State of Texas

A BILL to be entitled "An Act to Adopt and Establish the 'REVISED CIVIL STATUTES of the State of Texas.'" "

WHEREAS, It is expedient that the General Civil Statutes of this State should be arranged in appropriate titles, chapters and articles, and that the whole should, as far as practicable, be made concise, clear and consistent; therefore,

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

That the following titles, chapters, subdivisions and articles shall hereafter constitute

THE REVISED CIVIL STATUTES OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

TITLE 1.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Common Law _____ Article 1

Art. 1. [5492] [3258] Common law.—The common law of England, so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, shall together with such Constitution and laws, be the rule of decision, and shall continue in force until altered or repealed by the Legislature.

SPECIAL LAWS.

| Special laws: notice..... | 2 | Where applicant is a non-resident..... | 6 |
| If no newspaper is published..... | 3 | Details unnecessary..... | 7 |
| Notice for each county..... | 4 | Proof of publication..... | 8 |
| Affecting persons..... | 5 | Proof of posting..... | 9 |

Art. 2. [5494] [3260] Special laws: notice.—Any person intending to apply for the passage of any local or special law shall give notice of such intention by having a statement of the substance of such law published in some newspaper published in the county embracing the locality to be affected by said law, at least once each week for the period of thirty days prior to the introduction into the Legislature of such contemplated laws. [Const. Art. 3, Sec. 57; Acts 1876, p. 7; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 843.]

Art. 3. [5495] [3261] If no newspaper published.—If no newspaper is published in said county, a written copy of such statement shall be posted at the court house door and in five other public places in the immediate locality to be affected thereby in said county, for thirty days, and such notice shall accurately define the locality to be affected by said law. [Id.]

Art. 4. [5496] [3262] Notice for each county.—Where the locality to be affected by said law shall extend beyond the limits of any one county, such notice shall be given for each county to be affected.

Art. 5. [5497] [3263] Affecting persons.—Whenever any person intends applying for the passage of a special law which shall affect persons chiefly, and not directly affect any particular locality more than others, such persons, if residing in this State, shall make publication of notice of such intention in the county of the residence of such person in the same manner as if the said law was to affect such locality. [Const. Art. 3, Sec. 2.]

Art. 6. [5498] [3264] Where applicant is a non-resident.

—If the applicant is a non-resident of this State, said publication need only be made in a newspaper published at the Capital, in like manner as if such person resided at the seat of government. [Id.]

Art. 7. [5499] [3265] Details unnecessary.—Said notice need not contain the particular form and terms of such contemplated law, but a statement only of the general purposes and nature of the same shall be sufficient. [Id.]

Art. 8. [5500] [3266] Proof of publication.—Whenever publication in a newspaper is required by law, proof of the same shall be made by the affidavit of the publisher accompanied with a printed copy of such notice as published.

Art. 9. [5501] [3267] Proof of posting.—The posting above provided for may be shown by the return of the sheriff or constable, or by any credible person made on a written copy of the notice so posted, showing the fact of such posting, and such proof or other competent proof of the giving of said notice shall accompany the introduction of every local or special law.

CONSTRUCTION OF LAWS.

General rules..... 10 | Grammatical errors..... 11

Art. 10. [5502] [3268] General rules.—The following rules shall govern in the construction of all civil statutory enactments:

1. The ordinary signification shall be applied to words, except words of art or words connected with a particular trade or subject matter, when they shall have the signification attached to them by experts in such art or trade, with reference to such subject matter.

2. The present or past tense shall include the future.

3. The masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter.

4. The singular and plural number shall each include the other, unless otherwise expressly provided.

5. A joint authority given to any number of persons or officers may be executed by a majority of them, unless it is otherwise declared.

6. In all interpretations, the court shall look diligently for the intention of the Legislature, keeping in view at all times the old law, the evil and the remedy.

7. Whenever one law which shall have repealed another shall itself be repealed, the former law shall not be thereby revived without express words to that effect.

8. The rule of the common law that statutes in derogation thereof shall be strictly construed shall have no application to the Revised Statutes; but the said statutes shall constitute the law of this State respecting the subjects to which they relate; and the provisions thereof shall be liberally construed with a view to effect their objects and to promote justice.

Art. 11. [5503] [3269] Grammatical errors.—Grammatical errors shall not vitiate a law, and a transposition of words and clauses may be resorted to when the sentence or clause is without meaning as it stands. In no case shall the punctuation of a law control or affect the intention of the Legislature in the enactment thereof.

Art. 12. [3935-36] Fiscal year.—The fiscal year of the State shall terminate on the thirty-first day of August of each year, and appropriations of the State government shall conform thereto. All officers who are required by law to report annually or biennially to the Legislature or Governor shall close their accounts on that date, and as soon thereafter as practicable shall prepare and compile their respective reports. [Acts 1901, p. 9.]

Art. 13. [3937-38] Reports of officers.—All annual or biennial reports intended for the use of the Legislature or Governor shall be sent by the respective officers to the Secretary of State on or before November first, and he shall promptly cause the same to be printed before the assembling of the Legislature, and upon its organization he shall send to the presiding officer of each house ten copies of each printed report for the members thereof. [Id.]

Art. 14. Quorum.—The majority of any legally constituted board or commission, unless otherwise specially provided, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Art. 15. Disqualifications.—No judge or justice of the peace shall sit in any case wherein he may be interested or where either of the parties may be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree, or where he shall have been counsel in the case. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 11.]

Art. 16. Oath of office.—Each officer in this State, whether elected or appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by Article 16, Section 1, of the Constitution of this State; and if he shall be required by law to give an official bond, said oath shall be filed with said bond.

Art. 17. Date to qualify.—After each general election, those who are elected to the various county and precinct offices shall qualify by taking the official oath and entering upon and assuming the duties of their respective offices on the first day of January following the last general election, or as soon thereafter as possible. Those officers holding office at said time shall surrender their offices to their successors accordingly on said date, or as soon after such date as their successors shall have qualified and be ready to assume the duties thereof. [Acts 1921, p. 96.]

Art. 18. Term of office.—Each officer, whether elected or appointed under the laws of this State, and each Commissioner, or member of any board or commission created by the laws of this State, shall hold his office for the term provided by law and until his successor is elected or appointed and qualifies; and each, on retiring from office, shall deliver to his successor all books, papers and documents relating to his office.

Art. 19. Vacancies; ratification by Senate.—All vacancies in State or district offices, except members of the Legislature, shall be filled unless otherwise provided by law, by appointment of the Governor, which appointment, if made during its session, shall be with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the Senate present. If made during the recess of the Senate, the said appointee, or some other person to fill such vacancy, shall be nominated to the Senate during the first ten days of its session. If rejected, said office shall immediately become vacant, and the Governor shall, without delay, make further nominations until a confirmation takes place. But should there be no confirmation during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall not thereafter appoint any person to fill such vacancy, who has been rejected by the Senate; but may appoint some other person to fill the vacancy until the next session of the Senate, or until the regular election to said office, should it sooner occur. Appointments to vacancies in offices elective by the people shall only continue until the first general election thereafter. [Const. Art. 4, Sec. 12.]

Art. 20. Vacancy filled by election.—All elections to fill vacancies in office shall be to fill the unexpired term only.

Art. 21. Vacancy in board or commission.—Any vacancy in the office of any commissioner, commission or board created by law where the appointment to such office shall be authorized to be made by the Governor shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired time, unless otherwise provided by law.

Art. 22. Officers of Texas.—When an officer is referred to in any civil or criminal law of this State, it shall mean an officer of this State, unless otherwise expressly provided.

Art. 23. [5504] [3270] Definitions.—The following meaning shall be given to each of the following words, unless a different meaning is apparent from the context:

1. "Property" includes real and personal property.
2. "Person" includes a corporation.
3. "Written" or "in writing" includes any representation of words, letters or figures, whether by writing, printing or otherwise.
4. "Oath" includes affirmation.
5. "Swear" or "sworn" includes affirm.
6. "Signature" or "subscribe" includes the mark of a person unable to write.
7. "Justice" when applied to a magistrate, means justice of the peace.
8. "Preceding Federal census" shall be construed to mean the United States census of date preceding the action in question and each such subsequent census as it occurs.
9. "Governing body," the governing or legislative body of any incorporated town, city or village, whether known as a council, commission, board of commissions, common council, board of aldermen, city council or by whatever name such bodies may be known or designated.

10. "Official oath" means the oath required by Article 16, Section 1, of the Constitution of Texas.

11. "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

12. "Land Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the General Land Office of Texas.

13. "Preceding" when used by way of reference to title, chapter or article, means the next preceding.

14. "Succeeding" in like manner, means the next succeeding.

15. "Month" means a calendar month.

16. "Year" means a calendar year.

17. "Effects" includes all personal property and all interest therein.

18. "Affidavit" means a statement in writing of a fact or facts signed by the party making it, and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and officially certified to by such officer under his seal of office.

Art. 24. [11] [5] Affidavit by agent.—Whenever it may be necessary or proper for any party to a civil suit or proceeding to make an affidavit, it may be made by either the party or his agent or attorney. [Acts Jan. 11, 1856, p. 13.]

Art. 25. [9] [3] Form of oath.—All oaths and affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience of the individual taking same and shall be subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. [Const. Art. 1, Sec. 5.]

Art. 26. [10-13-14] By whom administered.—All oaths, affidavits or affirmations may be administered and a certificate of the fact given:

1. If within this State, by a notary public, judge or clerk of any court of record or justice of the peace.

2. If without this State and within the United States, before any clerk of a court of record having a seal, any notary public or any commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the law of this State residing within some other State or territory.

3. If without the United States, before any notary public, or any minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States, resident in and accredited to the country where the affidavit may be taken, or any consul general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul, or consular agent of the United States, resident in such country.

4. Any member of any board or commission created by the laws of this State, in matters pertaining to the duties thereof, may administer oaths or affirmations.

Art. 27. [7092] [7093] Seals and scrolls.—Each commissioner and each commission and each board which is or may be created by the laws of this State shall have authority to adopt a seal with which to attest its official documents, certificates or any official written paper of any kind. No private seal or scroll shall be required in this State on any written instrument except such as are made by corporations.

Art. 28. Legal notices.—Whenever by law notice is required to be given of any act or proceeding, whether public or private, or relating to a judicial, executive or legislative matter, which notice is now authorized by law or by contract to be made by posting notices in one or more public places, such notices shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year, in the county in which said act or proceeding is to occur. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require the publication of any general election notice, public road notice or probate notice when the appraised value of the estate in which same is issued is less than one thousand dollars, nor shall this article apply to sales made under a written contract wherein it is provided that notice of sale thereunder may be posted. All notices published hereunder shall be printed at least once each week for the period of time now required for posting such notices. If no paper should be published in the county where such notice is required to be given, then such notice may be posted as now provided by law. The price to be paid for all publications hereunder shall be not more than one dollar per square of one hundred words for first insertion, and not more than fifty cents per one hundred words for each subsequent insertion, said publication fee to be taxed as other costs in the case. [Acts 1917, p. 391.]

Art. 29. Official publications.—All proclamations of the Executive Department and all other notices required to be published by the State, or any department or institution thereof, or the Board of Control, and all publications or advertising of any department, institution, board, district, county, or subdivision thereof, which are to be paid for out of State, district, or county funds, or that are required to be published under any law of this State and charged as costs or fees, shall be published in the newspaper selected by the Secretary of State if from the Executive Department, or in the newspaper selected by the department or institution or Board of Control or district or county official issuing such notice or charged with the publication thereof. The rate charged for such official publication shall not exceed the lowest rate accorded commercial advertisers for a like amount of space. Within ten days after a request therefor by said officer, department or official, any newspaper carrying any such publication shall file with such official a schedule of rates showing the rate then charged by such newspaper for space therein; and said official may at any time require any further or additional information or proof necessary to insure the rigid compliance with the terms of this article. All bills for publication shall be accompanied by a certificate of the publisher, under oath, certifying the number of publications and the dates thereof, together with the clipping of said publication from an issue of said newspaper, and said bill shall be audited by said official. The Board of Control, or any district or county official charged with the publication of any notice required by law to be published, is hereby fully authorized and empowered to cancel any contract made by them, or either of them, in the event said Board or official may ascertain or determine that a higher rate is being charged by said newspaper for similar space for like or advertising purposes. All political advertising shall be done at the same rate as legal notices, and under the same supervision and regulations. Political advertising shall include the announcements for public office. [Acts 1923, p. 97.]

Art. 29a. Political advertisements.—For the purpose of this Act the word "Publication" shall mean any proclamation, publication, notice, citation, advertisement or matter required or authorized by law to be printed in a newspaper or newspapers which the law directs shall be inserted or caused to be inserted in such newspaper or newspapers by any institution, board, commission, department, officer, agent, representative or employee of the State or of any subdivision or department of the State, or of any county, political subdivision, or district, whether to be paid for out of public funds or charged as costs or fees. [Acts 1925, p. 372.]

The officer, agency or person charged with the duty of so inserting such publication shall select the newspaper or newspapers, in which same is to be inserted, and the charge for such publication shall not exceed the lowest rate accorded classified advertisers. Before any newspaper of this State shall be authorized to publish legal advertising of any character, such newspaper shall file with such officer, agency or person charged with the duty of so inserting such publication, a schedule or rates then charged by such newspaper for classified advertising and shall make such additional proof of rates charged as may be required by the officer, agency or person inserting such publication. [Id.]

Newspapers shall not charge more for political advertising than is charged classified advertisers for a like class of advertising or matter. [Id.]

It is the purpose of this Act to provide a legal rate of charge for publications aforesaid regardless of the source of the fund out of which it is to be paid or the purpose of such publications, whether herein mentioned or not, and according to all laws, special or general. The fact that there may be a statute on a particular or special subject dealing with the subject matter of this Act shall not prevent this Act applying to the subject matter of any such statute. Without intending to exclude any other publication to which this Act applies, it is specially provided that this Act shall apply to citations or notices of any kind in delinquent tax suits and those under Article 3757 of the Revised Civil Statutes, and the fact that publications may be posted or printed in certain instances shall not prevent this Act applying to such publications if they are printed in a newspaper. Provided that if said newspapers refuse to publish legal notices in accordance with the terms of this Act, then said legal notices may be posted. [Id.]

If any portion of this law be held unconstitutional by the courts of this State, such decision shall not affect the validity of the law as a whole nor any other portion thereof, except the portion directly involved. [Id.]

Art. 30. Revised Statutes cited.—These Revised Civil Statutes shall be known and may be cited as the "Revised Statutes."

Art. 31. Board created.—The State Board of Public Accountancy shall be composed of five members, who shall be public accountants of good moral character, each of whom shall have had at least three years practical experience as a public accountant on his own account, immediately preceding his appointment. [Acts 1915, p. 184.]

Art. 32. Qualifications.—On and after the third Tuesday in January, and regularly biennially thereafter, the Governor shall appoint five members on said board. All appointments or vacancies in said board shall be filled from the roster of certified public accountants created under this law. The revocation of the certificate of any member of this board shall terminate his membership thereon. [Id.]

Art. 33. Rules and by-laws.—At the first meeting after each biennial appointment the board shall elect from among its members a chairman and secretary-treasurer. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws not inconsistent with this title nor with the laws of this State for its own proceedings and government and for the examination of applicants for certificates as certified public accountants. All rules, regulations and by-laws adopted by the said board shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 34. Meetings.—The board shall meet within sixty days after its appointment and at least once in each year for the purpose of examining applicants for certificates, and may meet as many times during the year as may be in its discretion advisable. Notice of all meetings shall be given at least thirty days prior to the dates selected for same by publication three consecutive times in three daily newspapers published in the three most populous cities in the State, such notice giving the time and place of meeting and stating the purpose to be for the examination of applicants for certificates as certified public accountants. The board may hold any number of meetings, and at any time, without giving notice by publication of such meetings, if a meeting be called for any other purpose than the examination of applicants for certificates. Any applicant who has successfully passed an examination before said board upon three of the subjects required may have a re-examination upon the unsuccessful subject under the supervision of said board. Examinations by the board shall be on the following subjects: "Theory of Accounts," "Practical Accounting," "Auditing," and "Commercial Law as affecting Accountancy." Each applicant shall be required to make a general average of at least seventy-five per cent on all subjects. To each person passing such examination, if he has otherwise qualified, shall be issued by the board a certificate as a "Certified Public Accountant of the State of Texas."

[Id.]

Art. 35. Records.—The board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing the name, age and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent by the applicant in practice as a public accountant, or in employment in the office of a public accountant, and the year and school, if any, from which degrees were granted or in which the course of study was successfully completed by the applicant as required by law. Said register will show whether applicants were rejected or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall, on December 31st of each year, transmit an official copy of said register to the Secretary of State for permanent record, certified copy of which, under the hand and seal of the secretary of said board or Secretary of State, shall be admitted in evidence in any court or proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 36. Applicant.—No person shall be permitted to take an examination unless he be twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, a citizen of the United States, and shall have had one year's study and practice in accountancy or accounting work. [Id.]

Art. 37. Reciprocity. — The board may in its discretion waive the examination and issue a certificate to any person who has received and holds a valid and unrevoked certificate as a certified public accountant issued by or under the authority of any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or who holds the equivalent of such certificate by and under the express legal authority of any foreign nation, if such certificate or degree shall, in the opinion of the board, have been issued under a standard fully equivalent to that of the requirements of said board, and issued by such State or Territory as may extend the same privilege to certified public accountants holding certificates from this State; provided, that such applicant shall have qualified as provided in article 36. [Id.]

Art. 38. Fees.—Each applicant for a certificate as certified public accountant shall, at the time of making application, pay to the treasurer of said board a fee of twenty-five dollars, and no application shall be considered by said board until said fee shall have been paid. In case of failure to pass a satisfactory examination, said applicant may have the privilege of appearing at any subsequent examination conducted by said board for re-examination, upon the payment of an additional fee of ten dollars. The holder of each certificate issued hereunder shall pay an annual fee of one dollar into the treasury of the State Board of Public Accountancy. The failure on the part of the holder of any certificate issued under this law to pay this fee shall automatically cancel the privilege of using the title "Certified Public Accountant," but re-instatement may be had at any time within two years and two months, by the payment of the fee and application in such form as the board may provide and the payment of a penalty of $2.50 for each year lapsed. [Id.]

Art. 39. Expenses.—Each member of said board shall receive from the secretary-treasurer of the board, out of the funds in the hands of the board, if there be sufficient thereof, all of his necessary railroad and hotel expenses for attending the meetings of said board; but otherwise shall serve without compensation. The secretary-treasurer shall be required to keep an account of all money received and disbursed, and shall render an annual statement to the Governor showing receipts and disbursements and the balance on hand. The balance shall remain in the treasury of the board, and all expenses in connection with the maintenance of the board shall be paid from same. No provisions of this law shall be a charge upon the common funds of this State. [Id.]

Art. 40. Revocation of certificate.—The State Board of Public Accountancy shall revoke and recall any certificate issued under this Act if the holder thereof:

(1) Shall be convicted of a felony; (2) shall be declared by any court to have committed any fraud; or (3) shall be declared by any court or commission to be insane or otherwise incompetent; or (4) shall be held by this board to be guilty of any act or default discreditable to the profession. Written notice of the cause of such contemplated action and the date of the hearing thereof by this board shall be served upon the holder of such certificate at least fifteen days prior to such hearing, or shall be mailed to the last known address of such holder of such certificate at least twenty days prior to such hearing. At such hearing the Attorney General, or any one of his assistants, or any district attorney designated by him, may sit with the board as legal counsellor. [Id.]

Art. 41. Construction of law.—Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any person from being employed as an accountant in this State in either public or private practice. The purpose of this law is to provide for the examination and the issuance of a certificate or degree, granting the privilege of the use of the title "Certified Public Accountant," and the use of the initials "C. P. A.," as indicative of the holder's fitness to serve the public as a competent and properly qualified accountant in public practice, and to prevent those who have no such certificate or degree from using such title or initials. [Id.]

TITLE 3.ADOPTION.

Art. 42. [1] Mode of adoption. Any person wishing to adopt another as his legal heir shall file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which he resides a written statement signed by him and duly authenticated or acknowledged as deeds are required to be, reciting in substance that he adopts the person named therein as his legal heir, and the same shall be admitted to record in said office. [Acts 1850, p. 36; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 474.]

Art. 43. [2-5] Rights of adopted heir.—When such statement is so recorded it shall entitle any child so adopted to all the rights and privileges, both in law and equity, of a legal heir of the adoptive parent, as a child has by law against lawful parents. If the adoptive parent has at the time of such adoption or shall thereafter have, a child begotten in lawful wedlock, such adopted heir shall in no case inherit more than one-fourth of the estate of the adoptive parent. [Id; Acts 1907, p. 103.]

Art. 44. [3-4-6] Authority transferred.—The parent or parents of a child who is to be so adopted may, by an instrument in writing duly signed and authenticated or acknowledged as deeds are required to be, transfer their parental authority and custody over such child to the adoptive parent. Where the lawful parent or parents have voluntarily abandoned such child and left it to the care of others for a period of at least three years, or voluntarily left it to be cared for by charity for a period of at least three years, and such child shall be so adopted, such parent or parents shall be held to have transferred their parental authority and custody over said child to the adoptive parent; and in all such cases such lawful parents shall thereafter be barred from exercising any authority, control or custody over the person or estate of such child as against the adoptive parent. No adoptive parent shall transfer his authority and custody to any other person. [Acts 1907, p. 103; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 115.]

Art. 45. [7] Authority of court.—Nothing in this title shall prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from taking away from such adoptive parent the custody of the adopted child and awarding the same to its natural parents, or either of them or to any other person, upon proof of the bad moral character of such adoptive parent, or upon proof of abuse, neglect or ill treatment of such adopted child by the adoptive parent. [Id.]

Art. 46. [8] Adoptions prohibited.—No white child can be adopted by a negro person, nor can a negro child be adopted by a white person. [Id.]

Art. 47. [4435-4436-4438] Election and qualification.—A Commissioner of Agriculture shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years. He shall be an experienced and practical farmer, and shall have knowledge of agriculture, manufacture and general industry. His office shall be in Austin. [Acts 1907, p. 127.]

Art. 48. [4437] Bond.—He shall first execute a good bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, to be approved by the Governor and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 49. [4439] Clerks.—Said commissioner shall appoint one chief clerk, who shall possess a practical knowledge of agriculture, horticulture, manufacturing and kindred industries, and the proper methods of marketing the products of said industries. He may appoint such other clerks as the labors of his office may require. All clerks shall be removable at the pleasure of the commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 50. [4440-1] Chief clerk.—The chief clerk shall possess all the powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the commissioner, and all duties attached by law to the office of commissioner during the necessary or unavoidable absence of the commissioner, or his inability to act for any cause. The commissioner shall be responsible for the acts of his chief clerk, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his position, take the oath required of the commissioner, and enter into bond in the sum of three thousand dollars with two or more sureties to be approved by the Governor, and payable to the State of Texas, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. His expenses while traveling on the business of the office, under the direction of the commissioner, shall be paid by the State. [Id.]

Art. 51 [4443-4448-4449] Duties.—The duties of the commissioner shall be as follows:

1. He shall cause to be executed all laws in relation to agriculture.
2. He shall encourage the proper development of agriculture, horticulture and kindred industries.
3. He shall encourage the organization of agricultural societies; and, for the benefit of the agricultural communities, he shall cause to be held farmers' institutes at such times and at such places throughout the State as will best promote the advancement of agricultural knowledge and the improvement of agricultural methods and practices. He shall publish and distribute such papers and addresses read or delivered at these institutes as he shall deem to be of value to the farming interest.

4. He shall investigate the subject of sub-soiling, the problems of drainage and of irrigation, their relation to agriculture, with a view to extending the area of the same, and the best modes of affecting each in the different portions of the State.

5. He shall investigate and report upon the question of broadening the market and of increasing the demand for cotton goods and all other agricultural and horticultural products, both in the United States and in foreign countries. He shall compile the statistics showing from abroad the number of bales of cotton consumed by the spinners, and demands for our cotton, the methods and course that sales to foreign countries now take, showing the purchasers, brokers, etc., through whose hands the cotton largely passes after leaving the producers, likewise showing in what countries an increased trade could be worked up, and thereby giving a better outlet for the trade and the best method to bring consumer and purchaser together, and all other information beneficial to farmers.

6. He shall cause to be investigated the diseases of grain, cotton, fruit, and other crops grown in this State, with a view to discovering remedies for such diseases. He shall also investigate the habits and propagation of the various insects that are injurious to the crops of this State, and the best methods for their destruction. The protection of fruit trees, shrubs and plants shall be under his direct supervision and control, and he shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties in relation thereto, conferred or imposed by law.

7. He shall investigate the subject of grasses and report upon their value and the cultivation of the varieties best adapted to the different sections of the State. He shall collect and publish information relating to forestry, tree planting, the best means of preserving and replenishing forests, and shall encourage the planting and culture of nut trees and recommend such legislation as may be necessary for the protection, restoration and preservation of the forests of this State.

8. He shall inquire into the subjects connected with stock raising, dairying and poultry; the obtaining and rearing of such domestic animals and fowls as are of most value, and the breeding and improvement of the same. He shall encourage the raising of fish and the culture of bees.

9. He shall investigate and report upon the growing of wool, and the utility and profit of sheep raising; he shall also inquire into the culture of silk, its preparation for market and its manufacture.

10. He shall correspond with the department of agriculture at Washington, and with such departments of the several states and territories of the United States, and, at his option, with those of foreign countries, and with the representatives of the United States in foreign countries, with the view of gathering information that will advance the interests of agriculture in Texas. He may also, for the same purpose, correspond with such organizations, societies, associations and individuals in the State as he may choose, having for their object the promotion of agriculture in any of its branches.

11. He shall collect and publish statistics and such other information regarding such industries of this State and of other states as may be considered of benefit in developing the agricultural resources of this State. He shall cause a proper collection of agricultural statistics to be made annually; and shall furnish blank forms to the tax assessors of each county before the first of January of each year, including forms as to the acreage in cotton, grain and other leading products of the State to be filled out by persons assessed for taxes, together with such instructions as will properly direct said assessor in filling them out. The heads of the several State departments, and of the State institutions, are required to furnish accurately such information as may be at their command whenever called upon for same by said commissioner. In the prosecution of his work, the commissioner is hereby empowered to enter manufacturing establishments chartered or authorized to do business in this State, and said corporations shall furnish such information as said commissioner may request of them.

12. He shall collect and publish statistics and other information regarding the irrigation of rice and other crops as may be of benefit in developing a more efficient system of laws safeguarding and defining the rights of users and sellers of water for irrigation purposes; he may employ a competent engineer and expert, possessing a practical knowledge of the application of irrigation to the raising of rice and other crops, for the purpose of assisting him in performing the duties required of him in this article, and he shall make up and file an annual report on same with such recommendations as he may deem beneficial to the industry, which report shall be filed with the Governor and transmitted to the Legislature.

13. He shall make and publish such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 11, Acts 1909, p. 353.]

Art. 52. [4444] Ex-officio duty.—The Commissioner shall be ex-officio a member of the board of directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State and shall be allowed all necessary expense in attending the meetings of said board. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 53. [4445] Shall make report.—The commissioner shall make and submit to the Governor, on or before the first day of November of each year, a full report showing the work and expenditures of his office during the fiscal year preceding, which report shall be transmitted by the Governor to the Legislature. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 54. [4446] Report printed and distributed.—Under the direction of the Commissioner, the Board of Control shall cause to be printed annually not to exceed ten thousand copies of the annual report of said commissioner, said report to be distributed to the farmers through the farmers' institutes and other agricultural organizations or otherwise, at the discretion of the commissioner. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 55. [4447] Commissioner shall co-operate.—No provision of this chapter shall be construed to in any way conflict with the scope and character of the work of the Agricultural and Mechanical College or of the agricultural experiment stations, but the said commissioner shall co-operate with the said college and said experiment stations in all lines looking toward the agricultural and horticultural interests of the State. [Id. Sec. 15.]

| May register as breeder | 59 | Inspection fee | 65 |
| Certificate as breeder | 60 | Fund | 66 |
| May register as grower | 61 | Cancelling registration | 67 |

Art. 56. State Register.—The Commissioner of Agriculture is directed to establish a State Register of Cotton Seed Breeders and Cotton Seed Growers who produce and offer for sale cotton seed for planting purposes and who voluntarily apply for registration under the provisions of this chapter and conform to the rules and regulations established for the administration and enforcement thereof by said Commissioner. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 127.]

Art. 57. Appointment.—The Commissioner of Agriculture of this State and the president of the A. & M. College of this State, shall appoint a State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners composed of three men who shall be experienced in the science of plant breeding. The State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners shall meet in the City of Austin on the second Tuesday in December of each year and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary. All applicants for license as Cotton Breeder and all applicants for license as Certified Cotton Seed Grower shall appear in person before said Board and shall furnish such information as the Board may require. The Board shall prescribe the qualifications of inspectors that may be employed under this law. [Id.]

Art. 58. Fees.—All applicants for license as Registered Cotton Seed Breeder and Certified Cotton Seed Grower shall pay to the said Board a fee of ten dollars as a prerequisite to such application for such license. Such fees as may be collected shall be used by the said Board in defraying expenses incident to conducting such examinations. [Id.]

Art. 59. May register as breeder.—Any cotton breeder in the State, or any person, firm or corporation engaged in breeding cotton, who produces and offers for sale cotton seed for planting purposes, and who has in his or its employ experienced and competent cotton breeder or breeders shall be eligible to registration as a Registered Cotton Seed Breeder, when he or it has satisfied the State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners herein provided for:

1. That he or it is a person, firm or corporation of good character and reputation for honesty, competency and fair dealing;

2. That he is skilled in the science of cotton breeding or has in his or its employment one or more persons who are skilled in the science of cotton breeding;

3. That he, or persons in his or its employment has originated or made distinctive improvements in the character of a useful strain of cotton;

4. That he or it owns or controls land and other facilities necessary in the breeding and production of seed of high purity and excellence; and has complied with the rules and regulations established by said State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners in pursuance of law. [Id.]

Art. 60. Certificate as breeder.—When the application of breeder of cotton seed made under the provisions of this law has been approved by said Board, said applicant shall be registered as a “Registered Cotton Seed Breeder” and shall be issued a certificate to that effect and shall be entitled to use the title “Registered Cotton Seed Breeder” and to advertise and sell cotton seed produced in conformity with the provisions of this law and the rules and regulations established in pursuance thereof as “Registered Cotton Seed;” which certificate shall expire one year from the date of issue unless otherwise revoked as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 61. May register as grower.—Any person, firm or corporation engaged in producing cotton seed to be offered for planting purposes shall be eligible for registration as a “Certified Cotton Seed Grower,” when he or it has satisfied the State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners:

1. That he or it is a person, firm or corporation of good character and reputation for honesty, competency and fair dealing.

2. That he or it will plant only seed obtained from a registered cotton seed breeder, and will offer for sale only the first or second year progeny of such registered cotton seed.

3. That he or it owns or controls land and other facilities necessary in the production of seed of high purity and excellence; and has complied with the rules and regulations established by said Board in pursuance of this law. [Id.]

Art. 62. Certificate as grower.—When the application of a cotton seed grower made under the provisions of this law has been approved by the said Board, said applicant shall be registered as a “Certified Cotton Seed Grower” and shall be issued a certificate to that effect and shall be entitled to use the title “Certified Cotton Seed Grower,” and to advertise and sell cotton seed produced in conformity with the provisions of this law and the rules and regulations established in pursuance thereof as

“Certified Cotton Seed.” Said certificate shall expire one year from date of issuance unless otherwise revoked as herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 63. Form of application.—The Board shall prepare suitable form of application for registration for cotton seed breeders and cotton seed growers, and shall establish rules and regulations, tests and standards to carry into effect the purposes of this law, which are to provide supplies of high grade cotton seed for planting purposes, and to enable the farmers to secure pure bred cotton seed for planting true to name. Said forms shall be in conformity with the provisions of this law and all tags furnished the registered seed breeders and certified seed growers, shall contain the words, “Registered Cotton Seed Breeder,” or the words “Certified Cotton Seed Grower,” and such other conditions as may be prescribed by the State Board of Plant Breeders. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall employ a sufficient number of competent inspectors to inspect fields of cotton, and the facilities for ginning, storing and handling cotton seed owned or controlled by persons registered under this law and used in the production of cotton seed to be offered for sale for planting purposes. Said inspectors shall make reports upon forms provided by said commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 64. Tags and labels.—If the reports of said inspectors show that the cotton grown by a licensee hereunder and the facilities for ginning, storing, and handling same conform to the rules and regulations and standards established by the board, there shall be issued to him or it a certificate evidencing his or its right to offer for sale the cotton seed so produced as “Registered Cotton Seed” or “Certified Cotton Seed.” Then the said Commissioner of Agriculture shall also issue to said cotton seed breeders and cotton seed growers tags or labels to attach to packages or containers containing said cotton seed certifying that same has been produced under the terms of this law, and an amount sufficient to cover all cost of printing tags and inspection shall be collected by said Commissioner.

Art. 65. Inspection fee.—Before any cotton seed breeder or cotton seed grower is registered under this law he or it shall agree in writing to pay to the said Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee to be fixed by said commissioner to pay the expense of inspecting his fields, gin and other facilities used in producing cotton seed, and for printing tags. Said fee shall not exceed 25 cents per acre for each acre of cotton, and $1.00 for each gin and warehouse. [Id.]

Art. 66. Fund.—All money so collected shall belong to a special fund of this State and shall be paid over by the Commissioner of Agriculture to the State Treasurer, during the first week of each month, and shall be credited to the “Special Pure Bred Cotton Seed Inspection Fund,” and such funds shall be expended in the enforcement of this law, by the Commissioner of Agriculture, and in the purchase and supply of means to enable the commissioner and his agents to enforce the provisions of this law. All such expenditures shall be verified by the affidavit of the Chief of the Division of Plant Pathology and Seeds to the Commissioner of Agriculture, and on the approval of such expenditures by the commissioner, the Comptroller shall draw his warrant on the Treasurer for the amount of such expenditures in favor of the person claiming the same, to be paid out of the "Special Pure Bred Cotton Seed Inspection Fund." [Id.]

Art. 67. Cancelling registration.—If the report of an inspector shall show that the character, quality and varietal purity of any field of cotton grown by any licensee hereunder does not conform to the rules, regulations, tests, and standards promulgated under authority of this law, or that the gin, warehouse, or other facilities do not conform to such rules, regulations, tests or standards, or if charges be made that any of the licensees hereunder have been guilty of any dishonest, unfair or improper conduct or practice in the conduct of his or its business of breeding or growing and selling cotton seed, the said Commissioner of Agriculture shall give written notice thereof to said breeder or grower and fix a time for hearing evidence relating to said report or charges of which the accused party shall have at least ten days' notice. If in the judgment of said Commissioner of Agriculture such adverse report or charges are sustained he shall cancel the registration and certificate of accused party and retake all tags or labels and license or certificate issued to him or it. If any registered cotton seed breeder or certified cotton seed grower is not satisfied with such verdict of the Commissioner of Agriculture, such person or persons shall have the right to appeal the case to the State Board of Plant Breeder Examiners, and shall be entitled to a hearing. [Id.]

Art. 68. Declared a nuisance.—The Pectinophora gossypiella, Saunders, known as the pink bollworm, is hereby declared a public nuisance and a menace to the cotton industry, and its eradication is a public necessity. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 62, Acts 1919, p. 72, Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 71, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 121.]

Art. 69. Definitions.—The term "pink bollworm" shall mean the insect in its various stages of development, including the egg, larval, pupal, and adult stages. The term "cotton" or "cotton products" shall mean cotton in the seed, ginned lint cotton, seed, hulls, cotton in the bolls, cotton stalks, and any and all character of cotton products except oil and meal. [Id.]

Art. 70. Policy and methods.—It is hereby declared the policy of the State in endeavoring to control and eradicate the pink bollworm to employ all such methods as scientific research demonstrates to be successful and as may be sanctioned by constitutional warrant, including inspection of cotton plants in the fields, or of cotton products wherever stored; the quarantine and fumigation of cotton and cotton products found to be contaminated; supervision of the growing of cotton in areas known to be contaminated; destruction of infested fields of cotton, or cotton products; and the prevention of planting of cotton in areas where infestation has been found. [Id.]

Art. 71. Investigation and recommendation.—If the Commissioner of Agriculture determines, through his co-operation with the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, that the pink bollworm exists outside of Texas but adjacent to the Texas border, he shall certify that fact to the Governor, who shall thereupon cause the convening of the Pink Bollworm Commission appointed as hereinafter provided for, which commission shall give notice of, and hold a hearing in the manner hereinafter provided at some central and easily accessible point in the county or counties in this State along the boundary adjacent to such infestation, and investigate into the danger to the cotton industry of Texas from such infestation adjacent to the Texas border and make such recommendation to the Governor as they deem sufficient to the protection of the cotton industry of the State. Should this report express the conclusion that it is dangerous to the cotton industry of Texas that cotton be grown in this State along the boundary adjacent to such infestation, the Governor shall thereupon proclaim such area as may be set out in said report a non-cotton zone, in which it shall be unlawful to plant, cultivate or grow any cotton for such period as the proclamation may specify; and if such report indicates that it will be safe to grow cotton under rules and regulations within such zone adjacent to the infestation outside of Texas, the Governor shall thereupon issue his proclamation declaring it unlawful to grow cotton within such area as may be recommended by the Pink Bollworm Commission, except under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Agriculture shall promulgate. Should the report of such commission indicate that it may be dangerous to the cotton industry of this State to allow the free movement of contaminated material from such infested territory into this State, the Governor shall thereupon proclaim a quarantine against such infested territory, and thereafter it shall be unlawful to import into Texas from such quarantined territory anything or substance liable to be contaminated with pink bollworm, and it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Agriculture to maintain a rigid inspection of articles liable to be contaminated which are being carried from such quarantined territory into the State of Texas. Before recommending the establishment or continuance in any county in this State bounded by an international boundary line, or a non-cotton zone, under this or any other article of this chapter, the Pink Bollworm Commission shall give careful consideration to the conditions existing, or likely to exist, on the non-Texas side of said boundary line, and the evidence concerning such conditions shall be such as to reasonably show that the establishment of a non-cotton zone in said county will effectively protect the cotton industry of Texas against the further spread of the infestation. [Id.]

Art. 72. Emergency quarantine.—If the pink bollworm shall be found in any gin, cotton seed oil mill, cotton seed warehouse, compress, or transportation vehicle in the State, or in any field of cotton, the Commissioner of Agriculture shall immediately certify that fact to the Governor, who shall proclaim a special emergency quarantine surrounding the known location of the pest to such extent as may be determined sufficient to prevent the spread of the pink bollworm, and it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ship any cotton or cotton products of any kind from such quarantine district, or transport any car, vehicle, or freight, or any other article liable to carry the pink bollworm from the quarantined area through, or to any other point in the State, except under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Agriculture shall promulgate; such emergency quarantine shall continue in full force and effect until such time as a hearing, as provided for in this chapter, can be held by the said Pink Bollworm Commission.

Art. 73. Destruction of cotton.—When it is deemed necessary to the protection of the cotton industry of Texas that the Commissioner of Agriculture shall destroy cotton, cotton products, or fields or cotton in which the pink bollworm shall have been found or which are probably contaminated by being near infestation of the pink bollworm; he shall report such condition to the Governor, setting out in detail the area or amount of cotton or cotton products to be destroyed. The Governor shall thereupon declare such cotton or fields of cotton a public menace. Before the destruction of such cotton or cotton products the Compensation Claim Board, hereinafter provided for, shall go upon the premises and report to the Commissioner of Agriculture the value of the fields of cotton or cotton products to be destroyed. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall then be empowered to use all authority requisite to the complete destruction of such cotton, cotton products or fields of cotton to prevent the spread of the pink bollworm from such localities. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall certify to the fact of such cotton products or fields of cotton having been destroyed and shall file such report and certificate with the State Comptroller, who shall issue his warrant upon the State Treasurer for such sum as may be declared just and due. [Id.]

Art. 74. Examination of area.—Whenever the Commissioner of Agriculture shall deem it necessary to the protection of the cotton industry of Texas that the growing cotton within any area within the State, except as provided for in the preceding articles hereof, be placed under supervision, or that cotton growing be prohibited as a means of aiding in the control and eradication of the pink bollworm, he shall cause to be made a thorough examination of such area by a competent and experienced entomologist, who shall, after going upon the premises and after making an examination in person, report the result thereof to the Commissioner of Agriculture. Should this report express the conclusion that the pink bollworm exists within the territory under investigation, the Commissioner of Agriculture shall certify this report to the Governor, who shall cause the Pink Bollworm Commission, hereinafter provided for, to hold a hearing at some central and easily accessible point within the area under investigation; due notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in some newspaper in or near the county or counties under investigation, at least ten days before such hearing. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall present to the Commission a statement setting forth the following facts:

1. The name of the entomologist making the examination on behalf of the State Department of Agriculture.
2. The date when such examination was made.
3. The locality where the pink bollworm is alleged to exist.
4. Any other information deemed necessary by the Commission for the discharge of its duties under the provisions of this chapter.

Such statement shall be verified by oath of the person making the same and shall be filed and preserved in the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture and be open to the inspection of the public. Said Pink Bollworm Commission shall make a report to the Governor immediately after the hearing. Should this report and recommendation be for the prevention of the planting of cotton in any area and for the establishment of a non-cotton zone, such recommendation shall specify the area to be embraced in the proposed non-cotton zone. Upon receipt of this report, the Governor shall declare the growing of cotton within such area as may be recommended by the Pink Bollworm Commission a public menace, and thereafter it shall be unlawful to plant, cultivate or grow cotton, or to allow cotton to grow within such zone, such proclamation of the Governor to remain in effect until the Pink Bollworm Commission, herein provided for, shall have certified that the condition of menace no longer exists. In the event of the establishment of any non-cotton zone as authorized by this chapter, all persons prevented from producing cotton in the non-cotton zones shall be entitled to receive compensation from the State in the measure of the actual and necessary losses sustained thereby. The Compensation Claim Board, herein provided for, shall have full power and authority to determine the amount of compensation to such persons. In determining the actual and necessary losses, the Compensation Claim Board shall take into consideration the value of the average yield of cotton and other crops second in economic importance thereto in that vicinity; the total amount of land planted to crops during the year for which compensation is claimed; the percentage of such land customarily planted in cotton in that vicinity, and such other factors as they deem essential. The words "cultivated crops" as used above shall not be construed to include any small grain crops, hay or pasture crops which are not cultivated during the growing season. No person shall be entitled to compensation who does not in good faith obey the proclamation of the Governor establishing such non-cotton zone. Should the report of the Pink Bollworm Commission express the conclusion that it will not be dangerous to the cotton industry of Texas to permit the growing of cotton within such district under such rules and regulations as it shall be deemed adequate to prevent the spread of the pink bollworm, the Governor shall proclaim such area as may be set out in the report of the Pink Bollworm Commission a regulated zone, in which it shall be unlawful to plant, cultivate and market cotton under such rules and regulations as shall be promulgated therefor by the Commissioner of Agriculture, which may include the planting of seed from non-infested territory, ginning at designated gins, milling or disinfecting of all seed produced within such zone, marketing, cleaning of fields, and such other rules as may be found necessary; provided that no ginner shall be authorized to gin cotton from regulated zones unless he shall disinfect all seed under such rules as the Commissioner of Agriculture shall prescribe. Such proclamation of the Governor, establishing such regulated zone shall remain in effect until the Pink Bollworm Commission shall have certified that the menace no longer exists. [Id.]

Art. 75. Compensation Claim Board.—The Governor shall appoint a Compensation Claim Board for the State, who shall serve until relieved therefrom by the Governor, whose duty it shall be to determine in the manner herein provided the measure of compensation due persons prevented from growing cotton and the damages sustained by persons having cotton condemned and destroyed as provided for herein. The said board shall be composed of three citizens of the State residing outside any area under quarantine under the provisions of this law, at least two of whom are actually engaged in the production of cotton. Before entering upon their duties, the members of the Board shall take the official oath, and shall organize by electing one of its members chairman and the Commissioner of Agriculture shall act as ex-officio secretary. The concurrence of two members of the Board shall constitute legal action. The Compensation Claim Board shall conduct a public hearing in the county or counties from which the claims for compensation have been filed, due notice of which hearing shall be given by publication in some newspaper published in or near the county or counties in which the claimant resides, not less than ten days before the date of such hearing, and by mailing from the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture a letter to each claimant, not less than ten days before the date of such hearing, which notices shall state the time and place of each hearing. Every such claim for compensation from the State shall be made under oath, attested by two citizens of the county in which the claimant resides, upon blanks to be furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture, and except when the claim is for compensation for losses under previous acts, shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture not later than November 15 of the year for which claim for compensation is made. Every such claim shall state:

1. The name and post office of the claimant.
2. The location of the farm upon which the claim is based.
3. The total acreage of all cultivated crops produced in the year in which such claim is presented.
4. All other information deemed essential by the said Compensation Claim Board for the performance of the duties devolved upon them by this law.

Each allotment of compensation shall be evidenced by a written order, entered in a permanently bound book kept by the Board in the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture, and a certified copy of each allotment shall be given the claimant. If any claimant is dissatisfied with the action of the Claim Board on his claim, he shall have the right within six months after the decision of the Claim Board to make application to the District Court of the county of which he is a resident or in which his cotton was destroyed or in which he was prevented from growing cotton and have the action of the Claim Board reviewed by such District Court. If the State, acting through the Commissioner of Agriculture, is dissatisfied with any such decision of the Claim Board, it shall likewise have the right to resort to said court for such review. [Id.]

Art. 76. Pink Bollworm Commission.—The Governor shall appoint a Pink Bollworm Commission for the State composed of five men who shall serve until relieved therefrom by the Governor. One shall be appointed upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Agriculture; one upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States; one upon the recommendation of the District Judge of the county or counties under consideration; and two upon his own discretion. The latter two shall be actual cotton growers. Should any of the officials herein authorized to make recommendations for appointment fail or refuse so to do, or should any person so nominated refuse to serve or become incapacitated for service, the Governor shall make such appointment upon his own discretion. Said Bollworm Commission shall take the official oath. They shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and the Commissioner of Agriculture shall be ex-officio secretary. [Id.]

Art. 77. Salary and expenses.—The members of the said Board and of said Commission shall each receive a salary of five dollars per day and actual traveling expenses when engaged in the performance of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 78. Powers.—The Commissioner of Agriculture and his authorized agents shall have the power to enter into any field of cotton or upon any premises in which cotton or its products may be stored or held, and may examine any products or container of cotton or thing or substance liable to be infested with the pink bollworm, and shall have power to enter upon any premises for the purpose of issuing permits and to examine all books and records of purchasers or handlers or common carriers of cotton products. [Id.]

Art. 79. Inspectors.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall make adequate investigation to determine the presence of the pink bollworm in the State and shall take prompt action to secure the establishment and maintenance of an effective quarantine of all infested areas that may be discovered within the State, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The Commissioner of Agriculture may employ inspectors, and such other help as he may deem necessary, and may prescribe the duties of such inspectors and other help. No person shall be appointed as an inspector who has not had at least two years actual experience as an entomologist, or two years training as an entomologist in the Science Department of some reputable college or university. Such inspectors shall be paid not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per month and their necessary expenses. [Id.]

Art. 80. Federal co-operation.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall co-operate with the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States in any measure authorized and to be undertaken by authority of the Federal Government in preventing the introduction or establishment of the pink bollworm in the State of Texas. If the Congress of the United States should appropriate any moneys with which to assist this State in the payment of compensation to farmers for being deprived of the right to plant cotton, and should such appropriation by Congress provide for this money to be disbursed by the State of Texas, the State Treasurer is hereby authorized to receive such moneys from the United States Government, and the Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby authorized to disburse same in accordance with the laws of this State and the United States. [Id.]

Art. 81. Payment of claims.—All claims for damages and claims for compensation arising from the enforcement of the provisions of this law shall be paid on certified statement by the Chairman of the Compensation Claim Board, or upon certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, by warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the State Treasurer, and all salaries and other expenses incurred in the administration of this law shall be paid in the usual way upon a certified statement of the Commissioner of Agriculture. [Id.]

Art. 82. Former zones.—All regulated zones and non-cotton zones in effect for 1921 are hereby renewed and carried forward and shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter and all procedure heretofore taken to establish such zones is hereby validated. [Id.]

Art. 83. "Agricultural seeds" defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, agricultural seeds are defined as the seeds of alfalfa, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, clovers, corn, cotton, saccharine sorghums, non-saccharine sorghums, broomcorn, small grains, (including rice), cow peas, soy beans, velvet beans, peanuts, vetch, rape, millet, Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, Kentucky blue grass, orchard grass, sudan grass, onion and Rhodes grass, which are to be used for sowing or seeding purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 158.]

Art. 84. Label.—Agricultural seeds, except as herein otherwise provided, which are offered or exposed for sale within this State for seeding purposes, in lots of ten pounds or more, shall bear a plainly written or printed statement in the English language stating:

- (a) Commonly accepted name of agricultural seed.
- (b) Correct weight in pounds and ounces.
- (c) Name of State where seed was grown, and if unknown, a statement that the locality where grown is unknown.
- (d) Approximate percentage of germible seed as determined by germination test and date on which germination test was made. Name and address of person, firm or party or agency making the germination test, provided however, that the statement shall not be a basis for prosecution under this chapter.
- (e) Name and address of vendor.
- (f) The approximate percentage, by weight, or purity, meaning freedom of such agricultural seed from foreign matter and from other seed distinguishable by their appearance.
- (g) The approximate total percentage, by weight, of weed seeds or other foreign matter.
- (h) The name and approximate number per pound of each kind of the seed of the following named noxious weeds which are present at the rate of, or in excess of, one such noxious weed seed in five grams of agricultural seed. Such noxious weed seed are defined as seeds of dodder (cascuta, various species), bind weed or wild morning glory (convolvulus, various species), blue weed (helianthus ciliatus), wire grass (pasplum distinchum), Bermuda grass, Johnson grass, and all other seeds of foreign matter known by science to be noxious, are hereby defined as noxious weed seeds. [Id.]

Art. 85. Mixture of.—Mixtures of seed offered or exposed for sale within the State for seeding purposes, in lots of ten pounds or more, containing one or more kinds of the agricultural seeds defined in the preceding article in excess of five per centum, by weight, of the total mixture, shall bear a plainly written or printed statement in the English language, stating:

- (a) That such seed is a mixture.
- (b) The approximate percentage, by weight of inert matter.
- (c) The requirements provided in paragraphs (c) (g) and (h) of the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 86. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agricultural seeds, or mixtures of seeds, when plainly labeled, "not clean seed," or "not tested seed" nor "seeds sold to merchants to be recleaned before being sold or exposed for sale for seeding purposes", or when in storage for the purpose of recleaning. [Id.]

Art. 87. Analysis.—The percentage of purity of agricultural seed and the mixture as defined in this chapter, and other percentages required by this law, shall be based upon a test or analysis, conducted either by the Commissioner of Agriculture, or his assistants, or by the vendor of the agricultural seed or "mixture," provided that any test or analysis made by the vendor or his agent shall conform to the reasonable regulations which said Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe, or shall conform to the reasonable regulations or methods of testing adopted or used by the Association of Official Seed Analysts of the United States Department of Agriculture. [Id.]

Art. 88. Fees for test.—Whoever buys or sells said agricultural seeds, or mixtures of seeds, for the use in this State for seeding purposes, may submit fair samples of such seeds to the Commissioner of Agriculture for examination, and test of purity and of vitality, and said commissioner shall cause such examination and test to be promptly made, and report thereon, and return to the sender. For the test of purity, said commissioner shall charge a fee of twenty-five cents, for the examination of each sample, and for a test of vitality, a fee of twenty-five cents, either or both of which fees shall be payable in advance, provided that these tests shall be made free of charge to the citizens of this State. All money received from receipt of such fees shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 89. Samples.—The enforcement of this law shall be entrusted to the Commissioner of Agriculture, and he is authorized in person or by his inspectors, or assistants, to take for analysis, paying the reasonable purchase price, a sample not exceeding four ounces in weight, from any lot of agricultural seeds or "mixtures" offered or exposed for sale. Said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of the vendor or parties interested, or his or their agents or representatives, and shall not be less than ten per cent of the whole lot inspected and shall be thoroughly mixed and then divided into two samples and placed in glass or metal vessels or containers, carefully sealed, and a label placed on each vessel stating the name of the agricultural seed or mixture sampled, the name of the vendor from whose stock said samples were taken, and the date and place of taking such samples, and said label shall be signed by said commissioner, or his authorized agent; or said sample may be taken in the presence of the disinterested witnesses if the vendor or party in interest fails or refuses to be present, when notified. One of said duplicate samples shall be left with or on the premises of the vendor or party in interest, and the other retained by the commissioner for analysis and comparison with the labels required by law. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall annually and prior to December first, make and submit to the Governor a report of the services performed by him or his assistants, together with an itemized account of all moneys paid out as authorized under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 90. Liability for damages.—No action for the recovery of damages or any liability whatsoever for any violation of any provision of this chapter, or for the breach of any legal duty or obligation in the sale of the agricultural seeds defined in the first article of this chapter, or the sale of mixtures defined in the third article of this chapter, shall be maintained by the buyer and against the vendor of such seeds, unless the claim or claims of such buyer are based upon properly drawn samples of such seed, from the bulk thereof, and examined in the way provided in this law. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as preventing one farmer from selling to another farmer such seed grown on his own farm as covered by the provisions of this chapter without having such seed tested and labeled as provided for herein. [Id.]

Art. 91. Publishing report.—The result of the analysis and tests of seed made by the Commissioner of Agriculture of samples drawn by him or his inspectors may, at his discretion, be published in his report. [Id.]

Art. 92. Appropriation and expense.—There shall be appropriated annually from the State Treasury a sum in favor of the Department of Agriculture and the same together with the fees provided for in this law, may be expended in the enforcement of this law. So much of said appropriation and the moneys secured as fees for tests and analysis of seed after first exhausting the moneys secured from the collection of the fees as herein provided for, shall be paid to the Commissioner of Agriculture as he may show by his bills has been expended in performing the duties required by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 93. Definitions.—The words, “persons”, “vendor”, and “party” in interest and “whoever” as used in this chapter shall include both the plural and singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies and individuals. [Id.]

Art. 94. Branding or labeling.—All corporations, firms or persons, before selling or offering for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State, shall brand or attach to each bag, barrel or package a plainly printed statement, showing the brand or name of said fertilizer, the net weight of the contents of the package, the name and address of the corporation, firm or person registering said fertilizer and the minimum percentages guaranteed to be present of available phosphoric acid, of nitrogen and of potash soluble in distilled water. Only such potash shall be claimed to be present as sulphate, which is in excess of the quantity required to combine with the chlorine present, less one-half per cent. In bone meal, tankage, or other similar products, the phosphoric acid shall be claimed as total phosphoric acid, unless it be desired to claim available phosphoric acid only in which latter case the guarantee must take the form above set forth. In the case of bone meal and tankage, information showing the fineness of the product may be branded or attached to the package, provided it takes a form approved by the State Chemist. All branding or labeling must be durable and legible, and so placed as to be easily read. [Acts 1911, p. 218.]

Art. 95. Statement to be furnished chemist.—All firms, corporations or persons, before selling or offering for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State, shall annually file with the chemist of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, herein termed the State Chemist, a certified statement giving the information required by the preceding article and the true names and sources of all the ingredients used in the manufacture of the said fertilizer. If the same fertilizer is sold under a different name or names, said fact shall be stated, and the different brands which are identical shall be named. If the source of any ingredient of said fertilizer is changed, notification must be promptly furnished the State Chemist. A copy of the brand or stamp on the bag or other package or on the label attached thereto shall be filed with the State Chemist on or before delivery to the dealers, agents or consumers in this State, which brand or stamp shall be uniformly used during the fiscal year for which it is filed, but such brand or stamp shall truly set forth the data required in the first article of this chapter, and be otherwise in accordance with its provisions. On receipt of the certified statement above described, and the copy of the brand or stamp, and after compliance with other requirements of this chapter, the State Chemist shall issue a certificate of registration for the commercial fertilizer, which shall be in force until the succeeding September first. A brand name previously registered shall not be allowed to be registered by another firm, corporation or individual, and no brand or name shall be allowed to be registered which is so nearly similar to another as to lead to uncertainty, confusion or fraud. The party whom the previous records of the State Chemist's office show to have first registered the name shall be permitted to retain it, subject, however, to appeal and hearing before the State Chemist to determine who is entitled to the brand; but the action of the State Chemist shall be without prejudice to the legal rights of the parties to the brand or trade-mark. No brand or name once registered shall be changed to a lower grade at any subsequent registration. The State Chemist shall publish annually a list of brands or trade-marks registered with him. [Id.]

Art. 96. Words prohibited on tag.—The words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any complete fertilizer which complete fertilizer contains, by its guaranteed analysis, less than ten per cent available phosphoric acid, one and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent nitrogen and two per cent of potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any complete fertilizer which contains, by its guaranteed analysis, less than eight per cent available phosphoric acid, one and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent nitrogen and two per cent potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any acid phosphate with potash, which shall contain, by its guaranteed analysis, less than thirteen per cent available phosphoric acid, and one per cent of potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any acid phosphate with potash which shall contain by its guaranteed analysis, less than eleven per cent available phosphoric acid, and one per cent potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any plain acid phosphate which shall contain by its guaranteed analysis, less than fourteen per cent available phosphoric acid; and the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any plain acid phosphate which shall contain by its guaranteed analysis less than twelve per cent available phosphoric acid. The word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of acid phosphate with nitrogen which shall contain, by its guaranteed analysis, less than nine per cent of available phosphoric acid and two per cent nitrogen, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value. No commercial fertilizer shall be sold, offered or exposed for sale for use within this State, upon which the use of the words "high grade" or "standard" is prohibited by this article, unless the words "low grade" is printed in two inch letters in a conspicuous place upon the package of said commercial fertilizer. No claim or guarantee for less than one per cent of phosphoric acid or of potash, or for less than a 0.82 per cent of nitrogen, shall be allowed in any commercial fertilizer. [Id.]

Art. 97. Tax tags.—To defray the expenses connected with the inspection of commercial fertilizer sold, or exposed, or offered for sale in this State, and experiments relative to the value thereof, all firms, corporations or persons engaged in the manufacture or sale of commercial fertilizers shall pay to the State Chemist an inspection tax of twenty-five cents per ton (2000 pounds) for such commercial fertilizers sold or exposed, or offered for sale in this State in order to entitle the same to inspection and delivery, and shall attach a tag furnished by the State Chemist as evidence that said tax is paid, and goods so tagged shall not be liable to any further tax. But nothing in this article shall interfere with fertilizers passing through the State in transit; nor apply to the delivery of fertilizing materials in bulk, to fertilizing factories for manufacturing purposes. The fees received by the State Chemist and all the penalties collected under this chapter shall be deposited with the treasurer of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and shall be expended under the direction of the Board of Trustees of said College in defraying the expenses of inspecting and analyzing commercial fertilizers, the preparation of tags, and bulletins, experiments relative to the value of fertilizers, and for such other purposes as the Board of Trustees of said College shall allow or direct. Firms, corporations or persons, or agents representing them, who have registered their brands in compliance with this law, shall forward to the State Chemist a request for tax tags, stating that the said tags are to be used upon the brands of commercial fertilizers registered and sold in accordance with this chapter, and said request shall be accompanied with the inspection tax, whereupon the State Chemist shall issue tags to parties applying, who shall attach said tags to each bag, barrel or package thereof. All firms, corporations or persons are hereby forbidden to attach the tag prescribed by this article to any bag, barrel or package of any commercial fertilizer which has not been previously registered as required in this chapter, and which is not in accordance with all other provisions of this chapter. No tags shall be used after the end of the fiscal year for which they are issued, and they shall not be redeemed by the State Chemist. The fiscal year shall be comprised between the dates of September first and August thirty-first, inclusive. The State Chemist is hereby empowered to adopt a form for said tags. [Id.]

Art. 98. Analysis and publication.—The State Chemist shall cause one analysis or more to be made annually of such commercial fertilizer sold or offered for sale under the provisions of this Act as may be sampled under his direction. The State Chemist, in person or by deputy, shall have power to enter into any car, warehouse, store, building, boat, vessel, steamboat, or place, supposed to contain fertilizers for the purpose of inspection or sampling, and shall have the power to take a sample for analysis, not exceeding two pounds, from any package or lot of fertilizer found within the State. Said sample shall be drawn by means of a sampling tube of uniform diameter and at least eighteen inches long, placed in a jar or can, sealed and labeled by the inspector. Said sample shall be taken from not less than five bags, but in lots of 100 and over, from not less than 5 per cent of the entire number. All analyses shall be made by the official methods of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists of North America. In the trial of any suit or action wherein is called in question the value or composition of any fertilizer, a certificate signed by the State Chemist and attested with his seal, setting forth the analysis made by the State Chemist, or under his direction, of the sample of said fertilizer analyzed by him under the provisions of this chapter, shall be prima facie proof that the fertilizer was of the value and consistency shown by his said analysis. And the said certificate of the State Chemist shall be admissible in evidence to the same extent as if it were his deposition taken in said action in the manner prescribed by law for the taking of depositions. The State Chemist shall issue at least one bulletin annually, setting forth the analyses of fertilizers made under the provisions of this chapter, the operations of the law, and such other information concerning violations or operations of this chapter, or otherwise pertaining to the sale of fertilizers as may be considered necessary. The State Chemist shall also investigate the composition, properties and agricultural values of fertilizers or of fertilizer materials or ingredients of fertilizers sold or offered for sale within the State of Texas, and shall publish his results as he may find. [Id.]

is four per cent or more below the guaranteed value in plant food, he shall assess such deficiency against the manufacturer or guarantor of the fertilizer, and require that the value of the deficiency be made good to all persons who have purchased said fertilizer; and the State Chemist may seize any fertilizer belonging to such manufacturer or guarantor if the deficiency shall not be paid within thirty days after notice to such manufacturer. Any person, firm or corporation who shall intentionally or knowingly sell or offer for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State which is materially below the guaranteed value in plant food, shall refund to all purchasers of said commercial fertilizer twice the value of the deficiency in plant food. [Id.]

Art. 100. Forbidden materials in fertilizer.—It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale in this State any fertilizer or fertilizing materials which contain an undue quantity of hair, or which contains leather scraps, peat, or other substances of low availability as food for plants, but in which such forbidden materials aid in making up the required or guaranteed analysis. Whenever the analysis by the State Chemist shall show the presence of any of these unlawful materials in goods registered for sale, publication shall be made in bulletins giving the name or brand of the goods and the unlawful substance contained in its composition. No manufacturer or seller of such goods shall be allowed to collect pay for the same, and if payment has been made it shall be returned by the seller to the purchaser. A copy of the bulletin containing the statement of the presence of said unlawful materials in the named goods shall be evidence in any court in this State in bar of payment and for recovery of money paid for goods so named. The presence of any forbidden material shall vitiate the whole, provided that manufacturers who desire to use any such material may do so under such regulations as the State Chemist may prescribe, if it be shown that it is available for a proper purpose. [Id.]

Art. 101. Statement of quantity.—It shall be lawful for the State chemist to require the officers, agents, or managers of any railroad, steamboat or other transportation company, transporting fertilizers or fertilizing material in the State, to furnish monthly statements of the quantity of such fertilizers, with the names of the consignor and consignee and the name or brand delivered on their respective lines at any and all points within this State. The State chemist is hereby empowered to compel such officers, agents or managers to submit their books for examination, if found expedient so to do. [Id.]

Art. 102. Statement of sales.—Every firm, corporation or person who has registered fertilizers for sale within this State, shall mail to the State chemist, on forms provided by the State chemist, within three days of each sale, shipment or delivery, a statement showing the official name of fertilizer, the quantity and the name and address of the person to whom the fertilizer is sold, and if such fertilizer is to be used for manufacturing purposes, the fact must be so stated, and also the composition of said fertilizer. Every corporation, firm or person registered to sell fertilizers within this State according to this chapter, shall annually on the first day of May, submit to the State chemist a statement of their sales of said fertilizer since September 1, preceding, and the State chemist is hereby authorized to require other statements of sales, if necessary, in such form as he may prescribe. The sales or shipments of any individual, corporation, firm, or person shall not be disclosed. [Id.]

Art. 103. Seizure.—Any commercial fertilizer sold, offered, or exposed for sale within this State in violation of any provision of this chapter, shall be liable to seizure at the instance of the State chemist. Upon complaint being filed by the State chemist, in person or by duly authorized deputy, with any county judge or justice of the peace, describing the commercial fertilizer and the place where it is believed that said commercial fertilizer is sold, offered or exposed for sale in violation of law, such county judge or justice of the peace shall issue his warrant directing and commanding the sheriff or any constable of his county to search such place, and if the law is being violated, to seize the commercial fertilizer, and it shall be the duty of the officer to whom such warrant is delivered to search the place described in the warrant and to seize all commercial fertilizer found therein which is in violation of law, and if admission into said place is refused, the officer executing said warrant is hereby authorized to force open the same. If it appears at the hearing before the county judge or justice of the peace who issued said writ, that the commercial fertilizer was being sold, exposed or offered for sale in violation of any provision of this chapter, said commercial fertilizer shall be condemned and delivered to an officer or agent of the State chemist, to be sold by or under the direction of the State chemist, and the net proceeds paid to the treasurer of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. The sale shall be made at the courthouse door in the county in which the seizure is made, after thirty days' advertisement in some newspaper published in said county, or if no newspaper is published in such county, then by like advertisement in a newspaper published in the nearest county thereto having a newspaper. The advertisement shall state the name or brand of the goods, the quantity, and why seized and offered for sale. Said commercial fertilizer shall be sampled and subjected to analysis, if necessary, or tagged or branded and otherwise brought into compliance with the requirements of this chapter, before being sold. The State chemist, however, may, in his discretion, release the commercial fertilizer seized or condemned, upon the payment of the required tax or charge and all cost and expense incurred in any proceeding connected with such seizure and condemnation and upon compliance with all other requirements of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 104. Injunction.—The Attorney General and the several county attorneys, when requested by the State chemist, shall institute suit to enjoin any person, firm or corporation, resident or non-resident, from manufacturing, or selling or soliciting orders for the sale of fertilizers in this State or selling fertilizers for use in this State without complying with all the provisions of this chapter, which injunction may issue without bond or advanced cost. [Id.]

Art. 105. Sale to user.—Manufacturers, jobbers, dealers or manipulators of commercial fertilizers may sell acid phosphate or other commercial fertilizer in bulk to persons, individuals or firms who desire to purchase the same for their own use on their own land but not for sale or distribution, under rules prescribed by the State chemist which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the inspection tax shall be paid upon such fertilizer as provided in this chapter. But if such bulk fertilizer is offered for sale or distribution it must be tagged and branded and otherwise accord with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 106. Containers and weights.—All fertilizers or fertilizing materials sold or offered for sale for use within this State shall be in bags or packages of one hundred pounds net weight, except as provided in the preceding article. The weight of fertilizers shall be ascertained by the inspectors of the State chemist before drawing a sample, or by the purchaser within ten days of delivery to him, in the presence of at least two disinterested witnesses, one chosen by the purchaser and the other by the manufacturer, and the purchaser shall within five days notify the manufacturer to make good the deficiency. Upon failure of the manufacturer to do so within twenty days thereafter he shall be liable to a penalty of three dollars for each sack, barrel or package, which immediately attaches and becomes recoverable by the State, one-half of the penalty so received to be paid to the purchaser in case of a sale. If any such manufacturer shall refuse, decline or neglect to be present or to choose a witness within six days as herein provided, after having been notified or requested in writing by the purchaser so to do, then he shall have forfeited his right to do so and the purchaser may select two witnesses who shall select a third, and the three shall proceed to ascertain said weight. [Id.]

Art. 107. Analysis by purchaser.—Any person not a dealer in, or agent for the sale of any fertilizer, who may purchase any commercial fertilizer for his own use within this State and not for sale, may take a sample of same for analysis, which analysis shall be made free of charge by or under the direction of the State chemist. Said sample or samples of fertilizer shall be taken in the presence of both purchaser and seller. One cupful of the fertilizer shall be taken from the top and one cupful from the bottom of each sack, provided that there are not more than five sacks in the lot, but in lots of 10 to 100 sacks, from not less than five sacks; in lots of 100 and over, from not less than five per cent of the entire number. The samples so taken shall be intermixed upon some surface so as not to mix dirt or any other substance with the fertilizer. After thorough mixing, at least one pound of the material must be put into each of two cans or jars, one of which securely sealed and marked in such a way as to surely identify the sample and show by whom it was sent, but the name of the fertilizer or of the person from whom it was purchased need not be given, and must be forwarded by express, all charges prepaid, to the State chemist; the other sample, securely sealed, shall be turned over to the company or agent selling same. The purchaser shall also send with the sample a certificate signed by himself and two disinterested witnesses, stating that the sender has purchased the fertilizer for his own use and not for sale and that the sample was taken in the manner prescribed in this article, and that the sender has in his possession a certificate signed by himself and the two witnesses, giving the name of the fertilizer and manufacturer thereof as tagged or branded on the packages and will forward this certificate to the State chemist on receipt of the analysis. If the person, company or agent shall refuse, decline or neglect to witness the taking of samples, after having been requested or notified by the purchaser in writing six days before so to do, then the sample may be taken in the manner already described in the presence of two disinterested witnesses. Any person having sent a sample for analysis under the provisions of this article, who shall, after having received the report of analysis of same, refuse to furnish the required certificate, shall thereafter forfeit the privilege of analysis of fertilizers under this article. [Id.]

Art. 108. Definitions.—The terms “commercial fertilizer,” “misbranded,” and “adulterated,” as used in this chapter, shall have the same meaning as is given those terms in Article 1716 of the Penal Code. [Id.]

Art. 109. Standards of containers.—The following standards of containers for the shipment of fruits and vegetables in this State are hereby established and adopted as State standards.

1. Standard Bushel Basket. The standard bushel basket shall contain not less than 2150.4 cubic inches in the basket proper, regardless of the manner in which the lid is made.

2. Standard Four Basket Crate. The basket in said crates shall hold not less than three quarts dry measure, and the dimensions of such baskets shall be 5x8 inches at the bottom, 6x10 inches at the top, and 4 inches deep, and shall contain not less than 201.6 cubic inches. The heads of the crates holding said baskets shall be $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide by 11 inches at the bottom, and 13 inches at the top in length and not less than $\frac{7}{16}$ of an inch thick. The veneer or boards for the bottoms, sides and tops shall be not less than $4\frac{1}{2}$, 4, and $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide respectively, and not less than $\frac{1}{7}$ of an inch thick and 22 inches long. Both crates and baskets shall be made of good, substantial material, sufficiently strong to withstand the ordinary strain incident to transportation and handling.

3. Standard Six-basket Crate. Each basket of a six-basket crate shall contain not less than 268.8 cubic inches.

4. Standard Folding Onion Crate. The standard folding onion crate shall not be less than 19 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches long, 11 $\frac{3}{16}$ wide and 9 $\frac{13}{16}$ inches deep, inside measurements, containing not less than 2154.4 cubic inches.

5. Standard Orange Box. The dimensions of the standard orange box shall be 12x12x12 inches for each one-half of box, inside measurement, and the dimensions of a one-half (or strap box) shall be 12x12x6 inches for each one-half box, inside measurement.

6. Standard Berry Box or Crate. The standard quart berry box or crate shall contain not less than 24 quart baskets containing 67.2 cubic inches each, dry measure; and the standard pint berry box or crate shall hold not less than 24 pint baskets, containing not less than 33.6 cubic inches, dry measure. [Acts 1917, p. 396, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 55.]

Art. 110. Grades and packs.—The following “grades and packs” are hereby established as State standards for the State of Texas:

(a) Standard Peach Grades and Packs. Standard peach grades are three in number; namely, Fancy, Choice or No. 1, and No. 2.

Fancy peaches shall be medium to large size, good color for the variety named, firm and sound, or proper maturity for shipment to distant markets, carefully picked and closely packed in bushel baskets or crates of four or six basket capacity.

Choice or No. 1 peaches shall be of average size and color for the variety named, sound, firm, practically free from blemishes and defects, of proper maturity for shipment to distant markets, carefully picked and closely packed in bushel baskets or crates of four or six baskets capacity.

No. 2 peaches shall be all such sound fruit as is not good enough for No. 1's, such as small, slightly uneven surface, greens, ripens or slight defects of whatever kind, but suitable for market purposes and for reasonably distant shipments. Each and every package of fruits and vegetables offered for sale or shipment shall have plainly stamped on it the grade of such fruits or vegetables and the name and post office address of the person shipping the same, provided that this shall apply only to shipments of such fruits and vegetables as have grades established by law.

Culls. Any and all peaches that are too small in size, ill shaped and poor in general quality to measure up to any of the above grades, shall be known as culls, unfit for market purposes, and shall not be shipped unless branded “Culls” and shipped in a separate consignment.

Texas Standard Peach Packs. The standard peach packs for six basket crate shall be eight in number; namely, 72's, 96's, 138's, 162's, 180's, 216's, 270's and 324's.

To Pack 72's. (Begin at end of basket.) Place 1 and 2 alternately in 4 rows, two layers high, 6 to the layer on end, blossom end up.

To Pack 96's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 4 rows, 2 layers high, 8 to the layer on end, blossom end up.

To Pack 138's. Place 2 and 1 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 8 and 7 alternately to the layer, flat.

To Pack 162's. Place 2 and 1 alternately in 6 rows, 3 layers high, 9 to the layer, flat.

To Pack 180's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 10 to the layer, flat.

To Pack 216's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 6 rows, 3 layers high, 12 to the layer, flat.

To Pack 270's. Place 3 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 15 to the layer, flat.

To Pack 324's. Place 3 and 3 alternately in 6 rows, 3 layers high, 18 to the layer, flat.

All packages must be filled tight, in all layers from bottom to top, and extend approximately 1 inch above the top rim or edge of the package, whether it be a bushel basket, crate basket, or box. All peaches in the same crate or package shall be as nearly as possible of a uniform degree of ripeness.

(b) Texas Standard Tomato Grades and Packs. Texas standard tomato grades may be two in number; namely, Fancy and Choice. Texas standard tomato packs shall be seven (7) in number for the six basket crate and nine (9) in number for the four basket crate and the manner in which tomatoes are packed will partly determine their grade.

☐ Texas Standard Six Basket Crate. Fancy. To Pack 72's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 3 rows, 2 layers high, 6 to layer, blossom end up, 12 to the basket.

☐ To Pack 84's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 4 rows on edge 8 to the layer for first layer, and 2 and 2 alternately in 3 rows, flat, blossom end up, 6 to the layer for the first layer, and 3 and 3 alternately in 3 rows, on edge, blossom end out; 9 to the layer for the second or last layer; 15 to the basket.

☐ To Pack 108's. Place 3 and 3 alternately in 3 rows, on edge, 9 to the layer for the first layer, and 3 and 3 alternately in 3 rows on edge, blossom end out, 9 to the layer for the second or last layer, 18 to the basket.

☐ Choice:

☐ To Pack 120's. Place 2 and 2 alternately in 4 rows, on edge, 8 to the layer for the first layer, and 3 and 3 alternately in 4 rows, on edge, blossom end out, 12 to the layer for the second or last layer, 20 to the basket.

☐ To Pack 144's. Place 3 and 3 alternately in 4 rows, on edge, 12 to the layer for the first layer and 3 and 3 in 4 rows, on edge, blossom end out, 12 to the layer for the second or last layer, 24 to the basket.

To Pack 180's. Place 3 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, on edge, blossom end out, 15 to the layer for the second or last layer, 30 to the basket.

To Pack 104's. Place 1 and 2 alternately in 9 rows, on edge, 13 to the layer for the first layer, and 1 and 2 alternately in 9 rows, on edge, 13 to the layer, blossom end out, for the second or last layer, 26 to the basket. All tomatoes in the same crate or package shall be as nearly as possible of a uniform degree of ripeness.

All fruit for both fancy and choice grades must be sound and free from undesirable scars, "cat faces", and damage from insects or other causes.

(c) Texas Standard Orange Grades.

Texas orange, satsuma, tangerine and grape fruit grades may be four in number, namely; Fancy Bright, Bright, Fancy Russet and Russet.

Fancy Brights shall be bright color, shapely form, practically free from any skin defects or blemishes, fine texture, reasonably thin, heavy, juicy and free from frost damage.

Brights shall be fairly bright color, texture not as fine or smooth as Fancy Brights, skin thicker, and may have other reasonable skin defects that do not affect the merchantable quality of the fruit.

Fancy Russets shall be of the same general quality as fancy brights, except in color which shall be "Golden" russet.

Russets shall be same general quality as Brights, except in color, which may be rusty brown, not "Golden" enough for fancy Russets.

Texas Standard Orange Packs. The Standard orange packs shall be 8 in number; namely, 96's, 126's, 150's, 176's, 200's, 216's, 252's, and 288's.

To Pack 96's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 4 rows, 4 layers high, 12 to layer.

To Pack 126's. Put 3 and 2 alternately in 5 rows, 5 layers high, 13 and 12 alternately to layer.

To Pack 150's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, 5 layers high, 15 to the layer.

To Pack 176's. Put 4 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, 5 layers high, 18 and 17 alternately to the layer.

To Pack 200's. Put 4 and 4 alternately in 5 rows, 5 layers high, 20 to the layer.

To Pack 216's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 6 rows, 6 layers high, 18 to the layer.

To Pack 252's. Put 4 and 3 alternately in 6 rows, 6 layers high, 21 to the layer.

To Pack 288's. Put 4 and 4 alternately in 6 rows, 6 layers high, 24 to the layer.

The Standard Satsuma and Tangerine packs shall be 7 in number; namely 90's, 106's, 120's, 168's, 196's, 216's and 224's.

To Pack 90's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 15 to the layer.

To Pack 106's. Put 4 and 3 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 18 and 17 alternately to the layer.

To Pack 120's. Put 4 and 4 alternately in 5 rows, 3 layers high, 20 to the layer.

To Pack 168's. Put 4 and 3 alternately in 6 rows, 4 layers high, 21 to the layer.

To Pack 196's. Put 4 and 3 alternately in 7 rows, 4 layers high, 25 and 24 alternately to the layer.

To Pack 216's. Put 5 and 4 alternately in 6 rows, 4 layers high, 27 to the layer.

To Pack 224's. Put 4 and 4 alternately in 7 rows, 4 layers high, 28 to the layer.

All oranges, satsumas and tangerines to conform to this standard must be packed "stem-in, twist" with blossom end down in first layer and stem end down in all other layers.

The standard grapefruit packs shall be 7 in number; namely, 28's, 36's, 46's, 54's, 64's, 80's, 96's.

To Pack 28's. Put 2 and 1 alternately in 3 rows, 3 layers high, 5 and 4 alternately to the layer.

To Pack 36's. Put 2 and 2 alternately in 3 rows, 3 layers high, 6 to the layer.

To Pack 46's. Put 3 and 2 alternately in 3 rows, 3 layers high, 8 and 7 alternately to the layer.

To Pack 54's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 3 rows, 3 layers high, 9 to the layer.

To Pack 64's. Put 2 and 2 alternately in 4 rows, 4 layers high, 8 to the layer.

To Pack 80's. Put 2 and 2 alternately in 4 rows, 5 layers high, 8 to the layer.

To Pack 96's. Put 3 and 3 alternately in 4 rows, 4 layers high, 12 to the layer.

All grapefruit to conform to this standard must be packed on edge, except the 80 pack, which should be packed flat in the same manner as oranges.

In the enforcement of the above standards of grade and pack, an allowance may be made of not exceeding ten per cent difference in size between the fruit on top and in the interior of the package. A variation of not more than three per cent of actual count may be made in the number of any kind of fruit prescribed for each particular pack. [Acts 1917, p. 396.]

Art. 111.—Culls.—Any and all fruits and vegetables for which standard grades and packs are established in this chapter or for which standard grades and packs may be hereafter promulgated by the Commissioner of Agriculture under the authority of this law, that are too small in size, ill shaped, and too poor in general quality to measure up to the grades herein established, shall be classed as “culls,” and shall not be shipped, unless branded “culls” and shipped in a separate consignment. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 55.]

Art. 112. Texas Bermuda Onion Grades.—

Grade No. 1.—This grade shall consist of onions which are sound, mature, bright, well-shaped, of one variety, free from doubles, splits, bottle necks, and seed stems, and practically free from damage caused by dirt or other foreign matter, moisture, sunburn, cuts, disease, insects, or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be two inches. In order to allow for variation incident to commercial grading and handling, six per centum, by weight, of any lot need not meet the foregoing requirements of this grade. In the case of yellow onions, not more than five per centum, by weight, of any lot may be noticeably pink.

If any lot which meets the requirements of this grade contains more than ten per centum, by weight, of onions with a minimum diameter of three and one-half inches, the grade shall be “Grade No. 1, Large.”

Boiler Grade.—This grade shall consist of onions which are sound, mature, bright, well-shaped, of one variety, free from doubles, splits, bottle necks, and seed stems and practically free from damages caused by dirt or other foreign matter, moisture, sunburn, cuts, disease, insects, or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be one inch and the maximum diameter shall be two inches. In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling, six per centum by weight, of any lot need not meet the foregoing requirements of this grade. In case of yellow onions, not more than five per centum, by weight, of any lot may be noticeably pink.

Grade No. 2.—This grade shall consist of onions not meeting the requirements of Grade No. 1, which are sound, of one variety, free from doubles, splits, bottle necks and seed stems, and practically free from damage caused by moisture, sunburn, cuts, disease, insects, or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be two inches. In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling, ten per centum by weight, of any lot need not meet the requirements of this grade

If any lot which meets the requirements of this grade contains more than ten per centum, by weight of onions, with a minimum diameter of three and one-half inches, the grade shall be "Grade No. 2, Large."

Grade No. 3.—This grade shall consist of onions not meeting the requirements of any of the foregoing grades, which are sound, free from doubles, splits, bottle necks, and seed stems, and practically free from damage caused by moisture, sunburn, cuts, disease, insects or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be one inch. In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling, ten per centum, by weight, of any lot, need not meet the foregoing requirements of this grade.

Culls.—Culls shall consist of doubles, splits, bottle necks, and seed stems, or other onions which do not meet the requirements of any of the foregoing grades.

Terms Defined.—"Sound" means free from water-soaked, decayed, sprouted, or otherwise unsound onions.

"Mature" means having reached a state of development at which the onions are firm—not soft or spongy.

"Bright" means having the normal, attractive, pearly luster of Bermuda onions.

"Well-shaped" means the general appearance of being round—not three, four, or five-sided, or badly pinched by dry, hard soil, or thick-necked, but need not be of the exact, typical, flat Bermuda shape.

"One variety" means one variety or type, such as the Crystal Wax (white, or White Bermuda (yellow), or Red Bermuda (red), and not a mixture of different varieties or types.

"Practically free from damage" means that the appearance shall not be injured to an extent readily apparent upon casual examination.

"Sunburn" means discoloration due to exposure to the sun, but does not mean the green color running down the "veins" in the Crystal Wax (white) variety, unless such green color covers the surface between the veins.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimension at right angles to a straight line running from stem to the root.

"Noticeable pink" means the pink color often found in the White Bermuda (yellow) variety which is to be readily apparent upon casual examination. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 145.]

Art. 113. Texas Cabbage Grades.—

Grade No. 1.—This grade shall consist of sound, green colored, partially trimmed, and reasonably hard heads, weighing not less than one and one-half pounds nor more than eight pounds each; which are free from cracked or over-ripe heads, stem rot and other diseases, and practically free from dirt, worm holes and lice.

In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling, five per centum by weight, of any lot, may be under prescribed size, and in addition, three per centum, by weight, of any such lot, may be below the remaining requirements of this grade.

Grade No. 2.—This grade shall consist of sound cabbage not meeting the requirements of Grade No. 1.

Terms Defined. "Over-ripe" means such cabbage as shows signs of going to seed and turning white from age.

"Partially Trimmed" means that not more than three outside leaves shall be left on the head. [Id.]

Art. 114. Snap Beans.—

Grade No. 1.—This grade shall consist of sound, bright, clean beans of one variety and color, from one-half to full grown; which are free from leaves, stems, spots, insect damage, rust, or other diseases, and over-ripe pods.

In order to allow for variation incident to commercial grading and handling, three per centum, by weight, may be of another variety of the same color.

Grade No. 2.—Any beans not meeting the above requirements shall be classed as No. 2.

All beans are to be packed in hamper weighing, when packed, not less than 17 pounds net weight for one-half bushel hamper, and 34 net weight for one bushel.

Terms Defined.—"Over-ripe" are such pods as will not snap on being broken, and where there is an absence of abundant juice (water) in the pods; also, when the beans in the pod show evidence of maturing.

Art. 115. Texas Bartlett Pear Grades.—

Extra Fancy. Shall consist of Bartlett Pears clean, bright, natural color and shape, sound, free from worms, specks, blemishes, bruises or limb scar red fruit.

Fancy. Shall be the same as "Extra Fancy," except it may contain ten per cent slightly scarred fruit and slight blemishes that do not injure texture of the skin or its keeping qualities.

Choice. Shall be the same as "Fancy," except as it may contain ten per cent of fruit that is misshapen and with worm strings that have healed over.

Culls. Any pears not measuring up to the above specifications shall be branded as "Culls."

Packing.—Fruit shall be tightly packed in clean standard boxes, one end stamped with the grade, number of pears, name of and post office of packer.

Packs Defined.—"Four Tier" shall be packed in four layers. Minimum pack 120 pears to the box.

"Five Tier" shall be packed in six layers. Minimum pack 135, maximum pack 180 pears to box.

"Six Tier" shall be packed in six layers, containing 216 pears to the box, or five layers containing 195 or 210 to the box, but will be considered "six tier."

Art. 116. Texas Irish Potato Grades.—

Grade No. 1. This grade shall consist of sound potatoes of similar varietal characteristics, which are practically free from dirt or foreign matter, frost injury, sunburn, second growth, cuts, scab, blight, dry rot, and damage caused by disease, insects, or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be one and three-fourths inches. In order to allow for variation incident to commercial grading and handling, five per centum, by weight, of any lot, may be under the prescribed size, and, in addition, three per centum by weight of any such lot may be below the remaining requirements for quality of this grade.

Grade No. 2. This grade shall consist of potatoes of similar varietal characteristics, which are practically free from frost injury and decay, and which are free from serious damage caused by dirt or other foreign matter, sunburn, second growth, cuts, scab, blight, dry rot, or other disease, insects, or mechanical means. The minimum diameter shall be one and one-half inches. In order to allow for variations incident to commercial grading and handling, five per centum, by weight, of any lot, may be under the prescribed size, and, in addition, five per centum, by weight, of any such lot, may be below the remaining requirements for quality of this grade.

Culls. Any potatoes that do not measure up to the requirements for size and general quality in the grades number one and two shall be classed as "Culls," and shall not be shipped unless branded or marked "Culls" and shipped in separate consignments.

Three per centum, by weight, shall be allowed on all Texas grown new potatoes, for natural shrinkage. In instances where dirt adheres to the potatoes a fair and reasonable estimate by weight, of such dirt, shall be made and deducted from the gross weight of the potatoes and dirt, which estimate may be made by removing and weighing the dirt from three or more samples of not less than fifty pounds each, that, when taken together, represents the average conditions of the potatoes.

All potato containers must have some mark or brand showing the name and post-office address of the grower or shipper.

Terms Defined. "Practically Free" means the appearance shall not be injured to an extent readily apparent upon casual examination, and that any damage from the causes mentioned can be removed by the ordinary process of paring without appreciable increase in waste over that which would occur if the potato were perfect. Loss of the outer skin (epidermis) only, shall not be considered as an injury to the appearance.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimensions at right angles to the longitudinal axis.

"Free from serious damage" means the appearance shall not be injured to the extent of more than twenty per centum of the surface and that any damages from the causes mentioned can be removed by the ordinary processes or paring without increase in waste of more than ten per centum, by weight, over that which would occur if the potato were perfect. [Id.]

Art. 117. Inspectors.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall appoint inspectors to inspect fruits and vegetables at the different shipping or loading stations in this State, when called upon by the growers, shippers or shippers' agents representing the growers, and the expenses of such inspectors shall be paid by said growers, shippers or shippers' agents. Where two or more shipping agents are operating at the same shipping point, and one of them requests a State Inspector and such inspector is appointed by the Commissioner of Agriculture, each shipping agency at said shipping point shall be required to come under the State Inspector, and each shall pay his pro rata share of the expense of inspection.

In the grading, packing and inspection of onions, only those shippers who desire State Inspection shall be required to have their onions inspected under State authority, and all railway and express companies may accept and ship onions not inspected by State Inspectors, provided that graded and non-graded onions shall not be shipped in the same car, except in less than carload lots.

The Commissioner shall furnish a blank form or certificate to all State Inspectors, to be filled out by them to accompany each carload of fruits and vegetables, where State inspection is enforced. Said certificate shall contain the name and number of the car, the kind and grade of fruits or vegetables and number of the car, the kind and grade of fruits or vegetables, and number of packages contained, the date of shipment and name of inspector, together with the words, "Graded and Packed under State Inspection." [Acts 1917, p. 396; Acts 1919, p. 93.]

Art. 118. Commissioner of Agriculture.—The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby authorized and empowered to enforce each provision of this chapter, and he shall promulgate and publish all necessary rules and regulations for the enforcement of this law, and such other information as will aid fruit and truck growers and the manufacturers of containers in complying with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1917, p. 401.]

Art. 119. [4458-68] Control.—The protection of fruit trees, shrubs, and plants shall be under the supervision and control of the Commissioner of Agriculture. The Commissioner shall prepare and enforce suitable rules and regulations for the traffic and shipment of cape jasmine, cut flowers, and such greenhouse and floral shipments as may require control, and for the inspection of nurseries, greenhouses, orchards, forest trees, and all products originating from the same, within the meaning of this chapter. He shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and make and enforce such other rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as may be deemed necessary to carry the same into effect. He shall also provide such rules and regulations concerning city, private or public parks, avenues of shade trees, shrubbery and ornamentals along the streets of cities, for city residences, and city property generally, as will secure a protection and immunity from insect pests and contagious diseases intended to be provided for by this law. [Acts 1909, p. 316.]

Art. 120. [4459] Diseases and pests.—No person in this State shall knowingly or wilfully keep any peach, almond, apricot, nectarine or other trees affected with the contagious disease known as yellows, nor keep for sale any apple, peach, plum or other tree affected with nematode galls, crown galls, fire blight or root rot. No person shall knowingly or wilfully keep any plum, cherry or other trees affected with the contagious disease or fungus known as black knot or plum canker; nor any tree, shrub or plant infested with or by the San Jose scale or other insect pest dangerously injurious to or destructive of trees, shrubs or other plants; nor any grapefruit, orange or lemon trees, citrus stocks, cape jasmines or other trees, plants or shrubs infested with "white fly," Florida scale, cottony cushion scale, wooly aphid, or other injurious insect pests, or citrus canker, or other contagious diseases of citrus fruits; nor subtropical plants, shrubs, evergreens or ornamentals; nor any china, forest or other trees, shrubs, or plants, infested with injurious insect pests or contagious diseases. [Acts 1921, p. 100.]

Art. 121. [4459] Abatement of nuisance.—Every such infected or diseased tree, shrub or plant shall be a public nuisance, and it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or his representatives to abate it. For such purpose, he shall have power to enter upon any premises so affected for the purpose of legally inspecting and treating or destroying the same, and no damages shall be awarded against the Commissioner or his representatives for the exercise of such duties. [Id.]

Art. 122. [4459] Notice.—If it shall be determined that any such tree, shrub, or plant should be destroyed, written notice, signed by the Commissioner or his representative, shall be delivered in person to the owner of such trees, shrubs or plants, or left at his usual place of residence, or left with the person in charge of such premises, trees, plants, or shrubs, if such owner be not a resident of the locality. Such notice shall contain a brief statement of the facts found to exist, whereby it is necessary to destroy such trees, shrubs, or plants, and call attention to the law under which it is proposed to destroy them. [Id.]

Art. 123. [4459] Treatment or destruction.—Within ten days from the receipt of such notice, the owner shall remove and burn all such diseased or infected trees, shrubs, or plants. If, however, in the judgment of said Commissioner or his representative, any such tree, shrub, or plant can be treated with sufficient remedies, he may direct such treatment to be carried out by the owner under the direction of the Commissioner or his representative. [Id.]

Art. 124. [4459] Appeal.—In case of objections to the findings of the chief inspector, employe or representative of the commissioner, an appeal may be made to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final. An appeal must be taken within five days from the service of said notice, and shall act as a stay of proceedings until it is heard and decided. If the decision on such appeal be against such owner, he shall be ordered to forthwith proceed with such treatment or destruction, and upon his refusal or neglect to do so, then the Commissioner, or chief inspector or employe or representative appointed by him, may employ all necessary assistance for that purpose and such representative or representatives, agent or agents, employe or employes, may enter upon any or all premises necessary for the purpose of such treatment or destruction, and shall forthwith treat or destroy such trees, shrubs, or plants. [Id.]

Art. 125. [4459] Expense of treatment.—All charges and expenses of such treatment or destruction shall be paid by such owner or person in charge of said trees, shrubs, or plants, and shall constitute a legal claim against such owner or person in charge, which may be recovered by suit brought by such Commissioner or chief inspector or the county attorney of the county where such premises are situated, together with all costs, including an attorney fee of ten dollars, to be taxed as other costs.

Art. 126. [4460] Examination and certificate.—To ascertain whether nursery stock is infected with diseases or pests, the Commissioner shall cause to be made at least once each year, an examination of each nursery or other place where nursery stock is exposed for sale. If such stock so examined is apparently free in all respects from any contagious or infectious disease or dangerously injurious insect pests, the Commissioner shall issue to the owner or proprietor of such stock a certificate reciting that the stock so examined was at the time of such examination apparently free from any such disease or pest. No such certificate shall be negotiable or transferable, and if sold or transferred, it shall be void. [Acts 1909, p. 316.]

Art. 127. [4461] Certificate to accompany shipment.—All nursery stock consigned for shipment, or shipped by freight, express or other means of transportation, shall be accompanied by a copy of said certificate attached to each car, box, bale, bundle or package. When such box, bale, bundle, or package, contains nursery stock to be delivered to more than one person, partnership, or corporation, each portion of such nursery stock to be delivered to such person, partnership or corporation, shall also bear a copy of the certificate of inspection issued as provided in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 128. [4462] Nursery stock shipped into State.—No person, partnership, or corporation outside the State shall be permitted to ship nursery stock into this State without having first filed with the Commissioner of Agriculture a certified copy of his or their certificate of inspection issued by the proper authorities in the State from which the shipment originates. Such certificate must show that the stock to be shipped has been examined by the proper officers of inspection in such State, and that it is apparently free from all dangerous insect pests or contagious diseases and when fumigation is required by the Commissioner of Agriculture, that the stock has been properly fumigated. Upon receipt of such certificate, the Commissioner shall make such investigation as to moral standing and integrity as will satisfy him that the applicant is entitled to receive such certificate. A fee of five dollars shall be required from the applicant, upon the receipt of which the Commissioner may issue a certificate permitting the applicant to ship such nursery stock into this State.

Each box, bale or package of nursery stock from outside the State shall bear a tag on which is printed a copy of the certificate of this State, and also a copy of the certificate of the State in which it originates. [Id.]

Art. 129. [4464] May revoke certificate.—The Commissioner may revoke any certificate issued under this chapter when he finds that false representations have been made by the party to whom the same was issued, or upon refusal of such party to comply with the law, instructions or rules given by the Commissioner as authorized by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 130. [4463] Transportation companies not liable.—No transportation company or common carrier shall be liable for damages to the consignee or consignor for refusing to receive for transportation or deliver such trees, packages, bales, bundles or boxes when not accompanied by copies of the certificates provided for in the second preceding article. The agent of any such company or carrier shall immediately report to the Commissioner of Agriculture any such shipment not so accompanied. [Id.]

Art. 131. [4463] Unlawful shipments.—The Commissioner shall inspect shipments of nursery stock into this State, or originating within this State without tags or proper certificates as above provided for, for diseases or pests, and if infected, the same shall be dealt with as infected nursery stock. [Id.]

Art. 132. [4465] Chief Inspector.—The Commissioner shall appoint one person who shall be designated Chief Inspector, who shall inspect, or cause to be inspected, under the direction of the Commissioner, all trees, plants, and shrubs of every kind whatsoever, grown, produced or offered for sale by any nursery, dealer, person or corporation in this State, and also inspect, or cause to be inspected, all orchards provided for above. Such inspector may employ such persons or experts as may be necessary to enforce these provisions. [Id.]

Art. 133. [4465] Inspection fees.—The Commissioner shall fix and collect reasonable fees for the inspection herein provided for, of not less than two dollars and fifty cents nor more than fifteen dollars for each inspection. [Id.]

Art. 134. [4465] Salary and expenses.—Each person employed by the Commissioner as herein provided shall be paid a salary not exceeding five dollars per day and traveling expenses while actually engaged in the performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 135. [4467] Definitions.—The terms “nursery stock”, “nursery” “dealer,” and “agent of a nursery or dealer,” as used in this chapter, shall have the same meaning as is given those terms by Article 1698 of the Penal Code. Any such agent shall have proper credentials from the dealer he represents or cooperates with; and failing in that, any such agent shall be classed as a dealer, and subject to such rules as may be adopted relating to them, and shall be amenable to the same penalties for the violation of any provision of this law. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

1. STATE EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

| Valley Citrus Station..... | 141 | Bulletin | 148 |
| Donations | 142 | Disbursements | 149 |

Art. 136. Purposes.—There shall be established at such places in this State as the board hereinafter named may deem proper, experiment stations for the purpose of making experiments and conducting investigations in the planting and growing of agricultural and horticultural crops and soils, and the breeding, feeding and fattening of livestock for slaughter. Proceeds from the sale, barter or exchange of crops raised on any of said experiment stations shall go to defray the expenses of operating the same. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 98.]

Art. 137. Main station.—The experiment station located at the Agricultural and Mechanical College in Brazos County which is in part supported by the Federal Government shall remain at said point as a permanent institution. It shall be known as the Main State Experiment Station, and shall be under the supervision of the Board of Directors of such college. Such Board shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government such aid in its support as may be provided by Congress. All other experiment stations of whatever character, now or which may hereafter be established under the authority of this subdivision shall be considered sub-stations. [Id.]

Art. 138. Supervising Board.—The Board of Directors of such college is vested with the authority, duties, and powers conferred by this subdivision upon said Board, and shall exercise a general supervision and direction over all sub-experiment stations established hereunder. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 148.]

Art. 139. Powers of Board.—The Board shall have power:

1. To establish sub-experiment stations at such places in this State as it shall deem proper, in addition to those now in operation.

2. To abandon or discontinue any sub-station which may become undesirable for experiment purposes, and if deemed necessary to establish others in their stead at such other places in the same county as it shall deem advisable.

3. To sell any land or other State property used in the operation of an experiment station when so abandoned, and to apply the proceeds of such sale in the purchase of other land and property for the establishment of experiment stations. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 98.]

Art. 140. Sale of stations.—In the event of any such sale, the title to said property shall not pass from this State until a deed of conveyance therefor is made to the purchaser duly signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State under his official seal. All funds received from the sale of station lands or property shall be deposited in the State Treasury and shall be paid out in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 141. Valley Citrus Station.—The Board is authorized to establish and maintain a horticultural and agricultural experiment station in the citrus belt of Cameron or Hidalgo County for the purpose of making scientific investigations and experiments in the production of citrus fruits and in determining the best methods of eradicating insect pests and dangerous diseases that infect citrus trees, and for the purpose of studying the other horticultural and agricultural problems of that region. For such purposes, the Board is empowered to secure a suitable site for the location of said station in either of said counties containing a sufficient amount of land not exceeding one hundred acres well adapted to the growing of citrus fruits and supplied with water for irrigation purposes. Said station shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter applicable to its operation, maintenance and control. [Acts 1923, p. 69.]

Art. 142. Donations.—The board shall have power to accept and receive all donations in money or other property when given to be used in connection with any experiment work authorized by this subdivision. [Acts 1923, p. 69.]

Art. 143. Leases.—In the location of any experiment station, said board may take into consideration and receive any donation either in money, land or other property, to be used in the operation, equipment or management of any such station, and for experiment work, may lease such land as may, in its judgment, be necessary for any of the purposes named in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 144. Inspections.—The board shall visit said stations once each year, and make such criticisms to the director and his assistants as it shall deem expedient and needful. [Id.]

Art. 145. Expenses of Board.—The necessary traveling expenses of the members of the board and those of the director and his assistants, shall be paid out of the funds appropriated by this State for the maintenance and support of said experiment stations. In addition to their actual traveling expenses, the members of said board, when traveling upon the official business of said stations, shall each be paid five dollars per day while actually engaged in the discharge of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 146. Director of Stations.—All sub-stations embraced within this subdivision shall be subject to the provisions of this law and shall be under the supervision, control, management and direction of the Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Such director shall reside at College Station. The board is authorized to pay a part of the director's salary from the funds appropriated by the Legislature for the maintenance and support of said experiment stations, in such proportion as in its judgment may be just and proper; taking into consideration the division of his time between said sub-stations and the Main

Station, and the sum appropriated for such purposes by the Federal Government. The director may employ such assistants and labor and may purchase such live stock, farming implements, tools, seed, and such other materials and supplies as he shall deem necessary to the successful management of any or all of such experiment stations, subject to the approval of the board. [Id.]

Art. 147. Reports.—On the first day of each month the director shall make a complete report to the board showing receipts and disbursements, the source of such receipts and for what the same were disbursed; and on or before the first day of January of each year, he shall make a full and detailed report to said board of the operation of said stations, including a statement of receipts and expenditures for the entire year. Such annual report shall be transmitted to the Governor with such additional report as the board shall deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 148. Bulletin.—The director shall issue and circulate among the farmers and live stock raisers of Texas, from time to time, as may be deemed beneficial to such industries, printed bulletins showing the results of such experiments, and the results accomplished and the progress made in the improvement of the agricultural and live stock interests of this State. Such bulletins shall be mailed to such persons as may desire them. The director shall invite the co-operation of persons engaged in such industries, and shall give them advice when requested, with reference to the management and cultivation of their farms, and the care, management and feeding of their stock. [Id.]

Art. 149. Disbursements.—Before warrants are issued by the Comptroller in payment of State experiment station accounts, vouchers covering the same shall be audited and signed by the director or an assistant designated by him, in writing, for that purpose, and also by a member of the board. [Id.]

2. COUNTY FARMS AND STATIONS.

Art. 150. Establishment.—The commissioners court of any county shall, under the terms and provisions of this subdivision, establish and maintain an agricultural experiment farm and station within their county. [Acts 1911, p. 208.]

Art. 151. Petition and election.—On petition of not less than ten per cent of the legal voters of such county who voted for Governor in the preceding election, the commissioners court shall submit the question of the adoption of the provisions of this subdivision to the qualified voters of said county; and said court shall order an election to be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the election order, which shall be signed by the county judge. Such election shall be held at the usual voting places and by the usual election officers, and as near as may be shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of Texas. Notice of such order shall be given by posting copies thereof at all the post offices within such county and at the court house door of such county. At such election those favoring a county experiment farm and station under the provisions of this subdivision shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "For a County Experiment Farm and Station," and those who are opposed shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "Against a County Experiment Farm and Station." Both tickets may be written or printed on the same piece of paper, and the voter may vote by erasing or drawing a line through the one he does not favor. [Id.]

Art. 152. Election returns.—The officers of the election shall make their report to and certify to the commissioners court the number of votes cast for and against such proposition, and if it appear that a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of such farm and station, the court shall so declare the result, and shall then proceed to execute the provisions of this law by establishing such farm and station. [Id.]

Art. 153. Acquisition of property.—Said farm and station shall consist of such number of acres of land as might be reasonably expected to produce a revenue sufficient to maintain the same, to be determined by the commissioners court, and shall, with sufficient houses, residences, barns and lots thereon, be donated to the county with good and legal title thereto, free of cost to the county. [Id.]

Art. 154. Location of station.—Said farm shall be located at the county seat or as near thereto as practicable, but if no such donation is offered at or within reasonable distance from the county seat, not to exceed two miles, then such farm may be located elsewhere in the county, having due regard for the benefits to be derived from such farm and station. [Id.]

Art. 155. Supervision.—Said experiment farm shall be affiliated with and directed in a manner similar to that of all experiment stations, and shall be under the advisory direction of the Director of State experiment stations. [Id.]

Art. 156. Director.—The said station shall be in charge of and under the direction of a director who shall be appointed by the commissioners court. He shall be a practical farmer, and shall pass a satisfactory examination touching his general knowledge, information, education, and his knowledge of farming, stock raising and other affairs incident to successful farm life. Such examination shall be prescribed by and taken under the Director of State Experiment stations or some one designated by him for such purpose. The said director shall be furnished a residence on said farm, free of cost for himself and family, as a part of his compensation, and shall receive such salary as the commissioners court may fix, not less than seventy-five dollars per month. The commissioners shall not rent or lease said farm to any one, nor permit it to be done by any one. [Id.]

Art. 157. Supplies and improvements.—The commissioners court shall supply said farm and station with sufficient houses, barns, lots, machinery, farm utensils, scientific instruments, materials, seeds and such other necessities as may be necessary, and shall make all needed improvements. Said farm shall be supplied with such stock, including work stock and cattle, both for service and breeding purposes, as may be necessary to promote the improvement of the farm and stock raising industry of such county. [Id.]

Art. 158. Labor.—The director of said farm shall conduct the same, and employ the necessary labor with the approval and advice of the commissioners court to conduct said farm. County paupers shall not be maintained or permitted to work upon said farm. [Id.]

Art. 159. Records.—The director shall keep a complete and accurate record of rainfall, temperature, the winds, and general climatic conditions; the planting, cultivation and marketing of all crops of every character; of his management and observation, and of his management of the live stock on said farm. [Id.]

Art. 160. Bulletins.—He shall make an annual report to the commissioners court showing in detail his methods and results, which report shall be published by the county, with the consent of the commissioners court, and mailed without cost to every person in the county engaged in farming and to others on request, to every experiment station in Texas, and to the State and United States Departments of Agriculture. [Id.]

Art. 161. Information.—The director shall at all reasonable times keep said farm open to the inspection of the public, and it shall be his duty to disseminate information, and to explain to all persons his manner and methods of preparation, soil culture, cultivation, gathering, preservation and marketing of the products of said farm. [Id.]

Art. 162. Sale of products.—He shall sell and market the products of said farm, under the rules made therefor by the commissioners court, and shall pay the proceeds thereof to the county treasurer, who shall place the same to the credit of the general fund of the county. The director shall perform such other duties as the commissioners court may prescribe not inconsistent with law. [Id.]

Art. 163. Expenses.—The labor necessary for the cultivation and care of said farm, including the salary of the director, and all expenses and expenditures provided for in this chapter, shall be paid by the county out of its general funds upon warrants drawn by the director and approved by the county judge. [Id.]

Art. 164. Demonstration work.—The commissioners court of any county may appropriate and use under such rules as they may prescribe, not exceeding one thousand dollars per year, for farmers co-operative demonstration work in the county, and not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars per year for a canning demonstration agent, along the same lines as such work is conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture, and the Agricultural and Mechanical College, respectively, and may conduct such work jointly with the agents of such institutions, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the agents thereof and the commissioners court. [Acts 1911, p. 105; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 56.]

3. RAILWAY FARMS AND STATIONS.

Art. 165. Powers.—Any railway corporation in Texas may acquire by lease or purchase, and maintain and operate, or cause to be operated, demonstration and experimental farms, orchards and gardens, no one of which shall exceed one thousand acres in size, for the purpose of aiding in the development of the agricultural and horticultural resources of Texas. No such corporation shall own or control more than four such farms. [Acts 1913, p. 319.]

Art. 166. [15] [19] Ownership of land prohibited.—No alien or alien corporation shall acquire any interest, right or title either legal or equitable in or to any lands in the State of Texas, except as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1854, p. 98, Acts C. S. 1892, p. 6, Acts 1921, p. 261.]

Art. 167. [16] [10] Exceptions.—This title shall not apply to any land now owned in this State by aliens, not acquired in violation of any law of this State, so long as it is held by the present owners; nor to lots or parcels of land owned by aliens in any incorporated town or city of this State, nor to the following classes of aliens, who are, or who shall become bona fide inhabitants of this State, so long as they shall continue to be bona fide inhabitants of this State:

1. Aliens who were bona fide inhabitants of this State on the date on which this Act becomes a law.

2. Aliens eligible to citizenship in the United States who shall become bona fide inhabitants of this State, and who shall, in conformity with the naturalization laws of the United States, have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States.

3. Aliens who are natural born citizens of nations which have a common land boundary with the United States.

4. Aliens who are citizens or subjects of a nation which now permits citizens of this State to own land in fee in such country. [Id.]

Art. 168. [16] [10] Time to alienate.—Any resident alien who shall acquire land under any provision of the preceding article shall have five years after he shall cease to be a bona fide inhabitant of this State in which to alienate said land. [Id.]

Art. 169. [17] [11] Liens, loans and debts.—The provisions of this title shall not prevent aliens or alien corporations from lending money secured by lien upon real estate or any interest therein, nor from enforcing any such lien, nor from acquiring and holding title to such real estate or any interest therein when sold for the purpose of enforcing such lien, or for enforcing the collection of a debt. [Id.]

Art. 170. [18] [12] Term of title.—All aliens and all alien corporations who are prohibited from owning land in this State under the provisions of this title, who shall hereafter acquire real estate in Texas by devise, descent, or by purchase as permitted by this title, may hold same for five years, and if such alien is a minor, he may hold same for five years after attaining his majority, or if of unsound mind for five years after the appointment of a legal guardian. [Id.]

Art. 171. [19] [13] May sell before escheat.—Any alien who shall hereafter acquire lands in Texas, in contravention of the provisions of this title, may, nevertheless, convey the fee simple title thereof at any time before the institution of escheat proceedings as hereinafter provided. If any such conveyance shall be made by such alien either to an alien or to a citizen of the United States, in trust, and for the purpose and with the intention of evading the provisions of this title, such conveyance shall be null and void; and any such land so conveyed shall be forfeited and escheated to the State. [Id.]

Art. 172. [20] [14] Proceedings to escheat.—The Attorney General or the district or county attorney when he shall be informed or have reason to believe that lands in this State are being held contrary to the provisions of this title shall institute suit in behalf of the State of Texas praying for the escheat of the same on behalf of the State.

Art. 173. Qualification as guardian, etc.—No alien shall ever be appointed or permitted to qualify as guardian of the estate of any minor or person of unsound mind, or as executor or administrator of the estate of any descendent in the State, unless he is permitted to own land under the provisions of this title. [Acts 1921, p. 262.]

Art. 174. Corporations controlled by aliens.—No corporation in which the majority of the capital stock is legally or equitably owned by aliens prohibited by law from owning land in Texas shall acquire title to or own any lands in Texas or any leasehold or other interest in such lands except as hereinafter provided and land so owned shall be subject to escheat as though owned by a non-resident alien. [Id.]

Art. 175. Land owned in trust.—Land owned in trust, either by an alien or by a citizen of the United States, for the beneficial use of any alien or aliens, or any corporation prohibited from owning land in this State under the provisions of this title, shall be subject to escheat as though the legal title thereto was in such alien or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 176. Report and record of ownership.—All alien and all alien corporations now owning lands in this State shall on or before the last day of January 1926 file a written report under oath, with the clerk of the county court of the county in which such land is located, giving the name, age, occupation, personal description, place of birth, last foreign residence and allegiance, the date and place of arrival of said alien in the United States, and his or her present residence and post-office address, and the length of time of residence in Texas, the foreign prince, potentate, State or sovereignty, of which the alien may at the time be a citizen or subject, and the number of acres of land owned by such alien in such county, the name and number of the survey, the abstract and certificate number, the name of the person or persons, from whom acquired, and shall either describe said land by metes and bounds, or refer to recorded deed in which same is so described, which report shall be known as "REPORT OF ALIEN OWNERSHIP." All aliens and all alien corporations hereafter purchasing, or in any manner acquiring lands located in Texas, shall, within six months after such purchase, or acquisition, file with the county clerk of the county in which such land is located, a "Report of Alien Ownership," in terms as above required. Any alien or alien corporation who may now own land in Texas, or who may hereafter acquire any land in Texas, by purchase or otherwise, who does not within the time prescribed in this article, file the reports herein provided for, shall be subject to have such land forfeited and escheated to the State of Texas. The reports herein required shall, when the alien is a minor or insane person, be filed by the parent or guardian of such alien. The county clerk of each county shall file and record the reports above provided for in a separate volume, to be entitled "RECORD OF ALIEN OWNED LANDS," for said county. The recording of such reports shall be paid by the alien owner. [Id.]

Art. 177. [15] [9] Personal property.—Aliens shall have and enjoy in this State such rights as to personal property as are or shall be accorded to citizens of the United States by the laws of the Nation to which such alien shall belong or by the treaties by such Nation with the United States. [Id.]

Art. 178. "Public houses of amusement".—All buildings constructed, fitted and equipped for the purpose of theaters, commonly called theaters, opera houses, play houses, or by whatever name designated, which are and shall hereafter be used for public performances, the production and exhibition of plays, dramas, operas, or other shows of whatever nature, to which admission fees are charged, are hereby declared to be public houses of amusement, and the same shall be subject to regulation by ordinance, statute, or other law. Owners and lessees shall have the right to assign seats to patrons thereof, and to refuse admission to objectionable characters. [Acts 1907, p 21.]

Art. 179. Leases.—Upon the failure or refusal of any lessee, or his assigns, of any such public house of amusement to comply with the law governing such places of amusement, or upon conviction of the violation of any provision of the Penal Code relating to discrimination in the booking of plays, opera shows, or other productions, by whatever name known, which are and shall hereafter be used for public performances, he shall forfeit his lease and all rights and privileges thereunder. [Id.]

TITLE 7.

ANIMALS.

1. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

| Definitions | Article | Enforcing lien | Article |
|--------------------------|---------|--------------------------|---------|
| Cruelty to fowls | 180 | Impounded animal | 185 |
| Cruelty to animals | 181 | May destroy animal | 186 |
| May take animal | 182 | Badge | 187 |
| Lien | 183 | Duty of officers | 188 |
| | 184 | | 189 |

Art. 180. Definitions.—As used in this subdivision, the word “animal” includes every living dumb creature; the words “torture” and “cruelty” include every act, omission or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable pain or suffering is caused, permitted or allowed to continue when there is a reasonable remedy or relief. The words “owner” and “person” include corporations, and the knowledge and acts of agents and employes of corporations in regard to animals transported, owned, used by or in custody of the corporation shall be held to be the knowledge and acts of such corporation. [Acts 1913, p. 168.]

Art. 181. Cruelty to fowls.—Whoever receives live fowls, poultry or other birds for transportation or to be confined on wagons or stands, or by the owners of grocery stores, commission houses or other market houses, or by other persons when to be closely confined, shall place same immediately in coops, crates or cages made of open slats or wire on at least three sides and of such height that the fowls can stand upright without touching the top, have troughs or other receptacle easy of access at all times by the birds confined therein, and so placed that their contents shall not be defiled by them, in which troughs or other receptacles clean water and suitable food shall be constantly kept; keep such coops, crates or cages in a clean and wholesome condition; place only such numbers in each coop, crate or cage as can stand without crowding one another, but have room to move around; not expose same to undue heat or cold, and remove immediately all injured, diseased or dead fowls or other birds. [Id.]

Art. 182. Cruelty to animals.—It shall be unlawful for any person to overdrive, wilfully overload, drive when overloaded, overwork, torture, torment, deprive of necessary sustenance, unnecessarily or cruelly beat, or needlessly mutilate or kill any animal or carry any animal in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, in a cruel or inhuman manner, or cause or procure the same to be done, or who having the charge or custody of any animal unnecessarily fails to provide it with proper food, drink or cruelly abandons it. [Id.]

Art. 183. May take animal.—When any person arrested under any provision of this law is, at the time of such arrest, in charge of any vehicle drawn by or containing any animal cruelly treated, any agent of the State Humane Society, having been authorized by the sheriff of the county to make arrests in such cases, may take charge of such animal and such vehicle and its contents, and the animal or animals drawing same, and shall give notice thereof to the owner, if known, and shall care and provide for them until their owner shall take charge of the same; and such agent shall have a lien on said animals and on said vehicle and its contents for the expense of such care and provision, or the said expense or any part thereof remaining unpaid may be recovered by such agent in a civil action. [Id.]

Art. 184. Lien.—Any officer or agent of said humane society may lawfully take charge of any animal found abandoned, neglected or cruelly treated and shall thereupon give notice thereof to the owner, if known, and may care and provide for such animal until the owner shall take charge of same, and the expense of such care and provision shall be a charge against the owner of such animal and collectible from such owner by said humane society in an action therefor. When said humane society shall provide neglected abandoned animals with proper food, shelter and care, it may detain such animals until the expense of such food, shelter and care is paid, and shall have a lien upon such animals therefor. [Id.]

Art. 185. Enforcing lien.—Any person or corporation entitled to a lien under any provision of this subdivision may enforce the same by selling the animals and other personal property upon which such lien is given, at public auction, upon giving notice to the owner, if he be known, of the time and place of such sale, at least five days previous thereto, and by posting three notices of the time and place of such sale in three public places within the county, at least five days previous thereto. If the owner be not known, then such notice shall be posted at least ten days previous to such sale. [Id.]

Art. 186. Impound animal.—Every person who under the laws of this State or of any municipality thereof shall impound or cause to be impounded any animal in any pound or corral shall supply it during such confinement with sufficient wholesome food and water. If any animal so impounded shall continue to be without necessary food and water for more than twelve successive hours it shall be lawful for any person as often as necessary to enter into or upon said pound or corral and supply such animal with necessary food and water; the reasonable cost for such food and water may be collected by him from the owner of such animal which shall not be exempt from levy and sale upon execution issued upon a judgment therefor. [Id.]

Art. 187. May destroy animal.—Any agent or officer of said humane society may lawfully destroy or cause to be destroyed any animal in his charge when, in the judgment of such agent or officer, and by written certificate of two reputable citizens called to view same in his presence, one of whom may be selected by the owner of said animal if he shall so request, it appears humane to do so, and said citizens shall so certify that said animal appears to be injured to such an extent that it would be humane to destroy it. [Id.]

Art. 188. Badge.—Officers and agents of said humane society shall be provided with a certificate by said society stating that they are such officers or agents, or with a badge bearing the name and seal of said society; and shall on request show such certificate or badge when acting officially. [Id.]

Art. 189. Duty of officers.—Any member of said humane society may require any sheriff, constable, marshal or any policeman of any town or city or any agent of said society authorized by the sheriff to make arrests for the violation of the law relating to cruelty to animals, to arrest any person violating any provision thereof, and to take possession of any animal cruelly treated in their respective counties, cities or towns. [Id.]

2. DESTRUCTION OF ANIMALS.

| | | | |
|-------------------|-----|----------------|-----|
| By poison..... | 190 | Bounties | 192 |

Art. 190. By poison.—

1. May buy poison.—The commissioners court of each county may purchase the necessary poisons and accessories required by the citizens of such county for the purpose of destroying prairie dogs, wild cats, gophers, ground squirrels, wolves, coyotes, rats, English sparrows and ravens, and pay for the same out of the general fund of the county, and may furnish the same at cost or free to such citizens. If the court shall elect to sell the same, the proceeds shall be turned into the treasury to the credit of the general fund.

2. Notice of putting out poison.—Said court shall designate a certain day or days for putting out poison, giving notice of same by posting up notices in public places, such as school houses, gins and mills, or other public places, and also publishing the same in at least one county newspaper, if there be one, for three successive issues. Said notices shall be given at least twenty days prior to the first day of the time designated to put out the poison. Said notice shall state the time of putting out poison, and that the poisons can be secured from the commissioners court, and the terms on which it can be had.

3. Commissioner of Agriculture.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall furnish said court with formulas and instructions for preparing the poisons and plans for using the same, and shall, upon the request of any such court, as soon as practicable after receiving such request, demonstrate and give instructions how to prepare the poison and when and how to apply the same.

4. Duty of land holder.—Every land holder whose premises are infested with any of such pests shall procure poison and apply the same as set forth in the plans furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

5. Duty of lessee or tenant.—Every lessee or tenant holding premises by contract shall secure the poison and destroy all such pests. All such expenses incurred by such tenant or lessee in thus destroying such pests shall be charged against the owner of the land and collectible as other valid debts. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 144.]

Art. 190a. It shall hereafter be lawful for the commissioners' Court of McCulloch, San Saba and Lampasas Counties to pay out of the general fund of said counties, bounties for the destruction of wolves, wildcats and other predatory animals within said counties, as hereinafter provided.

On the petition of two hundred resident freeholders of any one of said counties, being presented to the commissioners' court of such county, the commissioners' court may, by resolution entered upon its minutes, provide for the destruction of such animals and the amount of bounty to be paid for the destruction of each of said predatory animals and the method of proving such destruction so as to entitle the person destroying such predatory animals to receive said bounty.

The amounts paid as bounties for the destruction of predatory animals in said counties shall be paid by warrant drawn upon the general fund of the county by the judge of such county on the filing with him of such proof as the commissioners' court may require. [Acts 1925, p. 179.]

Art. 191. Prairie dogs.—Prairie dogs are hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and it shall be the duty of every owner of land in this State to destroy all prairie dogs on his land.

1. Duty of commissioners court.—The commissioners court of any county in which the prairie dogs exist, shall investigate and determine whether owners of lands in their respective commissioner's precincts have killed or caused to be killed all prairie dogs, and if such land owners have failed to do so, said commissioners shall immediately notify the sheriff of his county of such failure, and of the name and post-office address of such owner, or his agent, and said sheriff shall immediately mail, by registered letter, a notice to the said owner, or his agent, that if he shall fail, within thirty days from and after the date of mailing of notice, to kill or cause to be killed such prairie dogs, he, the said sheriff, will proceed to destroy all prairie dogs on said land.

2. Duty of sheriff.—If any land owner has not within thirty days after receiving said notice destroyed the prairie dogs on his land, said sheriff shall immediately proceed to destroy said prairie dogs by the use of practical and economical methods in general use. He shall report his action, together with a sworn itemized bill of expenses to the first term of the commissioners court of said county, which court shall examine said account, and if found correct and reasonable, shall allow the same, and by its order duly entered, assess said amount against said owner and enter same as a lien against his land. Said court may pay the sheriff not exceeding five dollars per day for each day he has performed actual services in supervising the destruction of said prairie dogs.

3. Suit to recover assessment.—If the owner of any land against which costs and expenses have been assessed by the commissioners court shall fail to pay the same within thirty days after notice of such assessment, the county attorney of such county shall bring suit to enforce the payment thereof. The county attorney shall, in each suit brought by him for said purpose, be allowed a reasonable fee to be fixed by the court trying the cause, to be taxed as costs in the case, and upon the rendition of any judgment for such costs and expenses, execution and order of sale shall issue and be executed as in other cases. [Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 26.]

Art. 192. [7166-7-8] Bounties.—When any person shall kill in this State any wolf, coyote, jack rabbit, panther, tiger, leopard or wild cat, he shall be paid five dollars for each panther, Mexican lion, tiger or leopard; two dollars for each wolf, one dollar for each coyote or wild cat, and five cents for each jack rabbit so killed.

1. Proof.—The scalps of said animals so killed shall be presented by the person having killed said animals to the commissioners court of the county in which said animals were killed, accompanied by affidavit stating where and when he killed said animal, and the kind of each; that affiant in person, and no other, killed said animal or animals.

2. Scalps.—Such scalp shall consist of the scalp and both ears, so that the court may sufficiently identify the class of animals so killed. The court, when not satisfied as to the sufficiency of the evidence before it, under this law, may reject any and all claims. The court shall immediately take and pass upon said scalp and burn the same, but in no case shall any such court be authorized under this law to issue warrant for bounty on any scalp when presented with either ear of same disfigured in the least, cut, slit or any defect whatever, except such cut, slit or defect that may have been caused in shooting, trapping or killing the animal. Both ears must be absolutely whole. Such court shall issue a certificate signed by at least three members of said court, and attested by the signature of the clerk of said court, and under the seal of said court showing the kind of animals killed and the number of each, and the name of the party who killed same and the amount due such party. The county clerk shall issue a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount specified, payable to the party named in such certificate.

3. Statement of payments.—The commissioners court of each county at each regular session of each year shall make an itemized statement showing the several amounts paid, to whom and when paid, by order of said court under the provisions of this law, said statement shall be entered upon the minutes of said court, and a certified copy thereof shall be sent by the clerk of said court to the Comptroller. Upon receipt of said certified copy by the Comptroller, he shall draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer for one-half of the aggregate amount paid out by such county under the provisions of this law, as shown by said certified copy, payable to the treasurer of said county which said amount, when received by said county treasurer, shall be by him credited to the fund of the third class of said county.

4. No trespassing.—Nothing herein authorizes any person to enter on the enclosed or posted lands or premises of another for the purpose of trapping or hunting, or otherwise catching or trapping wild animals for their scalp without first obtaining the consent of the owner. [Acts 1903, p. 113, Acts 1911, p. 44, Acts 1915, p. 88.]

Rains County: On the fifteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in January and may continue two weeks; and on the fourteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in August and may continue until the business is disposed of.

The District Courts of the Eighth and Sixty-second Judicial Districts in Hunt County, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other in said county throughout the limits thereof, of all matters, civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the Constitution and laws of the State; and the District Courts of the Eighth and Sixty-second Judicial Districts in the county of Delta shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other in said county, throughout the limits thereof, of all matters civil and criminal, of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the Constitution and laws of the State; provided that the judge of the Sixty-second Judicial District shall never impanel the grand jury in said court in the counties of Lamar, Hunt and Delta, unless in his judgment he thinks it necessary. Either of the judges of the District Court of Hunt County may, in their discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, that may at any time be pending in his court, to the other district court in said county of Hunt, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court making such transfer; and, where such transfer or transfers are made, the clerk of said court shall enter such case or cases upon the dockets of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally filed in said court. Either of the judges of the District Courts of the County of Delta may, in their discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any case or cases of a civil or criminal nature that may at any time be pending in his court, to the other district court in said Delta County, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court making such transfer; and, when such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said case or cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally filed in said court. The clerks of the District Courts of Delta and Hunt counties respectively, as heretofore constituted, and their successors in office, shall be the clerks of both the Eighth and Sixty-second District Courts in said counties respectively. [Acts 1897, p. 111; Acts 1905, p. 75.]

9.—Polk, San Jacinto, Montgomery and Waller.

The Ninth Judicial District of Texas shall hereafter be composed of the following named counties, to-wit:

Polk, San Jacinto, Montgomery and Waller, and the terms of the district courts in and for said Ninth Judicial District of Texas, shall be begun and holden therein as follows, to-wit:

In the county of Polk, on the first Monday in January and July of each year and may continue in session for six weeks.

In the county of San Jacinto on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in January and July and may continue in session for five weeks.

In the county of Waller on the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in January and July and may continue in session for six weeks.

In the county of Montgomery on the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in January and July and may continue in session for six weeks.

10, 56.—Galveston County:

On the first Monday in February, April, June, October and December and may continue until the business is disposed of.

In all suits, actions or proceedings, it shall be sufficient for the address or designation to be merely the "District Court of Galveston County;" and the clerk of said courts shall file and docket the even numbers thereof in the Court of the Tenth Judicial District, and the odd numbers thereof in the Court of the Fifty-sixth Judicial District; but any case pending in either of said courts may, in the discretion of the judge thereof, be transferred from one of said district courts to the other, and so from time to time; and in case of the disqualification of the judge of either of said courts in any case, such case, on his suggestion of disqualification, shall stand transferred to the other of said courts, and be docketed by the clerk accordingly. The clerk of the court of the Tenth Judicial District shall perform the duties of the clerk of the court of the Fifty-sixth Judicial District; in case of vacancy in said office of said clerk, the same shall be filled by appointment by the judge of the Tenth Judicial District. [Acts 1909, p. 116; Acts 1911, p. 111.]

11.—Harris County shall constitute the Eleventh, Fifty-fifth, Sixty-first and Eightieth Judicial Districts. None of said four district courts shall have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction in Harris County. Said district courts of the Eleventh, Fifty-fifth, Sixty-first and Eightieth Judicial Districts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction co-extensive within the limits of Harris County in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of this State. There shall be two terms of each of said four civil courts in Harris County in each year, and the first term, which shall be known as the January-June term, shall be begun on the first Monday in January and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July; and the second term, which shall be known as the July-December term, shall begin on the first Monday in July and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

In all suits, actions or proceedings in said courts it shall be sufficient for the address or designation to be merely "District Court of Harris County." The clerk of the civil district courts in Harris County shall be known as "Clerk of the District Court of Harris County, Texas." The clerk of said four civil district courts shall docket alternately on the dockets of the district courts of the Eleventh, Fifty-fifth, Sixty-first and Eightieth Judicial Districts in Harris County, all cases, actions, petitions, applications and other proceedings filed in the district courts of Harris County, so that the first case or proceedings filed after the first day of July 1923 and every fourth case or proceedings thereafter filed shall be docketed in the Eleventh Judicial District Court, and the second case or proceeding filed and every fourth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the Fifty-fifth Judicial District Court, and the third case or proceeding filed and every fourth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the Sixty-first Judicial District Court, and the fourth case or proceeding and every fourth case or proceeding thereafter filed shall be docketed in the Eightieth Judicial District Court, and so on seriatum, and all cases and proceedings shall in this manner be docketed in and divided and distributed among said four civil courts, one-fourth to each of them when first filed. All suits shall be filed by the clerk in the order in which the petitions are presented to or deposited with him and immediately after being so presented or deposited. In case of the disqualification of the judge of any of said four civil courts in any case or proceeding, such case or proceeding, on his suggestion of disqualification, shall be transferred to another of said courts, and the order of transfer may be made by any judge of another of said courts and may be transferred to any other of said courts, or instead of transferring the case the judge of any other of said courts may sit in the court in which the case is then pending and there try the same, and all transferred cases or proceedings shall be docketed by the clerk accordingly. The judges of said four civil courts shall sign the minutes of each term of the courts in Harris County within thirty days after the end of the term, and shall also sign the minutes at the end of each volume of the minutes, and each judge sitting in said courts shall sign the minutes of such proceedings as were had before him.

Each judge of said courts may take a vacation and not attend court for six weeks between the first day of July and the first day of October in each year, during which time the term of the court of which he is judge shall remain open, and the judge of any other civil district court in Harris County may hold such court during the vacation of the judges thereof. During the period of such vacation it shall not be lawful for a special judge of such court to be elected by the practicing lawyers of such court because of the absence of the judge on his vacation, unless no judge of said civil district courts is in the county. The judges of said courts shall, by agreement among themselves, take their vacations alternately so that there shall at all times be at least one of said judges in the county; and the absence, sickness or disqualification of the judge of any of said civil district courts shall not be ground for the election of a special judge by the practicing lawyers unless all of the other judges of said courts in the county are also absent, sick or disqualified, or are unable or decline to serve. [Acts 1903, p. 22; Acts 1923, p. 203.]

12.—Trinity, Leon, Walker, Madison and Grimes.

Trinity County: On the third Monday in February and September and may continue four weeks.

Leon County: On the fourth Monday after the third Monday in February and September and may continue four weeks.

Walker County: On the eighth Monday after the third Monday in February and September and may continue four weeks.

Madison County: On the twelfth Monday after the third Monday in February and may continue three weeks; and on the twelfth Monday after the third Monday in September and may continue four weeks.

Grimes County: On the third Monday in June and on the sixteenth Monday after the third Monday in September and may continue six weeks. [Acts 1905, p. 55; Acts 1919, p. 111.]

13.—Navarro. On the first Mondays in January, April, July and October. The January, April and October terms shall each continue twelve weeks or until all the business be disposed of, and the July term shall continue six weeks or until the business be disposed of. Jury trials may be had at each and all of said terms of court. There shall be organized grand juries at the April and October terms of said court, and at such other terms thereof as may be determined and ordered by the Judge thereof. The office of District Attorney for the Thirteenth Judicial District is hereby abolished; the County Attorney of Navarro County shall hereafter perform all the duties heretofore performed by said District Attorney. [Acts 1899, p. 38; Acts 1915, p. 11; Acts 1923, p. 45.]

14, 44, 68, 95, 101.—Dallas. None of the said district courts of Dallas County shall have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction in Dallas County, but all of said courts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of Dallas County in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State. The terms of said courts shall be as follows:

Fourteenth District: On the second Monday in January and ending on the Saturday before the second Monday in April; on the second Monday in April and ending on Saturday before the second Monday in July; on the second Monday in July and ending on Saturday before the second Monday in October; and on the second Monday in October and ending on Saturday before the second Monday in January.

Forty-fourth District: On the first Mondays in January, April, June and October and continue until all business be disposed of.

Sixty-eighth District: On the first Mondays in February, May, September and December and continue until all business be disposed of.

Ninety-fifth District: On the first Mondays in March, June, September and December, and each term shall continue until the Sunday immediately preceding the date set for the beginning of the next term thereof.

In case of vacancy by death, resignation or removal in the office of clerk of said district courts of Dallas County, his successor shall be appointed by a majority of the judges of the said four civil courts and the judges of the Criminal District Courts acting together, and if they fail to make such appointment within twenty days after such vacancy is created, then such appointment shall be made by the Commissioners Court of Dallas County.

The letters A, B, C and D shall be placed on the dockets and court papers in the respective district courts of Dallas County to distinguish them. A being used in connection with the Fourteenth District Court, B the Forty-fourth, C the Sixty-eighth, and D the Ninety-fifth District Court. All suits, prosecutions and proceedings hereafter instituted in the district courts of Dallas County shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with the next number after the last file number on the dockets of the Fourteenth, Forty-fourth and Sixty-eighth District Courts, and shall be entered by the district clerk upon the dockets of said courts alternately, beginning with the Fourteenth District Court, next the Forty-fourth District Court, third the Sixty-eighth District Court, and fourth the Ninety-fifth District Court.

The respective judges of the district courts of Dallas County shall, from time to time as occasion may require, transfer cases from any one of such courts to any other such court in order that the business may be equally distributed among them, that the judges thereof may at all times be provided with cases to be tried or otherwise considered, and that the trial of no case need be delayed because of the disqualification of the judge in whose court it is pending; provided, however, no case shall be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred. When any transfer is made, proper order shall be entered on the minutes of the court as evidence thereof, and notice of the transfer shall be given in writing by the clerk to the attorneys of record of all parties to the cause. [Acts 1913, p. 171; Acts 1917, p. 130; Acts 1923, p. 118.] Acts 1925, p. 210, gives District 101 concurrent jurisdiction except as to criminal matters with other district courts in Dallas County.

15, 59.—Grayson County shall constitute the Fifteenth Judicial District, and with Collin County shall constitute the Fifty-ninth Judicial District. The District Courts shall be held therein as follows:

Fifteenth District: On the first Monday in January and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the second Monday in March; on the second Monday in March and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the third Monday in May; on the third Monday in May and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the second Monday in August or until the business is disposed of; and on the first Monday in October and continuing until and including the last Saturday before the first Monday in January.

Fifty-ninth District: (a) Collin County: On the third Monday in January and continuing until and including Saturday before the second Monday in March; on the fourth Monday in April and continuing to and including Saturday before the third Monday in June; and on the second Monday in September and continuing until and including Saturday before the first Monday in December.

Fifty-ninth District: (b) Grayson County: On the second Monday in March and continuing until and including Saturday before the fourth Monday in April; on the third Monday in June and continuing until and including the Saturday before the fourth Monday in July; and on the first Monday in December and continuing until and including Saturday before the third Monday in January.

The District Courts of the Fifteenth and Fifty-ninth Judicial Districts, in the County of Grayson, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with each other throughout the limits of Grayson County of all matters civil and criminal of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the Constitution and laws of this State; provided, that the judge of the Fifteenth Judicial District may impanel the grand jury in Grayson County when, in the discretion of said court, it is deemed by him proper so to do, he may draw and impanel such grand jury for any terms of his court as provided by law for other district courts for impaneling grand juries. Either of the judges of the District Court of Grayson County may, in their discretion, either in term time or in vacation, transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, that may at any time be pending in his court, to the other district court in Grayson County, by order or orders entered upon the minutes of the court making such transfer; and, where such transfer or transfers are made, the clerk of said court shall enter such case or cases upon the dockets of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court shall try and dispose of said cases in the same manner as if such cases were originally in said court. The clerk of the District Court of Grayson County, as heretofore constituted, and his successor in office shall be the clerk of both the Fifteenth and Fifty-ninth District Courts in said Grayson County, and shall perform all the duties pertaining to the clerkship of both of said courts. [Acts 1903, p. 2; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 393; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 29.]

16.—Denton and Cooke.—Cooke County: On the first Monday in January and may continue eight weeks; on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in January and may continue six weeks; and on the first Monday in September and may continue eight weeks.

Denton County: On the eighth Monday after the first Monday in January and may continue eight weeks; on the twenty-second Monday after the first Monday in January and may continue six weeks; and on the eighth Monday after the first Monday in September and may continue eight weeks. [Acts 1917, p. 43; Acts 3d C. S. 1923, p. 42.]

17, 48, 67, 96.—Tarrant.—The district courts of the Seventeenth, Forty-eighth, Sixty-seventh and Ninety-sixth Districts shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of Tarrant County of all civil matters of which jurisdiction is given to the district courts by the Constitution and laws of the State. None of said courts shall have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction. The terms of said district courts shall be as follows:

Seventeenth and Ninety-sixth Districts: On the first Mondays in January, April, July and October and continue until the business is disposed of.

Forty-eighth District: On the first Mondays in February, May, August and November and continue until the business is disposed of.

Sixty-seventh District: On the first Mondays in March, June, September and December and continue until the business is disposed of.

The judges of said four courts shall each have the right, within his discretion, to make transfer of cases from his court to any other of said courts.

The clerk of the district courts of Tarrant County shall make up dockets for each of said Courts. All cases, prosecutions and proceedings filed with the Clerk shall by him be entered upon the dockets of said courts alternately, so that the business may be equally distributed between them; provided, that all garnishment cases shall follow the cases in which they are sued out, and that such garnishment cases shall not be estimated by the clerk in dividing business. In all injunctions granted by said judges, the suits wherein granted shall be docketed in the court of the judge who granted such injunctions; and in all cases wherein receivers may be appointed by said judges, the suit wherein such receivers shall be appointed shall be docketed in the court of the judge who appointed such receivers. [Acts 1907, p. 338, Acts 1923, p. 104.]

18.—Johnson, Bosque and Somervell.

Johnson County: On the first Monday in January and may continue until and including Saturday before the Third Monday in March; on the first Monday in May and may continue until and including Saturday before the first Monday in July; and on the second Monday in October and may continue until and including Saturday before the first Monday in December.

Bosque County: On the third Monday in March and may continue until and including Saturday before the third Monday in April; on the third Monday in September and may continue until and including Saturday before the second Monday in October; and on the first Monday in December and may continue until and including Saturday before the first Monday in January.

Somervell County: On the third Monday in April and may continue until and including Saturday before the first Monday in May; on the first Monday in September and may continue until and including Saturday before the third Monday in September. [Acts 1905, p. 37; Acts 1917, p. 75.]

19, 54, 74.—McLennan.

Nineteenth District: On the first Mondays in January, April, July and October and continue until the business is disposed of; provided the October term shall not continue longer than the last Saturday before the 25th day of December.

Fifty-fourth District: On the first Monday in January, March, May, September and November, and each of said terms may continue until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term, unless the business of the term shall be sooner disposed of; and grand juries shall be impaneled at the March and September terms of court and at such other terms as the judge of said district may determine and order.

Seventy-fourth District: On the second Mondays in February, April, June, August, October and December and continue until the business is disposed of.

The said three courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of McLennan County in all civil and criminal cases and proceedings of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State. Any one of the judges of said courts may, in his discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any cause or causes, civil or criminal, that may at any time be pending in his court, to any other of said courts by order or orders entered upon the minutes of his said court, and where such transfer or transfers are made, the clerk of said courts shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said court to which such cause or causes have been transferred, shall try and dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cause or causes were originally in said court.

The judges of the Nineteenth and Seventy-fourth Judicial Districts shall never impanel a grand jury in their courts, but may at any time reconvene the grand jury impaneled by the judge of the Fifty-fourth District, when a necessity therefor exists in the judgment of the judge or judges of said Nineteenth and Seventy-fourth Judicial Districts. No petit juries shall be drawn for the July term of the Nineteenth Judicial District or for the August term of the Seventy-fourth Judicial District, unless the judges of said courts shall deem the same necessary. [Acts 1893, p. 52; Acts 1915, p. 3; Acts 1917, p. 13.]

20.—Milam. On the first Mondays in January, March, May and September, and the second Monday in November, and each term may continue until and including the Saturday next preceding the beginning of the next succeeding term, unless the business of the term shall be sooner disposed of.

Grand juries in said district shall be organized at the May and November terms of said court and at such other terms as the judge of said court may determine and order by causing an order to that effect to be entered upon the minutes of said court by the clerk thereof.

The office of district attorney for said district is hereby abolished, and the regularly elected county attorney of said county shall perform all the duties of district attorney. [Acts 1893, p. 52; Acts 1917, p. 256.]

Mills County: On the ninth Monday after the first Monday in March and on the fourth Monday in September and may continue three weeks. [Acts 1913, p. 115; Acts 1918 4th C. S. p. 60.]

28.—Nueces, Kleberg and Kenedy.

1. Criminal District Court.—There is hereby continued as established for the counties of Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron a criminal district court, which shall have and exercise all of the criminal jurisdiction now vested in and exercised by the district court of the Twenty-eighth Judicial District of Texas, and said Criminal District Court shall try and determine all causes for divorce between husband and wife and adjudicate property rights in connection therewith in said counties, and try and determine all causes for the collection of delinquent taxes and the enforcement of liens for the collection of same. All appeals from the judgments of said courts shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except appeals in divorce cases and suits for the collection of delinquent taxes, which shall be to the Court of Civil Appeals under the same rules and regulations as now or may hereafter be provided by law for the appeals in civil cases from district courts.

2. From and after the time when this Act shall take effect, the District Court of the Twenty-eighth Judicial District composed of the counties of Nueces, Kleberg and Kenedy, and the District Court of the One Hundred and Third Judicial District Court, composed of the counties of Willacy and Cameron, shall cease to have and exercise any criminal jurisdiction in either of said counties, and shall cease to have and exercise any jurisdiction of divorce cases in either of said counties, and shall cease to have and exercise any jurisdiction of suits for the collection of any delinquent taxes or the enforcement of liens for same.

3. The judge of said Criminal District Court for the counties of Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron shall be elected by the qualified voters of said counties, for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of the district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be paid to district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in or exercised by district judges in criminal cases. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges; and in case of disqualification or absence of the judge, a special judge may be selected or appointed as provided by law in cases of district judges; the judge of said criminal district court shall be and remain judge of said court as provided in this Act, until the expiration of his term of office to which he was elected, and until his successors shall have been elected and qualified.

4. The sheriff and clerk of the district court of Nueces county, as now provided by law, shall be the sheriff and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court of Nueces county; and the sheriff and clerk of the district court of Kleberg County, as now provided by law, shall be the sheriff and clerk, respectively, of the criminal district court of Kleberg County; and the sheriff and clerk of the district court of Kenedy County, as now provided by law, shall be sheriff and clerk, respectively, of the criminal district court of Kenedy County; and the sheriff and clerk of the district court of Willacy County, as now provided by law, shall be the sheriff and clerk, respectively, of the criminal district court of Willacy County; and the sheriff and clerk of the district court of Cameron County, as now provided by law, shall be sheriff and clerk, respectively, of the criminal district court of Cameron County; and the district attorney of the said criminal district court elected and now acting for said district, shall be district attorney for said criminal district court in the counties of Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron, and shall hold his office until the time for which he has been elected district attorney for the said criminal district court of Texas shall expire, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and there shall be elected for two years, beginning with the next general election after this Act takes effect, a district attorney for said criminal district court, whose power and duties shall be the same as other district attorneys; and said clerk, sheriff and district attorney shall, respectively, receive such fees and salaries as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the State of Texas, to be paid in the same manner.

5. Said criminal district court shall have a seal in like design as the seal now prescribed by law for district courts, except for Nueces County, the words "Criminal District Court of Nueces County, Texas" shall be engraved around the margin thereof; and for Kleberg County, the words "Criminal District Court of Kleberg County, Texas" shall be engraved around the margin thereof; and for Kenedy County, the words "Criminal District Court of Kenedy County, Texas" shall be engraved around the margin thereof; and for Willacy County, the words "Criminal District Court of Willacy County, Texas" shall be engraved around the margin thereof; and for Cameron County, the words "Criminal District Court of Cameron County, Texas" shall be engraved around the margin thereof.

6. The terms of said criminal district court shall be held in said district each year as follows:

In the county of Kenedy, on the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session one week, and on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session two weeks.

In the county of Willacy, on the first Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session three weeks; and on the second Monday after the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session for two weeks.

In the county of Cameron on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session ten weeks; and on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session six weeks.

In the county of Kleberg, on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session two weeks; and on the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session two weeks.

In the county of Nueces, on the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session six week; and on the twelfth Monday after the first Monday in August, of each year, and may continue in session nine weeks.

7. The trials and proceedings in said criminal district court shall be conducted in criminal cases according to the laws governing pleadings, practice and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts.

The judge of the said criminal district court as heretofore existing, shall be and remain judge of said court as provided in this Act, until the expiration of his term of office to which he was elected, and until his seccessor is elected and qualified as now provided by law.

8. A grand jury shall be drawn and selected for each term of said criminal district court held in Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron Counties in the manner now provided by law, and all grand and petit jurors for criminal cases drawn and selected for the said criminal district court under existing laws at the time this Act takes effect, shall be as valid as if no change had been made, and the persons constituting such juries shall be required to appear and serve at the next ensuing terms of said courts as fixed by this Act, and their acts shall be as if they had served as jurors in the court for which they were originally drawn, and all laws regulating the selection, summoning and impaneling of grand and petit jurors in the district court shall govern said criminal district court, and jury commissioners shall be appointed for drawing juries for said court as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under like rules and regulations. [Acts 1925, p. 244.]

28.—The Twenty-eighth Judicial District of the State of Texas shall be composed of the counties of Kenedy, Nueces and Kleberg, and the terms of the district court shall be held therein each year as follows:

In the county of Kenedy on the last Monday in December of each year and may continue in session two weeks, and on the twenty-first Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session one week.

In the county of Nueces on the first Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session nine weeks.

On the twelfth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session nine weeks.

On the twenty-second Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session until and including the last Saturday before the first Monday in August of each year.

On the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks.

On the ninth Monday after the first Monday in August of each year and may continue in session six weeks.

On the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in August of each year, and may continue in session until and including the last Saturday before the last Monday in December of each year.

In the county of Kleberg on the tenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session two weeks, and on the fifteenth Monday after the first Monday in August of each year and may continue in session two weeks.

The judge of the Twenty-eighth Judicial District as heretofore existing, shall be and remain judge of said Twenty-eighth Judicial District as provided in this Act, until the expiration of the term of office to which he was elected, and until his successor is elected and qualified as now provided by law.

All process issued or served before this Act goes into effect and returnable to the district courts as constituting the Twenty-eighth Judicial District, shall be considered as returnable to the district courts of said counties as established and fixed hereby and in accordance with the terms as prescribed by this Act, and all such process is hereby legalized and all petit juries drawn and selected under the existing law in any of the counties comprising the Twenty-eighth Judicial District, as the same heretofore existed, shall be considered lawfully drawn for the next term of the district court for their respective counties as held in accordance with this Act, provided that if any court in any county of said Twenty-eighth Judicial District, as the same now exists shall be in session when this Act shall take effect, said court shall continue as a district court of said Twenty-eighth Judicial District of Texas until the term thereof shall expire under the provisions of the existing laws; but thereafter the district courts of said counties shall conform in all things to the requirements of this Act. [Id.]

34. 41, 65.—El Paso County shall constitute the Forty-first and Sixty-fifth Judicial Districts, and with the Counties of Culberson and Hudspeth shall constitute the Thirty-fourth Judicial District, and the terms of the district courts therein shall be as follows:

Thirty-fourth District: (a) El Paso County: On the first Monday in September and may continue four weeks; on the first Monday in November and may continue until the last Saturday before the 25th day of December; on the first Monday in January and may continue until the last Saturday in March; and on the first Monday in May and may continue until the last Saturday in June. (b) Culberson County: On the first Monday in April and may continue four weeks; and on the first Monday in October and may continue four weeks. (c) Hudspeth County: to convene at the county seat of said county on the third Monday in April and October and continue two weeks.

Forty-first and Sixty-fifth Districts: On the first Mondays in January, March, May, September and November, and continue until the last Saturday before the next succeeding term of court, except the May term, which shall continue until the last Saturday before the first Monday in July.

The said three district courts of El Paso County shall have concurrent civil and criminal jurisdiction with each other in said county of matters over which the jurisdiction is given or shall be given by the Constitution and laws of Texas to district courts; provided, that no grand jury shall be impaneled in the district courts of said county, other than that of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District, unless by special order of the judge of either of the other district courts a grand jury shall be called for either of said courts.

Any one of the judges of said district courts in El Paso County may, in his discretion, either in term time or vacation, transfer any case or cases, civil or criminal, to any other of said district courts by order entered on the minutes of his court, or minutes of orders made in chambers, as the case may be, which orders when made shall be copied and certified to by the clerk of said courts, together with all orders made in said case, and such certified copies of such orders shall be filed among the papers of any case thus transferred, and the fees therefor shall be taxed as part of the costs of said suit. And the clerk of said courts shall docket any such cause in the court to which it shall have been transferred, and when so entered, the court to which the same shall have been thus transferred shall have like jurisdiction therein as in cases originally brought in said court, and the same shall be dropped from the docket of the court from which it was transferred; provided, that where there shall be a transfer of any case from one court to another, as herein provided, on motion of either of the parties to said suit, notice must be given to either the opposite party or his attorney by the party making the motion to transfer, one week before the time of entering the order of transfer.

The district attorney of the Thirty-fourth Judicial District shall also act as district attorney in and for the Forty-first and Sixty-fifth Judicial Districts, and the clerk of the District Court of El Paso County shall act as clerk of the District Court for each of said District Courts. [Acts 1903, p. 78; Acts 1913, 1st C. S. p. 17; Acts 1915, p. 40.]

35.—McCulloch, Concho, Runnels, Brown and Coleman.

In McCulloch County the terms of said court shall be as follows:

A term beginning the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session three weeks. A term beginning the nineteenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session three weeks.

In Concho County the terms of said court shall be as follows:

A term beginning on the third Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session two weeks. A term beginning the first Monday in September of each year and may continue in session two weeks.

In Runnels County the terms of said court shall be as follows:

A term beginning the fifth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session four weeks. A term beginning the seventh Monday after the first Monday in September of each year and may continue in session four weeks.

In Brown County the terms of said court shall be as follows:

A term beginning the ninth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session five weeks. A term beginning the twenty-second Monday after the first Monday in January of each year, and may continue in session four weeks. A term beginning the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in September of each year and may continue five weeks.

In Coleman County the terms of said court shall be as follows:

A term beginning the fourteenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session five weeks. A term beginning the second Monday after the first Monday in September of each year and may continue in session five weeks.

All process issued or served before this Act goes into effect, returnable to the district courts of said judicial district, shall be returnable to said courts as fixed by the terms of this Act, and said process is hereby legalized and validated and all grand and petit jurors selected and drawn under existing laws in any of the courts of said judicial district shall be considered lawfully drawn and selected for the term or terms of the said district court of the respective counties held after this Act takes effect, and all appearance bonds and recognizances taken in and for said courts shall bind the parties therein obligated to appear at the next terms of said court held under this Act.

This Act shall become effective and take effect on the first day of January, 1926, and from and after said date shall be in full force and effect in said Thirty-fifth Judicial District of the State of Texas.

36.—Aransas, San Patricio, Bee, Live Oak and McMullen.

Aransas County: On the first Monday in September and February and may continue two weeks.

37, 45, 57, 73, 94.—Bexar.

Thirty-seventh, Forty-fifth and Ninety-fourth Districts: On the first Mondays in October, November, January, March and May, and may continue until the last Saturday before the next succeeding term, except the May term which may continue until the last Saturday before the first Monday in July.

Fifty-seventh and Seventy-third Districts: On the first Mondays in October, December, February, April and June, and may continue until the last Saturday before the next succeeding term, except the June term which may continue until the last Saturday before the first Monday in July.

The said courts of Bexar County shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the limits of said county over all cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State, except, and as hereinafter provided, the courts of the Thirty-seventh and Ninety-fourth Judicial Districts shall give preference to the trial of criminal cases, and the Ninety-fourth District Court shall also, next to the trial and determination of criminal causes, try and determine causes for divorce between husband and wife, the custody of children, and the adjudication of property rights in connection therewith, have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunctions and certiorari and all writs necessary to enforce its jurisdiction, and may appoint receivers, and shall try and determine no other causes; and the said Thirty-seventh district court and the Ninety-fourth district court shall impanel grand juries alternately for each term of court in said two districts, and the grand jury shall return their indictments into the court by which they were impaneled.

The judges of said district courts may, in their discretion, or by agreement of the parties, transfer any civil or criminal suit or cause of action of which said court has jurisdiction as declared herein, from one district court to another, by an order duly entered upon the minutes of the court, and when such transfer is made, the clerk shall enter such case or cases upon the docket of the court to which the transfer is made. When such transfer is so made, then all writs, processes, bonds and recognizances, civil and criminal, issued, executed or entered prior to the entry of such order of transfer in said suit or cause of action shall be transferred with said cause.

The district attorney of the Thirty-seventh Judicial District shall be and remain the district attorney of said district as herein defined, and shall also represent the State in all cases, criminal and civil, in the Forty-fifth, Fifty-seventh, Seventy-third and Ninety-fourth, and shall be elected by the qualified voters of said Thirty-seventh Judicial District. 77, 87.—Limestone and Freestone.

Seventy-seventh District: (a) Limestone County: On the first Monday in December, March, June and September and shall continue eight weeks. (b) Freestone County: On the first Mondays in February, May, August and November and shall continue four weeks.

Eighty-seventh District: (a) Limestone County: On the first Monday in February, May, August and November and shall continue eight weeks. (b) Freestone County: On the first Mondays in January, April, July and October and shall continue four weeks.

The said district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction of all cases, civil and criminal and appellate, over which the district courts of this State have jurisdiction under the Constitution and laws of this State, co-extensive with the limits of Limestone County and Freestone County, respectively, and grand juries shall be drawn for the Eighty-seventh District Court in Limestone County at the May and November terms and grand juries shall be drawn for said court in Freestone County for the January and July terms, and at such other terms of said court, both in Limestone and Freestone Counties, as the judge of said court may, from time to time, so order. There shall be organized grand juries at the March and September terms of the Seventy-seventh District Court in Limestone County, and at the May and November terms of said court in Freestone County, and at such other terms of said court in each county, as may be determined and ordered by the judge thereof.

The judges of the Seventy-seventh and Eighty-seventh Districts for the counties of Limestone and Freestone shall each, in his discretion, either in term time or vacation, on motion of any party, or on agreement of the parties, or in his own motion, where he thinks the administration of justice may be facilitated thereby, or for the purpose of equalizing the dockets of said court, transfer any cause, civil or criminal, from the dockets of their respective courts to the docket of the other district court of said county, and shall cause said transfer to be entered of record upon the minutes of his court, whereupon the clerk of the district court to which said cause has been transferred shall docket same and the same shall be tried and disposed of as if it had been originally filed in said court, and no transcript of the record shall be necessary to the jurisdiction of the court to which such case has been transferred and no formal proceedings shall be necessary to such transfer; provided that in any cause pending on any of the dockets of said district courts in either of said counties in which the judge of said court may be disqualified, recused or otherwise unable to try, he shall transfer said cause as above provided, to the other district court in the county where such cause is pending.

The clerks of the said district courts shall make up the dockets of the district courts of said counties, respectively, and shall file the new cases in the courts to which he may be directed to file same by the party filing them; and all criminal cases shall be originally filed in the court to which the indictment or information is returned, and all appeals in probate cases shall be to the court beginning the first term after such appeal is filed. The clerks of said courts shall respectively prepare civil, divorce, criminal and tax dockets as may now be customary or provided by law for the Seventy-seventh and the Eighty-seventh District Courts in their respective counties, and shall place letters on the envelope containing the file papers in each case after the number of said case, designating by the letter "A" causes pending in the Seventy-seventh District Court, and by the letter "B" causes pending in the Eighty-seventh District Court.

The clerk of the Seventy-seventh District Court in Limestone County and the clerk of the Seventy-seventh District Court in Freestone County shall be the clerk of the Eighty-seventh District Court of said counties, respectively; and the district attorney of the Seventy-seventh Judicial District shall be district attorney of said district in both Limestone and Freestone Counties and shall represent the State in all criminal causes in said court in said counties. The office of district attorney for the Eighty-seventh District is hereby abolished, and the duties enjoined by law upon said attorney shall be performed by the respective county attorneys of said district. [Acts 1923, p. 47-52.]

78.—See 30th District.

In Jim Wells County on the twenty-fifth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session four weeks, and on the fourth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session four weeks. [Acts 1925, p. 182.]

80.—The Eightieth District shall be composed of Harris County.

SECTION 1. There shall be two terms of the district court of the Eightieth Judicial District in each year, and the first term in each year, which shall be known as the January-June term, shall be begun on the first Monday in January in each year and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in July of the same year, and the second term in each year, which shall be known as the July-December term, shall be begun on the first Monday in July in each year and shall continue until and including Sunday next before the first Monday in the following January.

SEC. 2. All cases and proceedings pending in the district court of Waller County when this law takes effect, shall be and are hereby transferred from the Eightieth Judicial District as now constituted by said county, to the Ninth Judicial District Court as constituted by this Act; and all cases and proceedings pending in the district court of the Seventy-fifth Judicial District in Montgomery County when this law takes effect, shall be and are hereby transferred from the docket of the Seventy-fifth Judicial District Court as the same is now constituted in said county, to the docket of the Ninth Judicial District Court as the same is constituted by this Act; and all cases and proceedings pending on the docket of the Ninth Judicial District Courts in the counties of Hardin and Liberty when this Act takes effect, shall be and the same are hereby transferred from the Ninth Judicial District as now constituted in said counties, to the dockets of the Seventy-fifth Judicial District Courts of said Hardin and Liberty Counties as the same are constituted by this Act, and the judges of said Ninth and Seventy-fifth Judicial Districts as created by this Act shall carry into effect these provisions.

SEC. 3. The present judges of the Ninth and Seventy-fifth Judicial Districts as the same now exists, shall remain the district judges of their respective districts as reorganized under the provisions of this Act, and shall hold their offices until the next general election and until their successors are appointed or elected and duly qualified, and they shall receive the same compensation as is now, or may hereafter be provided by law for district judges, and a vacancy in either of said offices shall be filed as is now, or may hereafter be provided by law, and the present judge of the district court for the Eightieth Judicial District shall hold his office until his term expires and until his successor is elected and qualified, and a judge of said court shall hereafter be elected at the time and in the manner provided by law by the qualified voters of Harris County.

SEC. 4. The district attorneys of the Ninth and Seventy-fifth Judicial Districts as the same now exists, shall be and continue to remain as the district attorneys of said Ninth and Seventy-fifth Judicial Districts as the same are hereby reorganized, unless disqualified under the law to hold such offices hereunder, in which event the Governor shall appoint a district attorney for one or both of said districts with the qualifications required by law and he shall receive the salary as provided by law for such officers.

SEC. 5. All process and writs issued out of the district courts of the Seventy-fifth Judicial District in Montgomery County and out of the district court of the Ninth Judicial District in Hardin and Liberty Counties, and out of the district court of the Eightieth Judicial District in Waller County and all jurors selected prior to the taking effect of this Act are hereby made returnable to the terms of the Ninth Judicial District Court in Waller County and Montgomery County and the Seventy-fifth Judicial District Courts in Hardin and Liberty Counties, as said terms are fixed by this Act; and all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said courts shall bind the parties for their appearances or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of said courts as they are fixed by this Act; and all processes heretofore returned, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in any of the district courts of said counties shall be as valid as though no change had been made in said districts and the times of holding courts therein.

SEC. 6. Should a district court be in session under the existing law in any county affected by this Act, the same shall continue and end its term under such existing law as if no change in the district had been made, and all process writs, judgments and decrees issued and rendered therein shall be valid and shall not be affected by the change of said districts and the time of holding courts therein made by this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 379.]

81.—Frio, LaSalle, Atascosa, Wilson and Karnes.

Frio County: On the last Monday in August and the first Monday in February and may continue three weeks.

LaSalle County: On the third Monday after the last Monday in August and on the third Monday after the first Monday in February and may continue three weeks.

Atascosa County: On the sixth Monday after the last Monday in August and on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in February and may continue three weeks, at each of which terms a grand jury shall be impaneled. [Acts 1923, p. 145.]

99.—(No 99th Judicial District.)

100.—Childress, Hall, Donley and Collingsworth.

In Childress County:

On the first Monday in January and on the twenty-first Monday after the first Monday in January and may continue in session five weeks.

In Hall County:

On the fifth Monday after the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in September and may continue in session six weeks.

In Donley County:

On the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in January and on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in September and may continue in session five weeks.

In Collingsworth County:

On the sixteenth Monday after the first Monday in January and on the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in September and may continue in session five weeks.

SEC. 2. That all process and writs heretofore issued out of the district courts of the respective counties constituting the One Hundredth Judicial District and returnable to terms of court in said counties according to existing law are hereby made returnable to the terms of the district courts of said respective counties as said terms are fixed by this Act.

And all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said courts shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of said court as they are fixed by this Act, and all process heretofore returned, as well as all bonds and recognizances heretofore taken in the district courts of said respective counties shall be as valid as though no change had been made in the time of holding courts therein, and all grand and petit jurors drawn and selected under existing laws for any counties of said district are hereby declared lawfully drawn and selected for the first term of the district courts of such respective counties held in conformity with this Act.

SEC. 3. Should district court be in session under existing laws in any of the counties of said district, when this Act takes effect, such court, shall continue and end its term under such existing laws as if no change had been made in the time for holding such term, and all process, writs, judgments, decrees and other proceedings of said court during such time shall be valid to all intents and purposes and shall not be affected by the changes in the time of holding court therein made by this Act, but after the period provided in the above contingency the district courts of the respective counties herein mentioned shall be held in conformity with the terms herein prescribed. [Acts 1925, p. 178.]

101.—An additional district court is hereby created in and for Dallas County, the limits of which shall be coextensive with the limits of the county. The district shall be known as the One Hundred and First Judicial District.

SEC. 2. The One Hundred and First District Court shall not have or exercise any criminal jurisdiction, but in all other respects it shall have and exercise the jurisdiction prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State for district courts in general, and the judge thereof shall have and exercise the powers conferred by the Constitution and laws of the State on the judges of district courts. Its jurisdiction shall be concurrent with that of the existing district courts of Dallas County.

SEC. 3. The terms of the One Hundred and First District Court shall begin on the first Mondays, respectively, in March _____ June _____, September _____ and December _____ of each year, and each term shall continue until the Sunday immediately preceding the date set for the beginning of the next term thereof.

SEC. 4. The Governor shall appoint a suitable person as judge for said One Hundred and First District Court, who shall hold his office until the next general election until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Thereafter the judge of said court shall be elected as provided by the Constitution and laws of the State for the election of district judges.

SEC. 5. The clerk of the district courts of Dallas County shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, assume the duties of clerk of the One Hundred and First District Court and shall thereafter perform the duties of such position as if the court had existed at the time of his election. He shall promptly prepare a docket for the One Hundred and First District Court, placing thereon every fifth pending case on the respective dockets of the Fourteenth, Forty-fourth, Sixty-eighth and Ninety-fifth District Courts, continuing in this manner through said dockets until all the cases thereon are exhausted and the dockets of the five courts are equalized as near as may be; provided, that no case then on trial in any of the existing district courts nor any case pending on appeal therefrom shall be transferred to the docket of the court created hereby. The cases so transferred shall bear the same docket numbers as in the court from which they are transferred, and the judges of the existing district courts, respectively, shall make proper orders transferring from said courts to the One Hundred and First District Court the cases which shall have been placed upon the docket of the latter court in pursuance of this Act.

SEC. 6. The letters A, B, C, D, and E shall be placed on the dockets and court papers in the respective district courts of Dallas County to distinguish them, A being used in connection with the Fourteenth District Court, B, the Forty-fourth District Court, C the Sixty-eighth District Court, D the Ninety-fifth District Court and E the One Hundred and First District Court.

SEC. 7. All suits, prosecutions and proceedings hereafter instituted in the district courts of Dallas County shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with the next number after the last file number on the dockets of the existing courts, and shall be entered by the district clerk upon the dockets of said courts alternately, beginning with the Fourteenth District Court; next, the Forty-fourth District Court, third, the Sixty-eighth District Court, fourth, the Ninety-fifth District Court and fifth, the One Hundred and First District Court.

SEC. 8. The respective judges of the district courts of Dallas County shall from time to time, as occasion may require, transfer cases from any one of such courts to any other such court in order that the business may be equally distributed among them, that the judges thereof may at all times be provided with cases to be tried or otherwise considered, and that the trial of no case need be delayed because of the disqualification of the judge in whose court it is pending; provided, however, no case shall be transferred from one court to another without the consent of the judge of the court to which it is transferred. When any transfer is made, proper order shall be entered on the minutes of the court as evidence thereof and notice of the transfer shall be given in writing by the clerk to the attorneys of record of all parties to the cause.

102.—Red River and Bowie.

In the county of Red River on the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session for ten weeks;

In the county of Bowie on the eleventh Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session for seven weeks;

In the county of Red River on the eighteenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year and may continue in session until the first Monday in September;

In the county of Bowie on the first Monday in September of each year and may continue in session for seven weeks;

In the county of Red River on the eighth Monday after the first Monday in September of each year and may continue in session until the first Monday in January of the following year.

SEC. 2. Immediately after this Act takes effect the Governor shall appoint some suitable person as judge of the One Hundred and Second Judicial District Court who shall hold said office until the next general election for State and county officers, and until the election and qualification of his successor in office.

SEC. 3. The clerk of the district court of Bowie County, Texas, as heretofore constituted, and his successors in office, shall be the clerk of both the Fifth Judicial District Court and of the One Hundred and Second Judicial District Court in Bowie County hereby created, and shall perform all the duties of the clerk of both courts in Bowie County.

SEC. 4. The clerk of the district court of Red River County, Texas, as heretofore constituted, and his successors in office, shall be the clerk of the One Hundred and Second Judicial District Court in Red River County hereby created, and shall perform all the duties of the clerk of said One Hundred and Second Judicial District Court in Red River County.

103.—Cameron and Willacy.

In the county of Cameron, on the third Monday in February of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks; on the third Monday in April of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks; on the third Monday in July of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks; on the third Monday in September of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks; on the third Monday in December of each year, and may continue in session eight weeks.

In the county of Willacy, on the third Monday in June of each year, and may continue in session four weeks; on the third Monday in November of each year, and may continue in session four weeks.

The Governor shall appoint a suitable person possessing qualifications prescribed by the constitution and laws of this State, as judge of the 103rd Judicial District Court, as herein constituted, and such person shall hold said office until the next general election and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified and thereafterwards the judges of said 103rd Judicial District of Texas shall be elected as prescribed by the constitution and laws of this State for the election of district judges.

Immediately upon taking effect of this Act, all civil cases now pending in the Twenty-eighth Judicial District Court in the respective counties of Willacy and Cameron, together with all records and papers relating thereto, shall be transferred to said 103rd Judicial District Court in each said respective counties of Willacy and Cameron.

All process and writs issued out of the district court of said counties and jurors selected prior to the taking effect of this Act are hereby made returnable to the terms of said courts, as said terms are fixed by this Act and all bonds executed and recognizances entered in said courts shall bind the parties for their appearance or to fulfill the obligations of such bonds and recognizances at the terms of said courts as they are fixed by this Act, and all process heretofore returned to, as well as all bonds and recognizances, theretofore taken in any of said courts of said counties shall be as valid as though no change had been made in the said districts and the times of holding courts therein. [Id., p. 247.]

105.—(No 105th Judicial District.)

106.—Terry, Lynn, Garza, Dawson, Gaines and Yoakum.

In the County of Terry, on the third Monday in January, and on the fourth Monday in August, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the County of Lynn, on the fourth Monday after the third Monday in January, and the fourth Monday after the fourth Monday in August, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the County of Garza, on the eighth Monday after the third Monday in January, and on the eighth Monday after the fourth Monday in August, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the County of Dawson, on the twelfth Monday after the third Monday in January, and may continue in session for five weeks, and on the twelfth Monday after the fourth Monday in August, and may continue in session four weeks.

In the County of Gaines, on the seventeenth Monday after the third Monday in January, and may continue in session three weeks, and on the sixteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in August and may continue in session two weeks.

In the County of Yoakum, on the twentieth Monday after the third Monday in January, and on the eighteenth Monday after the fourth Monday in August, and may continue in session two weeks.

SEC. 3. The Governor shall appoint, as soon as this Act takes effect, a person to act as judge of the One Hundred and Sixth Judicial District, and a person to act as a district attorney of such judicial district such persons to have the qualification as prescribed by law.

SEC. 4. All process issued, bonds and recognizances made, and all grand and petit juries drawn before this Act takes effect shall be valid for and returnable to the next succeeding terms of the district courts of the several counties, as herein fixed as though issued and served for such terms and returnable to and drawn for the same.

SEC. 5. This Act shall take effect, and be in force from and after the first day of August, 1925. [Acts 1925, p. 250.]

Art. 200. [31] Amendments affecting Judicial Districts.—Wherever the law declaring what counties shall compose a judicial district, or the law prescribing the time or places for holding the terms of the district court of any judicial district shall have been or may hereafter be amended, in every such case all process and writs theretofore issued from any such district court and made returnable to a term of such court as fixed by law at the time of such issuance, shall be returnable to the next ensuing term of such court as prescribed by such amended law; and all such writs and process shall be as legal and valid as if the same had been made returnable to the term of such court as fixed by such amendment. All grand and petit jurors selected and drawn under theretofore existing laws in any county of any such judicial district shall be considered lawfully drawn and selected for the next term of the district court of such county as fixed by the amended law; and the obligees in all appearance bonds and recognizances taken in and for any such district court, as well as all witnesses summoned to appear before such district court under pre-existing law, shall be required to appear at the next term of such court as fixed by the amended law.

Art. 201. [32] [23] [18] When minor may be apprenticed.
—The county court may bind a minor as an apprentice—

1. When such minor is an orphan and without sufficient estate for his maintenance and education.

2. When the parents of such minor have suffered him to become a charge upon the county.

3. When the parents of such minor, not being a charge on the county, shall consent in writing to such apprenticeship, which consent shall be signed by them, and filed and entered of record in such court.

Art. 202. [33] [24] [19] Minor not apprenticed to whom.
—A minor shall in no case be apprenticed to any one who is not legally competent to act as the guardian of such minor.

Art. 203. [34] [25] [20] Duration of apprenticeship.—The duration of apprenticeship shall be until the minor, if a male, arrives at the age of twenty-one years; if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries if she marries before that age.

Art. 204. [35] [26] [21] Shall not be apprenticed without notice.—A minor shall not be apprenticed without citation in the same manner as is provided in the case of an application for the guardianship of a minor.

Art. 205. [36] [27] [22] In what county minor shall be apprenticed.—A minor shall be apprenticed in the county in which he resides, and shall not be apprenticed to any person who is not at the time a resident of such county.

Art. 206. [37] [28] [23] Obligation entered into.—The person to whom such minor is apprenticed shall enter into an obligation in writing, payable to such minor, in the sum to be fixed by the county judge, not less than one thousand dollars, and to be approved by such county judge, conditioned:

1. That he will furnish said minor sufficient food and clothing.

2. That he will treat said minor humanely.

3. That he will teach, or cause to be taught, to said minor some trade or occupation, the same to be specified in such obligation.

4. That he will furnish said minor medicine and medical attention when necessary.

5. That he will send said minor to school for the full term of the public free school in the community in which he resides.

6. That he will not remove said minor out of the county without the leave of the court.

7. That he will not remove said minor out of the State.

Art. 207. [39] [30] [25] Obligation approved and recorded.—The obligation provided for by the preceding article when approved by the court, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court and recorded upon the minutes of the court.

Art. 208. [38] [29] [24] Minor over 14 years of age may select.—A minor who is fourteen years, or over, may select the person to whom he desires to be apprenticed; and the court shall if such person be competent, apprentice the minor to the person so selected.

Art. 209. [40] [31] [26] Order of court apprenticing.—When such obligation has been approved and filed, the court shall enter an order upon the minutes, reciting such facts and directing that the same be recorded in the minutes, and authorizing the person to whom such minor is apprenticed to take charge and control of the person of such minor, and to retain the same until such minor arrives at the age of twenty-one years; or, if a female, until she arrives at the age of eighteen years, or until she marries, and the age of such minor at the time of entering such order shall be distinctly stated therein.

Art. 210. [41] [32] [27] Evidence of authority.—A certified copy of such order, under the seal of the court, shall be sufficient evidence of the authority of the person named therein to control the person of such minor.

Art. 211. [42-43] Rights of master.—The person to whom a minor has been apprenticed shall have the right, in the management and control of such minor, to inflict such moderate corporal chastisement as may be necessary and proper, and shall have the right to control the person of such minor, and shall be entitled to his services, and to all the profits arising from any such service during the continuance of such apprenticeship.

Art. 212. [44] [35] [30] Residence of apprentice.—It shall not be lawful for any apprentice to reside out of the county in which he has been apprenticed without the order of the county judge of such county, entered upon the minutes of the court. When such leave is obtained, a certified copy of the order granting the same shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the future residence of the minor is to be, together with a certified copy of the obligation and order apprenticing such minor; and the same shall be filed and recorded upon the minutes of the county court of such last named county; and thereafter such court shall have the same power and control over the case as if it had been originally commenced therein.

Art. 213. [45] [36] [31] Removal from county.—When an apprentice has been removed out of the county in which he was apprenticed, by the person to whom he was apprenticed, or with the knowledge or consent of such person, and without an order authorizing such removal, as provided in the preceding article, and shall be detained out of said county for more than thirty days, such apprentice shall not be held bound for a further compliance with his apprenticeship, and can only be retained at the pleasure of such apprentice.

Art. 214. [46] [37] [32] When apprentice runs away.—If any apprentice shall run away from or leave the employment of the person to whom he is apprenticed without permission, such person may pursue and recapture such apprentice and bring him before the county judge having jurisdiction of the case, who shall investigate the case; and if satisfied that said apprentice ran away or left the employment of such person without good and sufficient cause, he shall order such apprentice to return to his service; and upon his failure or refusal to do so the court may punish him as for contempt of court.

Art. 215. [47] [38] [33] Apprentice discharged when.—Upon the investigation provided for in the preceding article, if the court be satisfied that such apprentice has good and sufficient cause for running away from or leaving the employment of the person to whom he was apprenticed, the court shall discharge said apprentice and revoke all authority granted to the person to whom such minor was apprenticed, and shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes.

Art. 216. [48] [39] [34] Citation to master.—The county judge may, upon the complaint of the minor or any other person, or without complaint, cause the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed, to be cited to appear before him at any time and place mentioned in such citation, and show cause why his authority over such minor should not be revoked and the minor discharged from his apprenticeship. And upon the return of such citation served, the judge, if satisfied that such person is incompetent from any cause to properly control such minor, or that such person has in any material respect violated the obligation entered into by him, shall enter an order upon the minutes revoking such authority granted to such person over such minor, and discharging such minor from such apprenticeship.

Art. 217. [49] [40] [35] Master released.—A person to whom a minor has been apprenticed may at any time, upon good cause shown to the county judge, be released from future liability upon his obligation of apprenticeship; and in such case an order shall be entered upon the minutes revoking the authority of such person over such minor, and declaring such apprenticeship at an end.

Art. 218. [50] [41] [36] Inquiry into treatment.—The county judge shall, from time to time, inquire into the treatment of the minors apprenticed by him, or by his predecessors in office, and shall defend them from all cruelty, neglect, breach of contract or misconduct on the part of the persons to whom they were apprenticed.

Art. 219. [51] [42] [37] Minor again apprenticed.—When the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed dies, or when his authority has been revoked, the minor may be again apprenticed as in the first instance.

Art. 220. [52] [43] [38] Proceedings may be had.—The proceedings provided for in the preceding articles of this title may be had either in term time or in vacation, except that a minor shall be apprenticed only at a regular term of the court for probate business, and after notice as in the case of the appointment of a guardian.

Art. 221. [53] [44] [39] Suit upon obligation.—In case of a breach of the obligation on the part of the person to whom a minor has been apprenticed, the minor, or the county judge, or any person for the use of the minor, may sue upon such obligation in any court of the county where such obligation, or certified copy thereof, has been filed and recorded, and shall be entitled to recover such damages as the minor may have sustained by reason of such breach; and all such damages shall be the property of such minor.

Art. 222. [54] [45] [40] Costs paid by whom.—In all proceedings apprenticing a minor, or discharging him from apprenticeship, and in all other proceedings connected with such apprenticeship, the person to whom such minor was apprenticed shall pay the costs of such proceedings, and the same shall be adjudged against him and collected as in other cases, except in a suit brought under the preceding article, in which case the costs shall be adjudged as in other civil suits.

Art. 223. [55] [46] [41] Guardian of person.—When a minor is apprenticed, the person to whom such minor is apprenticed supplies the place of the guardian of the person of such minor, and in such case there shall be no guardian of the person of such minor.

Art. 224. [56] [47] [42] Right to arbitrate.—All persons desiring to submit any dispute, controversy, or right of action supposed to have accrued to either party, to arbitration, shall have the right so to do in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Const., Art. 16, Sec. 13.]

Art. 225. [57] [48] [43] Agreement.—Such persons shall sign an agreement in writing, as plaintiff and defendant, to arbitrate their differences or matters in dispute, and in such agreement each party shall name for himself one arbitrator, who shall be over the age of twenty-one years, not related to either party by consanguinity or affinity, possessing the qualifications of a juror, and who is not interested in the result of the cause to be submitted for his decision. [Act April 25, 1846, p. 127. G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1433.]

Art. 226. [58] [49] [44] Agreement filed.—If the amount in dispute is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, such agreement shall be filed with some justice of the peace of the county in which the defendant resides or in which the controversy arose. If the matter in dispute exceeds two hundred dollars, exclusive of interest, then such agreement shall be filed with the clerk of the district or county court of the county in which the controversy arose, according as the amount involved, or matter in dispute, may come within the jurisdiction of one court or the other. [Id.]

Art. 227. [59] [50] [45] Day of trial designated.—When such agreement is filed, the justice of the peace or the clerk of county or district court, as the case may be, shall forthwith designate a day for the trial of the cause, not less than two days thereafter, and shall issue process for such witnesses as either party may desire, returnable on the day fixed for trial. [Id.]

Art. 228. [60] [51] [46] Oath of arbitrators.—On the assembling of the arbitrators on the day of trial, the justice or clerk shall administer an oath to each, substantially as follows: "You do solemnly swear that you will fairly and impartially decide the matter in dispute between the parties, according to the evidence adduced and the law and equity applicable to the facts proved. So help you God." [Id.]

Art. 229. [61] [52] [47] Continuances permissible.—After being sworn, the arbitrators may, for good cause shown, continue the hearing to some other day, and during the progress of any trial, for good cause, may adjourn the same over to some other time.

Art. 230. [62] [53] [48] Procedure on trial.—Any arbitrator shall administer the necessary oath to the witnesses, and the trial of the cause shall proceed in like manner with trials in the courts of this State, the plaintiff holding the affirmative, and entitled to open and conclude the argument.

Art. 231. [63] [54] [49] Award entered as judgment.—After hearing the evidence and arguments, if any, the arbitrators shall agree upon their award and reduce the same to writing, specifying plainly their decision, which award they shall file with the justice or clerk as the case may be, and at the succeeding term of the court if no appeal is applied for such award shall be entered and recorded as the judgment of the court, with like effect as other judgments of said court.

Art. 232. [64] [55] [50] Umpire selected.—If the arbitrators chosen as aforesaid can not agree, they shall select an umpire with like qualifications as themselves, or in case they disagree in the choice of an umpire, the justice or clerk shall select such umpire, and he shall be sworn in like manner as the arbitrators; and the cause may be tried anew at such time as the board of arbitration thus constituted may designate, with like proceedings as are prescribed in the preceding article.

Art. 233. [65] [56] [51] Appeal from award.—If a right of appeal is not expressly reserved in the original agreement to arbitrate, no such right shall exist, but the decision of the arbitrators shall be final. If such right of appeal is reserved, and either party desires to appeal from such decision or award, he shall file his written application to that effect with the justice or clerk, as the case may be, on or before the return day of the term of the court next thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 234. [66] [57] [52] In case of appeal.—When an application for appeal is filed, as prescribed in the preceding article the same shall be noted on the docket of the court, and the opposite party served with a citation, as in ordinary cases of suit by petition. Upon return of service upon the opposite party, the cause shall stand for trial de novo as in ordinary cases.

Art. 235. [67] [58] [53] Costs.—The arbitrators may award the costs to either party; and, if their decision or award is silent as to costs, the same shall be taxed equally against both parties.

Art. 236. [68] [59] [54] Refusing to proceed.—After an agreement to arbitrate is filed, the parties thereto shall be bound to that mode of trial under the following penalties, to-wit: Such agreement may be pleaded in bar to any suit thereafter brought by a plaintiff in such agreement for the same cause of action, when such plaintiff has refused to proceed under such agreement; and said agreement may be pleaded in bar to any right claimed or defense set up by defendant in such agreement who has refused to proceed thereunder, where such right or defense existed at the time of filing such agreement. [Act 1846, p. 127.]

Art. 237. [69] [60] [55] Corporation, etc., may arbitrate.—The provisions of this title shall apply to corporations as well as natural persons; and executors, administrators and guardians may also consent to an arbitration of any controversy or matter of dispute relating to or affecting their respective trusts, with the consent of the court in which such administration or guardianship is pending.

Art. 238. [70] [61] [56] Mode not exclusive.—Nothing herein shall be construed as affecting the existing right of parties to arbitrate their differences in such mode as they may select.

Art. 239. [71] Board of arbitration authorized.—Whenever any grievance or dispute of any nature, growing out of the relation of employer and employes, shall arise or exist between employer and employes, it shall be lawful, upon mutual consent of all parties, to submit all matters respecting such grievance or dispute in writing to a board of arbitrators to hear, adjudicate, and determine the same. Said board shall consist of five persons. When the employes concerned in such grievance or dispute, as the aforesaid, are members in good standing of any labor organization which is represented by one or more delegates in a central body, the said central body shall have power to designate two of said arbitrators, and the employer shall have the power to designate two others of said arbitrators; and the said four arbitrators shall designate a fifth person as arbitrator, who shall be chairman of the board. In case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute, as aforesaid, are members in good standing of a labor organization which is not represented in a central body, then the organization of which they are members shall designate two members of said board; and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; and in case the employes concerned in any such grievance or dispute, as aforesaid, are not members of any labor organization, then a majority of said employes, at a meeting duly held for that purpose, shall designate two arbitrators for said board; and said board shall be organized as hereinbefore provided; provided, that when the two arbitrators shall have been selected by each of the respective parties to the controversy, the district judge of the district having jurisdiction of the subject matter shall, upon notice from either of said arbitrators that they have failed to agree upon the fifth arbitrator, appoint said fifth arbitrator. [Acts 1895, p. 85, G. L. Vol. 10, p. 815.]

Art. 240. [72] District judge to establish board, etc.—Any board, as aforesaid selected, may present a written petition to the district judge of the county where such grievance or dispute to be arbitrated may arise, signed by a majority of said board, setting forth in brief terms the facts showing their due and regular appointment, and the nature of the grievance or dispute between the parties to said arbitration, and praying the license or order of such judge establishing and approving of said board of arbitration. Upon the presentation of said petition, said judge, if it appear that all requirements of this law have been complied with, shall make an order establishing such board of arbitration and referring the matters in dispute to it for hearing, adjudication and determination. The said petition and order, or a copy thereof, shall be filed in the office of the district clerk of the county in which the arbitration is sought. [Id.]

Art. 241. [73] Controversy involving labor organizations.—When a controversy involves and affects the interests of two or more classes or grades of employes belonging to different labor organizations, or of individuals who are not members of a labor organization, then the two arbitrators selected by the employes shall be agreed upon and selected by the concurrent action of all such labor organizations, and a majority of such individuals who are not members of a labor organization. [Id.]

Art. 242. [74] Submission in writing.—The submission shall be in writing, shall be signed by the employer or receiver and the labor organization representing the employes, or any laborer or laborers to be affected by such arbitration who may not belong to any labor organization, shall state the question to be decided, and shall contain appropriate provisions by which the respective parties shall stipulate as follows:

1. That pending the arbitration, the existing status prior to any disagreement or strike, shall not be changed.

2. That the award shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which said arbitration is held, and shall be final and conclusive upon both parties, unless set aside for error of law, apparent on the record.

3. That the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same, and that the same may be specifically enforced in equity so far as the powers of a court of equity permit.

4. That the employes dissatisfied with the award shall not, by reason of such dissatisfaction, quit the service of said employer or receiver before the expiration of thirty days, nor without giving said employer or receiver thirty days written notice of their intention to quit.

5. That said award shall continue in force as between the parties thereto for the period of one year after the same shall go into practical operation; and no new arbitration upon the same subject between the same parties shall be had until the expiration of said one year. [Id.]

Art. 243. [75] Arbitrators to take oath, etc.—The arbitrators so selected shall sign a consent to act as such and shall take and subscribe an oath before some officer authorized to administer the same, to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties as such arbitrator, which consent and oath shall be immediately filed in the office of the clerk of the district court wherein such arbitrators are to act. When said board is ready for the transaction of business, it shall select one of its members to act as secretary, and the parties to the dispute shall receive notice of a time and place of hearing, which shall be not more than ten days after such agreement to arbitrate has been filed. [Id.]

Art. 244. Powers and duties of chairman and board.—The chairman shall have power to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas for the production of books and papers and for the attendance of witnesses, to the same extent that such power is possessed by a court of record, or the judge thereof, in this State. The board may make and enforce the rules for its government and transaction of the business before it and fix its sessions and adjournment, and shall hear and examine such witnesses as may be brought before the board, and such other proof as may be given relative to the matter in dispute. [Id.]

Art. 245. [77] Adjudication terminates powers.—When said board shall have rendered its adjudication and determination, its powers shall cease, unless there may be at the time in existence other similar grievances or disputes between the same class of persons mentioned in the first article of this subdivision, and in such case such persons may submit their differences to said board, which shall have power to act and adjudicate and determine the same as fully as if said board were originally created for the settlement of such difference or differences. [Id.]

Art. 246. [78] Status quo preserved.—During the pendency of such arbitration it shall not be lawful for the employer or receiver party to such arbitration, nor his agent, to discharge the employes parties thereto, except for inefficiency, violation of law, or neglect of duty, or where reduction of force is necessary, nor for the organization representing such employes to order, nor for the employes to unite in, aid or abet strikes or boycotts against such employer or receiver. [Id.]

Art. 247. [79] Compensation.—Each of the said board of arbitrators shall receive three dollars per day for every day in actual service, not to exceed ten days, and traveling expenses not to exceed five cents per mile actually traveled in getting to, or returning from, the place where the board is in session. The fees of witnesses of the aforesaid board shall be fifty cents for each day's attendance and five cents per mile traveled by the nearest route to, and returning from, the place where attendance is required by the board. All subpoenas shall be signed by the secretary of the board and may be served by any person of full age authorized by the board to serve the same. And the fees and mileage of witnesses and the per diem and traveling expenses of said arbitrators shall be taxed as costs against either or all of the parties to said arbitration, as the board of arbitrators may deem just, and shall constitute part of their award; and each of the parties to said arbitration shall, before the arbitrators proceed to consider the matters submitted to them, give a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in an amount to be fixed by the board of arbitration, conditioned for the payment of all expenses connected with the said arbitration. [Id.]

Art. 248. [80] Award to take effect when.—The award shall be made in triplicate. One copy shall be filed in the district clerk's office, one copy shall be given to the employer or receiver, and one copy to the employes or their duly authorized representative. The award, being filed in the District Clerk's office, as hereinbefore provided, shall go into practical operation, and judgment shall be entered thereon accordingly, at the expiration of ten days from such filing, unless within such ten days either party shall file exceptions thereto for matter of law apparent on the record; in which case said award shall go into practical operation, and judgment shall be rendered accordingly, when such exceptions shall have been fully disposed of by either said district court or on appeal therefrom. [Id.]

Art. 249. [81] Judgment entered.—At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court, upon exceptions taken to said award as aforesaid, judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during the said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the court of civil appeals holding jurisdiction thereof. In such case, only such portions of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said exceptions and to be decided. The determination of said court of civil appeals upon said questions shall be final, and being certified by the clerk of said court of civil appeals, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court. If exceptions to an award are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment, when entered, shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award. [Id.]

ARCHIVES.

1. ARCHIVES OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

| Enumeration | Article 250 | Deeds, etc. | Article 252 |
| Effect given to archives | 251 | Withdrawal | 253 |

Art. 250. [82] [62] [57] Enumeration.—The following shall be deemed the records, books and papers of the general land office and constitute a part of the archives of the same:

(1) All the records, books, titles, surveys, maps, papers and documents which in any manner pertain to the lands of the late Republic, or State of Texas, which have been, prior to the eighteenth day of April, A. D. 1876, delivered to the Land Commissioner in pursuance of, and in accordance with, the requirements of any law of the Republic or State of Texas, by any of the empresarios, political chiefs, alcaldes, regidores, commissioners, special or general, for extending titles.

(2) All books, papers, records, documents and archives pertaining to the lands of the Republic or State of Texas that have heretofore been delivered by the Commissioner of the Court of Claims to the Comptroller and by him turned over to the Land Commissioner in pursuance and by authority of law.

(3) All other books, records, papers and archives of the colony of Martin de Leon heretofore delivered by the Secretary of State, in accordance with law, to the Land Commissioner.

(4) The duly certified copy of the book or register of land certificates, usually known as the "Lost Book of Harris County," transmitted to the Land Commissioner by the clerk of the county court, in accordance with law.

(5) All other books, transfers, powers of attorney, field-notes, maps, plats, legal proceedings, official reports, original documents and other papers appertaining to the land of the Republic or State of Texas that have been deposited or filed in the general land office in accordance with any law of the Republic or of this State. [Act Dec. 22, 1836, p. 216; Act June 12, 1837, p. 263; Act Dec. 14, 1837, pp. 44, 62; Act Dec. 2, 1850, p. 32; G. L. Vol. 1, pp. 1276, 1323, 1386; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 860.]

(6) All owners of land between the Nueces and Rio Grande rivers, under grants or titles from the former government, which grants or titles are such as are described in Section 4 of Article 13 of the present Constitution, and have been, previous to the adoption of his Constitution, recorded in the respective counties where the land is situated, but have not yet been deposited or archived in the general land office of this State, be and they are hereby authorized and required to deposit and archive said grants or titles in said general land office. Such titles when so archived, shall be subject to all defenses and objections to which they would have been subject if not so archived; and said act of archiving shall invest said titles with no greater validity than they before had as titles recorded in the proper county; and the Land Commissioner is hereby authorized and required to receive the same as archives of said office. [Acts 1881, p. 37; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 129.]

Art. 251. [83] [63] [58] Effect given to archives.—Nothing in the preceding article shall be construed to give any of the said books, records or other papers named in said article any greater force or validity by reason of their being so recognized as archives of the general land office than was accorded them by the laws in force at the date of their execution and deposit in the general land office. [Id.]

Art. 252. [84] [64] [59] Deeds, etc.—Deeds and other instruments of writing which were executed or issued prior to the second day of March A. D. 1836, upon stamped paper of the second or third seal, and which deeds or instruments of writing are not original documents in the general land office, nor expressly declared by law to be archives of the said office, are hereby declared to constitute no part of the archives of said office. [Act Feb. 11, 1850, p. 200; Act Jan. 11, 1862, p. 36; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 638; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 480.]

Art. 253. [85] [65] [60] Withdrawal.—The owners of any land to which the deeds or other instruments of writing named in the preceding article relate, may withdraw the same from the general land office on making a written sworn application therefor, to the Land Commissioner, setting forth the fact of such ownership; and, if the commissioner shall be satisfied that the person applying is in fact the owner of the land to which such deed or instrument of writing relates, he may deliver the same to such applicant, taking his receipt therefor, and describing in such receipt the deed or instrument of writing delivered, with a summary of its contents and the name of the original grantee of the land to which such deed or instrument of writing may relate or refer. [Id.]

Art. 254. [86] [66] [61] Of State Department.—The Secretary of State is authorized to take possession of rooms in the basement of the capitol for the use of the State Department and the better preservation of archives. [Acts 1856, p. 3; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 421.]

Art. 255. [87] [67] [62] Archives of Republic.—The entire archives of the Congress of the Republic of Texas, and of the several Legislatures of this State, arranged and filed according to law, together with the records, books and journals of said Congress and Legislatures, prepared in accordance with law, and heretofore, or hereafter, deposited in the office of the Secretary of State are declared to be archives of said office. [Acts 1854, p. 113; Acts 1887, p. 47; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1557.]

Art. 256. [88] [68] [63] Historical archives.—All books, pictures, papers, maps, documents, manuscripts, memoranda and data which relate to the history of Texas as a province, colony, Republic or State, which have been or may be delivered to the State Librarian by the Secretary of State, Comptroller, Land Commissioner or by any head of any department, or by any person or officer, in pursuance of law, shall be deemed books and papers of the State Library and shall constitute a part of the archives of said State Library; and copies therefrom shall be made and certified by the State Librarian upon application of any person interested, which certificate shall have the same force and effect as if made by the officer originally in custody of them. [Acts 1907, p. 283.]

Art. 257. [89] [69] [64] Of Comptroller's office.—All books, papers, records and archives, that were heretofore archives of the auditor's office, or of the office of the Commissioner of the Court of Claims, and which have heretofore, in pursuance of law, been delivered to the Comptroller, shall be deemed papers and records of the Comptroller's office, and shall constitute a part of the archives of his office. [Acts 1858, p. 40; Acts 1860, p. 48; G. L. Vol. 4, pp. 912, 1412.]

Art. 258. [90] [70] [65] Other archives.—All books, papers, records, rolls, documents, returns, reports, lists and all other papers that have been, are now, or that may be, required by law to be kept, filed or deposited in any office of the executive departments of this State, shall constitute a part of the archives of the offices in which the same are so kept, filed or deposited.

Art. 259. University archives.—The librarian of the University of Texas and the archivist of the Department of History of said University are hereby authorized to make certified copies of all public records in the custody of the University of Texas, and said certified copies shall be valid in law and shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if certified to by the county clerk or other custodian as now provided for by law. In making the certificate to the said certified copies, either by the librarian or by the archivist of the Department of History, the said officer shall certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of said document, and after signing the said certificate shall swear to the same before any officer authorized to take oaths under the laws of this State. [Acts 1921, p. 94.]

Art. 260. Loan of archives.—County Commissioners and other custodians of public records are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to lend to the Library of the University of Texas, for such length of time and on such conditions as they may determine, such parts of their archives and records as have become mainly of historical value, taking a receipt therefor from the librarian of such University; and the librarian of said University is hereby authorized to receipt for such records as may be transferred to the said Library, and to make copies thereof for historical study. Art. 261. [91] General assignment.—Every assignment made by a debtor for the benefit of his creditors shall provide for a distribution of all of his real and personal estate among all of his creditors consenting thereto, in proportion to their respective claims, and however made or expressed shall have the effect aforesaid and shall be construed to pass all such estate, whether specified therein or not. The term “real and personal estate” shall not include property exempt by law from execution. [Acts 1879, p. 57; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1357.]

Art. 262. [92] Details of Assignment.—Assignments shall be in writing and proved or acknowledged and recorded in the manner provided by law for conveyances of real estate, and the debtor shall annex to such assignment an inventory containing the following statement:

1. A list of all the creditors of such debtor or debtors;
2. The place of residence of each creditor, if known;
3. The sum owing to each creditor, and the nature of the debt or demand;
4. The consideration of such indebtedness in each case, and the place where such indebtedness arose;
5. A statement of any existing judgment or security for the payment of any such debt;
6. An inventory of all such debtor's estate at the date of such assignment, both real and personal, and any incumbrances existing thereon, and of all vouchers and securities relating thereto, and the value of such estate.

Such inventory shall be signed and sworn to by the assignor or assignors that the same is just and true. [Id.]

Art. 263. [93] Discharge of liability.—A debtor may make such assignment and shall thereupon stand discharged from all further liability to such consenting creditors on account of their respective claims. Such debtor shall not be discharged from liability to such creditor who does not receive as much as one-third of the amount due and allowed in his favor as a valid claim against the estate of such debtor. [Acts 1883, p. 46; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 352.]

Art. 264. [94] Notice of assignee's appointment.—Every assignee shall, within thirty days after the execution of an assignment, give public notice of his appointment in some newspaper printed in the county where the assignor resides or where his principal business was conducted. If no newspaper be printed therein, then such notice shall be published in the newspaper nearest to such place of residence or business. Such notice shall be published for three successive weeks. The assignee shall also give notice by mail to each of the listed creditors of the assigner. [Acts 1879, p. 57; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1357.]

Art. 265. [95] Acceptance of creditors.—The creditors of the assignor consenting to such assignment shall make their written consent known to the assignee within four months after the notice provided in the preceding article. No creditor not assenting shall receive or take any benefit under the assignment. Any creditor who had no actual notice of such assignment may assent before any distribution of assets under the assignment. The receipt by a creditor of any portion of his claim from the assignee, shall be conclusive evidence of the assent of such creditor to the assignment. [Id.]

Art. 266. [96] [104] Qualifications and bond of assignee.—Every such assignee shall be a resident of this State and of the county in which the assignor resides, or in which his principal business was conducted, and he shall forthwith after the execution and delivery of the assignment, cause the same to be recorded in the county of such assignee's residence and in every county in which there is any real property conveyed to him by such assignment; and shall execute a bond with sureties to be approved by either the judge of the county or district court in the county of residence of said assignee, in such sum as may be fixed by said judge, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duties as such assignee, and that he will make proportional distribution of the net proceeds of the assigned estate among the creditors entitled thereto. Such bond shall be payable to the State of Texas and shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such assignee resides, and shall inure to the benefit of the assignor and creditors. Upon filing said bond, the assignee shall take possession of the assigned property and proceed to execute the assignment; and if such assignee shall not within five days after the delivery of the assignment, execute an approved bond and file the same as herein provided, such assignment shall nevertheless take effect as against the assignor and his creditors. It shall be the duty of the county judge or judge of the district court of the county in which the assignee resides, either in term time or vacation, upon the application of the assignor or any creditor, and being satisfied that such bond has not been given, approved and filed, to appoint in writing another competent assignee who shall, upon the execution of such bond approved and filed as herein provided, take possession of the assigned property and proceed to execute the assignment. In case of vacancy by death or otherwise of any assignee, or upon removal of any assignee by the district or county judge for just cause, such judge shall appoint another in his place. [Acts 1883, p. 46; Id.; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 352.]

Art. 267. [97] Fraud will not defeat assignment.—No fraudulent act, intent or purpose of the assignor or assignee shall have the effect to defeat the assignment or to deprive the creditors consenting thereto from the benefits thereof; and any consenting creditor may be or become a party to prosecute or defend in any suit or proceeding necessary or proper for the enforcement of his rights under such assignments, or for the protection of his interests in the assigned property. [Id.]

Art. 268. [100] Fraudulent sale by assignor.—Except as to innocent purchasers for value, all property conveyed or transferred by the assignor previous to and in contemplation of assignment with the intent or design to defeat, delay or defraud creditors, or give preference to one creditor over another, shall pass to the assignee by the assignment, notwithstanding such transfer; and the assignee, or in case of his neglect or refusal, any creditor or creditors may in his name, upon securing such assignee against cost or liability, sue for, recover and collect the same, and cause the same to be applied for the benefit of creditors as other property belonging to the debtor's estate in the hands of the assignee. [Acts 1879, p. 57; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1357.]

Art. 269. [98] [102] Proof of claim, etc.—Every creditor consenting to an assignment shall, within six months from the time of the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the assignee, file with such assignee a distinct statement of the particular nature and amount of his claim against the debtor, which shall be supported by an affidavit of the creditor, his agent or attorney, that the statement is true, that the debt is just and that all proper credits or offsets have been allowed, and the assignee shall allow such claim as a valid claim against the estate unless he has good reason to believe it is not just and true. No creditor shall take any benefit under any assignment who neglects to file such statement within such time. The assignor or any creditor disputing such claim may, within eight months after such first publication, sue to set aside any allowance made by the assignee, and to restrain the payment thereof, and such action shall be tried as in other cases. The assignee shall furnish to any creditor upon request a copy of any statement of a claim that has been filed with such assignee. [Id.]

Art. 270. [105] Dividend and allowance.—Whenever any assignee shall have in his hands funds sufficient to pay ten per cent of the debts due by the assignor, he shall make a pro rata distribution of the same among said creditors entitled thereto; and the assignee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for his services and his necessary costs and expenses, including also his attorney's fees, to be allowed by the county or district judge. [Id.]

Art. 271. [99] Surplus.—Any creditor not consenting to the assignment may garnishee the assignee for any excess of such estate remaining in his hands after the payment to the consenting creditors the amount of their debts and the costs and expenses of executing the assignment. [Id.]

Art. 272. [101] Examination of assignor, etc.—The judge of the court in which any proceedings shall have been filed may, on the application of the assignee, or of any creditor of the assignor, or without such application if the judge see fit, at all times require, upon such reasonable notice as the judge may direct, the assignor or any other person to attend and submit to a sworn examination upon all matters relating to the disposition made, or status of the property of the estate assigned, including all transactions in the past bearing upon the rights of the assignee or creditors with respect to the estate in assignment, as contemplated in law. The judge may enforce attendance and obedience to such orders so made by a writ or order as in other cases. Such examination shall be in writing, signed by the persons examined, and attested or sworn to before and filed with the clerk of the court wherein the proceedings are pending, for the use of those interested in the estate. No assignor or debtor shall be prosecuted or punished for any matter or thing disclosed by him on such examination as had above. The costs of such proceedings to be paid out of the estate assigned, or by the applicant for the examination, as the judge in each case may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 273. [103] May discount claims.—Claims not due may be allowed at their present value by discounting them at the legal rate. If any creditor holds collateral security of less value than his debt, the value thereof may be estimated by the assignee, and only the difference between such sum and the debt shall be allowed. [Id.]

Art. 274. [106] Final report of assignee.—If any assignee shall desire to be finally discharged, he may make a sworn report of his proceedings under the assignment, showing the moneys and assets that have come into his hands, and how the same have been disbursed and disposed of. Such report shall thereupon be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the assignment is recorded. No action shall be brought against such assignee by reason of anything done by him under the assignment as shown by his report, unless the same be brought within twelve months from the time of the filing thereof, as aforesaid; and any moneys or funds on hand shall be deposited in the district court subject to be paid out upon the decree of said court. [Id.]

Art. 275. [240] [186] [152] Who may issue.—The judges and clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace may issue writs of original attachment, returnable to their respective courts, upon the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, making an affidavit stating:

- (1) That the defendant is justly indebted to the plaintiff, and the amount of the demand; and
- (2) That the defendant is not a resident of the State, or is a foreign corporation, or is acting as such; or
- (3) That he is about to remove permanently out of the State, and has refused to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff; or
- (4) That he secretes himself so that the ordinary process of law can not be served on him; or
- (5) That he has secreted his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors; or
- (6) That he is about to secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors; or
- (7) That he is about to remove his property out of the State, without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts; or
- (8) That he is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the county where the suit is brought, with intent to defraud his creditors; or
- (9) That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors; or
- (10) That he is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; or
- (11) That he is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or
- (12) That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. [Acts 1864, p. 37; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 691.]

Art. 276. [241] [187] [153] What facts must further appear.—The affidavit shall further state that the attachment is not sued out for the purpose of injuring or harassing the defendant; and that the plaintiff will probably lose his debt unless such attachment is issued. [Id.]

Art. 277. [242] [188] [154] Not to issue until suit begun.—No such attachment shall issue until the suit has been duly instituted; but it may be issued in a proper cause either at the commencement of the suit or at any time during its progress. [Acts 1848, p. 65; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 65.]

Art. 278. [243] [189] [155] May issue on debt not yet due.—The writ of attachment above provided for may issue, although the plaintiff's debt or demand be not due, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as in other cases, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until such debt or demand shall become due. [Id.]

Art. 279. [244-5] Plaintiff must give bond.—Before the issuance of any writ of attachment, the plaintiff must execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the defendant in a sum not less than double the debt sworn to be due, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute his suit to effect, and will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment. Such bond shall be delivered to and approved by the officer issuing the writ, and shall, together with the affidavit, be filed with the papers of the cause. [Id.]

Art. 280. [246] [192] [158] Form of bond.—The following form of bond may be used:

"The State of Texas,
County of _____

We, the undersigned, _____ as principal, and _____ as sureties, acknowledge ourselves bound to pay to C D the sum of _____ dollars, conditioned that the above bound plaintiff in attachment against the said C D, defendant, will prosecute his said suit to effect, and that he will pay all such damages and costs as shall be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such attachment. Witness our hands this _____ day of _____ 19____. [Id.]

Art. 281. Attachment in tort or unliquidated demand.—Nothing in this title shall prevent the issuance of attachments in suits founded in tort or upon unliquidated demands against persons, co-partnerships, associations or corporations upon whom personal service cannot be obtained within this State. Where the demand is unliquidated, the amount of the bond to be made by the plaintiff shall be fixed by the judge or clerk of the court or by the justice of the peace issuing the attachment. The bond shall be made in the sum so fixed and upon the approval and filing of same the attachment shall issue as in other cases. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 31.]

Art. 282. [248] [194] [160] Writ to issue instant.—Upon the execution of such affidavit and bond, it shall be the duty of the judge or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, immediately to issue a writ of attachment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county where property of the defendant is supposed to be, commanding him to attach so much of the property of the defendant as shall be sufficient to satisfy the demand of the plaintiff and the probable costs of the suit. [Id.]

Art. 283. [249] [195] [161] Several writs.—Several writs of attachment may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession, and sent to different counties, until sufficient property shall be attached to satisfy the writ.

Art. 284. [250] [196] [162] Form of writ.—The following form of writ may be issued:

"The State of Texas,

To the sheriff or any constable of _____ county, greeting:

We command you that you attach forthwith so much of the property of C D, if to be found in your county, repleviable on security, as shall be of value sufficient to make the sum of _____ dollars, and the probable costs of suit, to satisfy the demand of A B and that you keep and secure in your hands the property so attached, unless replevied, that the same may be liable to further proceedings thereon, to be had before our court in _____ county of _____, on the _____ day of _____ 19____, when and where you shall make known how you have executed this writ."

Art. 285. [251] [197] [163] Delivery of writ.—The writ of attachment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer issuing it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Art. 286. [252] [198] [164] Duty of officer.—The sheriff or constable receiving the writ shall immediately proceed to execute the same by levying upon so much of the property of the defendant subject to the writ, and found within his county, as may be sufficient to satisfy the command of the writ.

Art. 287. [253] [199] [165] May demand indemnity.—Whenever an officer shall levy an attachment, it shall be at his own risk. Such officer may, for his own indemnification, require the plaintiff in attachment to execute and deliver to him a bond of indemnity to secure him if it should afterward appear that the property levied upon by him does not belong to the defendant.

Art. 288. [254] [200] [166] Property subject to attachment.—The writ of attachment may be levied upon such property, and none other, as is, or may be, by law subject to levy under the writ of execution.

Art. 289. [255] [201] [167] Levy, how made.—The writ of attachment shall be levied in the same manner as is, or may be, the writ of execution upon similar property.

Art. 290. [256] [202] [168] Attachment of personal property.—When personal property is attached, the same shall remain in the hands of the officer attaching until final judgment, unless a claim be made thereto and bond be given to try the right to the same, or unless the same be replevied or be sold as provided by law.

Art. 291. [257] [203] [169] Claimant's bond and affidavit.—Any person other than the defendant may claim the personal property so levied on, or any part thereof, upon making the affidavit and giving bond required by the provisions of the title relating to the trial of the right of property.

Art. 292. [258] [204] [170] Replevy by defendant.—At any time before judgment, should the property not have been previously claimed or sold, the defendant may replevy the same, or any part thereof, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer who levied the writ, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, or, at the defendant's option, for the value of the property replevied, to be estimated by the officer, conditioned that should the defendant be condemned in the action, he shall satisfy the judgment which may be rendered therein, or shall pay the estimated value of the property with lawful interest thereon from the date of the bond.

Art. 293. [259] [205] [171] Sale of perishable property.—Whenever personal property which has been attached shall have not have been claimed or replevied, the judge, or justice of the peace, out of whose court the writ was issued, may, either in term time or in vacation, order the same to be sold, when it shall be made to appear that such property is in danger of serious and immediate waste or decay, or that the keeping of the same until the trial will necessarily be attended with such expense or deterioration in value as greatly to lessen the amount likely to be realized therefrom.

Art. 294. [260] [206] [172] To protect interests.—In ascertaining the facts which authorize the making of such order of sale under the preceding article, the judge, or justice of the peace, may require or dispense with notice to the parties, and may act upon such information, by affidavit, certificate of the attaching officer, or other proof as may seem to him necessary to protect the interest of the parties.

Art. 295. [261] [207] [173] Procedure for sale.—Such sale shall be conducted in the same manner as sales of personal property under execution, except as to the time of advertisement, which may be fixed by the judge, or the justice, for a shorter period, according to the exigency of the case.

Art. 296. [262] [208] [174] Return of sale.—The proceeds of such sale shall, within five days thereafter, be paid over by the officer making the sale to the clerk of the court, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, accompanied by a statement in writing, signed by such officer officially, to be filed with the papers, stating the time and place of the sale, the name of the purchaser, and the amount received, with an itemized account of the expenses attending the sale.

Art. 297. [263] [209] [175] Judge may make necessary orders.—If the personal property be not replevied or claimed or sold under the provisions of this title, the judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, may either in term time or in vacation, make such order for the preservation or use of the same as appears to be to the interest of the parties.

Art. 298. [264-5] Return of writ.—The officer executing the writ of attachment shall return the writ, with his action endorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, to the court from which it issued, on or before the first day of the next term thereof. Such return shall describe the property attached with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state when the same was attached, and whether any personal property attached remains still in his hands, and, if not, the disposition made of the same. When property has been replevied he shall deliver the replevy bond to the clerk to be filed with the papers of the cause.

Art. 299. [266] [212] [178] Report of disposition of property.—When the property levied on is claimed, replevied or sold, or otherwise disposed of after the writ has been returned, the officer having the custody of the same shall immediately make a report in writing, signed by him officially, to the clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, showing such disposition of the property. Such report shall be filed among the papers of the cause.

Art. 300. [267] [213] [179] Attachment creates a lien.—The execution of the writ of attachment upon any property of the defendant subject thereto, unless the writ should be quashed or otherwise vacated, shall create a lien from the date of such levy on the real estate levied on and on such personal property as remains in the hands of the attaching officer, and on the proceeds of such personal property as may have been sold.

Art. 301. [268] [214] [180] Judgment and foreclosure.—Should the plaintiff recover in the suit, such attachment lien shall be foreclosed as in case of other liens, and the court shall direct the proceeds of the personal property sold to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, and the sale of personal property remaining in the hands of the officer and of the real estate levied on, to satisfy the judgment. When an attachment issued from a county or justice court has been levied upon land, no order or decree foreclosing the lien thereby acquired shall be necessary, but the judgment shall briefly recite the issuance and levy of such attachment, and such recital shall be sufficient to preserve such lien. The land so attached may be sold under execution after judgment, and the sale thereof shall vest in the purchaser all the estate of the defendant in attachment in such land, at the time of the levy of such writ of attachment. [Acts 1885, p. 73; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 693.]

Art. 302. [269] [215] [181] Judgment when property is replevied.—When personal property has been levied on, as hereinbefore provided, the judgment shall also be against the defendant and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such replevy bond.

Art. 303. [270] [216] [182] Order of court when attachment quashed.—If the attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated by interlocutory judgment or order of the court, the court shall make the proper order making disposition of the property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has been sold under order of the court, directing that it be turned over to the defendant. The property or the proceeds of the sale thereof, if the same has not been replevied, shall remain in the hands of the officers pending the final disposition of the main case and until it shall be finally disposed of, or until the time for perfecting an appeal has elapsed and no appeal has been perfected, when said order disposing of the property shall be carried into effect. Pending the final disposition of the main case, the defendant shall have the right at any time to replevy the property in the same manner as is provided for in cases of replevy before judgment. If the property has been sold, he may replevy the proceeds of such sale by giving bond in double the amount of the money arising from such sale, with like conditions as when replevied before judgment. Any replevy bond given in such case, whether before or after the quashing or vacating such attachment, shall be as valid and binding as if such attachment had never been quashed or vacated. [Acts 1891, p. 29; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 31.]

Art. 304. [317] [257] Board of Examiners.—The Board of Law Examiners shall consist of five lawyers having the qualifications required of members of the Supreme Court. They shall be biennially appointed by the Supreme Court and shall each hold office for two years and be subject to removal by the Supreme Court for incompetency or inattention to duty. [Acts 1919, p. 63.]

Art. 305. Duties of Board.—Such board, acting under instructions of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided, shall pass upon the eligibility of all candidates for examination for license to practice law within this State, and examine such of these as may show themselves eligible therefor, as to their qualifications to practice law. Such Board shall not recommend any person for license to practice law unless such person shall show to the Board, in the manner to be prescribed by the Supreme Court, that he is of such moral character and of such capacity and attainment that it would be proper for him to be licensed. [Id.]

Art. 306. Authority of Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court is hereby authorized to make such rules as in its judgment may be proper to govern eligibility for such examination and the manner of conducting the same, covering, among other points, proper guarantee to insure:

1. Good moral character on the part of each candidate for license.
2. Adequate pre-legal study and attainment.
3. Adequate study of the law for at least two years, covering the course of study prescribed by the Supreme Court, or the equivalent of such course.
4. The legal topics to be covered by such study and by the examination given.
5. The time and place for holding the examinations, the manner of conducting same and the grades to be made by the candidates to entitle them to be licensed.

Whenever as many as five applicants shall request the Board to conduct an examination in any particular town or city convenient to their place of residence, the examination of such applicants shall be conducted at such town or city at some suitable time, to be determined by the Board.

6. Any other such matters as shall be desirable in order to make the issuance of a license to practice law evidence of good character, and fair capacity and real attainment and proficiency in the knowledge of law.

No license to practice law in this State shall be issued by any court or authority, except by the Supreme Court of this State, under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 307. Graduates exempt.—The Supreme Court by general order shall exempt graduates of such law schools as may be approved by such Court from taking any examination as to pre-legal or legal studies and attainments, but such graduates must in all instances furnish evidence as to moral character required of candidates. Every law school in this State shall be approved for this purpose which maintains the following standards:

1. Admission requirements of law equivalent to successful completion of the four years' high school course.

2. A law curriculum extending over at least three scholastic years, with not less than ten hours class room work in law a week for each of the three classes respectively.

3. Standards for credit based upon written examination satisfactory to the Supreme Court.

4. A library of not fewer than twenty-five hundred well selected law books. [Id.]

Art. 308. Foreign attorneys.—The Supreme Court shall make such rules and regulations as to admitting attorneys from other jurisdictions to practice law in this State as it shall deem proper and just. All such attorneys shall be required to furnish satisfactory proof as to good moral character. [Id.]

Art. 309. [322] [260] [225] Oath of attorney.—Every person admitted to practice law shall, before receiving license, take an oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States and of this State; that he will honestly demean himself in the practice of law, and will discharge his duty to his client to the best of his ability; which oath shall be indorsed upon his license, subscribed by him and attested by the officer administering the same. [Acts 1860, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1385.]

Art. 310. Fees.—The fee for any examination given by the Board shall be fixed by the Supreme Court, not to exceed twenty dollars for each candidate, which shall be paid to the clerk of said court at the time the application for examination is made. The money thus obtained shall be used to pay all legitimate expenses incurred in holding the examination; and as compensation to the members of the Board, under such regulations as shall be agreed upon by the Board, or determined by the Supreme Court. [Acts 1919, p. 64.]

Art. 311. [323] [261] [226] Convicts barred.—No person convicted of a felony shall receive license as an attorney at law; or, if licensed, any court of record in which such person may practice shall, on proof of a conviction of any felony, revoke his license and strike his name from the roll of attorneys. [Acts 1846, p. 247; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1553.]

Art. 312. [324] [262] [227] Misbehavior or contempt.—An attorney at law may be fined or imprisoned by any court for misbehavior or for contempt of such court. No attorney shall be suspended or stricken from the rolls for contempt unless it involve fraudulent or dishonorable misconduct or malpractice. [Acts 1860, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1385.]

Art. 313. [325] [331] Disbarment.—Any attorney at law who shall be guilty of barratry or any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, may be suspended from practice, or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such attorney resides or where the act complained of occurred, regardless of the fact that such act may constitute an offense under the Penal Code of Texas, and regardless of whether he is being prosecuted or has been convicted for the violation of such penal provision. [Acts 1921, p. 127.]

Art. 314. [326] [327] [229] Complaint.—The judge of any court, a practicing attorney, a county commissioner or justice of the peace may file with the clerk of the district court a sworn complaint of fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice on the part of any attorney at law.

Art. 315. [328] [266] [231] Citation to issue.—Upon the filing of such complaint, or upon its own observance of such conduct, such district court shall order the attorney to be cited to show cause why his license shall not be suspended or revoked. If the citation be ordered upon the observation of the court, the charge and the grounds thereof shall be set out distinctly in the order of the court. Such citation shall be served upon defendant at least five days before the trial day.

Art. 316. [329-30] Trial.—Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial and conducted in the name of the State of Texas against the defendant. The county or district attorney shall represent the State. A jury of twelve men shall be impaneled, unless waived by the defendant. If the attorney be found guilty, or if he fail to appear and deny the charge after being duly cited, the said court, by proper order entered on the minutes, may suspend his license for a time, or revoke it entirely, and may also give proper judgment for costs.

Art. 317. [332] [269] [234] Retention of client's money.—Each attorney who receives or collects money for his client and refuses to pay over the same when demanded, may be proceeded against by motion of the party injured or his attorney before the district court of the county in which such attorney usually resides or in which he resided when he collected or received the money; notice of which motion with a copy thereof shall be served on such party at least five days before the trial. In case the motion be sustained, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for the amount by him collected or received and not less than ten nor more than twenty per cent damages on the principal sum. [Acts 1846, p. 245; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1551.]

Art. 318. [333] [270] [235] May inspect papers.—Each attorney at law practicing in any court, shall be allowed at all reasonable times to inspect the papers and records relating to any suit or other matter in which he may be interested. Any party withdrawing any papers shall leave a descriptive receipt for the same. [Id.]

Art. 319. [334] [271] [236] Officers not to appear.—No judge of the Supreme Court, Courts of Civil or Criminal Appeals or district court, or clerk of any court, or deputy, or sheriff or deputy or constable shall be allowed to appear and plead as an attorney at law in any court of record in this State. No county judge shall be allowed to appear and practice as an attorney at law in any county or justice court, except in cases where the court over which he presides has neither original or appellate jurisdiction. [Acts 1876, p. 216; Acts 1st C. S. 1879, p. 12; G. L. Vol. 8, pp. 1052, 1312.]

Art. 320. [335-6-7] Attorney to show authority.—Any defendant in any suit or proceeding pending in any court of this State may, by sworn written motion stating that such defendant believes that such suit or proceeding was instituted against him or is being prosecuted against him without authority on the part of the plaintiff's attorney, cause such attorney to be cited to appear before such court and show his authority for same, notice of which motion shall be served upon such attorney before the trial of such motion. Upon the hearing of such motion, the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant therein to show sufficient authority from the plaintiff in such suit or proceeding to institute or prosecute the same. Upon his failure to show such authority, the court shall refuse to permit such attorney to appear in said cause, and shall dismiss the same if no person who is authorized to prosecute said cause appears. Such motion may be heard and determined at any time before the parties have announced ready for trial, but the trial shall not be unnecessarily continued or delayed for the hearing thereof.

Art. 321. [338] [275] [240] Term of Office.—District attorneys and criminal district attorneys shall hold office for the term of two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 21.]

Art. 322. [339] [276] [241] Districts may elect.—At each regular general election a district attorney shall be elected in each judicial district and in each criminal district of this State, except as is or may be otherwise provided by law. [Acts 1901, p. 127; Acts 1915, p. 259.]

Art. 322a. Travis and Williamson County.—The office of district attorney of Travis and Williamson Counties from and after the first day of January, 1927, shall cease to exist, and there shall be elected a district attorney for the Fifty-third Judicial District at the next general election after the passage of this Act, and at each general election thereafter. He shall represent the State in all criminal cases in all of the district courts of Travis County, and perform such other duties as are or may be provided by law governing district attorneys; and he shall receive, in addition to the five hundred ($500.00) dollars per annum allowed by law to district attorneys, the same per diem and compensation provided by law for district attorneys in judicial districts of this State composed of two or more counties.

After the taking effect of this Act it shall be the duty of the county attorney of Williamson County to represent the State of Texas in all courts in Williamson County, in all matters and cases pertaining to the duties of county attorney and district attorney; and his fees and compensation shall be governed by the General Laws now existing, or hereafter enacted, pertaining to such matters and cases. [Acts 1925, p. 355.]

Art. 323. [340] [277] [242] Bond.—Each district attorney, before entering on the duties of his office, shall give bond, payable to the Governor in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the district judge of their respective districts, conditioned that such district attorney will faithfully pay over, in the manner prescribed by law, all money which he may collect or which may come to his hands for the State or for any county. Such bond shall be deposited in the office of the Comptroller.

Art. 324. Assistants in certain counties.—The district attorney shall appoint one assistant district attorney in districts consisting of more than one county, in which there is situated a city of twenty-eight thousand population or over, according to the last preceding United States census, or any United States census which may hereafter be taken; provided the district attorney shall furnish data to the district judge of his district that he is in need of an assistant and that the district attorney is himself unable to attend to all the duties required of him by law, and that it is necessary and to the best interests of the State that an assistant district attorney be appointed. Every person so appointed shall be a qualified resident attorney of the district in which said appointment is made and shall give bond and take the oath of office required of district attorneys by this State, and shall have the power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of district attorneys under the law of the State, and said appointment shall be for such time as the district attorney shall deem best in the enforcement of the law, not to be less than one month. [Acts 1925, p. 212.]

Art. 324a. Deputy district and county attorneys.—The provision of this Act relating to the appointment and payment of deputies, or assistants, by the county attorneys and the district attorneys, in counties having a population in excess of one hundred thousand inhabitants, shall also apply to counties where one county composes a judicial district, and the population of the county is more than thirty-seven thousand five hundred, and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, as shown by the last United States Census, and counties where the county attorney performs the duties of the county attorney and district attorney, as provided by law. [Acts 1925, p. 352.]

Art. 324b. Assistant district attorneys and investigators.—In any judicial district in this State consisting of more than one county in which there may be a county having a population in excess of 70,000 inhabitants, according to the last census of the United States, and according to any United States census which may hereafter be taken, the district attorney of each district in connection with and for the purpose of conducting his office in such county shall be and is hereby authorized, with the approval of the county commissioners court of such county to appoint one assistant district attorney, who shall receive a salary to be fixed by said commissioners court of such county, not to exceed $2400.00 per annum. Such district attorney shall likewise be authorized, with the approval of such county commissioners court of such county, to appoint one special investigator, at a salary to be fixed by said commissioners court, not to exceed $2400.00 per annum. The salary of such assistant and special investigator, above provided for, shall be paid by the county having a population of more than 70,000, by warrant drawn on the general funds thereof, all salaries payable monthly.

The assistant district attorney above provided for, when appointed, shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State in any court or proceeding in said county in which such district attorney is, or shall be authorized to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said district attorney, and such assistants and special investigators shall be subject to removal at the will of said district attorney. Said assistant district attorney shall be authorized to perform any official act devolving upon or authorized to be performed by such district attorney in said county, this Article is not intended to repeal any other law now existing, but is cumulative thereof.

Art. 325. Assistant for Sixth District.—The district attorney of the Sixth Judicial District of Texas is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant district attorney, whose qualifications and authority shall be the same as now required by law for district attorneys, and he shall take the oath and execute the bond required by law. Said assistant shall receive a salary of not exceeding two thousand dollars per year to be paid out of excess fees of said office as the same accrue under the law. [Acts 1917, p. 268.]

Art. 326. Hudspeth and Culberson Counties.—The commissioners court of Hudspeth and Culberson Counties are hereby authorized to pay to the district attorney for the Thirty-fourth Judicial District of Texas a sum not to exceed seventy-five dollars each per month as specially provided by law. [Acts 1923, p. 382.]

Art. 327. Failure to attend court.—When any district attorney shall fail to attend any term of the district court of any county in his district, the district clerk of such county shall certify the fact of such failure under his official seal to the Comptroller, and unless some satisfactory reason for such failure is shown to the comptroller, such district attorney shall receive no salary for the time that he has so failed to attend. [Acts 1846, p. 295; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1601.]

Art. 328. Vacancy in office.—When a vacancy occurs in the office of district attorney, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person, resident of the district, to fill the same.

District and county attorneys shall reside in the district and county, respectively, for which they were elected; and they shall, as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, notify the Attorney General and Comptroller of their post-office address. [Acts 1876, p. 85.]

Art. 333. To report to Attorney General.—District and County Attorneys shall, when required by the Attorney General, report to him at such times and in such form as he may direct, such information as he may desire in relation to criminal matters and the interests of the State, in their districts and counties.

Art. 334. [356] [290] [253] Shall advise officers.—The district and county attorneys, upon request, shall give an opinion or advice in writing to any county or precinct officer of their district or county, touching their official duties. [Acts 1913, p. 48.]

Art. 335. [363] [297] [257] Collection and fees.—Whenever a district or county attorney has collected money for the State or for any county, he shall within thirty days after receiving the same, pay it into the treasury of the State or of the county in which it belongs, after deducting therefrom and retaining the commissions allowed him thereon by law. Such district or county attorney shall be entitled to ten per cent commissions on the first thousand dollars collected by him in any one case for the State or county from any individual or company, and five per cent on all sums over one thousand dollars, to be retained out of the money when collected, and he shall also be entitled to retain the same commissions on all collections made for the State or for any county. This article shall also apply to money realized for the State under the escheat law. [Acts 1876, p. 86; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 922.]

Art. 336. [365] [299] [259] Accepting reward.—No district or county attorney shall take any fee, article of value, compensation, reward or gift or any promise thereof, from any person whomsoever, to prosecute any case which he is required by law to prosecute, or consideration of or as a testimonial for his services in any case which he is required by law to prosecute, either before or after such case has been tried and finally determined. [Id.]

Art. 337. [361] [362] Collection reports.—On or before the last day of August of each year, each district or county attorney shall file in the office of the Comptroller or of the county treasurer, as the case may be, a sworn account of all money received by him by virtue of his office during the preceding year, payable into the State or county treasury. [Id.]

Art. 338. [364] [298] [258] Register.—Each district and county attorney shall keep in proper books, to be procured by them for that purpose at their own expense, a register of all their official acts and reports, and all actions or demands prosecuted or defended by them as such attorneys, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver such books to their successors in office; and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person appointed by the Governor or by the county commissioners court of a county, to examine the same. [Id.]

Art. 339. [366] [300] [260] To prosecute officers.—When it shall come to the knowledge of any district or county attorney that any officer in his district or county entrusted with the collection or safe keeping of any public funds is in any manner whatsoever neglecting or abusing the trust confided in him, or in any way failing to discharge his duties under the law, he shall institute such proceedings as are necessary to compel the performance of such duties by such officer and to preserve and protect the public interests. [Id.]

Art. 340. [369] [303] [261] Admissions.—No admissions made by the district or county attorney in any suit or action in which the State is a party shall operate to prejudice the rights of the State.

Art. 341. Population determined.—The preceding Federal census shall be the basis for determining population under any provisions of this title

Art. 342. Appointment.—By and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall biennially appoint a "Banking Commissioner of Texas" for a term of two years. The term "Commissioner" as used in this title shall mean the Banking Commissioner of Texas. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 107.]

Art. 343. Vacancy.—Any vacancy in said office shall be filled by the Governor and he shall report the name of the person so appointed to the Senate, if in session, or at the next succeeding session of the Legislature. Should the Senate fail to confirm the appointment made by the Governor within ten days after being advised thereof, then the said office shall be deemed vacant and a new appointment shall be made until the office is filled. [Id.]

Art. 344. Bond.—Within fifteen days after the notice of his appointment and before entering upon the duties of his office, said Commissioner shall give bond to the State for ten thousand dollars to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 345. Qualifications.—The Banking Commissioner shall be a practical banker having had not less than five years actual experience in the banking business holding a position not lower than the grade of cashier. Experience as Deputy Banking Commissioner shall be deemed as that of a practical banker for the purposes of this law. [Id.]

Art. 346. Deputy.—The Commissioner may appoint a competent Deputy Commissioner who shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties attached by law to the office of Banking Commissioner during the necessary or unavoidable absence of the Commissioner, or his inability from any cause to act. The Commissioner shall be responsible for the acts of his Deputy, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his position, take the oath required of the Commissioner; he may also be required by the Commissioner to enter into bond with security payable to the said Commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 347. General powers.—The Commissioner shall be superintendent and Instructor of the State Banking System of Texas and of all corporations incorporated under the provisions of this title.

Art. 348. Liquidating agent.—The Commissioner may appoint a general liquidating agent with his office in the State Banking Department. Said agent shall conduct under the direction of the Commissioner, the liquidation of any State bank in process of liquidation. Such agent shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars per year, payable monthly, to be assessed proportionately by the Commissioner against any bank or banks in liquidation, and shall be collected and paid into the State Treasury. The services of the liquidating agent may be dispensed with at any time at the option of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 349. [460-1-2] Special Agents, etc.—The Commissioner may, under his hand and official seal, appoint one or more special liquidating agents to assist him to perform his duties, and the certificate of their appointment shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, and a certified copy thereof in the office of the clerk of the county in which the bank in process of liquidation was located. The Commissioner may employ counsel and procure such expert assistance as may be necessary in the liquidating and distribution of the assets of such insolvent bank. The Commissioner shall require from such special agents and assistants such security for the faithful performance of their duties as he may deem proper. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 406.]

Art. 350. Examiners.—The Commissioner from time to time shall appoint such number of State Bank Examiners as may be necessary to make the examination of banking corporations required by law, which number shall at no time exceed one for each forty banking corporations then subject to examination under the law. One departmental examiner may be appointed by the Commissioner in addition to the field examiners. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 107.]

Art. 351. Examiners' salaries.—The departmental examiner shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars; and the field examiners shall receive twenty-four hundred dollars for the first year's service and for each additional year to and including the fifth year, they shall receive an additional three hundred dollars, after which they shall receive not more nor less than four thousand dollars per year. The examiners shall receive all necessary traveling expenses, a sworn itemized account of which shall be rendered monthly by each examiner and approved by the Commissioner. In determining the years of service, it is not necessary that the number of years shall have been served consecutively. [Id.]

Art. 352. [520] Examiner's bond, etc.—Each examiner, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, shall take and file in the office of the Secretary of State an oath to support the Constitution of this State, to faithfully demean himself in office, to make fair and impartial examinations, and that he will not accept as presents or emoluments any pay, directly or indirectly for the discharge of any act in the line of his duty other than remuneration fixed and accorded him by law, and that he will not reveal the condition of any bank or bank and trust company examined by him, or any information secured in the course of any examination of any bank or bank and trust company to any one except the Commissioner. Every such examiner shall enter into a bond payable to the State in the sum of ten thousand dollars to be approved by the Commissioner and deposited in the office of the State Comptroller, conditioned that he will faithfully perform his duties as such examiner. In case any such examiner shall knowingly report any such financial company in an insolvent condition, or in case he shall report any such financial company to be solvent, knowing the same to be otherwise, and any person be injured thereby, such person shall have a right of action on such bond for his injuries. Such action shall be brought in the name of the State on the relation of the injured party. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 501.]

Art. 353. [520] Examiner's qualifications.—Every examiner appointed by the Banking Commissioner shall be an expert bookkeeper and bank accountant. No such examiner shall be appointed who has not had practical experience in the banking business for at least five years. No such examiner shall be appointed who is an officer or stockholder in any bank organized under the laws of this State. No such examiner shall be appointed receiver of any bank whose books, papers and affairs he shall have examined pursuant to his appointment. [Id.]

Art. 354. Examiner disqualified.—Upon indictment of any such examiner for any violation of any provision of chapter seven of this title, he shall be disqualified from further discharging the duties of such office until such indictment is fully disposed of. [Id.]

Art. 355. [572] Interest in bank.—Neither the Commissioner nor any regularly appointed clerks or employes of the Banking Department, nor any State bank examiner shall at any time during his incumbency be financially interested directly or indirectly in any State bank or bank and trust company subject to the provisions of this title, or knowingly be or become indebted, either directly or indirectly, to any such bank. A violation of any provision of this article by any officer or employe named herein shall work a forfeiture of his office or position. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 423.]

Art. 356. [527] Commissioner disqualified.—The Commissioner, not less than twice during any one year or oftener in his discretion, shall call upon each banking corporation organized under or subject to the provisions of this title, for a statement of its assets and liabilities as provided in articles 494 and 495. The Commissioner shall not inform any person of the day on which he will call for such statement. For a violation of this requirement, or of any other duty imposed upon him by this title, he shall be deemed to have committed a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction shall be removed from office. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 502.]

Art. 357. [507] To enforce guaranty law.—If any corporation organized under the general or special laws of Texas to do a banking business or to receive funds on deposit shall fail or refuse to file the bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity under the Bond Security System, or shall fail or refuse to avail itself of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund Plan, as provided in chapter seven of this title, the Commissioner shall promptly report such failure to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon institute suit in the district court of Travis County to forfeit the charter of such corporation; and such court shall, upon hearing and proof thereof, enter decree and judgment therein forfeiting and annulling the charter of such corporation. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 406.]

Art. 358. Examinations.—The Commissioner shall cause each banking corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, subject by law to examination, to be thoroughly and fully examined at least every four months and at such other times as the Commissioner may deem necessary. [Acts 1923, 2nd C. S. p. 107.]

Art. 359. Examination of Reserve banks.—Such banking corporations as shall become members of a Federal Reserve bank, should the Federal Reserve Board or the Comptroller of the Currency insist upon making examinations of such corporations by National bank examiners, shall be examined by or under the direction of the Commissioner semi-annually or oftener in his discretion. The Commissioner or any State bank examiner, at his discretion, shall be authorized at any time to forward to the Comptroller of the Currency or the Federal Reserve Board, copies or certified copies of a State bank examiner's report of any regular or special examination made of any such member bank. [Acts 1914, 3rd C. S. p. 46.]

Art. 360. [429] Examination of savings banks.—The Commissioner shall examine or cause to be examined every savings bank organized under this title once in every two years, or oftener in his discretion. The expense of every such special examination, if any, shall be paid by the corporation examined in such manner as the Commissioner shall certify to be just and reasonable. Only actual and traveling expenses of the Commissioner or his examiners incident to such examinations shall be paid by such corporation. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 489.]

Art. 361. May take oaths.—The Commissioner and all State bank examiners shall have the power to administer oaths to any person whose testimony may be desired for the purpose of any such examinations. [Acts 1923, 2nd. C. S., p. 107.]

Art. 362. Examination fees.—Except as to savings banks, the expense of every general and special examination shall be paid by the corporation examined in such amount as the Commissioner shall certify to be just and reasonable, and assessments therefor shall be made by the Commissioner upon the banks examined in proportion to assets or resources held by the banks upon the dates of the examination of the various banks. [Id.]

Art. 363. Disposition of fees.—All sums collected as examination fees shall be paid by the Commissioner directly into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. The expenses of examination and of the Commissioner in enforcing the provisions of this title shall be paid upon the certificate of the Commissioner by warrant of the Comptroller upon the State Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 364. [524] Hindering examination, etc.—If any banking corporation subject to the provisions of this title shall refuse to submit to the inspection of the Commissioner or any of his examiners, or if any officer or director thereof shall refuse to submit to be examined on oath touching the affairs of said corporation, or if it shall be found to have violated its charter, or any law of this State binding upon it, the Commissioner shall report the fact to the Attorney General, who shall institute such action or proceedings against such corporation as is authorized in cases of insolvent banks. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 502.]

Art. 365 [523] Impairment of capital.—Whenever the Commissioner shall have reason to believe that the capital stock of any banking corporation subject to the provisions of this title is reduced by impairment or otherwise below the amount required by law or by its certificates or articles of association, he shall require such corporation to make good the deficiency. [Id.]

Art. 366. [523] Illegal practices.—Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner from any examination made by him or any of his examiners that any such banking corporation is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal, direct the discontinuance of such illegal, unsafe and unauthorized practices, and require a strict conformity with the provisions of the law, and if wrong entries or unlawful uses of the funds of such corporation have been made, he or they shall require that such entries shall be corrected and such sums unlawfully paid out shall be restored by the person or persons responsible for the wrongful or illegal payment thereof. [Id.]

Art. 367. Investigation of fraud.—If it should be brought to the knowledge of the Commissioner that any officer of a bank or bank and trust company organized and doing business under the laws of Texas is engaging in fraudulent business enterprises, or in any line of business reasonably calculated to bring discredit upon such corporation, the Commissioner shall call together the directors of said corporation and lay before them the facts and demand a discontinuance of such practices. [Acts 1923, p. 323.]

Art. 368. [523] Unsafe bank.—Should any banking corporation refuse or neglect to make any report as required by law, or to comply with any orders made by any official of the Banking Department, or whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that it is unsafe or inexpedient for such corporation to continue to transact business, or that extraordinary withdrawals of money are jeopardizing the interest of remaining depositors, or that any director or officer has abused his trust, or been guilty of misconduct or malversation in his official position injurious to the institution, or that it has suffered a serious loss by fire, burglary, repudiation or otherwise, he shall communicate the facts to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon institute such proceedings as the nature of the case may require. Such proceedings may be for any character of relief or any remedy suggested by the conditions disclosed. The court, or the judge thereof in vacation, before whom such proceedings shall be instituted, shall have power forthwith to grant such orders, and in its or his discretion, from time to time to modify or revoke the same, and to grant such relief as the evidence, situation of the parties and the interests involved, shall seem to require. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 502.]

Art. 369. [513-523] Shall close bank.—If an examination made by the Commissioner or by one of his examiners shall disclose that any banking corporation organized under the provisions of this title is insolvent, or that its continuance in business will seriously jeopardize the safety of its depositors or other creditors; or if any such corporation shall make or undertake to make a voluntary assignment of its assets; or if the Banking Board shall disapprove any such bank and shall determine that it is not entitled under this title to conduct a banking business unless such bank goes into voluntary liquidation, then the Commissioner, acting himself or by one of his examiners, shall immediately close said banking corporation and take charge of all the property and effects thereof. [Id.]

Art. 370. [523] Inspection.—The Commissioner, as soon as practicable after taking charge of such bank, shall ascertain by a thorough examination into the affairs its actual financial condition. If he is satisfied that it cannot resume business or liquidate its indebtedness to the satisfaction of all its creditors, he shall report the fact of its insolvency to the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 371. [453-523] Liquidating officer.—Immediately upon the receipt of such notice, the Attorney General shall institute proceedings for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of such bank and to wind up the affairs and business thereof for the benefit of its depositors, creditors and stockholders. The court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall immediately appoint said receiver. Complaint or opposition of the bank or its officers subsequently may be heard in open court. Until a receiver is appointed, the Commissioner may appoint a competent person to take charge of the affairs of such insolvent bank. If a State bank or bank and trust company comes voluntarily into the hands of the Commissioner, no receiver shall be appointed, and the Commissioner shall appoint a competent person in lieu thereof. [Id.; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 408.]

Art. 372. [453-523] Bond of liquidating officer.—Any person appointed by the Commissioner to take charge of the affairs of an insolvent bank shall give bond as required by the Banking Board, payable to said Board and conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties imposed upon him by the laws of this State. If said bank is operating under the Guaranty Fund Plan, said bond may be recovered upon for the benefit of said Guaranty Fund or any party at interest. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 408.]

Art. 373. Insolvency of Reserve bank.—If any State bank which is a member of a Federal Reserve bank shall be declared insolvent and a receiver or other agency appointed for the liquidation of its affairs and the payment of its debts, the stock held by it in the said Federal Reserve bank may be cancelled without impairment of its liability and all cash paid subscriptions on said stock with one-half of one per cent per month interest from the period of the last dividend, not to exceed the book value thereof, may be first applied to all the debts of said member bank to the Federal Reserve bank, and the balance, if any, paid to the receiver of the insolvent bank or other agency for its liquidation as provided in section six of the Federal Reserve Act. [Acts 1914, 3rd C. S. p. 46.]

Art. 374. Liquidation of savings banks.—If any savings bank incorporated under the laws of Texas shall become insolvent, its liquidation shall be accomplished by the Commissioner in the manner provided for other State banks.

Art. 375. [430] Report to Legislature.—The Banking Commissioner shall communicate to the Legislature at its regular sessions on or before February first, a statement of the condition of each savings bank from which a report has been received for the past preceding two years; also the name and location of the savings banks and institutions for savings authorized by him during the previous two years with the date of their corporation. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 489.]

CHAPTER TWO. INCORPORATION.

| Board to investigate..... | 380 | Disqualification..... | 386 |
| Issuance of charter..... | 381 | Election of directors..... | 387 |

Art. 376. [370] May incorporate.—Five or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this State, who have associated themselves by written articles of agreement as provided by the general corporation law, may be incorporated for the purpose of establishing: (a) a bank of deposit or discount, or both of deposit and discount; (b) a banking and trust company; or (c) a savings bank. The name or title designating such business shall not be the name of any corporation heretofore incorporated in this State for similar purposes, or any imitation of such name, and in the case of banks, the word "bank" or "banking" shall be included as a part of the name of such corporation. All titles shall be submitted to the Banking Commissioner for approval. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 489.]

Art. 377. [371] Articles of association.—The articles of association shall state:

1. The corporate name of the proposed corporation.
2. The purpose for which the corporation is formed.
3. The name of the city or town and county in which the corporation is to be located.

4. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; that the same has been bona fide subscribed and actually paid up in lawful money of the United States, and is in the custody of the persons named as the first board of directors.

5. The name and place of residence of each shareholder, and the number of shares subscribed by each.

6. The number of directors, and the names of those agreed upon for the first year.

7. The number of years the corporation is to continue, which in no case shall exceed fifty. [Id.]

Art. 378. To be signed, etc.—Such articles of association shall be signed and acknowledged by the parties thereto. No certificate of incorporation under this title shall be valid unless at the time the articles of agreement were acknowledged the capital stock therein mentioned shall have been bona fide subscribed and paid up in lawful money. [Id.]

Art. 379. Application for charter.—The incorporators of any proposed State bank, savings bank or bank and trust company shall make application to the State Banking Board for a charter in such form as said Board may prescribe and submit and present to said Board articles of incorporation or association, as prescribed by law. [Acts 1913, p. 211.]

Art. 380. Board to investigate.—The Board shall carefully examine the articles of association, and each such incorporator shall show to the satisfaction of said Board, by affidavit or otherwise as may be required by said Board, that he is worth over and above exemptions and liabilities at least double the amount of the par value of the stock subscribed by him. The said Board shall also inform itself as to the public necessity of the business of the community in which it is sought to establish the same, and determine whether its capital is commensurate with the requirements of law, and the location of the business, and that the applicants are acting in good faith. [Id.]

Art. 381. Issuance of charter.—If the Board determines any requirement unfavorably to the applicants, the charter shall be refused; but if favorably, then the charter shall be granted, and the articles of incorporation or association shall be filed with the Commissioner who shall deliver a certified copy thereof to the incorporators which shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the corporation may be located. [Id.]

Art. 382. [511] Certificate of authority.—All State banks transacting business in Texas shall be required to hold a certificate of authority to transact a banking business issued by the Commissioner as provided in the succeeding article, and to keep same conspicuously posted at all times in the banking house where such business is transacted. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 406.]

Art. 383. [512] Form of certificate.—The Commissioner shall issue to each State bank which the State Banking Board shall have approved and certified to him as being entitled to transact a banking business, a certificate of authority in such form as the Board shall approve, to be signed by him under his official seal, certifying that such bank is authorized under the laws of this State to engage in the banking business. Such certificate, when issued to guaranty fund banks shall contain the following statement on the face thereof in bold type. "The non-interest bearing and unsecured deposits of this bank are protected by the State bank guaranty fund." And, when issued to bond security banks shall contain the following statement on the face thereof in bold type: "All deposits of this bank are protected by security bond under the laws of the State of Texas." When issued to the State banks other than guaranty fund and bond security banks, it shall contain neither of these, nor any similar statement. [Id.]

Art. 384. Tax and filing fee.—At the time the articles of incorporation aforesaid are submitted to the State Banking Board, the applicants for charter shall deposit with the Commissioner the fee required by law for the charter they seek to have granted. If the charter is refused by said Board, then the charter fee shall be returned to the applicants. A certified copy of the articles of incorporation shall not be delivered to the incorporators until they present to the Banking Commissioner a receipt from the Secretary of State showing that they have paid to the latter officer the required franchise tax. [Acts 1913, p. 211.]

Art. 385. Oath of directors.—Each person elected director of a State banking institution shall make oath that he will diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of the banking laws of this State; that he is the owner in good faith and in his own right of his legal quota of the stock of such corporation; and that same is not hypothecated or pledged for debt. Such oath when subscribed and duly certified, shall be filed permanently in the minutes of the corporation. [Acts 1917, p. 469.]

Art. 386. Disqualification.—Any director of such corporation who shall hypothecate or pledge his legal quota of the stock of such corporation shall automatically forfeit his position. [Id.]

Art. 387. Election of directors.—The charter of any such corporation need not be amended in order to increase or decrease the number of directors. The stockholders may at any regular annual election of directors elect such number as they may see fit, not less than five nor more than twenty-five, and such number so elected shall be the full number of directors for the ensuing year for which they are elected. When the number of directors is changed under this article, a certified copy of the resolution changing the number shall be forwarded at once to the Commissioner to be filed by him free of charge in the charter file of the corporation. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE.

BANKS.

| Board of directors..... | Article 388 | Capital stock | Article 391 |
| Qualification | 389 | Powers of corporation..... | 392 |
| Vacancy | 390 | | |

Art. 388. [374] Board of directors.—The business of every banking corporation shall be managed by a board of directors, a majority of whom shall be bona fide resident citizens of this State, and each of whom shall be a bona fide owner of at least five shares of the capital stock thereof, unless the capital stock of the corporation exceeds seventeen thousand five hundred dollars, in which case each director shall be a bonafide owner of at least ten shares of the capital stock. No person shall be a director in any bank against whom such bank holds a judgment. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 489.]

Art. 389. [374] Qualification.—Every person who shall be elected a director of a bank shall within thirty days after said election, qualify as such director by filing with the officers of such bank a written acceptance of the position, a copy of which shall be spread upon the records of the acts of the directors. Failure to comply with this provision within the time specified shall work a forfeiture of the position. [Id.]

Art. 390. [374] Vacancy.—When any vacancy occurs by such failure, the board of directors shall at the next regular meeting thereafter enter the fact of such vacancy upon their records and immediately proceed to elect some competent person to fill the unexpired term. A vacancy in the board from any cause, previous to the annual election, may be filled by the remaining members. [Id.]

Art. 391. [375] Capital stock.—When a bank is located in a town having less than eight hundred inhabitants. its capital stock shall not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars, nor less than twenty-five thousand dollars for banks located in towns and cities having eight hundred inhabitants and less than ten thousand inhabitants, nor less than fifty thousand dollars for banks located in towns and cities having ten thousand inhabitants and less than twenty thousand inhabitants, nor less than one hundred thousand dollars in towns and cities having twenty thousand inhabitants or more. No bank shall have a capital stock of more than ten million dollars. The population of all towns and cities for the purpose of fixing the minimum capital stock of banks under this title shall be ascertained by reference to the last preceding Federal census. [Acts 1923, p. 93.]

Art. 392. [376] Powers of corporation.—Banking corporations shall be authorized to conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, allowing interest thereon, and of buying and selling exchange, gold and silver coins of all kinds; of lending money upon real estate and personal property and upon collateral and personal securities at a rate of interest not exceeding that allowed by law; and of buying, selling and discounting negotiable and non-negotiable commercial paper of all kinds. No such bank shall lend more than fifty per cent of its securities upon real estate, nor make a loan on real estate to an amount greater than half the reasonable cash value thereof. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 489.]

|-------------------------|-------------|----------------------------|-------------|
| Board of directors..... | Article 393 | Capital stock..... | Article 395 |
| Term of office..... | 394 | Powers of corporation..... | 396 |

Art. 393. [383] Board of directors.—Bank and trust companies shall be controlled and managed by directors who shall be stockholders of such corporation, and a majority of whom shall be bona fide citizens of Texas. They shall be elected by the shareholders of such corporation who shall meet at such time and place as shall be directed by the by-laws of such corporation. At least two weeks notice of such time and place shall be published in some daily or weekly newspaper which circulates in the county or city in which the corporation is located. The election shall be by ballot only, and only those shareholders who shall attend the meeting in person or by proxy in writing, shall vote at such election. All directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. [Acts 1st C. S., 1905, p. 489.]

Art. 394. [383] Term of office.—If the board of directors of such corporation shall exceed five in number, they shall as soon as practicable after their organization, divide themselves by ballot into three classes of equal number as near as may be, designated the first, second and third class, of which the first class shall remain in office one year, the second class two years, and the third class three years; and at each annual election directors shall be elected for the term of three years to fill the vacancies created by the retiring class. If one or more directors dies or resigns, the survivors shall fill the vacancy until the next election. [Id.]

Art. 395. [384] Capital stock.—The amount of capital stock of a bank and trust company shall not be less than fifty thousand nor more than ten million dollars. No bank and trust company shall be incorporated in a town or city having twenty thousand inhabitants or more with a capital stock of less than one hundred thousand dollars. [Id.; Acts 1913, p. 207.]

Art. 396. [385] Powers of corporation.—Bank and trust companies may be created for the purpose of establishing a bank of deposit or discount, or both of deposit and discount, with the powers set out in article 392, and any one or more of the following purposes:

1. To act as the fiscal or transfer agent of any State, municipality, body politic, or corporation, and in such capacity, to receive and disburse money; to transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, and to act as agent of any corporation, foreign or domestic, for any lawful purpose.

2. To receive deposits or trust moneys, securities and other personal property from any person or corporation, and to lend money on real or personal securities.

3. To lease, hold, purchase and convey any and all real property necessary in the transaction of its business, or which it acquires in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of debts due the corporation, under sales, judgments or mortgages, or in settlement or partial settlement of debts due the corporation by any of its debtors; which shall be alienated in good faith within five years from the date of its acquisition to some person other than some one interested in the company.

4. To act as trustee under any mortgage or bond issue by any municipality, body politic or corporation, and accept and execute any other municipal or corporate trust not inconsistent with the laws of this State.

5. To accept trusts from, and execute trusts for married women, in respect to their separate property, and to be their agent in the management of such property or to transact any business in relation thereto.

6. To act under the order or appointment of any court of record as guardian, receiver or trustee of the estate of any minor, the annual income of which shall not be less than one hundred dollars, and as depository of any moneys paid into court, whether for the benefit of any such minor or other person, corporation or party.

7. To take, accept and execute any and all such legal trusts, duties and powers in regard to the holding, management and disposition of any estate, real or personal, and the rents and profits thereof, or the sale thereof, as may be granted or confided to it by any court of record, or by any person, corporation, municipality or other authority; and it shall be accountable to all parties in interest for the faithful discharge of every such trust, duty or power which it may so accept.

8. To take, accept and execute any and all such trusts and powers of whatever nature or description, as may be conferred upon or intrusted or committed to it by any person or persons, or any body politic, corporation or other authority by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or otherwise, or which may be intrusted or committed or transferred to it or vested in it by order of any court of record, and to receive, take and hold any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust.

9. To purchase, invest in, guarantee and sell stocks, bills of exchange, bonds and mortgages and other securities; and when moneys or securities for moneys are borrowed or received on deposit, or for investment, the bonds or obligation of the company may be given therefor, but it shall have no right to issue bills to circulate as money.

10. To act as executor under the last will or as administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or as guardian of any infant, insane person, idiot or habitual drunkard, or trustee for any convict in the penitentiary, under appointment of any court of record having jurisdiction of the estate of such deceased person, infant, insane person, idiot, habitual drunkard or convict. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 492.]

Art. 397. [390] Board of directors.—Savings banks shall be controlled and managed by a board of directors, not less than five nor more than thirteen in number, who shall be stockholders of the corporation, and a majority of whom shall be bona fide citizens of Texas. Their election, term of office and the filling of vacancies on the board shall be governed by the provisions of articles 393 and 394. The directors shall elect from their number a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer, and may appoint such other officers and agents as they may deem necessary for the proper conducting of the business of the corporation, and may allow them reasonable compensation for services rendered. The vote of a majority of the full board shall be requisite for the appointment of any officer receiving a salary therefrom, or to fix or increase the salary of any officer. No person shall be disqualified from being a director by reason of his being a director or officer of a bank or savings institution organized under the laws of this State. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 489.]

Art. 398. [391] Meetings of board.—Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least once in each month for the transaction of the business of the bank, at which meeting all the officers and committees shall report to the board. A quorum at any regular, special or adjourned meeting shall consist of not less than a majority of directors. Less than a quorum may adjourn from time to time, until the next regular meeting. [Id.]

Art. 399. [418-419-422] Compensation of directors.—It shall be lawful for directors, acting as officers of savings banks whose duties may require their regular and faithful attendance at the institution, to receive such compensation as the majority of the board of directors shall deem just and reasonable; such majority shall be exclusive of any director to whom such compensation shall be voted. It shall not be lawful to pay the directors, as such, for attendance at the meetings of the board. No director shall, directly or indirectly receive any payment or emolument for his services as such of any savings bank, except as herein provided. All sums paid for services, fees or otherwise to a member of the board shall be reported in detail at such regular meeting of the directors. [Id.]

Art. 400. [420] Fees restricted.—No such corporation, or any person acting in its behalf shall negotiate, take or receive a fee, brokerage, commission or gift or other consideration for or on account of the loan made by and in behalf of such corporation, other than appears on the face of the note or contract by which such loan purports to be made. Nothing herein shall apply to any reasonable charge for services in the examination of title and the preparation of conveyance to such corporation as security for its loan. [Id.]

Art. 401. [405] Application for loans.—All applications for loans shall be made in writing to the treasurer of the corporation, who shall keep a record thereof showing the date, name of applicant, amount asked for, and security offered, and shall cause the same to be presented to the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 402. [421] Officers not to borrow.—No director or officer of such corporation shall, directly or indirectly, for himself or as agent or partner of others, borrow any of the funds of the corporation, or funds in its custody, or in any manner use the same, except to make necessary current payments for the corporation, or to make investments, or to deposit for safety under the direction and authority of the board of directors; nor shall any director or officer of such corporation be an indorser or surety or in any way be an obligor for moneys loaned or borrowed of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 403. [423] Penalty for borrowing, etc.—If a director violates any provision of the preceding article; or fails to attend regular meetings of the board, or fails to perform any duty devolved upon him as such director for three successive months without having been excused by the board for such failure, the office of such director shall become vacant. Such director may, in the discretion of the board, be eligible to re-election. [Id.]

Art. 404. [424] Security from officers.—The board of directors may, from time to time, require from each officer, employe and agent of such corporation, such security for their fidelity and good conduct as may be necessary. [Id.]

Art. 405. [416] Powers of directors.—The board of directors of any such corporations shall have power from time to time to make such laws, rules and regulations as they may think proper for the election of officers, for prescribing their respective powers and duties, and the manner of discharging them; for the appointment of committees, and generally for transacting, managing and directing the affairs of the corporation. Such by-laws, rules and regulations shall not be repugnant to nor inconsistent with the provisions of this title, nor the Constitution of this State, nor of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 406. [397] Payment of deposits.—The board of directors may regulate the payment of deposits and require sixty days notice of the withdrawal of any deposit. Such regulations shall not be retroactive nor in conflict with any provision of this chapter, and shall be printed and conspicuously posted at the place of deposit. Upon notice to the depositor, any account may be closed whereupon it shall cease to draw interest. [Id.]

Art. 407. [417] Effect of notice.—Notices and rules posted conspicuously by savings banks in the room where such business is transacted, shall be equivalent to a personal notice to any party interested. [Id.]

Art. 408. [398] Pass book.—A pass book containing the rules and regulations adopted by the board of directors governing deposits shall be issued to each depositor, and all payments to and withdrawals by such depositor shall be entered therein. No payment or check against any such savings account shall be made unless accompanied by and entered in the pass book issued therefor, except for good cause and on assurance satisfactory to the officers of the bank. At least once in every three years all pass books shall be called in and verified in such manner as the board of directors shall elect. [Id.]

Art. 409. [399] Deposit of minor or female.—Whenever any deposit shall be made by or in the name of any minor, or a female being or thereafter becoming a married woman, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such depositor, and shall be paid, together with the interest thereon upon the production of and proper entry in the pass book at the time of such payment, and in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation, to the person in whose name the deposit shall have been made, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor or female shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge for such deposit or any part thereof to the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 410. [400] Deposit in trust.—Whenever any deposit shall be made by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to the bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof together with the interest thereon may be paid to the person for whom the said deposit was made. [Id.]

Art. 411. [413] Safety deposit box rent.—Any corporation which has been authorized or may hereafter be authorized to own or control a safety vault and rent the boxes therein may, if the amount due for the use of any safe or box in the vault of such corporation shall not have been paid for two years, at the expiration thereof cause to be sent to the person in whose name such safe or box stands on its books, a written notice in a securely closed, postpaid registered letter directed to such person at his postoffice address as recorded upon the books of the corporation, notifying such person that if the amount then due for the use of such safe or box is not paid within sixty days from the date of such notice, the corporation will then cause such safe or box to be opened in the presence of its president or vice president, secretary or treasurer, and of a notary public not an officer or in the employ of the corporation, and the contents thereof, if any, to be sealed up by such notary public in a package, upon which such notary public shall distinctly mark the name and address of the person in whose name such safe or box stands upon the books of the corporation, and the estimated value thereof. And the package so sealed and addressed and marked for identification will be placed by such notary public in one of the general safes or boxes of the corporation and retained by the corporation subject to the payment of all rent that may be unpaid, and of all expenses incurred in opening the safe or box, and also of a reasonable compensation for the safekeeping of the contents after their removal from the safe or box. [Id.]

Art. 412. [392-393] Capital stock.—The capital stock of a savings bank shall not be less than ten thousand dollars in cities having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or under, and not less than fifty thousand dollars in cities having a population of more than fifty thousand. Such corporation may increase its capital stock in the manner provided by law to an amount not greater than five million dollars. Stockholders shall have the first right to subscribe to such increase in proportion to the amount of stock held by each. [Id.]

Art. 413. [395] Powers of corporation.—Savings banks shall have authority:

1. To receive, accumulate and safely keep any deposits of money from any persons, corporations or societies, and to invest, hold and repay the same, crediting and paying interest thereon as in this chapter authorized and provided, and not otherwise;

2. To issue certificates of deposit payable on demand or such other time as may be agreed upon by the depositor and the bank;

3. At its option, to take and receive as bailee for safe keeping and storage, any character of acceptable valuable articles, guaranteeing their safety upon such terms and for such compensation as may be agreed upon with the owner, and to let out vaults, safes and other receptacles for the use, benefit and purposes of such corporations. [Id.; Acts 1907, p. 305.]

Art. 414. [414] Powers as to real estate.—It shall be lawful for any savings bank to purchase, hold, sell and convey real estate as follows:

1. The house and lot, not to exceed in value twenty per cent of the capital stock of such bank, on which is the domicile of such corporation, and from portions of which not required for its own use any revenue may be derived;

2. Such as shall be purchased by it at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages or deeds of trust owned by such corporations, or upon judgments or decrees rendered for debts due to it or purchased or taken in settlement to secure such debts, and all such interest shall be sold to some person other than some one interested in the bank within five years after same shall be vested in it, unless the Commissioner shall extend the time within which such sale shall be made. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 489.]

Art. 415. [396] May limit deposits.—Every such corporation shall have the right to limit, refuse or return any deposit at its discretion. No individual or corporation may deposit more than four thousand dollars inclusive of dividends. Sums in any amount arising from judicial sales or trust funds or received pursuant to the order of a court of record may be received for deposit. [Id.]

Art. 416. [403-432] Investment of savings.—Such corporations shall invest not more than eighty-five per cent of the total amount of its savings deposits in any of the following classes of securities, and not otherwise:

1. In bonds or interest bearing notes or obligations of the United States or of those for which the faith of the United States is pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

2. In bonds of any city, county, town or school district or other subdivision in this State, now organized or which may hereafter be organized, and which is now or may hereafter be authorized to issue bonds under the Constitution and laws of this State, which has not defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof within five years previous to making such investments;

3. In bonds of this State, or of any State of the Union that has not within the last five years previous to making such investment, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof;

4. In the first mortgage bonds of any steam or electric railroad, the income of which is sufficient to pay all operating expenses and fixed charges, which has its domicile in this State;

5. In bonds or notes secured by first mortgage, deed of trust or other valid lien on unincumbered, improved real estate in Texas worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon, such bonds or notes to run for a term of not longer than ten years, and to be always accompanied by a complete abstract of title to the property mortgaged and an attorney's certificate or title insurance policy in some company incorporated under the laws of Texas, certifying said bonds or notes to be the first lien on the land mortgaged.

It shall be the duty of the directors of such corporation as soon as practicable, to invest the moneys and funds of such savings accounts by purchase or otherwise, in the securities above described. Such directors, from time to time shall sell and invest the proceeds of such investments, and for the purpose of meeting current demands and expenses in excess of the receipts, any of the securities may be sold or pledged. [Id.; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 406.]

Art. 417. [406] Cash reserve.—There shall be kept an available cash fund of not less than fifteen per cent of the whole amount of its assets, and the same, or any part thereof, may be kept on hand or on deposit payable on demand in any bank or banking association of Texas, or under the laws of the United States approved by the Banking Commissioner, and having a paid up capital stock of fifty thousand dollars or more. The deposits in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty per cent of the total deposits, capital and surplus of such savings bank. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 489.]

Art. 418. [394-397] Guarantee fund.—The capital stock shall be regarded as a guarantee fund for the security of depositors, and shall be invested as provided in article 416. [Id.]

Art. 419. [407] Indemnity fund.—When the guarantee fund of any savings bank amounts to a sum equal to the capital stock of the corporation, and after interest on the deposits and dividends on the capital stock have been paid as provided herein, the board of directors shall at the time of making the regular semi-annual dividends, set aside and reserve from the remaining net profits which have accumulated during the preceding six months, a sum not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent of the total deposits on such interest day, to be known as indemnity fund, until such fund amounts to ten per cent of the whole deposits, and such fund shall thereafter be maintained and held to meet any contingency or loss from depreciation of securities or otherwise. [Id.]

Art. 420. [408] Valuation of securities.—In determining the per cent of the guarantee and indemnity funds so held by savings banks, the interest-bearing notes and bonds shall not be estimated above their par value, or above their market value if below par; its bonds and mortgages and deeds of trust not in arrears of interest for a period longer than one year, at their face value; its real estate at not above cost. All debts due any savings bank or institution on which the interest is past due for a period of twelve months, unless well secured and in process of collection, shall be considered as bad debts, and shall be charged to profit and loss account at the expiration of that time. [Id.]

Art. 421. [401] Payment of interest.—No interest shall be paid or declared by savings banks until its board of directors cause an examination to be made of the assets and securities, and find the amount of such interest and dividend has been actually earned and accrued: No interest or dividend shall be paid or declared unless authorized by a vote of the board of directors and duly entered on the minutes at a regular meeting. [Id.]

Art. 422. [402] Interest rate.—The board of directors shall regulate from time to time the rate of interest to be allowed to depositors out of the net profits, and pay or credit the same on semi-annual interest dates to be fixed by the directors. The directors may classify the depositors according to character, amount and duration of their dealings with the corporation and regulate the interest allowed in such manner that each depositor shall receive the ratable portion of interest as all others of the same class. [Id.]

Art. 423. [409] Dividends.—No dividend exceeding ten per cent per annum shall be paid on its capital stock in any event, and no dividend shall be paid except as herein provided. Whenever interest at a rate of not less than three per cent per annum shall have been paid or credited by savings banks out of the net profits of the current six months on all savings or trust funds which may be entitled thereto, the board of directors may, out of the remaining net earnings of such six months, if any there be, declare and pay a dividend on the capital stock of the corporation not exceeding ten per cent of its par value. No such dividends shall be declared or paid until at least one-tenth of the profits of the corporation for such period of six months shall be carried to the credit of the guarantee fund until such fund equals the amount of the capital stock, which sum shall be invested as provided herein for the investment of the capital fund. [Id.]

Art. 424. [411] Net profits.—If for any period of six months, the net profits shall not be sufficient to pay a dividend on the capital stock of any savings bank amounting to three per cent for such six months, then, if there are any net profits in any succeeding six months period or periods and the amount required to be carried to the guarantee fund, such excess or net profits shall be applied to the arrears of the dividend on the capital stock, until such arrears of dividend are paid in full; and no part of the net profit shall be credited on the indemnity fund as provided in article 419, nor to the payment of the extra interest to the depositors as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 425. [412] Extra interest.—Once in every term of three years, if the net profits of savings banks which have accumulated over and above the guarantee and indemnity funds amount to one per cent of the deposits which have remained with such corporation for at least one year next preceding, such net profits shall be divided among the depositors whose deposits shall have remained therein at least one year next preceding, in proportion to the amount of interest which has been paid on their deposits during the three years then next preceding. Nothing herein shall be construed to require the payment of any interest on money or property received as bailee for safe keeping and storage only. [Id.]

Art. 426. [425] Annual report: assets.—Every savings bank organized under the provisions of this title shall, on or before the first day of November in each year make a written report to the Commissioner in such form as he may prescribe, of its condition on the first day of September preceding. Such report shall state the amount loaned on bonds and mortgages, together with a list thereof; the par value and the estimated market value of all bond investments, designating each particular kind, and the amount invested in each; the amount loaned upon pledge of deposits, with a statement of the amount held as collateral for such loans; the amount of cash on hand and on deposit with other banks or institutions, with their names and amount deposited in each; the amount of all assets, including interest accrued and not enumerated above. [Id.]

Art. 427. [426] Report: liabilities.—Such reports shall also state all liabilities of such savings bank on the morning of the first day of September, the amount due depositors, which shall include any dividend to be created to them for six months on that day, and any other claims against the corporation which are or may be charged against its assets; the amount of all deposits made during the fiscal year ending that day, and the amount drawn out during the same period; the whole amount of interest received and earned, and the amount of interest paid and credited to depositors, together with the amount of each semi-annual credit of interest; the number of accounts opened and re-opened, the number closed during the year, and the number of open accounts at the end of such year, and such other information as the Commissioner may require. [Id.]

Art. 428. [427] Report: verification.—Such report shall be verified by the oath of the two principal officers of such savings bank; and the statement of the assets shall be verified by the oath of at least three of the board of directors who shall have thoroughly examined the same. On or about the first day of September of each year such directors shall examine the books, vouchers, and assets of such institution, and its affairs generally; and the statement of assets and liabilities reported to the Commissioner on the first day of November of each year shall be based upon such examination. Nothing herein shall prohibit the directors from requiring such examination at such other times as they shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 429. [427] Penalty.—Any such corporation failing to furnish to the Commissioner any report or statement required in this chapter shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars per day for every day such report or statement shall be so withheld; and the Commissioner may maintain an action in his name of his office to recover such penalty, and when collected, the same shall be paid into the State Treasury and be applied to the school fund. The Commissioner may, for sufficient cause, extend the time for making such report, not exceeding thirty days. [Id.]

Art. 430. [431] Adoption by bank.—Any State bank or bank and trust company incorporated under the laws of this State desiring to maintain a savings department or to use or continue to use the word "savings" as part of its corporate name, or in or as part of any sign or advertisement, or in or upon any stationery used or to be used by it, shall establish and maintain a savings department in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be governed in the conduct of such savings department by the provisions of Chapter Five pertaining to savings banks when such provisions are not in conflict herewith. Such savings department may be established by a resolution to that effect adopted by the board of directors at a regular meeting, and shall contain a copy of this chapter. A certified copy of such resolution shall be filed in the office of the Commissioner, and also recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such bank or bank and trust company is located. The business of such savings department shall be kept entirely separate and distinct from the general business of such bank or bank and trust company, and all moneys received as such savings deposits and the funds and securities in which the same may be invested shall be kept at all times segregated from and unmingled with the other moneys and funds of the bank or bank and trust company. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 406.]

Art. 431. [442] Rules and regulations.—The board of directors, at any regular meeting of the stockholders, may adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the control of such savings department, to become effective when approved by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 432. [435] Reserve deposits.—There shall be kept on hand at all times not less than fifteen per cent of the whole amount of such deposits in such savings department, one-third of which shall be kept in actual cash in such savings department, and two-thirds of which may be kept with reserve agents designated and approved for such purpose by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 433. [437] Depositors' prior lien.—In case of the insolvency or liquidation of any such State bank or bank and trust company, its savings depositors shall have an exclusive prior lien upon all the assets, including cash of such savings department, and after such depositors have been paid in full, the remainder shall be applied to the payment of claims of general creditors. [Id.]

Art. 434. [439] Payment of interest.—The directors of any such State bank or bank and trust company may provide that such rate of interest shall be paid on the savings deposits as it may see fit, payable at such periods and upon such terms and conditions as may be reasonable. If the earnings of such savings department are insufficient to pay any interest due upon any savings deposits, such interest or the deficiency therein, shall be paid by the bank or bank and trust company out of its general funds. [Id.]

Art. 435. [440] Accumulated earnings.—At the end of any period for which such bank or bank and trust company may lawfully declare a dividend upon its stock, it shall be proper to transfer to the general fund of such bank or bank and trust company all accumulated earnings of said savings department after the payment or credit of all interest due on the accrued savings deposits and the legitimate expenses of such department have been provided for. [Id.]

Art. 436. [438] Statement of assets, etc.—The president of each State bank or bank and trust company maintaining a savings department, shall file with the Commissioner, not less than ten days after the first day of each calendar month, a statement of the assets and liabilities of such savings department, upon a form to be prescribed by the Commissioner. It shall be unlawful for any officer of such bank or bank and trust company to receive or assent to the receiving of any savings deposits when the last preceding monthly statement as herein provided for is not conspicuously posted in the office where such business is transacted. [Id.]

| Protection of depositors..... | Article 437 | State Banking Board..... | Article 439 |
| False advertising..... | 438 | Application for protection..... | 440 |

Art. 437. [445-447] Protection of depositors.—Every banking institution except savings banks, incorporated under the banking laws of this State shall protect its depositors either by availing itself of the depositors' guaranty fund, or by the depositors' bond security system. A choice of one of the methods prescribed shall be exercised by the holders of the majority of the stock; and the president or cashier of such bank shall notify the Commissioner by registered mail of such action. No such institution shall be permitted to receive deposits until it shall have complied with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 406.]

Art. 438. [515] False advertising.—All banks or bank and trust companies provided for in this chapter are authorized and empowered to use any truthful method of advertising, and in their advertisement to make any truthful statements as to the Guaranty Fund System or the Bond Security System of the State Banks of Texas, but if any State bank or bank and trust company shall advertise any untruthful statement as to either of said systems, the Banking Commissioner is hereby empowered to demand that said bank or bank and trust company immediately discontinue such untruthful advertising. The Commissioner shall be empowered to enforce said demand by removing any officer of such bank or bank and trust company who is found to be responsible for such untruthful advertising. [Acts 1923, p. 92.]

Art. 439. [446-7] State Banking Board.—The State Banking Board shall consist of the Attorney General, Banking Commissioner and State Treasurer. Said Board shall have the power of regulation, control and supervision of all State banking corporations and bank and trust companies, as hereinafter provided, and shall also have the power of regulation, control and management of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund and of the Depositors' Bond Security System, and shall adopt all necessary rules and regulations in harmony with this chapter for the management of said systems. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 440. [451] Application for protection.—The State Banking Board shall admit to the benefits and protection of this chapter only such banking corporations as in their opinion are solvent and properly officered and conducted, and shall prescribe the form of application and the statement to be made by each. Such statement shall be sworn to by two of the chief officers of the bank. The Board shall mail applications and statements to each State bank and trust company or State bank in this State, at least ten days before the time required for the initial payment to the Depositors' Guaranty Fund. Such statements shall be filled out, signed and sworn to and returned promptly to said Board. Such applications shall be mailed to any other bank within this State on request. If the Board declines the application of any bank or bank and trust company, it shall state to such institution its reason therefor and whether and on what condition the objection can be removed. [Id.]

Art. 441. [452] National banks may apply.—Any national bank in this State may voluntarily avail its depositors of the protection of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund upon the same terms, payments, conditions and in the same manner as herein provided for State banks. If such national banks should thereafter be required to pay assessments to a bank guaranty fund of the Federal Government created for the purpose of securing its depositors, then such national banks may have returned to them the unused portion of assessments paid by said banks into said Depositors' Guaranty Fund. [Id.]

Art. 442. [488] Reimbursement by national bank.—When the Depositors' Guaranty Fund, or any part thereof, shall be used by the Banking Board to pay depositors of a national bank which has accepted the provisions of this chapter, the Board shall be subrogated to the rights of such depositors and receive from the officer in charge of said bank the pro rata share of the proceeds of the assets and collections which would be due to said depositors to the amount so paid by the Banking Board. [Id.]

Art. 443. [448-450] Assessments for fund.—For the purpose of creating a Depositors' Guaranty Fund, any bank or bank and trust company which shall elect to secure its depositors under the Guaranty Fund Plan, if its application is approved by the State Banking Board, shall pay to said Board on January first an initial payment of a sum equal to one per cent of its average daily deposits for the year next preceding November first prior to the date of payment, and annually thereafter, one-fourth of one per cent of its average daily deposits for the preceding year ending on November first. Any bank or bank and trust company which shall not have been in operation for one year at the time of such initial payment, shall pay to the Board a sum equal to three per cent of its capital stock and surplus, which sum shall constitute a credit fund subject to adjustment at the end of one year, on a basis of its average daily deposits for the preceding year ending November first, as provided for other banks. In computing the aggregate amount of such average daily deposits, United States, State or other public funds if otherwise secured, and the deposits of its savings department as provided in Chapter Six of this title, shall not be included. When the amount available in said guaranty fund shall reach five million dollars, the Commissioner shall notify all banks and bank and trust companies subject to the provisions of this chapter of that fact at least thirty days before the next annual payment; and thereafter the banks and bank and trust companies participating shall not pay any further amount into said guaranty fund until it shall be reduced to a sum below five million dollars or below the amount of the guaranty fund on January first preceding. In the event of necessity to meet an emergency at any time, and not otherwise, the Banking Board shall have authority to require the payment for the current year of not exceeding two per cent of such daily average deposits, or such part thereof as may be necessary to restore said fund to the maximum above named, or to its amount as of January first preceding, or to meet the emergency. The first payment herein provided for by any bank or bank and trust company which shall hereafter elect to secure its deposits under the Depositors' Guaranty Fund, shall be made by said corporation to said Banking Board without reference to said maximum amount in said Depositors' Guaranty Fund. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 63.]

Art. 444. [449] Guaranty Fund.—The Depositors' Guaranty Fund shall be paid to the State Banking Board as follows: each bank or bank and trust company shall pay twenty-five per cent of the payment required of it in cash. Such sum shall be deposited by the Board for safe keeping only, with the State Treasurer as bailee for the State Banking Board, and paid out by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the order of said Board. Said fund shall never be diverted from the purpose specified in this chapter, nor shall it ever be considered State funds. The remaining seventy-five per cent of such payments shall be placed to the credit of the State Banking Board by each such bank or bank and trust company upon its books as a demand deposit subject to check upon the order of the Board. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 445. Refunding to banks.—In the event of the voluntary liquidation of any bank or trust company operating under the provisions of the Depositor's Guaranty Fund, when it shall be made to appear to the State Banking Board that all depositors have been paid in full, said board shall return to such bank or trust company the pro rata part paid by it into such fund when unused. Or, in the event any bank or bank and trust company that has been operating as a guaranty fund bank shall have ceased to operate as a guaranty fund bank and adopted the bond security system under this chapter, its bond having been approved by the county judge and filed with the Banking Commissioner of Texas, as provided by law, said board shall return to such bank or trust company the pro rata part paid by it into such fund when unused. [Acts 1925, p. 26.]

Art. 446. [486] Deposits protected.—All unsecured non-interest bearing deposits, including Cashier's checks, bank drafts or exchange issued against or arising from bona fide unsecured and non-interest bearing deposits, shall be protected under the Guaranty Fund. [Id., Acts 1923, p. 90.]

Art. 447. [486] Deposits not protected.—No deposit upon which interest is being paid or contracted to be paid, either directly or indirectly by a banking institution, its officers or stockholders, and no secured deposit and no certificate of deposit, whether bearing interest or not, or any other kind of interest bearing deposit, that shall have been changed to a non-interest bearing and unsecured deposit within ninety days prior to the closing of a bank, and no deposit of public funds of any character, whether interest bearing or not, deposited in a State banking institution, and no deposit made by a creditor for the purpose of converting a loan held against the debtor bank into a non-interest bearing and unsecured deposit, shall be protected or insured under the Guaranty Fund. By the term “public funds” as used herein is meant funds belonging to the State of Texas, to any county or political subdivision of this State, municipal corporation, road district, school district, drainage district, levee district, or any kind of bonded district; the defining of the term “public funds” shall not be exclusive, and no funds coming fairly under the definition of said terms shall be protected by the Guaranty Fund. The class of deposits enumerated in this article shall only receive the pro rata amount that may be realized from the assets, resources and collections of and from such banks and bank and trust companies and stockholders or directors. [Id.]

Art. 448. [486] Use of fund.—If the Commissioner takes possession of any bank or bank and trust company subject to the Depositors’ Guaranty Fund Plan, the depositors of such banking corporation shall be paid in full out of the cash on hand that can be made immediately available if sufficient, and if not sufficient, the remainder shall be paid out of the Depositors’ Guaranty Fund through the Banking Board. [Id.]

Art. 449. [487] First lien on assets.—In the event of the closing of a bank and trust company or bank operating under the Depositors’ Guaranty Fund Plan by any method provided by law, or by the voluntary act of such institution, the State shall have a prior lien for the benefit of the Depositors’ Guaranty Fund upon all of the assets and upon all of the liabilities owing or accruing to said bank or bank and trust company. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 450. [484-485] Voluntary surrender.—Any incorporated bank or bank and trust company doing business in this State under the provisions of this title may place its affairs and assets under the control of the Commissioner by posting a notice on its front door as follows: “This institution is in the hands of the Banking Commissioner of Texas.” The posting of this notice or of any notice by the Commissioner that he has taken possession of any banking institution shall be sufficient to place all its assets and property, of whatever nature, in the possession of the Commissioner, and shall operate as a bar to any attachment proceedings whatever. [Id.]

Art. 451. [454] Notice of insolvency.—After the Commissioner has taken possession of an insolvent bank or bank and trust company, he shall give notice thereof to each bank, bank and trust company, corporation and individual holding or in possession of any assets of such insolvent bank or bank and trust company, and no lien or charge for any payment, advance or clearance thereafter made, or liability thereafter incurred shall exist in favor of any person, firm or corporation against any of the assets of such bank. [Id.]

Art. 452. [455] May resume business.—Such bank may, with the consent of the State Banking Board, resume business upon such condition as may be approved by the Board. Such consent shall be evidenced by a written statement from the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 453. [456] Powers of Commissioner.—The Commissioner is authorized to collect moneys, claims and debts due to such insolvent bank and to perform such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and to liquidate the affairs of such insolvent bank. [Id.]

Art. 454. [458] May sell property.—Upon the order of the district court of the county in which such bank was located, if in session, or the judge thereof if in vacation, the Commissioner may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and may sell the real or personal property of such State bank on such terms as the court shall direct. [Id.]

Art. 455. [459] Liability of stockholders.—The Commissioner may, if necessary to pay the debts of such bank, enforce the individual liability of the stockholders. Stockholders who are depositors of an insolvent bank shall be protected by the provisions of this chapter only to that portion of their deposits over and above the liability as stockholders under the law. [Id.]

Art. 456. [463] Notice to creditors.—The Commissioner shall cause weekly notice to be given in one or more newspapers for three consecutive months, calling on all persons who may have claims against such bank to present the same to the Commissioner and make legal proof thereof at a designated place within ninety days after the date of the first insertion of such notice. The notice shall, in larger type than that in which the body of the notice is printed, specifically state that no claim of guaranteed depositors presented after such time shall be entitled to payment in whole or in part out of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund. The Commissioner shall mail a similar notice to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the bank. [Id.; Acts 1917, p. 469.]

Art. 457. [465] Delayed claims.—Claims presented after the expiration of the time fixed in the preceding article shall be entitled to share in the distribution only to the extent of the assets remaining in the hands of the Commissioner equitably applicable thereto. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 458. [471] Objections to claims.—Objections to any claim not rejected by the Commissioner may be made by any party interested, by filing such objections with the Commissioner, who shall present the same to the district court, if in session, or to the judge thereof, if in vacation, at the time of the next application to declare a dividend. [Id.]

Art. 459. [464] May reject claim.—The Commissioner may in his discretion reject any doubtful claim presented for allowance. He shall serve notice of such rejection upon the claimant, either by mail or by written notice personally served. An affidavit of the service of such notice shall be filed with the Commissioner. Action upon a claim so rejected must be brought within six months after service. [Id.]

Art. 460. [466] Inventory of assets and claims.—The Commissioner shall make an inventory in duplicate of the assets of such insolvent bank, one to be filed in the office of the Commissioner, and one in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such bank was located. Upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, the Commissioner shall make a full and complete list of all claims presented, specifying such claims as have been rejected by him, and showing all amounts paid to guaranteed depositors out of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund. The statement shall show the amount to which said fund is entitled by reason of its subrogation to the rights of such paid guaranteed depositors, and each amount retained by him on account of rejected claims of guaranteed depositors and those in dispute. One copy shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such State bank was located and one in the office of the Commissioner. Such inventory and list of claims shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection. [Id.]

Art. 461. [468] Disposition of moneys.—Moneys collected by the Commissioners shall be, from time to time, deposited in one or more State banks, and in case of the suspension or insolvency of the depository, such deposits shall be preferred. [Id.]

Art. 462. [467] Expenses of liquidation.—Compensation of counsel, employes and assistants, and all expenses of supervision and liquidation shall be fixed by the Commissioner, subject to the approval of the district court of the county in which said bank was located, if in session, or the judge thereof if in vacation. The compensation of special liquidation agents shall be the same as is provided by law for State bank examiners, and shall, upon the certificate of the Commissioner, be paid out of the fund of such insolvent bank in the hands of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 463. [469] Dividends declared.—After the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims, the Commissioner may declare one or more dividends, and after the expiration of one year from the first publication of a notice to creditors, he may declare a final dividend under the direction of the district court of the county in which such bank was located, if in session, or the judge thereof if in vacation. [Id.]

Art. 464. [470] Reimbursement of fund.—The Depositors' Guaranty Fund shall be entitled to receive as its dividend such portions of the amounts due and payable to guaranteed depositors as shall have been paid to them out of the Depositors' Guaranty Fund, together with six per cent interest thereon from the date or dates upon which checks were drawn upon all State banks, as provided for the payment of the guaranteed deposits of such State banks. The Commissioner shall forthwith distribute such dividends to State banks upon which checks were drawn for such payment of guaranteed deposits, in proportion to the amounts of such checks respectively. [Id.]

Art. 465. [480] Unclaimed deposits.—Dividends and unclaimed deposits remaining in the hands of the Commissioner for six months after the order for final distribution shall be by him deposited in some State bank to be designated by the Banking Board, to the credit of the Commissioner in his official name, in trust for the bona fide depositors and creditors of the liquidated bank. [Id.]

Art. 466. [483] Interest on trust money.—The Banking Board may apply the interest earned by the moneys held by the Commissioner as provided for in the preceding article, or may authorize him to apply the same toward defraying the expenses incurred in the payment and distribution of such unclaimed deposits or dividends to the depositors and creditors entitled to receive the same. The Commissioner shall include in his official report a statement of the amount of interest earned by such unclaimed dividend. [Id.]

Art. 467. [482] Payment of trust moneys.—The Commissioner shall pay over the moneys so held by him to the persons respectively entitled thereto upon the order of the Banking Board, which shall direct such payment to such persons upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same. In case of doubt or conflicting claims, the Banking Board may require an order of the district court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if in vacation, authorizing and directing the payment thereof. [Id.]

Art. 468. [474] Rights of stockholders.—Whenever the Commissioner shall have paid in full each depositor and creditor of such insolvent bank whose claim shall have been duly proved and allowed, and shall have fully reimbursed the Depositors' Guaranty Fund with interest as hereinbefore provided, and shall have made provision for unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends, and shall have paid all the expenses of the liquidation, he shall call a meeting of the stockholders of such bank by giving notice thereof for thirty days in one or more newspapers in the county where such bank was located. At such meeting, the stockholders shall determine whether the Commissioner shall be continued as liquidator and shall wind up the affairs of the bank, or whether an agent or agents shall be elected for that purpose. In so determining, the said stockholders shall vote by ballot in person or by proxy, each share of stock entitling the holder to one vote. A majority of the stock shall be necessary to a determination. [Id.]

Art. 469. [475] Liquidation continued.—If so decided by the stockholders, the Commissioner shall complete the liquidation of the bank, and after paying the expenses thereof, shall distribute the proceeds among the stockholders in proportion to the several holdings of stock, in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the district court. [Id.]

Art. 470. [481] Commissioner's report.—To the list of claims provided for in article 460, the Commissioner shall add the names of the State banks so taken possession of and liquidated, and the amounts of unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends with respect to each of them, respectively. [Id.]

Art. 471. [476] Stockholders' agent.—In case it is determined to appoint an agent or agents to liquidate, the stockholders shall thereupon select such agent or agents. Such agent or agents shall execute and file with the Commissioner such bond as shall be approved by him, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust. [Id.]

Art. 472. [477] Transfer of assets.—Upon the filing and approval of such bond, the Commissioner shall transfer and deliver to such agent or agents all the assets of such bank remaining in his hands, whereupon the Commissioner shall be discharged from any further liability to such bank and its creditors and stockholders. [Id.]

Art. 473. [478] Duties of new agent.—Such agent or agents shall convert the assets into cash, and shall account for and make distribution of the property of said bank as herein provided in the case of distribution by the Commissioner, subject to the approval of the district court. [Id.]

Art. 474. [479] Death, etc. of agent.—In case of the death, or removal of such agent or agents, or their refusal to act, the stockholders may, upon giving notice and proof of such fact to the Commissioner, select a successor in the manner hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

BOND SECURITY SYSTEM.

| New security | 480 | Failure of principal | 488 |
| Bond on personal security | 481 | Rights of surety | 489 |

Art. 475. Changing guaranty to bond system.—Each and every State bank or trust company now or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this State, which shall elect to come under the provisions of the bond security system of this chapter shall, on January 1, 1910, and annually thereafter, file with the Banking Commissioner of Texas, and his successors in office, for and on behalf of the lawful depositors of such bank, a bond, policy of insurance, or bonds of the United States, or municipal or district bonds approved by the Attorney General's Department, or other guaranty of indemnity in an amount equal to the amount of its capital stock, which said bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity shall be for and inure to the benefit of all depositors. Such instrument and the security thereby provided shall be approved by the county judge of the county in which such business is domiciled, and Banking Commissioner of Texas, and shall take effect and be in force from and after it is approved and filed in the office of the Banking Commissioner of Texas. Every such corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter as herein provided, and every such corporation that may hereafter be incorporated shall comply with the provisions of this chapter as to the depositors guaranty fund plan or the bond security system, on filing its charter, before it shall be permitted to receive deposits. Provided that any bank or bank and trust company that may have elected to secure its deposits under the depositors guaranty fund provided for by this Act shall have the right, upon making and filing the bond hereby provided for, to change its system of doing business and its mode of guaranteeing deposits from the guaranty system to the bond security system, as provided by this chapter. Provided, that there shall be placed in all advertising of the bank operating under a bond or other indemnity as hereinabove provided, and on all stationery of said bank, a statement of the amount of the bond or other indemnity which said bank carries to protect its depositors. [Acts 1925, p. 27.]

Art. 475a. [492] New Bond.—Every such bond or policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity, filed as provided for in this chapter, shall secure depositors at the time said bond is filed and approved and all deposits made during the period of twelve months thereafter; provided, however, that said bond shall become void and of no force and effect upon the making, filing and approval of the next annual bond provided for under Article 491, Revised Civil Statutes of 1911. [Acts 1925, p. 252.]

Art. 476. [503] Examination for bond.—The Commissioner may examine a bank in order to determine whether or not it is authorized to make bond under this chapter, or to determine the amount of such bond, and shall charge a fee of not to exceed twenty dollars against a corporation incorporated under the laws of Texas to do a banking business, or to receive funds on deposit, for such examination and for the filing of the bond or other guaranty of indemnity; and shall be authorized to charge an examination fee against any other person, firm or corporation permitted to file such bond or other guaranty of indemnity under the provisions of this chapter, sufficient to cover the actual expense of such examination. [Id.]

Art. 477. Form of bond.—The bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity herein provided for shall contain the provisions as provided by law and shall be in such form as may be fixed and provided by the State Banking Board of the State of Texas.

Art. 478. [505] Division of security.—The security provided for herein may be divided into two or more bonds or other guaranties of indemnity, or any part thereof may be given in either of such forms of guaranty of indemnity. The aggregate of such security shall be equal to the total amount of security required in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 479. [506] Repealed by Act of Thirty-ninth Legislature, p. 26.

Art. 480. [508] New security.—If at any time it shall appear to the Banking Board that any bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity filed as provided for herein by any corporation organized under the laws of Texas, is insufficient, they shall have the authority, and it shall be their duty to require such corporation to file new or additional security in an amount sufficient to protect its depositors in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In the event such corporation shall refuse or fail to comply with such requirements, they shall communicate the facts to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon institute such proceedings and take such steps as the nature of the case may require. The Banking Commissioner and the Attorney General shall, in such event, have and exercise for the protection of depositors, all the authority conferred upon them by articles 368 and 371, and all authority conferred by the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 481. [493] Bond on personal security.—If the bond herein provided for shall be executed by personal obligation or security, then it shall be executed by at least three persons of financial responsibility and solvency, satisfactory to the authorities authorized to approve such bond. [Id.]

Art. 482. [494] Who may execute.—The bond or other form of guaranty herein provided for may be made by any person, firm or corporation authorized to execute the same. Banking and trust companies incorporated under the provisions of this title are authorized to execute such bonds or guaranties, either singly or collectively, subject to approval as herein provided for. No corporation which is operating under the Guaranty Fund Plan shall be accepted as a surety on any such bond. [Id.]

Art. 483. [495-509] Other banks protected.—Any private or national bank lawfully transacting a banking business in this State or lawfully receiving funds on deposit may take advantage of the provisions of the Bond Security System, and file with the Commissioner a bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity in like manner as it would be required to file if incorporated under the banking laws of Texas. Any such person or firm transacting the business of a private bank shall, in such event, file a bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity in an amount to be fixed by the Banking Commissioner, not less than one-half the amount of the average daily deposits with such person or firm for the preceding period of twelve months. Such private or national bank shall submit to the Commissioner such reports and statements concerning its deposits and concerning the solvency of such bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity as he may require, and shall pay all such reasonable expenses as may be incurred by him in the making of an examination thereof. Such bond or other guaranty of indemnity shall be approved by the county judge of the county where such bank is located, and filed with the Commissioner as provided in article 475. Upon the filing of such bond or other form of guaranty, the Commissioner shall furnish a certificate of such fact. [Id.]

Art. 484. [496] Default.—In the event any institution transacting a banking business or receiving deposits shall make default in the payment of a deposit lawfully demanded, such institution having made, executed or filed the guaranty of indemnity provided herein, the Commissioner, when such default shall be made known to him, shall at once make an examination of such bank, and if in his judgment the bank is insolvent, he shall take charge of such bank as provided by law for the liquidation of State banks. Upon taking charge of such bank, the Commissioner shall at once give notice thereof to each and all persons who may be obligated by reason of such default, and by the conditions of such bond or other guaranty of indemnity, and upon such notice, the full amount of the same shall thereby become due and payable within sixty days. [Id.]

Art. 485. [497] Forfeiture of bond.—When any bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity provided for herein shall become due and payable in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the makers and signers thereof shall pay over the full amount of the same, or such part thereof as the Commissioner may demand, to be held by him in trust for the depositors of such insolvent institution. All proceeds thus arising shall be payable to the Commissioner, who shall promptly distribute such funds pro rata to unpaid depositors whose claims have been approved by him. [Id.]

Art. 486. [498] Failure of domestic surety.—If the surety of any character of guaranty of indemnity shall be a corporation incorporated under the laws of Texas, and shall not pay over, within sixty days after the same has become due and payable, the full amount due by it upon such guaranty of indemnity, its charter shall thereby become subject to forfeiture; and the Attorney General, upon receiving notice thereof from the Commissioner shall bring suit in the district court of Travis County, within thirty days thereafter, to forfeit such charter, and upon proof of such default, judgment may be rendered annulling and forfeiting the charter of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 487. [499] Failure of foreign surety.—If the surety of such guaranty of indemnity shall be a foreign corporation transacting business in this State under permit, and it shall refuse or fail to pay over within sixty days after demand shall have been made therefor by the Commissioner as provided herein, the full amount of its liabilities upon such bond or other guaranty of indemnity, the Commissioner shall notify the Secretary of State of said facts; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, and he is so authorized, to cancel the permit of said corporation to transact business in this State and refuse any further permit until it shall show to the satisfaction of such officers that it has fully discharged its liabilities upon such guaranty of indemnity upon which default was thus made. [Id.]

Art. 488. [500] Failure of principal.—If any banking institution shall default in the payment of a lawful demand and shall so continue for a period of ninety days from the making thereof, and the obligation of such bond or other guaranty of indemnity is not discharged, the Attorney General or any district or county attorney acting at his instance, shall bring suit upon such bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity in the name of the Governor and for the benefit of all persons who may be beneficiaries thereof by reason of its terms and conditions. Such action shall be brought within one year from the date of the expiration of such bond or other guaranty of indemnity. Such suit shall be instituted in the district court of the county where such banking institution was located, or in any adjoining county, at the option of the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 489. [502] Rights of surety.—Whenever any surety of any bond, policy of insurance or other guaranty of indemnity, other than the principal therein, shall be required under any provision of this chapter to pay over for the benefit of the depositors of such defaulting bank, any sum of money, such surety shall thereby become subrogated to the rights of a depositor to the extent of the payments so made, and entitled to assert such right in accordance with the laws of this State, secondary and subject to the rights of all depositors secured by such guaranty of indemnity. [Id.]

Art. 490. [557] Foreign corporations.—No foreign corporation other than the national banks of the United States shall be permitted to do a business of banking and discount in this State. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 511.]

Art. 491. [557] Misuse of banking titles.—It shall be unlawful for any incorporated bank other than State banking corporations and national banks to advertise or put forth any sign as a bank, bank and trust company or savings bank, or in any way solicit or receive business as such or as any such, or to use as their name or part of their name, or in or upon any sign, advertising, letterhead or envelope the word "bank," "banker," "banking," "trust," "trust company," savings bank," "savings," or any other term which may be confused with the name of corporations organized under this title. Corporations heretofore organized under the general laws of this State, and foreign corporations heretofore or hereafter authorized to do business in this State, authorized by their charters to use such name or parts of names as are hereby prohibited, may continue to use the same by using thereafter the words "without banking privileges." Any corporation violating any provision of this article shall forfeit its charter, or if a foreign corporation, its permit to do business within this State. The Attorney General shall, upon information lodged with him to that effect, bring an action against such corporation to wind up its affairs as now provided by law for insolvent corporations, and in addition thereto, any corporation or officer or agent thereof who shall offend against these provisions, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars per day for every day such offense shall be continued, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the State, by prosecuting attorneys of the several counties for the use of the school fund in any county in which such offense shall be committed. [Id.]

Art. 492. [558] State control.—All corporations created under this title are hereby declared to be charged with the public use, and shall be under State control and be subject to such legislation as the Legislature may enact for the government and regulation of such banking institutions in this State. The rights, privileges and powers conferred by the terms of this title to corporations taking advantage thereof or incorporating hereunder are to be held subject to the right of the Legislature to amend, alter or reform the same. Every corporation operating a banking business in Texas under a charter authorized by this State prior to the adoption of the Constitution of 1876, shall be subject to all the provisions of this title. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 424.]

Art. 493. [529] Inspection of records.—The books and records of the proceedings of all banking corporations shall be kept open for inspection of all persons interested. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 511.]

Art. 494. [525] Directors' statement.—Within ten days from the date of any call issued by the Banking Commissioner requiring a statement of the actual condition of the affairs of any State bank, bank and trust company or savings bank at the close of business on a day prior to such call, the board of directors of such corporation shall furnish such statement sworn to before a notary public by the president and cashier or secretary and attested by three of the directors. Each such corporation which fails to make and transmit any report required in this article within ten days from the date of such call shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each day after the expiration of said ten days, which penalty may be recovered by the Commissioner in the name of this State in a suit in Travis County against such corporation. Such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the State Treasury for the benefit of the general school fund. [Id.; Acts 1913, p. 207.]

Art. 495. [526] Form of statement.—The statement required by the preceding article shall be in the following form, to wit:

Art. 496. [528] Publication of statement.—Publication of the foregoing statement shall be made by banking institutions in one or more newspapers published in the town, city or county where it is located, if there is one so published. If said town or city has a population exceeding ten thousand inhabitants, then such publication must be in a daily newspaper, if such is published, otherwise it shall be made in a weekly newspaper. If such town or city has a population of ten thousand inhabitants or less, then said publication may be in either a daily or weekly newspaper published in said city or town as aforesaid. In all cases, a copy of the said statement shall be posted in the banking house, accessible to all. [Id.]

Art. 497. [573] Change of statements.—The State Banking Board shall have the power, from time to time to make such changes in the form of the statements required of each banking corporation as it may deem advisable, and to require any additional statements which it may deem necessary as to average daily deposits, capital stock, surplus, character of deposits and such other matters as it may deem necessary to the enforcement of this title. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 423.]

Art. 498. [574] Bonds of officers.—All active or salaried officers and employes of State banking institutions whose duties permit or require the handling of any of the funds of the bank shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, give a good and sufficient bond in such sum as may be fixed by the board of directors of any such institution, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties and such pecuniary loss as the bank may sustain for money or other valuable securities embezzled, wrongfully abstracted or wilfully misapplied by any such officer or employe in the course of his employment as such or in the course of his employment in any other position in such bank, whether he be assigned, appointed, elected, re-elected or temporarily assigned to said position. The amount of such bond and the solvency of the sureties shall be subject to the approval of the Banking Commissioner, and such bonds shall be upon forms prepared by the Commissioner. All such bonds shall immediately after their execution be forwarded to the Commissioner and be filed by him as an archive in his office and a certified copy thereof shall be returned to the board of directors of such bank and be kept in their custody. The board of directors may require any other bond or bonds in addition to that herein required, at their discretion. Officers of banks who do not handle bank's money or draw a salary, shall not be required to give bond. [Id.; Acts 1917, p. 469.]

Art. 499. [530] Authority of officers.—The directors of any banking corporation organized under this title may appoint and remove any officer or other employe at pleasure. No officer or employe shall have power to endorse, sell, pledge or hypothecate any note, bond or other obligation received by such corporation for money loaned, until such power and authority shall have been given such officer or employe by the board of directors in a regular meeting of the board, a written record of which proceeding shall have first been made upon the minutes of the corporation; and all such acts done by any officer or employe without such authority shall be null and void. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 502; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 425.]

Art. 500. [531] Reduction of capital stock.—Any banking corporation doing business in this State may at any time reduce its capital stock to any sum not less than the minimum sum provided by law. No reduction of such stock shall be made except upon the written consent of the owners of not less than two-thirds of the stock of such corporation. Notice of the intention to reduce the capital stock shall be published for thirty days in some daily newspaper in the city or county where such bank is located, or in a weekly paper for four insertions before the time when such reduction shall be effected, and the last insertion of such notice shall be at least ten days before the date of the reduction. A statement of such reduction of the capital stock duly acknowledged by the officers of the corporation shall be recorded and filed in the same manner as provided for the original articles of agreement. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 508.]

Art. 501. [532] Increase of capital stock.—Any banking corporation doing business in this State may at any time increase its capital stock to any amount not exceeding the maximum provided by law, with the consent of the persons holding a majority of the stock of such corporation which shall be obtained at a meeting of the shareholders called for that purpose. Upon the presentation of a petition signed by the owners of a majority of the stock, asking for such increase, the board of directors shall call a meeting for the purpose of voting on such proposition, at least sixty days notice of which meeting shall be published by eight consecutive insertions in some daily or weekly newspaper printed and published in the city or town in which the corporation is located, the last insertion to be not less than five days before the day fixed for such meeting, giving the time and place of said meeting, and the amount of the proposed increase. If upon a canvass of the votes at such meeting it is ascertained that the proposition has carried, it shall be so declared by the chairman of the meeting, and the proceedings entered of record. When the full amount of said proposed increase has been bona fide subscribed and paid in cash to the board of directors of said corporation, then a statement of the proceedings, showing a compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and the increase of capital actually subscribed and paid up, shall be made out, signed and verified by the affidavit of the president and countersigned by the secretary, and such statement shall be acknowledged by the president and recorded and filed as provided for the original articles of agreement. [Id.]

Art. 502. Change in organization.—If any bank or bank and trust company organized under the general laws of this State wishes to convert such corporation into any other system of banking, its officers shall give notice of said change by publishing its intention to make the same by four insertions in some daily or weekly newspaper published in the town where it is domiciled or adjacent thereto, for at least thirty days before making such change. Such notice shall state under what system of banking said corporation shall be operated after its conversion. Said corporation shall notify the Banking Commissioner of such proposed change under the seal of said bank at least thirty days before said conversion shall be consummated. Such conversion shall be effected by the written consent or a vote of the owners of not less than a majority of the stock of such corporation, and a statement of such conversion duly acknowledged by the officers of the corporation shall be recorded and filed in the same manner as provided for the original articles of agreement. No fund or deposits of any kind that shall have been deposited in a State bank or bank and trust company, shall be protected by the Guaranty Fund Law or Bond Security Law of this State, after such corporation shall have converted to some other system of banking. [Acts 1923, p. 322.]

Art. 503. Power to vote.—In the elections of directors, and in deciding all questions at meetings of shareholders of any Texas banking institution, each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote on each share of stock held by him. Shareholders may vote by proxy duly authorized in writing. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 502.]

Art. 504. [537] Executor, etc., may vote.—Every executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall represent the shares of stock in his hands at all meetings of the corporation, and may vote as a shareholder; and every person who shall pledge his stock in such corporation, may nevertheless represent the same at all such meetings and may vote accordingly as a shareholder.

Art. 505. [536] Certificate of approval.—Upon filing in the office of the Commissioner a statement of the proceedings duly executed by the officers of such corporation which has increased or diminished its capital stock or converted its organization as provided in the preceding articles, the Commissioner shall issue a certificate that such corporation has complied with the law provided in such cases, and the amount to which said capital stock is increased or decreased, or the system of banking to which such corporation has converted; and thereupon the capital stock of such corporation shall be increased or diminished to the amount specified in such certificate, or the system of banking converted. Such certificate shall be taken in all courts of this State as evidence of such increase or decrease of stock or conversion of system. [Id.]

Art. 506. [564] Ratio of capital to deposits.—Each State bank and bank and trust company shall file with the Banking Commissioner on January first an annual statement of its average daily deposits for the preceding year ending November first. If, from such report, it shall appear that such deposits are more than five times the capital stock and surplus of such bank if its capital is not more than ten thousand dollars, or more than six times such capital stock and surplus if the capital stock is more than ten thousand and less than twenty thousand dollars, or seven times its capital stock and surplus if the capital stock is twenty thousand dollars or more, and less than forty thousand dollars, or eight times such capital stock and surplus if the stock is forty thousand or more, and less than seventy-five thousand dollars, or nine times such capital and surplus if the capital stock is seventy-five thousand dollars or more, and less than one hundred thousand dollars, or ten times such capital and surplus if the capital stock is one hundred thousand dollars or more; then, in any such case the State Banking Board shall require such bank to increase its capital by twenty-five per cent of such capital stock; provided that the Banking Board may relieve or refuse to relieve any such bank from such order on showing to said Board of conditions applying to and relating to the increase of the average daily deposits in such bank, which said Board may find to justify such relief. The Commissioner shall immediately furnish such State bank or banking corporation with a certified copy of the order making such requirement, as well as any order granting or refusing to grant relief from such requirement; and upon receipt of the order making such requirement, the directors of such State banking institution shall, within sixty days thereafter, cause such increase to be made in the capital stock; and if the same is not done within such time, it shall be unlawful for such bank to thereafter receive any deposits at any time when its total demand and time deposits and savings accounts shall in the aggregate amount to more than the limitation herein placed upon deposits. [Acts 1921, p. 114.]

Art. 507. [548] Regulation of dividends.—No bank or bank and trust company or any member of either, during the time it shall continue its operations, shall withdraw or permit to be withdrawn any part of its capital, either in the form of dividends or otherwise. If losses have at any time been sustained by any such bank equal to or exceeding its undivided profits then on hand, no dividend shall be made; and no dividend shall ever be made by such bank while it continues its operations, to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand, deducting therefrom its losses and bad debts. All debts due to any State bank, on which interest is past due and unpaid for a period of six months, unless the same are well secured or in process of collection, shall be considered bad debts within the meaning of this article. The board of directors of any such bank may declare a semi-annual or quarterly dividend if such dividend has been earned, if the corporation be fully solvent without such earnings proposed to be divided. But they shall not declare a dividend at any time when the capital of such corporation shall have become impaired to such an extent that it is not worth in good resources the full amount paid in after the payment of all liabilities. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 507; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 425.]

Art. 508. [548-549] Liability of officers.—Any officer or director of such corporation who shall assent to declaring and paying dividends when the capital stock is so impaired shall be personally liable to the creditors of the corporation to the amount of his proportion of the proposed dividend, if any loss occur by reason of the payment of such dividend. If any of the directors shall object to the declaring of such dividend, or to the payment of the same, and shall at any time before the time fixed for the payment thereof, file a certificate of his objections in writing with the clerk of the corporation and with the county clerk of the county, he shall be exempt from the said liability. [Id.]

Art. 509. [550] Surplus fund.—When the board of directors shall declare a dividend, they shall first set apart to the surplus fund ten per cent of the net profits of the bank for the period covered by the dividend until the same shall amount to fifty per cent of its capital stock; and said surplus shall not be diminished except for the payment of losses which may occur. If there are undivided profits, these shall first be used in payment of such losses. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 511.]

Art. 510. [546] Powers limited.—No corporation organized under this title shall employ its moneys, directly or indirectly, in trade or commerce, by buying and selling ordinary goods, chattels, wares and merchandise, or by owning or operating industrial plants, but may sell all kinds of property which may come into its possession as security for loans, or in the ordinary collection of debts. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 425.]

Art. 511. [538] Investments.—The directors of banks and bank and trust companies created under this title shall have power to invest the moneys placed in their charge in loans secured by real estate or other sufficient collateral, in public bonds of the United States or of this State, or in the bonds of any incorporated city, county or independent school district in this State. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 508.]

Art. 512. Domicile and fixtures.—No State bank or bank and trust company shall invest more than fifty per cent of its capital stock and permanent surplus in its banking house, nor more than fifteen per cent of its capital stock and permanent surplus in the furniture and fixtures to be used in its said banking house, unless said corporation shall have first applied to the State Banking Board and received written permission to make a larger investment than is allowed hereunder, which written permission shall be entered upon the minutes of a regular meeting of said banking corporation. [Acts 1923, p. 322.]

Art. 513. [565-567] Interest in other bank.—Any State bank or bank and trust company which purchases the assets of any other bank shall, before the purchase of the assets of such other bank, increase its capital to such an amount that the same will have the ratio to the total deposits of the bank, the assets of which it has purchased, as defined and required in Article 506. It shall be unlawful for any State bank or bank and trust company to own more than ten per cent of the capital stock of any other banking corporation, or to make a loan secured by the stock of any other banking corporation, if by the making of such loan the total stock of such other banking corporation held by it as collateral will exceed, in the aggregate, ten per cent of the capital stock of such other banking corporation, unless the ownership or the taking of a greater percentage of such capital stock as collateral shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and any such excess so taken as collateral or owned by such bank shall not be held as collateral nor owned by it for a longer period than six months. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. 423.]

Art. 514. [547] Real estate.—Banks and bank and trust companies created under this title shall own only such real estate as may be required for the transaction of their business, and such as they may acquire in the enforcement and collection of debts or liabilities due to them, which lands so acquired by any such corporation shall be alienated by it within five years after its acquisition to some one not interested, directly or indirectly, in said company. [Id.]

Art. 515. Limitation of Indebtedness.—No State banking corporation shall at any time be indebted or in any way liable to an amount exceeding the amount of its capital stock at such time actually paid in and remaining undiminished by losses or otherwise, except on account of demands of the nature following:

1. Moneys deposited with or collected by it;
2. Bills of exchange or drafts drawn against money actually on deposit to the credit of the corporation or due thereto;
3. Liabilities to the stockholders of the association for dividends and reserve profits;
4. Liabilities incurred under the provisions of the Federal Reserve Act;
5. Liabilities incurred under the provisions of the Federal "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923."
6. This article shall not apply to any guaranty executed by any bank and trust company whose demand deposits are not in excess of its interest bearing deposits, provided such company is not a member of a Federal Reserve bank.
7. Upon a written permit obtained from the Commissioner, any bank may borrow a sum not in excess of its unimpaired surplus in addition to its capital stock. [Id.; Acts 1923, 2nd C. S. p. 86.]

Art. 516. Agricultural obligations.—State banks and bank and trust companies, with the permission and under the direction and control of the Banking Commissioner, may borrow or make discounts individually or collectively, or enter into any agreement or association for the purpose of obtaining funds to finance the movement of agricultural and farm products only; and when so doing, paper endorsed by them for such purpose shall not be considered as within the limitation prescribed in the preceding article. [Acts 1914, 3rd C. S. p. 46.]

Art. 517. [570] Pledge of securities.—It shall be unlawful for any bank or bank and trust company to hypothecate or pledge as collateral its securities to an amount greater than fifty per cent of the amount borrowed upon bills payable, certificates of deposit or otherwise, or for any banking corporation to issue and execute any notes, bills or other evidences of indebtedness secured, or to be secured by the pledge or hypothecation of any of its securities, which shall not contain a provision that in the event such banking corporation shall for any cause have its property and business taken possession of by the Commissioner at any time before such pledge or hypothecation shall have been actually foreclosed, a grace of thirty days after date of such taking possession shall be allowed in which such bank or the Commissioner shall be permitted to redeem such securities so hypothecated or pledged by the payment of the amount due as principal and interest on such indebtedness. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 423; Id.]

Art. 518. [570] Reserve bank excepted.—Banking corporations incorporated under the laws of this State, upon becoming members of a Federal Reserve Bank, shall not be required to insert the thirty days grace clause in their notes, bills or certificates of deposit made to a Federal Reserve bank, should a Federal Reserve bank decline to permit the insertion thereof. Collateral in excess of fifty per cent of the amount borrowed thereon may be hypothecated or pledged to secure money borrowed from a Federal Reserve bank, should it so require, in which case it shall be the duty of the officers of such member bank to immediately notify the Commissioner, giving the amount of money borrowed, and amount of securities hypothecated or pledged to secure same. [Id.]

Art. 519. Requirements of Reserve banks.—All banks or bank and trust companies incorporated under the laws of Texas shall have authority to become members of Federal Reserve Banks under such terms and limitations as may be prescribed by the laws of the United States and such rules and regulations relative thereto as may be promulgated by lawful authority. Such member bank shall be required to conform to the provisions of law imposed upon national banks respecting the limitations of liability which may be incurred by any person, firm or corporation to such banks, the prohibition against making purchases of or loans on stock of such bank, and the withdrawal or impairment of capital, and the payment of unearned dividends. [Acts 1914, 3rd C. S. p. 46.]

Art. 520. Powers of Reserve bank.—Such member bank shall have the right to discount to a Federal Reserve bank, notes, drafts, and bills of exchange arising out of actual commercial transactions and to endorse the same with a waiver of demand, notice and protest and to do any other thing necessary under the Federal Reserve Act or rules and regulations relative thereto promulgated by lawful authority, in order to obtain all the benefits and privileges of membership in a Federal Reserve bank. The lien and rights obtained by a Federal Reserve bank upon the discount to it of any such notes, drafts and bills of exchange shall be a first and preference lien. [Id.]

Art. 521. Cash reserve.—All banks and bank and trust companies chartered by the laws of this State which become members of a Federal Reserve bank under the Federal Reserve Act shall as to their reserves, be governed as follows:

1. A bank not in a reserve or central reserve city shall hold and maintain reserves equal to twelve per cent of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits and five per cent of its time deposits, as follows:

In its vaults for a period of thirty-six months after the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States has officially announced the establishment of a Federal Reserve bank in the district of which is located the subscribing bank, five-twelfths thereof and permanently thereafter four-twelfths;

In the Federal Reserve bank of its district for a period of twelve months after said date, two-twelfths, and for each succeeding six months an additional one-twelfth until five-twelfths have been so deposited, which shall be the amount permanently required;

For a period of thirty-six months after said date, the balance of the reserve may be held in its own vaults or in the Federal Reserve bank or in national banks in reserve or central reserve cities.

After said thirty-six months period, said reserve other than those hereinbefore required to be held in the vaults of the member bank and in the Federal Reserve bank, shall be held in the vaults of the member bank or in the Federal Reserve bank, or in both, at the option of the member bank.

2. A bank in a reserve city shall hold and maintain reserves equal to fifteen per cent of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits, and five per cent of its time deposits, as follows:

In its vaults for a period of thirty-six months after the date of the establishment of the Federal Reserve bank of which any bank chartered under the laws of this State may become a member, six-fifteenths thereof and permanently thereafter five-fifteenths;

In the Federal Reserve bank of its district for a period of twelve months after the date aforesaid, at least three-fifteenths, and for each succeeding six months an additional one-fifteenth until six-fifteenths have been so deposited, which shall be the amount permanently required;

For a period of thirty-six months after said date, the balance of the reserve may be held in its own vaults, or in the Federal Reserve bank, or in national banks in reserve or central reserve cities;

After said thirty-six months period all of said reserves, except those hereinbefore required to be held permanently in the vaults of the member bank and in the Federal Reserve bank, shall be held in its vaults or in the Federal Reserve bank, or in both, at the option of the member bank.

3. Notwithstanding the limitations in the two preceding paragraphs, State banks becoming members of a Federal Reserve bank shall have all the rights permitted them under the Federal Reserve Act as to reserve deposits with State banks and bank and trust companies.

4. The kind of money which may be held as reserve by such member banks shall be the same as that required of national banks under the laws of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 522. [377] Reserve of non-members.—Every banking corporation chartered under the laws of this State with a capital stock of less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and which does not become a member of a Federal Reserve bank, shall at all times have an amount of cash on hand and cash due from other banks equal to at least twenty per cent of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits; and all banks not located in a Central Reserve City, having a capital stock of twenty-five thousand dollars or more, and which do not become members of a Federal Reserve bank, shall at all times have an amount of cash on hand and cash due from other banks equal to at least fifteen per cent of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits. Such reserve fund, or any part thereof, together with the current receipts, may be kept on hand or on deposit payable on demand in any bank or banking association of this State, or any bank, banking association or trust company regularly chartered and operating under the laws of any State or under the laws of the United States approved by the Banking Commissioner, having a paid up capital stock of fifty thousand dollars or more; but the deposit in any one bank or trust company shall not exceed twenty per cent of the total deposits, capital and surplus of the bank making the deposit. Whenever the reserve herein required shall fall below the amount specified for its class, such bank shall not make any new loans or discounts until it shall by collection restore its lawful reserve. [Acts 1907, p. 60; Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 70.]

Art. 523. Definitions.—Demand deposits, within the meaning of this title, shall comprise all deposits payable within thirty days; and time deposits shall comprise all deposits payable after thirty days, and all savings accounts and certificates of deposit which are subject to not less than thirty days notice before payment; and a reserve or central reserve city is one defined by the laws of the United States or designated by the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States. [Acts 1914, 3rd C. S., p. 46.]

Art. 524. [569] Loans on own stock.—No State bank or bank and trust company shall make any loan or discount on the security of the shares of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent a loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and stock so purchased or acquired shall, within six months after its purchase, be sold or disposed of at public or private sale; or, in default thereof, such bank shall be considered to have its capital stock impaired to the extent of the par value of such shares. [Acts 1909, 2nd. C. S., p. 423.]

Art. 525. [568] Loans on cotton.—All State banks and bank and trust companies shall be permitted to loan upon or discount commercial or business paper secured by lien upon cotton and cotton seed products to the same extent and upon the same conditions as is now or may be provided for national banks under the laws of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 526. Loans to officers.—No director of a bank in this State shall be permitted to borrow any of the money of the bank of which he is a director, in excess of ten per cent of the capital and surplus, without the consent of a majority of the directors of the bank (other than the borrower) first having been obtained at a regular meeting of the board; said consent to be made a matter of record before the loan is made. No officer, whether a director or not, shall be indebted to such bank in any sum whatever without the consent of the board, obtained and recorded in like manner. [Acts 1905, p. 491.]

Art. 527. [378] Approval of loans.—The board of directors of each bank organized under this title shall meet at least once per month and pass upon the business of the bank back to their previous meeting, and shall keep a written record of its approval or disapproval of each loan. At each monthly meeting the records shall show the aggregate of the then existing indebtedness and liability of each of the directors and officers of the bank. [Id.]

Art. 528. [378] Bills payable and discounts.—No bank organized under the laws of this State shall ever make any bills payable, and no bills shall ever be rediscounted by such bank, except with the consent of the board of directors, said consent to be a matter of record. [Id.]

Art. 529. [571] Loans to Commissioner.—No State bank or bank and trust company shall directly or indirectly make a loan to the Banking Commissioner or any other person interested in or employed by the Banking Department, and a violation of this article shall render such corporation liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars to be recovered for the benefit of this State. [Acts 1909, 2nd. C. S., p. 428.]

Art. 530. Non-interest certificates.—No State bank or bank and trust company organized and doing business under the provisions of this title shall be allowed to issue any non-interest bearing certificates of deposit. Such certificates, if issued, shall not be protected under Chapter 7 of this title. [Acts 1923, p. 322.]

Art. 531. [551] Voluntary assignments.—It shall be unlawful for any banking corporation organized under this title to make a voluntary general assignment. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 511.]

Art. 532. [551] Transfers prohibited.—All transfers of the notes, bonds, bills of exchange or other evidence of debt owing to any bank or bank and trust company organized under this title, or of deposits to its credit, all assignments of mortgages, securities on real estate or of judgment or decrees in its favor, all deposits of money, bullion or other valuable thing for its use, or for the use of any of its shareholders or creditors, and all payments of money to it made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, made with a view to prevent the application of its assets in the manner prescribed by this title, or with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, shall be null and void. No attachment, injunction or execution shall be issued against such bank or its property before final judgment in any suit, action or proceedings in any court. [Id.]

Art. 533. [554] Debts created in insolvency.—No president, director, manager, cashier or other officer or agent of any bank or banking institution organized and doing business under the provisions of this article shall receive or assent to the reception of deposits, or create or assent to the creation of any debts by such bank after he shall have knowledge of the fact that it is insolvent or in failing circumstances. Every person violating the provisions of this article shall be individually responsible for such deposits so received and all debts so contracted. Any director who may have paid more than his share of the liabilities mentioned in this article may have the proper remedy at law against such other persons as shall not have paid their full share of such liabilities. In case of the insolvency of one or more of such officers, agents or managers, the same shall be paid for the time being by those who are solvent, in equal proportion. [Id.]

Art. 534. [555] Recovery of deposits.—In all suits brought for the recovery of the amount of any deposits received or debts created, all officers, agents or managers of any bank, savings bank or bank and trust company charged with having so assented to the reception of such deposits or the creation of such debt, may be joined as defendants or proceeded against severally; and the fact that such banking institution was so insolvent or in failing circumstances at the time of the reception of the deposit charged to have been received, or the creation of the debt charged to have been created, shall be prima facie evidence of such knowledge and assent to such deposit, or creation of such debt on the part of such officer, agent or manager so charged therewith. [Id.]

Art. 535. [552] Stockholder's liability.—If default shall be made in the payment of any debt or liability contracted by any bank, savings bank or bank and trust company, each stockholder of such corporation, as long as he owns shares therein, and for twelve months after the date of a transfer thereof, shall be personally liable for all debts of such corporation existing at the date of such transfer, or at the date of such default, to an amount double the par value of such shares. [Id.]

Art. 536. [553] Director's liability.—For any losses of money which the capital stock shall not be sufficient to satisfy, the directors of such corporations shall be responsible in the same manner and to the same extent that directors are now responsible in law or equity. [Id.]

Art. 537. [556] Liability of executor, etc.—No person holding stock in such corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as stockholder in such corporation; but the person pledging such stock shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as stockholder accordingly. The estate and funds in the hands of such executors, administrators, guardians or trustees shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator or intestate or the ward or person interested in such trust fund would have been if he had been living and competent to act and hold the same stock in his own name. [Id.]

Art. 538. [379] Branch banks.—No banking corporation organized under the laws of this State shall ever engage in business at more than one place, which shall be designated in its charter. No such corporation shall maintain a branch bank, receive deposits or pay checks except in its own banking house. County or State depositories or county depositories not located at the county seat, and ordinary clearing house transactions between banks, are not affected by this article. [Acts 1905, p. 491.]

Art. 539. [561] Solvent bank may close.—Whenever the board of directors of any solvent banking corporation organized under or subject to the provisions of this title shall deem it necessary, expedient or desirable to close the business of the corporation, they shall call a meeting of the stockholders to vote upon such proposition by giving sixty days notice thereof by publication once every week in a newspaper published in the county or city in which such corporation is located, and by mailing notices at least sixty days prior to the day fixed for such meeting, addressed to the stockholders at their usual place of business or residence. The vote upon such proposition shall be taken by ballot, and the resolution and vote thereon shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors. If at such meeting at least two-thirds of the shares of the corporation are voted in favor of such proposition, the board of directors shall proceed to wind up the business of such corporation as in the succeeding article provided; and a copy of such proceedings shall be certified by the president and secretary of such corporation and filed with the Banking Commissioner. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 511.]

Art. 540. [561] Final settlement.—The board of directors shall thereupon give notice to all depositors, creditors and stockholders of the adoption of such resolution by publication thereof once a week in a daily or weekly newspaper for three months thereafter, and by a written or printed notice personally served upon or mailed to every depositor, creditor or stockholder of such corporation at his last known residence, postage fully paid. Within six months after the filing of such certificate, the corporation shall pay all sums due depositors and creditors whom they can discover and who claim the moneys due them; and upon the expiration of said six months, it shall be the duty of the corporation to make a statement from the books of said corporation, certified by the president and secretary, of the names of all depositors and creditors who have not claimed or have not received the balances to their credit or due them respectively, and to file the same with the State Treasurer and to pay the said State Treasurer all such unclaimed deposits, moneys and credits for the use and benefit of such depositors and creditors. The board of directors shall then divide the capital stock, guaranty and indemnity fund and all other assets or the proceeds thereof among the stockholders ratably; and the board of directors shall thereupon file in the office of the Banking Commissioner a certificate surrendering the corporate franchise. [Id.]

Art. 541. [558] Private banks.—It is hereby declared to be the public policy of this State that no additional private banking institution or business shall be organized or established, and it shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust to hereafter organize or establish, begin or resume the operation of any banking institution or business within this State. It shall be the duty of private individuals or firms engaging in the banking business to use after the name under which the business is conducted, the word in parenthesis “unincorporated,” and failure to do so shall subject the offender to a penalty of one hundred dollars to be collected in the manner provided in Article 491. [Acts 1905, S. S., p. 11; Acts 1923, p. 422.]

Art. 541a. Advertising.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, partnerships or any trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, to hereafter use, advertise or put forth any sign as a bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank, or to in any way solicit or receive business as such, or to use as their name or part of their name on any sign, advertising or letter head or envelope the word bank, banker, banking, banking company, trust, trust company, bank and trust company, savings bank, savings, or any other term which may or might be confused with the name of a corporation organized under the general provisions of the banking laws of this State.

Art. 541b. Name.—It shall be unlawful for any such person, association of persons, partnership or any trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust to adopt or use any artificial name or business title or to use any other than the name of the person or one or more of the persons, or a member or one or more of the members of the association of persons or partnership, or a member or one or more of the members of such common law trust association, in the management, conduct or operation of any private banking institution or bank of deposit within the State of Texas; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustees, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who, at the time this Act becomes effective, are actively engaged in the operation of any bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank within this State, nor to any bank which may have been in successful operation in this State for twenty years and shall have suspended operation prior to the passage of this Act, but which shall resume operation within twelve months after the passage of this Act. The right to continue such business of such bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank so engaged, or which shall resume business as provided in this Act, or by their heirs, legal representatives, assigns and successors, is hereby expressly recognized, confirmed and fixed.

Art. 541c. Exception.—The provisions of the private bank law shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustee, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who has for a period of one year next preceding the date that this Act becomes effective, and who, as such, in the course of the liquidation of any bank or trust company or bank and trust company within this State, has acquired the assets, or any part thereof, including the real estate used as its banking house or place of business and has assumed the liabilities, or a part thereof, of such liquidation bank or trust company or bank and trust company." [Acts 1925, p. 356.]

Art. 542. Term defined.—The term "loan and investment company" as used in this chapter means any corporation formed under the provisions of this law. [Acts 1st C. S., 1917, p. 59.]

Art. 543. How organized.—Corporations may be organized under and by virtue of this chapter in the same manner as corporations for profit under the laws of this State, except as otherwise herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 544. Capital stock.—The aggregate amount of the capital stock of a loan and investment company shall not be less than $25,000 in any city having a population of less than 50,000 inhabitants, and shall not be less than $50,000 in any city having 50,000 or more inhabitants, and shall not be less than $100,000 in any city having 150,000 inhabitants or more, according to the preceding Federal census. The capital stock of any such corporation shall be divided into shares of the par value of $100 each. No corporation organized hereunder shall create more than one class of stock. [Id.]

Art. 545. Powers.—Every loan and investment company, in addition to the powers conferred upon corporations by the general corporation law, shall have the following powers:

1. To lend money and to deduct interest therefor in advance at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, and in addition to require and receive uniform weekly or monthly installments on its certificates of indebtedness purchased by the borrower simultaneously with the said loan transaction, or otherwise, and pledged with the corporation as security for the said loan, with or without an allowance of interest on such installments.

2. To sell or negotiate bonds, notes, certificates of investment and choses in action for the payment of money at the time, either fixed or uncertain, and to receive payments therefor in installments or otherwise, with or without an allowance of interest upon such installments.

3. To charge for a loan made pursuant to this article one dollar for each fifty dollars or fraction thereof loaned, for expenses, including any examination or investigation of the character and circumstances of the borrower, co-maker or surety, and the drawing and taking acknowledgement of necessary papers or other expenses incurred in making the loan; no charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made as a result of such examination or investigation. [Id.]

Art. 546. Acts prohibited.—No loan and investment company shall:

1. Hold at any one time the obligation of any one person, firm or corporation for more than two and one-half per cent of the amount of capital and surplus of such loan and investment company.

2. Make any loan under the provisions of this law for a longer period than one year from the date thereof.

3. Deposit any of its funds with any bank or trust company, unless such bank or trust company has been designated as such depository by a vote of the majority of the directors or of the executive committee, exclusive of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated. [Id.]

Art. 547. Borrowed money.—Issuing certificates of investment and the like in the transaction of the business of corporations organized hereunder, shall not be construed to be borrowed money. [Id.]

Art. 548. Provisions applicable.—The provisions of this title relating to the examination, supervision and liquidation of State banks by the Banking Commissioner, and statement of assets and liabilities required of such banks, so far as applicable, shall apply to corporations organized under this law. The provisions of law relating to bond investment companies shall not apply to corporations organized hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 549. State Entomologist.—The entomologist of the Agricultural Experiment Station of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, shall be the State Entomologist of this State, and as such it shall be his duty to enforce the provisions of this title. As State Entomologist he shall receive no fees or remuneration other than his regular salary as Entomologist of such Experiment Station, provided, that he may be reimbursed for the necessary expenses incurred in discharge of his duties as State Entomologist. He shall employ such assistants and inspectors as may be necessary, subject to the approval of the Director and Governing Board of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. He shall make an annual report to such Director and Governing Board giving a detailed account of all funds received and disbursed, and for what purpose, as well as a full report upon all prosecutions, etc., made under the provisions of this title. [Acts 1913, p. 96.]

Art. 550. Power and authority.—The State Entomologist shall have power to deal with all contagious or infectious diseases of honey bees, which in his opinion, may be prevented, controlled or eradicated, and to do and perform such acts as, in his judgment, may be necessary to control, eradicate or prevent the introduction, spread or dissemination of any and all contagious diseases of honey bees as far as may be possible, and to make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary to enforce this law. The State Entomologist shall have authority to prohibit the shipment or bringing into this State of any honey bees, honey, honey-comb, or articles or things capable of transmitting contagious or infectious diseases of bees from any State, territory or foreign country except under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and promulgated by said State Entomologist. [Id.]

Art. 551. Certificate of inspection.—All honey bees shipped or moved into this State shall be accompanied by a certificate of inspection signed by the State Entomologist or State Foul Brood Inspector of the State or county from which shipped. Such certificate shall certify to the apparent freedom of the bees, and their combs and hives, from contagious and infectious diseases and must be based upon an actual inspection of the bees themselves within a period of sixty days preceding date of shipment. The shipper of such bees is hereby required to file with the State Entomologist at College Station, at least ten days in advance of such shipment, a certified copy of said certificate, together with the names and addresses of both consignor and consignee. When honey bees are to be shipped into this State from other States or countries wherein no official apiary inspector or State entomologist is available, the State Entomologist of Texas may issue a permit for such shipment upon presentation of suitable evidence showing such bees to be free from diseases. Shipments of bees arriving at points within this State, not accompanied by the certificate herein described, shall be subject to confiscation and destruction by the State Entomologist or his assistants. This requirement shall not apply to shipments of live bees in wire cages, when without combs or honey. [Id.]

Art. 552. Common carrier accepting shipment.—No railroad company, express company, or other common carrier shall accept for intra-state shipment, any honey bees, used honey combs, used bee hives or fixtures, except under such regulations as the State Entomologist shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 553. Seizure.—The State Entomologist, through himself, assistants or inspectors, shall have authority to seize and confiscate any shipment of diseased bees found in transit in this State, or found in any depot, express office, store room, car, warehouse or premises awaiting transportation or delivery, and the State Entomologist, through himself or assistants, shall have authority to enter, during ordinary business hours, any depot, express office, store room, car, warehouse, or premises for the purpose of inspecting any shipment of honey bees therein which he may have reason to believe are or may be infected with a contagious or infectious disease or which he may have reason to believe are being transported or have been or are about to be transported in violation of any provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 554. May enter premises.—The State Entomologist, and his assistants and inspectors, shall have authority to enter, during ordinary business hours, any premises, public or private, wherein may be located any honey bees, or wherein he or they may have reason to believe any honey bees are kept or located, for the purpose of examining said bees and determining whether or not they are infected with any contagious or infectious disease. [Id.]

Art. 555. Protective quarantine.—The State Entomologist shall have authority to declare a protective quarantine in any district, county, precinct or other defined area wherein foul brood or other contagious disease of bees is not known to exist, or wherein any disease of bees is being eradicated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, said quarantine to prohibit the movement or shipment, into said district, county, precinct or other area, of any bees, honey, appliances or other things capable of transmitting the disease or infection, except under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 556. Restrictive quarantine.—The State Entomologist shall have authority when, in his opinion, public welfare and necessity require it, to place a restrictive quarantine upon any district, county, precinct or other defined area wherein are located any honey bees infected with contagious or infectious disease, said quarantine to prohibit the movement or shipment therefrom of any bees, honey, appliances or other things capable of transmitting the infection, except under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 557. Sale and shipment.—Queen bees and their attendant bees shall not be sold or offered for sale in this State unless accompanied by a copy of a certificate from a State or Government entomologist or apiary inspector to the effect that the apiary from which said queen bees are shipped have been inspected within the preceding twelve months and found apparently free from contagious or infectious diseases, or by a copy of an affidavit made by the bee-keeper that the bees are not diseased, to the best belief of affiant, and that the honey used in making the candy contained in the queen cage has been diluted and boiled for at least thirty minutes in a closed vessel. [Id.]

Art. 558. Legal remedies.—All prosecutions under this title shall be begun and carried on in any county affected by the violation of said orders, quarantines, rules or regulations. The State Entomologist may enjoin any threatened or attempted violation of his orders, quarantines, rules or regulations in any court of competent jurisdiction, or take any other civil proceedings necessary to carry out and enforce the provisions of this title. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General and the various county and district attorneys to represent said State Entomologist whenever called on to do so. The State Entomologist, in the discharge and enforcement of the duties and powers herein delegated, shall have the authority to compel the production for examination by said State Entomologist, or any one designated by him, of all books, papers and documents in the possession of any person; to take testimony and compel the attendance and examination under oath of witnesses; the various sheriffs and constables throughout the State shall serve all papers, orders, summons and writs that may be delivered to them by said State Entomologist and protect the State Entomologist or his assistants or inspectors in the discharge of their duties, as herein defined, whenever called upon to do so. [Id.]

Art. 559. Bulletins.—The State Entomologist shall publish methods and directions for treating, eradicating or suppressing contagious or infectious diseases of honey bees, including the rules and regulations above provided for, and such other information as he shall deem of value or necessity to the bee-keeping interests of the State. [Id.]

Art. 560. Duty to report diseased bees.—If the owner of, or any person having control or possession of, any honey bees in this State, knows that any bees so owned or controlled are affected with American foul brood, or any other contagious or infectious disease, or knows of any other bees so diseased, it shall be his duty to at once report such fact to the State Entomologist at College Station, setting out in his said report all the facts known with reference to said infection. [Id.]

Art. 561. Transfer of bees.—The State Entomologist may order any owner or possessor of bees dwelling in hives without movable frames, or not permitting of ready examination, to transfer such bees to a movable frame hive within a specified time. In default of such transfer such Entomologist may destroy, or order destroyed, such hives, together with the honey, frames, combs and bees contained therein, without recompense to the owner, lessee or agent thereof. [Id.]

Art. 562. Inspection and eradication.—If the State Entomologist finds, or has reason to believe, that the owner or keeper of any bees or the owner of any apiary has refused or is refusing to comply with any rule or regulation hereinbefore provided for, then in that event such entomologist is hereby authorized to inspect or cause to be inspected said bees, and, if necessary, burn diseased colonies, appliances and honey and do any and all things necessary to eradicate foul brood or any other contagious or infectious disease of bees. [Id.]

Art. 563. Cost of destruction.—When any owner or possessor of bees shall fail to carry out the instructions of the State Entomologist as hereinbefore set forth, such entomologist or his assistants or inspectors shall carry out such destruction or treatment and shall present to the owner or possessor of said bees a bill for the actual cost of such destruction or treatment, including the cost of such hives, foundation, etc., as may be necessary for the proper treatment of the disease. On the failure of the owner or possessor of such bees to pay said bill within thirty days after the delivery of same to himself, tenant, or agent, or within thirty days after mailing same to his usual post-office address, such Entomologist shall certify to the county attorney of the county where such bees were located the amount and items of such bill; and the county attorney shall file suit for the recovery of said account. All moneys recovered by the county attorney for such destruction or treatment shall be paid to the State Treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 564. No bond required.—The State Entomologist, his assistants and inspectors, shall not be required to give any bond or security in any legal proceedings which he or they may institute or defend in any court in this State. [Id.]

Art. 565. Experimental apiary.—The Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations of the Agricultural and Mechanical College shall have power to establish and maintain experimental apiaries for the purpose of experimenting with the culture of honey, and studying honey yield conditions, and other bee-keeping problems confronting the bee-keepers and the bee-keeping industry of this State; such experimental apiaries to be under the care, control, management and direction of the director of the experimental stations, and to be maintained and operated at such places in Texas as said director may direct. In the location of such experimental apiaries, said director may take into consideration any donation of money or other property to be used in the operation and management of such apiaries and may accept any lease of lands upon which to locate such apiaries. The director shall have authority to employ such assistants as may be needed, and to purchase from time to time, such supplies, equipment and bees as may be necessary in the successful management thereof. The receipts from the sales of any products or old equipment, shall be deposited in the experimental station treasury, in a fund to be known as the "Experimental Apiaries Sales Fund," to be expended by said director for the purpose of said experimental apiaries. [Acts 1919, p. 102.]

Art. 566. [579] [580] Fixing liability.—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note, assignable or negotiable by law, may secure and fix the liability of any drawer or endorser of such bill of exchange and every endorser of such note, without protest or notice, by bringing suit against the acceptor of such bill of exchange, or against the maker of such note, before the first term of the district or county court to which suit can be brought after the right of action accrues, or before the second term with a showing of good cause for the delay; or when the justice court has jurisdiction by bringing such suit within sixty days after the right of action accrues. [Acts 1848, p. 187; G. L. vol. 3, p. 187.]

Art. 567. [581] [306] [264] Drawer of bill liable.—The drawer of any bill of exchange not accepted when presented for acceptance, shall be immediately liable for the payment thereof. The holders of such bill may secure and fix the liability of any endorser thereof by bringing suit against such drawer, within the time and in the manner prescribed by this title. [Id.]

Art. 568. [582] [307] [265] Assignee may sue.—The assignee of any negotiable instrument may maintain any suit in his own name which the original obligee or payee might have brought. He shall allow all just discounts against himself, and if he obtained the same after it became due, he shall also allow all just discounts against the assignor before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant. If he obtains such instrument before its maturity by giving for it a valuable consideration without notice of any discount or defense against it, he shall be compelled to allow only the just discounts against himself. [Acts 1840, p. 144; G. L. vol. 2, p. 318.]

Art. 569. [583] [308] [266] Instruments may be assigned.—The obligee or assignee of any written instrument not negotiable by the law merchant, may by assignment transfer all his interest therein to another. [Id.]

Art. 570. [584] [585] Assignee may sue in his own name. The assignee of any instrument mentioned in the preceding article may sue thereon in his own name. He shall allow every discount and defense against the same which it would have been subject to in the hands of any previous owner before notice of the assignment was given to the defendant. In order to hold the assignor, drawer or endorser as surety for the payment of the instrument, the assignee shall use due diligence to collect the same. Such diligence can only be waived in writing. [Id.]

Art. 571. [586] [311] [269] Assignor liable to assignee.—The assignee of any instrument not negotiable by the law merchant, shall be entitled to recover from any previous assignor thereof. In any suit against a remote assignor of such instrument, he shall be subject only to such recovery and shall have the benefit of all defenses which he would have been entitled to had the suit been instituted by any intermediate assignee. [Id.]

Art. 572. [587] [312] [270] Parties to suit.—Assignors, indorsers and other parties not primarily liable upon any instrument named in this title, may be jointly sued with their principal obligors, or may be sued alone in the cases provided for in the laws relating to parties to suits. [Id.]

Art. 573. [588] [313] [271] Plea of forgery.—When suit is brought by an assignee or indorsee of a written instrument, the assignment or endorsement thereof shall be held as fully proved, unless the defendant shall file with the papers in the cause an affidavit stating that he has good cause to believe, and does believe that such assignment or endorsement is forged. [Id.]

Art. 574. [589] [314] [272] Failure of consideration.—The defendant in any suit upon a written instrument may plead want or failure, or partial failure of consideration, where such written instrument shall remain in the possession of the original payee or obligee or when it has been transferred or assigned after the maturity thereof, or when the defendant proves a knowledge of such want or failure of consideration on the part of the holder prior to such transfer. [Id.]

Art. 575. [590] [315] [273] Liability fixed by protest.—The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note assignable or negotiable by the law merchant may also secure and fix the liability of any drawer or indorser of such bill of exchange or promissory note for the payment thereof, without suit against the acceptor, drawer or maker, by procuring such bill or note to be regularly protested by a notary public for non-acceptance or non-payment, and giving notice of such protest to such drawer or indorser, according to the usage and custom of merchants. [Acts 1848, p. 187; G. L. vol. 3, p. 187.]

Art. 576. [591] [316] [274] Protest, how made.—It shall be the duty of any notary public who shall protest any bill of exchange or promissory note for non-acceptance or non-payment, to set forth in his protest and in his notarial record a full and true statement of what was done by him in relation thereto by specifying therein whether demand was made of the sum of money in such bill or note specified, of whom, and when and where such demand was made, and to make the requisite notices of protest for the drawers and indorsers who are sought to be made liable. When such notice shall be served by him, he shall note in his protest and notarial record on whom and when such notice was served. If such notice is mailed by him, he shall specify when and where mailed, and to whom and where directed. Such protest, or a copy of such notarial record, certified under the hand and seal of such notary public, shall be admitted in any court of this State as evidence of the facts therein set forth. [Id.]

Art. 577. [592] [317] [275] Damages on protested bill.—The holder of any protested draft or bill of exchange, drawn by a merchant within the limits of this State upon his agent or factor living beyond the limits of this State shall, after having fixed the liability of the drawer or indorser of any such draft or bill of exchange, be entitled to recover and receive ten per cent on the amount of such draft or bill of exchange as damages, together with interests and costs of suit thereon accruing. [Acts 1851, p. 23; G. L. vol. 3, p. 901.]

Art. 578. Patent rights.—All notes and liens given for a patent right consideration or patent right territory shall state on their face that the same were given for a patent right. Such statement shall be notice to all subsequent purchasers of said notes or liens of all equities existing between the parties to the original transaction, and the same shall be subject to all defenses against subsequent owners and holders that they would if the same had remained in the hands of the original owner. [Acts 1915, p. 138.]

Art. 579. Definitions.—The term “stock” as used in this title shall include the certificates of stock of every corporation, as well as the certificates of any other written instruments evidencing ownership or membership in any joint stock association, common law trust, or any other organization, association or concern of whatsoever nature, which is organized, formed or created, or intended to be organized, formed or created, which may, or which is designed to own property of any character.

The terms “person”, “company”, or “concern”, shall refer to and include any such concern, or individual, or person who may issue such stock, and whose stock or certificate shall represent or evidence ownership or membership therein, which ownership or membership may be designed to be transferred, assigned or negotiated by the transfer, assignment or negotiation of such instrument. [Acts 2d. C. S. 1923, p. 114.]

Art. 580. Prerequisites of sale.—Every concern which shall hereafter be formed or created or which shall hereafter attempt to increase its capital stock or commence the transaction of business in this State, shall before offering for sale, directly or indirectly, through itself, its agents or employes, or through any holding company, sales company or any character of person or association, whether herein defined or not, any stock as defined in the preceding article, and before transacting any business in this State, except the preparation of instruments hereinafter mentioned and other instruments relative to the organization and transaction of business thereof, file in the office of the Secretary of State, together with a fee equal in amount to the filing fee of a private corporation having capital and surplus of like amount, the following: (This requirement as to fees shall not apply to corporations, by reason of the existing requirement as to the payment of filing fees upon obtaining charters and permits from the Secretary of State.)

1. An application for a permit to sell any of the securities mentioned herein, or any other securities offered, or to be offered for sale, and for the transaction of any and all other business in this State. Said application must show the name under which such business is to be conducted, its location and general purpose, the age, occupation and general qualifications of such trustees or managing officers, and also fully the business in which each has been engaged for the last five years immediately preceding the filing of such application.

2. A copy of its articles of association, partnership agreement, constitution, by-laws, or any other contract, agreement or other form of organization under which business is to be transacted, and all amendments thereto, showing the county or counties in which such instruments are filed, or to be filed for record.

3. Copies of stock certificates, bonds, debentures, or other securities offered, or to be offered for sale, or other disposition, together with copies of application blank for such securities. Such application must show the capital stock, par value of such stock, the price at which the same is to be sold, the commissions to be paid for the sale thereof, the amount of such stock or other interest therein issued, or to be issued for promotion, compensation, or other purposes.

4. A detailed statement showing the assets and liabilities of such issuer, together with a profit and loss statement. [Id.]

Art. 581. Affidavit.—Before being filed with the Secretary of State, all documents mentioned in the preceding article must be subscribed and sworn to by a managing officer or other executive of the issuer. [Id.]

Art. 582. Value of securities.—In any case wherein the values of the securities hereinbefore mentioned are in any way dependent upon the present, or proposed development of the land or mines, oil or gas wells, the Secretary of State may cause such investigation thereof, as he may desire, to be made at the expense of the applicant. [Id.]

Art. 583. Permit.—The Secretary of State, upon receipt and proper investigation of the information herein provided for, shall grant or refuse such permit. If he decides that values warrant and that the sale of stock, or other securities, and the business of the issuer will be conducted honestly and fairly in compliance with this law and the general laws of Texas, such permit shall be granted. Commissions for the sale of stock and other securities, promotion, and all other incidental expenses shall not, in the aggregate, exceed twenty per cent of the price at which the stock or other securities are to be sold, as shown by the application or amended application. Stock issued for property or other things of its equivalent value shall not be classed as promotion stock, the value at which such property is accepted to be approved by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 584. Foreign permit.—No permit hereunder shall be granted to a non-resident or foreign concern until it shall file in the office of the Secretary of State, an instrument constituting and appointing him its true and lawful attorney, upon whom process may be served in any action that may be brought against it. [Id.]

Art. 585. Escrow permit.—Where the promoter or promoters of any development proposition, or the originator or originators of any patent process, own no assets but a meritorious proposition, he or they, upon the presentation of the proper facts to the Secretary of State and securing his approval, and filing a bond as herein required may, in the discretion of said officer, secure a permit, conditioned that all moneys received for the sale of stock or units of interest shall be placed in escrow with the Secretary of State until the proposed amount of stock necessary to finance such undertaking has been sold and the money paid in therefor. [Id.]

Art. 586. Escrow bond.—Such bond shall be executed by such promoter or promoters for the use and benefit of all prospective holders of stock or units. It shall be in amount equal to the amount of stock or units whose sale is permitted, and shall be conditioned that all moneys paid for such stock or units shall be deposited in escrow as herein required, and thereafter faithfully applied. Such bond may be sued upon successively and severally in any county in Texas where plaintiff may reside, and if the whereabouts of any defendant be out of the State or unknown, such suit may be instituted against the sureties only upon such bond. A certified copy of such bond made by the Secretary of State shall be admissible in evidence in all courts in like manner as the original. [Id.]

Art. 587. Escrow fund; release.—On failure to dispose of sufficient stock or units to raise the proposed and necessary amount of money, all money so raised shall be returned by the Secretary of State to the investors, less the actual lawful expenses of selling such stock or units. All expenses incident to selling such stock or units, whether all or part thereof have been sold, shall be submitted to the Secretary of State by an itemized affidavit of the duly authorized agent of such concern, who shall be personally cognizant of the facts therein set forth. Such affidavit shall be accompanied by vouchers showing all such expenditures. [Id.]

Art. 588. Stock of solvent concerns.—Any concern which has been a solvent going concern for a period of two years next preceding the date of any application named in this article, may submit to the Secretary of State satisfactory evidence of such fact and of its present sound solvent condition; whereupon the Secretary of State shall consider the same and shall require such further evidence, and may make such independent investigation as he may deem proper, concerning such matter. If upon full consideration thereof he shall conclude that such concern has been a solvent going concern for a period of two years and is at present solvent, he shall enter such finding upon his record, whereupon the proposed issue and sale of such stock, debentures or other securities, as defined in this title, of such concern, shall be exempt from the general requirements of this title. [Id.]

Art. 589. Changing documents.—Any original document under which a permit has been granted shall not be changed or amended without permission to do so being granted by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 590. Suit to issue permit.—If a permit be refused by the Secretary of State, the parties applying therefor may bring suit in the district court of Travis County to determine the right of the applicant to have said officer to issue such permit. [Id.]

Art. 591. Using mail, etc., without permit.—Any person, broker, agent, joint stock company, co-partnership or other company, individual or organization, domestic or foreign, sending advertising matter through the mails, by express, telegram or otherwise wholly within this State, offering for sale or selling any of the securities enumerated in the second article of this title, without first having been issued a permit as provided herein, shall be deemed guilty of having violated the provisions of this title. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, immediately after discovering such violation, to seek to have a fraud order issued as provided by the laws of the United States affecting the postal service, covering all letters or other matter sent by mail by any such offender. [Id.]

Art. 592. Violations of Federal Laws.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to cooperate with the United States District Attorney, and the United States Department of Justice, and the United States postal authorities, in furnishing them with such information, data and evidence as may come to his knowledge of violations of the Federal laws by any of the persons, brokers, agents, joint stock companies, co-partnerships or other companies, individuals or organizations mentioned in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 593. Merger.—The merger, absorption or transfer of property of any company, association, joint stock company, co-partnership or other company, individual or organization by another coming under the provisions of the first article of this title, is declared to be unlawful, unless same is approved by the Secretary of State, after notice to all stockholders of the interested companies, mailed thirty days in advance of said merger, and approved by the holders of a majority in amount of the outstanding and issued stock. [Id.]

Art. 594. Unlawfully paying dividends.—It shall be unlawful for any concern included in this title to declare, issue, or pay a cash dividend to its stockholders or any of them, out of any funds other than the actual earnings of such company in the course of its operations, except upon the lawful liquidation thereof. [Id.]

Art. 595. Publication of records.—All papers, documents, instruments and affidavits of any and every nature, whatsoever, which may be filed with the Secretary of State by any person or concern in connection with matters provided in this title, shall be deemed public records of this State, and the Secretary of State is required to give out any information applied for concerning any such matter, or any such instrument, and to give certified copies of any and all such instruments. The Secretary of State shall at least as often as quarterly, publish bulletins summarizing the applications for permits to sell stock under this title and the conclusions of the Secretary of State in respect thereto as to whether such concern was solvent and whether or not it was or is fraudulent, and whether or not such permit was granted. No action at law for damages shall lie against the Secretary of State or any employe thereof or any periodical on account of any publication or information herein permitted or required to be given. [Id.]

Art. 596. Powers of Secretary of State.—The power and authority is hereby vested in the Secretary of State, and it is hereby made his duty to perform the powers and authority granted herein, and he shall in all things carry out the provisions of this title. He shall have power and authority to appoint such employes and clerks as may be necessary to perform the duties herein imposed upon him. [Id.]

Art. 597. Disbursements.—Expenses incident to the enforcement of this law shall be paid by warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the State Treasurer, issued upon a verified statement of the persons entitled thereto, and with the approval of the Secretary of State indorsed thereon. [Id.]

Art. 598. State officers to assist.—Upon the request of the Secretary of State, the Attorney General, or any district or county attorney shall aid in any investigation, trial or proceeding provided for in this title, and shall institute and prosecute all such actions or proceedings for the enforcement thereof. The Attorney General shall act as the attorney for the Secretary of State in all actions and proceedings brought by or against them under or pursuant to any provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 599. Exemptions.—This title shall not apply to banking corporations or private banks, railroad, or building and loan corporations, nor to the stock thereof, nor be construed to in any manner affect the existing laws of this State, relating to the regulation of any corporation or concern, whatsoever, but in all respects shall be cumulative thereof. [Id.]

Art. 600. Name of law.—This law shall be known and cited as the “Blue Sky Law of Texas.” [Id.]

| Appointment | 601 | New divisions | 604 |
| Organization of Board | 602 | Qualifications and salary | 605 |
| General duties | 603 | Suits and injunctions | 606 |

Art. 601. Appointment.—The State Board of Control shall consist of three citizens of this State, one to be biennially appointed for a term of six years by the Governor with the advice of the Senate, the classification to remain as now constituted by law. Any member of the Board may at any time be dismissed by the Governor for good cause, the reasons for such dismissal to be specified and filed with the Secretary of State. The members of the Board shall be public officers and shall take the official oath, and each shall give bond in form prescribed by the Attorney General in the sum of fifty thousand dollars payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. [Acts 1919, p. 323.]

Art. 602. Organization of Board.—The Board shall elect one of its number Chairman, and two members shall always be necessary for the consideration of any question. They shall keep minutes of their proceedings recorded in a book provided for that purpose. They may employ a secretary and such other clerks, stenographers, auditors, book-keepers and clerical help as may be necessary in the administration of their department, within the limits of the appropriations that may be made for the work of the Board, which shall in no case be exceeded. They shall occupy appropriate rooms in the Capitol, and may purchase such equipment and stationery as may be necessary. The Board shall be entitled to traveling expenses when absent from Austin on official business. [Id.]

Art. 603. General duties.—The Board shall administer the laws relating to the various departments, boards, institutions and public officers of the government herein named, and perform the additional duties and exercise the additional functions provided for in this title, and may combine under it the following subdivisions of its work:

1. Division of Public Printing.
2. Division of Purchasing.
3. Division of Auditing.
4. Division of Design, Construction and Maintenance.
5. Division of Estimates and Appropriations.
6. Division of Eleemosynary Institutions.
7. And such other divisions of its work as it may find necessary in the administration of its duties. [Id.]

Art. 604. New divisions.—The Board may from time to time create such other divisions of its work as may be necessary, and appoint chiefs of such divisions, but no person shall be appointed chief of any division who has had less than five years actual experience immediately preceding his appointment in the work or a profession similar to that to which he is assigned by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 605. Qualifications and salary.—Wherever certain qualifications are prescribed for an office or any employment or appointment by the Board, and certain years of experience are required, the existence of such years of experience and such qualifications as a fact shall be a prerequisite to the assignment of such officer, appointee or employe to occupy such position, and the payment of his compensation by the accounting officers of this State and the State Treasurer. The Comptroller may refuse to issue his warrant to any person occupying any office or position of employment with the Board, where he shall find that such person is disqualified as provided in this article, and the State Treasurer may refuse to pay any warrant issued to such person. The party claiming the right to the issuance of such warrants and the payment thereof, may bring a mandamus suit against either of such officers in the Supreme Court as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 606. Suits and injunctions.—Mandamus suits may be brought in the Supreme Court against the Board, but no other suit shall be brought against the Board of any other character, except in the District Court of Travis County. No temporary injunction shall ever issue against the Board except upon notice and hearing. [Id.]

| Abrogation of contracts | 617 | Interest in contracts | 629 |
| New contracts | 618 | Approval of contracts | 630 |

Art. 607. Chief of Division.—The Board shall appoint a chief of the Division of Public Printing who shall be a practical competent printer, who has had not less than five years experience in a commercial printing office, including the duties of estimator. [Acts 1919, p. 323.]

Art. 608. Contracts.—The Board shall contract for a term of not exceeding two years with responsible persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, who shall be residents of Texas, for supplying to the State all printing, binding, stationery and supplies of like character for all departments, institutions and boards, save and except such work as may be done at the various educational and eleemosynary institutions. Said contract shall be let to the lowest and best responsible bidder after public advertising of such proposed letting for once a week for four consecutive weeks in at least six newspapers of general circulation in this State. No two of such papers shall be published in the same county. The Board may reject any and all bids; the reason therefor shall be entered in full in the minutes of the Board and shall be open to the inspection of the public at all times. New contracts shall be made in the same manner as hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

Art. 609. Printing at School for Deaf.—Any public printing and binding for the State may be executed by the Texas School for the deaf without regard to any contract with an individual to do the public printing thereof. [Id.]

Art. 610. Rules for bids.—The Board may establish rules and regulations in advertising for bids for printing and stationery supplies in such manner as in its judgment will best serve the State.

Any bidder shall be allowed to bid on either any or all of the items to be contracted for. The Board may define, itemize and group any class in advertising for bids and awarding contracts, in such manner as shall give the State the most efficient service. [Id.]

Art. 611. Separate contracts.—The Board shall have authority to determine to which bidder the several classes of work shall be awarded. It may let the contract for the several classes of printing to separate bidders, and in calling for proposals, it shall be specified that bids for stationery and office supplies shall be separate and distinct from the bids for printing. [Id.]

Art. 612. Quantity of reports, etc.—The Board shall order such quantity of all reports, documents, messages, journals and laws to be published as it may deem necessary, not more than five thousand of such reports. [Id.]

Art. 613. Bidder's bond.—All bids or proposals shall be accompanied by a bond or certified check in such sum as the Board may require, and such requirement shall be stated in the advertisement calling for bids. [Id.]

Art. 614. Contractor's bond.—When any bid shall have been accepted, the Board shall require of the successful bidder a bond in an amount to be fixed by the Board, conditioned that the contractor will comply with all the terms and conditions of contract. Said bond shall have two or more good and sufficient sureties, or shall be made by a surety company authorized to do business in Texas. The Attorney General shall, when requested by the Board, file suit against any contractor for breach of contract. [Id.]

Art. 615. Accounts: regular.—All accounts for printing done, or stationery furnished, except for the Legislature when in session, shall be audited in the following manner: The accounts shall be verified by the affidavit of the contractor that it is true and correct, that the amount of work charged for has actually been performed, or the actual amount of stationery and supplies have been delivered, and that the prices charged in the account are in accordance with the stipulations of the contract. The account shall be accompanied by a sample of the work done, and a receipt from the department to which the goods were delivered. The account shall be examined by the Chief of the Division of Public Printing, and, when certified by him as correct, approved by the department to which delivery was made. After having been thus examined and approved, the Comptroller shall issue his warrant for payment of account out of funds appropriated for that purpose. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 303.]

Art. 616. Accounts: Legislative.—All accounts for printing done, or stationery used, in either house of the Legislature, shall before being approved by the Legislature, be presented to the Chief of Division of Public Printing for his certificate that the printing or binding for stationery is charged for at the rate of the current contract, and such account when approved by the committee on public printing of either house of the Legislature, shall authorize the Comptroller to draw his warrant to pay such account out of the contingent fund. [Id.]

Art. 617. Abrogation of contracts.—The contracts for printing and for stationery herein provided for may be abrogated by the Legislature when in session, or by the Board of Control with the consent of the Governor or Comptroller when the Legislature is not in session, if the contractor shall fail to perform the work or furnish the supplies in accordance with the law and with his contract as promptly as the exigencies of the public service demand. [Id.]

Art. 618. New contracts.—Should all bids on any contract be rejected, or the successful bidder fail to execute bond as provided herein, or should the contract be abrogated, the Board shall let a new contract in the manner provided herein. The Board may in its discretion make such temporary arrangement to meet the emergency as the public interest may demand. [Id.]

Art. 619. Reporters' stationery.—The Board shall furnish the reporters for the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals with the necessary stationery for the performance of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 620. Judicial reports.—The Board shall from time to time cause the decisions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals to be printed and bound in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 621. [1575-1579] Printing of reports.—As fast as the Chief of the Printing Division shall receive the manuscript copy of reported cases from the court reporter, he shall cause the same to be printed at the printing office of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum of Texas, with proper index tables of cases cited and of cases reported; or should the Board find that the work of printing and binding the reports can be done more speedily and more economically by contract, or that ample material and means to carry out the provisions hereof are not readily obtainable, it shall at once let the printing and binding of the reports out by contract, require security for the performance of the work, and delivery to the State of electrotype plates. [Acts 1882, p. 71; Acts 1919, p. 60.]

Art. 622. [1577] [964] Specifications or reports.—The Board shall have one thousand copies of each volume of the decisions of said Courts printed and bound. Each volume shall contain not less than seven nor more than eight hundred pages; and pages shall be twenty-six ems pica wide and forty-six ems pica long. The type used shall be long prima and minion of the same size used in Volume 23, Wallace's United States Supreme Court Reports; the lines shall be leaded with not thicker than eight to pica leads. The paper, press work and binding shall be the same style and at least equal in quality in every respect with the volumes of Moore & Walker's Reports heretofore published. The volumes containing the Supreme Court decisions shall be styled "The Texas Reports," and shall be so styled on the title page and back, and the volumes shall be numbered. The name of the reporter may be printed on the back of each volume. [Id.]

Art. 623. Bids: advertisements.—The Board shall invite bids upon proposals advertised by the Board in the manner provided by the Board, and it shall not be confined to the residents of this State. The lowest responsible bidder shall be awarded the contract. The Board may reject any and all bids. [Acts 1919, p. 60.]

Art. 624. Contracts: terms.—The Board may fix all conditions, provisions and details of such contracts concerning the printing, binding, publication and sale of such reports, and demand such security from the contractor as will secure the performance of such contract. Such contracts shall be for a term of six years' duration at a time; and may provide for the printing and binding of delayed manuscripts of said reports. [Id.]

Art. 625. Renewal contracts.—The Board may provide from time to time by separate contracts under similar conditions, for renewal contracts in the event of forfeiture or for other reasons, and in order to facilitate the prompt printing and binding of said reports. [Id.]

Art. 626. Price of reports.—The price of such reports furnished by the contractor to the legal profession and to the public of this State shall not exceed the contract price fixed by said contract. The number of volumes delivered to the State for its use shall not exceed three hundred of each volume of said reports. [Id.]

Art. 627. Extra copies.—The contract shall also provide that the contractor shall keep on hand a sufficient number of volumes of said reports, or make such arrangements as to enable the legal profession and the public in this State to obtain from the contractor such reports at the price fixed in the contract. [Id.]

Art. 628. Printing plates.—The Board shall determine whether electrotype or stereotype plates of said reports are to be made, and shall regulate the use thereof. The ownership of such plates, together with the copyright of the reports, shall remain in this State. [Id.]

Art. 629. Interest in contracts.—No member or officer of any department of the State Government shall be in any way interested in any contract which shall be let under the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 630. Contracts: approval.—All contracts made under the provisions of this law shall be subject to the approval of the Governor, the Secretary of State and the Comptroller, as required by Article 16, Section 21, of the Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 631. Chief of division.—The Board may appoint a Chief of its Division of Purchasing, who shall have had not less than five years experience immediately preceding his appointment, as a purchaser for a department store or wholesale establishment of recognized standard and successful experience, and no other person shall be eligible for such position. [Acts 1919, p. 323.]

Art. 632. Term of office, etc.—Said chief shall hold his office for a term of two years from the date of his qualification, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall not receive, directly or indirectly, any extra compensation in the way of commission or otherwise, nor shall he collect or be paid his salary or any part thereof while he is in any manner indebted to the State, or in arrears in his accounts and reports as such agent. [Acts 1899, p. 138; Acts 1915, p. 193.]

Art. 633. Interest in contracts.—Neither said chief nor any member of the Board nor any employe or appointee of the Board shall be interested in, or in any manner connected with, any contract or bid for furnishing supplies or articles of any kind to any of the institutions or departments of this State, or with any person, firm or corporation who is interested in or in any manner connected with any kind of contract with this State or any of its institutions and departments. Neither shall said agent accept or receive from any person, firm or corporation to whom any contract may be awarded, directly or indirectly, by rebate, gift or otherwise, any money or other thing of value whatever, nor shall he receive any promise, obligation or contract for future reward or compensation from any such party. [Id.]

Art. 634. Departmental supplies.—The Board shall purchase all the supplies used by each department of the State government and each eleemosynary institution, normal school, Agricultural and Mechanical College, University of Texas, and each other State, school heretofore or hereafter created, such supplies including furniture and fixtures, and all other things except strictly perishable goods, technical instruments and books. [Acts 1919, p. 323.]

Art. 635. Bidder's affidavit.—The bidder for the contract for such supplies shall be required to file with his respective bids an affidavit stating that neither the affiant nor the firm, corporation, partnership nor institution represented by the affiant, or anyone acting for such firm, corporation or institution, has within twelve months past violated any law of this State relating to trusts or monopolies. The Attorney General shall prepare the form of such affidavit which shall embrace each phase of the statutes of Texas forbidding trusts and monopolies, and shall also provide that neither the affiant nor the firm, corporation or partnership represented by him has communicated directly or indirectly the bid made by such person, firm or corporation bidding, to any competitor bidding on said contract, or any person engaged in such line of business or any other person. [Id.]

Art. 636. Storekeepers.—The superintendent of each educational and eleemosynary institution placed by law under the management and control of the Board of Control, shall, with the consent of the Board, appoint one storekeeper and accountant for each of said institutions, who shall hold office for two years from the date of qualification, or until their successors shall have qualified, unless sooner removed by the Board. Where the magnitude of an institution is not sufficient to employ a storekeeper and accountant, the superintendent shall perform that service. [Acts 1899, p. 138; Acts 1915, p. 193.]

Art. 637. Bond.—Each storekeeper or accountant shall, before entering upon the performance of his duties, make and file with the Comptroller a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the State, conditioned for the full, faithful, accurate and honest performance of his duties, and approved by the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 638. Acts prohibited.—No such storekeeper or accountant shall sell or in anyway be concerned in the sale of any merchandise, supplies or other articles to any such institution, or have any interest in any contract therewith, or with any other institution or department of the State government. [Id.]

Art. 639. Reports.—Such storekeeper or accountant shall keep the Board constantly informed as to the amount and character of supplies on hand and the amount and character required in order to keep the institution provided for. They shall make reports to the Board on or before the tenth day of each month, showing the total amount of the appropriation, the total amount expended, and the balance unexpended on the first day of each month. They shall also furnish any other information respecting such matters as the Board may request. [Id.]

Art. 640. Surplus supplies.—When any institution accumulates an amount of supplies on hand in excess of its needs, and another institution is in need of such supplies, the Board shall be authorized to transfer any of such supplies from the institution having such excess to such institution in need of such supplies, and the debit and credit shall be made on the basis that such supplies can be purchased in the open market at the time of the transfer, when it is less than the cost under the general contract for such supplies for the fiscal year, otherwise the debit and credit shall be made on the basis of the general contract price for that year. [Id.]

Art. 641. May dispense with storekeeper.—Any educational institution may dispense with the position of storekeeper and appoint some person at such institution to receive such supplies, and make the reports required of storekeepers. [Id.]

Art. 642. Supply contracts.—The Board shall contract for all supplies, merchandise and articles of every description needed for the maintenance and operation of such institutions, except those supplies designated as perishable, and supplies of a special character, as books for libraries and supplies for the laboratories and laboratory work and instruction, and any special supplies for instruction, demonstration and research for educational institutions, to be designated as "Special Supplies for Educational Institutions." The Board shall base its contracts upon estimates to be furnished the Board by the superintendents, by the first day of April of each year, for the entire year. [Id.]

Art. 643. Notice and limits.—All such contracts shall be made after full notice by advertisement once a week for not less than four weeks in at least four of the leading papers of this State, to be selected by the Board. Such contracts shall be made within the limits of the appropriations made by the Legislature for such purposes, regard being had to the appropriations for each institution. [Id.]

Art. 644. Requisites of bids.—The Board shall advertise for sealed bids or proposals to furnish the aggregate of the articles and supplies as estimated by such institutions, naming the articles and supplies and the quantities and character required. All such bids and proposals shall, when required by the Board, be accompanied by samples or designs furnished by the bidder, and shall be for the entire period of one year. Such supplies, articles and merchandise shall be delivered at such times and in such quantities to such institutions, as the Board may designate. [Id.]

Art. 645. Short term contracts.—If the Board at any time discovers that they can purchase the same supplies for less money than for any one year by buying the same for a less length of time, they shall make such purchases for a shorter length of time, not less than for three months. [Id.]

Art. 646. May reject bids.—The Board shall in all cases reserve the right to reject or accept any or all bids, or reject in part if it prefers, and in such case they may buy in the open market until a satisfactory bid is offered. [Id.]

Art. 647. Equal bids.—The terms and conditions, and the period for which such bids or proposals are invited shall be clearly stated in the advertisement. When the same article is estimated for by two or more institutions, but of different brands or grades, such articles shall be purchased so as to produce uniformity in use by each institution, and other things being equal, supplies offered by bidders who have an established local business, shall have preference. [Id.]

Art. 648. Equipment.—Furniture or equipment for educational institutions shall be such as is especially adapted or designed for such institutions. [Id.]

Art. 649. Bond or security.—All bids or proposals shall be accompanied by a bond or certified check in such sum as the Board may require. Such requirement shall be stated in the advertisements calling for bids. [Id.]

Art. 650. Separate bids.—The Board may advertise for the various articles and supplies needed either separately or all together, and may accept a bid for the same to be furnished either separately or all by one bidder. Preference shall be given, all things being equal, to State products. [Id.]

Art. 651. Opening of bids.—All bids shall be opened on the date and at the place specified in the advertisement. The opening and inspection of bids shall be made by the Board in the presence of the Governor and the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 652. Quality of goods.—The supplies and articles furnished under all bids and contracts shall be such as called for by requisition of the superintendents of the several institutions. Each article shall be equal to the sample which is required with the accompanying bid. [Id.]

Art. 653. Misrepresentation.—If supplies delivered under contract are not equal to the sample, the superintendent shall refuse to accept them. [Id.]

Art. 654. Estimates.—The estimates upon which advertisements and contracts are made shall as near as practicable state the quantity and quality of the articles and supplies needed. [Id.]

Art. 655. Invoice: affidavit.—The contractor or seller shall in all cases append an affidavit stating that the invoice is correct and that it corresponds in every particular to the supplies furnished and shipped. [Id.]

Art. 656. Invoice: delivery.—Invoices of all supplies shall be furnished in triplicate by the contractor or seller at the time of delivery of said supplies, one of which shall be sent to the storekeeper of the institution to which the supplies are sent. [Id.]

Art. 657. Invoice: check of goods.—As soon as supplies are received and examined by the storekeeper of the institution to which the same were shipped, if they check with the invoices transmitted and the samples by which the supplies were sold, he shall transmit to the Board of Control the original invoices and duplicate with his certificate thereon that the supplies received correspond in every particular with the invoice and with the samples by which they were sold. If the Board finds such invoice to be correct, it shall approve and transmit the same to the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 658. Invoice: payment.—When such invoice so approved by such storekeeper and by the Board of Control, shall be approved by the Comptroller, he shall draw his warrant upon the State Treasury for the amount due on the invoice or for so much thereof as has been allowed, and it shall be charged against the institution. [Id.]

Art. 659. Contract bond.—When any bid has been accepted, the Board shall require of the successful bidder a bond payable to the State with good and sufficient sureties in a sum not less than one-third the amount of the bid, conditioned that the bidder will faithfully and accurately execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered. Said bond shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller, and recoveries may be had thereon until exhausted. [Id.]

Art. 660. Purchase without contract.—In case of emergency, and where articles are necessary and needed by any institution, and it is impracticable to include them in the annual contract, the superintendent shall make a requisition for same to the Board of Control; and the Board may forthwith purchase such article in the open market. [Id.]

Art. 661. Equipment: specifications.—Furniture or equipment for educational institutions shall be of the particular kind and make as requisitioned by such institution and approved by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 662. Local dealers.—Preference shall be given to dealers in cities or towns in the county in which said institution is located, conditioned that the articles purchased shall be equal in price and quality to articles which can be purchased elsewhere. [Id.]

Art. 663. Appropriations.—All purchases by contract or otherwise, as herein authorized, shall be in accordance with such appropriations as shall be made by the Legislature for the support of the several institutions respectively. [Id.]

Art. 664. Rules.—The Board shall frame and transmit to each institution a system of rules and regulations for the purchase of such supplies as have been designated by them as perishable and as special supplies for educational institutions, and to which, conformity by all institutions is hereby required. [Id.]

Art. 665. Custodianship of State property.—The State Board of Control shall have charge and control of all public buildings, grounds and property of the State which may not be used by the different officers of the State government, and is the custodian of all public personal property, and is charged with the responsibility to properly care for and protect such property from damage, intrusion, or improper usage. [Acts 1884, p. 60; Acts 1919, p. 326; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 592.]

Art. 666. Shall sell property not needed.—All property belonging to the State, situated in the City of Austin, in any department, board or office of the State, when it shall become unfit for use or shall be no longer needed, shall be placed in the hands of the Board of Control, and the Board shall sell such property at public auction after advertising it for not less than five days in two newspapers, published in the City of Austin.

The money from the sale of such property, less the expense of advertising and selling, shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. The Board shall make a written report to the Comptroller after each sale, showing the articles received, each article sold, to whom sold and the price received. [Id.]

Art. 667. Charge of Capitol.—The Board, during the recess of the Legislature, shall have charge and control of the halls, chambers, and committee rooms of the State Capitol Building except as hereinafter provided. Before the assembling of each session of the Legislature, the Board shall prepare the different rooms for the use of the Legislature. [Id.]

Art. 668. Use of rooms in Capitol as bedrooms.—No room, apartment or office in the State Capitol Building shall be used at any time by any person as a bed room or for any private purposes whatever. This article shall not apply to the rooms occupied by the judges of the Supreme Court and the Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals on the third and fourth floors of the Capitol. [Id.]

Art. 669. Shall inspect Public Buildings, etc.—The Board shall frequently inspect all the public buildings and property of the State at the Capitol, and all other buildings and property of the State at such regular intervals as may be necessary for the Board to keep constantly informed of the condition of the same. [Id.]

Art. 670. Improvements and repairs.—The Board shall prepare plans and specifications for improvement and repairs to public buildings or property of the State, and shall superintend through its division of public buildings and grounds, the construction of said work when such supervision is not otherwise especially provided for by law. [Id.]

Art. 671. Inspection of plans and specifications.—The Board shall inspect all plans and specifications for the public buildings and the additions thereto to be constructed for the State before such plans and specifications are adopted. The Board may reject any and all such plans and specifications, and it shall have full and final superintendence over all buildings, structures or additions thereto that may be constructed for the State. [Id.]

Art. 672. Inspection of material and workmanship.—The Board shall carefully examine and inspect the material and workmanship of each building, structure and addition thereto built for the State out of brick or stone or substitutes therefor, and shall see that the same are constructed in accordance with the contract plans and specifications therefor. The work, workmanship and the material thereof shall be subject to the approval of the Board. [Id.]

Art. 673. Shall make needed improvements.—When needed improvements or repairs for respective buildings and offices are called to the attention of the Board by the heads of such departments or offices, the Board shall provide for such repairs or improvements, and they shall be made under its direction. [Id.]

Art. 674. Maintenance of sewers.—The Board shall give special attention to the effective maintenance of the State sewers and their connections in the use of the public buildings, and shall see that such sewerage and connections at all times be kept in a sanitary condition, and that the gas and water pipes with their connections and appliances are maintained in working order, ready at any time for immediate use. [Id.]

Art. 675. Copy of plans.—The Board shall prepare and keep in its offices a copy of the plans of all public buildings and improvements thereto under its charge showing the exact location of all water, gas and sewerage pipes. [Id.]

Art. 676. Shall report to Governor.—The Board shall biennially on December 1st make a report to the Governor showing all improvements and repairs that have been made with an itemized account of receipts and expenditures, and showing the condition of all property under its control with an estimate of needed improvements and repairs. [Id.]

Art. 677. State parks.—All State parks shall be under the control and custody of the Board, and all laws relating to the same shall be executed and administered by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 678. State cemetery.—The Board shall control, superintend and beautify the grounds of the State Cemetery. They shall preserve the grounds and everything pertaining thereto and protect the property from depreciation and injury. They shall procure and erect, at the head of each grave which has no permanent monument, an obelisk of marble upon which shall be engraved the name of the dead therein buried. [Id.]

Art. 679. Chief of division.—The Board may select a chief of its division of design, construction and maintenance who shall be an architect of not less than five years experience next preceding his selection in the actual design, superintendency and construction of buildings. [Acts 1919, p. 326.]

Art. 680. May employ experts.—The Board may employ experts of masonry, plumbing, electrical construction, landscape gardening, and such other experts as may be necessary, as assistants to the chief of this division. [Id.]

Art. 681. Shall design public buildings.—The Board, through the chief of such division, shall design all public buildings erected at the expense of the State where designing is not otherwise provided for by law or by the appropriation bill, but in no instance shall plans or designs be adopted by the head of any department, board, institution, school or prison system of the State unless such design and plans have been approved by the Board.

Art. 682. Shall design parks, etc.—The Board acting through such division shall design appropriate parks for each institution, school of the State, or prison system, which design shall be carried out by the head of such institution, school or prison system unless otherwise provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 683. Shall furnish schools expert, etc.—The Board through such division shall furnish any school, institution, department of the State, or prison system, on request, an expert to design and superintend any construction for landscape gardening provided for. [Id.]

Art. 684. Shall inspect plans, etc.—Where the contract price is twenty-five thousand dollars or more, the board shall inspect all plans and specifications for public buildings and structures and additions thereto that are to be constructed for and by the counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions of the State, and shall aid the commissioners court, city commission, board of aldermen, city manager, school board, committee board or other person or persons having in charge the preparation for construction of such public buildings, or structures or additions for such counties, cities, municipalities or other superintendence over all such buildings, structures or addition for such counties, cities, municipalities, and other political subdivisions, according to the terms of the contract. [Acts 1915, p. 253.]

Art. 685. Assistants appointed.—When the conditions require it, the Board may appoint not more than three assistants to the Chief of the Division of Design, Construction and Maintenance. Such assistants shall be skilled practical mechanics in the respective trades which enter into the construction of public buildings, and must have had at least ten years practical experience in their respective trade next prior to their appointment. [Id.]

Art. 686. Salaries of assistants.—The salary of each assistant shall not exceed eighteen hundred dollars per year, payable in equal monthly installments. They shall also receive their actual necessary travelling expenses while engaged in the actual performance of their duties. The Board shall not employ at any time more assistants than the fees which shall be collected under the provisions of this law shall be sufficient to pay. Expenses shall only be paid upon itemized sworn accounts, approved by the Board. The Board may discontinue the service of any assistant at its pleasure. [Id.]

Art. 687. One per cent to Treasurer.—The governing body of a city, county or political subdivision shall pay into the State Treasury one per cent of the estimated cost or contract price of each building or addition thereto to be constructed by such county, city or other political subdivision, immediately before beginning the work on such building, and the State Treasurer shall hold such sum for the purpose of defraying the salaries and other necessary expenses which may be incurred by the Board of Control in the performance of its duties as required by this Act, and such sum shall be paid out by the State Treasurer upon warrants issued by the Comptroller. [Id.]

CHAPTER SIX.

DIVISION OF ESTIMATES AND APPROPRIATIONS.

Art. 688. Estimates submitted.—The head of each department, school, institution, and of the prison system, and the head of any of the divisions or departments of government for which appropriations are made by the Legislature, shall submit to the State Board of Control, not later than January 1st. of each year preceding the regular biennial session of the Legislature, an itemized account of all items of expenses for the preceding two years, and an estimate of the appropriations required by such department, school or institution or by the prison system for the regular biennial appropriation made by the Legislature which estimate shall be submitted, itemized in such manner as the Board of Control may require. [Acts 1919, p. 327.]

Art. 689. Shall investigate estimates, etc.—Upon receipt of such estimates, the Board shall investigate and consider the same and give hearings to those who have submitted the same, and shall obtain information from every available source including the reports from its auditors and examiners. After such hearings, the Board shall make up an appropriation budget for the Legislature which shall be submitted not later than December 1st. of the year immediately preceding the meeting of the regular biennial session of the Legislature. Such budget shall be made at the expense of the Board of Control, and a copy thereof shall be mailed to each person who will be a member of the next Legislature, to the Governor and to the heads of each department, institution, and school of the State, and to the prison commission. A sufficient number of copies for the use of all the members of the House and Senate during the session of the Legislature shall be delivered to the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate. The Board shall also cause to be printed such extra copies for public distribution as they may deem necessary to be given to any person who calls or writes for same. [Id.]

Art. 690. Division chief.—The Board may employ a chief in the division of eleemosynary institutions who shall be an acting practicing surgeon, and who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of the profession for not less than ten years immediately preceding his appointment. Such physician shall be one of generally recognized eminence in his profession. [Acts 1919, p. 328.]

Art. 691. Superintendents elected.—The Board shall elect a superintendent for each institution under its control. Each superintendent shall have had special advantages and practical experience in the management of the class of persons committed to his charge. The term of office shall be two years, subject to removal by the Board for good cause. [Id.]

Art. 692. Oath of office.—Each superintendent shall take the official oath and within twenty days after receiving notice of appointment, enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of said office. Such bond and oath shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller, and shall not become void on first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the full penalty is recovered.

Art. 693. General powers and duties.—The Board of Control shall have power:

1. To make rules and regulations for the government of the State eleemosynary institutions, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws.

2. To appoint all officers and employes of such institutions and fix their salaries and wages.

3. To discharge, upon the recommendation of the superintendent, any officer, employe or inmate.

4. To appoint assistant physicians, stewards, matrons and apothecaries.

5. To make all contracts and necessary arrangements for the erection of buildings or improvements upon the grounds of the institutions.

6. To examine and approve or reject any vouchers or accounts of the superintendents.

7. It shall exercise a careful supervision over the general operations of such institutions and control the expenditures, and direct the manner in which their revenue shall be disbursed.

8. It may take and hold in trust any gift or devise of real or personal estate for the benefit of such institution and apply the same as the donor or devisor may direct.

9. The Board shall maintain an effective inspection of each institution placed under its control and management, for which purpose a representative of the Board shall visit each institution once every month, and members of the Board shall visit each of such institutions at least once a year, at the time and in the manner as the board may prescribe by its rules or by-laws.

10. The general result of such inspection, with suitable suggestions, shall be inserted in a report detailing the past year's operations and the actual state of the institutions, which the Board shall make to the Legislature in January of each alternate year, accompanied by the report of the medical superintendents and stewards.

11. The Board shall keep a book in which shall be noted by the member making the visit to the institution, the date of his visit, the condition of the house, patients, and premises with such remarks of commendation or censure as may be considered by the member as pertinent, and each member shall sign the same. [Acts 1883, p. 103; Acts 1919, p. 326-7: G. L. vol. 9. p. 49.]

Art. 694. Requisitions by the Board.—All moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the erection of buildings or the making of improvements upon the grounds of an institution shall be subject to requisition by the Board of Control for the amount actually necessary to pay for such building or improvements; but no money shall be paid except it be upon estimate of completed work furnished by the contractor and approved by the architect. In no case shall more than three-fourths of the actual cost of building or improvements be paid until the work is completed and accepted. [Acts 1899, p. 318; Acts 1919, p. 326-7.]

Art. 695. Rules and regulations.—The Board may adopt such regulations as it deems proper and necessary for the payment of expenses other than salaries of officers, the purchase of supplies and such other expenditures as may be regulated by law; but under such regulations no money appropriated shall be drawn from the Treasury except upon vouchers specifying in detail the exact purpose for which the same is needed, certified as true and correct by the superintendent and approved by the Board. [Acts 1883, p. 103; G. L. vol. 9, p. 49.]

Art. 696. [1309] Deposit.—Each corporation, company or individual, doing business in this State as a bond investment company, or company to place or sell bonds, certificates or debentures on the partial payment or installment plan, shall deposit with the State Treasurer, in cash or securities approved by said Treasurer, the sum of five thousand dollars, and shall deposit semi-annually with said Treasurer, in cash or securities, to be approved by said officer, ten per cent of all net premiums received until the sum deposited amounts to one hundred thousand dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 118; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1172.]

Art. 697. [1310] Default of deposit.—If any such domestic corporation, shall fail, for sixty days after its organization, to make with the State Treasurer the deposit required by this title, it shall be considered to have forfeited its charter; and the Attorney General shall upon information thereof, bring suit in the name of the State to have such charter or certificate of incorporation declared forfeited, and the court, upon so finding, shall declare such charter forfeited and appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be, under the order of the court, to distribute to the shareholders the assets of the company. The court shall out of such assets make equitable compensation for the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 698. [1311] Receiver.—In case of the failure of any such company, the district court of the county in which the principal office is located, upon the application of one or more shareholders, shall appoint a receiver for such company, whose duty it shall be to wind up its affairs, liquidate its debts, and distribute its assets, using therefor, upon the order of the court, the deposit previously made with the State Treasurer to secure the shareholders. Said Treasurer is authorized to pay out such deposit upon the warrant of the Comptroller in accordance with requisitions made upon the Comptroller by said receiver, approved by the court. [Id.]

Art. 699. [1312] Interchange of deposit.—On request of any such company, the State Treasurer is authorized to permit such company to interchange cash for the securities or securities for the cash deposited by such company under the provisions of this title with said Treasurer, such securities always to be approved by said Treasurer on the written advice of the Attorney General. [Acts 1901, p. 282.]

Art. 700. [1313] Return of deposit.—If any such company shall cease to do business in this State and satisfy the Comptroller and the Attorney General that it has no liabilities in this State, the Comptroller shall issue his warrant to the State Treasurer; and said Treasurer upon such warrant of the Comptroller, shall return to such company the cash or securities deposited by it under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

| Interest and sinking fund | 707 | Validity of certain bonds | 716 |
| Sale price | 708 | Exceptions | 717 |
| Examination of bonds, etc. | 709 | | |

Art. 701. [605] Shall hold election.—The bonds of a county or an incorporated city or town shall never be issued for any purpose unless a proposition for the issuance of such bonds shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters who are property tax payers of such county, city or town. [Acts 1899, pp. 103 and 258.]

Art. 702. Question submitted.—In all cases when the governing body of a county, city or town shall order an election for the issuance of the bonds of the county, city or town or of any political subdivision or defined district of a county, such body shall at the same time submit the question of whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of such county, city or town, political subdivision or defined district for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds and to create a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds.

Art. 703. [606] Submission of proposition.— The proposition to be submitted shall distinctly specify:

1. The purpose for which the bonds are to be issued;
2. The amount thereof;
3. The rate of interest;
4. The levy of taxes sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity;
5. The maturity date, or that the bonds may be issued to mature serially within any given number of years not to exceed forty. [Id. Acts 1899, p. 258; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 37.]

Art. 704. [607] Time of election, etc.—The time and place or places of holding said election shall be designated in the election order. The manner of holding the same shall be governed by the laws regulating general elections. [Acts 1899, p. 258.]

Art. 705. [606] Form of ballot.— All voters desiring to support the proposition shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words "For the issuance of bonds," and those opposed, the words "Against the issuance of bonds." [Id.]

Art. 706. [611] [878] Maturity dates.—Bonds may be issued to mature serially within any given number of years not to exceed forty, within the discretion of the governing body issuing the same. [Acts 1893, p. 112; G. L. vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 707. [616] [918a] Interest and sinking fund.—When the issuance of bonds has been authorized, the governing body of a county or town shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds at maturity. Such bonds shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent. [Acts 1893, p. 84; G. L. vol. 10, p. 514.]

Art. 708. [617] [918b] Sale price.—Bonds shall never be sold at less than their par value and accumulated interest, exclusive of commissions. [Id.]

Art. 709. [619] [918d] Examination of bonds, etc.—Before any bonds shall be offered for sale, the county judge or the mayor, as the case may be, shall forward the bonds to the Attorney General, together with a certified copy of the order or ordinance levying the tax to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of the county, city or town, including the series of bonds proposed, together with the amount of the assessed value of the property of the county, city or town for purposes of taxation as shown by the last official assessment of such county, city or town. Such county judge or mayor shall also furnish the Attorney General with any additional information he may require. [Id.]

Art. 710. [620] [918e] Registration.—When said bonds have been examined and certified by the Attorney General, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose. [Id.; Acts 1901, p. 16.]

Art. 711. [621] [469] [423] Special registration.—The Comptroller shall indorse his certificate of registration on each city bond so registered, and at the request of the mayor, give his certificate to the amount of bonds so registered to date. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. vol. 8, p. 506.]

Art. 712. [622] [918e] Certificate of approval.—The certificate of the Attorney General to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record. [Acts 1893, p. 84; Acts 1901, p. 16; G. L. vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 713. [623] [918e] Shall cancel old bonds.—In the case of funding or refunding bonds, the Comptroller shall not register the same until the original bonds are presented to him for cancellation. [Id.]

Art. 714. [624] [918e] Requisites of cancellation.—After registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall cancel the old, and deliver the new bonds to the proper party or parties. The old bonds may be presented for cancellation in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 715. [625] [918f] Evidence of validity.—Such bonds, after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General, and having been registered in the Comptroller's office, shall be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought into question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. In every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence of its validity, together with the coupons attached thereto. The only defense which can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. This article shall not be construed to give validity to any such bonds as may be issued in excess of the limit fixed by the Constitution, or contrary to its provisions. [Id.]

Art. 716. Validity of certain bonds.—No bonds or coupons legally and lawfully issued and signed by the duly authorized officers of any county, city, town, political subdivision, defined district or school district of this State shall ever be held invalid by reason of the fact that at the time of the actual delivery of such bonds to a purchaser, the respective persons who had signed such bonds or coupons may have been replaced in their respective offices by other persons after the signing of such bonds or coupons but before the delivery thereof. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 60.]

Art. 717. [608] Exceptions.—The first three articles of this chapter shall not apply to funding bonds issued, or to be issued, for the funding of any valid outstanding bonds of a county, town or city; nor to any bond issue for a sum less than two thousand dollars, when issued for the purpose of repairing buildings or structures for the building of which bonds are allowed to be issued. [Acts 1899, p. 258.]

Art. 718. [610] [877] County issues authorized.— After having been authorized as provided in Chapter One of this title, the commissioners court of a county may lawfully issue the bonds of said county for the following purposes:

1. To erect the county courthouse and jail, or either;
2. To purchase suitable sites within the county and construct buildings thereon to provide homes or schools for dependent and delinquent boys and girls or for either;
3. To establish county poor houses and farms in the county;
4. To purchase and construct bridges for public purposes within the county or across a stream that constitutes a boundary line of the county;
5. To improve and maintain the public roads in the county.

When the commissioners court shall deem it advisable to issue bonds for both the purchase or construction of bridges and improvement and maintenance of the public roads, both questions may be submitted and voted on as one proposition. [Acts 1903,

C. S. p. 9; Acts 1893, p. 112; Acts 1911, p. 204; Acts 1921, p. 98; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 719. [605] Requisite vote.—If a majority of the property tax paying voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of the proposition, then such bonds shall be thereby authorized and shall be issued by the commissioners court. [Acts 1899, pp. 103 and 258.]

Art. 720. [611] [878] Term of bonds.—All bonds issued under this chapter shall run not exceeding forty years, and may be redeemable at the pleasure of the county at any time after five years after the issuance of the bonds, or after any period not exceeding ten years, which may be fixed by the commissioners court. [Acts 1893, p. 112; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 721. [612] [879] Interest on bonds.—Such bonds shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually within the discretion of the governing body. Interest shall be evidenced by attached coupons. [Id.]

Art. 722. [613] [880] Limit of issue.—The issue of bonds under this chapter shall be based upon the taxable values of the county according to the last approved assessment, and shall be limited as follows: courthouse and jail bonds shall be limited to an amount not exceeding two per cent of said taxable values; bridge bonds, to an amount not exceeding one and one-half per cent of said taxable values. In determining the amount of the bonds of the respective kinds to be issued, previous indebtedness for said several purposes shall be considered. The total indebtedness of any county for the purposes provided in this chapter, shall not be increased by any issue of bonds to a sum exceeding five per cent of its said taxable values. [Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 97.]

Art. 723. [614] [881] Interest and sinking fund.—The commissioners court shall levy annual ad valorem taxes sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and create a sinking fund for their redemption; which shall not exceed for courthouse and jail bonds, one-fourth of one per cent; for bridge or road and bridge bonds, fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars. [Acts 1893, p. 112; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 724. [615] [882] Bonds to be signed, etc.—The bonds shall be signed by the county judge and countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer before delivery. The county treasurer shall keep an account of the amount of principal and interest paid on each, and no bond shall be sold at less than its par value and accrued interest, exclusive of commissions. [Id.]

Art. 725. [657] Substitution of bonds.—Where bonds have been legally issued, or may be hereafter issued for any purpose authorized in this chapter, new bonds in lieu thereof bearing the same or a lower rate of interest may be issued, in conformity with existing law, and the commissioners court may issue such bonds to mature serially or otherwise, not to exceed forty years from their date. [Acts 1901, p. 16; Acts 1893, p. 112; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 542.]

Art. 726. [627] Power to issue bonds, etc.—For the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof, any county, political subdivision or defined district of a county is authorized to issue its bonds, or otherwise lend its credit in an amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county or political subdivision or defined district and to levy and collect taxes to pay the interest upon such bonds and provide a sinking fund for their redemption. Such political subdivisions or defined district may include towns, villages or municipal corporations of the county. [Acts 1907, p. 251; Acts 1909, S. S. p. 271.]

Art. 727. [628] Election, prerequisites, etc.—Upon the petition of fifty resident property tax paying voters of any county or fifty or a majority of the property tax paying voters of a political subdivision or defined district of a county, the commissioners court of such county at any regular or special session thereof, shall order an election to be held in such county, or in such political subdivision or defined district thereof, to determine whether or not the bonds of such county, political subdivision or defined district thereof, shall be issued for the purpose of constructing, maintaining or operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof. [Id; Acts 1917, p. 462.]

Art. 728. [628] Order of election.—The election order and notice of election shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and shall either state the rate of interest thereon and the date of maturity thereof, or that the bonds may bear interest at a rate, and mature at such time, as may be fixed by the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 729. [628] Order for district election.—Where such election is ordered for a political subdivision or defined district of a county, such order and notice of election shall describe such political subdivision or defined district by its name and number, and shall describe the boundaries thereof as such boundaries are described and defined in the order of the court establishing such subdivision or district. [Id.]

Art. 730. [629] Notice of county election.—If the proposed issue of bonds and levy of taxes is for the entire county, notice of the election shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in such county, for four successive weeks. In addition thereto, for three weeks prior to said election, notice shall be posted at three public places in the county, one of which shall be the courthouse door. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 271.]

Art. 731. [629] Notice of district election.—If the proposed issue of bonds and levy of taxes is for a political subdivision or defined district of a county, notice of such election shall be given by publishing in a newspaper in the political subdivision or defined district for four successive weeks, and by posting notices in at least three public places in such subdivision or district and at the courthouse door of the county. If no newspaper is published therein, then such published notice shall be given in some newspaper published in the county. [Id.]

Art. 732. [630] Time and place of election.—The commissioners court shall determine the time and place or places of holding such election, not less than thirty days from the date of making the order of election. [Id.]

Art. 733. [630] Manner of holding election.—The manner of holding such election and canvassing and making returns thereof, shall be governed by the general laws of this State when not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 734. [631] If two-thirds vote for bonds.—If at such election two-thirds of the property tax paying voters cast their ballots in favor of the issuance of bonds, the commissioners court shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, issue said bonds on the faith and credit of said county, political subdivision or defined district, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 735. [632] Maturity dates, etc.—Such bonds shall mature not later than thirty years from their date, except as otherwise provided, with such options of redemption as may be fixed by the commissioners court, or may be issued to mature serially in approximately equal portions every year for not exceeding thirty years. Such bonds shall bear not more than five and one-half per cent interest per annum. [Id.; Acts 1917, p. 463.]

Art. 736. [632] Requisites of sale.—When so issued, after being certified and registered as provided by law, such bonds shall continue in the custody of the commissioners court of the county in which they were issued, and shall be by said court sold to the highest and best bidder for cash, either in whole or in parcels, at not less than their par value, and the purchase money therefor shall be placed in the county treasury of such county to the credit of the available road fund of such county, or of such political subdivision or defined district of such county, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 737. [633] General laws applicable.—The general laws of Texas relative to county bonds, not in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, shall apply to the issuance, approval, certification, registration, sale and payment of the bonds provided for in said provisions. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 271.]

Art. 738. [634] Tax levy.—Before such road bonds shall be put on the market, the county commissioners court of the county in which such election was held, shall levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity. [Id.]

Art. 739. [634] County assessments.—When for a whole county, the taxes herein authorized shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as now provided by law for the assessment and collection of other taxes. [Id.]

Art. 740. [634] District assessments.—When for a political subdivision or other defined district of a county, such taxes shall be assessed and collected as is now provided by law for the assessment and collection of common school district special local taxes. [Id.]

Art. 741. [634] Duty of assessor, etc.—The tax assessor and tax collector of the county wherein such taxes have been levied, shall assess and collect the same in the manner and at the time as other taxes; and when so collected, the tax collector shall pay them to the county treasurer as other taxes are paid. [Id.]

Art. 742. [634] [635] Duty of treasurer.—The county treasurer is custodian of funds collected by virtue of this law, and shall deposit them with the county depository as county funds, and pay the interest and principal as it becomes due on such bonds out of the funds so collected. [Id.]

Art. 743. [632] County disbursements.—When such funds belong to the entire county, they shall be paid out by the county treasurer upon warrants drawn on such funds, issued by the county clerk of the county, countersigned by the county judge, upon certified accounts approved by the commissioners court of the county. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 271; Acts 1917, p. 463.]

Art. 744. [632] District disbursements.—When such funds belong to a political subdivision or defined district of the county, they shall be paid out by the county treasurer upon warrants issued by the county clerk, upon certified accounts of the road superintendent of such road district and approved by the commissioners court of the county. [Id.]

Art. 745. [632] Expenses.—The expense incurred in surveying the boundaries of a political subdivision or defined district of a county, and other expenses incident to the issuance of bonds of a political subdivision or defined district, shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds of the district or subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 746. [637] Body corporate.—For the purpose of this subdivision of this chapter, any political subdivision of a county, or defined district, now or hereafter to be described and defined, accepting the provisions of this title and chapter, by voting such tax, is hereby made and created a body corporate which may sue and be sued in like manner as counties, and if cast in such suits, shall pay such judgments by the levy of taxes. [Acts 1925, p. 334.]

Art. 747. [638] Liability of district.—No road district created under the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter shall ever be held liable for torts. [Id.]

Art. 748. [636] District classification.—When road bonds have been issued for a political subdivision or defined district of a county, such subdivision or defined district shall be designated by the commissioners court by a "Road District Number," and its bonds shall be designated as "Road Bonds of District Number _____ of _____ County, Texas." [Id.]

Art. 749. [636] County classification.—When the road bonds have been issued by a county as a whole, such bonds shall be known and designated as "_____ County Special Road Bonds," taking the name of the county issuing the same. [Id.]

Art. 750. [639] Powers of commissioner.—The county commissioner in whose commissioners' precinct such political subdivision or defined district is located, shall be ex officio road superintendent of said road district with power to contract in behalf of such road district in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars, which shall be approved by the commissioners court. All contracts exceeding the sum of fifty dollars shall be awarded by the entire court. [Id.]

Art. 751. [640] Award of contracts.—Before the commissioners court shall let a contract for work in a county or road district, bids shall be invited by publishing an advertisement in a newspaper or newspapers published in such county, and outside of the county, if the commissioners court deem it advisable to do so. All contracts shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder. Any or all bids may be rejected. [Id.]

Art. 752. [641] Certain counties may avail.—Any county operating under a special road tax law may take advantage of any provision of this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 753. Compensation bond issue.—Where any, political subdivision or defined district of a county has voted a bond issue under the authority of this chapter or any special county road law, the bonds of the entire county, including such subdivisions or districts, may thereafter be voted, and such political subdivisions or defined districts first voting bonds may be fully compensated by the county in an amount equal to the amount of the previously authorized district bonds. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 90.]

Art. 754. Shall order election.—The commissioners court, upon the petition of two hundred and fifty resident property tax-paying voters of the county, shall order an election for the purpose of determining whether or not the bonds of the county shall be issued. Such petition and the order of election shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued. [Id.]

Art. 755. Construction bonds.—Where district bonds have been voted, and the bonds have not been issued before the date of the county election, should the county election authorize the issuance of county bonds, then the district bonds shall not be issued, or should the district bonds have been issued and not sold, or have been sold and the proceeds of such sale not have been expended at the time of the county election, then the proposition for county bonds shall be for the following purpose:

“The construction of district roads and the further construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, throughout such county.” [Id.]

Art. 756. Substitution of bonds.—Should the county election be favorable to the issuance of such bonds, then so much of the bonds so issued by the county as may be necessary to fairly and fully compensate such road district or districts shall be set aside by the commissioners court for that purpose. The same shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the construction, maintenance and operation of roads within such road district or districts as contemplated by the election or elections theretofore held within such district or districts, and any unsold district bonds shall thereupon be totally void. [Id.]

Art. 757. May exchange bonds.—If such district bonds have been sold, then an exchange of a like amount of county bonds may be made with the holder or holders of said district bonds, but if such exchange cannot be made, then so much of the county bonds as may be necessary, shall be transferred and placed to the credit of the interest and sinking fund account of such road district or districts. [Id.]

Art. 758. County purchase bonds.—Where a road district or districts have issued bonds and such bonds have been sold and the proceeds derived therefrom have been applied to the construction of roads within the district or districts, then such district roads may be merged into and become part of the general county system of public roads, and such road districts or district shall be fully and fairly compensated by the county in an amount equal to the value of the bonds outstanding against such road district or districts at the time the county bonds were issued, and the proposition for county bonds shall be for the following purpose:

“The purchase of district roads and the further construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, throughout such county.” [Id.]

Art. 759. Retirement of district bonds.—In such case, so much of the county bonds as may be necessary for that purpose shall be set aside and exchanged for a like amount of outstanding district bonds, or may be transferred to the credit of such road district or districts for the purpose of paying and retiring such district bonds as they mature. [Id.]

Art. 760. Purchase and Construction bonds.—If one or more road districts of a county have voted a bond issue, and the proceeds thereof, if any, have not been applied to the construction of roads within such district, and one or more other districts in such county have voted a bond issue and applied the proceeds of the sale of their bonds to the construction of roads, then the proposition for county bonds shall be for the following purpose:

“The construction and purchase of district roads, and the further construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, throughout such county.”

Art. 761. District taxes.—All district taxes levied and collected for the payment of interest and redemption of such district bonds shall cease and be dispensed with on the date of the county election authorizing the issuance of such county bonds. [Id.]

Art. 762. Exchange of bonds.—The exchange of county bonds for district bonds shall be made by duly acknowledged written agreement with the holder or holders of the district bonds, and upon an order of the commissioners court authorizing such exchange. Such county bonds, order and agreement shall be approved and certified by the Attorney General, whereupon such exchange shall be consummated, and such district bonds shall be destroyed. [Id.]

Art. 763. Redemption of bonds.—If such exchange cannot be effected, the commissioners court, as soon as practicable, shall deposit to the credit of the interest and sinking fund account of such road district or districts an amount of county bonds equal in value to the amount of outstanding district bonds. Such action shall be by an order duly entered upon the minutes of such court, and the order, together with the county bonds so to be deposited, shall be first approved and certified by the Attorney General. Such county bonds, together with all taxes accruing thereunder, shall be used by the commissioners court to pay the interest annually on such outstanding district bonds, and to provide for the retirement of such district bonds at maturity. [Id.]

Art. 764. Accrued sinking fund.—After such county bonds shall have been deposited or exchanged as provided in the two preceding articles, the sinking fund then on hand to the credit of such road district or districts shall be passed to the credit of the sinking fund of the county. [Id.]

Art. 765. Maturity of compensation bonds, etc.—So much of the county bonds as shall be used to compensate such road district or districts, shall be issued in the same denominations, bear the same rate of interest, have the same date or dates of maturity, and with similar options of payment, as the outstanding district bonds. [Id.]

Art. 766. Maturity of county bonds, etc.—The county bonds issued in excess of the amount required to compensate such road district or districts, shall be issued and sold and taxes collected therefor in the manner now provided by law, and may mature serially or otherwise, at the discretion of the commissioners court, and may run for a term not to exceed forty years, and shall bear not more than five and one-half per cent interest per annum. [Id.]

Art. 767. Proceeds of sale.—The proceeds of the sale of the county bonds provided for in the preceding article shall be expended by the commissioners court in constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, throughout such county. The necessary expense incident to the issuance of said bonds may be paid out of the proceeds from the sale thereof. [Id.]

Art. 768. Overlapping districts.—Where a political subdivision or defined district of a county has been established and has issued bonds, no political subdivision or defined district shall thereafter be created or established overlapping the same territory or embracing any part thereof while any of the bonds of such subdivision or district are outstanding and unpaid, unless the bonds of such existing subdivision or district are compensated for as provided in the succeeding articles of this subdivision. If the boundaries of any road district overlap or embrace any part of the territory of another road district or road districts theretofore established, such new district shall be invalid only as to that portion which overlaps part of the territory of the district or districts theretofore established, and the commissioners court shall pass an order accurately defining the boundaries of the subsequently created road district, in conformity to the boundaries of such contiguous road district or districts. [Acts 1917, p. 464; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 30.]

Art. 769. Consolidation of road districts.—The commissioners' courts of the several counties of this State may create within their counties road districts for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, paved and graveled roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, which may include one or more, or parts of one or more previously created road districts, and other territory, if deemed judicious, and which may exclude territory, as hereinafter permitted. Such districts when created shall be governed and controlled by the provisions and limitations of law applicable to other road districts, except as herein otherwise provided.

Art. 770. Outstanding bonds.—Any one or more political subdivisions or defined road districts included within the limits of a road district created under the provisions of this subdivision shall be fully and fairly compensated by the new district in an amount equal to the amount of district bonds outstanding against such subdivisions or districts and which shall be done in the form and manner prescribed for the issuance of county road bonds under subdivision 2 of this chapter, except the petition shall be signed by fifty or a majority of the resident property taxpaying voters of the new district, and the bonds proposed to be issued shall be for the purchase or construction of roads in the included district or districts, and the further construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, within and for the new district. [Id.]

Art. 771. Excluded from district.—If any road district, a portion of which is proposed to be incorporated into a new district, should embrace the whole, or any part of any levee improvement district, drainage district, or any other improvement district created under any law passed pursuant to Section 52, Article 3, of the Constitution of this State, the territory covered by such other district may be excluded from the district sought to be created, but except as herein specifically permitted, no fractional part of a previously created road district shall be included within the limits of a road district created under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 772. Powers of district.—Each road district created hereunder shall bear the name of the county in which it is located, and shall be definitely numbered, which number may be that of the road district incorporated therein which was first created, and a district so established shall become and be a body corporate with all the powers, rights and privileges conferred by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 773. Authorized indebtedness.—Any county in this State, or any political subdivision or defined district thereof, heretofore or hereafter created, acting under the provisions of section 52 of article 3 of the Constitution, may upon a vote of two-thirds of the qualified voters who are resident property taxpayers thereof at an election held to determine the matter, create indebtedness for the purpose of maintaining the roads of such county or political subdivision or defined district to an amount which, in addition to other indebtedness incurred under the provisions of this law, or any other statute passed pursuant to said section of the Constitution, will not exceed one-fourth of the last assessed valuation of the real property situated in such county or political subdivision or defined district. [Id.]

Art. 774. Ordering election.—Upon the presentation to the commissioners' court of a petition of fifty, or a majority of property taxpaying voters, residing within the territory therein described, situated in such county, and including a previously created road district, and other territory; or two or more such districts, with or without additional territory; or one or more such districts or portions of districts as herein permitted, with or without additional territory, praying that a road district be created of such territory for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, it shall be the duty of such commissioners' court, at a regular or special session to order an election within and for such territory to determine whether a road district, for the purposes specified, shall be formed as prayed for.

Art. 775. Fixing time and place. The commissioners' court shall, in its order, fix the time and place, or places, for holding such election, which shall not be held within less than thirty days from the time of making such order. At least one place shall be designated for the election in each road district proposed to be incorporated into the district to be formed, and the court shall name a manager and two clerks for each polling place. The manner of holding such election, except as above, and hereinafter otherwise directed, shall be governed by the General Laws of this State, and returns of said election shall be made as is provided by law for the making of returns of elections to determine whether or not county bonds shall be issued.

Art. 775a. Notice of election.—Notice of such election shall be given by publication in a newspaper published within the territory described in the petition, if there be one, and if not, then in a newspaper published in the county in which the territory to be affected is situated, for four weeks prior to said election, and posting notices thereof in at least three public places within the territory to be affected, such posting to be for three successive weeks prior to such election. The notices herein provided may be posted by any adult person, and the affidavit of the newspaper publisher, or his agent, with copy of publication attached showing publication, and the affidavit of the person or persons posting notices of election showing posting, shall be conclusive of the facts stated in such affidavits.

Art. 775b. Description of district.—In the petition and notice of election, it shall be sufficient to describe previously formed districts by reference to their number and the dates of their creation, and the number of the volume and its pages of the minutes of the commissioners' court in which is recorded the orders creating the same, and to describe other territory, if any, in a manner which will reasonably identify the same.

Art. 775c. Ballot.—Those desiring to vote at an election ordered under this Act shall have written or printed on their ballots, "For the proposed new district," and those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots, "Against the proposed new district," and no person shall be permitted to vote at such election who is not a resident property tax paying voter of the territory sought to be incorporated in the proposed new district.

Art. 775d. Declaring result.—The commissioners' court of the county shall, as soon as practicable after an election is held under this Act canvass the returns thereof, and declare the result of such election, and if it shall appear to such court that a two-thirds majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the creation of the proposed new district, it shall be the duty of said court to declare such result and by its order establish a road district as prayed for, and to give to the same its proper name, which shall include the name of the county, and a number, which may be the number of the road district incorporated therein which was first created, and a district so established shall become and be a body corporate with all the powers, rights and privileges conferred by this Act, or any other law, upon districts created for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turn pikes, or in aid thereof, and shall be governed in matters not herein provided for, by the general road law.

Art. 775e. Taxation.—The creation, or reformation, of road districts under this Act shall not impair the outstanding obligations of any district affected, nor shall it release any liability of territory excluded in the formation of a district under this Act, but it shall be the duty of the commissioners' court wherein is situated any such excluded territory to levy taxes, and cause to be assessed and collected, upon the taxable property within such new district and such excluded territory, at rates sufficient annually to raise the necessary funds to meet and discharge said outstanding indebtedness, and all taxes assessed and collected for such purposes shall be applied to the payment of such indebtedness.

Art. 775f. Validating.—All districts heretofore created under the Act hereby amended, whether by consolidation of one or more districts, with or without additional territory, or by the exclusion from an existing district of territory permitted by said Act or this Act to be excluded, are hereby validated, as well as all bonds voted in such districts and such bonds, if not already issued, may be issued as if voted under this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 335.]

Art. 776. Tax levy.—If such election results in favor of the proposition submitted, the commissioners court may incur indebtedness for or on behalf of such county, political subdivision or defined district for the maintenance of the roads thereof to the amount voted, until authority so to do is revoked, modified or increased by another election, which may not be held until the expiration of five years from the date of the election authorizing such maintenance tax, and which shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision governing the election authorizing such tax. The commissioners court, while such authority exists, shall annually levy, and cause to be assessed and collected, taxes upon the taxable property of such county, political subdivision or defined district at rates sufficient to produce the specific annual sum voted, or at the specific rate voted, or so much, or at such rate, as will raise funds sufficient to satisfy the maintenance indebtedness created, or intended to be created, for the current year, the proceeds of which taxes shall be used for the purposes named. [Id.]

Art. 777. Maintenance warrants.—The amount to be raised by taxation for maintenance purposes may be anticipated during any current year by the issuance of warrants against the same, which may bear interest at a rate not to exceed eight per cent per annum from their date and be payable on or before the tenth day of April of the year next succeeding the year of issuance, which warrants may be disposed of to raise maintenance funds, or the same may be used in payment of maintenance work, but the amount of warrants to be issued in any one year, in anticipation of maintenance funds, shall never exceed ninety per cent of the amount of such funds as would be raised by taxation levied during such year. [Id.]

Art. 778. Certain counties may avail.—Any county operating under a special road law may avail itself of all the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 779. Investment of sinking fund.—The commissioners courts may invest sinking funds accumulated for the redemption and payment of any bonds issued by such county, political subdivision or defined district thereof, in bonds of the United States, of Texas, or any county in this State; or in bonds of the Federal Farm Loan Bank System. No such bonds shall be purchased which, according to their terms, mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Acts 1917, p. 464.]

Art. 780. Interest on investments.—All interest on such investments shall be applied to the sinking fund to which it belongs, and the use of such funds for any other purpose shall be considered a diversion thereof and punished as provided by article 94 of the Penal Code. [Id.]

Art. 781. Cancellation of bonds.—Should any bonds issued by a county or political subdivision or defined district of a county not be sold, then the commissioners court may upon its own motion, or upon petition of two-thirds of the qualified property tax paying voters thereof as shown by the records of the county tax collector, shall order an election to determine whether or not such bonds shall be cancelled. Such election shall be ordered, held and conducted in the same form and manner as that at which such bonds were originally authorized. [Id.]

Art. 782. Duty of commissioners court.—The result of such election, whether favorable or not, shall be duly declared by the commissioners court, and the returns thereof and the result duly entered of record in the minutes of such court. If a two-thirds majority vote has been given in favor of such cancellation, the commissioners court shall cancel and burn all such bonds, and forward to the Comptroller a certified copy of the minutes showing such destruction and cancellation. The Comptroller shall thereupon cancel the registration of said bonds on the records of his office. [Id.]

Art. 783. Readjustment of taxes.—When said bonds have been destroyed, the commissioners court shall readjust the existing tax levies in such county, subdivision or district by an amount equal to that levied or proposed to be levied for the interest and sinking fund accounts of such bonds, so as to conform to the conditions resulting from the cancellation of said bonds. [Id.]

Art. 784. Refund of taxes.—After deducting the compensation of the tax assessor, tax collector and county treasurer, and any other claims properly chargeable against such taxes, the unexpended part of all taxes that have been collected with a view to the sale of such bonds so destroyed shall be refunded to the taxpayers ratably on the order of the commissioners court. The county treasurer shall take and file proper receipts for all sums so refunded. [Id.]

Art. 785. [642] May order election.—The county commissioners court of any county having a population in excess of fifty thousand inhabitants according to the last United States census, may in their discretion, order an election to determine the propriety of a bond issue to provide for the construction and maintenance of causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches across any river and bottoms within the limits of such county, irrespective of any municipal boundaries. [Acts 1909, p. 46.]

Art. 786. [643] Survey and estimate.—The commissioners court of such county shall, prior to ordering any such election, provide for preliminary surveys and estimates for such work, and shall prescribe in the election order the amount and terms of such bond issue. [Id.]

Art. 787. [644] Submission of resolution.—The resolution providing for such election shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court and shall be submitted to the property owning qualified voters of said county as a proposition at a regular or special election which may be ordered by said court for that purpose. If a majority of the votes cast shall be for such resolution, the same shall be deemed to be adopted. [Id.]

Art. 788. [645] Conduct of election.—Such election shall be governed in all respects by the laws governing elections in this State, and the returns made and canvassed in the same manner, and the results declared by proclamation of the county judge of said county. Such proclamation shall be posted in at least three public places in said county, and at the option of the county judge, published in some newspaper in said county. [Id.]

Art. 789. [647] Ballot.—Those desiring to vote for the resolution shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For the Resolution to Issue Bonds to....." (here insert purpose of the proposed bond issue as set forth in said resolution), and those desiring to vote against the resolution shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "Against the Resolution to Issue Bonds to....." (here insert such purpose of the proposed bond issue, as set forth in said resolution). Such ballots shall be written or printed on plain white paper, with black ink or pencil, and shall contain no distinguishing mark or device, except as above provided. [Id.]

Art. 790. [648] Issue of bonds.—If the resolution be voted, the commissioners court, under the supervision and direction of the Comptroller, shall prepare and execute the bonds of the county accordingly. They shall bear interest not exceeding five per cent payable annually, and be redeemable in not less than five nor more than forty years from the date thereof. The time of maturity shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Such bonds shall be registered or enrolled as other county bonds, and shall not be sold or negotiated at less than their par value. [Id.]

Art. 791. [648] Limit of issue.—In no case shall bonds be issued under this chapter for a greater sum than that a levy of five cents of the one hundred dollars property valuation of said county will yield sufficient revenue to pay the interest as it accrues, and create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of such bonds at maturity. [Id.]

Art. 792. [649] Tax levy.—When bonds are issued under the provisions of this chapter, the commissioners court shall levy an annual ad valorem tax on all property of the county, which shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on said bonds and creating a sinking fund to pay the principal. [Id.]

Art. 793. [650] Court may contract.—The commissioners court may contract with individuals, firms or corporations for the use of such causeways, viaducts, bridges and approaches, or constructing and maintaining and using tracks, telegraph lines or other such privileges, but shall make no exclusive nor preferential contracts, and before executing any such contracts, shall give notice by posting at the courthouse door and in three other public places in said county the full terms and nature of such proposed contracts. [Id.]

Art. 794. [651] Maintenance fund.—Revenues that may accrue from any contract or contracts so made may be applied to the maintenance and repair of such structure or structures; and such court may make adequate provision for such maintenance and repair. In the event the revenues accruing from the use of any such structure shall exceed the expenditures for its maintenance and repair, such excess shall be applied to the road and bridge fund of the county. [Id.]

Art. 795. [652] Rules and regulations.—The commissioners court may make rules for the use of any structure erected under the provisions of this chapter, and provide for the enforcement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 796. [660] In case of storms, etc.—Any county or any city incorporated under the general laws which may suffer great destruction or damage of property or depreciation of the value of taxable property from storms, floods or other disasters, may fund, refund, compromise or settle its valid outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness. [Acts 1901, S. S. p. 18.]

Art. 797. [661] Regulation of bonds.—For such purpose, the bonds of the county or city may be issued by the governing body without a vote of the tax payers in denominations of not less than one hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars each, for an amount sufficient to consummate such compromise or settlement, not to exceed the amount unpaid on the outstanding indebtedness. Such bonds may be exchanged for bonds or other evidences of outstanding indebtedness of such county or city, or may be sold and the proceeds applied in the purchase of outstanding bonds or the payment of outstanding floating indebtedness, and may be exchanged or sold from time to time in such amounts as may be required for refunding said outstanding bonds and funding or settling said floating debts. [Id.]

Art. 798. [662] Order of commissioners court.—Before issuing such bonds, and not later than two years after the disaster, the governing body of the county or city shall, by an order or ordinance, entered on the minutes, recite the nature and date of such disaster, the taxable value of the remaining property subject to taxation in said city or county as shown by the first approved assessment roll of such county or city made after such disaster, and the amount of bonds that will be sufficient to fund, refund or settle the outstanding bonded and floating indebtedness of such county or city, stating also, the amount of new bonds that will be required for refunding or settling each outstanding issue of bonds, and the amount of new bonds necessary to fund or settle the outstanding indebtedness charged against each particular fund. [Id.]

Art. 799. [663] Classification of issues.—Separate classes of bonds shall be issued to refund or settle, respectively, each separate issue of outstanding bonds, and to fund or settle, respectively, the indebtedness against each particular fund. [Id.]

Art. 800. [664-5-6] Apportionment of taxes.—The court or council shall determine and record in the minutes the proportion of the several annual ad valorem taxes authorized by law that can be applied, respectively, in payment of the interest and sinking funds of the several classes of bonds without depriving the city or county of the funds which will be required to meet the necessary current annual expenses of such county or city. A levy in proportion to such excess or excesses beyond the amount required for current annual expenses may be made to pay the interest and sinking fund, respectively, of the said several classes of bonds. The constitutional limitation as to the rates and purposes of the several taxes shall not be exceeded nor disregarded. [Id.]

Art. 801. [667 to 672] Requisites of bonds.—The court, or city council, shall also by order or ordinance, prescribe the form and the classes of said bonds, and provide for the issuance thereof, at such dates as may be expedient. Such bonds may be made payable at any date deemed expedient by the commissioners court or city council, not later than forty years from the date of the execution, and provision may be made for their redemption after five years, or after such longer period as may be deemed expedient. Said bonds shall bear interest as stipulated and specified in coupons attached thereto, not to exceed four per cent per annum. Said bonds shall be issued under and subject to all requirements of chapter one of this title, which are not in conflict with the requirements and provisions of this chapter, and shall be signed by the county judge or mayor, and attested by the county or city clerk, as the case may be. [Id.]

Art. 802. [673-4-5-6-7] Registration and sale.—When examined and certified by the Attorney General, said bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller without requiring the old bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness to be presented to him for cancellation. Said bonds shall be delivered to the county or city treasurer, and said officer shall register said bonds in a book kept for that purpose, and said bonds may thereafter be sold or exchanged for not less than their face value and accrued interest. Before delivery of the bonds, the date of the sale or exchange thereof shall be indorsed and certified on the bonds by the county judge or mayor, whose signature shall be attested by the county or city clerk. [Id.]

Art. 803. Power to issue.—For the purpose of constructing and maintaining pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for irrigation purposes or in aid thereof, or purchasing any such improvements already existing and adding thereto and paying incidental expenses connected therewith, counties may issue bonds not to exceed one fourth of the assessed valuation of its real property and levy and collect necessary taxes to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. [Acts 1923, p. 264.]

Art. 804. Order for election.—Upon the petition of fifty or more resident property taxpaying voters of a county for an election upon the question of issuing bonds under the provisions of Section 52, Article 3, or Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, the commissioners court shall at a regular or special session thereof, order an election to determine whether or not the bonds of such county shall be issued in an amount not to exceed one fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such county for the purposes stated in the preceding article, and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county for the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds and providing a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. [Id.]

Art. 805. Amount of bonds, etc.—The amount of bonds proposed to be issued, with the rate of interest thereon not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, and the date of maturity, shall be stated in the petition, in the order for the election, and in the notice therefor; or such order and notice may provide that the bonds may bear interest at a rate to be fixed by the commissioners court, not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, and that the bonds may mature at such times as may be fixed by the commissioners court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed forty years from their date. [Id.]

Art. 806. Limit of indebtedness.—Where such county contains any district or districts organized under Section 52 of Article 3, or Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, the percentage of indebtedness of any such district based upon its assessed valuation of real property in the district, together with the percentage of the proposed county indebtedness based upon the assessed valuation of the real property of the county as shown by the last approved assessment rolls of such district and of the county, shall never exceed in any one or more of such districts, or in the county, twenty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of real property of such district or districts, or of such county. [Id.]

Art. 807.—Election.—These rules shall govern the conduct and holding of such election:

1. Only resident property taxpayers who are qualified electors of the county shall be allowed to vote in such election, and a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted thereat.

2. The ballots to be used at such election shall have written or printed thereon the words "For the issuance of the bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof," and "Against the issuance of the bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." The commissioners court shall furnish the ballots for each of the polling places.

3. The election order shall fix the time of holding said election and shall designate the polling place or places in each voting precinct in the county where said election shall be held, and shall name a presiding judge, a judge and two clerks for each polling place, or may name more election officers for any polling place if the court considers it necessary.

4. A copy of the election order signed by the county judge shall serve as proper notice of said election, and one copy shall be posted at each polling place and one at the courthouse door for at least full twenty days prior to the date of the election, and shall also be published in a newspaper published in said county for three consecutive weeks prior to the date of said election, the first publication to be full twenty-one days before the date of the election.

5. The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of this State, except as otherwise herein provided.

6. Immediately after the election the presiding judge at each polling place shall make returns of the result of the election showing the total number of votes cast, the number cast for and against the proposition, and he shall deliver such returns to the county clerk who shall keep them in a safe place and deliver them to the commissioners court, who shall at a regular or special session, canvass said returns and declare the result of said election by order entered upon the minutes of the court. [Id.]

Art. 808. Order of issuance.—If the issuance of the bonds and levy of the tax have been so adopted, the commissioners court, at a regular term thereof, shall make and enter an order directing the issuance of the bonds authorized, and in said order shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest thereon, payable at such place or places as provided in said order, and to redeem such bonds at maturity. [Id.]

Art. 809. Additional bond issue.—If bonds have been authorized to be issued, or have been issued as herein provided, and if the commissioners court of such county shall consider it necessary to make any modifications in any of the proposed improvements, or shall determine to purchase or construct further or additional improvements and issue additional bonds, or purchase additional property in order to carry out the purposes of the project, or to best serve the interests of the county, such findings shall be entered of record, and an order for an election shall be entered and notice thereof given, and such election shall be held and the result thereof declared, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and if the result of such election be in favor of the issuance of such additional bonds, the commissioners court may order such additional bonds to be issued in the manner herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 810. May issue notes.—Whenever a county shall have constructed or purchased improvements and the same shall be damaged so that it may be necessary to raise funds to repair such damage, the county may issue bonds to raise such funds in the manner provided in this chapter, or may issue its notes therefor. Such notes shall run not to exceed twenty years and bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum payable annually or semi-annually. [Id.]

Art. 811. Shall order election.—Before such notes are issued, the commissioners court shall order an election and give notice thereof, as required for elections upon bond issues, stating the purpose for which they are to be issued, the time they are to run, the rate of interest, and the time and place or places of election. [Id.]

Art. 812. Ballot, etc.—The ballots for such election shall have written or printed thereon "For the issuance of notes," and "Against the issuance of notes." Such election shall be held and returns made and canvassed as provided herein for bond elections. If a two-thirds majority of those voting at such election voted in favor of the issuance of such notes, the commissioners court may issue and sell same for the benefit of said county and the purpose or purposes for which authorized. [Id.]

Art. 813. Requisites of issuance.—The commissioners court shall pass and enter an order directing and authorizing the issuance of the notes, and in said order provisions shall be made for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the current interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of the principal at maturity. Said notes may be issued to mature serially or otherwise, as may be provided in the election order and notice of election. The limitation of indebtedness hereinbefore provided shall also apply to the issuance of such additional bonds and such notes. [Id.]

Art. 814. Issuance of bonds and notes.—All bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the county, and such bonds shall be designated “_____County Water Improvement Bonds,” and such notes shall be designated “_____County Water Improvement Notes,” and shall be signed by the county judge, countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer, and the seal of the commissioners court shall be impressed thereon, and may be in such denominations as may be fixed by the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 815. May exchange bonds.—The commissioners court may exchange bonds for property or in payment of the contract price for work to be done in the construction of said improvements. [Id.]

Art. 816. Sale of bonds and notes.—The commissioners court shall sell or exchange such bonds and notes on the best terms and for the best obtainable price, not less than their par value. When the bonds or notes are sold, the proceeds shall immediately be delivered to the county treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 817. Other counties may avail.—Any county desiring to issue bonds in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall bring an action in the district court of such county, or in the district court of Travis County, to determine the validity of such bonds in the manner provided for the validation of Water Improvement District Bonds in Chapter 2 of the Title “Water” and each provision of said chapter relative to such suit, the duties of the Attorney General and Comptroller, the judgment to be rendered, the effect of such judgment, and other matters connected therewith, shall apply to the validation of such county bonds. [Id.]

Art. 818. Special powers.—Counties operating under the provisions of this chapter are hereby empowered to own and construct reservoirs, dams, levees, wells, canals and other improvements, and to acquire the necessary rights-of-way and other lands by purchase or by condemnation in the manner provided for the condemnation of right-of-way by railroad companies, and to do, construct, purchase and acquire all other works and improvements required for the proper and efficient irrigation of the lands in such county. [Id.]

Art. 819. Special fund.—The commissioners court shall annually levy a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on such bonds and to pay the principal thereof as the same becomes due, and said tax shall be assessed and collected as other county taxes, and when collected shall constitute a special fund and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose than in this article provided. [Id.]

Art. 820. Control of system.—The commissioners court shall have and exercise the control and management of the affairs and operation of the irrigation system of such county to the same extent and in the manner provided in Chapter 2 of the Title "Water," as conferred upon the directors of Water Improvement Districts, and said court shall exercise all of the powers relative to the control, management, affairs and operation of such county irrigation system as such directors have under the provisions of said chapter, and all the provisions of said chapter relative to the control, management, affairs and operation of Water Improvement Districts shall apply to the control, management, affairs and operation of such county irrigation system. [Id.]

Art. 821. Other improvements.—Any county authorized under the provisions of this chapter, may issue bonds for the improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflow and for all necessary drainage purposes in connection therewith, and bonds proposed to be issued for the combined purposes stated in this chapter, or for any two of said purposes, shall be treated and deemed as for one purpose and may be voted upon as one proposition. [Id.]

Art. 822. What counties may avail.—The terms of this chapter shall apply to such counties as may have been relieved from the payment of taxes for a term of years by act of the Legislature under and by virtue of the provisions of Section 10, Article 8, of the State Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 823. May issue bonds.—Any city or town may issue its coupon bonds for such sum as it may deem expedient for the purpose of the construction or purchase of public buildings, waterworks, sewers, and other permanent improvements within the city limits, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city or town. This article includes building sites and buildings for the public free schools and institutions of learning within such cities and towns which assume the exclusive control of their public free schools and institutions of learning. Such bonds shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum and shall become due and payable serially or otherwise not to exceed forty years from their date and may be payable at such place as may be fixed by ordinance. [Acts 1921, p. 13.]

Art. 824. Limitations.—The limitations now provided by law upon the bonds that such cities may issue shall not apply to bonds issued under this law. [Id.]

Art. 825. Signature.—All bonds issued by a city or town shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the city secretary. [Id.]

Art. 826. Shall provide for tax.—The governing body, when the issuance of bonds has been authorized, shall provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest and provide a sinking fund for the payment of such bonds and all other outstanding bonds of such city or town issued since September 25, 1883. [Id.]

Art. 827. [890] [465] [419] Funding of debt.—The governing body shall pass all necessary ordinances to provide for funding the whole or any part of the existing debt of the city or any future debt by cancelling the evidences thereof, and issuing to the holders or creditors, notes, bonds or treasury warrants, with or without coupons, bearing interest at any annual rate not to exceed six per cent. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 828. [891] [471] May compromise debts.—The governing body, by their resolution or ordinance, by referring to this law and adopting the same, are authorized to compromise and fund any existing valid indebtedness issued by the city or town, whether bonded or floating, and the coupons due upon the bonded debt. For such purpose, they are authorized to issue new bonds in denominations of not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, in their discretion, with interest coupons payable annually, to become due and payable in not exceeding thirty years, and to bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum. [Acts 1887, p. 50; G. L. vol. 9, p. 848.]

Art. 829. [892] [472] Exceptions.—No compromise shall be made by which any debt shall be funded when such debt is barred by the statutes of limitations. [Id.]

Art. 830. [896] [479] Liquidation board.—Whenever a compromise of the debt of any city or town shall be so affected, and the bonds are delivered to the creditors, a board of liquidation consisting of five reputable citizens of such city or town shall forthwith be appointed and organized in the manner following:

1. One each shall be appointed by the mayor of the city or town, the city council, the Governor, any district judge of the district in which such city or town is situated, and the holders of said indebtedness or a majority of them, and each shall fill vacancies in the office of their respective appointee in said board.

2. In case of failure, neglect or refusal of any or all of said officers to appoint a member of said board or to fill vacancies therein, then the holders of said bonds or any one or more of them may apply to any district court of the district in which such town or city is situated, or to the judge thereof in vacation, for the appointment of the members necessary to complete said board, and said court or judge shall make such appointment.

3. The members of said board shall serve without compensation, and shall hold office for four years. Each member of said board shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of his office. A majority of said board shall be a quorum to transact business. [Id.]

Art. 831. [896] [479] Liquidation.—These rules shall govern the handling and disposition of all moneys coming under the control of the board as herein provided:

1. Said board shall select some solvent depository for such moneys, for whose acts they shall be responsible, and shall, in writing, signed by them, notify the tax collector of said city or town, of said selection.

2. Said collector shall thereupon deposit at the close of business of each day one-half of all moneys collected by him for the twenty-four hours next preceding, on account of all the taxes of whatever nature levied by said city or town, with the said depository, whose receipt therefor shall be an acquittance of said collector.

3. The collector shall be liable on his official bond for any failure to promptly make such deposits and for ten per cent per month of such amounts in addition thereto as penalty, which sums may be recovered by said board in a suit therefor, which they shall promptly institute.

4. Whenever the total of said deposits shall equal the annual interest on said bonds, it shall be lawful for the collector to discontinue said deposits until he shall be notified in writing by said board that said deposits are reduced below that sum.

5. Said funds shall be subject to said board and shall be applied by it to the payment, first of the interest on the said bonds as they mature, secondly, to the payment of the principal thereof, and thirdly, to the payment of interest of any valid bonds issued by such city and not embraced in any issue of bonds issued under the provisions of this law, and fourthly, to the payment of the principal of bonds of the character last referred to on the maturity of the same.

6. The members of said board shall be liable for the prompt payment of interest out of said funds, and in case of failure or refusal, they shall in addition be liable to ten per cent of the amount of such interest as damages to be recovered by any person aggrieved thereby.

7. Whenever there shall be in the hands of such depository a sufficient sum to pay two per cent of the principal of said bonds in addition to one year's interest, said board shall use the same in the purchase of outstanding bonds as provided by law, and such bonds when so purchased shall be returned to the city council together with all coupons which have been paid.

8. Expenses incurred by the board in advertising for purchasers of bonds shall be paid out of said funds.

9. Said board shall make semi-annual reports to the city council of its acts and of all receipts and disbursements of money coming under their control. [Id.]

Art. 832. [897] [477] State tax laws.—Whenever such compromise shall be entered into and accepted in good faith, either by the holders of the present bonds or by any persons purchasing new bonds, as herein provided, all laws now or hereafter in force for the assessment and collection of State taxes shall also be in force and apply to the assessment and collection of taxes levied to meet the interest and sinking fund of said new bonds; and in any suit instituted to enforce the payment of said bonds or coupons against any such city or town, no defense either in law or equity, shall be admitted in any court of this State, except such as originated upon, or subsequent to, the issuance of such new bonds. [Id.]

Art. 833. [900] [473] Payment of taxes with bonds.—The new bonds thus issued by a city or town shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes levied by such city or town. The taxes levied to pay such new bonds may be paid with the bonds or coupons thereof if matured. Said coupons and bonds shall only be received in payment of taxes which have been levied for the purpose of paying such bonds and coupons. [Id.]

Art. 834. [901] [481] Further compromise.—Cities and towns may compromise and liquidate their indebtedness and issue bonds therefor under such conditions as are prescribed in this title conferring such authority on counties, cities and towns, and as may be otherwise provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 835. [883] [482] Harbor bonds.—When necessary therefor, cities which border on the Gulf of Mexico may issue the coupon bonds of such cities to bear interest at not exceeding five per cent per annum for the purpose of improving or aiding the improvement of their harbors and the bars at the entrance thereof in such amounts as may be deemed necessary not to exceed the limit of indebtedness fixed by their respective charters, and may appropriate for such purpose money out of any surplus fund which may be on hand at any time, and when any bonds may be on hand, the issuance of which has been made for other purposes and may not be needed for such purpose. Such surplus bonds may be sold and the proceeds used for such improvements. [Acts 1883, p. 48; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 354.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

SINKING FUNDS—INVESTMENTS, ETC.

|-----------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|---------|
| | Article | | Article |
| Investments | 836 | Penalties | 840 |
| Secondary investments | 837 | Recovery | 841 |
| Annual report | 838 | Federal Farm Loan Bonds | 842 |
| Disbursements | 839 | | |

Art. 836. [698] Investments.—The legally authorized governing body of any county, city or town, or the trustees of any school district or school community, may invest their respective sinking funds for the redemption and payment of the outstanding bonds of such county, city or town, or community, in bonds of the United States, war-savings certificates, and certificates of indebtedness issued by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and in bonds of Texas, or any county of this

State, or of any incorporated city or town. No such bonds shall be purchased which, according to their terms, mature at a date subsequent to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created. [Acts 1905, p. 25; Acts 1918, 4th C. S., p. 164.]

Art. 837. [698] Secondary investments.—In the event a governing body is unable to purchase securities of the character mentioned in the preceding article, which mature at a date prior to the time of maturity of the bonds for the payment of which such sinking fund was created, then they may invest such funds in the bonds of any school district or school community authorized to issue bonds, under the same restrictions as provided in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 838. [699] Annual report.—The county treasurer of each county and the treasurer of each city shall make an annual report to the State Comptroller on the first day of August, showing the condition of the interest and sinking fund for each set of bonds of said county or city outstanding on the thirtieth day of June of each year, which said report shall be made under oath, and shall show:

1. The outstanding bonded indebtedness of said city or county, giving date when issued, the amount of each set of bonds, the rate of interest they bear, and when they mature;
2. The tax levy in force to provide for the interest and sinking fund on each set of said bonds;
3. The amount on hand to the credit of the interest and sinking fund of each set of said bonds, showing whether in cash or securities;
4. The amount received by the said fund since last report, and from what source;
5. The disbursements from said fund since last report, and for what purpose;
6. The amount of said bonds redeemed since last report, and the amount still outstanding. [Acts 1899, p. 45.]

Art. 839. [700] Disbursements.—No city or county treasurer shall honor any draft upon the interest and sinking fund provided for any of the bonds of such city or county, nor pay out nor divert any of the same, except for the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds or for redeeming the same, or for investment in such securities as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 840. [701] Penalties.—Any treasurer who shall fail to make the reports provided for in the third article of this chapter, or who shall divert said fund or apply said fund for any other purpose than as permitted by the preceding article, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the State, and in addition thereto, shall be liable for the amount of such fund so diverted. [Id.]

Art. 841. [702] Recovery.—The Comptroller, whenever the reports of any treasurer show that he has diverted said funds, or when he shall fail to make such reports, shall notify the Attorney General or the district attorney of the district in which such treasurer resides, or county attorney in counties in which there is no district attorney provided for by law, of the fact, who shall thereupon institute suit against such treasurer and his official bondsmen for the amount of such penalty and of said fund so diverted. The amount of such penalty so recovered shall be paid into the State Treasury, and the amount of the diverted fund so recovered shall be paid into the county or city treasury to the credit of the fund from which it was so diverted. [Id.]

Art. 842. Federal Farm Loan bonds.—All bonds issued under and by virtue of the Federal Farm Loan Act, approved by the President of the United States, July 17, 1916, shall be a lawful investment for all fiduciary and trust funds in this State, and may be accepted as security for all public deposits where deposits of bonds or mortgages are authorized by law to be accepted. Such bonds shall be lawful investments for all funds which may be lawfully invested by guardians, administrators, trustees and receivers, for saving departments of banks incorporated under the laws of Texas, for banks, savings banks and trust companies chartered under the laws of Texas, and for all insurance companies chartered or transacting business under the laws of Texas, where investments are required or permitted by the laws of this State. [Acts 1917, p. 122.]

Article 843. [1392] [918a] Trade mark of another.—All manufacturers or dealers in carbonated goods, mineral waters, soda water, or other beverage, or manufacturers of medicine or other compound requiring the use of kegs, casks, barrels, boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, upon which the names, brands, marks, or trade marks, or other designation of ownership or proprietorship, is stamped, engraved, etched, blown in, impressed, or otherwise produced upon such boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the principal place or office of business is situated, a fac simile or description of the name or names, marks or devices, so used by such manufacturer or dealer in such wares herein enumerated, and cause such description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks; and the act of so filing and causing to be recorded by the county clerk, and publishing, shall operate as a trade mark, securing to the said manufacturer the full protection of the law as a trade mark, entitling the said manufacturer to the sole and exclusive use in Texas of said mark, name or device; for which service the clerk shall be allowed the sum of one dollar, to be paid by the party having such brands, etc., recorded. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person or persons, corporate or otherwise, other than the proprietor, or by his written consent, to fill, for the purpose of traffic, or for sale, with any compound whatever, any box, syphon, bottle or other container so marked, recorded in the office of the county clerk, and published as provided in this article, or to deface, erase, obliterate, cover up or otherwise remove or cancel any such mark or device. [Acts 1893, p. 125; Acts 1901, p. 288; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 555.]

Art. 844. Trade mark for dairymen.—Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the dairying business, or in the distribution or sale of milk requiring the use of bottles, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which it is expected such person, firm or corporation will sell or distribute milk, a fac simile or description of the name or names, trade name, mark or design used by such person, firm or corporation for advertising purposes, and cause such fac simile or description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks, and the act of filing and publication shall operate to secure to such dairyman, milk distributor or milk dealer, sole and exclusive right to use in said county or counties said name or names, trade name, mark or design. [Acts 1921, p. 161.]

Art. 845. Marks not to be similar.—No name or names, trade name, mark or design shall be filed by the county clerk as aforesaid that could probably be mistaken for a name or names, trade name, mark or design already of record. [Id.]

Art. 846. Injunction.—Any person, firm or corporation having adopted a name or names, trade name, mark or design, as provided herein, may proceed by suit to enjoin the use of said name, or names, trade name, mark or design by any other person, firm or corporation, and all courts having jurisdiction thereof shall grant injunction to restrain the unlawful use thereof. [Id.]

Art. 847. Prima facie evidence of ownership.—Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the dairying business or the sale or distribution of milk, who shall have filed with the county clerk of the county in which they may be engaged in the distribution or sale of milk, a name or names, trade name, mark or design as herein provided, may cause to be engraved, etched, blown in or impressed or otherwise produced upon the bottles owned by said person, firm or corporation such name or names, trade name, mark or design, and when such name or names, trade name, mark or design is so impressed upon a bottle, such bottle shall be prima facie the property of the person, firm or corporation which may appear upon the record of the office of the county clerk of such county to be the owner of such name or names, trade name, mark or design either as the original owner or transferee, as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 848. Record for dairymen.—Upon the filing with the county clerk of such fac simile or description, as herein provided, the county clerk shall record the same in a well-bound book and index the same under the name of each owner and also under the trade name, and shall furnish to such owner a certificate containing a description of same, which said certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the person or persons therein named is the owner of said name or names, trade name, mark or design. The clerk shall be paid a fee of one dollar for recording such trade mark or name. [Id.]

Art. 849. May assign.—Any owner of a name or names, trade name, mark or design recorded as herein provided who desires to convey or assign same shall do so by written assignment duly acknowledged, and filed with said county clerk, which said assignment shall refer to the book and page where said original is recorded, and the clerk shall upon the filing of said assignment, record and index same as an original and note on the margin the fact of the assignment and refer to the book and page where such assignment is recorded, and furnish to such assignee a certificate of ownership. The clerk shall receive for recording such transfer, such fees as are now provided by law for similar services. [Id.]

Art. 850. [705] [318c] Infringement enjoined.—Every person, association or union of workmen, incorporated or unincorporated, having adopted a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, as aforesaid, may proceed by suit to enjoin the wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale of any such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, and the manufacture, use, display or sale of any such counterfeit or imitation; any court having jurisdiction thereof may grant an injunction to restrain such manufacture, use, display or sale, and shall award the plaintiff in such suit such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale as by him may have been sustained. Where such association or union is not incorporated, suits under this law may be commenced and prosecuted by any officer or member of such association or union in his own name, for himself and for the use and benefit of such association or union. [Act 1895, p. 108; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 838.]

Art. 851. [706] [318d] Trade mark filed, etc.—Every person, association or union of workmen, incorporated or unincorporated, that has heretofore or shall hereafter adopt a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, shall file the same in the office of the Secretary of State by leaving two fac simile copies, with the Secretary of State, and said Secretary shall return to such person, association or union so filing the same, one of said fac simile copies along with and attached to a duly attested certificate of the filing of same, for which he shall receive a fee of one dollar. Such certificate of filing shall in all suits and prosecutions under this chapter be sufficient proof of the adoption of such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, and of the right of such person, association or union to adopt the same. No label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement shall be filed as aforesaid that would probably be mistaken for a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement already of record. No person, or association shall be permitted to register as a label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement any emblem, design or resemblance thereto that has been adopted or used by any charitable, benevolent or religious society or association, without their consent. [Id.]

Art. 852. Articles of Association.—Any number of persons, not less than five, who are residents of this State, desiring to organize a building and loan association for the purpose of building and improving homesteads, removing incumbrances therefrom, and loaning money to the members thereof, may, by complying with the provisions of this title, and entering into articles of association, become a corporate body. Said articles of association shall be signed by persons associating and acknowledged before some person authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgments to deeds, and shall set forth:

1. The name assumed by the association, which shall not be the name assumed by any other association incorporated under this law, nor so similar as to be likely to mislead.

2. The purpose for which the association is formed.

3. The amount of its authorized capital stock; and the number of shares into which it is divided; the par value of each share; and the number of shares subscribed for, which shall not be less than fifty in number.

4. The names of the incorporators; their respective residences and the number of shares subscribed by each.

5. The term of its corporate existence, which shall not exceed fifty years.

6. The name of the town, city or village in which such association is to be located. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1913, p. 72.]

Art. 853. Organization.—When executed as aforesaid, said articles of association shall be approved by, and filed with the Secretary of State, and a copy thereof, duly authenticated under the hand and seal of State, shall be delivered to the Commissioner of Insurance, who shall file the same in his office, and a like copy thereof shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the principal office of such association is located, whereupon the persons named in the article of association, their associates and successors, shall become a corporate body for the period for which they were organized, and shall exercise such powers as are herein granted, and such other powers as are necessary to enable such association to carry out the purpose of its organization, not inconsisent with the provisions of this law. Before such association shall proceed to business it shall adopt by-laws for the regulation and management of its business. Said by-laws shall not become operative until a copy thereof, duly certified by the president and secretary of the association shall have been approved by and filed with the Commissioner, and when so approved and filed the said Commissioner shall issue his certificate of such approval and filing and thereupon said association may proceed to do business. The provisions of this law shall not apply to loan corporations heretofore incorporated under the laws of Texas loaning money on real estate, or improvements thereon, in cities of this State of more than thirty thousand inhabitants and not requiring the borrowers to be members thereof, or holders of such shares in such corporations, and which have been doing business for as long as ten years prior to the passage of this Act. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 854. Directors.—The corporate powers of every building and loan association heretofore organized under the laws of this State, or which may be incorporated under this title, shall be exercised by a board of directors of not less than five members, who shall elect from their own number the officers of the association. The mode of electing members of said board of directors and officers and their respective terms of office shall be prescribed in the by-laws. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 855. Bond of Officers.—The secretary and treasurer of such association, and all other officers who sign and endorse checks, or who have charge of money or securities of such association, shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, each give such bond for the faithful performance of the same as shall be required and approved by the board of directors. Additional sureties or such increase of said bond as they may deem necessary, may be required at any time by the board of directors. Directors shall not be accepted as sureties on such bonds, and shall be individually liable for any loss sustained through their negligence or failure to comply with any provision of this article. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 856. Capital stock and shares.—The authorized capital stock of such association shall be divided into shares having a par value of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars each, payable in periodical installments, called dues, not exceeding two dollars per month on each share; provided, that the by-laws may provide for the advance payment of installment dues and for which there may be issued an advance payment certificate. The shares may be issued in series, or at any time as the by-laws shall determine and subscriptions therefor shall be made payable to the association. Said shares shall be deemed personal property, transferable on the books of the association in the manner prescribed in the by-laws, and shall be paid off and retired as the by-laws shall direct. Every share shall be subject to a lien for the payment of unpaid dues and such other charges as may be lawfully incurred thereon under the provisions of this title. The by-laws may prescribe the manner of enforcing such lien. New shares may be issued in lieu of shares matured, withdrawn, retired or forfeited. At no time shall the shares issued and in force exceed the aggregate number of shares into which the authorized capital stock is divided as designated in the articles of the association. Any building and loan association heretofore or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this State, may, by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of shares represented and voted at any annual meeting, or at any meeting called for that purpose, increase its authorized capital stock and shares, or amend its articles of association or by-laws, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this title. No such increase of capital stock nor amendments shall have effect until a copy of such resolution, certified by the president and secretary of such association, shall be filed, approved and recorded in the same manner as is provided in the second article of this title for the filing and recording of original articles of association or by-laws, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this title. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 857. Loans and security.—At such times as the by-laws shall designate, not less frequently than once a month, the board of directors shall hold meetings, at which the funds in the treasury applicable for loans shall be loaned to the members who, in open competition, shall bid the highest premium for priority of right to a loan; or in lieu thereof, such funds may be loaned, either with or without premium, as the borrower may, in writing agree to pay, in which case the priority of right to a loan shall be decided by the priority of the application therefor. The manner in which said premium may be paid shall be prescribed in the by-laws. No loans shall be made by such association to any one not a member thereof, except as hereinafter provided, nor to any member for an amount greater than the par value of the shares held by such member. Borrowers shall be required to give real estate security, unincumbered except by the prior liens held by such association, accompanied by a transfer and pledge to the association of the shares borrowed upon as collateral security for the payment of the loan. No loan made upon real estate security shall exceed in amount two-thirds of the appraised valuation of such real estate. The shares of such association may be received as security for the loan of an amount not to exceed ninety per cent of the withdrawal value of such shares. Subject to the approval of the Commissioner, the number of payment of dues, interest and premium required from the borrowing stockholder to pay off his loan and secure a release of his incumbrance may be limited to such a definite number as the by-laws may provide. When the funds in the treasury applicable for loans shall accumulate and be in excess of the amount required for loans to members, they may be loaned to non-members upon real estate securities unincumbered by prior liens in an amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the appraised value of such securities, or may be invested in such securities as are authorized to be accepted by saving banks in this State, but at no time shall such loans and investments exceed twenty per cent of the assets. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 858. Right to loan forfeited.—If the borrower neglects to offer security satisfactory to the board of directors within the time prescribed by the by-laws, his or her right to the loan shall be forfeited, and he or she shall be charged with interest or premium, if any, for one month, together with any expense incurred and the money appropriated for such loan may be re-loaned at the next or any subsequent meeting. Whenever a borrowing shareholder shall be in arrears in the payment of dues, interest or premium for more than four months, the board of directors may, at their discretion, declare the pledged shares forfeited, and the whole amount of the loan due and payable, and its collection, together with the arrears of interest, premium and fines, may be enforced by proceedings upon the security held by the association, in accordance with law. The withdrawal value of the pledged shares, at the time of the commencement of the foreclosure proceedings shall be credited upon the loan. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 859. Repayment of loan.—Any borrowing shareholder desiring to repay his loan shall have the privilege of doing so at any time, by giving the association thirty days written notice of such intention. The borrower shall be charged with the amount of the original loan, together with all the arrearages of interest, premium and fines and other legal charges, and shall be given credit for the withdrawal value of his shares pledged as security; and the balance shall be received by the association in full satisfaction of said loan. In cases where the premium is deducted from the loan in a gross sum, and the borrower repays the loan before the expiration of the tenth year from the date upon which said loan was made, such borrower shall be given credit for one-tenth of the premium paid for every year of the said ten years then unexpired. Any borrower desiring to retain his or her shares and membership may repay his loan without claiming credit for the withdrawal value of said shares whereupon said shares shall be retransferred to him or her, and shall be free from any claim by reason of said loan. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 860. Withdrawal value.—By the term "withdrawal value" as used herein is meant: The then value of the stock at the time indicated in the connection in which the words are used, less the lawful charges against such shares in favor of the corporation. [Id. Sec. 9.]

Art. 861. Lienholder may purchase.—Any loan or building association incorporated by or under this title is hereby authorized and empowered to purchase at any sheriff's or other judicial sale, or at any other sale, public or private, any real estate upon which such association may have or hold any mortgage, lien or other incumbrance, or in which said association may have an interest for the purpose of collecting any debt due it, or for the protection of its interest in such real estate, and may sell, convey, lease or mortgage, at pleasure to any person or persons whomsoever the real estate so purchased to the highest bidder after advertising same in some local paper for four consecutive weeks. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 862. Extension of time of corporation.—Any loan or building association incorporated under this or any prior law, may extend the duration of time for which said association was organized by a vote of two-thirds of the capital stock of such association represented and voting at any annual meeting of the stockholders of such association, or at any special meeting called for that purpose; thereupon the board of directors shall transmit a copy of the proceedings of such annual meeting or of such special meeting, duly attested, to the Secretary of State, who shall make a duly authenticated copy thereof, as provided in the third article of this title, certifying to the extension of time of such corporation, and the same shall be filed with the Commissioner and recorded as provided in said third article. Any building and loan association incorporated under any prior law, and extending the duration of the time for which it was incorporated, in the manner herein provided, shall be deemed as incorporated under and be invested with all the power given in this title, the same as though such corporation had been originally incorporated under it. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 863. Financial statement.—Each association formed under the provisions of this title shall, at the close of its first year's operations, and annually at the same period in each year thereafter publish in at least one newspaper published in the place where its principal office may be located, or if no newspaper be published in such place, then in a newspaper published nearest such place, a concise statement, verified by the oaths of its president and secretary, showing the actual financial condition of the association, and the amount of its property and liabilities, specifying the same particularly. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 864. Commissioner to supervise.—The Commissioner of Insurance shall have supervision of all building and loan associations doing business in this State, and shall be charged with the execution of the laws of this State relating to such association. During the absence or disability of the Commissioner his chief clerk or deputy shall be authorized to perform all the duties relating to the control and supervision of such association and the execution of the laws above described. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 865. Statement to commissioner.—Every building and loan association doing business in this State shall, on the first day of January of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, file with the Commissioner a full and detailed statement of its financial condition on the 31st day of the preceding December, and the business transacted during the preceding year within this State. Said statement shall set forth the amount and character of its assets, liabilities, receipts and disbursements, and shall contain such other information, and be in such form as said Commissioner may prescribe, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by the secretary and treasurer of such association. Any such association refusing or neglecting to file the annual statement herein required within the period hereinbefore prescribed shall forfeit five dollars per day for each and every day such statement shall be withheld, and the Commissioner may maintain an action in the name of the State to recover such penalty, which, upon its collection, shall be paid into the State Treasury. The Commissioner shall within thirty days after such neglect or refusal to file such annual statement investigate the affairs of the association, and if found in a failing condition, take charge of its affairs. [Id. Sec. 15.]

Art. 866. Examination by commissioner.—Once in each year, or oftener, if in the opinion of the Commissioner it shall be necessary, the Commissioner shall make or cause to be made, an examination into the affairs of all building and loan associations doing business in this State. Such examination shall be full and complete, and in making the same the examiner shall have access to, and may compel the production of all books, papers and moneys, etc., of the association under examination, and may examine any officer of such association or any other person connected therewith, as to its business and affairs. The Commissioner may appoint such special examiners as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title. Such examiner shall be paid at the rate of eight dollars per day; they shall also receive necessary traveling expenses connected with the duties of their office, which shall be paid by the State Treasurer on the warrant of the Commissioner and the approval of the Governor. The expense incurred and services, other than examinations, performed especially for such associations shall be paid in full by such associations. [Id. Secs. 16, 25.]

Art. 867. Liquidation.—Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that the affairs of any such association are in an unsound condition, or that it is conducting its business in an unsafe or unlawful manner, such Commissioner shall at once notify the board of directors of such association, giving them twenty days in which to restore its affairs to a safe and sound condition, or to discontinue its illegal practices. If after twenty days such restoration shall not have been made, or such illegal practices shall have not been discontinued, said Commissioner may order one of the examiners appointed to examine such association, or a special examiner appointed for that purpose, to take possession of all books, records and assets of every description of such association and hold and retain possession of the same pending the further proceedings hereinafter specified. Should the board of directors, secretary or person in charge of such association refuse to permit the said examiner to take possession aforesaid, said Commissioner shall communicate such fact to the Attorney General, whereupon the Attorney General shall at once institute such proceedings as may be necessary to place such examiner in immediate possession of the property of such association. Upon taking possession of the effects of the association as aforesaid, said examiner shall prepare a full and true statement of the affairs and conditions of such association, including an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities, and shall receive and collect all debts, dues and claims belonging to it, and may pay the immediate and reasonable expense of his trust. Said examiner shall be required to execute to the Commissioner a good and sufficient bond to be approved by such Commissioner, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as custodian of such association. The Commissioner shall, within fifteen days next after said examiner has acquired possession of the property of such association, convene a special meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of considering and acting upon the examiner's report of the affairs and conditions of such association as found by him from his examination thereof. The shareholders may, at said special meeting, by votes of those owning two-thirds of the shares in force, resolve to go into liquidation and for that purpose may, by a majority vote of those present elect from their number a receiver and fix his compensation. The compensation to be allowed a receiver under this title shall be an amount reasonable in proportion to the value of the property of the association, and in no event shall exceed $2500.00 per annum. A copy of said resolution duly certified by the presiding officer and secretary of said special meeting, together with the name and address of the receiver thus elected, shall be filed with the Commissioner. Said receiver shall be charged with a proper distribution of the assets, the discharge of all liabilities and final closing up of the business of such association. Before he shall enter upon the duties of his office, he shall be required to execute to the association a good and sufficient bond, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, which shall be approved by and filed with said Commissioner. Upon the election and qualification of said receiver as aforesaid, the examiner shall, when so ordered by the Commissioner, turn over and deliver to said receiver all the books, papers and effects of every description in his hands belonging to such association. Said receiver shall, upon the completion of said duties intrusted to him, prepare a statement to that effect, reciting therein that all of the liabilities of such association have been completely discharged as far as its assets will permit and its assets and property distributed among all the persons entitled thereto. Said statement shall be subscribed and sworn to by said receiver and filed with the Commissioner, and a notice of such dissolution shall be published for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county wherein the principal office of such association is located. Upon the filing of said statement and making publication as aforesaid, such association shall be deemed dissolved. [Id. Sec. 17.]

Art. 868. Injunction.—If after having called a meeting of the stockholders as herein provided, the Commissioner shall find that liquidation by the shareholders cannot be had or consummated, he shall communicate such fact, together with a statement of the condition of the association to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon institute the necessary proceedings to enjoin such association from doing any further business, and for the appointment of a receiver therefor. [Id. Sec. 18.]

Art. 869. Forfeiture of shares.—If a shareholder be in arrears in the payment of dues upon unpledged shares, the board of directors may, if the shareholder fails to pay the amount of arrears within thirty days after notice, declare said shares forfeited. The withdrawal value of said shares at the time of forfeiture shall be ascertained and paid to such stockholder upon such notice as the by-laws may prescribe. Fines for the non-payment of dues, interest or premium shall not exceed one per cent per month on each dollar in arrears. [Id. Sec. 19.]

Art. 870. Expense and reserve fund.—The gross earnings of every building and loan association shall be ascertained at least once in each year, from which shall be deducted a sufficient amount to meet the operating expenses of such association, and from said earnings only shall such expenses be paid. From the balance of the earnings there shall be set aside at least one per cent annually as a reserve fund, until such fund reaches five percent of the outstanding loans, at which rate it shall thereafter be maintained and held by annual appropriations from the earnings. From said reserve fund shall be paid all losses sustained by said association from depreciation of securities or otherwise. After providing for expenses of the association, and the reserve fund as aforesaid, the residue of such earnings shall be transferred and apportioned to the credit of the shareholders as the association by its by-laws shall provide. [Id. Sec. 20.]

Art. 871. Consolidation.—At the annual meeting, or at any meeting called for that purpose, any two or more building and loan associations organized under the laws of this State may by two-thirds of the vote of all shareholders of each of the different associations resolve to consolidate into one upon such terms as shall be mutually agreed upon by the directors of such associations. Any shareholder not consenting to such consolidation shall be entitled to receive the withdrawal value of his stock in settlement, or, if a borrower, to have such value applied in part settlement of his loan. Such consolidation shall not take effect until a copy of said resolution, certified by a majority of the board of directors of each association, shall be filed with the Secretary of State and with the Commissioner and recorded in the manner hereinbefore provided. [Id. Sec. 21.]

Art. 872. Dissolution.—At the annual meeting, or at any meeting called for that purpose, any building and loan association of this State may, by a vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of the shares in force, resolve to liquidate and dissolve the corporation. In order to facilitate such dissolution, the board of directors may, if they deem desirable, sell and transfer the mortgage securities and other property of such association to another corporation, person or persons, subject, however, to the vested and accrued rights of the mortgagors. Before said resolution shall have effect, a copy thereof, certified by the president and secretary of such association, together with an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities, sworn to by a majority of the directors, shall be filed with the Commissioner. After filing a copy of the resolution as aforesaid, it shall be unlawful for such association to issue stock or make any loans, but all of its income and receipts in excess of actual expense of management shall be applied to the discharge of liabilities. [Id. Sec. 22.]

Art. 873. Report of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall annually, at the earliest possible date after the statements of such associations are received, make a report to the Governor of the general conduct and condition of all building and loan associations doing business in this State, including the information contained in such statements, arranged in tabular form together with such suggestions as he may deem expedient. There shall be printed of said report as many copies as the Commissioner shall deem necessary. [Id. Sec. 24.]

Art. 874. Foreign association.—Foreign building and loan associations doing business in this State shall conduct the same in accordance with the laws of this State governing domestic building and loan associations, and shall comply with all requirements of said laws except as herein provided. [Id. Sec. 26.]

Art. 875. Certificate of authority.—No foreign building and loan association shall do any business in this State until it shall procure from the Secretary of State a certificate of authority to do so. To procure such certificate of authority such foreign association shall comply with the following provisions:

1. It shall file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, a copy of its by-laws and rules governing it, and its certificates and all printed matter issued by it, together with a statement of its financial condition such as is required annually from all building and loan associations organized under the laws of this State.

2. It shall file with the Secretary of State a written instrument, properly executed, agreeing that any summons or process of any court in this State may issue against it from any county in this State, and when served upon the Secretary of State, shall be accepted irrevocably as a valid service upon such foreign association. The Secretary of State shall mail a copy of such legal process served upon him to the home office of such foreign association, and the Secretary of State shall, within six days, certify to the court from which such summons or process issued, the fact of such mailing. The plaintiff shall for each process so served pay to the Secretary of State, at the time of such service, a fee of two dollars, which shall be recovered by the plaintiff as a part of the taxable costs if he prevail in the suit.

3. It shall deposit with the Secretary of State one hundred thousand dollars, either in cash or bonds of the United States, or bonds of any State in the United States, or bonds of any county or municipal corporation in the State of Texas, or mortgages, being first liens on improved and productive real estate located within this State, and worth at least twice the amount of the liens, or furnish surety company bond in said sum of one hundred thousand dollars; which securities or surety company bond shall be approved by the Secretary of State. Said deposit shall be held as security for all claims of residents of this State against such foreign associations, and shall be liable for all judgments or decrees thereon; and said securities shall not be released until all shares of such foreign associations held by residents of this State shall have been fully redeemed and paid off, and its contracts and obligations to residents of this State shall have been fully performed and discharged. Such foreign associations may collect and use the interest on any securities so deposited, so long as it fulfills its obligations and complies with the provisions of this title. It may also exchange them for other securities of equal value, if satisfactory to the Secretary of State. If the business of such associations be solely that of lending money in this State, and it sells none of its stock except where loans are actually made on real estate in this State for the full amount of the stock so sold, and made at the time of the sale of such stock, then in such event the provisions of this title requiring a deposit or bond of one hundred thousand dollars shall not apply. [Id. Sec. 27.]

Article 876. Custody of securities.—All such securities deposited with the Secretary of State shall be immediately deposited by him with the State Treasurer, who, with his sureties, shall be responsible for the safe keeping thereof. The State Treasurer shall deliver such certificates only upon the written order of the Secretary of State. [Id. Sec 28.]

Art. 877. Statement of foreign association.—Whenever such foreign association has complied with the provisions of this title, the Secretary of State shall so certify to the Commissioner, and thereupon such foreign association, shall also furnish to said Commissioner a full and complete financial statement of its affairs duly sworn to by its president and secretary, together with such other information as said Commissioner may require, which said report shall be filed annually thereafter. If the Commissioner is satisfied that such association is in sound financial condition and shall be satisfied that such foreign association is conducting its business in accordance with the laws of this State, and shall regard it safe, reliable and entitled to public confidence, he shall so certify to the Secretary of State, who shall issue certificate of authority and renewals of such certificate of authority upon the payment of the fees as herein provided. [Id. Sec. 29.]

Art. 878. Judgment against foreign association.—If at any time any shareholder of such foreign association residing in this State, shall recover judgment against such foreign association, which after thirty days shall not have been satisfied, the State Treasurer, upon an order from the Secretary of State, shall appropriate from the cash deposited with him by such association as herein provided, if any, or shall proceed to sell at the current market value, sufficient of the the bonds, or collect sufficient of the mortgage securities deposited with him to satisfy the amount of such judgment, together with five per cent for his services and expense. Before ordering the State Treasurer to so proceed, the Secretary of State shall be served with an affidavit by the plaintiff or his attorney, setting forth the recovery of judgment, and that same has remained unpaid for thirty days, and that no proceedings are pending for appeal or reversal of the same. Such foreign association after notice of the service of such affidavits, shall not transact any new business in this State until any deficiency of securities caused by the necessity of satisfying such judgments shall have been made good by further deposit of similar securities with the Secretary of State. [Id. Sec. 31.]

Art. 879. Examination of same.—Every foreign building and loan association doing business in this State shall be subject to the same examinations as are building and loan associations organized under the laws of this State. The expense of all examinations of such foreign associations shall be paid by the association examined, and the money so received shall be paid into the State Treasury. It shall not be necessary for such examination to be made but once in each year. Such expense shall only include the necessary traveling expenses of such examiner and the sum of eight dollars per day, for each day actually required in making such examinations. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 880. Revoking certificate.—Should the Secretary of State find, upon examination, that such foreign association does not conduct its business in accordance with law, or that the affairs of such foreign associations are in an unsound condition, or if such foreign association refuses to permit examination to be made, he may revoke the certificate of authority granted such foreign association to do business in this State. Upon the revocation of such certificate of authority, the Secretary of State shall mail a notice thereof to the home office of such foreign association, and cause a similar notice to be published in at least one newspaper published in the city of Austin. After publication of said notice it shall be unlawful for any agent of such foreign association to receive any further payments on shares from stockholders residing in this State, except payment on shares on which a loan has been made. [Id. Sec. 33.]

Art. 881. Penalty.—No foreign building and loan association shall be permitted to do business in this State unless the provisions of this title are fully complied with. All contracts made by such foreign associations while in default shall be absolutely void. Any such association violating any provision of this title, or failing to comply with any of its provisions, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, such penalty to be recovered by an action in the name of the State of Texas, and upon the collection thereof, the same shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Id. Sec. 34.]

TITLE 25.

CARRIERS.

1. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES.

| | Article | | Article |
|-------------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------|---------|
| At common law..... | 882 | Liability as warehouseman, etc..... | 886 |
| Liability fixed..... | 883 | Diligence in delivery..... | 887 |
| Must carry goods..... | 884 | Shall ship in order..... | 888 |
| Must give bill of lading..... | 885 | Care of animals..... | 889 |

Art. 882. [707] [319] [277] At common law.—The duties and liabilities of carriers in this State and the remedies against them, shall be the same as are prescribed by the common law except where otherwise provided by this title.

Art. 883. [708] [320] [278] Liability fixed.—Railroad companies and other common carriers of goods, wares and merchandise, for hire, within this State, on land, or in boats or vessels on the waters entirely within this State, shall not limit or restrict their liability as it exists at common law, by any general or special notice, or by inserting exceptions in the bill of lading or memorandum given upon the receipt of the goods for transportation, or in any other manner whatever. No special agreement made in contravention of this article shall be valid. [Act Dec. 4, 1863, p. 7; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 661.]

Art. 884. [709] [321] [279] Must carry goods.—Upon the tender of the legal or customary rates of freight on goods offered for transportation, to a common carrier other than a railroad, such carrier shall receive and transport such goods, provided his vehicle or vessel has capacity safely to carry the goods so offered on the trip or voyage then pending, and such goods are of the kind usually carried upon such vehicle or vessel, and are offered at a reasonable time. Any common carrier refusing to transport goods as above provided or to take the same in the order presented, shall be liable in damages to the party injured, by reason of such refusal, and shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in the county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides. [Acts 1860, p. 39; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1401; 1895, Sen. Jour. p. 478.]

Art. 885. [710] [322] [280] Must give bill of lading.—Common carriers, when they receive goods for transportation, shall give to the shipper, when it is demanded, a bill of lading, or written receipt stating the quantity, character, order and condition of the goods; and such goods shall be delivered in like order and condition to the consignee, the unavoidable wear and tare and deterioration in due course of transportation only, excepted. Any such common carrier failing to deliver goods as herein required shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, as at common law; and on refusal to execute and deliver a bill of lading or written receipt shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered as in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 886. [711] [323] [281] Liability as a warehouseman, etc.—Railroad companies and other common carriers having depots and warehouses for storing goods shall be liable as warehousemen are at common law for goods and the care of the same stored at such depots or warehouses before the commencement of the trip or voyage on which said goods are to be transported. They shall be liable as common carriers from the commencement of the trip or voyage until the goods are delivered to the consignee at the point of destination. The trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of the bill of lading, and the liability of the common carrier shall attach, as at common law, from and after such signing. [Id.]

Art. 887. [712] [324] [282] Diligence in delivery.—If the carrier at the point of destination shall use due diligence to notify the consignee, and the goods are not taken by the consignee, and have in consequence to be stored in the depots or warehouses of the common carriers, they shall thereafter only be liable as warehousemen. [Id.]

Art. 888. [713] [325] [283] Shall ship in order.—Where common carriers receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another. For failure to do so, they shall be liable for all losses occurring while the goods remain, and for all damages occasioned or in any wise resulting from the delay. [Id.]

Art. 889. [714] [326] [284] Care of animals.—A common carrier who conveys live stock of any kind shall feed and water the same during the time of conveyance and until the same is delivered to the consignee or disposed of as provided in this title, unless otherwise provided by special contract. Any carrier who shall fail to so feed and water said live stock sufficiently shall be liable to the party injured for his damages, and shall be liable also to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the owner of such live stock in any county where the wrong is done or where the common carrier resides.

2. BILLS OF LADING.

| | Article | | Article |

| Who shall issue | 890 | Failure to deliver on order | 895 |
| Requisites | 891 | Partial delivery | 896 |
| Definitions | 892 | Loss of order bill | 897 |
| Agent's certificate | 893 | Not liable when | 898 |
| Validity of bills | 894 | Railroad Commission | 899 |

Art. 890. [715] Who shall issue.—All railroad companies, steamship companies and other common carriers, or receivers thereof, except express companies and pipe line companies, upon the receipt of freight for transportation shall issue bills of lading therefor, and authenticate, validate or certify such bills of lading, when the same shall be demanded by the shipper, in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Acts 1910, 4th C. S. p. 138.]

Art. 891. [716] Requisites.—Each bill of lading issued by a common carrier to which the provisions of this law apply for an intrastate shipment shall contain, and each bill of lading issued by such carrier for interstate or foreign shipment may contain, within the written or printed terms in addition to the other requirements of this law, the following:

1. The date of its issuance;
2. The name of the person from whom the goods have been received;
3. The place where the goods have been received;
4. The place to which the goods are to be transported;
5. A statement of whether the goods will be delivered to a specific person or the order of a specific person;
6. A description of the goods or the package containing them, which may, however, be in terms such as the Railroad Commission may approve;
7. The signature of the carrier or the duly authorized agent of the carrier; said bill of lading shall be so signed with pen and ink, and the person signing the same shall attach his signature below all written, printed or stamped matter contained in said bill of lading, except the words, "Authorized Agent of....." (stating the name of his principal), which shall appear below his signature.

8. The carrier may insert in a bill of lading any other terms and conditions; provided such terms and conditions shall not be contrary to law or public policy or the orders promulgated by the Railroad Commission. No language shall be inserted in any bill of lading having the effect of limiting or avoiding any provision of this law. When any form of bill of lading has been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission and has been adopted by any carrier and made a part of its tariff, then said bill of lading, as to interstate and foreign shipments, shall be a sufficient compliance with this article. [Id.]

Art. 892. [717] Definitions.—A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specific person is a "straight" bill of lading. A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to the order of any person named in such bill of lading, is an "order" bill of lading. Order bills of lading shall not be issued in sets or in duplicate, but copies thereof may be issued. Such copies shall have written or printed across the face thereof: "Copy—Not Negotiable." [Id.]

Art. 893. [718] Agent's certificate.—The carriers affected by this law shall keep posted for public inspection in some conspicuous place in the station or place where freight is received, an instrument of writing authorizing the agent of such carrier, or person authorized to act for such carrier selected for such purpose, to execute, sign and issue bills of lading; and the agent or person so authorized to act for said carrier, so selected, shall attach his signature to such instrument in the same manner that he signs bills of lading. [Id.]

Art. 894. [719] Validity of bills.—Each bill of lading issued by the authorized agent of any carrier or receiver thereof, affected by this law, shall be held to be the act and deed of such carrier or receiver thereof, and the principal shall be liable thereon in accordance with the terms thereof. When any such bill of lading shall be validated, authenticated or certified in accordance with the rules and regulations herein provided for, and as the Railroad Commission may prescribe in accordance with the provisions of this law, and in the hands of an innocent holder for value, it shall be incontestable as to the matters and things therein set forth. [Id.]

Art. 895. [720] Failure to deliver on order.—A carrier which delivers goods for which an “order” bill of lading has been issued, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel said bill of lading shall be liable for the failure to deliver the goods to any one who, for value, in good faith, purchases such bill of lading, whether the purchaser acquired title to the bill of lading before or after the delivery of the goods by the carrier, notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto, except when goods are sold to satisfy the carrier’s lien, and except when compelled to do so by legal process. [Id.]

Art. 896. [721] Partial delivery.—A carrier which delivers part of the goods for which an “order” bill of lading has been issued, and fails to take up and cancel the bill of lading, or to place plainly upon the bill of lading a statement that a portion of the goods had been delivered, with a description which may be in general terms, either of the goods or packages that had been so delivered, or of the goods or packages which still remain in the carrier’s possession, shall be liable for the failure to deliver all of the goods specified in the bill of lading to any one who for value and in good faith purchases it, whether such purchaser acquires title to the bill of lading before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto, except when goods are sold to satisfy the carrier’s lien, and except when compelled to do so by legal process. [Id.]

Art. 897. [722] Loss of order bill.—When an “order” bill of lading shall have been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction, in term time or vacation, may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction, and upon the giving of a bond with good and sufficient sureties approved by the court, to protect the carrier or any person injured by such delivery from any liability or loss incurred by reason of the original bill of lading remaining outstanding. The court in its discretion may also order the payment of the carrier’s reasonable costs and counsel fees. The delivery of the goods under an order of court as provided in this article, shall not relieve the carrier from liability to a person to whom the order bill of lading has been or shall be negotiated for value, and without notice of the proceedings or the delivery of the goods. Nothing herein shall prevent the carrier from delivering the property covered by such lost bill of lading to any party claiming the same, on such terms as such party and the carrier may agree upon. [Id.]

Art. 898. [723] Not liable when.—The carrier shall not be liable under this law where the property has been replevied or levied upon or taken from the possession of the carrier by other legal process, or has been lawfully sold to satisfy the carrier's lien, or in case of the sale or disposition of perishable, hazardous or unclaimed goods, in accordance with law. [Id.]

Art. 899. [724] Railroad Commission.—The Railroad Commission shall adopt and prescribe forms, terms and conditions for the authentication, certification or validation of bills of lading issued by common carriers referred to in the first article of this subdivision, and regulate the manner and method of their issuance, and take such steps as it may deem necessary to carry this law into effect. It shall have authority to amend, alter and modify, from time to time, as it may deem expedient, any regulation which may be adopted by it in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, after giving due notice thereof to all carriers interested and to the public. [Id.]

3. DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED GOODS.

| | Article | | Article |
|-------------------------|---------|--------------------------|---------|
| Unclaimed freight..... | 900 | Perishable property..... | 903 |
| Sale | 901 | Data kept..... | 904 |
| Sale of live stock..... | 902 | | |

Art. 900. [725] [327] [285] Unclaimed freight.—When any freight or baggage has been conveyed by a common carrier to any point in this State, and shall remain unclaimed for the space of three months at the office or depot nearest or most convenient to destination, and the owner, whether known or not, fails within that time to claim such freight or baggage, or to pay the proper charges if there be any against it, it shall be lawful for such common carrier to sell such freight or baggage at public auction, offering each article separately as consigned or checked. [Acts 1874, p. 203; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 205.]

Art. 901. [726] [328] [286] Sale.—Thirty days' notice of the time and place of sale, and a descriptive list of the packages to be sold, with names and numbers or marks found thereon, shall be posted in three public places in the county where the sale is to be made and on the door of the depot or warehouse if any, where the goods are, and notice shall also be given in at least one newspaper in the county, if any be published therein, for thirty days before sale. Out of the proceeds of such sale, the carrier shall deduct the proper charges on such freight or baggage, including costs of storing and costs of sale, and hold the overplus, if any, to the order of the owner any time within five years, on proof of ownership made by the claimant or his duly authorized agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 902. [728] [330] [288] Sale of live stock.—If any live stock remains unclaimed for the space of forty-eight hours after its arrival at the place of its destination, the carrier may sell the same at public auction after giving five days' notice of the time and place of such sale, as prescribed in the preceding article and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article, after deducting reasonable expenses for keeping, feeding and watering said live stock from the time of its arrival at the place of its destination until disposed of as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 903. [729] [331] [289] Perishable property.—If any perishable property remains unclaimed after arrival of its place of destination until in danger of depreciation the carrier shall sell the same at public auction, after giving five days' notice of the time and place of sale, as prescribed in the second preceding article and apply the proceeds as prescribed in said article. [Id.]

Art. 904. Data kept.—In each sale under the three preceding articles the carrier shall keep an account of such sale and the expense thereof proportioned to each article sold, a copy of the notice and a copy of the sale bill. [Id.]

4. CONNECTING LINES OF COMMON CARRIERS.

|-------------------------|----------------|--------------------------|----------------|
| "Connecting lines"..... | Article 905 | Recovery by shipper..... | Article 906 |

Art. 905. [731] "Connecting lines."—All common carriers in this State over whose transportation lines, or parts thereof, is transported any freight, baggage or other property received by either of such carriers for shipment or transportation between points in this State, on a contract for carriage recognized, acquiesced in, or acted upon by such carriers shall, with respect to the undertaking and matter of such transportation be considered and construed to be connecting lines. Such lines shall be deemed and held to be agents of each other, each the agent of the others, and all the others the agents of each, and shall be deemed and held to be under a contract with each other and with the shipper, owner and consignee of such property for the safe and speedy transportation of such property from point of shipment to destination; and such contract as to the shipper, owner and consignee of such property shall be deemed and held to be the contract of each of such common carriers. The provisions of this law shall apply whether the route of such freight, baggage or other property be chosen by the owner or his agents, or by the initial carrier to whom such property is delivered. In any suit brought hereunder, the rights, duties and liabilities of the parties shall be determined by the initial contract executed by and between the owner, shipper or his or her duly authorized agents and the initial carrier, unless it be proved that a subsequent contract supported by a valuable consideration moving to the owner or shipper, in addition to that of the initial contract, was executed by such owner, shipper or his or their duly authorized agents with a subsequent connecting carrier handling the shipment, and the transportation of a caretaker shall not be deemed to be such valuable consideration. In any court of this State, any bill of lading, waybill, receipt, check or other instrument issued by either of such carriers, or other proof showing that either of them has received such freight, baggage or other property for shipment or transportation, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the subsistence of the relations, duties and liabilities of such carrier as herein provided, notwithstanding any stipulation or attempted stipulation to the contrary by such carrier, or either of them, and any stipulation contained in any contract contrary to any provision of this law shall be void. [Acts 1895, p. 186; Acts 1919, p. 320.]

Art. 906. [732] Recovery by shipper.—For any damage or injury to, or loss or delay of, any freight, baggage or other property, sustained anywhere during the transportation over connecting lines or either of them, as contemplated and defined in the preceding article, either or all of such connecting carriers, as the person or persons sustaining such damage may elect to sue therefor in this State, shall be held liable to such person or persons. The provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall not be applicable to suits brought by such person or persons under the provisions of this subdivision except upon the plaintiff's request. Any carrier or carriers held liable under the provisions hereof shall be entitled in a subsequent action to recover the amount of any loss, damage or injury it has been required to pay hereunder, from the carrier or carriers through whose negligence the loss, damage or injury was sustained, together with all costs of suit; and for the purpose of such recovery, it shall only be necessary that the carrier against whom judgment was had, show which carrier or carriers caused the loss or damage and produce satisfactory evidence that the judgment rendered against it has been paid, and in such action between the carriers, the provisions of law allowing an apportionment of damage shall be applicable. [Id.]

5. PROTECTING MOVEMENT OF COMMERCE.

| Protecting commerce..... | Article 907 | Rangers used..... | Article 910 |
| Governor's jurisdiction..... | 908 | Scope of law..... | 911 |
| Arrests..... | 909 | | |

Art. 907. Protecting commerce.—If at any time the movement of commerce by common carriers of this State or any of them is interferred with in violation of the provisions of Chapter 10, Title 14 of the Penal Code, and the Governor, after investigation, becomes convinced that the local authorities were failing to enforce the law, either because they were unable or unwilling to do so, the Governor shall, in order that the movement of commerce may not be interferred with, forthwith issue his proclamations declaring such conditions to exist and describing the area thus affected. Each article of said Title of the Penal Code is made a part hereof. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 8.]

Art. 908. Governor's jurisdiction.—Upon the issuance of the proclamation provided for in the preceding article, the Governor shall exercise full and complete police jurisdiction of the area described in the proclamation whether the same be all within or partly within, or partly without the limits of any incorporated city or county; the exercise of said police jurisdiction by the Governor as above set out, shall supersede all police authority by any and all local authority, provided that the Governor shall not disturb the local authorities in the exercise of police jurisdiction, at any place outside the district described in his proclamation. [Id.]

Art. 909. Arrests.—No peace officer of this State shall be permitted to make arrests after the Governor's proclamation has become effective, in the territory embraced by such proclamation, except officers acting under the authority of the Governor under the provisions of this law. Persons arrested within the district shall be delivered forthwith to the proper authorities for trial. [Id.]

Art. 910. Rangers used.—The provisions of this law shall be effective without a declaration of martial law. The State Rangers may be used in the enforcement of the provisions of this law. If a sufficient number of Rangers are not available, the Governor is authorized to employ any number of men to be designated as special Rangers and such men shall have all the power and authority of the regular Rangers, and shall be paid the same salary as the Rangers are paid, and such salaries shall be paid out of the appropriation made to the executive office for the payment of rewards and the enforcement of the law.

Art. 911. Scope of law.—Nothing in this law shall be construed as limiting the power and authority of the Governor to declare martial law and to call forth the militia for the purpose of executing the law, when in the judgment of the chief executive it is deemed necessary so to do. This law shall be construed as cumulative of the existing laws of this State, and shall not be held to repeal any of the same except where in direct conflict herewith. [Id.]

Art. 912. Trust fund.—Persons desiring to provide a fund for maintaining and keeping up and beautifying of private blocks or lots in any cemetery in this State may do so by setting aside for such purposes a reasonable sum of money and by providing by written instrument which shall recite the terms of the trust for a trustee or trustees to handle and invest said sum and spend the resources therefrom as follows: Not exceeding seventy-five per cent of the net income therefrom shall be devoted to keeping up and beautifying the private blocks and lots designated in the instrument. The portion of such income not expended annually as set out in the preceding paragraph, the amount not to be less than twenty-five per cent of such income, shall be devoted to the general up-keep and beautifying of the cemetery in which such blocks or lots are located. [Acts 1917, p. 364.]

Art. 913. Who may be trustees.—The trustees provided for may be natural persons designated by name and their successors, or persons holding designated positions and indicated as holders of such positions and their successors, or corporations whose charters authorize them to act in such capacity. [Id.]

Art. 914. Substitute trustees.—The founder of said fund may designate therein the number of trustees and the manner of renewing same. If no method of perpetuating the trustees shall be set out in the instrument or if the trustees therein provided or their successors shall fail to effect such perpetuity, then any court having equity jurisdiction located within the county wherein such cemetery is maintained shall be authorized, upon application of any person interested, or of the court's own motion, if facts come within its cognizance, to appoint suitable trustees to the number specified in such instrument to execute such trust. [Id.]

Art. 915. Construction of trust.—Such trust and the administration thereof shall not be regarded and held to be a perpetuity, but as a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the party founding such trust to the persons interred upon such blocks or lots and to the public. [Id.]

Art. 916. [1300] [715] [639] Powers of corporation.—Cemetery corporations shall have power to divide the land of the cemetery into lots and subdivisions for the purposes of the cemetery, and to tax the property for the purpose of its general improvement. [P. D. 6002.]

Art. 917. [1301] [716] [640] May convey lots.—Such corporation shall have power to convey by deed or otherwise, any lot or lots of the cemetery for purpose of sepulture. When such lots shall have been surveyed and platted, the survey and plat shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein same are situated, and shall not afterward be changed or altered. No lots shall be sold or disposed of until such plat shall have been recorded. [P. D. 6003.]

Art. 918. [1302] [717] [641] Lot owners may vote.—All owners of lots purchased of any such corporation shall become members thereof, and be entitled to vote in the election of its officers and upon any other matters to the same extent as stockholders in other corporations. [P. D. 6004.]

Art. 919. [1286] Cemetery corporations.—Corporations for the purpose of owning and maintaining public or private cemeteries, or for the purpose only of maintaining and caring for cemeteries, may be formed under and in accordance with the provisions of this title, and when so organized, shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by this title. In framing a charter for such corporation, if desired to confer upon it the powers specified in this title, the charter shall state that the corporation is organized in pursuance of this title. [Acts 1907, p. 37.]

Art. 920. [1287] Rights of lot owners.—Each owner of a lot or lots embraced in any cemetery subject to the provisions of this title shall be a shareholder in any corporation to which the land may belong, and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of a shareholder whether the title to the lot or lots was acquired from the corporation, or was owned before its organization. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 921. [1289] May acquire land.—Every corporation organized under this title shall have the power to acquire, own, and hold all lands and other property which may be necessary or suitable to the accomplishment of its purposes, and may acquire lands which have been previously dedicated to burial purposes, by conveyance from the person or persons in whom title may be, or from any person who may hold such land in trust, with the power to transfer it to preserve the trust. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 921a. Location of cemeteries.—It shall be unlawful for any person, company, corporation or association to establish or use for burial purposes any graveyard or cemetery located less than one mile from the incorporated line of any city of not less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants within the State of Texas; provided, that where cemeteries have heretofore been used and maintained within less than one mile from any incorporated city or town, and additional lands are required for cemetery purposes, any person owning lands adjacent to said cemetery may lay out and use or sell the same to be used as an addition to such cemetery, and the use of the said additional lands for such purposes shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section.

The maintenance or location and use of any graveyard or cemetery in violation of the provisions of this Act are declared to be a nuisance, and any person owning a residence in or near said town or city may maintain an action in the courts to abate such nuisance and to enjoin its continuance, and if it appears that said nuisance exists or is threatened in violation of this Act, a perpetual injunction shall be granted against parties guilty of such nuisance. [Id. 327.]

Art. 922. Purchase and condemnation.—Cemetery associations, whether incorporated or unincorporated, shall have the power to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, such land as may be needed by them in the communities in which their cemeteries may be located for the purpose of the proper burial of the dead, and such power shall extend to the acquisition of such land as may reasonably be needed therefor in the future as well as such land as may be immediately needed. Such land may be acquired also by condemnation proceedings. The acquisition of such lands is hereby declared to be for a public purpose. [Acts 1917, p. 323.]

Art. 923. [1290] Former owners.—In case the land purchased as herein specified, or any portion of it, has been used as a cemetery, then the owners of lots therein shall have the right to participate in the organization of the corporation and shall be shareholders therein after the company has been organized. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 924. [1291] Preserving rights.—Whenever any corporations organizing under this title shall acquire lands already used for burial purposes, the division of the said ground into lots, streets, etc., existing at the time of the acquisition, shall be preserved so far as is necessary to protect the rights of those who have already acquired lots therein. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 925. [1292] Plat and survey.—Any such corporation, after its organization, shall cause the ground which it may acquire for cemetery purposes to be laid out in proper avenues and alleys, blocks and lots, as may be found convenient and necessary for the proper use thereof; and the corporation shall cause a plat to be made of said cemetery ground, which shall be approved by the board of directors, and shall be attested by the president and secretary of the corporation, after which it shall be recorded in the county clerk's office of the county. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 926. [1293] May make by-laws.—Every corporation organized under this title shall have the power to make all necessary by-laws as prescribed by this title, and also to make all rules and regulations necessary to govern in the sale of lots and the use of the same by the purchasers thereof. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 927. [1294] Rules for care of lot.—The board of directors shall have authority to make reasonable rules, requiring the lot owners to keep their lots clean from improper growth, so as to preserve the good order and proper appearance of the grounds, but shall not have the power to require of any lot owner a particular character of improvement therein. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 928. [1295] Meeting to receive title.—When it is desired to create a corporation under this title to receive the title to lands theretofore dedicated to the purpose of a cemetery, notice of the time and place of a meeting of the lot owners shall be published in a newspaper in the county, if there be one, for thirty days; and printed notices shall be posted at, and upon, such cemetery for thirty days prior to the time fixed for the meeting. When the lot owners and other persons uniting in the formation of the corporation shall assemble, the majority of those present and voting shall decide upon the question of incorporation, and the conveyance of the land to it. Such meeting shall select the board of directors to be named in the charter, which may consist of lot owners alone, or persons may be chosen as directors who are not owners of lots in the cemetery. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 929. [1297] Reports not required. — Corporations formed under this title shall be exempt from any provision of law requiring periodical reports to be made to any department of the State government. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 930. [1298] Authority of city.—The governing body of any city in which the cemetery is to be located shall have the power to control the location of any such cemetery, and to prescribe the maximum price at which lots therein shall be sold to the public. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 931. [1299] Authority of county.—When any such cemetery is located without the limits of any city, the commissioners court of such county shall have the power to prescribe the maximum at which lots therein shall be sold. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 932. [733] [332] [290] Certiorari to county court.—Any person interested in the estate of a decedent or ward may have the proceedings of the county court therein revised and corrected at any time within two years after such proceedings were had, and not afterward. Persons non compos mentis, infants and femes covert shall have two years after the removal of their respective disabilities within which to apply for such revision and correction. [Acts March 16, 1848, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106.]

Art. 933. [734] [333] [291] Application for.—An application for writ of certiorari to the county court shall be made to the district court, or a judge thereof. It shall state the name and residence of each party adversely interested, and shall distinctly set forth the error in the proceeding sought to be revised.

Art. 934. [735] [334] [292] Granted on execution of bond.—The writ of certiorari shall in all cases be granted upon the application of a party therefor upon the applicant entering into bond in such sum as shall be required by the judge, sufficient to secure the costs of the proceeding.

Art. 935. [736] [335] [293] Not to operate as supersedeas.—A writ of certiorari shall not operate as a supersedeas of the judgment of the county court, unless the applicant therefor shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in such sum as shall be fixed by the order of the district judge, payable to the adverse party, and conditioned for the performance of the judgment of the district court, in case such judgment shall be against the applicant.

Art. 936. [737] [336] [294] Writ.—The writ of certiorari shall be issued by the district clerk upon the compliance of the party with the order of the district court or the judge thereof. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and shall command him to cite the county clerk to make out a certified transcript of the proceedings designated in the writ, and transmit the same to the district court to which the writ is returnable, on or before the return day of the next succeeding term thereof.

Art. 937. [738] [337] [295] When supersedeas granted.—When an order for a supersedeas has been made, it shall also require the clerk and all officers of said court to stay further proceedings on the judgment specified in said writ.

Art. 938. [739] [338] [296] Citation as in ordinary cases.—Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation for the party named in the application as being adversely interested in the proceedings sought to be revised.

Art. 939. [740] [339] [297] Trial de novo.—The cause shall be tried de novo in the district court, but the issues shall be confined to the grounds of error specified in the application for the writ. The judgment shall be certified to the county court for observance. [Act May 13, 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 940. [741] [340] [298] Appeals and writs of error.—Appeals and writs of error to the supreme court, from the judgments of the district courts in cases of certiorari, shall be allowed and governed by the rules as in other cases.

Art. 941. [742] [341] [299] Certiorari to justices' court.—After final judgment in a justice court in any cause except in cases of forcible entry and detainer, the cause may be removed to the county court by writ of certiorari (or if the civil jurisdiction has been transferred from the county to the district court, then to the district court,) in the manner hereinafter directed. [Acts 1879, p. 125; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1425.]

Art. 942. [743] [342] [300] On order of the court or judge.—The writ of certiorari shall be issued by order of the county court or the judge thereof, if jurisdiction is transferred to said district court as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 943. [744] [343] [301] Requisites of the writ.—The writ shall command the justice to make and certify a copy of the entries in the cause on his docket, and transmit the same, with the papers in his possession, to the proper court on or before the first day of the next term thereof. If there is not time for such transcript and papers to be filed at such term, then they shall be so filed at the next succeeding term of said court. [Act March 20, 1848, p. 163; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 163.]

Art. 944. [745] [344] [302] Affidavit of sufficient cause.—The writ shall not be granted unless the applicant or some person for him having knowledge of the facts, shall make affidavit setting forth sufficient cause to entitle him thereto. [Id.]

Art. 945. [746] [345] [303] Application for certiorari.—To constitute a sufficient cause, the facts stated must show that either the justice of the peace had not jurisdiction, or that injustice was done to the applicant by the final determination of the suit or proceeding, and that such injustice was not caused by his own inexcusable neglect. [Id.]

Art. 946. [747] [346] [304] Within what time granted.—Such writ shall not be granted after ninety days from the final judgment of the justice. [Id.]

Art. 947. [748] [347] [305] Bond with sureties required.—The writ shall not be issued unless the applicant shall first cause to be filed a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, payable to the adverse party, in such sum as the judge shall direct, to the effect that the party applying therefor will perform the judgment of the county or district court, if the same shall be against him. [Id.]

Art. 948. [749] [348] [306] Bond, affidavit and order.—The bond and affidavit, with the order of the judge, when made in vacation, shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which the same is returnable.

Art. 949. [750] [349] [307] Writ to issue instanter.—As soon as such affidavit, order of the judge, and bond, shall have been filed, the clerk shall issue a writ of certiorari. [Act May 10, 1850, p. 60.]

Art. 950. [751] [350] [308] Justice shall stay proceedings.—Upon service of such writ of certiorari being made upon the justice of the peace, he shall stay further proceedings on the judgment and forthwith comply with said writ. [Id.]

Art. 951. [752] [351] [309] Citation as in other cases.—Whenever a writ of certiorari has been issued, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation for the party adversely interested.

Art. 952. [753] [352] [310] Cause docketed.—The action shall be docketed in the name of the original plaintiff, as plaintiff, and of the original defendant, as defendant.

Art. 953. [754] [353] [311] Motion to dismiss.—At the first term of the court to which the certiorari is returnable, the adverse party may move to dismiss the certiorari for want of sufficient cause appearing in the affidavit, or for want of sufficient bond.

Art. 954. [755] [354] [312] No amendment of bond or oath.—No amendment of the affidavit shall be made in the county or district court, nor shall a new affidavit be filed.

Art. 955. [756] [355] [313] Judgment of dismissal.—If the certiorari be dismissed, the judgment shall direct the justice to proceed with the execution of the judgment below.

Art. 956. [757] [356] [314] Pleading.—No pleading other than that required by law in the justice court shall be necessary, except in cases of amendment, as hereinafter provided.

Art. 957. [758] [357] [315] Issues made up.—When no pleadings were filed in the justice court, and none were necessary the issues shall be made up under the direction of the court.

Art. 958. [759] [358] [316] New matter may be pleaded.—Either party may plead any new matter in the county or district court which was not presented in the court below; but no new cause of action shall be set up by the plaintiff, nor shall any set-off or counter claim be set up by the defendant which was not pleaded in the court below. In all such cases the pleadings shall be in writing, and filed in the cause before the parties have announced ready for trial.

Art. 959. [760] [359] [317] Trial de novo.—The cause shall be tried de novo, in the county or district court; and judgment shall be rendered as in cases appealed from justice courts.

Art. 960. [761] [360] [318] Appeals and writs of error.— Appeals and writs of error from the judgments of the county or district court, in cases of certiorari from justice courts, shall be allowed, subject to such rules and limitations as apply in cases appealed from justices' courts.

Art. 961. [762-3] May adopt this title.—Any incorporated city, town or village in this State containing six hundred inhabitants or over, however legally incorporated, and any incorporated city, town or village of whatever population containing one or more manufacturing establishments within the corporate limits, may accept the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in lieu of any existing charter, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village, had at a regular meeting thereof, and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter, shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings, as aforesaid. When such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, and vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and franchises therein conferred. The provisions of this title shall not apply to any city, town or village until such provisions have been accepted by the council in accordance with this article. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485; Acts 1881, p. 115; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 207; Acts 1885, p. 57; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 667; Acts 1915, p. 64; Acts 1919, p. 110.]

Art. 962. [764] [383] [342] General powers.—All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of this title shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before such acceptance, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of said acceptance, and those hereinafter granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of said acceptance, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic and under the same name shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 963. [765-6] Not affected by this title.—All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any city accepting the provisions of this title, is hereby vested in the corporation created by this title, and the officers of said corporation, in office at the date of its acceptance, shall continue in the same, until superseded in conformity with the provisions of this title. All rights, actions, fines, penalties and forfeitures in suits or otherwise, which have accrued under the laws heretofore in force, shall be vested in and prosecuted by the corporation hereby created. No suit pending shall be affected by the passage and acceptance of this title, but the same shall be prosecuted or defended as the case may be, by the corporation hereby created. [Id.]

Art. 964. [767] [571] [500] Cemetery lots exempt.—The cemetery lots which have, and may hereafter be laid out and sold for said city for private places of burial shall, with their appurtenances, be forever exempt from taxes, executions, attachments or forced sales. [Id.]

Art. 965. [773] [384] [343] City limits.—The bounds and limits of said municipality shall be and remain the same as fixed and defined by the provisions of the act of incorporation, substituted by the provisions of this title; provided, that said limits of said corporation may be hereafter extended by adding additional territory to the same, whenever the majority of the qualified electors of said territory shall indicate a desire to be included within the limits of said corporation in the manner provided in Article 974 of this title. [Id.]

Art. 966. [774] [385] May incorporate.—Any city or town containing six hundred inhabitants or over may be incorporated as such, with all the powers, rights, immunities and privileges mentioned and described in the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in the manner described in Chapter 11 of this title for incorporating towns and villages, except that the application to become incorporated shall be signed by at least fifty electors, residents of such city or town, and except that when an election is held according to the provisions of such chapter the words "towns and villages" shall be construed to mean "cities and towns." When the entry by the county judge, provided in article 1139 is made with reference to a city or town of six hundred inhabitants and over, such city or town shall be vested with all the rights and privileges of such cities conferred by this title. [Acts 1881, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 155; Acts 1881, p. 115; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 207; Acts 1915, p. 64.]

Art. 967. Cities of the Republic.—Any city, town or village, within this State, incorporated under any law, general or special, of the Republic of Texas, regardless of the extent of the boundaries thereof, or the number of its population, may accept the provisions of Chapters 1 to 10, both inclusive, of this title, in lieu of any existing charter created by any such law of the Republic of Texas, by a two-thirds vote of the council of such city, town or village; which action by the council shall be held at a regular meeting thereof and entered upon the journal of their proceedings, and a copy of the same signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or secretary under the corporate seal, filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which such city, town or village is situated, and the provisions of said Chapters 1 to 10 both inclusive, of this title shall be in force, and all acts theretofore passed incorporating said city, town or village, which may be in force by virtue of any existing charter shall be repealed from and after the filing of said copy of their proceedings as aforesaid, when such city, town or village is so incorporated as herein provided, the same shall be known as a city or town, subject to the provisions of this title, vested with all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises therein conferred. [Acts 1917, p. 85.]

Art. 968. Effect of acceptance.—All the inhabitants of each city, town or village so accepting the provisions of chapters 1 to 10 of this title, shall continue to be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style by which such city, town or village was known before the acceptance of the provisions of such law, and as such they and their successors by that name shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers, privileges and franchises possessed and enjoyed by the same at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of such title and those herein granted and conferred, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations pertaining to or incumbent on the same as a corporation at the time of the acceptance of the provisions of such title, and may ordain and establish such acts, laws, regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, as shall be needful for the government, interest, welfare and good order of said body politic, and, under the same name, shall be known in law, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatever, may take, hold and purchase, lease, grant and convey such real and personal or mixed property or estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits thereof; and may make, have and use a corporate seal and change and renew the same at pleasure. [Id.]

Art. 969. Property rights.—All property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to any such city, town, or village so incorporated under and by virtue of any law of the Republic of Texas, general or special, accepting said title, is hereby vested in the corporation thus created, and the council of such city, town or village is hereby authorized and empowered to sell and alienate such property and to appropriate the proceeds of such sale to the acquisition or construction, maintenance or operation of a water, sewer, gas and electric light and power system, or any one or more of such systems, within or without the limits of such city or town, or for any other public improvement within said city or town, as the council thereof may determine. [Id.]

Art. 970. To adjust boundaries.—Whenever there shall exist within the boundaries of any such city, town or village accepting said provisions, territory to the extent of at least ten acres contiguous, uninhabited and adjoining the lines of such city or town, the mayor and council of such city or town shall, within one year from the filing in the office of the county clerk of the action of the council accepting the provisions of this law, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and before they shall levy any taxes for said city or town by ordinance duly passed, discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town and shall redefine the bounds and limits of such city or town so that they shall conform as nearly as practicable to the requirements of article 971, and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the clerk shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town; provided that should there be situated within the said territory, so discontinued, any property of any description belonging to said city or town, the title to said property, so situated, shall remain in such city or town and may be sold, alienated and disposed of by such city or town, the same as if it were situated within the bounds and limits of such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 971. [777] Territorial boundaries.—No city or town in this State shall be hereafter incorporated under the provisions of the general charter for cities and towns contained in this title with a superficial area of more than two square miles, when such town or city has less than two thousand inhabitants, nor more than four square miles when such city or town has more than two thousand and less than five thousand inhabitants, nor more than nine square miles, when such city or town has more than five and less than ten thousand inhabitants. The mayor and board of aldermen, immediately after they qualify as such officers, shall pass an ordinance causing an actual survey of the boundaries of such town to be made according to the boundaries designated in the petition for incorporation, and the field notes thereof recorded in the minute book of such town or city, and also in the record books of deeds in the county in which such city or town is situated. [Acts 1895, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 747.]

Art. 972. [778] Territory relinquished.—The mayor and the board of aldermen of any town or city in this State heretofore incorporated under Title 18 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1895 of this State, and whose boundaries have been established so as to include more territory than is specified in the preceding article, shall immediately cause a resurvey of the boundaries of such city or town to be made, so as not to include more territory than is provided for in the preceding article; such resurvey to be made and the field notes thereof to be recorded as provided in said article. [Id.]

Art. 973. [780] Discontinuing territory.—Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city or town organized under the general laws within this State territory to the extent of at least ten acres, contiguous, uninhabited and adjoining the lines of any such city or town, the mayor and city or town council may by ordinance duly passed, discontinue said territory as a part of said city or town; and when said ordinance has been duly passed, the mayor shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city or town council; and, from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said city or town. [Acts 1895, p. 178; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 909.]

Art. 974. [781] [574] Adjoining inhabitants.—When a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the State legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city incorporated under, or accepting the provisions of, this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may, by ordinance, receive them as part of said city; from thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this title. [Acts 1875, p. 156; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 528.]

Art. 975. [782] [575] Segregating territory.—Whenever fifty qualified voters of any territory within the limits of any incorporated town shall sign and present a petition to the mayor of such city, praying that such territory, setting the same out by metes and bounds, be declared no longer a part of such town, the mayor thereof shall order an election within thirty days thereafter to be held at the different voting precincts of said town; and if a majority of the legal voters of said town voting at such election cast their votes in favor of discontinuing said territory as a part of said town, the mayor of said city shall declare such territory no longer a part of said city, and shall enter an order to that effect on the minutes or records of the city council; and from and after the date of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of said town; provided, no city or town shall thus be reduced to a less area than one square mile or one mile in diameter around the center of the original corporate limits. [Acts 1883, p. 99; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 405.]

Art. 976. [783] [576] Liabie for debts.—Whenever any territory shall withdraw as above provided, and such city or town shall at the time of such withdrawal owe any debts by bond or otherwise, such withdrawing territory shall not be released from the payment of its pro rata of such indebtedness; but it shall be the duty of said city council to continue to levy an ad valorem tax each year on the property of such territory of the same rate as is levied upon other property of such city, until the taxes collected from said territory shall equal its pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city or town at the time of the withdrawal. The taxes so collected shall be charged only with the cost of levying and collecting the same, and the same shall be applied exclusively to the payment of said pro rata share of indebtedness. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the inhabitants of said territory from paying in full, at any time, their pro rata share of the indebtedness of said city. [Id.]

Art. 977. [784] [387] [344] City officials.—The municipal government of the city shall consist of a city council composed of the mayor and two aldermen from each ward, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at called meetings, or meetings for the imposition of taxes, when two-thirds of a full board shall be required, unless otherwise specified, provided that where the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council shall be composed of the mayor and five aldermen, and the provisions of this title relating to proceedings in a ward shall apply to a whole city or town. Other officers of the corporation shall be a treasurer, an assessor and collector, a secretary, a city attorney, a marshal, city engineer, and such other officers and agents as the city council may from time to time direct. The office of treasurer, assessor and collector, city attorney, and city engineer may be dispensed with by an ordinance to that effect, and the powers and duties herein prescribed for such officers may be conferred by the council upon other officers. The above named officers shall be elected by the qualified electors of the city for a term of two years. [Acts 1881, p. 115; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 208.]

Art. 978. [785] [388] [345] Election.—An election shall be held annually in each ward of said city on the first Tuesday in April, at such places as the city council may direct, and of which thirty days notice shall be given. Such election shall be ordered and notice thereof shall be given, and the election officers and supervisors appointed, as provided by article 2951. The presiding officers and judges must be qualified voters in the city. The city council shall provide for their compensation, and by ordinance, regulate and define their powers and duties. [Id; Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 533.]

Art. 979. [786] [389] [346] Ward Election of Councilmen.—At the first election under this title there shall be elected a mayor, and two aldermen from each ward, one of whom shall hold office for one year, and the other for two years from the date of their election, to be determined by lot at the first regular meeting after said election. At each annual election thereafter there shall be elected one alderman from each ward, who shall hold office for two years. If the city or town is not divided into wards, the city council may determine by ordinance what number of aldermen shall go out of office in one year, and the manner of deciding which shall hold for the long term and which for the short term. [Acts 1895, p. 8, G. L. Vol. 10, p. 783.]

Art. 980. [787] [390] [347] Hours of election.—The ballots of each ward shall be taken separately, the polls being opened in each ward for one day only, from eight o'clock a. m. until six o'clock p. m., with the privilege of a recess from 12 o'clock to one o'clock. If the polls are not promptly opened for the reception of votes at eight o'clock a. m., the time thus lost shall be extended beyond the hour of six p. m. so as to secure the full period of nine hours to vote. [Id.]

Art. 981. [787] [390] [347] Returns.—On closing the polls, the managers of the election shall immediately proceed to count and cast up the votes for each candidate and certify and sign the returns in duplicate, one of which shall be sealed and returned by the presiding officer for future use as a reference in the case of a contested election; the other shall be sealed with the name of the presiding officer written across the seals, and by the presiding officer, or in his absence or inability by one of the judges or clerks, delivered in open session to the city council as soon as practicable. The officer delivering the same shall make oath before the mayor or one of the aldermen that the returns by him delivered have not been altered or opened since being signed and sealed as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 982. [787] [390] [347] Shall declare result.—The city council shall immediately open the returns from each ward, casting up the votes of the wards, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected. In the first election held hereunder, the two persons from the same ward receiving the highest number of votes in the city for aldermen of the wards for which they are candidates shall be declared elected aldermen of such wards. If the city council fails to meet and declare the results of such election, the mayor shall discharge that duty. [Acts 1875, p. 113; Id.; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 983. [787] [390] [347] Installation of officers.—The newly elected officers may enter upon their duties on the fifth day thereafter, Sundays excepted. If any such officer fails to qualify within thirty days after his election, his office shall be deemed vacant, and a new election held to fill the same. The city council-elect shall meet at the usual place of meeting on the fifth day, Sundays excepted, after their election or as soon thereafter as possible, and be installed under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 984. [789] [392] [349] Election managers.—The election managers shall be sworn well and truly to conduct the election, without partiality or prejudice, and agreeably to law, and according to the best of their skill and understanding. Such oath shall be administered by the mayor or any justice of the peace. The presiding officers and judges thus qualified shall have power to administer oaths necessary to the performance of their official duties. [Id.]

Art. 985. [789] [392] [349] Rejection of votes.—When any person offering a vote shall be objected to by any one qualified to vote at such election, the managers shall examine him on oath touching the points objected to; and, if he fails to establish his qualification to their satisfaction his vote shall be rejected. [Id.]

Art. 986. [791] [394] [350] Tie vote.—If in any election there is a tie between two or more candidates for the same office, all of whom cannot be elected, the city council shall declare such election void as between such candidates only, and immediately order a new election for the office, giving not less than five days notice thereof. [Id.]

Art. 987. [792] [395] [351] Qualifications of officers.—No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor unless he is a qualified elector and has resided twelve months next preceding the election within the city limits. To be eligible for aldermen, one must reside in the ward from which he may be elected at the time of his election. If any alderman removes from the ward in which he was elected, his office shall be deemed vacant. [Id.]

Art. 988. [793] [566] [495] Limitations of councilmen.—No member of the city council shall hold any other employment or office under the city government until he is a member of said council, unless herein otherwise provided. No member of the city council, or any other officer of the corporation, shall be directly or indirectly interested in any work, business or contract, the expense, price or consideration of which is paid from the city treasury, or by an assessment levied by an ordinance or resolution of the city council, nor be the surety of any person having a contract, work or business with said city, for the performance of which security may be required, nor be the surety on the official bond of any city officer. [Acts 1875, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 526.]

Art. 989. [797] [396] [352] Vacancy.—In case of a vacancy from any cause in the office of mayor or alderman, the city council shall order a new election to fill such vacancy. All special elections shall be conducted as is herein provided for in the annual election. In all special elections to fill vacancies, ten days notice shall be sufficient. In case of a vacancy in any other office in the city, the mayor or acting mayor shall fill such vacancy by appointment, to be confirmed by the city council. [Acts 1887, p. 41; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 839.]

Art. 990. [798-9] Special election.—Whenever a vacancy occurs by resignation or otherwise, in the municipal offices of any incorporated city or town in this State, so that the vacancy cannot be filled under the charter of said city or town, or under the laws of this State now in force, then the commissioners court of said county in which said town or city is situated, upon a petition of not less than twenty-six tax paying voters living in such city, shall order an election to be held to fill such vacancy, giving notice of not less than ten days in the usual manner provided for such elections, which shall be held in like manner as similar elections and the officers so elected shall in like manner be qualified and installed. [Acts 1875, p. 159; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1213.]

Art. 991. [801] [399] [355] Mayor pro tempore.—At the first meeting of each new council, or as soon thereafter as practicable, one of the aldermen shall be elected president pro tempore, who shall hold his office for one year. In case of the failure, inability or refusal of the mayor to act, the president pro tempore shall perform the duties and receive the fees and compensation of the mayor. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 992. [802] [553] [482] Change of wards.—The wards of each city accepting the provisions of this title shall be and remain unchanged by its acceptance. The city council shall have power from time to time to cause a division of said city to be made into as many wards as they may deem necessary, and for the good of the inhabitants of said city, and may change the boundaries of the same. No such division or change shall be made unless it be done at least three months preceding the city election next ensuing; and said wards so established shall contain as far as practicable an equal number of voters. [Acts 1875, p. 151; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 523.]

CHAPTER THREE.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF OFFICERS.

| | Article | | Article |
|----------------------------------|---------|-----------------------------------|---------|
| Oath | 993 | Secretary, duties, etc. | 1000 |
| Duties of Mayor | 994 | Treasurer, duties etc. | 1001 |
| Special police force | 995 | Control of officers | 1002 |
| Powers of the mayor | 996 | Qualifications of appointee | 1003 |
| Ordinances and resolutions | 997 | Officer disqualified | 1004 |
| Police officers | 998 | Resignation of officers | 1005 |
| Marshal, duties, etc. | 999 | Removal of officers | 1006 |

Art. 993. [803] [400] [356] Oath.—Every person elected or appointed to fill an office under this title shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the official oath. The city council by ordinance may require such additional oath as it may deem best calculated to secure faithfulness in the performance of their duties by such officers. [Acts 1875, p. 118; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 490.]

Art. 994. [804] [401] [357] Duties of mayor.—The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of said corporation, and shall be active at all times in causing the laws and ordinances of said city to be duly executed and put in force. He shall inspect the conduct of all subordinate officers in the government thereof, and, shall cause all negligence, carelessness and other violations of duty to be prosecuted and punished. He shall have power, if in his judgment the good of the city may require it, to summon meetings of the city council; and he shall communicate to that body such information and recommend such measures as may tend to the improvement of the finances, the police, health security, cleanliness, comfort, ornament and good government of said city. [Acts 1881, p. 115; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 207.]

Art. 995. [805] [402] [358] Special police force.—Whenever the mayor deems it necessary, in order to enforce the laws of the city, or to avert danger, or to protect life or property, in case of riot or any outbreak or calamity or public disturbance, or when he has reason to fear any serious violation of law or order, or any outbreak or any other danger to said city, or the inhabitants thereof, he shall summon into service as a special police force, all or as many of the citizens as in his judgment may be necessary. Such summons may be by proclamation or other order addressed to the citizens generally, or those of any ward of the city, or subdivision thereof, or may be by personal notification. Such special police force while in service, shall be subject to the orders of the mayor, shall perform such duties as he may require, and shall have the same power while on duty as the regular police force of said city. [Acts 1875, p. 119; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 491.]

Art. 996. [806] [403] [359] Powers of the mayor.—The mayor shall have power to administer oaths of office. He shall have authority in case of a riot or any unlawful assemblage, or with a view to preserve peace and good order in said city, to order and enforce the closing of any theatre, ball room, or other place of resort, or public room or building, and may order the arrest of any person violating in his presence, the laws of this State, or any ordinance of the city. He shall perform such other duties and possess and exercise such other power and authority as may be prescribed and conferred by the city council. [Id.]

Art. 997. [807] [404] [360] Ordinances and resolutions.—All ordinances and resolutions adopted by the council shall, before they take effect, be placed in the office of the city secretary; and the mayor shall sign those he approves. Such as he shall not sign, he shall return to the city council with his objections thereto. Upon the return of any ordinance or resolution by the mayor, the vote by which the same was passed shall be reconsidered. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the whole number of aldermen agree to pass the same, and enter their votes on the journal of their proceedings, it shall be in force. If the mayor shall neglect to approve or object to any such proceedings for a longer period than three days after the same shall be placed in the secretary's office as aforesaid, the same shall go into effect. [Id.]

Art. 998. [808] Police Officers.—The city or town council in any city or town in this State, incorporated under the provisions of this title may, by ordinance, provide for the appointment, term of office and qualifications of such police officers as may be deemed necessary. Such police officers so appointed shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, as shall be fixed by the city council. Such council may, by ordinance, provide that such police officers shall hold their office at the pleasure of the city council, and for such term as the city council directs. Such police officers shall give bond for the faithful performance of their duties, as the city council may require. Such officers shall have like powers, rights and authority as are by said title vested in city marshals. [Acts 1907, p. 299.]

Art. 999. [809] [407] [363] Marshal, duties, etc.—The marshal of the city shall be ex-officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies which appointment shall only be valid upon the approval of the city council. Said marshal shall, in person or by deputy, attend upon the corporation court while in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court. He shall have like power, with the sheriff of the county, to execute warrants; he shall be active in quelling riots, disorder and disturbance of the peace within the city limits and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the corporation court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinance or laws of the city. It shall be his duty to arrest, without warrant, all violators of the public peace, and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbance whatever; to prevent a breach of the peace or preserve quiet and good order, he shall have authority to close any theatre, ball room or other place or building of public resort. In the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders, he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority, and jurisdiction as the sheriff. He shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers and authority as the city council may by ordinance require and confer, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State. The marshal shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the city council may require. He shall receive a salary or fees of office, or both, to be fixed by the city council. The governing body of any city or town having less than three thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census, may by an ordinance, dispense with the office of marshal, and at the same time by such ordinance confer the duties of said office upon any peace officer of the county, but no marshal elected by the people shall be removed from his office under the provisions of this article. [Acts 1875, p. 122; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 494; Acts 1901, p. 114.]

Art. 1000. [810] [408] [364] Secretary, duties, etc.—The city secretary shall attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council, keep the corporate seal, take charge of and preserve and keep in order all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council, countersign all commissions issued to city officers, and licenses issued by the mayor, and keep a record or register thereof, and make out all notices required under any regulation or ordinance of the city. He shall draw all the warrants on the treasurer and countersign the same and keep an accurate account thereof in a book provided for the purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation, and shall keep in books regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause of receipt and disbursement, and also accounts with each person including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting accounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council; and he shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order of the city council. He shall receive for his services an annual salary payable at stated periods, and such additional fees as the city council may allow. [Id.]

Art. 1001. [811] [409] [365] Treasurer, duties, etc.—The treasurer shall give bond in favor of the city in such amount, and in such form as the city council may require, with sufficient security to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. He shall receive and securely keep all moneys belonging to the city, and make all payments for the same upon the order of the mayor, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation. No order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter and whensoever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do. At the end of every half year he shall cause to be published, at the expense of the city, a statement showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the six months next preceding, and the general condition of the treasury. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require. He shall receive such compensation as the city council shall fix. [Id.]

Art. 1002. [812] [411] [367] Control of officers.—The city council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties of all officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties of all officers appointed or elected to any office under this title whose duties are not herein specially mentioned, and fix their compensation. They may also require bonds to be given to the said corporation by all officers for the faithful performance of their duties. The city council shall provide for filling vacancies in all offices, not herein provided for. In all cases of vacancy, the same shall be filled only for the unexpired term. [Id.]

Art. 1003. [794] [562] [491] Qualifications of appointee.—No person other than an elector resident of the city shall be appointed to any office by the city council. [Id.]

Art. 1004. [800] [565] [494] Officer disqualified.—Any officer who has been intrusted with the collection or custody of funds belonging to a city who shall be in default to said city, shall thereafter be incapable of holding any office under said city, until the amount of his defalcation shall have been fully paid to said city, with ten per cent interest. [Id.]

Art. 1005. [795] [563] [492] Resignation of officers.—Resignation by any officer authorized by this title to be elected or appointed shall be made to the city council in writing, subject to their approval and acceptance. Any appointee of the mayor may present his written resignation to that officer for his action. [Id.]

Art. 1006. [796] [564] [493] Removal of officers.—The city council shall have power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defense. The city council shall also have power at any time to remove any officer of the corporation elected by them, by resolution declaratory of its want of confidence in said officer; provided, that two-thirds of the aldermen elected vote in favor of said resolution. [Id.]

Art. 1007. [813] [412] [368] Presiding officer.—The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council, and shall have a casting vote, except in elections. If he and the president pro tem are absent, any alderman may be appointed to preside. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1008. [814] [413] [369] Meetings.—Petitions and remonstrances may be presented to the council in writing only.

The city council shall hold stated meetings at such times and places as they shall by resolution direct. The mayor, of his own motion, or on the application of three aldermen, may call special meetings, by notice to each member of said council, the secretary and city attorney, served personally or left at their usual place of abode. The council shall determine the rules of its proceedings and be the judge of the election and qualification of its own members, and may compel the attendance of absent members and punish them for disorderly conduct. [Id.]

Art. 1009. [815] [567] [496] Attendance of officers.—Each alderman shall be fined three dollars for each meeting which he fails to attend, unless on account of his own sickness or that of his family. Any member of the city council remaining absent for three regular consecutive meetings of the board, unless prevented by sickness, without first having obtained leave of absence at a regular meeting, shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and the mayor shall proceed to fill the vacancy in accordance with the charter. [Id.]

Art. 1010. [816] [569] [498] Salary of officers.—The city council shall, on or before the first day of January next preceding each election, fix the salary and fees of office of the mayor to be elected at the next regular election, and fix the compensation to be paid to the officers elected or appointed by the city council. The compensation so fixed shall not be changed during the term for which said officers shall be elected or appointed. [Id.]

Art. 1011. [817] [464] [418] Powers.—The city council shall have power to pass, publish, amend or repeal all ordinances, rules and police regulations, not contrary to the Constitution of this State, for the good government, peace and order of the city and the trade and commerce thereof, that may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers vested by this title in the corporation, the city government or in any department or office thereof; to enforce the observance of all such rules, ordinances and police regulations, and to punish violations thereof. No fine or penalty shall exceed one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1012. [818] [559] [488] Style of ordinances.—The style of all ordinances shall be “Be it ordained by the city council of the city of _____” (inserting the name of the city); but it may be omitted when published in the form of a book or pamphlet. [Id.]

Art. 1013. [819-821] Publication of ordinances.—Every ordinance imposing any penalty, fine or forfeiture shall, after the passage thereof, be published in every issue of the official paper for ten days. If the official paper be published weekly, the publication shall be made in one issue thereof. Proof of such publication shall be made by the printer or publisher of such paper by affidavit filed with the city secretary, and shall be prima facie evidence of such publication and promulgation of such ordinances in all courts of the State. Such ordinances shall take effect and be in force from and after the publication thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ordinances not required to be published shall take effect from their passage, unless otherwise provided. Any town or city desiring to publish its ordinances in pamphlets, or book form need not republish such ordinances as have been previously published. All such ordinances, where printed and published by authority of the city council, shall be admitted and received in all courts without further proof. [Id; Acts 1889, p. 4; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1032.]

Art. 1014. [823] [568] May remit fines.—The city or town council shall have power to remit in whole or in part by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, any fine or penalty belonging to the city, which may be imposed or incurred under this title, or under any ordinance or resolution passed in pursuance thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1015. Other powers.—The governing body shall also have power:

1. Promotion of health.—To do all acts and make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the promotion of health or the suppression of disease.

2. Quarantine regulations.—To make regulations to prevent the introduction of contagious disease into the city; to make quarantine laws for that purpose, and to enforce them within the city and within ten miles thereof.

3. Joint sanitary regulations.—To cooperate with the commissioners' court of the county in which the municipality is situated in making such improvements as may, by it and said court, be deemed necessary to improve the public health and promote efficient sanitary regulations, and to arrange for the construction of, and payment for, said improvements.

4. Hospitals.—To erect or establish one or more hospitals, and control and regulate the same, and to prohibit or to permit and regulate the establishment of private hospitals.

5. Food inspection, etc.—To regulate the inspection of beef, pork, flour, meal, salt and other provisions; to appoint weighers, gaugers and inspectors, and to prescribe their duties and regulate their fees.

6. Sale of bread.—To regulate the weight and quality of the bread to be sold or used within the city.

7. Butchers.—To make such rules and regulations in relation to butchers as they may deem necessary and proper.

8. Unclean establishments.—To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, soap, tallow, or chandler establishment, or blacksmith shop, tannery, stable, slaughterhouse, sewers, privy, hide house or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place, to cleanse, remove or abate the same, as may be necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants.

9. Location of establishment.—To direct the location of business, tanneries, blacksmith shops, foundries, livery stables and any manufacturing establishments; to direct the location and regulate the management and construction of, restrain, abate and prohibit within the city limits, slaughtering establishments and hide houses or establishments for making soap, for steaming or rendering lard, tallow, offal and such other substances as may be rendered; and all other establishments or places where any nauseous, offensive or unwholesome business may be carried on.

10. Drains, sinks, etc.—To require the owner of private drains, sinks and privies to fill up, cleanse, drain, alter, relay, repair, fix or improve the same as may be ordered by any resolution or ordinance of said city; and in the event of any failure, neglect or refusal to comply with any such order, the party so failing shall be liable to fine. In the event of there being no person in the city on whom such order can be served, the city may have such work done and such improvements made on account of the owner thereof. All costs, charges and expenses shall be a lien on the property, on the filing of a memorandum by the mayor, under the seal of the corporation thereof, and recording the same with the clerk of the district court. The city may enforce said lien and institute suit in the corporate name and obtain judgment against said party for the amount so due as aforesaid in any court having jurisdiction.

11. Nuisances.—To abate and remove nuisances and to punish the authors thereof by fine, and to define and declare what shall be nuisances and authorize and direct the summary abatement thereof; and to abate all nuisances which may injure or affect the public health or comfort in any manner they may deem expedient.

12. Dead animals, etc.—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the limits of said city any dead carcass, or other offensive or unwholesome substance or matter, and to require the removal or destruction by any person who shall have placed or caused to be placed upon or near his premises, or elsewhere, of any substance or matter, filth, or any putrid or unsound beef, pork or fish, hides or skins of any kind; and, on his default, to authorize the removal or destruction thereof by some officer of the city, and to require the owner of any dead animal to remove the same to such place as may be designated.

13. Burial of dead, etc.—To regulate the burial of the dead; to purchase, establish and regulate one or more cemeteries; to regulate the registration of marriages; and to direct the returning and keeping of bills of mortality.

14. Driving animals in city.—To prevent, regulate and control the driving of cattle, horses and other animals into or through the city.

15. Dogs.—To tax, regulate or restrain and prohibit the running at large of dogs and to authorize their destruction when at large contrary to ordinances, and to impose penalties for violation of such ordinances.

16. Pounds.—To establish and regulate public pounds, and to regulate, restrain and prohibit the running at large of horses, mules, cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, and to authorize the distraining, impounding and sale of the same for the costs of the proceedings and the penalty incurred, and to order their destruction when they cannot be sold, and to impose penalties on the owners thereof for the violation of any ordinance.

17. Breeding animals.—To pass necessary ordinances to prevent any person, corporation or association of individuals from keeping for breeding purposes a jack, bull or stallion within the corporate limits of such city or town.

18. Control of police.—To create, establish and regulate the police of the city; to appoint watchmen and policemen, and to prescribe their duties and powers and compensation.

19. Workhouses.—To erect and establish one or more workhouses or houses of correction, within or without the city limits, make all necessary rules and regulations therefor, and appoint all necessary keepers or assistants. In such workhouse or house of correction may be confined all vagrants and disorderly persons, who may be committed by the mayor or recorder, and any person who shall fail or refuse to pay the fine or costs imposed for any offense may, instead of being committed to jail, be kept therein.

20. Breach of peace, etc.—To prevent all trespasses, breaches of the peace and good order, assaults and batteries, fighting, quarreling, using abusive, obscene, profane or insulting language and all disorderly conduct, and punish all persons thus offending.

21. Public disturbances.—To suppress and prevent any riot, affray, noise, disturbance or disorderly assembly in any public or private place within the city.

22. Noises and annoyances.—To prohibit and restrain the firing of firecrackers, guns and pistols, use of velocipedes, or use of any pyrotechnic or any other amusements or practices tending to annoy persons passing in the streets or sidewalks, or to frighten horses or teams; to restrain and prohibit the ringing of bells, blowing of horns and bugles, crying of goods, and all other noises, practices and performances tending to the collection of persons on the streets and sidewalks, by auctioneers and others, for the purpose of business, amusement or otherwise.

23. Obstructions on public ways, etc.—To prevent the encumbering of the streets, alleys, sidewalks, and public grounds, with any vehicle whatsoever, boxes, lumber, posts, awnings, signs, or any other substance or material whatever, to compel persons to keep all weeds, filth or any kind of rubbish from the sidewalks and streets and gutters in front of their premises, and to compel the owners of property to fill up, grade, gravel and otherwise improve the sidewalks in front of same.

24. Dangerous buildings, etc.—To order, whenever in the opinion of the city council, any building, fence, shed, awning or any erection of any kind or any part thereof is liable to fall down and endanger persons or property, any owner or agent of the same, or any owner or occupant of the premises on which such building, shed, awning or other erection stands or to which it is attached, to take down and remove the same, or any part thereof, within such time as they may direct; and to punish by fine and imprisonment, or either, any neglect, failure or refusal to comply therewith. The city council shall have power to remove the same at the expense of the city, on account of the owner of the property or premises, and assess the expenses on the land on which it stood or to which it was attached, and shall, by ordinance, provide for such assessment, the mode and manner of giving notice and the means of recovering any such expenses.

25. Bridges, sewers, etc.—To establish, erect, construct, regulate and keep in repair, bridges, culverts, and sewers, sidewalks and cross-ways, and to regulate the construction and use of the same, and to abate any obstructions or encroachments thereon; and the cost of construction of sidewalks shall be defrayed by the owner of the lot, or part of lot or block, fronting on the sidewalk. The cost of any sidewalk constructed by the city shall be collected, if necessary, by the sale of the lot, or part of lot or block on which it fronts, together with the cost of collection, in such manner as the city council may by ordinance provide. A sale of any lot or part of lot or block to enforce collection of costs of sidewalks shall convey a good title to the purchaser. The balance of proceeds of such sale, after paying the amount due the city and costs of sale, shall be paid to the owner.

26. Street railways.—To compel street railway companies to keep their roads in repair, and to make them conform to the grades of the streets upon which their tracks may be laid, whenever said streets shall have been graded by the city, and to restrain the rate of speed and to compel such railroads to supply ample accommodation for the safe and convenient travel of the people on the street where their track may run. The city council may enforce these regulations by proper ordinances with suitable penalties.

27. Railway companies.—To direct and control the laying and constructing of railroad tracks, turnouts and switches, or prohibit the same in the streets, avenues and alleys, unless the same have been authorized by law, and the location of depots within the city; to require that railroad tracks, turnouts and switches shall be so constructed as to interfere as little as possible with the ordinary travel and use of streets, avenues and alleys and that sufficient space shall be left on either side of a track for the safe and convenient passage of teams, carriages and other vehicles, and persons; to require railroad companies to keep in repair the streets, avenues or alleys through which their track may run, and, if ordered by the city council, to construct and keep in repair, suitable crossings at the intersection of streets, avenues and alleys, and ditches, sewers and culverts, when the city council shall deem it necessary; to direct the use and regulate the speed of locomotive engines in said city, or to prevent and prohibit the use or running of the same within the city.

28. Unsafe driving.—To prevent, prohibit and suppress horse-racing, immoderate riding or driving in the streets; to compel persons to fasten their horses or other animals attached to vehicles, or otherwise, while standing or remaining in the streets.

29. Light and gas.—To provide for lighting the streets and erecting lamp posts therein, and regulating the lighting thereof, and from time to time create, alter or extend lamp districts, to exclusively regulate, direct and control the laying and repairing of the gas pipes and gas fixtures in the streets, alleys, sidewalks and elsewhere.

30. Water system.—To provide, or cause to be provided, the city with water; to make, regulate and establish public wells, pumps and cisterns, hydrants and reservoirs in the streets or elsewhere within said city or beyond the limits thereof, for the extinguishment of fires and the convenience of the inhabitants, and to prevent the unnecessary waste of water. Any city or town owning, or that may hereafter own, its water system and plant, shall not lease or sell the same without first submitting the question of such proposed lease or sale to a vote of the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such town or city as shown by the last preceding tax rolls, at a general election, or at one held for that especial purpose, nor unless a majority of those voting shall vote in favor thereof. Before submitting such question to a vote as aforesaid, the proposed contract of lease or sale shall be distinctly set forth in the form of an ordinance or contract, and shall be filed with the city or town secretary or clerk at least twenty days prior to the day of the election, and shall at all times be subject to inspection by the people of such city.

31. Market house.—To establish or erect, or cause to be established or erected, markets and market houses; designate, control and regulate market places and privileges; inspect and determine the mode of inspecting meat, fish, vegetables and all produce and every article and thing therein brought for sale.

32. Parks, etc.—To provide for inclosing, regulating and improving all public grounds and cemeteries belonging to the city, and to direct and regulate the planting and preserving of ornaments and shade trees in the streets, sidewalks or public grounds.

33. Libraries.—To establish a free library in such city or town; to adopt rules and regulations for the proper management thereof, and to appropriate such part of the revenues of such city or town for the management and increase of such free library as the municipal government of such city or town may determine.

34. Street car taxes.—To assess and collect the ordinary municipal taxes upon street railways.

35. Trade taxes.—To tax all trades, professions, occupations and callings, the taxing of which is not prohibited by the Constitution of this State; which tax shall not be construed to be a tax on property.

36. Chauffeurs, porters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate hackmen, draymen, omnibus drivers and drivers of baggage wagons, porters, and all others pursuing like occupations, with or without vehicles, and prescribe their compensation, and provide for their protection and make it a misdemeanor to attempt to defraud them of any legal charge for services rendered, and to regulate, license and restrain runners for railroads, stages and public houses.

37. Peddlers, theaters, etc.—To license, tax and regulate or suppress and prevent hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers and keepers or other exhibitions, shows and amusements.

38. Circuses, etc.—To license, tax or regulate theaters, circuses, the exhibitions of common showmen, shows of any kind, and the exhibition of natural and artificial curiosities, caravans, menageries and musical exhibitions and performances.

39. Licenses and fees.—To authorize the proper officer of the city to grant and issue licenses, and to direct the manner of issuing and registering thereof, and the fees to be paid therefor. No license shall be issued for a longer period than one year, and shall not be assignable except by permission of the city council.

40. Finances and property.—To manage and control the finances and all property, real and personal and mixed, belonging to the corporation.

41. Appropriations.—To appropriate money, and provide for the payment of debts and expenses of the city.

42. Special funds.—To provide by ordinance special funds for special purposes, and to make the same disbursable only for the purpose for which the fund was created. Any officer of the city misappropriating said special fund shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and shall, on complaint of any one interested in said funds misappropriated, be removed from office, and be incapable thereafter to hold any office in said city.

43. Improvements.—To appropriate so much of the revenues of the city emanating from whatever source, for the purpose of retiring and discharging the accrued indebtedness of the city, and for the purpose of improving the public markets and streets, erecting and conducting city hospitals, city hall, waterworks, and so forth, as they may from time to time deem expedient; and in furtherance of these objects, to borrow money upon the credit of the city.

Art. 1016. [854] [419] [375] Streets and alleys, etc.—Any incorporated city or town containing not more than five thousand population in this State shall have the exclusive control and power over the streets, alleys, and public grounds and highways of the city, and to abate and remove encroachments or obstructions thereon; to open, alter, widen, extend, establish, regulate, grade, clean and otherwise improve said streets; to put drains or sewers therein, and prevent incumbering thereof in any manner, and to protect same from encroachment or injury; and to regulate and alter the grade of premises; to require the filling up and raising of same; and such city council shall also have power to alter or vacate the alley in any block of ground in the city upon written application of the owner of the block, or if there be more than one owner of such block, then upon the written application of all owners thereof uniting in such application; such alley so vacated shall thereupon revert to and become the property of the owner of the block of which it was a part, or if more than one, then to the owners of the adjoining lots therein, each extending to the center of the alley so vacated. [Acts 1889, p. 1; Acts 1913, p. 326; Acts 1917, p. 351; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1029.]

Art. 1017. Sale of parks, streets, etc.—The charter or any amendment thereof, may authorize the governing body to sell and cause to be conveyed any land held or claimed for or as a public square or park, and the parts of streets and alleys within the limits of the city. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used only for the purpose of acquiring public squares, streets, or alleys. [Acts 1913, p. 326.]

Art. 1018. Use by railway, etc.—The charter, or any amendment thereto, may authorize the governing body to close for the exclusive use temporarily or perpetually by any railroad company or other corporation having power of eminent domain, any part or parts, of any street or streets, alley or alleys, and to ratify and confirm any prior ordinances closing any street or streets, alley or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, for the use of any railroad company or any such other corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1019. Special election.—No public square or park shall be sold, and no street or alley, nor part or parts of any street or alley closed, until the question of such sale or closing has been submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city or town, and approved by a majority of the votes cast at such election. [Id.]

Art. 1020. Towns so empowered.—The provisions of the three preceding articles shall be enforced in towns or cities under five thousand population, or cities over five thousand population which have no special charter, and in towns or cities incorporated under this title, and in cities or towns incorporated under any special law. The power authorized by this article may be conferred upon the governing body by vote of the qualified voters as provided in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 1021. [876] [577] [504] Interest on indebtedness.—No indebtedness of any character whatever, hereafter incurred by said corporation shall draw a higher rate of interest than six per cent per annum. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1022. [885 to 888] Audit board.—With the consent of the governing body, the mayor of each city or town incorporated under the general laws, shall at the first meeting of said body in January of each year appoint three resident citizens of said city or town who shall constitute a board of examiners of the finances of said city or town. Such examiners shall proceed to examine the books and accounts of each officer of said city or town, and make a sworn true report of the financial condition thereof to said governing body as soon as practicable and not later than the first meeting of said body in March of each year. The annual report of said board shall be passed upon by said governing body and spread upon the minutes of their meeting at the first regular meeting after the return of such report. Such examiners shall receive for their services such compensation as said governing body shall fix for every day actually employed in their investigations, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, which shall be paid by order of said body. [Acts 1905, p. 41; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 771.]

Art. 1023. [889] [556] [485] Financial statement.— The city council shall, at least ten days before the expiration of each municipal year, cause to be published in a city newspaper a correct and full statement of the receipts and expenditures from the date of the last annual report, together with the sources from which the funds were derived, and showing for what purpose disbursed, the condition of the treasury, together with such information as may be necessary to a full understanding of the financial condition of the city. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1024. [899] [480] Receiver appointed.— A city or town so situated as is herein set forth, which fails to effect a compromise of its debts, or pending the negotiation of a compromise, shall be permitted, on its application setting forth its financial condition and insolvency, to have the district court of the county in which said city or town is situated, take charge of the collection and appropriation of all taxes levied and assessed by said city or town, except so much thereof as is necessary to pay the current expenses of the city or town; and to that end, said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint a receiver, or make the assessor and collector of said city or town its receiver to collect and pay into a named depository all taxes levied by said city or town for the payment of its debts; and said courts shall decide all questions of priority between conflicting claimants of said funds, and shall provide for the ratable and equitable distribution of said funds among all creditors entitled thereto. But it shall not be lawful for any court to appoint a receiver of or concerning any city or town except upon the voluntary application of such city or town. [Acts 1887, p. 50; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 848.]

Art. 1025. [902] [555] [484] Official paper.— The city council shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of each municipal year, contract, as they may by ordinance or resolution determine, with a public newspaper of the city as the official paper thereof, and to continue as such until another is elected, and shall cause to be published therein all ordinances, notices and other matters required by this title or by the ordinance of the city to be published. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1026. [923] [484] Power to levy.—The governing body of any city or town in this State having a population of five thousand or less shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year one and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city or town, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, within the limits of such city or town, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city or town within its limits. [Acts 1921, p. 12.]

Art. 1027. [924] [485] Ad valorem tax.—The governing body of any incorporated city or town having a population of not more than five thousand inhabitants, shall have power, by ordinance, to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of not exceeding one and one-half per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property within such city or town for the erection, construction or purchase of public buildings, streets, sewers and other permanent improvements within the limits of such city or town. Within the meaning of this article shall be included building sites and buildings for public free schools and institutions of learning within those cities and towns which have or may assume the exclusive control and management of public free schools and institutions of learning within their limits. [Acts 1885, p. 99; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 719; Constitutional Amendment 1921.]

Art. 1028. Ad valorem tax in large cities.—The governing body of any city in this State having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in its special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people, shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect such taxes as such governing body may determine, not to exceed for any one year two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, for current expenses and for the purpose of construction or the purchase of public buildings, water works, sewers, and other permanent improvements, and for the construction and improvement of the roads, bridges and streets of such city, within its limits. [Acts 1921, p. 12.]

Art. 1029. Retirement of indebtedness.—To meet the interest and sinking fund on all indebtedness legally incurred prior to the adoption of the Constitutional amendment of September 25, 1883, regarding the power of cities and towns to levy and collect taxes, etc., the governing body of the following cities and towns shall have power by ordinance to levy, assess and collect an annual ad valorem tax sufficient therefor:

1. Of any city or town having a population of five thousand or less.

2. Of any city having more than five thousand inhabitants, unless otherwise provided in the special charter granted by the Legislature or adopted by the people. [Id.]

Art. 1030. [927] [489] [428] Poll tax.—The city council shall have power to levy and collect an annual poll tax, not to exceed one dollar, of every male inhabitant of said city over the age of twenty-one and under sixty years, idiots and lunatics excepted, who is a resident thereof at the time of such annual assessment. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1031. [928-9] Occupation tax.—The city council shall have the power to levy and collect taxes, commonly known as licenses, upon trades, professions, callings and other business carried on; and each person and firm engaging in the following trades, professions, callings and business, among others, shall be liable to pay such license tax; every person or firm keeping a ball alley, or nine or ten-pin alley; every person or firm selling goods, wares and merchandise at public auction; every merchandise or cotton broker or commission merchant; every person or firm pursuing the occupation of hawker or peddler of goods or any article whatever; but this enumeration shall not be held to deprive the city council of the right to levy and collect other license taxes, and from other persons and firms under the general authority herein granted.

Art. 1032. [930] [492] [431] Power to collect tax.—Nothing herein shall prevent the city council from collecting the license, and each license tax provided for by this title. Each establishment shall be liable to said license tax; and any person or firm pursuing occupations, business, avocations or calling subject to said tax shall pay on each. No license shall extend to more than one establishment, or include more than one occupation, avocation, business or calling. [Id.]

Art. 1033. [931] [493] [432] Power to assess tax.—The city council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the assessing and collecting of said taxes, and to determine when taxes shall be paid by corporations, and when by the individual corporators. No tax shall be levied unless by consent of two-thirds of the aldermen elected. [Id.]

Art. 1034. [932] [494] [433] Collection of license tax.—The license tax shall be collected by the assessor and collector, and shall be paid to that officer by each person and firm owing such license and before engaging in any trade, profession, business, calling, avocation or occupation subject to said tax. This article shall apply to all persons owning any license and failing to pay the same. The city council may collect said license tax by suit under such rules as they may provide by ordinance. Said taxes, commonly known as licenses, shall not be construed to be a tax on property within the meaning of the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 1035. [933] [554] [483] License revoked.—In any case where, by any provision of this title, or by an ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, a person is required to obtain a license for any calling, occupation, business or avocation, and has by the recorder been adjudged guilty of violating any city ordinance in relation thereto, the recorder, in addition to a fine, may institute proceedings to suspend or revoke the license so granted. [Id.]

Art. 1036. [934] [495] [434] “Real estate.”—The term real estate or property as used in this law shall be held to include lots, lands, and all buildings or machinery and structures of every kind erected upon and affixed to the same. [Id.]

Art. 1037. [935] [496] [435] “Personal estate.”—The term personal estate or property as used in this law shall be held to include all household furniture, money, goods, capital, chattels, public stocks and stocks of corporations, moneyed or otherwise, and generally all property which is not real. [Id.]

Art. 1038. [936] [497] [436] Exemptions.—The city council may, by ordinance, provide for the exemption from taxation of such property as they may deem just and proper. [Id.]

Art. 1039. [936] [497] [436] Special taxes.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the city council from imposing, levying and collecting special taxes and assessments for the improvement of the avenues, streets and alleys, as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 1040. [937] [498] [437] Indebtedness.—The city council may also levy, assess and collect taxes necessary to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund to satisfy any indebtedness heretofore legally made and undertaken. All such taxes shall be assessed and collected separately from those levied, assessed and collected for current expenses of municipal government, and shall, when levied, specify in the act of levying the purpose therefor. Such taxes may be paid in coupons, bonds or other indebtedness for the payment of which such tax may have been levied. [Const. Art. 11, Sec. 6.]

Art. 1041. [938] [499] [438] Powers of council.—The city council may provide, by ordinance, for the prompt collection of all taxes assessed, levied and imposed under this title, and is authorized to sell or cause to be sold real as well as personal property, and may make such rules and regulations, and pass all ordinances as they may deem necessary to the levying, laying, imposing, assessing and collecting of any tax herein provided. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1042. [939] [500] [439] Further powers.—The city council may by ordinance, regulate the manner of making out tax lists or inventories and appraisements of property therein, and prescribe the oath that shall be administered on such rendition of property, and to prescribe how and when property shall thus be rendered, and to prescribe the number and form of assessment rolls, and fix the duties and powers of the assessor and collector, and adopt such measures as they deem advisable to secure the assessment of all property within the limits of said city, and collect the tax thereupon. [Id.]

Art. 1043. [940] [501] [440] Rendition.— Each person, partnership and corporation owning property within the limits of the corporation shall, between January first and April first of each year, hand to the city assessor and collector a full and complete sworn inventory of the property possessed or controlled by him, her or them, within said limits on the first day of January of the current year. [Id.]

Art. 1044. [941] [410] [366] Assessor and collector.— The assessor and collector shall make up the assessment of all property taxed by the city, and make duplicate rolls thereof, and on completion of the rolls, shall deliver one of them to the city secretary. He shall collect all the taxes due the city, and in the event of the non-payment of any taxes, shall proceed to sell the property to raise the amount of taxes so due; and shall in performance of his duties, observe the provisions of this title, and the ordinances of the city relating thereto. He shall give a good bond in such amount and form as the city council may prescribe. The council may require a new bond whenever they deem the existing bond insufficient; and when such bond is required, he shall perform no official act until said bond shall be given and approved. He shall at the end of every week, pay to the treasurer all money by him collected, and shall report to the city council at the first meeting in every month all money so collected and paid and perform all such other duties in such manner as the council may prescribe. The assessor and collector is authorized to require the owners of all property subject to taxation to render a correct account of the same under oath, to be administered by him. He shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the city ordinances. [Id.]

Art. 1045. [942] [502] [442] List of personal property.— The assessor and collector shall make out a list of all personal property which has not been given in for assessment according to the provisions of this title, and assess the same in the name of the owner, if he be known; if not, then it shall be assessed by description of the property and as unknown owner. The value of such property shall be determined by the board of equalization. The same may be sold as in other cases, if the tax be not paid in the time prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 1046. [943] [503] [443] Unrendered property.—The assessor and collector, at the expiration of the time fixed by ordinance for the rendition of property shall ascertain such property in the city subject to taxation as has not been rendered; and the same shall be by him presented to the board of equalization for valuation by said board; and the same shall be by him entered in a supplement to the assessment roll as unknown, specifying the year for which said tax is not paid within the time prescribed by law; said property shall be sold at the same time and with like effect as other property. [Id.]

Art. 1047. [944] [504] [444] Back taxes.—Whenever the assessor and collector shall ascertain that any taxable property, real or personal, has not been assessed for any previous year, he shall assess the same in a supplement to his next assessment roll, at the same rate under which such property should have been assessed for such year, stating the year for which such property should have been assessed; and the taxes thereon shall be collected in the same manner as other assessments. In any case where any party has omitted to render property for taxation for any former year or years, and such taxes have not been paid, such party shall give such property in for assessment for the years thus omitted and pay such taxes; and the assessor and collector shall enter all such property in a supplement to his next assessment roll, under the head of payments for former years. [Id.]

Art. 1048. [945-955] Equalization board.—The city councils of cities and towns incorporated under the general laws shall annually, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint three commissioners, each a qualified voter, a resident and property owner of the city or town for which he is appointed who shall be styled the board of equalization. At the same meeting said council shall, by ordinance, fix the time for the meeting of such board. Before said board enters upon its duties, it shall be sworn to faithfully and impartially discharge all duties incumbent upon it by law as such board. [Acts 1887, p. 152; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 950.]

Art. 1049. [946] [506] Meetings of board.—The board of equalization shall convene annually, at the time so fixed to receive all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city, for examination, correction, equalization, appraisement, and approval. At each meeting of said board the city secretary shall act as secretary therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1050. [947] [507] Shall value property.—The board of equalization shall cause the assessor to bring before them, at the time so fixed all the assessment lists or books of the assessor of their city for their examination. Said board shall have power to send for persons and papers, to swear persons who testify, to ascertain the value of such property; and, if they are satisfied it is too high, they shall lower it to its proper value; and if too low, they shall raise the value of such property to a proper figure. Said board shall also have power to correct any errors that may appear on the assessor's lists or books. [Id.]

Art. 1051. [948] [508] Complaint.—Any person may file with said board at any time before the final action of said board a complaint as to the assessment of his or any other person's property, and said board shall hear said complaint. Said complainant shall have the right to have witnesses summoned in sustaining said complainant as to the insurance on said property, or the rents and profits it may bring to the holder thereof.

Art. 1052. [949] [509] Unrendered property appraisal.—The city assessor, when he delivers to said board his lists and books, shall also furnish a certified list of the names of all persons who either refuse to swear or qualify or to sign the oath as required by law, together with a list of the property of such persons situated within the corporate limits of their city, as made by him through other information. The board shall examine said lists and appraise the property so listed by the assessor. [Id.]

Art. 1053. [950] [510] Notice to owners.—In all cases where the board of equalization shall raise the value of any property appearing on the lists or books of the assessor, they shall, after having examined such lists or books and corrected all errors appearing therein, adjourn to a day not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of adjournment, such day to be fixed in the order of adjournment, and shall cause the secretary of said board to give written notice to the owner of such property or to the person rendering the same of the time to which said board has adjourned, and that such owner or person rendering said property may at that time appear and show cause why the value of said property should not be raised. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city post office. [Id.]

Art. 1054. [951-953] Shall lower values.—The board of equalization shall meet at the time fixed in said order of adjournment, and shall hear all persons the value of whose property has been raised. If said board is satisfied they have raised the value of such property too high, they shall lower the same to its proper value. The action of said board at said meeting shall be final, and shall not be subject to revision by said board or by any other tribunal. [Id.]

Art. 1055. [952] [512] Approval of rolls—The board of equalization, after it has finally examined and equalized the value of all property on the assessor's lists or books, shall approve said lists or books and return them, together with the lists that he may make up therefrom his general rolls as required by law; and when said general rolls are so made up, the board shall meet again to examine and approve said rolls. [Id.]

Art. 1056. [954] [514] Compensation of board.—The members of the board of equalization and the city secretary, while acting as secretary of said board, shall receive such pay for their services, to be allowed by the city council, as said council may deem just. [Id.]

Art. 1057. [956] [516] [445] Collection of taxes.—The assessor and collector, after the completion of the assessment roll, shall proceed to collect the taxes therein mentioned within the time, and give such notice as may be prescribed by the city council, and shall call once upon every person taxed, or on the agent or attorney of such person and demand the payment of the tax charged upon his or her person or property, if the person is to be found, and if not, then a written demand, specifying the amount of taxes due, left at the residence of some adult member of the family, shall be sufficient demand. If any person thus owing taxes has no residence, office or place of business, and no agent in the city or town known to the assessor and collector, then said demand shall not be necessary, and the ordinary published notice required by ordinance shall be sufficient. [Acts 1875, p. 115; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1058. [957] [517] [446] Tax sale.—If any person shall fail to pay the taxes imposed on him and his property within the time prescribed by the ordinances of the city, the assessor and collector shall, by virtue of his tax list and assessment roll, levy upon so much of the property subject to taxation belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes and shall give notice of the time and place of the sale by advertisement (if not unknown property), of the property and amount of taxes, costs and fees due thereupon. Such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in said city. At the expiration of the time stated in such notice and on the day therein specified, the assessor and collector shall proceed to sell such property at public auction at some public place in said city designated in said notice. When real estate is offered for sale, the least amount of such real estate shall be sold as will be sufficient to bring the amount of the taxes, penalties and costs due by said delinquent. Should a less amount than the whole tract levied upon be sold, the assessor and collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser, begin at a corner of said tract or parcel of land and designate the same as nearly as possible in a square so that the remaining portion will be affected to as little advantage as possible. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 485.]

Art. 1059. [958] [518] [447] Effect of deed.—The assessor and collector shall, when any property has been sold for the payment of taxes, make, execute, and deliver a deed for said property to the person purchasing the same, and such deed shall be prima facie evidence in all controversies and suits in relation to the right of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, to the premises thereby conveyed of the following facts:

1. That the land or lot or portions thereof conveyed was subject to taxation or assessment at the time the same was advertised for sale, and had been listed or assessed in the time or manner required by law.
2. That the taxes or assessment were not paid at any time before the sale.
3. That the land, lot, or portion thereof conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed, and shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts:

(a) That the land, lot or portion thereof sold was advertised for sale in the manner and for the length of time required by law.

(b) That the property was sold for taxes or assessments as stated in the deed.

(c) That the grantee in the deed was the purchaser.

(d) That the sale was conducted in the manner prescribed by law.

And in all controversies and suits involving the title to land claimed and held under and by virtue of such deed, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat said title, either that the land was not subject to taxation at the date of the sale, that the taxes or assessment had been paid, that the land had never been listed or assessed for taxation and assessment, as required by this title, or some ordinance of the city, or that the same had been redeemed according to the provisions of this title, and that such redemption was made for the use and benefit of the person having the right of redemption under the law; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by the said deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims title, had title to the land at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained after the sale; provided, however, that the owner of such property shall have the right to redeem the same at any time within two years of the day and date of the sale thereof, upon payment to the purchaser of double the amount of taxes for which the same was sold, together with the costs of such sale and double the amount of all taxes paid by the purchaser since such sale. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1060. [958] [518] [447] Personal property.—The assessor and collector shall have power to levy upon any personal property to satisfy any tax imposed by this title. All taxes shall be a lien upon the property upon which they are assessed, and in case any property levied upon is about to be removed out of the city, the assessor and collector shall proceed to take into his possession so much thereof as will pay the taxes assessed and the costs of collection. [Id.]

Art. 1061. [959] [519] [448] May continue sale.—If, from any cause, the sale of property levied upon or seized for taxes shall not take place at the time first appointed, the assessor and collector shall appoint some other time, give like notice, and proceed to sell such property as prescribed in the first instance. If said property levied upon or seized for taxes cannot be sold on the day advertised, such sale may be postponed from day to day until completed, of which postponement the assessor and collector shall give verbal notice at the expiration of sale each day. [Id.]

Art. 1062. [960] [520] [449] Failure to sell.—If, at any sale of real or personal property or estate for taxes, no bid shall be made for any parcel of land, or any goods and chattels, the same shall be struck off to the city, and the city shall receive, in the corporate name, a deed for said property, and shall be vested with the same right as other purchasers at such sale, and may sell and convey the same. [Id.]

Art. 1063. [961] [5198] [4760] Laws applicable.—The provisions of Chapter 8 Title 122, in reference to the seizure and sale of real and personal property for taxes, penalties and costs due thereon, shall apply as well to tax collectors for towns and cities as for tax collectors for counties. Tax collectors for cities and towns shall be governed, in selling real and personal property, by the same rules and regulations in all respects as to time, place, manner and terms and making deeds as are provided for tax collectors for counties, except as in this chapter otherwise provided. [Acts 1876, p. 259; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1095.]

Art. 1064. [962] [521] [450] One year redemptions.—If the real estate of an infant, feme covert, or lunatic be sold under this title, the same may be redeemed at any time within one year after such disability be removed. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1065. [963] Two year redemptions.—All lands sold under and by virtue of decree and judgment of court or as otherwise provided by law, for taxes due any incorporated city or town within this State, may be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the date of deed, upon the payment to the purchaser, or his assigns, of double the amount so paid, including costs of court. The purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and his assigns, shall not be entitled to the possession of the property sold for taxes until the expiration of two years from the date of deed. [Acts 1899, p. 50.]

Art. 1066. [964] [522] [452] Payment of taxes.—Taxes levied to defray the current expenses of the city government, and all license and occupation tax levied, and all fines, forfeitures, penalties and other dues accruing to cities, shall be collectible only in current money. [Const. Art. 11, Sec. 4.]

Art. 1067. [965] [523] [453] Frame building regulations.—The city council may prohibit the erection, building, placing, moving or repairing of wooden buildings within such limits of the city as it may designate and prescribe, in order to guard against the calamities of fire; and may within said limits prohibit the moving or putting up of any wooden building from without said limits, and may also prohibit the removal of any wooden building from one place to another within said limits, and may direct that all buildings within the limits so designated as aforesaid, shall be made or constructed of fire-proof materials, and may prohibit the rebuilding or repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits when the same shall have been damaged to the extent of fifty per cent of the value thereof, and may prescribe the manner of ascertaining such damage; and may declare any dilapidated building to be a nuisance and direct the same to be repaired, removed or abated in such manner as they shall direct; to declare all wooden buildings in the fire limits which they deem dangerous to contiguous buildings, or in causing or promoting fires, to be nuisances, and require and cause the same to be removed in such manner as they shall prescribe. [Acts 1875, p. 143; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 515.]

Art. 1068. [966 to 975] Fire regulations.—The city council shall have power:

1. To prevent and prohibit the dangerous condition of chimneys, flues, fire-places, stove pipes, ovens or other apparatus used in or about any building or manufactory, and to cause the same to be removed or placed in a secure and safe condition.

2. To prevent the deposit of ashes where they would be liable to produce fire, or in any wooden box or barrel, or within any wooden building, and to appoint officers to enter into any building or inclosure to examine and discover whether the same are in a dangerous state, and to cause such as may be dangerous to be put in a safe condition.

3. To require the inhabitants to keep and provide as many fire buckets and ladders, or other means to reach the roof as they shall prescribe, and to regulate the use thereof in times of fire.

4. To compel the owners or occupants of houses or other buildings to have scuttles in the roofs and stairs or ladders leading to the same.

5. To regulate or prevent the carrying on of manufactories and works dangerous in promoting or causing fires; to prohibit or regulate the building and erection of cotton presses and sheds.

6. To regulate or prevent and prohibit the use of fireworks and firearms.

7. To direct, control or prohibit the keeping and management of houses or any buildings for the storing of gun powder and other combustible, explosive or dangerous materials within the city; to regulate the keeping and conveying of the same.

8. To regulate and prescribe the manner and to order the building of parapet and party walls.

9. To authorize the mayor, officers of fire companies or any officer of said city to keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle, disorderly or suspicious persons, and arrest and imprison the same, and compel all officers of the city and all other persons to aid in the extinguishment of fires and in the preservation of property exposed to danger thereat, and in preventing theft.

10. And generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as the city council may deem expedient. [Id.]

Art. 1069. [976] [534] [464] Fire department.—The city council may procure fire engines and other apparatus for the extinguishment of fires, and have control thereof, and provide engine houses for preserving the same; and shall have power to organize fire, hook and ladder, hose and ax companies and fire brigades. The companies so organized, the chief engineer and such assistant engineers as may be provided for, shall constitute the fire department. Each company may elect its own members and officers. The engineers shall be chosen as said department may determine, subject to the approval of the city council, who shall define the duties of said officers and pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the welfare of said department. All officers so elected and approved shall be commissioned by the mayor. Said companies may adopt their own constitution and by-laws, not inconsistent with this title or the city ordinances. Said department shall take the care and management of the engines and other implements and apparatus provided and used for fighting fire, and their powers and duties shall be prescribed and defined by the city council. [Id.]

Art. 1070. [977-8] May destroy buildings.—When any building in the city is on fire, it shall be lawful for the chief or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, to direct such building, or any other building which they may deem hazardous and likely to take fire and communicate to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up or destroyed, and no action shall be maintained against any person or against the city therefor. Any person interested in any such building so destroyed or injured may, within six months, and not thereafter, apply in writing to the city council to assess and pay the damage he has sustained, and, if the city council and the claimant cannot agree on the terms of adjustment, then the application of such claimant shall be referred to three commissioners, one to be appointed by the claimant, one by the city council and the third by both. Said commissioners shall be qualified voters and owners of real estate in the city. They shall be sworn faithfully to execute their duty according to the best of their ability, shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses and shall give all parties a fair and impartial hearing, and give notice of the time and place of meeting. They shall take into account the probabilities of the building being destroyed by fire if it had not been so destroyed, and the loss of insurance upon said property, if any, caused by destroying the same, and may report that no damage should equitably be allowed to such claimant. Whenever a report shall be made and finally confirmed for the appraising of said damages, a compliance with the terms thereof by the city council shall be deemed a full satisfaction of said damages. [Id.]

Art. 1071. [979] [537] [467] Health officers.—The city council shall appoint a health officer, and as many health inspectors as they may deem necessary, and shall prescribe, by ordinance, the powers and duties and compensation of the same. [Acts 1909, p. 340.]

Art. 1072. [980] [538] [468] Regulation of disease, etc.—The city council may take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilence, contagious or infectious diseases into the city; to stop, detain and examine for that purpose any person coming from any place infected, or believed to be infected, with such disease; to establish, maintain and regulate pesthouses or hospitals at some place within or not exceeding five miles beyond the city limits; to cause any person who shall be suspected of being infected with any such disease to be sent to such pesthouse or hospital; to remove from the city or destroy any furniture, wearing apparel, or property of any kind which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with pestilence, or which shall be likely to pass into such a state as to generate or propagate diseases; to abate all nuisances of every description which are or may become injurious to the public health, in any manner that they deem expedient; and from time to time to do all acts, which they deem expedient; to preserve health and suppress disease in the city. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1073. [981] [539] [469] Public conveyances.—The owner, driver, conductor or person in charge of any stage, railroad car or public conveyance which shall enter the city, knowingly having on board any person sick of a malignant fever, or pestilential, contagious or infectious disease, unless such person become sick on the way and could not be left, shall, within three hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the facts, with the name of such person and the house where he was put down in the city, to the health officer. [Id.]

Art. 1074. [983] [541] [471] Shall report disease.—Every keeper of a hotel, boarding or lodging house in the city, in which any inmate thereof shall be sick with any infectious or pestilential disease, shall upon such fact coming to his knowledge, forthwith report the same to the health officer. Every physician in the city shall report, under his hand, to the officer above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient. [Id.]

Art. 1075. [985] [543] [473] Physician, powers.—The health officer may be authorized by the council, when the public interest requires, to exercise for the time being such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the chief of police as the city council may direct, and is authorized to enter all houses and other places, private or public, at all times, in the discharge of such duties, having first asked permission of the owners or occupants. The city council shall have power to punish, by fine; any neglect or refusal to observe the orders and regulations of the health officer. [Id.]

Art. 1076. [986] Sewerage, etc.—Every city in this State, however organized, having underground sewers or cesspools, shall pass ordinances regulating the tapping of said sewers and cesspools, regulating house draining and plumbing. [Acts 1897, p. 236; Acts 1909, p. 162; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1290.]

Art. 1077. [990] Plumbing inspector.—In any such city where there is no city inspector of plumbing provided for by special charter, the governing body shall elect such inspector of plumbing, who shall hold office for such time as fixed by such board. Such inspector of plumbing may be the city engineer, if the board sees fit to elect him. [Id.]

Art. 1078. [987-8-9] Board of plumbers.—Such cities shall create a board for the examination of plumbers, to be known as the examining and supervising board of plumbers, to provide for an inspection of plumbing. Members of said board shall receive no compensation for services on said board. The said board shall consist of the following five persons: A member of the local board of health, if there be such a board of health, and if not, then the city physician or the city health officer, the city engineer, the city inspector of plumbing, a master plumber of not less than ten years active and continuous experience as a plumber, and one journeyman plumber of not less than five years of such active and continuous experience. The mayor and the governing body shall regulate the term each member shall serve; they shall fill all vacancies for the unexpired term of the member whose place is filled. [Id.]

Art. 1079. [991] Regulation of plumbers.—The examining and supervising board of plumbers shall examine and pass upon all persons now engaged in the business of plumbing, whether as master, employing, or journeyman plumber, in their respective cities, and all persons who may hereafter wish to engage in the business of plumbing as master, employing, or journeyman plumber, within their respective jurisdictions, and also any person who may apply for the office of plumbing inspector. They shall issue a license to such persons only as shall successfully pass a required examination. They shall register in a book to be kept for that purpose, the name and place of business of each person to whom a plumber's license is issued. Such license shall not be transferable. [Acts 1897, p. 236; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1290.]

Art. 1080. [992-3-6] License.—The board shall not issue licenses for more than one year, but the same shall be renewed from year to year upon proper application. Each applicant for said examination for plumber's license shall pay, to such person as said board may designate, three dollars for each master plumber examined, and two dollars for each journeyman plumber examined, which fees may be used by said board to defray any of its legitimate expenses, the residue, if any, to be paid to the city treasurer. The examination and examination fee shall not be required of the same person more than once. [Id.]

Art. 1081. [997] License denied.—Except in cities of less than five thousand inhabitants, a license shall not be issued to any person to carry on or work at the business of plumbing, or to act as an inspector of plumbing, until he has appeared before an examining or supervising board for examination and registration, and shall have successfully passed the required examination. [Id; Acts 1919, p. 248.]

Art. 1082. [999] [544] [474] Powers of council.—The city council shall be invested with full power and authority to grade, gravel, repair, pave or otherwise improve any avenue, street or alley, or any portion thereof, within the limits of said city, whenever, by a vote of two-thirds of the aldermen present, they may deem such improvement for the public interest; provided, the city council pay one-third and the owner of the property two-thirds thereof, except at the intersection of streets, from lot to lot across the streets either way shall be paid for by the city alone. Said costs shall be assessed on the property fronting on said street so improved, to be collected in equal annual payments, not less than five in number. All moneys collected from these assessments shall be appropriated exclusively to the payment of the bonds issued for the payment of the cost of said improvement. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 485.]

Art. 1083. [1000] [545] [475] Estimates of cost.—Whenever the city council shall determine to make any such improvement, they shall cause an estimate to be made of the probable cost thereof by the city engineer, or by some other officer of the city, or by a committee of three aldermen; and such engineer or other officer or committee shall also report a full list of all lots or fractional lots, giving number and size of the same, and the number of the block in which situated, and the names of the owners thereof, if known, and such other information as may be required by the city council; and if there be a lot or fractional lot the owner of which is not known, the same shall be entered on said list as unknown. The officer or committee aforesaid shall enter on said list, opposite each lot or fractional lot lying and being on each side of the street, avenue or alley so to be improved as aforesaid, one-third of the estimated expense for such work or improvement on such avenue, street or alley fronting, adjoining or opposite such lot or fractional lot; and, on the acceptance and approval of said report and list by the city council, said amount shall be imposed, levied and assessed as taxes, and shall be a lien upon the property until the payment of the same. [Id.]

Art. 1084. [1001] [546] [476] Execution on property.—After such action on the part of the city council, such officer or committee shall give such notice as may be required by ordinance, of said tax being due and within what time payable, and shall begin to collect the same. After the expiration of the period for payment of said tax, said officer or committee shall levy on so much of any property on said list on which said tax has not been paid as will be sufficient to pay the same, and the same notice of sale as is required in sales for other tax shall be given. If said tax is not paid before the day of sale, said officer or committee shall sell property in the name and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the same conditions which may be provided by ordinance for the sale of real estate in the city, charged with the payment of taxes imposed by said corporation. Said officer or committee shall execute a deed to the purchaser at any such sale; and all other provisions of this title in reference to a deed drawn by the assessor and collector shall apply to the deed herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 1085. [1002] [547] [477] Suit.—In addition to the authority granted to the city council to collect said assessment of taxes, they shall have the additional remedy of instituting suit in the corporate name for the recovery against any owner of the property for the amount due for any such work so made as aforesaid. They shall provide by resolution or ordinance under the provision of this title, for carrying out and executing the powers in this chapter conferred, and may adopt necessary resolutions, ordinances and regulations. Art. 1086. [1006-7] Powers of city.—Towns, cities and villages, incorporated under either general or special law, which shall accept the benefits of this chapter as herein provided, shall have power to improve any highway within their limits, by filling, grading, raising, paving or repaving the same in a permanent manner, or by the construction or reconstruction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, or by widening, narrowing or straightening the same, and to construct necessary appurtenances thereto, including sewers and drains. "City," when used herein, shall include all incorporated towns, cities and villages, and the term "highway" shall include any street, avenue, alley, highway, or public place or square, or portion thereof, dedicated to public use. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 402.]

Art. 1087. [1008] Order for improvements.—The governing body of any city shall have power to order the improvement of any highway therein, or part thereof, and to select the materials and methods for such improvement, and to contract for the construction of such improvements in the name of the city, and to provide for the payment of the cost of such improvements out of any available funds of the city. [Id.]

Art. 1088. [1009] Costs.—The cost of making such improvements may be wholly paid by the city, or partly by the city and partly by the owners of the property abutting thereon. In no event shall more than three-fourths of the cost of any improvement, except sidewalks and curbs, be assessed against such property owners or their property. The whole cost of construction of sidewalks and curbs in front of any property may be assessed against the owner thereof or his property. [Id.]

Art. 1089. [1010] Assessments, railway.—Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have the power to assess against the owner of any railroad or street railroad occupying any highway ordered to be improved, the whole cost of the improvement between or under the rails or tracks of said railroad or street railroad and two feet on the outside thereof, and shall have power, by ordinance, to levy a special tax upon said railroad, or street railroad, and its roadbed, ties, rails, fixtures, rights and franchise, which tax shall constitute a lien thereon superior to any other lien or claim, except State, county and municipal taxes, and which may be enforced, either by sale of said property in the manner provided by law in the collection of ad valorem taxes by the city, or by suit against the owner. The ordinance levying said tax shall prescribe when same shall become due and delinquent, and the method of enforcing the same. [Id.]

Art. 1090. [1011] Assessment and certificates.—Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body shall have power by ordinance to assess the whole cost of constructing sidewalks or curbs, and not to exceed three-fourths of the cost of any other improvement, against the owners of property abutting on such improvement and against their abutting property benefitted thereby, and to provide for the time and terms of payment of such assessments and the rate of interest payable upon deferred payments thereon, which rate shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, and to fix a lien upon the property and declare such assessments to be a personal liability of the owners of such abutting property; and such governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of the city, assignable certificates declaring the liability of such owners and their property for the payment of such assessments and to fix the terms and conditions for such certificate. If any such certificate shall recite that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with law, and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and fixing the personal liability of the owner have been performed, such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited. The ordinance making such assessments shall provide for the collection thereof, with costs and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred. Such assessments shall be secured by, and constitute a lien on said property, which shall be the first enforceable claim against the property against which it is assessed, superior to all other liens and claims, except State, county and municipal taxes. [Id.]

Art. 1091. [1012] Exempt property.—Nothing herein shall be construed to empower any city to fix a lien by assessment against any property exempt by law from sale under execution; but the owner of such exempt property shall nevertheless be personally liable for the cost of improvements constructed in front of his property, which may be assessed against him. The fact that any improvement is omitted in front of exempt property shall not invalidate the lien of assessments made against other property on the highway improved, not so exempt. [Id.]

Art. 1092. [1012] Enforcement of lien.—The lien created against any property, or the personal liability of the owner thereof, may be enforced by suit or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law for the sale of property for ad valorem city taxes. The recital in any deed made pursuant to such sale, that all legal prerequisites to said assessment and sale have been complied with, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited and shall in all courts be accepted without further proof. [Id.]

Art. 1093. [1013] Notice of hearing.—No assessment of any part of the cost of such improvement shall be made against any property abutting thereon or its owner, until a full and fair hearing shall first have been given to the owners of such property, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof given to said owners, their agents or attorneys. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city, town or village where such tax is sought to be levied, if there be such a paper there, if not, then in the nearest to said city, town or village, of general circulation in the county in which said city is located, the first publication to be made at least ten days before the date of the hearing. The governing body may provide for additional notice cumulative of notice by advertisement. [Id.]

Art. 1094. [1013] Hearing.—Said hearing shall be before the governing body of such cities, at which such owners shall have the right to contest the said assessment and personal liability, and the regularity of the proceedings with reference to the improvement, and the benefit of said improvement to their property, and any other matter relating thereto. No assessment shall be made against any owner of abutting property or his property in any event in excess of the actual benefit to such owner in the enhanced value of his property, by means of such improvement, as ascertained at such hearing. The governing body of any city making improvements under the terms hereof shall, by ordinance, adopt rules and regulations providing for such hearings to property owners, and for giving reasonable notice thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1095. [1014] Reassessment.—The governing body of any city shall be empowered to correct any mistake or irregularity in any proceedings with reference to such improvement, or the assessment of the cost thereof against abutting property and its owners, and in case of any error or invalidity, to reassess against any abutting property and its owner the cost or part of the cost of improvements, subject to the terms hereof, not in excess of the benefits in enhanced value of such property from such improvement, and to make reasonable rules and regulations for a notice to and hearing of property owners before such reassessment. [Id.]

Art. 1096. [1015] Owner may sue.—Any property owner, against whom or whose property any assessment or reassessment has been made, shall have the right within twenty days thereafter, to bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto, on account of any error or invalidity therein. But thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns or successors, shall be barred from any such action, or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessments or reassessments in any action in which the same may be brought in question. [Id.]

Art. 1097. Special reassessment.—In any case in which the public funds of a city or town may have been or may hereafter be expended, or its vouchers or certificates issued to any contractor, or any contract made therewith, for the special improvement, raising or lowering the grade of, opening, straightening, widening, paving, constructing or grading of any street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, gutter or public way, or any part thereof, and if for any reason, no part of the cost of such improvement has been borne by the abutting property or paid by the owner or owners thereof, either because an attempted assessment and enforcement thereof for the same was erroneous or void, or was so declared in any judicial proceeding, the governing body shall have the power to proceed at any time to specially assess or reassess, such abutting property with such amount of the cost of such improvement as it deems proper, but in no event shall the amount exceed the special benefits such property receives therefrom by enhanced value thereto, the amount of such special benefits to be determined on a basis of the condition of such improvement as it exists at the time of such assessment or reassessment. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 105.]

Art. 1098. Notice, etc.—No such assessment or reassessment, shall be made without at least ten days written notice and an opportunity to be heard on such question of special benefits given to the owner or owners of such abutting property. Such notice may be served either personally or by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said city or town; and the governing body of any such city or town shall have power to provide for all procedure, rules and regulations necessary or proper for such notice and hearing and to levy, assess and collect such assessment or reassessment. [Id.]

Art. 1099. Special lien.—Such assessment, or reassessment shall constitute a lien upon such abutting property and a personal charge against the owner or owners thereof, which amount shall not be construed as becoming due, or having become due, before such assessment or reassessment is properly made in accordance with the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 1100. Time Limit.—Such assessment or reassessment as hereinbefore provided shall be begun within three years after the completion of improvements contiguous to the property against which assessment or reassessment is made, and not thereafter. In cases of re-assessments where the question of validity of the original assessment may be, or may have been, in litigation, the period of time during which it was in litigation shall not be considered in computing said period of limitation. [Id.]

Art. 1101. Amount of assessment.—Any such assessment or reassessment made by the governing body of any city or town with less than five thousand inhabitants may equal the entire cost of sidewalk, curb and gutter, and the cost of any street improvement, exclusive of street intersections, and such governing body of such town in making such assessment or reassessment, shall follow the procedure prescribed in articles 1082 and 1083 in so far as applicable, but no such assessment or reassessment shall be made in excess of the special benefits in enhanced value conferred thereby on the property abutting such improvement, or until the owner or owners of such property shall have had notice, as provided above, and opportunity to contest such issue before such governing body under such rules and regulations as it may, by ordinance, prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 1102. Enforcible when.—Such assessment, or reassessment, shall be due and payable in equal annual installments not less than five in number; provided that the owner of such property shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the governing board to any court of competent jurisdiction within twenty days after such reassessment shall have been made, and upon failure to do so in said period, such assessment shall be final and conclusive upon such owner and property. [Id.]

Art. 1103. Effect of law.—The provisions of the six preceding articles relating to special assessments or reassessments are cumulative of all powers heretofore granted to any city or town either by general or special law; and all charter provisions of all cities and towns in this State heretofore adopted relative to the subject covered by this law are hereby validated. [Id.]

Art. 1104. [1016] Adoption of provisions.—The benefits of the provisions of this article and Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1105 shall apply to any city, and the terms thereof extend to the same, when the governing body thereof shall submit the question of the adoption or rejection hereof to a vote of the resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said city, at a special election called for the purpose by said city. Said election shall be held as nearly as possible in compliance with the law with reference to regular city elections in said city, but said governing body is hereby empowered, and it shall be their duty on the written petition of one hundred qualified voters of said city, by resolution, to order said election, and prescribe the time and manner of holding the same. Said body shall canvass and determine the results of such election. If a majority of the voters voting upon the question of the adoption of said article, at such election, shall vote to adopt the same, the result of the election shall be entered by said governing body upon their minutes, and thereupon all the terms of said articles shall be applicable to and govern such city adopting the same. A certified copy of said minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the result of such election and the regularity thereof. When the provisions of said articles have been adopted by any city, the governing body thereof shall have full power to pass all ordinances or resolutions necessary or proper to give full force and effect thereto and to every part thereof. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 402.]

Art. 1105. [1017] Provisions cumulative.—The provisions of Articles 1086 to 1096, both inclusive, and Article 1104 and of resolutions or ordinances passed pursuant thereto shall be cumulative of and in addition to existing laws pertaining to the making of such improvements. In any case in which a conflict may exist or arise between the provisions of said articles and the provisions of any law granting a special charter to any city in this State, the provisions of such special charter shall control. [Id.]

Art. 1106. Appropriation of revenue.—The governing body of any city or town in this State, whether operating under special charter or under general law, may appropriate and apply the net revenues of its water works system or other public utility system, service or enterprise to the payment of the sinking fund and interest due by said city or town on the bonded indebtedness incurred on account of said system, service or enterprise, producing such revenues in the following manner:

1. Whenever said governing body desires to take advantage of the provisions of this article it shall at the end of its fiscal year, and before the passage of any ordinance levying taxes for that year, appropriate and set aside out of the net revenues such sums for such purpose only as such governing body shall deem to be the best interest of the city or town.

2. Where the sums so set aside and appropriated shall be sufficient to pay in full the amounts needed for such sinking fund and interest for the fiscal year in which said revenues are produced, it shall not be thereafter necessary for the governing body to levy any tax for such sinking fund or interest for which this appropriation is made; but when said sums so appropriated shall not be sufficient to meet the required amounts for such sinking fund and interest, then the governing body shall include in the general tax ordinance for that year a tax sufficient to meet the deficiency in such sinking fund and interest allowance for that year. Nothing herein shall authorize said city or town to exceed the authorized tax limit. [Acts 1917, p. 355.]

Art. 1107. [1003] [548] Condemnation of property.—An incorporated city or town shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for either of the following purposes:

1. To open, change or widen any public street, avenue, or alley.

2. To construct water mains, or supply reservoirs, or stand pipes for water works or sewers.

3. To establish thereon one or more hospitals or pest houses, within or without the limits of such city or town.

4. To construct and maintain sewer pipes, mains and laterals and connections and also private property upon which to maintain vats, filtration pipes and other pipes, and which to use and occupy as a place for ultimate disposition of sewerage in or out of the town or city limits, whenever it be made to appear that the use of any such private property is necessary for successful operation of such sewer system, and when it also be made to appear that such sewer system is beneficial to the public use, health and convenience. [Acts 1909, p. 9.]

Art. 1108. [769 to 722] Public utilities.—Any town or city in this State which has or may be chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, and which owns or operates waterworks, sewers, gas or electric lights, shall have the power and right:

1. To own land for such purposes within or without the limits of such town or city.

2. To purchase, construct and operate water, sewer and gas and electric light systems inside or outside of such towns or city limits, and regulate and control same in a manner to protect the interests of such town or city.

3. To sell water, electric light or power and sewer privileges to any person or corporation outside of the limits of such town or city and to permit them to connect therewith under contract with such town or city, under such terms and conditions as may appear to be for the best interests of such town or city.

4. To prescribe the kind of water or gas mains or sewer pipes and electric appliances within or beyond the limits of such town or city, and to inspect the same and require them to be kept in good order and condition at all times and to make such rules and regulations and prescribe penalties concerning same, as shall be necessary and proper. [Acts 1909, p. 159.]

Art. 1109. Waterworks.—These rules shall govern incorporated cities having more than one thousand inhabitants according to its preceding Federal census and owning and operating their own waterworks systems for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants thereof with water for fire protection or domestic consumption and the users of the city:

1. They may proceed in accordance with the provisions of this article independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provision, present or future, except as hereinafter provided, which said law or charter provisions shall remain in force as alternate methods.

2. Subject to the terms hereof, any such city may by purchase, gift or devise, or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, acquire and own in fee simple or otherwise public or private lands and property including riparian rights, within or without the city limits or within any county in this State.

3. To furnish any such city an adequate and wholesome supply of water, any such city may exercise the right of eminent domain to acquire and condemn either public or private lands or property for the extension, improvement or enlargement of its waterworks system, including water supply reservoirs, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of water supply reservoirs, wells or artesian wells and dams and the construction, building, erection or establishment of any necessary appurtenances or facilities which will furnish to the inhabitants of the city an abundant supply of wholesome water.

4. Any such city shall also have all the powers conferred upon water improvement districts or water control and preservation districts under the statutes now or hereafter existing providing for the exercise of the right of eminent domain, and shall have all the powers conferred by general law authorizing cities and towns to exercise the right of eminent domain.

5. Any such city may acquire the fee simple title to any land or property when same is expressed in the resolution ordering said condemnation proceedings by the governing body.

6. The term "city" or "cities" as used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder. [Acts 1923, p. 29.]

Art. 1109a. Cities may mortgage.—All cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds or notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber any such water system, and the incomes thereof and everything pertaining thereto.

And to purchase or otherwise acquire additions to, or extensions or enlargements of any such water systems, or additional water powers, riparian rights, or repair of such systems, or either of them; all cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants shall have power to issue bonds and notes therefor, and to secure payment thereof, to mortgage and encumber such additions, extensions, enlargements, additional water powers, riparian rights, the income therefrom, and everything pertaining thereto, either separately or with such systems, or either of them.

And as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser, or purchaser under any sale or foreclosure thereunder, a franchise to operate the system and properties so purchased, for a term not over twenty years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating the same then in force. [Acts 1925, p. 154.]

2. Whenever the income of any water system shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operating and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs, and extensions, necessary to render efficient service, and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such income. The rates charged for services furnished by any of said systems shall be equal and uniform, and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools, or buildings and institutions operated by such city, and there shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds or notes issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or of any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid. [Id.]

3. All cities acquiring a water system, or any addition, improvement or extension thereto, under this Act, may borrow money on the security of the plant, or addition or extension, so acquired, or owned, for the purpose of paying the purchase price and for the addition, improvement and extension thereof, and may issue bonds, notes or other obligations to evidence the moneys so borrowed, which bonds, notes or other obligations shall have the characteristics of negotiable instruments under the law merchant. Every contract, bond or note executed or issued under this Act shall contain this clause "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered, and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city to issue bonds for any purpose authorized by law. [Id.]

4. The management and control of any such system or systems during the time same are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance be placed in the hands of the city council of such city; but if deemed advisable may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five members, one of whom shall always be the mayor of such city; and the compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent of the gross receipts of any such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matter pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance; but in all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. Said city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment for same, and providing for discontinuance of such service to those failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made; and such city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located. [Id.]

5. Any contract of encumbrance under this Act may name, or provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor, if disqualified or failing to act, and may provide for collection fees not exceeding five per cent of the principal; but no collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation, because of default in payment of any installment of principal shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a letter to each person to be notified, by registered mail, postage and registration fees prepaid, and addressed to them at the post office in such city; and if the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date same was originally due. [Id.]

6. In the encumbrance of any properties under this Act such city may encumber any such water systems, or any extensions, additions or enlargements thereof, singly or together, and may or may not include in such encumbrance the franchise provided for, and may omit or include in said encumbrances the whole or any part of the properties mentioned in Section 1 of this Act; but no such system shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified property taxpayers of such city, or under the terms of any such mortgage or encumbrance, nor shall same be encumbered for purchase money or original cost, until authorized in like manner; such vote in either case to be ascertained at an election, of which notice shall have given in like manner as cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities.

All obligations herein authorized to be issued under Section 1 of this Act shall be submitted to the Attorney General for examination, and upon his approval as to the form thereof, shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose; the Comptroller shall endorse his certificate of registration on each such obligation. [Id.]

7. All proceedings heretofore had by cities having more than one hundred and sixty thousand (160,000) inhabitants, in the acquisition of any water systems, and the encumbrance of same, within the authority given by this Act, be and the same are hereby approved and ratified. [Id.]

Art. 1109b. Eminent domain.—Incorporated cities and towns of less than five thousand inhabitants shall have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary and to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes, to-wit:

To have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary and to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes, to-wit: City halls, police stations, jails, calaboose, fire stations, libraries, school houses, high school buildings, academies, hospitals, sanitariums, auditoriums, market houses, reformatories, abattoirs, railroad terminals, docks, wharves, warehouses, ferries, ferry landings, elevators, loading and unloading devices, shipping facilities, piers, streets, alleys, parks, highways, boulevards, speedways, playgrounds, sewer systems, storm sewers, sewage disposal plants, drains, filtering beds and emptying grounds for sewer systems, reservoirs, water sheds, water supply sources, wells, water and electric light systems, gas plants, cemeteries, crematories, prison farms, and to acquire lands with and without the city for any other municipal purposes that may be deemed advisable.

The power herein granted for the purpose of acquiring private property shall include the power of the improvement and enlargement of the water works, including water supply, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of supply reservoirs, parks, squares, and pleasure grounds, public wharves and landing places for steamers and other crafts, and for the purpose of straightening or improving the channel of any stream, branch or drain, or the straightening or widening or extension of any street, alley, avenue or boulevard. That, in all cases where the city seeks to exercise the power of eminent domain, it shall be controlled, as nearly as practicable, by the law governing the condemnation of property of railroad corporations, in this State, the city taking the position of the railroad corporations in any such case; that the power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right of the governing authority, when so expressed, to take the fee in the lands so condemned and such power and authority shall include the right to condemn public property for such purposes.

Art. 1110. Waterworks right of way.—To acquire rights of way for digging or excavating canals, laying mains or pipe lines for the purpose of conducting water through the same into the cities or towns for the use of the public, incorporated cities and towns owning their own waterworks system shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property for public use in and outside of the city or town limits of such cities or towns. [Acts 1915, p. 166.]

2. ENCUMBERED CITY SYSTEM.

| | | | |
|-----------------|--------------|---------------|--------------|
| Powers | Article 1111 | Control | Article 1115 |
| Vote, etc..... | 1112 | Rules | 1116 |
| Income | 1113 | Default | 1117 |
| Notes, etc..... | 1114 | Notice | 1118 |

Art. 1111. Powers.—All cities and towns operating under this title have power to mortgage and encumber their light systems or water systems, either or both, and the franchise and income thereof, and everything pertaining thereto, acquired or to be acquired, to secure the payment of funds to purchase same, or to purchase additional water powers, riparian rights, or to build, improve, enlarge, extend or repair such systems, or either of them, and as additional security therefor, by the terms of such encumbrance, may grant to the purchaser under sale or foreclosure thereunder a franchise to operate the systems and properties so purchased for a term of not over twenty years after such purchase, subject to all laws regulating same then in force. No such obligation shall ever be a debt of such city or town, but solely a charge upon the properties so encumbered and shall never be reckoned in determining the power of such city or town to issue any bonds for any purpose authorized by law. [Acts 1911, p. 230.]

Art. 1112. Vote, etc.—No such light or water system shall ever be sold until such sale is authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of such city or town; nor shall same be encumbered for more than five thousand dollars, except for purchase money, or to refund any existing indebtedness, until authorized in like manner. Such vote in either case shall be ascertained at an election, of which notice shall be given in like manner as in cases of the issuance of municipal bonds by such cities and towns. [Id.]

Art. 1113. Income.—Whenever the income of any lighting or water systems shall be encumbered under this law, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, interest, repairs and extensions, necessary to render efficient service, and every proper item of expense shall always be a first lien and charge against such incomes. The rates charged for services furnished by any said system shall be equal and uniform, and no free service shall be allowed except for city public schools, or buildings and institutions operated by such city or town. There shall be charged and collected for such services a sufficient rate to pay for all operating, maintenance, depreciation, replacement, betterment and interest charges, and for interest and sinking fund sufficient to pay any bonds issued to purchase, construct or improve any such systems or of any outstanding indebtedness against same. No part of the income of any such system shall ever be used to pay any other debt, expense or obligation of such city or town, until the indebtedness so secured shall have been finally paid. [Id.]

Art. 1114. Notes, etc.—Every contract, bond or note issued or executed under this law shall contain this clause: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation." [Id.]

Art. 1115. Control.—The management and control of any such system or systems during the time they are encumbered, may by the terms of such encumbrance, be placed in the hands of the city council of such town, or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such encumbrance, consisting of not more than five members, one of whom shall be the mayor of such city or town. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such contract, but shall never exceed five per cent of the gross receipts of such systems in any one year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such contract of encumbrance. In all matters where such contract is silent, the laws and rules governing the council of such city or town shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 1116. Rules.—The city council or board of trustees having such management and control shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the furnishing of service to patrons and for the payment of the same, and providing for the discontinuance of such service failing to pay therefor when due until payment is made. The city council shall have power to provide penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations and for the use of such service without the consent or knowledge of the authorities in charge thereof, and to provide penalties for all interference, trespassing or injury to any such systems, appliances or premises on which same may be located. [Id.]

Art. 1117. Default.—A contract of encumbrance may provide for the selection of a trustee to make sale upon default in the payment of the principal or interest according to the terms of such contract, and for the selection of his successor if disqualified or failing to act, and for collection fees not exceeding five per cent of the principal. [Id.]

Art. 1118. Notice.—No collection fees shall accrue, and no foreclosure proceedings shall be begun in any court or through any trustee, and no option to mature any part of such obligation because of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest shall be exercised until ninety days written notice shall be given to each member of the city council of such city or town and to each member of such board of trustees, if any, that payment has been demanded and default made, which notice shall date from the sending of a prepaid registered letter to each person to be notified, addressed to them at the post office in such city or town. If the installments of principal and interest then due shall be paid before the expiration of said ninety days, together with the interest prescribed in such contract, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, from the date of default until the date of payment, it shall have like effect as if paid on the date the same was originally due. [Id.]

Art. 1119. [1018] Rates prescribed, etc.—The governing body of all cities and towns in this State of over two thousand population, incorporated under the general laws thereof, shall have the power to regulate, by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged by all water, gas, light and sewer companies, corporations or persons using the streets and public grounds of said city or town, and engaged in furnishing water, gas, light or sewerage service to the public, and also to prescribe rules and regulations under which such commodities shall be furnished, and service rendered, and to fix penalties to enforce such charges, rules and regulations. The governing body shall not prescribe any rate or compensation which will yield less than ten per cent per annum net on the actual costs of the physical properties, equipment and betterments. [Acts 1907, p. 217.]

Art. 1120. [1020] Protective ordinances, etc.—The governing body shall have power to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper to protect any said company, corporation or person, in the free enjoyment of all their rights and franchises, to protect any interference with their property or privileges, and to prevent the free or unauthorized use or waste of the water or other commodity or service furnished. [Id.]

Art. 1121. [1021] Reports.— Any such company, corporation or person who may be engaged in furnishing to the inhabitants of any such city or town any water, light, gas or sewerage service, shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, file with the mayor of such city or town a written report sworn to by the manager, secretary or president of such corporation, by a member of such company, and by any such person, which shall show:

1. The amount of any lien or mortgage upon the properties composing such plant;

2. All other indebtedness pertaining to such enterprise and the consideration therefor;

3. The actual cost of the visible physical properties, date when installed and the present value thereof, and herein the lands, machinery, buildings, pipes, poles, circuits, mains shall each be treated separately;

4. The annual cost of operating such plant, showing separate items, the amount paid for actual salaries, amount paid for labor of all kinds, fixed charges, including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately, amount paid for fuel, for extension and repairs, giving each separately, and particularizing the extension and repairs the cost of maintenance, amount paid for damages, claim or suits for damages, identifying each claim or suit, amount paid for miscellaneous expenses, and, if any machinery or equipment is abandoned, worn out or its use discontinued within the preceding year, the same shall be stated, the original cost, and the present value thereof shall be given;

5. The report shall give the gross earnings from any such plant, including revenues from every source whatever, stating items separately, amount received by each department. [Id.]

Art. 1122. [1022] Penalties.— Any such corporation, or any member of such company, or any such person mentioned in this chapter, who shall for thirty days wilfully refuse or fail to report in the manner provided by this chapter, shall forfeit and pay to any such city or town the sum of one hundred dollars per day for each and every day during which it shall continue in default; or, if any such corporation, or company, or person, shall file any report, knowing that the same does not truly report the facts about the matters mentioned therein, it shall forfeit and pay to such city or town the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each such wilfully false report. Such forfeitures and penalties shall be recovered at the suit of such city or town brought in the county where such city or town is located. [Id.]

Art. 1123. [1023] City owned plants.—The governing body of any city or town incorporated under the general laws shall have the power where such city or town owns the plant, to regulate by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged the public by such city or town for water, sewerage, gas, electricity or other fluid or substance used for lights, heat or power, to establish and operate necessary plants for the manufacture, generation or production thereof, and to sell and distribute the same to the public within the corporate limits. [Id.]

Art. 1124. Rates in certain cities.—Any city having a special charter or a charter adopted or amended under the provisions of chapter 13 of this title, and having authority under its charter to determine, fix and regulate the charges, fares or rates of compensation to be charged by any person, firm or corporation enjoying a franchise in said city, shall in determining, fixing and regulating such charges, fares or rates of compensation, base the same upon the fair value of the property of such person, firm or corporation devoted to furnishing service to such city, or the inhabitants thereof, and not upon any stocks or bonds issued or authorized to be issued, by, or any other indebtedness of, such person, firm or corporation. No city shall be responsible for, concerned with, authorize, approve or have jurisdiction over, the issuance or sale of any stocks or bonds by any such person, firm or corporation, but the issuance and sale thereof shall be governed solely by the Constitution and laws of this State applicable thereto. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 152.]

4. JUDICIAL REGULATION.

| Excessive rates..... | 1125 | Appeal | 1129 |
| Complaint | 1126 | Enforcement | 1130 |
| Suit | 1127 | Corporations affected..... | 1131 |
| Trial | 1128 | Cities affected..... | 1132 |

Art. 1125. [1025] Excessive rates.—All extortionate and unreasonable rates charged by public utility corporations, as hereinafter defined, are hereby declared to be unlawful; and the district courts of this State are hereby vested with jurisdiction and full power and authority to regulate, prevent and abolish the same; and said courts are given the power and authority whenever the public interest may require, to fix and establish rates for the service and products of all public utility corporations, and whenever the public interest may require and to carry out the provisions herein conferred, said courts are hereby expressly authorized to issue injunctions, quo warranto, and all other writs for the purpose of carrying out and making effective the purposes of this chapter, and said writs shall be governed by the rules and regulations now prescribed by law. No proceeding shall be begun in the district court having for its purpose the fixing or rates of public utility corporations until and unless the city council of the city or town desiring to invoke the power herein conferred upon the district courts shall comply with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Acts 1905, p. 348.]

Art. 1126. [1026] Complaint.—If the city council of any city or town incorporated under the general laws of this State, shall desire to invoke the power of the district court granted in the preceding article, such council shall, by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to said council, pass a resolution setting forth the matters complained of, naming the corporation against which the complaint is made, and in a general way the reasons for such complaint, and shall cause a copy of the same to be delivered to the president, vice president or secretary of said corporation, or cause to be left a copy of said resolution at the principal office of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1127. [1027] Suit.—If, within twenty days after the said corporation has been furnished with a copy of the resolution of the city council, the wrongs complained of shall not be corrected to the satisfaction of the city council, a petition setting forth the wrongs and grievances complained of, and stating the relief sought, may be filed in the name of the city or town as plaintiff against the corporation as defendant in any district court of the county in which such city or town may be situated. Process shall be issued upon said petition, and be served upon such corporation as now provided by law in civil cases. The case shall be set for trial in the same manner as other civil cases, except that it shall have precedence over all cases of a different character filed in such court as to the time of trial. Process shall issue in said cause in the same manner as process may issue in civil cases. The right of trial by jury of the issues involved shall also be given upon the demand of either party. [Id.]

Art. 1128. [1028] Trial.—Upon the trial of the cause, the court or jury, in arriving at a decision as to whether or not the rates complained of are reasonable or extortionate, and in fixing the rates, shall consider the cost of construction of the plant of the public utility corporation against which the petition is filed; the cost of the operation of such plant, its maintenance and repairs, the fixed charges that may be against the corporation, amount invested in such plant, and such other matters as may be material to the issues. The court trying the same shall have the power to order the corporation to make profert of its books and records for inspection in court in determining the question in issue. After a full hearing of all the evidence adduced, the court or jury shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix the rates which may be charged by such public utility corporation; provided, that the rates fixed must be sufficient to yield such public utility company not less than ten per cent upon the investment, and the same shall continue in force for a period of three years. The rates fixed shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the court, and shall be held conclusive, as reasonable, fair and just, and shall remain for three years as the rates to be charged by such corporation, unless changed or modified by the judgment of said district court, or by the appellate courts to which either of the parties to said suit may appeal, or have writ of error. [Id.]

Art. 1129. [1029] Appeal.—If either party to the suit shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the court and the rate thereby established, an appeal may be taken by either party to the proper court of civil appeals, and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said court of civil appeals, and shall have precedence in such court of all cases of a different character therein pending. The parties to said suit may apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of error. [Id.]

Art. 1130. [1030] Enforcement.—When the final judgment is rendered in any cause fixing the rates to be charged by said corporation, the court rendering such judgment shall order in its decree the enforcement of the same; and is authorized and empowered to provide in its decree that, if the same is not obeyed according to the terms thereof, the said corporation shall forfeit its charter if the same be a domestic corporation, or its permit to do business in this State if the corporation be a foreign corporation. If said order or decree be violated, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, or county or district attorney, under the direction of the Attorney General, to institute suit in the district court of the county in which such corporation may have its principal office, or in Travis County, for the forfeiture of the charter of such corporation, or the cancellation of its permit, as the case may be, and, if said charter be forfeited or permit canceled, the offending corporation shall thereafter be prohibited from carrying on its business within this State. [Id.]

Art. 1131. [1031] Corporations affected.—The public utilities included within the meaning of this subdivision are defined to be water companies furnishing water to the public; gas companies furnishing gas to the public; electric light or power companies furnishing light or power to the public; telephone companies furnishing telephones to the public; sewerage companies conducting sewerage for the public, whether said companies are incorporated under the laws of this or a foreign State. [Id.]

Art. 1132. [1032] Cities affected.—Any city within this State, incorporated under a special law, may at its option, avail itself of the provisions of this subdivision, but the same shall be cumulative of any other method which may now be provided in such special charter, and this law shall not repeal any provisions of such special charters. [Id.]

Art. 1133. [1033] [579] [506] May be incorporated.—

When a town or village may contain more than four hundred and less than ten thousand inhabitants, it may be incorporated as a town or village in the manner prescribed in this chapter. [Acts 1881, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 155; Acts 1897, p. 193; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1247; Acts 1915, p. 130.]

Art. 1134. [1034] [580] [507] Mode of incorporation.—If the inhabitants of such town or village desire to be so incorporated, at least twenty residents thereof, who would be qualified voters under the provisions of this chapter, shall file an application for that purpose in the office of the county judge of the county in which the town or village is situated, stating the boundaries of the proposed town or village, the name by which it is to be known when incorporated, and accompany the same with a plat of the proposed town or village including therein no territory except that which is intended to be used for strictly town purposes. If any town or village be situated on both sides of a line dividing two counties, application may be made to the county judge of either county in which a portion of said town or village is located, in manner and form as herein provided. A new election shall not be ordered in less than one year. [Acts 1889, p. 5; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1033.]

Art. 1135. [1035] Adjoining territory added.—Whenever a majority of the inhabitants, who are qualified voters of any territory adjoining the limits of any town or village incorporated hereunder, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said town or village, any three of them may make affidavit to such fact and file such affidavit with the mayor of said town or village, and such mayor shall certify the same to the council of said town or village. Thereupon, such council may, by ordinance, receive such inhabitants as a part of said town or village. Thenceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said town or village and the inhabitants shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of other citizens and bound by all the acts and ordinances made in conformity thereto and passed in pursuance of this chapter; provided, that the area of no town or village shall ever exceed that of cities or towns, as provided for in chapter one of this title. [Acts 1903, p. 116.]

Art. 1136. [1036-7] Election order.—If satisfactory proof is made that the town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated and at a place designated within the town or village for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people. He shall appoint an officer to preside at the election, who shall select two judges and two clerks to assist in holding it. After a previous notice of ten days, by posting advertisement thereof at three public places in the town or village, the election shall be held in the manner prescribed for holding elections in other cases.

Art. 1137. [1038] [583] [510] Qualifications of electors.—Every person who has attained the age of twenty-one years and who has resided within the limits of the proposed town for the six months next preceding and is a qualified elector under the laws of this State, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

Art. 1138. [1039] [584] [511] Ballots.—On each ticket the voter must write or cause to be written or printed, “corporation” or “no corporation.”

Art. 1139. [1040-41] Returns.—If a majority of the votes are cast in favor of incorporation the officers holding the election shall make return thereof to the county judge within ten days after the same was held. The county judge shall, within twenty days after the receipt thereof make an entry upon the records of the commissioners court that the inhabitants of the town or village are incorporated within the boundaries thereof; which boundaries shall also be designated in the entry. A certified copy of such entry, together with the plat of the town or village, shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record of deeds of such county. [Acts 1897, p. 193; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1247.]

Art. 1140. [1042] [587] [514] Powers of corporation.—When the entry mentioned in the preceding article has been made, the town shall be invested with all the rights incident to such corporation under this chapter, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to hold and dispose of real and personal property, provided such real property is situated within the limits of the corporation.

Art. 1141. [1043-4] Election of officers.—The county judge shall immediately order an election for a mayor, a marshal and five aldermen. No person shall be eligible to any of said offices unless he possess the requisites provided by this chapter for persons qualified to vote hereunder.

Art. 1142. [1045] [590] [517] Commission.—The county judge shall, immediately after the returns have been made, commission the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office of mayor, and shall deliver certificates of election to the other officers elected. [R. S. 1879, p. 517.]

Art. 1143. [1046] [591] [518] Term of office.—The mayor, aldermen and all other officers elected at the first election under this chapter, regardless of the time of such first election, shall hold their offices until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified at the next succeeding annual election, according to the provisions of the succeeding article. [Acts 1873, p. 99; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 551.]

Art. 1144. [1047] [592] [519] Annual election.—The annual election of officers of all towns and villages incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall take place on such day as may be fixed by law for municipal elections throughout the towns and cities of the State. Should no such uniform day be fixed, then the elections herein provided for shall take place on the first Tuesday in April of each year. The mayor, or in case of his inability or refusal to act, any two aldermen, shall order such annual election by notices posted for at least ten days at three public places within the corporate limits. The returns of such election shall be made to the town or village council, and certificates of election given by the mayor or person acting as such to the persons elected to the various offices of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1145. [1048] [593] [520] Quorum may pass by-laws.

—The mayor shall be the president of the board of aldermen and shall, with three of the aldermen, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the quorum shall have power to enact such by-laws and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State as shall be deemed proper for the government of the corporation.

Art. 1146. [1049 to 1055] Powers of aldermen.—The board of aldermen shall:

1. Have power to levy and collect an occupation tax of not more than one-half of the amount levied by the State; also to levy taxes on persons and property, real and personal, within the corporation, subject to taxation by the laws of this State; but the tax on persons and property shall not, in any one year, exceed the rate of one-fourth of one per cent on the one hundred dollars valuation.

2. Have and exercise exclusive control over the streets, alleys and other public places within the corporate limits; provided, that, with the consent of the board of aldermen, where streets are continuations of public roads, the commissioners court shall have power to construct bridges and other improvements thereon which facilitate the practicability of travel on said streets.

3. Have the power to cause the male inhabitants between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties, to work on the streets and public alleys not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute, or a sum of money, not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded, to employ such substitute.

4. Prevent, as far as practicable, any nuisances within the limits of the corporation, and cause such as exist to be removed at the expense of the person by whom they were occasioned or upon whose property they may be found.

5. Have power to prescribe the fine to be imposed by the mayor for the violation of any by-laws or ordinance, which shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars; but no fine shall be imposed except upon the verdict of a jury, should the defendant demand a trial by jury.

6. Fill, for the unexpired term, any vacancy which may occur in any office created by this chapter or by the board of aldermen under its provisions, such vacancy to be filled by the acting aldermen.

7. Have power to appoint such officers, other than those mentioned in this chapter, as shall be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the same, to prescribe their duties and to fix their compensation; and shall also have power to dismiss them at any time and appoint others in their stead.

8. Prescribe the bonds and security which the marshal and such other officers as may be appointed shall give, which shall be executed and approved by the mayor, before the marshal or other officer shall enter upon the discharge of his duties, said bond to be payable to the corporation.

9. Have power to appoint another marshal or officer in the place of the one so elected or appointed if the bond required in the preceding paragraph is not given within five days after the marshal is elected or appointed.

10. The board of aldermen may establish markets and may do whatever else may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 1147. [1056-7] Powers of marshal.—The marshal shall have the same power within the town that constables shall have within their precincts, and shall be entitled to the same fees. He shall discharge all other duties that may be prescribed by the by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and shall receive therefor such fees as may be fixed by the board. He shall assess and collect the corporation tax, and if the same be not voluntarily paid, he shall have power to make the collection in the same manner and with like effect as is prescribed in chapter 5 of this title for collection of taxes in cities, so far as applicable.

Art. 1148. [1058-9-61] Tax sales.—When any property shall be liable to assessment for corporation taxes, and the owner is unknown, such property shall be valued by the marshal and assessed by its description, stating that the owner of the property is unknown; unless the taxes are paid, the property shall be sold for the payment thereof, as nearly as may be in the manner in which such property when duly rendered is required to be sold, and the sale shall be equally valid. Real estate sold for taxes due the corporation may be redeemed as provided in chapter 5 of this title. Where the purchaser does not reside within the limits of the corporation, the estate may be redeemed by making the payment into the treasury of the corporation for the benefit of the purchaser.

Art. 1149. [1066-7] Condemnation for highways.—Any town or village in this State, incorporated under this chapter or by special charter, shall have the right, and they are hereby empowered, to condemn the right of way and roadbed of any railway company whose roadbed runs within the corporate limits of such town or village, when deemed necessary and so declared, by a majority vote of the board of aldermen, for the purpose of opening, widening or extending the streets of such town or village; provided, there are less than four railroad tracks. Failing to agree on the damages to be paid therefor, the mayor shall prepare a statement in writing showing the point on said railroad right of way where said street is desired to be opened, widened or extended, giving the width and length of that portion of the right of way of the railroad sought to be condemned, and describing it so that it can be clearly identified, the object for which it is sought to be condemned, the name and style of the railway company, and file the same with the county judge of the county in which such town or village is situated, whereupon proceedings shall be had to condemn said right of way. [Acts 1897, p. 216; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1270.]

Art. 1150. [1069] Commissioners court may condemn.—County commissioners shall have the right, upon petition of twenty freeholders of any community, or unincorporated town or city, to condemn roadbed of railroads for the same purpose mentioned in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 1151. [1068] Crossings: duty of railroad.—Every railroad company in this State shall place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way over or across which any public street of any incorporated town or village may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public; and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed, by the town marshal of such town or village, it shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each week such railroad may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article, recoverable in any court having jurisdiction of the amount involved, in a suit in the name of such town or village. [Id.]

Art. 1152. [1060] [611] [538] Publication of ordinances.—No ordinance or by-laws shall be enforced until it has been published at least ten days in three public places in the town, or in a newspaper if one be published in the corporation. [R. S. 1879, 538.]

Art. 1153. [1062-3] Amendment of charter.—Towns and villages heretofore incorporated by the Congress of the Republic or the Legislature of this State may, by a resolution of the board of aldermen and a two-thirds vote of the voters at an election held therefor, amend their charters in any particular not in conflict with the constitution of this State or the Revised Statutes. In order to amend the charter of any town or village, it shall be necessary, before said amendment shall go into effect, for the board of aldermen to adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment; and a certified copy of the same shall be approved by the Attorney General and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State before the same shall take effect. [Acts 1881, p. 83; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 175.]

CHAPTER TWELVE.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

| | Article | | Article |
|----------------------------|---------|----------------------------------|---------|
| Petition | 1154 | Shall supersede council | 1160 |
| Unincorporated towns | 1155 | Officers appointed | 1161 |

| Election | 1157 | Commissioners, duties, etc. | 1163 |
| Officers | 1158 | Meetings and salary | 1164 |
| Vacancies | 1159 | | |

Art. 1154. [1070] Petition.—Whenever ten per cent of the qualified voters of any incorporated city or town having a population of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants incorporated under the provisions of this title or any previous general law, or hereafter incorporated under any general law, or of any incorporated town or village having a population of more than five hundred and less than one thousand inhabitants incorporated under chapter 11 of this title or any previous general law, or hereafter incorporated under any general law, shall petition in writing the mayor of said city, town or village requesting that an election be ordered to determine whether such city, town or village shall adopt the commission form of government, the mayor shall order an election in such city, town or village, to determine whether or not the commission form of government shall be adopted. Thirty days notice of such election shall be given by publishing such notice in some newspaper therein if there be one, and if none, then by posting notices of same at three public places in such town, city or village. [Acts 1909, p. 189; Acts 1913, p. 36; Acts 1921, p. 123.]

Art. 1155. [1070] Unincorporated towns.—If any unincorporated city or town in this State, having a population of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants, or any unincorporated town or village in this State having a population of more than two hundred and less than one thousand inhabitants, shall desire to be incorporated under the commission form of government as herein provided, an election to determine whether such incorporation may be had shall be called by the county judge of the county under the provisions herein governing incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, and notice of such election shall be given as herein provided, and if satisfactory proof is made that the city or town or village contains the requisite number of inhabitants, the county judge shall make an order for holding an election on a day therein stated, and at a place designated within the city or town or village, for the purpose of submitting the question to a vote of the people. [Id.]

Art. 1156. [1071] Ballot.—The ballots to be used in said election shall have written or printed thereon "For Commission" or "Against Commission." [Acts 1909, p. 189; Acts 1913, p. 36.]

Art. 1157. [1072] Election.—The mayor or county judge, as the case may be, shall appoint two judges of election, one of which shall be designated as the presiding judge, and two clerks, to hold said election. The election shall be held and governed by the general laws of this State except as herein otherwise provided, and the returns shall be made to the mayor or the county judge, as the case may be within five days after said election shall have been held. If a majority of the votes cast are "For Commission," then the mayor or county judge shall enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen, or of the commissioners court, and after the entry of said order said incorporated city or town or village shall be under the commission form of government, and said unincorporated city or town, or unincorporated town or village, shall be incorporated and under the commission form of government. [Id.]

Art. 1158. [1073] Officers.—At such election there shall be elected two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Tuesday in April following, and in said unincorporated cities and towns, and unincorporated towns and villages, there shall at such elections be elected a mayor and two commissioners, who shall serve until the first Tuesday in April following. The mayor of the incorporated cities and towns, and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government shall continue to hold his office for the term for which he was elected. The term of office of the mayor and commissioners, except the first elected under the provisions hereof, shall be two years, and they shall be elected on the first Tuesday in April every two years. [Id.]

Art. 1159. [1073] Vacancies.—In case of the death or the resignation of the mayor or commissioners, the others shall fill the place by appointment, provided, that shall a vacancy occur from death, resignation, or failure to qualify, or any other cause, of the mayor and one commissioner at the same time, or of two commissioners at the same time, the vacancy shall be filled by special election called by the county judge of the county, upon notice for the time, and subject to all the regulations herein for the original election; the result of said election shall be certified by the county judge to the clerk of said commission, and shall be entered upon the minutes. [Id.]

Art. 1160. [1073] Shall supersede council.—In incorporated cities and towns and incorporated towns and villages, adopting the commission form of government under the provisions hereof, the members of the city council, and board of aldermen shall hold their offices until the commissioners elected hereunder shall have qualified, and after such qualification, the officers of the city council, and board of aldermen shall be abolished, and the mayor and commissioners herein provided for shall constitute the "Board of Commissioners" of said city or town, or town or village. [Id.]

Art. 1161. [1074] Officers appointed.—Said "Board of Commissioners" shall appoint a competent person to be clerk, who shall also be treasurer and assessor and collector of taxes of such city or town, or town or village. He shall before entering upon the duties of his office, enter into a good and sufficient bond in double the estimated amount of annual revenues of such city or town or of such town or village, said estimate to be made by the "Board of Commissioners" and said bond to be approved by the said board and filed and recorded in the minutes thereof. Said clerk shall be invested and charged with and shall exercise all the power, rights and duties conferred upon and imposed by the general laws, upon the clerk, treasurer, assessor and collector of taxes, of cities and towns, or towns and villages, as the case may be. The board shall also have the authority to appoint a city attorney and such police force and such other officers as they may deem necessary, and fix the salary or other compensation to be received by such clerk, and by such officers, and define their duties, and at any time may abolish any office which it creates, and may discharge any officer, clerk or employe which it appoints. [Id.]

Art. 1162. [1074] Bond of officers.—The mayor and each commissioner shall enter into a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars each, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office; said bond of the officers, first elected hereunder, shall be approved within twenty days after the entry upon the minutes of the city council, or board of aldermen or the commissioners court, as the case may be, by the county judge of the county in which such city or town, or town or village is located, and to be payable to said city or town or town or village for its use and benefit. All subsequent bonds of officers elected hereunder shall be approved by the "Board of Commissioners." [Id.]

Art. 1163. [1075] Commissioners, duties, etc.—The "Board of Commissioners" of all incorporated and unincorporated cities or towns or towns and villages of over five hundred and less than five thousand inhabitants incorporated under or adopting the commission form of government under the provisions of this chapter, shall have all of the authority and powers, and be subject to all of the duties granted and conferred under Chapters 1 to 10 both inclusive of this title, except where same may conflict with some provision of this chapter. In incorporated and unincorporated towns and villages of more than two hundred and not more than five hundred inhabitants, adopting or incorporated under the commission form of government hereunder, the "Board of Commissioners" shall have all authority and powers conferred under Chapter 11 of this title except where the same may be in conflict with some provision contained herein. [Id.; Acts 1921, p. 123.]

Art. 1164. [1076] Meetings and salary.—Said Board shall hold at least one regular monthly meeting and the mayor or two commissioners may call as many special meetings as may be necessary to attend to the municipal business. Each commissioner and said mayor shall receive for their service five dollars per day for each regular meeting, and three dollars per day for each special meeting. The Mayor or any commissioner shall not receive pay for more than five special meetings in any one month. In lieu of such per diem said "Board of Commissioners" of any such town or city with not less than two thousand population may fix a salary to be received by the mayor and commissioners, not to exceed the sum of twelve hundred dollars per year for said mayor and six hundred dollars per year for each commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 1165. May change charter.—Cities having more than five thousand inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature. No charter or any ordinances passed under said charter shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution or general laws of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law, or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year which shall exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and create a sinking fund of at least two per cent thereon. No city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every two years. The governing body of such city may, by two-thirds votes of its members, or upon petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city, shall provide by ordinance for the submission of the question, "Shall a commission be chosen to frame a new charter." [Acts 1913, p. 307.]

Art. 1166. Requisites of submission.—The ordinance providing for the submission of such question shall require that it be submitted at the next regular municipal election, if one should be held, not less than thirty nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance; otherwise it shall provide for the submission of the question at a special election to be called and held not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days after the passage of said ordinance and the publication thereof in some newspaper published in said city. The ballot containing such question shall bear no party designation, and provision shall be made thereon for the election from the city at large of a charter commission of not less than fifteen members, nor more than one member for each three thousand inhabitants, provided, that a majority of the qualified voters, voting on said question shall have voted in the affirmative. [Id.]

Art. 1167. Submission of charter.—The charter so framed by said commission shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said city at an election to be held at a time fixed by the charter commission not less than forty nor more than ninety days after the completion of the work of the charter commission; provision for which shall be made by the governing body of the city in so far as not prescribed by the general law. Not less than thirty days prior to such election, the governing body shall cause the city clerk or city secretary to mail a copy of the proposed charter to each qualified voter in said city as appears from the tax collector's rolls for the year ending January 31st, preceding said election. In preparing the charter the commission shall, as far as practicable, segregate each subject so that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on the same. [Id.]

Art. 1168. First election.—Where the legislative or governing authority of any city, or where any mass meeting has selected a charter committee or charter commission, or where the mayor of any city has appointed a charter committee which has proceeded with the formation of a charter for said city, the provisions hereof as to the selection of the charter commission shall not apply to the first charter election to be held in said city under the terms of this law.

Art. 1169. Adoption of charter.—If such proposed charter is approved by a majority of the qualified voters, voting at said election, it shall become the charter of said city until amended or repealed. No charter shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted. [Id.]

Art. 1170. Amendments.—When the governing body desires to submit amendments to any existing charter and in the absence of such petition, said body may, on its own motion, and shall upon the petition of at least ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city, submit any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter. The ordinance providing for the submission of any proposed amendment shall make the same provisions for holding the election and publishing notice thereof as provided in the second article of this chapter. The governing body of said city shall cause the city clerk or city secretary to mail a copy of the proposed amendment or amendments to every qualified voter in said city as appears from the tax collector's rolls for the year ending January 31st, preceding said election. Every amendment submitted must contain only one subject, and in preparing the ballot for such amendment, it shall be done in such manner that the voter may vote "Yes" or "No" on any amendment or amendments without voting "Yes" or "No" on all of said amendments. Each such proposed amendment, if approved by the majority of the qualified voters voting at said election, shall become a part of the charter of said city. No amendment shall be considered adopted until an official order has been entered upon the records of said city by the governing body thereof declaring the same adopted. [Id.]

Art. 1171. Notice of intention.—No ordinance shall be passed submitting an amendment or amendments until twenty days' notice has been given of such intention by publication for ten days in some newspaper published in said city. By "twenty days" is meant from the first date said notice is published. [Id.]

Art. 1172. Other issues.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the qualified voters of any city of over five thousand inhabitants from adopting any charter or amendment thereto, and at the same time electing officers under such charter or amendment. [Id.]

Art. 1173. Certification.—Upon the adoption of any such charter or amendment to any existing charter as provided herein, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers, of any such city, as soon as practicable, after the adoption of any such charter or amendment, shall certify to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy under the seal of the city, showing the approval by the qualified voters of any such charter or amendment, and the Secretary of State shall thereupon file and record the same in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose. [Id.]

Art. 1174. Registration.—The city secretary of any such city or officer exercising like or similar powers, upon the adoption and approval of any such charter or any amendment thereof by the qualified voters as herein provided, shall record at length upon the records of the city, in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose, any such charter, or amendment so adopted. When such charter or any amendment thereof shall be so recorded, it shall be deemed a public act and all courts shall take judicial notice of same and no proof shall be required of same. All cities may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for cost and may appeal from judgment without giving supersedeas or cost bond. [Id.]

Art. 1175. Enumerated powers.—Cities adopting the charter or amendment hereunder shall have full power of local self-government, and among the other powers that may be exercised by any such city the following are hereby enumerated for greater certainty:

1. The creation of a commission, aldermanic or other form of government; the creation of offices, the manner and mode of selecting officers and prescribing their qualifications, duties, compensation and tenure of office.

2. The power to fix the boundary limits of said city, to provide for the extension of said boundary limits and the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to said city, according to such rules as may be provided by said charter.

3. To hold by gift, deed, devise or otherwise any character of property, including any charitable or trust fund; to plead and be impleaded in all courts, and to act in perpetual succession as a body politic.

4. To provide that no public property or any other character of property owned or held by said city shall be subject to any execution of any kind or nature.

5. To provide that no fund of the city shall be subject to garnishment, and the city shall never be required to answer in any garnishment proceedings.

6. To provide for the exemption from liability on account of any claim for any damages to any person or property, or to fix such rules and regulations governing the city's liability as may be deemed advisable.

7. To provide for the levying of any general or special ad valorem tax for any purpose not inconsistent with the Constitution of this State.

8. To provide for the mode and method of assessing taxes, both real and personal, against any person and corporation, including the right to assess the franchise of any public corporation using and occupying the public streets or grounds of the city, separately from the tangible property of such corporation.

9. To provide for the collection of all taxes, including the right to impose penalties for delinquent taxes.

10. The power to control and manage the finances of any such city; to prescribe its fiscal year and fiscal arrangements; the power to issue bonds upon the credit of the city for the purpose of making permanent public improvements or for other public purposes in the amount and to the extent provided by such charter, and consistent with the Constitution of this State; provided, that said bonds shall have first been authorized by a majority vote by the duly qualified property taxpaying voters voting at an election held for that purpose. Thereafter all such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his approval, and the Comptroller for registration, as provided by law, provided that any such bonds after approval, may be issued by the city, either optional or serial or otherwise as may be deemed advisable by the governing authority. Whenever any city has heretofore been authorized, under any special charter, creating such city, to issue any bonds by the terms of such charter, the provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the issuance of any such bonds under the provisions of any charter under which such bonds were authorized.

11. To have the exclusive right to own, erect, maintain and operate water works and water works system for the use of any city, and its inhabitants, to regulate the same and have power to prescribe rates for water furnished and to acquire by purchase, donation or otherwise, suitable grounds within and without the limits of the city on which to erect any such works and the necessary right of way, and to do and perform whatsoever may be necessary to operate and maintain the said water works or water works system and to compel the owners of all property and the agents of such owners or persons in control thereof to pay all charges for water furnished upon such property and to fix a lien upon such property for any such charges. To provide that all receipts from the water works may, in its discretion, constitute a separate or sacred fund which shall be used for no other purpose than the extension, improvement, operation, maintenance, repair and betterment of said water works system or water works supply, and to provide for the pledging of any such receipts and revenues for the purpose of making any of such improvements, and the payment of the principal and providing an interest and sinking fund for any bonds issued therefor under such regulations as may be provided by the charter adopted by such city.

12. To prohibit the use of any street, alley, highway or grounds of the city by any telegraph, telephone, electric light, street railway, interurban railway, steam railway, gas company, or any other character of public utility without first obtaining the consent of the governing authorities expressed by ordinance and upon paying such compensation as may be prescribed and upon such condition as may be provided by any such ordinance. To determine, fix and regulate the charges, fares or rates of any person, firm or corporation enjoying or that may enjoy the franchise or exercising any other public privilege in said city and to prescribe the kind of service to be furnished by such person, firm or corporation, and the manner in which it shall be rendered, and from time to time alter or change such rules, regulations and compensation; provided that in adopting such regulations and in fixing or changing such compensation, or determining the reasonableness thereof, no stock or bonds authorized or issued by any corporation enjoying the franchise shall be considered unless proof that the same have been actually issued by the corporation for money paid and used for the development of the corporate property, labor done or property actually received in accordance with the laws and Constitution of this State applicable thereto. In order to ascertain all facts necessary for a proper understanding of what is or should be a reasonable rate or regulation, the governing authority shall have full power to inspect the books and compel the attendance of witnesses for such purpose.

13. To buy, own, construct within or without the city limits and to maintain and operate a system or systems, of gas, or electric lighting plant, telephone, street railways, sewerage plants, fertilizing plants, abattoir, municipal railway terminals, docks, wharfs, ferries, ferry landings, loading and unloading devices and shipping facilities, or any other public service or public utility, and to demand and receive compensation for service furnished for private purpose or otherwise, and to exercise the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided for the appropriation of lands, rights of way or anything whatsoever that may be proper and necessary to efficiently carry out said objects. Any city shall have the power to condemn the property of any person, firm or corporation now conducting any such business and for the purpose of operating and maintaining any such public utilities and for the purpose of distributing such service throughout the city or any portion thereof; provided that any city may adopt by its charter any such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable for the acquiring and operation of any such public utilities.

14. To manufacture its own electricity, gas, or anything else that may be needed or used by the public; to purchase and make contracts with any person or corporation for the purchasing of gas, electricity, oil or any other commodity or article used by the public and to sell the same to the public upon such terms as may be provided by the charter.

15. To have the power to appropriate private property for public purposes whenever the governing authorities shall deem it necessary; to take any private property within or without the city limits for any of the following purposes; city halls, police stations, jails, calaboose, fire stations, libraries, school houses, high school buildings, academies, hospitals, sanitariums, auditoriums, market houses, reformatories, abattoirs, railroad terminals, docks, wharves, warehouses, ferries, ferry landings, elevators, loading and unloading devices, shipping facilities, piers, streets, alleys, parks, highways, boulevards, speedways, playgrounds, sewer systems, storm sewers, sewerage disposal plants, drains, filtering beds and emptying grounds for sewer systems, reservoirs, water sheds, water supply sources, wells, water and electric light systems, gas plants, cemeteries, crematories, prison farms, and to acquire lands within and without the city for any other municipal purposes that may be deemed advisable. The power herein granted for the purpose of acquiring private property shall include the power of the improvement and enlargement of the water works, including water supply, riparian rights, stand pipes, water sheds, the construction of supply reservoirs, parks, squares and pleasure grounds, public wharves, and landing places for steamers and other crafts, and for the purpose of straightening or improving the channels of any stream, branch or drain, or the straightening, widening or extension of any street, alley, avenue or boulevard. The power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right of the governing authority, when so expressed, to take the fee in the lands so condemned and such power and authority shall include the right to condemn public property for such purposes.

16. To have exclusive dominion, control, and jurisdiction in, over and under the public streets, avenues, alleys, highways and boulevards, and public grounds of such city and to provide for the improvement of any public street, alleys, highways, avenues or boulevards by paving, raising, grading, filling or otherwise improving the same and to charge the cost of making such improvement against the abutting property, by fixing a lien against the same, and a personal charge against the owner thereof according to an assessment specially levied therefor in an amount not to exceed the special benefit any such property received in enhanced value by reason of making such improvement, and to provide for the issuance of assignable certificates covering the payments for said cost, provided that the charter shall apportion the cost to be paid by the property owners and the amount to be paid by the city, and provided further, that all street railways, steam railways, or other railways, shall pay the cost of improving the said street between the rails and tracks of any such railway companies and for two feet on each side thereof. The city shall have the power to provide for the construction and building of sidewalks and charge the entire cost of constructing of said sidewalks, including the curb, against the owner of abutting property, and to make a special charge against the owner for such cost and to provide by special assessment a lien against such property for such cost; to have the power to provide for the improvement of any such sidewalk or the construction of any such curb by penal ordinance and to declare defective sidewalks to be a public nuisance. The power herein granted for making street improvements and assessing the cost by special assessment in the manner herein stated shall not be construed to prevent any city from adopting any other method or plan for the improvement of its streets, sidewalks, alleys, curbs, or boulevards, as it may deem advisable by its charter.

17. To open, extend, straighten, widen any public street, alley, avenue or boulevard and for such purpose to acquire the necessary lands and to appropriate the same under the power of eminent domain and to provide that the cost of improving any such street, alley, avenue or boulevard by opening, extending and widening the same shall be paid by the owners of property specially benefited whose property lies in the territory of such improvement and to provide that the cost shall be charged by special assessment and that a personal charge shall be made against any owner for the amount due by him and to provide for the appointment by the county judge or other officer exercising like or similar powers, of three special commissioners for the purpose of condemning the said lands and for the purpose of apportioning the said cost, which apportionment of said cost shall be specially assessed by the governing authorities against the owners and the property of the owners lying in the territory so found to be specially benefited in enhanced value by said special commissioners. The city shall pay such portion of such cost as may be determined by the said special commissioners, provided the same shall never exceed one third the cost, and the property owners and their property shall be liable for the balance of the same as may be apportioned by said commissioners. The city may issue assignable certificates for the payment of any such cost against such property owners and may provide for the payment of any such cost in deferred payments, to bear interest at such rate as may be prescribed by the charter not to exceed eight per cent. The city may adopt any other method for the opening, straightening, widening or extending of its streets as herein provided for as may be deemed advisable, and charge the cost of same against the property and the owner specially benefited in enhanced value and lying in the territory of said improvement, that its charter may provide. The authority to adopt any other method shall include the manner of appointing commissioners, the manner of giving notice and the manner of fixing assessments or providing for the payment of any such improvement.

18. To control, regulate and remove all obstructions or other encroachments or encumbrances on any public street, alley or ground, and to narrow, alter, widen or straighten any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to vacate and abandon and close any such streets, alleys, avenues or boulevards, and to regulate and control the moving of buildings or other structures over and upon the streets or avenues of such city.

19. Each city shall have the power to define all nuisances and prohibit the same within the city and outside the city limits for a distance of five thousand feet; to have power to police all parks or grounds, speedways, or boulevards owned by said city and lying outside of said city; to prohibit the pollution of any stream, drain or tributaries thereof, which may constitute the source of water supply of any city and to provide for policing the same as well as to provide for the protection of any water sheds and the policing of same; to inspect dairies, slaughter pens and slaughter houses inside or outside the limits of the city, from which meat or milk is furnished to the inhabitants of the city.

20. To license, operate and control the operation of all character of vehicles using the public streets, including motorcycles, automobiles or like vehicles, and to prescribe the speed of the same, the qualification of the operator of the same, and the lighting of the same by night and to provide for the giving bond or other security for the operation of the same.

21. To regulate, license and fix the charges or fares made by any person owning, operating or controlling any vehicle of any character used for the carrying of passengers for hire or the transportation of freight for hire on the public streets and alleys of the city.

22. To regulate the location and control the conduct of theaters, moving picture shows, ten pin alleys, vaudeville shows, and all places of public amusements.

23. To license any lawful business, occupation or calling that is susceptible to the control of the police power.

24. To license, regulate, control or prohibit the erection of signs or bill boards as may be provided by charter or ordinance.

25. To provide for the establishment and designation of fire limits and to prescribe the kind and character of buildings or structures or improvements to be erected therein, and to provide for the erection of fire proof buildings within certain limits, and to provide for the condemnation of dangerous structures or buildings or dilapidated buildings or buildings calculated to increase the fire hazard, and the manner of their removal or destruction .

26. To divide the city in zones or districts, and to regulate the location, size, height, bulk and use of buildings within such zones or districts, and to establish building lines within such zones or districts or otherwise, and make different regulations for different districts and thereafter alter the same. The governing authorities may be authorized by their charter to create a commission or board for the purpose of carrying out the powers of this section, or may provide for the creation of a board of appeals or review for the purpose of hearing and deciding on appeals from and reviewing any order, requirement, decision or determination of the governing authorities in carrying out the powers and authority herein conferred; provided the authority and power herein conferred shall never be construed to be a limitation of any other power and authority conferred in this chapter.

27. To provide for police and fire departments.

28. To provide for a health department and the establishment of rules and regulations protecting the health of the city and the establishment of quarantine stations, and pest houses, emergency hospitals and hospitals, and to provide for the adoption of necessary quarantine laws to protect the inhabitants against contagious or infectious diseases.

29. To provide for a sanitary sewer system and to require property owners to make connections with such sewers with their premises and to provide for fixing a lien against any property owner's premises who fails or refuses to make sanitary sewer connections and to charge the cost against said owner and make it a personal liability. To provide for fixing penalties for a failure to make sanitary sewer connections.

30. The power to require water works corporations, gas companies, street car companies, telephone companies, telegraph companies, electric light companies or other companies or individuals enjoying a franchise now or hereafter from the city, to make and furnish extensions of their service to such territory as may be required by the charter.

31. Provided that in all cities of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the governing body of such city, when the public service of such city may require the same, shall have the right and power to compel any street railway or other public utility corporation to extend its lines of service into any section of said city not to exceed two miles, all told, in any one year.

32. To provide for the establishment of public schools and public school system in any such city, and to have exclusive control over same and to provide such regulations and rules governing the management of same as may be deemed advisable; to levy and collect the necessary taxes, general or special, for the support of such public schools and public school system.

33. Whenever any city may determine to acquire any public utility using and occupying its streets, alleys, and avenues as hereinbefore provided, and it shall be necessary to condemn the said public utility, the city may obtain funds for the purpose of acquiring the said public utility and paying the compensation therefor, by issuing bonds, notes or other evidence of indebtedness and shall secure the same by fixing a lien upon the said properties constituting the said public utility so acquired by condemnation or purchase or otherwise; said security shall apply alone to said properties so pledged; and such further regulations may be provided by any charter for the proper financing or raising the revenue necessary for obtaining any public utilities and providing for the fixing of said security.

34. To enforce all ordinances necessary to protect health, life and property, and to prevent and summarily abate and remove all nuisances and to preserve and enforce the good government, order and security of the city and its inhabitants. [Id; Acts 1921, p. 169.]

Art. 1176. Further powers.—The enumeration of powers hereinabove made shall never be construed to preclude, by implication or otherwise, any such city from exercising the powers incident to the enjoyment of local self-government, provided that such powers shall not be inhibited by the State Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 1177. Former powers.—All powers heretofore granted any city by general law or special charter are hereby preserved to each of said cities, and the power so conferred upon such cities, either by special or general law, is hereby granted to such cities when embraced in and made a part of the charter adopted by such city; and until the charter of such city as the same now exists is amended and adopted, it shall be and remain in full force and effect. [Id.]

Art. 1178. Vested rights.—The adoption of any charter hereunder or any amendment thereof shall never be construed to destroy any property, action, rights of action, claims and demands of any nature or kind whatever vested in the city under and by virtue of any charter theretofore existing or otherwise accruing to the city, but all such rights of action, claims or demands shall vest in and inure to the city and to any persons asserting any such claims against the city as fully as though the said charter or amendment had not been adopted hereunder. The adoption of any charter or amendment hereunder shall never be construed to affect the right of the city to collect by special assessment any special assessment heretofore levied under any law or special charter for the purpose of paving or improving any street, highway, avenue or boulevard of any city, or for the purpose of opening, extending, widening, straightening or otherwise improving the same, nor affect any right of any contract or obligation existing between the city and any person, firm or corporation for the making of any such improvements. For the purpose of collecting any such special assessment and carrying out of any such contract, the provisions of all charters shall be continued in force. [Id.]

Art. 1179. Improvement districts.—Such city shall have the power to create and establish improvement districts, to levy, straighten, widen, enclose or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream or other body of water or streets or alleys, and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits, and shall have power to issue bonds for making such improvements, such improvement districts to be created and established agreeably to the general laws of this State providing for the creation of such improvement districts, and the issuance of such bonds shall be governed by the powers a city possesses in the matter of issuing bonds. [Id.]

Art. 1180. Private improvements.—Such city shall further have the power to straighten, widen, levy, enclose, or otherwise improve any river, creek, bayou, stream, or other body of water, or streets or alleys and to drain, grade, fill and otherwise protect and improve the territory within its limits and to provide that the cost of making any such improvements shall be paid for by the property owners owning property in the territory specially benefited in enhanced value by reason of making such improvements, and a personal charge shall be made against such owners as well as a lien shall be fixed by special assessment against any such property, and the city may issue assignable certificates or negotiable certificates, as it deems advisable, covering such cost, and may provide for the payment of such cost in deferred payments and fix the rate of interest not to exceed eight per cent, and may provide for the appointment of special commissioners or otherwise for the making or levying of said special assessment, or may provide that the same shall be done by the governing authorities, and that such rules and regulations may be adopted for a hearing and other proceedings had as may be provided by said charter. [Id.]

Art. 1181. Franchises.—No charter or any amendment thereof framed or adopted under this charter, shall ever grant to any person, firm or corporation any right or franchise to use or occupy the public streets, avenues, alleys or grounds of any such city, but the governing authority of any such city shall have the exclusive power and authority to make any such grant of any such franchise or right to use and occupy the public streets, avenues, alleys, and grounds of the city. If, at any time, before any ordinance granting a franchise takes effect, a petition shall be submitted to the governing authority signed by five hundred of the bona fide qualified voters of the city, then the governing body shall submit the question of granting such franchise to a vote of the qualified voters of the city, at the next succeeding general election. [Id.]

Art. 1182. Franchise election.—Such election shall occur within twelve months from the date such ordinance takes effect. If such election shall not occur within the said twelve months, then such ordinance may be submitted, if petitioned therefor as before provided, at a special election to be called by the governing body therefor. Whenever said ordinance is submitted at any election, notice thereof shall be published at least twenty days successively in a daily newspaper in said city prior to the holding of said election. The ballot used at said election shall briefly describe the franchise to be voted on and the terms thereof and shall contain the words “For the granting of a franchise” and “Against the granting of a franchise”. If a majority of those voting at said election shall vote in favor of granting a franchise, the governing body upon canvassing the returns shall so declare and said franchise shall take effect in accordance with its terms. No franchise shall extend beyond the period fixed for its termination. [Id.]

| Status of territory..... | 1185 | | |

Art. 1183. Extension of limits.—The city council of all cities situated along or upon navigable streams in this State, and acting under special charters, may extend the limits of said city for the limited purposes named in the four succeeding articles, so as to include in said city the said navigable streams and the land lying on both sides thereof for a distance of twenty-five hundred feet from the thread of said stream to a distance of twenty miles or less in an air line from the ordinary boundaries of said city, either above or below the boundaries of said city, or both, by the passage of an ordinance extending the boundaries of said city to include the territory aforesaid, being a strip five thousand feet wide, and twenty miles, more or less, in length, or so much thereof as the city council may consider advisable to add to the limits of said city. [Acts 1913, p. 47.]

Art. 1184. Powers.—The city council of said city shall have the right, power and authority to secure land within the territory so added to said city by purchase, condemnation or gift, for the improvement of the navigation of said navigable streams or waters either by the United States or by said city, or by any navigation or other improvement district, and for the purpose of establishing and maintaining wharves, docks, railway terminals, side tracks, warehouses or any other facilities or aids whatsoever to either navigation or wharves. In all condemnation proceedings under this law the same procedure shall apply that now applies in condemnation of land by cities for the purchase of streets. [Id.]

Art. 1185. Status of territory.—For the purposes specified, the corporate limits of said cities shall, upon passage of said ordinance, be extended from the existing limits so as to include all the land added to said city by said ordinance. Such city shall have no right to tax the property over which such boundaries are extended, unless such property is within the line and within the limits of the general city boundaries or limits. [Id.]

Art. 1186. Regulation.—After the passage of the ordinance adding said territory to said city, said city shall have and exercise the fullest and most complete power of regulation of navigation and of wharfage and of wharfage rates and of all facilities, conveniences and aids to wharfage or navigation consistent with the Constitution of this State, and shall further have authority by criminal ordinances or otherwise, to police the navigation of said waters and the use of said wharves and facilities and aids to wharfage and navigation. [Id.]

Art. 1187. Restrictions.—The power granted in the four preceding articles shall not authorize the extension of the territory of any city for the limited purposes named so as to include any land which is already part of any other city or town corporation whether incorporated under the general laws or under special law, or any land at the time belonging to any other city or town. [Id.]

| Authority | 1188 | "Consolidation" | 1191 |
| Petition | 1189 | Registration | 1192 |
| Election | 1190 | Merger | 1193 |

Art. 1188. Authority.—When two or more cities in this State over five thousand in population, adjoining and contiguous to each other in the same county, shall be desirous of being consolidated, it shall be lawful for them to adopt or amend their respective charters so as to consolidate under one government and take the name of the larger city, in the manner and subject to the provisions hereinafter prescribed. [Acts 1917, p. 71.]

Art. 1189. Petition.—Whenever as many as one hundred qualified voters of each of said cities shall petition the governing body of their respective cities to order an election for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of such cities into one city, said bodies may, at their next regular meeting order an election to be held at the usual voting places in the cities, on the same day, not less than thirty days after such order is made. If said petitions be signed respectively, however, by qualified electors equal to fifteen per cent of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election for city officials in each of said cities, next preceding the filing of said petitions, the respective governing bodies shall, within ten days after the receipt thereof, order an election to be held. [Id.]

Art. 1190. Election.—The governing body of each of said cities shall appoint from among the qualified voters of their respective cities, judges and clerks of said elections, and such elections shall be conducted under the ordinances of said cities, and in conformity with the general laws of this State. All persons:

voting at such election in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For Consolidation," and all persons voting at such election not in favor of consolidation shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against Consolidation." [Id.]

Art. 1191. "Consolidation".—The term "consolidation," as used in this chapter, means the adoption by the smaller cities of the charter and name of the larger of said cities, and the amendment of the charter of the larger cities so as to include in its boundaries the territory of the smaller city or cities so consolidated with it. [Id.]

Art. 1192. Registration.—If a majority of the qualified voters at said election in each of said cities shall vote in favor of consolidation, the mayor or chief executive officer exercising like or similar powers of each of said cities as soon as practicable after the returns of said election have been made, shall certify to the Secretary of State an authenticated copy under the seal of the said cities showing the approval of the qualified voters of the consolidation of the two cities. The Secretary of State shall thereupon file and record the same in a separate book to be kept in his office for such purpose. The returns of such election shall be recorded at length in the record books of the respective cities, and the consolidation of such cities shall be held thereupon to be consummated. [Id.]

Art. 1193. Merger.—After the consummation of such consolidation, all record books, public property, money on hand, credits, accounts and all other assets of the smaller of the annexed cities shall be turned over to the officers of the larger city, who shall be retained in office as the officials of the consolidated city during the remainder of their respective terms, and by such consolidation the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and declared vacant, and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled after the consummation of such consolidation, to further remuneration or compensation. All outstanding liabilities of the two cities so consolidated shall be assumed by the consolidated city. Whenever at the time of any such consolidation the respective cities shall have on hand any bond funds voted for public improvements not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted to any other purpose. [Id.]

Art. 1194. [903] Creation of court.—There is hereby created and established in each of the incorporated cities, towns, and villages of this State, a court to be known as the "Corporation Court." [Acts 1899, p. 40.]

Art. 1195. [904] Jurisdiction.—A corporation court shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city, town or village, in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the said city, town or village, and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which said city, town or village is situated in all criminal cases arising under the criminal laws of this State, in which punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed two hundred dollars, and arising within such territorial limits. [Id.]

Art. 1196. [905] Judge or recorder.—Such court shall be presided over by a judge to be known as the “recorder” who, in cities, towns or villages incorporated under special charter shall be selected under the provisions of the charter concerning the election or appointment of the judge to preside over the municipal court. All such provisions are hereby made applicable to the recorder herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 1197. [905] Judge in other cities.—In cities, towns and villages, not incorporated under special charter, the mayor shall be ex-officio recorder of the “corporation court,” unless the governing body shall by ordinance authorize the election of a recorder, in which case a recorder shall be elected in the same manner and for the same time as the mayor is elected. [Id.]

Art. 1198. [906] Term of office.—Wherever in any such city, town or village, the office of the presiding magistrate of the municipal court therein shall not have expired when the recorder is elected, the recorder first elected shall hold his term of office corresponding to the unexpired term of said magistrate; and every two years thereafter such recorder shall be elected for a term of two years., [Id.]

Art. 1199. [906] Vacancy.—A vacancy in the office of recorder or clerk of the court in any city, town or village, shall be filled by the governing body for the unexpired term only. [Id.]

Art. 1200. [907] Clerk.—A clerk for said corporation court shall be elected by the governing body of each such city, town or village, at the same time at which the recorder is elected; but it may be provided by ordinance that the city secretary shall be ex-officio clerk of the said court, who may be authorized to appoint a deputy with the same power as the secretary. Such clerk shall hold his office for two years. In case of ex-officio clerk, he shall hold his office during his term as city secretary. The clerk shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the said court, issue all process, and generally perform all the duties of the clerk of a court as prescribed by law for a county clerk in so far as the same may be applicable. [Id.]

Art. 1201. Cities empowered.—Cities having more than one thousand inhabitants under the preceding Federal census may proceed in accordance with the provisions hereof, independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provision, present or future, which, however, shall remain in force as alternative methods. The term “city” or “cities” used herein shall include all incorporated towns and cities acting hereunder. [Acts 1923, p. 4.]

Art. 1202. Powers.—Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of a city may lay out, open, establish, widen, straighten, or extend any highway within its limits, and purchase, condemn, and take property therefor. The cost of property purchased, taken or damaged, and costs of condemnation and making assessments hereinafter referred to, and of the enforcement, collection, sale or realization into money of assessments or certificates, together with all other costs of making such improvements, may be paid wholly from any fund of the city available therefor, or wholly from the fund created by said assessments, or partly from each of said funds. The governing body shall have power to assess part or all of such costs against the owners of property abutting or in the vicinity of such improvements specially benefited thereby, and against said property, and to collect, enforce, sell or realize said assessments into money. The term “highway” shall include any street, avenue, boulevard, alley, public place or square, dedicated or to be dedicated to public use. [Id.]

Art. 1203. Further powers.—Cities may purchase by agreement with the owner any property, all or part of which in the opinion of the governing body is necessary for the making of improvements under the terms hereof, and pay for same out of any fund available. Cities may sell and convey any part of such property not appropriated to such improvement on such terms and for such consideration as they may see fit, and the proceeds shall become a part of a special fund out of which the cost of improvements provided for herein may be defrayed and shall be used for no other purpose, but only the cost of property actually appropriated to such improvement shall be included in any assessment made under the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 1204. Resolution.—When the governing body shall determine to proceed hereunder it shall so declare by resolution which may state the nature and extent of the improvement to be made and the limits thereof, and may describe the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be taken or condemned by any description substantially identifying the same, or by lot or block number, or number of front feet, or by the name of the owner, or if owned by an estate, the name thereof. No mistake or omission of said resolution shall invalidate it, and its passage shall be conclusive of the public use and necessity of the proposed improvement. [Id.]

Art. 1205. Survey.—Upon passage of such resolution, the city engineer or engineer designated by the governing body shall prepare and submit to said body a plat showing the nature and limits of the proposed investments, the boundaries thereof, and the points between which it is proposed to establish the same, and the property through which it is to be extended, which is to be taken or condemned therefor, and shall in writing report the estimated total cost of said improvement, and of each parcel of property to be condemned or acquired. The governing body shall examine said plat and report and correct errors therein, if any, but no error or omission shall invalidate the same, or any proceeding had thereafter pursuant thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1206. Condemnation commission.—No property shall be taken without just compensation first made to the owner. If the amount of the compensation can not be agreed upon, the city may condemn said property under the rules governing procedure as provided by law under the title of "Eminent Domain." [Id.]

Art. 1207. Statutes applicable.—The applicable provisions of the laws relating to eminent domain are made a part of this law, and shall apply to proceedings hereunder, and all parties shall proceed in accordance with and be governed by said articles, unless otherwise herein provided. The city shall not be required to execute the bond referred to in said laws. [Id.]

Art. 1208. Errors.—The governing body, said commission and judge before whom condemnation proceedings are pending, shall take all steps and do all things proper to correct any error, invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference thereto, and shall do so at the instance of any interested party. No error or omission in said proceedings shall invalidate the same, but any proceeding may be corrected, taken again, or adjourned, until such corrections are made or omissions supplied. [Id.]

Art. 1209. Assessments.—Whenever the governing body shall order the making of any improvement herein referred to, it may then or thereafter at any time provide by resolution that all or part of the costs thereof, as defined in the third article of this chapter, shall be assessed against said property abutting said proposed improvement, or in the vicinity thereof, and the owners thereof specially benefited thereby, together with reasonable attorney's fees and all costs incurred in the collection of said assessments, and shall have power to apportion the same among the owners of said property, and may designate the property proposed to be assessed, or the district within which property will be benefited and within which assessments may be made, provided no assessment shall be made against any property, or its owner, in excess of the special benefits thereto in the enhanced value thereof from said improvement. No assessments shall be made against any property exempt from execution, but the owner shall be personally liable and assessed therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1210. Lien.—Assessments shall constitute a prior lien upon the property to all others, except ad valorem taxes, and shall relate back and take effect as of the date of the resolution ordering the same. [Id.]

Art. 1211. Notice of assessment.—No assessment shall be made against owners of property benefited, or their property, until after a reasonable opportunity to be heard shall have been given them, lienholders, and others interested, before such governing body, or the commission hereafter referred to, preceded by a reasonable notice thereof, published three times prior to said hearing in some newspaper of general circulation in the city, the first publication to be not less than ten days prior to said hearing, and the names of owners, lienholders, and others interested need not be specifically set out in said notice, but the parcel or parcels of land proposed to be assessed shall be briefly described in said notice, either by lot and block, number, front feet, or by any other description reasonably identifying the same, or by reference to any plat, report or record filed in connection with said proceedings. The governing body or commission shall have power to give other and additional notice, but said published notice shall be sufficient. [Id.]

Art. 1212. Hearing.—At said hearing said owners, lienholders, and other interested parties shall have the right to contest in writing said assessments, the special benefits, irregularities or invalidities thereof, or any prerequisite thereto, and to produce testimony in support of said contests, and the governing body or said commission shall determine the amounts, if any, to be assessed. [Id.]

Art. 1213. Assessments levied.—The governing body shall make assessments by ordinance. Said assessments may be enforced by suit brought by the city for the benefit of any holder and owner of such assessments, or of the certificates issued thereon, or brought by such holder and owner; or by the sale of the property assessed in the same manner as near as possible as is provided for the sale of real estate for municipal taxes. Assessments may be made payable in not exceeding six installments, the last maturing in not over five years, and may bear interest at not over eight per cent per annum. [Id.]

Art. 1214. Assessment commission.—At the time of or after the passage by the governing body of the resolution ordering such assessments, it shall have power in its discretion to declare that said hearing to property owners and other interested parties shall be had before the commissioners then or thereafter appointed to make condemnations, or before their successors are appointed should a vacancy occur, and thereupon such commission shall cause to be given the notice or notices provided in the third preceding article, and it shall have all the powers conferred by this law upon such governing body, and shall do all things with reference to said assessments which said governing body is hereby empowered to do, except as herein expressly provided. If said hearing shall be before said commission, it shall report in writing its findings to the governing body, which shall examine said report, and, if found correct, approve the same, and shall by ordinance assess against the owners and their property found to be benefited by said improvements, the amounts found to be properly chargeable against them. [Id.]

Art. 1215. Certificates.—The city may issue assignable certificates, payable to the city, or to the purchaser thereof, declaring the liability of owners and their property for the payment of assessments, and may fix the terms, time of payment, the conditions of default, and maturity thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1216. Suit on certificate.—The allegations of such recitals of such certificates in any suit brought for the enforcement thereof, shall be a sufficient allegation of all proceedings had by said governing body with reference to the making of said improvements and the assessment of the cost thereof, and of all prerequisites to the said assessment, and shall be deemed sufficient to permit proof of said proceedings and prerequisites without the necessity of alleging and setting forth the same in the pleadings, by caption, substantially or in full. [Id.]

Art. 1217. Reassessments.—No error in any proceeding hereunder, or in the description of property, or in the name of the owner, shall invalidate an assessment, which shall nevertheless be in effect as against the real and true owner and his property. Whenever the governing body is advised of such error it shall correct the same, and shall at the request of any interested party reassess any owner or property erroneously assessed, after lawful notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits as herein provided as to original assessments, and may fix the time and terms of payment of said sums so reassessed, and issue assignable certificates evidencing the same as herein provided as to original assessments. The right to make said reassessments shall continue until the expiration of six years from the date of the ordinance making the original assessment. But if the same shall have been resisted or brought in question in any action at law, the time consumed in said action shall be excluded in computing said term of six years. In making such reassessments it shall not be necessary to do any act, or take any step, or again perform any prerequisite already legally done or performed with reference to the original assessment, but the governing body may in its discretion proceed without again taking steps already validly taken or performed provided no reassessment shall be made until after the notice and hearing and in accordance with benefits, as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 1218. Deficiency assessments.—If after any assessment has been made hereunder, if by means of an increased award of compensation for property taken or damaged in condemnation proceedings hereunder, or on appeal from the award of said commission, or for any other reason, the amount assessed and apportioned between the property owners benefited shall be found insufficient to defray all the costs of the improvement as herein defined, the governing body may, in its discretion, assess the deficiency against owners of property benefited, and their property, and apportion same among them, after the hearing and notice herein provided and after complying with each provision hereof applicable to original assessments; or said deficiency assessments may be made after notice and hearing before said commission in the manner provided in the fourth preceding article and assignable certificates evidencing said assessment may be issued by the city. [Id.]

Art. 1219. Suit.—Any property owner against whom or whose property an assessment or reassessment has been made, may, within ten days thereafter bring suit to set aside or correct the same, or any proceeding with reference thereto on account of any error or invalidity therein, but thereafter such owner, his heirs, assigns, or successors shall be barred from such action or any defense of invalidity in such proceedings or assessment or reassessment, in any action in which the same may be brought into question. [Id.]

Art. 1220. Enforcement of law.—The governing body shall have power to pass any ordinance or resolution, or to adopt rules and regulations, or to take any steps proper to give full legal effect to every part of this chapter. No assessment or reassessment shall be affected or invalidated in any manner by any error, omission or invalidity in any proceeding of the city hereunder with reference to the making of any improvement herein provided for, or with reference to the taking or condemnation of any property therefor, or with reference to determining and paying damages for property taken or damaged, but regardless thereof, and regardless of the fact that at the date of said assessments said improvements may not have been completed, the said assessments shall be in all things valid and binding. [Id.]

Art. 1221. May install.—Incorporated cities or towns of more than five thousand inhabitants under the preceding Federal census for the purpose of making local public street improvements by installing and maintaining special lighting systems in said cities or portions thereof, may proceed in accordance with the provisions of the next succeeding nineteen articles, independently of and without reference to any other applicable law or charter provisions, present or future, except as herein provided for, which said law or charter provision shall remain in force as alternative methods. The term "city" or "cities," as used herein, shall include all incorporated cities and towns acting hereunder. [Acts 2d C. S. 1923, p. 16.]

Art. 1222. Petition.—Subject to the terms hereof, whenever a petition is filed with the governing body setting forth that a certain street, streets, or portions thereof not less than one block, naming and describing the same, or certain districts composed of streets, highways, boulevards or alleys, should be specially illuminated, and that an additional system is necessary for that purpose, and stating that such illumination thereof will be a public improvement and will be conducive to the public welfare, and is signed by a majority of the owners of property abutting on said street, streets or portions thereof, and praying that the governing body of such city specially illuminate such street, streets or portion thereof, and construct, install, equip and maintain additional system of street lights for that purpose, the governing body shall proceed in the manner hereinafter set out. [Id.]

Art. 1223. Plans.—The petitioning property owners may provide in said petition plans and specifications together with the kind of poles and lights and other material necessary to properly install said special lighting system, or such part of same as they desire to specify, and the governing body in that instance may order the same or any part thereof used in the construction of said system. If the kind specified in said petition is not available, the governing body shall use material of like kind and quality to that specified in said petition. Said body may reject any or all of said plans and specifications and have same prepared as hereinafter provided for. [Id.]

Art. 1224. Resolution.—The governing body shall have power, by resolution, to order the making of the public improvements mentioned herein, or any of them, by a majority vote, without first being petitioned to do so by the abutting property owners as hereinbefore provided, and the passage of such resolution shall be conclusive of the public necessity and the benefits thereof, and no notice of such action by the governing body shall be requisite to its validity. Such resolution shall in general terms, set forth the nature and extent of the improvements or improvement to be made, the street, streets or portions thereof to be illuminated, the material or materials with which the improvements are to be constructed, and the method or methods under which the cost of such improvements are to be paid. Such resolution shall be passed whether the improvements are made with or without the petition of the abutting property owners. [Id.]

Art. 1225. Specifications.—Upon the passage of the resolution by the governing body as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the city engineer, or the official of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, to forthwith prepare plans and specifications for the said improvement, which, when completed, shall be submitted to the governing body for its approval.

Art. 1226. Bids.—When the plans and specifications have been approved and adopted by the governing body, it shall be the duty of the city secretary, or other officer as may be designated by the governing body, to at once advertise for sealed bids for the construction of such improvements in accordance with the specifications. Such advertisement shall be inserted in a daily paper of general circulation in the city concerned, and shall state the time within which the bids may be received as prescribed by the governing body, which shall not be less than ten and not more than fifteen days from the insertion of said advertisement. Bids shall be filed with the city secretary, or such other officer as the governing body may designate, and shall be opened and read at a public meeting of the governing body. Such body shall have the right to accept such bids as it shall deem most advantageous to the abutting property owners concerned in the improvement, or may reject any and all bids. No bid shall be amended, changed or revised after being filed. [Id.]

Art. 1227. Contract.—When the bids for such improvements have been accepted by the governing body, the city shall enter into a contract with the contractor or contractors to whom the work has been let for the performance thereof, which contracts shall be executed in the name of the city by its chief executive and attested by the city secretary, or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body, with the corporate seal. [Id.]

Art. 1228. Assessments.—The city shall have power to assess the whole cost of installing and completing the improvements provided for herein, both for labor and material, against the owners of property abutting upon the street, streets or portions thereof, upon which said improvements are to be constructed, and who are specially benefited thereby, and shall have power to fix a lien against such property to secure the payment of the proportion of such costs assessed against the owners of such property. In no event shall costs be assessed against such owners or their property, or their personal liability therefor finally determined until after the hearing hereinafter mentioned, and after the adjustment of equities between such owners. The cost assessed against any property or the owner thereof, shall not exceed the amount of the special benefit in enhanced value which such property shall receive from such improvement. [Id.]

Art. 1229. Mode of assessment.—The portion of the costs of such improvements which may be assessed against any such property or its owners, shall be in proportion as the frontage of the property of each owner is to the whole frontage of the property on the street, streets or portions thereof abutting on the special lighting system, and such cost shall be apportioned in accordance with what is commonly known as the frontage or front foot rule; provided that if the application of this rule would, in the opinion of the governing body in particular cases be unjust or unequal, it shall be the duty of said body to assess and apportion said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the specific benefit in enhanced value to be received by each owner of such property, the equities of such owners and the adjustment of such apportionment, so as to produce a substantial equality of the benefits received by and the burdens imposed upon each owner. [Id.]

Art. 1230. Statement.—The contract or contracts for such improvements having been executed and approved by the governing body, the city engineer, or the officer of the city whose duties most nearly correspond to that of city engineer, shall prepare a written statement which shall contain the names of such persons, firms, corporations or estates as may own property abutting on the section to be improved, the number of front feet owned by each, and describing the property owned by each, either by lot and block number, or otherwise so describing such property as may be sufficient to identify same; and such statement shall contain an estimate of the total cost of the improvement, the amount per front foot to be assessed against abutting property and its owners, and the total estimated amount to be assessed against each owner. Such statement shall be submitted to the governing body whose duty it shall be to examine same and correct any errors that may appear therein, but no error, omission or mistake in said statement shall in any manner invalidate any assessment made, or lien or claim of personal liability fixed thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 1231. Notice of hearing.—When the statement shall have been examined and approved by the governing body, it shall declare by resolution, and directing notice thereof to be given to the owners aforesaid by publication for ten consecutive days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city where the improvement is to be made; but if there be no daily newspaper in such place, then the governing body shall give such notice to such owners by registered mail at least ten days before the time set for the hearing as hereinafter provided. The notice shall state the time and place of the hearing and the street, streets or portions thereof to be improved, with a general description of such improvements and a statement of the amount per front foot proposed to be assessed against the property, and a notice to all such property owners and all persons interested to appear at such hearing. It shall not be necessary to include in such notice a description of any property or the name of the owner, but such notice shall nevertheless be binding and conclusive upon all owners of property, or persons interested in or having a lien or claim thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1232. Hearing.—On the day set out in the notice for the hearing, not less than ten days from the date of such notice, or at any time thereafter before the close of the hearing, any person, firm or corporation interested in any property which may be claimed to be subject to assessment for the purpose of paying the cost of the improvement, in whole or in part, shall be entitled to a hearing before the governing body as to all matters affecting said property, or the benefits thereto, or such improvements, or any claim of liability, or objection to the making of said improvements, or any invalidity or irregularity in any proceeding with reference to making said improvements, or any other objection thereto. Such person, firm, or corporation shall file their objections in writing, and thereafter the governing body shall hear and determine the same, and all persons interested shall have full opportunity to produce evidence and witnesses and appear in person or by attorney; and a full and fair hearing thereof shall be given by such governing body, which hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice. The governing body shall have the power to inquire into and determine all facts necessary to the adjudication of such objections and the ascertainment of the special benefits to such owners by reason of the contemplated improvements; and shall render such judgment or order in each case as may be just and proper. Any objection to the irregularity of the proceedings with reference to the making of such improvements as herein provided, or to the validity of any assessment or adjudication of personal liability against such property or the owners thereof, shall be deemed waived unless presented at the time and in the manner herein specified. [Id.]

Art. 1233. Order of assessments.—When the hearing above mentioned has concluded, the governing body shall, by ordinance, assess against the several owners of the property abutting on the street, streets or portions thereof, such proportionate part of the cost of improvements as said body shall have adjudged against the respective owners and their property. Said ordinance shall fix a lien upon such property and declare the respective owners thereof to be personally liable for the respective amounts to be assessed; and shall state the time and manner of payment of such assessment; and said governing body may order that the said assessments shall be payable in installments, and prescribe the amount, time and manner of payment of such installments, which, except as hereinafter provided, shall not exceed six, and the last payment shall not be deferred beyond five years from the completion of such improvement and its acceptance by the city. The said ordinance shall also prescribe the rate of interest to be charged upon deferred payments, not to exceed seven per cent per annum; and may provide for the maturity of all deferred payments and their collection upon default of any installment of principal or interest. [Id.]

Art. 1234. Lien.—Each property owner shall have the privilege of discharging the whole amount assessed against him, or any installment thereof, at any time before maturity, upon payment thereof with accrued interest. The fact that more than one parcel of land, the property of one owner or jointly owned by two or more persons, firms or corporations, have been assessed together in one assessment, shall not invalidate the same or any lien thereon, or any claim of personal liability thereunder. The cost of any such improvement assessed against any property or owner thereof, together with all costs and reasonable attorneys fees when incurred, shall constitute a personal claim against such property owner, and shall be secured by a lien on such property superior to all other liens, claims, or titles, except city, county and State taxes, and such personal liability may be enforced by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any suit brought under this article, it shall be proper to join as defendants two or more property owners who are interested in any single improvement or any single contract for such improvement. The person or persons who own property at the date of any ordinance providing for the assessment thereof, shall be severally and personally liable for their respective portions of the said assessment. The lien of such improvements shall revert back and take effect as of the date of the original resolution ordering the improvement, and the passage of such resolution shall operate as notice of such lien to all persons. Any error or mistake in such ordinance in the name of the owner of the property assessed, shall not invalidate the lien or personal liability thereby created, but the same shall nevertheless exist against the real and true owner of such property as if correctly described. [Id.]

Art. 1235. Suit. — At any time within ten days after the hearing herein provided for has been concluded, any person or persons having an interest in any property which may be subject to assessment under this law, or otherwise having any financial interest in such improvement or improvements or in the manner in which the cost thereof is to be paid, who may desire to contest on any ground the validity of any proceeding that may have been had with reference to the making of such improvements or the validity in whole or in part of any assessment or lien or personal liability fixed by said proceedings, may institute suit for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. Any person who shall fail to institute such suit in said period of ten days, or who shall fail to diligently prosecute such suit in good faith to final judgment, shall be forever barred from making any such contest or defense in any other action, and this estoppel shall bind their heirs, successors, administrators and assigns. The city and the person or persons to whom the contract has been awarded shall be made defendants in such suit, and any other proper parties may be joined therein. [Id.]

Art. 1236. Proceedings. — There shall be attached to the plaintiff's petition an affidavit of the truth of the matters therein alleged, except such matters as are alleged on information and belief, that said suit is brought in good faith and not to injure or delay the city or the contractor or any owner of real estate abutting on the improvement. Unless the provisions of this article are complied with by the plaintiff or plaintiffs, such suit shall be dismissed on motion of any defendant and in that event plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be barred and estopped to the same extent as if suit had not been brought. In any case where a suit is brought as above provided, then the performance of the work may be suspended at the election of either the city or contractor until such suit shall be finally determined in the court of original jurisdiction or any appellate court to which the same may be taken by appeal or writ of error. Every appeal or writ of error shall be perfected within thirty days from the adjournment of the term of court of original jurisdiction at which final judgment was rendered in such suit; and no appeal or writ of error to review the judgment of said court may thereafter be taken or sued out by either party. Any such suit shall be entitled to precedence in the courts of this State, both of original and appellate jurisdiction, and shall be heard and determined as promptly as practicable. [Id.]

Art. 1237. Certificates.—The governing body may provide that for the cost, which is assessed against the abutting property and its owners, the contractor to whom the work may be let shall look only to such property owners and their property, and that the city shall be relieved of liability for such cost. The governing body may also authorize assignable certificates against abutting property or property owners. The recital in such certificates that the proceedings with reference to making such improvements have been regularly had in compliance with the terms of this law, and all prerequisites to the fixing of this lien and the claim of personal liability evidenced by such certificate, have been performed, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited, and no other proof thereof shall be required, but in all courts the said proceedings and prerequisites shall, without further proof, be presumed to have been had or performed. Such certificates shall be executed by the chief executive of the city, and attested with the corporate seal by the city secretary or such other officer as may be designated by the governing body. [Id.]

Art. 1238. Public improvements.—The governing body, if it deems it to be more advantageous to the public, provided public funds are available therefor, may order by resolution the making of any local public improvement by installing a special lighting system as contemplated herein, and for such purpose shall prescribe the district composed of the street or streets, highways, boulevards or alleys, or any portion thereof, that are sought to be improved by the establishment and maintenance of such special lighting system. Specifications shall be prepared therefor under the direction of the governing body and bids shall be invited upon the same as provided herein for making such local improvements. Contracts shall be let as provided herein for making contracts in other cases. A hearing shall be accorded to all property owners owning property abutting upon the streets in such districts to be improved by the said lighting system, and the cost of the same shall be assessed against such property in the same manner as provided herein in other cases; a special lien shall be created against the abutting property and the owners thereof shall be personally liable as is provided herein in all other cases. The cost of making the said improvement shall be paid out of any available funds of the city which may be provided by said body. The amount of the cost of making such improvements so paid by the city to the contractor shall be reimbursed to the city by the property owners whose property is assessed in the manner provided for herein. All proceedings relative to making the assessments and issuing assignable certificates shall apply as far as practicable to the procedure to be followed in making the public improvements under the terms of this article. [Id.]

Art. 1239. General powers.—The governing body may provide additional rules and regulations governing hearings and the issuance of notices therefor as may be deemed advisable in order to afford a full hearing to all property owners concerning the assessments levied or to be levied against them on account of the special benefits received from the improvements so ordered. Such body may use such money as is at its disposal to assist in the financing of the public improvements herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 1240. Control.—After the public improvements provided for in the preceding nineteen articles have been completed and the job accepted by the city, the same shall become the property of the city, and the city shall maintain the same at its own expense, as a part of its regular lighting system. [Id.]

Art. 1241. [1077] Authority.—Cities and towns incorporated under the general laws and cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or less chartered under special law, including those which may have heretofore accepted the provisions of Chapter 1 of this title, may abolish their corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts 1895, p. 166; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 896.]

Art. 1242. [1078] Petition.—When one hundred of the property tax-payers, who are qualified voters of any such city or town, desire the abolishment of such corporation, they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such city or town, as in the case of its incorporation. If a majority of the property taxpayers, who are qualified voters, of any such city or town is less than one hundred in number, then the county judge shall order an election as above provided upon the presentation to him of a petition signed by a majority of the tax payers of such city or town, who are qualified voters thereof. [Acts 1899, p. 245.]

Art. 1243. [1079] Requisites of abolition.—All persons who are legally qualified voters of the State and county in which such an election is ordered, and are resident property taxpayers in the city or town where such election is to be held, as shown by the last assessment roll of such city or town, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of such voters voting at such election shall vote to abolish such corporation, the county judge shall declare such corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners court, and from the date of such order, said corporation shall cease to exist. [Acts 1895, p. 166; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 896.]

Art. 1244. [1080] Receiver.—In all cases where any city or town having theretofore had a valid corporate existence, under the laws of this State, has abolished said corporate existence in the manner provided by law, and in all cases where any city or town having a valid corporate existence under such laws may hereafter abolish their corporate existence, any creditor of any such city or town may apply to the judge of the district court of the district in which such city or town may be situated, for the appointment of a receiver for said corporation. After having posted up in at least three public places in the county where such city or town is located, one of which shall be in said city or town, written notice stating the substance of the application, when and before whom the same will be heard, such judge in term time or vacation, may appoint a suitable person as such receiver for such corporation, and shall fix the amount of bond to be given by such receiver in at least double the probable amount of the indebtedness or value of the property of such town or city, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such officer, and for the paying over and delivery of all money and property coming into his hands as such receiver, to the parties entitled to receive same, such bond to be approved by the judge making the appointment; and same, together with order of appointment, shall be filed with, and recorded in, the minutes of said court by the district clerk of the county where such city or town is situated. Receivers appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as the court may allow. [Acts 1905, p. 325.]

Art. 1245. [1081] Duties of receiver.—A receiver appointed under the preceding article, after having given the required bond, and after having same duly filed and recorded, shall take charge of all the real and personal property, including moneys, minute books, ordinances, etc., except such property as pertains to the public free schools or devoted exclusively to public use, and shall return an inventory of all such property, money, books, etc., so received by him to the next succeeding term of the district court for the county in which such city or town is situated; and, for the purpose of securing such property, money, books, etc., he may, under the order of said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, bring suit against any person in possession of such property, books, or moneys, or indebted to said city or town, the same as such city or town could were it still incorporated. [Id.]

Art. 1246. [1082] Claim.—Any person, firm or corporation, having any claim against such city or town, shall within six months from the appointment of said receiver, present to him a statement of the amount of such claim, duly verified, which, if he finds correct, he will mark allowed, and file same in the district court; and at its next regular term, if no protest be filed, said claim shall be approved by said court and shall thereafter be considered a valid debt against such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 1247. [1082] Notice of claim.—No such claim or account against such city shall be allowed or approved by the receiver without notice of the presentment thereof first having been given, by publication in some newspaper, if any, in the town or city where same is filed or presented, for four consecutive weeks, and in case there be no newspaper published in such town or city, then by posting notice of the presentment of such claim at the courthouse door of the county in which said town or city is situated, for four weeks prior to the allowance of said claim or account. Such notice, whether published or posted, shall state the name and residence of the creditor, the amount and date of said claim and account, and for what purpose incurred. [Id.]

Art. 1248. [1082] Adjustment.—If such receiver finds any claim so presented to him unjust, in whole or in part, he shall endorse his finding thereon, and return same to the claimant, who may file same with the district court, if he desires to accept the findings of the receiver, and such claim for the amount allowed by the receiver may be acted upon by said court as other claims. [Id.]

Art. 1249. [1082] Contest, suit.—In case any protest by any taxpayer of said city or town be filed against any claim in said court, together with a bond to be approved by said court, that he will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant established his claim in full in any State court in which he may sue thereon, then such district court shall refuse to approve such claim until it shall have been established by judgment, recovered thereon in a State court of competent jurisdiction. Such suit to establish such claim or any claim disallowed in part or in whole, may be brought against the receiver, who shall make all legal defense against such claim. The court trying said claim is hereby authorized to hear and consider any material defense that may be or may have been urged against said claim, except that of limitation, though such claim, prior thereto, may have been reduced to judgment, but such judgment shall be considered, upon such trial, as prima facie evidence of the justness of such a claim. [Id.]

Art. 1250. [1082] Judgment and costs.—Any judgment recovered against such receiver upon a claim against such city or town shall be allowed by the receiver and approved by the district court wherein the receivership is pending. In all suits upon claims wherein protest and bond were filed in the district court, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he recovers judgment for the full amount for which he asked the approval of the said district court. In suits upon claims rejected in part by the receiver, the claimant shall be liable for the costs of the suit, unless he establishes his claim for a greater amount than was allowed by the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 1251. [1083] Limitation.—Limitations shall not run, begin to run or be plead against any claim against such city or town at any time prior to six months after the appointment of such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 1252. [1084] Certain dissolutions.—No receiver shall be appointed for any such city or town whose corporate existence was dissolved prior to July 17, 1905, where the application therefor was not filed in said court within two years from and after July 10, 1905. [Id.]

Art. 1253. [1085] Suits barred.—No suit shall be brought against such receiver upon any claim, against the allowance of which a protest has been filed, as herein provided for, at any time after six months from the date of filing such protest, nor after the expiration of six months from the date of the disallowance of any such claim in whole or in part, where the claim has not been filed in the district court, after such disallowance as hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

Art. 1254. [1086] Payment of claims.—The district court of the county in which such town or city is situated, and in which such receivership is pending, shall provide for the payment of all claims legally established against such city or town, and determine the priority of any claims and order the sale of all property in the hands of the receiver subject to sale for such purpose, and direct such receiver to pay such claims. If the money and proceeds of property are insufficient to pay such indebtedness, then said court, at the request of any creditor, at the first regular term of said court in each year, shall levy a tax upon all the property and real and personal estate situated within the limits of said city or town, as previously incorporated, on the first day of the preceding January, not exempt from taxation under the Constitution and laws of this State, sufficient to discharge the indebtedness, but not to exceed the rate allowed by existing law for such purposes in incorporated cities and towns. [Id.]

Art. 1255. [1087] Collection of tax, etc.—Whenever the district court, having jurisdiction in the premises, has or may order the assessment and collection of taxes for the payment of the indebtedness of such town, or city, the tax assessor for the county in which such town or city is situated, shall assess the taxes so ordered in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. The county tax collector for such county shall collect such taxes in like manner as taxes in rural school districts. This article shall not repeal any part of Articles 1245 to 1250 inclusive. For the services rendered under this article, the assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation as for like services for the assessment and collection of taxes in rural school districts; and said collector shall pay such taxes when collected, to the receiver of such city or town. [Id.; Acts 1909, p. 68.]

Art. 1256. [1088] Delinquent taxes.—Suits may be brought by the receivers against delinquents, and a lien shall exist upon all property for such taxes, the same as though the corporate existence of such city or town had never been abolished, and such levy and assessment had been made by its council and assessor. [Acts 1905, p. 327.]

Art. 1257. [1090-1-2] Prior claims.—The compensation of the receiver, together with all the court costs and expenses, shall constitute a prior claim against such city or town, and shall be first paid out of any money on hand or collected. In case of taxation the money collected each year shall be paid pro rata upon all claims according to their priorities until all claims established and all costs and expenses are fully paid. On final settlement of such receivership, any money or property left on hand shall be turned over to the trustees or other officers in charge of the public free school situated in said city or town for the benefit of such school. [Id.]

Art. 1258. [1093] Public schools.—Where the public free schools of such city or town are under the management of trustees appointed or elected by the voters of the city or town, or by the city or town council, at the time its incorporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, such trustees shall have the management of said schools for the remainder of the term for which they were appointed or elected, subject to the supervision of the commissioners court, unless such city or town shall sooner become incorporated for school purposes only. [Acts 1895, p. 166.]

Art. 1259. [1094] School taxes.—All taxes for municipal or school purposes which shall have been levied at the date of the abolishment of such corporation, and which shall not have been paid, shall be collected by the collector of the county in the same manner provided by law for the collection of State and county taxes, and paid into the county treasury; but the portion of such taxes levied for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools of such city or town shall be paid over to the trustees of the public free schools of said city or town and applied by them to the purpose for which they were levied.

Art. 1260. [1095] Public buildings.—When any corporation is abolished under the provisions of this chapter, and shall at the time of any such abolishment own any public buildings, public parks, public works or other property, and the same shall not have been sold or disposed of as provided in this chapter, the same shall be managed and controlled by the commissioners court of such county for the purpose to which same were originally used and intended; and, for this purpose, the commissioners court shall have and exercise, with reference thereto, the powers originally conferred by charter upon the mayor and aldermen of such city.

Art. 1261. [1096] [615] [540] Abolition of towns.—When twenty-five of the qualified voters of any incorporated town or village shall desire the abolishment of such corporation they may petition the county judge to that effect, who shall thereupon order an election to be held in such town or village, as in the case of its incorporation; and, if there be a majority of the voters of said corporation, voting at such election in favor of abolishing such corporation, the county judge shall declare the corporation abolished, and enter an order to that effect upon the minutes of the commissioners court. From and after the date of such order, the said corporation shall cease to exist. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or otherwise affect any laws now upon the statutes of this State providing for the incorporation of towns and villages for school purposes; said towns and villages having not less than two hundred inhabitants. [Acts 1897, p. 194.]

Art. 1262. When corporation ceases to function.—When any corporation is abolished, or if any defacto corporation has been or shall be declared void by any court of competent jurisdiction, or if the same shall cease to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation or de facto corporation, when such corporation or defacto corporation has indebtedness outstanding, then the officers of such corporation, in office at the time of such dissolution, or at the time such corporation ceases to operate and exercise the functions of such corporation, shall take charge of the property of the corporation and sell and dispose of same, and shall settle the debts due by the corporation, and for said purpose shall have power to levy and collect a tax from the inhabitants of said city, town or village in the same manner as the said corporation. In the event of their failure or refusal to do so, and upon the petition of any number of the citizen taxpayers of such corporation or of the holders of the evidences of indebtedness of such corporation or de facto corporation, to the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, the judge of said court shall appoint three trustees to take charge of such property and dispose of same and settle the debts of such corporation or de facto corporation, and for said purpose the said trustees so appointed shall be vested with all the powers herein given to the officers of such corporation. [Acts 1923, p. 309.]

Art. 1263. Action for debt.—The holder of any indebtedness against any municipal corporation which has or may be dissolved in any way provided in the preceding article, including dissolution of a de facto corporation by a court of competent jurisdiction, may maintain a suit in the proper court within this State having jurisdiction in the county in which such dissolved or de facto corporation shall have been situated, to establish said indebtedness against said municipal corporation, and service may be had on such dissolved corporation by serving the citation upon any person who was the mayor, secretary or treasurer of said corporation or pretended to act as such, at the time of its dissolution, and judgment may be rendered in such suit in favor of the holder of such indebtedness against such municipal corporation as fully as if it had not been dissolved or its organization declared void. The status of such city, town or village shall be and remain the same in so far as it affects the holders of its indebtedness, until such indebtedness has been paid. [Id.]

Art. 1264. Current expenses.—Any incorporated city or town in this State, whether incorporated under the general laws of this State, or incorporated by special charter adopted in the manner provided by law, and having a population of 161,000 or more according to the preceding Federal census, may, through its governing body, provide for the payment of its current expenses for any current fiscal year, or for any portion of such fiscal year, by the issuance of warrants drawn against the current revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, in the manner following:

1. Such warrants shall be dated and numbered consecutively as they are issued, and shall become a lien upon the revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, available for the payment thereof, and shall be paid consecutively according to their respective dates and numbers as funds for the payment thereof become available.

2. If no funds are available to pay such warrants at the time of their issuance, the governing body may provide for the payment of interest upon such warrants, or may provide for the payment of a discount thereon. Such interest or discount shall never exceed an amount equal to six per cent per annum upon the face of such warrants for the period of time intervening between the date of their issuance and the time of their payment.

3. In no event shall the governing body provide for the issuance of warrants upon which interest or discount is to be paid, in excess of eighty per cent of the estimated revenues of said city or town for such fiscal year, after the deduction of all interest upon the bonded indebtedness of such city or town to be paid out of the revenues for such fiscal year, and such sums as may be required to be paid into any sinking fund or into any special fund or any special trust fund of said city or town out of its revenues for such fiscal year. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 25.]

Art. 1265. Extension of limits.—Any city having a population of 100,000 and under 150,000 as shown by the preceding Federal census, shall have the power and authority to amend its charter so as to extend its boundary limits by annexing additional territory adjacent and contiguous to such city, where the territory so annexed does not include any incorporated city or town having more than five thousand inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census. Such extension shall be effected in the manner following:

1. The governing body of such city may, upon its own motion, and shall upon the petition of at least ten per cent of the qualified voters of said city as shown by the preceding general election, submit such proposed amendment to a vote of the qualified voters of such city, which election shall be held as provided by chapter 13 of this title.

2. If such amendment is adopted by a majority of those voting at such election, and such annexed territory shall include any incorporated city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less, then, from and after the adoption of such amendment, the incorporation of such city or town of five thousand inhabitants or less shall be abolished and shall cease to exist, and all record books, public property, public buildings, money on hand, credit accounts and other assets of the annexed incorporated city or town shall become the property of said larger city and shall be turned over to the officers thereof, and by such annexation, the offices existing in the smaller municipality shall be abolished and the persons holding such offices shall not be entitled to further remuneration or compensation; and all legal outstanding liabilities of such smaller city shall be assumed by the enlarged city.

3. Whenever such annexed city or town shall have on hand any bond funds for public improvement and not already appropriated or contracted for, such money shall be kept in a separate special fund and devoted to public improvements in the territory for which such bonds were voted, and shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose.

4. After such annexation, all claims, fines, debts and taxes due or payable to the annexed city or town shall thereupon become due and payable to said larger city and shall be collected by it. If taxes for the current year shall have been duly assessed prior to said annexation, then the amount so assessed shall remain as the amounts due and payable from the inhabitants of such annexed city or town for such current year. [Id. p. 153.]

Art. 1266. Discontinuing territory.—Whenever there exists within the corporate limits of any city in this State of 150,000 or more population according to the preceding Federal census located in a county having a population according to such census in excess of 205,000, whether such city was organized by special law, home rule charter, or general laws of this State, territory to the extent of at least three acres contiguous, unimproved and adjoining the lines of any such city, the governing body of any such city may, by ordinance duly passed, discontinue said territory as a part of any such city. When said ordinance has been duly passed, the governing body shall cause to be entered an order to that effect on the minutes or records of such city; and from and after the entry of such order, said territory shall cease to be a part of such city. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 166.]

Art. 1267. Oil and mineral lands.—Cities and towns chartered or organized under the general laws of Texas, or by special Act or charter, which may own oil or mineral lands, shall have the power and right to lease such oil or mineral lands for the benefit of such town or city, but shall not lease for such purposes any street or alley or public square in said town or city, or any land therein dedicated by any person to public uses in such town or city; and no well shall be drilled within the thickly settled portion of any city or town, nor within two hundred feet of any private residence. [Acts 1919, p. 183.]

Art. 1268. Sale or lease of franchise.—Any individual, association or corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State, including any municipal corporation of this State, engaged in manufacturing, producing, supplying or selling electricity, natural or artificial gas, steam, or water, or owning or operating any street railway within any incorporated city, town or village within this State, where the rates charged for such service are subject to regulation under authority of the laws of this State, may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters thereof having been first obtained at an election held for that purpose, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of its entire plant or business or any part thereof, to any other individual, association or corporation which, at the time of said sale, lease or other disposition of said plant or business or any part thereof, is doing, or has authority to do, a like business in said incorporated city, town or village. Nothing herein shall authorize any corporation to engage in any kind of business not authorized by its charter. [Acts 1915, p. 131.]

Art. 1269. Salaries of officers.—The municipalities of this State, having a population exceeding 150,000 according to the preceding Federal census, organized under any special Act of this State or by virtue of the Constitutional provisions of this State, shall have power and authority, acting by and through their governing bodies, to fix and prescribe from time to time, and to alter, modify and change the same, a salary or compensation of not exceeding the following sums, anything in any charter of such municipality or any special law to the contrary:

An annual salary to be paid the corporation judge, four thousand dollars; city attorney and city auditor, six thousand dollars each. No salary of said officers shall be decreased, after being fixed by said governing bodies, during the term of office for which they are elected or appointed. The salaries named herein may be changed in any charter or any amendment to any charter voted on at the home rule election by any such city. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 31; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 187.]

TITLE 29.

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS.

| | | | |
|-------------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| Appointment | Article 1270 | Seal | Article 1272 |
| Oath | 1271 | Authority | 1273 |

Art. 1270. [1097] [618] [542] Appointment.—The Governor is authorized to biennially appoint and commission one or more persons in each or any of the other states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and in each or any of the territories of the United States, and in each or any foreign country, upon the recommendation of the executive authority of said state, District of Columbia or territory or foreign country to serve as commissioner of deeds. Such commissioner shall hold office for two years. [Acts 1885, p. 98; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 718.]

Art. 1271. [1098] Oath.—Such commissioner, before he shall proceed to perform any duty under and by virtue of this title, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, before the clerk of any court of record in the city, county or country in which such commissioner may reside, well and faithfully to execute and perform all the duties of such commissioner under the laws of this State; which oath or affirmation, certified to by the clerk under his hand and seal of office, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State in this State. [Acts 1846, p. 187; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1493.]

Art. 1272. [1102] [623] [547] Seal.—Every such commissioner shall provide for himself a seal with a star of five points, in the center, and the words, "Commissioner of the State of Texas," engraved thereon, which seal shall be used to certify all the official acts of such commissioner; and without the impress of said seal upon any instrument, or to certify any act of such commissioner, said act shall have no validity in this State. [Act Dec. 31, 1861, p. 21; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 465.]

Art. 1273. [1097] [618] [542] Authority.—The commissioner of deeds shall have the same authority as to taking acknowledgments and proofs of written instruments, administering oaths, and taking depositions to be used or recorded in this State, as is conferred by law upon a notary public of this State. [Acts 1885, p. 98; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 718.]

Art. 1274. [3826] "Commission Merchant" defined.— Any person, firm or corporation pursuing, or who shall pursue the business of selling produce, or goods, wares or merchandise of any kind upon consignment for a commission, shall be held to be a commission merchant. [Acts 1907, p. 61.]

Art. 1275. [3827] Bond of.—Every commission merchant shall make bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, with a solvent surety company doing business in this State or with two or more good and sufficient sureties, who are residents of this State, and who shall make affidavit that they in their own right, over and above all exemptions, are worth the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties, payable to the county judge of each county in which such commission merchant maintains an office, and to the successors in office of such county judge as trustees for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this subdivision; conditioned that such commission merchant will faithfully and truly perform all agreements and contracts entered into with consignors for said produce, goods, wares or merchandise, will promptly receive and sell such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, and will on receipt of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise class the same, and if such class as made by such commission merchant is not as high as that made and sent to him by the consignor, he (the commission merchant) will immediately notify the consignor of such fact and of the class made by him; and, as soon as sold will send to the consignor a full and complete account of sales of same, giving an itemized account thereof, and the price received, the dates of sales, and shall, within five days after said produce, goods, wares or merchandise are sold, send to the consignor the full amount received for the same, less the commission due said commission merchant under the contract of assignment, such bond to be approved by the county judge of the county in which said commission merchant maintains an office, and by said judge filed for record in the county clerk's office as chattel mortgages are now authorized to be filed by law. [Acts 1907, p. 61; Acts 1913, p. 178.]

Art. 1276. [3828] Suits on bond.—Such bond shall be made and filed for record in each county in which such commission merchant maintains an office, and in which county suits may be maintained upon such bond by any person claiming to have been damaged by a breach of its condition. Said bond shall not become void upon the first recovery thereon, but may be sued upon until the amount thereof is exhausted. When said bond by suits of recovery has been reduced to the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, said commission merchant shall be required to enter into a new bond in the sum of three thousand dollars as required in the first instance. Said new bond shall be liable for all future contracts, agreements or consignments thereafter entered into by said commission merchant and consignor of such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, and upon failure of said commission merchant to give said new bond as above required, he shall cease doing business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 1277. [3829] [2432] Unlawful interest in sales.—No factor or commission merchant to whom any cotton, sugar, produce or merchandise of any kind is consigned for sale on commission or otherwise, shall purchase the same or reserve any interest whatever therein upon the sale of same, either directly or indirectly, in his own name or in the name or through the instrumentality of another, for his own benefit or for the benefit of another, or as a factor or agent of any other person, without express written license from the owner or consignor of such cotton, sugar, produce or other merchandise, or some person authorized by him, under a penalty of forfeiture of one-half the value of cotton, sugar, produce or other merchandise so purchased or sold, to be recovered by the owner of the same by suit in the county where the sale took place, or wherein the offending party resides. [Acts 1860, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1444.]

Art. 1278. [3830] [2433] Account of sales.—Upon the shipment of any produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, consigned for sale to any factor or commission merchant, it is hereby made his duty that such commission merchant will faithfully and truly perform all agreements and contracts entered into with consignors for said produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares and merchandise; that said commission merchant will promptly receive and sell such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise, in accord with the contract of consignment and will on receipt of such produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise class the same, and if such class as made by such commission merchant is not as high as that made and sent to him by the consignor, he, (the commission merchant) will immediately notify the consignor of such fact and of the class made by him and as soon as sold will send to the consignor a full and complete account of sales of same, giving an itemized account thereof, and the price received, the dates of sales, and shall, within five days after said produce, cotton, sugar, goods, wares or merchandise are sold, send to the consignor the full amount received for the same, less the commission due said commission merchant under the contract of consignment; and if cotton, sugar, or other produce sold by weight, the weight of same in gross, and the tare allowed, and be accompanied by the certificate or memorandum, signed by the weigher who weighed the same, of the weight and condition as required by law, and upon failure of said commission merchant to comply with any one of the provisions of this article, he and the bondsmen required by this subdivision shall be liable for all actual damages incurred by the consignor by reason thereof, and in addition thereto a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the consignor in a suit filed for said actual damages and for said penalty. [Acts 1913, p. 178.]

Art. 1279. [3831] [2434] False charges. — No commission merchant or factor shall be permitted to make any charge for mending or patching, or roping bales, or for cooperage or repairing bales, or for labor, or hauling, or cartage, or for storage, marking or weighing, unless the same has been actually done; and, in case of any such charge, a bill of particulars shall be rendered notwithstanding any usage or custom to the contrary to make such charge, by rate or average; and the person offending against any provision of this article shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit by the owner or consignor. [Acts 1860, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1444.]

Art. 1280. Duties of shipper. — Each consignor of produce, goods, wares or merchandise in this State consigning produce goods, wares, or merchandise to commission merchants to be sold on commission shall, when he consigns such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, send to such commission merchant a written statement in which such consignor shall state the amount, the quality or class, the condition of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise so consigned, and if said merchant, on receipt of same, fails to promptly notify said consignor of any objection he may have to the class, quality or quantity so consigned, then such statement shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that said consignment of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise is truly stated in said statement by the consignor to said commission merchant. When such produce, goods, wares or merchandise is received by said commission merchant, such merchant shall give to the agent of the railroad or other carrier so delivering such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, a receipt for same which receipt shall state the quality, quantity, grade and condition of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise, and said agent of the railroad or other carrier shall keep such receipt on file in his office subject to the inspection of any one interested in such shipment, for six months from the date of such receipt. [Acts 1913, p. 278.]

Art. 1281. Live stock commission merchant. — Any person, firm or corporation, who shall pursue the business of selling live stock, cattle, cows, calves, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks, and jennets or any of them, upon consignment for a commission or other charges, or who shall solicit consignment of live stock as a commission merchant or agent, or who shall advertise or hold himself out to be such, shall be deemed and held to be a live stock commission merchant within the meaning of this subdivision and subject to all the provisions and penalties herein prescribed. [Acts 1921, p. 175.]

Art. 1282. To make bond.—All live stock commission merchants before they shall engage in said business within this State, are hereby required to make bond in an amount hereinafter specified, signed by a solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State and having a paid up capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars, which said bond shall be payable to the county judge of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, and to his successors in office, as trustee for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this law, such bond to be filed by such county judge in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, and in which county suits shall be instituted for any illegal breaches of said bond. [Id.]

Art. 1283. Conditions and amount of bond.—Said bond shall be conditioned that such live stock commission merchant will faithfully obey and carry out all the terms and provisions of this law, and will faithfully and truly perform all agreements entered into with all the consignors, owners or those holding valid liens on said live stock with respect to receiving, handling, selling and making remittances and payments of the net proceeds thereof to the said named parties, or to the person, firm or corporation to whom said consignors, owners or valid lien holders shall direct such payments to be made; and said bond shall further provide and shall be conditioned that such commission merchant shall within forty-eight hours of the sale of live stock so consigned, excluding the day of sale, Sundays, and holidays, remit the net proceeds thereof to the parties rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm or corporation to whom such parties shall direct the payment to be made, or shall within forty-eight hours of the sale of such live stock for said parties at interest deposit to the credit of such parties their respective interest in the net proceeds thereof in some State or National bank in the city or town where such live stock commission merchant has his principal office or place of business, if requested by any or all of the said parties at interest to do so. Said bond shall be made annually and shall expire on September 1st of each year. The amount of such bond shall be fixed by the county judge as follows: Double the amount of the average daily sales of the stock sold on commission for the preceding twelve months period (computed upon the number of business days) by the person, firm or corporation desiring to pursue the business of a live stock commission merchant, which facts shall be made to appear to the county judge by the sworn statement of the individual, or member of the partnership, or by the president or secretary of the corporation, seeking the approval of said bond. Any person, firm or corporation who has not heretofore engaged in the business of a live stock commission merchant shall give bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, which shall be the minimum bond to be given under this law. The period of forty-eight hours shall be computed, excluding the day of sale, Sundays and holidays. [Id.]

Art. 1284. Duty of court, judge.—The county judge shall carefully scrutinize said bond when tendered and if satisfied therewith approve said bond. No bond shall be approved by him which is not in the amount prescribed by this law, and conditioned as required by this law and executed by such surety company. The data as to such surety company shall be first duly certified to the said county judge by a certificate to that effect issued by the Commissioner of Insurance. [Id.]

Art. 1285. Bond recorded.—Said bond together with the sworn statement made to the county judge by the applicant seeking the approval of the same and setting forth the average daily sales of such applicant for the twelve months period next prior thereto, shall, as soon as practicable after the approval of said bond by the county judge, be filed for record in the county clerk's office in the county where the principal business of said commission merchant is to be carried on, and shall be recorded at length and properly indexed in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, to be labeled "Bonds of Live Stock Commission Merchants" and shall also file and securely retain in the archives of his office said original bond and sworn statement. Said clerk shall immediately upon the recording and indexing of said bond and statement furnish to the person, firm or corporation filing the same a correctly certified copy thereof. It is also made the duty of said commission merchant to procure said certified copy from said clerk at the earliest practicable date after the filing and recording thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1286. Deposit of proceeds.—If the proceeds of any live stock sold by said live stock commission merchant shall become involved in a dispute between contending claimants or if said live stock commission merchant is notified that other parties are asserting rights to said proceeds, or any part thereof, in opposition to the claim of those shipping said stock to said commission merchant, said live stock commission merchant shall deposit the amount of said net proceeds involved in such contention in some State or National bank in the town or city where said live stock commission merchant has his principal place of business, and promptly notify all interested parties of his said action in the premises; whereupon no further liability as to such funds so deposited shall accrue or continue as to said live stock commission merchant, either personally or on his bond. [Id.]

Art. 1287. Suit on bond.—The bond provided for by this law may be sued upon and recovery had thereon by any persons claiming to have been damaged by a breach of its conditions. Said bond shall not become void upon the first recovery thereon but may be sued upon until the amount thereof is exhausted. Upon a reduction of said bond by recoveries thereon to the extent of one-half thereof said live stock commission merchant shall be required forthwith to make and file a new bond conditioned as in the third article of this subdivision so as to restore said bond to the required amount. If it shall come to the knowledge of the county judge that the surety company making such bond has become insolvent or is not financially able to make the said bond ample and sufficient in the opinion of said judge, then said officer shall notify said commission merchant to execute a new bond as herein provided for; whereupon it shall be the duty of such commission merchant to make a new bond the same as originally required by the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 1288. [1103] [624] [548] Instrument of conveyance.—No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than one year, in lands and tenements, shall be conveyed from one to another, unless the conveyance be declared by an instrument in writing, subscribed and delivered by the party disposing of the same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. [Act. Feb. 5, 1840; P. D. 671; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 327.]

Art. 1289. [1104] [625] [549] Notice.—A conveyance, such as is described in the preceding article, shall not be good and effectual against a purchaser in good faith, without notice thereof and for a valuable consideration, nor against any creditor, unless such conveyance be acknowledged by the party who shall have signed or delivered it, or proved, in the manner required by law, and before some officer authorized by law to take such acknowledgment or proof, and be filed for record with the clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated. [Id.]

Art. 1290. [1105] [626] [550] Partial conveyances.—All alienations of real estate, made by any person purporting to pass or assure a greater right or estate than such person may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as alienations of so much of the right and estate in such lands, tenements or hereditaments as such person might lawfully convey; but shall not pass or bar the residue of said right or estate purporting to be conveyed or assured; nor shall the alienation of any particular estate on which any remainder may depend, whether such alienation be by deed or will, nor shall the union of such particular estate with the inheritance by purchase or by descent, so operate as to defeat, impair or in any wise affect such remainder. [Id.]

Art. 1291. [1106] [627] [551] When an estate deemed a fee simple.—Every estate in lands which shall thereafter be granted, conveyed or devised to one although other words heretofore necessary at common law to transfer an estate in fee simple be not added, shall be deemed a fee simple, if a less estate be not limited by express words or do not appear to have been granted, conveyed or devised by construction or operation of law. [Id.]

Art. 1292. [1107] [628] [552] Form of conveyance.—The following form, or the same in substance, shall be sufficient as a conveyance of the fee simple of any real estate with a covenant of general warranty, viz:

"The State of Texas,

"County of _____.

"Know all men by these presents, That I, _____, of the _____ (give name of city, town or county), in the state aforesaid, for and in consideration of _____ dollars, to me in hand paid by _____, have granted, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do grant, sell and convey unto the said _____, of the _____ (give name of city, town or county), in the state of _____, all that certain _____ (describe the premises). To have and to hold the above described premises, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances thereto in any wise belonging, unto the said _____, his heirs or assigns forever. And I do hereby bind myself, my heirs, executors and administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the said _____, his heirs and assigns, against every person whomsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof.

"Witness my hand, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19_____.

"Signed and delivered in the presence of _____

_____. [Id.]

Art. 1293. [1108] [629] [553] Other forms and clauses valid.—No person shall be obliged to insert the covenant of warranty, or be restrained from inserting any clause or clauses in conveyances hereafter to be made, that may be deemed proper and advisable by the purchaser and seller; and other forms not contravening the laws of the land shall not be invalidated. [Id.]

Art. 1294. [1109] [630] [554] Must be witnessed or acknowledged.—Every deed or conveyance of real estate must be signed and acknowledged by the grantor in the presence of at least two credible subscribing witnesses thereto; or must be duly acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and properly certified to by him for registration. [R. S. 1879, 554.]

Art. 1295. [1110] [631] [555] Conveyance by authorized officer.—Every conveyance of real estate by a commissioner, sheriff or other officer legally authorized to sell, under or by virtue of a decree or judgment of any court within this State, shall be good and effectual to pass the absolute title to such real estate to the purchaser thereof; but nothing herein shall be construed to affect the right, title or interest of any person or persons other than the parties to such conveyance, decree or judgment, and those claiming under them. [Id.]

Art. 1296. [1111] [632] [556] Estates in futuro.—An estate or freehold or inheritance may be made to commence in futuro, by deed or conveyance, in like manner as by will. [Id.]

Art. 1297. [1112] [633] [557] Implied covenants.—From the use of the word "grant" or "convey," in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs or assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance.

Art. 1298. [1113] [634] [558] Incumbrances include what.—The term “incumbrances” includes taxes, assessments, and all liens upon real property.

Art. 1299. [1114] [635] [559] Conveyance of separate lands of wife.—The husband and wife shall join in the conveyance of real estate, the separate property of the wife; and no such conveyance shall take effect until the same shall have been acknowledged by her privily and apart from her husband before some officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments to deeds for the purpose of being recorded, and certified to in the mode pointed out in articles 6605 and 6608. [Acts 1897, p. 41; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1095.]

Art. 1300. [1115] [636] [560] Conveyance of homestead.—The homestead of the family shall not be sold and conveyed by the owner, if a married man, without the consent of the wife. Such consent shall be evidenced by the wife joining in the conveyance, and signing her name thereto, and by her separate acknowledgment thereof taken and certified to before the proper officer, and in the mode pointed out in articles 6605 and 6608. [Id.]

Art. 1301. [1116] [637] [561] Failing as a conveyance.—When an instrument in writing, which was intended as a conveyance of real estate, or some interest therein, shall fail, either in whole or in part, to take effect as a conveyance by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the same shall nevertheless be valid and effectual as a contract upon which a conveyance may be enforced, as far as the rules of law will permit.

Art. 1302. [1121] [642] [566] Purposes.—The purposes for which private corporations may be formed are:

1. The support of public worship.

2. The support of any benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertaking.

3. The support of any literary and scientific undertaking; the maintenance of a library, or promotion of painting, music and other fine arts.

4. The protection of women and children and the prevention of cruelty to animals.

5. The protection and preservation and propagation of fish, oysters and game.

6. Art. 1303. [1120] [641] [565] May create.—Private corporations may be created by the voluntary association of three or more persons for the purposes authorized by law and in the manner hereinafter mentioned. [Acts 1874, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122; Act 1897, p. 188; P. D. 5935; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1242.]

Art. 1304. [1122] [643] [567] Charter.—A charter must be prepared setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation;
2. The purpose for which it is formed;
3. The place or places where its business is to be transacted;
4. The term for which it is to exist;
5. The number of directors or trustees, and the names and residences of those who are appointees for the first year;

6. The amount of its capital stock, if any, and the number of shares into which it is divided. [Id.]

Art. 1305. [1123] [644] [568] Acknowledgment.—It must be subscribed by three or more persons, two of whom must be citizens of this State, and must be acknowledged by them, before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds. [Acts 1887, p. 103; Acts 1919, p. 246; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 901.]

Art. 1306. [1123] [644] [568] Female incorporators.—Charters may be subscribed by married women who may be stockholders, officers and directors thereof; and their acts, contracts and deeds as such stockholders, officers and directors shall be as binding and effective for all the purposes of said corporation as if they were males. The joinder and consent of the husband and privy examinations separate and apart from him shall not be required. [Id.]

Art. 1307. [1124] [679] [603] Notice by firm.—Whenever any banking, mercantile or other business firm desires to become incorporated without a change of the firm name, such firm shall, in addition to the notice of dissolution required at common law, give notice of such intention to become incorporated, for at least four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published at the seat of State government, and in the county in which such firm has its principal business office, if there be a newspaper in such county, and, if not, then in some newspaper published in some adjoining county. Until such notice has been so published for the full period above named, no change shall take place in the liability of such firm or the members thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1308. [1125-1126-1127] Capital stock.—Before the charter of a private corporation created for profit can be filed by the Secretary of State, the full amount of its authorized capital stock must be in good faith subscribed by its stockholders and fifty per cent thereof paid in cash, or its equivalent in other property or labor done, the product of which shall be worth to the company the actual value at which it was taken or at which the property was received. The affidavit of those who executed the charter shall be furnished to the Secretary of State, showing:

1. The name, residence and postoffice address of each subscriber to the capital stock of such company;

2. The amount subscribed by each, and the amount paid by each;

3. The cash value of any property received, giving its description, location and from whom and the price at which it was received;

4. The amount, character and value of labor done, from whom, and price at which it was received. [Acts 1901, p. 18; Acts 1897, p. 192; Acts 1907, p. 309; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 246.]

Art. 1309. [1128] [642] Further evidence.—If the Secretary of State is not satisfied, he may, at the expense of the incorporators, require other satisfactory evidence before he shall be required to receive, file and record such charter. [Id.]

Art. 1310. [1129] [642] Corporations exempt.—Corporations created under subdivisions 48, 67, 68, 71, 72 of Article 1302; corporations formed for the construction, purchase and maintenance of mills and gins, having a capital stock of not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars; mutual building and loan associations; corporations formed for the construction, purchase, maintenance and operation of cotton mills; and waterworks, ice plants, electric light plants and cotton warehouses in cities of less than ten thousand inhabitants, are exempt from the provisions of the two preceding articles. [Id. 3d C. S. 1920, p. 86.]

Art. 1311. [1130] [642] Exempt corporations: stock.—The stockholders of all private corporations such as are designated in the preceding article, with an authorized capital stock under the provisions of this chapter, shall be required to pay in at least one hundred thousand dollars in cash of their authorized capital stock, or to subscribe at least fifty per cent, and pay in at least ten per cent of their authorized capital, before they shall be authorized to do business in this State. [Acts 1907, p. 309.]

Art. 1312. [1224] [714] [638] No capital stock.—No society, association, company, corporation or institution that does not have a capital stock is required in its charter to make any statement of the amount of capital stock or amount of each share; but it will suffice if the charter contains the other statements required, and also an estimate of the value of the goods, chattels, lands, rights and credits owned by the corporation.

Art. 1313. [1130-1-2] Filing charter.—When the stockholders of any company shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the Secretary of State of a compliance with the provisions of this chapter, said officer shall receive, file and record the charter of such company in his office, upon application and the payment of all fees therefor, and give his certificate showing the record of such charter and authority to do business thereunder. The charter shall thereupon be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall record the same at length in a book to be kept for that purpose, and retain the original on file in his office. A copy of the charter, or of the record thereof, certified under the great seal of the State, shall be evidence of the creation of the corporation. The existence of the corporation shall date from the filing of the charter in the office of the Secretary of State. The certificate of the Secretary of State shall be evidence of such filing. [Acts 1874, p. 121, Sec. 9; P. D. 5940; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 123.]

Art. 1314. [1133-4-5] Amendments.—Any private corporation organized or incorporated for any purpose mentioned in this title, may amend or change its charter or act of incorporation by filing, authenticated in the same manner as the original charter, such amendments or changes with the Secretary of State. A corporation created by special Act of the Legislature shall also file with said officer its original charter and such amendments thereto or changes therein, if any, as have been made by special Act of the Legislature; and the same shall be recorded by the Secretary of State, followed by the proposed amendments or changes thereof. Such amendments or changes shall take effect and be in force from the date of the filing thereof. The certificate of the Secretary of State shall be evidence of such filing. No amendment or change violative of the Constitution or laws of this State or any provision of this title or which so changes the original purpose of such corporation as to prevent the execution thereof, shall be of any force or effect. [Acts 1874, Sec. 10; p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122; Acts 1903, p. 227.]

Art. 1315. [1136] [651] Renewal of charter.—Corporations created for the support of benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertakings, the support of any literary or scientific undertaking, the maintenance of a library, or the promotion of painting, music or other fine arts, whose charter has expired by limitation, may revive such charter with all the privileges and immunities and rights of property, real and personal, exercised and held by it at the date of the expiration of its said charter, by filing, with the consent of a majority of its stockholders, a new charter under the provisions of this chapter, reciting therein such original privileges and immunities and rights of property, and by filing therewith a certified copy of such original expired charter. [Acts 1874, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122; Acts 1883, p. 98; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 404; Acts 1907, p. 301; Acts 1909, p. 226; P. D. 5942.]

Art. 1316. [1137] [651] Consolidation.—Any two or more of such corporations may revive and consolidate their charters under a new corporate name, or under the name of either, with all privileges, immunities and rights of property, real and personal, enjoyed by each at the date of the expiration of their several charters, by, in like manner, filing a charter, which shall recite the facts of consolidation, accompanied by certified copies of said original charters; provided the provisions thereof shall not be construed to relieve any corporation from the payment of occupation taxes, now or hereafter required by law. [Id.]

Art. 1317. [1138] [675] [599] Ostensible corporation: debt.—No person who assumes an obligation to an ostensible corporation as such, shall resist the enforcement of such obligation, on the ground that there was in fact no such corporation, until that fact shall have been adjudged in a direct proceeding had for that purpose.

Art. 1318. [1139] [650] [574] Legislative authority.—All charters or amendments to charters, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the power of the Legislature to alter, reform or amend the same. [Act April 23, 1874, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122.]

Art. 1319. [1117-18-19] Corporations classified.—Corporations are either public or private. A public corporation is one which has for its object the government of a portion of the State. Private corporations are of three kinds:

1. Religious.
2. For charity or benevolence.
3. For profit. [Acts 1874, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122.]

Art. 1320. [1140] [651] [575] General powers.—Every private corporation as such has power:

1. To have succession by its corporate name for the period limited in its charter, not to exceed fifty years, and when no period is limited, for twenty years.
2. To maintain and defend judicial proceedings.
3. To make and use a common seal.
4. To purchase, hold, sell, mortgage or otherwise convey such real estate and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, and also to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal, or mixed, or shall be requisite for such corporation to acquire in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability due, or belonging to, the corporation.
5. To appoint and remove subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require, and to allow them a suitable compensation.
6. To make by-laws not inconsistent with existing laws, for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs and the transfer of its stock.
7. To enter into any obligation or contract essential to the transaction of its authorized business.
8. To increase or diminish, by a vote of its stockholders cast as its by-laws may direct, the number of its directors or trustees, to be not less than three nor more than twenty-one; provided; that any corporation formed under Subdivisions 1, 2 and 3, of Chapter 1, may increase the number of its directors or trustees to not more than seventy-five. [Acts 1874, p. 120; G. L., Vol.

8, p. 122; Acts 1907, p. 301; Acts 1909, p. 225; Acts 1923, p. 261.]

Art. 1321. [1162] [653] [577] May borrow money.—Corporations may borrow money on the credit of the corporation and may execute bonds or promissory notes therefor and may pledge the property and income of the corporation. [Acts 1874, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 122; Acts 1883, p. 98, G. L. Vol. 9, p. 404; Acts 1917, p. 66.]

Art. 1322. [1173] [676] [600] Conveyances.—Any corporation may convey lands by deed, sealed with the common seal of the corporation, and signed by the president or presiding member or trustee of said corporation, or in common form without seal by its attorney in fact where the instrument constituting such attorney in fact is executed in said manner first mentioned. Such deed, when acknowledged by such officer or attorney in fact to be the act of the corporation, or proved in the manner prescribed for other conveyances of lands, may be recorded in like manner and with the same effect as other deeds. [Acts 1905, p. 230.]

Art. 1323. [1153] [655] [579] Directors: quorum.—A majority of the directors or trustees shall constitute a quorum, and be competent to fill vacancies in the board, and to transact all business of the corporation. An annual election shall be held for directors or trustees, at such time and place as the by-laws of the corporation may require. [Acts 1907, p. 311, Sec. 15; P. D. 5946.]

Art. 1324. [1157] [659] [583] Failure to elect officers.—Should an election for directors not be held on the day appointed by the by-laws of any corporation organized under any law of this State, such corporation shall not, for that reason, be deemed to be dissolved. It shall be lawful on any other day to hold a meeting and elect its directors or trustees, in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws thereof. [Id., Sec. 19; P. D. 5950.]

Art. 1325. [1154] [656] [580] Officers.—The directors or trustees shall choose one of their number president, and shall appoint a secretary and treasurer and such other officers as they may deem necessary for the corporation. [Id., Sec. 16.]

Art. 1326. [1155] [657] [581] By-laws.—The directors may adopt by-laws for the government of the corporation. Such by-laws may be altered, changed or amended by a majority vote of the stockholders at any election or special meeting ordered for that purpose by the directors or trustees, on a written application of a majority of the stockholders or members. [Id.]

Art. 1327. [1159] [661] [585] Directors' powers.—The directors shall have the general management of the affairs of the corporation, and may dispose of the residue of the capital stock at any time remaining unsubscribed, in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe. [Id., Sec. 21.]

Art. 1328. [1160] [662] [586] Records.—They shall cause a record to be kept of all stock subscribed and transferred, and of all business transactions. Their books and records shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any stockholder. [Id.]

Art. 1329. [1161] [663] [587] Dividends.—They shall, when required by one-third of the stockholders, present written reports of the situation and amount of business of the corporation, and declare and make such dividends of the profits from the business of the corporation as they shall deem expedient, or as the by-laws may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 1330. [1145] [652] [576] Increase of capital.—The board of directors, trustees or managers of a corporation may increase its authorized capital when empowered to do so by a two-thirds vote of all its stock, by complying with the provisions of Article 1348. Upon such increase of stock being made in accordance with such provisions and certified to the Secretary of State by the directors, and, if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the increase has been made in accordance with law and that the requirements of law have been complied with as to the subscription and payment of stock and in other respects, as on an original application for charter, he shall file such certificate of increase; and thereupon the same shall become a part of the capital stock of such corporation. Such certificate shall be filed and recorded in the same manner as the charter. [Id; Acts 1893, p. 123; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 553.]

Art. 1331. [1151] [652] Unpaid increase.—In case of failure by the stockholders to pay the unpaid portion of an increase of stock within two years from the date of the filing of the certificate of increase in the office of the Secretary of State, the charter of such company shall be forfeited, and the provisions of Articles 1339 to 1343 inclusive, shall govern the same as in case of the creation of a corporation. [Acts 1907, p. 311]

Art. 1332. [1152] [652] Decrease of capital.—A corporation may decrease its capital stock by such amount as its stockholders may decide, by a two-thirds vote of all its outstanding stock, in like manner as is required for an increase. No such decrease shall prejudice the rights of any creditor of such corporation in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against the company, or any stockholder thereof. Such decrease shall not become effective until full proof is made by affidavit of the directors to the Secretary of State of the financial condition of such corporation, giving therein all its assets and liabilities, with names and postoffice addresses of all creditors and amount due each; and the Secretary of State may require, as a condition precedent to the filing of such certificate of decrease, that the debts of such corporation be paid or reduced. [Id.]

Art. 1333. Reduction: voting.—Whenever any corporation shall reduce its capital stock, and by reason thereof fractional shares of its stock shall be issued to or held by any of its stockholders, the holder of any such fractional share shall be entitled to vote the same at any meeting of the stockholders in accordance with the proportionate or ratable value of such shares. [Acts 1919, p. 173.]

Art. 1334. [1168] [666] [590] Stock, status of.—The stock of any corporation created under this title shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe. [Acts 1907, p. 312., P. D. 5955.]

Art. 1335. [1169] [667] [591] Payment of stock.—The board of directors of any corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner, and in such installments, as may be required by the by-laws. [Id.]

Art. 1336. [1170] [668] [592] Stock forfeited.—If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment as required by the board of directors, the directors may declare his stock and all previous payments forfeited to the use of the company; but no stock shall be forfeited until the directors have caused a written notice to be served on him personally, or by depositing the same in the postoffice, properly directed to him at the postoffice nearest his usual place of residence, stating that he is required to make such payment at the time and place specified in said notice, and that if he fails to make the same, his stock and all previous payments thereon will be forfeited for the use of the company. Such notice may be served at least thirty days previous to the day on which such payment is required to be made. [Id.]

Art. 1337. [1171] [669] [593] May sue members.—All bodies corporate may sue for, recover and receive from their respective members all arrears or other debts, dues or demands owing to them, in like mode, manner and form as they might sue for, recover and receive the same from any person not a member of their body. [Id.]

Art. 1338. [1141] [642] Unpaid stock.—The stockholders of all corporations chartered under the provisions of the preceding chapter shall, within two years from the date of the filing of such charter, pay in the unpaid portion of the capital stock of such company; proof of which shall, within said time, be made to the Secretary of State, in the manner provided in said articles, for the filing of charters. [Acts 1907, p. 309.]

Art. 1339. [1142] [642] Default of payment.—In cases of the failure to pay the unpaid portion of capital stock, and to make proof thereof to the Secretary of State within two years from the date of the filing of the charter, the charter of such company shall become forfeited. Such forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the Secretary of State entering upon the margin of the ledger kept in his office relating to such corporations the word, "forfeited," giving the date and reason therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1340. [1143] [642] Forfeiture notice.—The Secretary of State shall notify such corporation by mailing to the postoffice named as its principal place of business, or to any other place of business of such corporation, addressed in its corporate name, a written or printed statement of the date and fact of such forfeiture. A record of the date and fact of such notice shall be kept by such officer. [Id.]

Art. 1341. [1143] [642] Redemption.—The stockholders of any such corporation whose charter has been so forfeited, who shall within six months from the date of such forfeiture and not thereafter, pay in full the unpaid capital of such company and furnish to the Secretary of State proof of such fact as required herein, and in addition, shall pay the Secretary of State as fees belonging to his office, the sum of five dollars per month for each month and fractional part thereof between the date of forfeiture and settlement, shall be relieved from such forfeiture; and said officer shall write on the margin of said ledger the word “revived,” giving the date thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1342. [1144] [642] Avoidance of forfeiture.—The stockholders of any such company shall have the right, at any time within two years from the date of filing of the charter, to make payment of the unpaid portion of the capital stock, to reduce the same so that by reduction, or reduction and payment, the full amount of the capital stock authorized by such reduction shall be paid, and thus avoid a forfeiture of the charter. No creditor of said company shall in any wise be prejudiced by such reduction of its capital stock in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against such company or any stockholder or officer thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1343. [1144] [642] Failure to revive.—If the stockholders fail to cause the charter powers of said corporation to be revived, the affairs of such company shall be administered and wound up as on dissolution. [Id.]

Art. 1344. [552] Liable for debt.—If default shall be made in the payment of any debt or liability contracted by a trust, guaranty or surety company, each stockholder thereof, as long as he owns shares therein, and for twelve months after the date of a transfer thereof, shall be personally liable for all debts of such corporation existing at the date of such default or transfer, to an amount double the par value of such shares. [Acts 1905, S. S. p. 511.]

Art. 1345. [1198] [671] [595] Stockholders' liability.—If execution has issued against the property of a corporation, except a railway or a religious or charitable corporation, and there cannot be found any property whereon to levy such execution, then the execution may be issued against any of the stockholders to an extent equal to the amount of the stock unpaid. No execution shall issue against any stockholder, except upon an order of the court in which the suit or other proceeding was instituted, made in open court upon motion after a reasonable written notice to the person or persons sought to be charged. Upon such motion, such court may order execution to issue accordingly; or the plaintiff in execution may proceed by action to charge the stockholders with the amount of his judg-

Art. 1346. [1199] [672] [596] Lists of stockholders.—The secretary or other officer having charge of the books of any corporation, on demand of the plaintiff in any execution against the corporation, his agent or attorney, shall furnish such plaintiff, his agent or attorney, with the name and place of residence of each stockholder as far as known, and the amount of stock held by each, as shown by such books. [Id.]

Art. 1347. [1200] [670] [594] Directors' liability.—If the directors of any corporation shall knowingly declare and pay any dividend when the corporation is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the corporation then existing, and for all debts of the corporation which thereafter, during the time such directors respectively remain in office, shall be contracted. The amount for which they shall be so liable shall not exceed the amount of such dividend. If any director is absent at the time of declaring the dividend, or shall object thereto at the time such dividend is declared and shall file his objections in writing with the secretary or other officer of the corporation having charge of the books, he shall be exempt from said liability. [Id; Acts 1871, 2nd C. S. p. 66; Acts 1893, p. 123; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 68; Vol. 10, p. 553.]

Art. 1348. [1165] [665] [589] Indebtedness.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this State shall create any indebtedness whatever except for money paid, labor done which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation. [Acts 1907, p. 312.]

Art. 1349. [1164] [665] [589] Acts prohibited.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this State, shall employ or use its stock, means, assets or other property, directly or indirectly for any purpose whatever other than to accomplish the legitimate business of its creation, or those purposes otherwise permitted by law; provided that nothing in this article shall be held to inhibit corporations from contributing to any bona fide association, incorporated or unincorporated, organized for and actively engaged for one year prior to such contribution in purely religious, charitable or eleemosynary activities, nor to local, district, or statewide commercial or industrial clubs or associations or other civic enterprises or organizations not in any manner nor to any extent directly or indirectly engaged in furthering the cause of any political party, or aiding in the election or defeat of any candidate for office, or aiding in defraying the expenses of any candidate for office, or defraying or aiding in defraying the expenses of any political campaign, or political headquarters, or aiding or assisting the success or defeat of any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State or any subdivision thereof. [Acts 1917, p. 25.]

Art. 1350. [1166] Campaign expenditures.—No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this State shall, directly or indirectly, contribute or pay any part of its assets, property or funds to any political party, or to any officer or campaign manager of any political party, or to any person whatsoever, for or on account of such party, nor to any candidate for any office, before or after nominations are made, or to aid in defraying the expenses of any candidate for office, or to any person for or on account of aid in defraying the expenses of a candidate for office, or to any person whatsoever for or on account of aid in maintaining or defraying the expenses of any campaign or political headquarters, or to any person whatsoever for or on account of the success or defeat of any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State or any subdivision thereof. [Acts 1907, p. 312.]

Art. 1351. [1167] Penalty.—Any corporation which shall violate any provision of the three preceding articles, shall, on proof thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from or by virtue of the laws of this State.

Whenever it appears that the money, assets, property or funds of a corporation have been issued, paid out, or used, in violation of any provision of the three preceding articles, by any agent, attorney, director or officer of such corporation, it shall be considered the act of the corporation, unless, within one year from the date of such violation it has caused to be entered, through its board of directors on its records in this State, an order repudiating the wrong and permanently dismissing from its service all persons directly or indirectly connected with such violation. [Id.]

Art. 1352. Political contributions.—No national bank, or any other corporation organized by authority of any law of Congress, and doing business in this State, or authorized to do business in this State, or any other corporation organized by the authority of the laws of this State, or of any foreign country, or any corporation authorized by the authority of the laws of any other State of the United States, doing business in this State, or authorized to do business in this State, shall make any money contribution, or its equivalent, or offer to pay at any future time any money, or its equivalent, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of aiding or defeating the election of any candidate for the office of Representative in Congress, or Presidential or Vice-Presidential Electors from this State, or any candidate for any State, district, county or precinct office in this State, or the success or defeat of any political measure submitted to a vote of the people of this State. Every corporation which shall make, or offer to make, any contribution in violation of the provisions of this article shall be subject to a penalty payable to the State of Texas of not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars for each offense. [Acts 1907, p. 169.]

Art. 1353. [1146] Watering stock.—No corporation shall issue any stock whatever, except for money paid, labor done which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the company. Any corporation which violates any provision of this article shall, on proof thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, as the case may be, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from, or by virtue of the laws of this State. [Acts 1907, p. 309.]

Art. 1354. [1147] Suit.—When any corporation has issued and has outstanding any stocks or bonds given or issued for any purpose, other than money paid to, labor done for, or property actually received by the corporation, the Attorney General when convinced that the facts exist which authorize the action, shall institute quo warranto or other appropriate judicial proceedings in Travis County or in any other county of this State where such corporation may be sued, to have such stocks or bonds issued in violation of the Constitution or laws of Texas, cancelled, expunged, and held for naught.

Within the meaning of the above, is included any bond or stock given in renewal, or in lieu of, any originally issued for purposes other than those mentioned above, also any issued by any corporation with which the corporation originally issuing any such stock or bonds has merged or been consolidated and given by said issuing corporation in the place of those originally issued for purposes other than as mentioned above. [Id.]

Art. 1355. [1148] Avoidance of suit.—If any suit authorized under the preceding article has been instituted, the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant, or if not instituted, no action shall be brought, if the defendant corporation shall surrender, or cause to be surrendered, to the court, or to the Railroad Commission of Texas, for destruction, all such illegal stocks and bonds complained of, with proper and legal releases thereof, suitably executed for record, with such other written evidences and documents as may be necessary to show that such stocks or bonds are no longer outstanding against the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1356. [1149] Remedies cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by the two preceding articles are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment, or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties. [Id.]

Art. 1357. [1172] [674] [598] Misnomer.—No misnomer of any corporation shall defeat or vitiate any gift, grant, conveyance, devise, or bequest to the same. [Acts 1907, p. 312.]

Art. 1358. [1174] [673] [597] Principal office.—Each corporation or joint stock company of every description, whether organized and acting under a special charter or general law of this State, shall keep its principal office within this State. [Acts 1905, p. 230.]

| Conditions of purchase..... | 1359 | Town lot corporations..... | 1363 |
| Sale of surplus..... | 1360 | Escheat proceedings..... | 1364 |
| Liquidation..... | 1361 | Disposition of penalties..... | 1365 |
| Corporations prohibited..... | 1362 | | |

Art. 1359. [1175] Conditions of purchase.—No private corporation shall be permitted to purchase any lands under any provision of this chapter, unless the lands so purchased are necessary to enable such corporation to do business in this State, or except where such land is purchased in due course of business to secure the payment of debt. [Acts 1893, p. 36; Acts 1897, p. 48; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 466, 1102.]

Art. 1360. [1176] Sale of surplus.—All private corporations authorized by the laws of Texas, to do business in this State, whose main purpose is not the acquisition or ownership of lands, which have or may acquire by lease, purchase or otherwise more land than is necessary to enable them to carry on their business, shall, within fifteen years from the date said land may be acquired, in good faith sell and convey in fee simple all lands so acquired which are not necessary for the transaction of their business. [Id.]

Art. 1361. [1178] Liquidation.—Any lands acquired by corporations in payment of debts due such corporations shall be sold and conveyed as herein provided, within fifteen years from the date of the acquisition of such land. [Id.]

Art. 1362. [1177] Corporations prohibited.—No private corporation heretofore or hereafter chartered or created whose main purpose of business is the acquisition or ownership of land by purchase, lease or otherwise, shall hereafter be permitted to acquire any land within this State by purchase, lease or otherwise. [Id.]

Art. 1363. [1179] Town lot corporations.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the lease, purchase, sale or subdivision of real property within incorporated towns, cities or villages, and their suburbs not extending more than two miles beyond their corporate limits, by corporations whose charters authorize them to lease, purchase, sell and subdivide real estate, within towns, cities and villages, and their suburbs, whether their suburbs be stated to be measured from the limits merely, or the corporate limits, of such towns, cities and villages. All such corporations now existing, or which may be hereafter created shall be authorized to lease, sell or subdivide real property in any unincorporated city, town or village, or the suburbs thereof, within this State, not exceeding two miles in any direction from the courthouse, or depot nearest the center of such city, town or village, or from the center thereof, if there be no courthouse or depot. [Id.]

Art. 1364. [1180] Escheat proceedings.—All corporations holding lands contrary to the provisions of this law shall hold the same subject to forfeiture and escheat proceedings. The Attorney General, or any district or county attorney, when either of them has reason to believe that any corporation is holding lands in violation of this law, shall institute suit in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county in Texas where such corporation may have an agent, or in any county where any part of the land may be situated, against such corporation, as is provided for the escheat of estates of deceased persons dying without devise thereof and having no heirs. [Acts 1893, p. 36; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 466.]

Art. 1365. [1181] Disposition of penalties.— If it be determined upon the trial of said suit that lands are held contrary to this law, the court trying said cause shall enter judgment condemning such lands and ordering them to be sold as under execution, the proceeds of such sale to be first applied to the payment of costs of such suit, and the balance to be paid into the State Treasury subject to be paid to the stockholders, or persons entitled to receive the same as owners, upon proper proof made within twelve months from date of sale. If the legal representatives of such corporation fail to claim the said balance of money realized on sale of said land, then it shall escheat to the State and be applied to the available school fund. The court trying said cause shall allow the attorney representing the State a reasonable fee, to be taxed as cost in the suit. In no case shall the State be liable for costs or fees unless it is successful in said suit. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

BOOKS, RECORDS, ETC.

| | Article | | Article |
|----------------------------|---------|-----------------------------|---------|
| Examination | 1366 | Disclosures | 1369 |
| Request to examine | 1367 | Penalty | 1370 |
| Authority to examine | 1368 | Provisions cumulative | 1371 |

Art. 1366. [1187] Examination.— Every corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in Texas, shall permit the Attorney General or any of his authorized assistants or representatives, to make examination of all the books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws, and other records of said corporation as often as he may deem necessary. [Acts 1907, p. 34.]

Art. 1367. [1187] Request to examine.— A written request shall be made to the president or other officer of said corporation at the time the Attorney General or his assistants desire to examine the business of said corporation. It shall be the duty of the officer or agent of any corporation to whom said request is presented to immediately permit the Attorney General, or his authorized assistant or representative to inspect and examine all the said books, records and other documents of said corporation. [Id.]

thorized by the Attorney General, has the power and authority to make investigation into the organization, conduct and management of any corporation authorized to do business within this State, and has authority to inspect and examine any of its said books, records and other documents, and take such copies thereof as in his judgment may show or tend to show that said corporation has been or is engaged in acts or conduct in violation of its charter rights and privileges, or in violation of any law of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1369. [1188] Disclosures.—The Attorney General, or his authorized assistants or representatives shall not make public, or use said copies or any information derived in the course of said examination of said records or documents, except in the course of some judicial proceedings in which the State is a party, or in a suit by the State to cancel the permit or forfeit the charter of such corporation, or to collect penalties for a violation of the laws of this State, or for information of any officer of this State charged with the enforcement of its laws. [Id.]

Art. 1370. [1189-1190] Penalty.—Any foreign corporation doing business in Texas under a permit granted under the laws of this State, or any officer or agent thereof, or any domestic corporation which shall fail or refuse to permit the Attorney General, or his authorized representative or representatives, to examine or take copies of any of its said books, records, and other documents whether same be situated within this or any other State within the United States, shall thereby forfeit its right to do business in this State; and its permit or charter shall be canceled or forfeited. [Id.]

Art. 1371. [1192] Provisions cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative of all other laws now in force in this State, and shall not be construed as repealing any other means afforded by law for securing testimony or inquiring into the charter rights and privileges of corporations. [Id.]

Art. 1372. [1193] Law violations.—Whenever any domestic or foreign corporation in this State shall violate any law of this State, including the law against trusts, monopolies and conspiracies or combinations or contracts in restraint of trade, for the violation of which fines or penalties or forfeitures are provided, all property of such corporation within this State at the time of such violation, or which may thereafter come within this State, shall, by reason of such violation, become liable for such fines or penalties and for costs of suit and costs of collection. [Acts 1907, p. 175.]

Art. 1373. [1193] Lien, notice.—The State of Texas shall have a lien on all such property from the date that suit shall be instituted by the Attorney General or district or county attorney acting under his direction, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, for the purpose of forfeiting the charter or canceling the permit of such corporation, or for such fines or penalties. The institution of such suit for such fine, penalties or forfeiture, shall constitute notice of such lien. [Id.]

Art. 1374. [1194] Abatement of suit.—Any action or cause of action for any fine, forfeiture or penalty that the State of Texas has, or may have, against any corporation chartered under the laws of this or any other state, territory or nation, shall not abate or become abated by reason of the dissolution of such corporation, whether voluntary or otherwise, or by the forfeiture of its charter or permit. [Id.]

Art. 1375. [1194] Receiver. — Whenever a corporation, against which the State has instituted suit for forfeiture of its charter or cancellation of its permit or for fines or penalties, shall dissolve in this or any other state, or shall have a judgment rendered against it in this or any other state for the forfeiture of its charter, the court in this State in which such suit is pending shall appoint a receiver for the property and business of such corporation within this State, or that may come or be brought within this State during such receivership; or the court may, in any case wherein the State is suing any such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter, or of its permit to do business in this State, or for fines or penalties, appoint a receiver for such corporation whenever the interest of the State may seem to require such action. [Id.]

Art. 1376. [1194] Rights of State.—The State shall have the right to writs of attachment, garnishment, sequestration or injunction, without bond, to aid in the enforcement of its rights created by this law; and all property not otherwise exempt by law that may come into the possession of any receiver appointed under any provision of this chapter, shall be subject to the lien herein created, and for the payment of any such fine or penalty. [Id.]

Art. 1377. [1195] Foreclosure.—The Attorney General or any district or county attorney acting under his direction, may bring suit in the name of this State for the foreclosure of such lien. In case the suit for foreclosure is brought against any corporation which has dissolved or had a judgment for the forfeiture of its charter or the cancellation of its permit rendered against it, pending any suit by the State of Texas against such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter or cancellation of its permit or for penalties or fines, service may be had upon any person within this State who acted and was acting as agent of any such corporation in this State at the time of such dissolution or forfeiture of charter or cancellation of permit. [Id.]

Art. 1378. [1196] Law cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by this law shall be construed as cumulative of all other laws in force in this State, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures. [Id.]

Art. 1379. [1201] Unlawful to operate.—It shall be unlawful for any insolvent corporation, domestic or foreign, to do business in this State, or to exercise or retain any franchise or permit or charter granted from or by this State. [Acts 1907, p. 341.]

Art. 1380. [1202] Attorney General to sue.—The Attorney General, when convinced that any corporation is insolvent, shall institute quo warranto or other appropriate proceedings to forfeit its charter or cancel its permit. [Id.]

Art. 1381. [1202] Liquidation.—Each district and county attorney shall bring and prosecute the proceedings mentioned in the preceding article whenever directed so to do by the Attorney General. The court trying said cause, after the corporation has been shown to be insolvent, may, in its discretion, appoint a receiver or receivers for said corporation and all its properties, with full power to settle its affairs, collect its outstanding debts and divide the moneys and other properties belonging to said company among the stockholders thereof, after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation, and all expenses incident to the judicial proceedings and receivership. The court may continue the existence of such corporation for three years, and for such further reasonable time as may be necessary to accomplish the objects and purposes of this law. [Id.]

Art. 1382. May dismiss action.—If any suit authorized by this chapter has been instituted, the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant; or, if not instituted, the same shall not be begun, if the defendant corporation, through its stockholders, shall pay off its indebtedness or reduce the same by paying, so that it is relieved of insolvency. [Id.]

Art. 1383. [1203] Suit to dissolve.—Stockholders of any insolvent corporation who own twenty-five per cent of its stock, or creditors of any such insolvent corporation who own twenty-five per cent of its indebtedness, may institute and prosecute a suit for the dissolution of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1384. [1203] Permission to sue.—Before such petition is filed by the Attorney General, or under his authority, or by the stockholders or creditors, as provided herein, leave therefor shall be first granted by the judge of the court in which the proceeding is to be instituted. [Id.]

Art. 1385. [1203] Examination and notice.— On presentation of such petition, before granting leave to sue, the judge shall carefully examine the same; and he may also require an examination into the facts; and if it shall be made to appear with reasonable certainty from said petition, or from the petition and facts, that the relief sought should be granted, the judge may grant such relief. On an application for the appointment of a receiver, the corporation proceeded against shall have ten full days notice prior to the day set for the hearing. [Id.]

Art. 1386. [1204] Provisions cumulative.—The rights and remedies given by this chapter are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties. [Id.]

| Suit on claim..... | 1391 | | |

Art. 1387. [1205] [680] [604] How dissolved.—A corporation is dissolved:

1. By the expiration of the time limited in its charter.
2. By a judgment of dissolution rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
3. Where four-fifths in interest of all the stock outstanding shall vote in favor of a dissolution at a stockholders' meeting called for that purpose on notice signed by a majority of the directors, stating time, place and object of the meeting, served personally or by mail at least thirty days next before the meeting. If, at said meeting, four-fifths in interest of all the stockholders of said company shall consent in writing to the dissolution of the corporation, such written consent, together with a list of the directors and officers of the company, giving post-office address and place of residence of each, certified by the president and secretary and treasurer as a true and correct action of the stockholders, shall be filed with the Secretary of State.
4. When, without a stockholders' meeting, all the stockholders of the corporation consent in writing to a dissolution, the same shall be certified to as above and filed with the Secretary of State. When any such certificate is filed with the Secretary of State, he shall issue a certificate that such consent has been filed and that the corporation is dissolved; and said officer shall so note on the ledger in his office.
5. By forfeiture of its charter without judicial ascertainment under any special provision of law.
6. Where a corporation created under this title or a general law of Texas shall fail to commence active operations within three years after filing its charter with the Secretary of State.

7. Whenever a corporation upon proper judicial ascertainment is found to be insolvent. [Acts 1907, p. 311.]

Art. 1388. [1206-7] Liquidation by officers.—Upon the dissolution of a corporation, unless a receiver is appointed by some court of competent jurisdiction, the president and directors or managers of the affairs of the corporation at the time of its dissolution shall be trustees of the creditors and stockholders of such corporation, with power to settle the affairs, collect the outstanding debts, and divide the moneys and other property among the stockholders after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation at the time of its dissolution, as far as such money and property will enable them after paying all just and reasonable expenses; and for this purpose they may in the name of such corporation, sell, convey and transfer all real and personal property belonging to such company, collect all debts, compromise controversies, maintain or defend judicial proceedings, and exercise full power and authority of said company over such assets and property. Said trustees shall be severally responsible to the creditors and stockholders of such corporation to the extent of its property and effects that shall have come into their hands. [Id.; Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., p. 140.]

Art. 1389. [1206] [682] [606] Extension of existence.—The existence of every corporation may be continued for three years after its dissolution from whatever cause, for the purpose of enabling those charged with the duty, to settle up its affairs. In case a receiver is appointed by a court for this purpose, the existence of such corporation may be continued by the court so long as in its discretion it is necessary to suitably settle the affairs of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1390. [1206] [682] [606] Effect of dissolution.—The dissolution of a corporation shall not operate to abate, nor be construed as abating any pending suit in which such corporation is a defendant, but such suit shall continue against such corporation and judgment shall be rendered as though the same were not dissolved. [Id.]

Art. 1391. [1206] [682] [606] Suit on claim.—When no receiver has been appointed for said corporation, suit may be instituted on any claim against said corporation, as though the same had been dissolved, and service of process may be obtained on the president, directors, general manager, trustee, assignee, or other person in charge of the affairs of the corporation at the time it was dissolved, and judgment may be rendered as though the corporation had not been dissolved, and the assets of said corporation shall be liable for the payment of such judgment just as if said corporation had not been dissolved. [Id.]

Art. 1392. [1208] [684] [608] May sue stockholders.—If a corporation, except a railway, charitable or religious corporation, be dissolved leaving debts unpaid, suit may be brought against any person or persons who were stockholders at the time of such dissolution, without joining the corporation in such suit; and if judgment be rendered and execution satisfied, any defendant may sue all who were stockholders at the time of dissolution for the recovery of the portion of such debt for which they were liable.

Art. 1393. [1208] [684] [608] Apportionment of debt.—Execution upon such judgment shall direct the collection to be made from the property of each stockholder respectively. If any number of stockholders defendants in the case shall not have property enough to satisfy his or their portion of the execution, then the amount of deficiency shall be divided equally among all the remaining stockholders, and collections made accordingly, deducting from the amount a sum in proportion to the amount of stock owned by the plaintiff at the time the company dissolved.

Art. 1394. [1209] [685] [609] Forced apportionment.—Any stockholder who pays more than his due proportion of any debt of the corporation may, by suit, compel contribution from the other stockholders.

Art. 1395. [1210] [686] [610] Extent of liability.—No stockholder shall be liable to pay debts of the corporation beyond the amount unpaid on his stock.

Art. 1396. [1212] [713] [637] Powers.—Any religious society, charitable, benevolent, literary or social association (other than colleges, universities, academies or seminaries), and any military or fire company, may, by the consent of a majority of its members become a body corporate under this title, electing directors or trustees, and performing such other things as are directed in the case of other corporations; and when so organized shall have all the powers and privileges, and be subject to all the restrictions in this title contained, for the objects named in the charter, and shall have the same power to make by-laws for the regulation of their affairs as other corporations. [Acts 1899, p. 236.]

Art. 1397. [1158] [660] [584] Secular affairs.—The secular affairs of a religious corporation shall be under the control of a board of trustees, to be elected by the members of such corporation; and the title to all property of any such corporation shall vest in such trustees. [Acts 1907, p. 311.]

Art. 1398. [1213] [713] [637] Spiritual affairs.—The directors or trustees of any corporation under this title shall not usurp or exercise the functions of any officer in charge of the spiritual affairs of any society. [Acts 1899, p. 236.]

Art. 1399. [1214] Lodges.—The grand lodge of Texas, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas, the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars of Texas (Masonic); the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Texas, and other like institutions and orders organized for charitable or benevolent purposes may, by the consent of their respective bodies expressed by a resolution or otherwise, become bodies corporate under this title. [Id.]

Art. 1400. [1215-18] Lodges: charter.—The incorporation of any such grand lodge shall include all of its subordinate lodges, or bodies holding warrant or charter under such grand body, and each of such subordinate bodies shall have all the rights of other corporations under and by the name given it in such warrant or charter issued by the grand body to which it is attached, such rights being provided for in the charter of the grand body. Such subordinate bodies shall, at all times, be subject to the jurisdiction and control of their respective grand bodies, and subject to have their warrants or charters revoked by such grand body. [Id.]

Art. 1401. [1216] Lodges: trustees.—Such grand bodies and their subordinates may elect their own trustees or directors, or name certain of their officers as such, and perform such other acts as are directed or provided by law in the case of other corporations, and shall have power to make constitutions and by-laws for the government of their affairs. [Id.]

Art. 1402. [1217] Lodges: property.—Such orders, grand and subordinate, shall have the right to acquire and hold such lands and personalty as may be necessary or convenient for sites upon which to erect buildings for their use and occupancy, and for homes and schools for their widows, orphans or aged or decrepit or indigent members, and to sell or mortgage the same, such conveyances to be executed by the presiding officer, attested by the secretary with the seal. The power and authority of such subordinate bodies to sell or to mortgage shall be subject to such conditions as may be from time to time prescribed or established by the grand body to which the subordinate is attached. [Id.]

Art. 1403. [1219] Lodges: demise.—Upon the demise of any subordinate body so incorporated, all property and rights existing in such subordinate body shall pass to, and vest in, the grand body to which it was attached, subject to the payment of all debts due by such subordinate body; but the grand body shall never be liable for any sum greater than the actual cash value of the effects of such subordinate actually received by it, or its authority. [Id.]

Art. 1404. [1220] Lodges: loans.—Any grand body incorporated under this subdivision shall have the right and authority to loan any funds held and owned by it for charitable purposes, for the endowment of any of its institutions, or otherwise, and may secure such loans by taking and receiving liens on real estate, or in such other manner as it may elect. Upon sale of any real estate under such lien, such grand body may become the purchaser thereof, and hold title thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1405. [1221] Lodges: duration.—Any grand body incorporating under this subdivision may provide in its charter for the expiration of its corporate powers at the end of any given number of years; or it may provide in its charter for its perpetual existence, and by its corporate name have perpetual succession of the officers and members. [Id.]

Art. 1406. [1222] Existing lodge.—Any such grand body or subordinate body now having a valid chartered existence may continue under its present charter, or reincorporate under this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 1407. [1223] Lodges: tax.—Bodies incorporated under this subdivision shall not be subject to, or required to pay a franchise tax. [Id.]

Art. 1408. May affiliate.—Boards of trustees of religious, charitable, educational or eleemosynary institutions may be affiliated with, elected and controlled by a convention, conference or association organized under the laws of this State or another State, whether incorporated or unincorporated, whose membership is composed of representatives, delegates, or messengers from any church or other religious association. [Acts 1923, p. 171.]

Art. 1409. Property rights.—Any religious, charitable, educational or eleemosynary institution organized under the laws of this State may acquire, own, hold, mortgage and dispose of and invest its funds in real and personal property in this State for the use and benefit and under the discretion of, and in trust for, such electing, controlling and parent body in furtherance of the purposes of the organization of the member institution. This article shall not apply to corporations organized for profit. [Id.]

Art. 1410. [1225] [707] [631] Faculty.—The president, professors or principals shall constitute the faculty in academy, college or university corporations, and shall have power to enforce the rules and regulations enacted by the directors or trustees for the government and discipline of the students, and to suspend and expel offenders, as may be deemed necessary. [Acts 1874, p. 135; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 137.]

Art. 1411. [1226] [708] [632] Powers of trustees.—The directors or trustees named in the charter of any college, academy, university or other corporation to promote education, and their successors, may make all necessary by-laws, elect and employ officers, provide for filling vacancies, appoint and remove professors, teachers, agents, etc, and fix their compensation, confer degrees, and do and perform all necessary acts to carry into effect the objects of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1412. [1227] [709] [633] Property.—Such corporations may procure, to be used as a part of the course of education, shops, tools and machinery, land for agricultural purposes and necessary buildings for carrying on their mechanical and agricultural operations. [Id.]

Art. 1413. [1228] [710] [634] Conversion of property.—Any such corporation may when a majority of its stockholders consent thereto, convert its property, except when held upon some special trust, into stock or scholarships, and file a certificate of their action, as required in the case of an increase of capital stock of a corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1414. [1229] [711] [635] Directors' liability.—The directors of any such corporation, whose property is held not as stock, but upon trust or devise, donation, gift or subscription, shall not contract debts beyond the means of the corporation. If they do contract debts to a larger amount, they shall be held individually liable for the same, after the means of the corporation are exhausted. [Id.]

Art. 1415. [1230] [712] [636] Removal.—Any such corporation, may by a vote of three-fourths of the directors, or if the same is owned in shares of stock, then by three-fourths of the stockholders, change the location and name of the institution, and transfer the effects thereof to the place of the new location, or may apply the property thereof to other purposes of education than those named in the original charter filed with the Secretary of State.

Art. 1416. [1231] [698] [622] Public ways: use.—Corporations created for the purpose of constructing and maintaining magnetic telegraph lines, are authorized to set their poles, piers, abutments, wires and other fixtures along, upon and across any of the public roads, streets and waters of this State, in such manner as not to incommode the public in the use of such roads, streets and waters. [Acts 1874, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 134.]

Art. 1417. [1332] [699] [623] Right of way.—They may also enter upon any lands owned by private persons or by a corporation, in fee or less estate, for the purpose of making preliminary surveys and examinations with a view to the erection of any telegraph line, and from time to time appropriate so much of said lands as may be necessary to erect such poles, piers, abutments, wires and other necessary fixtures for a magnetic telegraph, and to make such changes of location of any part of said lines as may from time to time be deemed necessary, and shall have a right of access to construct said line, and when erected, from time to time as may be required, to repair the same, and shall have the right of eminent domain to obtain the right of way and condemn lands for the use of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1418. [1233] [700] [624] Competitor: rights.—No corporation shall have power to contract with any owner of land for the right to erect and maintain a telegraph line over his lands to the exclusion of the lines of other companies. [Id.]

Art. 1419. [1234] [701] [625] Interstate lines.—Any corporation created as herein provided may construct, own, use and maintain any line or lines of telegraph, whether wholly within, or wholly or partly beyond, the limits of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1420. [1234] [701] [625] Consolidations.—They shall have power to lease or attach to their line or lines other telegraph lines, by lease or purchase, and may join with any other corporation or association in constructing, leasing, owning, using or maintaining their line or lines, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the directors or managers of the respective corporations, and may own and hold any interest in such line or lines, or may become lessees thereof on such terms as the respective corporations may agree. [Id.]

Art. 1421. [1236] [703] [627] Consolidation: powers.—Any telegraph company organized under the laws of this State may, at any regular meeting of the stockholders thereof, by vote of persons holding a majority of shares of the stock of such company, unite or consolidate with any other company or companies organized under the laws of the United States or of any State or territory, by the consent of the company with which it may consolidate or unite; and such company so formed may hold, use and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of Texas on companies separately organized under the provisions of this title, and be subject to the same liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 1422. [1235] [702] [626] Municipal regulation.—The corporate authorities of any city, town or village through which the line of any telegraph corporation is to pass, may, by ordinance or otherwise, specify where the posts, piers or abutments shall be located, the kind of posts that shall be used, the height at which the wires shall be run; and such company shall be governed by the regulations thus prescribed. After the erection of said telegraph lines, the corporate authorities of any city, town or village shall have power to direct any alteration in the erection or location of said posts, piers or abutments, and also in the height at which the wires shall run, having first given such company or its agents opportunity to be heard in regard to such alteration. [Id.]

Art. 1423. Consolidations.—Any person, firm or corporation organized under the laws of Texas owning a local telephone exchange, whether wholly within or partly beyond the State limits, shall have power to purchase and may join with any other individual, firm or corporation in constructing, leasing, owning, using or maintaining any other local telephone exchange, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between such persons, or the directors or managers of the respective corporations, and may own and hold any interest in such local telephone exchange or may become lessees thereof on such terms as the respective persons, firms or corporations may agree. In case of the purchase, lease or acquisition of one local telephone exchange by a company owning another when both systems are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the consent of such city or town shall be secured. [Acts 1913, p. 92.]

Art. 1424. Consolidation: mode.—Any telephone company organized under the laws of Texas owning a local telephone exchange may at any regular meeting of the stockholders thereof by vote of persons holding a majority of shares of the stock of such company, unite or consolidate such local exchange with the local exchange of any other company or companies organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or territory, by the consent of the company with which it may so consolidate or unite. Such company so formed may hold, use and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of Texas on companies separately organized under the provisions of this title, and be subject to the same liabilities. Where two or more local exchanges are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the consent of such city or town shall be secured for such consolidation. [Id.]

Art. 1425. Consolidation: rates.—In case of the purchase, lease, acquisition or consolidation of one local telephone exchange with another, when both systems are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the rates charged for local telephone service, after such consolidation shall not exceed the rate charged by the company charging the lowest rates in such city or town at the time of such purchase, lease, acquisition or consolidation, unless authorized by such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 1426. [1237] Transfer of messages.—All companies and corporations that own or operate telephone or telegraph lines for the purpose of transmitting messages from one point to another, are hereby required to arrange for conversations or transfer of messages as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1907, S. S. n. 462.]

Art. 1427. [1238] Telephone connections.—All persons, companies, firms or corporations doing a telephone business in this State shall be compelled to make physical connections between their toll line at common points, for the transmission of messages or conversations from one line to another. Such connection shall be made through the switchboard of such persons, companies, firms or corporations, if any is maintained at such points, so that persons so desiring may converse from points on one of such lines to points on another. [Id.]

Art. 1428. [1239] Telegraph connections.—Each telegraph company or person, firm, corporation or association engaged in the business of accepting and transmitting messages to and from different points in this State, where the use of a telegraph instrument or instruments is necessary in the conduct of such business, shall, if there be any other persons, firm, corporation or association engaged in such business at the same point or in the same town, city or village, provide means whereby all messages conveyed to such points over the lines of any such companies shall be transferred to the lines of either or all other such companies engaged in such business at such common points, and transmitted to their final destination; and such facilities shall be provided as will guarantee the transfer of such messages in compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 1429. [1239] Transfers excepted.—In no case shall any message be transferred from one line to another against the will of the company first handling the same, when it is possible for such company to deliver said message direct to the party for whom it is intended by way of the line or lines operated and owned by said company. No telegraph or telephone company shall, under the provisions of this subdivision be compelled to receive from the wires or lines of any other telegraph or telephone company and convey to its final destination any message originating at any point on its own lines. [Id.]

Art. 1430. [1240] Transfer hearing.—The city council in incorporated cities, and the commissioners court at points where there is no city council, shall on application of one hundred resident citizens, or upon its own motion, hear such evidence as they think necessary, and upon a final hearing they shall determine whether or not it would be necessary for public convenience, and just to the telephone or telegraph companies, to make such connection or arrange for the transfer of messages; whereupon they shall enter of record their findings, and shall also set out in their order the conditions upon which such arrangements for conversation or transfer of messages shall be made, and shall decide what proportion of expense shall be paid by each of said connecting lines. [Id.]

Art. 1431. [1241] Penalty.—Whenever the city council or commissioners court shall enter an order in compliance with Arts. 1428 and 1429 requiring telephone or telegraph companies to arrange for conversation or transfer of messages, it shall be compulsory on said company to arrange for such conversation or transfer of messages, and failing to do so, they shall forfeit to the State of Texas on suit by the county or district attorney, the sum of ten dollars for each day they so neglect. The penalty herein assessed shall not be operative against a company which is prevented from making connections as herein required, through the fault or omission of another company, so long as such fault or omission shall cause such failure on its part to so connect. [Id.]

Art. 1432. [1241] Appeals.—Any company ordered to arrange for conversations or to transfer messages between its line and another line as herein provided, shall have the right to appeal from such order to the court having jurisdiction over said matter, and the court shall, if it shall find that appellant had reasonable grounds for prosecuting such appeal, suspend the penalty herein provided for until such appeal is finally determined. [Id.]

Art. 1441. [1182] Corporations subject.—Every corporation within this State owning, leasing or operating in this State, in cities or towns of over twenty-five hundred population according to the preceding Federal census, a street railway, electric light or power plant furnishing light or power to the public, gas plant furnishing gas to the public, water plant furnishing water to the public, and sewerage company furnishing sewerage to the public, shall annually on or before the first day of March, file the report hereinafter provided with the Secretary of State, upon blank forms to be furnished by said officer. [Acts 1905, p. 40.]

Art. 1442. [1182] Report.—The report shall show the following facts:

1. The authorized capital stock of such corporation, the amount of such stock that has actually been issued, and how much of such stock actually issued is common, and how much preferred, and how much is due upon unpaid stock.

2. The bonded indebtedness of such corporation, and how many bonds have been actually sold, and the price of such sale, the rate of interest upon such bonds, and when such bonds mature.

3. Any other fixed lien or mortgage upon such property, and the amount thereof.

4. The floating indebtedness of such corporation, including all bills payable of whatever nature.

5. The value of the visible tangible property of such corporation, giving separate values of lands, machinery, buildings, tracks and equipment, and in gross, all bills receivable and cash on hand.

6. The annual cost of operating such corporation, showing under separate items: (a) amount paid for salaries; (b) amount paid for labor; (c) fixed charges including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately; (d) amount paid for fuel; (e) amount paid for extensions, repairs and maintenance, giving each separately; (f) amount paid for claims or suits for damages; (g) amount paid for miscellaneous expenses.

7. The annual gross earnings of such corporation, including revenues from every source, showing by separate items amount received by departments, such as amount received for light, sewerage, power, water, gas, street railway fares and tickets. [Id.]

Art. 1443. [1183] Additional reports.—Such corporations shall also make to the Secretary of State, upon blanks furnished by him, reports as to the price charged the public for sewerage, gas, water, light, power, and the price charged per passenger upon street railways, and if such corporations have contracts with cities or towns for furnishing water or light, then, the amount of such charge. [Id.]

Art. 1444. [1184] Sworn reports.—All reports provided for in this subdivision shall be under oath, and shall be made by any officer of the corporation having knowledge of the facts, or its general manager or superintendent. [Id.]

Art. 1445. [1185] Registration.—A true sworn copy of the reports required by this subdivision shall be filed annually on or before the first day of March with the Mayor of the city or town where the corporation has its principal place of business; and there shall also be filed at the same time a true sworn copy of said reports with the county clerk of the county in which such corporation has its principal place of business; and the same shall be by said clerk delivered to the commissioners court. Such reports shall be recorded in a properly indexed book, to be kept for that purpose, and open to the inspection of the public at all times. [Id.]

Art. 1446. [1186] Penalty.—Any corporation which shall for thirty days wilfully fail or refuse to file such reports in the manner provided by this subdivision shall forfeit and pay to the State one hundred dollars for each day during which it shall continue in default; which shall be recovered by suit by the Attorney General. Art. 1448. Toll road: incorporation.—Any number of persons, not less than five, being subscribers to the stock, may organize themselves into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, building, acquiring, owning, operating and maintaining toll roads within this State by complying with the requirements of this subdivision. No corporation, except one chartered under the laws of this State, shall be authorized or permitted to construct, build, operate, acquire, own or maintain any toll road within this State. [Acts 1913, p. 143.]

Art. 1449. Charter.—The persons proposing to form a toll road corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain, in addition to the general requirements, the following:

1. The terminal points, and the intermediate counties through which it is intended to construct the toll road;

2. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation; and

3. In what officers the management and control of the corporation shall be vested. [Id.]

Art. 1450. Examination.—The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the Attorney General, who shall carefully examine the same; and, if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, and not in conflict with the laws of the United States or of this State, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect. [Id.]

Art. 1451. Registration.—When said articles have been examined and certified, the same shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, accompanied by the affidavit of at least three of the directors named in such articles. Such affidavit shall state that the entire amount of the capital stock of such proposed corporation has been in good faith subscribed, and that fifty per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the Secretary of State shall cause such affidavit and articles to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles, and return the same to such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1452. Duration.—No toll road corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years in the first instance, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time, for periods not longer than fifty years, in the manner provided for the renewal of railroad corporations. [Id.]

Art. 1453. Charter amendments.—Any toll road corporation may amend or change its articles of incorporation in the manner provided by law for railroad corporations. [Id.]

Art. 1454. Powers.—Every toll road corporation organized hereunder shall have the right to construct, build, acquire, own, operate and maintain toll roads between any points within this State. [Id.]

Art. 1455. Use of State lands.—Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any land belonging to this State, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land. [Id.]

Art. 1456. Private lands.—Every toll road corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed road to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purposes may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damage that may be occasioned thereby. [Id.]

Art. 1457. Road construction.—Every such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road, not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments, to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its road, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing such road, making compensation in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 1458. Railroad crossings.—Every such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across any railroad, street railroad or interurban line within this State, which it may intersect or touch; provided that it shall properly fence such crossings, and restore, in other respects, the property thus intercepted or crossed, to its former state. [Id.]

Art. 1459. Public way crossings.—Every such corporation shall have the right to construct its own road across any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal, which the route of said road shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal thus intersected or touched, to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossings in repair. [Id.]

Art. 1460. Openings.—Every such corporation which may fence its right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through its fence and over its roadbed every five miles thereof, in the manner provided by law with reference to railroad corporations. [Id.]

Art. 1461. Culverts, etc.—In no case shall any toll road corporation construct its road without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices, as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary drainage thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1462. Obstruction of streams.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the erection of any bridge or any other obstruction across or over any stream of water navigable by steamboats or sail vessels at the place where any bridge or other obstruction may be proposed to be placed, so as to prevent the navigation of such stream of water. [Id.]

Art. 1463. Eminent domain.—Every toll road corporation shall have and enjoy all of the rights, privileges and immunities conferred by and be subject to each provision of the law relating to the exercise of the right of eminent domain. [Id.]

Art. 1464. Rules and rates.—Every toll road corporation shall have the power to promulgate, by its board of directors, all necessary and reasonable rules and regulations relating to the manner in which traffic shall move over any toll road operated by it, and to refuse the use of such road to any person who shall fail or refuse to abide by such rules and regulations; and shall be empowered to fix and charge tolls for the use of such roads; provided, that such rules and regulations shall not be contrary to law, and that the rate to be charged for each class of vehicle shall be the same to all in each of such classes. [Id.]

Art. 1465. Use of road.—No such corporation shall have the right arbitrarily to refuse the use of such road to any person who shall offer to pay the regular toll therefor, except that such corporation shall be authorized to refuse to permit such road to be used by any vehicle which shall render the same unduly hazardous to the patrons of said road or damaging to the surface thereof, or to any person who shall fail or refuse to abide by the reasonable and necessary traffic regulations promulgated by such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1466. Authority to build.—Any person, corporation or association of persons, hereinafter called the owner, may purchase, build, construct, own, maintain and operate a combination bridge, dam, dike, causeway and roadway across any arm of the Gulf of Mexico or inlet thereof, or any of the saltwater bays, wholly within the limits of this State, to provide a causeway, roadway or highway for vehicles, teams, pedestrians, railroads, and for every character of inland transportation. [Acts 1913, p. 331.]

Art. 1467. Statement of location.—Within ninety days after the commencement of construction of such structure, said owner shall file for record with the clerk of the county where the greater part of such structure is situated, a sworn statement showing the location of said proposed structure, the name of the same, the size of the same, the name of the stream, bay or arm of the gulf or inlet thereof, or salt water bay over which it is to be built, the time when the work was commenced and the name of the owner, together with a map showing the location of said structure. [Id.]

Art. 1468. Priority.—The claimant's right to build said structure will relate back to the time of so filing said statement and map, and the first in time shall be the first in right. The filing of said statement and map shall be considered as taking "formal action." [Id.]

Art. 1469. Condemnation of approaches.—Said claimant may acquire by purchase or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, all necessary approaches to said structure that said claimant deems necessary. [Id.]

Art. 1470. Land under water.—The land under water to be occupied by such structure and approaches thereto is hereby granted absolutely to said claimant, and five hundred feet more on each side of such structure is also granted with the right only to dredge therefrom or beyond same for material for causeways if required in construction and maintenance. [Id.]

Art. 1471. Lease of right of way.—Such owner may lease the right of way over said structure to cities and towns for public utilities owned and operated by them, and to corporations for the constructions by such corporations of railroad tracks over which steam and electric trains and cars may be operated for the transportation of freight and passengers; such right not to be granted in such way as to obstruct or interfere with the use of such structure for pedestrians, teams and vehicles, or to permit a monopoly. Said lease to railroad corporations shall be for such time and on such terms and conditions as the Railroad Commission of Texas may prescribe. Said railroad companies shall only charge for the use of said tracks as a part of the mileage according to statutory rates and the general laws of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 1472. Lessee may issue bonds.—Any corporation so contracting for the right of way over any part of said structure shall have the right to make and enter into any contract with said owner subject to the approval of the Railroad Commission, for the payment to said owner of all sums of money due thereunder, and for this purpose may issue and sell its bonds to the extent of the amount of such corporation's obligations to the said owner. No such bonds shall be issued by any railroad company or other corporation without first obtaining the permission, order and approval of the Railroad Commission. [Id.]

Art. 1473. Causeway corporations.—Corporations may be formed and chartered under the provisions of this law and of this title for the purposes stated in article 1466 hereof. All such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts with other persons or corporations conveying to said persons or corporations the right of easement or user of any portion of any such structure, and shall have full power and authority to charge, demand and receive reasonable and just tolls and charges for the use of said portions of said bridge, causeway or roadway, and the same shall be equal, just and uniform to all persons, corporations, cities and towns as herein provided, without discrimination as to the amount charged or delay in handling same. Any such corporation shall be subject to the regulation and control of the Railroad Commission as to all the powers and provisions of this law. [Id.]

| Purposes..... | 1478 | Further powers..... | 1481 |
| Powers..... | 1479 | Rate control..... | 1482 |
| Docks: powers..... | 1480 | | |

Art. 1478. [1249] [721] Purposes.—This chapter includes corporations created for the purpose of constructing, owning and operating deep water channels from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico along and across any of the bays on the coast of this State to the mainland, for the purposes of navigation and transportation, and for the construction, owning and operating of docks on the coast of this State for the protection and accommodation of ships, boats and all kinds of vessels for navigation, and their cargoes. [Acts 1887, p. 91; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 889.]

Art. 1479. [1250] [722] Powers.—Every such channel corporation shall, in addition to the powers herein conferred, have power:

1. To cause such examination and survey for its proposed channel to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route for such purpose, by its officer, agents or servants; to enter upon any of the waters of such bays and upon any of the lands of this State, or of any person.

2. To take and hold voluntary grant of real estate and other property as shall be made to it to aid in the construction and maintenance of its deep water channel and works pertinent thereto.

3. To construct its channel across, along, through, or upon, any of the waters of the bays within the jurisdiction of this State, and so far into the main land as may be necessary to reach a place for its docks that will afford security from cyclones, storms, swells or tidal waves, with such depth as may suit its convenience and the wants of navigation, not less than five feet, and a width of not less than forty feet.

4. To furnish to vessels and boats adapted to the purpose, facilities for navigating in and along the entire length of its channel, and to charge and collect a toll therefor, to be prescribed by its by-laws, in no case to exceed one cent per barrel bulk of the capacity of each vessel for each mile of the length of its channel used by the vessel going either way.

5. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, finishing, or operating its channel, and to issue and dispose of its bonds, for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid; provided, that damages for any property appropriated by such corporation shall be assessed and paid for as is provided for in case of railroads.

6. To enter upon and condemn and appropriate any lands of any persons or corporation that may be necessary for the uses and purposes of such channel corporation. No damages shall be assessed against or paid by it for any portion of the route of the channel embraced within and covered by the waters of any bay or lake on the coast of this State, nor for any portion of any island belonging to the State that may be requisite and necessary to the construction and successful operation of its channel; and provided, that its right of way shall not be less than the actual width of its channel, and not more than seven hundred feet in width on each side of its channel. When the land sought to be condemned is arable land, such right of way shall not extend farther than six hundred feet on each side of the channel from the edge or boundary of said channel.

7. To construct, own, and operate its channel so far into the waters of the Gulf of Mexico as may be necessary to obtain an adequate depth of water at its gulf entrance to facilitate the ingress and egress of such vessels as may navigate the same, in so far as this State may have the power to grant such right, which shall be in subordination to that of the United States government, in so far as that government has the constitutional power to control the same. [Acts 1874, p. 134; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 136; Acts 1887, p. 91; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 889; Acts 1895, p. 185; Acts 1897, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 915, 1073.]

Art. 1480. [1251] [723] Docks: powers.—Every such dock corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power:

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction and operation of its docks, approaches, entrances, moorings and ways, and the construction, use and enjoyment of such warehouses, stores and sheds as may be necessary to the receiving and discharging of freights, goods, wares and merchandise, and the proper protection and preservation thereof. No such dock corporation shall ever have the right or power to take or condemn to its use any private property without the free consent of the owner thereof, expressed by a sufficient deed in writing.

2. To construct its dock or docks in such manner and of such size and depth as it may deem proper to suit the convenience of such vessels as may see fit to use and occupy the same, and to collect from the vessels using the same, or from their masters, owners or consignees, such sum for the use thereof as may be authorized by its by-laws and agreed to by such masters, owners or consignees.

3. To borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing or operating its dock or docks, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for such amount borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid. [Acts 1887, p. 91; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 889.]

Art. 1481. [1252] [724] Further powers.—Every such corporation shall, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred, have power:

1. To purchase, take and hold such land or real estate as shall be necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of its harbor approaches, entrances, and ways thereto, and the construction of wharves, piers and warehouses.

2. To construct, own and maintain its harbor by building piers and breakwaters so far into the gulf as may be necessary to obtain sufficient depth of water to facilitate the ingress and egress, and the safety while in port of such vessels as may enter the same, in so far only as the State may have power to grant such right, which, however, shall be exercised subject and in subordination to the government of the United States, in so far as it may have constitutional power to control the same.

3. To provide facilities to vessels and boats entering its harbor, for anchorage, receiving and discharging cargoes and passengers, and to charge and collect fair and reasonable tolls and wharfage therefor, to be prescribed by its by-laws.

4. To borrow money in such amounts and on such terms as may be necessary for constructing and finishing or operating its harbor or piers, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate franchises to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 1482. [1253] [725] Rate control.—All rates, tolls or charges made by any corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to the right of the Legislature from time to time to alter, revise, change or amend the same. [Id.]

Art. 1483. [1254] [726] Powers.—Any corporation organized under the laws of Texas which is now authorized or which may hereafter be authorized by an Act of Congress of the United States to construct, own, operate or maintain, with private capital, a deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves on the Gulf Coast of Texas, shall be permitted to purchase from this State, at two dollars per acre, so much of any public lands, islands, shore or shallow bays belonging to this State, as may be situated within one-half mile from any point or points on the construction works of any jetties or any such deep water channel leading into the main harbor from the open sea. In no case shall such strip or body of land be more than one-half mile in width. Such company or corporation may also purchase from the State, at the same price per acre, any lands, shores, islands or shallow bays within one-fourth mile of each side of every navigable channel that such company or corporation may construct through or across such shallow bays in the prosecution of such work. [Acts 1891, p. 166; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 168.]

Art. 1484. [1255] [727] Frontage.—Any such company or corporation owning in whole or in part any lands fronting or abutting upon any shallow bays in which any such work is being constructed, may purchase at the same price per acre any lands, shores or shallow bays adjoining and lying in front of such lands; provided, that such purchase shall not extend into such bay so as to include land covered with water having an average depth of more than three and one-half feet at mean low tide. The purchases under the provisions of this article shall not extend a greater distance along the front of the survey on the shore than three miles, nor a greater distance into the bay than one-half mile. The islands known as Tolly Island and Lydia Ann Islands, situated in Aransas Bay, shall not be subject to purchase hereunder. One-half of the proceeds of the sale of the lands provided for herein shall belong to the permanent free school fund of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1485. [1256] [728] Application.—All applications of a purchaser to buy under the foregoing articles shall be made in writing to the Land Commissioner, accompanied by one-fifth of the purchase money, and also a copy of the Act of Congress authorizing the construction of such deep water harbor, navigable channel, docks or wharves, and a complete plat or map showing the location and design of such improvements. Said map shall show the public lands, shores, islands and shallow bays applied for, and the depth of such shallow bays in feet, determined by actual survey, or as shown by the United States coast survey map. [Id.]

Art. 1486. [1257] [729] Survey.—Upon the payment of one-fifth of the purchase money, the Land Commissioner shall issue a receipt therefor, and attach thereto a copy of the application and plat filed by said purchaser. Said receipt shall be sufficient authority to the proper county surveyor to survey the lands, shores, islands or shallow bays sold. [Id.]

Art. 1487. [1257] [729] Deferred payments.—The remainder of the purchase money may be paid at any time within five years after the date of first payment. Deferred payments shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum. If the purchaser of any island, shallow water bay, land, or either, under these articles, shall fail to pay the annual interest upon any part of the purchase money when such interest shall become due, or if such purchaser shall fail to pay the principal when the same shall become due, then all rights acquired under such purchases shall be forfeited, with all payments made thereon, without any judicial ascertainment of such forfeiture; and the Land Commissioner shall indorse upon the contract of purchase that the same is forfeited, whereby all rights so acquired shall be forfeited and revert to the State. [Id.]

Art. 1488. [1257] [729] Forfeiture.—If any such corporation, within five years from the date of the filing of its charter, shall fail to conform to the Act of Congress in prosecuting such work, or if such corporation shall fail to secure twenty feet of water at low tide upon the bars and other obstructions between the main harbor and the Gulf of Mexico, or if such corporation shall fail to maintain said twenty feet of water continuously for two years thereafter, then in any such case all islands, lands, shallow bays and other rights acquired under this chapter shall be forfeited and shall revert to and vest in the State of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 1489. [1258] [730] Harbor facilities.—Any such corporation may construct, own and maintain upon the Gulf Coast of Texas, in connection with its deep water harbor and navigable channels, docks and wharves and navigable channels for the accomodation of commerce, and such corporation may charge, demand and receive reasonable and just tolls and charge for the use of such docks and wharves, but such navigable channels so constructed shall forever remain open and free to all vessels without fee or charge. [Id.]

Art. 1490. [1258] [730] Rate control.—The tolls and charges for the use of said docks and wharves shall be equal, just and uniform to all vessels, persons and corporations, without discrimination as to amount charged or delay in handling the same. Such tolls and charges shall be under the control of the Legislature, and until otherwise directed by the Legislature, shall be subject to control and regulation by the Railroad Commission, under the rules prescribed for the regulations of railroads, so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 1491. [1258] [730] Railroad facilities.—Any railroad, or other means of transportation, which may be constructed between the mainland and any deep water harbor or channel shall be a public highway. All rates and charges for the transportation of freights and passengers thereon shall be subject to the control and regulation of the Railroad Commission as a railroad. Such railroad or other means of transportation shall receive from each ship, boat and vessel, or from the wharf on which the same is discharged, all freights and passengers, and transport and deliver them to the consignee, or any connecting line of railroad, without discrimination as to charges or delay in transportation and delivery, and shall in like manner receive from every person and from every connecting line of railroad, all freight and passengers, and transport and deliver the same to each and every ship, boat, vessel, person or corporation for delivery to such ship, boat or vessel on like equal and just terms, without discrimination as to charges and delay in transportation or delivery thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1492. [1258] [730] Effect of law.—Nothing herein shall be construed to affect any rights acquired before the enactment of this law. The acceptance of the provisions herein, or the exercise of any rights or privileges granted herein, by said corporation, or any person or corporation holding under the same, shall be deemed and held to be a contract with the State. Any wilful violation of these provisions, or the doing of any act herein prohibited, shall work a forfeiture of all rights acquired hereunder, so far as then held or claimed by the person or corporation guilty of such violation. [Id.]

Art. 1493. [1259] [731] Other railroads.—The privileges and rights granted herein shall never be exercised so as to in any way hinder or interfere with the completion of any railroad heretofore chartered to be built to and upon Harbor Island, in and upon the location designated in such charter; nor with any such railroads acquiring and controlling all necessary depot grounds, wharf grounds and deep water fronts that it may or could have acquired legally had not this law been enacted. [Id.]

Art. 1494. [1260] [732] Shall file release.—Before any rights can vest in any corporation by virtue of any purchase of public lands, islands, shores or shallow bays, the said corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a release to the State of Texas of all claim or right to have its tolls or charges imposed for any use to be made of such property or structures thereon regulated by any Act of Congress now existing or hereafter to be passed. [Id.]

Art. 1495. [1303] Purposes.—This chapter embraces corporations created for the purpose of storing, transporting, buying and selling oil, gas, salt brine and other mineral solutions; also sand and clay for the manufacture and sale of clay products; and the production of oil and gas. [Acts 1899 p. 202; Acts 1915, p. 259.]

Art. 1496. [1305] Powers.—Such corporations shall have power:

1. To store and transport oil, gas, brine and other mineral solutions, and also sand, clay and clay products, and to make reasonable charges therefor.

2. To buy, sell and furnish oil and gas for light, heat and other purposes; to lay down, construct, maintain and operate pipe lines, tubes, tanks, pump stations, connections, fixtures, storage houses and such machinery, apparatus, devices and arrangements as may be necessary to operate such pipes and pipe lines between different points in this State.

3. For the transportation of sand and clay, corporations shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate aerial tramways, a system consisting of wire cables supported by wooden, concrete or steel towers, over which buckets or carriers are propelled; and may own such connections, fixtures, guy lines and all necessary devices, storage houses and such machinery, apparatus and arrangements as may be necessary to operate such aerial tramways between different points in this State.

4. To own, hold, use and occupy such lands, right of way, easements, franchises, buildings and structures as may be necessary to the purposes of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1497. [1306] Right of condemnation.—Such corporation shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, right of way, easements and property of any person or corporation. Such corporation shall have the right to lay its pipes and pipe lines across and under any public road or highway, or under any railroad, railroad right of way, street railroad, canal or stream in this State, and to lay its pipes and pipe lines across or along and under any street or alley in any incorporated city or town in this State with the consent and under the direction of the governing body of such city or town. No pipe lines shall be laid parallel with and on any public highway, closer than fifteen feet from the improved section thereof, except with the approval and under the direction of the commissioners court of the county in which such highway is located. Said pipes and pipe lines shall be so buried and covered as not to interfere with the use and occupancy of such road, highway, street or alley by the public, or use and occupancy of such railroad or street railroad by the owner or owners thereof. Such pipes or pipe lines shall not pass through or under any cemetery, church or college, school house, residence, business or storehouse, or through or under any building in this State, except by the consent of the owner or owners thereof. All such pipes and pipe lines, when same shall pass through or over the cultivated or improved lands of another, shall be well buried under ground at least twenty inches under the surface, and such surface shall be properly and promptly restored by such corporation unless otherwise consented to by the owners of such land. When such pipes and pipe lines shall be laid over or along any uncultivated or unimproved lands of another, and such lands shall thereafter become cultivated or improved, such pipes or pipe lines shall be buried by said corporation as herein provided for cultivated lands, within a reasonable time after notice by the owner of such lands, or his agent, to said corporation or any agent thereof. [Id; Acts 1919, p. 272.]

Art. 1498. [1307] Fiscal powers.—Such corporation shall have the right to borrow money to an amount not in excess of its paid up capital stock, as provided by law, to issue stock and preferred stock, to mortgage its franchises and property to secure the payment of any debt contracted for any purposes of such corporation, and shall possess all the rights and powers of corporations for profit in this State whenever the same may be applicable to corporations of this character. [Acts 1899, p. 202; Acts 1915, p. 259; Acts 1917, p. 54.]

Art. 1499. [1307] Oil and gas.—Such corporation may also engage in the oil and gas producing business, prospecting for and producing oil and gas and owning and holding lands, leases and other property for said purposes and subject to the provisions of Chapter 4 of this title. No corporation shall exercise these powers while owning or operating oil pipe lines in this State. [Id.]

Art. 1500. [1307] Oil pipe lines.—Any corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under this chapter, and owning or operating oil pipe lines in this State, shall separately incorporate such oil lines, with the consent of a majority in amount of its stockholders and subject to the restrictions hereinafter imposed, whereupon, in addition to other powers which it may possess, it shall then acquire the right and power to engage in said oil and gas producing business. [Id.]

Art. 1501. [1307] Separate corporations.—Such separate incorporation shall be accomplished by the organization of another pipe line corporation under this chapter and the sale and conveyance to it of such oil pipe lines of the organizing company. In case of the ownership also of oil pipe lines beyond the borders of this State, additional pipe line corporations may be organized outside of this State, and such oil pipe lines located outside of Texas may be sold and conveyed to them. In every case herein provided for, the organizing company may subscribe for and own the capital stock of the organized pipe line corporation without being precluded from engaging in said oil and gas producing business. [Id.]

Art. 1502. [1307] Ownership of stock.—In lieu of engaging directly in the oil and gas producing business in any State or country, a corporation organized under this chapter and authorized to engage in said producing business may own the stock of other corporations engaged therein, provided that it shall not own the stock of more than one producing corporation, or one pipe line corporation, organized under the laws of this or any other single State. No corporation organized in any other state or country shall be permitted to own or operate oil pipe lines or engage in the oil producing business in this State when the stock of such corporation is owned in whole or in part by a corporation organized under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1503. [1307] Private pipe line.—Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the ownership or operation by any corporation, of private pipe lines in and about its refineries, fields or stations, even though such corporation may be engaged in the producing business. [Id.]

Art. 1504. [1307] Effect of law.—No provision of the six preceding articles shall be construed as limiting, modifying or repealing any part of the law regulating oil pipe lines, or as authorizing any ownership or transaction, the effect of which would be to substantially lessen competition or to violate any law of this State prohibiting trusts and monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade or to violate any provision of the anti-trust laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1505. [1308] Discrimination.—It shall be unlawful for any corporation organized under this chapter to discriminate against any person, corporation, firm, association or place in the charge for such storage or transportation, or in the service rendered; but it shall receive, store or transfer oil or gas, salt, sand and clay for any person, corporation, firm or association upon equal terms, charges and conditions with all other persons, corporations, firms or associations for like service. [Acts 1899, p. 202; Acts 1915, p. 259.]

Art. 1506. Additional powers. — Corporations organized under this chapter which shall file with the Secretary of State a duly authorized acceptance of the provisions of this law, are hereby declared to have, in addition to the powers enumerated in this chapter, the power to carry on the business therein authorized outside of as well as within this State; to own and operate refineries, casing and treating plants, sales offices, warehouses, docks, ships, tank cars and vehicles necessary in the conduct of their business; and to cause the formation of corporations outside of this State, not exceeding one in any state, territory or foreign country, whose purposes and powers exercised shall be only those conferred by law upon the forming or holding corporation as incorporated under the laws of Texas, and own and hold the stock of such corporation when the effect of such formation or stock holding is not substantially to lessen competition or otherwise to violate laws prohibiting trusts and monopolies and conspiracies in restraint of trade. [Acts 1915, p. 82.]

Art. 1507. Fuller's earth pipe lines.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited co-partnership, joint stock association or associations of any kind whatsoever owning, operating or managing any pipe line, or any part of any pipe line within this State for the transportation of fuller's earth for the public for hire, are declared to be common carriers, and shall have the right and power of eminent domain, and may condemn the necessary rights of way, easements, and sites, under the same terms and subject to the same conditions as are conferred by articles 1497 and 6022, on like persons, natural or otherwise, owning, operating or managing crude petroleum pipe lines. [Acts 1919, p. 272.]

| | Article | | Article |
| Purposes | 1508 | Services | 1511 |
| Powers | 1509 | Ownership of stock | 1512 |
| Condemnation | 1510 | | |

Art. 1508. Purposes.—Corporations may be created for the purpose of gathering, storing, and impounding water containing salt or other substances in the drilling and operation of oil and other wells, and to prevent the flow thereof into streams at times when the latter may be used for irrigation. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 122.]

Art. 1509. Powers.—Such corporations, in addition to the general powers conferred by law upon private corporations, may acquire, own, and operate ditches, canals, pipe lines, levees, reservoirs, and their appliances appropriate for the gathering, impounding or storage of such water and for the protection of such reservoirs from inflow or damage by surface waters. [Id.]

Art. 1510. Condemnation.—Such corporation shall have power to condemn lands and rights necessary for the purposes of such corporation; and also to cross with their ditches, canals, and pipe lines under any highways, canals, pipe lines, railroads, and tram or logging roads; conditioned that the use thereof be not impaired longer than essential to the making of such crossings. No right is conferred to pass through any cemetery or under any residence, school house or other public building, nor to cross any street or alley of any incorporated city or town without the consent of the authorities thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1511. Services.—In the localities in which they operate and to the extent of the facilities provided, such corporations shall serve all producers of such waters in the gathering, impounding, and storage of such waters, in proportion to the needs of such producers at fair and reasonable charges, and without discrimination between such producers under like conditions. [Id.]

Art. 1512. Ownership of stock.—Corporations interested in the proper disposition of such waters may subscribe for, own, and vote stock in the corporations which may be created hereunder. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN.

TRUST COMPANIES AND INVESTMENTS.

Trust companies.....

Article
1513

Art. 1513. Trust companies.—Every trust company organized under the laws of the State with a capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars shall, in addition to all other powers conferred by law, have the power to purchase, sell, discount and negotiate with or without its endorsement or guaranty, notes, drafts, checks, bills of exchange, acceptances, including bankers' acceptances, cable transfers and other evidences of indebtedness; to purchase and sell, with or without its endorsement or guaranty, stocks, bonds, securities, including the obligations of the United States or of any States thereof; to issue debentures, bonds and promissory notes, to accept bills or drafts drawn upon it, but in no event having liabilities outstanding thereon at any one time exceeding five times its capital stock and surplus; provided, however, that with the consent in writing of the Banking Commissioner they may have outstanding at any one time ten times the capital stock and surplus; and generally to exercise such powers as are incidental to the powers conferred by this article. [Acts 3rd. C. S. 1920, p. 90.]

| Assets and liabilities..... | 1516 | Regulation | 1519 |

Art. 1514. Purposes.—This subdivision embraces private corporations formed for the purpose of dealing in acceptances and other receipts growing out, or to be used in aid, of the transportation, warehousing, distribution, or financing, in either domestic or foreign trade, of readily marketable, staple, non-perishable, agricultural products; and for dealing in acceptances of banking corporations not secured upon nor representing any such products. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 21.]

Art. 1515. "Agricultural products."—By ready marketable, staple, non-perishable agricultural products are meant those classes of agricultural products which are subject to such constant dealing in ready markets as to make their values easily and definitely ascertainable and realizable on short notice, and which are not ordinarily subject to substantial depreciation in quality within the period of immaturity of the obligations which they secure, or by which they are represented. [Id.]

Art. 1516. Assets and liabilities.—The total liabilities to any corporation chartered under this law of any such banking corporation, on account of any such unsecured acceptances, shall at no time be permitted to exceed ten per cent of the unimpaired capital of such corporation. Each such corporation shall invest and keep invested in obligations of the United States, Texas, or political sub-divisions or incorporated cities of Texas, not less than one-half of its paid in capital. Such corporation shall have an unauthorized capital stock of not less than five hundred thousand dollars which shall not be reduced by amendment to less than such sum. [Id.]

Art. 1517. Limit of indebtedness.—No such corporation shall enter into any contract or contracts of acceptances, guaranty, indorsement or suretyship when its obligation thereon in connection with its entire existing obligations and indebtedness primary or secondary, fixed or contingent, shall exceed five times its then unimpaired capital and surplus, unless previously authorized in writing by the Banking Commissioner so to do, in which case it may enter into such contract not to exceed the limit so fixed by such Commissioner, in no case to exceed ten times its said capital and surplus. Those obligations, to pay which at maturity, any such corporation has been furnished funds by other parties liable thereon, need not be considered in determining the amount of its existing obligations and indebtedness hereunder. All such contracts and obligations entered into in violation of this article shall be unenforceable against such corporation. Nothing herein shall prevent the enforcement of any such prohibited obligations by any holder who has acquired the same in due course, for value, before maturity, and without notice of its infirmity. [Id.]

Art. 1518. Ownership of stock.—Any private corporation formed under this title, and any banking corporation or trust company, except savings banks, may hold stock in corporations created hereunder, and in corporations chartered under the laws of the United States or in any State thereof, and principally engaged in financing domestic or foreign trade in any such agricultural products, in amounts not to exceed in the aggregate, ten per cent of the capital and surplus of such private corporation, banking or trust company, nor to exceed ten per cent of the capital stock of such corporation in which such stock is to be held. No banking corporation or trust company shall acquire stock in such corporation without express written authorization therefor from the Banking Commissioner, under such rules and regulations as he may provide, except in payment of debt. If it shall acquire same in payment of debt, it shall promptly dispose of same unless expressly permitted to retain same by such commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 1519. Regulation.—Such corporations shall be subject at all times to the supervision and control of the Banking Commissioner, and shall conform to all lawful regulations of such Commissioner. No such corporation shall begin business until authorized to do so by such Commissioner after satisfactory showing made that such corporation has complied with the law, and thereafter it shall make reports to such Commissioner and be subject to such periodical visitations and examinations under his direction, and shall pay fees therefor, all as in the case of State banking corporations. Said Commissioner shall have such powers with reference to taking charge of such corporations, liquidating same, and for like causes as are possessed by him with reference to State banks. [Id.]

Art. 1520. Powers.—This subdivision shall embrace corporations created for any or all of the following purposes: To accumulate and lend money, purchase, sell and deal in notes, bonds, and securities, but without banking and discounting privileges; and to act as trustee under any lawful express trust committed to them by contract and as agent for the performance of any lawful act. No such corporation shall act as agent or trustee in the consolidation of or for the purpose of combining the assets, business or means of any other persons, firms, associations or corporations, nor shall such corporation as agent or trustee carry on the business of another. No such corporation shall be authorized to engage in or carry on any such business unless it shall have an actual paid in capital of not less than ten thousand dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 134.]

Art. 1521. Statements.—Such corporation shall publish in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where it has its principal place of business, on or before the first day of February of each year, a statement of its condition on the previous thirty-first day of December, in such form as may be required by the Banking Commissioner, showing under oath its assets and liabilities; and shall file a copy of such statement with the Commissioner, together with a fee of ten dollars for filing same. [Id.]

Art. 1522. Examinations.—The Banking Commissioner shall examine or cause to be examined, such corporation annually. Said corporation shall pay the actual traveling expenses, hotel bills, and all other actual expenses incident to such examination, and a fee therefor not exceeding one-eighth of one per cent of its actual paid in capital. [Id.]

Art. 1523. Liquidation.—If upon examination it shall appear that the assets of said corporation, exclusive of its said capital paid in, are less than its liabilities, the said Commissioner shall notify it thereof in writing, and if said corporation shall not within thirty days from the receipt of said notice restore and make good such impairment of its capital, then it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to take possession of said corporation and its property and to wind the same up and distribute its assets in accordance with the provisions of law with reference to the liquidation of State banks. [Id.]

Art. 1524. Violations of law.—If it shall appear from such examination that said corporation has exceeded its corporation powers, or has been guilty of an unlawful act or acts, the said commissioner shall give written notice to such corporation to cease such act or practice and to conduct its business in accordance with law and its charter powers. If such corporation shall fail or refuse for a period of thirty days thereafter to comply with such notice, then it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to take possession of said corporation and its assets and wind up and distribute the said assets as hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Art. 1525. [1262-3-4-5-6-7] Drainage.—Corporations chartered for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating canals, drains and ditches outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns in any county in Texas shall:

1. Have power for the purpose of drainage, to acquire lands for the purpose of its business or in payment of stock or drainage rights, and to hold and dispose of such lands and all other property.

2. Alienate within fifteen years from the date of acquiring same all lands acquired by such corporations, subject to judicial forfeiture, except lands used for the construction, maintenance and operation of drains, ditches and laterals.

3. Have power to make contracts for the permanent drainage of any tract of land and the charges therefor, said charges to be subject to the control of the Legislature; and the rights therein shall be secured by a lien expressly given upon the lands, other than homesteads, benefited by said drain or canal.

4. Have the right to borrow money for the construction, maintenance and operation of its ditches, canals and laterals, and to issue bonds and mortgage its franchises to secure the payment of any debts contracted for the same.

5. Report to the commissioners court of the county wherein constructed, all drains and canals so constructed by such corporations, such report to be approved by said court. [Acts 1897, p. 109; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1163.]

Art. 1526. Irrigation and waterpower.—Corporations organized to construct, maintain and operate canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, laterals, dams, reservoirs, lakes and wells, and for conserving, storing, conducting and transferring water to all persons entitled to the use of same for irrigation, mining, milling, manufacturing, the development of power, to cities and towns for waterworks, and for stockraising, shall have power to acquire lands by voluntary donation or purchase in payment of stock or bonds or water rights; and to hold, improve, subdivide and dispose of all such land and other property. Such corporations may elect directors or trustees to hold office for a period of three years, and may provide for the election of one-third in number thereof each year. [Acts 1917, p. 224.]

Art. 1527. International trading corporations.—Corporations created for the purpose of engaging in international trading and the purchase and sale of the products of the farm, ranch, orchard, mine and forest shall be empowered to pledge, borrow, hypothecate and receive in trust for the purpose of sale any and all products of the farm, ranch, and orchard, and shall be authorized to buy, sell and exchange raw products of the farm, ranch, orchard, mine and forest, and to take in payment therefor finished products of whatever kind and character that they may determine at a fair, equitable and just valuation. Such corporations shall have power to charter, lease, construct or purchase necessary vessels, ships, docks, wharves and warehouses for the conduct of their business; to pool products of the farm in the sale of same; to hypothecate or pledge the credit of such corporations for the products so received under contract for the necessary funds with which to market same; to borrow money as other business corporations and to lend the same upon products that they may be engaged in the sale of, either as owner, agent, consignee, or commission merchant. They shall have generally and specially all the rights, powers and privileges belonging to a corporation engaging in international trading. Such corporations shall have authority to receive in payment of capital stock, manufacturing establishments, and the stocks and bonds of same at a fair and just valuation, and to so receive the products of the farm, ranch and orchard. Whenever property is received in payment for capital stock, the Secretary of State shall appoint a board of appraisers who are familiar with the valuations of such property so taken in payment for capital stock to appraise same and furnish him with a sworn statement of the valuations of the property so taken in payment for capital stock. On receipt of same he shall approve, file and record the charter of such corporation. A majority of the stock shall in all instances be owned by citizens of the United States, and a majority of the officers and directors thereof shall in all instances be citizens of the United States and of this State. Nothing in this article shall prevent citizens of foreign countries from becoming stockholders in such corporations, but the control of such corporations shall never in any instance be vested in citizens of other countries than the United States. Violation of any provision herein as to the control of stock of such corporation shall be sufficient for the Secretary of State to cancel the charter of said corporation and same shall be placed in the hands of a receiver as provided by law. [Acts 1921, p. 227.]

Art. 1528. Ice companies.—Corporations organized or chartered under the laws of this State for the manufacture of ice shall also be authorized to engage in and transact the business of buying, selling and refrigerating poultry and poultry products, and buying, selling, canning and refrigerating fruits, produce and dairy products. [Acts 1913, p. 267.]

Art. 1529. [1314-20] Permit.—Any corporation for pecuniary profit, except as hereinafter provided, organized or created under the laws of any other State, or of any territory of the United States, or of any municipality of such State or territory, or of any foreign government, sovereignty or municipality, desiring to transact or solicit business in Texas, or to establish a general or special office in this State, shall file with the Secretary of State a duly certified copy of its articles of incorporation; and thereupon such official shall issue to such corporation a permit to transact business in this State for a period of ten years from the date of so filing such articles of incorporation. If such corporation is created for more than one purpose, the permit may be limited to one or more purposes. [Acts 1889, p. 87; Acts 1901, p. 18; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1115.]

Art. 1530. [1314] [745] Stock.—Before such permit is issued such corporation shall show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that at least one hundred thousand dollars in cash of their authorized capital stock has been paid in, or that fifty per cent of their authorized capital stock has been subscribed, and at least ten per cent thereof paid in. [Id.]

Art. 1531. [1315] Affidavit.—Before a permit is issued to such corporation, its president, vice president, secretary or treasurer, or two of the directors thereof, shall make and file in the office of the Secretary of State an affidavit stating that such corporation is not a trust or organization in restraint of trade in violation of the laws of this State, has not, within twelve months next preceding the making of such affidavit, become or been a party to any trust agreement of any kind which would constitute a violation of any anti-trust law of Texas existing at the date of such affidavit, and has not within that time, entered into or been in any wise a party to, any combination in restraint of trade within the United States, and that no officer of such corporation has, within the knowledge of affiant, within such time and on behalf of such corporation or for its benefit, made any such contract, or entered into or become a party to any such combination in restraint of trade. The jurat of the officer making such affidavit shall be attested by his official signature and seal of office. [Acts 1909, C. S. p. 267; Id.]

Art. 1532. [1317] [745] Rights under permit.—Such corporations, on obtaining such permit, shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of this State on corporations organized under the laws of this State. [Acts 1897, p. 167; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1221.]

Art. 1533. Property rights.—Such corporations shall be authorized to hold, purchase, sell, mortgage or otherwise convey such real estate and personal estate as the purposes of such corporation may require, and to take, hold and convey such other property, real, personal, or mixed, as may be requisite for such corporation to acquire in order to obtain or secure the payment of any indebtedness or liability due, or which may become due, or belonging to, the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1534. Disposal of property.—Such corporations shall alienate all real property so acquired not necessary for its purposes, within fifteen years from the time of acquisition; and shall alienate all real estate acquired for the purposes of such corporation within fifteen years from the expiration of the time for which the permit is issued, or, if such permit be renewed or such corporation be otherwise authorized to carry on business in Texas, then such real estate shall be alienated within fifteen years from the expiration of such renewal or authorization. If such corporation shall cease to carry on business in Texas, it shall alienate all such real estate so acquired by it, within fifteen years from the time of such cessation. [Id.]

Art. 1535. [1321] [749] Evidence.—Either the original permit or certified copies thereof by the Secretary of State shall be evidence of the compliance on the part of any corporation with the terms of this chapter. A certificate of the Secretary of State to the effect that the corporation named therein has failed to file in his office its articles of incorporation shall be evidence that such corporation has in no particular complied with the requirements of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1536. [1318] [746] Right to sue.—No such corporation can maintain any suit or action, either legal or equitable, in any court of this State upon any demand, whether arising out of contract or tort, unless at the time such contract was made, or tort committed, the corporation had filed its articles of incorporation under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1537. Amendments to charter.—Each foreign corporation, after a permit has been granted it to do business in this State, shall immediately file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of any amendment or supplement to its original articles of incorporation when any such amendment or supplement to its original articles of incorporation is filed in the state, territory or foreign country under whose laws such corporation is incorporated. [Acts 1919, p. 81.]

Art. 1538. [1319] [747] Corporations exempt.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to corporations created for the purpose of constructing, building, operating or maintaining any railway, or to such corporations as are required by law to procure certificates of authority to do business from the Commissioner of Insurance or from the Banking Commissioner. [Acts 1897, p. 167; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1221.]

Art. 1538a. Non-par stock.—Upon the organization, under the laws of this State, of any private corporation for profit, other than corporations authorized to conduct a banking or insurance business, or upon the amendment of the charter in the manner now or hereafter provided by law of any private corporation for profit organized under the laws of this State other than corporations authorized to conduct a banking or insurance business, provision may be made for the issuance of shares of its stock without nominal or par value. Every such share shall be equal in all respects to every other such share, except that the charter or any amendment thereof may provide that such shares should be divided into different classes, the shares of each class to have such preferences, designations, rights, privileges and powers and be subject to such restrictions, limitations and qualifications as shall be stated in the charter or any amendment thereof. Any law of this State requiring that the par value of shares of stock of a corporation be stated in any certificate, report or other instrument or paper shall be complied with by stating, in respect to shares without nominal or par value, that such stock is without par value, and wherever the amount of stock is required to be stated, the number of such shares without nominal or par value shall be stated and that such shares are without nominal or par value.

Art. 1538b. Statement on face.—Every certificate issued for shares of stock without nominal or par value shall have plainly stated on its face the number of shares which it represents and the class thereof, and shall not set forth any par value or value in dollars of such shares. No such certificate shall express or state thereon any rate of dividend, preference as to assets in liquidation, or price at which such shares may be redeemed except in dollars and cents per share.

Art. 1538c. Consideration for stock.—Corporations may issue and dispose of their authorized shares having no nominal or par value for such consideration as may be prescribed in the original charter or any amendment thereof; or, if no consideration is so prescribed, then for such consideration as may be fixed by the stockholders at a meeting duly called and held for that purpose, or by the board of directors when acting under general or special authority granted by the stockholders, or by the board of directors when acting under general authority conferred by the original charter or any amendment thereof; such consideration to be in the form of money paid, labor done or property actually received. Any and all shares without nominal or par value issued for the consideration prescribed or fixed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be fully paid stock and not liable to any further call or assessment thereon, nor shall the subscriber or holder be liable for any further payments.

Art. 1538d. Shall file with Secretary of State.—Corporations authorizing the issuance of shares of its stock without nominal or par value shall furnish to, and file with, the Secretary of State at the time of filing the charter or amendment to a charter authorizing the issuance of such stock a certificate authenticated by the incorporators as to original charter, and by a majority of the directors as to any amendment thereof, in the manner required by the laws of this State as to an original charter of incorporation, setting forth the following:

(a) The number of shares with a par or face value and the number of shares without nominal or par value that may be issued by the corporation and the classes, if any, into which such shares are divided.

(b) The par or face value of shares other than the shares which it is stated are to be without nominal or par value.

(c) That all stock having a par or face value, if any, has been in good faith subscribed, and fifty per cent thereof paid in, in cash, property or labor done.

(d) The number of shares without nominal or par value subscribed and the actual consideration received by the corporation for such shares; and upon receiving such certificate it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, on payment of office fees and franchise tax due, to file and record the charter, or amendment thereof, of such corporation and to give his certificate showing the record thereof, provided, however, the stockholders of any corporation authorizing the issuance of shares of its stock without nominal or par value shall be required, in good faith, to subscribe and pay for at least ten per cent of the authorized shares to be issued without nominal or par value before said corporation shall be chartered or have its charter amended so as to authorize the issuance of shares without par or nominal value; provided further that in no event the amount so paid shall be less than $25,000.00.

Art. 1538e. Certificate by directors.—In the event the original charter or any amendment to a charter of a corporation authorizing the issuance of shares of stock without nominal or par value does not prescribe the consideration for which such shares, other than those subscribed and paid for at the time of the filing of the charter or any amendment to a charter, shall be issued, then, within ninety (90) days after the issuance of any such shares, the corporation shall file, with the Secretary of State a certificate, authenticated by a majority of the directors in the manner required by the laws of this State as to an original charter of incorporation, setting forth the number of such shares so issued and the actual consideration received by the corporation for such shares.

Art. 1538f. Fees.—Any corporation authorizing the issuance of shares of its stock without nominal or par value shall be required to pay to the Secretary of State, for the use of the State, fees as follows:

(a) The fees now or hereafter provided by the laws of this

State as to any shares of its stock having a par or face value; and

(b) as to any shares of its stock without nominal or par value a fee of fifty dollars for the first ten thousand dollars of actual consideration received by the corporation for any such shares issued, provided, that if the actual consideration received by said corporation shall exceed ten thousand dollars, it shall be required to pay an additional fee of ten dollars for each additional ten thousand dollars, or fractional part thereof, of actual consideration received by it; and, provided further, that any shares without nominal or par value not subscribed and paid for at the time of filing said original charter or amendment to a charter shall for the sole and only purpose of computing the filing fees, be assumed to have the same value per share as that for which the shares actually subscribed and sold were issued so that the filing fees, as fixed herein, shall be paid upon the entire authorized number of shares to be issued without nominal or par value; which said fees shall be paid to the Secretary of State at the time of filing the charter or any amendment thereof, provided, that if, after payment of the fees herein provided, the corporation should thereafter issue shares of its stock without nominal or par value, which said shares were not subscribed, paid for, or issued, when the fees thereon were paid, for a consideration or value per share in excess of the value such shares were assumed to have when the charter or amendment to a charter was filed, then said corporation, at the time of filing the certificate showing the actual consideration received by it for said shares so subsequently sold and issued, shall pay further or additional fees at the rates herein stipulated, upon such excess value or consideration; provided that the aggregate fees to be paid by a corporation as prescribed in this Section 6 shall never exceed the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500).

Art. 1538g. Value of shares.—The certificate required by this Act to be filed setting forth the value received by a corporation for the shares of its stock without nominal or par value which it may issue shall not be construed as fixing any value upon such shares, but said certificate shall be for the sole and only purpose of furnishing the Secretary of State a basis upon which to compute the filing fees and franchise tax to be paid upon said shares without nominal or par value.

Art. 1538h. May amend charter.—Any private corporation for profit, other than corporations authorized to conduct a banking or insurance business, having authorized shares with par or face value, or shares without nominal or par value, or both, may, by vote of the holders of a majority of its outstanding stock entitled to vote at any annual meeting or at any special meeting called and held for the purpose, amend its charter so as to change its shares or stock with par or face value, or any class or classes thereof, into the same number or into a larger or smaller number of shares without nominal or par value provided that all shares in any one class shall be changed on the same basis, or so as to change its shares without nominal or par value, or any class or classes therefor, into a larger or smaller number of shares without nominal or par value provided that all shares in any one class shall be changed on the same basis; and provided further that the preferences, rights, limitations, privileges and restrictions granted or imposed with respect to any shares of outstanding stock shall not be impaired, diminished or changed without the consent of the holder thereof. Whenever any such amendment shall be made effective, all the shares with par or face value of the class or classes specified in said amendment shall be deemed for all purposes to have been converted, on the basis in said amendment stated, shares without nominal or par value of the class or classes specified, and all of the shares without nominal or par value changed into a larger or smaller number of shares without nominal or par value shall be deemed for all purposes to have been converted, on the basis in said amendment stated, into such larger or smaller number of shares without nominal or par value, and the corporation shall, in writing, notify all holders of shares of stock of the class or classes effected and shall thereafter, whenever any certificate for any such shares is presented for transfer or exchange, cancel the same, and in its place, issue, on the basis in said amendment stated, a new certificate, which shall conform to the provisions of Article 1538b hereof.

Art. 1538i. Franchise tax.—The amount of franchise tax to be paid by any corporation having shares of stock without nominal or par value shall be determined in the manner as now or hereafter prescribed by the laws of this State, except that such shares without nominal or par value shall, for the purpose of computing such tax only, be treated and considered as having and being of the value actually received by the corporation for the issuance of such shares as disclosed by the charter or any amendment thereof, as provided in Article 1538d hereof, or by a certificate as provided in Article 1538e hereof.

Art. 1538j. Stock to be subscribed.—Corporations authorizing the issuance of shares of its stock without nominal or par value are exempt from the provisions of Articles 1308 to 1311, inclusive, and of Article 1338 of the Revised Civil Statutes, provided that no original charter nor any amendment to a charter which provides for stock having a nominal or par value shall be filed or recorded by the Secretary of State until the full amount of all such authorized capital stock having a par value shall have been subscribed, and fifty per cent thereof paid, and proof thereof made in the manner provided in said Articles 1308 to 1311, inclusive; and provided further, that the provisions of said Article 1338 as to the payment of the unpaid portion of capital stock shall apply to the payment of the unpaid portion of any stock which has a nominal or par value.

Art. 1538k. Forfeiture of charter.—Any corporation authorized to issue shares of its stock without nominal or par value which shall fail or refuse to make and file within the time provided, any certificate or report required by this Act to be made and filed shall thereupon forfeit and pay to the State a penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every day, during which it shall continue in default, which penalty shall be recovered by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction by the Attorney General of Texas; and upon proof in said suit that such corporation has not then filed the certificate or report required to be filed by it, said corporation shall forfeit its charter and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from, or by virtue of, the laws of this State.

Art. 1538l. Blue sky law.—The privileges and powers conferred by this chapter shall be deemed to be in addition to any and all powers and authority conferred by any other law or laws, and not in restriction or limitation of any of the powers now permitted to corporations of this State; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to in any way exempt the sale of such par value stock or non par value stock from the operation and control of the Blue Sky Law of this State as the same now exists or may hereafter be amended.

Art. 1538m. Constitutionality.—Should any provision of this Act be held invalid, the validity of the other provisions shall not be affected or impaired thereby. [Acts 1925, p. 236-240.]

Art. 1539. [1331] [756] [651] Legislature may create counties.—The Legislature shall have power to create counties for the convenience of the people. [Const. Art. 9, Sec. 1.]

Art. 1540. [1332] [757] [652] Area required.—In the territory of the State exterior to the counties now existing, no new county shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles in a square form unless prevented by pre-existing boundary lines. If the State lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. [Id.]

Art. 1541. [1333] [758] [653] Division of exterior territory.—The territory referred to in the preceding article may at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population, and attached for judicial and land surveying purposes to the most convenient organized county. [Id.]

Art. 1542. [1334] [759] [654] Created out of other counties.—Within the territory of any county or counties now existing no new county shall be created with less area than seven hundred square miles. No such county now existing shall be reduced to a less area than seven hundred square miles. [Id.]

Art. 1543. [1335] [760] [655] Line of new county.—No new county shall be created so as to approach nearer than twelve miles of the county seat of any county from which it may, in whole or in part be taken. [Id.]

Art. 1544. [1336] [761] [656] County from existing county.—Counties of less area than nine hundred, but of seven hundred or more square miles, within counties now existing, may be created by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals. [Id.]

Art. 1545. [1337] [762] [657] Existing counties reduced.—Any county now existing may be reduced to an area of not less than seven hundred square miles by a like two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, taken by yeas and nays, and entered on the journals. [Id.]

Art. 1546. [1338] [763] [658] Liability of new county.—When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, the part stricken off shall be obligated to pay its proportion of all existing liabilities of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as the law shall provide. [Id.]

Art. 1547. [1339] [764] Pro rata of indebtedness.—Any county which has been or may hereafter be created by the Legislature out of any other county or counties, shall be held liable for its proportion of all the liabilities of the county or counties from which it was taken, existing at the date of its creation as such new county, according to the proportionate value of the property in the excised territory, and the value of the property remaining in the old county. A suit to recover the same may be brought in the district court by the parent county, either in such parent county, or in the newly created county; and the court shall have power to make any order or render any judgment necessary to carry out and satisfy its decree therein. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any county, the claims against which have already been placed before courts having jurisdiction thereof and tried or dismissed under laws that were at such time constitutional. [Acts 1893, p. 124; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 554.]

Art. 1548. [1340] [765] Apportionment of indebtedness.—Where any suit has been, or shall be, brought to enforce payment of the indebtedness created by the parent county or counties, or for the pro rata share of the excised territory, the assessment rolls of the parent county or counties for the year in which such new county was created shall be conclusive evidence of the property and value thereof remaining in the parent county, and in the excised territory at the date of the creation of such new county; provided that when the new county was organized and made assessment rolls for the same year as that in which it was created, such rolls shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the property therein and the taxable values thereof at the date of the creation of such new county, and the assessment rolls of the parent county for the same year shall be conclusive evidence of the property and the value thereof remaining in the parent county at the date of the creation of such new county. [Id.]

Art. 1549. [1341] [765a] Suits and special tax.—All suits brought under this law shall be given precedence upon the dockets of the courts. If the plaintiff shall recover, the commissioners court of the newly created county shall levy a special tax on all property in the territory taken from the plaintiff county sufficient to pay off the judgment, and, if the first levy be insufficient, to make said levy annually till said judgment is satisfied, and the judgment of the court shall order said commissioners court to make such levies. [Id.]

Art. 1550. [1342] [766] Non-residents to pay.—The Comptroller shall assess and collect from the non-residents of unorganized counties such rate of taxation, to pay the pro-rata share of the debt due by such unorganized county, as the commissioners court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt, and a certified statement of the commissioners court making the levy in the parent county, giving the amount or the levy, shall be authority for his action. [Acts 1889, p. 136; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1164.]

Art. 1551. [1343] [767] When territory added.—When the territory taken is added to and made a part of an organized county, the commissioners court of such county shall levy and have collected on all property in such territory a tax sufficient to pay their pro-rata of the indebtedness, said tax not to exceed the constitutional limit; and the commissioners court of the county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes shall levy and have collected on all property in such unorganized county owned or held by resident citizens a tax for the purpose of paying such indebtedness. [Id.]

Art. 1552. [1344] [768] Tax for pro-rata indebtedness.—When any county has organized, the commissioners court of such county shall levy and have collected on all property in this county such rate of taxation to pay the pro rata share of the debt due by such county as the commissioners court of the parent county shall levy on property in said parent county to pay such debt. [Id.]

Art. 1553. [1346] [770] County bonds held by school funds.—When any new county has been created wholly out of an existing county, if any bonds were legally issued by the parent county prior to the severance of a part of its territory, such of said bonds and the coupons due thereon as are held by the school fund of this State shall be apportioned by the Comptroller between the parent county and the new county on the basis now provided by law. [Acts 1891, p. 39; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 41.]

Art. 1554. [1347] [771] Levy of tax for debt.—The commissioners court of the parent county, or of any county created out of the parent county, which has now or may hereafter be organized, shall levy and have collected on all property in such county a tax to pay such county's pro-rata share of the debt. The commissioners court of a county to which any unorganized county may be attached for judicial purposes shall levy and have collected on all property in said unorganized county owned by resident citizens thereof a tax for the purpose of paying said county's part of the debt. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller to assess and collect on all property in such unorganized counties owned by non-residents, a tax to pay said counties' pro rata part of said debt. Nothing herein shall be held to authorize the levy and collection of any tax in excess of that now allowed by the Constitution of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1555. [1348] [772] [659] Detachment by vote.—No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change has been submitted to a vote of the electors of both counties, and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each. [Const. Art. 9.]

Art. 1556. [1349] [773] [660] Election ordered.—An election for such purpose shall be ordered by the county judge, or county judges of the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach any proportion thereof, or to attach any portion thereto, upon the written application of not less than fifty qualified voters of said county or counties.

Art. 1557. [1350] [774] [661] Application.—Such application shall designate particularly by metes and bounds, the portion of the territory proposed to be detached, and shall show the number of square acres contained within said bounds, and the number of square acres remaining in the county or counties from which it is proposed to detach such part or parts, and the distance on a direct line of the county seat of any such county or counties from the nearest boundary line of the territory which it is proposed shall be detached.

Art. 1558. [1351] [775] [662] Notices of election.—The notices of such election shall contain substantially the boundaries and statements contained in the application, and in order of election.

Art. 1559. [1352] [776] [663] Question to be voted upon.—The question to be voted upon at such election shall be, for or against the proposition, and the ballots shall be, "For the proposition," or "Against the proposition."

Art. 1560. [1353] [777] [664] Law governing such elections.—Such election shall be governed by the law governing other elections so far as applicable, and not in conflict with any provisions of this chapter.

Art. 1561. [1354] [778] [665] Returns of election.—The returns of such election shall be made to the county judge or county judges of the county or counties in which the election takes place; and such judge or judges shall estimate the vote and make duplicate statements of the same, and shall officially certify to such statements, and one of said statements, together with a copy of the application so certified, he shall seal in an envelope, writing his name across the seal, and endorsing upon the package "Election returns of _____ County," and direct and transmit the same by mail or other safe conveyance to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the seat of government, in time for the same to be received as early as practicable during the next session of the Legislature.

Art. 1562. [1355] [779] [666] Subsequent election.—When any such election has been held in a county, and the proposition to detach a portion thereof has been defeated, no other election for the same purpose shall be ordered or held within five years thereafter.

| Unorganized county | 1566 | Elections in unorganized counties | 1571 |

Art. 1563. [1356] [780] [667] Old county shall organize new one.—Whenever any new county shall hereafter be established, the commissioners court of the county from which the territory of such new county, or the greater part thereof was taken, at least one month previous to the general election next after such new county shall have been established shall lay off and divide such new county into convenient precincts for the election of justices of the peace and other precinct officers, defining particularly the boundaries of such precincts; and shall also designate convenient places in such new county where elections shall be held, and shall cause a record thereof to be made by the clerk. A copy thereof shall be transmitted to the county judge of such new county when elected. [Act March 20, 1848, p. 284; P. D. 1063; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 284.]

Art. 1564. [1357] [781] [668] Election to be ordered when and by whom.—It shall be the duty of the county judge of every county from which any new county has been so taken at least one month previous to the general election of county officers next after such new county has been established, to order an election to be held in such new county or said general election day, for all county officers authorized to be elected by the people of such new county, and to appoint a presiding officer for each place designated in such new county, for holding elections; such order of elections shall specify the number of precincts, their boundaries, and the officers to be elected in such county. Such presiding officers shall hold such elections in accordance with the laws regulating elections, and shall make their returns to the county judge who ordered such election, who shall open and examine such returns and give certificates to the persons elected. [Id.]

Art. 1565. [1358] [782] [669] County commissioners may act.—In any case where the office of county judge shall be vacant, any two of the county commissioners shall be authorized to perform each duty required of the county judge under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1566. [1359] [783] [670] Unorganized county.—Until a new county is legally organized, the territory thereof shall remain in all respects subject to the county from which the same has been taken. [Id.]

Art. 1567. [1360] [784] [671] Disorganized counties.—All legally organized counties that, from any cause, may have lost, or may hereafter lose, their county organization, shall be, for all judicial and surveying purposes, and for the registration of deeds, mortgages and all other instruments that are now, or may hereafter be, required or permitted by law to be recorded attached to the organized county whose county seat is nearest to the county seat of such disorganized county, and so remain attached until such disorganized county shall again be legally organized. [Act Nov. 5, 1866, p. 90; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1008.]

Art. 1568. [1361] [785] [672] Organization of attached county.—When any unorganized or disorganized county has been attached to another county for judicial or other purposes, and desires to be organized or reorganized, a petition expressing such desire, signed by not less than seventy-five qualified voters residing in such county, may be presented to the commissioners court of the county to which such unorganized or disorganized county is attached, and thereupon said court shall proceed without delay to the organization or reorganization of such county in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the organization of new counties. [Act May 1, 1874, p. 188; Acts 1918, 4th C. S. p. 17; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 189.]

Art. 1569. [1362] [786] [673] Certificates of election.—The county judge of the county conducting the organization of another county shall issue certificates of election to the officers elected in such organized or reorganized county, and approve the bonds of such officers. [Act May 1, 1874; p. 188; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 189.]

Art. 1570. [1363] [787] [674] Delivery to new officers.—All officers of the county from which a new county has been created or to which any such newly organized or reorganized county has been attached, and all other persons who may have in their possession any books, records, maps, or other property belonging to such newly organized or reorganized county, shall deliver the same to the proper officers of such newly organized or reorganized county within five days after such officers have been legally qualified.

Art. 1571. [1364] [788] [675] Elections in unorganized counties.—Where a county is not organized and there is no officer in the same authorized by law to organize such county, the county judge of the nearest county which is organized may order elections for county officers in any such county, and appoint the presiding officers and managers and clerks of election. [Act March 26, 1848; P. D. 3624.]

Art. 1572. [1365] [789] [676] County a body corporate.—Each county which now exists or which may be hereafter established, shall be a body corporate and politic. [P. D. 1044.]

Art. 1573. [1366] [790] [677] Suits against.—No county shall be sued unless the claim upon which such suit is founded shall have first been presented to the commissioners court for allowance, and such court shall have neglected or refused to audit and allow the same, or any part thereof. [P. D. 1045.]

Art. 1574. [1367] [791] [678] Jurors.—In any suit instituted by or against any county, the inhabitants of the county so suing or being sued may if otherwise competent, be jurors or witnesses. [P. D. 1049.]

Art. 1575. [1368] [792] [679] Execution against county.—No execution shall be issued on any judgment against any county. When a judgment is rendered against a county the commissioners court of such county shall settle and pay such judgment in like manner and pro rata as other similar claims are settled and paid by said court. [P. D. 1050.]

Art. 1576. [1369] [793] [680] Validity of deed, etc.—All deeds, grants and conveyances heretofore or hereafter made and duly acknowledged, or proven, and recorded as other deeds of conveyance, to any county, or to the courts or commissioners of any county, or any other person or persons, by whatever form of conveyance, for the use and benefit of any county, shall be good and valid to vest in such county in fee simple or otherwise all such right, title, interest and estate as the grantor in any such instrument had at the time of the execution thereof in the lands conveyed and was intended thereby to be conveyed. [P. D. 1051.]

Art. 1577. [1370] [794] [681] Sale of real estate.—The commissioners court may, by an order to be entered on its minutes, appoint a commissioner to sell and dispose of any real estate of the county at public auction. The deed of such commissioner, made in conformity to such order for and in behalf of the county, duly acknowledged and proven and recorded shall be sufficient to convey to the purchasers all the right, title and interest and estate which the county may have in and to the premises to be conveyed. Nothing contained in this article shall authorize any commissioners court to dispose of any lands given, donated or granted to such county for the purpose of education in any other manner than shall be directed by law. [P. D. 1052.]

Art. 1578. [1371] [795] [682] Contracts with a county valid.—Any note, bond, bill, contract, covenant, agreement or writing, made or to be made, whereby any person is or shall be bound to any county, or to the court or commissioners of any county, or to any other person or persons, in whatever form, for the payment of any debt or duty or the performance of any matter or thing to the use of any county, shall be valid and effectual to vest in said county any right, interest and action which would be vested in any person if any such contract had been made directly with him. [P. D. 1053.]

Art. 1579. [1372] [796] [683] Suits on writings by county.—Suits may be begun and prosecuted on such notes, bonds, bills, contracts, covenants, agreements and writings, in the name of such county, or in the name of the person to whom they were made, for the use of the county, as fully and as effectually as any person may or can sue on like instruments made to him. [P. D. 1054.]

Art. 1580. [1373] [797] [684] Agents to contract for county.—The commissioners court may appoint an agent or agents to make any contract on behalf of the county for the erection or repairing of any county buildings, and to superintend their erection or repairing, or for any other purpose authorized by law. The contract or acts of such agent or agents, duly executed and done, for and on behalf of the county, and within his or their powers, shall be valid and effectual to bind such county to all intents and purposes. [P. D. 1055.]

Art. 1581. [1374] [798] [685] Costs in suit against county.—When the plaintiff in any suit against a county shall fail to recover a greater amount than the commissioners court of such county shall have allowed to such plaintiff on the presentation of his claim to such court, such plaintiff shall pay all costs of such suit. [P. D. 1056.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

COUNTY LINES.

| Oath and bond of surveyors..... | 1586 | Suit to establish boundary..... | 1592 |
| Return and record of field notes..... | 1587 | Marking line on map..... | 1592 |

Art. 1582. [1375] [799] Survey made.—Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the county court of any county, or notice shall be given such court by the Land Commissioner that the boundary or any part thereof, of the county is not sufficiently definite and well defined, such court shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain by actual survey the boundary, or any part thereof, of said county, and to make and establish the lines and corners in the manner herein prescribed. The court, in the order making the appointment, shall specify the line or lines to be run, and the corners to be established and marked; and shall in all things conform to the law defining the boundaries of said county. [Acts 1879, p. 137; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1437.]

Art. 1583. [1376] [800] Marking boundary.—The initial corners of the surveys herein provided for shall be designated by posts, mounds or stone monuments; the posts shall be of hewn cedar, cypress or bois d' arc, at least eight inches in diameter, five feet long, and set in the ground not less than three feet; the mounds shall be of stone when practicable, otherwise of earth, and not less than two feet high; at the end of each mile in said boundary a like post, mound or stone monument shall be established; the initial corners shall be described on the post or monument established there. [Id.]

Art. 1584. [1377] [801] Natural objects.—In the field notes of the survey of the lines ordered to be run; the surveyor shall give accurate description of all prominent natural objects crossed by, or adjacent to said lines, as well as of the corners and lines of surveys on or near said boundaries. [Id.]

Art. 1585. [1378] [802] Notice to other counties.—The court making such order shall cause a copy thereof to be sent to the county courts of the counties interested in such boundary, stating the time and place, which time shall not be later than twenty days after the meeting of the county court of the county notified, for the commencement of the survey; and such notice shall be given at least ten days before the meeting of said county court; and the court so notified shall appoint an experienced and competent practical surveyor to proceed at the time and place to assist in running and establishing such line. [Id.]

Art. 1586. [1379] [803] Oath and bond of surveyors.—Such surveyors shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for county surveyors, and shall, before entering upon the duties herein prescribed, enter into bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by the county judge, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty. [Id.]

Art. 1587. [1380] [804] Return and record of field notes.—When the line shall have been surveyed and marked as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the surveyor to make due return of the field notes and map to the county court; which field notes and map shall be recorded by the clerk, and a certified copy thereof returned to the general land office. [Id.]

Art. 1588. [1381] [805] Absence of surveyor.—If either of the surveyors appointed to run and mark such line shall fail to attend at the time and place appointed, the one in attendance shall proceed alone to perform the duties assigned and make his report to the county court of the county employing him, which being approved by such court, shall be recorded as evidence of the line in question. The line so surveyed and marked shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties. [Id.]

Art. 1589. [1382] [806] Land Commissioner to direct survey.—If the surveyors above provided for fail to agree as to the true boundary line between their respective counties, the facts of such disagreement, with a full statement of the questions at issue between them, shall be by them reported to the Land Commissioner, who shall examine the disputed matter at once; and from such data as the maps and archives of his office furnish, shall designate to such surveyors the line to be run stating at what specific point they shall begin and to what specific point they shall run, adhering as nearly as possible to the line designated in the act creating such county line, which instructions shall be authority for said surveyors to run such line. The line so run as above directed shall thereafter be the true dividing line between said counties. [Id.]

Art. 1590. [1383] [807] Division of expense.—The expense of surveying and marking such line shall be divided between the counties interested, in proportion to the frontage of each county upon the line, and paid for by each county as proportioned. The surveyors appointed as herein provided shall receive for their services three dollars per mile for each mile run. The expense of establishing the posts, mounds, or stone monuments shall be paid by the counties interested, and they shall be erected under the supervision and direction of the surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 1591. [1385] Suit to establish boundary.—Notwithstanding any preceding article of this chapter, any county in this State may bring suit against any adjoining county or counties, for the purpose of establishing the boundary line between them. Such suit shall be brought in the district court of the county in an adjoining judicial district whose boundaries are not affected by the suit, and whose county seat is nearest the county seat of the county suing. Said court shall try said cause as other causes, and shall have jurisdiction to determine where such boundary line is located, and, if necessary, shall order the same to be remarked and resurveyed. If, in the trial of any such cause, it is found that the boundary line between the counties involved has never been established and marked, or if marked has become indefinite and undefined, said court shall have power to re-establish the same and order it marked. Any boundary line so established by such judgment shall thereafter be regarded as the true boundary line between the counties in question; provided, that if it shall be found in any such cause that the boundary line in question has been heretofore established under the law then in force, the same shall be declared to be the true line, and shall be resurveyed and established as such. [Acts 1897, p. 222; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1276.]

Art. 1592. [1386] Marking line on map.—It shall be unlawful for the Land Commissioner to mark, fix or place on any of the maps in said office any contested county line at any definite point thereon, until a certified copy of the final judgment of the court is filed in the General Land Office, together with a certified copy of the field notes of the line so established by such judgment. [Id.]

| | | Location for officers..... | 1605 |

Art. 1593. [1387] [809] Election for county seats.—In the organization of any county or counties now existing, or hereafter created by the Legislature, it shall be the duty of the county judge holding the election in such county for county officers thereof to order an election for the location of a county seat therein, which shall be conducted in the same manner as that regulating the election of the officers of such new county. The place receiving a majority of all the votes cast by the electors voting on the location of such county seat shall thereafter be the county seat of such county, subject to be removed as other county seats. When any county has been organized, and no county seat has been located, the county judge of such county shall order an election for the location of a county seat. [Acts 1883, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 388.]

Art. 1594. [1388] [810] Vote necessary.—No county seat first established in a newly organized county shall be located at any point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county in this State, unless by a two-thirds vote of all the electors voting on the subject in said county. [Acts 1881, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 159.]

Art. 1595. [1389] [811] Election for removal of.—No county seat situated within five miles of the geographical center of any county shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of all the electors in said county voting on the subject; nor shall any county seat be removed from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of any county to any other point more than five miles from such center, nor from a point within five miles of the geographical center to any other point within five miles of such center, except by a two-thirds vote of all the electors in said county voting on the subject. No person shall be allowed to vote except he be a bona fide citizen of the county in which he offers to vote. A majority of said electors, however, voting at such election may remove a county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center of the county to a point within five miles of such center; in either event the center to be determined by a certificate from the Land Commissioner. [Acts 1879, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1384.]

Art. 1596. [1390] [812] Proceedings for removal of county seat.—When it becomes desirable to remove the county seat of any county, the county judge of said county, upon the written application of not less than one hundred freeholders and qualified voters, who are resident citizens of said county shall make a written order upon the minutes of said commissioners court for the holding of an election at various voting precincts in said county on a day therein named, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than sixty days from date of order, for the purpose of submitting the question to the electors of said county. When a county seat has been established for more than ten years, it shall require two hundred freeholders and qualified voters to make said application. In counties having less than three hundred and fifty legal voters, to be determined by the number of votes cast at the last preceding general election such application may be made by one hundred resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county. When a county seat has been established for more than forty years, it shall require a majority of the resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county to make the application, said majority to be ascertained by the county judge from the assessment rolls thereof. In counties having not more than 150 qualified voters, such application shall be held sufficient when it shall have been signed by a majority of the resident freeholders and qualified voters of said county, said majority to be ascertained by the county judge, from the assessment rolls thereof. In the event of the failure, refusal or inability of the county judge to perform any duty imposed upon him by this article such duty may be performed by any two county commissioners of the county. [Acts 1893, p. 164; Acts 1919, 2nd C. S. p. 77.]

Art. 1597. [1391] [813] Geographical center.—The Land Commissioner, upon being notified by the county judge that a proposition is submitted to the people of his county, or that it is desirable on the part of the people thereof, that the center of such county shall be designated, preliminary to the removal of any county seat, shall, from the maps, surveys and other data on file in his office, designate the center of such county, and shall certify the same to such county judge, who shall cause the same to be spread upon the records of deeds of his county. [Acts 1879, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1354.]

Art. 1598. [1392] [814] Who may vote and form of ballot.—All persons who are qualified voters under the Constitution and laws of the State shall be entitled to vote at said election. On each ticket, the voter shall write or cause to be written or printed: "For removal to _____" (inserting the name of the place); or, should the voter be in favor of the county seat remaining where it is, he shall write or cause to be written or printed on his ticket: "For remaining at _____" (inserting the name of the place.) [Id.]

Art. 1599. [1393] [815] Election.—The county judge or commissioners shall order said election in each voting precinct in said county, which shall be conducted as near as may be, as elections for county officers. The officers holding the elections shall make return thereof to the authority ordering said election within ten days after the same was held, who shall then proceed to open said returns and count the same, and declare the result, which shall be entered upon the records of said commissioners court, and shall also state the name of the place from which, and the name of the place to which, the same is removed. A certified copy of such entry shall thereupon be recorded in the proper record deeds of such county. [Id.]

Art. 1600. [1394] [816] County seats removed, when.—When such entry has been made, the county seat, if the election be held to move the county seat from a point within five miles of the geographical center, to a point more or less than five miles from the geographical center, or from a point more than five miles from the geographical center, to any other point more than five miles from such center, shall be removed to the place receiving the votes of two-thirds of all the electors voting on the subject; and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. If the election be held to move the county seat from a point more than five miles from the geographical center to a point within five miles of such center, then the county seat shall be moved to the place receiving a majority of all the electors in the county voting at such election, and such place shall thereafter be the county seat of such county. [Id.]

Art. 1601. [1395] [817] Subsequent election.—Whenever an election for the location or removal of a county seat has been voted on by the electors of any county and the question settled, it shall not be lawful for a like application to be made for the same purpose within five years thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 1602. [1396] [818] [704] Courts shall hold at seat.—All terms of the district, county and commissioners court shall be held at the county seat.

Art. 1603. [1397] [819] [705] Buildings to be provided.—The county commissioners court of each county, as soon as practicable after the establishment of a county seat, or after its removal from one place to another, shall provide a court house and jail for the county, and offices for county officers at such county seat and keep the same in good repair. [R. S. 1879; 705.]

Art. 1604. [1398] [820] Place of holding court.—Until the county seats of new counties are established, as required under this chapter, the courts of such new counties shall be held at such place as may be appointed by the commissioners court of such county. [Acts 1879, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1354.]

Art. 1605. [1399] Location of officers.—The county judge, sheriff, clerks of the district and of the county courts, county treasurer, assessor of taxes, collector of taxes, county surveyor and county attorney of the several counties of this State shall keep their offices at the county seats of their respective counties, provided, however, that in all counties having a city or cities, other than the county seats, within their boundaries, having a population of 20,000 and over, the assessor of taxes and the collector of taxes when authorized by order of the commissioners' court may maintain a branch office in said city or cities, and may appoint one or more deputies for said offices, and the salaries to be paid said deputies together with the office rent and other expenses incidental to maintaining said offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the assessor of taxes and collector of taxes, respectively, and shall be paid in the manner now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the assessor of taxes and collector of taxes. [Acts 1925, p. 508.]

CHAPTER SIX.

COUNTY BOUNDARIES.

Art. 1606. [1400] [822] Boundaries as established, adopted, and acts creating continued in force.—The county boundaries of the counties in this State as now recognized and established are adopted as the true boundaries of such counties, and the acts creating such counties and defining the boundaries are continued in force.

sioners court shall procure a well-bound ledger and index, to be known as the finance ledger, and shall cause to be entered therein a full and orderly statement of the condition of the county finances. The county clerk shall open and keep in said book an account with each officer of the county, district or State, who may be authorized or required by law to receive or collect all money or other property for the use of, or belonging to the county, and shall state at the top of each page of said account the name of such officer and his office. The clerk shall keep such other accounts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this title, and shall conveniently index each. And items shall be entered daily under their respective heads. All reports and vouchers shall be filed with said clerk and carefully preserved, and briefly noted in the proper account upon the ledger.
Said finance ledger shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the public. [Acts 1893, p. 160; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 590.]

Art. 1608. [1403] [824a] [935a] Quarterly statement. — Said clerk shall balance each account so kept, and make a sworn tabular statement at each regular term of the commissioners' court for the three months preceding the month when such court meets in regular session, to be presented to said court during the second day of its term, specifying therein the names of the creditors of said county, and the items of indebtedness, with their respective dates of accrual, and also the names of persons to whom moneys have been paid, with the amounts paid each, the names of persons from whom moneys have been received, with the date of receipt and for what account received, during the quarter for which such statement is prepared; said statement shall also separately show the amount to the credit or debit of each fund. [Id.]

Art. 1609. [1404] Exhibit published. — Immediately after the first regular term of said court in each year said clerk shall publish once in some weekly newspaper published in his county, or if there be no paper published therein, then by posting four copies of such exhibit, one in each commissioners precinct, one of which shall be at the court house door, the other three at public places in such precincts, an exhibit showing the aggregate amount paid out of each fund for the four preceding quarters, and the balance to the credit or debit of each fund; also the amount of indebtedness of said county, with their respective dates of accrual, and to whom and for what due; also the amount to the debit or credit of each officer or other persons with whom an account is kept. The cost for publishing the same shall be paid by order of said court out of the general fund of the county. [Id.]

Art. 1610. [1407-12] Account with tax collector.—The accounts of the tax collector shall be kept as follows: A separate account shall be kept for each separate fund that may be upon the tax rolls; each account shall state the name of the collector, the character of the fund entered therein, and the year for which the same is assessed; and the taxes assessed for each year shall be kept separate and distinct.

Art. 1611. [1408] [827] [938] Receipts for tax rolls.—Whenever the tax rolls are ready for delivery to the tax collector, the court or officer having control of the same shall take from the collector a written receipt for the same, specifying the amount therein assessed and due the county, stating separately the amount assessed to each fund, and shall deliver said receipt to the county clerk, who shall charge the collector with the amount stated in said receipt in the proper account; and said amounts shall be treated as debts due the county by the collector.

Art. 1612. [1409] [828] [939] Collector's credits.—The collector shall discharge said indebtedness within the time prescribed by law, by filing with said clerk receipts for the same, as follows:

1. The commission due the collector.
2. The assessor's receipt for commissions due such assessor, if any are to be paid by the county.
3. Proper vouchers for such payments as he may be required to pay out of any money on hand.
4. The county treasurer's receipt for the money paid into the treasury.

Art. 1613. [1410-11] Indigent and delinquent tax accounts.—The collector shall make separate lists of the indigent and delinquent taxpayers, showing their names, and the amount due by each taxpayer. The court shall carefully examine said list, and shall make an order and enter the same upon its minutes, stating the names and amounts that are adjudged uncollectible; and the collector shall have credit for the amounts included in said order in the proper accounts, only after said order has been made and entered.

Art. 1614. [1413] [832] [943] Shall deliver tax rolls to successor.—On leaving office the tax collector shall deliver to his successor the tax rolls in his possession, and shall receive from his successor a written receipt for the amount of taxes due on the tax rolls so delivered, specifying the amount of each fund and each year separately, and also the amount due on the indigent and delinquent list; and deliver said receipts to the county clerk, who shall enter those allowed by the court to the credit of the collector presenting them, and shall charge the amounts so credited to the successor in office of such collector, in the proper accounts.

Art. 1615. [1414-15-16-17-18] Occupation tax.—Said collector shall collect all occupation taxes due the county without assessment and give the party paying the tax a written receipt, stating his name, the occupation paid for, the time such occupation is to be pursued, and the amount collected for the State and for the county. On presentation of such receipt, the county clerk shall issue to the payee therein a license in the name of the State or county or both, in accordance with the tax so paid, authorizing said payee to pursue such occupation during the time for which the tax is paid. The clerk shall keep an occupation tax account with the collector of the county, in which he shall charge the collector with all licenses issued for the county. The collector shall have credit in said account for his commissions, and the amount paid into the treasury upon filing the proper receipt of the county treasurer with such clerk. Said clerk shall, at the end of every month, make two reports, one of licenses issued on taxes paid to the State which he shall forward to the Comptroller by mail; the other of licenses issued on taxes paid to the county and file the same in his office. Such reports shall recite the information contained in the tax collector's receipt for such tax, and shall be dated and signed under the clerk's official seal.

Art. 1616. [1419-20] Account with sheriff.—An account shall be kept with the sheriff charging him with all judgments, fines, forfeitures and penalties, payable to and rendered in any court of the county, the collection of which he is by law made chargeable. The sheriff may free himself from liability from such charge, by:

1. Producing the receipt of the county treasurer showing the payment of such judgment, fine, forfeiture or penalty.
2. Showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners court that the same cannot be collected, or that the same has been discharged by imprisonment or labor, or by escape, without his fault or neglect, and obtaining an order from said court allowing the same.

Art. 1617. [1421] [840] [951] Officers to report collections.—Each district clerk, county clerk, county judge, county treasurer, sheriff, district and county attorney, constable and justice of the peace, who shall collect or handle any money for the use of the county, shall make a full report to the commissioners court, at each regular term thereof, of all fines imposed and collected and all judgments rendered and collected for the use of the county, and all jury fees collected in their respective courts in favor of, or for the use of the county; and at the same time present their receipts and vouchers showing what disposition has been made of the money collected, fines imposed and judgments rendered. Said court shall carefully examine said reports, receipts and vouchers and, if found correct, shall cause the clerk to enter the same on the finance ledger, and, if found to be incorrect, shall summon said officer before them, and have the same corrected. Said reports, receipts, and vouchers shall be filed in the county clerk's office. [Acts 1887, p. 36; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 834.]

Art. 1618. [1422] [841] [952] Collections: form of report.—The reports required by the preceding article shall state fully:

1. The name of the party fined and the amount of the fine, or the name of the party against whom judgment was rendered and the amount of such judgment.

2. The style and number of the cases in which fines have been imposed or judgments rendered, and the date thereof.

3. The amount of jury fees collected, and the style and number of the case in which each jury fee was collected and from whom collected.

Art. 1619. [1423] [842] [953] Accounts of justice.—Fines imposed and judgments rendered by justices of the peace shall be charged against the justice imposing or rendering the same. He may discharge said indebtedness by filing with the county clerk the treasurer's receipt for the amount thereof, or by showing to the satisfaction of the commissioners court that he has used due diligence to collect the same without avail, or that the same have been satisfied by imprisonment or labor.

Art. 1620. [1424-5] Report of attorneys.—The district attorney of each district shall, at each term of the district court for each county in his district, make a report to the county clerk, of all moneys received by him since the last term of the district court for such county for the use of such county. Each county attorney shall make a similar report to the said clerk at the end of each month.

Art. 1621. [1426] [845] Judgment sold.—Whenever the proceeds of any judgment revert to and belong to any county, if the principal and sureties thereon are insolvent so that under any existing process of law said judgment or any part thereof cannot be collected, the commissioners court is hereby constituted a board to dispose of such judgment, and may offer for sale, by such advertising as it deems necessary and to the best interests of the county, all the right of the county to such judgment. If the amount bid on same at public sale shall not be deemed sufficient, said court shall refuse to accept the same, and shall dispose of said judgment in any manner deemed most advantageous to the interest of the county. Upon sale said court shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser. [Acts 1st C. S. 1879, p. 9; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 40.]

Art. 1622. [1427-8] Collections: report to clerk.—When any officer collects money belonging to, and for the use of, any county, he shall, except where otherwise provided in this title, forthwith report the same to the proper county clerk stating fully from whom collected, the amount collected, the time when collected, and by virtue of what authority or process collected. On making such report, such amount shall be charged to such officer, and he may discharge himself therefrom by producing the receipt of the proper county treasurer therefor.

Art. 1623. [1429-30] Estray account.—When an application to estray an animal is filed with the county clerk, said clerk shall keep an estray account on the debit side of said finance ledger showing, the date of the application, the name of the person estraying, and a brief description of the animal to be estrayed. The amount of such charge shall be left blank until said person shall file his account of the sale thereof. Upon the filing of said account, the net amount due the county from such sale shall be entered in the blank. When the receipt of the county treasurer is presented to the clerk, showing any amount paid into the treasury on account of such sale, the same shall be entered on the credit side of the account, showing the date, name of payer, amount paid and a brief description of the estray, and such amount shall be charged on the debit side of the county treasurer's account.

Art. 1624. [1431] [850] [960] Account with county treasurer.—An account with the county treasurer shall be kept in said ledger, in which such treasurer shall be charged separately with the amount of each fund for which he gives a receipt to the sheriff, collector, or other person paying the same into the treasury; and such treasurer shall have credit for all moneys paid out by him, when the commissioners court has approved his reports of the same and for his legal commissions.

Art. 1625. [1432-6-7] Claim registers.—Each county treasurer shall keep a well-bound book in which he shall register all claims against his county in the order of presentation, and if more than one is presented at the same time he shall register them in the order of their date. He shall pay no such claim or any part thereof, nor shall the same, or any part thereof, be received by any officer in payment of any indebtedness to the county, until it has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this title. All claims in each class shall be paid in the order in which they are registered.

Art. 1626. [1433] [852] [962] Claims classified.—Claims against a county shall be registered in three classes, as follows:

1. All jury scrip and scrip issued for feeding jurors.
2. All scrip issued under the provisions of the road law or for work done on roads and bridges.
3. All the general indebtedness of the county, including feeding and guarding prisoners, and paupers' claims.

Art. 1627. [1434-5] Registering claims.—Said treasurer shall enter each claim in the register, stating the class to which it belongs, the name of the payee, the amount, the date of the claim, the date of registration, the number of such claim, by what authority issued, and for what service the same was issued, and shall write on the face of the claim its registration number, the word, "registered", the date of such registration, and shall sign his name officially thereto.

Art. 1628. [1438] [857] [967] Classification of county funds.—The funds received by the county treasurer shall be classed as follows, and shall be appropriated, respectively, to the payment of all claims registered in the first, second and third classes:

1. All jury fees, all money received from the sale of estrays, and all occupation taxes.

2. All money received under any of the provisions of the road and bridge law, including the penalties recovered from railroads for failing to repair crossings, and all fines and forfeitures.

3. All money received, not otherwise appropriated herein or by the commissioners court. [Const. Art. 16, Sec. 24.]

Art. 1629. [1439] [858] [968] Other classes of funds.—The commissioners court may cause such other accounts to be kept, creating other classes of funds, as it may deem proper, and require the scrip to be issued against the same and registered accordingly.

Art. 1630. [1440] [859] [969] Transfer of funds.—The commissioners court by an order to that effect may transfer the money in hand from one fund to another, as it may deem necessary and proper, except that the funds which belong to class first shall never be diverted from the payment of the claims registered in class first, unless there is an excess of such funds.

Art. 1631. [1441-2] Report of claims.—At the end of each month the county treasurer shall file in the office of the county clerk a report showing the total amount of claims registered by him during said months stating each class separately. He shall enter the same upon the ledger under the head of "Registered indebtedness of the county", keeping a separate account of each class of indebtedness, and, from the reports of the treasurer of disbursements made, credit said accounts with the total amount of vouchers of each class of claims paid.

Art. 1632. [1443] [862] [972] Receipt of payee.—The county treasurer or any other officer disbursing money for the county, or receiving county claims in payment of dues of any kind, shall require the party receiving payment of, or credit for the same, his agent or attorney, to receipt in writing upon the face of such claim for the amount so paid or received thereon.

Art. 1633. [1444-5] Report of claims collected.—Every officer who shall collect any fine, penalty, forfeiture, judgment, tax or other indebtedness due the county in claims against the county, shall keep a descriptive list of such claims, and shall when he reports such collection, file with his report a list stating the party in whose favor each claim was issued, the class and register number thereof, the name of the party paying in such claim, and the amount received, and for what purpose received. Such claims and report shall be turned over to the county treasurer who shall give a proper receipt for the same, and he shall file said list with his report in the office of the county clerk.

Art. 1634. [1446] [865] [975] Accounts of treasurer.—The county treasurer shall keep accurate detailed accounts showing all the transactions of his office. And all warrants by him paid off shall be punched at the time he pays them; and the vouchers relating to and accompanying each report shall be presented to the commissioners court with the corresponding report, when said court shall compare the vouchers with the report, and all proper vouchers shall be allowed and the treasurer credited with the amount thereof. [Acts 1889, p. 6; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 6.]

Art. 1635. [1447] [866] [976] Claim canceled.—When a claim presented as a voucher has been found by the court to be correct, the court shall cause the same to be cancelled by writing or stamping upon the fact thereof the word, "canceled", and the clerk shall attest the same by his official signature.

Art. 1636. [1448-9-50] To inspect treasurer's accounts.—When the commissioners court has compared and examined the quarterly report of the treasurer, and found the same correct, it shall cause an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court, stating the approval thereof, and reciting separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by the treasurer since the preceding treasurer's quarterly report, and the balance of such fund, if any, remaining in the treasurer's hands and the court shall cause the proper credit to be made in the accounts of the treasurer, in accordance with said order. Said court shall actually inspect and count all the actual cash and assets in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the county at the time of the examination of his said report. Prior to the adjournment of each regular term of the court, the county judge and each commissioner shall make affidavit that the requirements of this article have been in all things fully complied with by them at said term of said court, and that the cash and other assets mentioned in said county treasurer's quarterly report made by said treasurer to said court, and held by him for the county, have been fully inspected and counted by them giving the amount of said money and other assets in his hands. Such affidavits shall be filed with the county clerk and recorded in the minutes of said court the term at which the same were filed; and the same shall be published in some newspaper published in the county if there be a newspaper published in the county, for one time. [Acts 1897, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1081.]

Art. 1637. [1451] [868] [978] To examine finance accounts.—The commissioners court shall, at each regular term, examine all accounts and reports relating to the finances of the county, and compare the same with the vouchers accompanying them, and cause such corrections to be made as are necessary, in order to make said accounts and reports correct, and shall cause all orders made by them, appertaining to said accounts and reports, to be properly entered upon the minutes of said court and noted upon said accounts and reports.

Art. 1638. [1453-4] Finance committee.—At each term of the district court, the district judge, upon request of the grand jury, may appoint a committee consisting of three citizens of the county, men of good moral character and intelligence, and experienced accountants, to examine into the condition of the finances of the county. Said committee shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and orders of the commissioners court relating to the finances of the county that have not been examined and reported upon by a previous committee; count all the money in the office of the county treasurer belonging to the county, and make such other examination as it deems necessary and proper in order to ascertain the true condition of the finances of the county. The court shall, if necessary, upon the application of said committee, send for persons and evidence to aid in such investigation.

Art. 1639. [1455] [872] [982] Report of committee.— Said committee shall, at the earliest practicable day after its appointment, make to said district court a detailed written report stating whether the books and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of this title are correctly kept in accordance with said provisions, and setting forth fully the condition of the finances of the county, the state of each officer's account, and specifying all irregularities, omissions and malfeasance of any kind that they may discover. Said report shall be signed and sworn to by said committee and filed in the office of the district clerk, and the attention of the grand jury called thereto as soon after the filing of the same as practicable.

Art. 1640. [1456] [873] [983] Pay of committee.— Said committeemen shall each be entitled to receive for their services three dollars for each day, not to exceed five days, that they may be engaged in the performance of their duties as such, to be paid out of the county treasury upon the certificate of the district judge stating the number of days served.

Art. 1641. Audit by accountant.— Any commissioners court, when in its judgment an imperative public necessity exists therefor, shall have authority to employ a disinterested, competent and expert public accountant to audit all or any part of the books, records, or accounts of the county; or of any district, county or precinct officers, agents or employes, including auditors of the counties, and all governmental units of the county, hospitals, farms, and other institutions of the county kept and maintained at public expense, as well as for all matters relating to or affecting the fiscal affairs of the county. The resolution providing for such audit shall recite the reasons and necessity existing therefor such as that in the judgment of said court there exists official misconduct, wilful omission or negligence in records and reports, misapplication, conversion or retention of public funds, failure in keeping accounts, making reports and accounting for public funds by any officer, agent or employe of the district, county or precinct, including depositories, hospitals, and other public institutions maintained for the public benefit, and at public expense; or that in the judgment of the court, it is necessary that it have the information sought to enable it to determine and fix proper appropriation and expenditure of public moneys, and to ascertain and fix a just and proper tax levy. The said resolution may be presented in writing at any regular or called session of the commissioners court, but shall lie over to the next regular term of said court, and shall be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation published in the county; provided if there be no such newspaper published in the county, then notice thereof shall be posted in three public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door, for at least ten days prior to its adoption. At such next regular term said resolution shall be adopted by a majority vote of the four commissioners of the court and approved by the county judge. Any contract entered into by said commissioners court for the audit provided herein shall be made in accordance with the statutes applicable to the letting of contracts by said court, payment for which may be made out of the public funds of the county in accordance with said statutes. The authority conferred on county auditors contained in this title as well as other provisions of statutes relating to district, county and precinct finances and accounts thereof shall be held subordinate to the powers given herein to the commissioners' court. [Acts 1923, p. 170.]

Art. 1642. [1457-8] Requisites of report.—All reports required under any provision of this title shall be in writing and sworn to by the officer making the same, before some officer authorized to administer oaths; and all such monthly reports shall be filed within five days after the end of each month.

Art. 1643. [1459] [876] [986] Warrants attested.—All warrants or scrip issued against the county treasurer by any judge or court shall be signed and attested by the clerk or judge of the court issuing the same, under his official seal. No justice of the peace shall have authority to issue warrants against the treasury for any purpose whatever, except as provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Art. 1644. [1405] Compensation of clerk.—The clerk shall receive annually as compensation for the labor performed in keeping the finance ledger and making the quarterly statement required by this title, the sum of five dollars for each one thousand dollars tax assessed as due the county, to be paid quarterly on order of the commissioners court out of the general fund of the county; provided, the same be not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars per annum. [Acts 1893, p. 160; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 590.]

Art. 1645. [1460] Appointment authorized.—In any county having a population of thirty-five thousand inhabitants, or over, according to the preceding Federal census, or having a tax valuation of fifteen million dollars or over, according to the last approved tax rolls, there shall be biennially appointed an auditor of accounts and finances, the title of said officer to be county auditor, who shall hold his office for two years, and who shall receive as compensation for his services one hundred and twenty-five dollars for each million dollars, or major portion thereof, of the assessed valuation, the annual salary to be computed from the last approved tax rolls, said annual salary from county funds shall not exceed thirty-six hundred dollars, to be paid monthly out of the general funds of the county upon an order of the commissioners court. [Acts 1905, p. 381; Acts 1907, p. 315; Acts 1915, p. 203; Acts 1917, p. 337; Acts 1923, p. 391.]

Art. 1646. Auditors for other counties.—When the commissioners court of a county, not mentioned and enumerated in the preceding article shall determine that an auditor is a public necessity in the dispatch of the county business and shall enter an order upon the minutes of said court fully setting out the reasons and necessity of an auditor, and shall cause said order to be certified to the district judges having jurisdiction in the county, said judges shall, if such reason be considered good and sufficient, appoint a county auditor, as provided in the succeeding article, who shall qualify and perform all the duties required of county auditors by the laws of this State; provided said judge shall have the power to discontinue the office of such county auditor at any time after the expiration of one year when it is clearly shown that such auditor is not a public necessity and his services are not commensurate with his salary received. [Acts 1917, p. 338.]

Art. 1646a. County auditors.—The commissioners' court of any county under twenty-five thousand population according to the last United States census may make an arrangement or agreement with one or more other counties whereby all counties, parties to the arrangement or agreement, may jointly employ and compensate a special auditor or auditors for the purposes specified in Articles 1645 and 1646. The county commissioners' court of every county affected by this article may have an audit made of all the books of the county, or any of them, at any time they may desire whether such arrangements can be made with other counties or not; provided the district judge or grand jury may order said audit if either so desires. [Acts 1925, p. 220.]

Art. 1647. [1461] Appointment.—The district judges having jurisdiction in the county, shall appoint the county auditor at a special meeting held for that purpose, a majority ruling; provided, that if a majority of such judges fail to agree upon the selection of some person as auditor, then either of said judges shall certify such fact to the Governor, who shall thereupon appoint some other district judge to act and vote with the aforesaid judges in the selection of such auditor. The action shall then be recorded in the minutes of the district court of the county and the clerk thereof shall certify the same to the commissioners court, which shall cause the same to be recorded in its minutes together with an order directing the payment of the auditor's salary. [Id.; Acts 1905, p. 381; Acts 1915, p. 182.]

Art. 1648. [1462] Qualification.—Said auditor shall be a citizen of the county of at least two years residence, and must be a man of unquestionable good moral character and intelligence, thoroughly competent in public business details; and he must be a competent accountant of at least two years experience in auditing and accounting. The judges making such appointments must first carefully investigate and consider the qualifications of said person. If no such qualified citizen of the county can be procured, said judges may appoint a qualified citizen from another county. [Id.]

Art. 1649. [1463] Bond and oath.—The auditor shall, within twenty days of his appointment, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, make a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the commissioners court. He shall also take the official oath and an additional one in writing, stating that he is in every way qualified under the provisions and requirements of this title, and giving fully the positions of private or public trust he has heretofore held, and the length of service under each. He shall further include in his oath that he will not personally be interested in any contract with the county. [Acts 1905, p. 381.]

Art. 1650. [1464-5-6] Organization.—The auditor may at any time with the consent of the county judge appoint an assistant to act in his stead, who may discharge the duties of the auditor during his absence or unavoidable detention. The county judge shall require said assistant to take the usual oath of office for faithful performance of duty. The auditor with the consent of the county judge or of the commissioners court may appoint additional clerical help when needed. He shall provide himself with all necessary ledgers, books, records, blanks and stationery at the county's expense. [Id.]

Art. 1651. [1467-73] General duties.—The auditor shall have a general oversight of all the books and records of all the officers of the county, district or State, who may be authorized or required by law to receive or collect any money, funds, fees or other property for the use of, or belonging to, the county; and he shall see to the strict enforcement of the law governing county finances. [Id.]

Art. 1652. School ledger.—The auditor shall install in his office a school ledger showing an accurate account of all funds received and disbursed by the common school districts of his county; a bond register showing all the school bonds issued by the common school districts of his county, their rate of interest, date issued and maturity date; and he shall also keep an interest and sinking fund account of such school bonds. [Acts 1917, p. 337.]

Art. 1653. [1468] To examine accounts.—He shall have continual access to and shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of any officer, the orders of the commissioners court, relating to finances of the county, and all vouchers given by the trustee of all common school districts of the county and shall inquire into the correctness of same. [Id.; Acts 1905, p. 381.]

Art. 1654. [1469-70-71] To examine reports.—All reports of collections of money for the county required to be made to the commissioners court shall also be carefully examined and reported on by him. He shall at least once in each quarter check the books and examine all the reports of the tax collector, the treasurer and all other officers, in detail, verifying the footings and correctness of same, and shall stamp his approval thereon, or note any differences, errors or discrepancies. He shall carefully examine the quarterly report of the treasurer, of all the disbursements, together with the canceled warrants which have been paid, and shall verify the same with the register of warrants issued as shown on the books of the auditor. [Id.]

Art. 1655. [1472-4-5] To count cash.—The auditor, without giving any notice beforehand, shall examine fully into the condition of, or inspect and count the cash in the hands of the county treasurer, or in the bank in which he may have placed same for safe keeping, not less than once in each quarter, and oftener if desired, and shall see that all balances to the credit of the various funds are actually on hand in cash, and that none of said funds are invested in any manner, except as the law may authorize. [Id.]

Art. 1656. [1476-7] To prescribe forms and rules.—He shall prescribe and prepare the forms to be used by all persons in the collection of county revenues, funds, fees and all other moneys, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and the time, mode and manner of making their reports to the auditor, also the mode and manner of making their annual report of office fees collected and disbursed, and the amount refunded to the county in excess of those allowed under the general fee bill law. He shall have power to adopt and enforce such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper collection, checking and accounting of the revenues and other funds and fees belonging to the county. [Id.]

Art. 1657. [1478] Deposits.—All deposits that are made in the county treasury shall be upon a deposit warrant issued by the county clerk in triplicate; said warrants shall authorize the treasurer to receive the amount named, for what purpose, and to which fund the same shall be applied. The treasurer shall retain the original; and the duplicate shall be signed and returned to the county clerk for the county auditor, and the triplicate signed and returned to the depositor. The auditor shall then enter same upon his books, charging the amounts to the county treasurer and crediting the party depositing same. The treasurer shall not, under any circumstances, receive any money in any other manner than that named herein. [Id.]

Art. 1658. [1479] Bids for supplies.—Bids shall be asked for all supplies of stationery, books, blanks, records, and other supplies for the various officers for which the county is required to pay, and the purchase made from the lowest bidder, after filing said bid with the auditor for record. [Id.]

Art. 1659. [1480] Bids for material.—Supplies of every kind, road and bridge material, or any other material, for the use of said county, or any of its officers, departments, or institutions must be purchased on competitive bids, the contract to be awarded to the party who, in the judgment of the commissioners court, has submitted the lowest and best bid. The county auditor shall advertise for a period of two weeks in at least one daily newspaper, published and circulated in the county, for such supplies and material according to specifications, giving in detail what is needed. Such advertisement shall state where the specifications are to be found, and shall give the time and place for receiving such bids. All such competitive bids shall be kept on file by the county auditor as a part of the records of his office, and shall be subject to inspection by any one desiring to see them. Copies of all bids received shall be furnished by the county auditor to the county judge and to the commissioners court; and when the bids received are not satisfactory to the said judge or county commissioners, the auditor shall reject said bids and re-advertise for new bids. In cases of emergency, purchases not in excess of one hundred and fifty dollars may be made upon requisition to be approved by the commissioners court, without advertising for competitive bids. [Id.; Acts 1921, p. 185.]

Art. 1660. [1481-2-3] Approval of claims.—All claims, bills and accounts against the county must be filed in ample time for the auditor to examine and approve same before the meetings of the commissioners court. No claim, bill or account shall be allowed or paid until it has been examined and approved by the county auditor. The auditor shall examine the same and stamp his approval thereon. If he deems it necessary, all such accounts, bill, or claims must be verified by affidavit touching the correctness of the same. The auditor is hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purposes of this law. [Acts 1905, p. 381.]

Art. 1661. [1484-5] Requisites of approval.—He shall not audit or approve any such claim unless it has been contracted as provided by law, nor any account for the purchase of supplies or materials for the use of said county or any of its officers, unless, in addition to other requirements of law, there is attached thereto a requisition signed by the officer ordering same and approved by the county judge. Said requisition must be made out and signed and approved in triplicate by the said officers, the triplicate to remain with the officer desiring the purchase, the duplicate to be filed with the county auditor, and the original to be delivered to the party from whom said purchase is to be made before any purchase shall be made. All warrants on the county treasurer, except warrants for jury service, must be countersigned by the county auditor. [Id.]

Art. 1662. [1486] Register of warrants.—He shall keep a register of all warrants issued by the judges or the district or county clerks on the county treasurer, and their dates of payment by the treasurer. Such clerks or judges shall daily furnish the auditor an itemized report specifying the warrants that have been issued, their numbers, their several amounts, the names of the persons to whom payable, and for what purpose, on forms prepared by the auditor. [Id.]

Art. 1663. [1487-8] Accounts with officers.—He shall keep an account with each person named in the preceding articles and in doing so he shall relieve the county clerk of keeping the finance ledger. His books shall show the detailed items of the indebtedness against all of said officers and the manner of discharging same. He shall require all persons who shall have received any moneys belonging to the county, or having the disposition or management of any property of the county to render statements to him. [Id.]

Art. 1664. [1489-90] General accounts.—He shall keep a general set of books showing all the transactions of the county relating to accounts, contracts, indebtedness of the county, and its receipts and disbursements of all kinds, and shall make tabulated reports of said funds and accounts for each regular meeting of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 1665. [1491] Reports to commissioners.—He shall make quarterly and annual reports to the commissioners court, setting forth all the facts of interest, and showing the aggregate amounts received and disbursed out of each fund, the condition of each account on the books, the amount of bonded and other indebtedness of the county, together with such other information and suggestions as he may deem proper, or said court may require. Said annual report shall be made to include all transactions during the year ending July 31 of each year, and shall be completed and filed at a special term of the commissioners court in September. [Id.]

Art. 1666. [1492-3-4] Budget.—He shall prepare an estimate of all the revenues and expenses, and annually submit it to the commissioners court, which court shall carefully make a budget of all appropriations to be set aside for the various expenses of the county government in each branch and department. He shall open an account with each appropriation in said budget, and all warrants drawn against same shall be entered to said account. He shall carefully keep an oversight of same to see that the expenses of any department do not exceed said budget appropriations, and keep said court advised of the condition of said appropriation accounts from time to time. [Id.]

Art. 1667. Improvement district finances.—In all counties which have or may have a county auditor, and containing a population of 110,000 or more, as shown by the preceding Federal census, in which there exists or in which there may be created any improvement, navigation, drainage, road or irrigation district, or any other character of district having for its purpose the expenditure of public funds for improvement purposes, or for improvements of any kind, whether derived from the issuance of bonds or through any character of special assessment, the county auditor shall exercise such control over the finances of said districts as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1915, p. 17.]

Art. 1668. Improvement districts: supplies.—All purchases for supplies and materials, and all contracts for labor on behalf of any such districts shall be made in accordance with the law governing such districts, provided, that the commissioners or other governing body be authorized, without the taking of bids in cases of emergency to make purchases or contracts not to exceed the sum of fifty dollars, upon requisition signed by at least two members of the governing body of such district. A requisition shall be issued therefor, executed in triplicate, one copy to be delivered to the person or corporation from whom the purchase is made, one to be delivered to the county auditor, and one to remain on file with the governing body of such district before any purchase shall be made. [Id.]

Art. 1669. Improvement districts: expenditures.— All bills for supplies, materials, labor, work or anything necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of any such district shall be contracted in accordance with the law creating and governing such district, except as may be otherwise provided herein. The proper officers of said districts shall file all bills with the county auditor before payment, and he shall audit and approve the same, provided said bills have been contracted in accordance with law and are found by him to be correct, and no bill shall be paid until the same has been audited and approved by the county auditor as provided by this article. All warrants in payment of bills of any such districts shall be drawn and signed in accordance with the law governing the issuance of warrants of such district, and shall be countersigned by the county auditor, and no treasurer or other depository of any such districts shall pay out any money except upon warrants so duly countersigned. He shall countersign warrants for the investment of funds only when invested in the manner authorized by law. He shall keep an accurate account of all balances on hand in the various district funds. [Id.]

Art. 1670. Improvement districts: forms.—The county auditor from time to time shall prescribe and prepare all necessary forms for the use of any of such districts in the payment of bills, collection and disbursements of money, keeping of accounts, and the making of reports; the expense of necessary printing and stationery used therefor shall be paid by the district. [Id.]

Art. 1671. Improvement districts: reports.—The county auditor shall check all reports required by law to be filed by any district officer, and within thirty days after the filing thereof shall make a detailed report to the commissioners court showing his finding thereon and the condition of such district as shown by said report, and as shown by the records of his office. He shall keep a set of books, showing all receipts and expenditures of the funds of such districts. It shall not be lawful for the treasurer or other depository to receive money for said district without executing proper receipts upon forms to be provided by the county auditor. All books, accounts, records, bills and warrants in the possession of any officer of any such district, or in the possession of any other person legally charged with their custody, shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the county auditor.

Art. 1672. Improvement districts: compensation.—The county auditor shall receive for his services in auditing the affairs of such districts, such compensation as the commissioners court may prescribe, which shall be paid by the county out of the general fund and repaid to the county by such districts by warrants drawn upon the proper funds of such district. In such counties which have or may have as many as five such districts, the compensation allowed the county auditor for his services on behalf of such districts shall be not less than the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum, to be prorated among the districts in such proportion as the commissioners court may determine. [Id.]

Art. 1673. Pay of assistants.—In all counties having a population of one hundred and ten thousand or more, as shown by the preceding Federal census, the county auditor may appoint two assistants. He may also appoint a stenographer. The rate of pay for said assistants and stenographer shall be the same as fixed by general law for the payment of deputies or assistants to other officers. In addition to the assistants provided for in this article, the county auditor may appoint, by and with the consent of the county judge, or of the commissioners' court, such additional assistants as may be necessary to the proper conduct of his office. All of said assistants shall take the official oath, and shall be paid out of the general fund of the county upon the order of the commissioners' court. [Id.]

Art. 1674. [1495] Provisions controlling.—The provisions of this subdivision are cumulative, and, where conflicting with any existing law, the provisions of this subdivision shall control. [Acts 1905, p. 381.]

Art. 1675. [1496] County clerk's duties.—Where the provisions of this subdivision impose upon the auditor like duties as are required of the county clerk, the provisions of this law shall prevail, and to such extent only is the county clerk relieved of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 1676. [1497] Removal of auditor.—An auditor appointed under the provisions of law, who has been sufficiently proven guilty of official misconduct, or has proven to be incompetent to faithfully discharge the duties required of him, after due investigation by the same power which appointed him, may be removed, and his successor appointed. [Id.]

Art. 1677. Authority to establish.—The commissioners court of any county may establish, maintain, and operate within their respective counties, county free libraries in the manner and with the functions prescribed in this title. The said court shall also have the power and authority to establish in co-operation with another county or counties a joint free county library for the benefit of the co-operative counties. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 219.]

Art. 1678. Territory.—The commissioners court of any county may establish county free libraries for that part of such county lying outside of the incorporated cities and towns already maintaining free public libraries and for such additional parts of such counties as may elect to become a part of or to participate in such county free library system. On their own initiative, or when petitioned to do so by a majority of the voters of that part of the county to be affected, said court shall proceed to establish and provide for the maintenance of such library according to the further provisions of this title. The county library shall be located at the county seat in the court house, unless more suitable quarters are available. [Id.]

Art. 1679. Tax for maintenance.—After a county free library has been established, the commissioners court shall annually set aside from the general tax fund of the county, a sum sufficient for the maintenance of said library, but not to exceed five cents on the hundred dollars valuation of all property in such county outside of all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free public library, and upon all property within all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free public library, and upon all property within all incorporated cities and towns already supporting a free public library which have elected to become a part of such free library systems provided in this title for the purpose of maintaining county free libraries and for purchasing property therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1680. Gifts and bequests.—The commissioners court is authorized and empowered to receive on behalf of the county any gift, bequest, or devise for the county free library, or for any branch or subdivision thereof. The title to all property belonging to the county free library shall be vested in the county, but where the gifts or bequests shall be made for the benefit of any branch or branches of the county free library, such gifts or bequests shall be administered as designed by the donor. [Id.]

Art. 1681. Existing libraries.—In any county where a farmers' county library has been established as provided by former laws the same shall continue to operate as a farmers' county library, unless a county free library shall be established as provided for in this title, in which case the former shall merge with and become a part of the latter. [Id.]

Art. 1682. Board of examiners.—A commission is hereby created to be known as the State Board of Library Examiners, consisting of the State Librarian, who shall be ex-officio chairman of the Board; the Librarian of the State University, who shall be an ex-officio member; and three other well trained librarians of the State who shall at first be selected by the State Librarian and the Librarian of the State University. The term of each shall be for six years, one of the appointive members retiring every two years. His successor shall be chosen by the remaining members of the Board in executive session. The members of said board shall receive no compensation for their services except actual and necessary traveling expenses paid out of the State library fund. Said Board shall arrange for an annual meeting and for such other meetings as may be necessary in the pursuance of its duties. Said board shall pass upon the qualifications of all persons desiring to become county librarians in the State of Texas, and may in writing adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law for its government and for carrying out the purposes of this title [Id.]

Art. 1683. County librarian.—Upon the establishment of a county free library the commissioners court shall biennially appoint a county librarian who shall hold office for a term of two years subject to removal for cause after a hearing by said court. No person shall be eligible to the office of county librarian unless prior to his appointment he has received from the State Board of Library Examiners a certificate of qualification for office. The county librarian shall prior to entering upon the duties of his office, file with the county clerk the official oath and make a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties with sufficient sureties approved by the county judge of the county of which the librarian is to be the county librarian, in such sum as the commissioners court may determine. [Id.]

Art. 1684. Salary and expenses.—The salary of the librarian and assistants shall be fixed by said court at the time they fix the salary of the appointive county officers. The county librarian and assistants shall be allowed actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the business of the library. [Id.]

Art. 1685. Duty of librarian.—The librarian shall endeavor to give an equal and complete service to all parts of the county through branch libraries and deposit stations in schools and other locations where suitable quarters may be obtained, thus distributing printed matter, books, and other educational matter as quickly as circumstances will permit. The county librarian shall have the power to make rules and regulations for the county free library, to establish branches and stations throughout the county, to determine the number and kind of employes of such library, and, with the approval of the commissioners' court, to appoint and dismiss such employes. The county librarian shall, subject to the general rules adopted by the commissioners' court, build up and manage according to accepted rules of library management, a library for the people of the county and shall determine what books and other library equipment shall be purchased. [Id.]

Art. 1686. Report of librarian.—The librarian of each county library shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, report to the commissioners court and to the State Librarian the operation of the county library during the year ending August 31st preceding. Such report shall be made on blanks furnished by the State librarian, and shall contain a statement of the condition of the library, its operation during the year, and such financial and book statistics as are kept in well regulated libraries. [Id.]

Art. 1687. Supervision of library.—The county library shall be under the general supervision of the commissioners court. Such libraries shall also be under the supervision of the State Librarian, who shall, from time to time, either personally or by one of his assistants, visit the county free libraries and inquire into their condition, advising with the librarians and said court and rendering such assistance in all matters as he may be able to give. [Id.]

Art. 1688. Use of library.—Any white person of such county may use the county free library under the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioners court and may be entitled to all the privileges thereof. Said court shall make proper provision for the negroes of said county to be served through a separate branch or branches of the county free library, which shall be administered by custodian of the negro race under the supervision of the county librarian. [Id.]

Art. 1689. Funds for library.—All funds of the county free library shall be in the custody of the county treasurer, or other county official, who may discharge the duties commonly delegated to the county treasurer. They shall constitute a separate fund to be known as the county free library fund, and shall not be used for any other purposes except those of a county free library. Each claim against the county free library shall be authorized and approved by the county librarian, or in his absence from the county, by his assistant. It shall then be acted upon in the same manner as are all other claims against the county. [Id.]

Art. 1690. Joinder with city.—After the establishment of a county free library the governing body of any incorporated city or town in the county, maintaining a free public library, may notify the commissioners court that such city or town desires to become a part of the county free library system, and thereafter such city or town shall be a part thereof, and its inhabitants shall be entitled to the benefits of such county free library, and the property within such town or city shall be included in computing the amount to be set aside as a fund for county free library purposes. [Id.]

Art. 1691. Contract with city.—The commissioners court wherein a county free library has been established under the provisions of this title, shall have full power and authority to enter into contracts with any incorporated city or town maintaining a public free library, and such incorporated city or town shall through its governing body, have full power to enter into contracts with such county to secure to the residents of such incorporated city or town the same privileges of the county free library as are enjoyed by the residents of such county outside of such incorporated city or town, or such privileges as may be agreed upon in such contract, upon such consideration to be named in the contract as may be agreed upon, the same to be paid into the county library fund, and thereupon the residents of such incorporated city or town shall have the same privileges with regard to said county free library as are had by the residents of such county outside of such incorporated city or town, or such privileges as may be agreed upon by contract. [Id.]

Art. 1692. Withdrawal of city.—The governing body of such incorporated city or town may at any time after two years notify the commissioners court that such city or town no longer desires to be a part of the county free library system and thereafter such city or town shall cease to participate in the benefits of such county free library system, and the property situated in said city or town shall no longer be assessed in computing the fund to be set aside for county free library purposes. The governing body of such city or town shall give the commissioners court six months notice and publish at least once a week for six successive weeks prior to either giving or withdrawing such notice in a county newspaper designated by the governing body, and circulated throughout such city or town, notice of such contemplated action, giving date and place of meeting at which such contemplated action is proposed to be taken. [Id.]

Art. 1693. Contract with another county.—The commissioners court of any county, wherein a county free library has been established under the provisions of this title, shall have full power and authority to enter into contracts or agreements with the commissioners court of any other county to secure to the residents of such other county such privileges of such county free library as may, by such contract, be agreed upon, the same to be paid into the county free library fund, and thereupon the inhabitants of such other county shall have the privilege of such county free library as may by such contract be agreed upon; and the commissioners court shall have full power and authority to enter into a contract with the commissioners court of another county wherein a county free library has been established, under the provisions of this title and shall have power to provide for and to set aside a county free library fund, in the manner already set out, for the purpose of carrying out such contract. But the making of such contract shall not bar the commissioners court of such county from establishing a county free library therein, and upon the establishment of such county free library such contract may be terminated upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the parties thereto, or may continue for the term thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1694. Contract with established library.— Instead of establishing a separate county free library, upon petition of a majority of the voters of the county, the commissioners court may contract for library privileges from some already established library. Such contract shall provide that such established library shall assume the functions of a county free library within the county with which the contract is made, including incorporated cities and towns therein, and shall also provide that the librarian of such established library shall hold or secure a county librarian's certificate from the State Board of Library Examiners. Said court may contract to pay annually into the library fund of said established library such sum as may be agreed upon, to be paid out of the county library fund. Either party to such contract may terminate the same by giving six months notice of intention to do so. Property acquired under such contract shall be subject to division at the termination of the contract upon such terms as are specified in such contract.

Art. 1695. Combined counties.— Where found to be more practicable, two or more adjacent counties may join for the purposes of this law and establish and maintain a free library under the terms and provisions above set forth for the establishment and maintenance of a county free library. In such cases the combined counties shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as a single county as provided in this law. The commissioners courts of the counties which have combined for the establishment and maintenance of a free library shall operate jointly in the same manner as does the commissioners court of a single county in carrying out the provisions of this law. If any county desires to withdraw from such combination it shall be entitled to a division of property in such proportion as agreed upon in the terms of combination at the time such joint action was taken. [Id.]

Art. 1696. Termination of library.— A county free library may be disestablished upon petition of a majority of the voters of that part of the county maintaining a county free library, asking that said library system be no longer maintained. The commissioners court upon the termination of existing contracts shall call in all books and movable property of the defunct county free library, and have same inventoried and stored under lock and seal in some dry and suitable place in the county court house. [Id.]

Art. 1697. Establishment of library.—A county law library may be established at the county seat by the commissioners court of any county containing a city of over 160,000 population according to the preceding Federal census. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 21.]

Art. 1698. Appropriation for library.—The commissioners court of any such county may establish and provide for the maintenance of such law library on its own initiative and appropriate therefor the sum of $20,000.00 or such part thereof as it deems necessary, and shall appropriate each such sum as may be necessary to properly maintain and operate such library. [Id.]

Art. 1699. Rules and regulations.—Said court may make all rules and regulations necessary or proper for the establishment, maintenance, operation and use of said library not in conflict with the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1700. Custodian.—Upon the establishment of a county law library the commissioners court shall employ a custodian or custodians of such library, who shall receive such pay as said court may fix. Each custodian shall execute a bond in the sum fixed by the court payable to and to be approved by the county judge of said county, conditioned that such custodian will faithfully perform his duties. [Id.]

Art. 1701. Gifts and bequests.—The commissioners court may receive on behalf of the county any gift or bequest for such library. The title to all such property shall be vested in the county. Where any gift or bequest is made with certain conditions, and accepted by the county, these conditions shall be administered as designated by the donor. [Id.]

Art. 1702. Funds of library.—All funds of such library shall be in custody of the county treasurer of such county. They shall be a separate fund and shall be used for no purpose other than for such library. Each claim against the county law library shall be acted upon in like manner as other claims against the county. [Id.]

Art. 1703. [1499] [919] [987] Election and term.—A county treasurer shall be elected at each regular general election for a term of two years. [Const. Art. 16, Sec. 44; Acts 1876, p. 199; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1035.]

Art. 1704. [1500] [920] [988] Bond.—The county treasurer before entering upon the duties of his office, and within twenty days after he has received his certificate of election, shall give a bond payable to the county judge of his county, to be approved by the commissioners court, in such sum as such court may deem necessary, conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over according to law all moneys which shall come into his hands as county treasurer, and render a true account thereof to said court at each regular term of said court. [Acts 1846, p. 338; P. D. 1096; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1644.]

Art. 1705. [1501] [922] [990] New bond.—The commissioners court, whenever they may consider the bonds, or either of the bonds, of a county treasurer, from any cause, insufficient or doubtful, shall require such treasurer to give another bond or bonds, or to give additional bond or bonds, as the case may be.

Art. 1706. [1502] [823] [991] Office declared vacant.—If the person elected treasurer fails to give the bonds required by this title and take the official oath within twenty days after receiving his certificate of election, it shall be the duty of the county judge to declare the said office vacant; and, should a treasurer fail to give another or an additional bond or bonds when required to do so, as provided in the preceding article, within twenty days after notice of such requirement, he shall be removed from said office in the manner provided by law.

Art. 1707. [1503] [924] [992] Vacancy, how filled.—In case of vacancy in the office of the county treasurer, the commissioners court of the county in which such vacancy occurs shall fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointment to be made by a majority vote of the commissioners present, at a regular or special term of such court. Such appointment shall continue in force until the next general election. [Acts 1876, p. 217; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1053.]

Art. 1708. [1504] [925] [993] Appointee: oath and bond.—The person appointed to fill the vacancy, as provided in the preceding article, shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of such office, and within twenty days after he has been notified of such appointment, take the oath and give the bonds required, as in the case of an election to such office. [Id.]

Art. 1709. [1505] [926] [994] Moneys belonging to county.—The county treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the county from whatever source they may be derived, and pay and apply the same as required by law, in such manner as the commissioners court of his county may require and direct. [Acts 1846, p. 338; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1644; P. D. 1097.]

Art. 1710. [1506] [927] [995] Accounts.—The county treasurer shall keep a true account of the receipts and expenditures of all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the debts due to and from his county; and direct prosecutions according to law for the recovery of all debts that may be due his county, and superintend the collection thereof. [Id; P. D. 1098.]

Art. 1711. [1507] [928] [996] Report to commissioners court.—He shall render a detailed report at every regular term of the commissioners court of his county of all the moneys received and disbursed by him, of all debts due to and from his county, and of all other proceedings in his office, and shall exhibit to said court at every such term all his books and accounts for their inspection and all vouchers relating to the same, to be audited and allowed. [Id; P. D. 1099.]

Art. 1712. [1508] [929] [997] Deliver money, etc., to successor.—He shall deliver the moneys, securities, and all other property of the county in his hands, together with all documents, instruments of writing, papers and books belonging to, or for the use of the county, to his successor in office, and perform all such other acts as may be required of him by said commissioners court. [Id; P. D. 1100.]

Art. 1713. [1509] [930] [998] Shall not pay out money, except.—The county treasurer shall not pay any money out of the county treasury except in pursuance of a certificate or warrant from some officer authorized by law to issue the same; and, if such treasurer shall have any doubt of the legality or propriety of any order, decree, certificate or warrant presented to him for payment, he shall not pay the same, but shall make report thereof to the commissioners court for their consideration and direction. [P. D. 1101.]

Art. 1714. [1510] [931] [999] To examine docket, accounts, etc.—He shall examine the accounts, dockets and records of the clerks, sheriff, justices of the peace, constables and tax collector of his county, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any moneys of right belonging to his county are in their hands which have not been accounted for and paid over according to law, and shall report the same to the commissioners court at their next term, to the end that suit may be instituted for the recovery thereof. [Id; P. D. 1102.]

Art. 1715. [1512-13] Judges.—The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices, any two of whom shall be a quorum. The concurrence of two judges shall be necessary to the decision of a case. One Justice of said Court shall biennially be elected for a term of six years, the classification to be as now constituted by law. In case of a vacancy in the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill such vacancy until the next general election, and at such election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 2; Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1716. [1514] [935] [1003] Qualifications.—No person shall be eligible to be a Justice of the Supreme Court, unless he be, at the time of his election, at least thirty years of age, a citizen of the United States and of this State, and has been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in this State, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years. [Id.]

Art. 1717. [1516-17] Disqualification.—When the Court or any two of its members shall be disqualified to hear and determine any cause in said Court, or when the Judges of said Court shall be equally divided in opinion by reason of the absence or disqualification of one of its members, the same shall be certified by the presiding Judge to the Governor who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons possessing the qualifications prescribed for Judges of the Supreme Court to try and determine said cause. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 11; Acts May 12, 1846; P. D. 1575; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1561.]

Art. 1718. [1530-32] Appointment of Clerk.—The Supreme Court shall appoint for a term of four years one clerk who shall reside at Austin. Such appointment shall be recorded in the proceedings of the Court. Such appointee shall first give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Court, payable to the Governor and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. He may be removed by the Court for neglect of duty or misconduct in office, after ten days' previous notice of the motion specifying the particular charges of negligence or misconduct in office preferred, and the Court shall determine the law and facts. The Court may whenever necessary appoint a clerk pro tempore. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1719. [1531] [951] [1018] Vacancy in vacation.—If the office of clerk becomes vacant in vacation, an appointment shall be made by the Chief Justice and one of the Associates. The appointee shall give the prescribed bond and oath, the bond to be approved by any judge of the Court. Such appointment shall continue until a regular appointment shall be made. [Acts 1846, p. 250; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1557.]

Art. 1720. [1532 to 1535] Duties of clerk.—The clerk shall:

1. Collect and pay into the State Treasury all fees and costs collected by him over and above the salaries allowed him and his deputies, under rules prescribed by the Comptroller and approved by the Judges of the Supreme Court and recorded in the minutes of the Court.

2. Procure a seal for the use of the Court, which shall have a star of five points, with the words, "Supreme Court of the State of Texas" engraved thereon.

3. File and carefully preserve the transcripts of all records certified to said Court, and all papers relative thereto, and shall docket all causes in the order in which the Court shall direct, and shall faithfully record the proceedings and decisions of said Court, and certify its judgments to the courts from which the cases were brought.

Art. 1721. [1536] [1023] Deputy clerks.—When authorized by the Court by an order recorded in the minutes, the clerk may appoint one or more deputies who may discharge the duties required by law of the clerk, and who shall give bond in like sum and conditions required of the clerk, to be approved by the Court. The compensation of such deputies shall be unanimously agreed upon by the Judges and their action recorded in the minutes of the Court, such compensation not to exceed two thousand dollars a year for the first deputy and one thousand dollars a year for the second deputy, to be paid out of the fees collected. The Court in its discretion may dispense with the services of one or both such deputies temporarily or permanently. [Acts 1903, p. 115.]

Art. 1722. [1537-8] Library.—The library of the Supreme Court shall be open to the public under such rules as the Court may prescribe. The books shall not be removed from the library room, except by the Judges of the Courts and by members of the Legislature during its sessions, upon their receipt for the same.

The clerk of the Supreme Court shall be librarian in charge of the library of said Court. The Chief Justice shall appoint an assistant librarian who may also act as marshal for said Court when required by the Court. The assistant librarian shall have immediate charge of the library and shall keep it open, except Sundays and holidays, from eight a. m. to five p. m., and shall make catalogs of the books and keep them in order. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383; Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 462.]

Art. 1723. [1520-39] Stenographers and bailiff.—The Court may appoint not more than three stenographers, at a salary to be fixed by the Court, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per month, and may appoint a bailiff to attend the sitting of the Court. [Acts 1915, p. 119.]

Art. 1724. [1572-74] Reporter.—The Court shall appoint to serve at the will of the Court one or more licensed attorneys to report the decisions of the Supreme Court. The reporter shall obtain from the proper clerk the records of cases to be reported, with the briefs and opinions therein, as soon as such cases are finally disposed of and the opinions are recorded, which shall be returned after the report thereof is completed. He shall under the direction of the Court, without delay, prepare for publication such decisions with appropriate syllabus and statements when necessary, with proper index, table of cases cited and cases reported, and shall, from time to time, deliver the same to the Board of Control for publication. [Acts 1919, p. 60.]

Art. 1725. [1575-77] Reports.—The Court shall designate the cases to be reported; and only those designated shall be reported and published. Only the main propositions made in the briefs and considered by the Court in the opinion, with the authorities cited in support of such propositions, shall be incorporated in the report. Each volume shall be copyrighted in the name of the reporter, who shall immediately on delivery of the edition transfer and assign the same to the State. It shall be electrotyped, and the plates shall be owned by the State and preserved by the Board of Control. [Id.]

Art. 1726. [1518] [937] [1005] Terms of Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court shall hold one term each year at the city of Austin, commencing on the first Monday in October, and ending on the last Saturday in the next June. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383; Const. Art. 5, Sec. 2.]

Art. 1727. [1519] [938] [1010] Adjournment.—The Court may adjourn from day to day, or for such period as it deems necessary to the ends of justice and the determination of the business before them; and there shall be no discontinuance of any suit, process or matter returned to, or pending in, the Supreme Court, although a quorum of the Court may not be in attendance at the commencement or on any other day of the term. If a sufficient number of the judges shall not attend on any day of the term, any judge of the Court, or the bailiff attending, may adjourn the Court from time to time. [Acts 1846, p. 254; P. D. 1574; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1560.]

Art. 1728. [1521] [940] [1011] Appellate jurisdiction.—

The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, extending to all questions of law arising in the following cases when same have been brought to the Courts of Civil Appeals from final judgment of trial courts:

1. Those in which the judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals may disagree upon any question of law material to the decision.
2. Those in which one of the Courts of Civil Appeals holds differently from a prior decision of its own, or of another Court of Civil Appeals, or of the Supreme Court upon any such question of law.
3. Those involving the construction or the validity of statutes.

4. Those involving the revenues of the State.

5. Those in which the Railroad Commission is a party.

6. In any other case in which it is made to appear that an error of law has been committed by the Court of Civil Appeals of such importance to the jurisprudence of the State as in the opinion of the Supreme Court requires correction, but excluding those cases in which the jurisdiction of the Court of Civil Appeals is made final by statutes. Upon the showing of such an error the Supreme Court may in its discretion grant a writ of error for the purpose of revising the decision upon such question alone and of conforming its judgment to the decision thereof made by it. [Acts 1892, p. 19; Acts 1913, p. 107; Acts 1917, p. 140; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1729. [1522] [941] [1011] Writ of error or certificate.—All causes mentioned in the preceding article may be carried to the Supreme Court either by writ of error or by certificate from the Court of Civil Appeals, but the Court of Civil Appeals may certify any question of law arising in any such case at any time they may choose, whether before or after the decision of the case in said Court. [Acts 1892, p. 19; Acts 1895, p. 145; Acts 1913, p. 107; Acts 1917, p. 140; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 383, 875.]

Art. 1730. [1523] [944] [1011] Court to make rules.—The Supreme Court shall from time to time make and promulgate suitable rules, forms and regulations for carrying into effect the articles in this title relating to the jurisdiction and practice of said Court. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1731. [1524] [947] [1014] Rules of practice.—The Court may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the law, for the government of said Court and all other courts of the State, so as to expedite the dispatch of business in said courts. [Id.]

Art. 1732. [1525] [945] [1011] Jurisdictional facts.—It shall have the power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as the Court may determine, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 1733. [1526] May issue writs.—The Supreme Court or any Justice thereof, shall have power to issue writs of procedendo, certiorari and all writs of quo warranto or mandamus agreeable to the principles of law regulating such writs, against any district judge, or Court of Civil Appeals or judges thereof, or any officer of the State Government, except the Governor. [Id; Acts 1913, p. 107; Acts 1917, p. 140.]

Art. 1734. [1528] [949] [1016] May issue mandamus, etc.—Said Court or any judge thereof in vacation may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause agreeably to the principles and usages of law, returnable to the Supreme Court on or before the first day of the term, or during the session of the same, or before any judge of the said Court as the nature of the case may require. [P. D. 1579.]

Art. 1735. [5732] [4861] To issue only by Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court only shall have power, authority or jurisdiction to issue the writ of mandamus or injunction or any other mandatory or compulsory writ or process against any of the officers of the executive departments of the government of this State to order or compel the performance of any act or duty which, by the laws of this State, they, or either of them, are authorized to perform, whether such act or duty be judicial, ministerial or discretionary. [Acts 1881, p. 7; Acts 1917, p. 141.]

Art. 1736. [1527] [948] May punish for contempt.—The Supreme Court shall have power to punish any person for a contempt of such Court according to the principles and usages of law in like cases, not to exceed a fine of one thousand dollars and imprisonment in jail not exceeding twenty days. [Acts 1846, p. 255; P. D. 1577; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1561.]

Art. 1737. [1529] Habeas corpus.—The Supreme Court or any of the Justices thereof, either in term time or in vacation, may issue writs of habeas corpus in any case where any person is restrained in his liberty by virtue of any order, process or commitment issued by any court or judge on account of the violation of any order, judgment or decree theretofore made, rendered or entered by such court or judge in any civil cause. Said Court or any Justice thereof, either in term time or in vacation, pending the hearing of application for such writ, may admit to bail any person to whom the writ of habeas corpus may be so granted. [Acts 1905, p. 20.]

Art. 1738. [1587] Transfer of causes.—The Supreme Court shall at least once a year equalize, as nearly as practicable, the amount of business upon the dockets of the different Courts of Civil Appeals, by directing the transfer of cases from such of said Courts as may have the greater amount of business upon their dockets to those having a less amount. And Courts of Civil Appeals, to which such cases shall be transferred, shall have jurisdiction of all such cases transferred without regard to the districts in which cases were originally tried and returnable on appeal; cases transferred from any Court of Civil Appeals shall be taken from cases appealed from the counties nearest the place where the Court to which the cases are transferred is held. [Acts 1909, p. 38; Acts 1895, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 809.]

Art. 1739. [1545] Good cause to be shown.—The Supreme Court may review final judgments of Courts of Civil Appeals upon writ of error, when good cause therefor be shown by application for such writ, as hereinafter required, the sufficiency of such cause to be determined as herein provided. [Acts 1917, p. 140.]

Art. 1740. [1540] [942] Petition for writ of error.—A writ of error before the Supreme Court may be applied for by petition addressed to said Court, stating the nature of the case and the grounds upon which the writ of error is prayed for, and showing that the Supreme Court has jurisdiction thereof; and the petition shall contain such other requisites as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court. [Acts 1892, p. 22; Acts 1895, p. 144; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 386.]

Art. 1741. [1521-40] Requisites of application.— Until otherwise provided by rule of the Supreme Court, the application for a writ of error shall concisely state the question decided by the Court of Civil Appeals in which error is asserted. This shall be followed by only such brief and general statements as may be necessary to show that the question was involved in the cause and in the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals. More than one question may be presented in the same application. [Id.; Acts 1917, p. 140.]

Art. 1742. [1541] [942] Filing.—The petition shall be filed with the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals within thirty days from the overruling of the motion for rehearing. [Acts 1895, p. 144.]

Art. 1743. [1542] [942] Petition with record.—The petition with the original record in the case, and the opinions of the Court of Civil Appeals, and the motion filed therein, and certified copies of the judgments and orders of the Court of Civil Appeals and copy of the appeal or supersedeas bond shall be filed with the Supreme Court. The party applying for the writ of error shall deposit with the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals a sum sufficient to pay the expressage or carriage of the record to and from the clerk of the Supreme Court, which sum shall be charged as costs in the suit. [Id.]

Art. 1744. Reply to application.—Within ten days after the filing of the record in the Supreme Court the defendant in error may file a reply to the application for writ of error controverting the grounds alleged for granting the said writ, and may state reasons why the writ of error should not be granted. The Supreme Court may prescribe and enforce rules governing the proceedings by both parties under this law. If the defendant in error shall file such reply, the Supreme Court may finally dispose of the cause upon such application in the same manner and to the same extent as if the application had been granted and the cause set down for hearing, and its judgment shall be announced in open Court as in other cases, and an opinion may be filed as in the regular proceedings of the Court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1911, p. 108.]

Art. 1745. [1543] [943] May refer case back.—If a Court of Civil Appeals shall fail to file conclusions of fact, or to comply with the requirements of the law in filing such conclusions of fact, and such conclusions are necessary to enable the Supreme Court to properly determine the rights of the parties, the Court may suspend action on the petition for writ of error and return the record to the Court of Civil Appeals with instructions to make and return conclusions of fact upon the points indicated by the Supreme Court. [Acts 1901, p. 122; Acts 1892, p. 19; Acts 1913, p. 107; Acts 1917, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 384.]

Art. 1746. [1544] [943] Court shall decide.—If the Supreme Court shall find the case to be one of which it may take jurisdiction, it shall grant or refuse the writ of error or answer the questions certified by the Court of Civil Appeals, as the case may be. [Id; Acts 1913, p. 107; Acts 1917, p. 141.]

Art. 1747. [1545] [942] Bond.—When a writ of error is granted and the plaintiff in error has given no bond, the Supreme Court in granting the writ shall specify what bond shall be given; and the plaintiff in error shall file such bond in the trial court, to be approved by the clerk of said court, and a certified copy thereof shall be at once sent to the Supreme Court. Upon the filing of said certified copy, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue the proper citation in error. [Acts 1895, p. 144; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 874.]

Art. 1748. Designation of Civil Appeals Justices.—The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or any two Justices thereof may, by a writing recorded in the minutes of the Supreme Court, designate three of the Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals to act as hereinafter provided. Such powers may be exercised from time to time in the same manner as long as reason therefor may exist, and the personnel of the designated Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals may be changed as often as may be advisable, by relieving one, or more, and designating another, or others, in order to interfere as little as possible with the work of the Courts of Civil Appeals. Not more than one Justice shall be designated to serve at any one time from any one of these courts. [Acts 1917, p. 142.]

Art. 1749. Justices to assemble.—The Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals so designated, upon receiving notice thereof, shall assemble together at the State Capitol and take up, consider and act upon applications for writs of error as may be so referred to them, by granting, refusing or dismissing the same in accordance with the practice of the Supreme Court; and then such designated Justices may make such orders and give such directions, incidental to the consideration and disposition of the application. [Id.]

Art. 1750. Effect of granting or denying writ.—The granting of an application shall admit the cause into the Supreme Court to be proceeded with by the Court as provided by law. The refusal or dismissal of an application shall have the effect of denying the admission of the cause into the Supreme Court, except that motions for rehearing may be made to such designated Justices in the same way as such motions to the Supreme Court have been heretofore allowed. The refusal or dismissal of any application shall not be regarded as a precedent or authority. [Id.]

Art. 1751. Disqualification of Justice.—No one of such Justices shall participate in acting upon an application in a cause decided during his incumbency by the court of which he is a member. [Id.]

Art. 1752. Supreme Court may also act.—The Supreme Court shall still have power to act upon applications for writs of error, when deemed by it expedient. In any cause in which the Judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall have disagreed or shall have declared void a statute of the State, the application for writ of error shall be passed upon by the Supreme Court. [Id.]

Art. 1753. Powers.—The powers herein conferred upon the Justices of the Supreme Court and of the Courts of Civil Appeals are declared to be incidental to the offices held by them respectively. [Id.]

Art. 1754. Expenses of designated Justices.—Such designated Justices shall have all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of such additional duties, paid out of the State Treasury from warrants drawn by the Comptroller, upon itemized accounts of such expenses, verified by the affidavit of the claimant. [Id.]

Art. 1755. [1548] [971] [1042] Order of trial of causes.—Causes may be tried in such order as the Judges of said court may deem to the best interest and convenience of the parties or their attorneys. [Acts 1850, p. 171; P. D. 1585; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 609.]

Art. 1756. [1546] [967] [1033] Trial on questions of law.—Trials in the Supreme Court shall be only upon the questions of law upon which the writ of error was allowed, or which were certified to the Supreme Court from a Court of Civil Appeals. The Supreme Court may require the original transcript to be sent up. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 384.]

Art. 1757. [1547] [968] [1033] Briefs.—In all cases taken to the Supreme Court by writ of error, the briefs and arguments filed in the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be submitted to the Supreme Court; and, in addition thereto, the attorney for either party may file additional briefs, under such rules and regulations as the Supreme Court may prescribe.

Art. 1758. [1621-24] [1041] Certified question.—When a question of law has been certified by a Court of Civil Appeals to the Supreme Court upon receipt of the record from the lower court, the Supreme Court shall cause the clerk to docket the case and set it down for argument, and notice shall be given to the attorneys of record of the setting of the case at least fifteen days before the date of the hearing. [Acts 1893, p. 89.]

Art. 1759. [1622-25] Answer to question.—The Supreme Court, on receiving such record, and certified question of law, from the Court of Civil Appeals transmitting the same, shall examine such record and certified question of law, and render an opinion as in other cases; which opinion, when so rendered by the Supreme Court on the record and question of law presented therein, shall be final and shall be the law on the question involved until said opinion shall have been overruled by the Supreme Court or abrogated by legislative enactment, and the Court of Civil Appeals shall be governed thereby. After the question is decided, the Supreme Court shall immediately notify the lower court of its decision. [Acts 1893, p. 89; Acts 1899, p. 170.]

Art. 1760. [1549] [973] [1044] Death of parties no abatement.—If any party to the record in a cause pending in the Supreme Court dies after the writ of error has been served and before such cause has been decided by the Supreme Court, such cause shall not abate by such death; but the court shall proceed to adjudicate such cause and render judgment therein as if all the parties thereto were living, and such judgment shall have the same force and effect as if rendered in the life time of all the parties thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1761. [1566] [982] [1056] Process.—All writs and process issuing from the Supreme Court shall bear the test of the Chief Justice or presiding Judge of said court, and be under the seal of said court and signed by the clerk thereof, and may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the State, and shall be by such officer executed and returned according to the demand thereof. Whenever such writs or process shall not be executed, the clerk of said court is authorized and required to issue another like process or writ, upon the application of the party suing out the former writ or process to the same or any other county. [Acts 1892, p. 16; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1762. [1561] [977] [1051] Motion for rehearing.—A motion for rehearing may be filed with the clerk of the court within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment or decision of the court, and not later. Should the court adjourn within less time than fifteen days after the rendition of the judgment, it may make such rules and regulations with reference to the filing of the motion as it may deem proper. The grounds relied upon for the rehearing shall be distinctly specified in the motion. The motion shall give the name and residence of the counsel of the opposing party if known, and if not known, the name and residence as shown in the record.

Art. 1763. [1562] [978] [1052] Notice to opposing party.—Upon the filing of such motion, the clerk shall make and transmit a certified copy of the same by mail to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the attorney, or opposing party, as the case may be, is alleged in said motion to reside, together with a precept commanding him to deliver such copy to the person named in such precept. [Id.]

Art. 1764. [1563-4] Service and return.—Upon the receipt of such precept and copy of motion by the officer, it shall be his duty to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in said precept, if found in his county, and to return said precept to the clerk by mail, stating thereon at what time and to whom he delivered the copy of the motion, or that the party named in the precept is not found in his county. Service of said motion on any one of several parties to a cause or their attorneys shall be sufficient service on all. [Id.]

Art. 1765. [1565] [981] [1055] When motion heard.—The Supreme Court may hear and determine such motion for rehearing at any time after five days from the return of such precept served. [Id.]

Art. 1766. [1550] [974] [1047] Judgments in open court.—In all cases decided by the Supreme Court, its judgments or decrees shall be pronounced in open court; and the opinion of the court shall be reduced to writing in such cases as the court may deem of sufficient importance to be reported. [Acts 1866, p. 134; P. D. 6417; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1052.]

Art. 1767. [1551] [975] [1049] Judgment on affirmance.—Whenever the Supreme Court shall affirm a judgment or decree of a Court of Civil Appeals, it shall render such judgment or decree as should have been rendered by the Court of Civil Appeals, and shall render judgment against the plaintiff in error and the sureties, on his appeal or supersedeas bond, for the performance of said judgment or decree, and shall make such disposition as to the costs as they may order. [Acts 1892, p. 23; Acts 1907, S. S. p. 467; Acts 1921, p. 54; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 387.]

Art. 1768. [1567] [983] [1057] Judgment enforced.—Upon the rendition by the Supreme Court of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated by the preceding article, it shall not be necessary for the lower court from which the cause was removed to make any further order or decree therein, but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the Supreme Court or Court of Civil Appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 1769. [1552] [975] [1049] May remand.—If the judgment of a Court of Civil Appeals shall be reversed, the Supreme Court may remand the case either to the Court of Civil Appeals from which it came or to the district court, for another trial. [Id.]

Art. 1770. [1553] [972] [1043] Want of form.—There shall be no reversal or dismissal for want of form if the requirements of the law and the rules of the court be sufficiently complied with in presenting the case to enable the court to determine the same upon its merits. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1771. [1553] [972] [1043] Decision.—In each case, the Supreme Court shall either affirm the judgment, or reverse and render such judgment as the Court of Civil Appeals should have rendered; or reverse the judgment and remand the case to the lower court, if it shall appear that the justice of the case demands another trial. [Id.]

Art. 1772. [1554] [976] [1050] Judgment becomes final.—The judgment of the Supreme Court shall be final at the expiration of fifteen days from the rendition thereof, when no motion for rehearing has been filed. [Acts 1897, p. 200; Acts 1892, p. 19; Acts 1901, p. 122; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1254; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1773. [1555-6-8]. Mandate to issue.—Upon the rendition of final judgment, the clerk, upon payment of costs, shall issue the mandate in the case. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall not deliver a mandate until all costs of said court and of the Court of Civil Appeals shall have been paid, except as further herein provided. Mandates shall issue to the court in which the original judgment was rendered. [Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383; Acts 1901, p. 123.]

Art. 1774. [1557] [976] [1050] Affidavit of inability to pay.—If the party against whom the costs are adjudged by the Supreme Court shall make affidavit of his inability to pay, or give security therefor, he may apply to the Supreme Court for an order to require the clerk of the court to issue the mandate in the cause; which motion shall be sustained unless the clerk of the court, or a party to the record, shall successfully controvert the truth of such affidavit. [Acts 1897, p. 200; Acts 1901, p. 122, G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1254.]

Art. 1775. [1559] Mandate barred.—When a case is reversed and remanded, no mandate shall issue after twelve months from the rendition of final judgment of the Supreme Court, or the overruling of a motion for rehearing. When a cause is reversed and remanded by the Supreme Court, and the mandate is not taken out within twelve months as hereinbefore provided, then, upon the filing in the court below of a certificate of the clerk of the Supreme Court or Court of Civil Appeals, that no mandate has been taken out, the case shall be dismissed from the docket of said lower court. [Acts 1901, p. 123.]

Art. 1776. [1560] [976] [1050] Mandate recalled.—Should the Supreme Court set aside its judgment after the mandate has issued, the clerk shall at once notify the party to whom the mandate was directed to return it. [Acts 1897, p. 200; Acts 1901, p. 123; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1254.]

Art. 1777. [1568] [984] [1058] Execution.—If the costs have not been paid at the end of fifteen days from the date of judgment or from the overruling of a motion for rehearing, the clerk may issue an execution for the costs of the Supreme Court and the Court of Civil Appeals, specifying the amount of each, and attach to said execution a correct list of all costs accruing in each of said courts. The execution shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county from which the cause was removed, or to any county in which the person or persons, or either of them, liable under such execution, may have property. It shall be the duty of every sheriff or constable receiving such execution to execute and return the same under the same rules, regulations and liabilities as provided for executions from the district court. [Acts 1892, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 387.]

Art. 1778. [1569] [985] [1059] Execution returnable.—All executions for costs of the Supreme Court shall be returned by the officer to whom they are directed within four months from the date thereof. [Acts 1875, p. 70; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 442.]

Art. 1779. [1570] [986] [1060] Officer failing to make return.—In case any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs, if he has collected the same within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of the Supreme Court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before the Supreme Court, and show cause why he has not collected and returned such costs and execution; and failing to show cause, said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for the amount of said costs, together with the cost of such proceeding. [Id.; Acts 1892, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 383.]

Art. 1780. [1571] [986] [1060] Money due other clerk.—When the Clerk of the Supreme Court receives any money due a clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals he shall pay it over to the proper clerk. If he refuses to do so upon demand, the clerk to whom the same is due may file in the Supreme Court a motion against him, and, upon ten days' notice to him, the Supreme Court may enter judgment against him and the sureties on his official bond for said amount. [Id.]

Art. 1801. [1652] [1044] Judges.—The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of three judges, two of whom shall be a quorum. The concurrence of two judges shall be necessary to a decision of said court. Said judges shall have the same qualifications as judges of the Supreme Court. At each biennial general election one judge for said court shall be elected for a term of six years, the division into classes to remain as now provided by law. [Acts 1892, p. 34.]

Art. 1802. [1654] [1046] Presiding judge.—The judges of said court shall choose a presiding judge from their number at such times as they deem proper. All writs and processes issuing from said court shall bear test in the name of said presiding judge and the seal of the court. [Id.]

Art. 1803. [1655] [1047] Disqualification of judge.—When any member thereof shall be disqualified under the Constitution and laws of this State to hear and determine any case in said court, the same shall be certified to the Governor who shall immediately commission a person learned in the law to act instead. [Id.]

Art. 1804. [1658] [1050] Term of Court.—Said court shall hold one term each year at the city of Austin, commencing on the first Monday in October of each year, and shall continue until the last Saturday in June next succeeding. [Acts 1909, p. 51.]

Art. 1805. [1666] [1059] Seal of court.—The court shall use a seal having thereon a star with five points with the words, "Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas" engraved thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1806. [1661] [1054] May ascertain facts.—Said court shall have power upon affidavit or otherwise to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction.

Art. 1807. [1669] [1062] Mandate.—When the court from which an appeal has or may be taken has been or shall be deprived of jurisdiction over any case pending such appeal, and when such case has or may be determined by the Court of Criminal Appeals, the mandate of said appellate court shall be directed to the court to which jurisdiction has been, or may be, given over such case. [Id.]

Art. 1808. [1162-3-4] Clerk.—Said court shall appoint a clerk for said court, who shall:

1. Hold his office for four years unless sooner removed by the court for good cause, entered in its minutes.
2. Take and subscribe the official oath and give the same bond to be approved by said court as may be required of the clerk of the Supreme Court.

3. Perform as such clerk the like duties and be subject to the same liabilities as may be required of or prescribed for the clerk of the Supreme Court.

Art. 1809. Deputy clerk.—The court, or such clerk with the approval of the court, may designate any stenographer employed by said court to act as deputy clerk during the absence, illness or disability of said clerk. Such stenographer shall receive no extra compensation for such services, and shall discharge the duties of the clerk in the name of his principal as deputy clerk, signing his name after that of said principal as deputy clerk. [Acts 1923, p. 17.]

Art. 1810. [1667-8] Reporter and reports.—Said court shall appoint a reporter of such of its decisions as the law requires to be published, and may remove him for inefficiency or neglect of duty. The clerk shall deliver to the reporter the original opinions when recorded and the record in each case to be reported, taking receipt therefor, and the reporter shall return them when he finishes using them. The volumes of such decisions shall be numbered in continuation of the present reports, styled Texas Criminal Reports, and be printed and disposed of in like manner as the reports of the Supreme Court.

Art. 1811. State Prosecuting Attorneys.—The Governor, with the consent of the Senate, shall biennially appoint two attorneys to represent the State in all proceedings before the Court of Criminal Appeals, one of whom shall be styled "State Prosecuting Attorney", and the other "Assistant State Prosecuting Attorney", each said attorney to hold office for two years, and each of whom shall have had not less than four years experience as a practicing attorney or shall have been a district judge for not less than four years before his appointment. Art. 1812. [1580] [987] Three Justices.—Each Court of Civil Appeals shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices. A majority shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of two Justices shall be necessary to a decision. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1813. [1581] [988] Election and term of office.—The Justices of each Court of Civil Appeals shall be elected at the general election by the qualified voters of their respective districts. Upon their qualification, after the first election after the creation of any Court of Civil Appeals, the Justices shall draw lots for the terms of office; those drawing number one shall hold for the term of two years; those drawing number two shall hold for a term of four years, and those drawing number three shall hold office for six years. Each of said offices shall be filled by election at the next general election before the respective terms expire; and the person elected shall thereafter hold his office for six years. [Id.]

Art. 1814. [1582] [989] Qualifications of Judges.—No person shall be eligible to the office of Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals, unless he be at the time of his election thirty years of age or over, a resident of the district from which he is elected, and has been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court of this State, or such lawyer and judge together, at least seven years. [Id.]

Art. 1815. [1584] [1021] Special judge.—If all or any two members of any Court of Civil Appeals shall be disqualified to determine any cause in such court, that fact shall be certified to the Governor, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons, learned in the law, to try and determine said cause. [Id.]

Art. 1816. [1585] Terms of Court.—The term of each Court of Civil Appeals shall begin on the first Monday in October of each year and continue in session until the first Monday in July of each succeeding year. [Acts 1897, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1186.]

Art. 1817. [1586] [993] Location of courts.—A Court of Civil Appeals shall be held at the following places, respectively:

1. In the First Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Galveston.

2. In the Second Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Fort Worth.

3. In the Third Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Austin.

4. In the Fourth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of San Antonio.

5. In the Fifth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Dallas. [Acts 1892, S. S. p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

6. In the Sixth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Texarkana. [Acts 1907, p. 324.]

7. In the Seventh Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Amarillo. [Acts 1911, p. 269; Acts 1915, p. 121.]

8. In the Eighth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of El Paso. [Id.]

9. In the Ninth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Beaumont. [Id.]

10. In the Tenth Supreme Judicial District, in the City of Waco. [Id; Acts 1923, p. 152.]

11. The Eleventh Supreme Judicial District in the City of Eastland. [Acts 1925, p. 258.]

12. The cities of Beaumont, Waco and Eastland, respectively, shall furnish and equip suitable rooms for the Court of Civil Appeals therein, and for the justices thereof, without cost or expense to the State. [Id.]

Art. 1818. [1588] [955] Adjournment.—Such courts may adjourn from day to day or for such time as they may deem proper. If a quorum is not present at the first or any day of the term, any judge of the court or the bailiff thereof may adjourn the court from time to time until a quorum shall be in attendance, but the court shall not be finally adjourned for the term. [Acts 1895, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 809.]

Art. 1819. [1589] [996] Jurisdiction defined.—The appellate jurisdiction of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall extend to civil cases within the limits of their respective districts:

1. Of which the district courts have original or appellate jurisdiction.

2. Of which the county court has original jurisdiction, or of which the county court has appellate jurisdiction when the amount in controversy or the judgment rendered shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs. [Acts 1895, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 809.]

Art. 1820. [1590] [996] Judgment conclusive on facts.—The judgments of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be conclusive in all cases on the facts of the case. [Id.]

Art. 1821. [1591] [996] Judgment conclusive on law.—The judgments of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall be conclusive on the law and facts, nor shall a writ of error be allowed thereto from the Supreme Court in the following cases, to-wit:

1. Any civil case appealed from the county court or from a district court, when, under the Constitution, a county court would have had original or appellate jurisdiction to try it, except in probate matters and in cases involving the revenue laws of the State or the validity of construction of a statute, or cases involving conflicts between decisions of the Courts of Civil Appeals or between a decision of a Court of Civil Appeals and a decision of the Supreme Court.

2. All cases of boundary.

3. All cases of slander.

4. All cases of divorce.

5. All cases of contested elections of every character other than for State officers, except where the validity of the statute is attacked by the decision.

6. In all appeals from interlocutory orders appointing receivers or trustees, or such other interlocutory appeals as may be allowed by law.

7. In all other cases as to law and facts, except where appellate jurisdiction is given to the Supreme Court and not made final in said courts of Civil Appeals. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; Acts 1923, p. 110.]

Art. 1822. [1593] [998] Inquiry into jurisdiction.—Said courts shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the courts may be thought proper, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of their jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 1823. [1592] [997] Writs of mandamus, etc.—Said courts and the judges thereof may issue writs of mandamus and all other writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said courts. [Id.]

Art. 1824. [1595] [1000] May mandamus district courts.—Said courts, or any judge thereof, in vacation, may issue the writ of mandamus to compel a judge of the district court to proceed to trial and judgment in a cause, returnable as the nature of the case may require. [Id.]

Art. 1825. [1645] [1034] Issuance of process.—Any writ or process issuing from any Court of Civil Appeals shall bear the test of the Chief Justice under the seal of said court and signed by the clerk thereof, and be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county in the State, and be, by such officer, executed according to the command thereof and returned to the court from which it emanated. Whenever such writ or process shall not be executed, the clerk of said court shall issue another like process or writ upon the application of the party suing out the former writ or process to the same or any other county. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1826. [1594] [999] May punish for contempt.—They may punish any person for a contempt of said courts, not to exceed one thousand dollars fine or imprisonment not exceeding twenty days. [Id.]

| Seal of court | 1830 | Report of costs collected | 1835 |
| Records and judgments | 1831 | Stenographers | 1836 |

Art. 1827. [1596-7] Appointment of clerk.—Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint for a term of two years one clerk who shall reside at the place of holding Court. If the office becomes vacant in vacation, the appointment shall be made by the Chief Justice and one Associate. Each appointment shall be noted in the minutes of the Court. Whenever the necessity occurs, the Court may appoint a clerk pro tem. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25.]

Art. 1828. [1596] Bond.—The clerk shall first make a bond for five thousand dollars payable to the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be approved by any judge of his court. [Id.]

Art. 1829. [1598] [1003] Removal.—The clerk may be removed by the court for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office on motion specifying the particular charge preferred. In such case the court shall determine the law and the facts after having given such clerk ten days previous notice of the hearing. [Id.]

Art. 1830. [1599] [1004] Seal of court.—Each clerk shall procure a seal for the use of the court, which shall have a star of five points with "Court of Civil Appeals of the State of Texas" engraved thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1831. [1600-1] Records and judgments.—Each clerk shall file and carefully preserve all records certified to his court and all papers relative thereto, docket all causes in the order in which they are filed, record the proceedings and decisions of said court, and certify their judgments to the proper court. [Id.]

Art. 1832. [1603-4] Librarian.—Each clerk shall be librarian in charge of the library of his court, and shall take charge of, keep in good order and make catalogs of the books thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1833. [1602] [1007] Deputy clerks.—Each clerk may appoint one chief deputy. With the approval of the court he may appoint additional deputies who shall be paid out of the fees collected by the clerk, not to exceed one hundred dollars a month. Each deputy shall give bond to the clerk for the faithful discharge of his duty. [Id.]

Art. 1834. Disposition of costs.—Each clerk of a Court of Civil Appeals shall collect and pay into the State Treasury all costs collected by him, under such regulations as the Comptroller may prescribe and the judges of said Court approve. [Acts 1923, p. 129.]

Art. 1835. [1605] [1010] Report of costs collected.—Each clerk shall, within ten days after the first day of January and July, make a sworn report to his court showing the amount of costs collected by him during the previous six months, the causes in which the same were collected, and the disposition made of such costs. This report shall be filed and recorded in the minutes of said court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25.]

Art. 1836. [1606] [1012] Stenographers.—Each court may appoint one stenographer who shall be sworn to keep secret all matters which may come to his knowledge as such stenographer, and who shall give bond for two thousand dollars payable to the State of Texas, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the Chief Justice of said Court. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 100.]

CHAPTER THREE.

PROCEEDINGS.

| Filing transcript after adjournment..... | 1843 | Death does not abate..... | 1850 |

Art. 1837. [1607] [1014] Trial.—A trial in a Court of Civil Appeals shall be:

1. On a statement of facts.
2. Or on statement of the pleadings and proof as agreed upon by the parties or their attorneys.
3. Or upon the conclusions of law and findings of fact certified by the judge of the trial court.
4. Or upon a statement of facts certified by the judge of the trial court.
5. Or upon a bill of exceptions to the opinion of the judge.
6. Or upon a special verdict.
7. Or upon an error in law either assigned or apparent upon the face of the record.

If none of the foregoing exists, the case shall be dismissed with costs alone or with costs and damages, in the discretion of the court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1838. [1607] [1014] Unapproved bills of exceptions.—Where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the facts stated in a bill of exceptions are fairly stated and that said bill was prepared in accordance with the law governing the preparation of such bills, and that the judge trying the cause refused to sign the same, the court shall admit, as part of the record, such unsigned bill of exception; and the truth of any such bill of exceptions shall be determined by the court on the copies of the affidavits required by law to be made in such case, such copies to be contained in, and to form a part of the record sent to the Court of Civil Appeals. [Id.]

Art. 1839. [1608] [1015] Time to file transcript.—In appeal or writ of error, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file the transcript with the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals within ninety days from the perfection of the appeal or service of the writ of error; provided, that for good cause, the court may permit the transcript to be thereafter filed upon such terms as it may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 1840. [1609] [1025] New appeal bond allowed.—When there is a defect of substance or form in any appeal or writ of error bond, then on motion to dismiss the same for such defect, the appellate court may allow the same to be amended by filing in such appellate court a new bond, on such terms as the court may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 1841. [1610] [1016] Certificate of affirmance.—If the appellant or plaintiff in error shall fail to file a transcript of the record, as directed in this chapter, then the appellee or defendant in error may file with the clerk of said court a certificate of the clerk of the district or county court in which such appeal or writ of error may have been taken, attested by the seal of his court, stating the time when and how such appeal was perfected or such citation was served; whereupon the Court of Civil Appeals shall affirm the judgment of the Court below, unless good cause can be shown why such transcript was not so filed. If a copy of the bond accompanies such certificate of the district or county clerk, the judgment shall, in like manner, be affirmed against the sureties on such bond. [Id.]

Art. 1842. [1611] [1017] Cause heard after affirmance on certificate.—In all cases where a Court of Civil Appeals has affirmed the judgment, under the provisions of the preceding article, said Court may, at any time within fifteen days after such affirmance, permit the transcript to be filed by the appellant or plaintiff in error, and the case to be tried on its merits; provided appellant or plaintiff in error shall show to the court good cause why the transcript was not filed by him as provided in this chapter, and shall also show to said court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intention to apply for such permission to file said transcript. [Id.]

Art. 1843. [1611] [1017] Filing transcript after adjournment.—Where the court shall adjourn within fifteen days after judgment was affirmed on certificate, it may permit the appellant or plaintiff in error to file his transcript at such time as may be deemed proper, and have the cause tried on its merits; provided, said appellant or plaintiff in error shall show good cause why said transcript was not filed as herein directed, and shall show to the court that he has given the appellee or defendant in error notice of his intention to apply for permission to file said transcript. [Id.]

Art. 1844. [1612] [1018] Assignments of error.—Before he takes the transcript from the clerk's office, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file with the Clerk of the Court below all assignments of error, distinctly specifying the grounds on which he relies. Where a motion for new trial has been filed, the assignments therein shall constitute the assignments of error and need not be repeated by filing separate assignments of error. All errors not distinctly specified are waived, but an assignment shall be sufficient which directs the attention of the Court to the error complained of. [Id; Acts 1913, p. 276.]

Art. 1845. [1613] [1022] Docket of causes.—When a cause is carried to a Court of Civil Appeals by writ of error, it shall be docketed in the order received. The clerk shall transfer said cause to the trial docket within thirty days after the same has been received and docketed. For good cause shown after notice to the adverse party, the Court may upon motion of either party extend the time for placing said cause on the trial docket. [Acts 1892, p. 25.]

Art. 1846. [1614] [1019] Appearance by brief, etc.—The attorneys for both the plaintiff and defendant may file written, typewritten or printed briefs or argument, if written not to exceed fifteen pages; and the Court shall be required to notice the same as if it were the personal appearance of said attorney, and shall not dismiss any suit or cause where such brief or argument is filed with the papers for want of further prosecution. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 270; Acts 1921, p. 210.]

Art. 1847. [1615] [1020] Service of notice.—All notices required herein to be given to parties or their attorneys of record shall be served by the clerk sending said notice to the attorneys by registered letter through the mail properly directed. Registration receipts shall be filed and kept by the clerk with the record of the cause.

Art. 1848. [1616] [1022] Order of hearing.—Causes on the trial docket of said court shall be submitted in the order of the date of filing, except as otherwise provided, unless continued to some future time for good cause shown; and the clerk shall notify the parties or their attorneys of record of the date set for hearing. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 30.]

Art. 1849. [1617] [1023] Order of deciding cases.—Cases shall be decided in the order in which they are filed at each term of the court, but the following cases shall have precedence of all others in the order named:

1. Cases in which the Railroad Commission is a party.
 2. Cases in which the State is a party.
 3. Cases submitted on oral argument for all parties to the cause.
 4. Such other cases as the court, by order or rule, may direct.
- [Id.]

Art. 1850. [1618] [1026] Death does not abate.—If any party to the record in a cause pending in a Court of Civil Appeals shall die after the appeal bond is filed and approved or after the writ of error has been served, and before the cause has been decided, such cause shall not abate, but the court shall proceed to adjudicate the case and render judgment therein as if all parties thereto were still living. Such judgment shall have the same force and effect as if rendered in the lifetime of all the parties thereto. [Id.]

Art. 1851. [1619] [1043] Questions of law certified.—Whenever there shall arise an issue of law which a Court of Civil Appeals should deem advisable to present to the Supreme Court for adjudication, the presiding judge shall certify the question to be decided by the Supreme Court. Pending the decision of the Supreme Court, the cause in which the issue is raised shall be retained for judgment in harmony with the decision of the Supreme Court upon the issue submitted. [Acts 1893, p. 100; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 530.]

Art. 1852. [1620] [1040] Certifying dissent.—When a dissenting opinion is rendered by one judge as to a conclusion of law material to a decision of the case, the grounds of his dissent shall be entered of record by the dissenting member. Upon motion of a party or upon its own motion the court shall certify the point or points of dissent to the Supreme Court. The provisions hereof shall apply to cases appealed from the county court as well as from the district court. [Acts 1893, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 519; Acts 1923, p. 72.]

Art. 1853. [1621] [1041] Papers sent to Supreme Court.—When a certificate of dissent is sent up by any Court of Civil Appeals, the clerk shall send up a certified copy of the conclusions of fact and law as found by the court, and the questions of law upon which there is a division, also the original transcript, if so ordered by the Supreme Court. [Id.]

Art. 1854. [1622] [1042] Decision of Supreme Court.—When the Supreme Court decides a question certified to it by a Court of Civil Appeals, such decision shall be binding upon the Court of Civil Appeals. [Id.]

Art. 1855. [1623] What questions certified.—Where a decision of a Court of Civil Appeals is in conflict with an opinion rendered by the Supreme Court of Texas or by some other Court of Civil Appeals in this State on any question of law, and such Court of Civil Appeals refuses to concur with the opinion rendered by the Supreme Court or such Court of Civil Appeals, the court refusing to concur with the conflicting opinion shall transmit the question of law involved in the cause wherein said conflict of opinion has arisen, duly certified, together with the record or transcript in such cause, to the Supreme Court for adjudication by the Supreme Court. [Acts 1899, p. 170; Acts 1923, p. 94.]

| Refusal to remit not to be alluded to..... | 1863 | Return of execution, when..... | 1871 |
| | | Officer failing to make return..... | 1872 |

Art. 1856. [1626] [1027] If judgment reversed.—When the judgment or decree of the court below shall be reversed, the court shall proceed to render such judgment or decree as the court below should have rendered, except when it is necessary that some matter of fact be ascertained or the damage to be assessed or the matter to be decreed is uncertain, in either of which cases the cause shall be remanded for a new trial. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1857. [1627] [1028] Judgment on affirmance or rendition.—When a court of civil appeals affirms the judgment or decree of the court below, or proceeds to render such judgment or decree as should have been rendered by the court below, and such judgment shall be for the same or a greater amount or of the same nature as rendered in the court below, said court shall render judgment against the appellant or plaintiff in error and his sureties on the appeal bond, subject to such disposition as to costs on said appeal as said court may order. Said appellate courts shall in their discretion include in their said judgment or decree such damages, not exceeding ten per cent on the amount of the original judgment as they may deem proper; and the judgment or decree of said courts rendered as contemplated in this article shall be final. [Id; Acts 1921, p. 54.]

Art. 1858. [1646] [1035] Judgment enforced, etc.—Upon the rendition by any court of civil appeals of any such judgment or decree as is contemplated in the preceding article, the lower court from which the cause was removed need not make any further order or decree therein; but the clerk of said lower court, on receipt of the mandate of the Supreme Court or Court of Civil Appeals, shall proceed to issue execution thereon as in other cases. [Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1859. [1628] [1024] No reversal for want of form.—There shall be no reversal on appeal or writ of error, nor shall the same be dismissed for want of form, provided sufficient matter or substance be contained in the record to enable the court to decide the cause upon its merits. [Id.]

Art. 1860. [1629] [1024] Affirmance with damages for delay.—Where the court shall find that an appeal or writ of error has been taken for delay, and that there was no sufficient cause for taking such appeal, then the appellant or plaintiff in error, if he be the defendant in the court below, shall pay ten per cent on the amount in dispute as damages, together with the judgment, interest and cost of suit thereon accruing. [Id.]

Art. 1861. [1630] [1024] Remittitur.—If, in any judgment rendered in the district or county court, there shall be an excess of damages rendered, and before the plaintiff has entered a release of same in such court in the manner provided by law, such judgment shall be removed to the Court of Civil Appeals. It shall be lawful for the party in whose favor such excess of damages has been rendered to make such remittitur in the Court of Civil Appeals in the same manner as such release is required to be made in the district or county court. Upon such release being filed in said court, after revising said judgment, said Court of Civil Appeals shall proceed to give such judgment as the court below ought to have given if the release had been filed therein. [Id.]

Art. 1862. [1631] [1029] Suggestion of remittitur.—In civil cases appealed to a Court of Civil Appeals, if such court is of the opinion that the verdict and judgment of the trial court is excessive and that said cause should be reversed for that reason only, then said appellate court shall indicate to such party, or his attorney, within what time he may file a remittitur of such excess. If such remittitur is so filed, then the court shall reform and affirm such judgment in accordance therewith; if not filed as indicated, then to be reversed. [Acts 1893, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 519.]

Art. 1863. [1632] [1029] Refusal to remit not to be alluded to.—Whenever a Court of Civil Appeals shall indicate that a verdict is excessive, and no remittitur shall be filed, no evidence shall be allowed, nor allusion made in a subsequent trial to the action of such appellate court in reference to the amount of excess of such verdict. [Id.]

Art. 1864. [1633] [1029] Mandate issued when.—If no writ of error be sued out, or motion for rehearing be filed, within thirty days after the decision of the court has been entered in a Court of Civil Appeals, the clerk of the court shall, upon application of either party and the payment of all costs, issue a mandate upon said judgment. [Id.]

Art. 1865. [1634] [1036] No mandate until costs paid.—On the rendition of a final judgment or decree in the Court of Civil Appeals, the clerk of said court shall not issue and deliver the mandate of the court, nor certify the proceedings to the lower court, until all costs accruing in the case in such appellate court have been paid, subject, however, to the provisions of the succeeding article. [Acts 1897, p. 18; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1072.]

Art. 1866. [1635] [1036] Affidavit of inability.—If the party against whom the costs are adjudged shall make affidavit of his inability to pay the same or give security therefor, he may apply to the Court of Civil Appeals in which the case is pending for an order to require the clerk to issue the mandate or to certify the proceedings, as the case may be; which motion shall be granted by said court, unless the clerk or a party to the record shall controvert the truth of such affidavit and satisfy the court that such motion should not be granted. [Id.]

Art. 1867. [1559] Mandate to issue in twelve months.—In cases which have been reversed and remanded by a court of civil appeals, if no mandate shall have been taken out and filed in the court where the cause originated within one year after the motion for a rehearing was overruled or final judgment rendered, then upon the filing in the court below of a certificate of the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals where the cause was pending that no mandate has been taken out, the case shall be dismissed from the docket. [Acts 1901, p. 123.]

Art. 1868. [1560] When judgment set aside.—If a Court of Civil Appeals sets aside its judgment after the mandate has been issued, the clerk shall at once notify the party to whom the mandate was directed to return it. [Acts 1897, p. 200; Acts 1901, p. 123; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1254.]

Art. 1869. [1647] [1036] Execution on failure to pay costs.—If neither party shall pay the costs and take out the mandate within thirty days after the time when the same can be issued by law, then the clerk shall issue execution for the costs accruing in his court against the party or parties against whom such costs have been adjudged, and shall send such execution by mail to the proper officer for collection; but he shall retain the mandate until the costs have been paid or collected, subject, however, to the provisions of the third preceding article. [Acts 1897, p. 18; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1072.]

Art. 1870. [1648] [1029] Appellant on reversal to recover costs.—In any cause reversed by a Court of Civil Appeals, the appellant shall be entitled to an execution against the appellee for costs occasioned by such appeal, said costs to be taxed by the clerk of the said court. [Acts 1893, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 519.]

Art. 1871. [1649] [1037] Return of execution, when.—All executions for costs of the Courts of Civil Appeals, as authorized by law, shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed within four months from the date thereof. [Id.; Acts 1892, p. 25.]

Art. 1872. [1650] [1038] Officer failing to make return.—If any officer shall fail or refuse to make such return with the amount of such costs, if he has collected the same, within the time prescribed herein, or shall make a false or fraudulent return of any such execution, the clerk of said court may issue citation returnable forthwith to such officer to appear before said court and show cause, if any he can, why he has not collected and returned said costs and execution; and failing to show cause, said court may enter judgment against such officer and the sureties on his official bond for said costs, together with the costs of such proceedings. [Id.]

CHAPTER SIX.

CONCLUSIONS OF FACT AND LAW.

|-----------------------------|--------------|-----------------------|--------------|
| Conclusions of fact and law | Article 1873 | Supplemental findings | Article 1875 |
| Reason to be stated | Article 1874 | Decision and opinion | Article 1876 |

Art. 1873 [1636] [1639] Conclusions of fact and law.—In all cases decided by the Courts of Civil Appeals, in which the Supreme Court has jurisdiction of an application for writ of error, the Court of Civil Appeals, within thirty days after the decision of the case, shall make and file a conclusion of fact and law upon each material point assigned as error in that court. The evidence need not be stated, except when necessary to determine upon the correctness of some ruling of the court. Such findings of fact and conclusions of law may be included in the opinion of the court.

Art. 1874. [1637] [1039] To state reason for reversal.—In cases where the judgment of the trial court shall be reversed and the cause remanded, the Court of Civil Appeals shall state its reason for the judgment. [Acts 1901, p. 121; Acts 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1875. [1638] Supplemental findings.—If either party to a case, decided by a Court of Civil Appeals, shall be of the opinion that the findings of fact are insufficient upon any material issue assigned in that court as error, such party may, in his motion for rehearing specify the point upon which there is no finding of fact, or upon which the finding made by the court is insufficient, and ask said Court to make and file conclusions of fact upon the points indicated in the motion. If the court refuses to make such findings, or if the finding made be insufficient, such action may be assigned as error in application to the Supreme Court for a writ of error. [Acts 1901, p. 121.]

Art. 1876. [1639] Decision and opinion.—The Courts of Civil Appeals shall decide all issues presented to them by proper assignments of error by either party, whether such issues be of fact or of law and announce in writing their conclusions so found. [Acts 1905, p. 71.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

REHEARING.

| | | | |
|----------------------|---------|------------------------------|---------|
| | Article | | Article |
| Motion for rehearing | 1877 | Service of notice and return | 1879 |
| Notice, how given | 1878 | When motion determined | 1880 |

Art. 1877. [1641] [1030] Motion for rehearing.—Any party desiring a rehearing of any matter determined by any Court of Civil Appeals, may, within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment or decision of the court, or the filing of the findings of fact and conclusions of law, file with the clerk of said court his motion in writing for a rehearing thereof, in which the ground relied upon for the rehearing shall be distinctly specified, and the name and residence of the counsel of the opposing party if known, and if not known then the name and residence of the opposing party as shown in the record. If the court adjourns within less than fifteen days after the rendition of the judgment, the motion may be made at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules to be made by the Supreme Court. [Acts 1892, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 389.]

Art. 1878. [1642] [1031] Notice, how given.—Upon the filing of such motion with the clerk, he shall mail a certified copy thereof to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the attorney or opposing party is alleged in said motion to reside, together with a precept commanding him to deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in such precept.

Art. 1879. [1643] [1032] Service of notice and return.—Upon receiving such precept and copy of motion the officer shall deliver the copy of the motion to the person named in said precept, if found in his county, and return by mail said precept to the court from which it issued stating thereon how he executed the same or that the party named in the precept is not to be found in his county. [Id.]

Art. 1880. [1644] [1033] When motion determined.—At any time, after five days from the return of such precept served, said courts may hear and determine motion for rehearing, and not sooner. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

WRIT OF ERROR TO SUPREME COURT.

Art. 1881. [1542] Filing copy of application.—When an application for a writ of error from a Court of Civil Appeals to the Supreme Court is filed in the Court of Civil Appeals, the applicant shall at the same time deposit with the clerk of said Court of Civil Appeals a true copy of the application and shall notify the attorney of record of the defendant in error of the deposit of said copy. [Acts 1st C. S. 1911, p. 108.]

Art. 1882. Copy to defendant in error.—On request of the defendant in error or his attorney, the clerk shall deliver the copy of the application to the defendant in error or his attorney of record and forward the record of the cause with the application for a writ of error to the clerk of the Supreme Court within the time prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 1883. [1541-2] Forward to Supreme Court.—When a petition for a writ of error to the Supreme Court is filed with the Clerk of a Court of Civil Appeals, he shall note upon his record the filing of said petition, and promptly forward the same to the clerk of the Supreme Court with the original record in the case and the opinion of the Court of Civil Appeals, the motions filed therein, certified copies of the judgment and orders of the Court of Civil Appeals, and a copy of the appeal or the supersedeas bond of the plaintiff in error. [Acts 1895, p. 144, G. L. Vol. 10, p. 874.]

Art. 1884. [1671-1672] Election and qualification.—For each judicial district there shall be elected at the general election for a term of four years a judge who shall be at least twenty-five years of age, a practicing attorney or a judge of a court in this State for four years and a resident of the district in which he is elected for two years next before his election. He shall reside in his district during his term of office. [Const., Art. 5, Sec. 7; Art. 16, Sec. 17.]

Art. 1885. [1676] [1069] Disqualification.—No change of venue shall be necessary because of the disqualification of a district judge, but he shall immediately certify his disqualification to the Governor, whereupon the Governor shall designate some district judge in an adjoining district to exchange and try such case or cases, and he shall notify both of said judges of such order; and such judges shall exchange districts for the purpose of disposing of such case or cases. If said judges be prevented from exchanging districts, the parties or their counsels may agree upon an attorney of the court for the trial thereof, and failing to agree, such fact shall be certified to the Governor by the district judge, or the special judge, whereupon the Governor shall appoint a person legally qualified to act as judge in the trial of the case. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 39; Acts 1915, p. 86; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1479.]

Art. 1886. [1677] [1070] Record of agreement.—Whenever a special judge is agreed upon for the trial of a particular cause, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the court, as a part of the proceedings in such cause, a record showing:

1. That the judge of the court was disqualified to try the cause; and

2. That such special judge (naming him) was, by consent agreed upon by the parties to try the cause; and

3. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to him. [Acts 1897, S. S. p. 39; Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 976; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1479.]

Art. 1887. [1678] [1071] [1094] Special judge, when.—Should the judge of a district court on the first or any future day of a term, fail or refuse to hold the court, the practicing lawyers of the court present may elect from among their number a special judge who shall hold the court and proceed with the business thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 140; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 976.]

Art. 1888. [1679] [1072] [1095] Voting for special judge.—Such election shall be by ballot, and each practicing lawyer in attendance at such court shall be entitled to participate in such election and shall be entitled to one vote. A majority of the votes of the lawyers participating shall be necessary to the election of such special judge. [Id.]

Art. 1889. [1680] [1073] [1096] Election for special judge.—The election shall be conducted as follows: The sheriff or constable shall make proclamation at the court house door that the election of a special judge of the court is about to be made by the practicing lawyers present; the clerk shall then make a list of the practicing lawyers present; and such lawyers shall then organize and hold the election. [Id.]

Art. 1890. [1681] [1074] [1097] Failure of officers to act.—Should the sheriff, constable, and clerk, or either of them, fail or refuse to act, the said practicing lawyers may nevertheless proceed to organize themselves into such electoral body, and appoint a sheriff and clerk pro tempore to do the duties of such officers respectively. [Id.]

Art. 1891. [1682] [1075] [1098] Record of the election.—The clerk shall enter upon the minutes of the court a record of the election of such special judge, showing;

1. The names of all the practicing lawyers present and participating in such election.

2. The fact that the public proclamation was made at the court house door that such election was about to take place.

3. The number of ballots polled at such election and the number polled for each person, and the result of the election.

4. That the oath prescribed by law has been duly administered to the special judge. [Id.]

Art. 1892. [1683] [1076] [1099] Effect of such record.—The record of such proceedings, substantially complying with the requirements of the law, shall be conclusive evidence of the election and qualification of such special judge. [Id.]

Art. 1893. [1684] [1077] [1100] Other elections for special judge.—Like elections may be held from time to time during the term of the court to supply the absence, failure or inability of the judge, or of any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. [Id.]

Art. 1894 [1685] [1078] [1100] Election and term.—A clerk for the district court of each county shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 9; Art. 16, Sec. 17.]

Art. 1895. [1686] [1079] [1101] Vacancy.—Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district clerk, it shall be filled by the district judge of such county; and such appointee shall give bond and qualify and may hold his office until the next general election. Where a vacancy occurs in a county having two or more district courts, the vacancy shall be filled by the judges of such courts; and if they fail to agree, the Governor, upon the certificate of such judges, shall order a special election to fill such vacancy. [Id; Acts 1876, p. 233; Acts 1891, p. 5; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1069.]

Art. 1896. [1687-8] Clerk pro tem.—Where a district clerk is a party to any pending or proposed suit, motion or proceeding in his court, the district judge in whose court the same may be pending or proposed, shall, on application of any person interested, or on his own motion, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. Such temporary clerk shall take an oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the State of Texas, in an amount to be fixed by the judge and to be approved by him, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. Such appointee shall perform each duty required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed. [Acts 1887, p. 102; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 900.]

Art. 1897. [1689] [1082] [1102] Bond and oath.—Each district clerk, before entering upon his official duties, shall give bond, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county, payable to the Governor, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be indorsed upon the bond. Such bond and oath shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk. [Acts 1846, p. 203; P. D. 500; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1510.]

Art. 1898. [1690-92] Deputies.—The district clerk may appoint one or more deputies by a written appointment under his hand and the seal of his court, which shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk. When the clerk does not reside at the county seat he shall have a deputy or deputies residing there. [Id.]

Art. 1899. [1694] [1087] [1107] To record proceedings.—Such clerks shall keep a fair record of all the acts done, and proceedings had, in their respective courts; enter all judgments of the court, under direction of the judge, and keep a record of all executions issued and the returns thereon, in record books to be kept for the purpose.

Art. 1900. [1696] [1089] [1109] Report of fines and jury fees.—On the last day of each term of the court, the clerk shall make a written statement showing all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines, with the name of each party from whom received, up to the date of such statement, and since his previous statement; and also the name of each juror who has served at such term, the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such services. Such statement shall be examined, corrected, approved, and signed by the presiding judge. Such statement, when so approved and signed shall be recorded in the minutes of the court. [Acts 1846, p. 206; P. D. 4014; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1511.]

Art. 1901. [1700] [1093] [1112] Custody and care of records.—District clerks shall have the custody of records pertaining to or lawfully deposited in their offices, and shall carefully attend to the arrangement and preservation of the same. [Id; P. D. 502.]

Art. 1902. [1701] [1094] [1113] Indexes to judgments.—They shall provide and keep in well bound books, as part of the records, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their courts; showing in full the names of all the parties, indexed and cross-indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case. [Acts 1876, p. 25.]

Art. 1903. [1703] [1096] Joint Clerk.—In counties having a population of less than eight thousand persons only one clerk shall be elected, who shall perform the duties of district and county clerks. He shall take the oath and give the bond required of clerks of both the district and county courts, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of such clerks respectively. The population shall be estimated by multiplying by five the number of votes cast for Governor in such county at the preceding general election. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 20; Acts 1879, p. 47.]

Art. 1904. [1704] [1097] [1116] Use of court seal.—When a joint clerk has been elected, he shall, in performing the duties of district clerk use the seal of said court to authenticate his official acts as clerk of the district court.

Art. 1905. [1729] [1122] [1131] Seal of the court.—Each district court shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center and the words, "District Court of _____ County, Texas." The impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be kept by the clerk and used to authenticate his official acts. [Acts 1846, p. 201; P. D. 1411; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1508.]

CHAPTER THREE.

POWERS AND JURISDICTION.

| | | Minutes read and signed..... | 1918 |

Art. 1906. [1705] [1098] [1117] Original jurisdiction.—The district court shall have original jurisdiction in civil cases of:

1. Suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats.
2. Cases of divorce and dissolution of marriage.
3. Suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character.
4. Suits for the trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon.
5. Suits for trial of right to property levied on by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment, when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars.
6. Suits, complaints or pleas, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, when the matter in controversy shall be valued at or amount to five hundred dollars exclusive of interest.

7. Contested elections. [Const., Art. 5.]

Art. 1907. [1706] [1099] [1118] Matters of probate.—District courts shall have appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters over the county courts, for appointing guardians, granting letters testamentary and of administration, probating wills, settling accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and for the transaction of business appertaining to estates. The district court shall also have such original jurisdiction and general control over executors, administrators, guardians and minors as provided by law. [Const., Art. 5, Sec. 8; Acts 1846, p. 200; P. D. 1406; Amendment 1891.]

Art. 1908. [1706] [1099] [1118] Over commissioners court.—Such court shall also have appellate jurisdiction and general supervisory control over the commissioners court, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 1909. [1706] [1099] [1118] General jurisdiction.—Such court shall have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action, for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or the constitution, and such other jurisdiction, original and appellate as may be provided by law. [Const., Art. 5, Sec. 8; Acts 1846, p. 22; P. D. 1406.]

Art. 1910. [1707] [1100] [1119] Motions against sheriffs, attorneys, etc.—The district court shall have power to hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys, collected under the process of said court, or other defalcation of duty in connection with such process and of motions against attorneys for moneys collected by them and not paid over. [Acts 1846, p. 201, Sec. 5; P. D. 1408; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1507.]

Art. 1911. [1708] [1101] [1120] May punish for contempt.—The district court may punish any person guilty of contempt of such court by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding three days. [Acts 1846, p. 201; P. D. 1409; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1507.]

Art. 1912. [1711] [1105] Judgments transferred and enforced.—When a district clerk shall receive from the county clerk a certified copy of a judgment rendered in any civil or criminal case in the county court where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county court has been transferred to the district court, he shall immediately record such judgments in the minutes of the district court; and the said district court shall enforce said judgments by execution or otherwise, as other judgments rendered in said district court are enforced. [Acts 1879, p. 11; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 847.]

Art. 1913. [1712] [1106] [1122] Other jurisdiction.—Subject to the limitations stated in this chapter, the district court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them. [Acts 1846, p. 201; P. D. 1410; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1507.]

Art. 1914. [1713] [1107] [1123] To grant all remedial writs.—Judges of the district courts may either in term time or in vacation, grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. [Acts 1846, p. 200; P. D. 1407; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1507.]

Art. 1915. [1714] Powers in vacation.—Judges of the district courts may in vacation, by consent of the parties, exercise all powers, make all orders, and perform all acts, as fully as in term time, and may, by consent of the parties, try any civil case, except divorce cases, without a jury and enter final judgment. All such proceedings shall be conducted under the same rules as if done in term time; and the right of appeals and writ of error shall apply as if the acts had been done in term time. [Acts 1909, S. S. p. 352.]

Art. 1916. [1715] [1108] [1124] May alternate, etc.—A judge of the district court may hold court for or with any other district judge; and the judges of such courts may exchange districts whenever they deem it expedient. [Acts 1846, p. 202; P. D. 1418; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1509.]

Art. 1917. [1716] [1109] [1125] Appointing attorney.—Judges of district courts may appoint counsel to attend to the cause of any party who makes affidavit that he is too poor to employ counsel to attend to the same. [Id; P. D. 1414.]

Art. 1918. [1127-1128] Minutes read and signed.—The minutes of the proceedings of each preceding day of the session shall be read in open court on the morning of the succeeding day, except on the last day of the session, on which day they shall be read, corrected and signed in open court by the judge. Each special judge shall sign the minutes of such proceedings as were had before him. [Acts 1846, p. 202; P. D. 1415; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1509.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

TERMS OF COURT.

| Summoning juries..... | 1921 | Effect of extension of term..... | 1925 |
| Adjournment of term..... | 1922 | Citation by publication, etc..... | 1926 |

Art. 1919. [1718] [1111] [1127] Terms of Court.—Each judge of the district courts shall hold the regular terms of his court at the county seat of each county in the district twice in each year, unless additional terms should be prescribed by law, and shall hold such special terms as may be required by law. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 7.]

Art. 1920. [1720-3] Special terms.—Whenever a district judge deems it advisable to hold a special term of the district court in any county in his district, such special term may be held; and such judge may convene such term at any time which may be fixed by him. Such district judge may appoint jury commissioners, who may select and draw grand and petit jurors in accordance with the law. Such jurors may be summoned to appear before such district court at such time as may be designated by the judge thereof. In the discretion of the district judge, a grand jury need not be drawn or empaneled. No new civil cases can be brought to a special term of the district court. [Id; Acts 1879, p. 42; Acts 1905, p. 116; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 879.]

Art. 1921. [1724] [1118] Summoning juries.—The juries for a special term shall be summoned in accordance with the law regulating juries at regular terms of court. At a special term all proceedings may be had in any case which could be had at any regular term of such court. All process issued to a previous regular term or to such special term, and all orders, judgments and decrees, and all proceedings had in any case, civil or criminal, which would be lawful if had at a regular term, shall have the same force and effect; and any proceeding had may be appealed from as if the case were tried at a regular term. [Id.]

Art. 1922. [1725] [1119] [1128] Adjournment of term.—Should the judge of a district court not appear at the time appointed for holding the same, and should no election of a special judge be had, the sheriff of the county, or in his default any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days; and if the judge should not appear on the morning of the fourth day, and should no special judge have been elected, the sheriff or constable, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof. [Acts 1846, p. 203; P. D. 1412; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1510.]

Art. 1923. [1726] Extension of term.—Whenever a district court shall be in the midst of the trial of a cause when the time for the expiration of the term of said court arrives, the judge presiding shall have the power and may, if he deems it expedient, extend the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial. The extension of such term shall be shown in the minutes of the court before they are signed. If the term is extended as herein provided, no term of court in any other county shall fail because thereof, but the term of court therein may be opened and held as provided by law when the district judge fails to appear at the opening of a term of court. [Acts 1909, p. 114.]

Art. 1924. Extension in certain counties.—A district court in a judicial district composed of more than one county and having terms of court fixed by law in counties in which there is a city of one hundred and thirty-five thousand population, or over, according to the preceding Federal census, may, by an order of the judge thereof made and entered of record in the minutes of said court, have any of such terms of court in such last described counties extended for such length of time as such judge may deem advisable for the transaction of the business of such court. [Acts 1923, p. 25.]

Art. 1925. Effect of extension.—If any term of court is extended as provided in the preceding article, no term of such court as fixed by law shall fail, but same shall be opened and held as provided by law. When a new term shall run concurrently in time and in the same county with an extended term, the minutes of both such terms may be recorded together during the time such terms so run concurrently. While such new term is open, each entry made in the minute records of said court during such time shall be presumed to be the minutes of proceedings of such new term unless otherwise shown in such minutes. [Id.]

Art. 1926. Citation by publication, etc.—Any citation by publication that may be issued out of any district court described in the two preceding articles shall be made returnable and be served as prescribed by law, but if there be insufficient time after the issuance thereof to allow the publication thereof the number of times prescribed by law before the first day of the next succeeding regular term of such court, then such citation shall be made returnable to the succeeding regular term of such court, and shall command the officer to summon defendant to appear and answer plaintiff's petition at such term, by making publication thereof as prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 1927. [1731] [1124] [1133] Election and qualification.—A county judge who shall be well-informed in the law of this State shall be elected in each county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, and shall hold his office for two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 15; Art. 16, Sec. 17; Acts 1876, p. 17, Sec 1; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 853.]

Art. 1928. [1732] [1125] [1134] Bond.—The county judge shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond payable to the treasurer of his county to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, in a sum of not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, the amount to be fixed by the commissioners court, conditioned that he will pay over to the person or officer entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands as county judge, and that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and that he will not vote or give his consent to pay out county funds except for lawful purposes. [Acts 1883, p. 50; Acts 1923, p. 13; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 356.]

Art. 1929. [1733] [1126] [1135] Absence from office.—He shall attend at his office from day to day, and not absent himself from the county or the State without the permission of the commissioners court, to be entered on its minutes, nor shall he be absent with such permission for a longer period than ninety days. [Acts 1883, p. 8; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 314.]

Art. 1930. [1737] [1130] Special county judge.—When a judge of the county court is disqualified, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try such case. [Acts 1893, p. 75.]

Art. 1931. [1738] [1131] Governor may appoint special judge.—Whenever a judge of the county court is disqualified to try a civil case pending in the county court, and the parties shall fail at the first term of the court to agree upon a special judge, the judge shall certify his disqualification to the Governor and the failure to agree upon another to try the same, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person, learned in the law to try such case. [Id.]

Art. 1932. [1738] [1131] Special judge in probate matter.

—When a county judge is disqualified to act in any probate matter, he shall forthwith certify his disqualification therein to the Governor, whereupon the Governor shall appoint some person to act as special judge in said case, who shall act from term to term until such disqualification ceases to exist. [Id.]

Art. 1933. [1739] [1132] Appointment by wire.—Whenever the county judge or the special judge shall be disqualified from trying a case, the parties or their counsel may agree upon an attorney for the trial thereof; and, if they shall fail to agree upon an attorney at or before the time it is called for trial, or if the trial of the case is pending and the county judge should become unable to act, or is absent, and a special judge is selected who is disqualified to proceed with the trial, and the parties then fail to select or agree upon a special judge who is qualified, the county judge or special judge presiding shall certify the fact to the Governor immediately, whereupon the Governor shall appoint a special judge, qualified to try same. Such appointment may be made by telegram or otherwise. The special judge shall proceed to the trial or disposition of such case. Any special judge agreed upon or appointed to try cases shall receive the same pay for his services as is provided by law for county judges. [Id.]

Art. 1934. [1741-2] Election of judges.—If a county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding the court, or should he be absent during the term or unable or unwilling to hold the court, a special county judge may be elected in like manner as is provided for the election of a special district judge. The special county judge so elected shall have all the authority of the county judge while in the trial and disposition of any case pending in said court during the absence, inability, or such refusal of the county judge. Similar elections may be held at any time during the term, to supply the absence, failure or inability of the county judge, or any special judge, to perform the duties of the office. When a special county judge shall have been so elected, the clerk shall enter upon the minutes of the court, a record such as is provided for in like cases in the district court. [Acts 1897, p. 7.]

Art. 1935. [1743] [1133] [1142] Election and term.—A clerk of the county court for each county shall be elected at each general election by the qualified voters of such county, and shall hold his office for two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 20; Art. 16, Sec. 17.]

Art. 1936. [1745-6] Clerk pro tem.—Where a county clerk shall be a party to any motion or proceeding in his court, the county judge shall, on his own motion, or on application of any person interested, appoint a clerk pro tempore for the purposes of such suit, motion or proceeding. The person so appointed shall take the oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of such appointment, and shall also enter into bond, payable to the State of Texas, in such amount as may be required by the judge, to be approved by him, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under such appointment. The person so appointed shall perform all the duties required by law of the clerk in the particular suit, motion or proceeding in which he may be appointed. [Acts 1887, p. 102; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 900.]

Art. 1937. [1747] [1137] [1144] Bond and oath.—Each county clerk shall, before entering upon the duties of his office give bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county, payable to the Governor in a sum to be fixed by the commissioners court, not less than two thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars conditioned for the safekeeping of the records and the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and further conditioned that said clerk will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of the county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise. Said clerk shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be indorsed upon the bond, and the bond and oath so taken and approved shall be recorded in the county clerk's office, and deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court. A certified copy of such bond may be put in suit in the name of the Governor for the use of the party injured. [Acts 1876, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 846; Acts 1923, p. 24.]

Art. 1938. [1748-9-50] Deputies.—The county clerk may in writing, appoint one or more deputies under his hand and the seal of his court, which shall be recorded in the office of such clerk, and shall be deposited in the office of the district clerk. Deputies shall take the official oath and shall act in the name of their principal, and may do and perform all such official acts as may be lawfully done and performed by such clerk in person. When the clerk does not reside at the county seat, he shall have a deputy residing there. [Acts 1876, p. 10; P. D. 500; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 846.]

Art. 1939. Soldiers' records.—Each county clerk shall record in a well bound book the official discharge of each soldier, sailor or other person resident in the county who served at home or abroad in the army or navy forces of the United States in the late World War. For such services said clerk shall be allowed by the commissioners court, out of the general fund of the county, not to exceed fifteen cents for each one hundred words so recorded. [Acts 1919, p. 154.]

Art. 1940. [1753] [1143] [1150] Clerk of commissioners court.—They shall be ex-officio clerks of the commissioners court.

Art. 1941. [1754] [1144] [1151] Recorders.—They shall be ex-officio recorders for their several counties, and as such shall record in suitable books to be procured for that purpose all deeds, mortgages and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded; they shall be the keepers of such record books, and shall keep the same properly indexed, arranged and preserved. [Id.]

Art. 1942. [1755] [1145] [1152] Custody of records.—They shall be keepers of the records, books, papers and proceedings of their respective courts in civil and criminal cases and in matters of probate, and see that the same are properly indexed, arranged and preserved, and shall perform such other duties in that behalf as may be by law imposed on them. [Id.]

Art. 1943. [1756] [1146] [1153] Keep record of proceedings.—They shall keep a fair record of all the acts done and proceedings had in their respective courts, and enter all judgments of the court, under the direction of the judge, and shall keep a record of each execution issued, and of the returns thereon. [Id. P. D. 504.]

Art. 1944. [1757] [1147] [1154] Index to judgments.—They shall provide and keep in their respective offices, as part of the records thereof, full and complete alphabetical indexes of the names of the parties to all suits filed in their courts, which indexes shall be kept in well bound books, and shall state in full the names of all the parties to such suits, which shall be indexed and cross indexed, so as to show the name of each party under the proper letter; and a reference shall be made opposite each name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the judgment in each case. [Acts 1876, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 861.]

Art. 1945. [1758] [1148] [1155] Other dockets, indexes, etc.—The clerk shall keep such other dockets, books and indexes as may be required by law; and all books, records and filed papers belonging to the office of county clerks shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen, who shall have the right to make copies of the same. [Acts 1905, p. 114.]

Art. 1946. [1759] [1149] [1156] Report fines and jury fees.—On the last day of each term of the county court, the clerk shall make a written statement showing all moneys received by him for jury fees and fines since his last statement, with the names of the parties from whom received; and the name of each juror who has served at such term; the number of days he served, and the amount due him for such service. Such statement shall be examined and corrected by the presiding judge, and be approved and signed by him. When so approved and signed it shall be recorded in the minutes of the court. [Acts 1876, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 859.]

Art. 1947. [1760] [1150] [1157] Jury fees and fines.—The clerk shall pay to the county treasurer all jury fees and fines received by him to the use of the county.

Art. 1948. [1762] [1153] [1160] Shall use seal.—Where in any county a joint clerk shall have been elected, he shall, in performing the duties of county clerk, use the seal of said court to authenticate his official acts as such clerk.

Art. 1949. [1763] [1154] [1161] Exclusive original jurisdiction.—The county court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed in value two hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 16; Acts 1876, p. 172; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1008.]

Art. 1950. [1764] [1155] [1162] Concurrent original jurisdiction.—The county court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court when the matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred and not exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest. [Id.]

Art. 1951. [1766] [1157] [1164] No jurisdiction.—The county court shall not have jurisdiction of any suit to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, nor of suits of the recovery of lands, nor suits for the enforcement of liens upon land, nor of suits in behalf of the State for escheats, nor of suits for divorce, nor of suits for the forfeiture of the charters of corporations and incorporated companies, nor of suits for the trial of the right to property levied on by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment, when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1952. [1767] [1158] [1165] Appellate jurisdiction.—The county court shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases over which the justice courts have original jurisdiction when the judgment appealed from or the amount in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of costs. [Id.]

Art. 1953. [1768] [1159] [1166] Certiorari to justice courts.—The county court shall also have jurisdiction in cases brought up from the justice courts by certiorari.

Art. 1954. [1769] [1160] [1167] Motions against officers.—The county court may hear and determine all motions against sheriffs and other officers of the court for failure to pay over moneys collected under the process of said court, or other defalcation of duty in connection with such process. [Acts 1876, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 859.]

Art. 1955. [1770] [1161] [1168] To punish for contempt.—The county court may punish, by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding three days, persons guilty of contempt of such court. [Acts 1846, p. 200; P. D. 1409; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 1956. [1771] [1169] Law and equity powers.—Subject to the limitation stated in this chapter, the county court is authorized to hear and determine any cause which is cognizable by courts, either of law or equity, and to grant any relief which could be granted by said courts, or either of them. [Id; P. D. 1410.]

Art. 1957. [1772] [1163] [1170] To grant remedial writs.—The county judge, either in term time or vacation, may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari and supersedeas, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 16; Acts 1876, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 855.]

Art. 1958. [1773] [1164] [1171] Appointing attorneys.—The county judge may appoint counsel to attend to the cause of any party who makes affidavit that he is too poor to employ counsel to attend to the same. [Acts 1846, p. 200, Sec. 11; P. D. 1414; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 1959. [1774] [1165] [1172] Additional authority.—The county court and the county judge shall also have such authority as may be vested in them by law.

Art. 1960. [1775] [1166] Changed jurisdiction; eminent domain.—Where the jurisdiction of a county court has been taken away, altered or changed by existing laws, the same shall remain as established, until otherwise provided by law. Jurisdiction shall obtain in all matters of eminent domain over which the county courts have jurisdiction by the general laws of this State. [Acts 1885, p. 77; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 697.]

| | 1962 | | 1964 |

Art. 1961. [1776] [1167] Terms of court.—The county court shall hold at least four terms for both civil and criminal business annually, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the commissioners court. After having fixed the times and number of the terms of a county court, they shall not change the same until the expiration of one year. Until, or unless otherwise provided, the term of the county court shall be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks. [Const. amendment 1883, Art. 5, Sec. 29.]

Art. 1962. [1176-1177] Other terms.—The commissioners court may, at a regular term thereof, by an order entered upon its records, provide for more terms of the county court for the transaction of civil, criminal and probate business, and fix the times at which each of the four terms required by the Constitution, and the terms exceeding four, if any, shall be held, not to exceed six annually, and may fix the length of each term. When the number of the terms of the county court has been fixed, the court shall not change the order before one year from the date of entry of the original order fixing such terms. [Acts 1885, p. 53.]

Art. 1963. [1776] [1167] Probate business.—Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 1964. [1178] [1169] Judge failing to appear.—If the county judge fails to appear at the time appointed for holding his court and no election of a special judge is had, the sheriff of the county, or, in his default, any constable of the county, shall adjourn the court from day to day for three days. If the judge should not appear on the fourth day and no special judge is elected, the sheriff or constable as the case may be, shall adjourn the court until the next regular term thereof. [Acts 1846, p. 200; P. D. 1412; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 1965. [1779-1780] [1170] [1175] Minutes. — The minutes of the proceedings of each preceding day of the session shall be read in open court on the morning of the succeeding day, except on the last day of the session, on which day they shall be read, and if necessary be corrected, and signed in open court by the county judge. Each special judge shall sign the minutes of such proceedings as were had before him. [Acts 1846, p. 200; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 1966. [1781] [1172] [1177] Seal of the court.—Each county court shall be provided with a seal, having engraved thereon a star of five points in the center, and the words, "County Court of _____ County, Texas," the impress of which shall be attached to all process, except subpoenas, issued out of such court, and shall be used to authenticate the official acts of the clerk and of the county judge. [Id.]

Art. 1967. [1783] [1174] [1179] Probate day designated.—On the first day of the term for civil business, the county judge shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate a day for taking up the probate business; and the probate docket shall thereupon be called in its regular order unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Acts 1876, p. 22; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 858.]

Art. 1968. [1784] [1175] [1180] When case is transferred.—Whenever a cause shall be transferred from the county court to the district court, the clerk shall immediately make out a transcript of all the proceedings had in said cause in the county court, and shall transmit the same, duly certified as such, together with a bill of the costs which have accrued in said court, and all the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the district court. [Acts 1876, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 855.]

Art. 1969. [1785] [1176] Jurisdiction taken away.—Each clerk of the county court where the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of the county courts has been transferred to the district court, shall make out a certified copy of all judgments remaining unsatisfied, which have been rendered in civil or criminal cases in the county court, and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court of their respective counties. [Acts 1879, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 42.]

Art. 1970. County courts at law.—All county courts at law and all similar courts by whatever name known, which now exist, shall be continued in force, together with their organization, jurisdiction, duties, powers, procedure and emoluments that now exist by law, until otherwise changed by law.

Art. 1975. [2172] [1504] Actions maintainable.—Persons claiming a right to or interest in property in this State may bring and prosecute to final decree, judgment or order, actions against non-residents of this State, or persons whose place of residence is unknown, or who are transient persons, who claim an adverse estate, or interest in, or who claim any lien or incumbrance on said property, for the purpose of determining such estate, interest, lien, or incumbrance, and granting the title to said property, or settling the lien or incumbrance thereon. [Acts 1893, p. 77; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 507.]

Art. 1976. [2173] [1504] Actual possession not necessary.—Such action may be maintained by any such person whether or not he is in actual possession of such property. Service on the defendant or defendants may be made by publication as is or may be provided by law for publication of citation against such defendants. [Id.]

Art. 1977. [2174] [1504] Requisites of pleadings.—The pleadings in such case shall set forth the title of the complainant, and such proceedings shall be had in such action as may be necessary to fully settle and determine the question of right or title in and to said property between the parties to said suit, and to decree the title or right of the party entitled thereto; and the court may issue the appropriate order to carry such decree, judgment or order into effect. [Id.; Acts 1919, p. 98.]

Art. 1978. [2175] [1504] No judgment by default.—No judgment by default shall be taken in such case, but the facts entitling the plaintiff to judgment shall be exhibited to the court on the trial; and a statement of the facts shall be filed as provided by law in suits against non-residents of this State where no appearance has been made by them. [Acts 1893, p. 77.]

Art. 1979. [2176] [1504] Suit to extinguish lien.—If said suit shall be for the extinguishment of a lien or claim for money on said property that may be held by the defendant, the amount thereof, with interest, shall be ascertained by the court; and the same deposited in the registry of the court, subject to be drawn by the parties entitled thereto; but in such case no decree shall be entered until said sum is deposited; which fact shall be noted in said decree. [Id.]

Art. 1981. [1836] [1197] [1201] By executors, etc.—Suits for the recovery of personal property, debts or damages, and suits for title or possession of lands, or for any right attached to, or growing out of the same, or for injury or damage done thereto, may be instituted by executors, administrators or guardians appointed in this State; and judgment in such cases shall be conclusive, but may be set aside by any person interested for fraud or collusion on the part of such executor or administrator. [Acts 1846, p. 363; F. D. 1447; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 1982. [1837] [1198] [1202] For lands against decedents.—In every suit against the estate of a decedent involving the title to real estate, the executor or administrator, if any, and the heirs shall be made parties defendant. [Acts 1870, p. 173; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 347; P. D. 5697.]

Art. 1983. [1839] [1200] [1204] For wife's separate property.—The husband may sue either alone or jointly with his wife for the recovery of the separate property of the wife; and, in case he fails or neglects so to do, she may sue alone by authority of the court. [Acts 1840, p. 3; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 177; P. D. 4636.]

Art. 1984. [1840] [1201] [1205] Against husband and wife for necessaries.—The husband and wife shall be jointly sued for all debts contracted by the wife for necessaries furnished herself or children, and for expenses which may have been incurred by the wife for the benefit of her separate property. [Acts 1848, p. 77; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 78; P. D. 4643.]

Art. 1985. [1841] [1202] [1206] For wife's debts, etc.—The husband shall be joined in suits for separate debts and demands against the wife, but no personal judgment shall be rendered against the husband. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; P. D. 9.]

Art. 1986. [1842] [1203] [1207] Several obligors to contract.—The acceptor of a bill of exchange, or a principal obligor in a contract, may be sued either alone or jointly with any other party who may be liable thereon; but no judgment shall be rendered against a party not primarily liable on such bill or other contract, unless judgment be also rendered against such acceptor or other principal obligor, except where the plaintiff may discontinue his suit against such principal obligor as hereinafter provided. [Id; Acts 1840, p. 144; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 318; P. D. 1426, 1448-9.]

Art. 1987. [1843] [1204] [1208] Parties conditionally liable.—The assignor, indorser, guarantor and surety upon a contract, and the drawer of a bill which has been accepted, may be sued without suing the maker, acceptor or other principal obligor, when the principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the State, or where he cannot be reached by the ordinary process of law, or when his residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or when he is dead, or actually or notoriously insolvent.

Art. 1988. [1844] [1204] [1208] Against sheriff, etc.—Whenever a sheriff, constable or a deputy or either has been sued for damages for any act done in his official character, and has taken an indemnifying bond for the acts upon which the suit is based, he may make the principal and surety on such bond parties defendant in such suit, and the cause may be continued to obtain service on such parties. [Id; Acts 1835, p. 90; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 710.]

Art. 1989. [1845] [1205] On official bonds.—In suits brought by the State or any county, city or independent school district against any officer who has held an office for more than one term, or against any depository which has been such depository for more than one term, or has given more than one official bond, the sureties on each and all such bonds may be joined as defendants in the same suit whenever it is difficult to determine when the default sued for occurred and which set of sureties on such bonds is liable therefor. [Acts 1891, p. 86; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 314; Acts 1919, p. 34.]

Art. 1990. [1846] [1206] Different officials and bondsmen.—In suits by the State upon the official bond of a State officer, any subordinate officer who has given bond, payable either to the State or such superior officer, to cover all or part of the default sued for, together with the sureties on his official bond, may be joined as defendants with such superior officer and his bondsmen whenever it is alleged in the petition that both of such officers are liable for the money sued for. [Acts 1891, p. 86; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 314.]

Art. 1991. [1847] [1207] Suit in name of State.—Whenever an official bond is made payable to the State of Texas, or any officer thereof, and a recovery thereon is authorized by, or would inure to the benefit of parties other than the State, suit may be brought on such bond in the name of the State alone for the benefit of all parties entitled to recover thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1992. [1848] [1208] [1209] Additional parties.—Before a case is called for trial, additional parties, necessary or proper parties to the suit, may be brought in, either by the plaintiff or the defendant, upon such terms as the court may prescribe; but not at a time nor in a manner so as to unreasonably delay the trial of the case.

Art. 1993. [1849] [1209] [1210] May appear by attorney.—Any party to a suit may appear and prosecute or defend his rights therein, either in person or by an attorney of the court.

Art. 1994. [2167-71]. May appear by next friend.—Minors, lunatics, idiots or non compos mentis who have no legal guardian may sue and be represented by "next friend" under the following rules:

1. Such next friend shall have the same rights concerning such suits as guardians have, but shall give security for costs, or affidavits in lieu thereof, when required.

2. Such next friend or his attorney of record may with the approval of the court compromise suits and agree to judgments, and such judgments, agreements and compromises, when approved by the court, shall be forever binding and conclusive upon the party plaintiff in such suit.

3. In such cases when a judgment is recovered for money or other personal property the value of which does not exceed five hundred dollars, the court may by order entered of record, authorize such next friend or other person to take charge of such money or other property for the use and benefit of the plaintiff when he has executed a proper bond in a sum at least double the value of the property, payable to the county judge, conditioned that he will pay said money with lawful interest thereon or deliver said property and its increase to the person entitled to receive the same when ordered by the court to do so, and that he will use such money or property for the benefit of the owner under the direction of the court.

4. The judge of the court in which the judgment is rendered upon an application and hearing, in term time or vacation, may provide by decree for an investment of the funds accruing under such judgment. Such decree, if made in vacation, shall be recorded in the minutes of the succeeding term of the court.

5. The person who takes such money or property shall receive such compensation as the court may allow and shall make such disposition thereof as the court may order; and he shall return such money or property into court upon the order of the court.

6. If any person has an interest in such recovery, the court may hear evidence as to such interest, and order such claim, or such part as is deemed just, to be paid to whoever is entitled to receive the same. [Acts 1893, p. 3; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 433; Acts 1909, p. 176.]

4. VENUE.

|--------------------------|-----------------|---|-----------------|

Art. 1995. [1830] [1194] [1198] Venue, general rule.—No person who is an inhabitant of this State shall be sued out of the county in which he has his domicile except in the following cases:

1. Married women.—A married woman may be sued in the county in which her husband has his domicile. [Acts 1863, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 664; Acts 1889, p. 48; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1075; P. D. 1423; Acts 1913, p. 424.]

2. Transient persons.—A transient person may be sued in any county in which he may be found.

3. Non-residents; residence unknown.—If one or all of several defendants reside without the State or if their residence is unknown, suit may be brought in the county in which the plaintiff resides.

4. Defendants in different counties.—If two or more defendants reside in different counties, suit may be brought in any county where one of the defendants resides. The transfer or assignment of a note or chose in action shall not entitle any subsequent holder to sue thereon in any other county than that in which such suit could have been prosecuted if no assignment or transfer had been made.

5. Contract in writing.—If a person has contracted in writing to perform an obligation in a particular county, suit may be brought either in such county or where the defendant has his domicile.

6. Executors, administrators, etc.—If the suit is against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, to establish a money demand against the estate which he represents, the suit may be brought in the county in which such estate is administered.

7. Fraud and defalcation.—In all cases of fraud and defalcation of public officers, suit may be brought in the county in which the fraud was committed or defalcation occurred or where the defendant has his domicile.

8. Attachment, sequestration, etc.—A suit for damages resulting from the suing out of a writ of attachment or sequestration, or for levying any such writ, may be brought in the county from which such writ was issued, or in any county where such levy was made in whole or in part.

9. Crime or trespass.—A suit based upon a crime, offense, or trespass may be brought in the county where such crime, offense, or trespass was committed, or in the county where the defendant has his domicile.

10. Personal property.—Suit for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county where the property may be or where the defendant resides.

11. Inheritances.—If the defendant has inherited an estate concerning which the suit is commenced, suit may be brought in the county where such estate principally lies.

12. Lien.—A suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien may be brought in the county where the property or any part thereof subject to such lien is situated.

13. Partition.—Suits for the partition of land or other property may be brought in the county where such land or other property, or a part thereof, may be, or in the county in which one or more of the defendants reside, or in the county of the residence of any defendant who may assert an adverse claim to or interest in such property, or seeks to recover the title to the same. Nothing herein shall be construed to fix venue of a suit to recover the title to land. [Id; Acts 1919, p. 152.]

14. Lands.—Suits for the recovery of lands or damages thereto, or to remove incumbrances upon the title to land, or to quiet the title to land, or to prevent or stay waste on lands, must be brought in the county in which the land, or a part thereof, may lie.

15. Breach of warranty.—Suits for breach of warranty of title to lands may be brought in any county where either vendor resides, and all other vendors may be joined in the same suit.

16. Divorce.—Suits for divorce shall be brought in the county in which the plaintiff shall have resided for six months next preceding the bringing of the suit.

17. Injunctions.—Suits to enjoin the execution of a judgment or to stay proceedings in any suit shall be brought in the county in which such judgment was rendered or in which such suit is pending.

18. Revision of probate.—Suits to revise the proceedings of the county court in matters of probate must be brought in the district court of the county in which such proceedings were had.

19. Suits against counties.—Suits against a county shall be brought within such county.

20. Heads of departments.—Suits for mandamus against the head of any department of the State Government shall be brought in Travis County.

21. Corporations: charters.—Suits brought by the State for the purpose of forfeiting the charter of a private corporation chartered by Act of the Legislature, or organized under the laws of this State, and for the purpose of canceling the permit authorizing a foreign corporation to transact business in this State, and for the purpose of restraining corporations from exercising powers not conferred upon them by the laws of this State, and for the purpose of preventing persons from engaging in business in this State contrary to the laws thereof, may be brought in Travis County.

22. Railway lands.—Suits on behalf of the State to forfeit land fraudulently or colorably alienated by railway companies in fraud of the rights of the State, under the laws granting lands to railway companies, shall be brought in Travis County.

23. Corporations and associations.—Suits against a private corporation, association or joint stock company may be brought in any county in which the cause of action, or a part thereof, arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated. Suits against a railroad corporation, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating its railway, may also be brought in any county through or into which the railroad of such corporation extends or is operated. Suits against receivers of persons and corporations may also be brought as otherwise provided by law.

24. Carriers.—Suits arising from damage or loss to any passenger, freight, baggage or other property, by reason of its transportation, or contract in relation thereto, in whole or in part by one or more common carriers or the assignees, lessees, trustees or receivers thereof, operating or doing business as such in this State, or having agents or representatives in this State, may be brought against one or more of those so doing business, in any county where either does business or has an agent or representative.

25. Railway personal injuries.—Suits against railroad corporations, or against any assignee, trustee or receiver operating any railway in this State, for damages arising from personal injuries, resulting in death or otherwise, shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury. If the defendant railroad corporation does not run or operate its railway in, or through, the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, and has no agent in said county, then said suit shall be brought either in the county in which the injury occurred, or in the county nearest that in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the injury, in which the defendant corporation runs or operates its road, or has an agent. If the plaintiff is a non-resident of this State, then such suit may be brought in any county in which the defendant corporation may run or operate its railroad, or have an agent. When an injury occurs within one-half mile from the boundary line dividing two counties, suit may be brought in either of said counties.

26. Railroad wages.—Suits by mechanics, laborers and operatives, for their wages due by railroad companies, may be instituted and prosecuted in any county in this State where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action, or part thereof, accrued, or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated.

27. Foreign corporations.—Foreign corporations, private or public, joint stock companies or associations, not incorporated by the laws of this State, and doing business within this State, may be sued in any county where the cause of action or a part thereof accrued, or in any county where such company may have an agency or representative, or in the county in which the principal office of such company may be situated; or, when the defendant corporation has no agent or representative in this State, then in the county where the plaintiffs, or either of them, reside.

28. Insurance.—Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may also be commenced in any county in which the insured property was situated. Suits on policies may be brought against any life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, or health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, in the county where the home office of such company is located, or in the county where loss has occurred or where the policyholder or beneficiary instituting such suit resides.

29. Libel or slander.—A suit for damages for libel or slander shall be brought, and can only be maintained, in the county in which the plaintiff resided at the time of the accrual of the cause of action, or in the county where the defendant resided at the time of filing suit, or in the county of the residence of defendants, or any of them, or the domicile of any corporate defendant, at the election of the plaintiff. [Acts 1919, p. 138.]

30. Special venue.—Whenever in any law authorizing or regulating any particular character of action, the venue is expressly prescribed, the suit shall be commenced in the county to which jurisdiction may be so expressly given.

Art. 1996. [1834] [1195] [1199] When water course or highway is boundary.—Where any part of a river, water course, highway, road or street is the boundary line between two counties, the several courts of each of said counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases over such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street as shall be the boundary of such county in the same manner as if such parts of said river, water course, highway, road or street were within the body of such county.

| Of intervenor..... | 1998 | Amendments..... | 2001 |
| Alleging a corporation..... | 1999 | Bill of discovery..... | 2002 |

Art. 1997. [1817-18-19] Definition and system.—Pleadings in civil suits in the district and county courts shall:

1. Be by petition and answer.
2. Consist of a statement in logical and legal form of the facts constituting the plaintiff's cause of action or the defendant's ground of defense.
3. Contain any other matter which may be required by any law authorizing or regulating any particular action or defense.

4. Be in writing, signed by the party or his attorney and be filed with the clerk.

Art. 1998. [1820-24] Of intervenor.—Any party may intervene in vacation, subject to be stricken out by the court for sufficient cause at the next term on the motion of the opposite party; and such intervenor shall, within five days from the filing of same, notify the opposite party or his attorney of the filing of such pleadings. When court is in session such pleadings shall be filed under the rules governing amendments to pleadings. So far as applicable, pleadings of an intervenor shall conform to the requirements of pleadings of the plaintiff and defendant respectively.

Art. 1999. [1822] [1186] [1190] Alleging a corporation.—An allegation that a corporation was duly incorporated shall be taken as true, unless denied by the affidavit of the adverse party, his agent or attorney, whether such corporation is a public or private corporation and however created.

Art. 2000. [1823] [1187] [1191] Special Act or Law.—A pleading founded wholly or in part on any private or special Act or law of this State or of the Republic of Texas need only recite the title thereof, the date of its approval, and set out in substance so much of such act or laws as may be pertinent to the cause of action or defense.

Art. 2001. [1824-25-26] Amendments.—Parties may amend their pleadings, file suggestions of death and make representatives parties, make new parties, and file such other pleas as they may desire:

1. In vacation, by filing such pleas with the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending.

2. When court is in session, under leave of the court upon such terms as the court may prescribe before the parties announce ready for trial, and at such time as not to operate as a surprise to the opposite party.

3. When because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the successful party, the judgment has been arrested or a new trial granted.

Art. 2002. Bill of discovery.—All trial courts shall entertain suits in the nature of bills of discovery, and grant relief therein in accordance with the usages of courts of equity. Such remedy shall be cumulative of all other remedies. [Acts 1923, p. 31.]

2. PLEADINGS OF THE PLAINTIFF.

| The petition..... | Article 2003 | Special defenses..... | Article 2005 |
| Defensive matters..... | 2004 | | |

Art. 2003. [1827] [1191] [1195] The petition.—The petition shall state the names of the parties and their residences, if known, with a concise statement of the cause of action, and such other allegations pertinent to the cause, as the plaintiff may deem necessary to sustain his suit, without any distinction between suits at law and in equity, and shall also state the nature of the relief sought. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1427; Acts 1913, p. 256; Acts 1915, p. 155; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2004. [1828] [1192] [1196] Defensive matters.—When the defendant sets up a counter claim, the plaintiff may plead thereto under rules prescribed for pleadings of defensive matter by the defendant, so far as applicable. Whenever the defendant is required to plead any matter of defense under oath, the plaintiff shall be required to plead such matters under oath when relied on by him. [Id.]

Art. 2005. [1829] [1193] [1197] Special defenses.—The plaintiff need not deny any special matter of defense pleaded by the defendant, but the same shall be regarded as denied unless expressly admitted. [Id.]

3. PLEADINGS OF THE DEFENDANT.

| Pleas to be filed in due order..... | 2012 | Transferred if plea sustained..... | 2019 |
| | | Record transmitted..... | 2020 |

Art. 2006. [1902] [1262] [1262] Answer may include several matters; etc.—The defendant in his answer may plead as many several matters, whether of law or fact, as he shall think necessary for his defense, and which may be pertinent to the cause; provided, that he shall file them all at the same time and in due order of pleading. A general denial of matters pleaded by the adverse party which are not required to be sworn to, shall be sufficient to put the same in issue. [Acts 1846, p. 3631; P. D. 1441; Acts 1913, p. 256; Acts 1915, p. 155; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2007. [1903] Plea of privilege.—A plea of privilege to be sued in the county of one's residence shall be sufficient if it be in writing and sworn to, and shall state that the party claiming such privilege was not, at the institution of such suit, nor at the time of the service of process thereon, nor at the time of filing such plea, a resident of the county in which such suit was instituted and shall state the county of his residence at the time of such plea, and that "no exception to exclusive venue in the county of one's residence provided by law exists in said cause"; and such plea of privilege when filed shall be prima facie proof of the defendant's right to change of venue. If the plaintiff desires to controvert the plea of privilege, he shall within five days after appearance day file a controverting plea under oath, setting out specifically the fact or facts relied upon to confer venue of such cause on the court where the cause is pending. [Acts 1907, p. 248, Acts 1917, p. 388.]

Art. 2008. [1903] Hearing on plea.—Upon the filing of such controverting plea, the judge or justice of the peace shall note on same a time for a hearing on the plea of privilege. Such hearing, unless the parties agree upon the date, shall not be had until a copy of such controverting plea, including a copy of such notation thereon, shall have been served on each defendant, or his attorney, for at least ten days exclusive of the day of service and the date of hearing, after which the court shall promptly hear such plea of privilege and enter judgment thereon. Either party may appeal from the judgment sustaining or over-ruling the plea of privilege, and if the judgment is one sustaining the plea of privilege and an appeal is taken, such appeal shall suspend the transfer of the venue and a trial of the cause pending the final determination of such appeal. [Id.]

Art. 2009. [1904-5] Answer filed.—Where citation has been personally served at least ten days before the first day of the term to which it is returnable, exclusive of the day of service and return, the answer of the defendant shall be filed on or before the second day of the return term, and before the call of the appearance docket on said second day. Where service of citation has been made by publication, the answer of the defendant shall be filed on or before the appearance day of the term to which the citation is made returnable. [Acts 1893, p. 31; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 401; Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 324; Acts 1917, p. 24.]

Art. 2010. [1906] [1265] [1265] Certain pleas to be verified.—An answer setting up any of the following matters, unless the truth of the pleadings appear of record, shall be verified by affidavit:

1. That the suit is not commenced in the proper county.
2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
3. That the plaintiff is not entitled to recover in the capacity in which he sues.
4. That there is another suit pending in this State between the same parties for the same cause of action.
5. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant.
6. A denial of partnership as alleged in the petition, whether the same be on the part of the plaintiff or defendant.
7. That the plaintiff or the defendant, alleged in the petition to be duly incorporated, is not duly incorporated as alleged.
8. A denial of the execution by himself or by his authority of any instrument in writing, upon which any pleading is founded, in whole or in part, and charged to have been executed by him or by his authority, and not alleged to be lost or destroyed. Where such instrument in writing is charged to have been executed by a person then deceased, the affidavit will be sufficient if it state that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe that such instrument was not executed by the decedent or by his authority.
9. A plea denying the genuineness of the indorsement or assignment of a written instrument as required by article 573.
10. That a written instrument upon which a pleading is founded is without consideration, or that the consideration of the same has failed in whole or in part.
11. That an account which is the foundation of the plaintiff's action, and supported by an affidavit, is not just; and, in such case, the answer shall set forth the items and particulars which are unjust.
12. That the contract sued upon is usurious. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1, Id; P. D. 288, Id; P. D. 1443; Acts 1840, p. 144; P. D. 224; Acts 1874, p. 52; P. D. 6828c; Acts 1883, p. 4; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2011. [1908] [1267] [1267] General denial.—Where the defendant has pleaded a general denial, and the plaintiff shall afterward amend his pleading, such original denial shall be presumed to extend to all matters subsequently set up by the plaintiff.

Art. 2012. [1909] [1268] [1268] Pleas to be filed in due order.—Pleas shall be filed in the due order of pleading, and shall be heard and determined in such order under the direction of the court. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2013. [1910] [1269] [1269] Pleas determined during term at which filed.—Pleas to the jurisdiction, pleas in abatement, and other dilatory pleas and demurrers, not involving the merits of the case, shall be determined during the term at which they are filed, if the business of the court will permit. [Id.]

Art. 2014. [1907] [1266] [1266] Pleas of payment, counter claim.—When a defendant shall desire to prove payment, counter claim or set-off, he shall file with his plea an account stating distinctly the nature of such payment, counter claim or set-off, and the several items thereof; failing to do so, he shall not be allowed to prove the same, unless it be so plainly and particularly described in the plea as to give the plaintiff full notice of the character thereof. [Acts 1840, p. 62; P. D. 3444; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 236.]

Art. 2015. [1325-6] Pleas of counter claim.—Whenever any suit is brought for the recovery of any debt due by judgment, bond, bill or otherwise, the defendant shall be permitted to plead therein any counter claim he may have against the plaintiff, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law. The plea setting up such counter claim shall state distinctly the nature and the several items thereof, and shall conform to the ordinary rules of pleading. [Id.]

Art. 2016. [1900] [1260] [1260] No discontinuance.—Where the defendant has filed a counter claim seeking affirmative relief, the plaintiff shall not be permitted, by a discontinuance of his suit, to prejudice the right of the defendant to be heard on such counter claim.

Art. 2017. [1329-30] Set-off.—If the plaintiff's cause of action be a claim for unliquidated or uncertain damages, founded on a tort or breach of covenant, the defendant shall not be permitted to set off any debt due him by the plaintiff. If the suit be founded on a certain demand, the defendant shall not be permitted to set off unliquidated or uncertain damages founded on a tort or breach of covenant on the part of the plaintiff. However, the defendant may plead in set off any counter claim founded on a cause of action arising out of or incident to, or connected with, the plaintiff's cause of action.

Art. 2018. [1831] Plea not waived.—Issuing process for witnesses and taking depositions shall not constitute a waiver of a plea of privilege, but depositions taken in such case may be read in evidence in any subsequent suit between the same parties concerning the same subject-matter in like manner as if taken in such subsequent suit. [Acts 1907, p. 248.]

Art. 2019. [1832] Transferred if plea is sustained.—If a plea of privilege is sustained, the cause shall not be dismissed, but the court shall transfer said cause to the court having jurisdiction of the person of the defendant therein; and the costs incurred prior to the time such suit is filed in the court to which said cause is transferred shall be taxed against the plaintiff. [Id.]

Art. 2020. [1833] Record transmitted.—When a plea of privilege is sustained, the court shall order the venue to be changed to the proper court of the county having jurisdiction of the parties and the cause. The clerk shall make up a transcript of all the orders made in said cause, certifying thereto officially under the seal of the court, and send it with the original papers in the cause to the clerk of the court to which the venue has been changed. [Id.]

[1852] [1213] [1314] Requisites.—Citations shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the next regular term of the court, stating the time and place of holding the same. It shall state the date of the filing of the petition, its file number and the names of all the parties and the nature of the plaintiff's demand; but the nature of plaintiff's demand need not be stated in cases where by law it is required to accompany a citation with a certified copy of plaintiff's petition. [Id; Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; Acts 1866, p. 199; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1117; Acts 1919, p. 212.]

Art. 2023. [1853] [1215] [1216] Out-county defendant.—Each defendant to be served without the county in which the suit is pending, shall have a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition accompany the citation.

Art. 2024. [1854] [1216] [1217] If sheriff is a party.—If the sheriff is a party to or interested in a suit, the citation shall be addressed to any constable of his county. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1437; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2025. [1856] [1857] Duty of officer receiving.—The officer to whom citation is delivered shall endorse thereon the day and hour on which he received it, and shall execute and return the same without delay. [Id. Sec. 14; P. D. 1433.]

Art. 2026. [1856] [1218] [1219] Service of citation.—Unless it otherwise directs, the citation shall be served by the officer delivering to each defendant, in person, a true copy of the citation and a certified copy of the petition when served without the county in which the suit is pending. [Id.]

Art. 2027. [1858] [1220] [1221] Against counties.—In suits against a county, the citation shall be served on the county judge of such county. [Id. p. 320; P. D. 1048; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1626.]

Art. 2028. [1859] [1221] [1222] Against cities and towns, etc.—In suits against an incorporated city, town or village, the citation may be served on the mayor, clerk, secretary or treasurer thereof. [Acts 1854, p. 53; P. D. 1430; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1497.]

Art. 2029. [1860] [1222] [1223] Against corporations and joint stock associations.—In suits against any incorporated company or joint stock association, the citation may be served on the president, secretary or treasurer of such company or association, or upon the local agent of such company or association in the county where suit is brought, or by leaving a copy of the same at the principal office of the company during office hours. If neither the president, secretary or treasurer reside in the county in which suit is brought, and such company or association has no agent in the county, then the citation may be served upon any agent representing such company or association in the State. [1903, p. 66; Acts 1874, p. 31, p. 108; G. L. Vol. 8, pp. 34, 110; Acts 1854, p. 53; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1497; P. D. 1430; 4888; Acts 1887, p. 119; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 917.]

Art. 2030. [1860] [1222] [1223] Receiver of railroad company.—In suits against receivers of railroad companies, service may be had either upon the receiver, the general or division superintendent, or any agent of the receiver who resides in the county in which suit is brought. If there be no agent of the receiver in the county in which suit is brought, then service may be had upon any agent of the receiver in the State. [Id.]

Art. 2031. [1861] [1223] Foreign corporations.—In suits against a foreign corporation, joint stock company or association, or acting corporation or association, process may be served on the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, or general manager, and in any cause of action arising within this State, process may also be served upon any local or traveling agent, or traveling salesman of such corporation, joint stock company or association, or acting corporation or association in this State. [Acts 1885, p. 79; Acts 1919, p. 181; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 699.]

Art. 2032. [1862] Foreign railway corporations.—Service may also be had on foreign railway corporations by serving citation upon any train conductor who is engaged in handling trains for two or more railway corporations where one is a for-foreign railway corporation, and the other a domestic corporation, if said conductor handles and operates trains over such foreign and domestic corporation's tracks across the State line of Texas and on the track of the domestic corporation within this State or upon any agent who has an office in Texas who sells tickets or makes contracts for the transportation of passengers or property over any line of railway, or part thereof, of such foreign railway corporation or company. Conductors who are engaged in handling trains and employed by a foreign railway corporation and a domestic corporation, and who operate such trains across the State line of Texas, and agents engaged in selling tickets or making contracts for the transportation of property, are hereby designated as agents of such foreign corporation or companies upon whom service of citation may be had. [Acts 1905, p. 30; Acts 1919, p. 288.]

Art. 2033. [1863] [1224] [1224] Against partners.—Citation served upon one member of a partnership or firm shall be sufficient to authorize a judgment against the firm and the partner actually served. [Acts 1858, p. 110; P. D. 1514; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 982.]

Art. 2034. [1864-5] Return of citation.—The return of the officer executing the citation shall be indorsed on or attached to the same; it shall state when the citation was served and the manner of service, conforming to the command of the writ, and be signed by him officially. When the citation has not been served, the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same and the cause of failure to execute it, and where the defendant is to be found, if he can ascertain. [Acts 1848, p. 106; P. D. 1507; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106.]

Art. 2035. [1866] [1227] [1227] Alias process.—When any process has not been returned, or has been returned without service, or has been improperly served, the clerk shall, upon the application of any party to the suit, his agent or attorney, issue other process to the same or any other county as the applicant may direct. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1435; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2036. [1867-1868] Time of service.—Citations shall be served before the return day thereof; and, the defendant shall not be required to plead at the return term of the court, unless citation be served at least ten days before the first day of such term, exclusive of the days of service and return, but when a citation is served before return day thereof and less than ten days before the first day of such term, exclusive of the day of service and return, such service shall compel the defendant to plead at the next succeeding term of the court. [Acts 1891, p. 94; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 96.]

Art. 2037. [1869] [1230] [1230] Defendant without State.—Where the defendant is absent from the State, or is a non-resident of the State, upon application of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, the clerk shall address a notice to the defendant requiring him to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at the time and place of holding court, naming such time and place.

It shall give the date of the filing of the petition, the file number of the suit, the names of all the parties, and shall state that a copy of the plaintiff's petition accompanies the notice, but shall not be required to state plaintiff's cause of action. It shall be dated, filed and attested by the clerk with the seal of the court impressed thereon; and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon; a certified copy of the plaintiff's petition shall accompany the notice. [Acts 1875, p. 170; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 542; Acts 1919, p. 250.]

Art. 2038. [1870 to 1873] Notice served.—Such notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact by delivering to the defendant in person a true copy of such notice, together with the certified copy of the plaintiff's petition. The return of service in such cases shall be indorsed on or attached to the original notice, and shall state when it was served and the manner of service, and be signed and sworn to by the party making such service before some officer authorized by the laws of this State to take affidavits, under the hand and official seal of such officer. A defendant served with such notice shall be required to appear and answer in the same manner and under the same penalties as if he had been personally served with a citation within this State. [Acts 1875, p. 170; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 542.]

Art. 2039. [1874] [1235] [1235] Citation by publication.—Where a party to a suit, his agent or attorney, shall make oath when the suit is instituted, or at any time during its progress, that any party defendant therein is a non-resident of the State, or that he is absent from the State, or that he is a transient person, or that his residence is unknown to affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such defendant addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of such citation in some newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day thereof. [Id; Acts 1848, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106; Acts 1879, p. 103; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1403; Acts 1917, p. 23; Acts 1919, p. 168.]

Art. 2040. [1875] [1236] [1236] Unknown heirs of defunct corporation.—Where property in this State has been granted or has accrued to the heirs as such, of any deceased person, or to the stockholders of defunct corporation, any party having a claim or cause of action against them relative to such property, if their names be unknown to him, may bring an action against them, their heirs or legal representatives, describing them as the heirs of such named ancestor or unknown stockholder of such corporation. If the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, shall make oath that the names of such heirs or stockholders are unknown to the affiant, the clerk shall issue a citation for such heirs or stockholders, addressed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such suit is pending. Such citation shall contain a brief statement of the cause of action, and shall command the officer to summon the defendant by making publication of such citation as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1866, p. 125; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1043; Acts 1848, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106; P. D. 5460; Acts 1917, p. 23; Acts 1919, p. 168.]

Art. 2041. [1875] [1236] [1236] Form of published citation.—In cases of citation by publication as provided for in the two preceding articles, it need not contain the details and particulars of the cause of action; provided that in suits by publication involving land, it shall be sufficient in making the brief statement of the cause of action in such citation to state the kind of suit, the number of acres of land involved in the suit, or the number of the lot and block, or any other plat description that may be of record if the land is situated in a city or town, the survey on which and the county in which the land is situated, and any special pleas which are relied upon in such suit. [Id.]

Art. 2042. [1877] [1264] [1264] Publication of citation in land suits.—In all suits involving title to land, wherein service of citation is by publication, such publication shall be made in the county in which the land is situated. If there be no newspaper published in such county, then in the county nearest that wherein the land is situated. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; Acts 1909, S. S. p. 324.]

Art. 2043. [1878] [1238] [1238] Return of citation by publication.—The return of the officer executing such citation shall be indorsed or attached to the same, and show how and when the citation was executed, specifying the dates of such publication, be signed by him officially and shall be accompanied by a printed copy of such publication.

Art. 2044. [1879] [1239] [1239] Mistake in return.—Any mistake or informality in a return may be corrected by the officer at any time under the direction of the court. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; P. D. 53.]

Art. 2045. [1880] [1240] [1240] Acceptance of service.—The defendant may accept service of process, or waive the issuance or service thereof by a written memorandum signed by him, or by his duly authorized agent or attorney, and filed among the papers of the cause; and such waiver or acceptance shall have the same force and effect as if the citation had been issued and served as provided by law. [Id. P. D. 1508, 1432.]

Art. 2046. [1881] [1241] [1241] Entering appearance.—The defendant may, in person, or by attorney, or by his duly authorized agent, enter an appearance in open court. Such appearance shall be noted by the judge upon his docket and entered in the minutes, and shall have the same force and effect as if the citation had been duly issued and served as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 2047. [1882] [1242] [1242] Answer is appearance.—An answer shall constitute an appearance of the defendant so as to dispense with the necessity for the issuance or service of citation upon him. [Id.]

Art. 2048. [1883] [1243] [1243] Constructive appearance.—If the citation or service thereof is quashed on motion of the defendant, the case may be continued for the term, but the defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance to the succeeding term of the court.

Art. 2049. [1884] [1244] [1244] Reversal of judgment.—Where the judgment is reversed on appeal or writ of error taken by the defendant for the want of service, or because of defective service of process, no new citation shall be issued or served, but the defendant shall be presumed to have entered his appearance to the term of the court at which the mandate shall be filed.

Art. 2050. [1885] [1245] [1245] No judgment without service.—In no case shall judgment be rendered against any defendant unless upon service, or acceptance or waiver of process, or upon an appearance by the defendant, as prescribed in this chapter, except where otherwise expressly provided by law. [Acts 1846, p. 6, G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1671.]

Art. 2051. [2030] [1421] [1420] Parties responsible.—Each party to a suit shall be liable to the officers of the court for all costs incurred by himself. No sheriff or constable shall be compelled to execute any process in civil cases coming from any county other than the one in which he is an officer, unless the fees allowed him by law for the service of such process shall be paid in advance; except when affidavit is filed, as provided by law. The clerk issuing the process shall indorse thereon the words, "pauper oath filed", and sign his name officially below them; and the officer in whose hands such process is placed for service shall serve the same. [Acts 1887, p. 102; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 900.]

Art. 2052. [2031] [2491] [2427] Parties liable for other costs.—Each party to a suit shall be liable for all costs incurred by him. If the costs cannot be collected from the party against whom they have been adjudged, execution may issue against any party in such suit for the amount of costs incurred by such party, but no more.

Art. 2053. [2032] [1422] [1420] May demand payment.—Officers may demand payment of all costs due in each and every case pending in their respective courts, up to the adjournment of each term of said courts. [Acts 1879, p. 9; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1390.]

Art. 2054. [2033] [1423] [1420] How costs collected.—If any party responsible for costs fails or refuses to pay the same within ten days after demand for payment, the clerk or justice of the peace may make certified copy of the bill of costs then due, and place the same in the hands of the sheriff or constable for collection. All taxes imposed on law proceedings shall be included in the bill of costs. Such certified bill of costs shall have the force and effect of an execution. The removal of a case by appeal shall not prevent the issuance of an execution for costs at the end of the term. [Id.]

Art. 2055. [2034] [1424] [1420] Officer to levy.—The sheriff or constable upon demand and failure to pay said bill of costs, may levy upon a sufficient amount of property of the person from whom said costs are due to satisfy the same, and sell such property according to the law governing sales under execution. Where such party is not a resident of the county where such suit is pending, the payment of such costs may be demanded of his attorney of record; and neither the clerk nor justice of the peace shall be allowed to charge any fee for making out such certified bill of costs, unless he is compelled to make a levy. [Id.]

Art. 2056. [2035] [1425] [1421] Successful party to recover.—The successful party to a suit shall recover of his adversary all costs incurred therein, except where otherwise provided. [Id; P. D. 1483.]

Art. 2057. [2037] [1427] [1423] Fees of only two witnesses.—In no cause shall there be allowed the fees of more than two witnesses to any one fact. [Id; P. D. 1487.]

Art. 2058. [2038] [1428] [1424] Costs of motions.—The court may give or refuse costs on motions at its discretion, except where otherwise provided by law. [Id; P. D. 1482.]

Art. 2059. [2039-40] On exception to pleadings.—If an exception to a pleading is sustained, all the costs of such exception and of the pleading adjudged to be insufficient, shall be taxed against the party filing such insufficient pleadings. If such exception be overruled, all costs of such exception shall be taxed against the party taking the exception. [Id.]

Art. 2060. [2041] [1431] [1427] Of several suits.—Where any plaintiff shall bring in the same court several suits against the same defendant for causes of action which should have been joined, he shall recover the costs of one action only; and the costs of the other actions shall be adjudged against him, unless sufficient reasons appear to the court for instituting several actions. [Id; P. D. 1452.]

Art. 2061. [2042] [1432] [1428] Demand reduced by payments.—Where the plaintiff's demand is reduced by payment to an amount which would not have been within the jurisdiction of the court, the defendant shall recover his costs. [Acts 1860, p. 15; P. D. 3446; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1377.]

Art. 2062. [2043] [1433] [1429] In assault and battery, etc.—In civil actions for assault and battery, slander and defamation of character, if the verdict or judgment shall be for the plaintiff, but for less than twenty dollars, the plaintiff shall not recover his costs, but each party shall be taxed with the costs incurred by him in such suit. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1467; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2063. [2044] [1434] [1430] Cost of new trials.—The costs of new trials may either abide the result of the suit or may be taxed against the party to whom the new trial is granted, as the court may adjudge when he grants such new trial. [Id; P. D. 1474.]

Art. 2064. [2045] [1435] [1431] On arrest of judgment.—When the judgment is arrested or the verdict is set aside because of the insufficiency of the pleadings of the party in whose favor the verdict or judgment was rendered, the cost thereof shall be taxed against the party filing such insufficient pleadings. [Id; P. D. 1475.]

Art. 2065. [2046-47] On appeal and certiorari.—When a case is appealed, if the judgment of the higher court be against the appellant, but for less amount than the original judgment, such party shall recover the costs of the higher court but shall be adjudged to pay the costs of the court below; if the judgment be against him for the same or a greater amount than in the court below, the adverse party shall recover the costs of both courts. If the judgment of the court above be in favor of the party appealing and for more than the original judgment, such party shall recover the costs of both courts; if the judgment be in his favor, but for the same or a less amount than in the court below, he shall recover the costs of the court below and pay the cost of the court above.

Art. 2066. [2048] [1438] [1434] Court may otherwise adjudge costs.—The court may, for good cause, to be stated on the record, adjudge the costs otherwise than as provided in this chapter.

Art. 2067. [2049] [1439] [1436] Security.—The clerk may require from the plaintiff security for costs before issuing any process, but shall file the petition and enter the same on the docket. [Acts 1848, p. 184; P. D. 3833.]

Art. 2068. [2050] [1440] [1436] Rule for costs.—The plaintiff may be ruled to give security for costs at any time before final judgment, upon motion of the defendant or any officer of the court interested in the costs accruing in such suit, and, if such rule be entered against the plaintiff and he fail to comply therewith on or before the first day of the next term of the court, the suit shall be dismissed. [Acts 1848, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106.]

Art. 2069. [2051] [1441] [1437] Judgment on cost bond.—All bonds given as security for costs shall authorize judgment against all the obligors in such bond for the said costs, to be entered in the final judgment of the cause. [Id.]

Art. 2070. [2052] [1442] [1438] Affidavit of inability.—A party who is required to give security for costs may file with the clerk or justice of the peace an affidavit that he is too poor to pay the costs of court and is unable to give security therefor; and the clerk or justice shall issue process and perform all other services required of him, in the same manner as if the security had been given. Any party to the suit, or the clerk or justice, shall have the right to contest such affidavit. Such contest may be tried before the trial of the cause, at such time as the court may fix and notice thereof shall be given by noting it on the docket at the term of the court at which the affidavit is filed. [Acts 1907, p. 4.]

Art. 2071. [2053] [1442] [1438] Deposit for costs.—In lieu of a bond for costs, the party required to give the same may deposit with the clerk or the justice such sum as the court or justice from time to time may designate as sufficient to pay the accrued costs. [Acts 1907, p. 4.]

Art. 2072. [768-2054-5] No security required.—No security for costs shall be required of the State or of any incorporated city or town in any action, suit or proceeding, or of an executor, administrator or guardian appointed by a court of this State in any suit brought by him in his fiduciary character.

Art. 2073. [2056] Intervenor or defendant.—The rules in this chapter as to security for costs by a plaintiff shall also apply to an intervenor and to a defendant who seeks a judgment against the plaintiff on a counter claim after the plaintiff has discontinued his suit.

Art. 2074. [1446-2057] Secured by other bond.—No further security shall be required if the costs are secured by the provisions of an attachment or other bond filed by the party required to give security for costs.

Art. 2075. [1927] Taxing stenographers' fees.—The clerks of all courts having official reporters shall tax as costs in each civil case where an answer is filed, except suits to collect delinquent taxes, a stenographer's fee of three dollars, which shall be paid as other costs in the case, and paid by said clerk, when collected, into the general funds of the county in which said court sits. [Acts 1911, p. 264.]

Art. 2076. Taxing interpreters' fees.—In each civil suit wherein the services of an interpreter are used, three dollars shall be charged and collected as part of the costs as interpreters' fees, to be paid when collected into the general funds of the county. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 26.]

Art. 2077. [3918 to 3922] Execution for costs.—When costs have been adjudged against a party and are not paid, the clerk or justice of the court in which the suit was determined may issue execution, accompanied by an itemized bill of costs, against such party to be levied and collected as in other cases; and said officer, on demand of any party to whom any such costs are due, shall issue execution for costs at once. This article shall not apply to executors, administrators or guardians in cases where costs are adjudged against the estate of a deceased person or of a ward. No execution shall issue in any case for costs until after judgment rendered therefor by the court. [Acts 1876, p. 285; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1120; Acts 1879, p. 93; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1393.]

Art. 2078. [1886] [1246] [1246] Death of plaintiff.—Where the cause of action is one which survives, no suit shall abate because of the death of any party thereto before the verdict or decision of the court is rendered, but such suit may proceed to judgment as hereinafter provided. If the plaintiff dies, the heirs, or the administrator or executor of such decedent may appear and upon suggestion of such death being entered of record in open court, may be made plaintiff, and the suit shall proceed in his or their name. [Id.]

Art. 2079. [1887] [1247] [1247] Scire facias.—If no such appearance and suggestion be made at the first term of the court after the death of the plaintiff, the clerk upon the application of defendant, his agent or attorney, shall issue a scire facias for the heirs or the administrator or executor of such decedent, requiring him to appear and prosecute such suit. After service of such scire facias, should such heir or administrator or executor fail to enter appearance on or before appearance day of the succeeding term of the court, the defendant may have the suit discontinued. [Id.]

Art. 2080. [1888] [1248] [1248] Death of defendant.—Where the defendant shall die, upon the suggestion of death being entered of record in open court, or upon petition of the plaintiff, the clerk shall issue a scire facias for the administrator or executor or heir requiring him to appear and defend the suit, and upon the return of such service, the suit shall proceed against such administrator or executor or heir. [Id. P. D. 7.]

Art. 2081. [1889] [1249] [1249] Where executor, etc., dies.—Where an executor or administrator shall be a party to any suit, whether as plaintiff or defendant, and shall die or cease to be such executor or administrator, the suit may be continued by or against the person succeeding him in the administration, or by or against the heirs, upon like proceedings being had as provided in the two preceding articles, or the suit may be discontinued, as provided in the second preceding article. [P. D. 6, 7.]

Art. 2082. [1890] [1250] [1250] Surviving parties.—Where there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, and one or more of them die, upon suggestion of such death being entered upon the record, the suit shall at the instance of either party proceed in the name of the surviving plaintiffs or against the surviving defendants, as the case may be. [Id. P. D. 4.]

Art. 2083. [1891] [1251] [1251] Death between verdict and judgment.—Where either party dies between verdict and judgment, the judgment shall be entered as if both parties were living. [Id. P. D. 5.]

Art. 2084. [1892-1893] Marriage not to abate suit.—A suit by or against a feme sole shall not abate by her marriage, but upon suggestion of such marriage being entered on the record, the husband may make himself a party plaintiff, or if she be a defendant, the clerk shall upon such suggestion or upon petition issue a scire facias to the husband; and the case, after the service and return thereof, shall thereupon proceed to judgment. [Id. P. D. 8, 9.]

Art. 2085. [1894] [1254] Suit for the use of another.—When a plaintiff suing for the use of another shall die before verdict, the person for whose use such suit was brought, upon such death being suggested on the record in open court, may prosecute the suit in his own name, and shall be as responsible for costs as if he brought the suit. [Id. Sec. 42; P. D. 10.]

Art. 2086. [1895] [1255] [1255] Suit for injuries resulting in death.—In cases arising under the provisions of the title relating to injuries resulting in death, the suit shall not abate by the death of either party pending the suit, but in such case, if the plaintiff dies, where there is only one plaintiff, some one or more of the parties entitled to the money recovered may be substituted and the suit prosecuted to judgment in the name of such party or parties, for the benefit of the persons entitled; if the defendant dies, his executor, administrator or heir may be made a party, and the suit prosecuted to judgment. [Acts 1860, p. 32; P. D. 18; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1395.]

Art. 2087. [1896] [1256] [1256] Where some defendants not served.—Where some of the several defendants in a suit are served with process in due time and others not so served, the plaintiff may either discontinue as to those not so served and proceed against those that are, or he may continue the suit until the next term of the court and take new process against those not served. No defendant against whom any suit may be so discontinued shall be thereby exonerated from any liability under which he was, but may at any time be proceeded against as if no such suit had been brought and no such discontinuance entered. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1448; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2088. [1897] [1257] [1257] Discontinuance as to principal obligor.—Where a suit is discontinued as to the principal obligor, no judgment can be rendered therein against an indorser, guarantor, surety or drawer of an accepted bill who is jointly sued, unless it is alleged and proved that such principal obligor resides beyond the limits of the State, or in such part of the same that he cannot be reached by the ordinary process of law, or that his residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained by the use of reasonable diligence, or that he is dead or actually or notoriously insolvent. [Id. P. D. 1449, 1426, 225.]

Art. 2089. [1898] [1258] [1258] Discontinuance in vacation.—The plaintiff may enter a discontinuance on the docket in vacation, in any suit wherein the defendant has not answered, on the payment of all costs that have accrued thereon. [Id. Sec. 28; P. D. 1440.]

Art. 2090. [1899] [1259] [1259] Discontinuance as to defendants served, etc.—When it would not operate to the prejudice of the other defendants the court may permit the plaintiff to discontinue his suit as to one or more of several defendants who were served with process, or who have answered, but no such discontinuance shall, in any case, be allowed as to a principal obligor, except in the cases provided for in the second preceding article.

Art. 2091. [1901] [1261] [1261] Requisites of scire facias.—The scire facias and returns thereon, provided for in this chapter, shall conform to the requisites of citations and the returns thereon, under the provisions of chapter 4 of this title.

CHAPTER SIX.

CERTAIN DISTRICT COURTS.

Art. 2092. Rules of practice and procedure.—The following rules of practice and procedure shall govern and be followed in the civil district courts in counties having two or more district courts with civil jurisdiction only, whose terms continue for three months or longer, to-wit:

1. Citation.—Citations issued for personal service in the county in which the suit is pending shall command the officer to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of the twenty-five days from the date of citation and shall be executed and returned by the officer twenty days after the date of issuance.

2. Execution and return.—Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five days from the date the citation or notice is issued, shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five days after such date.

3. Out-county citation.—Citation for defendants alleged to reside or be outside of the county in which the suit is pending, but within this State, shall be directed to the Sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be and shall command him to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of thirty days from the date the citation is issued and shall be executed and returned to the officer within twenty days after the date of issue.

4. Time for appearance.—Citations or notices issued for personal service on a defendant alleged to reside or be outside of the State but within the United States, shall notify the defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifty-five days from the date the citation or notice is issued and shall be executed or served on or before thirty-five days from the date of issue and shall be made returnable thirty-five days after date of issue.

5. Citation shall specify day.—In each of said cases the citation or notice shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in such citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

6. Citation by publication.—If citation is to be served by publication it shall be returnable forty-two days after the date of issue and shall command the defendant to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of forty-two days after the citation was issued, and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served by being published in the manner and for the length of time required by law for citations by publication in the same kind of cases or matters in other district courts at the time the publication is made and the first publication shall be at least twenty-eight days before the return day of the citation.

7. Service in foreign country.—If citation is issued to be served personally on any defendant or party in any foreign country it shall be made returnable at such time as the plaintiff or person procuring its issuance shall direct, which shall not be less than thirty days nor more than one hundred and twenty days after the date of issue and shall notify and command the defendant or person to be served to appear and answer at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty days after the return day of the citation or notice and shall specify the day of the week, the day of the month and the time of day the defendant is required to appear and answer, and shall be served on or before the return day, and if any defendant so served does not appear and answer at or before the time specified in the citation or notice, judgment by default may be rendered against such defendant.

8. Where citation or service is quashed.—If the citation or service thereof is quashed on motion of the defendant, such defendant shall be deemed to have entered his appearance at ten o'clock a. m. on the Monday next after the expiration of twenty days after the day on which the citation or service is quashed, and such defendant shall be deemed to have been duly served so as to require him to appear and answer at that time, and if he fails to do so, judgment by default may be rendered against him.

9. Writs of attachment.—Writs of attachment shall be executed immediately after their issuance. Every such writ shall be made returnable, on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of fifteen days from the issuance of the writ, and the officer executing the writ shall return the same at or before that time with his action indorsed thereon or attached thereto, signed by him officially, showing how he has executed the writ.

10. Writs of garnishment.—Writs of garnishment shall be executed immediately after their issuance and every such writ shall command the officer to summon the garnishee to appear at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five days from the date the writ was issued and the writ shall specify when and where the garnishee is required to answer and the officer receiving the writ of garnishment shall within fifteen days after the issuance of the writ make his return showing how he has executed the writ.

11. Failure of garnishee to answer.—If the garnishee fails to make answer to the writ on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next following the expiration of twenty-five days from the date of the writ, he shall be in default and it shall be lawful for the court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against the defendant, to render judgment by default against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, with all accruing interest and costs. The plaintiff in garnishment shall have fifteen days after the garnishee's answer is filed within which to controvert the same if he so desires.

12. Other writs and process.—All other writs and process not expressly otherwise provided for in this article and which under the general law are now returnable to the first day of the next term of court after the issuance thereof, and which require the defendant or person served to appear on the first day of the next succeeding term, shall be returnable fifteen days after the date thereof and shall be executed and returned at or before the expiration of fifteen days from the date thereof and shall require the defendant or party served to appear and answer at or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of twenty-five days after such writ or process was issued, and all such writs or process shall so specify.

13. Appealed cases.—In cases appealed to said district courts from inferior courts, the appeal, including transcript, shall be filed in the district court within thirty days after the rendition of the judgment or order appealed from, and the appellee shall enter his appearance on the docket or answer to said appeal on or before ten o'clock a. m. of the Monday next after the expiration of twenty days from the date the appeal is filed in the district court.

14. Pleas of privilege.—Pleas of privilege shall be filed at or before the time the defendant is required to answer and a contest thereof if any, shall be filed within twenty days after the appearance day, and if a contest is filed, the same shall, when filed, be set for hearing by the court within not exceeding thirty days after being filed and shall be determined by the court within not exceeding ten days after the date for which the same is set unless postponed or continued without prejudice, by order or leave of the court, by agreement of the parties, and shall not be postponed longer than sixty days after being filed unless by order of the court entered by agreement of the parties.

15. Amended pleadings.—Whenever any party files a pleading of any character, he shall at the same time either deliver to the adverse party, or deposit with the clerk for the adverse party, a copy of such pleading, which copy shall not be filed by the clerk. All filed pleadings shall remain at all times in the clerk's office or in the court or in custody of the clerk, except that the court may by order entered on the minutes allow a filed pleading to be withdrawn for a limited time whenever necessary on leaving a certified copy on file. The party withdrawing such pleading shall pay the costs of such order and certified copy.

16. Where more than one adverse party.—If there is more than one adverse party and the adverse parties are represented by different attorneys, one copy of each pleading shall on request be furnished to each attorney representing the adverse parties, but a firm or attorneys associated in the case shall count as one. Not more than four copies of any pleading shall be required to be furnished to adverse parties and they shall be delivered to the first four applicants entitled thereto. After a copy of a pleading is furnished to an attorney or deposited with the clerk for him, he cannot require another copy of the same pleading to be furnished to him.

17. Failure to furnish copy.—If any party fails to furnish the adverse party with a copy of any pleading in accordance with this provision, he may be required to do so by order of the court on motion made and given, and if he fails to comply with any such order within five days after its date, he may be punished as for contempt of court, and a certified copy may be ordered to be furnished by the clerk and the costs thereof charged to the party who had failed to comply with the order to furnish the same.

18. Setting cases for trial, etc.—On the first Monday in each calendar month the judge of each court may, and as far as practicable shall, set for trial during the calendar month next after the month during which the setting is made, all contested cases which are requested to be set, and by agreement of the parties, or on motion of either party, or on the courts own motion with notice to the parties, the court may set any case for trial at any time so as to allow the parties reasonable time for preparation. Non-contested cases may be tried or disposed of at any time whether set or not, and may be set at any time for any other time.

19. Postponement or continuance.—Cases may be postponed or continued by agreement with the approval of the court, or upon the court's own motion or for cause. When a case is called for trial and only one party is ready, the court may for good cause either continue the case for the term or postpone and reset it for a later day in the same or succeeding term.

20. Cases may be reset.—A case that is set and reached for trial may be postponed for a later day in the term or continued and reset for a day certain in the succeeding term on the same grounds as an application for continuance would be granted in other district courts. After any case has been set and reached in its due order and called for trial two or more times and not tried, the court may dismiss the same unless the parties agree to a postponement or continuance but the court shall respect written agreements of counsel for postponement and continuance if filed in the case when or before it is called for trial unless to do so will unreasonably delay or interfere with other business of the court.

21. Exchange and transfer.—The judges of such courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches or districts from time to time, and may transfer cases and other proceedings from one court to another, and any of them may in his own court room try and determine any case or proceeding pending in another court without having the case transferred, or may sit in any other of said courts and there hear and determine any case there pending, and every judgment and order shall be entered in the minutes of the court in which the case is pending and at the time the judgment or order is rendered, and two or more judges may try different cases in the same court at the same time, and each may occupy his own court room or the room of any other court. The judge of any such court may issue restraining orders and injunctions returnable to any other judge or court, and any judge may transfer any case or proceeding pending in his court to any other of said courts, and the judge of any court to which a case or proceeding is transferred shall receive and try the same, and in turn shall have power in his discretion to transfer any such case to any other of said courts and any other judge may in his court room try any case pending in any other of such courts.

22. Cases transferred to judges not occupied.—When the judge of any such court shall become disengaged, he shall notify the presiding judge, and the presiding judge shall transfer to the court of the disengaged judge the next case which is ready for trial in any of said courts. Any judge not engaged in his own court may try any case in any other court.

23. Judge disqualified.—If a judge of any court is disqualified in any case pending in his court, and his disqualification is certified to the Governor, the Governor may require the judge of any other of such courts to exchange benches or districts with the disqualified judge, and may, at any time, require any of such judges to exchange districts with each other or with any other district judge. In case of the absence, sickness or disqualification of any judge, any other of said judges may hold court for him or may transfer from his court to any other of said courts any case or proceeding then pending in the court of said absent, sick or disqualified judge.

24. Judge may hear only part of case.—Any judge may hear any part of any case or proceeding pending in any of said courts and determine the same, or may hear and determine any question in any case, and any other judge may complete the hearing and render judgment in the case.

25. Any judge may hear dilatory pleas, etc.—Any judge may hear and determine demurrers, motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, all dilatory pleas, motions for new trial and all preliminary matters, questions and proceedings and may enter judgment or order thereon in the court in which the case is pending without having the case transferred to the court of the judge acting, and the judge in whose court the case is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete and determine the case or other matter, or any part thereof, and render final judgment therein. Any judgment rendered or action taken by any judge in any of said courts in the county, shall be valid and binding.

26. Selection of presiding judge.—The judges of such courts shall twice a year, in January and July select one of their number as presiding judge and may at any time cancel and annul such selection and select any other judge as presiding judge. Each such proceeding shall be by majority vote. Each judge shall enter on his minutes an order reciting the selection of the presiding judge. The presiding judge may assign any case in his court or any of such courts in the county to any other judge or court, or may assign any judge to try any case in any of the courts, and the judge in whose court an assigned case is pending shall transfer the case to the court to which it is assigned, and the judge of the court to which it is assigned shall receive and try the case, and such judge shall hold any other court or try any case which he is requested by the presiding judge to try.

27. Judges may make rules.—The judges may by majority vote make rules for the calling of the docket, for the setting and postponement of cases, for the hearing and acting upon motions, questions of law, applications for injunctions and receivers, and for classifying and distributing cases and for having one calendar for all set cases in all courts and for prescribing when the different courts shall have jury trials and when they shall have non-jury trials, and such other rules as they deem advisable to facilitate the dispatch of business. All rules made by said judges shall be adopted by order of each judge and spread upon the minutes of his court, but such rules shall not be inconsistent with any rule adopted or prescribed by the Supreme Court, nor in conflict with any law of this State.

28. Motion for new trial.—A motion for new trial filed during one term of court may be heard and acted on at the next term of court. If a case or other matter is on trial or in process of hearing when the term of court expires, such trial, hearing or other matter may be proceeded with at the next term of the court. No motion for new trial or other motion or plea shall be considered as waived or over-ruled, because not acted on at the term of court at which it was filed, but may be acted on at the succeeding term or at any time which the judge may fix or to which it may have been postponed or continued by agreement of the parties with leave of the court. All motions and amended motions for new trials shall be presented within thirty days after the original motion or amended motion is filed and shall be determined within not exceeding forty-five days after the original or amended motion is filed, unless by written agreement of the parties filed in the case, the decision of the motion is postponed to a later date.

29. Time to file motion for new trial.—A motion for new trial where required shall be filed within ten days after the judgment is rendered or other order complained of is entered, and may be amended by leave of the court at any time before it is acted on within twenty days after it is filed.

30. Judgment final, when.—Judgments of such civil district courts shall become as final after the expiration of 30 days after the date of judgment or after a motion for a new trial is overruled as if the term of court had expired. After the expiration of thirty days from the date the judgment is rendered or motion for new trial is overruled, the judgment cannot be set aside except by bill of review for sufficient cause, filed within the time allowed by law for the filing of bills of review in other district courts.

31. Appeal bonds filed, when.—In appeals from such civil district courts the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty days after the judgment or order appealed from is rendered, if no motion for new trial is filed, and if a motion for new trial is filed, the appeal bond shall be filed within thirty days after the motion for new trial is overruled. In such appeals the statement of facts and bills of exception shall be filed within ninety days after the judgment is rendered if there is no motion for new trial, but if there is a motion for new trial then ninety days after motion for new trial is overruled. When a statement of facts or bills of exception is presented to the adverse party or his attorney it shall be returned within five days signed by the attorney of such adverse party if found correct, and if found incorrect shall be returned within that time with a written statement of the objections thereto. [Acts 1923, p. 215.]

Art. 2093. Rules in other courts apply.—All inconsistent laws and rules of practice and procedure shall be inoperative in the civil district courts of the class included within this chapter, but shall not be affected by this law in so far as they relate to other district courts. All laws and rules of practice and procedure provided for other district courts shall continue in effect and operate and be observed in the civil district courts of the class covered by this law. In all trials and proceedings not provided for herein, the general rules of practice and procedure provided for in other district courts shall be the rules of practice and procedure in the civil district courts of the class included herein. [Id.]

Art. 2094. [5151] Selecting names for wheel.—Between the first and fifteenth days of August of each year, in all counties having therein a city containing a population aggregating twenty thousand or more people, as shown by the preceding Federal census, the tax collector or one of his deputies, together with the tax assessor or one of his deputies, together with the sheriff or one of his deputies, and the county clerk or one of his deputies, shall meet at the court house of their county and select from the list of qualified jurors of such county as shown by the tax lists in the tax assessor's office for the current year, the jurors for service in the district and county courts of such county for the ensuing year in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts 1907, p. 269; Acts 1911, p. 150.]

Art. 2095. [5152-3] Cards put in wheel.—Said officers shall write the names of all men who are known to be qualified jurors under the law, residing in their respective counties, on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post-office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a circular hollow wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the commissioners court of the county. Said wheel shall be made of iron or steel and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle; and shall be kept locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel, and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that said wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the sheriff and the other by the district clerk. The sheriff and the clerk shall not open such wheel, nor permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said sheriff and clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place, where the same cannot be tampered with. [Acts 1907, p. 269.]

Art. 2096. [5154] Cards drawn from wheel.—Not less than ten days prior to the first day of a term of court, the district clerk or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the district judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for the district court, or the clerk of the county court, or one of his deputies, and the sheriff, or one of his deputies, in the presence and under the direction of the county judge, if the jurors are to be drawn for the county court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of thirty-six jurors, or a greater or less number where such judge has so directed, for each week of the term of the district or county courts for which a jury may be required, and shall record such names as they are drawn upon as many separate sheets of paper as there are weeks for such term or terms for which jurors will be required. At such drawing, no person other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person. [Id.]

Art. 2097. [5155] List certified.—The several lists of names so drawn, shall be certified under the hand of the clerk or the deputy doing the drawing, and the district or county judge in whose presence said names were drawn from the wheel, to be the list drawn by said clerk for the said several weeks, and shall be sealed up in separate envelopes indorsed, "List of petit jurors for the _____ week of the _____ term of the _____ court of _____ county," (filling in the blanks properly) and the clerk doing the drawing shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes and shall then immediately deliver the same to the judge in whose presence such names were drawn, or to his successor in office in case such judge dies before such delivery can be made to him. [Id.]

Art. 2098. [5156] List delivered to clerk.—The judge shall deliver such envelopes to the clerk, or one of his deputies, and shall in his discretion instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the clerk and to each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to any one the name or names of the men appearing on any of the jury lists, that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term. So help you God." [Id.]

Art. 2099. [5157] Cards to be used again.—When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, indorsed, "Cards containing the names of jurors for the _____ week of the _____ term of the _____ court of _____ county," (filling in the blanks properly); and said envelopes shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury has been impaneled for such week; and, after such jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors for that week shall then be opened by the clerk, or his deputy, and those cards bearing the names of men who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days, shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk, or his deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the men serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors for the wheel. [Id.]

Art. 2100. [5158] Loss of wheel.—If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurnished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with this law, and the judge desiring jurors for a regular or special term of his court may have the same selected in accordance with the general jury laws if such new wheel cannot be furnished in time to comply with the provisions of the jury wheel law. [Id.]

Art. 2101. Interchangeable juries.—The provisions of this article shall be applicable only to such counties of this State as may now maintain three or more district courts, or in which three or more district courts may be hereafter established. A criminal court in any county with jurisdiction in felony cases shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this article. The "Interchangeable Jury Law" shall not apply to a selection of jurors in lunacy cases or in capital cases.

1. Jury Wheel Law governs.—The provisions of the seven preceding articles, commonly known as the "Jury Wheel Law", shall remain in full force in the counties which may be governed by this law, except as modified by the special provisions of this law.

2. Organization and supervision.—In each county under this law, the district judges shall meet together and determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in all the county courts at law, county courts and district courts of such county, for each week during the time said courts may hold during the year, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel for each of said weeks, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service in all such courts of such county for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said district judges are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this law; they may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week, and shall order said jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the judge to whom the general panel shall report for duty, and said judge, for such time as he is chosen to so act shall organize said juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The said jurors so limited in number shall, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before said judge so designated, who shall hear the excuses of the said jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in any of said courts.

3. Used interchangeably.—Said jurors, when impaneled shall constitute a general panel for the week, for service as jurors in all county and district courts in said county, and shall be used interchangeably in all of the said courts. In the event of a deficiency of said jurors at any given time to meet the requirement of all said courts, the judge having control of said general panel for the week shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet such emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no further needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel, except where waived by the parties or their attorneys; provided that by written agreement entered into by all parties to any cause or suit, or the attorney of record in such suit or cause filed therein, the sheriff or other officer in attendance upon said court, may summon the jury needed, or any part of same, in such cause or suit by talesmen, without resorting to the jury wheel, and in such cause or suit said jurors so selected shall be paid as if regularly drawn from the jury wheel. [Acts 1917, p. 147; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 136.]

Art. 2102. Jury quarters.—The commissioners court of each such county shall set apart for the use and convenience of said general panel some room or place in or near the court house, which shall be comfortably furnished and fitted up for them to stay when not required for actual jury service. Said quarters shall be occupied by said panel when not in service and they shall remain in or conveniently near thereto so as to be at all times subject to duty in any court when called for, without delaying the proceedings of such court. The sheriff shall assign one of his deputies to look after the said panel, call them when needed by the judges, provide for their wants and to have general custody and control of them when not in actual service. [Acts 1917, p. 147.]

Art. 2103. Reducing number in general panel.—When it becomes necessary to diminish the general panel for the week of its selection on account of lack of work in any court or for any other cause, the judge having supervision of said jury for the week shall designate the number to remain. He shall cause the clerk to draw from the names of the general panel the number required, and those jurors whose names are so drawn shall continue in service for the remainder of the week and the others excused. [Acts 1917, p. 147; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 136.]

Art. 2104. [5122-23-24] Appointment of jury commission- ers.—The district court of each county shall at each term thereof appoint three jury commissioners for said court, and shall cause the sheriff to notify them of their appointment and when and where they are to appear. Such commissioners shall possess the following qualifications:

1. Be intelligent citizens of the county and able to read and write.
2. Be qualified jurors and freeholders of the county.
3. Be residents of different portions of the county.
4. Have no suit in said court which requires the intervention of a jury.
5. The same person shall not act as jury commissioner more than once in the same year. [Acts 1876, p. 79; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 915.]

Art. 2105. [5125] [3148] [3020] Failure to attend.—One appointed jury commissioner who without reasonable excuse fails or refuses to attend and perform the duties required shall be fined by the court not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 2106. [5126] [3149] [3021] Oath of jury commissioners.—When the appointees appear before the court, the judge shall administer to them the following oath: “You do swear faithfully to discharge the duties required of you as jury commissioners; that you will not knowingly elect any man as a jurymen whom you believe to be unfit and not qualified; that you will not make known to any one the name of any jurymen selected by you and reported to the court; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse with any one selected by you as a jurymen concerning the merits of any case to be tried at the next term of this court until after such cause may be tried or continued, or the jury discharged.” [Id.]

Art. 2107. [5128-29-30-31] Duties of jury commissioners.—The judge shall instruct said commissioners as to their duties and designate to them for what weeks they shall select petit jurors and the number for each week. They shall retire in charge of the sheriff to some suitable room and be kept free from intrusion during their session, and shall not separate until they complete their duties. The clerk shall furnish them with all necessary stationery, and with a list of those appearing from the records of the court to be exempt or disqualified from serving on the petit jury at each term, and shall also deliver to them the envelope required by law for the placing therein of the names selected, and take their receipt therefor showing whether or not the seal remained unbroken. The last assessment roll of the county shall be furnished them by the legal custodian of the same. [Id.]

Art. 2108. [5127] [3150] [3022] Failure to get jury.—If from any cause, the jury commissioners should not be appointed at the time prescribed, or should fail to select jurors as required, or should the panels selected to be set aside, or the jury lists returned into the court be lost or destroyed, the court shall forthwith proceed to supply a sufficient number of jurors for the term, and when deemed necessary may appoint jury commissioners for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 2109. [5132-3-4] Jury commissioners for county court.—The county court shall, at its first term after the last day of December and the last day of June of each year, appoint three jury commissioners for said court, having the same qualifications as jury commissioners for the district court. The same proceedings shall be had in the county court by its officers and said commissioners to procure jurors as are required by this title for similar proceedings in the district court, except as modified by the provisions of this article.

1. Oath.—The oath to be administered to said commissioners shall be: “You swear faithfully to discharge the duties required of you as jury commissioners; that you will not knowingly elect any man as a jurymen whom you believe to be unfit and not qualified; that you will not make known to any one the name of any jurymen selected by you and reported to the court; that you will not, directly or indirectly, communicate with any one selected by you as a jurymen concerning the merits of any case to be tried by this court within the next six months, until said case shall have been tried or otherwise disposed of.”

2. To select jurors.—Said commissioners shall select jurors for all the terms of the county court to be held within six months after the adjournment of the first week of said court after the dates first named. The county judge shall designate the number of jurors to be so selected for each term and week. [Acts 1876, p. 81; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 917; Acts 1884, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 559.]

Art. 2110. [5135] [3158] Selecting jurors.—The jury commissioners shall select from the citizens of the different portions of the county, liable to serve as jurors, one hundred persons, or a greater or less number if so directed by the court, free from all legal exceptions, of good moral character, of sound judgment, well-informed, and, so far as practicable, able to read and write, to serve as petit jurors at the next term, if in the district court, and for the next six months, if in the county court, and shall write the names of such persons on separate pieces of paper, as near the same size and appearance as may be, and fold the same so that the names cannot be seen. [Id.]

Art. 2111. [5136] [3159] [3031] Drawing jurors.—The names of the persons so written and folded shall be deposited in a box, and after being well shaken and mixed, the commissioners shall draw therefrom the names, one by one, of thirty-six persons, or a greater or less number where the judge has so directed, for each week of the term of the district court or terms of the county court for which a jury may be required, and shall record such names as they are drawn upon as many separate sheets of paper as there are weeks of such term or terms for which juries will be required. [Id.]

Art. 2112. [5138-39] Certified lists delivered.—The several lists of names drawn shall be certified under the hands of the commissioners to be the lists drawn by them for the said several weeks, and shall be sealed in separate envelopes, indorsed, "List of petit jurors for the _____ week of the _____ term of the _____ court of _____ county," (filling in the blanks). The commissioners shall write their names across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall deliver them to the clerk, or to one of his deputies in open court, and the court may instruct the clerk to indorse on any of such envelopes that the jury for that week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday of said week. [Id.]

Art. 2113. [5140-41] Oath to clerk and deputies.—The judge shall at the same time administer to the clerk and each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law; that you will not directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as a juror concerning any case pending for trial in this court at its next term," if in the district court; or if in the county court, "within the next six months." If for any reason such oath should not be administered to any of the deputies, or should the clerk subsequently appoint a deputy, the clerk shall administer to such deputy a like oath. [Id.]

Art. 2114. [5142-3-4-5] List sent to county court.—The district court commissioners shall make out for the use of the county court commissioners a complete list of the names of all persons selected by them as grand and petit jurors, and shall place said list in an envelope and seal the same and write their names across the seal; and shall address said envelope to the jury commissioners of the county court of the proper county and shall deliver the same to the district judge in open court. The judge shall immediately deliver said envelope to the county clerk or one of his deputies, at the same time administering to him this oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your ability, safely keep this envelope and that you will neither open the same nor allow it to be opened, except as provided by law; and that you will cause it to be delivered to the jury commissioners of the county court next hereafter appointed in and for this county." At the first term of the county court thereafter held, at which jury commissioners are appointed, said clerk shall deliver said envelope to the jury commissioners or one of them appointed at said term, and take a receipt therefor; and said receipt shall state whether the seal of said envelope be broken or not. After the jury commissioners appointed by said court have assembled for business, they shall open said envelope and read said list of names, and no person named on said list shall be selected as a juror by said commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 2115. [5146-7-8-9] List sent to district court.—The jury commissioners for the county court shall make out for the use of the jury commissioners of the district court a complete list of the names of all persons selected by them as jurors, and shall place said list in an envelope and seal the same, and write their names across the seal, and address said envelope to the jury commissioners of the district court of the proper county, and shall deliver the same to the county judge in open court. The county judge shall immediately deliver said envelope to the district clerk, or one of his deputies, at the same time administering to him this oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your ability, safely keep this envelope and that you will neither open the same nor allow it to be opened, except as provided by law, and that you will cause it to be delivered to the jury commissioners of the district court next hereafter appointed in and for this county." At the first term of the district court thereafter held, said clerk shall deliver said envelope to the jury commissioners or one of them appointed at said term, and take a receipt therefor showing whether the seal of said envelope be broken or not. After the jury commissioners appointed at said term of the district court have assembled for business, they shall open said envelope and read said list of names, and no person named on said list shall be selected as juror by said commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 2116. [5150] [3173] [3045] Shall destroy lists.—The jury commissioners in both the district and county courts, before leaving the apartment in which they have selected jurors, shall destroy said list of names, and it shall be unlawful for them, or any of them, to make known to any person the name of any juror on said lists. [Id.]

Art. 2117. [5159-60] Summoning jurors. — Within not more than thirty days and not less than ten days prior to each term of the court, the clerk of the district and county courts, respectively, shall open the list of jurors selected for such term and make out a copy of the same, duly certified under his hand and the seal of his office, and deliver the same to the sheriff. Where the judge has directed that the jurors for any week shall be summoned for some other day than Monday, the clerk shall note such order for the information of the sheriff. On receipt of such lists, the sheriff shall immediately notify the several persons named therein to be in attendance on the court on the day and week for which they were respectively drawn to serve as jurors for said week. [Acts 1876, p. 171; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1007.]

Art. 2118. [5165-6-7-8-9] Jury for the week.—On Monday of each week of the court for which a jury shall be summoned, and for which there may be jury trials, or where the jury trials for the week have been set for some other day, then on such day the court shall select thirty qualified jurors, or a greater or less number, in its discretion, to serve as jurors for the week. If such selection is not from any cause then made, it may be made on any later day. Such jurors shall be selected from the names included in the jury list for the week, if there be the requisite number of such in attendance who are not excused by the court; if such number be not in attendance at any time, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of qualified men to make up the requisite number of jurors. The court may adjourn the whole number of jurors for the week or any part thereof, to any subsequent day of the term, but the jurors shall not be paid for the time they may stand adjourned. [Id.]

Art. 2119. [5170] [3184] [3056] Oath to sheriff for talesmen.—Whenever it may be necessary to summon jurors who have not been selected by jury commissioners under the provisions of this title, the court shall administer to the sheriff and each of his deputies the following oath: “You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your skill and ability, and without bias or favor toward any party, summon such jurors as may be ordered by the court; that you will select none but impartial, sensible and sober men, having the qualifications of jurors under the law; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any juryman touching any case pending for trial; and that you will not by any means attempt to influence, advise or control any juryman in his opinion in any case which may be tried by him. So help you God.” [Id.]

Art. 2120. [5171] [3185] [3057] Excuses of jurors.—The court may hear any reasonable sworn excuse of a juror, and may release him entirely or until some other day of the term. [Id.]

Art. 2121. [5172] [3186] [3058] Defaulting juror.—Any defaulting juror lawfully notified who without reasonable excuse fails to be in attendance on the court in obedience to such notice shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 2122. [5218-19-20] Pay of jurors.—Each juror in the district or county court or county court at law shall receive three dollars for each day or fraction of a day that he may attend as such juror, to be paid out of the jury fund of the county by the county treasurer upon the certificate of the clerk of the court in which such service is rendered, stating the service, when and by whom rendered, and the amount due therefor. Such certificates may be transferred by delivery and shall be receivable at par from the holder for all county taxes. [Acts 1866, p. 201; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1119; Acts 1919, p. 35.]

to trial by jury shall remain inviolate, subject to the following rules and regulations. [Const. Art. 1, Sec. 15.]

Art. 2124. [5174-80] Demand and fee.—No jury trial shall be had in any civil suit, unless an application therefor be made in open court, and a jury fee of five dollars if in the district court, and three dollars if in the county court, be deposited by the applicant with the clerk to the use of the county. [Acts 1876, p. 171; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1007.]

Art. 2125. [5175] [3189] [3061] Time to demand.—Any party to a civil suit in the district or county court desiring to have the same tried by jury, shall make an application therefor in open court on the first day of the term at which the suit is to be tried, unless the same be appearance day, in which event the application shall be made on default day. [Id.]

Art. 2126. [5178-9] Call of docket for demand.—On the first day of each term, the court shall call over the docket, except appearance cases, and shall note therein in each case whether or not a jury trial is applied for therein and by which party. On the call of the appearance docket, the court shall in like manner note in each appearance case whether or not and by whom a jury trial is applied for. [Id.]

Art. 2127. [5181-3] Oath of inability.—The deposit for a jury fee shall not be required when the party shall within the time for making such deposit, file with the clerk his affidavit to the effect that he is unable to make such deposit, and that he can not, by the pledge of property or otherwise, obtain the money necessary for that purpose; and the court shall then order the clerk to enter the suit on the jury docket. [Acts 1876, p. 171; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1007.]

Art. 2128. [5184] [3198] [3070] Jury docket.—The clerks of the district and county courts shall each keep a docket, styled "The Jury Docket," in which shall be entered in their order the cases in which jury trials have been ordered by the court. [Id.]

Art. 2129. [5185] [3199] [3071] Jury trial day.—The court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate any day during the term for the taking up of the jury docket and the trial of the cases thereon. Such order may be revoked or changed at discretion. [Acts 1876, p. 78; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 914.]

Art. 2130. [5186-7] Withdrawing demand for jury.—When one party has applied for a jury trial, he shall not be permitted to withdraw such application without the consent of the parties adversely interested. If so permitted, the court in its discretion may by an order permit him to withdraw also his jury fee deposit. [Id.]

Art. 2131. [5188-89-90-91] Challenge to the array.—Any party to a suit which is to be tried by a jury may, before the jury is drawn, challenge the array upon the ground that the officer summoning the jury has acted corruptly, and has wilfully summoned jurors known to be prejudiced against the party challenging or biased in favor of the adverse party. All such challenges must be in writing setting forth distinctly the grounds of such challenge and supported by the affidavit of the party or some other credible person. When such challenge is made, the court shall hear evidence and decide without delay whether or not the challenge shall be sustained. This article does not apply when the jurors summoned have been selected by jury commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 2132. [5192] [3206] [3078] When challenge is sustained.—If the challenge be sustained, the array of jurors summoned shall be discharged, and the court shall order other jurors summoned in their stead, and shall direct that the officer who summoned the persons so discharged, and on account of whose misconduct the challenge has been sustained, shall not summon any other jurors in the case. [Id.]

Art. 2133. [5114-15-16] Qualifications.—All men over twenty-one years of age are competent jurors, unless disqualified under some provision of this chapter. No man shall be qualified to serve as a juror who does not possess the following qualifications:

1. He must be a citizen of the State and of the county in which he is to serve, and qualified under the constitution and laws to vote in said county; provided, that his failure to pay poll tax as required by law shall not be held to disqualify him for jury service in any instance.

2. He must be a freeholder within the State, or a householder within the county.

3. He must be of sound mind and good moral character.

4. He must be able to read and write, except in cases provided for in the succeeding article.

5. He must not have served as a juror for six days during the preceding six months in the district court, or during the preceding three months in the county court.

6. He must not have been convicted of felony.

7. He must not be under indictment or other legal accusation of theft or of any felony. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court that the requisite number of jurors able to read and write cannot be found within the county, the court may dispense with the exception provided for in the fourth subdivision and the court may in like manner dispense with the exception provided for in the fifth subdivision, when the county is so sparsely populated as to make its enforcement seriously inconvenient. [Acts 1905, p. 207; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 914.]

Art. 2134. [5117] [3141] [3012] Disqualification.—The following persons shall be disqualified to serve as jurors in any particular case:

1. Any witness in the case.

2. Any person interested, directly or indirectly, in the subject matter of the suit.

3. Any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either of the parties to the suit.

4. Any person who has a bias or prejudice in favor of or against either of the parties.

5. Any person who has sat as a petit juror in a former trial of the same, or of another case, involving the same questions of fact. [Acts 1876, p. 83; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 914.]

Art. 2135. [5118] [3142] [3013] Jury service.—All competent jurors are liable to jury service, except the following persons:

1. All persons over sixty years of age.
2. All civil officers of this State and of the United States.
3. All overseers of roads.
4. All ministers of the gospel engaged in the active discharge of their ministerial duties.
5. All physicians and attorneys engaged in actual practice.
6. All publishers of newspapers, school masters, druggists, undertakers, telegraph operators, railroad station agents, ferry-men, and all millers engaged in grist, flouring and saw mills.
7. All presidents, vice-presidents, conductors and engineers of railroad companies when engaged in the regular and actual discharge of their respective positions.
8. Any person who has acted as a jury commissioner within the preceding twelve months.
9. All members of the national guard of this State under the provisions of the title "Militia."
10. In cities and towns having a population of fifteen hundred or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census, the active members of organized fire companies, not to exceed twenty to each one thousand of such inhabitants. [Id.]

Art. 2136. [5119] [3143] Where several fire companies in one town.—If there be more than one organized fire company in such town or city, the whole number of exemptions provided under Subdivision Ten of the preceding article shall be equally divided between such companies. Before such exemption of any of such fire company shall be made available, the members to be exempted shall be selected by their respective companies; and their names shall be handed in to the clerks of the district and county courts, respectively, by the chief of the fire department of such city or town, or in case there be no such officer, then by the foreman of the company. [Id.]

Art. 2137. [5121] Filing of exemptions.—All persons summoned as jurors in any court of this State, who are exempt by statutory law from jury service, may, if they so desire to claim their exemptions, make oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, or before the officers summoning such persons, stating their exemptions, and file said affidavit at any time before the convening of said court with the clerk of said court, which shall constitute sufficient excuse without appearing in person. [Acts 1907, p. 216.]

Art. 2138. Jury list in certain counties.—In counties governed as to juries by the laws providing for interchangeable juries, the names of the panel shall be placed upon the general panel in the order in which they are drawn from the wheel, and jurors shall be assigned for service from the top thereof, in the order in which they shall be needed, and jurors returned to the general panel after service in any of such courts shall be enrolled at the bottom of the list in the order of their respective return, provided, however, that the trial judge upon the demand of any party to any case reached for trial by jury, or of the attorney for any such party, shall cause the names of all the members of the general panel available for service as jurors in such case to be placed in a hat or other receptacle and well-shaken, and said trial judge shall draw therefrom the names of a sufficient number of jurors from which a jury may be selected to try such case, and such names shall be transcribed in the order drawn on the jury list from which the juror is to be selected to try such case. [Acts 1917, p. 147, Acts 1919, p. 6.]

Art. 2139. [5202-3] Preparing jury list.—When the parties have announced ready for trial, the clerk shall write the name of each regular juror entered of record for that week on separate slips of paper, as near the same size and appearance as may be, and shall place the slips in a box and mix them well. [Acts 1876, p. 78; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 914.]

Art. 2140. [5204] [3218] [3090] Delivery of jury list.—The clerk shall draw from the box, in the presence of the court, the names of twenty-four jurors, if in the district court, or so many as there may be, if there be a less number in the box; and the names of twelve jurors, if in the county court, or so many as there may be, and write the names as drawn upon two slips of paper and deliver one slip to each party to the suit or his attorney. [Id.]

Art. 2141. [5205] [3219] [3091] Summoning talesmen.—When there are not as many as twelve names drawn from the box, if in the district court, or if in the county court, as many as six, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon such number of qualified persons as the court deems necessary to complete the panel. The names of those thus summoned shall be placed in the box and drawn and entered upon the slips as provided in the preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 2142. [5193-5200-1] Challenge to juror.—A challenge to a particular juror is either a challenge for cause or a peremptory challenge. The court shall decide without delay any such challenge, and if sustained, the juror shall be discharged from the particular case. Either such challenge may be made orally on the formation of a jury to try the case. [Id.]

Art. 2143. [5206] [3220] [3092] Challenge for cause.—When twelve or more jurors, if in the district court, or six or more, if in the county court, are drawn, and the lists of their names delivered to the parties, if either party desires to challenge any juror for cause, the challenge shall now be made. The name of a juror challenged and set aside for cause shall be erased from such lists. [Id.]

Art. 2144. [5194-5] “Challenge for cause.”—A challenge for cause is an objection made to a juror, alleging some fact which by law disqualifies him to serve as a juror in the case or in any case, or which in the opinion of the court, renders him an unfit person to sit on the jury. Upon such challenge the examination is not confined to the answers of the juror, but other evidence may be heard for or against the challenge. [Id.]

Art. 2145. [5196] [3210] [3082] Certain questions not to be asked.—In examining a juror, he shall not be asked a question the answer to which may show that he has been convicted of an offense which disqualifies him, or that he stands by some legal accusation with theft or any felony. [Id.]

Art. 2146. [5207] [3221] [3093] Number reduced by challenge.—If the challenges reduce the number of jurors to less than will constitute a legal jury, the court shall order other jurors to be drawn or summoned and their names written upon the list instead of those set aside for cause. [Id.]

Art. 2147. [5197-5208] Making peremptory challenge.—If there remain on such lists not subject to challenge for cause, twelve names, if in the district court, or six names if in the county court, the parties shall proceed to make their peremptory challenges. A peremptory challenge is made to a juror without assigning any reason therefor. [Id.]

Art. 2148. [5198-99] Number of peremptory challenges.—Each party to a civil suit shall be entitled to six peremptory challenges in a case tried in the district court, and to three in the county court. [Acts Dec. 1, 1871, p. 61; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 63.]

Art. 2149. [5209] [3223] [3095] Lists returned to clerk.—When the parties have made or declined to make their peremptory challenges, they shall deliver their lists to the clerk. The clerk shall, if the case be in the district court, call off the first twelve names on the lists that have not been erased; and if the case be in the county court, he shall call off the first six names on the lists that have not been erased; those whose names are called shall be the jury. [Acts 1876, p. 78; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 914.]

Art. 2150. [5210] [3224] [3096] If jury is incomplete.—When by peremptory challenges the jury is left incomplete, the court shall direct other jurors to be drawn or summoned to complete the jury; and such other jurors shall be impaneled as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 2151. [5211] [3225] [3097] Swearing jury.—When the jury has been selected, such of them as have not been previously sworn for the trial of civil cases, shall be sworn by or under the direction of the court.

Art. 2152. [1934] [1280] [1280] Appearance day.—The second day of each term of the district or county court is termed appearance day. [Acts 1891, p. 94.]

Art. 2153. [1935] [1281] [1281] Call of appearance docket.—On appearance day of each term, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the court shall call, in their order, all the cases on the docket which are returnable to such term.

Art. 2154. [1936] [1282] [1282] Judgment by default.—Upon the call of the appearance docket, or at any time after appearance day, the plaintiff may take judgment by default against any defendant who has been duly served with process and who has not previously filed an answer. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1508; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2155. [1937] [1283] [1283] Where only some answer.—Where there are several defendants, some of whom have answered and others have made default, an interlocutory judgment by default may be entered against those who have not answered and the cause may proceed against the others. [Id; P. D. 1450.]

Art. 2156. [1938] [1284] [1284] Assessing damages on liquidated demands.—Where a judgment by default is rendered against the defendant, or all of several defendants, if the cause of action is liquidated and proved by an instrument in writing, the damages shall be assessed by the court, or under its direction, and judgment final shall be rendered therefor, unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury. [Id.]

Art. 2157. [1939-40] [1285-86] [1285-86] On unliquidated demands.—If the cause of action is unliquidated or be not proved by an instrument in writing, the court shall hear evidence as to damages and shall render judgment therefor, unless the defendant shall demand and be entitled to a trial by jury in which case the judgment by default shall be noted, a writ of inquiry awarded, and the cause entered on the jury docket. [Id.]

Art. 2158. [1941] [1346] [1212-1345] On service by publication.—Where service has been made by publication, and no answer has been filed nor appearance entered within the time prescribed by law, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend the suit in behalf of the defendant, and judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; but, in every such case, a statement of the evidence, approved and signed by the judge, shall be filed with the papers of the cause as a part of the record thereof. The court shall allow such attorney a reasonable fee for his services, to be taxed as part of the costs. [Acts 1846, p. 363; Acts 1866, p. 125; P. D. 1488, 26; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1143.]

Art. 2159. [1942] [1211] [1211] Guardian ad litem.—When a minor, lunatic, idiot or a non compos mentis may be a defendant to a suit, and such minor, lunatic, idiot or person non compos mentis has no guardian within the State, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such person for the purpose of defending the suit, and allow him a reasonable fee for his services, to be taxed as a part of the costs. [Acts 1895, p. 80; Acts 1884, p. 374; P. D. 1446; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2160. [2182] [1454] [1450] Consolidation of suits.—Whenever several suits may be pending in the same court, by the same plaintiff, against the same defendant, for causes of action which may be joined, or where several suits are pending in the same court, by the same plaintiff, against several defendants, which may be joined, the court in which the same are pending may, in its discretion, order such suits to be consolidated. [Acts 1846, p. 375; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1681.]

Art. 2161. [1943] [1287] [1287] Suits called in order.—All cases in which final judgment has not been rendered by default shall be called for trial in the order in which they stand on the docket unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2162. [1944] [1288] [1288] Tried when called.—Every suit shall be tried when it is called, unless it be continued or postponed to a future day of the term to be placed at the end of the docket to be called again for trial in its regular order. [Id.]

Art. 2163. [1945] [1289] [1289] Day set for jury docket.—The court shall, by an order entered on the minutes, designate a day of the term for calling for trial the causes on the jury civil docket at all subsequent terms, until changed by a like order; but, in case of change, it shall not take effect until the succeeding term of said court. [Acts 1881, p. 5; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 97.]

Art. 2164. [1945] [1289] [1289] Jury cases.—Where juries have been demanded, questions of law, demurrers, exceptions to pleadings, etc., shall, as far as practicable, be heard and determined by the court before the day designated for the trial, and jurors shall be summoned to appear on the day of the term so designated. [Id.]

Art. 2165. [1946] [1290] [1290] Call of non-jury docket.—The non-jury docket shall be taken up at such times as not unnecessarily to interfere with the dispatch of business on the jury docket.

Art. 2166. [1947] [1291] [1291] Issue of law and dilatory pleas.—When a case is called for trial, the issues of law arising on the pleadings, all pleas in abatement and other dilatory pleas remaining undisposed of shall be determined; and it shall be no cause for postponement of a trial of the issues of law that a party is not prepared to try the issues of fact. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

2. CONTINUANCE AND CHANGE OF VENUE.

| Change of venue by consent _____ 2169 | In case of new counties _____ 2173 |
| Granted on application _____ 2170 | Transcript on change _____ 2174 |

Art. 2167. [1917] [1276] [1276] Continuance.—No application for a continuance shall be heard before the defendant files his defense, nor shall any continuance be granted except for sufficient cause supported by affidavit, or by consent of the parties, or by operation of law. [Acts 1848, p. 109; P. D. 1509; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 109.]

Art. 2168. [1918] [1278] [1278] Application for continuance.—If the ground of such application be the want of testimony, the party applying therefor shall make affidavit that such testimony is material, showing the materiality thereof, and that he has used due diligence to procure such testimony, stating such diligence, and the cause of failure, if known; that such testimony cannot be procured from any other source; and, if it be for the absence of a witness, he shall state the name and residence of the witness, and what he expects to prove by him; and also state that the continuance is not sought for delay only, but that justice may be done; provided that, on a first application for a continuance, it shall not be necessary to show that the absent testimony cannot be procured from any other source. [Acts 1897, p. 117; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1171.]

Art. 2169. [1911] [1270] [1270] Change of venue by consent.—Upon the written consent of the parties filed with the papers of the cause, the court, by an order entered on the minutes, may transfer the same for trial to the court of any other county having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such suit. [Acts 1876, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 861.]

Art. 2170. [1912] [1271] [1271] Granted on application.—A change of venue may be granted in civil causes upon application of either party, supported by his own affidavit and the affidavit of at least three credible persons, residents of the county in which the suit is pending, for any following cause:

1. That there exists in the county where the suit is pending so great a prejudice against him that he cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial.

2. That there is a combination against him instigated by influential persons, by reason of which he cannot expect a fair and impartial trial.

3. For other sufficient cause, to be determined by the court. [Acts 1874, p. 67; P. D. 5885a; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 69.]

Art. 2171. [1913] [1272] [1272] Shall be granted.—Where such application for a change of venue is duly made, it shall be granted, unless the credibility of those making such application, or their means of knowledge or the truth of the facts set out in the said application are attacked by the affidavit of a credible person; when thus attacked, the issue thus formed shall be tried by the judge, and the application either granted or refused. [Id; P. D. 5885d; Acts 1893, p. 2; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 432.]

Art. 2172. [1914] [1273] [1273] To what county.—If the application is granted, the cause shall be removed to an adjoining county, the court house of which is nearest the court house of the county in which the suit is pending, unless it appears in the application that such nearest county is subject to some objection sufficient to authorize a change of venue therefrom in the first instance; but the parties may, by consent, agree that it shall be changed to some other county, and the order of court shall conform to such agreement. [Id.]

Art. 2173. [1915] [1274] [1274] In case of new counties.—When a suit is pending in the district or county court of any county, out of the territory of which a new county has been or may be made, in whole or in part, if the defendants or any one of them, shall file a motion in the court where such suit is pending, to transfer the same to such new county, naming it, together with an affidavit stating that neither he nor any one of the defendants now resides in the territorial limits of the county where such suit is pending, and that neither he nor any one of the defendants resided in said territorial limit at the time the suit was instituted, and further stating that at the date of the filing of such suit, said defendant was a resident citizen within the territorial limits of the new county, the court shall grant a change of venue to such new county, unless the suit could be properly brought in the county in which the same is pending under some provision of law. [Acts 1876, p. 74; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 910.]

Art. 2174. [1916] [1275] [1275] Transcript on change.—When a change of venue has been granted, the clerk shall immediately make out a correct transcript of all the orders made in said cause, certifying thereto officially under the seal of the court, and send the same, with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the court to which the venue has been changed.

Art. 2175. [2181] [1451] [1447] Obsolete procedure.—All vouchers, views, essoins, and also trials by wager of battle and wager of law are repealed. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2176. [1948] [1292] [1292] Trial by the court.—The rules governing the trial of causes before a jury shall govern in trials by the court in so far as applicable.

Art. 2177. [1949] [1293] [1293] Agreed case.—Parties may submit matters in controversy to the court upon an agreed statement of facts filed with the clerk, upon which judgment shall be rendered as in other cases; and such agreed statement signed and certified by the court to be correct and the judgment rendered thereon shall constitute the record of the cause. [Acts 1858, p. 110; P. D. 1516; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 982.]

Art. 2178. [1950] [1294] [1294] Appeal tried de novo.—Cases brought up from inferior courts shall be tried de novo. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1459, 1460; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2179. [5212-3] Oath to jury.—The jury shall be sworn by the court or under its direction, as follows: "You, and each of you, do solemnly swear that in all cases between parties which shall be to you submitted, you will a true verdict render, according to the law, as it may be given you in charge by the court, and to the evidence submitted to you under the rulings of the court. So help you God." [Acts 1858, p. 205; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1077.]

Art. 2180. [1951] [1297] [1297] Order of proceedings on trial by jury.—The trial of cases before a jury shall proceed in the following order, unless the court should, for good cause, to be stated in the record, otherwise direct:

1. Plaintiff's petition shall be read to the jury.
2. Defendant's answer shall be read to the jury.
3. If there be any intervenor his pleadings shall be read.
4. The party upon whom rests the burden of proof on the whole case under the pleadings, shall be permitted to state to the jury briefly the nature of his claim or defense and facts relied upon in support thereof.
5. Such party shall then introduce his evidence.
6. The adverse party may then state briefly the nature of his defense or claim and the facts relied on in support thereof.
7. He shall then introduce his evidence.
8. The intervenor may, in like manner, make his statement, and shall then introduce his evidence.
9. The parties shall then be confined to rebutting testimony on each side.

Art. 2181. [1952] Additional testimony.—At any time before the conclusion of the argument the court may permit additional evidence to be offered to supply an omission where it clearly appears to be necessary to the due administration of justice.

Art. 2182. [1955] [1301] [1301] Non-suit.—At any time before the jury has retired, the plaintiff may take a non-suit, but he shall not thereby prejudice the right of an adverse party to be heard on his claim for affirmative relief. When the case is tried by the judge, such non-suit may be taken at any time before the decision is announced. [Acts 1853, p. 19; P. D. 1464; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1302.]

Art. 2183. [1953] [1299] [1299] Order of argument.—After the evidence is concluded and the charge is read, the parties may argue the case to the jury. The party having the burden of proof on the whole case shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument; where there are several parties having separate claims or defenses, the court shall prescribe the order of argument between them.

4. CHARGE OF THE COURT.

| Charge read before argument..... | 2187 | | | |

Art. 2184. [1970] [1316] [1316] Charge to jury.—Unless expressly waived by the parties, the judge shall prepare and in open court deliver a written charge to the jury on the law of the case, or if the case is submitted on special issues, he shall submit the issues of fact to the jury. [Acts 1913, p. 113.]

Art. 2185. [1971-2] Requisites.—The charge shall be in writing, signed by the judge, filed with the clerk, and shall be a part of the record of the cause. It shall be prepared after the evidence has been concluded and shall be submitted to the respective parties or their attorneys for inspection, and a reasonable time given them in which to examine and present objections thereto, which objections shall in every instance be presented to the court before the charge is read to the jury, and all objections not so made and presented shall be considered as waived. Failure of the court to give reasonable time to the parties or their attorneys for examination of the charge shall be reviewable upon appeal upon proper exception. The judge shall so frame his charge as to distinctly separate questions of law from questions of fact, and not therein comment on the weight of the evidence, and so as to instruct the jury as to the law arising on the facts, and shall only submit controverted questions of fact. [Id.]

Art. 2186. [1973] [1319] [1319] Special charges.—Either party may present to the judge such written instructions as he desires to be given to the jury; and the judge may give such instructions, or a part thereof, or he may refuse to give them, as he may see proper. Such instructions shall be prepared and presented to the court and submitted to opposing counsel for examination and objection within a reasonable time after the charge is given to the parties or their attorneys for examination. [Id.]

Art. 2187. [1954-71-73] Charge read before argument.—Before the argument is begun, the judge shall read to the jury, in the precise words in which they were written, his charge and all special charges which he may give. [Id.]

Art. 2188. [1974] [1320] [1320] Refusal or modification.—When a special instruction is requested and the provisions of the law have been complied with and the trial judge refuses the same, he shall indorse thereon "Refused," and sign the same officially. If the trial judge modify a special charge, he shall indorse thereon "Modified as follows: (stating in what particular he has modified the charge) and given, and exception allowed" and sign the same officially. Such refused or modified charge when so indorsed shall constitute a bill of exceptions and it shall be conclusively presumed that the party asking said charge presented the same at the proper time, excepted to its refusal or modification, and that all the requirements of law have been observed, and the same shall entitle the party requesting such charge to have the action of the trial judge in refusing or modifying the same reviewed without preparing a formal bill of exceptions. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 389.]

Art. 2189. [1984-1992] Special issues.—In all jury cases the court may submit said cause upon special issues without request of either party, and, upon request of either party, shall submit the cause upon special issues raised by the pleadings and the evidence in the case. Such special issues shall be submitted distinctly and separately. Each issue shall be answered by the jury separately. In submitting special issues the court shall submit such explanations and definitions of legal terms as shall be necessary to enable the jury to properly pass upon and render a verdict on such issues. If the nature of the suit is such that it cannot be determined on the submission of special issues, the court may refuse the request to do so, but the action of the court in refusing may be reviewed on proper exception in the appellate court, and this article shall be construed in connection with the succeeding article. [Acts 1913, p. 113.]

Art. 2190. [1985] [1331] [1331] Submission of issues.—When the court submits a case upon special issues, he shall submit all the issues made by the pleading. Failure to submit an issue shall not be deemed a ground for reversal of the judgment, unless its submission has been requested in writing by the party complaining of the judgment. Upon appeal or writ of error, an issue not submitted and not requested is deemed as found by the court in such manner as to support the judgment if there is evidence to sustain such finding. A claim that the testimony was insufficient to warrant the submission of an issue may be complained of for the first time after verdict. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 15; Id.]

5. CASE TO JURY.

| Officer shall attend jury..... | 2195 | Discharge of jury..... | 2201 |
| Judge to caution jury..... | 2196 | Court open for jury..... | |

Art. 2191. [5214-16] Number of jurors.—The jury in the district courts shall be composed of twelve men; but the parties may by consent agree, in a particular case, to try with a less number. In county courts the jury shall be composed of six men.

Art. 2192. [1956] [1302] [1302] Foreman of jury.—Each jury shall appoint one of their body foreman.

Art. 2193. [1957-75] Papers taken to jury room.—The jury may take with them in their retirement the charges and instructions, general or special, which were given and read to them, and any written evidence, except the depositions of witnesses, but shall not take with them any special charges which have been refused. Where part only of a paper has been read in evidence, the jury shall not take the same with them, unless the part so read to them is detached from that which was excluded.

Art. 2194. [1958] [1304] [1304] Jury kept together.—The jury may either decide a case in court or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they shall be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court; but the court in its discretion may permit them to separate temporarily for the night and at their meals, and for other proper purposes.

Art. 2195. [1959] [1305] [1305] Officer shall attend jury.—The officer in charge of the jury shall not make nor permit any communication to be made to them, except to inquire if they have agreed upon a verdict, unless by order of the court; and he shall not before their verdict is rendered communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

Art. 2196. [1960] [1306] [1306] Judge to caution jury.—If permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, the jury shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with, or permit themselves to be addressed by, any other person, on any subject connected with the trial.

Art. 2197. [1961] [1307] [1307] Jury may communicate with court.—The jury may communicate with the court by making their wish known to the officer in charge, who shall inform the court, and they may then in open court, and through their foreman, communicate with the court, either verbally or in writing.

Art. 2198. [1962-75] Jury may ask further instruction.—After having retired, the jury may ask further instructions of the court touching any matter of law. For this purpose they shall appear before the judge in open court in a body and through their foreman state to the court, either verbally or in writing, the particular question of law upon which they desire further instruction; and the court shall give such instruction in writing, but no instruction shall be given except in conformity with the preceding rules and only upon the particular question on which it is asked.

Art. 2199. [1963-4] Disagreement as to evidence.—If the jury disagree as to the statement of any witness, they may, upon applying to the court, have such witness again brought upon the stand; and the judge shall direct him to repeat his testimony to the point in dispute, and no other, and as nearly as he can in the language used on the trial; and on their notifying the court that they disagree as to any portion of a deposition or other paper not carried with them in their retirement, the court may, in like manner, permit such portion of said deposition or paper to be again read to the jury.

Art. 2200. [1965-6-7-8] Discharge of jury.—The jury, after the cause is submitted to them, may be discharged:

1. By the court when they cannot agree and both parties consent to their discharge, or when they have been kept together for such time as to render it altogether improbable that they can agree.

2. By the court when any calamity or accident may, in the opinion of the court, require it.

3. By the court when by sickness or other cause their number is reduced below the number constituting the jury in such court.

4. By the final adjournment of the court before they have agreed upon the verdict.

5. Where a jury has been so discharged without having rendered a verdict, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term.

Art. 2201. [1969] [1315] [1315] Court open for jury.—The court, during the deliberations of the jury, may proceed with other business or adjourn from time to time, but shall be deemed open for all purposes connected with the case before the jury.

Art. 2202. [1977-82-83-84-85-86-87-88] Definition and substance.—A verdict is a written declaration by a jury of its decision of the issues submitted to them in the case.

1. It shall be signed by the foreman of the jury and shall comprehend the whole or all the issues submitted to it.

2. The verdict is either a general or special verdict.

3. The jury shall render a general or special verdict as the court may direct.

4. A general verdict is one whereby the jury pronounces generally in favor of one or more parties to the suit upon all or any of the issues submitted to it.

5. A special verdict is one wherein the jury finds the facts only on issues made up and submitted to them under the direction of the court.

6. A special verdict found under the provisions of this article shall, as between the parties, be conclusive as to the facts found. [Acts 1846, p. 363; Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 15; Acts 1913, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2203. [1993-5217] Form of verdict.—No special form of verdict is required, and the judgment shall not be arrested or reversed for mere want of form therein if there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of the law in rendering a verdict. No verdict shall be rendered in any cause except upon the concurrence of all members of the jury trying the case. [Id.]

Art. 2204. [1977-5217-5219] Verdict by nine jurors.—Pending a trial of a civil case in the district court, where one or more jurors may die or be disabled from sitting, if there be as many as nine of the jurors remaining, those remaining may render and return a verdict; but in such case the verdict must be signed by each juror rendering it. [Acts 1876, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 918.]

Art. 2205. [1976-9] When jury have agreed.—When the jury agree upon a verdict, they shall be brought into court by the proper officer, their names shall be called by the clerk, and they shall deliver their verdict to the clerk; and if they state that they have agreed, the verdict shall be read aloud by the clerk. If in proper form, and no juror dissent therefrom, and neither party requests a poll of the jury, the verdict shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Art. 2206. [1979] [1325] Polling the jury.—Either party shall have the right to have the jury polled, which is done by calling separately the name of each juror and asking him if it is his verdict. If any juror answer in the negative, the jury shall be retired for further deliberation.

Art. 2207. [1961-1980] Defective verdict.—If the verdict is informal or defective, the court may direct it to be reformed at the bar. If not responsive to the issue submitted, the court shall call their attention thereto and send them back for further deliberation.

Art. 2208. [1989] [1333] [1333] Conclusions of fact and law.—Upon a trial by the court, the judge shall, at the request of either party, state in writing the conclusions of fact found by him separately from the conclusions of law. Such findings of fact and conclusions of law shall be filed with the clerk and shall be a part of the record.

Art. 2209. [1990] [1333] [1333] Court to render judgment.—Where a special verdict is rendered, or the conclusions of fact found by the judge are separately stated, the court shall render judgment thereon unless set aside or a new trial is granted. [Acts 1899, p. 190.]

Art. 2210. [1991] [1333] [1333] Exceptions, etc., transcript.—It shall be sufficient for the party excepting to the conclusions of law or judgment of the court to cause it to be noted on the record in the judgment entry that he excepts thereto; and he may thereupon take his appeal or writ of error without a statement of facts or further exceptions in the transcript; but the transcript shall in such cases contain the special verdict or conclusions of fact and law aforesaid, and the judgment rendered thereon. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINE.

JUDGMENTS AND REMITTITUR.

1. JUDGMENTS.

| Court shall enforce its decrees..... | 2217 | Confession of judgment..... | 2225 |
| Of foreclosure..... | 2218 | Attorney's fees..... | 2226 |

Art. 2211. [1994-5-7] Judgments.—The judgments of the court shall conform to the pleadings, the nature of the case proved and the verdict, if any, and shall be so framed as to give the party all the relief to which he may be entitled either in law or equity. Only one final judgment shall be rendered in any cause except where it is otherwise specially provided by law. Judgment may, in a proper case, be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs, and for or against one or more of several defendants or intervenors. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1476, 1410; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2212. Contribution between tort feors.—Any person against whom, with one or more others, a judgment is rendered in any suit on an action arising out of, or based on tort, except in causes wherein the right of contribution or of indemnity, or of recovery, over, by and between the defendants is given by statute or exists under the common law, shall, upon payment of said judgment, have a right of action against his co-defendant or co-defendants and may recover from each a sum equal to the proportion of all of the defendants named in said judgment rendered to the whole amount of said judgment. If any of said persons co-defendant be insolvent, then recovery may be had in proportion as such defendant or defendants are not insolvent; and the right of recovery over against such insolvent defendant or defendants in judgment shall exist in favor of each defendant in judgment in proportion as he has been caused to pay by reason of such insolvency. [Acts 1917, p. 360.]

Art. 2213. [1996] [1453] [1449] Where several counts, etc.—Where there are several counts in the petition, and entire damages are given, the verdict or judgment, as the case may be, shall be good, notwithstanding one or more of such counts may be defective. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1460; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2214. [1998] [1338] [1338] May pass title.—Where the judgment is for the conveyance of real estate, or for the delivery of personal property, the decree may pass the title to such property without any act to be done on the part of the party against whom the judgment is rendered. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1481; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2215. [1327] [752] [647] On counter claim.—If the defendant establishes a demand against the plaintiff upon a counter claim exceeding that established against him by the plaintiff, the court shall render judgment for the defendant for such excess.

Art. 2216. [1328] [753] [648] On counter claim for costs.—Whenever a counter claim is pleaded, the party in whose favor final judgment is rendered shall also recover the costs, unless it be made to appear on the trial that the counter claim of the defendant was acquired after the commencement of the suit, in which case, if the plaintiff establishes a cause of action existing at the commencement of the suit, he shall recover his costs. [Acts 1860, p. 15; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1377.]

Art. 2217. [1999] [1339] [1339] Court shall enforce its decrees.—The court shall cause its judgments and decrees to be carried into execution; and where the judgment is for personal property, and it is shown by the pleadings and evidence and the verdict, if any, that such property has an especial value to the plaintiff, the court may award a special writ for the seizure and delivery of such property to the plaintiff; and in such case may enforce its judgment by attachment, fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1846, p. 200; P. D. 1420; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 2218. [2000] [1340] [1340] Of foreclosure.—Judgments for the foreclosure of mortgages and other liens shall be that the plaintiff recover his debt, damages and costs, with a foreclosure of the plaintiff's lien on the property subject thereto, and, except in judgments against executors, administrators and guardians, that an order of sale shall issue to the sheriff or any constable of the county where such property may be, directing him to seize and sell the same as under execution, in satisfaction of the judgment; and, if the property cannot be found, or if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, then to make the money, or any balance thereof remaining unpaid, out of any other property of the defendant, as in case of ordinary executions. [Acts 1846, p. 394; P. D. 1480; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1700.]

Art. 2219. [2001] [1341] [1340] Writ of possession.—When an order foreclosing a lien upon real estate is made in a suit having for its object the foreclosure of such lien, such order shall have all the force and effect of a writ of possession as between the parties to the foreclosure suit and any person claiming under the defendant to such suit by any right acquired pending such suit; and the court shall so direct in the judgment providing for the issuance of such order. The sheriff or other officer executing such order of sale shall proceed by virtue of such order of sale to place the purchaser of the property sold thereunder in possession thereof within thirty days after the day of sale. [Acts 1885, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 630.]

Art. 2220. [2002] [1342] [1341] On appeal from probate court.—Judgment on appeal or certiorari from any county court sitting in probate shall be certified to such county court for observance. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1460; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2221. [2003] [1343] [1342] On appeal from justice's court.—Judgments on appeal or certiorari from justice's court shall be enforced by the county court.

Art. 2222. [2004-5] Against executors, etc.—A judgment for the recovery of money against an executor, administrator or guardian, as such, shall state that it is to be paid in the due course of administration. No execution shall issue thereon, but it shall be certified to the county court, sitting in matters of probate, to be there enforced in accordance with law, but judgments against an executor appointed and acting under a will dispensing with the action of the county court in reference to such estate shall be enforced against the property of the testator in the hands of such executor, by execution, as in other cases. [Acts 1846, p. 393; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2223. [2006] [1347] [1346] Against partners.—Where the suit is against several partners jointly indebted upon contract, and the citation has been served upon some of such partners but not upon all, judgment may be rendered therein against such partnership and against the partners actually served, but no personal judgment or execution shall be awarded against those not served. [Acts 1858, p. 110; P. D. 1514; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 982.]

Art. 2224. [2008] [1349] [1347] Contract to waive or confess.—No acceptance of service and waiver of process, nor entry of appearance in open court, nor a confession of judgment shall be authorized in any case by the contract or writing sued on, or any other instrument executed prior to the institution of such suit, nor shall such acceptance or waiver be made until after suit brought. [Acts 1885, p. 33; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 653.]

Art. 2225. [2007-9-10] Confession of judgment.—Any person against whom a cause of action exists may, without process, appear in person or by attorney, and confess judgment therefor in open court, as follows:

1. A petition shall be filed and the justness of the debt or cause of action be sworn to by the person in whose favor the judgment is confessed.

2. If the judgment is confessed by attorney, the power of attorney shall be filed and its contents be recited in the judgment.

3. Every such judgment duly made shall operate as a release of all errors in the record thereof, but such judgment may be impeached for fraud or other equitable cause. [Acts 1846, p. 393; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1660.]

Art. 2226. [2178-9] Attorney's fees.—Any person having a valid claim against a person or corporation for personal services rendered, labor done, material furnished, overcharges on freight or express, lost or damaged freight or express or stock killed or injured, may present the same to such person or corporation or to any duly authorized agent thereof; and if, at the expiration of thirty days thereafter, the claim has not been paid or satisfied, and he should finally obtain judgment for the full amount thereof as presented for payment to such person or corporation, he may also recover, in addition to his claim and costs, a reasonable amount as attorney's fees, not to exceed twenty dollars, if represented by an attorney. [Acts 1909, p. 93; Acts 1923, p. 312.]

2. REMITTITUR AND CORRECTION.

| | Article | | Article |
|------------------------|---------|--------------------------|---------|
| Remittitur | 2227 | Correction in vacation | 2230 |
| Correction of mistakes | 2228 | Defective judgment cured | 2231 |
| Miscriticals corrected | 2229 | | |

Art. 2227. [2012-13-14] Remittitur.—Any party in whose favor a judgment has been rendered may remit any part thereof:

1. In open court, and such remittitur shall be noted on the docket and entered in the minutes.

2. In vacation, by executing and filing with the clerk a written release signed by him or his attorney of record, and attested by the clerk with his official seal. Such releases shall be a part of the record of the cause.

3. Execution shall issue for the balance only of such judgment. [Acts 1846, p. 397; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1703.]

Art. 2228. [2015] [1356] [1354] Correction of mistakes.—Mistakes in the record of any judgment or decree may be amended by the judge in open court according to the truth or justice of the case after notice of the application therefor has been given to the parties interested in such judgment or decree, and thereafter the execution shall conform to the judgment as amended. [Acts 1846, p. 203; P. D. 49; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1509.]

Art. 2229. [2016] [1357] [1355] Misrecitals corrected.—Where in the record of any judgment or decree of a court, there shall be any omission or mistake, miscalculation or misrecital of a sum or sums of money, or of any name or names, if there is among the records of the cause any verdict or instrument of writing whereby such judgment or decree may be safely amended, it shall be corrected by the court wherein such judgment or decree was rendered, or by the judge thereof in vacation, upon application of either party, according to the truth and justice of the case. The opposite party shall have reasonable notice of the application for such amendment. [Acts 1846, p. 396; P. D. 51; Revision 1879; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1702.]

Art. 2230. [2017] [1358] [1356] Correction in vacation.—The judge making such correction in vacation shall embody the same in a judgment, and certify thereto and deliver it to the clerk who shall enter it in the minutes. Such judgment shall constitute a part of the record of the cause, and any execution thereafter issued shall conform to the judgment as corrected.

Art. 2231. [2018] [1359] [1357] Defective judgment cured.—A remittitur or correction made as provided in any of the four preceding articles shall from the making thereof cure any error in the verdict or judgment by reason of such error, omission, mistake or excess. [Acts 1846, p. 397, P. D. 52; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1703.]

CHAPTER TEN.

NEW TRIALS AND ARREST OF JUDGMENT.

| | | | |
|-------------------------|---------|------------------------|---------|
| | Article | | Article |
| Motion | 2232 | If not equitable | 2235 |
| Not more than two | 2233 | Bill of review | 2236 |
| For misconduct | 2234 | | |

Art. 2232. [2019-20-23-25] Motion.—New trials may be granted and judgments arrested or set aside on motion for good cause, on such terms as the court shall direct. Each such motion shall:

1. Be made within two days after the rendition of verdict if the term of court shall continue so long, if not, then before the end of the term, and may be amended under leave of the court.

2. Be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney.

3. Specify each ground on which it is founded, and no ground not specified shall be considered.

4. Be determined at the term of the court at which it is made. [Acts 1846, p. 392; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1698.]

Art. 2233. [2024] [1372] [1370] Not more than two.—Not more than two new trials shall be granted either party in the same cause, except when the jury have erred in matter of law or been guilty of some misconduct. [Id.]

Art. 2234. [2021] For misconduct.—Where the ground of the motion is misconduct of the jury or of the officer in charge of them, or because of any communication made to the jury or that they received other testimony, the court shall hear evidence thereof from the jury or others in open court, and may grant a new trial if such misconduct proved, or the testimony received, or the communication made, be material. [Acts 1905, p. 21.]

Art. 2235. [2022] [1452] [1448] If not equitable.—New trials may be granted when the damages are manifestly too small or too large. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2236. [2026-7-8-9] Bill of review.—In cases in which judgment has been rendered on service of process by publication, where the defendant has not appeared in person or by attorney of his own selection:

1. The court may grant a new trial upon petition of the defendant showing good cause, supported by affidavit, filed within two years after such judgment was rendered. The parties adversely interested in such judgment shall be cited as in other cases.

2. Execution on such judgment shall not be suspended unless the party applying therefor shall give a good and sufficient bond payable to the plaintiff in the judgment, in double the amount of the judgment or value of the property adjudged, to be approved by the clerk, and conditioned that the party will prosecute his petition for new trial to effect and will perform such judgment as may be rendered by the court should its decision be against him.

3. If property has been sold under the judgment and execution before the process was suspended, the defendant shall not recover the property so sold, but shall have judgment against the plaintiff in the judgment for the proceeds of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 2237. [2058-67] When taken; rules.—If either party during the progress of a cause is dissatisfied with any ruling, opinion, or other action of the court, he may except thereto at the time the said ruling is made, or announced or such action taken, and at his request time shall be given to embody such exception in a written bill. The preparation and filing of bills of exception shall be governed by the following rules:

1. No particular form of words shall be required in a bill of exception; but the objection to the ruling or action of the court shall be stated with such circumstances, or so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

2. Where the statement of facts contains all the evidence requisite to explain the bill of exception evidence need not be set out in the bill; but it shall be sufficient to refer to the same as it appears in the statement of facts.

3. The ruling of the court in the giving, refusing or qualifying of instructions to the jury shall be regarded as approved unless excepted to.

4. Where the ruling or other action of the court appears otherwise of record, no bill shall be necessary to reserve an exception thereto.

5. The party taking a bill of exception shall reduce the same to writing and present it to the judge for his allowance and signature.

6. The judge shall submit such bill to the adverse party or his counsel, if in attendance on the court, and if found to be correct, the judge shall sign it without delay and file it with the clerk.

7. If the judge finds such bill incorrect, he shall suggest to the party or his counsel, such corrections as he deems necessary therein, and if they are agreed to, he shall make such corrections, sign the bill and file it with the clerk.

8. Should the party not agree to such corrections, the judge shall return the bill to him with his refusal indorsed thereon, and shall prepare, sign and file with the clerk such bill of exception, as will, in his opinion, present the ruling of the court as it actually occurred.

9. Should the party be dissatisfied with said bill filed by the judge, he may, upon procuring the signatures of three respectable bystanders, citizens of this State, attesting to the correctness of the bill as presented by him, have the same filed as part of the record of the cause; and the truth of the matter in reference thereto may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not exceeding five in number on each side, to be filed with the papers of the cause, within ten days after the filing of said bill and to be considered as part of the record relating thereto. [Acts 1846, p. 391; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1697; Acts 1913, p. 113.]

Art. 2238. [1924-2079] Transcript of evidence.—When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same and shall indicate whether he desires same in question and answer form or in narrative form. In the event such transcript should be ordered in question and answer form, then such reporter shall make the same up in duplicate in question and answer form, and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of fifteen cents per hundred words for the original. In the event said transcript should be ordered made in narrative form, then such reporter shall make up same in duplicate in narrative form, and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of twenty cents per hundred words for the original; provided, that in case any reporter charges more than the fees herein allowed he shall be liable to the person paying the same a sum equal to four times the excess so paid. [Id., 1925, p. 670.]

Art. 2239. [2070] Statement in duplicate.—When a transcript is ordered in question and answer form, and filed with the clerk, the party appealing shall prepare or have prepared from said transcript so filed, a statement of facts in duplicate, which shall consist of the evidence adduced upon the trial, both oral and by deposition, stated in succinct manner and without unnecessary repetition, together with copies of such documents, sketches, maps and other matters used in evidence. Such statement of facts shall not be copied in the transcript of the clerk, but when agreed to by the parties and approved by the judge shall be filed in duplicate with the clerk, and the original thereof sent upon appeal as part of the record in the cause. Like procedure shall be followed if the statement of facts is prepared independently by the parties and agreed to and approved by the judge or prepared by the judge on the failure of the parties to agree. When a statement of facts is made at the request of a party by the official court reporter, the fees therefor shall not be taxed as costs. [Acts 1911, p. 264.]

Art. 2240. [2069] [1380] [1378] When the parties disagree.—

1. If the parties do not agree upon such statement of facts, or if the judge does not approve or sign it, the parties may submit their respective statements to the judge, who shall, from his own knowledge, with the aid of such statements, prepare and sign and file with the clerk a correct statement of the facts proved on the trial; and such statement shall constitute a part of the record.

2. The judge shall not be required to prepare such statement of facts unless the party appealing, by himself or attorney, within the time allowed for filing, shall present to the judge within fifteen days after adjournment of the court or after the entering of the final judgment, as the case may be, a statement of facts and shall certify thereon, over his signature, that to the best of his knowledge and belief, it is a full and fair statement of all the facts proved on the trial.

3. When the duty devolves upon the court to prepare the statement of facts, he shall have such time in which to do so as he deems necessary, but shall not postpone the preparation and filing of same, so as to delay the filing thereof, together with a transcript of the record in the appellate court within the time prescribed by law. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406; Acts 1911, p. 264.]

Art. 2241. [2071] Party unable to pay.—In any civil case where the appellant or plaintiff in error has made the proof required to appeal his case without bond, such party may make affidavit of such fact, and upon the making and filing of such affidavit, the court shall order the official reporter to make a transcript in narrative form in duplicate and to deliver the same to said party, but such reporter shall receive no pay for same.

Art. 2242. [2072] Independent statement.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent parties from preparing a statement of facts on appeal independent of the transcript of the notes of the official court reporter. [Acts 1911, p. 264.]

Art. 2243. [2068] [1379] Substance and approval.—After the trial of a cause, either party may make out a written statement of facts given in evidence on the trial, and submit the same to the opposite party or his attorney for inspection. If the parties or their attorneys agree upon such statement of facts, they shall sign the same; and it shall be submitted to the judge who shall, if he finds it correct, approve and sign it; and the same shall be filed with the clerk. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2244. [2068] [1379] [1377] Agreed statement of evidence.—Where it is agreed by the parties to the suit, or their attorney of record, that the evidence adduced upon the trial of the cause is sufficient to establish a fact or facts alleged by either party, the testimony of the witnesses and the deeds, wills, records, or other written instruments, admitted as evidence relating thereto, shall not be stated or copied in detail into a statement of facts; but the facts thus established shall be stated as facts provided in the case; provided, an instrument, such as a note or other contract, mortgage or deed of trust, that constitutes the cause of action on which the petition, or answer, or cross bill, or intervention, is founded may be copied once in the statement of facts. When there is any reasonable doubt of the sufficiency of the evidence to constitute proof of any one fact under the preceding rule, there may then be inserted such of the testimony of the witnesses and written instruments, or parts thereof, as relate to such facts. [Id.]

Art. 2245. [2074] [1382] Statement not filed in time.—Whenever a statement of facts has been filed after the time prescribed by law, and the party tendering the filing of same shall show to the satisfaction of the appellate court that he has used due diligence to obtain the approval and signature of the judge thereto, and to file the same within the time prescribed by law for filing the same, and that his failure to file the same within said time is not due to the fault or laches of said party or his attorney, and that such failure was the result of causes beyond his control, the appellate court shall permit said statement of facts to remain as part of the record and consider the same in the hearing and adjudication of said cause the same as if said statement of facts had been filed in time. [Acts 1887, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 815.]

Art. 2246. [2073] Time for filing.—The time for filing statements of fact and bills of exception in the district and county courts and county courts at law shall be governed by the following rules:

1. When the appeal is taken from a judgment rendered in a civil cause tried in any of said courts, the party appealing shall have eighty days after the adjournment of the term of the court wherein the cause is tried within which to prepare and file his statement of facts and bills of exception in the trial court.

2. If the term of court may by law continue more than eight weeks, the statement of facts and bills of exception shall be filed in the trial court within ninety days after final judgment is rendered.

3. Upon application of the party appealing, the judge before whom the cause is tried may, in term time or vacation for good cause shown, extend the time for filing such statements of fact and bills of exception; but the time shall not be extended in any case so as to delay the filing of the statement of facts together with the transcript of the record in the appellate court within ninety days after the date of filing the appeal or writ of error bond.

Art. 2247. [2075] Time to file conclusions.—When demand is made therefor, the judge of a district or county court shall have ten days after adjournment of the term at which the cause was tried in said court in which to prepare his findings of fact and conclusions of law in cases tried before the court. [Acts 1903, p. 32; Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 446.]

Art. 2248. [2076] Successor to trial judge.—Any judge of a district or county court whose term of office expires before the adjournment of the term of such court at which a cause may be tried, or during the period prescribed for the filing of the statement of facts and bills of exception, or conclusions of law and fact, may approve such statement of facts and bills of exception, or file such findings of fact and conclusions of law in such cause, as provided in this title, and where any such judge shall die before the time for such approval or filing, the same may be approved or filed by his successor, as provided by article 2288.

Art. 2249. To Court of Civil Appeals.—An appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from every final judgment of the district court in civil cases, and from every final judgment in the county court in civil cases of which the county court has original jurisdiction, and from every final judgment of the county court in civil cases in which the court has appellate jurisdiction, where the judgment or amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars exclusive of interest and costs. An appeal may be taken to the Court of Civil Appeals from every order of any district or county court in civil cases granting motions for new trials in any of the above mentioned cases and such appeal shall be taken within the same time and in the same manner as if the judgment was final. [Acts 1925, p. 45.]

Art. 2250. [2079] Appeal from interlocutory order.—An appeal shall lie from an interlocutory order of the district court if such appeal be taken within twenty days from the entry of such order in the following cases and shall take precedence in the appellate court, but the proceedings in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of the appeal, unless otherwise ordered by the appellate court:

1. Appointing a receiver or trustee in any cause.
2. Overruling a motion to vacate an order appointing a receiver or trustee in any case. [Acts 1917, p. 379.]

Art. 2251. [2080] Appeals in injunctions.—Appeals from orders of the district and county courts granting or dissolving temporary injunctions shall lie in the cases and in the manner provided in the title "Injunctions."

Art. 2252. [2081-2-3] Definitions.—The party taking an appeal is called the "appellant" and the adverse party the "appellee." The party suing out a writ of error is called the "plaintiff in error" and the adverse party the "defendant in error." The term "Appellate court" includes the Supreme Court or Court of Civil Appeals having jurisdiction of a cause appealed. The term "Court below" means the court from which the appeal or writ of error is taken. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2253. [2084] [1387] [1387] Appeal perfected.—In cases where an appeal is allowed, the appellant shall give notice of appeal in open court within two days after final judgment, or two days after judgment overruling a motion for a new trial, which notice shall be noted on the docket or record in the minutes of the court, and filed with the clerk together with an appeal bond or affidavit in lieu thereof as provided by law. Such bond or affidavit shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court within twenty days after the expiration of the term or after notice of appeal is given when the term continues by law more than eight weeks, if the party taking the appeal resides in the county, and within thirty days, if he resides out of the county. [Id.]

Art. 2254. [2085] [1388] [1388] No appeal bond required.—In cases where the appellant is not required by law to give bond on appeal, the appeal is perfected by the notice provided for in the preceding article.

Art. 2255. [2086] [1389] [1389] Writ of error sued out.—The writ of error, in cases where the same is allowed, may be sued out at any time within six months after the final judgment is rendered. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406; Acts 1919, p. 136.]

Art. 2256. [2087] [1390] [1390] By petition.—The party desiring to sue out a writ of error shall file with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered a written petition signed by him or by his attorney, and addressed to such clerk. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1495; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2257. [2088] [1391] [1391] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall state the names and residences of the parties adversely interested, shall describe the judgment with sufficient certainty to identify it, and shall state that he desires to remove the same to the Court of Civil Appeals for revision and correction. Where the plaintiff in error desires the issuance of a supersedeas, he shall state the facts which entitle him thereto, and pray for the issuance thereof. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2258. [2089] [1392] [1392] Error bond.—The plaintiff at the time of filing such petition shall file with the clerk a writ of error bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, as provided by law. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2259. [2090] [1393] [1393] Citation in error.—Upon the filing of such petition and bond, the clerk shall forthwith issue a citation for the defendant in error and if there be several defendants residing in different counties, one citation shall issue to each of such counties. [Id.]

Art. 2260. [2091] [1394] [1394] Form and requisites of citation.—The citation shall be styled, dated and tested by the clerk as other writs, and the date of its issuance shall be noted thereon. It shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is alleged to reside or be, and shall command him forthwith to summon the defendant to appear and defend such writ before the Court of Civil Appeals within sixty days from date of service of said citation, stating the place of holding the same, according to the provisions of the law regulating the returns of appeals and writs of error from the court in which the judgment was rendered. It shall state the date of the filing of the petition in error, the names of the parties, and the description of the judgment as therein given. Such citation shall be made returnable within ten days from the issuance of the same, if defendant resides in the county, and within twenty days, if he resides out of the county. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2261. [2092-3] Service and return.—The sheriff or constable receiving such citation shall indorse the day and hour on which he receives it, and execute and return it forthwith. Service shall be made by delivering to the defendant in error, and, if more than one, then, to each of them, in person, a true copy of such citation. The return of such officer shall state when and how the same was served, and shall be signed by him officially. If it has not been served, the return shall show the diligence used by the officer to execute the same, and a failure to execute the same, and where the defendant is to be found, so far as he has been able to ascertain. [Id.]

Art. 2262. [2094] [1397] [1397] Alias citation.—If the citation is returned not executed, the clerk shall forthwith issue an alias or pluries citation, as the case may be, which shall conform to the requisites prescribed for the issuance of citation in the first instance, and shall, in addition, indicate how many previous citations have been issued. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1495; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2263. [2095] [1398] [1398] Service on attorney.—If it appears from the allegations in the papers of the cause that the party is a non-resident of the State, or if it appears from the return of the sheriff or constable that the party cannot be found in the county of his residence, the citation shall direct the officer to summon the defendant by making service on his attorney of record, if there be one. [Id.]

Art. 2264. [2096] [1399] [1399] Service in other modes.—Service of the citations may be also made in either mode provided in chapter three of this title, so far as the same are applicable.

Art. 2265. [2097] [1400] [1400] Cost bond.—The appellant or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, shall execute a bond to be approved by the clerk, payable to the appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the probable amount of the costs of the court below, the Court of Civil Appeals, and the Supreme Court, to be fixed by the clerk, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect, and shall pay all the costs which have accrued in the court below, and which may accrue in the Court of Civil Appeals and the Supreme Court. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2266. [2098] [1401] [1401] Party unable to give cost bond.—Where the appellant or plaintiff in error is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but, to do so, he shall make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides, or before the court trying the case, and shall consist of the affidavit of the party stating his inability to pay the costs; which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit, whereupon the court trying the case, if in session, or the county judge of the county in which the suit is pending, shall hear evidence and determine the right of the party to his appeal. [Acts 1871, p. 74; Acts 1879, p. 90; P. D. 6180; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1390.]

Art. 2267. [2099] [1402] [1402] Appeal or writ of error perfected.—When the bond, or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal or writ of error, as the case may be, shall be held to be perfected.

Art. 2268. [2100] [1403] [1403] Judgment not suspended.—The bond or affidavit in lieu thereof, provided in the three preceding articles, shall not have the effect to suspend the judgment, but execution shall issue thereon as if no such appeal or writ of error had been taken.

Art. 2269. Revival against successor of officer.—When a suit in mandamus or injunction is brought against a person holding a public office, in his official capacity, and after final trial and judgment in the trial court, and notice of appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals or Supreme Court has been given, if such person should vacate such office, the suit shall not abate, but his successor may be made a party thereto by a motion showing such facts and that he has demanded such successor to such office to do or to refrain from doing such official act as such suit is based upon and such successor has failed or refused to comply with such demand, duly verified by any party to such suit or his attorney. After service is duly perfected or waived by the parties, the court shall proceed to hear and determine same, and its judgment, order or decree shall be enforced by the court, and such successor shall be bound thereby. In such cases, the successor shall not be liable for any costs that have accrued prior to the time he was made a party. [Acts 1917, p. 367.]

Art. 2270. [2101] [1404] [1404] Supersedeas bond.—An appellant or plaintiff in error, desiring to suspend the execution of the judgment may do so by giving a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the clerk, payable to appellee or defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such appellant or plaintiff in error shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and in case the judgment of the Supreme Court or the Court of Civil Appeals shall be against him, he shall perform its judgment, sentence or decree, and pay all such damages as said court may award against him. [Acts 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2271. [2102] [1405] [1405] Where judgment is for property.—Where the judgment is for the recovery of land or other property, the bond shall be further conditioned that the appellant or plaintiff in error shall, in case the judgment is affirmed, pay to the appellee or defendant in error the value of the rent or hire of such property in any suit which may be brought therefor. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1492; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2272. Additional bond.—In all cases carried by appeal or writ of error from the district or county court to the Court of Civil Appeals or to the Supreme Court, in which a supersedeas bond shall be given, and whenever the said bond shall become insufficient by reason of the insolvency of the sureties on such bond, or from any other cause, the court in which the said appeal or writ of error is pending, shall, upon proper showing of such insufficiency being made, require the giving of additional supersedeas bond in like amount as the original, to be approved by the clerk of the court in which said appeal or writ of error is pending. [Acts 1921, p. 223.]

Art. 2273. When party fails to comply.—Upon failure to comply with the rule of the court ordering the execution of said additional supersedeas bond within a period of twenty days after such order is served, the court in which said appeal or writ of error is pending shall issue an order to the trial court, directing or permitting the issuance of execution on the judgment appealed from; but said appeal or writ of error shall not be dismissed, but continued upon the docket as if said cause had been appealed or writ of error granted upon cost bond, provided the clerk of the court in which said appeal or writ of error is pending is satisfied that the original bond is still sufficient when considered as a cost bond. [Id.]

Art. 2274. Bond insufficient as cost bond.—Said clerk shall consider the said original supersedeas bond insufficient when considered as a cost bond, then the said appeal or writ of error shall be dismissed, unless the appellant or the plaintiff in error within twenty days after notice served by the clerk that the said bond is deemed insufficient for the purposes of the cost bond, shall execute a new bond satisfactory to said clerk, sufficient to secure the payment of the costs theretofore accrued, or that might thereafter accrue in the further prosecution of the said appeal or writ of error. The giving of said additional original bond or bonds shall not release the liability of the sureties on the original supersedeas bond. [Id.]

Art. 2275. [2103] [1406] [1406] Judgment stayed.—Upon the filing of a proper supersedeas bond, the appeal or writ of error shall be held to be perfected, and the execution of the judgment shall be stayed, and should execution have been issued thereon, the clerk shall forthwith issue a supersedeas. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669; P. D. 1495.]

Art. 2276. [2105-6] No bond required.—Neither the State of Texas, nor any county in the State of Texas, nor the Railroad Commission of Texas, nor the head of any department of the State of Texas, prosecuting or defending in any action in their official capacity, shall be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by it, or either of them, in any civil case.

Executors, administrators and guardians appointed by the courts of this State shall not be required to give bond on any appeal or writ of error taken by them in their fiduciary capacity. [Acts 1848, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106; P. D. 1503; Acts 1897, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1081; Acts 1909, S. S. p. 284.]

Art. 2277. [2107] [1409] [1409] If party dies.—In case of the death of any party entitled to an appeal or writ of error, the same may be taken by his executor, administrator or heir.

Art. 2278. [2108-9-10] Transcript delivered.—When an appeal or writ of error has been perfected, the clerk of the court shall, upon the application of either party, make out, and deliver to him a transcript of the record of the cause, which shall, except in the cases hereinafter provided, contain a full and correct copy of all the proceedings had in the cause. If the pleadings or the judgment show an appearance of the defendant, in person or by attorney, the citation and returns shall not be copied into the transcript. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1494; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2279. [2111] [1413] [1413] Omissions.—The parties may, by agreement in writing, with the approval of the judge, direct the clerk to omit from the transcript any designated portion of the proceedings not deemed material to the disposition of the cause in the appellate court. [Acts 1858, p. 110; P. D. 1516; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 982.]

Art. 2280. [2112] [1414] [1414] Agreed statement.—The parties may agree upon a brief statement of the case and of the facts proven, with or without copies of any part of the proceedings as shall, in their opinion, enable the appellate court to determine whether there has been any error in the judgment; and, if the judge shall approve and sign such statement; it shall be filed among the papers of the cause and constitute a part of the record, and, on appeal or writ of error shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of such proceedings themselves. [Id.]

Art. 2281. [2113] [1415] [1415] Transcript must contain.—The transcript shall in all cases contain a copy of the final judgment, notice of appeal, petition for writ of error and citation in error, with return of service thereon, bond on appeal or writ of error, or affidavit in lieu thereof, assignments of error, and a statement of the accrued costs. [Id.]

Art. 2282. [2114] [1416] [1416] Clerk's certificate.—The clerk shall certify to the correctness of the transcript and sign the same officially with the seal of the court attached. Such certificate shall state whether the same be a transcript of all the proceedings in the cause, or a transcript agreed upon by the parties. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 1494; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2283. [2115] [1417] Briefs.—Not less than five days before the time of filing the transcript in the Court of Civil Appeals the appellant or plaintiff in error shall file with the clerk of the trial court a copy of his brief, which he shall deposit with the papers of the cause, with the date of filing indorsed thereon; and he shall forthwith give notice to the appellee or defendant in error, or his attorney of record, of the filing of such brief, and in twenty days after such notice the appellee or defendant in error shall file a copy of his brief with the clerk of said court below, and four copies with the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1892, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 406.]

Art. 2284. [2116] [1418] [1417] Awaiting mandate.—Where a cause shall be removed by appeal or writ of error to the appellate court, the cause shall remain or be replaced on the docket to await the mandate of the appellate court.

Art. 2285. [2117] [1419] [1418] Return of mandate.—Upon the return of the mandate, if the judgment of the court below be reversed by the appellate court, the cause shall stand for trial in its order on the docket.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. MISCELLANEOUS.

| Lost records and papers..... | 2289 | | |

Art. 2286. [2180] [1447] [1443] Writs and process.—The style of all writs and process shall be “The State of Texas;” and unless otherwise specially provided by law, every such writ and process shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, shall be made returnable on the first day of the next term of the court after the issuance thereof, and shall be dated and attested by the clerk with the seal of the court impressed thereon; and the date of its issuance shall be noted on the same. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 12; Acts 1866, p. 199; Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1117.]

Art. 2287. [2183] [1455] [1451] Neglect by officers.—Any clerk, sheriff, or other officer who neglects or refuses to perform any duty required of him under any provision of this title shall be liable to damages at the suit of any person injured, and may be punished for contempt of court. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2288. When judge dies during term.—If the judge dies during a session of court duly convened for the term and the time provided by law for holding said court has not expired, such death shall not operate to adjourn said court for the term, but the court shall be deemed at recess for not exceeding six days, and if no successor be appointed or elected during said recess, or if a person appointed or elected does not qualify and assume the duties of office during said recess, then the court shall be deemed to have adjourned. If a successor to such judge shall qualify and assume office during said recess, he may continue to hold said court for the term as provided, and all motions undisposed of shall be heard and determined by him, and statements of facts and bills of exception shall be approved by him. If the time for holding such court expire or the recess expire before a successor shall qualify, then all motions pending, including those in arrest of judgment or for new trial, shall stand as continued in force until such successor has qualified and assumed office, and he shall have power to act on them at the succeeding term, or on an earlier day in vacation on notice to all parties to the motion, and such orders shall have the same effect as if rendered in term time. The time of allowing statement of facts and bills of exception from such order shall date from the time the motion was decided. [Acts 1913, p. 260.]

Art. 2289. [2157-8-9-62-63] Lost records and papers.—When any papers or records are lost or destroyed during the pendency of a suit, the parties may, with the approval of the judge, agree in writing on a brief statement of the matters contained therein; or either party may supply such lost records or papers as follows:

1. After three days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney, make written sworn motion before the court stating the loss or destruction of such record or papers, accompanied by certified copies of the originals if obtainable, or by substantial copies thereof.

2. If the adverse party admit the correctness of such copies, and the court be satisfied that they are substantial copies of the originals, or on the approval of said brief statement an order shall be made substituting such copies or brief statement for the originals.

3. Such substituted copies or brief statement shall be filed with the clerk, constitute a part of the cause, and have the force and effect of the originals. [Acts 1850, p. 160, G. L. Vol. 3, p. 598, P. D. 4969.]

Art. 2290. [2164-5-6] Deposits pending suit.—The officer having custody of any money, debt, script, instrument of writing, or other article paid or deposited in court during the progress of any cause to abide the result of any legal proceeding, shall seal up in a secure package the identical money or other article so received and deposit it in some safe or bank vault, keeping it always accessible and subject to the control of the court; and he shall also keep in his office as a part of the records thereof a correct itemized statement of such deposit, on what account received, and the disposition made of the same. When his term of office expires, such officer shall turn over to his successor all of such trust funds and other property and the record book thereof, taking his receipt therefor. This article shall not exempt any officer or his surety from any liability on his official bond for any neglect or other default in regard to said property. [Acts 1876, p. 7; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 843.]

Art. 2291. [2118-19-20-21-22-23] Motions.—The clerk shall keep a motion docket in which he shall enter every motion filed in his court, the names of the parties and their attorneys, a brief statement of its nature, and the number of the suit in which it is made if it relates to a suit pending. Service of notice on a party may be made, when necessary, either by the proper sheriff or constable or by any person competent to testify, and may be served in like manner as an original writ, either on the party or his attorney of record. The return of such notice when made by such officer or person, verified by his affidavit, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service. If the time of service is not elsewhere prescribed, the adverse party is entitled to three day's notice of a motion not relating to a pending suit, and such motions shall be taken up and disposed of in their order as other suits are required to be. Notice of a motion in a suit pending is given by filing the motion and its entry in the motion docket during the term, and such motion which does not go into the merits of the case may be disposed of at any time before the trial of the case. [Acts 1846, p. 363; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 2292. [2124-5-6-7] Audit.—When an investigation of accounts or examination of vouchers appears necessary for the purpose of justice between the parties to any suit, the court shall appoint an auditor or auditors to state the accounts between the parties and to make report thereof to the court as soon as possible. The auditor shall verify his report by his affidavit stating that he has carefully examined the state of the account between the parties, and that his report contains a true statement thereof, so far as the same has come within his knowledge. Said report shall be admitted in evidence, but may be contradicted by evidence from either party where exceptions to such report or of any item thereof have been filed before the trial. The court shall award reasonable compensation to such auditor to be taxed as costs of suit. [Acts 1846, p. 389; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1695.]

Art. 2293. [2128] [1465] Appointment.—Receivers may be appointed by any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of this State, in the following cases:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured; or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed and the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

3. In cases where a corporation is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency; or has been dissolved or has forfeited its corporate rights.

4. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity. [Acts 1887, p. 119; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 917; Acts 1889, p. 55; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1083.]

Art. 2294. [2129-30] Qualifications.—A receiver for property within or partly within and partly without this State must, when appointed, be a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, and if so qualified and appointed he shall keep and maintain actual residence in this State during the pendency of such receivership; if not so qualified, his appointment as such receiver shall be void in so far as the property within this State is concerned. No party, attorney, or any person interested in any way in an action for the appointment of a receiver shall be appointed receiver therein. [Id.]

Art. 2295. [2131] [1468] Quo Warranto.—Where a domestic corporation owning property in this State shall have a receiver of such property appointed who is not a bona fide citizen and qualified voter of this State, said corporation shall thereby forfeit its charter; and the Attorney General shall at once prosecute a suit by quo warranto against said corporation so offending to forfeit its charter. The court trying the cause shall forfeit the charter of said corporation upon proof that a person has been appointed receiver of its property situated in this State who is not so qualified. [Id.]

Art. 2296. [2132] [1369] Oath and bond.—When a receiver is appointed, he shall, before he enters upon his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the court appointing him, in the sum fixed by the court, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge his duty as receiver in the action (naming it) and obey the orders of the court therein. [Acts 1887, p. 120.]

Art. 2297. [2133] [1470] Receiver's power.—The receiver shall have power, under the control of the court, to bring and defend actions in his own name as receiver, to take charge and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect, compound for, compromise demands, make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize. [Id.]

Art. 2298. [2134] [1471] Investing funds.—The funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest by order of the court, but no such order shall be made except upon consent of all the parties to the action. [Id.]

Art. 2299. [2135] [1472] Application of funds.—All moneys that come into the hands of a receiver as such receiver shall be applied as follows, to the payment:

1. Of all court costs of the suit.
2. Of all wages of employes due by the receiver.
3. Of all debts due by the receiver for materials and supplies purchased during receivership by the receiver for the improvement of the property in his hands as receiver.
4. Of all debts due for betterments and improvements done during receivership to the property in his hands as such receiver.
5. Of all claims and accounts against the receiver on contracts made by the receiver during the receivership, and of personal injury claims and claims for stock against said receiver accruing during said receivership, and all judgments rendered against said receiver for personal injuries and for stock killed.
6. Of all judgments recovered against persons or corporations in suits brought before the receiver in the action.

As to all money coming into the hands of a receiver which are the earnings of the property in his hands, said claims shall have a preference lien on the same, and the receiver shall pay the same on the claims against him in the order of preference named above, and the court shall see that he does so. [Id.]

Art. 2300. [2136] [1473] Discharge of receiver.—If a receiver is discharged pending suits against him for causes of action growing out of and arising during the receivership, the cause of action shall not abate, but may be prosecuted to final judgment against the receiver; and the plaintiff may make the party or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered the property a party to the suit. If judgment is finally rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the receiver, the court shall also enter judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the party to whom the property was delivered by the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2301. [2137] [1472] When property subject to execution.—Where there is a judgment against a receiver and he shall have in possession moneys subject to the payment of such judgment, and the plaintiff owning the judgment shall apply to the court appointing the receiver for an order to pay said judgment, and if said court should refuse to order said judgment paid, when there is money in the hands of said receiver subject to the payment of the judgment, then the court rendering the judgment shall order an execution to issue on said judgment against said receiver upon the filing by the plaintiff in the court where the judgment was rendered an affidavit reciting that the plaintiff had applied to the court appointing the receiver for an order for said receiver to pay said judgment, and that it was shown to the court that there was money in the hands of the receiver at that time which was subject to the payment of the judgment, and that said court refused to order him to pay the judgment. Said execution when so issued shall be levied upon any property in the hands of the receiver and the same shall be sold as under ordinary execution; and a sale of the property will convey the title of the same to the purchaser. [Id.]

Art. 2302. [2138] [1475] Judgments first lien on property.—All judgments rendered against a receiver for causes of action arising during the receivership shall be a lien upon all property in the hands of the receiver superior to the mortgage lien. If the property should be turned back into the possession of the party or corporation owning same at the time of the appointment of a receiver, or any one for them, or to their assigns or purchasers, the party or corporation so receiving said property from said receiver shall take said property charged with all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver occurring during the receivership, to the value of the property delivered by the receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2303. [2139] [1476] Persons liable for debts.—If a receiver is discharged by the court before all of the liabilities of the receiver arising during the receivership are settled in full, then the person, persons, or corporation to whom the receiver delivers the property that was in his hands as receiver shall be liable to the persons having claims against said receiver for the full amount of the liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 2304. [2140] [1477] Effect of discharge.—The discharge of a receiver shall not work an abatement of the suit against a receiver nor in any way affect the right of the party to sue the receiver if he sees proper. [Id.]

Art. 2305. [2141] [1478] Property liable for debts.—When property has been returned to the original owner without any sale of said property, such owner shall be liable for all of the unpaid liabilities of the receiver in causes of action arising out of and during the receivership, and the plaintiff may make such owner to whom the property was delivered a party defendant along with the receiver; and, if judgment is rendered against the receiver upon a cause of action arising out of and during the receivership, then the court shall also, at the same time, render judgment against such defendants for the amount so found for plaintiff; and plaintiff shall have the right to foreclose his lien on the property so returned. [Id.]

Art. 2306. [2142] [1479] Outstanding liabilities at discharge.—If at the date of the discharge of a receiver there exists against him any judgments or unpaid claims not sued on which arose during the receivership, then such claims and judgments shall be a preference lien on all of the property that was in the receiver's hands as such at said date superior to the mortgage lien; and the person or corporation to whom the receiver has delivered such property shall be liable for such claims and judgments to the value of such property. [Id.]

Art. 2307. [2143] [1480] Liability of receiver and person to whom property is delivered.—Any person having a claim against a receiver not sued on at the date of the discharge of the receiver, shall have the right to sue said receiver, either alone or jointly, with the person or corporation to whom the receiver delivered said property that was in his hands as such receiver; and, if any judgment is rendered against said receiver, a judgment shall also be rendered against the person or corporation for the same amount that is rendered against the receiver, not to exceed the value of the property so received by said person or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 2308. [2144] [1481] Receiver to give bond on appeal.—In a suit against a receiver, if the receiver desires to appeal or apply for a writ of error from judgment rendered against him, before such appeal or writ of error shall be perfected or allowed, such receiver shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court or justice of the peace, payable to the appellee or the defendant in error, in a sum at least double the amount of the judgment, interest and costs, conditioned that such receiver shall prosecute his appeal or writ of error with effect; and, in case the judgment of the court to which such appeal or writ of error be taken shall be against him, that he will perform its judgment, sentence, or decree, and pay all such damages and costs as said court may award against him. If the judgment of the appellate court shall be against such receiver, judgment shall, at the same time, be entered against the sureties on his said bond, and execution thereon may issue against such sureties within twenty days after such judgment is rendered. [Id.]

Art. 2309. [2145] [1482] Deposit of railroad funds.—When a line of railroad operated by a receiver lies wholly within this State, all money which comes into the hands of the receiver, whether from operating the road or otherwise, shall be kept and deposited in such place within this State as the court may direct, until properly disbursed; but, if any portion of the road lies in another State, the receiver shall be required to deposit in this State at least such share of the funds in his hands as is proportioned to the value of the property of the company within this State.

Art. 2310. [2146] [1483] Suit by or against.—When property within the limits of this State has been placed in the hands of a receiver who has taken charge of such property, such receiver may, in his official capacity, sue or be sued in any court of this State having jurisdiction of the cause of action, without leave of the court appointing him. If judgment is recovered against said receiver, the court shall order said judgment paid out of any funds in the hands of said receiver as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2311. [2147] [1484] Venue of suit against.—Actions may be brought against the receiver of the property of any person where said person resides; and against receivers of a corporation in the county where the principal office of said corporation may be located, and against receivers of railroad companies in any county through or into which the road is constructed. Service of summons may be had upon the receiver, or upon the general or division superintendent of the road, or upon any agent of said receiver who resides in the county where the suit is brought.

Art. 2312. [2150] [1488] Venue to appoint.—If the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is a corporation whose property lies within this State, or partly within this State, then the action to have a receiver appointed shall be brought in this State in the county where the principal of said corporation is located. [Id.]

Art. 2313. [2149] [1487] Jurisdiction to appoint.—When a person resides in this State and a receiver is applied for, or if the property sought to be placed in the hands of a receiver is situated within the limits of this State, no court other than one within the limits of this State, shall have power to appoint any receiver of said property. [Id.]

Art. 2314. [2148] [1486] Inventory by receiver.—The receiver as soon after his appointment as possible, shall return to the court appointing him a true and correct inventory of all property received by him as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2315. [2151] [1489] Where there are betterments, etc.—When a receiver of a corporation has, under the order of the court appointing him, made improvements upon the property and purchased rolling stock, machinery, and made other improvements whereby the value of the property of said corporation has been increased, or has extended a road, or acquired any property in connection with said road, and has paid for same out of the current receipts of the corporation that came into his hands as receiver, then, if there be any floating debts against said corporation, said corporation shall be made to contribute to the floating indebtedness to the full value of the money so spent by said receiver as aforesaid. When there are liens of any kind upon the property of said corporation in the hands of such receiver, and said property is sold under the order of the court, and said liens foreclosed, then the court appointing such receiver, if there be any unpaid debts or judgments, or claims against the corporation itself, shall detain in the hands of the clerk of the court money to the full value of the improvements made by the receiver of the property sold, and pay the same over to whoever has or may have a claim. debt, or judgment against said corporation; and the court, in ordering the sale of the property, shall require sufficient cash to be paid in at date of sale to cover the full value of the improvements so made by said receiver out of the current funds received by him from the property while receiver. [Id.]

Art. 2316. [2152] [1490] Preference claims.—All judgments, claims, or causes of action when determined, existing against any corporation at the time of the appointment of a receiver, shall be paid out of the earnings of such corporation while in the hands of the receiver, to the exclusion of mortgage action; and the same shall be a lien on such earnings. [Id.]

Art. 2317. [2153] [1491] Receivership of corporation limited.—No corporation shall be administered in any court for more than three years from the date of such appointment; and within three years such court shall wind up the affairs of such corporation, unless prevented by appeal of litigation. [Id.]

Art. 2318. [2154] [1492] Application for receiver.—No receiver of a joint stock or incorporated company, co-partnership or private person shall ever be appointed on the petition of such joint stock or incorporated company, partnership or person. A stockholder or stockholders of such joint stock or incorporated company may have his or their action against such company, and may have a receiver appointed as in ordinary cases. Nothing herein shall prevent a member of any co-partnership from having a receiver appointed whenever a cause of action arises between the co-partners. [Id.]

Art. 2319. [2155] [1493] Rules of equity shall govern.—In all matters relating to the appointment of receivers, and to their powers, duties and liabilities, and to the powers of the court in relation thereto, the rules of equity shall govern whenever the same are not inconsistent with any provision of this chapter and the general laws of the State. [Id.]

Art. 2320. [2156] [1485] Master in chancery.—After a receiver has been appointed and qualified, the court shall, in every case, appoint a master in chancery who shall be a citizen of this State, and not an attorney for either party to the action, nor related to either party, who shall perform all of the duties required of him by the court, and shall be under orders of the court, and have such power as a master of chancery has in a court of equity. [Acts 1887, p. 121; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 919.]

3. OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER.

Art. 2321. [1920-21] Appointment and examination.—Each district and criminal district judge shall appoint an official court reporter who shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the court. Before any person is so appointed, the judge shall assign three attorneys practicing in said court to examine said applicant as to his competency as follows: The applicant shall, in the presence of such committee, write at the rate of at least one hundred and seventy-five words per minute for five consecutive minutes from questions and answers submitted to him, not counting the words “question” and “answer,” and shall transcribe the same with accuracy. If the applicant passes this test satisfactorily a majority of the committee shall furnish him with a certificate of that fact, which shall be filed among the records of the court and be recorded by the clerk in the minutes thereof. As to subsequent appointments, the presentation of a certified copy from said clerk of said certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the applicant’s competency. No examination by any committee shall be required of an applicant who has been official stenographer of any district court in this State for not less than two years prior to his application. [Acts 1911, p. 264.]

Art. 2322. [1922] Oath.—Said reporter in addition to taking the official oath shall subscribe to an oath to be administered to him by the district clerk to the effect that he will well and truly in an impartial manner keep a correct record of all evidence offered in each case reported by him, together with the objections and exceptions made by the parties to such suit, and the rulings and remarks of the court in passing upon the admissibility of testimony. [Id.]

Art. 2323. [1928] Deputy reporter.—In case of illness, press of official work, or unavoidable disability of the official shorthand reporter to perform his duties in reporting proceedings in court, the judge of the court may, in his discretion, authorize a deputy shorthand reporter to act during the absence of said official shorthand reporter, and said deputy shorthand reporter shall receive, during the time he acts for said official shorthand reporter, the same salary and fees as the official shorthand reporter of said court, to be paid in the manner provided for the official shorthand reporter; but the said official shorthand reporter shall also receive his salary in full during said temporary disability to act. The necessity for a deputy official shorthand reporter shall be left entirely within the discretion of the judge of the court. [Acts 1925, p. 670.]

Art. 2324. [1923-4-6] Duty of reporter.—Each official court reporter shall:

Attend all sessions of the court, take full shorthand notes of all oral testimony offered in every case tried in said court, together with all objections to the admissibility of the evidence, the rulings and remarks of the court thereon, and all exceptions thereto

Preserve all shorthand notes taken in said court for future use or reference for a full year, and furnish to any person a transcript in question and answer form or narrative form of all such evidence or other proceedings, or any portion thereof as such person may order, upon the payment to him of the fees provided by law.

When any party to any suit reported by any such reporter shall desire a transcript of the evidence in said suit, said party may apply for same and shall indicate whether he desires same in question and answer form or in narrative form. In the event such transcript should be ordered in question and answer form, then such reporter shall make the same up in duplicate in question and answer form, and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of fifteen cents per hundred words for the original. In the event said transcript should be ordered made in narrative form, then such reporter shall make up same in duplicate in narrative form, and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of twenty cents per hundred words for the original; provided, that in case any reporter charges more than the fees herein allowed he shall be liable to the person paying the same a sum equal to four times the excess so paid. [Acts 1925, p. 670.]

Art. 2325. [1925] Fees.—The official court reporter shall receive as fees for making a transcript of the evidence given in civil cases the sum of fifteen cents per one hundred words when made in question and answer form and twenty cents per one hundred words when made in narrative form. He shall also receive the sum of fifteen cents per one hundred words for preparing statements of facts. No charge shall be made in any case for duplicate copies. [Acts 1911, p. 264; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 88.]

Art. 2326. [1925] Compensation.—The official shorthand reporter of each judicial district in this State and the official shorthand reporter of any county court, either civil or criminal, in this State, shall receive a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, in addition to the compensation for transcript fees as provided for in this Act. Said salary shall be paid monthly by the commissioners' court of the county, out of the general fund of the county, upon the certificate of the district judge. In judicial districts of this State composed of two or more counties said salary shall be paid monthly by the counties of the district in proportion to the number of weeks provided by law for holding court in the respective counties in the district; provided, that in a district wherein in any county the term may continue until the business is disposed of, each county shall pay in proportion to the time court is actually held in such county. [Acts 1925, p. 670.]

Art. 2327. [1932] In county court.—When either party to a civil case pending in the county court or county court at law applies therefor, the judge thereof shall appoint a competent stenographer, if one be present, to report the oral testimony given in such case. Such stenographer shall take the oath required of official court reporters, and shall receive not less than five dollars per day, to be taxed and collected as costs. In such cases the provisions of this title with respect to the preparation of the statement of facts, the time to be allowed therefor, and for the presentation to the opposite party, and the approving and filing thereof by the court, shall apply to all statements of facts in civil cases tried in said courts, and all provisions of law governing statement of facts and bills of exception to be filed in district courts and the use of same on appeal, shall apply to civil cases tried in said courts. [Acts 1911, p. 264.]

4. MANDAMUS.

On ex parte hearing.....2328

Art. 2328. [5731] [1450] [1446] On ex parte hearing.—No mandamus shall be granted on ex parte hearing; and any peremptory mandamus granted without notice shall be abated on motion. [Acts 1846, p. 300, Sec. 4; P. D. 1407.]

TITLE 43.

COURTS—JUVENILE.

| Citation..... | 2332 | Custody of child..... | 2337 |
| Hearing..... | 2333 | Care of delinquent child..... | 2338 |

Art. 2329. [2185-2192] Juvenile Court.—When it is sought to have a child adjudged to be a "delinquent child," as that term is defined in Article 1083 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the county courts, district courts, and the criminal district courts shall have original jurisdiction in all such proceedings. When disposing of such cases the court may be known as the Juvenile Court, and shall at all times be deemed in session for the purpose of disposing of such cases, and shall have a juvenile docket. The district court only shall have original jurisdiction in all proceedings wherein it is sought to have a child adjudged to be a dependent or neglected child, and its findings in such cases shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose to be known as the "Juvenile Record." [Acts 1907, p. 137; Acts 1913, p. 214; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 43.]

Art. 2330. [2184] "Dependent or neglected child."—The term "dependent child" or "neglected child" includes any child under sixteen years of age who is dependent upon the public for support or who is destitute, homeless or abandoned; or who has not proper parental care or guardianship, or who habitually begs or receives alms, or who is found living in any house of ill fame or with any vicious or disreputable person, or whose home, by reason of neglect, cruelty or depravity on the part of its parents, guardian or other person in whose care it may be, is an unfit place for such child; or any such child whose parents or guardian permit it to use intoxicating liquor except for medicinal purposes or to become addicted to the use of such liquors, or permits it in or about any place where intoxicating liquors are sold. [Acts 1907, p. 135.]

Art. 2331. [2186] Who may institute proceedings.—Any person who is a resident of the county, having knowledge of a child in his county who appears to be a "dependent" or "neglected" child may file with the district clerk of his county a written petition, setting forth the facts constituting the child "dependent" or "neglected;" which petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner. It shall be sufficient, if the affidavit shall be upon information and belief. Such petition shall set forth the name of the parent or parents of such child, if known, and their residence; and if such child has no parent living, then the name and residence of the guardian of such child, if it has one. [Id.]

Art. 2332. [2187] Citation.—Upon the filing of such petition, the judge of said court shall fix the day and time for the hearing of such petition. If it appears that one or both of such parents, or guardian, if there be no parents, reside in said county, the clerk of said court shall immediately issue citation; which citation shall include a copy of the petition, which shall be served on such parent, parents, or guardian, if any, if either can be found in said county, not less than two days before the time fixed for said hearing, requiring them to appear on said day and hour to show cause, if any, why such child should not be declared by said court to be a "dependent" and "neglected" child. Such citation shall be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county. If it appears from the petition that neither of said parents are living, or do not reside in said county and that said child has no guardian residing in said county, or in case one or both of said parents, or the guardian in case there be no parents, shall indorse on said petition a request that the child be declared a "dependent child," then the citation herein provided for shall not be issued; and the court may thereupon proceed to a hearing of the case. In case neither of the parents or guardian is found, then the court shall appoint some suitable person to represent said child in said cause. [Id.]

Art. 2333. [2188] Hearing.—Upon such hearing of such case the child shall be brought before said court; whereupon, the court shall investigate the facts, and ascertain whether the child is a "dependent child," its residence, and, as far as possible, the whereabouts of its parents or near adult relatives, when and how long the child has been maintained, in whole or in part, by private or public charity, the occupation of the parents, if living, whether they are supported by the public or have abandoned the child, and to ascertain, as far as possible, if the child is found dependent, the cause thereof. The court may compel the attendance of witnesses on such examination; and the clerk shall issue all process and the sheriff and other officers of the court shall serve the same as in other cases. The county attorney, when requested by the court, shall appear in any such examination in behalf of the petition. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of such county, upon the request of the court or any petitioner, to file a petition and to conduct any necessary proceedings in any case within the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 2334. Jury.—Any person interested in any case under this title may appear therein and may be represented by counsel, and may demand a jury as in other cases. If no jury is demanded, it shall be deemed to have been waived. The judge of the court, of his own motion, may order a jury to try such case. [Id.]

Art. 2335. [2189] Adjudication.—Upon the hearing of such case, if the said child shall be found to be a dependent or neglected child, as defined herein, it shall be adjudged a "dependent child;" and an order may be entered making disposition of said child as to the court seems best for its moral and physical welfare. It may be turned over to the care and custody of any suitable person or any suitable institution in the county or State organized for the purpose of caring for "dependent children," and which is able and willing to care for same. And when such child is so turned over to the custody of such person or institution, such person or institution shall have the right to the custody of said child, and shall be at all times responsible for its education and maintenance, subject at all times to the order of the court. [Id.]

Art. 2336. Disposition of child.—In any case where the court shall award any dependent or neglected child to the care of any individual or institution in accordance with the provisions of this title, the child, unless otherwise ordered, shall become a ward and be subject to the guardianship of the institution or individual to whose care it is committed. Such institution or individual shall, with the consent of the court, have authority to place such child in a suitable family home, the head of such family being responsible for the maintenance and education of said child. Any institution or individual receiving any such child under the order of the court shall be subject to visitation or inspection by any person appointed by the court for such purpose; and the court, may at any time, require from any institution or person a report containing such information as the court shall deem proper or necessary, to be fully advised as to the care, education, maintenance and moral and physical training of the child, as well as the standing and ability of such institution or individual to care for such child. The court may change the guardianship of such child, if, at any time, it is made to appear to the court such change is to the best interest of the child. If, in the opinion of the court, the causes of the dependency of any child may be removed under such conditions or supervisions for its care, protection and maintenance as may be imposed by the court, so long as it shall be for its best interests, the child may be permitted to remain in its own home and under the care and control of its own parent, parents or guardian, subject to the jurisdiction and direction of the court; and when it shall appear to the court that it is no longer to the best interests of such child to remain with such parents or guardian, the court may proceed to a final disposition of the case. [Id.]

Art. 2337. Custody of child.—In case any child is adjudged to be dependent or neglected under this title then such parents or guardian shall thereafter have no right over or to the custody, services or earnings of said child except upon such conditions in the interest of such child as the court may impose, or where, upon proper proceedings, such child may lawfully be restored to the parents or guardian. [Id.]

Art. 2338. Care of delinquent child.—In any case of a "delinquent child," the court may continue the hearing from time to time and may commit the child to the care of a probation officer, or to the care or custody of any other proper person, and may allow said child to remain in its own home, subject to visitation of the probation officer or other person designated by the court, or under any other conditions that may seem proper and be imposed by the court; or the court may cause the child to be placed in the home of a suitable family, under such conditions as may be imposed by the court, or it may authorize the child to be boarded out in some suitable family, in case provision is made, by voluntary contribution or otherwise, for the payment of the board of such child until suitable provision may be made in a home without such payment; or the court may commit it to any institution in the county that may care for children that is willing to receive it, or which may be provided for by the State or county, suitable for the care of such children, willing to receive it, or of any State institution for boys or girls, willing to receive such child, or to any other institution in the State of Texas for the care of such children willing to receive it. In no case shall a child proceeded against under this law be committed beyond the age of twenty-one. The order of the court committing such child to the care and custody of any person shall prescribe the length of time and the conditions of such commitment. Such order shall be subject to change by further orders of the court with reference to said child; and the court shall have the power to change the custody of such child or to entirely discharge it from custody whenever, in the judgment of the court, it is to the best interest of the child to do so. [Acts 1913, p. 218.]

Art. 2339. [2236] [1532] [1509] Election.—Each county shall be divided into four commissioners precincts, and one commissioner shall be elected biennially in each precinct, and each commissioner shall hold his office for two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 18; Acts 1876, p. 51, Sec. 3; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 887.]

Art. 2340. [2239] [1535] [1512] Oath and bond.—Before entering upon the duties of their office, the county judge and each commissioner shall take the official oath, and shall also take a written oath that he will not be directly or indirectly interested in any contract with, or claim against, the county in which he resides, except such warrants as may issue to him as fees of office. Each commissioner shall execute a bond to be approved by the county judge in the sum of three thousand dollars, payable to the county treasurer, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his office, that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and that he will not vote or give his consent to pay out county funds except for lawful purposes. [Acts 1923, p. 14.]

Art. 2341. [2240] [1536] [1513] Vacancy.—In case of vacancy in the office of commissioner, the county judge shall appoint some suitable person living in the precinct where such vacancy occurs, to serve as commissioner for such precinct until the next general election. [Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 887.]

Art. 2342. [2237] [1533] [1510] The Court.—The several commissioners, together with the county judge, shall compose the "Commissioners Court," and the county judge, when present, shall be the presiding officer of said court. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 18; Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 887.]

Art. 2343. [2238] [1534] [1511] Quorum.—Any three members of the said court, including the county judge, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, except that of levying a county tax. [Id.]

Art. 2344. [2278] [1566] [1529] Seal.—Each commissioners court shall have a seal, whereon shall be engraved a star with five points, the words, "Commissioners Court, _____ County, Texas," (the blank to be filled with the name of the County) which seal shall be kept by the clerk of said court and used in authentication of all official acts of the court, or of the presiding officer or clerk of said court, in all cases where a seal may be necessary for the authentication of any of said acts. [Acts 1876, p. 53; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 889.]

Art. 2345. [2279] [1557] [1530] The clerk.—The county clerk shall be ex-officio clerk of the commissioners court; and he shall attend upon each term of said commissioners court; preserve and keep all books, papers, records and effects belonging thereto, issue all notices, writs and process necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties of the commissioners court, and perform all such other duties as may be prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 2346. [2280-1] [1558-9] [1531-2] Process.—All notices, citations, writs and process issued from said court shall be in the name of the "State of Texas," and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of a county and shall be dated and signed officially by the clerk, and shall have the seal of the court impressed thereon. All process of said court, when not otherwise directed by law shall be executed at least five days before the return day thereof, which return day shall be specified in the process. Subpoenas for witnesses may be executed and returned forthwith when necessary. [Id.]

Art. 2347. [2282] Notice posted.—Whenever the commissioners court shall be unable to secure the publication of any notice or report required by law in the manner and for the fee provided therefor, such notice or report may be made and published by posting one copy of such notice at the courthouse door, and one of said copies shall be posted at some public place in each commissioners precinct for thirty days prior to the next succeeding term of the commissioners court. No two such copies shall be posted in the same town or city. [Acts 1899, p. 39.]

Art. 2348. [2274-5] [1552-3] [1525-6] Regular terms.—The regular terms of the commissioners court shall be commenced and be held at the court house on the second Monday of each month throughout the year and may continue in session one week; provided the court need not hold more than one session each quarter if the business of the court does not demand a session. Any session may adjourn at any time the business of the court is disposed of. Special terms may be called by the county judge or three of the commissioners, and may continue in session until the business is completed. [Acts 1876, p. 53; Acts 1911, p. 198; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 889.]

Art. 2349. [2276-7] Minutes.—The court shall require the county clerk to keep suitable books in which shall be recorded the proceedings of each term of the court; which record shall be read and signed after each term by the county judge, or the member presiding and attested by the clerk. The clerk shall also record all authorized proceedings of the court between terms; and such record shall be read and signed on the first day of the term next after such proceedings occurred. [Id.]

Art. 2350. County commissioners salaries.—In counties having the following assessed valuations, respectively, the county commissioners of such counties may each receive the annual salaries herein specified, to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the general funds of the county:

| Assessed Valuation. | Salary. |
|---|-------------|
| $ 7,500,000 and less than $10,000,000..... | $ 1,200.00 |
| $10,000,000 and less than $12,500,000..... | 1,500.00 |
| $12,500,000 and less than $20,750,000..... | 1,800.00 |
| $20,750,000 and less than $25,000,000..... | 2,000.00 |
| $25,000,000 and less than $30,000,000..... | 2,250.00 |
| $30,000,000 and less than $100,000,000..... | 2,400.00 |
| $100,000,000 and over..... | 3,600.00 |

In counties having an assessed valuation of less than $7,500,000 each county commissioner shall receive five dollars per day for each day served as commissioner and when acting as ex-officio road superintendent in his precinct, not to exceed one thousand dollars in any year. In counties whose assessed valuation is $100,000,000 or more, said commissioners shall devote their entire time to the duties required of them by law and such other duties as their commissioners' court may require of them. "Assessed valuation" means the total assessed valuation of all properties as shown by the tax rolls certified by the county assessor, approved by the commissioners' court and approved by the Comptroller for the year 1924. [Acts 1925, p. 340.]

Art. 2350a. County commissioners salaries.—Each county commissioner in each of the counties of all judicial districts of Texas, composed of two counties as of date January 1, 1925, which said counties comprising such judicial districts had a total population of not less than thirty-five thousand nor more than forty-one thousand inhabitants, according to the last United States census, and which said counties have an aggregate area of not less than 1890 square miles according to the records of the General Land Office of Texas, may receive eighteen hundred ($1,800.00) per annum from the general funds of such counties, payable in twelve equal monthly installments, as compensation for all services rendered of whatsoever nature, whether in connection with the roads of the county, or in connection with other county business. [Acts 1925, p. 229.]

Art. 2350b. Salary of county commissioners.—Each county commissioner in counties having a population of not less than 17,000 according to the United States census of 1920, and which have an area of not less than 1060 square miles, nor more than 1200 square miles and which have assessed property valuations of not less than $10,000,000 and which do not contain a town or city of 7,500 population or more, may receive a salary of eighteen hundred ($1,800.00) dollars per annum, payable in twelve equal monthly installments, as compensation for their services rendered, of whatever nature, either in connection with the roads of the county, or in connection with other county business. The amount of salary to be received by commissioners in counties classed as herein set out, shall be fixed by an order of the commissioners' court passed at a regular term of such court, and entered upon its minutes; provided that nothing herein shall effect or apply to the counties of Grimes, Houston Leon, Madison, Montgomery, Polk, San Jacinto, Trinity and Walker in said State. [Acts 1925, p. 302.]

Art. 2350c. [6901a] In all counties having an assessed valuation of all taxable properties of one hundred million ($100,000,000) dollars or more, based upon the approved tax rolls for the year 1923, the county commissioners shall devote their entire time to the duties required of them by law and such other duties as may be required of them by the commissioners' court of their respective counties, and may each receive a salary of three thousand six hundred ($3,600.00) dollars per annum, payable in equal monthly installments, and this salary shall be in lieu of all other fees and per diem of all kinds now allowed by law; provided that in all counties, having an assessed valuation of all taxable property of less than ten million ($10,000,000.00) dollars, based upon the approved tax rolls for the year 1923, the county commissioners of the several counties shall each receive five ($5.00) dollars per day for each day served as commissioner and when acting as ex-officio road supervisors of their precinct, they shall each receive five ($5.00) dollars for each day actually served in supervising the construction or repair of the public roads in their respective precincts; provided that each commissioner shall, in no event, receive more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars in any one year for such service." [Id., p. 386.]

Art. 2351. [2241] [1537] [1514] Certain powers specified.
—Each commissioners court shall:

1. Lay off their respective counties into precincts, not less than four, and not more than eight, for the election of justices of the peace and constables, fix the times and places of holding justices courts, and shall establish places in such precincts where elections shall be held; and shall establish justices precincts and justices courts for the unorganized counties as provided by law.
2. Establish public ferries whenever the public interest may require.
3. Lay out and establish, change and discontinue public roads and highways.
4. Build bridges and keep them in repair.
5. Appoint road overseers and apportion hands.
6. Exercise general control over all roads, highways, ferries and bridges in their counties.
7. Provide and keep in repair court houses, jails and all necessary public buildings.
8. Provide for the protection, preservation and disposition of all lands granted to the county for education or schools.
9. Provide seals required by law for the district and county courts.
10. Audit and settle all accounts against the county and direct their payment.

11. Provide for the support of paupers and such idiots and lunatics as cannot be admitted into the lunatic asylum, residents of their county, who are unable to support themselves. By the term resident as used herein, is meant a person who has been a bona fide inhabitant of the county not less than six months and of the State not less than one year.

12. Provide for the burial of paupers.

13. Punish contempts by fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment not to exceed twenty-four hours, and in case of fine, the party may be held in custody until the fine is paid.

14. Issue all such notices, citations, writs and process as may be necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties imposed by such court and to enforce its jurisdiction.

15. Said court shall have all such other powers and jurisdiction, and shall perform all such other duties, as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law. [Const. Art. 5; Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 887; Acts 1885, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 708; Acts 1911, p. 236.]

Art. 2352. [2242] [1538] May levy taxes.—Said court shall have the power to levy and collect a tax for county purposes, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and a tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to supplement the jury fund of the county, and not to exceed fifteen cents for roads and bridges on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution, September 25, A. D. 1883, and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, water works and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation in any one year, and except as in the Constitution otherwise provided. They may levy an additional tax for road purposes not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of the property subject to taxation, under the limitations and in the manner provided for in Article 8, Sec. 9, of the Constitution and in pursuance of the laws relating thereto. [Const. Art. 8, Sec. 9; Amendment 1899.]

Art. 2353. [2243] [1539] [1516] Tax limit.—No tax levied for the purpose of paying debts incurred prior to the eighteenth day of April, A. D. 1876, shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar, and no tax levied for the erection or repair of public buildings shall exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar for any one year. [Const. Art. 8, Sec. 9; Amendment 1899.]

Art. 2354. [2244] [1540] [1517] When tax levied.—No county tax shall be levied except at a regular term of the court, and when all members of said court are present. [Id.]

Art. 2355. [2245-6] To fill vacancies.—The court shall have power to fill vacancies in the office of: county judge, county clerk, sheriff, county attorney, county treasurer, county surveyor, county hide inspector, assessor of taxes, collector of taxes, justices of the peace and constables. Such vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of said court present and voting, and the person chosen shall hold office until the next general election.

Art. 2356. [2252-3] Bridges in corporate limits.—Said court may erect bridges within the corporate limits of any city or town to the same extent and under the same conditions now prescribed by law for the construction of bridges outside the limits of any city or town. Said court and the governing body of any city or town may co-operate in the erection of a bridge within the corporate limits of a city or town, and jointly erect such bridge upon terms and conditions mutually agreed upon; and either or both the city and county may issue its bonds to pay its proportionate part of the debt by complying with the requirements of the law regulating the issuance of bonds by counties and cities and towns. [Acts 1895, p. 164; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 894.]

Art. 2357. [2255] [1547] Shall keep in repair.—The commissioners court of counties owning bridges, situated within the corporate limits of cities and towns, shall keep the same in repair. This article shall not affect or diminish the liability of town and city corporations for injuries caused by defective condition of such bridges situated within the city limits. [Acts 1897, p. 212.]

Art. 2358. [2256] May contract for supplies.—The commissioners court by an order entered of record, may contract as hereinafter prescribed, with some suitable person or persons to supply the county with blank books, all legal blanks and stationery as may be required by law to be furnished the county officials. [Acts 1907, p. 252.]

Art. 2359. [2257] Bids advertised.—The commissioners court shall advertise, at least once in every two years, for sealed proposals to furnish blank books, legal blanks, stationery and such other printing as may be required for the county for the term of such contract, and shall receive separate bids for the different classes hereinafter designated. Such advertisement shall be made by the county clerk, who shall notify by registered letter, each newspaper and job printing house in the county, and at least three stationery and printing houses in the State, of the time said contract is to be awarded, and of the probable amount of supplies needed. [Id.]

Art. 2360. [2258] New bids advertised for.—Should supplies furnished by the successful bidder not be of the quality designated and provided for, then the commissioners court may declare such contract null and void, and from time to time advertise for sealed proposals as in the first instance, rejecting any or all bids as often as they may deem best. [Id.]

Art. 2361. [2260] Preference to local citizens.—All things being equal, contracts must be awarded to a citizen or taxpayer of the county in which the contract is let. [Id.]

Art. 2362. [2262] Stationery classified.—The stationery shall be divided into four classes: Class "A" shall embrace all blank books and all work requiring permanent and substantial binding. Class "B" shall embrace all legal blanks, letter heads and other printing, stationery and blank papers. Class "C" shall embrace typewriter ribbons, pens, ink, mucilage, pencils, penholders, ink stands and ware of like kind. Class "D" poll tax receipts and all election supplies of whatever nature and description, not furnished by the State. Each and every bid shall be upon a particular class, separate and apart from any other class. To the lowest bidder on each class shall be awarded the contract for all work of that class. [Id.]

Art. 2363. [2263] Bond with bid.—Each bid shall be accompanied by a bond of the bidder, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that, should the contract be awarded to him, he will without delay, upon being notified of such award, enter into a written contract, according to law and with his proposal, and will give such bond as may be required for the faithful performance of said contract. [Id.]

Art. 2364. [2264] Unlawful interest in contract.—No member of the commissioners court or any county officer shall be, either directly or indirectly, interested in any such contract. [Id.]

Art. 2365. [2265] Contract made in open court.—All contracts shall be made in open court, with the lowest bidder, and all bids shall be spread in full on the minutes of the court.

Art. 2366. [2266] Contract and bond.—The successful bidder shall enter into a written contract with the court, and shall give bond in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each class or contract, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned for the faithful compliance with his bid and with the law, and shall be made payable to the county judge or his successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 2367. [2268] Affidavit with bid.—The manager, secretary or other agent or officer of the bidder shall attach to each bid an affidavit to the effect that affiant has full knowledge of the relations of the bidder with the other firms in the same line of business and that the bidder is not a member of any trust, pool or combination of any kind and has not been for six months last past, directly or indirectly concerned in any pool or agreement or combination to control the price of supplies bid on, or to influence any person to bid or not to bid thereon. [Id.]

Art. 2368. Contracts over $2000.—No commissioners court shall make a contract calling for or requiring the expenditure or payment of two thousand dollars or more out of any fund or funds of any county or subdivision of any county, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids. Notice of the time and place when and where such contract will be let shall be published in such county or subdivision once a week for four weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, and a certified check for five per cent of the amount of the bid shall be required to be filed with each bid, and said contract shall be let to the lowest and best responsible bidder upon said contract and said bidder shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond in the full amount of the contract price executed by some surety company authorized to do business in this State. If there is no newspaper published in such county or subdivision, then notice of the letting of such contract shall be given by causing notice thereof to be posted at the courthouse door of such county.

for four weeks prior to the time of letting such contract. Provided, that in case of public calamity, where it becomes necessary to act at once to appropriate money to relieve the necessities of citizens or to preserve the property of the county or subdivision, this provision may be waived. All contracts made by or with said court calling for or requiring the expenditure of any amount of money less than two thousand dollars and exceeding five hundred dollars shall be let by competitive bids at a regular term of court, except in case of urgent necessity or public calamity. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any work done under the direct supervision of the county commissioners and paid for by the day. A contract made by the commissioners court without complying with the terms of this article shall be void, and shall not be enforceable in any court of this State, and the performance of same and the payment of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any citizen of the county or subdivision. This law shall be cumulative of this title. [Acts 1917, p. 349; Acts 1923, p. 262.]

Art. 2369. [2269] Commissioners may repeal order.—The commissioners court may, by order entered of record after contracts have been in force for the specified time in such contract, repeal said order. [Acts 1907, p. 252.]

Art. 2370. [2270] [1548] [1521] Provide for county court.—Said court may, when necessary, provide buildings, rooms or apartments at the county seats, other than the court house, for holding the sessions of the county courts. [Acts 1876, p. 211; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1047.]

Art. 2371. Rest-room.—Said courts may maintain public rest-rooms for women in the court house or at some convenient place near the court house. The rest-room shall be comfortably furnished with necessary furnishings as may be needed to make the room attractive and comfortable for women. The commissioners court may assist the public in paying the salary of a matron to be appointed by the county judge with the consent of the commissioners. The expense of furnishing and maintaining rest-rooms shall be limited in the following manner:

1. In counties having a population of twenty-five thousand or less, not exceeding $125.00 for furnishings and $15.00 per month for matron.

2. In counties having a population of twenty-five thousand and not exceeding fifty thousand, not to exceed $200.00 for furnishings and $25.00 per month for matron.

3. In counties having a population exceeding fifty thousand, not to exceed $300.00 per month for furnishings and $50.00 per month for matron.

The population shall be determined by the preceding Federal census. [Acts 1919, p. 159; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 178.]

Art. 2372. Interpreters.—Each commissioners court may pay an interpreter for his services as such in any court within their county only for the time he is actually employed not to exceed three and one-half dollars a day, to be paid out of the general fund upon proper warrant issued by the court or clerk thereof. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 26.]

Art. 2373. [2283] [1560] [1533] Election, bond and term of office.—The qualified voters of each justice precinct in this State, at each biennial election, shall elect one justice of the peace, styled in this title “justice,” who shall hold his office for two years. Each justice shall give bond payable to the county judge in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties required of him by law, and will promptly pay over to the party entitled to receive it, all moneys that may come into his hands during his term of office. [Acts 1885, p. 90; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 710.]

Art. 2374. [2284-85] In unorganized counties.—The commissioners courts of counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes may appoint a justice and a constable for each unorganized county attached to said county for judicial purposes, in accordance with the law authorizing such appointments in organized counties. Whenever, in any unorganized county, a necessity may exist for the appointment of more than one justice and constable, and one hundred qualified voters of said county shall petition the commissioners court of the organized county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, asking the appointment of such officers, such commissioners court shall lay off and designate as many justice precincts in such unorganized county as may be necessary, not exceeding four, and such court may appoint one justice and one constable for each justice precinct in such unorganized county; and such justice precincts shall be legally constituted election precincts. [Acts 1879, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1389; Acts 1885, p. 88; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 708.]

Art. 2375. [2286] [1563] [1534] Two justices elected.—Where there is a city of eight thousand inhabitants or more in a justice precinct, two justices of the peace shall be elected. [Id; Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2376. [2287] [1564] [1353] Commissioned.—Each justice of the peace shall be commissioned as justice of the peace of his precinct and ex officio notary public of his county. [Const., Art. 4, Sec. 20; Acts 1876, p. 165; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1001.]

Art. 2377. [2289] [1566] [1537] Nearest justice to hold court.—Whenever there is a vacancy or the justice in any precinct shall be absent, or unable or unwilling to perform the duties of his office, the nearest justice in the county may temporarily perform the duties of the office. [Acts 1876, p. 164; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1001.]

Art. 2378. [2290] [1567] [1538] Disqualification.—No justice of the peace shall sit in a cause where he may be interested, or where he may be related to either party within the third degree by consanguinity or affinity. [Id., Sec. 24.]

Art. 2379. Justice's office.—When the justice precinct where the courthouse of any county is located contains more than seventy-five thousand inhabitants, the commissioners court of said county shall provide and furnish a suitable place in such courthouse for such justice to hold court. [Acts 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 2380. [2298-99-2300-01] Term of court.—These rules shall govern as to the terms of court:

1. Each justice shall hold a term of his court for civil business once in each month, and may transact such business out of term time as may be authorized by law.

2. Each justice shall hold the regular term of his court at his office at such time as the commissioners court may prescribe.

3. The justice may hold court from day to day until all business shall be disposed of, or may adjourn the court or the trial of any case to a particular day.

4. If the regular term from any cause shall not be opened on the day fixed therefor by law, the court shall be considered adjourned until its next regular term. [Acts 1876, p. 157; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 993; Acts 1881, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 102.]

Art. 2381. [2319-20-26-28-2400] District court rules govern.—The rules governing the district courts shall also govern the justice courts, in so far as they can be applied, in the following cases:

1. As to requiring security for costs, and the effect of the rule for costs and the penalty for non-compliance therewith.

2. As to parties to suits.

3. Issuance and service and return of citation, and notice to serve non-resident defendants.

4. Acceptance of service and entering appearance.

5. Amendment of pleadings.

6. Whenever the mode of proceeding in any particular case or matter is not prescribed by the provisions of this title, or of some other law or title specifically relating thereto.

Art. 2382. [2302-3-4] Docket.—Each justice shall keep a civil docket in which he shall enter:

1. The title of all suits commenced before him.

2. The time when the first process was issued against the defendant, when returnable, and the nature thereof.

3. The time when the parties, or either of them appeared before him, either with or without citation.

4. A brief statement of the nature of the plaintiff's demand or claim, and the amount claimed, and a brief statement of the nature of the defense made by the defendant, if any.

5. Every adjournment, stating at whose request and to what time.

6. The time when the trial was had, stating whether the same was by a jury or by the justice.

7. The verdict of the jury, if any.

8. The judgment rendered by the justice and the time of rendering same.

9. All applications for setting aside judgments or granting new trials and the order of the justice thereon, with the date thereof.

10. The time of issuing execution, to whom directed and delivered, and the amount of debt, damages and costs; and, when any execution is returned, he shall note such return on said docket, with the manner in which it was executed.

11. All stays and appeals that may be taken, and the time when taken, the amount of the bond and the name of the sureties.

12. He shall also keep such other dockets, books and records as may be required by law, and shall keep a fee book in which shall be taxed all costs accruing in every suit commenced before him. [Acts 1876, p. 156; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 992.]

Art. 2383. [2305-6] Custody of books, etc. — Each justice shall arrange and safely keep all dockets, books and papers transmitted to him by his predecessors, and all papers filed in any case in his court subject at all reasonable times to the inspection of any interested party. Any person having possession of dockets, books or papers belonging to the office of any justice shall deliver the same to such justice on demand. [Acts 1876, p. 156; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 992.]

Art. 2384. [2307] [1584] [1555] Enforcing delivery. — If any person having such dockets, books or papers, refuses to deliver the same on such demand, he may, upon motion, be attached and imprisoned by order of the county judge in term time or vacation, until he shall make such delivery; but such motion shall be supported by affidavit, and three days' notice thereof shall be given to the party against whom such motion is made. [Id.]

Art. 2385. [2291] [1568] [1539] Jurisdiction. — Justice courts shall, in addition to their other powers and duties, have and exercise original jurisdiction in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars, or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the district or county courts, and of cases of forcible entry and detainer, and to foreclose mortgages and enforce liens on personal property, where the amount in controversy is within their jurisdiction. [Const., Art. 5, Sec. 19; Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 2386. [2293-4-5-7] Other powers. — Justices of the peace shall also have power:

1. To punish any party guilty of a contempt of court by fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars and by imprisonment not exceeding one day.

2. To issue writs of attachment, garnishment and sequestration within their jurisdiction, the same as judges and clerks of the district and county courts.

3. To exercise jurisdiction over all other matters not hereinbefore enumerated that are or may be cognizable before a justice of the peace under any law of this State.

4. To proceed with all unfinished business of his office in like manner as if such business had been originally commenced before him.

Art. 2387. [2296] [1573] [1544] No jurisdiction.—Justice courts have no jurisdiction of suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats, of suits for divorce, of suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character, suits for the trial of title to land, or of suits for the enforcement of liens on land. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 8.]

Art. 2388. [2326] [1603] [1573] Oral pleadings.—The pleadings shall be oral, except where otherwise specially provided; but a brief statement thereof may be noted on the docket. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2389. [2327] [1604] [1574] Sworn pleadings.—An answer or other pleading setting up any of the following matters shall be in writing and signed by the party or his attorney and verified by affidavit:

1. That the suit is not commenced in the proper county or precinct.

2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.

3. That the plaintiff is not entitled to recover in the capacity in which he sues.

4. That there is another suit pending in this State between the same parties for the same cause of action or counter claim.

5. That there is a defect of parties plaintiff or defendant.

6. That the plaintiffs or defendants suing or sued as partners or receiver are not partners or receiver as alleged.

7. That the plaintiff or defendant suing or sued as a corporation is not a corporation as alleged.

8. That a written instrument purporting to be signed by him and relied on by the other party was not executed by him or by his authority.

9. That the indorsement or assignment of a written instrument pleaded by the adverse party was not executed by the party by whom it purports to have been executed, or by his authority.

10. That a written instrument pleaded by the adverse party is without consideration, or that the consideration of the same has failed, in whole or in part.

11. That an account pleaded by the adverse party and duly verified by affidavit, as provided by the laws of this State, is not just; and, in such case, the answer shall set forth the items and particulars which are unjust.

12. That the contract sued upon is usurious. [Acts 1891, p. 85; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 87.]

Art. 2390. [2308] [1585] [1556] Suits, where brought.—Every suit in the justice court shall be commenced in the county and precinct in which the defendant or one or more of the several defendants resides, except in the following cases and such other cases as are or may be provided by law:

1. Cases of forcible entry and detainer must be brought in the precinct where the premises, or a part thereof, are situated.

2. Suits against executors, administrators and guardians as such must be brought in the county in which such administration or guardianship is pending, and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

3. Suits against counties must be brought in such county and in the precinct in which the county seat is situated.

In the following cases the suit may, at the plaintiff's option, be brought either in the county and precinct of the defendant's residence or in that provided in each exception:

4. Suits upon a contract in writing promising performance at any particular place, may be brought in the county and precinct in which such contract was to be performed, provided that in all suits to recover for labor actually performed, suit may be brought and maintained where such labor is performed, whether the contract for same be oral or in writing.

5. Suits for the recovery of rents may be brought in the county and precinct in which the rented premises, or a part thereof are situated.

6. Suits for damages for torts may be brought in the county and precinct in which the injury was inflicted.

7. Suits against transient persons may be brought in any county and precinct where such defendant is to be found.

8. Suits against non-residents of the State or persons whose residence is unknown, may be brought in the county and precinct where the plaintiff resides.

9. Suits for the recovery of personal property may be brought in any county and precinct in which the property may be.

10. Suits against private corporations, associations and joint stock companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which the cause of action or a part thereof arose, or in which such corporation, association or company has an agency or representative, or in which its principal office is situated.

11. Suits against railroad and canal companies, or the owners of any line of transportation vehicles of any character, for any injury to person or property upon the road, canal, or line of vehicles of the defendant, or upon any liability as a carrier, may be brought in any precinct through which the road, canal or line of vehicles may pass, or in any precinct where the route of such railroad, canal, or vehicle may begin or terminate.

12. Suits against fire, marine or inland insurance companies may be brought in any county and precinct in which any part of the insured property was situated; and suits against life and accident insurance companies or associations may be brought in the county and precinct in which the persons insured, or any of them resided at the time of such injury or death.

13. Suits against the owners of a steamboat or other vessel may be brought in any county or precinct where such steamboat or vessel may be found, or where the cause of action arose or the liability was contracted or accrued. In every suit commenced in a county or precinct in which the defendants or one of them may reside, it shall be affirmatively shown in the citation or pleading, if any, that such suit comes within one of the exceptions named in this article. [Acts 1876, p. 154; Acts 1917, p. 321; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 993.]

Art. 2391. [2309] [1586] [1557] Residence of a single man.—The residence of a single man is where he boards. [Acts 1876, p. 154.]

Art. 2392. [2310-11] Where there are two justices.—Where, in any one precinct, incorporated city or town there may be more than one justice of the peace, the suit may be brought before either of them. [Id.]

Art. 2393. [2312] [1589] [1560] If justice is disqualified. If there be no justice qualified to try the suit in the proper precinct, the suit may be commenced before the nearest justice of the county who is not disqualified to try the same. [Id.]

Art. 2394. [2313] [1590] [1561] Venue changed on affidavit.—If any party to a suit before any justice shall make an affidavit supported by the affidavit of two other credible persons, citizens of the county, that they have good reason to believe, and do believe that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such justice or in such justice precinct, the justice shall transfer such suit to the court of the nearest justice within the county not subject to the same or some other disqualification.

Art. 2395. [2316] [1593] [1563a] "Nearest justice".—By the term "nearest justice", as used in this chapter, is meant the justice whose place of holding his court is nearest to that of the justice before whom the proceeding is pending or should have been brought.

Art. 2396. [2314] [1591] [1562] By consent.—The venue may also be changed to the court of any other justice of the county, upon the written consent of the parties or their attorneys, filed with the papers of the cause.

Art. 2397. [2317] [1594] [1564] Order of transfer.—The order of transfer in such cases shall state the cause of the transfer, and the name of the court to which the transfer is made, and shall require the parties and witnesses to appear before such court at its next ensuing term.

Art. 2398. [2318] [1595] [1565] Transcript.—When such order of transfer is made, the justice who made the order shall immediately make out a true and correct transcript of all the entries made on his docket in the cause, certify thereto officially, and send it, with a certified copy of the bill of costs taken from his fee book, and the original papers in the cause, to the justice of the precinct to which the same has been transferred.

Art. 2399. [2315] [1592] [1563] Special justice.—If a justice be disqualified from sitting in any civil case, or is sick or absent from the precinct, the parties to such suit may agree upon some person to try the case; and, should they fail to agree at the first term of the court after service is perfected, the county judge in whose county said case is pending, shall, upon the application of the justice in whose court said cause is pending, or upon the application of either party to said suit, appoint some person who is qualified to try said cause. The fact of the disqualification of the justice and the selection by agreement or appointment of some other person to try said cause shall be noted on the docket of said justice in said cause. [Acts 1895, p. 26; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 756.]

Art. 2400. [2321] [1598] [1568] Requisites of process.—Every writ of process from the justice courts shall be issued by the justice, shall be in writing and signed by him officially. The style thereof shall be "The State of Texas". It shall, except where otherwise specially provided by law, be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, be made returnable to some regular term of such court; and the date of its issuance noted thereon. [Acts 1876, p. 158; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 994.]

Art. 2401. [2322-23] Citation.—When a claim or demand is lodged with a justice for suit, he shall issue forthwith a citation for the defendant. If there be several defendants residing in different counties, one citation shall be issued to each of such counties. The citation shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the defendant is represented to be, and shall, in addition to the requirements of the preceding article, require the officer to summon the defendant to appear and answer the plaintiff's suit at some regular term of the court, stating the time and place of holding the same. It shall state the names of all the parties to the suit, and the nature of the plaintiff's demand. [Id.]

Art. 2402. [2324] [1601] [1571] Special process server.—The justice, in case of an emergency, may depute any person of good character to serve any process; and the person so deputed shall for such purpose, have all the authority of a sheriff or constable; but in every such case the justice shall indorse on the process a statement in writing, signed by him officially, to the effect that he has deputed such person to serve such process. Such person shall also take and subscribe an affidavit, to be indorsed on or attached to the process, to the effect that he will to the best of his ability execute the same according to law. [Id.]

Art. 2403. [2329] [1606] [1576] Continuance.—The justice for good cause shown, supported by affidavit, may continue any suit pending before him to the next regular term of his court, or postpone the same to some other day of the term. [Acts 1876, p. 159; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 995.]

Art. 2404. [2330] [1607] [1577] Appearance day.—The first day of each term of the justice court after the return of the process duly served in any cause shall be appearance day; but where the service was made by publication, the first day of the second term after such publication shall be appearance day. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2405. [2331] [1608] [1578] If defendant fails to appear.—If the defendant who has been duly served with a citation shall fail to appear at, or before, ten o'clock a. m. on appearance day, the justice shall proceed in the following manner:

1. If the plaintiff's cause for action be liquidated and proved by an instrument of writing purporting to have been executed by the defendant, or be upon an open account duly verified by affidavit, the justice shall, whether the plaintiff appear or not, render judgment in his favor against the defendant for the amount of such written obligation or sworn account, after deducting all credits indorsed thereon.

2. If the plaintiff's cause of action is not so liquidated, and the plaintiff appears in person or by agent or attorney, the justice shall proceed to hear the testimony; and, if it appears therefrom that the plaintiff is entitled to recover, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant for such amount as the testimony shows the plaintiff entitled to; otherwise, judgment shall be rendered for the defendant.

Art. 2406. [2332] [1609] [1579] Appearance noted.—If the defendant appear, the same shall be noted on the docket, and the cause shall stand for trial in its order.

Art. 2407. [2334] [1611] [1581] If no demand for jury.—If neither party shall demand and be entitled to a jury trial, the justice shall try the cause without a jury. [Acts 1876, p. 159; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 995.]

Art. 2408. [2335] [1612] [1582] Call of non-jury docket.—The docket of cases to be tried by the justice shall be called regularly; and the cases shall be tried when called, unless the same shall be continued or postponed. [Id.]

Art. 2409. [2336] [1613] [1583] Dismissal.—If the plaintiff shall fail to appear when the cause is called in its order for trial, the justice, on motion of the defendant, may dismiss the suit. [Id.]

Art. 2410. [2337-61] Proceedings.—The trial before the justice or before the jury shall conform as near as may be to the rules governing the district and county courts, except that the justice shall not charge the jury, and all the rules of evidence and the provisions for procuring the attendance of witnesses, for taking the depositions of witnesses and parties, and for taking and determining the exceptions thereto, prescribed for the government of the district and county courts, shall, when not in conflict with the provisions of this title, govern the proceedings in justice courts so far as the same may be applicable. [Id.]

Art. 2411. [2339-40] Jury trial demanded.—Either party shall be entitled to a trial by jury, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter. The party desiring a jury shall, on or before the first day of the term at which the case is to be tried, make a demand for a jury, and also deposit a jury fee of three dollars, which shall be noted on the docket; and the case shall be set down as a jury case. [Acts 1876, p. 159; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 994.]

Art. 2412. [2341] [1618] [1588] Jury trial day.—The justice shall, on the first day of the term, fix a day for taking up the jury cases, if any, pending for trial at such term, and he may fix said first day of the term for that purpose.

Art. 2413. [2342-43] Summons for jury.—Whenever at any term of a justice court there may be any jury cases pending for trial, the justice shall order the sheriff or constable to summon such number of legally qualified jurors as he may deem necessary, to attend as a jury before such justice at a day and place directed. The justice, on delivering such order to the officer, shall administer to him the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the best of your skill and ability, and without bias or favor toward any party, summon such jurors as may be ordered by the court; that you will select none but impartial, sensible and sober men, having the qualifications of jurors under the law; that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any jurymen, touching any case pending for trial; and that you will not, by any means, attempt to influence, advise or control any jurymen in his opinion in any case which may be tried by him. So help you God." [Acts 1876, p. 80; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 916.]

Art. 2414. [2344-45] Summoning jury.—The officer shall immediately summon the required number of jurors to appear before the justice at the day and place named. Such summons shall be by an oral notice by the officer to the juror that he is required to appear as a juror before such justice on the day and at the place named.

Art. 2415. [2346] [1623] [1593] Jurors called.—At the time fixed for taking up the jury cases, the justice shall proceed to call the names of the jurors so summoned.

Art. 2416. [2347] [1624] [1594] Excuses.—The court may hear any reasonable excuse of a juror, supported by oath, and may excuse him for the trial of any particular case, or for one or more days of the term.

Art. 2417. [2348] [1625] [1595] Defaulting jurors.—If any person so summoned as a juror shall fail or refuse to attend, the justice shall enter a fine nisi against him not exceeding five dollars, to the use of the county, to be made final, with costs, unless such person shall, after being cited to do so, show a good and sufficient excuse for such failure.

Art. 2418. [2349] [1626] [1596] Talesmen.—If the number of jurors present and not excused be less than six, or less than the justice shall deem necessary, he shall order the sheriff or constable to summon a sufficient number of other qualified jurors.

Art. 2419. [2350] [1627] [1597] Call of jury docket.—When the required number of jurors is present, the jury cases shall be called in their order on the docket.

Art. 2420. [2351-52] Challenge to the array.—When the parties to a jury case have announced themselves for trial, either party may challenge the array of jurors. The cause and the manner of making such challenge, the decision thereof and the proceedings, when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts.

Art. 2421. [2353] [1630] [1600] Drawing jury.—If no challenge to the array is made, the justice shall write the names of all the jurors present on separate slips of paper, as nearly alike as may be, and shall place them in a box and mix them well, and shall then draw the names one by one from the box, and write them down as they are drawn, upon several slips of paper, and deliver one slip to each of the parties, or their attorneys. [Acts 1876, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 918.]

Art. 2422. [2354-55] Challenge for cause.—If either party desires to challenge any juror for cause, such challenge shall now be made. The causes of such challenge, and the manner of making it and the decision thereof, and the proceedings, when such challenge is sustained, shall be as provided for similar proceedings in the district and county courts.

Art. 2423. [2356] [1633] [1603] Peremptory challenge.—When a juror has been challenged for cause, his name shall be erased from the slips furnished to the parties; and, if as many as six names remain on such slips, the parties may make their peremptory challenge governed by the rules prescribed for the district and county courts.

Art. 2424. [2357] [1634] [1604] The jury.—When the peremptory challenges are made, they shall deliver their slips to the justice, who shall call off the first six names on the slips that have not been erased, and these shall be the jury to try the case.

Art. 2425. [2358] [1635] [1605] If jury is incomplete.—If the jury by peremptory challenges is left incomplete, the justice shall direct the sheriff or constable to summon others to complete the jury; and the same proceedings shall be had in selecting and impaneling such jurors as are had in the first instance. [Acts 1876, p. 82; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 918.]

Art. 2426. [2359-60] Jurors sworn.—When the jury has been selected, such of them as have not been previously sworn for the trial of civil cases shall be sworn by the justice. The form of the oath shall be in substance as follows: “You and each of you do solemnly swear that in all cases between parties which shall be to you submitted you will a true verdict render, according to the law and evidence. So help you God.” [P. D. 3984.]

Art. 2427. [2362] [1639] [1609] Verdict.—Where the suit is for the recovery of specific articles, the jury shall, if they find for the plaintiff, assess the value of each of such articles separately, according to the proof. [Acts 1876, p. 163; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 998.]

Art. 2428. [2363] [1640] [1610] Jurors paid.—Before the verdict is rendered, the justice shall pay to each juror fifty cents out of the jury fee deposited in the case.

Art. 2430. [2365] [1642] [1612] Case tried by justice.—When the case has been tried by the justice without a jury, he shall announce his decision in open court and note the same in his docket, and render judgment thereon. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2431. [2366] [1643] [1613] Judgment.—The judgment shall be recorded at length in the justice’s docket, and shall be signed by the justice; clearly state the determination of the rights of the parties in the subject matter in controversy and the party who shall pay the costs, and shall direct the issuance of such process as may be necessary to carry the judgment into execution.

Art. 2432. [2367] [1644] [1614] Costs.—The successful party in the suit shall recover his costs, except in cases where it is otherwise expressly provided. [Id., Secs. 11-14.]

Art. 2433. [2368] [1645] [1615] Judgment for specific articles.—Where the judgment is for the recovery of specific articles, their value shall be separately assessed, and the judgment shall be that the plaintiff recover such specific articles, if they can be found, and if not, then their value as assessed, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent from the date of judgment. [Id., Sec. 19.]

Art. 2434. [2369] [1646] [1616] To enforce judgment.—The court shall cause its judgments to be carried into execution, and where the judgment is for personal property and the verdict, if any, is that such property has an especial value to the plaintiff, the court may award a special writ for the seizure and delivery of such property to the plaintiff, and may, in addition to the other relief granted in such case, enforce its judgment by attachment, fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1846, p. 200; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1506.]

Art. 2435. [2370] [1647] [1617] No judgment without citation.—No judgment, other than judgment by confession, shall be rendered by the justice of the peace against any party who has not entered an appearance or accepted service, unless such party has been cited either personally or by publication, or been served by the notice to serve a non-resident provided for by law. [Acts 1870, p. 87; Acts 1876, p. 163; Acts 1909, p. 89; P. D. 6341; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 261; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 999.]

Art. 2436. [2371] [1648] [1618] Confession of judgment.—Any party may appear in person, or by an agent or attorney, before any justice of the peace, without the issuance or service of process, and confess judgment for any amount within the jurisdiction of the justice court; and such judgment shall be entered on the justice's docket, as in other cases; but, in such cases, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make and file an affidavit signed by him, to the justness of his claim. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2437. [2372] [1649] [1619] Warrant of attorney.—Where such judgment is confessed by an agent or attorney, the warrant of attorney shall be filed with the justice and noted in the judgment. [P. D. 1477.]

Art. 2438. [2373] [1650] [1620] Rules governing.—The rules governing the district and county courts in relation to judgments shall also apply to justice courts, in so far as they may not conflict with some provision of this title.

Art. 2439. [2374] [1651] [1621] Judgments by default.—A justice may within ten days after the rendition of a judgment by default or of dismissal, set aside such judgment, on motion in writing, for good cause shown, supported by affidavit. Notice of such motion shall be given to the opposite party at least one full day prior to the hearing thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2440. [2375] [1652] [1622] New trials.—The justice, within ten days after the rendition of a judgment in any suit tried before him, may grant a new trial therein on motion in writing showing that justice has not been done in the trial of the cause. [Id.]

Art. 2441. [2376] [1653] [1623] Sworn motion.—If the grounds of the motion be other than that the verdict, or judgment is contrary to the law or the evidence, or that the justice erred in some matter of law, the motion shall be supported by affidavit. [Id.]

Art. 2442. [2377] [1654] [1624] Notice.—All motions to set aside a judgment, or to grant a new trial, under the two preceding articles, shall be made within five days after the rendition of the judgment, and one day's notice thereof shall be given the opposite party or his attorney. [Id.]

Art. 2443. [2378] [1655] [1625] If motion granted.—If a judgment is set aside, or a new trial is granted, the cause shall be continued to the next regular term of the court, unless otherwise agreed by the parties with the consent of the justice. [Id.]

Art. 2444. [2379] [1656] [1626] But one new trial.—But one such new trial shall be granted to either party. [Id.]

| Within the ten days..... | 2449 | | |

Art. 2445. [2380-2] Judgments enforced by execution.—The judgments of the justice courts shall be enforced by execution or other appropriate process. Such execution or other process shall be returnable in sixty days. [Acts 1876, p. 163; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 999.]

Art. 2446. [2381] [1658] [1628] Execution.—Such execution or other process shall conform to the requirements of writs. It shall describe the judgment and shall require the sheriff or constable of the proper county to execute the same, according to its terms, whether the same be to make a sum of money, or to deliver personal property, or to deliver possession of real estate, or to do some other thing; and, if for money, it shall state the rate of interest; and it shall also require the officer to make the costs which may have been adjudged against the defendant in execution, and the further costs of executing the writ. A certified copy of the costs, taxed against the defendant in execution according to the fee book up to the issuance of the execution, shall be attached to the writ.

Art. 2447. [2383] [1660] [1630] Taxation of costs.—Within ten days after the rendition of any final judgment of the justice court, the justice shall tax the costs of such suit and enter the same in his fee book.

Art. 2448. [2384] [1661] [1631] Execution on eleventh day.—On the eleventh day after the rendition of any final judgment, if the case has not been appealed, and no stay of execution has been granted, the justice shall issue an execution for the enforcement of such judgment and the collection of the costs. [Id.]

Art. 2449. [2385] [1662] [1632] Within the ten days.—Such execution may be issued at any time before the eleventh day, upon the filing of an affidavit by the plaintiff in the judgment, or his agent, or attorney, to the effect that the defendant is about to remove his property out of the county, or is about to transfer or secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. [Id.]

Art. 2450. [2386] [1663] [1633] Execution to another county.—Where an execution from a justice court is sent to a county other than that in which the judgment was rendered, it shall be accompanied by a certificate of the county clerk, and attested by his official signature and seal of office that the officer issuing the same is an acting justice of the peace in said county. The cost of procuring such certificate shall be collected as a part of the costs of executing the writ. [Acts 1842, p. 62; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 740.]

Art. 2451. [2387] [1664] [1634] Dormant Judgments.—If no execution is issued within twelve months after a judgment is rendered, the judgment shall become dormant, and no execution shall issue thereon unless such judgment be revived. Where the first execution has issued within the twelve months, the judgment shall not become dormant unless ten years shall have elapsed between the issuance of executions thereon, and execution may issue at any time within ten years after the issuance of the preceding execution. [Acts 1866, p. 118; P. D. 7005, 7007; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1036.]

Art. 2452. [2388] [1665] [1635] General rules apply.—The rules prescribed for the issuance, levy and return of executions shall apply to the justice courts where not in conflict with some provision of this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2453. [2389-90] Stay of execution.—At any time within ten days after the rendition of any judgment in a justice court, the justice may grant a stay of execution thereof for three months from the date of such judgment, if the person against whom such judgment was rendered shall, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, appear before him and acknowledge themselves and each of them bound to the successful party in such judgment for the full amount thereof, with interest and costs, which acknowledgment shall be entered in writing on the docket, and signed by the persons binding themselves as sureties; provided, no such stay of execution shall be granted unless the party applying therefor shall first file an affidavit with the justice that he has not the money with which to pay such judgment, and that the enforcement of same by execution prior to three months would be a hardship upon him and would cause a sacrifice of his property which would not likely be caused should said execution be stayed. Such acknowledgment shall be entered by the justice on his docket, and shall constitute a judgment against the defendant and such sureties, upon which execution shall issue in case the same is not paid on or before the expiration of such day. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990; Acts 1887, p. 10; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 808.]

Art. 2454. [2391] [1668] [1638] Appeal.—A party to a final judgment in any justice court may appeal therefrom to the county court where such judgment, or the amount in controversy, shall exceed twenty dollars exclusive of costs, and in such other cases as may be expressly provided by law. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2455. [2392] [1669] To district court, when.—In all counties in which the civil jurisdiction of the county courts has been transferred to the district courts, appeals and writs of certiorari may be prosecuted to remove a case tried before a justice of the peace to the district court, in the same manner and under the same circumstances under which appeals and writs of certiorari are allowed by general law to remove causes to the county court. [Acts 1879, p. 125; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1425.]

Art. 2456. [2393] [1670] [1639] Appeal bond.—The party appealing, his agent or attorney, shall, within ten days from the date of the judgment, file with the justice a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, in double the amount of the judgment, payable to the appellee, conditioned that appellant shall prosecute his appeal to effect, and shall pay off and satisfy the judgment which may be rendered against him on appeal. When such bond has been filed with the justice, the appeal shall be held to be thereby perfected and all parties to said suit or to any suit so appealed shall make their appearance at the next term of court to which said case has been appealed without further notice. [Acts 1883, p. 91; Acts 1915, p. 170; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 397.]

Art. 2457. [2394] [1671] Affidavit of inability.—Where the appellant is unable to pay the costs of appeal, or to give security therefor, he shall nevertheless be entitled to prosecute his appeal; but in order to do so, he shall be required to make strict proof of his inability to pay the costs, or any part thereof. Such proof shall be made before the county judge of the county where such party resides or before the court trying the same, at any time within ten days from and after the date of the judgment rendered therein, and shall consist of the affidavit of said party stating his inability to pay the costs; which affidavit may be contested by any officer of the court or party to the suit; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the court trying the case, or the justice of the peace of the precinct in which the suit is pending, to hear evidence and to determine the right of the party to his appeal. [Acts 1887, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 911.]

Art. 2458. [2395] [1672] Appeal perfected on affidavit.—When the bond, or the affidavit in lieu thereof, provided for in the two preceding articles, has been filed, and the previous requirements of this chapter have been complied with, the appeal shall be held to be perfected. [Id.; Acts 1883, p. 91; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 397.]

Art. 2459. [2396-97] Transcript.—Whenever an appeal has been granted from the justice court to the county court, the justice who made the order shall immediately make out a true and correct copy of all the entries made on his docket in the cause, and certify thereto officially, and send it, together with a certified copy of the bill of costs taken from his fee book, and the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court of his county. Such transcript and papers shall, if practicable, be sent to said county clerk on or before the first day of the next term of such court; but, if there be not time to make out and send the same to the first term, they may be so sent on or before the first day of the second term of the court. [Acts 1876, p. 154; G. L. vol. 8, p. 990.]

Art. 2460. [2398-99] Certiorari.—A cause tried before a justice, wherein the amount in controversy or the judgment exceeds twenty dollars, exclusive of costs, may be removed from such justice court to the county court by certiorari under the rules prescribed in the title and chapter relating thereto. Whenever a writ of certiorari to remove any cause from the justice court to the county court shall be served on any justice of the peace, he shall immediately make out a certified copy of the entries made on his docket, and of the bill of costs, as provided in case of appeals, and send same, together with the original papers in the cause, to the clerk of the county court in the manner and within the time prescribed in the preceding article.

Art. 2461. Defined.—The words “rural credit union” shall mean a co-operative association formed for the purpose of promoting thrift among its members, and to enable them, when in need, to obtain for productive purposes moderate loans of money for short periods and at reasonable rates of interest. The capital stock of rural credit unions organized under the provisions of this title shall be divided into shares of twenty-five dollars. Entrance fees of rural credit unions may be fixed by the board of directors at such an amount as may be prescribed by the by-laws. [Acts 1913, p. 162.]

Art. 2462. Loans and investments.—A rural credit union may receive the savings of its members in payment for shares; may lend to its members at reasonable rates of interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, or invest as hereinafter provided the funds so accumulated and may undertake such other activities relating to the purposes of the association as its by-laws may authorize. [Id.]

Art. 2463. May incorporate.—Ten or more citizens of this State may associate themselves together by articles of agreement and form a rural credit union, and upon the approval of the State Banking Board may become a corporation upon complying with such provisions of the law regulating State banks as may be applicable to the transaction of the business herein authorized to be done. The State Banking Board may permit the formation of such corporation when it is satisfied that the proposed field of operation is favorable to the success of a rural credit union, and that the standing of the proposed members is such as to give assurance that its affairs will be administered in accordance with the spirit of this law, and the Banking Commissioner shall issue a charter to said rural credit union to do business in conformity with the provisions of this title. Such Commissioner or his deputy, shall have authority to examine the accounts, books and papers of rural credit unions herein authorized to be organized. Any rural credit union violating any provision of this title shall be subject to the forfeiture of its charter. [Id.]

Art. 2464. Right to use name.—No person, partnership, association or corporation, except corporations formed under the provisions of this law shall hereafter transact business under any name or title which contains the words "rural credit union", except those herein expressly authorized to be formed.

Art. 2465. Supervision.—The Banking Commissioner shall require such rural credit unions to keep such books as he may deem necessary for the proper conduct of their business; may make examination and report of the transaction of such rural credit union's business. The rural credit unions shall be subject to the general supervision of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 2466. By-laws.—The by-laws of the rural credit unions shall prescribe:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is formed.
3. The conditions of residence or occupation which qualify persons for membership.
4. The par value of the shares of capital stock.
5. The conditions on which shares may be paid in, transferred and withdrawn.
6. The conditions on which deposits may be received and withdrawn.
7. The method of receipting for money paid on account of shares or deposited.
8. The number of directors and number of members of the credit committee.
9. The duties of the several officers.
10. The fines, if any, which may be charged for failure to meet obligations of the association punctually.
11. The date of the annual meeting of members.
12. The manner in which members shall be notified of meetings.
13. The number of members which shall be a quorum at meetings.
14. Such other regulations as may seem necessary. [Id.]

Art. 2467. Approval of by-laws.—No such credit union shall receive deposits or payments on account of shares, or make any loans until its by-laws have been approved in writing by the Banking Commissioner, nor shall any amendments to its by-laws become operative until they have been so approved. [Id.]

Art. 2468. Meetings.—The fiscal year of every such association shall end at the close of business on the thirty-first day of December. The annual meeting of the association shall be held at such time and place as the by-laws prescribe. Special meetings may be held by order of the directors or of the supervisory committee. The clerk shall give notice of such special meetings upon written request of ten members. Notice of all meetings of the association shall be given in the manner prescribed by the by-laws. No person shall be entitled to vote who has not been a member for more than three months but this restriction shall not apply during the first twelve months of the existence of the association, nor shall any member vote by proxy or have more than one vote. At the annual meeting, the members shall upon recommendation of the board of directors declare dividends and fix the amount of entrance fee. At any meeting the members may decide upon any question of interest to the association, and upon appeal of two members may reverse the decisions of the credit committee or board of directors; and, by a three-fourths vote of those present, provided the notice of the meeting shall have specified the question to be considered, may amend the by-laws. [Id.]

Art. 2469. Board of Directors.—At the annual meeting the members shall elect a board of directors of not less than five members from which a credit committee of not less than three members may be selected. A supervisory committee of three members shall also be elected. No member of the Board of Directors shall be a member of the advisory committee, nor shall one person be a member of more than one of said committees. All members thereof, as well as all officers whom they elect, shall be sworn, and shall hold their several offices until others are elected and qualified in their stead. A record of every such qualification shall be filed and preserved with the records of the association. [Id.]

Art. 2470. Officers.—At their first meeting the board of directors shall elect from their number a president, a vice president, a clerk and a treasurer, who shall be the executive officers of the association. The board of directors shall have the general management of the affairs, funds and records of the association, and shall meet as often as may be necessary. It shall be their special duty:

1. To act upon all applications for membership.
2. To act upon the expulsion of members.
3. To fix the amount of surety bond which shall be required of each officer having custody of the funds.
4. To determine the rate of interest on loans.
5. To fill vacancies in the board of directors or in the credit committee of the association until the election and qualification of officers to fill said vacancies.
6. To make recommendations to meetings of the members relative to the amount of entrance fee; the maximum number of shares which may be held by, and the maximum amount which may be lent to, any one member; the dividend to be declared; amendments to the by-laws and any other matters which in their opinion, the members should decide. [Id.]

Art. 2471. Credit committee.—The credit committee shall approve every loan or advance made by the association. Every application for a loan shall be made in writing and shall state the purpose for which the loan is desired, and the security offered. No loan shall be made unless the credit committee is satisfied that it promises to benefit the borrower, nor unless it has received the unanimous approval of those members of said committee who were present when it was considered, nor if any member of said committee shall disapprove thereof; but applicant for a loan may appeal from the decisions of the credit committee to the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 2472. Supervisory committee.—The supervisory committee shall inspect the securities, cash and accounts of the association and supervise the acts of its board of directors, credit committee, and officers. At any time, the supervisory committee, by unanimous vote, may suspend the credit committee or any officer elected by the board of directors, and by a majority vote may call a meeting of the shareholders to consider any violation of this title or of the by-laws, or any practice of the association which, in the opinion of said committee, is unsafe or unauthorized. Within seven days after the suspension of the credit committee the supervisory committee shall cause notice to be given of a special meeting of the members to take such action relative to such suspension as may seem necessary. The supervisory committee shall fill vacancies in their own number until the next annual meeting. [Id.]

Art. 2473. Capital and shares.—The capital of the association shall be unlimited in amount. Shares of capital stock may be subscribed for and paid in in such manner as the by-laws shall prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 2474. Shares and deposits.—Shares may be issued and deposits received in the name of a minor and such shares and deposits may, in the discretion of the directors, be withdrawn by such minor or by his parent or guardian, and in either case payments made on such withdrawals shall be valid. If shares are held or deposits made in trust, the name and residence of the beneficiary shall be disclosed and the account shall be kept in the name of such holder as trustee for such person. If no other notice of the existence and terms of such trust has been given in writing to the association, such shares or deposits may, upon the death of the trustees, be withdrawn by the person for whom the amount of such shares was paid in or for whom such deposit was made, or by his legal representatives. [Id.]

Art. 2475. Depositories.—The capital, deposits and surplus funds of the association shall be either lent to the members for such purposes and upon such security and terms as the credit committee shall approve, or deposited to the credit of the association in savings banks or trust companies incorporated under the laws of this State, as in national or State banks located therein, such depositories to be approved by the Banking Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 2476. Repaying loan.—A borrower may repay the whole or any part of his loan on any day on which the office of the association is open for the transaction of business. For failure to pay the interest or any installment required by the terms of the loan, the borrower may be fined if the by-laws so prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 2477. Conditions of loans.—No member of the board of directors or of the credit or supervisory committee shall receive any compensation for his services as a member of said board or committees, nor shall any member of the credit or supervisory committee, either directly or indirectly, borrow from or become surety for any loan or advance made by the association except upon the approval of two-thirds of the members of the association. No loan shall be granted except for the productive purposes or urgent needs, nor for a longer period than eight months; nor shall any loan be renewed for a sum as large as the original amount. Loans to any one member shall not exceed two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 2478. May expel member.—The board of directors may expel from the association any member who has not carried out his engagements with the association, or has been convicted of a criminal offense, or neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law or of the by-laws of the association, or who habitually neglects to pay his debts, or shall become insolvent or bankrupt, or shall have deceived the association with regard to the use of borrowed money. No member shall be expelled until he has been informed in writing of the charges against him, and an opportunity has been given him, after reasonable notice, to be heard thereon. [Id.]

Art. 2479. Liability to expelled member.—The amounts paid in on shares or deposited by members who have withdrawn or have been expelled, shall be paid to them, but in the order of withdrawal or expulsion, and only as funds therefor become available and after deducting any amounts due by said members to the association. Such expulsion shall not operate to relieve a member from any remaining liability to the association. [Id.]

Art. 2480. Audit.—Immediately before a meeting of the directors called to recommend the declaration of a dividend, the supervisory committee shall make a thorough audit of the receipts, disbursements, income, assets and liabilities of the association for the fiscal year, and shall make a full report thereon to the directors. Said report shall be read at the annual meeting and shall be filed and preserved with the records of the association. [Id.]

Art. 2481. Dividend.—At the annual meeting a dividend may be declared from income which has been actually collected during the fiscal year next preceding or during the months which have elapsed since the association began business, and which remains after the deduction of all expenses, losses and the amount required to be set apart as a guaranty fund. Such dividend shall be paid on all fully paid shares outstanding at the close of the fiscal year, but shares which become fully paid during the year shall be entitled only to a proportional part of said dividend, calculated from the first day of the month following such payment in full. Dividends due to a member shall be paid to him in cash or credited to the account of partly paid shares for which he has subscribed. [Id.]

Art. 2482. Guaranty fund.—Immediately before the payment of each dividend, there shall be set apart as a guaranty fund twenty per cent of the net income which has accumulated during the fiscal year. Said fund and the investments thereof belong to the association and shall be held to meet contingencies or losses in its business. All entrance fees shall be added at once to the guaranty fund. But upon recommendation of the board of directors the members at an annual meeting may increase, and whenever said fund equals or exceeds the amount of capital stock actually paid in, may decrease the proportion of profits required by this article to be set apart as a guaranty fund. [Id.]

Art. 2483. Dissolution.—At any meeting specially called to consider the subject, the members upon the unanimous recommendation of the board of directors may vote to dissolve the association, provided at least two-thirds of the members are present at such meeting, and provided that not more than ten members either in person or by written notice, object thereto. A committee of three shall thereupon be elected to liquidate the assets of the association, and each share of the capital stock, according to the amount paid in thereon, shall be entitled to its proportion of the proceeds after all debts of the association have been paid. [Id.]

Art. 2484. Report to Commissioner.—Within twenty days after the last business day of December in each year, every such association shall make to the Banking Commissioner a report, in such form as he may prescribe, signed by the president, treasurer and a majority of the supervisory committee who shall certify and make oath that the report is correct according to their best knowledge and belief. Any such association which neglects to make the said report within the time herein prescribed shall forfeit to the State five dollars for each day during which such neglect continues. [Id.]

Art. 2485. May incorporate.—Any association of persons, which may include corporations duly chartered, State banks and trust companies, National banks and trust companies, and cooperative associations composed of persons engaged in producing or producing and marketing staple agricultural products or livestock, or both, may organize a pool for the purpose of borrowing and lending money on agricultural products or livestock, or both, for agricultural purposes, or for the raising, breeding, fattening or marketing of livestock. Any number of persons, not less than three, may incorporate for the purpose of growing, storing, preparing for the market, and marketing agricultural products, or for the purpose of growing, raising, fattening for the market, and marketing livestock, or for both such purposes, and may use any of such livestock or farm products, or both, as security, in financing such enterprises; and shall have all the privileges of a pooling organization in borrowing money to promote the business of such corporation. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 82.]

Art. 2486. Definitions.—“Pools” as used in this title shall be held to mean agricultural financial pools and livestock financing pools; “agricultural products” shall be held to mean any or all products of the farm, orchard or dairy usually classed as agricultural products other than livestock; "livestock" shall be held to mean any herd of cattle, sheep, goats or swine; "margins" shall be held to mean additional security in money of legal tender of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 2487. May borrow.—Such pools shall have the right to borrow money, and to use as security for such borrowed funds, the security given by those borrowing money from such pooling organizations, and shall be authorized to co-operate with the Federal Reserve Banks and Federal Farm Loan Banks under the provisions of the Federal laws affecting farm credits. [Id.]

Art. 2488. May loan.—Such pools are authorized to lend money on agricultural products that are stored in bonded licensed warehouses and for which there is outstanding therefor a negotiable bonded warehouse receipt issued in accordance with the Uniform Warehouse Receipt Act. They are also authorized to lend money to the owners of herds upon the terms and conditions as hereinafter provided, and such herds shall be permitted to remain in the possession of the owner or owners thereof, or in the possession of an agent or representative of the owner or owners. A mortgage against such herd, or shipping documents issued against such herds in transit, may be used as collateral for such loan. [Id.]

Art. 2489. Loans and interest.—The interest charged on all such loans shall not exceed by more than one and one-half per cent the rate of interest charged such pooling institutions by the farm loan banks. No loans shall be made by any pooling organization to any person or association of persons, unless such person or association is engaged in producing, or producing and marketing, staple agricultural products, or livestock, upon which such loan is made. All such commodities, articles or things classed herein as agricultural products shall be insured with some stock insurance company authorized to do business in this State. Such insurance shall be for not less than the full amount of the loan. At no time shall a greater amount than seventy-five per cent of the market value of such commodities, articles or things on date of loan be loaned thereon. [Id.]

Art. 2490. Agents for borrowers.—Such pools shall have the right to act as agents for all borrowers in the sale of such commodities, articles or things on which loans have been made. The commissions charged for such service shall not exceed fifty cents per bale for cotton sold, and shall in all cases on all other commodities, articles or things be reasonable. Where such pools operate bonded and licensed warehouses, it shall have authority to make a charge for storage, for drawing and handling of samples and for insurance in addition to other charges as provided for herein. [Id.]

Art. 2491. Warehouses and concentration places.—All such pools are authorized to own, maintain, and operate bonded and licensed warehouses when such warehouses are deemed necessary in the conduct of said business, and to own or maintain concentration places, including railroad sidings. [Id.]

Art. 2492. Margins.—Such pools shall be authorized to demand margins, such as is necessary to keep the market value of any commodity, article or thing on which a loan has been made up to within seventy-five per cent of the value of such commodity, article or thing on date of loan at any time during the life of such loan, and shall have the right to sell any commodity, article or thing on which a loan has been made when the owner or owners thereof fail or refuse to put up or provide for such margin. All such margins shall be credited to the account of such borrower and same shall be taken into account when such loan or loans shall be liquidated. [Id.]

Art. 2493. Loan limit and liquidations.—Such pools are authorized to make loans as herein provided, the total of which shall at no time exceed ten times the total of the capital stock and surplus of such organizations. The borrower of any funds from such pool shall have the right to liquidate his loan at any time during the contract period thereof, upon full and satisfactory settlement of all claims against such borrower due such organization. [Id.]

Art. 2494. Bond.—Such pools shall, before engaging in business in this State, furnish a good and sufficient bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of its duties and responsibilities as a pooling organization, said bond to be for ten per cent of the capital stock of such pool. Such bonds shall be approved by the commissioners court of the county in which such pool is organized, or in the county in which is located the home office of such pool. All such bonds shall be certified to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses (Commissioner of Agriculture; Acts Thirty-ninth Legislature, p. 35), and the Commissioner shall, upon receipt of such bond and after satisfying himself as to its genuineness, issue to such pool a certificate of authority to conduct a pool in accordance with the provisions of this title, upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars which shall be collected by said Commissioner and by him paid into the State Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 2495. Officers to furnish bonds.—The officers of such pools shall be a president, vice-president, and a secretary and treasurer, provided that the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person, and a board of directors, all of which shall be members of such pooling organization. The said board of directors shall elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer from said board of directors, and such board shall be authorized to employ a manager and others to conduct the affairs of the pool. The secretary-treasurer and all officers in charge of the management shall be required to furnish to such pool, a good and sufficient bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of duty. Such bond shall be not less than five per cent of the total of the capital stock and surplus of said pool. The directors of any such pool shall not permit such persons to conduct the affairs of such pools when they have not so furnished bond. [Id.]

Art. 2496. To file statement.—All such pools shall on the first of January, April, July and October of each year file with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses (Commissioner of Agriculture; Acts Thirty-ninth Legislature, p. 35) a sworn statement of the condition of the affairs of such pool, and such statement shall be made to show the amount of business done, the number of negotiable receipts on which loans have been made and the value of such commodities, the total of all such loans and the total of all the obligations of the pool, to whom due and the amount of interest being paid on same, the quality or number of sales made for clients, the gross receipts of such sales, the amount of commissions charged thereon, and the number and value of all livestock mortgages and other securities. [Id.]

Art. 2497. Pools may use security.—All such pools shall be authorized to use such security or collateral held by them as security for loans made to such pooling organizations. When any loan due the pooling organization is satisfied, such organization shall deliver to the borrower a final receipt of settlement, and when any article, commodity or thing is sold, the negotiable warehouse receipt shall be delivered to the maker thereof, and cancelled in accordance with the provisions of the Warehouse Acts of this State. [Id.]

Art. 2498. Term of loan.—The maximum term of any loan on agricultural products shall not exceed twelve months and no loans on livestock shall be for any term exceeding three years. Loans may be renewed conditioned upon new and agreed valuations of the commodity, article or thing, or upon additional security, or both. [Id.]

Art. 2499. Unlawful to dispose of receipt.—No person shall dispose of any negotiable bonded warehouse receipt placed with any bonded organization as security on loan, or to be held by such pool, pending the sale of any such commodity, article or thing represented by such receipt except as provided herein. [Id.]

| Ratio of capital to loans | 2503 | Rate of interest | 2507 |

Art. 2500. Purpose.—Ten or more persons, five of whom shall be citizens of Texas, may organize corporations to aid their member stockholders in producing, or producing and marketing of staple agricultural products, or in acquiring, raising, breeding, fattening or marketing of livestock. [Acts 2nd. and 3rd. C. S. 1923, pp. 87, 174.]

Art. 2501. Powers.—Such corporations shall have power:

1. To accumulate and lend money to their member stockholders where such loans are made for the purposes provided for in the Federal "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923."

2. To lend money to their member stockholders where the money loaned is to be used for the production or production and marketing of staple agricultural products, or for the acquiring, raising, breeding, fattening or marketing of live stock, or the purchase of the capital stock of such corporations and in order to obtain the funds to loan their members, such corporations are authorized to purchase, sell, indorse and discount the notes of its member stockholders and by indorsement to become liable as principal makers thereof, where such notes are secured by warehouse receipts or shipping documents covering such agricultural products or chattel mortgages on livestock or by crop mortgages or other acceptable chattel mortgages or other acceptable security. [Id.]

Art. 2502. Capital stock.—Such corporations must have a fully paid up capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars at the time of the filing of the articles of incorporation. Ten thousand dollars of such capital shall be kept intact and invested in securities approved by law for investments of saving banks. In the discretion of the organizers or board of directors, the capital stock may be divided into preferred and common stock, and in such case the articles of incorporation shall provide for the payment of dividends on preferred stock and for the retirement of both kinds of stock. Preferred stock shall be issued in such amount only as provided in the articles of incorporation. No dividends shall be paid on common stock until dividends provided to be paid on the preferred stock have been fully paid at the rate provided in the articles of incorporation. With the approval of the Banking Commissioner first obtained, any domestic corporation except a savings bank may invest any part of its funds in the preferred stock of such corporation.

Art. 2503. Ratio of capital to loans.—Such corporations shall automatically increase their capital stock at the rate of ten per cent of the amount of loans made by them to their member stockholders and their articles of incorporation and by-laws shall so provide. Such corporation shall not make loans in excess of ten times its unimpaired capital stock represented by the part of its capital stock so automatically increased. [Id.]

Art. 2504. Articles of incorporation.—The articles of incorporation shall further provide: That each applicant for a loan or discount by such corporation shall become a subscriber to its common stock in an amount equal to ten per cent of the loan or discount applied for, to be fully paid for upon or before the closing of such loan or granting of such discount, provided the board of directors may waive such requirement if the stockholder is already the owner of sufficient stock; and that the corporation may buy in out of available funds any outstanding capital stock at the book value thereof, as conclusively determined by the directors of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 2505. Semi-annual report.—On or before the tenth day of each January and July, such corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a report showing its true financial condition on the first days of January and July, and the amount of capital stock, both preferred and common, then outstanding, including that added by the automatic increase. Such corporations shall not pay a franchise tax. [Id.]

Art. 2506. Liability of stockholders.—Except for debts lawfully contracted between a member stockholder and the corporation, no stockholder either preferred or common, shall be liable for the debts, contracts or engagements of the corporation beyond the par value of the stock owned by such stockholder, and the stock, both common and preferred, shall be non-assessable.

Art. 2507. Rate of interest.—No corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter shall, in making loans to its members, or discounting notes of the members of such corporation, exceed two and a half per cent of the rate of discount established by the Federal Farm Loan Board for discounts made by the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks. [Acts 1925, p. 221.]

Art. 2508. Purposes.—Ten or more persons, citizens of this State, who are engaged in the production, or production and marketing of staple agricultural products, or the raising, breeding, feeding, fattening or marketing of live stock, may organize private cooperative credit associations not for profit. [Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 90.]

Art. 2509. Powers.—Such associations shall have the following powers:

1. To borrow for and lend money to its members only.
2. To discount or rediscount for its members only, and to purchase and sell the notes of its members, or such other evidences of indebtedness as may be discounted or rediscounted under the provisions of the Federal "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923," and under the terms, rules and regulations prescribed by the Federal Farm Loan Board, and to that end may indorse all bills, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of its members.
3. And to do such acts as are permitted to associations generally organized under the laws of this State where not in conflict herewith. [Id.]

Art. 2510. Capital stock.—Such associations may be organized with or without capital stock, but if organized to lend money secured by chattel mortgages on live stock, shall have a capital stock. Associations having a capital stock shall automatically increase the same at the rate of ten per cent of the amount of loans or discounts made by them to their stockholder members and such loans or discounts shall never exceed ten times the amount of their paid up unimpaired capital stock, and the articles of incorporation shall so provide. [Id.]

Art. 2511. Articles of incorporation.—In addition to the requirements prescribed by the general corporation law, the articles of incorporation shall provide: That loans shall not be obtained for, made to, or notes purchased of, or discount for any person or association other than a stockholder in such association; and that each applicant for a loan or discount by such association shall become a subscriber to its capital stock in an amount equal to ten per cent of the amount of the loan or discount applied for, to be fully paid for on or before the closing of such loan or granting of such discount. A filing fee of ten dollars shall accompany said articles of incorporation and be paid to the Secretary of State.

Art. 2512. Fees and reports.—Each such association, except those having a capital stock, shall pay an annual license fee of ten dollars, and all such associations shall be exempt from all franchise or other license tax. On or before the tenth days of January, April, July and October, those having a capital stock shall file with the Secretary of State with a fee of two dollars and fifty cents, accurate reports showing their financial condition and the amount of outstanding paid up capital stock as of the first of January, April, July and October. [Id.]

Art. 2513. Retirement of stock.—Whenever the debts and liabilities of such association are less than fifty per cent of its assets, and in the judgment of the directors the same may be done without impairment of the financial condition of such association, said board may authorize the buying in and purchase of its capital stock at the book value thereof as it may conclusively determine, and pay for it in cash within one year thereafter; provided the board may in its discretion retire pro rata such stock held by any member or group of members whose loans have been paid in whole or in part. [Id.]

Art. 2514. May incorporate.—Private corporations may hereafter be incorporated for the purpose of enabling those engaged in agricultural pursuits to co-operate with each other for the purposes named in this subdivision. Only those engaged in agricultural pursuits can become incorporators of, or members of societies chartered under this law. Each corporation chartered hereunder shall contain as a part of its name these words, "Farmers' Co-operative Society". Persons not engaged in agricultural pursuits may be permitted to contribute an amount not in excess of one-third the outstanding working capital of the society. [Acts 1917, p. 432.]

Art. 2515. Purely local.—Corporations chartered hereunder shall be purely local in their character, shall confine their activities, business operations and membership to the community in which they are located, and in no event to extend beyond the territory surrounding the town, village or city designated as the place of business of the corporation. No public funds appropriated to any department of State government, or to any State institution shall be used in organizing any society or corporation mentioned in this subdivision. Corporations incorporated under this law may join with other corporations incorporated under this Act in establishing and maintaining joint agencies for the accomplishment of the purposes for which they are incorporated.

Art. 2516. Laws governing.—Those desiring to form corporations hereunder shall, in the exercise of the rights herein granted and subject to the limitations herein provided, prepare and file their charters under the general corporation laws of this State, which said corporation laws shall govern them except where in conflict with the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 2517. Filing and recording charter.—The Secretary of State shall charge for filing charters and amendments to charters of corporations incorporated hereunder the sum of ten dollars for each charter and amendment thereof. Charters, amendments to charters and by-laws must be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and must before being filed, first be approved by the Attorney General. Copies of the charter and by-laws properly certified to by the Secretary of State shall also be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which it is located any society which is incorporated hereunder, but need not be recorded by the county clerk, but shall be kept by him subject to inspection of any person interested. The Secretary of State shall, in furnishing the corporation certified copies of charters, amendments and by-laws, furnish to the society two certified copies of each, one for the files of the society, and one to be filed in the office of the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 2518. Statement to be made.—Corporations chartered hereunder shall be purely co-operative, and not for profit, and shall not be required to pay any annual franchise tax, but shall nevertheless make a statement of their assets and liabilities to the Secretary of State, showing the condition of their affairs, in such form as the Attorney General may prepare for the Secretary of State. Such societies may, by their directors, in accordance with their by-laws pass their profits to the surplus fund or divide the same among the members of the society in proportion to their respective contributions in cash to the working capital of the corporation and patronage of their members. [Id.]

Art. 2519. Assets.—Corporations chartered hereunder shall have property of not less than five hundred dollars in value, which may be cash, property or note acceptable to the board of directors. No membership certificates shall be issued for subscriptions in the form of notes until such notes have been paid in full, principal and interest, and the holders of membership certificates for which cash or property has not been paid, while entitled to vote in the management of the affairs of the corporation, shall not be entitled to share in its dividends nor in a distribution of any assets until such notes are paid in full. However, they may become borrowers from the corporation under the provisions of this sub-division and the by-laws adopted hereunder. Such notes shall be construed to be valid subscription contracts, and shall be the property of the corporations chartered hereunder for any and all purposes. [Id.]

Art. 2520. Authority.—Corporations chartered under this law shall have authority to borrow money and discount notes to an aggregate amount not in excess of five times the working capital of the corporation; such corporations shall have the right to loan their funds to members only upon such terms and security, if any, as may be provided in their by-laws; they shall also have the right to act as the co-operative selling and purchasing agents of their members only, and may for their members sell any and all agricultural products, and for their members purchase machinery and all supplies of any kind or character, including the purchase of fire, live stock, hail, cyclone and storm insurance for its members; in the event of purchasing insurance for its members, however, the corporation shall have authority to be, and shall be appointed and licensed as, the agent of the insurance companies, and the commissions so received by it shall be a part of the corporate funds of the company; they shall also have authority to own and operate such machinery and instrumentalities as may be necessary in the production, harvesting, and preparation for market of farm and ranch products. [Id.]

Art. 2521. Membership.—Membership in societies incorporated under this law can be obtained only by election thereto at the time of organization of the society by the organizers thereof, or by the board of directors of such society when organized under such rules and limitations as may be made in the by-laws. Members shall each have one vote only in the management of the affairs of the corporation. Members may be suspended or expelled for misconduct under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed in the by-laws. In case of expulsion the society shall return to the member at such time as may be fixed in its by-laws an amount equal to the money value of the amount contributed by such member to the working capital of the society. [Id.]

Art. 2522. Withdrawal.—Membership certificates shall not be transferable, but members shall have the right of withdrawal under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the society in its by-laws. In case of withdrawal the society may return to the member an amount equal to the money value of the amount contributed by him to the working capital of the society. [Id.]

Art. 2523. Liability of members.—Unless otherwise provided, the members of a corporation chartered hereunder shall not be responsible to the corporation or to its creditors, in excess of the membership shares subscribed by them, and when such shares are paid for their liability shall cease; provided that the association may, in its by-laws, make each member responsible for an additional amount equal to one hundred per cent of the shares owned by a member, payable upon assessment of the board of directors for the payment of the debts and obligations of the corporation; and may provide in like manner that members may waive their right to claim personal property exempt from seizure for debt as against debts and obligations due to the society. In all such instances such liability must be plainly provided for in the by-laws, which by-laws in this and all other instances must be signed by the member. [Id.]

Art. 2524. Publications.—Appropriate forms of charter, charter amendments, by-laws, rules and annual reports to the members and such other forms as may be necessary to make this law effective, shall be prepared by the Attorney General and filed with the Secretary of State, who shall cause same, together with a copy of this law, to be published and distributed among the citizens of the State who may be interested. [Id.]

Art. 2525. [2417] Depository Board.—The State Treasurer as secretary, together with the Attorney General and the Banking Commissioner, shall constitute the Depository Board. The said Board shall have the right to make such rules and regulations governing the establishment and conduct of State depositories and the handling of funds therein as the public interest may require, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, which said rules and regulations shall be in writing and entered upon the minutes of said Board. Whenever in this chapter the word "Treasurer" is used it shall mean the State Treasurer, and the word "Board" shall mean the State Depository Board, and the words "Rate Board" shall mean the Texas Rate Making Board. [Acts 1923, p. 60.]

Art. 2526. [2418] Bids.—The Treasurer biennially, as soon as practicable after the rate of interest has been certified to the Board by the Rate Board, and not later than the twentieth day of September, shall mail to each State and national bank doing business in this State a circular letter enclosing an application blank to be used by banks in making application for a deposit of State funds for a term of two years after the first day of December next succeeding. Said letter shall state the conditions to be complied with by the applicants as herein provided. The Treasurer shall make three certified lists of the banks to which such letters are mailed, each to be accompanied by a copy of such letter, one of which he shall deliver to each member of the Board and the other he shall keep on file in his office for the inspection of any person desiring to see the same. The Treasurer is authorized to cancel all bids received for funds and to send out applications to the banks above described, under the terms of this law, giving said banks fifteen days from the date said notices are mailed in which to file their application to become a depository. Funds deposited shall be for a period of two years. If it develops that more depositories are required at any time, the Board may send out notices to all State and national banks who are not depositories, notifying them that further applications for funds for the unexpired term will be accepted.

Said additional depositories shall comply with the same rules and conditions regarding all other depositories approved under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 2527. [2419] Application for deposits.— The application of the bank applying for State funds shall state its amount of paid up capital stock and permanent surplus, and the maximum of State funds it will accept, accompanying same with a statement of the bank's condition at the date of said application. Such application shall contain a provision that the books and accounts of such bank, if designated as a State Depository, shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Board, any member or any accredited representative thereof. All such applications shall be mailed to the Treasurer at Austin in time to reach his office on or before noon of the fifteenth day of October next succeeding. Applications received in the next succeeding five days may be considered at the option of the Board. [Id.]

Art. 2528. [2420] Acceptance.— When the Treasurer receives such application, he shall endorse thereupon the date of its receipt, and shall on the first Monday in November prepare three lists giving the names of all applicants for funds and the amount applied for. One list shall be furnished each member of the Board. Said board shall meet promptly thereafter and consider said applications, giving approval to those applicants that are acceptable and having the power to reject those whose management of condition, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant the placing of State funds in their possession. No application for State funds shall be granted to any bank whose liabilities for borrowed money are in excess of its capital stock, but the board may in its discretion waive this provision. [Id.]

Art. 2529. [2423] Qualifications of depositories.—As soon as practicable after the Board shall have passed upon all applications, the Treasurer shall notify all banks whose applications have been accepted of their designation as State depositories. The Treasurer shall require each bank so designated to qualify as a State depository on or before the twenty-fifth day of November next succeeding by (a) depositing a depository bond signed by some surety company authorized to do business in Texas in an amount equal to not less than double the amount of State funds allotted, such bond to be payable to the Treasurer and to be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board and subject to the approval of such board; or (b) by pledging with the Treasurer any securities of the following kinds in an amount at par value one-fifth greater than the amount of State funds allotted: Bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, bonds of this State, bonds of the Federal Land Banks located in Texas, bonds of counties, independent school districts and common school districts located in Texas, and bonds issued by municipal corporations in Texas, or vendor's lien or mortgage lien notes secured by first lien on real estate situated in this State of value, exclusive of improvements, at least double the amount of such notes. No State, county, independent school district, common school district or municipal bonds shall be accepted as collateral security unless they shall be approved by the Attorney General. All bonds accepted as collateral security shall be registered under the same rules and regulations as are required for bonds in which the permanent school funds are invested. In case vendor's lien and mortgage lien notes are offered for deposit as collateral they shall be accompanied by an abstract of title to the land securing the payment thereof, accompanied by an opinion of a reputable attorney residing in the county in which such land is located approving such title. The Board shall make such investigation in regard to the value of the land securing the payment of such notes as it may deem proper, requiring the payment or deposit by the depository bank offering such collateral of an amount sufficient to cover the expense of investigating the title and value of land securing such collateral. Subject to the approval of the Board, a State depository may secure its deposit of State funds in part by an acceptable surety bond and in part by acceptable collateral of the kind herein mentioned. The Board shall have the power to reject, without assigning any reason therefor, any or all collateral of any surety bond tendered by a State depository, and its action in so doing shall be final and not subject to any review.

When the collateral pledged by a State depository to secure a deposit of State school funds shall be in excess of the amount required under the provisions of this chapter, the Treasurer may, subject to the approval of the Board, permit the release of any such excess. In the event the balance to the credit of the Treasurer on the books of such bank shall be thereafter increased, adequate security as provided for in this chapter, shall be deposited and maintained by such depository bank. [Id.]

Art. 2530. [2426] Deposit of securities.—The securities above mentioned shall be delivered to the Treasurer and receipted for by him, and retained by him in the vaults of the State Treasury and if, in any case, or at any time, such bonds or other securities are not satisfactory security in the opinion of the Board for the deposits made under this chapter, they may require such additional security to be given as will be satisfactory to them. Said Board shall, from time to time, inspect such bonds and see that the same are actually kept in the vaults of the State Treasury. In the event that any State depository shall fail to pay deposits or any part thereof on the check of the Treasurer, he shall have the power to forthwith realize upon such bonds or other securities deposited by said bank, and disburse the money arising therefrom, according to law, upon the warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the funds for which said bonds or other securities are secured. Any bank making deposits of bonds or other securities with the Treasurer under the provisions of this chapter may cause such bonds or other securities to be endorsed or stamped, as they may deem proper, so as to show that they are deposited as collateral and not transferable, except as herein provided. The right of substitution of securities shall be granted to depositories, provided the securities substituted meet with the requirements of the law and are approved by the Board.

Upon request of the owner or owners, the Treasurer may surrender interest coupons or other evidence of interest when due on securities deposited with him by depository banks, provided said securities are ample to meet the requirements of the State. [Id.]

Art. 2531. [2424] Failure to qualify.—In case any bank that has submitted an application for State funds shall fail to qualify within the time specified in this chapter after being notified to do so, it shall forfeit its right to act as a depository for a period of one year. [Id.]

Art. 2532. [2425] Placing deposits.—After the depositories have qualified as provided in the preceding articles, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to deposit the funds belonging to the State in such depositories, as far as practical on a fair percentage basis, and shall at all times keep such funds equitably prorated in proportion to the amount which each is entitled to receive by drawing warrants alternately thereon, or by apportioning the warrants so drawn.

No depository shall be entitled to keep on deposit more than fifty per cent of its paid up capital stock and permanent surplus. Any reduction in the capital stock and surplus of any depository shall reduce correspondingly the amount of funds which it can retain as a depository, and the Treasurer is authorized to withdraw from said depository any funds in excess of fifty per cent of its capital and surplus.

The amount of funds allotted to any one depository shall at no time exceed one hundred thousand dollars. If there be a surplus after the awards are made, the surplus shall be prorated among the applying banks. Such provisions, however, shall not affect arrangements for clearing checks made by said Board with Reserve Depositories as hereinafter provided.

All State depositories shall collect at their own expense all checks, drafts and demands for money deposited with them by the Treasurer, and when using due diligence, shall not be liable on such collections until the proceeds thereof have been received by the depository bank.

If the Treasurer shall fail to exercise proper diligence in depositing or investing State funds in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, he shall be liable to the State for three per centum annually on funds which he fails to deposit or invest, excepting such as he may retain in the State Treasury or on deposit with Reserve Depositories sufficient to meet the current demands on the Treasury.

State Depositories shall show in their published statements the amount of State funds on deposit with them. [Id.]

Art. 2533. [2428] Reserve Depositories.—The Board shall designate one or more banks in centrally located cities to be known as Reserve Depositories, to be used for clearing checks and other obligations due the State, and the Treasurer shall keep sufficient funds on deposit in said depositories to meet all current demands upon the State. All items received by the Treasurer for collection shall be deposited with such depositories for credit to the account of the Treasurer and all checks drawn by the Treasurer for the payment of obligations due by the State may be drawn on a reserve depository or on a State depository, so that the checks of the State may at all times pass current as cash. Reserve depositories shall pay interest to the State at the customary rate paid by said depositories to their correspondent banks on average daily net balances, payable monthly. The Board shall fix the amount of security to be required of any reserve depository and when so fixed, the reserve depository shall execute or give security of the kind or kinds provided for other State depositories.

Funds accumulating in the reserve depository, or depositories, in excess of that required for meeting the current bills of the State shall be distributed from time to time among the State depositories as heretofore provided. Only such amounts shall be maintained with a reserve depository as in the judgment of the Treasurer shall be found necessary to meet the cash demands on the Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 2534. [2431]. Withdrawals. — The funds on deposit with depositories shall be subject to withdrawal at any time by the Treasurer. At no time shall the withdrawal from one depository be greater than twenty-five per cent of its quota for any one month, unless fifteen days notice has previously been given the depository by the Treasurer. Whenever the current demands upon the Treasurer are such that the said twenty-five per cent is insufficient to meet such current demands, then the Treasurer shall have power, without notice, to withdraw additional amounts above the twenty-five per cent to meet such current demands, provided that such additional amounts shall be drawn in equal portion as far as possible from different depositories, and not the full amount from any one depository. The limitation as to the withdrawal of only twenty-five per cent of any bank's quota and the limitation as to additional amounts, shall not apply to any reserve depository. [Id.]

Art. 2535. [2429]. Remittances. — All State depositories shall remit free of charge to the Treasurer on his demand, all withdrawals of State funds as provided for in the preceding article. All remittances to the Treasurer made by the State or reserve depositories, or any person or persons may be in cash by registered letter, by post office money order, express money order of any company authorized to do business in Texas, or by any bank draft on any bank in the following cities: Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Houston, Austin, Galveston and San Antonio. The liability of any reserve depository, State depository or person sending the same shall not cease until the said money is actually received by the Treasurer. Any depository that refuses to remit for State items, or Treasury drafts, as above indicated, shall upon order of the Board forfeit its right to receive further deposits, and the Board shall have the right to withdraw all funds from said bank, which shall thereafter cease to be a State depository. [Id.]

Art. 2536. [2434] Extensions.—If it should be found by the Board at the expiration of any biennial depository period that any of the existing depository banks have not been or will not be selected as depositories for the ensuing period and that the withdrawal of State funds at any particular depository bank will create a demand on such funds at any particular depository bank which it will not be able to meet, though otherwise solvent, and if it should be further found by the Board that such action is warranted in the interest of the public welfare, then the Board shall have the discretion and authority to extend the time of payment of such funds into the State Treasury from time to time. Such extension shall not be made unless and until such depository bank executes a new application and gives security as provided in this chapter covering such time as the Board may designate. Any depository bank receiving the benefits of this extension privilege shall pay a rate of interest one per cent per annum in excess of the then current rate as fixed by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 2537. [2432] Cancellation of contracts.—Each depository shall have the right to cancel its depository contract upon accounting to the Treasurer for all funds deposited with it, (a) at the end of any year by giving thirty days notice in advance, or (b) when the interest rate is increased by the rate Board.

The Board shall have the right to terminate a contract with a depository at any time they deem it to be in the interest of the State to do so, upon giving the depository fifteen days notice of such termination. The Treasurer may discontinue making deposits in any bank, when in the opinion of the Board the condition or management of the bank warrants such action on his part. [Id.]

Art. 2538. [2433] Surplus.—If there should be at any time a surplus of State funds above the aggregate amount applied for by and allotted to State funds above the aggregate amount applied for by and allotted to State depositories, together with the amount necessary in the judgment of the Treasurer to be carried in reserve depositories, the Treasurer is hereby authorized and it shall be his duty, with the approval of the Board, to invest all of such surplus in bearer obligations of the United States Government yielding interest at a rate of not less than three per centum per annum, such securities to be purchased on the open market at the best price obtainable and to be held by him as the property of the State in such manner as similar securities are required by law to be held. As the needs of the State may require and before withdrawing funds from any State depository, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to convert all such obligations into cash by selling the same on the open market at the best price obtainable and placing the proceeds thereof to the credit of the proper funds. [Id.]

Art. 2539. [2437] Interest.—Any State depository receiving State funds under the provisions of this chapter shall pay to the Treasurer at the end of each month in the manner prescribed by him, interest on the average daily balance for said month at the rate fixed by the Rate Board. All State funds deposited under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a change in the rate of interest by the Rate Board at the end of any one year. [Id.]

Art. 2540. [2421] Rate Board.—The Texas Rate Making Board shall be composed of five members who shall be citizens of Texas, and who shall be competent and skilled business men of known ability and high moral character and integrity, to be appointed biennially by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. All members of said Board shall hold office for two years beginning February 1, biennially. Any vacancy in the membership of said Rate Board shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term. The Governor shall designate one of said members as chairman of said board. In appointing said members, the Governor shall not select any two from the same section of the State. The Governor shall have full power to remove any member of said board from office for good cause, the reasons for such removal to be specified and filed with the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 2541. [2421] Expenses of Rate Board.—The members of said board shall serve without remuneration, but the Legislature shall make ample provision for the payment of their traveling expenses, including hotel expenses, necessarily incurred in connection with their official duties. [Id.]

Art. 2542. [2421] Duties of Rate Board.—The Rate Board shall have power and it shall be its duty to fix and specify annually the precise rate of interest which banks designated as State depositories shall pay to the credit of the Treasurer on average daily balances in said banks. The rate of interest to be charged shall be the same for all banks. Said Rate Board shall never fix a rate for less than four per cent. [Id.]

Art. 2543. [2421] Meetings.—Said Rate Board, for the purpose of fixing such interest rate shall meet on the first Monday in September of each year, at which meeting the rate of interest for the succeeding year, beginning on December 1st of each year and ending on the 30th day of November, shall be fixed. When the rate of interest has been fixed the Rate Board shall certify the rate to the State Depository Board.

All meetings of the Rate Board shall be upon call of the chairman, or in the event of his failure, refusal or neglect to act, upon the call of any three members thereof, such meetings to be held in any available room or space in the State Capitol. Said Rate Board shall meet at least once each year on the first Monday in September, and as often thereafter as may be necessary. Whenever a quorum of both the Rate Board and the State Depository Board shall deem it necessary, the Rate Board and the State Depository Board shall meet in joint session or meeting. [Id.]

Art. 2544. [2440] Notice to bidders.—The commissioners court of each county is authorized and required at the February term thereof next following each general election to receive proposals from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker in such county that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds of such county. Notice that such bids will be received shall be published by and over the name of the county judge, once each week for at least twenty days before commencement of such term in some newspaper published in said county; and if no newspaper be published therein, then in any newspaper published in the nearest county. In addition thereto, notice shall be published by posting same at the court house door of said county. [Acts 1905, p. 392; Acts 1907, p. 208; Acts 1917, p. 16.]

Art. 2545. [2441] Sealed proposals.—Any banking corporation, association or individual banker in such county desiring to bid, shall deliver to the county judge, on or before the first day of the term of the commissioners court at which the selection of a depository is to be made, a sealed proposal stating the rate of interest offered on the funds of the county for the term between the date of such bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository. Said bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for not less than one-half of one per cent of the county revenue of the preceding year as a guarantee of the good faith on the part of the bidder, and that, if his bid is accepted, he will enter into the bond hereinafter provided. Upon the failure of the banking corporation, association or individual banker in such county that may be selected as such depository, to give the bond required by law, the amount of such certified check shall go to the county as liquidated damages, and the county judge shall readvertise for bids. [Id.]

Art. 2546. [2442] Opening bids and selecting depository.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners court at 10 o'clock a. m., on the first day of each term at which bids are required to be received, to publicly open such bids and cause each bid to be entered upon the minutes of the court, and to select as the depository of all the funds of the county the banking corporation, association or individual banker offering to pay the largest rate of interest per annum for said funds. The commissioners court may reject any and all bids. The interest upon such county funds shall be computed upon daily balances to the credit of such county with such depository, and shall be payable to the county treasurer monthly, and shall be placed to the credit of the jury fund or to such funds as the commissioners court may direct. When selection of a depository has been made, the checks of bidders whose bids have been rejected shall be immediately returned. The check of the bidder whose bid is accepted shall be returned when his bond is filed and approved by the commissioners court, and not until such bond is filed and approved. [Id.]

Art. 2547. [2443] Bond.—Within five days after the selection of such depository, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation, association or individual banker so selected to execute a bond or bonds, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the commissioners court and Comptroller and filed in the office of the clerk of said county, with not less than five solvent sureties, who shall own unincumbered real estate in this State not exempt from execution under the laws of this State of as great value as the amount of said bond, or of as great value as the amount of all of said bonds when more than one bond; and said bond or bonds shall in no event be for less than the total amount of revenue of such county for the next preceding year for which the same are made. Nothing herein shall prevent the making of such bond or bonds by a surety company or companies, as provided by law, and payable as herein provided. The commissioners court may accept in lieu of such real estate or surety company, security bonds of the United States, or of this State or of any county, city, town or independent school district in the State, which shall be deposited as the commissioners court may direct, the penalty of said bond or bonds not to be less than the total amount of the annual revenue of the county for the years for which said bond or bonds are given, and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties and obligations devolving by law upon such depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon said depository by the county treasurer of the county and that said county funds shall be faithfully kept by said depository and accounted for according to law. Any suits arising thereon shall be tried in the county for which such depository is selected. [Acts 1905, p. 393; Acts 1909, p. 165; Acts 1917, p. 17.]

Art. 2548. Additional bond.—Whenever, after the creation of a county depository, as by this chapter provided, there shall accrue to the county or any subdivision thereof, any funds or moneys from the sale of bonds or otherwise, the commissioners court of such county at its first meeting after such special funds shall have come into the treasury, or depository of such county, or so soon thereafter as may be practicable, may make written demand upon the duly accredited and established depository of the county for a special additional bond as such depository in a sum equal to the whole amount of such special fund, to be kept in force so long as such fund remains in such depository. Such extra or special bond may be canceled and a new bond contem-
