poraneously substituted therefor as such special fund may have been reduced. Such special bond shall at all times be sufficient in amount to cover such special fund then on hand. Upon the failure of such depository to furnish such additional bond within thirty days from the date of such demand, the commissioners court may cause such special funds to be withdrawn upon the drafts of the county treasurer from such depository, and cause the same to be deposited in some solvent national bank or State bank whose combined capital stock and surplus is in excess of such special fund, and to leave the same or so much thereof as may not have been expended with such national bank or State bank of last deposit, until such time that such county depository may have filed with the commissioners court the required additional bond, when such special fund or so much thereof as shall not have been expended shall be forthwith returned to and deposited with such county depository. The requiring of such additional or special bond shall be optional with such commissioners court. When a banking institution selected, qualified and acting as a county depository shall become insolvent and it shall become necessary to resort to the depository bond or bonds to collect the county and State funds deposited therein, payment shall be made to the county and State pro rata.

Art. 2549. [2444] Designating depository. — As soon as said bond be given and approved by the commissioners court, and the Comptroller, an order shall be made and entered upon the minutes of said court designating such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as a depository of the funds of said county until sixty days after the time fixed for the next selection of a depository; and, thereupon, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county, immediately upon the making of such order, to transfer to said depository all the funds belonging to said county, as well as all funds belonging to any district or other municipal subdivision thereof not selecting its own depository, and immediately upon receipt of any money thereafter, to deposit the same with said depository to the credit of said county, district and municipalities; and, for each and every failure to make such deposit, the county treasurer shall be liable to said depository for ten per cent, upon the amount not so deposited, to be recovered by civil action against such treasurer and the sureties on his official bond in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county. It shall also be the duty of the tax collector of such county to deposit all taxes collected by him, or under his authority, for the State and such county and its various districts and other municipal subdivisions, in such depository or depositories, as soon as collected, pending the preparation of his report of such collections and settlement thereon, which shall bear interest on daily balances at the same rate as such depository or depositories have undertaken to pay for the use of county funds, and the interest accruing thereon shall be apportioned by the tax collector to the various funds earning the same. The bond of such county depository or depositories shall stand as security for all such funds.

If the tax collector of such county shall fail or refuse to deposit tax money collected as herein required, he shall be liable to such depository or depositories for ten per cent upon the amount not so deposited and shall in addition be liable to the State and county and its various districts and other municipal subdivisions for all sums which would have been earned had this provision been complied with, which interest may be recovered in a suit by the State. Upon such funds being deposited as herein required, the tax collector and sureties on his bonds shall thereafter be relieved of responsibility for its safe-keeping. All money subject to the control of the county treasurer or payable on his order, belonging to districts or other municipal subdivisions selecting no depository, are hereby declared to be "county funds" within the meaning of this chapter and shall be deposited in accordance with its requirements and shall be considered in fixing the amount of the bond of such depository. [Acts 1905, p. 393; Acts 1917, p. 19.]

Art. 2550. [2445] Deposits not bid for.—If for any reason there shall be submitted no proposals by any banking corporation, association or individual banker to act as county depository, or in case no bid for the entire amount of the county funds shall be made, or in case all proposals made shall be declined, then in any such case the commissioners court shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to deposit the funds of the county with any one or more banking corporation, association or individual banker, in the county or in adjoining counties in such amounts and for such periods as may be deemed advisable by the court, and at such rate of interest, not less than one and one-half per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon by the court and the banker or banking concern receiving the deposit, interest to be computed upon daily balances due the county treasurer. Any banker or banking concern receiving deposits under this article shall execute a bond in the manner and form provided for depositories of all funds of the county, with all the conditions provided for same, the penalty of said bonds to be not less than the total amount of county funds to be deposited with such banker or banking concern. [Id.]

Art. 2551. [2446] Clearing house to be selected.—When the funds of any county shall be deposited with two or more depositories, the commissioners court shall select and name by order one of said depositories to act as a clearing house for the others, at which all county warrants shall be finally paid. [Acts 1905, p. 393, Sec. 26.]

Art. 2552. [2447] Checks payable at county seat.—It shall be the duty of the depository to provide for the payment, upon presentment at the county seat of the county, of all checks drawn by the county treasurer upon the funds of said county, as long as such funds shall be in the possession of the depository subject to such checks. For every failure to pay any such check at such county seat upon presentment, said depository shall forfeit and pay to the holder of such check ten per cent of the amount thereof; and the commissioners court shall revoke the order creating such depository and the amount of its bid shall not be returned, but shall be forfeited to the county. [Id. Sec. 27.]

Art. 2553. [2448] Depository not located at county seat.—If any depository selected by the commissioners court be not located at the seat of such county, said depository shall file with the county treasurer of such county a statement designating the place at said county seat where, and the person by whom, all deposits may be received from the treasurer for such depository, and where and by whom all checks will be paid; and such depository shall cause every check to be paid upon presentation at the place so designated so long as the said depository has sufficient funds to the credit of said county applicable to its payment. [Id. Sec. 28.]

Art. 2554. [2449] Warrants, how paid and charged.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer, upon the presentation to him of any warrant drawn by the proper authority, if there shall be money enough in the depository belonging to the funds upon which said warrant is drawn and out of which the same is payable, to draw his check as county treasurer upon the county depository in favor of the legal holder of said warrant, and to take up said warrant and to charge same to the fund upon which it is drawn. No county treasurer shall draw any check upon the funds with said depository, unless there is sufficient money belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn to pay the same. No money belonging to said county shall be paid by said depository, except upon the check of the county treasurer. It shall be the duty of such depository to make a detailed statement to the commissioners court at each regular term of said court, showing the daily balances of the preceding quarter. In case any bonds, coupons or other indebtedness of any county, by the terms thereof, are payable at any particular place other than the treasury of the county, nothing herein contained shall prevent the commissioners court of any such county from causing the treasurer to place a sufficient sum at the place where such debts shall be payable at the time and place of their maturity. [Id.]

Art. 2555. [2450] May select at subsequent term.—If for any reason, no selection of a depository be made at the time provided by law, the commissioners court may, at any subsequent time after twenty days notice, select a depository in the manner provided for such selection at the regular time; and the depository so selected shall remain the depository until the next regular time for selecting a depository, unless the order selecting and naming such depository be revoked for lawful reasons. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 2556. [2451] New bond may be required.—If the commissioners court shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the county, it may require any depository to execute a new bond; and, if said new bond be not filed within five days from the time of the service of a copy of said order upon said depository, the commissioners court may proceed to the selection of another depository in the manner provided for the selection of a depository at the regular time for such selection. [Id. Sec. 31.]

Art. 2557. [2452] Liability of Treasurer.—The county treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the county funds through the failure or negligence of any depository; but nothing in this chapter shall release any county treasurer for any loss resulting from any official misconduct or negligence on his part, nor from any responsibility for the funds of the county until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, nor for any misappropriation of such funds by him. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 2558. [2453] Bids from adjoining county.—If there be no bank situated within the county that seeks to select a county depository, then the commissioners court shall advertise for bids in the adjoining counties in the manner provided by the first article of this chapter. When a depository has been selected by the commissioners court in the manner set forth in this law said county depository shall, within five days after notice of such selection has been given to said depository, file with the county treasurer of such county a statement designating the place at said county seat where, and the person by whom, all deposits may be received from the treasurer for such depository, and where and by whom all checks will be paid. [Id. Sec. 33.]

Art. 2559. [2454] Council to take bids for depository.—The governing body of every city in this State incorporated under the general laws thereof, or incorporated under special charter, at its regular meeting in July of each year, is authorized to receive sealed proposals for the custody of the city funds, from any banking corporation, association or individual banker, doing business within the city, that may desire to be selected as the depository of the funds of the city. The school funds, from whatever source derived, of incorporated cities, is part of the city funds and is subject to the provisions of this chapter. Notice that such bids will be received shall be published by the city secretary not less than one nor more than four weeks before such meeting, in some newspaper published in the city. Any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, doing business in the city desiring to bid, shall deliver to the city secretary, on or before the day of such meeting designated by said published notice, a sealed proposal, stating the rate per cent upon daily balances that such bidder offers to pay to the city for the privilege of being made the depository of the funds of the city for the year next following the date of such meeting; or, in the event that such selection shall be made for a less term than one year, as hereinafter provided, then for the time between the date of such bid and the next regular time for the selection of a depository as aforesaid. All such proposals shall be securely kept by the secretary, and shall not be opened until the meeting of the council for the purpose of passing upon the same; nor shall any other proposals be received after they shall have been opened. [Acts 1905, pp. 260, 395; Acts 1917, p. 132.]

Art. 2560. [2455] Award and bond.—Upon opening of the sealed proposals submitted, the governing body shall select as the depository of such funds the banking corporation, association, or individual banker offering to pay to the city the largest amount for such privileges. The council shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and readvertise for new proposals. Within five days after the selection of such depository, it shall be the duty of the banking corporation, association or individual banker, so selected to execute a bond, payable to the city, to be approved by the mayor with the concurrence of the city council, and filed with the city secretary, with not less than three solvent sureties, who, shall own unincumbered real estate in the county in which said city is located, of as great value as the amount of said bond; or said depository may make such bond in some approved fidelity and surety company, the penalty of said bond to be at least double the total revenues of the city for the preceding fiscal year, and conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties and obligations devolving by law or ordinance upon said depository, and for the payment upon presentation of all checks drawn upon said depository by the city treasurer, whenever any funds shall be in said depository applicable to the payment of said check, and that all funds of the city shall be faithfully kept by said depository, and with the interest thereon accounted for according to law; and for a breach of said bond, the city may maintain an action in its name. [Acts 1905, pp. 260, 396, Sec. 35.]

Art. 2561. [2456] Designating depository, etc.—As soon as said bond shall be given and approved, an order shall be made by the council designating said banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the funds of the city until the time fixed by this chapter for another selection, and such order shall be entered upon the minutes. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer, immediately upon the making of said order, to transfer to said depository all the funds in his hands belonging to the city, and, immediately upon the receipt of the money thereafter, he shall deposit the same with said depository to the credit of the city; and, for each and every failure to make such deposit, the treasurer and his bondsmen shall be liable to said depository for ten per cent per month upon the amount not so deposited, to be recovered by civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction. If any banking corporation, association, or individual banker, after having been selected as such depository, shall fail to give bond within the time provided by this chapter, then the selection of such banking corporation, association, or individual banker, as the depository of the city funds shall be set aside and be null and void, and the governing body shall, after notice published in the manner hereinbefore provided, proceed to receive new bids and select another depository. [Acts 1905, p. 261, Id. Sec. 36.]

Art. 2562. [2457] Warrant and checks paid.—The city treasurer, upon presentation to him of any warrant drawn by the proper authority, if there shall be enough money in the depository belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn and out of which the same is payable, shall draw his check as city treasurer upon the city depository in favor of the legal holder of said warrant, and take up said warrant, and charge the same to the fund upon which it is drawn. In no case shall the city treasurer draw any check upon any fund in the city depository, unless there is sufficient money belonging to the fund upon which said warrant is drawn to pay the same. No money belonging to the city shall be paid out of the city depository, except upon checks of the city treasurer. All such checks shall be payable by said depository at its place of business in the city. In case any bonds or coupons or other indebtedness of the city are payable, by the terms of such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness, at any particular place other than the city treasury, nothing herein shall prevent the governing body from causing the treasurer to withdraw from the depository and to place at the place where such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness shall be payable at the time of their maturity, a sufficient sum to meet the same. [Acts 1905, p. 261. Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 2563. [2458] May select at subsequent meeting.—If for any reason no selection of a depository is made at the time fixed by this chapter, said governing body may, at any subsequent meeting, after notice published as hereinbefore provided, receive bids and select a depository in the manner herein set out, and the banking corporation, association, or individual banker so selected shall remain the depository until the next regular term for the selection of a depository, unless the order selecting it be revoked for the causes specified in this chapter. If the governing body shall at any time deem it necessary for the protection of the city, it may by resolution, require the depository to execute a new bond; and, upon failure to do so within five days after the service of a copy of the resolution on said depository, said body may proceed to select another depository in the manner hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

Art. 2564. [2458] Liability of treasurer.—The city treasurer shall not be responsible for any loss of the city funds through the negligence, failure or wrongful act of such depository, but nothing in this chapter shall release said treasurer from responsibility for any loss resulting from any official misconduct on his part nor from responsibility for the said funds at any time when, for any reason, there shall be no city depository, nor until a depository shall be selected and the funds deposited therein, nor for any misappropriation of such funds in any manner by him. [Acts 1905, p. 261. Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 2565. [2459] Restrictions upon drawing.—No check shall be drawn upon the city depository by the treasurer, except upon a warrant signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary. No warrant shall be drawn by the mayor and secretary upon any of the special funds, created for the purpose of paying the bonded indebtedness of said city, in the hands of the city treasurer, or in the depository, for any purpose whatsoever other than to pay the principal or interest of said indebtedness, or for the purpose of investing said special fund according to law. No city treasurer shall pay or issue a check to pay any money out of any special fund created for the purpose of paying any bonded indebtedness of said city other than for the purpose of paying interest due on said bonds, the principal of said bonds, or for the purpose of making an investment of said fund according to law. The treasurer shall report to the council on or before its first regular meeting of July in each year, the amount of receipts and expenditures of the treasury, the amount of money on hand in each fund, and the amount of bonds falling due for the redemption of which provision must be made; also the amount of interest to be paid during the next fiscal year, and such other reports as the existing law requires of him. [Acts 1905, p. 262. Id. Sec. 39.]

Art. 2566. [2460] Definitions of terms.—All provisions of this chapter shall apply to towns and villages incorporated under the general laws of Texas, as well as to cities so incorporated, and the terms "city secretary", and "secretary" shall be construed to include the clerk or secretary of such towns and villages; the term, "city treasurer" shall be construed to include the treasurer of such towns and villages, and the term "city" shall be construed to include towns and villages. [Acts 1905, p. 262, Id. Sec. 40.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

SPECIAL DEPOSITORY.

Art. 2567. Selection of special depository.—When any bank, which is a county, city or district depository of public funds under the laws of this State, suspends business or is taken charge of by the Comptroller of the currency or the Commissioner of Banking, as the case may be, the lawful county, city or district authorities, authorized to select the depository in the first instance, shall have the discretion and authority to select by contract a special depository for the public funds in such suspended bank. Such special depository shall assume the payment of the amount of public funds due by the suspended bank on the date of its suspension, including interest to that date, and shall pay the same to the lawfully designated public authority in accordance with the contract entered into by such special depository. The contract shall be for the performance of the agreement entered into between the proper public authorities designated above, and the special depository, and shall require the payment of the deposit in such installments as may be agreed upon, the last of which shall be paid not exceeding three years from the date of the contract. The installments, or the amount due, may be evidenced in the discretion of the contracting parties by negotiable certificates of deposit or cashier's checks, payable at specified dates, if made a part of the contract. The performance of the contract and the payment of funds described therein shall be secured by bond, or by several bonds in case of installments, to be given by the special depository with the same character of sureties as is required by regular depository bonds. The contracts and bonds of special depositories shall be approved by the authority authorized by law to approve contracts and bonds of regularly selected depositories. The rate of interest which funds placed in a special depository hereunder shall bear shall be fixed by the contract, or such funds may, in the discretion of the contracting parties, be non-interest bearing. [Acts 1921, p. 68.]

Art. 2568. For State funds.—If any State funds are in the county depository which has failed, the amount thereof shall be ascertained by the Comptroller, who shall be authorized in his discretion to enter into a contract for the custody and payment of the same, with the special depository selected by the county authorities in the same manner that the county authorities are herein authorized so to do, and to take and approve contracts and bonds therefor. State funds thus placed in such special depository shall bear the average rate of interest received by the State on State funds placed with the regularly selected State depositories. [Id.]

Art. 2569. Selection optional.—Nothing in this chapter shall require the State, county, city or district authorities to select any special depository as herein permitted, but they may proceed by their lawful remedies against the failed bank, if, in their discretion, it is best for the public interest so to do. [Id.]

Such report shall give all the information called for by the State Board and such other matters as the State Superintendent shall deem important. The Governor shall lay such report before the Legislature and two thousand copies of said report shall be printed in pamphlet form for the use of the Legislature and for distribution among the various school officers and libraries within the State, and other States and territories of the United States and Canada, and the Bureau of Education at Washington. The Governor shall be ex officio president of the board. The State Superintendent shall be ex officio secretary of the Board and shall keep a complete record of all its proceedings, which shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2665. [2729] Shall make apportionment.—The State Board shall, on or before the first day of August in each year, based on the estimate theretofore furnished said Board by the Comptroller, make an apportionment for the ensuing scholastic year of the available State school fund among the several counties of the State, and the several cities and towns and school districts constituting separate school organizations, according to the scholastic population of each; and thereupon the secretary shall certify to the treasurer of each such separate school organization the total amount of available school fund so apportioned to each, which certificate shall be signed by the president, countersigned by the Comptroller and attested by the secretary. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 432.]

Art. 2666. [2733] New districts created at eleemosynary institutions.—The State Board is authorized to create new school districts at such of the several eleemosynary institutions of this State, including the State Orphan Asylum, or at any and all orphan homes or like institutions that may be established by any fraternal organization; provided, that the number of children within the scholastic age in each instance be sufficient to justify such action. The territorial limits in each case shall be co-extensive with the property lines of the institution. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2667. [2734] Trustees for such districts.—Upon the exercise of such power, the State Superintendent shall appoint a board of three trustees for each district so created; and such trustees need not be residents of such district, and the fact shall be duly certified to local authorities for information and observance; and upon the creation of such districts the trustees shall take and certify the census of the children within the scholastic age, and the funds shall thereafter be apportioned directly to such district; and the law pertaining to independent districts shall govern so far as applicable, though the State Board may make special regulations and orders for the government of such districts as they may deem expedient. [Id.]

Art. 2668. [2735] Transfer of funds.—Upon the creation of such district, the county school superintendent shall transfer to such district whatever amount of money may have been apportioned for the current school year to the old district, for and in behalf of the children included in the new district; provided only, such children may not have had the advantage of such fund in the old district.

Art. 2669. [2736] Investing school fund.—The State Board is authorized and empowered to invest the permanent public free school funds of the State in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas or any county thereof, and the independent or common school districts, road precinct, drainage, irrigation, navigation, and levee districts in this State, and the bonds of incorporated cities and towns. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1909, p. 216.]

Art. 2670. [2737] Purchase of bonds.—When any county bonds, or the bonds of any incorporated city, independent or common school district, road precinct, drainage, irrigation, navigation and levee districts are offered for sale, the party offering, or proposing to sell, such bonds shall first submit them to the Attorney General who shall carefully inspect and examine the same in connection with the law under which they were issued, and shall diligently inquire into the facts and circumstances so far as may be necessary to determine the validity thereof; and, upon being satisfied that such bonds were issued in conformity with law, and that they are valid and binding obligations, he shall thereupon certify to their validity, and his certificate to that effect, so procured by the party offering such bonds for sale, shall be submitted to the Comptroller or State Board with the bonds so offered for sale, and shall be carefully preserved by the Comptroller. If the same be purchased from the county, city, precinct or district issuing the same, or from any person authorized to act for it in the negotiations or sale of such bonds, such bonds shall thereafter be held to be valid and binding obligations in every action or proceeding in which their validity is or may be called in question, unless fraudulently issued, or issued in violation of the constitutional limitation. In every such action such certificate of the Attorney General shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of the bonds and coupons thereto, which may have been so purchased. [Id.]

Art. 2671. [2738] Conditions of purchase.—The Comptroller or State Board shall carefully examine the bonds so offered and investigate the facts tending to show the validity thereof; and such Board may decline to purchase same unless satisfied that they are a safe and proper investment for such fund. No bonds shall be so purchased that bear less than three per cent interest. No bonds, except State or Federal bonds, shall be so purchased when the indebtedness of the county, city, precinct or district issuing same, inclusive of the bonds so offered, shall exceed seven per cent of the assessed value of the real estate therein. If default be made in the payment of interest due upon such bonds, the State Board may at any time prior to the payment of such overdue interest, elect to treat the principal as also due, and the same shall thereupon, at the option of said Board become due and payable; and the payment of both such principal and interest shall in all such cases be enforced in the manner provided by law, and the right to enforce such collection shall never be barred by any law or limitation whatever. [Id.]

Art. 2672. [2739] Estoppel.—In all cases where the proceeds of the sale of any bonds have been received by the proper officers of any such county, city, precinct or district, or by the party acting for it in negotiating the sale thereof, such county, city, precinct or district shall thereafter be estopped from denying the validity of such bonds so issued, and the same shall be held to be valid and binding obligations for the amount of bonds sued on and interest thereon, at the rate mentioned therein, deducting such amounts, if any, as have been previously paid thereon. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1909, p. 216.]

Art. 2673. [2740] Option to purchase.—Whenever any county, city, independent or common school district, road precinct, drainage, irrigation, navigation or levee district of this State issues any bonds, and they have been approved by the Attorney General, as required by the preceding articles, the county judge, the mayor, the president of the board of trustees of the school district, or the county judge or party authorized by law to sell such bonds, shall notify the State Board of all bids received for such bonds, and shall give said Board an option of ten days in which to purchase such bonds; provided, that said Board will pay the price offered for such bonds by the best bona fide bidder; and, if the Board fails to purchase such bonds within said time, then such county judge, mayor, or president shall sell the bonds to the best bona fide bidder. If the State Board shall pay a premium out of the permanent school fund, on any bonds purchased as an investment for the permanent school fund, then the principal of such bonds and an amount of the interest first accruing on such bonds equal to the premium so paid, shall be treated as the principal in such investment, and, when such first interest is collected, such sum of the same shall be returned to the permanent school fund, and, if they purchase said bonds for less than par, the discount they receive in the purchase of said bonds shall be paid to the available school fund when the bonds are paid off and discharged. The price paid for bonds shall be indorsed thereon at the time the same are purchased. If said Board shall refuse to purchase bonds from such county, city, precinct or district, or the parties to whom said bonds were issued, then in no event shall said Board purchase said bonds from any subsequent owner or holder of the same. [Id.]

Art. 2674. [2742] Jurisdiction.—The district court of Travis County shall have jurisdiction of any suit upon bonds or obligations belonging to the permanent public school funds, or purchased therewith, concurrent with that of any other court having jurisdiction in said case. [Id.]

Art. 2675. [2743] Extent of these provisions.—The provisions of the six preceding articles shall extend to any bonds or securities other than the bonds of the State or of the United States, in which the public school funds are or may be invested, as is or may be authorized or prescribed by law, and also to any bonds or securities purchased with any of the permanent funds set apart for the support, maintenance and improvement of any asylum or other institution of this State. [Id.]

Art. 2676. Election.—The general management and control of the public free schools and high schools in each county shall be vested in five county school trustees elected from the county, one of whom shall be elected from the county at large by the qualified voters of the common school districts of the county, and one from each commissioners precinct by the qualified voters of each commissioners precinct, who shall hold office for a term of two years. The time for such election shall be the first Saturday in April of each year; the order for the election of county school trustees to be made by the county judge at least thirty days prior to the date of said election, and such order shall designate one voting place for each common school district. The election officers appointed to hold the election for trustees in each common school district shall hold the election at the same place therein for the county school trustees. Each year there shall be elected alternately two county school trustees and three county school trustees in each county. The State Superintendent shall prepare a proper form of the ballot to be used in such election and such other explanation of the laws as he deems necessary, and transmit the same to the county judge of each county at least sixty days prior to the date of such election. All vacancies shall be filled by the remaining trustees. [Acts 1915, p. 69.]

Art. 2677. Qualifications.—The county school trustees shall be qualified voters of the precinct or county from which they are elected, and four of them shall reside in different commissioners precincts. They shall be of good moral character, able to read and speak the English language, shall be persons of good education, and shall be in sympathy with public free schools. The returns of their election shall be made to the county clerk within five days after such election shall have been held, to be delivered by him to the commissioners court at its first meeting thereafter to be canvassed and the results declared as in cases of other elections. The county clerk shall issue to said trustees their commissions and impress thereon the seal of the said court after they have taken the official oath and filed same with said clerk. [Id.]

Art. 2678. To classify schools.—Said trustees shall classify the schools of the county in accordance with such regulations as the State Superintendent may prescribe into elementary schools and high schools for the purpose of promoting high schools at convenient and suitable places. In classifying the schools and in establishing high schools, said trustees shall confer and advise with the county superintendent and the school trustees of each district at interest, and shall give due regard to schools already located, to the distribution of population, and to the advancement in their studies. The county trustees shall not so classify any school as to deprive any child of scholastic age of its right to receive instruction in the grades to which it belongs in the public school of the district in which it resides, unless arrangements are made by said trustees for said child to attend a school of proper classification free of charge in another district which is within three miles from the home of said child, the distance to be computed according to the route or road commonly traveled in going from the home of said child to the school building; or unless the trustees shall arrange for the free transportation daily of said child to and from the school of proper classification, such expense to be paid for by the district trustees out of the funds of the district in which the child actually resides. The county superintendent of public instruction and the county school trustees shall see that every child of scholastic age is properly provided for as herein required, and the State Superintendent shall transmit definite and specific instructions to the county superintendent, and the county trustees and the district trustees with respect to the proper observance and administration of this law, to the end that no child shall be deprived of its right to attend school. The county school trustees shall, in co-operation with the county superintendent of public instruction, prescribe a course of study for the public schools of the county conforming to the law and the requirements of the State Superintendent. [Id.]

Art. 2679. Classification of high schools.—The public high schools of the State shall, upon satisfactory evidence, be ranked by the State Department of Education as follows:

1. A high school of the first class shall be one which maintains at least four years or grades of work above the seventh grade or years, may include in its curriculum the first seven grades or years of work, shall employ at least two teachers to teach high school subjects, who shall each hold a State first grade certificate or certificate of higher grade, and shall be maintained for not less than eight scholastic months during each school year.

2. A high school of the second class shall be one which maintains at least three years or grades of work above the seventh grade or year, and shall otherwise conform to the requirements for the first class.

3. A high school of the third class shall be a high school which maintains at least two years or grades of work above the seventh grade or year, may include in its curriculum the first seven years or grades of work, shall employ at least one teacher to teach high school subjects, who shall hold a State first grade certificate or certificate of higher grade, and shall be maintained for not less than seven scholastic months during each school year.

Each such class of high schools shall be entitled to receive a certificate of approval or classification from the State Department of Education. Other high schools shall not be prohibited by this law, but shall not be entitled to receive such certificate. A grade or year of work as herein mentioned shall consist of not less than thirty-two weeks of five days each. [Acts 1911, p. 34; Acts 1915, p. 71.]

Art. 2680. Subjects in high schools.—Besides the subjects prescribed by law to be taught in the public schools of Texas, such additional subjects as agriculture, manual training, domestic economy or other vocational branches shall be included in the course of study in all high schools provided for herein which are located outside of incorporated towns and cities, and special attention shall be given to teaching said subjects. [Acts 1915, p. 71.]

Art. 2681. School districts.—The county school trustees are authorized to exercise the authority heretofore vested in the commissioners court with respect to subdividing the county into school districts, and making changes in school district lines. Said trustees shall call an annual joint meeting of the district and county school trustees of the county to be held at the county seat at some convenient season in August or September of each year, to be presided over by the chairman of the county school trustees. They shall consider questions dealing with the location of high schools and the teaching of high school subjects, the classification of schools and such other matters as may pertain to the location, conduct, maintenance and discipline of schools, the terms thereof, and other matters of interest in school affairs of the county, and the county school trustees shall be guided in their action by the result of the deliberation of such meeting, not inconsistent with law. The county school trustees may also call other meetings of the district school trustees, when deemed necessary by them, or on the petition of a majority of such district school trustees. The county superintendent, as secretary of the county school trustees, shall keep an accurate and complete record in a well bound book provided for that purpose, the field notes of all changes made in school district lines, and of all proceedings of the county school trustees. A certified copy of such change in a school district line shall be made and transmitted by the county superintendent to the county clerk, and the county clerk shall record the field notes and certified copy of such change in a well bound book to be designated as the "Record of School Districts." In providing better schooling for the children and in carrying out the provisions of article 2678, the county superintendent shall, on the recommendation of the county school trustees, transfer children of scholastic age from one school district to another, and the amount of funds to be transferred with each child of scholastic age shall be the amount to which the district from which the child is transferred is entitled to receive. [Id.]

Art. 2682. Supervisory powers of district court.—The district court shall have general supervisory control of the actions of the county board of school trustees in creating, changing and modifying school districts. [Id.]

Art. 2683. Powers of trustees.—The county school trustees of each county shall constitute a body corporate, by the name of the county school trustees of _____ County, State of Texas, and in that name may acquire and hold real and personal property, sue and be sued, and may receive bequests and donations or other moneys or funds coming legally into their hands, and may perform other acts for the promotion of education in the county. The title to any school property belonging to the county, the title of which has heretofore been vested in the county judge and his successors in office, or any school property that may be acquired, shall vest in the county school trustees and their successors in office for public free school purposes.

Art. 2684. Organization.—At the regular meeting in May, the county trustees shall elect one of their number president; and three trustees shall be a quorum to transact business, and all questions shall be decided by majority vote. The secretary shall keep a true and correct record of all the proceedings of said county school trustees in a well bound book, which shall be open to public inspection. He shall keep an accurate record of the term of office of each common school district and county school trustee, and shall furnish the county judge at least sixty days prior to the date of their election the number of trustees to be elected in each district or precinct or in the county at large.

Art. 2685. Apportionment of fund.—Upon receiving notice from the State Superintendent of the amount of State available school funds apportioned to the county, exclusive of all independent districts having each more than one hundred and fifty scholastics, the county school trustees, acting with the county superintendent, shall apportion all available State and county funds to the school districts as prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 2686. Appeals.—All appeals from the decisions of the county superintendent shall lie to the county school trustees and from the said county trustees to the State Superintendent and thence to the State Board of Education. [Id.]

Art. 2687. Meetings.—The county school trustees shall hold meetings once each quarter, on the first Monday in August, February, May and November, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and at other times when called by the president of the county school trustees or at the instance of any two members of the county school trustees and the county superintendent, the meeting place to be at the county seat and in the office of the county superintendent. Each trustee shall be paid three dollars per day, but not exceeding thirty-six dollars in any one year, for the time spent in attending such meetings out of the general fund of the county by warrants drawn on order of the commissioners court, after approval of the account, properly sworn to, by the president of the county school trustees. [Id.]

Art. 2688. [2750] Office established.—The commissioners court of every county having three thousand scholastic population or more as shown by the preceding scholastic census, shall at each general election provide for the election of a county superintendent to serve for a term of two years, who shall be a person of educational attainments, good moral character, and executive ability, and who shall be provided by the commissioners court with an office in the court house, and with necessary office furniture and fixtures. He shall be the holder of a teacher's first grade certificate, or teacher's permanent certificate. In every county that shall attain three thousand scholastic population or more, the commissioners court shall appoint such superintendent who shall perform the duties of such office until the election and qualification of his successor. In counties having less than three thousand scholastic population, whenever more than twenty-five per cent of the qualified voters of said county, as shown by the vote for Governor at the preceding general election, shall petition the commissioners court therefor, said court shall order an election for said county to determine whether or not the office of county superintendent shall be created in said county; and, if a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters, voting at said election, shall vote for the creation of the office of county superintendent in said county, the commissioners court, at its next regular term after the holding of said election, shall create the office of county superintendent, and name a county superintendent, who shall qualify under this chapter, and hold such office until the next general election. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1907, p. 210.]

Art. 2689. [2751] Bond.—The county superintendent shall first take the official oath and shall enter into a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, to be payable to and approved by the commissioners court, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Any sum collected on a forfeiture of said bond shall become a part of the available county school fund. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2690. [2752] Supervision of schools.—The county superintendent shall have, under the direction of the State Superintendent, the immediate supervision of all matters pertaining to public education in his county. He shall confer with the teachers and trustees and give them advice when needed, visit and examine schools, and deliver lectures that shall tend to create an interest in public education. He shall spend four days each week visiting the schools while they are in session, when it is possible for him to do so. He shall have authority over all of the public schools within his county, except such of the independent school districts as have a scholastic population of five hundred or more. In such independent school districts as have less than five hundred scholastic population, the reports of the principals and treasurers to the State Department of Education shall be approved by the county superintendent before they are forwarded to the State Superintendent. All appeals in such independent school districts shall lie to the county superintendent, and from the decisions of the county superintendent to the State Superintendent, and thence to the State Board of Education. [Id.; Acts 1907, p. 210.]

Art. 2691. [2753] Teachers' institutes.—The county superintendent shall organize and hold, with such assistance as may be necessary, within the first four months of the scholastic year, one institute of five consecutive days for white and for colored teachers, respectively, and he shall require the attendance of all teachers upon their respective institutes. A failure to comply with these requirements shall be a sufficient cause for his removal from office. The county superintendent shall be authorized to cancel the certificate of any teacher who wilfully and persistently absents himself from attendance upon said institute. The board of school trustees in any independent school district having five hundred or more scholastic population, may authorize the superintendent or principal to organize and hold institutes for the teachers of such district, in lieu of the county institute; provided, that the plan, scope and quality of the work of said city institutes shall be approved by the State Superintendent. [Id.]

Art. 2692. [2755] Shall apportion funds.—The county superintendent, upon the receipt of the certificate issued by the State Board of Education for the State fund belonging to his county, shall apportion the same to the several school districts, not including the independent school districts of the county, making a pro rata distribution as per the scholastic census, and shall at the same time apportion the income arising from the county school fund to all the school districts, including the independent school districts of the county, making a pro rata distribution as per scholastic census. Within thirty days after such apportionment, the trustees of each district shall, if possible, agree upon a division of the funds of the district among the schools thereof, and shall fix the term for which the schools of the district shall be maintained for the year. Should they agree upon a division of the funds of the district or upon the length of the term for which the schools of the district shall be maintained, they shall at once certify their agreement to the county superintendent who shall not approve any contracts with teachers of the district until such agreement is received. Should the trustees fail to agree, they shall at once certify their disagreement to the county superintendent who shall proceed to fix the school term of such school district and declare the division of the school fund of the district among the schools thereof, endeavoring as far as practicable to provide, for the schools of such district, school terms of the same length. [Id.; Acts 1907, p. 204.]

Art. 2693. [2756] General duties.—The county superintendent shall approve all vouchers legally drawn against the school fund of his county. He shall examine all the contracts between the trustees and teachers of his county, and if, in his judgment, such contracts are proper, he shall approve the same; provided, that in considering any contract between a teacher and trustees he shall be authorized to consider the amount of salary promised to the teacher. He shall distribute all school blanks and books to the officers and teachers of the public schools, and shall make such reports to the State Superintendent as may be required by that officer. He shall discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by the State Superintendent. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2694. [2757] May administer oaths.—The county superintendents are hereby empowered to administer oaths necessary in transacting any business relating to school affairs; but shall receive no compensation for administering same. [Id.]

Art. 2695. [2759] Transfers.—Each year after the scholastic census of the county is completed, the county superintendent shall, if any district has fewer than twenty pupils of scholastic age, either white or colored, have authority to consolidate said district as to said white or colored schools with other adjoining districts, and to designate the board of trustees which shall control the white or colored school of such consolidated district. But this shall be done before the apportionment is made, and the apportionment shall be made with respect to such consolidation. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2696. [2760] Application to transfer.—Any child lawfully enrolled in any district, or independent district, may at the discretion of the county superintendent be transferred to the enrollment of any other district, or independent district, in the same county, upon the written application of the parent or guardian or person having the lawful control of such child, filed with the county superintendent. No child shall be transferred more than once. The applicant shall state in said application that it is his bona fide intention to send said child to the school to which the transfer is asked. Upon the transfer of any child, its portion of the school funds shall follow and be paid over to the district, or independent district, to which such child is transferred; provided, no transfer shall be made after August first, after the enrollment was made. [Id.]

Art. 2697. [2761] Transfer to adjoining county.—Any child specified in the preceding article, and its portion of the school fund, may be transferred to an adjoining district in another county, in the manner provided in said article. It must be shown to the county superintendent that the school in the district in which such child resides, on account of distance or some uncontrollable and dangerous obstacle, is inaccessible to such child. [Acts 1907, p. 242.]

Art. 2698. Emergency transfers.—In case of conditions resulting from public calamity in any section of the State such as serious floods, prolonged drouth, or extraordinary border disturbances, resulting after the scholastic census has been taken, in such sudden change of the scholastic population of any county as would work a hardship in the support of the public free schools of the said county, the State apportionment of any child of school age may, on approval of the State Board, be ordered by the State Superintendent to be transferred to any other county or independent school district in any other county; provided, that the facts warranting such transfer shall be sent to the State Superintendent by the county or district board of trustees of schools to which transfer is to be made with a formal request for the said transfer before the first of August of the year in which such unusual conditions occur. No application for emergency transfers shall be granted unless the number of transfers applied for exceeds twenty per cent of the number of children assigned to said district including regular transfers as a result of the preceding census. The State Superintendent shall in such case notify the county superintendent of both counties that final apportionments of school funds cannot be made under these circumstances before August 15. All arrangements for the said emergency transfers must be completed by the 15th of August following the unusual conditions causing the emergency. Children whose State funds are thus transferred to any county shall be included in the number of children for whom the county school apportionment of the said county is made. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 87; Acts 1923, p. 253.]

Art. 2699. Said courts may reduce the area of any common school district, create additional school districts, consolidate two or more adjacent districts, or subdivide any school district, if necessary for the interest of the school children; provided, no school district shall be established so as to contain less than nine square miles of territory. The area of a school district having an outstanding bonded indebtedness, shall never be reduced until after such bonded indebtedness shall have been fully discharged.

In counties containing a population of less than ten thousand, no common school district shall be organized or surveyed in such a manner that the geographical center of the same will be more than four miles from the farthest line of said district. All districts shall be located as conveniently as possible to the scholastic population. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1913, p. 259.]

Art. 2742. [2817] To designate districts.—Said courts shall give the metes and bounds of each district, and shall designate the same carefully by giving the whole surveys and parts of surveys with acreage of whole surveys and approximate acreage of parts of surveys in each district, and the county clerk shall carefully record the same; and each district shall be given a number which shall be painted in large letters or figures over the doors of the school houses, said signs to be provided by the district trustees of each district. [Id.]

Art. 2743. County line districts.—The boards of county school trustees shall have full power and authority to create common school districts, to contain territory within two or more counties. In creating said district each such board shall pass an order describing the territory to be included in such district by metes and bounds, giving the course and direction with the exact length of each line contained in such description and locating each corner called for upon the ground, and shall also give the acres of each survey and parts of survey of lands contained in such district, together with a map showing the conditions upon the ground as described in the field notes, giving the number of acres of land contained in each survey and parts of survey contained in each county; also showing the exact position and location of the county line in the territory created into such district. Said order shall also designate and name some one of the counties having territory included in the description of such district which shall manage and have control of the public schools therein for all school purposes.

Said district shall have no authority or power until said order has been passed by the board of county school trustees of each county having territory included therein. No common county line school district shall be created with or changed to a less area than nine square miles, and shall be laid out in as near the shape of a square as possible, and in no event shall the length of such district be greater than the width plus one-half of the width of such district. [Acts 1909, Ch. 17; Acts 1911, p. 200; Acts 1917, p. 441.]

Art. 2744. County line districts: powers.—Common county line school districts shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of common school districts, and for all school purposes, shall be managed and controlled by the county named in the order creating such district, and should such district desire to levy the special tax authorized by law to be levied for the purpose of the maintenance of its schools, or to issue bonds in accordance with the limitations for such purpose provided by law for common school districts, or both, after an election has been held in such common county line school district as provided by law and it has been determined by a majority vote that such district shall levy such special tax or issue such bonds, the commissioners court of the county having control of such district shall pass an order levying such tax or issuing such bonds, or both, against the territory included within such county where the commissioners court in control of the school is located, and such order levying said tax or issuing said bonds and levying a tax to pay the interest and sinking fund, shall be passed by the commissioners court of each county having territory in such district. The tax assessor shall assess the taxes levied by the commissioners court of his county against the territory included in such county line school district for each year that such tax is levied, and shall make up a separate tax roll covering the special tax on territory in his county included in the county line school district, and deliver it with the general tax rolls of his county, which shall guide the tax collector in collecting the local taxes for such school district. The tax collector shall collect such special tax for such county line district in his county for every year that such tax has been levied in such districts and keep a separate account covering the territory of his county included in county line school districts, for the purpose of determining how much tax has been collected, and such taxes shall be paid by his county to the county line school district. Such district shall not be changed or abolished except by the consent of the commissioners court of each county having territory contained therein, and if such a district has outstanding bonds the same shall not be changed or abolished in any way until after such bonds are finally paid and discharged. [Acts 1911, p. 200.]

The term of office of said trustees shall be divided into two classes, and they shall draw for the different classes; and one drawing number one shall serve for one year, and those drawing numbers two and three shall serve for two years. On the first Saturday in April of each year thereafter, alternately one and two trustees shall be elected each of whom shall serve for two years. [2819-20] Conduct of election.—Said trustees shall appoint three persons, qualified voters of the district, who shall hold such election and make returns thereof to said trustees within five days after such election, and said persons shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of one dollar each, to be paid out of the general fund of the county in which said election was held. The board of trustees, when ordering such election and appointing persons to hold election, shall give notice of the time and place where such election will be held, which notice shall be posted at three public places within the district at least twenty days prior to the date of holding said election. If, at the time and place for holding such election, any or all of the persons so appointed to hold such election are absent or refuse to act, then the electors present may select of their number a person or persons to act in the place of those absent or refusing to act. Said board of trustees shall meet and canvass the returns of said election within five days after returns have been made and declare the result of said election and issue to the persons so elected their commissions as such trustees, and shall notify the county judge or the county superintendent if the county has a superintendent. Art. 2746a. Independent School District," the number or name of the school district in which the election is to be held to be filled in by the judge of the county when he orders the ballots printed. Any person desiring to have his name placed on said official ballot, as a candidate for the office of trustee of a common school district or independent school district as herein provided shall, at least ten days before said election, file a written request with the county judge of the county in which said district is located, requesting that his name be placed on the official ballot, and no candidate shall have his name printed on said ballot unless he has complied with the provisions of this section; provided that five or more resident qualified voters in the district may request that certain names be printed. The county judge, upon receipt of said written request, and at least five days before the election, shall have the ballots printed as provided in this Act, placing on the ballot the name of each candidate who has complied with the terms of this Act and deliver a sufficient number of printed ballots and necessary election supplies to the presiding officer of the election at least one day before the election is held, the said election supplies including the ballots, poll lists and tally sheets to be delivered by the county judge by mail or in any other manner by him deemed best, to the presiding officer of said election in sealed envelopes, and said sealed envelopes shall not be opened by the election officers until the day of the election. The expense of printing the ballots and delivering same to the presiding officers, together with the other incidental expenses, shall be paid out of the general funds of the county. The election officers of said election shall be required to use the ballots so furnished by the county judge as provided by the terms of this Act. The election officers shall make returns of said election to the county judge and certify the result in the same manner as is now required by law, and said ballot boxes, which have been furnished by the local school officials shall be sent to the county judge and said election returns shall be canvassed by the commissioners' court, and together with ballot boxes shall be safely preserved for a period of three months next after the date of the election. Upon good cause shown within the discretion of the court where such suit is pending, it shall be lawful to enjoin and restrain such person from acting as such trustee during the pendency of such suit. It shall be lawful to summon such trustee before the court in the trial of such cause, and there make examination of him as to his qualifications to serve as such. If after being so summoned, such trustee fails, neglects or refuses to obey said summons and fails to appear for the purpose of examination, and fails or refuses to submit to such examination, such failure, neglect or refusal shall be prima facie evidence of his disqualification, and because thereof the court trying such cause shall be authorized to render thereupon judgment by default against such trustee so defaulting, removing him from his said office and declaring the same vacant. The county board of education of the county where such trustee has been elected shall appoint some suitable person, who is qualified by law to act as such trustee, if during the pendency of such suit said trustee shall be enjoined from so acting. If such trustee so elected shall be so removed then such trustee so appointed shall continue to serve until the next regular election of school trustees for such district. They shall have the power to employ and dismiss teachers; but in case of dismissal, teachers shall have the right of appeal to the county and State Superintendents. They shall contract with teachers and manage and supervise the schools, subject to the rules and regulations of the county and State Superintendents; they shall approve all claims against school funds of their district; provided, that the trustees, in making contracts with teachers, shall not create a deficiency debt against the district. [Id.]

Art. 2750. [2825] Contracts with teachers.—Trustees of a district shall make contracts with teachers to teach the public schools of their district, but the compensation to a teacher, under a written contract so made, shall be approved by the county superintendent before the school is taught, stating that the teacher will teach such school for the time and money specified in the contract. The board of trustees shall have authority, whenever the average daily attendance exceeds thirty-five pupils, to employ one competent assistant to every thirty-five pupils of such excess and fractional part thereof exceeding fifteen pupils. All children within the scholastic age residing in such district, though they may have settled in such district since the scholastic census was taken, shall be entitled to receive all the benefits of the schools of such district. In a district that levies a special school tax the trustees shall have the right to increase the salaries of teachers and the scholastic age, and may also have the schools taught longer than six months, if it is deemed advisable. No mechanic, contractor, material man, or other person, can contract for, or in any other manner have or acquire, any lien upon the house so erected or the land upon which the same is situated; and all contracts with such parties shall expressly stipulate for a waiver of such lien. [2846] Sale of school property.—The trustees of any school district, upon the order of the county trustees prescribing the terms thereof, when deemed advisable, may make sale of any property belonging to said school district, and apply the proceeds to the purchase of necessary grounds, or to the building or repairing of schoolhouses, or place the proceeds to the credit of the available school fund of the district. Art. 2757. [2851-54] Incorporation of town.—A town or village authorized by law to incorporate for municipal purposes, or having two hundred inhabitants or over, may form an incorporation for free school purposes only, which may include within its bounds a town or village incorporated for municipal purposes, the same not having assumed control of the public schools within its limits. The territory so incorporated shall not exceed an area of twenty-five square miles, and said corporation shall be laid out in a square as near as is practicable with reference to the location of the school building. When so desiring, written application shall be made therefor to the county judge and an election held as provided for the election of school trustees hereunder. If at such election, a majority of the votes cast be in favor of the incorporation, the county judge shall make return thereof, and cause a record of the result of such election to be made, the same as provided by law when a town or village votes to incorporate for municipal purposes. Upon such entry such town or village hereinafter called an "independent school district," shall be regarded as duly incorporated for the purpose of establishing and maintaining free schools therein, and shall, upon notice to the State Board by the board of trustees hereinafter provided for, receive such pro rata share of the available school fund as its scholastic population may entitle it to. All school incorporations formed under the provisions of this law shall have exclusive control of the public free schools within their limits, and shall have the right to levy and collect taxes and issue bonds for school purposes, the same as school incorporations heretofore formed. When a town or village is included in a corporation for free school purposes, and such town or village shall afterwards be incorporated for municipal purposes, it shall not thereby acquire a right to take the control of the schools within its limits out of the hands of the school corporation. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2758. [2852-3] Board of trustees.—The county judge shall order an election of seven school trustees for such town or village so incorporated for school purposes, who shall be elected in the same manner and at the same time, and whose term of office shall be the same as that of trustees of districts. They shall be vested with the full management and control of the free schools of such incorporated town or village, and shall in general be vested with all the powers, rights and duties in regard to the establishment and maintaining of free schools, including the powers and manner of taxation for free school purposes that are conferred by the laws of this State upon the governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns. [Id.]

Art. 2759. City control of district.—When a town or village incorporated for free school purposes only under the general law, and hereinafter designated as an "independent school district," and a city or town forming a part of such independent school district, which is incorporated for municipal purposes, under the general law, and hereinafter referred to as an incorporated city or town, shall desire to have the public schools within such independent district assumed by or under the control of such city or town, the same shall be done in the following manner:

Whenever as many as fifty or a majority of the resident qualified voters of such independent school district petition the district board of trustees thereof to order an election for the purpose of voting on such proposition of whether or not the public free schools in said district shall be assumed and controlled by such incorporated city or town, said board shall order an election to be held at the usual voting places within such district, and which election shall be ordered and held in conformity with the law governing bond and tax elections in independent school districts, except the qualified electors voting thereat need not be property tax payers, but must be qualified to vote under the laws of this State regulating general elections. [Acts 1919, 2nd. C. S. p. 32.]

Art. 2760. City control: ballot.—All persons voting at such election in favor of such proposition shall have written or printed on their ballots the words “For assuming control of the public free schools of _____ Independent School District by the city of _____, Texas,” and all persons voting at such election not in favor of such proposition shall have written or printed on their ballots the words “Against assuming control of the public free schools of _____ Independent School District by the city of _____, Texas.” [Id.]

Art. 2761. Extent of city control.—If a majority of the qualified voters voting at the election in such independent school district, shall vote in favor of the incorporated city or town assuming control of the schools of such independent school district, the district board of trustees shall certify the results of such election to the governing authority of such incorporated city or town, together with a certified copy of the record showing all the proceedings had in the incorporation of such independent school district and all boundary extensions thereto, if any, together with a well defined map accurately showing the territory described in such record. If said governing authority finds that such election has been in all respects lawfully held and the returns thereof duly and legally made, then it shall, by ordinance duly passed and entered of record, assume control and management of the public free schools within its limits, in conformity with the provisions and requirements of subdivision 3 of this chapter except as otherwise provided herein; provided, that if the boundaries of such independent school district do not coincide with the boundaries of the incorporated city or town, then the city governing body shall on the same day pass an ordinance extending its corporate line for school purposes only so that the same shall coincide with and embrace the same territory within such independent school district. If such independent school district shall have an outstanding bonded indebtedness, then the incorporated city or town shall become liable and bound for the payment of such bonded indebtedness and the governing body thereof, shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected, upon all property subject to taxation within the limits of such incorporated city or town or within the limits of such corporation as extended for school purposes only if the boundaries of the former independent school district were not the same as the boundaries of the incorporated city or town, taxes to pay interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem the same at maturity, and such tax thereafter shall be annually levied and collected so long as such bonds, or any of them, are outstanding and unpaid; and provided further that the assumption of the control of the schools of such independent school district shall not abrogate or affect any maintenance tax theretofore authorized in such independent school district and such tax shall thereafter be annually levied, assessed and collected by the proper authorities of such incorporated city or town, until increased or changed by the qualified voters in conformity with the provisions and requirements of subdivision 4 of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 2762. City control: officers.—Nothing in this law shall be construed as affecting the terms of office of any trustee previously elected in such independent school district and serving as such at the time of the assumption of the control of the district schools by the incorporated city or town, and such trustees shall be vested with the same authority as is conferred by law upon school trustees in cities and towns constituting separate and independent school districts, and shall thereafter be elected in the same manner as school trustees for such cities and towns, in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding subdivision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 2763. [2856] Small districts: laws applicable.—All incorporated districts, having each fewer than one hundred and fifty scholastics according to the latest census, shall be governed in the general administration of their schools by the laws which apply to common school districts; and all funds of such districts shall be kept in the county depositories and paid out on order of the trustees approved by the county superintendent. [Id; Acts 1909, p. 17.]

Art. 2764. Districts in several counties.—Independent school districts may be created containing territory within two or more counties in the same way and manner that towns and villages are created by law for municipal purposes; provided, that the map required by the law governing said incorporation shall show the correct location and position of the county lines involved in such incorporation proceedings. Said incorporated free school district containing territory in two or more counties shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges granted under the general laws to incorporations for free school purposes only. The same modes, manners, and methods of government and procedure provided by the general law for independent school districts incorporated for free school purposes only shall govern the management and control of the incorporated school districts for free school purposes containing territory within two or more counties. [Acts 1911, p. 200.]

Art. 2765. [2865] Extension of boundaries.—Whenever the territory heretofore incorporated, or which may hereafter be incorporated, for free school purposes, shall contain less than twenty-five square miles, and thereafter the majority of the inhabitants, qualified to vote for members of the Legislature, of any territory adjoining the limits of the town and village so incorporated, shall desire such territory to be added to and become a part of such incorporated town or village for free school purposes only, and a majority of such qualified voters sign a petition to that effect, any three of such qualified voters may file with the president of the board of trustees of such incorporated town or village the said petition, fully describing by metes and bounds the territory proposed to be annexed and showing its location with reference to the existing territory of the town or village already incorporated, provided that said territory proposed to be added must be contiguous to one line of said corporation. Upon so filing said petition, affidavits and descriptions, said president shall submit the same to the board, and, if upon investigation by the board it is found that the proposed addition will not increase the corporate limits so that the whole, when so increased, will exceed twenty-five square miles, the said board of trustees, by resolution duly entered upon its minutes, may receive such proposed territory as an addition to, and become a part of, the corporate limits of such town or village; a copy of which resolution, containing a description of the added territory, shall be filed for record in the county clerk's office of the county in which said town or village is situated, after which the territory so received shall be a part of said town or village; and the inhabitants thereof shall thenceforth be entitled to all the rights and privileges, and subject to the same liabilities of taxation as other citizens, and all property within said limits shall thenceforth be subject to such taxation as may have been, or may hereafter be, provided by said incorporation for free school purposes only. [Id.]

Art. 2766. [2866] Change of boundaries.—The commissioners court of any county shall have the authority to change the boundaries of any independent district incorporated for free school purposes only, situated in said county, when in the judgment of said court the public good demands such change; provided, that the president of the board of trustees of the independent district to be affected by the proposed change shall first be notified, and said board of trustees shall have the right to be heard in case there is opposition to the change. No such change shall be made that would reduce the total value of taxable property in any independent district against which there are outstanding bonds legally issued. [Id.]

Art. 2767. Change of districts.—All independent school districts incorporated for free school purposes within the State of Texas may be changed or abolished in the same way that is provided for the change or abolishment of a town and village or city and town, as provided by law; provided that no such district shall be diminished, changed, or abolished while it has an outstanding debt, either of bonds or otherwise, as authorized by law, against it. [Id.]

[Id.]

Art. 2771. [2871] General laws shall govern.—Schools thus organized and provided for by incorporated cities and towns shall be subject to the general laws, so far as the same are applicable; but each city or town having control of schools within its limits shall constitute a separate school district, and may provide for the organization of schools and the appropriation of its school funds in such manner as may be best suited to its population and condition. [2872] Property vested in trustees.—In every city or town in this State which has or may assume the exclusive control and management of public free schools within its limits, and which has or may determine that such exclusive control and management shall be in a board of trustees, and organized under an Act of the Sixteenth Legislature, approved April 3, 1879, and Acts amendatory thereto, the title to all houses, lands and other property owned, held, set apart, or in any way dedicated to the use and benefit of the public free schools of such city or town, including property heretofore acquired as well as that which may hereafter be acquired, shall be vested in the board of trustees and their successors in office, in trust for the use and benefit of the public free schools in such city or town; and such board of trustees shall have and exercise the exclusive control and management of such school property, and shall have and exercise the exclusive possession thereof for the purpose aforesaid; provided, that where trustees

Art. 2774. [2885] Appointment of trustees.—Towns and cities which have heretofore chosen their trustees by appointment of the city council or board of aldermen, under the provisions of Article 4018, Revised Statutes of 1895, shall be authorized to continue to choose their trustees in this manner; that is, by the appointment of the board of aldermen of said city or town; provided, that seven trustees shall be appointed at first, four of whom shall serve for one year, and three for two years; and each year thereafter, four trustees and three trustees alternately, shall be appointed for a term of two years; and further provided, that on a petition of twenty-five per cent of the voters of any such city or town, to be ascertained by the ballots cast at the last regular city election in said city or town, the mayor of such city or town shall order an election to determine whether or not the school affairs of such city or town shall be directed by a school board elected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and, in case of an affirmative vote, an election shall at once be ordered by the said mayor, for the purpose of choosing a school board consisting of seven trustees, as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 2775. [2886] Election.—In each independent district that shall hereafter be organized, the county judge of the county in which said independent district is situated shall order an election for seven trustees, who shall constitute the school board of such district, and all of whom shall serve without compensation.

All of the qualified voters of each such district shall be entitled to vote at any election for trustees hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 2776. [2887] Board shall order elections.—All elections shall be ordered by the board of trustees of each independent school district; and such order shall be made at least ten days before the date of election; and a notice of the order shall be posted at three different places in the district. The board of school trustees, at the time of ordering such election, shall appoint three persons to hold the election, and shall designate the places where the polls shall be open. Each person appointed to hold such election shall receive one dollar therefor, to be paid out of the general fund of the county as other claims are paid. All such elections shall be held, and returns thereof made to the board of school trustees, in accordance with the general election laws. The board of school trustees shall canvass such returns, declare the result of such election, and issue certificates of election to the persons shown by such returns to be elected. [Id.; Acts 1915, p. 205.]

Art. 2777. [2888-9-93] Terms of office.—The seven candidates receiving the largest number of votes at the first election, and the three or four candidates receiving the largest number of votes at all subsequent elections, shall be entitled to serve as trustees hereunder. Those elected at the first election shall determine by lot the term for which they are to serve. The four members drawing numbers one, two, three and four shall serve for one year, and the three members drawing the numbers five, six and seven shall serve two years, or until the second of April thereafter, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and regularly thereafter on the first Saturday in April of each year, four trustees and three trustees, alternately, shall be elected for a term of two years, to succeed the trustees whose term shall at that time expire. The members of the board remaining after a vacancy shall fill the same for the unexpired term. [Id.]

Art. 2778. [2890] Oath of office.—Each trustee shall first swear that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of such office; and his affidavit to that effect shall be filed after the first election with the county judge, and after all subsequent elections with the president or chairman of the school board. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2779. [2891] Organization of board.—Said trustees shall meet within twenty days after the election, or as soon thereafter as possible, for the purpose of organizing. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum to do business. They shall choose from their number a president, and they shall choose a secretary, a treasurer, assessor and collector of taxes, and other necessary officers and committees. [Id.]

Art. 2780. [2892] Power of trustees.—Said trustees shall adopt such rules, regulations and by-laws as they may deem proper; and the public free schools of such independent district shall be under their control; and they shall have the exclusive power to manage and govern said schools, and all rights and titles to property for school purposes heretofore vested in the mayor, city councils, or school trustees by articles 3995, 4013 and 4032, Revised Statutes of 1895, or other statutes, general and special, except such cities as are exempted by this title, shall be vested in said board of trustees and their successors in office; and their claims shall apply to any action or suit which may arise to which said board is a party. [Id.]

Art. 2781. [2895] Teachers' contracts.—The board of trustees of any city or town or of any independent school district may elect a superintendent or principal or teacher in the schools therein for a term not to exceed two years, and in cases of twelve month contracts the date of employment shall begin on July first and end on June thirtieth. Art. 2782. [2884] Cities exempt.—The cities of Dallas and Fort Worth shall be exempt from the provisions of this title concerning trustees. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2783. [2894] Additional courses.—Any school district having voted a tax under the provisions of the succeeding subdivision may prescribe such other studies as the board of school trustees may deem proper. [Id.; Acts 1913, p. 175.]

Art. 2784. Taxing power.—The commissioners court for the common school districts in its county, and the district school trustees for the independent school districts incorporated for school purposes only, shall have power to levy and cause to be collected the annual taxes and to issue the bonds herein authorized, subject to the following provisions:

1. In common school districts, for the further maintenance of public free schools and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein, a special tax; and in independent districts for the maintenance of schools therein, an ad valorem tax, not to exceed one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property of the district.

2. In common school and independent districts, for the purchase, construction, repair or equipment of public free school buildings within the limits of such districts and the purchase of the necessary sites therefor, a tax not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, such tax to be for the payment of the current interest on and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of bonds which said districts are empowered to issue for such purposes.

3. The amount of maintenance tax, together with the amount:

of bond tax of any district, shall never exceed one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property; and if the rate of bond tax, together with the rate of maintenance tax voted in the district, shall at any time exceed one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation, such bond tax shall operate to reduce the maintenance tax to the difference between the rate of the bond tax and one dollar.

4. No tax shall be levied, collected, abrogated, diminished or increased, and no bonds shall be issued hereunder, until such action has been authorized by a majority of the votes cast at an election held in the district for such purpose, at which none but property tax paying qualified voters of such district shall be entitled to vote.

5. All property assessed for school purposes in a common school district shall be assessed at the rate of value of property as said property is assessed for State and county purposes. [Acts 1921, p. 56.]

Art. 2785. Elections.—Before an election is held to determine the proposition of the levy of such tax or the issuance of such bonds, a petition therefor signed by twenty or more, or a majority of those entitled to vote at such election, shall be presented to the county judge of the county if for a common school district, and to the district trustees if for an independent school district. On presentation of said petition, said officer or officers shall order an election for such purpose, and order the sheriff to post notices thereof in three places in the district for three weeks prior thereto, or if for an independent district, the secretary of said board of trustees shall post such notices. The petition, election order and notice of election shall in all cases either state the specific rate of tax to be voted on or that the rate shall not exceed the limit herein specified. All election orders and notices of elections shall state the time and place of holding the election. The ballots for maintenance tax elections in common school districts shall have written or printed thereon the words "For school tax", and "Against school tax"; and for independent districts "For maintenance tax", and "Against maintenance tax". If said maintenance tax proposition is defeated at an election held for such purpose, no other election shall be held therefor within one year from the date of said election. The commissioners court for common school districts, and the board of trustees for independent districts, shall canvass the returns and declare the result of all elections hereunder; and said elections shall be held and conducted as provided by law for general elections, except as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 2786. Bonds.—Whenever the proposition to issue bonds is to be voted on in any common or independent school district hereunder, the petition, election order and notice of election must distinctly specify the amount of the bonds, the rate of interest, their maturity dates, and the purpose for which the bonds are to be used. The ballots for such election shall have written or printed thereon the words "For the issuance of bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof"; and "Against the issuance of bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof." All such bonds shall bear not more than six per cent interest per annum, and may mature serially or otherwise, not exceeding forty years from their date; provided, that when the houses are to be built of wood, said bonds shall mature in not more than twenty years from their date. Such bonds shall be examined by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller. All bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder for not less than their par value, and the proceeds of such sale shall be deposited in the county depository for the common school districts, and in the district depository for the independent school districts, to the credit of such districts, and shall be disbursed only for the purpose for which said bonds were issued, on warrants issued by the district trustees and approved by the county superintendent for common school districts, and by the president of the board of trustees and countersigned by the secretary of said board for independent districts. [Id.]

Art. 2787. Common school bonds.—If the proposition to issue said bonds of a common school district carries at an election held therefor, the commissioners court as soon thereafter as practicable shall issue said bonds on the faith and credit of said common school district. Said bonds shall express on their face: The State of Texas, the name of the county, and the number or corporate name of the district issuing said bonds. They shall be signed by the county judge, countersigned by the county clerk and registered by the county treasurer, in accordance with the general law relative to county bonds. At the time of the issuance of said bonds and each year thereafter so long as any of said bonds are outstanding, the said court shall levy a bond tax within the limits herein specified to pay the interest on said bonds and redeem the same at maturity. The rate of such tax shall be determined by the trustees of the district and county superintendent and certified by the county superintendent to the commissioners court, and said court shall levy the tax at said rate until a change is recommended by said school officers. Said tax shall be assessed and collected as provided by law for the assessment and collection of special local tax for the maintenance of public free schools. After said bonds shall have been issued and sold and said bond tax has been levied, it shall be unlawful to hold an election in said district to determine whether or not said tax shall be discontinued or lowered until said bonds, together with the interest thereon, shall have been fully paid, nor shall the limits and boundaries of said common school district ever be decreased by the county board of school trustees until all of said bonds and the accrued interest thereon shall have been fully paid. [Id.]

Art. 2787a. May pay bond.—The State Board of Education may authorize the trustees of any common school district or of any independent school district of this State to pay off and discharge, at any interest paying date whether the bonds are matured or not, all or any part of any bonded indebtedness now owned or hereafter to be owned by the State Permanent School Fund, outstanding against any common school district, or any independent school district in this State.

It shall be the duty of the school trustees of any common school district, or any independent school district of this State desiring to pay off and discharge any bonded indebtedness now owned or hereafter to be owned by the Permanent School Fund of this State, outstanding against such district or districts, before maturity thereof, to make direct application in writing to the State Board of Education at least thirty days before any interest paying date on said bonds, making known to said State Board of Education the desire of said trustees to pay off and discharge said bonded indebtedness, or any part thereof, describing said bonds or the part thereof that the trustees desire to pay off and discharge; and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education upon receipt of such application to act thereon in such manner as they deem best and notify the applicant or applicants whether the application is refused or granted in whole or in part; provided, that only such tax money as has been collected by virtue of tax levies made for the specific purpose of providing a sinking fund and paying interest on the particular bonds to be redeemed shall be expended in the redemption, taking up, or paying off of such bonds as provided in this Act; unless said bonds are being redeemed for the purpose of being refunded; and the application of the board of trustees of any common or independent school district desiring to retire bonds as herein provided shall include an affidavit to that effect in their application; and provided further, that it shall be unlawful for any person upon whom any duty rests in carrying out the provisions of this law to give or receive any commission, premium, or any compensation whatever for the performance of such duty or duties.

The provisions of this Act shall apply also to the governing boards of all cities, counties and political subdivisions in this State whose bonds are owned or may hereafter be owned by the Permanent School Fund of the State.

Art. 2788. Independent district bonds.—The bonds authorized to be issued by independent districts shall be coupon bonds, and the aggregate amount thereof shall never reach an amount such that a tax of fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property will not pay current interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity. The election for said bonds shall be held within thirty days after order of election, as fixed in the election order. The board of trustees shall at the same time fix the polling places for holding such election and name a judge and two clerks at each polling place, or more judges and clerks, if deemed necessary, and furnish all necessary ballots and other election supplies requisite to such election. Immediately after the bond election the officers holding the same shall make returns of the result thereof to the board of trustees of the district, and return the ballot box to the secretary of such board, who shall safely keep the same and deliver them together with the returns of the election to the board of trustees at its next regular or special meeting; and said board shall then canvass the returns and declare the result of said election. If said election results in favor of the issuance of bonds and the levy of the tax in payment thereof, said board, after such result has been declared, shall make an order directing the issuance of the bonds of such district and provide for the levy and collection of a tax annually of sufficient amount with which to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund with which to pay such bonds at maturity. Such bonds shall state upon their face the purpose for which they are issued, and shall be issued in the name of the independent school district, signed by the president of the board of trustees of such district, and countersigned by the secretary of such district, and have the seal of the district affixed to each bond. When said bonds have been duly approved and registered, they shall continue in the custody of and under the control of said board and shall be sold by said board for cash, either in whole or in parcels. [Id.]

Art. 2789. [2864] Refunding bonds.—Where bonds have been legally issued, or may be hereafter issued, by any town or village incorporated for free school purposes only, new bonds, bearing the same or a less rate of interest, may be issued in conformity with this subdivision in lieu thereof; provided, no election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of such new bonds; and provided, further, that the State Treasurer shall, upon order of the State Board, exchange bonds not matured held by him for the permanent school fund for the new refunding bonds issued by the same incorporation under the provisions of this subdivision, in case the rate of interest on the new bonds is not less than the rate of interest on the bonds for which they are exchanged. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2790. Independent district tax.—If an independent school district votes a maintenance tax, the board of trustees shall thereafter annually levy and cause to be assessed and collected upon the taxable property in the limits of the district for the maintenance of the public free schools of the said district such ad valorem tax as the qualified voters of such district authorized at the election held for that purpose; or if no specific rate has been voted, said board shall levy such a rate each year within that limit as it may deem judicious. Where a maintenance tax has been voted, no election to revoke, modify or increase the same shall be held until two years from the date of the election authorizing such maintenance tax. An election to revoke, modify or increase such maintenance tax, when permissible, may be obtained and held substantially as herein provided for an election to authorize such tax; provided, however, that no change or modification in such maintenance tax shall ever affect any bond tax authorized by such district. [Acts 1921, p. 56.]

Art. 2791. [2861] Independent district assessor.—The district tax assessor and collector shall have the same power and shall perform the same duties with reference to the assessment and collection of taxes for free school purposes that are conferred by law upon the city marshal of incorporated towns or villages, and he shall receive such compensation for his services as the board of trustees may allow, except in cities and towns provided for, not to exceed four per cent of the whole amount of taxes received by him. He shall give bond in double the estimated amount of taxes coming annually into his hands, payable to and to be approved by the president of the board, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and that he will pay over to the treasurer of the board all funds coming into his hands by virtue of his office as such assessor and collector; provided that in the enforced collection of taxes the board of trustees shall perform the duties which devolve in such cases upon the city council of an incorporated city or town, the president of the board of trustees shall perform the duties which devolve in such cases upon the mayor of an incorporated city or town, and the county attorney of the county in which the independent school district is located shall perform the duties which in such cases devolve upon the city attorney of an incorporated city or town under the provisions of law applicable thereto. It shall be within the discretion of the board of trustees of any independent school district to name an assessor of taxes who shall assess the taxable property within the limits of the independent school district within the time and in the manner provided by existing laws, in so far as they are applicable, and when said assessment has been equalized by a board of equalization appointed by the board of trustees for that purpose, shall prepare the tax rolls of said district and shall duly sign and certify same to the county tax collector as provided for in the succeeding article. The said assessor of taxes shall receive a fee of two per cent of the whole amount of taxes assessed by him as shown by the completed certified tax rolls. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1923, 2nd C. S., p. 78.]

Art. 2792. [2862] County assessor for independent district.—When a majority of the board of trustees of an independent district prefer to have the taxes of their district assessed and collected by the county assessor and collector, or collected only by the county tax collector, same shall be assessed and collected by said county officers and turned over to the treasurer of the independent school district for which such taxes have been collected. The property of such districts having their taxes assessed and collected by the county assessor and collector, shall not be assessed at a greater value than that assessed for county and State purposes. If said taxes are assessed by a special assessor of the independent district and are collected only by the county tax collector, the property of said district may be as-essed at a greater value than that assessed for State and county purposes and the county tax collector in such cases shall accept the rolls prepared by the special assessor and approved by the board of trustees as provided in the preceding article. When the county assessor and county collector are required to assess and collect the taxes of independent school districts they shall respectively receive one per cent for assessing and collecting same. [Id.]

Art. 2793. [2829-32] Common school tax: election.—The county judge shall appoint a presiding officer for each voting place to hold any such election in common school districts; and shall prepare the ballots for such elections, and the county shall bear the expense of having them printed. All polls for school district elections shall be opened at eight o'clock a. m., and shall be closed at six o'clock p. m. and none of the officers holding such election shall be entitled to compensation therefor. Any person may challenge a voter; but if the challenged party takes an oath that he is a qualified voter of the State and county, and that he is a resident property taxpayer in said district, he shall be entitled to vote. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1909, p. 17.]

Art. 2794. [2833-35] Change in common school tax.—At any time after the expiration of two years after any common school district has levied a school tax on itself, twenty property taxpaying qualified voters, or a majority of such voters of the district, may have an election held, upon the proper petition to the county judge, to determine whether such tax shall be abrogated, increased or diminished. Said election shall be held and conducted as other elections in said district. If the election be to abrogate or diminish the school tax, the ballots shall have written or printed thereon the words: "For abrogating school tax," or "For diminishing school tax to..... cents;" and "Against abrogating school tax," or "Against diminishing school tax to..... cents." If the election be to determine whether the tax shall be increased, the ballots shall have written or printed thereon the words: "For increase of school tax" and "Against increase of school tax." [Id.]

Art. 2795. Levy of common school tax.—The commissioners court, at the time of levying taxes for county purposes, shall also levy upon all taxable property within any common school district the rate of tax so voted if a specific rate has been voted; otherwise said court shall levy such a rate within the limit so voted as has been determined by the board of trustees of said district and the county superintendent and certified to said court by the county superintendent. If such tax has been voted after the levy of county taxes, it shall be levied at any meeting of said court prior to the delivery of the assessment rolls by the assessor. The tax assessor shall assess said tax as other taxes are assessed and make an abstract showing the amount of special taxes assessed against each school district in his county and furnish the same to the county superintendent on or before the first day of September of the year for which such taxes are assessed. The taxes levied upon the real property in said districts shall be a lien thereon and the same shall be sold for unpaid taxes in the manner and at the time of sales for State and county taxes. The tax collector shall collect said taxes as other taxes are collected. The tax assessor shall receive a commission of one-half of one per cent for assessing such tax and the tax collector a commission of one-half of one per cent for collecting the same. The tax collector shall pay all such taxes to the county treasurer, and said treasurer shall credit each school district with the amount belonging to it, and pay out the same in accordance with law. [Acts 1921, p. 56.]

Art. 2796. Districts affected.—The provisions of the twelve preceding articles relative to tax and bond elections in common school districts shall also apply to common county line school districts. The provisions hereof relative to tax and bond elections in independent school districts shall apply to any such district incorporated under general or special laws for school purposes only, and shall also apply to all such incorporated districts having each fewer than one hundred and fifty scholastics according to the latest census. [Id.]

Art. 2797. Teachers' homes.—Any common school district or independent school district, whether created by special act of the Legislature or by vote of the people, and any city or town which has assumed control of its public schools, may issue serial coupon bonds in the same manner as provided by law for the issuance of other bonds to build and equip school houses and to purchase sites therefor, for the purpose of purchasing or building a teachers' home and for purchasing land in connection therewith, provided no bonds shall be issued to provide a home in a district employing fewer than three teachers in a single school. [Acts 1923, p. 256.]

Art. 2798. [2875] Tax in cities.—After a city or town has assumed control of the public free schools within its limits, the governing body shall also submit the question to the property taxpayers as to whether or not the additional amount as provided for hereinafter shall be raised by taxation. The provisions of this subdivision relative to the holding of elections in common school and other independent districts shall apply to elections held under the provisions of this law, except as otherwise provided herein. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2799. [2877] Election for tax.—The governing body of any city or town which is a separate and independent school district, whether incorporated under any act of the Congress of the Republic or the Legislature of Texas, or under any act or incorporation whatever, shall have power by ordinance to annually levy and collect ad valorem taxes for the support and maintenance of public free schools and for the erection and equipment of public free school buildings in the city or town. The proposition submitted may be for such a rate of ad valorem tax not exceeding such per cent as may be voted by a majority vote of all votes cast at any such election. If the proposition is carried, the school tax shall be continued to be annually levied and collected for at least two years, and thereafter, unless it be discontinued at an election held to determine whether the tax shall be continued or discontinued at the request of fifty property taxpayers of such independent district. When the tax is continued no election to discontinue it shall be held for two years; when the tax is discontinued no election to levy a tax shall be held during the same year. [Id.; Acts 1917, p. 380.]

Art. 2800. [2878-9] Governing body to fix rate.—If the vote of the taxpayers is in favor of said tax, then the governing body of a city or town which has assumed exclusive control of the public free schools in its limits shall annually thereafter levy and assess upon the taxable property in the limits of such district, by ordinance duly passed and approved, in accordance with the usual assessment of taxes for municipal purposes, such additional tax, not to exceed the rate voted, as may be necessary for the support and maintenance of the public schools and for the erection and equipment of public school buildings for nine months in the year. If a specific rate of tax has been voted, the governing body shall have no discretion in determining the rate to be levied, but shall levy and assess the same at the rate voted. [Id.]

Art. 2801. [2880] Trustees to fix rate.—In a city or town constituting an independent school district, and where a special tax for school purposes has been voted by the people or provided by special charter, the board of trustees shall determine what amount of said tax, within the limit voted by the people or fixed by special charter, will be necessary for the maintenance and support of the school and for the erection and equipment of public school buildings for each current year; and the governing body of such city or town, upon the requisition of the said board of trustees, shall annually levy and collect said tax, as other taxes are levied and collected; and said tax, when collected, shall be placed at the disposal of the said school board, by paying over monthly to the treasurer of said board the amount so collected, to be used for the maintenance and support of the public free schools and for the erection and equipment of public school buildings in such district. [Id.]

Art. 2802. [2881] Assessment and collection.—In an independent school district constituted of a city or town having a city assessor and collector of taxes, such assessor and collector of taxes shall assess and collect the taxes for school purposes; provided, that in a city or town having an assessor and collector of taxes, the levy of taxes for school purposes shall be based upon the same assessment of property upon which the levy for other city purposes is based. In such a city or town, the assessor and collector of taxes shall receive no other compensation for collecting school taxes than the compensation paid him for assessing and collecting city taxes; and taxes for school purposes in such a city or town shall be assessed and collected as other city taxes are assessed and collected. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2803. [2883] Extension of city limits for school purposes.—Any city or town that has taken charge of the public free schools within its limits, or that shall hereafter take charge of the same, may, by ordinance, extend its corporation lines for school purposes only, on a petition signed by a majority of the resident qualified voters of the territory, which is to be taken into said city or town for school purposes only, and recommended by a majority vote of the trustees of the public free schools of said city or town; provided, that the proposed change shall not deprive the scholastic children of the remaining part of the common school district or districts which may be affected by the proposed change, of the opportunity of attendance upon school. The added territory shall bear its pro rata part according to taxable values of any school debt or debts that may be owed or contracted by said city or town to which it shall have been added, and shall not bear any part of any other debt that may be owed or contracted by such town or city. The property of the added territory shall bear its pro rata part of all school taxes, but of no other taxes. The added territory shall not affect the city's debts or business relations in any manner whatever, except for school purposes as provided above. The officers whose duty it is to assess and collect school taxes within the city limits shall also assess and collect school taxes within the territory added for school purposes as herein provided. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2804. Extending city limits to include district.—Whenever the limits of any incorporated city or town constituting an independent school district are so extended or enlarged as to embrace the whole or any part of any independent or common school district adjacent to such incorporated city or town, that portion of such adjacent district so embraced within the corporate limits of such incorporated city or town shall thereafter become a part of the independent school district constituted by such incorporated city or town.

If within the portion of such district so embraced there should be situated any real property belonging to such district, such city or town may acquire the same upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the governing body of such city or town and the authorities of such district.

This article shall not apply where it shall be determined at an election held within such city or town by majority vote of those voting thereon that the territory or any portion thereof to be so embraced shall not thereby become a part of the independent school district constituted by such city or town, but shall be taken into the city limits for municipal purposes only, and shall remain for school purposes a portion of the adjacent independent or common school district as though said city limits had not been extended. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 35; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 101.]

Art. 2805. Municipality assuming indebtedness.—In all cases where a district is embraced within an incorporated city or town, as provided in the preceding article; and in all cases where any town or village has been or may be incorporated for free school purposes only and which shall include within the limits thereof any portion of any common school district which has an outstanding bonded indebtedness, then such city, town or village shall become liable and bound for the payment of such proportion of the bonded indebtedness of such district as the assessed value of the portion thereof so included bears to the entire assessed value of the district from which the same was taken. The assessed values of the districts so included shall be those shown upon the last preceding county tax assessment roll after such districts are so included; such incorporated city, town or village shall pay either directly or through the officers of such district the proportion of the interest and principal of such bonded indebtedness for which it is liable. [Id.]

Art. 2806. Election to consolidate.—On the petition of twenty or a majority of the legally qualified voters of each of several contiguous common school districts praying for the consolidation of such districts for school purposes, the county judge shall issue an order for an election to be held on the same day in each such district. The county judge shall give notice of the date of such elections by publication of the order in some newspaper published in the county for twenty days prior to the date on which such elections are ordered, or by posting a notice of such elections in each of the districts, or by both such publication and posted notices. The commissioners court shall at its next meeting canvass the returns of such elections, and if the votes cast in each and all districts show a majority in favor of such consolidation, the court shall declare such common school districts consolidated.

Common school districts may in like manner be consolidated with contiguous independent school districts, and the district so created shall be known by the name of the independent school district included therein, and the management of the new district shall be under the existing board of trustees of the independent district, and all the rights and privileges granted to independent districts by the laws of this State shall be given to the consolidated independent districts created under the provisions of this law.

The term "district" as used in this and the succeeding nine articles means "consolidated common school districts," or "consolidated independent school district.” [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 167; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 169.]

Art. 2807. Consolidation: Outstanding bonds.—If at the time of such proposed consolidation there are outstanding bonds of any of such districts, then at an election held for that purpose on some future day, there shall be, or at the election held for the purposes of consolidation, there may be, submitted to the qualified tax paying voters of such proposed consolidated district the question as to whether or not the said consolidated district shall assume and pay off said outstanding bonds and whether or not a tax shall be levied therefor. If said election on the question of assuming said outstanding bonds is held on the day upon which the election on the question of consolidation is held, there shall be separate notices, ballots, and ballot boxes and tally sheets for the two separate elections. If a majority of said voters should vote at either of said elections to assume and pay off said bonded indebtedness, then said bonded indebtedness shall become valid and subsisting obligations of said consolidated district, and the proper officers thereof shall annually thereafter levy sufficient taxes to pay the interest thereon as it accrues and to create a sinking fund which in addition to the sinking funds already accumulated in the original bonded district will pay off and retire the said outstanding bonds when they shall become due. [Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., p. 167.]

Art. 2808. Consolidation: Trustees.—The board of county school trustees at its next meeting after such consolidation of school districts is declared, shall appoint a board of seven trustees for the consolidated district. No person shall be trustee who cannot read and write the English language understandingly, and who has not been a resident of this State one year, and of the district six months, prior to his appointment or election. The terms of office of three of the trustees so appointed shall expire on the first day of May next following their appointment, and the terms of office of the other four trustees shall expire on the first day of May of the succeeding year, as those so appointed shall determine by lot. Each year thereafter alternately three trustees and four trustees shall be elected by the qualified voters of the district on the first Saturday of April and trustees so elected shall enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first day of May next following and serve for a term of two years thereafter. District trustees shall qualify by taking the official oath which shall be filed with the county superintendent of the county wherein the district is situated. The board of trustees after being qualified shall immediately organize by electing one of their number president and another secretary, a report of which organization shall be filed with the county superintendent. The board of county school trustees shall fill any vacancy by appointment until the next regular election for district trustees. The board of trustees of the district shall appoint three qualified voters of the district to hold said election and make returns thereof in like manner as provided by law for holding elections for trustees in common school districts, except that the persons holding said election shall each receive two dollars a day for such services. [Id.]

Art. 2809. Consolidation: Teachers.—The board of trustees so elected shall employ a superintendent for the district, who shall be elected for one year or for two years as the trustees may determine, and who, in addition to his duties as superintendent, shall be a teacher in one of the elementary schools or the high school of the district. Acting in collaboration with the district superintendent, the board of trustees shall employ teachers for the several elementary schools of the district, or for the departments of the high school, which teachers shall be elected for one year or two years as the trustees decide, and they shall serve under the direction and supervision of the district superintendent. Contracts between the trustees and the district superintendent and teachers shall be in writing and subject to the approval of the county superintendent of the county wherein such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 2810. Consolidation: Superintendent.—The district superintendent shall visit personally and inspect the several schools of the district and advise with the teachers therein, and he shall be responsible to the district trustees and to the county superintendent for the proper conduct of the school work and the management of the schools of the district. He shall spend at least one-fourth of his time in visiting and inspecting the schools of the district, and he shall make recommendations from time to time to the district trustees and to the county superintendent for any changes which in his judgment are necessary for the proper management of the schools of the district. He shall keep such records and make such reports as are required of him by the district trustees and the county superintendent, and the county superintendent shall refuse to approve vouchers drawn against the school funds of the district until such reports are made by the district superintendent. [Id.]

Art. 2811. Consolidation: Elementary Schools.—The district trustees shall recognize or establish elementary schools within the bounds of the district as the need for such elementary schools shall appear. They shall, in so far as is practicable, provide uniform school buildings and equipment for the several elementary schools so recognized or established, and they shall arrange an annual wage schedule for the teachers employed in such elementary schools as nearly uniform as is possible. The instruction in the elementary schools of the district shall embrace not more than the first seven grades or years of work as outlined in the course of study issued by the State Superintendent and approved by the county superintendent. [Id.]

Art. 2812. Consolidation: High schools.—Said trustees may recognize or establish not more than one high school for white children and one high school for colored children within the limits of the district, which high schools shall be located with reference to the convenience of the majority of the high school pupils of either race. The instruction in such high schools may embrace any or all of the four years or grades of work above the seventh grade, as outlined by the State Superintendent and approved by the county board of trustees. Such high school may be located and conducted in connection with some of the elementary schools of the district as said trustees may decide. [Id.]

Art. 2813. Consolidation: Free transportation.—When in their judgment it is deemed necessary or expedient, said trustees may provide for the transportation of pupils to and from any elementary school or high school of the district whereupon such pupils may be in attendance, and trustees are hereby empowered to employ transportation vehicles and drivers for such service, paying the cost thereof out of the local maintenance fund of the district or out of such other funds as may be appropriated for this purpose. [Id.]

Art. 2814. Consolidation: Laws applicable.—Taxing and bonding powers as are provided for elsewhere in the laws of this State are hereby guaranteed to such consolidated districts, and rural school aid shall be extended to any or all of the schools of the districts so consolidating which comply with the laws and rulings governing the distribution of State aid to rural schools and independent districts. Appeals from such districts shall be made to the county superintendent and county board. [Id.]

Art. 2815. Dissolution.—Such consolidated districts may in the same manner provided for their consolidation, be dissolved and the districts included therein restored to their original status, except that it shall not be necessary to provide polling places in each district. Each such district when so restored shall assume and be liable for its pro rata part of the outstanding financial obligations of the consolidated district, such pro rata part to be based on the relation the total assessed valuation of all property in the district bears to the total assessed valuation of property in the consolidated district, as shown by the assessment rolls of the district for the current year. No election for the dissolution of said consolidated districts shall be held until three years have elapsed after the date of the election at which such districts were consolidated. [Id.]

Art. 2816. [2774] Taking census.—The county superintendent and the board of trustees of the independent school districts, on the first day of each January or as soon as practicable thereafter, shall appoint one of the trustees of each school district, or some other qualified person, to take the scholastic census, who shall be known as the census trustee of the district. The census trustee between the first day of March and the first day of April after his appointment, shall take a census of all the children that will be over seven and under eighteen years of age on the first day of the following September, and who are residents of the school district on said first day of April. In taking the said census he shall visit each home, residence, habitation and place of abode, and shall by actual observation and interrogation, enumerate the children thereof in the following manner: He shall use for each parent, or guardian or person having control of any such children, a prescribed form showing the name, color and nationality of the person rendering such children, the name and number of the school district in which the children reside, and the name, sex and date of birth of each such child of which he is a parent or guardian, or of which he has control. The census trustee shall require such forms to be subscribed and sworn to by the person rendering the children, and he is authorized to administer oaths for this purpose. When the census trustee visits any home or house or place of abode of a family, and fails to find either the parent or any person having legal control, he shall leave the prescribed census blank for the use of parents at such home or place of abode, with a note to the parent or guardian having legal control of such child or children, requiring that the form be filled out, signed and sworn to, and that the blank, when so filled out, shall be delivered by the parent or person having legal control of the child or children to the census trustee. [Acts 1905, p. 263; Acts 1915, p. 183.]

Art. 2817. [2775] Duty of census trustee.—Only children of the same family shall be listed on one form; and, if one person has under his control children of different family name, he shall use a separate form for each family name. The census trustee shall arrange the forms for white and colored children separately, in alphabetical order, according to the family name of the children reported thereon. He shall also make, on a prescribed form, separate census rolls for the white and colored children of his district, showing the name, age, sex and color of each child, and the name of the parent, guardian or person having control of said child, by whom it is reported. He shall also make a summary of his rolls showing the number of such children of each race of scholastic age. He shall make oath to all his rolls and summaries, and to the faithful and accurate discharge of his duties, and deliver said rolls, with the forms arranged in alphabetical order, to the county superintendent on or before June first next after his appointment. [Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2818. County line districts.—The scholastic census of all common county line school districts shall be taken under the supervision of the authorities of the county having control of such school district and reported by such county to the State Department of Education as provided by law governing the taking of the scholastic census of the State, except that the census trustee taking the census of a common county line school district shall make a separate roll of the scholastic population contained in the territory of each county in such district which shall be separate and distinct from the general census roll of such district and be returned together with the general census roll, as provided by law, to be made by the census trustees. The county superintendent of the county having control of the schools of such district shall make up a duplicate of the copy containing separately the scholastic population of each county having territory in such district and send such duplicate to the county superintendent and county treasurer of each such county to be by them used for the purpose of apportioning the county available school funds. If such district has voted a special tax for the purpose of school maintenance or the payment of interest and sinking fund on school bonds, the county superintendent of each of said counties shall, from time to time, as such taxes have been collected by his county, draw his warrant against the county treasurer or county depository of such county for such amount of available county school funds or special tax, or either or both, as the case may be, as shall be in the hands of the treasurer or depository in favor of the county treasurer of the county having control and management of the schools of such district, and upon the presentation of such warrant, the treasurer or depository against whom the warrant was drawn shall pay over to the treasurer named as depository of the county having control of the schools of the district such amount of money as is called for in such warrant. The said warrant shall be drawn in favor of the school district embracing the territory in the counties involved and in favor of the county treasurer or depository of the county having control of the schools of the districts and be credited to such school district, and the funds of such school district shall be used as provided by law for the use of the different kinds of school funds. [Acts 1911, p. 201.]

Art. 2819. [2776] Duty of county superintendent.—The rolls and summaries of the census trustee shall be preserved by the county superintendent in his office for three years after they are filed. The county superintendent shall make, on prescribed forms, separate consolidated rolls for the white and colored children of his county, showing the name, age and sex of each, together with the number of the district in which it lives, and the name of the parent or guardian, arranging the names of the children according to the alphabetical order of their family names. In making these consolidated rolls, he shall scrutinize carefully the work of the census trustees, and shall have power to summon witnesses, take affidavits and correct any errors he may find in any census trustee's roll, and he shall carefully exclude all duplicates. If he deems it necessary he may reject any roll, and appoint another census trustee to take the census of the district, in which case he shall not approve the warrant to pay the census trustee whose work has been rejected. When the county superintendent has prepared his consolidated census rolls, one for each race, he shall make a duplicate of each, and he shall make affidavit to the correctness of both originals and duplicates. The originals he shall, on or before July first, forward to the State Superintendent, and the duplicates shall be filed with the county clerk and become permanent records of his office. The county superintendent shall forward with his consolidated rolls an abstract on the prescribed form, under oath, showing the number of children of each race, of the different years of school age, and the total number of children of each race, and the total of both races in his county. In making his consolidated rolls and in investigating the work of any census trustee, the county superintendent shall refer to the forms and rolls of previous years, when necessary, and they shall be carefully preserved for this purpose. [Id.]

Art. 2820. [2777] Duty of State Superintendent.—The State Superintendent shall have authority to investigate the census of any county, to correct errors, and in extreme cases when he believes gross errors have occurred or that fraud has been practiced, he may, with the approval of the State Board, reject any county roll and require the census of the county to be retaken. [Acts 1905, p. 287.]

Art. 2821. [2778] Compensation.—For their services, the census trustees shall receive four cents per capita of the children of scholastic age taken by them in county districts and three cents per capita in towns of twenty-five hundred and not more than five thousand inhabitants, and two cents per capita in cities of more than five thousand inhabitants. The county superintendent shall receive one cent per capita of the scholastic population reported by him. These amounts shall not be paid until the census of the county is accepted by the State Superintendent, and shall be forfeited as follows: The trustee's compensation, if his work is rejected by the county superintendent and the census of his district ordered retaken; and both the county superintendent's and the trustee's compensation, if the census of the county is rejected and ordered by the State Superintendent and the State Board to be retaken. [Id.]

Art. 2822. [2779] In independent districts.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the taking of the scholastic census in cities and towns constituting independent districts, except as specially provided herein, to wit: The census trustee shall be appointed by the president of the board of trustees, and a census trustee may be appointed for each ward or school sub-district, at the discretion of the president of the school board making such appointment. The forms for the parent and the rolls shall show the street and house number or location of the house or place in which each child resides. [Id.]

[Acts 1905, p. 263.]

Art. 2824. 1. The State and county available funds shall be used exclusively for the payment of teachers' and superintendents' salaries, fees for taking the scholastic census, and interest on

The treasurer when thus selected shall serve for a term of two years and until his successor shall have been duly selected and qualified, and he shall be required to give bond in an amount equal to the estimated amount of the total receipts coming annually into his hands. In the event any member after appointment acquires a residence in the same county as another member, said acquisition of residence shall operate to vacate his position as a member of the commission. The term of office of the appointive members shall be for a period of not more than two years and shall be concurrent with the term of office of the official making the appointment. No person who has acted as a textbook agent for any author or textbook publishing house, or who has been an author or associate author of any book published by any house, or who owns stock in any school book depository, or who has directly or indirectly been concerned in the authorship of any textbook or in any textbook publishing house shall be eligible to appointment on the Textbook Commission. Any vacancy occurring on said commission from any cause shall be filled by appointment by the Governor from the list submitted under the provisions of this Act. The Governor shall within ten days make the appointment of the members of the commission who immediately shall be called together in special session to adopt such rules, regulations and by-laws to govern the action of the commission, as it may deem proper, not inconsistent with other provisions of this Act.

Art. 2840. Affidavit.—Each member of the commission before entering upon his duties as a member of the commission, shall make out and file with the Secretary of the State an affidavit that he is not and has not been directly or indirectly interested in or connected with or employed by any publishing house, person, firm or corporation submitting any books for adoption, or in any books offered for adoption, or in any books adopted, nor is he connected in business with any person or agent representing such house, person, firm or corporation to whom any contract may be awarded by said commission during the term and duration of said contract, nor does he own stock in any school book depository, and that he is not connected in any business with any person or agent representing such house, firm or corporation, and that he will not become so interested and will not accept any position as agent or representative of any person, firm or corporation who may submit any books for adoption or to whom any contract may be awarded by said commission during the term and duration of said contract.

Art. 2841. Chairman—secretary—annual meeting. — The Governor shall be chairman of the commission and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be its secretary, who shall keep a complete record of all proceedings of the Commission. The commission shall meet annually on the second Monday in October and at such other times and places as may be designated by the chairman for the purpose of considering and extending contracts, the making of new adoptions, and the keeping and operation of a complete system of uniform textbooks for the public free schools of this State in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The commission shall keep a minute book for its proceedings and on every action of the commission an "aye" and "no" vote of the members thereof shall be required, and such minute book shall be kept in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and shall be open to public inspection, and no adopted text shall be superseded or substituted or new text adopted except by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the commission.

Art. 2842. Continuing or discontinuing textbooks.—It shall be the duty of the commission to meet annually on the second Monday in October, and at such other times as it may be called together by the chairman, for the purpose of considering the advisability of continuing or discontinuing, at the expiration of all current contracts, any or all of the State adopted textbooks in use in the public schools of Texas, and of making such adoptions as are provided for in Section 5 of this Act. Before making any change in the adopted series, however, the commission shall, upon thorough investigation, satisfy itself that a change is necessary for the best interest of the school children and that such change is consistent with financial economy. Unless new texts better suited to the requirements of the schools and of a price and quality satisfactory to the commission are offered to supplant existing texts, the commission shall renew the existing contract or contracts for such a period as may be deemed advisable not to exceed a period of six years. Wherever the contractor supplying any book agrees to renew the contract on the same terms for a period of not less than two years or more than six, the members of the commission shall give preference to the offer of the company holding the contract if in their judgment they shall thereby secure as good or better books at a lower price than by making a different contract, and it shall always be lawful for them to renew a contract on such terms as in their judgment may be for the best interests of the State. The contracts for the total number of different texts adopted shall be so arranged, in adoptions taking place after the passage of this Act, that contracts on not more than one-sixth of the total number of different basal subjects shall expire in any one year, or shall be changed in any one year. The series of copy books and the series of drawing books shall each be considered as one book. If no text or texts on any prescribed subject or subjects are submitted by any particular publisher or publishers that meet the requirements of the schools, as may be determined by the commission, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the commission, to instruct the secretary of the commission to investigate the book markets for the purpose of securing bids with a view of providing at most reasonable price or prices possible the best available texts on any and all subjects that are to be adopted by the commission for the schools of Texas.

Art. 2843. Uniform system.—The Textbook Commission authorized by this Act shall have authority to select and adopt a uniform system of textbooks to be used in the public free schools of Texas, and the books so selected and adopted shall be printed in the English language, and shall include and be limited to textbooks on the following subjects: Spelling, reading, English language and grammar, geography, arithmetic, physiology-hygiene, civil government, history of the United States, (in which the construction placed on the Federal Constitution by the fathers of the Confederacy shall be fairly represented) history of Texas, agriculture, a system of writing books, a system of drawing books, and may also, if deemed necessary, adopt a geography of Texas and a civil government of Texas; provided that none of said textbooks shall contain anything of a partisan or sectarian character, and that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the teaching of German, Bohemian, Spanish, French, Latin or Greek in any of the public schools.

Said Textbook Commission shall also adopt a multiple list of books for use in the high schools of the State, said multiple list including not fewer than three nor more than five textbooks on the following subjects: Algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, general science, biology, physics, chemistry, a one year general history, ancient history, modern history, American history, Latin, Spanish, physical geography, English composition, history of American literature, history of English literature, physiology, agriculture and civil government and for each high school branch of study any one textbook of said multiple list adopted for that subject may be selected for and used in any high school of the State as the textbook on such branch in that high school, but when such book is so chosen by the local authorities from the multiple list adopted such book shall be continued in that high school for the entire five years of the adoption period. Provided, however, that the multiple list herein provided for shall apply to all high schools classed by the Department of Education as high schools of the first class. For use in all other high schools a uniform system of textbooks on each subject mentioned above shall be selected by the commission; provided, that in any city or independent school district having more than one high school of the first class said city or independent school district shall adopt from said multiple list for use in each of said high schools the same books and shall use said books so adopted for a period of not less than five years.

Specific rules as to the manner of the selection of books by the high school shall be made by the State Textbook Commission.

The commission, as herein provided for, shall adopt textbooks in accordance with the provisions of this Act for every public free school in this State and no public free school in this State shall use any textbook unless same has been previously adopted and approved by this commission; and the commission shall prescribe rules under which all textbooks adopted and approved shall be introduced or used by or in the public schools of the State.

In the event as many as three suitable texts are not offered for adoption on any one subject, the commission may select fewer than three texts.

Existing contracts shall not be affected by any adoptions made under this Act.

Art. 2844. Supplementary readers.—The Textbook Commission shall have authority to adopt supplementary readers for the first seven grades and such other supplementary books for use in said elementary grades as it may deem advisable. Said other supplementary books may be arranged in a series by said commission, one book in each series for each elementary grade, and contracts for not more than four series of supplementary books and readers, inclusive, as provided for in this section, may be in force at the same time; provided, that such series of these supplementary books shall only be used to supplement the basal book on reading and in no case shall supplemental books be adopted for other subjects. Each bidder presenting such book or books shall state at what price it or they are offered, provided, however, that no supplementary books shall be purchased and used to the exclusion of the books prescribed under the provisions of Article 2343, but full use must be made in good faith of the books selected by said commission under Article 2343 before any of the supplementary books provided for in this article shall be purchased and used.

Art. 2845. May change textbooks.—The Textbook Commission may at any time require such changes, amendments or additions to the book or books adopted as in their judgment will be for the best interest of the public schools of this State; and contracts for books under the provisions of this Act shall be made upon the distinct condition that the commission provided for in this Act may, during the time for which the books are adopted under this Act, upon giving one year's previous notice to the publishers thereof, order such changes, amendments and additions to the book or books so adopted as such Textbook Commission may determine; provided, also that if in the judgment of the commission such changes or revisions make it impractical for the revised books to be used in the same class with the old books, the publishers will be required to give the same exchange terms as were given when the books were first adopted, and such exchange period shall extend two years from the time the revised books are first put into use in the schools; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed so as to give said commission power or authority to abandon any book or books originally contracted for.

Art. 2846. Notice to be given.—When books are to be selected and adopted under the provisions of this Act the chairman of the commission shall for thirty days by notices in the public press and by written notices mailed to all persons, firms or corporations in whose behalf such notices may be requested, in which notices the time and place of such selection shall be set out and thus advertised that sealed bids will be received at the time and place fixed in said notice and not later than the second Monday of October of each year. Each bid shall specifically state at what price each book will be furnished, and shall be accompanied by specimen copies of each book offered, and it shall be required that each bidder deposit with the Treasurer of the State of Texas such sum of money as the commission may require, to be not less than five hundred dollars nor more than twenty-five hundred dollars, according to the value of the books each bidder may propose to supply. Such deposits shall be forfeited to the State absolutely if such bidder so depositing shall fail to make and execute such contract and bond as herein required within such times as the commission may require, which time shall be specified in the notice advertised.

Art. 2847. Sealed bids.—All bids submitted under Article 2346 shall be sealed and deposited with the chairman of the commission to be delivered by him in the commission in session and for the purpose of considering the same, and shall be opened in the presence of the commission. The commission shall not consider a bid of any publisher of school books who has failed to pay the tax due and payable to the State of Texas under the laws of this State, and who has failed to make the affidavit required by this Act. Each individual, firm or corporation submitting bids to the commission for its consideration, or presenting books for adoption under the provisions of this Act, shall file with the Secretary of State an affidavit giving the names of all people employed to aid in any way whatsoever in securing the contract, and that no member of the commission is in any manner interested, directly or indirectly, in such individual, firm or corporation. If the fact should be disclosed that any member of the commission is so interested it shall work a disqualification of such member of the commission, and he shall not be permitted to serve on the commission, or if it should further be disclosed that any member of the commission is or has been interested in any book or series of books as the author or associate author, or in any way pecuniarily interested in any book or series of books published by any house bidding for this contract, or offered for use in the public schools of this State, or that any member of the commission is interested in any such book or series of books in any manner, such fact shall likewise work a disqualification of such member, and he shall not be permitted to serve upon the commission.

Art. 2848. Bids opened.—It shall be the duty of the commission to meet at the time and place mentioned in the notice and advertisement, and it shall then and there open and examine the sealed proposals received; and it shall be the duty of the commission to make a full and complete investigation of all the books and bids accompanying the same. The textbooks shall be selected and adopted after a careful examination and consideration of all books presented, and the books selected and adopted shall be those which in the opinion of the commission are most acceptable for use in the schools,—quality, mechanical construction, paper, print price, authorship, literary merit and other relevant matters being given such weight in making its decision as the commission may deem advisable. The commission shall proceed without delay to adopt for use in the public schools of this State textbooks on all branches hereinbefore mentioned; provided, that if the bids submitted to said commission should not be satisfactory to said commission, they may postpone the selection of such books or a part thereof to such time as they may select, and after the same is readvertised, new bids may be received and acted on by such commission as provided for in this Act; provided, that no textbook shall be adopted until it has been read carefully and examined by at least a majority of the commission.

Art. 2849. Bids in two forms.—All publishers submitting bids under the provisions of this Act shall submit their bids in two forms, one in which is stated the allowance made for the books then in use and the property of the State, when offered in exchange for the new books adopted under this Act; the other without stating the allowance for said books, which books would remain the property of the State. Said allowance and condition for exchange if agreed to and accepted by the State shall be enforced only during the two scholastic years following a change in books.

Art. 2850. Changes may be ordered.—Every contract entered into with a publisher for the adoption of any book or books shall contain a provision that the commission herein provided for may, during the life of the contract, upon giving one year's previous notice to the publishers of such book or books, order such changes, amendments and additions to the book or books so selected and adopted as in the discretion of said commission shall keep them up to date and abreast of the times; provided that such revisions shall not be made oftener than once in two years.

Art. 2851. Contractors bond.—The bidder to whom any contract may have been awarded shall execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of not less than ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars for each basal book adopted under the provisions of this Act; and a good and sufficient bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of not less than three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars for each supplementary textbook adopted under the provisions of this Act; provided further, that the commission is hereby given authority to require bond in such further and additional sums as it may deem advisable, said bond to be approved by the commission; such bond to be conditioned that the contractor shall faithfully perform all the conditions of the contract; the contract and bond shall be prepared by the Attorney General, and be payable in Travis County, Texas, and shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State. For the purpose of securing satisfactory bond a series of pamphlet writing books shall be considered as one basal book, and a series of pamphlet drawing books shall be considered as one basal book. The bond shall not be exhausted by a single recovery thereon, but may be sued upon from time to time until the full amount thereof is recovered; and the Texas State Textbook Commission may, at any time, on twenty days' notice, require a new bond to be given, and in the event the contractor shall fail to furnish such new bond the contract of such contractor may, at the option of the Texas State Textbook Commission, be forfeited.

Art. 2852. Not to be furnished to others at less price.—All contracts with publishers for the furnishing of books hereunder shall further stipulate and bind such publishers that they will not hereafter during the first twelve months after the date of the respective contracts furnish or offer to furnish and distribute the same book or books under contracts with any other State, county or school district in the United States at a lower price than that which said publishers agree to furnish and distribute the same books under the contracts executed pursuant to this Act, unless such publishers respectively shall immediately give such lower price to the beneficiaries of the contracts executed hereunder. In the event any such contract is made it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to institute suit upon the bond hereinabove provided for, for a recovery on behalf of the State of the liquidated damages due under and as provided for in this article, and proof of a violation of this provision in any particular shall be prima facie evidence of liability in any such suit brought hereunder, and in case any contractor who has a contract to furnish a book or books for the State under the provisions of this Act shall at any time within twelve months after the date of this adoption contract with any other state, county or school district in the United States to furnish and distribute the same book or books at a lower price than fixed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, under similar conditions of sale and distribution as may be decided by the Texas State Textbook Commission, such lower price shall immediately be given to the State of Texas, and for the breach of any of the conditions and stipulations contained herein or in the respective contracts, the contract may be forfeited and the contractors shall be liable to the State of Texas in liquidated damages in the full amount of the bond; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to bring suit on the bond of such contractors for such liquidated damages as provided for in this article.

Art. 2853. Anti-trust provision.—No book or books shall be purchased from any person, firm or corporation who is a member of or connected with any trust; and in the event it be established that this provision has been violated, such violation shall be held to be fraud and collusion as contemplated under Article 2852 of this Act, and the Attorney General shall bring suit upon the bond of such person, firm or corporation, and upon proof of such violation shall recover the liquidated damages as provided for in said Article 2852 hereof, as defined by the laws of this State, and a sworn affidavit that said person or corporation is not connected either directly or indirectly with a trust shall be required, and said affidavit shall be filed with said commission. Before proceeding to adopt books as provided under the provision of this Act, the commission shall require all persons, firms and corporations bidding for a contract to file with the commission a sworn statement on or before the date selected by the commission for receiving sealed bids, stating whether said person, firm or corporation is interested, or whether said person, firm or any member thereof, or any individual stockholder of such corporation is interested, or whether said person, firm, or any member thereof, or any individual stockholder of such corporation is interested or acting as a director, trustee or stockholder, either directly or indirectly or through a third party, or in any manner whatsoever in any other textbook publishing house, and this statement shall be sworn to by such person, a member of such firm or the president, secretary, and each of the directors of said corporation. All firms or persons bidding for a contract or supplying books shall present a sworn statement signed by all its members showing the names of all members of said firm, and whether any other person, firm or corporation has any financial interest in said firm, and also whether any individual member or members of said firm have any financial interest in any other textbook publishing firm or corporation or textbook publishers. The commission shall require all corporations, or persons, or firms to file with the Governor attested copies of all written agreements entered into and existing between them and others engaged in the textbook publishing business, and if in the opinion of the commission such written agreements or other facts adduced are violations of the anti-trust law of the State of Texas, or opposed to public policy, the bids of such houses shall not be considered by the commission.

Art. 2854. Contract approved.—Each contract shall be duly signed by the publishing house or its authorized officers and agents; and if it is found to be in accordance with all the provisions of this Act, and if the bond herein required is presented and duly approved, the commission shall approve said contract and order it to be signed on behalf of the State by the Governor in his capacity as chairman. All contracts shall be made in duplicate, one copy to remain in custody of the Secretary of State and be copied in full in the minutes of the meeting of the commission in a well bound book, and the other copy to be delivered to the company or its agent.

Art. 2855. Deposit to be returned.—When any person has been awarded a contract and he has filed his bond and contract with the commission and the same has been approved, the commission shall make an order on the Treasurer of the State reciting such fact, and thereupon the Treasurer shall return the deposit of such bidder to him; but if any successful bidder shall fail to make and execute the contract and bond as hereinbefore provided, the Treasurer shall place the deposit of such bidder in the State Treasury to the credit of the available school fund, and the commission shall re-advertise for other bids to supply such books which said bidder may have failed to supply. All unsuccessful bidders shall have their deposit returned to them by the State Treasurer as soon as the commission has decided not to accept their bids.

Art. 2856. Commission to issue proclamation.—As soon as the State shall have entered into the contract for the furnishing of books for the public schools of this State under the provision of this Act, it shall be the duty of the commission to issue its proclamation of such facts to the people of the State; and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall carefully label and file away the copies of the books adopted as furnished for examination to the board; and such copies of such books shall be securely kept and the standard of quality and mechanical excellence of the book or books so furnished under this Act shall be maintained in said books so furnished under contract authorized by this Act during the continuance of the contract.

Art. 2857. List to be furnished.—As soon as practical after the adoption of the textbooks provided for in this Act, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall address a circular letter to the county superintendent and to the president of the school boards in independent school districts, which circular letter shall contain a list of all the books with their respective prices, together with such other information as he may deem advisable.

Art. 2858. Depository.—All parties with whom the contracts have been made shall establish and maintain in some city in the State a depository where a stock of their goods to supply all immediate demands shall be kept; and contractors not maintaining their own individual or separate State agencies or depositories shall maintain a joint agency or depository to be located at some suitable and convenient distributing point. Any person, dealer or school board in any county in the State may order from the central depository; provided that the price of books so ordered shall be paid in advance. Upon the failure of any contractor to furnish the books as provided in the contract and in this Act, the county judge in the county wherein such books have not been furnished shall report the fact to the Attorney General, and he shall bring suit on account of such failure in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of Travis County, and shall recover on the bond given by such contractor for the full value of the books not furnished as required, and in addition thereto the sum of one hundred dollars, and each day of failure to furnish the books shall constitute a separate offense, and the amounts so recovered shall be placed to the credit of the available school fund of the State. Any unorganized county shall be furnished from the same agency as the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes in the same manner as such organized county.

Art. 2859. Price to be printed.—The contract price of each book shall be plainly printed on the inside of the back of each book, together with the following notice, "The price marked hereon is fixed by the State, and any deviation therefrom should be reported to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction;" provided this notice may be waived by the State Board of Education the last year of the contract.

Art. 2860. Textbooks exclusive.—The books adopted by the commission under the provisions of this Act shall be introduced and used as textbooks to the exclusion of all others in public free schools of this State for such period of years as may be determined by the commission, not to exceed six years in any case; provided the right to the exclusive use of new books during the first two years of the term of any contract may be waived by the contracting parties to provide for gradual introduction of the new books, and provided further that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent or prohibit the trustees of school districts from purchasing textbooks with the local maintenance funds and furnishing free textbooks to the students in the event that no contracts are made by the State.

Said commission shall not contract for any book of which any member of the nominating committee, or any member of said commission is or may be author.

Art. 2861. Appearing before commission.—No person, not the author or publisher or the bona fide permanent and regular employe of such publisher, shall appear before such Textbook Commission in behalf of any book submitted to the Commission for adoption, or seek to influence the members thereof.

Art. 2864. Agent designated.—Any person, firm or corporation with whom a contract has been entered into under the provisions of this Act shall designate the Secretary of the State of Texas as its or their agent, upon whom citation and all other writs and processes may be served in the event any suit shall be brought against such person, firm or corporation.

Art. 2865. Compensation of teachers.—The teachers selected upon said commission under the provisions of this Act shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five dollars

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is hereby fully authorized to employ one stenographer to assist in the clerical work of the State Textbook Commission, the pay of said stenographer to be paid out of the appropriation made for expenses of the Textbook Commission on account approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Art. 2866. Without cost to pupils.—The State Board of Education is hereby authorized and empowered and it is made its duty to purchase books from the contractors of textbooks used in public free schools of this State and to distribute the same without other cost to the pupils attending such schools within this State in the manner and upon the conditions hereinafter set out.

Art. 2867. Available fund.—In order to carry out the provisions of this Act the State Board of Education shall annually at a meeting designated by them each year, set apart out of the available free school fund of the State an amount sufficient to purchase and distribute the necessary school books for the use of the pupils of this State for the scholastic year ensuing.

Art. 2868. Textbook fund.—The State textbook fund of this State shall consist of the fund set aside by the State Board of Education from the available school fund as is provided for in this Act, together with all funds accruing from the sale of disused books and all moneys derived from the purchase of books from boards of school trustees by private individuals, by schools, or from any other source.

Art. 2869. Superintendent's report.—The State Board of Education shall require from the State Superintendent on July first of each year a report as to the funds necessary for the purchase and distribution of other necessary expenses of school books for the regular school session of the following year, and said Board of Education shall have the power to set apart from the available school fund the estimated amount with 25 per cent additional, this additional sum to be used to meet emergencies or necessities caused by unusual increase in scholastic attendance or by unusual and unforeseen expenses and school conditions. Funds transferred in the textbook fund shall remain permanently in this fund until expended, and shall not lapse to the State at the close of the fiscal year. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be required to include in the aforementioned report to the State Board of Education a statement as to the amount of this fund which is unexpended, and said amount shall be considered by the board in determining the necessary expenditures for textbooks for the following year.

Teachers who devote the major portion of their time to teaching or supervising special subjects shall be required to hold a high school certificate or a special certificate, as provided for in this law, on the special subject in which they give instruction or supervise work. [Id.]

Art. 2889a. Special certificate.—Any person who for six years or more has been the holder of a State first grade certificate or its equivalent, and who can furnish evidence of successful experience in teaching in the public schools for six or more sessions subsequent to September 1, 1910, shall be entitled to receive a State permanent first grade certificate.

Any person who has been engaged in teaching a special subject in the public school for a period of four years, and who has been employed to teach the said subject during the last three years prior to September 1, 1925, shall be exempt from the requirement to hold a teacher's special certificate so long as he or she continues to be employed to teach the same subjects; provided that any person who has been engaged in the teaching of music, or writing and drawing in the public schools of Texas for ten years shall be exempt from the present law and be given a life certificate in that subject.

Any teacher who applies for a Texas teachers' certificate on credentials from another state may be granted by the State Superintendent an emergency certificate valid for four months, while the record is being completed, prior to determining the kind and class of certificate, if any, to be issued to the applicant. The applicant shall be required to pay the same fee for the issuance of an emergency certificate as is required by law to be paid on application for other teacher's certificates.

Any person who is employed to teach any trade or industry in the public schools may, upon application to the State Superintendent, signed by the majority of the board of trustees of the school desiring his services, be issued a temporary permit to teach said trade without being required to hold the special certificate prescribed by law; provided that no permit may be granted for a longer term than two years and provided further that the fee for issuing said permit shall be the same as is required by law for the issuance of teacher's certificates.

The provisions of this Act are cumulative of the laws now in force regulating the issuance of teacher's certificates and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions expressed herein are hereby repealed. [Id., p. 449.]

Art. 2890. Certificates from other States.—The holders of diplomas or certificates from other States, who desire certificates valid in Texas, shall present such diplomas or certificates to the State Superintendent, who shall require the State Board of Examiners to make investigations as to the value of such diplomas or certificates as measured by the standards for certificates in this State; and the State Superintendent shall have the power to issue to the holder of a diploma or certificate from another State such Texas certificate as, in his judgment, the holder is entitled to receive, when the value of his diploma or certificate is estimated by the standards required for Texas certificates; provided that no certificates may be issued if the said diploma or certificate is not estimated to equal the lowest State certificate issued in Texas. [Acts 1911, p. 189; Acts 1920, 3rd C. S., p. 112.]

Art. 2891. City certificates.—A city or town which has a scholastic population of one thousand or more and has become an independent school district and which levies a local tax for educational purposes or which maintains a system of free schools for nine months in each year, and which has employed a superintendent of city schools, may have a city Board of Examiners. Said Board of Examiners shall in all cases consist of the city superintendent of the city schools; together with two other persons who shall be appointed by him, and who shall be teachers. The city Board of Examiners is hereby authorized to issue certificates valid only in the city in which they are issued; such certificates shall be temporary.

Temporary city certificates shall be of three classes, as follows: Second Grade, First Grade, and High School. A temporary city certificate shall be good for two years, unless cancelled by lawful authority, and a second city certificate shall not be issued to any person. The further regulation of the issuance of such certificates shall be provided for by the board of trustees of such cities or towns; provided, that no city or town shall make the requirements for a temporary certificate inferior to the requirements provided by law for any State certificates of the corresponding grades. Any city or town may at the discretion of the superintendent of city schools, employ a teacher of any special branch not included in the requirements of a State certificate, without requiring an examination or a teacher's certificate. Nothing in this article shall prevent the board of trustees of any city or town from recognizing the certificate issued in any other such city or town in this State and validating the same in the city or town so recognizing.

A superintendent of schools in any city or town of this State shall be required to be the holder of a State first grade or State permanent certificate, and no school board may legally contract with any superintendent who is not the holder of a State first grade or State permanent certificate; provided, however, this certificate requirement shall not apply to a superintendent who has held a position as city or town superintendent for a period of ten consecutive years in the school in which he or she is employed. [Acts 1921, p. 243.]

Art. 2892. Attendance requirements.—Every child in this State who is eight years and not more than fourteen years old shall be required to attend the public schools in the district of its residence, or in some other district to which it may be transferred, as provided by law, for a period of not less than one hundred days during each scholastic year. The period of compulsory school attendance at each school shall begin at the opening of the school term unless otherwise authorized by the district school trustees and notice given by the trustees prior to the beginning of such school term; provided that no child shall be required to attend school for a longer period than the maximum term of the public school in the district where such child resides. [Acts 1915, p. 93; Acts 1923, p. 255.]

Art. 2893. Exemptions.—The following classes of children are exempt from the requirements of this law:

1. Any child in attendance upon a private or parochial school which shall include in its course a study of good citizenship, and shall make the English language the basis of instruction in all subjects.

2. Any child whose bodily or mental condition is such as to render attendance inadvisable, and who holds definite certificate of a reputable physician specifying this condition and covering the period of absence.

3. Any child who is blind, deaf, dumb or feeble-minded, for the instruction of whom no adequate provision has been made by the school district.

4. Any child living more than two and one-half miles by direct and traveled road from the nearest public school supported for the children of the same race and color of such child and with no free transportation provided.

5. Any child more than twelve years of age who has satisfactorily completed the work of the seventh grade of a standard elementary school of seven grades, and whose services are needed in support of a parent or other person standing in parental relation to the child, may, on presentation of proper evidence to the county superintendent, be exempted from further attendance at school. [Id.]

Art. 2894. Excuses for absences.—Any child not so exempt may be excused for temporary absence due to personal sickness, sickness or death in the family, quarantine, severe storm which has destroyed bridges and made the regular means of travel dangerous, or for unusual causes acceptable to the teacher, principal or superintendent of the school in which said child is enrolled; provided that the excuses are in writing and signed by the parent or guardian of said child. Any case so excused may be investigated by the authorities discharging the duties of attendance officer for the school from which said child is so excused. [Id.]

Art. 2895. Attendance officer.—The county school trustee of any county having a scholastic population of more than three thousand may elect a school attendance officer for said county upon petition of at least fifty resident freeholders of said county setting forth good reasons why said county should have an attendance officer. A public hearing shall be had on said petition after due notice thereof given by publication in a newspaper published at the county seat for three consecutive weeks, or if there be no such newspaper, then by posting printed notices in two public places within the county and one at the courthouse door of said county. If, after such hearing, said trustees believe that a school attendance officer is necessary to the proper enforcement of the provisions of this law, and that the schools of said county will be benefited by having said attendance officer, the said board may elect such officer as herein provided.

The board of trustees of any independent district having a scholastic population of more than two thousand may in like manner elect an attendance officer for said district.

Such attendance officer may have his salary paid from the available school funds belonging to said county or district, not exceeding two dollars per day for the time actually employed in discharging his duty. In any county or independent district where such attendance officer is not so elected, the duties of said attendance officer shall devolve upon the school superintendents and peace officers of such county or district who shall perform the same without additional pay. Counties or independent school districts which may avail themselves of the option to elect school attendance officers may elect the probation officer or some officer or officers of the juvenile court of said county to serve as such attendance officer. [Id.]

Art. 2896. Powers and duties.—The attendance officer shall have power to investigate all cases of unexcused absences from school, to administer oaths and to serve legal process, to enforce the provisions of this law, to keep records of all cases of any kind investigated by him in the discharge of his duties, and to make reports of his work as the State Superintendent may require. Nothing in this law shall be construed to authorize any attendance officer to invade or enter without permission of the owner or tenant thereof, or the head of any family residing therein, any private home, or private residence, or any room or apartment thereof, except to serve lawful process upon any parent, guardian or other person standing in parental relation to any child affected by this law, or to forcibly take corporal custody of any child anywhere without permission of the parent or guardian thereof, or other person standing in parental relation to such child, except in obedience to valid process issued by a court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 2897. Superintendent shall furnish list, etc.—The county superintendent shall furnish to the superintendent of schools of each school district in the county, and to the principal of the school in case there be no superintendent, a complete list of all children of scholastic age belonging in said district, as shown by the last scholastic census and the record of transfers to and from said district. The superintendents and principals of the various schools of said county shall report to said county superintendent the names of all children subject to the provisions of this law who have not enrolled in said school, and the superintendent, principal or other official of private, denominational or parochial schools shall furnish to said county superintendent a list of all children of scholastic age enrolled in the school presided over by said official and the district in which said child was enumerated in the public school census. From such reports the county superintendent shall make up a complete list of all children within scholastic age enrolled in the various districts of said county who have not enrolled in some school and are not complying with the compulsory attendance law, and said list shall be furnished to the attendance officer. All notices, forms and blanks to be used by any of the superintendents, principals or officials of any school shall be prescribed by the State Superintendent. Any teacher giving instruction to any child within compulsory attendance age shall promptly report any unexcused absences to the attendance officer. [Id.]

Art. 2898. Parole of pupil.—Any child within the compulsory school attendance ages who shall be insubordinate, disorderly, vicious or immoral in conduct, or who persistently violates the reasonable rules and regulations of the school which he attends, or who otherwise persistently misbehaves therein so as to render himself an incorrigible, shall be reported to the attendance officer who shall proceed against such child in the juvenile court. If such child is found guilty in said court the judge shall have the power to parole said child, after requiring the parent or other person standing in parental relation, to execute a bond in the sum of not less than ten dollars, conditioned that said child shall attend school regularly and comply with all the rules and regulations of said school. If the superintendent or principal of any school shall report to the attendance officer for said school that said child has violated the conditions of his parole, said attendance officer shall proceed against such child before the judge of the juvenile court, and if such child shall be found guilty of violating the conditions of said parole, the bond shall forthwith be declared forfeited and shall be collected in the same manner as other forfeited bonds under the general laws of this State, and the proceeds of same shall be paid into the available school fund of the common or independent school district. The judge of said court may, after a fair and impartial hearing given to said child, again parole said child, requiring such bond as he may deem prudent, and require said child to again enter school. If said child shall violate the conditions of the second parole and shall be convicted of same he shall be committed to a suitable training school as may be agreed upon by the parent of the child and the judge of the juvenile court in which the child is convicted. [Id.]

Nor shall any person interested in the publication of textbooks, or in selling the same to be used in the public schools of this State, be eligible to serve as school trustee, county or city superintendent of schools, or as teacher in any of the public schools of this State. Art. 2916. Cotton classing: standards.—The commissioners court of all counties coming under the provisions of this law shall provide for at least one set of the official types or "standards" to be placed in charge of the county superintendent, who shall use them for the purposes of instruction in classification of cotton, lend them to summer normal schools and teachers' institutes held in his county, and have types of same made for the various schools in his county applying for same, provided, that such schools shall pay the cost of making said types. The school board or trustees of every school district required by the provisions of this law to teach cotton grading, shall furnish the county superintendent with samples of the different grades of cotton from which a set of types or "standards" shall be made by comparing them with the official types or "standards," and the county superintendents shall certify that the same have been carefully compared with the official types or standards in his office, and shall correctly label same, showing the grade thereof; provided, that nothing in this article shall prevent school

[Id.]

Art. 2919. Free kindergartens.—The trustees of any school district in Texas, upon the petition of the parents or guardians of twenty-five or more children under the scholastic age down to and including five years, residing in said district, shall establish and maintain a kindergarten as a part of the public free schools of said district, for the training of children within said ages residing in said district, and shall establish such courses of training, study and discipline, and such rules and regulations governing such kindergartens as said trustees shall deem best. Any such petition for the establishment and maintenance of a free kindergarten shall be presented to the trustees of said district between the first day of June and the first day of August in any one year. Art. 2920. Building specifications.—The public school buildings of Texas shall conform to the following requirements:

All such window openings shall not come lower than a point three and a half feet from the floor, and shall extend to a point within six inches of the ceiling; and the area of clear window surface thereof shall not be less than one-sixth of the area of the floor space in said class room or study hall. No part of said class room or study hall shall be at a greater distance from the window than twice the height of the top of the window above the floor, except when adequate skylights are provided. The main light in all one-room schools shall come from the left of the pupils as they sit at their desks, and in all larger buildings this condition shall be approximated as nearly as architectural demands and the demands of ventilation will permit.

2. All school houses shall be provided with sufficient heating apparatus. All stoves, radiators or other sources of direct heat located within the class rooms or study halls shall be so jacketed, ventilated or otherwise protected that the desks upon the side adjoining same shall not be more than five degrees Fahrenheit hotter than the desks upon the opposite side of the room; and shall be equipped with an automatic temperature regulator that will regulate the temperature of said class room or study hall to within two degrees of any set standard.

3. Every class room or study hall shall be provided with an efficient apparatus whereby in cold weather a supply of thirty cubic feet per minute of fresh, warm air shall be supplied to each pupil in such manner as not to place any pupil in a disagreeable draft, and shall be provided with exhaust flue or flues, with inlets at or near the floor line, so arranged as to effectively carry out of the room the cold and impure air without placing any pupil in a disagreeable draft.

4. All interior wood work in school buildings shall be without such unnecessary fluting, turning or carvings as catch dust and microbes, and all floors shall have their surfaces made impervious to water and germs by a coat of boiling paraffin oil or other floor dressing having similar effect, applied immediately after the floor is laid.

5. All school buildings of two or more stories shall be provided with not less than two widely separated flights of stairs, and no stair shall have winding treads, but every tread shall be full width and turns be made flat landings not less than four feet wide, and there shall be one such landing between floors. All stairs shall have a hand rail on each side and of such size and so placed that it can be held easily by the pupils using said stairs.

6. All outside doors and all doors leading from class rooms or study halls shall be hung so as to open outward. [Acts 1913, p. 244.]

Art. 2921. Examination of plans.—No public school building shall be constructed in Texas at an expense of more than four hundred dollars, until the board of school trustees of the district or city or town in which the work is to be done shall have first secured a school building permit from the officer legally authorized to grant such permit, certifying that the plans and specifications of said proposed building conform to the regulations prescribed in the preceding article. The petition for said permit shall be made in writing, and shall set forth such details of the plans and specifications as are necessary to pass upon the legality of the lighting, heating, ventilation, sanitation and fire protection in such proposed building. For buildings in a common school district the county superintendent of the county in which the school is to be located, and for buildings of an independent school district or in a city or town that has assumed control of its schools, the superintendent of public schools in that district or city or town, is hereby authorized, empowered and required to examine all plans for all proposed public school buildings, costing over four hundred dollars, and to grant permits only for such buildings, as conform to the requirements of this law, and to make a report to the State Superintendent of all such permits granted, transmitting all evidence. [Id.]

Art. 2922. Unauthorized payments for construction.—No person charged with the duty of disbursing school funds or of authorizing disbursement of school funds in this State shall pay or authorize the payment of any vouchers or in any other manner pay out any sum of public money for the construction of any school building at an expense of more than four hundred dollars until the board of school trustees of said district or city or town has secured from the properly constituted authority a legal permit for such work. Any disbursing officer failing to observe the provisions of this law shall be held liable for such amount as is paid out on account of such building, as is not legally permitted. [Id.]

Art. 2922c. Area.—No rural high school district, as provided for herein, shall contain a greater area than one hundred square miles, or more than seven elementary school districts, except that the county school board of school trustees may form rural high school districts, as provided in Article 2922a, containing more than one hundred square miles, upon a vote of a majority of the qualified electors in the said proposed rural high school district voting at an election called for such purpose; and provided further, that the said board of county school trustees may form a rural high school district containing more than seven elementary districts upon a vote of a majority of the qualified voters in each of the elementary districts within such proposed rural high school district.

Art. 2922d. County line districts.—The county board of trustees of two or more adjoining counties shall have the authority, upon the written order of a majority of the members of each county board concerned, to establish a county line rural high school district, and to designate the county which shall have supervision of said county line rural high school district. Said county line rural high school district shall be governed as other rural high school districts herein provided for.

Art. 2922e. Control of.—The control and management of the schools of a rural high school district, established under the provisions of this Act, shall be vested in a board of seven trustees, elected by the qualified voters of the said district at large, who shall be elected and serve in accordance with the provisions of General Law relative to common school districts, except as may be otherwise provided herein; and provided that such elementary district included in such rural high school district must be the residence of at least one member of said board. Any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the county board of trustees. Provided that for a rural high school district formed with more than one hundred square miles of territory, or containing more than seven elementary districts, as provided in this Act, the board of trustees, as herein provided for, shall be elected from the district at large. Should any rural high school district fail to elect a trustee or trustees as provided for in this Act, the county board of trustees shall appoint said trustee or trustees. Four of said trustees shall be elected each odd number of years and three on each even number of years on the first Saturday in April. The trustees of the first board shall draw for terms. In the event a rural high school district is created subsequent to the date for the election of trustees of common school districts, as provided by General Law, it shall be the duty of the county board to appoint a board of trustees for the district, as prescribed herein, to serve until the next date for the election of common school district trustees. In the election of rural high school district trustees, at least one voting box shall be provided in each elementary district composing the high school district.

The present board of trustees of all elementary school districts which may be included within a rural high school district, as herein provided, shall continue in control of their respective districts until the close of the current scholastic year, but they shall make no contract effecting the expenditure of any school funds subsequent to September 1, 1925, nor shall they have any other authority in the management and control of the schools of the said districts after September 1, 1925. The boards of trustees of rural high school districts shall immediately upon their election and organization proceed to make contracts for the operation of all schools under their control. The first board of trustees herein provided for shall be elected on the first Saturday in April, 1925, and annually thereafter an election shall be held as provided for by law for holding trustee elections in common school districts.

Art. 2922f. Elementary schools—how abolished.—The county board of school trustees shall not have the authority to abolish or consolidate any elementary school district already established except upon the vote of a majority of the qualified electors residing in such elementary district; provided that when any school within an elementary district fails to have an average daily attendance the preceding year of at least twenty pupils it may be discontinued by the board of trustees of said rural high school district, and said district may be consolidated by the county board of school trustees with some other district or districts for elementary school purposes; provided that if there is more than one white or one colored school in such elementary school district the board of trustees of the said rural high school districts or an independent district, as the case may be, may consolidate such white or colored schools of the elementary district; and provided that the board of trustees of a rural high school district may transfer the pupils of one elementary district to another within the rural high school dis-

Whenever one or more common school districts are annexed to a common school district or to an independent district under the provisions of Section 1, such common or independent district shall maintain elementary schools of such classification as the county board may designate in each district so annexed, for the same length of term provided for the schools of the said common school district or independent district. Provided such schools may be discontinued by the local board of trustees when the average daily attendance of any such schools for the preceding year is less than twenty.

Art. 2922g. Districts classified.—The county board of school trustees shall classify the elementary schools in each rural high district and designate the number of grades that shall be taught in such schools, and when such classification is made the board of trustees of the rural high school districts shall maintain a school of such classification for the same length of term as all other schools within said rural high school district. The board of trustees of a rural high school district shall have a right to be heard by the county board of trustees relative to the classification of schools within their districts and shall have the right of appeal from such classification from the county board of school trustees to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Art. 2922h. Outstanding bonds.—In the event any of the elementary districts included within a rural high school district or the common school districts annexed to a common or independent district, or the common school or independent district to which one or more common school districts are annexed, as herein provided for, have outstanding bonded or other valid indebtedness, then at an election for that purpose, or some future date, to be designated by the proper authorities, as provided by General Law, the question as to whether or not the said rural high school district, common school district, or independent school district as the case may be, shall assume and pay off such outstanding bonds or other indebtedness and whether a tax shall be levied therefor may be submitted to the qualified taxpaying voters of such high school, common or independent district. If a majority of the votes cast at such an election favor the assumption of such indebtedness then such indebtedness shall become valid and subsisting obligations of the said rural high school districts, common school districts, or independent districts; and the board of trustees of such districts shall annually thereafter levy and collect sufficient taxes to pay the interest on the bonds so assumed as it accrues, and create a sinking fund which, in addition to the sinking funds already accumulated in the original bonded district or districts, will pay off and retire the said outstanding bonds when they shall become due. The said election providing for the assumption of such bonded or other indebtedness shall be called and held in accordance with existing provisions of law relating to elections for the issuance of bonds by common and independent school districts.

Art. 2922i. Warrants.—All funds of every nature to which a rural high school district may be entitled shall be paid out on warrants issued by the secretary and signed by the secretary and president of the board of trustees and approved by the county superintendent of public instruction. The board of school trustees shall select its own president and secretary, each of whom shall be a member of the board. The secretary shall keep a complete itemized account of all receipts and disbursements in a well-bound book owned and paid for by the district, and his accounts shall be approved by the county superintendent and by the county board of school trustees at the end of each scholastic year. No school funds shall be allotted or apportioned and paid to any rural high school district for the following year thereafter until this report is submitted to and approved by the county superintendent and the county board of school trustees.

Art. 2922j. Deposit and disbursement of funds.—All funds belonging to a rural high school district shall be deposited in the county depository and disbursed in the same manner as other funds are disbursed from such depository under the depository law in so far as same are applicable.

Art. 2922k. Control by and of trustees.—All rural high schools within a rural high school district herein provided for shall be under the immediate control of the board of school trustees for such rural high schools, and such board of school trustees shall be under the control and supervision of the county superintendent and county board of school trustees, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law and restrictions that common school districts are now subject to, except where otherwise provided herein.

Art. 2922l. Tax.—The board of trustees of a rural high school district provided for in this Act shall have the power to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax not to exceed one dollar on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property of the district for the maintenance of schools therein, and a tax not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property of the district for the purpose of purchasing, constructing, repairing or equipping public free school buildings within the limits of such district, and the purchase of necessary sites therefor; provided that the amount of maintenance tax, together with the amount of bond tax of the district shall never exceed one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property; and provided further that no such tax shall be levied and no such bonds shall be issued until after an election shall have been held wherein a majority of the qualified tax-paying voters, voting at said election, shall have voted in favor of the levying of said tax, or of the issuance of said bonds, or both, as the case may be, and which election shall be held in accordance with the law now governing such elections in common school districts, provided that the local taxes previously authorized by a district or districts included in a rural high school district or annexed to a common or independent school district, as provided for herein, shall be continued in force until such time as a uniform tax may be provided for the benefit of the rural high school district or said common or independent district as enlarged by the annexation of the said common school districts thereto. The board of trustees of any rural high school district may appoint an assessor of taxes who shall assess the taxable property within the limits of said district within the time provided by existing laws, and said assessment shall be equalized by the board of equalization composed of three members appointed by the board of trustees of said district. The said board of equalization shall be composed of legally qualified voters residing in said district, and shall have the same power and authority, and be subject to the same restrictions that now govern such boards in independent school districts. The tax assessor herein provided for shall receive such compensation for his services as the trustees of said district may allow, not to exceed two (2) per cent of taxes assessed by him. The county tax collector shall collect such tax and shall receive one-half of one per cent for his services for collecting such tax. Such tax when collected shall be deposited in the county depository to the credit of such rural high school district. The tax assessor herein provided for shall make a complete list of all assessments made by him, and when approved by the board of trustees shall be submitted to the county tax collector not later than September first of each year.

In any election held only in a subdivision of a county for the purpose of determining any local question or proposition affecting only such subdivision of the county, then in addition to the foregoing qualifications, the voter must have resided in said county for six months next preceding such election. The provisions of this article as to casting ballots shall apply to all elections including general, special and primary elections. [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 520; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 62; Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 10; Acts 1921, p. 217; Acts 1923, p. 318.]

Art. 2956. [2939] Absentee voting.—Any qualified elector, as defined by the laws of this State, who expects to be absent from the county of his or her residence on the day of the election may vote subject to the following conditions, to-wit: At some time not more than ten days nor less than three days prior to the date of such election such elector shall make his or her personal appearance before the county clerk of his or her residence, and if personally unknown to such clerk, shall be identified by at least two reputable citizens of such county, and shall deliver to such clerk his or her poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, entitling him or her to vote at such election, and said clerk shall deliver to such elector one ballot which has been prepared in accordance with the law for use in such election which shall then and there be marked by said elector apart and without the assistance or suggestion of any person and in such manner as said elector shall desire same to be voted, which ballot shall be folded and placed in a sealed envelope and delivered to said clerk who shall keep same so sealed, and who shall also keep said poll tax receipt or certificate open to the inspection of any person who may wish to examine or see same until the second day prior to said election, and said clerk shall on said second day place the said poll tax receipt or certificate together with the said envelope containing said marked ballot, in another envelope which shall be by said clerk then mailed to the presiding judge of the voting precinct in which said elector lives. Or at some time not more than twenty days nor less than ten days prior to the date of such election, such elector shall make his or her personal appearance before a notary public, and if personally unknown to such notary public, shall be identified by at least two reputable citizens, and shall deliver to such notary public his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, entitling said elector to vote at such election, or if such elector shall have lost or misplaced his or her poll tax receipt, he or she shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit that such poll tax was actually paid by him or her before said first day of February next preceding such election at which he or she offers to vote and that said receipt has been lost, or misplaced, and in such case the affidavit so made shall be sent by the officer administering the oath to the county clerk of the county in which such elector resides. Such county clerk receiving the affidavit shall verify same by examining the poll tax records of the county wherein said elector resides, or where he claims his residence to be. Said notary public shall mail same to the county clerk of the county of residence of such elector so named, and upon receipt of the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, the county clerk shall mail to such elector one ballot which has been prepared in accordance with the law for use in such election under registered letter marked "Official ballot for such elector (giving elector's name) not to be opened except in the presence of a notary public," printed on outside of letter. Such elector shall make oath before such notary public that such ballot was then and there marked by such elector apart and without assistance or suggestion of any other person, in such manner as said elector shall desire same to be voted, which ballot shall be folded and placed in a sealed envelope together with such affidavit which shall be marked on the outside of said envelope "Official ballot of such elector (giving elector's name)" and mailed by such notary public to the county clerk of the county wherein such elector votes, who shall keep same so sealed, and who shall also keep said poll tax receipt or certificate open to the inspection of any person who may wish to examine or see same

In the presence of the election officers provided by law, and on the day of such election and between the hours of two and three o'clock the said presiding judge of same in the precinct of the residence of said elector shall open the envelope containing said poll tax receipts and marked ballots and publicly announce that the ballot of such named electors is proposed to be cast, at which time any person who desires to challenge said vote and the right of same to be cast, shall be heard to present such challenge, and if there be no challenge of same, said vote shall be cast and counted according to the law; and if there be any challenge of such vote, legal cause for same shall be heard and decided according to the law provided in the case of challenge. In case no challenge is made, such poll tax receipt, after same is marked "Voted" as provided by law, shall be mailed back to the said county clerk. But in case of challenge, if challenged, such poll tax receipt together with affidavits relating thereto shall be mailed by said judge of election to the county clerk of such county who shall keep same for thirty days and if no demand be made for the production of same before any body or persons in authority within said time, said county clerk shall deliver such receipt to the owners thereof. [Id.; Sec. 26.]

Art. 2974. [2960] False swearing reported.—Whenever the county collector shall have reason to believe that a citizen who has paid his poll tax or received a certificate of exemption has sworn falsely to obtain the same, he shall report the facts upon which such belief is founded to the next grand jury organized in the county. [Id.; Sec. 20.]

Art. 2975. [2961] Lists of voters.—Before the first day of April every year, the county tax collector shall deliver to the board that is charged with the duty of furnishing election supplies separate certified lists of the citizens in each precinct who have paid their poll tax or received their certificates of exemption, the names being arranged in alphabetical order, and to each name its appropriate number, as shown by the duplicates retained in his office, with a description of the voter as to his residence, his voting precinct, length of his residence in the State and county, his race, occupation and post-office address if not in a city of more than ten thousand inhabitants. Said board shall furnish each presiding judge of a precinct the certified list and supplemental list of the voters of his precinct at the time when he furnishes other election supplies. Such certified lists of qualified voters shall be in the following form:

If such declination or death occurs after the ballots are printed, or due notice of the name of the new nominee is received after such printing, the official board charged with the duty of furnishing election supplies shall prepare as many pasters bearing the name of the new nominee as there are official ballots, which shall be pasted over the name of the former nominee on the official ballot before the presiding judge of the precinct indorses his name on the ballot for identification. No paster shall be used except as herein authorized, and if otherwise used the names pasted shall not be counted. [Id. Sec. 50.]

Art. 2980. [2969] Form of ballot.—All ballots shall be printed with black ink on clear white paper of uniform style and of sufficient thickness to prevent the marks thereon to be seen through the paper. The tickets of each political party shall be placed or printed on one ballot, arranged side by side in columns separated by a parallel rule. The space which shall contain the title of the office and the name of the candidate shall be of uniform style and type on said tickets. At the head of each ticket shall be printed the name of the party. When a party has not nominated a full ticket, the titles of those nominated shall be in position opposite the same office in a full ticket, and the titles of the officers shall be printed in the corresponding positions in spaces where no nominations have been made. In the blank columns and independent columns, the titles of the offices shall be printed in all blank spaces to correspond with a full ticket. [Id. Sec. 53.]

Art. 2982. [2971] Constitutional amendment and other questions.—When a Constitutional amendment or other question submitted by the Legislature is to be voted on, the form in which it is submitted shall, if the Legislature has failed to prescribe a form be described by the Governor in his proclamation in such terms as to give the voter a clear idea of the scope and character of the amendment, and printed once at the bottom of each ballot as described by this title, the words “for” and “against” under it. If a proposition or question is to be voted on by the people of any city, county or other subdivision of the State, the form in which such proposition shall be voted on shall be prescribed by the local or municipal authority submitting it. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 2983. [2972] Form by local authorities.—At the election of school district officers or school officers for a city, town or village, at which no officer is to be elected, or election of officers of fire departments, any ballot may be used prescribed by local authorities. [Id. Sec. 51.]

Art. 2984. [2973-4] Ballots furnished.—For each voting precinct, there shall be furnished one and a half times as many official ballots as there are qualified voters in the precinct, as shown by the list required to be furnished by the tax collector to precinct judges. In like manner, shall be sent the list of qualified voters for the precinct certified to by the collector. [Id. Secs. 44 and 48.]

Art. 2985. [2975] Voters provide form.—If, from any cause, the official ballots furnished for an election precinct have been exhausted or not delivered to the precinct judges, the voters may provide their own ballot after the style of the official ballot described in this title. [Id. Sec. 47.]

[Id. Sec. 40.]

Art. 2989. [2980] When booth not required.—When voting booths are not required, a guard rail shall be so placed that no one not authorized can approach nearer than six feet of the voter while he is preparing his ballot; and a shelf for writing shall be prepared for him, with black lead pencil, and so screened that no other person can see how he prepares his ballot. If the certified list of qualified voters is not in his possession at least three days before the election, he shall send for and procure them. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 2994. [2984] Collector's fees.—The tax collector shall be paid fifteen cents for each poll tax receipt and certificate of exemption issued by him, to be paid pro rata by the State and county, in proportion to the amount of poll tax received by each; and this shall include his compensation for administering oaths, furnishing certified lists of qualified voters in election precincts for use in all general elections and primary conventions, when desired, and for all duties required of him under this title; provided, that collectors, whose salaries are fixed by the fee bill, shall receive ten cents for each poll tax receipt and certificate of exemption issued by him; and such fees are not to be accounted for as fees of office. Art. 2998. [2991] Officers of election sworn.—Before opening the polls, the presiding judge of election and each of the other judges and clerks shall repeat in an audible voice: “I solemnly swear that I will not in any manner request or seek to persuade or induce any voter to vote for or against any candidate or candidates, or for or against any proposition to be voted on; and that I will faithfully perform this day my duty as officer of the election, and guard as far as I am able, the purity of the ballot box. So help me God.” [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 533, Sec. 56.]

Art. 2999. [2992] Preliminary arrangements.—The judges and clerks of election for each precinct, and supervisors if any, shall meet at the polling place at least half an hour before the time for opening the polls, and shall proceed to arrange the guard rail, the space within the guard rail, the voting booths, if any, and the furniture for the orderly and legal conduct of the election. The judges of election shall then examine the ballot boxes and the blank official ballots, and shall deposit such ballots as are found to be defective in printing in ballot box No. 4 for mutilated or returned ballots. They shall examine the sample ballots, instruction cards, distance markers, tally sheets, return sheets, certified list of voters, rubber stamps and all things required for the election. The package of official ballots shall remain in the custody of the judges and the polling clerks, and shall not be opened until the morning of the election and at the polling place. The judges shall cause to be placed at the distance of one hundred feet from the entrance of the room at which the election is held visible distance markers in each direction of approaches to the polls, on each of which shall be printed in large letters the words: “Distance markers. No electioneering or loitering between this point and the entrance to the polls.” The judges shall examine the ballot boxes and then relock them, after all present can see they are empty. The ballot clerks with official ballots, the presiding officer of the election, the poll clerk, the election supplies and the certified lists of qualified voters for the precinct, and the supervisors, if any, shall be as conveniently near each other as practicable within the polling place. [Id. Sec. 55.]

Art. 3000. [2993] Instruction card posted.—Before the election begins, one instruction card shall be posted conspicuously near each distance marker and one posted up in each voting booth where it can be read. When there are no voting booths, one shall be posted up in plain view at the place prepared for the voter to make out his ballot. [Id. Sec. 56.]

Art. 3001. [2994] Presiding judge absent.—If no presiding judge was appointed or fails to act or fails to attend on election day, the voters present may appoint their own presiding officer, who has paid his poll tax, and they may also appoint the necessary assistant judges of election. When a presiding officer who has been appointed by a commissioners court fails to act in conducting an election, and one is selected by the voters present, the judges and clerks at such election shall, in making their returns of election, certify to that fact, and state that the acting judges were appointed by the voters present. When an assistant judge or clerk having been appointed fails to act at the opening of the polls or during the election, the presiding judge shall appoint in his place another with the same qualifications, and return a certificate of such appointment with each election return. [Id. Sec. 83.]

Art. 3002. [2995] Power of presiding judge.—Judges of election are authorized to administer oaths to ascertain all facts necessary to a fair and impartial election. The presiding judge of election, while in the discharge of his duties as such, shall have the power of the district judge to enforce order and keep the peace. He may appoint special peace officers to act as such during the election and may issue warrants of arrest for felony, misdemeanor or breach of peace committed at such election, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or such special peace officer, who shall forthwith execute any such warrants, and, if so ordered by the presiding judge, confine the party arrested in jail during the election or until the day after the election, when his case may be examined into before some magistrate, to whom the presiding judge shall report it; but the party arrested shall first be permitted to vote, if entitled to do so unless he is drunk from the use of intoxicating liquor, then he shall not be permitted to vote until he is sober. [Id. Sec. 67.]

Art. 3003. [2996] To inspect ballot boxes.—Before the balloting begins, the presiding judge shall unlock ballot box No. 1, and after all the officers of the election and supervisors have inspected the same to see that it is empty, relock it and place it within view, where it shall remain until removed to make room for ballot box No. 2. A like examination shall be made of ballot box No. 2. [Id. Sec. 68.]

Art. 3004. [2997] Present poll tax receipt.—No citizen shall be permitted to vote, unless he first presents to the judge of election his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption issued to him before the first day of February of the year in which he offers to vote, except as otherwise permitted in this title, unless the same has been lost or mislaid, or left at home, in which event he shall make an affidavit of that fact, which shall be left with the judges and sent by them with the returns of the election; provided, that, if since he obtained his receipt or certificate he removes from the precinct or county of his residence, he may vote on complying with other provisions of this title. [Id. Sec. 66.]

Art. 3005. [2998] Announcer.—One election judge shall receive from the voter his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption, when he presents himself to vote; the voter shall announce his name, and the judge after comparing the appearance of the party with the description given in the certified list of qualified voters of the precinct made out by the county collector, and being satisfied that it accords therewith, shall pronounce in an audible voice the name of the voter, and his number as given in the list of qualified voters. If the voter has lost, mislaid or left at home his receipt or certificate, and shall present his affidavit of that fact, and if his appearance tallies with that given for the same number and name on the list of qualified voters, or if the voter presents his affidavit of removal from some other precinct or county, in cases where the same is permitted by this title, together with his receipt or certificate or affidavit of the loss thereof, and the judges of election shall be satisfied that he paid his poll tax or received his certificate of exemption before the first day of the preceding February, the judge shall in like manner pronounce in an audible voice the name and number of the elector on the certified list of qualified voters with the word, "correct." [Id. Sec. 71.]

Art. 3006. [2999] Examination of challenged voter.—When a person offering to vote shall be objected to by an election judge or a supervisor or challenger, the presiding judge shall examine him upon an oath touching the points of such objection, and, if such person fails to establish his right to vote to the satisfaction of the majority of the judges, he shall not vote. If his vote be received, the word, "sworn," shall be written upon the poll list opposite the name of the voter. [Id. Sec. 73.]

Art. 3007. [790-3000] Vote challenged.—In any election, State, county or municipal, being held in any city or town of ten thousand inhabitants or more according to the preceding Federal census, when the right of any elector to vote is challenged, the following proceedings shall be had:

1. The judges of election shall refuse to accept such vote of such elector unless in addition to his own oath he proves by the oath of one well known resident of the ward that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such ward.

2. When such vote is accepted, the word "challenged" shall be written on the ballot, and the judges shall cause the clerk of election to make a minute of the name of the elector and the party testifying under oath as to his qualifications, and such memoranda shall be kept by the county clerk of the county for six months after such election is held, subject to order of the district judge. [Acts 1891, p. 47; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 49.]

Art. 3008. [3001] Delivery of ballot.—When the judges are satisfied as to the right of the citizen to vote, the judge shall stamp in legible characters with a stamp of wood or rubber the poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption with the words: "Voted _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 _____." Or write the same words in ink and then return said receipt or certificate to the voter, and shall at the same time deliver to him one official ballot on the blank side of which the presiding judge shall have previously written his signature. The voter shall then immediately repair to a voting booth or a place prepared for voting by the election officers, and there prepare his ballot in the manner provided by law. [Id. Sec. 72.]

Art. 3009. [3002-3119] Marked ballot.—At either a general, special or primary election, any judge may require a citizen to answer under oath before he secures an official ballot whether he has been furnished with any paper or ballot on which is marked the names of any one for whom he has agreed or promised to vote or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper or marked ballot in his possession, and he shall not be furnished with an official ballot until he has delivered to the judge such marked ballot on paper, if he has one. [Id. Secs. 70 and 127.]

Art. 3010. [3003] Aid to voter.—Not more than one person at the same time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment, voting booth or place prepared for a voter, nor shall any assistance be given a voter in preparing his ballot, except when a voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity, such as renders him physically unable to write or is over sixty years of age and is unable to read and write, in which case two judges of such election shall assist him, they having been first sworn that they will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how such voter shall vote; and they will confine their assistance to answering his questions, to naming candidates, and the political parties to which they belong, and that they will prepare his ballot as such voter himself shall direct; provided that the voter must in every case explain in the English language how he wishes to vote, and no judge of the election shall use any other than the English language in aiding the voter, or in performing any duty as such judge of the election. Where any assistance is rendered in preparing a ballot other than as herein allowed, the ballot shall not be counted, but shall be void for all purposes. If the election be a general election, the judges who assist such voters shall be of different political parties, if there be such judges present, and if the election be a primary election one or more supervisors may be present when the assistance herein permitted is being given, but each supervisor must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law. [Id. Sec. 82; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 54; Acts 1919, p. 94.]

Art. 3011. [3004] Officers not to electioneer.—No election judge, clerk or other person connected with the holding of an election, shall on election day, indicate by words, sign, symbol or writing to any citizen, how he shall or should not vote; provided, nothing herein shall interfere with the operation of the preceding article. [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 533, Sec. 65.]

Art. 3012. [3005] Depositing ballot.—When a citizen shall have prepared his ballot, he shall fold the same so as to conceal the printing thereon, and so as to expose the signature of the presiding judge on the blank side, and shall, after leaving the booth, hand to the numbering judge his ballot. If the judges are satisfied that the ballot returned is the one delivered to the voter, the numbering judge shall number the ballot, writing on the blank side the number opposite the voter's name on the voting list, and shall stamp or write the same with the word "voted," and deposit the ballot in the ballot box. The letter, "v" shall, at the same time, be marked by any clerk on the certified list or supplemental list of qualified voters opposite the voter's name thereon, and the voter shall at once leave the polling place. [Id. Sec. 74.]

Art. 3013. [3006-3119] Mutilated ballots.—At any general or primary election no voter shall be entitled to receive a new ballot in lieu of one mutilated and defaced, until he first returns such ballot. No one shall be supplied with more than three ballots in succession, when they are mutilated or defaced. A register shall be kept by the clerks as the voting progresses of the mutilated or defaced ballots, which shall be deposited in box No. 4. [Id. Secs. 75 and 138.]

Art. 3014. [3007] Bystanders excluded.—From the time of opening the polls until the announcement of the results of the canvass of votes cast and the signing of the official returns, the boxes and official ballots shall be kept at the polling place in the presence of one or more of the judges and supervisors, if any. No person, except those admitted to vote, shall be admitted within the room where the election is being held, except the judges, clerks, persons admitted by the presiding judge to preserve order, and supervisors of election. [Id. Sec. 76; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 54.]

Art. 3015. [3008] Defective ballots in Box No. 4.—In ballot box No. 4 shall be deposited, in addition to ballots defectively printed, all defaced and mutilated ballots, and, when the polls are closed, all the ballots that have not been voted. The box shall be locked and so returned sealed to the county clerk, with a statement which shall be placed therein signed by the presiding judge of the number of ballots received by him, the number of mutilated or defaced ballots that the box contained, and also the number of ballots not given to voters, as well as those defectively printed, so that, after adding such numbers, all ballots delivered to the election officers may be accounted for. Such ballot box shall, when the returns of votes cast are canvassed by the commissioners court, be opened, the ballots counted and a record made of what they have found to be its contents. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1905, p. 533, Sec. 69.]

Art. 3016. [3009] Deposit and count.—At the expiration of one hour after voting has begun, the receiving judges shall deliver ballot box No. 1 to the counting judges, who shall at once deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall again be opened and examined in the presence of all the judges and securely closed and locked; and, until the ballots in box No. 1 have been counted, the receiving judge shall receive and deposit ballots in ballot box No. 2. Ballot box No. 1 shall, on its receipt by the counting judges, be immediately opened and the tickets taken out by one of them, one by one, when he shall read and distinctly announce while the ticket remains in his hand, the name of each candidate voted for thereon, which shall be noted on the tally sheets, and shall then deliver the ballot to the other counting judge, who shall place the same in box No. 3, which shall remain locked and in view until the counting is finished, when said box shall be returned with the other boxes, locked and sealed, to the county clerk. Ballot boxes Nos. 1 and 2 shall be used by the receiving judge and the counting judge alternately, as above provided, as often as the counting judge has counted and exhausted the ballots in either box. [Id. Sec. 80.]

Art. 3017. [3010] Examining ballots.—No officer of election shall unfold or examine the face of a ballot when received from an elector, nor the indorsement on the ballot, except the signature of the judge, or the words stamped thereon, nor compare it with the clerk's list of voters when the ballots are counted, nor shall he permit the same to be done; nor shall he examine or permit to be examined the ballots after they are deposited in a ballot box, except as herein provided for in canvassing the votes, or in cases especially provided by law. [Id. Sec. 77.]

Art. 3018. [3011-12] Ballots not counted.—The counting judges and clerks shall familiarize themselves with the signature of the judge who writes his name on each ballot that is voted, and shall count no ballot where two or more are folded together, or that does not bear the judge's signature or is unnumbered, or if, on examination by the judges, such signature is found to be a forgery. If the names of two or more persons are upon a ballot for the same office, when but one person is to be elected to that office, such ballot shall not be counted for either of such persons. [Id. Secs. 78; Acts 1876, p. 308; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1144.]

Art. 3019. [3013] If nominee dies before election.—If a nominee dies or declines the nomination before the election, and no one is nominated to take his place, the votes cast for him shall be counted and return made thereof; and, if he shall have received a plurality of the votes cast for the office, the vacancy shall be filed as in case of a vacancy occurring after the election. [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 533, Sec. 78.]

Art. 3020. [3014] Supervisors present.—The election supervisors may be present when the ballots are being examined and the vote called off and noted on the tally sheets. [Id. Sec. 80.]

Art. 3021. [3015] Announcement of vote.—At each change of the boxes, one judge shall announce at the outer door of the voting place the number of votes already cast. [Id. Sec. 81.]

Art. 3022. [3016-17] Status of count announced.—Immediately upon the closing of the polls, and at intervals of two hours thereafter, a judge shall make a correct but unofficial memorandum of the total number of votes counted for each candidate at that time, such memorandum being in the order in which the names of the candidates appear upon the ballot; and thereupon he shall publicly announce from such memorandum the status of the count at the door of the building where the counting is in progress. This memorandum shall thereafter be accessible to the public, and especially newspaper reporters, who may call for information; and the presiding judge or an associate judge may furnish reporters information concerning the status of the count at other times after the polls have closed. The announcement of the status of the count shall continue as aforesaid until the count has been completed, when a correct but unofficial announcement of the total number of votes received by each candidate shall be announced as above provided. This article shall also apply so as to require the same reports from judges of primary elections. The said court may proceed to the trial of said issue raised by said contest after having given the contestants and the contestees full and fair opportunity to produce before said court the evidence upon such issues. The court may adjourn the said hearing from time to time and may, before the final determination of said cause, make such orders and decrees as to the court may seem just and proper, requiring any election officers to make such certificate of the result of such election as in the judgment of the court such officers should have made in making the returns of such election. Upon the trial of said cause, the court shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all matters and things necessary or proper to the determination of the question whether a majority of the legal votes cast in said election, either in favor of or against said proposed amendment, including the manner of holding the election, any frauds or irregularities in the conduct thereof, or in the making of the returns thereof illegal votes cast at said election or legal votes prevented from being cast, false calculations, certificates or returns, and to exercise all powers of the court, in order to fully inquire into and ascertain the true and correct result of such election, free from any fraud, irregularity or mistake. Upon final judgment in said appellate court, it shall enter a decree ordering and directing the Secretary of State to declare the true result of said election as judicially determined and ascertained by said court, and the Secretary of State shall make his tabulations, canvassings and certificates of the results of such election in accordance with the final judgment of said court, and said amendment shall be adopted or rejected in accordance with the final result of said election as finally determined by the judgment of said court. [Id.]

Art. 3101. [3084] Nominated at primary.—On primary election day in 1926, and every two years thereafter, candidates for Governor and for all other State offices to be chosen by vote of the entire State, and candidates for Congress and all district offices to be chosen by the vote of any district comprising more than one county, to be nominated by each organized political party that cast one hundred thousand votes or more at the last general election, shall, together with all candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of a county, or of a portion of a county, be nominated in primary elections by the qualified voters of such party. Art. 3193. Who may be admitted.—A person alleged to be insane, and who is not held on a criminal charge, may be committed to and confined in an institution for the custody and treatment of the insane and of other persons suffering from mental illnesses upon an order made by a county judge of the county in which the alleged insane person resides or may be, adjudging such person to be insane, upon a certificate of insanity made by two properly qualified and licensed physicians, accompanied by a verified petition therefor, or upon such certificate and petition and after a hearing to determine such question, as hereinafter provided. The Board of Control shall prescribe and furnish forms for such certificates and petitions, which shall be made only upon such forms. inhabitant of the State for the six months immediately preceding such time or that provision satisfactory to the Board of Control has been made for his maintenance, or that by reason of insanity he would be dangerous if at large. Upon the demand of any relative or near friend in behalf of such alleged insane person, the judge shall, or he may upon his own motion, issue an order directing the hearing of such application before him at a time not more than five days from the date of such order, which shall be served upon the parties interested in the application and upon such other persons as the judge, in his discretion may name. Art. 3193c. Confinement in jails.—In no case shall any insane person be confined in any other place than an institution for the treatment of the insane and other mentally ill persons, for a period longer than thirty days, nor shall such person be committed as a disorderly person to any prison, jail or lockup for criminals, except when in the judgment of the county health officer no other quarters suitable for the detention of such in-

If, in case of emergency, any such person is so placed or detained in a jail or other lockup, he shall forthwith be examined by a physician and shall be furnished suitable medical care and nursing. The reasonable expense for board, lodging, medical care, nursing, clothing and all other necessary expenses incurred by the county health officer under this section, shall be allowed by the commissioners' court and paid out of the general fund of the county. In all cases of commitment of an insane person to jail or other place of temporary restraint, a notice of such commitment, giving the name and condition of patient and character of place to which he is committed, shall be sent immediately to the State Board of Control by the judge ordering the commitment.

Art. 3193d. [161] Warrant to sheriff.—Immediately after any person is adjudged insane the county judge shall communicate with the superintendent of the State Hospital or Psychopathic Hospital of the district in which said person resides or may be at the time, and if notified by the latter that there is a vacancy in the institution, he shall issue a warrant to the sheriff or some other suitable person, directing him to convey the insane person to the hospital without delay. The county judge may permit, by special order, the assistance of one additional person to such office in cases where he deems such assistance necessary. Each female committed to any institution for the treatment of the insane and of other mentally ill persons shall be accompanied by a female attendant, unless accompanied by her father, brother, husband or son, during conveyance to such institution.

Art. 3193e. Certificate of physicians.—If a person is found by two properly qualified and licensed physicians to be in such mental condition that his commitment to an institution for the treatment of the insane and other mentally ill persons is necessary for his proper care or observation, he may be committed by the county judge to a State Hospital for thirty-five days pending the determination of his insanity; within thirty days after such commitment, the superintendent of the institution to which the person has been committed shall discharge him if he is not insane, and shall notify the judge who committed him, or if he is insane he shall report the patient's mental condition to the judge with the recommendation that he shall be committed as an insane person or discharged to the care of his guardian, relatives, or friends, if he is harmless and can properly be cared for by them, within the said thirty-five days, the committing judge may authorize a discharge as aforesaid, or he may commit the patient to the institution as an insane person, if, in his opinion, such commitment is necessary. If in the opinion of the judge, additional medical testimony as to the mental condition of the alleged insane person is desirable, he may appoint a physician to examine and report thereon.

Whenever any such person is received into any institution, the superintendent thereof shall give immediate notice of such reception to the Board of Control.

Art. 3193i. Temporary absence.—The superintendent of any institution, after the examination as hereinafter provided, may permit any inmate thereof temporarily to leave such institution in charge of his guardian, relatives, friends, or by himself, for a period not exceeding twelve months, and may receive him when returned by any such guardian, relative, friend, or upon his own application, within such period, without any further order of commitment, but no patient, who has been charged with, or convicted of, some offense and been adjudged insane in accordance with the provisions of the code of criminal procedure, shall be permitted to temporarily leave such institution without the approval of the governor, nor shall such permission terminate or in any way affect the original order of commitment. The Board shall appoint for each of said colonies a regularly licensed physician. The Board shall supply each colony with the necessary cooks, waiters, yard men, nurses, etc., for the operation and maintenance of such colonies. Each physician so appointed shall be superintendent of the institution under his control and shall have power to remove at will, and without assigning any cause whatever, any person employed in any colony over which he has such authority. Non-indigent public patients are those who possess some property out of which the State may be reimbursed, or who have some one legally liable for their support. Such suit shall be instituted upon the written request of the superintendent of said colony accompanied by a certificate as to the amount due the State, which in no case shall exceed five dollars per week for the board of such patient, together with the necessary cost incident to his transportation to said colony. In all suits or proceedings, the certificate of the superintendent shall be sufficient evidence of the amount due the State for the support of such patient. It shall be the duty of said attorney upon such request being made to institute and conduct such proceedings and for which he shall be entitled to a commission of ten per cent of the amount collected. All moneys so collected less such commission shall be by the county attorney paid to the superintendent of said colony, who shall receive and receipt for the same and shall use the same for the maintenance and improvement of said property.

Private patients may be admitted into said colonies upon application of parent or guardian or friend, under such regulations as the Board may prescribe, not in conflict with this law. Such patients shall be kept and maintained at the colony at their own expense for the board and care of such patients. The Board may make special contracts for private patients at a rate not to exceed ten dollars per week, payable in advance. All moneys collected shall be paid to the superintendent of such institution, who shall account for the same and for its use in the maintenance and improvement of said colony at which the same is received. [Id.]

Art. 3243. Certificate of examination.—Said application shall be accompanied by the certificate of a reputable practicing physician, or in the case of indigent patients, by a certificate from the county physician, stating that he has thoroughly examined the person for whose admission application has been made, and that such person is suffering from tuberculosis, and the duration of said disease if known, and the accompanying bodily disorders. No person afflicted with any contagious, infectious or transmissible disease, other than tuberculosis, shall be admitted. It shall be the duty of the county judge to certify that the physician making the certificate is a reputable physician actively engaged in the practice of his profession, and has complied with the law of this State governing licenses to practice medicine. [Id.]

Art. 3244. Duties of county judge.—If the county judge is not satisfied as to the showing made in said application and certificate or either, he may subpoena witnesses and examine them under oath touching such matters, and if it be made to appear to the judge that such person is entitled to admission into the colonies under the provisions of this law, he shall forward an application for admission, together with the application hereinbefore described, to the State Health Officer. If such county judge shall find that the person for whom application is made is in fact not indigent, then he shall make application for such person as a non-indigent patient. [Id.]

Art. 3245. Duties of State Health Officer.—The State Health Officer shall receive such applications, alphabetically index and file the same in his office where they shall become a permanent

[Id.]

Art. 3246. No preference in admission.—No patient in any State colony shall be discriminated against by virtue of the fact that he is an indigent, non-indigent or private patient, but they shall be treated alike, given equal facilities, equal attention and equal treatment. No patient in any such institution shall be permitted to give any officer, servant, agent or employe in any such institution any tip, pay or reward of any kind, and if such patient does so, it shall be a cause for his expulsion from said colony, and the discharge of any servant accepting the same; and the Board shall see that this provision is rigidly enforced. [Id.]

Art. 3247. Regulation of admission.—The State Health Officer shall keep on file an alphabetical index of applications of all patients, and patients shall be admitted according to their file number; reserving at all times not less than one-half of the accommodations afforded at each colony for indigent consumptives; one-fourth of the accommodations for non-indigent patients, and one-fourth for the accommodations for the private or pay patients; subject, however, to the control and discretion of the Board. If any applicant who complies with the provisions of this law applies for admission and said sanatoriums are full of patients, then such applicant shall have the right to furnish his own tent, bedding, and enter said sanatorium by paying the regular charges for board and treatment and complying in every respect with the law, rules and regulations governing said sanatorium. [Id.]

Art. 3248. Clothing, etc., expenses.—The county judge shall see that each patient admitted to the colony is supplied with three full suits of underwear and one neat top coat, all being such as may be prescribed by the State Health Officer; and the expenses of the clothing and transportation of public indigent patients shall be paid by the county from which the patient is sent. If any patient is admitted directly upon the certificate of the State Health Officer as an indigent patient, then the State Health officer shall supply such patient with such clothing and his certificate thereof shall be full evidence that the same was so supplied and of the value thereof, and the county from which said patient came shall be chargeable with said clothes and shall pay the same upon presentation of said certificate. Non-indigent public patients shall pay for their clothing and transportation themselves. [Id.]

Art. 3249. Private additions to sanatorium.—The Board is

"Children" under this article shall mean any minor child of a deceased member of such fraternity or society. Such accommodations or any part of them not being used or required by those entitled to such preference, may be used and occupied by other patients in said sanatorium at the discretion of the superintendent thereof and without any charge therefor against the State. [Acts 1917, p. 408.]

Art. 3250. Plan of buildings.—All matters pertaining to the location, construction, style or character of buildings, term of their existence and all other questions arising in connection with the granting of the permission to erect and maintain the accommodations contemplated in the preceding article, shall be arranged and agreed upon in writing by and between the Board on the part of the State, and the properly authorized officers, board or committee of each respective charitable fraternity or society, and such written agreement in each case shall be recorded at length upon the minutes of the Board and be duly reported to the State Health Officer in the next succeeding report of the superintendents of the sanatorium, accompanied with all documents pertaining to the matter, or full copies thereof. [Id.]

times have the preference and right to occupy the accommodations erected and maintained hereunder by their several and respective fraternities or societies, when not already filled with others having the same preferential right. [Id.]

| Rule of damages | 3265 | Property, how construed | 3270 |
| General provisions | 3266 | Property vested by judgment | 3271 |
| How costs awarded | 3267 | | |

Art. 3264. [6506] [6528] Procedure.—The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall in all cases be governed by the following rules:

1. When real estate is desired for public use by the State or by a county, or a political subdivision of a county, or by a city or town, or by the United States Government, or by a corporation having the right of eminent domain, the party desiring to condemn the property after having failed to agree with the owner of the land on the amount of damages shall file a statement in writing with the county judge of the county in which the land or a part thereof is situated. It shall describe the land sought to be condemned, state the purpose for which it is intended to be used, the name of the owner if known, and that the plaintiff and the owner have been unable to agree upon the value of the land or the damages. Where the land lies in two or more counties, in one of which the owner resides, the statement shall be filed in the county of the owner's residence.

2. When such statement is filed with the county judge, he shall, either in term time or vacation, appoint three disinterested freeholders of said county as special commissioners to assess said damages, giving preference to those that may be agreed upon between the parties.

3. The commissioners shall be sworn to assess said damages fairly and impartially and in accordance with law.

4. The commissioners shall promptly set a time and place for hearing the parties, and the day appointed shall be the earliest practicable day, and the place selected shall be as near as practicable to the property in controversy or at the county seat of the county in which the property is situated.

5. Notice in writing shall be issued by the commissioners to each of the parties interested, notifying them of the time and place selected for the hearing.

6. The notices shall be served upon the parties at least five days before the day set for the hearing, exclusive of the day of the service, and may be served by any person competent to testify, by delivering a copy of such notice to the party, his agent or attorney.

7. When the property sought belongs to the estate of a deceased person or a minor, or other person laboring under disability, and the estate has a legal representative, the notice shall be served upon such representative.

8. When the property belongs to a non-resident of the State, or if the owner is unknown, or if the residence of the owner is unknown, or the owner secretes himself so that the process of law cannot be served upon him, such notice may be served by publication in the manner provided for such service of citation by publication in other civil cases in the district or county court. When the owner is a non-resident of the State the notice may be served as provided in paragraph six hereof.

9. The person serving notice shall return the original to the commissioners on or before the day set for the hearing, with his return in writing thereon, stating how and when it was served.

10. When service of notice has been perfected, the commissioners shall at the time and place appointed or at any other time and place to which the hearing may be adjourned, proceed to hear the parties.

11. Commissioners shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of testimony, administer oaths, and punish for contempt as fully and in the same manner as is provided by law for judges of the county courts.

Art. 3264a. Eminent domain by counties.—The right of Eminent Domain is hereby conferred upon counties of the State of Texas for the purpose of condemning and acquiring land, right of way or easement in land, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, where said land, right of way or easement is necessary in the construction of jails, courthouses, hospitals, delinquent and dependent schools, poor farms, libraries or for other public purposes, where such purpose is now or may hereafter be authorized by the Constitution or Statutes of this State.

All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the commissioners' court, and in the name of the county, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the Statutes of the State of Texas for condemning and acquiring right of way by railroads. That no appeal from the finding and assessment of damages by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing the suspension of work by the county in connection with which the land, right of way, easement, etc., is sought to be acquired. In case of appeal, counties shall not be required to give bond, nor shall they be required to give bond for costs. [Acts 1925, p. 300.]

Art. 3265. [6518-28] Rule of damages.—

1. The commissioners shall hear evidence as to the value of the property sought to be condemned and as to the damages which will be sustained by the owner, if any, by reason of such condemnation and as to the benefits that will result to the remainder of such property belonging to such owner, if any, by reason of the condemnation of the property, and its employment for the purpose for which it is to be condemned, and according to this rule shall assess the actual damages that will accrue to the owner by such condemnation.

2. When the whole of a tract or parcel of a person's real estate is condemned, the damages to which he shall be entitled shall be the market value of the property in the market where it is located at the time of the hearing.

3. When only a portion of a tract or parcel of a person's real estate is condemned, the commissioners shall estimate the injuries sustained and the benefits received thereby by the owner; whether the remaining portion is increased or diminished in value by reason of such condemnation, and the extent of such increase or diminution, and shall assess the damages accordingly.

4. In estimating either the injuries or benefits, as provided in the preceding article, such injuries or benefits which the owner sustains or receives in common with the community generally and which are not peculiar to him and connected with his ownership, use and enjoyment, of the particular parcel of land, shall not be considered by the commissioners in making their estimate.

5. When the commissioners have assessed the damages, they shall reduce their decision to writing, stating therein the amount of damages due the owner, if any be found to be due, and shall date and sign such decision and file it together with all other papers connected with the case promptly with the county judge.

Art. 3266. [6507-28] General provisions.—

1. When the county judge is disqualified to act in the case, and the parties fail to agree upon a special judge, he shall certify such disqualification upon the petition or statement filed with him, and file it with the county clerk, who shall make a certified copy thereof and of the endorsement thereon and forward the same to the Governor, who shall appoint some person learned in the law to act as special judge, and such special judge when appointed and qualified, shall proceed with the case to its final conclusion, or the parties may agree upon a special judge.

2. The county judge may appoint other commissioners when one or more of those appointed shall fail to serve.

3. Commissioners shall receive for their services three dollars for each day they may be engaged in the performance of their duties, and may withhold their decision until their fees are paid.

4. The party seeking to condemn the property shall pay the expense of serving notice upon the owner, but may recover from the owner such expenses when it is decided that the owner shall pay the costs.

5. The commissioners may adjudge the costs against either party, and shall make a statement in writing of all the costs which have accrued and state therein the party against whom such costs have been adjudged, and shall sign such statement and deliver it with the other papers.

6. If either party be dissatisfied with the decision, such party may within ten days after the same has been filed with the county judge file his objection thereto in writing, setting forth the grounds of his objection, and thereupon the adverse party shall be cited and the cause shall be tried and determined as in other civil causes in the county court.

7. If no objections to the decision are filed within ten days, the county judge, shall cause said decision to be recorded in the minutes of his court, and shall make the same the judgment of the court and issue the necessary process to enforce the same.

Art. 3267. [6529] [4470] [4204] How costs awarded.—The costs of the proceedings before the commissioners and in the court shall be determined as follows, to-wit: If the commissioners shall award greater damages than the plaintiff offered to pay before the proceedings commenced, or if objections are filed to the decision in the county court under the provisions of this title, and the judgment of the court is for a greater sum than the amount awarded by the commissioners, then the plaintiff shall pay all costs; but if the amount awarded by the commissioners as damages or the judgment of the county court shall be for the same or less amount of damages than the amount offered before proceedings were commenced, then the costs shall be paid by the owner of the property.

Art. 3268. [6530] [4471] [4205] Damages paid first.—If the plaintiff in the condemnation proceedings should desire to enter upon and take possession of the property sought to be condemned, pending litigation, it may do so at any time after the award of the commissioners, upon the following conditions, to-wit:

1. It shall pay to the defendant the amount of damages awarded or adjudged against it by the commissioners, or deposit the same in money in court, subject to the order of the defendant, and also pay the costs awarded against it.

2. In addition thereto, it shall deposit in said court a further sum of money equal to the amount of the damages awarded by the commissioners, and which shall be held, together with the award itself, should it be deposited in court instead of being paid, exclusively to secure all damages that may be awarded or adjudged against the plaintiff; and it shall also execute a bond with two or more good and solvent sureties, to be approved by the judge of the court in which such condemnation proceedings are pending, conditioned for the payment of any further costs that may be adjudged against it, either in the court below or upon appeal.

3. Should it be determined on final decision of the case that the right to condemn the property in question does not exist, the plaintiff shall surrender possession thereof, if it has taken possession pending litigation, and the court shall so adjudge and order a writ of possession for the property in favor of the defendant, and the court may also inquire what damages, if any, have been suffered by the defendant by reason of the temporary possession of the plaintiff, and order the same paid out of the award or other money deposited; provided, that in any case where the award paid the defendant or appropriated by him exceeds the value of the property as determined by the final judgment, the court shall adjudge the excess to be returned to the plaintiff.

If the cause should be appealed from the decision of the county court, the appeal shall be governed by the law governing appeals in other cases; except the judgment of the county court shall not be suspended thereby. [Const. Art. 1, Sec. 17; Acts 1899, p. 105.]

Art. 3269. [6531] [4472] Practice in case specified.—When those having the right of eminent domain are sued for property or for damages to property occupied by it for the purpose for which it has the right to exercise such power, the court in which such suit is pending may determine all matters in dispute between the parties, including the condemnation of property, upon petition or cross-bill asking such remedy by defendant, but the plea for condemnation shall be admission of the plaintiff's title to such property. [Acts 1899, p. 18.]

Art. 3270. [6532] [4473] [4206] Property, how construed.—Except where otherwise expressly provided by law, the right secured or to be secured to any corporation or other plaintiff in this State, in the manner provided by this law, shall not be so construed as to include the fee simple estate in lands, either public or private, nor shall the same be lost by the forfeiture or expiration of the charter, but shall remain subject to an extension of the charter or the grant of a new charter without a new condemnation. [Acts 1861, p. 12.]

Art. 3271. [6534] [4475] [4208] Property vested by judgment.—Whenever acquired as hereinbefore provided, the judgment of the court shall vest such right in the company acquiring the same.

[Id.]

Art. 3539. [3466] [2099] [2045] Payment of claims in full.—If it shall appear from the exhibit, or from other evidence, that the estate is wholly solvent, and that the executor or administrator has in his hands sufficient funds for the payment of all character of claims against the estate, the county judge shall order immediate payment to be made of all claims allowed and approved or established by judgment. If an executor or administrator should either directly or indirectly become the purchaser of any of the property of his testator or intestate, at a sale made by him or his co-executor or co-administrator, upon the written complaint of any person interested in the estate, and service of citation upon any such executor or administrator, and, upon proof of such complaint, such sale shall be declared void by the county judge, and such executor or administrator decreed to hold the property so purchased in trust as assets of the estate, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes. [Id.]

Art. 3580. [3505] [2138] [2084] Failure of bidder to comply, etc.—When any person shall bid off property offered for sale, rent or hire, at public auction, by an executor or administrator, and shall fail to comply with the terms of sale, renting or hiring, such property shall be re-advertised and sold, rented or hired without any further order; and the person so failing to comply shall be liable to pay such executor or administrator for the use of the estate ten per cent on the amount of his bid, and also the deficiency in price on the second sale, renting or hiring, if any, to be recovered by such executor or administrator. [Id.]

Art. 3595. [3524] Effect.—As between the parties to such cause who may have been personally served with citation or notice, and as to non-resident defendants and all bona fide purchasers of the property described in the judgment for value from them, or any of them, such judgment shall be conclusive, and as to any and all other persons such judgment shall be prima facie evidence that the heirs of such decedent and that their respective interest in the property described in such judgment are as therein stated; but such judgment shall not preclude any suit against the persons therein named as heirs of such decedent, or any one or more of them, based upon the allegation that such heir or heirs have received more than his or their proper and just share of the property of such decedent. 2. The persons who are by law entitled to partition and distribution, and their respective shares.

3. Whether advancements have been made to any of the persons so entitled, their nature and value, and shall require the same to be placed in hotchpotch as required by the law governing descents and distributions. [Id.]

[Id.]

Art. 3606. [3535] [2162] [2107] Decree of partition.—The court shall then proceed to enter a decree, which shall state:

[3537] [2164] [2109] To appoint commissioners.—If the estate does not consist entirely of money or debts due the estate, or both, the court shall appoint three or more discreet and disinterested persons as commissioners, to make a partition and distribution of the estate, unless the court has already determined that the estate is incapable of partition. [Id. Acts 1905, p. 108.]

Art. 3609. [3538] [2165] [2110] Writ of partition.—When commissioners are appointed, the clerk shall issue a writ of partition directed to the commissioners appointed, commanding them to proceed forthwith to make such partition and distribution in accordance with the decree of the court, a copy of which decree shall accompany the writ, and also commanding them to make due return of said writ, with their proceedings under it at some term of the court to be named in the writ. [Acts 1876, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 956.]

Art. 3610. [3539] [2166] [2111] Service of writ.—Such writ shall be served by delivering the same and the accompanying copy of the decree of partition to any one of the commissioners appointed, and by notifying the other commissioners, verbally or otherwise, of their appointment, and such service may be made by any person.

Art. 3611. [3540] [2167] [2112] Partition by commissioners.—The commissioners shall make a fair, just and impartial partition and distribution of the estate in the following order:

1. Of the land or other property by allotment to each distributee of a part in each parcel or of parts in one or more parcels, or of one or more parcels either with or without the addition of a part or parts of other parcels as shall be most for the interest of the distributees; provided, the real estate is capable of being divided without manifest injury to all or any of the distributees.

2. If the real estate is not capable of a fair, just and equal division in kind, but may be made so by allotting to one or more of the distributees a proportion of the money or other personal property to supply the deficiency or deficiencies, the commissioners shall have power to make, as near as may be, an equal division of the real estate and supply the deficiency of any share or shares from the money or other property.

3. The commissioners shall proceed to make a like division in kind, as near as may be, of the money and other personal property, and shall determine by lot, among equal shares to whom each particular share shall belong. [Id.]

Art. 3612. [3541] [2168] [2113] Report of commissioners.—Said commissioners having divided the whole, or any part of the estate, shall make to the court a written sworn report containing a statement of the property divided by them, and also a particular description of the property allotted to each distributee and its value. And, if it be real estate that has been divided, the report shall contain a general plat of said land with the division lines plainly set down and a number of acres in each share. [Id.]

Art. 3613. [3542] [2169] [2114] Action of court.—Upon the return of such report, the court, at some regular term, shall examine the same carefully and hear all exceptions and objections thereto, and evidence in favor of or against the same, and, if it be informal, shall cause said informality to be corrected. If such division shall appear to have been fairly made according to law, and no valid exceptions are taken to it, the court shall approve it and order it to be recorded, and shall enter a decree vesting title in the distributees of their respective shares or portions of the property as set apart to them by the commissioners, otherwise the court may set aside said report and division and order a new partition to be made. [Id.]

Art. 3614. [3543] [2170] [2115] Special finding.—When the whole or any portion of the estate is in the opinion of the court not capable of fair and equal division among the distributees, the court shall make a special finding in writing, specifying therein the property that is incapable of division, and the value of the same as found. [Id. Acts 1905, p. 109.]

Art. 3615. [3544] [2171] [2116] Property incapable of division.—Upon such special finding of the court, and not less than twenty days after such finding, and before any exception thereto is filed, or after such exception is acted upon by the court, any one or more of the distributees at a regular term of the court by the payment to the executor or administrator of the value of the property found by the court, that is incapable of division, shall have the right to take such property. [Id.]

Art. 3616. [3545] [2172] [2117] May take it on credit.—With the approval of the court, any one or more of such distributees shall have the right to take said property by executing his or their obligation in favor of each of the other distributees for their share of the appraised value of such property, payable at such time, not exceeding twelve months from the date thereof, as the court may designate; and, when such obligations are executed, a lien shall exist upon such property by operation of law to secure the payment of the same. [Acts 1876, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 956.]

Art. 3617. [3546] [2173] [2118] Decree of court.—Should any one or more of the distributees take the property, the court shall enter upon the minutes a decree stating the facts; and, upon the entry of such decree all the right and title of the deceased in the property shall vest fully and absolutely in the person or persons taking the same, subject to the purchase money lien. [Id.]

Art. 3618. [3547] [2174] [2119] New appraisalment.—Any distributee shall have the right to file his exception to said finding within twenty days thereafter, and the court shall hear proof of same; and, if satisfied that its finding is erroneous, it may make such additional or amendatory finding so as to conform to the proof. Art. 3621. [3550] [2177] [2122] Court may order sale.—When any portion of the estate to be partitioned lies in another county and cannot be fairly partitioned without prejudice to the interests of the distributees, the commissioners may report such facts to the county judge in writing; whereupon at some regular term of the court, if satisfied that the said property cannot be fairly divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, he may order a sale thereof for cash, or on a credit of not more than twelve months. [Id.]

Art. 3622. [3551] [2178] [2123] Commissioners in each county.—If the court is not satisfied that such property can be fairly and advantageously divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, three or more commissioners may be appointed in each county where any portion of the estate so reported is situated, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as is provided in this chapter for commissioners to make partition. [Id.]

Art. 3623. [3552] [2179] [2124] Majority may act.—Where commissioners to make partition are appointed under this chapter, the report of a majority of them shall be sufficient. [Id.]

[3554] [2181] [2126] To whom delivered.—If any distributee be a minor, his share shall be delivered to his guardian; if he has no guardian and is a resident of this State, the executor or administrator shall retain it until a guardian is appointed; if a distributee be a minor and resides out of this State, and has a guardian in the State where he resides, the executor or administrator in this State shall settle with and pay or deliver the estate of the minor to such guardian. Said guardian, before he receives such estate, shall make a bond as guardian in the matter of the guardianship so pending, conditioned and for the amount prescribed by the court having jurisdiction of such guardianship; and he shall produce to the court wherein administration has been, or may be granted in this State a certified copy of the bond and of the record of his appointment as guardian, with certificates from the clerk and judge of the court in which said guardianship is pending that said appointment and bond are in due and legal form under the laws of said State; also a copy of his bond as guardian; and if the court shall be satisfied that said guardian has been legally appointed and otherwise complied with the requirements herein, such court shall order same to be recorded in the office of the county clerk, whereupon the guardian shall settle for the amount due his ward. [Id.]

Art. 3628. [3557] [2184] [2129] Action and bond in such case.—The surviving husband or wife shall execute and deliver to the county judge an obligation with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and approved by said county judge, for an amount equal to the value of his or her interest in such common property, conditioned for the payment of one-half of all debts existing against such common property, and the county judge shall proceed to make a partition of said common property into two equal moieties, one to be delivered to the survivor and the other to the executor or administrator of the deceased. The provisions of this chapter respecting the partition and distribution of estates shall apply to such partition so far as the same may be applicable. [Id.]

Art. 3629. [Acts March 20, 1848; P. D. 3806; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 184.]

Art. 3723. [3697] [2309] [2254] Notarial acts and copies

Art. 3724. [3698] [2310] [2255] Transcript from Comptroller's office.—In suits by the State against any officer or agent thereof, on account of any delinquency or failure to pay to the State any money, a transcript from the papers, books, records and proceedings of the office of the Comptroller purporting to contain a true statement of accounts between the State and such party, authenticated under the seal of said office, shall be admitted as prima facie evidence; and the court trying the cause may thereupon render judgment accordingly. All copies of bonds, contracts or other papers relating to, or connected with, any account between the State and an individual, sued as aforesaid, when certified by the Comptroller to be true copies of the originals on file in said office, and authenticated under the seal of said office, may be annexed to such transcript and shall be entitled to the same degree of credit that would be due to the original papers if produced and proved in court; but, when such suit is brought upon a bond or other written instrument, and the defendant shall by plea under oath deny the execution of such instrument, the court shall require the production and proof thereof. [Acts 1861, p. 14; P. D. 3704; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 351.]

Art. 3725. [3699] [2311] [2256] Copies of certain ancient instruments.—Copies of all conveyances and other instruments of writing between private individuals, which were filed in the office of any alcalde or judge in Texas previous to the first Monday in February, 1837, shall be admissible in evidence, and shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof; provided, such copies are certified under the hand and official seal of the officer with whom the originals are now deposited. [Acts May 13, 1846, p. 365; P. D. 3717; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1671.]

Art. 3726. [3700] [2312] [2257] Recorded instruments admitted without proof.—Every instrument of writing which is permitted or required by law to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county court, and which has been, or hereafter may be, actually recorded for a period of ten years in the book used by said clerk for the recording of such instruments, whether proved or acknowledged in such manner or not, shall be admitted as evidence in any suit in this State without the necessity of proving its execution, provided, no claim adverse or inconsistent to the one evidenced by such instrument shall have been asserted during that ten years; provided, that the party to give such instrument in evidence shall file the same among the papers of the suit in which he proposes to use it at least three days before the commencement of the trial of such suit, and give notice of such filing to the opposite party, or his attorney of record; and unless such opposite party, or some other person for him, shall, within three days before the trial of the cause, file an affidavit stating that he believes such instrument of writing to be forged. Whenever any party to a suit shall file among the papers of the cause an affidavit stating that any instrument of writing, recorded as aforesaid, has been lost, or that he cannot procure the original, a certified copy of the record of any such instrument shall be admitted in evidence in like manner as the original could be. After such instrument shall have been actually recorded as herein provided for a period of ten years, it shall be no objection to the admission of same, or a certified copy thereof, as evidence, that the certificate of the officer who took such proof or acknowledgment, is not in form or substance such as required by the laws of this State; and said instrument shall be given the same effect as if it were not so defective. [Acts 1846, p. 387; Acts 1907, p. 308; P. D. 3716; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1693.]

Art. 3727. [3701] Old record books declared valid.—All volumes constituting a portion of the records of any county organized prior to January 1, 1882, wherein are recorded deeds, mortgages or trust deeds, or other muniments of title to real estate situated in such county, which volumes and records are now and have been constantly among the archives of such county, as records thereof, shall be in all respects lawful and valid records of such counties respectively, for all purposes whatsoever relating to titles to real estate, as effectively as if such books and records were originally records of such counties, respectively, and as fully and completely as if such counties had been duly organized at the dates of the filing for record of the instruments recorded therein, as shown therein. Certified copies of the instruments recorded in said volumes, made in accordance with law, shall have the force and effect that certified copies of original records have in organized counties, and same may be used for all purposes lawful for certified copies of original records in ordinary cases in organized counties. [Acts 1905, p. 36.]

Art. 3728. [3703] [2319] [2263] Copies of transcribed records.—Where a county has been or may be created out of the territory of any organized county, and the records of deeds and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded, relating to lands or other property in such new county, have been transcribed and placed on record in such new county, in accordance with law, certified copies of such transcribed records in the new county may be admitted in evidence with like effect as certified copies of the original records. [Acts 1879, p. 106; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1406.]

Art. 3729. [3705] [2313] Certain abstracts.—All abstracts of land titles, or land abstract books to lands in this State, compiled from the records of any county in this State, prior to the year 1890, which said records were partially or wholly destroyed or lost from any cause during the month of May, 1874,

March, 1876, and January, 1889, shall be competent prima facie evidence of the truth of the data or memoranda therein contained and compiled prior to the year 1890, and shall be admissible in evidence in the courts of this State; provided, that the compiler or compilers of such abstracts of land titles or land title abstract books, shall have made heretofore, or before offered in evidence, affidavit to the effect that said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, were compiled by him from the records of the county prior to their destruction or loss, and that they contain a true and correct statement of the matters and things to which they relate. Any testimony is admissible which tends to discredit or substantiate the reliability of such abstract of land titles or land title abstract books, or tends to show the compiler thereof to have been incompetent or unreliable, or competent and reliable. A copy of such abstract shall be filed in the papers of the cause in which it is sought to be used, and notice given to the opposite party at least five days before the trial, and the same defense may be made as if copies of the original record had been filed; provided, that the party offering such abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, in evidence, shall himself, or by his agent or attorney, have made affidavit that the original instrument to which the said data or memorandum relates is not then on record; and that he has made diligent search and inquiry for the same in places and from persons where and in whose possession it would most probably be found, and has been unable to find the same; that, to his best knowledge and belief, the same is lost or destroyed; and provided, further, that the owner of said abstracts of land titles, or of land title abstract books, shall have filed with the county commissioners court his application in writing (which may be granted or refused, in the discretion of said court, and if refused, this article shall not become of force as to said application so refused) for an order of said court admitting to record in said court the contract of the said owner in writing, wherein the said owner shall bind himself, his heirs and assigns, as follows: That said owner, his heirs or assigns, will, whenever requested in writing, setting forth the data required by any party to any suit interested in introducing said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, produce the same without charge on the day demanded for introducing in evidence, and upon the trial of any cause in this State; provided, that if said owner, his heirs or assigns, are required to produce said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, in courts of any other county than that to the lands of which said abstract of land titles, or land title abstract books pertain, they shall be, by the party at whose instance such production is required, reasonably compensated in advance for the time and expense of the said owner, his heirs or assigns. And the said owner in said contract shall bind himself, his heirs and assigns, to answer in full damages to any party damaged by the failure or default of the said owner, his heirs or assigns, without good cause, to produce said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, as herein provided. Said contract shall further stipulate that no charge shall ever be made by said owner, his heirs or assigns, in excess of one dollar for each instrument or remove in any title, in the compilation of a complete abstract or title to the lands in the county to which said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, pertain, and that said owner, his heirs and assigns, will, upon request and payment of the fees therefor by any person, either make, compile and certify, or cause to be made, compiled or certified, within a reasonable time, a complete abstract of title to any land to which said abstracts of land titles, or land title abstract books, pertain. The provisions of this article shall not apply if it can be shown by competent evidence that any such deeds were improperly recorded. Whenever any person, company or corporation has heretofore complied with the law which is amended hereby, in order to make an abstract evidence, the said person, company or corporation shall not be required to do anything more or further under this article in order to have the benefits thereof. [Acts 1891, p. 136; Acts 1897, p. 146; Acts 1901, p. 44.]

Art. 3730. [3706] [2314] [2258] Certified copy of instrument sued on.—If suit be brought on any instrument or note in writing filed in any suit brought thereupon in any other court of this State, a certified copy of such instrument or note in writing, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court in which the original may be filed, shall be admitted as evidence in like manner as such original might be; but if the defendant shall plead, and file an affidavit that such original instrument or note in writing has not been executed by him, or by his authority, the clerk of the court having the custody of such original shall, on being summoned as a witness, attend with the same on trial of the cause. [Acts 1891, p. 136; Acts 1846, p. 365; P. D. 3718; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1692.]

Art. 3731. [3707] [2315] [2259] Certified copies from heads of departments.—Certified copies, under the hands and official seals of the heads of departments, of all notes, bonds, mortgages, bills, accounts, or other documents, properly on file in any department of this State, shall be received in evidence on an equal footing with the originals, in all suits now pending, or which may be hereafter instituted, in this State, where the originals of such notes, bonds, mortgages, bills, accounts or other documents would be evidence. [Acts 1870, p. 62; P. D. 6825; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 236.]

Art. 3732. [3708] [2316] [2260] Assessment or payment of taxes.—Whenever in any cause it may be material to prove the assessment of any property for taxes, or the payment of any taxes, the certificate of the Comptroller of such assessment from the rolls deposited in his office, or that the payment of such taxes is shown by the records of his office, shall be admissible in evidence to prove the same. [P. D. 3708.]

Art. 3733. [3709] [2317] [2261] Rate of interest presumed.—The rate of interest in any other State, territory or country is presumed to be the same as that established by law in this State, and may be recovered accordingly without allegation or proof thereof, unless the rate of interest in such other country be alleged and proved. [Acts 1858, p. 112; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 984.]

Art. 3734. [3710] [2318] [2262] Execution of written instruments presumed.—When any petition, answer, or other pleading shall be founded, in whole or in part, on any instrument or note in writing charged to have been executed by the other party or by his authority, and not alleged therein to be lost or destroyed, such instrument or note in writing shall be received as evidence without the necessity of proving its execution, unless the party by whom or by whose authority such instrument or note in writing is charged to have been executed, shall file his affidavit denying the execution thereof; and the like rule shall prevail in all suits against indorsers and sureties upon any note or instrument in writing. When any such instrument or note in writing is charged to have been executed by any testator or intestate, it shall be received in evidence in like manner, unless some suspicion is cast upon it by an affidavit of the executor or administrator of such testator or intestate. [Acts 1846, p. 386; P. D. 1443; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1692.]

Art. 3735. [3711] [2321] [2264] Appointment and qualification of executor, etc.—Whenever it may be necessary to make proof of the appointment and qualification of an executor, administrator or guardian, the letters issued to them in the manner provided by law, or a certificate of the proper clerk under his official seal that such letters have been issued, shall be sufficient evidence of the appointment and qualification of such executor, administrator or guardian. [Acts 1863, p. 5; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 593.]

Art. 3736. [3712] [2323] [2266] Suit on sworn account.—When any action or defense is founded upon an open account, supported by the affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney, taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, to the effect that such account is, within the knowledge of affiant, just and true, that it is due, and that all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits have been allowed, the same shall be taken as prima facie evidence thereof, unless the party resisting such claim shall, before an announcement of ready for trial in said cause, file a written denial, under oath, stating that such account is not just or true, in whole or in part, and if in part only, stating the items and particulars which are unjust; provided, that when such counter affidavit shall be filed on the day of the trial, the party claiming under such verified account shall have the right to continue such cause until the next term of court; when he fails to file such affidavit, he shall not be permitted to deny the account, or any item therein as the case may be. [Acts 1883, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 416.]

Art. 3737. Art. 3738. [3649] [2273] [2218] Depositions of witnesses.—Depositions of witnesses may be taken when the party desires to perpetuate the testimony of a witness, and, in all civil suits heretofore or hereafter brought in this State, whether the witness resides in the county where the suit is brought or out of it; provided, the failure to secure the deposition of a male witness residing in the county in which the suit is pending shall not be regarded as want of diligence where diligence has been used to secure his personal attendance by the service of subpoena or attachment, under the rules of law, unless by reason of age, infirmity or sickness, or official duty, the witness will be unable to attend the court, or unless he is about to leave, or has left the State or county in which the suit is pending and will not probably be present at the trial. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 3726; Acts 1879, p. 126; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1671; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1426.]

Art. 3739. [3650] [2274] [2219] Notice and service.—The party wishing to take the deposition of a witness in a suit pending in court shall file with the clerk or justice of the peace, as the case may be, a notice of his intention to apply for a commission to take the answers of the witness to interrogatories attached to such notice. The notice shall state the name and residence of the witness, or the place where he is to be found, and the suit in which the deposition is to be used; and a copy thereof and of the attached interrogatories shall be served upon the adverse party, or his attorney of record, five days before the issuance of a commission. Whenever the adverse party is a corporation or joint stock association, service may be made upon the president, secretary or treasurer of such corporation or association, or upon the local agent representing such corporation or association in the county in which the suit is pending, or by leaving a copy of the notice and attached interrogatories at the principal office of such corporation or association during office hours. [Acts 1879, p. 126; Acts 1887, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1426; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 825.]

Art. 3740. [3651] [2275] [2220] Notice by publication.—
In all civil suits where it shall be shown to the court, by affidavit filed therein, that either party is beyond the jurisdiction of the court, or that he cannot be found, or has died since the commencement of the suit and such death has been suggested at a prior term of the court, so that the notice and copy of interrogatories cannot be served upon him for the purpose of taking depositions, and such party has no attorney of record upon whom they can be served, or if he be deceased and all the persons entitled to claim by or through such deceased defendant have not made themselves parties to the suit, and are unknown, the party wishing to take depositions may file his interrogatories in the court where said suit is pending, and the clerk of such court or justice of the peace shall thereupon cause a notice to be published in some newspaper for thirty days, stating the number of the suit, the names of the original parties, in what court the suit is pending, name and residence of the witness to whom the interrogatories are propounded, and that a commission will issue on or after the thirtieth day after such publication to take the deposition of such witness; at the expiration of which time such clerk or justice shall, on the application of the party filing such interrogatories, his agent or attorney, issue a commission as in other cases. [Id. P. D. 3737.]

Art. 3741. [3652] [2276] [2221] When served by publication.—In suits where service of citation has been made by publication, and the defendant has not answered within the time prescribed by law, service of notice of filing interrogatories may be made at any time after the day when the defendant is required to answer, by filing such notice among the papers of the suit at least twenty days before the issuance of a commission; service of notice may also be made in the manner prescribed in the preceding article. [Acts 1861, p. 26; P. D. 3738.]

Art. 3742. [3653] [2277] [2222] To perpetuate testimony.—When any person may anticipate the institution of a suit in which he may be interested, and may desire to perpetuate the testimony of a witness to be used in such suit, he, his agent or attorney, may file a written statement in the proper court of the county where such suit could be instituted, representing the fact and the names and residences, if known, of the persons supposed to be interested adversely to said person; a copy of which statement and writ shall be served on the persons interested adversely; or, where such person, his agent or attorney, shall at the time of filing such statement make affidavit that the names and residences of the heirs, successors or legal representative of any deceased person are unknown to the affiant, or reside beyond the jurisdiction of the State, the clerk of the court or justice shall issue a like writ, which shall be served on such unknown or non-resident persons by publication in some newspaper in the mode and manner provided by law for the service of original citation upon non-residents or unknown parties; after which the depositions of such witnesses may be taken and returned by the parties making the said statement in the form and under the rules prescribed for taking testimony by deposition; and such testimony may be used in any suit which may be thereafter instituted by or between any of the parties to the statement, or those claiming under them, in like manner as if such depositions had been taken after the institution of such suit. When such suit has been instituted, all such depositions so taken and returned shall be subject to the like exceptions as other depositions. [Acts 1874, p. 103; P. D. 6829b; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 105.]

Art. 3743. [3654] [2278] [2223] Cross-interrogatories.—Whenever one party may file interrogatories for the purpose of taking the deposition of a witness, the opposite party may file cross-interrogatories at any time before the commission issues, and a copy of the same shall accompany the direct interrogatories, and shall be answered and returned therewith. [Id. Sec. 72; P. D. 3731.]

Art. 3744. [3655] [2279] [2224] Commission.—After the service of the notice of filing the interrogatories has been completed, the clerk or justice shall issue a commission to take the deposition of the witness named in the notice. [Id. P. D. 3736.]

Art. 3745. [3656] [2280] [2225] Requisites of.—The style of the commission shall be “The State of Texas.” It shall be dated and tested as other process; be addressed to the several officers named in the succeeding article, and shall authorize and require them, or either of them, to summon the witness before him forthwith, and to take his answers under oath to the direct and cross-interrogatories, if any, a copy of which shall be attached to such commission, and to return without delay the commission and interrogatories, and the answers of the witness thereto, to the clerk or justice of the proper court, giving his official and post-office address. [Id.]

Art. 3746. [3657] [2281] [2226] Officers authorized to execute.—The commission shall be addressed to the following officers, either of whom may execute and return the same:

1. If the witness be alleged to reside or be within the State, to any clerk of the district court, any judge or clerk of the county court, or any notary public of the proper county.

2. If the witness be alleged to reside or be without the State, and within the United States, to any clerk of a court of record having a seal, any notary public, or any commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of this State within some other State or territory.

3. If the witness is alleged to reside or be without the United

[P. D. 3726, 3736.]

Art. 3747. [3658] [2282] [2227] Subpoena for witness.—Upon the receipt of such commission by any officer to whom it is addressed, residing in this State, if the witness does not voluntarily appear, he shall issue a subpoena, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, requiring him to summon the witness to appear and answer interrogatories at a time and place named in the subpoena. [Acts 1905, p. 107; Acts 1874, p. 103; Acts 1907, p. 186; P. D. 3727; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 105.]

Art. 3748. [3659] [2283] [2228] May be attached.—If the witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail to appear, or, having appeared, shall refuse to answer the interrogatories, such officer shall have power to issue an attachment against such witness and to fine and imprison him in like manner as the district and county courts are empowered to do in like cases. [Acts 1874, p. 103.]

Art. 3749. [3660] [2284] [2229] Execution of commission.—Upon the appearance of the witness, the officer to whom the commission is directed shall proceed to take his answers to the interrogatories, reduce to writing, and shall cause the same to be signed and sworn to by the witness. The officer shall certify that the answers were signed and sworn to by the witness before him, and shall seal them up in an envelope, together with the commission and interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, if any, write his name across the seal, and indorse on the envelope the names of the parties to the suit and of the witnesses, and shall direct the package to the clerk of the court or justice from which the commission issued. If the depositions be sent by mail, the officer taking the same shall certify on the envelope enclosing the depositions that he in person deposited same in the mail for transmission, stating the date when and the post office in which the same are so deposited. [Acts 1905, p. 107; Acts 1874, p. 103; Acts 1907, p. 187; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 105.]

Art. 3751. [3662] [2286] [2231] Return of depositions.—Depositions may be returned to the court either by mail, or by a party interested in taking the same, or by any other person; and the clerk or justice taking them from the postoffice shall indorse on them that he received them from the postoffice, and sign his name thereto. If not sent by mail, the person delivering them into court shall make affidavit before the clerk or justice that he received them from the hands of the officer before whom they were taken; that they have not been out of his possession since, and that they have undergone no alteration. [Acts 1848, p. 106; P. D. 3729; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 106.]

Art. 3752. [Acts 1907, p. 187.]

Art. 3754. [3665] Compelling appearance.— Any person may be compelled to appear and depose, as provided by this law, in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in court; provided, that when such depositions are to be taken at a point more than one hundred miles distant from the court where the suit is pending, the party to whom such notice is given may, by notice to the adverse party or his attorney, require the deposition to be taken upon commission and written interrogatories, unless the judge or court before whom said suit is pending shall, upon proper application, after notice, made either in term time or vacation, otherwise direct. [Id.]

Art. 3755. [3666] Request for issuance.—After said notice of taking depositions by oral examination and answer shall have been served, the party serving the same shall note on a true copy thereof the date and hour of such service, upon whom served, the manner of service, and sign the same. The party desiring such deposition shall file such true copy with the clerk of the court in which such cause is pending, with request for the issuance of a commission to take such deposition, whereupon said clerk shall, after the expiration of ten days from the date of the service of such notice, as noted on said true copy, issue a commission to take such deposition. 3. If the defendant has failed or refused to deliver to him the designation of his homestead within the time prescribed by law, the return shall show that fact, and also that the commissioners were duly appointed by him, and that the designation made by such commissioners was filed by him with the county clerk, stating the times when said acts were done. Any person interested in any such case shall have the right to appear therein and be represented by counsel. [Acts 1923, p. 172.]

Art. 3868. Petition and affidavit.—Any resident citizen having knowledge of a person in his county who appears to be feeble minded may file with the county clerk a sworn complaint, which may be made upon information and belief, setting forth that such person is feeble minded. If such alleged feeble minded person be a minor, such complaint shall set forth the names of the parents, if known, and their residence, or if such person has no parent living, then the name and residence of his guardian, if any. Upon the filing of such complaint, the county judge shall fix the day and time for the hearing. [Id.]

Art. 3869. Such citation shall include a brief statement of the complaint which shall be served on such parent, parents or guardian, if either can be found in said county, not less than two days before the time fixed for such hearing, requiring them to appear before the court on said day and time to show cause, if any, why such person should not be declared to be feeble minded. Such citation shall be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county. If it appears that neither of said parents is living or that they do not reside in said county, and that said person has no guardian residing in said county, or in case one or both of such parents or the guardian, in case there be no parent, shall endorse on said complaint a request that such person be declared feeble minded, then such citation need not be issued, and the court may thereupon proceed to hear the case. Upon the entry of such order, the judge shall cause to be prepared a transcript of the proceedings and evidence, which shall show the age, sex, race, status and mental condition of the patient, all of which he shall certify to be correct, and transmit the same to the superintendent of such school. If the patient is entitled to be received into the school, and there is sufficient room therein, the superintendent shall notify said judge thereof, whereupon the judge shall arrange to send such person to said school in like manner in all respects as is provided for the sending of insane patients to an asylum. Art. 3872. [5894] Tag and certificate.—Every lot or parcel of feeding stuff, used for feeding farm live stock, sold, offered or exposed for sale in this State, for use within the State, shall have attached a tag, described in Article 3875, carrying a plainly printed statement clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds of feeding stuff in the package, stating the name or names of materials of which such weight is composed where the contents are of mixed nature, the name, brand or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer or importer, the place of manufacture, such information as is required by Article 3879, if any, and a chemical analysis stating the minimum percentage it contains of crude protein, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal six and one-quarter per cent of protein, or crude fat, of nitrogen-free extract, and the minimum percentage it contains of crude fiber; these constituents to be determined by the methods adopted at the time by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists of North America. [Acts 1905, p. 207.]

Art. 3873. [5895]—[5896] "Feeding stuff".—The term "feeding stuff," as used in this title, is defined to mean and include wheat bran, wheat shorts, linseed meal, cotton seed meals, pea meals, cocoanut meals; gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feeds, sugar feeds, dried brewer's grains, malt sprouts, hominy feeds, cerealine feeds, rice meals, rice bran, rice polish, oat feeds, corn and oat chops, corn chops, ground beef or mixed fish feeds, and all other materials of similar nature, but shall not include hay or straw, the whole seed or grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, rice, buckwheat or broomcorn, or any other whole or unground grains or seed. [Acts 1905, p. 208.]

Art. 3874. [5897] To file statement and deposit samples.—Before any feeding stuff is so offered or exposed for sale, the importer, manufacturer or party who causes it to be sold, or offered for sale within this State for use within the State, shall, for each feeding stuff bearing a distinguishing name or trade mark, file with the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station a certified copy of the statement named in Article 3872, and shall also deposit with said director a sealed glass jar or bottle containing not less than one pound of the feeding stuff to be sold or offered for sale, accompanied by an affidavit that it is a fair average sample thereof, and corresponds within reasonable limits to the feeding stuff which it represents in the percentage of protein, fat and crude fiber, and nitrogen-free extract which it contains. This does not apply to farmers who grind their own feeding stuff and who do not adulterate same. [Acts 1907, p. 243, Sec. 4.]

Art. 3875. [5898] Inspection tax tag.—The manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of each feeding stuff shall, before the article is offered for sale, pay to the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station an inspection tax of ten cents for each ton of such feeding stuff sold, or offered for sale, in this State for use within the State, and shall affix to each lot shipped in bulk, and to each bag, barrel or other package of such feeding stuff, a tag to be furnished by said director, stating that all charges specified in this article have been paid. The director of said experiment station is hereby empowered to prescribe the form of such tags, and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this law. Whenever the manufacturer or importer or shipper of a feeding stuff shall have filed a statement made as provided for in Article 3872, and paid the inspection tax, no agent or seller of said manufacturer, importer or shipper shall be required to file such statement or pay such tax. The amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by said director shall be paid into the State Treasury. So much of the inspection tax and penalties collected under this title shall be paid by the State Treasurer to the treasurer of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College as the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station may show by his bills has been expended in performing the duties required by this title, but in no case to exceed the amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by the State Treasurer under this title. Art. 3877. [5900] Analysis.—The director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station shall cause one analysis or more to be made annually of each feeding stuff sold or offered for sale under any provision of this title. Said director is hereby authorized in person or by deputy to take a sample not exceeding two pounds in weight for analysis from any lot or package of feeding stuff which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent, dealer or buyer in this State; but said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of said party or parties in interest, or their representatives, and shall be taken from a parcel, lot or number of parcels which shall not be less than five per cent of the whole lot inspected, and shall be thoroughly mixed and, if requested, divided into two samples, and placed in glass or metal vessels carefully sealed, and a label placed on each, stating the name or brand of the feeding stuff, or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample was drawn, and the date and place of taking such sample. The sample or samples retained by the director shall be for comparison with the certified statements made as provided for in this title. The result of the analysis of the sample or samples so prescribed, together with such additional information as circumstances advise shall be published in reports or bulletins by the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College from time to time. [Acts 1905, p. 207, Sec. 9.]

No wholesome mixture of feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if the true percentage of constituents thereof is plainly and clearly stated on the package and made known to the buyer at the time of the sale. It shall be the duty of the director of the experiment station to examine, or have examined for adulteration all suspicious samples of feeding stuff, and such other samples as may be desirable. [Acts 1905, p. 207; Acts 1907, p. 243, Sec. 11.]

Art. 3880. [5903] Director of experiment station.—The director of said experiment station is empowered to adopt standards or definitions for feeding stuff, and such other regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of any provision of this title. Said director shall have the power to refuse the registration of any feeding stuff, under a name which would be misleading as to materials of which it is made up, or which does not conform to the standards or definitions aforesaid. Should any said feeding stuffs be registered and it is afterwards discovered that they are in violation of the above provisions, said director shall have the power to cancel the registration ten days after notice. [Acts 1907, p. 243.]

Art. 3881. Weights.—Feeding stuff shall have the following standard net weights per sack or container: one hundred pounds, or the following fractions thereof, three-fourths, one-half, one-fourth, one-sixth, one-eighth, one-tenth, one-twelfth, one-sixteenth, and one-twentieth; and rice bran may also be sold in sacks of one hundred and forty-three pounds. No tax tags shall be issued for any feeding stuff which does not conform to the weights herein prescribed.

All fees collected by officers named in Article 3883 during any fiscal year in excess of the maximum amount allowed by law, and of the one-fourth of the excess of the maximum amount allowed for their services, and for the services of their deputies or their assistants as herein provided for shall be paid into the county treasury of the county where the excess accrued, provided that in counties of less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants and which counties constitute a separate judicial district, the chief deputy or first assistant of the officers named in this chapter shall receive a sum not to exceed a rate of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, and the other deputies or assistants a sum not to exceed a rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and the limitations as to the pay of deputies and assistants elsewhere provided in this chapter shall not apply in such counties. [Acts 1907, p. 50.]

[3892] Delinquent fees.—All fees due and not collected as shown in the report required by Article 3897 shall be collected by the officer to whose office the fees accrued; and, out of such part of delinquent fees as may be due the county, the officer making such collection shall be entitled to ten per cent of the amount collected by him, and the remainder shall be paid into the county treasury as provided in Article 3891. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 10.]

Art. 3895. [3893] Ex-officio services.—The commissioners court is hereby debarred from allowing compensation for ex-officio services to county officials when the compensation and excess fees which they are allowed to retain shall reach the maximum provided for in this chapter. In cases where the compensation and excess fees which the officers are allowed to retain shall not reach the maximum provided for in this chapter, the commissioners court shall allow compensation for ex-officio services when, in their judgment, such compensation is necessary, provided, such compensation for ex-officio services allowed shall not increase the compensation of the official beyond the maximum of compensation and excess fees allowed to be retained by him under this chapter. Any justice of the peace of the precinct where the property is situated shall have jurisdiction of any case arising under this title. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3974. [3941] [2520] [2441] "Forcible entry."—A "forcible entry," or an entry where entry is not given by law, is:

3. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of one who acquired it by forcible entry refuses to give possession on demand, as aforesaid, to him upon whose possession the first entry was made.

4. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of a tenant for a term refuses to deliver possession to the landlord upon demand as aforesaid, after the term expires; and, if the term expire whilst a writ of forcible entry sued out by the tenant is pending, the landlord may, at his own cost and for his own benefit, prosecute it in the name of the tenant. It is not material whether the tenant shall have received possession from his landlord or have become his tenant after obtaining possession. [Id.]

Art. 3976. May sue for rent.—A suit for rent may be joined with an action of forcible entry and detainer, wherever the suit for rent is within the jurisdiction of the justice court. In such case the court, in rendering judgment in the action of forcible entry and detainer, may at the same time render judgment for any rent due the landlord by the renter; provided the amount thereof is within the jurisdiction of the justice court. [Acts 1911, p. 28.]

When a jury is demanded they shall be summoned as in other cases in justice court. [Id.]

Art. 3983. [3951] [2530] [2451] Trial postponed.—For good cause shown, supported by affidavit of either party, the trial may be postponed not exceeding six days. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3996. [3966] [2544] [2465] Conveyance to defraud.—Every gift, conveyance, assignment, or transfer of, or charge upon, any estate real or personal, every unit commenced, or decree, judgment or execution suffered or obtained and every bond or other writing given with intent to delay, hinder or defraud creditors, purchasers, or other persons of or from what they are, or may be, lawfully entitled to, shall, as to such creditors, purchasers or other persons, their representatives or assigns, be void. This article shall not affect the title of a purchaser, for valuable consideration, unless it appear that he had notice of the fraudulent intent of his immediate grantor, or of the fraud rendering void the title of such grantor. [Id. P. D. 3876.]

Art. 3997. [3967] [2545] [2466] Voluntary conveyance.—Every gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge made by a debtor, which is not upon consideration deemed valuable in law, shall be void as to prior creditors, unless it appears that such debtor was then possessed of property within this State subject to execution sufficient to pay his existing debts; but such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge shall not on that account merely be void as to subsequent creditors, and though it be decreed to be void as to a prior creditor, because voluntary, it shall not for that cause be void as to subsequent creditors or purchasers. [Id.]

Art. 4000. [3970] [2548] Chattel mortgage.—Every mortgage, deed of trust or other form of lien attempted to be given by the owner of any stock of goods, wares or merchandise daily exposed to sale, in parcels, in the regular course of business of such merchandise, and contemplating a continuance of the possession of said goods and control of said business, by sale of said goods by said owner, shall be deemed fraudulent and void. [Acts 1879, p. 60; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1360.]

Art. 4001. [3971] Sales in bulk.—The sale or transfer in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise, or merchandise and fixtures pertaining to the conducting of said business otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade, and in the regular prosecution of the business of the seller or transferor, shall be void as against the creditors of the seller or transferor, unless the purchaser or transferee demand and receive from the transferor a written list of names and addresses of the creditors of the seller or transferor with the amount of the indebtedness due or owing to each and certified by the seller or transferor under oath to be a full, accurate and complete list of his creditors, and of his indebtedness; and unless the purchaser or transferee shall at least ten days before taking possession of such merchandise or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify personally or by registered mail each creditor whose name and address is stated in said list, or of which he has knowledge, of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof. Any purchaser or transferee who shall not conform to the provisions of this law shall, upon application of any of the creditors of the seller or transferor become a receiver, and be held accountable to such creditors for all goods, wares, merchandise and fixtures

[Id.]

Art. 4004. Actionable fraud.—Actionable fraud in this State with regard to transactions in real estate or in stock in corporations or joint stock companies shall consist of either a false representation of a past or existing material fact, or false promise to do some act in the future which is made as a material inducement to another party to enter into a contract and but for which promise said party would not have entered into said contract. Whenever a promise thus made has not been complied with by the party making it within a reasonable time, it shall be presumed that it was falsely and fraudulently made, and the burden shall be on the party making it to show that it was made in good faith but was prevented from complying therewith by the act of God, the public enemy or by some equitable reason. All persons guilty of such fraud shall be liable to the person defrauded for all actual damages suffered, the rule of damages being the difference between the value of the property as represented or as it would have been worth had the promise been fulfilled, and the actual value of the property in the condition it is delivered at the time of the contract. All persons making the false representations or promises and all persons deriving the benefit of said fraud, shall be jointly and severally liable in actual damages, and in addition thereto, all persons wilfully making such false representations or promises or knowingly taking the advantage of said fraud shall be liable in exemplary damages to the person defrauded in such amount as shall be assessed by the jury, not to exceed double the amount of the actual damages suffered. Art. 4026. Property of State.—All fish and other aquatic animal life contained in the fresh water rivers, creeks and streams and in lakes or sloughs subject to overflow from rivers or other streams within the borders of this State are hereby declared to be the property of the people of this State. All of the public rivers, bayous, lagoons, creeks, lakes, bays and inlets in this State, and all that part of the Gulf of Mexico within the jurisdiction of this State, together with their beds and bottoms, and all of the products thereof, shall continue and remain the property of the State of Texas, except in so far as the State shall permit the use of said waters and bottoms, or permit the taking of the products of such bottoms and waters, and in so far as this use shall relate to or affect the taking and conservation of fish, oysters, shrimp, crabs, clams, turtle, terrapin, mussels, lobsters, and all other kinds and forms of marine life, or relate to sand, gravel, marl, mud shell and all other kinds of shell, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall have jurisdiction over and control of, in accordance with and by the authority vested in him by the laws of this State. [Acts 1925, p. 438.]

Art. 4027. Oyster beds.—All oyster beds not designated private shall be public. All natural oyster beds and reefs of this State shall be public. A natural oyster bed shall be declared to exist when as many as five barrels of oysters may be found therein within twenty-five hundred square feet of any position of said reef or bed; and any lands covered by water containing less oysters than the above amount shall be subject to location at the discretion of the Commissioner, but this shall not apply to a reef or bed that has been exhausted within a period of eight years. [Acts 1919, p. 289.]

Art. 4028. Riparian rights prescribed.—Whenever any creek, bayou, lake or cove shall be included within the metes and bounds of any original grant or location of land in this State, the lawful occupant of such grant or location shall have the exclusive right to use said creek, lake, bayou or cove for gathering, planting or sowing oysters. The Commissioner may require the owner of oysters claimed to be produced on such lands, when such oysters are offered for sale, to make an affidavit that such oysters were produced on such lands. If said creek, bayou, lake or cove is not so included, then the exclusive right of the riparian owner shall, wherever the width of such creek, bayou, lake or cove is two hundred yards or less, extend to the middle thereof, and wherever the width of such waters is more than two hundred yards, extend one hundred yards from shore. The right of the riparian owner for planting oysters along any bay shore in this State shall extend one hundred yards into the bay from high water mark or where the land survey ceases. The riparian owner's right to any natural oyster bed located on such one hundred yard reservation shall not be exclusive. [Acts 1895, p. 70.]

Art. 4029. Private fresh waters.—Such of the fresh water lakes, rivers, creeks and bayous within this State as may be embraced in any survey of private land shall not be sold, but shall remain open to the public. If the Commissioner stocks them with fish, he is authorized to protect same for such time and under such rules as he may prescribe. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4030. Fish and oyster fund.—All funds collected by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission from the sale of commercial fishermans' licenses, fish dealers licenses, taxes on fish, crabs, oysters and shrimp, and all other taxed marine life, and all fines and penalties collected for any infraction of any laws relating to commercial fishermen, shall be placed in the State Treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as "Fish and Oyster Fund" and, together with the money now to the credit of this fund, is hereby appropriated and shall be used by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in the enforcement of the fish and oyster laws of this State, and in the dissemination of useful information pertaining to the economic value of fish and oyster marine life; the making of scientific investigations and surveys of the principal sea food fishes and marine life for purpose of the better protection and conservation of same, the propagation and distribution of sea food fishes, oysters, and other marine life; the purchase, repair and operation of boats and the employment of deputies to carry out and enforce the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 446.]

Art. 4031. Tax deposit.—The applicant for any license under this chapter based upon fish and oysters handled shall, upon the issuance of such license, deposit with the Commissioner, if required to do so by such officer, an amount of money to be fixed by the Commissioner, in addition to the ten dollars required of him as a wholesale dealer as defined in the preceding article, sufficient to cover the estimated amount of tax that would be due by applicant upon monthly business of applicant, and against which deposit the tax due may be charged by the Commissioner, and said applicant shall make additional deposits in sufficient amounts to at all times maintain a deposit sufficient to cover the estimated tax that may be due by applicant, which additional deposit shall be made upon request of the Commissioner. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 197.]

Art. 4032. License to fish.—Any person who is an American citizen, or an alien who has filed his intention papers and shows his desire to become an American citizen, desiring to fish in the public waters of this State, or fish for oysters, fish, shrimp, turtle, terrapin, clams, crabs or other marine animal life, for the purpose of selling them, shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so, and such person shall pay the fee of one dollar for such license, which shall be for one year from the date thereof and obligate the holder to observe all the laws of the State enacted to conserve the marine life of such public waters. [Id. p. 200.]

Art. 4033. Registering boat.—Any person who is a citizen of the United States wishing to use a boat in catching or taking fish, green turtle, terrapin or shrimp, or gathering oysters or other marine life for market in public waters of this State, shall apply to the Commissioner for permission to do so. Such applicant shall furnish said officer under oath his name, place of residence, the name and kind of boat to be used by him, together with the number of men to be employed by him. Thereupon the officer shall register such boat which register number shall be distinctly painted, as the Commissioner may designate, on such boat, for which registration he shall pay said officer one dollar and fifty cents and said officer shall furnish the applicant with a certificate of such registration, valid for twelve months from date of issuance. [Id. p. 194.]

Art. 4034. License for boat.—Any captain or master of any boat wishing to engage in the business of catching or taking any fish, turtle, terrapin, shrimp or oysters or other marine life from the waters of the State for market shall, before engaging in such business, secure from the Commissioner a license for such business by making written application to the Commissioner. Such applicant shall set forth under oath that he is a citizen of the United States and the name, class and register number of his boat. If the application be for a license to use seines and nets, the applicant shall state the number, class and length of the seines and nets to be used by him, and if the application be for a license to gather oysters, he must state the number of tongs to be used by him, and the applicant shall agree that all such products shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Commissioner and that said application shall authorize said Commissioner to enter at any time the boat or any house or place where he may have such products, and shall further agree to pay to the State a special tax provided for in Article 4030. Upon receipt of such duly executed application, accompanied by the applicant's registration certificate and one dollar, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business set forth in his application, and the license shall be subject to such limitations and control as prescribed by the law. Said license must state the name of the licensee, name and class of his boat, and the date of issuance. Such license shall be for twelve months, if for fishing for fish, turtle, or shrimp; and from September first to April first following the date of license, if for gathering oysters; and from November first to February first inclusive, if for the purpose of catching terrapin. The license so issued shall be kept on the boat subject to the inspection of the Commissioner, and it shall not be transferable without the consent of the Commissioner having been first had, which consent or assignment shall be written across the face of said license. If such licensed captain or master shall violate any fish and oyster law of this State, or shall refuse to comply with any provision made in his application for license, the Commissioner is authorized to cancel said license and the boat registration certificate, notice of which shall be given by the Commissioner in writing and delivered to the licensee, and such license to such captain and the registration of such boat shall not be renewed for three years. Any person wishing to engage in the taking or catching of any fish, turtle, terrapin, shrimp, oysters or other marine life, for market, as employe of the owner or as a part of the crew of any registered boat, shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so; such person, to obtain such license, must make written application to said Commissioner, setting forth under oath that he is a citizen of the United States or must offer proof that he has already filed his proper intention papers as required by the Federal Government, and shall thereafter be vigilant in the securing of his final citizenship papers. One license issued to a captain or master of a boat under this article shall authorize such licensee to engage in the taking or catching of the products named herein. [Acts 1923, p. 294.]

Art. 4035. Application for oyster bed.—Any person who is a citizen of the United States or any domestic corporation shall have the right of obtaining a location for planting oysters and making private oyster beds within the public waters of this State, by making written application to the Commissioner describing the location desired. A fee of twenty dollars cash must accompany such application. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 197.]

Art. 4036. Examining location.—When the application and fee provided for in the preceding article have been received by the Commissioner he shall examine thoroughly the location desired, as soon as practicable, with tongs, dredge or any other efficient means. If the same be not a natural oyster bed or reef, and exempt from location by any article of this chapter, he shall have the location surveyed by a competent surveyor. In making said location, said surveyor shall plant two iron stakes or pipes on the shore line nearest to the proposed location, one at each end of the proposed location, which said stakes or pipes shall be not less than two inches in diameter, and be set at least three feet in the ground. Said stakes or pipes shall be placed with reference to bearings of not less than three natural or permanent objects or land marks. And the locator shall place and maintain under the direction of the Commissioner a buoy at each corner of his oyster claim farthest from the land. No person shall locate water or ground covered with water for planting oysters along any bay shore in this State, nearer than one hundred yards from shore. [Id. p. 197.]

Art. 4037. Locator's certificate.—The Commissioner shall give the locator a certificate signed and sealed by the Commissioner. Such certificate shall show the date of application, date of survey, number, description of metes and bounds with reference to the points of the compass and natural and artificial objects by which said location can be found and verified. The locator shall, before such certificate is delivered to him, pay the Commissioner surveyor's fees and all other expenses connected with establishing such location. If such sums, as costs of the location and establishment of the claim, are less than the twenty dollars paid to the Commissioner, the difference in amount shall be returned to such locator by the Commissioner. If such expenses amount to more than twenty dollars, the deficit shall be paid to the Commissioner by the locator.

At any time not exceeding sixty days after the date of such certificate of location, the locator must file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the location is situated, who shall record the same in a well bound book kept for that purpose, and the original with a certificate of registration shall be returned to the owner or locator; the clerk shall receive for the recording of such certificate the same fee as for recording deeds; the original or certified copies of such certificate shall be admissible in evidence under the same rule governing the admission of deeds or certified copies thereof. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4038. Rights of locator.—Any person who shall be granted a certificate of location as provided for in the preceding article shall be protected in his possession thereof against trespass thereon in like manner as freeholders are protected in their possessions, as long as he maintains all stakes and buoys in their original and correct position, and complies with all laws, rules and regulations governing the fish and oyster industries. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4039. Limiting location.—No person, firm or corporation shall ever own, lease or otherwise control more than one hundred acres of land covered by water, the same being oyster locations under this chapter, and within the public waters of this State; and any person, firm or corporation that now holds more than one hundred acres of oyster locations, shall not be permitted hereafter to acquire, lease or otherwise control more; provided that no corporation shall lease or control any such lands covered by water unless such corporation shall be duly incorporated under the laws of this State. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4040. To maintain markings.—Any person, firm or corporation who has secured, or may hereafter secure a location for a private oyster bed in this State, shall keep the two iron stakes or pipes and buoys as provided for by law, in place, and shall preserve the marks so long as he is the lessee of said location, and this shall apply also to any person, firm or corporation acquiring any location by purchase or transfer of any nature, and said locator or the assignee of any locator shall have the right to fence said location or any part thereof; provided that said fence does not obstruct navigation through or into a regular channel or cut leading to other public waters. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4041. Rental on location.—The owner or locator of private oyster beds under the foregoing provisions shall not be required to pay any rentals on such locations for a period of five years, or till such time as he shall begin to market or sell oysters from such location or bed. When such locator shall begin to sell or market oysters from such location, he shall pay the State one dollar and fifty cents per acre per annum and two cents a barrel on oyster sales. Failure to pay such rental by the first day of March of each year shall annul and be a forfeiture of his lease. And if oysters are not marketed or sold from such location within five years from the date of location, such location shall become void. [Id. p. 199.]

Art. 4042. Oyster permit.—Any person who is a citizen of the State of Texas, or any corporation chartered by the State to engage in the culture of oysters or transact business in the purchase and sale of oysters and fish, and composed of American citizens, wishing to plant oysters on their own oyster locations or to take oysters from oyster reefs and public waters of the State for the purpose of preparing them for market, shall make application to the Commissioner for permission to do the same. In such application the applicant shall set out distinctly the purpose for which he desires such oysters and also the number or amount that he desires to take from the beds and waters mentioned. The Commissioner may grant such permit or he may refuse to do so. If he should grant such permit, he shall require the applicant to take the oysters he is authorized to take from beds or reefs designated by such Commissioner and name them in the permit, and it shall be unlawful for any person to take oysters of less size than three and one-half inches from hinge to mouth from any such designated beds or reefs unless authorized to do so by the Commissioner; he shall mark off the exact area of such beds or reefs from which such oysters shall be taken; he shall designate the bottoms on which such oysters shall be deposited, if they are taken to be prepared for market; he shall require the applicant to cull the oysters on the grounds where they are to be located; he shall state what implements such as tongs and dredges shall be used in taking such oysters, and he shall make and enforce all other regulations he may think necessary to protect and conserve the oysters on such public reefs or beds. All oysters taken from or deposited in the public waters of this State as herein provided shall become the personal property of the person or corporation so taking or depositing them. Such person or corporation shall, by buoys or stakes or by fences, clearly and distinctly mark the boundaries of the private bed planted, or the boundaries of the deposit of oysters made for preparation for market; and no prosecution of any one shall be permitted for taking such oysters unless the boundaries of such beds and deposits are established and maintained. [Id. p. 199.]

Art. 4043. Shipment of oysters.—It shall be unlawful for any transportation company operating within this State, its officers, agent or employees, to receive for shipment, or to ship, within the boundaries of this State from the first day of May to the first day of September of any year, any oysters from any public bed or reef for depositing or for marketing. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as to prohibit any such transportation company, its officers, agents or employes, from shipping or receiving for shipment, any oysters taken from a private bed located under the laws of this State, offered for shipment by the owner or owners, locator or locators, of such bed; such fact to be established by the affidavit of the person or persons offering such oysters for shipment. [Id. p. 203.]

Art. 4044. Permit to use seine.—All seines and nets used in the salt waters of this State shall be examined by the Commissioner to see that they conform to the requirements of Title 13, Chap. 6, of the Penal Code as to length and size of mesh. If they are found to conform to such requirements, the Commissioner shall tag such seines or nets with a metal tag on which shall be indented the number of such seine and net, and it shall be the duty of the owner of such seine or net to keep the tag attached thereto; the cost of such tag, twenty-five cents, to be paid by the owner of such seine or net. The Commissioner shall then issue to the owner a permit to use such seine or net for one year from the date of such permit. And such permit shall state the name of the owner of such net, the date on which it was issued, the size of the mesh and the length and kind of such net. The Commissioner shall keep a record book in which the date of issuance of such permit, the name of the owner, the number of the tag, the size of the mesh and the length of such seine or net shall be kept. The Commissioner shall have power to seize and keep in his possession all seines which do not conform to the requirements of such article as evidence until trial of defendant, and no suit shall be maintained against him therefor. [Acts 1923, p. 296.]

Art. 4045. Seining, etc., in closed waters.—It shall be unlawful for any person at any time to place, to set or drag any seine or net, or to carry on, over or into the waters hereinafter referred to, or to have in his possession or to carry such seine or net by vehicle or in any other way to any point or place within one mile of such waters, or to use any other device or method for taking fish, other than the ordinary pole and line or cast-net or minnow-seine of not more than twenty feet in length for catching bait, within the waters described in Article 941 of the Penal Code. Nothing in this article shall prevent the use of spear or gig and light for the purpose of securing flounders from such passes as are therein enumerated at any time of the year except during the months of November and December, which months shall constitute a closed season on flounders in all coastal waters of the State. The Commissioner, when he has reason to believe it is best for the protection and increase of fish life, or to prevent their destruction in the bays or parts thereof, or such tidal water, is hereby authorized to close such waters against fishing with any seine, net, spear, gig, light or other devices, except with a hook and line or cast-net or minnow-seine of not more than twenty feet in length. Before so closing any such waters, the Commissioner shall give notice of his intention to do so at least two weeks prior to such closing, giving the reason why action is deemed necessary, and which notice shall contain a designation of the area which it is proposed to close, a statement that after the date indicated in such notice it shall be unlawful to drag a seine or set a net or use a gig or spear and light in taking fish from such waters for the period which the Commissioner in said notice shall declare same to be closed. The Commissioner shall have the authority, when proper hearing has been had and investigation been made, and he has determined that any such closed area in the tidal waters of this State does not promote conservation of fish, to open such area to seining, netting, gigging and fishing of all sorts. The Commissioner shall have power to seize and keep such seines as are used in violation of any provision of this article, in his possession as evidence until trial of defendant, and no suit shall be maintained against him therefor. [Acts 1923, p. 297.]

Art. 4046. Seining for Drum.—Any person leasing an oyster claim or oyster reef in waters where seining is prohibited may apply to the Commissioner for permission to seine for drum fish in such waters. In his application for permission to seine for drum he shall make oath that such fish are seriously damaging his oysters, and that if he is permitted to seine for such fish in such waters, he will not take or destroy any other food fish, but will throw them back into the water. If the Commissioner is satisfied that such damage is being done, he may grant such permission, specifying in such permit the length of time in which it is to be used, and the claim or reef on which it is to be used. Such Commissioner shall assign a deputy fish and oyster commissioner to superintend such seining, and no seine shall be dragged except in his presence, and for which a person obtaining the permission to seine as set forth above, shall pay to the Commissioner two dollars and fifty cents per day. [Id. p. 202.]

Art. 4047. Permit to use shrimp seine.—The Commissioner may permit the use of any shrimp seine or other device for catching shrimp in the tidal waters of this State. Any person desiring to use such seine shall apply to the Commissioner for a permit to use such seine, net or other device for catching shrimp, and the Commissioner shall fix and establish the mesh, construction, depth and length of such seine or net or other device so that it shall not be used for other purposes than in taking shrimp, and he shall tag such seine or other device officially and issue such permit, and shall designate in what waters and localities such seines or nets shall be used. Any such nets or seines or devices used in violation of this article shall be declared a nuisance and the Commissioner shall abate and destroy the same, and no suit shall be maintained in the courts for such abatement and destruction. [Id. p. 205.]

Art. 4048. Dredging reefs or beds.—Any person who is an American citizen or any firm or corporation composed of American citizens desiring to use scrapers or dredges in removing oysters from the natural oyster reefs of this State shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so, and such applicant shall pay to the Commissioner a license fee of five dollars when using scrapers or hand dredges, and fifteen dollars when using power-dredges, which license shall be for one year from the date of issuance thereof, and shall obligate the holder to observe all the laws of the State enacted to conserve the marine life of such public waters. Whenever the Commissioner believes that a natural oyster reef or bed is too open and exposed to be fished with hand-tongs, and that such reef or bed can be improved by the use of dredges, he may grant the use of dredges on such reef or bed regardless of the depth of the body of water or exposure thereof, but only under the supervision and direction of a deputy fish and oyster commissioner; and the Commissioner is authorized to purchase boats and implements and employ labor to work such public oyster reefs and beds as he may think can be improved thereby, the expense of which shall be paid on warrants issued by the Comptroller on the sworn statement as to the correctness of such expense by the Commissioner. [Acts 1923, p. 298.]

Art. 4049. Protection of reservation.—It shall be unlawful to bring into or keep on any fish hatchery or reservation for the propagation or exhibition of any birds, fowls or animals, any cat, dog or other predacious animal, and any such animal found on the grounds of such hatcheries or reservation is held to be a nuisance, and the deputy in charge shall abate and destroy it as a nuisance, and no suit for damages shall be maintained therefor. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 209.]

Art. 4050. May take brood fish.—It shall be lawful for the Commissioner or the United States Commissioner of Fisheries and his duly authorized agents to take at any time and in any manner from the public fresh waters of this State all brood fish required by them in operation of the State and Federal Hatcheries. [Id. p. 214.]

[Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4052. Powers of Commissioner.—The Commissioner is hereby invested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion over all matters pertaining to the sale, the taking, carrying away or disturbing of all marl, sand or gravel of commercial value, and all gravel and shells or mudshell and oyster beds and their protection from free use and unlawful disturbing or appropriation of same, with such exceptions as may be provided herein. When such building of roads or taking of such products is to be done by contract, then the said municipality may obtain a refund from the Commissioner of the tax levied and collected on said products as fixed by the Commissioner at the time of the taking thereof, by warrant drawn by the Comptroller upon itemized account sworn to by the proper officer representing such municipality and approved by the Commissioner, and under such other rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. [Acts 1923, p. 342.]

Art. 4055. Condemnation of land.—Where the State, through the Commissioner, has issued a permit to excavate and take from any island, reef, bar, lake, river, creek, bayou or bay of this State, marl, mudshell, oyster shell, sand and gravel, the State, at the request of the permit holder, shall have the power to enter upon and condemn and appropriate the lands, right of way, easements and property of any person or corporation, for the purpose of erecting dredges and necessary equipment, and for the purpose of laying and maintaining railway spurs to the nearest railroad, and for the purpose of opening and maintaining necessary roads and passageways, to said place of operations; provided, that such right of way shall not invade improvements such as buildings or orchards.

The applicant shall pay to the Commissioner, as a license fee, the sum of ten dollars and in addition thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars for permission to use a dredge. [Acts 2nd C. 2. Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the defendant has not within his knowledge property in his possession within this state, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such debt; and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee.
3. Where the plaintiff has a valid, subsisting judgment and makes affidavit that the defendant has not, within his knowledge, property in his possession within this State, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such judgment. [Acts 1874, p. 113; P. D. 157-3785; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 115.]

Art. 4077. [272] [218] [184] Bond.—In the case mentioned in subdivision two of the preceding article, the plaintiff shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that he will prosecute his suit to effect and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment. [Id.]

Art. 4078. [273] [219] [185] Application for the writ.—Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment, the plaintiff shall make application therefor, signed by him, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant, or that he has in his hands effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein. [Id.]

Art. 4079. [274] [220] [186] Case docketed, etc.—When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the judge, or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant; and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before the court out of which the same is issued, on the first day of the ensuing term thereof, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant, and was when such writ was served, and what effects, if any, of the defendant he has in his possession, and had when such writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the defendant or have effects belonging to him in their possession. [Acts 1875, p. 102; P. D. 157; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 474.]

Art. 4080. [275] [221] [187] When writ is to subject shares, etc.—Where it appears from the plaintiff's affidavit that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is the owner of shares, or is interested therein, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company, or owned when such writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, or had when such writ was served. [Id.]

Art. 4081. [276] [222] [188] Form of writ.—The following form of writ may be used:

To the sheriff or any constable of _____ county, greeting:
Whereas, in the _____ court of _____ county (if a justice's court, state also the number of the precinct), in a certain cause wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff, claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of _____ dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against E F, who is alleged to be a resident of your county (or to be within your county, as the case may be); therefore you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before the said court at the next term thereof, to be held at _____, in said county, on the _____ day of _____, 19____, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D, and was when this writ was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession, and had when this writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; (and if the garnishee be an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or interested therein, then the writ shall proceed) and further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company, and owned when such writ was served. Herein fail not, but of this writ make due return as the law directs.”

Art. 4082. [277] [223] [189] Delivery of writ.—The writ of garnishment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer who issued it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Art. 4083. [278] [224] [190] Execution and return of writ.—The sheriff or constable receiving the writ of garnishment shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof as of other citations.

Art. 4084. [279] [225] [191] Effect of service of writ.—From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt or to deliver to him any effects; nor shall the garnishee, if an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest; and any such payment or delivery, sale or transfer, shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, effect, shares, or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, replevy any effects, debts, shares, or claims of any kind seized or garnisheed, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the officer who issued the writ of garnishment, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, and conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be rendered against the said garnishee in such suit, which when properly approved shall be filed among the papers in the cause in the court in which the suit is pending. In all proceedings in garnishment where the defendant gives bond as herein provided for, such defendant may make any defense which the defendant in garnishment could make in such suit. [Acts 1889, p. 1; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1029.]

Art. 4085. [280] [226] [192] Answer to the writ.—The answer of the garnishee shall be under oath, in writing, and signed by him, and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment.

Art. 4086. [281] [227] [193] Garnishee discharged.—If it appears from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant, and was not so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served on him, and that he has not in his possession any effects of the defendant and had not when the writ was served, and when the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of any shares of stock or interested therein, if it further appears from such answer that the defendant is not and was not, when the writ was served, the owner of any such shares, or interested in such company, should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee.

Art. 4087. [282] [228] [194] Judgment by default.—The garnishee shall in all cases after lawful service file an answer to the writ of garnishment on or before appearance day of the term of the court to which such writ is returnable, and should the garnishee fail to file such answer to said writ as herein required, it shall be lawful for the court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against defendant, and on or after appearance day, to render judgment by default, as in other civil cases against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, together with all interest and costs that may have accrued in the main case and also in the garnishment proceedings. The answer of such garnishee may be filed as in any other civil case at any time before such default judgment is rendered. [Acts 1921, p. 207.]

Art. 4088. [293] [239] [205] Judgment when garnishee is indebted.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee or should it be otherwise made to appear and be found by the court that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant in any amount, or was so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against the garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount is in excess of the amount of the plaintiff's judgment against the defendant with interest and costs, in which case, judgment shall be rendered against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment already rendered against the defendant, together with interest and costs of the suit in the original case and also in the garnishment proceedings. If the garnishee fail or refuse to pay such judgment rendered against him, execution shall issue thereon in the same manner and under the same conditions as is or may be provided by law for the issuance of execution in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 4089. [294] [240] [206] Judgment for effects.—Should it appear from the garnishee's answer, or otherwise, that the garnishee has in his possession, or had when the writ was served, any effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff or any constable presenting an execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy such execution.

Art. 4090. [295] [241] [207] Refusal to deliver effects.—Should the garnishee adjudged to have effects of the defendant in his possession, as provided in the preceding article, fail or refuse to deliver them to the sheriff or constable on such demand, the officer shall immediately make return of such failure or refusal, whereupon on motion of the plaintiff, the garnishee shall be cited to show cause at the next term of the court why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal. If the garnishee fails to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure or refusal, he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such effects.

Art. 4091. [296] [242] [208] Judgment against company.—Where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and it appears from the answer, or otherwise, that the defendant is, or was when the writ of garnishment was served, the owner of any shares of stock in such company, or any interest therein, the court shall render a decree, ordering the sale under execution, in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, of such shares or interest of the defendant in such company, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [Acts 1875, p. 103; G. L., vol. 8, p. 475.]

Art. 4092. [297] [243] [209] Sales of shares of stock.—The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution; and the officer making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares or interest to the purchaser, with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold. [Id.]

Art. 4093. [298] [244] [210] Effect of such sale.—Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, or in such company; and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the same had been made by the defendant himself. [Id. p. 104.]

Art. 4094. [299-300] [245-246] [211-212] May traverse answer.—If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of any garnishee, he may controvert the same by his affidavit stating that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particular he believes the same is incorrect. The defendant may also, in like manner, controvert the answer of the garnishee.

Art. 4095. [301] [247] [213] Trial of issue.—If the garnishee whose answer is controverted, is a resident of the county in which the proceeding is pending, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Art. 4096. [302] [248] [214] Trial when garnishee is non-resident.—Should the garnishee be a foreign corporation, not incorporated under the laws of this State, and should its answer be controverted, the issues thus formed shall be tried in the court where the main suit is pending, or was tried; but if the garnishee whose answer is controverted, resided in some county other than the one in which the main case is pending or was tried, and is not a foreign corporation, then upon the filing of a controverting affidavit by any party to the suit, the plaintiff may file in any court in the county of residence of the garnishee having jurisdiction of the amount of the judgment in the original suit, a duly certified copy of the judgment in such original suit and of the proceedings in garnishment, including a certified copy of the plaintiff's application for the writ, the answer of the garnishee, and the affidavit controverting such answer. The court wherein such certified copies are filed shall try the issues made as provided by law. [Acts 1921, p. 207.]

Art. 4097. [303-4] Docketed and notice.—The clerk of such court or the justice of the peace, on receiving such certified copies, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant, and issue a notice to the garnishee, stating that his answer has been so controverted, and that such issue will stand for trial at the next term of court. Such notice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, be dated and tested as other process from such court, and served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant.

Art. 4098. [305] [251] [217] Issue tried as other cases.—Upon the return of such notice served, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Art. 4099. [306] [252] [218] Current wages.—No current wages for personal service shall be subject to garnishment; and where it appears upon the trial that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for such current wages, the garnishee shall nevertheless be discharged as to such indebtedness. [Const., Art. 16, Sec. 28.]

Art. 4100. [307] [253] [219] Costs.—Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer, the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and the garnishee is held thereon, such costs shall be taxed against the defendant and included in the execution provided for in this chapter; where the answer is contested, the costs shall abide the issue of such contest.

Art. 4101. [308] [254] [220] Garnishee discharged on proof.—It shall be a sufficient answer to any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee, or on the possession by him of any effects, or where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock or other interest therein, for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid, or such effects were delivered, or such shares of stock or other interest in such company were sold under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this title.

1. For the estate of a minor in the county where the parents of such minor reside, or in the county where the parent having custody of the minor resides when the parents do not reside in the same county.

Art. 4114. Art. 4118. [4068-69-70] Natural guardian.—If the parents live together, the father is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children by the marriage. If one parent is dead, the survivor is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children. The natural guardian is entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates. The rights of parents who do not live together are equal; the guardianship of their minor children shall be assigned to one or the other, taking into consideration the interest of the child alone. [Acts 1876, p. 175; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1011.]

Art. 4119. [4071] [2578] [2497] By will.—The surviving parent of a minor may, by will or written declaration, appoint any person qualified to be guardian of the persons of his or her children after the death of such parent; and such person shall also be entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates, after the death of such parent. [Id.]

Art. 4120. [4072-75] Orphans.—These rules shall govern as to orphans:

1. If the parent has appointed no guardian, the nearest ascendant in the direct line of such minor is entitled to the guardianship of both the person and estate of such minor.

2. If there be more than one ascendant in the same degree in the direct line, they are equally entitled. The guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the orphan alone.

3. If the orphan has no ascendant in the direct line, the guardianship shall be given to the nearest of kin in the collateral line who comes immediately after the presumptive heir or heirs of the orphan. If there be two or more in the same degree, the guardianship shall be given to the one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the orphan alone.

4. If there be no relative of the minor qualified to take the guardianship, or if no person entitled to such guardianship applies therefor, the court shall appoint some proper person to be such guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4121. [4076] [2583] [2502] Person of unsound mind.—In the case of a person of unsound mind, or an habitual drunkard, the nearest of kin to such person, who is not disqualified, shall be entitled to the guardianship. Where two or more are equally entitled, the guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the ward alone. If such ward have a husband or wife who is not disqualified, such husband or wife shall be entitled to the guardianship in preference to any other person.

Art. 4122. [4078] [2585] [2504] Persons disqualified.—The following persons shall not be appointed guardians:

1. Minors, except the father or mother.
2. Persons whose conduct is notoriously bad.
3. Persons of unsound mind.
4. Habitual drunkards.
5. Those who are themselves or whose father or mother are parties to a lawsuit, on the result of which the condition of the minor or part of his fortune may depend.

6. Those who are debtors to the minor, unless they discharge the debt prior to such appointment; but this subdivision does not apply to the father or mother of such minor. [Id.]

Art. 4123. [4080-81] What facts must appear.—At a regular term of the court, after notice as required by law, the court may proceed to the appointment of a guardian. Before appointing a guardian, the court must be satisfied:

1. That the person for whom a guardian is sought to be appointed is either a minor, a person of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard.
2. That the court has jurisdiction of the case.
3. That the person to be appointed guardian is not disqualified to act as such and is entitled thereto; or, in case no person who is entitled thereto applies therefor, that the person appointed is a proper person to act as such guardian.

4. That the rights of persons or property are to be protected. All issues herein shall be determined by the court on hearing, unless a jury is demanded, but it shall not be a prerequisite to such appointment that there has been a jury trial, verdict and judgment that the person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, nor is such person required to be present at the trial.

The remedy herein provided is cumulative of that provided in Chapter 12 hereof, for the guardianship of persons of unsound mind and habitual drunkards, and may be resorted to without invoking the latter remedy. [Acts 1921, p. 15.]

Art. 4124. [4082] [2589] [2508] Single appointment.—Only one guardian can be appointed of the person or estate; but one person may be appointed guardian of the person, and another of the estate, whenever the court shall be satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the ward to do so. Nothing in this article shall be held to prohibit the joint appointment of husband and wife. [Acts 1870, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 315.]

Art. 4125. [4083] [2590] [2509] Order of appointment.—The order of the court appointing a guardian shall be entered upon the minutes of the court and shall specify:

1. The name of the person appointed.
2. The name of the ward.

3. Whether the guardian of the person, of the estate, or of both the person and estate of such ward.

4. The amount of the bond required of such guardian.

5. If it be the guardianship of the estate, the order shall also appoint three or more disinterested persons to appraise such estate, and return such appraisement to the court.

6. It shall direct the clerk to issue letters of guardianship to the person appointed when such person has qualified according to law.

Art. 4126. [4084] [4079] Minor may select.—A minor upon attaining the age of fourteen years, may select another guardian either of his person or estate, or both, if such minor has a guardian appointed by the court, or if, having a guardian appointed by will or written declaration of the parent of such minor, such last named guardian dies, resigns or is removed from guardianship; and the court shall, if satisfied that the person selected is suitable and competent, make such appointment and revoke the letters of guardianship to the former guardian. Such selection may be made in open court, in person, or by attorney, by making application therefor as provided by law.

Art. 4127. [4085] [2592] [2511] Failure to qualify.—If a person appointed guardian fails to qualify as such according to law, or dies, resigns, or is removed, the court shall appoint another guardian in his stead.

Art. 4128. [4086-87] Term of appointment.—The guardian of a minor continues in office, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the minor dies or becomes twenty-one years of age, or being a female, marries. The guardian of a person of unsound mind or of an habitual drunkard shall continue as such, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the ward shall die or be restored to sound mind or to sober habits. [Acts 1876, p. 178; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1014.]

Art. 4129. [4088] [2595] Receiver.—When from any cause, the estate of a minor, person of unsound mind or of an habitual drunkard is without a guardian, and such estate is likely to injure or waste, the county judge shall, with or without application, in term time or in vacation, appoint some suitable person to take charge of such estate, as receiver, until a guardian can be regularly appointed, and shall make such other orders as may be necessary for the preservation of such estate. Such appointment and orders shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and shall specify the duties and powers of such receiver. The provisions of the law governing in the case of a temporary administration upon the estate of a decedent shall govern in the case of a receiver appointed under this article, so far as the same are applicable. [Acts 1885, p. 81; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 702.]

Art. 4130. [4088] [2595] Receivership; expenditures.—If, during the pendency of such receivership, the wants of such minor, person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard should require the use of the means of such estate for their subsistence, clothing or education, the county judge, with or without application, in term time or in vacation, shall appropriate, by an order entered upon the minutes, out of the effects of such estate, an amount sufficient for such purpose; said amount to be paid by such receiver upon such claims for such subsistence, clothing or education as may have been presented to such county judge and approved, and by him ordered to be paid. [Id.]

Art. 4131. [4088] [2595] Receivership; loans.—If, at any time, the receiver shall have on hand any money belonging to such estate beyond what may be necessary for the present necessities and the current expenses of the beneficiary of said estate, he may, under the direction of the county judge, loan said money for such length of time as such judge may direct, for the highest legal rate of interest that can be obtained therefor, in the manner and upon the security and terms provided in Chapter 7 of this title. [Id.]

Art. 4132. [4089] [2596] [2515] Non-resident minor.—When a non-resident minor or person of unsound mind owns property in this State, guardianship of such estate may be granted when it is made to appear that a necessity exists therefor, in like manner as if such minor or person of unsound mind resided in this State. The court making such grant of guardianship shall take all such action and make all such orders in reference to the estate of the ward, for the maintenance and support or education and care of such ward, out of the proceeds of such ward's estate, in like manner as if the ward had resided in this State and guardianship of the person of said ward had been granted by said court, and the ward had been sent abroad by order of court for education or treatment. [Acts 1876, p. 176; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1012.]

Art. 4133. [4090] [2597] [2516] Letters of guardianship.—When a person appointed guardian has qualified as such, by taking the oath and giving the bond required by law, the clerk shall issue to him a certificate under seal, stating the fact of such appointment and qualification and date thereof; which certificate shall constitute letters of guardianship, and be evidence of the authority of such person to act as guardian.

Such appointment shall not take effect until such appointee has taken the oath and given

Art. 4135. [4092] Order.—The order of the court in making such appointment shall state that unless the same is contested at the next regular term of the court, after notice, the same shall be made permanent. [Id.]

Art. 4136. [4093] Contest.—If such appointment is contested, the court shall hear and determine the same as the law and the facts require. During the pendency of such contest, the person so appointed as temporary guardian shall continue to act as such. If such appointment is set aside, the court shall require the person so appointed to make out and file in court a complete sworn exhibit of the condition of such minor's estate, and what disposition he has made of the same. [Id.]

Art. 4137. [4099] [2600] [2519] Guardian of estate, bond.—The bond of the guardian of the estate of a ward shall be in amount equal to double the estimated value of the personal property belonging to such estate, plus a reasonable amount to be fixed at the discretion of the county judge, to cover rents, revenues and income derived from the renting or use of real estate belonging to such estate. Such bond shall be payable to and approved by the county judge of the county where such guardianship is pending, and conditioned that such guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the estate of such ward according to law. It shall be the duty of such county judge to annually examine into the condition of the estate of the ward and the solvency of such guardian's bond, and to require such guardian at any time it may appear that such bond is not ample security to protect such estate and the interests of his ward, to execute another bond in accordance with law. In such case, he shall notify the guardian as in other cases; and should damage or loss result to the estate of any ward through the negligence of such county judge to perform such duties, such county judge shall be liable on his official bond, payable to such ward, in an amount equal to the loss due to such negligence. [4104] [2603] [2522] Appointee under will.—When the surviving parent of a minor has provided by will, regularly probated, that a guardian appointed by such will shall not be required to give bond for the management of the estate devised by such will, the direction shall be observed, unless it be made to appear at any time that such guardian is mismanaging the property, or is about to betray his trust; in which case, upon proper proceedings had for that purpose, such guardian may be required by the court to give bond as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 4146. [4105] [2604] [2523] Married woman, bond.—Where a married woman is appointed guardian, she may, either jointly with her husband or without him, if he is absent from

[4108] [2607] [2526] Temporary disqualification.—When a guardian has been required to give a new bond, he shall thereafter refrain from acting as such guardian except to preserve the property in his charge, until he gives such new bond and the same has been approved, as such guardian. [4113] [2612] [2531] Inventory.—It shall be the duty of every guardian of an estate, as soon as he shall have collected the estate, and within thirty days after he has taken the oath and given bond, with the assistance of any two of the appraisers appointed by the court, to make and return to the court a correct inventory of all the property, real and personal belonging to said estate, which has come to his knowledge. Each article of such property shall be appraised by such appraisers, and the appraised value thereof stated opposite the same in the inventory; and the same shall be subscribed and

Art. 4156. [4116] [2615] [2534] Property held in common.—If any property be held or owned by the ward in common with another, it shall be distinctly stated in the inventory or list of claims, the items thereof that are so held or owned, the names and the relationship, if any, of the other part owner or owners, and the interest or share of such ward in such property. [Id.]

Art. 4157. [4117] [2616] [2535] Additional inventory.—Whenever any guardian of an estate shall discover any property belonging to such estate which has not been inventoried and appraised, or any claim that has not been embraced in the list of claims, he shall forthwith make out and return to the court an additional inventory or list of claims, embracing such property or claims. [Acts 1848, p. 285; P. D. 3899; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 285.]

to be returned, and within the same time; but such inventory and appraisement and list of claims shall only embrace such property as has been omitted in previous inventories and appraisements and lists of claims. [Id.]

Art. 4160. [4120] [2619] [2538] Corrections.—Erroneous inventories, appraisements and lists of claims may be corrected, and new appraisements may be ordered, under the same rules and regulations as are provided in the case of estates of decedents.

[Acts 1876, p. 182, G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1018.]

When the guardian loans or invests the money of his ward he shall not pay over or transfer any money in consummation of such investment, loan or purchase until he shall have submitted all bonds, notes, mortgages, documents, abstracts and other papers pertaining to such investment, loan or purchase to some reputable attorney for examination, and shall have received a written opinion from such attorney, to the effect that all papers pertaining to such investment, loan or purchase are regular and that the title to such bonds, notes or real estate is good. The attorney making such examination shall be paid a reasonable fee, not to exceed one per cent of the amount so invested or loaned, which shall be paid by the guardian out of the funds of the ward. [4143] [2641] [2560] Investing in real estate.—When the guardian may think it best for his ward to have a surplus of money on hand invested in real estate, he shall file a written application in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order of such court authorizing him to make such investment sought to be made, and the reasons why the guardian is of the opinion that it would be for the benefit of the ward to have the same made. [Acts 1876, p. 182; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1018.]

Art. 4183. [4144] [2642] [2561] Action of court.—When such application is filed, the attention of the judge of the court shall be called thereto, and he shall make such investigation as

Art. 4184. [4145] [2643] [2562] Order of court.—Upon the hearing of such application, either in term time or vacation, if the court is satisfied that such investment will be beneficial to the ward, an order authorizing the same shall be made. Such order shall specify the investment to be made, and shall contain such other directions as the court may think advisable. [Id.]

[4146] [2644] [2563] Approval of contract.—When any contract has been made for the investment of money in real estate under order of the court, such contract shall be reported in writing to the court by the guardian, and the court shall inquire fully into the same, and if satisfied that such investment will benefit the estate of the ward and that the title to such real estate is valid and unincumbered, the court may approve the contract and authorize the guardian to pay over the money in performance of the same; but no money shall be paid out by the guardian on any such contract until such contract has been approved by the court by an order to that effect. Such order may be made at a regular term or in vacation. [Id.]

Art. 4186. [4147] [2645] [2564] Title.—When the money of the ward has been invested in real estate, the title to such real estate shall be made to such ward; and such real estate shall be inventoried, appraised, managed and accounted for by the guardian as other real estate of the ward.

[4148] [2646] [2565] Surplus.—When there is any surplus money of the estate in the hands of the guardian, any person may, by written complaint filed in the court in which such guardianship is pending, cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of such court to show cause why such surplus money should not be invested or loaned at interest, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon the hearing of such complaint, the court shall enter such order as the law and the facts may require.

Art. 4188. [4149] [2647] [2566] Duty of county judge.—When there is surplus money belonging to the ward in the hands of the guardian, the county judge shall cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why said money should not be invested or be loaned at interest, under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 4189. [4150] [2648] [2567] Liability for surplus.—If the guardian neglects to invest or loan surplus money on hand at interest when he can do so by the use of reasonable diligence, he shall be liable for the principal and also for the highest legal rate of interest upon such principal for the time he so neglects to invest or loan the same. [Id.]

Art. 4190. [4151] [2649] [2568] Liability for loans.—The guardian shall not be personally responsible for money loaned under the direction of the court, on security approved by the court, when the borrower is unable to pay the same, or because of failure of the security, unless such guardian has been guilty of fraud or negligence in respect to such loan or the collection of the same; in which case, he and the sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss his ward may have sustained by reason of such fraud or negligence. [Id.]

Art. 4191. [4152] [2650] [2569] Report.—The guardian shall report to the court in writing, verified by his affidavit, the renting or leasing of property or the investment or loaning of money belonging to the estate, within thirty days after such transaction, stating fully the facts thereof.

2. Previous notice thereof shall be given by the guardian for one week prior to the time the county judge shall hear such application by publishing same in some newspaper of the county where such guardianship is pending, for one issue of said paper. Said notice shall state when and where such application shall be heard.

3. After notice and hearing of said application and the granting of same by the court, said guardian shall be fully authorized to make the mineral lease upon the real estate of the ward, in accordance with the judgment of the court thereon.

4. No such lease shall extend beyond the time that the ward shall become twenty-one years of age, unless at that time the lessee shall have discovered such minerals as are specified in the lease, or any of such minerals, upon the premises described in such lease, in which event the same shall remain in full force so long as such minerals or any of them shall be produced in paying quantities. The marriage of the female ward shall not terminate any lease made hereunder until such ward actually reaches the age of twenty-one years. [Acts 1913, p. 261; Acts 1915, p. 85; Acts 1919, p. 185.]

Art. 4194. [4154] [2652] [2571] Wild stock.—If he shall represent to the court on oath that there is stock belonging to the estate which he is unable to collect or command, the court may order that the same be sold at public auction, on such credit as the court may deem reasonable, not exceeding twelve months, taking notes bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of sale, with good and sufficient security for the purchase money. Such sale shall be advertised, made, returned and acted upon by the court the same as sales of real estate. [Id.]

[4155] Guardian may sell real estate.—When the income of the ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay the debts against the estate, the guardian, or any person holding a valid claim against the estate, may, by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, ask for an order for a sufficient amount of real estate to be sold to make up the deficiency, or when the property of the ward consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate and the guardian believes it to be the best interest of the estate of the ward to sell such real estate, he may, by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, ask for an order for such real estate to be sold; or when the real estate of such minor is encumbered by a valid lien to secure a debt which is due or is about to become due, or when the taxes are due on the property of said ward, or when the holder of such debt has applied for or is threatening to apply for an order of sale of the real estate of the minor and the guardian has not in his hands sufficient funds to pay such debts, such guardian may by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, apply in writing for an order to obtain an extension of such debt and to secure the same by a mortgage or deed of trust on the real estate of such minor; or if the real estate of such minor or any part thereof is not revenue producing, or the revenue therefrom could be increased by making improvements or additional improvements or repairs thereon, such guardian may make a written application to such court to make such improvements or repairs on such real estate as he may deem beneficial to the ward, and to secure the payment for the same by mortgage, deed of trust, mechanics contracts and material men lien.

Art. 4196. [4156] Application for sale.—The guardian shall apply for such order as is provided in the preceding article, whenever it appears that a necessity exists therefor, and set forth fully in his application with an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate. [Acts 1925, p. 338.]

Art. 4197. [4157] [2655] [2574] Guardian cited.—When the application for the sale of real estate is made by any other person than the guardian of the estate, the guardian of the estate shall be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why the order should not be made and also to present to the court an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate.

Art. 4198. [4158] [2656] [2575] Hearing on application.—Whenever an application for the sale of real estate is filed, the clerk shall immediately call the attention of the judge of the court in which such guardianship is pending to the filing of the application, and the judge shall designate a day to hear such application, which may be heard in term time or vacation, provided such application shall remain on file at least five days before any orders are made, and the judge may continue such hearing from time to time until he is satisfied concerning the application. [Acts 1876, p. 181; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1017.]

Art. 4201. [4162] [2660] [2579] Order of sale.—An order for the sale of real estate shall state:

1. The property to be sold, giving such description of it as will identify it.

Art. 4201a. Validating sales.—1. Wherever it shall appear that lands of a ward have been conveyed by a guardian of such ward, under an order of the county court, entered in the minutes of the county court, authorizing the making of such conveyance, and it shall appear that the order of sale in such proceeding failed to require the guardian to file the bond as provided by Subdivision No. 4, of Article 4201, or that the bond was not filed and approved by the court as required by Article 4191, either the guardian of the ward whose lands were conveyed, or the owner or anyone having an interest in the land, may, while the guardianship is still pending, apply to the county court of the county where the proceeding for the sale of the land was had, at a regular term of said court for an order confirming the sale and validating the title attempted to be conveyed by the guardian in the earlier proceeding. Such application shall state the name, age and residence of the ward and name and residence of the guardian, description of the property, date when sold, and reference to the proceedings formerly had.

2. Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall immediately issue citation which shall state that the application has been filed, by whom, a description of the property, and the purpose of the application, and shall name the ward, and guardian, if the applicant be other than the guardian, and shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of the ward, or having any interest in the property, to appear at a term of the court named in the citation, and contest such application if they see proper. Such citation shall be served as required for service of other citations in guardianship proceedings.

3. At a regular term of the county court, after citation has been properly served, the court shall inquire into the facts and hear evidence in support of the application, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the sale was made for the reasonable value of the property at the time of sale, and that the guardian received the proceeds of the sale, the court shall require the guardian to make and file a satisfactory bond to be approved by the court in an amount equal to twice the amount for which the property was sold, and upon the making, filing and approval of such bond the court shall enter an order confirming such sale, and upon the entry of such order in the minutes of such court such sale shall be, and hereby is, validated.

4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as attaching any liability to the sureties on the general bonds of guardians heretofore made that did not exist prior to the enactment of this Act.

Art. 4202. [4163] [2661] [2580] Place of sale.—All private sales of real estate shall be made in the county where the guardianship is pending; all public sales of real estate shall be made in the county where the real estate is situated. The first of said publications shall appear not less than twenty days immediately preceding the day of sale; said notice shall contain a statement of the authority by virtue of which the sale is to be made, and the time and place of sale. It shall also contain a brief description of the property to be sold, the number of acres of original survey, locality in the county and the name by which the land is most generally known. It shall not contain the field notes. If no newspaper is published in the county, or if published in the county refuses to publish the notice, the officer shall post notices in writing in three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, for at least twenty days successively next before the day of the sale. The publisher's fee shall be fifty cents per square for the first insertion and thirty cents per square for the subsequent insertions. Ten lines shall constitute a square. In no case shall the fee exceed five dollars.

The costs of such sale, and of suit, shall be adjudged against such guardian individually.

Art. 4206. [4166] [2664] [2583] Bidder's liability.—When any person shall bid off property offered for sale by a guardian, and shall fail to comply with the terms of the sale, the facts shall be reported to the court by the guardian; and such person so failing to comply shall be liable to pay such guardian for the use of the estate, ten per cent on the amount of his bid; and, also, the deficiency, if any, in price on the second sale of such prop-

Art. 4207. [4167] [2665] [2584] May continue sale.—Public sales may be continued from day to day in case the day set apart for any such sale shall be insufficient to complete the same, by giving public notice verbally of such continuance at the conclusion of the sale each day. [4170] [2668] [2587-2588] Mortgaged property.—Any person holding a claim against the estate of a ward, secured by mortgage or other lien, may obtain an order for the sale of the property upon which he has such mortgage or other lien, or so much thereof as may be required to satisfy the claim, by causing notice to be posted and the guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why such order should not be made. Such sale shall be made upon such terms as the court may direct, which shall be stated in the order of sale. The notice and other proceedings shall be the same as in other sales by guardians. [Id.]

Art. 4210. [4171] [2668] [2589] Lien, discharge of.—If it appears to the court that the discharge of such mortgage or other lien out of the general assets would be beneficial to the estate, the payment may be ordered to be so made, instead of ordering a sale of the property. [Id.]

Art. 4211. [4172] [2670] Interest on ward's debts.—Should an estate in the hands of a guardian be involved in debt, and it appears to the court that the guardian can discharge existing debts to the advantage of the estate by the hypothecation or mortgage of real estate at a lower rate of interest, or court may, in its discretion, by order, allow the guardian to pay off and discharge existing debts by the execution of a mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate to secure the person furnishing the money for that purpose; acts of guardians under this article shall be reported to the court and approved as in case of sales. No guardian shall renew any indebtedness or evidence thereof except by order of the court made upon application and notice as in case of sales of land. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 10; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 374.]

Art. 4212. [4173] [2671] May renew debt.—Should a guardian not have sufficient funds in hand belonging to the estate of his ward to pay and discharge any existing debt, he may renew the evidence of the same in like manner as his ward could if able to act; and such act of the guardian shall have the same force and effect with reference to such novated paper as if done by the ward. No such guardian shall renew the evidences of any debt against the estate of his ward barred by the statutes of limitations; nor shall such guardian renew the evidences of any debt that may have been made or contracted by his ward during his minority or other disability. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 10; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 374.]

Art. 4342. [4320] Election and term.—At each biennial general election a Comptroller of Public Accounts shall be elected for a term of two years. The word “Comptroller”, whenever used in any law of this State, shall mean the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. [Acts 3rd. C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4343. [4322] Bond.—Within twenty days after receipt of notice of his election or appointment and before he enters upon the duties of his office, the Comptroller shall give a bond with not less than six good sureties, in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 4344. Certain duties.—Among other duties the Comptroller shall:

1. Procure a seal with words “Comptroller’s Office, State of Texas” engraved around the margin and a five-pointed star in the center, which shall be used as the seal of his office to authenticate all his official acts, except warrants drawn on the State Treasury.

2. Adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper assessment and collection of the revenues of the State.

3. Superintend the fiscal concerns of the State, as the sole accounting officer thereof, and manage the same in the manner required by law.

4. Require all accounts presented to him for settlement not otherwise provided for by law to be made on forms prescribed by him, all such accounts to be verified by affidavit as to their correctness, and he may administer the oath himself in any case in which he may deem it necessary.

5. Prescribe and furnish the form to be used by all persons in the collection of the public revenue and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts.

6. Prescribe forms of the same class, kind and purpose so as to be uniform in size, arrangement, matter and form.

7. From time to time require all persons receiving money or having the disposition or management of any property of the State, of which an account is kept in his office, to render statements thereof to him.

8. Require all persons who have received and not accounted for any money belonging to the State to settle their accounts.

9. Keep and settle all accounts in which the State is interested, including all moneys received by the State as interest and other payments on land and office fees of his and other departments of the State government, and all other moneys received by the State from whatever source and for whatever purpose.

10. Examine and settle the accounts of all persons indebted to the State and certify the amount or balance to the Treasurer, and direct and superintend the collection of all moneys due the State.

11. Audit the claims of all persons against the State in cases where provision for the payment thereof has been made by law, unless the audit of any such claim is otherwise specially provided for.

12. Keep a book to register and index all audited claims against the State, and on the meeting of the regular session of the Legislature make a minute report of the same to both houses thereof, giving the names and amounts of all audited claims.

13. Keep and state all accounts between this State and the United States.

14. Keep journals through which all entries are made in the ledger.

15. Remit or make an allowance to each tax collector in the auditing of his accounts for all sums of money which, in his judgment, have been illegally assessed.

16. Draw warrants on the Treasurer for the payment of all moneys directed by law to be paid out of the Treasury.

17. Suggest plans for the improvement and management of the general revenue.

18. Preserve the books, records, papers and other things belonging in his office and deliver the same in good condition to his successor. [Id.]

Art. 4345. [4336] Account of Comptroller.—The account of the Comptroller against the State shall not be passed to the Treasurer until approved by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 4346. [4337] Custodian of obligations.—Except as otherwise specially provided, all deeds to the State, all liens, mortgages, bonds, notes and other securities for money given to the State or any officer for the use of the State, contracts involving pecuniary obligations to the State, and all other documents or instruments creating a pecuniary obligation in favor of the State, shall be deposited in the office of the Comptroller.

Art. 4347. [4339] When accounts closed.—The accounts of the Comptroller shall be annually closed on the last day of August; and he shall exhibit all books, papers, vouchers and all other matters pertaining to his office, for the examination of either branch of the Legislature, or any committee which may be by them appointed, whenever required by them to do so. [Acts 3rd. C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4348. [4340] Statement to Governor.—In addition to the reports required by the Constitution, the Comptroller shall exhibit to the Governor, on the first Monday of November of each year, and at such other times as he shall require, an exact and complete statement of the funds of the State, of its revenues, and of the public expenditures during the preceding year (or for such other times as may be required), with a detailed estimate of the expenditures to be defrayed from the Treasury for the ensuing year, specifying therein each object of the expenditures and distinguishing between such as are provided for by general or special appropriation, and such as are required to be provided for by law, and showing the means from which such expenditures are to be defrayed. [Id.]

Art. 4349. [4330-1] Special claims.—Each sheriff, attorney or other party holding claims against the State for which no warrant has been issued, and the appropriation for which has been exhausted, shall present them to the Comptroller for his consideration at least thirty days before the meeting of each regular session of the Legislature. The Comptroller shall not audit any such claim not presented within said time until all claims presented prior to that time have been considered and passed upon by him. [Id.]

Art. 4350. [4332] Warrants on Treasurer.—Every warrant shall refer to the law under which it is drawn. No warrant shall be issued to any person indebted to the State, or to his agent or assignee, until such debt is paid. [Id.]

Art. 4351. [4342] Notified of deficiencies.—All heads of departments, managers of State institutions or other persons intrusted with the power or duty of contracting for supplies, or in any manner pledging the credit of the State for any deficiency that may arise under their management or control, shall, at least thirty days before such deficiency shall occur, make out a sworn estimate of the amount necessary to cover such deficiency until the meeting of the next Legislature. Such estimate shall be immediately filed with the Governor, who shall thereupon carefully examine the same and approve or disapprove the same in whole or in part. When such deficiency claim, or any part thereof, has been so approved by the Governor he shall indorse his approval thereon, designating the amount and items thereof approved and the items disapproved, and file same with the Comptroller; and the same shall be authority for the Comptroller to draw his deficiency warrant for so much thereof as may be approved; but no claim, or any part thereof, shall be allowed or warrants drawn therefor by the Comptroller, or paid by the Treasurer, unless such estimate has been so approved and filed. If there is a deficiency appropriation sufficient to meet such claims, then a warrant shall be drawn therefor and the same shall be paid; but, if there is no such appropriation, or if such appropriation be so exhausted that it is not sufficient to pay such deficiency claim, then a deficiency warrant shall issue therefor; and such claim shall remain unpaid until provision be made therefor at some session of the Legislature thereafter. The provisions of this article shall not apply to fees and dues for which the State may be liable under the general laws. When any injury or damage shall occur to any public property from flood, storm or any unavoidable cause, the estimate may be filed at once but must be approved by the Governor as provided in this article. [Id.]

Art. 4352. [4343] Chief clerk.—The Comptroller shall appoint a chief clerk, who shall take the official oath and give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable in like manner as the bond of the Comptroller, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. Said clerk shall perform the duties of the Comptroller when the Comptroller may be unavoidably absent or incapable, from sickness or other cause, to discharge said duties, and, under the direction of the Comptroller supervise the keeping of the books, records and accounts of the department, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by law and by the Comptroller. If the office of the Comptroller should become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, said chief clerk shall act as Comptroller until a Comptroller is appointed and qualified. [Id.]

Art. 4353. [4344] Deposit warrants.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform deposit warrants, which shall be of four classes: "State revenue," "available school" "permanent school" and "miscellaneous;" and which shall be prepared in triplicate and marked "original," "duplicate" and "triplicate" respectively. Each class shall be separately serially numbered, and shall be on paper of a different color from the other classes. He shall provide for the use of his department a warrant register for each class of deposit warrants, each volume of which shall be appropriately designated by number or otherwise, and the pages of which shall be ruled and the lines numbered consecutively. When a deposit warrant is prepared, it shall be registered in the deposit warrant register for the class to which it belongs and on the line in such register corresponding in number with the number of the deposit warrant registered. A distribution of the amount stated in each deposit warrant shall be posted in detail to the ledger containing accounts for each source of revenue. The triplicate deposit warrant shall be, on receipt by the Treasurer of the amount stated therein, receipted by the Treasurer and delivered to the person making the deposit, the original to the Treasurer, who shall file the same numerically; and the duplicate shall be, on the receipt of the amount stated therein, receipted by the Treasurer, and by him returned to the Comptroller, who shall file same numerically. The printed forms for these warrants shall be so prepared and arranged that the original, duplicate and triplicate may, by use of carbon sheets, all be prepared at one and the same writing. No deposit shall be received into the State Treasury on any account, except upon a deposit warrant issued as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 4354. [4345] Deposit receipts.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform deposit receipts, to be issued by the Comptroller to cover moneys and other securities received and held by the State Treasurer for which no deposit warrant is issued, or the issuance of a deposit warrant which is deferred, except office fees of the State Treasurer. Such receipts shall be prepared in duplicate and marked "original" and "duplicate," respectively, and shall be serially numbered. The printed form for these receipts shall be so prepared and arranged that the original and duplicate may, by the use of carbon sheets, both be prepared at one and the same writing. The duplicate shall be receipted by the Treasurer, and by him returned to the Comptroller, and the original delivered to, and retained by the State Treasurer. He shall provide his office with separate registers, prepared in like manner and form as the register provided for in this chapter, in which he shall register the deposit receipts, issued in like manner as is provided for the registration of deposit warrants, and shall provide a separate ledger in which shall be kept appropriate accounts for all matters for which such deposit receipts are issued. [Id.]

Art. 4355. [4346] Claims and accounts.—All claims and accounts against the State shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Comptroller and in duplicate, when required by him, except claims for pensions, and shall be so prepared as to provide for the entering thereon, for the use of the Comptroller's Department, as well as other appropriate matters, the following:

1. Signature of the head of the department or other person responsible for incurring the expenditure, or of the person on whose account the expenditure was incurred.
2. Appropriation number.
3. Initials of the person ascertaining if there are funds available.

4. Initials of the person auditing the claim.
5. Number and date of warrant issued with the initials of the person preparing the warrant.
6. Initials of the person posting to ledger.
7. Initials of the person comparing the claim and warrant.

[Id.]

Art. 4356. [4347] Claims classified.—There shall be three classes of claim forms as follows:

1. "General" which shall consist of: (a) payrolls, covering departmental and institutional services; (b) traveling expense vouchers; (c) purchases and services other than personal; and (d) sheriff and court claims; and under the head of sheriff and court claims the Comptroller may provide for different forms, such as those for sheriffs, county attorneys, district attorneys, district clerks, district judges, witnesses and all other like claims relating to the judiciary.

2. "Special," covering all claims for which special warrants are issued.

3. "Pensions," the form for which shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 4357. [4348] List of claims to be kept.—When claims and accounts are received, it shall be ascertained if there are funds available therefor; and the person making the examination shall indicate such fact by marking his initials upon such claim; and if there are no funds available, that fact shall be written or stamped upon such claim; and the same shall be held to await the authority to issue a proper warrant therefor. When a claim has been audited and warrant drawn therefor, the claim shall be numbered with the same number as the warrant; and such claim shall be filed numerically according to class, "general," "special," "pension," respectively. There shall be kept, either in book form or in the form of a card index, an alphabetical index of claimants; but, as to payrolls, the department or institution shall be the claimant. The index shall show only the name of the claimant and the number of the claim. After the expiration of two years, such claims shall be removed from the files and otherwise securely stored and preserved as records. [Id.]

Art. 4358. [4349] Pay warrants.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform pay warrants, which shall be of three classes, "general," "special," and "pension." Such warrants shall be prepared in duplicate, and shall be marked "original" and "duplicate," respectively; and each class shall be serially numbered and shall be of a color of paper different from the other class. Such warrants shall be prepared so as to provide for entering thereon, in addition to other appropriate matter, the following:

1. Initials of the person in the Comptroller's department comparing the warrant with the claim.
2. Initials of the person in the Comptroller's department registering the warrant.

3. Designation of the fund against which the warrant is drawn. [Id.]

Art. 4359. [4350] Pay warrants register.—The Comptroller shall provide a pay warrant register for each class of pay warrants, each volume of which shall be appropriately designated by number or otherwise, and the pages of which shall be ruled, and the lines numbered consecutively. When a pay warrant is prepared, it shall be registered in the pay warrant register for the class to which it belongs; and such entries in those registers shall be on the line corresponding in number with the number on the pay warrant register; and such registry shall consist only of an entry of the amount and name of the payee of such warrant. If a warrant is erroneously prepared and not issued, or is cancelled, or is properly shown to be lost or destroyed, such fact shall be noted in the register opposite the number of such warrant in the register. One person shall be designated by the Comptroller as warrant clerk and such person shall prepare or be responsible for the preparation of all pay warrants, and shall be accountable to the Comptroller for warrants coming into his possession. No warrant shall be prepared except on presentation to the warrant clerk of a properly verified and audited claim, the proper auditing of which claim shall be evidenced by the initials written thereon by the person auditing the same; and such claim so verified and audited shall be sufficient and the only authority for the preparation of a warrant or warrants. When a warrant has been properly prepared, the claim upon which it was prepared shall be initialed with initials of the warrant clerk, and such warrant shall be registered as herein provided; and the fact of the registration thereof shall be shown by writing thereon the initials of the person registering the same. When a warrant is properly prepared, it shall be, with the claim upon which it is based, passed to the Comptroller for his signature or the signature of such person as may be authorized by law to sign the same in his stead. Such warrant shall then be passed to, and registered in, the Treasurer's department and signed by the State Treasurer, or some person authorized by law to sign for him, and returned to the Comptroller's department. Such warrant shall then be delivered by the Comptroller to the person entitled to receive it; and he shall at his option take a receipt from such person therefor and file it in his office. The printed forms for these warrants shall be so prepared and arranged that the original and duplicate shall by the use of carbon sheets be prepared at one writing. [Id.]

Art. 4360. [4351] Pension warrants.—Applications for pensions and the issuance of pension warrants shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. Such warrants shall be separately serially numbered. [Id.]

Art. 4361. [4352] Registration of bonds.—The Comptroller shall procure for the use of his department suitable books to be known as "bond registers," the volumes of which shall be separately designated by number or otherwise, in which he shall register alphabetically all State, county, school, municipal and drainage or such other bonds required by law to be registered by him. Neither the bonds nor opinion of the attorney general, nor the record or other papers or documents relative thereto, shall be recorded in full; but only the name of the authority issuing and the names and official capacities of the officers signing such bonds, the date of the issue, date of registration, amount of principal, date of maturity, number, time of option of redemption, rate of interest and day of the month of each year when the interest shall fall due, of each bond so registered, shall be entered upon such register. On the same line where such entry is made, shall be provided blank spaces in which shall be entered the date of payment or redemption of each bond when the same is paid or redeemed. When any bond is paid or redeemed the proper officer or the authority paying such bond shall notify the Comptroller of the fact and date of such payment or redemption, and all papers and documents pertaining to such bonds shall be filed and appropriately numbered. [Id.]

Art. 4362. Bond Clerk.—The Comptroller shall appoint a bond clerk whose term of office shall be at the pleasure of the Comptroller, and who shall first take the official oath and give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Comptroller, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Such clerk shall under the supervision, direction and authority of the Comptroller, perform all duties with reference to the registration of bonds imposed upon the Comptroller by the provisions of the preceding and succeeding articles, and shall have authority to sign the name of the Comptroller to all certificates of registration of bonds required by law to be registered by the Comptroller, and which bonds are registered by such bond clerk, as provided herein. In the absence of the bond clerk the duties herein imposed upon such bond clerk may be performed in like manner by the chief clerk. [Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 23.]

Art. 4363. [4353] Account by funds kept separate.—The Comptroller shall keep appropriate accounts by funds, showing a short description of the essential features of each, of each bond or of each purchase of similar or like bonds, or other securities purchased by and belonging to the permanent school and other funds of the State; each of which accounts shall be charged with the principal of such bond or purchase; and, with each separate item of interest payments to accrue thereon, and shall be credited with payments as made. He shall also keep controlling or total accounts of such bonds or other securities; which accounts shall be kept with respect to the total amount of bonds or other securities belonging to each separate fund; each of which controlling accounts shall be balanced quarterly at the same time as, and the balance of which shall correspond with, like accounts kept by the State Treasurer. [Acts 3rd. C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4364. [4354-5-6-7] Ledgers.—The Comptroller shall maintain a double entry system of book-keeping to be in charge of the chief book-keeper. The Comptroller shall keep the following ledgers:

1. State General Ledger.—The accounts of each fund shall be opened in a State general ledger. No entry shall be made in the ledger except by means of the double entry system. An account shall be opened with the State Treasurer and charged with the cash on hand and the balance in depositories. Each charge shall represent the aggregate amount of cash held by him for the various funds. Warrants issued shall be charged in monthly totals to the fund account. An account shall be opened for the purpose of showing the amount of outstanding pay warrants from time to time, which shall be credited with the warrants issued and charged with the warrants paid. The Comptroller shall charge the State Treasurer in totals of all deposit warrants as issued, and credit him with warrants paid, so that the balance in the Treasurer's hands, together with the balance in the State depositories, shall agree with the balance shown by this account.

2. Revenue ledger.—A "revenue ledger" in which a distribution shall be made of the revenues derived by the State from all sources, and the amounts derived from each source as stated. The sources of revenue printed on the back of the duplicate in each deposit warrant issued therefor by the Comptroller shall be posted to this ledger, and its balances periodically agreed with the deposit warrants issued.

3. Accounts of Tax Collectors.—One ledger for current taxes, and one ledger for delinquent and insolvent taxes, each to be made self balancing by means of controlling accounts, in which he shall keep the accounts of tax collectors.

4. Account of State Treasurer.—A suspense ledger in which the accounts of the State Treasurer shall be stated in respect to moneys held by him pending the issuance of deposit warrants and moneys and securities held, other than those for State purposes, for all of which the Comptroller shall issue deposit receipts, posting the same in totals to this ledger. It shall also include the accounts with heads of departments for all moneys received by them and not deposited with the State Treasurer; which accounts shall be kept in monthly totals based upon monthly reports furnished to the Comptroller by each of the heads of departments. [Id.]

Art. 4365. [4359] Duplicate warrants.—The Comptroller, when satisfied that any original warrant drawn upon the State Treasurer has been lost or destroyed, or when any certificate or other evidence of indebtedness approved by the auditing board of the State has been lost, is authorized to issue a duplicate warrant in lieu of the original warrant or a duplicate or a copy of such certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness in lieu of such original; but no such duplicate warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, shall issue until the applicant has filed with the Comptroller his affidavit, stating that he is the true owner of such instrument, and that the same is in fact lost or destroyed, and shall also file with the Comptroller his bond in double the amount of the claim with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, to be approved by the Comptroller, and conditioned that the applicant will hold the State harmless and return to the Comptroller, upon demand being made therefor, such duplicates or copies, or the amount of money named therein, together with all costs that may accrue against the State on collecting the same. After the issuance of said duplicate or copy if the Comptroller should ascertain that the same was improperly issued, or that the applicant or party to whom the same was issued was not the owner thereof, he shall at once demand the return of said duplicate or copy if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the State, if so paid; and, upon failure of the party to return same or the amount of money called for, suit shall be instituted upon said bond in Travis County. [Id.]

Art. 4366. [4361] To examine and cancel warrants.—The Comptroller shall examine the disbursements of the Treasurer at the end of each quarter, and shall, together with the Treasurer, cancel the warrants which have been paid in such manner as to prevent their future circulation, and shall examine if the receipts acknowledged by the Treasurer during the quarter correspond with the deposits, and if the balance of money reported to be in his possession is actually in his hands. [Id.]

The physicians and others residing in cities having no city health officer, shall make reports required in this section direct to the county health officer, where there is a county health officer in the county in which they reside, and where there is no county health officer, all such reports shall be made direct to the State Board of Health.

In establishing quarantine the local health officer shall designate and define the limits of the area in which the person known to have, or reasonably suspected of having syphilis, gonorrhea, or chancroid, and his immediate attendant, are to be quarantined, and no person other than the attending physician, shall enter or leave the area of quarantine without the permission of the local health officer.

No one but the local health officer shall terminate said quarantine, and this shall not be done until the quarantined person has become non-infectious, as determined by the local health officer or his authorized deputy through clinical examination and all necessary laboratory tests, or until permission has been given him to do so by the State Board of Health or its executive officer.

2. The local health officer shall inform all persons who are about to be released from quarantine for venereal disease, in case they are not cured, what further treatment should be taken to complete their cure. Any person not cured, before released from quarantine, shall be required to sign the following statement after the blank spaces have been filled to the satisfaction of the health officer:

"I hereby agree to report to the health officer within four days after beginning treatment as above agreed, and will bring with me a statement from the above physician or clinic of the medical treatment applied in my case, and thereafter will report as often as may be demanded of me by the health officer.

"I agree further, that I will take all precautions recommended by the health officer to prevent the spread of the above disease to other persons and that I will not perform any act which will expose other persons to the above disease.

"I agree, until finally released by the health officer, to notify him of any change of address and to obtain his consent before moving my abode outside of his jurisdiction.

All such agreements shall be filed with the health officer and kept inaccessible to the public.

The commissioners courts of the various counties and the governing body of all incorporated towns and cities are hereby empowered and directed to provide suitable places for the detention of persons who may be subject to quarantine and who should be segregated for the execution of the provisions of this law; and such commissioners courts and governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns are hereby authorized to incur, on behalf of their said counties, cities or towns, the expenses necessary to the enforcement of this law.

Sec. 5. 1. When a person applies to a physician or other person for the diagnosis or treatment of syphilis, gonorrhoea or chancroid, it shall be the duty of the physician or person so consulted to inquire of, and ascertain from, the person seeking such diagnosis or treatment, whether such person has heretofore consulted with, or has been treated by, any other physician or person, and if so, to ascertain the name and address of the physician or person last consulted. It shall be the duty of the physician or other person whom the applicant consults to notify the physician or other person last consulted of the change of advisers. Should the physician or person previously consulted fail to receive such notice within ten days after the last date upon which the patient was instructed by him to appear, it shall be the duty of such physician or person to report to the local health officer the name and address of such venereally diseased person.

2. If an attending physician or other person knows or has good reasons to suspect that a person having syphilis, gonorrhoea, or chancroid is so conducting himself or herself as to expose other persons to infection, or is about so to conduct himself or herself, he shall notify the local health officer of the name and address of the diseased person and the essential facts in the case.

Sec. 6. All local and State health officers are directed to co-operate with proper officials whose duty it is to enforce laws directed against prostitution, and otherwise to use every proper means for the repression of prostitution.

Sec. 7. Physicians, health officers, and all other persons are prohibited from issuing certificates of freedom from venereal disease, provided this section shall not prevent the issuance of statements of freedom from infectious diseases written in such form, or given under such safeguards, that their use for solicitation for sexual intercourse would be impossible.

Sec. 8. All information and reports concerning persons infected with venereal diseases shall be inaccessible to the public except in so far as publicity may attend the performance of the duties imposed by the laws of the State.

Sec. 9. Any health officer or other physician who shall wilfully fail to perform the duties required of him in this article shall, in addition to the fines imposed by law, forfeit his right and license to practice medicine within this State; and the district courts of the State shall have jurisdiction of suits for the forfeiture of such license in such cases, and the suit may be filed by any citizen of the State in a court having jurisdiction, under the ordinary rules of venue, and it shall be the duty of the county and district attorneys to represent the petitioners in such suit. [Id.]

Art. 4451. [4557] [4328] Local subordinate to State authorities.—Whenever quarantine is declared by the Governor or

[Id.]

Art. 4453. [4559] [4330] Expenses of quarantine.—All quarantine officers appointed by the Governor shall be selected and commissioned by the Governor, and shall be paid by the State, and all health authorities of the State, or of any county or city thereof, shall obey the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governor or State Board of Health. [Acts 1891, p. 188; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 188 and 872; Acts 1895, p. 142.]

Art. 4455. [4561] [4332] Local health officer.—Whenever on the coast of Texas or elsewhere in this State the authorities of any county, town or city fail, refuse or neglect to establish quarantine as provided in the preceding article, then the Governor shall appoint a health officer and prescribe such regulations for the government of the same as he may deem necessary. [Acts 1891, p. 190; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 192.]

Art. 4456. [4562] [4333] Incoming vessels stopped.—All health officers and all quarantine authorities shall, if deemed necessary, stop each and every vessel from any infected port or district, tho the said vessel may have a clean bill of health. Such health officers or quarantine authorities shall have power to take the affidavit of the master of said vessel as to the health of himself and crew from the time of sailing from said infected port or district. Such officers and authorities shall detain said vessel at quarantine for such length of time as the Governor and State Board of Health may prescribe in their rules and regulations governing quarantine. All such officers and authorities may use force if necessary in order to discharge the duties imposed upon them by the provisions of this title and the rules and regulations of the Governor and Texas State Board of Health. [Acts 1883, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 323.]

Art. 4457. [4563-64] Vessels from infected ports.—Any vessel arriving at any quarantine station of this State, designated by the proper authorities, from any infected port or district, without a clean bill of health from the proper officers from said port or district, shall be taken possession of by the health officer or other quarantine authority at the station at which said vessel arrives, and be held by the same until all fines that may have been assessed against the master of said vessel for a violation of the quarantine laws, rules and regulations have been paid, or until said vessel shall have been replevied in accordance with law. The payment of the fine which may be assessed against the master of such vessel shall not operate as a release or discharge of the vessel from quarantine, but the same rules shall apply as in case of other vessels placed in quarantine. Art. 4460. [4568] [4340] County quarantine.—Whenever the commissioners court of any county has reason to believe that they are threatened at any point within or without the county limits with the introduction or dissemination of a dangerous, contagious or infectious disease that can and should be guarded against by quarantine they may direct their county health officer to declare and maintain said quarantine against any and all such dangerous diseases; to establish, maintain and supply stations or camps for those held in quarantine; to provide hospitals, tents or pest houses for those sick of contagious and infectious disease; to furnish provisions, medicine and all other things absolutely essential for the comfort of the well and the convalescence of the sick. The county physician shall keep an itemized account of all lawful expenses incurred by local quarantine, and his county shall assume and pay them as other claims against the county are paid. Chartered cities and towns are embraced within the purview of this article, and the mere fact of incorporation does not exclude them from the protection against epidemic diseases given by the commissioners court to other parts of their respective counties. The medical officers of chartered cities and towns may perform the duties granted or commanded in their several charters, but must be amenable and obedient to rules prescribed by the State Board of Health. This article, however, must not be construed as prohibiting any incorporated town or city from declaring, maintaining and paying for local quarantine. [Id.]

Art. 4461. [4569] [4341] Health officer at Galveston.—The quarantine or health officer at Galveston shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the care and preservation of any steam vessel or vessels belonging to the State at his station, and for the faithful performance of his duty. [4570] [4342] To prescribe rules, etc.—The Governor and State Board of Health shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the disinfection of all vessels and their cargoes and passengers arriving at any port on the coast of Texas from any infected port or district, the object of such rules and regulations being to provide safety for the public health of the State without unnecessary restrictions upon commerce and travel. [Id.]

Art. 4463. [4571] [4342a] Sale of condemned property.—The State Health Officer is hereby authorized, with the advice and consent of the Governor, to sell to the best advantage of the State, for cash, any property in the quarantine service that is useless, and to apply the proceeds thereof to the general revenue of this State, and make due report of said sale or sales to the Governor. Art. 4464. [4572] Vessels disinfected.—Any vessel arriving at a port of this State, and required to be disinfected by the terms of the Governor's quarantine proclamation, shall be disinfected by the quarantine officer of such port and before being released from quarantine shall pay to such quarantine officer such fees as the Governor may prescribe. All vessels boarded by the quarantine officer of any port shall pay to such officer such fees as the Governor prescribes. The quarantine officer receiving such fees shall give bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the Governor for the safe keeping of such collections and shall report and remit them to the State Board of Health at least once every month. District and county attorneys shall file forfeiture and condemnation suits under this law at the request of the Director. Said attorney shall be entitled to a fee of $15.00, to be paid out of the proceeds arising from the sale of the property condemned, said fee to be in addition to all other fees allowed by law, and shall be over and above the fees allowed under the General Fee Act of this State. Upon payment of the costs of such forfeiture or condemnation proceeding by the owner of the property proceeded against and by his executing and delivering a good and sufficient bond in double the value of the goods proceeded against, payable to the State of Texas, conditioned that said articles shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this law, the court may by order direct that said goods be delivered to the owner thereof. In all proceedings begun under this article, either party may demand trial by jury, of any issue of fact joined in any such case. [Id.]

Art. 4471. Adulterated or misbranded food or drug.—No person, firm or corporation shall within this State manufacture for sale, have in his possession with the intent to sell, offer or expose for sale, or sell or exchange any article of food or drug which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter. Bodies dead of non-quarantinable contagious disease.—The bodies of those dead of typhoid fever, puerperal fever, erysipelas, tuberculosis and measles, or other dangerous communicable disease, other than those specified in rules 77 and 78, may be received for transportation when prepared for shipment by filling cavities with an approved disinfectant, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton and encased in an air-tight coffin or casket; provided, that this shall apply only to bodies which can reach their destination within forty-eight hours from time of death. In all other cases such bodies shall be prepared for transportation in conformity with Rule 78. But when the body has been prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by an embalmer holding a certificate, as in Rule 78, the air-tight sealing may be dispensed with.

Rule 80. Bodies dead of other diseases.—The bodies of those dead of diseases that are not contagious, infectious or communicable may be received for transportation when encased in a sound coffin or casket and enclosed in a strong outside box; provided, they reach their destination within thirty hours from time of death. If the body can not reach its destination within thirty hours from time of death, it must be prepared for shipment by filling cavities with an approved disinfectant, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton, and encased in an air-tight coffin or casket. But when the body has been prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by a licensed embalmer as in Rule 78, the air-tight sealing may be dispensed with.

Rule 81. Persons accompanying bodies dead of contagious diseases.—In cases of contagious or infectious diseases, the body must not be accompanied by persons or articles which have been exposed to the infection of the disease, unless certified by the health officer as having been properly disinfected; and before selling passage tickets, agents shall carefully examine the transit permit and note the name of the passenger in charge and of any other proposing to accompany the body, and see that all necessary precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of disease. The transit permit in such cases shall specifically state who is authorized by the health authorities to accompany the remains. In all cases where bodies are forwarded under Rule 78, notice must be sent by telegraph to health officer at destination, advising the date and train on which the body may be expected. This notice must be sent by or in the name of the health officer of the initial point, and is to enable the health officer at destination to take all necessary precautions at that point.

Rule 82. Bodies not shipped by express.—Every dead body not shipped by express must be accompanied by a person in charge, who must be provided with a passage ticket and also present a full first-class ticket marked "corpse" for the transportation of the body, and a transit permit showing physician's or coroner's certificate, name of deceased, date and hour of death, age, place of death, cause of death, and if of a contagious or infectious disease, the point to which the body is to be shipped, and when death is caused by any of the diseases specified in rule 78, the names of those authorized by the health authorities to accompany the body. The transit permit must be made in duplicate, and the signatures of the physician or coroner, health officer and undertaker must be on both the original and duplicate copies. The undertaker's certificate and paster of the original shall be detached from the transit permit and pasted on the end of the coffin box. The physician's certificate and transit permit shall be handed to the passenger in charge of the corpse. The whole duplicate copy shall be sent to the official in charge of the baggage department of the initial line and by him to the Secretary of the State Board of Health at Austin.

Rule 83. Bodies shipped by express.—When dead bodies are shipped by express, the whole original transit permit shall be pasted upon the outside box, and the duplicate forwarded by the express agent to the Secretary of the State Board of Health at Austin.

Rule 84. Disinterred bodies treated as contagious.—Every disinterred body, dead from any disease or cause, shall be treated as contagious or dangerous to the public health and shall not be accepted for transportation unless removal has been approved by the State or local health authorities having jurisdiction where such body is disinterred, and the consent of the health authorities of the locality to which the corpse is consigned has first been obtained; and all such disinterred remains shall be enclosed in a hermetically sealed (soldered) zinc, tin or copper-lined coffin or box. Bodies deposited in receiving vaults shall be treated and considered the same as buried bodies.

Rule 85. Transfer of bodies in transit.—When necessary to transfer dead bodies in transit from one railway train to another, or from one station to another, or from a station to a ferry, the affidavit of the undertaker and permit of the local health officer accompanying the remains shall be in all cases sufficient authority for such transfer.

Rule 86. Certificate by undertaker.—No common carrier shall accept for transportation any body unless a certificate is furnished by the undertaker preparing such body for shipment to the effect that the foregoing rules have been complied with in the preparation for transportation of said body. Art. 4478. Authority.—The commissioners court of any county shall have power to establish a county hospital and to enlarge any existing hospitals for the care and treatment of persons suffering from any illness, disease or injury, subject to the provisions of this chapter. At intervals of not less than twelve months, ten per cent of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county may petition such court to provide for the establishing or enlarging of a county hospital, in which event said court within the time designated in such petition shall submit to such voters at a special or regular election the proposition of issuing bonds in such aggregate amount as may be designated in said petition for the establishing or enlarging of such hospital. Whenever any such proposition shall receive a majority of the votes of the qualified property tax payers voting at such election, said commissioners court shall establish and maintain such hospital and shall have the following powers:

1. To purchase and lease real property therefor, or acquire such real property, and easements therein, by condemnation proceedings.

2. To purchase or erect all necessary buildings, make all necessary improvements and repairs and alter any existing buildings, for the use of said hospital. The plans for such erection, alteration, or repair shall first be approved by the State Health Officer, if his approval is requested by the said commissioners court.

3. To cause to be assessed, levied and collected, such taxes upon the real and personal property owned in the county as it shall deem necessary to provide the funds for the maintenance thereof, and for all other necessary expenditures therefor.

4. To issue county bonds to provide funds for the establishing, enlarging and equipping of said hospital and for all other necessary permanent improvements in connection therewith; to do all other things that may be required by law in order to render said bonds valid.

5. To appoint a board of managers for said hospital.

6. To accept and hold in trust for the county, any grant or devise of land, or any gift or bequest of money or other personal property or any donation to be applied, principal or income or both, for the benefit of said hospital, and apply the same in accordance with the terms of the gift. [Acts 1913, p. 71.]

Art. 4479. Board of managers.—When the commissioners court shall have acquired a site for such hospital and shall have awarded contracts for the necessary buildings and improvements thereon, it shall biennially appoint five citizens of the county, of whom at least two shall be practicing physicians, and at least one a woman, who shall constitute a board of managers of said hospital. The term of office of each member of said board shall be two years. Appointments to fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation or other cause shall be made for the unexpired term. Failure of any manager to attend three consecutive meetings of the board shall cause a vacancy in his office, unless said absence is excused by formal action of the board of managers. The managers shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses within this State to be audited and paid by the commissioners court in the same manner as other expenses of the hospital. Any manager after being cited may at any time for cause be removed from office by said court. [Id.]

Art. 4480. Powers of board.—The board of managers shall elect from among its members a president, and one or more vice-presidents and a secretary and a treasurer. It shall appoint a superintendent of the hospital who shall hold office at the pleasure of said board. Said superintendent shall not be a member of the board, and shall be a qualified practitioner of medicine, or be specially trained for work of such character.

The board shall also appoint a staff of visiting physicians who shall serve without pay from the county, and who shall visit and treat hospital patients at the request either of the managers or of the superintendent.

Said board shall fix the salaries of the superintendent and all other officers and employes within the limit of the appropriation made therefor by the commissioners court, and such salaries shall be compensation in full for all services rendered. The board shall determine the amount of time required to be spent at the hospital by said superintendent in the discharge of his duties. The board shall have the general management and control of the said hospital, grounds, buildings, officers and employes thereof; of the inmates therein, and of all matters relating to the government, discipline, contracts and fiscal concerns thereof; and make such rules and regulations as may seem to them necessary for carrying out the purposes of such hospital. They shall maintain an effective inspection of said hospital and keep themselves informed of the affairs and management thereof; shall meet at the hospital at least once in every month, and at such other times as may be prescribed in the by-laws; and shall hold an annual meeting at least three weeks prior to the meeting of the commissioners court at which appropriations for the ensuing year are to be considered. [Id.]

Art. 4481. Clinics.—The board of managers may also establish and operate an outpatient department or free dispensary and clinic at the hospital or in the city nearest to which the hospital is located, with branch dispensaries or clinics in every city or town in the county of five thousand population and over. They shall appoint a physician or physicians, who shall serve at such dispensaries or clinics, and shall determine the amount of time required to be spent at such dispensaries or clinics by such physicians, and shall fix the salaries, if any, of such physicians. Said board shall also appoint one or more trained visiting nurses to serve in connection with each such dispensary or clinic, and in connection with the hospital, and shall fix their salaries within the limits of the appropriation made therefor by the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 4482. School for children.—The board may also establish, at the hospital or in the city nearest to which the hospital is situated, or in the largest city in the county, a special and separate school for the education, care and treatment of children suffering from tuberculosis. Said school shall be conducted as a branch of the hospital and the pupils and inmates of said school shall be considered as inmates of the hospital and subject to all the provisions of this law. Said board shall appoint a teacher or teachers, specially qualified, to instruct and care for the pupil inmates of said school. Said Board shall delegate the superintendent of the hospital, a member or members of the staff of visiting physicians, a physician or physicians in attendance upon any county dispensary, or shall employ a physician, to attend the inmates of said school, and to supervise their care and treatment, and shall delegate one of the hospital nurses, or a visiting nurse, or shall employ a nurse to assist in the care and treatment of said pupils. [Id.]

Art. 4483. Health bulletins.—The State Board of Health, from time to time, shall make rules and regulations for the care of persons suffering from communicable disease and for the prevention and spread of such diseases; and prepare bulletins and other publications giving information as to the cause, nature, treatment and prevention of disease. The board of managers, shall from time to time, purchase from the State Board of Health, at the actual cost of printing, printed copies of such rules and regulations, bulletins and other publications, or shall have same printed, and shall send or deliver such copies to all practicing physicians in the county, to all public schools and to such private schools as request such copies, and such organizations, churches, societies, unions and individuals as may present written requests for copies of circulars, pamphlets, bulletins and such other publications prepared by the State Board of Health.

Art. 4484. Records.—The board of managers shall keep in a book provided for that purpose a proper record of its proceedings, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of its members, to the members of the commissioners court and to any citizen of the county. The board shall certify all bills and accounts, including salaries and wages, and transmit them to the commissioners court, who shall provide for their payment in the same manner as other charges against the county are paid.

The board of managers shall make to the commissioners court annually, and at such times as said court shall direct, a detailed report of the operation of the hospital dispensaries and school during the year, showing the number of patients received and the methods and results of their treatment, together with suitable recommendations and such other matter as may be required of them, and shall furnish full and detailed estimates of the appropriations required during the ensuing year for all purposes, including maintenance, the erection of buildings, repairs, renewals, extensions, improvements, betterments or other necessary purposes. [Id.]

Art. 4485. Superintendent.—The superintendent shall be the chief executive officer of the hospital, but shall at all times be subject to the by-laws, rules and regulations thereof, and to the powers of the board of managers.

He shall, with the consent of the board of managers, equip the hospital with all necessary furniture, appliances, fixtures and all other needed facilities for the care and treatment of patients, and for the use of officers and employes thereof, and shall purchase all necessary supplies, not exceeding the amount provided for such purposes by the commissioners court.

He shall have general supervision and control of the records, accounts and buildings of the hospital, and all internal affairs, and maintain discipline therein, and enforce compliance with and obedience to all rules, by-laws and regulations adopted by the board of managers for the government, discipline and management of said hospital and the employes and inmates thereof. He shall make such further rules, regulations and orders as he may deem necessary, not inconsistent with law or with the rules, regulations and directions of the board of managers. He shall, with the consent of the board of managers, appoint such resident officers and such employes as he may think proper and necessary for the efficient performance of the business of the hospital, and prescribe their duties; and for cause stated in writing, he may discharge any such officer or employe at his discretion, after giving such officer or employe an opportunity to be heard.

He shall cause proper accounts and records of the business and operations of the hospital to be kept regularly from day to day in books and on records provided for that purpose; and shall see that such accounts and records are correctly made up for the annual report as required by this law, and present the same to the board of managers who shall incorporate them in their report to the commissioners court.

He shall receive into the hospital, under the general direction of the board of managers, in order of application, or according to the urgency of need of treatment, any person found to be suffering from any illness, disease or injury, who has been an actual resident and inhabitant of the county for a period of at least one year prior to his application for admission to said hospital. He shall also receive into the hospital, patients sent by the commissioners court of any adjacent county, which has contracted with the board for the care and treatment of its sick and diseased and injured persons, resident in such counties for a period of at least one year. Such patients shall not be received and cared for unless there is sufficient provision for the care of the sick, diseased and injured of the county in which the hospital is situated. Said superintendent shall cause to be kept proper accounts and records of the admission of all patients, their names, age, sex, color, marital condition, residence, occupation and place of past employment.

He shall cause a careful examination to be made of the physical condition of all persons admitted to the hospital and provide for the treatment of each such patient according to his need; and shall cause a record to be kept of the condition of each patient when admitted and from time to time thereafter.

He shall temporarily or permanently discharge from said hospital any patient who shall wilfully or habitually violate the rules thereof; or who is found not to be sick, diseased or injured; or who is found to have recovered therefrom; or who for any other reason is no longer a suitable patient for treatment therein; and shall make a full report thereof at the next meeting of the board, and the said board shall make such final disposition of the case as they may think proper. From the decision of the board of managers there shall be no appeal.

He shall collect and receive all moneys due the hospital, keep an accurate account of the same, report the same at the monthly meeting of the board of managers, and transmit the same to the county collector within ten days after such meeting.

He shall before entering upon the discharge of his duties, give a bond in such sum as the board of managers may determine, to secure the faithful performance of the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 4486. Admission of patients.—Any resident of the county in which the hospital is situated, desiring treatment in such hospital, may apply in person to the superintendent or to any reputable physician for examination, and such physician, if he finds that such person is suffering from any illness, disease or injury may apply to the superintendent of the hospital for his admission. Blank forms for such application shall be provided by the hospital and shall be forwarded by the superintendent thereof free to any reputable physician in the county upon request. So far as practicable, applications for admission to the hospital shall be made upon such forms. The superintendent upon receipt of such application, if it appears therefrom that the patient is suffering from illness, disease or injury, and if there be a vacancy in said hospital, shall notify the person named in such application to appear in person at the hospital. If, upon personal examination of such patient, or of any patient applying in person for admission, the superintendent is satisfied that such person is suffering from any illness, disease or injury, he shall admit him to the hospital as a patient. All such applications shall state whether, in the judgment of the physician, the person is able to pay in whole or in part for his care and treatment while at the hospital. Every application shall be filed and recorded in a book kept for that purpose in the order of its receipt. No discrimination shall be made in the accommodations, care or treatment of any patient because of the fact that the patient or his relatives contribute to the cost of his maintenance, in whole or in part. No patient shall be permitted to pay for his maintenance in such hospital a greater sum than the average per capita cost of maintenance therein, including a reasonable allowance for the interest on the cost of the hospital. No officer or employee of such hospital shall accept from any patient thereof, any fee, payment or gratuity whatsoever for his services. [Id.]

Art. 4487. Support of patients.—Whenever a patient has been admitted to said hospital from the county in which the hospital is situated, the superintendent shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives to pay to the treasurer of such hospital for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The superintendent shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the superintendent finds that such patient, or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the county. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the superintendent, the county court shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which there shall be no appeal. [Id.]

Art. 4488. Inspection.—The resident officer of the hospital shall admit the managers into every part of the hospital and the premises and give them access on demand to all books, papers, accounts, and records pertaining to the hospital, and shall furnish copies, abstracts, and reports whenever required by them. All hospitals established or maintained under the provisions of this law shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health, or any State board of charities that may hereafter be created, and of the commissioners court of the county; and the resident officers shall admit such representatives into every part of the hospital and its buildings and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers and accounts pertaining to the hospital. [Id.]

Art. 4489. Poorhouse.—Wherever a county hospital for the care and treatment of persons suffering from any illness, disease or injury exists in connection with, or on the grounds of a county poorhouse or elsewhere, the commissioners' court shall appoint a board of managers for such hospital, and such hospital and its board of managers shall thereafter be subject to each provision of this law, in like manner as if it had been originally established hereunder. Any hospital which may hereafter be established by any commissioners court shall in like manner be subject to each provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4490. Additional hospitals.—When deemed advisable by the commissioners court, and approved by the State Board of Health, a county may maintain more than one county hospital for the purpose aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 4491. Contract with hospital.—Any commissioners court of any county which has no city with a population of more than ten thousand persons, may contract for a period not exceeding one year, with any regularly incorporated society or hospital or municipality within the county maintaining a hospital, or with any other adjacent county, for the care of any or all of the sick, diseased or injured inhabitants of the county, upon such terms and conditions as they may by agreement think proper. Where a county has established such hospital, the board of managers may contract with any regularly incorporated society or hospital or city or town within the county maintaining a hospital, for the care of some of the sick, injured or diseased persons applying for admission to the county hospital. [Id.]

Art. 4492. Contracts with cities.—Any commissioners court may co-operate with and join the proper authorities of any city having a population of ten thousand persons or more in the establishment, building, equipment and maintenance of a hospital in said city, and to appropriate such funds as may be determined by said court, after joint conference with the authorities of such city or town, and the management of such hospital shall be under the joint control of such court and city authorities. [Id.]

Art. 4493. Adequate facilities.—Where no county hospital is now provided for the purpose aforesaid, or where such provision is inadequate, the commissioners court of each county which may have a city with a population of more than ten thousand persons, within six months from the time when such city shall have attained such population, such population to be ascertained by such court in such manner as may be determined upon resolution thereof, shall provide for the erection of such county hospital or hospitals as may be necessary for that purpose, and provide therein a room or rooms, or ward or wards for the care of confinement cases, and a room or rooms or ward or wards for the temporary care of persons suffering from mental or nervous disease, and also make provision in separate buildings for patients suffering from tuberculosis and other communicable diseases, and from time to time add thereto accommodations sufficient to take care of the patients of the county. This time may be extended by the State Board of Health for good cause shown. Unless adequate funds for the building of said hospital can be derived from current funds of the county available for such purpose, issuance of county warrants and script, the commissioners court shall submit, either at a special election called for the purpose, or at a regular election, the proposition of the issuance of county bonds for the purpose of building such hospital. If the proposition shall fail to receive a majority vote at such election said court may be required thereafter at intervals of not less than twelve months, upon petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of said county, to submit said proposition until same shall receive the requisite vote authorizing the issuance of the bonds. [Id.]

Art. 4494. Counties may join.—Where found to be more practicable, and when approved by the State Board of Health, two or more adjacent counties, having each a population of less than fifteen thousand persons, may join for the purposes of this law, and erect one or more hospitals for their joint use, under the terms and conditions above set forth for a single county.

In such cases such combined counties shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as a single county, herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 4495. [5733] Medical board.—The Board of Medical Examiners for the State of Texas shall consist of eleven men learned in medicine, legal and active practitioners in this State, who shall have resided and practiced medicine in this State under a diploma from a legal and reputable college of medicine of the school to which said practitioner shall belong for more than three years prior to their appointment. No school shall have a majority representation on said board. Said board shall be appointed biennially by the Governor within ninety days after his inauguration, and the term of office of its members shall be two years. No member of said board shall be a stockholder or a member of the faculty or a board of trustees of any medical school. The word "medicine" as used in this article shall have the same meaning and scope as given to it in the article defining it. [Acts 1907, p. 224, Sec. 1.]

Art. 4496. [5734] Organization and meetings.—Each member of said board shall qualify by taking the official oath in the county of his residence. At the first meeting of said board after each biennial appointment, the board shall elect a president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice a year, at such times and places as the board shall deem most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the board. Special meetings may be held upon a call of three members of the board. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws, in harmony with the provisions of this title, for its own proceedings and government for the examination of applicants for the practice of medicine and obstetrics. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 4497. [5735] Board shall keep register.—The board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing name, age, place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in medical study in respective medical schools, and the year and school from which degrees were granted; said register shall also show whether applicants were rejected or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The Secretary of the board shall on March 1 of each year, transmit an official copy of said register to the Secretary of State for permanent record, a certified copy of which, with hand and seal of the secretary of said board, or the Secretary of State, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts. [Id. Sec. 3]

Art. 4498. [5736] Physicians to register.—No person shall practice medicine in any of its branches upon human beings within the limits of this State who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resides, lawful authority to so practice medicine as herein prescribed, together with an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by him before said clerk stating his age, post-office address, place of birth, school of practice to which he professes to belong, that he is the identical person to whom the license offered for registration was issued, and that the same has not been canceled. The fact that said oath was so made, and said license so recorded, shall be endorsed by the district clerk upon the license. The holder of the license must in similar manner have the same recorded upon each change of residence to another county, and shall in each instance be required to make the affidavit provided above. The absence of such record in the office of the district clerk shall be prima facie evidence that no such license exists, and of failure to comply with the law in reference to the registration of license to practice medicine. [Acts 1923, p. 292.]

Art. 4499. [5737] Medical Register.—Every district clerk shall keep as a permanent record of his office a book of suitable size, to be known as the "Medical Register", and shall record therein all licenses to practice medicine issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners which shall be presented to him for registration and all the matters and things required by the preceding article to be recorded, and shall, as required by law, make therein notation of the cancellation of licenses so registered, and of the death and removal from the county of physicians whose licenses are so registered. When any district court shall cancel the license of any person to practice medicine, the clerk of said court shall, if said license is registered in his county, note the cancellation of said license upon the medical register of said county, and shall forthwith certify to the Secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners, under the seal of said court, the fact that said license was so canceled by said court, giving the exact date of said cancellation, and shall tax the fee for making said certificate as part of the costs of the suit to cancel said license. Each county health officer shall keep informed of the death and removal of all registered physicians residing in the county where he resides, and upon the death or removal of any such physician from said county shall certify such death or removal, giving the name of the physician who has died, or so removed, the date, or approximate date of such death or removal, and shall date and sign such certificate and deliver the same either in person or by registered mail, to the district clerk of said county, and said clerk shall forthwith make notation of said death or removal in said Medical Register, and notify the Secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners of the said death or removal. The notation of such cancellation, if made by a district court, shall consist of writing in large, legible letters across the face of the record of the license cancelled the words "Cancelled by the district court of _____ County, on the _____ day of _____, 19____," (filling the blanks so as to correctly indicate the name of the county and the date of the cancellation) and such notation shall be dated and signed officially by the clerk. The notation of the death or removal of a registered physician by the district clerk shall consist of noting the fact of such death or removal upon the record of the license of the physician who has died or removed from the county in large, legible letters, the date of said notation, and the official signature of the clerk. The district clerk shall collect from each physician who presents a license for registration the sum of one dollar at the time such license is presented to him for registration, and that sum shall be full compensation for recording said license and making all notations in the medical register required by law to be so made in reference to the physician named in said license. All matters pertaining to each physician shall be kept and written upon one page of said medical register, and no other entry or registration shall ever be made on said page. It shall be unlawful for any district clerk to make a certified copy of any page or entry in said medical register, or any part thereof, which is not an exact copy of the entire page, or which does not include all notations regarding the cancellation of license, death, or removal of the physician in question, appearing in the office of said clerk. A copy from the medical register pertaining to any person whose license is registered therein certified to by the district clerk having the custody of said medical register under the seal of said court shall be competent evidence in all trial courts. The certificate of a district clerk under the seal of his office certifying that the person named in said certificate is not registered as a physician in the office of said district clerk shall also be prima facie evidence in all trial courts. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1923, p. 285.]

Art. 4500. [5738] Reciprocal arrangements.—The State Board of Medical Examiners may in its discretion, upon payment by the applicant for registration of a fee of fifty dollars, grant license to practice medicine to any reputable physician who is a graduate of a reputable medical college or has qualified on examination for the certificate of medical qualification for a commission in the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, and to licentiates of other states or territories having requirements for medical registration and practice equal to those established by this law. Applications for license under the provisions of this article shall be in writing, and upon a form to be prescribed by the State Board of Medical Examiners. Said application shall be accompanied with a diploma or a photograph thereof, awarded to the applicant by a reputable medical college, or a certified transcript of the certificate or license or commission issued to the applicant by the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, or by a license or a certified copy of license to practice medicine, lawfully issued to the applicant by some other State or territory; and also be accompanied by an affidavit from an executive officer of the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, the president or secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners who issued the said license, or by a legally constituted medical registration officer of the State or territory in which the certificate or license was granted upon which the application for medical registration in Texas is based. Said affidavit shall recite that the accompanying certificate or license has not been cancelled or revoked except by honorable discharge from the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, and that the statement of qualifications made in the application for medical registration in Texas is true and correct. Applicants for license under the provisions of this article shall subscribe to an oath in writing, which shall be a part of said application, stating that the license, certificate, or authority under which the applicant practiced medicine in the State or territory from which the applicant removed was at the time of such removal in full force and not suspended or cancelled; that the applicant is the identical person to whom the said certificate, license or commission and the said medical diploma were issued, and that no proceeding was pending at the time of such removal, or is at the present time pending against the applicant for the cancellation of such certificate, license, or authority to practice medicine in the State or territory in which the same was issued, and that no prosecution was then, or is at the time of the application pending against the applicant in any State or Federal court for any offense which under the law of Texas is a felony. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1915, p. 112; Acts 1923, p. 286.]

Art. 4501. [5739] Examination.—All applicants for license to practice medicine in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of law, must successfully pass an examination before the Board of Medical Examiners established by this law. Applicants, to be eligible for examination, must present satisfactory evidence to the board that they are more than twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of bona fide, reputable medical schools. Such school shall be considered reputable within the meaning of this law, whose entrance requirements and course of instruction are as high as those adopted by the better class of medical schools of the United States, whose course of instruction shall embrace not less than four terms of eight months each. Application for examination must be made in writing under affidavit to the secretary of the board, on forms prepared by the board, accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars; except when an applicant desires to practice obstetrics alone, the fee of which shall be five dollars. Such applicant shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. Applicants to practice obstetrics in this State, upon proper application, shall be examined by the board in obstetrics only, and upon satisfactory examination shall be licensed to practice that branch only; provided, this shall not apply to those who do not follow obstetrics as a profession, and who do not advertise themselves as obstetricians or midwives, or hold themselves out to the public as so practicing. If any applicant, because of failure to pass examination, be refused a license, he or she shall, at such time as the Board of Medical Examiners shall fix, be permitted to take a subsequent examination upon such subjects required in original examinations as the said board may prescribe, upon the payment of such part of twenty-five dollars as the said board may determine and state; and said board may, in the event satisfactory grades shall be made in the subjects prescribed and taken in such re-examination, grant to the applicant license to practice medicine. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1915, p. 112; Acts 1923, p. 287.]

Art. 4502. [5740] Disposition of fees.—The fund realized from the aforesaid fees shall be applied first to the payment of necessary expenses of the board of examiners; any remaining funds shall be applied by the order of the board to compensating members of the board in proportion to their labors. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4503. Details of examinations.—All examinations to practice medicine shall be conducted in writing in the English language and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals and to every school, or system of medicine, the applicants being known to the examiners only by numbers, without names or other method of identification on examination papers by which members of the board may be able to identify such applicants, or examinees, until after the general averages of the examinees' numbers in the class have been determined and license ordered, granted or refused. Examinations shall be conducted on anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, pathology, bacteriology, diagnosis, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, hygiene, and medical jurisprudence. Upon satisfactory examination under the rules of the board, applicants shall be granted license to practice medicine. All questions and answers, with grades attached, shall be preserved in the executive office of the board for one year. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions in each of the above named branches. All certificates shall be attested by the seal of the board and signed by all members of the board, or a quorum thereof. The board may in its discretion give its examination for license in two parts. The first part shall include such of the required scientific branches of medicine named above as may be prescribed by the board. The second, or final part of the examination shall not be given until the applicant has graduated and received a diploma from a reputable medical college. This, the second or final part of the examination shall include all of the scientific branches of medicine prescribed by this law not included and passed by the applicant in the first, or partial, examination, but no license to practice medicine shall issue to such an applicant or examinee unless and until he or she has been examined in all of the scientific branches of medicine prescribed by this law and made the general average or averages required by the board. The application for the first partial examination shall be accompanied by an affidavit from the dean or registrar of a reputable medical college, stating that the applicant has successfully completed the work of the first two years of the college course, and a fee of fifteen dollars; the application for the second, or final, part of the examination shall include an affidavit showing that the applicant is a graduate of a reputable medical college, in good standing with this board, and a fee of twenty-five dollars. The board is authorized to make all rules as to credit to be given for partial examinations, and re-examinations of failed examinees in partial or complete examinations, and changes in procedure necessary to conduct the examination for license in two parts. But it shall be optional with the applicant for examination for license whether he or she shall take the twelve branches of medicine prescribed by this law in one examination session of the board or in two separate sessions. All applicants for examination by said board who cannot speak or write the English language must pay an additional charge of thirty dollars for the services of an interpreter, who shall fairly and accurately translate to the applicant each question propounded to applicants in such examination, and receive from said applicant full answer to said question and translate the said answer fully and with accuracy for the applicant and write the answer thus translated in the answers to said questions furnished to the board for examination and grading. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1923, p. 288.]

Art. 4504. [5742] Construction of this law.—Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to discriminate against any particular school or system of medical practice, nor to affect or limit in any way the application or use of the principles, tenets or teachings of any church in the ministrations to the sick or suffering by prayer without the use of any drug or material remedy, provided sanitary and quarantine laws and regulations are complied with, and that no charge is made therefor, directly or indirectly. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to dentists legally qualified and registered under the laws of this State who confine their practice strictly to dentistry; nor optometrists who confine their practice strictly to optometry, as defined in this title; nor to nurses who practice only nursing; nor to masseurs in their particular sphere of labor who publicly represent themselves as such; nor to commissioned or contract surgeons of the United States Army, Navy or Public Health and Marine Hospital Service in performance of their duties, but shall not engage in private practice without license from the Board of Medical Examiners; nor to legally qualified physicians of other States called in consultation, but who do not open office or appoint places in this State where patients may be met or called to see. This law shall be so construed as to apply to persons other than licensed druggists of this State not pretending to be physicians who offer for sale on the streets or other public places remedies which they recommend for the cure of disease. [Acts 1907, p. 224, Acts 1923, p. 289.]

Art. 4505. [5743] May refuse to admit certain persons.—The State Board of Medical Examiners may refuse to admit persons to its examinations, or to issue the certificate provided for in this law, for any of the following causes:

1. The presentation to the board of any license, certificate or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination.

2. Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony, or one which involves moral turpitude, or procuring or aiding or abetting the procuring of a criminal abortion.

3. Other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public; or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction calculated to endanger the lives of patients; provided, that any applicant who may be refused admittance to examination before said board shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court of the county in which some member of the board shall reside. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 4506. [5744] Revocation of license.—The right to practice medicine in this State may be revoked by any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof of the violation of the law in any respect in regard thereto, or for any cause for which the State Board of Medical Examiners is authorized to refuse to admit persons to its examinations as provided in the preceding article; and it shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this State to file and prosecute appropriate judicial proceeding in the name of the State, on request of any member of said board. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 4507. To suspend or cancel license.—The district courts of the State shall have the authority to cancel or suspend the license of any practitioner of medicine when it shall appear to the satisfaction of said court, upon hearing that such practitioner of medicine has been convicted in a State or Federal court of an offense, which in this State is a felony, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, or that the practitioner obtained his examination for license upon a diploma, certificate, or license which had been illegally or fraudulently obtained, upon a fictitious or bogus certificate, license, or diploma, or one issued to a person other than the applicant, or that the practitioner was guilty of fraud, false swearing, or deception in obtaining examination by the board, or in passing examination for medical license, or in procuring the issuance of a license to him or in securing registration of his license by a district clerk, or that the practitioner has, in the judgment of the court, been guilty of grossly improper or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, or when it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the court that he is addicted to the habitual use of narcotics, or to habits of intemperance reasonably calculated to endanger the lives of his patients. When complaint is made to the court by any county or district attorney, as provided in the preceding article, said court shall order the practitioner of medicine to show cause why his license shall not be suspended or revoked. Such complaint shall be made in writing, the charge and the grounds thereof shall be set out distinctly and the same shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and filed with the clerk of the court. Citation thereon shall be issued in the name of the State of Texas, and in manner and form as in other cases, and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least ten days before the trial day set therein. Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant shall appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial, and conducted in the name of the State of Texas against the defendant. The State shall be represented by the county or district attorney. A jury of twelve men shall be impaneled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as other cases. If the said practitioner of medicine be found guilty, or shall fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the said court may, by proper order entered on the minutes, suspend his license for a time, or revoke and cancel it entirely, and may also give proper judgment for costs. [Acts 1919, p. 231, Acts 1921, p. 145, Acts 1923, p. 290.]

Art. 4508. Duty of Attorney General.—Upon the application of the Board of Medical Examiners, or a majority thereof, to the Attorney General, setting forth that the county or district attorney of a county or district has failed to prosecute or proceed against any person violating the terms of this chapter, setting forth that application and request has been made of such county or district attorney and that such request or application has been neglected or refused, the Attorney General shall proceed against such a person in the county of residence of the person complained against, either by civil or criminal proceedings. [Acts 1923, p. 291.]

Art. 4509. Injunction.—The actual practice of medicine in violation of the provisions of this title, or in violation of any provision of Title 12, chapter 6, of the Penal Code, shall be enjoined at the suit of the State, but such suit for injunction shall not be entertained in advance of the previous final conviction of the party sought to be enjoined of the violation of any provision of said chapter of the Penal Code. In such suits for injunction, it shall not be necessary to show that any person is personally injured by the acts complained of. Any person who may be or about to be so unlawfully practicing medicine in this State, may be made a party defendant in said suit. The Attorney General, the district attorney of the district in which the defendant resides, the county attorney of the county in which the defendant resides, or any of them, shall have the authority, and it shall be their duty, and the duty of each of them, to represent the State in such suits. No injunction, either temporary or permanent, shall be granted by any court, until after a hearing on complaint is had by a court of competent jurisdiction on its merits. In such suit no injunction or restraining order shall be issued until final trial and final judgment on the merits of the suit. If on the final trial it be shown that the defendant in such suit has been unlawfully practicing medicine, or is about to practice medicine unlawfully, the court shall by judgment perpetually enjoin the defendant from practicing or continuing the practice of medicine in violation of law as complained of in said suit. Disobedience of said injunction shall subject the defendant to the penalties provided by law for the violation of an injunction. The procedure in such cases shall be the same as in any other injunction suit as nearly as may be. The remedy by injunction given hereby shall be in addition to criminal prosecution. Such causes shall be advanced for trial on the docket of the trial court, and shall be advanced and tried in the appellate courts in the same manner and under the same laws and regulations as other suits for injunction. [Acts 1923, p. 291.]

Art. 4510. [5745] Who regarded as practicing medicine.—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this law:

1. Who shall publicly profess to be a physician or surgeon and shall treat, or offer to treat, any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury, by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof;

2. Or who shall treat or offer to treat any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof and charge therefor directly or indirectly, money or other compensation. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4511. [5746] Definitions.—The terms, "physician," and "surgeon," as used in this law, shall be construed as synonymous, and the terms, "practitioners," "practitioners of medicine," and, "practice of medicine," as used in this law, shall be construed to refer to and include physicians and surgeons. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4512. [5747] Malpractice cause for revoking license.—Any physician or person who is engaged in the practice of medicine, surgery, osteopathy, or who belongs to any other school of medicine, whether they use the medicines in their practice or not, who shall be guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct, or of any malpractice, or shall, by any untrue or fraudulent statement or representations made as such physician or person to a patient or other person being treated by such physician or person, procure and withhold, or cause to be withheld, from another any money, negotiable note, or thing of value, may be suspended in his right to practice medicine or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such physician or person resides, or of the county where such conduct or malpractice or false representations occurred, in the manner and form provided for revoking or suspending license of attorneys at law in this State. [Act 1905, p. 370.]

The salary of the secretary shall be fixed and paid by the board and shall be exclusive of such traveling and other expenses as may be incurred with the approval of the board in the discharge of the official duties of said secretary. If more than three examinations are necessary, an additional fee of two dollars shall be charged for each. A grade of not less than seventy on any one subject shall be required to pass the examination. The examination shall be of such character as to determine the fitness of the applicant to practice professional nursing. If the result of the examination be satisfactory to the board, a certificate shall be issued to the applicant, signed by the president and secretary and attested by the seal of said board, which certificate shall qualify the person receiving the same to practice professional nursing in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4520. Exempt from examination.—No nurse who is engaged in professional nursing at the time of the passage of this law and who has qualified under any previous law of this State and received a certificate from the board under such provisions of law regulating professional nursing, shall be required to stand any further examination under this law, but shall register with the county clerk in the county where she then resides. [Id.]

Art. 4521. Certificate from another State.—Any applicant of good character who holds a registration certificate as a professional nurse from another State whose requirements are equal to those of Texas, and whose individual qualifications shall be equivalent to those required in this law, may be granted a license to practice nursing in this State without examination, provided a fee of fifteen dollars is paid to the board by such applicant. The county clerk shall record such certificate together with the certificate of identity, in a book kept for that purpose, for which service he shall be paid by the holder of such certificate a fee of fifty cents. The county clerk shall furnish annually on the first day of January to the Board of Nurse Examiners, upon blanks supplied by said Board, a duplicate list of all certificates so recorded by him during the preceding year, including therein the date of recording and the name and residence of the person filing the same, for which the board shall pay him a fee of two and one-half dollars. [Id.]

Art. 4525. Revoking certificate.—The Board of Nurse Examiners may by unanimous vote file a complaint against any

Thereupon the person against whom such complaint is filed shall be cited in writing to appear before said court on a date named in such citation not less than ninety days from the issuance of said notice, to which citation there shall be attached a certified copy of the complaint so filed. If such court shall decree a revocation of the certificate of such nurse, he or she shall have the right to appeal to the district court of such county. Such certificate shall upon such appeal remain in full force and effect until the same shall be disposed of by such district court, the decision of which shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 4526. Re-registration.—On or before the first day of March of each year, the secretary of the board shall mail to each nurse registered in this State a blank application for re-registration, addressing the same to the post-office address as shown by the records of said board. Upon receipt of such application blank, which shall contain space for such information as the board shall deem necessary, he or she shall sign and swear to the accuracy of the same before some officer authorized to administer oaths, after which he or she shall forward such sworn statement and application for renewal of his or her registration certificate to the secretary of the board, together with a fee of fifty cents. Upon receipt of such application and fee and having verified the accuracy of the same by comparison with the applicant's initial registration statements, the secretary of the board shall issue and mail to the applicant a certificate of re-registration which shall render the holder thereof a legally qualified registered nurse for the ensuing year. In case of refusal, notice of such fact shall be given. Certificates of re-registration shall bear the date of April of the year of issue, and shall expire on the last day of March in the year following. Art. 4528. Exceptions.—This law shall not be construed to apply to the gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends, nor any person nursing the sick for hire who does not in any way assume or profess to practice as a graduate certified registered nurse. [Id.]

Any member of said board may be removed by the Governor for good cause shown. Each member of said board shall be a licensed pharmacist and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of pharmacy in this State at the time of his appointment and for the five years immediately preceding such appointment. No one who is connected in any way with any school or college of pharmacy shall be appointed as a member of said board. No two members of the board shall reside in the same county. The board shall pay the expense of making such bonds. The secretary shall collect all money due the board from all sources, and pay the same over to the treasurer within ten days, taking his receipt therefor. The board shall prescribe the pay of the members thereof, but at no time shall the amount exceed five dollars per day for each member, to be paid to them for such days during which they are actually engaged in the discharge of their official duties, and shall pay them the amounts they actually incur for expenses in the discharge of their duties for mileage, hotel bills, stamps and stationery. No bill either of services or expense of such member shall be paid until an itemized statement of such service and each item of expense has been made out and duly sworn to by such member of such board, and such account has been filed with and approved by said board. The State shall never be liable for the salary and expense of any member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 4531. [6289] Duty of board.—The board shall adopt such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this law as they deem necessary to carry out such provisions, and shall examine all applications for registration of such persons as may be entitled to the same under the provisions of this law. It shall make an annual report to the Governor, a copy of which shall be furnished to the Texas State Pharmaceutical Association, upon the condition of pharmacy in Texas; which report shall embrace all the proceedings of the board, and give an itemized account of all money received and disbursed by said board, and shall show to whom paid and for what purpose it was paid, and also show the names of all pharmacists duly registered under this law. The board shall deliver all money on hand at the end of the term of each board, after all outstanding debts have been paid, over to their successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 4532. [6290] Meetings for examination.—The board shall hold meetings for the examination of applicants for registration, and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before it, at least once in four months, and such additional meetings as may be necessary. Said regular meetings shall be held on the third Tuesday of January, May and September of each year, in such places as the board may select, or places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings thirty days in advance thereof, shall be given by publication in such papers as the board may select. [Id.]

Art. 4533. [6294] Application for license.—Every person who desires to be licensed as a pharmacist, shall file with the secretary of the board of pharmacy an application upon blanks furnished by the board of pharmacy for that purpose, duly verified under oath, setting forth the name and age of the applicant, the place or places at which and the time spent in the study of the science and art of pharmacy, the experience in compounding physician's prescriptions which the applicant has had under the direction of a legally licensed pharmacist, and shall appear at a time and place designated by the board of pharmacy, and submit to an examination as to his or her qualifications for registration as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist. If any applicant should fail to pass a satisfactory examination, he or she may at any subsequent meeting of the board of pharmacy, within six months, be permitted to be re-examined without cost. [Id.]

Art. 4534. [Id.]

Art. 4535. [6296] Board to issue license.—If the applicant for license as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist has complied with each requirement of this law, the board shall enroll his name upon the register of pharmacists or assistant pharmacists, and issue to him a license which shall entitle him to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist for a period of two years from the date of said license. The board may refuse to grant a license to any person who has been convicted of a felony or who has been guilty of gross immorality, or who is addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors or narcotic drugs to such extent as to render him unfit to practice. The board, after due notice, may revoke a license for like cause, or may revoke any license which has been procured by fraud. [Id.]

If any pharmacist or assistant pharmacist shall fail, for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license, to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist; and such person, in order to become registered as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall be required to pay the same fee as in the case of original registration. [Id.]

Art. 4538. [6297] Applicant registered in foreign country.—The board may issue license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist in this State, without examination, to such persons as have been legally registered or licensed as pharmacists or assistant pharmacists in other states, or foreign countries; provided, the applicant for such license shall present satisfactory evidence of qualifications equal to those required from licentiates in this State, and that he was registered or licensed by examination in such other state, or foreign country, and that the standard of competency required in such other state, or foreign country, accords similar recognition to the licentiates of this State. Applicants for license under this article shall, with their application, forward to the secretary of the board the same fees as are required of other candidates for license. [Id.]

Art. 4539. [6298] License to be posted.—Every certificate of license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, and every license to any proprietor or employee to conduct a drug store in towns of not more than one thousand inhabitants and every renewal of such license shall be conspicuously exposed in the pharmacy, drug store or place of business of which the pharmacist or assistant pharmacist or other person to whom it is issued is the owner or manager, or in which he is employed. [Id.]

Art. 4540. [6293] Pharmacists to be licensed.—No person not licensed as a pharmacist, within the meaning of this law, shall conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop, or other place of business, for the retailing, compounding or dispensing of any drug, chemical or poison, or for the compounding of physician's prescriptions, or keep exposed for sale at retail any drug, chemical or poisons, except as hereinafter provided. No person not licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, within the meaning of this law, shall compound, dispense or sell at retail any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician or otherwise, or compound physician's prescriptions, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist under this law. No owner or manager of a pharmacy or drug store, or other place of business, shall cause or permit any other than a person licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any medicine or poison, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any person from engaging in the business herein described as proprietor and owner thereof, provided such proprietor or owner shall have employed in his business to conduct same some one qualified under this chapter, nor to interfere with any legally registered practitioner of medicine or dentistry in the compounding of his prescriptions, or to prevent him from supplying his patients such medicine as he may deem proper, nor with exclusively wholesale business of any dealer who shall be licensed as a pharmacist, or who shall keep in his employ at least one person who is licensed as a pharmacist, nor with the selling at retail of non-poisonous domestic remedies, nor with the sale of patent or proprietary preparations, when sold in unbroken packages, nor with the sale of poisonous substances which are sold exclusively for use in the arts, or for use as insecticides, when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing a label having plainly printed upon it the name of the contents, the word "poison" and the names of at least two readily obtainable antidotes. Every registered pharmacist and every registered assistant pharmacist in the meaning of this law, who desires to continue in the pursuit of pharmacy in this State shall annually, after the expiration of the first year of registration and on or before the first day of January of each year, pay to the secretary of the board a renewal fee to be fixed by the board which shall not exceed three dollars, in return for which a renewal of registration shall be issued. The board shall each year turn over to the State Pharmaceutical Association for the advancement of the science and arts of pharmacy out of the annual fees collected by it, such sum as it may deem advisable, not to exceed two dollars for each pharmacist and assistant pharmacist who shall have paid his renewal fee during such year. Those holding a certificate of pharmacy and not engaged in the active practice of pharmacy, shall be issued a renewal certificate upon payment of an annual fee of one dollar. Art. 4552. "Optometry."—The practice of optometry is defined to be the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eyes for any defect whatsoever in any manner nor to administer nor to prescribe any drugs or physical treatment whatsoever, unless such optometrist is a regularly licensed physician or surgeon under the laws of this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 159.]

Art. 4553. Board of Examiners.—The Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry shall be composed of five members who shall possess the necessary qualifications to practice optometry and who shall have been residents of this State, actually engaged in the practice of optometry for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws in harmony with the provisions of this chapter for its own proceedings and government and for the examination of applicants for license to practice optometry. [Id.]

Art. 4554. Term of office.—The members of the Board, to be appointed by the Governor, shall be divided into three classes: one, two and three, and their term of office shall be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board. Two members shall hold their offices for two years, two members for four years, and one member for six years, respectively, from the time of their appointment. The members of one of the above classes of said board shall thereafter be appointed biennially by the Governor and shall hold office for six years. Only optometrists licensed under the laws of Texas and actively engaged in the practice of optometry shall be eligible for appointment on said board. [Id.]

Art. 4555. Organization and meetings.—The Board shall elect a president, a vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer biennially, at its first meeting after the appointment of a member of said board. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice a year, at such time and place as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants for license. Not less than ten days notice of such meeting shall be given by publication in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation to be selected by the board. Special meetings may be held upon call of three members of the board. [Id.]

Art. 4556. Record of proceedings.—The Board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing the name, age, place and present residence of each applicant, the name and location of any school of optometry from which he holds credentials, and the time devoted to the study and practice of same, together with such other information as the board may desire to record. Said record shall also show whether applicants were rejected or licensed and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall on March first of each year send a certified copy of said record to the Secretary of State for permanent record a certified copy from which, with hand and seal of the secretary of said board, or the Secretary of State, shall be admitted as evidence in all courts. When a license or certificate is issued it shall be numbered and recorded in a book kept by the secretary of the board. [Id.]

Art. 4557. Application for license.—Whoever desires to begin the practice of optometry shall make application for license by presenting to the secretary of the board, on forms furnished by the board, satisfactory sworn evidence that he or she has attained the age of twenty-one years, is of good moral character, and has graduated from a school of optometry maintaining a standard which meets with the requirements of said board, or has studied optometry in Texas not less than two years in the office of an optometrist licensed under this law before taking the examination which shall be prescribed by the board. [Id.]

Art. 4558. Subjects of examinations.—Said examinations shall consist of tests in practical, theoretical, and physiological optics, in theoretical and practical optometry, and in the anatomy, physiology, and pathology of the eye as applied to optometry. Every candidate successfully passing examination shall be registered by the board as possessing the qualifications required by this law, and shall receive from said board a license to practice optometry in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4559. Examinations.—Each applicant shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. All examinations shall be conducted in writing and by such other means as the board shall determine adequate to ascertain the qualifications of applicants, and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals and every recognized school of optometry. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions. The board may refuse to admit persons to its examination or to issue licenses for any of the following reasons:

1. The presentation to the board of any untrue statement or any document or testimony which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deceit has been practiced in passing the examination.

2. Conviction of a felony, or of a misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude.

3. Other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction. Any applicant who may be refused an examination or a license, after legal notice and a full and impartial hearing, shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court of any county in which one of the members of the board shall reside. [Id.]

Art. 4560. Reciprocity.—The board shall have authority, at its discretion, to recognize the license which has been issued, after full examination, by State Boards of Examiners in Optometry of other states having a standard satisfactory to the Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry and may issue to such persons a license to practice optometry in Texas, or in its discretion, may admit for full examination any person presenting an unrevoked certificate of examination from the Board of Examiners of any other state. [Id.]

Art. 4561. To record license.—It shall be unlawful for any person to begin to practice optometry within the limits of this State who has not registered in the county clerk's office of the county in which he resides, and in each county in which he practices, his license for so practicing as herein prescribed, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth, subscribed and verified by his oath. The fact of such oath and record shall be endorsed by the county clerk upon the license. The absence of record of such license in the county clerk's office shall be prima facie evidence of the lack of possession of such license to practice optometry. [Id.]

Art. 4562. Optometry register.—Each county clerk in this State shall purchase a book of suitable size to be known as the "Optometry Register" of such county, and set apart at least one full page for the registration of each optometrist, and record in said Optometry Register the name and record of each optometrist who presents for record a license or certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners in Optometry. The county clerk shall receive one dollar for each document registered as provided in this article, which shall be his full compensation for all duties herein required. When an optometrist shall have his license revoked, said county clerk, upon being notified by the board, shall make a note of the fact beneath the record in the Optometry Register, which entry shall close the record. On the first day of January in each year, said county clerk shall, upon the request of the board, certify to the secretary of the board a correct list of the optometrists then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. [Id.]

Art. 4563. Revocation of license.—The right herein to practice optometry in this State may be revoked by any district court upon proof of the violation of the law in any respect in regard thereto, or for any cause for which the State Board of Examiners in Optometry is authorized to refuse to admit persons to examinations or to issue licenses as provided herein, and it shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this State to file and prosecute proceedings in the name of the State upon request of any member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 4564. Duty of licensee.—Every person practicing optometry in this State shall display his license or certificate in a conspicuous place in the principal office where he practices optometry, and whenever required, exhibit such license or certificate to said board, or its authorized representative, and whenever practicing said profession of optometry outside of, or away from said office or place of business, he shall deliver to each person fitted with glasses a bill, which shall contain his signature, post-office address, and number of his license or certificate, together with a specification of the lenses and material furnished and the prices charged for the same respectively. [Id.]

Art. 4565. Fees and expenses.—The board shall charge a fee of fifteen dollars for examining an applicant for license, which fee must accompany the application. If an applicant, because of failure to pass examination, be refused a license, he shall, after six months, be permitted to take a second examination without additional fee. The fee for issuing a license or certificate shall be five dollars, to be paid to the secretary of the board. The fund realized from fees shall first be applied to the payment of all necessary expenses of the board and the remainder be applied, by order of the board, to compensating members of the board in proportion to their labors. Said compensation shall in no case exceed twenty dollars per day for the time occupied. The board shall defray all expenses under this law from fees provided in this title and no part of same shall be paid from the State Treasury, nor shall any appropriation ever be made from the State Treasury for any expenditures made necessary by this law. All fees in excess of five thousand dollars remaining in the hands of the board at the end of any fiscal year shall be paid into the general fund of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4565a. Fee.—On or before January 1st, 1926, and on or before January 1st, of each year thereafter, every licensed optometrist in this State shall pay to the secretary-treasurer of the Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry, an annual renewal fee of $5.00 for the renewal of his or her license to practice optometry for the current year. Practicing optometry without an annual renewal certificate for the current year, as provided, shall be subject to all penalties prescribed by this Act, for practicing optometry without a license.

When an optometrist shall have failed to pay his annual renewal fee and said annual renewal fee has been due and unpaid for a period of one year, it shall be the duty of the board to notify such optometrist or optometrists by notifying him or them by notice sent by registered mail, and the return receipt to be the only valid evidence that said notice has been delivered and that he or they have been notified that said annual renewal fee is due and unpaid. Thirty days after date of receipt of such notice it shall be the duty of the board, under this Act, to declare the license void for non-payment of annual renewal fee. After a license has been declared void by the board for non-payment of annual renewal fee, it shall be the duty of the county clerk, of the county, in which such license may have been registered, upon receipt of notice from said board, to enter upon the optometry register of such county the fact that such license is void for non-payment of annual renewal fee and to notify the board in writing that such entry has been made. After the board has declared a license void, as provided for in this section, the board may thereafter, at its discretion, refuse to issue a new license until such optometrist, whose license has been declared void for non-payment of annual renewal fee, has passed the regular examination for license as provided for by this Act.

Art. 4565b. Renewal license.—On the receipt of said annual renewal fee by the Texas Board of Examiners in Optometry, it shall issue an annual renewal certificate, bearing the number of the license, the year for which renewed and other information from the records of the board that the said board may deem necessary to the proper enforcement of this Act.

Art. 4565c. Defining terms.—For the purpose of this Act, the words "Ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye," as employed in Article 4552, shall be construed to include:

(1) The examination of the eye to ascertain the presence of defects or abnormal conditions which may be corrected, remedied, or relieved, or the effects of which may be corrected, remedied or relieved by the use of lenses or prisms, or

(2) The employment of any objective or subjective means to determine the accommodative or refractive condition, or the range or powers of vision of muscular equilibrium of the human eye, or

(3) The employment of any objective or subjective means for the examination of the human eye for the purpose of ascertaining any departure from the normal, measuring its power of vision or adapting lenses or prisms for the aid or relief thereof, and it shall be construed as a violation of this Act, for any person not a licensed optometrist or a licensed physician to do any one act or thing, or any combination of acts or things, named or described in this article; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eye for any defect whatsoever in any manner, nor to administer any drug or physical treatment whatsoever, unless said optometrist is a duly licensed physician and surgeon, under the laws of this State.

Art. 4565d. "Fitting Lenses."—For the purpose of this Act the words "and fitting lenses or prisms," as employed in Article 4552, shall be construed to include:

(1) Prescribing or supplying, directly or indirectly, lenses or prisms, by the employment of objective or subjective means or the making of any measurements whatsoever involving the eyes or the optical requirements thereof;

(2) The adaptation or supplying of lenses or prisms to correct, relieve or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of the human eye or to correct, relieve or remedy or attempt to correct, relieve or remedy the effect of any defect or abnormal condition of the human eye.

(3) It shall be construed as a violation of this Act for any person not a licensed optometrist or a licensed physician to do any one thing or act, or any combination of things or acts, named or described in this article.

Art. 4565e. Selling as merchandise.—For the purpose of this Act the words "Persons who sell spectacles and eye-glasses as merchandise," as employed in Article 4566, shall be construed to mean merchants who do not practice optometry, or offer to practice optometry, but who sell spectacles or eye-glasses as merchandise, after they have been selected by their customers alone without aid from the merchant, either in person or indirectly, or by the provision of any mechanical or eye-testing machine or self-testing eye-machine, either for purposes of exhibition or use, or offering to provide or providing any self-testing system or methods, or other means, either for purposes of exhibition of use, other than the particular and complete and ready-to-wear spectacles or eye-glasses selected by the customer in person from trays or other containers, containing such merchandise, and any other method of sale or delivery shall be construed as practicing optometry.

Art. 4565f. Acts unlawful.—In the interest of public health, welfare, safety and comfort, after the passage of this Act, it shall be unlawful, and a violation hereof to:

(1) Sign or cause to be signed, a prescription for an ophthalmic lens without first making a personal examination of the eyes of the person prescribed for, or

(2) For any person licensed under this Act to practice optometry, when he, or she, is knowingly suffering from a contagious or infectious disease.

Art. 4565g. Optical mechanics.—Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to prevent an optical mechanic from doing the merely mechanical work of manufacturing ophthalmic lenses or to prevent the sale of such ophthalmic lenses to those who are licensed and legally qualified to prescribe them, nor to prevent such optical machanic, who does not practice optometry, from following the specific directions of a competently and legally signed prescription where he does no more than manufacture or dispense the spectacles or eye-glasses, or component parts thereof, called for by such prescription. Nor shall this Act be so construed as to prevent selling ready-to-wear spectacles or eye-glasses as merchandise at wholesale to merchants for purposes of re-sale as merchandise, as provided for in this Act when neither the wholesaler nor merchant to whom he sells practices optometry.

Art. 4565h. Spectacles as premiums.—It shall be unlawful for any person in this State to give, or cause to be given, deliver, or cause to be delivered, in any manner whatsoever, any spectacles or eye-glasses, separate or together, as a prize or premium, or as an inducement to sell any book, paper, magazine or any work of literature or art, or any item of merchandise whatsoever.

Art. 4566. Exceptions.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to persons who sell spectacles and eye-glasses as merchandise; officers or agents of the United States or the State of Texas, in the discharge of their official duties; nor to prevent physicians and surgeons, duly licensed as such under the laws of the State of Texas regulating the practice of medicine, from treating the human eye or prescribing lenses or glasses, or fitting lenses or glasses for the aid thereof. Each applicant before taking the examination shall pay to the secretary of said Chiropody Board an examination fee of fifty dollars. If suit shall be filed against the board to reinstate such license within said time, the action of the board shall remain suspended until the validity of the license in question shall be determined by the court. In such suit the burden shall be upon the plaintiff to show cause for reinstatement of his license. Art. 4583. [5756] Board and duties.—The professor of anatomy and the professor of surgery of each of the medical schools or colleges now incorporated, and of the several medical and dental schools and colleges which may hereafter be incorporated in this State are constituted a board, to be known as the Anatomical Board of the State of Texas, for the distribution and delivery of dead human bodies, hereinafter described, to and among such institutions as, under the provisions of this law, are entitled thereto. The board shall have power to establish rules and regulations for its government, and to appoint and remove proper officers of such board, and shall keep full and complete minutes of its transactions. Records sufficient for identification shall also be kept, under its direction, of all bodies received and distributed by said board and of persons to whom the same may be distributed, which minutes and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of each member of said board and of any district attorney or county attorney of this State. [Act 1907, p. 117, Sec. 1.]

Art. 4584. [5757] Regulations for delivering bodies.—All public officers, agents, and servants, and all officers, agents and servants of any county, city, town, district, or other municipality, and of any and every almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital, or any other public institution, other than the State Orphan's Home, the Confederate Home, the State Blind Institute, and the State Deaf and Dumb Institute, insane asylum, and epileptic colony, or any other home for the indigent, or other eleemosy-nary institution maintained by the State, having charge or control of dead human bodies required to be buried at public expense, are hereby required, after notification in writing by said board or its duly authorized officers, or persons designated by the authorities of said board, then and thereafter to announce to said board, its authorized officer or agent, whenever such body or bodies come into his or their possession, charge or control, and shall without fee or reward greater than the value of such fee as was paid in any county, city, town, or municipality on the third day of April, 1907, for the burial of pauper bodies, deliver such body or bodies, and permit the said board and its agents and the physicians and surgeons, from time to time designated by them, who may comply with the provisions of this law, to take and remove all such bodies as are not desired for post mortem examinations by the medical staff of public hospitals or institutions for the insane, to be used within this State for the advancement of medical science; but no such notice need be given, nor any such body be delivered, if any person claiming to be and satisfying the authorities in charge of such body that he or she is of a kindred or is related by marriage to the deceased, or is a bona fide friend or representative of an organization of which the deceased was a member, shall claim the said body for burial, but it shall be surrendered without cost to such claimant for interment, or shall, upon such claimant's request, be interred in the manner provided for the interment of bodies not coming within the operation of this law. No notice shall be given for the body to be delivered, if the deceased died of contagious disease, save tuberculosis, or syphilis; nor shall notice be given if such deceased person were a traveler who died suddenly, in which cases the body shall be buried. It is further required that due effort be made by those in charge of such almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital or other public institution having charge or control of such dead human bodies, to find kindred or relatives of such deceased and notify him or her of the death; and failure to claim such body by kindred or relation within twenty-four hours after receipt of such notification shall be recognized as bringing such body under the provisions of this law, and delivery shall be made as soon thereafter to said board, its officers, or agents as may be possible. Such person in charge of such public institution shall file with the county judge an affidavit that he has made diligent inquiry to find the kindred or relatives of the deceased, stating such inquiry as he has made. In case a body is claimed by relatives within ten days after it has been delivered to an institution or person entitled to receive the same under the provisions of this law, it shall be delivered to them for burial and without cost. [Id., Sec. 2.]

Art. 4585. [5758] Distribution of bodies to institutions.—The board, or their duly authorized agents, may take and receive such bodies so delivered as aforesaid, and shall, upon receiving them, distribute and deliver them to and among the schools, colleges, physicians and surgeons aforesaid in the manner following: Those bodies needed for lecture and demonstration in the said incorporated schools and colleges shall first be supplied; the remaining bodies shall then be distributed proportionately and equitably, the number assigned to each to be based upon the number of students receiving instruction or demonstration in normal or morbid anatomy and operative surgery, which number shall be certified by the dean of each school or college to the board at such times as it may direct. Instead of receiving and delivering said bodies themselves through their agent or servant, the said board may, from time to time, either directly or by their designated officer or agent authorize physicians and surgeons to receive them, and the number which each shall receive. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 4586. [5759] Regulations for moving bodies.—The board may employ public carriers for the conveyance of said bodies, which shall be carefully deposited, with the least possible public display. The sender shall keep on permanent file a description by name, color, sex, age, place and cause of death of each body transmitted by him; or where the body shall be one of a person unknown, the color, age, sex, place and supposed cause of death; and any other data available for identification, such as scars, deformities, etc., shall be put on record. A duplicate of this description shall be mailed, or otherwise safely conveyed, to the person or institution to whom the body is being sent; and the person or institution receiving such body shall, without delay, safely transmit to the sender a receipt for the same in the full terms of the description furnished by the sender. All these records shall be filed in a manner to be determined by the board so that they may be at any time available for inspection by the board, or any district or county attorney of this State. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 4587. [5760] May dissect bodies.—Any and all schools, colleges, and persons who may be designated by said Anatomical Board shall be authorized to dissect, operate upon, examine, and experiment upon such bodies hereinbefore described and distributed for the furtherance of medical science; and such dissections, operations, examinations, and experiments shall not be considered as amenable under any existing laws for the prevention of mutilation of dead human bodies. Such persons, schools, or colleges shall keep a permanent record, sufficient for identification of each body received from such anatomical board or agent, which record shall be subject to inspection by the board, or its authorized officer or agent. The board shall also have power to authorize incorporated schools or colleges and individual physicians and surgeons to experiment on the lower animals under bond as hereinafter designated. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 4588. [5761] Parties receiving bodies to give bond.—No school, college, physician, or surgeon shall be allowed or permitted to receive any such body or bodies until bond shall have been given to the State by such physician or surgeon, or by or in behalf of such school or college, to be approved by the clerk of the county court in and for the county in which such physician or surgeon may reside, or in which such school or college may be situated, and to be filed in the office of said clerk; which bond shall be in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that all such bodies which the said physician or surgeon, or said college, shall receive thereafter shall be used, and that all experiments on the lower animals shall be conducted only for the promotion of medical science. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 4589. [5762] Expenses.—Neither the State, nor any county, nor municipality, nor any officer, agent or servant thereof, shall be at any expense by reason of the delivery or distribution of any such body; but all expense thereof, and of said board of distribution, shall be paid by those receiving the bodies in such manner as may be specified by said Anatomical Board, or otherwise agreed upon. [4630] [2976] [2860] Annulment.—The marriage relation may be dissolved where the causes alleged therefor shall be natural or incurable impotency of body at the time of entering into the marriage contract, or any other impediment that renders such contract void, and the court may decree the marriage to be null and void. [Acts 1841, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 483.]

Either party may demand a jury. [Id.]

Art. 4633. [4633] [2979] [2863] Testimony of husband or wife.—In all such suits and proceedings the husband and wife shall be competent witnesses for and against each other, but neither party shall be compelled to testify as to any matter that will criminate himself or herself; and where the husband or wife testifies, the court or jury trying the case shall determine the credibility of such witness and the weight to be given such testimony; but no divorce shall be granted upon the evidence of either husband or wife, if there be any collusion between them.

Art. 4634. [4637] [2983] [2867] Debts created after suit.—On and after the day on which the suit for divorce shall be brought, it shall not be lawful for the husband to contract any debts on account of the community, nor to dispose of the lands belonging to the same; and any alienation made by him after that time shall be null and void, if it be proved to the satisfaction of the court that such alienation was made with a fraudulent view of injuring the rights of the wife. [P. D. 3456.]

Art. 4638. [4634] [2980] [2864] Division of property.—The court pronouncing a decree of divorce shall also decree and order a division of the estate of the parties in such a way as the court shall deem just and right, having due regard to the rights of each party and their children, if any. Nothing herein shall be construed to compel either party to divest himself or herself of the title to real estate. [P. D. 3452.]

Art. 4639. [4636-41] Children.—A divorce shall not in anywise affect the legitimacy of the children of the parents so divorced. Art. 4642. [4643] [2989] Grounds for.—Judges of the district and county courts shall, in term time or vacation, hear and determine applications for and may grant writs of injunction returnable to said courts in the following cases:

1. Where the applicant is entitled to the relief demanded and such relief or any part thereof requires the restraint of some act prejudicial to him.

2. Where a party does some act respecting the subject of pending litigation or threatens or is about to do some act or is procuring or suffering the same to be done in violation of the rights of the applicant when said act would tend to render judgment ineffectual.

3. Where the applicant shows himself entitled thereto under the principles of equity, and the provisions of the statutes of this State relating to the granting of injunctions.

4. Where a cloud would be put on the title of real estate being sold under an execution against a party having no interest in such real estate subject to the execution at the time of the sale, or irreparable injury to real estate or personal property is threatened, irrespective of any legal remedy at law. [Acts 1907, p. 206; Acts 1909, p. 354; Const., Art. 5, Secs. 8, 16.]

Art. 4643. [4643] [2989] Issuance by non-resident judge.—No district judge shall grant a writ of injunction returnable to any other court than his own except in the following cases:

1. Where the resident judge cannot hear and act upon the application by reason of his absence, sickness, inability, inaccessibility, disqualification or refusal to act, when such facts are fully set out in the application or in an affidavit accompanying same, and if such judge refuses to act, such refusal shall be indorsed by said judge on such writ with his reasons therefor. In such case no district judge shall grant the writ when the application therefor has once been acted upon by another district judge of this State.

2. To stay execution, or to restrain foreclosure, sales under deeds of trust, trespasses, the removal of property, or acts injurious to or impairing riparian or easement rights, when satisfactory proof is made to such non-resident judge that it is impracticable for the applicant to reach the resident judge and procure his action in time to effectuate the purpose of the application.

3. When the resident judge cannot be reached by the ordinary and available means of travel and communication in sufficient time to effectuate the purpose of the writ sought. In such case the applicant or his attorney seeking a writ on the ground of such inaccessibility shall attach to his application an affidavit fully stating the facts of such inaccessibility and his efforts made to reach and communicate with said judge, and the result thereof, and unless such efforts appear to have been fair and reasonable the application shall not be heard. Such injunction may be subsequently dissolved upon it being shown that the petitioner did not first make reasonable efforts to procure a hearing upon said application before the resident judge. [Id.]

Art. 4644. Against well or mine operator.—No injunction or temporary restraining order shall ever be issued prohibiting sub-surface drilling or mining operations on the application of an adjacent land owner claiming injury to his surface or improvements or loss of or injury to the minerals thereunder, unless the party against whom drilling or mining operations is alleged as a wrongful act is shown to be unable to respond in damages for such injury as may result from such drilling or mining operations; provided, however, that the party against whom such injunction is sought shall enter into a good and sufficient bond in such sum as the judge hearing the application shall fix, securing the complainant in the payment of any injuries that may be sustained by such complainant as the result of such drilling or mining operations. The court may, when he deems it necessary to protect the interests involved in such litigation, in lieu of such bond, appoint a trustee or receiver with such powers as the court may prescribe, to take charge of and hold the minerals produced from the lands of those complained against or the proceeds thereof subject to the final disposition of such litigation. [Acts 1919, p. 311.]

Art. 4645. [4647] [2990] Against a judgment.—No injunction shall be granted to stay any judgment or proceeding at law, except so much of the recovery or cause of action as the complainant shall in his petition show himself equitably entitled to be relieved against and so much as will cover the costs. [Acts 1848, p. 363; P. D. 3930.]

Art. 4646. [4648] [2991] To stay execution.—No injunction to stay an execution upon any valid and subsisting judgment shall be granted after the expiration of one year from the rendition of such judgment, unless it be made to appear that an application for such injunction has been delayed in consequence of the fraud or false promises of the plaintiff in the judgment, practiced or made at the time, or after rendition, of such judgment, or unless for some equitable matter or defense arising after the rendition of such judgment. If it be made to appear that the applicant was absent from the State at the time such judgment was rendered and was unable to apply for such writ within the time aforesaid, such injunction may be granted at any time within two years from the date of the rendition of the judgment. [Id. P. D. 3931.]

Art. 4647. [4649] [2992] Sworn petition.—No writ of injunction shall be granted unless the applicant therefor shall present his petition to the judge verified by his affidavit and containing a plain and intelligible statement of the grounds for such relief. [P. D. 3929.]

Art. 4648. [4650] [2993] Indorsement of judge.—If it shall appear to the judge from the facts stated in the petition that the applicant is entitled to the writ, he shall indorse thereon or annex thereto his written order directing the clerk of the proper court to issue the writ of injunction prayed for, upon such terms and under such modifications, limitations and restrictions as may be specified in said order. The judge shall also specify in such order the amount of the bond to be given by the applicant as a prerequisite to the issuance of the writ. If the injunction be applied for to restrain the execution of a money judgment or the collection of a debt, the bond shall be fixed in double the amount of such judgment or debt. [P. D. 3933.]

Art. 4649. [4654] [2997] Applicant's bond. Upon the filing of the petition and order of the judge and before the issuance of the writ of injunction, the complainant shall execute and file with the clerk a bond to the adverse party, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such clerk in the sum fixed in the order of the judge granting the writ, conditioned that the complainant will abide the decision which may be made therein, and that he will pay all sums of money and costs that may be made therein, and that he will pay all sums of money and costs that may be adjudged against him if the injunction be dissolved in whole or in part. [P. D. 3933.]

Art. 4650. [4652] [2995] Filing and docketing.—Upon the grant of a writ of injunction, the party to whom the same is granted shall file his petition therefor, together with the order of the judge granting the same, with the clerk of the proper court; and, if such writ of injunction does not pertain to a pending suit in said court, the cause shall be entered on the civil docket of the court in its regular order in the name of the party to whom the writ is granted as plaintiff and of the opposite party as defendant.

Art. 4651. [4656] [2999] Requisites of writ.—The writ of injunction shall be sufficient if it contains substantially the following requisites:

1. Its style shall be, "The State of Texas."
2. It shall be directed to the person or persons enjoined.
3. It must state the names of the parties to the proceeding, plaintiff and defendant, and the nature of the plaintiff's application, with the action of the judge thereon.
4. It must command the person or persons to whom it is directed to desist and refrain from the commission or continuance of the act enjoined, or to obey and execute such order as the judge has seen proper to make.

5. It shall state the term of the court to which it is returnable.

6. It shall be dated and signed by the clerk officially, and attested with the seal of his office and the date of its issuance must be indorsed thereon.

Art. 4652. [4655-7-8] Clerk to issue writ.—When the petition, order of the judge and bond are filed, the clerk shall issue the writ of injunction directed in such order, in conformity with the terms thereof, and deliver the same to the sheriff or any constable of the county of the residence of the person enjoined. If several persons are enjoined, residing in different counties, the writ shall issue to each such county.

Art. 4653. [4659] [3002] Service and return.—The officer receiving a writ of injunction shall indorse thereon the date of its receipt by him, and shall forthwith execute the same by delivering to the party enjoined a true copy thereof. The original shall be returned to the court from which it issued on or before the return day named therein with the action of the officer indorsed thereon or annexed thereto showing how and when he executed the same.

Art. 4654. [4651] [2994] Notice.—If it appear to the judge that delay will not prove injurious to either party, and that justice may be subserved thereby, he may cause notice of such application to be served upon the opposite party, his agent or attorney, in some manner as he may direct, and fix a time and place for the hearing of such application.

Art. 4655. [4662] [3005] Citation on independent writ.—On the issuance of a writ of injunction not pertaining to a suit pending in the court, the clerk of such court shall issue a citation to the defendant as in other civil cases, which shall be served and returned in like manner as ordinary citations issued from said court. No citation shall be necessary when notice is given as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 4656. [4653] [2996] Jurisdiction for trial.—Writs of injunction granted to stay proceedings in a suit, or execution on a judgment, shall be returnable to and tried in the court where such suit is pending, or such judgment was rendered; writs of injunction for other causes, if the party against whom it is granted be an inhabitant of the State, shall be returnable to and tried in the district or county court of the county in which such party has his domicile, according as the amount or matter in controversy comes within the jurisdiction of either of said courts. If there be more than one party against whom a writ is granted, it may be returned and tried in the proper court of the county where either may have his domicile. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 3932; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 4657. [4663] [3006] The answer.—The defendant to an injunction proceeding may answer as in other civil actions; but no injunction shall be dissolved before final hearing because of the denial of the material allegations of the plaintiff's petition, unless the answer denying the same is verified by the oath of the defendant. [P. D. 3929.]

Art. 4658. [4664] [3007] Dissolution.—In all cases of injunction, motions to dissolve the same without determining the merits, may be heard after answer filed, in vacation or in term time, at least ten days notice of such motion being first given to the opposite party or his attorney. In such cases, the proceedings upon such hearing, including the action of the judge upon the motion, shall be entered upon the minutes of the proper court by the clerk thereof, on or before the first day of the succeeding term of such court, and thereafter shall constitute a part of the record of the same. [P. D. 3934.]

Art. 4659. [4665-66] Bond on dissolution.—Upon the dissolution of an injunction restraining the collection of money, by an interlocutory order of the court or judge, made in term time or vacation, if the petition be continued over for trial, the court or judge shall require of the defendant in such injunction proceedings a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court, payable to the complainant in double the amount of the sum enjoined, and conditioned to refund to the complainant the amount of money, interest and costs which may be collected of him in the suit or proceeding enjoined if such injunction is made perpetual on final hearing. If such injunction is so perpetuated, the court, on motion of the complainant, may enter judgment against the principal and sureties in such bond for such amount as may be shown to have been collected from such complainant.

Art. 4660. [4667] [3010] Damages for delay.—Upon the dissolution of an injunction, either in whole or in part, on final hearing, where the collection of money has been enjoined, if the court be satisfied that the injunction was obtained only for delay, damages thereon may be assessed by the court, at ten per cent on the amount released by the dissolution of the injunction exclusive of costs. [P. D. 3935.]

Art. 4661. [4661-8-9-70] Disobedience.—An injunction restrains the attorneys, agents, servants and employes of the party enjoined, as well as the party himself, effective from the service or notice of the injunction and during its continuance in force. Disobedience of an injunction may be punished by the court or judge, in term time or in vacation, as a contempt. In case of such disobedience, the complainant, his agent or attorney, may file in the court in which such injunction is pending or with the judge in vacation, his affidavit stating the person guilty of such disobedience and describing the acts constituting the same; and thereupon the court or judge shall cause to be issued an attachment for such person, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and requiring such officer to arrest the person therein named and have him before the court or judge at the time and place named in such writ. On return of such attachment, the judge shall proceed to hear proof; and if satisfied that such person has disobeyed the injunction, either directly or indirectly, he shall be committed to jail without bail until he purges himself of such contempt, in such manner and form as the court or judge may direct.

Art. 4662. [4644-5-6] Appeals.—Any party to a civil suit wherein a temporary injunction may be granted or refused or when motion to dissolve has been granted or over-ruled, under any provision of this title, in term time or in vacation, may appeal from such order or judgment to the Court of Civil Appeals by filing the transcript in such case with the clerk of the said appellate court not later than twenty days after the entry of record of such order or judgment. Such appeal shall not have the effect to suspend the order appealed from unless it shall be so ordered by the court or judge who enters the order. Such case may be heard in the Court of Civil Appeals or Supreme Court on the bill and answer and such affidavits and evidence as may have been admitted by the judge of the court below. If the appellant desires to file a brief in said appellate court he shall furnish the appellee with a copy thereof not later than two days before the case is called for submission in such court, and the appellee shall have until the day the case is called for submission to answer such brief. Such case may be advanced in the Court of Civil Appeals or Supreme Court on motion of either party, and shall have priority over other cases pending therein. [Acts 1909, p. 354; Acts 1907, p. 206; Acts 1919, p. 22.]

Art. 4663. [4671] [3014] Principles of equity applicable.—The principles, practice and procedure governing courts of equity shall govern proceedings in injunctions when the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this title or other law.

If judgment be in favor of the State, then judgment shall be rendered abating said nuisance and enjoining the defendants from maintaining the same, and ordering that said house be closed for one year from the date of said judgment, unless the defendants in said suit, or the owner, tenant or lessee of said property make bond payable to the State at the county seat of the county where such nuisance is alleged to exist, in the penal sum of not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge trying the case, conditioned that the acts prohibited in this law shall not be done or permitted to be done in said house. Such judge upon the presentation of a petition for such injunction shall issue a temporary injunction or restraining order, and, if upon final hearing thereof the fact be shown that the defendant is guilty of keeping, maintaining, or operating a pool hall, or of contemplating such act, the court before which the case is tried shall grant a permanent injunction against such party as prayed for in the petition. Any person operating or contemplating the operation of any pool hall in violation of any provision of this article, or anyone aiding or abetting such person may be made a party defendant in such suit. The term "Commissioner" as used in this title, shall mean the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas. Before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall give a good bond to the State of Texas in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Acts 1876, p. 219; Vol. 8, G. L., p. 1055; Acts 3rd C. S. 1923, p. 178.]

Art. 4680. [4489-90] Clerks.—The Commissioner may appoint a chief clerk and such other clerks as the work of his office may require. All clerks shall be removable at the will of the Commissioner. The chief clerk shall possess all the power and perform all the duties attached by law to the office of Commissioner during the necessary absence of the Commissioner, or his inability to act from any cause. The Commissioner shall be responsible for the acts of his chief clerk, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his position, take the oath required of the Commissioner; he may also be required by the Commissioner to enter into bond with security, payable to said Commissioner, for the faithful performance of the duties of his position. [Id.]

Art. 4681. [4492] [2915] [2818] Ineligibility of certain persons.—No person who is a director, officer or agent of, or directly or indirectly interested in any insurance company, except as insured, shall be a Commissioner or Clerk.

Art. 4682. [4493] [3050] Duties of Commissioner.—In addition to the other duties required of the Commissioner, he shall perform duties as follows:

1. Shall execute the laws.—See that all laws respecting insurance and insurance companies are faithfully executed.

2. File articles of incorporation and other papers.—File and preserve in his office all acts or articles of incorporation of insurance companies and all other papers required by law to be deposited with him, and, upon application of any party interested therein, to furnish certified copies thereof upon payment of the fees prescribed by law.

3. Calculate net value of policies.—He shall, as soon as practicable in each year, calculate or cause to be calculated in his office by an officer or employe of his department, the net value on the thirty-first day of December of the previous year of all the policies in force on that day in each life or health insurance company doing business in the State, upon the basis and in the manner prescribed by law.

4. See that net value of policies are on hand.—Having determined the net value of all the policies in force, he shall see that the company has in safe securities of the class and character required by the laws of this State the amount of said net value of all its policies, after all its debts and claims against it and at least one hundred thousand dollars of surplus to policy holders have been provided for.

5. May accept valuation of other States.—He may accept the valuation made by the insurance commissioner of the State under whose authority a life insurance company was organized, when such valuation has been properly made on sound and recognized principles, as a legal basis as above. The company shall furnish to him a certificate of the insurance commissioner of such States, setting forth the value calculated on the data designated above of all the policies in force in the company on the previous thirty-first day of December, and stating that, after all other debts of the company and claims against it at that time, and one hundred thousand dollars surplus to policy holders, were provided for, the company had, in safe securities of the character required by the laws of this State, an amount equal to the net value of all its policies in force, and that said company is entitled to do business in its own State.

6. That company furnishes certificate.—Every life insurance company doing business in this State during the year for which the statement is made that fails promptly to furnish the certificate aforesaid shall be required to make full detailed lists of policies and securities to the Commissioner, and shall be liable for all charges and expenses consequent upon such failure.

7. Shall calculate reserve on fire insurance.—For every company doing fire insurance business in this State, he shall calculate the reinsurance reserve for unexpired fire risks by taking fifty per cent of the premiums received on all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run. When the reinsurance reserve, calculated as above, is less than forty per cent of all the premiums received during the year, the reinsurance reserve in this case shall be the whole of the premiums received on all of its unexpired risks. For every company transacting any kind of insurance business in this State, for which no basis is prescribed by law, he shall calculate the reinsurance reserve upon the same basis prescribed in this article as to companies transacting fire insurance business.

8. Shall charge premiums.—In marine and inland insurance, he shall charge all the premiums received on unexpired risks as a reinsurance reserve.

9. When company's capital is impaired.—Having charged against a company other than life, the reinsurance reserve, as prescribed by the laws of this state, and adding thereto all other debts and claims against the company, he shall, in case he finds the capital stock of the company impaired to the extent of twenty per cent, give notice to the company to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days, and, if this is not done, he shall require the company to cease to do business within this State, and shall thereupon, in case the company is organized under authority of the State, immediately institute legal proceedings to determine what further shall be done in the case.

10. Shall publish results of investigation.—The Commissioner shall publish the result of his examination of the affairs of any company whenever he deems it for the interest of the public.

11. Shall suspend or revoke certificate.—He shall suspend the entire business of any company of this State, and the business within this State of any other company, during its non-compliance with any provision of the laws relative to insurance, or when its business is being fraudulently conducted, by suspending or revoking the certificate granted by him. He shall give notice thereof to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of every state, and shall publish notice thereof. He shall give such company at least ten days notice in writing of his intention to suspend its right to do business or revoke the certificate of authority granted by him, stating specifically the reason why he intends such action.

12. Report to Attorney General.—He shall report promptly and in detail to the Attorney General any violation of law relative to insurance companies or the business of insurance.

13. Shall furnish blanks.—He shall furnish to the companies required to report to him the necessary blank forms for the statements required.

14. Shall keep records.—He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings and a concise statement of the condition of each company or agency visited or examined.

15. Give certified copies.—At the request of any person, and on the payment of the legal fee, he shall give certified copies of any record or papers in his office, when he deems it not prejudicial to public interest, and shall give such other certificates as are provided for by law.

16. Report to Governor.—He shall report annually to the Governor the names and compensations of his clerks, the receipts and expenses of his department for the year, his official acts, the condition of companies doing business in this State, and such other information as will exhibit the affairs of said department.

17. Send copies of reports to.—He shall send a copy of such annual report to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of every state and to each company doing business in the State.

18. Report laws to other States.—On request, he shall communicate to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of any other State, in which the substantial provisions of the law of this State relative to insurance have been, or shall be, enacted, any facts which by law it is his duty to ascertain respecting the companies of this State doing business within such other State.

19. Art. 4725. [4734] May invest in what securities.—A life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may invest in or loan upon the following securities, viz:

1. It may invest any of its funds or accumulations in the bonds of the United States or of any State, county, or city of the United States, or the bonds of any independent or common school district, or first mortgage bonds of any independent or common school district, or first mortgage bonds of any dividend paying railroad or electrical railway company duly incorporated under the laws of the United States, or any State thereof.

2. It may loan any of its funds and accumulations, taking as security therefor such collateral as under the previous subdivision it may invest in, and upon first liens upon real estate, the title to which is valid and the value of which is double the amount loaned thereon. If any part of such value is in buildings, such buildings shall be insured against loss by fire for at least fifty per cent of the value thereof, with loss clause payable to such company. It may also make loans upon the security of or purchase of its own policies. No loan on any public policy shall exceed the reserve value thereof. No investment or loan, except policy loans, shall be made by any such insurance company, unless the same shall first have been authorized by the board of directors, or by a committee charged with the duty of supervising such investments or loans. No such company shall subscribe to, or participate in, any underwriting of the purchase or sale of securities or property, or enter into any such transaction for such purpose, or sell on account of such company jointly with any other person, firm or corporation; nor shall any such company enter into any agreement to withhold from sale any of its property; but the disposition of its property shall be at all times within the control of its board of directors. [Id. Sec. 10.]

Art. 4726. [4735] May hold real estate.—Every such insurance company may secure, hold and convey real property only for the following purposes and in the following manner:

1. One building site and office building for its accommodation in the transaction of its business and for lease and rental.

2. Such as have been acquired in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for moneys due.

3. Such as have been conveyed to it in the satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

4. Such as have been purchased at sales under judgment or decrees of court, or mortgage or other liens held by such companies.

All such real property specified in sub-divisions 2, 3, and 4, of this article which shall not be necessary for its accommodation in the convenient transaction of its business, shall be sold and disposed of within five years after the company shall have acquired title to the same, or within five years after the same shall have ceased to be necessary for the accommodation of its business. It shall not hold such property for a longer period, unless it shall procure a certificate from the Commissioner that its interests will suffer materially by the forced sale thereof; in which event the time for the sale may be extended to such time as the Commissioner shall direct in such certificate. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 4727. [4736] Director not to do certain things.—No director or officer of any insurance company transacting business in or organized under the laws of this State, shall receive any money or valuable thing for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale by such company of any property, or any loan from such company, nor be pecuniarily interested, either as principal, co-principal, agent or beneficiary in any such purchase, sale or loan. Nothing in this article shall prevent a life insurance corporation from making a loan upon a policy held therein, by the borrower, not in excess of the reserve value thereof. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 4728. [4737] May reinsure.—Any life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may reinsure in any insurance company authorized to transact business in this State, any risk or part of a risk which it may assume. No such company shall have the power to so reinsure its entire outstanding business until the contract therefor shall be submitted to the Commissioner, and be by him approved, as protecting fully the interests of all the policy holders. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 4729. [4738] Dividends to be paid from profits.—No life insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall declare or pay any dividends to its policy holders, except from the profits made by such company. This shall not prohibit the issuance of policies guaranteeing a definite payment or reduction in premiums, not exceeding the expense loading on said premiums. Where said reduction exceeds said expense loading, the proper reserve therefor must be held by the company to provide for the deficiency so arising in the net premium, but this shall not apply to payments to holders of special or board contracts heretofore issued. No such life insurance company shall declare or pay any dividends to its stockholders, except from the profits made by said company, not including surplus arising from the sale of stock. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 4730. [4739] Salaries.—No domestic life insurance company shall pay any salary, compensation or emolument to any officer, trustee, or director thereof, nor any salary, compensation or emolument amounting in any year to more than five thousand dollars to any person, firm or corporation, unless such payment be first authorized by a vote of the board of directors of such company. The limitation as to time contained herein shall not be construed as preventing a life insurance company from entering into contracts with its agents for the payment of renewal commissions. No such company shall grant any pension to any officer, director or trustee thereof, or to any member of his family after his death. [Id. Sec. 20.]

Art. 4731. [4740] Disbursements by vouchers.—No domestic life insurance company shall make any disbursement of one hundred dollars or more, unless the same be evidenced by a voucher signed by, or on behalf of, the person, firm or corporation receiving the money and correctly describing the consideration for the payment. If the expenditure be for both services and disbursements, the voucher shall set forth the service rendered and statement of the disbursement made. If the expenditure be in connection with any matter pending before any legislature or public body, or before any department or officer of any State or government, the voucher shall correctly describe, in addition, the nature of the matter and of the interest of such company therein. When such voucher cannot be obtained, the expenditure shall be evidenced by a paid check or an affidavit describing the character and object of the expenditure and stating the reason for not obtaining such voucher. [Id. Sec. 21.]

Art. 4732. [4741] Policies shall contain what.—No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this State, or be issued by a life insurance company organized under the laws of this State, unless the same shall contain provisions substantially as follows:

1. That all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers who are designated in the policy.

2. For a grace of at least one month for the payment of every premium after the first, which may be subject to an interest charge, during which month the insurance shall continue in force, which may stipulate that if the insured shall die during the period of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

3. That the policy, or policy and application, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable not later than two years from its date, except for non-payment of premiums; and which provision may or may not, at the option of the company, contain an exception for violations of the conditions of the policy relating to naval and military services in time of war.

4. That all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties.

5. That if the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

6. That after three full years premiums have been paid, the company at any time while the policy is in force, will advance upon proper assignment of the policy and upon the sole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to, or at the option of the owner of the policy less than, the legal reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend addition thereto, less than a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy, and of any dividend additions thereto; and that the company may deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year, which provision may also provide that such loans may be deferred for not exceeding six months after application therefor is made. It shall also be stipulated in the policy that failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not void the policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance. This provision shall not be required in term insurances, nor in pure endowments issued or granted as original policies, or in exchange for lapsed or surrendered policies. No provision herein shall compel any company to loan on any policy an amount greater than ninety-seven and one-half per centum of the face value thereof, including net dividend additions thereto.

7. A provision which, in event of default in premium payments, after premiums shall have been paid for three full years, shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance, the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy, and on any dividend additions thereto, specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserve, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance, as aforesaid, and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six months after the application therefor is made. This provision shall not be required in term insurances.

8. A table showing in figures the loan values, and the options available under the policies each year, upon default in premium payments during the first twenty years of the policy or the period during which premiums are payable, beginning with the year in which such values and options become available.

9. That if, in event of default in premium payments, the value of the policy shall be applied to the purchase of other insurances; and if such insurance shall be in force and the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled, the policy may be reinstated within three years from such default upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payments of arrears of premiums with interest.

10. That when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured, settlement shall be made upon receipt of or not later than two months after due proof of death and the right of the claimant to the proceeds.

11. A table showing the amounts of installments in which the policy may provide its proceeds may be payable.

Any foregoing provision not applicable to single premium policies, shall, to that extent, not be incorporated therein. [Id.]

Art. 4733 [4742] Policies shall not contain what.—No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this State, or be issued by a life insurance company incorporated under the laws of this State, if it contains any of the following provisions:

1. A provision limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action shall accrue.

2. A provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the insurance was made, if thereby the insured would rate at any age younger than his age at date when the application was made, according to his age at nearest birthday.

3. A provision for any mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amounts insured on the face of the policy, plus dividend additions, if any, less any indebtedness to the company on the policy, and less any premium that may, by the terms of the policy, be deducted. Any company may issue a policy promising a benefit less than the full benefit in case of the death of the insured by his own hand while sane or insane, or by following stated hazardous occupations. This provision shall not apply to purely accident and health policies. No foregoing provision relating to policy forms shall apply to policies issued in lieu of, or in exchange for, any other policies issued before July 10, 1909. [Id. Sec. 23.]

Art. 4734. [4743] Policies of foreign companies.—The policies of a life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State may contain any provision which the law of the State, territory, district or country under which the company is organized, prescribes shall be in such policies when issued in this State; and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may, when issued or delivered in any other State, territory, district or country, contain any provision required by the laws of the State, territory, district or country in which the same are issued, anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding. [Id. Sec. 24.]

Art. 4735 [4745] Service of process.—Process in any civil suit against any domestic life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, may be served only on the president, or any active vice president, or secretary, or general counsel residing at the city of the home office of the company, or by leaving a copy of same at the home office of such company during business hours. [Id. Sec. 34.]

Art. 4736. [4746] Losses shall be paid promptly.—In all cases where a loss occurs and the life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company liable therefor shall fail to pay the same within thirty days after demand therefor, such company shall be liable to pay the holder of such policy, in addition to the amount of the loss, twelve per cent damages on the amount of such loss together with reasonable attorney fees for the prosecution and collection of such loss. [Id. Sec. 35.]

Art. 4737. [4747] Certificate null and void, when.—If any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company fails to pay off and satisfy any execution that may lawfully issue on any final judgment against said company within thirty days after the officer holding such execution has demanded payment thereof from any officer or attorney of record of such company, in this State, or out of it, such officer shall immediately certify such demand and failure to the Commissioner; and thereupon the Commissioner shall forthwith declare null and void the certificate of authority of such company; and such company shall be prohibited from transacting any business in this State until such execution shall be fully satisfied and discharged, and until such commissioner shall renew his certificate of authority to such company. [Id. Sec. 36.]

Art. 4738. [4748] Limitation of business.—It shall be unlawful for any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident, and life, health and accident insurance company to take any kind of risks or issue any policies of insurance, except those of life, accident or health; nor shall the business of life, accident or health insurance in this State be in any wise conducted or transacted by any company which in this or any other State or country, is engaged or concerned in the business of marine, fire, or inland insurance. [Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 4739. [4749] Deposit of securities.—Any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, may at its option, deposit with the State Treasurer securities equal to the amount of its capital stock, and may, at its option, withdraw the same or any part thereof, first having deposited in the treasury in lieu thereof other securities equal in value to those withdrawn. Any such securities, before being so originally deposited or substituted, shall be approved by the Commissioner. When any such deposit is made, the Treasurer shall execute to the company making the deposit a receipt therefor, giving such description to such securities as will identify the same; and such company shall have the right to advertise such fact, or print a copy of the treasurer's receipt on the policies it may issue; and the proper officers or agents of each insurance company making such deposit shall be permitted, at all reasonable times, to examine such securities and to detach coupons therefrom and to collect interest thereon, under such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Treasurer, and the Commissioner. Such deposit when made by any company shall thereafter be maintained as long as said company shall have outstanding any liability to its policy holders. For the purpose of State, county, and municipal taxation, the situs of all personal property belonging to such companies shall be at the home office of such company. [Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 4740. [4750] Deposits for benefit of insured.—Any life insurance company now or which may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this State may deposit with the Commissioner for the common benefit of all the holders of its policies and annuity bonds, securities of the kinds in which, by the laws of this State, it is permitted to invest or loan its funds, equal to the legal reserve on all its outstanding policies in force, which securities shall be held by said Commissioner in trust for the purpose and objects herein specified. Any such company may deposit lawful money of the United States in lieu of the securities above referred to, or any portion thereof, and may also, for the purposes of such deposit, convey to said Commissioner in trust the real estate in which any portion of its said reserve may be lawfully invested. In such case, said Commissioner shall hold the title thereto in trust until other securities in lieu thereof shall be deposited with him, whereupon he shall reconvey the same to such company. Said Commissioner may cause any such securities or real estate to be appraised and valued prior to their being deposited with, or conveyed to, him in trust as aforesaid, the reasonable expense of such appraisal or valuation to be paid by the company. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 448.]

Art. 4741. [4751] Effect and value of deposits.—After making the deposit mentioned above, no company shall thereafter issue a policy of insurance or endowment or annuity bond, except policies of industrial insurance, unless it shall have upon its face a certificate substantially in the following words: "This policy is registered, and approved securities equal in value to the legal reserve hereon are held in trust by the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas", which certificate shall be signed by such Commissioner and attested by his seal. All policies and bonds of each kind and class issued and the forms thereof filed in the office of said Commissioner shall have printed thereon some appropriate designating letter or figure, combination of letters or figures or terms identifying the particular form of contract, together with the year of adoption of such form. Whenever any change or modification is made in the form of contracts, policy or bond, the designating letters, figures or terms and the year of adoption thereon shall be correspondingly changed. The Commissioner shall prepare and keep such registers thereof as will enable him to compute their value at any time. Upon written proof attested by the president or vice president and secretary of the company which shall have issued such policies or annuity bonds that any of them have been commuted or terminated, the Commissioner shall commute or cancel them upon his register. Until such proof is furnished all registered contracts shall be considered in force for the purposes of this chapter. The net value of every policy or annuity bond, according to the standard prescribed by the laws of this State for the valuation of policies of life insurance companies, when the first premium shall have been paid thereon, less the amount of such liens as the company may have against it (not exceeding such value), shall be entered opposite the record of said policy or annuity bond in the register aforesaid at the time such record is made. On the first day of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, the Commissioner shall cause the policies and annuity bonds of each company accepting the terms of this chapter to be carefully valued; and the actual value thereof at the time fixed for such valuation, less such liens as the company may have against it, not exceeding such value, shall be entered upon the register opposite the record of such policy or bond, and the Commissioner shall furnish a certificate of the aggregate of such value to the company. The Commissioner shall cancel mutilated or surrendered policies and annuity bonds issued by any such company, and register other like policies or bonds issued in lieu thereof. Each company, which shall have made the deposit herein provided for, shall make additional deposits from time to time, in amounts not less than five thousand dollars, and of such securities as are permitted by this chapter to be deposited, so that the market value of the securities deposited shall always be equal to the net value of the policies and annuity bonds issued by said company, less such liens as the company may have against them, not exceeding such net value. So long as any company shall maintain its deposits as herein prescribed at an amount equal to, or in excess of, the net value of its policies and annuity bonds as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to sign and affix his seal to the certificates before mentioned on every policy and annuity bond presented to him for that purpose by any company so depositing. The Commissioner shall keep a careful record of the securities deposited by each company, showing by item the amount and market value thereof. If at any time it shall appear therefrom that the value of the securities held on deposit is less than the actual value of the policies and annuity bonds issued by such company and then in force, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioner to execute the certificate on any additional policies or annuity bonds of such company until it shall have made good the deficit. Any company depositing under the provisions of this chapter may increase its deposits at any time by making additional deposits of not less than five thousand dollars of such securities as are authorized by this chapter. Any such company whose deposits exceed the net value of all policies and annuity bonds it has in force less such liens (not exceeding such net value) as the company may hold against them, may withdraw such excess; and it may withdraw any of such securities at any time by depositing others of equal value and of the character authorized by this chapter in their stead; and it may collect the interest coupons, rents and other income on the securities deposited as the same accrue.

The securities deposited under this chapter by each company shall be placed and kept by the Commissioner in some secure safe-deposit, fire-proof box or vault in the city or town in or near which the home office of the company is located. The officers of the company shall have access to such securities for the purpose of detaching interest coupons and crediting payment and exchanging securities as above provided, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the Commissioner may establish. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 4742. [4752] Fees for making deposits.—Every company making deposit under the provisions of this chapter shall pay to the Commissioner for each certificate placed on registered policies or annuity bonds issued by the company, after the original or first deposit is made hereunder, a fee of twenty-five cents; and the fee so received shall be disposed of by said Commissioner as follows:

1. The payment of the annual rent or hire of the safety deposit fireproof box above provided.

2. Payment for the services of a competent and reliable representative of said Commissioner, to be appointed by him, who shall have direct charge of the securities and safety box containing the same, and through whom, and under whose supervision, the insurance company may have access to its securities for the purposes above provided. The sum paid such representative shall not exceed sixty dollars per annum for each company.

3. The balance of such fees shall be paid to the State Treasurer to the credit of the general fund. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 4743. [4753] What deposits may include.—Any life insurance company organized under the laws of this State and making the deposit provided for by this chapter, may include, as a part thereof, securities representing its capital stock, and any deposits of its securities heretofore or hereafter made in compliance with the laws of this State representing its capital stock, and shall only be required to deposit in addition thereto the remainder of its total reserve on outstanding policies and annuity bonds after deducting therefrom the amount of its capital stock securities so deposited. Deposits of securities made hereunder to the value of the reserve on all outstanding policies and annuity bonds shall be added to, and maintained from time to time as the reserve values increase, by the company issuing such contracts, or by any company which may reinsure or assume them; and such securities shall be held by the Commissioner and his successors in office in trust for the benefit of such policies and annuity bonds so long as the same shall remain in force. No company making the deposit provided for herein shall reinsure its outstanding business, or the whole of any one or more of its risks, except in or with a company or companies incorporated and organized under the laws of this State, or a company having permission to do business in this State. [Id. Secs. 4 and 5.]

Art. 4744. [4754] Extra hazardous policies.—If any life insurance company doing business under the laws of this State has written or assumed risks that are sub-standard or extra hazardous and has charged therefor more than its published rates of premium, the Commissioner shall in valuing such policies compute and charge such extra reserves thereon as is warranted by reason of the extra hazard assumed and the extra premium charged. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 4745. [4755] No commissions paid officers.—No life insurance company transacting business in this State shall pay, or contract to pay, directly or indirectly, to its president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, actuary, medical director or other physician charged with the duty of examining risks or applications for insurance or to any officer of the company other than an agent or solicitor, any commission or other compensation contingent upon the writing or procuring of any policy of insurance in such company, or procuring an application therefor by any person whomsoever, or contingent upon the payment of any renewal premium, or upon the assumption of any life insurance risk by such company. Should any company violate any provision of this article, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Insurance to revoke its certificate of authority to transact business in this State. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 4746. [4756] Co-operative companies.—The provisions of the six preceding articles shall likewise apply to and govern co-operative life insurance companies organized under the laws of this State. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 4747. [4757] To deposit funds in name of company.—Any director, member of a committee, or officer, or any clerk of a home company, who is charged with the duty of handling or investing its funds, shall not deposit or invest such funds, except in the corporate name of such company; shall not borrow the funds of such company; shall not be interested in any way in any loan, pledge, security, or property of such company, except as stockholder; shall not take or receive to his own use any fee, brokerage, commission, gift or other consideration for, or on account of, a loan made by or on behalf of such company. [Act 1909, p. 192; Sec. 39.]

Art. 4748. [4758] Impairment of capital stock.—Any such insurance company transacting business within this State, whose capital stock shall become impaired to the extent of thirty-three and one-third per cent thereof, computing its liabilities according to the terms of this chapter, shall make good such impairment within sixty days, by reduction of its capital stock, (provided such capital stock shall in no case be less than one hundred thousand dollars), or otherwise; and failing to make good such impairment within said time shall forfeit its right to write new business in this State until said impairment shall have been made good. The Commissioner may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of such company when its capital stock shall become impaired to the extent of fifty per cent thereof, computing its policy liabilities according to the American experience table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest. No company shall write new business in Texas when its net surplus to policy holders is less than one hundred thousand dollars. [Id. Sec. 43.]

Art. 4749. [4759] Form of policies to be filed.—Life insurance companies shall, within five days after the issuance of, and the placing upon the market, any form of policies of life insurance, file a copy of such form of policy with the Insurance Department. [Id. Sec. 44.]

Art. 4750. [4760] Commissioner to approve policy.—No insurance company transacting business in this State shall hereafter be permitted to issue or sell any policy of industrial life insurance, or any policy of accident or health insurance, until the form thereof has been submitted to the Commissioner. If the Commissioner shall approve the form of such policy as complying with the laws of this State, the same may thereafter be issued and sold. If he shall disapprove the same, any such company may institute a proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to review his action thereon. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 4751. [4761] Must have certificate of authority.—No foreign or domestic insurance company shall transact any insurance business in this State, other than the lending of money, unless it shall first procure from the Commissioner a certificate of authority, stating that the laws of this State have been fully complied with by it, and authorizing it to do business in this State. Such certificate of authority shall expire on the last day of February in each year, and shall be renewed annually so long as the company shall continue to comply with the laws of the State, such renewals to be granted upon the same terms and considerations as the original certificate. [Id. Sec. 46.]

Art. 4752. [4762] Limited capital stock companies.—Companies may be incorporated in the manner prescribed by this chapter for the incorporation of life, accident and health insurance companies generally, which shall have power only to transact business within this State, and to write insurance only on the weekly or monthly premiums plan, and to issue no policy promising to pay more than one thousand dollars in the event of death of the insured from natural causes, nor more than two thousand dollars in the event of death of any person from accidental causes, which may issue, combined or separately, life, accident or health insurance policies with not less than an actual paid up capital of twenty-five thousand dollars. All such companies shall be subject to all the laws regulating life insurance companies in this State not inconsistent with the provisions of this article. Such companies shall not be permitted to invest their assets in other than Texas securities as defined by the laws of this State regulating the investments of life insurance companies. [Id. Sec. 56.]

Art. 4753. [4763] Unlawful dividends.—It shall not be lawful for any insurance company organized under the laws of this State to make any dividend, except from surplus profits arising from its business. In estimating such profits, there shall be reserved therefrom the lawful reserve on all unexpired risks and also the amount of all unpaid losses, whether adjusted or unadjusted, and all other debts due and payable, or to become due and payable, by the company. Any dividends made contrary to any provision of this article shall subject the company making them to a forfeiture of its charter; and the Commissioner shall forthwith revoke its certificate of authority. He shall give such company at least ten days notice in writing of his intention to revoke such certificate, stating specifically the reasons why he intends to revoke same. [Id. Sec. 61.]

Art. 4754. [4764] Taxation of domestic company.—Insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this State shall hereafter be required to render for State, county and municipal taxation all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered. All personal property of such insurance companies shall be valued as other property is valued for assessment in this State in the following manner: From the total valuation of its assets shall be deducted the reserve being the amount of the debts of insurance companies by reason of their outstanding policies in gross, and from the remainder shall be deducted the assessed value of all real estate owned by the company and the remainder shall be the assessed taxable value of its personal property. Home insurance companies shall not be required to pay any occupation or gross receipt tax. [Id. Sec. 25.]

Art. 4755. [4765] Foreign companies, statement.—Any life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, incorporated under the laws of any other State, territory or country, desiring to transact the business of such insurance in this State, shall furnish said Commissioner

And each such company, securing a certificate of authority to do business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate subject to all the conditions and requirements of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

The investments required by this chapter may be made by the purchase of not more than one building site, and in the erection thereon of not more than one office building, or in the purchase at its reasonable market value of such office building already constructed and the ground upon which the same is located, in any city of the State of more than four thousand inhabitants. All real estate owned by life insurance companies in this State, on December 31, 1909, and all thereafter acquired under the provisions of this chapter, or by foreclosure of a lien thereon, shall be treated, to the extent of its reasonable market value, as a part of the investments required by this chapter. And "Texas Securities" shall be held to include every character of investment authorized by the terms of this article. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 122.]

Art. 4767. [4777] Investments, how made.—The investments required by this chapter shall be made as follows:

1. Each life insurance company which had a certificate of authority to transact business in this State April 2, 1909, the total amount of whose investments in Texas securities as of December 31, 1908, was equal to or exceeded seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of that date, shall have so invested not later than January 31, in each year, a sum of money equal to seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of the preceding December 31.

2. Each life insurance company which had a certificate of authority to transact business in this State on April 2, 1909, the amount of whose investments in Texas securities as of December 31, 1908, was less than seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of said date, shall have so invested, not later than January 31 in each year, a sum at least equal to seventy-five per cent of the amount by which its Texas reserves as of December 31 preceding exceeded the amount of its Texas reserves as of December 31, 1908, added to the amount of its total investments in Texas securities as of said date; and each such company, shall in addition, have so invested not later than January 31, 1910, a sum at least equal to ten per cent of the amount by which seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves as of December 31, 1908, exceeded the amount of its investments in Texas securities as of said date, and annually thereafter it shall have invested, not later than January 31, an additional ten per cent of the amount of such excess, until the total amount of its investments in Texas securities shall at least equal seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves.

3. Each life insurance company not having a certificate of authority to do business in this State on April 2, 1909, or that may thereafter discontinue writing new business under such certificate, shall, if it again obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, be required to have invested in Texas securities annually as above provided, a sum equal to seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves. If on December 31 preceding the issuance of such certificate of authority, the amount of its investments in Texas securities was less than seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves, it shall be required to have so invested annually as above provided, a sum equal to seventy-five per cent of the increase of its Texas reserves since December 31, last preceding the issuance of its certificate of authority, added to the amount of its total investment in Texas securities as of said date; and, in addition, it shall, not later than January 31 in each year after the issuance of its certificate of authority, have so invested ten per cent of the amount by which seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves as of December 31 preceding the date of said certificate exceeded the amount of its total investments in Texas securities as of that date, and shall have invested annually thereafter, not later than January 31, an additional ten per cent of such excess, until the total amount of its investments in Texas securities shall at least equal seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves. The proportionate amount of the Texas reserves required by this section to be invested in Texas securities as of any date shall thereafter be maintained. Such investment shall not be required to be made by any life insurance company after it has ceased to do the business of life insurance or to write policies of life insurance in this State. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

Art. 4768. [4778] Report showing amount of reserve.—Each life insurance company doing business in this State shall, not later than ten days after January 31 of each year, file with the Commissioner on a blank prepared and furnished by him for that purpose, a report showing the entire amount of the reserve on its entire business in force in this State on December 31, preceding, and an itemized schedule of its investments in Texas securities, which report shall be sworn to by either the president or a vice president and the secretary of such company. Such report shall contain such other information as may be required by the Commissioner to determine whether or not such company has continuously and in good faith complied with this law; and for that purpose the Commissioner may, whenever he shall deem it proper, require such special or supplemental reports as he may deem necessary. [Id.]

Art. 4769. [4779] Report showing gross receipts.—Each life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, transacting business in this State, shall annually, on or before the first day of March, make a report to the Commissioner, which report shall be sworn to by either the president or vice president and secretary or treasurer of such company, which shall show the gross amount of premiums collected during the year ending on December 31, preceding, from citizens of this State, upon policies of insurance. Each such company shall pay annually an occupation tax equal to three per cent of such gross premium receipts. When the report of the investment in Texas securities, as defined by law, of any such companies as of December 31, of any year, shall show that it has invested on said date as much as thirty per cent of its total Texas reserves, as defined by law, in promissory notes or other obligations secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien on Texas real estate, the rate of occupation tax shall be reduced to two and six-tenths per cent; and, when such report shall show that such company has so invested on said date as much as sixty per cent of its total Texas reserve, the rate of such occupation tax shall be reduced to two and three-tenths per cent; and when such report shall show that such company has so invested, on said date, as much as seventy-five per cent of its total Texas reserve, the rate of such occupation tax shall be reduced to two per cent. All such companies shall in any event make the investments in Texas securities in proportion to the amount of Texas reserves as required by law. Such occupation taxes shall be for and on account of the business transacted within this State during the calendar year in which such premiums were collected, or for that portion thereof during which the company shall have transacted business in this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 264.]

Art. 4770. [4780] Taxes to be paid before certificate is issued.—Upon the receipt of sworn statements showing the gross premium receipts of such company, the Commissioner of Insurance shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by such company for the preceding year, which taxes shall be paid to the State Treasurer for the use of the State, by such company. Upon his receipt of such certificate, and the payment of such tax, the Treasurer shall execute a receipt therefor, which receipt shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes. No such life insurance company shall receive a certificate of authority to do business in this State until such taxes are paid. If, upon the examination of any company, or in any other manner, the Commissioner of Insurance shall be informed that the gross premium receipts of any year exceed in amount those shown by the report thereof, theretofore made as above provided, it shall be the duty of such Commissioner to file with the State Treasurer a supplemental certificate showing the additional amount of taxes due by such company, which shall be paid by such company upon notice thereof. The State Treasurer if, within fifteen days after the receipt by him of any certificate or supplemental certificate provided for by this article, the taxes due as shown thereby have not been paid, shall report the facts to the Attorney General, who shall immediately institute suit in the proper court in Travis County to recover such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 4771. [4781] Taxes imposed exclusive.—No occupation tax other than herein imposed shall be levied by the State or any county, city or town, upon any life insurance company herein subject to the occupation tax in proportion to its gross premium receipts, or its agents. The occupation tax imposed by this law shall be the sole occupation tax which any company doing business in this State under the provision of this chapter shall be required to pay. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

Art. 4772. [4782] Law deemed accepted.—Each life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, hereafter granted a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate and to transact such business hereunder subject to the conditions and requirements that, after it shall cease to transact new business in this State under a certificate of authority, and so long as it shall continue to collect renewal premiums from citizens of this State, it shall be subject to the payment of the same occupation tax in proportion to its gross premiums during any year, from citizens of this State, as is or may be imposed by law on such companies transacting new business within this State, under certificates of authority during such year. The rate of such tax to be so paid by any such company shall never exceed the rate imposed by this chapter upon insurance companies transacting business in this State. Each such company shall make the same reports of its gross premium receipts for each such year and within the same period as is or may be required of such companies holding certificates of authority and shall at all times be subject to examination by the Commissioner of Insurance or some one selected by him for that purpose, in the same way and to the same extent as is or may be required of companies transacting new business under certificates of authority in this State, the expenses of such examination to be paid by the company examined. The respective duties of the Commissioner in certifying to the amount of such taxes and of the State Treasurer and Attorney General in their collection shall be the same as are or may be prescribed respecting taxes due from companies authorized to transact new business within this State. [Id.]

Art. 4773. [4783] Companies renewing business.—Any life insurance company which has heretofore been, may now be, or may hereafter be, engaged in writing policies of insurance upon the lives of citizens of this State, which has heretofore ceased, or may hereafter cease writing such policies, and which does not now or may not hereafter have a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance in this State, but which has continued or may continue to collect renewal or other premiums upon such policies, shall, before it may again obtain a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance in this State, report under oath to the Commissioner the gross amount of premiums so collected from citizens of this State upon policies of insurance during each calendar year since the end of the period covered by the last preceding report by such company of gross premium receipts upon which it paid an occupation tax, and shall pay to the State a sum equal to the percentage of its gross premium receipts for each such year that was required by law to be paid as occupation taxes by companies doing business in this State, during such year or years; and, upon the payment of such sum and securing a certificate of authority to do business in this State, the penalties provided for the failure to pay such taxes and make such report in the past shall be remitted. [Id.]

Art. 4774. [4784] Failure to renew certificate.—Any company which shall fail to renew its certificate of authority or continue to write new business in this State, shall, nevertheless, have the right to maintain agents in Texas for the purpose of collecting renewal premiums on outstanding business written by it under certificate of authority, and also for the purpose of making investments as provided by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4775. [4785] Commissioner may revoke certificate.—If any life insurance company, while holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall fail or refuse to comply with any of the provisions or requirements of this chapter, the Commissioner upon ascertaining such fact, shall notify such company by actual notice in writing delivered to an executive officer of such company, of his intention to revoke its certificate of authority to transact business in this State at the expiration of thirty days after the mailing of such registered letter, or the date upon which such actual notice is served. If such provisions or requirements are not fully complied with upon the expiration of said thirty days, it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to revoke the certificate of authority of such company. In case of such revocation, such company shall not be entitled to receive another certificate of authority for a period of one year, and until it shall have fully and in good faith complied with all such provisions and requirements of this chapter. Any company feeling itself aggrieved by the action of the Commissioner in revoking its certificate of authority to do business in this State may bring suit against him in Travis County to annul and vacate the order revoking such certificate. [Id.]

Art. 4776. [4786] Failure to report or invest.—If any company shall intentionally fail or refuse to make the investments required by this chapter, or make any report required by this chapter, or to make any special report requested by the Commissioner under authority of this chapter, or generally to comply with any provision or requirements of this chapter, while holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, or after it shall cease to write new business or cease to hold such certificate, such failure or refusal shall subject such company, in addition to the penalty provided in the preceding article, in cases to which said article may be applicable, to the payment of a penalty of twenty-five dollars per day for each day that such company shall remain in default after the Commissioner shall notify such company of such default, in the manner provided in the preceding article, to be recovered in a suit that may be brought by the Attorney General in behalf of the State in the District Court of Travis County. In any suit brought to recover such penalty, there shall be a prima facie presumption subject to rebuttal, that any default that may have occurred was intentional; that the notice required by this chapter was given, and the burden of proof shall be on the defendant company to prove that the investments required by this chapter were made as herein required whenever the question of whether or not such investments were thus made is in issue. [Id.]

Art. 4777. [4787] Deposit by domestic company.—Any life insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, may, at its option, deposit with the Treasurer of this State, securities in which its capital stock is invested, or securities equal in amount to its capital stock, of the class in which the law of this State permits insurance companies to invest their capital stock, and may, at its option, withdraw the same or any part thereof, first having deposited with the Treasurer, in lieu thereof, other securities of like class and equal amount and value to those withdrawn. Any such securities, before being so originally deposited or substituted, shall be approved by the Commissioner; and, when any such deposit is made, the Treasurer shall execute to the company making such deposit a receipt therefor, giving such description of said stock or securities as will identify the same, and stating that the same are held on deposit as the capital stock investments of such company; and such company shall have the right to advertise such fact or print a copy of the Treasurer's receipt on the policies it may issue; and the proper officer or agent of each insurance company making such deposit shall be permitted at all reasonable times to examine such securities and to detach coupons therefrom, and to collect interest thereon, under such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Treasurer and the Commissioner. The deposit herein provided for, when made by any company, shall thereafter be maintained so long as said company shall have outstanding any liability to its policy holders in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4778. [4788] Not to apply to certain companies.—The provisions of this chapter requiring investments in Texas securities shall not apply to any life insurance company, the total amount of whose Texas reserves does not exceed five thousand dollars, or to any such company doing only a reinsurance business in this State, but all other provisions of this chapter shall apply to such companies. [4809] Incorporation.—Nine or more persons, residents of this State, may form a mutual life insurance company for the purpose of insuring the lives of individuals on the mutual, level premium, legal reserve plan, subject to the provisions of this chapter, by executing and acknowledging articles of incorporation for that purpose. Such articles of incorporation shall set forth:

Art. 4801. Certificate of authority.—If the Attorney General approves such articles of incorporation, he shall so certify thereon in writing, and return them to the Commissioner, who shall file the same in his office and issue to the company a certificate of authority to which shall be attached a certified copy of the articles of incorporation authorizing such company to receive applications for insurance as provided in this chapter, to collect premiums thereon and to issue receipts therefor. Such certificate shall expressly state that such company is not authorized to issue policies of insurance or transact any business other than that specifically authorized therein until it has received bona fide applications for insurance on the lives of at least two hundred individuals for not less than five hundred dollars each, aggregating at least two hundred thousand dollars of insurance on which the aggregate net premiums shall be at least equal to the largest net risk assumed on any one life, which applications have been approved by a competent physician and on which the first annual premiums at adequate rates have been paid to the company, nor until these facts shall have been fully shown to the Commissioner and he shall have issued to the company a certificate of authority to transact business as a mutual life insurance company. If this showing is not made within six months after the date upon which such articles of incorporation are filed with the Commissioner, it shall be his duty to cancel the certificate of authority of such company to receive applications for insurance, and to notify each incorporator of such action. When the Commissioner shall be notified that any such company has complied with all the provisions of this and the preceding article, he shall make, or cause to be made, at the expense of such company, an examination thereof; and if he shall find that the law has been fully complied with, it shall be his duty to issue to it a certificate of authority to transact the business of a mutual life insurance company, in accordance with the terms of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4802. [4810] Directors.—The business of a mutual life insurance company shall be controlled and directed by a board of directors consisting of not less than five nor more than twenty-five members, who shall be elected annually as provided in this chapter. The directors who are to serve until the first annual election shall be named in the charter, and they shall hold office until their successors shall be elected and qualified, or until they shall be removed for improper practices. The board of directors shall elect the officers of the company, which shall be a president, and such number of vice-presidents as their by-laws may provide; a secretary, a treasurer, a medical director and such other officers as the by-laws may provide for; and shall fix the compensation of all such officers. The duties of all officers shall be prescribed by the by-laws. The by-laws governing the company until the date of its first annual meeting shall be adopted by the board of directors at their first meeting after the certificate of authority shall be issued authorizing the company to transact the business of a mutual life insurance company. [Id.]

Art. 4803. Annual meeting of policy-holders.—There shall be an annual meeting of all the policy-holders of each mutual life insurance company at the home office of such company or at such other place as may be properly announced to the policy-holders, on the second Tuesday in March after it shall have received a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance, and annually thereafter, at which the directors shall be elected for the succeeding year, and at which by-laws for the government of the company, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or with the laws of this State may be adopted, and at which the existing by-laws may be repealed or amended. At such annual meeting, each policy-holder shall be entitled to one vote for each five hundred dollars of insurance held by him. Any policy-holder may execute his proxy authorizing and entitling the holder to exercise his voting powers, unless such proxy shall be revoked previous to such annual meeting. [Id.]

Art. 4804. Bonds of officers.—The president, secretary and treasurer shall each give bond for the protection of the policy-holders in amount and with securities to be approved by the Commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties. [Id.]

Art. 4805. Annual statement; renewal certificate.—Such mutual life insurance companies shall file their annual statements with the Commissioner, and receive from him their certificates of authority to transact the business of life insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4806. Annual examination.—The Commissioner shall have made, once in each calendar year, a thorough examination of the affairs of each such mutual life insurance company, the report of which examination shall be made to such Commissioner under oath. The Commissioner, if he approves the report of such examination, shall furnish the company with certificate of approval. The expense of such examination shall be borne by the company examined. [Id.]

Art. 4807. Agents and commissions.—Any such mutual life insurance company which has received authority from the Commissioner to transact business in this State shall receive from such Commissioner, upon written request therefor, a certificate of authority for each of its agents in this State. Contracts between such companies and such agents shall not provide for commissions or other compensation to such agents in excess of the expense loading in the premiums of policies issued upon the applications procured by such agents, collected therefor, and paid to the company in cash. [Id.]

Art. 4808. Annual valuation of policies.—The Commissioner shall annually make valuations of all outstanding policies of mutual life insurance companies as of December 31 of each year, in accordance with the one year preliminary term method based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest per annum, assuming an average risk exposure of six months on all new policies issued within each calendar year. [Id.]

Art. 4809. Net premiums.—The net premiums upon all policies issued by any such company shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article, the net premiums on all new policies issued to be obtained by deducting from the total premium paid the amount of the preliminary term premium as above provided and allowing the remainder of the first annual premium as expense loading; no portion of such net premium collected upon any such policy shall ever be used or applied for the payment of any expenses of the company of any kind or character, or for any other purpose than the payment of death losses, surrender values, or lawful dividends to policyholders, loans on policies, or for the purposes of such investments of the company as are prescribed in the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4810. Contingency reserve.—Every such company may maintain and set aside, before declaring any dividends to policyholders, in addition to an amount equal to the net value of all its policies, computed as required by this chapter, a contingency reserve not exceeding the following respective percentages of said net values, to wit: When said net values are less than one hundred thousand dollars, twenty per cent thereof, or the sum of ten thousand dollars, whichever is the greater; the percentage thereof measuring the contingency reserve shall decrease one-half of one per cent for each one hundred thousand dollars of said net values up to one million dollars, and thereafter, one-half of one per cent for each additional one million dollars of said net values; provided, that as the said net values of said policies increase, and as the maximum percentage measuring the contingency reserve decreases, such company may maintain the contingency reserve already accumulated hereunder, although for the time being it may exceed the maximum percentage herein prescribed, but may not add to the contingency reserve when the addition will bring it beyond the maximum percentage. [Id.]

Art. 4811. Surplus and dividends.—Each such company shall make an annual accounting and apportionment of divisible surplus to each policy-holder, beginning not later than the end of the second policy year on all policies issued; and each such policy-holder shall be entitled to and credited with or paid, such portion of the entire divisible surplus as has been contributed thereto by his policy. Upon the thirty-first day of December of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, each such company shall truly ascertain the surplus earned by it during such year; and after setting aside from such surplus the contingency reserve provided for in this chapter, it shall apportion to each of its policies upon which all premiums due and payable for at least one year have been paid, the proportion of the remainder of such surplus which has been contributed by each such policy, and shall immediately submit a detailed report of such apportionment under oath of its president or secretary to the Commissioner. If such Commissioner shall find such apportionment to be equitable and just to the policy-holders and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, he shall approve the same, and it shall become effective. If he shall not approve such apportionment, he shall make such changes therein as he shall deem equitable and just and necessary to make the same comply with the provisions of this chapter, and shall certify such changes to such company, whereupon such apportionment as changed by the Commissioner shall become effective. Each dividend declared as aforesaid shall be paid in cash, or in the equivalent of its cash value in any option stated in the policy and selected by the policy-holder, notice of which selection by the policy-holder shall be given to the company in writing. [Id.]

Art. 4812. Policies.—Mutual life insurance companies are authorized to transact business throughout this State and in other States to which they may be admitted; they shall issue no policies except upon the participating plan with dividends payable annually as provided in this chapter; the forms of all policies issued by any such company shall be approved by the Commissioner, and all such policies shall have plainly printed on both the face and the reverse sides thereof the words, "The form of this policy is approved by the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas," and the Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of any such company which shall issue any policy except upon such form so approved. No such company shall issue any policy or policies by which, after deducting reinsurance, if any, it shall be bound for more than five thousand dollars upon any one life at any time when the total amount of its insurance in force is less than ten million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 4813. [4819] Unlawful deductions from policy.—Each policy issued by such company shall provide, in the event that premiums are payable other than annually, that no deduction shall be made from the amount due on any policy in the event that the death of the policy-holder shall occur prior to the due date of any premium less than annual. [Id.]

Art. 4814. Table of guaranteed values.—Each policy issued by such company shall contain a table of guaranteed values, which shall become non-forfeitable not later than upon the payment of the third full annual premium; such tables of values shall be drawn in accordance with the law governing life and accident insurance companies. [Id.]

Art. 4815. Incurring debts.—No mutual life insurance company shall have the power except as provided in this chapter, to borrow money for any purpose other than the payment of death losses. No such company shall have the power to incur any debt on any account except under policies issued by it or for money borrowed to pay death losses, for which any portion of its assets over and above that which may represent or be derived from the expense loading of the premiums collected by it, shall, in any event be subject to execution upon a judgment therefor. [Id.]

Art. 4816. Advances to company.—Any officer, director, or policy-holder of a mutual life insurance company, or any other person, may advance to such company any sum of money for the purpose of promoting or conserving its business, or to enable it to comply with any requirement of the law; and such money, together with such interest thereon as may have been agreed upon, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, shall be payable only out of the surplus remaining after providing for all reserves and other liabilities, and shall not otherwise be a liability or claim against the company or any of its assets. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company, and the amount of such advance shall be reported in each annual statement. [Id.]

Art. 4817. Liabilities.—At any time when the liabilities of any such company, computing its reserve liability upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent per annum interest, shall be in excess of its assets, the company shall cease the issuance of new policies until the impairment in its reserve shall be made good. Whenever the liabilities of any such company, computing its reserve liability upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and four and one-half per cent interest per annum, exceeds its assets, the Commissioner may request the Attorney General to file suit in the name of the State in the district court of the county in which such company is located for the appointment of a receiver to terminate and liquidate the affairs of the company, and such action may be maintained. In any such action, such district court, or judge thereof, in vacation, shall have the power, if in his opinion the interests of the policy-holders of the company require it, to enter an order for the reinsurance of all outstanding risks of such company in some other life insurance company authorized to do business in this State upon such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Commissioner, and by such court, or the judge thereof, in vacation; and such court or judge may for that purpose direct the conveyance of the entire assets of any such company, or any portion thereof, to such re-insuring company in consideration of such re-insurance. Art. 4820. "Fraternal benefit society."—Any corporation, society, order or voluntary association, without capital stock, organized and carried on solely for the mutual benefit of its members and their beneficiaries, and not for profit, and having a lodge system with ritualistic form of work and representative form of government, and which shall make provision for the payment of benefits in accordance with Article 4824 is hereby declared to be a fraternal benefit society. [Acts 1913, p. 220.]

Art. 4821. "Lodge system."—Any society having a supreme governing or legislative body and subordinate lodges or branches by whatever name known, into which members shall be elected initiated and admitted in accordance with the Constitution, laws, rules, regulations and prescribed ritualistic ceremonies, which subordinate lodges or branches shall be required by the laws of such society to hold regular or stated meetings at least once in each month, shall be deemed to be operating on the lodge system. [Id.]

Art. 4822. "Representative form of government."—Any such society shall be deemed to have a representative form of government when it shall provide in its Constitution and laws for a supreme legislative or governing body, composed of representatives, elected either by the members or by delegates elected, directly or indirectly by the members, together with such other members as may be prescribed by its Constitution and laws; provided that elective members shall constitute a majority in number and have not less than two-thirds of the votes, nor less than the votes required to amend its Constitution and laws. The meetings of the supreme or governing body, and the election of officers, representatives or delegates, shall be held as often as once in four years. The members, officers, representatives or delegates of a fraternal benefit society shall not vote by proxy. [Id.]

Art. 4823. "Exemptions."—Except as herein provided, such societies shall be governed by this law, and shall be exempt from all provisions of the insurance laws of this State, not only in governmental relations with the State, but for every other purpose. No law hereafter enacted shall apply to them, unless they be expressly designated therein. [Id.]

Art. 4824. "Benefits."—Every society transacting business under this law shall provide for the payment of death benefits and may provide for the payment of benefits in case of temporary or permanent physical disability, either as the result of disease, accident or old age. The period of life at which the payment of benefits for disability on account of old age shall commence shall not be under seventy years. Such society may provide for monuments or tombstones to the memory of its deceased members, and for the payment of funeral benefits. Such society shall have the power to give a member, when permanently disabled or on attaining the age of seventy, all or such portion of the face value of his certificate as its laws may provide. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of benefit certificates for a term of years less than the whole of life which are payable upon the death or disability of the member occurring within the term for which the benefit certificates may be issued. Such society shall, upon written application of the member, have the power to accept a part of the periodical contributions in cash, and charge the remainder, not exceeding one-half of the periodical contribution, against the certificate, with interest payable or compounded annually at a rate not lower than four per cent per annum. This privilege shall not be granted except to societies which have readjusted or may hereafter readjust their rates of contribution, and to contracts affected by such readjustment. Any society which shall show by the annual valuation hereinafter provided for that it is accumulating and maintaining the reserve not lower than the usual reserve computed by the American Experience Table and five per cent interest may grant to its members extended and paid-up protection, or such withdrawal equities as its Constitution and laws may provide. Such grants shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of such members to whom they are made. [Id.]

Art. 4825. Benefits upon life of child.—Any fraternal benefit society authorized to do business in this State and operating on the lodge plan, may provide in its constitution and by-laws, in addition to other benefits provided for therein, for the payment of death or annuity benefits upon the lives of children between the ages of two and eighteen years at next birthday, for whose support and maintenance a member of such society is responsible. Any such society may at its option organize and operate branches for such children and membership in local lodges and initiation therein shall not be required of such children, nor shall they have any voice in the management of the society. The total benefits payable as above provided shall in no case exceed the following amounts at ages at next birthday at time of death, respectively as follows:

| Between the ages of | Amount | Between the ages of | Amount |
|------------------------|--------|------------------------|----------|
| 2 and 3 | $ 34 | 8 and 9 | $200.00 |
| 3 and 4 | 40 | 9 and 10 | 240.00 |
| 4 and 5 | 48 | 10 and 11 | 300.00 |
| 5 and 6 | 58 | 11 and 12 | 380.00 |
| 6 and 7 | 140 | 12 and 13 | 460.00 |
| 7 and 8 | 160 | 13 and 16 | 520.00 |
| | | 16 and 18 | 600.00 |

[Acts 1917, p. 430.]

Art. 4826. Certificates as to child.—No benefit certificates as to any child shall take effect until after medical examination or inspection by a licensed medical practitioner, in accordance with the laws of the society, nor shall any such benefits certificate be issued unless the society shall simultaneously put in force or have in force at time of issue of said certificate at least five hundred such certificates, on each of which at least one assessment has been paid, nor where the number of lives represented by like certificate falls below five hundred. The death benefit contributions to be made upon such certificate shall be based upon the "Standard Industrial Mortality Table" or the "English Life Number Six" and a rate of interest not greater than 4 per cent per annum, or upon a higher standard. Contributions may be waived or returns may be made from any surplus held in excess of reserve and other liabilities, as provided in the by-laws. Extra contributions shall be made if the reserves hereafter provided for become impaired. [Id.]

Art. 4827. Reserve and rights of child.—Any society entering into such insurance agreement shall maintain on all such contracts the reserve required by the standard of mortality and interest adopted by the society for computing contributions, as provided in the preceding article, and the funds representing the benefit contributions and all accretions thereon shall be kept as separate and distinct funds, independent of the other funds of the society, and shall not be liable for nor used for the payment of the debts and obligations of the society other than the benefits herein authorized. A society may provide that when a child reaches the minimum age for initiation into membership in such society, any benefit certificate issued hereunder may be surrendered for cancellation and exchanged for any other form of certificate issued by the society, provided that such surrender will not reduce the number of lives insured in the branch below five hundred, and upon the issuance of such new certificate any reserve upon the original certificate herein provided for shall be transferred to credit of the new certificate. Neither the person who originally made application for benefits on account of such child, nor the beneficiary named in such original certificate, nor the person who paid the contribution, shall have any vested right in such new certificate, the free nomination of a beneficiary under the new certificate being left to the child so admitted to benefit membership. [Id.]

Art. 4828. Statement as to children.—An entirely separate financial statement of the business transactions and of assets and liabilities arising therefrom shall be made in its annual report to the Commissioner of Insurance by any society availing itself of the provisions hereof. The separation of assets, funds and liabilities required hereby shall not be terminated, rescinded or modified, nor shall the funds be diverted for any use other than as specified in the preceding article as long as any certificates issued hereunder remain in force, and this requirement shall be recognized and enforced in any liquidation, reinsurance, merger, or other change in the condition of the status of the society. [Id.]

Art. 4829. Specified payments.—Any society shall have the right to provide in its laws and the certificate issued hereunder for specified payments on account of the expense or general fund, which payments shall or shall not be mingled with the general fund of the society as its constitution and by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Art. 4830. Child membership.—In the event of the termination of membership in the society by the person responsible for the support of any child, on whose account a certificate may have been issued, as provided herein, the certificate may be continued for the benefit of the estate of the child, provided, the contributions are continued, or for the benefit of any other person responsible for the support and maintenance of such child, who shall assume the payment of the required contributions. [Id.]

Art. 4831. Beneficiaries.—The payment of death benefits shall be confined to wife, husband, relative by blood to the fourth degree, children by legal adoption, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-children, father-in-law or to a person or persons dependent upon the member. If after the issuance of the original certificate the member shall become dependent upon an incorporated charitable institution, he shall have the privilege, with the consent of the society, to make such institution his beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary, and from time to time have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules or regulations of the society, and no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of the said member. If a member shall die without designating a beneficiary, or if at the death of the member the beneficiary designated is dead or has no insurable interest in the life of the member, the benefits payable under the certificate shall not be forfeited but shall be paid to the persons named in this article, but in such order as the by-laws of the society shall prescribe; and if such society shall fail to prescribe the order of payment, then the same shall be payable to the persons named in this article and in the order first named. [Acts 1923, p. 116.]

Art. 4832. Organizations as beneficiary.—Fraternal benefit societies, heretofore or hereafter incorporated by the State of Texas or licensed to do business therein, shall be authorized to provide in their constitutions, by-laws or fundamental laws for the issuance of benefit certificates to their members, wherein any association, society or corporation, organized and operated for religious, eleemosynary or educational purposes may be named as beneficiary. [Acts 1917, p. 372.]

Art. 4833. Qualifications for membership.—Any society may admit to beneficial membership any person not less than sixteen and not more than sixty years of age, who has been examined by a legally qualified physician, and whose examination has been supervised and approved in accordance with the laws of the society. Any beneficiary member of such society who shall apply for a certificate providing for disability benefits need not be required to pass an additional medical examination therefor. Nothing herein shall prevent such society from accepting general or social members. [Acts 1913, p. 220.]

Art. 4834. Certificate.—Every certificate issued by any such society shall specify the amount of benefit provided thereby, and shall provide that the certificate, the charter or articles of incorporation or, if a voluntary association, the articles of association, the constitution and laws of the society, and the application for membership and medical examination, signed by the applicant, and all amendments to each thereof, shall constitute the agreement between the society and the member, and copies of the same, certified by the secretary of the society, or corresponding officer, shall be received in evidence of the terms and conditions thereof. Any changes, additions or amendments to said charter or articles of incorporation, or articles of association, or constitution or laws duly made or enacted subsequent to the issuance of the benefit certificates shall bind the member and his beneficiaries, and shall govern and control the agreement in all respects the same as though such changes, additions or amendments had been made prior to and were in force at the time of the application for membership. [Id.]

Art. 4835. Funds.—Any society may create, maintain, invest, disburse and apply an emergency surplus or other similar fund in accordance with its laws. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, such funds shall be held, invested and disbursed for the use and benefit of the society, and no member or beneficiary shall have or acquire individual rights therein or become entitled to any apportionment of the surrender of any part thereof, except as provided in the fifth article of this chapter. The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which the expenses of the society shall be defrayed shall be derived from periodical or other payments by the members of the society and accretions of said funds. No society, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter be incorporated or admitted to transact business in this State which does not provide for stated periodical contributions sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligations contracted, when valued upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard, with interest assumption not more than four per cent per annum, nor write or accept members for temporary or permanent disability benefits except upon tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum. Deferred payments or installments of claims shall be considered as fixed liabilities on the happenings of the contingency upon which such payments or installments are thereafter to be paid. Such liability shall be the present value of such future payments or installments upon the rate of interest and mortality assumed by the society for valuation, and every society shall maintain a fund sufficient to meet such liability regardless of proposed future collections to meet any such liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 4836. Investments.—Every society shall invest its funds only in securities permitted by the laws of this State for the investment of the assets of life insurance companies. Any foreign society permitted or seeking to do business in this State which invests funds in accordance with the laws of the State in which it is incorporated shall be held to meet the requirements of this law for the investment of funds. In case the Constitution and by-laws of the Grand Lodge or governing body of any such association provides that all or any part of the beneficiary or mortuary or insurance fund of such association that is paid in by or collected from the members of such subordinate or local lodge may be retained in the custody of and controlled and managed by such subordinate or local lodge, and designate what officer of such subordinate or local lodge shall have the custody and control of such fund and authorize such local officers to loan or invest the same, and such local officer shall have executed and filed, and shall from time to time when required by the Commissioner, file with such Commissioner such bond or other written instrument to be prescribed and approved in terms and amount by such Commissioner as will indemnify such fund against waste, depletion or loss through loans, investment or otherwise, then such fund so secured shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4837. Distribution of funds.—Every provision of the laws of the society for payment by members of such society, in whatever form made, shall distinctly state the purpose of the same and the proportion thereof which may be used for expenses. No part of the money collected for mortuary or disability purposes or the net accretions of either or any of said funds shall be used for expenses. [Id.]

Art. 4838. Organization.—Seven or more persons, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are citizens of this State, who desire to form a fraternal benefit society, as defined by this law, may make and sign, giving their addresses, and acknowledge before some officer competent to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of incorporation, in which shall be stated:

1. The proposed corporate name of the society, which shall not so closely resemble the name of any society or insurance company already transacting business in this State as to mislead the public or to lead to confusion.
2. The purpose for which it is formed, which shall not include more liberal powers than are granted by this law. Any lawful, social, intellectual, educational, charitable, benevolent, moral or religious advantages may be set forth among the purposes of the society, and the mode in which its corporate powers are to be exercised.
3. The names, residences and official titles of all the officers, trustees, directors or other persons who are to have and exercise the general control and management of the affairs and funds of the society for the first year or until the ensuing election at which all such officers shall be elected by the supreme legislative or governing body, which election shall be held not later than one year from the date of the issuance of the permanent certificate.

4. Such articles of incorporation and duly certified copies of the Constitution and laws, rules and regulations, and copies of all proposed forms of benefit certificates, applications therefor and circulars to be issued by such society, and a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the Commissioner, conditioned upon the return of the advance payments, as provided in this article, to applicants, if the organization is not completed within one year, shall be filed with such Commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary, and if the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this law, and all provisions of law have been complied with, said Commissioner shall so certify and retain and record or file the articles of incorporation, and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing said society to solicit members as hereinafter provided.

Upon receipt of said certificate from the Commissioner, said society may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly payment, in accordance with its Table of Rates as provided by its Constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. No such society shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate nor pay or allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow, to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least one thousand dollars each, and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians, and certificates of such examination have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such society; nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated; nor until there has been submitted to said Commissioner, under oath of the president and secretary or corresponding officers of such society, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of stated periodical contributions, which shall be sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligation, contracted, when valued for death benefits upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality, as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard, at the option of the society, and for disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience and for combined death and permanent total disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum; nor until it shall be shown to the Commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer or corresponding officer of such society, that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment as herein provided per one thousand dollars of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars; all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants and no part of which may be used for expenses.

Said advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held in trust, and if the organization is not completed within one year as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants.

The Commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he may deem advisable; and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the society has complied with all the provisions of law, he shall issue to such society a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such society at the date of such certificate. The Commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made and a certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate.

No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this article shall be valid after one year from its date, or after such further period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the Commissioner upon cause shown; unless the five hundred applicants herein required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided; and the articles of incorporation and all proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of said preliminary certificate, or at the expiration of said extended period, unless such society has completed its organization and commenced business as herein provided. When any domestic society shall have discontinued business for the period of one year, or has less than four hundred members, its charter shall become null and void. (Every such society shall have the power to make a Constitution and by-laws for the government of the society, the admission of its members, the management of its affairs and the fixing and readjusting of the rates of contribution of its members from time to time; and it shall have the power to change, alter, add to, or amend such Constitution and by-laws and shall have such other powers as are necessary and incidental to carrying into effect its object and purposes.) [Id.]

Art. 4839. Powers retained—amendments.—Any society now engaged in transacting business in this State may exercise all of the rights conferred hereby, and all of the rights, powers and privileges now exercised or possessed by it under its charter or articles of incorporation not inconsistent with this chapter, if incorporated; or if it be a voluntary association, it may incorporate hereunder. But no society already organized shall be required to reincorporate hereunder, and any such society may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time in the manner provided therein or in its Constitution and laws, and all such amendments shall be filed with the Commissioner and shall become operative upon such filing, unless a later time be provided in such amendments or in its articles of incorporation, Constitution or laws. [Id.]

Art. 4840. Mergers and transfers.—No domestic society shall merge with or accept the transfer of the membership or funds of any other society unless such merger or transfer is evidenced by a contract in writing, setting out in full the terms and conditions of such merger or transfer, and filed with the Commissioner, together with a sworn statement of the financial condition of each of said societies by its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, and a certificate of such officers, duly verified under oath of said officers of each of the contracting societies, that such a merger or transfer has been approved by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the supreme legislative or governing body of each of said societies.

Upon the submission of said contract, financial statements and certificates, said Commissioner shall examine the same, and if he shall find such statements to be correct and the said contract to be in conformity with the provisions of this article, and that such merger or transfer is just and equitable to the members of each of said societies, he shall approve said merger or transfer, issue his certificate to that effect, and thereupon the said contract or merger or transfer shall be of full force and effect. In case such contract is not approved, the fact of its submission and its contents shall not be disclosed by said Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4841. Annual license.—Societies which are now authorized to transact business in this State may continue such business until the first day of April next succeeding the passage of this law, and the authority of such societies may thereafter be renewed annually; but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding April. The license shall continue in full force and effect until the new license be issued or specifically refused. For each such license or renewal the society shall pay the Commissioner ten dollars. A duly certified copy or duplicate of such license shall be prima facie evidence that the licensee is a fraternal benefit society within the meaning of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4842. Admission of foreign society.—No foreign society now transacting business, organized prior to the passage of this law, which is not now authorized to transact business in this State, shall transact any business herein without a license from the Commissioner of Insurance. Any such society shall be entitled to a license to transact business within this State upon filing with said Commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter or articles of association; a copy of its Constitution and
