk of the said court. [Id.]

Art. 1649. [1037] Return of execution, when.—All executions for costs of the courts of civil appeals, as authorized by law, shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed within four months from the date thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1650. [1038] Officer failing to make return; remedy by motion.—In case any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs, if he has collected the same, within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of said court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before said court and show cause, if any he can, why he has not collected and returned said costs and execution; and, failing to show cause, said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for twice the amount of said costs, together with the costs of such proceedings. [Id.]

CHAPTER THIRTEEN.

[Id.]

Art. 1664. [1057] Duties and liabilities.—Said clerk shall perform as clerk of the court of criminal appeals the like duties as are now, or may hereafter be, required by law of the clerk of the supreme court, and shall be subject to the same liabilities as are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed for the clerk of the supreme court. [Id.]

Art. 1665. [1058] Deputies, how appointed, and to whom responsible.—Said clerk may appoint deputies, who shall perform all the duties of said clerk and who shall be responsible to said clerk for the faithful discharge of the duties of their office. [Id.]

Art. 1666. [1059] Seal of court.—It shall be the duty of the court of criminal appeals to procure a seal for said court, said seal to have a star with five points with the words, "Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas," engraved thereon. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

REPORTER TO THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS.

Reporter, removal of, compensation and duties; reports, etc., how published....	Article. 1667	Clerk to furnish reporter with opinions, records, etc.....	Article. 1668
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------	------------------------------------------------------------	---------------

Article 1667. [1060] Reporter, removal of, compensation and duties, and reports, how published, etc.—Said court is hereby authorized and required to appoint a reporter of such of its decisions as may be required by law to be published. Said reporter may be removed by the court for inefficiency or neglect of duty. Said reporter shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars, payable monthly upon the certificate of the presiding judge of said court. The volume of the decisions of said court shall be styled, Texas Criminal Reports, and shall be numbered in continuation of the present number of the court of appeals reports. Said volumes shall be printed and disposed of as is now, or may hereafter be, provided by law for the printing and distribution of the reports of the supreme court. [Id.]

Art. 1668. [1061] Clerk to furnish reporter with opinions, records, etc.—As soon as the opinions are recorded, the originals, together with the records and papers in each case to be reported, shall be delivered to the reporter by the clerks of said court, who shall take the reporter's receipt for the same, but the reporter shall return to said clerks the said opinions, records and papers when he shall have finished using them. [Id.]

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS.

Article.	Article.
Proceedings when jurisdiction of lower court has been changed pending appeal. 1669	Cost to be taxed, how, on disposition of case, in the court of criminal appeals. 1670

Article 1669. [1062] Proceedings when jurisdiction of lower court has been changed, pending appeal.—When the court from which an appeal has been, or may hereafter be, taken has been or shall be deprived of jurisdiction over any case pending such an appeal, and when such case shall have been, or may hereafter be, determined by the court of criminal appeals, the mandate of said court of criminal appeals shall be directed to the court to which jurisdiction has been, or may hereafter be, given over such case. [Id.]

Art. 1670. [1063] Costs to be taxed, how, on disposition of case in the court of criminal appeals.—In every state case of a less grade than felony in which an appeal is taken to the court of criminal appeals, and the judgment of the court below is affirmed against the defendant, all fees due the clerk of said court in said case shall be adjudged against the defendant and his sureties on his recognizance, for which execution shall issue as in other cases of appeal to the court of criminal appeals. Should such case be reversed by the court of criminal appeals and a new trial be had in the court below and the defendant convicted, then the costs aforesaid in favor of the clerk of the court of criminal appeals shall be taxed by the court below against the defendant; and a certified copy of said bill of costs by the clerk of the court of criminal appeals, filed in the court below, shall be sufficient to require said costs to be taxed and collected as other costs against the defendant in the court below. [Id.]

Article 1671. [1604] [1086] District judge, election of; qualification; residence.—There shall be elected for each judicial district by the qualified voters thereof at a general election for members of the legislature. a judge, who shall be at least twenty-five years of age, shall be a citizen of the United States, shall have been a practicing attorney or a judge of a court in this state for the period of four years, and shall have resided in the district in which he is elected for two years next before his election, and shall reside in his district during his term of office. [Const., art. 5, sec. 7.]

Art. 1672. [1065] [1087] Term of office.—The judge of the district court shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Id. and art. 16, sec. 17.]

Art. 1673. [1066] [1088] Oath of office.—The judge of the district court, and each special judge hereinafter provided for, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution. [Const., art. 16, sec. 1.]

Art. 1674. [1067] [1089] Vacancy in office, how filled.—Any vacancy in the office of a judge of the district court shall be filled by the governor until the next succeeding general election. [Id. art. 5, sec. 28. R. S. 1879, 1089.]

Art. 1675. [1068] [1090] Disqualification, causes of.—No judge of the district court shall sit in any cause wherein he may be interested, or where he shall have been of counsel, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree. [Id., art. 5, sec. 11.]

Art. 1676 [1069] Disqualification; exchange of district judges; or special judge agreed upon, when.—Whenever any case or cases, civil or criminal, are pending, in which the district judge is disqualified from trying the same, no change of venue shall be made necessary thereby; but the judge presiding shall immediately certify that fact to the governor, whereupon, the governor shall designate some district judge in an adjoining district to exchange and try such case or cases, and the governor shall also notify both of said judges of such order; and it shall be the duty of said judges to exchange districts for the purpose of disposing of such case or cases, and, in case of sickness or other reasons rendering it impossible to exchange, then the parties or their counsel shall have the right to select or agree upon an attorney of the court for the trial thereof. [Acts 1879, p. 1. Acts 1897, S. S. p. 39.]

Art. 1677. [1070] Record to be made where special judge is agreed on or appointed.—Whenever a special judge is agreed upon by the parties for the trial of any particular cause, as above provided, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court, as a part of the proceedings in such cause, a record showing:

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and
2. That such special judge (naming him) was, by consent, agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; and
3. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to such special judge. [Acts 1876, p. 141. Id.]

Art. 1678. [1071] [1094] Special judge, when and how elected.—Whenever, on the day appointed for a term of the district court, or at any time before the expiration of the term, or the completion of all the business of the court, the judge thereof shall be absent, or shall be unable or unwilling to hold the court, there shall thereby be no failure of the term, and no failure to proceed with the business of the court, but the practicing lawyers of such court present thereat may proceed to elect from among their number a special judge of said court, who shall proceed to hold said court and conduct the business thereof, and shall have all the power and authority of the judge of said court, during such continued absence or inability, and until the completion of any business begun before such special judge. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 1.]

Art. 1679. [1072] [1095] Electoral body, how constituted.—Such election shall be by ballot, and each practicing lawyer in attendance at such court shall be entitled to participate in such election and shall be entitled to one vote; and a majority of the votes of all the practicing lawyers present and participating shall be necessary to the election of such special judge. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 2.]

Art. 1680. [1073] [1096] Mode of conducting the election.—The mode of conducting such election shall be as follows: The sheriff or constable shall make proclamation at the court house door that the election of a special judge of the court is about to be made by the practicing lawyers present thereat; the clerk shall then make a roll or list of all the practicing lawyers present; and such lawyers shall then proceed to organize and hold the election as hereinbefore provided. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 140, sec. 1.]

Art. 1681. [1074] [1097] Failure or refusal of officers to act.—Should the sheriff or constable and clerk, or either of them, fail or refuse to act, the said practicing lawyers may nevertheless proceed to organize themselves into such electoral body, and appoint a sheriff and clerk pro tempore to do the duties of such officers respectively. [Act Aug. 15, 1876, p. 141, sec. 2.]

Art. 1682. [1075] [1098] Record of the election, etc.—It shall be the duty of the clerk to enter upon the minutes of the court a record of the election of such special judge, showing—

1. The names of all the practicing lawyers present and participating in such election.
2. The fact that the public proclamation was made at the court house door that such election was about to take place.
3. The number of ballots polled at such election and the number polled for each person, and the result of the election.
4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to the special judge. [Id.]

Art. 1683. [1076] [1099] Effect of such record.—The record of such proceedings, showing a substantial compliance with the requirements of the law in that behalf, shall be conclusive evidence of the election and qualification of such special judge. [Id.]

Art. 1684. [1077] [1100] Other similar elections from time to time.—Like elections may be held from time to time during the term of the court to supply the absence, failure or inability of the judge, or of any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. [Id.]

Article 1685. [1078] [1100a] Clerk, how elected; term of office.—There shall be a clerk for the district court of each county, who shall be elected at a general election for members of the legislature by the qualified voters of such county, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Const., art. 5, sec. 9; art. 16, sec. 17.]

Art. 1686. [1079] [1101] Vacancy in office of clerk, how filled.—Whenever a vacancy may, from any cause, occur in the office of the clerk of the district court, the same shall be filled by the judge of the district court of such county; and the clerk so appointed shall give bond and qualify in the same manner as if he had been elected, and shall hold his office until the next general election, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. Where such vacancy occurs in a county having two district courts, the same shall be filled by the judges of such courts; and in such case the governor, upon the certificate of such district judges, shall order a special election to fill such vacancy. [Id. Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 233, sec. 1. Acts of 1891, p. 5.]

Art. 1687. [1080] District clerk pro tem., appointed, when.—In all cases wherein any district clerk in this state is, or shall hereafter be, a party to any pending or proposed suit, motion or proceeding in his court, the district judge in whose court the same may be pending or proposed, shall, either in term time or in vacation, on application of any person interested, or of his own motion, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. [Acts of 1887, p. 102.]

Art. 1688. [1081] District clerk pro tem., to qualify and give bond.—Any person so appointed clerk shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the state of Texas, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed. [Id.]

Art. 1689. [1082] [1102] Bond and oath.—Each clerk of the district court shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of the county, payable to the governor and his successor in office, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the safe-keeping of the records and the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office required by the constitution, which shall be indorsed upon the bond; and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit, in the name of the governor, for the use of the party injured, and shall not become void on the recovery of part of the penalty thereof, but may be sued on from time to time by the parties injured, until the whole amount of the penalty is recovered. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 203, sec. 20. P. D. 500.]

Art. 1690. [1083] [1103] May appoint deputies.—The clerk of the district court, whether elected or appointed, shall have power to appoint one or more deputies by a written appointment under his hand and the seal of his court, which appointment shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and shall be by him recorded. [Id. p. 202, sec. 21. P. D. 501.]

Art. 1691. [1084] [1104] Oath and powers of deputies.—Such deputies shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution; they shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person.

Art. 1692. [1085] [1105] Shall keep office at county seat.—The several clerks of the district courts shall keep their offices at the county seats of their respective counties, and when the clerk does not reside at such county seat he shall have a deputy, or deputies, residing there.

Art. 1693. [1086] [1106] May administer oaths and take depositions.—The several clerks of the district court shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations required in the discharge of their official duties, to take the depositions of witnesses, and generally to perform all such duties as are, or may be, imposed upon them by law. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 202, sec. 24.]

Art. 1694. [1087] [1107] Shall keep a record of proceedings, judgments and executions.—Such clerks shall also keep a fair record of all the acts done, and proceedings had, in their respective courts; they shall enter all judgments of the court, under the direction of the judge, and shall keep a record of all executions issued and the returns thereon, in record books to be kept for the purpose. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 203, sec. 24. P. D. 504.]

Art. 1695. [1088] [1108] Other dockets, etc.—They shall also keep such other dockets and books as are, or may be, required by law.

Art. 1696. [1089] [1109] Shall report fines and jury fees.—In addition to the reports required of the clerk of the district court under the several provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, it shall be his duty on the last day of each term of the court to make out a statement in writing, which shall set forth all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the names of the parties from whom received, up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement, if any such has been made; and also the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such services; which statement shall be examined by the judge holding such court, and, if found to be correct, shall be approved and signed by him. Should the judge consider such statement erroneous, he may make such corrections therein as he may deem necessary, and shall then approve and sign the same. Such statement, when so approved and signed, shall be recorded in the minutes of the court. [Act Nov. 15, 1864, p. 7, sec. 9. P. D. 4014.]

Art. 1697. [1090] [1109a] Shall pay over jury fees and fines.—It shall be the duty of the clerk to pay over to the county treasurer all jury fees and fines received by him, to the use of the county.

Art. 1698. [1091] [1110] Records of suits, etc., in former district courts.—All records of judgments, executions, and all other papers and proceedings in suits heretofore had in the district courts of the several counties of the republic or state of Texas shall be kept in the office of the clerks of the district courts of such counties, and the same proceedings may be had thereon as if such suits had been commenced and such proceedings had in the district courts of this state as now organized. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 204, sec. 26. P. D. 506.]

Art. 1699. [1092] [1111] Records of suits, etc., in former county courts.—All records of judgments, executions, and all other papers and proceedings in suits heretofore had in the county courts of the republic of Texas prior to the first day of February, 1839, and of the county courts of the state as organized under the act entitled, "An act to organize the county courts and to define the powers and jurisdiction thereof," approved October 25, 1866, shall be kept in the office of the clerks of the district courts of such counties, and the same proceedings may be had thereon as if such suits had been commenced and such proceedings had in the district courts as now organized. [Acts May 11, 1846, p. 20, sec. 27; Aug. 8, 1870, p. 48, secs. 1 to 4.]

Art. 1700. [1093] [1112] Custody and arrangement of books, papers, etc.—The clerks of the district courts shall have the custody of all the minutes, records, books, papers and seals which now are, or may have been heretofore, or may be hereafter, deposited in their respective offices in accordance with law, and it shall be their duty carefully to attend to the arrangement and preservation of the same. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 203, sec. 22. P. D. 502.]

Art. 1701. [1094] [1113] Indexes to all judgments.—They shall also provide and keep in their respective offices, as part of the records thereof, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their said courts; which indexes shall be kept in well-bound books, and shall state in full the names of all the parties to such suits, which shall be indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case. [Act June 21, 1876, p. 25, sec. 1.]

Art. 1702. [1095] [1114] Shall transfer records to his successor.—Whenever a clerk of the district court shall vacate his office, he shall transfer to his successor all the records, books and papers of the office.

Art. 1703. [1096] Single clerk for district and county courts in certain counties.—In counties having a population of less than eight thousand persons only one clerk shall be elected, who shall perform the duties of district and county clerks. He shall take the oath and give the bond required of clerks of both the district and county courts, and shall have all the powers and perform the duties of such clerks respectively. In determining the number of persons in the county under this article, the estimate shall be made on the basis of five inhabitants for every vote cast for governor in such county at the last preceding general election. [Acts of 1879, p. 47. Const. art. 5, sec. 20.]

Art. 1704. [1097] [1116] When acting as district clerk to use seal of said court.—When, in any county, a single clerk shall have been elected, as provided in the preceding article, he shall, in performing the duties of clerk of the district court, use the seal of said court, and authenticate his official acts as clerk of such district court.

CHAPTER THREE.

THE POWERS AND JURISDICTION OF THE DISTRICT COURT AND OF THE JUDGE THEREOF.

May transfer probate proceedings to county court 1709	May appoint attorney for pauper 1716
Clerk to transmit papers, records, etc. 1710	Other powers and authority 1717
Judgments, transferred and enforced 1711

Article 1705. [1098] [1117] Original jurisdiction of the district court.—

The district court shall have original jurisdiction in civil cases—

1. Of all suits in behalf of the state to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats.

2. Of all cases of divorce.

3. Of all suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character.

4. Of all suits for the trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon.

5. Of all suits for trial of right to property levied on by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment, when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars; and,

6. Of all suits, complaints or pleas whatever, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, when the matter in controversy shall be valued at or amount to five hundred dollars exclusive of interest.

7. Of contested elections. [Const., art. 5, sec. 8.]

Art. 1706. [1099] [1118] Jurisdiction in matters of probate.—The district court shall also have appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters over the county court established in each county for appointing guardians, granting letters testamentary and of administration, probating wills, for settling the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and for the transaction of business appertaining to estates. The district court shall also have such original jurisdiction and general control over executors, administrators, guardians and minors as is, or may be, provided by law. Such court shall also have appellate jurisdiction and general supervisory control over the county commissioners' court, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and shall have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever, for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or the constitution, and such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be provided by law. [Const. art. 5, sec. 8. Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 3. P. D. 1406; amendment, 1891.]

Art. 1707. [1100] [1119] Motions against sheriffs, attorneys, etc.—The district court shall also have power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said court, or other defalcation of duty in connection with such process, and of motions against attorneys for moneys collected by them and not paid over. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 201, sec. 5. P. D. 1408.]

Art. 1708. [1101] [1120] To punish contempts.—The district court shall also have power to punish by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of such court. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 201, sec. 6. P. D. 1409.]

Art. 1709. [1103] May transfer probate proceedings to county court.—The judges of the district courts of this state may, by an order made and entered in open court upon the minutes of said court, upon the application in open court of any person interested as administrator, executor, heir, legatee, devisee, distributee, creditor or guardian in the administration of the estate of a deceased person, or in the guardianship of a minor, person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard, pending in such court, transfer such administration or guardianship to the county court of the county in which such district court is there being held for further administration, upon satisfactory evidence that the county judge of said county is legally qualified to act as such in such administration. [Acts of 1881, p. 72.]

Art. 1710. [1104] Duty of clerk to transmit papers, records, etc.—Immediately after the termination of the court at which the order of transfer authorized by the foregoing article is made, it shall be the duty of the clerk thereof to transmit all the papers relating to such administration or guardianship, together with a transcript, certified by him under the seal of said district court, or the record of all orders, judgments and decrees of such district court in relation to such estate, to the county clerk of his county, for which services he shall be allowed such fees as are now allowed him by law for similar services, to be paid as expenses of administration. [Id.]

Art. 1711. [1105] Judgments transferred and enforced.—When the clerk of the district court of any county in the state, where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county court has been transferred to the district court, shall receive from the clerk of the county court a certified copy of a judgment rendered in any civil or criminal case in the county court, he shall immediately record such judgments in the minutes of the district court; and, thereupon, the said district court shall have the power to enforce said judgments by execution or otherwise, as other judgments rendered in said district court are or may be enforced. [Acts of 1879, p. 11.]

Art. 1712. [1106] [1122] To hear and determine all cases of legal or equitable cognizance.—Subject to the limitations stated in this chapter, the district court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is, or may be, cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them. [Act May 10, 1846, p. 201, sec. 7. P. D. 1410.]

Art. 1713. [1107] [1123] To grant all remedial writs.—The judge of the district court shall have authority, either in term time or in vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 4. P. D. 1407.]

Art. 1714. Judge may exercise all powers, etc., in vacation, by consent of parties, except, etc.—The judges of the district courts may in vacation, by consent of the parties, exercise all powers, make all orders, and perform all acts, as fully as in term time, and may, by consent of the parties, try any case without a jury and enter final judgment, except in divorce cases. All such proceedings shall be conducted under the same rules as if done in term time; and the right of appeals and writ of error shall apply as if the acts had been done in term time. [Acts 1909, S. S., p. 352.]

Art. 1715. [1108] [1124] May alternate, etc.—Any judge of the district court may hold courts for or with any other district judge; and the judges of the several district courts may exchange districts whenever they may deem it expedient to do so. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 202, sec. 15. P. D. 1418.]

Art. 1716. [1109] [1125] May appoint attorney to represent pauper.—The judge of the district court shall also have power to appoint counsel to attend to the cause of any party who may make affidavit that he is too poor to employ counsel to attend to the same. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 202, sec. 11. P. D. 1414.]

Art. 1717. [1110] [1126] Other powers and authority.—In addition to the foregoing powers and jurisdiction, the district courts and the judges thereof shall have such authority as is, or may be, vested in them by law.

Article 1718. [1111] [1127] Terms of court.—The several judges of the district courts shall hold the regular terms of their said courts at the county seat of each county in the district twice in each year, unless additional terms should be prescribed by law, and shall hold such special terms as may be required by law. [Const., art. 5, sec. 7.]

Art. 1719. [1112] Terms of court in unorganized counties.—Whenever any unorganized county within this state has become organized, or may hereafter become organized, there being no time fixed by law for holding district court in such counties, the district judge in whose judicial district such county is situated shall fix times to hold at least two terms of court each year in each of such counties, by a written declaration, to be forwarded by the district judge to the district clerk of the county, and by him spread on the minutes of the district court. When the times are so fixed they shall not be changed, except by an act of the legislature. [Acts of 1882, p. 4.]

Art. 1720. Special terms may be held when; time; jury commissioners; grand and petit juries, etc.—Whenever it may become advisable, in the opinion of a district judge, to hold a special term or terms of the district court in any county in his district, such special term or terms may be held; and such district judge may convene such special term at any time which may be fixed by him. Such district judge may appoint jury commissioners, who may select and draw grand and petit jurors in accordance with the law. Such jurors may be summoned to appear before such district court at such time as may be designated by the judge thereof; provided, that in the discretion of the district judge, a grand jury need not be drawn or impaneled. [Acts 1879, p. 42. Acts 1905, p. 116.]

Art. 1721. Grand jury, selection, etc., duties.—The grand jury selected, as provided for in the last preceding article, shall be duly impaneled, and shall proceed to the discharge of its duties as at a regular term of the district court. [Id.]

Art. 1722. Indictment at special term, arraignment on.—Any person indicted by the grand jury impaneled at a special term of the district court may be placed upon trial at such special term. [Id.]

Art. 1723. [1117] No new civil cases to be brought to special term.—No new civil cases can be brought to a special term of the district court. [Id.]

Art. 1724. [1118] Juries, how summoned, business transacted, etc.—The juries for any special term shall be summoned in accordance with the law regulating juries at regular terms of court; and at any special term all proceedings may be had in any case which could be had at any regular term of such court; and all process issued to a previous regular term or to such special term, and all orders, judgments and decrees, and all proceedings had in any case, criminal or civil, which would be lawful if had at a regular term, shall have the same force and effect; and any proceeding had may be appealed from under the same rules, regulations and limitations as provided for in appeals from regular terms of court. [Act of 1879, p. 42.]

Art. 1725. [1119] [1128] Adjournment of term, when and how made.—Should the judge of any district court not appear at the time appointed for holding the same, and should no election of a special judge be had, the sheriff of the county, or in his default any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days; and if the judge should not appear on the morning of the fourth day, and should no special judge have been elected, the sheriff or constable, as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 203, sec. 9. P. D. 1412.]

Art. 1726. Extension of term of court when, etc.; effect as to term in another county.—Whenever any district court shall be in the midst of the trial of any cause when the time for the expiration of the term of said court, as fixed by law, shall arrive, the judge presiding shall have the power and may, if he deems it expedient, extend the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial. In such case, the extension of such term shall be shown in the minutes of the court before they are signed. In case of the extension of the term of court, as herein provided, no term of court shall fail because thereof in any other county, but the term of court therein may be opened and held as now provided by law, when the district judge fails to appear at the opening of a term of court. [Acts 1909, p. 114.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE DISTRICT COURT.

Article 1731. [1124] [1133] County judge, election, qualifications, term of office.—There shall be elected in each county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a county judge, who shall be well informed in the law of the state, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Const., art. 5, sec. 15; art 16, sec. 17. Act June 10, 1876, p. 17, sec. 1.]

Art. 1732. [1125] [1134] Oath of office.—The county judge shall, before entering on the duties of his office, execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of his county, in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, the amount of said bond to be determined and fixed by the county commissioners' court, payable to the treasurer of his county, conditioned that he will pay over to the person or officer entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands as county judge, within thirty days after he shall have received the same, and take the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and the further oath required of the several members of the commissioners' court. [Acts of 1883, p. 50.]

Art. 1733. [1126] [1135] Shall keep office at the county seat.—The county judge shall keep his office at the county seat of the county and shall attend at said office from day to day. He shall not absent himself from the county or the state without the permission of the commissioners' court, to be entered on the minutes of the court, nor shall he so absent himself with such permission for a longer period than ninety days. [Acts of 1883, p. 8.]

Art. 1734. [1127] [1136] May practice law in certain counties.—County judges in those counties wherein the civil or criminal jurisdiction of the county courts has been, or may hereafter be, diminished, shall have the right to practice as attorneys in all justices' and county courts, in cases wherein the courts over which they preside have neither original nor appellate jurisdiction, provided they are licensed lawyers. [Acts of 1879, extra session, ch. 16.]

Art. 1735. [1128] [1137] Vacancy, how filled.—Any vacancy in the office of the county judge may be filled by the commissioners' court of the county in which such vacancy may occur until the next general election. [Const., art. 5, sec. 28. Act June 10, 1876, p. 17, sec. 1.]

Art. 1736. [1129] [1138] Disqualification; causes of.—No judge of the county court shall sit in any case wherein he may be interested, or where he shall have been of counsel, or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree. [Const., art. 5, sec. 11. Act June 10, 1876, p. 19, sec. 6.]

Art. 1737. [1130] Special county judge may be appointed by parties.—When a judge of the county court is disqualified by any of the causes above stated, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try such case. [Acts of 1893, p. 75.]

Art. 1738. [1131] Governor to appoint special county judge, etc.—Whenever a judge of the county court is disqualified to try a civil case pending in the county court, and the parties shall fail at the first term of the court to agree upon a special judge, it shall be the duty of the judge to certify to the governor that he is disqualified to try such case, and the failure of the parties to agree upon a proper person to try the same, whereupon the governor shall proceed to appoint some person, learned in the law, to try such case. But when a county judge is disqualified to act in probate matters in any cause, he shall forthwith certify his disqualification in such case to the governor, whereupon the governor shall appoint some person to act as special judge in said case, who shall act from term to term until such disqualification ceases to exist. [Id.]

Art. 1739. [1132] Governor to appoint by telegram.—Whenever any case or cases are called, or pending, in which the county judge, or the special judge chosen, as hereinbefore provided, shall be a party, or have an interest, or have been attorney, or of counsel, or otherwise disqualified from sitting in and trying the same, no transfer of, or removal of, shall be made necessary thereby; but the parties, or their counsel, shall have the right to select and agree upon an attorney of the court for the trial thereof; and, if the parties, or their attorneys, shall fail to select or agree upon an attorney for the trial of such case at or before the time it is called for trial, or if the trial of the case is pending and the county judge should become unable to act, or is absent, and a special judge is selected who is disqualified to proceed with the trial, and the parties fail to select or agree upon a special judge who is qualified at once, it shall be the duty of the county judge, or special judge presiding, to certify the fact to the governor immediately, by telegram, mail, or otherwise, whereupon the governor shall appoint a special judge, not so disqualified, to try the same. The evidence of such appointment by the governor may be transmitted by telegram, or otherwise. The special judge, after taking the oath of office prescribed by the constitution, shall proceed to the trial or disposition of such case immediately, if the trial is pending, otherwise when called or reached, as in other cases. Any special judge agreed upon or appointed to try causes shall receive the same pay for his services as is now provided by law for county judges. [Id.]

Art. 1740. [1132a] Minutes of court to show proceedings.—Whenever a special judge is agreed upon by the parties, or is appointed by the governor, for the trial of any particular cause, as above provided, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court as a part of the proceedings in such cause a record showing:

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and
2. That such special judge [naming him] was, by consent, agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; or
3. That the parties having failed to agree upon a proper person to try the cause, and the judge of the court having certified that fact to the governor, he had appointed such special judge [naming him] to try the cause; and
4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to such special judge; provided, that all cases heretofore transferred by the county court to the district court on account of the disqualification of the county judge shall be considered lawful, and the district courts to which such causes have been transferred shall retain jurisdiction thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1741. Special judges when and how elected; powers.—Should any county judge fail to appear at the time appointed for holding the court, or should he, during the term, be absent, or unable or unwilling to hold the court, a special county judge may be elected in the same manner as is provided for the election of a special judge of the district court, in articles 1678 to 1681, inclusive, so far as applicable, and the special county judge so elected shall have all the power and authority of the county judge while in the trial and disposition of all the cases pending in said court during the absence, inability, or such refusal of the county judge elected. And similar elections may be held, from time to time, during the term, to supply the absence, failure or inability of the county judge, or any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. [Acts 1897, p. 7.]

Art. 1742. Record of election of special judge.—When a special county judge shall have been so elected, it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter upon the minutes of the court, a record such as is provided for the district court in article 1682, and such record shall have the same force and effect provided for the record of the district court in similar cases in article 1683. [Id.]

[Note.—For appointment of special county judge in railroad condemnation cases, see art. 6507.]

Article 1743. [1133] [1142] County clerk, election and term of office.—There shall be a clerk of the county court for each county, who shall be elected at a general election for members of the legislature, by the qualified voters of such county, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Const., art. 5, sec. 20; art. 16, sec. 17.]

Art. 1744. [1134] [1143] Vacancy in office, how filled.—Whenever a vacancy may, from any cause, occur in the office of clerk of the county court, the same shall be filled by the commissioners' court of the county, and the clerk so appointed shall give bond and qualify in the same manner as if he had been elected, and shall hold his office until the next general election, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Const., art. 5, sec. 20.]

Art. 1745. [1135] County clerk pro tem. appointed, when.—In all cases wherein any county clerk in this state is, or shall hereafter be, a party to any pending or proposed suit, motion or proceeding in his court, the county judge in whose court the same may be pending or proposed shall, either in term time or in vacation, on application of any person interested, or of his own motion, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. [Acts of 1887, p. 102.]

Art. 1746. [1136] County clerk pro tem. to qualify and give bond.—Any person so appointed clerk shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the state of Texas, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed. [Id.]

Art. 1747. [1137] [1144] Bond and oath.—Each clerk of the county court shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court of the county, payable to the governor and his successors in office, in a sum to be fixed by the commissioners' court, not less than two thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the safe keeping of the records, and the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office required by the constitution, which shall be indorsed upon the bond, and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be recorded in the county clerk's office, and shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit in the name of the governor for the use of the party injured, and shall not become void on the recovery of part of the penalty thereof, but may be sued on from time to time by the parties injured, until the whole amount of the penalty is recovered. [Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 2. P. D. 500.]

Art. 1748. [1138] [1145] May appoint deputies.—The clerk of the county court, whether elected or appointed, shall have power to appoint one or more deputies, by a written appointment under his hand and the seal of his court, which appointment shall be recorded in the office of such clerk of the county court, and shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court. [Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 3.]

Art. 1749. [1139] [1146] Oath and power of deputies.—Such deputies shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution. They shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person. [Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 4.]

Art. 1750. [1140] [1147] Clerk shall keep office at county seat.—The several clerks of the county court shall keep their offices at the county seat of their respective counties; and, when the clerk does not reside at such county seat, he shall have a deputy or deputies residing there. [Id.]

Art. 1751. [1141] [1148] Take acknowledgments and proofs of deeds for record, etc.—The clerks of the county court shall have power and it shall be their duty, when applied to for that purpose, to take separate acknowledgment of married women in all cases where such acknowledgment is required or permitted by law to be taken, to the execution of any deed or other instrument in writing, or conveyance executed by them, and to take the acknowledgment of all other persons to deeds or other written instruments or conveyances and to take proof by witnesses of all such deeds, written instruments or conveyances which are required or permitted by law to be so acknowledged or proven for record; and it shall also be their duty to record, in accordance with the registration laws now or hereafter in force, all such deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust or any other instrument in writing, or judgments, which may be permitted or required by law to be recorded. [Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 5.]

Art. 1752. [1142] [1149] Issue marriage licenses, and take oaths, depositions, etc.—Such clerks shall also be authorized to issue all marriage licenses, to administer all oaths and affirmations, and to take affidavits and depositions to be used as provided by law in any of the courts. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1753. [1143] [1150] Ex officio clerk of commissioners' courts.—Such clerks shall be ex officio clerks of the commissioners' courts of their respective counties; and it shall be their duty to attend upon each term of said court, to issue all notices, writs, and other process required by said courts, to keep the records, books, papers and proceedings of said courts, and see that the same are properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and generally to do and perform such other duties as are, or may be, imposed on them by law as clerks of such courts. [Acts July 22, 1876, p. 52, sec. 8; May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 1.]

Art. 1754. [1144] [1151] Have custody of records of deeds, etc.—They shall be ex officio recorders for their several counties, and as such shall record in suitable books to be procured for that purpose all deeds, mortgages and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded; they shall be the keepers of such record books, and shall keep the same properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and shall do and perform such other duties as are or may be by law required of them as recorders. [Act May 25, 1876, p. 10, sec. 1.]

Art. 1755. [1145] [1152] Custody of records, etc., of said court.—They shall be the keepers of the records, books, papers and proceedings of their respective county courts in civil and criminal cases and in matters of probate, and see that the same are properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and shall do and perform such other duties in that behalf as are, or may be by law, imposed on them. [Id.]

Art. 1756. [1146] [1153] Keep a record of proceedings, judgments, etc.—The several clerks of the county courts shall keep a fair record of all the acts done and proceedings had in their respective courts; they shall enter all judgments of the court, under the direction of the judge, and shall keep a record of all executions issued, and of the returns thereon in record books to be kept for that purpose. [Id. P. D. 504.]

Art. 1757. [1147] [1154] Index to all judgments.—It shall be the duty of the several clerks of the county courts to provide and keep in their respective offices, as part of the records thereof, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their said courts, which indexes shall be kept in well bound books, and shall state in full the names of all the parties to such suits, which shall be indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case. [Act June 21, 1876, p. 25, sec. 1.]

Art. 1758. [1148] [1155] Other dockets, indexes, etc.—They shall also keep such other dockets, books and indexes as are, or may be, required by law; and all books and records and file papers, belonging to the office of county clerks in this state, shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen, who shall have the right to make copies of the same. [Acts 1905, p. 114.]

Art. 1759. [1149] [1156] Report fines and jury fees.—In addition to the reports required of the clerk of the county court under the several provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, it shall be his duty on the last day of each term of the county court to make out a statement in writing, which shall set forth all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the names of the parties from whom received up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement, if any such has been made; and also the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such service; which statement shall be examined by the judge holding such court, and, if found to be correct, shall be approved and signed by him. Should said judge consider said statement erroneous, he may make such corrections therein as he may deem necessary, and shall then approve and sign the same; which statement, when so approved and signed, shall be recorded in the minutes of the court. [Act June 16, 1876, p. 23, sec. 24.]

Art. 1760. [1150] [1157] Shall pay over jury fees and fines.—It shall be the duty of the clerk to pay over to the county treasurer all jury fees and fines received by him to the use of the county.

Art. 1761: [1151] [1158] Shall transfer records to his successor.—Whenever a clerk of the county court shall vacate his office, he shall transfer to his successor all the records, books and papers of the office.

Art. 1762. [1153] [1160] When acting as county clerk to use seal of county court.—Where in any county a single clerk shall have been elected, as provided in article 1703, he shall, in performing the duties of clerk of the county court, use the seal of said court and authenticate his official acts as clerk of such county court.

Art. 1764. [1155] [1162] Concurrent original jurisdiction.—The county court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court when the matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred and not exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest. [Id.]

Art. 1765. [1156] [1163] Forfeited bonds in criminal cases.—The county court shall also have jurisdiction to enter final judgment on all forfeited bonds taken in criminal cases pending in said court. [Act. Aug. 18, 1876, p. 172, sec. 3.]

Art. 1766. [1157] [1164] Jurisdiction denied in certain cases.—The county court shall not have jurisdiction of any suit to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, nor of suits for the recovery of lands, nor of suits for the enforcement of liens upon land, nor of suits in behalf of the state for escheats, nor of suits for divorce, nor of suits for the forfeiture of the charters of incorporations and incorporated companies, nor of suits for the trial of the right to property levied on by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment, when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars. [Const., art. 5, sec. 16; art. 5, sec. 8. Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 172.]

Art. 1767. [1158] [1165] Appellate jurisdiction.—The county court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which the justices' courts have original jurisdiction, when the judgment of the court appealed from or the amount in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of costs. [Const., art. 5, sec. 16. Act Aug. 18, 1876, p. 172, sec. 3.]

Art. 1768. [1159] [1166] Certiorari to justices' courts.—The county court shall also have power to hear and determine cases brought up from the justices' courts by certiorari under the provisions of the title relating thereto.

Art. 1769. [1160] [1167] Motions against sheriffs and other officers.—The county court shall also have power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said court, or other defalcation of duty in connection with such process. [Act June 16, 1876, p. 33, sec. 26.]

Art. 1770. [1161] [1168] To punish contempts.—The county court shall also have power to punish, by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding three days, any person guilty of contempt of such court. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 6. P. D. 1409.]

Art. 1771. [1162] [1169] Both law and equity powers.—Subject to the limitation stated in this chapter, the county court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is, or may be, cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 7.]

Art. 1772. [1163] [1170] To grant remedial writs.—The county judge shall have authority, either in term time or in vacation, to grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. [Const. art. 5, sec. 16. Act June 16, 1876, p. 19, sec. 5.]

Art. 1773. [1164] [1171] To appoint attorney for pauper.—The county judge shall also have power to appoint counsel to attend to the cause of any party who may make affidavit that he is too poor to employ counsel to attend to the same. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 11. P. D. 1414.]

Art. 1774. [1165] [1172] Additional authority where expressly granted.—In addition to the foregoing powers and jurisdiction, the county court and the county judge shall have such authority as is or may be vested in them by law.

Art. 1775. [1166] Changed jurisdiction recognized; eminent domain retained.—Where the jurisdiction of the county court of the several counties of this state has been taken away, altered or changed by existing laws, the same shall remain as established, until otherwise provided by law; provided, however, that jurisdiction shall obtain in all matters of eminent domain over which the county courts have jurisdiction by the general laws of this state. [Acts of 1885, p. 77.]

[Note.—For jurisdiction of county court to adjudicate heirship, see chapter 25, title 52.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

THE TERMS OF THE COUNTY COURT FOR CIVIL AND PROBATE BUSINESS.

Terms of the county court.....	Article. 1776	Adjournment of term, when the county judge fails to appear.....	Article. 1778
Commissioners' court may fix.....	1777

Article 1776. [1167] Terms of the county court.—The county court shall hold at least four terms for both civil and criminal business annually as may be provided by the legislature, or by the commissioners' court of the county under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the commissioners' court; provided, the commissioners' court of any county having fixed the times and number of terms of the county court, shall not change the same again until the expiration of one year. Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation under such regulation as may be prescribed by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said courts in such manner as is, or may be, provided by law, and a jury therein shall consist of six men. Until, or unless otherwise provided, the terms of the county court shall be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks. [Cont. amendment, 1883, art. 5, sec. 29.]

Art. 1777. [1168] Commissioners' court may fix.—The county commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state may, at a regular term thereof, by an order entered upon the records of said courts, provide for more terms of the county court for the transaction of civil, criminal and probate business, and fix the times at which each of the four terms required by the constitution, and the terms exceeding four, if any, shall be held, not to exceed six annually, and may fix the length of said terms; provided, that, when the commissioners' court shall have fixed the number of terms of the county court by an order entered of record, said court shall not change the number of terms of the county court for one year from the date of entry of the original order fixing the terms of the county court. [Acts of 1885, p. 53.]

Art. 1778. [1169] Adjournment of term when county judge fails to appear.—Should the county judge fail to appear at the time appointed for holding the county court, and should no election of a special judge be had, the sheriff of the county, or, in his default, any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days; and, if the judge should not appear on the fourth day, and should no special judge have been appointed, the sheriff or constable, as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 9. P. D. 1412.]

Article 1779. [1170] [1175] Minutes of the court to be read and signed.—The minutes of the proceedings of each preceding day of the session shall be read in open court on the morning of the succeeding day, except on the last day of the session, on which day they shall be read, and, if necessary, corrected, and signed in open court by the county judge. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 12.]

Art. 1780. [1171] [1176] Minutes of proceedings before special judge.—When a special county judge has presided during the term, or a portion thereof, he shall sign the minutes of such of the proceedings as were had before him.

Art. 1781. [1172] [1177] Seal of the court.—Each of the several county courts shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and the words, “County Court of ——— County, Texas,” the impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and of the county judge, where he is authorized or required to use a seal of office. [Act June 16, 1876, p. 23, sec. 22. P. D. 1411.]

Art. 1782. [1173] [1178] When clerk has no seal, may use scroll.—When no such seal has been provided for the court, the clerk may use a scroll until a seal can be procured. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 12. P. D. 1411.]

Art. 1783. [1174] [1179] Probate day to be designated.—On the first day of the term for civil business, the county court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate a day for taking up the probate business; and the probate docket shall thereupon be called in its regular order, unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Act June 16, 1876, p. 22, sec. 20.]

Art. 1784. [1175] [1180] Proceedings when case is transferred to the district court.—Whenever a cause shall be transferred from the county court to the district court, the clerk shall immediately make out a transcript of all the proceedings had in said cause in the county court, and shall transmit the same, duly certified as such, together with a bill of the costs which have accrued in said court, and all the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the district court. [Act June 10, 1876, p. 19, sec. 6.]

Art. 1785. [1176] Jurisdiction taken away; judgments to be transferred.—It shall be the duty of the clerks of the county courts of the several counties in this state, where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county court has been transferred to the district court, to make out a certified copy of all judgments remaining unsatisfied, which have been rendered in civil or criminal cases in the county court, and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court of their respective counties. [Acts of 1879, p. 10.]

Article 1786. Creation of county court of Dallas county, at law.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Dallas county, to be called the “County Court of Dallas County, at Law.” [Acts 1907, p. 115, sec. 1.]

Art. 1787. Jurisdiction of said court.—The county court of Dallas county, at law, shall have jurisdiction in all matters and causes, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the state, the county court of said county would have jurisdiction, except as provided in article 1788; and all cases pending in the county court of said county, other than probate matters, and such as are provided in said article 1788, shall be, and the same are hereby, transferred to the county court of Dallas county, at law; and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of said county court, other than those pertaining to matters over which by said article jurisdiction remains in the said county court of Dallas county, shall be, and the same are hereby, made returnable to the county court of Dallas county, at law. The jurisdiction of the county court of Dallas county, at law, and of the judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain, of which jurisdiction has been heretofore vested in the county court, or in the county judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners’ court, or of the county judge of Dallas county, as the presiding officer of such commissioners’ court, as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners’ court, or the judge thereof. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1788. Jurisdiction retained by county court of Dallas county.—The county court of Dallas county shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, administrators and guardians; transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons; and shall apprentice minors as provided by law; and the said court, or the judge thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and also to punish contempts under such provisions as are, or may be, provided by general law governing county courts throughout the state; but said county court of Dallas county shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The county judge of Dallas county shall be the judge of the county court of Dallas county. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the county court of Dallas county, except in so far as the same shall, by this chapter, be committed to the judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1789. Terms of county court of Dallas county, at law; practice, etc.—The terms of the county court of Dallas county, at law, and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the county court of Dallas county, at law, shall be held as now established for the terms of the county court of Dallas county, until the same may be changed in accordance with the law. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1790. Judge to be elected when, etc.; qualifications; term.—There shall be elected in said county, by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, who shall be well informed in the laws of the state, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1791. Bond and oath of judge.—The judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1792. Special judge elected or appointed, how.—A special judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to county courts and to the judges thereof. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1793. May issue writs.—The county court of Dallas county, at law, or the judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court, or of any other court or tribunal inferior to said court. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1794. Clerk of; seal; sheriff to attend when, etc.—The county clerk of Dallas county shall be the clerk of the county court of Dallas county, at law. The seal of the said court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words, "County Court of Dallas County, at Law;" the sheriff of Dallas county shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1795. Appointment of jury commissioners; selection, etc., of juries.—The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the county court of Dallas county, at law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1796. Vacancy in office of judge, how filled.—Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, may be filled by the commissioners' court of Dallas county until the next general election. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 1797. Fees and salary of judge.—The judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, shall collect the same fees as are now established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be by him paid monthly into the county treasury; and he shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly, to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 1798. Salary of county judge of Dallas county.—The county judge of Dallas county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury, in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary, for the ex. officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court, not less than twelve hundred dollars per year. [Id. sec. 13.]

Article 1799. Creation of County Court of Tarrant County for civil cases.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Tarrant county, Texas, to be known and designated as the "County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases." [Acts 1909, p. 48, sec. 1.]

Art. 1800. Jurisdiction of said court.—The county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall have jurisdiction of all civil matters and causes, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the state of Texas, the county court of said county would have jurisdiction, except as provided in article 1801; and all civil cases pending in the county court of said county, other than probate matters, and such as are provided in said article, shall be, and the same are hereby, transferred to the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases; and all civil writs and process heretofore issued by, or out of, said county court, other than those pertaining to matters over which by said article jurisdiction remains in the county court of Tarrant county, [shall be] and the same are, returnable to the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases. The jurisdiction of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, and of the judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the county court of Tarrant county, or the judge thereof; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners' court or of the county judge of Tarrant county as the presiding officer of said court as to roads, bridges and public highways, and matters of eminent domain which are now within the jurisdiction of the commissioners' court or of the judge of the county court of Tarrant county. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1801. Jurisdiction retained by county court of Tarrant county.—The county court of Tarrant county shall retain, as heretofore, the jurisdiction of all criminal cases, its jurisdiction as a juvenile court, its jurisdiction in matters pertaining to liquor licenses, forfeitures and bonds, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and shall apprentice minors as provided by law. The county judge of Tarrant county shall be the judge of the county court of Tarrant county; and all ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the county court of Tarrant county, except in so far as the same shall, by this chapter, be committed to the judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1802. Both courts may issue writs.—Both the said county court of Tarrant county and the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, or either of the judges thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said courts, and also power to punish for contempts under such provisions as are, or may be, provided by the general laws governing county courts throughout the state, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said courts, or of any court or tribunal inferior to said courts. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1803. Terms, practice, etc., of county court of Tarrant county for civil cases.—The terms of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, and the practice therein, and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by law relating to the county courts. The terms of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall be held not less than four times each year; and the commissioners' court of Tarrant county shall fix the time at which said court shall hold its terms, until the same may be changed according to law. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 1804. Judge to be elected when, etc.; qualifications; term; vacancies how filled.—At each general election there shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county a judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, who shall be well informed in the laws of this state, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; provided, that no person shall be eligible for judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases, unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this state, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this state, or a judge of a court in this state, for four years next preceding his election, and who shall have resided in the county of Tarrant for two years next preceding his election. All vacancies in said office shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election thereafter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 1805. Bond and oath of judge.—The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 1806. Special judge elected or appointed how.—A special judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases may be appointed or elected as provided by law relating to county courts and to the judges thereof. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1807. Clerk of; seal; sheriff to attend when, etc.—The county clerk of Tarrant county shall be the clerk for the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words, "County Court of Tarrant County for Civil Cases." The sheriff of Tarrant county shall, in person or by deputy, attend the court when required by the judge thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1808. Selection, etc., of juries by the two courts jointly.—The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court of Tarrant county for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the two courts jointly and not separately. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1809. Fees; salary of judge of county court of Tarrant county for civil cases.—The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases shall collect the same fees provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the county treasury; and he shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars annually, to be paid monthly out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 1810. Removal of judge.—The judge of the county court of Tarrant county for civil cases may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this state. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 1811. Salary of county judge of Tarrant county.—The county judge of Tarrant county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary, for the ex officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court. Art. 1818. [1182] [1186] Pleadings to be in writing, signed and filed.—The pleadings in said courts shall be in writing and signed by the party, or by his attorney, and filed with the clerk of the court.

Art. 1819. [1183] [1187] Pleadings defined.—The pleading shall consist of a statement, in logical and legal form, of the facts constituting the plaintiff's cause of action, or the defendant's ground of defense.

Art. 1820. [1184] [1188] Pleadings of an intervenor.—The pleadings of an intervenor shall conform to the requirements of pleadings on the part of the plaintiff and defendant, respectively, so far as they may be applicable.

Art. 1821. [1185] [1189] Pleadings in particular cases.—In addition to the requirements of the several articles of this title relating to pleading, the pleadings of the parties, respectively, shall contain any other matter, not included in the preceding articles, which may be required by any law authorizing or regulating any particular action or defense.

Art. 1822. [1186] [1190] Pleading charters and acts of incorporation.—In pleading the charter or act of incorporation of any corporation, public or private, it shall not be necessary to set out at length such charter or act of incorporation, but it shall be sufficient to allege that such corporation was duly incorporated; and such allegation by either party shall be taken as true, unless denied by the affidavit of the adverse party, his agent or attorney. [Acts Feb. 14, 1860, p. 116, sec. 1. P. D. 1518. Acts of 1883, p. 103.]

Art. 1823. [1187] [1191] Pleading special act of the legislature.—Whenever any pleading is founded, in whole or in part, on any private or special act or law of the congress of the republic of Texas, or of the legislature of this state, it shall not be necessary for the party pleading the same to set out such private or special act or law, but it shall be sufficient to recite the title thereof, and the date of its approval, and to allege in substance so much of such act or law as may be pertinent to the cause of action or defense.

Art. 1824. [1188] [1192] Pleadings may be amended.—All parties to a suit may, in vacation, amend their pleadings, may file suggestions of death and make representative parties, and make new parties, and file such other pleas with the clerk of the court in which such suit is pending as they may desire. And any party may in vacation intervene in any suit pending such amendments and pleas, subject to be stricken out at the next term of the court on motion of the opposite party to the suit for sufficient cause shown or existing, to be determined by the court; provided, that it shall be the duty of the party filing such pleading to notify the opposite party or their attorneys of the filing of such papers within five days from the filing of the same. All amendments to pleadings, pleas and pleas of intervention, must, when court is in session, be filed under leave of the court, upon such terms as the court may prescribe, before the parties announce ready for trial, and not thereafter. [Acts of 1889, p. 9.]

Art. 1825. [1189] [1193] Time of filing amendment.—Such leave shall be given, and such amendment filed, for a reasonable time before the case is called for trial, so as not to operate as a surprise to the opposite party. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 34. P. D. 54.]

Art. 1826. [1190] [1194] Pleadings amended after arrest of judgment, etc.—Whenever a judgment has been arrested or a new trial granted, because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, the court may allow such pleadings to be amended as if no such trial had been had or judgment rendered. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 114. P. D. 1475.]

Defensive matters by plaintiff.....1828

Article 1827. [1191] [1195] Requisites of the petition.—The petition shall set forth clearly the names of the parties and their residences, if known, with a full and clear statement of the cause of action, and such other allegations, pertinent to the cause, as the plaintiff may deem necessary to sustain his suit, and without any distinction between suits at law and in equity, and shall also state the nature of the relief which he requests of the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 5. P. D. 1427.]

Art. 1828. [1192] [1196] Defensive matters pleaded by plaintiff.—When the defendant sets up a counter claim against the plaintiff, the plaintiff may plead thereto under the rules prescribed for the pleadings of defensive matter by the defendant so far as the same may be applicable; and, whenever, under such rules, the defendant is required to plead any matter of defense under oath, the plaintiff shall in like manner be required to plead such matters under oath, when relied on by him.

Art. 1829. [1193] [1197] Denial of special defenses presumed.—It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to deny any special matter of defense pleaded by the defendant, but the same shall be regarded as denied unless expressly admitted.

Art. 1830. [1194] [1198] Venue, general rule.—No person who is an inhabitant of this state shall be sued out of the county in which he has his domicile, except in the following cases, to-wit: [Acts Dec. 10, 1863. P. D. 1423.]

1. Exceptions: married women.—Where the defendant is a married woman, in which case she may be sued in the county in which her husband has his domicile. [P. D. 1423.]

2. Transient persons.—Where the defendant is a transient person, in which case he may be sued in any county in which he may be found.

3. Non-residents and persons whose residence is unknown.—Where the defendant, or all of several defendants, reside without the state, or where the residence of the defendants is unknown, in which case the suit may be brought in the county in which the plaintiff resides.

4. Several defendants residing in different counties.—Where there are two or more defendants residing in different counties, in which case the suit may be brought in any county where any one of the defendants resides. [P. D. 1423.]

5. Contract in writing to be performed in a particular county.—Where a person has contracted in writing to perform an obligation in any particular county, in which case suit may be brought either in such county, or where the defendant has his domicile. [Id.]

6. Executors, administrators, etc.—Where the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, to establish a money demand against the estate which he represents, in which case the suit must be brought in the county in which such estate is administered. [Id.]

7. Cases of fraud, and defalcation.—In all cases of fraud, and in cases of defalcation of public officers, in which cases suit may be instituted in the county in which the fraud was committed, or where the defalcation occurred, or where the defendant has his domicile. [Id.]

8. When attachment sued out or levied.—Any suit for damages growing out of the suing out of any writ of attachment or sequestration, or for the levy of any such writ, may be brought in any county from which such writ was issued, or in any county where such levy was made, in whole or in part, within this state. [Acts of 1889, p. 48.]

9. Cases of crime, offense, or trespass.—Where the foundation of the suit is some crime, or offense, or trespass, for which a civil action in damages may lie, in which case the suit may be brought in the county where such crime, or offense, or trespass was committed, or in the county where the defendant has his domicile. [P. D. 1423.]

10. Suits for personal property.—Where the suit is for the recovery of any personal property, in which case the suit may be brought in any county in which the property may be, or in which the defendant resides. [Id.]

11. Concerning inheritances.—Where the defendant has inherited an estate, concerning which the suit is commenced, in which case suit may be brought in the county where such estate principally lies. [Id.]

12. Foreclosure of mortgage or other liens.—Where the suit is for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien, in which case suit may be brought in the county in which the property subject to such lien, or a portion thereof, may be situated. [Id.]

13. Suits for partition.—Suits for the partition of lands or other property may be brought in the county where such lands or other property, or a part thereof, may be, or in the county in which one or more of the defendants reside.

14. Suits concerning lands.—Suits for the recovery of lands or damages thereto, suits to remove incumbrances upon the title to land, suits to quiet the title to land, and suits to prevent or stay waste on lands, must be brought in the county in which the land, or a part thereof, may lie. [Id.]

15. Breach of warranty.—In breach of warranty of title to lands, where the vendors liable thereon live in different counties, the plaintiff may bring his action in any county where either of such vendors reside, and join all other vendors in one and the same suit. [Acts of 1887, p. 69.]

16. Suits for divorce.—Suits for divorce from the bonds of matrimony shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff, whether husband or wife, shall have resided for six months next preceding the bringing of the suit. [Act May 27, 1873, p. 117.]

17. Injunctions, etc.—When the suit is brought to enjoin the execution of a judgment or to stay proceedings in any suit, in which case the suit shall be brought in the county in which such judgment was rendered or in which such suit is pending. [Act May 13, 1846. P. D. 3932.]

18. To revise proceedings of the county court in probate matters.—Suits to revise the proceedings of the county court in matters of probate must be brought in the district court of the county in which such proceedings were had. [Act Aug. 9, 1876, p. 128, secs. 128, 130.]

19. Suits against counties.—Suits against any county shall be commenced in some court of competent jurisdiction within such county. [Act April 11, 1846. P. D. 1047.]

20. Heads of departments.—Suits for mandamus against the heads of any of the departments of the state government shall be brought in the district court of the county in which the seat of government may be. [P. D. 1407.]

21. Forfeiture of charters granted by the legislature.—Suits in behalf of the state for the forfeiture of the charters of private corporations chartered by act of the legislature, shall be commenced in the district court of the county in which the seat of government may be. [Act Aug. 21, 1876, p. 312, sec. 2.]

22. Forfeiture of charters, under general incorporation law, for certain purposes.—Suits brought by the state for the purpose of forfeiting the charter of a private corporation, organized under the laws of this state, and for the purpose of cancelling the permit authorizing a foreign corporation to transact business in this state, and for the purpose of restraining corporations from exercising powers not conferred upon them by the laws of this state, and for the purpose of preventing persons from engaging in business in the state of Texas, contrary to the laws thereof, may be instituted in the proper court of the county in which the seat of government may be. [Acts 1903, p. 118.]

23. Suits to set aside fraudulent alienations of lands granted to railway companies.—Suits on behalf of the state to forfeit land fraudulently or colorably alienated by railway companies in fraud of the rights of the state, under the laws granting lands to railway companies, shall be brought in the county in which the seat of government may be. [Const., art 14, sec. 5.]

24. Private corporations, associations, etc.—Suits against any private corporation, association or joint stock company may be commenced in any county in which the cause of action, or a part thereof, arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated. And suits against a railroad corporation, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating its railway, may also be brought in any county through or into which the railroad of such corporation extends or is operated. Suits against receivers of persons and corporations may also be brought as provided for in article 2147. [Act March 21, 1874, p. 31. P. D. 6011f, 6011h. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879. Acts of 1887, p. 122.]

25. Suits for damages against two or more railroad, etc., companies or receivers, etc.—Whenever any passenger, freight, baggage or other property has been transported by two or more railroad companies, express companies, steamship or steamboat companies, transportation companies, or common carriers of any kind or name whatsoever, or by any assignee, lessee, trustee or receiver thereof, or partly by one or more such companies, or common carriers, and partly by one or more assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers thereof, operating or doing business as such common carriers in this state, or having agents or representatives in this state, suit for damage, or loss, or for any other cause of action arising out of such carriage, transportation or contract in relation thereto, may be brought against any one or all of such common carriers, assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers so operating or doing business in this state, or having agents or representatives in this state, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in any county in which either of such common carriers, assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers operates or does business, or has an agent or representative; provided, however, that, if damages be recovered in such suits against more than one defendant not partners in such carriage, transportation or contract, the same shall, on request of either party, be apportioned between the defendants, by the verdict of the jury, or, if no jury is demanded, then by the judgment of the court. [Acts 1899, p. 214. Acts 1905, p. 29.]

26. Suits for personal injuries, against railroad corporations, assignees, receivers, etc.—All suits against railroad corporations, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating any railway in the state of Texas, for damages arising from personal injuries, resulting in death or otherwise, shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury; provided, that if the defendant railroad corporation does not run or operate its railway in, or through, the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, and has no agent in said county, then said suit shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county nearest that in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, in which the defendant corporation runs or operates its road, or has an agent; and provided, further, that, in case that the plaintiff is a non-resident of the state of Texas, then such suit may be brought in any county in which the defendant corporation may run or operate its railroad, or may have an agent; provided, that, when an injury occurs within one-half mile from the boundary line dividing two counties, suit may be brought in either of said counties. [Acts 1901, p. 31.]

27. Mechanics, laborers and operatives for their wages.—Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives, for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this state where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action, or part thereof, accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated; and, in all such suits, service of process may be made in the manner now required by law. [Acts of 1879, p. 8.]

28. Foreign, private or public corporations, etc.—Foreign, private or public corporations, joint stock companies or associations, not incorporated by the laws of this state, and doing business within this state, may be sued in any court within this state having jurisdiction over the subject matter, in any county where the cause of action, or a part thereof, accrued, or in any county where such company may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated; or, when the defendant corporation has no agent or representative in the state, then in the county where the plaintiffs, or either of them, reside. [Acts of 1887, p. 131.]

29. Fire, marine, life and accident insurance companies.—Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may also be commenced in any county in which any part of the insured property was situated; and suits against life and accident insurance companies or associations may also be commenced in the county in which the persons insured, or any of them, resided at the time of such death or injury. [Act April 17, 1874, p. 107. P. D. 6011f.]

30. Venue prescribed by particular law.—Whenever, in any law authorizing or regulating any particular character of action, the venue is expressly prescribed, the suit shall be commenced in the county to which jurisdiction may be so expressly given.

Art. 1831. Issuing process and taking depositions, no waiver of plea; use of deposition; cause transferred when; costs.—Issuing process for witnesses and taking depositions shall not constitute a waiver of a plea of privilege, but depositions taken in such case may be read in evidence in any subsequent suit between the same parties concerning the same subject-matter in like manner as if taken in such subsequent suit. [Acts 1907, p. 248.]

Art. 1832. If plea sustained, no dismissal, but transfer.—If a plea of privilege is sustained, the cause shall not be dismissed, but the court shall transfer said cause to the court having jurisdiction of the person of the defendant therein; and the costs incurred prior to the time such suit is filed in the court to which said cause is transferred shall be taxed against the plaintiff. [Id.]

Art. 1833. When plea sustained, order changing venue, record transmitted.—Whenever a plea of privilege to the venue, to be sued in some other county than the county in which the suit is pending, shall be sustained, the court shall order the venue to be changed to the proper court of the county having jurisdiction of the parties and the cause; and the clerk shall make up a transcript of all the orders made in said cause, certifying thereto officially under the seal of the court, and transmit the same, with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the court to which the venue has been changed; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent an appeal from the judgment of the court sustaining a plea of privilege. [Id.]

Art. 1834. [1195] [1199] When water course or highway is county boundary.—In all cases where any part of a river, water course, highway, road or street shall be the boundary line between two counties, the several courts of each of said counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases over such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street as shall be the boundary of such county, in the same manner as if such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street were within the body of such county. [Act May 11, 1846. P. D. 1421.]

Article 1835. [1196] [1200] Suits by and against counties, cities, etc.—All suits brought by or against any of the counties or incorporated cities, towns or villages shall be by or against it in its corporate name. [Act Aug. 30, 1876. P. D. 1045.]

Art. 1836. [1197] [1201] Suits by executors, etc.—Suits for the recovery of personal property, debts or damages, and suits for title or for the possession of lands, or for any right attached to, or growing out of, the same, or for any injury or damage done thereto, may be instituted by executors, administrators or guardians appointed in this state, in like manner as they could have been by their testator or intestate; and judgment in such cases shall be as conclusive as if rendered in favor of, or against, such testator or intestate; but such judgment may be set aside by any person interested for fraud or collusion on the part of such executor or administrator. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 44. P. D. 1447.]

Art. 1837. [1198] [1202] Suits for land against decedents.—In every suit against the estate of a decedent involving the title to real estate, the executor or administrator, if any, and the heirs shall be made parties defendant. [Act Aug. 15, 1870, p. 141, sec. 229. P. D. 5697.]

Art. 1838. [1199] [1203] Suits for injuries resulting in death.—In cases arising under the provisions of title 70, relating to injuries resulting in death, the parties entitled thereto may bring their suit for such damages as provided in said title.

Art. 1839. [1200] [1204] Suits for wife's separate property.—The husband may sue either alone or jointly with his wife for the recovery of any separate property of the wife; and, in case he fail or neglect so to do, she may, by the authority of the court, sue for such property in her own name. [Act Jan. 20, 1840, p. 3, sec. 9. P. D. 4636.]

Art. 1840. [1201] [1205] Against husband and wife, for necessaries, etc.—The husband and wife shall be jointly sued for all debts contracted by the wife for necessaries furnished herself or children, and for all expenses which may have been incurred by the wife for the benefit of her separate property. [Act March 13, 1848, p. 77, sec. 4. P. D. 4643.]

Art. 1841. [1202] [1206] For wife's debts, etc.—The husband and wife shall also be jointly sued for all separate debts and demands against the wife, but, in such case, no personal judgment shall be rendered against the husband. [Act May 13, 1848, p. 363, sec. 41. P. D. 9.]

Art. 1842. [1203] [1207] Several obligors to any contract may be joined, but, etc.—The acceptor of any bill of exchange, or any other principal obligor in any contract, may be sued either alone or jointly with any other party who may be liable thereon; but no judgment shall be rendered against such other party not primarily liable on such bill or other contract, unless judgment shall have been previously, or shall be at the same time, rendered against such acceptor or other principal obligor, except where the plaintiff may discontinue his suit against such principal obligor as hereinafter provided. [Acts May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 4; Id. secs. 45, 46. Jan. 25, 1840, p. 144, sec. 6. P. D. 1426, 1448-9, 225. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S. passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 1843. [1204] [1208] Parties conditionally liable may be sued, when.—The assignor, indorser, guarantor and surety upon any contract, and the drawer of any bill which has been accepted, may be sued without the necessity of previously, or at the same time, suing the maker, acceptor or other principal obligor, when he resides beyond the limits of the state, or in such part of the same that he can not be reached by the ordinary process of law, or when his residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or when he is dead, or actually or notoriously insolvent. [Id.]

Art. 1844. [1204] [1208] Sheriff, constable, etc., sued for damages, may make indemnitors parties, etc.—Whenever a sheriff, constable or a deputy of either, has been sued for damages for any act done in his official character, and has taken an indemnifying bond for such acts so done by him, upon which said act a suit for damages is based, the said sheriff, constable or his deputy shall have the right to make the parties, principal and surety on such bond of indemnity, parties defendant in such suit for damages, and the cause may be continued for the purpose of obtaining service on such parties so made in said cause. [Acts 1885, p. 90.]

Art. 1845. [1205] Sureties on official bonds, when joined.—In any suit brought by the state of Texas, or any county of said state, against any officer who has held an office for more than one term and has given more than one official bond, the sureties on each and all of such bonds may be joined as defendants in one and the same suit, whenever it is alleged in the petition that it is difficult to determine when the default sued for occurred and which set of sureties on such official bonds is liable therefor. [Acts of 1891, p. 85.]

Art. 1846. [1206] When different officials and their bondsmen may be joined.—In any suit by the state of Texas upon the official bond of any state officer, any subordinate officer who has given bond, payable either to the state or to such superior officer, to cover the default sued for, or any part thereof, together with the sureties on his official bond, may be joined as defendants in one and the same suit with such superior officer and his bondsmen, whenever it is alleged in the petition that both of such officers are liable for the money sued for, to the end that all equities may be adjusted between them in one suit. [Id.]

Art. 1847. [1207] Suit in the name of the state for the use of others.—Whenever any official bond is made payable to the state of Texas, or any officer thereof, and a recovery thereon is authorized by, or would inure to the benefit of, parties other than the state, suit may be instituted on such bond in the name of the state alone for the benefit of all parties entitled to recover thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1848. [1208] [1209] Additional parties may be brought in, when.—Before a case is called for trial, additional parties may, when they are necessary or proper parties to the suit, be brought in by proper process, either by the plaintiff or the defendant, upon such terms as the court may prescribe; but such parties shall not be brought in at such a time or in such a manner as unreasonably to delay the trial of the case.

[Note.—For provisions authorizing unincorporated joint stock companies or associations to sue and be sued in their company names, see title “Partnerships—Limited” and “Joint Stock Companies.”]

Art. 1849. [1209] [1210] Parties may appear by attorney.—Any party to a suit may appear and prosecute or defend his rights therein, either in person or by an attorney of the court.

[Note.—For provisions as to the appointment of attorney to defend suit by publication where no answer is filed, etc., and as to appointment of guardian ad litem for minors, lunatics, etc., see articles 1941 and 1942.]

Article 1850. [1212] [1213] Citation to issue, when.—When a petition shall be filed with the clerk, and the other regulations hereinafter prescribed shall be complied with, it shall be his duty to issue forthwith a writ of citation for the defendant. [Act Feb. 6, 1854, p. 53, sec. 9. P. D. 1430.]

Art. 1851. [1213] [1214] One citation to each county where there is a defendant.—If there be several defendants, residing in different counties, one citation shall issue to each of such counties.

Art. 1852. [1214] [1215] Citation shall contain what.—Such citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and shall command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the next regular term of the court, stating the time and place of holding the same. It shall state the date of the filing of the plaintiff's petition, the file number of the suit, the names of all the parties and the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and shall contain the requisites prescribed in article 2180. [Acts Feb. 6, 1854, p. 53, sec. 9. May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 10. Nov. 12, 1866, p. 199, sec. 1. P. D. 1430-1. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 1853. [1215] [1216] Defendant out of county to have copy of petition.—Where the defendant is to be served without the county in which the suit is pending, a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition shall accompany the citation; and, should there be more than one defendant to be served without the county, a certified copy of the petition shall be made out for each of them.

Art. 1854. [1216] [1217] Citation where sheriff is a party.—Where it appears from the petition that the sheriff is a party to the suit, or is interested therein, the citation shall be addressed to any constable of his county. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 21. P. D. 1437.]

Art. 1855. [1217] [1218] Duty of officer receiving citation.—It shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable to whom any citation shall be delivered to indorse thereon the day and hour on which he received it, and to execute and return the same without delay. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 14. P. D. 1433.]

Art. 1856. [1218] [1219] Service of citation within the county.—Unless the process should otherwise direct, the citation shall be served, if within the county in which the suit is pending, by the officer executing it delivering to the defendant, or, if there be more than one, then to each defendant in person, a true copy of the citation.

Art. 1857. [1219] [1220] Service without the county.—If served without the county in which the suit is pending, the officer shall also deliver to the defendant and each of them, in person, the certified copy of the petition accompanying the citation. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 14. P. D. 1433.]

Art. 1858. [1220] [1221] Citation in suits against counties.—In suits against any county, the citation shall be served on the county judge of such county. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 320, sec. 5. P. D. 1048.]

Art. 1859. [1221] [1222] Against cities, towns, etc.—In suits against any incorporated city, town or village, the citation may be served on the mayor, clerk, secretary or treasurer thereof. [Act Feb. 6, 1854, p. 53, sec. 9. P. D. 1430.]

Art. 1860. [1222] [1223] Against incorporated companies and joint stock associations.—In suits against an incorporated company or joint stock association, the citation may be served on the president, secretary or treasurer of such company or association, or upon the local agent representing such company or association in the county in which suit is brought, or by leaving a copy of the same at the principal office of the company during office hours; provided, that if the president, secretary or treasurer does not either of them reside in the county in which suit is brought, and such company or association has no agent in the county in which suit is brought, then the citation may be served upon any agent representing such company or association in the state; and, in suits against receivers of railroad companies, service may be had upon the receiver, upon the general or division superintendent, or upon any agent of the receiver who resides in the county in which suit it [is] brought; provided, that, if there be no agent of the receiver in the county in which suit is brought, then service may be had upon any agent of the receiver in the state. [Acts 1887, p. 122. Acts 1874, p. 32. Acts 1874, p. 10. Acts 1854, p. 53. Acts 1854, p. 55. Acts 1903, p. 66. P. D. 1430, 4888.]

Art 1861. [1223] Foreign corporations, how served.—In any suit against a foreign, private or public corporation, joint stock company or association or acting corporation or association, citation or other process may be served on the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer, or general manager, or upon any local agent within this state, of such corporation, joint stock company or association, or acting corporation or association. [Acts of 1885, p. 79.]

Art. 1862. In suits against foreign corporations, cumulative mode.—Service may be had on foreign corporations, having agents in this state, in addition to the means now provided by law, by serving citation upon any train conductor who is engaged in handling trains for two or more railway corporations, whether said railroad corporations are foreign or domestic corporations, if said conductor handles trains over foreign or domestic corporations' track across the state line of Texas, and on the track of a domestic railway corporation within the state of Texas, or upon any agent who has an office in Texas, and who sells tickets or makes contracts for the transportation of passengers or property over any line of railway or part thereof, or steamship or steamboat of any such foreign corporation or company. For the purpose of obtaining service of citation on foreign railway corporations, conductors who are engaged in handling trains, and agents engaged in the sale of tickets or the making of contracts for the transportation of property, as described in this article, are hereby designated as agents of said foreign corporations or companies upon whom citation may be served. [Acts 1905, p. 30.]

Art. 1863. [1224] [1224] Against partners.—In suits against partners, the citation may be served upon one of the firm; and such service shall be sufficient to authorize a judgment against the firm and against the partner actually served. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 110, sec. 2. P. D. 1514.]

Art. 1864. [1225] [1225] Return of citation.—The return of the officer executing the citation shall be indorsed on, or attached to, the same; it shall state when the citation was served and the manner of service, conforming to the command of the writ, and shall be signed by him officially. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 11. P. D. 1507.]

Art. 1865. [1226] [1226] Return of citation not served.—When the citation has not been served, the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same and the cause of failure to execute it, and where the defendant is to be found, in so far as he has been able to ascertain.

Art. 1866. [1227] [1227] Alias process.—When any process has not been returned, or has been returned without service, or has been improperly served, it shall be the duty of the clerk, upon the application of any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, to issue other process to the same or any other county, as the party applying may direct. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 19. P. D. 1435.]

Art. 1867. [1228] [1228] Time of service of citation.—The citation shall be served before the return day thereof; and, in order to compel the defendant to plead at the return term of the court, the citation must be served at least ten days before the first day of such return term, exclusive of the days of service and return. [Acts of 1891, p. 94.]

Art. 1868. [1229] [1229] Same subject.—If the citation be issued too late, or if it can not be served at least ten days before the first day of such return term, exclusive of the days of service and return, the officer to whom it is delivered shall nevertheless proceed to serve the same at any time before the return day thereof; and such service shall compel the defendant to plead at the next succeeding term of the court. [Id.]

Art. 1869. [1230] [1230] Citation to defendant without the state.—Where the defendant is absent from the state, or is a non-resident of the state, the clerk shall, upon the application of any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, address a notice to the defendant requiring him to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the time and place of the holding of the court, naming such time and place. Its style shall be, "The State of Texas," and it shall give the date of the filing of the petition, the file number of the suit, the names of all the parties and the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and shall state that a copy of the plaintiff's petition accompanies the notice. It shall be dated and signed, and attested by the clerk, with the seal of the court impressed thereon; and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon; a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition shall accompany the notice. [Act March 15, 1875, p. 170, sec. 2.]

Art. 1870. [1231] [1231] By whom served.—Such notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact. [Id.]

Art. 1871. [1232] [1232] Service in such cases.—Service in such cases shall be made by the person executing the same delivering to the defendant in person a true copy of such notice, together with the certified copy of the plaintiff's petition accompanying the same. [Id.]

Art. 1872. [1233] [1233] Return of such service.—The return of service in such cases shall be indorsed or attached to the original notice; it shall state when the same was served and the manner of service, and shall be signed and sworn to by the party making such service before some officer authorized by the laws of this state to take affidavits; and such affidavit shall be certified under the hand and official seal of such officer. [Id.]

Art. 1873. [1234] [1234] Effect of such service.—Where a defendant has been served with such notice, he shall be required to appear and answer in the same manner and under the same penalties as if he had been personally served with a citation within this state.

Art. 1874. [1235] [1235] Citation by publication.—Where any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, shall make oath at the time of instituting the suit, or at any time during its progress, that the party defendant is a non-resident of the state, or that he is absent from the state, or that he is a transient person, or that his residence is unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for the defendant, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of the citation in some newspaper published in his county, if there be any newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the judicial district where the suit is pending; but if there be no newspaper published in such judicial district, then it shall be published in the nearest district to the district where the suit is pending. Such citation shall be published once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day thereof. [Acts March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 13; March 15, 1875, p. 170, sec. 1. Acts 1879, ch. 96, p. 103. P. D. 25.]

Art. 1875. [1236] [1236] For unknown heirs.—Where any property of any kind in this state may have been granted, or may have accrued, to the heirs, as such, of any deceased person, any party having a claim against them relative to such property, if their names be unknown to him, may bring his action against them, their heirs or legal representatives, describing them as the heirs of such ancestor, naming him; and, if the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall at the time of instituting the suit, or any time during its progress, make oath that the names of such heirs are unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such heirs, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the sheriff or constable to summon the defendant by making publication of the citation in some newspaper of his county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day of such citation. [Acts Nov. 9, 1866, p. 125, sec. 1; March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 26. P. D. 5460, 26.]

Art. 1876. [1237] [1237] Citation by publication to contain same requisites as other writs.—The citations provided for in the two preceding articles shall contain the requisites prescribed in article 2180. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

[Note.—See articles 1941 and 2175.]

Art. 1877. [1264] [1264] Publication of citation in suits involving title to land.—In all suits involving the title to land, wherein service of citation is by publication, the publication of citation shall be made in the county in which the land is situated; provided, there be a newspaper published in such county, and if there be no newspaper published in such county, then in the county nearest to the county wherein the land is situated. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 324.]

Art. 1878. [1238] [1238] Return of citation by publication.—The return of the officer executing such citation shall be indorsed or attached to the same, and shall show when the citation was executed and the manner thereof, specifying the dates of such publication, shall be accompanied by a printed copy of such publication, and shall be signed by him officially. [R. S. 1879, 1238.]

Art. 1879. [1239] [1239] Mistake in return may be corrected.—Any mistake or informality in a return may be corrected by the officer at any time under the direction of the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 18. P. D. 53.]

Art. 1880. [1240] [1240] Acceptance of service of process.—The defendant may accept service of any process, or waive the issuance or service thereof by a written memorandum signed by him or by his duly authorized agent or attorney, and filed among the papers of the cause; and such waiver or acceptance shall have the same force and effect as if the citation had been issued and served as provided by law. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, secs. 12, 13. P. D. 1508, 1432.]

Art. 1881. [1241] [1241] Entering appearance in open court.—The defendant may, in person, or by attorney, or by his duly authorized agent, enter an appearance in open court; and such appearance shall be noted by the judge upon his docket and entered in the minutes, and shall have the same force and effect as if citation had been duly issued and served as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 1882. [1242] [1242] Answer constitutes appearance.—The filing of an answer shall constitute an appearance of the defendant so as to dispense with the necessity for the issuance or service of citation upon him. [Id.]

Art. 1883. [1243] [1243] Motion constitutes appearance, when.—Where the citation, or service thereof, is quashed on motion of the defendant, the case may be continued for the term, but the defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance to the succeeding term of the court.

Art. 1884. [1244] [1244] Reversal of judgment on appearance.—Where the judgment is reversed on appeal or writ of error taken by the defendant for the want of service, or because of defective service of process, no new citation shall be issued or served, but the defendant shall be presumed to have entered his appearance to the term of the court at which the mandate shall be filed.

Art. 1885. [1245] [1245] No judgment without service of process, etc.—No judgment shall, in any case, be rendered against any defendant unless upon service, or acceptance, or waiver of process, or upon an appearance by the defendant, as prescribed in this chapter, except where otherwise expressly provided by law. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 65, sec. 18.]

Article 1886. [1246] [1246] Suit not to abate where plaintiff dies, if, etc.—Where in any suit the plaintiff shall die before verdict, if the cause of action be one which survives, the suit shall not abate by reason of such death, but the executor or administrator, and if there be no administration, and no necessity therefor, then the heir of such deceased plaintiff may appear, and, upon a suggestion of such death being entered of record, in open court, may be made plaintiff in such suit, and the suit shall proceed in his name. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 38. P. D. 6.]

Art. 1887. [1247] [1247] Scire facias to executor, etc.—If, upon such death, no such appearance and suggestion be made at the first term of the court thereafter, it shall be the duty of the clerk, upon the application of the defendant, his agent or attorney, to issue a scire facias for the executor, administrator or heir of such decedent requiring him to appear and prosecute such suit; and if, after service of such scire facias as required in the case of citations, such executor, administrator or heir shall not enter his appearance on or before the appearance day of the succeeding term of the court, the defendant may, on motion, have the suit discontinued. [Id.]

Art. 1888. [1248] [1248] Death of defendant.—Where in any suit the defendant shall die before verdict, if the cause of action be one which survives, the suit shall not abate by reason of such death, but, upon a suggestion of such death being entered of record in open court, or upon a petition of the plaintiff, representing that fact, being filed with the clerk, it shall be his duty to issue a scire facias for the executor or administrator, and, in a proper case, for the heir of such deceased defendant, requiring him to appear and defend the suit; and, upon the return of such service, the suit shall proceed against such executor, administrator or heir, and such judgment may be rendered therein as may be authorized by law. [Id. sec. 39. P. D. 7.]

Art. 1889. [1249] [1249] Where executor, etc., dies.—Where an executor or administrator shall be a party to any suit, whether as plaintiff or defendant, and shall die or cease to be such executor or administrator before verdict, the suit shall not thereby abate, but may be continued by or against the person succeeding him in the administration, or by or against the heir, where there is no administration and no necessity therefor, upon like proceedings being had as provided in the two preceding articles, or the suit may be discontinued, as provided in article 1882. [1887.] [P. D. 6, 7.]

Art. 1890. [1250] [1250] Surviving parties.—Where there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one or more of them die, if the cause of action survive to the surviving plaintiffs and against the surviving defendants, the suit shall not abate by reason of such death, but, upon suggestion of such death being entered upon the record, the suit shall, at the instance of either party, proceed in the name of the surviving plaintiffs or against the surviving defendants, as the case may be. [Id. sec. 36. P. D. 4.]

Art. 1891. [1251] [1251] Death between verdict and judgment.—Where in any suit either party shall die between verdict and judgment, the judgment shall be entered as if both parties were living. [Id. sec. 37. P. D. 5. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 1892. [1252] [1252] Marriage of plaintiff feme sole.—A suit instituted by a feme sole shall not abate by her marriage; but, upon a suggestion of such marriage being entered on the record, the husband may make himself a party to such suit and prosecute the same as if he and his wife had been originally plaintiffs in such suit. [Id. sec. 40. P. D. 8.]

Art. 1893. [1253] [1253] Marriage of defendant feme sole.—A suit instituted against a feme sole shall not abate by her marriage, but, upon a suggestion of such marriage being entered on the record, in open court, or upon a petition representing that fact being filed with the clerk, it shall be his duty to issue a scire facias to the husband of such defendant; and upon the return thereof executed, the husband shall be made a party to such suit, and it shall proceed as if such husband and wife had originally been defendants in such suit. [Id. sec. 41. P. D. 9.]

Art. 1894. [1254] [1254] Suit to the use of another.—When a plaintiff, suing for the use of another person shall die before verdict, the person for whose use such suit was brought, upon such death being suggested on the record in open court, may prosecute the suit in his own name, and shall be responsible for costs in the same manner as he would have been had the suit been commenced by him. [Id. sec. 42. P. D. 10.]

Art. 1895. [1255] [1255] Death of party to suit for injuries resulting in death.—In cases arising under the provisions of title 70, the suit shall not abate by the death of either party pending the suit, but in such case, if the plaintiff dies, where there is only one plaintiff, some one or more of the parties entitled to the money recovered may be substituted and the suit prosecuted to judgment in the name of such party or parties, for the benefit of the persons entitled; if the defendant dies, his executor, administrator or heir may be made a party, and the suit prosecuted to judgment as provided for in previous articles of this chapter. [Act Feb. 2, 1860, p. 32, sec. 4. P. D. 18.]

Art. 1896. [1256] [1256] Where some of defendants not served.—Where there are several defendants in a suit, and some of them are served with process in due time and others not so served, the plaintiff may either discontinue as to those not so served and proceed against those that are, or he may continue the suit until the next term of the court and take new process against those not served; and no defendant against whom any suit may be so discontinued shall be thereby exonerated from any liability under which he was, but may at any time be proceeded against as if no such suit had been brought and no such discontinuance entered. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 45. P. D. 1448.]

Art. 1897. [1257] [1257] Discontinuance as to principal obligor.—Where a suit is discontinued as to a principal obligor, no judgment can be rendered therein against an indorser, guarantor, surety or drawer of an accepted bill who is jointly sued, unless it is alleged and proven that such principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the state, or in such part of the same that he can not be reached by the ordinary process of law, or that his residence is unknown and can not be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or that he is dead or actually or notoriously insolvent. [Id. P. D. 1449, 1426, 225.]

Art. 1898. [1258] [1258] Discontinuance in vacation.—The plaintiff may enter a discontinuance on the docket in vacation, in any suit wherein the defendant has not answered, on the payment of all costs that have accrued thereon. [Id. sec. 28. P. D. 1440.]

Art. 1899. [1259] [1259] Discontinuance as to defendants served, etc.—The court may permit the plaintiff to discontinue his suit as to one or more of several defendants who may have been served with process, or who may have answered when such discontinuance would not operate to the prejudice of the other defendants; but no such discontinuance shall, in any case, be allowed as to a principal obligor, except in the cases provided for in article 1897.

Art. 1900. [1260] [1260] Discontinuance when defendant has filed counter claim.—Where the defendant has filed a counter claim seeking affirmative relief, the plaintiff shall not be permitted, by a discontinuance of his suit, to prejudice the right of the defendant to be heard on such counter claim.

Art. 1901. [1261] [1261] Requisites of scire facias and returns.—The scire facias and returns thereon, provided for in this chapter, shall conform to the requisites of citations and the returns thereon, under the provisions of chapter six of this title.

Article 1902. [1262] [1262] Answer may include several matters.—The defendant in his answer may plead as many several matters, whether of law or fact, as he shall think necessary for his defense, and which may be pertinent to the cause; provided, that he shall file them all at the same time, and in due order of pleading. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 29. P. D. 1441.]

Art. 1903. Plea of privilege; what sufficient.—A plea of privilege to be sued in the county of ones residence shall be sufficient, if it be in writing and sworn to, and shall state that the party claiming such privilege was not, at the institution of such suit, nor at the time of the service of such process therein, nor at the time of filing such plea, a resident of the county in which such suit was instituted, and shall state the county of his residence at the time of such plea, and that none of the exceptions to exclusive venue in the county of ones residence mentioned in article 1830 or article 2308 of the Revised Statutes exist in said cause. [Acts 1907, p. 248.]

Art. 1904. [1263] [1263] Answer to be filed, when.—In all cases in which the citation has been personally served at least ten days before the first day of the term to which it is returnable, exclusive of the day of service and return, the answer of the defendant shall be filed in the county and district courts, on or before the second day of the return term, and before the call of the appearance docket on said second day. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, secs. 10, 12; June 16, 1876, p. 22, sec. 18. P. D. 1506, 1508. Acts of 1891, p. 94; amend., 1893, p. 31.]

Art. 1905. [1264] [1264] Answer in cases of citation by publication.—In cases in which service of citation has been made by publication, and wherein eight weeks' publication is required, the answer shall be filed on or before appearance day of the term to which the citation is returnable, as in cases of personal service. In all other cases in which service of citation has been made by publication, the answer shall be filed on or before appearance day of the term next succeeding that to which the citation is returnable. [Acts 1846, p. 363, sec. 12. Acts 1909, S. S. p. 324.]

Art. 1906. [1265] [1265] Certain pleas to be verified by affidavit.—An answer setting up any of the following matters, unless the truth of the pleadings appear of record, shall be verified by affidavit:

1. That the suit is not commenced in the proper county.
2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
3. That the plaintiff is not entitled to recover in the capacity in which he sues.
4. That there is another suit pending in this state between the same parties for the same cause of action.
5. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant.
6. A denial of partnership as alleged in the petition, whether the same be on the part of the plaintiff or defendant.
7. That the plaintiff or the defendant, alleged in the petition to be duly incorporated, is not duly incorporated as alleged.

8. A denial of the execution by himself or by his authority of any instrument in writing, upon which any pleading is founded, in whole or in part, and charged to have been executed by him or by his authority, and not alleged to be lost or destroyed. Where such instrument in writing is charged to have been executed by a person then deceased, the affidavit will be sufficient if it state that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe that such instrument was not executed by the decedent or by his authority.

9. A plea denying the genuineness of the indorsement or assignment of a written instrument, as required by article 588.

10. That a written instrument upon which a pleading is founded is without consideration, or that the consideration of the same has failed in whole or in part.

11. That an account which is the foundation of the plaintiff's action, and supported by an affidavit, is not just; and, in such case, the answer shall set forth the items and particulars which are unjust. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

12. That the contract sued upon is usurious. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 31. P. D. 1. Id. sec. 52. P. D. 228. Id. sec. 88. P. D. 1444. Id. sec. 30. P. D. 1442. Id. sec. 86. P. D. 1443. Act Jan. 25, 1840, p. 144, sec. 5. P. D. 224. Act April 2, 1874, p. 52, sec. 1. P. D. 6829c. Acts of 1883, p. 4.]

Art. 1907. [1266] [1266] Plea of payment, counter claim, etc.—In every action in which a defendant shall desire to prove any payment, counter claim or set-off, he shall file with his plea an account stating distinctly the nature of such payment, counter claim or set-off, and the several items thereof; and, on failure to do so, he shall not be entitled to prove the same, unless it be so plainly and particularly described in the plea as to give the plaintiff full notice of the character thereof. [Act Feb. 5, 1840, p. 62, sec. 2. P. D. 3444.]

Art. 1908. [1267] [1267] General denial need not be repeated.—Where the defendant has pleaded the general denial, and the plaintiff shall afterward amend his pleading, it shall not be necessary for the defendant to plead such denial a second time, but such original denial shall be presumed to extend to all matters subsequently set up by the plaintiff.

Art. 1909. [1268] [1268] Pleas to be filed in due order, etc.—Pleas shall be filed in the due order of pleading, and shall be heard and determined in such order under the direction of the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 32. P. D. 2.]

Art. 1910. [1269] [1269] Certain pleas to be determined during the term at which filed.—Pleas to the jurisdiction, pleas in abatement, and other dilatory pleas and demurrers, not involving the merits of the case, shall be determined during the term at which they are filed, if the business of the court will permit. [Id. sec. 33. P. D. 3.]

Article 1911. [1270] [1270] By consent of parties.—The court may, upon the written consent of the parties thereto, or their attorneys, filed with the papers of the cause by an order entered on the minutes, transfer the same for trial to the court of any other county having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such suit. [Act June 21, 1876, p. 25, sec. 1.]

Art. 1912. [1271] [1271] Granted on application, when.—A change of venue may be granted in any civil cause upon application of either party, supported by his own affidavit and the affidavit of at least three credible persons, residents of the county in which the suit is pending, for any of the following causes: [Act April 7, 1874, p. 67, sec. 1. P. D. 5885a.]

1. That there exists in the county where the suit is pending so great a prejudice against him that he can not obtain a fair and impartial trial.

2. That there is a combination against him instigated by influential persons, by reason of which he cannot expect a fair and impartial trial.

3. For other good and sufficient cause, to be determined by the court.

Art. 1913. [1272] [1272] Shall be granted, unless, etc.—Where application for a change of venue is made in conformity to the requirements of the preceding article, the same shall be granted, unless the credibility of the persons making the application for a change of venue, or their means of knowledge, or the truth of the facts set out in the said application, are attacked by the affidavit of a credible person; and, if such application is thus attacked, the issue thus formed shall be tried by the judge, and the application granted or refused, as the law and the facts shall warrant. [Id. sec. 4. P. D. 5885d; amend., 1893, p. 2.]

Art. 1914. [1273] [1273] To what county.—Upon the grant of a change of venue, as provided in the two preceding articles, the cause shall be removed to some adjoining county, the court house of which is nearest to the court house of the county in which the suit is pending, unless it be made to appear in the application that such nearest county is subject to some objection sufficient to authorize a change of venue therefrom in the first instance; but the parties may, by consent, agree that it shall be changed to some other county, and the order of court shall conform to such agreement. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 5885b.]

Art. 1915. [1274] [1274] In case of new counties.—Where a suit may be pending in the district or county court of any county, out of the territory of which a new county has been, or may be hereafter, made, in whole or in part, if the defendants, or any one of them, shall file a motion in the court where such suit is pending, to transfer the same to such new county, naming it, together with an affidavit stating that neither he nor any one of the defendants now resides in the territorial limits of the county where such suit is pending, and that neither he nor any one of the defendants resided in said territorial limit at the time of the institution of such suit, and shall further swear that at the date of the filing of such suit, said defendant was a resident citizen within the territorial limits of the new county, the court shall grant a change of venue to such new county, unless the suit could be properly brought in the county in which the same is pending under some provision of article 1830. [Act July 29, 1876. p. 74, sec. 1.]

Art. 1916. [1275] [1275] Duty of clerk on change of venue.—When an order for a change of venue has been granted by the court, the clerk shall immediately make out a correct transcript of all the orders made in said cause, certifying thereto officially under the seal of the court, and transmit the same, with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the court to which the venue has been changed.

Article 1917. [1276] [1276] Continuance not to be granted, except, etc.—No application for a continuance shall be heard before the defendant files his defense, nor shall any continuance be granted except for sufficient cause, supported by affidavit, or by consent of the parties, or by operation of law. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 15. P. D. 1509.]

Art. 1918. [1278] [1278] Application for continuance, requisites of.—On applying for a continuance, if the ground of such application be the want of testimony, the party applying therefor shall make affidavit that such testimony is material, showing the materiality thereof, and that he has used due diligence to procure such testimony, stating such diligence, and the cause of failure, if known; that such testimony can not be procured from any other source; and, if it be for the absence of a witness, he shall state the name and residence of the witness, and what he expects to prove by him; and he shall also state that the continuance is not sought for delay only, but that justice may be done; provided, that, on a first application for continuance, it shall not be necessary to show that the absent testimony can not be procured from any other source. Acts 1873, p. 58. Acts 1848, p. 109. Acts 1897, p. 117.]

Art. 1919. [1279] [1279] Business not disposed of continued by operation of law.—If from any cause the court shall not be held at the time prescribed by law, or if the business before the court be not determined before the adjournment thereof, such business, of whatsoever nature, remaining undetermined, shall stand continued until the next succeeding term of the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 95. P. D. 1462.]

Article 1920. District judges may appoint official reporters, when.—For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury and parties, the judges of the district courts in all judicial districts of this state composed of only one county, or of only a portion of one county, and of all other district courts sitting in the same counties therewith, may appoint official shorthand reporters for such courts, who shall be well skilled in their profession, who shall be sworn officers of the courts, and shall hold their office during the pleasure of the court. In all other judicial districts, the district judges thereof may appoint official shorthand reporters, if in their judgment such appointment is necessary, and in the event of such appointment the terms of this chapter shall apply. [Acts 1907, S. S. p. 509. Acts 1905, p. 219. Acts 1903, p. 94. Acts 1909, S. S. p. 374, sec. 1.]

Art. 1921. Examination and certificate of reporters.—Before any person is appointed an official shorthand reporter, under the provisions of this chapter, he shall be examined as to his competency by a committee to be composed of at least three members of the bar practicing in said court, such committee to be appointed by the judge thereof. The test of competency of any applicant for the position of official shorthand reporter shall be as follows: The applicant shall write in the presence of such committee at the rate of at least one hundred and thirty words per minute for five consecutive minutes, from questions and answers not previously written by him; and, in computing the number of words written, the words "questions" and "answers" appearing in the official shorthand reporter's transcript shall not be counted, and shall transcribe the same with accuracy. If the applicant passes this test satisfactorily, a majority of the committee shall furnish him with a certificate of that fact, which shall be filed among the records of the court, and shall be recorded by the clerk of the court in the minutes thereof. Upon the occasion of subsequent appointments, the presentation of a certified transcript from the clerk of the court of the certificate above mentioned, shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the applicant's competency; provided, however, that if the applicant shall have been an official stenographer of any district court of this state for not less than two years prior to the filing of his application for said appointment, then such examination by said committee, as herein provided, shall not be necessary. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 1922. Oath of reporters.—Before any person shall assume the duties of official shorthand reporter, under the provisions of this chapter, he shall, in addition to the oath required of officers by the constitution, subscribe to an oath to be administered to him by the clerk of any district court, to the effect that he will well and truly, and in an impartial manner, keep a correct record of all evidence offered in any case which may be reported by him, together with the objections and exceptions thereto which may be interposed by the parties to such suit, and the rulings and remarks of the court in passing on the admissibility of such testimony. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 1923. Duties of reporter.—It shall be the duty of the official shorthand reporter to attend all sessions of the court, to take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in every case tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of testimony, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions to such rulings. If, during the trial of any cause, either party thereto, or his attorney, shall desire to have the evidence already adduced upon the trial, or any part thereof, read over to him, he shall request such official shorthand reporter to read the same from his notes; and it shall be the duty of such reporter to comply with such request, and, in case he shall fail or refuse so to do, he shall be removed from his official position as court reporter, in case it shall be found by a committee of three disinterested practicing attorneys of the county wherein such failure or refusal occurred, to be appointed by the court, that such failure or refusal was intentional and without justification. It shall also be the duty of such official shorthand reporter to preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court, for future use or reference, for at least one year, and to furnish to any person a transcript in question-and-answer form of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof, upon the payment to him of the compensation hereinafter provided. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 1924. Same subject.—In case an appeal is taken from the judgment rendered in any case, the official shorthand reporter shall transcribe the testimony and other proceedings recorded by him in said case, in the form of questions and answers, provided the same is requested by either party to the suit, certifying that such transcript is true and correct, and shall file the same in the office of the clerk of the court within such reasonable time as may be fixed by written order of the court. Said transcript shall be made in duplicate, to be paid for by the party ordering the same on delivery, and the amount so paid shall be taxed as costs. [Id. sec. 5.]

[Note.—For duties of reporter as to preparation of statements of facts, see articles 2071-2 and 2077 of chapter 19 of this title.]

[Note.—Secs. 6 and 7, parts of sec. 8, a part of sec. 13, and all of sec. 14, that is proper to be retained, of the Act 1909, S. S., p. 374, have been transferred to chapter 19, "Bills of Exceptions and Statements of Facts." See arts. 2070, 2071, 2077 and 2072.]

Art. 1925. Compensation of reporter; further duties; compensation how paid, etc.; extra compensation; how paid, etc.—The official shorthand reporter shall receive a per diem compensation of five dollars for each and every day he shall be in the actual discharge of his duties in reporting cases in the court for which he is appointed, or in performing service under the actual directions of the judge of such court, upon work by such judge deemed necessary. Such compensation shall be paid monthly by the commissioners' court of the county in which said court sits, out of the general fund of the county, upon the certificate of the district judge. He shall also receive from persons ordering transcripts of his notes the sum of ten cents per folio of one hundred words; provided, further however, that if, in any district, the said official shorthand reporter shall, in the judgment of the court, have rendered more service to the court in the discharge of his duties than the terms of this bill shall provide for, then and in that event the district judge shall certify to the commissioners' court of each county in his district, at the end of every six months, that, in his judgment, the compensation is not commensurate with the services performed; and the certificate of said judge shall state the amount that, in his judgment, the said official shorthand reporter should receive from each of the counties in the district, and same shall be a claim against the county, to be allowed or rejected by the commissioners' court as other claims against the counties. But this article shall be subject to the provisions of articles 1933 and 2071. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 1926. Reporters to make transcript for any person; compensation.—At the request of any person, it shall be the duty of the official shorthand reporter to make a transcript in typewriting of all the evidence and other proceedings, or any portion thereof, either in question-and-answer form or in narrative form, in any case; which transcript shall be paid for at the rate of ten cents per folio of one hundred words by and be the property of the person ordering the same. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 1927. Stenographer's fee to be taxed as costs, when; payable into general fund of county, except, etc.—Hereafter the clerks of all courts having official shorthand reporters, as provided for in this chapter, shall tax as costs in each civil case, now or hereafter pending in such courts, except suits for the collection of delinquent taxes, and except suits which are not contested, a stenographer's fee of three dollars, which shall be paid as other costs in the case, and which shall be paid by said clerk, when collected, into the general fund of the county in which said court sits, except cases in which the district court has not original jurisdiction. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 1928. Deputy reporter; appointment; oath; examination.—The official shorthand reporter may, with the consent of the court, appoint one or more deputies when necessary to assist him in the discharge of his duties; provided, however, that, before any such deputy shall enter upon the discharge of his duties as official shorthand reporter, he shall subscribe to the same oath hereinbefore provided for the official shorthand reporter, and shall also be required to stand such examination as to his proficiency as may be required by the court. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 1929. Annual statement of reporter.—It shall be the duty of each official shorthand reporter to file with the district clerk of each county of his district, annually, upon the first Monday in January, an itemized statement, verified by affidavit, showing all sums collected by him as per diem or other compensation during the preceding year, giving the name of the person paying each sum and the date of payment of same. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 1930. [1295] [1295] Special stenographer appointed, when.—Where there shall be no official stenographer, the court may, and upon application of either party shall, employ a competent stenographer or other person to take down the testimony in a cause, for the purpose of preserving a statement of the evidence given on the trial.

Art. 1931. [1296] [1296] Compensation of special stenographer.—In such case, reasonable compensation, not to exceed twenty cents per hundred words, shall be allowed such stenographer, to be fixed by the court and taxed in the bill of costs.

Art. 1932. Stenographer for county court, etc., in civil causes, appointed when; oath; compensation.—Whenever either party to a civil cause pending in the county court, or county court at law, shall apply therefor, the judge of the court shall appoint a competent stenographer to report the oral testimony given in such cause. Such stenographer shall take the oath herein prescribed, and shall receive such compensation as the court may fix, to be not less than five dollars per day, which shall be taxed and collected as costs. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 378, sec. 13.]

Art. 1933. In felony cases reporter to keep stenographic record, to be made when and how; transcript for appointed attorney, when, and compensation for same.—In the trial of all criminal cases in the district court, in which the defendant is charged with a felony, the official shorthand reporter shall keep an accurate stenographic record of all the proceedings of such trial in like manner as is provided for in civil cases; and, should an appeal be prosecutted from any judgment of conviction, whenever the state and the defendant can not agree as to the testimony of any witness, then and in such event, a transcript of so much of the official shorthand reporter's report, with reference to such disputed fact or facts as is necessary to show what such witness testified to in regard to the same, shall be inserted in the statement of facts, and constitute a part of the statement of facts, and the same rule shall apply to the preparation of bills of exceptions; provided, that such stenographer's report, when carried into the statement of facts or bill of exceptions, shall be condensed so as not to contain the questions and answers, except where, in the opinion of the judge, such questions and answers may be necessary in order to elucidate the fact or question involved; provided, further, that in all cases where the court is required to and does appoint an attorney to represent the defendant in a criminal action, the official shorthand reporter shall be required to furnish the attorney for the said defendant, if convicted, and where an appeal is prosecuted, with a transcript of his notes, for which said service he shall be paid, by the state of Texas, upon the certificate of the district judge, one-half of the rate provided for herein in civil cases. [Id. sec. 15.]

[Note.—See art. 2071, as to statement of facts prepared by stenographer.]

Article 1934. [1280] [1280] Appearance day.—The second day of each term of the district or county court is termed appearance day. [Acts of 1891, p. 94.]

Art. 1935. [1281] [1281] Call of the appearance docket.—It shall be the duty of the court on appearance day of each term, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, to call, in their order, all the cases on the docket which are returnable to such term.

Art. 1936. [1282] [1282] Judgment by default.—Upon the call of the appearance docket, or at any time after appearance day, the plaintiff may take judgment by default against any defendant who has been duly served with process and who has not previously filed an answer. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 12. P. D. 1508.]

Art. 1937. [1283] [1283] Where some defendants answer and others do not.—Where there are several defendants, some of whom have answered and others have made default, an interlocutory judgment by default may be entered against those who have not answered, and the cause may proceed against the others; but only one final judgment shall be given in the suit. [Id. sec. 47. P. D. 1450.]

Art. 1938. [1284] [1284] Damages on liquidated demands, how assessed.—Where a judgment by default is rendered against the defendant, or all of several defendants, if the cause of action is liquidated and proved by an instrument in writing, the damages shall be assessed by the court, or under its direction, and judgment final shall be rendered therefor, unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury. [Id.]

Art. 1939. [1285] [1285] On unliquidated demands, etc.—If in such case the cause of action is unliquidated or be not proved by an instrument in writing, the court shall hear evidence as to the damages and shall render judgment therefor, unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury. [Id.]

Art. 1940. [1286] [1286] Jury to assess damages, when.—If the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury, the judgment by default shall be noted and a writ of inquiry awarded, and the cause shall be entered on the jury docket. [Id.]

Art. 1941. [1346] [1212,1345] Procedure in case of service by publication where no answer, etc.—Where service of process has been made by publication, and no answer has been filed nor appearance entered within the time prescribed by law, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend the suit in behalf of the defendant, and judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; but, in every such case, a statement of the evidence, approved and signed by the judge, shall be filed with the papers of the cause as part of the record thereof. The court shall allow such attorney a reasonable compensation for his services, to be taxed as part of the costs of the suit. [Acts 1846, p. 363, sec. 128. Acts 1866, p. 125, sec. 1. P. D. 1488, 26.]

[Note.—For general provisions as to suits against non-residents, see chapter 23 of this title, and especially article 2175.]

Art. 1942. [1211] [1211] Guardian ad litem for minors, lunatics, etc.—In all cases when a minor, lunatic, idiot or a non compos mentis may be a defendant to a suit, and it shall be shown to the court that such minor, lunatic, idiot or person non compos mentis has no guardian within the state, it shall be the duty of the court to appoint a guardian ad litem for such minor, lunatic, idiot or person non compos mentis for the purpose of defending such suit, and to allow him a reasonable compensation for his services, to be taxed as a part of the costs of suit. [Acts 1846, p. 374. Acts 1895, p. 80. P. D. 1446.]

Art. 1943. [1287] [1287] Suits called in their order, etc.—All suits in which final judgments shall not have been rendered by default, as hereinbefore provided, shall be called for trial in the order in which they stand on the docket to which they belong, unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 93. P. D. 1461.]

Art. 1944. [1288] [1288] To be tried when called, unless, etc.—Every suit shall be tried when it is called, unless it be continued or postponed to a future day of the term, or be placed at the end of the docket to be called again for trial in its regular order. [Id.]

Art. 1945. [1289] [1289] Day set for jury docket.—The court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate a day of the term for taking up for trial the causes on the jury civil docket at all subsequent terms, until changed by a like order; but, in case of change, it shall not take effect until the succeeding term of said court. In all cases in which juries have been demanded by either party, all questions of law, demurrers, exceptions to pleadings, etc., shall, as far as practicable, be heard and determined by the court before the day designated for the trial of said jury causes, and all jurors shall be summoned to appear on the day of the term so designated. [Acts of 1881, p. 5.]

Art. 1946. [1290] [1290] Call of non-jury docket.—The docket of cases in which jury trials have not been granted shall be taken up at such times and in such manner as not unnecessarily to interfere with the dispatch of business on the jury docket.

Art. 1947. [1291] [1291] Issues of law and dilatory pleas, when tried.—When a case is called for trial, the issues of law arising on the pleadings, and all pleas in abatement, and other dilatory pleas remaining undisposed of, shall be determined; and it shall be no cause for the postponement of a trial of the issues of law that a party is not prepared to try the issues of fact. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 33. P. D. 3.]

Art. 1948. [1292] [1292] Trial by the court.—The rules hereinafter prescribed for the trial of causes before the jury shall govern in trials by the court so far as may be applicable.

Art. 1949. [1293] [1293] Agreed case.—The parties may in any case submit the matter in controversy between them to the court upon an agreed statement of facts made out and signed by them or their counsel, and filed with the clerk, upon which judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; and, in such case, the statement so agreed to and signed and certified by the court to be correct, and the judgment rendered thereon, shall constitute the record of the cause. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 110, sec. 12. P. D. 1516.]

Art 1950. [1294] [1294] Cases brought up from inferior courts, tried de novo.—In all cases brought up from inferior courts, whether by appeal or certiorari, the case shall be tried de novo. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, secs. 59, 60. P. D. 1459, 1460.]

Art. 1951. [1297] [1297] Order of proceedings on trial by jury.—In suits tried by a jury the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the court should, for good cause, to be stated in the record, otherwise direct:

1. The plaintiff or his counsel shall read his petition to the jury.
2. The defendant or his counsel shall read his answer.
3. If there be any intervenor, he or his counsel shall read his pleadings.
4. The party, plaintiff or defendant, upon whom rests the burden of proof on the whole case under the pleadings, shall then be permitted to state to the jury briefly the nature of his claim or defense and facts relied on in support thereof.
5. Such party shall then introduce his evidence.
6. The adverse party shall then be permitted to state briefly the nature of his defense or claim and the facts relied on in support thereof.
7. He shall then introduce his evidence.
8. The intervenor, if any, shall, in like manner, be permitted to make his statement, and shall then introduce his evidence.
9. The parties shall then be confined to rebutting testimony on each side.

Art. 1952. [1298] [1298] Additional testimony allowed, when.—The court may at its discretion, at any time before the conclusion of the argument, where it appears to be necessary to the due administration of justice, allow a party to supply an omission in testimony, on such terms and under such limitations as the court may prescribe.

Art. 1953. [1299] [1299] Order of argument.—After the evidence is concluded, the parties may submit the case to the jury in argument; the party having under the pleadings the burden of proof on the whole case shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument; where there are several other parties having separate claims or defenses, and represented by different counsel, the court shall prescribe the order of argument between them.

Art. 1954. [1300] [1300] Charge and instructions.—After the conclusion of the argument, the court shall read to the jury the charges and instructions, if any, under the provisions of this title relating thereto. [Act Feb. 6, 1953, p. 19, sec. 99. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1955. [1301] [1301] Nonsuit may be taken, when.—At any time before the jury have retired, the plaintiff may take a nonsuit, but he shall not thereby prejudice the right of an adverse party to be heard on his claim for affirmative relief; when the case is tried by the judge such nonsuit may be taken at any time before the decision is announced. [Id. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1956. [1302] [1302] Foreman of jury.—The court may appoint one of the jury to be the foreman thereof; and, in case no foreman is appointed by the court, the jury may elect a foreman from their number, who shall preside at their deliberations and see that the same are conducted with regularity and in order.

Art. 1957. [1303] [1303] Jury may take papers with them, except, etc.—The jury may take with them in their retirement the charges and instructions in the cause, the pleadings and any written evidence, except the depositions of witnesses. But, when part only of a paper has been read in evidence, the jury shall not take the same with them, unless the part so read to them is detached from that which was excluded. [Id. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1958. [1304] [1304] Jury to be kept together.—The jury may either decide the case in court or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they shall be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict, or are discharged by the court; but the court may, in its discretion, permit them to separate temporarily for the night and at their meals, and for other proper causes.

Art. 1959. [1305] [1305] Duty of officer in charge of jury.—The officer having the jury under his charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, except to ask them if they have agreed upon a verdict, unless by order of the court; and he shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

Art. 1960. [1306] [1306] Caution to the jury.—If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by, any other person, on any subject connected with the trial.

Art. 1961. [1307] [1307] Jury may communicate with the court.—When the jury wish to communicate with the court, they shall make their wish known to the officer having them in charge, who shall inform the court thereof, and they may be brought into open court, and through their foreman shall state to the court, either verbally or in writing, what they desire to communicate.

Art. 1962. [1308] [1308] May ask further instruction.—The jury may, after having retired, ask further instruction of the court touching any matter of law. For this purpose, they shall appear before the judge in open court in a body and, through their foreman, state to the court, either verbally or in writing, the particular question of law upon which they desire further instruction, and the court shall give such instruction in writing; but no instruction shall be given except upon the particular question on which it is asked [Id. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1963. [1309] [1309] May have witness recalled.—If the jury disagree as to the statement of any particular witness, they may, upon applying to the court, have such witness again brought upon the stand; and he shall be directed by the judge to detail his testimony to the particular point of disagreement, and no other, and as nearly as he can in the language used upon his examination.

Art. 1964. [1310] [1310] May have deposition, etc., re-read.—If the jury disagree as to any portion of a deposition or other paper not carried with them in their retirement, the court may, in like manner, permit such portion of the deposition or paper to be again read to the jury.

Art. 1965. [1311] [1311] Disagreement of jury.—The jury may, after the cause is submitted to them, be discharged by the court when they can not agree and both parties consent to their discharge, or when they have been kept together for such time as to render it altogether improbable that they can agree.

Art. 1966. [1312] [1312] May be discharged by the court.—They may also be discharged by the court when any calamity or accident may, in the opinion of the court, require it; and they shall be so discharged when, by sickness or other cause, their number is reduced below the number constituting a jury in such court. [Const., art. 5, sec. 13.]

Art. 1967. [1313] [1313] Final adjournment of court discharges.—The final adjournment of the court before the jury have agreed upon a verdict discharges them.

Art. 1968. [1314] [1314] Case to be tried again.—Where a jury has been discharged as herein provided, without having rendered a verdict, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term.

Art. 1969. [1315] [1315] Court may proceed with other business.—The court may, during the retirement of the jury, proceed to any other business and adjourn from time to time, but shall be deemed open for all purposes connected with the case before the jury.

--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 1970. [1316] [1316] Court shall charge jury unless waived, etc.—After the argument of a cause, the judge shall, in open court, unless the same be expressly waived by the parties to the suit, prepare and deliver a written charge to the jury on the law of the case, subject to the restrictions hereinafter provided. [Acts 1853, p. 19. Acts 1903, p. 55. R. S. 1879, 1316. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1971. [1317] [1317] Requisites of the charge.—The charge shall be in writing and signed by the judge, and he shall read it to the jury in the precise words in which it is written; he shall not charge or comment on the weight of evidence; he shall so frame the charge as to distinctly separate the questions of law from the questions of fact; he shall decide on, and instruct the jury as to the law arising on the facts, and shall submit all controverted questions of fact solely to the decision of the jury. [Id.]

Art. 1972. [1318] [1318] Charge need not be excepted to.—Such charge shall be filed by the clerk and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and shall be regarded as excepted to, and subject to revision for errors therein, without the necessity of taking any bill of exception thereto.

Art. 1973. [1319] [1319] Parties may ask instructions.—Either party may present to the judge, in writing, such instructions as he desires to be given to the jury; and the judge may give such instructions, or a part thereof, or he may refuse to give them, as he may see proper, and he shall read to the jury such of them as he may give. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 100. P. D. 216.]

Art. 1974. [1320] [1320] Instructions refused constitute part of bill of exceptions.—When the instructions asked, or some of them, are refused, the judge shall note distinctly which of them he gives and which he refuses, and shall subscribe his name thereto; and such instructions shall be filed with the clerk, and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, subject to revision for error without the necessity of taking any bill of exception thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1975. [1321] [1321] Jury may carry charge, etc., with them.—The charge and instructions given to the jury may be carried with them by the jury in their retirement, and an additional charge or instructions may be given them upon any question of law arising in the case, in conformity with the preceding rules, upon the application of the jury therefor in open court. [Act Feb. 5, 1853, p. 19, sec 99. P. D. 1464.]

Article 1976. [1322] [1322] Rendition of verdict.—When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge, and their names shall be called by the clerk, and they shall deliver their verdict to the clerk.

Art. 1977. [1323] [1323] Must be in writing and signed.—The verdict shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the foreman; and where, pending a trial in the district court, any juror may die or be disabled from sitting and the verdict is rendered by the remaining jurors, the verdict shall be signed by all of such remaining jurors. [Act Aug. 1, 1876. P. D. 1464.]

Art. 1978. [1324] [1324] Verdict received and noted on docket.—The clerk shall read the verdict aloud, and shall inquire of the jury if such is their verdict; if any juror disagrees to the verdict, the jury shall be sent out again, but if no disagreement is expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the court shall, except in the cases hereinafter provided for, receive the verdict and enter a minute thereof on the docket, and the jury shall be discharged.

Art. 1979. [1325] [1325] Jury may be polled.—When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the clerk or judge asking each juror separately if such is his verdict; if any jury answers in the negative, the jury shall again be sent out for further deliberation; but if each juror concurs in the verdict the same shall be received and noted in the docket, except in the cases provided for in the two succeeding articles, and the jury shall be discharged.

Art. 1980. [1326] [1326] Defective or mistaken verdict.—If the verdict is informal or defective, the court may direct it to be reformed at the bar; and, where there has been a manifest miscalculation of interest, the court may direct a computation thereof at the bar; and the verdict may, if the jury assents thereto, be reformed in accordance with such computation.

Art. 1981 [1327]. [1327] Not responsive to the issues.—If the verdict is not responsive to the issue submitted to the jury, the court shall call their attention thereto, and send them back for further deliberation.

Art. 1982. [1328] [1328] Verdicts either general or special.—The verdict of a jury is either a general or a special verdict.

Art. 1983. [1329] [1329] General verdict.—A general verdict is one whereby the jury pronounce generally in favor of one or more parties to the suit upon all or any of the issues submitted to them.

Art. 1984. [1330] [1330] Special verdict defined.—A special verdict is one wherein the jury find the facts only on issues made up and submitted to them under the direction of the court. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 108. P. D. 1469.]

Art. 1985. [1331] [1331] Special verdict, requisites of; failure to submit issue not reversible error unless request, etc.—The special verdict must find the facts established by the evidence, and not the evidence by which they are established; and it shall be the duty of the court, when it submits a case to the jury upon special issues, to submit all the issues made by the pleading. But the failure to submit any issue shall not be deemed a ground for reversal of the judgment, upon appeal or a writ of error, unless its submission has been requested in writing by the party complaining of the judgment. Upon appeal or writ of error, an issue not submitted and not requested by a party to the cause, shall be deemed as found by the court in such manner as to support the judgment; provided, there be evidence to sustain such a finding. [Acts 1897, S. S. p. 15.]

Art. 1986. [1332] [1332] Special verdict conclusive.—A special verdict found under the provisions of the two preceding articles shall, as between the parties, be conclusive as to the facts found. [P. D. 1469.]

Art. 1987. [1333] [1333] Jury to render general or special verdict as directed.—The jury shall render a general or special verdict as may be directed by the court. [Acts 1879, p. 119. Acts 1899, p. 190.]

Art. 1988. [1333] [1333] Verdict to comprehend whole issue or all the issues submitted.—The verdict shall comprehend the whole issue or all the issues submitted to the jury. [Id.]

Art. 1989. [1333] [1333] Judge, on request, to state conclusions of fact and law separately, statement to be filed.—Upon a trial by the court, the judge shall, at the request of either of the parties, state in writing the conclusion of fact found by him, separately from the conclusions of law; which conclusions of fact and law shall be filed with the clerk and shall constitute a part of the record. [Id.]

Art. 1990. [1333] [1333] Court to render judgment on special verdict or conclusions, unless set aside, etc.—In all cases where a special verdict of the jury is rendered, or the conclusions of fact found by the judge are separately stated, the court shall, unless the same be set aside and a new trial granted, render judgment thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1991. [1333] [1333] Exceptions to conclusions or judgment noted in judgment; appeal, etc.; transcript.—It shall be sufficient for the party, excepting to the conclusions of law or judgment of the court, to cause it to be noted on the record in the judgment entry that he excepts thereto; and such party may thereupon take his appeal or writ of error without a statement of facts or further exceptions in the transcript; but the transcript shall in such cases contain the special verdict or conclusions of fact and law aforesaid, and the judgment rendered thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1992. [1333] [1333] No submission of special issues unless requested.—A case shall not be submitted to a jury on special issues by the court, unless one or all parties to the suit request such submission. [Id.]

[Note.—See recital in Acts 1899, pp. 190-191, sec. 2, as to original article 1333.]

Art. 1993. [1334] [1334] Verdict not void for want of form.—No special form of verdict is required; and where there has been a substantial compliance with the requirements of the law in rendering a verdict, the judgment shall not be arrested or reversed for mere want of form therein. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 104. P. D. 1465.]

Article 1994. [1335] [1335] Judgments how framed.—The judgment of the court shall conform to the pleadings, the nature of the case proved and the verdict, if any, and shall be so framed as to give the party all the relief to which he may be entitled either in law or equity. [Acts May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 115; May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 7. P. D. 1476, 1410.]

Art. 1995. [1336] [1336] For or against one or more plaintiffs, etc.—Judgment may, in a proper case, be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs, and against or for one or more of several defendants or intervenors.

Art. 1996. [1453] [1449] Several counts, some good and others bad.—Where there are several counts in the petition, and entire damages are given, the verdict or judgment, as the case may be, shall be good, notwithstanding one or more of such counts may be defensive. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 105. P. D. 1460.]

Art. 1997. [1337] [1337] But one final judgment.—Only one final judgment shall be rendered in any cause, except where it is otherwise specially provided by law.

Art. 1998. [1338] [1338] Judgment may pass title, etc.—Where the judgment is for the conveyance of real estate, or for the delivery of personal property, the decree may pass the title to such property without any act to be done on the part of the party against whom the judgment is rendered. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 120. P. D. 1481.]

Art. 1999. [1339] [1339] Court shall enforce its own decrees, and may in certain cases do so by contempt process.—The court shall cause its judgments and decrees to be carried into execution; and, where the judgment is for personal property, and it is shown by the pleadings and evidence and the verdict, if any, that such property has an especial value to the plaintiff, the court may award a special writ for the seizure and delivery of such property to the plaintiff; and the court may, in addition to the other relief granted in such case, enforce its judgment by attachment, fine and imprisonment. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 17. P. D. 1420.]

Art. 2000. [1340] [1340] Judgment of foreclosure of liens.—Judgments for the foreclosure of mortgages and other liens shall be that the plaintiff recover his debt, damages and costs, with a foreclosure of the plaintiff's lien on the property subject thereto, and, except in judgments against executors, administrators and guardians, that an order of sale shall issue to the sheriff or any constable of the county where such property may be, directing him to seize and sell the same as under execution, in satisfaction of the judgment; and, if the property can not be found, or if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, then to make the money, or any balance thereof remaining unpaid, out of any other property of the defendant, as in case of ordinary executions. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 303, sec. 119. P. D. 1480.]

Art. 2001. [1341] [1340a] Writ of possession awarded.—When any order foreclosing a lien upon real estate is made in a suit having for its object the foreclosure of such lien, in any court having jurisdiction, such order shall have all the force and effect of a writ of possession, as between the parties to such suit of foreclosure and any person claiming under the defendant to such suit by any right acquired pending such suit; and the court shall so direct in the judgment providing for the issuance of such order; and the sheriff or other officer executing such order of sale shall proceed by virtue of said order to place the purchaser of the property sold under the same in possession thereof within thirty days after the day of sale. [Acts of 1885, p. 10.]

Art. 2002. [1342] [1341] Judgment on appeal, etc., from county court.—Judgments on appeal or certiorari from any county court sitting in probate shall be certified to such county court for observance. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 60. P. D. 1460.]

Art. 2003. [1343] [1342] On appeal, etc., from justices' court.—Judgments on appeal or certiorari from any justice's court shall be enforced by the county court.

Art. 2004. [1344] [1343] Judgments against executors, etc.—Where a recovery of money is had against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, the judgment shall state that it is to be paid in the due course of administration, and no execution shall issue on such judgment, but the same shall be certified to the county court, sitting in matters of probate, to be there enforced in accordance with law. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 118. P. D. 1479.]

Art. 2005. [1345] [1344] Against executors acting independently of probate court.—The preceding article shall not apply to judgments against an executor who has been appointed and is acting under a will dispensing with the action of the county court in reference to such estate; but such judgment shall be enforced against the property of the testator in the hands of such executor, by execution, as in other cases.

Art. 2006. [1347] [1346] Against partners when all not sued.—Where the suit is against several partners jointly indebted upon contract, and the citation has been served upon some of such partners, but not upon all, judgment may be rendered therein against such partnership and against the partners actually served, but no personal judgment or execution shall be awarded against those not served. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 110, sec. 2. P. D. 1514.]

Art. 2007. [1348] [1347] Confession of judgment.—Any person indebted, or against whom a cause of action exists, may, without process, appear in person or by attorney, and confess judgment therefor in open court; but in such case a petition should be filed and the justness of the debt or cause of action be sworn to by the person in whose favor the judgment is confessed. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 116. P. D. 1477.]

Art. 2008. [1349] [1347a] The acceptance of service and waiver of process.—The acceptance of service and waiver of process, provided for in article 1880, and the entry of appearance in open court as provided for in article 1881, or the confession of judgment as provided for in article 2007, shall not in any action be authorized by the contract or instrument of writing sued on, or any other instrument executed prior to the institution of such suit, nor shall such acceptance or waiver of service be made until after suit brought. [Acts of 1885, p. 33.]

Art. 2009. [1350] [1348] Confession of, by attorney.—When the judgment is confessed by attorney, the power of attorney shall be filed, and a recital of the contents of the same be made in the judgment. [Id.]

Art. 2010. [1351] [1349] Releases errors, but may be impeached, etc.—Every judgment by confession duly made shall operate as a release of all errors in the record thereof, but such judgment may be impeached for fraud or other equitable cause. [Id. sec. 117. P. D. 1478.]

Art. 2011. [1352] [1350] Other judgments, when authorized by law.—The court may render such other judgment and in such form as may be authorized by law.

Article 2012. [1353] [1351] Remitter of excess in verdict.—Any party in whose favor a verdict has been rendered may in open court remit any part of such verdict; and such remitter shall be noted on the docket and entered in the minutes, and execution shall thereafter issue for the balance only of such judgment, after deducting the amount remitted. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 133. P. D. 52.]

Art. 2013. [1354] [1352] Remitter of excess in judgment in open court.—Any person in whose favor a judgment has been rendered may in open court remit any part of such judgment; and such remitter shall be noted on the docket and entered in the minutes, and execution shall thereafter issue for the balance only of such judgment, after deducting the amount remitted. [Id.]

Art. 2014. [1355] [1353] Remitter in vacation.—Any party may make such remitter in vacation by executing and filing with the clerk a release in writing, signed by him or by his attorney of record, and attested by the clerk with the seal of his office. Such release shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and any execution thereafter issued shall be for the balance only of the judgment, after deducting the amount remitted. [Id.]

Art. 2015. [1356] [1354] Mistakes in judgments corrected in open court.—Where there shall be a mistake in the record of any judgment or decree, the judge may, in open court, and after notice of the application therefor has been given to the parties interested in such judgment or decree, amend the same according to the truth and justice of the case, and thereafter the execution shall conform to the judgment as amended. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 13. P. D. 49.]

Art. 2016. [1357] [1355] Misrecitals, etc., corrected in vacation or term time, in certain cases.—Where, in the record of any judgment or decree of any court, there shall be any mistake, miscalculation or misrecital of any sum or sums of money, or of any name or names, and there shall be among the records of the cause any verdict or instrument of writing whereby such judgment or decree may be safely amended, it shall be the duty of the court in which such judgment or decree shall be rendered, and the judge thereof, in vacation, on application of either party, to amend such judgment or decree thereby, according to the truth and justice of the case; but the opposite party shall have reasonable notice of the application for such amendment. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 132. P. D. 51. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 2017. [1358] [1356] Correction, made in vacation to be certified to clerk, etc.—The judge making such correction in vacation shall embody the same in a judgment, and shall certify thereto and deliver the same to the clerk, who shall enter the same in the minutes. Such judgment shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and any execution thereafter issued shall conform to the judgment as corrected.

Art. 2018. [1359] [1357] Correction or remitter operates to cure error.—A remitter or correction made as provided in any of the six preceding articles shall, from the making thereof, cure any error in the verdict or judgment by reason of such excess. [Id. sec. 133. P. D. 52.]

Article 2019. [1370] [1368] New trials, etc., may be granted.—New trials may be granted and judgments may be set aside or arrested on motion for good cause, on such terms and conditions as the court shall direct. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 109. P. D. 1470.]

Art. 2020. [1371] [1369] Motion for new trial, etc., requisites of.—Every such motion shall be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney, and shall specify the ground upon which it is founded, and may be amended under leave of the court, and no grounds other than those specified shall be heard or considered. [Acts 1846, p. 363. Acts 1905, p. 21.]

Art. 2021. [1371] [1369] Misconduct of jury, etc., as ground of motion; evidence.—Where the ground of the motion is misconduct of the jury or of the officer in charge of same, or because of any communication made to the jury, or because the jury received other testimony, the court shall hear evidence thereof; and it shall be competent to prove such facts by the jurors or others, by examination in open court; and, if the misconduct proven, or the testimony received, or the communication made, be material, a new trial may, in the discretion of the court, be granted. [Id.]

Art. 2022. [1452] [1448] New trials granted where damages too small, etc.—New trials may be granted as well when the damages are manifestly too small as when they are too large. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 111. P. D. 1472.]

Art. 2023. [1373] [1371] Time of making motion.—All motions for new trials, in arrest of judgment, or to set aside a judgment, shall be made within two days after the rendition of verdict, if the term of court shall continue so long; if not, then before the end of the term. [Id. sec. 112. P. D. 1473.]

Art. 2024. [1372] [1370] Not more than two new trials, except, etc.—Not more than two new trials shall be granted to either party in the same cause, except when the jury have been guilty of some misconduct or have erred in matter of law. [Id. P. D. 1470.]

Art. 2025. [1374] [1372] Determined when.—All motions for new trials, in arrest of judgment, or to set aside a judgment, shall be determined at the term of the court at which such motion shall be made. [Id.]

Art. 2026. [1375] [1373] Bill of review in suits by publication.—In cases in which judgment has been rendered on service of process by publication, where the defendant has not appeared in person or by an attorney of his own selection, a new trial may be granted by the court upon the application of the defendant for good cause shown, supported by affidavit, filed within two years after the rendition of such judgment. [Id. sec. 129. P. D. 1489.]

Art. 2027. [1376] [1374] Petitions, etc., necessary in such cases.—In the cases mentioned in the preceding article, a petition shall be filed and service of process made upon the parties adversely interested in the judgment, as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 2028. [1377] [1375] Execution, etc., not suspended, unless, etc.—In the cases mentioned in the two preceding articles, process on such judgment shall not be suspended, unless the defendant or party applying therefor shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, in double the amount of the judgment, or value of the property adjudged, payable to the plaintiff in the judgment, conditioned that the party will prosecute his petition for new trial to effect, and will perform such judgment as may be rendered by the court, should its decision be against him. [Id.]

Art. 2029. [1378] [1376] Sale under such execution not avoided, but, etc.—Where, in such case as is mentioned in the three preceding articles, property has been sold under the judgment and execution before the process was suspended, the defendant, should he defeat the plaintiff's action, shall not recover the property so sold, but shall have judgment against the plaintiff in the judgment for the proceeds of such sale. [Id.]

Article 2030. [1421] [1420] Each party responsible to officers for his own costs.—Each party to any suit shall be responsible to the officers of the court for the costs incurred by himself; and no sheriff or constable shall be compelled to execute any process in civil cases coming from any county other than the one in which he is an officer, unless the fees allowed him by law for the service of such process shall be paid in advance; provided, that when affidavit is filed, as provided for in article 2052 of this chapter, the clerk issuing the process shall indorse thereon the words, "pauper oath filed," and sign his name officially below them; and the sheriff or constable in whose hands such process is placed for service shall serve the same as in other cases. [Acts of 1887, p. 102.]

Art. 2031. [2491] [2427] Each party liable for costs incurred by him.—Each party to a suit shall be liable for all costs incurred by him; and, in case the costs can not be collected of the party against whom the same have been adjudged, execution may issue against any party in such suit for the amount of costs incurred by such party, but no more.

Art. 2032. [1422] [1420a] Officers may demand payment of costs up to adjournment of each term.—It shall be lawful for the clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace to demand payment of all costs due in each and every case pending in their respective courts, up to the adjournment of each term of said courts. [Acts of 1879, ch. 81, p. 90.]

Art. 2033. [1423] [1420b] May put bill of costs in hands of officer for collection, when. Same to have force of execution. Appeal not to prevent issuance of execution for costs.—Should any party against whom costs have been taxed under the provisions of this chapter fail or refuse to pay the same within ten days after demand for payment, it shall be lawful for the clerk or justice of the peace to make out a certified copy of the bill of costs then due, as herein provided for, and place the same in the hands of the sheriff or constable for collection; and such certified bill of costs shall have the force and effect of an execution. The removal of a case by appeal shall not prevent the district clerk, county clerk or justice of the peace from issuing his execution for costs at the end of the term at which the appeal is taken. [Id. R. S. 1879, 1420b.]

Art. 2034. [1424] [1420c] Officer to levy for costs, when. Costs demanded of attorney when. Fees for collecting costs, when allowed.—It shall be lawful for the sheriff or constable, upon demand and failure to pay said bill of costs, to levy upon a sufficient amount of property of the person from whom said costs may be due to satisfy the same, and sell such property according to the law governing sales under execution; provided, where such party is not a resident of the county where such suit is pending, then payment of such costs may be demanded of his attorney of record; and neither the clerk nor justice of the peace shall be allowed to charge any fee for making out such certified bill of costs, nor shall the sheriff or constable be allowed any fees for collecting said costs, unless he is compelled to make a levy; and, in case of levy or sale, he shall charge and collect the same fees as are allowed for collecting money under other executions. [Id. R. S. 1879, 1420c.]

Art. 2035. [1425] [1421] Successful party to recover of his adversary.—The successful party to a suit shall recover of his adversary all the costs expended or incurred therein, except where it is or may be otherwise provided by law. [Id. sec. 122. P. D. 1483.]

[Note.—See art. 3722.]

Art. 2036. [1426] [1422] Taxes on law proceedings.—All taxes imposed on law proceedings shall be included in the bill of costs. [Id. sec. 124. P. D. 1484.]

Art. 2037. [1427] [1423] Fees of only two witnesses to any fact.—There shall not be allowed in any cause the fees of more than two witnesses to any one fact. [Id. sec. 127. P. D. 1487.]

Art. 2038. [1428] [1424] Costs of motions.—On all motions, the court may give or refuse costs at its discretion, except where it is otherwise provided by law. [Id. sec. 121. P. D. 1482.]

Art. 2039. [1429] [1425] Costs where exception is sustained.—Where a pleading is excepted to, if such exception be sustained, all the costs of such exception and of the pleading adjudged to be insufficient, shall be taxed against the party filing such insufficient pleadings. [Id. secs. 122, 123. P. D. 1483, 12.]

Art. 2040. [1430] [1426] Where exception overruled.—If such exception be overruled, all costs of such exception shall be taxed against the party taking the exception. [Id.]

Art. 2041. [1431] [1427] Costs of several suits, etc.—Where any plaintiff shall bring in the same court several suits against the same defendant for causes of action which should have been joined, he shall recover the costs of one action only; and the costs of the other actions shall be adjudged against him, unless sufficient reasons appear to the court for instituting several actions. [Id. sec. 49. P. D. 1452.]

Art. 2042. [1432] [1428] Where demand reduced by payments, etc.—Where the plaintiff's demand is reduced by payment to an amount which would not have been within the jurisdiction of the court, the defendant shall recover his costs. [Act Jan. 2, 1860, p. 5, sec. 1. P. D. 3446.]

Art. 2043. [1433] [1429] Costs in action of assault and battery, etc.—In all civil actions for assault and battery, slander and defamation of character, if the verdict or judgment shall be for the plaintiff, but for a less sum than twenty dollars, the plaintiff shall not recover his costs, but each party shall be taxed with the costs incurred by him in such suit. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 106. P. D. 1467.]

Art. 2044. [1434] [1430] Cost of new trials.—The costs of all new trials may either abide the event of the suit or may be taxed against the party to whom the new trial is granted, as may be adjudged by the court at the time of granting such new trial. [Id. sec. 113. P. D. 1474.]

Art. 2045. [1435] [1431] Where judgment is arrested, etc.—When the judgment is arrested or the verdict set aside because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the party in whose favor the verdict or judgment was rendered, the cost thereof shall be taxed against the party whose pleadings shall have been so adjudged insufficient. [Id. sec. 114. P. D. 1475.]

Art. 2046. [1436] [1432] On appeal and certiorari.—In cases of appeal or certiorari taken by the party against whom the judgment was rendered in the court below, if the judgment of the court above be against him, but for a less amount, such party shall recover the costs of the court above, but shall be adjudged to pay the costs of the court below; if the judgment be against him for the same or a greater amount than in the court below, the adverse party shall recover the costs of both courts. [Act Aug. 13, 1870, p. 87, sec. 12. P. D. 6349.]

Art. 2047. [1437] [1433] Same subject.—In cases of appeal or certiorari taken by the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered in the court below, if the judgment of the court above be in his favor for a greater amount, such party shall recover the costs of both courts; if the judgment be in his favor, but for the same or a less amount than in the court below, he shall recover the costs of the court below and pay the cost of the court above. [Id.]

Art. 2048. [1438] [1434] Court may otherwise adjudge costs.—The court may, for good cause, to be stated on the record, adjudge the costs otherwise than as provided in the preceding articles of this chapter.

Art. 2049. [1439] [1435] Clerk may require security for costs.—The clerk may require from the plaintiff in a suit security for costs before issuing any process therein, but he shall file the petition and enter the same properly on the docket. [Act March 20, 1848, p. 184, sec. 23. P. D. 3833.]

Art. 2050. [1440] [1436] Defendant or any officer may require security.—The plaintiff in any civil suit may, at any time before final judgment, upon motion of the defendant or any officer of the court interested in the costs accruing in such suit, be ruled to give security for the costs; and, if such rule be entered against the plaintiff and he fail to comply therewith on or before the first day of the next term of the court, the suit shall be dismissed. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 1.]

Art. 2051. [1441] [1437] Judgment on cost bond.—All bonds given as security for costs shall authorize judgment against all the obligors in such bond for the said costs, to be entered in the final judgment of the cause. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2052. [1442] [1438] Affidavit of inability to give.—A party who is required to give security for costs may file with the clerk or justice of the peace an affidavit that he is too poor to pay the costs of court and is unable to give security therefor; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk or justice of the peace to issue process and to perform all other services required of him, in the same manner as if the security had been given; provided, any party to the suit, the clerk or justice of the peace, shall have the right to contest by proof the inability of the party to pay the costs or his inability to give security for the same. [Acts 1879, p. 91. Acts 1846, p. 363. Acts 1907, p. 4.]

Contest of affidavit, and trial of same.—Such contest may be tried before the trial of the cause, at such time as may be designated by the court; provided that notice of such contest shall be given by noting it on the docket at the term of the court at which the affidavit of inability to give security is filed. [Id. P. D. 1429.]

Art. 2053. [1442] [1438] Deposit in lieu of cost bond.—In lieu of a bond for costs, the party required to give the same may deposit with the clerk of the court, or with the justice of the peace, such amount of money as the court or justice of the peace from time to time may designate as sufficient to pay the costs that have accrued. [Acts 1907, p. 4.]

Art. 2054. [1443] [1439] No security to be required of executors, etc.—Executors, administrators and guardians appointed by the courts of this state shall not be required to give security for costs in any suit brought by them in their fiduciary character. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 4. P. D. 1503.]

Art. 2055. [1444] [1440] No security required of state.—The state shall not, in any case, be required to give security for costs.

Art. 2056. [1445] [1441] Security may be required of intervenors, etc.—The provisions of this chapter relating to security for costs by the plaintiff shall also apply to an intervenor, and to a defendant who seeks a judgment against the plaintiff on a counter claim after the plaintiff shall have discontinued his suit under the provisions of this title relating to discontinuance.

Art. 2057. [1446] [1442] Costs may be secured by other bonds, etc.—When the costs are secured by the provisions of an attachment or other bond filed by the party required to give security for costs, no further security shall be required.

Article 2058. [1360] [1358] Exception to rulings taken, when.—Whenever, in the progress of a cause, either party is dissatisfied with any ruling, opinion or other action of the court, he may except thereto at the time the same is made or announced, and at his request time shall be given to embody such exception in a written bill. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 101. P. D. 217.]

Art. 2059. [1361] [1359] Requisites of bills of exceptions.—No particular form of words shall be required in a bill of exceptions; but the objection to the ruling or action of the court shall be stated with such circumstances, or so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain it, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

Art. 2060. [1362] [1360] May refer to statement of facts.—Where the statement of facts contains all the evidence requisite to explain the bill of exceptions, it shall not be necessary to set out such evidence in the bill of exceptions; but it shall be sufficient to refer to the same as it appears in the statement of facts.

Art. 2061. [1363] [1361] Charges regarded as excepted to.—The ruling of the court in the giving, refusing or qualifying of instructions to the jury shall be regarded as excepted to in all cases. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 101. P. D. 217.]

Art. 2062. [1364] [1362] No bill of exceptions where ruling appears of record.—Where the ruling or other action of the court appears otherwise of record, no bill of exceptions shall be necessary to reserve an exception thereto.

Art. 2063. [1365] [1363] Bill to be presented to the judge.—It shall be the duty of the party taking any bill of exceptions to reduce the same to writing, and present the same to the judge for his allowance and signature.

Art. 2064. [1366] [1364] Submitted to opposing counsel, etc.—It shall be the duty of the judge to submit such bill of exceptions to the adverse party or his counsel, if in attendance on the court, and if the same is found to be correct, it shall be signed by the judge without delay and filed with the clerk.

Art. 2065. [1367] [1365] If found incorrect.—Should the judge find such bill of exceptions to be incorrect, he shall suggest to the party, or his counsel who drew it, such corrections as he may deem necessary therein; and if they are agreed to, he shall make such corrections and sign the same and file it with the clerk. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 101. P. D. 217.]

Art. 2066. [1368] [1366] On disagreement, judge to make out bill, etc.—Should the party not agree to such corrections, the judge shall return the bill of exceptions to him with his refusal indorsed thereon, and shall make out and sign and file with the clerk such a bill of exceptions as will, in his opinion, present the ruling of the court in that behalf as it actually occurred.

Art. 2067. [1369] [1367] Bystanders bill, how obtained.—Should the party be dissatisfied with the bill of exceptions filed by the judge, as provided in the preceding article, he may, upon procuring the signatures of three respectable bystanders, citizens of this state, attesting the correctness of the bill of exceptions as presented by him, have the same filed as part of the record of the cause; and the truth of the matter in reference thereto may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not exceeding five in number on each side, to be filed with the papers of the cause, within ten days after the filing of such bill of exceptions, and to be considered as a part of the record relating thereto. When the court refuses to sign a correct bill of exceptions, such proceedings may be had in the court of civil appeals, as is prescribed in article 1607. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, secs. 101, 102. Acts of 1892, p. 25.]

Art. 2068. [1379] [1377] Statement of facts, how prepared.—After the trial of any cause, either party may make out a written statement of the facts given in evidence on the trial, and submit the same to the opposite party, or his attorney, for inspection. If the parties, or their attorneys, agree upon such statement of facts, they shall sign the same; and it shall then be submitted to the judge, who shall, if he find it correct, approve and sign it; and the same shall be filed with the clerk. Where it is agreed by the parties to the suit, or their attorneys of record, that the evidence adduced upon the trial of the cause is sufficient to establish a fact or facts alleged by either party, the testimony of the witnesses and the deeds, wills, records, or other written instruments, admitted as evidence relating thereto, shall not be stated or copied in detail into a statement of facts; but the facts thus established shall be stated as facts proved in the case; provided, an instrument, such as a note or other contract, mortgage or deed of trust, that constitutes the cause of action on which the petition, or answer, or cross-bill, or intervention, is founded may be copied once in the statement of facts. When there is any reasonable doubt of the sufficiency of the evidence to constitute proof of any one fact under the preceding rule, there may then be inserted such of the testimony of the witnesses and written instruments, or parts thereof, as relate to such facts. [Acts of 1892, p. 42.]

Art. 2069. [1380] [1378] When the parties disagree.—If the parties do not agree upon such statement of facts, or if the judge do not approve or sign it, the parties may submit their respective statements to the judge, who shall, from his own knowledge, with the aid of such statements, make out and sign and file with the clerk a correct statement of the facts proven on the trial; and such statement shall constitute a part of the record. [Id.]

Art. 2070. Statement of facts prepared from transcript of official shorthand reporter, when and how, etc.; in duplicate; filed; original sent up; reporter to prepare, on request, etc., fees, proviso.—Upon the filing by the official shorthand reporter, of his transcript, as provided in chapter 11 of this title, the party appealing shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a statement of facts in duplicate, which shall consist of the evidence adduced upon the trial, both oral and by deposition, stated in a succinct manner and without unnecessary repetition, together with copies of such documents, sketches, maps and other matters as were used in evidence. It shall not be necessary to copy said statement of facts in the transcript of the clerk on appeal; but the same shall, when agreed to by the parties and approved by the judge, or in the event of a failure of the parties to agree where a statement of facts is prepared and certified by the judge trying the case, be filed in duplicate with the clerk of the court; and the original thereof shall be sent up as a part of the record in the cause on appeal; provided, however, that the official shorthand reporter shall, when requested by the party appealing, prepare, under the direction of the party appealing, a statement of facts in narrative form, in duplicate, and deliver same to the party appealing, for which said statement of facts he shall be paid the sum of ten cents per folio of one hundred words for the original copy; and no charge shall be made for the duplicate copy; provided, further, that such amount shall not be taxed as costs in the case, if a transcript of the testimony in the form of questions and answers has been theretofore filed with the clerk and taxed as costs. [Acts 1907, 1 S. S., p. 509, sec. 5. Acts 1905, p. 219, sec. 5. Acts 1903, p. 84. Acts 1909, S. S., p. 374, sec. 6.]

Art. 2071. Statement of facts by stenographer for party appealing without bond, or for defendant appealing; when; penalties.—In any civil case, where the appellant or plaintiff in error has made the proof required to appeal his case without bond, such appellant or plaintiff in error may make affidavit of such facts; and, upon the making and filing of such affidavit, the court shall order the stenographer to make such statement of facts in duplicate, and deliver the same as herein provided in other cases; but the stenographer shall receive no pay for same; provided, that should any such affidavit so made by such appellant or plaintiff in error be false, he shall be prosecuted and punished as is now provided by law for making false affidavits. And when any criminal case is appealed and the defendant is not able to pay for a statement of facts, or to give security therefor, he may make affidavit of such facts, and upon the making and filing of such affidavit, the court shall order the stenographer to make such statement of facts in duplicate and deliver it as herein provided in civil cases; but the stenographer shall receive no pay for same; provided, further, that should any such affidavit so made by such defendant be false, he shall be prosecuted and punished as is now provided by law for making false affidavits. [Id. sec. 8.]

[Note.—See article 1933, as to transcript in criminal cases.]

Art. 2072. Parties may prepare statement of facts independent of transcript.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent parties from preparing statements of facts on appeal, independent of the transcript of the notes of the official shorthand reporter. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 2073. Time for preparing and filing statements of facts and bills of exceptions; judge may extend, provided, etc.—When an appeal is taken from the judgment rendered in any cause, in any district court or county court, the parties to the suit shall be entitled to, and they are hereby granted, thirty days after the day of adjournment of court, in which to prepare and file a statement of facts and bill of exceptions; and, upon good cause shown, the judge trying the cause may extend the time in which to file a statement of facts and bill of exceptions; provided, that the court trying such cause shall have power in term time or in vacation, upon the application of either party, for good cause, to extend the several times as hereinbefore provided for the preparation and filing of the statement of facts and bill of exceptions; but the same shall not be so extended so as to delay the filing of the statement of facts, together with the transcript of record, in the appellate court within the time prescribed by law; and when the parties fail to agree upon a statement of facts, and that duty devolves upon the court, the court shall have such time in which to do so, after the expiration of the thirty days, as hereinbefore provided as the court may deem necessary; but the court, in such case, shall not postpone the preparation and filing of such statement of facts and bill of exceptions so as to delay the filing of same, together with a transcript of the record in the appellate court within the time prescribed by law; provided, further, that if the term of said court may by law continue more than eight weeks, said statement of facts and bill of exceptions shall be filed within thirty days after final judgment shall be rendered, unless the court shall, by order entered of record in said cause, extend the time for filing such statement and bill of exceptions. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2074. [1382] [1379a] Statement of facts not filed in time, when considered by court.—Whenever a statement of facts shall have been filed after the time prescribed by law, and the party tendering or filing the same shall show to the satisfaction of the courts of civil appeals that he has used due diligence to obtain the approval and signature of the judge thereto, and to file the same within the time in this chapter prescribed for filing the same, and that his failure to file the same within said time is not due to the fault or laches of said party or his attorney, and that such failure was the result of causes beyond his control, the courts of civil appeals shall permit said statement of facts to remain as part of the record, and consider the same in the hearing and adjudication of said cause the same as if said statement of facts had been filed in time. [Acts 1887, p. 17.]

Art. 2075. Time for judge to file conclusions, etc.—The judge of any district or county court shall have ten days after adjournment of the term at which a cause may be tried in such court in which to prepare his findings of fact and conclusions of law in cases tried before the court, when demand is made therefor. [Acts 1903, p. 32. Acts 1907, S. S., p. 446, sec. 1.]

Art. 2076. Where term of office expires before adjournment, etc.—Any judge of a district or county court whose term of office may expire before the adjournment of the term of such court at which a cause may be tried, or during the period prescribed for the filing of the statement of facts and bill of exceptions, or conclusions of fact and law, may approve such statement of facts and bill of exceptions, or file such findings of fact and conclusions of law, in such causes as provided in this chapter. [Acts 1903, p. 32. Acts 1907, S. S., 446, modified by Act 1909, S. S., p. 374, sec. 7.]

Art. 2077. Statements of facts and bills of exceptions in civil cases in county courts and county courts at law.—The provisions of this chapter with respect to the preparation of the statements of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation of same to the opposite party, and the approval and filing thereof by the court shall apply to all statements of facts in civil causes tried in the county courts and county courts at law; and all other provisions of law governing statements of facts and bills of exceptions to be filed in district courts, and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil causes tried in the county courts and county courts at law. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 378, sec. 13.]

Article 2078. [1383] [1380] Appeals, etc., to the courts of civil appeals, allowed in what cases.—An appeal or writ of error may be taken to the court of civil appeals from every final judgment of the district court in civil cases. and from every final judgment in the county court in civil cases of which the county court has original jurisdiction, and from every final judgment of the county court in civil cases of which the court has appellate jurisdiction, where the judgment or amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

Art. 2079. [1383] [1380] Appeal from interlocutory order appointing receiver, or trustee, etc.—An appeal shall lie from an interlocutory order of the district court appointing a receiver or trustee in any cause; provided, such appeal be taken within twenty days from the entry of such order. An appeal under such cases shall take precedence in the appellate court; but the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of the appeal, unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court.

Art. 2080. Appeals from interlocutory orders granting or dissolving temporary injunctions.—Appeals shall also lie from the district and county courts to courts of civil appeals, from orders granting or dissolving temporary injunctions, in cases and the manner provided for in articles 4644 and 4645 of the Revised Civil Statutes. [Acts 1909, p. 354, secs. 2, 3.]

[Note.—For jurisdiction of courts of civil appeals, see chapter 3, title 32.]

Art. 2081. [1384] [1384] "Appellant" and "appellee" defined.—The party taking an appeal is called the "appellant;" and the adverse party is called the "appellee."

Art. 2082. [1385] [1385] "Plaintiff in error" and "defendant in error" defined.—The party suing out a writ of error is called the "plaintiff in error;"
and the adverse party is called the "defendant in error."

Art. 2083. [1386] [1386] "Appellate court" and "court below" defined.—The term "appellate court" includes the supreme court or court of civil appeals having jurisdiction of a cause on appeal or writ of error. The term "court below" includes the district or county court from which such appeal or writ of error is taken.

Art 2084. [1387] [1387] Appeal perfected, how.—An appeal may, in cases where an appeal is allowed, be taken during the term of the court at which the final judgment in the cause is rendered by the appellants giving notice of appeal in open court within two days after final judgment, or two days after judgment overruling a motion for a new trial, which shall be noted on the docket and entered of record, and by his filing with the clerk an appeal bond, where bond is required by law, or affidavit in lieu thereof, as hereinafter provided, within twenty days after the expiration of the term. If the term of the court may by law continue more than eight weeks, the bond or affidavit in lieu thereof shall be filed within twenty days after notice of appeal is given, if the party taking the appeal resides in the county, and within thirty days, if he resides out of the county.

Art. 2085. [1388] [1388] By parties of whom no appeal bond is required.—In cases where the appellant is not required by law to give bond on appeal, the appeal is perfected by the notice provided for in the preceding article.

Art. 2086. [1389] [1389] Writ of error sued out, when.—The writ of error may, in cases where the same is allowed, be sued out at any time within twelve months after the final judgment is rendered, and not thereafter.

Art. 2087. [1390] [1390] By petition.—The party desiring to sue out a writ of error shall file with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered a petition in writing signed by him or by his attorney, and addressed to such clerk. [Id. sec. 140. P. D. 1495.]

Art. 2088. [1391] [1391] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall state the names and residences of the parties adversely interested, shall describe the judgment with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state that he desires to remove the same to the court of civil appeals for revision and correction. Where the plaintiff in error desires the issuance of a supersedeas, he shall state the facts which entitle him thereto, and pray for the issuance thereof.

Art. 2089. [1392] [1392] Error bond.—The plaintiff shall also, at the time of filing such petition, file with the clerk a writ of error bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 2090. [1393] [1393] Citation in error.—Upon the filing of the petition and bond mentioned in the three preceding articles, it shall be the duty of the clerk forthwith to issue a citation for the defendant in error, and if there be several defendants residing in different counties, one citation shall issue to each of such counties. [Id.]

Art. 2091. [1394] [1394] Form and requisites of citation.—The style of such citation shall be "The State of Texas;" and it shall be dated and tested by the clerk as other writs, and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and shall command him forthwith to summon the defendant to appear and defend such writ before the court of civil appeals within sixty days from date of service of said citation, stating the place of holding the same, according to the provisions of the law regulating the returns of appeals and writs of error from the county in which the judgment was rendered. It shall state the date of the filing of the petition in error, the names of the parties according to such petition, and the description of the judgment as therein given. Such citation shall be made returnable within ten days from the issuance of the same, if defendant resides in the county, and within twenty days, if he resides out of the county.

Art. 2092. [1395] [1395] Service and return of.—It shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable receiving such citation to indorse the day and hour on which he receives it, and to execute and return it forthwith. Service shall be made by delivering to the defendant in error, and, if more than one, then, to each of them, in person, a true copy of such citation. The return of such officer shall be indorsed on or attached to the original writ, and shall state when and how the same was served, and shall be signed by him officially. [Id.]

Art. 2093. [1396] [1396] Return and what shall show.—The citation shall be returned as prescribed in article 2091, and where the same has not been served, the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same, and a failure to execute it, and where the defendant is to be found, so far as he has been able to ascertain.

Art. 2094. [1397] [1397] Alias citation.—If the citation is returned not executed, the clerk shall forthwith issue an alias or pluris citation, as the case may be, which shall conform to the requisites prescribed for the issuance of citation in the first instance, and shall, in addition, indicate how many previous citations have been issued. [Id.]

Art. 2095. [1398] [1398] Service on the attorney of record.—If it appears from the allegations in the papers of the cause that the party is a non-resident of the state, or if it appears from the return of the sheriff or constable that the party can not be found in the county of his residence, the citation shall direct the officer to summon the defendant by making service on his attorney of record, if there be one. [Id.]

Art. 2096. [1399] [1399] Service in other modes.—Service of the citation may be also made in either of the modes provided in chapter six of this title, so far the same are applicable.

Art. 2097. [1400] [1400] Cost bond on appeal or writ of error.—The appellant or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to the appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the probable amount of the costs of the suit in the court of civil appeals, supreme court and the court below, to be fixed by the clerk, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect, and shall pay all the costs which have accrued in the court below, and which may accrue in the court of civil appeals and the supreme court.

Art. 2098. [1401] [1401] Appeal, etc., by party unable to give cost bond.—Where the appellant or plaintiff in error is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but, in order to do so, he shall be required to make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides, or before the court trying the case, and shall consist of the affidavit of said party, stating his inability to pay the costs; which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit, whereupon it shall be the duty of the court trying the case, if in session, or the county judge of the county in which the suit is pending, to hear evidence and to determine the right of the party, under this article, to his appeal. [Act May 3, 1871, p. 74, sec. 1. Acts of 1879, ch. 81, p. 90. P. D. 6180.]

Art. 2099. [1402] [1402] Appeal or writ of error, perfected, when.—When the bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal or writ of error, as the case may be, shall be held to be perfected.

Art. 2100. [1403] [1403] Appeal, etc., on cost bond or affidavit does not suspend execution.—The bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided in the three preceding articles, shall not have the effect to suspend the judgment, but execution shall issue thereon as if no such appeal or writ of error had been taken.

Art. 2101. [1404] [1404] Supersedeas bond.—Should the appellant or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, desire to suspend the execution of the judgment, he may do so by giving, instead of the bond or affidavit in lieu thereof mentioned in the four preceding articles, or in addition to such bond, a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and in case the judgment of the supreme court or the court of civil appeals shall be against him, he shall perform its judgment, sentence or decree, and pay all such damages as said court may award against him.

Art. 2102. [1405] [1405] Supersedeas bond, where judgment is for land or other property.—Where the judgment is for the recovery of land or other property, the bond shall be further conditioned that the appellant or plaintiff in error shall, in case the judgment is affirmed, pay to the appellee or defendant in error the value of the rent or hire of such property in any suit which may be brought therefor. [Id. sec. 137. P. D. 1492.]

Art. 2103. [1406] [1406] Judgment stayed and execution superseded.—Upon the filing of the bonds mentioned in the two preceding articles, the appeal or writ of error shall be held to be perfected, and the execution of the judgment shall be stayed, and should execution have been issued thereon, the clerk shall forthwith issue a supersedeas. [Id. sec. 140, P. D. 1495.]

Art. 2104. Amendment of appeal bond.—When an appeal has been or shall be taken from the judgment of any of the courts of this state by filing a bond or entering into a recognizance within the time prescribed by law in such cases, and it shall be determined by the court to which appeal is taken that such bond or recognizance is defective in form or substance, such appellate court may allow the appellant to amend such bond or recognizance by filing a new bond on such terms as the court may prescribe. [Acts 1905, p. 224.]

[Note.—See note to articles 1608, 1609, and 2395.]

Art. 2105. [1407] [1407] State, county, etc., not to give bond.—Neither the state of Texas, nor any county in the state of Texas, nor the railroad commission of Texas, nor the head of any department of the state of Texas, prosecuting or defending in any action in their official capacity, shall be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by it, or either of them, in any civil case. [Acts 1897, p. 27. Acts 1909, S. S., p. 284.]

Art. 2106. [1408] [1408] Of executors, etc.—Executors, administrators and guardians appointed by the courts of this state shall not be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by them in their fiduciary capacity. [Act March 16, 1848, p. 106, sec. 4. P. D. 1503.]

Art. 2107. [1409] [1409] Executor, etc., may take appeal or writ of error.—In case of the death of any party entitled to an appeal or writ of error, the same may be taken by his executor, administrator or heir.

Art. 2108. [1410] [1410] Transcript to be made out and delivered.—When an appeal or writ of error has been perfected, the clerk of the court shall, upon the application of either party, make out, and deliver to him, a transcript of the record of the cause. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 139. P. D. 1494.]

Art. 2109. [1411] [1411] Transcript to contain all proceedings, except, etc.—The transcript shall, except in the cases hereinafter provided, contain a full and correct copy of all the proceedings had in the cause. [Id.]

Art. 2110. [1412] [1412] Citation and return omitted, when.—If the pleadings or the judgment show an appearance of the defendant, in person or by attorney, the citation and returns shall not be copied into the transcript.

Art. 2111. [1413] [1413] Omission of unimportant proceedings, when.—The parties may, by an agreement in writing, with the approval of the judge, direct the clerk in making up the transcript for the appellate court to omit therefrom any designated portion of the proceedings not deemed material to the disposition of the cause in such appellate court; and, in such case, the transcript shall not embrace such portions of the proceedings. [Act Feb. 5, 1858, p. 110, sec. 12. P. D. 1516.]

Art. 2112. [1414] [1414] Agreed statement of pleadings and proof.—The parties may, without the necessity of setting out all the proceedings at length, agree upon such a brief statement of the case and of the facts proven, with or without copies of any part of the proceedings as shall, in their opinion, enable the appellate court to determine whether there has been any error in the judgment; and, if the judge shall approve and sign such statement, the same shall be filed among the papers of the cause and shall constitute a part of the record, and, on appeal or writ of error, shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of such proceedings themselves. [Id.]

Art. 2113. [1415] [1415] Transcript must contain what.—The transcript shall, in all cases, contain a copy of the final judgment, notice of appeal, petition for writ of error and citation in error, with return of service thereon, bond on appeal or writ of error, or affidavit in lieu thereof, and assignments of errors or such of them as there may be, and also a copy from the fee book of all the costs that have accrued in the cause. [Id.]

Art. 2114. [1416] [1416] Clerk's certificate and indorsement.—The clerk shall certify to the correctness of the transcript, and sign the same officially with the seal of the court attached. Such certificate shall state whether the same be a transcript of all the proceedings in the cause, or the transcript provided for in articles 2110, 2111 and 2112. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 139. P. D. 1494.]

Art. 2115. [1417] [1416a] Briefs filed in courts below and notice given.—Not less than five days before the time of filing of the transcript in the court of civil appeals the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file with the clerk of the district court a copy of his brief, which shall be by the clerk deposited with the papers of the cause, with the date of filing indorsed thereon; and the clerk shall forthwith give notice to the appellee or defendant in error, or his attorney of record, of the filing of such brief, and that in twenty days after such notice the appellee or defendant in error shall file a copy of his brief with the clerk of said court below, and with the clerk of the court of civil appeals four copies. [Acts of 1892, S. S.]

Art. 2116. [1418] [1417] Case appealed, etc., to remain on docket till, etc.—Where a cause shall be removed by appeal or writ of error to the appellate court, the cause shall remain or be replaced on the docket to await the mandate of the appellate court.

Art. 2117. [1419] [1418] Proceedings on return of mandate.—Upon the return of the mandate, if the judgment of the court below be reversed by the appellate court, the cause shall stand for trial in its order on the docket.

posed of at any time before the trial of the cause. [Id. sec. 54. P. D. 1454.]

Art. 2122. [1460] [1456] Notice of motion not in pending suit.—Where a motion does not relate to a pending suit, and where the time of service is not elsewhere prescribed, the adverse party shall be entitled to three days' notice of the motion. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 5. P. D. 1408.]

Art. 2123. [1461] [1457] Disposed of, when.—All motions not relating to a suit pending shall be taken up and disposed of in their order as other suits are required to be. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363, sec. 55. P. D. 1455.]

2. AUDITORS.

Art. 2124. [1494] [1471] Auditor appointed, when.—Whenever, in any suit, it shall appear that an investigation of accounts or examination of vouchers is necessary for the purposes of justice between the parties, the court shall appoint an auditor or auditors to state the accounts between the parties and to make report thereof to the court as soon as may be. [P. D. 3760.]

Art. 2125. [1495] [1472] Report to be verified by affidavit.—The report of the auditor shall be verified by his affidavit, stating that he has examined carefully the state of the account between the parties, and that his report contains a true statement thereof, so far as the same has come to his knowledge.

Art. 2126. [1496] [1473] Shall be admitted in evidence, but, etc.—The report of the auditor shall be admitted in evidence, but may be contradicted by evidence from either party where exceptions to such report, or of any items thereof, shall have been filed before the trial. [Id.]

Art. 2127. [1497] [1474] Compensation of.—The court shall award reasonable compensation to such auditor, which shall be allowed and taxed in the bill of costs, as in other cases.

3. RECEIVERS.

Art. 2128. [1465] When receivers may be appointed.—Receivers may be appointed by any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, in the following cases:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

3. In cases where a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.

4. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity. [Acts of 1887, p. 119.]

Art. 2129. [1466] Who disqualified to act as receiver.—No party, attorney, or any person interested in any way in an action for the appointment of a receiver shall be appointed receiver therein, nor shall any person be appointed receiver in any case where the property lies within this state, unless the person appointed at the time of his appointment is a bona fide citizen of the state of Texas and qualified to vote; and, during the pendency of said receivership, the person or persons so appointed receiver shall keep and maintain actual residence within this state. And if in any action for the appointment of a receiver, the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated partly in this state and partly without, then no person shall be appointed receiver of that part of the property situated in this state, unless such person at the time is a bona fide citizen of this state and qualified to vote; and, during the pendency of said receivership, the person or persons so appointed receiver shall keep and maintain actual residence within this state. [Acts of 1889, p. 55.]

Art. 2130. [1467] When appointment void.—If any person should be appointed receiver of property situated in this state, or a part of which is situated in this state and a part without, who is not at the time a bona fide citizen of this state and entitled to vote, all such appointments shall be absolutely null and void in so far as the property situated within this state is concerned. [Id.]

Art. 2131. [1468] Quo warranto to forfeit charter.—If any corporation owning property in this state and chartered by this state shall have a receiver of its property situated in this state appointed who is not at the time of appointment a bona fide citizen of this state and qualified to vote, said corporation shall thereby forfeit its charter; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to at once prosecute a suit by quo warranto against said corporation so offending to forfeit its charter; and the court trying the cause shall forfeit the charter of said corporation upon proof that a person has been appointed receiver of its property situated in this state who is not qualified to act under the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 2132. [1469] Oath and bond of receiver.—When a receiver is appointed, he shall, before he enters upon his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully, and shall execute a bond, with three or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court appointing him, in such sum as the court shall see proper to fix, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all of the duties of receiver in the action [naming it] and obey the orders of the court therein. [Acts of 1887, p. 120.]

Art. 2133. [1470] Receiver's power.—The receiver shall have power, under the control of the court, to bring and defend actions in his own name as receiver, to take charge and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect, compound for, compromise demands, make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize. [Id.]

Art. 2134. [1471] Funds, how invested.—The funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest by order of the court, but no such order shall be made except upon consent of all the parties to the action. [Id.]

Art. 2135. [1472] Application of funds in hand of receiver and claims preferred.—All moneys that come into the hands of a receiver as such receiver shall be applied as follows: First, to the payment of all court costs of the suit; second, to the payment of all wages of employes due by the receiver; third, to the payment of all debts due by the receiver for materials and supplies purchased during the receivership by the receiver for the improvement of the property in his hands as receiver; fourth, to the payment of all debts due for betterments and improvements done during the receivership to the property in his hands as such receiver; fifth, to the payment of all claims and accounts against the receiver on contracts made by the receiver during the receivership, and for all claims for stock and personal injury claims against said receiver accruing during said receivership, and all judgments rendered against said receiver for personal injuries and for stock killed; sixth, all judgments recovered against the person or persons or corporations in suits brought before the appointment of a receiver in the action.

And said claims shall have a preference lien on all of the moneys coming into the hands of the receiver which are the earnings of the property in his hands; and the court shall see that the money coming into the hands of the receiver as earnings of the property in his hands is paid out on the claims against said receiver in the order of their preference as named above; and it shall be the duty of the receiver to pay the funds in his hands which are the earnings of the property while in his hands as receiver on the claims against him in the order of preference named above. [Acts of 1889, p. 55.]

Art. 2136. [1473] Proceedings in suits where receiver is discharged.—If a receiver is discharged pending suits against him for causes of action growing out of, and arising during, the receivership, the cause of action shall not abate, but may be prosecuted to final judgment against the receiver; and the plaintiff in the action may, if he sees proper, make the party or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property that was in his hands as receiver a party to the suit; and, if judgment is finally rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the receiver, the court shall also enter up judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the party to whom the property was delivered by the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2137. [1474] When property in the hands of receiver subject to execution.—If any person should sue a receiver and obtain judgment against such receiver, and said receiver shall have in possession moneys subject to the payment of such judgment, and the plaintiff owning the judgment shall apply to the court appointing the receiver for an order to pay said judgment, and if the court appointing the receiver should refuse to order said judgment paid, when there is money in the hands of said receiver subject to the payment of the judgment, then, it shall be the duty of the court rendering the judgment to order an execution to issue on said judgment against said receiver upon the filing by the plaintiff in the court where the judgment was rendered an affidavit stating the facts that the plaintiff had applied to the court appointing the receiver for an order for said receiver to pay said judgment, and that it was proved to the court that there was money in the hands of the receiver at that time which was subject to the payment of the judgment, and that the court appointing the receiver refused to order the receiver to pay the judgment; said execution when so issued shall be levied upon any property in the hands of the receiver, and shall be sold as under ordinary executions; and a sale of the property will convey the title of the same to the purchaser. [Id.]

Art. 2138. [1475] Judgments a first lien on property, and property charged with lien after receivership.—All judgments rendered against a receiver for causes of action arising during the receivership shall be a lien upon all of the property in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien; and if the property should be turned back into the possession of the party or corporation who were owning same at the time of the appointment of a receiver, or any one else for them, or as their assigns or purchasers, the party or corporation so receiving said property from said receiver shall take said property charged with all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver occurring during the receivership, to the value of the property delivered by the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2139. [1476] Persons to whom property delivered liable for debts.—If a receiver is discharged by the court before all of the liabilities of the receiver arising during the receivership are settled in full, then the person, persons, or corporation to whom the receiver delivers the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable to the persons having claims against said receiver for the full amount of the liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 2140. [1477] Effect of discharge of receiver.—The discharge of a receiver shall not work an abatement of the suit against a receiver, nor shall it in any way affect the right of the party to sue the receiver if he sees proper. [Id.]

Art. 2141. [1478] Property redelivered by receiver without sale still liable for debts; suits do not abate, but new party may be made.—All parties and corporations whose property has been placed in the hands of a receiver by order of the court, and which was not sold by the receiver, and which property has been delivered back to the original parties or corporation, without any sale of said property, shall be liable and held to pay all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver in causes of action arising out of and during the receivership; and, if there are any suits pending against the receiver at the date of discharge, on causes of action arising during the receivership, the plaintiff shall have the right to make the party or corporation to whom the receiver delivered the property which was in his hands as receiver a party defendant along with the receiver; and, if any judgment is rendered against the receiver for causes of action arising out of and during the receivership, then, the court shall also, at the same time, (if the party or corporation receiving back the property have been made parties defendant) render judgment in favor of the plaintiff against defendants for the amount so found for plaintiff and all costs; and plaintiff shall have the right to foreclose his lien on the property delivered back by said receiver to said party or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 2142. [1479] Judgments and unsued claims have preference lien over mortgage.—If, at the date of the discharge of the receiver, there are any judgments or claims not sued on against a receiver arising during the receivership, and which judgments and claims not sued on are unpaid at the date of the discharge of said receiver, said unpaid judgments and unpaid claims not sued on shall be a preference lien on all of the property that was in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien; and the person or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable for all unpaid judgments and unpaid claims not sued on to the value of the property that was delivered by the receiver to said person or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 2143. [1480] Receiver and person to whom property is delivered both liable and may be sued for unpaid claim.—Any person having a claim against a receiver not sued on at the date of the discharge of the receiver shall have the right to sue said receiver, either alone or jointly, with the person or corporation to whom the receiver delivered said property that was in his hands as such receiver; and, if any judgment is rendered against said receiver, a judgment shall also be rendered against the person or corporation for the same amount that is rendered against the receiver, not to exceed the value of the property so received by said person or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 2144. [1481] Receiver to give bond on appeal.—In any case in which any receiver is sued in any of the courts of this state, and such receiver desires to take an appeal from any judgment which may be rendered against him in any justice or county court, or to take an appeal or writ of error from any judgment which may be rendered against him in any district court, before such appeal or writ of error shall be perfected or allowed such receiver shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, payable to the appellee or the defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest, and cost, conditioned that such receiver shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and, in case the judgment of the court to which such appeal or writ of error be taken shall be against him, that he will perform its judgment, sentence, or decree, and pay all such damages and costs as said court may award against him. In the event that the judgment of the court to which such appeal or [writ of] error is taken shall be against such receiver, judgment shall, at the same time, be entered against the sureties on his said bond, and execution thereon may issue against such sureties within twenty days after the rendition of such judgment. [Id.]

Art. 2145. [1482] Railroad funds, where deposited.—When a line of railroad operated by a receiver lies wholly within this state, all money which comes into the hands of the receiver, whether from operating the road or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this state as the court may direct, until properly disbursed; but, if any portion of the road lies in another state the receiver shall be required to deposit in this state at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the company within this state. [Acts of 1887, p. 122.]

Art. 2146. [1483] Receiver may sue or be sued without leave; effect of judgment against.—When any property of any kind within the limits of this state has been placed, by order of court, in the hands of a receiver, who has taken charge of such property, such receiver may, in his official capacity, sue or be sued in any court of this state having jurisdiction of the cause of action, without first having obtained leave of the court appointing such receiver to bring said suit; and, if a judgment is recovered against said receiver, it shall be the duty of the court to order said judgment paid out of any funds in the hands of said receiver as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2147. [1484] Suits against receiver, where brought.—Actions may be brought against the receiver of the property of any person where said person resides. Actions may be brought against receivers of a corporation in the county where the principal office of said corporation may be located, and against receivers of railroad companies in any county through or into which the road is constructed, and service of summons may be had upon the receiver, or upon the general or division superintendent of the road, or upon any agent of said receiver who resides in the county in which the suit is brought. [Id.]

Art. 2148. [1486] Inventory to be made and returned by receiver.—The receiver, as soon after his appointment as possible, shall return to the court appointing him a true and correct inventory of all property received by him as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2149. [1487] Jurisdiction to appoint receiver confined to courts of this state in certain cases.—When a person resides in this state and a receiver is applied for, or if the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated within the limits of this state, no court other than one within the limits of this state shall have power to appoint any receiver of said property. [Id.]

Art. 2150. [1488] Receiver of corporation, where applied for.—If the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is a corporation whose property lies within this state, or partly within this state, then the action to have a receiver appointed shall be brought in this state in the county where the principal office of said corporation is located. [Id.]

Art. 2151. [1489] Where there are betterments, general creditors have rights to be protected.—When a receiver of a corporation has, under the order of the court, made improvements upon the property of said corporation, and has also, under the order of the court appointing him, purchased rolling stock, machinery, and made other improvements whereby the value of the property of said corporation has been increased, or has extended such road, or acquired any property in connection with said road, and has paid for same out of the current receipts of the corporation that came into his hands as receiver, then, if there be any floating debts against said corporation, said corporation shall be made to contribute to the floating indebtedness to the full value of the money so spent by said receiver as aforesaid; and, if there are any liens of any kind upon the property of said corporation in the hands of such receiver, and said property is sold under the order of the court, and said liens foreclosed, then it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the court appointing such receiver, if there be any unpaid debts or judgments, or claims against the corporation itself, to detain in the hands of the clerk of the court money to the full value of the improvements made by said receiver of said property out of the proceeds of the sale of the property sold, and pay the same over to any person or persons who has or may have a claim, debt, or judgment against said corporation; and the court, in ordering the sale of the property, shall require sufficient cash money to be paid in at date of sale to cover the full value of the improvements so made by said receiver out of the current funds received by him from the property while receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2152. [1490] Judgments and other claims have preference over mortgage.—All judgments, claims, or causes of action when determined, existing against any corporation at the time of the appointment of a receiver, shall be paid out of the earnings of such corporation while in the hands of the receiver, to the exclusion of mortgage action; and the same shall be a lien on such earnings. [Id.]

Art. 2153. [1491] Receivership of corporations limited to three years.—No corporation shall be administered in any court for a longer period than three years from the date of such appointment; and within three years such court shall wind up the affairs of such corporation, unless prevented by appeal of litigation. [Id.]

Art. 2154. [1492] Application for receiver, by whom made.—No receiver shall ever be appointed of any joint stock, incorporated company, or of any co-partnership or private person, on the petition of such joint stock, incorporated company, partnership or person; provided, that any stockholder or stockholders of such joint stock or incorporated company may have his or their action against such company, and may have a receiver appointed as in ordinary cases; and provided, further, that nothing herein shall prevent a member of any co-partnership from having a receiver appointed whenever a cause of action arises between the co-partners. [Id.]

Art. 2155. [1493] Rules of equity shall govern in receivership proceedings.—In all matters relating to the appointment of receivers, and to their powers, duties and liabilities, and to the powers of the court in relation thereto, the rules of equity shall govern whenever the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and the general laws of the state. [Id.]

4. MASTERS IN CHANCERY.

Art. 2156. [1485] Master in chancery, qualifications, duties and appointments.—The court shall, in every case of the appointment of receiver, also after his qualifying, appoint a master in chancery, who shall be a citizen of this state, and not an attorney for either party to the action, nor related to either party, who shall perform all of the duties required of him by the court, and shall be under orders of the court, and have such power as a master of chancery has in a court of equity.

5. SUBSTITUTION OF LOST RECORDS AND PAPERS.

Art. 2157. [1498] [1475] Lost records and papers supplied, on motion.—Whenever the records and papers of a cause, or any part thereof, may be lost or destroyed, either before or after the trial, the same may be supplied by either party, on motion before the court, upon three days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney. [Act Feb. 11, 1850, p. 160, sec. 1. P. D. 4969.]

Art. 2158. [1499] [1476] Motion, requisites of.—Such motion shall be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney, and shall be verified by affidavit. It shall state the loss or destruction of such record or papers, and shall be accompanied by certified copies of the originals, if they can be had, and if not, then substantial copies thereof as near as may be. [Id. sec. 2. P. D. 4970.]

Art. 2159. [1500] [1477] If substitutes agreed to.—If the adverse party admit the correctness of such copies, and the court be satisfied that they are correct copies in substance of the originals, an order shall be made substituting such copies for the originals.

Art. 2160. [1501] [1478] If not agreed to, court may hear proof, etc.—If their correctness be not admitted, or if the court do not find them to be correct, the parties shall submit their respective statements to the judge; and he shall hear proof as to the contents of such lost records and papers, and correct copies thereof shall be made up under the direction of the judge.

Art. 2161. [1502] [1479] Adverse party may supply.—The adverse party may, in the same proceedings, supply any other portions of such records and papers desired by him.

Art. 2162. [1503] [1480] Parties may agree on brief statement, etc.—The parties may, by consent in writing, with the approval of the judge, agree on a brief statement of the matters contained in such lost records and papers; and the court may, by an order, substitute such statement for the lost originals.

Art. 2163. [1504] [1481] Substituted copies constitute record.—Such substituted copies or brief statement of their contents, as the case may be, made up under the preceding articles of this subdivision, shall be filed with the clerk, and shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and shall have all the force and effect of the originals. [Act to adopt and establish R. C. S. passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

6. DEPOSIT OF MONEY, ETC., IN COURT.

Art. 2164. [1462] [1458] Custody of money and other articles deposited.—Whenever, during the progress of any cause, any money, debt, scrip, instrument of writing, or other article, shall be paid or deposited in court to abide the result of any legal proceedings, the officer having custody thereof shall seal up the identical money, or other article received by him, in a secure package and deposit it in some safe or bank vault, keeping it always accessible and subject to the control of the court; and he shall also keep in his office, and as a part of the records thereof, in a well-bound book, a correct statement showing each and every item of money and property so received by him, on what account received, and what disposition he has made of the same. [Act May 19, 1876, p. 7, sec. 1.]

Art. 2165. [1463] [1459] Officer shall deliver funds, etc., to his successor.—On the expiration of his term of office, such officer shall turn over to his successor all such trust funds and other property, and the record aforesaid, and shall take his receipt therefor. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2166. [1464] [1460] Not to exempt officer and his sureties from liabilities, etc.—The provisions of articles 2164 and 2165 shall not exempt any officer or his sureties from liability on his official bond, for any neglect or other default, in regard to the funds therein mentioned. [Id. sec. 5.]

Article 2167. [3498u] When minor may sue by next friend.—Any minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis, having a sufficient cause of action, and who has no legal guardian, can bring suit in any of the courts of this state by next friend; and such next friend shall have the same rights concerning such suit and the matter therein involved as if he were guardian of such minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis; provided, he shall not be relieved from giving security for costs or affidavit in lieu thereof, and cannot collect the proceeds of any moneyed judgment he may recover, except as herein specified. [Acts 1893, p. 3. Acts 1909, p. 176.]

Art. 2168. [3498v] Next friend may compromise, etc.—Such next friend or the attorney of record of such minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis may enter into such agreed judgment or compromise in such suit as the court may approve; and the decree entered upon such agreement or compromise, when approved by the court, shall be forever binding on said minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis, and can divest title out of the minor, lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis or vest it in such minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis, when the court is satisfied such decree is for the best interest of the minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis, under all circumstances; and the court may hear evidence touching upon such agreement or compromise before approving the same. [Id.]

Art. 2169. [3498w] May collect certain personal judgments, etc.—Whenever, in any suit in this state, any minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis recovers a personal judgment for money or other personal property in which the interest of the said minor, lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis does not exceed the value of five hundred dollars, and said minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis has no guardian, such next friend, or any person authorized by the court to do so by an order entered upon record, may take charge of said money or property for the benefit of said minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis, upon giving bond in such sum as shall be ordered by the court, which shall not be less than double the value of the property, conditioned that he will pay over said money and lawful interest thereon and deliver said property and its increase to the minor when he becomes of age, or to the lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis when he is restored to sanity or to the legally qualified guardian of such persons when demanded, and that he will pay or deliver the same to such person appointed by the court when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the minor, lunatic, idiot or non compos mentis as ordered by the court. It is provided, further, that the terms of this article shall apply to all money or other personal property now in the hands of the clerks of the courts of this state belonging to such persons; provided, further, that in any such case without regard to the amount involved, the judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered shall have authority upon an application and hearing, in term time or vacation, to provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment as he may deem advisable and to the best interest of the beneficiary or beneficiaries. If such decree shall be made in vacation, it shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court. [Id.]

Art. 2170. [3498x] Disposition of such collections; compensation, etc.—Such person who takes such money or property shall receive no fees or commissions for caring for or handling the same, but shall receive such compensation for caring for or handling the same as may be allowed by the court, and shall make such disposition thereof at all times as the court may order; and he may be required to return such money or property into court upon the order of the court, when the court may make such further disposition of the same as is deemed best for the minor, lunatic, idiot, or non compos mentis. [Id.]

Art. 2171. [3498y] Claims against such judgments, how adjusted.—Whenever any attorney or other person has any interest in such recovery or judgment, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and, if deemed just, shall order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to such person who is entitled to receive the same. [Acts 1893, p. 3.]

Actions against non-residents.....	2172	Judgment by default can not be rendered.....	2175
Actual possession not necessary.....	2173	Procedure if suit be to extinguish lien.....	2176
Requisites of pleadings.....	2174	Judgment receivable in evidence.....	2177

Article 2172. [1504a] Actions maintainable against non-residents.—An action may be brought and prosecuted to final decree, judgment, or order, by any person claiming a right or interest in or to any property in this state, against any person or persons who are non-residents of this state, or whose place of residence is unknown, or who are transient persons, who claim an adverse estate, or interest in, or who claim any lien or incumbrance on said property, for the purpose of determining such estate, interest, lien, or incumbrance, and granting the title to said property, or settling the lien or incumbrance thereon. [Acts of 1893, p. 77.]

Art. 2173. [1504b] Actual possession not necessary; service, etc.—Such action may be maintained by any such person whether he is in actual possession of such property or not; and service on the defendant or defendants may be made by publication of the writ or notice of the same, as is now or hereafter may be provided by law for publication of citation against non-residents, or persons unknown, or transient persons. [Id.]

Art. 2174. [1504c] Requisites of pleadings.—The pleadings in such case shall set forth the title of the complainant, as well as the claim of the defendant, if known; and such proceedings shall be had in such action as may be necessary to fully settle and determine the question of right or title in, and to, said property between the parties to said suit, and to decree the title or right of the party entitled thereto; and the court may issue the appropriate order to carry such decree, judgment, or order, into effect. [Id.]

Art. 2175. [1504d] Judgment by default can not be rendered.—No judgment by default shall be taken in such case by reason of the failure of the defendant to answer; but the facts entitling the plaintiff to judgment shall be exhibited to the court on the trial; and a statement of the facts shall be filed as may be provided by law in suits against non-residents of this state where no appearance has been made by them. [Id.]

[Note.—See articles 1875 and 1941.]

Art. 2176. [1504e] Procedure if suit be to extinguish lien.—In case said suit shall be for the extinguishment of any lien or claim for money on said property that may be held by the defendant, the amount thereof, with interest, shall be ascertained by the court; and the same shall be deposited in the registry of the court, subject to be drawn by the defendant or defendants entitled thereto; but in such case no decree shall be entered, until said sum is deposited; which fact shall be noted in said decree. [Id.]

Art. 2177. [1504f] Judgment in such cases receivable in evidence.—The judgment of the court in the cases mentioned shall be received in evidence, under the rules governing evidence that may be established by law; and said judgment shall be binding on the parties thereto concerning the matters determined therein. [Id.]

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Article 2184. "Dependent child" or "neglected child" defined.—For the purposes of this chapter the words "dependent child" or "neglected child" shall mean any child under sixteen years of age who is dependent upon the public for support or who is destitute, homeless or abandoned; or who has not proper parental care or guardianship, or who habitually begs or receives alms, or who is found living in any house of ill fame or with any vicious or disreputable person, or whose home, by reason of neglect, cruelty or depravity on the part of its parents, guardian or other person in whose care it may be, is an unfit place for such child. Any child, within the provisions of this chapter whose parents or guardian permits it to use except for medicinal purposes or to become addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, or whose parents or guardian rears, keeps or permits it in or about any saloon or place where intoxicating liquors are sold, or any gambling house or house of ill fame, shall be deemed to be without proper parental care or guardianship. [Acts 1907, p. 135, sec. 1.]

Art. 2185. County and district courts given jurisdiction over.—The county and district courts of the various counties of this state shall have original jurisdiction in all cases coming within the terms of this chapter, and shall, at all times, be deemed in session for the disposition of same, and when so sitting it may be known as the "juvenile court." In all trials under this chapter, any person interested therein may demand a jury as in other cases; or the judge of the court, of his own motion, may order a jury to try such cases. Unless such jury is demanded, it shall be deemed to be waived. Any person interested in any case under this chapter shall have the right to appear therein and be represented by counsel. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2186. Who may institute proceedings in interest of child, and how.—Any person who is a resident of the county having knowledge of a child in his county who appears to be a "dependent" or "neglected" child may file with the clerk of the county or district court of his county a petition in writing, setting forth the facts constituting the child "dependent" or "neglected;" which petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner. It shall be sufficient, if the affidavit shall be upon information and belief. Such petition shall set forth the name of the parent or parents of such child, if known, and their residence; and if such child has no parent living, then the name and residence of the guardian of such child, if it has one. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2187. Hearing; citation, etc.; service, etc.; representative; parents' rights forfeited, when.—Upon the filing of such petition, the judge of said court shall fix the day and time for the hearing of such petition. If it shall appear that one or both of such parents, or guardian, if there be no parents, reside in said county, the clerk of said court shall immediately issue citation; which citation shall include a copy of the petition, which shall be served on such parent, parents or guardian, if any, if either can be found in said county, not less than two days before the time fixed for said hearing, requiring them to appear on said day and hour to show cause, if any, why such child should not be declared by said court to be a "dependent" and "neglected" child; and such citation shall be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county. In case it shall appear from the petition that neither of said parents are living, or do not reside in said county, and that said child has no guardian residing in said county, or in case one or both of said parents, or the guardian in case there be no parents, shall indorse on said petition a request that the child be declared a "dependent child," then the citation herein provided for shall not be issued; and the court may thereupon proceed to a hearing of the case. In case neither of the parents or guardian is found, then the court shall appoint some suitable person to represent said child in said cause. In case any child is adjudged to be dependent or neglected under this chapter, then such parents or guardian shall hereafter have no right over or to the custody, services or earnings of said child except upon such conditions in the interest of such child as the court may impose, or where, upon proper proceedings, such child may lawfully be restored to the parents or guardian. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2188. Hearing; facts to be ascertained; witnesses; county attorney to appear for petition or file same, etc., when.—Upon such hearing of such case the child shall be brought before said court; whereupon, it shall be the duty of said court to investigate the facts, and to ascertain whether the child is a "dependent child," its residence, and, as far as possible, the whereabouts of its parents or near adult relatives, when and how long the child has been maintained, in whole or in part, by private or public charity, the occupation of the parents, if living, whether they are supported by the public or have abandoned the child, and to ascertain, as far as possible, if the child is found dependent, the cause thereof. The court may compel the attendance of witnesses on such examination; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue all process and the sheriff and other officers of the court to serve the same as in other cases. It shall be the duty of the county attorney, when requested by the court, to appear in any such examination in behalf of the petition. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of such county, upon the request of the court or any petitioner, to file a petition and to conduct any necessary proceedings in any case within the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2189. Adjudication; order disposing of child as deemed best for its welfare.—Upon the hearing of such case, if the said child shall be found to come within any of the provisions of article 2184, it shall be adjudged a "dependent child;" and an order may be entered making disposition of said child as to the court seems best for its moral and physical welfare. It may be turned over to the care and custody of any suitable person or any suitable institution in the county or state organized for the purpose of caring for "dependent children," and which is able and willing to care for same. And when such child is so turned over to the custody of such person or institution, such person or institution shall have the right to the custody of said child, and shall be at all times responsible for its education and maintenance, subject at all times to the orders of the court. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2190. Child to be ward of custodian; his authority; maintenance, etc.; visitation; reports; change of guardianship; child may remain with parents, etc., when, etc.—In any case where the court shall award any "dependent child" to the care of any individual or institution in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the child, unless otherwise ordered, shall become a ward and be subject to the guardianship of the institution or individual to whose care it is committed. Such institution or individual shall, with the consent of the court, have authority to place such child in a suitable family home, the head of such family being responsible for the maintenance and education of said child. Any institution or individual receiving any such child under the order of the court shall be subject to visitation or inspection by any person appointed by the court for such purpose; and the court may, at any time, require from any institution or person a report containing such information as the court shall deem proper or necessary, to be fully advised as to the care, education, maintenance and moral and physical training of the child, as well as the standing and ability of such institution or individual to care for such child. The court may change the guardianship of such child, if, at any time, it is made to appear to the court such change is to the best interest of the child. If, in the opinion of the court, the causes of the dependency of any child may be removed under such conditions or supervisions for its care, protection and maintenance as may be imposed by the court, so long as it shall be for its best interests, the child may be permitted to remain in its own home and under the care and control of its own parent, parents or guardian, subject to the jurisdiction and direction of the court; and when it shall appear to the court that it is no longer to the best interests of such child to remain with such parents or guardian, the court may proceed to a final disposition of the case. [Id. sec. 7.]

Article 2191. "Delinquent child" defined.—For the purposes of this chapter, the words "delinquent child" shall include any child under sixteen years of age who violates any of the laws of this state, or any city ordinance, or who is incorrigible, or who knowingly associates with thieves, vicious or immoral persons, or who knowingly visits a house of ill repute, or who knowingly patronizes or visits any place where any gambling device is, or shall be operated, or who patronizes any saloon or place where any intoxicating liquors are sold, or who wanders about the streets in the night time without being on any business or occupation, or who habitually wanders about any railroad yards or tracks, or who habitually jumps on or off of any moving train, or enters any car or engine without lawful authority, or who habitually uses vile, obscene, vulgar, profane or indecent language, or who is guilty of immoral conduct in any public place. Any child committing any of the acts herein mentioned shall be deemed a "delinquent child," and shall be proceeded against as such in the manner hereinafter provided. A disposition of any child under this chapter or any evidence given in such case shall not in any civil, criminal or other cause or proceeding whatever in any court, be lawful or proper evidence against such child for any purpose whatever, except in subsequent cases against the same child under this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 137, sec. 1.]

Art. 2192. County and district courts given jurisdiction over; jury trial; records.—The county and district courts of the several counties of this state shall have jurisdiction in all cases coming within the terms and provisions of this chapter. In all trials under this chapter any person interested therein may demand a jury, or the judge, of his own motion, may order a jury to try the case. The findings of the court shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, known as the "Juvenile Record;" and the court when disposing of cases under this chapter may, for convenience, be called the "Juvenile Court." [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2193. Proceedings; complaint, etc., filed by county attorney; requisites.—All proceedings under this chapter shall be begun by sworn complaint and information filed by the county attorney, as in other cases under the laws of this state. In any such complaint and information filed under this chapter, the act or acts claimed to have been committed by the child proceeded against shall, in a general way, be stated therein as constituting such child a "delinquent child." [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2194. Warrant, etc.; execution thereof; no incarceration unless; noting; verbal sureties; default contempt; alias, warrant, etc.; no incarceration with, when; bond.—Upon filing of complaint under this chapter, warrant or capias may issue as in other cases; but no incarceration of the child proceeded against thereunder shall be made or had unless, in the opinion of the judge of the court, or, in the absence of the judge, then in the opinion of the sheriff or officer executing the writ, it shall be necessary to insure the attendance of such child in court at such time as shall be required. In order to avoid such incarceration, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or officer executing the process, to serve notice of the proceedings upon the parent or parents of the child, if living and known, or upon the child's legal guardian, or upon any person with whom the child at the time may be living; and the sheriff or officer executing the process may accept the verbal or written promise of such person so notified, or of any other proper person, to be responsible for the presence of such child at the hearing of such case, or at any other time to which the same may be adjourned or continued by the court. In case such child shall fail to appear at such time or times as the court may require, the person or persons responsible for its appearance, as herein provided for, unless in the opinion of the court there shall be reasonable cause for such child to fail to appear as herein provided for, may be proceeded against as in cases in contempt of court, and punished accordingly; and where any such child shall have so failed to appear, any warrant, capias or alias capias issued in such case may be executed, as in other cases; provided, however, that no child, within the provisions of this chapter shall be incarcerated in any compartment of a jail or lock-up in which persons over sixteen years of age are being kept or detained. Any such child shall also have the right to give bond or other security for its appearance at such trial of such case; and the court may appoint counsel to appear and defend on behalf of such child. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2195. County and district courts always in session for; child of sixteen or under if arrested to be taken before one of said courts; if taken before justice, etc., case transferred; hearing.—The county and district courts of the various counties of this state shall, at all times, be deemed in session for the purpose of disposing of cases under this chapter; and when any child sixteen years of age or under is arrested on any charge, with or without warrant, such child, instead of being taken before a justice of the peace or any police court, shall be taken directly before the county or district court; or, if the child should be taken before a justice of the peace or a police court upon a complaint sworn out in such court, or for any other reason, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace or city judge to transfer the case to said county or district court; and, in any such case, the court may hear and proceed to dispose of the case in the same manner as if such child had been brought before the court upon information originally filed as herein provided. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2196. County judge may appoint probation officers, etc.; notice to; his authority and duties.—The county judges of the several counties of this state shall have authority to appoint one or more discreet persons of good moral character who are willing to perform the services as such to serve as probation officer during the pleasure of the court. Such probation officer or officers shall serve without compensation. If practicable, the court, or the clerk of the court, shall notify such probation officer or officers when any child is to be brought before the court; such probation officer shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty, to make investigation of all cases referred to him as such officer by the court, to be present in court and to represent the interests of the child when the case is heard, to furnish to the court such information and assistance as the court may require, and to take charge of any child before and after the trial, and to perform such other services for the child as may be required by the court. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2197. Hearing may be continued; disposition of child; not to be committed beyond the age of twenty-one; order; requisites; change of order and custody or discharge.—In any case of "delinquent child," coming under the provisions of this chapter, the court may continue the hearing from time to time, and may commit the child to the care of a probation officer or to the care or custody of any other proper person, and may allow said child to remain in its own home subject to the visitation of the probation officer or other person designated by the court, or under any other conditions that may seem proper and be imposed by the court; or the court may cause the child to be placed in the home of a suitable family under such conditions as may be imposed by the court; or it may authorize the child to be boarded out in some suitable family in case provision is made by voluntary contribution or otherwise, for the payment of the board of such child, until suitable provision may be made in a home without such payment; or the court may commit it to any institution in the county that may care for children that is willing to receive it, or which may be provided for by the state or county, suitable for the care of such children willing to receive it, or of any state institution which may now or hereafter be established for boys or girls willing to receive such child, or to any other institution in the state of Texas for the care of such children willing to receive it. In no case shall a child proceeded against under the provisions of this chapter be committed beyond the age of twenty-one. The order of the court committing such child to the care and custody of any person hereinbefore set out shall prescribe the length of time and the conditions of such commitment; and such order shall be at all times subject to change by further orders of the court with reference to said child; and the court shall have the power to change the custody of such child or to entirely discharge it from custody, whenever, in the judgment of the court, it is to the best interest of the child so to do. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2198. Custodian to report; give information; to be satisfactory to court.—The court or judge thereof may, at any time, require any institution, association or person to whose care any such child is committed to make a complete report of the care, condition and progress of such child. And such court may also require of any institution or association receiving or desiring to receive children under the provisions of this chapter, such reports, information and statements as the court shall deem proper for its action; and the court shall in no case commit a child or children to any association or institution whose standing, conduct or care of children or ability to care for children is not satisfactory to the court. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2199. Prosecution under criminal laws may be ordered; no child under sixteen to be prosecuted without order; after conviction may stay and release, etc.—The county or district court, when it deems it proper and necessary, may order a child coming under the definition of this chapter, and which is charged with the commission of a misdemeanor, to be prosecuted under the criminal laws of this state as other persons charged with misdemeanors are prosecuted; but no child under sixteen years of age shall be so prosecuted, without such order being first so entered. And, after conviction of such child so prosecuted for a misdemeanor, the court shall have full power to stay the execution of such judgment, and to release such child on good behavior or other such orders as the court may see fit to make. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2200. District court may order dismissal of felony prosecution of person under sixteen, and committed to juvenile court, etc., after conviction may suspend judgment and release, etc.—Whenever it shall appear to the district court of this state that any person being prosecuted in such court for a felony is a child under sixteen years of age, such court shall have authority to order such prosecution dismissed and to order such child to be committed to the juvenile court of the county in which such district court is being held, for such action and disposition as said juvenile court may think proper in the premises. Or the said district court may, after conviction on trial of such child, suspend judgment and order the defendant released on good behavior, or such other orders as, in the judgment of such district court, would be for the best interest of said child. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2201. This chapter to be liberally construed in interest of child and its reformation.—This chapter shall be liberally construed, to the end that its purposes may be carried out; that is, that the interests of the child and its reformation shall, at all times, be the object in view of proceeding against it; provided, that no costs or expenses incurred in the enforcement of this chapter shall be paid by the state. [Id. sec. 10.]

Article 2221. [1524] [1501] Seal of the court and its use.—The said criminal district court in each of said counties of Galveston and Harris shall have a seal similar to the seal of the district court, with the words “Criminal District Court of —— County” engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other process except subpoenas issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of all official acts of the clerks of said court. [Act July 23, 1870, p. 37, sec. 3. P. D. 6137.]

Art. 2222. [1525] [1502] Terms of the court.—Said judge shall hold a term of court in the city of Galveston, county of Galveston, on the first Monday in the months of November, February, May and July of each year, and may continue for four weeks, unless the business of said court be sooner disposed of. Said judge shall hold a term of said court in the city of Houston, county of Harris, on the first Monday in the months of September, December and March of each year; and said terms of said court may continue eight weeks, or until the business thereof is disposed of; and said judge shall also hold a term of said court in the city of Houston, Harris county, on the first Monday in the month of June of each year, which term may continue for four weeks, unless the business of said court be sooner disposed of. [Acts 1903, p. 26. Acts 1909, S. S., p. 283.]

Art. 2223. [1526] [1503] Rules of practice, pleading and evidence.—The practice in the said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice of the district court; and the rules of pleading and evidence in the district courts shall govern. [Id. sec. 5. P. D. 6139.]

Art. 2224. [1527] [1504] Selection, etc., of juries.—All laws regulating the selection, summoning and impaneling of grand and petit juries in the district court shall govern the criminal district court, so far as the same may be applicable. [Id. sec. 11. P. D. 6245.]

Art. 2225. [1528] [1505] Procedure.—All the rules of criminal procedure governing the district court shall apply to, and govern, said criminal district court.

Art. 2226. [1529] [1506] Sheriffs shall attend upon the court.—The sheriffs of said counties of Galveston and Harris shall attend upon said court for their respective counties, and shall receive the same fees for their services as they are entitled to by law for the same services in the district court. [Id. sec. 12. P. D. 6146.]

Art. 2227. [1530] [1507] Same power as district court.—In all matters over which said criminal district court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power as is conferred by law upon the district court, and shall be governed by the same rules in the exercise of such power.

Art. 2228. [1531] [1508] Appeals from.—Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said criminal district court to the court of criminal appeals, in the same manner and form as from the district court in like cases.

Article 2229. [1531a] Dallas criminal district court created; jurisdiction.—There is hereby created and established at the city of Dallas a criminal district court, which shall have and exercise all the criminal jurisdiction heretofore vested in and exercised by the district courts of Dallas county. All appeals from the judgments of said court shall be to the court of criminal appeals, under the same regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for appeals in criminal cases from district courts. [Acts of 1893, p. 118.]

Art. 2230. [1531b] Dallas county district courts to have no criminal jurisdiction.—The district courts of Dallas county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 2231. [1531c] Judge; qualifications, election, etc.—The judge of said criminal district court shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of a judge of the district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter, be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges in criminal cases. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of the judge, a special judge may be selected, elected, or appointed, as provided by law in cases of district judges. [Id.]

Art. 2232. [1531d] Seal of the court and its use.—Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court of Dallas County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments, and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible. [Id.]

Art. 2233. [1531e] Sheriff, clerk and county attorney to serve, etc.—The sheriff, the county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, county attorney, and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court, under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks in the district courts of the state; and said sheriff, county attorney, and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the state, to be paid in the same manner. [Id.] *

Art. 2234. [1531f] Terms of the court and grand juries.—Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of January, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, and one term beginning the first Monday of October. A grand jury shall be impaneled in said court for each term thereof; and jury commissioners shall be appointed for drawing jurors for said court, as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under like rules and regulations. [Id.]

Art. 2235. [1531g] Practice in.—The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice, and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts.

Article 2241. [1537] [1514] Certain powers of the court specified.—The said courts shall have power, and it shall be their duty:

1. To lay off their respective counties into precincts, not less than four nor more than eight, for the election of justices of the peace, and constables, and shall fix the times and places of holding the various justices' courts in their counties, and shall establish places in such precincts where elections shall be held, also shall establish justices' precincts and justices' courts for unorganized counties, as provided by law.

2. To establish public ferries whenever the public interest may require.

3. To lay out and establish, change and discontinue public roads and highways.

4. To build bridges and keep the same in repair.

5. To appoint road overseers and apportion hands.

6. To exercise general control and superintendence over all roads, highways, ferries and bridges in their counties.

7. To provide and keep in repair court houses, jails and all necessary public buildings.

8. To audit, adjust and settle all accounts against the county and direct their payment, and to audit, adjust and settle all accounts and claims in favor of the county.

9. To provide for the support of paupers, and such idiots and lunatics as can not be admitted into the lunatic asylum, residents of their counties, who are unable to support themselves.

10. To provide for the burial of paupers.

11. To punish contempt by fine of not to exceed twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed twenty-four hours, and, in case of fine, the party may be held in custody until the fine is paid.

12. To issue all such notices, citations, writs and process as may be necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties imposed upon such court, and to enforce its jurisdiction. [Acts 1885, p. 89. Acts 1876, p. 51. Const., art. 5, sec. 18. Acts 1897, p. 210.]

Art. 2242. [1538] Power to levy taxes.—Said court shall have the power to levy and collect a tax for county purposes, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to supplement the jury fund of the county, and not to exceed fifteen cents for roads and bridges on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment to the constitution, September 25, A. D. 1883; and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, water works and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year, and except as in the constitution otherwise provided; provided, however, the court may levy an additional tax for road purposes not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation, under the limitations and in the manner provided for in article 8, section 9, of the constitution, and in pursuance of the laws relating thereto. [Const., art. 8, sec. 9. Amendment 1899. Acts 1907, p. 40.]

Art. 2243. [1539] [1516] Certain tax shall not exceed, etc.—No tax levied for the purpose of paying debts incurred prior to the eighteenth day of April, A. D., 1876 shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar, and no tax levied for the erection or repair of public buildings shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar for any one year. [Const., art. 8, sec. 9. Amendment 1899.]

Art. 2244. [1540] [1517] Tax shall not be levied, except, etc.—No county tax shall be levied except at a regular term of the court, and when all the members of said court are present. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2245. [1541] [1518] Power to fill certain vacancies.—The said court shall have power to fill vacancies in the following named county offices, viz.: County judge, clerk of the county court, sheriff, county attorney, county treasurer, county surveyor, county hide inspector, assessor of taxes, collector of taxes, justices of the peace and constables.

Art. 2246. [1542] [1519] How vacancy shall be filled, etc.—Such vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of said court present and voting, and the person chosen to fill any vacancy shall hold the office until the next general election.

Art. 2247. [1543] [1520] Shall send indigent sick to hospital, when.—In case there is a regular established public hospital in the county, the commissioners' court shall provide for sending the indigent sick of the county to such hospital; and, if more than one such hospital exists in the county, the indigent patient shall have the right to select which one of them he shall be sent to. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 2248. [1544] Commissioners' court may designate health districts of unincorporated towns.—The commissioners' court of any county in which an unincorporated town or village may be situated shall have power to designate the lines of such town or village, and may appoint a board of health for such town, consisting of three persons, not less than two of whom shall be regular practicing physicians. Said court, when such appointments are made, shall immediately notify the state health officer. [Acts 1899, p. 306. Acts 1889, p. 139. Acts 1901, S. S., p. 29.]

Art. 2249. [1545] Proceedings after health districts designated.—After the appointment provided for in the foregoing article, said board shall elect one of their number as presiding officer; and it shall be the duty of such presiding officer, if the premises of any citizen residing within the prescribed limits of said town or village are in an unclean or unhealthy condition, to notify him of the fact, and that he must proceed at once to clean the same. [Id. Const., art. 8, sec. 9. Amendment 1889.]

Art. 2250. [1546] Failure to comply with notice provided for in preceding article unlawful.—Any person living in the prescribed limits of said town or village, having received the notice provided for in the foregoing article and failing to comply therewith, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided for in the Penal Code. [Id.]

Art. 2251. [1547] May co-operate with cities and towns in sanitary regulations.—The municipal authorities of towns and cities, and commissioners' courts of the counties wherein such towns and cities are situated, may co-operate with each other in making such improvements connected with said towns, cities and counties as may be deemed by said authorities and courts necessary to improve the public health and to promote efficient sanitary regulations; and, by mutual arrangement, they may provide for the construction of said improvements and the payment therefor. [Acts of 1879, p. 9.]

Art. 2252. [1547a] May construct bridges in corporate limits.—Whenever the commissioners' court of any county shall deem it to the interest of the county to erect any bridge or bridges within the corporate limits of any city or town, said court may make contracts therefor, and erect said bridges to the same extent and under the same conditions now prescribed by law for the construction of bridges outside of the limits of any city or town. [Acts of 1895, p. 164.]

Art. 2253. [1547b] May co-operate with cities in such construction.—If said commissioners' court and the city council of any city or town desire to co-operate in the erection of a bridge within the corporate limits of any city or town, they may jointly erect such bridge upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon; and either or both of the city and county may issue its bonds to pay for its proportional part of the debt; provided, that no such contract shall be made or entered into or bonds issued under the provisions of this law, unless a proposition therefor shall be submitted to the property taxpaying voters of the county at an election to be held by virtue of an order of the commissioners' court for the purpose, and a majority of such voters shall vote at such election in favor of such proposition; and the same laws governing other elections shall govern said election, canvass and return, and the county judge of said county shall declare by proclamation the result thereof by publication in some newspaper in said county. [Id.]

Art. 2254. [1547c] May issue bonds for such bridge purposes.—And, for the purposes herein mentioned, counties in this state may execute and issue its bonds, in the manner, under the conditions and to the same extent as they are now, or may be hereafter, authorized to issue for the erection of bridges outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns. [Id.]

Art. 2255. [1547d] Bridges in cities and towns, shall keep in repair.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts of counties owning bridges, situated within the corporate limits of cities and towns, to keep the same in repair in the same manner as they are required by law to keep such bridges as are not so situated within the limits of a city or town; provided, that this article shall not be held to affect or diminish the liability of town and city corporations for injuries caused by the defective condition of such bridges situated within the city limits. [Acts 1897, p. 212.]

[Note.—For power of commissioners in reference to condemnation for opening, etc., streets in unincorporated towns, etc., see art. 1069.]

Art. 2256. Stationery, etc., may contract for.—The commissioners' court of each and every county may, by an order entered of record, be authorized and empowered to contract, as hereafter prescribed, with some suitable person or persons to supply the county with all blank books, all legal blanks and all stationery of every kind and description, as may be required by law to be furnished the county officials. [Acts 1907, p. 252.]

Art. 2257. Bids to be advertised for, how.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to advertise, at least once in every two years, for sealed proposals to furnish said blank books, legal blanks, all stationery and such other printing as may be required for the county for the term of such contract. Said advertisement shall be made by the county clerk, who shall notify, by registered letter, each newspaper published and each job printing house in the county, and at least three stationery and printing houses in the state, of the time said contract is to be awarded, and of the probable amount of supplies needed. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2258. Contract to be declared null and new bids advertised for, when.—Should supplies, when furnished by the successful bidder under this chapter, not be of the quality designated in the contract and bond hereafter provided for, then, and in any such event, the commissioners' court may declare such contract null and void, and at the next regular or call session of said court again advertise for sealed proposals as in the first instance; and the commissioners' court shall have the right to again advertise for proposals as often and whenever from any cause supplies are not received under the previous contract. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2259. May reject any and all bids.—The commissioners' court shall have the right to reject any and all bids. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2260. Preference to citizen, etc., of county, when.—All bids being equal and quality the same, every contract must be awarded to a citizen or taxpayer of the county in which the contract is let. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2261. May receive separate bids.—The commissioners' court may receive separate bids for the several classes herein mentioned. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2262. Stationery to be classified.—The stationery shall be divided into four classes: Class "A" shall embrace all blank books and all work requiring permanent and substantial binding. Class "B" shall embrace all legal blanks, letter heads and other printing, stationery and blank papers. Class "C" shall embrace typewriter ribbons, pens, ink, mucilage, pencils, penholders, ink stands and wares of like kind. Class "D," poll tax receipts and all election supplies of whatever nature and description, not furnished by the state. Each and every bid shall be upon some particular class, separate and apart from any other class. To the lowest bidder on class "A" shall be awarded the contract for all work of that class; to the lowest bidder on articles in class "B" shall be awarded the contract for supplying the articles embraced in that class; to the lowest bidder for articles in class "C" shall be awarded the contract for supplying articles in that class; and to the lowest bidder for articles in class "D" shall be awarded the contract for supplying articles in that class. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2263. Bond with bid, requisites of bond.—Each bid shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that, should the contract be awarded to him, that he will, without delay, upon being notified of such award, enter into a written contract, according to the law and with his proposal, and will give bond as may be required, for the faithful performance of said contract. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2264. No commissioner or other officer to be interested in contract.—No member of the commissioners' court or any county officer shall be, either directly or indirectly, interested in any such contract. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2265. Contracts to be made in open court, with lowest bidder; bids to be spread on minutes.—All contracts shall be made in open court, with the lowest bidder, and all bids shall be spread in full on the minutes of the court. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2266. Contracts in writing, etc.; amount of bond, sureties, conditions, etc.—The successful bidder or bidders shall enter into a written contract with the court, and shall give bond in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, for each class or contract; said contract shall be signed by the successful bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, and shall be conditioned for the faithful compliance with his bid and with the law, and shall be made payable to the county judge or his successors in office. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2267. Suit on bond, venue of.—Any suit on the bond of any contractor or bidder for failure to comply with the conditions of his contract shall be brought in the court having lawful jurisdiction of the amount alleged, in the county which is a party to the contract. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2268. Affidavit that bidder is not member of a trust, etc.—Attached to every bid made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be an affidavit by the manager, secretary or other agent or officer of the bidder, to the effect that affiant has knowledge of the relations of the bidder with the other firms in the same line of business and that the bidder is not a member of any trust, pool or combination of any kind and has not been, for the six months last past, directly or indirectly concerned in any pool or agreement or combination to control the price of supplies bid on, or to influence any person to bid or not to bid thereon. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2269. Commissioners may repeal order, when.—The commissioners' court of each county may, by order of record after contracts have been in force for the time specified in such contract, repeal said order. [Id. sec. 7a.]

Art. 2270. [1548] [1521] May provide building, etc., for county court.—Said courts may, when necessary, provide buildings, rooms or apartments at the county seats, other than the court house, for holding the sessions of the county courts. [Act Aug. 19, 1876, p. 211.]

Art. 2271. [1550] [1523] Duty as to school lands.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to provide for the protection, preservation and disposition of all lands heretofore granted, or that may hereafter be granted, to the county for education or schools. [Const., art. 7, sec. 6.]

Art. 2272. [1551] [1524] Shall provide seals for the district and county courts.—Said court shall provide the seals required by law for the district and county courts of their respective counties.

Art. 2273. [1549] [1522] Other powers, etc., of the court.—Said courts shall have all such other powers and jurisdiction, and shall perform all such other duties, as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law.

Article 2283. [1560] [1533] Justices, election, bond and term of office.—There shall be elected by the qualified voters of each justice's precinct in the several counties of this state, at each biennial election, one justice of the peace, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall enter into bond, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties required of him by law, and that he will promptly pay over to the party entitled to receive it all moneys that may come into his hand during his term of office. This law shall apply to all justices of the peace appointed by the county commissioners' court. [Acts of 1885, p. 90.]

Art. 2284. [1561] Appointed, how, in unorganized counties.—The county commissioners' courts of the several counties in this state to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have and are hereby given power to appoint a justice of the peace and a constable for each of the unorganized counties attached to said county for judicial purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the law now in force authorizing such appointments in organized counties. [Acts of 1879, p. 89.]

Art. 2285. [1562] Additional justices of the peace for unorganized counties.—Whenever, in any unorganized county of the state of Texas, a necessity may exist for the appointment of more than one justice of the peace and constable for such county, and such fact is made known and set forth in a petition signed by one hundred qualified voters of said county, addressed to the county commissioners' court of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, asking the appointment of such officers, it shall be the duty of such commissioners' court to lay off and designate as many justices' precincts in such unorganized county as may be necessary, not exceeding four, and such commissioners' court shall have and is hereby empowered to appoint one justice of the peace and one constable for each justice's precinct in such unorganized county, in accordance with the provisions of the law now in force authorizing such appointments in organized counties; and such justices' precincts shall be and they are hereby constituted election precincts in such unorganized county. [Acts of 1885, p. 88.]

Art. 2286. [1563] [1534] Two justices in certain precincts.—Where, in any justice's precinct, there may be a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, there shall be elected two justices of the peace. [Id.]

Art. 2287. [1564] [1535] Commission and qualification.—Each justice of the peace shall be commissioned as justice of the peace of his precinct and ex officio notary public of his county, and shall take the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and give the bond prescribed by law. [Const., art. 4, sec. 20. Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 165, sec. 28.]

Art. 2288. [1565] [1536] Vacancy, how filled.—Where any vacancy shall occur in the office of a justice of the peace, the same shall be filled by some person appointed by the commissioners' court of the county, who shall hold his office until the next general election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. [Const., art. 6, sec. 28. Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 165, sec. 2.]

Art. 2289. [1566] [1537] Nearest justice to hold court, when.—During the period of such vacancy, or whenever the justice of the peace in any precinct shall be absent, or unable or unwilling to perform the duties of his office, the nearest justice of the peace in the county may perform the duties of the office until such vacancy shall be filled, or such absence, inability or unwillingness shall cease. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 164, sec. 25.]

Art. 2290. [1567] [1538] Justice disqualified, when.—No justice of the peace shall sit in any cause where he may be interested, or where he may be related to either party within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, pp. 164, 165, sec. 24.]

POWERS AND JURISDICTION.

	Article.		Article.
Jurisdiction in civil cases.....	2291	Other jurisdiction conferred by law.....	2295
To enter forfeitures of bail bonds.....	2292	No jurisdiction in certain cases.....	2296
To punish contempts.....	2293	To proceed with unfinished business.....	2297
To issue writs of garnishment, etc.....	2294

Article 2291. [1568] [1539] Jurisdiction in civil cases.—The courts of justices of the peace shall, in addition to the powers and duties elsewhere provided for, have and exercise original jurisdiction in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the district or county courts, and of all cases of forcible entry and detainer. They shall also have power to foreclose mortgages and enforce liens on personal property, where the amount in controversy is within their jurisdiction, as above provided. [Const., art. 5, sec. 19. Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 155, secs. 3, 4.]

Art. 2292. [1569] [1540] To enter forfeitures of bail bonds.—Justices of the peace shall also have power to enter forfeitures of bail bonds given for the appearance of parties or witnesses in their courts, and to render judgments thereon without regard to the amount of such bond. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2293. [1570] [1541] To punish for contempts.—They shall have power to punish any party guilty of a contempt of court by fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars and by imprisonment not exceeding one day. [Id.]

Art. 2294. [1571] [1542] To issue writs of garnishment, etc.—They shall have the same power in cases within their jurisdiction as judges and clerks of the district and county courts have to issue writs of attachment, garnishment and sequestration. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 2295. [1572] [1543] Other jurisdiction conferred by law.—They shall also have and exercise jurisdiction over all other matters not hereinbefore enumerated that are, or may be, cognizable before a justice of the peace under any law of this state. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 155, sec. 3.]

Art. 2296. [1573] [1544] No jurisdiction in certain cases.—Justices' courts have no jurisdiction of suits in behalf of the state to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats, of suits for divorce, of suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, suits for the trial of title to land, or of suits for the enforcement of liens on land. [Const., art. 5, sec. 8.]

Art. 2297. [1574] [1545] To proceed with unfinished business.—Every justice of the peace shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to proceed with all unfinished business of his office in like manner as if such business had been originally commenced before him. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 157, sec. 6.]

Article 2302. [1579] [1550] Justice's docket.—It shall be the duty of every justice of the peace to keep a civil docket, in which he shall enter—

1. The title of all suits commenced before him.
2. The time when the first process was issued against the defendant, when returnable, and the nature thereof.
3. The time when the parties, or either of them, appeared before him, either with or without citation.
4. A brief statement of the nature of the plaintiff's demand or claim, and the amount claimed, and a brief statement of the nature of the defense made by the defendant, if any.
5. Every adjournment, stating at whose request and to what time.
6. The time when the trial was had, stating whether the same was by a jury or by the justice.
7. The verdict of the jury, if any.
8. The judgment rendered by the justice, and the time of rendering the same.
9. All applications for setting aside judgment or granting new trials, and the order of the justice thereon, with the date thereof.
10. The time of issuing execution, to whom directed and delivered, and the amount of debt, damages and costs; and, when any execution is returned, he shall note such return on said docket, with the manner in which it was executed.
11. All stays and appeals that may be taken, and the time when taken, the amount of the bond and the name of the sureties. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 156, sec. 5.]

Art. 2303. [1580] [1551] Fee book.—He shall also keep a fee book in which shall be taxed all costs accruing in every suit commenced before him. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 2304. [1581] [1552] Other books.—He shall also keep such other dockets, books and records as may be required by law.

Art. 2305. [1582] [1553] Custody of books, papers, etc.—Each justice of the peace shall arrange and safely keep the dockets, books and papers transmitted to him by his predecessors, and all papers filed in any case in his court, subject at all reasonable times to the inspection of any party interested therein.

Art. 2306. [1583] [1554] Books and papers to be delivered to successor.—When a justice of the peace shall vacate his office, it shall be his duty to deliver up to his successor all dockets, books and papers pertaining to his said office; and it shall be the duty of any person having possession of dockets, books or papers belonging to the office of any justice of the peace, to deliver the same over to such justice on demand. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 156, sec. 6.]

Art. 2307. [1584] [1555] Delivery of, may be enforced.—Should any person, having such dockets, books or papers, refuse to deliver the same on such demand, he may, upon motion, be attached and imprisoned by order of the county judge in term time or in vacation, until he shall make such delivery; but such motion shall be supported by affidavit, and three days' notice thereof shall be given to the party against whom such motion is made. [Id.]

Article 2308. [1585] [1556] Suits to be brought in the county of defendant's residence, except, etc.—Every suit in the court of a justice of the peace shall be commenced in the county and precinct in which the defendant, or one or more of the several defendants, resides, except in the following cases and such other cases as are or may be provided by law:

1. Cases of forcible entry and detainer must be brought in the precinct where the premises, or a part thereof, are situated.

2. Suits against executors, administrators and guardians as such must be brought in the county in which such administration or guardianship is pending, and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

3. Suits against counties must be brought in such county and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

In the following cases the suit may, at the plaintiff's option, be brought either in the county and precinct of the defendant's residence, or in that provided in each exception:

4. Suits upon a contract in writing promising performance at any particular place, may be brought in the county and precinct in which such contract was to be performed.

5. Suits for the recovery of rents may be brought in the county and precinct in which the rented premises, or a part thereof, are situated.

6. Suits for damages for torts may be brought in the county and precinct in which the injury was inflicted.

7. Suits against transient persons may be brought in any county and precinct where such defendant is to be found.

8. Suits against non-residents of the state, or persons whose residence is unknown, may be brought in the county and precinct where the plaintiff resides.

9. Suits for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county and precinct in which the property may be.

10. Suits against private corporations, associations and joint stock companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which the cause of action or a part thereof arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated.

11. Suits against railroad and canal companies, or the owners of any line of mail stages or coaches, for any injury to person or property upon the road, canal or line of stages or coaches of the defendant, or upon any liability as a carrier, may be brought in any precinct through which the road, canal or line of stages or coaches may pass, or in any precinct where the route of such railroad, canal, stages or coaches may begin or terminate.

12. Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may also be brought in any county and precinct in which any part of the insured property was situated; and suits against life and accident insurance companies or associations may also be brought in the county and precinct in which the persons insured, or any of them, resided at the time of such death or injury.

13. Suits against the owners of a steamboat or other vessel may be brought in any county or precinct where such steamboat or vessel may be found, or where the cause of action arose or the liability was contracted or accrued. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2309. [1586] [1557] Residence of a single man.—The residence of a single man is where he boards. [Id.]

Art. 2310. [1587] [1558] Where two justices in one precinct.—Where, in any precinct, there may be more than one justice of the peace, the suit may be brought before either of them. [Id.]

Art. 2311. [1588] [1559] Where two or more justices in one city or town.—Where, in any incorporated city or town, there may be more than one justice of the peace, suit may be brought before either of them. [Id.]

Art. 2312. [1589] [1560] Where justice is disqualified.—If there be no justice of the peace qualified to try the suit in the proper precinct, the suit may be commenced before the nearest justice of the peace of the county who is not disqualified to try the same. [Id.]

Art. 2313. [1590] [1561] Change of venue on affidavit.—If any party to a suit before any justice of the peace shall make an affidavit, supported by the affidavit of two other credible persons, citizens of the county, to the effect that they have good reason to believe, and do believe, that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such justice or in such justice's precinct, it shall be the duty of such justice to transfer such suit to the court of the nearest justice of the peace within the county not subject to the same or some other disqualification. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2314. [1591] [1562] By consent.—The venue may also be changed to the court of any other justice of the peace of the county, upon the written consent of the parties or their attorneys, filed with the papers of the cause.

Art. 2315. [1592] [1563] When justice is disqualified.—If any justice of the peace shall be disqualified from sitting in any civil case pending, or which may hereafter be brought before him, or should such justice of the peace be sick or absent from the precinct, the parties to said suit may agree upon some person who is qualified to try said case; and, in the event said parties fail to agree upon some person to try said cause at the first term of the court after service is perfect, it shall be the duty of the county judge in whose county said case is pending, upon the application of the justice of the peace in whose court said cause is pending, or upon the application of either party to said suit, to appoint some person who is qualified to try said cause; and the fact of the disqualification of the justice of the peace and the selection by agreement or appointment of some other person to try said cause shall be noted on the docket of said justice in said cause. [Amend. 1895, p. 26.]

Art. 2316. [1593] [1563a] The term "nearest justice" defined.—By the term "nearest justice," as used in this chapter, is meant the justice whose place of holding his court is nearest to that of the justice before whom the proceeding is pending or should have been brought.

Art. 2317. [1594] [1564] Order of transfer.—The order of transfer in such cases shall state the cause of the transfer, and the name of the court to which the transfer is made, and shall require the parties and witnesses to appear before such court in its next ensuing term.

Art. 2318. [1595] [1565] Duty of justice in case of transfer.—When such order of transfer is made, it shall be the duty of the justice who made the order immediately to make out a true and correct transcript of all the entries made on his docket in the cause, and certify thereto officially, and to transmit the same, with a certified copy of the bill of costs taken from his fee book, and the original papers in the cause, to the justice of the precinct to which the same has been transferred.

Article 2321. [1598] [1568] Process of justice's court, requisites of.—Every writ or process from the courts of justices of the peace shall be issued by the justice, and shall be in writing and signed by him officially. The style thereof shall be "The State of Texas." It shall, except where otherwise specially provided by law, be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and shall be made returnable to some regular term of such court; and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 158, sec. 10.]

Art. 2322. [1599] [1569] Citation to be issued, when.—When a claim or demand is lodged with a justice of the peace for suit, it shall be his duty to issue forthwith a writ or citation for the defendant; and, if there be several defendants residing in different counties, one citation shall be issued to each of such counties. [Id.]

Art. 2323. [1600] [1570] Citation shall contain what.—The citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is represented to be, and shall, in addition to the requirements of article 2321, require the officer to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's suit at some regular term of the court, stating the time and place of holding the same. It shall state the names of all the parties to the suit, and the nature of the plaintiff's demand. [Id.]

Art. 2324. [1601] [1571] Justice may depute person to serve process.—The justice of the peace may, in case of an emergency, depute any person of good character to serve any process; and the person so deputed shall, for such purpose, have all the authority of a sheriff or constable; but in every such case the justice shall indorse on the process a statement in writing, signed by him officially, to the effect that he has deputed such person to serve such process; and such person shall also take and subscribe an affidavit, to be indorsed on or attached to the process, to the effect that he will, to the best of his ability, execute the same according to law. [Id.]

Art. 2325. [1602] [1572] Rules of district courts, etc., govern as to issuance and service of process.—All the rules governing the issuance and service and the return of citations, issued out of the district and county courts, and providing for acceptance of service, and entering appearance, shall, except where otherwise provided by law, govern also the justices' courts, in so far as they can be applied to the proceedings of said court. [Id.]

Art. 2327. [1604] [1574] Pleadings to be in writing and under oath.—An answer or other pleading setting up any of the following matters shall be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney and verified by affidavit:

1. That the suit is not commenced in the proper county or precinct.
2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
3. That the plaintiff is not entitled to recover in the capacity in which he sues.
4. That there is another suit pending in this state between the same parties for the same cause of action or counter claim.
5. That there is a defect of parties plaintiff or defendant.
6. That the plaintiffs or defendants suing or sued as partners or receiver are not partners or receiver as alleged.
7. That the plaintiff or defendant suing or sued as a corporation is not a corporation as alleged.
8. That a written instrument purporting to be signed by him and relied on by the other party was not executed by him or by his authority.

9. That the indorsement or assignment of a written instrument pleaded by the adverse party was not executed by the party by whom it purports to have been executed, or by his authority.

10. That a written instrument pleaded by the adverse party is without consideration, or that the consideration of the same has failed, in whole or in part.

11. That an account pleaded by the adverse party, and duly verified by affidavit, as provided in article 3712, is not just; and, in such case, the answer shall set forth the items and particulars which are unjust.

12. That the contract sued upon is usurious. [Acts of 1891, p. 85.]

Art. 2328. [1605] [1575] Pleadings amendable.—The pleadings may be amended in accordance with the rules governing amendments of pleadings in the district and county courts, so far as the same are applicable.

Article 2330. [1607] [1577] Appearance day.—The first day of each term of the justice's court after the return of process duly served in any cause shall be appearance day; but where the service was made by publication the first day of the second term after such publication shall be appearance day. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2331. [1608] [1578] Proceedings where defendant fails to appear.—If the defendant who has been duly served with a citation shall fail to appear at, or before, ten o'clock a. m., on appearance day, the justice shall proceed in the following manner:

1. If the plaintiff's cause of action be liquidated and proved by an instrument of writing purporting to have been executed by the defendant, or be upon an open account duly verified by affidavit, the justice shall, whether the plaintiff appear or not, render judgment in his favor against the defendant for the amount of such written obligation or sworn account, after deducting all credits indorsed thereon.

2. If the plaintiff's cause of action is not so liquidated, and the plaintiff appears in person or by agent or attorney, the justice shall proceed to hear the testimony; and, if it shall appear therefrom that the plaintiff is entitled to recover, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for such amount as the testimony shows the plaintiff entitled to; otherwise, judgment shall be rendered for the defendant. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2332 [1609] [1579] Appearance noted.—If the defendant appear, the same shall be noted on the docket, and the cause shall stand for trial in its order.

Art. 2333. [1610] [1580] Jury trial may be demanded.—Either party may demand a jury as hereinafter provided. [Const., art. 1, sec. 15.]

Art. 2334. [1611] [1581] Court shall try case, when.—If neither party shall demand, and be entitled to, a jury trial, the cause shall be tried by the justice without a jury. [Id.]

Art. 2335. [1612] [1582] Call of the non-jury docket.—The docket of cases to be tried by the justice shall be called regularly; and the cases shall be tried when called, unless the same should be continued or postponed to some later period in the term. [Id. sec. 41. R. S. 1879, 1582.]

Art. 2336. [1613] [1583] Plaintiff failing to appear may be non-suited.—If the plaintiff shall fail to appear when the cause is called in its order for trial, the justice may, on motion of the defendant, dismiss the suit. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2337. [1614] [1584] Proceedings, evidence, etc., to conform to rules governing district courts, etc.—Upon a trial before the justice, the proceedings shall conform as near as may be to the rules governing the district and county courts; and all the rules of evidence and the provisions for procuring the attendance of witnesses, for taking the depositions of witnesses and parties, and for taking and determining the exceptions thereto, prescribed for the government of the district and county courts, shall, when not in conflict with the provisions of this title, govern the proceedings in justices' courts, so far as the same may be applicable. [Id. secs. 14, 16.]

Art. 2338. [1615] [1585] Judgment on trial without jury.—After hearing the evidence, the justice trying the case without a jury shall give judgment for the party who may appear to be justly entitled thereto. [Id. sec. 11.]

Article 2339. [1616] [1586] Jury trial may be demanded.—Either party to any suit in the justice's court shall be entitled to a trial by jury, upon making demand therefor and complying with the provisions of this chapter relating thereto. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 159, sec. 11.]

Art. 2340. [1617] [1587] Time of demand and deposit of jury fee.—Either party desiring a jury shall, on or before the first day of the term at which the case is to be tried, make a demand for a jury, which shall be noted by the justice in his docket; and shall also deposit a jury fee of three dollars, which shall also be noted on the docket; and the case shall be set down as a jury case.

Art. 2341. [1618] [1588] Jury trial day to be fixed.—The justice shall, on the first day of the term, fix a day for taking up the jury cases, if any, pending for trial at such term, and he may fix said first day of the term for that purpose.

Art. 2342. [1619] [1589] Summons for jury to be issued, when, etc.—Whenever at any term of a justice's court there may be any jury cases pending for trial, it shall be the duty of the justice to issue a writ directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon six legally qualified jurors, or a greater number, should the justice deem it necessary, to attend as a jury before such justice at a day and place to be named in the writ.

Art. 2343. [1620] [1590] Oath to sheriff, etc., summoning jury.—The justice, on delivering such writ to the officer, shall administer to him the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your skill and ability, and without bias or favor toward any party, summon such jurors as may be ordered by the court; that you will select none but impartial, sensible and sober men, having the qualifications of jurors under the law; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any juryman touching any case pending for trial; and that you will not, by any means, attempt to influence, advise or control any juryman in his opinion in any case which may be tried by him. So help you God." [Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 80, sec. 12.]

Art. 2344. [1621] [1591] Duty of the officer.—The officer receiving such writ shall immediately proceed to execute the command thereof by summoning the required number of jurors to appear before the justice at the day and place named in the writ.

Art. 2345. [1622] [1592] Summons to juror, how served.—Such summons shall be by an oral notice by the officer to the juror that he is required to appear as a juror before such justice at the day and place named.

Art. 2346. [1623] [1593] Venire of jurors to be called.—At the time fixed for taking up the jury cases, the justice shall proceed to call the names of the jurors so summoned.

Art. 2347. [1624] [1594] Excuses for juror.—The court may hear any reasonable excuse of a juror, supported by oath or affirmation, and may excuse him for the trial of any particular case, or for one or more days of the term.

Art. 2348. [1625] [1595] Defaulting jurors to be fined.—When any person, so summoned as a juror, shall fail or refuse to attend, it shall be the duty of the justice to enter a fine nisi against him for an amount not exceeding five dollars, to the use of the county, to be made final, with costs, unless such person shall, after being cited to do so, show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure, to be judged of by the justice.

Art. 2349. [1626] [1596] Other jurors to be summoned when necessary.—If the number of jurors present and not excused be less than six, or less than the justice shall deem necessary, he shall order the sheriff or constable to summon a sufficient number of others, having like qualifications, to make up the required number.

Art. 2350. [1627] [1597] Call of jury docket.—When the required number of jurors is present, the jury cases shall be called in their order on the docket.

Art. 2351. [1628] [1598] Challenge to the array, when.—When the parties to a jury case have announced themselves ready for trial, either party may challenge the array of jurors.

Art. 2352. [1629] [1599] Challenge to the array, how made, and proceedings therein.—The cause of such challenge and the manner of making it, and the decision thereof, and the proceedings, when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts in the title "Juries."

Art. 2353. [1630] [1600] Drawing jury.—If no challenge to the array is made, the justice shall write the name of all the jurors present on separate slips of paper, as nearly alike as may be, and shall place them in a box and mix them well, and shall then draw the names one by one from the box, and write them down as they are drawn, upon several slips of paper, and deliver one slip to each of the parties, or their attorneys. [Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 82, sec. 22.]

Art. 2354. [1631] [1601] Challenge for cause.—If either party desires to challenge any juror for cause, such challenge shall now be made. [Id.]

Art. 2355. [1632] [1602] Challenge for cause, proceedings on, same as in district court, etc.—The causes of such challenge, and the manner of making it, and the decision thereof, and the proceedings, when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts.

Art. 2356. [1633] [1603] Peremptory challenges, when and how made.—When a juror has been challenged for cause, his name shall be erased from the slips furnished to the parties; and, if there be remaining on such slips as many as six names, the parties shall proceed to make their peremptory challenges, if they desire to make any, which shall be governed by the same rules as are prescribed for the district and county courts.

Art. 2357. [1634] [1604] The jury.—When the parties have made their peremptory challenges, or when they decline to make any, they shall deliver their slips to the justice, who shall call off the first six names on the slips that have not been erased, who shall constitute the jury to try the case. The jurors not called shall retire.

Art. 2358. [1635] [1605] When jury is left incomplete.—Where, by peremptory challenges, the jury is left incomplete, the justice shall direct the sheriff or constable to summon others to complete the jury; and the same proceedings shall be had in selecting and impaneling such jurors as are had in the first instance. [Act Aug. 1, 1876, p. 82, sec. 22.]

Art. 2359. [1636] [1606] Jurors to be sworn.—When the jury has been selected, such of them as have not been previously sworn for the trial of civil cases shall be sworn by the justice.

Art. 2360. [1637] [1607] Oath of jurors.—The form of the oath shall be in substance as follows: “You and each of you do solemnly swear that, in all cases between parties which shall be to you submitted, you will a true verdict render, according to the law and the evidence. So help you God.” [P. D. 3984.]

Art. 2361. [1638] [1608] Mode of proceeding on trial before jury same as in district courts, etc.—The mode of proceeding on the trial before the jury shall be the same, so far as applicable, as is prescribed for the district and county courts in the chapters relating thereto, except that the justice shall not deliver any charge to the jury.

Art. 2362. [1639] [1609] Verdict for specific articles, to assess their value separately.—Where the suit is for the recovery of specific articles, the jury shall, if they find for the plaintiff, assess the value of each of such articles separately, according to the proof. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, p. 163, sec. 19.]

Art. 2363. [1640] [1610] Pay of jurors.—Before the verdict is rendered, the justice shall pay to each juror fifty cents out of the jury fee deposited in the case.

Article 2364. [1641] [1611] Judgment upon verdict of jury.—Where the case has been tried by a jury and a verdict has been returned by them, the justice shall announce the same in open court and note it in his docket, and shall proceed to render judgment thereon.

Art. 2365. [1642] [1612] Case tried without a jury, decision in open court.—When the case has been tried by the justice without a jury, he shall announce his decision in open court and note the same in his docket, and shall proceed to render judgment thereon. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2366. [1643] [1613] Judgment.—The judgment shall be recorded at length in the justice’s docket, and shall be signed by such justice. It shall clearly state the determination of the rights of the parties in the subject matter of controversy and the party who shall pay the costs, and shall direct the issuance of such process as may be necessary to carry the judgment into execution.

Art. 2367. [1644] [1614] Costs.—The successful party in the suit shall recover his costs, except in cases where it is otherwise expressly provided. [Id. secs. 11, 14.]

Art. 2368. [1645] [1615] Judgment for specific articles.—Where judgment is for the recovery of specific articles, their value shall be separately assessed.

and the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover such specific articles, if they can be found, and if not, then their value as assessed, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent from the date of the judgment. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2369. [1646] [1616] Court may, in certain cases, enforce judgment by attachment, fine, etc.—The court shall cause its judgments to be carried into execution, and where the judgment is for personal property, and the verdict, if any, that such property has an especial value to the plaintiff, the court may award a special writ for the seizure and delivery of such property to the plaintiff, and may, in addition to the other relief granted in such case, enforce its judgment by attachment, fine and imprisonment. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 200, sec. 17. P. D. 1420.]

Art. 2370. [1647] [1617] No judgment without citation, unless.—No judgment, other than judgment by confession, shall be rendered by the justice of the peace against any party who has not entered an appearance or accepted service, unless such party has been cited either personally or by publication, or been served by the notice to serve a non-resident provided for in article 1869 of these statutes; which said article 1869 is now made applicable to the justices courts. [Acts 1876, p. 163. Acts 1870, p. 87. Acts 1909, p. 89. P. D. 6341.]

Art. 2371. [1648] [1618] Confession of judgment.—Any party may appear in person, or by an agent or attorney, before any justice of the peace, without the issuance or service of process, and confess judgment for any amount within the jurisdiction of the justice's courts; and such judgment shall be entered on the justice's docket, as in other cases; but, in such cases, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make and file an affidavit in writing, signed by him, to the justness of his claim. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2372. [1649] [1619] Warrant of attorney to be filed.—Where such judgment is confessed by an agent or attorney, the warrant of attorney shall be filed with the justice and noted in the judgment. [P. D. 1477.]

Art. 2373. [1650] [1620] Same rules as govern district courts, etc.—The rules governing the district and county courts in relation to judgments shall apply also to the justices' courts, in so far as they may not conflict with some provisions of this title. [R. S. 1879, 1620.]

Article 2374. [1651] [1621] Judgments by default, etc., may be set aside.—Any justice of the peace shall have power, at any time within ten days after the rendition of a judgment by default or of dismissal, to set aside such judgment, on motion in writing, for good cause shown, supported by affidavit. Notice of such motion shall be given to the opposite party at least one full day prior to the hearing thereof. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2375. [1652] [1622] New trials may be granted.—Any justice of the peace may, at any time within ten days after the rendition of any other judgment in any suit tried before him, grant a new trial therein on motion in writing, showing that justice has not been done him in the trial of the cause. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2376. [1653] [1623] Motion to be sworn to, except, etc.—If the grounds of the motion be other than that the verdict or judgment is contrary to the law or the evidence, or that the justice erred in some matter of law, the motion shall be supported by affidavit. [Id.]

Art. 2377. [1654] [1624] Notice.—All motions to set aside a judgment, or to grant a new trial, under the two preceding articles, shall be made within five days after the rendition of the judgment, and one day's notice thereof shall be given to the opposite party or his attorney. [Id. secs. 19, 17.]

Art. 2378. [1655] [1625] Where motion granted, cause continued, unless, etc.—Where a judgment is set aside, or a new trial is granted, the cause shall be continued to the next regular term of the court, unless otherwise agreed by the parties with the consent of the justice. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2379. [1656] [1626] But one new trial to either party.—But one such new trial shall be granted to either party. [Id.]

Article 2380. [1657] [1627] Judgments enforced by execution, etc.—The judgments of the courts of justices of the peace shall be enforced by execution or other appropriate process.

Art. 2381. [1658] [1628] Execution.—Such execution or other process shall conform to the requirements of article 2321. It shall describe the judgment and shall require the sheriff or constable of the proper county to execute the same, according to its terms, whether the same be to make a sum of money, or to deliver personal property, or to deliver possession of real estate, or to do some other thing; and, if for money, it shall state the rate of interest; and it shall also require the officer to make the costs which may have been adjudged against the defendant in execution, and the further costs of executing the writ. A certified copy of the costs, taxed against the defendant in execution according to the fee book up to the issuance of the execution, shall be attached to the writ.

Art. 2382. [1659] [1629] Returnable in sixty days.—Such execution or other process shall be returnable in sixty days. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 2383. [1660] [1630] Taxation of costs.—Within ten days after the rendition of any final judgment of the justice's court, it shall be the duty of the justice to tax up the costs in such suit, and to enter the same in his fee book.

Art. 2384. [1661] [1631] Execution to issue after ten days.—On the eleventh day after the rendition of any final judgment, if the case has not been appealed, and no stay of execution has been granted, it shall be the duty of the justice to issue an execution for the enforcement of such judgment and the collection of the costs. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 2385. [1662] [1632] Within the ten days, when.—Such execution may be issued at any time before the eleventh day, upon the filing of an affidavit by the plaintiff in the judgment, or his agent or attorney, to the effect that the defendant is about to remove his property out of the county, or is about to transfer or secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. [Id.]

Art. 2386. [1663] [1633] Issued to another county to be attested by clerk.—Where an execution from a justice's court is sent to a county other than that in which the judgment was rendered, it shall be accompanied by a certificate of the county clerk, and attested by his official signature and seal of office that the officer issuing the same is an acting justice of the peace in said county; and the cost of procuring such certificate shall be collected as a part of the costs of executing the writ. [Act Jan. 27, 1842, p. 51, sec. 13. P. D. 3784.]

Art. 2387. [1664] [1634] Dormant judgments, etc.—If no execution is issued within twelve months after the rendition of the judgment, the judgment shall become dormant, and no execution shall issue thereon, unless such judgment be revived; but where the first execution has issued within the twelve months, the judgment shall not become dormant unless ten years shall have elapsed between the issuance of executions thereon, and execution may issue at any time within ten years after the issuance of the preceding execution. [Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 118, secs. 1, 3. P. D. 7005, 7007.]

Art. 2388. [1665] [1635] The rules governing executions generally apply, except, etc.—The rules prescribed for the issuance, levy and return of executions shall apply to the justices' courts where not in conflict with some provision of this chapter. [Act Aug. 17, 1876, sec. 22.]

CHAPTER SIXTEEN.

STAY OF EXECUTION.

	Article.		Article.
Stay of execution.....	2389	Judgment and execution on.....	2390

Article 2389. [1666] [1636] Stay of execution.—At any time within ten days after the rendition of any judgment in a court of a justice of the peace, such justice may grant a stay of execution thereon for three months from the date of such judgment, if the person against whom such judgment was rendered shall, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, appear before him and acknowledge themselves and each of them bound to the successful party in such judgment for the full amount thereof, with interest and costs, which acknowledgment shall be entered in writing on the docket, and signed by the persons binding themselves as sureties; provided, no such stay of execution shall be granted, unless the party applying therefor shall first file with the justice an affidavit in writing that he has not the money with which to pay such judgment, and that the enforcement of same by execution prior to three months would be a hardship upon him, and would cause a sacrifice of his property which would not likely be caused should said execution be stayed. [Acts of 1887, p. 10.]

Art. 2390. [1667] [1637] Judgment and execution on.—Such acknowledgment shall be entered by the justice in his docket, and shall constitute a judgment against the defendant and such sureties, upon which execution shall issue in case the same is not paid on or before the expiration of such day. [Id.]

Taken to district court, when.....	2392	Duty of justice in case of appeal.....	2396
Notice, bond and other proceedings on appeal	2393	Transcript, etc., to be transmitted to county court	2397
Affidavit of inability to give bond.....	2394

Article 2391. [1668] [1638] Appeal may be taken.—Any party to a final judgment in the justice's court may appeal therefrom to the county court where such judgment, or the amount in controversy, shall exceed twenty dollars exclusive of costs, and in such other cases as may be expressly provided by law. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 2392. [1669] Taken to district court, when.—In all counties in which the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county courts has been transferred to the district courts, appeals and writs of certiorari may be prosecuted to remove a case tried before a justice of the peace to the district court, in the same manner and under the same circumstances under which appeals and writs of certiorari are allowed by general law to remove causes to the county court.

Art. 2393. [1670] [1639] Notice, bond and other proceedings on appeal.—The party appealing, his agent or attorney, shall within ten days from the date of the judgment, file with the justice a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, in double the amount of the judgment, payable to the appellee, conditioned that the appellant shall prosecute his appeal to effect, and shall pay off and satisfy the judgment which may be rendered against him on such appeal. When such bond has been filed with the justice, the appeal shall be held to be thereby perfected; but if, upon the call of the docket upon appearance day in the court to which the appeal is taken, the appellee fails to appear in person, or by attorney, the case shall be continued, unless it is shown to the court that notice of the appeal has been given as hereinafter provided; and no judgment by default shall, at any time, be rendered against an appellee whose appearance has not been entered in the case, unless and until it is made to appear to the court that notice in writing of such appeal has been served upon the appellee, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the first day of the term at which such judgment by default is sought to be taken. Such notice may be signed by the clerk of the court, or by the appellant, his agent or attorney, and may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county, or by any other person competent to make oath of the fact; and the service shall be made by the delivery of a copy thereof to the appellee, his agent or attorney; and such service shall be evidenced by the return thereon of the officer executing the same, or by the oath of such other competent person indorsed thereon and filed with the papers in the case. [Acts of 1883, p. 91.]

Art. 2394. [1671] [1639a] Affidavit of inability to give bond.—Where the appellant is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or to give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but, in order to do so, he shall be required to make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides, or before the court trying the same, at any time within ten days from and after the date of the judgment rendered therein, and shall consist of the affidavit of said party stating his inability to pay the costs; which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the court trying the case, or the justice of the peace of the precinct in which said case was tried, or the county judge of the county in which the suit is pending, to hear evidence and to determine the right of the party to his appeal. [Acts of 1887, p. 113.]

Art. 2395. [1672] [1639b] When appeal perfected on affidavit.—When the bond, or the affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed, and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal shall be held to be perfected. [Id.]

Art. 2396. [1673] [1640] Duty of justice in case of appeal.—Whenever an appeal has been granted from the justice's court to the county court, it shall be the duty of the justice who made the order immediately to make out a true and correct copy of all the entries made on his docket in the cause, and certify thereto officially, and transmit the same, together with a certified copy of the bill of costs taken from his fee book, and the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court of his county. [Id.]

[Note.—As to amendment of appeal bond, etc., see article 2104.]

Art. 2397. [1674] [1641] Transcript, etc., to be transmitted to county court.—Such transcript and papers shall, if practicable, be transmitted to the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of the next term of such court; but, if there be not time to make out and transmit the same to the first term, they may be so transmitted on or before the first day of the second term of the court. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

	Article.		Article.
Certiorari to remove cause to county court	2398	Rules governing district courts, etc., to apply, except, etc.	2400
Duty of justice on service of writ.	2399

Article 2398. [1675] [1642] Certiorari to remove cause to county court.—Any cause tried before a justice of the peace, wherein the amount in controversy, or the judgment, exceeds twenty dollars, exclusive of costs, may be removed from such justice's court to the county court by certiorari, under the rules prescribed in the title and chapter relating thereto.

Art. 2399. [1676] [1643] Duty of justice on service of writ of certiorari.—Whenever a writ of certiorari to remove any cause from the justice's court to the county court shall be served on any justice of the peace, it shall be his duty immediately to make out a certified copy of the entries made on his docket, and of the bill of costs, as provided in case of appeals in article 2396, and transmit the same, together with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court in the manner and within the time prescribed in that and the succeeding article.

Art. 2400. [1677] [1644] Rules governing district courts, etc., to apply, except, etc.—Whenever the mode of proceeding in any particular case or matter is not prescribed by the provisions of this title, or of some other law or title specially relating thereto, the same shall be governed by the provisions of the title relating to the mode of proceeding in the district and county court in civil cases, in so far as the same are applicable.

TITLE 42.

DEBT—PUBLIC.

Bonds and obligations declared valid....	Article. 2401	Laws to remain in force until obligations are discharged	Article. 2402
------------------------------------------	---------------	----------------------------------------------------------------	---------------

Article 2401. Article 2403. Unlawful to practice without certificate; provided, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person to practice, or attempt to practice, dentistry or dental surgery in the state of Texas, without first having obtained a certificate from the state board of dental examiners; provided, that physicians and surgeons may, in the regular practice of their profession, extract teeth or make application for the relief of pain; and provided, further, that nothing in this title shall apply to any person legally engaged in the practice of dentistry or dental surgery in this state at the time of the passage of this law. [Acts 1897, p. 123. Acts 1889, p. 91. Acts 1905, p. 143.]

Art. 2404. Same subject.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to extract teeth, or perform any other operation pertaining to dentistry, for pay or for the purpose of advertising, exhibiting or selling any medicine or instrument or business of any kind or description whatsoever, unless such person or persons shall first have complied with the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2405 Board of examiners created, powers.—A board of examiners consisting of six practicing dentists of acknowledged ability as such is hereby created, who shall have authority to issue certificates to persons in the practice of dentistry or dental surgery in the state of Texas who are legally practicing the same at the time of the passage of this law, and issue certificates to all applicants who may hereafter apply to said board and pass a satisfactory examination. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2406. Members of board appointed how; term, etc.; vacancies how filled.—The members of said board shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve for two years. In case of vacancy occurring in said board by resignation, removal from the state, or by death such vacancy may be filled for its unexpired term by the governor. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2407. Oath of members; to be filed for record, etc.; fee of county clerk.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each and every member of this board shall make oath before any officer authorized to administer an obligation who shall be empowered to use a seal of office that he will faithfully discharge the duties incumbent upon him to the best of his ability. The same shall be filed for record with the county clerk of the county in which affiant resides. The county clerk shall receive for recording the same fifty cents. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2408. Officers of board; meetings; quorum, etc.—Said board shall elect one of its members president and one secretary thereof; and it shall meet at least once in each year, and as much oftener and at such times and places as it may deem necessary. A majority of the members of said board shall constitute a quorum; and the proceedings thereof shall be open to the public. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2409. Certificate to be obtained before commencing practice; examination, etc.—Any person desiring to commence the practice of dentistry or dental surgery within this state after the passage of this law shall, before commencing such practice, make application to said board, and, upon undergoing a satisfactory examination before said board, shall be entitled to a certificate from said board granting such person the right to practice dentistry or dental surgery within this state. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2410. Examination fee.—To provide for the proper and effective enforcement of this title, said board of examiners shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five dollars from each applicant examined; which said sum shall accompany the application, and which sum shall in no event be refunded to the person examined. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 2411. Board to keep record of persons authorized to practice dentistry, requisites.—Said board shall keep a record in which shall be registered the names and residences or places of business of all persons authorized under this title to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this state. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2412. Member of board may grant license, valid only till next meeting of board; report of; inhibition.—Any member of said board may, when the board is not in session, grant a license to practice dentistry to any person whom such member finds on examination to be qualified, on the payment of two dollars by such person. A license so granted shall be valid until the next meeting of the board, but no longer. Each member shall make a report of license so granted by him at the meeting of the board following the granting of the license. A member shall not grant a license under the provisions of this article to one who has been rejected by the board as disqualified. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2413. Certificate to be filed with county clerk for record; fee.—Every person to whom a certificate is issued by said board of examiners, shall, within thirty days from the date thereof, present the same to the clerk of the county in which he or she resides, or expects to practice, who shall officially record said license in his office book provided for that purpose, and shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for his services. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2414. Certificate may be revoked in what cases; procedure for.—Said board shall have power, when it shall be made to appear to said board by satisfactory evidence from credible witnesses, that any person who has been granted a certificate to practice dentistry or dental surgery has been convicted of a felony, or who has been guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, or such conduct involving fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, to revoke his or her license to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this state; provided, that the license of no person shall be so revoked by said board without first notifying such person of the charges preferred against him or her, and citing him or her to appear before said board upon some day certain at a regular meeting of said board; and provided, further, that no charge shall be considered against any person unless the same shall have first been made in writing and subscribed and sworn to by some credible person and filed with the secretary of said board, who shall furnish a copy of the same to the party so accused at least ten days before the meeting of the board at which the same is to be considered. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2415. Compensation of members of board and expenses; paid how, etc.—The members of said examining board shall receive the compensation of five dollars per day for each day actually engaged in the duty of their office, which, together with all other legitimate expenses incurred in the performance of such duties, shall be paid from the fees received by the board under the provisions of this title; and no part of the expenses of said board shall at any time be paid out of the state treasury. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2416. Special fund for meeting expenses; bond of secretary; annual report and account.—All moneys in excess of said per diem allowance and other expenses shall be held by the secretary of the said board as a special fund for meeting the expenses of said board, he giving such bond as the board may from time to time direct; and said board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor by the fifteenth day of December of each year, together with an account of all moneys received and disbursed by them in the pursuance of this title. [Id. sec. 12.]

Article 2417. State treasurer to designate bank as state depository; requirements, etc.—It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, at the times and in the manner provided in this chapter, to designate a bank or banking institution in each senatorial district in the state of Texas, which shall be known as a state depository. Such bank or banking institution must be a national bank or an incorporated company authorized to do business in the state of Texas, and must have a paid up capital stock of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars. [Acts 1905, p. 387. Acts 1907, p. 183.]

Art. 2418. Any such bank may become bidder, etc.; further requirements; limitation of award.—Any such bank or banking institution may become a bidder under the provisions of any article of this chapter; but each such depository shall be established and conducted in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of this chapter; and, in no instance, shall there be made to any such bank or banking institution any award of state funds greater than the amount of its paid up capital stock. [Id.]

Art. 2419. Other depository may be selected in lieu, etc.—Other depositories may be selected in lieu of those not selected from and for senatorial districts, as provided for in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 2420. Treasurer to call for bids, etc.—Immediately upon the qualification of each state treasurer elected at a general election, it shall be his duty to cause to be printed a circular letter soliciting bids for keeping the public funds of the state for a term of two years next after the succeeding March 1, upon the conditions prescribed in this chapter. Said circular letter shall state the conditions to be complied with by the bidders, as hereinafter provided, and what each bid shall set forth, and shall require such bids to be forwarded to the state treasurer on or before twelve o'clock noon of the first Monday in February thereafter, and shall require that each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for the sum of five hundred dollars, payable to the order of the state treasurer, which shall become forfeited to the state in case said bid shall be accepted, and the bidder shall fail to comply with the requirements as provided by this chapter, for the qualification of depositories; otherwise, such check shall be returned to the bidder. The treasurer shall mail a copy of such circular letter to each of the banks or banking institutions in the state, of the class before mentioned, and shall immediately deposit with the comptroller and attorney general a copy of such circular letter, and attach thereto a list of those to whom it has been mailed, as above provided; such copy and list so filed to be certified by the state treasurer under his seal of office. The state treasurer shall also keep a copy of such letter, and a list of those to whom it has been sent, on file in his office for the inspection of any person desiring to examine the same. [Acts 1905, p. 387, sec. 2.]

Art. 2421. Bids how presented, etc.; shall state what; opening of bids; selection of depository, etc.; no award in excess of paid up capital stock.—Bids sent to the state treasurer shall be sealed up in a strong envelope and marked, "Bid for the safe-keeping and payment of the deposits of the state funds;" and the state treasurer shall indorse thereon the time of the receipt of such bid. Such bid shall state the interest such bank will pay on the average daily balances to the credit of the state treasury in such bank. Said bids shall be directed to the state treasurer, and by him opened on the first Monday in February thereafter, in the presence of the comptroller and attorney general, and thereupon the treasurer shall select and designate, with the approval of the comptroller and attorney general, one of such banks or banking institutions as the depository of the state for each senatorial district. The treasurer may, with the approval of the comptroller and attorney general, reject any and all bids; and, in any case, the bank or banking institution offering the highest interest from each senatorial district shall be selected, if any. No award of state money shall be made upon any bid therefor greater than the paid up capital stock of the bank making such bid. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2422. New bids to be taken, how, etc.; requirements; award.—If for any one or more senatorial districts, no bids shall be submitted, or none shall be accepted, or the successful bidder shall fail to qualify as provided in this chapter, it shall thereupon become the duty of the state treasurer to cause to be printed a circular letter, soliciting bids for keeping the public funds of the state in such senatorial districts, respectively, for the remainder of the term of two years prescribed by article 2420, and upon the conditions prescribed in this chapter; which letter shall, in all other respects, conform to the requirements concerning the circular letter prescribed by article 2420, except that it shall specify that all bids thereunder must be in the hands of the state treasurer on or before twelve o'clock noon of a certain day, to be therein named, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days after the date of such circular letter; and the certified check accompanying such bid shall become forfeited to the state, in case such bid shall be accepted and the bidder shall fail to comply with the requirements as provided by this chapter for the qualification of depositories. The state treasurer shall mail a copy of such circular letter to each bank or banking institution in the state of Texas situated within any of the senatorial districts for which no bid for such term shall have been accepted, and shall immediately deposit with the comptroller and attorney general, respectively; a copy of such circular letter, and attach thereto a list of those to whom such letter has been mailed as herein provided; such copies and list to be certified by the state treasurer under his seal of office. The state treasurer shall also keep a copy of such letter, and a list of those to whom it has been sent, on file in his office for the inspection of any person who may desire to examine the same. All bids which may be sent to the state treasurer pursuant to such circular letter shall be sealed up in a strong envelope and marked "Bid for the safe-keeping and payment of the deposit of the state funds," and he shall indorse thereon the time of receipt of such bid. Such bid shall state the interest such bank or banking institution will pay on the average daily balances to the credit of the state treasurer in such bank or banking institution. All such bids shall be directed to the state treasurer, and shall be opened by him on the day designated in such circular letter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, in the presence of the comptroller and attorney general, and, thereupon, the state treasurer shall, with the approval of the comptroller and attorney general, select and designate one of such banks or banking institutions as the depository of the state for each such senatorial district; provided, said state treasurer may, with the approval of the comptroller and attorney general, reject any and all such bids; and provided, further, that in no instance shall any except the highest and best bidder for any senatorial district be accepted. [Acts 1907, p. 184, sec. 3a.]

Art. 2423. Bank complying to receive deposit, etc.—When said bank or banking institution of any senatorial district so designated by the state treasurer has complied with the conditions of this chapter, it shall be authorized to receive on deposit from the state treasurer, or under his direction, state funds not exceeding fifty thousand dollars for any one bank; and it shall be the duty of said state treasurer to cause the funds of the state to be deposited in said state depositories subject to the conditions and limitations of this chapter. [Acts 1905, p. 388, sec. 4.]

Art. 2424. Bank to be solvent, and shall give bond, etc.—Before the state treasurer is authorized to deposit any state funds in any state depository herein provided for, or to cause the same to be so deposited, he shall satisfy himself as to the solvency of said institution; and, in addition thereto, he shall require a bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars; which bond shall be payable to the governor and to his successors in office; and said bond shall be conditioned for the safe-keeping of said funds deposited and to meet the requirements of this chapter, in such form as the attorney general shall prescribe; and the same restrictions and requirements as to sureties thereon shall apply as are now or may be hereafter required in the bond of the state treasurer. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2425. Bonds to be deposited as collateral security, etc.—The state treasurer shall also require the deposit as collateral security for such deposit of state funds, of United States, state, county, independent school district, or municipal bonds in the sum of fifty thousand dollars; but before any state, county or municipal bonds shall be received as collateral security in such cases, they must be registered with the comptroller and approved by the attorney general of the state of Texas, under the same rules and regulations as are now required for bonds in which the permanent school funds of the state are to be invested; provided, such county, municipal or independent school district bonds must be worth not less than par. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2426. Bonds to be delivered to treasurer; additional security when; inspection; recourse on; indorsement, etc.—The bonds above mentioned shall be delivered to the state treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him, in the vaults of the state treasury of this state; and if, in any case or at any time, such bonds are not satisfactory security to the comptroller and attorney general and treasurer, for the deposits made under this chapter, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them; and the comptroller, attorney general and treasurer, shall, from time to time, inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the state treasury; and, in the event that said bank or banks or banking institutions selected as state depositories shall fail to pay such deposits, or any part thereof, on the check or checks of the state treasurer, he shall have power to forthwith convert such bonds into money, and disburse the same according to law upon the warrants drawn by the state comptroller, upon the funds for which said bonds are security. Any bank making deposit of bonds with the state treasurer under the provisions of this chapter may cause such bonds to be indorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral, and are not transferable, except upon the conditions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2427. Depository to pay interest on average daily balance, etc.—Any state depository receiving state funds under the provisions of this chapter, shall pay to the state treasurer, at the end of each month, interest on the average daily balance for said month at the rate of interest agreed upon, which shall, in no event, be less than at the rate of two per cent per annum. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2428. Collectors, etc., to deposit in the nearest state depository, etc.; receipts; accounts.—All tax collectors in the state of Texas and all officers charged with the duty of remitting to the state treasurer, state funds, shall, instead of remitting state funds to the state treasurer, as is now required by law, cause the same to be remitted to, or deposited with, the nearest state depository, and shall require of said depository a triplicate receipt therefor, one of which shall be preserved by the party so depositing said state funds, and the others shall be forwarded direct to the treasurer of the state of Texas and comptroller, respectively, whose duty it shall be also to keep with each state depository in Texas an accurate account, showing a true and correct statement of the account of said depository with the state of Texas, and the balance on hand in each at the close of each day's business. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2429. Deposits in excess of $50,000 to be remitted to state treasurer, etc., forfeiture for failure, etc., notice, suit.—If any state depository shall receive, or have on hand, state funds in excess of fifty thousand dollars, said state depository shall remit forthwith, on the first of the next month, said excess to the treasurer of the state of Texas; and, in case any state depository shall fail or refuse to remit this excess, it shall forfeit its right to act as a state depository; and the state treasurer shall, at once, close his account with said depository, notify all tax collectors and others charged with the duty of collecting public funds for the state of Texas; and the attorney general of the state shall cause such action to be taken, if any, as may be necessary to protect the state's interest in the premises. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2430. Books, etc., of depository open to inspection, etc.—The books and accounts of any bank or banking institution designated as a state depository pertaining to public funds, shall, at all times, be open and subject to the inspection of the treasurer of the state of Texas, the attorney general or any district or county attorney of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 2431. Deposit or remittance made with or to whom, and how.—Any person whose duty it is to pay over to the state of Texas any money belonging thereto, or to any funds of said state, may pay the same to the state treasurer, or he may remit the same to, or deposit the same in any state depository which is then authorized to act as a state depository under this chapter, but, in case the party is a non-resident of the state of Texas, said money so due, or to become due, shall be remitted direct to the state treasurer at Austin. In any event said money, or any money due the state or any of its funds may be sent by registered letter in due course of mail, by postoffice money order, express money order of any company authorized to do business in Texas, or by personal check, or bank draft on any incorporated state or national bank authorized to do business in Texas; but, in such cases, the liability of the person sending the same shall not cease until said money is actually received by the state treasurer or state depository, in due course of business. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2432. Treasurer, comptroller and attorney general to make rules, etc.—The treasurer, comptroller, and attorney general of the state of Texas shall have the right to make such rules and regulations governing the establishment and conduct of state depositories and state funds therein, as the public interest may require, not inconsistent with this chapter, which said rules and regulations shall be in writing. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 2433. State fund to be deposited in depositories, etc.; provided, etc.—All state funds shall be deposited in state depositories designated under this chapter, subject to the limitations of this chapter; provided, that the state treasurer is authorized to keep and retain in the state treasury at Austin sufficient funds to meet the current expenses of the government in case he finds it advisable so to do. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 2434. Penalty for refusal to deposit state funds, etc.—If any officer charged with the duty of depositing state funds shall refuse to so deposit the same in a depository authorized to receive the same he shall be liable on his official bond therefor, and for interest on said amount which he has failed to so deposit, at the rate of five per cent per month, at the suit of the state or county, as the case may be; and this shall be a cause for removal from office. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 2435. Depository shall act how long; forfeiture for what causes, etc.; new depository, etc.—Any banking institution designated as a state depository shall continue to act as such until March first succeeding the next general election held after its designation, and until the undertaking of its successors has been accepted by the proper authority; provided, however, that in case any such institution shall fail and refuse to qualify as such depository within thirty days next after its bid for state or county funds has been accepted, in the manner provided for in this chapter, or, in case it shall fail and refuse to comply with any of the conditions of this chapter, or fail to discharge any of the duties thereunder, it shall be considered a just cause for forfeiting its rights to act as said state or county depository; and, in such case, the proper authorities shall be authorized to withdraw all state or county funds from such institution at any time after five days' notice of such intention; and, in such cases, a new state or county depository shall be established under the same rules and regulations as herein provided for the establishment thereof in the first instance. The same rules and regulations shall apply in establishing new depositories after the tenure of depositories provided for in this chapter has expired; that is, the money shall again be let to the highest bidder, as in the first instance, and all other regulations with reference thereto before provided herein shall apply; but, in any case arising under this chapter, where two or more of the highest bids are the same, another competitive bidding for said funds shall be ordered as in the first instance. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 2436. Balances in depositories to be equalized.—It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to keep, and maintain, as nearly as possible, a fair and equal balance of moneys on hand in each state depository established by this chapter, in proportion to the amount each is entitled to receive, by drawing warrants alternately thereon or by apportioning the warrants so drawn. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2437. Depository to issue to treasurer on demand, draft, etc., on U. S. reserve bank, etc.—On demand of the state treasurer, any state depository shall issue to him or his order, free of charge, a draft or exchange on any bank in this state, designated by the United States authorities as a "Reserve Bank;" which draft may be in any sum stated by the state treasurer not exceeding the amount of the state deposit in said depository. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2438. Interest on deposits to become part of general revenue.—All interest upon deposits which shall come into the state treasury from state depositories shall become a part of the general revenue. [Acts 1907, p. 184, sec. 18a.]

Art. 2439. Other new bids to be taken when, how, etc.; award; collateral securities; bonds, regulations, etc.—If, for any one or more senatorial districts, no bids shall be submitted, or none shall be accepted, or the successful bidder shall fail to qualify as provided in this chapter, it shall thereupon become the duty of the state treasurer immediately after the date of opening of the bids provided for in article 2422, or upon the failure of the successful bidder to qualify, as the case may be, to advertise for bids in such daily newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the state as said state treasurer, comptroller and attorney general, or a majority of them, shall deem advisable, for proposals from banks or banking institutions of the class and character mentioned in preceding articles of this chapter, in this state, to keep a state depository; and as many thirty-firsts of the state funds as there shall then be such senatorial districts for which no depository shall have been selected, not exceeding, however, two such thirty-firsts to be awarded to any one bidder, but in no instance shall there be awarded to any one bidder any amount in excess of its paid up capital stock; all such bids to be delivered to the state treasurer upon a day to be named in such advertisement, which shall not be less than twenty, nor more than thirty, days subsequent to the first publication of such advertisement. Upon the date named in such advertisement, the state treasurer shall, in the presence of the comptroller and the attorney general, open all bids so received, and shall, with their approval and consent, award to the highest and best bidder therefor, respectively, the keeping of the number of such thirty-firsts of the state funds for which proposals have been so invited, and for which such bids have been so made; provided, that said state treasurer, comptroller and attorney general may, should they deem it to the best interests of the state, limit such award to only one such thirty-first of the state funds; at the discretion of the state treasurer, comptroller and attorney general, any one or more bidders making a proposal under the provisions of this section [article] may, respectively, be awarded the keeping of two thirty-firsts of such state funds, not exceeding, however, in any instance more than one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding in any instance the amount of paid-up capital stock of the bank or banking institution making such bid; and, in any and all such cases, such bidder shall deposit securities with the state treasurer of the same class and character and of double the value, and shall give indemnity bonds of similar character and in double the amount required by this chapter for depositories selected under the provisions of this chapter from senatorial districts, and shall be governed by all the restrictions and regulations imposed upon them by this chapter; provided, that any and all depositories selected and qualifying under this article shall, on the first day of each month (or if such first day be Sunday or a holiday, then on the next succeeding day) remit to the state treasurer all state funds in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, then on hand, but subject to the provisions of article 2433. All depositories selected and qualifying under this article shall, at all times, during such term be permitted to keep on deposit such amount of state funds as may have been awarded to them, respectively, under the provisions of this section [article]. All provisions concerning certified checks in article 2420 shall apply to advertisements, bids and bidders under this article, and the terms to be embraced in bids and awards under this article shall be the same as under article 2435. No award shall, in any instance, be made under this article to any bidder whose bid shall be for less than two per cent per annum on daily balances in such depositories. [Acts 1907, p. 183, sec. 19.]

Article 2440. Commissioners' court to call for bids for county depositories, when and how.—The commissioners' court of each county in this state is authorized and required at the February term thereof, next following each general election, to receive proposals from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker in such county that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds of such county. Notice that such bids will be received shall be published by and over the name of the county judge, once each week for at least twenty days before commencement of such term, in some newspaper published in said county; and, if no newspaper be published therein, then, in any newspaper published in the nearest county; and, in addition thereto, notice shall be published by posting same at the courthouse door of said county. [Acts 1905, p. 392. Acts 1907, p. 208, sec. 20.]

Art. 2441. Bids when and how presented; to state what; other requirements.—Any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, in such county, desiring to bid, shall deliver to the county judge, on or before the first day of the term of the commissioners' court at which the selection of a depository is to be made, a sealed proposal, stating the rate of interest that said banking corporation, association, or individual banker, offers to pay on the funds of the county for the term between the date of such bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository. Said bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for not less than one-half of one per cent of the county revenue of the preceding year as a guarantee of the good faith on the part of the bidder, and that, if his bid should be accepted, he will enter into the bond hereinafter provided; and upon the failure of the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, that may be selected as such depository, to give the bond required by law, the amount of such certified check shall go to the county as liquidated damages, and the county judge shall readvertise for bids. [Acts 1905, p. 392, sec. 21.]

Art. 2442. Bids to be opened when, etc.; award; interest how computed and paid; credited how, etc.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court at ten o'clock a. m., on the first day of each term, at which, by article 2440, bids are required to be received, to publicly open such bids and cause each bid to be entered upon the minutes of the court, and to select as the depository of all the funds of the county the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, offering to pay the largest rate of interest per annum for said funds; provided, the commissioners' court may reject any and all bids. The interest upon such county funds shall be computed upon the daily balances to the credit of such county with such depository, and shall be payable to the county treasurer monthly, and shall be placed to the credit of the jury fund or to such funds as the commissioners' court may direct. When selection of a depository has been made, the checks of bidders whose bids have been rejected shall be immediately returned. The check of the bidder whose bid is accepted shall be returned when his bond is filed and approved by the commissioners' court, and not until such bond is filed and approved. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 2443. Bond of depository.—Within five days after the selection of such depository, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, so selected to execute a bond or bonds, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the commissioners' court of said county, and filed in the office of the county clerk of said county, with not less than five solvent sureties, who shall own unencumbered real estate in this state not exempt from execution under the laws of this state, of as great value as the amount of said bond (or of as great value as the amount of all of said bonds when more than one bond); and said bond or bonds shall in no event be for less than the total amount of revenue of such county for the entire two years for which the same are made; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the making of such bond or bonds by a surety company or companies, as provided by law, and payable as herein provided. And provided, further, that the commissioners' court may accept in lieu of such real estate or surety company security, bonds of the United States, or of the state of Texas, or of any county, city, town or independent school district in the state, which shall be deposited as the commissioners' court may direct, the penalty of said bond or bonds not to be less than the total annual revenue of the county for the years for which said bond or bonds are given, and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties and obligations devolving by law upon such depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon said depository by the county treasurer of the county and that said county funds shall be faithfully kept by said depository and accounted for according to law. Any suits arising thereon shall be tried in the county for which such depository is selected. [Acts 1905, p. 393. Acts 1909, p. 165, sec. 23.]

Art. 2444. Order designating depository; period; transfer of funds; penalty.—As soon as said bond be given and approved by the commissioners' court, an order shall be made and entered upon the minutes of said court designating such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as a depository of the funds of said county until sixty days after the time fixed for the next selection of a depository; and, thereupon, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county, immediately upon the making of such order, to transfer to said depository all the funds belonging to said county, and immediately upon the receipt of any money thereafter, to deposit the same with said depository to the credit of said county; and, for each and every failure to make such deposit, the county treasurer shall be liable to said depository for ten per cent upon the amount not so deposited, to be recovered by civil action against such treasurer and the sureties on his official bond in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county. [Acts 1905, p. 393, sec. 24.]

Art. 2445. If no bids, etc., funds deposited, where; interest; bond.—If for any reason there shall be submitted no proposals by any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, to act as county depository, or in case no bid for the entire amount of the county funds shall be made, or in case all proposals made shall be declined, then in any such case the commissioners' court shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to deposit the funds of the county with any one or more banking corporations, associations, or individual bankers, in the county or in adjoining counties, in such sums and amounts and for such periods of time as may be deemed advisable by the court, and at such rate of interest, not less than one and one-half per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon by the commissioners' court and the banker or banking concern receiving the deposit, interest to be computed upon daily balances due the county treasurer; and any banker or banking concern receiving deposits under this section [article] shall execute a bond in the manner and form provided for depositories of all the funds of the county, with all the conditions provided for same, the penalty of said bonds to be not less than the total amount of county funds to be deposited with such banker or banking concern. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 2446. If two or more depositories; clearing house to be selected.—When the funds of any county shall be deposited with two or more depositories, the commissioners' court shall select and name by order one of said depositories to act as a clearing house for the others, at which all county warrants shall be finally paid. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 2447. Treasurer's checks payable at county seat, etc., penalty.—It shall be the duty of the depository to provide for the payment, upon presentation at the county seat of the county, of all checks drawn by the county treasurer upon the funds of said county, as long as funds of said county treasurer shall be in the possession of the depository subject to such checks; and, for every failure to pay such check or checks at the county seat of such county upon presentation, said depository shall forfeit and pay to the holder of such check ten per cent of the amount thereof; and the commissioners' court shall revoke the order creating such depository; provided, however, the amount of its bid shall not be returned, but shall be forfeited to the county. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 2448. If depository not located at county seat, requirements.—If any depository selected by the commissioners' court be not located at the county seat of such county, said depository shall file with the county treasurer of such county a statement designating the place at said county seat where, and the person by whom, all deposits may be received from the treasurer for such depository, and where and by whom all checks will be paid; and such depository shall cause every check to be paid upon presentation at the place so designated so long as the said depository has sufficient funds to the credit of said county applicable to its payment. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 2449. Warrants, how paid, etc., and charged; statement; bonds, etc.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer, upon the presentation to him of any warrant drawn by the proper authority, if there shall be money enough in the depository belonging to the funds upon which said warrant is drawn and out of which the same is payable, to draw his check as county treasurer upon the county depository in favor of the legal holder of said warrant, and to take up said warrant and to charge same to the fund upon which it is drawn; but no county treasurer shall draw any check upon the funds with said depository, unless there is sufficient money belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn to pay the same; and no money belonging to said county shall be paid by said depository, except upon check of the county treasurer; and it shall be the duty of such depository to make a detailed statement to the county commissioners' court at each regular term of said court, showing the daily balances of the preceding quarter. In case any bonds, coupons, or other indebtedness of any county, by the terms thereof, are payable at any particular place other than the treasury of the county, nothing herein contained shall prevent the commissioners' court of any such county from causing the treasurer to place a sufficient sum at the place where such debts shall be payable at the time and place of their maturity. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 2450. If no depository selected, etc., may select at subsequent term, etc.; period.—If for any reason, no selection of a depository be made at the time provided by law, the commissioners' court may, at any subsequent time after twenty days' notice, select a depository in the manner provided for such selection at the regular time; and the depository so selected shall remain the depository until the next regular time for selecting a depository, unless the order selecting and naming such depository be revoked for lawful reasons. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 2451. New bond may be required; penalty, if not given.—If the commissioners' court shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the county, it may require any depository to execute a new bond; and, if said new bond be not filed within five days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the commissioners' court may proceed to the selection of another depository in the manner provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 2452. Treasurer not responsible for negligence of depository; but, etc.—The county treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the county funds through the failure or negligence of any depository; but nothing in this chapter shall release any county treasurer for any loss resulting from any official misconduct or negligence on his part, or from any responsibility for the funds of the county, until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, or for any misappropriation of such funds by him. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 2453. Bids from adjoining county, when; requirements.—If there be no bank situated within the county that seeks to select a county depository, then the county commissioners' court shall advertise for bids in the adjoining counties in the manner hereinbefore provided in article 2450; provided, that when a depository has been selected by the county commissioners' court in the manner set forth in this act, said county depository shall, within five days after notice of such selection has been given to said depository, file with the county treasurer of such county a statement designating the place at said county seat where, and the person by whom, all deposits may be received from the treasurer for such depository, and where and by whom all checks will be paid. [Id. sec. 33.]

Article 2454. Council to take bids for depository, when and how; bids to state what; not to be opened until.—The city council of every city in the state of Texas incorporated under the general laws thereof, or incorporated under special charter, at its regular meeting in July of each year, is authorized to receive sealed proposals for the custody of the city funds, from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, doing business within the city, that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds of the city. The school funds, from whatsoever source derived, of incorporated cities is part of the city funds and is subject to the provisions of this chapter. Notice that such bids will be received shall be published by the city secretary not less than one nor more than four weeks before such meeting, in some newspaper published in the city. Any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, doing business in the city desiring to bid, shall deliver to the city secretary, on or before the day of such meeting designated by said published notice, a sealed proposal, stating the rate per cent upon daily balances that such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, offers to pay to the city for the privilege of being made the depository of the funds of the city for the year next following the date of such meeting; or, in the event that such selection shall be made for a less term than one year, as hereinafter provided, then for the time between the date of such bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository as aforesaid. All such proposals shall be securely kept by the secretary, and shall not be opened until the meeting of the council for the purpose of passing upon same; nor shall any other proposals be received after they shall have been opened. [Acts 1905, pp. 260, 395. Acts 1907, p. 132, sec. 34.]

Art. 2455. Award; bond.—Upon the opening of the sealed proposals submitted, the city council shall select as the depository of the funds of the city the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, offering to pay to the city the largest amount for such privileges; provided, however, the council shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and readvertise for new proposals. Within five days after the selection of such depository, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, so selected, to execute a bond, payable to the city, to be approved by the mayor with the concurrence of the city council, and filed with the city secretary, with not less than three solvent sureties, who shall own unencumbered real estate in the county in which said city is located, of as great value as the amount of said bond; or said depository may make said bond in some approved fidelity and surety company, the penalty of said bond to be at least double the total revenues of the city for the preceding fiscal year, and conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties and obligations devolving by law or ordinance upon said depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon said depository by the city treasurer, whenever any funds shall be in said depository applicable to the payment of said check, and that all funds of the city shall be faithfully kept by said depository, and with the interest thereon accounted for according to law; and for a breach of said bond, the city may maintain an action in its name. [Acts 1905, pp. 260, 396, sec. 35.]

Art. 2456. Order designating depository; transfer of funds; penalty; penalty for failure to give bond; new bids, etc.—As soon as said bond shall be given and approved, an order shall be made by the council designating said banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the funds of the city until the time fixed by this chapter for another selection, and such order shall be entered upon the minutes. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, immediately upon the making of said order, to transfer to said depository all the funds in his hands belonging to the city, and, immediately upon the receipt of any money thereafter, he shall deposit the same with said depository to the credit of the city; and, for each and every failure to make such deposit, the treasurer and his bondsmen shall be liable to said depository for ten per cent per month upon the amount not so deposited, to be recovered by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction. If any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, after having been selected as such depository, shall fail to give bond within the time provided by this chapter, then the selection of such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the city funds shall be set aside and be null and void, and the city council shall, after notice published in the manner hereinbefore provided, proceed to receive new bids and select other depository. [Acts 1905, p. 261. Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 2457. Warrants how paid, etc., and charged; checks payable where; bonds, etc., payment of.—It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, upon presentation to him of any warrant drawn by the proper authority, if there shall be enough money in the depository belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn and out of which the same is payable, to draw his check as city treasurer upon the city depository in favor of the legal holder of said warrant, and to take up said warrant and charge the same to the fund upon which it is drawn; but in no case shall the city treasurer draw any check upon any fund in the city depository, unless there is sufficient money belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn to pay the same. No money belonging to the city shall be paid out of the city depository, except upon the checks of the city treasurer; and all such checks shall be payable by said depository at its place of business in the city. In case any bonds or coupons or other indebtedness of the city are payable, by the terms of such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness, at any particular place other than the city treasury, nothing herein contained shall prevent the city council from causing the treasurer to withdraw from the depository and to place at the place where such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness shall be payable at the time of their maturity, a sufficient sum to meet the same. [Acts 1905, p. 261. Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 2458. If no depository selected, etc., may select at subsequent meeting, etc., period; new bond; penalty if not given; treasurer not responsible, except.—If, for any reason, no selection of a depository is made at the time fixed by this chapter, the city council may, at any subsequent meeting, after notice published as hereinbefore provided, receive bids and select a depository in the manner herein set out, and the banking corporation, association, or individual banker, so selected shall remain the depository until the next regular term for the selection of a depository, unless the order selecting it be revoked for the causes specified in this chapter. If the city council shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the city, it may, by resolution, require the depository to execute a new bond; and, upon failure to do so within five days after the service of a copy of the resolution on said depository, the city council may proceed to select another depository in the manner hereinbefore provided. The city treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the city funds through the negligence, failure or wrongful act of such depository, but nothing in this chapter shall release said treasurer from responsibility for any loss resulting from any official misconduct on his part or from responsibility for the funds of city at any time when, for any reason, there shall be no city depository, or until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, or for any misappropriation of such funds in any manner by him. [Acts 1905, p. 261. Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 2459. Restrictions upon drawing, etc., of checks and payment of checks; treasurer's reports.—No check shall be drawn upon the city depository by the treasurer, except upon a warrant signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary. No warrant shall be drawn by the mayor and secretary upon any of the special funds created for the purpose of paying the bonded indebtedness of said city, in the hands of the city treasurer, or in the depository, for any purpose whatsoever other than to pay the principal or interest of said indebtedness, or for the purpose of investing said special fund according to law. No city treasurer shall pay or issue a check to pay any money out of any special fund created for the purpose of paying any bonded indebtedness of said city other than for the purpose of paying interest due on said bonds, the principal of said bonds, or for the purpose of making an investment of said fund according to law. The treasurer shall report to the council, on or before its first regular meeting of July in each year, the amount of receipts and expenditures of the treasury, the amount of money on hand in each fund, and the amount of bonds falling due for the redemption of which provision must be made; also the amount of interest to be paid during the next fiscal year, and such other reports as the existing law requires of him. [Acts 1905, p. 262. Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 2460. Application of provisions of this chapter; definition of terms.— All provisions of this chapter shall apply to towns and villages incorporated under the general laws of Texas, as well as to cities so incorporated, and the term, "city council," as herein used, shall be construed to include the board of aldermen of such towns and villages; the terms, "city secretary" and "secretary," shall be construed to include the clerk or secretary of such towns and villages; the term, "city treasurer," shall be construed to include the treasurer of such towns and villages, and the term, "city," shall be construed to include towns and villages. [Acts 1905, p. 262. Id. sec. 40.]

Article 2461. [1688] [1645] Where intestate leaves no husband or wife.—Where any person, having title to any estate of inheritance, real, personal or mixed, shall die intestate, as to such estate, and shall leave no surviving husband or wife, it shall descend and pass in parcenary to his kindred, male and female, in the following course, that is to say :

1. To his children and their descendants.
2. If there be no children nor their descendants, then to his father and mother, in equal portions. But if only the father or mother survive the intestate, then his estate shall be divided into two equal portions, one of which shall pass to such survivor, and the other half shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the deceased, and to their descendants; but, if there be none such, then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving father or mother.

3. If there be neither father nor mother, then the whole of such estate shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and to their descendants.

4. If there be none of the kindred aforesaid, then the inheritance shall be divided into two moieties, one of which shall go to the paternal and the other to the maternal kindred, in the following course, that is to say: To the grandfather and grandmother in equal portions, but, if only one of these be living, then the estate shall be divided into two equal parts, one of which shall go to such survivor, and the other shall go to the descendant or descendants of such deceased grandfather or grandmother. If there be no such descendants, then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving grandfather or grandmother. If there be no surviving grandfather or grandmother, then the whole of such estate shall go to their descendants, and so on without end, passing in like manner to the nearest lineal ancestors and their descendants. [Act March 18, 1848. P. D. 3419.]

Art. 2462. [1689] [1646] Where intestate leaves husband or wife.—Where any person having title to any estate of inheritance, real, personal or mixed, shall die intestate as to such estate, and shall leave a surviving husband or wife, the estate of such intestate shall descend and pass as follows :

1. If the deceased have a child or children, or their descendants, the surviving husband or wife shall take one-third of the personal estate, and the balance of such personal estate shall go to the child or children of the deceased and their descendants. The surviving husband or wife shall also be entitled to an estate for life, in one-third of the land of the intestate, with remainder to the child or children of the intestate and their descendants.

2. If the deceased have no child or children, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to all the personal estate, and to one-half of the lands of the intestate, without remainder to any person, and the other half shall pass and be inherited according to the rules of descent and distribution; provided, however, that if the deceased have neither surviving father nor mother, nor surviving brothers and sisters, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to the whole of the estate of such intestate. [P. D. 3422.]

Art. 2463. [1690] [1647] No distinction on account of source of property, except in cases of adoption.—There shall be no distinction in regulating the descent and distribution of the estate of a person dying intestate between property which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the father, and that which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the mother; and all the estate to which such intestate may have had title at the time of death shall descend and vest in the heirs of such person in the same manner as if he had been the original purchaser thereof; provided, however, that if such intestate was the legally adopted heir of another, and dies, leaving no surviving husband or wife, and no children, then so much of his estate as was obtained by gift, devise or descent, from the person adopting him, shall descend to the person and his heirs who adopted such intestate. [Act March 20, 1861. P. D. 3420. Act to adopt and establish R. C. S., passed Feb. 21, 1879.]

Art. 2464. [1691] [1648] Rule as to whole and half blood.—In cases before mentioned, where the inheritance is directed to pass to the collateral kindred of the intestate, if part of such collateral be of the whole blood, and the other part of the half blood only of the intestate, those of half blood shall inherit only half so much as those of the whole blood; but if all be of the half blood they shall have whole portions. [Act March 18, 1848. P. D. 3424.]

Art. 2465. [1692] [1649] No corruption of blood, forfeiture of estate, etc.—No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate, nor shall there be any forfeiture by reason of death by casualty; and the estate of those who destroy their own lives shall descend or vest as in the case of natural death. [Const., Bill of Rights, sec. 21; Act March 18, 1848. P. D. 3418.]

Art. 2466. [1693] [1650] Persons not in being.—No right of inheritance shall accrue to any person whatsoever other than to children or lineal descendants of the intestate, unless they be in being and capable in law to take as heirs at the time of the death of the intestate. [Act March 18, 1848. P. D. 3423.]

Art. 2467. [1694] [1651] Advancements brought into hotchpotch.—Where any of the children of a person dying intestate, or their issue, shall have received from such intestate in his lifetime any real, personal or mixed estate by way of advancement, and shall choose to come into the partition and distribution of the estate with the other distributees, such advancement shall be brought into hotchpotch with the whole estate, and such party returning such advancement shall thereupon be entitled to his proper portion of the whole estate; provided, that it shall be sufficient to account for the value of the property so brought into hotchpotch at the time it was advanced. [P. D. 3426.]

Art. 2468. [1695] [1652] Per capita and per stirpes.—When the intestate's children, or brothers and sisters, uncles and aunts, or any other relations of the deceased standing in the first and same degree alone come into the partition, they shall take per capita—that is to say, by persons; and, when a part of them being dead and a part living, the descendants of those dead have right to partition, such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive. [Acts of 1887, p. 49.]

Art. 2469. [1696] [1653] Rule as to community estate.—Upon the dissolution of the marriage relation by death, all property belonging to the community estate of the husband and wife shall go to the survivor, if there be no child or children of the deceased or their descendants; but if there be a child or children of the deceased, or descendants of such child or children, then the survivor shall be entitled to one-half of said property, and the other half shall pass to such child or children, or their descendants. But such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive. [Acts of 1887, p. 76.]

Art. 2470. [1697] [1654] Passes charged with debts.—In every case, the community estate passes charged with the debts against it. [P. D. 5498.]

Art. 2471. [1698] [1655] Jus accrescendi abolished.—Where two or more persons hold an estate, real, personal or mixed, jointly, and one joint owner dies before severance, his interest in said joint estate shall not survive to the remaining joint owner or joint owners, but shall descend to, and be vested in, the heirs or legal representatives of such deceased joint owner in the same manner as if his interest had been severed and ascertained. [Act March 18, 1848. P. D. 3429. Ross v. Armstrong, 25 Texas Sup., p. 366.]

Art. 2472. [1699] [1656] Illegitimate children and issue of void marriages.—Where a man, having by a woman a child or children, shall afterward intermarry with such woman, such child or children, if recognized by him, shall thereby be legitimated and made capable of inheriting his estate. The issue also of marriages deemed null in law shall nevertheless be legitimate. [P. D. 3427.]

Art. 2473. [1700] [1657] Bastards inherit from mother.—Bastards shall be capable of inheriting from and through their mother, and of transmitting estates, and shall also be entitled to distributive shares of the personal estates of any of their kindred, on the part of their mother, in like manner as if they had been lawfully begotten of such mother. [P. D. 3428.]

Art. 2474. [1701] [1658] Alienage no bar to inheritance.—In taking title to land by descent, it shall be no bar to a party that any ancestor through whom he derives his descent from the intestate, is or hath been an alien. [P. D. 44, 45, 46.]

Article 2477. Commissioners' court authorized to construct drains, etc.— The commissioners' court of any county in this state, at any regular or called session thereof, may, in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall have power, whenever the same shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, or where and whenever the same will be of public benefit or utility, to cause to be straightened, widened, altered, deepened, any creek, bayou or other stream or water course, and shall cause to be constructed and maintained, as hereinafter provided, any ditch, drain or water course within any of the said counties, and shall have power to make the said improvement, if necessary, by removing from any adjacent lands or any stream or water course, any timber, bush, tree or other substance liable to or causing the obstruction thereof, and shall also have power to construct in connection with any such ditch or drain, any side, lateral, spur, or branch ditch or water course necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter; provided, however, that no ditch, drain, outlet or water course shall be deepened, widened, constructed or maintained, without a sufficient outlet being provided for all water that may collect therein; provided, further, that the word "ditch," in this chapter, hereafter shall be construed to embrace any ditch, drain or water course that may be constructed under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1897, p. 95.]

Art. 2478. Prerequisites to construction; petition; bond.—Before the commissioners' court of such county shall establish any ditch, drain or water course, there shall be filed with the clerk of the county court of said county, a petition signed by at least five persons who are land owners and whose land will be liable to be affected by, or assessed for, the expense of the construction of the same, setting forth the necessity thereof, with a general description of the proposed starting point, route and terminus of the said ditch; and said petitioners shall give a bond, not to exceed one hundred dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, payable to the said county, to be approved by the clerk of the said court, conditioned to pay all expenses in case the commissioners' court shall fail to establish said proposed ditch, drain or water course. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2479. Jury of view, appointment of.—As soon as said petition is filed, said court shall, if in regular session, or at their next regular session, appoint a jury of three freeholders and householders of the county, not interested in the construction of the proposed work, and not of kin to any of the parties interested therein, who shall constitute a jury of viewers, who shall meet at a time and place specified by the said court in the order making said appointment, preparatory to commencing their duties as hereinafter specified; and it shall be the duty of the said clerk of the said county court thereupon to issue to the said viewers a certified copy of the petition and order of said court; and said viewers shall proceed at the time set in said order, with a surveyor, who shall be a civil engineer and surveyor, to make an accurate survey of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, from its source to its outlet; and they shall cause stakes or monuments to be set along said line at intervals of one hundred feet, together with such intermediate stakes as may be necessary, and numbered progressively at each one hundred feet; and they shall establish permanent bench marks along said line, at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2480. Oath of viewers.—The said viewers, before proceeding to act as such, shall take the following oath, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, to-wit: "I do solemnly swear that I will lay out the ditch or drain now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed by the commissioners' court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my ability, skill and knowledge. So help me God." [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2481. Duties and powers of jury of viewers, with surveyor; survey; map; profile; table; estimate; specifications.—The viewers shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch, drain or water course, together with the position of stakes or monuments, with numbers corresponding with those on the ground, and the position of bench marks, with their elevation referred to on assumed or previously determined datum. The map should also show the lines and boundaries of adjacent property, and the position of county roads and railroads which may be affected by said ditch or drain, and such information should be obtained as will lead to the determination of the benefits or damages which will accrue from the construction of the same; and they shall prepare a profile of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, which shall show the assumed datum and the grade line of the bottom of the same, and the elevation of each stake or monument and other important features along the line, such as top of bank and bottom of all ditches or water course and surface of water, top of rail and bottom of tie, foot of embankment, bottom of borrow pits of all railroads, and center of road and bottom and top of ditches of highways. And they shall, in tabular form, give the depth of cut, width at bottom, and width at the source, outlet, and at each one hundred feet stake or monument of said ditch, drain or water course; and they shall make a computation of the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch, drain or water course, and an estimate of the total cost of construction of the whole work, and they shall prepare specifications in detail for the execution of the same; and they shall have power, when they find it necessary, to provide for running said ditch under ground through drain tiles or other materials as they may deem best, by specifying size of tile or other kind of material to be used in such underground work, and shall include the cost of same in the estimate of the total cost of the work. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2482. Estimate to be made by viewers, in special case.—Whenever a public ditch, drain, or water course is located wholly or in part of the bed of a private ditch, already or partially constructed, the viewers shall make an estimate of the number of cubic yards of earth already excavated, and the cost of the same on each tract of land, and deduct the same from the assessment thereon. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2483. To report whether proposed ditch or drain will be of public utility.—The jury of viewers shall report whether or not the proposed ditch or drain will be of public utility. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2484. Assessment of benefits by viewers.—The jury of viewers shall set apart and apportion to each parcel of land and to each corporation, road or railroad, and to the county when public highways are benefited, a share of said work in proportion to the benefits which will result to each from such improvement and the cost of the construction of each share or allotment separately. And they shall describe each parcel of land to be assessed in the construction of said ditch, giving the number of acres in each tract assessed and an estimate of the number of acres benefited, the amount that each tract will be benefited by the construction of said work, and the amount of each tract as assessed therefor; and they shall also ascertain and give the names of the owners of the lands that are assessed in the construction of said ditch, drain or water course, as far as they may be able to ascertain by reasonable inquiry and search of the public records. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2485. Notice by viewers to land owners as to time when they will lay out ditch, etc., and when they will assess damages.—The said jury of viewers, as provided for in this chapter, shall issue a notice in writing to the land owner through whose lands such proposed ditch or drain may run, or to his or their agent or attorney, of the time when they shall proceed to lay out such ditch, or when they will assess the damage incidental to the construction of same, which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day named therein; if such owner is a non-resident of the county, the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants as to actions in the district or county court. And such ditch or drain may be constructed four weeks after such publication, the cost of publishing the same to be paid as directed by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2486. Land owners may appear before viewers and oppose.—All persons whose land may be affected by such ditch, drain or water course shall have the right to appear before said viewers and freely express their opinions on all matters pertaining thereto; and the owner of any such lands may, at the time stated in said notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a statement in writing of any objections thereto or dissatisfaction therewith, and any claim for damages which he may have by reason of the making of said ditch or drain; and a failure to make such claim in writing, as herein specified, for damages or compensation, shall be deemed and held a waiver of all right thereto; which said claim or objection shall be returned to the commissioners' court, in connection with the report of the said viewers. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2487. Assessment of benefits by viewers, how made.—All lands benefited by public ditch, drain or water course shall be assessed in proportion to the benefit to the said lands by the construction thereof, whether it passed through said lands or not; and the viewers, in estimating the benefit to lands in controversy by said ditch, shall not consider what benefit such lands will receive after some other ditch or ditches shall be constructed, but only the benefits that may be received by reason of the construction of the public ditch as it affords an outlet for the drainage of such lands; and, in the making of the said assessment, should the viewers find that the construction of said ditch or drain would, to any extent, construct or constitute a public road of utility to the county in that section, or be a material benefit in the drainage of any public road then constructed, they will assess as against the county such sum as will represent the benefit so accruing to the public; provided, that all assessments for benefits accruing to counties or county roads shall be approved by the commissioners' courts of such counties. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2488. Benefits to public roads or railroads.—When any ditch established under this chapter drains either in whole or in part any public road or railroad, or benefits any such road or railroad, so that the roadbed or travel or track of any such road will be made better by the construction of any such ditch, then the jury of viewers shall apportion to any such county, if the same be a public road, or to such railroad, if the same be a railroad, such portion of the costs and expenses thereof as herein provided for to private individuals. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 2489. Reports signed by majority of viewers, sufficient.—In all reports made by any jury of viewers, the same shall be sufficient if signed by a majority of said viewers. [Same as R. S. art. 1701q. Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 2490. Report to be accompanied by what; public record, etc.—They shall submit with their report a copy of the map and profile of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, and a copy of the specifications for the construction of the same, which, together with the report, shall become a public record, and shall be placed in the custody of the county clerk, to be preserved as such. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2491. Compensation of viewers.—The said jury of viewers shall each receive the sum of three dollars per day as compensation for said work for each day so actually engaged. The said surveyor and engineer shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the commissioners' court. [This sec. same as R. S. art. 1701r. Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2492. Hearing before commissioners; their duties.—The commissioners' court, at the time set for the hearing of said petition, shall hear and determine the same in connection with all remonstrances or objections thereto; and, if they find that the said viewers' report is made in accordance with the provisions of this title, and it be in favor of the proposed work, and if they find the proposed ditch or drain to be of public utility, or conducive to public health, or of public benefit or convenience, they shall enter an order on the minutes establishing the same, as specified in the said report, and order the same to be constructed according to the said report, and shall then or thereafter take such further action and make such other and further orders and decrees in the premises as may be proper or necessary to secure the execution of said work. But should said viewers report adversely to the said work, the board shall dismiss the petition and tax the costs as against the said petitioners. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2493. Assessment, etc., of benefits less damages, by commissioners' court; lien; separate roll.—When any drain or ditch shall have been established by order of the commissioners' court, under this chapter, they shall proceed to levy and assess against the person or persons, company or corporation, shown by the report of the jury of viewers to be beneficially affected by the proposed improvement, and against each separate tract of land shown to be beneficially affected, the cost of such improvement, in proportion to the benefits to be derived, less the amount of damages to such person, company or corporation by reason of the construction of such proposed drain, ditch or water course, as shown by the report of said appraisers or adjudged by decree of court; which said assessment shall constitute a lien respectively upon the lands affected, and a separate roll of said assessments shall be made by the state and county tax assessor for the said county; and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of the public. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1899, p. 242, sec. 18.]

Art. 2494. Assessment divided into installments.—The assessments aforesaid shall be divided into five equal annual installments, each installment to be one-fifth of the amount assessed against each person, company or corporation or owners, respectively, of the lands affected by said assessment; and the first installment shall be payable within the same periods as provided by law for the payment of the state and county ad valorem taxes, the other four equal annual installments to be collected annually thereafter in the same manner; provided, that, upon failure to pay any two of said assessments, the whole sum shall become due and payable. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2495. Appeal from commissioners' court to county court, conditions of.—Any person or corporation aggrieved thereby may appeal from the final order of the commissioners' court made in said proceedings and entered upon their record to the county court of that county within ten days thereafter, by filing within ten days thereafter a transcript of said proceedings in said county court, and also filing within the said ten days, with the clerk of the said court, an appeal bond, with at least two good sureties, to be approved by the said county clerk, conditioned that he will prosecute such appeal to effect and pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court; and the said appeal shall be heard and determined upon the following issues, to-wit:

1. Whether said ditch shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare.
2. Whether the route thereof is practicable.
3. Whether the assessments made for the construction of such ditch are in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom.
4. The amount of damages, if any, to be allowed to any person or persons, or corporation; and, if more than one person appeal, the judge of the said court shall order the said cases to be consolidated and tried together, and the rights of each party shall be separately determined by the said court and jury, if any, in its verdict and final determination; and the cause so appealed and conducted in said county court shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil cases in said court. Either party to such action may appeal to such appellate court as has jurisdiction of said cause; and said action shall be returnable at once to said appellate court at either of its terms, and said action so filed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all cases of a different character therein pending. [Acts 1897, p. 98, sec. 9. Acts 1895, p. 151.]

Art. 2496. Burden of proof on such appeal.—In the trial of all cases so appealed from the order of the commissioners' court, the burden of proof shall rest upon the complainant. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2497. Collection of assessments.—The state and county tax collector shall proceed to collect said assessments in the same manner provided for the collection of state and county ad valorem taxes, and shall enforce the same, either by advertisement and sale, or by suit, as now provided by law. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1899, p. 243, sec. 18.]

Art. 2498. Lien, remedies, etc., for collecting assessments.—All liens, remedies, and modes of procedure by the laws of the state of Texas, now provided for the collection of ad valorem taxes and taxes upon real estate, shall obtain and be in force and apply for the collection for the assessments herein provided for the construction of the said drains. [Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1897, p. 101, sec. 22.]

Art. 2499. A special fund, how disbursed.—All funds arising from such assessments shall be a special fund for the construction of such drain, ditch or water course, and, by order of the commissioners' court, shall be set apart for the same, and placed in the county treasury as a special fund for said purpose, to be paid to the contractor or contractors, person, company or corporation performing said work, upon the order of the commissioners' court, as provided in this chapter. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1899, p. 243, sec. 18.]

Art. 2500. Damages paid out of county treasury.—All damages that the said jury of viewers or commissioners' court shall assess, or which may be found to have been suffered by judgment or decree of court, shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the order of said commissioners' court. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2501. Damages assessed against county, paid by same, how.—Any sum assessed against any county on account of any public drain shall be paid by said county on the order of the commissioners' court. [Acts 1897, p. 100. Acts 1895, p. 151. Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2502. Construction let to lowest responsible bidder, etc.—When the commissioners' court of any county shall have, by proper order, established any drain or ditch, the construction of the same shall be let by the said commissioners' court to the lowest responsible bidder, after suitable advertising, as a whole, or in such sections or subdivisions as the board may deem most advantageous. [Acts 1895, p. 151. Acts 1897, p. 100, sec. 20.]

Art. 2503. Contractor to give bond.—The said contractor or contractors shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the said commissioners' court in an amount to be fixed by the said court, as in their judgment may be best for the faithful construction of the said work. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 2504. Land owner may do what part of work, conditions.—Any persons through whose lands the proposed work shall pass, upon application to the commissioners' court, before the contract is let, shall be entitled to do so much of the proposed work as is upon, or passes through, his lands; provided, such application shall be made twenty days before the advertisement for the said contract; and provided, he shall undertake to do such work upon equally favorable terms with those offered by any one else; and provided, further, that he shall execute such a bond as is required of the said contractor. And if such person should fail to construct such work as hereinbefore provided by the said contractor, within the time required by the commissioners' court, then all right to construct the same shall be forfeited and cease and determine; and the commissioners' court shall let the construction of the same as in this act provided. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 2505. Work done under direction of engineer; report.—Such work to be done under the direction and supervision of the said engineer, who shall report the same to the commissioners' court for their final action. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 2506. Engineer to give estimates.—The engineer employed by the said county to superintend the construction of the said drains and ditches shall, upon the completion of each and every two hundred feet of any ditch, give to the contractor or contractors his certificate as such engineer, the said certificate showing the amount of work done and an estimate of the amount due for the construction of the same, less ten per cent thereof; which said certificate shall be delivered to the said contractor as an evidence of the amount of work constructed, and of the amount due therefor. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2507. Contractor paid out of road and bridge fund; how returned from assessment collected, etc.—The commissioners' court shall pay the said contractor or contractors, or persons constructing the said drain, out of any funds in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated and belonging to the road and bridge fund of the said county, upon the report of the said engineer, by said court approved, from time to time as the said contract progresses, and according to such terms as they may agree upon with such contractor. The said money so drawn from the road and bridge fund of the said county shall be returned from the assessment collected upon the said drain when the same shall be put into the county treasury. Said reimbursement to be made to the said fund by order of the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 2508. Where drain extends into two or more counties, procedure.—Whenever the route of the proposed ditch, drain or water course extends into two or more counties, then a petition shall be signed by at least five freeholders, one or more of whom are land owners in the county other than that of the filing of the petition, and whose lands will be liable to be assessed for the construction of such ditch, and file the same with the clerk of the commissioners' court, the said petition to be filed in the county containing the head or source of the proposed ditch, at least ten days before any regular meeting of the commissioners' court of that county; and thereupon the clerk of such court shall transmit to the clerk of the court of such other county or counties interested therein a certified copy of such petition; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county interested in the proposed work, at their first regular session after such petition is filed, to appoint three disinterested freeholders and householders of their respective counties as viewers, in like manner as is provided for the appointment of viewers on a ditch in but one county, to meet and act jointly at such time and place as the board of commissioners of the county where the petition is filed may designate; and such joint viewers shall have the same power and perform the same duties as is provided in this title for the viewers on a ditch in one county; and they shall file a report of their proceedings with the clerk of each of said counties so interested at least two weeks before the next regular session of the board of commissioners, whereupon the clerk of each county shall give notice in the manner provided for as to ditches in one county; and the time for the hearing thereof shall be set by the respective courts of each county; provided, further, that, in an action of a joint board of viewers, the approval and report of a majority of the whole board shall be necessary to constitute a valid report of said board. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2509. Joint viewers to co-operate under orders, etc.—The joint board of viewers, as herein provided for of the counties interested in said joint ditch, shall proceed to establish the same in the manner specified for ditches in but one county; and in all matters pertaining to such joint ditch, the board of commissioners shall act in the same manner, so far as is practicable, as is required by this title for ditches in but one county, and they shall act jointly, and the same shall be determined by the respective orders of the said respective commissioners' courts, and such further proceedings had thereon, as herein provided for in but one county. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 2510. Ditch to be kept open by land owner.—Every person or corporation through whose lands any public ditch is constructed shall be required to keep the same open, free and clear from all obstructions upon his or its premises, by him or it placed therein, and, in case of failure to do so, shall be liable to pay all reasonable and necessary expenses of removing such obstructions. [Id. sec. 11.]

[Note.—For the provisions in regard to incorporation for drainage purposes, outside of cities and towns, see Arts. 1261-7, title 25, chapter 18.]

Article 2511. Commissioners' court authorized to construct drains, etc., within any of the counties of the state.—The commissioners' court of any county in this state, at any regular or called session thereof, may in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall have power whenever the same shall be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, or where and whenever the same will be of public benefit and utility, to cause to be straightened, widened, altered, deepened, any creek, bayou or other stream or water course, and shall cause to be constructed and maintained, as hereinafter provided, any ditch, drain or water course within any of the said counties, and shall have power to make the said improvement, if necessary, by removing from any adjacent lands, or any stream or water course, any timber, bush, tree or other substance liable to or causing the obstruction thereof, and shall also have power to construct, in connection with any such ditch or drain, any side, lateral, spur or branch ditch or water course necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter; provided, however, that no ditch, drain, outlet or water course shall be deepened, widened, constructed or maintained without a sufficient outlet being provided for all water that may collect therein; provided, further, that the word "ditch" in this chapter hereafter shall be construed to embrace any ditch, drain or water course that may be constructed under the provisions of this act. [Acts 1899, p. 95, sec. 1.]

Art. 2512. Prerequisites to construction; petition; bond.—Before the commissioners' court of said county shall cause to be straightened, widened, altered or deepened, any creek, bayou or other stream, or water course, there shall be filed with the county court of said county a petition, signed by at least fifteen qualified voters, freeholders and property taxpaying citizens of the county, setting forth the necessity thereof, with a general description of the creek, bayou or other stream or water course proposed to be straightened, widened, altered, deepened or improved, also the starting point, route and terminus of said ditch, drain or water course; and the said petitioners shall enter into a bond not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, with five good and sufficient sureties, payable to the said county, to be approved by said commissioners' court, conditioned to pay all the expenses of preliminary surveys, jury of view, setting of stakes and monuments, bench marks, preparation of maps, plats, profiles, estimates and specifications for said work and the filing of the same, in the event the election to be held for the purpose of determining whether a tax shall be levied to cover the cost of such improvement, as hereinafter provided, shall be against the levy of such tax. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2513. Jury of view, appointment of.—As soon as said petition and bond is filed, said court shall, if in regular session or at their next regular session, appoint a jury of three freeholders and householders of the county, who shall constitute a jury of view, who shall meet at a time and place specified by said court in the order making said appointment, preparatory to the commencement of their duties as hereinafter specified; and it shall be the duty of said clerk of the said court thereupon to issue to said viewers a notice of the filing of said petition, and of the order of the court appointing them. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2514. Duties and powers of jury of view, with county surveyor; estimates; surveys; map; table; specifications.—They shall proceed at the time set in said order, with the county surveyor, to make an estimate of the work necessary to straighten, alter, widen or deepen any ditch, drain or water course, and to make an accurate survey of the line of said ditch, drain or water course from its source to its outlet; and they shall establish permanent bench marks along said line, at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary; and they shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch, drain or water course, together with the position of stakes or monuments with numbers corresponding with those on the ground; and they shall, in tabulated form, give the depth of cut, width at bottom and width at top and at the source and outlet of said ditch, drain or water course; and they shall make a computation of the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch, drain or water course, and an estimate of the total cost of construction of the whole work; and they shall prepare specifications in detail for the execution of the same; and they shall have power, when they find it necessary, to provide for running said ditch under ground through drain tiles or other materials as they may deem best, by specifying the size of tile or other kind of materials to be used in such underground work and shall include the cost of the same in the estimate of the total cost of the work. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2515. Right to enter on land for preliminary survey, etc., may condemn, how.—The commissioners' court and jury of view, acting under its orders, are hereby authorized to enter upon, for the purposes of preliminary surveys, setting of stakes, etc., the property of any person, company or corporation through which such ditch, drain or water course runs, and they (the commissioners' court) shall have power to condemn property for said purposes in same manner as prescribed for condemnations for right of way for railroad companies. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2516. Notice by viewers to land owner of time when they will lay out ditch, etc., or when commissioners' court will assess damages.—The said jury of viewers, as provided for in this chapter, shall issue a notice in writing to the land owner through whose land such proposed ditch or drain may run, or to his or their agents or attorneys, of the time when they shall proceed to lay out such ditch or drain, or when the commissioners' court will assess the damages incidental to the construction of the same; which notice shall be served upon such owner, his agent or attorney, at least five days before the day named therein; if such owner is a non-resident of the county, the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants in actions in the district or county court. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2517. Report to be accompanied by what; public record, etc.—They shall submit with their report a copy of the map and profile of the line of said ditch, drain or water course, and copy of the specifications for the construction of the same, which, together with the report, shall become a public record and shall be placed in the custody of the county clerk to be preserved as such. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2518. Appeal to county court from commissioners' judgment estimating damages; bond.—Any person, company or corporation dissatisfied with the judgment of the commissioners' court estimating the amount of damages to accrue to them by reason of the proposed ditch or drain, by filing exceptions to said judgment in writing ten days after rendition, which exceptions shall be entered upon the records of the county court of the county, and also filing within said ten days and with the clerk of said court an appeal bond, with at least two good sureties to be approved by the said county clerk, conditioned that he or they will prosecute such appeal to effect and pay all costs that may be adjudged against them, may appeal from said judgment to the county court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2519. Hearing on appeal suspended until election approving construction.—Said appeal shall not be heard in the county court until after the matter of the establishment and construction of such ditch or drain shall have been determined upon by the election to be held as hereinafter provided, and the result of said election shall be in favor of the construction of such ditch or drain. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2520. Only damages determined on appeal.—Upon such appeal there shall be heard and determined only the question of damage. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2521. Consolidation of cases on appeal; precedence.—If more than one person shall appeal, the judge of said court shall order the said cases to be consolidated and tried together; and the rights of each party shall be separately determined by the said court and jury, if any, in its verdict and final determination; and the cause so appealed and conducted in said county court shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of different nature and shall be tried and determined as other civil cases in said court. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2522. Burden of proof on appeal to county court.—In the trial of all cases appealed from the commissioners' court, the burden of proof shall rest upon the complainant. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2523. Appeal from county court when, etc., precedence.—Either party to such action may appeal to such appellate court as has jurisdiction of said cause, provided the amount of the judgment appealed from shall exceed one hundred dollars; and said actions shall be returnable at once to said appellate court at either of its terms; and said action so filed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all cases of different character therein pending. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2524. Election to be ordered, in what case, to authorize tax, etc.; regulations as to.—When the said commissioners' court shall have concluded that said ditch or drain is a public necessity and conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, or that the straightening, cleaning, widening, altering and deepening any stream, creek, bayou or other water course, shall be a public necessity, and conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, they shall proceed to order an election for the whole county, or any subdivision thereof, to be defined in their order, to determine whether there shall be levied upon the property within said county or such subdivision, by the said commissioners' court, a drainage tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property within the county or such subdivision, which said order shall fix the amount to be levied; said election to be held at a time to be fixed by order of the court, not less than twenty or more than ninety days from the date of the order therefor.

It shall not be necessary to give any formal notice of such election, except the county judge shall issue his election proclamation, and the fact that such election is to be held shall be published in some newspaper of the county as fully as practicable, and tickets for the election shall be printed by the county, and sent to each voting precinct by the county judge before the election opens, and as long before such time as practicable. The expenses of the election shall be paid by the county. If the election be ordered within ninety days of a general election, it shall be held on the day of the general election, and in the manner of holding such general election; but otherwise, the commissioners' court shall order a special election to determine whether said tax shall be levied, which shall be conducted as other elections, and the officers to conduct the same shall be appointed as in other cases. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2525. Election, further regulations as to.—Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the county and who live in the county, shall be permitted to vote at such election. The tickets printed and to be voted shall have written or printed on them the words, "For the tax," and, "Against the tax," and those who favor the tax shall vote the ticket, for the tax, and those opposed to the tax shall vote the ticket, against the tax. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2526. If election carried, result announced, levy of drainage tax authorized, requirements.—If at any such election a majority of the qualified voters, voting therefor, shall vote for such tax, it shall not be necessary to make further proclamation of that fact than to count the votes, as in other cases, and officially announce the result; and the commissioners' court shall thereby be authorized and required to levy a drainage tax, in the same manner that other taxes are levied, in the amounts specified in said order for such election, never to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property; the levy shall be made at the same time other county taxes are levied, if such election is held in time therefor, but otherwise, it may be made at any time before the rolls are made out and settlement effected. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2527. If election carried no petition for repeal in less than five years.—If at the election the proposition for said tax shall carry, no petition for its repeal shall be granted in less than five years following. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2528. If election defeated another petition may be granted in one year.—If it fails to carry, another petition may be granted in one year, but no sooner. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2529. Order granting second, etc., petition may fix what rate.—The order granting the second or any subsequent petition may fix a greater or less rate of levy, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2530. Commissioners may lower rate without petition, when, etc.—If no greater rate is levied for any one year than mentioned in the preceding article, the commissioners' court may lower the rate for the next year without a petition therefor. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2531. Election to repeal, levy to be ordered upon proof of what.—An election to repeal the levy may be ordered and held as in other cases, but there must be satisfactory proof presented to said commissioners' court that there is great dissatisfaction with such tax, and that it is probable that a majority of the citizens of the county who are authorized to vote will vote for the repeal of the law, and unless such proof be made, the petition to repeal shall not be granted. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2532. Repeal not to affect contract.—Whenever a contract for the construction of ditches shall have been entered into, no repeal shall affect or annul such contract; and the taxes necessary to pay the amount due and to become due on such contracts shall be levied and collected and disbursed as if there had been no repeal of the tax. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2533. Assessment and collection of tax; report, accounting and disbursement, etc.—It shall be the duty of the tax assessor and tax collector of each county to assess and collect the taxes herein provided as in other cases; and the tax collector shall report to the county treasurer the amount of taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter; and it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to keep a separate account of all taxes paid over to him by the collector under the provisions of this chapter and it shall also be the duty of the county treasurer to pay all warrants drawn by the clerk of the county court under an order directed by the commissioners' court of the county drawn upon said funds, and make his report of said funds as in other cases. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2534. Liens, remedies, etc., for collecting assessments.—All liens, remedies and modes of procedure, by the laws of the state of Texas now provided for the collection of ad valorem taxes and taxes upon real estate, shall obtain and be in force and apply for the collection for the assessments provided in this chapter for the construction of said drains. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2535. Taxes collected to be known as drainage fund.—All taxes and money collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be known as the drainage fund. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 2536. Construction to be let to lowest responsible bidder, when.—When the commissioners' court of any county shall have, by proper order, established any drain or ditch, the construction of the same shall be let by the said commissioners' court to the lowest responsible bidder, after suitable advertising, as a whole, or in such sections or subdivisions as the board may deem most advantageous. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2537. Contractor's bond.—The said contractor or contractors shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the said commissioners' court, in an amount to be fixed by the said court, as in their judgment may be best, for the faithful construction of said work. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2538. Work to be done under direction, etc., of engineer, report, etc.—Such work to be done under the direction and supervision of the said engineer, who shall report the same to the commissioners' court for their final action. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2539. Landowner may do what part of work; conditions.—Any person through whose lands the proposed work shall pass, upon application to the commissioners' court before the contract is let, shall be entitled to do so much of the proposed work as is upon or passes through his lands. Such application shall be made twenty days before the advertisement for the said contract; and provided, he shall undertake to do such work upon equally favorable terms with those offered by any one else; and provided, further, that he shall execute such a bond as required by the said contractor. And if such person should fail to construct such work, as hereinbefore provided by the said contractor, within the time required by the commissioners' court, then all right to construct the same shall be forfeited and cease and determine; and the commissioners' court shall let the construction of the same as in this chapter provided. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2540. Contractor, etc., paid out of fund so collected, how, etc.—The commissioners' court shall pay the said contractor or contractors or persons constructing the said drain out of any funds in the county treasury collected as aforesaid, upon the report of the said engineer, by said court approved, from time to time as the said contract progresses, and according to such terms as they may agree upon with such contractor. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 2541. Commissioners to audit claims and order payment.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to audit all claims against the county for work and expenses under the provisions of this chapter; and for all claims allowed, said commissioners' court shall, by an order duly entered upon the minutes of said court, direct the clerk of the county court to issue a warrant payable out of the drainage fund and directed to the county treasurer for the amount allowed by said court. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 2542. County commissioners' court may establish drainage districts, to be included in one or more counties; incidental powers; election for bonds.—

The county commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state may hereafter establish drainage districts in their respective counties; and such districts may be included in any county, or in any number of adjoining counties, and may or may not include, within their boundaries and limits, villages, towns and municipal corporations, or portions thereof. Such districts when so established may, under the direction of the commissioners' court or the district trustees, construct and maintain canals, drains and waterways for the purpose of drainage, or in aid thereof, to hold elections for the purpose of voting bonds and to issue bonds in payment therefor, which shall never be in amount greater than that of one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property of said district; and generally to do such things as shall be necessary to the completion and maintaining of a good and efficient drainage system in such district or districts, as authorized by the constitution of the state of Texas and the provisions of this chapter. This chapter shall be cumulative of, and additional to, all other general laws upon the subject of drainage not in conflict herewith. [Acts 1905, p. 212, sec. 1.]

Art. 2543. On petition, etc., district may be created when, etc.—Upon the petition of fifty or a majority of the resident property taxpayers of any county in this state, whose land shall be affected thereby, to the county commissioners' court of any county, the commissioners' court shall thereafter have power, at any regular or special session, to create a drainage district within such county; and, when the same shall appear to be for the public health, benefit or utility of such proposed drainage district, may authorize the said district or districts to construct and maintain drainage canals and ditches with laterals, spurs, branches, inlets and outlets within such proposed district or districts; provided, that in all cases of such proposed improvements, provisions shall be made for the disposal, final discharge and outlet of all waters that may be collected within such canal, streams, ditches and drains to be so made, constructed or improved. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2544. Petition, requirements as to; jury of view; surveyor, etc.; survey; report with profile and map, showing benefits, etc., to be filed, etc.—Such petition shall be filed with the clerk of the county court of such county and shall set forth the necessity of such proposed drainage district, including the proposed boundaries thereof, the initial point, route and terminus of such drains and the probable cost thereof. The commissioners' court shall, at its first session, either regular or special, after the filing thereof, or, if the same be filed during the session, at once appoint a jury of three freeholders of the county, not kin to any of the petitioners therein, who shall constitute a jury of view. Such jury of view shall meet at a time and place specified by said court, and shall, at such time as directed, proceed with the county surveyor, or any other civil engineer appointed by the said court, to make an accurate survey of the proposed district and drain course for the purpose of ascertaining the advisability of such improvements and estimating the cost thereof. And said jury of view and engineers shall make report thereof to the said commissioners' court with a profile and map of the territory included, showing each parcel of land benefited and to be affected by such improvements within such proposed district, except that when a town, village or municipal corporation, or a part thereof, be included, any recognized map thereof may be filed, giving the number of estimated acres in each tract and the names of the owners thereof as far as they be able to ascertain by reasonable inquiry and search of the public records; and to further report as to the public utility and advisability of such proposed improvements. Such report, together with the maps and records thereof, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court and become a public record therein and shall be preserved as such. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2545. Oath of viewers and engineer.—Before said viewers and engineer shall proceed to act as such, they shall take and sign the following oath before any officer authorized to administer oaths, to-wit: "I do solemnly swear that I will view the proposed drainage district now directed by the order of the commissioners' court without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my knowledge, skill and ability. So help me God." And said oath shall be filed with the records of said case. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2546. Compensation of viewers and engineer.—The jury of viewers shall each receive the sum of three dollars per day, and the engineer not less than five dollars per day, compensation, as may be fixed by the commissioners' court, while actually engaged on said work. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 2547. Landowners, etc., resident, notified; hearing; remonstrances, etc.; order establishing district and directing improvements; objections thereto.—All resident land owners of such proposed district shall be notified by the clerk of said court in writing or otherwise, as may be directed by the county commissioners' court, of the substance of the report of said jury of view, and shall be notified ten days in advance of the time and place when the same shall be acted upon by said commissioners' court, except that when a town or municipal corporation, or a portion thereof, is included in such district, publication for five days prior to the ten days of notice herein required, in any newspaper published therein, shall be deemed sufficient notice thereof to all persons residing in said town, village or municipal corporation, of such action. And all persons and corporations, whose lands may be affected by such improvements, shall have the right to appear before said commissioners' court, and to be heard upon all matters pertaining thereto, and, if dissatisfied with the action taken by said commissioners' court, shall file objections thereto in writing, which shall become a part of the records in such case; and a failure to make such objections, or a failure to make a claim in writing for damages or compensation, shall be deemed and held as a waiver of right and of all objections thereto. At the time set for the hearing of said petition and report of jury of view, the commissioners' court shall hear and determine all remonstrances and objections thereto; and, if it be found that such proposed improvements shall be for the public health, convenience, benefit or utility of such proposed district, they shall enter an order on the minutes establishing the same, either as specified in the petition or in the report, and shall order said district to be established and the improvements to be constructed according thereto, or according to a further and more fully particularized report and survey to be made thereafter under the direction of said court; or the board may dismiss the petition and tax the costs already accrued against the said petitioners, in whole or in part, as the justice of the case may require; and the collection thereof may be enforced as hereafter provided for as to other and additional costs. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2548. Name or number for such district.—Each district shall be named or numbered or both by the county commissioners' court, and shall be so designated upon the public record of such county or counties, and the name or number or both thereof shall be designated upon the bonds of such district when issued. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2549. District may sue and be sued; judicial knowledge of.—Such district may, through its trustees, sue and be sued; and all courts in this state shall take judicial notice of any and all drainage districts established under this chapter. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2550. Appeal to county court; procedure and issues on.—Any persons or corporation aggrieved by the final order of the commissioners' court, made in said proceedings and entered upon the record thereof, may appeal to county court of such county by filing written notice of said appeal stating fully the reasons for such appeal, and filing therewith an appeal bond with two or more good sureties within ten days thereafter, to be approved by the county clerk, conditioned that he will prosecute such appeal to effect and will pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court. Such appeal shall be heard and determined upon the following issues, to-wit:

1. Whether said proposed drainage improvement district will be conducive to the public health, utility or benefit of said district.

2. Whether such proposed improvements are practicable.

3. The question of the sufficiency of damages, if any, allowed to such appellant by the commissioners' court. If more than one person appeal to the county court, all of said cases may be consolidated and tried together, and the right of each party separately determined; and the verdict and judgment therein shall be a final determination thereof, except as to the damages. All appeals in such cases shall have precedence in the right to trial, and shall be tried and determined as all other civil cases in said court, and may be tried in vacation or term time. In the trial of such cases so appealed from the order of the commissioners' court, the burden of proof shall rest upon the complainant. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2551. Election to be held in what case; if carried, improvements made and bonds issued.—When it shall have been determined by the commissioners' court, after all appeals and protests have been finally disposed of, except as to damages, that such drainage districts shall be established and such proposed improvements made, the proposition shall be submitted to a vote of the property taxpayers who are qualified electors and actual residents within the limits of such proposed district; and, if such proposition shall receive a two-thirds vote in favor thereof, all such drainage improvements according to such proposition shall be made and the bonds thereof issued as authorized by this chapter, under the further direction of the county commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2552. Time and place of election, state election law applies.—The commissioners' court shall determine the time and place of holding the elections; and the manner of holding the same shall be governed by the laws of the state regulating general or special elections. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2553. Proposition and ballots, requirements as to.—The proposition to be submitted for the issuance of bonds for such improvements shall specify the purpose for which the same are to be issued, the amount thereof, the time payable and rate of interest. All ballots to be voted in said election shall have written or printed thereon the words, "For the drainage and bonds" and "Against the drainage and bonds." [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2554. Bonds, period, terms and requirements as to.—Any and all bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall not extend in point of time beyond forty years, shall not draw a rate of interest greater than five and one-half per cent, shall not be sold for less than par, and shall be registered by the comptroller and approved by the attorney general of the state of Texas. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 2555. Expenses of jury of viewers, election, etc., how paid.—All just sums, charges, costs and expenses of the jury of viewers, engineer, election and the proceedings generally, not otherwise herein provided for, shall be paid in the following manner: If the proposition be carried at the election, the same shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds so voted; if the proposition be lost at the election, then, by an order of the commissioners' court, the total amount of such costs and expenses shall be paid by the county out of the road and bridge fund, or, if there be no road and bridge fund, out of the general funds of said county. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 2556. Tax, improvement, for interest and sinking fund.—Whenever any such district drainage bonds shall have been issued, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes upon all property, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, subject to taxation, within the limits of such district, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall fall due, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in a sinking fund, sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2557. Sinking fund, investment of; attorney general's approval.—If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested in such bonds of the state, counties, municipalities and districts of the state as shall be approved by the attorney general. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2558. Trustees, elected when; duties.—Whenever a drainage district shall have been created and the bonds voted, under the provisions of this chapter, there may be elected by the resident electors of such district, a board of trustees, consisting of three qualified electors who are property owners therein; and such board shall thereafter be elected biennially so long as may be required, and shall serve without compensation. The duties of such board of trustees shall be to look after the drainage interests of such district generally, and to aid and to advise the commissioners' court in regard thereto. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 2559. Trustees, commissioners may act as, if, etc.—If the property holders, or a majority thereof, of any such district shall express their desire that the county commissioners of such county shall perform the duties and services above provided to be performed by the trustees, then the county commissioners' court of such county shall do and perform all the things in connection therewith necessary to be performed for the purpose or purposes of carrying into effect the object and intent of this chapter. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2560. Money and bonds in keeping of county treasurer.—All moneys and bonds of such district or districts shall be in the keeping of, and handled by, the county treasurer of such county or counties wherein such district or districts shall be located. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2561. Specifications for bids; advertisement; contract.—Whenever a drainage district shall have been created, and the bonds thereof voted for proposed drainage improvements therein as hereinbefore provided, the district trustees shall, if the same has not then already been done, cause to be prepared by a competent civil engineer a complete tabulated statement, schedule and specifications of the kind, character and amount of construction, excavation and other work to be done, and all such other matters as shall be necessary for full and intelligent estimates and bids thereon by contractors or others desiring to bid for the work and construction thereof; and, thereafter, the district trustees shall advertise for bids upon the whole of said work or any part thereof, and shall let contracts therefor in the manner required by general laws, subject, however, to the approval of the county judge of said county. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2562. Payments for construction, how made.—No money shall be paid out of the county treasury for such construction work nor for any other purpose in connection therewith, except upon warrants drawn by the district trustees and countersigned by the county judge of such county. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2563. Eminent domain, right of conferred.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon the drainage district, acting through its trustees or commissioners' court, as the case may be, for the purposes herein indicated; and condemnation and all proceedings in relation thereto shall be had and conducted as provided by the railroad laws of this state. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2564. Road, public, assessment against county for benefits to, etc.—Whenever any such improvements shall drain a public road, or in any way improve, better or benefit the same, the jury of viewers shall estimate the value of such proposed improvements to such public road, in a stated sum or amount, and such sum or sums, when approved and allowed by the county commissioners' court, shall be paid by the county, and such amount shall not be included in the estimated total cost of such work for which bonds are to be issued by such district. Any estimated sum properly chargeable against a public road shall be paid out of the road fund, or any other fund of such county available for road purposes. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 2565. Obstructions in drains prohibited; provisions as to removing.—It shall be the duty of every person or corporation whose lands are benefited and through whose lands any such drainage ditch, canal or improvements are constructed, to keep same reasonably free upon such lands, and are hereby strictly prohibited from, in any manner, obstructing the same or causing the obstructing of the same, so as to prevent free flow of waters therein. For the purpose of preventing and removing obstructions therein, a special fund may be created by said district, to be expended for such purposes under the direction of the trustees of said district, or the county commissioners' court; and such fund may be created in such manner as the residents of said districts may lawfully direct. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 2566. Where course of improvements extend into, etc., two or more counties, procedure, rights, etc.—Whenever the course or route of such drainage improvements properly extend into or through two or more counties, the commissioners' courts of the several counties shall act in harmony, each furnishing the other with copies of reports, petitions, estimates and other data, and may arrange for a joint jury of view, survey, etc., but in all such cases the final consummation of the proposition shall be determined by the respective orders, proceedings and results of each county interested; provided, that whenever the natural and most practical course for a final outlet and discharge of any such drainage district lies within or passes through one or more adjoining counties, the commissioners' court of the county or counties making such drainage improvements shall have the power, and they are hereby authorized to purchase or condemn the right of drainage way into or through such adjoining county or counties by the usual mode of condemnation proceedings authorized by the general laws of the state, and shall construct and complete the drainage outlet and discharge contemplated by this chapter; provided, however, that the lands and territories in such adjoining county or counties and adjacent to such drainage improvements so constructed and made by the initial counties shall never be made to artificially drain thereinto, unless they shall pay to said initial county its just and rightful proposition [proportion] of the cost and maintenance thereof. [Id. sec. 12.]

Article 2567. Drainage districts established, how; scope; may make improvements; bonds for.—The county commissioners' courts of the several counties of this state may hereafter establish one or more drainage districts in their respective counties in the manner hereinafter provided, and may or may not include, within the boundaries and limits of such districts, villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any portion thereof; but no land shall at the same time be included within the boundaries of more than one drainage district created under this act. Such drainage districts, when so established, may make drainage improvements therein and issue bonds in payment therefor as hereinafter provided in this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 78, sec. 1.]

Art. 2568. Petition for drainage district, requisites; set for hearing; notice, fees.—Upon the presentation to the county commissioners' court of any county in this state of a petition, accompanied by the deposit provided for in article 2602, signed by twenty-five of the freehold resident taxpayers, or, in the event there are less than seventy-five freehold resident citizen taxpayers in the proposed district, then by one-third of such freehold resident citizen taxpayers of any proposed drainage district, whose lands may be affected thereby, praying for the establishing of a drainage district, and setting forth the necessity, public utility and feasibility and proposed boundaries thereof, and designating a name for such drainage district, which name shall include the name of the county, the said commissioners' court shall, at the same session when said petition is presented, set said petition down for hearing at some regular or special session of said court called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition, and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door of said county, and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed drainage district. The said clerk shall receive as compensation for such service one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. Such notices shall be posted for twenty days prior to the date of said public hearing. Provided, however, that in all cases wherein drainage districts have heretofore been established, or wherein a hearing has been heretofore had on the petition, and action thereon has been taken by the county commissioners' court, or wherein a public hearing is now pending upon a petition for a drainage district, and the notices thereof and therefor have been so posted for twenty days, in either or all of such cases, the notices for such public hearing as well as the notices for the hearing upon the engineer's report provided for in article 2576, shall be and they are hereby held, deemed and declared to be, and to have been, due and legal and valid notices of such public hearing or hearings under the full meaning, intent and purpose of this law. [Acts 1907, p. 79. Acts 1909, p. 24, sec. 2.]

Art. 2569. Hearing of petition; contest; exclusive and final jurisdiction of commissioners' court over subject matter, except, etc.—Upon the day set by said county commissioners' court for the hearing of said petition, any person whose land would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before said court and contest the creation of such district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony to show that said district is, or is not, necessary, and would, or would not, be of any public utility, either sanitary, agricultural or otherwise, and that the creation of such drainage district would or would not be feasible or practicable. Said county commissioners' court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such district, and all matters pertaining to the same; and said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, except as hereinafter provided, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments rendered by said court in relation thereto shall be final, except as hereinafter otherwise provided. [Acts 1907, p. 79, sec. 3.]

Art. 2570. Finding of commissioners' court, and record of same.—If, at the hearing of said petition, it shall appear to the court that the drainage of such district is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed, that the drainage would be conducive to the public health, or would be a public benefit or a public utility, then the court shall so find, and cause its finding to be entered of record. But if the court should find that the drainage of such district is not feasible and is not practicable, or that the drainage of such district is not needed, and that it would not be conducive to health or a public benefit, or would not be a public utility, then the court shall enter such finding of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2571. If finding for petitioners, civil engineer appointed; assistants; pay.—After the hearing of the petition as provided for in articles 2569 and

2570, if the court should find in favor of the petitioners, for the establishment of a district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition, or as modified by said court, then the court shall appoint a competent civil engineer, who shall receive a sum of not more than ten dollars per day for his services for the time he is actually engaged in the work for which he is appointed; and said engineer is authorized to employ two assistants who shall each receive the sum of not more than two dollars per day for the time they are actually engaged in the work. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2572. Bond of civil engineer.—Before entering upon his official duties, the civil engineer shall enter into a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the commissioners' court and payable to the county judge, for the use and benefit of the drainage district, conditioned on the faithful discharge of his official duties under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 2573. Survey and location of canals, drains, etc.; designation of streams, etc.; estimates; report to commissioners.—The civil engineer shall, as soon as practicable, or within such time as may be directed by the county commissioners' court, go upon the premises and land embraced within the district and examine the land intended to be drained and protected by levees, and shall locate the necessary canals, drains and ditches, laterals and levees, and make an estimate of the probable cost of making and completing each of them, and shall also designate the stream or streams and bayous necessary to be cleaned, deepened or straightened, and estimate the cost of each, and shall also estimate the probable cost of maintaining same per year, and shall at once make a detailed report of his work to the court. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2574. Canals, drains, etc.; how located.—In locating the canals, drains and ditches, the engineer shall, in so far as the same may be practicable, follow the lines of the original surveys, or of the sections where the land has been sectionized. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2575. Report to be accompanied by map, showing what.—Such report of the engineer shall be accompanied by a map showing the initial or beginning point, as well as the outlets, of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and shall show the length, width, depth and slopes of the banks of the cut or excavation, and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth to be removed from each, and shall show the location and size of all levees and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth necessary to construct the same; a copy of the official land office map of the county, with the boundaries of the drainage district and the beginning points and outlets of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and other data required by this article shown thereon, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with this article. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2576.—Hearing before county commissioners; notice; objections.—When such report of the engineer shall have been filed with the clerk of the county commissioners' court, it shall be the duty of said court at its next regular or special session to set such report down for a hearing at some subsequent regular or special session, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of such sitting, and to instruct the clerk of said court to give notice of said hearing by posting notices in the same manner and for the same compensation as provided for in article 2568 of this act in regard to the original notices of the filing of the petition. At the hearing on said engineer's report, any freehold taxpayer of said district whose lands may be affected by said drainage improvements, whether he be a resident of such district or not, may appear and object to any and all of said canals, drains, ditches and levees, for the reason that they are not located at the proper places, or that they are not sufficient in number or capacity to properly drain said territory. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2577. Action of court on report.—If there should be no objection to said report, or if there should be objection thereto, and the court should find that the objections are not well taken, the report shall be approved, and the fact of such approval entered of record on the minutes of said court; but the commissioners' court shall not be confined to the number of drains, ditches, canals or levees, or to the initial point or outlets of same, as located and shown by said report of the engineer, and may change the location of any of said improvements, or may add to the number of same or reduce the number of same, and order the engineer to locate any additional canals, drains, ditches or levees, which levees may be constructed for the purpose of conducting waters from the lands of said district, or to prevent the overflow of waters from streams or otherwise onto the lands of said district proposed to be drained, or otherwise in aid of said purpose, as directed by the court; and the commissioners' court, if it deem it necessary, may refer the entire report back to the engineer for a compliance with the orders of the court and require a further report; provided, that notices shall be given as provided in article 2576, and shall state that the public hearing shall be upon such report of the engineer, and also upon any changes or modifications that may be made by the county commissioners' court. Provided, further, that in all such public hearings heretofore had under sections 10 and 11 of the Acts of the Thirtieth Legislature of Texas, chapter 40, approved March 23, 1907, wherein twenty days notice or more was given, such notices and hearings shall be, and the same are hereby held, deemed and declared to be, and to have been legal, regular and valid notices and hearings in all respects under the full intent, meaning and purpose of this law. [Acts 1907, p. 81. Acts 1909, p. 24, sec. 11.]

Art. 2578. Election to be ordered after approval of engineer's report.—After the approval of the report of the engineer as presented, or as modified by the county commissioners' court, as provided for in the preceding article, the county commissioners' court shall order an election to be held within such proposed drainage district at the earliest possible legal time, at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions, and none other: "For the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor;" "Against the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2579. Notices of election; requisites.—Notice of such election, reciting the establishment of the drainage district, stating the amount of bonds, which shall not exceed the engineer's estimate and the cost of any additional work which may become necessary by any change or modification made by the commissioners' court, as provided for in article 2577, stating the time and place or places of holding the election, shall be given by the county clerk by posting notices thereof in four public places in such proposed drainage district, and one at the court house door of the county in which such district is situated. Such notices shall be posted for twenty days previous to the date of the election, and shall contain the proposition to be voted upon as set forth in article 2578, and shall also specify the purposes for which said bonds are to be issued; provided, that the said notices of election in all drainage districts wherein such elections have heretofore been held or are now pending, and wherein twenty days notice was had, shall be, and the same are hereby, held, deemed and declared to be and to have been legal and valid notices of such elections, under the full meaning, intent and purpose of this law. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 2580. Regulations for holding election.—The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of the State of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said proposed district, shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the county commissioners' court at such election. The county commissioners' court shall name a polling place for such election at each voting precinct or part of a precinct embraced in said drainage district, each of which shall be in the proposed drainage district, and shall also select and appoint the judges and other necessary officers of the election; and shall provide one and a half times as many ballots for said election as there are qualified resident taxpaying voters within such drainage district, as shown by the tax rolls of said county. Said ballot shall have printed thereon the words, and no others: "For the drainage district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor;" "Against the drainage district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." [Acts 1907, p. 81, sec. 14.]

Art. 2581. Same subject.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place wherein he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is hereby authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter of county, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed drainage district voted on at this election, and I have not voted before at this election." [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 2582. Returns; canvass; declaration of result.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judge at each polling place shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for state and county officers, and return the ballot boxes to the county clerk, who shall keep same in a safe place and deliver them, together with the returns from the several polling places, to the commissioners' court, at its next regular session or special session called for the purpose of canvassing the vote, and the county commissioners' court shall at such session canvass the vote. [Acts 1907, p. 82. Acts 1909, p. 25, sec. 16.]

Art. 2583. Order establishing drainage district.—If it be found that two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon shall have been cast in favor of the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said drainage district, the levy of tax, issuance of bonds, and shall enter the same in the minutes of the court substantially as follows:

"In the matter of the petition of and others, praying for the establishment of a drainage district in said petition, described and designated as County Drainage District No. be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district held on the day of, A. D. 19.., a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said drainage district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of a tax, now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said drainage district be, and the same is, hereby established by the name of County Drainage District No. ..., within the following metes and bounds;" which field-notes shall be copied into the record.

All drainage districts hereafter created shall bear the name of the county in which they may be located, as a part of their names, and shall be numbered consecutively as created and established by order of the commissioners' court; provided, however, that all districts heretofore established and otherwise named, but which have not, so far, issued bonds, may by an order of the county commissioners' court of such county, have such district or districts renamed and numbered in accordance with the requirements of this chapter. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 2584. Drainage districts may sue and be sued; judicial knowledge of.—All drainage districts established under this chapter may, by and through the drainage commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this state, in the name of such drainage district; and all courts of this state shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all such districts. [Acts 1907, p. 91, sec. 53.]

Art. 2585. Drainage commissioners appointed; qualifications; pay; term; elected when.—After the establishment of any drainage district as herein provided, the commissioners' court shall appoint three drainage commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the proposed drainage district, who shall be freehold taxpayers and legal voters of the county, and shall have resided in such county for at least three years, whose duty shall be as herein-after provided, and who shall each receive for their services a sum of not more than two dollars and fifty cents per day for the time actually engaged in the work of said district; provided, the compensation, if any, shall have been definitely fixed in the order of the court; and, before any amount shall be paid said commissioners, or either of them, they shall make a detailed report to the commissioners' court of the time actually consumed in the work for said district, and of the work done; and such report shall be audited and approved by the commissioners' court. Said drainage commissioners shall hold office for the term of two years and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the county commissioners for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. Upon expiration of the term of office of said drainage commissioners, or in case of the resignation of any such commissioners, the commissioners' court shall appoint their successors by a majority vote; provided, that after the election establishing a drainage district, if a majority of the real property taxpayers of such district residing in such county present a petition to the county commissioners' court, praying for an election in said district for the purpose of electing three drainage commissioners therefor, the county commissioners' court shall immediately order an election to be held in said district for said purpose at the earliest legal time; and an election shall be held and the returns thereof made as hereinbefore provided for other elections, and the same qualifications hereinbefore provided for voting at other elections shall apply in said election. The commissioners' court shall canvass said returns and declare the result at their next regular or special session; and the three persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event the third highest vote be tied, the commissioners' court shall elect the third drainage commissioner from among those receiving the third highest vote; provided, further, that in districts wherein drainage commissioners have been heretofore appointed, whenever a majority of the real property tax-paying voters of such district shall file a petition with the county clerk of the county in which such district is situated, requesting an election for drainage commissioners, the commissioners' court shall, at its next session, regular or special, order an election to be held in said district for said purpose in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such commissioners so elected when duly qualified as required by this chapter shall be the legal and rightful drainage commissioners for such district within the full meaning, intent and purpose of this law. All drainage district commissioners elected as herein provided shall hold their offices until the next regular election for state and county officers, and shall then and thereafter be elected every two years at such general election. [Acts 1907, p. 82. Acts 1909, p. 26, sec. 17.]

Art. 2586. Oath of drainage commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, all drainage commissioners shall take and subscribe before the county judge an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of their doings to the court by which they are appointed, whenever requested to do so, which oath shall be filed by the clerk of the commissioners' court and preserved as a part of the records of said drainage district. [Acts 1907, p. 82, sec. 18.]

Art. 2587. Bond of drainage commissioners.—Before entering upon their duties, each of the drainage commissioners shall make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of said drainage district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2588. Organization of drainage commissioners; quorum, etc.—The drainage commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary, and two of whom shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district, except the letting of contracts and the drawing of warrants on the treasury, which shall require the concurrence of all of said commissioners. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2589. Drainage commissioners may employ counsel, etc.—The drainage commissioners are hereby empowered and authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract or the conducting of any proceedings, in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of such drainage commissioners, upon such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them and approved by the county judge, and such commissioners shall draw a warrant or warrants in payment for such legal services. [Id. sec. 51.]

Art. 2590. Right of eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all drainage districts, established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through any and all lands, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for making the canals, drains, ditches and levees, and all improvements necessary to the drainage of the district. All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the drainage commissioners and in the name of the drainage district, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the statutes of the state of Texas for condemning and acquiring the right of way by railroads; provided, that no appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing a suspension of work by the drainage commissioners in prosecuting the work of drainage in all of its details; provided, that no right of way can be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities of such city or town. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 2591. May acquire right of way, how, etc.—The drainage commissioners of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all canals, drains, ditches and levees, and other necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, and, if acquired by purchase, such purchase shall be subject to approval by the county commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 2592. Civil engineer; salary; term; to make map and profiles; requisites.—After the establishment of any such district, the drainage commissioners shall employ a competent civil engineer upon a salary not to exceed ten dollars per day for the time actually engaged in work, and whose term of office shall be at the will of said drainage commissioners, which civil engineer shall proceed to make a map of such district showing the boundary lines thereof, with the original surveys therein, and also to make maps and profiles of the several canals, drains, ditches and levees located in such district; but a copy of the land office map of the county, as it applies to such district, showing the name and number of each survey, and showing the area or number of acres contained in such district, shall be a sufficient compliance with such order in so far as making a map of the district is required; and any recognized map of any city or town which may be embraced within the boundaries of said district shall be sufficient as to such city or town; provided, however, that where boundary lines of such drainage district, or any of them, cross an original survey, the map shall show how many acres of such original survey are included within such drainage district. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 2593. Further requisites of maps and profiles.—The map and profiles of each drain, ditch and levee required by the provisions of this act to be made, shall show the relation that each canal, drain, ditch or levee bears to each tract of land through which it passes and the shape into which it divides each tract; and, where the canal, drain, ditch or levee cuts off any tract less than twenty acres of land, the map shall show the number of acres so divided therefrom and the number of acres in the whole tract, showing the shape of such small tract and its relation to the canal, ditch, drain or levee. And such profile map shall also show the number of cubic yards necessary to be excavated in order to make each canal, drain or ditch, and to build any levee located in such district, and give the estimated cost of each; and, when said map, profiles and estimates, shall have been completed by the engineer as herein provided, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the clerk of said county commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 2594. No trespass to go upon land for examination and location, etc.—The drainage commissioners of any district and the civil engineer from the time of their appointment are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, locating the canals, drains, ditches and levees, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 2595. Drainage bonds; order for issuance; modifications.—After the establishment of any such drainage district, and after making and filing of such map, profiles and estimates as provided for in article 2593, the commissioners' court shall make an order directing the issuance of drainage bonds for such district, sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements, together with all necessary, actual and incidental expenses connected therewith; provided, however, that said bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof, made for state and county taxation, nor exceeding the amount specified in said order and notice of election. Provided, however, that, if after an election has been held establishing the district, the tax authorized or levied, and bonds authorized to be issued, or have been issued, as provided in this chapter, the commissioners' court shall consider it necessary to make any modification in the said drainage district, or in any of the improvements therein, and issue additional bonds, upon the report of the engineer appointed by the drainage commissioners, as authorized by this chapter, or upon the report of said drainage commissioners, or upon its own motion, shall have the right to order a hearing for said purposes, or either or any of them, and notice thereof shall be given as for original hearings, as in this chapter provided; and, upon the hearing of said matters, or any or either of them, the said commissioners' court shall make such orders as it deems proper in the premises; and, if such drainage district is modified or changed, or if the improvements therein proposed are changed or altered, and, if additional bonds are considered necessary, the said commissioners' court shall so find, and such findings entered of record, and a notice shall be given and an election for such changes in said district and improvements and the issuance of said bonds shall be held within such time and the returns of elections made as in this chapter provided for in case of an original election, and, if two-thirds majority of the property taxpaying voters of the district voting thereon in favor of such change in such district, or improvements and issuance of bonds, the court shall enter the same of record and order such bonds to be issued as in the manner otherwise provided in this chapter. [Acts 1907, p. 83. Acts 1909, p. 27, sec. 22.]

Art. 2596. Bonds, requirements as to validating provisions.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the drainage district, signed by the county judge and attested by the clerk of the county court, with the seal of the county commissioners' court affixed thereto; and such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, and such bonds shall bear interest at the rate not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds shall, by their terms, provide the time, place or places, manner and conditions of their payment and the interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the county commissioners' court, but none of such bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date thereof. Provided, however, in all drainage districts heretofore created and which have issued and registered bonds with the comptroller, under chapter 40 of the Acts of the Thirtieth Legislature of Texas, approved March 23, 1907, all proceedings had and done in connection with, and leading up to, the creation of such districts and the issuance of such bonds so registered, except such bonds that were issued and registered with the comptroller under chapter 40 of the Acts of the Thirtieth Legislature of Texas, in excess of the estimate before the commissioners' court, when the election was ordered and held, be and the same are hereby held, deemed and declared to be, and to have been, regular, valid and legal proceedings under the full intent, purpose and meaning of this law; and all such bonds so issued thereunder are hereby held, deemed and declared to be valid and binding obligations upon such drainage districts. [Acts 1907, p. 84. Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 2597. Submission to attorney general; data; examination; certificate.—Any drainage district in the state of Texas desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the attorney general a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such drainage district as such including the series of bonds proposed and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment by the county, together with such other information as the attorney general may require, whereupon it shall be the duty of the attorney general to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds; and if, as the result of such examination, the attorney general shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such drainage district by which they are issued, he shall so officially certify. [Acts 1907, p. 84, sec. 24.]

Art. 2598. Registration of bonds, etc., certificate preserved of record; effect as evidence, etc.—When said bonds have been examined by the attorney general and his certificate attached thereto, they shall be registered by the state comptroller in a book to be kept for that purpose; and the certificate of the attorney general to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the attorney general, and having been registered in the comptroller's office as herein provided, shall thereafter be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought in question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And in every action brought to enforce collection of said bonds, the certificate of the attorney general, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided, that the only defense that can be offered against the validity of said bonds shall be forgery or fraud. But this article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the constitution, or contrary to its provisions, but all such bonds shall, to the extent of such excess, be held void. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 2599. Record of bonds before issuance; open to inspection.—Before issuing any bonds under the provisions of this chapter, the county commissioners' court shall provide a well bound book, in which a record shall be kept by the county clerk of all bonds issued, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest and date of issue, when due, where payable and amount received for the same, and the annual rate per cent assessment made each year to pay the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for their payment. And said book shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of all parties interested in said district either as taxpayers or bondholders, and upon the payment of any bond an entry thereof shall be made in said book. The county clerk shall receive for his services in recording all bonds and other instruments of the drainage district the same fees as provided by law for other like records. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 2600. Sale of bonds, and disposition of proceeds.—When such bonds have been registered, as provided for in the preceding section [article] of this chapter, the county judge shall, with the additional assistance that the county commissioners' court may direct and authorize, offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon; and, as fast as said bonds are sold, all moneys received therefor shall be paid by the county judge to the county treasurer, and shall by him be placed to the credit of such drainage district. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 2601. Bond of county judge before sale; compensation.—Before the county judge shall be authorized to sell any of the drainage bonds, he shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the commissioners of such drainage district, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of said county, for an amount not less than the amount of bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the said drainage commissioners; and the county judge shall be allowed one per cent of the amount received on the sale of any bonds sold by him in full payment for his services in that behalf. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 2602. Construction and maintenance fund; expenses paid out of, unless proposition defeated; deposit to meet expense in such case.—All expenses, debts and obligations, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any drainage district organized under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such drainage district, which fund shall consist of all money received by said district from whatever source, except such portion of the tax collection necessary to be applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the drainage bonds; provided, that should the proposition of the creation of such drainage district and the issuance of bonds be defeated at the election called to vote upon the same, then all expenses up to and including said election shall be paid in the following manner: When the original petition praying for the establishment of a drainage district is filed with the county commissioners' court, it shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said commissioners' court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said drainage district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners' court, as hereinbefore provided, and, should the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then the said two hundred dollars shall be by said clerk returned to the signers of said original petition or their agent or attorney; but should the result of said election be against the establishment of said drainage district, then the said clerk shall pay out of the said two hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed drainage district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, of said two hundred dollars to the signers of said original petition or their agent or attorney. [Acts 1907, p. 85. Acts 1909, p. 28, sec. 29.]

Art. 2603. Tax for interest and sinking fund; investment of sinking fund; powers of assessor and collector, lien, etc.—Whenever any such district drainage bonds shall have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within said drainage district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, and sufficient in amount annually to pay the interest on such bonds, as it shall fall due, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity. If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as shall be approved by the attorney general of the state for the benefit of such drainage district. Provided that, in the assessment and collection of the taxes authorized by this chapter, and in all matters pertaining thereto or connected therewith, said assessor and collector shall have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and proceedings as are provided by the laws of this state for the assessment and collection of taxes for state and county purposes, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter. The taxes levied or authorized to be levied by this chapter shall be a lien upon the property for which said taxes are assessed; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court, and the said court shall have authority, to fix and determine when said taxes shall mature; and, upon the failure to pay said taxes when due, the penalty provided by the laws of Texas for the failure to pay state and county taxes at maturity shall in every respect apply to taxes herein authorized to be assessed and levied. [Acts 1907, p. 86. Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 2604. Additional tax books; assessment of property in drainage district; compensation; penalty, forfeiture.—The county commissioners' court shall provide all necessary additional books for the uses of the assessor and collector of taxes and the county clerk for such drainage district, and charge the cost of same to the said drainage district. It shall be the duty of the county tax assessor, when ordered to do so by the county commissioners' court, to assess all property within such drainage districts and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said commissioners' court for that purpose, and return said books or rolls at the same time when he returns the other books or rolls of the state and county taxes for correction and approval; and, if the said commissioners' court shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve the same and order the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of said tax assessor to be paid from the funds of said drainage district. The tax assessor shall receive for said services such compensation as the said county commissioners' court shall deem proper to compensate him for the amount of work done; provided, that said county assessor shall in no event be allowed less than what he is now allowed by law for the like services. Should the tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of the commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all the property in such drainage districts as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts 1907, p. 86. sec. 31.]

Art. 2605. Collector charged with assessment rolls; compensation; bond required; penalty for failure to give.—The tax collector of the county shall be charged by the county commissioners' court with the assessment rolls of the drainage district, and he shall be allowed such compensation for the collection of said taxes as he is now allowed for the collection of other taxes. The county commissioners' court shall require the tax collector of the county to give an additional bond or security, in such a sum as they deem proper and safe, to secure the collection of said taxes; and, should any collector of taxes fail or refuse to give such additional bond or security as herein provided, when requested by the commissioners' court, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 2606. Collector to report delinquents to commissioners' court, duty of court.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the drainage tax has not been paid, and return the same to the county commissioners' court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such delinquent property, in the same manner as is now provided for the sale of property for the collection of state and county taxes; and, at the sale of any property for any delinquent drainage tax, the drainage commissioners may become the purchasers of the same for the benefit of the drainage district. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 2607. Treasurer to keep accounts with drainage district, rendered when; payments on vouchers.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to open an account with the drainage district and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district, and of all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the drainage commissioners and countersigned by the county judge; and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and, as often as required by the said drainage commissioners or the county commissioners' court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 2608. Treasurer's bond; compensation.—The county treasurer shall be the treasurer for such district, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the drainage commissioners of such district in a sum equal to the amount of bonds issued, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer of such district, which bond shall be approved by the said drainage commissioners; and the treasurer shall be allowed as compensation for his services as treasurer one-half of one per cent upon all moneys by him so paid out upon orders of such districts. [Acts 1907, p. 87. Acts 1909, p. 29, sec. 35.]

Art. 2609. Surety company bonds allowed.—The county judge, county treasurer, contractor and all bonded officers of such district or districts may be officially bonded in some surety company approved by said drainage commissioners. [Acts 1907, p. 87. Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 2610. Contract let to lowest bidder, etc., how, etc.; proviso.—Contracts for making and constructing canals, drains, ditches and levees, straightening and cleaning water courses, and other necessary work in connection with any drainage district, shall be let by the drainage commissioners to the lowest bidder, after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the state of Texas, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least twenty days, in five public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and at least two of which shall be within said drainage district, and the contract for each drain, canal, ditch or levee, may be let separately or all together; provided, that all the improvements included in the report of the drainage engineer and adopted by the county commissioners' court, as provided for in articles 2592 and 2593, shall be constructed. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 2611. Bids how presented, etc.—Any person or corporation or firm desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for as provided for in the preceding article shall, upon application to the drainage commissioner, be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report showing the location, profiles and estimates of such work as provided for in this act, and all bids or offers to do any of such work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the drainage commissioners, together with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract, if his bid is accepted. Any and all bids may be rejected if deemed too high. [Acts 1907, p. 88, sec. 42.]

Art. 2612. Contracts how made.—All contracts made by the drainage commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors and drainage commissioners and approved by the county judge, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk for reference. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art. 2613. Bond of contractor.—The party, firm or corporation to whom any such contract is let shall give bond, payable to the drainage commissioners of said district, in the amount of the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of their contracts, and that in default thereof will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by such drainage commissioners and the county judge. [Acts 1907, p. 88. Acts 1909, p. 30, sec. 44.]

Art. 2614. Engineer to furnish profile, etc., to contractor, supervise work, etc.; report.—The drainage engineer shall furnish the contractor with a sectionized profile of the work contracted for, showing the depth, width and slope of all canals, drains, ditches and levees, and the number of cubic yards to be removed and other work to be done by the contractor; and such work shall be done by the contractor under the supervision of the drainage engineer, who shall indicate to the said contractor the points at which the laterals shall intersect the main canal; and no earth shall be deposited by the contractor so as to interfere with the construction of such laterals or other contemplated work in said drainage district, or the building of bridges or other work on the public roads; and, when the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the drainage commissioners, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not, in what particular it has not been so complied with. [Acts 1907, p. 89, sec. 45.]

Art. 2615. Inspection of work by drainage commissioners, and payment for same.—The drainage commissioners shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, at all times during the progress of the work being done under contract, to inspect the same; and, upon the completion of any contract, they shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee; which warrant shall, when approved by the county judge, be paid out of the drainage fund of such district. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 2616. Payment as work progresses.—If the drainage commissioners shall deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise and contract for work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses; but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate seventy-five per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, the amount of work completed to be shown by a certified report by the engineer, and no payment to be made for work not completed. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 2617. Bridges and culverts across, etc., railways, etc.—The drainage commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any railroad track and right of way of such railway, to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, drain or ditch necessary to be constructed as a part of the drainage system of such district, such bridges or culverts to be paid for by the drainage district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by such drainage commissioners to the railway authorities authorized to build or construct bridges and culverts; and the railway company shall be allowed thirty days in which to build such bridges or culverts at their own expense, if it should so desire, according to its own plans; provided, such bridge or culvert shall be constructed as to not interfere with the free and unobstructed flow of the water passing through the canal or drain, and shall be placed at such points as are designated by the drainage engineer. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 2618. Bridges and culverts over canals, drains, etc.—The drainage commissioners are hereby authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, drains, ditches, laterals and levees made and constructed under the provisions of this chapter whenever the same crosses a county or a public road, and shall pay for the same out of the drainage fund; and they are hereby authorized to draw warrants on the county treasurer therefor, which warrants must be approved by the county judge. [Id. sec. 46a.]

Art. 2619. Canals, drains, etc., public property of district, rights of land owners, etc.—All canals, drains, ditches and levees made and water courses cleaned or constructed by any district shall be the public property of such district; and every person owning land within said district shall have the right to drain into one or more of such public drains, and for such purpose shall be permitted at his own expense to make drains according to the natural slope of the land through such other lands as intervene between his land and the nearest public drain or water course, or along a public highway; provided, that no such drain through another's property, or along a public highway, shall be made until authorized by the drainage commissioners, who shall, after notice by the party desiring to make such drain, go upon the premises and act as a jury of view and determine the place where such drain may be made. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 2620. No drainage into canal, etc., without acquiring right; how, etc.—Whenever a drainage district has been established under the provisions of this act, no private individual, company or corporation or adjoining drainage district, shall have the right to artificially drain adjacent lands located outside of such drainage district into any canals, drains or ditches, until they have acquired the legal right to do so as provided in this chapter. Whenever any private individual, company or corporation, or adjoining drainage district shall desire to secure an outlet for drainage by making a connection with any canal, drain or ditch already constructed by any established drainage district, he, they or it, shall make written application to the drainage commissioners of such established district for permission to make such connection; which application shall show the width, depth and length of such connecting drains or ditches; and, when such application has been filed with the drainage commissioners of the established district, the civil engineer shall make an estimate of the quantity of water which such connecting drains or ditches would probably empty into such established canals or drains, and whether such established drains or canals have sufficient capacity to carry such excess of water without risk or damage thereto or the adjacent territory. And the engineer shall make a report showing the result of his examination and estimate; and the drainage commissioners of the established district may, if they deem advisable, authorize such connection, on condition, however, that such private individual, company or corporation or adjoining drainage district shall first pay into the county treasury for the benefit of the construction and maintenance fund of such established drainage district, a sum of money which bears the same ratio to the cost of the original canal or drain from the point of connection to its outlet, that the water to be emptied therein by the connecting drain or canal bears to the water then tributary to and being carried by the original canal or drain, as estimated by the drainage engineer, unless the drainage commissioners for the established district shall otherwise agree with such parties making application for such connection. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 2621. Permitted on condition of enlargement, when necessary.—Whenever it becomes necessary or advantageous for an individual, corporation or drainage district, established, or to be established, under this chapter, to secure drainage outlets through one or more drainage districts already established, as provided in the preceding sections [articles] of this act, and when it shall appear from the report of the engineer of such established district that the canals, drains or outlets of such established district are not of sufficient capacity to carry the excess of water that would be discharged therein by reason of such connections, or that such additional discharge of water would endanger the initial canals and drains, or the lands and property adjacent thereto, then, and in that case, the county court in which the initial district is situated shall nevertheless authorize such individual, corporation, company, or drainage district, as the case may be, to make such connection and secure the desired outlets only on condition, however, that he, they or it, shall first at their own cost and expense make the necessary enlargement of the canals and drains with which it is proposed to make connections and such increased capacity shall be amply sufficient to carry any increase of water that may be caused by such connections without danger to said canals and drains or to lands adjacent thereto. [Id. sec. 49a.]

Art. 2622. Enlargement of canals, drains, etc., how done, etc.—The work of enlarging such canals and drains shall be done under the supervision and direction of the engineer of the initial district, whose salary shall, by order of the county court, be paid by the person, company, corporation or district, doing such work to secure connection, as aforesaid. When the work of enlarging the initial canals and drains is fully complete to the satisfaction of the said engineer, he shall make a report to the county court, under his official certificate, showing the kind and character of work done and to what extent any of the canals and drains have been enlarged, and shall show that the increased capacity of the same is sufficient to carry any excess of water that may be added thereto by reason of such connection; and the engineer shall, as a part of his report, show the number of days he was actually employed in supervising said work, and also show the amount due him for such services; and, on the approval of such report, the court shall make an order authorizing the connections desired with such canals and drains, on payment of the amount shown to be due the engineer by said report. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 2623. Drainage commissioners to keep canals, drains, etc., in repair; authority, etc.—It shall be the duty of the drainage commissioners to keep the canals, drains, ditches and levees, and other improvements made under the provisions of this chapter, in repair, and they shall have general authority to supervise and control the construction and maintenance of same. [Id. sec. 40a.]

Art. 2624. Annual report of drainage commissioners.—The drainage commissioners shall make an annual report of their acts and doings as such commissioners, and file the same with the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of January of each year; which report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same and the amount paid out on orders, and for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 50.]

Art. 2625. County judge, etc., not to be interested in contract.—Neither the county judge nor any county commissioner or drainage commissioner, nor the drainage engineer, shall be, directly or indirectly, interested for themselves or as agents for any one else in the contract for the construction of any work to be performed by such drainage district. [Id. sec. 52.]

Article 2626. [3836] University funds.—The following shall constitute a permanent fund for the university of Texas, to be used for the benefit of said university:

1. All lands and other property heretofore set apart and appropriated for the establishment and maintenance of the university of Texas under any previous law.
2. One million acres of the unappropriated public domain of the state set apart for that purpose by the present constitution, and one million acres of land set apart by act of April 10, 1883.
3. All bonds that have heretofore or that may hereafter be purchased with the proceeds of the sales of the university lands.
4. All proceeds of the sales of university lands that are now, or may hereafter be, placed in the treasury of the state.
5. In addition to the foregoing, all grants, donations and appropriations that may be hereafter made, or that may be received from any other source. [Const., art. 5, secs. 10-15. Act Feb. 11, 1858, p. 148. P. D. 3573. See acts 1879, extra session, ch. 18.]

Art. 2627. [3837] Shall be held in trust and invested.—Such portions of the funds specified in the preceding article as are now in the possession of the state, or that may hereafter be received, shall be held in trust by the state for the use and maintenance of said university; and all such funds as are susceptible of investment, and that have not heretofore been invested, shall be invested for the benefit of such university in the manner provided in the constitution and laws on that subject. [Id.]

Art. 2628. [3838] Title by donation may be vested, how.—Any person, association of persons or body corporate making a donation of property for the purposes of establishing or assisting in the establishment of a professorship or scholarship in the university or any of its branches, either temporarily or permanently, may vest the legal title to the property in any person or persons, body corporate, or the state of Texas, to be held in trust for said purpose, under such directions, limitations and provisions as may be declared in writing in the donation which are not inconsistent with the objects and proper management of said institution or its branches. [Acts of 1889, p. 143, sec. 1.]

Art. 2629. [3839] Donor may direct transmission of title.—It shall be lawful for the person or persons or body corporate to declare and direct the manner in which said title to said property shall thereafter pass or be transmitted from the person or persons or body corporate receiving it to others in continued succession, to be held and appropriated to the use aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for the donor or donors to declare and direct the person or class of persons who shall receive the benefit of said donation, together with the manner in which the person or persons who shall receive said benefits shall be from time to time selected, as it may become necessary to carry out the objects of the donation; provided, said declarations and directions are not inconsistent with the objects and proper management of said institution or its branches. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2630. [3840] Shall vest in the state in trust, when.—In the event there is a failure to transmit the title to the property or to bestow its use in the manner as declared and directed in the donation, or in the event they, or either of them, should become impracticable from the change of circumstances, the title to the property, unless otherwise directed expressly by the donor, shall vest in the state of Texas, to be held in trust to carry into effect the purposes of the donation as nearly as may be practicable by such agencies as may be provided therefor. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2631. [3841] Must be subject to laws, etc.—The title to said property donated shall be received, and the trust conferred in the donation shall be assumed, subject to laws that may be passed and carried into effect from time to time which may be necessary to prevent the loss of, or damage to, the property donated, or an abuse or neglect of the trust so as to defeat, materially change, or prevent the objects of the donation. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 2632. [3842] Copies to be filed with board, etc.—Copies of said donation shall be procured and filed with the board which may have control of the university or any of its branches to which the donation applies, which board shall report the condition and management of the property and the manner in which the trust is being administered, as part of the matters reported pertaining to said institution. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 2633. [4263a] Control of university lands confided to regents.—The board of regents of the university of Texas are invested with the sole and exclusive management and control of the lands which have heretofore been, or which may hereafter be, set aside and appropriated to, or acquired by, the university of Texas, with the right to sell, lease and otherwise manage, control and use the same in any manner, and at such prices and under such terms and conditions as may to them seem best for the interest of the university, not in conflict with the constitution of this state; provided, that such land shall not be sold at a less price per acre than the same class of land of other funds may be sold at under the statutes. [Acts of 1895, p. 19.]

Art. 2634. Control of mineral lands confided to regents.—Said board of regents are invested with the sole and exclusive management and control of all mineral lands within the domain which has been, or may hereafter be, appropriated, set aside or acquired by the university of Texas; and said board of regents are hereby empowered and authorized to sell, lease, manage and control said mineral lands belonging to said university as may seem best to them for the interest of the university; and they are further empowered with authority to explore and have explored and develop said mineral lands and to make any contract with any persons whomsoever for the exploration and development of said mineral lands, and pay the expenses for such exploration or development out of the proceeds of the lease or sale of said land. [Acts 1901, p. 266, sec. 1.]

Art. 2635. [4263b] Duty of commissioner of land office.—The commissioner of the general land office is hereby directed to furnish to the said board of regents complete and accurate maps, and all other data necessary, to show the location and condition of every tract of said university lands, and shall at all times furnish to said board such additional information as they may require, and shall at all times render to said board such assistance as may be possible and as they shall request in the discharge of the duties hereby imposed on said board. [Act 1895, p. 19.]

Art. 2636. [3843] Government of university, how vested.—The government of the university shall be vested in a board of eight regents, selected from different portions of the state, who shall be nominated by the governor and appointed by and with the advice and consent of the senate. [Acts of 1881, p. 94; amend. 1895, p. 169.]

Art. 2637. [3844] Board of regents classified.—The board of regents shall be divided into classes, numbered one, two, three and four, as heretofore determined by the board, who shall hold their office two, four, six and eight years respectively, from the time of their appointment. Two members shall be appointed at each session of the legislature to supply the vacancies made by the provisions of this article, and in the manner provided for in the preceding article, who shall hold their offices for eight years respectively. [Acts of 1881, p. 80, sec. 6.]

Art. 2638. [3845] Shall have right to use seal.—The regents and their successors in office shall have the right of making and using a common seal and altering the same at pleasure. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2639. [3846] How organized.—The regents shall elect a chairman of the board of regents from their own number, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. They shall establish the departments of a first-class university, determine the offices and professorships, appoint a president, who shall, if they think it advisable, also discharge the duties of a professor, appoint the professors and other officers, fix their respective salaries, and they shall enact such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary for the successful management and government of the university; they shall have power to regulate the course of instruction and prescribe, by and with the advice of the professors, the books and authorities used in the several departments, and to confer such degrees and to grant such diplomas as are usually conferred and granted by universities. [Id. sec. 8; amend. 1895, p. 169.]

Art. 2640. [3848] May remove officers.—The regents shall have power to remove any professor, tutor or other officer connected with the institution, when, in their judgment, the interest of the university shall require it. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 2641. [3849] Admission fee limited.—The fee of admission to the university shall never exceed thirty dollars, and shall be open to all persons in the state who may wish to avail themselves of its advantages, and to male and female on equal terms, without charge for tuition, under the regulations prescribed by the regents, and all others under such regulations as the board of regents may prescribe. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 2642. [3850] Treasurer.—The treasurer of the state shall be the treasurer of the university. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 2643. [3851] Available fund.—The regents shall have authority to expend the interest which has heretofore accrued, and may hereafter accrue, on the permanent university fund, for the purposes herein specified, and for the maintenance of the branches of the university. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 2644. [3852] Expenditures how made.—All expenditures may be made by the order of the board of regents, and the same shall be paid on warrants of the comptroller, based on vouchers approved by the president and countersigned by the secretary. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 2645. [3853] No religious qualification required for admission.—No religious qualification shall be required for admission to any office or privilege in the university; nor shall any course of instruction of a sectarian character be taught therein. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 2646. Elementary agriculture to be taught.—The board of regents shall require the teaching of elementary agriculture in the summer session of the university, as provided in chapter 10 of this title. [Acts 1909, p. 221, sec. 2.]

Art. 2647. Shall confer teachers' diplomas, when.—The university shall also confer teachers' diplomas and certificates in such cases and under such circumstances and conditions as are prescribed in chapter 14 of this title. [Acts 1909, 2 S. S., p. 394.]

Art. 2648. Law licenses to issue on diplomas.—Law licenses shall be granted upon the diplomas of the law department of the university, as prescribed by article 317. [Acts 1905, p. 150.]

Art. 2649. [3854] Annual report to board of education.—The board of regents shall report to the board of education annually, and to each regular session of the legislature, the condition of the university, setting forth the receipts and disbursements, the number and salary of the faculty, the number of students, classified in grades and departments, the expenses of each year, itemized, and the proceedings of the board and faculty fully stated. [Acts 1881, p. 80, sec. 21.]

Art. 2650. [3855] Board of visitors.—There shall be appointed by the legislature at each regular session a board of visitors, who shall attend the annual examinations of the university and its branches and report to the legislature thereon. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 2651. [3856] Expenses of regents and visitors to be paid.—The reasonable expenses incurred by the board of regency and visitation in the discharge of their duties shall be paid from the available university fund.

Art. 2652. [3857] Governor to have issued manuscript bonds.—The governor is authorized and directed to have issued manuscript bonds of the state of Texas to be sold or exchanged at par for the permanent university fund at any time when there is on hand in cash any reasonable amount of such funds not less than five thousand dollars. [Acts of 1889, p. 81.]

Art. 2653. [3858] Character of bonds.—Said bonds shall be of such denomination as the governor may direct, and shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the state, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable annually at the state treasury on the first day of March of each year. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2654. [3859] Form of bonds.—The bonds issued under this chapter shall recite the title and date of passage of the act of 1889, page 81, shall be signed by the governor and treasurer and countersigned by the comptroller, and shall be registered in the office of the state treasurer; and, after said bonds have been registered, the governor shall offer said bonds to the board of education as an investment for the permanent university fund then on hand in cash which are by law authorized to be invested; and, if the board of education take said bonds, the treasurer and comptroller shall make the proper entry, showing the facts of the transaction and the necessary transfer of such fund on their books; and, if the board of education shall not take said bonds thus offered, the same shall be destroyed and canceled and of no effect whatever. [Id. sec. 3.]

Article 2655. [3860] Agricultural and Mechanical College made a branch of the university of Texas.—The agricultural and mechanical college of Texas, established by an act of the legislature passed April 17, 1871, located in the county of Brazos, and by the constitution made and constituted a branch of the university of Texas, for instruction in agriculture, the mechanical arts and the natural science connected therewith, shall be managed and controlled as herein provided. [Const., art. 7, sec. 13; 12 U. S. Stat., p. 503; 14 Id. p. 203; act March 9, 1875, p. 72 P. D. 5693 et seq.]

Art. 2656. [3861] Leading object of the college.—The leading object of this college shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanical arts, in such manner as the legislature may prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life. [12 U. S. Stat., p. 503; act Cong. July 2, 1862, sec. 4.]

Art. 2657. [3862] Board of directors.—The government of the agricultural and mechanical college of Texas shall be vested in a board of eight directors, one of whom shall be the commissioner of agriculture, who shall reside in different portions of the state, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. [Acts of 1881, p. 75; amended acts 1899, p. 21.]

Art. 2658. [3863] Directors how appointed, term of office.—The board of directors shall be divided into classes, numbered one, two, three and four, as determined by the governor, shall hold their office two, four, six and eight years, respectively, from the date of their appointment and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Two members shall be appointed at each session of the legislature to supply the vacancies made by the provisions of this article, and in the manner provided for in the preceding article, who shall hold their office for eight years respectively. [Amended acts 1899, p. 21.]

Art. 2659. [3864] Vacancy, how filled.—Should a vacancy occur in the said board by the death, resignation or otherwise of any one of the directors so appointed, the governor shall fill the same by appointment, which shall continue until the term for which he was appointed shall expire. [Acts 1881, p. 75.]

Art. 2660. [3865] Quorum, what constitutes.—Said board shall elect from their number a president of the board, who shall call said board together for the transaction of business whenever he deems it expedient, and a majority of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. [Id.]

Art. 2661. [3866] Expenses of directors, how paid.—Said directors shall serve without compensation, but shall receive their actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings of the board or in the transaction of any business of the college imposed by said board. [Id. Amended act 1899, p. 21.]

Art. 2662. [3867] Certificate of appointment to be sent.—The secretary of state shall forward a certificate to each director within ten days after his appointment, notifying him of the fact of such appointment, and, should any director so appointed and notified fail for ten days to give notice to the governor of his acceptance, his appointment shall be deemed void, and his place filled as in case of vacancy. [Acts 1881, p. 75.]

Art. 2663. [3868] Number of students to receive instruction free of charge.—There shall be maintained and instructed at said college annually, free of charge to them, three students from each senatorial district in this state, one of whom shall be appointed by the senator of such district, and the other two by the representatives thereof. One-half of said students so appointed shall be compelled to take an agricultural, and the other half a mechanical, course of study, to be assigned thereto by the president of said college; and, in order to pay their expenses, the comptroller, on proper vouchers being filed in his office by the directors, is authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer against any appropriation made for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 2664. [3869] Board shall appoint president, professors, etc., of the college, etc.—The board of directors shall, when necessary, appoint the president and professors of the college and such other officers as, from time to time, they may think proper to keep the college in successful operation, and may, from time to time, abolish any office that is in their judgment unnecessary. [Acts of 1875, p. 74.]

Art. 2665. Board to employ expert entomologist.—The president and board of directors of the college shall employ an expert entomologist, one or more, as may be deemed necessary, whose duty it shall be to devise, if possible, means of destroying the Mexican boll weevil, boll worm, caterpillar, sharpshooter, chinch bug, peach bug, fly and worm and other insect pests, and to perform the duties of professor of entomology in the college. [Acts 1899, p. 9, sec. 1.]

Art. 2666. To establish department of instruction in valuing, etc., cotton.—Said board shall establish at and in connection with the said college a school or department for the instruction in the theory and practical arts of grading, classing and determining the spinable value of cotton, whose main purpose shall be to train students in the theory and practical art of cotton classing in all its branches from the field to the factory. [Acts 1909, p. 220, sec. 1.]

Art. 2667. To provide summer school for said department.—In addition to the regular school provided for above, said board shall provide for a special summer school of at least two months each year for the training of special students, and there shall be no entrance examination for said special summer schools. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 2668. Power to make necessary provisions.—The board of directors is invested with full power and authority to make provisions for said school or department, and to purchase the necessary equipment, and generally to do and perform all acts necessary to establish and maintain said school or department. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 2669. To establish department for instruction in manufacture of cotton.—Said board shall establish at and in connection with the said college a school or department for instruction in the theory and practical art of textile and kindred branches of industry, whose main purpose shall be to train students in the theory and practice of cotton manufacturing, in all its branches, from the raw cotton to the finished fabric, and said board shall do and perform all acts necessary to establish and maintain said school or department. [Acts 1903, p. 74, sec. 1.]

Art. 2670. Duty of professor of chemistry as to commercial fertilizers and poisons.—Besides his other duties, it shall be the duty of the professor of chemistry in this institution to analyze commercial fertilizers and commercial poisons and chemical mixtures used as commercial fertilizers or commercial poisons, as may be required by any statute, criminal or civil, in this state, and print the result of such analysis in the form of a label to be attached to such articles exposed for sale in form and manner as prescribed by law, and to do and perform such other duties in relation thereto as may be required by the laws of this state. [Acts 1899, p. 64.]

Art. 2671. To furnish analysis free.—Any agriculturist or farmer, a purchaser of any commercial fertilizer or commercial poison in this state, may take a sample of the same under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the professor of chemistry, and forward the same to him for analysis, which analysis shall be made free of charge. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 2672. Fees from sale of labels appropriated, how.—The revenues accruing from the analysis fees and sale of labels as provided for shall be expended by the board of directors of the college for the maintenance of the chemical department, and for such other purposes as they may determine. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 2673. Copy of official analysis admissible as evidence.—A copy of the official analysis of any fertilizer or commercial poison or chemical, certified to by the professor of chemistry, shall be admissible as evidence in any court of this state, on the trial of any issue involving the merits of said fertilizer or commercial poison. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 2674. [3870] May make by-laws, etc.—Said board of directors of said college shall also, from time to time, make such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said college as they may deem meet and proper for that purpose, and shall regulate the course of study, the rates of tuition, the manner of performing labor, and the kind of labor to be performed by the students of said college, and shall also prescribe the course of discipline necessary to enforce the faithful discharge of the duties of the professors, officers and students. [Act 1875, p. 74.]

Art. 2675. [3871] By-laws, etc., shall be printed.—It shall be the duty of the board to have printed, for the benefit of the people of the state and officers and students of the said college, such by-laws, rules and regulations as they are authorized by the preceding article to prescribe. [Id.]
