16. From each person, party, partnership or corporation engaged in the business of inquiring into and reporting upon the credit or standing of persons engaged in business in this State, or acting as agent or business manager in this State for any such person, party, partnership, joint stock association, or corporation, three hundred dollars. The payment of this tax, evidenced by the receipt of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall exempt the party paying the same from the payment of this tax in any other county, or to any city or town; and payment of such tax shall not be required of any sub-agent or correspondent of the party or company carrying on such business in this State.

17. Gas companies.—From each gas company, manufacturing gas in towns and cities of ten thousand or more inhabitants, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Id.]

18. Electric light companies.—From each electric light company operating an electric light plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand and more than six hundred inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 27.]

19. Waterworks companies.—From each water works company operating a water works plant in a town or city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, thirty-five dollars; in a city or town of less than ten thousand and more than six hundred inhabitants, twenty dollars. [Id.]

20. Ice dealers.—From each person or corporation who are wholesale dealers, selling imported or home-made ice to the trade to be sold again, in cities and towns of twenty thousand inhabitants or more, fifty dollars; in cities and towns of less than twenty thousand or more than ten thousands inhabitants, thirty dollars; in cities and towns of less than ten thousand and more than five thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars; in cities and towns of less than five thousand inhabitants ten dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

21. Street car companies.—From every street car company in this State, two dollars per mile on each mile of track owned by said company or corporation. [Id.]

22. Theaters.—From the owner, proprietor or operator of every regularly established and recognized opera house, theater, airdome, and other establishd place where moving picture or other entertainments or exhibitions are given for private profit, in cities, towns and villages having the following populations, respectively:

| Population. | Annual Tax. |
|-----------------------|-------------|
| Under 1000..... | $ 5.00 |
| 1,000 to 2,500..... | 15.00 |
| 2,500 to 5,000..... | 20.00 |
| 5,000 to 10,000..... | 25.00 |
| 10,000 to 15,000..... | 30.00 |
| 15,000 to 20,000..... | 40.00 |
| 20,000 to 30,000..... | 50.00 |
| 30,000 to 40,000..... | 60.00 |
| 40,000 or more..... | 75.00 |

In each case the population shall be determined by the preceding Federal census. Counties, incorporated cities, towns and villages shall each have the power and authority to collect one-half the amount of such State occupation tax. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 162.]

23. Panorama or view shows.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every panorama or view show, used for profit, exhibiting in a wagon, room, tent or elsewhere, an annual occupation tax of ten dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars per annum. A panorama or view show is a show exhibiting pictures, statuary or other works of art which are to be viewed through stereoscopic or magnifying lenses. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

24. Circus.—From every circus or wild west show wherein among other acts, broncho-busting, rough riding, equestrian or acrobatic feats are performed or exhibited for which pay for admission is demanded or received, for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of seventy-five cents or over is charged, two hundred and twenty-five dollars; for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of any sum from fifty cents to seventy-five cents is charged, two hundred dollars; for each day or part thereof on which performances or exhibitions are given where an admission fee of fifty cents or less is charged, one hundred and fifty dollars; provided, that the amount of fee charged for reserved seats shall be considered as a part of such admission fee; provided that where there is a combination of circus and menageries, wild west and menagerie or circus or wild west and other exhibitions, the highest tax fixed by this act for any division or department of the combination shall be collected. Every show or exhibition which advertises itself as a circus, wild west show or menagerie or combination of any of them, shall be held to be such for the purposes of the levy and collection of occupation taxes provided for herein. [Acts 1911, p. 142.]

25. Menagerie, museum, carnival.—From every menagerie, wax works, side shows or exhibition, whether connected with a circus or not, where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every performance or exhibition in which fees for admission are received; provided that from any museum, menagerie or zoological exhibition, or a combination thereof, operated and maintained in any city or town and open for admission all day continuously, in which a charge for admission is demanded or received, an annual tax of fifty dollars. Provided that where any carnival, or carnivals, shows, amusements or entertainments are held, under the auspices, direction or control of any chamber of commerce of any city or other similar organization, for not longer during any one year of a period or periods aggregating thirty days, it shall not be necessary for such carnivals, shows or entertainments to pay any tax to the State, city or county during the operation of said show by said chamber of commerce or other similar organization, but there shall be assessed against said chamber of commerce or other similar organization, as the case may be, a State tax of one hundred dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 209.]

26. Waxworks, etc.—From every menagerie, wax-works or exhibition of any kind where a separate fee for admission is demanded or received, ten dollars for every day on which fees for such admission are received; provided that exhibitions by associations organized for promotion of art, science, charity or benevolence, shall be exempt from taxation; and persons who form a museum composed entirely of the products of Texas shall have the right to exhibit the same for a fee without paying any occupation tax. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

27. Acrobatic performances.—From every exhibition where acrobatic feats are performed and an admission fee charged for profit, not connected with the circus or theatre, ten dollars for each performance. [Id.]

28. Slight of hand performances.—From every slight of hand performance or exhibition of legerdemain, not connected with the theater or circus, twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

29. Medicine shows, etc.—From each owner, manager or keeper of every show or company of persons giving exhibitions of music, songs, recitations, slight of hand, gymnastic, dancing or other kinds of performances in a tent, house or elsewhere, which said exhibitions are used for profit by sale of medicines, electric belts or other articles of value, whether charge is made only for seats or not, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars and a county occupation tax of two dollars and fifty cents for every such performance or exhibition; provided, this tax shall not be assessed when these performances are given inside the grounds of any State or county fair during the time that said State or county fair is giving its annual exhibition. [Id.]

30. Concerts, etc.—For every concert where a fee for admission is demanded or received, two dollars; provided, that entertainments when given by the citizens for charitable purposes, or for the support or aid of literary or cemetery associations are exempt. [Id.]

31. Phonographs, etc.—From each owner or manager of every coin operated phonograph, electrical piano, electric battery, graphophone, weighing machine or other machines or instruments where a fee is charged, where such fee is five cents or more, an annual tax of five dollars. From each owner or manager of every such machine as mentioned or referred to herein where the fee charged is a penny, an annual occupation tax of one dollar, provided when an electric battery is used by a regularly authorized physician on a patient, no tax shall be charged. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 44.]

32. Ball parks.—From every manager of a base ball park in a city or town containing five thousand or more inhabitants, where an admission fee is charged, twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

33. Race tracks.—From every owner or manager of every race track, one mile or more in length, used for profit, one hundred dollars; from each owner or manager of every race track, one-half mile or less in length, fifty dollars per annum; provided, this shall not apply to race tracks owned by private individuals and used only for training purposes, or in connection with agricultural fairs and expositions. [Id.]

34. Skating rinks.—From each and every owner or keeper of any skating rink used for profit, twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

35. Shooting gallery.—From every person or firm keeping a shooting gallery at which a fee is paid or demanded, an annual tax of thirty dollars in each county. [Id.]

36. Nine and ten pin alleys.—From every nine or ten pin or other alley used or operated for profit by whatever name called, constructed or operated upon the principal of a bowling alley upon which pins, pegs, balls, rings, hoops or other devices are used, without regard to the number of tracks or alleys in the same building or place, or whether the balls or other devices are rolled or used by hand or otherwise, one hundred dollars. Any alley used in connection with any drug store, or place where tobacco in any form is sold, or upon which money or other things of value are paid or charged for the privilege of playing shall be regarded as used and operated for profit. [Acts 1917, p. 385.]

37. Hobby horses, etc.—From all persons keeping or using for profit any hobby horse, flying-jenny, or device of that character, with or without name, fifteen dollars for each county wherein the same are kept or used. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

38. Tax on dealers in cannon crackers, etc.—From every person, firm or corporation engaged in the occupation of selling cannon crackers, or toy pistols used for shooting or exploding cartridges, within this State, an annual tax of five hundred dollars, and counties and incorporated cities or towns in which such business is located shall have the power to levy a tax of one-half the above amount as now provided by law in addition to the above tax, and such person, firm or corporation so selling such cannon crackers shall be required to pay an additional tax in the above amount and take out an additional license for each separate establishment or place in which such cannon crackers shall be sold. By the term “cannon cracker” is meant any fire cracker or other combustible package more than two inches in length, and more than one inch in circumference commonly sold and exploded for purposes of amusement. Nothing herein shall be so constructed as to prohibit the sale of, or to place a tax on, the sale of cartridges, combustible packages or explosives commonly used for firearms or artillery, mining, excavating earth or stone, scientific purposes or for any public or private work. [Acts 1909, p. 174.]

39. Cigarette dealers.—From all dealers in cigarettes in this State, ten dollars, a cigarette being the same as defined by the laws of the United States government; provided, that this tax shall be in addition to any other tax levied under the law. Each dealer shall be required to procure an annual license from the county clerk of the county where he proposes to sell cigarettes, which shall be granted for no shorter or longer term than one year. The license shall describe the house and locality where the dealer proposes to sell cigarettes. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

Art. 7048. [7357] [5050] County ad valorem, etc. — Each commissioners court shall have power to levy, for county revenue purposes, a tax of one-fourth of one per cent, and, for roads and bridges, fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of all property subject to a State tax by the provisions of this title; and, for the payment of debts incurred prior to September 1883, and for the erection of public buildings and other permanent improvements they shall have power to levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year, and for the improvement of public roads, under the restrictions provided by law for the levy of a road tax, a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and shall have power to levy a special tax for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection within each school district of school buildings therein in counties not exempt from the district school system; provided, that two-thirds of the qualified property tax paying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, and shall have the right to levy one-half of the occupation tax levied by the State upon all occupations not herein otherwise specially exempted; provided any one wishing to pursue any of the vocations named in this chapter, upon which any county occupation tax may be levied, may do so by paying the same quarterly. The receipt of the proper officer under seal shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such taxes as are herein named. The provisions of this law shall not be deemed to affect the provisions of any law specially authorizing any commissioners court to levy a different rate of tax. No person shall be allowed license for keeping any nine or ten pin alley, or anything of the kind used for profit, for a period of less than twelve months. The governing body of any incorporated town or city shall in no case levy a greater tax on any occupation than that authorized by this chapter to be levied by the commissioners court. In all cases where any dealer in merchandise, wares or goods of any kind, subject to ad valorem or occupation taxes, or both, under the provisions of this law, who shall after the rendition of said merchandise, wares or goods for taxation, or after becoming liable for any occupation tax, become bankrupt or make assignment of said merchandise, wares or goods, then the tax collector shall at once demand of the receiver or assignee of said dealer payment of the amount due for said taxes by said dealer; and in case of failure of said receiver or assignee to at once pay the amount of said taxes, the said collector shall levy upon, seize and sell from the said merchandise, wares or goods, enough to satisfy the amount of said taxes, and said taxes, until paid, shall constitute a prior lien on said merchandise, goods and wares in default of said taxes. [Acts 1885, p. 105; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 725; Acts 1891, p. 51.]

Art. 7049. [7358] [5051] Taxes payable in what.—The taxes levied by this chapter are payable in currency or coin of the United States; provided, that persons holding scrip issued to them for services rendered the county may pay their county ad valorem taxes in such scrip. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 38.]

Art. 7050. [7359] [5052] Books of collector.—The tax collector shall keep a book of such size and character as may be necessary, in which shall be entered quarterly, at the following dates, to-wit: January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, and October 1st, or within ten days thereafter, in which to require the returns to be made under the provisions of this chapter, the several amounts as shown by such returns for which and upon which any person, firm or association of persons is or may be liable to a tax upon occupations under this chapter; and within fifteen days from the time of receiving and making up the several amounts and the sums due upon such amounts as occupation tax, the collector shall forward to the Comptroller a transcript or duplicate of the return and the amount as shown by his record, this transcript and record from which it is taken to show the amount of such quarterly returns and the tax due thereon from every person, firm or association of persons liable to such tax. Nothing contained in this article is intended to affect the liability which, in the absence of this statute, would be incurred under any special enactment of this State. [Acts 1879, p. 143; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1443.]

Art. 7051. [7360] Collector furnished books, etc.—The Comptroller shall furnish tax collectors the necessary books and blanks required to be used by such collectors under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7052. [7361] [5054] Pay in advance.—The payment of the specific tax herein provided for shall be required by the tax collector to be made before any person, firm or association of persons shall be allowed to engage in any occupation requiring a license under any provision of this law, this payment to be made for a period not less than three months. All arrearages of taxes that may be due by reason of any such business having been carried on shall be a lien upon all the stock and fixtures owned or used in making a part of any business or vocation liable to such tax under the provisions of this chapter, and which lien shall authorize the collector to sell, after due notice, so much of the stock or other personal property of any person, firm or association of persons owing taxes under the provisions of this chapter, as will satisfy such claim, together with the cost of such proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 7053. [7362] [5055] Tax receipts furnished.—The Comptroller shall cause occupation tax receipts for each occupation to be printed with his signature, for all occupations, payable to the collectors, annual receipts for those that are paid annually, and quarterly receipts for all that can be paid quarterly; such receipts shall state the name of the occupation and the amount of the tax, and have blanks for the year, month and name of licensee, and also have a blank space for the signature of the collector; these receipts shall each have a stub attached, stating briefly the substance of the attached receipt, and shall be bound in books; and he shall forward to each collector a proper number of said receipts, and charge him with the amount represented therein, and cause him to account therefor. The collector whenever collecting any occupation tax, shall fill the blanks in the receipt and stub by writing thereon the time for which he collects and the name of the licensee, and shall sign the receipt and stub officially. No person shall pursue any occupation, unless he has a receipt signed as herein provided by the Comptroller and collector; and every person, firm or corporation keeping an office or having a local place of business shall keep posted up in a conspicuous place his or their said license. [Id.]

Art. 7054. [7363] Account of occupation tax receipts.—When the Comptroller furnishes collectors with blank occupation tax receipts, he shall furnish the commissioners courts with the numbers and value of the receipts furnished to their respective collectors; and such courts shall charge their respective collectors with the number and such proportion of the value of the receipts so furnished as shall apply to the county tax, when such collectors shall make their settlements with the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall furnish the commissioners court with the numbers and value of the receipts returned, and with the amount of the occupation taxes collected by their respective collectors. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

Art. 7055. [7364] [5056] Transfer of license.—Any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons, who shall be the legal owners or holders of any unexpired occupation license issued in accordance with the laws of this State, may transfer the same on the books of the officer by whom the same was issued. [Acts 1885, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 647.]

Art. 7056. [7365] [5057] Purchaser of unexpired license. The assignee or purchaser of such unexpired occupation license shall be authorized to pursue such occupation under such unexpired license for and during the unexpired term thereof, provided that such assignee or purchaser shall, before following such occupation, comply in all other respects with the requirements of the law provided for in the original applications for such licenses. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to authorize two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons to follow the same occupation under one license at the same time. Whenever any person, firm, corporation or association of persons following an occupation shall be closed out by legal process, the occupation license shall be deemed an asset of said person, firm, corporation or association of persons, and sold as other property belonging to said person, firm, corporation, or association; and the purchaser thereof shall have the right to pursue the occupation named in said license, or transfer it to any other person; provided, such occupation license shall under no circumstances be transferred more than one time. [Id.]

Art. 7057. [7366-67-68] Revenue duties.—The Governor may, whenever in his judgment the public service demands it, direct the Comptroller to investigate books and accounts of the assessing and collecting officers of this State, and all officers and persons disbursing, receiving or having in their possession public funds, and to make such other investigations and perform such other duties in the interest of the public revenues as the Governor may direct. Whenever any such investigation is ordered by the Governor, the Comptroller shall report to him in writing the results thereof, and point out the particulars, if any, wherein the revenue laws have been violated or their enforcement neglected, together with the names of those delinquent therein. Whereupon the Governor shall institute civil and criminal proceedings through the Attorney General in the name of the State against such delinquent parties who are reported by the Comptroller to be delinquent. The Comptroller shall have power at any time to examine and check up all and any expenditures of money appropriated for any of the State institutions or for any other purpose or for improvements made by the State on State property or money received and disbursed by any board authorized by law to receive and disburse any State money. The Comptroller shall also have power and authority, and it is hereby made his duty, to fully investigate any State institution when so directed by the Governor or required by information coming to his own knowledge. He shall investigate the manner of conducting the same and the policy pursued by those in charge thereof, and the conduct or efficiency of any person employed therein by the State. He shall examine into and report upon the character and manner as well as the amount of expenditures thereof, and investigate and ascertain all sums of money due the State from any source whatever, the ascertainment and collection of which does not devolve upon other officers of this State under existing law; and he shall report all such facts to the Governor. When the Comptroller, acting under the direction of the Governor, calls on any person connected with the public service to inspect his accounts, records or books, said person so called upon shall submit to said agent all books, records and accounts so called for without delay.

The Comptroller shall receive his actual traveling expenses, which shall be paid on the approval of the same by the Governor; provided he shall not be allowed traveling expenses for any service connected with the examination and investigation of the accounts of any institution in Travis County. [Acts 1891, p. 87; Acts 1899, p. 26; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 197.]

Art. 7058. [7369] Express companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association doing an express business, by railroad or water, in this State shall on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from charges and freights within this State paid to or collected by such individual, company, corporation or association on account of money, goods, merchandise or other character of freight carried within this State during the twelve months next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations or associations at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the year beginning on said date equal to two and one-half per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7059. [7370] Telegraph companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, controlling or managing any telegraph lines in this State, or owning, operating, controlling or managing what is known as wireless telegraph stations, for the transmission of messages or aerograms and charging for the transmission of such messages or aerograms, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual, or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such companies, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this State during the preceding quarter, in the payment of telegraphic or aerographic charges, including the amount received on full rate messages and aerograms and half rate messages and aerograms, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within the State during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two and three-fourths per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7060. [7371] Gas, electric light, power or waterworks.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating or managing or controlling any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks, or water and light plant, within this State and charging for gas, electric lights, electric power or water, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association showing the gross amount received from the business done within this State in the payment of charges for gas, electric lights, electric power and water for the quarter next preceding. Said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report for any town or city of ten thousand inhabitants and less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-fourth of one per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report; and, for any town or city of twenty-five thousand inhabitants or more, the said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. Nothing herein shall apply to any gas, electric light, electric power or waterworks or water and light plant within this State owned by any city or town. [Id.]

Art. 7061. [7372] Collecting or commercial agency.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating, managing or controlling any collecting agency, commercial agency or commercial reporting credit agency within this State, and charging for collections made, or business done, or reports made, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing from business done within this State the gross amount received in the payment of charges for collections made and business done and reports made during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations or associations at the time of making said report shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7062. [7373] Car companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, residing without this State, or incorporated under the laws of any other State or territory, or nation, and owning stock cars, refrigerator and fruit cars of any kind, tank cars of any kind, coal cars of any kind, furniture cars or common box cars and flat cars, and leasing, renting or charging mileage for the use of such cars within the State of Texas, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, and report to the Comptroller under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from such rentals, or mileage, or from other sources of revenue received from business done within this State, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies and corporations, and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to three per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7063. [7375] Sleeping, palace or dining car companies.—Every sleeping car company, palace car company, or dining car company doing business in this State, and each individual, company, corporation or association leasing or renting, owning, controlling or managing any palace cars, dining cars, or sleeping cars within this State for the use of the public, for which any fare is charged, shall, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts earned from any and all sources whatever within this State, except from receipts derived from buffet service, during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to five per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report. The tax herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other taxes now levied upon sleeping car, palace car or dining car companies, except the tax of twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars of capital stock of such car companies as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7064. [7376] Insurance companies.—Every insurance company transacting the business of fire, marine, marine inland, accident, credit, title, live stock, fidelity, guaranty, surety, casualty, or any other kind or character of insurance business other than the business of life insurance, within this State and other than fraternal benefit associations, at the time of filing its annual statement, shall report to the Commissioner of Insurance the gross amount of premiums received in the State upon property, and from persons residing in this State during the preceding year, and each of such companies shall pay an annual tax upon such gross premium receipts as follows: shall pay a tax of two and six-tenths per cent, provided, that any company doing two or more kinds of insurance business herein referred to, shall pay the tax herein levied upon its gross premiums received from each of said kinds of business; and the gross premium receipts where referred to in this law are understood to be the premium receipts reported to the Commissioner of Insurance by the insurance companies upon the sworn statement of two principal officers of such companies, less return premiums paid policy holders, and the premiums paid for re-insurance in companies authorized to do business in this State. Upon receipt by him of sworn statements, showing the gross premium receipts by such companies, the Commissioner shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by each company, which tax shall be paid to the State Treasurer on or before the first of March following, and the receipt of the Treasurer shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes. No such insurance company shall receive a permit to do business in this State until such taxes are paid. If any such insurance company shall have as much as one-fourth of its entire assets, as shown by said sworn statement, invested in any or all of the following securities: real estate in this State, bonds of this State or of any county, incorporated city or town of this State, or other property in this State in which by law such companies may invest their funds, then the annual tax of any such companies shall be one per cent of its said gross premium receipts; and if any such company shall invest as aforesaid as much as one-half of its assets, then the annual tax of such company shall be one-half of one per cent of its gross premium receipts, as above defined. No occupation tax shall be levied on insurance companies herein subjected to a gross premium receipt tax by any county, city or town. All mutual fraternal benevolent associations, now or hereafter doing business in this State under the lodge system and on the assessment plan, whether organized under the laws of this State or a foreign State or country, are exempt from the provisions of this article. The taxes aforesaid shall constitute all taxes and license fees collectible under the laws of this State against any such insurance companies, and no other occupation or other taxes shall be levied on or collected from any insurance company by any county, city or town, but this law shall not be construed to prohibit the levy and collection of State, county and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such companies. Purely co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property, and not for profit, shall be exempt from the provisions of this law. [Id. Acts 1911, p. 216.]

Art. 7065. [7377] Tax on gasoline.—Every person selling at wholesale in intrastate commerce in this State any gasoline shall pay to the State of Texas an occupation tax equal to one cent per gallon of all such gasoline so sold by such person. Such tax shall be due and payable at the office of the Comptroller at Austin on the 25th day of each month, based on such sales made during the calendar month next preceding. Every such person so selling gasoline shall, on or before the 25th day of each month make and deliver to the Comptroller a report sworn to as correct by such person before an officer authorized to administer oaths in this State (or, if other than an individual, so sworn to by its president, secretary, treasurer, or other duly authorized officer, or by its representative in charge of such intrastate sales of such gasoline), on such forms as said Comptroller shall prescribe, of the total number of gallons of gasoline sold at wholesale in intrastate commerce in this State by such person during the next preceding calendar month. The term "selling at wholesale" or "sold at wholesale" or "sales at wholesale" as used in this law shall include:

1. Any and all sales of gasoline in any quantity whatsoever in intrastate commerce in this State to the retailer to be sold by such retailer to the consumer in any quantity whatsoever.

2. Any and all sales to consumer in intrastate commerce in this State of gasoline refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared in this State where such sales are made by the person so refining, compounding, manufacturing, blending or preparing same whether such sales are made in such person's own name or in the name of others or in the name of a representative, agent or employee of such person.

3. Any and all sales in any quantity whatsoever to the consumer in intrastate commerce in this State of gasoline brought into the State from outside the State, except that gasoline which is sold in intrastate commerce to the retailer for sale to the consumer, the selling of which latter mentioned is covered by subdivision 1 hereof.

Failure of the Comptroller to furnish any person affected by this law with a form for any report required to be made by such person shall not relieve such person of liability for penalties for failure to comply with this law as to any such report. Every person required to pay said tax shall keep a complete record of all sales at wholesale made upon which the occupation tax herein levied is measured or computed, which record shall be in a permanently bound book or books (not loose leaf) and shall show the date of each such sale; the amount of same; to whom (except as to sales to the consumer) each such sale was made; from what place such gasoline was shipped and the name of the place of delivery of same. All of which records shall be open at all times to official inspection and examination of the Comptroller, or the Attorney General, or any authorized employe or representative of such Comptroller or Attorney General. Any such person failing to keep such record or records as herein required shall forfeit to the State as a penalty an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars; and for each day such person so fails to keep such record or records a separate penalty shall accrue. Any person required to pay an occupation tax by this law failing to pay such tax on or before the date same is due and payable, shall pay to the State as a penalty an additional ten per cent of the amount of the tax due on said date and such tax and penalty shall draw interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from due date until paid.

Any person required to make any report under this law failing to make the same in the manner or within the time prescribed by this law shall forfeit to the State a penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars. Such penalty shall draw eight per cent interest from due date until paid. The occupation taxes herein levied shall be placed in the State Treasury by the Comptroller as provided in this law immediately upon the collection of same. One-fourth of such occupation tax shall go to the available free school fund and three-fourths of same shall be placed to the credit of the State highway fund for the construction and maintenance of the public highways of the State constituting a part of the State system of public highways as designated by the State Highway Commission, and said funds shall be set aside in a separate fund from the general revenue fund for the two purposes herein mentioned, and shall be subject to disbursement in accordance with the statute controlling the distribution of such available school fund and State highway fund, respectively. The Attorney General shall bring suit in behalf of the State in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County to recover the amount of taxes, penalties and interest past due and payable by any person affected by this law. The word "gasoline" as used in this law means gasoline or gasoline substitute refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared in whole or part from petroleum or natural gas or in whole or part from any derivative fraction or product of petroleum or natural gas; and shall also include what is commercially known as gasoline so refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared. The word "person" as used in this law shall include persons, firms, partnerships, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, common law trusts, those operating under a declaration of trust, or other concern by whatever name known or howsoever organized, formed or created. It is the purpose and intent of this law to levy an occupation tax that will not operate to burden the industry with the tax every time any particular gasoline is sold, but to place the tax on only one transaction as to any particular gasoline, to the end that the tax will bear equally and uniformly on the gasoline industry. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 158.]

Art. 7066. Tax on sulphur.—Each person who owns, controls, manages, leases or operates any sulphur mine or mines, wells or shafts, or who produces sulphur by any method, system, or manner, within this State shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, sworn to by such person before an officer authorized to administer oaths in this State, or if such person be other than an individual, so sworn to by its president, secretary or other duly authorized officer, on such forms as said Comptroller shall prescribe, showing the total amount of sulphur produced during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof, which shall include any bonus or premiums paid or promised during said quarter, and at the time of making said report shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date on amount equal to two per cent of the total amount of sulphur produced by such person in this State during said quarter at the average market value thereof, including any bonus or premiums paid as shown by said report. If for any reason the Comptroller is not satisfied with any report so received, he may require additional or supplemental reports containing information and data upon such matters as he may need or deem necessary to ascertain the true and correct amount of all taxes due from such person or concern, which additional or supplemental reports shall be made under oath as above provided. Should any person subject to the occupation tax herein levied begin business after the beginning of a quarter, the amount of tax which such person or concern shall pay for the first quarter immediately succeeding the quarter in which the business was begun shall be ascertained by taking the total value of the sulphur produced within the last quarter, dividing the same by the number of days such person or concern was engaged in the business during said preceding quarter, and multiplying the quotient by 90, taking two per cent of the product. Each person subject to the payment of the occupation tax levied and required to be paid by this law shall cause to be made and to be kept and preserved, a full and complete record of all sulphur produced in this State during the time so engaged in its production, all of which record shall be open at all times to official inspection and examination of the Comptroller or the Attorney General, or any employe or representatives of such Comptroller or Attorney General. Any person failing to keep such record or records as herein required shall forfeit to the State of Texas as a penalty any sum not less than five hundred nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the State of Texas, and each ten days of failure to keep such records shall constitute a separate offense and subject the offender to additional penalties. Any person subject to the payment of said tax on sulphur failing to pay the tax levied in this article within thirty days after same is due and payable, shall pay to the State as a penalty an additional amount equal to ten per cent of the taxes due and such tax and penalty shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the due date until paid. The Attorney General or any district or county attorney at the direction of the Attorney General, shall bring suit in behalf of the State to recover the amount of taxes, penalties and interest past due and payable by any person affected by this law. The word "person" as used in this law shall include persons, firms, partnerships, companies, corporations, associations, common law trusts, those operating under a declaration of trust, or other concern by whatever name known or howsoever organized, formed or created. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 176.]

Art. 7067. [7378] Interurban and electric railway companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, owning, operating or controlling any interurban, trolley, traction or electric street railway in this State and charging for transportation on said railway, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the amount of gross receipts from said charges for transportation on said railway paid to or uncollected by said individuals, company, corporation or association for the quarter next preceding. Said individual, company, corporation or association, at the time of making said report, if in or if connecting any town or city of less than twenty thousand inhabitants, shall pay to the State Treasurer as an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one-half of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; if in a city of more than twenty thousand inhabitants, said individual, company or corporation or association, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of the State of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to three-fourths of one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; provided, that in ascertaining the population of any city or town, the same shall be ascertained by the preceding Federal census. Where any interurban railroad shall connect any town having a population of more than twenty thousand with another of less population that it shall be liable for the taxes measured by the population of the largest town; provided, that the provisions of this law shall not apply to any street railway or traction company wholly within any town of less than ten thousand inhabitants. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7068. [7380] Dealers in pistols.—Each individual, company, corporation or association created by the laws of this or any other State, who shall engage in his own name or in the name of others, or in the names of its representatives or agents in this State, in the business of a wholesale or retail dealer of pistols, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of said company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount collected and uncollected from any and all sales made within this State of all such firearms during the quarter next preceding. Such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to fifty per cent of said gross receipts from sales of all firearms as shown by said report. [Id.]

Art. 7069. [7381] Text book publishers.—Each individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this State, or of any other state or nation, engaged in publishing, printing and selling such text books as are used, or will be used, in the schools of this State, or owning, controlling or managing any such business, within the State or out of it, and having State agencies within this State for the purpose of selling any such books, to be used in any of the schools of this State, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, or of the person owning, controlling or managing any such business, showing the gross amount received from such business done within this State from any and all sources during the quarter next preceding. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of said gross receipts as shown by said report; provided that after September 1, 1929, no further tax shall be assessed under the provisions of this article, but all taxes accruing under the provisions hereof prior to said date shall nevertheless be paid. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any corporation organized by the students and faculty of any State supported institution of learning and which has no capital stock and pays no dividends and is organized for the purpose of supplying books and other school supplies to the students of such institution and whose assets on the dissolution of the corporation pass to the governing board of the institution as a trust fund to be used for the benefit of the institution. [Id. Acts 1923, p. 352.]

Art. 7070. [7382] Telephone companies.—Each individual, company, corporation or association owning, operating, managing or controlling any telephone line or lines or any telephones within this State, and charging for the use of the same, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the gross amount received from all business within this State during the preceding quarter in the payment of charges for the use of its line or lines, telephone and telephones, and from the lease or use of any wires or equipment within this State during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the State Treasurer an occupation tax, for the quarter beginning on said date, equal to one and one-half per cent of said gross receipts, as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7071. [7383] Gross production tax on oil.—

1. Each person owning, controlling, managing, operating or leasing in this State any oil well, or any person who produces in any other manner any oil by taking it from the earth in this State, shall make quarterly on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of such person or if the producer is other than a natural person, under oath of the president, treasurer, superintendent or person in charge of such production, showing the total amount of oil produced by such person from each well, or otherwise, during the quarter next preceding and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Each such person on said first days of January, April, July, and October shall pay to the Treasurer of this State an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to two per cent of the value of the total amount of oil produced in this State by such person during the quarter next preceding such first days of January, April, July and October at the average market value thereof.

2. Each person mentioned and included in subdivision 1 of this article shall make, keep and preserve a full and complete record of all such oil produced in this State during the time so engaged in its production, and said record shall be open at all times to the inspection of all tax officers of this State. Any person failing to comply with this requirement shall be subject to a penalty not less than five hundred and not more than fifteen hundred dollars payable to the State of Texas, and such penalty shall accrue for each ten days of failure to comply with this subdivision of said article and such penalty shall accrue for failure to comply with this subdivision with reference to each separate oil well.

3. In each report required to be made by this article such person making the same shall show in detail the disposition made of any such oil, if disposed of, and if not, shall show where it is stored. Said report shall show to whom any such oil was sold or delivered, the date of sale and delivery, the amount delivered to each, and shall show the name and location of the person, refinery, pipe line, establishment, plant, factory, railroad, institution or place to which or to whom delivery was made.

4. The word "person" as used in this article shall include any person, firm, concern, receiver, receivers, trustee, executor, administrator, agent, institution, association, partnership, company corporations, and persons acting under declarations of trust as well as the trustees acting under such declarations of trust.

5. The market value of oil as that term is used herein shall be the actual market value of the same, and among other things proper to be considered any bonus or premium paid or which the oil will reasonably bring shall not be excluded in arriving at the market value.

6. Any person failing to make proper and accurate report for thirty days from the date when said report is required herein to be made shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of the tax due for the quarter for which said report is required by law to be made.

7. Any person failing to pay any tax provided for herein within thirty days from the date when said tax is required herein to be paid shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent upon the amount of such tax and six per cent interest upon the amount of such tax and penalty from date when due and payable until paid.

8. The word "oil" as used in this law means petroleum oil, mineral oil, or other oil taken from the earth.

9. For the occupation tax, penalties and interest herein provided for, the State shall have a lien on any leasehold interest, ownership of the oil rights or interest owned by the person owing any tax herein provided for. [Acts 1907, p. 479; Acts 1919, p. 128; Acts 1923, 2nd C. S., p. 98.]

Art. 7072. [7384] Terminal companies.—Each and every individual, company, corporation or association, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State or territory, or of the United States, or any foreign country, which owns, controls, manages or leases any terminal companies, or any railroad doing a terminal business within this State, shall make quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year, a report to the Comptroller, under oath of the individual or of the president, treasurer, or superintendent of such company, corporation or association, showing the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever within this State, during the quarter next preceding, and the average market value thereof during said quarter. Said individuals, companies, corporations and associations, at the time of making said report, shall pay to the Treasurer of the State of Texas an occupation tax for the quarter beginning on said date equal to one per cent of the total amount of its gross receipts from all sources whatever as shown by said report. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 479.]

Art. 7073. [7385] Tax paid when business is begun after beginning of quarter.—If any individual, company, corporation, firm, or association, in this chapter mentioned, shall begin and engage in any business for which there is an occupation tax herein imposed, on or after the beginning day of the quarter for which said tax is imposed, then, and in all such cases, the amount of such tax for said beginning quarter shall be and is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty dollars, payable to the State Treasurer in advance; but for the next succeeding quarter, and all other succeeding quarters, the tax shall be determined by reports to the Comptroller of the business for the preceding quarter, or part thereof, as herein otherwise in this chapter provided; and reports and payments of such tax shall be made subject to all other provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7074. [7386] Penalty for failure to report.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to make report for thirty days from the date when said report is required by this chapter to be made, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7075. [7387] Penalty for failure to pay tax.—Any person, company, corporation or association, or any receiver or receivers, failing to pay any tax for thirty days from the date when said tax is required by this chapter to be paid, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of ten per cent upon the amount of such tax. [Id.]

Art. 7076. [7388] Penalties recovered by suit.—The penalties provided for by this chapter shall be recovered by the Attorney General in a suit brought by him in the name of the State of Texas; and venue and jurisdiction of such suit is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis County. [Id.]

Art. 7077. [7389] Permit not granted until tax paid.—No individual, company, corporation or association, failing to pay all taxes imposed by this chapter, shall receive a permit to do business in this State, or continue to do business in the State; until the tax hereby imposed is paid. The receipt of the State Treasurer shall be evidence of the payment of such tax. [Id.]

Art. 7078. [7390] Tax in addition to all other taxes.—Except as herein stated, all taxes levied by this chapter shall be in addition to all other taxes now levied by law; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing any county or city to levy an occupation tax on the occupation and business taxed by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7079. [7391] Additional reports.—If for any reason the Comptroller is not satisfied with any report from any such person, company, corporation, co-partnership or association, he may require additional or supplemental reports containing information and data upon such matters as he may need or deem necessary to ascertain the true and correct amount of all taxes due by any such person, firm or corporation. Every statement or report required by this chapter shall have affixed thereto the affidavit of the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer of the person, corporation, co-partnership or association, or one of the persons or members of the partnership making the same, to the effect that the statement is true. The Comptroller shall prepare blanks to be used in making the reports required by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7080. Permit.—Every person, company, firm, partnership, corporation, or unincorporated company or association, engaged in any business within this State, upon which the laws of this State require the payment of a tax on gross receipts, shall be required to have a permit to transact such business, to be issued by the Secretary of State, which permit shall be and remain posted, subject to the view of the public at the principal office of such person to whom the same is issued. The permit shall be issued in such form as the Attorney General may prescribe, shall show the name of the person or concern to whom issued, the business to be transacted, and that the holder thereof has complied with this law. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 177.]

Art. 7081. Issuance of permit.—Permits to transact business shall be issued by the Secretary of State upon applications made upon form prescribed by the Secretary of State, which application shall show, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, the facts required to be shown in the permit; and shall show that the applicant has paid the gross receipts taxes prescribed by law, or that if the applicant is the vendee of a going business that his vendor has paid all his gross receipts taxes due, or to become due; such taxes are to be shown to be paid for the current quarter, or such other period of time as said taxes may be paid. The Secretary of State shall make such investigation as necessary to determine that such taxes have been paid and shall then issue a permit to transact business, authorizing the party to whom issued to transact business until the 31st day of December of the current year, after which date new permits for each year must be obtained, as in the first instance. When a permit has been issued as herein provided, the Secretary of State shall immediately certify such fact to the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7082. Suspension of permit.—Within thirty days after gross receipts taxes may become due by anyone transacting or authorized to transact business hereunder, if such tax remains unpaid, the Comptroller shall certify such fact to the Secretary of State, whose duty it shall be to notify the delinquent tax payer that his name has been certified to the Secretary of State as a delinquent and that unless the tax is paid to the Comptroller within ten days from the date of such notice the permit to transact business of the delinquent will be suspended by the Secretary of State. The notice herein provided for shall be given by the Secretary of State, mailing to the delinquent at his last known address a printed or written notice, and the mailing of such notice shall be a sufficient compliance of this law. If the tax, with accrued penalties, is not paid within fifteen days after the mailing of the notice, the Secretary of State shall note on his records that the permit to transact business of the delinquent has been suspended, giving the date upon which such action was taken by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall then immediately certify such suspension to the Comptroller and to the Attorney General. After the permit to transact business has been suspended it shall be unlawful for the delinquent to continue to transact business, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to cause to be published in some daily or weekly paper, published in the county of the delinquent's place of business, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in some daily newspaper of State-wide circulation, notice that the delinquent's permit to transact business has been suspended. [Id.]

Art. 7083. Penalties.—Any person, company, firm, partnership, corporation, unincorporated company or association, transacting business in this State upon which a gross receipts tax is required by law to be paid, without having first obtained a permit to do so, or transacting such business after its permit so to do has been suspended, as provided by this law, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $50.00 nor more $500.00 daily for each day's business which is transacted in violation of this law. The Attorney General shall bring suits for all penalties authorized by this law, and the courts of Travis County shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all violations of this law. [Id.]

Art. 7084. [7393] Paid by domestic corporation.—Except as herein provided, each private domestic corporation heretofore or that may hereafter be chartered under the laws of this State, shall on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the Secretary of State a franchise tax for the year following, which shall be computed as follows, viz: fifty cents on each one thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the authorized capital stock of such corporation unless the total amount of the capital stock of such corporation actually paid in, plus its surplus and undivided profits, shall exceed its authorized capital stock; and in that event the franchise tax of such corporation for the year following shall be fifty cents on each one thousand dollars of capital stock of such corporation actually paid in, plus its surplus and undivided profits; provided, that such franchise tax shall not in any case be less than ten dollars. Where the authorized capital exceeds one million dollars, such franchise tax shall be fifty cents for each one thousand dollars up to and including one million dollars, and for each additional one thousand dollars in excess of one million dollars, it shall be twenty-five cents. Where a domestic corporation does business outside of the State, the franchise tax of such corporation shall be computed upon that proportion of the authorized capital stock plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, as the total gross receipts of such corporation from its business done in Texas bears to the total gross receipts of the corporation from all sources. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503; Acts 1919, p. 100.]

Art. 7085. [7394] Paid by foreign corporations.—Except as herein provided, each foreign corporation authorized, or that may hereafter be authorized, to do business in this State, shall, on or before the first day of May of each year, pay in advance to the Secretary of State a franchise tax for the year following which shall be computed as follows: the authorized capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, the total gross receipts of such corporation from all its business and the total gross receipts from all of its business done in Texas for the calendar year immediately preceding shall be ascertained by the Secretary of State from sworn reports of the officers of such corporation or by such other method as may satisfy the Secretary of State, and the capital stock of such corporation upon which the franchise tax herein provided is based shall be that proportion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, as the gross receipts from the Texas business of such corporation done within this State bears to the total gross receipts of such corporation from its entire business and the capital stock assignable to the Texas business and upon which the fees hereinafter provided shall be calculated and based being thus ascertained, the franchise tax which is hereby provided shall be computed as follows: one dollar on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof up to and including one hundred thousand dollars; fifty cents on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred thousand dollars up to and including one million dollars and twenty-five cents on each one thousand dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one million dollars; provided that the minimum franchise tax to be paid by any foreign corporation shall be twenty-five dollars; provided, however, that where such corporation has a surplus or undivided profits the same shall be added to the entire capital stock of such corporation and shall be taken and computed as a part thereof in determining the amount of such entire capital stock. Where a foreign corporation applying for a permit has theretofore done no business in Texas, the franchise tax herein provided shall not be payable until the end of one year from the date of such permit at which time the franchise tax shall be computed upon that proportion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation ascertained as above required as the gross receipts from its Texas business bears to the gross receipts of the corporation from its entire business done for the same period; and the second payment of such franchise tax shall be made for the period intervening between the date of such first payment and the first day of May following, the proportion of authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any, of such corporation, upon which the same shall be computed to be the same proportion that the gross receipts from the Texas business for such period bears to the gross receipts of the corporation from its entire business for the same period, and that thereafter such franchise tax shall be payable annually on the first day of May for the year succeeding computed upon that portion of the authorized capital stock, plus the surplus and undivided profits, if any of such corporation which the gross receipts for the Texas business of such corporation bears to its entire gross receipts for the calendar year preceding as hereinabove provided. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503; Acts 1917, p. 168; Acts 1919, p. 75.]

Art. 7086. [7395] Only part of tax to be paid.—Whenever a private domestic corporation is chartered in this State, and whenever a foreign corporation is authorized to do business in this State, such corporation shall be required to pay in advance to the Secretary of State, as its franchise tax from that time down to and including the thirtieth day of April next following, only such proportionate part of its annual franchise tax, as hereinabove prescribed, as the period of time between the date of filing of its articles of incorporation or the issuance of its permit to do business, as the case may be, and on the first day of May following, bears to a calendar year. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7087. [7396] Affidavits required.—To determine the amount of the first franchise tax payment required by this chapter of any domestic corporation which may be hereafter chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter apply for a permit to do business within this State, and also to determine the correctness of any report which is provided for in this chapter, the Secretary of State may, whenever he deems it necessary or proper to protect the interests of the State, require any one or more of the officers of such corporations to make and file in the office of the Secretary of State an affidavit setting forth fully the facts concerning the amount of the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such domestic or foreign corporation; and until the Secretary of State shall be fully satisfied as to the amount of such surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, he shall not file the articles of incorporation of such proposed domestic corporation, or issue such permit, or accept such franchise tax. [Id.]

Art. 7088. [7397] Reports filed.—For the purpose of ascertaining and determining the amount of any annual franchise tax prescribed by this chapter, excepting only the first tax to be paid by any domestic corporation which may hereafter be chartered, or of any foreign corporation which may hereafter be authorized to do business in this State, the president, vice-president, general manager, secretary, treasurer and superintendent of each domestic or foreign corporation embraced within the provisions of this chapter, shall annually and between the first and tenth days of March, and also whenever called upon by the Secretary of State to do so, report to the Secretary of State, in writing, and under oath as required by the preceding article, the total amounts of the capital stock issued and outstanding, and the surplus and undivided profits, respectively, if any, of such corporation on the first day of March next preceding; and the Secretary of State may ascertain such facts from other sources; and, if true aggregate of such amounts shall exceed the authorized capital stock of such corporation as disclosed by its then current original or amended articles of incorporation, the amount of its annual franchise tax for the year beginning the first day of May next thereafter shall be thereon collected and paid; otherwise, its annual franchise tax shall be calculated and paid upon the amount of its authorized capital stock as shown by its aforesaid original or amended articles of incorporation. The making and filing by any one of such officers of such corporation of the record required by this article shall relieve the other officers of such corporation from the duty of making any report required by this article, except such report or reports as the Secretary of State may require. [Id.]

Art. 7089. Report of corporation.—Except as herein provided, all corporations that are now required by law to pay an annual franchise tax, shall, between January 1st, and March 15th, of each year, be required to make a sworn report to the Secretary of State, on blanks furnished by him, showing the condition of such corporation on the 31st. day of December preceding. The Secretary of State may, for good cause shown by any corporation, extend such time to any date up to the first day of May. Said report shall be signed officially and shall give the authorized capital stock of the corporation, the capital stock actually paid in, its surplus and undivided profits, if any, the name and address of each officer and director of the corporation, the amount of mortgages, bonded or other indebtedness of such corporation, and the amount of the last annual, semi-annual or quarterly dividend provided, that domestic corporations having a permit or permits to do business outside the State, shall include in such report the gross receipts of such corporation from all sources and the gross receipts of the corporation from its business done in Texas, for the calendar year preceding; provided, that foreign corporations shall include in such report, the total gross receipts of the corporation from all sources and the gross receipts of the corporation in Texas for the calendar year preceding. Where a foreign corporation has not theretofore done business in this State and is granted a permit to do business in Texas, it shall file its first report to the Secretary of State at the end of one year from the date of such permit. Any corporation which shall fail or refuse to make said report shall be assessed a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of franchise tax due by such corporation payable to the Secretary of State, together with its franchise tax. Said reports shall be deemed to be privileged and not for the inspection of the general public but one interested in the subject matter of any report may secure a copy of same upon valid request in writing made to the Secretary of State. The following officers of each corporation shall be deemed competent to make said report; the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer or general manager. [Acts 1913, p. 327; Acts 1919, p. 82; Acts 1921, p. 173.]

Art. 7090. [7398] Supplemental tax.—In the event of increase in the authorized capital stock of any domestic or foreign corporation, it shall also pay in advance a supplemental franchise tax thereon for the remainder of the year down to and including the thirtieth day of April next thereafter, the amount of which shall be determined as is provided in the third article of this chapter in case of the first franchise tax payment to be made by a domestic corporation which may be hereafter authorized to do business within this State. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7091. [7399] Failure to pay tax.—Any corporation, either domestic or foreign, which shall fail to pay any franchise tax provided for in this chapter when the same shall become due and payable under the provisions of this chapter, shall thereupon become liable to a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount of such franchise tax due by such corporation. If the amount of such tax and penalty be not paid in full on or before the first day of July thereafter, such corporation shall for such default forfeit its right to do business in this State; which forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the Secretary of State entering upon the margin of the record kept in his office relating to such corporation, the words, "right to do business forfeited," and the date of such forfeiture. Any corporation whose right to do business shall be thus forfeited shall be denied the right to sue or defend in any court of this State, except in a suit to forfeit the charter of such corporation. In any suit against such corporation on a cause of action arising before such forfeiture, no affirmative relief shall be granted to such corporation, unless its right to do business in this State shall be revived as provided in this chapter. Each director and officer of any corporation whose right to do business within this State shall be so forfeited shall, as to any and all debts of such corporation which may be created or incurred, with his knowledge, approval and consent, within this State, after such forfeiture by any such directors or officers, and before the revival of the right of such corporation to do business, be deemed and held liable thereon in the same manner and to the same extent as if such directors and officers of such corporation were partners. [Id.]

Art. 7092. [7400] Notice of forfeiture.—The Secretary of State shall, during the month of May of each year, notify each domestic and foreign corporation which may be or become subject to a franchise tax under any law of this State, which has failed to pay such franchise tax on or before the first day of May, that unless such overdue tax together with said penalty thereon shall be paid on or before the first day of July next following, the right of such corporation to do business in this State will be forfeited without judicial ascertainment. Such notice may be either written or printed and shall be verified by the seal of the office of the Secretary of State, and shall be addressed to such corporation and mailed to the post office named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to any other known place of business of such corporation. A record of the date of mailing such notice shall be kept by the Secretary of State. Such notice and record thereof shall constitute legal and sufficient notice thereof for all the purposes of this chapter. Any corporation whose right to do business may have been forfeited, as provided in this chapter, shall be relieved from such forfeiture by paying to the Secretary of State any time within six months after such forfeiture the full amount of the franchise tax and penalty due by it, together with an additional amount of five per cent of such tax for each month, or fractional part of a month, which shall elapse after such forfeiture; provided, that such amount shall in no case be less than five dollars. When such tax and all penalties shall be fully paid to the Secretary of State, he shall revive the right of the corporation to do business within this State by cancelling the words, "right to do business forfeited," upon his record and endorsing thereon the word, "revived," and the date of such revival. If any domestic corporation whose right to do business within this State shall hereafter be forfeited under the provisions of this chapter shall fail to pay the Secretary of State, on or before the first day of January next following the revival, the amounts necessary to entitle it to have its right to do business revived under the provisions of this chapter, such failure shall constitute sufficient ground for the forfeiture, by judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, of the charter of such domestic corporation. [Id.]

Art. 7093. [7401] Foreign corporations may withdraw.—Should any foreign corporation which has or may obtain a permit to do business within this State desire at any time to withdraw from doing business in this State, it may surrender such permit to the Secretary of State, who shall mark or stamp such permit "surrendered," dating and signing same officially, and shall endorse upon the record of such permit in his office the word, "surrendered," and the date thereof; and thereafter such corporation may, by complying with the provisions of this chapter, secure a new permit to do business in this State without having made any further payment of the franchise tax under such old permit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 503.]

Art. 7094. [7403] Corporations exempt.—The franchise tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to any insurance company, surety, guaranty or fidelity company, or any transportation company, or any sleeping, palace car and dining car company which is now required to pay an annual tax measured by their gross receipts, or to corporations having no capital stock and organized for the exclusive purpose of promoting the public interest of any city or town, or to corporations organized for the purpose of religious worship, or for providing places of burial not for private profit, or corporations organized for the purpose of holding agricultural fairs and encouraging agricultural pursuits, or for strictly educational purposes, or for purely public charity. [Id.]

Art. 7095. [7404] Attorney General to bring suit.—The Attorney General shall bring suit therefor against any such corporation which may be or become subject to or liable for any franchise tax or penalty under this law; and, in case there may now be or shall hereafter exist valid grounds for the forfeiture of the charter of any domestic private corporation, or failure to pay any franchise tax or franchise taxes or penalty or penalties to which it may have become or shall hereafter be or become subject or liable under this or former law, he shall bring suit for a forfeiture of such charter; and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter by civil suits, venue is hereby conferred upon the courts of Travis county, concurrently with the courts of the county in which the principal office of such corporation may be located as shown by its articles or amended articles of incorporation. Such courts shall also have authority to restrain and enjoin a violation of any provision of this chapter. In any case in which any court having jurisdiction thereof shall make and enter judgment forfeiting the charter of any such corporation, the court may appoint a receiver thereof and may administer such receivership under the laws regulating receiverships. [Id.]

Art. 7096. [7405] Forfeiture of charter.—Upon the rendition by the district court of any judgment of forfeiture under the provisions of this chapter, the clerk of that court shall forthwith mail to the Secretary of State a certified copy of such judgment; and, upon receipt thereof, he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the words, "Judgment of forfeiture," and the date of such judgment. In the event of an appeal from such judgment by writ of error or otherwise, the clerk of the court from which such appeal is taken shall forthwith certify to the Secretary of State the fact that such appeal has been perfected, and he shall endorse upon the record of such charter in his office the word, "appealed," and the date upon which such appeal was perfected. When final disposition of such appeal shall be made, the clerk of the court making such disposition thereof shall forthwith certify such disposition and the date thereof to the Secretary of State, who shall briefly note same upon the record of such charter in his office and the date of such final disposition.

Art. 7097. [7606] Corporations in process of liquidations.—If a corporation is actually in process of liquidation, such corporation shall only be required to pay a franchise tax calculated upon the difference between the amount of stock actually issued and the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid upon such stock; provided, that the president and secretary of such corporation shall make affidavit as to the total amount of capital stock issued and as to the amount of liquidating dividends actually paid and that such corporation is in an actual bona fide state of liquidation. Art. 7098. [7407] State Tax Board.—The State tax board shall be composed of the Comptroller, the Secretary of State, and a third member to be known as Tax Commissioner of the State of Texas. Except as herein otherwise provided, such tax commissioner shall be appointed by the Governor in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section twelve of article four of the Constitution, and shall hold his office for two years. A record of the proceedings of said board shall be kept at the State Capitol, and shall be open to the inspection of the public. [Acts 1905, p. 35; Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 469.]

Art. 7099. [7408] Bond of Commissioner.—Before he enters upon his official duties, the tax commissioner shall execute a bond payable to the State of Texas at Austin, in Travis County, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties as such tax commissioner, and shall take and subscribe the official oath. [Id.]

Art. 7100. [7409] Secretary.—Said board may employ for not more than four months in each year a secretary, who shall be an expert stenographer, and who shall receive one hundred dollars a month for his services as secretary and stenographer. [Id.]

Art. 7101. [7410] Duties of Board.—It shall be the duty of said tax board:

1. To make such rules and regulations as said board shall deem proper with respect to its own meetings and procedure, and to effectually carry out the purposes for which said board is constituted.

2. To examine all books, papers and accounts and to interrogate under oath, or otherwise, any and all persons whom said board, or any member thereof, may desire to examine for the purpose of obtaining or acquiring any information that may in any way aid in securing a compliance with any tax law or revenue law of this State by any and all persons, companies, corporations or associations liable to taxation or to pay any license fee under any law of this State, which is now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted.

3. To make diligent investigation and inquiry concerning the revenue laws and systems of other states and countries, so far as the same are made known by published reports, or statistics, or can be ascertained by correspondence with officers thereof; and, with the aid of information thus or otherwise obtained, together with experience and observation of the operation of the laws of this State, to recommend to the legislature at each regular session thereof, such amendments, changes or modifications of the laws of this State, and such additional laws as may to said board, or any member thereof, seem necessary or proper to remedy injustice or irregularity in taxation, and to facilitate the assessment of taxes and collection of public revenues.

4. To report to the legislature, at each regular session thereof, the whole amount of State revenues collected in this State for all purposes, and the sources thereof, the amount of such revenues which may be lost to the State through failure to make collection and the cause of such losses, a summary of the proceedings of said board since the date of its last report, and such other matters concerning the public revenues as said board, or any member thereof may deem to be of public interest. [Id.]

Art. 7102. [7411] Visits.—Said Tax Board, or any member thereof, or the Comptroller under the direction of said board, or of the Governor, shall, at least once in each year, visit such counties of the State as said board or the Governor may direct, for the purpose of investigating into and aiding in the enforcement of all revenue laws of this State, and especially those concerning the rendition, assessment and collection of taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7103. [7412] Powers of board. Each member of said board shall have power to administer oaths and to subpoena and examine witnesses, and to issue subpoenas duces tecum, and shall have access to and power to order the production before such board, or any member thereof, of any and all books, documents and papers which may be in the possession or under the control of any person, company, corporation or receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or bailee, whenever such board, or any member thereof, may consider same necessary or proper in the prosecution of any inquiry under or in the execution of any provision of this chapter and all such process shall be served under the provisions of law governing the service of process in civil cases, in so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 7104. [7413] Failure to obey subpoena.—Any person who shall disobey any such subpoena, or subpoena duces tecum, issued by any member of said board, or any such order of said board, or who shall fail or refuse to attend as by such subpoena directed, or to testify when so required to do so by any member of said board, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and may be punished therefor by said board under the provisions of laws applicable to the district courts in such cases. [Id.]

Art. 7105. [7414] Tax on intangible assets.—Each incorporated railroad company, ferry company, bridge company, turn-pike or toll company, doing business wholly or in part within this State, whether incorporated under the laws of this State, or of any other state, territory, or foreign country, and every other individual, company, corporation or association doing business of the same character in this State, in addition to the ad valorem taxes on intangible properties which are or may be imposed upon them, respectively, by law, shall pay an annual tax to the State, beginning with the first day of January of each year, on their intangible assets and property, and local taxes thereon to the counties in which its business is carried on; which additional tax shall be assessed and levied upon such intangible assets and property in the manner provided in this chapter. The county or counties in which such taxes are to be paid, and the manner of apportionment of the same, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7106. [7415] Statement required.—Between the second day of January and the first day of March of each year, every individual, company, corporation and association embraced within the provisions of the next preceding article of this chapter, or coming within its scope and intent, shall make out and deliver into the possession of said tax commissioner a statement containing the information required of it by this chapter, which statement shall be duly verified by the affidavit of the individual, or one of the officers of the company, corporation or association in whose behalf it is made, or by the receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7107. [7416] Contents of statement. — Each such statement shall show the following items and particulars as the same stood on the first day of January next preceding, to-wit:

1. The name of the individual, company, corporation, or association making such statement, and the character of its business.

2. If incorporated, the authority by which it was incorporated and the purposes of its incorporation as expressed in its original or amended articles of incorporation or articles of association.

3. The locality of its principal office and the amount and kind of business done by it in this State and the total gross receipts derived from its business within this State, including a due proportion of its interstate business, if it has done any business of that character.

4. Its total authorized capital stock and the number of shares thereof, which have been issued and are outstanding, and the par face value of each such share, and the amount of the capital actually employed in the aforesaid business within the State.

5. The market value of said shares of stock, or, if they have no market value, the actual value thereof.

6. The assessed value and also the true value of all the tangible property owned by such individual, company, corporation or association in each county in this State and the total assessed value and also the true value thereof.

7. The assessed value and also the true value of the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association, outside of this State, and not specifically used in the business of such individual, company, corporation or association, same to be given by states, and the total assessed value and also the true value of the same.

8. A statement of each and every existing lien, mortgage or other charge upon the whole, or any part, of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association, and of the property thereby charged or encumbered, and of the amount of unpaid debt secured by each such mortgage, lien or charge, and of the interest charged thereon, and to what extent such interest has been paid, and of the true and fair market value of every such debt.

9. A statement of the gross receipts and net income and earnings for the next preceding twelve months, including therein all interest on investments, and all rents, fruits, revenues and receipts from every source whatsoever, and a statement of the income used for repairs, and of the amounts used for betterments, and the amount used for extensions within that period of time.

10. Every such railroad company shall also show in each statement made by it:

11. The total length of all lines of said company, whether within or without this State.

12. The total length of such lines as are within the State.

13. The length of its lines in each of the counties in this State into which its lines extend. [Id.]

Art. 7108. [7417] Additional statements.—The tax commissioner shall receive all tax statements rendered to him under the provisions of this chapter, and shall indorse upon each the date of receipt thereof, signing such indorsement officially. Said board shall examine all such statements as soon as may be practicable; and, if said board shall deem any of them insufficient, or shall believe other or further information necessary or proper, said board shall at once demand of such individual, company or corporation, or association, such additional statements and such further information as it may think proper. [Id.]

Art. 7109. [7418] Statements placed before board.—On the first Monday after the first day of March of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, said tax commissioner shall place before said board all such statements, facts and information as may have come into its possession or knowledge under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7110. [7419] Passing upon statement.—Said board shall thereupon carefully examine and consider the said statements, facts and information; and, if they deem it advisable to do so, shall hear evidence, and shall require such individual, company, corporation or association to make such additional reports, if any, as such board may deem proper, and shall otherwise secure further additional information so far as may be in its power, to show the true value of the properties aforesaid, and the true value of that portion of every such property which is situated within the State and within the respective counties thereof, sufficient to enable said board to make the preliminary estimate herein provided for; and, for that purpose as well as for the purpose of carrying into effect any provision of this chapter, said board, and each member thereof, may require and compel, any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, and the officers and agents thereof, and such receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, assignees and bailees, to appear before such board at a time or times to be designated by said board, with any and all such books, papers, documents and information as said board may require, and to submit themselves to examination by said board. Upon consideration of such statements and information and such additional evidence, books, papers, documents and information, if any, said board shall make in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, a preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment of the true value of the intangible property within this State, of each of said individuals, companies, corporations, or associations, and shall, on or before the thirty-first day of May of each year, by registered mail, notify each and every such individual, company, corporation or association, receiver or assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding such property for the benefit of creditors, of such preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment, and the amounts thereof; and all such individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons shall have fifteen days from the time of mailing such notice by registered mail to appear before such board, at Austin, on a date to be fixed by such notice, and request of such board a change or changes in such valuation and apportionment, or cancellation of such valuation and apportionment; and said individuals, companies, corporations, association, receivers, assignees, trustees, and other persons may appear before such board, in person or by attorney, or in person and by attorney, and introduce evidence. Said board may, upon its own motion, or upon the written request of any interested party, and each member of said board, may summon, swear and examine witnesses under the same rules which govern the summoning, swearing and examination of witnesses in the district courts of this State; and, such board shall have the same jurisdiction, authority and power, under the same penalties, to require the production and to secure the examination of any and all books, documents and papers of such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons as is now or may hereafter be conferred by the laws of this State upon the Railroad Commission of Texas. Upon or after such hearing, said board may change such valuation and apportionment, or either, or cancel such valuation and apportionment, as said board may deem just and proper in the premises. [Id.]

Art. 7111. [7420] Other duties regarding statement.—In so far as the other evidence and information adduced before said board does not make it appear to the members of said board to be improper or unjust to do so, said board shall, in fixing the true value of the entire property of such individual, company, corporation or association embraced within the provisions of this chapter, take as a basis therefor the aggregate market or true value of all its shares of stock, adding thereto the aggregate market or true value of all indebtedness secured by any mortgage, lien or other charge upon its property or assets, and the sum so produced shall be deemed and treated as the true value of said entire property. And where the individual, company, corporation or association does business and has property, both within this State and outside of it, in ascertaining the true value of its property within this State, said board shall next ascertain from said statements, reports and evidence, if any, or otherwise, the true value, in the locality where the same is situated, of each such several pieces of real estate situated outside of this State, and of its other properties, if any, outside thereof, and not specifically used in the business of said individual, company, corporation or association, and the aggregate of said value shall be deducted from the gross value of the property as above ascertained; and the result of the said deduction and the sum or value thereby obtained shall be deemed and treated as the true value of all property of such individual, company, corporation or association in actual use in its business. Said board shall then fix the true value of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, using as a basis and being guided so far as it shall not believe it unjust to do so, by the proportion which it finds to exist between the total lines or total receipts within this State and outside of it, and lines controlled or operated, or the receipts obtained, entirely within this State, so that there shall be apportioned to this State, as the true value of the property within its borders of each individual, company, corporation and association doing business within and outside of its limits, such proportion of the true value of all the property of such individual, company, corporation or association which is specifically used in its business, as is borne by its total lines or total receipts within this State when compared with the total lines or total receipts both inside and outside of the State of Texas. From the entire value of the property within this State, when ascertained as directed by this chapter, said board shall deduct the true value of all the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, as so ascertained by said board, and the residue and remainder of value shall be by said board fixed, determined and declared as the true value of the intangible properties owned and held by such individual, company, corporation or association within this State. Said board shall apportion the sum of the said total taxable values within this State to the counties in which such individual, company, corporation or association does business, in proportion to the amount of business done in and the receipts derived from each such company, except that, in case of a railroad company, the apportionment to each county shall be in proportion to the line or lines of such individual, company, corporation or association therein. In apportioning the value of the aforesaid properties, said board shall consider all evidence which may be put before it and all material facts at its command; and, if it shall believe that some method of calculation other than that specifically prescribed in this chapter is necessary in order to produce just and lawful results, said board shall follow that method of calculation which it believes best calculated, under all circumstances, to bring about a just, fair, equitable and lawful valuation and apportionment of such property. [Id.]

Art. 7112. [7421] Capital, how ascertained.—Whenever any person, or association of persons, not being a corporation, nor having a capital stock, shall engage in this State in any character of business embraced within the provisions of the eighth article of this chapter, then the capital and property, or the certificate or other evidences of the rights or interests of such person or association of persons engaged in such business, shall be deemed and treated as the capital stock of such person, or association of persons, for the purpose of taxation, and for all other purposes, under this chapter, and shall be estimated and valued; and the intangible property of such person or association of persons, when ascertained, shall be apportioned, distributed, assessed and taxed under the provisions of this chapter, in like manner as if such person or association of persons were a corporation; and each such person and association of persons shall, annually, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter, make the statements and reports and furnish and supply the information required by this law of the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations, and shall be subject in like manner as the aforesaid companies, corporations and associations to all the terms and provisions of this chapter, including penalties. [Id.]

Art. 7113. [7422] Board to certify to assessor.—Thereafter, and not later than the twentieth day of June of each year, said board shall make, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, a final valuation and apportionment of the intangible assets aforesaid, of each and every such individual, company, corporation and association, and shall, as soon after such twentieth day of June as practicable, certify to the tax assessor of each county to which any portion of such intangible assets of any such individual, company, corporation or association is found by said board to be apportionable for taxation and so apportioned, the amount thereof as fixed, determined and declared by said board, and thereunto apportioned by said board, together with the name and place of residence or place of business of the owner or owners of the property embraced in such valuation and apportionment; provided, that such final valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets, properly apportionable and apportioned by such board to any unorganized county shall be by said board so certified to the tax assessor of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. The tax assessor of such county, upon receiving such certificate or certificates of said board, shall place, set down and list, upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller for such purpose, upon the tax rolls of his county, and of each unorganized county which is attached to his county for judicial purposes, as the case may be, any and all such intangible assets, at the value so fixed, determined, declared and certified by said board. Such county tax assessor shall extend and prorate upon said rolls the State and county taxes upon all such intangible assets in the same manner as taxes upon other property are extended and prorated. Said assessment, valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets so fixed, determined, declared and certified by such board shall not be subject to review, modification or change by the tax assessor of such county, nor by the board of equalization of such county; and the State and county taxes thereon shall be collected by the tax collector of such county and accounted for by him in the same manner and under the same penalties as taxes upon other property. All State and county ad valorem taxes upon all intangible property in this State belonging to any individual, company, corporation or association embraced by this chapter, shall be assessed under its provisions and not otherwise; but ad valorem taxes upon all other property of any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations shall be assessed as is or as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7114. [7424] Failure to make statement.—Any individual, company, corporation or association, embraced within the provisions of this chapter, which shall fail to make any return, statement and report provided for by this chapter, within fifteen days after the day on which it is required by this chapter to be made, or to make any additional report or statement, or to furnish any additional information which may be required by said board, or any member thereof, under the provisions of this chapter, within fifteen days after the mailing of a registered notice or demand therefor in writing, signed by any member of said board and addressed to such individual, company or corporation or association, at its proper post-office address or principal place of business, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas not more than five thousand dollars, which amount may be recovered by suit which may be brought therefor in behalf of the State by the Attorney General; and venue of such suits is hereby fixed within the county of Travis. [Id.]

Art. 7115. [7425] Receivers and trustees in bankruptcy to report.—If the property of any such individual, company, corporation or association shall be in the hands of any receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding under any court, or for the benefit of any creditor or creditors, then the statements, reports, information, books, and papers aforesaid shall be furnished by such receiver, assignee, trustee or other person, by some officer or agent acting under him, in the same manner and to the same extent as is hereinbefore provided in cases where an individual, company or association is in possession; and as to such receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy or other person, officer or agent, all of the provisions of this chapter, in so far as they are applicable, shall apply and govern. [Id.]

Art. 7116. [7426] Relieved of other taxes.—Whenever any individual, company, corporation or association, embraced within the eighth article of this chapter, shall pay in full, and within the year for which same may be assessed, all its State and county taxes for that year upon all its intangible properties as determined, fixed and assessed under the provisions of this chapter, such individual, company, corporation or association shall thereby be relieved from liability for and from payment of any and all occupation taxes measured by gross receipts for or accruing during that year under any law of this State; but no such individual, company, corporation or association shall be entitled to any such exemption, except for the year for which it shall, before same shall become delinquent, pay all its aforesaid intangible State and county taxes for that year. [Id.]

Art. 7117. Property subject.—All property within the jurisdiction of this State, real or personal, corporate or incorporate, and any interest therein, whether belonging to inhabitants of this State or to persons who are not inhabitants, regardless of whether property is located within or without this State, which shall pass absolutely or in trust by will or by the laws of descent or distribution of this or any other State, or by deed, grant, sale or gift made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or donor, shall upon passing to or for the use of any person, corporation or association, be subject to a tax for the benefit of the State's general revenue fund in accordance with the following classifications. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 63.]

Art. 7118. Class A—Wife and children.—If passing to or for the use of husband or wife, or any direct lineal descendant or ascendent of the decedent, or to legally adopted child or children, or to the husband of a daughter or the wife of a son, the tax shall be one per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; two per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; three per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of two hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, and not exceeding one million dollars; and six per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7119. Class B—Domestic bequest.—If passing to a religious, educational or charitable organization located within this State and the bequest is to be used within this State, or to any city, town or county within this State, or to the State of Texas, or to the United States, to be used in this State, the tax shall be one per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; two per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; three per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of two hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and six per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7120. Class C—Brother or sister.—If passing to or for the use of a brother or sister or a direct lineal descendant of a brother or sister, of the decedent, the tax shall be three per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; four per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; eight per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; nine per cent on any value in excess of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and ten per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7121. Class D—Uncle or aunt.—If passing to or for the use of an uncle or aunt, or a direct lineal descendant of an uncle or aunt of the decedent, the tax shall be four per cent on any value in excess of one thousand dollars and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; five per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; seven per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; ten per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; twelve per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and fifteen per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7122. Class E—Foreign bequest.—If passing to any other person within or without this State, or to any religious, educational or charitable organization located without the State, or to any religious, educational or charitable organization located in this State, or to the United States, and the bequest is to be used without this State, or to any other corporation or association not included in any of the classes mentioned in the preceding four articles, the tax shall be five per cent on any value in excess of five hundred dollars and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; six per cent on any value in excess of ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; eight per cent on any value in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; ten per cent on any value in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; twelve per cent on any value in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; fifteen per cent on any value in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding one million dollars; and twenty per cent on any value in excess of one million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7123. Divided estate.—If the property passing as aforesaid shall be divided into two or more estates, as an estate for years or for life and a remainder, the tax shall be levied on each estate or interest separately, according to the value of the same at the death of the decedent. The value of estates for years, estates for life, remainders and annuities, shall be determined by the "Actuaries Combined Experience Tables," at four per cent compound interest. [Id.]

Art. 7124. Bequest to trustee.—If a testator bequeaths or devises to his executor or trustee property in lieu of commission, the value of such property in excess of reasonable compensation, as determined by the county judge and the Comptroller, shall be subject to taxation under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7125. Deductions.—The only deductions permissible under this law are the debts due by the estate, funeral expenses, expenses incident to last illness of deceased, and all Federal, State and county and municipal taxes due at the time of the death of decedent. A full statement of the facts authorizing deductions must be made in duplicate under oath by the executor, administrator or trustee, and one copy filed with the county clerk, and the other with the Comptroller, before any deductions will be allowed. [Id.]

Art. 7126. Preliminary report.—Every executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, and every other person coming into possession of any portion of such estate where there is no administration of such estate, shall file a preliminary report within one month after coming into possession of any such property, giving the date of the death of such decedent, the approximate value and character of his estate and the persons entitled to receive same. Such report shall be in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the Comptroller, and the other with the county clerk of the county wherein such decedent resided at the time of his death or wherein the principal part of his estate is located. The county clerk shall immediately notify the county judge of the filing of such report. [Id.]

Art. 7127. Inventory.—Within six months after the executor, administrator or trustee or other person comes into full possession of such estate, he shall make report in duplicate and shall file the same in the manner provided in the preceding article. Said report must be made under oath and recorded as a permanent record in the Probate Court of the county wherein filed, and must give the following information:

(1) A list of all real estate located in Texas, including improvements thereon, and the true and full value of such real estate and all improvements thereon at the date of the death of decedent;

(2) A complete list of all live stock showing the location, kind and value thereof;

(3) All moneys on hand or in the bank, regardless of location, whether in this State or outside of Texas;

(4) All notes, bonds, certificates, mortgages, stocks and other securities or evidences of indebtedness due the estate, showing the name and residence of those owing the estate, and the kind of bonds owned, the kind of notes, mortgages and stocks and other securities, and the name of the corporation, association or company in which stock or any interest is owned;

(5) The name and address of all persons entitled to such property and the value of such property to each beneficiary. [Id.]

Art. 7128. If administration unnecessary.—If for any reason the administration of the estate of a decedent leaving property subject to taxation under this chapter, shall not be necessary in this State except to carry out the provisions of this law, it shall be in the discretion of the county judge and Comptroller to dispense with the appointment of an administrator, upon filing with each of them a satisfactory inventory of the taxable property by the trustee or owner. Upon the filing of such inventory, the appraisalment and other proceedings required by this chapter shall be had as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7129. Securities of non-resident.—In case of the death of a non-resident of Texas, owning no property in this State except stocks or bonds in a domestic corporation or association, and such fact is shown to the satisfaction of the Comptroller, such officer shall value said property. The administrator, executor or trustee may pay said tax when notified of the amount by the Comptroller, direct to such officer at Austin. The Comptroller shall then issue and deliver proper receipt therefor to the State Treasurer who shall keep a record of such payment and forward receipts to the trustee. [Id.]

Art. 7130. Appraisal.—The judge of the county court having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent shall appoint two competent disinterested persons, to be approved by the Comptroller, as appraisers to fix the value of the property of such decedent subject to taxation hereunder; or upon agreement of the parties interested to dispense with the appointment of appraisers, the county judge and Comptroller shall appraise the property and make and file a report of such appraisement. The appraisers, being first sworn, shall forthwith give notice to all persons known to have any claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the executor, administrator or trustee, of the time and place when they will appraise the same. At such time and place, said appraisers shall appraise such property at its actual market value if it has a market value, and in case it has none, then its real value at the time of the death of the decedent, and shall thereupon make a report thereof in writing to said county judge and Comptroller, who shall file and keep such report. If the same decedent shall leave property taxable hereunder to more than one person, said appraisement and report shall be made for the property of each of such persons. Each appraiser shall be paid, on the certificate of the county judge, five dollars for each day employed in such appraisal, together with his actual necessary expenses incurred therein. [Id.]

Art. 7131. Fixing tax.—Immediately after the filing of the appraisal report, or as soon thereafter as practical, the county judge shall calculate and determine the tax due on such property, according to the value thereof as shown in such appraisement, and shall furnish a statement of the same to the Comptroller for verification. If the Comptroller finds the tax to be correct, he shall so advise the county judge, whereupon it shall immediately become the duty of the county judge to certify such amount to the collector of taxes, to the executor, administrator or trustee, and to the person to whom or for whose use, the property passes, and said tax shall be a lien upon such property from the death of the decedent until paid. [Id.]

Art. 7132. Payment of tax.—All taxes received under this law by any executor, administrator or trustee, shall be paid by him to the tax collector of the county whose county court has jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent. Upon such payment, the collector shall make duplicate receipts thereof and shall deliver one to the party making payment, the other he shall send to the Comptroller, who shall charge the collector with the amount thereof and shall countersign and affix his seal to such receipt and transmit same to the party making payment. [Id.]

Art. 7133. Lien.—A lien shall exist on all property subject to taxation under this law to secure the payment of all taxes, penalties and costs provided for in this chapter. All persons acquiring any portion of said property shall be charged with notice of the existence of all such unpaid taxes, penalties and costs, and of the lien securing their payment, which may be enforced in any suit brought for the collection of said taxes, penalties and costs. [Id.]

Art. 7134. Foreclosure.—If the amount of tax due hereunder, as shown by such assessment furnished by the county judge and Comptroller, is not paid within three months from the date of said assessment, same shall draw two per cent interest per month until paid, beginning with the date of notice of such assessment, and shall be added to said tax and collected as a penalty. If said tax and penalty are not paid within nine months from the date of such assessment, the Comptroller shall so advise the county attorney, or if there is no county attorney then the district attorney, who must immediately file suit in the district court to foreclose the tax lien, as other tax liens are foreclosed. [Id.]

Art. 7135. Final accounts.—No final account of any executor, administrator or trustee shall be allowed by the county judge unless such account shows and said judge finds that all taxes imposed under this law on any property or interest passing through his hands as such have been paid. Neither shall the county judge close any estate, or permit the delivery of any property to the legatee or heir without first ascertaining whether or not a tax is due under this chapter, and if no tax is due such fact must be shown by an instrument in writing filed with the final papers closing said estate. [Id.]

Art. 7136. Delivery of securities.—No notes, bonds, certificates, mortgages, stocks, securities or other evidences of indebtedness due the estate of deceased persons and subject to taxation hereunder, shall be transferred or delivered to any legatee or heir until the Comptroller issues a notice to the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate, or to their bondsmen, stating that all the inheritance taxes due this State have been paid. Such notice shall be authority for any administrator, executor or trustee to deliver such property to the proper legatees or heirs. [Id.]

Art. 7137. Delivery before payment.—Should any domestic corporation or association transfer to any legatee or heir, or should an administrator, executor or trustee deliver to any legatee or heir, the stocks or bonds of any domestic corporation or association, or deliver any other property, before the inheritance tax thereon due this State is paid, the corporation or association, or the administrator, executor, trustee and their bondsmen, shall be liable for said tax and penalty and all cost of collection. [Id.]

Art. 7138. Offsets after distribution.—Whenever any debts shall be proved against the estate of the decedent after the distribution of the property on which the tax has been paid and a refund is made by the distributee, due proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee if still in his hands, or by the Comptroller upon warrant on the State Treasurer, if said tax has been paid. [Id.]

Art. 7139. False report.—If any person charged with the duty of filing a report hereunder shall knowingly make a false report, he shall be liable for a penalty of not exceeding one thousand dollars, which shall be collected by the county attorney, or district attorney where there is no county attorney, in the name of this State by suit in the county in which the administration is pending. Twenty per cent of such penalty shall be retained by the attorney prosecuting such suit as attorney's fees, and the remainder shall be distributed as the taxes collected under this law are distributed. [Id.]

Art. 7140. Duty of attorneys.—It shall be the duty of the county attorney, or district attorney where there is no county attorney, of each county in this State to carefully investigate and keep informed concerning the estates subject to the payment of taxes and to see that proper reports are filed as required in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7141. Attorney's fees.—For the services performed under the provisions of this chapter, the county attorney and the county judge shall each be allowed two per cent of the taxes collected not to exceed thirty dollars in any one estate. If suit be brought, the county or district attorney prosecuting same shall receive as compensation therefor five per cent on the amount of the taxes payable hereunder not to exceed in any one case the sum of one hundred dollars, which fee shall be added and collected from said estate in addition to the taxes and penalties herein provided for, and such compensation shall be in addition to all other fees and compensation provided by this law. The aggregate of fees received under this law shall not exceed in any one year two thousand dollars, and any fees earned in addition to said sum shall be considered a portion of the tax and penalties collected, and be distributed in the same manner. [Id.]

Art. 7142. Tax collector's fees.—The collector of taxes of each county shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the State Treasurer all taxes received by him under this law before the first day of the month, deducting therefrom all lawful disbursements made by him under this law, and also his compensation at the rate of one per cent of all taxes collected hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 7143. Disposition of tax.—All moneys received by the State Treasurer under this chapter shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. [Id.]

Art. 7144. Comptroller to furnish forms.—The Comptroller shall prescribe and furnish all forms necessary in making the reports and collecting the tax provided for by this law. [Id.]

Art. 7145. [7503] [5061] All property taxed.—All property, real, personal or mixed, except such as may be hereinafter expressly exempted, is subject to taxation, and the same shall be rendered and listed as herein prescribed. [Acts 1876, p. 275; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1111.]

Art. 7146. [7504] [5062] "Real property."—Real property for the purpose of taxation, shall be construed to include the land itself, whether laid out in town lots or otherwise, and all buildings, structures and improvements, or other fixtures of whatsoever kind thereon, and all the rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, and all mines, minerals, quarries and fossils in and under the same. [Id.]

Art. 7147. [7505] [5063] "Personal property."—Personal property, for the purposes of taxation, shall be construed to include all goods, chattels and effects, and all moneys, credits, bonds and other evidences of debt owned by citizens of this State, whether the same be in or out of the State; all ships, boats and vessels belonging to inhabitants of this State, if registered in this State, whether at home or abroad, and all capital invested therein; all moneys at interest, either within or without the State, due the person, to be taxed over and above what he pays interest for, and all other debts due such person over and above his indebtedness; all public stock and securities; all stock in turn-pikes, railroads, canals and other corporations (except national banks) out of the State, owned by inhabitants of this State; all personal estate of moneyed corporations, whether the owners thereof reside in or out of this State, and the income of any annuity, unless the capital of such annuity be taxed within this State; all shares in any bank organized or that may be organized under the laws of the United States; all improvements made by persons upon lands held by them, the title to which is still vested in the State of Texas, or in any railroad company, or which have been exempted from taxation for the benefit of any railroad company, or any other corporation whose property is not subject to the same mode and rule of taxation as other property. [Acts 1879, p. 39; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1339.]

Art. 7148. Assessment of merchandise.—Any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation, doing business in this State, and carrying and possessing any stock of goods of whatsoever nature, shall upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such stock of goods is located, furnish said tax assessor with a verified copy of the last inventory of said stock of goods, together with the inventory value thereof.

The affidavit to the inventory shall state that said inventory includes every article in the stock carried by such person, co-partnership, association, or corporation and that no part of such stock is owned, operated or controlled by any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation other than the person furnishing such inventory.

Any persons, co-partnerships, associations or corporations who have space leased in which merchandise or any character of business is or was operated on January 1st so making such inventory, shall further state, if such is the case, what persons, associations, co-partnerships or corporations own or control any part of the stock of goods offered for sale and their residence in conjunction with the stock of goods owned by the person, co-partnership, association, or corporation rendering such inventory and not contained in such inventory.

Any person or agent or representative of such co-partnership, association, or corporation who shall fail to furnish such inventory and information as set forth above upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such property is located, shall be subject to all the penalties now existing against any person for making a false rendition of property for the purpose of taxation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 172.]

Art. 7149. [7506] [5064] Definition of terms.—The term, "money," or "moneys," wherever used in this title shall, besides money or moneys, include every deposit which any person owning the same or holding in trust and residing in this State, is entitled to withdraw in money on demand.

"Credits."—The term, "credits," wherever used in this title, shall be held to mean and include every claim and demand for money or other valuable thing, and every annuity or sum of money receivable at stated periods, due or to become due, and all claims and demands secured by deed or mortgage, due or to become due.

"Tract or lot."—The term, "tract or lot," and "piece or parcel," of real property, and "piece and parcel" of land, wherever used in this title, shall each be held to mean any quantity of land in possession of, owned by or recorded as the property of the same claimant, person, company or corporation.

“Town or district.”—The words, “town or district,” wherever used shall be held to mean village, city, ward or precinct, as the case may be.

“Value.”—The term, “true and full value,” wherever used shall be held to mean the fair market value, in cash, at the place where the property to which the term is applied shall be at the time of assessment, being the price which could be obtained therefor at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale.

“Person.”—The term, “person,” shall be construed to include firm, company or corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 275; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1111.]

Art. 7150. [7507] [5065] Exemption from taxation.—The following property shall be exempt from taxation, to-wit:

1. Schools and churches.—Public school houses and houses used exclusively for public worship, the books and furniture therein and the grounds attached to such buildings necessary for the proper occupancy, use and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit. All public colleges, public academies, all buildings connected with the same, and all the lands immediately connected with public institutions of learning, and all endowment funds of institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit, and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been or shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages; provided, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer; and all such buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes. This provision shall not extend to leasehold estate of real property held under authority of any college or university of learning. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

2. Christian Associations.—Young Mens' Christian Association Buildings, and Young Womens' Christian Association Buildings, used exclusively for the purpose of furthering religious work, and acting under the approval and co-operation of the State and International Young Mens' Christian Association committees and the Young Womens' Christian Association committees, the books and furniture contained in such buildings, and the grounds attached thereto necessary for the proper occupancy of such buildings, use and enjoyment of the same, and not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit other than for the purpose of maintaining the buildings and Association, and all endowment funds of the above mentioned religious institutions, not used with a view to profit, but for the purpose of maintaining the Association and buildings in doing religious work. [Acts 1913, p. 153.]

3. Cemeteries.—All lands used exclusively for graveyards or grounds for burying the dead, except such as are held by any person, company or corporation with a view to profit, or for the purpose of speculating in the sale thereof. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

4. Public property.—All property, whether real or personal, belonging exclusively to this State, or any political subdivision thereof, or the United States, except that in each county in this State, where the State of Texas has or may acquire and own land for the purpose of establishing thereon State farms and employing thereon convict labor on State account, the penitentiary board or board of penitentiary commissioners, or other officers of the penitentiary having the management of the same, shall render said land for taxes to the tax assessor of said county; and the taxes on same shall be assessed and collected in the manner required by law for the assessment and collection of other taxes; provided, that said taxes shall be assessed and collected for county purposes only; and said county taxes shall be paid annually out of the revenue derived from such State farms respectively by the officer having the management thereof, and same shall be charged to the expense account of operating such farm. No debt shall be created against the general revenue of the State in case of the failure to pay said taxes out of the revenue of any such farm. In arriving at the amount to be paid in taxes to the counties the value of the land only shall be considered and not the value of the buildings and other improvements owned by the State and situated on said land. [Id. Acts 1910, S. S. p. 122.]

5. County buildings.—All buildings belonging to counties for holding courts, for jails, or for county officers, with the land belonging to and on which such buildings are erected. [Acts 1907, p. 302.]

6. Poor-houses.—All lands, houses and other buildings belonging to any county, precinct or town, used exclusively for the support or accommodation of the poor. [Id.]

7. Public charities.—All buildings belonging to institutions of purely public charity, together with the lands belonging to and occupied by such institutions not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit, unless such rents and profits and all moneys and credits are appropriated by such institutions solely to sustain such institutions and for the benefit of the sick and disabled members and their families and the burial of the same, or for the maintenance of persons when unable to provide for themselves, whether such persons are members of such institutions or not. An institution of purely public charity under this article is one which dispenses its aid to its members and others in sickness or distress, or at death, without regard to poverty or riches of the recipient, also when the funds, property and assets of such institutions are placed and bound by its laws to relieve, aid and administer in any way to the relief of its members when in want, sickness and distress, and provide homes for its helpless and dependent members and to educate and maintain the orphans of its deceased members or other persons. [Id.]

8. Public libraries.—All public libraries and personal property belonging to the same. [Id.]

9. Market houses, etc.—All market houses, public squares, or other public grounds, town or precinct houses or halls used exclusively for public purposes, and all works, machinery or fixtures belonging to any town used for conveying water to such town. [Id.]

10. Fire engines.—All fire engines and other implements owned by towns and cities used for the extinguishment of fires, with the buildings used exclusively for the safekeeping thereof. [Id.]

11. Furniture.—All household and kitchen furniture not exceeding at their true and full value two hundred and fifty dollars to each family, in which may be included one sewing machine. [Id.]

12. Pensions.—All annual pensions granted by the State or the United States. [Id.]

13. Buffalo and catalo.—All buffalo and all catalo now in captivity in this State, by whomsoever owned, where such animals are kept and used for experimental purposes in crossing same with cattle for the purpose of producing a better strain of beef animals, or where such animals are kept in parks to preserve the species, and not for profit. [Acts 1917, p. 384.]

14. Art Galleries, etc.—All property belonging to Art Leagues and Societies of Fine Arts, whether incorporated or not, which are devoted wholly and without charge to the promotion of education and learning, including Art Galleries and exhibits therein contained, the land upon which the same are situated, which is devoted exclusively to such purposes, and also all land, money, pictures and other works of art and all other personal property which may be necessary and in actual use for the purpose of carrying out said educational feature. [Acts 1921, p. 97.]

15. Property of Boy Scouts.—Hereafter the property of the organization known as the Boy Scouts of America or any local organization affiliated with such organization, shall be exempt from taxation in this State. [Acts 1925, p. 255.]

Art. 7151. [7508] [5066] When to be rendered.—All property shall be listed for taxation between January 1 and April 30 of each year, when required by the assessor, with reference to the quantity held or owned on the first day of January in the year for which the property is required to be listed or rendered. Any property purchased or acquired on the first day of January shall be listed by or for the person purchasing or acquiring it. If any property has, by reason of any special law, contract or fact, been exempt or has been claimed to be exempted from taxation for any period or limit of time, and such period of exemption shall expire between January 1, and December 31 of any year, said property shall be assessed and listed for taxes as other property; but the taxes assessed against said property shall be for only the pro rata of taxes for the portion of such year remaining. [Acts 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7152. [7509] [5067] How rendered.—All property shall be listed or rendered in the manner following:

1. By the owner.—Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this State, shall list all of his real estate, moneys, credits, bonds or stock of joint stock or other companies (when the property of such company is not assessed in this State), moneys loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other property.

2. As agent.—He shall also list all lands or other real estate, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation whatsoever, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or drafts and credits due from or owing by any person, body corporate or politic.

3. Minor.—The property of a minor child shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. Wife.—The property of a wife, by her husband, if of sound mind; if not, by herself.

5. Idiot.—The property of an idiot or lunatic, by the person having charge of such property.

6. Cestui que trust.—The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee of the estate; of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

7. Receivers.—The property of corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers.

8. Corporations.—The property of a body politic or corporate, by the president or proper agent or officer thereof.

9. Copartnership.—The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

10. Manufactories.—The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent, in the name of his principal, as real, personal and merchandise.

11. Nurseries.—The stock of nurseries, growing and otherwise, in the hands of nurserymen shall be listed and assessed as merchandise. [Id.]

Art. 7153. [7510] [5068] Where rendered.—All property, real and personal, except such as is required to be listed and assessed otherwise, shall be listed and assessed in the county where it is situated; and all personal property, subject to taxation and temporarily removed from the State or county, shall be listed and assessed in the county of the residence of the owner thereof, or in the county where the principal office of such owner is situated. [Acts 1897, p. 203; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1257.]

Art. 7154. [7511] [5069] Rendered in but one county.—Lands lying on county boundaries, which have not been accurately and legally surveyed, determined or fixed, shall not be as-essed or taxed in more than one county. [Acts 1879, p. 153; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1453.]

Art. 7155. [7512] [5070] Livestock.—All persons, companies and corporations owning pastures in this State which lie on county boundaries shall be required to list for assessment, all livestock of every kind owned by them in said pastures in the several counties in which such pastures are situated, listing in each county such portion of said stock as the land in such county is of the whole pasture. All persons, companies and corporations owning any kind of livestock in pasture not their own shall list said livestock in the several counties in which such pastures are situated in the same manner; and in both cases the tax upon such livestock shall be paid to the tax collector of the several counties in which such livestock is listed and assessed. [Acts 1889, p. 29; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1057.]

Art. 7156. [7513] [5071] Taxes not to be paid twice.—Any lands which may have been assessed in any county according to the abstract of land titles, and the taxes paid thereon according to law, shall not be afterwards subject to the payment of taxes for the same period in a different county, although a subsequent survey and determination of the county boundaries may show said lands to be in a different county from that in which they were originally assessed; and any sales of such lands for alleged delinquency shall be illegal and void. [Acts 1879, p. 153; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1453.]

Art. 7157. [7514] [5072] Vessels.—All persons, companies and corporations in this State owning steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats and other water craft shall be required to list the same for assessment and taxation in the county in which the same may be enrolled, registered or licensed, or kept when not enrolled, registered or licensed. [Acts 1876, p. 277; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1113.]

Art. 7158. Deposits with State.—All securities of every kind and character, and all moneys, required or permitted by law to be deposited by any person, firm residing in this State, or corporation organized under the laws of Texas, with the State Treasurer, or other State officer or department, shall be taxed in the county in which the person owning same resides, or where such firm has its place of business, or at the domicile of such corporation, and at no other place. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 69.]

Art. 7159. [7515] [5073] Railroads, telegraphs, etc.—All railroad, telegraph, plank road and turnpike companies shall list all of their real and personal property, giving the number of miles of roadbed and line in the county where such roadbed and line is situated, at the full and true value, except when such company may own personal property or real estate in an unorganized county or district, then they shall list such property to the Comptroller. [Acts 1876, p. 277; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1113.]

Art. 7160. [7516] [5074] Listing for others.—Persons required to list property on behalf of others shall list it in the same manner in which they are required to list their own, but they shall list it separately from their own, specifying in each case the name of the person, estate, company or corporation to whom it belongs. [Id.]

Art. 7161. [7517] [5075] Sworn list.—Each person required by law to list property shall make and sign a statement, verified by his oath, as required by law, of all property, both real and personal, in his possession, or under his control, and which he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof, or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor. [Id.]

Art. 7162. [7518] [5076] Requisites. — Such statement shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, and a description sufficient for the identification of any real estate belonging to such owner.
2. The number of acres.
3. The value of the land.
4. The number of the lot or lots.
5. The number of the block.
6. The value of town lots.
7. The name of the city or town.
8. The number of miles of railroad in the county.
9. The value of railroads and appurtenances.
10. Number of miles of telegraph in the county.
11. Value of telegraph and appurtenances in the county.
12. Number and amount of land certificates and value thereof.
13. Number of horses and mules and the value thereof.
14. Number of cattle and the value thereof.
15. Number of jacks and jennets and value thereof.
16. Number of sheep and value thereof.
17. Number of goats and value thereof.
18. Number of hogs and dogs and value thereof.
19. Number of carriages, buggies, wagons, automobiles, bicycles, motorcycles, or other vehicles of whatsoever kind and the value of each one thereof.
20. Number of sewing machines and knitting machines and value thereof.
21. Number of clocks and watches and value thereof.
22. Number of organs, melodeons, piano fortes, and all other musical instruments of whatsoever kind and value thereof.
23. The value of household and kitchen furniture over and above the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars.
24. Office furniture and the value thereof.
25. The value of gold and silver plate.
26. The value of diamonds and jewelry.
27. Every annuity or royalty, the description and value thereof.

28. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharf boats, barges or other water craft, and the value thereof.

29. The value of goods, wares and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant (in hand on the first day of January of each year.)

30. Value of materials and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.

31. Value of manufacturers' tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.

32. Number of steam engines, including boilers, and the value thereof.

33. Amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

34. Amount of credits of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

35. Money on hand or on deposit, in or out of the State, with banks, trust companies, corporations, firms or individuals, and subject to order, check or draft, including certificates of deposit.

36. Amount of credits other than of bank, banker, broker or stock jobber.

37. Amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States Bonds.

38. Amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this State.

39. Value of all property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.

40. Value of stock and furniture of hotels and eating houses.

41. Value of every billiard, pigeon hole, bagatelle or other similar tables, together with the number thereof.

42. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.

43. Value of all other property not enumerated above. [Acts 1876, p. 278; Acts 1905, p. 357; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1114.]

Art. 7163. [7519] [5077] Certain credits and stocks not to be listed.—No person shall be required to list or render a greater portion of his credits than he believes will be received or can be collected, or to include in his statement as a part of his personal property which is required to be listed any share or portion of the capital stock or property of any company or corporation which is required to list or return its capital and property for taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7164. [7520] [5078] Rendition of real estate.—Persons listing or rendering real estate shall make a statement, duly signed and under oath, which shall truly and distinctly set forth:

1. The name of the owner, abstract number, number of survey, the number of the certificate, the name of the original grantee, the number of acres, and the true and full value thereof.

2. The number of the lot and block and the true and full value thereof, together with the name of the town or city.

3. When the name of the original grantee, or abstract number, or number of certificate, or number of survey is unknown, say "unknown," and give such description so that land or lot can be identified and the true and full value thereof can be determined. [Id.]

Art. 7165. [7521] [5079] Assessment of personal property of bank, etc.—Every bank, whether of issue or deposit, banker, broker, dealer in exchange, or stock jobber, shall at the time fixed by this chapter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the assessor of taxes a sworn statement showing:

1. If a national bank, the president or some other officer of such bank shall furnish to the assessor of the county in which such bank is located a list of the names of all the shareholders of the stock, together with the number and amount of the shares of each stockholder of stock in said bank; and the shareholders of the stock in national banks shall render to the tax assessor of the county in which said bank is located the number of their shares and the true and full value thereof. All shares of stocks in national banks not rendered to the assessor of taxes in the county where such bank is located within the time prescribed by law for listing property for taxes shall be assessed by the assessor against the owner or owners thereof as unrendered property is assessed; but the tax roll shall show the name of the owner or owners thereof as per statement furnished by the president or other officers of said bank.

2. National banks shall render all other bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stock or stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets, together with all other personal property belonging or pertaining to said bank, except such personal property as is specially exempted from taxation by the laws of the United States.

3. National banks shall be required to render all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered; and all the personal property of said national banks herein taxed shall be valued as other personal property is valued.

4. All other banks, bankers, brokers, or dealers in exchange, or stock jobbers shall render their list in the following manner:

(1) The amount of money on hand or in transit or in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others subject to draft, whether the same be in or out of the State.

(2) The amount of bills receivable, discounted or purchased and other credits due or to become due, including accounts receivable, interest accrued but not due, and interest due and unpaid.

(3) From the aggregate amount of the items named in the first and second of the last two subdivisions shall be deducted the amount of money on deposit.

(4) The amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, except United States bonds, and all shares of capital stocks or joint stocks of other companies or corporations held as an investment or in any way representing assets.

(5) All other property belonging or appertaining to said bank or business, including both personal property and real estate, shall be listed as other personal property and real estate. [Acts 1895, p. 37; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 767.]

Art. 7166. [7522] [5080] Assessment of real estate by banks.—Every banking corporation, State or national, doing business in this State shall, in the city or town in which it is located, render its real estate to the tax assessor at the time and in the manner required of individuals. At the time of making such rendition the president or some other officer of said bank shall file with said assessor a sworn statement showing the number and amount of the shares of said bank, the name and residence of each shareholder, and the number and amount of shares owned by him. Every shareholder of said bank shall, in the city or town where said bank is located, render at their actual value to the tax assessor all shares owned by him in such bank; and in case of his failure so to do, the assessor shall assess such unrendered shares as other unrendered property. Each share in such bank shall be taxed only for the difference between its actual cash value and the proportionate amount per share at which its real estate is assessed. The taxes due upon the shares of banking corporations shall be a lien thereon, and no banking corporation shall pay any dividend to any shareholder who is in default in the payment of taxes due on his shares; nor shall any banking corporation permit the transfer upon its books of any share, the owner of which is in default in the payment of his taxes upon the same. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to tax national or State banks, or the shareholders thereof, at a greater rate than is assessed against other moneyed capital in the hands of individuals. [Acts 1885, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 726.]

Art. 7167. [7523] [5081] Deductions.—No person, company or corporation shall be entitled to any deduction on account of any bond, note or obligation of any kind given to any mutual insurance company, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any religious, literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on account of any subscription to or installment payable on the capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated. [Acts 1876, p. 280; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1116.]

Art. 7168. [7524] [5082] Assessment by railroads.—Every railroad corporation in this State shall deliver a sworn statement, on or before the thirtieth day of April of each year, to the assessor of each county and incorporated city or town, into or through which any part of their road may run or in which they own or are in possession of real estate, a classified list of all real estate owned by or in possession of said company in said county, town or city, specifying:

1. The whole number of acres of land; lot or lots, exclusive of their right of way and depot grounds, owned, possessed or appropriated for their use, with a valuation affixed to the same.

2. The whole length of the railroad and the value thereof per mile, which valuation shall include right of way, roadbed, superstructure, depots and grounds upon which said depots are situated, and all shops and fixtures of every kind used in operating said road.

3. All personal property of whatsoever kind or character, except the rolling stock belonging to the company or in their possession in each respective county, listing and describing the said personal property in the same manner as is now required of citizens of this State. [Acts 1909, p. 373.]

Art. 7169. [7525] [5083] Railroads to return sworn statements.—Every railroad corporation in this State shall deliver a sworn statement on or before the first day of April of each year, to the assessor of the county in which its principal office is situated, setting forth the true and full value of the rolling stock of said railroad, together with the names of all the counties through which it runs, and the number of miles of roadbed in each of said counties; and said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which its principal office is situated for review, on the first Monday in June in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable; and such board shall certify such final valuation when made without delay to the Comptroller, who shall proceed at once to apportion the amount of such valuation among the said counties in proportion to the distance such roads shall run through any such county, and shall certify such apportionment to the assessors of such counties, and the same shall constitute part of the tax assets of such counties; and the assessor of each of said counties shall list and enter the same upon the rolls for taxation as other personal property situated in said county. And said railroad corporation shall also report in a separate sworn statement all rolling stock operated by it, under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract, which it does not render for taxation, giving the true and full value of such rolling stock and the amount paid or promised to be paid for rental, hire, lease or use under other form of contract, together with the name of person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock, and together with the post-office address of such person or firm, or if it be a corporation or association, then the city, county and State of its principal office; and if from said statement it appears that said rolling stock belongs to any person residing in this State, or to any firm doing business in this State, or to any corporation or association organized under the laws of this State, then said statement shall be certified by the tax assessor to whom it is made to the tax assessor of the county in which such person lives, or such firm does business, or such corporation or association has its principal office; and said statement shall be, by the tax assessor to whom it is certified, submitted to the board of equalization of the county for review, and the same shall be equalized by the board of equalization of such county, and certified to the Comptroller, and apportioned by the Comptroller in the same manner as other rolling stock is certified and apportioned under the preceding provisions of this article; and, if it appears from said statement that the person, firm, corporation or association owning such rolling stock is a non-resident of this State, then said statement shall be submitted to the board of equalization of the county in which the principal office of the railroad company using the same under rental, hire, lease or other form of contract is situated, which statement shall be reviewed by said board of equalization, and said property assessed against the owner, and certified to the Comptroller, and the valuation apportioned against said owner by the Comptroller, in the same manner as rolling stock belonging to the railroad corporation furnishing the list. [Acts 1885, p. 30; Acts 1907, p. 192; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 650.]

Art. 7170. [7526] [5084] Corporate property.—All property of private corporations, except in cases where some other provision is made by law, shall be assessed in the name of the corporation; and in collecting the taxes on the same all the personal property of such corporation shall be liable to be seized whenever the same may be found in the county, and sold in the same manner as the property of individuals may be sold for taxes. All statements and lists made by corporations that are required to be sworn to shall be verified by the affidavit and signature of the secretary of said corporation, and, if they have no secretary, the officer who discharges the duties of secretary of said corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 280; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1116.]

Art. 7171. [7527] [5085] Assessments in owner's name.—All real property subject to taxation shall be assessed to the owners thereof in the manner herein provided; but no assessment of real property shall be considered illegal by reason of the same not being listed or assessed in the name of the owner or owners thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7172. [7528] [5086] Lien for taxes.—All taxes upon real property shall be a lien upon such property until the same shall have been paid. And should the assessor fail to assess any real estate for any one or more years, the lien shall be good for every year that he should fail to assess for; and he may, in listing property for taxes any year thereafter, assess all the back taxes due thereon, according to the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7173. [7529] [5087] Leasehold interests in public lands.—Property held under a lease for a term of three years or more, or held under a contract for the purchase thereof, belonging to this State, or that is exempt by law from taxation in the hands of the owner thereof, shall be considered for all the purposes of taxation, as the property of the person so holding the same, except as otherwise specially provided by law. Timber held by persons or corporations, heretofore or hereafter purchased from the State under the various laws for that purpose, shall likewise be subject to assessment for taxes, and the value thereof for taxation shall be ascertained as the value of other property is ascertained. And should the owner of such timber fail or refuse to pay the taxes assessed against it, the same shall be sold for the taxes thereon, as provided in this title for the sale of personal property for taxes, provided that the same can be found by the collector; but, if the timber can not be found, then the collector shall collect the taxes due as the taxes on other personal property are collected; provided, further, that the Land Commissioner shall furnish by the first of January each year to the various commissioners courts and the tax assessors of this State a full and complete list of all timber sold by the State belonging to the school funds, giving the number of acres, price and to whom sold, in the respective counties where the timber so sold is situated. In case of the sale of such timber for taxes as herein provided, the purchaser shall take and hold the same under the same terms and conditions as the original purchaser thereof from the State. [Acts 1905, p. 72.]

Art. 7174. [7530] [5088] Valuation of property for taxation.—Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true and full value in money, excluding the value of crops growing or ungathered thereon.

In determining the true and full value of real and personal property the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such price as such property, including a mine, or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such a price as they would bring at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family, or any other person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money or property of any kind, shall be valued at the full value of the same so payable. If for a specified article or for a specified number or quantity of property of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys payable at stated periods shall be valued at the price that the person listing the same believes them to be worth in money. [Id.]

Art. 7175. [7531] Currency and coin.—Circulating notes of national banking associations and United States legal tender notes and other notes and certificates of the United States, payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency, and gold, silver and other coin, shall be hereafter subject to taxation as money on hand or on deposit, under the laws of this State. [Acts 1895, p. 49; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 49.]

Art. 7176. [7532] Assessed as money on hand.—The assessor of taxes shall assess the same in the same manner as money on hand or on deposit or other personal property, as provided for in the general assessment laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 7177. [7533] [5089] Election and term.—The qualified electors of each county at each general election shall elect an assessor of taxes for a term of two years. [Acts 1876, p. 265; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1101.]

Art. 7178. [7535] [5091] Oath and bond.—Every assessor of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond, payable to the Governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to one-fourth the amount of the State tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge all the duties of said office; and said bond and his official oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the Comptroller, to be deposited in his office. [Id.]

Art. 7179. [7537] [5093] New bond.—Assessors of taxes may be required to furnish a new bond and additional security whenever, in the opinion of the commissioners court, it may be advisable. If any assessor of taxes fails to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners court of his county, and be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id.]

Art. 7180. [7538] [5094] Bond for county taxes.—The assessor of taxes shall give a like bond with like conditions to the county judges of their respective counties and their successors in office, in a sum not less than one-fourth of the amount of the county tax of the county, as shown by the last preceding assessment, but not to exceed five thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and the assessor of taxes may be removed from office for a failure to furnish a new bond or additional security in the manner prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 7181. [7539] [5095] May appoint deputies.—Each assessor of taxes may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the assessment of taxes, and may require such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the assessor of taxes shall in all cases be liable and accountable for the proceedings and misconduct of his deputies. [Id.]

Art. 7182. [7540] [5096] Authority of deputies.—The deputies appointed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall do and perform all the duties imposed and required by law of assessors of taxes; and all acts of such deputies done in conformity with law shall be as binding and valid as if done by the assessor of taxes in person. [Id.]

Art. 7183. [7541-7567] May administer oaths.—Assessors of taxes are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all oaths necessary to obtain a full, complete and correct assessment of all taxable property situated in their respective counties. [Id. Acts 1895, p. 103; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 33.]

Art. 7184. [7542] [5098] The oath.—The assessor of taxes shall also require each person rendering a list of taxable property to him for taxation, under the assessment laws, to subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, which shall be written or printed at the bottom of each inventory, to-wit: “I, _____ (filling the blank with the name of the person subscribing) do solemnly swear or affirm that the above inventory rendered by me contains a full, true and complete list of all taxable property owned or held by me in my own name (or for others, as the case may be, naming the person or firm for whom he rendered the list) in this county, subject to taxation in this county and personal property not in this county subject to taxation in this county by the laws of this State, on the first day of January, A. D. 19_____ (filling the blank with the year), and that I have true answers made to all questions propounded to me touching the same. So help me God.” [Id. Acts 1897, p. 204.]

Art. 7185. [7543] [5099] Where oath may be made.—The owner or agent who is required under the laws of this State to render any property for taxation may render the same in the county where the same is situated by listing the same and making oath thereto, as required in this title, before any officer authorized to administer oaths in this State, or any officer out of this State that is authorized by law to take acknowledgments of instruments for record in this State, and may forward the same to the assessor of the county by mail or otherwise, and the assessor shall enter the said property on his tax rolls. If the assessor is satisfied with the valuation as rendered in said list, he shall so enter the same; if he is not satisfied with the valuation, he shall refer the same to the board of equalization of the county for their action, and shall immediately notify the person from whom he received said list that he has referred said valuation to the board of equalization. [Acts 1876, p. 267; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1102.]

Art. 7186. [7544] [5100] Failure to administer or attest oath, etc.—The assessor of taxes, for every failure or neglect to administer the oath or affirmation prescribed in the second preceding article to each person rendering a list of taxable property to him, unless the person refuses to qualify, shall forfeit fifty dollars, to be deducted out of his commissions upon satisfactory information furnished the county judge; and for each failure or neglect to attest the oath subscribed to as provided in said article, shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars upon satisfactory information furnished the county judge. The forfeitures imposed by this article shall be deducted from the assessor's commissions on the assessment for county taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7187. [7545] [5101] Fraud upon public revenue.—Any evasions by means of artifice or temporary or fictitious sale, exchange or pretended transfer upon any bank books, of gold and silver coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this State for United States non-taxable treasury notes or any notes or bonds not so subject to taxation, and any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer not made in good faith, and by actual exchange and delivery of the funds so sold, exchanged or transferred and made only by entry on bank books, or by any express or implied understanding not to immediately make a bona fide and permanent sale, shall be deemed prima facie to be a fraud upon the public revenue of this State. [Acts 1891, p. 39; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 41.]

Art. 7188. [7546] [5102] Taxpayer to make oath.—Each assessor of taxes shall require all taxpayers when assessed by them to make oath as to any such sale, exchange or transfer made by them on the first day of January or within sixty days before said first day of January of any year for which any such assessment is made, as to the good faith and bona fide business transaction of any such sale, exchange or transfer, as above set forth, if any such should have been made by them; and, if it should be disclosed that any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer has been made for the purpose of evading taxation, then and in that event the assessor shall list and render against such person the coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 7189. [7547] [5103] When assessments made.—Assessors of taxes shall, between the first day of January and the thirtieth day of April of each year, proceed to take a list of taxable property, real and personal, in his county and assess the value thereof in the manner following, to-wit: By calling upon the person, or by calling at the office, place of business or the residence of the person, and listing the property required by law in his name, and requiring such person to make a statement under said oath of such property in the form hereinafter prescribed. [Acts 1876, p. 265; Acts 1909, p. 373; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1103.]

Art. 7190. [7548] [5104] Irregular assessments valid.—Should any property be listed or assessed for taxation after April 30th of any year, or should the assessor of taxes or his deputy fail to administer the requisite oath or attest the same in the mode prescribed by law, or should the party rendering property for taxation fail to subscribe to the list, yet the assessment shall, nevertheless, be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes as if made in strict pursuance of law. [Id.]

Art. 7191. [7549] [5105] If taxpayer is absent.—If any person who is required by this title to list property shall be sick or absent when the assessor calls for a list of his property, the assessor shall leave at the office or usual place of residence or business of such person, a written or printed notice requiring such person to meet him and render a list of his property at such time and place as the assessor of taxes may designate in said notice. The tax assessor shall carefully note in a book the date of leaving such notice. [Id.]

Art. 7192. [7550] [5106] Or refuses to list.—In every case where any person whose duty it is to list any property for taxation has refused or neglected to list the same when called on for that purpose by the assessor of taxes, or has refused to subscribe to the oath in regard to the truth of his statement of property, or any part thereof, when required by the tax assessor, the assessor shall note in a book the name of such person who refused to list or to swear; and in every case where any person required to list property for taxation has been absent or unable from sickness to list the same, the tax assessor shall note in a book such fact, together with the name of such person. [Id.]

Art. 7193. [7551] [5107] Duty in such cases.—In all cases of failure to obtain a statement of real and personal property from any cause, the assessor of taxes shall ascertain the amount and value of such property and assess the same as he believes to be the true and full value thereof; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as if such property had been rendered by the proper owner thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7194. [7552] [5108] Land office to furnish abstracts.—The Land Commissioner shall furnish to each assessor of taxes a correct abstract of all the surveys of land and number of acres therein in their respective counties; and on the first day of January of each year said commissioner shall furnish said assessors an additional list of all new valid surveys in his county during the year. If the records of the land office do not show the number of acres in a survey, the county surveyor shall furnish said assessor a certified statement of the number of acres therein. [Acts 1879, p. 24; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1324.]

Art. 7195. [7553] [5109] Books furnished assessors.—Each commissioners court shall procure and furnish the assessor three well bound books of not less than six hundred and forty pages each, and an index book for same, and such other stationery as may be necessary; said books to be of the best material and make, and shall have printed headings as per following form: [Id.]

Art. 7196. [7554] [5110] How filled by assessor. — The blanks to be filled by the assessor with the abstract number, name of party to whom the certificate was issued, the number, class and character of the certificate, the name of the party to whom the patent issued, number of volume of patent, the month, day and year it was issued, and the number of acres each survey contains; which whole survey shall stand as a debit against the assessor. [Id.]

And the said assessor shall draw a plot of each block in the blank space left for that purpose, giving the number of each lot. And the whole of said block or subdivision shall be a debit against the assessor. [Id.]

Art. 7198. [7556] [5112] Assessing.—Each assessor, when he shall have made the assessment of his county for each year, shall, on the first day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, carry from each person's assessment the number of acres and its value on each survey of lands, lots or blocks to that particular survey, lot or block found on the abstract books provided in Articles 7196, 7197 and 7205; and all the parts of each survey or block placed on said abstract books shall be a credit to the assessor on that particular survey. Said assessor shall deduct the total number of acres rendered on each survey or block from the total number of acres of the whole survey or block as is shown by said abstract; and, if any part is left unrendered, then he shall assess the same to the owner or owners thereof, if known, and, if unknown, then to "unknown owners," and the value thereof shall be affixed by him, sanctioned by the board of equalization; provided, that the owner or owners of any survey and grant of land may show that the survey and grant in which they are interested does not contain the full complement of acres, showing how many acres are in fact embraced within the calls of the particular survey and grant. [Id.]

Art. 7199. [7557] [5113] To be kept in office.—The assessor's abstracts shall be kept in his office at the county seat of his county, as records of his office, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. The index book shall show the original grantee, the number of acres, the abstract number, and the volume and page in which each survey is placed. [Id.]

Art. 7200. [7558] [5114] Lands not on abstract.—Should there be any survey of lands, lots or blocks not on the abstract book or books which are by law subject to taxation, the assessor shall enter such lands, lots or blocks on the assessment list as though the same appeared on said abstract books. [Id.]

Art. 7201. [7559] [5115] Certificate from board.—Each assessor of taxes shall procure from the board of equalization of his county a certificate that all the surveys and parts of surveys of lands in his county, and all the lots and blocks of the cities and towns of his county, are rendered for taxation; which certificate shall be forwarded to the Comptroller before he shall issue to said assessor a draft on the tax collector of his county. The same rule shall apply to the commissioners court before they issue drafts on the county treasurer for his pay for assessing the county taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7202. [7560] [5116] Substitute employed.—The board of equalization or the commissioners court shall, if the assessor fails to perform the duties required by this chapter within a reasonable time, employ some other competent person to have the requirements of this law carried out, and the compensation therefor shall be deducted from the assessor's pay for that year.

[Id.]

Art. 7203. [7561] [5117] Unorganized counties. — The Comptroller shall be required to have this law carried out in the unorganized counties of this State, where lands are located.
[Id.]

Art. 7204. [7562] [5118] Manner and form of assessing.
—The manner and form for assessing property for taxation shall be substantially as follows, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner.
2. Abstract number.
3. From whom and how acquired.
4. The name of the original grantee.
5. The number of acres.

30. Number of steamboats, sailing vessels, wharves, boats, barges, or other water craft, and the value thereof.
31. The value of goods and merchandise of every description which such person is required to list as a merchant in hand on the first day of January of each year.

32. The value of material and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer.

33. The value of manufactures, tools, implements and machinery other than boilers and engines, which shall be listed as such.

34. Number of steam engines and boilers and value thereof.

35. The amount of moneys of bank, banker, broker, stock jobber or any other person.

36. The amount of solvent credits of bank, banker, broker stock jobber or any other person.

37. The amount and value of bonds and stocks other than United States bonds.

38. The amount and value of shares of capital stock companies and associations not incorporated by the laws of this State.

39. The value of property of companies and corporations other than property hereinbefore enumerated.

40. The value of stock and furniture of hotels and eating houses.

41. Every franchise, the description and value thereof.

42. The value of all other property not enumerated as above. [Acts 1876, p. 268; Acts 1895, p. 38; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1104.]

Art. 7205. [7563] [5119] Assessment of property not rendered.—If the assessor of taxes discovers any real property in his county subject to taxation which has not been listed to him, he shall list and assess such property in the manner following, to-wit:

1. The name of the owner; if unknown, say "unknown."

2. Abstract number and number of certificate.

3. Number of the survey.

4. Name of the original grantee.

5. Number of acres.

6. The true and full value thereof.

7. The number of lot or lots.

8. The number of the block.

9. The true and full value thereof.

10. The name of the city or town, and give such other description of the lot or lots or parcels of land as may be necessary to better describe the same; and such assessment shall be as valid as if rendered by the owner thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 269; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1105.]

Art. 7206. [7564] [5120] Boards of equalization.—Each commissioners court shall convene and sit as a board of equalization on the second Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable before the first day of June, to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessors of their counties for inspection, correction or equalization and approval.

1. They shall cause the assessor to bring before them at such meeting all said assessment lists, books, etc., for inspection, and see that every person has rendered his property at a fair market value, and shall have power to send for persons, books and papers, swear and qualify persons, to ascertain the value of such property, and to lower or raise the value on the same.

2. They shall have power to correct errors in assessments.

3. They shall equalize improved lands in three classes, first-class to embrace the better quality of land and improvements, the second-class to embrace the second quality of lands and improvements, and the third-class to embrace lands of but small value or inferior improvements. The unimproved lands shall embrace first, second and third class, and all other property made as nearly uniform as possible.

4. After they have inspected and equalized as nearly as possible, they shall approve said lists or books and return same to the assessors for making up the general rolls, when said board shall meet again and approve the same if same be found correct.

5. Whenever said board shall find it their duty to raise the assessment of any person's property, they shall order the county clerk to give the person who rendered the same written notice that they desire to raise the value of same. They shall cause the county clerk to give ten days written notice before their meeting by publication in some newspaper, but, if none is published in the county, then by posting a written or printed notice in each justice's precinct, one of which must be at the court house door.

6. The assessors of taxes shall furnish said board on the first Monday in May of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refuse to swear or to qualify or to have signed the oath required by law, together with the assessment of said person's property made by him through other information; and said board shall examine, equalize and correct assessments so made by the assessor, and when so revised, equalized and corrected, the same shall be approved. [Acts 1879, p. 44; Acts 1909, p. 373; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1344.]

Art. 7207. [7565] Assessment of real property for previous years.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any real property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation for any year since 1870, he shall list and assess the same for each year for which it has not been assessed, in the manner prescribed in the preceding article; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof; but no such real property shall be assessed by the assessor unless he has ascertained by the certificate of the Comptroller the fact that the records of his office do not show that the property has been rendered or assessed for the year in which he assesses it. [Acts 1888, p. 4; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1002.]

Art. 7208. [7566] [5121] Back taxes on personal property.—If the assessor of taxes shall discover in his county any property, or outside of his county but belonging to a resident of the county, any personal property which has not been assessed or rendered for taxation every year for two years past, he shall list and assess the same for each year thus omitted which it has belonged to said resident, in the manner prescribed for assessing other property; and such assessment shall be as valid and binding as though it had been rendered by the owner thereof. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 925.]

Art. 7209. [7567] Supplemental roll.—Collectors of taxes of counties, cities and towns, when any taxpayer applies to them to ascertain the amount of his taxes, and the collector finds that his name or his property does not appear on the tax roll, shall assess said taxpayer then and there, collect the taxes and enter the same upon a supplemental tax roll to be made by him. He shall make out, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller, three copies of such supplemental roll, one copy to be delivered to the Comptroller, one to be delivered to the county clerk, and one to be filed in the collector's office. Said supplemental tax roll shall be made out and delivered to the commissioners court with all other papers pertaining to the final settlement of said tax collector, and the same shall be examined and approved by the commissioners court, in like manner as upon the tax roll of the tax assessor. The oath shall be the same as is administered by tax assessors under existing law. The tax collector shall receive the following compensation for his services on all assessments made by him under this Act, to-wit: For assessing the State and county taxes, four cents for each one hundred dollars of property so assessed, and for assessing the poll tax, five cents for each poll; which fee shall be paid in the same way as the tax assessor's fee in Article 3937. [Acts 1895, p. 103; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 833.]

Art. 7210. [7568] [5122] Assessor to follow instructions.—Tax assessors in the execution of their duties shall use the forms and follow the instructions which the Comptroller shall from time to time prescribe, and furnished to them by the county judge in pursuance of law. [Acts 1876, p. 265; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1101.]

Art. 7211. [7569] [5123] Equalization of assessments.—Hereafter when any person, firm or corporation renders his, their or its property in this State for taxation to any tax assessor, and makes oath as to the kind, character, quality and quantity of such property, and the said officer accepting said rendition from such person, firm or corporation of such property is satisfied that it is correctly and properly valued according to the reasonable cash market value of such property on the market at the time of its rendition, he shall list the same accordingly; but, if the assessor is satisfied that the value is below the reasonable cash market value of such property, he shall at once place on said rendition opposite each piece of property so rendered an amount equal to the reasonable cash market value of such property at the time of its rendition, and if such property shall be found to have no market value by such officer, then at such sum as said officer shall deem the real or intrinsic value of the property; and if the person listing such property or the owner thereof is not satisfied with the value placed on the property by the assessor, he shall so notify the assessor, and if desiring so to do make oath before the assessor that the valuation so fixed by said officer on said property is excessive; such officer to furnish such rendition, together with his valuation thereon and the oath of such person, firm or officer of any corporation, if any such oath has been made, to the commissioners' court of the county in which said rendition was made, which court shall hear evidence and determine the true value of such property on January First, 19____ (here give year for which assessment is made) as is herein provided; such officer or court shall take into consideration what said property could have been sold for any time within six months next before the first day of January of the year for which the property is rendered. [Acts 1925, pp. 48 and 382.]

Art. 7212. [7570] [5124] Boards may equalize.—The boards of equalization shall have power, and it is made their official duty, to supervise the assessment of their respective counties, and, if satisfied that the valuation of any property is not in accordance with the laws of the State, to increase or diminish the same and to affix a proper valuation thereto, as provided for in the preceding article; and, when any assessor in this State shall have furnished said court with the rendition as provided for in the preceding article, it shall be the duty of such court to call before it such persons as in its judgment may know the market value or true value of such property, as the case may be, by proper process, who shall testify under oath the character, quality and quantity of such property, as well as the value thereof. Said court, after hearing the evidence, shall fix the value of such property in accordance with the evidence so introduced and as provided for in the preceding article; and their action in such case or cases shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7213. [7571] Neglect of duty by assessor.—If any tax assessor in this State shall fail, refuse or neglect to place upon any rendition as provided in Article 7211 of this chapter, the true value or market value in accordance with the method of fixing such value as provided for herein, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to return to the commissioners court such rendition, together with the oath of the owner or person listing such property for taxes when such oath has been made, as provided for in this chapter, or if the assessor accepts the rendition from any person rendering property for taxation without reading to such person the oath and having it signed and sworn to as provided by law, such failure, refusal or neglect shall be deemed malfeasance on the part of such officer, and shall be cause for his removal from office. [Acts 1907, p. 459.]

Art. 7214. [7572] Oath of assessor.—Every tax assessor and deputy tax assessor in this State, in addition to the oath prescribed by the Constitution of this State, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the following oath: “I, _____, tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor, as the case may be) in and for _____ County, Texas, do solemnly swear that I will personally view and inspect all the real estate and improvements thereon subject to taxation, lying in said county, that may be rendered to me for taxation by any corporation or individual, or by their agent or representative, as fully as may be practicable, and that I will, as fully as is practicable, view and inspect all other taxable property in said county rendered to me as aforesaid; that I will to the best of my ability make a true estimate of the cash value, the market value of such property, if such property has a market value, and if it has no market value, then the real value of all such property, both real and personal, on the first day of January next preceding; and that I will make up and attach to each assessment sheet made up and sworn to by the said property owners, their agents or representatives, a true assessment and valuation of said property, together with a memoranda of all facts which I may learn bearing upon the value of said taxable property, and that I will make all possible inquiry relative to the true value of such property; and that I will attach said memoranda and statement of facts that I may ascertain as aforesaid to the said assessment sheets of the respective property owners. That I have read and understand the several provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully do and perform every duty required of me as tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor), by the Constitution and laws of this State. So help me God.” This oath shall be administered by the county clerk and shall be in duplicate; the original shall be by the clerk filed and recorded in the records of the county, and the duplicate shall be retained by the assessor, or the deputy, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 7215. [7573] Oath of board.—When a commissioners court convenes as a board of equalization, before considering the subject of equalization of property values for the purposes of taxation, each member of the court, including the county judge, shall take and subscribe to the following oath: “I, _____, a member of the board of equalization of _____ County, for the year A. D. —, hereby solemnly swear that, in the performance of my duties as a member of such board for said year, I will not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of said county for said year at any sum which I believe to be less than its true market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as a member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed for said year at less than its true market value, or real value, raised on the tax rolls to what I believe to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value, and if not, then to its real value; and that I will faithfully endeavor to have the assessed valuation of all property subject to taxation within said county stand upon the tax rolls of said county for said year at its true cash market value, or, if it has no market value, then its real value. I further solemnly swear that I have read and understand the provisions contained in the Constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me under the Constitution and laws of this State. So help me God." Said oath shall be filed and recorded in the commissioners court record as a part of the proceedings of that term of court. [Id.]

Art. 7216. [7574] Neglect of duty cause for removal.—If, in passing upon the value of any property by a commissioners court sitting as a board of equalization in this State, the court shall fix a value upon any property for the purpose of taxation and a minority of said court do not concur in the judgment of the court, the clerk shall record in the minutes of the court the names of the members, including the county judge, who do not concur in fixing such values (if the county judge shall cast the deciding vote in such matter); and, if any tax assessor or member of any commissioners court shall knowingly fail or refuse to fix the value of property rendered for taxes in compliance with this chapter, and all other laws of this State, such failure, neglect or refusal shall constitute malfeasance in office on the part of such assessor or member or members of said court, and such failure, neglect or refusal shall be cause for his or their removal from office. Whenever the fact is brought to the knowledge of the Attorney General that any tax assessor, deputy tax assessor, county judge, or member of the commissioners court, has failed, refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this chapter, he shall at once file suit for the removal from office of such officer thus offending. Such proceedings for the removal of such officer or officers herein provided for shall be brought in the district court of the county of such officer's residence; and such suit shall be brought by or under the direction of the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 7217. [7575] [5125] To furnish list of delinquents.—The assessor of taxes shall furnish the board of equalization on the first Monday in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a certified list of names of all persons who either refused to swear or qualify or to sign the oath as prescribed in this title; also a list of the names of those persons who refused to render a list of taxable property as required by this title. Should any person so failing or refusing to take the oath prescribed, or to render a list of their property, or to subscribe to the oath, as required by the provisions of this title, fail to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to the board of equalization within one month from the date of the filing of said list by the assessor, as required by this article, the board of equalization shall return a list of all persons who have failed to give satisfactory reasons for such failure or refusal to render, qualify or subscribe to the oath to the assessor of taxes, who shall present the said list to the next grand jury of his county. [Acts 1876, p. 270; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1106.]

Art. 7218. [7576] [5126] To submit lists to board.—The assessor of taxes shall submit all the lists of property rendered to him prior to the first Monday in June to the board of equalization of his county on the first Monday in June or as soon thereafter as practicable, for their inspection, approval, correction or equalization. After said board shall have returned the corrected and approved lists of taxable property, the assessor of taxes shall proceed to assess all the unrendered property of his county as provided for in this title, and shall proceed to make out and prepare his roles or books of all the real and personal property listed to him, in the form and manner prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7219. [7577] [5127] Shall make out rolls in triplicate.—As soon as the board of equalization shall have examined, corrected and approved the assessor's list, the assessor of taxes shall prepare and make out a roll or book, as may be required by the Comptroller, from the list so corrected and approved, and three exact copies of the same, the original to be furnished to the collector of taxes, the second to the Comptroller, and the third to be filed in the county clerk's office for the inspection of the public. He shall also prepare a roll or book, and two exact copies thereof, to be distributed, the first to the collector of taxes, the second to the Comptroller, the third to be filed in the county clerk's office, of all the real and personal property which has not been listed to him. [Id.]

Art. 7220. [7578] [5128] Also rolls of unrendered property.—The assessor of taxes shall, after his list of unrendered real and personal property shall have been examined, corrected and approved by the board of equalization as provided by law, prepare and make out his rolls or books of all unrendered real and personal property listed by him in the manner and form prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7221. [7579] [5129] And add up columns.—The assessor of taxes shall add up and note the aggregate of each column on his roll or book, and he shall also make in each book or roll, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and he shall add up and set down under the respective headings the total of the several columns. [Id.]

Art. 7222. [7580] [5130] Return and oath.—The assessor of taxes shall, on or before the first day of August of each year for which the assessment is made, return his rolls or assessment books of the taxable property rendered to him or listed by him for that year, after they have been made in accordance with the provisions of this title, to the county board of equalization, verified by his affidavit, substantially on the following form:

The State of Texas, _____ County.

I, _____, assessor of _____ county, do solemnly swear that the rolls (or books) to which this is attached contain a correct and full list of the real and personal property subject to taxation in _____ county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; that I have sworn every person listing property to me in the county, or caused the same to be done in manner and form as provided by law, and that the assessed value set down in the proper column opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property is the true and correct valuation thereof as ascertained by law, and the footings of the several columns in said books and the tabular statement returned is correct, as I verily believe. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 204; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1258.]

Art. 7223. [7581] [5131] Lists, etc., filed.—The assessor of taxes shall at the same time deliver to the board of equalization all the lists, statements of all property which shall have been made out or received by him, and arranged in alphabetical order, together with the roll withdrawn to aid him in the past assessment. The lists and statements shall be filed in the county clerk's office, and remain there for the inspection of the public. [Acts 1876, p. 271; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1107.]

Art. 7224. [7582] [5132] Rolls, how distributed.—After the board of equalization shall have examined the rolls or assessment books and made all corrections, if any be necessary, the assessor shall send one copy of each to the Comptroller, one copy of each to the collector of his county, and he shall file the other copies in the county clerk's office until the next assessment, when the assessor shall have the right to withdraw them and use as provided in this title. [Id.]

Art. 7225. [7586] [5136] Penalties for neglect of duty.—Should any assessor of taxes fail or neglect to make out and return his rolls or books to the commissioners court in the time and manner provided for in this chapter, it shall be competent for the commissioners court to deduct from his compensation such amount as they may deem proper and right for such neglect or failure; and, should his rolls or books, when presented for approval to the commissioners court, prove to be imperfect or erroneous, the court shall have the same corrected or perfected, either by the assessor or some other person than the assessor of taxes. Such person so employed by the commissioners shall be entitled to such part of the commissions to which such as-essor is entitled as the court may allow; and said court shall so certify to the Comptroller, who shall pay such person in the same manner as the assessor of taxes is paid; and the amount so paid shall be deducted by the Comptroller from the commissions of the assessor of taxes, whose duty it was to have performed such work. [Id. Acts 1879, p. 44; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1344.]

Art. 7226. [7587] [5137] Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties, etc.—Lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and lands lying in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be assessed by the Comptroller in accordance with such regulations as he may adopt and establish for that purpose. [Const., Art. 8, Sec. 12.]

Art. 7227. Canceling subdivisions.—Any person, firm, association or corporation owning lands in this State, which lands have been subdivided into lots and blocks or small subdivisions, may make application to the commissioners court of the county wherein any such lands are located, for permission to cancel all or any portion of such subdivision or subdivisions, so as to throw the said lands back into acreage tracts as it existed before such subdivisions were made. When such application is made by the owner or owners of such land, and it is shown that a cancellation of such subdivisions, or portion thereof, will not interfere with the established rights of any purchaser owning any portion of such subdivisions, or if it be shown that said person or persons agreed to such cancellation, said commissioners court shall enter an order, which order canceling said subdivisions shall be spread upon the minutes of such court, authorizing such owner or owners of such lands to cancel the same by written instrument describing such subdivisions, or portions thereof, so cancelled as designated by said court. When such cancellation is filed and recorded in the deed records of such county, the tax assessor of such county shall assess such property as though it had never been sub-divided. When such application is so filed, said court shall cause notice to be given of such application by publishing such application in some newspaper, published in the English language, in such county for at least three weeks prior to action thereon by said court, and action shall be taken on such petition or petitions at a regular term of said court. Such notice, in addition to said publication, shall command any person interested in such lands to appear at the time specified in such notice to protest if desired against such action. If such lands are delinquent for taxes for any preceding year, or years, and such application is granted as hereinbefore provided, the owner or owners of said land shall be permitted to pay such delinquent taxes upon an acreage basis, the same as if said lands had not been subdivided, and for the purpose of assessing lands for such preceding years the county assessor of taxes shall back assess such lands upon an acreage basis. This law shall not apply to any lands or lots included in an incorporated city or town. [Acts 1919, p. 160.]

Art. 7228. [7588] [5138] Lands in unorganized counties.—All lands and other property situated in the unorganized counties of this State, owned by residents of such unorganized counties, shall be assessed by the assessor of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and the taxes collected by the collector of such organized county; and the same remedies for the enforcement of the assessment and collection of such taxes shall apply as the law directs for the assessment and collection of the taxes on property situated in organized counties of this State. [Acts 1879, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1441.]

Art. 7229. [7589-90] Duties of Comptroller.—The Comptroller is authorized, empowered and required to assess and collect the State and county taxes on all lands which are situated in unorganized counties and owned by non-residents thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided. The Comptroller may at any time prior to the return of the assessment rolls to his office of the organized county to which such unorganized county or counties are attached for judicial purposes, receive the assessment of and collect the taxes on any lands situated in such unorganized county or counties which are owned by non-residents thereof. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 43; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7230. [7591-2] List of unrendered lands.—As soon as the tax rolls of the organized county to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have been received by the Comptroller, he shall, by comparing the lands rendered to the assessor of the organized county by the residents of such unorganized county or counties with those previously rendered to him by non-residents, make out a list of all unrendered lands situated in such unorganized county, and place such value upon the lands thus found to be unrendered as he may deem just and fair. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the Comptroller from receiving the assessment and taxes due at any time prior to the completion of the unrendered list of such unorganized county. After the completion of the unrendered list provided for in this chapter, the owner or owners must pay according to the value and assessment made thereon by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7231. [7593] [5143] May appeal from assessment.—Assessment of lands rendered to the Comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall be made by the party rendering the same under oath as to their value; but if the Comptroller thinks the valuation too low he shall object; and if the Comptroller and the party rendering the land cannot agree, then the Comptroller shall assess the same at such value as he may think it is worth; and, if the party rendering feels that the assessment is too high, he may appeal to the board of equalization, which for such purposes shall consist of the Governor, Attorney General and the Secretary of State, and their decision shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7232. [7594] [5144] May levy upon and sell, when.—Three months after the completion of the unrendered list of each unorganized county, respectively, the Comptroller shall proceed to levy upon and advertise all lands in such counties upon which the taxes are due and unpaid, giving notice of the amount due upon each separate tract of land, and giving such description of the land upon which taxes are due and unpaid as he may be in possession of; such notice to be given by publication in some weekly newspaper published in the State for four consecutive weeks; said notice to state that on a certain day therein named the Comptroller will proceed to sell the land therein described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the State and county taxes due, and the cost of advertising the same. [Id.]

Art. 7233. [7595] [5145] Sale.—The sale shall commence on the day named in said notice, and may continue from day to day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) until completed; such sale shall be had in front of the Comptroller's office, in the city of Austin, between the hours of eight o'clock A. M. and four o'clock P. M. of each day. [Id.]

Art. 7234. [7596] [5146] May be bought by State.—Should there be no purchaser of said lands, then the Comptroller shall bid in the same for the State for the taxes due thereon and the costs of sale, and make a deed to the State to the same, including in one deed all lands bid in. [Id.]

Art. 7235. [7597] [5147] Redemption.—Should the lands bid in by the Comptroller for the State not be redeemed by the owner thereof or his agent within two years, by the party redeeming the same paying double the amount for which the said land was sold, then the said lands thus sold and unredeemed shall become vacant and revert to and become a part of the public free school fund. [Id.]

Art. 7236. [7598] [5148] Tax deed.—The Comptroller shall give to the purchaser of any lands, the sale of which is provided for in this chapter, a deed to the same, giving in such deed such description of the land as may be necessary to identify the same, or such description as he may be in possession of. [Id.]

Art. 7237. [7600] [5150] Deed shall vest title.—The deed given to the purchaser or purchasers by the Comptroller under the provisions of this chapter shall vest a good and sufficient fee simple title in the purchaser or purchasers, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud; provided, the former owner or owners thereof do not redeem the same within two years from the date of the deed, either by paying to the purchaser or purchasers double the amount for which said land was sold, or by making a tender of the same to him or his agent, or by depositing with the Comptroller before the expiration of the two years double the amount for which such land was sold, to be paid by the Comptroller, when called upon, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7238. [7601] [5151] County taxes paid, where.—All county taxes collected under the provisions of Article 7235 shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7239. [7602] [5152] Comptroller to keep taxes.—All county taxes, other than taxes to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, due unorganized counties, collected by the Comptroller, shall be kept by him to the credit of such unorganized county until the total sum to the credit of the county shall reach the sum of five thousand dollars. Then he shall upon the demand of the treasurer of the former unorganized county, when the same shall have organized, pay said sum, or whatever amount is held to the credit of said county, over to said treasurer. And all county taxes collected by the Comptroller after the amount to the credit of such unorganized county shall reach the amount of five thousand dollars shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 43; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7240. [7603] [5152a] Payment by Comptroller.—Where the amount to the credit of any unorganized county now exceeds five thousand dollars, the Comptroller shall keep said sum to be paid to the treasurer of such unorganized county when the same shall organize; and all county taxes, other than taxes collected to pay pro rata of indebtedness to parent county, hereafter collected by the Comptroller in such counties, shall be paid into the county treasury of the organized county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes. [Acts 1897, p. 43; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1097.]

Art. 7241. [7604] [5153] Special deposit made by Comptroller.—All moneys received by the Comptroller on deposit for the redemption of land sold and bought by individuals shall be by him deposited in the State Treasury as a special deposit, subject to the order of the party to whom the conditional deed to such land was given. So also shall all county taxes collected by the Comptroller under the provisions of this law be deposited in the State Treasury as a special fund, subject to the order of the Comptroller, to be paid to the county treasurers as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7242. [7722-26] In new counties.—When any county is created or organized, those in charge of the assessor's roll embracing the new county shall allow the person appointed by the commissioners court for such purpose access to the rolls to make the transcripts herein provided for. Such appointee shall make from such rolls two transcripts of the unpaid assessments, both on person and property, in that portion of the new county formerly embraced within the unorganized county or the territory from which the new county was created, and shall receive such pay for his services as he may agree on with said court. The proper collector shall examine and verify said transcripts and attest their correctness over his official signature, and shall receive therefor twenty dollars from the new county, to be paid on the order of its commissioners court. Said collector shall also have the commissioners court of his county approve said transcripts, and shall deliver one of them to the collector of the new county, and forward the other to the Comptroller. On receipt of same the Comptroller shall be authorized to give proper credit to the collector of the old county and to charge the same to the collector of the new county. The collector of the new county shall receive the same compensation, and shall have the same authority to collect and enforce the collection of the taxes found to be due by such transcripts as is enjoyed by the collectors of other counties. [Acts 1885, p. 107; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 727.]

Art. 7243. Assessment of property stored.—Any person, co-partnership, association or corporation doing business in this State as a warehouseman or operating or controlling a warehouse or place of storage, shall, upon demand of the tax assessor of the county in which said business is operated or in which property is so stored, on January 1st of each year, furnish to the said tax assessor, a list of the property so stored in such warehouse or place of storage, together with a list of the owners of such property and their residence. The term “place of storage” as used herein shall also include all cold storage or refrigeration plants wherein goods of any nature are stored. Any person or agent or representative of such co-partnership, association, or corporation who shall fail to furnish such list and information as set forth above upon demand by the tax assessor of the county in which such property is located, shall be subject to all the penalties now existing against any person for making a false rendition of property for the purpose of taxation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 165.]

Art. 7244. [4825] Mutual life insurance companies.—For the purpose of State, county and city taxation, the amount of the reserve and contingency reserve of all mutual life insurance companies shall be treated as debts due by them to their policyholders, and the total value of their property for such purposes shall be ascertained by deducting from the total amount of their gross assets the amount of such reserves and contingency reserves. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 292; Acts 1921, p. 153.]

Art. 7245. [7605] [5154] [4729] Election and term.—In each county having ten thousand inhabitants, to be determined by the preceding Federal census, there shall be elected at the regular biennial election a collector of taxes, who shall hold his office for two years. [Const., Art. 8, Sec. 16; Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 259.]

Art. 7246. [7607] [5156] [4731] Sheriff a collector.—In each county having less than ten thousand inhabitants, the sheriff of such county shall be the collector of taxes, and shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges, be subject to all the requirements and restrictions, and perform all the duties imposed by law upon collectors; and he shall also give the same bonds required of a collector of taxes elected. [Const., Art. 8, Sec. 16; Id.]

Art. 7247. [7608] [5157] [4732] Bond for State taxes.—Each collector of taxes, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election or appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond based upon unincumbered real estate of the sureties, subject to execution, payable to the Governor and his successors in office, in a sum which shall be equal to forty per cent of the whole amount of the State tax of the county as shown by the last preceding assessment, provided said bond shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, which shall be further subject to the approval of the Comptroller, and his official oath together with said bonds shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of said county, and be forwarded by the county judge of the county to the Comptroller, to be deposited in his office. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as collector of taxes for and during the full term for which he was elected or appointed. [Acts 1876, p. 259; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 1917, p. 353; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7248. [7609] [5158] [4733] New bond.—The tax collector may be required to furnish a new bond or additional security whenever in the opinion of the commissioners court or the Comptroller, it may be advisable. Should any tax collector fail to give a new bond and additional security when required, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7249. [7610] [5159] [4734] Bond for county taxes.—Collectors of taxes shall give a like bond, with like conditions to the county judge of their respective counties and their successors in office in a sum not less than forty per cent of the whole amount of the county tax, as shown by the last preceding assessment, provided said bond shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county. A new bond and additional security may be required, and for failure to give such new bond or additional security, the collector of taxes may be removed from office in the manner prescribed by law. If said bonds required are executed by a satisfactory surety company or companies or by any private party or parties as surety or sureties thereon in counties with a total taxable valuation of thirty million dollars or more, the county of which the principal in said bond or bonds is tax collector shall pay a reasonable amount as premium on said bond or bonds, which amount shall be paid out of the general revenue of the county upon presentation of the bill therefor to the commissioners court of the county properly authenticated as required by law in other claims against the county. If there be any controversy as to the reasonableness of the amount claimed, as such premium, such controversy may be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1876, p. 260; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 1917, p. 354; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1096.]

Art. 7250. Depository shall pay treasurer.—Except as to compensation due such tax collector as shown by his approved reports, tax money deposited in county depositories shall be paid by such depositories only to treasurers entitled to receive the same, on checks drawn by such tax collector in favor of such treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 7251. [7611] [5160] [4735] All bonds to be first approved.—No collector shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of the office until all of the bonds required of him by law for the collection of any taxes, State, county or special, shall have been given and approved.

Art. 7252. [7612] [5161] [4736] Deputies.—Each tax collector may appoint one or more deputies to assist him in the collection of taxes, and may take such bond and security from the person so appointed as he deems necessary for his indemnity; and the collectors in all cases shall be allowable and accountable for his proceedings and misconduct in office. [Acts 1876, p. 260; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1096.]

Art. 7253. [7613] [5162] [4737] Rolls to be a warrant.—When any tax collector shall have received the assessment rolls or books of the county, he shall receipt to the commissioners court for the same; and said rolls or books shall be full and sufficient authority for said collector to receive and collect the taxes therein levied. [Id.]

Art. 7254. [7614] [5163] [4738] Collector for all taxes.—The tax collector shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes assessed upon the tax list in his county, whether assessed for the State or county, school, poor house or other purposes; and he shall proceed to collect the same according to law, and place the same when collected to the proper fund, and pay the same over to the proper authorities, as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 7255. [7615] [5164] [4739] Collections, when to begin.—Each tax collector shall begin the collection of taxes annually on the first day of October, or so soon thereafter as he may be able to obtain the proper assessment rolls, books or data upon which to proceed with the business; and he shall post up notices—not less than three—at public places in each voting or justice precinct in his county, at least twenty days previous to the day said taxpayers are required to meet him for the purpose of paying their taxes, stating in said notice the times and places the same are required to be paid; and said collector or his deputy shall attend at such times and places for the purposes aforesaid, and shall remain at each place at least two days. If the collector from any cause shall fail to meet the taxpayers at the time and place specified in the first notice, he shall in like manner give a second notice. [Id.]

Art. 7256. [7616] [5165] [4740] Office at county seat.—Each tax collector shall keep his office at the county seat of his county; and it shall be the duty of every person who has failed to attend and to pay his taxes at the times and places in his precinct named by the collector, as provided in the preceding article, to call at the office of the collector and pay the same before the last day of December of the same year for which the assessment is made. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 925.]

Art. 7257. [7617] [5166] [4741] Tax receipt.—The tax collector or his deputy, whenever any tax is paid, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of State, county and district taxes, and the year or years for which such tax was assessed; said receipt shall also show the number of acres of land in each separate tract, number, abstract and name of original grantee and any city or town lot and name of city or town, and total value of all property assessed. Said receipt shall have a duplicate to be retained by the collector. The collector shall provide himself with a seal, on which shall be inscribed a star with five points, surrounded by the words "Collector of Taxes, _____ county" (the blank to be filled with the name of the county), and shall impress said seal on each receipt and duplicate given by him for taxes collected on real estate; and said receipt having the seal attached shall be admissible to record in the county in which the property is situated in the same manner as deeds duly authenticated, and when so recorded shall be full and complete notice to all persons of the payment of said tax. The collector, when any taxes are paid, shall insert in the margin of the tax rolls the words and figures as follows: "Taxes paid _____ day of _____," No. of receipt _____ (dates to be filled and receipt number to be given) and signed by the collector; and such entry shall be notice to all the world of the payment of such tax, and such entries may be used in evidence on issues involving the payment of same. [Acts 1876, p. 261; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1097; Acts 1921, p. 136.]

Art. 7258. Recording tax receipts.—Every receipt for the payment of taxes on property, real, personal or mixed, hereafter paid, as well as those heretofore paid, collected by State, county or municipal officers, may be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property is situated. On presentation of a tax receipt to the county clerk he shall immediately file the same in the same manner of filing a deed to land, and enter and record such receipt in full in a record book kept by him for the purpose of recording tax receipts, to be called "Tax Receipt Record," and shall have the name and number written thereon, and such record shall be notice to all the world of the payment of such tax, and certified copies thereof may be used in evidence on issues involving the same under like rules admitting certified copies of deeds in evidence. [Acts 1915, p. 137.]

Art. 7259. Record books furnished.—Each commissioners court shall furnish the county clerk tax receipt record books which may be made in form as books for recording deeds or in form with printed blanks conforming to the form of the tax receipts as provided by law for tax collectors, or in any form suitable to the purposes of this law, in the discretion of said court, with the name "Tax Receipt Record" indorsed on the same, with successive numbers on each separate volume, and said clerk shall properly index said record alphabetically in the name of the holder of the tax receipt. [Id.]

Art. 7260. [7618] [5167] [4742] Monthly reports.—

1. At the end of each month the tax collector shall, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller, make an itemized report under oath to the Comptroller, showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all State taxes collected, provided that said itemized reports for the months of December and January of each year may not be made for twenty-five days after the end of such months if same can not be completed by the end of such respective months.

2. He shall present such report, together with the tax receipt stubs to the county clerk, who shall within two days compare said report with said stubs, and if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates and amounts, he shall certify to its correctness, for which examination and certificate said clerk shall be paid by the commissioners court twenty-five cents for each certificate and twenty-five cents for each two hundred taxpayers on said report.

3. The tax collector shall then immediately forward his reports so certified to the Comptroller, and shall pay over to the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him for the State during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected, and to enable him to do so, he may, at his own risk, send the same to the State Treasurer at the least cost to the State, on which he shall be allowed credit by the Comptroller upon filing receipt showing actual amount of exchange paid. The tax collector may, in making remittances of funds to the State Treasurer or any other State officer, board, commission or employe of the State, make the same by sending cash or a check on the county depository, if the funds are in the county depository, or if the same, in due course, are required to be in such depository. No State or county funds shall be used to pay exchange on, or expense of transmitting or collecting money by, any check or exchange or draft which may be used to make any such remittances. If such funds are sent in cash, by registered letter, by post-office money order, express money order or by bank draft or bank check or depository check, in such event the liability of the persons sending the same shall not cease until the same money is actually received by the State Treasurer or the duly authorized State depository or other authorized officer in due course of business. The State Treasurer, whenever he may receive a remittance from a tax collector, shall promptly pay the money so remitted to the State Treasury, on the deposit warrant of the Comptroller, and the money when so deposited shall be a credit to the said tax collector.

4. The tax collector shall pay over to the State Treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the State, and finally adjust and settle his account with the Comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year, and to enable him to do so, the commissioners court shall convene on or before the third Monday in April for the purpose of examining and approving his final settlement papers.

5. The allowance to a tax collector of credit for the unpaid taxes shown on his delinquent and insolvent lists prepared under Articles 7263 and 7336 shall not absolve any taxpayer or property appearing upon either of said lists from liability for and payment of such taxes, nor absolve the tax collector from the duty of collecting same, and the provisions of Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274, and 7336 pertaining to the levy upon and seizure and sale by the tax collector of personal property to enforce the payment of taxes shall be applicable to the enforced collection of such taxes. As such taxes are collected, the tax collector shall issue special tax receipts therefor to be furnished by the Comptroller, which blank receipts shall be numbered and charged to the tax collector, who shall account for same at his next annual settlement in the same manner as occupation tax receipts. The tax collector shall make in triplicate itemized monthly reports of all such collections, using blanks for that purpose furnished by the Comptroller. One of said triplicates shall be retained by the tax collector as a record of his office, one shall be filed with and preserved by the county clerk as a record of his office, and one shall be sent to the Comptroller and preserved as a record of his office. There shall be entered upon or attached to each copy of said reports the affidavit of the tax collector that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources authorized and provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property for the collection of all unpaid taxes shown upon the delinquent and insolvent lists of his county, and that he does not know of any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes remain unpaid that he is authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof.

6. The Comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by the collectors of taxes, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations as he may deem necessary in regard thereto. He shall enforce a strict observance of each provision of these articles.

7. The Comptroller shall notify the district attorney of the district or the county attorney of the county in which the collector resides, and the sureties on the bond of the collector, of any failure to comply with any provision of this article. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 520; Acts 1915, p. 190; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, pp. 157 and 188.]

Art. 7261. [7619] [5168] [4743] Duties of clerk and collector.—

1. The tax collector shall at the end of each month make like reports to the commissioners court of all the collections made for the county, conforming as far as applicable and in like manner to the requirements as to the collection and report of taxes collected for the State. The county clerk shall likewise, within two days after the presentation of said report by the collector, examine said report and stubs, and certify to their correctness as regards names, dates and amounts; for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the collector fifty cents each month, which amount shall be allowed to the collector by the commissioners court.

2. The clerk shall file said report intended for the commissioners court, together with the tax receipt stubs, in his office for the next regular meeting of the commissioners court.

3. The tax collector shall immediately pay over to the county treasurer all taxes collected for the county during said month, after reserving his commissions for collecting the same, and take receipts therefor, and file with the county clerk.

4. At the next regular meeting of the commissioners court, the tax collector shall appear before said court and make a summarized statement, showing the disposition of all moneys, both of the State and county, collected by him during the previous three months. Said statement must show that all taxes due the State have been promptly remitted to the State Treasury at the end of each month, and all taxes due the county have been paid over promptly to the county treasurer and shall file proper vouchers and receipts showing same.

5. The commissioners court shall examine such statement and vouchers, together with an itemized report and tax receipt stubs filed each month, and shall compare the same with the tax rolls and tax receipt stubs. If found correct in every particular, and if the tax collector has properly accounted for all taxes collected, as provided above, the commissioners court shall enter an order approving said report, and the order approving same shall be recorded in the minutes.

6. The tax collector shall finally adjust and settle his account with the commissioners court for the county taxes collected, at the same time and in the same manner as is provided in the foregoing article in his settlement with the State. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 520.]

Art. 7262. [7620] [5169] Report not approved, unless.—If any tax collector shall have failed at the end of each month, or within three days thereof, to promptly remit to the State Treasurer the amount due by him to the State, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, the commissioners court, at the next regular meeting, shall ascertain the facts; and if the tax collector fails or refuses to pay or remit the same and file proper vouchers therefor, as provided in the foregoing article, the commissioners court shall not approve his reports and accounts, but shall ascertain the amounts due by him, both to the State and county, and enter an order requiring him to pay the same to the proper treasurers, as is provided in Articles 7294 and 7295, and notify such collector, as is provided for in Article 7296 under penalty for failure to do so. Whenever the tax collector shall fail or refuse to remit to the State Treasurer the amounts due the State, when requested, the Comptroller shall notify him. [Acts 1893, p. 90; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 520.]

Art. 7263. [7621] [5170] [4744] List of delinquents and insolvents.—The tax collector shall make out on forms to be furnished for that purpose by the Comptroller, between April first and the fifteenth of each year, list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, the caption of which shall be, the “list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers.” In this list he shall give the name of the person, firm, company, or corporation from whom the taxes are due, in separate columns; and he shall post one copy of these delinquent or insolvent lists at the courthouse door of the county, and one list at the courthouse door, or where court is usually held, in each justice precinct in his county; and the tax collector, upon the certificate of the commissioners court that the persons appearing on the insolvent or delinquent lists have no property out of which to make the taxes assessed against them, or that they have moved out of the county, and that no property can be found in the county belonging to such persons, out of which to make the taxes due, shall be entitled to a credit on final settlement of his accounts for the amounts due by the persons, firms, companies, or corporations certified to by the commissioners court, as above provided for. [Id.]

Art. 7264. [7622] [5171] [4745] To collect delinquent list.—The allowance of an insolvent list to the collector in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes; but the collector shall use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due on the insolvent list after it is allowed, and report and pay over to the proper officers all amounts collected on the same. [Id.]

Art. 7265. [7623] [5172] Non-residents.—Non-residents of counties, owing State or county taxes, are hereby authorized to pay the same to the Comptroller; provided, that all taxes due by said non-residents shall be paid at the Comptroller’s office on or before the first day of January next after the assessment of such taxes. The tax collectors shall be entitled to the commissions on all moneys paid by non-residents to the Comptroller, due their counties respectively. [Acts 1879, p. 41; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1341.]

Art. 7266. [7624] [5173] [4746] Forced collections to begin.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law, until the first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll of the county to the Comptroller, the tax collector shall, by virtue of his tax roll, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with all costs accruing thereon; provided, there shall be no levy on property when the owner thereof has the right to pay at the Comptroller’s office, until a list of the persons who have paid their taxes at said office has been furnished the tax collector by the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall forward said list of paid taxes on or before the first day of February of each year; and the tax collector shall, immediately on receipt of said list from the Comptroller, levy on and sell the property of such non-residents as have not paid their taxes, in accordance with the law regulating the sale of property for taxes. [Acts 1887, p. 127; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 128.]

Art. 7267. [7625] [5174] [4747] Personal property pointed out.—If any person shall point out to the tax collector sufficient personal property belonging to him to pay all taxes assessed against him before the first day of January of any year, the collector shall immediately levy upon and sell such property so pointed out, in accordance with the laws regulating tax sales of a similar class of property. [Id.]

Art. 7268. [7626] [5175] [4748] Property about to be removed.—If it comes to the knowledge of the tax collector that any personal property assessed for taxes on the rolls is about to be removed from the county, and the owner of such property has not other property in the county sufficient to satisfy all assessments against him, the collector shall immediately levy upon a sufficiency of such property to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and the same sell in accordance with the law regulating sales of personal property for taxes unless the owner of such property shall give bond, with sufficient security payable to and to be approved by the collector, and conditioned for the payment of the taxes due on such property, on or before the first day of January next succeeding. [Id.]

Art. 7269. [7627] Tax lien superior.—In all cases where a taxpayer makes an assignment of his property for the payment of his debts, or where his property is levied upon by creditors, by writs of attachments or otherwise, or where the estate of a decedent is or becomes insolvent, and the taxes assessed against such person or property, or against any of his estate remain unpaid in part or in whole, the amount of such unpaid taxes shall be a first lien upon all such property; provided, that when taxes are due by an estate of a deceased person, the lien herein provided for shall be subject to the allowances to widows and minors, funeral expenses, and expenses of last sickness. Such unpaid taxes shall be paid by the assignee, when said property has been seized by the sheriff, out of the proceeds of sale in case such property has been seized under attachment or other writ, and by the administrator or other legal representative of decedents; and, if said taxes shall not be paid, all said property may be levied on by the tax collector and sold for such taxes in whomsoever's hands it may be found.

Art. 7270. [7628] Execution in other counties.—Whenever it shall appear to any tax collector that any person who is delinquent in the payment of his or her taxes has no property in his county out of which said amount of taxes can be collected, such collector shall make out from the assessment list a true and complete list or schedule of the taxes due by said delinquent, which shall be certified to under the official seal and signature of said collector, and forward the same to the tax collector of any county or counties where he shall have reason to believe said delinquent has property of any description, and if said property is in any of the unorganized counties of this State, then to the collector of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes; and, when received by said collector, he shall at once proceed to the collection of said tax by seizure and sale in the same manner as if said taxes were originally assessed and due in his said county, and shall report to the collector from whom said list was received the taxes so collected by him. [Acts 1905, p. 317.]

Art. 7271. [7629] Credit for delinquent taxes.—The provisions of this chapter pertaining to the duty of tax collectors in the matter of the collection of delinquent and insolvent taxes shall apply as well to taxes owing by persons who own real property as to those who do not own real property, and no tax collector in this State shall be entitled to or be allowed either by the county or by the Comptroller credit as approved by Article 7263 for any taxes reported or returned as either delinquent or insolvent under Article 7263 or 7336 until he makes affidavit entered upon or attached to both his lists of insolvent tax payers prepared under said Article 7263 and his lists of delinquent lands prepared under Article 7336, that said lists are true and correct and that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources to collect such taxes as authorized and required by Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274, and 7336, and does not know of, and has made diligent inquiry and has been unable to learn of, any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes are shown on said lists to be unpaid that he was authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof, nor until the commissioners court of his county, after full consideration and investigation, has entered upon or attached to both the insolvent lists and lists of delinquent lands the certificate required by said Article 7263, and no compensation that at the time, or at any time thereafter, may be due or owing to the tax collector, either by the State or county, shall be retained by or paid to the tax collector until he has made the affidavits as provided by this article. Nothing in this article is intended or shall be construed as requiring any tax collector to levy upon and sell real property for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes. [Id. Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 168.]

Art. 7272. [7630] [5176] All property liable for taxes.—All real and personal property held or owned by any person in this State shall be liable for all State and county taxes due by the owner thereof including taxes on real estate, personal property, and poll tax; and the tax collector shall levy on any personal or real property to be found in his county to satisfy all delinquent taxes, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [Acts 1879, p. 46; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 138.]

Art. 7273. [7631] [5177] [4749] Sales of personal property.—In making sales of personal property for taxes, the collector shall give notice of the time and place of sale, together with a brief description of the property levied on and to be sold, for at least ten days previous to the day of sale, by advertisements in writing to be posted at the courthouse door, and at two other public places in the county; and such sale shall take place at the courthouse door of the county in which the assessment is made, by public auction. [Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 7274. [7632] [5178] [4750] If property is insufficient.—If personal property levied upon prove insufficient to satisfy the taxes and penalties due and costs accrued thereon, the collector shall levy upon and sell so much other personal taxable property belonging to the person as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes, penalties and costs in the same manner as an original levy and sale, and, in all cases of sales for taxes, if there be an excess remaining in the hands of the collector, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs, the same shall be paid over to the original owner by the collector, or deposited in the hands of the county treasurer subject to the order of such owner. [Id.]

Art. 7275. [7633] [5179] [4751] Sales of real property.—If the delinquent is not possessed of a sufficiency of personal property in the county subject to seizure and sale to satisfy all taxes due by him, the tax collector shall seize so much of the real estate of such delinquent, situated in the county, as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and sell the same in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 7276. [7634] [5180] [4752] Advertisement of real property for sale.—In making sales of real property for taxes, the collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one; and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation not exceeding twenty-five cents for each tract or parcel of land so advertised to be taxed as other costs of sale against such land. The cost of advertising in a newspaper shall be deducted from the fee allowed the collector for advertising. The Comptroller shall allow the collector twenty-five cents per tract for each tract of land bid off by the State. If there be no newspaper published in the county, or, there being a newspaper published in the county and the publisher thereof refuses to publish the advertisement at the price herein fixed, then the advertisement shall be made by posting the same for thirty days previous to the day of sale, at the courthouse door and three other public places in the county where the land or lots are situated, giving in said advertisement such description as is given to the same on the tax rolls in his hands, stating the name of the owner if known, and if unknown say "unknown," together with the time, place, and terms of sale; said sale to be for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry at the courthouse door, and between legal hours, on the first Tuesday of the month. [Acts 1881, p. 12; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 252.]

Art. 7277. [7635] [5181] List posted.—Prior to the sale of any real property for taxes in any county in this State, the tax collector shall advertise the same by posting a list of the names of the delinquents for thirty days as follows: one copy at the courthouse door of the county, and a copy at two other public places in the county where the lands or lots are situated. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 46; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1346.]

Art. 7278. [7636] [5182] [4753] Sale continued.—As far as may be practicable, all the lands and town lots levied upon for taxes shall be advertised in one notice and be sold on the same day; and such sales may be continued from day to day until concluded; but at the close of each day's sale the tax collector shall make proclamation of such continuance on the following day. No sale shall be considered complete until the payment of the purchase money; and, if the same is not made before the completion of the tax sales, the collector shall re-sell the property, and continue such sale until the same is complete. [Acts 1876, p. 262; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1098.]

Art. 7279. [7637] [5183] [4754] Homesteads liable.—No real estate set apart, used or designated as a homestead shall be sold for taxes other than the taxes due on such homestead. [Id.]

Art. 7280. [7638] [5184] [4755] Sales of land.—The tax collector, in making sales for taxes due upon real estate, shall sell at auction, at the time and place appointed, so much of said real estate as may be necessary to pay the taxes and penalties due and all costs accruing thereon, and shall offer said real estate to the bidder, who will pay the taxes and penalties due, and costs of sale and execution of deed, for the least amount of said real estate, who shall be deemed the highest bidder. Should a less amount of said real estate than the whole tract or parcel of said real estate levied upon be sold for the taxes and penalties due and all costs of sale and execution and deed, the collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser begin at some corner of said tract or parcel of land or town lot and designate the same in a square as near as practicable. [Id.]

Art. 7281. [7639] [5185] [4756] Tax deed.—The tax collector shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, upon the payment of the amount for which the estate was sold, and the cost and penalties, a deed for the real estate sold, which deed shall vest a good and perfect title to said land in the purchaser, if not redeemed in two years, as provided by law, which deed shall state the cause of sale, the amount sold, the price for which the real estate was sold, the name of the person, firm, company or corporation on whom the demand for taxes was made, provided the name is known, and if unknown say "unknown," the same description of the land as is given in the tax rolls, and such other description as may be practicable for better identification; and when real estate has been sold, he shall convey, subject to the right of redemption provided for in Article 7283, all the right and interest which the former owner had therein at the time when the assessment was made. [Const., Art. 8, Sec. 13; Id.]

Art. 7282. [7640] [5186] [4757] Sales reported.—When the collector shall have made sale of any real estate under this chapter, he shall make immediate return of said sale to the commissioners court, stating in said return the land sold, the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown, state the fact, the time of sale, the amount for which said sale was made, together with the name of the purchaser, which return shall be entered of record on the minute books of said court. [Id.]

Art. 7283. [7641] [5187] [4758] Redemption.—The owner of real estate sold for the payment of taxes, or his heirs or assigns or legal representatives, may, within two years from the date of sale redeem the estate sold by paying or tendering to the purchaser, his heirs or legal representatives, double the amount of money paid for the land. [Id.]

Art. 7284. [7643] [5188] Redemption from private purchasers.—Any person having the right to redeem any land sold at a tax sale may do so by payment, within the time prescribed by law, to the tax collector of the county in which the said land was sold, of the amount which the law requires to be paid; provided, that the owner of said land, or his agent, shall first have made affidavit that he has made diligent search in the county where said land is situated for the purchaser thereof at the tax sale, and has failed to find him, or that the purchaser at such tax sale is not a resident of the county in which the land is situated, or that he and the purchaser cannot agree on the amount of redemption money. In such cases only shall the owner or agent be authorized to redeem the same by the payment to the collector of taxes. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 29; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 61.]

Art. 7285. [7644] [5189] Receipt of collector, notice when.—Each tax collector to whom payment is made under the provisions of this chapter shall give a receipt therefor, signed by him officially in the presence of two witnesses; which receipt when duly recorded, shall be notice to all persons that the land therein described has been redeemed; and said collector shall on demand pay over to the purchaser at said tax sale the money thus received by him. [Id.]

Art. 7286. [7645-46] Relief, when.—Any person whose land has been rendered for taxation, whether the same was rendered in the name of the original grantee or not, and has also been placed upon the unrendered rolls for the same year, shall be entitled to relief upon complying with the requirements herein indicated. If any such lands shall have been sold for the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls, and bought by the State, the owner thereof, his agent or attorney, shall present to the tax collector of the county in which the land is situated an affidavit to the effect that the same land has been rendered for taxation, and placed upon the regular assessment rolls for the year mentioned. Said affidavit shall contain an accurate description of the land and be accompanied with the certificate of the assessor that the same is true and correct; and the tax collector shall thereupon present such person with a written statement, officially signed, that the said tax has been cancelled, and make a note of the same upon the unrendered rolls; provided, the provisions of this article shall apply to all such lands at any time after the collector shall receive the rolls until the same shall have gone into the hands of a private purchaser; and if the owner shall have paid the taxes charged upon the unrendered rolls at any time previous, he shall be entitled to the warrant of the Comptroller for the amount so paid in the same manner as is provided in Article 7287 of this chapter, in cases of redemption from individual purchasers. The tax collector shall make no charge whatever for the duties herein mentioned. [Acts 1881, p. 107; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 199.]

Art. 7287. [7647] [5192] Certificate of redemption.—When the owner of such lands shall have redeemed the same from a private purchaser, the tax collector shall furnish him a certificate to that effect; and upon presentment of said certificate to the Comptroller, the Comptroller shall issue to him a warrant upon the State Treasury for the amount of such tax. This warrant shall be receivable for all taxes to the State. For issuing the certificate provided for in this article, the tax collector shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents to be paid by the applicant. [Id.]

Art. 7288. [7648] [5193] [4759] Lands to be bid in for State.—Should the tax collector fail to make sale of any real estate for want of a purchaser, he shall bid the same off for the State for the taxes and penalties due, and all costs accruing thereon, and execute a deed to the State; and one deed shall include all tracts of land bid off to the State at such tax sale, and make due return thereof, under such forms and directions as the Comptroller may furnish and direct. After sale and purchase by the State of any real estate, it shall not be lawful for said collector to levy upon or advertise or sell the same for any remaining or accrued taxes due thereon until the same shall have been redeemed by the owner or is sold by the State. Said collector shall, on final settlement of his accounts with the commissioners court and the Comptroller, be entitled to a credit for the amount of taxes due the State and county, respectively, for which the lands and lots were bid off to the State. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 36; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 68.]

Art. 7289. [7649] [5194] May redeem.—The owner of any lands that may have been conveyed to the State under the provisions of the foregoing article, or his agent, desiring to redeem the same, may do so by depositing with the collector of the county in which the lands were sold double the amount of the purchase money and all accrued taxes thereon, within two years from the date of the deed to the State; and such collector shall execute a receipt to such owner, or agents, giving therein the amount of money received, and a description of the land so as to identify the same, and sign and seal the same officially; and, upon presentation of such receipt to the Comptroller, he shall execute to the owner a relinquishment under his signature and seal of office, which may be admitted to record in like manner with other conveyances of land. [Id.]

Art. 7290. [7650] [5195] If not redeemed.—In case said land shall not have been redeemed as provided in Article 7289, then the same may be sold as provided in Article 7288. [Id.]

Art. 7291. [7651] [5196] May redeem by paying costs.—The owner of real estate which has been bought in by the State for taxes, or his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the Comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon with costs of advertisement; and if it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that any land has been sold to the State for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been cancelled; which certificate shall release the interest of the State and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Id.]

Art. 7292. [7652] [5197] Board of inquiry.—Each commissioners court shall, at the regular terms of said courts sit as a court of inquiry in cases where land has been erroneously rendered for taxes; and any land owner whose land has been or may be sold to the State for taxes may appear before said court in person or by proxy and show to the satisfaction of a majority of said court that the taxes for which his lands have been sold have been paid, although the same was rendered in an incorrect abstract number or survey or original grantee; thereupon said court shall issue to said land owner a certificate setting forth fully said facts, which certificate shall be signed officially by the county judge of said county; and, upon presentation of said certificate to the Comptroller, he shall execute and deliver to said land owner a valid deed relinquishing all the right, title and interest the State may have acquired in and to said land by reason of such tax sale. [Acts 1889, p. 31; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1058.]

Art. 7293. [7657] [5209] [4769] Lands of non-residents in unorganized counties.—The taxes upon lands lying in and owned by non-residents of unorganized counties, and upon lands situated in the territory not laid off into counties, shall be paid and collected at the office of the Comptroller, under such regulations as he may adopt for that purpose. [Const., Art. 8, Sec. 12.]

Art. 7294. [7658] [5210] Payment of State moneys.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to the State, and pay the same over to the State Treasurer whenever and as often as they may be directed so to do by the Comptroller; provided that tax collectors shall have thirty days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Acts 1879, S. S., p. 5; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 37.]

Art. 7295. [7659] [5211] Payment of other money.—All tax collectors and other officers or appointees authorized to receive public moneys shall account for all moneys in their hands belonging to their respective counties, cities or towns, and pay the same over to the respective county treasurers or city treasurers whenever and as often as they may be directed to do so by the respective county judges, or county commissioners courts or mayor or board of aldermen; provided that tax collectors shall have ten days from the date of such direction within which to comply with the same. [Id.]

Art. 7296. [7660] [5212] Notification to pay.—The notification and direction provided for in the two preceding articles may be verbal, written or by telegram; and if written or by telegram, proof of the deposit in the post office or telegraph office of such notification and direction, with postage or charges duly prepaid and correctly addressed, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such notification and direction having been given, and of the time when the same was given. [Id.]

Art. 7297. [7661] [5212a] Duty to sue.—The district or county attorney of the respective counties of this State, by order of the commissioners court, shall institute suit in the name of the State for recovery of all money due the State and county as taxes due and unpaid on unrendered personal property; and in all suits where judgments are obtained under this law, the person owning the property on which there are taxes due the State and county shall be liable for all costs. The State and county shall be exempt from liability for any costs growing out of such action. All suits brought under this article for the recovery of taxes due on personal property shall be brought against the person or persons who owned the property at the time such property should have been listed or assessed for taxation. No suit shall be brought until after demand is made by the collector for taxes due, and no suit shall be brought for an amount less than twenty-five dollars. Such suits may be brought for all taxes so due and unpaid for which such delinquent tax payer may be in arrears for and since the year 1886.

Art. 7298. [7662] Limitation not available.—No delinquent tax payer shall have the right to plead in any court or in any manner rely upon any statute of limitation by way of defense against the payment of any taxes due from him or her either to the State, or any county, city or town. [Acts 1st C. S. 1895, p. 6; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1052.]

Art. 7299. [7663] [5213] Back taxes on unredeemed lands.—In all cases where lands or real estate have not been assessed for taxation for any year since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the same shall be assessed and the taxes thereon collected in the mode prescribed in this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 214; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1050.]

Art. 7300. [7664] [5214] Annual list.—On the first day of July of each year, the Comptroller shall cause to be prepared a list of all unrendered lands in each county subject to taxation and not assessed, in which shall be specified the name of the original grantee, the abstract number, the number of acres, the year for which such lands were unrendered, and the rate of State and county taxes for such year. [Id.]

Art. 7301. [7665] [5215] List forwarded.—Upon completion of such lists, the Comptroller shall forward the same to the board of equalization of the respective counties, with the verification that the said list is a true and correct statement of all the unrendered land and real estate in _____ county for the year _____, as shown by the records of his office. [Id.]

Art. 7302. [7666] [5216] Board to value such lands.—Upon receipt of such list or lists by the board of equalization of such county, they shall value each tract of land or parcel of real estate so mentioned and described in the said lists at their true and full value, as near as can be ascertained, for the year it was omitted to have been rendered. [Id.]

Art. 7303. [7667] [5217] Making of rolls.—When the board of equalization completes the valuation, they shall cause to be made out three separate rolls, in such manner as the Comptroller may prescribe; they shall place one in the hands of the tax collector, forward one to the Comptroller, and file one in the office of the county clerk for the inspection of the public. [Id.]

Art. 7304. [7668] [5218] Collector to give notice.—Upon receipt of the rolls by the tax collector, he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in his county, and, if no paper is published in his county, by posting printed circulars in not less than eight public places in his county, for four consecutive weeks, that the rolls for the collection of taxes on unrendered land and real estate have been placed in his hands, and that unless the taxes are paid within sixty days after the date of said notice he will proceed to collect the same as provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7305. [7669] [5219] Collections enforced.—After the expiration of said sixty days, if the taxes on any such lands are not paid, the tax collector shall proceed to enforce the collection of said taxes in the mode provided in this title for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes; and he shall be entitled to the same fees and penalties as are allowed him for the collection of other delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7306. [7670] [5220] List of lands sold to State.—The Comptroller on or before the first day of each year, shall make out and forward to the tax collector of each county a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the State for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale by payment or tender of payment to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the State, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7307. [7671] [5221] Sale.—Each tax collector, within ninety days after receipt of said list, shall call to his aid the county surveyor of his county, and, as near as may be, ascertain if any lands contained in said list do not in fact exist in said county, or are embraced in other surveys conflicting therewith, and upon which the taxes have been paid; and, after deducting the same from said list, he shall proceed to sell each tract of land therein described, whether belonging to residents or non-residents, for the payment of such sums of money as may be designated on said list as due thereon, together with all costs that may accrue in advertising and selling the same as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 7308. [7672] [5222] Advertisement and redemption.—The tax collector shall, prior to the sale of any real estate that has been previously bid off to the State at tax sales, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same, advertise the real estate to be sold in some newspaper published in the county for six successive weeks, if there be such newspaper published therein, otherwise he shall post advertisements of said sale at the courthouse door and at one public place in each justice's precinct of his county for at least six weeks, giving in said advertisement, whether published or posted, such description of the lands to be sold as shall be given on the Comptroller's list, and stating the time, place and terms of sale, which shall be between legal hours on the first Tuesday of some specified month at the courthouse door at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash; provided, that no real estate shall in any case be sold for less than the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon, together with all costs of advertisements and sale. The former owner of any such real estate, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the Comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon, with costs of advertisement. If it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that any land has been sold to the State for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under the seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been canceled, which certificate shall release the interest of the State, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded. [Acts 1884, S. S. p. 31; Id. G. L. Vol. 9, p. 563.]

Art. 7309. [7673] [5223] Land sold, how.—At the time and place appointed for said sale, the tax collector shall offer for sale each separate parcel of the real estate advertised, and shall sell the same to the bidder who will offer the largest amount of money therefor. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7310. [7674] [5224] Sale may be continued.—If the sale of the real estate advertised as provided herein shall not be completed on the day it is commenced, said sale may be continued for ten consecutive days, from day to day, by announcement of the tax collector to that effect; and the said collector may, if there be on any day a less number than three bidders present, adjourn said sale to the first Tuesday in the following month. [Id.]

Art. 7311. [7675] [5225] Deed executed.—When a sale has been made of any real estate as herein provided, the tax collector, upon payment of the amount bid for the same, shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for such real estate, specifying in said deed the cause and date of sale, the number of acres sold if the same can be ascertained, the name of the person, firm, corporation or company in whose name the land was assessed, and all such descriptive information as may be necessary to identify the property conveyed; provided, that the purchaser may, after payment, as described in this article, ask a delay of sixty days within which to have said real estate surveyed by the county surveyor, said survey to be made at the expense of the purchaser, and, upon a certificate from the collector directed to the surveyor, that the person named in the certificate has purchased and paid for the same, not to exceed one dollar for each survey, to be paid for out of the sale of such survey. [Id.]

Art. 7312. [7676] [5226] Execution of deed.—When a survey has been made, as provided in the preceding article, and a copy of the field notes, certified to as true and correct by the county surveyor, filed with the tax collector, the said collector shall thereupon make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to said real estate, which deed shall, in addition to the requisite hereinabove named, contain the field notes certified by the county surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 7313. [7677] [5227] Effect of deed.—Deeds made, executed and delivered by tax collectors under the authority of this chapter shall be held to vest a good and perfect title to the real estate therein described in the purchaser, and may be impeached only for fraud; provided, that the former owner shall have two years from the date of said deed to redeem the same by paying to the purchaser double the amount paid for said land by the purchaser at such sale, together with all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser, with eight per cent interest on the amount of such subsequent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7314. [7678] [5228] Report of sales.—Within thirty days after sales made under the provisions of this chapter, the tax collector shall make a report to the commissioners court of his county, and also to the Comptroller, giving in said reports such description of the real estate sold as is given in the Comptroller's list, and stating the amounts due the State, county and collector respectively, and the amount for which said land was sold, and the name of the party to whom each tract was sold. [Id.]

Art. 7315. [7679] [5229] Proceeds of sale.—Tax collectors shall, within sixty days after payments for real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter, after deducting from the proceeds of sale all costs due to them or their predecessors in said office, pay into the county treasury of the county in which said real estate is situated the amount of taxes shown by the Comptroller's list to be due to said county, and the balance of said proceeds shall be paid by him into the State Treasury within the said sixty days, in such manner as may be directed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 7316. [7680] [5230] Collections applied.—Taxes collected by the State or county, by sales made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be placed to the credit of the different funds for which originally assessed under the direction respectively of the Comptroller and the commissioners court of the county in which the sale is made; the balance of the proceeds, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs accrued, shall, under the direction of the Comptroller, be placed in the State Treasury, subject to be reclaimed by the owner of the land on proof as required in case of escheated estates. [Acts 1884, S. S. p. 31; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 563.]

Art. 7317. [7681] [5231] Costs deducted.—The tax collector shall be entitled to deduct and retain out of the proceeds of sale of each separate parcel of real estate sold, as hereinbefore provided:

1. Such amount as may be designated in the Comptroller's list as costs due thereon to the collector.

2. If the advertisement of sale is published in a newspaper, such a proportion of the actual amount paid for advertising as the number of acres in such separate parcel sold bears to the whole number of acres advertised; or, if the advertisements are posted, the sum of one dollar.

3. Two dollars for every deed made, executed, and delivered under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1879, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1379.]

Art. 7318. [7682] [5232] Unsold land reported.—If, after the expiration of ninety days after the receipt by the tax collector of the Comptroller's list, any real estate described in said list shall remain unsold, the said collector shall make separate reports of such fact to the commissioners court of his county and the Comptroller respectively; and the said parcels of real estate shall be embraced in the next list furnished by the Comptroller to the tax collector. [Id.]

Art. 7319. [7683] "Real property."—For the purpose of taxation, real property shall include all lands within this State, and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appertaining thereto, except such as are expressly exempted by law. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 780-1186.]

Art. 7320. [7684] A lien on land.—All lands or lots which have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, for taxes due thereon since the first day of January, 1885, or which may hereafter be returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and said taxes shall remain a lien upon the said land, although the owner be unknown, or though it be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner; and though the ownership be changed, the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year. [Acts 1897, p. 132.]

Art. 7321. [7685] Listed by tax collector.—The commissioners court of each county shall cause to be prepared by the tax collector, at the expense of the county (the compensation for making out the delinquent tax record to be fixed by the commissioners court) a list of all lands, lots or parts of lots sold to the State for taxes since the first day of January, 1885, and which have not been redeemed in their respective counties and unorganized counties attached thereto, and have such lists recorded in books to be called the "Delinquent Tax Record," showing when the lands or lots were reported delinquent or sold to the State for taxes, also the name of the owner at the time of such sale or delinquency, if known, the number of acres, the amount of taxes due when first sold, and the amount of all taxes assessed against the owner thereof and returned delinquent for each year as shown by the records of the tax collector's office; and, in making up the list or lists contemplated by this chapter, corrections and omissions in the description of any real estate embraced in such list or lists shall be made, so that when the corrections are made and the omissions supplied, the description will be such as is given in the abstracts of all the titled and patented lands in the State of Texas, or such as may be furnished by the Land Commissioner, and it shall be required, in bulk assessments, to apportion to each tract or lot of land separately, its pro rata share of the entire tax, penalty and cost. The list for each county, when certified to by the county judge, and the assessment rolls and books on file in the tax collector's office, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers charged with any duty thereunder, as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying of all taxes therein mentioned, and reporting as delinquent or sold to the State any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in case the description of the property in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to properly identify the same, and of which property there is sufficient description in the inventories in the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. This delinquent tax record for each county shall be delivered to and preserved by the county clerk in his office; and the commissioners court shall cause a duplicate of same to be sent to the Comptroller; provided, where the records are incomplete in any county, the Comptroller shall furnish such county with a certified copy of the delinquent list for any year or years. [Id.]

Art. 7322. [7686] Delinquent tax record.—On receipt of such delinquent tax record the county clerk of each of the counties of this State, respectively, shall certify the same to the commissioners court for examination and correction, and he shall thereafter cause the same to be recorded in a book labeled the "Delinquent Tax Record of _____ County." The delinquent tax record shall be arranged numerically as to abstract numbers, and shall be accompanied by an index showing the names of delinquents in alphabetical order. [Id.]

Art. 7323. [7687] Delinquent tax list published.—Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any county in this State the commissioners court may, in their discretion, cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county once each week for three consecutive weeks, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such list may be published in a newspaper outside the county to be designated by the commissioners court, by contract duly entered into, and a publisher's fee of twenty-five cents shall be taxed against each such tract or parcel of land so advertised, which fee, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury; and the commissioners court of said county shall not allow for said publication a greater amount than twenty-five cents for each tract of land so advertised and such publication and any other publication in a newspaper provided for in this chapter may be proved by affidavit of the printer of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication, specifying the times when and the paper in which publication was made. All corrections made in said record under this article shall be noted in the minutes of the commissioners court, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the Comptroller, who shall note the same upon his delinquent tax record. If such delinquent tax record be not published correctly, in accordance with the copy furnished such newspaper, then no compensation shall be allowed for such publication, but failure to so publish such list shall be no defense to a suit for taxes due. [Id. Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 33.]

Art. 7324. Notice to owners of delinquency.— During the months of April and May each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable the collector of taxes in each county of this State shall mail to the address of each record owner of any lands or lots situated in the county a notice showing the amount of taxes delinquent or past due and unpaid against all such lands and lots as shown by the delinquent tax record of the county on file in the office of the tax collector, a duplicate of which shall also have been filed in the office of the Comptroller of the State and approved by such officer, but failure to send or receive such notice shall be no defense to a suit brought for taxes. Such notice shall also contain a brief description of the lands and lots appearing delinquent and the various sums or amounts due against such lands and lots for each year they appear to be delinquent, according to such records, and it shall also recite that unless the owner of such lots or land described therein shall pay to the tax collector the amount of taxes, interest, penalties and costs set forth in such notice within thirty days from the date of notice, that the county or district attorney will institute suits for the collection of such moneys and for the foreclosure of the constitutional lien against such lands and lots. Each tax collector, as soon after mailing such notice as practicable, shall furnish to the county or district attorney duplicates of all such notices mailed to the tax payers in accordance with the provisions of this law, and also, lists of lands and lots located in the county appearing on the delinquent tax records in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owners," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector is unable by the use of diligence to discover or ascertain, against which taxes are delinquent, past due, and unpaid, and such lists or statements shall show the amount of State and county taxes delinquent, past due, and unpaid against each such tract or lot of land for each year they appear to be delinquent according to the delinquent tax records of the county, and shall likewise contain a brief description of all such lands and lots. The tax collector shall furnish on demand of any person, firm or corporation like statements with reference to any particular lot or tract of land for whatever purpose desired, which shall be in all instances certified by him with the seal of his office attached. Whenever any person, or persons, firm or corporation shall pay to the tax collector all the taxes, interest, penalties and costs shown by the delinquent tax records of the county to be due and unpaid against any tract, lot or parcel of land for all the years for which taxes may be shown to be due and unpaid, prior to the institution of suit for the collection thereof, the tax collector shall issue to such person or persons, firm or corporation, a receipt covering such payment as is now required by law. [Acts 1915, p. 250; Acts 2nd. C. S. 1919, p. 184; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 32.]

Art. 7325. Notice, how made up.—In making up the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article, each tax collector shall rely upon the delinquent tax records compiled as required by law, approved by the commissioners court, and a duplicate of which has been filed in the office of the Comptroller, and which has or may be approved by the Comptroller. The tax collector, whenever there shall be one year or more of back taxes that have not been included in such delinquent tax records, shall prepare or cause to be prepared a supplement to such records which shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the county clerk and one copy thereof to be furnished to the Comptroller subject to his approval; and whenever said supplement shall have been approved by the commissioners court and by the Comptroller, the tax collector shall rely thereon for the data covering delinquent taxes for said years in making out the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article. Said tax collector, in making up said delinquent tax record and supplement, shall examine the records of the district court and county clerk's office of his county, and no tract of land shall be shown delinquent on any delinquent tax record for any year where the records of the district court or the county clerk's office show that the taxes for said year have been paid. It shall be the duty of each tax assessor to enter the post-office address of each and every tax-payer after his name on the tax rolls, and the Comptroller shall provide a column for the entry of such addresses on the sheets furnished the assessors for making up the tax rolls. [Acts 1915, p. 250; Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 33.]

Art. 7326. [7688] Suits to foreclose tax lien.—Whenever any taxes on real estate have become delinquent it shall be the duty of the county attorney upon the expiration of the thirty days notice provided for in the two preceding articles or as soon thereafter as practicable, to file suit in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of the county where such real estate is situated, for the total amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs that have remained unpaid for all years since the thirty-first day of December, 1908, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for the trial thereof at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the payment of the several amounts so specified therein and shown to be due and unpaid by the delinquent tax records of said county; and also that such land be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief as the State may be entitled to under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes as provided in this law shall include all lands in the county where the suit is brought, owned by the same person on which delinquent taxes are due, and shall take precedence over all other suits pending in said district court. If through mistake, oversight or otherwise any tax due on any land owned by the defendant is omitted from such suit, such omission shall not be any defense against the collection of the tax due and sued for. All delinquent tax records of said county in any county where such suit is brought shall be prima facie evidence of the true and correct amount of taxes and costs due by the defendant or defendants in such suit, and the same or certified copies thereof shall be admissible in the trial of such suit as evidence thereof. Such suit shall be brought as an ordinary foreclosure for debt, with averments as to the existence of a lien upon such land for such taxes, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the foreclosure of the said lien and sale of said lands as under ordinary execution. The county attorney, or the attorney employed by the commissioners court, shall sign such petition as attorney for plaintiff. The county tax collector and county tax assessor shall furnish all affidavits, certified copies of the records of their respective offices and such other evidence as may be in their possession by virtue of such office as may be applied for by the proper attorney prosecuting such suit, and shall be allowed a fee of fifty cents for each certified copy furnished upon such application. If the amount of taxes delinquent is not more than five dollars the commissioners court may have such suit for five dollars or less instituted or not as said court may deem to be for the best interests of the county. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 34; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 184.]

Art. 7327. Unknown owner.—In respect to lands and lots appearing on lists furnished by the tax collector to the county or district attorney in accordance with the provisions of this law, as lands and lots located in the county which appear on the delinquent tax record in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owner," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector has been unable, by due diligence to discover or ascertain, the county attorney or in the counties having no county attorney, the district attorney, immediately after the lists of such lands have been furnished him by the collector shall proceed to collect all taxes, penalty, interest and costs then due against the same in the manner prescribed in this chapter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 166.]

Art. 7328. [7689] Proceedings in tax suits.—The proper persons, including all record lien holders, shall be made parties defendant in such suit, and shall be served with process and other proceedings had therein as provided by law in ordinary foreclosure suits in the district courts of this State; and in case of foreclosure an order of sale shall issue and the land sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed, a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in smaller tracts than the whole, together with the description of such smaller tracts, then such officer shall sell the lands in such subdivisions as defendant may request, and in such case shall sell only as many subdivisions, as near as may be, as are necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalty and costs; and after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalty and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff to the clerk of the court out of which said execution or other final process issued to be retained by him subject to the order of the court for a period of two years, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time the court may order the same to be paid to the State Treasurer, who shall hold same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed; provided, any one claiming the same shall make proof of his claim to the satisfaction of the State Treasurer within three years after the sale of said land or lots, after which the same shall be governed by the law regulating escheat. If there shall be no bidder for such land the county attorney, sheriff or other officer selling the same, shall bid said property off to the State for the amount of all taxes, penalty, interest and costs adjudged against such property, and the district clerk shall immediately make report of such sale in duplicate, one to the Comptroller and one to the commissioners court, on blanks to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller. Where the property is bid off to the State, the sheriff shall make and execute a deed to the State, using forms to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller, showing in each case, the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs for which sold, and the clerk's fees for recording deeds. He shall cause such deeds to be recorded in the record of deeds by the county clerk in his county, and when so recorded, shall forward the same to the Comptroller. The county clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for recording each such deed to the State, to be taxed as other costs. When land thus sold to the State shall be redeemed the tax collector shall make the proper distribution of the moneys received by him in such redemption, paying to each officer the amount of costs found to be due, and to the State and county the taxes, interest and penalty found to be due each respectively. If any of the land thus sold to the State is not redeemed within the time prescribed by this law, the sheriff shall sell the same at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the principal entrance to the court house in the county wherein the land lies, after giving notice of sale in the manner now prescribed for sale of real estate under execution, provided when notice is given by posting notices, one of the said notices shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the land to be sold. Said notice shall contain a legal description of the land to be sold; the date of its purchase by the State, the price for which the land was sold to the State; that it will be sold at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, date and place of sale. All sales contemplated herein shall be made in the manner prescribed for the sale of real estate under execution, except that they must be made between the hours of two o'clock p. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. and the sheriff is hereby authorized, and it is hereby made his duty to reject any and all bids for said land when in his judgment the amount bid is insufficient or inadequate, and in event said bid or bids are rejected the land shall be re-advertised and offered for sale as provided for herein, but the acceptance by the sheriff of the bid shall be conclusive and binding on the question of the sufficiency of the bid, and no action shall be sustained in any court of this State to set aside said sale on grounds of the insufficiency of the amount bid and accepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the State, acting through the county attorney of the county wherein the land lies, or its Attorney General, from instituting an action to set aside the said sale on the grounds of fraud or collusion between the officer making the sale and the purchaser. The sheriff shall send the amount received from such sale to the State Treasurer after deducting the amount of the county taxes, interest and penalty of the county tax which he shall pay to the county treasurer. The sheriff, in behalf of the State, shall execute a deed conveying title to said property when sold and paid for. [Acts 1895, p. 50; Acts 1897, p. 132; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 35; Acts 3rd C. S., p. 181.]

Art. 7329. Defense to tax suits.—There shall be no defense to a suit for collection of delinquent taxes, as provided for in this chapter except:

1. That the defendant was not the owner of the land at the time the suit was filed.
2. That the taxes sued for have been paid, or
3. That the taxes sued for are in excess of the limit allowed by law, but this defense shall apply only to such excess. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 36.]

Art. 7330. Sheriff to execute deeds.—In all cases in which lands have been sold, or may be sold, for default in the payment of taxes, the sheriff selling the same, or any of his successors in office, shall make a deed or deeds to the purchaser or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this State to vest good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof, subject to be impeached only for actual fraud. [Acts 1895, p. 50; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 780; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1186.]

Art. 7331. [7691] Fees of tax collector.—For preparing the annual delinquent list of assessments charged to the tax collector upon the tax roll, but which have not been collected at the time of his annual settlement with the State and county, separating the property previously sold to the State from that reported sold as delinquent for preceding years and for prorating the State taxes into State revenue, State school and State pension, calculating the penalty, extending it and adding it in with other taxes, balancing the delinquent lists and certifying it to the commissioners court and the Comptroller, the tax collector shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for each correct assessment of land to be sold, said fee to be taxed as costs against the delinquent. Provided, that in no case shall the State or county be liable for said fee which shall be additional and cumulative of all other fees now allowed by law and shall not be accounted for under the fee bill as fees of office. For checking up and taking off delinquency, separating and assorting various tracts or each assessment, prorating the taxes thereon, arranging the items by abstract numbers or lot and block numbers, and compiling the delinquent tax record herein required to be compiled whenever there shall be as many as two years of back taxes that have not been included in the delinquent record, the tax collector shall be paid out of the general fund of the county, five cents for each written line of the original of such delinquent record, not to exceed twenty-five cents for any one tract or abstract rendered, returned delinquent and owned by one taxpayer; such fee to be taxed as costs, and to be paid back into the general fund of the county when collected. For issuing notices to taxpayers, furnishing copies to the county, district or delinquent tax attorneys, issuing statements in regard to particular tracts of land required by this law, preparing and issuing cancellations, calculating and preparing redemption certificates, and receipts, reporting and crediting redemptions, posting Comptroller redemption numbers on the delinquent record, mailing certificates of redemption to taxpayers after approval by the Comptroller, the tax collector shall receive five per cent of all delinquent taxes collected by him, which, together with five cents per line compensation for compiling the delinquent record as above provided shall be accounted for as fees of office, and shall not be retained by such tax collectors so as to increase the maximum compensation now allowed by law for such respective office. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 182.]

Art. 7332. [7691] Other fees.—The county attorney or district attorney shall represent the State and county in all suits against delinquent taxpayers that are provided for in this law, and all sums collected shall be paid immediately to the county collectors. In all cases the compensation for said attorney shall be five dollars for the first tract in one suit, and one dollar for each additional tract involved in the same suit; provided, that those county attorneys who have or may institute said suits shall be entitled to an equal division with their successors in office of the fees allowed herein on all suits instituted by them where the judgment has not been obtained prior to the vacation of their office. The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for selling and making deed thereto to each purchaser of land that he sells under judgment for taxes; and for executing citation he shall receive the same fees allowed by law for similar services in tax suits. The district clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar and fifty cents in each case to be taxed as costs of suit. The county clerk, for making out and recording the data of each delinquent assessment and for certifying same in the minutes of the commissioners court and for all other services rendered in such suits shall receive the sum of one dollar. Where such suits are brought against delinquents to recover taxes due by them to the State and county, and the said delinquent pays the amount of tax, interest, penalties, and all accrued costs to the county collector during the pendency of such suit, then the county attorney shall receive as compensation therefor two dollars for the first tract and one dollar for each additional tract embraced in said suit; and the district clerk shall receive only one dollar in each case; but these fees shall be paid in lieu of the fees provided for officers where such suits are brought as herein provided. All fees provided for the officers herein mentioned shall be in addition to fees allowed by law to such officers, and shall not be accounted for by said officers as "fees of office." [Id.]

Art. 7333. [7691] Fees taxed as costs.—In each case such fees shall be taxed as costs against the land to be sold under judgment for taxes, and paid out of the proceeds of sale of same after the taxes, penalty and interest due thereon are paid, and in no case shall the State or county be liable therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7334. [7691] "Tract."—The term "tract" shall mean all lands or lots in any survey, addition or subdivision or part thereof owned by the party being sued for delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7335. [7691] Contract with attorney.—Whenever the commissioners court of any county after thirty days written notice to the county attorney or district attorney to file delinquent tax suits and his failure to do so, shall deem it necessary or expedient, said court may contract with any competent attorney to enforce or assist in the enforcement of the collection of any delinquent State and county taxes for a per cent on the taxes, penalty and interest actually collected, and said court is further authorized to pay for an abstract of property assessed or unknown and unrendered from the taxes, interest and penalty to be collected on such lands, but all such payment and expenses shall be contingent upon the collection of such taxes, penalty and interest. It shall be the duty of the county attorney, or of the district attorney, where there is no county attorney, to actively assist any person with whom such contract is made, by filing and pushing to a speedy conclusion all suits for collection of delinquent taxes, under any contract made as herein above specified; provided that where any district or county attorney shall fail or refuse to file and prosecute such suits in good faith, he shall not be entitled to any fees therefrom, but such fees shall nevertheless be collected as a part of the costs of suit and applied on the payment of the compensation allowed the attorney prosecuting the suit, and the attorney with whom such contract has been made is hereby fully empowered and authorized to proceed in such suits without the joinder and assistance of said county or district attorneys. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 37; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 182.]

Art. 7336. [7692] Penalty.—If any person fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law until after the thirty-first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment rolls of the county to the Comptroller, a penalty of ten per cent on the entire amount of such taxes shall accrue, which penalty, when collected, shall be paid proportionately to the State and county; and the collector of taxes shall by virtue of his tax rolls seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with the penalty above provided, interests and all costs accruing thereon. If no personal property be found for seizure and sale as above provided, the collector shall, on the thirty-first day of March of each year for which the State and county taxes for the preceding year remain unpaid, make up a list of the lands and lots on which the taxes for such preceding years are delinquent, charging against the same all taxes and penalties assessed against the owner thereof. Said list shall be made in triplicate and shall be presented to the commissioners court for examination and correction of any errors that may appear, and when so examined and corrected by the commissioners court, such lists in triplicate shall be approved by said court, and one copy thereof shall be filed with the county clerk, and one copy retained and preserved by the collector and one copy forwarded to the Comptroller with his annual settlement reports. Such lists as furnished by the tax collector and corrected by the commissioners court, and the rolls or books on file in the collector's office, or either said list or assessment rolls or books, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers of courts charged with any duty thereunder as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying all taxes therein mentioned and reporting as delinquent any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in cases in which the description of the real estate in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to identify the same, and of which property there is a sufficient description in the inventories of the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. [Acts 1895, p. 50; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 780; Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1186; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 39.]

Art. 7337. [7693] Cities may avail.—Any incorporated city or town or school district shall have the right to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes due it under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1186.]

Art. 7338. [7694] Exemptions from this chapter.—Real estate which may have been rendered for taxes and paid under erroneous description given in assessment rolls, or lands that may have been duly assessed and taxes paid on one assessment, or lands which may have been assessed and taxes paid thereon in a county other than the one in which they are located, or lands which may have been sold to the State and upon which taxes have been paid and through error not credited in the assessment rolls, shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of this chapter. When called upon, the Land Commissioner shall furnish the county judge of any county compiling its own delinquent tax record with such information as may enable him to determine the validity or locality of such surveys and grants as have not been shown by the printed abstracts of the Land Office. [Id.]

Art. 7339. [7695] May redeem before sale.—Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State for taxes due thereon, or any one having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon since January first, 1885, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and all costs and the penalty of ten per cent. [Id.]

Art. 7340. [7696-97] May redeem from State.—Where lands or lots shall hereafter be sold to the State or to any city or town for taxes under decree of court in any suit or suits brought for the collection of taxes thereon or by a collector of taxes, or otherwise, the owner or any one having an interest in such lands or lots shall have the right at any time within two years from the date of sale to redeem the same upon payment of the amount of taxes for which sale was made, together with all costs and penalties required by law, and also payment of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs on or against said land or lots at the time of the redemption. [Acts 1897, p. 132, Sec. 14; Acts 1905, p. 323; Acts 1907, p. 282; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 400; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 25; Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 58; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 155; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 103.]

Art. 7341. [7701] Evidence of title to redeem land.—In all cases where lands in this State have been or may be sold for taxes, and the owner of the land, at the time of such sale, shall desire to redeem the same, under the provisions of the Constitution, or of laws enacted on that subject, it shall be sufficient to entitle such owner to redeem from the purchaser or purchasers thereof for him to have had a paper title to such land, or to have been in possession of such land in person or by tenant, at the time of the institution of the suit under which sale was made, or when such sale was made; and the existence of such facts and conditions shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of ownership to entitle the party so claiming ownership to the right to redeem such land; and he shall not be required to deraign title from the sovereignty, or shall any hiatus or defect in his chain of title defeat the offered redemption. Nothing herein shall be held to limit the right of one offering to redeem to prove ownership otherwise than herein provided, nor prevent any one having the superior title from redeeming such land within two years from the date of the tax sale by paying to the person who has previously redeemed such lands the amounts provided by law. [Acts 1905, p. 118.]

Art. 7342. [7698] Unknown or non-resident.— Whenever the owner or owners of any lands or lots that have been or may be returned delinquent or reported sold to the State for the taxes due thereon for any year or number of years, are non-residents of the State, or the name of the owner or owners of said lands or lots be unknown, then, upon affidavit of the attorney for the State setting out that the owner or owners are non-residents, or that the owner or owners are unknown to the attorney for the State and after inquiry cannot be ascertained, said parties shall be cited and made parties defendant by notice in the name of the State and county, directed to “all persons owning or having or claiming any interest in the following described land delinquent to the State of Texas and county of _____, for taxes, to-wit: (here set out description of the land as contained on the assessment roll and such further description obtainable in the petition),” and further stating “which said land is delinquent for taxes for the following amounts, $_____ for State taxes, and $_____ for county taxes and you are hereby notified that suit has been brought by the State for the collection of said taxes, and you are commanded to appear and defend such suit at the _____ term of the district court of _____ County, and State of Texas, and show cause why judgment shall not be rendered condemning said land (or lot), and ordering sale and foreclosure thereof for said taxes and costs of suit,” which notice shall be signed by the clerk and shall be published in some newspaper published in said county one time a week for three consecutive weeks. If there is no newspaper published in the county, then notice may be given by publication in a paper in an adjoining county. A maximum fee of two and one-half cents per line (seven words to count a line) for each insertion may be taxed for publishing said citation. If the publication of such citation cannot be had for such fee, then publication of the citation herein provided may be made by posting a copy at three different places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door. It shall be lawful in all cases to set forth in the petition the names of all parties interested as far as ascertained, and make them parties, and also to join and make defendants all persons having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in the land described in the petition. Such suit, after such publication, shall be proceeded with as in other cases; and whether any party or parties make defense or not on the trial of said case, the State and county shall be entitled to prove the amount of taxes due, and shall have a decree for the sale of said land or lot as in those cases where defendant owners have been personally served and defend suit. A sale of said land or lot shall be had and be as binding as where defendants are personally served with process. In all suits for taxes due, the defendant shall be entitled to credits he can show due him for any year or number of years for which he may be able to produce receipts or other positive proof showing the payment of such taxes. [Acts 1897, p. 138; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1192.]

Art. 7343. [7699] Similar proceedings by cities and independent school districts.—In any incorporated city or town in which any tracts, lots, outlots or blocks of land, situated within the corporate limits of said city or town have been returned delinquent, or reported sold to said city or town for the taxes due thereon, the governing body may prepare or cause to be prepared lists of delinquents in the same manner as provided in this chapter, and such lists shall be certified to as correct by the mayor of said city or town, if any, and if said city or town has no mayor, by the presiding officer of the governing body. After said lists have been properly certified to, the governing body of the city may cause lists of delinquents to be published in a newspaper as provided for State and county delinquent taxes in this law. When twenty days from the date of last publication of said list or lists of delinquents has elapsed, the governing body of the city or town may direct the city attorney to file suits for collection of said taxes, or said governing body may employ some other attorney of the county to file suits and the city attorney or other attorney filing said suits shall be entitled to the same fees as allowed the county attorney or district attorney in suits for collection of State and county taxes, to be taxed as costs in the suit. Independent school districts may collect their delinquent taxes as above provided for cities and towns, the school board performing the duties above described for the governing body of cities, and the president of the school board performing the duties above prescribed for the mayor or other presiding officer. The school board may, when the delinquent tax lists and records are properly prepared and ready for suits to be filed, instruct the county attorney to file said suits. If the school board instructs the county attorney to file said suits and he fails or refuses to do so within sixty days the school board may employ some other attorney of the county to file suit. The county attorney, or other attorney, filing tax suits for independent school districts, shall be entitled to the same fees as provided by law in suits for State and county taxes. No other county officer shall receive any fees unless services are actually performed, and in that event he shall only receive such fees as are now allowed him by law for similar services in civil suits. The employment of an attorney to file suit for taxes for cities, towns or independent school districts shall authorize said attorney to file said suits, swear to the petitions and perform such other acts as are necessary in the collection of said taxes.

All laws of this State for the purpose of collecting delinquent State and county taxes are by this law made available for, and when invoked shall be applied to, the collection of delinquent taxes of cities and towns and independent school districts in so far as such laws are applicable. [Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 48; Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 39.]

Art. 7344. [7700] Land platted and numbered.—In counties in which the subdivisions of surveys are not regularly numbered, and in cities or towns in which the blocks or subdivisions are not numbered, or are so irregularly numbered as to make it difficult or impossible for the assessor to list the same, the commissioners court of such counties may have all the blocks and subdivisions of surveys platted and numbered so as to identify each lot or tract, and furnish the assessor with maps showing such numbering; and an assessment of any property by such numbering on said maps shall be sufficient description thereof for all purposes. Such maps or a certified copy of same or any part thereof, shall be admissible as evidence in all courts. The cost of making said survey and plats shall be defrayed by the county in which said property is situated, and of which said commissioners court ordered the said surveys and plat made and the cost of any map of a town or city shall be paid by such city or town when ordered by the town or city. [Acts 1897, p. 139; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1193.]

Art. 7345. Separate payments.—When two or more lots or blocks or tracts of land are rendered in the same rendition with separate valuations, and the taxes due thereon become delinquent the tax collectors shall, when tendered, accept payment of the taxes due on each lot or block or tract of land having such separate valuation. [Acts 3rd. C. S. 1923, p. 185.]

Art. 7346. [7702] Property omitted from rolls.—Whenever any commissioners court shall discover through notice from the tax collector or otherwise that any real property has been omitted from the tax rolls for any year or years since 1884, or shall find that any previous assessments on any real property for the years mentioned are invalid, or have been declared invalid for any reason by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes on said properties, they may, at any meeting of the court, order a list of such properties to be made in triplicate and fix a compensation therefor; the said list to show a complete description of such properties and for what years such properties were omitted from the tax rolls, or for what years the assessments are found to be invalid and should be canceled and re-assessed, or to have been declared invalid and thereby canceled by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes. No re-assessment of any property shall be held against any innocent purchaser of the same if the tax records of any county fail to show any assessment (for any year so re-assessed) by which said property can be identified and that the taxes are unpaid. The above exception, with the same limitation, shall also apply as to all past judgments of district courts canceling invalid assessments. [Acts 1905, p. 318.]

Art. 7347. [7703] Property listed assessed. — When said list has been so made up the commissioners court may, at any meeting, order a cancellation of such properties in said list that are shown to have been previously assessed, but which assessments are found to be invalid and have not been canceled by any former order of the commissioners court, or by decree of any district court; and shall then refer such list of properties to be assessed or re-assessed to the tax assessor who shall proceed at once to make an assessment of all said properties, from the data given by said list (the certificate of the Comptroller as to assessments or re-assessments made by the tax assessor shall not be necessary as required under Article 7207, but he shall furnish all blank forms needed, that uniformity may be had in all counties), and when completed shall submit the same to the commissioners court, who shall pass upon the valuations fixed by him; and, when approved as to the values, shall cause the taxes to be computed and extended at the tax rate in effect for each separate year mentioned in said list; and, in addition thereto, shall cause to be added a penalty equal in amount to what would be six per cent interest to the date of making said list from the date such properties would have been delinquent had same been properly rendered by the owner thereof at the time and for the years stated in said list; provided, that the certificate of any tax collector given during his term of office that all taxes have been paid to the date of such certificate on any certain piece of property, which is fully described in such certificate, or if the tax rolls of any county fail to show any assessments against such property sufficient to identify it, and that the same was unpaid at the dates such rolls may have been examined to ascertain the condition of any property as to taxes unpaid, this shall be a bar to any re-assessment of such property under this law for any years prior to the date of such certificate, or such examinations; provided, that the property referred to, when re-assessed, shall be held by an innocent purchaser, who has relied upon the correctness of such certificate, or the tax rolls heretofore referred to. [Id.]

Art. 7348. [7704] List to operate a lien. — The said list, when complete in all respects, and filed with the tax collector, shall constitute a valid lien against all the properties mentioned in said list for the full amount of taxes, penalties, officers costs, advertising and six per cent interest from the date of said list to the date of the payment of the full sum due on each separate piece of property. A copy of said list and all cancellation orders shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and a copy filed with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 7349. [7705] To be advertised.—The commissioners court shall proceed to have such list of properties advertised in the manner provided in Article 7323 after which, suit may be filed in the same manner as provided by law for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7350. [7706] Assessments reduced.—In all cases of delinquent taxes of unrendered and unknown property, where there appears to be an assessment of the same at a valuation excessive and unreasonable, the commissioners court shall be authorized to correct or reduce such values on the request of the tax collector with a full statement of the facts in each case; which statement and the action had thereon and the name of each commissioner voting for or against the reduction in valuation asked for shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and a certified copy of the action had thereon shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and, when the values are so corrected or reduced, payment of taxes shall be accepted in accordance with such reduction, to which shall be added interest, penalty, advertising and costs as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 7351. [7708] Bulk assessments validated.—In all suits to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, where the assessment of any property for any year is invalidated by reason of the failure of the assessor to comply with the provisions of law for the description of any lot, block or tract of land, or to give a separate value on each lot, block or tract of land, known as “bulk assessments” or to enter upon the lists (similar to that used for the listing of rendered property, to be signed by the owner) all items of property assessed to unknown owners, all such assessments are hereby validated and given the same force and effect as if the descriptions, the separate valuations and the listing were in all respects strictly in compliance with law; provided, as to description, that the descriptions given are sufficient to identify the property, as to separate values, that the valuations and the taxes shown upon the tax rolls (in what are called “bulk assessments”) can be fairly prorated to each separate lot, block or tract of land; and, as to listing, that the valuation given on the tax rolls upon properties assessed as unknown are found to have been entered upon the assessor’s block book as the original assessment, instead of listing as in rendered assessments, and then entering upon the tax rolls. [Id.]

Art. 7352. [7709] Delinquent tax record published.—The various counties which have not heretofore made and published a delinquent tax record, under provisions of chapter 103, acts of the regular session of the twenty-fifth legislature, are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to make and publish the same to date hereof, and, when so done, it shall have the same force and effect as if made and published under that Act; and any county which has heretofore made a delinquent tax record for any number of years is hereby authorized and empowered to re-compile the same to date hereof, and may compile each year thereafter under the provisions of said act. [Id.]

Art. 7353. [7710] Property listed by Comptroller.—Whenever it shall appear to the Comptroller from an inspection of the tax rolls of any county or otherwise, that any lands in such county subject to taxation have not been assessed for taxation for any year since and including the year 1900, he shall make a list of such lands and send the same to the tax assessor of such county by registered letter, accompanying such list with instructions to such tax assessor to assess such lands for taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed as shown by said list. [Acts 1905, p. 321.]

Art. 7354. [7711] List to be posted.—Upon receipt of such list, the tax assessor shall immediately post a copy of such notice and list at the court house door of his county, noting upon such copy the date of such posting; and the owners of the lands embraced in such list shall have the right, at any time within twenty days of such posting, to render the same to the tax assessor for the taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed for taxes, or for any of such years as shown by such notice, in the same manner as is provided for the rendition of other property for taxes under the provisions of the general laws for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7355. [7712] Unrendered lands assessed.—Should any of the said lands remain unrendered by the owners or owner thereof, under the provisions of the preceding article for any of the years for which the same have not been assessed according to said notice and lists, for twenty days after the date of the posting of such notice, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor, immediately upon expiration of such time, to assess for taxes at their true value such lands so remaining unrendered and unassessed for each of the years since and including the year 1900, and including the year such lists are made up by the Comptroller, listing the same in the name of unknown owners, and charging up to said lands the taxes, State and county, for which they are liable for each of such years, valuing such lands at their true and full value as provided in Article 7174. If any of said lands are lands purchased from the State as belonging to the school fund, the University, or any of the asylums of the State, and held under such contract of purchase upon which a part of the purchase money is still due, such lands being unpatented, no deduction shall be made in the value of said lands for, or on account of, such unpaid purchase money, but they shall be valued at their full and true value as though paid out and patented. [Id.]

Art. 7356. [7713] Duty of commissioners' court.—The tax assessor shall make up lists showing such assessments, and deliver the same to the county judge, who shall at once, unless a regular session is held within ten days thereafter, call a meeting of the commissioners court in special session, as a board of equalization for the purpose of passing upon said assessment lists in the manner provided in case of regular assessments in so far as the provisions of the statute with regard thereto are applicable. The commissioners court without delay shall act upon said supplemented assessment lists, as to the value of the property embraced, and, when said values have been equalized as required by law, approve the same, and approve the rolls made up by the tax assessor in accordance therewith; provided, that the commissioners court shall have no authority to alter said assessment lists, or in any way interfere with such assessments, except as to the values of property embraced therein, in equalizing the same as provided by law, and to strike therefrom any lands that have been already assessed for taxes at their true market value for the years for which they are assessed on said supplemental rolls and such taxes paid. [Id.]

Art. 7357. [7714] Supplemental tax rolls.—After such supplemental assessment lists have been passed upon by the board of equalization as herein provided, supplemental tax rolls shall be prepared by the tax assessor and approved by the commissioners court as is required by law in case of the regular assessment for taxes; and thereafter the taxes due according to such supplemental rolls shall be collected as in case of other taxes, and, if not paid, such proceedings shall be had for their collection as in case of other taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7358. [7715] Fees of assessor.—For making the supplemental assessments provided herein, the tax assessor shall be entitled to the same fees to be paid in the same manner as is provided by law in case of regular assessments. [Id.]

Art. 7359. City may use county officers.—Any incorporated city, town or village in this State is hereby authorized by ordinance to authorize the county tax assessor and county tax collector of the county in which said city, town or village is situated, to act as tax assessor and tax collector respectively for said city, town or village. The property in said city, town or village utilizing such county assessor and collector shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and State purposes. When an ordinance is so passed making available their services, said assessor shall assess the taxes for said city, town or village and perform the duties of tax assessor for said city, town or village according to the ordinances of said city, town or village and according to law; and said collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for said city, town or village and turn over as soon as collected to the city depository of said city or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or money so collected, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said city, town or village according to the ordinances thereof and according to law, deducting from the taxes so collected his fees provided for herein; and they shall respectively receive for such services one per cent of the taxes so collected. [Acts 1921, p. 128.]

Art. 7360. [7727] [5244] Log brands.—Whoever engages in floating or rafting timber upon the waters of any river or creek of this State shall have a log brand with which to brand every log or stick that he may float or haul and put into the waters for sale or market, the same to be distinctly branded. [Acts 1879, p. 81, Sec. 1; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1381.]

Art. 7361. [7728] [5245] To be recorded.—He shall have said brand recorded in every county in which he cuts any of said timber, and in the county where he proposes to sell or market said timber, by the county clerk, in a book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose, for which said clerk shall receive a fee the same as is by law allowed for recording stock brands. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 7362. [7729] [5246] Written report to be filed.—Any person who floats any logs or timber in this State shall, on the first day of April, first day of July, first day of September, and on the first day of January of each year, or within fifteen days of said dates, make a written report under oath showing the number of logs cut or floated during the next preceding three months, the survey or surveys of land from which they were cut or carried, and the number cut from each, and a description of the brand placed thereon, and shall file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the timber was cut; and such clerk shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and index it, and receive therefor the sum of fifty cents from the party presenting the same. This law shall not apply to pickets, posts, rails or firewood. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 7363. [7730] [5247] Evidence of ownership.—A certificate under the hand of the county clerk, containing a description of a log brand and the name of the owner thereof, with a transfer on the back of it signed and acknowledged by such owner, or proved as other instruments for record, shall be prima facie evidence that the person to whom transfer is made owns the logs described thereon. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 7364. [7731] [5248] [4784] Method of trying titles.
—All fictitious proceedings in the action of ejectment are abolished. The method of trying titles to lands, tenements or other real property shall be by action of trespass to try title. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7365. [7732] [5249] [4785] Rules in other cases observed.—The trial shall be conducted according to the rules of pleading, practice and evidence in other cases in the district court, and conformably to the principles of trial by ejectment, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. [Id.]

Art. 7366. [7733] [5250] [4786] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall state:

1. The real names of the plaintiff and defendant and their residence, if known.

2. It shall describe the premises by metes and bounds, or with sufficient certainty to identify the same, so that from such description possession thereof may be delivered, and state the county or counties in which the same are situated.

3. The interest which the plaintiff claims in the premises, whether it be a fee simple or other estate; and, if he claims an undivided interest, he shall state the same and the amount thereof.

4. That he was in possession of the premises or entitled to such possession.

5. That the defendant afterward unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed him of such premises, stating the date, and withholds from him the possession thereof.

6. If rents and profits or damages are claimed, such facts as show the plaintiff to be entitled thereto and the amount thereof.

7. It shall conclude with a prayer for the relief sought. [Id. P. D. 5292.]

Art. 7367. [7734] [5251] [4787] Indorsement on petition.
—The plaintiff shall indorse on his petition that the action is brought as well to try title as for damages. [Id. P. D. 5294.]

Art. 7368. [7735] [5252] [4788] Warrantor, etc., may be made a party.—When a party is sued for lands, the real owner or warrantor may make himself, or may be made, a party defendant in the suit, and shall be entitled to make such defense as if he had been the original defendant in the action.

Art. 7369. [7736] [5253] [4789] Landlord may become defendant.—When such action shall be commenced against a tenant in possession, the landlord may enter himself as the defendant, or he may be made a party on motion of such tenant; and he shall be entitled to make the same defense as if the suit had been originally commenced against him. [Id. P. D. 5296.]

Art. 7370. [7737] [5254] [4790] The possessor shall be defendant.—The defendant in the action shall be the person in possession if the premises are occupied, or some person claiming title thereto in case they are unoccupied.

Art. 7371. [7738] [5255] May join as defendants, whom.—The plaintiff may join as a defendant with the person in possession, any other person who, as landlord, remainderman, reversioner or otherwise, may claim title to the premises, or any part thereof, adversely to the plaintiff.

Art. 7372. [7739] [5256] May file plea of "not guilty" only.—The defendant in such action may file only the plea of "not guilty," which shall state in substance that he is not guilty of the injury complained of in the petition filed by the plaintiff against him, except that if he claims an allowance for improvements, he shall state the facts entitling him to the same. [Acts 1844, p. 70; P. D. 5307; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 982.]

Art. 7373. [7740] [5257] Proof under such plea.—Under such plea of "not guilty" the defendant may give in evidence any lawful defense to the action except the defense of limitation, which shall be specially pleaded. [Id.]

Art. 7374. [7741] [5258] Answer taken as admitting possession.—Such plea or any other answer to the merits shall be an admission by the defendant, for the purpose of that action, that he was in possession of the premises sued for, or that he claimed title thereto at the time of commencing the action, unless he states distinctly in his answer the extent of his possession or claim, in which case it shall be an admission to such extent only. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5297; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7375. [7742] [5259] What is sufficient title.—All certificates for head-right, land scrip, bounty warrant, or any other evidence of right to land recognized by the laws of this State, which have been located and surveyed, shall be deemed and held as sufficient title to authorize the maintenance of the action of trespass to try title.

Art. 7376. [7743] [5260] May demand abstract of title.—After answer filed, either party may, by notice in writing, duly served on the opposite party or his attorney of record, not less than ten days before the trial of the cause, demand an abstract in writing of the claim or title to the premises in question upon which he relies.

Art. 7377. [7744] [5261] Time to file abstract.—Such abstract of title shall be filed with the papers of the cause within twenty days after the service of the notice, or within such further time as the court on good cause shown may grant; and, in default thereof, no evidence of the claim or title of such opposite party shall be given on trial.

Art. 7378. [7745] [5262] Abstract shall state what.—The abstract mentioned in the two preceding articles shall state:

1. The nature of each document or written instrument intended to be used as evidence and its date; or,
2. If a contract or conveyance, its date, the parties thereto and the date of the proof of acknowledgment, and before what officer the same was made; and,
3. Where recorded, stating the book and page of the record.
4. If not recorded in the county when the trial is had, copies of such instrument, with the names of the subscribing witnesses, shall be included.

If such unrecorded instrument be lost or destroyed, it shall be sufficient to state the nature of such instrument and its loss or destruction.

Art. 7379. [7746] [5263] Amended abstract.—The court may allow either party to file an amended abstract of title, under the same rules which authorize the amendment of pleadings so far as they are applicable; but in all cases the documentary evidence of title shall at the trial be confined to the matters contained in the abstract of title.

Art. 7380. [7747] [5264] Surveyor appointed, etc.—The judge of the court may, either in term time or in vacation, at his own discretion, or on motion of either party to the action, appoint a surveyor, who shall survey the premises in controversy pursuant to the order of the court, and report his action under oath to such court. If said report be not rejected for good cause shown, the same shall be admitted as evidence on the trial. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5294; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7381. [7748] [5265] Survey unnecessary when.—Where there is no dispute as to the lines or boundaries of the land in controversy, or where the defendant admits that he is in possession of the lands or tenements included in the plaintiff's claim or title, an order of survey shall be unnecessary. [Id. P. D. 5308.]

Art. 7382. [7749] [5266] Common source of title.—It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to deraign title beyond a common source. Proof of a common source may be made by the plaintiff by certified copies of the deeds showing a chain of title to the defendant emanating from and under such common source. Before any such certified copies shall be read in evidence, they shall be filed with the papers of the suit three days before the trial, and the adverse party served with notice of such filing as in other cases. Such certified copies shall not be evidence of title in the defendant unless offered in evidence by him. The plaintiff may make any legal objection to such certified copies, or the originals thereof, when introduced by the defendant. [Acts 1871, S. S. p. 3; P. D. 6829; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 5.]

Art. 7383. [7750] [5267] Judgment by default.—If the defendant, who has been personally served with citation according to law, fails to appear and answer by himself or attorney within the time prescribed by law for other actions in the district court, the proper judgment by default may be entered against him and in favor of the plaintiff for the title to the premises, or the possession thereof, or for both, according to the petition, and for all costs, without any proof of title by the plaintiff.

Art. 7384. [7751] [5268] Proof ex parte.—If the defendant has been cited only by publication, and fails to appear and answer by himself, or by attorney of his own selection, or if any defendant, having answered, fails to appear by himself or attorney when the case is called for trial on its merits, the plaintiff shall make such proof as will entitle him prima facie to recover, whereupon the proper judgment shall be entered.

Art. 7385. [7752] [5269] When defendant claims part only.—Where the defendant claims part of the premises only, the answer shall be equivalent to a disclaimer of the balance.

Art. 7386. [7753] [5270] When plaintiff proves part.—Where the defendant claims the whole premises, and the plaintiff shows himself entitled to recover part, the plaintiff shall recover such part and costs.

Art. 7387. [7754] [5271] May recover a part.—When there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, any one or more of the plaintiffs may recover against one or more of the defendants the premises, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, or damages, according to the rights of the parties.

Art. 7388. [7755] [5272] The judgment.—Upon the finding of the jury, or of the court where the case is tried by the court, in favor of the plaintiff for the whole or any part of the premises in controversy, the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the title or possession, or both, as the case may be, of such premises, describing them, and where he recovers the possession, that he have his writ of possession.

Art. 7389. [7756] [5273] Damages.—Where it is alleged and proved that one of the parties is in possession of the premises, the court or jury, if they find for the adverse party, shall assess the damages for the use and occupation of the premises. If special injury to the property be alleged and proved, the damages for such injury shall also be assessed, and the proper judgment shall be entered therefor, on which execution may issue; but damages shall not be assessed under this article for use and occupation or for injuries done over two years prior to the commencement of the suit. [Acts 1871, S. S., p. 3; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 5.]

Art. 7390. [7757] [5274] Claim for improvements.—When the defendant or person in possession has claimed an allowance for improvements in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding subdivision, the claim for use and occupation and damages mentioned in the preceding article shall be considered and acted on in connection with such claim by the defendant or person in possession.

Art. 7391. [7758] [5275] Final judgment conclusive.—Any final judgment rendered in any action for the recovery of real estate shall be conclusive as to the title or right of possession established in such action upon the party against whom it is recovered, and upon all persons claiming from, through or under such party, by title arising after the commencement of such action.

Art. 7392. [7759] [5276] Former laws shall govern, when.—Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to alter, impair or take away the rights of parties, as arising under the laws in force before the introduction of the common law, but the same shall be decided by the principles of the law under which the same accrued, or by which the same were regulated or in any manner affected. [Acts 1871, S. S. p. 3; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 5.]

| Writ of possession | 7397 | | |

Art. 7393. [7760] [5277] Claim of improvements.—The defendant in any action of trespass to try title may allege in his pleadings that he and those under whom he claims have had adverse possession in good faith of the premises in controversy for at least one year next before the commencement of such suit, and that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements on the lands sued for during the time they have had such possession, stating the improvements and their value respectively, and stating also the grounds of such claim. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7394. [7761] [5278] Issue as to.—Where the defendant has filed his claim for an allowance for improvements in accordance with the preceding article, if the court or jury find that he is not the rightful owner of the premises sued for, but that he and those under whom he claims have made permanent and valuable improvements thereon, being possessors thereof in good faith, the court or jury shall at the same time estimate from the testimony:

1. The value at the time of trial of such improvements as were so made before the filing of the suit not exceeding the amount to which the value of the premises is actually increased thereby.

2. The value of the use and occupation of the premises during the time the defendant was in possession thereof (exclusive of the improvements thereon made by himself or those under whom he claims), and also, if authorized by the pleadings, the damages for waste or other injury to the premises committed by him, not computing such annual value for a longer time than two years before suit, nor damages for waste or injury done before said two years.

3. The value of the premises recovered without the improvements made as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 7395. [7762] [5279] Rents and profits as offset.—If the sum estimated for the improvements exceeds the damages estimated against the defendant and the value of the use and occupation as aforesaid, there shall then be estimated against him, if authorized by the testimony, the value of the use and occupation and the damages for injury done by him or those under whom he claims, for any time before the said two years, so far as may be necessary to balance the claim for improvements, but no further; and he shall not be liable for the excess, if any, beyond the value of the improvements.

Art. 7396. [7763] [5280] Judgment for excess.—If it shall appear from the finding of the court or jury under the two preceding articles that the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages exceed the estimated value of the improvements, judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff for the excess and costs in addition to a judgment for the premises; but should the estimated value of the improvements exceed the estimated value of the use and occupation and damages, judgment shall be entered for the defendant for the excess.

Art. 7397. [7764] [5281] Writ of possession.—In any action of trespass to try title, when the lands or tenements have been adjudged to the plaintiff, and the estimated value of the improvements in excess of the value of the use and occupation and damages has been adjudged to the defendant, no writ of possession shall be issued for the term of one year after the date of the judgment, unless the plaintiff shall pay to the clerk of the court for the defendant the amount of such judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon. [Act Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 5301; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 310.]

Art. 7398. [7765] [5282] Failure of plaintiff to pay.—If the plaintiff shall neglect for the term of one year to pay the amount of said judgment in favor of the defendant, with the interest thereon as directed in the preceding article, and the defendant shall within six months after the expiration of said year, pay to the clerk of the court for the plaintiff the value of the lands or tenements, without regard to the improvements as estimated by the court or jury, then the plaintiff shall be forever barred of his writ of possession, and from ever having or maintaining any action whatever against the defendant, his heirs or assigns, for the lands or tenements recovered by such suit.

Art. 7399. [7766] [5283] Defendant failing to pay.—If the defendant or his legal representatives shall not, within six months aforesaid, pay to the clerk for the plaintiff the estimated value of the lands or tenements, as directed in the preceding article, then the plaintiff may sue out his writ of possession as in ordinary cases.

Art. 7400. [7767] [5284] Judgment.—The judgment shall recite the estimated value of the premises without the improvements, and shall also include the conditions, stipulations and directions contained in the three preceding articles, so far as applicable to the case before the court.

Art. 7401. [7768] [5285] Duty of the clerk.—If payment is made to the clerk of the court by the plaintiff or defendant, as provided in the preceding articles, such clerk shall enter a memorandum of such payment, with the date thereof, on the page of the record on which the judgment was entered; and he shall, on demand, pay the money to the party entitled, taking his receipt therefor, dated and signed on the page of the record aforesaid.

Art. 7402. [7769] [5286] [4822] Claimant must make affidavit.—Whenever a writ of execution, sequestration, attachment or other like writ is levied upon personal property, and such property, or any part thereof, shall be claimed by any person who is not a party to such writ, such person or his agent or attorney may make affidavit that such claim is made in good faith, and present such affidavit to the officer who made such levy. [Acts 1848, p. 140; P. D. 5310; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 140.]

Art. 7403. [7770] [5287] [4823] Bond.—He shall also execute and deliver to the officer who made such levy, his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, payable to the plaintiff in such writ, for an amount equal to double the value of the property so claimed, to be assessed by such officer. When more than one writ has been levied, the bond may be made payable to all the plaintiffs in the several writs levied. Said bond shall inure to the benefit of all the plaintiffs in the several writs according to their respective priorities in time of levy. Upon the approval of such bond and delivery of the property to the claimant, the same shall be deemed in custodia legis, and shall not be taken out of his possession by any other like writ or writs; but said writs may be levied on the same by giving notice to the claimant; and in such cases the claimant's bond shall also inure to the benefit of the several plaintiffs in such writs according to their respective priorities. [Acts 1887, p. 104; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 902.]

Art. 7404. [7771] [5288] [4824] Condition of bond.—The bond shall be conditioned that the party making such claim in case he fails to establish his right to such property, shall return the same to the officer making the levy, or his successor, in as good condition as he received it, and shall also pay the reasonable value of the use, hire, increase and fruits thereof from the date of said bond, or, in case he fails so to return said property and pay for the use of the same, that he shall pay the plaintiff the value of said property, with legal interest thereon from the date of the bond, and shall also pay all damages and costs that may be awarded against him.

Art. 7405. [7772] [5289] [4825] Property delivered to claimant.—The officer receiving such oath and bond shall deliver the property so claimed to the person so claiming it. [Id.]

Art. 7406. [7773] [5290] [4826] Return of oath and bond.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall duly make the oath and give the bond, if the writ under which the levy was made was issued by a justice of the peace or a court of the county where such levy was made, the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on the writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, and by whom; and shall also indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath to the proper court having jurisdiction to try such claim. [Id.]

Art. 7407. [7776] [5293] [4829] Out-county levy.—Whenever any person shall claim property and shall make the oath and give the bond as provided for herein, if the writ under which such levy was made was issued by a justice of the peace or a court of another county than that in which such levy was made, then the officer receiving such oath and bond shall indorse on such bond the value of the property as assessed by himself, and shall forthwith return such bond and oath with a copy of the writ, to the justice or court of the county in which such levy was made having jurisdiction according to the value of the property as assessed by said officer.

Art. 7408. [7777] [5294] [4830] Return of original writ.—The officer taking such bond shall also indorse on the original writ that such claim has been made and oath and bond given, stating by whom, the names of the sureties and to what justice or court the bond has been returned; and he shall forthwith return such original writ to the tribunal from which it issued.

Art. 7409. [7778] [5295] [4831] Jurisdiction.—Cases arising under this chapter shall be tried in courts having jurisdiction of the amount involved. [Const. Art. 5, Secs. 8, 16, 19.]

Art. 7410. [7779] [5296] [4832] Docketing cause.—Whenever any oath and bond for the trial of the right of property shall be returned, the clerk of the court, or such justice of the peace, shall docket the same in the name of the plaintiff in the writ as the plaintiff, and the claimant of the property as defendant. [Acts 1848, p. 140; P. D. 5312; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 140.]

Art. 7411. [7780] [5297] [4833] Issue to be made up.—At the first term of the court thereafter, if both parties appear, the court or justice shall direct a written issue to be made up between the parties and tried as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 7412. [7781] [5298] [4834] Requisites of issue.—Said issue shall consist of a brief statement of the authority and right by which the plaintiff seeks to subject the property levied on to his execution, and of the nature of the claim of the defendant thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7413. [7782] [5299] [4835] Judgment by default.—If the plaintiff appears and the defendant fails to appear or neglects or refuses to join issue under the direction of the court or justice within the time prescribed for pleading, the plaintiff shall have judgment by default. [Id.]

Art. 7414. [7783] [5300] [4836] Judgment of non-suit.—If the plaintiff does not appear at the first term, the case shall be continued to the next term, when, if he appears, the like proceedings may be had as at the first term; but if he does not then appear on or before the appearance day of the third term, he shall be non-suited. [Id.]

Art. 7415. [7784] [5301] [4837] Proceedings.—The proceedings and practice on the trial shall be as nearly as may be the same as in other cases before such court or justice.

Art. 7416. [7785-7786] Burden of proof.—If the property was taken from the possession of the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the plaintiff. If it was taken from the possession of the defendant in such writ, or any other person than the claimant, the burden of proof shall be on the claimant. [Id.]

Art. 7417. [7787] [5304] [4840] Damages.—In all trials of the right of property under the provisions of this title, if the claimant shall fail to establish his right to the property, the court or justice trying the same shall give judgment against all the obligors in the claimant's bond for ten per cent damages on the value of the property. [P. D. 5314.]

Art. 7418. [7788] [5305] [4841] If value of property exceeds judgment.—When such value is greater than the amount claimed under the writ, by virtue of which such property was levied upon, the damages shall be on the amount claimed under said writ. [Id.]

Art. 7419. [7789] [5306] [4842] Copy of writ evidence.—In all trials of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, in any county other than that in which the writ issued under which the levy was made, the copy of the writ herein required to be returned by the officer making the levy shall be received in evidence in like manner as the original could be.

Art. 7420. [7790] [5307] [4843] Failure to establish title.—Where any claimant of property shall fail to establish his right thereto, judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, with legal interest thereon from the date of such bond. Such judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the writ, or of the several plaintiffs, if more than one, and shall fix the amount of each plaintiff's claim. [Acts 1887, p. 104; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 902.]

Art. 7421. [7791] [5308] Execution shall issue.—If such judgment should not be satisfied by a return of the property, then execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff for the amount of his claim, or of all the plaintiffs for the sum of their several claims, provided the amount of such judgment exceeds such claim or sum. In such cases the excess of such judgment shall inure to the benefit of any person who shall show superior right or title to the property claimed as against the claimant; but if such judgment be for a less amount than the sum of the several plaintiffs' claims, then the respective rights and priorities of the several plaintiffs shall be fixed and adjusted in the judgment. [Id.]

Art. 7422. [7792] [5309] [4844] Time of execution.—No execution shall issue for ten days on such judgment.

Art. 7423. [7793] [5310] [4845] Return of property by claimant.—If, within ten days from the rendition of said judgment, the claimant shall return such property in as good condition as he received it, and pay for the use of the same together with the damages and costs, such delivery and payment shall operate as a satisfaction of such judgment.

Art. 7424. [7794] [5311] [4846] Claim is a release of damages.—A claim made to property, under the provisions of this chapter, shall operate as a release of all damages by the claimant against the officer who levied upon said property.

Art. 7425. [7795] [5312] [4847] Levy on other property.—Proceedings for the trial of the right of property, under the provisions of this title, shall in no case prevent the plaintiff in the writ from having a levy made upon any other property of the defendant. [P. D. 5318.]

Art. 7426. [7796] "Trusts."—A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, or either two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create, or which may tend to create, or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce or aids to commerce or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or to create or carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of any business authorized or permitted by laws of this State.

2. To fix, maintain, increase or reduce the price of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the cost of insurance, or of the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

3. To prevent or lessen competition in the manufacture, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or commodities, or the business of insurance, or to prevent or lessen competition in aids to commerce, or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

4. To fix or maintain any standard or figure whereby the price of any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce, or the cost of transportation, or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, shall be in any manner affected, controlled or established.

5. To make, enter into, maintain, execute or carry out any contract, obligation or agreement by which the parties thereto bind, or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of, transport or to prepare for market or transportation any article or commodity, or to make any contract of insurance at a price below a common standard or figure or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article or commodity or charge for transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation at a fixed or graded figure, or by which they shall in any manner affect or maintain the price of any commodity or article or the cost of transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation between them or themselves and others, to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or business of transportation or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or unite any interest they may have in connection with the sale or purchase of any article or commodity, or charge for transportation or insurance or charge for the preparation of any product for market or transportation whereby its price or such charge might be in any manner affected.

6. To regulate, fix or limit the output of any article or commodity which may be manufactured, mined, produced or sold, or the amount of insurance which may be undertaken, or the amount of work that may be done in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

7. To abstain from engaging in or continuing business, or from the purchase or sale of merchandise, produce or commodities partially or entirely within the State of Texas, or any portion thereof. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7427. [7797] “Monopoly” defined.—A monopoly is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations when effected in either of the following methods:

1. When the direction of the affairs of two or more corporations is in any manner brought under the same management or control for the purpose of producing, or where such common management or control tends to create a trust as defined in the first article of this chapter.

2. Where any corporation acquires the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights, or the physical properties or any part thereof, of any other corporation or corporations, for the purpose of preventing or lessening, or where the effect of such acquisition tends to affect or lessen competition, whether such acquisition is accomplished directly or through the instrumentality of trustees or otherwise. [Id.]

Art. 7428. [7798] Conspiracies against trade.—Either or any of the following acts shall constitute a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

1. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, who are engaged in buying or selling any article of merchandise, produce or any commodity enter into an agreement or understanding to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, any article of merchandise, produce or commodity.

2. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, shall agree to boycott or threaten to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons for buying from or selling to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons. [Id.]

Art. 7429. [7799] Acts illegal.—Any and all trusts, monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade, as herein defined, are prohibited and declared to be illegal. [Id.]

Art. 7430. [7800] Charters forfeited.—The charter of any corporation chartered under the laws of this State, adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this subdivision may be forfeited at the request of the Attorney General, if in the judgment of the court before whom the litigation is pending, the public interest requires it, provided, the forfeiture of the charter shall be in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7431. [7801] Quo warranto proceedings.—For a violation of any provision of this subdivision or any anti-trust laws of this State, by any corporation, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, when in his judgment the public interest requires it, upon his motion and without leave or order of any judge or court, to institute suit, or quo-warranto proceedings in Travis County, or at the county seat of any county in the State which the Attorney General may select, for the forfeiture of its charter rights and privileges, and the dissolution of its corporate existence, and for such purpose venue is hereby given to each district court in the State of Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1909, p. 281; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7432. [7802] Successors are prohibited from doing business.—When a corporation organized under the laws of this State shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of this subdivision and its charter and franchise has been forfeited, no other corporation to which the defaulting corporation may have transferred its properties and business, or which has assumed the payment of its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7433. [7803] Foreign corporations.—When any foreign corporation is adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this subdivision or any anti-trust law of this State, the Attorney General may bring suit in the district court of Travis County for the purpose of enjoining and forever prohibiting such corporation from doing business in this State, and if in the judgment of the court the public interest requires it, the injunction shall be granted, provided the denial of the right to do business in this State to any foreign corporation adjudged guilty of violating the anti-trust laws shall be in addition to all other penalties prescribed by law. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1923, p. 12.]

Art. 7434. [7804] Quo-warranto proceedings.—The laws governing quo-warranto, shall, except in so far as they conflict herewith, govern and control the proceedings when instituted to forfeit any charter under this title. [Id.]

Art. 7435. [7805] Rights of convicted foreign corporations.—When any foreign corporation has been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this subdivision and its right to do business in this State has been forfeited, as provided in the second preceding article, then, before such corporation or any other corporation to which such corporation may have transferred its properties and business or which has assumed its obligations, shall be permitted to incorporate or do business in Texas, it shall be required to go into the court where the original judgment of forfeiture was entered and show that it has fully obeyed the decree of court forfeiting its charter and has satisfied in full all fines and penalties assessed against it. It shall further show that it has so organized or reorganized its affairs and business that if permitted to do business in Texas, it can and will do so without violating any law of this State; and particularly that it has no connection with any person, firm, or corporation engaged in violating the laws against trusts and monopolies, and is not itself so engaged. No such action shall be instituted within five years from the date of such original conviction. Any corporation which shall be convicted a second time of a violation of any provision of this title shall be forever barred from instituting any such action hereunder. Whereupon and after a hearing had, after the notice to the Attorney General herein provided, the court may modify or reform such judgment so as to permit such corporation to incorporate, or secure a permit and do business in Texas, and such modified or reformed judgment shall be by the clerk of said court certified to the Secretary of State for action by him in conformity therewith. Nothing in this article shall in any manner affect any judgment hereafter rendered by any court against any corporation, its agent, or employes or successors.

Notice of filing of such proceeding and the taking of evidence shall be served upon the Attorney General whose duty it shall be to represent the State in such proceeding. The court may require the production of all books and records and may appoint a commission to take testimony, either within or without the State. The expense of the entire proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees, the amount of which to be determined by the judge trying the case, and the same to be paid to the attorney representing the State, and same to be delivered by such attorney to the State Treasurer and by him deposited to the account of the general revenue fund of the State. The court, after modifying or reforming the judgment, as provided herein, shall retain jurisdiction of the case and at any time thereafter shall, upon showing that said corporation is violating the laws against trusts or monopolies, or has connection with any person, firm, or corporation engaged in violation of the laws against trusts or monopolies, set aside any order or judgment entered, in which event all proceedings based thereon, including all transfers of any and all properties shall be nullified, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, for good cause, to enter proceedings to set aside and nullify the modified judgment of the court and its proceedings, as herein provided. If the Court shall, after the hearing provided for, refuse to modify or reform such judgment, no permit shall be issued by the Secretary of State to such corporation or to any other corporation to which its properties or business have been transferred or which has assumed the payment of its obligations. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1917, p. 63; Acts 1919, p. 48.]

Art. 7436. [7806] Penalties; venue; fees.—Each firm, person, corporation or association of persons, who shall in any manner violate any provision of this subdivision shall, for each day that such violation shall be committed or continued, forfeit and pay a sum of not less than fifty nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of any county in the State of Texas, and venue is hereby given to such district courts. When any such suit shall have been filed in any county and jurisdiction thereof acquired, it shall not be transferred to any other county, except upon change of venue allowed by the court. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General or the district or county attorney under the direction of the Attorney General, to prosecute for the recovery of the same. The fees of the district or county attorney for representing the State in all anti-trust proceedings, or for the collection of penalties for the violation of the anti-trust laws of this State, shall be ten per cent of the amount collected up to and including the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and five per cent of all sums in excess of the first fifty thousand dollars, to be retained by him when collected, and all such fees which he may collect shall be over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill. The provisions of this subdivision as to fees allowed the prosecuting attorney shall not apply to any case in which judgment has heretofore been rendered in any court nor to any monies to be hereafter collected upon such judgment heretofore rendered in any court, whether such judgment or judgments are pending upon appeal or otherwise. The district or county attorney who joins in the institution or prosecution of any suit for the recovery of penalties for a violation of any of the anti-trust laws of this State, who shall, previous to the collection of such penalties, cease to hold office, shall be entitled to an equal division with his successor of the fee collected in said cause. In case of the employment of special counsel by any such district or county attorney, the contract so made shall be binding upon such prosecuting officer making such contract and thereafter retiring from office. In case any suit is compromised before any final judgment in the trial court is had, then the fees herein provided for shall be reduced one-half. [Acts 1903, p. 119; Acts 1909, p. 281.]

Art. 7437. [7807] All agreements in violation of, void.—Any contract or agreement in violation of any provision of this subdivision shall be absolutely void and not enforceable either in law or equity. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 7438. [7808] Actions to have precedence.—All actions authorized and brought under this subdivision on motion of the attorney for the State, shall have precedence of all other business, civil or criminal, except criminal cases where the defendants are in jail. [Id.]

Art. 7439. [7810] Evidence preliminary to prosecutions.—

Upon the application of the Attorney General, or of any of his assistants, or of any district or county attorney, acting under the direction of the Attorney General made to any county judge or any justice of the peace in this State, stating that he has reason to believe that a witness who is to be found in the county in which such county judge or justice of the peace is an officer, knows of a violation of any provision of the preceding subdivision, it shall be the duty of such county judge or justice to have summoned as in criminal cases and to have examined such witness in relation to violations of any provision of said subdivision. The said witness shall be duly sworn; and the county judge, or justice of the peace, shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, and such sworn statement shall be delivered to the attorney upon whose application the witness was summoned. Should the witness summoned as aforesaid fail to appear or to make sworn statements of the facts within his knowledge or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in jail until he shall make a full statement of all the facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. [Acts 1907, p. 221.]

Art. 7440. [7811] Testimony; books and papers.—Whenever any suit shall be instituted, or is pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State by the Attorney General, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction against any corporation, individual, association of individuals, joint stock association or co-partnership, under any law of this State, against trusts, monopolies or conspiracies in restraint of trade, or under any laws of this State regulating or controlling corporations, domestic or foreign, the Attorney General, district or county attorney, as the case may be, may, in addition to the means provided by law, examine and procure the testimony or evidence of witnesses and have books, papers and documents produced as evidence in the manner herein provided. [Acts 1907, p. 16.]

Art. 7441. [7812] Evidence, how taken.—Whenever any action is commenced or is pending as contemplated in the preceding article, by the Attorney General, or by any district or county attorney acting under his direction, and said officer representing the State, either upon the trial of the case, or in preparation for the trial thereof, desires to take the testimony of any officer, director, agent or employe of any foreign or domestic corporation or joint stock association proceeded against, or in case of any co-partnership, any member thereof, or in case of any individual or individuals, either of them, and the person or persons whose testimony is desired resides either within or without said State, the said officer shall file in said court where the action is brought, either in term time or in vacation, or with any special commissioner who may be appointed by the court to take testimony, as provided for in this law, a written statement setting forth the name and residence of each person whose testimony he desires to take, and in a general way shall designate any books, papers or documents he desires produced, and the time when and the place where either within or without this State, he desires such person to appear, and testify or to produce books, papers and documents, if any are desired. Thereupon the judge of said court, or the commissioner, before whom said testimony is being or shall be taken, shall immediately issue written notice, directed to the attorney or attorneys of record in said cause, or the agent, officer, or employe of any corporation or joint stock association, or directed to the attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership, individual or individuals, or to any member of such co-partnership or to any individual or individuals who are defendant or defendants in said action, notifying said attorney or attorneys of record, or officer, agent or employe, aforesaid, or member or members of any co-partnership, or individual, that the testimony of each person named in said notice is desired, and requiring said attorney or attorneys of record, or such officer, agent or employe aforesaid, or member of such co-partnership, or any individual to whom said notice is delivered, or upon whom the same is served, to notify and have said witness or witnesses, whose testimony or evidence it is desired to take, at the time and place named in said notice, before the court or special commissioner named, then and there to testify, and then and there to have and produce such books, papers and documents as are called for, and for any of the purposes herein provided. The court or the commissioner may continue the taking of such evidence from day to day, or adjourn from day to day at the same place until the same has been concluded. [Id.]

Art. 7442. [7813] Judgment on failure to produce books, papers, etc.—Whenever any officer, director, agent or employe of any foreign or domestic corporation, or joint stock association, authorized to do business in this State, or any member of any co-partnership or any individual, against whom suit has been filed, or is pending, as provided for in this title, or the attorney or attorneys of record of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual shall be notified in accordance with the provisions of this title that any of the books, papers or documents belonging to such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual, are wanted before the court, or special commissioner as provided in this title, it shall be the duty of such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership, or individual, as the case may be, to produce and present, or cause to be produced and presented, as required in said notice, all such books, papers and documents belonging to any such defendant, or under such defendant's control, as may be specified in said notice, in court or before said special commissioner, at the time and place so specified. In the event of the failure or refusal of any such corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual, to comply with any of the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the officer representing the State, to strike out all the pleadings, answers, motions, reply or demurrer theretofore or thereafter filed in such case by such defendant corporation, joint stock association, co-partnership or individual and render judgment by default against any such defendant. [Id.]

Art. 7443. [7814] Notice to attorneys on failure to produce.

—Whenever any attorney or attorneys of record, or any agent, officer or employe of any corporation or joint stock association, proceeded against as herein provided, shall be notified that any officer, director, agent or employe of any such corporation or joint stock association is wanted before said court, or any special commissioner, as provided herein, to give his testimony or to produce any such books, papers or documents of said corporation or joint stock association, as the case may be, or if any attorney or attorneys of record of any co-partnership or individual shall be notified that any member or members of said co-partnership or any individual who are defendants in any such action are desired as witnesses, or to produce books, papers or documents before any court, or before any special commissioner appointed to take testimony in said proceeding, it shall be the duty of such attorney or attorneys of record, or any such officer, director, agent or employe to immediately notify any such person of the time and place where he shall attend and give his testimony, or produce any such books, papers or documents, if any are desired. If any person whose testimony is desired, as herein provided, shall fail to appear, or appearing shall refuse to testify, or shall fail to produce whatever books, papers, or documents he or they may be ordered to produce, as before provided, then it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the Attorney General, district or county attorney, on proof of such refusal, failure or dereliction, to strike out the answer, motion, reply, demurrer or other pleading theretofore or thereafter filed in such action, by said delinquent defendant, who has himself, or being a corporation or joint stock association, whose officer, agent, director, or employe, as herein provided, has refused or failed to attend and testify, or to produce all books, papers or documents demanded, which were in the custody or subject to the control of such witness or witnesses, or corporation or joint stock association. Said court shall, in the event of any such refusal or failure, proceed to render judgment by default against any such defendant; provided, that if any such defendant shall file a written sworn denial, in said court, setting forth that such failure or refusal did not arise by reason of any fault or procurement of defendant, the court shall hear evidence upon that issue; and if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that any witness who failed to attend did not do so at the instance or procurement of said defendant, or that the books, papers or documents demanded were not in its possession or control and could not be produced, and that such defendant had complied with all the provisions of this title within such defendant's power to perform, then in that event the answer, motion, reply, demurrer or other pleadings shall not be stricken out or judgment by default taken because of the failure of the witness to attend, who could not be so procured, or because of the failure to produce the books, papers or documents not in the possession or under the control of such defendant; but the court shall have the power to enter such further orders in respect to the matter in controversy as it may deem necessary for the proper administration of justice. In any proceeding had before a special commissioner, as herein provided, the certificate of the special commissioner showing the failure or refusal of any such witness or witnesses to appear and testify, or to produce any books, papers or documents desired, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of such failure, refusal or dereliction on the part of any such defendant, when same is filed in court. Any witness attending any proceeding herein provided for in compliance with any notice or subpoena issued by authority of this law shall receive as compensation one dollar per day for each day of his attendance and four cents per mile traveled, computed upon the shortest practical route. Any claim for fees and mileage shall be filed with the court, or special commissioner, and sworn to by said witness and shall be taxed up as costs, and collected as other costs in civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 7444. [7815] Special commission to take testimony.—The court or presiding judge thereof, in which any proceeding as herein provided is pending, in term time or in vacation, upon application therefor made by the Attorney General, or district or county attorney acting under his direction, shall appoint some well qualified disinterested person as special commissioners to take testimony in any such case, at any point either within or without the State, as designated in such application; or where requested by either party to said cause of action, upon the issues joined in said cause. Such special commissioner shall have full power and authority to issue notices provided for in the third preceding article and to issue subpoenas for witnesses, compelling the attendance of such witnesses, the production of books, papers or documents, to issue attachments, to punish for contempt to the same extent as provided by law for said court, to administer oaths to witnesses, to have all witnesses examined orally, which testimony shall be reduced to writing, and may be taken down by a competent stenographer and transcribed, and shall be signed and sworn to by said witness. The person appointed as special commissioner in any case shall qualify by taking the Constitutional oath of office, and shall, with all convenient speed, certify and return the testimony taken by him to the court appointing him. Said commissioner shall note all objections to the testimony and shall not exclude any testimony. All questions as to the materiality or admissibility of same shall be reserved for the court trying the case. Such testimony so taken may be read in evidence upon the trial of the suit in which same was taken, subject to any legal objections which might be made to same. The compensation of such commissioner shall be his actual expenses in traveling and such fees as are allowed a notary public in taking depositions, to be taxed up as costs and collected as in civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 7445. [7816] Notice to witnesses.—When any notice is issued and served, as provided for in this subdivision, ten full days exclusive of the day of service shall elapse before any witness so requested shall be compelled to appear and testify, or produce any books, papers or documents called for. If the taking of testimony shall not be concluded on the date named in said notice, each witness shall remain in attendance from day to day until same is completed or said witness is finally discharged by the court, or commissioner, as the case may be. Service of said notice and the return thereon may be made by any sheriff or constable of this State, or by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact, and shall be made by delivering to each person or attorney to be served a true copy of such notice. Return of such service shall be indorsed on or attached to the original notice; it shall state when the same was served and the manner of service and upon whom served, and shall be signed. If served by a person other than an officer, it shall be sworn to by the party making the service before some officer authorized by law to take affidavits. [Id.]

Art. 7446. [7810-17] Witnesses exempt from prosecution.—Any person who shall testify before any county judge or justice of the peace as provided for in this title, or any witness for the State who shall testify or produce any books, papers or documents in any proceeding or examination under the provisions of this title, shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing, concerning which he truthfully testifies or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise. [Acts 1907, pp. 16, 221.]

Art. 7447. [7818] Provisions cumulative.—The provisions of this subdivision shall be cumulative of all laws of this State, and shall not be construed as repealing any other law relating to the taking of testimony or evidence; but shall be construed as providing an additional means of securing evidence for the enforcement of the laws, as herein provided. [Acts 1907, p. 16.]

Art. 7448. Board of examiners.—There shall be a board known as the "State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners," to consist of seven qualified veterinarians who shall have resided and practiced veterinary medicine and surgery in this State under a diploma from a legal reputable college of veterinary medicine for more than five years prior to their appointment. The Governor shall biennially appoint said board within ninety days after his inauguration from a list of eligible practitioners of veterinary medicine furnished by the secretary of the State Veterinary Medical Association. A stockholder or a member of the faculty or board of trustees of any veterinary college shall not be eligible for appointment. The term of office of its members shall be two years. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws in harmony with the provisions of this title, for its own government and proceedings for the examination of applicants for the practice of veterinary medicine and veterinary surgery. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 143.]

Art. 7449. Meetings.—At the first meeting of said Board after each biennial appointment the Board shall elect a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice each year at such time and places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants for examination. Special meetings may be held upon a call of four members. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 7450. Record of proceedings.—The board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing the name, age and place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in study in medical school, and the year and school from which degrees were granted; or where the applicant qualifies as having been engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in Texas prior to 1911, the same shall show the age, name and place and duration and residence, and the number of years engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in Texas. Said record shall show whether applicants were rejected on examination or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall transmit an official copy of said register to the Secretary of State for permanent record, certified copies from which with hand and seal of the secretary of said board or the Secretary of State shall be admitted in evidence in all courts. [Id.]

Art. 7451. Practicing without registering.—No person shall practice veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery in any of its branches, including verterinary dentistry, within the limits of this State, unless and until such person shall have complied with the provisions of this title, and it shall further be unlawful for any person to so practice who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resided, his authority for so practicing, as herein prescribed, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth and name of school of veterinary medicine from which he graduated. [Id.]

Art. 7452. Exceptions.—Nothing in this title shall prohibit any person, who has heretofore registered as a veterinary surgeon in the county of his residence according to the provisions of Chapter 76 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-second Legislature who had previous to the year 1911 practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery as his principal occupation for five years in the State of Texas prior to the year 1911, from practicing in the county of his residence only by securing a license from the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners by filing satisfactory evidence of his former compliance with the requirements of said Act of the Thirty-second Legislature, together with an affidavit that he has practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery continuously for five years prior to 1911, in which affidavit he shall state the place where he has so practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery together with his place of residence during said period. Upon the face of such license shall be printed the words "non-graduate". It shall be unlawful for any person to register under the five year practicing clause of this article, but the object of this provision is to permit persons who have heretofore lawfully registered to continue practicing under the five year clause. The fact of such oath shall be endorsed upon the certificate or license as the case may be, but if such person shall remove from such county of residence, he shall comply with all the requirements of this law before he shall be allowed to practice. Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to apply to commission or contract veterinarians in the employ of the United States or the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture in the performance of their duties as such, but shall not engage in private practice, nor to legally qualified veterinarians of other States called in consultation but who do not open offices in this State nor to prohibit the sale by licensed druggists of remedies which they recommend for the cure of diseases of animals. [Id.]

Art. 7453. Register.—Each district clerk shall keep a book of suitable size to be known as the "Veterinary Medical Register" and record therein the name and record of each veterinary practitioner who presents a certificate from the State Board of Veterinary Examiners. The clerk shall receive the sum of one dollar from each person so registered, which shall be his full compensation for all duties required under this title. When any person registered in said book shall die, remove from the county or have his license revoked, it shall be the duty of said clerk to make note of the facts thereof at the bottom of the page containing the record of such person as closing the record. On the first day of January of each year said clerk shall on request of the board, certify to the office of said board a correct list of the veterinarians then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. A copy from said register pertaining to any person, certified by said clerk under the seal of said court, on a certificate issued by said officer certifying that any person named therein has or has not registered in said office as required by this title shall be admitted as evidence in all trial courts. [Id.]

Art. 7454. Reciprocity.—The board may at its discretion arrange for reciprocity in license with the authorities of other States and territories having requirements equal to those established by this law. License may be granted applicants for license under such reciprocity upon payment of twenty dollars.

Art. 7455. Applications for examination.—Each applicant to practice veterinary medicine in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of this title, must successfully pass an examination before the board of veterinary medical examiners. Applicants to be eligible for examination must present satisfactory evidence to the board that they are over twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of bona fide reputable veterinary medical schools. A bona fide veterinary medical school shall be one whose requirements for a degree and whose equipment is such as is at present required for recognition by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture, or the American Veterinary Medical Association. Application for examination must be made in writing under affidavit to the secretary of the board, accompanied by the sum of fifteen dollars. Such applicants shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. In case any applicant because of failure to pass examination be refused a license, such person may be permitted to take a second examination without additional fee. [Id.]

Art. 7456. Compensation.—The fund realized from the aforesaid fees shall be applied first to the payment of the necessary expenses of the board; any remaining funds shall be applied by order of the board to compensating members of the board at ten dollars per day. It shall be unlawful for the board or any member thereof in any manner or for any purpose to charge or obligate the State for the payment of any money and the members of said board shall look alone to the revenue derived from the operation of this title for compensation and for the expenses of conducting said board. [Id.]

Art. 7457. Examinations.—All examinations shall be conducted in writing in such manner as shall be entirely fair and imparital. The applicants to be known by numbers without names or other methods of identification on examination papers by which members of the board may be able to identify such papers until after the applicants have been granted licenses or rejected. Examinations shall be conducted on the scientific branches of veterinary medicine only, and shall include veterinary anatomy, veterinary pathology, chemistry, veterinary obstetrics, veterinary materia medica, veterinary sanitary science, veterinary practice, and veterinary jurisprudence, and veterinary physiology and bacteriology. Upon satisfactory examination under the rules of the board, applicants shall be granted license to practice veterinary medicine. All questions and answers with grades attached shall be preserved for one year and any person rejected shall be entitled to examine his said answers and the grades attached thereto. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions in each of the above branches. All certificates shall be signed by a majority of said board and attested by its seal. [Id.]

Art. 7458. Revocation of license.—The right to practice veterinary medicine in this State may be revoked by any court of competent jurisdiction upon proof of the violation of the law in any regard thereto or for any cause for which the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners is authorized by law to refuse to admit to its examinations as hereinafter provided. The several district and county attorneys of this State shall file and prosecute appropriate proceedings in the name of the State for violations thereof on request of any member of said Board. [Id.]

Art. 7459. Disqualifications.—The State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners may refuse to admit to its examinations or to issue the certificate provided for by this law for any of the following causes: The presentation to the Board of any license, certificate or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination; conviction of crime of the grade of felony, or one which involves moral turpitude; other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public; or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction calculated to endanger the lives of patients. Any applicant who may be refused admittance to examination before said board shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court in the county in which some member of the board resides. [Id.]

Art. 7460. Who are veterinarians.—Any person shall be deemed as practicing veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery or dentistry who professes publically to be a veterinary physician, surgeon, or dentist, or who appends to his name any initials or title implying qualifications to practice veterinary medicine or who shall treat, operate or prescribe for any physical ailment or deformity of any domestic animal for which he shall receive compensation, either direct or indirect, or any county demonstration or farm demonstration agent while in the employment of any county, State or Federal government on a salary for treating or attempting to treat any animal for any disease, ailment or deformity. Nothing in this law shall apply to persons not so employed gratuitously treating animals. The operation known as "Dehorning," "Castrating," or spaying shall not be construed as the practice of veterinary medicine or surgery nor the vaccination of cattle for blackleg as the practice of veterinary medicine. [Id.]

Art. 7461. Certificates and licenses.—On or before March 1st each year, each practicing veterinary physician in the State shall file with the secretary of the board of veterinary examiners his application for renewal of his license to practice. Said application shall be made on forms to be furnished by the board on which shall appear the name, age, and residence of the applicant, and whether practicing under a license issued by the board after examination or whether under the provisions of Chapter 76, Acts 1911, as to the practice of veterinary medicine for five years prior to 1911. All such applications shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar. If any person practicing veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery shall fail for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed veterinarians, and before he may again practice veterinary medicine he shall be required to take the examination before the board, unless he has been prevented from applying for renewal for good cause, of which the board shall be the judge of the sufficiency thereof. Each license issued under this title shall expire on the 1st. day of March of each year, and may be renewed by complying with the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7462. Definitions.—The terms veterinarians, veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery, veterinary physician and veterinary dentist as used in this title shall be construed as synonymous. [Id.]

Art. 7463. Permanent license.—Nothing in this title shall be construed as requiring veterinarians or veterinary surgeons who have successfully passed examination and who have been granted certificate of permanent license by said board, to again submit themselves to examination. Such certificate of permanent license is valid to all intents and purposes, subject to each provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7464. License to be recorded.—Any person receiving a certificate of license from the Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall forthwith have it recorded in the office of the District Clerk of the county in which he makes his residence, and shall display it in his regular place of business. The date of recording shall be recorded thereon, and until the license is recorded the holder shall not exercise any of its rights or privileges therein conferred. Such license shall become invalid if it is not recorded within ninety days from its date of issuance. The district clerk shall be paid his fee for recording such certificate by the holder thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7465. To record license on removal.—Any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed examination and who has been granted license by said board to practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in this State, and has recorded his license as provided for in this title, may go from one county to another county in this State on professional business and may practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in any county in this State to which he may go, without recording or registering said license in any county to which he may go or in which he may practice. Any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed the said examination and duly recorded his license, and who removes his residence from the county in which his license is recorded, shall again record his license in the county to which he removes his residence, in the same manner as the same was recorded in the county from which he removed his residence. Such veterinarian or veterinary surgeon shall have no authority to practice in any county to which he removes his residence until he has so recorded said license. [Id.]

Art. 7467. Property of the State.—The waters of the ordinary flow and underflow and tides of every flowing river or natural stream, of all lakes, bays or arms of the Gulf of Mexico, and the storm, flood or rain waters of every river or natural stream, canyon, ravine, depression or watershed, within the State of Texas, are hereby declared to be the property of the State, and the right to the use thereof may be acquired by appropriation in the manner and for the uses and purposes hereinafter provided, and may be taken or diverted from its natural channel for any of the purposes expressed in this chapter. When an application is made for appropriation of such water for mining purposes, the owner of the land through which the water flows and which is to be appropriated shall have the prior right to appropriate same, and shall be permitted to exercise such right, although such owner may not have made application prior to such application by another, and such owner shall have only ten days after notice of application to appropriate such water in which to exercise his prior right to appropriate, which he shall do by written application filed with the Board of Water Engineers within such time. [Acts 1921, p. 233, Sec. 2.]

Art. 7468. How stored and purpose of.—The waters described in the preceding article may be held or stored by dams, in lakes or reservoirs, or diverted by means of canals, ditches, intakes, pumping plants, or others works, constructed by any person, corporation, association of persons, or irrigation district created under the statutes, for the purpose of irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, the construction and operation of waterworks for cities, and towns, or for stock raising, the waters of any arm or inlet of the Gulf of Mexico, or of any salt water bay, may be changed from salt to sweet or fresh water, and held or stored by dams, dikes, or other structure, and taken or diverted for any of the purposes expressed in this chapter. [Id., p. 234, Sec. 3.]

Art. 7469. Vested private rights.—Nothing in this chapter shall prejudice vested private rights. [Id., p. 234, Sec. 3.]

Art. 7470. Appropriation of water.—The appropriation of water must be for irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, the construction and operation of waterworks for cities and towns, or for stock raising.

Art. 7471. Subordinate irrigation.—So far as practicable and within the limits of the public welfare, the Board of Water Engineers, shall subordinate the appropriation of water for power to the appropriation of water for irrigation. [Acts 1917, p. 212, Sec. 4.]

Art. 7472. Between appropriators.—As between appropriators, the first in time is the first in right. [Id., Sec. 5.]

Art. 7473. Appropriators defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, an appropriator is any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, who has heretofore made beneficial use of any water, in a lawful manner, under the provisions of any Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, prior to the passage of Chapter 171 of the General Laws of the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, and who has filed with the State Board of Water Engineers a record of his appropriation, as required by said Act of the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, or who has heretofore or may hereafter make beneficial use of any water within the limitations of a permit lawfully issued by the Board of Water Engineers, and no appropriation of any water shall be considered as having been perfected, unless such water has been beneficially used for one or more of the purposes named in this chapter, and for the purpose or purposes stated in the original declaration of intention to appropriate such water, or stated in the permit issued by the Board of Water Engineers. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 7474. Forfeiture of rights.—Neither the foregoing article, nor any other provision of this chapter, shall be construed as intended to impair or to work or authorize the forfeiture of, or shall impair or work or authorize the forfeiture of, any rights heretofore or hereafter acquired by any declaration of appropriation or by permit when the appropriator has begun, or begins, the work and development contemplated by his declaration of appropriation, within the time provided in the law under which the same was or is made and has prosecuted and continues to prosecute the same with all reasonable diligence toward completion; but if any appropriator under this chapter, or other law of this State, has failed or fails to begin the work and development contemplated by his declaration of appropriation within the time provided in the law under which the same was or is made, or has failed or fails, to prosecute the same with all reasonable diligence toward completion, his right to so much water as has not been applied, or is not applied to beneficial use, as defined in this chapter, shall be considered as, and shall be, forfeited, and such water shall be subject to new appropriation under this chapter; provided, that no such rights shall be declared forfeited until the person or persons who are the owners of the land and whose rights are claimed to have been forfeited, shall first be given due notice and hearing, as required in Article 7519 of this chapter; and, provided further, that if a permit for the use of such water has been issued, or is issued, under this Act, or under the Act approved April the 9th, 1913, such water shall not be subject to new appropriation until the permit is cancelled by the Board in whole, or in part, in accordance with the provisions of Article 7519 of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 7475. Water divisions.—The State shall be, and is hereby, divided into three water divisions, as follows:

All that portion of the State of Texas lying north of the thirtieth parallel, north latitude, and west of the one hundredth meridian, west longitude, shall constitute water division No. 1.

All that portion of the State of Texas lying east of the ninety-seventh meridian, west longitude, and south of the thirtieth parallel north latitude, together with all that portion lying north of the thirtieth parallel north latitude and east of the one hundredth meridian west longitude, shall constitute water division No. 2.

All that portion of the State of Texas not embraced in water division No. 1 or water division No. 2, as heretofore defined, shall constitute water division No. 3. [Id. p. 213, Sec. 8.]

Art. 7476. Beneficial use defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, beneficial use shall be held to mean the use of such a quantity of water, when reasonable intelligence and reasonable diligence are exercised in its application for a lawful purpose, as is economically necessary for that purpose. [Id. Sec. 9.]

Art. 7477. Board continued in office.—The Board of Water Engineers, created and constituted by the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, Chapter 171, General Laws, approved April 9, 1913, is hereby continued, and the members constituting such board shall continue in office for the respective terms for which they were appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law. [Id. Sec. 10.]

Art. 7478. Board appointment of.—Said Board shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be appointed from each of the respective water divisions described in Article 7475. The members of such board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advise and consent of the Senate, and shall each hold office for a term of six years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. [Id.]

Art. 7479. Qualification.—No person shall be appointed a member of the Board who has not such technical knowledge and such practical experience and skill as shall fit him for the duties of the office. [Id.]

Art. 7480. Bond.—Each member of such Board shall enter into bond, to be approved by the Governor, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with not less than two personal sureties, or with one surety or guaranty company authorized to do business in this State, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and for the delivery to his successor, or other officer appointed by the Governor to receive same, all moneys, books, and other property belonging to the State then in his hands, or under his control, or with which he may be legally chargeable as a member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 7481. Governor may remove.—The Governor shall have power to remove, at any time, for cause, any member of the State Board of Water Engineers, after such member shall have been given a full, free and public hearing by the Governor. The Governor shall fill all vacancies by appointment, with the advice and consent of the Senate. [Id.]

Art. 7482. Salary.—Each member of such Board shall receive a salary of thirty-six hundred dollars per annum, payable in monthly installments, upon the presentation of salary vouchers, approved by the Board. [Id. p. 214, Sec. 11.]

Art. 7483. Meet at Austin.—The members appointed shall meet at Austin and organize and elect one of their number chairman of said Board. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 7484. Majority constitute quorum.—A majority of said Board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. [Id.]

Art. 7485. Board appoint secretary.—Said Board shall appoint a secretary, who shall be thoroughly conversant with irrigation law, at a salary of not more than two thousand dollars per annum, and who shall execute a bond in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, to be approved by the Board, payable to the Board of Water Engineers. [Id.]

Art. 7486. Board appoint employees.—The Board may appoint such experts and employees as may be necessary to perform any duty that may be required of them by this chapter, and fix their compensation. [Id.]

Art. 7487. Duty of secretary.—The secretary shall keep full and accurate minutes of all transactions and proceedings of said Board, and perform such duties as may be required by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 7488. Power of Board.—The Board shall have power to make all needful rules for its government and proceedings; and shall have a seal, the form of which it shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 7489. Office furnished.—The Board shall be furnished with an office at Austin, with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies, etc., at the expense of the State, to be paid for on the order of the board. [Id.]

Art. 7490. Traveling expenses.—The members, secretary, experts and employees of the Board shall be entitled to receive from the State their necessary traveling expenses while traveling on the business of the board, upon an itemized statement, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense and approved by the Board. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 7491. Board hold sessions, where.—The Board may hold sessions at any place in this State, when deemed necessary to facilitate the discharge of its duties. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 7492. Application in writing.—Every person, association of persons, corporation water improvement or irrigation district, who shall, after this Act shall take effect, desire to acquire the right to appropriate, for the purposes stated in this chapter, unappropriated water of the State, shall, before commencing the construction, enlargement or extension of any dam, lake, reservoirs of other storage work, or any ditch, canal, intake, headgate, pumping plant of other distributing work, or performing any work in connection with the storage, taking or diversion of water, make an application in writing to the Board for a permit to make such appropriation, storage or diversion. [Id., part Sec. 15.]

Art. 7493. Description of.—Such application shall be in writing and sworn to; shall set forth the name and post-office address of the applicant; the source of water supply; the nature and purposes of the proposed use; the location and description of the proposed dam, lake, reservoir, headgate, intake, pumping plant, ditch, canal or other work; the time within which it is proposed to begin construction, and the time required for the application of the water to the proposed use; and, if such proposed use is for irrigation, a description of the lands proposed to be irrigated, and, as near as may be, the total acreage thereof. [Id., part Sec. 15.]

Art. 7494. Map to be furnished.—Such application shall be accompanied by a map or plat drawn on tracing linen, on a scale not less than one inch equals two thousand feet, showing substantially the location and extent of the proposed work; the location of the headgate, intake, pumping plant or point of diversion by course and distance from permanent natural objects or land marks; the location of the main ditch or canal and of the laterals or branches thereof; the course of the river, stream or other source of water supply; the position and area of all lakes, reservoirs or basins intended to be used or created, and the water line thereof, the intersection with all other ditches, canals, laterals, lakes or reservoirs the proposed work will touch or intersect, or with which connection will be made; and shall represent in ink of different color from that used to represent the proposed works, the location of all ditches, canals, laterals, reservoirs, lakes, dams, or other work of like character then existing on the ground, with a designation of the name of the owner thereof. Such map or plat shall contain the name of the proposed work or enterprise; the name or names of the applicants, and a certificate of the surveyor, giving the date of his survey, his name and post-office address, and also the date of the application which it accompanies. [Id., part Sec. 15.]

Art. 7495. Permit for alteration, etc.—Nothing in this Act shall be held or construed to require the filing of an application or procuring of any permit for the alteration, enlargement, extension or addition to any canal, ditch or other work that does not contemplate, or will not result in, an increased appropriation, or the use of a larger volume of water, but before making any such alteration, enlargement, extension or addition, the person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district desiring to make same, shall file with the Board of Water Engineers a detailed statement and plan, for the information of the board, of the work proposed to be done. [Id., part Sec. 15.]

Art. 7496. Priority of date.—Any person or association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who desires to investigate the feasibility of any project having for its object the creation of a reservoir for the impounding of flood waters in quantities greater than five thousand acre-feet, and which, if constructed, will probably result in the use of five thousand acre-feet per annum, or more, and who has an organized engineering force adequate to expeditiously proceed with such investigation, shall, upon the presentation of such facts, duly verified, to the Board of Water Engineers, describing the locality of such proposed reservoir, have priority date from the time of the filing of such presentation, should a permit be granted thereafter, for the purposes described in such presentation; provided, however, that nothing in this article or in this chapter shall affect or restrict the right of any person or persons, owning lands in this State, to construct on his own property any dam or reservoir which would impound or contain less than five hundred acre-feet of water. [Id., p. 215, Sec. 16.]

Art. 7497. Fee.—Upon the filing of such presentation, a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars shall be paid to the Board for the use of the State, as provided for other fees collected under this Act; no part of which shall be returned, except as hereinafter provided. The fee shall be held by the Board for a period of twelve months from the date of its receipt, unless disposed of as hereinafter provided. [Id., Sec. 17.]

Art. 7498. File application for.—Any person or association of persons, corporation, water improvement, or irrigation district, who has complied with the provisions of Articles 7496 and 7497, and who shall, within twelve months from the date of such presentation, file an application for a permit to store and use any of the flood waters of this State, in volumes of five thousand acre-feet, or more, for the objects and purposes, and at the locality set out in the presentation described in Articles 7496 and 7497, shall when paying the fees described in Article 7532, be credited with the two hundred and fifty dollars paid in accordance with the provisions of Article 7497. [Id., p. 216, Sec. 18.]

Art. 7499. May return fee.—If within twelve months after the filing of the presentation of facts described in Article 7496, such relator shall elect not to apply for a permit, and shall file the results of his or its investigation in intelligible form, with the Board, the Board may, at its option, return, all or any part of said two hundred and fifty dollars, if in its judgment such information will be of equivalent value to the State. [Id., Sec. 19.]

Art. 7500. Board requirements.—If the proposed taking or diversion of water for irrigation is of greater volume than nine cubic feet per second of time, the Board may require the following, in addition:

A continuous longitudinal profile; cross sections of the proposed channel; and the detail plans and specifications of any structural work of whatever character entering into the proposed project, on such scales and with such definition as the board may deem necessary or expedient.

The Board may also require the filing of a copy of the engineer's field notes of any survey of such lake or reservoir, and all plans and specifications, where the project calls for a dam over six feet in height, either for the purpose of diversion or storage; and no work on such project shall proceed until approval of such plans is obtained.

The Board may, in case the applicant is an incorporated company, require the filing of a certified copy of the applicant's articles of incorporation, together with a statement of the names and addresses of its directors and officers; and the amount of its authorized and of its paid up capital stock.

If the applicant be other than an incorporated company, the board may require the filing of a sworn statement, showing the names and addresses of the person or persons interested in same and the extent of such interest and of the financial condition of each such person. [Id., Sec. 20.]

Art. 7501. Fees paid.—Every such application shall be accompanied by the fees hereinafter provided, and shall not be filed or considered until such fees are paid. [Id.]

Art. 7502. Drainage.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Board, the successful efficient operation of any existing or proposed irrigation system will, or may, be adversely affected by lack of adequate facilities incident to the work proposed to be done by the applicant or applicants for a permit to appropriate public waters, the said applicant or applicants shall submit drainage plans adequate, in the opinion of the board, to guard against any present or future injury which the proposed works may entail. [Id., Sec. 21.]

Art. 7503. May reject application.—Upon the filing of such application, accompanied by the data and fees hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the Board to make a preliminary examination thereof and, if it appear that there is no unappropriated water in the source of supply, or that, for other reasons, the proposed appropriation shall not be allowed, the Board may thereupon reject such application; in which case, if the applicant shall elect not to proceed further, the Board may return to such applicant any part of the fees accompanying such application. [Id., p. 217, Sec. 22.]

Art. 7504. Decision of Board.—The Board shall determine whether the application, maps, plats, contours, plans, profiles and statements accompanying same are in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and with the regulations of the Board, and may require the amendment therefore. [Id. Sec. 22.]

Art. 7505. Where recorded.—All applications filed with the Board shall be recorded in a well bound book kept for that purpose in the office of said Board, and shall be indexed alphabetically in the name of the applicant, of the stream or source from which such appropriation is sought to be made, and the county in which appropriation is sought to be made. [Id., Sec. 23.]

Art. 7506. Board to reject applications.—It shall be the duty of the Board to reject all applications and refuse to issue the permit asked for if there is no unappropriated water in the source of supply; or if the proposed use conflicts with existing water rights, or is detrimental to the public welfare. [Id., Sec. 24.]

Art. 7507. Board to approve applications.—It shall be the duty of the Board to approve all applications and issue the permit asked for if such application is made in proper form in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of said Board; and is accompanied by the fees required in this chapter; and if the proposed appropriation contemplates the application of water to any of the uses and purposes provided for in this chapter, and does not impair existing water rights, or vested riparian rights and is not detrimental to the public welfare. [Id.]

Art. 7508. Conditions of application.—Before the Board shall approve any such application and issue any such permit, notice of such application shall be given substantially in the following manner:

Such notice shall be in writing; shall state the name of the applicant and his residence; the date of the filing of the application in the office of the Board; the purpose and extent of the proposed appropriation of water; the source of supply; the place at which the water is to be stored, or to be taken or diverted from the source of supply; together with such additional information as the board may deem necessary. If the proposed use is for irrigation, such notice shall contain a general description of the location and the area of the land to be irrigated. Such notice shall also state the time and place when and where such application will be heard by the Board. [Id. Sec. 25.]

Art. 7509. Publication of.—Such notice shall be published once in each week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date stated in such notice for the hearing of such application in some newspaper having a general circulation in that section of the State in which the source of water is located. In addition to such publication, a copy of such notice shall be transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, addressed to each claimant or appropriator of water from such source of water supply, the record of whose claim or appropriation has been filed in the office of the Board. Such notice shall be mailed not less than twenty days before the date set for the hearing.

Art. 7510. Hearing of application.—At the time and place stated in the notice, the Board shall sit to hear such application. Any person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district may appear, in person or by attorney, and enter appearance in writing in said matter and present objection to the issuance of permit. The Board may receive evidence, orally or by affidavit, in support of or in opposition to the issuance of such permit; and may also hear arguments. It shall have power to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place, and after full hearing to render decision in writing approving or rejecting such application. Such application may be approved or rejected in whole or in part. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Board from rejecting any application in whole without the issuance of the notice herein required. [Id. p. 218, Sec. 27.]

Art. 7511. Cost of publication.—The cost of publication of the notice herein required and the postage for mailing thereof shall, in each case be paid by the applicant. [Id. Sec. 28.]

Art. 7512. Attorney General shall represent board.—In all litigation to which the Board may be a party, the Attorney General shall represent the Board. [Id. Sec. 29.]

Art. 7513. Duty of clerk.—When any court of record in this State shall render any judgment, order or decree, affecting in any manner the title to any water right, claim, appropriation or irrigation works, or any matter over which the Board of Water Engineers is given supervision under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to forthwith transmit to the office of the Board a certified copy of such judgment, order or decree. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 7514. Authority to inspect.—The Board, or any one employed by the Board for that purpose, shall have at all times authority to inspect any impounding, diversion or distribution works during construction, to determine whether or not they are being constructed in a safe and approved manner, and in accordance with the order of the Board theretofore issued. [Id. Sec. 31.]

Art. 7515. Contents of permit.—Every permit issued by the Board, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be in writing, attested by the seal of said Board and shall contain substantially the following: The name of the applicant to whom issued; the date of the issuance thereof; the date of the filing of the original application therefor in the office of the Board; the use or purpose for which the appropriation of water is to be made; the amount or volume of water authorized to be appropriated; a general description of the source of supply from which the appropriation is proposed to be made; and, if such appropriation is for irrigation, a description and statement of the approximate area of the lands to be irrigated; together with such other data and information as the Board may prescribe. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 7516. Transmitted to county clerk.—Upon the issuance of such permit, same shall be transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, to the county clerk of the county in which the appropriation is to be made. [Id.]

Art. 7517. Recording fee.—Upon receipt of a recording fee of one dollar, to be paid by the applicant, such clerk shall file and record the same in a well bound book provided and kept for that purpose only, and to index the same alphabetically under the name of the applicant and of the stream or source of water supply, and, thereupon, to deliver such permit, upon demand, to the applicant. [Id.]

Art. 7518. Constructive notice.—Such permit, when thus filed in the office of the county clerk, shall be constructive notice of the filing of the application with the Board; of the issuance of the permit; and of all the rights arising thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 7519. Time required.—Within ninety days after the date of issuance of the permit provided for in this chapter, the applicant seeking to appropriate water thereunder shall begin actual construction of the proposed ditch, canal, dam, lake, reservoir, or other work, and shall prosecute the work thereon diligently and continuously to completion; provided, that the Board may, by an order entered of record, extend the time for beginning the actual construction of such work for a period not to exceed twelve months from the date of issuance of such permit; and, further provided, that if any applicant shall fail to comply with the requirements of this article, he, they or it, shall thereby forfeit all rights under such permit. If any applicant to whom a permit is issued, or one owning prior appropriation, shall, after beginning the actual construction work, as provided in this article, fail to thereafter prosecute the same diligently and continuously to completion the Board may, after thirty days notice to the applicant or owner of such appropriation, and giving him an opportunity to be heard, by an order entered of record, revoke and cancel such permit or appropriation in whole or in part. Any party affected by such order shall have the right of appeal to the district court, as in this chapter provided. A certified copy of such order shall be forthwith transmitted by the secretary of the Board, by registered mail, to the clerk of the county in which such permit is recorded and which order shall be recorded by said county clerk. [Id. p. 219, Sec. 33.]

Art. 7520. Conviction.—Any person, association or persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employe or representative of any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, who shall willfully take, divert or appropriate any of the water of this State, or the use of such water, for any purpose, without first complying with all the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and each day that such taking, diversion or appropriation of water shall continue shall constitute a separate offense, and the possession of such water, except when the right to its use is acquired in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be prima facie proof of the guilt of the person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation district, or the agent, officer, employe or representatives of any person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district. [Id. Sec. 34.]

Art. 7521. Liable.—In addition to the punishment prescribed in the last preceding article, any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employee or representative of any such persons, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who shall wilfully take, divert or appropriate water of the State, or the use of such water, without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars per day for each and every day that such taking, diversion, appropriation, or use may be made. [Id. Sec. 35.]

Art. 7522. Suit.—The State may recover such penalties by suit brought for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 7523. Date.—When any permit is issued under the provisions of this chapter, the priority of the appropriation of water, or the claimant's right to the use of such water, shall date from the date of the filing of the original application in the office of the Board. [Id. p. 220, Sec. 36.]

Art. 7524. Measurements and calculations.—It shall be the duty of the Board to make or cause to be made measurements and calculations of the flow of streams from which water may be appropriated, as provided in this chapter, commencing such work in those streams most used for irrigation or other beneficial uses; to collect data and make surveys; to determine the most suitable location for constructing works to utilize the waters of the State; to ascertain the location and area of the lands best suited for irrigation; to examine and survey reservoir sites; and wherever practicable, to make estimates of the cost of proposed irrigation works, and the improvements of reservoir sites. [Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 7525. Board conversant.—It shall be the duty of the board to make itself conversant with the water courses of the State and of the needs of the State concerning irrigation matters, and the storage and conservation of the waters of the State for other purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7526. Biennial reports of board.—The Board shall make biennial reports in writing to the Governor, in which shall be included the data and information collected by the Board, and in which shall be included such suggestions as to the amendment of existing laws and the enactment of new laws as the information and experience of the Board may suggest. [Id.]

Art. 7527. Proper records.—The board shall keep in its office full and proper records of its work, observations and calculations, all of which shall be the property of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7528. Quantity of water. It shall be the duty of the Board to ascertain the quantity of water, and to determine the proper quantities required for irrigation and other lawful uses in the several sections of the State, in order to secure the highest beneficial use of such water, such work to be first conducted in those sections where, in the judgment of the Board, the greatest necessity exists. [Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 7529. Board to condemn.—Full authority is lodged with the Board, on its own initiative, to condemn existing works, the existence or operation of which may, in the judgment of the Board, become a public menace or dangerous to life and property; provided that, in all cases of proposed condemnation, the party or parties at interest shall be notified of such contemplated action, and may appear at a time stated and be heard. [Id. Sec. 39.]

Art. 7530. Right of appeal.—In such cases the party or parties whose works may be condemned, shall have the right of appeal from the decision of the Board, as provided herein in all other cases of appeal. [Id.]

Art. 7531. Board to enforce rules, etc.—The Board may adopt, promulgate and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper for the discharge of the duties incumbent upon it under the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 40.]

Art. 7532. Board to charge and collect fees.—The Board shall charge and collect, for the benefit of the State, the following fees:

For filing each and every application for any purpose, a fee of seven and one-half dollars; and, in addition thereto;

For filing each and every application for storage water, except surface waters, a fee of five dollars, provided that if the application shall contemplate and propose the storage of water in excess of five acre-feet, and additional fee of twenty-five cents shall be charged for each additional acre-foot in excess of five, up to and including one hundred acre-feet; for each additional one hundred acre-feet, or fraction thereof in excess of one hundred, and additional fee of ten dollars, up to and including one thousand acre-feet; and for each additional thousand acre-feet, above one thousand, and additional fee of twenty-five dollars; provided that no fee, based on storage, shall be charged for any proposed or contemplated storage of less than five acre-feet.

For filing each application contemplating and proposing the taking or diversion of water for the purpose of irrigation, ten cents for each and every acre proposed to be irrigated.

For filing each application proposed and contemplating the use of water for the purpose of developing hydraulic power, a fee of two cents for each foot of head for each cubic foot of water per second it is proposed to use.

For filing each application contemplating and proposing the taking, diversion, or use of flowing water for any other purpose than storage, irrigation of land, or the development of hydraulic power, as hereinbefore provided, five cents for each acre-foot of water consumed per annum.

Provided, that, in estimating the aforesaid additional fees on a proposed appropriation contemplating the use of water or two or more of the aforesaid purposes, the fees charged shall be cumulative, and a charge made for each use, based on the quantity proposed for each separate use.

For the filing of each and every exhibit, map, affidavit, or other paper authorized to be filed in the office of the Board of Water Engineers, a filing fee of twenty-five cents.

For recording each and every paper authorized or required to be recorded in the records of the office of the Board, a fee of one dollar, and, in addition thereto, a fee of fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words, in excess of two hundred.

For making and certifying each and every copy of an instrument or paper authorized to be certified under the seal of the board a fee of one dollar, and in addition thereto, a fee of fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words, including the certificate.

For making and certifying copies of any map or blue print thereof, a fee of one dollar, and, in, addition thereto, a fee of seventy-five cents for each hour or fraction thereof necessarily employed by the draughtsman in making such copy.

For filing each application for an extension of time within which to begin actual construction or to complete work, a fee equal to one-half of the original application fees in such case; provided that, if it be simultaneously sought to extend both the time for the beginning and completion of any work theretofore authorized, but one fee shall be charged; and, in addition thereto, the usual fees for filing and recording such applications. [Id. p. 221, Sec. 41.]

Art. 7533. Fees and charges deposited.—The fees and charges collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be immediately deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue and full and detailed verified monthly and annual reports of all such receipts, as well as of the expenditures of the said Board, shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts. [Id.]

Art. 7534. Fee limit.—That the fees to be paid for filing in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers of applications for permits for the storage, diversion and use of water shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars for any one such application, permit or project. In case of all such applications and permits heretofore filed and granted, on which partial payment of fees have been made, as provided by law, the balance to be paid thereon shall be the difference between the amount paid and the said maximum sum of fifteen hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 281, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7535. Excess fees paid, how.—The fees provided by law to be paid to the State Board of Water Engineers upon applications for permits for the storage, diversion and use of water for any and all statutory purposes when such fees exceed one thousand dollars shall be paid as follows:

One-tenth shall be paid when the application is filed.

One-tenth shall be paid within thirty days after notice is mailed the applicant that the permit is granted. The balance shall be paid before the use of water is commenced under the permit; and a failure to so pay same shall annul such permit. [Acts 3rd C. S., 1920, p. 87, Sec. 2.]

Art. 7536. State board to fix time.—Whenever the State Board of Water Engineers shall grant a permit for the use of water, which use contemplates the construction of a storage reservoir, they shall fix the time actual construction work shall be commenced thereon, not to exceed two years from the granting of such permit. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 7537. Time limit.—Such time limit may be extended by order of said board upon payment of such fees as the Board may fix, not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 7538. Measurement of flowing water.—A cubic foot of water per second of time shall be the standard unit for the measurement of flowing water for the purpose of distributing water for beneficial uses. [Acts 1917, p. 222, Sec. 42.]

Art. 7539. Standard unit.—The Standard unit for volume of static water shall be the acre-foot. [Id.]

Art. 7540. Quantity of water. A cubit foot per second of time is the quantity of water that will pass through an area of one square foot in one second, when flowing at an average velocity of one foot per second. [Id. Sec. 43.]

Art. 7541. Acre foot defined.—An acre foot is the quantity of water required to cover one acre one foot deep. [Id.]

Art. 7542. Water right defined.—A water right is the right to use the water of the State when such use has been acquired by the application for water under the statutes of this State and for the purposes stated in this chapter. Such use shall be the basis, the measure and the limit to the right to use water of the State at all times, not to exceeding in any case the limit of volume to which the user is entitled and the volume which is necessarily required and can be beneficially used for irrigation or other authorized uses. [Id. Sec. 44.]

Art. 7543. Use of water limited.—Rights to the use of water acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall be limited and restricted to so much thereof as may be necessarily required when beneficially used for the purposes stated in this chapter, irrespective of the capacity of the ditch or other works, and all the water not so applied shall not be considered as appropriated. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 7544. Appropriation forfeited.—Any appropriation or use of water heretofore made under any statute of this State, or hereafter made under the provisions of this chapter, which shall be wilfully abandoned during any three successive years, shall be forfeited and the water formerly so used or appropriated shall be again subject to appropriation for the purposes stated in this Act. [Id. Sec. 46.]

Art. 7545. Right to appropriate, when.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who may have heretofore constructed, or who may hereafter construct, any dam or dams across any river, or other stream, for the purpose of storing water for any of the purposes set forth in Article 7468 of this chapter, shall have the right to appropriate the ordinary flow, underflow, or the storm flood or rain waters of such stream, in amounts and quantities equal to the holding capacity of such dam or dams, by making application as provided in Articles 7493 and 7494 of this chapter, and such application shall have priority over all other applications; and, provided, that any such person association of persons, corporations or irrigation district thus impounding water in any river, channel, lake or reservoir and appropriating the same shall have the right to collect from any riparian owner who shall divert such impounded water from said reservoir by pumping or otherwise a reasonable sum for the water so diverted, such sum to be determined by the Board of Water Engineers, based upon the benefits accruing to such riparian owner by reason of the construction of such dam, lake, or reservoir and the impounding of such waters therein, provided the owner of such dam, lake or reservoir and the owner of riparian rights using such water cannot agree upon the price to be paid therefor. [Id. Sec. 47.]

Art. 7546. Authority of corporations.—All such corporations, whether chartered under the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 73, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1911, or under the general corporation laws of the State of Texas, shall have full power and authority to make contracts for the sale of permanent water rights, to any person, corporation, association of persons, or irrigation district, and to have the same secured by a lien on the lands, or otherwise, and to lease, rent or otherwise dispose of the water controlled by such corporation, for such price as may be agreed upon, and in addition to the lien on the crops hereinafter provided for, such lease or rental contract may be secured by lien on land or otherwise; provided, that such water may be sold, leased, rented or otherwise disposed of to any such person, corporation, association of persons or irrigation district, or to the water tenants thereof, who have heretofore appropriated and complied with the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 73, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1911, regardless of whether or not the water is furnished to lands adjacent or contiguous to the canals of such corporation, association of persons or irrigation district so furnishing water; provided further that any person, corporation, association of persons or irrigation district, shall be under no obligation during the period that water is so taken and utilized, to operate its or their pumping plant, headgate, or intake and failure to so operate its pumping plant, headgate, or intake during such period, shall not be deemed an abandonment or waiver, of his, their or its rights in such pumping plant, headgate, intake and source of supply.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect or alter the existing relative rights of priority of the various appropriators whose supply is derived from the same source. [Id. p. 223, Sec. 48.]

Art. 7547. Who may enter into contract.—Any person association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district having in possession and control storm, flood or rain waters conserved or stored, under the provisions of this chapter, may enter into contract to supply same to any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, having the right to acquire such use; provided that the price and terms of such contract shall be just and reasonable and without discrimination and subject to the same revision and control as hereinafter provided for other water rates and charges. If any person shall use such stored or conserved water without first entering into contract with the party having stored or conserved the same, such user shall pay for the use thereof such charge or rental as the Board shall find to be just and reasonable, and subject to revision by the court, as herein provided for other water rates and charges. [Id. Sec. 49.]

Art. 7548. When lawful to use banks and beds.—For the purpose of conveying and delivering storm, flood or rain water from the place of storage to the place of use, as provided in the preceding article, it shall be lawful for any person, association of persons, corporations, water improvement or irrigation district, to use the banks and beds of any flowing natural stream within this State, under and in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Water Engineers, and such board shall prescribe rules and regulations for such purpose. No person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who has not acquired the right to the use of such conserved or stored waters, as provided in the last preceding article, shall take, use or divert same. [Id. p. 224, Sec. 50.]

Art. 7549. Wilful interference with the passage of.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or the agent, officer, employee or representative of any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who shall wilfully interfere with the passage of, or take, divert or appropriate such conserved or stored water during the passage and delivery thereof, as provided in the last two preceding articles, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each and every day that such taking, diversion or appropriation may be made shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. Sec. 52.]

Art. 7550. Duty of district court.—It shall be the duty of the district court, or the judge thereof, of any judicial district in or through which the conserved or stored waters described in the last three preceding articles may pass, at the suit of any party having an interest therein upon it being made to appear that any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or any agent, officer, employee, or representative thereof, is interfering with, or threatening or about to interfere with the passage, or is taking, diverting, appropriating, or threatening, or about to take, divert, or appropriate, any conserved or stored waters, in violation of the provisions of the last three preceding articles, to issue such writ or writs of injunction, mandamus, or other process, as may be proper or necessary to prevent such wrongful acts. [Id. Sec. 52.]

Art. 7551. To construct gates.—Persons, associations of persons, corporations or districts, operating under the statutes of Texas relating to irrigation, are hereby authorized (subject to the conditions and regulations which may be required or prescribed by the authorities of the United States Government in respect to navigation), to construct such gates or breakwaters, dams or dikes, with gates, as may be required in any waters wholly in the State of Texas where gulf tides ebb and flow, to prevent the pollution of the fresh water of any stream, river or bayou, through ebb and flow of salt tides from the Gulf of Mexico and to conserve such fresh water in a condition fit for irrigation; provided that such work shall, in every case, be done so as not to obstruct navigation by any vessels operated on such waterway, and provided that, in every case where gates are required, to avoid obstruction of navigation, such persons, association, corporation or district responsible for the construction, shall at all times keep a competent person at such gates to operate same when required for purposes of navigation; provided further that such dam, dike or breakwater hereby authorized shall not be placed at any point in such waters, except where the gulf tides ebb and flow, and not so as to obstruct the flow of fresh water to any appropriator or riparian owner below, on the same stream. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 64, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7552. Purpose of corporations.—Corporations may be formed and chartered, under the provisions of this chapter, and of the general corporation laws of the State of Texas, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, laterals, dams, reservoirs, lakes and wells, and of conserving, storing, conducting and transferring water to all persons entitled to the use of the same for irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, to cities and towns for waterworks, and for stock raising. [Acts 1917, p. 224, Sec. 53.]

Art. 7553. Authority of corporations.—All such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts for the sale of permanent water rights, and to have the same secured by liens on the land, or otherwise, and to lease, rent, or otherwise dispose of the water controlled by such corporation, for such time as may be agreed upon and, in addition to the lien on the crops hereinafter provided for, the lease or rental contract may be secured by a lien on the land, or otherwise.

Provided, any contract for the sale of water rights shall be voidable, unless the seller thereof has complied with the provisions of the statute relating to certified filings, or shall have obtained a permit from the Board of Water Engineers for the purposes and uses proposed to be made by the buyer of such water rights it is proposed to deliver. [Id part Sec. 54.]

Art. 7554. Deemed guilty, when.—Any person, association of persons, or corporation who sells or offers for sale any permanent water right, without having complied with the provisions of the statute relating to certified filings, or without having obtained a permit from the Board of Water Engineers for the uses and purposes purporting to be conveyed by such permanent water right, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in the county jail for any period of time not to exceed one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. part Sec. 54.]

Art. 7555. Possessory right.—All persons who own or hold a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any dam, reservoir, canal, ditch, flume or lateral, constructed and maintained under the provisions of this chapter, and who shall have secured a right to the use of water in said canal, ditch, flume, lateral, reservoir, dam or lake, shall be entitled to be supplied from such canal, ditch, flume, lateral, dam, reservoir or lake with water for irrigation of such land, and for mining, milling, manufacturing, development of power, and stockraising, in accordance with the terms of his or their contract. [Id. Sec. 55.]

Art. 7556. Failure to agree upon price.—If the person, association of persons, or corporation owning or controlling such water, and the person who owns or holds a possessory right or title to land adjoining or contiguous to any canal, ditch, flume or lateral, lake or reservoir, constructed or maintained under the provisions of this chapter, fail to agree upon a price for a permanent water right, or for the use or rental of the necessary water to irrigate the land of such person, or for mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, or stock raising, such person, association of persons, or corporation shall, nevertheless, if he, they or it, have or control any water not contracted to others, furnish the necessary water to such person to irrigate his lands or for mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power or stock raising, at such prices as shall be reasonable and just, and without discrimination. [Id. Sec. 56.]

Art. 7557. Division in case of shortage.—In case of shortage of water from drouth, accident or other cause, all waters to be distributed shall be divided among all customers pro rata, according to the amount he or they may be entitled to, to the end that all shall suffer alike, and preference be given none. [Id. Sec. 57.]

Art. 7558. Prior vested right.—Nothing in the preceding article contained shall be held to preclude any such person, association of persons, or corporation owning or controlling such water from supplying the same to any person having a prior vested right thereto under the laws of this State. [Id. Sec. 57.]

Art. 7559. Permanent water right defined.—The permanent water right shall be an easement to the land and pass with the title thereto; the owner thereof shall be entitled to the use of the water upon the terms provided in his or their contract with such person, association of persons or corporation, or, in case no contract is entered into, then at just and reasonable prices and without discrimination. Any instrument of writing conveying a permanent water right shall be admitted to record in the same manner as other instruments relating to the conveyance of land. [Id. p. 226, Sec. 58.]

Art. 7560. Board to make preliminary investigation.—If any person entitled to receive or use water from any canal, ditch, flume, lateral, dam, reservoir or lake, or from any conserved or stored supply, shall present to the board his petition in writing, showing that the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, owning or controlling such water, has a supply of water not contracted to others and available for his use, and fails or refuses to supply such water to him, or that the price or rental demanded therefor is not reasonable and just, or is discriminatory; or that the complainant is entitled to receive or use such water, and is willing and able to pay a just and reasonable price therefor, and shall accompany such petition with a deposit of twenty-five dollars, it shall be the duty of the Board to make a preliminary investigation of such complaint and determine whether there is probable ground therefor. If said Board shall determine that no probable ground exists for such complaint, same shall be dismissed, and the deposit may, at the discretion of the Board, be returned to the complainant or paid into the State Treasury. [Id. Sec. 59.]

Art. 7561. Board to set date.—If the Board shall determine that probable grounds exist for such complaint, it shall enter an order setting said matter for hearing at a time and place to be named therein. The Board may, in its discretion, require the complainant to make an additional deposit, or to enter into bond in an amount fixed by the Board, conditioned for the payment of all costs of such proceeding, and which bond shall be approved by the Board. Thereupon, it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Board to transmit a certified copy of the petition of complainant and of the order setting same for hearing, by registered mail, addressed to the party or parties against whom such complaint is made, and which notice shall be deposited in the mails at least twenty days before the date set for such hearing. [Id. Sec. 60.]

Art. 7562. Board to hear evidence.—At the time and place stated in such order the Board shall sit to hear such complaint. It may hear evidence orally or by affidavit in support of or against such complaint, and may hear arguments, and shall have power to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place, and, upon completion thereof, shall render decision in writing. [Id. Sec. 61.]

Art. 7563. Board to fix rates.—The said Board shall have power and authority, and it shall be its duty to fix reasonable rates for the furnishing of water for the purposes or any purpose mentioned in this chapter. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 129, Sec. 61-A.]

Art. 7564. Appeal from decision.—Appeal from such decision of the Board may be taken within the time and in the manner as herein provided for other appeals from the decision of such Board. The decision may be suspended by filing of a supersedeas bond, in the same manner as now provided in other civil cases; provided, that the Board shall fix the amount of the bond necessary to stay the execution of any such order. [Acts 1917, p. 226, Sec. 62.]

Art. 7565. Witnesses expenses paid.—In any examination, investigation or proceeding authorized before the Board of Water Engineers, such board shall have power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, under such rules as the board may prescribe. Each witness who shall appear before the board by order of the board, at a place outside of the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance, one dollar per day and three cents per mile traveled by nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said board which shall be ordered paid by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness and approved by the chairman of the board; provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly interested in such proceeding. [Id. p. 227, Sec. 63.]

Art. 7566. Board to adjourn hearing.—In any examination or hearing held before the Board of Water Engineers, the board shall have authority to adjourn such hearing from time to time and from place to place. Each member of such board and the secretary thereof shall be authorized to administer oaths. [Id. Sec. 64.]

Art. 7567. May appeal to appellate court, when.—If any person, firm, association of persons, or corporations engaged in furnishing water, or other persons at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, charge, order or act of regulation adopted by the board, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rule, rate, charge or order, or to either or all of them, in a district court of Travis County, against said board as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Any party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court at any term thereof; said action so appealed shall have precedence in said Appellate Court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided that if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 129, Sec. 64-A.]

Art. 7568. Proof rests upon plaintiff.—In all trials under the foregoing article the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, acts orders, or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id. Sec. 64-B.]

Art. 7569. Board to furnish certified copies, when.—Upon application of any person, the board shall furnish certified copies of any order or decision of record of such board, or of any paper, map or other document filed in the office of such board, and such certified copies, under the hand of the secretary and seal of the board, shall be admissible in evidence in any court, in the same manner and with like effect that the original would be entitled to. [Acts 1917, p. 227, Sec. 65.]

Art. 7570. Rules and regulations made and published.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district, conserving or supplying water for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter; shall make and publish reasonable rules and regulations relating to the method and manner of supply, use and distribution of water, and prescribing the time and manner of making application for the use of water and payment therefor. [Id. Sec. 66.]

Art. 7571. Conveyance recorded.—Every conveyance of a ditch, canal, or reservoir, or other irrigation work, or any interest therein, shall hereafter be executed and acknowledged in the same manner as the conveyance of real estate, and recorded in the deed records of the county or counties in which such ditch, canal, or reservoir is situated, and any such conveyance which shall not be made in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, shall be null and void, as against subsequent purchasers thereof in good faith and for valuable consideration. [Id. Sec. 67.]

Art. 7572. Corporations to store salt water, when.—That in the mode provided in Chapter 2 of Title 25 of the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1911 corporations may be created for the purpose of gathering, storing and impounding water containing salt or other substances produced in the drilling and operation of oil and other wells, and to prevent the flow thereof into streams at times when the latter may be used for irrigation. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 122, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7573. Rights of corporations.—Such corporations, in addition to the general powers conferred by such title upon private corporations, may acquire, own, and operate ditches, canals, pipe lines, levees, reservoirs, and their appliances appropriate for the gathering, impounding or storage of such water, and for the protection of such reservoirs from inflow or damage by surface waters; with further power to condemn lands and rights necessary therefor under like procedure as is provided in condemnation by railroads; and also to cross with their ditches, canals and pipe lines under any highways, canals, pipe lines, railroads, and tram or logging roads; conditioned that the use thereof be not impaired longer than essential to the making of such crossings; provided that, no right is conferred to pass through any cemetery or under any residence, schoolhouse or other public building nor to cross any street or alley of any incorporated city or town without the consent of the authorities thereof. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 7574. Corporations to serve producers.—In the localities in which they operate and to the extent of the facilities provided, such corporations shall serve all producers of such waters in the gathering, impounding, and storage of such waters in proportion to the needs of such producers, at fair and reasonable charges, and without discrimination between such producers under like conditions. Corporations interested in the proper disposition of such waters may subscribe for, own, and vote stock in the corporations which may be created hereunder. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 7575. Use of water not entitled to.—Any person who shall wilfully open, close, change or interfere with any headgate or water box without lawful authority or who shall wilfully use water or conduct water in and through his ditch or upon his land, to which water he is not entitled, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months; provided, that the possession or use of water to which the person using or possessing same shall not be lawfully entitled shall be prima facie proof of the guilt of the person so using or in possession of same. [Acts 1917, p. 227, Sec. 68.]

Art. 7576. Destruction of and punishment for.—Any person who shall wilfully cut, dig, break down, destroy, or injure, or open any gate, bank embankment, or side of any ditch, canal, reservoir, flume, tunnel or feeder or pump or machinery, building, structure, or other work, which is the property of another, or in which another owns an interest, or which is in the lawful possession or use of another or others, and which is used for the purpose of irrigation or milling or mining, or manufacturing, or for the development of power, or for domestic purposes, or for stockraising, with intent maliciously to injure any person, association, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or for the gain of any person, association, water improvement or corporation, so cutting, digging, breaking, injuring or opening any such work hereinbefore in this article named or with the intent of taking or stealing or causing to run out or waste out of any such ditch, canal, or reservoir, feeder or flume, any water for his own profit, benefit or advantage, or to the injury of any person, association or corporation lawfully entitled to the use of such water or the use or management of such ditch, canal, tunnel, reservoir, feeder, flume, maching, structure or other irrigation work, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, and may be punished by imprisonment in jail not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. p. 288, Sec. 69.]

Art. 7577. Punishment for pollution.—Any person who shall deposit in any canal, lateral, reservoir or lake, used for any purpose enumerated in this Act, the carcass of any dead animal, tin cans, discarded buckets or pails, garbage, ashes, baling or barbed wire, earth, offal or refuse of any character, or any other article or articles which might pollute the water or obstruct the flow in any such canal or other similar structure, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for a term not exceeding six months, or be both so fined and imprisoned. [Id. Sec. 70.]

Art. 7578. Failure to pay for proportionate share of work.—In all cases where irrigation ditches are owned or used by two or more persons, or by mutual or co-operative companies or corporations, and one or more of such persons, or shareholders, shall fail or neglect to do or to pay for his proportionate share of the work necessary for the proper maintenance and operation of such ditch, the owners or shareholders, desiring the performance of such work as is reasonably necessary to maintain and operate the ditch, may, after having given ten days' written notice to such joint owner, or owners, or shareholders who have failed to pay for or refused to perform their proportionate share of work necessary for the operation and maintenance of said ditch, proceed themselves to do such work, or cause same to be done, and may recover therefor from such person so failing to perform or pay for his share of such work, in any court having jurisdiction over the amount, the reasonable expense or value of such work or labor so performed. [Id. Sec. 71.]

Art. 7579. Surplus water.—All surplus water taken or diverted from any running stream and not used by the appropriator or disposed of to consumers for the purposes stated in this chapter shall be conducted back to the stream from which taken or diverted, wherever such water may be returned by gravity flow, whenever reasonably practicable. [Id. p. 229, Sec. 72.]

Art. 7580. Examination and survey.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall have power to cause an examination and survey for its proposed work to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous reservoir sites and rights of way for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter, and for such purposes shall have the right to enter upon the lands or waters of any person. [Id. part Sec. 73.]

Art. 7581. Employee of board may enter upon lands of any person, when.—Any member or employee of the board shall have authority to enter upon the lands of any person and any or all waterways, either natural or artificial, for the purpose of making any investigation that would, in the judgment of the board assist in the discharge of its duties. [Id. part Sec. 73.]

Art. 7582. Right of way granted to whom.—Every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district formed for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter are hereby granted the right of way, not to exceed one hundred feet in width, and the necessary area for any dam and reservoir site over all public free school, university and asylum lands of this State, with the use of the rock, gravel and timber on such reservoir site and right of way for construction purposes, after paying such compensation as the board of engineers may determine, and may acquire such reservoir site and rights of way over private lands by contract. [Id. Sec. 75.]

Art. 7583. Additional right of way obtained.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation or water improvement district, or any city or town, may also obtain the right of way over private lands and also the lands for pumping plants, intakes, headgates and storage reservoirs, by condemnation, by causing the damages for any private property appropriated by any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district or city or town, to be assessed and paid for as provided by the statutes of this State, and as provided in Title 52 of this Act relating to "Eminent Domain," provided, however, that when the power granted by this section is sought to be exercised by any person or association of persons, but not including corporation districts, cities or towns, he or they shall first make application to the Board of Water Engineers for such condemnation and said Board shall make due investigation and if it deems advisable shall give notice to the party owning the land sought to be condemned, and after hearing, may institute such condemnation proceedings in the name of the State of Texas for the use and benefit of said person or persons and all others similarly situated, the costs of said suit and condemnation to be paid by the person or persons at whose instance the same is instituted in proportion to the benefits received by each as fixed by said board and to be paid before use is made of such condemned rights or property; and thereafter all persons seeking to take the benefits of such condemnation proceedings shall make application therefor to the Board of Water Engineers and if such application is granted shall pay fees and charges as may be fixed by the board. [Id. Sec. 75.]

Art. 7584. Who shall not have the right or power to acquire.—No corporation, person, association of persons, city, town, municipality, or other public corporation, shall have the right or power to acquire by right of eminent domain or condemnation, any riparian right, or rights, water rights or right, dam or dams, or water supply, or any land or lands on, under or adjacent to any stream or streams in the State of Texas, when held, owned or claimed by any corporation, person, or association of persons for the purpose of constructing or erecting any dam, lock, reservoir, power plant, canal, tail-race or channel for the purpose of using the waters of said stream, or any part thereof, for developing, using or furnishing power, on any streams, or stream, the waters of which are actually being used, in whole or in part, for such uses or purposes; provided that this Act shall not apply to cities or towns having a population of 25,000 or over according to the last United States census. All parts of any law or laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [Acts 1923, p. 324, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7585. Roads and highways.—All persons, associations of persons, corporations, and water improvement or irrigation districts shall have the right to run along or across all roads and highways necessary in the construction of their work, and shall at all such crossings construct and maintain necessary bridges, culverts, or siphons, and shall not impair the uses of such road or highways; provided, that if any public road or highway or public bridge shall be upon the ground necessary for the dam site, reservoir, or lake, it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court to change said road and to remove such bridge that the same may not interfere with the construction of the proposed dam, reservoir, or lake; provided, further, that the expense of making such change shall be paid by the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district desiring to construct such dam, lake or reservoir. [Acts 1917, p. 230, Sec. 76.]

Art. 7586. Who has power to construct ditch.—Such person, association of persons, corporation, or irrigation district shall have power to construct its ditch or canal across, along or upon, any stream of water. [Id. Sec. 77.]

Art. 7587. When necessary to irrigate or reclaim lands.—When, in the examination of any such irrigation or reclamation project, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, known as the Reclamation Act, approved June 17, 1902, it shall be found advisable or necessary to irrigate or reclaim lands within the limits of the State, the Secretary of the Department of the Interior is authorized to make all necessary examinations and surveys for, and to locate and construct irrigation or reclamation works within this State, and to perform any and all acts necessary to carry into effect the provisions, limitations, charges, terms and conditions of said Reclamation Act. [Id. Sec. 78.]

Art. 7588. Provisions and amendments.—The provisions of this chapter shall in all things apply to the construction, maintenance and operation of any irrigation works in this State, constructed under what is known as the Federal Reclamation Act, approved June 17, 1902, and the amendments thereto, in so far as the provisions of this chapter are not inconsistent with said Act of Congress, or the amendments thereto, of the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Department of the Interior in conformity to such Reclamation Act and the amendments thereto. [Id. Sec. 79.]

Art. 7589. Unlawful to divert water.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district to take or divert any of the water of the ordinary flow, underflow, or storm flow of any stream, water course, or watershed, in this State into any other natural stream, water course or watershed, to the prejudice of any person or property situated within the watershed from which such water is proposed to be taken or diverted. [Id. Sec. 80.]

Art. 7590. Application for permit.—Before any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall take any water from any natural stream, water course, or water shed in this State into any other watershed, such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall make application to the Board of Water Engineers for a permit so to take or divert such waters, and no such permit shall be issued by the Board until after full hearing before said Board as to the rights to be affected thereby, and such hearing shall be held and notice thereof given at such time and such place, in such mode and manner as the Board may prescribe; and from any decision of the Board an appeal may be taken to the district court of the county in which such diversion is proposed to be made, in the mode and manner prescribed in this chapter for other appeals from the decision of the Board. [Id. Sec. 81.]

Art. 7591. Penalty to divert waters from natural streams, etc.—If any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or the agent, attorney, employee, or representative of any such person, association of persons, corporation or irrigation district, shall take or divert any waters from the natural streams, water courses or watershed into any other watershed, contrary to the provision of the last two preceding articles he, it, or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail, for any term not exceeding six months, and each day that such taking or diversion shall continue shall constitute a separate offense. [Id. p. 231, Sec. 82.]

Art. 7592. Acquired title.—Whenever any appropriator of water from any stream or other source of water supply located in whole or in part within this State, shall have obtained from the Board of Water Engineers a permit for the use of water, and shall have made use of the water under the terms of such permit; or whenever any such appropriator of water shall have filed an appropriation in accordance with the laws of this State in force at the time of such filing, and shall have filed with the Board of Water Engineers a certified record of such appropriation, as required by Chapter 171 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, and shall have made use of the water, under the terms of such filing or permit for a period of three years after this Act shall take effect, he shall be deemed to have acquired a title to such appropriation by limitation, as against any and all other claimants of water from the same stream, or other source of water supply, and as against any and all riparian owners upon said stream or other source of water supply. [Id. Sec. 83.]

Art. 7593. Failure to fence.—Unless the person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district owning or controlling any ditch, canal, reservoir, dam or lake, shall keep the same securely fenced, no cause of action shall accrue in their favor against owners of live stock for any trespass thereon. [Id. Sec. 84.]

Art. 7594. Power to acquire lands by voluntary donation.—Any corporation organized under the provision of the General Laws of this State, or the provisions of this chapter for any of the purposes stated in this chapter, shall have the power to acquire lands by voluntary donation or purchase in payment of stock or bonds or water rights; and to hold, improve, subdivide and dispose of all such lands and other property; and to borrow money for the construction, maintenance and operation of its canals, ditches, flumes feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells and other property and franchises, to the extent of the value thereof, to secure the payment of any debts contracted for same; provided, no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and all fictitious increases in stock or indebtedness shall be void; provided further, all lands acquired by such corporation, except such as are used for the construction, maintenance or operation of such canals, ditches, laterals, feeders, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells, and other necessary works, shall be alienated within fifteen years from the date of acquiring said land or be subject to judicial forfeiture. [Id. Sec. 85.]

Art. 7595. Corporation may elect directors.—Any corporation under the provisions of the General Laws of this State, or the provisions of this chapter, for any of the purposes stated in this chapter, may elect directors or trustees to hold office for a period of three years, and may provide for the election of one-third in number thereof each year. [Id. p. 232, Sec. 86.]

Art. 7596. Preference lien.—Every person, association of persons, corporations, water improvement or irrigation district, who has heretofore constructed, or may hereafter construct any ditch, canal, dam, lake, or reservoir, for the purposes of irrigation and who shall lease, rent, furnish, or supply water to any person, association of persons, water improvement or corporation, for the purpose of irrigation, shall, irrespective of contract, have a preference lien superior to every other lien upon the crop or crops raised upon the land thus irrigated. [Id. Sec. 87.]

Art. 7597. Enforcement of lien.—For the enforcement of the lien provided for in the preceding article, every such person, association of persons, corporation water improvement or irrigation district shall be entitled to all the rights and remedies prescribed by Title 84, Articles 5222 to 5239, inclusive, of this Act for the enforcement of the lien as between landlord and tenant. [Id. Sec. 89.]

Art. 7598. Johnson grass or Russian thistle.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district owning, leasing or operating any ditch or canal or reservoir, or cultivating any lands abutting upon any reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, wasteway or lateral to permit Johnson grass or Russian thistle to go to seed upon such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way or lateral within ten feet of the high water line of any such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way, or lateral, where the same crosses or lies upon land in the ownership or control of any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, and anyone violating the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both so fined and imprisoned. [Id. Sec. 89.]

Art. 7599. Counties exempt.—The preceding article shall not apply to Tom Green, Sterling, Irion, Schleicher, McCullough, Brewster, Menard, Maverick, Kinney, Val Verde and San Saba counties. [Id. Sec. 89.]

Art. 7600. Artesian well defined.—An artesian well is defined, for the purposes of this chapter to be an artificial well in which, if properly cased, the waters will rise by natural pressure above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground. [Id. Sec. 90.]

Art. 7601. When artesian well declared a public nuisance.—Any artesian well which is not tightly cased, capped and furnished with such mechanical appliances as will readily and effectively arrest and prevent the flow from such well, either over the surface of the ground about the well, or wasting from the well through the strata through which it passes, is hereby declared a public nuisance and subject to be abated as such, upon the order of the board. [Id. Sec. 91.]

Art. 7602. Waste defined.—Waste is defined for the purposes of this Act, in relation to artesian wells to be the causing suffering or permitting the waters of an artesian well to run into any river, creek or other natural water course or drain, superficial or underground channel, bayou, or into any sewer, street, road, highway, or upon the land of any other person than that of the owner of such well, or upon the public lands or to run or percolate through the strata above that in which the water is found, unless it be used for the purposes and in the manner in which it may be lawfully used on the premises of the owner of such well. [Id. p. 233, Sec. 92.]

Art. 7603. Proper irrigation of trees, etc.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to prevent the use of such water, if suitable, for proper irrigation of trees standing along or upon any street road or highway, or for ornamental ponds or fountains, or the propagation of fish, or for the purposes authorized by this chapter. [Id. p. 233, Sec. 92.]

Art. 7604. Well properly cased.—Whenever any person desires to drill a well upon his own land for domestic purposes or use for stock raising purposes or use that comes within the definition of artesian well, as defined in this chapter he shall have the right to do so without subjecting himself to the provisions of this chapter, provided that said well shall be properly and securely cased, and whenever water is reached containing mineral or other substances injurious to vegetation or agriculture it shall be the duty of the owner of said well to securely cap same or to control its flow so as not to injure the land of any other person, or to fill it up so as to prevent the water of said well to rise above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground. [Id. Sec. 93.]

Art. 7605. Accurate record kept.—Any person boring or causing to be bored any artesian well shall keep a complete and accurate record of the depth and thickness and character of the different strata penetrated, and when such well is completed shall transmit by registered mail to the Board of Water Engineers a copy of such record. [Id. Sec. 94.]

Art. 7606. Excessive or wasteful use of water wilfully permitted.—Any person, association of persons or the agent of any corporation owning or acquiring any possessory right to lands contiguous to any canal or irrigation system and who acquires the right to the use of water from such canal or irrigation system, by contract as in this chapter provided, who wilfully permits the excessive or wasteful use of water by any of the agents, servants or employees of said parties, or who wilfully permits water to be wasted and not applied to a beneficial purpose, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in Article 7613 and such use or waste of water shall be declared a public nuisance and abated as such by the Board of Water Engineers; said Board of Water Engineers being empowered to direct the canal company or irrigation system to close the water gates of said persons and to keep them closed until such time as such unlawful use of water shall be corrected and the determination of this question shall be controlled entirely by the Board of Water Engineers or its agents, servants, and employees. [Id. Sec. 94.]

Art. 7607. Works declared public nuisance.—Any person, association of persons, corporation water improvement or irrigation district who owns or operates any works which make use of water for any of the purposes named in this chapter, and who permits unreasonable loss of water in the operation of such works, through the faulty design or negligent operation of such works, shall be deemed guilty of waste, and such works or any part thereof may be declared a public nuisance and abated as such by the Board of Water Engineers. [Id. p. 234, Sec. 96.]

Art. 7608. Penalty for use of works declared public nuisance.—Any person or the agent of any person, or the agent of any association or corporation who shall operate or attempt to operate any works, or shall use any water under contract, with any canal or irrigation system, that has been previously declared to be a public nuisance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not more than one thousand dollars or be confined in the county jail for a period of not to exceed one year or both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. Sec. 97.]

Art. 7609. Suit instituted, where.—In any and all civil suits instituted by or under the direction of the Board of Water Engineers, suit may be prosecuted and instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county or in any of the counties where the land lies. [Id. Sec. 98.]

Art. 7610. Action may be brought before any district court.—Action may be brought before any district court of this State having jurisdiction over the irrigation district in question by any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, who may be injured by waste as herein defined for the determination of questions arising under Articles 7607 and 7608. [Id. Sec. 99.]

Art. 7611. Detailed record.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, irrigation or water improvement district who owns and operates any system of works used for the irrigation of land, or for any of the purposes named in the law, shall keep such detailed record of daily operations as may be necessary to determine the quantity of water taken or diverted each calendar year. If the use is for irrigation, there shall also be kept a record of the number of acres irrigated, as near as may be, without making actual surveys for the purpose, and the character of crop or crops grown, and the yield per acre. [Id. part Sec. 100.]

Art. 7612. Information required.—On or before the first day of March of each year, every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who, during any part of the preceding calendar year, owned or operated any of the works described in this chapter, shall furnish, under oath, to the Board of Water Engineers, upon blanks to be furnished by the Board, the information required or to be kept for such preceding year, or part thereof, together with such other available information as the Board may require, covering the uses made of water for any of the purposes named in the law. [Id. part Sec. 100.]

Art. 7613. Penalty for permitting waste.—Whoever wilfully causes or knowingly permits waste, as defined in this chapter, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in jail not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. Sec. 101.]

Art. 7614. Sworn statement.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, or water improvement or irrigation district, owning or operating any artesian well, as defined for the purposes of this chapter, at the time of its taking effect shall, within one year thereafter, transmit to the Board of Water Engineers a sworn statement showing the result of such test, together with a declaration of the use or uses to which the newly developed supply will be devoted, and the contemplated extent of such use. [Id. p. 235, Sec. 102.]

Art. 7615. Detailed statement furnished.—On or before the first day of March of each year, every person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who, during any part of the preceding calendar year, owned or operated any artesian well for any purpose other than that of domestic use, shall furnish, under oath, to the Board of Water Engineers, upon blanks to be furnished by the Board, a detailed statement showing the quantity of water which has been derived from such well, and the character of use to which same has been applied, together with the change in level of water table of said well, and if used in irrigation, the acreage and yield of each crop, together with such additional data as the Board may require. [Id. Sec. 103.]

Art. 7616. Oil wells exempt.—Nothing in the preceding articles, relating to artesian wells, shall be construed to apply to any oil well and the status of such oil wells shall be unaffected by this chapter. [Id. Sec. 104.]

Art. 7617. Abandoned oil wells.—Abandoned oil wells shall be safeguarded as required in Article 7601. [Id. Sec. 104.]

Art. 7618. Boundaries.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all streams or others sources of water supply lying upon or forming a part of the boundaries of this State. [Id. p. 243, Sec. 135.]

Art. 7619. Not to recognize any riparian right.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed as a recognition of any riparian right in the owner of any lands the title to which shall have passed out of the State of Texas subsequent to the first day of July, A. D. 1895. [Id. Sec. 136.]

Art. 7620. Not to alter any vested right of property.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be held or construed to alter, affect, impair, increase, destroy, validate or invalidate any existing or vested right of property existing at the date when this Act shall go into effect. [Id. Sec. 137.]

Art. 7621. Held unconstitutional.—If any article or provision of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not be held to invalidate any other provision of this Act. [Id. Sec. 138.]

Art. 7622. Water improvement districts established.—The county commissioners' court of any county in this State at any regular or called session thereof may establish one or more water improvement districts in their respective counties, or parts of such districts therein, in the manner hereinafter provided. Such districts may or may not include within their boundaries villages, towns, cities, and municipal corporations, or any part thereof, but no land shall be at the same time included within the boundaries of more than one water improvement district created under this chapter. Such districts when so established may make improvements or may purchase improvements already existing, or may purchase improvements and make additions thereto, and may issue bonds in payment therefor, as herein provided. Such districts being authorized to provide for the irrigation of the land included therein, and when operating under Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, furnish water for domestic, power and commercial purposes. Such districts may be formed for co-operation with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Laws for the purpose of the construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, necessary to maintain the irrigability of the land for the purchase, extension operation or maintenance of constructed works or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 65, part Sec. 1.]

Art. 7623. Petition signed by majority—notice.—The petition herein provided for to be presented to the county commissioners' court shall be signed by a majority in number of the holders of title to the lands situated within the proposed district and representing a majority in value of the lands therein as indicated by the county tax rolls; provided, however, that such petition shall be sufficient if same is signed by fifty holders of title or evidence of title to the land situated within the proposed district, in the event that the number of such land owners should be greater than fifty in number, Upon presentation to the commissioners' court either at a regular or special session, of a petition as herein provided praying for the establishment of a water improvement district, setting for the boundaries thereof and designating a name for the district, the commissioners' court shall set the same for hearing at some regular or special session to be held not less than fifteen days nor more than forty days from the presentation of said petition. The clerk of said court shall issue a notice of the said hearing, giving the date and place of hearing, and a copy of the order of the court setting same for hearing. Said notice shall be directed to the sheriff of the county requiring him to serve the notice in the manner provided by law. Said notice shall be sufficient if it contains the matter herein provided, and all persons interested shall take notice of the boundaries of said district as set out in the petition and may inspect same by examining the same in the office of the clerk of said court. [Id. part Sec. 1.]

Art. 7624. Posting and publishing notice.—The sheriff shall execute said notice by posting true copies thereof in three public places within said proposed district and one at the courthouse door of the county, or on the bulletin board used for public notices at the county courthouse. Said notices shall be posted for ten full days prior to the date of said hearing. Said notices shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, if a newspaper is published therein, one time and at least five days prior to such hearing. The sheriff shall make due return of a true copy of said notice, showing the time when and the places where such notice was posted and published. The said return to be delivered to the clerk of the commissioners' court, and to be recorded in the minutes of said court. [Id. part Sec. 1.]

Art. 7625. Duties imposed upon clerk and sheriff.—The duties herein imposed upon the clerk and sheriff may be performed by them acting by themselves or their deputies as provided by law for other similar duties. When conditions may make desirable, the petition herein provided for may be signed and presented to the court in several copies. When such petition is so presented in more than one copy the clerk shall file all such copies and shall make a true copy thereof, including a list of all those who have signed the several copies, and certify there-to and file same. Such certified copy shall be considered the petition in all other proceedings provided for by this chapter.

Water improvement districts to be organized as provided herein are defined districts under the authority granted by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State. [Id. part Sec. 1.]

Art. 7626. Creation of district contested.—Upon the day set by said county commissioners' court for the hearing of said petition, any person whose lands are included in and would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before said court and contest the creation of such district, or contend for the creation thereof, and may offer testimony to show that such district is or is not necessary and would or would not be of public utility, and that the creation of such district would or would not be feasible or practicable. Said county commissioners shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such district and all matters pertaining to the same, except as is hereinafter provided, and may adjourn the hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day and all judgments rendered by said court in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1917, p. 174, Sec. 2.]

Art. 7627. Petition feasible—recorded.—If, at the hearing of such petition, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the organization of such district and the construction or purchase, or the construction and purchase of the proposed irrigation system, or that co-operation with the United States as in Article 7622 provided, is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed and would be a public benefit and a benefit to the lands included in the district then the court shall so find, and cause its findings to be entered of record; but if the court should find that the irrigation of the lands in such district is not feasible and practicable and that it would not be a public benefit or is not needed or would not be a public utility, then the court may enter such findings of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 7628. Appeal to district court.—If at the hearing provided for in Article 7627 of this Act, the court shall enter an order granting or refusing the petition for the organization of said district at the cost of the petitioners, then in that event the petitioners, or any one or more of them, or any one owning land in such district, may appeal from said order to the district court; provided, however, any such appeal shall only be taken in the event notice thereof is filed with said county commissioners' court at the time of said hearing, and that same is perfected by filing with the clerk of said court an appeal bond in a sum of not less than $2,000.00 or more than $5,000.00 to be fixed by said county commissioners' court, payable to the county judge for the benefit of adverse parties, at the time notice of appeal is given and said bond shall be filed with the clerk of said court within ten days thereafter. In the event of such appeal said cause shall be tried under the rules prescribed for practice in the district court, and to be de novo, and the clerk of the commissioners' court shall transfer to the clerk of the district court within ten days from the date of filing of an appeal bond such judgment and all records filed with the county commissioners' court, and it shall be unnecessary to file any other additional pleadings in said cause. The final judgment on appeal shall be certified to the commissioners' court for their action within ten days after same has become final. [Act 1921, p. 19, Sec. 4.]

Art. 7629. Election held within proposed district, when.—After hearing of the petition as provided for in Articles 7626 and 7627 of this Act, if the commissioners' court shall find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of a district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition the county commissioners' court shall order an election to be held within said proposed district at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions: "For the Water Improvement District." "Against the Water Improvement District." "For the Issuance of Notes of said District." "Against the Issuance of Notes of Said District.", for the purpose of paying the cost of organizing, surveying, maps and plats, and all other indebtedness prior to the issuance of bond, and the election of five directors as is hereinafter provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 26, Sec. 5.]

Art. 7630. Time—where notices posted.—After ordering of the election as provided in the preceding article, notices of such election shall be given, stating the time and place or places of holding the election, and showing the boundaries of said proposed district, and such notices shall also show the presiding officer or officers appointed for the holding of said election. Such notices shall be posted in four places in such proposed district, and one shall be posted at the courthouse door of the county in which such proposed district is situated, such posting to be for twenty days previous to the date of the election and shall contain the proposition to be voted upon and names of offices to be filled at such election. [Acts 1917, p. 175, Sec. 6.]

Art. 7631. Who may vote.—The manner of conducting elections herein provided for shall be governed by the general election laws of the State except as herein otherwise provided. At such election none but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters under the laws of the State shall be entitled to vote. The county commissioners' court shall at the time of ordering said first election, by an order entered of record, create said proposed district, or the part thereof within said county, into one or more election precincts and shall name a polling place in each voting precinct, and shall appoint two judges and two clerks for each polling place, one of the judges to be designate as presiding judge. If any said officer so elected fail to serve, his place shall be filled in the manner provided by the general election laws. The court shall order printed one and one-half times as many ballots for said election as there are estimated to be qualified voters within such district. Said ballots for said election shall have printed thereon substantially the following: "For Water Improvement District," "Against Water Improvement District," "For Issuance of Notes of Said District," "Against Issuance of Notes of Said District," and said ballot shall contain five blank lines upon which to write names of persons voted for, for the office of director with a heading, "For Directors, Five to be Elected." No other matter shall be placed on the ballot except the heading "Official Ballot." [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 26, Sec. 7.]

Art. 7632. Election precincts.—The election precincts herein provided to be created shall be and continue the election precincts of said district until changed by an order of the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 7633. Duty of tax collector.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county before a water improvement district is formed, and of the tax collector of the district after its organization, to make a certified list of the property taxpayers of said district or part thereof in the county, and to furnish same to the officers of the election of each polling place, and before any person is entitled to vote at any election under this Act his name must appear in said certified list of property taxpayers; provided, however, that a qualified voter who is a property taxpayer in said district or proposed district, and whose names does not appear upon said list, shall be entitled to vote if he shall first take the following oath, to be administered by an election judge and which judges of the election are authorized to administer: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter under the laws of the State of Texas, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of..... (inserting the name of the district) and I did not acquire such property prior to this election for the purpose of voting, but I am a bona fide property taxpayer. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 67, Sec. 8.]

Art. 7634. Court declare result of election.—The officers of the election shall make returns for each polling place in the same manner as provided by law for general elections, and the county commissioners' court shall canvass said returns in the manner provided by law. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the organization of said district, then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the establishment of said district and shall enter same in the minutes of said court. If a majority of said votes be cast in favor of the issuance of notes of said district then the court shall declare the result of said election in favor of the issuance of said notes, and it shall be the duty of the board of directors, when qualified, to issue notes of said district, in a sum not to exceed fifteen per cent of the proposed cost of improvements to be made in said district, for the purpose of creating a fund to pay the costs of the organization of the district and the cost of all surveys, investigations, engineering, issuance of bonds, making and filing of maps and reports, all legal expenses connected therewith, and all other costs and expenses authorized or made necessary by the provisions of this chapter; and to sell said notes, or to exchange the same in payment for such costs and expenses, said notes to be secured by the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes as hereinafter provided for the assessment, levy and collection of taxes for the payment of the bonds of said district; provided, however, that all notes issued under the provisions of this article, shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged out of the proceeds of the bonds when issued and sold, if bonds of said district are not voted at the election held for that purpose, then and in that event the notes so issued shall continue in force and effect and shall be paid off, satisfied and discharged by the assessment, levy and collection of taxes to pay note issues. The court shall also canvass the votes for directors and declare the election of the five persons receiving the highest number of votes for said office; provided that should it be found that two or more persons had received the same number of votes so as to make it a tie for the office between them, then the said court shall elect one of said persons to fill such position. In the event said district is composed of territory lying in two or more counties the said returns shall be canvassed and the result declared as hereinafter provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 27, Sec. 9.]

Art. 7635. Result entered in minutes.—If the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of the district, the county commissioners' court shall make and enter in the minutes of said court an order setting forth facts substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and others praying for the establishment of a water improvement district, as in said petition described and named _____ be it known that an election was called for that purpose in said district and held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, and a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereat voted in favor of the creation of said district. Now, therefore, it is declared that said district has been legally established under the name of _____, with the following metes and bonds: (Here copy description of boundaries.)

When a district is created including territory in two or more counties the officer charged with the duty of declaring result of said election shall use substantially the same form. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 68, Sec. 10.]

Art. 7636. Bear name of county.—All districts lying wholly in one county shall include in its name the name of the county in which it is located as a part of its name, and shall be numbered consecutively as created and established. A district lying partly in two or more counties may include the names of said counties in its name or may adopt any appropriate name. [Id.]

Art. 7637. Numbers of districts.—The numbers of districts created hereafter shall not conflict with the numbers of irrigation or water improvement districts heretofore created, but shall be consecutively continued, and when a district lying in two or more counties has adopted a number as part of its name such number shall not be the same as that of any other district in either of said counties, and the numbers of districts created in either of said counties shall not conflict therewith. [Id.]

Art. 7638. Certified copies recorded.—After the making and entering by the commissioners' court of the order establishing such districts as herein provided, or an order changing the name of a district, the said court shall cause to be made a certified copy of such order, which shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such district is situated, and shall cause same to be duly recorded in the deed records of said county and properly indexed in the same manner provided for the recording and indexing of deeds, and such recordation shall have the same effect, in so far as notice is concerned, as is provided for the record of deeds, and all costs in connection with the making and recording of such copies shall be paid by the districts. [Acts 1917, p. 176, Sec. 11.]

Art. 7639. Directors shall each make bond.—Within ten days after the making and entry of the order of the commissioners' court declaring the result of the election and the establishment of the district as hereinbefore provided, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, the directors elected at such election shall each make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars each, payable to such district conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, to be approved by the commissioners' court. Provided, however, that after the organization of such district, all bonds required to be given by any director, officer or employee of such district shall be approved by the directors of such district, and said directors shall take the oath of office prescribed by statute for the commissioners' court, except that the name of the district shall be substituted for the name of the county in said oath of office; and the bond and oath herein provided for shall be filed with the county clerk of the county within which said district is situated and be by him recorded in the official bond record for said county, and after its record, said bond shall be delivered by the county clerk to the depository selected by such district under the provisions of this Act, and shall be by it safely kept and preserved as a part of the records of said district. [Id. p. 177, Sec. 12.]

Art. 7640. Organization of directors.—The directors of such district shall organize by electing one of their number as president and one as secretary. The directors may elect a president pro tem, and a secretary pro tem, to act in the absence or inability of the president or secretary. Any three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district except the letting of constructing contracts and drawing of warrants on the depository, which shall require the concurrence of four of such directors; provided, however, warrants to pay the current expenses, salaries, and labor and material accounts, may be drawn by an officer, or employee, designated by standing order of the directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 68, Sec. 13.]

Art. 7641. Who eligible for director.—No person shall be elected a director of any district created under this Act unless he is a resident of the State of Texas and owns land subject to taxation within said district, and who, at the time of such election, shall be more than twenty-one years of age. [Acts 1917, p. 177, Sec. 14.]

Art. 7642. Qualifications of tax assessor and collector.—The office of tax assessor and collector is one office to be filled by one person. The tax assessor and collector shall be appointed by the directors or if the directors so order may be elected by an election held for that purpose. He shall qualify by making and entering into a good and sufficient bond, signed also by at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board of directors, in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as tax assessor and collector and for the paying over to the depository all funds or sums of money or other thing of value, coming into his hands as such collector. The directors may require additional bonds or bond in larger amount or additional security at any time that same may be advisable in their judgment. The assessor and collector shall be a resident of the district, or any town within the general boundaries of the district, and shall be a qualified voter in the county of his residence. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 69, Sec. 15.]

Art. 7643. Salary of tax assessor and collector.—The compensation to be paid the tax assessor and collector, or deputy tax assessor and collector shall be fixed by the board of directors, but shall not exceed $3,000.00 per year. One or more deputies may be appointed by the board of directors to assist the tax assessor and collector for such time not to exceed one year as may be ordered by the board. Such deputies shall perform such duties as the board may order and may be discharged at any time by the board. The amount of bond given by such deputies shall be determined at the time of their appointment or as occasion may require. The board of directors may require the tax assessor and collector to perform other duties than those herein fixed and may fix his additional compensation, if any, therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7644. Additional bond required.—In case any district organized hereunder is appointed fiscal agent of the United States, or by the United States is authorized to make collections of money for and in behalf of the United States in connection with any Federal reclamation project, such assessor and collector and each director, shall execute a further additional bond in such sum as the Secretary of the Interior may require, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his respective office and the faithful discharge by the district of its duties as fiscal or other agent of the United States under such appointment or authorization; such additional bonds to be approved, recorded and filed as herein provided for other official bonds, and any such additional bonds may be sued on by the United States or by any person injured by the failure of such officer or the district, to fully, promptly and completely perform their respective duties. [Id.]

Art. 7645. Survey of boundaries.—It shall be the duty of the directors, immediately after they qualify as such, to cause an actual survey of the boundaries of such district to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for the establishment of such district, or to adopt in whole or in part such boundaries where already established, and to have said boundary marked by suitable monuments. [Acts 1917, p. 178, Sec. 16.]

Art. 7646. Petition to exclude lands.—The owner or owners of the fee of any land constituting a portion of any district may file with the board of directors of such district a petition praying that certain lands owned by them be excluded from and taken out of said district. The petition shall describe the lands which the petitioners desire to have excluded by metes and bounds and such petition must be acknowledged in the same manner and form as is required by law for the conveyance of real estate. Such petition may be filed at any time prior to the issuance of bonds by such district. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 69, Sec. 17.]

Art. 7647. Notice of hearing.—Upon the filing of a petition for the exclusion of any lands from said district with the board of directors, they shall immediately set said petition down for hearing for a day certain, not to exceed twenty days, however, from the date of the filing thereof, and shall cause notice of such hearing to be given by the posting of written or printed notices of the time and place of such hearing at three public places within said district. Such notice shall contain a copy of the petition for exclusion, and shall be posted for at least eight days prior to such hearing. [Acts 1917, p. 178, Sec. 18.]

Art. 7648. Decision after hearing.—The board of directors, at any time and place designated in such notice, or at such time and place as such hearing may from time to time be adjourned to, shall proceed to hear the petition and all objections thereto, and shall determine whether or not said lands, or any portion thereof, shall remain as a portion of said district or be excluded therefrom; and if upon such hearing the directors shall determine that the land desired to be withdrawn or any portion thereof is not susceptible to irrigation by gravity from the system to be provided, or for other reasons should be allowed to be withdrawn, then such lands shall be excluded by granting such petition in whole or in part, and such excluded lands and the owners thereof thereby waive all right to be served with water from such irrigation system or by said district. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, Sec. 19.]

Art. 7649. Petition filed.—The owner or owners of the fee to lands contiguous to any district created under this Act may file with the board of directors of said district a petition in writing, praying that such land be included in such district. The petition shall describe the tract or body of land owned by the petitioners by metes and bounds and upon the filing of such petition with the board of directors, said board of directors shall cause an accurate survey of the said tract of land to be made and the boundaries thereof marked upon the ground, and said tract of land may be admitted as a part of the district; provided it can be irrigated without prejudice to the rights of any of the lands originally contained therein to be first furnished with an adequate supply of water, and when said lands are so admitted they shall immediately become subject to their proportionate share of any taxation or bonded indebtedness that may have been created against said district and subject to such reasonable charge against such lands for the purpose of defraying its part of the expenses of maintenance, operation or other necessary expenses previously made as may be determined by the board of directors. [Acts 1917, p. 179, Sec. 20.]

Art. 7650. Application recorded.—If the lands described in said petition are admitted as a part of the district, the application for such admission shall be signed and acknowledged as provided for deeds, and shall be recorded in the deed records of the county in which such district is situated, together with the order of the directors endorsed thereon. [Id.]

Art. 7651. Consent necessary.—No land shall be added to any irrigation district with which contract with the United States shall have been made without the written consent of the Secretary of the Interior. [Id.]

Art. 7652. Directors to control district.—The board of directors herein provided for shall have control over and management of all the affairs of such district, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall employ all necessary employees for the proper handling and operating of such districts, and especially may employ a general manager, an assessor and collector, attorneys, a bookkeeper, an engineer, water master and such other assistants and such other laborers as may be required, and they may also buy all necessary work animals, motors, pumps, engines, boilers, machinery and supplies as may be required in the erection, operation and repair of the improvements of the districts; a director may be employed as general manager, and at such compensation as may be fixed by the other four directors and when so employed he shall also perform the duties of a director, but he shall not receive the compensation in this Act provided to be paid to directors. [Id., Sec. 21.]

Art. 7653. Contract with United States.—The board of directors, on behalf of said district, may enter into any obligation or contract with the United States for the construction, operation and maintenance of the necessary work for the delivery and distribution of water therefrom, or for the drainage of district lands or for the assumption of indebtedness to the United States for district lands, or for the temporary rental of water from the United States for district lands or a part thereof, under the provisions of the Federal Reclamation Act, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, and the rules and regulations established thereunder; or the board may contract with the United States for a water supply under any Act of Congress providing for or permitting such contract, and in case contract has been or hereafter may be made with the United States as herein provided, bonds of the district may be deposited with the United States at ninety (90) per cent of their par value, to the amount to be paid by the district to the United States under any such contract, the interest on said bonds to be provided for by assessment and levy as in the case of other bonds of the district, and regularly paid to the United States to be applied as provided in such contracts, and if bonds of the district are not so deposited it shall be the duty of the board of directors to include as part of any levy or assessment now provided for by law, an amount sufficient to meet each year all payments accruing under the term of any such contract; and the board may accept on behalf of the district appointment of the district as fiscal agent of the United States in connection with any Federal reclamation project, whereupon the district shall be authorized to so act, and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to such action, and the said board shall have full power to do any and all things required by the Federal statutes now or hereafter enacted in connection therewith and all things required by the rules and regulations now or that may hereafter be established by any department of the Federal Government in regard thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7654. Directors prohibited—interest.—No director of any such district, engineer or employees thereof shall be, directly or indirectly, interested either for themselves or as agents for any one else in any contract for the purchase or construction of any work by said district, and if any such person shall, directly or indirectly, become interested in any such contract he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in any sum not to exceed one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or by confinement in the county jail not less than six months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id. p. 180, Sec. 22.]

Art. 7655. Districts sued.—All districts established under the provisions of this Act may sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial knowledge and notice of the establishment of such district and the boundaries thereof, and such districts shall contract and be contracted within the name of such districts. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, Sec. 23.]

Art. 7656. Districts empowered.—Districts created under the provisions of this Act are hereby empowered to own and construct reservoirs, dams, wells, canals, etc., and to acquire the necessary rights of way for and buy or construct all reservoirs, dams, wells, canals, laterals, sites for pumping plants and all other improvements required for the irrigation of the lands in such district by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation, and they may acquire the title to any and all lands necessary or incident to the successful operation thereof, in addition to any of the above, in the manner provided, including the authority by purchase or condemnation, to acquire rights of way for the enlargement, extension or improvement of any existing canals, or ditches for the purpose of raising such canals and ditches jointly with the owners thereof. [Id. p. 227, Sec. 24.]

Art. 7657. Property conveyed to United States.—Any property acquired may be conveyed to the United States in so far as the same shall be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States for the benefit of the district under any contract that may be entered into thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 7658. Assessor and collector to make assessment.—Immediately upon the qualification of the assessor and collector, as hereinbefore provided, he shall enter upon the discharge of his duties, and shall at once proceed to make an assessment of all the taxable property, both real, personal and mixed, in his said district; and such assessment shall be made annually thereafter. [Acts 1917, p. 181, Sec. 25.]

Art. 7659. Contents of assessment.—Said assessment shall be made upon blanks to be provided by the directors for such district. Said assessment shall consist of a full statement of all property owned by the party rendering same in said district and subject to taxation therein, and shall state the full value thereof. There shall be attached to each such assessment an affidavit made by the owner or his agent rendering said property for taxation to the effect that said assessment or rendition contains a true and complete statement of all property owned by the party for whom said rendition is made in said district and subject to State and county taxation therein; and in addition to all such assessments or renditions made by the owner or agents of such property, the tax assessor shall make out similar lists of all property not rendered for taxation in such districts that is subject to State and county taxation therein. [Id.]

Art. 7660. Rendition of taxable property.—Each and every person, partnership or corporation owning taxable property in such district shall render same for taxation to the assessor when called upon so to do, and if not called upon by the assessor, the owner shall on or before June 1 of each year nevertheless render for taxation all property owned by him in the district subject to taxation. And all laws and penal statutes of this State providing for securing the rendition of property for State and county taxes, and providing penalties for the failure to render such properties shall apply to all persons, partnerships or corporations owning or holding property in any such district. The tax assessor shall have authority to administer oaths to fully carry out the provisions of this section. [Id.]

Art. 7661. Board of Equalization.—The directors for such district created under the provisions of this Act shall, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and annually thereafter, appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter and resident property owner of said district, who shall be styled "The Board of Equalization," and at the same meeting the same board of directors shall fix the time for the meeting of such Board of Equalization for the first year; and said Board of Equalization shall convene at the time fixed by the directors to receive all assessment lists or books of the assessor for said district for examination, correction, equalization, appraisement and approval, and at all meetings of said Board the secretary of the board of directors shall act as secretary thereof and keep a permanent record of all the proceedings of said Board of Equalization. [Id. Sec. 25.]

Art. 7662. Oath.—Before entering upon the duties as such Board of Equalization, each of the members thereof shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I.....do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will, to the best of my ability, make a full and complete examination, correction, equalization and appraisement of all property contained within said district, as shown by the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district, and add thereto all property not included therein of which I have knowledge," and said oath shall be spread upon the minutes to be kept by the secretary of the Board. [Id. p. 182, Sec. 27.]

Art. 7663. Board to examine assessment lists.—The Board of Equalization herein provided for shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time fixed for the convening of said Board, all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district for their examination, that they may see that each and every person has rendered his property at its full value; and said Board shall have power to send for persons and papers to swear and qualify persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property, and if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and if too low they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said Board shall have power to correct any and all errors that may appear on the assessors lists or books, and shall have further authority to add any and all property to said lists of inventories that may have been omitted therefrom. [Id. Sec. 28.]

Art. 7664. May file complaint.—The Board of Equalization shall equalize, as near as possible the value of all property situated within said district, having reference to the location of said property and the improvements thereon situated. Any person may file with the said Board at any time before the final action of said board, a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said Board shall hear said complaint, and said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses examined to sustain said complaint as to the assessment of said property, or as to a failure to render any property owned by any person, partnership or corporation situated within said district subject to taxation which has not been properly assessed. [Id. Sec. 29.]

Art. 7665. Certified list furnished.—The assessor for such district, at the same time that he delivers to said Board his lists and books, shall also furnish to said Board a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse or swear to or to sign, the oath or affirmation as required by this law, together with the list of the property of such persons situated within said district who have failed or refused to list their property, as made by him through other information, and said Board shall examine the list and appraise the property so listed by the assessor. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 7666. Board to adjourn—serve notice.—In all cases where the Board of Equalization shall find it their duty to raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor or to add property omitted therefrom, they shall, after having fully examined such lists or books, and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said Board to give a written notice to the owner of such property, or to the person rendering same, of the time to which said Board may have adjourned, and that such owner or person may at that time appear and show cause why the value of such property should not be raised, which notices may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in any post office within the county. [Id. p. 183, Sec. 31.]

Art. 7667. Board to lower property value.—The Board of Equalization shall meet at the time specified in said order of adjournment and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised; and if said Board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value; and said Board of Equalization, after they have finally examined and equalized the value of all the property on the assessors lists or books or that may have been placed thereon by said Board of Equalization, shall approve said lists or books and return them, together with the lists of unrendered property to the assessor that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by this Act; and when said general rolls are so made the Board shall immediately reconvene to examine said rolls and approve the same if found correct; and the action of the Board at the meeting last provided for in this article shall be final and shall not be subject to revision by said Board or by any other tribunal thereafter. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 7668. Compensation.—The members of the Board of Equalization and the secretary while acting as secretary of said Board, shall receive such compensation for their services as may be fixed by the board of directors of the district, not to exceed, however, the sum of six dollars per day for the time actually engaged in the discharge of such duties. [Act 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, Sec. 33.]

Art. 7669. Permanent record.—After the return to the assessor and collector of the assessment lists and books duly approved by the Board of Equalization, as hereinbefore provided for, the said assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all taxable property situated in said district upon duplicate rolls and after the approval of said rolls by the Board of Equalization, he shall retain one of same in his office and shall deliver the other copy to the directors of said district, to be kept by them as a permanent record in their office, and all lists and books of said assessor shall be caused to be substantially bound and by him kept as a permanent record of his office, and be delivered, together with all others records of his office, to his successor, upon his election and qualification, or, in case of a vacancy in such office to the directors for said district. [Acts 1917, p. 183, Sec. 34.]

Art. 7670. Assessors report.—The assessor and collector shall collect all taxes due to said district, and shall, at the expiration of each week, pay over to the depository selected by said district all moneys by him collected, and shall report to the directors for such district on the fourth Saturday in every month all moneys so collected by him and paid over to the depository as hereinbefore provided, and shall perform all such other duties, and in such manner and according to such rules and regulations as the board of directors may prescribe and for the convenience of the persons, firms or corporations owning such tax, shall keep and maintain an office with the board of directors for such district, where all such taxes may be paid. [Id. Sec. 35.]

Art. 7671. Credit.—The assessor and collector shall be charged by the directors for such district, upon a permanent finance ledger to be kept for said purpose by said district, with the total assessment as shown by the assessment rolls; and proper credit shall be given to the assessor and collector for all sums of money paid over to the depository, as shown by his monthly reports as hereinbefore provided for, and upon the final annual settlement, the said assessor and collector shall make up a full complete report of all taxes that have not been collected, which said report shall be audited by said board of directors, and proper credits given therefor, and such annual settlements shall be made on the first Monday in September of each year. [Id. p. 184, Sec. 36.]

Art. 7672. Assessment date.—The assessment provided for in this Act shall be made upon all property subject to taxation in said district on the first day of January of each year, and such assessment shall be completed and the lists and books ready to deliver on or before the first day of June of each year. [Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 7673. Board convene annually. The Board of Equalization, after the first year, shall convene annually on the first Monday in June of each year to receive all of the assessment lists or books of the assessor of said district for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal and approval, and for the addition thereto of any property found to be unrendered in said district and shall complete and deliver said lists and rolls to the assessor and collector by the third Monday in July of said year, and the said assessment rolls shall be completed by the assessor and approved by the Board of Equalization, and returned to said assessor and collector by the first Monday in October of each year after the first assessment as hereinbefore provided. [Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 7674. Taxes due—payable.—All taxes provided for by this Act shall become due and payable on the first day of November of each year and shall be paid on or before the 31st day of January thereafter. [Id. Sec. 39.]

Art. 7675. Taxes remain lien.—All lands and other property which have been returned delinquent, during the existence of such district, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and said taxes shall be and remain a lien upon said land, and upon all other property against which same were assessed, although the owner be unknown or though such land be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner, and though the ownership be changed the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year or years, provided the record owner of such land or lands at the date of filing such suit be made a party to such suit and be properly cited, and such districts shall have authority to file suits for the collection of taxes due upon land and also personal property or property of any character. No law providing for a period of limitation on debt or actions shall apply to such taxes, accruing after the formation of such district. [Acts 1st C. S., 1921, p. 149, Sec. 40.]

Art. 7676. District no right to become party.—No district created or existing or to be created under the provisions of this chapter shall have the right to become a party to or purchase, or hold under or assign or seek to enforce or receive the fruits or benefits from any contract between any land owner and private canal company or corporation made prior to the formation of such district, but all rights and privileges owned or possessed by such district are those arising or inherent in such district by virtue of this chapter. The statutes of limitation of two years as well as the provisions hereof may be pleaded in bar of all actions for the recovery of water rents or other assessments accruing on land in such district prior to the formation of such district and cannot acquire or enforce any lien against such land fixed by any contract existing prior to the formation of such district and cannot prosecute or cause to be prosecuted for it any suit or cause of action or claim of any character for its use for the recovery of any such water taxes or assessments accruing prior to the formation of such district and cannot foreclose any lien on such lands by reason of such unpaid water assessments and taxes accruing prior to the formation of such district and cannot avail itself of any rights under any private contracts made with reference to said lands prior to the formation of such districts, and cannot be held liable for the breach of any such contract. [Id. Sec. 40a.]

Art. 7677. Delinquent tax record.—It shall be the duty of the directors for such district to cause to be prepared by the tax collector, or at the expense of such district a list of all lands upon which the taxes remain unpaid on the 31st of January of each year, and such list of lands shall be known as a delinquent tax roll, and such delinquent tax roll shall be delivered to the secretary of such district to be by him safely kept as a part of the record of his office. Such delinquent record shall carry a sufficient description to properly identify the land shown to be delinquent therein. Such description may be made by reference to lot or block number. [Acts 1917, p. 184, Sec. 41.]

Art. 7678. How recorded.—Upon receipt of such delinquent tax roll by the directors of said district, the said directors shall cause said record to be recorded in a book which shall be labeled "The Delinquent Tax Record of _____ County, Water Improvement District No. _____", and shall be accompanied by an index showing the name of delinquents in alphabetical order.

Art. 7679. Publication of delinquent tax record.—Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any such district, it shall be the duty of the directors thereof to cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county in which said district is situated for three consecutive weeks, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such lists may be published in a newspaper outside of the county to be designated by such directors by a contract entered into, and a publisher's fee of not to exceed twenty-five ($.25) cents for each tract of land so advertised and said publication, and any other publication, in a newspaper provided for in this Act may be proven by the affidavit of the proprietor of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication specifying the time when and the paper in which the publication was made.

Art. 7680. Attorney to bring suit.—Twenty days after the publication of such notice or as soon thereafter as practicable, the directors for such water improvements or irrigation shall employ an attorney to bring suit in the name of the district in the district court of said county for the purpose of collecting all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs due upon said land. Said petition shall describe all lands upon which taxes and penalties shall remain unpaid and the total amount of taxes and penalties due thereon with interest computed to the time fixed for the sale of said land at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum, and shall pray for a judgment for said amount, and for the fixing, establishing and foreclosing of the lien existing against such land; that said lands be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief to which such district may be entitled under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes as provided in this Act shall take precedence and have priority over all other suits pending in the district court.

Art. 7681. Parties defendants.—The proper persons shall be made parties defendants in all such suits and shall be served with process and other proceedings due therein as provided by law for suits of like character in the district court of this State, and in case of foreclosure, order of sale shall issue thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the sheriff or other officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in less tracts than the whole, together with a description of such subdivision as the defendant may request, provided same are reasonable, and in such case, shall sell only as many subdivisions as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalties and cost, and after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale to the defendant or his attorneys of record. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 7682. Deed to purchaser.—In all cases in which lands may be sold for default in the payment of taxes under the preceding section, it shall be lawful for the sheriff or other officers selling the same or any of his successors in office, to make a deed or deeds to the purchaser, or to any other person to whom the purchaser may direct the deed to be made, and any such deed shall be held in any court of law or equity in this State to vest a good and perfect title in the purchaser thereof subject to be impeached only for actual fraud. [Id. p. 186, Sec. 46.]

Art. 7683. Attorneys compensation.—The attorneys representing such district in all suits against delinquent taxpayers that are provided for in this Act shall receive for such service such compensation to be paid out of delinquent taxes collected, as may be allowed by the directors for such district; provided, however, that in no event shall said fee exceed fifteen (15%) per cent of the amount of taxes so collected. The sheriffs, district clerks and other officers, executing any writ or performing any service in the foreclosure of delinquent taxes on any lands situated in such district shall receive the same fees for such services as is provided by statute as fees for like services performed in connection with the discharge of the duty of their respective offices. [Id. Sec. 47.]

Art. 7684. Interest on delinquent taxes.—If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by this Act until after the 31st day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll for said district, a penalty of ten (10%) per cent on the entire amount of such tax shall accrue which penalty when collected shall be paid over to such district. Such delinquent taxes shall bear interest from August 1st after due at the rate of six per cent per annum. And the collector of taxes shall, by virtue of his tax roll seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property as shall be sufficient to make the amount of such taxes together with the penalty above provided, interest thereon at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum and all costs accruing thereon. If no personal property be found for seizure and sale as above provided, the collector shall make up and file with the secretary of the district the delinquent tax list hereinbefore provided for, charging against same all taxes, penalties and interest assessed against same and the owner thereof. [Id. Sec. 48.]

Art. 7685. Delinquent taxpayer redeem lands, how.—Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or anyone having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this Act by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon with interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent and all costs and the penalty of ten (10%) per cent as provided in this Act. [Id. Sec. 49.]

Art. 7686. Duty of engineer.—After the establishment of any such district and after the qualification of the board of directors, and after the return of the list of assessments of the taxable property situated in such district, the board of directors for such district may appoint an engineer, whose duty it shall be to make a complete survey of the lands contained in said district, and to make a map and profile of the several canals, laterals, reservoirs, dams, and pumping sites in such district and connected therewith, which shall also show any part of said canals, laterals, reservoirs and dams or pumping sites extending beyond the limits of such district, which said map shall show the name and number of each survey and shall also show the area in number of acres contained in such district. Provided, however, that such engineer may adopt any and all surveys heretofore made by any person, firm or corporation who have applied for or appropriated any water for irrigation under the general laws of this State; and provided further, that said engineer may adopt all surveys for canals, laterals, reservoirs, dams or pumping sites shown on said maps or plats, or may adopt other maps, plats and surveys of the correctness of which he may be satisfied. [Id. p. 187, Sec. 50.]

Art. 7687. Map.—The maps hereinbefore provided for shall show the relation that each canal and lateral bears to each tract of land through which it passes and the shapes into which it divides each tract, and how much and what part of each tract can be irrigated therefrom, and where the canal or lateral cuts off any less than twenty acres of land from any tract, the map shall show the number of acres in the whole tract, showing the shape of such small tract and its relation to the canal or lateral. And such profile map shall also show in detail the number of cubic yards necessary to be moved or excavated in order to make such reservoir, canal or lateral, and shall show in detail the specification for all other works necessary to the construction of all improvements proposed to be made in such district, and give the estimated cost of each and when said map, profile, specifications and estimates shall have been completed by the engineer as herein provided, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the secretary of said board. Provided, however, that where said district contains any pumping plants, canals, dams, ditches or reservoirs heretofore created, and which is contemplated to be purchased or acquired by said district, then such map or plat and estimates as hereinbefore provided for shall show such improvements and the price or probable price at which the same may be acquired, and where additional improvements of canals, ditches, laterals, reservoirs or pumping plants are to be constructed, such report shall contain the detailed information with reference to such additional improvements as is provided for in this article. Provided, further, that none of the maps and data prescribed by this and the preceding article except such as are required for use in the making of assessments and levies for district purposes shall be required where contract is entered into with the United States under Federal laws. [Id. Sec. 51.]

Art. 7688. Election.—After the establishment of any such district and the qualification of the directors thereof, and after the making and filing of such maps, profiles, specifications and estimate as provided for in the preceding article and after the making and return of the assessment roll by the assessor and collector for said district, as provided for in this Act, the board of directors may order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time at which election there shall be submitted the proposition and none other: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax and payment therefor." "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax and payment therefor." In the event that contract is proposed to be made with the United States under the Federal reclamation laws, the question which shall be submitted to the voters at such election shall be: "For contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor," and "Against contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor." [Id. p. 188, Sec. 52.]

Art. 7689. Notices posted, where.—Notice of such election stating the maximum amount of bonds to be issued, which amount shall not exceed the engineers estimate, together with the amount of incidental expenses, organization expenses, and the cost of additional work which it may become necessary to add to the engineer's estimate by any change or modification made by the directors of the district in the proposed work; also stating the proposed maximum interest rate thereon, and the proposed maximum maturity date of said bonds; also stating the time and place or places of holding the election shall be given by the secretary of the board of directors, as ordered by the directors, by posting notices thereof in four public places in such district and one at the courthouse door of the county or counties in which said district is situated. Such notice shall be posted for at least twenty days prior to the date of the election. Said notice shall also be published in the manner prescribed in Section 43, Chapter 87, Acts Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 70, Sec. 53.]

Art. 7690. Contents of notice.—The said notice shall contain substantially the proposition to be voted on as herein provided; provided, however, the bonds so voted upon may be issued to mature in serial form at any date not to exceed the maximum date stated in the notice and may be issued at any rate of interest not to exceed the rate of interest stated in such notice. Said notice shall also contain a summary of the engineer's estimate of the cost of construction of the proposed improvements, and estimate of cost of purchase of any existing improvements to be purchased, together with additions thereto as herein provided. If, however, contract with the United States is proposed for election, the notice shall state the maximum amount of money payable for construction purposes, exclusive of penalties and interest. [Id.]

Art. 7691. Polls and Ballots.—The manner of conducting all elections herein provided for shall be governed by the election laws of the State of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of said district shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the director for such district at such election. The directors for such district shall name a polling place for such election in each voting precinct or part of the voting precinct embraced in said district, and shall also select and appoint two judges, one whom shall be the presiding judge, and two clerks, for each voting precinct designated in said order; and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots for said election as there are qualified resident taxpaying voters within such district, as shown by the tax rolls of said county. Said ballot shall have written or printed thereon these words, and no others: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor," and "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." If it is proposed that contract be entered into with the United States the ballot shall contain the following words, and no others: "For contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor," and "Against contract with the United States and levy of taxes and payment therefor." [Acts 1917, p. 188, Sec. 54.]

Art. 7692. Oath.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is hereby authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, Water Improvement District No. _____, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of said district, and that I have not voted before at this election." [Id., p. 189, Sec. 55.]

Art. 7693. Returns—result.—Immediately after the election the presiding judge at each polling place shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided by law in general elections, such return to be made to the secretary of such district, who shall keep same in a safe place, and deliver them together with the returns from the several polling places to the directors of such district, who shall at a regular session or a special session called for that purpose, canvass said returns and declare the results thereof. In a district operating under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution a majority vote is required in favor of the issuance of bonds and in other districts a two-thirds majority is required. If said canvass of said returns shows said bond issue to have been adopted or said election to have been in favor of making contract with the United States, as the case may be, and the levy of tax, then said directors shall declare the result of said election—to be in favor of the issuance of the bonds, or in favor of the making of contract with the United States, and the levy of tax and payment therefor, and shall cause the same to be entered in their minutes. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 71, Sec. 56.]

Art. 7694. Directors enter record.—After the canvass of the vote and declaring the result as provided for in the preceding section, the directors for said district shall make and enter an order directing the issuance of bonds, or authorizing the execution of contract with the United States for such district, as the case may be, sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements, together with all necessary incidental expense connected therewith, not to exceed the amount specified in the order for the election and the notice of election. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 27, Sec. 57.]

Art. 7695. Bonds to include interest.—Provided, however, that bonds may be issued when so authorized by a majority of the voters of said district so as to include a sum sufficient to pay the first three years' interest accrued on the bond issue authorized and no taxes shall be levied against the property situated in said district for said period of three years, when this power is exercised, except in an amount sufficient to pay off, satisfy and discharge the notes provided for in Article 7634 of this Act. [Id.]

Art. 7696. Limitation of indebtedness.—In districts organized under the authority of Article 52 of Section 3 of the Constitution the amount of such bonds, or the amount of contract indebtedness with the United States, shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the actual assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the assessment thereof made for the purpose of determining the value thereof, or at the last annual assessment as provided for in this chapter. This limitation of indebtedness of one-fourth of the assessed value shall not apply to districts, organized under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 7697. Modifications.—Provided, however, that if after an election has been held for the issuance of bonds or for contract with the United States, and the tax authorized and levied, and bonds have been authorized to be issued, or have been issued as provided for in this chapter, or contract with the United States authorized or executed, as the case may be, the directors for said district shall consider it necessary to make any modifications in said district, or in any of the improvements thereof, or shall determine to purchase or construct any further or additional improvements therein and issue additional bonds upon the report of the engineers, or shall determine to make supplemental contract with the United States, or upon its own motion may find it necessary to make said additional improvements, or purchase additional property in order to carry out the purpose for which said district was organized, or to best serve the interest of said district, said findings shall be entered of record, and notice of an election for the issuance of said bonds, or for the authorization of contract with the United States shall be given and such election held within such times, and the returns of such election made as hereinbefore provided for in cases of original election, and the result thereof determined in the same manner. [Id.]

Art. 7698. Bond issuance—requirements.—If the result of such election be declared to be in favor of the issuance of such bonds or the making of such contract with the United States, said directors may order such bonds to be issued, or may negotiate and execute supplemental contract with the United States as in the manner provided in this chapter. And provided, that if a contract is made with the United States as in Article 7653 hereof provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with said contract, bonds need not be issued, or if required to raise funds in addition to the amount of such contract, said bonds shall be issued only in the amount needed in addition thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7699. Bonds to repair damage.—Provided, further, that whenever such a district shall have constructed or purchased improvements and same shall be damaged so that it may be necessary to raise funds to repair such damage, such district may either issue bonds to secure such funds or may issue its notes to run not to exceed twenty years, and to bear interest at not to exceed six per cent per annum. Before such notes are issued, the board of directors shall order an election and give notice thereof as required in bond issues, stating the purpose for which they are to be issued, the time they are to run, and the rate of interest they are to bear, and the time and place of said election. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon, "For Issuance of Notes," and "Against Issuance of Notes." The election shall be held and returns made and canvassed as provided for bond elections. If two-thirds majority of those voting at such election voted in favor of the issuance of such notes, the board of directors may issue same and sell same for the benefit of said district. Such notes shall not be issued in an amount of more than thirty thousand ($30,000.00) dollars. At the time such notes are issued or sold the board of directors shall levy a tax for the purpose of paying the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund sufficient to pay such interest and to pay said notes within the time of their maturity. Said notes may be issued in serial form to mature in installments as determined by the directors. [Id.]

Art. 7700. Denomination of bonds.—The bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the president and attested by the secretary, with the seal of said district affixed thereto, and such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars each, and such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six (6%) per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds shall by their terms provide the time, place or places, manner and conditions of their payment, and the interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the directors for such district, and none of such bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 190, Sec. 58.]

Art. 7701. Preferred lien. Provided, that the lien for the payments due the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompany which bonds have not been deposited with the United States, shall be a preferred lien to that of any issue of bonds or any series of any issue subsequent to the date of such contract. [Id.]

Art. 7702. Suit not permitted, when.—No suit shall be permitted to be brought in any court of this State contesting or enjoining the validity of the formation of any district created under the provisions of this chapter, or any bonds issued hereunder, or contesting the validity of contract with the United States or of the authorization thereof by the district except in the name of the State of Texas, by the Attorney General, upon his own motion, or upon the motion of any party affected thereby upon good cause shown, except as herein provided. [Id., Sec. 59.]

Art. 7703. Determine validity.—Any such district in this State desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, bring an action in the district court in any county of the judicial district in which said district, or any part thereof, may be situated or in the district court of Travis County, to determine the validity of any such bonds, or such district contracting with the United States in accordance with this chapter, shall, if requested by the Secretary of the Interior, bring an action in said court to determine the validity of said contract. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of a general notice thereof once each week for at least two consecutive weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is situated, and if no paper is published in the county then same shall be published in a paper in the nearest county thereto where a paper is published. Notice shall also be served upon the Attorney General of the State of Texas of the pendency of said action in the same manner as in civil suits. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 72, Sec. 60.]

Art. 7704. Attorney General may waive service.—The Attorney General may waive service in such suits when furnished a full transcript of the proceedings had in the formation of such district and in connection with the issuance of said bonds, or in connection with the authorization of said contract with the United States and a copy of the contract. [Id.]

Art. 7705. Attorney General to tender issue.—It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to make a careful examination of all such proceedings and require such further evidence and make such further investigation as may seem to him advisable. He shall then file an answer tendering the issue as to whether such bonds are legal and binding obligations upon such district, or, as the case may be, as to whether such contract with the United States is legal and binding upon the district. The issue thus made shall be tried and determined by the court and judgment entered upon such finding. Upon the trial of such cause the court may permit any person having an interest in the issues to be determined to intervene and participate in the trial of the issues made. All suits brought under the provisions of this chapter shall have preference over all other actions in order that a speedy determination as to the matters involved may be reached. [Acts 1917, p. 191, Sec. 61.]

Art. 7706. Judgment rendered.—Upon the trial of the issues made under the preceding article, if the judgment of the court shall be adverse to the district, then such judgment may be by said district accepted, and the error pointed out in such proceedings may be corrected in the manner designated or directed by said court, and when so corrected, the judgment of the district court shall be rendered showing that said corrections had been made, and that the bonds issued thereunder, or the said contract with the United States, are binding obligations upon said district. And thereafter the judgment, when so finally made and entered, shall be received as res adjudicata in all cases arising in connection of said bonds or any interest due thereon, or in connection with the collection of moneys required by contract with the United States, and as to all matters pertaining to the organization and validity of said district, or pertaining to the validity of the bonds or of the said contract with the United States. [Id. Sec. 62.]

Art. 7707. Certified copy.—After the making and entry of the judgment of the district court, as hereinbefore provided, the clerk of said court shall make a certified copy of such decree, which shall be a part of the orders and decree connected with such election, and said court decree shall be filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and to be by him recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and said certified copy or a duly certified copy of said record made by the Comptroller shall be received in evidence in all litigation thereafter rising which may affect the validity of such bonds or of such contract with the United States, and shall be conclusive evidence of such validity. [Id. p. 192, Sec. 63.]

Art. 7708. Comptroller to register bonds.—Upon the presentation of said bonds, together with a certified copy of the decree of the district court, as provided for in the preceding article, the Comptroller shall register said bonds, together with a certified copy of the judgment, as herein provided for, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and shall attach to each of said bonds a certificate of the fact that the decree of the district court as required by this chapter has been filed with him in his office; such certificate to be signed by him officially, and the seal of his office attached thereto. [Id. Sec. 64.]

Art. 7709. Book provided.—The county commissioners court in the county in which such district may be situated, in whole or in part, shall provide a well bound book in which a list of said bonds shall be kept by the county clerk, showing their numbers, amount, rate of interest, date of issue, when due, where payable, and said book shall be a public record. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 73, Sec. 65.]

Art. 7710. Saleable bonds.—After the issuance of said bonds, and after the registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for the State of Texas, as provided by this chapter, the board of directors for such district shall offer for sale, and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best possible price, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than ninety per cent of their face value. When said bonds are sold, all money received therefrom shall immediately be paid over by the board of directors to the depository for said district, provided, however, that the board of directors may exchange bonds for property to be acquired by purchase under contract or in the payment of contract price for work to be done for the use and benefit of said district. [Acts 1921, p. 19, Sec. 66.]

Art. 7711. Purpose of construction and maintenance fund.—All expenses, debts and obligations necessarily incurred in the creation and establishment and maintenance of any district organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such district, which fund shall consist of all moneys received by said district from the sale of the bonds of such district, or as hereinafter provided, or if contract is proposed to be made with the United States for the construction of the irrigation system, said expenses, debts and obligations may be paid out of the maintenance and operating fund. [Acts 1917, p. 192, Sec. 67.]

Art. 7712. Directors levy tax.—Whenever such bonds shall have been voted, the directors for such district shall levy a tax upon all property within such district sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds together with an additional amount to be placed in the sinking fund, sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity, and said directors for such district shall annually levy or cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within said district sufficient in amount to pay for the expenses for assessing and collecting such taxes. Whenever contract shall be made with the United States, taxes shall similarly be levied sufficient in amount to meet all installments, as they become payable, and interest, if any, and the directors shall cause due levy annually to be made until all such contracts and obligations shall have been discharged. Such bonds may be issued in serial form, or payable in installments, as determined by said directors, and such tax levy shall be sufficient if it provides an amount sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to meet the proportional amount of the principal of the next maturing series of said bonds, and the expenses of assessing and collecting such taxes for such year. [Id., p. 193, Sec. 68.]

Art. 7713. “Interest and Sinking Fund.”—There is hereby created what shall be termed the “Interest and Sinking Fund” for such district, and all taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter for such fund, shall be credited to such fund, and shall never be paid out, except for the purpose of satisfying and discharging the interest on said bonds, or for the payment of such bonds, and to defray the expense of assessing and collecting such tax, and for the payment of principal and interest due or to become due to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States, as in Article 7653 hereof provided, such fund shall be paid out upon order of the directors of such district upon warrants drawn therefor, as hereinbefore provided, and at the time of such payment the depository for such district shall receive and cancel any interest coupon so paid or any bond so paid, and when any such interest coupon or bond has been paid, it shall be delivered to the directors and be cancelled and destroyed. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 73, Sec. 69.]

Art. 7714. “Maintenance and Operating Fund.”—There shall also be created a fund to be known as “Maintenance and Operating Fund,” and such fund shall consist of all moneys collected by assessment or otherwise for the maintenance and operation of the properties owned or acquired by such district, or for temporary rental due to the United States, and, except the expenses of assessing and collecting taxes for interest and sinking fund, which shall be paid as provided in the next preceding article, out of said maintenance and operating fund shall set aside the amortization and emergency fund, hereinafter provided for, and shall be paid all expense of operation of every kind, and any balance due on construction, or for extensions or improvements, not otherwise provided for, such debts to be paid upon warrants executed as otherwise provided herein. [Acts 1923, p. 378, Sec. 70.]

Art. 7715. Engineer make inspection and valuation.—As soon after the passage of this Act as practicable and before fixing the next annual assessment for maintenance and operation, the board of directors of each such district shall cause to be made by a competent engineer an inspection and valuation of all the physical properties of such district, subject to decay or obsolescence, or to loss, injury or damage by any sudden, accidental or unusual cause whatsoever, and based upon such inspection and valuation said engineer shall determine, as nearly as may be, such a sum, to be annually set aside, as will be sufficient to pay for replacement of each item of such physical property at the end of its economical life, or for the restoration or replacement of any such physical property upon the happening of such loss, injury or damage thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7716. “Amortization and Emergency Fund.”—Out of the maintenance and operation fund, as the same shall be collected, such board of directors shall set aside such portion thereof as shall be necessary to make each year the amount of the annual sum determined as above provided, to be known as the “Amortization and Emergency Fund” and no part of such fund shall be expended except to replace such amortized property or to restore or replace such lost, injured, or damaged property. Any part of the Amortization or Emergency Fund not necessarily expended for the purposes above provided, may be invested in bonds or interest bearing securities of the United States. Provided, that any such board of directors may or may not, in the discretion of such Board, establish such Amortization and Emergency Fund, but after such fund has been established for any such district as above provided, the same shall thereafter be kept up and maintained. [Id.]

Art. 7717. Term of office.—The terms of office of all officers elected for such district shall be for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, however, that all officers elected at the first election held under the provisions of this chapter shall hold office only until the next regular election to be held in said district for the election of such officers. [Acts 1917, p. 194, Sec. 71.]

Art. 7718. Directors elected or appointed.—There shall be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1924, and every two years thereafter, a general election, at which time there shall be elected five directors for such district, who shall be the elective officers for such district. Provided, that in all such districts containing not to exceed twelve thousand acres, in which sixty per cent or more of the lands in such district are owned by persons who do not reside in the district, the directors shall be appointed by the county commissioners' court of the county in which the district is situated. The term of office for such directors shall be two years and they shall be so appointed at the same time fixed for the election of directors in other districts and if for any reason the county commissioners' court is not in session at that time the said court shall convene and appoint said directors as soon thereafter as possible. The owners of the lands in such district may file with the county commissioners' court petitions expressing their choice of persons to be selected as directors, and if the owners of sixty per cent of such land, and if sixty per cent of such landowners, agree upon the persons to be appointed, the persons so agreed upon, if qualified, shall be appointed. Otherwise the said court shall appoint suitable qualified persons as such directors. [Acts 1923, Ch. 58, Sec. 72.]

Art. 7719. Directors receive and canvass election returns.—All elections held in water improvement districts shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this State, except as herein otherwise provided; provided, however, that the board of directors shall appoint all necessary officers to hold such elections, and shall name the polling places in said district, and shall receive and canvass the election returns and do and perform all other duties necessary to the holding of said election and canvassing the returns thereof and declaring the result thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 194, Sec. 73.]

Art. 7720. Employment time limited.—All other persons employed or representing said district shall be employed by the board of directors for such time and under such terms and conditions as said board of directors shall deem best for the interest of said district; provided, however, that no contract shall ever be made with any person or employee for a longer period of time, at any one time, than one year, and the salaries of all such employees, or the compensation to be received by them, shall be fixed by the board of directors at the time of the employment. [Id. Sec. 74.]

Art. 7721. Vacancies filled, how.—All vacancies in the office of director for such district shall be filled by the board of directors by appointment, and the director so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election, and until his successor has been elected and qualified. Provided, however, that where the number of directors shall have been reduced by death or resignation or from other cause to less than three, then such vacancies shall be filled by a special election to be ordered by the president of said board of directors, or by any two members of said board, said election to be ordered and held after the giving of notice for the election of said officers as provided for the holding of general elections; and further provided, that if said president or two of the directors shall fail or refuse to order such election, then said election may be ordered by the district judge of any judicial district in which said district may be situated upon a petition signed by any five parties interested in the election of said directors, whether said interested parties be taxpayers or bond holders; and when so ordered, notice shall be given of said election, and such election held in the manner provided for the holding of general elections, but under the order of said court, and the directors elected at such election shall hold their office until the next general election, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. In the event that less than a quorum exists to approve bonds of such elected directors, then such bonds shall be approved by the county commissioners' court of the county in which such directors reside. [Id., Sec. 75.]

Art. 7722. Directors compensation.—The directors provided for by this chapter shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five dollars per day for each and every day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such directors, and said directors shall file with the secretary for such district a statement verified by their affidavit of the number of days actually taken by them in the service of said district, said statement to be filed on the last Saturday in each month, or as nearly thereafter as practicable, and before a warrant shall issue for the payment of such services. [Id., p. 195, Sec. 76.]

Art. 7723. Right of eminent domain. The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through all lands, private and public, except as hereinafter indicated, necessary for making reservoirs, canals, laterals, and for pumping sites, drainage ditches, levees and all other improvements necessary and proper for such districts, and the authority hereby conferred shall authorize and empower such districts to condemn all lands, private and public, for the purposes herein indicated beyond the boundary of such districts and in any county within the State of Texas; the right of eminent domain shall not extend to land used for cemetery purposes, nor to property owned by any person, association of persons, corporation or water improvement district, and used for the purpose of supplying water under the laws of this State and necessary for the making of reservoirs, canals, laterals, pumping sites, levee and drainage ditches, or other appurtenant work by such owner. All such condemnation proceedings shall be under the direction of the directors and in the name of the irrigation or water improvement district, and the assessing of damages and all procedure with reference to condemnation, appeal and payment shall be in conformity with the statutes of the State and as provided in Title 52 of this Act relating to "Eminent Domain," and all such compensation and damages adjudicated in such condemnation proceedings shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of said district. [Id., Sec. 77.]

Art. 7724. Defined districts.—In all cases where districts have been heretofore established or wherein proceedings are now pending to establish same, and a hearing has heretofore been had upon a petition to establish such districts, and action thereon has been taken by the commissioners' court, or where a public hearing is now pending upon such petition, and the notices thereof and therefor have been given as provided for by Chapter 172, of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature, such notices are hereby deemed and declared to be and to have been due and regular notices of such publication under the full meaning, intents and purposes of this chapter, and all such districts so established are hereby declared to be duly and regularly established and are hereby declared to be defined districts, or territory within the meaning of the Constitution, and all acts or things done by said districts under the provisions of said Chapter 172, of the Thirty-third Legislature are hereby validated and declared to be the regular and binding act of such district. [Id., Sec. 78.]

Art. 7725. District dissolved, when.—In the event that any district established under the provisions of Chapter 172 of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature shall not within two years after the taking effect of this Act, or that any district which may hereafter be established under the provisions of this chapter shall not within two years after the conclusion of the organization of such district begin to acquire the necessary canals, ditches, flumes, laterals, reservoirs, sites, dam sites, pumping plants or other things necessary to the successful operation of such a district, or shall not diligently pursue the purposes for which said district was created, then and in that event, such district may be dissolved without the necessity of taking any action in connection therewith, and any party having interest herein, or to whom any debt may be due and owing by said district, may collect such debt in the same manner provided by law for the collection of any debt due by any person, association of persons or corporation, and such debt shall be a lien upon the property of such district when established by any court of competent jurisdiction, and the judgment of said court shall provide for the payment of such debt and judgment in the same manner as judgments for debt against cities or towns that have been dissolved may be enforced; and provided further, that any district heretofore organized, or hereafter organized, under the provisions of this chapter, may voluntarily dissolve by the same vote and in the same manner herein provided for the organization of districts, such election to be held in the manner herein provided for the holding of elections in such districts, but provided further, that no dissolution shall be had until all debts and obligations have been fully paid and discharged. Any such district may also voluntarily abolish its corporate existence in the same manner as provided by law for the dissolution of drainage districts, as set forth in Chapter 28 of the Acts of the Thirty-third Legislature, First Called Session, and each and all of the provisions of said Act shall apply to and control the abolition of said districts and the legal consequence thereof. [Id., p. 195, Sec. 79.]

Art. 7726. Advice of State Board of Water Engineers.—When any district proposed to be established embraces lands located in two or more counties the owners of title, or evidence of title of a majority of the acreage of the proposed district, or fifty property tax paying voters of the territory proposed to be embraced within a district may petition the State Board of Water Engineers for a hearing to determine the advisability of the creation of such district, and for an order of election creating such district, and for the election of five directors of the proposed district. Upon the filing of such petition the Board of Water Engineers shall set the same down for a hearing at a date not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the filing of such petition, and shall cause notice to be given to the commissioners' courts of each county in which lands are located proposed to be embraced in the district, and stating the date and place of the hearing, and upon receipt of such notice by the commissioners' courts from the State Board of Water Engineers it shall be the duty of the clerk of the said commissioners' courts to post a notice at the courthouse door of the date and place of hearing. At such hearing on said petition to the Board of Water Engineers any person whose land would be affected by the organization of such district may appear before the Board of Water Engineers and protest against or contend for the creation of the proposed district, and may offer competent testimony to show that the said district would or would not serve a beneficial purpose, and that the organization of such district would or would not be practicable or capable of accomplishing the purposes intended by its organization. [Acts 1921, p. 20, Sec. 80.]

Art. 7727. To grant petition.—If upon hearing of such petition it shall appear to the Board of Water Engineers that the proposed plan of water conservation, irrigation and use presented in the petition praying for the organization of the district, is practicable and would present a public utility, then the said Board of Water Engineers shall so find and enter such finding in the records of the Board, and shall transmit a certified copy of such finding to the commissioners' court in each county in which lands proposed to be embraced within said district are situated, and naming a date on which an election shall be held in the territory to be comprised within the district to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be created in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and for the election of a board of five directors of such district. But should the Board of Water Engineers upon such hearing determine that said proposed district is not practicable, and will not serve a beneficial purpose, and that it would not be possible to accomplish through its organization the purposes proposed, then it shall so find and enter its findings of record, and the petition shall be thereupon dismissed. Provided, that the boundary lines of the proposed district may be so changed in the course of such hearing as to meet objections urged to the practicability and feasibility of the district, in accordance with the findings of the Board of Water Engineers, if such changes will result in bringing the proposed district within the provisions of the statute, and will make such district serve a beneficial purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7728. Commissioners' court give notice.—Upon the receipt of a certified copy of the findings of the Board of Water Engineers authorizing an election to determine whether or not the proposed district shall be formed, the commissioners' court of each county and part of county which is embraced within the proposed district shall give notice of an election to be held on the date named in the finding and order of the Board of Water Engineers, which notice shall be posted as provided in this chapter for other elections for not less than fifteen, nor more than thirty days before the date fixed for the election. [Id.]

Art. 7729. Purpose of election.—At the said election there shall be submitted for the decision of the voters the question whether or not the proposed district shall be created, and for the election of five directors for the district. Persons desiring to vote for the creation of such district and for the election of five directors for such district shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For the District," and those desiring to vote against the creation of the district shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against the District." At such election the names of the directors may be written or printed upon said ballot, or a separate ballot may be used for such purpose. [Id.]

Art. 7730. Canvassing returns.—In certifying the result of its findings upon the petition for an election to create a district, and for the election of the board of directors, the Board of Water Engineers shall designate the county judge in one of the counties in the proposed district as a canvassing board to receive and canvass and declare the result of the election for the creation of the proposed district. When the election for the creation of the district has been held the officers named by the commissioners' court of the different counties to hold the elections in the proposed district shall make returns of the election to the commissioners' court of their respective counties and return all ballot boxes to the clerk of the commissioners' court of the county, and it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court of each county in the proposed district upon receiving returns of the election to canvass the same and certify the result of the election in the county to the county judge of that county named by the Board of Water Engineers as the canvassing board in the election for the creation of the district, and for the election of the board of directors. Upon receipt of the returns of the election in the different counties of the district the county judge designated to canvass the vote shall canvass such vote and certify the result to each county in the proposed district. If a majority of the votes cast in the district are in favor of the creation of the district, this finding shall be entered of record in the permanent records of the commissioners' court in each county embraced in whole or in part in the proposed district, and the county judge of the county canvassing the vote of the district shall certify the result

to the five persons receiving the highest number of votes for directors, and issue to them a certificate of election, and the said directors shall after having been notified proceed with the organization of the district as provided in this chapter. [Id., p. 21, Sec. 81.]

Art. 7731. Districts governmental agencies.—The board of directors, as soon as they shall have qualified, shall proceed to the selection of all administrative officers and necessary employees for the direction of the affairs of the district in the manner provided in this chapter for districts lying wholly in one county, except as may be specifically provided in these Articles 7726 to 7731, inclusive. The board of directors elected for such district shall qualify and meet as hereinabove provided, and shall have charge of the affairs of the district in the same manner as herein provided for districts lying wholly within one county. All such districts shall be governmental agencies, and body politic and corporate, and be governed by and exercise all the rights, privileges and powers provided by law as pertaining to districts lying within one county, and as embodied in the provisions of this chapter. [Id., p. 22, Sec. 82.]

Art. 7732. Conditions of additional territory.—Whenever any water improvement district has been formed under this chapter, or under the provisions of Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, lying wholly within one county, and it is to the advantage of such district and of land owners lying in the adjoining county or counties to have such adjoining lands added to or included in such established district then the same may be so included in or added to the territory already included in such established district in the following manner: The owners of the fee shall make application to the directors of the established district to which they desire to be annexed, which application shall be in writing and shall describe the lands covered by the application by metes and bounds and same shall be acknowledged in the same manner and form as now required for the acknowledgment of deeds, and if said land is a homestead or the separate property of a married woman it shall be acknowledged by both husband and wife. [Acts 1917, p. 198, Sec. 83.]

Art. 7733. Petition heard and election thereof.—The directors of the district shall set said petition or application down for hearing on some certain date and shall give notice of such hearing in the same manner as provided in Articles 7623 and 7624 of this chapter, and shall consider same in the same manner as provided for the consideration of petitions by the county commissioners' court as set out and provided in Articles 7626 and 7627 of this chapter, and in the event that they shall find and determine that it is for the advantage of such established district and for advantage of the lands sought to be added thereto, to so include said lands in said district, then they shall so find and enter said findings of record in the minutes of said directors and they shall thereupon order an election to be held in said established district to determine whether or not said additional territory shall be permitted to be added thereto, which election shall be held after thirty days notice, which notice shall be given by posting copies of such notice in five public places in said district for at least twenty days next preceding the day of election, and if there be a newspaper published in said district, by publishing such notice for at least once a week for three weeks next preceding the day of said election. [Id.]

Art. 7734. Question submitted.—The said notice shall be given by the directors which said directors shall furnish all necessary supplies for said election and shall appoint two judges and two clerks for all polling places in said district to conduct said election and make return thereof, which officers shall take the oath of office prescribed by the general election laws of the State, and they shall make returns of said election to the directors of the district, but in all other things said election shall be held in conformity with the general election laws of the State. At such election there shall be submitted the question, and none other, "Shall the proposed territory be added to the district?" and there shall follow said sentence the word "Yes" and just below it the word "No." [Id.]

Art. 7735. Two-thirds majority required. If two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers of said district vote "yes," then the said territory may be added and become a part of said district in the same manner as if originally incorporated therein and subject to all laws governing said district; provided, that the directors of said district may require the owners of said lands to pay into the interest and sinking fund of said district their proper pro rata part of charges theretofore made against the lands in said district to pay interest and sinking fund upon bonds of said district. [Id.]

Art. 7736. Extra election held.—If the application or petition for the addition of lands to the districts as herein provided for shall cover a number of different tracts of land, or if there be included in the territory so described in said application or petition property taxpayers other than those signing and acknowledging such application, or if there be included in such territory as many as ten property taxpaying voters, then at the same time the election above provided for is held in said established district, there shall also be held and conducted under the same rules and regulations as above provided for elections within such established territory, an election in such territory that is proposed to be added, except that the notice of election shall include a full description by metes and bounds of the territory included within such proposed addition. The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon, "For Addition to Irrigation District," and "Against Addition to Irrigation District," but shall not contain any other matter whatever. In the event that two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpaying voters voting thereon at said election vote in favor of the addition of such territory, then same may be added to such irrigation district by a proper order of the directors entered upon the minutes of such established district, said order to be made within twenty days after the holding of such election, and said territory so added shall thereafter be and become an integral part of said district subject to all laws governing said district as completely and as fully as if same had been included in the district in its original formation; provided, however, that no water shall be furnished for the irrigation of land included within said district until the owners and holders thereof shall have fully paid the charges fixed against each such land by the directors as a condition to their admission into the district as provided for in this Act. [Id.]

Art. 7737. Voters have right to participate.—Such additions to such district shall not in any manner affect the officers, employes and affairs of such district, but the voters of such added territory shall have a right to participate in all matters of the district considered or voted upon thereafter, and in case contract has been made with the United States as aforesaid, the Secretary of the Interior may assent to such change. [Id.]

Art. 7738. Penalty for prohibiting officers to enter land.—The directors of any district and the engineer and employees thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district, for the purpose of examining same, locating reservoirs, canals, dams, pumping plants, and all other improvements, to make maps and profiles thereof; and are hereby authorized to go upon the lands beyond the boundaries of such districts in any county for the purposes stated, and for any other purposes necessarily connected therewith, whether herein enumerated or not. And any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any such officers or employees from entering any lands for such purposes shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer or employee from entering upon any lands. [Id. p. 199, Sec. 84.]

Art. 7739. Contracts made by directors.—Contracts for making and constructing reservoirs, dams, canals, laterals, pumping plants, check gates, sluice gates, and all improvements whatsoever of said district shall be made by the directors, to the lowest responsible bidder, after giving notice by advertising same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the State of Texas, and in one newspaper published in the county, if there be one in the county, and one newspaper in such district, if there be one in the irrigation district, which notice shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks; and also by posting notices for at least twenty days in five public places in the district, and one at the courthouse door of the county or counties in which such district is situated; provided that the provisions of this article shall not apply in case of any contract between the district and the United States. [Id. p. 200, Sec. 85.]

Art. 7740. Copy of engineer's report furnished bidder.—Any person, corporation or firm, desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised as provided for herein, shall upon application to the directors be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report, and profile, showing the work to be done, provided the directors may charge therefor the actual cost of having such report and profile made and furnished. All bids or offers to do any such work shall be in writing, and sealed and delivered to the president or secretary of the board of directors, together with a certified check for at least two per cent of the total amount bid, which said amount shall be forfeited to the district in the event the bidder refused to enter into a proper contract for his bid as accepted. Any or all bids may be rejected in the judgment of the directors. All bids shall be opened at the same time. [Id. Sec. 86.]

Art. 7741. Copy of contract recorded.—All contracts made by the districts shall be in conformity with and subject to the provision of this chapter, and the provisions of this chapter shall be a part of all contracts in so far as applicable to either the contractor or the district, and the provisions of this chapter shall govern whenever the contract is in conflict herewith. The contract shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors and directors, and a copy of same so executed shall be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which said district is situated, which said copy so filed with said county clerk shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and be subject to public inspection. [Id. Sec. 87.]

Art. 7742. Give bond.—The person, firm or corporation to whom such contract is let shall give bond payable to the district in such amount as the directors may determine, not to exceed the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and that in default thereof they will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Such bond shall be approved by the directors, and shall be deposited with the depository of the district, a true copy thereof being retained in the office of such directors. [Id. Sec. 88.]

Art. 7743. Specifications included.—All such contracts shall contain a full statement of the specifications for all work included in the contract, and all such work shall be done in accordance with the specifications under the supervisions of the directors and the district engineer. [Id. Sec. 89.]

Art. 7744. Full and detailed reports given.—As the work progresses the engineer of such district will make full reports to the directors, showing in detail whether the contract is being complied with or not in the construction, and when the work is completed the engineer shall make a detailed report of same to the directors, showing whether or not the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been so complied with. The directors, however, will not be bound by such report, but may in addition thereto fully investigate such work and determine whether or not such contract has been complied with. [Id.]

Art. 7745. Bridges and culverts.—The district is hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any railroad track and roadway of such railway to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, lateral, or ditch necessary to be constructed as a part of the improvements of such district. Such bridges or culverts shall be paid for by the district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by such district directors by delivering a written notice to any legal agent, division superintendent or roadmaster of such railway, and the railway company shall be allowed thirty days to build such bridges or culverts at their own expense, if they should desire to do so, and according to their own plans; provided such canal, culvert or ditch shall be constructed of sufficient size not to interfere with the free and unobstructed flow of water passing through the canal or ditch, and shall be placed at such points as are designated by the district engineer, or directors. [Id.]

Art. 7746. Bridges and culverts required.—Such districts are hereby authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, laterals and ditches made and constructed by such district, whenever the same crosses a county or public road, and shall pay for the same out of the funds of such district. [Id. p. 2091, Sec. 90.]

Art. 7747. Disbursement of remaining funds.—After the full and final completion of all the improvements of such district as heréin provided for, and after the payment of all the expense incurred under the provisions of this chapter, the directors are authorized to use the remaining funds of the district for the best interest of such district in the preservation, upkeep and repair of the works of such district. [Id. Sec. 91.]

Art. 7748. Directors to inspect—draw warrant.—The directors shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, at all times during the progress of the work being done under any contract, to inspect the same; and upon the completion of any contract in accordance with its terms, they shall draw a warrant on the depository of the district for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee; and if the directors shall deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise a contract to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, and such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty-five (85) per cent of the amount of work done, the said amount of work completed to be shown by certified report of the engineer of the district. [Id. Sec. 92.]

Art. 7749. Semi-annual report.—The directors shall make a semi-annual report on the first days of July and January of each year, showing in detail the kind, character, and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same, the amount of each warrant drawn, and to whom paid, and for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this chapter, and each report shall be verified by them, a copy of which shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which such district is situated, and shall be open to public inspection. [Id. Sec. 93.]

Art. 7750. Supply water for annual rental.—When a district acquires an established irrigation system which has supplied water to lot owners in a city, town or village, and such city, town or village is not included in such district, such district shall continue to supply water to such lot owners for a reasonable annual rental. [Id. p. 202, Sec. 94.]

Art. 7751. Statement furnished.—Every person desiring to receive water during the course of the year, or at any time during the year, shall furnish to the secretary of the board of directors a statement in writing of the acreage intended by him to be put under irrigation, and for which water is to be used, and as near as may be, a statement of the several crops to be planted with the acreage of each, and shall at the same time pay such proportion of the water charge or assessment therefor as may be prescribed by the board of directors. If such statement should not be furnished or such payment should not be made before the date for fixing the assessments, there shall be no obligation upon the district to furnish such water to such person for that year. [Acts 1923, p. 379, Sec. 95.]

Art. 7752. Expense estimated.—The board of directors, on or as soon as practicable after a date in each year to be fixed by a standing order of the board, shall carefully estimate the expense to be incurred during the course of the next succeeding twelve months for the maintenance and operation of the irrigation system. A proportionate part of the amount so estimated, not less than one-third, nor more than two-thirds, to be determined from year to year, by the board of directors, shall be paid by assessment against all irrigable lands within the district, pro rata per acre; that is to say, against all lands to which the district is in condition to furnish water by its then system of canals and laterals, or through extensions thereto of then existing laterals, but without reference as to whether such land is to be actually irrigated or not; and the remainder of the amount so estimated shall be paid by the persons taking water or applying for water as aforesaid. This remaining amount shall be equitably prorated, as nearly as may be, among the applicants for water, and in prorating same, the board of directors may take into consideration the acreage to be planted by each applicant for water, the crop to be grown by him, and the amount of water per acre to be used by him; provided, however, that each water user shall pay the same price per acre for use of water upon the same class of crops. All assessments shall be paid in installments and at times to be fixed by the order of the board of directors, but if the crop for which such water was furnished shall be harvested prior to time fixed for the payment of any installment, the entire unpaid assessment shall at once become due and shall be paid within ten days after the harvesting of such crop and before the removal of same from the county or counties in which grown. The board of directors shall have power and authority from time to time to adopt, alter and rescind rules, regulations, standing orders and temporary orders, not in conflict with this chapter, governing the methods, ways, terms and conditions of water service, applications for water, assessments for maintenance and operation and the payment and the enforcement of payment of such assessments, and the furnishing of water to persons who have not applied for same before the date of assessment, and to persons who desire to take water for irrigation in excess of their original applications, or for use on other lands than those covered by such applications. The board of directors may, at their discretion, require every person desiring water during the course of the year to enter into a contract with the district, which contract shall indicate the acreage to be watered, the crops to be planted, and the amount to become due, and the terms of payment; and it may be further required that the water taker shall execute a negotiable note or notes for such amounts, or for parts thereof. The making of such contracts shall not constitute a waiver of the lien given by this chapter upon the crops of the water taker for the service furnished to him. If the water taker shall water more land than is called for in his contract he shall pay for the additional service rendered as and at the time hereinbefore indicated. To secure money for operating and maintenance expense of the district, the board of directors shall have authority to borrow money with interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum, and may hypothecate any of its notes or contracts with water takers or accounts against them. The district shall have a first lien, superior to all other liens, upon all crops of whatever kind grown upon each tract of land in the district, to secure the payment of the assessments herein provided for, and all such assessments shall bear interest from the time due and payable, at the rate of ten per cent per annum. And if suit should be filed therefor, or the same should be collected by any legal proceeding, an additional amount of ten per cent on unpaid principal and interest shall be added to the same as collection or attorneys fees, which collection fees, as well as principal and interest of such assessments, shall stand secured by the lien aforesaid. Suits for delinquent water assessments may be brought either in the county in which the irrigation district is situated or in the county in which the defendant resides. All land owners shall be personally liable for all assessments herein provided for, and if they shall fail or refuse to pay same when due the water supply shall be cut off and no water shall be furnished to the land until all back dues are fully paid. This provision with respect to cutting off water shall bind all parties, persons and corporations owning or thereafter acquiring any interest in said lands. The directors of all districts shall within ten days after any assessment is due, post at a public place in said district a list of all delinquents and shall thereafter keep posted a correct list of all such delinquents; provided, however, that if the parties owing such assessments shall have executed notes and contracts as hereinbefore provided, they shall not be placed upon such delinquent list until after the maturity of such notes and contracts.

In the event that contract shall be made with the United States, the remedies in this section hereinbefore provided in favor of the district shall apply with regard to the operation and maintenance and rental charges which may become due the United States. Provided, however, that the Federal Reclamation Laws, and in particular, The Reclamation Extension Act approved August 13, 1914, and any Acts amendatory thereof, shall be applicable. Moreover, all water, the right to the use of which is acquired by the district under contract with the United States, shall be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the Acts of Congress, and rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior, and the provisions of such contract in relation thereto, and it is so enacted. [Id.]

Art. 7753. Public notice of assessments given.—In the event the assessments made as provided for in the preceding article should be more than sufficient to meet the necessary obligations of the district, the balance shall be carried over to the next season; and in the event the assessments made are not sufficient to meet the necessary expenses of such district the balance unpaid shall be assessed, as pro rata, in accordance with the assessments previously made for the then current year, and shall be paid under the same conditions and penalties within thirty days from the time such assessment is made. Public notice of all such assessments shall be given by posting printed notices thereof in at least three public places in the district, and printed notices shall be mailed to each land owner; provided, however, each land owner shall furnish to the board of directors his correct post-office address. Such notice shall be given by posting and mailing such notice five days before the assessment is due, and in the event of special assessments such notice shall be given within ten days after such assessments are levied. [Acts 1917, p. 204, Sec. 96.]

Art. 7754. Plans include, what.—Included in the plans of any such district may be the necessary drainage ditches, or other facilities for drainage, and necessary levees for the protection of land under the system; and every such district may purchase the system or any part of any system belonging to a drainage district. The purchase, however, shall provide for the payment of the debts of the drainage district, or the assumption of such debts, and the amount of such debts paid or assumed is to be considered in determining the bond issuing capacity of the district. [Id. Sec. 97.]

Art. 7755. Assessments collected, how.—All assessments for operation and maintenance expenses made under the provisions of this chapter shall be collected under the direction of the directors, by the assessor and collector of taxes, or other person designated by them, which said officer shall give bond in such sum as they may direct conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and accounting for all money collected. He shall keep a true account of all money collected, and deposit the same as collected in the district depository, and shall file with the secretary of the directors a true statement of all money collected once each week. The collectors shall use duplicate receipt books, and shall give a true receipt for each collection made, retaining in such book a true copy thereof, which shall be preserved as a record of the district. [Id. Sec. 98.]

Art. 7756. True accounts kept where.—The directors of such district shall keep a true account of all their meetings and proceedings, and shall preserve all contracts, records and notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatsoever kind, in a fireproof vault or safe, and the same shall be the property of the district and shall be delivered to their successors in office. [Id. Sec. 99.]

Art. 7757. Depository selected.—The directors for such district shall select a depository for such district under the same provisions as are now or may hereafter be provided for the selection of the depository for the counties in this State. The duties of such depositories shall be the same as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for county depositories. However, in the selection of depositories the directors of such district shall act in the same capacity and perform the same duties as is incumbent upon the county judge and members of the county commissioners' court in the selection of the county depository; provided, however, that in the event the highest and best bidder for the handling of such funds as the depository of such district should be a bank in which members of such board should be a stockholder or director, that then in that event such bank may be selected as such depository by the other directors being a majority of said board, and the bond given by such depository may be approved by them, but in such event before said order so selecting said such depository or approving such bonds shall be effective, the same shall be filed with and approved by the county judge of the county in which such district is situated, and such approval by such county judge shall make such action final, but in the event the county judge of said county shall, for any reason, fail to approve said selection or to approve said bond, then said bank shall not be selected, but new bids shall be called for, and some other bank be selected. [Acts 1921, p. 22, Sec. 100.]

Art. 7758. Monthly report.—The district depository shall make a report of all moneys received, and all of moneys paid out, at the end of each month, and file such reports with such vouchers among the records of said district in its own vault, and shall furnish a true copy thereof to the directors, and shall, when called upon, allow same to be inspected by any taxpayer or resident of such district. Such records shall be preserved as the property of such district and shall be delivered to the successor of such depository. [Id. Sec. 101.]

Art. 7759. Regular office maintained.—The directors of each district shall have and maintain a regular office suitable for conducting the affairs of such district, within such district, or within a town situated within the general boundary lines of such district, and not removed therefrom. And such directors shall hold regular meetings at said office on the first Monday in February, May, August and November of each year, at ten o'clock a. m., and shall hold such other regular special meetings as they may see fit. And any such resident taxpayer or interested party may attend any such meeting of such directors, but shall not participate in any such meetings without the consent of the directors and shall have no authority to vote upon any matter considered by such directors, but may present such matters as they desire to such directors in an orderly manner. [Id. Sec. 102.]

Art. 7760. Surety company bond.—All officers and employees of any district who may be required to give bond or security, may furnish bonds of surety companies subject to the approval of the directors; provided, however, whenever such surety company bond is furnished by any officer or employee, the surety company furnishing same shall file for record in the office of the county clerk of the county where such district is situated a duly executed power of attorney, showing the authority of the person signing such bond for said company, to so sign same, and said power of attorney shall be duly executed by the officers of said company, and have attached the company seal; and such power of attorney shall remain on file in said office. All such official bonds shall be preserved by it as the property of said district. [Id. Sec. 103.]

Art. 7761. Directors select auditor—report made.—All meetings of the directors shall be held at the regular office of the district. All vouchers issued for the payment of any funds of the district shall be signed by at least four directors, except as provided in Article 7640, and shall refer to the book and page of the minutes allowing such account. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book containing a duplicate which shall be preserved. The directors shall have kept a complete book of accounts for such district, and shall on September first of each year select a competent auditor who shall examine the accounts, books and reports of the depository, the assessor and collector and the directors, and make a full report thereon, a copy of which shall be filed with the depository and a copy with the directors and one with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such district is situated. Such report shall be filed by November 1st of each year. [Id. Sec. 104.]

Art. 7762. Unearned portion of taxes.—Where a district organized under prior Acts has issued bonds and levied taxes to provide the interest and sinking fund thereon and said bonds or a portion thereof have not been sold at such time, the directors of such district may return all unearned portion of said taxes, if collected, and may cancel all unearned portion of said taxes not collected and all penalty, interest and costs thereon. At the time of the sale of such bonds, however, a sufficient tax shall be levied to provide all interest and charges thereon. [Id. p. 206, Sec. 105.]

Art. 7763. Joint ownership contract.—Two or more districts may jointly own and construct irrigation works and reservoirs under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract. Any such contract shall not be binding until same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of each such district. An election shall be held in each such district upon the same day to determine whether such contract shall be adopted. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy shall be filed in the office of each district fifteen days prior to such election and be subject to public inspection, and one true copy of same shall be furnished each voter calling at such office for same at any time within fifteen days prior to such election. When improvements are constructed by two or more districts, bids may be jointly called for and may be opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and such districts shall approve the letting of the contract, and the contractor's bond, and may meet for that purpose at a place outside of their district, or at any office established for such joint project and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted, all bids, bonds, contracts, etc., of said joint project may be in the names of said joint project districts, such districts being empowered and authorized to do all acts by joint action that one district may do. The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed for such joint enterprise whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract.

The terms and conditions of such joint ownership contract shall not conflict with the provisions of the law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation of same. Such contracts may be amended in the same manner. [Id., Sec. 106.]

Art. 7764. Districts validly created.—The Act of the Twenty-ninth Legislature, being Chapter 50 of the Acts of 1905, and the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, being Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, and Chapter 138 of the Acts of 1915, are hereby repealed. All districts heretofore organized under the terms and in accordance with the provisions of said Acts, are hereby expressly declared to be validly created, organized, described and defined with boundaries as prescribed by the order of the commissioners' court organizing the same, or as the same have since been changed by the board of directors thereof in the manner provided by said Acts. Such districts, however, shall hereafter be governed by the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that the duly constituted and qualified officers of such districts shall continue to perform the duties of such offices until the next general election held under the provisions of this chapter.

All bonds issued by such district, which have been declared valid by a judgment of the district court, shall be and be held to be valid and binding obligations of such district and not subject to attack, except for actual fraud. Any such district may change its name to the name herein provided for such districts by filing a declaration to that effect with the commissioners' court of the county or counties in which it is situated, and which said declaration shall be in the form of a deed of conveyance and duly acknowledged by the president and secretary of the district, and shall embody and set forth a copy of the minutes of said board of directors, and show the resolution adopted for the change of such name, and when such instrument shall have been so recorded, the name of such district shall hereby be changed.

All districts in the process of organization under existing laws repealed by this Act, are hereby declared to be valid districts and entitled to proceed in accordance with the provisions of said Act so repealed until the date upon which this Act shall take effect after which, said districts shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter, and said districts shall change their name to conform to the provisions of this chapter by filing a declaration as above provided, in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which they are situated; and if they have not proceeded to the point of election of directors, they shall change such name by making application to the county commissioners' court having jurisdiction thereof, which said court shall change said name upon all orders thereafter issued relating to said district. [Id., Sec. 107.]

Art. 7765. District necessities authorized.—All districts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have full authority, acting by and through its board of directors, to construct all works and improvements necessary for the irrigation of lands in said districts, and to supply, deliver and sell water for domestic, power, and commercial purposes when operating under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution; and to fully carry out the purposes of its organization and the conservation and use of water for the several purposes authorized by the Constitution and the laws of this State, and to acquire the right to the use of water in the manner provided by law, and the directors of such districts, subject only to the provisions hereof, shall have full authority to manage such districts and the business of such districts for the purpose of carrying out the intention and purposes of the organization. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 74, Sec. 108.]

Art. 7766. Land become part of district—originally included.—Where a district is organized embracing land irrigated by an established irrigation system and lands entitled to be served by an established irrigation system are not included in such district, in the manner provided by law, and when so admitted to or included in such district the said land shall become part of said district as if originally included therein and shall be entitled to water service upon an equal basis with the lands originally included in said district. [Acts 1917, p. 207, Sec. 109.]

Art. 7767. Water rights transferred.—Where there is included in a district lands having a water right from a source of supply acquired by such district but which lands it is difficult or impracticable to irrigate, the said district may allow such water rights to be transferred to other lands adjacent to said district and may admit such lands to said district upon an equal basis as to water service with the lands originally included in such district. [Id. Sec. 110.]

Art. 7768. Lands relieved of assessment, when.—Whenever any district organized or hereafter organized has failed or neglected to furnish water sufficient to irrigate any land within such district within two years from its organization, then such lands shall be relieved of any and all assessments and charges except taxes until such district shall construct the necessary canals and furnish the necessary water to enable the owner of said land to irrigate all of said land on demand therefor. [Id. p. 208, Sec. 111.]

Art. 7769. Conditions of tax levied.—The tax as levied in connection with the original issuance of bonds shall remain in force from year to year as the levy for that purpose, until a new levy shall be made. The board of directors may, from time to time, increase or diminish such tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable values of the property subject to taxation by the district and the amount to be collected, and in such manner as to raise an amount sufficient to pay the annual interest and sinking fund on said bonds then outstanding. [Id. Sec. 112.]

Art. 7770. Sinking funds invested.—The board of directors are authorized and empowered, whenever they may deem it advisable, to invest any sinking funds of the district, acquired for the redemption and payment of any of its outstanding bonds, in bonds of the United States, of the State of Texas, of any county of the State of Texas, any irrigation or water improvement bonds or of any incorporated city or town, or of any independent school district, or of any other school district in the State of Texas authorized to issue bonds; provided that no bonds shall be so purchased that according to their terms mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Id. Sec. 113.]

Art. 7771. County clerk's fees.—The county clerk shall receive for his services in registering said bonds the sum of ten cents for each bond so registered; for entering a payment of any bond, the sum of ten cents; for recording of instruments of the district required to be recorded, and for which no fees are hereinbefore fixed, he shall receive the same fees as provided by law for recording deeds. [Id. Sec. 114.]

Art. 7772. Manager employed.—The board of directors may employ a manager, who shall have general charge and management of the water distribution system of the district, subject to the general rules and regulations made by the board of directors, and who shall have power to appoint and discharge all other employees except the president and the secretary of the board and the assessor and collector, to purchase and contract for all supplies necessary for the water distribution system, after the board has authorized such purchases, to collect all assessments for operation and maintenance, and to execute on behalf of the district all water contracts and other contracts that are not required by the law to be executed by the board or by the president and secretary for the board, and who shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be provided by the board of directors. Unless such manager is appointed, all persons employed by or representing the district shall be employed by the board of directors. No contract shall ever be made with any manager or other person or employee, whether employed by the board of directors or by the manager, for a longer period of time than one year, and the salaries of all employees, or the compensation to be received by them, shall be fixed at the time of their employment. [Id. Sec. 115.]

Art. 7773. Bonds exchanged.—Where bonds have been issued, or may be hereafter issued, by a district organized under and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or where bonds have been issued by any district organized under the Act of the Twenty-ninth Legislature, being Chapter 50 of the Acts of 1905, or the Act of the Thirty-third Legislature, being Chapter 172 of the Acts of 1913, in accordance with the provisions of said Acts, respectively, new bonds bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued in lieu thereof. Such new bonds may be exchanged for old bonds, provided the old bonds are taken in exchange at their face value or at a discount, or they may be sold and the net proceeds applied to the purchase of the old bonds redeemed at par or at a discount. The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall not register said new bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which they are issued are presented to him for cancellation or until a valid contract has been entered into and a copy thereof filed with the Comptroller for the purchase of a corresponding amount of such old bonds. After registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall keep the same in his possession until the old bonds are surrendered to him and cancelled by him, whereupon he shall deliver the new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, that the old bonds may be so presented for payment, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as herein provided.

If the new bonds are in the same amounts and have the same dates of maturity as the old bonds intended to be replaced thereby, they may be authorized by resolution of the board of directors and issued without submitting the question of their issuance to the vote of the property taxpayers, who are qualified voters in the district, and they shall be registered by the Comptroller in the manner hereinbefore provided, and upon the filing with him a copy of the resolution of the board of directors providing for the cancellation of said old bonds and the issuance of the new bonds in place thereof; and when said old bonds shall have been cancelled and the new bonds registered by the Comptroller, such new bonds shall be the valid and binding obligations of the district, without further proceedings in regard thereto; and the same are hereby declared to have, and are hereby given, the same force, effect and validity as the original issue of bonds that they have replaced.

Any such district is authorized to issue new or refunding bonds in lieu of bonds heretofore or hereafter issued as aforesaid, in such amount, of such denominations, bearing such rates of interest and periods of maturity as may be provided by resolution of the board of directors thereof, within the limits prescribed in this chapter in the case of an original issuance of bonds, whenever the board of directors may deem such action advisable, but if such new or refunding bonds are in greater amount, bear a greater rate of interest or have longer periods of maturity, or in any other respect create a greater burden on the district than the old bonds then outstanding, the issuance of such new or refunding bonds shall be submitted to the vote of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of the district, and all provisions of this chapter governing the election and the issuance, approval, validation, registration, and sale of bonds in the case of an original issue of bonds shall apply to and govern such new or refunding bonds. All such bonds shall be registered and delivered only in the manner provided in this section. [Id. p. 209, Sec. 116.]

Art. 7774. Application for water improvement district.—Should any parties in any unorganized county wish to organize a water improvement district, under the provisions of this chapter, such parties shall have the right to do so by applying to the commissioners' court of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and such commissioners' court is hereby authorized to perform for said unorganized county all things which in this chapter is required of commissioners' court of organized counties. [Id. p. 210, Sec. 117.]

Art. 7775. Vote separately canvassed, when.—Whenever a district proposed to be organized as herein provided contains within its boundaries as proposed and described in the petition for organization, a town, city or municipal corporation, or part thereof, when the county commissioners' court calling the election to determine said question as herein provided shall constitute said territory within said town, city or municipal corporation, a separate election precinct, with one or more polling places, and the vote received for and against the proposition within said town, city or municipal corporation shall be separately canvassed by the court to determine whether or not a majority of those voting at said election within said town, city or municipal corporation voted for or against said proposition. If a majority of those voting at said election within such town, city or municipal corporation vote against the formation of such district the same shall not be formed including such town, city or municipal corporation, but if the majority of the votes therein is in favor of the formation of such district then such votes shall be canvassed with the votes of the balance of said entire district to determine the result of said election. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 75, Sec. 118a.]

Art. 7776. Fixing maintenance charges.—The maintenance charges may be fixed as provided in Article 7752 of this chapter, or same may be determined upon the basis of the quantity of water used, and if based upon the use of water a fixed charge may be made on all lands or water connections entitled to receive and use water, and an additional charge may be made, or a graduated scale adopted, for the use of water in excess of that covered by the minimum charge. The district may install proper measuring devices. [Id. Sec. 119.]

Art. 7777. Charging cities and towns.—Where a district includes a city or town, or contracts with a city or town to supply it water, the charge for the use and delivery of such water, and the time and manner of payment therefor shall be determined by the board of directors and be specified in a standing order of said board. [Id. Sec. 120.]

Art. 7778. Consolidation of districts.—Any two or more irrigation districts, or water improvement districts, governed by the provisions of this chapter and amendments thereof, may be consolidated into one district in the following manner: The terms and conditions upon which such consolidation is to be affected shall be agreed upon by the board of directors of each district, and then the question shall be submitted to a vote in each district after giving notice thereof for at least twenty days in the manner provided by law for other elections. The election shall be held in such districts on the same day. The consolidation to be effected only in the event same is adopted by each and all such districts. When two or more districts are consolidated their obligations shall not be impaired but shall be protected and paid by taxes levied upon the property in the district creating said debt or by assessments in the same manner and extent as if said consolidation had not been effected. After consolidation such taxes shall be assessed and collected by the officers of the consolidated district and in the event they should fail or refuse to so assess and collect same, for such purpose, in due order and time, then same may be assessed and collected, and paid on such obligations, by a receiver appointed by and acting under the orders of a district court, in a proper suit which may be brought by a creditor or by five or more taxpayers of such district. When two or more districts are consolidated into one district, same shall be governed as and be one district, except that the debts of each district, created prior to such consolidation, shall be paid as herein provided; provided, however, such consolidated district may contribute to such payments upon the terms stated in the consolidated agreement. When two or more districts are consolidated the officers of said respective districts shall continue to act jointly as the officers of said district, and to wind up, the affairs of their respective districts as effected by said consolidation, for a period of ninety days after the date of the election, and they may continue to so act until the next general election if so provided by the consolidation agreement, or the consolidation agreement may provide who shall constitute the first board of directors to serve until the next general election if the officers then serving agree to resign. Said new officers shall within the period of ninety days after the election qualify as such officers of the consolidated district and assume such office at the expiration of said period. All bonds of such officers will be approved by the then existing boards of directors. [Id. Sec. 121.]

Art. 7779. Benefit plan of taxation.—In the event that any irrigation or water improvement district, other than those operating under contract with the United States, have been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district so as to come within the terms of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and shall adopt or have adopted the assessment of benefit plan of taxation instead of the ad valorem plan of taxation then and in that event the fixing and assessing of property values on which taxes shall be levied and collected shall be made in the manner provided by Articles 7782 to 7787 inclusive, provided any such district may at the same election at which the adoption of said plan of taxation is voted upon, or at any other time before the issuance of bonds, vote upon the proposition of whether said benefits shall be fixed as an equal sum upon each acre of land that is irrigated or to be irrigated by gravity flow from the canal system of the district. In which event the amount of benefit per acre shall be voted upon as applied to all lands in the district that can be irrigated by gravity flow from the irrigation system to be constructed or purchased and also the benefit to lands in the district that can not be so irrigated.

When such questions are desired to be so submitted and an election held to determine same the board of directors of the district shall submit same and order such election in the same manner as provided by law for other elections in such districts. The ballots for such elections shall have printed thereon the following propositions: "For uniform assessment of benefits of $_____ per acre upon all irrigable lands in the district, and the assessment of $_____ per acre upon all non-irrigable lands in the district." "Against uniform assessment of benefits." Said blank spaces in said propositions shall be filled in with amounts as determined by said board of directors to be voted upon. Said amount of charge per acre to be found by dividing the number of acres of such lands into the amount of indebtedness to be incurred by the district in providing for the irrigation of same.

In the event the owners of lands classed as non-irrigable object to the amount of charges fixed against them by said order of the board of directors calling such election or as a result of said election they may have their said non-irrigable lands taken out of said district by filing application therefor as provided by law within ten days after such election is held.

If a majority of those voting on such proposition at such election vote in favor thereof same shall be adopted.

In the event the plan of uniform acreage valuation for taxation is adopted as herein provided the said valuation shall be applied to all such lands and it shall not be necessary for the assessor, or the board of equalization to annually fix the value thereof or equalize such values, except as herein provided, nor for the board of directors of the district to appoint a commission to ascertain or fix the value of the improvement to particular lands as in other cases provided. The board of equalization will examine the renditions and tax rolls to ascertain that all property subject to the tax is placed on such tax rolls under its proper classification and add any property thereto that may be left off such tax rolls or that may not have been rendered for taxation, and examine, correct, and certify to said tax rolls. Any property owner may protest the classification of his land as not being proper and the board of equalization shall fully consider any such protest, hear evidence, and enter their findings thereon in their minutes, in the same manner provided for protests in the case of the fixing of valuations upon property as provided by law.

The rate of taxation, the collection of taxes, assessment of property, rendering of property for taxation shall be made as now provided by law with reference to ad valorem taxes, except that any such lands shall be rendered or taxed and in rendering same the value thereof shall not be stated and it shall not be necessary that the party rendering same shall make affidavit to the value thereof nor that the value thereof be stated by the tax assessor, but same shall be rendered as subject to irrigation or not subject to irrigation.

In the event lands classed as non-irrigable are thereafter irrigated by said district the owner thereof prior to receiving water for irrigation shall pay to said district an amount equal to the entire amount that would have been charged to same if same had been originally classed as irrigable. [Acts 1921, p. 17; Acts 1923, p. 279, Sec. 122.]

Art. 7780. Locating offices.—Whenever a district is formed in such manner that the towns within or adjoining the territory included in the district are left out of said district, then in that event the directors for said district may establish the office in said district as provided by law, or may establish the office of said district within any town adjoining, or close to said district within the same county or counties, which may be best suited as a location for the transaction of the business of said district, provided, however, such office shall not be removed from the proximity of said district, but shall be so located as to be accessible to the residents of said district. [Id. p. 23, Sec. 123.]

Art. 7781. Collecting under benefit plan.—In the event that any irrigation or water improvement district, other than those operating under contract with the United States, have been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district, and shall adopt the assessment for benefit plan of taxation instead of the ad valorem system of taxation, as authorized by the provisions of Chapter 12 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, or under the provisions of this Act, then in that event the levy, assessment, equalization of property values, and collection of taxes shall be made in the manner provided by Sections 125 to 130 inclusive of this Act. [Id. Sec. 124.]

Art. 7782. Commissioners of appraisement.—As soon as practicable, after the approval of the report of the engineer, and the adoption of the plan of improvements to be constructed, the board of directors shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall be known as commissioners of appraisement, but who shall be freeholders, but not owners of land within the district for which they are to act. [Id. Sec. 125.]

Art. 7783. Time and place of meeting. The secretary of the board of directors immediately following the appointment of the commissioners of appraisement shall in writing notify each of his appointment, and in the notice designate a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to meet at the time and place specified or as soon thereafter as possible when they shall each take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge their duty as such commissioner, and make true report of the work done by them, and at such meeting the commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice-chairman, and the secretary of the board of directors, or in his absence such person as the board of directors may appoint, shall be secretary of said commissioners during their continuance in office and shall furnish to them such information and such assistance as may be within his power and necessary to the performance of their duties. [Id. Sec. 126.]

Art. 7784. To make report—compensation.—Within thirty days after qualifying and organizing as above directed, the commissioners of appraisal shall begin their duties, and they may at any time call upon the attorney of the district for legal advice and information relative to such duties, and may, if necessary, require the presence of the district engineer, or one of his assistants, as such times and for so long as may be necessary to the proper performance of their duties. Such commissioners shall proceed to view the lands within such district as will be affected by the plan of reclamation for such district as carried out, and all public roads, railroads, rights of way and other property or improvements located within such district, and shall assess the amounts of benefits and all damages, if any, that will accrue to any tract of land or other property within such district or to any public highway, railroad and other rights of way, roadways or other property from carrying out and putting into effect the improvements to be constructed by such district. The board shall prepare a report of their finding which shall show the owner of each piece of property examined, and on or concerning which any assessment is made, together with such description of said property as may identify the same, with the amount of damages and all benefits assessed for and on account of, or against the same, which said report shall be signed by at least a majority of the said commissioners and filed with the secretary of the board of directors of the district, and which report shall also show the number of days each commissioner has been employed and the actual expenses incurred by each during his service as commissioner, and each shall be paid by the district not to exceed $10.00 per day for his services, and all necessary expenses in addition thereto upon the approval of his account for such per diem and expenses by the board of directors. Said commissioners shall in their said report fix a time and place when and where they will hear objections thereto, and such date shall be not less than twenty days from the filing of such report. [Id. Sec. 127.]

Art. 7785. Notice of hearing.—When the report of the commissioners shall have been filed with the secretary of the board of directors, he shall forthwith give notice by publication in a newspaper published in each county wherein any portion of the district is located, for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed for such hearing, of the time and place of such hearing, and he shall also mail a written notice to each person whose property will be in any wise affected by the carrying out of the plan of reclamation and improvement if his post office is known, stating the time and place of such meeting, which notice shall state in substance that the report of the commissioners to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land and other property by reason of the plan of reclamation and improvement for the district in question has been filed in his office, and that all persons interested may examine the same and make objections thereto in whole or in part, and that the commissioners will meet on the day and at the place named for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to such report, and the secretary upon the day of the hearing shall file in his office the original notice with his affidavit thereto, showing the manner of publication and the names of all persons to whom notices have been mailed, and that post offices of those to be effected to whom notices were not mailed were unknown to him, and could not be ascertained by reasonable diligence, and copies of such notice and affidavit shall be filed, one with the commissioners of appraisal and one with the clerk of the county commissioners' court. [Id. p. 24, Sec. 128.]

Art. 7786. Issuance of decrees.—At or before the hearing, upon the report of the commissioners of appraisal, any owner of land or other property affected by such report, or the plan of reclamation and improvements may file exceptions to any or all parts of such report, and said commissioners at the time and place specified in the notice shall proceed to hear and base opinion on such objections, and where such objections are sustained, in whole or in part, may make such changes and modifications from time to time as may be necessary to confirm the report of their findings. When the commissioners shall have finally acted they shall make decrees confirming such report in so far as it is confirmed, and approving and confirming the same as modified or changed in so far as it may be modified or changed. The commissioners shall have power to adjudge and apportion costs incurred upon the hearing in such manner as may be deemed equitable. The findings of the commissioners as to benefits and damages to lands, railroads and other property within the district shall be final and conclusive. The final decree and judgment of the commissioners shall be entered of record in the minutes of the board of directors and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the lands within such district are located, as a permanent record of such county, and such filings shall be notice to all persons of the contents and purpose of such decree. [Id. Sec. 129.]

Art. 7787. Benefit basis of taxation.—After the action of the commissioners of appraisal as aforesaid, their final findings, judgment and decree, until lawfully changed or modified, shall form the basis of taxation within and for the district for which they shall have acted, for all purposes for which taxes may be levied by, for or on behalf of such district and all taxes shall be apportioned and levied on each tract of land, railroad and other real property in the district, in proportion to the net benefits to the property named in such final judgment or decree as shown thereby. In all matters before the commissioners of appraisal, parties interested may not only appear in person or by attorney, but they shall be entitled to process for witnesses to be issued by the chairman of the commissioners of appraisement on demand, and such commissioners shall have the same power as a court of record to enforce the attendance of witnesses. [Id. p. 25, Sec. 130.]

Art. 7788. Equitable basis instead of ad valorem.—Any water improvement district organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and Chapter 25, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Thirty-fifth Legislature, as well as any water improvement district which may have been created prior to the adoption of such constitutional amendment, and which shall have availed itself or may hereafter avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, may at the time of its creation, or at any time thereafter before such district shall have issued bonds, submit to the qualified electors of such district the question whether the taxes to be levied therein, or any part thereof, shall be levied, assessed and collected upon an "equitable" basis in proportion to benefits to be conferred by the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the work and improvements to be created thereby, or whether such taxation or any portion thereof shall be levied upon an ad valorem basis. Such question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such district at any time and in any manner that the governing body of such water improvement district may select, and the ballots to be used shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis," and "Against the levy of taxes on a benefit basis instead of on an ad valorem basis." And such election shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 87 of the General Laws of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereof so far as applicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the levy and collection of the taxes, or any part thereof, upon an equitable basis in proportion to benefits instead of upon an ad valorem basis, then taxes shall be so levied and collected. [Id. Sec. 131.]

Art. 7789. When contract with United States.—In the event an irrigation or water improvement district shall have heretofore been operated or shall hereafter be operated under contract with the United States and such district shall have adopted or may adopt the plan of the levy and collection of taxes on a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis, then the directors of such district shall at some convenient time thereafter, and from time to time as may be necessary, sit as a board to apportion and assess the benefits conferred upon any and all property situated within such water improvement district and shall cause a record to be made, showing the amount and value of the benefits computed to accrue to all of the property situated within such district and subject to taxation, and the amount of taxes upon such basis to be levied against and collected from such property; provided, that no taxes so assessed or adjudged against such property shall be in excess of the benefit accruing and to accrue to such property from the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the improvements to be acquired or constructed thereby. After such record shall have been made up, the board shall cause notice to be mailed to each property owner whose name appears upon such record, showing the amount of taxes to be levied against such property, and fixing a date and place at which such owner may appear and contest the correctness and equitableness of such tax. And after such hearing such board of directors or other governing body shall determine the inequitableness of the tax and sustain, reduce, or increase the same, as in their judgment shall be just and equitable; and the decision of this board shall be final. All of the provisions of Chapter 87, General Laws, Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereto, not inconsistent herewith, shall apply to the levy, assessment and collection of the taxes herein provided for. [Id. p. 26, 132.]

Art. 7790. Sale of water power privileges.—Any irrigation or water improvement district may contract for the sale of water power privileges whenever it may be possible for power to be generated by the use of the water flowing from its reservoir, or in its canal system, provided, however, any such contract for the sale of water power privileges shall be subject to the obligation of the district to protect the lands embraced therein in an adequate supply of water for irrigation for which the district was organized, or for supplying water for municipal purposes in those districts supply ing water for municipal purposes. [Id. Sec. 133.]

Art. 7791. Adopt rate of commissioners' court.—Irrigation and water improvement districts operating under the provisions of laws of this State, and assessing taxes on the ad valorem basis, may, if they find it to their advantage, adopt the assessment and equalization of values of the property authorized therein for taxation as made and equalized by the county officers and the county commissioners' court and base the levy and collection of taxes on such assessment and equalization, and they shall also have authority to secure from the county tax assessor a list of tax renditions as made to him covering the property within said district, and adopt same for the use and benefit of said district by causing the tax assessor and collector of the district to compile same as the tax roll of the district instead of making independent assessment thereof. In the event that the district tax assessor and collector and district directors should for any reason fail or refuse to properly assess, equalize tax values, and prepare a tax roll for said district, as provided by law, then in that event the taxes levied at the time of issuance of bonds or other valid obligations of said district shall be collected by the county tax collector by entering on his rolls the said tax as against all property situated within such district for the year or years which the said district officers may have so failed to perform their said duties. If the tax levy is not sufficient because of decreased valuations same shall be increased by order of the commissioners' court.

The fund so collected by such county tax collector shall be deposited in the county depository as a special fund to be devoted to the payment of interest and sinking fund on such bonds or other obligatitons, and such fund shall be paid thereon upon order of the county commissioners' court. In the event any such county tax collector should fail or refuse to perform such duties then the holders of such securities, bonds or obligations, or any one or more of them, may compel him to do so by mandamus proceeding in the court of proper jurisdiction. The county tax collector shall be allowed, in addition to all other compensation now provided by law, reasonable fees for the performance of such duty, to be fixed by the county commissioners' court, not to exceed, however, the rate of compensation fixed by law for the performance of like duties in the collection of county funds. Whenever such district officers shall fail to perform and discharge their duty, in the assessment and valuation of the property and collection of taxes, as hereinabove provided, then any bond holder or other person interested in said district and the payment of their obligations may request the county commissioners' court to enter an order authorizing the county tax collector to perform the duties herein provided, and the county commissioners' court shall investigate said matter, and if they find said conditions to exist shall enter an order directing the county tax collector to proceed as herein provided, and no county tax collector shall undertake the collection of such taxes until so ordered by the county commissioners' court. The provisions of this section are not intended to allow anyone to interfere with the duties of the district officers so long as they are in the active discharge of their duties, but such powers shall be exercised in the event such district officers shall not perform their duties or in the event of a vacancy in said offices.

In the event of any dispute arising as to whether or not said officers are so performing their duties, said matter may be determined by an action against said officers in the district court in the nature of a mandamus suit or in injunction proceedings restraining such officers from interfering with the collection of such taxes and the payment of said obligations by said county tax collector, and said county commissioners' court. Any such action of the district court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals and a judgment of the Court of Civil Appeals shall be final. In the event any such district embraces territory in two or more counties, the duties herein provided for the county tax collector and county commissioners' court shall be performed by such officers as to all such property lying within the county. [Id. Sec. 134.]

Art. 7792. Selling surplus water.—Any irrigation or water improvement district may sell any surplus water they may have or have conserved to lands in the same vicinity for the purpose of irrigation, domestic, or commercial uses. [Id. p. 28, Sec. 135.]

Art. 7793. Sale and lease of electrical energy.—Any water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district operating under contract with the United States, may provide for the purchase, acquisition, construction, operation, lease or control of plants for the generation, distribution, sale and lease of electrical energy, including the sale to municipalities, corporations, firms or individuals of electrical power, generated within or without said district, or the sale or lease of power privileges incident to or forming a part of the reservoirs, canals or other works owned, constructed or operated by or for such district, and for the purpose of obtaining funds with which to construct or acquire the power plants, transmission lines and other works necessary or useful for the development, transmission, distribution, sale or lease of such power, may borrow money in the name of such district, and issue bonds therefor, which bonds shall be secured by a lien upon the water power or energy and power privileges incident to such irrigation and drainage project, and also by a lien upon the power plant, transmission lines, and all of the physical properties necessary for, or used in the creation, transmission, distribution and market of such power or energy, but such bonds shall not be a lien upon the lands or other property owned by individual irrigators or water users under such project. Such bonds may be issued in the manner and subject to all of the regulations, terms, conditions and provisions of other bonds authorized to be issued under the terms of Chapter 87 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and of the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, except as in this section otherwise provided. The board of directors of any such district shall estimate and determine the amount of money necessary to be raised, or the amount of indebtedness necessary to be assumed for such purpose or purposes, and may include in such amount a sum sufficient to pay the first four years' interest on such indebtedness. [Acts 1921, p. 183, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7794. Co-operating with districts of other states.—Whenever any water improvement or conservation and reclamation district in this State, operating under contract with the United States, shall obtain water from the same source from which water is obtained by any such district or similar district or districts, organized for irrigation or drainage purposes, under the laws of any other State, the water improvement district or conservation and reclamation district organized under the laws of this State shall be, and it is hereby authorized to jointly own, acquire, construct and operate irrigation works, reservoirs and drainage works, in co-operation with such district or districts obtaining water from the same source of supply, which may be located within another State, under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract, and the provisions of the preceding section, relating to the development, transmission, distribution, sale and lease of electrical power and energy, in the manner in said section provided shall be applicable to any such district in this section referred to. Any such contract shall not be binding until the same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the legally qualified voters of such district, situated within this State. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy thereof shall be filed in the office of such district in Texas fifteen (15) days prior to such election, and shall be subject to public inspection.

Whenever works or improvements are to be constructed or acquired, bids may be jointly called for and may be opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and the officers of such district in Texas may execute such contract, and may hold meetings to consider the execution thereof, and the approval of the contractor's bond, and all matters pertaining to or incident to such contract, at any office established for such joint project, and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted.

The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed for such joint enterprise, whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract. The terms and conditions of such joint ownership or construction contracts shall not conflict with the provisions of the law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, except as herein provided, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation, and such contracts may be amended from time to time in the same manner. The provisions of this and the next preceding article shall apply only to districts operating under contract with the United States. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 7795. Limiting power to incur debt.—The board of directors of any water improvement district which has been or shall be constituted a conservation and reclamation district under the provisions of Section 59, of Article 16, of the Constitution, may, for the benefit of the purchasers or holders of bonds to be issued, limit the power of the district to incur debt and issue bonds in the manner and to the extent hereinafter mentioned. Said board may adopt a resolution declaring that during a period not exceeding ten years, the district shall not issue bonds in excess of twenty-five per cent of the assessed value of the taxable real property of the district according to the last assessment for district purposes, and shall give notices of the adoption of such resolution by publication once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the district, stating that such resolution shall take effect unless a petition signed by ten per cent of the qualified property tax paying electors of the district shall be presented against the proposed limitation within thirty days after the date of the first publication of such notice. If such petition or remonstrance be filed within said period, said limitation shall not take effect unless it be approved at a general or special election held in the district in the same manner as other general or special elections are held. The ballot on the question at such election shall be in substantially the following form: "For limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property," and "Against limiting during the term of _____ years, the maximum debt of the district to twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property." If such limitation shall be approved or if during said period no petition or remonstrance shall be filed, the district shall not issue bonds under any statute or constitutional provision during said term in excess of the amount so limited, except to complete works for constructing which bonds may be issued within said limitation, and shall only issue bonds exceeding said limitation for completing such works after the State Board of Water Engineers shall have approved the plans and specifications of the original and uncompleted works, together with the estimates of the cost thereof. If such plans and specifications and estimate be approved by said State Board of Water Engineers, notice of intention to issue said bonds to complete said works shall be given by publication once a week for three weeks, stating the amount of the proposed issue of bonds and the time when a hearing will be had, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of the first publication. Any property taxpayer, bondholder or other creditor or person interested may appear and shall be heard. If the determination be in favor of the issuance of additional bonds to the amount stated in the notice, the question of issuing such bonds shall be submitted to the property taxpaying voters at an election held in the form and manner prescribed by law. [Acts 1st C. S., 1921, Sec. 139.]

Art. 7796. Previous bond validated.—All proceedings heretofore had and taken to organize a water improvement district under the Act to which this is an amendment, or to determine the manner in which taxes or assessments shall be levied and collected, or to bring any district organized hereunder under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas, or to authorize the issuance of bonds of any district organized under the Act to which this is an amendment, whether such district shall or shall not have come under said Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, shall be and are hereby in all respects ratified, validated, approved and confirmed, and such bonds may be issued and sold in the form and manner and at the price and under the conditions prescribed by law. [Id. Sec. 139.]

Art. 7797. May sue to protect bonds.—All water improvement districts and irrigation districts heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of the State being dependent upon their water rights and water supply to perform their public duties and to protect their bonds and other indebtedness created under the provisions of the law and to maintain their taxable values and assessable values, shall have full authority to maintain any action or suit for such purposes. [Id. p. 150, Sec. 140.]

Art. 7798. May sue to protect bonds.—The board of directors are hereby empowered to institute and maintain any suit or suits to protect the water supply of said district and to prevent any unlawful or unwarranted interference with or diversion of such water supply. All water improvement districts and irrigation districts shall have full power and right to protect their water supply and all other rights and property and by proper suit to prevent any taking or interference with such water supply, of whatever nature or however acquired, necessary to the uses of such district or for the irrigation of the lands situated therein. [Id. Sec. 141.]

Art. 7799. Board of Water Engineers to investigate.—The State Board of Water Engineers shall be and is constituted a commission to investigate and report upon the organization and feasibility of all water improvement districts which shall issue bonds under the provisions of the law of this State. All such districts desiring to issue bonds for any purposes shall submit in writing to said board an application for investigation, together with a copy of the engineer's report, and a copy of all data, profiles, maps, plans and specifications prepared in connection therewith. Said Board of Water Engineers shall examine same and shall visit the project and carefully inspect the same and may call for and shall be supplied with additional data and information requisite to a reasonable and careful investigation of the project and proposed improvements. They shall file in their office in writing their suggestions for changes and improvements, and furnish a copy thereof to the board of directors of the district. If said board shall finally approve or refuse to approve such project or the issuance of bonds for any improvement, they shall make a full written report thereon, file same in their office, and furnish a copy of same to the board of directors of said district. [Id. Sec. 142.]

Art. 7800. Conveying interests.—Any water improvement district organized under the laws of the State of Texas, which shall have filed an application for a permit to construct a reservoir and to appropriate the waters of a stream or watershed for irrigation or other purposes and for which a permit shall have been granted by the State Board of Water Engineers and a permit issued therefor, said district may convey to another water improvement district an interest in said reservoir and water rights evidenced by its application and permit granted by the State Board of Water Engineers. Said conveyance shall convey all such rights covered by its terms; provided, however, same shall be filed for record and be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which said property is situated and shall then be filed for record in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers. Said transfer when so filed shall be and operate as a conveyance of all rights granted to the district to which said permit was issued in so far as it covers same, not to exceed, however, the rights granted by the permit issued therefor by the State Board of Water Engineers. From and after the date said transfer is filed in the office of the State Board of Water Engineers all rights conveyed thereby shall be vested in the district to which same is transferred as fully and to the same extent as if a permit had been issued for same by said State Board of Water Engineers. [Acts 1923, p. 282, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7801. Excluding land from district.—All water improvement districts which have been organized and in which it may be thereafter determined that some of the lands included within the boundaries of such district can not be irrigated by gravity flow from the irrigation system as constructed may eliminate and take said land out of said district at any time prior to the issuance of bonds or other fixed obligations by said district in the following manner. The board of directors of such district shall make an order specifying such lands and the owners thereof and declaring same to be so situated that they will not be irrigated by gravity flow from the canals constructed or to be constructed, and enter such order on the minutes of said board. Within ten days after said order is so made and entered notice thereof shall be given by publishing a true copy of same in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which said lands are situated once a week for two weeks. If no protest is filed to such action with said board of directors within fifteen days after the final publication of said notice, said order shall become final as to all lands included in said order the owners of which have not filed a protest. In the event any owner of said lands or any part thereof shall file a protest with said board of directors contesting said action and asking that said lands be not taken out of said district then as to same order shall be annulled and said lands or parts thereof described in said protest shall remain in said district. In the event any lands are so excluded from a district that it may thereafter be desired to have again included in said district same may be so included upon application of the owner thereof in the manner provided by law for adding lands to an established district. [Acts 1923, Ch. 135, p. 278, Sec. 1.]

Art. 7802. Districts heretofore organized may take advantage.—Any water improvement district, drainage district, or levee improvement district, heretofore organized or hereafter organized or hereafter to be organized, under the laws of this State, as defined districts, under Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, may avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and thereby become a conservation and reclamation district, without change of name. [Acts 1923, p. 282, Sec. 2.]

Art. 7803. May incur indebtedness.—Any conservation or reclamation district hereafter organized under this Act, and any water improvement district, drainage district or levee improvement district which may be constituted a conservation and reclamation district under this Act, may incur indebtedness and levy taxes to fully carry out each and all of the purposes of its organization, and for the payment of its obligations and the maintenance and operation of said district. [Id. Sec 3.]

Art. 7804. Limitations removed.—All limitations of indebtedness authorized to be incurred and taxes to be levied, imposed by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, and any and all laws under which any such district has been or may be organized, are removed as to all districts which may become conservation and reclamation districts under the terms of this Act. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 7805. To change districts heretofore organized.—Any water improvement district, or irrigation district heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of this State, may become and be made a conservation and reclamation district, as herein provided, in the following manner: When a petition signed by twenty per cent of the owners of land in such district, praying therefor, is presented to the directors, they shall order an election to be held to determine such issue, such election to be conducted as provided for general elections in such districts. The ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "For Conservation and Reclamation." The directors shall canvass the returns and declare the result of such election, and have recorded in the deed records of the county or counties in which such district is situated a full copy of the order declaring the result of such election; and when such order is in favor of so making such district a conservation and reclamation district, it shall become such district without change of name or impairment of its obligations, upon the result of such election being declared and recorded as herein provided. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 7806. Governed by regulations of water improvement districts.—Any conservation and reclamation district organized for the purpose for which water improvement districts and irrigation districts have heretofore been organized, or any water improvement district or irrigation district becoming a conservation and reclamation district under the terms hereof, shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of law applying to water improvement districts, except as herein otherwise provided. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1919, p. 37, Sec. 6.]

Art. 7807. May choose benefit or ad valorem basis.—Any water improvement district organized under authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and Chapter 25, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Thirty-fifth Legislature, as well as any water improvement district which may have been created prior to the adoption of such constitutional amendment, and which shall have availed itself, or may hereafter avail itself, of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, may, at the time of its creation, or at any time thereafter before such district shall have issued bonds, submit to the qualified electors of such district the question whether the taxes to be levied therein, or any part thereof, shall be levied, assessed and collected upon an "equitable" basis in proportion to benefits to be conferred by the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the work and improvements to be created thereby, or whether such taxation of any portion thereof shall be levied upon an ad valorem basis. Such question shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such district at any time and in any manner that the governing body of such water improvement district may elect, and the ballots to be used shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis instead of an ad valorem basis," and, "Against the levy of taxes on a benefit basis instead of on an ad valorem basis." And such election shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 87 of the General Laws of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, so far as applicable. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the levy and collection of the taxes, or any part thereof, upon an equitable basis in proportion to benefits, instead of upon an ad valorem basis, then the directors of such district shall at some convenient time thereafter, and from time to time as may be necessary, sit as a board to apportion and assess the benefits conferred upon any and all property situated within such water improvement district, and shall cause a record to be made, showing the amount and value of the benefits computed to accrue to all of the property situated within such district and subject to taxation, and the amount of taxes upon such basis to be levied against and collected from such basis to be levied against and collected from such property; provided, that no taxes so assessed or adjudged against such property shall be in excess of the benefit accruing and to accrue to such property from the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the improvements to be acquired or constructed thereby. After such record shall have been made up, the board shall cause notice to be mailed to each property owner whose name appears upon such record, showing the amount of taxes to be levied against such property, and fixing a date and place at which such owner may appear and contest the correctness and equitableness of such tax. And after such hearing such board of directors of other governing body shall determine the equitableness of the tax and sustain, reduce, or increase the same, as in their judgment shall be just and equitable; and the decision of such board shall be final. All of the provisions of Chapter 87, General Laws, Thirty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, and amendments thereto, not inconsistent herewith shall apply to the levy, assessments and collection of the taxes herein provided for. [Id. Sec. 5a.]

Art. 7808. May establish.—One or more water control and preservation districts may be established in the several counties, or a part of any county, or in two or more adjacent counties, or in parts of two or more adjacent counties, or in one county and part of an adjacent county or counties, in the manner provided in this chapter. Said districts may or may not include within their boundaries villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any part thereof, but no land shall be at the same time included within more than one such district. All such districts are defined districts within the meaning of Section 52, Article 3 of the State Constitution. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 74.]

Art. 7809. Purposes.—Said districts, when established, shall be for the purpose of the control and preservation of the purity of the waters of any rivers, creeks, bayous, lakes, canals, streams or other waters of any kind and character situated or flowing, in whole or in part, through the said district, or any part thereof, by the prevention of the inflow of salt water or other deleterious substances, or by the changing of said waters from salt to fresh water, and the impounding of fresh water for such purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7810. Powers.—Such districts, when established, shall have full power to erect, construct, maintain, repair and reconstruct dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates, or any other character of improvement or construction necessary to the accomplishment of any such purpose, and to make such construction without the boundaries of the district, where same may be deemed necessary to the preservation, or the improvement of the purity and irrigable quality of such waters; and may issue bonds in payment therefor. [Id.]

Art. 7811. Petition.—Upon the presentation to the commissioners court of a petition signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers of any proposed district praying for the establishment thereof within the county, and setting forth the boundaries, and accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and praying for the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax in payment thereof, and designating a name for such district which shall include the name of the county; and accompanied by the affidavit of the petitioners stating that they are resident property taxpayers of such county; the court shall set the same down for a hearing at a regular or called session, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 7812. Contingent deposit.—The petition shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash which shall be deposited with the clerk of the commissioners court of the county in which the largest portion of the proposed district is situated. If the result of the original election is in favor of the establishment of the district, the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney; otherwise the clerk shall pay the same out upon the vouchers signed by the county judge of such county, for all expenses and costs pertaining to the proposed district up to and including said election, and shall return the balance to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 7813. Notice of hearing.—The court shall, when setting a date for the hearing, order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting, or causing to be posted, not less than twenty days prior to the hearing, a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon, one at the courthouse door and four others within the limits of the proposed district. Said clerk shall receive one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. [Id.]

Art. 7814. Hearing.—Any person who may be affected thereby may appear before said court and contest the creation of said district, or contend for its creation, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of said district to show that the proposed improvements would or would not be of any public utility, and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. [Id.]

Art. 7815. Hearing: authority of court.—Unless otherwise provided, the commissioners court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation and establishment of any district, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of any organized district, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments, decrees or orders rendered or entered by said court in relation thereto shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 7816. Findings.—If at said hearing it appears to the court that the organization of such district and the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, and that it would be a public benefit or public utility, then it shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement and for all expenses incident thereto and the expenses necessarily incurred in connection with the creation and establishment of the district, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear. If the court finds that such organization and improvement is not feasible or practicable, or that it would not be a public benefit or utility, then it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. In either case, the court shall enter its findings in the records of the court. [Id.]

Art. 7817. May renew petition.—The order dismissing said petition or any appeal therefrom shall not prevent the presentation at any subsequent time of a similar petition with changed boundaries, but the presentation of a similar petition with identical boundaries shall not be permitted until the expiration of six months after such dismissal. [Id.]

Art. 7818. Appeal.—Any petitioner or taxpayer in such district may appeal from the findings of said court to the district court of said county. Such appeal shall be perfected within five days after the rendition of the order appealed from, in the following manner: notice of appeal shall be given and entered of record on the minutes of said court, at the time of the entry of said order by announcement of same before said court, or by giving written notice within two days after the entry of such order by a simple statement that the undersigned gives notice of appeal from the order entered on the date stated, and by filing such written notice with the county clerk; and by filing an appeal bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties for one hundred dollars, payable to the county judge and approved by the county clerk, and conditioned upon the due prosecution of the appeal and payment of all costs incident thereto. Unless appeal is so perfected, such order shall be final and conclusive. [Id.]

Art. 7819. Appeal: proceedings.—Within five days from the filing of the appeal bond, the county clerk shall transfer to the district clerk all records filed with the commissioners court pertaining to the establishment of said district, and it shall not be necessary to file additional pleadings in said court. The court shall set the matter down for hearing de novo, giving it precedence over all other cases, and the matters shall be tried and determined by the court. The judgment of the district court shall be final and conclusive, and shall be certified to the commissioners court for its further action. [Id.]

Art. 7820. Election order.—If the petition is granted, the commissioners court shall order an election to be held in such district at the earliest legal time, to determine whether or not such district shall be created and whether or not a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to redeem said bonds at maturity. Said order shall specify the amount of bonds to be issued, the length of time said bonds shall run, and the rate of interest they shall bear, as determined by the court. [Id.]

Art. 7821. Notice of election.—Notice of such election stating the time and place of holding the same shall be given by the county clerk by posting or causing to be posted notices thereof in four public places in such district and one at the courthouse door, for thirty days prior to the election. Said notice shall also contain the proposition to be voted on and the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued and the amount of such bonds, and shall contain a copy of the election order. [Id.]

Art. 7822. Ballot.—The commissioners court shall provide twice as many ballots as there are qualified resident property tax paying voters within such district. Said ballots shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 7823. Election: conduct of.—None but resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of said proposed district shall be entitled to vote at such election. The commissioners court shall create and define, by an order of the court, the voting precincts in the proposed district, and shall name convenient polling places therein, and shall appoint the judges and other necessary election officers. [Id.]

Art. 7824. List of voters.—The tax collector of the county wherein such district is situated, prior to the election, shall make a certified list of the property taxpayers of said district and furnish to the presiding judge of each precinct a list of such voters in such precinct. No person whose name does not appear in said list shall vote at any election under this chapter, except as provided in the two succeeding articles. [Id.]

Art. 7825. Voter's oath.—Any person who acquired property in said district after the first day of January of the preceding year may vote in said election upon taking the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____"

County and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed district, that I was not subject to pay property tax in said district for the preceding year and have not voted before at this election." [Id.]

Art. 7826. Taxpayer's oath.—Any person whose name was erroneously omitted from said list of voters may vote at said election upon taking the oath as prescribed in the preceding article except that in lieu of the clause "that I was not subject to pay property tax in said district for the preceding year," there shall be substituted "that I was subject to and did pay property tax in said district for the preceding year. [Id.]

Art. 7827. Results of election.—Said court shall canvass the vote, and if two-thirds of such votes are in favor of the proposition submitted, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said district, and shall enter same in their minutes as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 7828. Declaration of result.—Said order of the court shall be as follows: "Commissioners court of _____ County, Texas, _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ in the matter of petition of _____ and _____ others, praying for the establishment of a Water Control and Preservation District, and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition fully described and designated by the name of _____ Water Control and Preservation District _____. Be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said District, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said District be and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Water Control and Preservation District _____, and that the bonds of said District in an amount not exceeding _____ dollars be issued by the Directors of said District, and that said Board of Directors levy a tax of _____ cents on the hundred dollars of valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary, upon all property within said district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purpose, same shall be increased by said Directors until same is sufficient. The metes and bounds of said District being as follows, to-wit: (giving the metes and bounds.)" [Id.]

Art. 7829. Board of directors.—At the same meeting when said order is made, or at a called meeting within five days thereafter, the court shall appoint a board of directors consisting of three members, all of whom shall be freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county embraced in whole or in part within the district, and more than twenty-one years of age. Each shall receive three dollars per day for each day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such; and shall hold office for two years, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of said court. Upon the expiration of their terms of office, the court shall appoint their successors by majority vote. Should any vacancy occur in said board, the same shall be filled in like manner by said court. [Id.]

Art. 7830. Combined district.—Where a proposed district lies partly within two or more counties, the petition for the establishment of said district shall be presented to the commissioners court of each county. Each such court shall give all necessary notice as provided for a single district in one county, but stating that same is a part of such entire district, and shall order an election, appoint all necessary officers, furnish all supplies, canvass the returns and declare the result of such election, all as provided for a single district. The presiding officer of each court shall then certify and report the result of said election to the county judge of the county in which the largest portion of such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7831. Combined district: declaration.—Said county judge shall canvass said vote and declare the result thereof, and if two-thirds of such votes favor the creation of said district, he shall declare the result and make the same order as provided herein for a single district. Copies of such order shall be filed with the county clerk of each county and shall be held to be a proclamation of the result of said election. [Id.]

Art. 7832. Combined district: hearing.—The commissioners court of each county shall hear and determine the matters relating to the establishment of said district in their county, in the same manner as provided for a single district, and appeals may be taken therefrom to the district court of any county in which any part of said district is situated, in the manner provided herein for a single district. [Id.]

Art. 7833. Combined district: directors.—A board of five directors shall be elected at the same election held for the establishment of such district, and the ballot therefor may have printed thereon the names of such candidates, or the voter may write upon his ballot the names of the persons voted for as directors; and the five persons receiving the highest number of votes so cast shall be the directors of said district, and shall hold office until the next regular election. In case of vacancy in said board, or if the number of directors is reduced by any cause to less than three, said vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as provided by law in such cases for directors of water improvement districts under Chapter 2 of this title. [Id.]

Art. 7834. Combined district: election.—On the second Tuesday of January after the establishment of such district, and biennially thereafter, an election for such directors shall be held in each such county in accordance with the election laws of this State and the provisions of this chapter for elections for establishing a district. Said directors shall hold office for two years.

The directors shall give notice of the election, appoint election officers, receive and canvass the election returns and perform all other duties necessary for holding said elections. [Id.]

Art. 7835. Director's bond and oath.—Within ten days after their appointment or election, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the directors shall each make a good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars payable to their district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county in which the director resides, and such bond and a copy of the order approving same shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the largest part of the district is situated. Such clerk shall record and index the same in the deed records in the manner provided for recording and indexing deeds. Each director shall take the official oath before the county clerk of the county in which the director resides. All bonds and oaths shall be delivered by said clerks to the district depository and be by it safely kept and preserved for the district. [Id.]

Art. 7836. County officers: compensation.—Unless otherwise provided, the duties and powers herein conferred upon the county judges and members of the commissioners court, and other officers are made a part of the regular duties of said officials, which they shall render and perform without additional compensation, and the county clerk shall receive the same compensation for his services hereunder as provided for similar services under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

2. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

| Powers: limitation | 7840 | District depository | 7845 |
| Further powers | 7841 | Audit and report | 7846 |

Art. 7837. Organization of board.—As soon as possible after their qualification, the directors shall organize by electing one of their number president and one as district secretary. When the board consists of three members, any two directors shall be a quorum; and when it consists of five members, any three directors shall be a quorum. [Id.]

Art. 7838. Meetings.—During the progress of the construction of any improvement under contract, the directors shall maintain a regular office within such district, and may in their discretion when deemed necessary, maintain a regular office in the district during any other time. The directors shall hold an annual meeting on the first day of December at ten o'clock A. M. and may provide for meetings at stated intervals by resolution duly passed, and the president or any two directors may call special meetings at any time that may be deemed proper or necessary. [Id.]

Art. 7839. Powers.—The directors shall have control over the management of all district affairs, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall employ all necessary employes for the proper conduct and operation of such district, including engineers, bookkeepers and such other assistants and such laborers as may be required, at such compensation as they may determine, and may require bonds of any employes in any amount they may determine. They may employ attorneys to represent such district in the preparation of any contract or the conduct of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the directors, on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them. [Id.]

Art. 7840. Powers: limitation.—Where the district lies wholly in one county, the directors shall not, after the completion of the improvements, employ any attorneys as legal advisers of the district or an engineer for such district, or any other employes, except with the concurrence and consent of the commissioners court of such county; and the compensation paid by any such attorney, engineer, or employe so employed shall be fixed by the directors subject to the approval of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 7841. Further powers.—The directors may employ a general manager to have general charge of the work, paying such compensation as may be agreed upon by the directors. A director may be appointed as general manager at such compensation as may be fixed by the other directors, and when so employed he shall also perform the duties of a director, but shall not receive the compensation to be paid to the directors. The directors may also buy all necessary work animals, machinery and supplies and material of all description as may be required in the construction, operation or repairing of the improvements of the district, and may do and perform all things necessary and proper in carrying out the purposes of said district. [Id.]

Art. 7842. Official bonds.—All district officers and employes who may be required to give bond or security may furnish bonds of surety companies, subject to the approval of the directors. All such bonds shall be preserved by the directors as the property of said district. After the organization of a district, all bonds required of any district officer or employe shall be approved by the directors. [Id.]

Art. 7843. District records.—The directors, through the secretary, shall keep a true account of all matters and proceedings of the board, and shall preserve all contracts, records and notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatsoever kind, and the same shall be the property of the district and shall be delivered to their successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 7844. Disbursements.—All payments of any district funds shall be by voucher upon the district depository, and all such vouchers shall be signed by the president or any two directors. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book containing a duplicate, which shall be preserved. [Id.]

Art. 7845. District depository.—The directors shall select a depository for such district in the same manner as now provided by law for the selection of county depositories, and such depository shall be regulated by the same laws as those governing county depositories. In such selection, the directors shall perform the same duties as are incumbent upon the county judge and members of the commissioners court in the selection of county depositories. Such depository shall make and file reports and preserve the district records as required of depositories under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

Art. 7846. Audit and report.—The directors shall annually require an audit to be made of the district records and accounts, at the time and in the manner provided for audits of Water Improvement Districts under Chapter 2 of this title, and on the first of January of each year they shall make and file a report of the condition of the district affairs and other data required of directors of Water Improvement Districts. [Id.]

3. POWERS OF DISTRICT.

| | Article | | Article |
|--------------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|---------|
| Status of district | 7847 | Construction contracts | 7853 |
| Suits affecting district | 7848 | Supervision of work | 7854 |
| Property rights | 7849 | Contract: payment | 7855 |

| District engineer | 7851 | Joint project | 7857 |
| Federal co-operation | 7852 | Joint action | 7858 |

Art. 7847. Status of district.—Any district may by and through its directors sue and be sued in the name of such district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts; and said districts shall contract and be contracted with in the name of such districts. They shall have a circular seal containing a five pointed star in the center surrounded by the name of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7848. Suits affecting district.—No suit shall be brought in any court of this State contesting the validity or enjoining the formation of any district, or any bonds issued hereunder, or in anywise affecting the establishment of the district, or issuance of bonds by such district, except in the name of this State by the Attorney General, upon his own motion or upon the motion of any party affected thereby, upon good cause shown. [Id.]

Art. 7849. Property rights.—The directors are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind or character whatsoever for all necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, within or without the boundaries of the district; and any property acquired may be conveyed to the United States in so far as the same shall be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States under any contract that may be entered into between the district and the United States. [Id.]

Art. 7850. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all districts for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through all lands, private and public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for making and maintaining dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates and all other improvements necessary and proper for such construction. Such right shall extend to any county in this State. All such condemnation proceedings shall be under the direction of the directors and in the name of the district; and all compensation and damages adjudicated in such proceedings shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund." [Id.]

Art. 7851. District engineer.—The directors shall have authority to employ a competent engineer whose term of office shall be at the will of the directors. He shall make all necessary surveys, examinations, investigations, maps, plans, and drawings with reference to the proposed improvements. He shall make an estimate of the cost of such improvements, shall supervise the work thereon, and perform all such duties as may be required of him by the directors. If any proposed improvement or construction work necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes authorized in this chapter requires the permission or consent of the Federal Government or any department or officer thereof, the directors shall have authority to obtain such consent, and in lieu of or in addition to the employment of the district engineer, they shall have power to adopt any survey of any waters theretofore made by the United States, and to arrange for surveys, examination and investigation of the proposed improvements, and supervision of such work by the United States or the proper department or officer thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7852. Federal co-operation.—The directors shall have full power to co-operate and act with the United States or any officer or department thereof, in any matter pertaining or relating to the construction and maintenance of any improvement, whether by survey, work or expenditure of money made or to be made, either by the directors or by Federal authority, or both. Such directors shall have authority to agree and consent to the United States entering upon and taking the management and control of said work of construction, repair or reconstruction and maintenance, in so far as it may be necessary or permissible under the laws of the United States and the regulations and orders of any department thereof. [Id.]

Art. 7853. Construction contracts.—If the district improvements are not carried out by the United States, the contracts for such improvements shall be let by the directors to the lowest and best responsible bidder. If more than one improvement is to be made, the contract may be let separately for each, or one contract for all such improvements. These rules shall govern the letting of such contracts: 1. Bids shall be called for by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in Texas, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days at the courthouse door of the counties in the district and four other notices in each county. 2. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to bid on the constructin of any work so advertised, upon application to the district secretary, shall be supplied with the surveys and plans for said work. All bids shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the president or district secretary, together with a certified check for two per cent of the total amount bid. Such deposit shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract and make the necessary bond, if his bid is accepted, or returned to the bidder if his bid is rejected. Any bid may be rejected at the discretion of the directors. 3. Each contractor shall give bond payable to the district in such amount as may be determined by the directors, not to exceed the contract price, and not less than fifty per cent thereof, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and that in default thereof, he will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof; and such other conditions as may be required by law of contractors for public work. Said bond shall be approved by the directors. 4. All contracts shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and president of the directors and attested by the district secretary. A copy of same shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which the largest portion of such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7854. Supervision of work.—All work contracted for, unless done under Federal supervision, shall be done under the supervision of the district engineer. When the work is completed according to the contract, he shall make a detailed report of same to the directors, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not, in what particular it has not been so complied with. The directors shall not be bound by such report, but may in addition thereto fully investigate such work and determine whether or not such contract has been complied with; and while such work is in progress, they shall inspect the same. [Id.]

Art. 7855. Contract: payment.—Upon completion of any contract, the directors shall draw a voucher on the district depository for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee. Said voucher shall be paid out of the Construction and Maintenance Fund. If the directors deem it advisable, they may contract for the work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, and the amount of work completed shall be shown by a certificate of the engineer. [Id.]

Art. 7856. Maintenance of district.—After the full and final completion of all improvements of the district, and after payment of all expenses incurred under this chapter, the directors are authorized to use the funds remaining in the Construction and Maintenance Fund for the best interest of such district in the preservation, upkeep, repair and reconstruction of the works of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7857. Joint project.—Two or more districts may by contract join in the construction of any improvement and enter upon any work authorized hereunder, as a joint project, when in the judgment of the directors of each district, such improvement, work or construction will be advantageous to the respective districts. Such contract shall stipulate the pro rata amount to be paid by each district for such project to provide for its maintenance, repair and reconstruction, and shall be executed by the directors. Such project may be undertaken regardless of the location of the proposed work. Such contract may be enforced and specific performance compelled by any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 7858. Joint action.—When improvements are constructed by two or more districts, bids may be jointly called for and opened and considered at the designated office of either district, and the directors of such districts shall approve the letting of the contract and contractor's bond, and may meet and transact all business for that or any other purpose concerning such project at a place outside the district, or at any office established for such joint project. All bids, bonds, contracts, etc., of said project shall be in the name of said districts, which are empowered to do all acts by joint action that one district may do, the action of each district being determined by its directors. A general manager, who may be a director of either district, may be employed for such project, whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract. [Id.]

4. BONDS.

| Bonds: record | 7862 | Bonds: sale | 7868 |
| Change in plans | 7863 | Construction and Maintenance | |
| Additional bonds | 7864 | Fund | 7869 |

Art. 7859. Issuance of bonds.—Immediately after their organization, the directors shall enter an order directing the issuance of bonds for such district within the limits authorized by the election held therefor, sufficient to cover the cost of the proposed improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto, and the expenses necessarily incurred in connection with the creation and establishment of the district; and they shall levy a tax upon all property subject to taxation in the district, sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds, with an amount to be placed in the sinking fund sufficient to redeem said bonds at maturity, and such levy shall remain as a levy for such purpose until a new levy is made. [Id.]

Art. 7860. Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued under this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title governing the issuance, denomination, rate of interest, maturity dates, manner of payment, proceedings to test validity, and registration by the Comptroller, of bonds of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7861. Bonds: limit of issue.—Said bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district as made by the last annual assessment thereof for State and county taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7862. Bonds: record.—The directors shall provide a well bound book in which a record shall be kept by the clerk of the county in which the largest portion of said district is situated, of all bonds issued with their numbers, amounts, rate of interest, date of issue, when due, where payable, the annual rate of tax levy made each year to provide for interest and sinking fund, and of each payment made thereon. The district secretary shall furnish said clerk a certified copy of all orders made in connection with the issuance and levy and assessment of taxes for the payment of interest and creating a sinking fund. Said record shall be at all times open to the inspection of all parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers or bond holders. [Id.]

Art. 7863. Change in plans.—If after an election has been held for the issuance of bonds, the directors shall consider it necessary to make any modification or change in any proposed improvements, they shall, with the concurrence of all the directors, be authorized to make such change. [Id.]

Art. 7864. Additional bonds.—If the directors shall determine to make additional improvements, works or construction in order to carry out the purposes for which said district was organized, or to reconstruct any improvements theretofore made, and the amount derived from the bonds issued or authorized is not sufficient, a resolution to that effect shall be duly entered upon the minutes of the board, and a certified copy thereof presented to each commissioners court in the district. [Id.]

Art. 7865. Resolution.—Said resolution shall set forth the proposed work, the amount of bonds to be issued to pay for same, their rate of interest and maturity dates, and shall embody therein a request to the commissioners court or courts to order an election in such counties to vote on such propositions and whether or not a tax shall be levied to provide for the interest and sinking fund for such bonds at a day specified in the resolution. [Id.]

Art. 7866. Additional bonds: requisites.—The commissioners court must, on receipt of such resolution, order an election on the day specified therein. Notice of such election shall be given, returns made, result declared, orders entered, tax levied, certified, assessed and collected, and all other matters applicable shall be performed in the same manner as herein provided in case of elections for original bonds. All provisions as to the issuance, approval, validation, registration, recordation and sale of original bonds shall be applicable to such additional bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7867. Additional bonds: ballot.—The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon the words and none other: “For the issuance of additional Water Control and Preservation Bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;” “Against the issuance of additional Water Control and Preservation Bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof.” [Id.]

Art. 7868. Bonds: sale.—After registration of said bonds by the Comptroller, the directors shall sell the same on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their face value and the accrued interest thereon; or they may exchange bonds in payment of the contract price for work to be done for the use and benefit of said district. All moneys received from the sale of bonds shall be forthwith paid to the district depository. [Id.]

Art. 7869. Construction and maintenance fund.—There is hereby created a “Construction and Maintenance Fund” of such district, which shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatsoever source, except the tax collections applied to the interest and sinking fund on bonds. All expenses of any kind prior to and after the filing of the original petition necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any district, and improvements, repairs, cost of maintenance, salaries of all officers and employes, and all expenditures for any purposes of the district shall be paid out of such fund. [Id.]

Art. 7870. Tax levy.—The directors shall annually levy and cause to be assessed taxes upon all property within said district sufficient to pay the expenses of assessing and collecting same, and a tax sufficient for the expenses incident to the maintenance of the district. The directors may from time to time increase or diminish any tax so as to adjust the same to the taxable value of the property subject to taxation, and shall certify the levy of all such taxes to the commissioners court of each county in the district. [Id.]

Art. 7871. Assessment of taxes.—When the levy of taxes is so certified, each such court shall order the county tax assessor to assess all property in the county subject to such tax, and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said court for such purpose and charged to the district. Said assessor shall return said books when he returns the other books or rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval, and if said courts shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve same. In all matters pertaining to such assessment, the tax assessor and board of equalization of the county shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for assessing and equalizing property for State and county taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7872. County tax assessor.—Each county tax assessor shall receive for said service such compensation, not to exceed the amount allowed by law for like services, as the directors of the district shall determine proper. Should any tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with such orders of the commissioners court, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the court, and be removed from office as provided by law for the removal of county officers. Upon failure to so order such assessor, the commissioners court shall be subject to mandamus by any court of competent jurisdiction on a petition in the name of the district, and the order of court upon such hearing may require the assessor to perform the duty without the intervention of an order of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 7873. County tax collector.—The county tax collector in each county wherein any part of the district may be situated shall be charged by the commissioners court of such county with the assessment rolls of the district, or that part of the district situated within the county, and he shall collect said taxes within his said county. In so doing, he shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of this State for the collection of State and county taxes, and suits may be brought for the collection of said taxes and the enforcement of the tax liens created by this chapter. His compensation shall be determined in the same manner as for the county assessor. [Id.]

Art. 7874. Collector: bond.—The commissioners court shall require the tax collector of their respective counties to give an additional bond or security in such sum as they may deem proper and safe to secure the collection of said taxes, payable to the district and conditioned as provided by law for tax collector's bonds. Should any tax collector fail or refuse to give such bond or security when requested by said court, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, or fail or refuse to collect the taxes so levied, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners court and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 7875. Taxes: payment.—All taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter shall be a lien upon the property upon which said taxes are assessed, and said taxes shall mature and be paid at the time provided by the laws of this State for the payment of State and county taxes, and all penalties provided by law for the non-payment of said taxes shall apply to all taxes authorized to be levied by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 7876. Delinquent taxes.—Said collector shall make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which said tax has not been paid, and return same to the commissioners court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such property; and all the provisions of law with reference to delinquent State and county taxes, the collection thereof by suit or otherwise and the redemption of same from such sale, shall apply. Such suits shall be in the name of said district and brought and prosecuted by the same officers as provided for State and county taxes, who shall receive the same fees for such services as provided for like proceedings for State and county taxes. The directors may purchase such delinquent property for the benefit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7877. Maintenance tax.—The directors shall have authority as occasion may require, in their discretion, to levy a tax on all property within such district in an amount sufficient to pay for the proper maintenance, operation and repair of any dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates or any other improvement constructed by said district, and all the provisions of the preceding articles for the levy and collection of taxes shall apply. [Id.]

Art. 7878. Tax money: disposition.—The tax collector shall pay all moneys collected by him for said district to the district depository monthly, and as often as directed so to do by the directors, as now prescribed by law for the payment by tax collectors to county and city treasurers. [Id.]

Art. 7879. Interest and sinking fund.—There is hereby created an "Interest and Sinking Fund" for such district, and all taxes collected under this chapter for the payment of bonds and interest thereon shall be credited to such fund and shall never be paid out except for the purpose of satisfying and discharging the interest on said bonds, or for the payment, cancellation and surrender of said bonds. At the time of such payment, the depository shall receive and cancel any interest coupon so paid or any bond so satisfied or discharged, and when such coupon or bond shall be turned over to the directors, the account of such depository shall be credited with the amount thereof, and such coupon or bond shall be cancelled and destroyed. [Id.]

Art. 7880. May invest sinking fund.—The directors are empowered, whenever they deem it advisable, to invest any sinking fund of the district in bonds of the United States, of this State, of any county of Texas, any irrigation or water improvement or navigation bonds, or bonds of any school district in Texas authorized to issue bonds. No bonds shall be so purchased whose terms provide for their maturity at a date subsequent to the time of the maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Id.]

Art. 7881. Purposes.—There may be created within this State conservation districts to be known as Fresh Water Supply Districts for the purpose of conserving, transporting and distributing fresh water from lakes, pools, reservoirs, wells, springs, creeks, and rivers for domestic and commercial purposes, as contemplated by Section 59, Article 16 of the State Constitution. Said districts shall have and may exercise all the rights, privileges and powers given by this chapter and in accordance with its directions, limitations and provisions. Such districts may or may not include cities and towns. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 107.]

Art. 7882. Petition.—When it is proposed to create a district, a petition shall be presented to the commissioners court of the county embracing the lands in the proposed district, or to the county judge of the county if said court is not in session. Said petition shall be signed by fifty or a majority of the qualified voters of such district who own land therein, and shall set forth the boundaries thereof, the general nature of the work proposed to be done, the necessity therefor, and the feasibility thereof, and designating a name therefor which shall include the name of the county in which it is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7883. Deposit.—The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit of one hundred dollars, which shall be paid to the county clerk who shall pay same out upon vouchers approved by the county judge, for all expenses incident to the hearing and the election for the creation of the district, returning any excess to the petitioners or their attorney. [Id.]

Art. 7884. Notice of hearing.—The commissioners court or county judge shall forthwith fix a time and place at which the petition shall be heard before said court, not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days thereafter, and shall direct the county clerk, as ex-officio clerk of said court, to issue notice of such time and place of hearing. Such notice shall inform all persons concerned of their right to appear and contest the genuineness of such petition and the signatures thereto, and whether said petitioners are qualified voters of such proposed district and owners of land therein. Said clerk may deliver such notice to any adult who is willing to execute the same by posting as herein directed. [Id.]

Art. 7885. Posting of notice.—Upon receipt of the notice, such person or persons receiving same shall post a copy thereof at the door of the courthouse of said county, and a copy at four different places within such proposed district. Such posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The persons so posting shall make affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, of their action in respect to such posting, and such affidavit shall be conclusive of the facts sworn to. [Id.]

Art. 7886. Hearing.—The court shall examine the petition to ascertain the sufficiency thereof, and any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and offer testimony touching the sufficiency of such petition. Such court shall have jurisdiction to determine all issues raised touching the sufficiency of such petition. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day as the facts may require. The court shall have power to make all incidental orders necessary in respect to the matters before it. [Id.]

Art. 7887. Findings.—If upon the hearing of such petition it be found that the same is signed by the requisite number of qualified voters of such proposed district who own land therein, and that such petition conforms to the provisions of the second article of this chapter, then the court shall so find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of a district according to the boundaries as set forth in said petition; and shall order an election to be held in such district not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of such order, to submit to the voters of such proposed district the question of the establishment of said district, and the election of five supervisors and an assessor and collector. [Id.]

Art. 7888. Notice of election.—Notice of such election shall be given stating the time and places of holding the election, and showing the boundaries of said district, the proposition to be voted upon, the officers to be voted for, and the presiding officers appointed for holding said election. Such notice shall be posted at the courthouse door for twenty days prior to the day of the election. [Id.]

Art. 7889. Conduct of election.—At all elections hereunder, none but resident property tax payers who are qualified voters of such proposed district shall be entitled to vote. The commissioners court shall name polling places for such election. Each district is hereby constituted an election precinct for the purposes of the election above specified, and all other elections which may be ordered or held under this chapter. Said court shall appoint two judges, one of whom shall be presiding judge, and two clerks at each polling place. [Id.]

Art. 7890. Ballot.—The commissioners court shall provide the necessary ballots for such election, which shall have printed thereon the following: "For the Fresh Water Supply District," "Against the Fresh Water Supply District," and the names of the persons recommended for supervisors and officers in the petition. Said ballot shall also have five blank places after the names of those printed, on which each voter may write the names of other persons, supervisors, and assessor and collector, and there shall be no other matter placed on said ballot. [Id.]

Art. 7891. Voter's oath.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed Fresh Water Supply District voted on at this election, and have not voted before in this election." [Id.]

Art. 7892. Results of election.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judges shall make returns of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers. Said commissioners court shall forthwith, at a regular or called session, canvass such vote, and if it is found that a majority of such votes favor the creation of such district, then said court shall so declare and enter the result on their minutes; and shall issue certificates of election to the persons receiving the highest number of votes, respectively, for supervisors and assessor and collector. If two or more persons receive the same number of votes for the position of fifth supervisor, said court shall select one of said persons to fill said position. [Id.]

Art. 7893. Declaration of result.—If said court shall declare said election to be in favor of the establishment of the district, then it shall cause to be made and entered in the minutes of said court an order setting forth substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a Fresh Water Supply District as in said petition described and designated as _____ County Fresh Water Supply District No. ____; be it known that an election was called for that purpose in said district and held on the ____ day of ____ A. D. 19____ and a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereat voted in favor of the creation of said District. Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Court that a Fresh Water Supply District be and the same is hereby established under the name of _____ County Fresh Water Supply District No. ____ with the following metes and bounds." Such field notes shall be copied in the record. The first district created hereunder in any county shall assume the Number "One," the second district shall assume the number "Two," and so on consecutively. [Id.]

Art. 7894. Registration of order.—After entering said order, the court shall cause to be made a certified copy thereof which shall be filed with the county clerk and duly recorded in the deed records of said county. Such recordation shall have the same effect in so far as notice is concerned, as is provided for the record of deeds. All costs in connection with the making and recording of such copy shall be paid by the district. [Id.]

Art. 7895. District tax assessor.—The office of assessor and collector for the district shall be filled by the same person. He shall qualify as such by making good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars, payable to the district and approved by the commissioners court, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and upon paying over to the district depository of all money coming into his hands as such collector. He shall be required to give additional security if, in the judgment of the supervisors, the same may become necessary. He shall be a resident of the district and a qualified voter in the district. He shall receive not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, as may be provided by the supervisors. The first assessor shall hold office until the next general election for officers. The person elected to such office at the next general election shall hold office for two years. All vacancies in such office shall be filled by the supervisors for the unexpired term. [Id.]

Art. 7896. Supervisor's bond and oath.—Within ten days or as soon after the making and entry of said order as practicable, each supervisor shall give a good bond for five thousand dollars payable to the district and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the commissioners court. Each supervisor shall take the oath of office prescribed by the statute for commissioners court, except that the name of the district shall be substituted for the county. Said bond and oath shall be filed with the clerk of the county wherein the order was entered creating said district, and by him recorded in the official bond records of said county. Said bond shall then be delivered by the county clerk to the district depository, and shall be by it safely kept as part of the records of said district. [Id.]

Art. 7897. General election.—A general election for the election of five supervisors and one assessor and collector for such district shall be held therein biennially on the first Tuesday in January. [Id.]

Art. 7898. Fees.—For all services performed by any officer or individual under this law, the compensation for which is not expressly provided for, such officer or individual shall receive the same compensation as he would for like service if rendered as an officer for the county. Clerks recording orders hereunder shall receive the same compensation as a county clerk for recording deeds, and persons posting notices hereunder shall receive the same compensation as a sheriff for officially rendering such service. [Id.]

Art. 7899. Organization expenses.—The supervisors are authorized to pay all necessary costs and expenses necessarily incurred in the creation and organization of any district, and to reimburse any person, corporation or association for money advanced for such purposes. Such payment shall be made from money obtained from the sale of bonds. [Id.]

2. BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

| District records | 7905 | Official bonds | 7913 |
| Vouchers | 7906 | Powers: equipment | 7914 |
| District depository | 7907 | | |

Art. 7900. Qualifications.—No person shall be elected as supervisor for any district unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein, and unless at the time of such election he shall be more than twenty-one years of age. [Id.]

Art. 7901. Term of office.—The supervisors shall hold office for the same period as that provided for the district assessor. In case of vacancy in the board, their successors shall be chosen as provided by law for the filling of vacancies in the board of directors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7902. Salary.—The supervisors shall each receive not exceeding ten dollars for each day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such, and they shall make a statement of such services similar to that required by law of directors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7903. Organization of board.—The supervisors shall organize by electing one of their number as president. Any three supervisors shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district. They shall have power to appoint a secretary who shall receive such compensation as the Board of Supervisors may fix, not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars per month. [Id.]

Art. 7904. Meetings.—The supervisors shall maintain a regular office in the district suitable for conducting the affairs of such district; and shall hold regular meetings thereat at ten o'clock in the morning on the first Mondays in February, May, August and November of each year. They shall hold such regular and special meetings at such office as they may see fit, and any taxpayer or resident or interested party may attend such meeting, but shall not participate in same without the consent of the supervisors, and may present in an orderly manner to said supervisors such matters as they desire. [Id.]

Art. 7905. District records.—The supervisors shall keep a true account of all their meetings and proceedings, and shall preserve all contracts, records of notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatever kind, in a fireproof vault or safe, and same shall be the property of the district, and shall be delivered to their successors in office.

[Id.]

Art. 7906. Vouchers.—All vouchers issued for the payment of any funds of the district shall be signed by at least three supervisors and shall refer to the book and page of the minutes allowing such act. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book, retaining a duplicate which shall be preserved.
[Id.]

Art. 7907. District depository.—The supervisors shall select a depository for such district as provided by law for the selection of county depositories; and the duties of such depositories shall be the same as provided by law for county depositories. In such selection, the supervisors shall act in the same capacity and perform the same duties as are incumbent upon the county judge and members of the commissioners court in the selection of county depositories. The depository shall perform the services of district treasurer, and shall execute a bond as such as may be required by the supervisors. Such depository shall make and file reports and preserve the district records as required of depositories under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

Art. 7908. Audit.—The supervisors shall have kept a complete book of accounts for such district, and shall on June first of each year select a competent auditor who shall examine the accounts, books and reports of the depository, the assessor and collector and supervisors, and make full report thereon, a copy of which shall be filed with the depository, and a copy with the supervisors, and one with the county clerk. Such reports shall be filed by September first of each year, and shall show in detail for what purposes the money from each fund has been expended.
[Id.]

Art. 7909. Powers of board.—The supervisors shall have control over and management of all the affairs of such district, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall have control of the construction of all improvements and works within and without the boundaries of such district, and the transportation and distribution of the water of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7910. Powers: use of water.—The board shall prescribe the manner and terms upon which water shall be furnished, and shall be authorized to fix the rate to be charged users of waters from such district, and shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the distribution and use of water; and shall apply the revenue from the sale of such water to operating expenses and the upkeep of the system of improvements installed in said district, and any surplus that may be left after paying such expenses shall be from year to year applied to the paying of interest on the bonds or other indebtedness that may be incurred by the district, and if there be more than enough to pay operating and upkeep expenses and the interest on the indebtedness of the district, then such surplus shall be passed to the sinking fund.
[Id.]

Art. 7911. Powers: employes.—The board shall employ all necessary employes for the proper handling and operation of such district, and especially may employ a general manager, attorneys, a bookkeeper and an engineer and such assistants and laborers as may be required. [Id.]

Art. 7912. District engineer.—After the establishment of any district, and after the qualification of the supervisors, the board may appoint an engineer who shall make maps and profiles of the several canals, reservoirs, aqueducts, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and all other works in such district and connected therewith and shall also show any part of said works extending beyond the limits of such district; and shall do such other and further work connected with such district as may be directed by the supervisors. He shall receive not exceeding thirty-six hundred dollars per year, as may be fixed by the board. Such engineer may adopt other maps, plats and surveys of the correctness of which he may be satisfied. [Id.]

Art. 7913. Official bonds.—All bonds required to be given by the officers and employes of such district shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title governing the approval and furnishing of bonds by surety companies for officers and employes of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7914. Powers: equipment.—The board may buy all necessary implements, machinery, work animals, equipment and supplies, as may be required for the construction, operation and maintenance of the system of works and improvement of such district. [Id.]

3. POWERS OF DISTRICT.

| Right of way: roads | 7927 |
| Use of road ways | 7928 |
| Railroad ways | 7928 |
| Joint projects | 7930 |

Art. 7915. Status of district.—All districts shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate; and such districts are hereby declared to be defined districts within the meaning of Section 59, Article 16 of the State Constitution, and may, through their supervisors, sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such districts, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts, and said districts shall contract and be contracted with in the name of such districts. [Id.]

Art. 7916. District seal.—Each district shall have a common seal which shall be circular in form with the name of the district surrounding a five pointed star. [Id.]

Art. 7917. Powers of district.—All such districts shall have such powers of government, and with authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the purposes for which they are created, as may be conferred by this chapter, or any other law in this State, to the benefit of which they may become entitled. All such districts shall have full authority and right to acquire water rights and privileges in any way that any individual or corporation may acquire same, and to hold the same either by gift, purchase, devise, appropriation or otherwise. No enumeration of specific powers herein shall be held a limitation upon the general powers conferred by this chapter, unless distinctly so expressed. [Id.]

Art. 7918. Powers: construction.—All districts shall have full power and authority to build, construct, complete, carry out, maintain, and in case of necessity add to and re-build, all works and improvements within and without such districts necessary to accomplish any plan of conservation, transportation and distribution of fresh water adopted for or on behalf of such districts, and may make all necessary and proper contracts, and employ all persons and means necessary to that end; and such districts are authorized, if the governing bodies thereof shall deem it necessary, to take over in whole or in part by purchase or otherwise, any water plants or systems within such districts. [Id.]

Art. 7919. Construction contracts.—Contracts for the making and construction of all improvements contemplated in this chapter, and all necessary work in connection therewith, when the cost price exceeds ten thousand dollars shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, furnishing satisfactory evidence of possessing equipment and facilities essential to the proper performance of such contract; after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State, once a week for ten days, and by posting a notice for at least ten days at the courthouse door. Such contract shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and supervisors, and a copy so executed filed with the depository subject to inspection of all interested parties. [Id.]

Art. 7920. Contractor's bond.—The person, firm, corporation or association to which such contract is let shall give bond to the district in such amount as the supervisors may determine, not to exceed the contract price, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and for the payment to the district of all damages sustained in default thereof. Such bond shall be approved by the supervisors and shall be deposited with the depository, a true copy thereof being retained in the office of the district secretary. [Id.]

Art. 7921. Contract: performance.—All contracts shall be fulfilled in accordance with the specifications and under the supervision of the supervisors and district engineer. Such engineer shall inspect such work and make reports thereon, and such contract shall be paid as provided by law for similar contracts executed by water control and preservation districts. [Id.]

Art. 7922. Powers: indebtedness.—In the accomplishment of the purposes enumerated in the fourth preceding article, such districts may or may not issue bonds, and may or may not incur indebtedness. No bonds by or on behalf of such districts shall be issued nor shall any indebtedness against the same be incurred, unless the proposition to issue such bonds or to incur such indebtedness, shall be first submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such districts, and the proposition adopted by a majority vote at an election held to determine such question. [Id.]

Art. 7923. May enter lands.—The supervisors, engineers and employes of any district are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within or without said district for the purpose of examining the same with reference to the location of canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and all other kinds of improvements to be constructed for such district, and for any other lawful purpose connected with their plan of conservation, transportation and distribution of water. [Id.]

Art. 7924. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred on all districts to enable them to acquire the fee simple title, easement, or right of way over and through any and all lands, water, or lands under water, private or public (except lands and property used for parks, cemeteries, manufacturing industries and established and developed water powers existing at the time of the creation of such district), within and without such districts, necessary for making, constructing and maintaining all canals, conduits, aqueducts, pipe lines, pumping plants and other improvements necessary for the conservation, transportation and distribution of fresh water for the purposes herein named. Such proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the supervisors and in the name of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7925. Payment of damages.—All such compensation and damages adjudicated in such condemnation proceedings and all damage which may be done to the property of any person or corporation in the construction and maintenance of canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and other improvements under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid out of any funds or properties of said district, except taxes necessarily applied to the sinking fund and interest on the district bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7926. Right of way: acquisition.—The supervisors are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and other necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings; and such necessary improvements may be constructed and maintained within and without such proposed district upon lands acquired as herein authorized. [Id.]

Art. 7927. Right of way: roads.—All districts are hereby given the right of way across all public or county roads, but they shall restore such roads where crossed to their previous condition for use, as near as may be. [Id.]

Art. 7928. Use of road ways.—Said districts are authorized and empowered to make all necessary levees, bridges, and other improvements across or under any railroad embankments, tracks, or rights of way, or public or private roads or the rights of way thereof, or rivers or other public improvements of other districts, or other such improvements and the rights of way thereof, for the purpose of securing the fresh water supply necessary for said districts. [Id.]

Art. 7929. Railroad ways.—When such improvements are to be constructed across or under any railroad properties, notice shall first be given by said district to the proper railroad authorities or other persons relative to the additions or changes to result from the improvements contemplated; and said authorities or persons shall be given thirty days in which to agree to said work to be done in the manner proposed by said district, or to refuse to agree thereto; and in case of refusal, they shall at their own expense construct the said improvements in their own manner, provided such design or manner of construction shall be satisfactory to said district. [Id.]

Art. 7930. Joint projects.—All districts shall have authority to act jointly with each other, with political subdivisions of the State, with other States, with cities and towns, and with the Federal Government, in the performance of any of the things permitted by this chapter, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the supervisors. [Id.]

4. BONDS.

| Results of election | 7935 | Bonds: record book | 7941 |
| Issuance of bonds | 7936 | | |

Art. 7931. Election for bonds.—After the establishment of any district, and the qualification of the supervisors thereof, the board may order an election to be held within such district at a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of said order, at which there shall be submitted the proposition and none other: “For the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof;” “Against the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof.” [Id.]

Art. 7932. Notice of election.—Notice of such election, stating the amount of bonds as determined by the board to be necessary to be issued, shall be given by the board by posting a copy thereof in four public places in the district, one at the courthouse door, for twenty days prior to the election. Such notice shall contain the proposition to be voted upon, with an estimate of the probable cost of construction of the proposed improvement, and incidental expenses connected therewith, and an estimate of the cost of the purchase of the improvements already existing, if the same is contemplated, or the purchase of said necessary improvements, and the construction of additions thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7933. Conduct of election.—The board shall name polling places in the district and shall appoint two judges, one of whom shall be presiding judge, and two clerks for each voting place designated by them. The supervisors shall provide the necessary ballots for said election, which shall have written or printed thereon the proposition to be submitted as provided in the second preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 7934. Elections: expenses.—All expenses incident to calling and holding all elections except the first authorized by this chapter, shall be paid out of any district funds, except interest and sinking fund for bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7935. Results of election.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judges shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers. Such return shall be made to the supervisors who shall at a regular or special session canvass said vote, and if a majority of said votes favor the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes, then the supervisors shall so declare and enter the result in their minutes. [Id.]

Art. 7936. Issuance of bonds.—After declaring the result of said election, the supervisors shall make and enter an order in their minutes directing the issuance of bonds for such district sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements with all necessary actual and incidental expenses connected therewith, not to exceed the amount specified in said order and notice of election. The provisions of Chapter 2 of this title providing for the issuance, denominations, rate of interest, manner and conditions of payment and maturity dates of water improvement district bonds shall apply. [Id.]

Art. 7937. Bonds: approval.—Before such bonds are offered for sale, there shall be forwarded to the Attorney General a certified copy of all proceedings had in the organization of the district, and with reference to the issuance of such bonds in connection with the bonds themselves, and such other information respecting same as he may require. The Attorney General shall carefully examine said bonds in connection with the record and Constitution and laws of this State governing the issuance of such bonds; and if such examination shows that such bonds are issued in conformity thereto, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon said district, he shall so officially certify. [Id.]

Art. 7938. Registration of bonds.—When such bonds are so approved, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose and the certificate of the Attorney General as to their validity shall be preserved of record; whereupon, such bonds shall be held prima facie valid in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity may be brought into question. In every suit to enforce collection of such bonds and interest thereon, the only available defense against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. [Id.]

Art. 7939. Sale of bonds.—After such bonds have been so registered, the supervisors shall sell same on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their face value and accrued interest; and shall promptly pay over to the district depository the proceeds of such sale to be placed to the credit of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7940. Bonds: payment.—At the time of the payment of interest or for redemption of district bonds, the depository shall receive and cancel any interest coupons so paid or any bonds so discharged, and when such interest coupon or bond shall be turned over to the supervisors, the account of such depository shall be credited with the amount thereof, and such bond or coupon shall be cancelled and destroyed. [Id.]

Art. 7941. Bonds: record book.—When bonds have been so issued, the supervisors shall procure and deliver to the county treasurer a well bound book in which a list shall be kept of all such bonds with their manner of payment, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, and the tax levy to pay interest on and redeem such bonds; and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested, either as taxpayers or bond holders. Upon the payment of any bond, said treasurer shall make an entry thereof in said book; and he shall receive for such services the same fees allowed by law to the county clerk for recording deeds. [Id.]

5. TAXES.

| Oath of members | 7949 | Collection dates | 7958 |
| Duties of board | 7950 | Delinquent taxes | 7959 |

Art. 7942. Duties of assessor.—The district assessor shall return the assessment rolls and keep bound records thereof, fuse to sign the oath for tax assessments, shall make up and return the assessment rolls and keep bound records thereof, collect all taxes and deposit the same weekly and make monthly reports of such collections, maintain an office, and be subject to the rules and regulations of the supervisors, in the same manner as provided by law for district tax assessors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7943. Collection of taxes.—All taxes provided for herein shall be collected under the direction of the district collector. He shall keep a true account of all moneys collected, and deposit same as collected in the district depository, and shall file with the district secretary a true statement of all money collected once a week. He shall use a duplicate receipt book and shall give a true receipt for each collection made, retaining in such book a true copy thereof which shall be preserved as a record of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7944. Assessor's accounts.—The assessor shall be charged by the supervisors upon a permanent finance ledger kept for the purpose by the district, with the total assessment as shown by the assessment rolls; and proper credit shall be given to him for all sums paid over to the depository as shown by his monthly reports; and upon final annual settlement, he shall make a complete report of all taxes that have not been collected, which report shall be audited by the supervisors and proper credits given therefor. Such annual settlements shall be made on the first Monday in May. [Id.]

Art. 7945. Tax assessments.—Immediately after the voting of such bonds, the district tax assessor shall at once proceed to make an assessment of all the taxable property, both real, personal and mixed in his district; and such assessment shall be made annually thereafter. Said assessment shall be made upon blanks to be provided by the district supervisors; and shall consist of a full statement under oath by the party rendering same of all property owned by him in said district and subject to State and county taxation, and shall state the full value thereof. Said assessor shall make out similar lists of all property not rendered for taxation in such district that is subject to State and county taxation. He shall have authority to administer oaths to fully carry out the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 7946. Assessment dates.—The assessment of taxes for such district shall be made on the first day of January of each year, and shall be completed and the lists and books ready to deliver on or before the first day of June. [Id.]

Art. 7947. Shall render property.—Each person, partnership or corporation owning taxable property in such district shall render same for taxation to the district assessor when called upon to do so, and if not so called upon, shall on or before June first of each year render for taxation all property owned by him in the district subject to taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7948. Board of Equalization.—At their first regular meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and annually thereafter, the supervisors shall appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter and resident property owner of the district, who shall be styled the "Board of Equalization," and at the same meeting shall fix the time for the meeting of such Board for the first year. At such time said Board shall convene to receive all assessments, lists or books of the district assessor for examination, correction, equalization, appraisalment and approval. At all meetings of such board a secretary shall keep a permanent record of all proceedings thereof. Each such commissioner and the secretary shall receive not exceeding five dollars per day for such services for the time actually engaged in the discharge of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 7949. Oath of members.—Before entering upon the duties as such board, each member shall take and subscribe to the following oath: “I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will to the best of my ability make a full and complete examination, correction, equalization and appraisalment of all property contained within said district, as shown by the assessment list or books of the assessor for said district.” Said oath shall be spread upon the minutes of said board. [Id.]

Art. 7950. Duties of board.—The Board of Equalization shall have the same powers and exercise the same duties with respect to such district, as is provided by law for equalization boards of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7951. Appraisal dates.—The Board of Equalization after the first year shall convene annually on the first Monday in June to receive all assessment lists or books of the assessor, and shall complete their examination and equalization of said lists by the second Monday in June, and deliver said rolls to the assessor by the second Monday in July, and said rolls shall be completed by the assessor and approved by the board and returned to said assessor by the first Monday in September. [Id.]

Art. 7952. Tax levy.—When bonds have been issued, the supervisors shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property, real, personal and mixed, in such district, based upon the full value of each piece of property, sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem and discharge such bonds at maturity; and such taxes shall thereafter be levied annually so long as such bonds are outstanding, sufficient to accomplish such purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7953. Interest and Sinking Fund.—There is hereby created an “Interest and Sinking Fund” for such district, and all taxes collected under this law for the payment of interest or redemption of district bonds shall be credited to such fund, and shall only be paid out to satisfy and discharge the interest on district bonds or for the cancellation and surrender of such bonds, and to defray the expenses of assessing and collecting such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7954. May invest sinking fund.—Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in bonds of the series to which such funds apply if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by the supervisors. [Id.]

Art. 7955. Maintenance tax: election.—If at any time it should be deemed necessary for the supervisors to vote a maintenance tax, they shall call an election in such district to submit the question “For a maintenance tax;” “Against a maintenance tax;” and shall state the amount thereof. Such sum may be specific, or may be a maximum not to be exceeded. Such election shall be held and the votes canvassed in the same manner as provided for the issuance of bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7956. Maintenance tax levy.—When such tax is voted, the supervisors shall thereafter levy and cause the same to be assessed and collected as other taxes, to an amount not exceeding the specific sum voted. The proceeds of such taxes shall be used for the maintenance, upkeep, repairs and additions to the improvements, or other lawful expense incurred by and on behalf of such district and for no other purposes. The right to levy such taxes shall remain in force until abrogated in whole or in part by another such election. Elections upon the question of repeal or reduction of such taxes shall not be held oftener than every five years. The supervisors may or may not levy such taxes if they are not necessary. [Id.]

Art. 7957. Maintenance fund.—There is hereby created a "Maintenance and Operating Fund," which shall consist of all money collected by assessment or otherwise for the maintenance and operation of the properties purchased or constructed or otherwise acquired by such district. All salaries of officers and employes, other than the assessor and collector and all expenses of operation of every kind shall be paid out of such fund. [Id.]

Art. 7958. Collection dates.—All taxes shall become due and payable on the first day of October of each year and shall be paid on or before the thirty-first day of January thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 7959. Delinquent taxes.—All of the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title relating to the lien, penalties, interest and costs, preparation and publication of the delinquent tax roll, suit for collection and foreclosure proceedings, attorney's fees and fees of officers in such proceedings for the collection of delinquent taxes, and redemption of lands before sale, shall apply to the collection of such taxes in districts operating hereunder. [Id.]

| Surveys: natural conditions | 7964 | District data | 7970 |
| Surveys: results | 7965 | Record of expenditures | 7971 |

Art. 7960. Appointment.—The Governor shall biennially appoint a State Reclamation Engineer, with the advice and consent of the Senate. Said engineer shall be a thoroughly experienced and skilled topographer and hydrographer, draftsman and reclamation engineer of not less than five years actual experience in organizing and supervising goedetic and topographic surveying and mapping of large areas, and in the general direction of field and office engineering corps. He shall be thoroughly experienced in making and passing upon reclamation plans and estimates, and in the preparation and writing of technical reports and publications, and in the reproduction of maps. Said engineer shall have his office in the State Capitol. [Acts 1913, p. 292.]

Art. 7961. Powers.—Said engineer shall have general supervision of all work authorized by this law, and he shall perform, conduct or supervise the same. He shall have power to employ such assistants, to make or authorize to be made such purchases, to incur or authorize to be incurred such other expenses, and to formulate and enforce such reasonable and proper rules and regulations governing his official work, and the work of his assistants, both in the office and in the field, as may be necessary to perform with correct dispatch and economy the work herein authorized to be done. [Id.]

Art. 7962. Reclamation of overflowed lands.—The chief purpose of this law shall be to plan and mark out upon the ground all the improvements necessary to reclaim or cause to become suitable for agricultural uses, the overflowed and swamp lands, and overflowed areas in the coastal plain, and other lands in this State, which, by reason of the temporary or permanent excessive accumulation of water thereon, or contiguous thereto, are not suitable for such uses. [Id.]

Art. 7963. Surveys authorized.—To accomplish such purpose, it is hereby authorized and ordered that the necessary investigations, estimates, surveys, maps, reports and publications shall be made, and any other necessary work incident thereto shall be done, which may be required in the process of planning or marking out upon the ground the most practical, permanent, economical and equitable improvements or systems of improvements such as levees, dikes, dams, canals, drains, water-ways, reservoirs or any or all of them, and other improvements incidental thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7964. Surveys: natural conditions.—As far as possible, said improvements shall be designed with primary consideration to the topographic and hydrographic conditions, and in such manner that each division thereof shall be a complete united project, forming a co-ordinate part of an ultimately finished series of projects, so constituted that the successful operation of the improvements in each united project shall co-operate to the successful operation of the improvements in the other united projects existing within the same hydraulic influence. [Id.]

Art. 7965. Surveys: results.—The said improvements shall be discussed in reports, shown on maps, drawings or diagrams, or otherwise recorded or published. All such final results which are of value to this State shall be filed for public reference in the office of said engineer. [Id.]

Art. 7966. Details of work.—The engineer shall have power to determine at what points within the territory herein designated the said work shall be done; and he shall determine the manner and the season that the results of said work shall be made public. [Id.]

Art. 7967. Co-operative agreements.—The engineer shall have power, if in his judgment it will accomplish the objects herein provided for, to make and approve agreements or contracts for co-operation with any branch of the Federal, State, county or city governments for the doing of all or any part of the work herein authorized; and said engineer shall have power to cancel any said agreement or contract upon ten days written notice to such branch concerned. The engineer shall accomplish such objects independently of such co-operation, if he deems said co-operation not to be to the best interests of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7968. Co-operative conferences.—The engineer is empowered to confer with any branch of the Federal, State, county or city governments with a view to obtaining authority, assistance or advice in connection with his official work, whenever necessary or desirable, and he shall solicit the co-operation of such governments when the same may be to the best interests of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7969. Shall advise districts.—The engineer shall confer in a technical capacity with districts in this State that have requested his technical advice with a view to the adequate execution of proposed levee and drainage improvements contemplated in such districts. He shall receive no extra compensation for such advice. [Id.]

Art. 7970. District data.—Immediately prior to the approval of its bonds by the Attorney General, each drainage or levee district shall file with the engineer on forms furnished by him, a complete record showing each step in the organization of such district, and showing the boundaries, area, amount of bonds to be issued, together with plans, maps and profiles of improvements, and the district engineer's estimates and report thereon. [Id.]

Art. 7971. Record of expenditures.—The engineer shall keep an accurate record of all money spent by the State in the execution of the work authorized by this law. [Id.]

Art. 7972. Levy improvement districts.—There may be created within this State conservation and reclamation districts to be known as Levee Improvement Districts, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining levees and other improvements on, along and contiguous to rivers, creeks, and streams, for the purpose of reclaiming lands from overflow from such streams, for the purpose of the control and distribution of the waters of rivers and streams by straightening and otherwise improving the same, and for the proper drainage and other improvement of such lands, all as contemplated by Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution of this State, for the conservation and development of the natural resources of this State, which said districts shall have and may exercise all the rights, powers and privileges given by this Act and in accordance with its limitations and provisions.

Art. 7973. Petition to reclamation engineer.—Whenever any engineer shall make application in writing to the State Reclamation Engineer for authority to obtain information by proper surveys in respect to the feasibility of reclaiming any lands which may be later incorporated in a levee improvement district, it shall be the duty of the State Reclamation Engineer, if satisfied that the applicant is competent and acting in good faith, to issue to such applicant express written authority to make such survey in order to obtain the desired information; and such engineer, acting under such written authority from the State Reclamation Engineer, is hereby authorized and empowered to go upon any lands proposed to be incorporated in any levee improvement distract for the purpose of examining same with reference to the location of boundary lines, and for such other information which may be used in the formation of a levee improvement district.

Art. 7974. Petition for proposal to create levy.—When it is proposed to create a levee district wholly within one county, there shall be presented to the commissioners' court of the county in which the lands to be included in such district are located, or to the county judge of the county if the commissioners' court is not in session, a petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of such proposed district, setting forth the proposed boundaries thereof, the general nature of the work proposed to be done, the necessity therefor and the feasibility thereof, stating whether the taxes proposed to be levied therein shall be on the ad valorem plan or based on assessed benefits, and designating a name therefor, which shall include the name of the county in which it is situated; and when it is proposed to create such a district to be composed of lands in two or more counties, then a petition of the nature above indicated, signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of such proposed district, designating the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning the said district, which county may be any county in which any part of district is located, shall be presented to the commissioners' court of such county, or, if the court is not in session, to the county judge thereof; and upon presentation of either such petition, it shall be the duty of the court to which it is presented, or the county judge of such county if the court be not in session, to fix a time and place at which such petition shall be heard before the commissioners' court of the county wherein it is filed, which date shall not be less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the order, and to order and direct the county clerk of such county, as ex officio clerk of the commissioners' court thereof, to issue a notice of such time and place of hearing, which notice shall inform all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing, and of their right to appear at such hearing and contend for or contest the formation of such district, as their interests may dictate, and to deliver notice to any adult person who is willing to execute the same by posting, as herein-after directed. The order shall further direct the clerk forthwith to issue a notice of the filing of such petition and of its general purpose, stating the time and place of hearing, which shall be mailed forthwith to the State Reclamation Engineer at his office in Austin, Texas.

Art. 7975. Upon receipt of notice.—Upon receipt of the notice above provided for by any adult person willing to receive and execute the same, it shall be the duty of such person, or persons, if more than one shall act, if the district is wholly within a county, to post a copy of such notice at the door of the courthouse of said county, and copies at four different places within such proposed districts; if such district is located in more than one county such notice shall be posted at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is situated, and four copies at four separate places within the boundaries of those portions of such district situated in each county. Such posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, and the person, or persons so posting, shall make affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths of his, or their action in respect to such postings, and such affidavit when so made shall be conclusive of the facts sworn to.

Art. 7976. Deposit. A petition for the formation of such a district, if the district is wholly within one county, shall be accompanied by a deposit of fifty dollars, and if the district is proposed to be located in more than one county it shall be accompanied by a deposit of seventy-five dollars, which deposit shall be paid to the clerk of the court of jurisdiction, who shall therefrom, upon vouchers approved by the county judge, pay all expenses incident to the hearing herein provided for, returning any excess to the petitioners or their attorney.

Art. 7977. Duty of engineer.—The State Reclamation Engineer, upon receipt of the notice to him herein provided for, shall forthwith, by himself or deputy, examine said proposed district, and do, or cause to be done, such work in respect thereto as may be necessary to enable him to determine the necessity, feasibility and probable costs of reclaiming the land of such district from overflow, and the proper drainage thereof, together with the costs of organizing such district, and maintenance thereof, for a period of two years, and he shall, by himself or deputy, attend the hearing and file his written report in respect to the matters concerning which he has investigated and give to the court such further additional information as may be then required.

Art. 7978. Court to hear petition.—At the time and place set for the hearing of the petition, or such subsequent date as may then be fixed, the court shall proceed to hear such petition and all issues in respect to the creation of such proposed district, and any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and contend for or contest the creation of such district, and offer testimony pertinent to any issue presented. Such court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine all issues in respect to the creation, or not, of such district, and of all subsequent proceedings in respect to said district if the same should be created. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day and from time to time, as the facts may require. The court shall have power to make all incidental orders deemed proper in respect to the matters before it.

Art. 7979. Judgment and findings.—If upon the hearing of such petition, it be found that the same is signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of the proposed district, and that due notice has been given, and that the proposed improvements are desirable, feasible, and practicable, and would be a public utility and a public benefit, and would be conducive to public health, then such court shall so find and render judgment reciting such findings and creating and establishing such district, which judgment and findings shall be embodied in an order which shall be entered of record in the minutes of said court, which order shall define the boundaries of such district, which need not include all of the lands described in the petition, if, upon the hearing a modification or change is found necessary or desirable. A levee improvement district created as herein specified shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate, with such powers of government and with the authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the purposes for which it is created as may be conferred by this chapter, or any other law of this State to the benefits of which it may become entitled. If at the hearing of such petition, as herein provided for, the commissioners' court shall enter an order dismissing the petition for the creation of said district, then, and in the event the petitioners, or any one of them or any taxpayer in such district, may appeal from said order to the district court of said county which appeal shall be perfected in the following manner, to-wit: notice of appeal shall be given at the time of the entry of said order by announcement of same before said court, which notice of appeal shall be entered on the minutes of said court, or by giving written notice within two days after the entry of such order; said notice to be a simple statement in writing to the effect that the undersigned gives notice of appeal from the order entered on the date stated, which notice shall be filed with the clerk of the county court, and the appellant shall, within five days from the date of the entry of said order, file an appeal bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties payable to the county judge of the county, to be approved by the county clerk; conditioned upon the due prosecution of the appeal and payment of all costs incident thereto, and unless the appeal be thus perfected within five days after the rendition of the order, such order shall be final and conclusive, and there shall be no extension of time granted for the filing of the appeal bond; the county clerk, shall within five days after the filing of said appeal bond, transfer to the clerk of such district court all records filed with the county commissioners' court, pertaining to the establishment of said district, together with a transcript of the orders of the commissioners' court, and it shall be unnecessary to file any other or additional pleadings in said court. The court shall set the matter down for hearing, giving it precedence over all other cases, and the matters shall be tried and determined by the court, the hearing to be de novo. The judgment of the district court shall be final and conclusive, and the same shall be certified to the commissioners' court for its further action.

Art. 7980. Levy improvement districts entitled to benefits.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act or entitled to the benefits of its provisions, subject to the supervision and direction of the State Reclamation Engineer, or other superior authority created by law, and subject to the limitations in this Act contained, shall have full power and authority to build, construct, complete, carry out, maintain, protect, and in case of necessity, add to and rebuild all works and improvements within their district necessary or proper to fully accomplish any plan of reclamation lawfully adopted for or on behalf of such district, and may make all necessary and proper contracts, and employ all persons and means necessary or proper to that end; and in the accomplishment of such purposes they may or may not issue bonds, and may or may not incur indebtedness; provided, that no bonds by or on behalf of such district shall be issued nor shall any indebtedness against the same be incurred unless the proposition to issue such bonds or to incur such indebtedness shall be first submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such district, and the proposition adopted by a majority vote of the taxpaying voters of the district voting at an election held to determine such question; and no enumeration of specific powers in this Act shall be held to be a limitation upon the general powers hereby conferred except as may be distinctly expressed.

Art. 7981. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon all districts to enable them to acquire the fee simple title, easement or right of way to, over, and through any and all lands, water, or lands under water, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes), within bordering upon, adjacent or opposite to such districts, necessary for making, constructing and maintaining all levees and other improvements for the improvement of a river or rivers, creek or creeks, or streams within or bordering upon such districts to prevent overflows thereof.

Adequate compensation shall be made to the owners of any property so taken, damaged or destroyed for such purposes. The levee district shall have the power to acquire any such property for any such purposes, which for any reason has not been condemned by the board of appraisers in the manner hereinafter provided, and may by condemnation proceedings acquire any property not acquired by the appraisers which condemnation proceedings shall be brought in the name of the levee district.

Art. 7982. District supervisors.—The district supervisors of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all levees and other necessary improvements contemplated by this Act, by gift, or condemnation proceedings; and they may by the same methods acquire any levee or other improvements already constructed.

Art. 7983. Authorized to go on lands.—The supervisors of any district and the engineer and employes thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within or adjacent to said district for the purpose of examining same with reference to the location of levees, drainage ditches and all other kinds of improvements to be constructed for or within such district, and for any other lawful purpose connected with their plan of reclamation, whether herein enumerated or not.

Art. 7984. Empowered to make levees.—The said levee improvement districts are hereby authorized and empowered to make all the necessary levees, bridges and other improvements across or under any railroad embankments, tracks, or rights of way, or public or private roads or the rights of way thereof, or levees or other public improvements of other districts, or other such improvements and the rights of way thereof, or to join such improvement thereto, for the purpose of enabling the said levee improvements necessary for the said district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by said levee improvement district to the proper railroad authorities or other authorities or persons, relative to the additions or changes to result from the improvements contemplated by the said levee improvement district; and the said railroad authorities, or persons, shall be given thirty days in which to agree to the said work, or to refuse to agree thereto, or in which they, if they so desire, may at their own expense construct the said improvements in their own manner; provided, such design or manner of construction shall be satisfactory to the said levee improvement district and approved by the State Reclamation Engineer or his deputy.

Art. 7985. Right of way.—Levee improvement districts are hereby given the right of way across all public or county roads, but they shall restore such roads where crossed to their previous condition for use, as near as may be.

Art. 7986. Authority to act.—Levee improvement districts shall have authority to act jointly with each other, with cities and towns and other political subdivisions of the State, with other states, and with the Government of the United States in the performance of any of the things permitted by this Act; such joint acts to be done upon such terms as may be agreed upon by their supervisors, subject to the approval of the State Reclamation Engineer.

Art. 7987. Supervisors appointed.—When a levee improvement district has been created under this Act, the court creating the same shall forthwith appoint by a majority vote three supervisors for such district, who shall be known as "district supervisors," and whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided. Said supervisors shall each receive for his services not more than five dollars per day for the time actually engaged in work for said district, and all expenses while so engaged, to be paid upon rendition of sworn accounts, approved by the county judge of the county having jurisdiction; and they shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the court of jurisdiction; and any vacancy in office shall be filled by a majority vote of the court having jurisdiction which court shall continue from time to time to appoint supervisors in order that the board may always be full.

Art. 7988. Bond.—Before entering upon their duties the district supervisors shall each take and subscribe before some officer authorized to administer oaths, an oath to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties as supervisor and render true accounts of his services and expenses, and each shall enter into bond with good and sufficient security, payable to the levee improvement district, in the sum of one thousand dollars, unless the court of jurisdiction shall fix a larger amount, which it may do when in its judgment the interests of the district may so require, which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of such supervisor and that he will render true accounts of his services and expenses, which bond shall be approved by the county judge of the county the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction and by him entered of record in his office, and the original bond shall be retained on file.

Art. 7989. Name engineer.—District supervisors, after their qualification, shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice chairman, and shall elect a secretary, who need not be a member of the board; and an engineer and such other employes or assistants as may from time to time be found necessary to the successful carrying on and completion of the work and business of the district; they shall certify their organization and the name of their engineer, who shall be known as "district engineer," to the commissioners' court of the county having jurisdiction.

Art. 7990. District engineer have control.—The district engineer, subject to the authority of the State Reclamation Engineer, shall have control of the engineering work of the district, and shall, with such assistants as may be necessary in the judgment of the board of supervisors, as soon as practicable after his appointment, make a survey of the lands within the boundaries of the district and of all lands adjacent thereto that will be improved or reclaimed, in whole or in part by any system of levees and drainage that may be adopted; and shall make report in writing to the board of supervisors of his work in this regard, with maps and profiles of his surveys, which report shall contain a full and complete plan for draining, constructing levees and reclaiming the lands of the district from overflow or damage by waters from the streams in or adjacent to such district, and whose waters may in anywise affect the same, which plan may include, and where necessary shall include costs of straightening streams from which injury to the lands of said districts may result; and shall also in such report indicate the physical characteristics of the lands within the district, the location of any public roads, railroads, or the rights of way or roadways and other property or improvements located on said lands; a duplicate of which report shall be filed with the State Reclamation Engineer, for his approval. Such report before adoption may be modified by the State Reclamation Engineer, or by the board of supervisors, with his approval, and when approved by the State Reclamation Engineer and adopted by the board of supervisors, the same shall be known as, and shall be designated as "The Plan of Reclamation"; provided that no plan of reclamation, after such approval, shall be modified or changed in any manner, the cost of which shall exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), except upon petition to the State Reclamation Engineer, signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands in such district, and approved by the State Reclamation Engineer. When the plan of reclamation has been adopted as herein provided a copy of same shall be filed with the county clerk in each county where any lands lie, that will be affected in anywise by the plan of reclamation, and such filing shall be notice of its contents to all persons owning or having any interest in any lands in the county in which same is filed; and any amendments to said plan of reclamation shall be filed in like manner.

Art. 7991. Commissioners of appraisement.—When the petition for the creation of a levee improvement district stipulates that taxes are to be levied upon a benefit basis, then as soon after the approval and adoption of the plan of reclamation as practicable, the commissioners' court of the county of jurisdiction shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall be known as "commissioners of appraisement," and who shall be freeholders but not owners of land within the district for which they are to act, and neither shall be related within the fourth degree of affinity or consanguinity to any of the members of the commissioners' court or the board of supervisors or any land owners in the district; and such commissioners of appraisement shall proceed as follows:

Art. 7992. Duties of commissioners.—The secretary of the board of supervisors, immediately following the appointment of the commissioners above mentioned shall in writing notify each of his appointment, and in the notice designate a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. In the event any such commissioner shall resign, his place shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies on the board of supervisors. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to meet at the time and place specified, or as soon thereafter as may be found practicable at some time and place to be agreed upon by them, when they shall each take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge their duties as such commissioners, and make true report of the work done by them, and at such meeting the commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice chairman, and the secretary of the board of supervisors, or, in his absence, such person as the board of supervisors may appoint, shall be secretary of said board of commissioners during their continuance in office, and shall furnish to them such information and such assistance as may be within his power and necessary to the performance of their duties.

Art. 7993. Duty of secretary.—Within thirty days after qualifying and organizing as above directed, the commissioners shall begin their duties, and they may at any time call upon the attorney of the district for legal advice and information relative to such duties, and may, if necessary require the presence of the district engineer, or one of his assistants, at such time and for so long as may be necessary to the proper performance of their duties. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the lands within such district, and all other lands which will be affected by the plan of reclamation for such district if carried out, and all public roads, railroads, rights of ways and other property or improvements located upon such lands, and all such lands within or without the district as may be acquired under the provision of this Act for any purpose connected with or incident to the fully carrying out of the plan of reclamation; they shall assess the amounts of benefits and all damages, if any, that will accrue to any tract of land within such district or which may be affected by the plan of reclamation, or to any public highway, railroad, and other rights of way, roadways or other property, from carrying out and putting into effect the plan of reclamation for such district; and they shall assess the value of all lands within or without the district to be acquired for right of way or other purposes; and the failure of said commissioners of appraisement to return damages to any tract of land within or without the district shall be deemed a finding that no damage will be done to that tract. The board shall prepare a report of their findings, which shall show the owner of each piece of property examined and on or concerning which any assessment is made, together with such description of said property as may identify the same, as well as the value of all property to be taken or acquired for rights of way or any other purposes connected with the carrying out of the plan of reclamation as finally approved by the State Reclamation Engineer; which report shall be signed by at least a majority of the commissioners and filed with the secretary of the board of supervisors of the district, which report shall show the number of days each commissioner has been employed and the actual expenses incurred by each during his service as commissioner; and each shall be paid by the district five dollars per day for his services, and all necessary expenses in addition thereto, upon the approval of his accounts for such per diem and expenses by the board of supervisors.

Said commissioners shall in their report fix a time and place, when and where they will hear objections thereto, and such date shall be not less than twenty days from the filing of such report.

Art. 7994. Notice of publication.—When the report of the commissioners shall have been filed with the secretary of the board of supervisors he shall forthwith give notice by publication in a newspaper published in each county wherein any portion of the district is located, and wherein any lands lie that will be in any way affected by the carrying out of the proposed plan of reclamation, for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed for such hearing, of the time and place of such hearing, which notice shall be in substantially the following form:

To the owners and all other persons having any interest in any lands lying in _____ County, take notice, that a copy of the plan of reclamation of the _____ levee improvement district has heretofore been filed with the county clerk of this county and that commissioners have been appointed to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land or other property within or without the said levee district which will be benefited, taken, or otherwise affected or damaged by the carrying out of said plan of reclamation. The report of said commissioners has been filed in my office at _____ and all persons interested may examine the same and make objection thereto in whole or in part and all persons claiming damage to their lands within or without the district to which no damages have been assessed in said report are required to file claim for such damage in my office on or before the _____ day of _____, 19____, and all persons failing to make such objection or claim for damages will be deemed to have waived the same. Further take notice that the said commissioners of appraisement will meet on said day of _____ for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to their report and claims for damages.

Secretary, Board of Supervisors.

Levee District.

The secretary of the board of supervisors shall also mail a written notice to each person whose property is listed in the report of the commissioners, if his post office address is known, stating the time and place of such meeting, which notice shall state in substance that the report of the commissioners to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land and other property by reason of the plan of reclamation for the district in question has been filed in his office, and that all persons interested may examine the same and make objections thereto in whole or in part, and that the commissioners will meet on the day and at the place named for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to such report; and the secretary upon the day of the hearing shall file in his office the original notice, with his affidavit thereto, showing the manner of publication and the names of all persons to whom notices have been mailed, and that the post office of those to be affected to whom notices were not mailed were unknown to him and could not be ascertained by reasonable diligence; and copies of such notice and affidavit shall be filed, one with the commissioners of appraisement and one with the clerk of the commissioners' court having jurisdiction.

Art. 7995. Filing exceptions and damage claims.—At or before the hearing upon the report of the commissioners of appraisement, any owner of land or other property affected by such report, or the plan of reclamation, may file exception to any or all parts of such report, and any person to whose land no damages has been assessed and who believes that his land will be damaged by the carrying out of the plan of reclamation, may also file with the secretary of the board of supervisors a claim for such damages; and the said commissioners, at the time and place named in such notice, shall proceed to hear and pass upon all such objections and claims for damages, and may make such changes and modifications from time to time as may be necessary to conform the report to their findings; and may grant, in whole or in part, or may over rule, such claim for damages. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day. When commissioners shall have finally acted they shall make a decree concerning such report insofar as it is confirmed, and approving and confirming the same as modified or changed insofar as it may be modified or changed, and shall condemn such land within or without the district as shall be needed for right of way or other purposes, and shall adjudge all damages, if any. The commissioners shall have power to adjudge and apportion costs incurred upon the hearing in such manner as may be deemed equitable. The findings of the commissioners as to benefits shall be final and conclusive and shall be entered of record in the minutes of the board of supervisors and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the lands within such district are located, as a permanent record of such county, and such filing shall be notice to all persons of the contents of such decree. Any person, or the board of supervisors of such levee district, may appeal from the decree of the appraisers assessing or refusing to assess damages or fixing the value of right of way; the only questions to be considered on such appeal shall be whether just compensation has been allowed for property taken or whether property damages have been allowed for property injured or whether any damages are recoverable at all. Such appeal shall be taken to the district court of the county of jurisdiction in the manner, under the conditions, and within the time provided by Article 7980, for appeals from judgments of the commissioners' court refusing to create the levee district, and the district court shall have jurisdiction thereof, regardless of the amount. The secretary of the board of supervisors in case any appeal or appeals are filed, within five days after filing of the appeal, shall send to the district clerk the plan of reclamation or certified copy thereof, together with a transcript of that part of the commissioners' report affecting the lands concerned in the appeal or appeals, and a transcript of the claim or claims for damages, as the case may be, and the action of the commissioners of appraisal thereon, and such appeals may be consolidated in the district court. The trial in the district court shall be de novo and proceedings shall be in accordance with the laws of this State in suits for damages, and the claimant shall be considered as plaintiff and the district as defendant, excepting that no further pleadings shall be required. Appeals may be taken from the judgment of the district court as in other civil cases. No appeal shall delay the prosecution of the work, but upon payment by the district supervisors to the district clerk the amount of damages awarded by the commissioners of appraisal, and upon the district making bond to pay to the owner of any further amount that may be awarded him upon such appeal, title to such property so condemned shall thereupon vest in the district and it shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. No person owning or having any interest in any land in any county in which copy of the plan of reclamation has been filed and notice published of the hearing before the commissioners of appraisal, who has failed to file claim for damages as above provided, or who has failed to file objection to the damages assessed by the commissioners against his land, or who having filed such claim or objection, has failed to appeal from an adverse ruling upon such claim or objection, shall thereafter be heard to claim any damages from the levee district or its supervisors, officers or agents by reason of the carrying out of the plan of reclamation.

Art. 7996. Basis of taxation.—After the action of the commissioners of appraisal, as aforesaid, their final findings, judgment and decree assessing benefits, until lawfully changed or modified, shall form the basis of taxation within and for the levee improvement district for which they shall have acted, for all purposes for which taxes may be levied by, for or on behalf of such district, and all taxes shall be apportioned and levied on each tract of land, railroad and other real property in the district in proportion to the benefits to the property named in such final judgment or decree, as shown thereby. In all matters before the commissioners of appraisal, parties interested may not only appear in person or by attorney, or both in person and by attorney, but they shall be entitled to process for witnesses, to be issued by the chairman of the commissioners of appraisal on demand, and such commissioners shall have the same power as a court of record to enforce the attendance of witnesses.

Art. 7997. Limitation on commissioners.—In a district in which taxes are levied on the ad valorem basis, commissioners of appraisal shall be appointed and shall proceed in like manner as provided by Article 7991 to 7995, inclusive, of this Act, excepting that they shall not assess any benefits.

And, thereupon, all proceedings shall be had, notices given and hearings held in like manner; and all provisions of this statute relating to assessment of damages in districts levying taxes on a benefit basis shall apply to the assessment thereof in districts taxing on the ad valorem basis.

Art. 7998. Rate of taxation.—In all levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon an ad valorem basis, the taxable property shall be assessed at the same value as assessed for State and county purposes. In the assessment of taxes in such districts, and in all matters pertaining thereto or connected therewith, the county tax assessor shall have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and proceedings as are provided by the laws of this State for the assessment and collection of county and State taxes. And the county commissioners' court shall constitute the board of equalization for such levee improvement district or districts, and all laws governing boards of equalization for county and State taxing purposes shall govern such board or boards for such levee improvement districts. It shall be the duty of the county tax assessor of the county to assess all property within such levee improvement district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by the commissioners' court for that purpose, and return said books and rolls at the same time when he returns the other books and rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval. If the commissioners' court shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve the same and order the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of said tax assessor to be paid from the funds of said levee improvement district. The tax assessor shall receive for his said services such compensation as the commissioners' court shall deem proper to compensate him for the amount of work done; provided, that the said tax assessor shall in no event be allowed more than he is now allowed by law for like services. Should the tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of the commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all property in such improvement district as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duty by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

And levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon an ad valorem basis, and embracing lands located in more than one county, shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of such levee improvement districts that include lands in one county. The tax assessor of each county having lands included within such levee improvement district shall assess the taxes levied by the commissioners' court of his county against the territory included in such levee improvement district for each and every year that such tax is levied. It shall be the duty of the tax assessor to make up a separate tax roll covering the levee improvement taxes on territory in his county included in such levee improvement district, and deliver such separate tax roll together with the general tax rolls of his county. The said separate tax roll shall guide the tax collector in collecting the levee improvement taxes for such district. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to collect such levee improvement tax for such levee district in his county for every year that such tax has been levied in such district and keep a separate account covering the territory of his county included in such levee improvement district for the purpose of determining how much tax has been collected and how much tax shall be paid by his county to such levee improvement district.

Art. 7999. Non-bond issuing districts.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act, desiring to effect and carry out their plans of reclamation without the issuance of bonds, shall, subject to the limitations hereinabove stated, be authorized and empowered through their boards of supervisors to make such arrangements by contributions from land owners, or otherwise, as may be necessary to provide the funds requisite to the completion of their improvements; and may, by vote of the resident property taxpayers of such districts, create such indebtedness, to be evidenced otherwise than by bonds, as may be deemed requisite. Provided such indebtedness shall never exceed the cost of construction of improvements to be made according to the adopted plan of reclamation approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, and the cost of maintenance of such improvements for two years as estimated by him, plus ten per cent additional to meet emergencies, modifications and changes lawfully made, and plus all damages awarded against the district.

Art. 8000. Petition for bond election.—Where any levee improvement district desires to issue bonds to raise funds for its works of improvements, there shall be presented to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, or to the judge thereof, in vacation, a petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands included within such district, praying for the issuance of bonds to an amount stated, which amount shall not exceed the costs of construction of improvements to be made according to the adopted plan of reclamation approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, and the cost of maintenance of such improvement for two years as estimated by him, plus ten per cent additional to meet emergencies, modifications and charges lawfully made, plus all damages awarded against the district. The petition shall state the rate of interest to be borne by such bonds, and pray that an election be ordered within and for such district to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued by and on behalf of said district for the purposes above indicated, and to the amount stated, and whether taxes shall be levied within and for said district in payment thereof; provided, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum.

Art. 8001. Manner of election.—Upon presentation of said petition such commissioners' court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if the court be not in session, shall make and cause to be entered of record upon the minutes of said court an order directing that an election be held within and for such levee improvement district at a date to be fixed in the order, to be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days after the date of such order, for the purpose of determining the questions mentioned in such petition. At such election those desiring to vote in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof, shall have written or printed on their ballots; "For the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof," and those desiring to vote against the proposition submitted shall have printed or written on their ballots; "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof." Each and every levee improvement district is hereby constituted an election precinct for the purpose of the election above specified and all other elections which may be ordered or held under any provisions of this Act. When elections are ordered the judge or court ordering the same shall fix the polling place or places for the holding of such election, and name a judge and two clerks at each polling place, and more judges or clerks if deemed necessary; and there shall be at least one polling place in each county in which any portion of the district is located.

Art. 8002. Expense of election.—When a petition for a bond election is presented it shall be accompanied by a deposit of two hundred dollars, from which shall be paid all expenses of such election, and such other expenses as may be properly incurred up to the sale and issuance of bonds, and any excess shall be returned to the petitioners or their attorney; and when bonds are issued the amount of such expense shall be refunded to the petitioners or their attorneys from the proceeds of the bonds.

Art. 8003. Posting notice of election.—When an order for an election has been made, the clerk of the commissioners' court of the county having jurisdiction shall forthwith issue and place in the hands of the sheriff of the county, if the district is wholly within one county a notice stating in substance the contents of such election order, and the time and place or places of such election, and it shall be the duty of such sheriff, by himself or deputy, forthwith to post a copy of such notice at the door of the courthouse of his county, and four other copies at four different places within the boundaries of such district, which posting shall be done not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for said election; if such district is located in more counties than one, then such notice may be delivered to any adult person, who shall post copies of the same, one at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of such district is situated, and four copies at four separate places within the boundaries of those portions of the district situated in each county, which posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date of said election; such sheriff or person posting shall make due return to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of his action, in the premises; the return of the individual other than the sheriff to be under oath before some person authorized by law to administer oaths, and the return of the sheriff and such oath shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated.

Art. 8004. Who may vote.—All elections held under any provisions of this Act shall be governed as near as may be by the general election laws of this State, except as modified hereby, and shall be held and conducted by the judges and clerks appointed by the court of jurisdiction, or in their absence or refusal to act, by others chosen by the voters, and the supervisors of the district shall furnish all necessary ballots and other election supplies requisite to such elections. None but qualified property taxpaying voters of such district shall vote at any election to authorize the issuance of bonds by or on behalf of the district or for the creation of any indebtedness against any district, or for or against any maintenance tax.

Art. 8005. Making returns.—Immediately after any election under this Act the officers holding the same shall make return of the result thereof to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, and return the ballot boxes to the clerk of said court, who shall safely keep the same and deliver them, together with the returns of the election, to the commissioners' court of jurisdiction at its next regular or special session, and said court shall at such session canvass the vote and returns, and if it be found that the proposition submitted has been adopted by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of such district voting at said election, then the court shall declare the result, and, if the election be for the issuance of bonds, shall declare that it resulted in favor of the issuance of bonds and the levy of taxes in payment thereof; and, if the result be against the issuance of bonds, then it shall declare that the result was against the issuance of bonds and the levy of taxes in payment thereof; and, if the question be for a maintenance tax, or other tax, then it shall declare the result to be for or against such tax, as the case may be; or, if the question be any other proposition which may be properly submitted at an election, the order shall declare the result to be for or against the proposition submitted, as the case may be, and an order, or orders declaring such result shall be entered upon the minutes of such court.

Art. 8006. Petition for and notice of election.—If, at the time for a bond election, or at any other time, the supervisors of any district created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall desire to be submitted to the voters of the district the question of a maintenance tax, or other proposition proper to be submitted to them, they shall petition the commissioners' court of jurisdiction for an election upon the question so desired to be submitted, and it shall be the duty of the court to order an election, and that notice be given substantially as in case of a bond election, and notice shall be given substantially as in case of such elections, and all other proceedings shall be in respect to the question so submitted substantially in accordance with the provisions hereof in respect to a bond election.

Art. 8007. Issuance of bonds.—If a bond election in any district created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall have resulted in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof, after such result has been duly declared, the commissioners' court of jurisdiction shall make an order directing the issuance of bonds of such district, to be known as "Levee Improvement Bonds," to the amount voted, unless a less amount was requested by the district supervisors, which bonds shall state upon their face the purposes for which they are issued. Said bonds shall be issued in the name of the levee improvement district by and on behalf of which they are voted, shall be signed by the county judge of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, and shall be attested by the county clerk of said county, and the seal of the commissioners' court of such county shall be affixed to each; they shall be issued in such denominations, and payable at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by the issuing authority, and shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

Art. 8008. Record of bonds.—When bonds shall have been issued by and on behalf of any levee improvement district, the supervisors of such district shall procure and deliver to the treasurer of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, a well bound book in which a record shall be kept of all such bonds, with their number, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, and the tax levy to pay interest on and to provide sinking funds for their payment, which book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested, either as taxpayers or bondholders; and upon the payment of any bond an entry thereof shall be made on such book. The county treasurer shall receive for his services in recording all these matters the same fees as may be allowed by law to the county clerk for recording deeds.

Art. 8009. Attorney General to examine.—Before any bonds issued by or on behalf of any levee improvement district are offered for sale, there shall be forwarded to the Attorney General a certified copy of all proceedings had in the organization of the district, and with reference to the issuance of such bonds in connection with the bonds, themselves, and such other information with respect thereto as may be required by the Attorney General, shall be furnished; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to carefully examine said bonds, in connection with the record and the Constitution and laws of this State governing the issuance of such bonds, and, if, as a result of his examination, the Attorney General shall find that such bonds are issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws of this State and that they are valid and binding obligations upon the district by or on behalf of which they are issued, he shall so officially certify, and, until he shall so officially certify, and until registered by the Comptroller, as hereinafter required, said bonds shall be without validity.

Art. 8010. Recorded by Comptroller.—When the bonds of any levee improvement district have been examined and approved by the Attorney General and his certificate thereto has been issued, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose, and the certificate of the Attorney General as to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record. Such bonds after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General, and after having been registered in the Comptroller's office, as herein provided, shall be held, in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity may be brought into question, prima facie valid; and in every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds and interest thereon, the only available defense against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud.

Art. 8011. Sale of bonds.—When bonds shall have been issued, approved and registered as provided in this Act, the court of jurisdiction may appoint the county judge of the county of jurisdiction, or other suitable person, to sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible and approved by the district supervisors, and no sale shall be complete until approved by such supervisors. The judge or person selling such bonds shall be allowed, as full compensation for all services performed in respect thereto, one-fourth of one per cent of the amount received, and, except such commission, shall promptly pay over to the proper treasurer or depository the proceeds of said bonds, to be placed to the credit of such levee improvement district; but, before proceeding to make any sale, such judge, or any person appointed, shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the levee improvement district, and approved by the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, for an amount not less than the par value of the bonds to be sold, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duty under his appointment.

Art. 8012. Levying taxes.—When bonds have been issued by any levee improvement district, providing for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon and proportioned, as to each piece of property, to the net benefits which it shall have been found will accrue to such property from the completion of the plan of reclamation or other duly authorized work, which taxes shall be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds, as it shall fall due, and to raise an additional sum which will create a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem such bonds at maturity; such levy may be made for or at the time of issuance of said bonds for each year throughout the life of the bond issue which shall be the rate of levy for each of such years until modified. Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in the bonds of the series to which such funds apply, if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by its supervisors or the court of jurisdiction.

When bonds shall have been issued by any levee improvement district, providing for the levy of taxes upon ad valorem basis, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or, if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon the value of each piece of property as made for State and county purposes, which taxes shall be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall fall due, and to raise an additional fund which shall create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem and discharge such bonds at maturity; such levy may be made for or at the time of issuance of said bonds for each year throughout the life of the bond issue which shall be the rate of levy for each of such years until modified. Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in the bonds of the series to which such funds apply, if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by its supervisors or the court of jurisdiction.

Art. 8013. For what uses may be applied.—When a maintenance tax shall have been voted in any district entitled to the benefits of this Act, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or, if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall thereafter levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon the net benefits thereto contemplated to be accomplished through the plan of reclamation, if such district has provided for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis; or such court shall thereafter levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property, within such district, based upon the value of each piece of property as made for State and county purposes, if the district has provided for the levy of taxes upon ad valorem basis; provided, however, that the tax rate shall not exceed the specific rate voted, and the vote in such cases may be for a specific rate, or not to exceed a specific rate. The proceeds of such taxes shall be used for the maintenance, upkeep, repairs and additions to the levees and other improvements in the district, and for no other purposes, except as may be herein otherwise provided. The right to levy such taxes shall remain in force until abrogated, in whole or in part, by another election; but elections upon the question of the repeal or reduction of maintenance taxes shall not be held oftener than every five years; and any levee improvement district heretofore organized may avail itself of the provisions and benefits of this section.

Art. 8014. Secretary ex officio tax assessor.—The secretary of the board of supervisors of levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis shall be ex officio tax assessor for such districts, and it shall be his duty when any tax is levied, at the expense of the district, to prepare a tax roll in form substantially as the assessment roll made by county tax assessors, except that instead of ad valorem valuation it shall state net benefits assessed against property, and he shall compute against each piece of property the amount of taxes assessed against it, and enter on such roll the amount of such taxes. A certified copy of such roll, insofar as it appertains to each county in which any portion of the district is located, shall be filed with the tax collector of such county.

Art. 8015. Tax collectors under bond.—Tax collectors of the several counties shall be charged with the assessment rolls of levee improvement districts, and are required to make collections of all taxes levied and assessed against property within such district, and promptly pay over the same to the treasurer of the district; and the bonds of such collectors shall stand as security for the proper performance of their duties as tax collectors of such levee improvement district, or if in the judgment of the supervisors of such district it be necessary, additional bonds payable to such districts, may be required, and any collector failing to act hereunder or failing to give the additional bond required, shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office and shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and may be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law; and in case of suspension the boards of supervisors may appoint special collectors for their respective districts and require such security of them as may be deemed proper, and the persons so chosen shall have and exercise within and for the district all the rights and powers which tax collectors have or may have by law in their respective counties.

Art. 8016. Recovering delinquent taxes.—Tax collectors of levee improvement districts shall perform all duties and exercise all powers in respect to delinquent taxes due levee improvement districts as may be provided by law for the collection of delinquent State and county taxes, and the collection of such delinquent levee improvement district taxes and sales of property therefor shall be governed by the laws applying to the collection of delinquent State and county taxes and foreclosure decree therefor shall include writ of possession. The supervisors are also given the power and authority to collect such delinquent taxes, and to institute and prosecute suits in the name of the district for their collection; and such districts are also authorized to do and perform all other things that may be necessary for the collection of such taxes. Taxes levied under this law shall be a first and prior lien upon all property against which they are assessed, and shall be payable and shall mature and become delinquent as provided by law for State and county taxes.

Art. 8017. Same; method to be pursued.—The board of supervisors may also proceed to collect delinquent levee taxes in the following manner:

Suit shall be brought in the name of the district for the collection of the taxes and the foreclosure of the lien thereof in the following manner:

(a) Such suits shall be brought in the district court of the county in which the land or the major part thereof is situated, and such courts shall give judgment against each tract of land for the amount of such taxes, together with penalties, interest, attorneys fees and costs; such judgment shall provide for the sale of each tract of land by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which it is situated in the same manner as other judicial sales of land; and it shall be immaterial that the ownership of said land be incorrectly alleged in said proceedings.

(b) Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of land owners and other parties interested may be had by publication of a general notice thereof, once each week for at least four consecutive weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is situated, and if no paper is published in the county, then the same shall be published in a paper in the nearest county thereto where a paper is published, and also by written notice mailed to the last known address of the land owner, and which notice shall be substantially in the following form:

_____ County Levee Improvement District
No. _____ vs. delinquent lands in _____ County and said district. In the district court of _____ County, Texas, _____ Judicial District _____ Term, 19____.

Notice is hereby given to all parties having or claiming any interest of any kind in any of the following described lands that on the _____ day of _____, 19____, suit was filed in the district of _____ County, Texas, at _____, Texas, to enforce the collection of certain levee district taxes on said lands.

The name of each supposed owner has been set opposite his, her or its land, together with the amount due from each tract, to-wit:

(Give list of supposed owners, with a description list of said delinquent land, and the amount due thereon respectively).

All persons or corporations having or claiming any interest whatsoever in said lands, are hereby notified to appear at the next regular term of said district court of _____ County, Texas, to be held at the court house thereof in _____, on the _____ Monday in _____, 19____, the same being the day _____ day of _____, 19____, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court in the above numbered and entitled cause, or final judgment will be entered directing the sale of said lands for the purpose of collecting said taxes, together with payment of interest penalties, attorneys fees and other costs allowed by law.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court in the City of _____, Texas, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

Clerk of the District Court
of _____ County, Texas.

Insued this _____ day of _____ A. D., 19____.

Clerk of the District Court
of _____ County, Texas.

(c) Such publication of notice of the pendency of such suit and the written notice addressed to the last known address of the land owner, shall be taken as and for service of process against any owner, vender, mortgage, heir or other person claiming any interest in the lands whatsoever, and the judgment in such case shall be binding upon each tract of land and the owner of every interest therein. Provided, it shall not be necessary to publish any delinquent list or give any other delinquent notice before proceeding under this Act.

(d) When the notice, petition and answer have been filed with the clerk, he shall docket the same in other causes, and the said suit have precedence over all other cases.

(e) In such suits it shall be sufficient to allege generally and briefly the organization of the district and the non-payment of the taxes, setting forth a reasonable description of the lands proceeded against and the amount chargeable to each tract, with prayer for foreclosure; provided that no irregularity in the assessment of the land, or mistake in the name of the owner or in the number of acres therein, shall be a defense to such action;

provided, further, that no mistake as to the amount of the taxes, interest and penalty as alleged in the pleadings or in the notice of the pendency of the suit shall be a defense, but the correct amount of taxes, interest and penalty due may be proved and the judgment rendered thereon.

(f) Such suits shall be conducted in the name of the levee improvement district and in accordance with the practice and proceedings of the district courts in this State, except as herein otherwise provided. Continuances shall be granted only for good cause shown, which may be granted as to part of the lands, and in such case the court shall proceed as to all tracts as to which no continuance is granted.

(g) When notice has been properly given as aforesaid, and where no answer has been filed, or if filed and the cause has been decided for the plaintiff, the court shall enter judgment granting the relief as prayed for in the petition, and shall foreclose the lien on such taxes and order the sale of the land therefor in the same manner as other judicial sales of real estate, and foreclosure decree therefor shall include writ of possession, and if all the land and other real property be not sold on the date advertised, such sales shall continue from day to day until completed, and the sheriff or constable shall by proper deed convey to the purchaser the land so sold, and the title of said land shall thereupon become vested in such purchaser against all others whatsoever; provided, that the former owner shall within two years of the date of the purchaser's deed have the right to redeem the land upon payment of double the amount of money paid for the land.

(h) The board of supervisors shall have the power to employ attorneys for the purpose of collecting such delinquent taxes, paying such attorneys for their services such fees or commissions as to the supervisors may seem proper.

(i) Whenever the board of supervisors of any levee improvement district shall fail to commence suits within sixty days after taxes have become delinquent, the holder or holders of any bonds issued by such levee improvement district shall have the right to employ counsel to bring such suit in the name of the levee improvement district upon the relation of such holder or bond holders; and such suits may be proceeded with in the same manner as hereinabove prescribed, and shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of this section.

(j) The method of procedure provided in this section shall be cumulative, and shall not repeal or supercede any other procedure provided herein for the collection of such taxes.

Art. 8018. Refunding bonds.—Any levee improvement district which has heretofore been organized under the laws of the State and has issued bonds, and any levee improvement district hereafter organized, and which may issue bonds, may by consent of the holders thereof refund any bonds issued, by issuing new coupon bonds for that purpose. Such refunding bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than the bonds in lieu of which they are issued. Interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to such bonds, and may be payable annually or semi-annually, within the discretion of the commissioners' court of the county of jurisdiction; and such refunding bonds shall be payable serially, or otherwise, not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, and shall be issued in denomination one hundred dollars or some multiple thereof; and a sufficient tax levy to meet the payment of the principal and interest of said refunding bonds shall be made before the delivery thereof, provided the refunding of any bonds shall not affect any taxes already due.

The refunding bonds hereby authorized shall be executed in the same manner provided for the execution of levee improvement district bonds. Any sum to the credit of any sinking fund account on hand shall first be deducted in ascertaining the amount of refunding bonds to be issued, and such money shall in every case be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds. No refunding bonds shall be issued and delivered until approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller; provided, however, that the Comptroller shall not register such refunding bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which such refunding bonds are issued are presented to him for cancellation; and after the registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall cancel the old bonds and interest coupons, and deliver such new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, further, that the old bonds may be so presented for cancellation, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as is herein provided.

Art. 8019. Treasurer under bond; compensation.—The county treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction, shall be treasurer of all levee improvement districts of which such court has jurisdiction, and as such shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the levee improvement district, in a sum equal to one and one-fourth of the taxes contemplated to be paid over in any one year, or such other or further amount as the board of supervisors of the district may require, which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the principal as treasurer of the levee improvement district, and shall be approved by the board of supervisors of such district. Such bond may be made by any guaranty or surety company approved by the board of district supervisors, and premiums therefor may be paid out of the maintenance fund of the district. The treasurer, as compensation for his services, shall be allowed not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent upon sums received by him by and on behalf of such levee improvement district.

Art. 8020. Treasurer to report to commissioners' court.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, as treasurer of the levee improvement district, to open an account with each such district and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district, and all moneys paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by two of the district supervisors and countersigned by the county judge, and he shall carefully preserve all orders for the payment of money; and as often as required by the said district supervisors or the commissioners' court he shall render a correct account to them on all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district.

Art. 8021. Supervisors select depository.—The board of supervisors shall select a depository or depositories for funds of the district and the county treasurer shall deposit such funds of the districts in such depository or depositories as the supervisors may direct; provided, before any such depository shall receive any funds of the district they shall give bond to the district with a corporate surety company as surety, which is authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount equal to the funds so deposited, conditioned upon the safe keeping of said funds and paying of the same.

Art. 8022. Compensation of officers.—For all services performed by any officer or individual under this Act, the compensation for which is not herein expressly provided for, such officer or individual shall receive the same compensation as he would for like services if rendered as an officer of a county. Clerks recording orders hereunder shall receive the same compensation as would a county clerk for recording deeds, and persons posting notices hereunder shall receive the same compensation as would a sheriff for posting notices required by law to be posted by him officially.

Art. 8023. Awarding contracts.—All the improvements contemplated by the plan of reclamation, as approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, shall be constructed. Contracts for making and constructing levees and other improvements and all the necessary work in connection with any levee improvement district, shall be let by the district supervisors to the lowest and best bidder, after giving notice by advertising same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the State of Texas once a week for three consecutive weeks; which contracts shall be made in writing and signed by the contractor, in duplicate; provided, that such work may be let without advertisement upon contracts approved jointly by the district supervisors and the owners of a majority of the acreage of land in such district; provided, further that such contract shall include all works of improvement contemplated and authorized by the approved plan of reclamation, it being the intent hereof to require the contractor to complete the construction of such works of improvement for the amount of money, or bonds available for the purpose; provided, that such work may be let in sections but no contract for a part of the work shall be valid unless and until all sections of the work shall have been let under the above conditions so that the total cost of the work shall be within the amount of funds or bonds provided for the purposes; provided further, that it shall be the duty of the district supervisors immediately to notify the county treasurer that the contract has been executed and it shall thereupon be the duty of the county treasurer to set aside an amount of money in the construction and maintenance fund of said district to be known as "Special Fund Under Contract, dated _____ (inserting date of contract)," and which special fund, so set aside, shall be for the full amount of the contract price, and it shall be unlawful for the county treasurer to pay any warrants against such special fund, except upon accounts sworn to by the contractor and duly audited and approved by the district supervisors; and the use or payment of such special fund, or any part thereof, for any other purpose shall be a diversion thereof, and punishable as provided by Article 104, of the Penal Code of this State, Revision of 1911; and, provided further, that the district supervisors may deliver to the contractor upon the written consent of the county judge, the bonds of such district in full payment of the works of improvement constructed in conformity with the contract, and such bonds may be delivered in installments upon estimates of the engineer as the work progresses. In the event there are not sufficient funds available for the purpose of completing the works of improvement contemplated and authorized by the approval plan of reclamation, then no contract shall be awarded for any part of such work until sufficient funds have been provided for; and if such contract is made it shall be void, and shall not be enforceable in any court in this State, and the performance of same or any payment of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any taxpayer in such district; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply to urgent necessity or present calamity where it becomes necessary to act at once to repair any levee so as to preserve the property in the district; and, provided further, that subsequent to the approval and registration of bonds by the proper State officials as herein provided, contracts may be let conditioned upon the sale of such bonds in an amount equal to the contract price. "The contractor shall be required to give a corporate surety bond for the full amount of the contract price, which shall guarantee the completion of the contract as above provided, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the county judge."

Art. 8024. Work to be supervised.—All work included in the contract shall be done in accordance with the specifications under the supervision of the supervisors and the district engineer. As the work progresses the engineer of such district shall make report to the supervisors, showing in detail whether the contract is being complied with, and when the work is completed he shall make a detailed report of same to the supervisors, showing whether or not the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been so complied with. It shall be the duty of the State Reclamation Engineer either in person or by deputy to inspect the construction of a levee and other works of improvement once every sixty days after such construction work has commenced; and if he finds that such levee or other duly authorized work has been constructed in strict accordance with the approved plan of reclamation he shall so officially certify and his certificate shall give a full description of the work that has been done up to the date of such inspection; and in the event he finds that such work has not been constructed in strict accordance with the approved plan of reclamation, he shall so officially certify, and in such certificate designate wherein the contractor has failed to comply with the approved plan of reclamation. It shall thereupon be the duty of the district supervisors to forthwith demand that the contractor shall comply with the requirements of the approved plan of reclamation, at his own cost and expense, and no further accounts, claims or vouchers submitted by such contractor shall be approved or paid until he has complied with the requirements of the State Reclamation Engineer in constructing such work in accordance with the approved plan of reclamation.

Art. 8025. Paying for work done.—The supervisors shall, during the progress of the work under contract, inspect the same; and upon the completion of any work in accordance with the contract, they shall draw a warrant on the treasurer of the district for the unpaid amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor. Payments pending the work shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty-five per cent of the contract price of the work done, the said amount of work completed to be shown by estimates of the engineer of the district.

Art. 8026. To have seal.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall each have a common seal which shall be circular in form, with the name of the district within the center, with a star of five points in the center; and such districts may sue and be sued in the courts of this State in and by their corporate names, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of their existence.

Art. 8027. Plans to be approved by Reclamation Engineer.—It shall be unlawful for any levee improvement district, whether it proposes to construct its levees or other improvements with or without the issuance of bonds, to construct, to undertake to construct, or maintain any levee or other improvement, without first obtaining the approval by the State Reclamation Engineer, as provided in this Act, of the plans for such levees or other improvements; and in the event any such levee improvement district undertakes to construct, or constructs or maintains any levee or other improvement without first obtaining the approval of the State Reclamation Engineer of the plans for the same, as provided in this Act, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, on the request of the State Reclamation Engineer, to file suit in one of the district courts of Travis County, Texas, in which the venue of such suits is hereby fixed, to enjoin the construction or maintenance of such levee or other improvement.

Art. 8028. Same; along streams, lakes, etc.—From and after the taking effect of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or levee improvement district, without first obtaining the approval of plans for the same by the State Reclamation Engineer, to construct, attempt to construct, cause to be constructed, maintain or cause to be maintained, any levee or other such improvement on, along or near any stream of this State which is subject to floods, freshets or overflows, so as to control, regulate or otherwise change, the flood waters of such stream; and any person, corporation or district violating this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars. And in the event any such structure is about to be constructed, is constructed, or maintained by any person or corporation without approval of the plans by the State Reclamation Engineer, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, on the request of the State Reclamation Engineer, to file suit in one of the district courts of Travis County, in which the venue of such suits is hereby fixed, to enjoin the construction or maintenance of such structure. Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to dams, canals or other improvements made or to be made by irrigation, water improvements or irrigation improvements made by individuals or corporations.

Art. 8029. Dissolution of district.—If any levee improvement district heretofore created or that hereafter may be created shall find, at any time prior to the sale of its bonds or final lending of its credit in other form, that the proposed undertaking for any reason is impracticable or apparently cannot be successfully carried out, the commissioners' court is hereby authorized to abolish such district upon petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage in the district, praying for the dissolution of such district, setting forth the reasons therefor, and accompanied by a deposit of fifty dollars. Such petition shall be set for hearing, notice of such hearing shall be given, the hearing thereon shall be held, and the expense thereof paid out of said deposit all in conformity with the procedure prescribed in this Act in connection with the petition for the establishment of the district; and the commissioners' court shall have the same powers with respect to the abolition of such districts that it has with respect to their creation. If upon the hearing it shall appear to the court that such district should be abolished, the court shall so find and shall render judgment reciting such findings, and by its orders entered of record declare and decree such district abolished, and appoint the chairman of the supervisors or some other suitable person as trustee to close up its affairs without delay; the term and compensation of such trustees to be at the pleasure of the said court. If the court should not so find, it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners, and enter such findings of record. Where any taxes have been levied and collected in the name of the district in anticipation of an issue of bonds, such taxes, so far as unexpended, shall in the event of dissolution of the district as herein provided, and on order of the commissioners' court duly entered, be returned to the taxpayers ratably, after deducting the compensation of the assessor, collector and treasurer in connection therewith, and any other claim properly chargeable against such taxes; proper receipt for all sums so refunded to be taken and filed by the treasurer.

Art. 8030. Providing additional funds.—If it should develop that the works and improvements set out in any plan of reclamation adopted by or on behalf of a levee improvement district are found insufficient to reclaim in whole or in part any or all of the lands and other property within the district, or if extensive repairs or additions to such works are deemed necessary, or if additional funds are needed to complete improvements, then in respect thereto, the board of supervisors of the district, may proceed in all respects to provide additional funds for such additional works, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, in respect to the original plan of reclamation, and may, under like limitations, create additional indebtedness or issue additional bonds, but always subject to every limitation in respect to such original proceedings, as well as the approval of the new or amended plan of reclamation by the State Reclamation Engineer.

Art. 8031. Readjusting assessments.—At any time after one year from the date of any final judgment and decree of the commissioners of appraisement in districts levying taxes on the benefit basis, the owners of a majority of the acreage of the lands within the district may file a petition with the commissioners' court alleging that the previous assesment of benefits in such judgment and decree are insufficient or inequitable, and praying for an increase or readjustment of the assessment of benefits for the purpose of making an adequate or more equitable basis for the levy of taxes; and if the plan of reclamation is changed or modified, or if extensive repairs or additions thereto are desired to be made, the board of supervisors shall file a petition with such court setting out therein such changes, modifications, repairs or additions; upon the filing of any such petition the court shall set a day for the hearing of each petition, and issue notice informing all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing, and their rights to appear and contend for or contest an increase or readjustment of assessments of benefits, such notice to be posted at the places, for the length of time, and in all respects the same as the notice of hearing for establishing the districts.

Art. 8032. Same; hearing petition.—At the time and place set for the hearing the commissioners' court shall proceed to hear such petition and proof for or against the same, and if it finds that the aggregate amount of assessed benefits as shown by such previous final judgment and decree is insufficient to carry out the original plan of reclamation, or any change in or modification of, or repairs, or additions to the same, or that there has been a material change in the relative value of the benefits conferred on the property in the district, or that for other reasons such assessment of benefits is inadequate or inequitable, it shall order that there be made a reassessment of benefits for the purpose of providing a sufficient, more adequate or equitable basis of taxation for all purposes within such district; and thereupon it shall proceed to appoint commissioners of appraisement in the manner and with the powers, rights, privileges and duties both to the commissioners and persons interested, as provided in the first instance.

Art. 8033. Assess and collect on reassessment.—Such commissioners shall finally make their findings and enter their judgment and decree in the matter, which, thereafter, until again changed or modified, shall be the basis of the assessment of taxes within and for the district. Provided, that there shall be no reassessment of benefits that will in any way render insecure any outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of any district, nor shall the sum of benefits as reassessed ever be less in amount than the sum total of all outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of such district. The commissioners' court of each county in which such district is located shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes based upon such reassessment, at rate sufficient to provide funds requisite to pay interest upon all outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of such district and to pay off such bonds or other indebtedness at maturity, and also to pay the interest on and provide necessary sinking funds to pay all bonds or other indebtedness that may be issued. The provisions of this section shall also apply to districts levying taxes upon the ad valorem plan, only if the plan of reclamation is changed or modified, or if extensive repairs or additions thereto are made, and such commissioners, if appointed, shall assess only the damages which will accrue to the property within or without the district because of the carrying out of the changes in the plan.

Art. 8034. Protesting decision of Reclamation Engineer.—If the supervisors of any levee improvement district, or any person or corporation whose interest are affected thereby, be dissatisfied with the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in finally approving or disapproving any plan of reclamation for such district, the district or person or corporation dissatisfied may within fifteen days after such final action, file suit in the district court of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction of the district in question, against the State Reclamation Engineer, and to which suit the district shall be made a party defendant, if the suit be on behalf of any other complaining person or corporation. The petition shall set forth the cause or causes of objection and show wherein the interests of the petitioners are injuriously affected by the action of the State Reclamation Engineer complained of. Process shall issue as in other cases and the case shall have preference of trial in the court wherein it is filed, and upon final hearing the court shall render its judgment and decree approving or disapproving of the plan of reclamation, in whole or in part, as it may find to be equitable and just; and such judgment shall stand for the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in such matters. There may be an appeal, as in ordinary cases, from the judgment of the trial court, which appeal shall have preference of hearing in the Court of Civil Appeals, the judgment of which in the matter shall be final, and shall stand for the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in respect to the matters at issue in such suit.

Art. 8035. Injuring levees.—Any person or persons who shall wrongfully or purposely cut, injure, destroy, or in any manner impair the usefulness of any levee or other reclamation improvement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year; or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 8036. Interfering with work.—Any person or persons who shall wilfully destroy or deface any corner, line, mark, bench mark or other object fixed or established in connection with the work herein authorized, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 8037. Districts not organized.—Districts organized under any laws of this State having for their objects the reclamation of lands through a system of levees and drainage, and not governed by the provisions of laws of this State, may become entitled to and may hereafter exercise all the rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created under it, and to all of the enlarged powers which may be conferred under Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution of this State by proceedings as follows:

1. Whenever the owner of a majority of the acreage of any such district shall present to the commissioners' court of the county in which such district is located their petition praying that a hearing be ordered to determine whether such district may avail itself of the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the court to fix a time and place for such hearing, and cause notice thereof to be given, substantially in all respects as notice of the hearing upon the matters of the formation of a district under this Act.

2. At the time and place of such hearing the court shall proceed to hear and determine the issue presented by the petition, and evidence for and against the same, and if it finds that the interests of the district in question would be promoted by granting the prayer of the petition, it shall so decree and enter its judgment of record, declaring it to be to the interest of such district that it avail itself of all rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created under it, and that the district on behalf of which the petition is filed shall thereafter be entitled to and may exercise all rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created by it, and thereafter such district shall have and may exercise all such rights, powers and privileges as if created under this Act, and thereafter it shall proceed in all things as it would if created hereunder, but such decree shall not in any respect injuriously affect any financial liability of such district.

Art. 8039. Organized under former laws not invalidated.—Any proceedings begun under the provisions of any Act hereby repealed may be proceeded with and completed under the provisions of this Act; and nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to the issuance of any bonds where provisions for their issuance have been made in whole or in part before the passage of this Act. And no suit or action now pending in any court in this State by or against any levee improvement district organized under the provisions of laws hereby repealed shall be affected by the provisions hereof.

Art. 8040. All districts organized heretofore are under provision of this Act.—This Act is intended to take place of all such Statutes repealed hereby. All levee improvement districts that have been organized heretofore, or that have availed themselves of the provisions of such law, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act, and the plan of taxation therein provided for shall not be affected or changed by this Act. Any such districts which have not completed any improvements begun under the provisions of any former law shall be governed in the issuance of bonds and the completion of such improvements by the provisions of the Act or Acts under which they were created; and provided, further, that the repeal of Chapter 146, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature, shall not affect any districts heretofore created under the provisions of that Act, nor districts created under any former laws having for their objects the reclamation and protection of lands through a system of levees and drainage, and which have not heretofore become conservation and reclamation districts, but all rights, powers and privileges granted such districts by the Acts under which they were organized, and amendments thereto, are hereby directly preserved to such districts.

Art. 8041. Does not repeal laws of 1925 Statutes.—This Act shall not be construed to repeal any of the provisions of Chapter 7, Title 128, embracing Articles 8097 to 8193, entitled "Drainage Districts," in the Revised Civil Statutes, 1925 Revision, nor any of the irrigation laws of this State, nor any law upon the subject of drainage districts, water improvement districts or irriga-gation districts passed at the Regular Session of the Thirty-ninth Legislature.

Art. 8042. Continuation of former Acts.—This Act shall be construed to be a continuation of, and re-enactment of the Acts hereby repealed, excepting such provisions hereof as are now or are in conflict with said Acts. This Act is remedial in character and shall be liberally construed to give full effect to all of its purposes.

[NOTE.—Articles from 8043 to 8096, inclusive, not provided for in the Act of 1925, and are therefor omitted from this Revised Statute in order to maintain subsequent number.]

Art. 8097. [2567] May establish.—The commissioners courts may establish one or more drainage districts in their respective counties in the manner provided in this chapter. Such districts may or may not include villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any portion thereof, but no land shall at the same time be included in more than one drainage district created hereunder. Such districts, when so established, may make drainage improvements therein and issue bonds in payment thereof as provided in this chapter. The commissioners court shall hereafter be designated as the "Court." [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 245.]

Art. 8098. [2568] Petition.—A petition shall first be presented to the Court signed by twenty-five of the freehold resident taxpayers in the proposed district, or if there are less than seventy-five such citizens then by one-third thereof, whose lands may be affected thereby, praying for the establishment of a drainage district, and setting forth the necessity, public utility and feasibility and proposed boundaries thereof, and designating a name for such district, which shall include the name of the county. [Id.]

Art. 8099. [2602] Deposit.—Said petition shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said Court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of the district and issuance of bonds is officially made known. If said election is in favor of the establishment of said district, then the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. If said election is against the establishment of such district, then the clerk shall pay out of said deposit upon vouchers approved and signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to said proposed district up to and including said election, and the balance shall be returned to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8100. [2568] Notice of hearing.—At the same session when said petition is presented, the Court shall set said petition down for hearing at some regular or special session called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition, and shall order the clerk to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon for twenty days prior to the election in five public places in said county, one at the court house door, and four within the limits of the district. Said clerk shall be paid one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1909, p. 24; Acts 1911, p. 245.]

Art. 8101. [2569] Hearing.—On the day set for the hearing, any person whose land would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before said Court and contest the creation of such district or contend for its creation, and may offer testimony to show that the district is or is not necessary, and would or would not be of public utility, either sanitary, agricultural or otherwise, and that the creation of such district would or would not be feasible or practicable. [Id.]

Art. 8102. [2569] Hearing: powers of court.—Except as herein provided, said Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such district, and all matters pertaining to the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day, and all judgments rendered by said Court in relation thereto shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 8103. [2570] Hearing: findings.—If at the hearing it appears to the Court that the drainage of such district is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed, that the drainage would be conducive to the public health or would be a public benefit or a public utility, then the Court shall so find. But if said Court finds any of said issues in the negative, it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. The findings shall be entered of record. [Id.]

Art. 8104. [2571] Engineer.—If said findings favor the establishment of the district, the Court shall appoint a competent civil engineer who shall be entitled to such assistants as may be necessary. Said engineer and his assistants shall be paid for doing the work required of them hereunder, such compensation and allowances for transportation, supplies, etc., as may be agreed on between the engineer and the Court. [Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 59.]

Art. 8105. [2572] Engineer's bond.—Said engineer shall give bond for five hundred dollars payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of the district, with two or more sureties to be approved by the Court, conditioned on the faithful discharge of his official duties hereunder. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 247.]

Art. 8106. [2573] Preliminary plans.—The engineer shall, within such time as may be prescribed by the Court, go upon the land proposed to be drained and protected by levees, and make a careful survey thereof, and from such survey make preliminary plans, locating approximately the necessary canals, drains, ditches, laterals and levees, and shall designate the streams and bayous necessary to be cleaned, deepened and straightened, and estimate the costs thereof in detail as to each improvement contemplated, and shall also estimate the probable cost of maintaining same per year, and shall at once make a detailed report of his work to the Court. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 89.]

Art. 8107. [2574] Plans: outlets.—The engineer is authorized and empowered to go upon lands and premises located outside of such district, and into another and different county, if necessary, for all purposes of the survey, and to ascertain and procure proper and necessary outlets for the proposed canals, drains, and ditches necessary to the drainage of the district. He shall obtain all possible information regarding the lands within the proposed district, and the outlets therefrom from the office of the State Reclamation Engineer and from other sources, and co-operate with said Engineer in the discharge of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8108. [2575] Map.—The engineer's report shall be accompanied by a map showing the beginning point, as well as the outlets, of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and shall show the length, width, depth and slopes of the banks of the cut or excavation, and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth to be removed from each, and shall show the location and size of all levees and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth necessary to construct the same. A copy of the official Land Office map of the county, with the boundaries of the district, and the beginning points and outlets of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and other data required by this article shown thereon shall be deemed a sufficient compliance herewith. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 247.]

Art. 8109. [2576] Hearing on report.—When such report of the engineer is filed with the clerk, the Court shall at its next regular or special session set such report down for hearing at a subsequent regular or special session, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from such sitting. The clerk shall post notice thereof as before provided. At such hearing, any freehold resident or non-resident taxpayer of the district whose lands may be affected by said improvements, may appear and object to any and all of said canals, drains, ditches and levees, for the reason that they are not located at the proper places, or that they are not sufficient in number or capacity to properly drain said territory. [Id.]

Art. 8110. [2577] Report: findings.—If there are no objections to said report, or if the Court finds that any objections thereto are not well taken, the report shall be approved and the fact of its approval entered in the minutes. The Court may change the location of any improvements as shown in the report, or may add to or reduce the number of same, and may order the engineer to locate any additional canals, drains, ditches or levees which may be constructed for the purpose of conducting waters from the lands of said district, or to prevent the overflow of waters from streams or otherwise onto the lands of said district proposed to be drained, or otherwise in aid of said purpose. The Court may, if it deem necessary, refer the entire report back to the engineer for a compliance with the orders of the Court and require a further report. If any changes or alterations are so made in said report, notice shall be given and hearing had as in the first instance. [Acts 1909, p. 24; Acts 1911, p. 248.]

Art. 8111. [2578] Election.—After the approval of the engineer's report, as presented or as modified, the Court shall order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time, at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions, and none other: "For the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor;" "Against the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." [Acts 1907, p. 81; Id.]

Art. 8112. [2579] Notice of election.—Notice of such election shall recite: the establishment of the district, the amount of bonds, which shall not exceed the engineer's estimate and the cost of any additional work which may become necessary by any change or modification in his report, the time and places of holding the election, the proposition to be voted on, and the purposes for which said bonds are to be issued. Such notice shall be posted by the clerk as before provided. [Id.]

Art. 8113. [2580] Requisites of election.—A two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition to be submitted at such election. Only resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of the district may vote at any election held under this chapter. All such elections shall be conducted in the manner provided by the general election laws, unless otherwise provided. The Court shall name a polling place at each voting precinct or part thereof in the district, each of which shall be in the district, and shall appoint the judges and other necessary election officers. It shall provide twice as many ballots as there are qualified voters in the district, as shown by the county tax rolls; and said ballots shall have printed thereon the proposition to be submitted as stated in the second preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 8114. [2581] Oath of voter.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held hereunder shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place wherein he offers to vote, and said judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed district voted on at this election, and that I have not voted before at this election." [Id.]

Art. 8115. [2582] Election returns.—Immediately after the election each presiding judge shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers, and return the ballot boxes to the county clerk, who shall keep same in a safe place and deliver them together with all returns to the Court at its next regular or special session called to canvass the vote. If the Court finds that said proposition has carried, it shall so declare the result and enter the same in the minutes as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8116. [2582] Declaration of result.—Said order shall be substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a drainage district in said petition described and designated as _____ County Drainage District No. _____, be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereat, voted in favor of the creation of said district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said drainage district be, and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ County Drainage District No. _____, within the following metes and bounds," (which field notes shall be copied into the record). [Id.]

Art. 8117. [2582] District classification.—All districts shall bear the name of the county in which they may be located, as a part of their names, and shall be numbered consecutively as created and established by order of the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8118. [2585] Appointment of commissioners.—When a district is so established, and unless said commissioners are elected as provided in the succeeding article, the Court shall appoint three drainage commissioners who shall be residents of the county or an adjoining county, who shall be freehold taxpayers of the district and legal voters of the county of their residence. Such commissioners shall hold office for two years and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the Court for malfeasance in office. Upon the expiration of their term of office, or in case of resignation, the Court shall appoint their successors by a majority vote. [Id. Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 127.]

Art. 8119. [2585] Election of commissioners.—After a district is so established, upon the petition of a majority of the real property taxpayers of the district, praying for the election of three drainage commissioners, the Court shall immediately order an election for said purpose at the earliest legal time, to be held as other elections hereunder, and shall declare the three persons receiving the highest number of votes to be elected. If the third highest vote be tied, the Court shall elect the third commissioner from those tying for the place. Such commissioners so elected, when duly qualified hereunder, shall be the legal and rightful drainage commissioners for such district within the full meaning and purpose of this law. Such commissioners shall hold office until the next regular election for State and county officers, and shall then and thereafter be elected every two years at such general election. [Id.]

Art. 8120. [2585] Commissioners: salary.—The commissioners shall receive for their services not more than two dollars and fifty cents per day for the time actually engaged in the work of the district, which shall be fixed by order of the Court. Such commissioners shall first submit a detailed report to the Court showing the time actually consumed in the work for said district and of the work done, and such report shall be audited and approved by the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8121. [2586] Commissioners' oath.—Before entering upon his duties, each commissioner shall take and subscribe before the county judge an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of his doings to the Court whenever requested to do so. Such oath shall be filed by the clerk of the Court and preserved as a part of the district records. [Acts 1907, p. 82; Acts 1911, p. 251.]

Art. 8122. [2587] Commissioners' bond.—Before entering upon his duties, each commissioner shall give a good and sufficient bond for one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, for the use and benefit of the district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8123. [2588] Organization of commissioners.—The commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary. Two commissioners shall constitute a quorum, which shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district, except the letting of contracts and the drawing of warrants on the treasury, which shall require the concurrence of all the commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8124. [2592] District engineer.—The commissioners shall appoint a competent civil engineer, who shall be entitled to such assistants as may be necessary. For doing the work required of him hereunder, said engineer and his assistants shall receive such pay and allowances for transportation, supplies, etc., as may be agreed on between him and the commissioners with the approval of the Court. [Id. Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 59.]

Art. 8125. [2592] Duty of engineer.—Said engineer shall make a map of such district showing the boundary lines thereof, with the original surveys therein, and if such lines cross an original survey the map shall show how many acres of such original survey are included in the district. He shall also make maps and profiles of the several canals, drains, ditches and levees in the district and outlets thereof extending beyond the limits of the district. A copy of the Land Office map of the county, as it applies to such district, showing the name and number of each survey, and the area or number of acres contained in the district, shall be a sufficient compliance herewith in so far as making a map of the district is required; and any recognized map of any city or town in the district shall be sufficient as to such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 8126. [2593] Maps and estimates.—The map and profiles of each drain, ditch and levee required by this law shall show the relation that each canal, drain, ditch or levee bears to each tract of land through which it passes, and the shape into which it divides each tract, and where the canal, drain, ditch, or levee cuts off any tract containing less than twenty acres of land the map shall show the number of acres so divided therefrom, and the number of acres in the whole tract, showing the shape of such small tract and its relation to the canal, ditch, drain or levee. Such profile may also show the number of cubic yards necessary to be excavated in order to make each canal, drain or ditch, and to build any levee located in such district, and give the estimated cost of each. When said map, profile and estimates have been completed by the engineer, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the clerk of the court. [Acts 1907, p. 83; Acts 1911, p. 252.]

Art. 8127. [2595] Issuance of bonds.—When such maps, profiles and estimates are so filed, the Court shall make an order directing the issuance of drainage bonds for such district, sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements, together with all necessary actual and incidental expenses connected therewith. Such bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for said district, nor exceeding the amounts specified in said order and notice of election. [Id. Acts 1st C. S., 1913, p. 90.]

Art. 8128. [2595] Change in plans without bonds.—After the issuance of bonds is authorized, the commissioners may make changes in said district or in any improvements therein which will be of advantage to the district, but which will not increase the cost of such proposed work beyond the amount of bonds authorized. Such changes may be made by the commissioners by entering on their minutes a notation of such changes, with the district maps and profiles showing such changes. Notice of such change shall be given by publication of such notation with the book and page number of the minutes, for two successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the English language, within the county in which such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 8129. [2595] Change in plans with bonds.—When it appears to the commissioners that changes or additions may be made in the preliminary survey of the engineer, which shall be of advantage to the district but which shall make necessary the issuance of more bonds of the district, they shall so certify to the Court, accompanying such certificate by maps and profiles prepared by the district engineer, showing such changes and the estimated cost thereof. At its first regular session after the filing of such data, the Court shall give notice of an election to determine whether or not such changes and improvements shall be made, and shall order such election to be held within such time and the returns made as provided for an original election. If two-thirds of the property taxpaying voters of the district vote in favor of such proposition, the court shall enter the same of record and order such bonds to be issued as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 8130. [2599] Bonds: record book.—Before issuing any bonds hereunder, the Court shall provide a well bound book, in which a record shall be kept by the county clerk of all bonds issued, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest and date of issue, when due, where payable and amount received for the same, and the annual rate of assessment made each year to pay the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for their payment, and upon the payment of any bond an entry thereof shall be made in said book. Said book shall at all times be open to inspection of all parties interested in said district either as taxpayers or bond holders. The county clerk shall receive for his services in recording all bonds and other instruments of the district, the same fees as provided by law for other like records. [Id.]

Art. 8131. [2596] Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued hereunder shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, with the seal of the Court affixed thereto. Such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, and shall bear interest at not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds shall by their terms provide the time, places, manner and conditions of their payment, and the rate of interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the court. No bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date thereof. [Acts 1907, p. 84; Acts 1911, p. 253; Acts 1915, p. 60.]

Art. 8132. [2597] Bonds: approval.—Before any bonds are offered for sale, the district shall forward to the Attorney General a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the Court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such district as such, including the series of bonds proposed, and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation as shown by the last official assessment of the county, with such other information as the Attorney General may require. Such officer shall carefully examine said bonds, and if he shall find that they are issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such district, he shall so officially certify. [Acts 1907, p. 84; Acts 1911, p. 253.]

Art. 8133. [2598] Bonds: registration.—When said bonds have been so approved, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the certificate of their approval shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Thereafter, said bonds shall be held prima facie valid and binding obligations in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is brought in question. In every suit to enforce the collection of said bonds, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence as prima facie proof of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons attached thereto. The only defense that can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. [Id.]

Art. 8134. [2600] Bonds: sale.—When the bonds have been registered, the county judge shall, under the direction of the Court, advertise and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their par value and accrued interest. All money received from such sale shall be turned over as received by the county judge to the county treasurer, and shall be by him placed to the credit of the district in the construction and maintenance fund thereof. The county judge shall be allowed one-half of one per cent of the amount received on the sale of any bonds sold by him in full payment of his services in that behalf. [Id. Acts 1915, p. 61; Acts 1921, p. 164.]

Art. 8135. [2601] Bond of county judge.—After the drainage bonds have been registered, the county judge shall at once execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the commissioners and approved by them, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. If said bond is executed by a satisfactory surety company, the district may pay a reasonable amount as premium on said bond, which shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund upon presentation of the bill therefor to the commissioners. If there is any controversy as to the reasonableness of the amount claimed as such premium, such controversy may be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction. Said premium may be deducted by the commissioners from the commissions allowed the county judge on the sale of bonds by him. [Id.]

Art. 8136. [2603] Tax levy for bonds.—When bonds have been voted, the Court shall annually levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within the district, whether real, personal or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it falls due, and to redeem such bonds at maturity. Such taxes when so collected shall be placed in the interest and sinking fund. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 255; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8137. [2603] Maintenance: estimate.—The commissioners shall annually, on or before the first day of July, prepare and file with the Court a full detailed report of the condition of the improvements theretofore made in the district, with an estimate of the probable cost of maintenance and needed repairs during the ensuing year, together with an inventory of all funds, effects, property and accounts belonging to such district, and a list of all lawful demands, debts and obligations against the district. Such report shall be verified by the commissioners and carefully investigated and considered by the Court before any levy of taxes is made under the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8138. [2603] Maintenance: taxes.—At the same time that taxes are levied to meet the bonded indebtedness, the Court shall cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property in the district, whether real, personal or otherwise, sufficient to maintain, keep in repair, and to preserve the improvements in the district, and to pay all legal, just and lawful debts, demands and obligations against such district. Such levy shall never, in any one year, exceed one-half of one per cent of the total assessed valuation of such district for such year. Such taxes when so collected shall be placed in the construction and maintenance fund. [Id.]

Art. 8139. [2603] Maintenance: unsold bonds. — If any bonds remain which are not required for the completion of the improvements made or to be made, then with the consent of the Court duly made of public record, such bonds or a part thereof may be sold and the proceeds from the sale thereof shall be placed in the maintenance and construction fund and used for the purposes stated in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 8140. Taxes: assessment.—In the assessment and collection of the taxes authorized hereunder, and in all matters pertaining thereto or connected therewith, the county tax assessor and collector shall have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and proceedings as provided for the assessment and collection of State and county taxes, unless otherwise herein provided. The Court shall constitute a board of equalization for such district, and all laws governing boards of equalization for State and county taxing purposes shall govern such district board. [Acts 1915, p. 63.]

Art. 8141. Taxes: collection.—The taxes authorized hereunder shall be a lien upon all property assessed therefor. The Court shall, and it is empowered to, fix the time and determine the date when such taxes shall become due and payable, otherwise they shall become due and payable at the same time as State and county taxes. Upon the failure to pay such taxes when due, the penalty provided by law for failure to pay State and county taxes at maturity shall in every respect apply to taxes hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8142. [2604] Tax rolls.—The Court shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of the assessor and collector and the county clerk of such district, and charge the cost of same to the district. When ordered by the Court, the assessor shall assess all property within the district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said Court for said purpose, and return said books or rolls when he returns the State and county rolls for correction and approval. If said Court finds them correct, it shall approve the same and direct the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of the assessor to be paid from the district funds. The assessor shall receive for said services such pay as the Court deems proper. If the assessor fails or refuses to comply with such order, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the Court, and removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 256.]

Art. 8143. [2605] Duty of collector.—The county tax collector shall be charged by the Court with the assessment rolls of the district, and shall be allowed such compensation for the collection of said taxes as is allowed for the collection of other taxes. The Court shall require said officer to give an additional bond or security in such sum as they deem proper and safe to secure the collection of said taxes. If such officer fails or refuses to give such additional security when requested by the Court, within the time provided by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the Court and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 8144. [2606] Delinquent taxes.—The collector shall make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the drainage tax has not been paid, and return same to the Court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such property in the same manner provided by law for the sale of property for the collection of State and county taxes. The commissioners may purchase any property so sold, for the benefit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8145. Separate tax officers.—After the establishment of a district, and upon the petition of twenty-five resident freeholders thereof, the Court may order an election to determine whether or not such district shall have a separate tax assessor, separate tax collector, and separate board of equalization for the assessment and collection of district taxes. Notice of such election shall be given as in the original election, and if said proposition carries by a two-thirds vote, the Court shall appoint a suitable person as assessor and other such person as collector, and they shall give bond and exercise the same powers and perform the same duties as provided herein for the county assessor and collector; and the commissioners shall exercise all of the powers herein conferred upon said Court with relation to the equalization of taxes. The general laws relating to the assessment, collection and equalization of taxes, in so far as applicable, shall apply to the assessment, collection and equalization of district taxes. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 91.]

Art. 8146. [2607] Duty of treasurer.—The county treasurer shall open an account with the district and keep an accurate account of all money received by him belonging to such district, and of all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the commissioners and countersigned by the county judge. He shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money, and as often as required by the commissioners or the Court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of the district. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 256.]

Art. 8147. [2608] Bond of treasurer.—The county treasurer shall be the treasurer of such district, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to and approved by the commissioners in a sum equal to the amount of bonds issued, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer. If a district depository is selected, then he shall give bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office in accordance with the provisions of law relating to such county treasurers in counties where county depositories have been provided for county funds. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 91.]

Art. 8148. [2608] Salary of treasurer.—The treasurer shall be allowed as pay for his services as such, one-fourth of one per cent upon all money received by him for the account of such district, and one-eighth of one per cent upon all money by him paid out upon the order of the district. He shall not be entitled to any commissions on any district money received by him from his predecessor in office. [Id.]

Art. 8149. [2608] District depository.—The commissioners, in their discretion, may provide for a district depository for the funds of such district, by complying in all respects with the laws governing the designation of county depositories. Such depository shall give a good and sufficient bond, approved by the commissioners, as provided by law for depositories of county funds. All powers vested in the Court as to the designation of county depositories are hereby vested in the commissioners as to the funds of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8150. [2602] District funds.—After the establishment of a district, all legal and just expenses, debts and obligations other than bonds and interest thereon arising and created after the filing of the original petition and necessarily incurred in the creation, establishing, operation and maintenance of such district, shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such district which shall consist of all money, effects, property and proceeds received by such district from all sources, except that portion of the tax collections which shall be necessary to pay the interest on the bonded indebtedness as it falls due and the payment of the bonds at maturity. Said tax collections shall be placed in and paid out of the "Interest and Sinking Fund" of such district for such purposes, and such fund may be invested for the benefit of the district in such bonds and securities as the Attorney General may approve. Such funds shall be held for the respective purposes for which they were created, and if money is improperly paid out of either, the Court may cause the county treasurer to make the necessary transfer of such amount in the district accounts, to restore the fund so improperly used. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 255; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8151. [2590] Eminent domain.—All districts shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn and acquire the right of way over and through all public and private lands, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for making the canals, drains, levees and improvements in the district, and for making the necessary outlets thereto in any county in this State. No right of way shall be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities thereof. Such proceedings shall be in the name of the district and under the direction of the commissioners. No appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall suspend the work of the drainage commissioners in prosecuting the work of drainage in all of its details. All expenses arising from such proceedings shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund. [Acts 1907, p. 87; Acts 1911, p. 257.]

Art. 8152. [2591] Right of way.—The commissioners are empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all canals, drains, ditches and levees and other necessary improvements contemplated by this law, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, and if acquired by purchase shall be subject to approval by the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8153. [2619] Private drains. — All canals, drains, ditches and levees made and water courses cleaned or constructed by any district shall be the public property of such district, and every person owning land within said district shall have the right to drain into one or more of such public drains, and at his own expense to make drains according to the natural slope of the land through such other lands as intervene between his land and the nearest public drain or water-course, or along a public highway. Such owner shall first notify the commissioners of his desire to make such drain through another's property or along a public highway, and such commissioners shall go upon the premises and act as a jury of view and determine the place where such drain may be made. [Id.]

Art. 8154. [2623] Control of system.—The drainage commissioners shall keep the canals, drains, ditches and levees and other improvements made hereunder in repair, and shall have general authority to supervise and control the construction and maintenance of same. [Id.]

Art. 8155. [2610] Construction contracts.—Contracts for construction and other necessary work in the district shall be let by the commissioners to the lowest bidder after advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices thereof for at least twenty-five days, in five public places in the county, one at the courthouse door, and at least two within the district. Contracts may be let separately or all together. All improvements included in the report of the drainage engineer and adopted by the Court shall be constructed. [Id.]

Art. 8156. [2611] Bids.—Any person, firm or corporation desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for hereunder shall, upon application to the commissioners, be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report showing the location, profiles and estimates of such work. All bids shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the commissioners, with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract if his bid is accepted. Any bid may be rejected if deemed too high. [Id.]

Art. 8157. [2613] Contractor's bond.—The contractor shall give bond in the amount of the contract price, payable to the commissioners, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements, and covenants of the contract, and that in default thereof he will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners and the county judge. [Id.]

Art. 8158. [2612] Requisites of contract.—All contracts shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and commissioners and approved by the county judge, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 8159. [2614] Duty of engineer.—The drainage engineer shall furnish the contractor with a sectionized profile of the work contracted for, showing the depth, width and slope of all canals, drains, ditches and levees, and the number of cubic yards to be removed and other work to be done by the contractor, and such work shall be done by the contractor under the supervision of the drainage engineer, who shall indicate to said contractor the points at which the laterals shall intersect the main canal. No earth shall be deposited by the contractor so as to interfere with the construction of such laterals or other contemplated work in the district, or the building of bridges or other work on the public roads. When the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the commissioners showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not, in what particular it has not been complied with. [Id.]

Art. 8160. [2617] Railway culverts.—The commissioners are authorized at the expense of the district, to make all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any track or right of way of any railway to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, drain, or ditch necessary to be constructed by such district. Notice shall first be given by such commissioners to the railway authorities authorized to build or construct bridges and culverts, and the railroad shall be allowed thirty days to build such bridges or culverts at their own expense, if it should so desire, according to its own plans. Such bridge or culvert shall be constructed so as not to interfere with the free and unobstructed flow of the water passing through the canal or drain, and shall be placed at such points as are designated by the drainage engineer. [Id.]

Art. 8161. [2618] Road culverts.—The commissioners are authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, drains, ditches, laterals and levees constructed hereunder whenever the same cross a county or public road, and shall pay for same out of the drainage fund. [Id.]

Art. 8162. Additional improvements.—If there remains a surplus of money or bonds to the credit of the district, after the final completion of all improvements contracted for, including bridges and culverts, and after the payment of all expenses incurred hereunder, the commissioners may cause the district engineer to make a detailed report of any additional or supplemental drains, ditches or levees or other character of surface drainage improvements, including tile drainage, that may be needed in such district. Such report shall be made and acted upon in the manner prescribed for the initial report of the engineer before the issuance of bonds. The estimated cost of such additional improvements shall in no case exceed the amount of surplus money or bonds to the credit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8163. Additions: election.—After the approval of the engineer's report or as modified by the Court, the Court shall order an election to be held within the district at the earliest possible legal time. The only proposition presented at such election shall be "For the additional improvements and payment therefor out of the moneys on hand;" and "Against the additional improvements and payment therefor out of the moneys on hand." A majority vote shall be necessary to carry such proposition. Notice of such election briefly reciting the character and scope of such proposed improvements, stating the estimated cost of same, and stating the time and places of holding such election shall be given, election officers appointed, returns made and canvassed, and the result declared, in like manner as provided for the original election. [Id.]

Art. 8164. Additions: contracts.—The provisions of this law relative to the letting of contracts and the construction of improvements thereunder and the authority of the drainage commissioners and the Court in connection therewith, shall apply to the construction of such additional improvements and payment therefor in so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 8165. [2615] Inspection of work.—The commissioners are empowered and they shall at all times during the progress of the work done under any contract, inspect the same. [Id.]

Art. 8166. [2615-16] Contracts: payment.—If the commissioners deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise and contract for work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate seventy-five per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract. The amount of work completed under any contract shall be shown by a certified report of the engineer, and no payment shall be made for work not completed. On the completion of any contract not let on the partial payment plan, the commissioners shall draw a warrant on the treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee. [Id.]

Art. 8167. [2620] Application for connecting drains.—No individual, company, corporation or adjoining district shall have the right to artificially drain adjacent lands, located outside of an established district, into the canals, drains or ditches of such established district, without first making written application to and obtaining the permission of the district commissioners to make such connections. Such application shall show the width, depth and length of such connecting drains or ditches. [Id.]

Art. 8168. [2620] Connections: engineer's report.—When such application has been filed with the commissioners, the district engineer shall make an estimate of the quantity of water which such connecting drains or ditches would probably empty into such established canals or drains, and whether such canals or drains have sufficient capacity to carry such excess of water without risk or damage thereto or the adjacent territory. The engineer shall report the result of his examination and estimate to the commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8169. [2620] Connections: requisites.—If the commissioners deem it advisable, they may authorize such connection, on condition that such applicant shall first pay into the county treasury for the benefit of the construction and maintenance fund a sum which bears the same ratio to the cost of the original canal or drain from the point of connection to its outlet, that the water to be emptied therein by the connecting drains bears to the water then tributary to and being carried by the original canal or drain as estimated by the district engineer, unless the commissioners otherwise agree with the applicants. [Id.]

Art. 8170. [2621] Connections: enlargement.—When it appears from the engineer's report that the canals, drains or outlets of such established district are not of sufficient capacity to carry the excess of water that would be discharged therein by reason of such connection, or that such additional discharge of water would endanger the initial canals and drains or the lands and property adjacent thereto, then the county court in which the initial district is situated shall nevertheless authorize such applicant to make such connection and secure the desired outlet only on condition that it shall first at its own expense and cost make the necessary enlargement of the canals and drains of the initial district, and such increased capacity shall be amply sufficient to carry any increase of water that may be caused by such connections without danger to said canals and drains or to lands adjacent thereto. [Id.]

Art. 8171. [2622] Enlargements: supervision.—Such enlargements shall be done under the supervision and direction of the district engineer, whose salary shall by order of the county court be paid by the applicant. When such work is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer, he shall report to said court under his official certificate showing the kind of work done, the extent thereof, and that the new capacity is sufficient to carry any excess from such connection. Said report shall also show the number of days he was actually employed in supervising said work, and the amount due for such services. On approval of such report, the county court shall make an order authorizing the connections desired with such canals and drains, on payment of the amount shown to be due the engineer by said report. [Id.]

Art. 8172. [2624] Report of commissioners.—The commissioners shall make semi-annual reports of their acts as such, including a financial statement showing with accuracy of date, amount and detail, the receipts and disbursements of all funds subject to their orders as such commissioners, and shall file same with the county clerk on or before the first days of January and July. Such report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done by the district, the cost of same and the amounts paid out in orders and for what purposes, and to whom paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of the improvements made hereunder. Such commissioners shall have a true copy of such report published in some newspaper in the county, once each week for two successive weeks immediately following the first day of January and July of each year. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 92.]

Art. 8173. [2589] Drainage attorney.—The commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of such commissioners, upon such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them and approved by the county judge, and such commissioners shall draw warrants in payment for such legal services. [Acts 1907, p. 91; Acts 1911, p. 263.]

Art. 8174. Status of districts.—All districts may, by and through their commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this State, in the name of such districts, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all such districts. [Id.]

Art. 8175. Suits affecting district.—No suit shall be permitted to be brought in any court of this State enjoining the formation or contesting the validity of any district or its bonds, except in the name of this State by the Attorney General upon his own motion, or upon the motion of any party affected thereby upon good cause shown. [Acts 1911, p. 253.]

Art. 8176. May become conservation district.—Any district established hereunder may become a conservation and reclamation district under Chapter 8 of this title by making the deposit and presenting the petition to the Court, after notice and hearing had as provided herein for establishing a district, by order of said court entered of record declaring such district to be a conservation and reclamation district. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 40.]

2. DISSOLUTION.

Art. 8177. Power to dissolve.—Any drainage district may voluntarily abolish its corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided. If the proposition to abolish such district fails to carry at the election held therefor, no other election for the same purpose shall be held within two years after the result of such election has been declared. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 41; Acts 1915, p. 127.]

Art. 8178. Petition.—Upon the presentation to the Court at a regular session thereof, of a petition praying for the abolition of such drainage district, the Court shall order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time to determine whether or not such district shall be abolished. Such petition shall be signed by fifty of the freehold resident citizen taxpayers of the district, or if there are less than one hundred such citizens, then by one-third thereof. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 41.]

Art. 8179. Deposit.—Such petition shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash which shall be deposited with the county clerk, and by him held until after the result of the election for the abolition of the district has been declared and entered of record by the Court. If such election favors the abolition of the district, the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney, and the costs and expenses of holding said election shall be a charge against said district, to be collected as other debts in the manner hereinafter provided. If the result of such election is against the abolition of the district, then the clerk shall pay out said sum upon vouchers signed by the county judge for all costs and expenses of said election, and return the balance to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 8180. Election.—Notice of such election shall be posted, and such election shall be held in like manner as provided for an election to establish a district hereunder. A two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted at such election. The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon the words and no others: "For the abolition of the drainage district," and "Against the abolition of the drainage district." [Id.]

Art. 8181. Result of election.—Returns of such election shall be made and the votes canvassed as before provided in this chapter, and if said proposition carries, the Court shall so declare and enter the same in their minutes, substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others, praying for the abolition of the drainage district in said petition described and designated as _____ County Drainage District No. _____, be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the abolition of said drainage district. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said district be, and the same is hereby abolished." [Id.]

Art. 8182. Settlement of debts.—When the district is so abolished, the Court shall provide for the settlement of the debts due by said district, including the costs and expenses of holding said election, and for such purpose shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this chapter, a tax against the real and personal property in said district, in such amount only as will be necessary for the payment of all valid debts and obligations of every character existing against said district, except bonds issued and held by purchasers. Such bonds shall be paid in accordance with the terms thereof by levy and collection of an annual tax as before provided, unless a retirement of such bonds is effected as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8183. Retirement of bonds.—If there are any district bonds outstanding at the time of such dissolution, the Court shall immediately enter into negotiations with the holders of such bonds, and if, according to the terms thereof, or by agreement between said Court and the holders, said bonds can be retired at an earlier date than stipulated on their face, and such retirement is considered by said Court as feasible and practicable, then said Court shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this chapter, such a tax, either annually or all at once (not exceeding the constitutional limit), as will pay off as speedily as possible all indebtedness, both bonded and otherwise, of said district. [Id.]

Art. 8184. Custody of property.—Upon the dissolution of a district, the Court shall provide for the disposition and sale of all district property and turn the same over to the county treasurer, immediately upon the filing and approval of his bond, whereupon he shall become trustee for such defunct organization. Said treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, in a sum not less than double the value of the district property and its outstanding bonds, payable to and approved by the county judge and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer and trustee of such district, and for paying over and delivering all money and other property coming into his hands as such treasurer and trustee, to the parties entitled thereto. Said bond shall be recorded in the minutes of the Court, and when approved, shall supersede the bond theretofore given by said treasurer, as treasurer of said district. [Id.]

Art. 8185. Powers of trustee.—The said treasurer, as ex-officio trustee of said defunct district, after giving the required bond, shall take charge of all the property of said district, including the money in his hands as treasurer, said money to be held by him as treasurer of such district, and all books, notes, accounts and choses of action of every kind. As such trustee he may bring suit against any persons in possession of such property, or indebted to such district, the same as such district could if still organized, and may employ counsel in all suits hereunder, or in the care and management of the business of such defunct district. [Id.]

Art. 8186. Presentation of claims.—Any person, firm or corporation having any claim against such district, shall within six months after the approval of the bond of the trustee, present to him such claim, duly verified. If the trustee finds the same correct, he shall allow such claim and thereupon the claimant shall file the same with the clerk of the Court not less than twenty days before the beginning of the next regular session of said court, and the clerk shall immediately issue a notice of such filing to all persons interested in said district. Such notice shall be posted in three public places in the district, and at the courthouse door, not less than twenty days before the next regular session of said court. [Id.]

Art. 8187. Approval of claims.—The Court in regular session shall pass upon said claim, and if it be found correct they shall approve the same, and the order of approval shall be entered upon their minutes, whereupon said claim shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district. Said claim shall then be filed with the trustee and shall be paid by him in the order of its filing out of the money in his hands as treasurer of said district or collected as liquidation taxes hereunder. All bonds and approved claims outstanding against said district before its dissolution shall not be required to be allowed and approved as herein provided, but shall be considered as valid and subsisting claims against said district without further approval, but subject to be contested in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 8188. Rejection of claims.—If the trustee finds any claim presented to him unjust in whole or in part, he shall indorse thereon his refusal to allow same, and if it be refused in whole the owner thereof may institute suit against said trustee for said claim in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and if established by judgment as in other cases, said judgment shall be filed with the said treasurer and shall be paid in its order as other claims. If said claim be refused by the trustee in part and allowed in part, and the owner thereof waives his claim to the part so refused, he shall file said claim in the Court for approval. But if he does not waive his right to the portion of said claim so refused, he shall withdraw said claim from the trustee and may bring suit thereon as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 8189. Claimant may appeal.—If the owner of any claim acted upon by the Court is not satisfied with the judgment thereon, he may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal from judgment of a justice court. [Id.]

Art. 8190. Contesting claim.—If any district taxpayer files with the trustee a protest against any claim which was allowed by the former drainage commissioners before the dissolution of the district and which was unpaid at the time of dissolution, together with a bond in double the amount of such claim, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the trustee and made payable to him, conditioned that such contestant will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant establishes his claim in full in any State court in which he may sue thereon, then the treasurer shall refuse to pay said claim and the owner thereof may bring suit therefor against the trustee, as in other suits of a civil nature. In such suits, the contestant and his bondsmen shall be made parties thereto, and the trustee shall make all defenses urged against said claim by the contestant. In case of recovery by the claimant, judgment shall be rendered against said contestant and his bondsmen for all costs incurred in said suit; and the owner of said claim shall file the judgment with the trustee, to be paid as other claims hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8191. Trustee's expenses.—All reasonable expenses incurred by the trustee in the care, control and conduct of the business of the district and employment of counsel therefor, or in conducting or defending suits in his capacity as such trustee, shall be charged by him against said trust estate, and shall be presented to the Court annually at a regular term thereof, and upon due notice posted as required in case of other claims against the district. Upon approval by said court, the same shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district and shall be a preferred claim, and may be retained by said trustee out of the funds in his hands as district treasurer. If said claim is rejected in whole or in part, and the trustee is dissatisfied with said ruling, he may appeal therefrom as other claimants. [Id.]

Art. 8192. Fees of officers.—The trustee shall receive only one compensation for his services as trustee and ex-officio treasurer hereunder. He shall be allowed one per cent upon all money received by him for the account of such district, and one per cent upon all money paid out as provided herein; but he shall not be entitled to such commission on money in his hands as treasurer of said district at the time of the dissolution thereof, as of money coming into his hands, nor on money turned over by him at the expiration of his trusteeship. The county assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation for the assessing and collecting of taxes as before provided in this chapter, and their compensation for such service shall be provided for in the order of the Court assessing taxes hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8193. Final report of trustee.—When all claims established against the district have been paid and all costs and expenses incurred in the control and management thereof have been satisfied, the trustee shall file his account for final settlement with the Court. Said account shall contain a full and complete account of all money received and paid out, all property of every kind that has come into his hands as trustee, and the disposition thereof, and all other matters pertaining to the management of the affairs of the district. Upon the approval of said account, the Court shall direct the trustee to turn over any property or money remaining in his hands to the person or persons entitled thereto as found by said Court, and on his compliance with said order he shall so report to the Court and thereupon the Court shall enter an order discharging said treasurer and trustee and his bondsmen and closing said trust estate. [Id.]

IV. CONSERVATION AND RECLAMATION.

CHAPTER EIGHT.

CONVERSION OF DISTRICTS.

Art. 8194. Creation.—Conservation and reclamation districts may be created and organized in any manner that water improvement, drainage, or levee improvement districts are authorized by the laws of this State to be created, and for the several purposes therein provided. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 40.]

Art. 8195. Conversion of districts.—Any water improvement, drainage, or levee improvement district organized under the laws of this State as a defined district under Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, may avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and thereby become a conservation and reclamation district without change of name, or impairment of its obligations, in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 8196. Powers.—Any such district, or any district organized hereunder, may incur indebtedness and levy taxes to fully carry out each purpose of its organization, and for the payment of its obligations and the maintenance and operation of said district; and any such district shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of law under which it organized. [Id.]

Art. 8197. Indebtedness.—All limitations of indebtedness authorized to be incurred and taxes to be levied, imposed by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution and all laws under which any such district is organized, are removed as to all conservation and reclamation districts. [Id.]

Art. 8198. [5955] Scope of district.—Navigation districts may be created so as to include therein the territory of not more than two counties or parts thereof; and such districts may or may not include villages, towns, and municipal corporations, or any part thereof. Such districts may improve rivers, bays, creeks, streams and canals within or adjacent to such districts, and construct and maintain canals and waterways to permit of navigation or in aid thereof, and may issue bonds in payment therefor as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1909, p. 32; Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 113.]

Art. 8199. [5956] May include road districts.—No navigation district including within its boundaries all or parts of two counties shall include any part of any defined or special road district which has voted bonds for the construction of public roads, except upon petition signed by a majority of the property taxpayers residing in such defined or special road district or part thereof so included, unless the whole county containing such road district be included in said navigation district, when this article shall not apply. [Id.]

Art. 8200. [5956] Petition for district.—When it is proposed to create a district wholly within one county, a petition shall be presented to the commissioners court of said county, signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers, or if there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district, then by one-third of such taxpayers, praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and praying for the issue of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof, and designating a name for such navigation district, which name shall include the name of the county. Said petitioners shall make affidavit to accompany said petition of their said qualifications.

When a proposed district lies in two counties, the petition shall be signed by the said number of resident property taxpayers of each county, and shall be presented to the commissioners court of the county containing the greater part of such district, which shall be the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning said district, and the name of such county shall be included in the name of such district. [Id.]

Art. 8201. [5981] Deposit.—Said petition shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners court. If the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then said deposit shall be by said clerk returned to the petitioners, their agent or attorney; but, if the result of said election be against the establishment of said district, then said clerk shall pay out of the said five hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8202. [5956] Notice of hearing.—Upon presentation of such petition, said court shall set the same down for hearing at some regular or special term, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from such presentation; and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and the place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed navigation district; and if the district be composed of more than one county, then said notices shall be so posted in each county. Said notices shall be posted not less than twenty days prior to the time set for the hearing. The clerk shall receive one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting same. [Acts 1909, p. 32; Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 113.]

Art. 8203. [5957-8-9] Navigation boards in cities.—If the district includes a city or cities, or a part or parts thereof, acting under special charter granted by the Legislature, the hearing of said petition shall be had at the regular meeting place of the commissioners court before the county judge and members of said court, and the mayor and aldermen or commissioners of said city or cities; and said persons shall constitute a board to be known and designated as the Navigation Board, to pass upon the petition aforesaid. Each individual member of said board shall be entitled to a vote. A majority in number of the individuals composing said board shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a quorum shall control. The date for the hearing shall be set within the time before provided, but without reference to any term of the commissioners court, and notice thereof shall be given as before provided. The county clerk shall enter and record the proceedings of the Navigation Board in a record book kept for this purpose, which record shall be a public archive. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8204. [5961] Hearing on petition.—Upon the day set for the hearing of said petition, any person who may be affected thereby may appear before the said court, or navigation board, and contest the creation of said district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of the said district, to show that the proposed improvements would or would not be a public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. Said court or board shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation and establishment of the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments or decisions rendered by it in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 8205. [5962] Hearing: findings.—If it appears on said hearing that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable and that it would be a public benefit and a public utility, said court or board shall so find, and may approve the boundaries as set out in said petition or make changes therein; otherwise it shall dismiss said petition at the cost of the petitioners, but such dismissal shall not prevent the presentation of a similar petition at a later date. No changes shall be made in said boundaries until notice thereof has been given and hearing had, as provided for the hearing on petition. If said court or board approves the boundaries as set out in the petition, or as so changed, and also decides to grant the petition, it shall then find the amount of money necessary for said improvement and all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount, or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time they shall run, and their rate of interest, and enter all findings in its records. [Id.]

Art. 8206. [5963] Order for election.—If said findings are in favor of the establishment of the district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax therefor, the commissioners court shall order an election to vote on said proposition. Said order shall specify the amount of bonds to be issued, their maturity dates, and rate of interest, as determined under the preceding article. [Id. 1st C. S., 1921, p. 115.]

Art. 8207. [5965] Ballot.—The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the navigation district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8208. [5967] Election: declaration of result.—If the proposition carries at such election, the court shall enter the same in their minutes as follows: "Commissioners Court of _____ County, Texas, _____ term, A. D. _____: in the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a navigation district and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition described and designated by the name of _____ Navigation District. Be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said navigation district be and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Navigation District, and that the bonds of said district in the amount of _____ dollars be issued, and a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars valuation or so much thereof as may be necessary be levied upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund to redeem them at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purposes same shall be increased until the same is sufficient, the metes and bounds of said district being as follows: (Giving metes and bounds.)" [Id. Acts 1st C. S., 1921, p. 116.]

Art. 8209. [5968] Navigation commissioners.—After the establishment of the district, the commissioners court or Navigation Board, by a majority vote, shall biennially appoint three navigation and canal commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the district, and freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county. They shall receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners court and made of record. Said commissioners shall hold office for two years and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the commissioners court or Navigation Board for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. All vacancies in the office of such commissioners shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments to such office. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8210. [5969] Oath of commissioners.—Each commissioner shall first take and subscribe before the county judge of the county having jurisdiction an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of his doings to the court or board by which he was appointed, whenever required to do so. Such oath shall be filed by the clerk of said court and preserved as a part of the records of said district. [Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 116; Id.]

Art. 8211. [5970] Bond of commissioners.—Each commissioner shall first give a good bond for one thousand dollars payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of said district, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8212. [5971] Organization: quorum.—Said commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number district chairman and one secretary, and two of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8213. [5973] Issuance of bonds.—When said commissioners shall have determined the cost of the proposed improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto and cost of maintenance thereof, they shall certify to the commissioners court the amount of bonds necessary to be issued, and thereupon the said court, at a regular or special meeting, shall make an order directing the issuance of navigation bonds for such district in the amount so certified, not to exceed the amount authorized by said election. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 116.]

Art. 8214. [5973] Additional bond issue.—If the proceeds of the original bonds should be insufficient to complete the proposed improvement or construction, or if the commissioners determine to make further construction or improvements, or shall require additional funds with which to maintain the improvements made, they shall certify to said court the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required, the purpose of the same, the rate of interest of said bonds, and the time for which they are to run. Said court shall thereupon issue such bonds, unless the amount previously authorized has been exhausted, in which case said court shall first order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon the words and no others: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 8215. [5974] Bonds: limit of issue.—The outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for State and county taxation. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8216. [5975] Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the county judge, and attested by the county clerk under the seal of the commissioners court; they shall be issued in such denominations and payable at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by said court, and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. All the provisions of Subdivision 1, Chapter 6 of this title governing the approval, registration and validity of bonds of Levee Improvement Districts shall apply to all bonds issued under this chapter; and the Navigation Board or commissioners court shall require a record to be kept of such bonds by the county treasurer as for bonds of said Levee Districts. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 117.]

Art. 8217. [5979] Bonds: sale.—When such bonds have been so registered, the district chairman shall offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible for not less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon. All moneys received therefor shall immediately be paid to the county treasurer, and by him placed to the credit of such district. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8218. [5980] Chairman to give bond.—Before said chairman shall be authorized to sell said bonds, he shall execute a good bond, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the county judge, for an amount to be fixed by the district commissioners, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. [Id. Acts 1923, 2nd C. S., p. 72.]

Art. 8219. [5981] Maintenance fund.—After the establishment of the district, all expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of the district shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such district. Said fund shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatever source, except the tax collections applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the navigation bonds. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8220. [5987] District treasurer.—The county treasurer of the county the commissioners court of which has jurisdiction shall be treasurer of said district, and he shall open an account of all monies received by him belonging to such district and all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the chairman or any two commissioners, or the commissioners court, and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and as often as required by the said commissioners or said court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district. [Id. Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 119.]

Art. 8221. [5988.] Bond of county treasurers.—The county treasurer upon the sale of any navigation district bonds, the proceeds of which may come in his possession or under his direction or control shall before receiving such proceeds, and before receiving any other funds from whatever source belonging to said district, execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district and to their successors in office, for the benefit of said district in an amount to be fixed by the navigation and canal commissioners of said district and to be approved by said navigation and canal commissioners conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over, according to law, all moneys that shall come into his hands as such treasurer and shall render a just and true account thereof to the commissioners' court of the county where said district is located and the navigation and canal commissioners of said district whenever required by law or such commissioners' court or navigation and canal commissioners so to do. As soon as this Act shall become effective the treasurer of said district shall give the bond required by the provisions of this Act in lieu of any other bond as such treasurer which he may have given under the law as it heretofore existed and the bond herein provided for shall remain in full force and effect so long as any funds belonging to said district are in his possession or under his control or direction. The county treasurer shall receive such compensation for his services as shall be determined by said navigation and canal commissioners. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district already created and having no district depository may as soon as this Act becomes effective provide for district depository for the funds of such district by complying with the laws for the designation of county depositories where applicable; and in case such depository shall be designated by the navigation and canal commissioners and shall give a good and sufficient bond approved by the said commissioners as now provided by law for depository of county funds, then the county treasurer, as treasurer of such district shall be required to deposit the funds of said district in said depository which said depository so selected shall be the depository of said district until the date of the election of the navigation and canal commissioners of said district and until its successor is selected and qualified. Within thirty days after the election of navigation and canal commissioners of any district created under this Act, the said navigation and canal commissioners elected shall select a depository for said district in the manner provided by law for the selection of a county depository and such depository so selected shall be the depository of said district for a period of two years thereafter and until its successor is selected and qualified. [Acts 1925, p. 280.]

Art. 8222. [5982] Tax levy.—When bonds have been voted, the commissioners court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund to redeem said bonds at maturity. Said court is authorized to levy and cause to be assessed and collected for the maintenance, operation and upkeep of such district and its improvements, an annual tax not to exceed ten cents on the one hundred dollar valuation. All such taxes shall be levied upon all property within such district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise. The Navigation Board shall provide all necessary books for the use of the assessors and collectors and the clerk of the court of jurisdiction. [Acts 1917, p. 66.]

Art. 8223. [5983] Sinking fund investments.—The commissioners court may invest the sinking fund in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as the Attorney General shall approve. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8224. Chapter 3 applicable.—The provisions of Chapter 3 of this title governing Water Control and Preservation Districts shall, in the manner and to the extent herein specified, apply to all districts hereunder, and the acts therein authorized or required to be done by the district directors shall apply to the navigation commissioners:

1. Taxes.—When ordered by the commissioners court having jurisdiction of the navigation district, the tax assessors and collectors of each county in the district shall assess and collect the district taxes and pay the same to the district treasurer, in like manner as provided in such cases in said Chapter 3; and the provisions of said chapter relating to taxation, except the levy of maintenance taxes, creation and investment of sinking fund, and the liability of the commissioners court for failure to order such assessment, shall apply.

2. Construction contracts.—All the provisions of said chapter governing the advertising for, letting and performance of contracts for the construction of improvements and work authorized by law shall apply, except that the bidder's deposit shall be for five per cent of the amount bid, the contractor's bond shall be for not less than twenty-five per cent of the contract price; the contract shall be signed by any two commissioners, and the partial payments made thereon shall not exceed ninety per cent of the contract price.

3. Construction work.—All the provisions of said chapter governing the right of eminent domain, employment and duties of the district engineer, co-operation with the Federal Government, and the directors' annual report, shall apply.

Art. 8225. [5990] May acquire property.—The commissioners are empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind for all necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8226. [5991] May enter lands.—The commissioners and the engineers from the time of their appointment are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass. [Id.]

Art. 8227. [5999] Employes and counsel.—The commissioners are authorized to employ such assistant engineers and other employes as may be necessary, paying such compensation as they may determine, and the said commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the commissioners, on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them. [Id.]

Art. 8228. [6001] May sue and be sued.—All districts, by and through their commissioners, may sue and be sued in all courts of this State in the name of such navigation district; and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts. [Id.]

Art. 8229. Powers of certain districts.—Navigation districts provided for in this chapter created for the development of deep water navigation, having a city containing one hundred thousand population or more according to the preceding Federal census, are hereby granted, in addition to the powers conferred by this chapter, the right, power and authority to acquire, purchase, take over, construct, maintain, operate, develop and regulate wharves, docks, warehouses, grain elevators, bunkering facilities, belt railroads, floating plants, lighterage, lands, towing facilities, and all other facilities or aids incident to or necessary to the operation or development of ports or waterways, within the district and extending to the Gulf of Mexico, as provided in this subdivision. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 53.]

Art. 8230. Petition for improvements.—When the Navigation Board of such district deems it advisable for said district to avail itself of the rights, powers and authority provided herein, said board shall so certify to the commissioners court of the county wherein said district is situated, petitioning the holding of an election therefor, whereupon said court shall set a day not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter, for public hearing on said petition, at such place as may be designated by the said court. [Id.]

Art. 8231. Hearing: testimony.—Upon the day set for said hearing, any person who may be affected thereby may appear before said Navigation Board and contest the necessity, advisability or practicability of said election, and may offer testimony in favor of or against said election. [Id.]

Art. 8232. Election order.—After said hearing, if the Navigation Board is still of the opinion said election should be held, the commissioners court shall order an election to determine whether or not the said district should avail itself of the rights, powers and authority provided for herein. Said order shall state the day upon which said election shall be held. [Id.]

Art. 8233. Ballots.—The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the development of the port by the Navigation District;" "Against the development of the port by the Navigation District." The expense of said election shall be borne by the district. [Id.]

Art. 8234. Declaration of result.—If said election results in favor of the development of the port by said navigation district, then such court shall so declare the result and enter the same in the minutes of the court as follows:

"Commissioners Court.....County, Texas, term A. D....., in the matter of the petition of the Navigation Board of the.....County.....Navigation District, praying that the right, power and authority be granted said Navigation District to develop the port of.....(here enter the name of said municipality.) BE IT KNOWN, That at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on theday of....., A. D., a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the development of said port by said Navigation District.

"NOW THEREFORE, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said Navigation District be and is hereby authorized to proceed with the development of said port as authorized by law." [Id.]

Art. 8235. Governing board.—The district shall thereafter be managed, governed and controlled by five commissioners, who shall be appointed as follows: Two shall be selected for a term of one and two years respectively by a majority of the city council of the municipality having a population of one hundred thousand or more situated in said district. At the expiration of the term of office of said commissioners, the city council shall select their successors annually to serve for two years. The other three shall each serve for two years. Two commissioners and their successors shall be selected by the commissioners court in like manner, and the other, who shall be chairman, shall be selected by a majority vote of said city council and by the commissioners court in joint session called by the county judge of said county. Each commissioner shall be a freehold property taxpayer and legal voter in said navigation district and shall give the bond and take the oath required by this chapter and shall serve until their successors are qualified. Their duties shall be as prescribed in this chapter, and they shall receive such compensation as the Navigation Board may fix. A majority of said commissioners shall have power to act. Said commissioners shall serve their full term of appointment unless sooner removed by the authority by which they were appointed for malfeasance, nonfeasance in office, inefficiency or other cause deemed sufficient. If any vacancy occurs through the death, resignation or otherwise of any commissioner, the same shall be filled as in the first instance by appointment for the unexpired term. All acts of the commissioners shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Navigation Board. [Id.]

Art. 8236. Bonds.—Such districts may issue bonds in payment for the improvements authorized herein upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter. An election shall be held therefor, and such bonds shall be issued as other bonds under this chapter. The outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount ten per cent of the assessed value of the real property in such district as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for State and county. [Id.]

Art. 8237. Powers.—Such districts shall have all the right, power and authority herein granted, subject to the provisions of this law, and shall have all the authority granted by general or special law to navigation districts, and shall also have the fullest powers consistent with the State Constitution for the regulation of wharfage and of all facilities of or pertaining to the said port, waterways and navigation district, and shall have a right to assess and collect charges for the use of all facilities acquired or constructed in accordance with the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 8238. Property rights.—Such districts may exercise the right of eminent domain as provided under the preceding subdivision, and may also acquire, and take over, by lease or rental agreements, the docks, wharves, buildings, railroads, lands, improvements and other facilities already provided, constructed or owned by any incorporated municipality situated within such district for a period of not less than twenty-five years, only with the consent of the lawful authorities of such municipality, and upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the district and the said municipality. No agreement for the use, acquisition or operation of such property or facilities of such municipality by the district shall be for a lease, or rental value thereof, which shall exceed the annual net revenues derived or to be derived by the navigation district after payment of the expenses of operation and maintenance of said property and facilities. The district shall have no supervision or control over such property or facilities owned, controlled or constructed by any municipality, until agreement for the lease and rental thereof by the district has been reached and made in the manner herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 8239. Unimproved lands.—Districts acquiring, leasing and taking over unimproved lands owned or controlled by any such incorporated municipality, may pay for the use, rent and hire of such unimproved lands, a price or rental value to be fixed by the district commissioners. If such commissioners fail or are unable to agree upon terms and conditions for the use and rental of such unimproved lands, then the district, under its right of eminent domain, may condemn such lands or parts thereof, as in its discretion the interest of the district requires. [Id.]

Art. 8240. Franchises.—Such districts shall have power to grant franchises to persons or corporations on property owned or controlled by such districts, provided said franchises are granted for purposes consistent with the provisions of this chapter, but no franchise shall be granted for a longer period than thirty years, nor shall any franchise be granted hereunder except upon the affirmative vote of at least three commissioners at three separate meetings of said commissioners, said meetings to be not closer together than one week, and no franchise shall be granted until after the same as finally proposed to be passed shall be published at the expense of the applicant in full once a week for three consecutive weeks in some daily newspaper of general circulation published within said district. Said franchise shall require the grantee therein to file his or their written acceptance thereof within thirty days from the time of the final passage of said franchise. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing said navigation district from granting revocable licenses or permits for the use of limited portions of water front or facilities for the purposes consistent with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 8241. Franchise: election.—If in the opinion of the commissioners any proposed franchise should be submitted to a vote of the people, they shall so certify to the commissioners court, whereupon said court shall order an election thereon at the earliest legal time. At said election any resident of said district qualified under the Constitution and laws of this State to vote for Governor in a general election shall be qualified to vote. [Id.]

Art. 8242. Ballots.—The ballots used for voting upon such proposed franchise shall set forth the nature of said franchise sufficiently to identify it, and shall also set forth upon separate lines the words “For the franchise” and “Against the franchise.” If at said election a majority of those voting shall vote in favor of the franchise, the same shall be granted; otherwise said franchise shall be of no force and effect. [Id.]

Art. 8243. Petition protesting franchise.—If prior to the date when any franchise has been granted by the commissioners, a petition signed by qualified voters of said district equal in number to ten per cent of the total vote cast at the last general election for State officers, shall be presented to the commissioners court protesting against the enactment or granting of said franchise, it shall be suspended from taking effect, and immediately upon the filing of such petition the commissioners court shall order an election upon said proposed franchise, which said election shall be governed by the provisions of the two preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 8244. District depository.—The funds of such districts shall be handled in the same manner as provided in this chapter and as provided by the law governing county finances. The commissioners shall provide for a depository for all of the funds of said district, by complying with the laws governing the designation of county depositories. When the depository has given bond and the same has been approved, the county treasurer shall be required to give only such bond as the commissioners may require. [Id.]

Art. 8245. Employes.—Such commissioners may employ such persons as they may deem necessary for the construction, maintenance, operation and development of the navigation district, its business and facilities, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation. [Id.]

Art. 8246. Contracts.—The provisions governing letting of contracts for navigation districts shall apply in all cases consistent with the provisions of this law; provided, that in case of emergency, contracts may be let by the commissioners not exceeding one thousand dollars without advertisement for bids, and in case of urgent necessity or present calamity, advertisement for bids may be waived. [Id.]

Art. 8247. City police powers.—Nothing herein shall repeal or affect the police powers of any municipality within the navigation district, or any law, ordinance or regulation authorizing and empowering such municipality to exercise such powers as to any navigable stream or aids to navigation and facilities therefor, in a navigation district, not in conflict with this chapter. [Id.]

| Applicant's qualifications | 8251 | Consignee liable for pilotage | 8256 |
| Powers of board | 8252 | Unauthorized pilot: liability | 8257 |

Art. 8248. Pilot Board.—The navigation and canal commissioners of any navigation district included in Part A of this subdivision, in connection with their other duties as such commissioners, shall constitute a Pilot Board, and be commissioners of pilots and their terms of office as such shall be contemporaneous with their terms of office as navigation and canal commissioners. No person who is engaged directly or indirectly in the towing business or in any pilot boat, or in any other business affected by or connected with the performance of his duties as a commissioner of pilots, shall be a member of such pilot board. [Acts 4th C. S., 1920, p. 3; Acts 1923, p. 42.]

Art. 8249. Jurisdiction.—Such navigation districts shall have exclusive jurisdiction as hereinafter defined over the pilotage of boats between the Gulf of Mexico and their respective ports, as well as of intermediate stops or landing places for such boats upon navigable streams wholly or partly within such navigation districts. [Id.]

Art. 8250. Supervision of pilots.—The right, power and authority is hereby granted to such commission to appoint suspend or dismiss from office, branch pilots or deputy pilots of their respective ports, and to examine and determine upon their qualifications. No branch pilot or deputy pilot shall be suspended or dismissed except for misconduct, inefficiency, or inebriety on duty, and after due hearing of accusation, testimony and defense before said board of navigation and canal commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8251. Applicant's qualifications.—Before making any appointments as branch pilot or deputy pilots, the commissioners shall examine and determine upon the qualifications for office of each applicant for the position of branch pilot or deputy pilot; and shall require of each of said applicants such terms of residence in this State preceding such appointment as they may deem advisable, not to exceed two years. [Id.]

Art. 8252. Powers of board.—The right, power and authority is further granted to such commissioners to fix rates of pilotage between the Gulf of Mexico and their respective ports, as well as intermediate stops or landing places for such boats, upon navigable streams wholly or partly within such districts; and to make, adopt and enforce all rules and regulations which they deem advisable in the matter of appointment, qualification and regulation of pilots and deputy pilots as may be needed for the government of pilots and their deputy pilots and the proper operation of their respective ports, not inconsistent with the Federal regulations thereof, the Constitution of Texas, or the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 8253. Branch pilot license.—All branch pilots appointed under and in accordance with this law or the rules and regulations of such navigation district shall enter into bond with one or more good and sufficient sureties in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the Governor, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners of such district, and shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State. Each pilot shall also take the official oath, which shall be endorsed on said bond. Upon the filing of said bond, and the taking of said oath, the commissioners of such district shall certify to the Governor that each branch pilot has duly qualified to act as such, and thereupon the Governor shall issue to said branch pilot, in the name and under the seal of the State, a commission to serve as branch pilot from such ports, across any intermediate bars, to the open gulf; and said commission shall be for a term of two years, unless such branch pilot shall be dismissed from service by said navigation and canal commissioners, in which event such commission shall expire. [Acts 1923, p. 44.]

Art. 8254. Deputy branch pilots.—Each branch pilot may appoint, subject to examination and approval by the navigation and canal commissioners, two deputies for whose acts such branch pilot shall be responsible, and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said commissioners, shall forfeit his own appointment; provided that an additional deputy shall be appointed if such branch pilot and commissioners mutually deem it advisable. [Id.]

Art. 8255. Pilotage charges.—The rates of pilotage charged by the pilots operating under this law shall at all times be fair and just, and a schedule of such rates shall at all times be on file in the office of the district commissioners, said schedule to be furnished by the pilots and strictly adhered to by them; provided that each time a change in the rate shall be effected, a revised schedule shall be filed as above specified. Whenever a vessel, (except vessels of twenty tons or under and all vessels excepted by Federal statutes and regulations) shall decline the services of a pilot operating under this law, offered outside the bar, and shall enter any channel subject to the jurisdiction of such navigation district, without the aid of a pilot operating under this law, such vessel shall be liable to the first pilot operating under this law whose services she has declined, for the payment of half-pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot operating under this law, shall go without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half-pilotage to the pilot operating under this law who brought her in; or if she has come in without the aid of such pilot, though offered outside, she shall, on so going out, be liable for the payment of one-half pilotage to the pilot operating under this law who has first offered his services before she came in. [Id.]

Art. 8256. Consignee liable for pilotage.—The consignee of any vessel shall be held responsible to pilots operating under this law for the pilotage of said vessel or services offered, and such pilots shall be entitled to recover same from the consignee of said vessel in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 8257. Unauthorized pilot: liability.—If any person not appointed a branch pilot or deputy pilot under this law shall pilot any ship or vessel out of, or into, the port, channel or waterway of which exclusive jurisdiction is, under this law, given to the navigation and canal commissioners of such navigation district, when a branch pilot or deputy pilot, operating hereunder has offered such services, the person so piloting shall forfeit and pay to such branch pilot or deputy pilot, the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 8258. "Commissioner."—The term "commissioner" as used in this chapter, shall mean Navigation and Canal Commissioner.

Art. 8259. Election notice.—When any election is held under this chapter, notice thereof shall be given for thirty days prior thereto, stating the time and place of holding same, the proposition to be voted on and the purpose thereof, and shall contain a copy of the election order. Such notices shall be posted in the manner provided for posting other notices hereunder.

Art. 8260. Election requisites.—At any such election a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted thereat unless otherwise provided. The commissioners court shall order twice as many ballots printed as there are resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters in the district; and shall create and define, by order of the court, the voting precincts in the district, and name convenient polling places therein, and shall appoint necessary election officers. Each such election shall be held at the earliest legal time.

Art. 8261. Voter's qualifications.—Every person who offers to vote in any such election shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, that I am a resident property taxpayer of the _____ Navigation District, and I have not voted before at this election."

Art. 8262. Election: declaration of result.—If the commissioners court on canvassing the returns of any such election find that the proposition submitted thereat has carried, they shall so declare and enter the same in their minutes as specially provided hereunder.

Art. 8263. [5960] Duties imposed without compensation.—The duties and powers herein conferred upon the county, city and other officers, are made a part of the legal duty of said officials, which they shall perform without additional compensation, unless otherwise provided herein. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

[Additional legislation, Acts 1925, p. 7.]

SECTION 1. There may be created within this State under and by virtue of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, districts to be known as Navigation Districts, in the manner hereinafter provided; and such districts may or may not include within their boundaries and limits villages, towns, cities, road districts, drainage districts, irrigation districts, levee districts, and other improvement districts, and municipal corporations of any kind, or any part thereof. Such navigation districts, when so established, may make improvements for the navigation of inland and coastal waters, and for the preservation and conservation of inland and coastal waters for navigation, and for the control and distribution of storm and flood waters of rivers and streams in aid of navigation, and for any and all other purposes stated in Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, necessary or incidental to the navigation of inland and coastal waters or in aid thereof, which districts shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate with such powers of government and with the authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions as may be essential to the accomplishment of such purposes; provided, that such districts shall not include therein the territory of more than two counties, or parts of two counties.

SEC. 2. When it is proposed to create a navigation district wholly within one county, there shall be presented to the county commissioners' court of the county in which the lands to be included in such districts are located, at any regular or special session, a petition accompanied by the deposit provided for in Section 26 of this Act, signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers, or in the event there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers in the proposed district; praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvement or improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and designating a name for such navigation district, which name shall include the name of the county, said petitioners shall make affidavit to accompany said petition of their said qualifications; and when it is proposed to create such a district to be composed of lands in two counties, then a petition of the nature above indicated, signed by twenty-five of the property taxpayers residing in the territory of each county to be included in such proposed district, or in the event there are less than seventy-five property taxpayers residing in said territory, then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers, accompanied by the deposit provided for in Section 26 of this Act; which petition shall be presented to the commissioners' court of the county in which is located the greater amount of acreage of such proposed district, which shall be the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning said district, and the name of which county shall be included in the name of such district and, upon presentation of such petition the said commissioners' court shall, at the same session when said petition is presented set down for hearing at some regular term of said court, or at some special session of said court called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and the place of said hearing, by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be the courthouse door of said county and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed navigation district; and if the district be composed of more than one county, then there shall be posted a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon, at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and four copies in four different places within each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and within the boundaries of said districts. Said notices shall be posted not less than twenty days prior to the time set for the hearing. The said clerk shall receive as compensation for such service one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices.

SEC. 3. In the event the boundaries of the proposed district shall include a city or cities, or a part or parts thereof, acting under special charter granted by the Legislature, the hearing of said petition, hereinafter provided for, shall be had before the county judge and the members of the commissioners' court and the mayor and aldermen or commissioners, as the case may be, of said city or cities; and said persons shall constitute a board to be known and designated as the navigation board, to pass upon the petition aforesaid. Each individual member of said board shall be entitled to a vote. A majority in number of the individuals composing said board shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a majority of the quorum shall control.

SEC. 4. In the event the hearing of said petition shall be had before the navigation board, the commissioners' court of said county shall set the petition down for hearing not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the presentation of said petition without reference to any term of the commissioners' court, but said hearing shall be held at the regular place of meeting of the commissioners' court, and notice shall be given of the hearing in the manner and for the time as herebefore provided.

SEC. 5. The county clerk shall enter and record the proceedings of the navigation board in a record book kept for this purpose, which record shall be a public archive.

SEC. 6. The duties and powers herein conferred upon the county judge and members of the commissioners' court, and upon the mayor and aldermen or commissioners of cities, and upon the county clerk and other officers, are made a part of the legal duty of said officials, which they shall render and perform without additional compensation, unless otherwise provided herein.

SEC. 7. Upon the day set by said county commissioners for the hearing of said petition, any person who has taxable property within the proposed district, or who may be affected thereby, may appear before the said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, and contest the creation of said district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of the said district, to show that the proposed improvement or improvements would or would not be of any public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvement or improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. Said county commissioners' court, or navigation board, shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation and establishment of the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, except as hereinafter provided, and may adjourn hearing in any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments or decisions rendered by said court, or navigation board, in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 8. If, at the hearing of said petition, it shall appear to the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility; and, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set out in said petition, then the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be recorded in the records of the commissioners' court, or minutes of the navigation board, as the case may be. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility, but does not approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set forth in the petition, the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall define the boundaries of such district as the court considers the same should be, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements, and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be entered of record, together with a map thereof. Providing, however, that before any change is made by said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, of the boundaries, notice and hearing thereof shall be given and had as provided for in Section 2 of this Act. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is not feasible or practicable, or that it would not be a public benefit or public utility, and that the establishment of such navigation district is therefore unnecessary, then the court, or navigation board, shall enter such findings of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of petitioners, but the order dismissing said petition shall not prevent or conclude the presentation at a later date of a similar petition.

SEC. 9. After the hearing upon the petition, as herein provided, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of navigation district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition, or as changed or modified as above provided by the said court, or navigation board, the commissioners' court of jurisdiction shall order an election, in which order provision shall be made for submitting to the qualified property taxpaying voters residing in said district whether or not such navigation district shall be created, and whether or not said bonds shall be issued and a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem said bonds at maturity, said order specifying the amount of bonds to be issued, together with the length of time the bonds shall run and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, as said matters have been determined by the commissioners' court or navigation board, as the case may be, under the provisions of Section 8 of this Act. Said election to be held within such proposed navigation at the earliest legal time, at which election there shall be submitted the following proposition, and none other; "For the navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof."

SEC. 10. Notice of such election, stating the time and place of holding the same, shall be given by the clerk of the said court by posting notices thereof in four public places in such proposed navigation district, and one at the courthouse door of the county in which such district is located, and if the district be composed of more than one county, then there shall be posted a copy of said notice at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and four copies in four public places within each county in which any of the proposed district is located, and within the boundaries of said district; said notices shall be posted for thirty days prior to the date set for the election. Such notices shall contain the proposition to be voted upon as set forth in Section 9 of this Act, and shall also specify the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued, and the amount of said bonds, and shall contain a copy of the order of the court ordering the election.

SEC. 11. The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of the State of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said proposed district, shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof, by the county commissioners' court at such election. The county commissioners' court shall create and define, by an order of the court, the voting precincts in the proposed navigation district, and shall name a polling place or places within said precincts, taking into consideration the convenience of the voters in the proposed navigation district, and shall also select and appoint the judges and other necessary officers of the election, and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots as there are qualified resident property taxpaying voters within such navigation district. Said ballot shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof"; "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof."

SEC. 12. Immediately after said election, the officers holding the same shall make returns of the result thereof to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, and return the ballot boxes to the clerk of said court, who shall safely keep the same and deliver them, together with the returns of the election, to the commissioners' court of jurisdiction at its next regular or special session, and the said court at such session shall canvass the vote and return; and if it be found that a majority of those voting at such election shall have been cast in favor of the navigation district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said navigation district, the issuance of said bonds and the levy of the tax, and shall enter same in the minutes of the court as follows:

Commissioners' court of _____ County, Texas. _____ term, A. D. _____, in the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition described and designated by the name of _____ Navigation District. Be it known that at an election called for the purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said navigation district, be, and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Navigation District, and that bonds of said district in the amount of _____ dollars be issued, and a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be levied upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund to redeem that at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purposes same shall be increased until same is sufficient. The metes and bounds of said district being as follows:

(Giving metes and bounds.)

SEC. 13. After the establishment of any navigation district, as herein provided, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint three navigation and canal commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the proposed navigation district, who shall be freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county, whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided, and who shall each receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners' court and made of record. Said navigation and canal commissioners shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the county commissioners, or navigation board, as the case may be, for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. Upon the expiration of the term of office of said navigation and canal commissioners, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint their successors by a majority vote. Should any vacancy occur through the death or resignation or otherwise of any commissioners, the same shall be filled by the commissioners' court, or the navigation board, as the case may be.

SEC. 14. Before entering upon their duties, all navigation and canal commissioners shall take and subscribe before the county judge of the county having jurisdiction an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of their doings to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, or navigation board, by which they are appointed whenever required to do so, which oath shall be filed by the clerk of said court and preserved as part of the records of said navigation district.

SEC. 15. Before entering upon duties each of the navigation and canal commissioners shall make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars payable to the county judge of the county having jurisdiction for the use and benefit of said navigation district, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties.

SEC. 16. Said commissioners shall also organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary, and two of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district.

SEC. 17. Said commissioners shall have authority to employ a competent engineer, whose term of office shall be at the will of said commissioners, and who shall receive such compensation as may be determined by such commissioners. It shall be the duty of the engineer to make all necessary surveys, examinations, investigations, maps, plans and drawings with reference to the proposed improvements. He shall make estimate or estimates of the cost of same, shall supervise the work of improvement, and shall do and perform all such duties as may be required of him by the commissioners. Provided, that if the river, creek, stream, bay, canal, or waterway, to be improved is navigable or the improvement proposed to be of such nature as requires the permission or consent of the Government of the United States, or any department or officer of the Government of the United States, the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to obtain the required permission or consent of the Government of the United States, or any officer or department thereof; and, in lieu of the employment of an engineer as herein provided, or in addition thereto, the navigation and canal commissioners shall have power to adopt any survey of the river, creek, canal, stream, bay, or waterway theretofore made by the Government of the United States, or any department thereof, and to arrange for surveys, examinations and investigations of the proposed improvement, and for supervision of the work of improvement by the Government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof; provided, that said commissioners shall have full power and authority to co-operate and act with the Government of the United States, or any officer or department thereof, in any and all matters pertaining to or relating to the construction and maintenance of said canals, and the improvement and navigation of all such navigable rivers, bays, creeks, streams, canals, and waterways, whether by survey, work or expenditure of money made or to be made either by said navigation and canal commissioners, or by said Government of the United States, or any proper officer or department thereof, or by both; and, to the end that the said Government of the United States may aid in all such matters, the said commissioners shall have authority to agree and consent to the said Government of the United States entering upon and taking management and control of said work, in so far as it may be necessary or permissible under the laws of the United States, and the regulations and orders of any department thereof.

SEC. 18. When said commissioners shall have determined the cost of the proposed improvement or improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto and cost of maintenance thereof, they shall certify to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction the amount of bonds necessary to be issued, and thereupon the said court, at a regular or special meeting, shall make an order directing the issuance of navigation bonds for such navigation district in the amount so certified; provided that the amount of bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by the election theretofore held. In the event the proceeds of bonds issued by such navigation district should be insufficient to complete the proposed improvement or construction, or in the event said commissioners shall determine to make other and further construction or improvements, or shall require additional funds with which to maintain the improvements made, they shall certify to said commissioners' court the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required, the purpose of the same, the rate of interest of said bonds, and the time for which they are to run, whereupon said commissioners' court shall issue such bonds, unless the amount previously authorized shall have been exhausted, in which case said commissioners' court shall order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such navigation district at the earliest possible legal time and in the manner hereinbefore provided for the original issue of bonds, at which election there shall be submitted the following proposition, and none other: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" notices of said election shall be given as provided in Section 10 of this Act; and the election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided in Section 11 of this Act. Only those who are qualified property taxpaying voters as provided in this Act shall vote at such election, and the returns of such election shall be canvassed as provided in Section 12 of this Act.

SEC. 19. If, upon a canvass of the vote, the commissioners' court shall determine that a majority of the votes cast at said election shall have been cast in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, the said court shall make an order directing the issuance of said bonds and levy of tax.

SEC. 20. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be issued in the name of the navigation district, shall be signed by the county judge of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction of said district, shall be attested by the county clerk, and the seal of the commissioners' court of such county shall be affixed to each, they shall be issued in such denominations and payable at such time, or times, not exceeding forty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by said commissioners' court, and said bonds shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

SEC. 21. Any navigation district in the State of Texas desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this Chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the Attorney General a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax, a copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such navigation district as such, including the series of bonds proposed and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment by the county, together with such other information as the Attorney General may require; whereupon it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the Constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds; and, if as the result of such examination the Attorney General shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such navigation district by which they are issued, he shall so officially certify.

SEC. 22. When said bonds have been examined by the Attorney General, and his certificate issued to that effect, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller, in a book to be kept for that purpose; and the certificate of the Attorney General to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Such bonds, after being approved by the Attorney General, and after having been registered in the Comptroller's office as herein provided, shall thereafter be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought in question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And, in every action brought to enforce collection of said bonds or interest thereon, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided, that the only defense that can be offered against the validity of said bonds or coupons be forgery or fraud.

SEC. 23. When bonds shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, the navigation board of said district shall procure and deliver to the treasurer of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, a well bound book in which a record shall be kept of all such bonds, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, the tax levy to pay interest on and to provide sinking funds for their payment, and said book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers, or bondholders or otherwise; and upon payment of any bond, an entry thereof shall be made in said book. The county treasurer shall receive for his services in recording these matters the same fees as may be allowed by law to the county clerk for other like records.

SEC. 24. When such bonds have been registered, as provided for in the preceding section of this Act, the chairman of the navigation and canal commission shall offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon; and, as fast as said bonds are sold, all moneys received therefor shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall by him be placed to the credit of such navigation district.

SEC. 25. Before the said chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to sell any of the navigation bonds, he shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of said county, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties.

SEC. 26. All expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any navigation district organized under the provisions of this Section, shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such navigation district; which fund shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatever source, except the tax collections applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the navigation bonds; provided, that, should the proposition of the creation of such navigation district and issuance of bonds be defeated at the election called to vote upon the same then all expenses up to and including said election shall be paid in the following manner: When the original petition praying for the establishment of a navigation district is filed with the county commissioners' court, it shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said county commissioners' court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said navigation district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners' court, as hereinafter provided; and, should the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then the said five hundred dollars shall be by said clerk returned to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney; but, should the result of said election be against the establishment of said district, then the said clerk shall pay out of the said five hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, of said five hundred dollars to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney.

SEC. 27. Whenever such navigation district bonds shall have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity, and in all such navigation districts which have heretofore been created or may hereafter be created, the commissioners' courts of the respective counties wherein said districts may be created, shall be and are hereby authorized to levy and cause to be assessed and collected for the maintenance, operation and up-keep of such navigation district and the improvements constructed by said district, an annual tax not to exceed ten cents on the one hundred dollar valuation upon all property within such navigation district, whether real, personal mixed, or otherwise.

SEC. 28. If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested by the commissioners' court of the county in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State.

SEC. 29. The navigation board of said district shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of assessors and collectors of taxes and the clerk of the commissioners' court of jurisdiction for said navigation districts. The tax assessors of each county in said navigation district, when ordered to do so by the commissioners' court having jurisdiction of said district, shall assess all property within said navigation district which is located in his county and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him for said purposes, and return said books or rolls at the same time when he returns the other books or rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval to the commissioners' court of his county, and if said court shall find said books or rolls correct they shall approve the same, and in all matters pertaining to the assessment of property for taxation in said district, the tax assessors and boards of equalization of the counties in which said district is located shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for assessing and equalizing property for State and county taxes, except as herein provided. All taxes authorized to be levied by this Act shall be a lien upon the property upon which said taxes are assessed, and said taxes may be paid and shall mature and be paid at the time provided by the laws of this State for the payment of State and county taxes; and all the penalties provided by the laws of this State for the non-payment of State and county taxes shall apply to all taxes authorized to be levied by this Section. The tax assessors shall receive for such services such compensation as the said navigation and canal commissioners shall deem proper; provided that said county assessors shall in no event be allowed more than they are now allowed for like services. Should any tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of said commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all the property in such navigation district, as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

SEC. 30. That tax collectors of the several counties in said navigation district shall be charged with the assessment rolls of navigation districts, and are required to make collection of all taxes levied and assessed against the property in their county within such district and promptly pay over the same to the treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction of said district; and said tax collectors shall be allowed no more compensation for the collection of said taxes than is now allowed for collection of other taxes, same to be fixed by the navigation and canal commissioners. The bonds of such collectors shall stand as security for the proper performance of their duties as tax collectors of such navigation districts; or, if in the judgment of the navigation and canal commissioners of such districts it be necessary, additional bonds, payable to such districts, may be required, and in all matters pertaining to the collection of taxes levied under the provisions of this section, the tax collectors shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas for the collection of State and county taxes, except as herein provided; and suits may be brought for the collection of said taxes and the enforcement of the tax liens created by this section. Should any collector of taxes fail or refuse to give such additional bond or security as herein provided, when requested to do so by said navigation and canal commissioners, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law.

SEC. 31. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the navigation tax has not been paid, and return the same to the county commissioners' court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such delinquent property in the same manner, both by suit and otherwise, as now or may be provided for the sale of property for the collection of State and county taxes; and, at the sale of any property for any delinquent tax, the navigation and canal commissioners may become the purchasers of the same for the benefit of the navigation district.

SEC. 32. The county treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction of said district, shall be treasurer of said navigation district, and it shall be his duty to open an account of all monies received by him belonging to such district and all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the chairman or any two of said navigation and canal commissioners, or the said commissioners' court, and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and, as often as required by the said commissioners' court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district.

SEC. 33. The county treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district, in a sum equal to twice the amount of funds he will have in his hands as treasurer of such district, at any time as estimated by said navigation and canal commissioners, such bond to be conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of such district and to be approved by said navigation and canal commissioners; provided, whenever any bonds are voted by such navigation district the county treasurer before receiving the proceeds of sale thereof shall execute additional good and sufficient bond payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district in the sum equal to twice the amount of bonds so issued, which bond shall likewise be conditioned and approved as aforesaid, but such additional bond shall not be required after such treasurer shall have properly disbursed the proceeds of such bond issue; and the county treasurer shall be allowed such compensation for his services as treasurer of such navigation district as may be determined by said navigation and canal commissioners not exceeding the same per cent as is now authorized by law for his services as county treasurer.

SEC. 34. The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all navigation districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through any and all lands, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for the improvement of any river, bay, creek, or stream, and the construction and maintenance of any canal or waterway, and for any and all purposes authorized by this Act. All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the navigation and canal commissioners, and in the name of the navigation district, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the statutes of the State of Texas for condemning and acquiring the right of way by railroads; provided, that no appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing a suspension of work by the navigation commissioners in prosecuting the work of improvement in all of its details; provided, that no right of way can be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities of such city or town.

SEC. 35. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind for all necessary improvements contemplated by this Act by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings.

SEC. 36. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district, and the engineers, from the time of their appointment, are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass.

SEC. 37. If the improvement or improvements be not carried out and performed by the Government of the United States, as herein provided, the contract or contracts for such improvement or improvements shall be let by the navigation and canal commissioners, and the same shall be awarded to the lowest and best responsible bidder, after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers, of general circulation in the State of Texas once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days in five public places in the county of jurisdiction, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, and at least two of which shall be within said district. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of more than one improvement, and where more than one improvement is to be made, the contract may be let separately for each one contract for all such improvements.

SEC. 38. Any person, corporation, or firm, desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for as provided under the preceding section of this Act, shall, upon application to the navigation and canal commissioners, be furnished the survey, plans and estimates for the said work, and all bids or offers for any such work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners, together with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount of bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract, if his bid is accepted. Any and all bids may be rejected at the discretion of the navigation and canal commissioners.

SEC. 39. All contracts made by the navigation and canal commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors and navigation and canal commissioners, or any two of said commissioners, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk for reference.

SEC. 40. The party, firm or corporation, to whom any such contract is let, shall give bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners for said district, in twice the amount of the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of their contract, and that in default thereof will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by such navigation and canal commissioners.

SEC. 41. All work contracted for by the navigation and canal commissioners, unless done under the supervision of the Government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof, shall be done under the supervision of the engineer; and, when the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the navigation and canal commissioners, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with, according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been complied with.

SEC. 42. The commissioners shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, during the progress of the work being done under contract, to inspect the same; and, upon the completion of any contract, they shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee, which warrant shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such district; provided, that, if the navigation and canal commissioners shall deem it advisable, they may contract for the work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses; but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eight per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, the amount of work completed to be shown by a certificate of the engineer; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall affect the provisions of this Act providing for the carrying out and performing of the improvement or improvements by the Government of the United States.

SEC. 43. The commissioners shall make an annual report of their acts and doings as such commissioners, and file the same with the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of January of each year; which report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same, and the amount paid out on order, for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 44. The commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to employ such assistant engineers and other employees as may be necessary, paying such compensation as they may determine; and the said commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the navigation and canal commissioners on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them; and such commissioners shall have the authority to draw warrant or warrants in payment of such legal services, and for the salary of the engineer, his assistant, or any other employees, and for all expense incident and pertaining to the navigation district.

SEC. 45. Neither the county judge of any county in said navigation district, nor any county commissioner of said counties, nor members of the navigation board or engineer shall be directly or indirectly interested for themselves, or as agents for any one else, in the contract for the construction of any work to be performed by such navigation district.

SEC. 46. All navigation districts established under this Act may, by and through the navigation and canal commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this State in the name of such navigation district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all districts. [Acts 1925, p. 7.]

CHAPTER TEN.

PILOTS.

1. PILOT BOARDS.

|------------------------------|--------------|------------------------------|--------------|
| Governor to appoint | Article 8264 | Regulations and rates | Article 8267 |
| Duties of board | 8265 | Settlement of disputes | 8268 |
| Pilots' qualifications | 8266 | Boards in small ports | 8269 |

Art. 8264. [6299] [3790] Governor to appoint.—The Governor shall appoint, with the consent of the Senate, for each port whose population and circumstances warrant it, and also for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, a board of five persons of respectable standing, under the denomination of “commissioners of pilots” for such port and bays, three of whom shall be practical seamen and the other two merchants, who shall be commissioned by the Governor for the term of two years; and the Governor shall, during the recess of the Legislature, be authorized to suspend, until the next session of the same, any of said commissioners, and to fill, until the same period, any vacancies in the board caused by death, resignation or otherwise. No member of the board of commissioners shall be directly or indirectly pecuniarily interested in any pilot boat or branch pilot in the business of their trust. [Acts 1846, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1385; Acts 1861, p. 19; P. D. 4762, 4775; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8265. [6300] [3791] Duties of board.—Said board of commissioners shall be authorized, if they deem it advisable, to examine and decide on the qualifications of any branch or deputy pilot whom they find already appointed at the time of their organization; and it shall be their duty to examine each new applicant for the office of branch or deputy pilot, and to decide on his qualifications, recommending to the Governor, where new appointments are proper, such as are meritorious; and it shall also be their duty to examine into any cause of alleged or supposed misconduct or inefficiency in branch or deputy pilots; and they shall be authorized, after a due hearing of accusation, testimony and defense, to suspend such pilot if sufficient cause appear, and during such suspension he shall not be allowed to exercise the functions of his office; the Governor shall, however, have power at his will and pleasure to remove any branch pilot, or to reinstate any one of the same who has been suspended by the commissioners. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4763; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8266. [6301] [3792] Pilots' qualifications.—The board shall require a certain term of residence in this State, not less than two years, to authorize any person to exercise the functions of branch pilot for their port or said bays; as also to establish a term of probation, not exceeding one year, as a deputy pilot before any person can exercise the functions of branch pilot. [Id.]

Art. 8267. [6302] [3793] Regulations and rates. — The board shall have authority, within the limits provided in this subdivision, to fix rates of pilotage, and to establish regulations respecting the stations whereat and the times wherein pilots shall be on duty, with provisions for leave of absence; as also respecting the class, condition, number and use of pilot boats, and such other minor regulations, compatible with the provisions of this subdivision as may be needed for the government of pilots and for the order and good effect of the proceedings of the board, of which proceedings a record shall be kept; provided, no regulation shall be adopted repugnant to the Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 8268. [6303] [3794] Settlement of disputes. — The board shall be authorized and required to hear and determine all disputes that may arise respecting pilots and pilotage; to award to pilots extra compensation for extra services to vessels in distress; as also compensation for injurious loss of time incurred by pilots in waiting on vessels or by being carried off to sea on vessels by default of the master or owner when such pilots might have been landed; provided, always, that no more than three dollars for each day shall be awarded for mere loss of time; and said board shall superintend and generally attend to all matters appertaining to pilots and pilotage; but from any decision of said board an appeal may be taken to the court having cognizance of the case. [Id.]

Art. 8269. [6304] [3795] Boards in small ports.—At any port whose population and circumstances do not warrant the appointment of a board of commissioners of pilots in the manner before provided, the Governor may authorize the county judge of the county to appoint a provisional committee of from three to five persons of good character and maritime experience who shall be authorized under this chapter to establish the rates of pilotage and the rules for governing pilots; to examine the qualifications of pilots and applicants for the office; to investigate the case of any pilot charged with misconduct or inefficiency, and to suspend him if sufficient cause appear. [Id.]

2. BRANCH AND DEPUTY PILOTS.

| Pilotage | 3274 | Bays | 8279 |
| Exemptions from extra pilotage..... | 3275 | Rules for branch pilots applicable..... | 8280 |

Art. 8270. [6305] [3796] Appointment.—The Governor shall appoint at each of the ports such number of branch pilots as may from time to time be necessary, each of whom shall hold his office for the term of two years. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4761; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8271. [6306] [3797] Bond and oath.—Each branch pilot shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the board of commissioners of pilots for the port, or if there be no such board, by the county judge of the county in which the port is situated, and forwarded to the Governor. Each pilot shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be endorsed on said bond, and together with the bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such port is situated before being forwarded to the Governor. Certified copies of said bonds, under the hand and seal of the county clerk, may be used as evidence in all the courts with like effect as the originals. [Id.; Acts 1861, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8272. [6307] [3798] May appoint deputies.—Each branch pilot may appoint subject to examination and approval by the board of commissioners, two deputies, for whose acts the branch pilot so appointed shall be responsible; and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said board shall forfeit his own appointment and said board shall have authority to restrict all deputy pilots from piloting over the bar vessels of over a certain draught of water. [Id.]

Art. 8273. [6308] [3799] Malfesance.—Any branch or deputy pilot in a state of inebriety who shall take charge of a vessel shall, upon proof of the same, for the first offense be suspended for one month, and for the second offense be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity. If any branch or deputy pilot shall wilfully or by neglect cause the wreck of a vessel, he shall be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity. [Id.]

Art. 8274. [6309] [3800] Pilotage.—The rate of pilotage on any class of vessels shall not, in any port of this State, exceed four dollars for each foot of water which the vessel at the time of piloting draws, and whenever a vessel, except of the classes below excepted, shall decline the services of a pilot, offered outside the bar, and shall enter the port without the aid of one, she shall be liable to the first pilot whose services she so declined for the payment of half pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot, shall go out without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who brought her in, or if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, though offered outside, she shall on so going out be liable for the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who had first offered his services before she came in, but if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, or the offer of one outside, she shall not, in case of going out without a pilot, be liable to half pilotage. At any port where vessels shall receive or discharge their cargoes at an anchorage outside of the bar, such vessel shall be liable to pilotage at the above rate to such anchorage, but shall not be liable for or compelled to pay pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and if any vessel bound from open sea to such anchorage, while under way, shall decline the services of a pilot, and shall afterward receive or discharge any portion of her cargo at such anchorage on the lighters or otherwise, she shall be liable for the payment of half pilotage, at the above rate to such anchorage to the first pilot whose services shall have been tendered to and declined by her, but not liable for any pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and when a pilot takes charge of a vessel twenty miles outside of the bar, and brings her to it, he shall be entitled to one-fourth pilotage for such off-shore service, in addition to what he is entitled to recover for bringing her in, but if such off-shore service be declined, no portion of said compensation shall be recovered. [Acts 1866, pp. 14, 15; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 932; Acts 1879, p. 99; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1399.]

Art. 8275. [6310] [3801] Exemptions from extra pilotage.—The following classes of vessels shall be free from any charge for pilotage, unless for actual service, to-wit: All vessels of twenty tons and under, all vessels of whatsoever burthen owned in this State and registered and licensed in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port of this State; all vessels of seventy-five tons and under owned and licensed for the coasting trade in any part of the United States, when arriving from or departing to any port in the State of Texas; all vessels of seventy-five tons or under owned in this State and licensed for the coasting trade in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port in the United States. [Id.]

Art. 8276. [6311] [3802] Consignee responsible for pilotage.—The consignee of any vessel shall be held responsible for the pilotage of said vessel. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4772; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8277. [6312] [3803] Unauthorized pilot: liability.—If any person not appointed a branch or deputy pilot shall pilot any ship or vessel out of or into any port when a branch or deputy pilot has offered such service, the person so piloting shall forfeit and pay to such branch or deputy pilot the sum of fifty dollars to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 8278. [6313-14] Pilots for mouth of Brazos.—The Governor shall also appoint a sufficient number of competent pilots for the mouth of the Brazos River, whose terms of office, mode of qualification and pilotage shall be the same as prescribed in the preceding articles for branch pilots; and they shall be entitled to all the privileges and shall exercise all the powers, and discharge all the duties prescribed for branch pilots, and be subject to like penalties. The county judge of Brazoria County shall approve the bond of any such pilot. [Acts 1848, p. 144; P. D. 4776, 4782; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 144.]

Art. 8279. [6315-16-17] Pilots for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays.—The Governor shall also appoint not less than two nor more than four competent pilots for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays, from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, who shall hold their offices for the same term as branch pilots, and whose mode of qualification, powers and privileges, in so far as the same are applicable, shall be the same; the bonds of such pilots shall be approved by the county judge of Calhoun County. Such pilots shall keep the channels of said bays properly staked and marked out, and in default thereof they shall be subject to removal or suspension. The rate of pilotage for said bays shall be two dollars and fifty cents for each foot of water the vessel may draw at the time of piloting; and all vessels that may draw five feet or more shall be subject to pay any licensed pilot for said bays, whose services are tendered and declined; one-half the pilotage herein prescribed. [Acts 1861, p. 19; P. D. 4775; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8280. [6318-19] Rules for branch pilots applicable.—All the provisions of this chapter relating to branch pilots at ports in so far as the same are applicable and not expressly qualified, shall apply to and govern pilots appointed for the mouth of the Brazos River and for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays. If any person not a licensed pilot or deputy shall pilot any vessel into or out of the mouth of said river or through the channel of said bays, up or down, he shall forfeit and pay to any pilot licensed or commissioned for the mouth of said river, or for said bays, full pilotage for such vessel, to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 8281. [7855] [5333] [4857] Who may execute.—Every person aged twenty-one years or upward, or who may be or may have been lawfully married, being of sound mind, shall have power to make a last will and testament, under the rules and limitations prescribed by law. [Acts 1840, p. 167; Acts 1856, p. 5; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 341; Vol. 4, p. 423.]

Art. 8282. [7856] [5334] [4858] May pass estate.—Every person competent to make a last will and testament may thereby devise and bequeath all the estate, right, title and interest in possession, reversion or remainder, which he has, or at the time of his death shall have, of, in or to any lands, tenements, hereditaments or rents charged upon or issuing out of them, or shall have of, in or to any personal property whatever, subject to the limitations prescribed by law. [P. D. 5361-2.]

Art. 8283. [7857] [5335] [4859] Requisites.—Every last will and testament except where otherwise provided by law, shall be in writing and signed by the testator or by some other person by his direction and in his presence, and shall, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses above the age of fourteen years, subscribing their names thereto in the presence of the testator. [Acts Jan. 28, 1840; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 341.]

Art. 8284. [7858] [5336] [4860] Exception.—Where the will is wholly written by the testator the attestation of the subscribing witnesses may be dispensed with. [Id.]

Art. 8285. [7859] [5337] [4861] Cancellation.—No will in writing, made in conformity with the preceding articles, nor any clause thereof or devise therein, shall be revoked, except by a subsequent will, codicil or declaration in writing, executed with like formalities, or by the testator destroying, canceling or obliterating the same, or causing it to be done in his presence.

Art. 8286. [7860] [5338] [4862] Nuncupative will.—Any person who is competent to make a last will and testament, under Articles 8281 and 8282 may dispose of his property by a nuncupative will made under the conditions and limitations hereinafter prescribed. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 8287. [7861] [5339] [4863] Requisites.—No nuncupative will shall be established, unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the decesad, at his habitation or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick from home and dies before he returns to such habitation; nor when the value exceeds thirty dollars, unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 8288. [7862] [5340] [4864] Notice and proof.—No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor until those who would have been entitled by inheritance, had there been no will, have been summoned to contest the same, if they desire to do so. [P. D. 5371.]

Art. 8289. [7863] [5341] [4865] Testimony.—After six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove a nuncupative will, unless the testimony or the substance thereof, shall have been committed to writing within six days after making the will. [P. D. 5367.]

Art. 8290. [7864] [5342] [4866] Soldier's will.—Any soldier in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his chattels without regard to the provisions of this title. [P. D. 5369.]

Art. 8291. [7865] [5343] [4867] Posthumous children.—When a testator shall have children born and his wife enceinte, the posthumous child, if unprovided for by settlement and pretermitted by his last will and testament, shall succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as such child would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 8292. [7866] [5344] [4868] After-born child.—If a testator having a child or children born at the time of making his last will and testament, shall at his death, leave a child or children born after the making of such last will and testament, the child or children so after born and pretermitted shall, unless provided for by settlement, succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as they would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward raising which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament, in the same manner as is provided in Article 8291. [P. D. 5364.]

Art. 8293. [7867] [5345] [4869] Validity.—Every last will and testament made when the testator had no child living, wherein any child he might have is not provided for or mentioned, if at the time of his death he shall leave a child, or leave his wife enceinte of a child which shall be born, shall have no effect during the life of such after-born child, and shall be void, unless the child die without having been married and before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 8294. [7868] [5346] [4870] Descendants.—Under the name of “children” as used in this title, are included descendants of whatever degree they may be, it being understood that they are only counted for the child they represent. [P. D. 5373.]

Art. 8295. [7869] [5347] [4871] Prior death of legatee.—Where a testator shall devise or bequeath an estate or interest of any kind by will to a child or other descendant of such testator, should such devisee or legatee, during the lifetime of the testator, die leaving children or descendants who shall survive such testator, such devise or legacy shall not lapse by reason of such death; but the estate so devised or bequeathed shall vest in the children or descendants of such legatee or devisee in the same manner as if he had survived the testator and died intestate. [P. D. 5365.]

Art. 8296. [7870] [5348] [4872] Bequest to witness.—Should any person be subscribing witness to a will, and be also a legatee or devisee therein, if the will cannot be otherwise established, such bequest shall be void, and such witness shall be allowed and compelled to appear and give his testimony in like manner as if no such bequest had been made. But, if in such case the witness would have been entitled to a share of the estate of the testator had there been no will, he shall be entitled to so much of such share as shall not exceed the value of the bequest to him in the will. [Acts 1875, p. 179; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 551.]

Art. 8297. [7871] [5349] [4873] Proof by witness.—In the case provided for in the preceding article, such will may be proved by the evidence of the subscribing witnesses, corroborated by the testimony of one or more other disinterested and credible persons, to the effect that the testimony of such subscribing witnesses necessary to sustain the will is substantially true; in which event the bequest to such subscribing witnesses shall not be void. [Id.]

Art. 8298. [7872] [5350] [4874] Separate property.—The husband or wife may, by last will and testament, give to the survivor of the marriage the power to keep his or her separate property together, until each of the several heirs shall become of lawful age, and to manage and control the same under the provisions of law relating to community property, and such other restrictions as may be imposed by such will; provided, the surviving husband or wife is the father or mother, as the case may be, of the minor heirs; and provided further, that any child or heir entitled to any part of said property shall, at any time upon becoming of age, be entitled to receive his distributive portion of said estate. [Acts 1856; p. 51; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 469.]

Art. 8299. [7873] [5351] [4875] Custody.—All original wills, together with the probate thereof, shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county wherein the same shall have been probated, and shall there remain, except during such time as they may be removed to some other court, by proper process, for inspection. [P. D. 5372.]

Art. 8300. [7874] [5352] [4876] Registration. — Every such will, together with the probate thereof, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county court in a book to be kept for that purpose; and certified copies of such will and the probate of the same, or of the record thereof, may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence as the original might be. [Id.]

Art. 8301. [7875] [5353] Foreign will.—When any will or testament, or testamentary instrument of any character, conveying or in any manner disposing of land in this State, has been duly probated according to the laws of any of the United States or territories, a copy thereof and its probate, attested by the clerk of the court in which such will and testament or testamentary instrument was admitted to probate, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate from the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, may be filed and recorded in the register of deeds in any county in which said real estate is situated, in the same manner as deeds and conveyances are required to be recorded, and without further proof or authentication; provided, that, at any time within four years from the date of the record of such will in this State, the validity of such will may be contested in a proceeding instituted for that purpose as the original might have been. [Acts 1887, p. 38; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 836.]

Art. 8302. [7876] [5354] Foreign will: registration. — A copy of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate so attested, together with the certificate that said attestation is in due form, as required by the preceding article, shall be prima facie evidence that said will has been duly admitted to probate, according to the laws of the State wherein it has been admitted to probate, and shall be sufficient to authorize the same to be recorded in the proper county or counties in this State. [Id.]

Art. 8303. [7877] [5355] Effective, when.—Every such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, which shall be attested and proven, as provided in the second preceding article, and delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded, shall take effect and be valid and effectual as a deed of conveyance of said property; and the record thereof shall have the same force and effect as the record of deeds or other conveyances to land from the time when such instrument was delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only. [Id.]

Art. 8304. [7878] [5356] Notice.—The record of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, duly attested and proven, as provided in the preceding articles, and duly made in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such will and testament, and of the title or titles conferred thereby. [Id.]

Art. 8305. Foreign trustee.—When by any foreign will, filed and recorded in this State, as authorized by the four preceding articles, power is given an executor or trustee to sell any real or personal property situated in this State, no order of court shall be necessary to authorize such executor or trustee to make such sale and execute proper conveyance, and whenever any particular directions are given by a testator in any such will respecting the sale of any such property situated in this State, belonging to his estate, the same shall be followed unless such directions have been annulled or suspended by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1915, p. 120.]

PART 1.

Art. 8306. Damages and compensation for personal injuries.—

Sec. 1. In an action to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by an employe in the course of his employment, or for death resulting from personal injury so sustained, it shall not be a defense:

1. That the employe was guilty of contributory negligence.
2. That the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow employe.

3. That the employe had assumed the risk of the injury incident to his employment; but such employer may defend in such action on the ground that the injury was caused by the willful intention of the employe to bring about the injury, or was so caused while the employe was in a state of intoxication.

4. In all such actions against an employer who is not a subscriber, as defined hereafter in this law, it shall be necessary to a recovery for the plaintiff to prove negligence of such employer or some agent or servant of such employer acting within the general scope of his employment. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 2. The provisions of this law shall not apply to actions to recover damages for personal injuries nor for death resulting from personal injuries sustained by domestic servants, farm laborers, ranch laborers, nor to employes of any firm, person or corporation having in his or their employ less than three employes, nor to the employes of any person, firm or corporation operating any steam, electric, street, or interurban railway as a common carrier. Any employer of three or more employes at the time of becoming a subscriber shall remain a subscriber subject to all the rights, liabilities, duties and exemptions of such, notwithstanding after having become a subscriber the number of employes may at times be less than three. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1921, p. 221.]

Sec. 3. The employes of a subscriber and the parents of minor employes shall have no right of action against their employer or against any agent, servant or employe of said employer for damages for personal injuries, and the representatives and beneficiaries of deceased employes shall have no right of action against such subscribing employer or his agent, servant or employe for damages for injuries resulting in death, but such employes and their representatives and beneficiaries shall look for compensation solely to the association, as the same is hereinafter provided for. All compensation allowed under the succeeding sections herein shall be exempt from garnishment, attachment, judgment and all other suits or claims, and no such right of action and no such compensation and no part thereof or of either shall be assignable, except as otherwise herein provided, and any attempt to assign the same shall be void. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 385.]

Sec. 3a. An employe of a subscriber shall be held to have waived his right of action at common law or under any statute of this State to recover damages for injuries sustained in the course of his employment if he shall not have given his employer, at the time of his contract of hire, notice in writing that he claimed said right or if the contract of hire was made before the employer became a subscriber, if the employe shall not have given the said notice within five days of notice of such subscription. An employe who has given notice to his employer that he claimed his right of action at common law or under any statute may thereafter waive such claim by notice in writing, which shall take effect five days after its delivery to his employer or his agent. Any employe of a subscriber who has not waived his right of action at common law or under any statute to recover damages for injury sustained in the course of his employment, as above provided in this section, shall, as well as his legal beneficiaries and representatives have his or their cause of action for such injuries as now exist by the common law and statutes of this State, which action shall be subject to all defenses under the common law and statutes of this State. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 3b. If an employe who has not given notice of his claim of common law or statutory rights of action, or who has given such notice and waived the same, sustains an injury in the course of his employment, he shall be paid compensation by the association as hereinafter provided, if his employer is a subscriber at the time of the injury. [Id.]

Sec. 3c. From and after the time of the receipt by the Industrial Accident Board of notice from any employer that the latter has become a subscriber under this law, all employes of said subscriber then and thereafter employed, shall be conclusively deemed to have notice of the fact that such subscriber has provided with the association for the payment of compensation under this law. If any employer ceases to be a subscriber he shall on or before the date on which his policy expires give notice to that effect to the Industrial Accident Board, and to such subscribers' employes by posting notices to that effect in three public places around such subscribers' plant. [Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 4. Employes whose employers are not at the time of the injury subscribers to said association, and the representatives and beneficiaries of deceased employes who at the time of the injury were working for non-subscribing employers can not participate in the benefits of said insurance association, but they shall be entitled to bring suit and may recover judgment against such employers, or any of them, for all damages, sustained by reason of any personal injury received in the course of employment or by reason of death resulting from such injury, and the provisions of section 1 of this law shall be applied in all such actions. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 5. Nothing in this law shall be taken or held to prohibit the recovery of exemplary damages by the surviving husband, wife, heirs of his or her body, or such of them as there may be of any deceased employe whose death is occasioned by homicide from the wilful act or omission or gross negligence of any person, firm or corporation from the employer of such employe at the time of the injury causing the death of the latter. In any suit so brought for exemplary damages the trial shall be de novo, and no presumption shall exist that any award, ruling or finding of the Industrial Accident Board was correct. In any such suit, such award, ruling or finding shall neither be pleaded nor offered in evidence. [Id.]

Sec. 6. No compensation shall be paid under this law for an injury which does not incapacitate the employe for a period of at least one week from earning full wages, but if incapacity extends beyond one week compensation shall begin to accrue on the eighth day after the injury. The medical aid, hospital services, and medicines, as provided for in Section 7 hereof, shall be supplied as and when needed and according to the terms and provisions of said Section 7. If incapacity does not follow at once after the infliction of the injury or within eight days thereof but does result subsequently, compensation shall begin to accrue with the eighth day after the date incapacity commenced. In any event the employe shall be entitled to the medical aid, hospital services and medicines provided in this law. [Id.]

Sec. 7. During the first four weeks of the injury, dating from the date of its infliction, the association shall furnish reasonable medical aid, hospital services and medicines. If the association fails to so furnish same as and when needed during the time specified after notice of the injury to the association or subscriber, the injured employe may provide said medical aid, hospital service and medicines at the cost and expense of the association. The employe shall not be entitled to recover any amount expended or incurred by him for said medical aid, hospital services or medicines nor shall any person who supplied the same be entitled to recover of the association thereof, unless the association or subscriber shall have had notice of the injury and shall have refused, failed or neglected to furnish it or them within a reasonable time. At the time of the injury or immediately thereafter, if necessary, the employe shall have the right to call in any available physician or surgeon to administer first aid treatment as may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the association. During the fourth or any subsequent week of continuous total incapacity requiring the confinement to a hospital, the association shall, upon application of the attending physician or surgeon certifying the necessity therefor to the Industrial Accident Board and to the association, furnish such additional hospital services as may be deemed necessary not to exceed one week, unless at the end of such additional week the attending physician shall certify to the necessity for another week of hospital services or so much thereof as may be needed. Such additional hospital services as are herein provided shall not be held to include any obligation on the part of the association to pay for medical or surgical services not ordinarily provided by hospitals as a part of their services. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 7a. If it be shown that the association is furnishing medical aid, hospital services and medicines provided for by Section 7 hereof in such manner that there is reasonable ground for believing that the life, health or recovery of the employe is being endangered or impaired thereby, the board may order a change in the physician or other requirements of said section. If the association fails promptly to comply with such order after receiving it, the board may permit the employe or some one for him to provide the same at the expense of the association under such reasonable regulations as may be provided by said board. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 7b. All fees and charges under Sections 7 and 7a hereof shall be fair and reasonable, shall be subject to regulation of the board and shall be limited to such charges as are reasonable for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living where such treatment is paid for by the injured person himself or some one acting for him. In determining what fees are reasonable, the board may also consider the increased security of payment afforded by this law. Where such medical aid, hospital service or medicines are furnished by a public hospital or other institution, payment thereof shall be made to the proper authorities conducting the same, and the amount so paid shall be promptly reported to the board. [Id.]

Sec. 7c. All fees of attorneys for representing claimants before the board under the provisions of this law shall be subject to the approval of the board. No attorney's fees for representing claimants before the board shall be allowed or approved against any party or parties not represented by such attorney, nor exceeding an amount equal to fifteen per cent of the amount of the first one thousand dollars or fraction thereof recovered, nor ten per cent of the excess of such recovery, if any, over one thousand dollars, in addition to the reasonable expenses incurred by the attorney in the preparation and presentation of the said claim before the board, such expenses to be allowed by the board. Where an attorney represents only a part of those interested in the allowance of a claim before the board and his services in prosecuting such claim and obtaining an award therein inures to the benefit of others jointly interested therein, then the board may take these facts into consideration and allow the attorney a reasonable charge, to be assessed against the interest of those receiving benefits from the service of such attorney. The attorney's fees herein provided for may be redeemed by the association by the payment of a lump sum or may be commuted by agreement of the parties subject to the approval of the board, but not until the claim represented by said attorney has been finally determined by the board and recognized and accepted by the association. After the approval, as first above provided for, if the association be notified in writing of such claim or agreement for legal services, the same shall be a lien against any amount thereafter to be paid as compensation; provided, that where the employe's compensation is payable by the association in periodical installments the Board shall fix at the time of approval the proportion of each installment to be paid on account of said legal services. [Id.]

Sec. 7d. For representing the interest of any claimant in any manner carried from the board into the courts, it shall be lawful for the attorney representing such interest to contract with any beneficiary under this law for an attorney's fee for such representation, not to exceed one third of the amount recovered, such fee for services so rendered to be fixed and allowed by the trial court in which such matter may be heard and determined. [Id.]

Sec. 8. If death should result from the injury the association hereinafter created shall pay the legal beneficiaries of the deceased employe a weekly payment equal to sixty per cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than $20.00 nor less than $7.00 per week, for a period of three hundred and sixty weeks from the date of the injury. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 8a. The compensation provided for in the foregoing section of this law shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the surviving husband who has not for good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned his wife at the time of the injury, and of the wife who has not at the time of the injury without good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned her husband, and of the minor children, parents and stepmother, without regard to the question of dependency, dependent grandparents, dependent children and dependent brothers and sisters of the deceased employe; and the amount recovered thereunder shall not be liable for the debts of the deceased nor the debts of the beneficiary or beneficiaries and shall be distributed among the beneficiaries as may be entitled to the same as hereinbefore provided according to the laws of descent and distribution of this State; provided the right in such beneficiary or beneficiaries to recover compensation for death be determined by the facts that exist at the date of the death of the deceased and that said right be a complete, absolute and vested one. Such compensation shall not pass to the estate of the deceased to be administered upon, but shall be paid directly to said beneficiaries when the same are capable of taking, under the laws of this State, or to their guardian or next friend, in case of lunacy, infancy or other disqualifying cause of any beneficiary. The compensation provided for in this law shall be paid weekly to the beneficiaries herein specified, subject to the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 8b. In case death occurs as a result of the injury after a period of total or partial incapacity, for which compensation has been paid, the period of incapacity shall be deducted from the total period of compensation and the benefits paid thereunder from the maximum allowed for the death. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 9. If the deceased employe leaves no legal beneficiaries, the association shall pay all expenses incident to his last sickness as a result of the injury and in addition a funeral benefit not to exceed $100.00. Where any deceased employe leaves legal beneficiaries, but is buried at the expense of his employer or any other person, the expense of such burial, not to exceed $100.00, shall be payable out of the compensation due the beneficiary or beneficiaries of such deceased employe, subject to the approval of the board. [Id.]

Sec. 10. While the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is total, the association shall pay the injured employe a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than $20.00 nor less than $7.00 and in no case shall the period covered by such compensation be greater than four hundred and one weeks from the date of the injury. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 11. While the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is partial, the association shall pay the injured employe a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of the difference between his average weekly wages before the injury and his average weekly wage earning capacity during the existence of such partial incapacity, but in no case more than $20.00 per week. The period covered by such compensation shall be in no case greater than three hundred weeks; provided that in no case shall the period of compensation for total and partial incapacity exceed four hundred and one weeks from the date of injury. [Id.]

Sec. 12. For the injuries enumerated in the following schedule the employe shall receive in lieu of all other compensation except medical aid, hospital services and medicines as elsewhere herein provided, a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of the average weekly wages of such employe, but not less than $7.00 per week nor exceeding $20.00 per week, for the respective periods stated herein, to-wit:

For the loss of a thumb, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during sixty weeks.

For the loss of a first finger, commonly called the index finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during forty-five weeks.

For the loss of a second finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during thirty weeks.

For the loss of a third finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during twenty-one weeks.

For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly known as the little finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during fifteen weeks.

The loss of the second or distal phalange of the thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of such thumb; the loss of more than one-half of such thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole thumb.

The loss of the third or distal phalange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-third of such finger.

The loss of more than the middle and distal phalange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole finger; provided that in no case shall the amount received for the loss of a thumb and more than one finger on the same hand exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

For the loss of the metacarpal bone (bone or palm) for the corresponding thumb, finger or fingers above, add ten weeks to the number of weeks as above subject to the limitation that in no case shall the amount received for the loss or injury to any one hand be more than for the loss of the hand.

For ankylosis (total stiffness of) or contracture (due to scars or injuries) which make the fingers useless, the same number of weeks shall apply to such finger or fingers or parts of fingers (not thumb) as given above.

For the loss of a hand, sixty per cent of the average weekly wage during one hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an arm at or above the elbow, sixty per cent of the average weekly wage during two hundred weeks.

For the loss of one of the toes other than the great toe, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during ten weeks.

For the loss of the great toe, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during thirty weeks.

The loss of more than two-thirds of any toe shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole toe.

The loss of less than two-thirds of any toe shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of the toe.

For the loss of a foot, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred and twenty-five weeks.

For the loss of a leg at or above the knee, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during two hundred weeks.

For the total and permanent loss of the sight of one eye, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred weeks.

In the foregoing enumerated cases of permanent, partial incapacity, it shall be considered that the permanent loss of the use of a member shall be equivalent to and draw the same compensation as the loss of that member.

For the complete and permanent loss of the hearing in both ears, sixty per cent of the weekly wages during one hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and leg above the knee, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and an arm above the elbow, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and a hand, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and twenty-five weeks.

For the loss of an eye and a foot, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred weeks.

Where the employe sustains concurrent injuries resulting in concurrent incapacities, he shall receive compensation only for the injury which produces the longest period of incapacity; but this section shall not affect liability for the concurrent loss or the loss of the use thereof of more than one member, for which member compensation is provided in this schedule, compensation for specific injuries under this law shall be cumulative as to time and not concurrent.

In all cases of permanent partial incapacity it shall be considered that the permanent loss of the use of the member is equivalent to, and shall draw the same compensation as, the loss of that member; but the compensation in and by said schedule provided shall be in lieu of all other compensation in such cases.

In all other cases of partial incapacity, including any disfigurement which will impair the future usefulness or occupational opportunities of the injured employe, compensation shall be determined according to the percentage of incapacity, taking into account among other things any previous incapacity, the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employe, and the age at the time of injury. The compensation paid therefor shall be sixty per cent of the average weekly wages of the employes but not to exceed $20.00 per week, multiplied by the percentage of incapacity caused by the injury for such period not exceeding three hundred weeks as the board may determine. Whenever the weekly payments under this paragraph would be less than $3.00 per week, the period may be shortened, and the payments correspondingly increased by the board. [Acts 1923, p. 386.]

Sec. 12a. If the injured employe refuses employment reasonably suited to his incapacity and physical condition, procured for him in the locality where injured or at a place agreeable to him, he shall not be entitled to compensation during the period of such refusal, unless in opinion of the board such refusal is justifiable. This section shall not apply in cases of specific injuries for which a schedule is fixed by this law. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 12b. In all claims for hernia resulting from injury sustained in the course of employment, it must be definitely proven to the satisfaction of the board:

1. That there was an injury resulting in hernia.
2. That the hernia appeared suddenly and immediately following the injury.
3. That the hernia did not exist in any degree prior to the injury for which compensation is claimed.
4. That the injury was accompanied by pain.

In all such cases where liability for compensation exists, the association shall provide competent surgical treatment by radical operation: In case the injured employe refuses to submit to the operation, the board shall immediately order a medical examination of such employe by a physician or physicians of its own selection at a time and place to be by them named, at which examination the employe and the association, or either of them, shall have the right to have his or their physician present. The physician or physicians so selected shall make to the board a written report, signed and sworn to, setting forth the facts developed at such examination and giving his or their opinion as to the advisability or non-advisability of an operation. If it be shown to the board by such examination and such report thereof and the expert opinions thereon that the employe has any chronic disease or is otherwise in such physical condition as to render it more than ordinarily unsafe to submit to such operation he shall, if unwilling to submit to the operation, be entitled to compensation for incapacity under the general provisions of this law. If the examination and the written report thereof and the expert opinions thereon then on file before the board do not show to the board the existence of disease or other physical condition rendering the operation more than ordinarily unsafe and the board shall unanimously so find and so reduce its findings to writing and file the same in the case and furnish the employe and the association with a copy of its findings, then if the employe with the knowledge of the result of such examination, such report, such opinions and such findings, thereafter refuses to submit within a reasonable time, which time shall be fixed in the findings of the board, to such operation, he shall be entitled to compensation for incapacity under the general provisions of this law for a period not exceeding one year.

If the employe submits to the operation and the same is successful, which shall be determined by the board, he shall in addition to the surgical benefits herein provided for be entitled to compensation for twenty-six weeks from the date of the operation. If such operation is not successful and does not result in death, he shall be paid compensation under the general provisions of this law the same as if such operation had not been had; other than in determining the compensation to be paid to the employe, the board may take into consideration any minor benefits that accrued to the employe by reason thereof or any aggra-vation or increased injury which accrued to him by reason thereof.

If the hernia results in death within one year after it is sustained, or the operation results in death, such death shall be held a result of the injury causing such hernia and compensated accordingly under this law. This paragraph shall not apply where the employe has wilfully refused to submit to an operation which has been found by the examination herein provided for not to be more than ordinarily unsafe. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 12c. If an employe who has suffered a previous injury shall suffer a subsequent injury which results in a condition of incapacity to which both injuries or their effects have contributed, the association shall be liable because of such injury only for the compensation to which the subsequent injury would have entitled the injured employe had there been no previous injury. [Id.]

Sec. 12d. Upon its own motion or upon the application of any person interested showing a change of conditions, mistake, or fraud, the board at any time within the compensation period may review any award or order, ending, diminishing or increasing compensation previously awarded within the maximum and minimum provided in this law, or change or revoke its previous order, sending immediately to the parties a copy of its subsequent order or award. Review under this section shall be only upon notice to the parties interested. [Id.]

Sec. 12e. In all cases where liability for compensation exists for an injury sustained by an employe in the course of his employment and a surgical operation for such injury will effect a cure of the employe or will materially and beneficially improve his condition, the association or the employe may demand that a surgical operation be had upon the employe as herein provided, and the association shall provide and pay for all necessary surgical treatment, medicines and hospital services incident to the performance of said operation, provided the same is had. In case either of said parties demands in writing to the board such operation, the board shall immediately order a medical examination of the employe in the same manner as is provided for in the section of this law relating to hernia. If it be shown by the examination, report of facts and opinions of experts, all reduced to writing and filed with the board, that such operation is advisable and will relieve the condition of the injured employe or will materially benefit him, the board shall so state in writing and upon unanimous order of said board in writing, a copy of which shall be delivered to the employe and the association, shall direct the employe at a time and place therein stated to submit himself to an operation for said injury. If the board should find that said operation is not advisable, then the employe shall continue to be compensated for his incapacity under the general provisions of this law. If the board shall unanimously find and so state in writing that said operation is advisable, it shall make its order to that effect, stating the time and place when and where such operation is to be performed, naming the physicians therein who shall perform said operation, and if the employe refuses to submit to such operation, the board may order or direct the association to suspend the whole or any part of his compensation during the time of said period of refusal. The results of such operation, the question as to whether the injured employe shall be required to submit thereto and the benefits and liabilities arising therefrom shall attach, be treated, handled and determined by the board in the same way as is provided in the case of hernia in this law. [Id.]

Sec. 12f. In all cases where a subscriber or the association has in his or its employ a physician or physicians regularly paid in any manner whatsoever by such subscriber or association to administer to or treat injured employes, the name or names of such physicians at the date of employment of the same shall be filed with the board together with a copy of the contract of such employment. If the contract of such physician or physicians is not in writing, then the same shall be reduced to writing and a copy thereof filed with the board. Such contract shall state fully the extent and scope of the employment and the compensation to be paid such physician or physicians. If the association or subscriber willfully fails or refuses to comply with this provision of this law, then an injured employe or any person acting for him shall have the right to provide hospital services, medical aid and medicine for said injured employe, at the expense of and the same shall be charged to the association, and the subscriber or association shall notify the employe at or before the time of injury what physician or physicians are contracted with to treat his or its employes. [Id.]

Sec. 12g. It shall be unlawful for any subscriber or any employer who seeks to comply with the provisions of this law to either directly or indirectly collect of or from his employes by any means or pretense whatever any premium under this law or part thereof paid or to be paid upon any policy of such insurance under this law which covers such employes, or any intended policy of such insurance designed to cover such employes. If any such subscriber or any employer of labor in this State violates this provision of this law, then any employe or the legal beneficiary of any employe of such employer or subscriber shall be entitled to all the benefits of this law and in addition thereto shall have a separate right of action to recover damages against such employer without regard to the compensation paid or to be paid to such employe or beneficiary under this law. The association shall in no wise be responsible because of such separate action by such employe or beneficiary against such employer on such separate cause of action. [Id.]

Sec. 12h. Every contract or agreement of an employer, the purpose of which is to indemnify him from loss or damage on account of the injury of an employe by accidental means or on account of the negligence of such employer or his officer, agent or servant, shall be absolutely void unless it also covers liability for the payment of the compensation provided for by this law. This section shall not apply to employers of labor who are not eligible under the terms hereof to become subscribers thereto, nor to employers whose employes have elected to reject the provisions of this law, nor to employers eligible to come under the terms of this law who do not elect to do so, but who choose to carry insurance upon their employes independently of this law and without attempting in such insurance to provide compensation under the terms of this law. Any evasion of this section whereby an insurance company shall undertake, under the guise of writing insurance against the risk of the employers who do not see proper to come under this law, to write insurance substantially or in any material respect similar to the insurance provided for by this law shall render such insurance void as provided for in this section. [Id.]

Sec. 12i. If it be established that the injured employe was a minor when injured and that under normal condition his wages would be expected to increase, that fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages and compensation may be fixed accordingly. This section shall not be considered as authorizing the employment of a minor in any hazardous employment which is prohibited by any statute of this State. [Id.]

Sec. 13. If an injured employe is mentally incompetent or is a minor or is under any other disqualifying cause at the time when any rights or privileges accrue to him or exist under this law, his guardian or next friend may in his behalf claim and exercise such rights and privileges except as otherwise herein provided. In case of partial incapacity or temporary total incapacity, payment of compensation may be made direct to the minor and his receipt taken therefor, if the authority to so pay and receipt therefor is first obtained from the board. [Id.]

Sec. 14. No agreement by any employe to waive his rights to compensation under this law shall be valid. [Id.]

Sec. 15. In cases where death or total permanent incapacity results from an injury, the liability of the association may be redeemed by payment of a lump sum by agreement of the parties thereto, subject to the approval of the Industrial Accident Board. This section shall be construed as excluding any other character of lump sum settlement except as herein specified. In special cases where in the judgment of the board manifest hardship and injustice would otherwise result, the board may compel the association in the cases provided for in this section to redeem their liability by payment of a lump sum as may be determined by the board. [Id.]

Sec. 15a. In any case where compensation is payable weekly at a definite sum and for a definite period, and it appears to the board that the amount of compensation being paid is inadequate to meet the necessities of the employe or beneficiary, the board shall have the power to increase the amount of compensation by correspondingly decreasing the number of weeks for which the same is to be paid allowing discount for present payment at legal rate of interest; provided that in no case shall the amount to which it is increased exceed the amount of the average weekly wages upon which the compensation is based; provided it is not intended hereby to prevent lump sum settlement when approved by the board. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 16. In all cases of injury resulting in death, where such injury was sustained in the course of employment, cause of action shall survive. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 17. Non-resident alien beneficiaries and resident alien beneficiaries shall be entitled to compensation under this law. Non-resident alien beneficiaries may be officially represented by the consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects, and in such cases the consular officers shall have the right to receive for distribution for such non-resident alien beneficiaries all compensation awarded hereunder, and the receipt of such consular officers shall be a full discharge of all sums paid to and received by them. The association may at any time, subject to the approval of the board, commute all future installments of compensation payable to alien beneficiaries, not resident of the United States, by paying to such alien beneficiaries the sum agreed upon and filing receipts therefor with the board. [Id.]

Sec. 18. It is the purpose of this law that the compensation herein provided for shall be paid from week to week and as it accrues and directly to the person entitled thereto, unless the liability is redeemed as in such cases provided elsewhere herein. If the association willfully fails or refuses to pay compensation as and when the same matures and accrues, the board shall notify said association that such is the course it is pursuing. If after such notice the association continues to willfully refuse and fail to meet these payments of compensation as provided for in this law, the board shall have the power to hold that such association is not complying with the provisions of this law, and shall certify such fact to the Commissioner of Insurance, and said certificate shall be sufficient cause to justify said Commissioner to revoke or forfeit the license or permit of such association to do business in Texas; provided, said power of the board shall not be held to deny the association the right to bring suit or suits to set aside any ruling, order or decision of the board. [Id.]

Sec. 19. If an employe who has been hired in this State sustained injury in the course of his employment he shall be entitled to compensation according to the law of this State, even though such injury was received outside of the State. [Id.]

PART 2.

Art. 8307. Industrial Accident Board.—

Sec. 1. The Industrial Accident Board shall consist of three members, one to be biennially appointed by the Governor for a term of six years. Said board shall have the powers, duties and functions hereinafter conferred. [Id.]

Sec. 2. At the time of each appointment one member of the Industrial Accident Board shall be an employer of labor in some industry or business covered by this law; one shall be employed in some business industry as a wage earner, and the third member shall be a practicing attorney of recognized ability, and shall act in the capacity of legal adviser to the board, in addition to his other duties as a member thereof, and be chairman of said board. [Id.]

Sec. 3. The board may appoint a secretary at a salary not to exceed $2,700.00 a year, and may appoint such other clerical and other assistants as may be necessary to properly administer this Act. It shall also be allowed a reasonable sum, the amount to be determined by the Legislature, for clerical and other services, office equipment, traveling expenses and all other expenses necessary. The board shall be provided suitable offices in the capitol where its records shall be kept. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 4. The board may make rules not inconsistent with this law for carrying out and enforcing its provisions, and may require any employe claiming to have sustained injury to submit himself for examination before such board or someone acting under its authority at some reasonable time and place within the State, and as often as may be reasonably ordered by the board to a physician or physicians authorized to practice under the laws of this State. If the employe or the association requests, he or it shall be entitled to have a physician or physicians of his or its own selection present to participate in such examination. Refusal of the employe to submit to such examination shall deprive him of his right to compensation during the continuance of such refusal. When a right to compensation is thus suspended no compensation shall be payable in respect to the period of suspension. If any employe shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to either imperil or retard his recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to promote his recovery, the board may in its discretion order or direct the association to reduce or suspend the compensation of any such injured employe. No compensation shall be reduced or suspended under the terms of this section without reasonable notice to the employe and an opportunity to be heard.

The association shall have the privilege of having any injured employe examined by a physician or physicians of its own selection, at reasonable times, at a place or places suitable to the condition of the injured employe and convenient and accessible to him. The association shall pay for such examination and the reasonable expense incident to the injured employe in submitting thereto. The injured employe shall have the privilege to have a physician or physicians of his own selection, at the expense of such injured employe, present to participate in such examination.

Process and procedure shall be as summary as may be under this law. The board or any member thereof shall have power to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, inquire into matters of fact, and to examine such parts of the books and records of the parties to a proceeding as relate to questions in dispute. All rulings and decisions of the board relating to disputed claims shall be upon questions of fact and in accord with the provisions of this law. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 4a. Unless the association or subscriber have notice of the injury, no proceeding for compensation for injury under this law shall be maintained unless a notice of the injury shall have been given to the association or subscriber within thirty days after the happening thereof, and unless a claim for compensation with respect to such injury shall have been made within six months after the occurrence of same; or, in case of death of the employe or in the event of his physical or mental incapacity, within six months after death or the removal of such physical or mental incapacity. For good cause the board may, in meritorious cases, waive the strict compliance with the foregoing limitations as to notice, and the filing the claim before the board. [Id.]

Sec. 5. All questions arising under this law, if not settled by agreement of the parties interested therein and within the provisions of this law, shall, except as otherwise provided, be determined by the board. Any interested party who is not willing and does not consent to abide by the final ruling and decision of said board shall within twenty days after the rendition of said final ruling and decision by said board give notice to the adverse party and to the board that he will not abide by said final ruling and decision. And he shall within twenty days after giving such notice bring suit in the county where the injury occurred to set aside said final ruling and decision and said board shall proceed no further toward the adjustment of such claim, other than as hereinafter provided. Whenever such suit is brought, the rights and liability of the parties thereto shall be determined by the provisions of this law and the suit of the injured employe or person suing on account of the death of such employe shall be against the association if the employer of such injured or deceased employe at the time of such injury or death was a subscriber as defined in this law. If the final order of the board is against the association, then the association and not the employer shall bring suit to set aside said final ruling and decision of the board, if it so desires, and the court shall in either event determine the issues in such cause instead of the board upon trial de novo and the burden of proof shall be upon the party claiming compensation. In case of recovery the same shall not exceed the maximum compensation allowed under the provisions of this law. If any party to any such final ruling and decision of the board, after having given notice as above provided, fails within said twenty days to institute and prosecute a suit to set the same aside, then said final ruling and decision shall be binding upon all parties thereto, and, if the same is against the association, it shall at once comply with such final ruling and decision, and failing to do so the board shall certify that fact to the Commissioner of Insurance and such certificate shall be sufficient cause to justify said Commissioner to revoke or forfeit the license or permit of such association to do business in Texas. [Id.]

Sec. 5a. In all cases where the board shall make a final order, ruling or decision as provided in the preceding section and against the association, and the association shall fail and refuse to obey or comply with the same and shall fail or refuse to bring suit to set the same aside as in said section is provided, then in that event, the claimant in addition to the rights and remedies given him and the board in said section may bring suit where the injury occurred, upon said order, ruling or decision. If he secures a judgment sustaining such order, ruling or decision in whole or in part, he shall also be entitled to recover the further sum of twelve per cent as damages upon the amount of compensation so recovered in said judgment, together with a reasonable attorney's fee for the prosecution and collection of such claim.

Where the board has made an award against an association requiring the payment to an injured employe or his beneficiaries of any weekly or monthly payments, under the terms of this law, and such association should thereafter fail or refuse, without justifiable cause, to continue to make said payments promptly as they mature, then the said injured employe or his beneficiaries, in case of his death, shall have the right to mature the entire claim and to institute suit thereon to collect the full amount thereof, together with twelve per cent penalties and attorney's fees, as herein provided for. Suit may be brought under the provisions of this section, either in the county where the accident occurred, or in any county where the claimants reside, or where one or more of such claimants may have his place of residence at the time of the institution of the suit. [Id.]

Sec. 6. If any subscriber to this law with the purpose and intention of avoiding any liability imposed by its terms sublets the whole or any part of the work to be performed or done by said subscriber to any sub-contractor, then in the event any employe of such sub-contractor sustains an injury in the course of his employment he shall be deemed to be and taken for all purposes of this law to be the employe of the subscriber, and in addition thereto such employe shall have an independent right of action against such sub-contractor, which shall in no way be affected by any compensation to be received by him under the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 6a. Where the injury for which compensation is payable under this law was caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in some person other than the subscriber to pay damages in respect thereof, the employe may at his option proceed either at law against that person to recover damages or against the association for compensation under this law, but not against both, and if he elects to proceed at law against the person other than the subscriber, then he shall not be entitled to compensation under this law. If compensation be claimed under this law by the injured employe or his legal beneficiaries, then the association shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured employe in so far as may be necessary and may enforce in the name of the injured employe or of his legal beneficiaries or in its own name and for the joint use and benefit of said employe or beneficiaries and the association the liability of said other person, and in case the association recovers a sum greater than that paid or assumed by the association to the employe or his legal beneficiaries, together with a reasonable cost of enforcing such liability, which shall be determined by the court trying the case, then out of the sum so recovered the association shall reimburse itself and pay said cost and the excess so recovered shall be paid to the injured employe or his beneficiaries. The association shall not have the right to adjust or compromise such liability against such third person without notice to the injured employe or his beneficiaries and the approval of the board, upon a hearing thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 7. Every subscriber shall hereafter keep a record of all injuries, fatal or otherwise, sustained by his employes in the course of their employment. Within eight days after the occurrence of an accident resulting in an injury to an employe, causing his absence from work for more than one day, a written report thereof shall be made to the board on blanks to be procured from the board for that purpose. Upon the termination of the incapacity of the injured employe, or if such incapacity extends beyond a period of sixty days, the subscriber shall make a supplemental report upon blanks to be procured for that purpose. The said report shall contain the name and nature of the business of the employer, the location of the establishment, the name, age, sex and occupation of the injured employe and the character of work in which he was engaged at the time of the injury, and shall state the date and hour of receiving such injury and the nature and cause of the injury, and such other information as the board may require. Any employer willfully failing or refusing to make any such report within the time herein provided, or willfully failing or refusing to give said board any information demanded by said board relating to any injury to any employe, which information is in the possession of or can be ascertained by the employer by the use of reasonable diligence, shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every offense, the same to be recovered in a suit to be instituted and prosecuted in Travis County by the Attorney General or by the district or county attorney under his direction in a district court thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 8. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and the act or decision of any two members thereof shall be held the act or decision of the board, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. No vacancy shall impair the right of the remaining member or members of the board to exercise all the powers of the board. The board shall provide itself with a seal on which shall be inscribed the words "Industrial Accident Board, State of Texas." Any order, award or proceeding of said board when duly attested and sealed by the board or its secretary shall be admissible as evidence of the act of said board in any court in this State. [Id.]

Sec. 9. Upon the written request and payment of the fees therefor, which fees shall be the same as those charged for similar services in the Secretary of State's office, the board shall furnish to any person entitled thereto a certified copy of any order, award, decision or paper on file in the office of said board, and the fees so received for such copies shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the general revenue fund. No fee or salary shall be paid to any person in said department for making such copies in excess of the fees charged for such copies. [Id.]

Sec. 10. Said board or any member thereof may hold hearings or take testimony or make investigations at any point within this State, reporting the result thereof, if the same is made by one member, to the board, or it can employ or use the assistance of an inspector or adjuster for the purpose of adjusting and settling claims for compensation or developing the facts relating to any claim for compensation. [Id.]

Sec. 11. When the association suspends or stops payment of compensation, it shall immediately notify the board of that fact, giving the board the name, number and style of the claim, the amount paid thereon, the date of the suspension or stopping of payment thereon, and the reason for such suspension or stopping. [Id.]

Sec. 12. The board upon application of either party may, in its discretion, having regard to the welfare of the employe and the convenience of the association, authorize compensation to be paid monthly or quarterly.

Where the liability of the association or the extent of the injury of the employe is uncertain, indefinite or incapable of being satisfactorily established, the board may approve any compromise, adjustment, settlement or commutation thereof made between the parties. [Id.]

PART 3.

Art. 8308. Employers' Insurance Association.—

Sec. 1. The "Texas Employers' Insurance Association" is hereby created a body corporate with the powers provided in this law and with all general corporate powers incident thereto. [Id.]

Sec. 2. The Governor shall appoint a board of directors of the association consisting of twelve members, who shall serve for a term of one year or until their successors are elected by ballot by the subscribers at such time and for such term as the by-laws shall provide. At any annual meeting of subscribers the number of directors may be increased or decreased by resolution duly recorded in the minutes of such meeting. [Id.]

Sec. 3. Until the first meeting of the subscribers, the board of directors shall have and exercise all the powers of the subscribers and may adopt by-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this law, which shall be in effect until amended or repealed by the subscribers. [Id.]

Sec. 4. The board of directors shall immediately choose by ballot a president, who shall be a member of the board, and shall elect a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officials as the by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Sec. 5. Seven or more directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Vacancies in any office may be filled in such manner as the by-laws shall provide. [Id.]

Sec. 6. The board of directors may appoint an executive committee which may have and exercise all of the powers of the board of directors except when the board is in session. [Id.]

Sec. 7. Any employer of labor in this State may become a subscriber except as provided in Section 2, Part 1, of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 8. In any meeting of the subscribers each subscriber shall have one vote, and if a subscriber has 500 employes to whom the association is bound to pay compensation he shall be entitled to two votes and he shall be entitled to one additional vote for each additional 500 employes to whom the association is bound to pay compensation, but no subscriber shall cast, by his own right or by right of proxy, more than 20 votes. [Id.]

Sec. 9. No policies shall be issued by the association until not less than 50 members have subscribed, who have not less than 2,000 employes to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation. [Id.]

Sec. 10. No policies shall be issued by the association until a list of the subscribers with the number of employes of each, together with such information as the Commissioner of Insurance may require, shall have been filed with the Commissioner, nor until the president and secretary of the association shall have certified under oath that every subscription on the list so filed is genuine and made with an agreement with each subscriber that he will take the policy so subscribed for by him within thirty days of the granting of a license to the association by the Commissioner to issue policies. [Id.]

Sec. 11. If the number of subscribers falls below fifty, or the number of employes to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation falls below 2,000, no further policies shall be issued until other employers have subscribed who, together with existing subscribers, amount to not less than fifty, who have not less than 2,000 employes to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation, said subscriptions to be subject to the provisions of the preceding section. [Id.]

Sec. 12. Upon the filing of the certificates provided for in the two preceding sections, the Commissioner of Insurance shall make such investigations as he may deem proper and, if his findings warrant it, grant a license to the association to issue policies. [Id.]

Sec. 13. The board of directors may distribute the subscribers into groups for the purpose of segregating the experience of each such group as to premiums and losses, and for the purpose of determining dividends payable to and assessments payable by the subscribers within each group, but for the purpose of determining the solvency of the association, the funds of the association shall be deemed one and indivisible. The board of directors shall have power to re-arrange any of the groups by withdrawing any subscriber and transferring him wholly or in part to any group and to set up new groups at its discretion. [Id.]

Sec. 14. The association may, in its by-laws and policies, fix the limit of liability of the subscribers for the payment of assessments hereinafter provided for, but such limit of liability of the subscribers shall not, except by special agreement in writing between the association and subscriber, be fixed at an amount greater than an amount equal to and in addition to an annual premium. [Id.]

Sec. 15. If the association, at the end of any calendar year, is not possessed of admitted assets in excess of unearned premiums sufficient for the payment of its incurred losses and expenses, it shall make an assessment for the amount needed to pay such losses and expenses, first upon the subscribers within each group whose earned premiums compared with its incurred losses and expenses shows a deficiency for the group, and second only upon the subscribers within each group whose earned premiums compared with its incurred losses and expenses shows a surplus, and in no event shall it make an assessment for any aggregate amount more than is needed to pay losses and expenses. Every subscriber shall, in accordance with the law and his contract, pay his proportionate part of any assessment which may be levied by the association on account of losses and expenses incurred during any calendar year while he is a subscriber. [Id.]

Sec. 16. The board of directors may by vote fix the amount to be paid as dividends on the policies in force during each calendar year after retaining sums sufficient to pay all compensation which may be payable on account of injuries sustained and expenses incurred during the calendar year. Dividends and assessments shall be fixed by and for groups, but the entire assets of the association, including the liability of the subscriber to assessment, within the limits fixed by the by-laws or by special agreement in writing as authorized, shall be subject to the payment of any approved claim for compensation against the association. [Id.]

Sec. 16a. Whenever the association shall have accumulated at the end of any calendar year an admitted surplus in excess of incurred losses, expenses and unearned premiums amounting to the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, the liability of its members to assessment shall be suspended during the ensuing calendar year, or for such further period as the association shall maintain unimpaired such surplus of two hundred thousand dollars or more, and the certificate of the Commissioner of Insurance, after an examination and report, shall be conclusive evidence as to the fact in any proceeding in which the fact may be an issue. [Id.]

Sec. 17. Whenever by reason of having qualified under the preceding section, to issue policies which are not subject to assessment, the association may issue policies which will not entitle the holder to participate in any distribution of surplus. [Id.]

Sec. 18. The association shall make and enforce reasonable rules for the prevention of injuries on the premises of subscribers. For this purpose the inspector of the association or of the board shall have free access to all such premises during regular working hours. Any subscriber aggrieved by such rule or regulation may petition the board for a review and it may affirm, amend or annul the rule or regulation. [Id.]

Sec. 18a. Whenever any employer of labor in this State becomes a subscriber to this law, he shall immediately notify the board of such fact, stating in such notice his name, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employes, estimated amount of his pay roll and the name of the insurance company carrying his insurance, the date of issuing the policy and the date when the same will expire, and whenever any policy is renewed that fact shall be made known to the board and the notice thereof shall contain the above facts. The association shall also report the same to the board, giving the name of the employer, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employes, estimated amount of pay roll, date of issuance and date of expiration of said policy. Any employer or association willfully failing or refusing to make any such report shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each offense, the same to be recovered by suit in Travis County by the Attorney General or by the district or county attorney under his direction in the district court thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 19. Every subscriber shall, as soon as he secures a policy, give notice in writing or print, or in such manner or way as may be directed or approved by the board, to all persons under contract of hire with him that he has provided for payment of compensation for injuries with the association. [Id.]

Sec. 20. Every subscriber shall, after receiving a policy, give notice in writing or print, or in such manner or way as may be directed or approval by the board to all persons with whom he is about to enter into a contract of hire that he has provided for payment of compensation for injuries by the association. If any employer ceases to be a subscriber, he shall on or before the date on which his policy expires, give notice to that effect in writing or print or in such other manner or way as the board may direct or approve to all persons under contract of hire with him. In case of the renewal of his policy no notice shall be required under this law. He shall file a copy of said notice with the board. [Id.]

Sec. 21. If a subscriber who has complied with all the rules regulations and demands of the association is required by any judgment of a court at law to pay any employe any damages actual or exemplary, on account of any personal injury sustained by such employe in the course of his employment during the period of subscription, the association shall pay to the subscriber the full amount of the judgment and the cost assessed therewith, if the subscriber shall have given the association notice of the bringing of the action upon which the judgment was recovered and an opportunity to appear and defend same in his or its name. [Id.]

Sec. 22. The corporate powers of the association shall not expire because of failure to issue policies or to make insurance. [Id.]

Sec. 23. The association shall set up and maintain reserves adequate to meet anticipated losses, carry all claims to maturity and policies to termination, which reserves shall be computed in accordance with such rules as shall be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance and may be invested in such securities as are permitted to casualty companies organized under the General Laws; and, for the protection of its reserves and surpluses against the liability herein imposed, shall have the same right to reinsure or be reinsured as casualty companies organized under General Laws. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

PART 4.

Art. 8309. Definitions and general provisions.—

Sec. 1. The following words and phrases as used in this law shall, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, have the following meanings, respectively:

“Employer” shall mean any person, firm, partnership, association of persons or corporations or their legal representatives that makes contracts of hire.

"Employee" shall mean every person in the service of another under any contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, except masters of or seamen on vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, and except one whose employment is not in the usual course of trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer.

The words "legal beneficiaries" as used in this law shall mean the relatives named in section 8a, part 1, of this law. "Association" shall mean the "Texas Employers' Insurance Association" or other insurance company authorized under this law to insure the payment of compensation to injured employes or to the beneficiaries of deceased employes.

"Subscriber" shall mean any employer who has become a member of the association by paying the required premium; provided that the association holds a license issued by the Commissioner of Insurance, as provided for in section 12, part 3, of this law.

"Average weekly wages" shall mean:

1. If the injured employe shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, whether for the same employer or not, substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding the injury, his average annual wages shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

2. If the injured employe shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of the year, his average annual wages shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employe of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or in a similar employment in the same or a neighboring place, shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

3. When by reason of the shortness of the time of the employment of the employe, or other employe engaged in the same class of work in the manner and for the length of time specified in the above subsections 1 and 2, or other good and sufficient reasons it is impracticable to compute the average weekly wages as above defined, it shall be computed by the board in any manner which may seem just and fair to both parties.

4. Said wages shall include the market value of board, lodging, laundry, fuel, and other advantage which can be estimated in money, which the employe receives from the employer as part of his remuneration. Any sums, however, which the employer has paid to the employe to cover any special expenses entailed on him by the act of his employment shall not be included.

5. The average weekly wages of an employe shall be one-fifty-second part of the average annual wages.

The terms "injury" or "personal injury" shall be construed to mean damage or harm to the physical structure of the body and such diseases or infection as naturally result therefrom.

The term "injury sustained in the course of employment," as used in this law, shall not include:

1. An injury caused by the act of God, unless the employe is at the time engaged in the performance of duties that subject him to a greater hazard from the act of God responsible for the injury than ordinarily applies to the general public.

2. An injury caused by an act of a third person intended to injure the employe because of reasons personal to him and not directed against him as an employe, or because of his employment.

3. An injury received while in a state of intoxication.

4. An injury caused by the employe's willful intention and attempt to injure himself, or to unlawfully injure some other person but shall include all other injuries of every kind and character having to do with and originating in the work, business, trade or profession of the employer received by an employe while engaged in or about the furtherance of the affairs or business of his employer whether upon the employer's premises or elsewhere.

Any reference to any employe herein who has been injured shall, when the employe is dead, also include the legal beneficiaries, as that term is herein used, of such employe to whom compensation may be payable. The word "board" whenever used in this law shall be held to mean the Industrial Accident Board created by this law. Whenever in this law the singular is used, the plural shall be included; whenever the masculine gender is used, the feminine and neuter shall be included. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 1a. The president, vice-president or vice-presidents, secretary or other officers thereof provided in its charter or by-laws and the directors of any corporation which is a subscriber to this law shall not be deemed or held to be an employe within the meaning of that term as defined in the preceding section hereof, and this notwithstanding they may hold other offices in the corporation and may perform other duties and render other services for which they receive a salary. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 2. Any insurance company, which term shall include mutual and reciprocal companies, lawfully transacting a liability or accident business in this State shall have the same right to insure the liability and pay the compensation provided for in part 1 of this law, and when such company issues a policy conditioned to pay such compensation, the holder of such policy shall be regarded as a subscriber so far as applicable under this law, and when such company insures such payment of compensation it shall be subject to the provisions of parts 1, 2 and 4 and of sections 10, 17, 18a and 21 of part 3 of this law. Such company may have and exercise all of the rights and powers conferred by this law on the association created hereby, but such rights and powers shall not be exercised by a mutual or reciprocal organization unless such organization has at least fifty subscribers who have not less than 2,000 employes. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 3. Any subscriber who has paid a premium as provided in section 1, part 4, of this law may upon application to the board and to the association and after a showing satisfactory to the board that he has notified all of his employes, in such manner as may be required by the board, cease to be a subscriber, and be entitled to a refund of the unearned portion of his premium, subject, however, to any rule approved by the Commissioner of Insurance as to the minimum premiums or short rate cancellation. [Id.]

Sec. 3a. Any subscriber who shall willfully misrepresent the amount of his pay roll to the association writing his insurance upon which any premium under this law is to be based shall be liable to the association insuring the compensation of his employes in an amount not to exceed ten times the amount of the difference between the premium which he paid and the amount which said subscriber should have paid had his pay roll been correctly computed; and the liability to said association for such misrepresentation if it was deceived thereby, may be enforced by suit therefor. [Id.]

Sec. 3b. No inchoate, vested, matured, existing or other rights, remedies, powers, duties or authority, either of any employe or legal beneficiary, or of the board, or of the association, or of any other person shall be in any way affected by any of the amendments herein made to the original law hereby amended, but all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority shall remain and be in force as under the original law just as if the amendments hereby adopted had never been made, and to that end it is hereby declared that said original law is not repealed, but the same is, and shall remain in full force and effect as to all such rights, remedies, powers, duties and authority; and further this law in so far as it adopts the law of which it is an amendment is a continuation thereof, and only in other respects a new enactment. [Id.]

Sec. 4. In cases of emergency or impending necessity the association may make advance payments of compensation to any employe during the period of his incapacity or to his beneficiaries within the terms of this law, and when the same is either directed or approved by the board it shall be credited as against any unaccrued compensation due said employe or beneficiaries. [Id.]

Sec 5. The reports of accidents required by this law to be made by subscribers shall not be deemed as admissions and evidence against the association or the subscriber in any proceedings before the board or elsewhere in a contested case where the facts set out therein or in any one of them is sought to be contradicted by the association or subscriber. [Id.]

TITLE 131.
WRECKS.
CHAPTER ONE.
WRECK-MASTERS.

| | Article | | Article |
|----------------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------|---------|
| Appointment | 8310 | To keep a record | 8315 |
| Bond and oath | 8311 | Additional record and reports | 8316 |
| Duties | 8312 | Fees and perquisites | 8317 |
| Controlled by commissioners..... | 8313 | Duty to prosecute | 8318 |
| To sell property | 8314 | | |

Art. 8310. [7887] [5365] Appointment.—The Governor shall appoint not more than three persons of good character in each maritime county of the State as wreck-masters for such county. [Acts April 30, 1846, p. 158; G. L. 2, p. 1464.]

Art. 8311. [7888] [5366] Bond and oath.—Each person so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a good bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the county judge of the county for which he is appointed, conditioned that the appointee shall faithfully discharge the duties of his office; which bond shall be deposited with the county clerk of such county. The appointee shall also take the official oath, which oath shall be indorsed on said bond before the same is filed. [Id.]

Art. 8312. [7889] [5367] Duties.—It shall be the duty of each wreck-master so appointed, as soon as he may be apprised of any wreck in his county, or the portion of such county allotted to him, to repair at once to the place where such wreck occurred. If the property so wrecked be found abandoned, to attend to the salving thereof, to use his best endeavors for the preservation of the same and to attend generally to the interests of the owners of such property or whom it may concern. The wreck-master shall have the command and direction of all persons engaged in saving and preserving such property. [Id.]

Art. 8313. [7890] [5368] Controlled by commissioners.—Wreck-masters shall be subject to the control and direction of the commissioners of pilots for the principal ports of their counties, if such there be. In case there are no such officers in such county, then wreck-masters shall be under the control of the county judge of their county. [Id.]

Art. 8314. [7891] [5369] To sell property.—Each wreck-master shall take into his custody and safely keep all wrecked property salved by him, or under his direction, or found wrecked and abandoned in his county, or that portion of the county under his supervision and jurisdiction. After the notice required by law, he shall sell the same at public auction for the benefit of the owners or underwriters and the salvors, to all of whom he shall faithfully account. [Id.]

Art. 8315. [7892] [5370] To keep a record.—Each wreck-master shall keep a true account of all property salved by him, or under his direction, with the circumstances under which it was salvaged, and the name of each person engaged in salvaging, the time that each was so employed and other data needful for the proper apportionment of salvage. [Id.]

Art. 8316. [7893] [5371] Additional record and reports.—He shall also keep a true account, in a book to be kept for that purpose of all sales made by him and the proceeds thereof, commissions, expenses, salvage, balance left, and the condition and disposition of the same. Within one month after each sale, and at other times when required, he shall make an abstract report in writing, signed by him, of the matters provided for in this and the preceding article, to the commissioners of pilots or the county judge, as the case may be, and he shall also, when required, report the same, together with all needful information in his possession, to the court or other tribunal before which cases of salvage may be pending. [Id.]

Art. 8317. [7894] [5372] Fees and perquisites.—Wreck-masters shall receive a commission of five per cent upon the amount of all sales made by them, after deducting all expenses, not including salvage, with such reasonable expenses as may be allowed by the authority which may control them, or the court before which the case may come; which expenses may include the wages and mileage of a crier, at a rate to be fixed by such controlling authority. [Id.]

Art. 8318. [7895] [5373] Duty to prosecute.—It shall be the duty of each wreck-master to cause a prosecution of any person who may be guilty of wasting, stealing or embezzling any wrecked property. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO.

COTTON SALVAGE.

| | Article | | Article |
|---------------------------------|---------|------------------------------------|---------|
| Wrecked cotton advertised | 8319 | Proceeds | 8322 |
| Delivered to owner | 8320 | County clerk may act | 8323 |
| When sold | 8321 | Warrant for suspected cotton | 8324 |

Art. 8319. [7896] [5374] Wrecked cotton advertised.—It shall be the duty of the person taking up cotton afloat, abandoned in rivers, or in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico on the coast of this State, or in the bays or bayous thereof, to place the same in a secure place out of the weather, and give early notice by advertisement, or by other means, at the port to which said cotton was destined, if within this State, and, if without the limits of the State, or its destination be unknown to the finder, then at the nearest port of entry in this State to the locality where it may be taken up, of the finding of the same, giving a description of the marks or brands on said cotton, together with the place of finding and the name of the finder. [Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 494.]

Art. 8320. [7897] [5375] Delivered to owner.—It shall be the duty of the finder or other person having said cotton in his possession, to deliver the same to the owner, insurer or consignee thereof, on demand, upon being paid the expenses of advertisement and five dollars upon each bale so saved and delivered. [Id.]

Art. 8321. [7898] When sold.—If no owner, insurer or consignee of the cotton appear within three months after such advertisement, the person finding shall cause the same to be sold at auction by a legal wreck-master of the county in which said cotton is deposited, at public outcry to the highest bidder. The wreck-master shall, from the proceeds of such sale, pay the necessary expenses attending the storage, advertising and sale of said cotton, and to the finder the salvage of five dollars for each bale as aforesaid. The remainder, less his commissions and other necessary expenses, he shall hold in trust for the benefit of the owner of others concerned. [Id.]

Art. 8322. [7899] [5377] Proceeds.—If, at the expiration of one year thereafter, no legal claimant appears therefor, said proceeds shall be paid over by said wreck-master to the treasurer of the county in which the sale took place; and said treasurer shall immediately pay the same over to the State Treasurer who shall pay the same over to the person entitled thereto on proof being made of the right of the claimant in the manner provided for the recovery of money paid into the State treasury by executors or administrators of estates where no heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate appear to claim the fund of the estate on the final settlement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 8323. [7900] [5378] County clerk may act.—If there shall be no wreck-master in the county in which the cotton is deposited, then the county clerk shall perform all the duties required of wreck-masters by the two preceding articles, and such clerk shall receive the same compensation as is allowed to wreck-masters under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 8324. [7901] [5379] Warrant for suspected cotton.—Upon affidavit being made before any justice of the peace that the affiant has good reason to believe, and does believe, that certain cotton within his county has been so found, or having been found without such county has been brought therein, and that reasonable time has elapsed, and that the finder has neglected to comply with the requirements of the foregoing articles, such justice shall issue his warrant and cause said cotton, or its proceeds, to be seized by a legal officer and delivered to the wreck-master of said county, to be disposed of according to the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

FINAL TITLE.

Be it further enacted:

Sec. 2. Repealing clause.—That all civil statutes of a general nature, in force when the Revised Statutes take effect, and which are not included herein, or which are not hereby expressly continued in force, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. Not ex post facto.—That the repeal of any statute, or any portion thereof, by the preceding section, shall not affect or impair any act done, or right vested or accrued, or any proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced in any cause before such repeal shall take effect; but every such act done, or right vested or accrued, or proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced shall remain in full force and effect to all intents or purposes as if such statute, or part thereof so repealed, had remained in force, except that where the course of practice or procedure for the enforcement of such right, or the conducting of such proceeding, suit or prosecution shall be changed, the same shall be conducted as near as may be in accordance with the Revised Statutes. No offense committed and no liability, penalty or forfeiture, either civil or criminal, incurred prior to the time when any statute, or part thereof, shall be repealed or altered by the Revised Statutes, shall be discharged or affected by such repeal or alteration; but prosecutions and suits for such offenses, liabilities, penalties or forfeitures shall be instituted and proceeded with in all respects as if such prior statute, or part thereof, had not been repealed or altered, except that where the mode of procedure or matters of practice have been changed by the Revised Statutes, the procedure had after the Revised Statutes shall have taken effect in such prosecution or suit shall be, as far as practicable, in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 4. Validating Acts.—That no general or special law heretofore enacted validating or legalizing the acts or omissions of any officer, or validating any law, act or proceeding whatever, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title; but all validating or legalizing statutes whatsoever now in force in this State are hereby continued in force.

Sec. 5. Public debt.—That no law relating to the public debt or the public credit shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 6. School funds.—That no law relating to the University or public school fund, or to the Agricultural and Mechanical College fund, or the investment of any such funds, or making any reservation in favor of the same, and no law affecting Federal aid for vocational education in this State, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title, except where altered or amended by the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 7. Counties.—That no statute creating, adding to or organizing any county, or establishing any county seat, and no law affecting unorganized or new counties, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title, or by any law relating to the establishment of county boundaries contained in this Act.

Sec. 8. Courts.—That the laws now in force organizing the several district and other courts, or increasing, diminishing, restoring or defining the jurisdiction of said courts, and prescribing the times of holding said courts, except as herein otherwise provided, are continued in force.

Sec. 9. Public and other lands.—That all laws affecting the issuance of patents under valid land certificates; or fixing a time limit in which to redeem lands sold for taxes; or authorizing suits to contest forfeiture of sale for non-payment of interest on public lands, or affecting the reinstatement of rights after such forfeiture; or conferring a prior right to purchase land surveyed by virtue of a private right, for which a patent cannot issue; or extending oil and gas permits on public lands; or extending the time for payment of principal due on public lands sold in accordance with law; or affecting the title to public and other lands; or authorizing the Land Commissioner, the Governor, or any authorized board, to sell or lease certain lands or water rights; or granting land to cities; or affecting land reservations, or setting apart portions of such reservations for the benefit of actual settlers, are continued in force.

Sec. 10. Public buildings, etc.—That no law providing for the construction or repairing of the public buildings of this State, or providing for the establishment of a central prison system, nor any law establishing or providing for the maintenance of any public institution, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, unless expressly altered or repealed in some of the preceding articles of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 11. Public libraries.—That no law giving authority to cities or towns to establish public libraries, or for like purposes, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause herein.

Sec. 12. Taxes.—That all laws now in force which donate taxes to, or release the inhabitants from payment of taxes in any city or county or part of a county in this State on account of any calamity; and all laws now in force authorizing the levy of taxes by levee or drainage districts to redeem certificates of indebtedness issued on account of damage from flood, are continued in force.

Sec. 13. Railroads.—That all laws now in force authorizing railroad companies to sell or buy or lease other railroad companies, or to buy, sell or abandon tracks or right of way, or extending the time for constructing main or branch lines; and all laws now in force affecting the State Railroad, are continued in force.

Sec. 14. Public roads.—That all laws providing for the maintenance of public roads in certain counties by a patrol system, are continued in force.

Sec. 15. Pensions.—That all laws granting pensions to soldiers and other persons entitled thereto by reason of service performed in connection with the Mexican War are continued in force.

Sec. 16. World War veterans.—That all laws exempting persons who served in the late world war from payment of fees in public educational institutions in Texas are continued in force.

Sec. 17. Monuments.—That all laws authorizing the erection of monuments are continued in force.

Sec. 18. Appropriations.—That all laws making specific appropriations of public funds are continued in force.

Sec. 19. Special laws.—That all laws, civil or criminal, of a local nature, operating in particular counties, cities or towns, or of a temporary nature operative when these Statutes go into effect, and all laws of a private nature operating on particular persons or corporations, are not affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 20. Effect of repeal.—That nothing in the repealing clause of this title shall be construed as releasing any person or corporation from any duty enjoined in the limitation or condition imposed by any law that may be repealed by said repealing clause.

Sec. 21. New laws.—That nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal or in anywise affect the validity of any law passed by this legislature in its regular session.

Sec. 22. Validity of Statutes.—That these Revised Statutes when adopted shall be construed to be an Act of the Legislature. No law herein shall be held to be void because its caption, when enacted, was in any way defective.

Sec. 23. Publication of Statutes.—That the Revised Statutes shall not be printed in the pamphlet laws of the thirtieth Legislature, but shall be printed, published and distributed at such time and in such manner as may be provided by law.

Sec. 24.—Date effective.—That these Revised Statutes shall take effect and be in force at twelve o'clock, meridian, on the first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

Sec. 25. Reading Act.—The importance and great length of this Act, the fact that it is impossible to read the same on any one day or on any three consecutive days, the length of time required for its publication, and the near approach of the end of the present session of the Legislature, create an imperative public necessity requiring that the constitutional rule which requires that bills be read on three several days in each house be and the same is hereby suspended.
