laws, certified by its secretary or corresponding officer; a power of attorney to said Commissioner as hereinafter provided; a statement of its business under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers in the form required by said Commissioner, duly verified by an examination made by the supervising insurance official of its home State or other State satisfactory to the Commissioner; a certificate from the proper official in its home State, province or country that the society is legally organized; a copy of its contract, which must show that benefits are provided for by periodical or other payments by persons holding similar contracts; and upon furnishing the Commissioner such other information as he may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working, and upon showing that its assets are invested in accordance with the laws of the State, territory, district, province or country where it is organized, he shall issue a license to such society to do business in this State until the first day of the succeeding April, and such license shall, upon compliance with the provisions of this law, be renewed annually, but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding April. The license shall continue in full force and effect until the new license be issued or specifically refused. Any foreign society desiring admission to this State shall have the qualifications required of domestic societies organized under this law and have its assets invested as required by the laws of the State, territory, district, country or province where it is organized. For each such license or renewal the society shall pay the Commissioner of Insurance ten dollars. When said Commissioner refuses to license any society or revokes its authority to do business in this State, he shall reduce his decision to writing and file the same in his office, and shall furnish a copy thereof, together with a statement of his reasons, to the officers of the society, upon request, and the action of said Commissioner shall be reviewable by proper proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction within the State. Nothing in this or the preceding article shall be construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this State during the time such society was legally authorized to transact business herein. [Id.]

Art. 4843. Service of process.—Every society, whether domestic or foreign, hereafter applying for admission, shall before being licensed, appoint in writing the Commissioner and his successors in office to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom all legal process in any action or proceeding against it shall be served, and in such writing shall agree that any lawful process against it which is served upon such attorney shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the society and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding in this State.

Copies of such appointment certified by said Commissioner shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original thereof might be admitted. Service shall only be made upon such attorney, must be made in duplicate upon said Commissioner or, in his absence, upon the person in charge of his office, and shall be deemed sufficient service upon such society. No such service shall be valid or binding against any such society when it is required thereunder to file its answer, pleading or defense in less than thirty days from the date of mailing the copy of such service to such society. When legal process against any such society is served upon said Commissioner he shall forthwith forward by registered mail, one of the duplicate copies prepaid and directed to its secretary or corresponding officer. Legal process shall not be served upon any such society except in the manner provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 4844. Place of meeting.—Each domestic society shall have its principal office in this State, but may provide that the meetings of its legislative or governing body may be held in any State, district, province or territory wherein such society has subordinate branches. All business transacted at such meetings shall be as valid in all respects as if such meetings were held in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4845. No personal liability.—Officers and members of the supreme, grand or any subordinate body of any such incorporated society shall not be individually liable for the payment of any disability or death benefit provided for in the laws and agreements of such society. The same shall be payable only out of the funds of such society and in the manner provided by its laws. [Id.]

Art. 4846. Waiving provisions of law.—The Constitution and laws of the society may provide that no subordinate body nor any of its subordinate officers or members shall have the power or authority to waive any provision of the laws and Constitution of the society, and the same shall be binding on the society and each and every member thereof and on all beneficiaries of members. All grand lodges, by whatever name known, whether incorporated or not, holding charters from any supreme governing body, which were conducting business in this State upon the passage of this law as a fraternal beneficiary association, upon what is known as the separate jurisdiction plan, shall be treated as single State organizations, and all reports required by the provisions of this charter shall be made and furnished by the officers of such supreme State governing body and shall embrace and contain the transactions, liabilities and assets of such State Organization. [Id.]

Art. 4847. Benefit not attachable.—No money or other benefit, charity or relief or aid to be paid, provided or rendered by any such society shall be liable to attachment, garnishment, or other process, or be seized, taken or appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law to pay any debt or liability of a member or beneficiary or any other person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment. [Id.]

Art. 4848. Constitution and laws.—Every society transacting business under this law shall file with the Commissioner a duly certified copy of all amendments of, or additions to its Constitution and laws within ninety days after the enactment of the same. Printed copies of the Constitution and laws, as amended, changed, or added to, certified by the secretary or corresponding officer of the society, shall be prima facie evidence of the legal adoption thereof. [Id.]

Art. 4849. Annual reports.—Every society transacting business in this State shall annually, on or before the first day of March, file with the Commissioner in such form as he may require, a statement under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers, of its condition and standing on the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and its transactions for the year ending on that date, and shall furnish such other information as said Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The Commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society. In addition to such annual report, each society shall annually report to said Commissioner a valuation of its certificates in force on December 31st last preceding, excluding those issued within the year for which the report is filed, in cases where the contribution for the first year in whole or in part are used for current mortality and expenses. Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society, under the certificates subject to valuation; and as contingent assets the present mid-year value of the future net contributions provided in the Constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected. At the option of any society, in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the net value of the certificates subject to valuation hereinbefore provided, and said net value, when computed in case of monthly contributions, may be the mean of the terminal values for the end of the preceding and of the current insurance years. Such valuation shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary, or, at the request and expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home State of the society, and shall be filed with the Commissioner within ninety days after the submission of the last preceding annual report. The legal minimum standard of valuation for all certificates, except for disability benefits, shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality as adopted by the National Congress, August 23, 1899; or, at the option of the society, any higher table; or, at its option, it may use a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years, and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with interest assumption not more than four per centum per annum. Each such valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation. Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep the net contributions for such benefits in a fund separate and apart from all other benefit and expense funds and the valuation of all other business of the society; provided, that where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent total disability benefits, the valuation shall be according to tables of reliable experiences, and in such cases a separation of the funds shall not be required. The valuation herein provided for shall not be considered or regarded as a test of the financial solvency of the society, but each society shall be held to be legally solvent so long as the funds in its possession are equal to or in excess of its matured liabilities. A report of such valuation and an explanation of the facts concerning the condition of the society thereby disclosed, shall be printed and mailed to each beneficiary member of the society not later than June 1st, of each year; or, in lieu thereof, such report of valuation and showing of the society's condition as thereby disclosed may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficiary member of the society. The laws of such society shall provide that if the stated periodical contributions of the members are insufficient to pay all matured death and disability claims in full, and to provide for the creation and maintenance of the funds required by its laws additional, increased or extra rates of contribution shall be collected from the members to meet such deficiency; and such laws may provide that, upon the written application or consent of the member, his certificate may be charged with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by valuation, with interest not exceeding five per centum per annum. [Id.]

Art. 4850. Provisions to insure security.—If the valuation of the certificates, as hereinbefore provided, on December 31st, 1917, shall show that the present value of future net contributions, together with the admitted assets, is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities, such society shall thereafter maintain said financial condition at each succeeding triennial valuation as to the degree of deficiency as shown in the valuation as of December 31, 1917. If at any succeeding triennial valuation such society does not show at least the same condition, the Commissioner shall direct that it thereafter comply with the requirements herein specified. If the next succeeding triennial valuation after the receipt of such notice shall show that the society has failed to maintain the condition required herein, said Commissioner may, in the absence of good cause shown for such failure, institute proceedings for the dissolution of such society, or in the case of a foreign society, its license may be cancelled in the manner provided in this chapter. Any such society, shown by any triennial valuation, subsequent to December 31, 1917, not to have maintained the condition herein required, shall, within two years thereafter, make such improvement as to show a percentage of deficiency not greater than as of December 31, 1917, or thereafter, as to all new members admitted, be subject so far as stated rates of contributions are concerned, to the provisions of this chapter applicable to the organization of new societies. The net mortality or beneficiary contributions and funds of new members shall be kept separate and apart from the other funds of the society. If such required improvement is not shown by the succeeding triennial valuation, then the said new members may be placed in a separate class and their certificates valued as an independent society in respect of contributions and funds. [Id.]

Art. 4851. Accumulation basis.—In lieu of the requirements of the two preceding articles, any society accepting in its laws the provisions of this article may value its certificates on a basis herein designated, "accumulation basis," by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the next rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year, herein designated "cost of insurance," and carrying the balance, if any, to his credit. The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this State, and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year, which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member. Except as specifically provided in its articles or laws or contracts no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit. If, after the first valuation, any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit, including the contribution for the year, the contribution shall be increased to cover his share of the losses. Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contribution especially created or required for such purpose. Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on such transfer shall be entitled to make such application of his credit as provided in the laws of the society. Certificates issued, rerated or adjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this State shall be valued on such basis, herein designated the "Tabular Basis." If on the first valuation under this article a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate, the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis.

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis, the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year, the deficiency shall be met for the year from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied to the society, as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws. Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified in its laws. If the laws of the society so provide, the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separately for such class as if in an independent society. The required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be mingled with the assets of other classes of the society.

A table showing the credits to individual members for each age and year of entry and showing opposite each credit the tabular reserve required on the whole life, or other plan of insurance, specified in the contract, according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this State and adopted by the society, shall be filed by the society with each annual report, and also be furnished to each member before July 1st of each year.

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for a transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract. No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis. For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculation may be made by the actuarial methods.

Nothing herein shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis, and the reserves on the tabular basis pursuant to its laws; nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in the contract and its laws; nor as making any such reserve or credits a liability in determining the legal solvency of the society. [Id.]

Art. 4852. Examination of domestic societies.—The Commissioner or any person he may appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any domestic society. He may employ assistants for the purpose of such examination, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society, and may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents and employes or other person in relation to the affairs, transactions and conditions of the society. The expense of such examination shall be paid by the society examined, upon statement furnished by the Commissioner, and the examination shall be made at least once in three years. Whenever after examination the Commissioner is satisfied that any domestic society has failed to comply with any provisions of this chapter, or is exceeding its powers, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, or is transacting business fraudulently; or whenever any domestic society, after the existence of one year or more, shall have a membership of less than four hundred, or shall determine to discontinue business, said Commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the Attorney General, who shall, if he deem the circumstances warrant, commence an action in quo warranto in a court of competent jurisdiction, and if it shall then appear upon the trial that such society should be closed, said society shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business and some person shall be appointed receiver of such society and shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, moneys and other assets of the society, and shall forthwith, under the direction of the court, proceed to close the affairs of the society, and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto. No such proceedings shall be commenced by the Attorney General against any such society until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society and a reasonable opportunity given to it, on a date named in said notice, to show cause why such proceeding should not be commenced. [Id.]

Art. 4853. Application for receiver, etc.—No application for injunction against or proceedings for the dissolution of or the appointment of a receiver for any such domestic society or branch thereof shall be entertained by any court in the State unless the same is made by the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 4854. Examination of foreign societies.—The Commissioner, or any person whom he may appoint, may examine any foreign society transacting or applying for admission to transact business in this State. The said Commissioner may employ assistants, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society, and may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents and employees and other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and conditions of the society. He may, in his discretion, accept in lieu of such examination the examination of the Insurance Department of the State, territory, district, province or country where such society is organized. The actual expense of examiners making such examination shall be paid by the society, upon statements furnished by the Commissioner. If any such society or its officers refuse to permit such examination or to comply with the provisions of the law relative thereto, the authority of such society to write new business in this State shall be suspended, or license refused, until satisfactory evidence is furnished the Commissioner relating to the condition and affairs of the society, and during such suspension the society shall not write any new business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4855. No adverse publications.—Pending, during, or after an examination or investigation of any such society, either domestic or foreign, the Commissioner shall make public no financial statement, report or finding, nor shall he permit to become public any financial statement, report or finding affecting the status, standing or rights of any such society until a copy thereof shall have been served upon such society, at its home office, nor until such society has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to answer any such financial statement or report of finding, and to make such showing in connection therewith as it may desire. [Id.]

Art. 4856. Revocation of license.—When the Commissioner on investigation is satisfied that any foreign society transacting business under this law has exceeded its powers, or has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter, or is conducting business fraudulently, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, he shall notify the society of his findings, and state in writing the grounds of his dissatisfaction, and after reasonable notice require said society, on a date named, to show cause why its license should not be revoked. If, on the date named in said notice, such objections have not been removed to the satisfaction of said Commissioner, or the society does not present good and sufficient reason why its authority to transact business in this State should not at that time be revoked, he may revoke the authority of the society to continue business in this State. All decisions and findings of said Commissioner made under the provisions of this article may be reviewed by proper proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 4857. Examination of certain societies.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect or apply to grand or subordinate lodges of Masons, Odd Fellows or Knights of Pythias (exclusive of the insurance department of the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias) and the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics (exclusive of their beneficiary degree or insurance branch) or societies which limit their membership to any one hazardous occupation nor to similar societies which do not issue insurance certificates nor to an association of local lodges of a society now doing business in this State which provides death benefits not exceeding five hundred dollars to any one person or disability benefits not exceeding three hundred dollars in any one year to pay one person or both, nor to any contracts of reinsurance business on such plan in this State nor to domestic societies which limit their membership to the employees of a particular city or town, designated firm, business house or corporation, nor to domestic lodges, orders or associations of a purely religious, charitable and benevolent description which do not provide for a death benefit of more than one hundred dollars or for disability benefits of more than one hundred and fifty dollars to any person in one year. The Commissioner may require from any society such information as will enable him to determine whether such society is exempt from the provisions of this law.

Any fraternal benefit society heretofore organized and incorporated and operating within the definition set forth in the first three articles of this chapter, providing for the benefits in case of death or disability resulting solely from accidents, but which does not obligate itself to pay death or sick benefits, may be licensed under the provisions of this law and shall have all the privileges and shall be subject to all the provisions and regulations of this law, except that the provisions of this law requiring medical examinations, valuations of benefit certificates and that the certificates shall specify the amount of benefits, shall not apply to such society. [Id.]

Art. 4858. Taxation.—Every fraternal benefit society organized or licensed under this chapter is hereby declared to be a charitable and benevolent institution, and all of its funds and property shall be exempt from all and every State, county, district, municipal and school tax, other than taxes on real estate and office equipment, when same is used for other than lodge purposes. [Id.]

Art. 4859. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to incorporated or unincorporated mutual relief or benefit, or burial associations, operating upon the assessment plan, whose business is confined to not more than one county in the State of Texas, or to a territory in two or more adjacent counties included within a radius of not more than fifty miles surrounding the city or town in which its principal office is to be located, which is designated in its charter and which at no time shall have a membership exceeding 2000 members in any one class or group, which are hereby denominated local mutual aid associations; provided that such associations are in no manner directly or indirectly connected, federated or associated with any such association and do not directly or indirectly contribute to the expense or support of any other such association, or to the officers, promoters, or managers thereof; and, provided, that no person or officer shall receive from said association any payment on account of organization or other expenses or salaries who is not a bona fide resident of the county or area in which such association is domiciled. The association above mentioned shall annually, on or before March 1, file a statement with the Commissioner of Insurance which shall be signed and sworn to by the president, secretary and treasurer, or the officer holding position corresponding thereto. Such a statement shall show whether the association has, during the preceding year, done any business outside of the county or area in which it is domiciled, and shall state whether the association has, during the preceding year, done any business outside of the county or area in which it is domiciled, and shall state whether or not said association is associated, federated or directly or indirectly connected with any other, and shall show what, if anything, has been contributed during the preceding year by said association, or the members, to any person or officer, or director thereof for salaries, commissions or promotion expenses, and the name and residence of the party or parties receiving the same. The Commissioner of Insurance may, at his option, and it shall be his duty, if not satisfied with said statement, to demand other and additional statements and examine the books, papers, and records of said association, either himself or by some other suitable person authorized by him. Should it appear to the Commissioner of Insurance that any such local mutual aid association is not carrying on business as set forth in this article, and is not entitled to the exemption therein set forth, such association shall be subject to and comply with all provisions of this chapter as a fraternal beneficiary association. Every such local association claiming to be entitled to the benefit of the exemption created by this article shall plainly state upon its certificates, applications and all advertising matter, in a conspicuous manner, that said association is a local mutual aid association or same shall be deemed subject to all provisions of this chapter concerning fraternal beneficiary associations.

Art. 4859a. Bond required.—The Commissioner of Insurance shall require the Secretary or other person having charge of the funds of every Local Mutual Aid Association doing business in this State to give bond in an amount not less than $1000.00 and $1.00 in addition thereto for each member over 1000 with some surety company having a permit to do business in this State or a sufficient personal surety bond.

Art. 4859b. Amount of Bond.—The secretary or other person having charge of the funds of every Local Mutual Aid Association which is now doing business in Texas or which may hereafter be organized shall be required to furnish either a surety company bond or a personal surety bond to be approved by the president of such Local Mutual Aid Association which bond shall at no time be less than $1000.00 and which at all times shall be for an amount not less than $1.00 for each member in good standing in said Local Mutual Aid Association.

Art. 4859c. Penalty for failure to give bond.—Every person organizing a Local Mutual Aid Association who shall fail to execute the bond required herein shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than $100.00 or more than $500.00 or by imprisonment of not less than thirty days or more than six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 4859d. Bond payable to the president.—Every such Local Mutual Aid Association shall have a president who shall be the presiding officer thereof and to whom the bond provided herein shall be payable for the use and benefit of the members. [Id. p. 672.]

Art. 4860. Who may incorporate.—Any number of persons, not less than twenty, a majority of whom shall be bona fide residents of this State, by complying with the provisions of this chapter, may become, together with others who may hereafter be associated with them or their successors, a body corporate for the purpose of carrying on the business of mutual insurance as herein provided. [Acts 1923, p. 392.]

Art. 4861. Articles of incorporation.—Any person proposing to form any such company shall subscribe and acknowledge articles of incorporation specifying:

1. The location of its principal, or home office, which shall be within this State.

2. The names and addresses of those composing the board of directors in which the management shall be vested until the first meeting of the members.

3. The names and places of residence of the incorporators. [Id.]

Art. 4862. Name of company.—No name shall be adopted by such company which does not contain the word "mutual" or which is so similar to any name already in use by any such existing corporation, company, or association, organized or doing business in the United States, as to be misleading. [Id.]

Art. 4863. Certificate of incorporation.—If such articles are prepared in accordance with this law, the Commissioner shall approve and file the same in his office and issue a certificate of incorporation to the company, which shall constitute their authority to commence business and issue policies as hereinafter provided. Such articles of incorporation may be amended in the manner provided for other corporations, or as may be provided in said certificate. [Id.]

Art. 4864. Powers and by-laws.—The company shall have legal existence from and after the date of issuance of said certificate and shall have such powers as are necessary or incident to the transaction of its business. The board of directors named in such articles may thereupon adopt by-laws, accept applications for insurance, and proceed to transact the business of such company. No insurance shall be put into force until the company has been licensed to transact insurance as provided by this chapter. The by-laws and any change or addition to the by-laws or any amendments thereto shall first be submitted to and be approved by the Commissioner before such changes or amendments shall be adopted by any company. [Id.]

Art. 4865. Kinds of insurance.—Any company organized under any provision of this chapter is empowered and authorized to write such kinds of insurance as may now or hereafter be written in Texas by Stock Fire Insurance Companies. [Id.]

Art. 4866. Conditions to obtain license.—No company organized under this chapter shall issue policies or transact any business of insurance unless it shall comply with the conditions following, nor until the Commissioner has, by formal license, authorized it to do so, which license he shall not issue until the corporation has complied with the following conditions:

1. It shall hold bona fide applications for insurance upon which it shall issue simultaneously or it shall have in force, at least twenty policies to at least twenty members for the same kind of insurance upon not less than two hundred separate risks, each within the maximum single risk described herein.

2. The "maximum single risk" shall not exceed twenty per cent of the admitted assets or three times the average risk, or one per cent of the insurance in force, whichever is the greater, any reinsurance taking effect simultaneously with the policy being deducted in determining such maximum single risk.

3. It shall have collected a premium upon each application the total of which premiums shall be held in cash or securities in which insurance companies are under Texas law authorized to invest and the total net assets shall be equal in case of fire insurance to not less than twice the maximum single risk assumed subject to one fire, or to one loss, nor less than ten thousand dollars, which amount shall be maintained and upon failure to do so, the company shall cease writing new business and immediately report such condition to the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4867. Corporations may contract with.—Any public or private corporation, board or association in this State or elsewhere may make applications, enter into agreements for and hold policies in any such mutual insurance company. Any officer, stockholder, trustee, or legal representative of any such corporation, board, association, or estate may be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such membership, but shall not be personally liable upon such contract of insurance by reason of so acting. The right of any corporation organized under the laws of this State to participate as a member of any such mutual insurance company is hereby declared to be incidental to the purpose for which such corporation is organized and as much granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [Id.]

Art. 4868. Votes of members.—Each member of the company shall be entitled to one vote, or to a number of votes based upon the insurance in force, the number of policies held, or the amount of premiums paid, as the by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Art. 4869. Provisions of policy.—The policies shall provide for a premium or premium deposit payable in cash and except as herein provided, for a contingent premium at least equal to the premium or premium deposit. Such company may issue a policy without a contingent premium while it has a surplus equal to the capital required of a domestic stock insurance company transacting the same kind of insurance, and in no event shall the holder of any such policy be liable for a greater amount than the premium or premium deposit expressed in the policy. If at any time the admitted assets are less than the unearned premium, reserve and other liabilities, the company shall immediately collect upon policies with a contingent premium a sufficient proportionate part thereof to restore such assets. No member shall be liable for any part of such contingent premium in excess of the amount demanded within one year after the termination of the policy. The Commissioner may, by written order, direct that proceedings to restore such assets be deferred during the time fixed in such order. [Id.]

Art. 4870. May advance money.—Any director, officer or member of such company, or any other person, may advance to such company, any money necessary for the purpose of its business or to enable it to comply with any requirements of the law and such money and interest thereon as may have been agreed upon, not exceeding seven per cent per annum shall be payable only out of the surplus remaining after providing for all reserve and other liabilities and shall not otherwise be a liability or claim against the company, or any of its assets. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company. The amount of such advance shall be reported in each annual statement. [Id.]

Art. 4871. Reserves.—Such company shall maintain unearned premium and other reserves separately for each kind of insurance, upon the same basis as that required of domestic stock insurance companies transacting the same kind of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4872. Foreign mutual company.—Any such mutual insurance company organized outside of this State and authorized to transact the business of insurance on the mutual plan in any State, district or territory shall be admitted and licensed to transact the kinds of insurance authorized by its charter or articles to the extent and with the powers and privileges specified in this law when it shall be solvent under this law and shall have complied with the following requirements:

1. Filed with the Commissioner a copy of its by-laws certified to by its secretary.

2. Filed with the Commissioner a certified copy of its charter or articles.

3. Appointed the Commissioner its agent for the service of process in any action, suit or proceedings in any court of this State, which authority shall continue as long as any liability shall remain outstanding in this State.

4. Filed a financial statement under oath, in such form as the Commissioner may require, and have complied with other provisions of law applicable to the filing of papers and furnishing information by stock companies on application for authority to transact the same kinds of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4873. Subject to general laws.—Each such mutual insurance company, whether organized within or without this State, shall be subject except as otherwise provided by law to all general provisions of law applicable to stock insurance companies transacting the same kinds of insurance which relate to annual reports and renewal of licenses, investments, valued policies, policy forms, reciprocal or retaliatory laws, insolvency and liquidation, publication of defamatory statements, and shall make its annual report in such form and submit to such examinations and furnish such information as may be required by the Commissioner. As far as practicable such examinations of mutual insurance companies organized outside of this State shall be made in co-operation with the insurance departments of other States. The forms of annual report shall be such as are in general use throughout the United States. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any company or association incorporated or organized hereunder shall be exempt from the provisions of the General Laws of this State, heretofore or hereafter enacted governing the incorporation, organization, regulation and operation of companies or organizations writing insurance in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4874. Re-insurance.—Any such mutual insurance company organized or admitted to transact insurance in this State may by policy, treaty or other agreement cede to, or accept from any insurance company or insurer re-insurance upon the whole or any part of any risk which reinsurance shall be without contingent liability or participation or membership unless the contract provides otherwise, and shall not be effected with any company or insurer disapproved therefor by written order of the Commissioner filed in his office. [Id.]

Art. 4875. Taxes and fees.—Each such company, whether within or without this State shall be subject to such taxes and fees as are now provided by law for such mutual companies. The tax shall be paid upon the gross premiums received for direct insurance upon property, or risks located in this State, deducting amounts paid for re-insurance, premiums upon policies not taken, premiums returned on cancelled policies and any refund or return made to the policy-holders other than for losses. [Id.]

Art. 4876. Appointment of Commission.—The "State Insurance Commission" shall be composed of the Commissioner of Insurance, who shall be chairman thereof, and two commissioners who shall be appointed by the Governor by and with the consent of the senate, subject to removal as provided by law for the removal of State officers. An appointive member shall be appointed biennially for a term of two years ending February 1st. [Acts 1913, p. 195.]

Art. 4877. Secretary and Fire Marshal.—One of the appointed members thereof shall be selected by the Commission as its secretary, who shall perform the duties which shall appertain to that position, and whose official title shall be "Secretary of the State Insurance Commission;" the other appointed member thereof shall be selected by said Commission as Fire Marshal of the State Insurance Commission, and his official title shall be "Fire Marshal of the State Insurance Commission." The members so selected as Secretary and Fire Marshal shall receive no compensation for filling their respective positions, other than their salaries as members of the State Insurance Commission, and shall perform the duties of those respective positions at the will of the Commission, but their expenses incurred in performing the duties of these positions shall be paid as provided in this law. [Id.]

Art. 4878. Commission shall fix rates.—The State Insurance Commission shall have the sole and exclusive power and authority and it shall be its duty to prescribe, fix, determine and promulgate the rates of premiums to be charged and collected by fire insurance companies transacting business in this State. Said Commission shall also have authority to alter or amend any and all such rates of premiums so fixed and determined and adopted by it, and to raise or lower the same, or any part thereof, as herein provided. Said Commission shall have authority to employ clerical help, inspectors, experts and other assistants, and to incur such other expenses as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this law. Such expenses, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, shall not exceed in the aggregate, for any fiscal year, the sum of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars. Said Commission shall ascertain as soon as practicable the annual fire loss in this State; obtain, make and maintain a record thereof and collect such data with respect thereto as will enable said Commission to classify the fire losses of this State, the causes thereof, and the amount of premiums collected therefor for each class of risks and the amount paid thereon, in such manner as will aid in determining equitable insurance rates, methods of reducing such fire losses and reducing the insurance rates of the State, or sub-divisions of the State. [Acts 1917, p. 136.]

Art. 4879. Maximum rate fixed.—A maximum rate of premiums to be charged or collected by all companies transacting in this State the business of fire insurance, as herein defined, shall be exclusively fixed and determined and promulgated by the State Insurance Commission, and no such fire insurance company shall charge or collect any premium or other compensation for or on account of any policy or contract of fire insurance as herein defined in excess of the maximum rate as herein provided for, but may write insurance at a less rate than the maximum rate as herein provided for. When insurance is written for less than the maximum rate, such lesser rate shall be applicable to all risks of the same character situated in the same community. [Acts 1913, p. 195.]

Art. 4880. No company exempt.—Every fire insurance company, every marine insurance company, every fire and marine insurance company, every fire and tornado insurance company, and each and every insurance company of every kind and name issuing a contract or policy of insurance, or contracts or policies of insurance against loss by fire on property within this State, whether such property be fixed or movable, stationary or in transit, or whether such property is consigned or billed for shipment within or beyond the boundary of this State or to some foreign country, whether such company is organized under the laws of this State or under the laws of any other State, territory or possession of the United States, or foreign country, or by authority of the Federal government, now holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate and to transact business thereunder, upon condition that it consents to the terms and provisions of this chapter and that it agrees to transact business in this State, subject thereto; it being intended that every contract or policy of insurance against the hazard of fire shall be issued in accordance with the terms and provisions of this chapter, and the company issuing the same governed thereby, regardless of the kind and character of such property and whether the same is fixed or movable, stationary or in transit, including the shore end of all marine risks insured against loss by fire. [Id.]

Art. 4881. Statements and books.—Said Commission is authorized and empowered to require sworn statements for any period of time from any insurance company affected by this law, and from any of its directors, officers, representatives, general agents, State agents, special agents and local agents of the rates and premiums collected for fire insurance on each class of risks, on all property in this State and of the causes of fire, if such be known, if they are in possession of such data, and information, or can obtain it at a reasonable expense; and said Commission is empowered to require such statements showing all necessary facts and information to enable said Commission to make, amend and maintain the general basis schedules provided for in this law and the rules and regulations for applying same and to determine reasonable and proper maximum specific rates and to determine and assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this law. The said Commission shall also have the right, at its discretion, either personally, or by some one duly authorized by it, to visit the office whether general, local or otherwise, of any insurance company doing business in this State, and the home office of said company outside of this State, if there be such, and the office of any officers, directors, general agents, State agents, local agents or representatives of such company, and there require such company, its officers, agents or representatives to produce for inspection by said Commission or any of its duly authorized representatives all books, records and papers of such company or such agents and representatives; and the said Commission or its duly authorized agents or representatives shall have the right to examine such books and papers and make or cause to be made copies thereof; and shall have the right to take testimony under oath with reference thereto, and to compel the attendance of witnesses for such purpose. Said Commission shall be further empowered to require the fire insurance companies transacting business in this State or any of them, to furnish said Commission with any and all data which may be in their possession, either jointly or severally, including maps, tariffs, inspection reports and any and all data affecting fire insurance risks in this State, or in any portion thereof and said Commission shall be empowered to require any two or more of said companies, or any joint agent or representative of them, to turn over any and all such data in their possession, or any part thereof, to said Commission for its use in carrying out the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4882. Schedule and report.—The rates of premium fixed by said Commission in pursuance of the provision of this law shall be at all times reasonable and the schedules thereof made and promulgated by said Commission shall be in such form as will in the judgment of the Commission, most clearly and in detail disclose the rate so fixed and determined by said Commission to be charged and collected for policies of fire insurance. Said Commission may employ and use any facts obtainable from and concerning fire insurance companies transacting business in this State, showing their expense and charges for fire insurance premiums for any period or periods said Commission may deem advisable, which in their opinion will enable them to devise and fix and determine reasonable rates of premium for fire insurance. The said Commission in making and publishing schedules of the rates fixed and determined by it shall show all charges, credits, terms, privileges and conditions which in any wise affect such rates, and copies of all such schedules shall be furnished by said Commission to any and all companies affected by this law applying therefor, and the same shall be furnished to any citizens of this State applying therefor, upon the payment of the actual cost thereof. No rate or rates fixed or determined by the Commission shall take effect until it shall have entered an order or orders fixing and determining same, and shall give notice thereof to all fire insurance companies affected by this law, authorized to transact business in the State. The State Insurance Commission, and any inspector or other agent or employee thereof, who shall inspect any risk for the purpose of enabling the Commission to fix and determine the reasonable rate to be charged thereon, shall furnish to the owner of such risk at the date of such inspection, a copy of the inspection report, showing all defects that may operate as charges to increase the insurance rate. [Id.]

Art. 4883. Analysis of rate.—When a policy of fire insurance shall be issued by any company transacting the business of fire insurance in this State, such company shall furnish the policyholder with a written or printed analysis of the rate or premium charged for such policy, showing the items of charge and credit which determine the rate, unless such policyholder has theretofore been furnished with such analysis of such rate. All schedules of rates promulgated by said Commission shall be open to the public, and every local agent of such fire insurance company shall have and exhibit to the public copies of such schedules covering all risks upon which he is authorized to write insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4884. Change or limit of rate.—Said Commission shall have full power and authority to alter, amend, modify or change any rate fixed and determined by it on thirty days' notice, or to prescribe that any such rate or rates shall be in effect for a limited time, and said Commission shall also have full power and authority to prescribe reasonable rules whereby in cases where no rate of premium shall have been fixed and determined by the Commission, for certain risks or classes of risks, policies may be written thereon at rates to be determined by the company. Such company or companies shall immediately report to said Commission such risk so written, and the rates collected therefor, and such rates shall always be subject to review by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4885. Petition for change.—Any such fire insurance company shall have the right at any time to petition the Commission for an order changing or modifying any rate or rates fixed and determined by the Commission, and the Commission shall consider such petition in the manner provided in this law and enter such order thereon as it may deem just and equitable. [Id.]

Art. 4886. Reducing hazard.—The Commission shall have full authority and power to give each city, town, village or locality credit for each and every hazard they may reduce or entirely remove, and also for all added fire fighting equipment, increased police protection, or any other equipment or improvement that has a tendency to reduce the fire hazard of any such city, town, village or locality, and also to give credit for a good fire record made by any city, town, village or locality. Said Commission shall also have the power and authority to compel any company to give any or all policyholders credit for any and all hazards that said policyholder or holders may reduce or remove. Said credit shall be in proportion to such reduction or removal of such hazard and said company or companies shall return to such policyholder or holders such proportional part of the unearned premium charged for such hazard that may be reduced or removed. [Id.]

Art. 4887. Revising rates.—The Commission shall have authority after having given reasonable notice, not exceeding thirty days, of its intention to do so, to alter, amend or revise any rates of premium fixed and determined by it in any schedules of such rates promulgated by it, and to give reasonable notice of such alteration, amendment or revision to the public, or to any company or companies affected thereby. Such altered, amended or revised rates shall be the rates thereafter to be charged and collected by all fire insurance companies affected by this law. No policy in force prior to the taking effect of such changes or amendments shall be affected thereby, unless there shall be a change in the hazard of the risk, necessitating a change in the rate applicable to such risk, in which event such policy shall be subject to the new rates. [Id.]

Art. 4888. Uniform policies.—The Commission shall make, promulgate and establish uniform policies of insurance applicable to the various risks of this State, copies of which uniform policies shall be furnished each company now or hereafter doing business in this State. After such uniform policies shall have been established and promulgated and furnished the respective companies doing business in this State, such companies shall, within sixty days after the receipt of such forms of policies, adopt and use said form or forms and no other; also all companies which may commence business in this State after the adoption and promulgation of such forms of policies, shall adopt and use the same and no other forms of policies. [Id.]

Art. 4889. Standard forms.—The Commission shall prescribe all standard forms, clauses and endorsements used on or in connection with insurance policies. All other forms, clauses and endorsements placed upon insurance policies shall be placed thereon subject to the approval of the Commission. The Commission shall have authority in its discretion to change, alter or amend such form or forms of policy or policies, and such clauses and endorsements used in connection therewith, upon giving notice. [Id.]

Art. 4890. Lien on insured property.—Any provision in any policy of insurance issued by any company subject to the provisions of this law to the effect that if said property is encumbered by a lien of any character or shall after the issuance of such policy become encumbered by a lien of any character then such encumbrance shall render such policy void shall be of no force and effect. Any such provision within or placed upon any such policy shall be null and void. [Id.]

Art. 4891. Co-insurance clauses.—No company subject to the provisions of this law may issue any policy or contract of insurance covering property in this State, which shall contain any clause or provision requiring the assured to take out or maintain a larger amount of insurance than that expressed in such policy, nor in any way providing that the assured shall be liable as a co-insurer with the company issuing the policy for any part of the loss or damage which may be caused by fire to the property described in such policy, and any such clause or provision shall be null and void, and of no effect. The co-insurance clauses and provisions may be inserted in policies written upon cotton, grain or other products in process of marketing, shipping, storing or manufacture. [Id.]

Art. 4892. Complaints of rates or orders.—Any citizen or number of citizens of this State or any policyholder or policyholders, or any insurance company affected by this law, or any Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, or other civic organization, or the civil authorities of any town, city, or village, shall have the right to file a petition with the State Insurance Commission, setting forth any cause of complaint that they may have as to any order made by this Commission, or any rate fixed and determined by the Commission, and they shall have the right to offer evidence in support of the allegations of such petition by witnesses, or by depositions, or by affidavits; upon the filing of such petition, the party complained of, if other than the Commission, shall be notified by the Commission of the filing of such petition and a copy thereof furnished the party or parties, company or companies, of whom complaint is made, and the said petition shall be set down for a hearing at a time not exceeding thirty days after the filing of such petition and the Commission shall hear and determine said petition; but it shall not be necessary for the petitioners or any one of them to be present to present the cause to the Commission, but they shall consider the testimony of all witnesses, whether such witnesses testify in person or by depositions, or by affidavits, and if it be found that the complaint made in such petition is a just one, then the matter complained of shall be corrected or required to be corrected by said Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4893. Hearing of protests.—The Commission shall give the public and all insurance companies to be affected by its orders or decisions, reasonable notice thereof, not exceeding thirty days, and an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect to the same; which notice to the public shall be published in one or more daily papers of the State, and such notice to any insurance company to be affected thereby shall be mailed addressed to the State or general agent of such company, if such address be known to the Commission, or if not known, then such letter shall be addressed to some local agent of such company, or if the address of a local agent be unknown to the Commission, then by publication in one or more of the daily papers of the State, and the Commission shall hear all protests or complaints from any insurance company or any citizen or any city, or town, or village or any commercial or civic organization as to the inadequacy or unreasonableness of any rates fixed by it or approved by it, or as to the inadequacy or unreasonableness of any general basis schedules promulgated by it or the injustice of any order or decision by it, and if any insurance company, or other person, or commercial or civic organization, or any city, town or village, which shall be interested in any such order or decision, shall be dissatisfied with any regulation, schedule or rate adopted by such Commission, such company or person, commercial or civic organization, city, town or village shall have the right, within thirty days after the making of such regulation or order, or rate, or schedule or within thirty days after the hearing above provided for, to bring an action against said Commission in the district court of Travis county to have such regulation or order or schedule or rate vacated or modified; and shall set forth in a petition therefor the principal grounds of objection to any or all of such regulations, schedules, rates or orders. In any such suit the issue shall be formed and the controversy tried and determined as in other civil cases. The court may set aside and vacate or annul any or all or any part of any regulation, schedule, order or rate promulgated or adopted by said Commission, which shall be found by the court to be unreasonable, unjust, excessive or inadequate, without disturbing others. No injunction, interlocutory order or decree suspending or restraining directly or indirectly the enforcement of any schedule, rate, order or regulation of said Commission shall be granted. In such suit, the court, by interlocutory order, may authorize the writing and acceptance of fire insurance policies at any rate which in the judgment of the court is fair and reasonable, during the pending of such suit, upon condition that the party to such suit in whose favor the said interlocutory order of said court may be, shall execute and file with the Commissioner of Insurance a good and sufficient bond to be first approved by said court, conditioned that the party giving said bond will abide the final judgment of said court and will pay to the Commissioner of Insurance whatever difference in the rate of insurance, it may be finally determined to exist between the rates as fixed by the State Insurance Commission complained of in such suit, and the rate finally determined to be fair and reasonable by the court in said suit, and the said Commissioner of Insurance, when he receives such difference in money, shall transmit the same to the parties entitled thereto.

Whenever any action shall be brought by any company under any provision of this article within said period of thirty days, no penalties nor forfeitures shall attach or accrue on account of the failure of the plaintiff to comply with the orders, schedules, rates or regulations sought to be vacated in such action until the final determination of the same.

Either party to any such action, if dissatisfied with the judgment or decree of said court, may appeal therefrom as in other civil cases. No action shall be brought in any court of the United States to set aside any orders, rates, schedules or regulations made by said Commission under the provisions of this law until all of the remedies provided herein shall have been exhausted by the party complaining. [Id.]

Art. 4894. Rebating or discrimination.—No company shall engage or participate in the insuring or re-insuring of any property in this State against loss or damage by fire except in compliance with the terms and provisions of this law; nor shall any such company knowingly write insurance at any lesser rate than the rates herein provided for, and it shall be unlawful for any company so to do, unless it shall thereafter file an analysis of same with the Commission, and it shall be unlawful for any company, or its officers, directors, general agents, State agents, special agents, local agents, or its representatives, to grant or contract for any special favor or advantages in the dividends or other profits to come thereon, or in commissions in the dividends or other profits to accrue thereon, or in commissions or division of commission, or any position or any valuable consideration or any inducement not specified in the policy contract of insurance; nor shall such company give, sell or purchase, offer to give, sell or purchase, directly or indirectly as an inducement to insure or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, partnership or individual, or any dividends or profits accrued or to accrue thereon, or anything of value whatsoever, not specified in the policy. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a company from sharing its profits with its policyholders, if such agreement as to profit-sharing shall be placed on or in the face of the policy, and such profit-sharing shall be uniform and shall not discriminate between individuals or between classes. No part of the profit shall be paid until the expiration of the policy. Any company, or any of its officers, directors, general agents, State agents, special agents, local agents or its representatives, doing any of the acts in this article prohibited, shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination. If any agent or company shall issue a policy without authority, and any policyholder holding such policy shall sustain a loss or damage thereunder, said company or companies shall be liable to the policyholder thereunder, in the same manner and to the same extent as if said company had been authorized to issue said policies, although the company issued said policy in violation of the provisions of this chapter. But this shall not be construed to give any company the right to issue any contract or policy of insurance other than as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4895. Not retroactive.—The provisions of this law shall not deal with the collection of premiums, but each company shall be permitted to make such rules and regulations as it may deem just between the company, its agents, and its policyholders; and no bona fide extension of credit shall be construed as a discrimination, or in violation of the provisions of this chapter. All policies heretofore issued which provide that said policies shall be void for non-payment of premiums at a certain specified time, shall be and the same are in full force and effect, provided, that the company or any of its agents have accepted the premium on said policies after the expiration of the dates named in said provisions fixing the date of payment.

Art. 4896. Duty of Fire Marshal.—The State Fire Marshal, at the discretion of the board, and upon the request of the mayor of any city or village, or the chief of a fire department of any city or village, or any fire marshal where a fire occurs within such city or village, or of a county or a district judge, or of a sheriff or county attorney of any county where a fire occurs within the district or county of the officers making such request, or of any fire insurance company, or its general, State or special agent, interested in a loss, or of a policyholder sustaining a loss, or upon the direction of the Insurance Commission shall forthwith investigate at the place of such fire before loss can be paid, the origin, cause and circumstances of any fire occurring within this State, whereby property has been destroyed or damaged, and shall ascertain if possible whether the same was the result of any accident, carelessness or design, and shall make a written report thereof to the Commission. The State Fire Marshal shall have the power to administer oaths, take testimony, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents. When, in his opinion, further investigation is necessary, he shall take or cause to be taken the testimony on oath of all persons supposed to be cognizant of any facts, or to have knowledge in relation to the matter under investigation, and shall cause the same to be reduced to writing, and if he shall be of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with arson, or with attempt to commit arson, or of conspiracy to defraud or criminal conduct in connection with such, he shall arrest or cause to be arrested such person, and shall furnish to the proper prosecuting attorney all evidence secured, together with the names of witnesses and all information obtained by him, including a copy of all material testimony taken in the case, and it shall be the duty of the State Fire Marshal to assist in the prosecution of all such complaints filed by him. All investigations held by or under the direction of the State Fire Marshal may, in his discretion, be private and persons other than those required to be present may be excluded from the place where such investigation is held, and the witnesses may be kept separate from each other and not allowed to communicate with such others until they have been examined; and all testimony taken in an investigation under the provisions of this law may, at the election of the State Fire Marshal, be withheld from the public. [Acts 1917, p. 137.]

Art. 4897. Authority of Fire Marshal.—The State Fire Marshal is hereby authorized to enter at any time any buildings or premises where fire occurred or is in progress, or any place contiguous thereto, for the purpose of investigating the cause, origin and circumstances of such fire. The State Fire Marshal, upon complaint of any person, shall, at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examination, enter into and upon all buildings and premises within this State, and it shall be his duty to enter upon and make or cause to be entered upon and made, at any time, a thorough examination of mercantile, manufacturing and public buildings, and all places of public amusement, or where public gatherings are held, together with the premises belonging thereto. Whenever he shall find any building or other structure which for want of repair or by reason of age or dilapidated condition, or which for any cause is liable to fire, and which is so situated as to endanger other buildings or property, or is so occupied that fire would endanger persons or property therein, and whenever he shall find an improper or dangerous arrangement of stoves, ranges, furnaces or other heating appliances of any kind whatsoever, including chimneys, flues and pipes with which the same may be connected, or dangerous arrangement or lighting systems or devices, or dangerous storage of explosives, compounds, petroleum, gasoline, kerosene, dangerous chemicals, vegetable products, ashes, combustible, inflammable and refuse materials, or other conditions which may be dangerous in character, or liable to cause or promote fire, or create conditions dangerous to firemen or occupants, he shall order the same to be removed or remedied, and such order shall be forthwith complied with by the occupant or owner of such building or premises, and the State Fire Marshal is hereby authorized, when necessary, to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the necessary writs or orders to enforce the provisions of this article and in such case he shall not be required to give bond. [Id.]

Art. 4898. Acting Fire Marshal.—If for any reason the State Fire Marshal is unable to make any required investigation in person, he may designate the fire marshal of such city or town or some other suitable person to act for him; and such person so designated shall have the same authority as is herein given the State Fire Marshal with reference to the particular matter to be investigated by him, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the State Insurance Commission may allow. If the investigation of a fire is made at the request of an insurance company, or at the request of a policyholder sustaining loss, or at the request of the mayor, town clerk or chief of the fire department of any city, village or town in which the fire occurred, then the expenses of the Fire Marshal, clerical expenses, witnesses and officers fees incident and necessary to such investigation shall be paid by such insurance company, or such policyholder of such city or town as the case may be, otherwise the expenses of such investigation are to be paid as part of the expenses of the State Insurance Commission. The party or parties, company or companies, requesting such investigation, shall before such investigation is commenced deposit with the State Insurance Commission, an amount of money in the judgment of said Commission sufficient to defray the expenses of said Fire Marshal in conducting such investigation. [Acts 1913, p. 198.]

Art. 4899. Result of investigation.—No action taken by the State Fire Marshal shall affect the rights of any policyholder or any company in respect to a loss by reason of any fire so investigated; nor shall the result of any such investigation be given in evidence upon the trial of any civil action upon such policy, nor shall any statement made by any insurance company, its officers, agents or adjusters, nor by any policy holder, or any one representing him, made with reference to the origin, cause or supposed origin or cause of a fire to the Fire Marshal or to any one acting for him, or under his direction, be admitted in evidence or made the basis for any civil action for damages. [Id.]

Art. 4900. To cancel authority.—If any insurance company affected by the provisions of this law shall violate any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner shall, by and with the consent of the Attorney General, cancel its certificate of authority to transact business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4901. Revocation of certificate.—The Commissioner of Insurance, upon ascertaining that any insurance company or officer, agent or representative thereof, has violated any provision of this chapter, may, at his discretion, and with the consent and approval of the Attorney General, revoke the certificate of authority of such company, officer, agent or representative; but such revocation of any certificate shall in no manner affect the liability of such company, officer, agent or representative to the infliction of any other penalty provided by law. Any action, decision or determination of the Commissioner and the Attorney General in such cases shall be subject to the review of the courts of this State as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 4902. Tax on premiums.—The State of Texas shall assess and collect an additional one and one-fourth per cent of the gross fire insurance premiums of all fire insurance companies doing business in this State, according to the reports made to the Commissioner as required by law; and said taxes when collected shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer to be expended during the current year, or so much thereof as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. Such expenditures, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of two hundred and twelve thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, the State Insurance Commission shall reduce the assessment for the succeeding year so that the amount produced and paid into the State Treasury, together with said unexpended balance in the Treasury, will not exceed the amount appropriated for the current year, to pay all necessary expenses of maintaining the Commission, which funds shall be paid out upon requisition made out and filed by a majority of the Commission, when the Comptroller shall issue warrants therefor. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 105.]

Art. 4903. Exceptions.—This law shall not apply to purely mutual or to purely profit-sharing fire insurance companies incorporated or unincorporated under the laws of this State, and carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their property and not for profit; nor to purely co-operative inter-insurance and reciprocal exchange carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their property and not for profit. [Id.]

Art. 4904. Compensation of Commission.—The necessary compensation of experts, clerical force, and other persons employed by said Commission, and all necessary traveling expenses, and such other expenses as may be necessary, incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid by warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the State Treasurer upon the order of said Commission. The total amount of all salaries and said other expenses shall not exceed the sum produced by the assessment on the gross premiums of all fire insurance companies doing business in this State. [Acts 1917, p. 136.]

Art. 4905. Additional compensation.—The necessary compensation of experts, the clerical force and other persons employed by the Commission to carry out the purposes of the succeeding articles of this chapter, and all necessary traveling expenses and such other expenses as may be necessarily incurred in carrying out such provisions, shall be paid as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1923, p. 408.]

Art. 4906. Tax on gross premiums.—To defray the expense of carrying out the provisions of the succeeding articles of this chapter, there shall be annually assessed and collected by the State of Texas from each company and association writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State, in addition to all other taxes now imposed or which may hereafter be imposed by law, a tax of three-fifths of one per cent of the gross premiums collected by such company or association during the preceding year, under workmen's compensation insurance policies written by said companies and associations covering risks in this State, according to the reports made to the Commissioner as required by law. Said taxes when collected shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer to be expended during the current year in carrying out such provisions. Such expenditures, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, hereunder, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum assessed and collected from said companies and associations; and, should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, it shall be transferred by the State Treasurer to the credit of the general revenue of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4907. Workmen's compensation rates.—The said Commission shall make, establish and promulgate all classifications of hazards and rates of premium respectively applicable to each, contemplated and provided for by Chapter 18 of this title. Said commission shall publish all rates promulgated by it as affecting compensation insurance in this State, and said rates, or any change therein, shall be published fifteen days before they become effective and in force. [Id.]

Art. 4908. To prescribe standard forms.—The Commission shall prescribe standard policy forms to be used by all companies or associations writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State. No company or association authorized to write workmen's compensation insurance in this State shall, except as hereinafter provided for, use any classifications of hazards, rates of premium, or policy forms other than those made, established and promulgated and prescribed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4909. To assemble data.—The Commission shall assemble all necessary data for its use in establishing classifications of hazards and making and promulgating premium rates. [Id.]

Art. 4910. May require statements.—The Commission may require sworn statements from any insurance company or association affected by this law showing the payroll reported to it and incurred losses by classifications and such other information which in the judgment of the Commission may be necessary in determining proper classifications, rates and forms. The Commission shall prescribe the necessary forms for such statements and reports, having due regard to the methods and forms in use in other States for similar purpose in order that uniformity of statistics may not be disturbed. [Id.]

Art. 4911. Experience rating.—The Commission shall determine hazards by classes and fix such rates of premium applicable to the payroll in each of such classes as shall be adequate to the risks to which they apply and consistent with the maintenance of solvency and the creation of adequate reserves and a reasonable surplus, and for such purpose may adopt a system of schedule and experience rating in such manner as to take account of the peculiar hazard of each individual risk, provided such rate shall be fair and reasonable and not confiscatory as to any class of insurance carriers authorized by law to write workmen's compensation insurance in this State. To insure the adequacy and reasonableness of rates, the Commission shall take into consideration an experience gathered from a territory sufficiently broad to include the varying conditions of the industries in which the classifications are involved, and over a period sufficiently long to insure that the rates determined therefrom shall be just, reasonable, and adequate rates. The Commission shall exchange information and experience data with the rate-making bodies of other States and shall consult any national organization or association now or hereafter existing for the purpose of assembling data for the making of compensation insurance rate. [Id.]

Art. 4912. Hearing before Commission.—Any policyholder, insurance company, or association shall have the right to a hearing before the Commission on any grievance occasioned by the promulgation of any classification, rate or policy form by the Commission; such hearing to be held in conformity with rules to be prescribed by the Commission. No hearing shall suspend the operation of any classification, rate or policy form unless the Commission shall so order. [Id.]

Art. 4913. Uniform policy.—The Commission shall prescribe a uniform policy for workmen's compensation insurance and no company or association shall thereafter use any other form in writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State, provided that any company or association may use any form of endorsement appropriate to its plan of operation, if such endorsement shall be first submitted to and approved by the Commission, and any contract or agreement not written into the application and policy shall be void and of no effect and in violation of the provisions of this chapter, and shall be sufficient cause for revocation of license to write workmen's compensation insurance within this State. [Id.]

Art. 4914. Adequate reserves.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the operation hereunder of any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange, or Lloyd's association, to prohibit any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal, or inter-insurance exchange or Lloyd's association, issuing participating policies, provided no dividend to subscribers under the Workmen's Compensation Act shall take effect until the same has been approved by the Commission. No such dividend shall be approved until adequate reserve has been provided, said reserves to be computed on the same basis for all classes of companies or associations operating under this chapter, as prescribed under the insurance laws of the State of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 4915. Commission to make rules.—The Commission is hereby empowered to make and enforce all such reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this law as are necessary to carry out its provisions. [Id.]

Art. 4916. Scope of law.—No provision of the Act creating the State Insurance Commission, with regard to the fixing and promulgation of rates for fire insurance or the prescribing of fire insurance policies and forms shall be applicable to the fixing of compensation insurance classifications or the making of compensation insurance rates or the prescribing of compensation insurance policy forms; but the provisions of this Act shall be construed and applied independently of any other law or laws, or parts of laws, having to do with the matter of insurance rates and forms or of fixing the duties of the State Insurance Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4917. Definitions.—The words "Company" and "Association" used in this Act mean the Texas Employers Insurance

Association, or any stock company, or any mutual company, or any reciprocal, or any inter-insurance exchange, or Lloyd's association authorized to write Workmen's Compensation Insurance in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4918. Cancellation of license.—The Commissioner shall cancel the license of any insurance company or association of persons to transact workmen's compensation insurance business in this State upon a second conviction of any officer or representative of such company or association for a violation of any provision of this chapter relating to such business. [Id.]

Art. 4919. [4862] What may be insured.—It shall be lawful for any insurance company doing business in this State under the proper certificate of authority, except a life or health insurance company, to insure houses, buildings and all other kinds of property against loss or damage by fire; to take all kinds of insurance on goods, merchandise, or other property in the course of transportation, whether on land or water, or any vessel afloat, wherever the same may be; to lend money on bottomry or respondentia; to cause itself to be insured against any loss or risk it may have incurred in the course of its business and upon the interest which it may have in any property by means of any loan or loans which it may have on bottomry or respondentia; and generally to do and perform all other matters and things proper to promote these objects; insure automobiles or other motor vehicles, whether stationery or being operated under their own power, against all or any of the risks of fire, lightning, wind storms, hail storms, tornadoes, cyclones, explosions, transportation by land or water, theft and collisions, upon filing with the Commissioner notification of their purpose to do so. [Acts 1875, p. 34; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 406; Acts 1913, p. 209.]

Art. 4920. [4865] [3077] Reduction of capital stock.—Whenever the joint stock of any fire, fire and marine, or marine insurance company of this State becomes impaired, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit the said company to reduce its capital stock and par value of its shares in proportion to the extent of impairment. In fixing such reduced capital, no sum exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars shall be deducted from the assets and property on hand, which shall be retained as surplus assets. No part of such assets and property shall be distributed to the stockholders, nor shall the capital stock of a company in any case be reduced to an amount less than one

Art. 4921. [4864] [3078] Capital stock to be made good.—Any fire, marine or inland insurance company having received notice from the Commissioner to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days shall forthwith call upon its stockholders for such amounts as shall make its capital equal to the amount fixed by the charter of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4922. [4865] [3079] Stockholder failing to pay.—If any stockholder of such company shall neglect or refuse to pay the amount so called for, after notice personally given, or by advertisement for such time and in such manner as said Commissioner shall approve, it shall be lawful for said company to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by such stockholder, and in lieu thereof to issue a new certificate for such number of shares as such defaulting stockholders may be entitled to in the proportion that the ascertained value of the funds of said company may be found to bear to the original capital of said company; the value of such shares for which new certificates are issued shall be ascertained under the direction of said Commissioner, and the company shall pay for the fractional parts of shares. [Id.]

Art. 4923. [4866] [3080] New Stock.—It shall be lawful for such company to create new stock and dispose of the same and to issue new certificates therefor, to any amount sufficient to make up the original capital of the company. [Id.]

Art. 4924. [4869] [3076] Holding real estate.—No fire, marine or inland insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall purchase or hold any real estate, except—

1. Such as shall be requisite for its convenient accommodation in the transaction of its business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for money due.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the legitimate business of the company or for money due.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales under judgments, decrees or mortgages obtained or made for such debts.

All lands purchased or held in violation of this article shall be forfeited to the State. [Id.]

Art. 4925. [4870] Shall file bond.—Every fire insurance company, not organized under the laws of this State, applying for a certificate of authority to transact any kind of insurance in this State, shall, before obtaining such certificate, file with the Commissioner a bond, with good and sufficient surety or sureties, to be approved by and to be payable to the Commissioner and his successors in office, in a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of its premiums collected from citizens or upon property in this State during the preceding calendar year, as shown by its annual report for such year. The bond in no case shall be less than ten thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars, conditioned that said company will pay all its lawful obligations to citizens of this State. Such bonds shall be subject to successive suits by citizens of this State so long as any part of the same shall not be exhausted, and the same shall be kept in force unimpaired until all claims of such citizens arising out of obligations of said company have been fully satisfied. Such bonds shall provide that in the event the company shall become insolvent or cease to transact business in this State at any time when it has outstanding policies of insurance in favor of citizens of this State, or upon property in this State, the Commissioner shall have power, after having given ten days notice to the officers of such company, or any receiver in charge of its property and affairs, to contract with any other insurance company transacting business in this State for the assumption and reinsurance by it of all the insurance risks outstanding in this State of such company which is insolvent, or which has ceased to transact business in this State, which contract shall also provide for the assumption by such reinsurance company of all outstanding and unsatisfied lawful claims then outstanding against such company which has become insolvent, or ceased to transact business in this State. In the event of the Commissioner making any such contract, and if the same shall be approved as reasonable by the Attorney General and the Governor of this State, the reinsuring company shall be entitled to recover from the makers of such bond the amount of the premium or compensation so agreed upon for such reinsurance. Any company desiring to do so may, at its option, in lieu of giving the bond required by this article, deposit securities of any kind in which it may lawfully invest its funds with the State Treasurer upon such terms and conditions as will in all respects afford the same protection and indemnity as herein provided for to be afforded by said bond. [Acts 1909, p. 182.]

Art. 4926. [4871] May deposit securities.—Every fire insurance company, not organized under the laws of this State, hereafter issuing or causing or authorizing to be issued, any policy of insurance other than life insurance, shall first have filed with the Commissioner during the calendar year in which such policy may issue, or authorize or cause to be issued, a bond of good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such Commissioner in a sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the payment of all lawful obligations to citizens of this State arising out of any policies or contracts issued by such fire insurance company; which such bonds shall be subject to successive suits by citizens of this State so long as any part of the same shall not be adjusted, and so long as there remains outstanding any such obligations or contracts of such fire insurance company. This article shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation, or association, doing an inter-insurance, co-operative or reciprocal business. [Id.]

Art. 4927. [4872] [3083] Annual statement.—The president or vice-president and secretary of each fire, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State, annually, on the first day of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, shall prepare under oath and deposit with the Commissioner a full, true and complete statement of the condition of such company on the last day of the month of December preceding. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 37; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 409.]

Art. 4928. [4873] [3084] Details of annual statement.—Such annual statement shall exhibit the following items and facts:

1. The name of the company and where located.
2. The names and residence of the officers.
3. The amount of the capital stock of the company.
4. The amount of capital stock paid up.
5. The property or assets held by the company, viz: The real estate owned by such company, its location, description and value as near as may be, and if said company be one organized under the laws of this State, shall accompany such statement with an abstract of the title to the same; the amount of cash on hand and deposited in banks to the credit of the company, and in what bank or banks the same is deposited; the amount of cash in the hands of agents, naming such agents; the amount of cash in course of transmission; the amount of loans secured by first mortgages on real estate, with the rate of interest thereon, specifying the location of such real estate, its value and the name of the mortgagor; the amount of all bonds and other loans, with the rate of interest thereon and how secured; the amount due the company in which judgments have been obtained, describing such judgments; the amount of stock of this State, of the United States, of any incorporated city of this State, and of any other stock owned by the company, describing the same and specifying the amount and number of shares, and the par and market value of each kind of stock; the amount of stock held by such company as collateral security for loans, with amount loaned on each kind of stock, its par and market value; the amount of interest actually due to the company and unpaid; all other securities, their description and value.
6. The liabilities of such company, specifying the losses adjusted and due; losses adjusted and not due; losses unadjusted; losses in suspense and the cause thereof; losses resisted and in litigation; dividends, either in scrip or cash, specifying the amount of each declared but not due; dividends declared and due; the amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks on the basis of forty per cent of the premium on all unexpired fire risks and one hundred per cent of the premium on all unexpired marine and inland transportation risks; the amount due banks or other creditors, naming such banks or other creditors and the amount due to each; the amount of money borrowed by the company, of whom borrowed, the rate of interest thereon and how secured; all other claims against the company, describing the same.

7. The income of the company during the preceding year, stating the amount received for premiums, specifying separately fire, marine and inland transportation premiums, deducting reinsurance; the amount received for interest, and from all other sources.

8. The expenditures during the preceding year, specifying the amount of losses paid during said term, stating how much of the same accrued prior, and how much subsequent, to the date of the preceding statement, and the amount at which losses were estimated in such preceding statement; the amount paid for dividends; the amount paid for return premiums, commissions, salaries, expenses, and other charges of officers, agents, clerks and other employes; the amount paid for local, state, national, internal revenue and other taxes and duties; the amount paid for all other expenses such as fees, printing, stationery, rents, furniture, etc.

9. The largest amount insured in any one risk, naming the risk.

10. The amount of risks written during the preceding year.

11. The amount of risks in force having less than one year to run.

12. The amount of risks in force having more than one and not over three years to run.

13. The amount of risks having more than three years to run.

14. Whether or not dividends are declared on premiums received for risks not terminated. [Id.]

Art. 4929. [4874] [3089] Policy a liquidated demand.—A fire insurance policy, in case of a total loss by fire of property insured, shall be held and considered to be a liquidated demand against the company for the full amount of such policy. The provisions of this article shall not apply to personal property. [Acts 1879, p. 83.]

Art. 4930. Breach by insured.—No breach or violation of the insured of any of the warranties, conditions or provisions of any fire insurance company, contract of insurance or application therefor, upon personal property, shall render void the policy or contract, or constitute a defense to a suit for loss thereon, unless such breach or violation contributed to bring about the destruction of property. [Acts 1913, p. 194.]

Art. 4931. Interest of mortgagee or trustee.—The interest of a mortgagee or trustee under any fire insurance contract hereafter issued covering any property situated in this State shall not be invalidated by any act of neglect of the mortgagee or owner of said described property or the happening of any condition beyond his control, and any stipulation in any contract in conflict herewith shall be null and void. [Acts 1919, p. 20.]

Art. 4932. [4875] [3075] Re-insurance.—1. No fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State shall expose itself to any one risk, except when insuring cotton in bales, and grain, to an amount exceeding ten per cent of its paid up capital stock, unless the excess shall be insured by such company in some other solvent insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State.

2. Every fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State may re-insure the whole or any part of any policy obligation in any other insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State. The Commissioner shall require every year from every insurance company doing business in this State a certificate sworn to before an officer in this State to the effect that no part of the business written by such company in this State has been re-insured in whole or in part by any company, corporation, association or society not authorized to do business in this State. Every insurance company doing business shall also furnish the Commissioner with a list of re-insurances during the year in authorized companies, showing the name, amount and premium effected in each company.

3. Any insurance company authorized to transact the business of fire, fire and marine, marine and inland insurance in this State failing to comply with any provisions of this article, shall forfeit its authority to do business for a period of one year. The Commissioner shall investigate any complaint as to such violation and upon satisfactory proof that any company authorized to transact the business of fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance in this State has violated any provision of this article, the Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of the offending company.

4. The Commissioner upon payment of license fee of twenty-five dollars, may issue to an agent who is regularly commissioned to represent one or more fire, fire and marine insurance companies authorized to do business in this State, a certificate of authority to place excess lines of insurance in companies not authorized to do business in this State, provided the party desiring such excess insurance shall first file with the Commissioner an affidavit that he has exhausted all the insurance obtainable from companies duly authorized to do business in the State.

5. Before receiving license provided for in section 4 of this article, the party applying for same shall file with the Commissioner a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the Governor for the faithful observance of the provisions of this article. Said bond to be approved by the Commissioner, and to be for the benefit of the State of Texas.

6. Every agent so licensed shall report, under oath, to the Commissioner within thirty days from the first day of January and July of each year, the amount of gross premiums received by him for such excess insurance, and shall pay the Commissioner a tax of five per cent thereon. The agent procuring a license as provided in this article shall keep a separate record of all transactions herein provided open at all times to the inspection of the Commissioner, or his legally appointed representative. In default of the payment of any sum which may be due the State under this article, the Commissioner may sue for the same. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 34; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 406; Acts 1905, p. 112.]

CHAPTER TWELVE.

FIRE, LIGHTNING, HAIL AND STORM COMPANIES.

| By-laws | 4940 | Filing fees and taxes | 4949 |
| Investment of funds | 4941 | | |

Art. 4933. May incorporate.—Any number of persons, not less than seven, who shall be resident citizens of this State, may form and incorporate a company for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by fire, lightning, hail and storms, and for all or either of such purposes. Each company incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall embody the word “mutual” in its title, which shall appear upon the first page of every policy, and renewal receipt. [Acts 1913, p. 54.]

Art. 4934. Requisites of application.—When such number of persons desire to organize such mutual insurance company, they shall apply to the Commissioner for permission to solicit insurance on the mutual plan, which application shall contain:

1. The name of the company, and the name selected shall not be so similar to that of any other insurance company as to be likely to mislead the public.
2. The locality of the principal business office of such company.
3. The kind of insurance business the company proposes to engage in.
4. The names and places of residence of not less than seven persons making such application.
5. An affidavit of at least one of said applicants, correctly stating the names and residence of such applicants.

Upon receipt of such application, together with a fee of one dollar for filing it, the Commissioner shall at once file it and issue a permit authorizing said applicant to solicit insurance on the mutual plan, in accordance with the terms of the application, but not to issue policies of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4935. Requisites of charter.—No such company shall be granted a charter, or be authorized to issue policies of insurance, until insurance upon not less than one hundred separate risks, the total amount of which insurance shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, has been applied for and entered on the books of said company, and until an amount equal to not less than fifty per cent of the first premiums for such insurance has been paid in cash to such company, a premium note being taken for the balance, if any, and such premiums must aggregate not less than twice the maximum liability to be incurred on any one risk. No policy of insurance shall be written, or liability, as an insurer, be incurred by said company, until a statement subscribed and sworn to by the president and secretary of said company, stating that the above provisions have been complied with, has been filed with the Commissioner, together with certified copies of the company's proposed charter, and by-laws.

The charter or articles of association of said company shall be signed and acknowledged by at least four of the original applicants for said permit, and shall contain:

1. The purpose for which it is formed.
2. The place or places where its business is to be transacted.
3. The term for which it is to exist.
4. The number of its directors, or trustees, and the names and residences of those who are elected for the first year.

When said applicants have complied with the above requirements, and have filed the necessary copies of their charter and by-laws with the Commissioner, and have paid the fees and taxes required by the laws of the State to be paid, the Commissioner shall record said charter and furnish said company with a certified copy thereof, and shall issue to said company a certificate of authority showing it has complied with the laws of this State, and authorizing it to do business until the last day of the following February. [Id.]

Art. 4936. Examination.—Each mutual fire, lightning, and storm insurance company incorporated in this State shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner, who shall make or cause to be made, an examination of the affairs of each mutual insurance company, at the company's expense, at least once in every two years and at such other times as he deems proper. He shall thoroughly inspect books, accounts and records of the company, and if upon such inspection the affairs of such company are found to be in a sound condition and the company thus solvent and able to fulfill its obligations, he shall issue to the company a certificate showing the result of such examination. If upon examination he is of opinion that the mutual insurance company is insolvent or has exceeded its powers, or has failed to comply with any provision of law governing it, he may suspend the company's permit and shall give such company written notice of that objected to, and failing such being remedied within thirty days, he shall report the same to the Attorney General, who shall at once bring suit to forfeit the charter of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4937. Statement of condition.—Each mutual insurance company transacting business in the State shall, before the month of March in each year, file in the office of the Commissioner a statement showing the exact condition of affairs of the company upon the 31st day of December preceding, such statement being in conformity with such forms as the Commissioner may furnish. [Id.]

Art. 4938. Rights of insured.—Each person to whom a policy of insurance has been issued by a mutual company incorporated in this State shall be a member of such company so long as his policy remains in force and shall be entitled to one vote at the meetings of the members of such companies, and shall further be entitled to his equitable share of all benefits derived from being a member of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4939. Liability of insured.—The by-laws of such companies shall provide that every member, in addition to his annual premium paid in cash, or in cash and premium notes, shall be liable for a sum equal to another annual premium, or it may provide, a sum equal to three or five annual premiums, such additional liability being assessable at the discretion of the Commissioner or the company's board of directors, for the members proportionate share of losses and expenses should the company's funds become impaired. [Id.]

Art. 4940. By-laws.—The by-laws of such companies shall specifically provide for the rules and regulations of its government, providing for the collection of adequate premiums or assessments, either all in cash or part cash and part by note, such premiums being based upon the greater or less risk attached to the property insured, and they shall state clearly and plainly the extent of each member's liability to other members, shall provide for the accumulation of a surplus fund to which shall be added not less than ten per cent of the annual saving, being made by the company, shall provide for the bonding of the company's officers and shall name such other provisions and safeguards as may be deemed proper and not contrary to the laws of the state, and a notice in heavy type shall be printed on each policy calling to the attention of the insured that the by-laws are a part of his contract with the company. [Id.]

Art. 4941. Investment of funds.—Funds of mutual companies may be invested in United States bonds, Texas State bonds, county or city bonds of this State, if such bonds are issued by authority of law and interest upon them has never been defaulted, or in first mortgages on improved real estate within the State where the first mortgage does not exceed fifty per cent of the value of the land and improvements thereon. [Id.]

Art. 4942. Expenses of company.—The expenses of such companies must not exceed an amount equal to thirty-five per cent of the annual premiums, and a statement must be made annually to the Commissioner by the president or secretary of the company that they are being so limited. [Id.]

Art. 4943. Reserve and dividend.—In determining the solvency of any such mutual company and in determining the profit or saving to be distributed among members, forty per cent of the actual cash premiums paid on policies in force for one year and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run shall be deemed to be a sufficient reserve under the said policies and no dividends to members shall be paid out of this reserve. [Id.]

Art. 4944. Discretionary examination.—If at any time the admitted assets of any such company shall come to be less than the largest single risk for which the company is liable, then the president and the secretary of the company shall at once notify the Commissioner, and he may make an examination into the company's affairs if he deems it best. [Id.]

Art. 4945. Revocation of license.—If, upon examination of the company's affairs, it appears that the largest single risk for which the company is liable exceeds the admitted assets of the company, the Commissioner shall immediately suspend or revoke the license of the company until the assets of the company are increased by assessment or otherwise, sufficiently to meet the requirements. The company shall have thirty days within which to meet this requirement, and if within that time it fails to do so the Commissioner shall refer the matter to the Attorney General, with instructions to institute proper legal proceeding to forfeit the charter of said company. [Id.]

Art. 4946. Other laws to govern.—Each mutual company organized for any purpose mentioned in this chapter shall be amenable to, and subject to, the provisions of all laws of this State governing stock fire insurance companies, in so far as they are applicable to mutual companies, and not in conflict with any provision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4947. Penalty.—Any mutual company that shall wilfully violate, or fail to comply with any provision of this chapter shall be subject to, and liable to pay, a penalty of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each violation thereof. Such penalty may be collected and recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas. For any violation or failure to comply with any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner may suspend a company's permit, or license, and while suspended, such company shall be prohibited from writing or renewing any insurance policies. [Id.]

Art. 4948. Foreign mutual companies.—Mutual companies incorporated under the laws of any other State, or foreign government for any or all of the purposes specified in the first article of this chapter, and duly licensed to transact business in such other States or governments, and that have not less than one hundred thousand dollars assets in excess of liabilities, shall, when they have complied with the requirements and restrictions of this chapter, as far as applicable to them, be admitted to do business in this State, and the Commissioner shall issue to any such company, so complying, a permit authorizing such company to do business in this State until the last day of the following February. [Id.]

Art. 4949. Filing fees and taxes.—Each mutual company operating under this chapter shall pay to the Commissioner, for obtaining a charter, a fee of twenty dollars, and for each license granted, or renewal thereof, a fee of one dollar, and for filing each annual statement a fee of ten dollars annually on the 31st day of each December, and when the Commissioner has certified to the State Treasurer the correct amount to be paid, every mutual company operating under this chapter shall pay to said Treasurer one-half of one per cent of all of the net premiums, or assessments, received by it during the year, and no other tax shall be required of such mutual company, or companies, their officers and agents, except such fees as shall be paid to the Commissioner as required by law. [Id.]

Art. 4950. Authority to incorporate.—Private corporations may be created without a capital stock within this State by the voluntary association of seven or more persons, resident citizens of this State who collectively own not less than one thousand acres of growing crops of all kinds for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by hail. Each company incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall embody the word “mutual” in its title. [Acts 1913, p. 40.]

Art. 4951. Permit to solicit business.—When any number of persons not less than seven desire to organize a mutual hail insurance company, they shall make application to the Commissioner for permission to solicit business under the mutual plan, stating that said company is to be organized for the insurance of growing crops against loss or damage by hail. Upon receipt of said application the Commissioner shall issue said applicants a permit to solicit insurance against loss or damage by hail on the mutual plan in accordance with the terms of the application, but not to issue policies of insurance. Said mutual company shall take from each applicant an obligation specifying the property to be insured, and the amount to be paid as the first assessment, evidenced by a promissory note for such sum and payable on or before the 31st day of the succeeding December, and upon the State granting to said company a charter authorizing it to do business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4952. License to solicit.—When applications have been secured for insurance with such company from at least two hundred applicants residing in not less than twenty-five different counties of this State, the first assessment or premium on which applications shall amount to at least ten thousand dollars, for which notes of solvent parties founded on actual bona fida applications for insurance payable upon the granting of the charter by the State to said mutual hail insurance company, which premium notes shall be a lien on the crop insured, or otherwise secured and which notes and applications shall be submitted to the Commissioner. If he finds the applications and notes to be genuine and secured by liens on growing crops or otherwise secured, he shall upon the payment of the fee of twenty-five dollars, certify the fact that he has examined and approved said application and notes to such company, and permit said company to incorporate and issue to it a charter. Said Commissioner upon the payment of the fees required by law, shall issue to said mutual hail insurance company a license to solicit and transact business and issue policies against loss or damage by hail. Each person making application for insurance in such company prior to the granting of a charter to such company and signing a non-negotiable promissory note shall be liable upon the note upon the granting of a charter by the State. If payment is refused, suit may be brought on the same. [Id.]

Art. 4953. Application for charter.—The application for charter shall state the purpose for which it is formed, the term for which it is to exist, the number, name, and residence of its directors for the first year and shall be subscribed and acknowledged by seven or more of the applicants. [Id.]

Art. 4954. Directors and officers.—Upon the issuance of a charter to such mutual hail insurance company, the persons making application for such charter shall constitute a board of directors for the first year which shall consist of not less than seven persons all of whom shall be residents of this State. The officers of such company shall be such as may be provided by the by-laws, and the treasurer or the secretary and treasurer, if such offices should be combined in one, shall execute a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Commissioner and his successors in office conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and that he will account for all moneys, notes or other assets that may come into his hands. [Id.]

Art. 4955. Policies on crops.—Mutual hail insurance companies organized under the provisions of this chapter may issue policies on growing crops of all kinds against loss or damage by hail only. Any person desiring insurance in such company shall make application on blanks furnished by the company and shall pay the full amount of the premium in cash or secured notes. No contract shall be made providing for payment of any obligation by the insured or for suit on any such obligation of the insured, except those given by the charter members referred to in the preceding article in any county other than in which the insured has his domicile. In case the whole amount of the premium collected by such company for any one year shall be insufficient to pay all losses occurring during said year, after paying the necessary expenses for said year, the persons insured by such company shall receive their proportionate share of the sum realized from said premiums after deducting the expenses therefrom in full satisfaction of their losses. No member shall be liable to the company or to any other person for more than the premium, which shall be paid by him or secured to be paid by him in making his application for insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4956. Premiums and funds.—All companies incorporated under this Act shall set aside sixty per cent of all premiums collected as a policy holder's fund for the payment of losses which fund shall be used for no other purpose, and the remainder of the gross premiums collected shall be used if needed, for paying the expenses of said company, and if not needed for such purpose such remainder not so used shall be added to the policy holder's fund at the end of the current year, and if, at the end of such current year the total of said policy holder's fund has not been appropriated or necessary in the payment of losses to policy holders, then such amount of said fund so remaining may be invested in first mortgage notes on lands in this State, said investment not exceeding fifty per cent of the value of said lands, or in bonds of this State, or in county, city, town or school district bonds of this State which have been approved by the Attorney General, which funds or securities shall be deposited in trust for said policy holders with any bank approved by the Commissioner as a reserve fund, which fund may be used for the payment of policy holders, if necessary, in case of excessive and unprecedented losses. Such company may collect and receive the interest and dividends thereon to be used in defraying the expenses and paying the losses of said company. [Id.]

Art. 4957. Fixing rates.—The board of directors of such company shall fix the rates to be charged for such insurance, and may fix at their discretion different rates for different sections of the State based upon the frequency of hail storms in such sections. [Id.]

Art. 4958. Annual report.—Every such corporation shall on or before January first, or within thirty days thereafter, each year make and file with the Commissioner a report upon forms to be furnished by such Commissioner which report shall be verified by the oath of the secretary of such corporation showing the number of policies issued for the preceding year, the number and amount of losses paid, the gross amount received from premiums, the amount of expenses paid, and the amount set aside or invested during the year as a reserve fund, if any. The books, records and documents of such corporation shall be subject to the inspection and examination of the Attorney General or the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4959. Fees.—The following fees shall be paid by companies organized under this law:

In addition to the application fee and charter fee, an annual franchise tax of fifty dollars; and for filing annual statement, five dollars, certificate of authority to corporation, one dollar. No other fees shall be paid by said companies. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOURTEEN.

PRINTERS FIRE AND STORM INSURANCE.

Art. 4960. [4919] How incorporated.—Private corporations may be created within this State by the voluntary association of three or more persons for the organization of printers mutual fire and storm insurance association without an authorized or subscribed capital stock, for the purpose of insuring against loss by fire or storm only such property as may be owned and operated for the purpose of publishing daily, weekly or other periodical newspapers, or such as may be incident thereto or conducting job printing offices. [Acts 1905, p. 225.]

Art. 4961. [4920] Certificate to do business.—Before beginning operations, such company must obtain from the Commissioner a certificate of authority such as is issued to mutual fire and tornado insurance companies doing business in this State, first making a showing to the Commissioner that the company has fully complied with all the requirements of law applicable to such mutual fire and tornado insurance companies. No officers of such associations shall be required to give a bond, except the treasurers thereof, who shall annually file a bond with good securities and in amount to be approved by the Commissioner. [Act 1909, p. 219.]

Art. 4962. [4921] Report and fee.—All such associations, which transact business in only one county, shall report annually, on or before the last day of February, to the Commissioner on blanks prepared by him, and pay five dollars to the Commissioner as a fee for filing the same. Such associations shall not be required to pay the annual franchise tax collected of other corporations under the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4969. [4928] To act as surety.—Private corporations may be created to act as trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian and receiver, when designated by any person, corporation or court to do so; to do a general fiduciary and depository business; to act as surety and guarantor of the fidelity of employees, trustees, executors, administrators, guardians or others appointed to, or assuming the performance of any trust, public or private, under appointment of any court or tribunal, or under contract between private individuals or corporations; also upon any bond or bonds that may be required to be filed in any judiciary proceedings; also to guarantee any contract or undertaking between individuals, or between private corporations, or between individuals or private corporations and the State and municipal corporations or counties or between corporations and individuals; to act as executor and testamentary guardian when designated by such decedents; or to act as administrator or guardian when appointed by any court having jurisdiction; also on any bond or bonds that may be required of any State official, district official, county official or official of any school district or of any municipality, provided that the commissioners courts of each county shall have the right to reject any or all official bonds made by surety companies and in their discretion may require any or all officials to make their official bonds by personal sureties. Any such bond may be accepted and approved by the officer charged by law with the duty of accepting and approving the same without being signed by other securities than such corporation. When any such bond shall exceed fifty thousand dollars in penal sum, the officer charged by law with the duty of approving and accepting such bond, may require that such bond be signed by two or more surety companies, or by one surety company and two or more good and sufficient personal sureties, in the discretion of the principal or official of whom the bond is required, and any statute or law to the contrary, or requiring any such bond to be signed by two or more good and sufficient sureties, shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of this article. Each corporation, making or offering to make any bond under this article, shall publish in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where such company is organized or has its principal office on the first day of February of each year, a statement of its condition on the previous thirty-first day of December, showing under oath its assets and liabilities. A copy of said statement shall be filed with the Commissioner before the 1st day of March of the year following, and a fee of twenty-five dollars be paid to that office for filing the same, and an examination of its affairs may be made at any time by said Commissioner at the expense of the company. Said corporation organized under the provisions of this article shall have a paid up capital stock of not less than $100,000.00 and shall keep on deposit with the State Treasurer money, bonds or other securities in an amount not less than $50,000.00. Said securities shall be approved by the Commissioner and this amount shall be kept intact at all times. All foreign corporations transacting the business of a guaranty and fidelity company in this State shall file with the Commissioner an affidavit showing that such foreign company has on deposit with the State Treasurer of its home state $100,000.00 or more, in money, bonds or other securities for the protection of its policy-holders. [Acts 1897, p. 128; 1903, p. 197; 1913, p. 123.]

Art. 4970. [4929] Bond of surety company.—Whenever any bond, undertaking, recognizance or other obligation is, by law or the charter, ordinances, rules and regulations of a municipality, board, body, organization, court, judge or public officer, required or permitted to be made, given, tendered or filed, and whenever the performance of any act, duty or obligation, or the refraining from any act, is required or permitted to be guaranteed, such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee may be executed by a surety company, qualified as hereinafter provided; and such execution by such company of such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee shall be in all respects a full and complete compliance with every law, charter, rule or regulation that such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee shall be executed by one surety or by one or more sureties, or that such sureties shall be residents, or householders, or freeholders, or either, or both, or possess any other qualification and all courts, judges, heads of departments, boards, bodies, municipalities, and public officers of every character shall accept and treat such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee when so executed by such company, as conforming to, and fully and completely complying with, every requirement of every such law, charter, ordinance, rule or regulation. Any suit on any bond issued under this and the preceding article shall be brought at the place as provided for in this chapter, and if the corporation issuing the bond sued on has no agent in the county where said bond was issued then the Commissioner is made, by consent of the said company, its agent on whom service of process may be held. [Id.]

Art. 4971. [4930] Requirements to be complied with.—Such company to be qualified to so act as surety or guarantor, must comply with the requirements of every law of this State applicable to such company doing business therein; must be authorized under the laws of the State where incorporated, and under its charter, to become surety upon such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee; must have a fully paid up and safely unimpaired capital of at least one hundred thousand dollars; must have good available assets exceeding its liabilities, which liabilities for the purpose of this subdivision shall be taken to be its capital stock, its outstanding debts and a premium reserve at the rate of fifty per cent of the current annual premiums on each outstanding bond, undertaking, recognizance and obligation of like character in force; must file with the Commissioner, a certified copy of its certificate of incorporation, a written application to be authorized to do business under this subdivision and also, with such application, and in each year thereafter, a statement verified under oath made up to December 31, preceding, stating the amount of its paid up cash capital, particularizing each item of investment, the amount of premiums upon existing bonds, undertakings, recognizances and obligations of like character in force upon which it is surety; the amount of liability for unearned portion thereof estimated at the rate of fifty per cent of the current annual premiums on each such bond, undertaking, recognizance and obligation in force, stating also the amount of its outstanding debts of all kinds, and such further facts as may be by the laws of this State required of such company in transacting business therein. If such company be organized under the laws of any other state it must also have on deposit with a State officer of one of the states of the United States, not less than one hundred thousand dollars in good securities, deposited with and held by such officer for the benefit of the holders of all obligations wheresoever incurred; must also appoint an attorney in this State upon whom process of law can be served, which appointment shall continue until revoked or another attorney substituted, and must file with the Commissioner written evidence of such appointment, which shall state the residence and office of such attorney; and such service of process may also be made upon the Commissioner, by virtue of his office, and shall be as effective as if made upon said attorney; and must, also, have on deposit with the Treasurer of this State at least fifty thousand dollars in good securities worth at par and market value, at least that sum, of the value of which securities the Commissioner shall judge, held for the benefit of the holders of all the obligations of such company wheresoever incurred; said securities so deposited with said Treasurer to remain with him in trust to answer any default of said company as surety upon any such bond, undertaking, recognizance or other obligation established by final judgment in whatsoever court and wheresoever rendered upon which execution may lawfully be issued against said company; said Treasurer and his successors in office being hereby directed to so receive and hereafter retain such deposit under this law in trust for the purposes hereof; such company, however, at all times to have the right to collect the interest, dividends and profits upon such securities, and, from time to time, to withdraw such securities, or portions thereof, substituting therefor others of equally good character and value, to the satisfaction of said Treasurer; and such securities and substitutes therefor shall be, at all times, exempt from and not subject to levy under writ or process of attachment; and shall not be sold under any process against such company until after thirty days notice to said company, specifying the time, place, and manner of such sale, and the process under which and purposes for which it is to be made, accompanied by a copy of such process. Whenever any such company, domestic or foreign, has been engaged in this State in the business contemplated by this law, has made a deposit in this state, in trust or otherwise, of securities, to answer any default of such company upon any such bond, undertaking, recognizance, guaranty or stipulation, such securities so deposited shall be by the trustee or custodian thereof transferred and delivered to the State Treasurer in trust for the same purposes and subject to all the rights and equities of all parties interested, and to the terms and provisions of this law; and thereupon, such deposit shall remain in trust under and subject to the terms and provisions of this law. Whenever such deposit has been made with a trustee by order of any court or other authority, it shall be the duty of the court or other authority, by order or otherwise, to direct such transfer to said Treasurer; and in case such deposit is less than the sum of fifty thousand dollars, then said company must deposit with said Treasurer securities sufficient to increase said deposit to the sum of fifty thousand dollars as required by this subdivision. Domestic corporations chartered for the purpose of doing business under this subdivision within this State alone shall be required to deposit securities as hereinbefore provided for to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 244; Acts 1st C. S. 1921 p. 4.]

Art. 4972. [4931] Certificate to issue.—The Commissioner upon due proof by any such company of its possessing the qualifications in this subdivision specified, shall issue to such company a certificate setting forth that such company has qualified, and is authorized for the ensuing year to do business under this subdivision, which said certificate shall be evidence of such qualification of such company, and of its authorization to become and to be accepted as sole surety on all bonds, undertakings, recognizances and obligations required or permitted by law or the charter, ordinance, rules or regulations of any municipality, board, body, organization or public officer, and the solvency or credit of such company for all purposes, and its sufficiency as such surety. [Acts 1897, p. 244.]

Art. 4973. [4932] Certificate to be surrendered.—Any such company, domestic or foreign, may at any time surrender to the Commissioner its said certificate of qualification, and shall thereupon cease to engage in said business of suretyship; and such company shall thereupon be entitled to the release and return of its said deposit as aforesaid in manner following: Said company shall file with said Commissioner a statement in writing, under oath, giving the date, name and amount of all its then existing obligations of suretyship in this State, briefly stating the facts of each case to said commissioner, who after examination of the facts, shall require said company to file with the State Treasurer a bond payable to the State, in a sum equal to the whole amount of its liability in this State, under its contracts, conditioned for the faithful performance and fulfillment of all its outstanding obligations, or it may, at its option, reinsure its risks in some surety company authorized to do business in this

State, or cancel all bonds on which it is liable, and return a pro rata of the premium received thereon, whenever such cancellation and return can be done without impairing its obligation to third parties. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 4974. [4933] May withdraw from bond.—Any surety company may withdraw from the bond of any trustee, guardian, assignee, receiver, executor, administrator or other fiduciary, in like manner and by like proceeding as is now provided by law in the case of individual sureties. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 4975. [4934] Venue of suit on bond.—If any suit shall be instituted upon any bond or obligation of any surety company, the proper court of the county wherein said bond is filed shall have jurisdiction of said cause. Service therein shall be made, either upon the attorney for said company, by this subdivision required to be appointed, or upon the Commissioner; and such service shall be to all intents valid and effectual as service upon said company. Such guaranty, fidelity and surety companies shall be deemed resident of the counties wherever they may do business, and the doing or performing any business in any county shall be deemed an acceptance of the provisions of this subdivision. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 4976. [4935] Defaulting company; claims paid.—Should any company of the character mentioned in this subdivision fail or refuse to pay any loss by it whatsoever incurred within sixty days after its liability thereupon shall have been finally determined by the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction wheresoever rendered, then upon satisfactory proof to the Treasurer of this State of such liability and of its non-payment, said Treasurer shall, out of the deposits so made with him, as by this subdivision provided, pay said loss and when he shall have done so he shall at once certify to the Commissioner the fact of such default on the part of said company; whereupon said Commissioner shall forthwith cancel and annul the certificate of authority of such company to do business in this State. Such payment shall not operate to release the company from payment of any balance which it still may owe after such payment by the Treasurer of this State has been made. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 5.]

Art. 4977. [4936] Who are agents.—Any person who solicits business for or on behalf of such corporation, or makes or transmits, for any person other than himself, any application for guaranty or security, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit same, or who shall receive or transmit same, or who shall receive or deliver a contract of guaranty or security, or who shall examine or investigate the character of any applicant for guaranty or security other than himself, or who shall refer any applicant for guaranty or security to such corporation, whether any of said acts shall be done at the instance and request, or by the employment of such corporation or other corporation or person, or any person who shall issue indemnifying bonds or contracts, whose solvency and compliance with his said bonds or obligations is guaranteed, directly or indirectly, by any corporation, shall be held to be the agent of such corporation so far as relates to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by this subdivision. [Acts 1897, p. 244, Sec. 8.]

Art. 4978. [4937] Penalty.—Any person, association of persons, or corporations, who shall accept any corporation created for the purposes, or either of them, mentioned in the first article of this subdivision without such corporation having previously complied with the provisions and requirements of this subdivision and having received from the Commissioner of Insurance the certificate of authority provided for in this subdivision shall forfeit as a penalty the sum of five hundred dollars to be recovered by suit in the name of the State. [Id. Sec. 9.]

Art. 4979. [4938] Cancellation of bond.—When any corporation shall cancel a bond of guaranty or indemnity, or shall notify the employer of the person whose fidelity is guaranteed that said corporation will no longer guarantee or be security for the fidelity of said person, or when said corporation has once guaranteed the fidelity of any person, or acted as security therefor, and on application refuses to do so again, it shall furnish to such person a full statement in writing of the facts on which the action of the corporation is based, and if such action be based in whole or in part on information, all such information. Any such corporation failing or refusing to furnish any such written statement within thirty days after a request therefor, shall be liable to such person injured in the sum of five hundred dollars, in addition to all other damages caused thereby. [Id. Sec. 10.]

Art. 4980. [4939] Authority revoked, when.—If any such corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall revoke its certificate of authority. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 4981. [4940] Charged with public use.—Corporations created for the purposes mentioned in Article 4969 are hereby declared to be charged with a public use. [Id. Sec. 12.]

| Powers | Article 4982 | Other trust powers | Article 4985 |
| Requirements | 4983 | Statutes applicable | 4986 |
| Authority to act | 4984 | | |

Art. 4982. [540-44] Powers.—Any person or association of persons, any State banking corporation or any other domestic corporation, or any corporation organized under the laws of any other State, provided such foreign corporation complies with the laws of this State relating to insurance other than life, may exercise the following powers by complying with the provisions of this subdivision:

1. Qualify as guardian, curator, executor, administrator, assignee, receiver, trustee by appointment of any court or under will, or depositary of money in court, without giving bond as such.

2. Become sole guarantor or surety in or upon any bond required to be given under the laws of this State, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding. [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 513.]

Art. 4983. [540-41-43] Requirements.—Those included in the provisions of this subdivision shall:

1. Deposit with the State Treasurer fifty thousand dollars consisting of cash, treasury notes of the United States, or government, State, county, municipal or other bonds, notes, or debentures, secured by first mortgages or deeds of trust, or mortgages or deeds of trust on unencumbered real estate in Texas worth at least double the amount loaned thereon, or such other first class securities as the Commissioner may approve. Said bonds or securities shall not be received or held at a rate above par, but if their market value is less than par they shall not be held above their actual market value. The State Treasurer shall require any such depositor to replace any securities so deposited on which the interest shall not be paid within six months after maturity, by other securities equal in amount to those removed, upon which the interest has not been defaulted. The funds so deposited shall be primarily liable for the obligations of the depositor in any capacity herein authorized, and shall not be liable for any other debt or obligation of the depositor until all such trust liabilities have been discharged.

2. Satisfy the Commissioner of its solvency. The Commissioner shall issue any such depositor, when satisfied it is solvent and has made the required deposit, a certificate showing such facts.

3. Maintain a premium reserve of the amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks, to be determined by taking fifty per cent of the premiums of all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all gross premiums on risks that have more than one year to run.

4. File with the Commissioner, within sixty days after the first day of each January, a report sworn to by its president and secretary or by two of its principal officers, as to the surety and bond business done by the same during the preceding year.

5. Pay taxes on its surety and bond business as required of other surety companies. [Id.]

Art. 4984. [540] Authority to act.—Whenever any such depositor shall exhibit said certificate to the court, judge, clerk or other officer making the appointment herein authorized, or whose duty it is to approve any bond, such court or officer may appoint such depositor to such office or trust, or permit it to become surety on such bond. [Id.]

Art. 4985. [545] Other trust powers.—Those complying with the provisions of this law shall not exercise any other powers conferred by law upon State banking and trust companies, except those herein authorized, unless such depositor shall have,

at the time of making such deposit, a paid up capital or surplus of at least one hundred thousand dollars in addition to said deposit. [Id.]

Art. 4986. [542] Statutes applicable.—All articles of the statutes so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of law governing banks and banking corporations shall apply to all companies doing business hereunder. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN.

EMPLOYERS LIABILITY INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Art. 4987. [4941] Calculation and report of reserve.—Every insurance company which has for ten years or more undertaken to insure persons, firms or corporations against loss or damage on account of the bodily injury or death by accident of any person, for which loss or damage said persons, firms or corporations are respectively responsible, shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, render to the Commissioner of Insurance a statement in writing of its business transacted in the United States, which shall show separately for each of the five calendar years constituting the first half of the period of ten years next preceding the thirty-first day of December of the year in which the statement is made:

1. The number of persons reported injured under all its forms of liability policies, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, and whether such injury resulted in loss to the company or not.

2. The amount that, on or before the thirty-first day of August of the year in which the statement is made, had been paid on account or in consequence of all injuries so reported, including therein all payments on suits arising from such injuries.

3. The number of suits or actions under such policies on account of injuries reported which have been settled, either by payments or compromise.

4. The amount paid in settlement of such suits or actions on or before the thirty-first day of August of the year when the statement is made, including therein all payments made on account or in consequence of injuries from which the suits arose, whether prior to or later than the date when the suits were brought. Every such company shall, in its financial statements hereafter made in this State, use the experience so ascertained for computing its outstanding losses under all its forms of liability policies, irrespective of the date when the policies were issued. The average cost per suit of settling such cases, as computed by the data required in this article, shall be multiplied by the number of suits or actions pending on account of injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date on which the condition of the company is to be ascertained and shown, which suits or actions are being defended for or on account of a holder of any such policy, also the average cost on account of each injured person, determined as aforesaid from the company's experience, shall be multiplied by the number of injuries reported within the eighteen months prior to making the statement of the company's condition, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives. From the sum of these two products so ascertained there shall be deducted the amount of all payments made on account or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months, this amount so deducted to be taken as of the date at which the said statement is made. The sum remaining after making this deduction shall be charged as the liability of the company on account of outstanding losses. Any admitted company issuing liability contracts, which, by reason of its limited experience in liability underwriting, cannot furnish the information required by this article shall, nevertheless, until it is able to comply with said requirements, be charged with a liability for outstanding losses upon all kinds of its liability policies an amount not less than the amount resulting from the following process:

The number of suits or actions pending on account of injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date of making up the statement, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, which are being defended on account of the holder of any policy, shall be multiplied by the average cost per suit as shown by the average experience of all other admitted liability companies ascertained from the data required by this article, also the number of injuries reported under said policies at any time within eighteen months of making up the statement, whether reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, and whether such injuries resulted in loss to the company or not, shall be multiplied by the average cost for each injured person as shown by the average of said experience of all other admitted liability companies, ascertained from the data required by this article. From the sum of these two products there shall be deducted the amount of all payments made on account of or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months, this amount to be taken as of the date at which the statement is made. A sum not less than the amount remaining after this deduction shall be charged as a liability for outstanding losses to the liability companies covered by the provisions of this paragraph. The average costs for suits and for injured persons required by this paragraph shall, on or before the first day of December of each year, be furnished by the Commissioner to every such company which has not had an experience of ten years in liability underwriting. Besides the reserve provided for in this article, each such company shall be charged as a liability with all unpaid losses of which the company received notice on or before December 31, and all other debts and liabilities. If the capital stock of any such company, computing its liabilities in accordance with the provisions of this article shall be at any time impaired to the extent of twenty per cent thereof, the Commissioner shall give notice to the company to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days; and, if this is not done, he shall require the company to cease to do business within this State, and shall thereupon, in case the company is organized under the authority of this State, immediately institute legal proceedings to wind up the affairs of such company. [Acts 1909, p. 193.]

Art. 4988. [4942] Certificates from other States.—The Commissioner, in calculating the reserve liability of any such company, may accept the certificate of the officer of any other State charged with the duty of supervising such company as to any such company organized under the laws of such State; provided, such certificate shows that such liability has been computed in accordance with the provisions of Article 4987.

Art. 4989. May incorporate.—Any three or more persons, a majority of whom are residents of this State, may associate in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and form an incorporated company for any one or more of the following purposes:

1. To insure any person against bodily injury, disablement or death resulting from accident and against disablement resulting from disease.

2. To insure against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injury sustained by an employe or other person for which accident or injury the assured is liable.

3. To insure against loss or damage by burglary, theft or house breaking.

4. To insure glass against breakage.

5. To insure against loss from injury to person or property which results accidentally from steam boilers, elevators, electrical devices, engines and all machinery and appliances used in connection therewith or operated thereby; and to insure boilers, elevators, electrical devices, engines, machinery and appliances.

6. To insure against loss or damage by water to any goods or premises arising from the breakage or leakage of sprinklers and water pipes.

7. To insure against loss resulting from accidental damage to automobiles or caused accidentally by automobiles.

8. To insure against loss or damages resulting from accident to or injury suffered by any person for which loss and damage the insured is liable; excepting employers liability insurance as authorized under subdivision 2 of this article.

9. To insure persons, associations or corporations against loss or damage by reason of giving or extending of credit.

10. To insure against loss or damage on account of circumstances upon, or defects in the title to, real estate, and against loss by reason of the non-payment of the principal or interest of bonds, mortgages or other evidences of indebtedness.

11. To write marine insurance in which may be included the hazards and perils incident to war.

12. To insure against any other casualty or insurance risk specified in the articles of incorporation which may be lawfully made the subject of insurance, and the formation of a corporation for issuing against which is not otherwise provided for by this law, excepting fire and life insurance. [Acts 1911, p. 237; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 33.]

Art. 4990. Articles of incorporation.—Such persons shall associate themselves together by written articles of incorporation for the purpose of forming an accident or casualty insurance company, which articles shall specify the general object of the company, and the proposed duration of the same. [Acts 1911, p. 237.]

Art. 4991. Organization.—When such articles of incorporation are filed with the Commissioner, together with an affidavit made by two or more of its incorporators, that all the stock has been subscribed in good faith and fully paid for, together with a charter fee of twenty dollars, the Commissioner shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and upon receipt of a fee of one dollar he shall furnish a certified copy of the same to the corporators, upon which they shall be a body politic and corporate, and may proceed to complete the organization of the company, for which purpose they shall forthwith call a meeting of the stockholders who shall adopt by-laws for the government of the company and elect a board of directors composed of stockholders, which board shall have full control and management of the affairs of the corporation, subject to the by-laws thereof as adopted or amended from time to time by the stockholders or directors, and to the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4992. Officers and records.—The subscribers to said articles of incorporation shall choose from their number a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such number of directors not less than three who shall continue in office for the period of one year from the date of filing articles of incorporation, and until their successors shall be duly chosen and qualified. They shall open books for the subscriptions of stock in the company at such times and places as they shall deem convenient and proper, and shall keep them open until the full amount specified in the certificate is subscribed. [Id.]

Art. 4993. Capital and deposits.—Only companies organized and doing business under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to its provisions. Such company shall have not less than one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed, paid in in cash, with an additional fifty thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed and fully paid in in cash for every kind of insurance more than one which it is authorized to transact. Such companies with two hundred thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed and fully paid in in cash shall be authorized to transact all and every kind of insurance specified in the first article of this chapter; all of which said capital stock shall be paid up or invested in bonds of the United States, or of this State, or of any county or municipality of this State or in bonds or first liens upon unencumbered real estate in this State or in any other State in which such company may previously have been duly licensed to conduct an insurance business. In either instance such real estate shall be worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon. The value of such real estate shall be determined by a sworn valuation made by two freeholders of the county where the real estate is located. If buildings are considered as part of the value of such real estate they must be insured for the benefit of the mortgage. Upon such company furnishing evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner that the capital stock as herein prescribed has been all subscribed and paid up in cash in good faith, and that such capital stock has been invested as herein prescribed, and upon the deposit of the sum of fifty thousand dollars of such securities or in cash with the State Treasurer, then said Commissioner shall issue to said company a certificate authorizing it to do business. No part of the capital paid in shall be loaned to any officer of said company. In the event any such company shall be required by the law of any other State, country or province as a requirement prior to doing an insurance business therein to deposit with the duly appointed officer of such other State, country or province or with the State Treasurer of this State, any securities or cash in excess of the said deposit of fifty thousand dollars hereinbefore mentioned, such company, at its discretion, may deposit with the State Treasurer securities of the character authorized by this law, or cash sufficient to enable it to meet such requirements. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to receive such deposit and to hold it exclusively for the protection of all policy holders of the company. Any deposits so made to meet the requirements of any other State, country or province shall not be withdrawn by the company except upon filing with the Commissioner evidence satisfactory to him that the company has withdrawn from business, and has no unsecured liabilities outstanding in any such other State, country or province by which such additional deposit was required, and upon the filing of such evidence the company may withdraw such additional deposit at any time. [Id.]

Art. 4994. Powers.—A corporation organized or doing business under the provisions of this law shall, by the name adopted by such corporation, in law, be capable of suing or being sued, and may make or enforce contracts in relation to the business of such corporation; may have and use a common seal, and in the name of the corporation or by a trustee chosen by the board of directors, shall in law, be capable of taking, purchasing, holding and disposing of real and personal property for carrying into effect the purposes of their organization; and may by their board of directors, trustees, or managers, make by-laws and amendments thereto not inconsistent with the laws or the Constitution of this State or of the United States, which by-laws shall define the manner of electing directors, trustees or managers and officers of such corporation, together with the qualifications and duties of the same, and fixing the term of office. [Id.]

Art. 4995. Annual statement.—The president, vice president and secretary or a majority of directors or trustees of such company organized under the provisions of this law shall annually, on the first day of January or within sixty days thereafter, prepare and deposit in the office of the Commissioner a verified statement of the condition of such company on the 31st day of December of the preceding year, showing:

1. Name and where located, (a) names of officers, (b) the amount of capital stock, (c) the amount of capital stock paid in.
2. Assets, (a) the value of real estate owned by said company, (b) the amount of cash on hand, (c) the amount of cash deposited in bank or trust company, (d) the amount of bonds of the United States, and all other bonds, giving names and amounts with par and market values of each kind, (e) the amount of loans secured by first mortgage on real estate, (f) the amount of all other bonds, loans and how secured, with rate of interest, (g) the amount of notes given for unpaid stock and how secured, (h) the amount of interest due and unpaid, (i) all other credits or assets.
3. Liabilities, (a) the amount of losses due and unpaid, (b) the amount of claims for losses unadjusted, (c) the amount of claims for losses resisted.
4. Income during the year, (a) the amount of fees received during the year, (b) the amount of interest received from all sources, (c) the amount of receipts from all other sources.
5. Expenditures during the year, (a) the amount paid for losses, (b) the amount of dividends paid to stockholders, (c) the amount of commissions and salaries paid to agents, (d) the amount paid to officers for salaries, (e) the amount paid for taxes, (f) the amount of all other payments or expenditures.
6. Miscellaneous, (a) the amount paid in fees during the year, (b) the amount paid for losses during the year, (c) the whole amount of insurance issued and in force on the 31st day of December of the previous year. [Id.]

Art. 4996. Additional information.—The Commissioner is authorized to amend the form of statement and to exact such additional information as he may think necessary in order that a full exhibit of the standing of such companies may be shown. [Id.]

Art. 4997. Failure of duty.—Upon the failure of any company to make such deposit or to file the statement in time, the Commissioner shall notify such company to issue no new insurance until the law is complied with, and it shall be unlawful for any such company to thereafter issue any policy of insurance until such requirements shall be complied with. [Id.]

Art. 4998. Examination.—The Commissioner may at any time make or authorize any suitable person to make a personal examination of the books, papers and securities of any such company. For the purpose of securing a full and true exhibit of its affairs, he or the person selected by him shall have power to examine under oath any officer of said company relative to its business management. [Id.]

Art. 4999. Revoking certificate.—If the Commissioner shall at any time from the report of examination determine that the company has not complied with any provision of this law, he shall revoke its certificate of authority to do business in this State, and shall refer the facts to the Attorney General, who shall proceed to ask the proper court to appoint a receiver for said company, who shall, under the direction of the court, wind up the affairs of said company. In no other way can the Commissioner or any other person restrain or interfere with the prosecution of business of any company doing business under the provisions of this law, except in actions by judgment creditor or in proceedings supplementary to execution. [Id.]

Art. 5000. Change of securities.—Such companies shall have the right at any time to change their securities on deposit with the State Treasurer by substituting for those withdrawn a like amount in other securities of the character provided for in this law. [Id.]

Art. 5001. Increase of capital.—Any such company may increase its capital stock at any time after the intention to so increase the capital stock shall have been ratified by a two-thirds vote of the stockholders, and after notice of the purpose to so increase the capital stock has been given by publication in some newspaper of general circulation for four consecutive weeks. No increase of capital stock in less amount than fifty thousand dollars is hereby authorized. [Id.]

Art. 5002. Dividends.—The directors of any such company shall not make any dividends except from the surplus profit arising from their business. No dividends shall be declared except at the close of the year. [Id.]

Art. 5003. Interest on deposits.—The State Treasurer shall permit companies having securities on deposit with him under the provisions of this law to collect the interest as the same may become due, and shall deliver to such companies respectively the coupons or other evidences of interest pertaining to such deposits. Upon failure of any company to deposit additional security as called for by the Commissioner, or pending any proceedings to close up or enjoin it, the State Treasurer shall collect the interest as it becomes due and hold the same as additional security in his hands belonging to such company. [Id.]

Art. 5004. Penalty.—Any company organized or doing business under this law without a certificate as provided for in this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars for every day it continues to write new business in this State without such certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5005. Suits for penalties.—Suits to recover any penalty provided for in this law shall be instituted in the name of the State of Texas, by the Attorney General or by a district or county attorney under his direction, either in the county where the principal office is situated, or in Travis County. Such penalties, when recovered, shall be paid into the State Treasury for the use of the school fund. [Id.]

Art. 5006. Investment of funds.—No company organized under the provisions of this chapter shall invest its funds over and above its paid up capital stock in any other manner than as follows:

(a) In bonds of the United States or of any of the states of the United States which are at or above par. (b) In bonds or first liens on unencumbered real estate in this State or in any other state, country or province in which such company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business, and provided in each instance such real estate shall be worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon. The value of such real estate shall be determined by a valuation made under oath by two freeholders of the county where the real estate is located, and if buildings are considered as a part of the value of such real estate they must be insured for the benefit of the mortgages. (c) In bonds or other interest-bearing evidence of indebtedness of any county, incorporated city, town or school or sanitary district in this or any other state in which said company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business, if such evidences of indebtedness are issued by authority of law and if interest upon them has never been defaulted. (d) In the stocks or bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent dividend-paying corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, or of the United States or of any state, country or province in which such company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business. (e) In loans upon the pledge of any mortgage, stock or bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness, acceptable as investments under the terms of this law if the current value of such mortgage stock, bond or other evidence of indebtedness is at least twenty-five per cent more than the amount loaned thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5007. Real estate.—No such company shall be permitted to purchase, hold or convey real estate, except for the purpose and in the manner herein set forth:

1. For the erection and maintenance of buildings at least ample and adequate for the transaction of its own business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith for money due.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in the satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings and which must be taken in by the company on account of the debt secured by such mortgage.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments, decrees or mortgages obtained or made for such debts. No company incorporated as aforesaid shall purchase, hold or convey real estate in any other cases or for any other purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5008. Sale of real estate.—All real estate so acquired, except as is occupied by buildings used in whole or in part for the accommodation of such companies in the transaction of its business, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be sold and disposed of within ten years after such company shall have acquired title to the same. No such company shall have such real estate for a longer period than that above mentioned, unless the said company shall procure a certificate from the Commissioner that the interests of the company will suffer materially by a forced sale of such real estate, in which event the time for the sale may be extended to such time as the Commissioner shall direct in said certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5009. Certificate of authority.—The Commissioner upon due proof by a company organized under the provisions of this law, of its possessing the qualifications required, shall issue a certificate setting forth that it has qualified and is authorized for the ensuing year to do business under the law, which certificate or a copy thereof shall be evidence of such qualifications and of the company's authority to transact business authorized by this law, and of its solvency and credits. [Id.]

Art. 5010. Fees.—The Commissioner shall charge for filing the preliminary statement and for filing the annual statement required by this chapter, a fee of ten dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5011. Service of process.—Process in any civil suit against any casualty company organized under the laws of this State may be served only on the president, or any active vice president or secretary, or general counsel residing at the city of the home office of the company, or by leaving a copy of same at the home office of such company, during business hours. [Id.]

Art. 5012. Decrease of stock.—Any such company may decrease its capital stock at any time after the intention to so decrease the capital stock shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the stockholders, and after notice of such purpose has been published in some newspaper of general circulation for a period of four consecutive weeks. [Id.]

Art. 5013. "Underwriters" defined.—Individuals, partnerships or associations of individuals, hereby designated "underwriters," are authorized to make any insurance, except life insurance, on the Lloyd's plan, by executing articles of agreement expressing their purpose so to do and complying with the requirements set forth in this chapter. [Acts 1921, p. 238.]

Art. 5014. "Attorneys" defined.—Policies of insurance may be executed by an attorney in fact or other representative, hereby designated "attorney" authorized by and acting for such underwriters under powers of attorney. The principal office of such attorney shall be maintained at such place as may be designated by the underwriters in their articles of agreement. [Id.]

Art. 5015. Application for license.—The attorney shall file with the Commissioner a verified application for license setting forth and accompanied by:

(a) The name of the attorney and the title under which the business is to be conducted, which title shall contain the name Lloyd's and shall not be so similar to any name or title in use in this State as to be likely to confuse or deceive.

(b) The location of the principal office.

(c) The kinds of insurance to be effected, which kinds of insurance may be as follows:

1. Fire insurance, which term shall be construed to include tornado, hail, crop and floater insurance.

2. Automobile insurance, which term shall be construed to include fire, theft, transportation, property damage, collision, liability and tornado insurance.

3. Liability insurance.

4. Marine insurance.

5. Accident and health insurance.

6. Burglary and plate glass insurance.

7. Fidelity and surety bonds insurance.

8. Any other kinds of insurance, not above specified, the making of which is not otherwise unlawful in this State, except life insurance.

(d) A copy of each form of policy or contract by which such insurance is to be effected.

(e) A copy of the form of power of attorney by virtue of which the attorney is to act for and bind the several underwriters and a copy of the articles of agreement entered into between the underwriters themselves and the attorney.

(f) The names and addresses of all underwriters, whose number shall not be less than ten.

(g) A financial statement showing in detail the assets and liabilities accumulated and incurred and the income and disbursements received and made by the attorney for the underwriters.

(h) An instrument executed by each and all of the underwriters specially empowering the attorney to accept service of process for each underwriter in any action on any policy or contract of insurance, and an instrument from the attorney to such Commissioner delegating the attorney's powers in this respect to such Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5016. License.—Upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter and upon a showing of assets as provided in the succeeding article, the Commissioner shall, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars, issue a license to any attorney applying therefor specifying the kind or kinds of insurance which he is authorized to make and containing the name of the attorney, the location of his principal office, and the title under which such business is to be conducted. Such license shall continue in force until surrendered by the attorney or revoked or suspended by the Commissioner as authorized by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5017. Assets.—No attorney shall be licensed for the underwriters at a Lloyd's under this chapter unless the net assets, including the guarantee fund provided for in the articles of agreement, held by the attorney, committee of underwriters, trustee or other officer, as provided for in the articles of agreement, shall be at least forty thousand dollars in cash or convertible securities; nor shall any attorney be licensed for the underwriters at a Lloyd's to transact more than two kinds of insurance as defined in the third article of this chapter, unless the net assets as above defined and held shall be as much as ten thousand dollars additional for each additional kind of insurance designated in the application for license; provided that if the underwriters have net assets as above described in an amount equal to one hundred thousand dollars, they may write any kind of insurance that may be lawfully written in this State except life insurance. If the Commissioner finds upon any examination of a Lloyd's that the net assets as above defined are less than the amount required, the impairment shall be made good within thirty days from the service of a requisition for that purpose by such Commissioner upon the attorney for the underwriters. If any such attorney or other person shall make any advancement to make good any such impairment, the claim for the same against the assets of the underwriters shall be deferred to claims for losses under policies or contracts of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 5018. Examination of affairs.—The Commissioner may make examinations of the books and affairs of any attorney for underwriters at a Lloyd's, the expense of any such examination to be borne by the underwriters, and the attorney and his deputies shall facilitate such examinations and furnish all information which the Commissioner may reasonably demand. Such Commissioner may revoke or suspend the license of any attorney in case of breach of any of the conditions imposed by this chapter and upon reasonable notice in writing to the attorney so that he may appear and show cause why such license should not be revoked or suspended. [Id.]

Art. 5019. Liability of substitutes.—Additional or substituted underwriters shall be bound in the same manner and to the same extent as original subscribers to the articles of agreement and power of attorney on file with the Commissioner; and the acts of the duly appointed deputy or substitute attorney of any attorney licensed under this chapter in accepting powers of attorney from underwriters and in making and issuing policies and contracts of insurance and in doing any additional acts incident thereto shall be deemed authorized by the license issued to the original attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5020. Assuming risk.—No attorney for underwriters at a Lloyd's shall assume any one insurance risk exceeding one-fifth of the amount of the net assets of the underwriters as defined in this chapter and the additional liability assumed by the individual underwriters in the articles of agreement and in the policies or contracts of insurance, unless such excess shall be promptly reinsured. [Id.]

Art. 5021. Action on policy.—Action on any policy or contract of insurance made by the attorney for the underwriters may be brought against the attorney or against the attorney and the underwriters or any of them. In such action, summons and process shall be served on the Commissioner or on the attorney in fact and when so served shall have the same force and effect as if served on the attorney and on each underwriter personally. A judgment in any such action against the attorney or against any of the underwriters shall be binding upon and be a judgment against each and all of the underwriters as their several liabilities may appear in the contract of insurance in which the action is brought.

Any such summons or other process shall be served in duplicate, and the Commissioner shall forthwith by registered mail send one copy thereof to the attorney for the underwriters at the principal office designated in the application for license or latest amendment thereof. The party commencing any action against the underwriters at a Lloyd's and securing service of process in this manner shall at the time of such service pay to such Commissioner for the use of the Department a fee of two dollars, which he shall be entitled to collect as taxable costs in the action if he shall prevail. [Id.]

Art. 5022. Revoking or suspending license.—All such underwriters, their attorneys, agents and representatives transacting the business of insurance in this State on the Lloyd's plan shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this chapter and upon violation of any provision hereof the Commissioner may revoke or suspend any license or certificate of authority issued under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5023. This law exclusive.—Except as herein provided no other insurance law of this State shall apply to insurance on the Lloyd's plan unless it is specifically so provided in such other law that the same shall be applicable. [Id.]

Art. 5024. May exchange contracts.—Individuals, partnerships and corporations of this State hereby designated subscribers are hereby authorized to exchange reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts with each other, or with individuals, partnerships and corporations of other States and countries, providing indemnity among themselves from any loss which may be insured against under other provisions of the laws, excepting life insurance. [Acts 1915, p. 269.]

Art. 5025. Attorney for subscribers.—Such contracts may be executed by a duly appointed attorney in fact duly authorized and acting for such subscribers. The office or offices of such attorney may be maintained at such place or places as may be designated by the subscribers in the power of attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5026. Declaration of subscribers.—Such subscribers, so contracting among themselves, shall, through their attorney, file with the Commissioner a declaration verified by the oath of such attorney setting forth:

1. The name or the title of the office at which subscribers propose to exchange such indemnity contracts. Said name or title shall not be so similar to any other name or title previously adopted by a similar organization, or by any insurance corporation or association, as in the opinion of such Commissioner is calculated to confuse or deceive. The office or offices through which such indemnity contracts shall be exchanged shall be classified as reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges.

2. The kind or kinds of insurance to be effected or exchanged.

3. A copy of the form of policy, contract or agreement under or by which such insurance is to be effected or exchanged.

4. A copy of the form of power of attorney or authority of such attorney under which such insurance is to be effected or exchanged.

5. The location of the office or offices from which such contracts or agreements are to be issued .

6. That applications have been made for indemnity upon at least seventy-five separate risks, aggregating not less than one-half million dollars as represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective, or in case of liability or compensation insurance, covering a total payroll of not less than two thousand employes.

7. That there is on deposit with some State or National bank as a depository for the payment of losses not less than the sum of ten thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5027. Service of process.—Concurrently with the filing of such declaration, the attorney shall file with the Commissioner of Insurance an instrument in writing, executed by him for said subscribers, conditioned that, upon the issuance of certificates of authority hereinafter provided for, service or process may be had upon such Commissioner in all suits in this State arising out of such policies, contracts or agreements, which service shall be valid and binding upon all subscribers exchanging at any time reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts through such attorney. Three copies of such process shall be served, and the Commissioner shall file one copy, forward one copy to said attorney, and return one copy with his admission of service. [Id.]

Art. 5028. Statement of indemnity.—Such attorney shall file with the Commissioner a statement under the oath of such attorney showing the maximum amount of indemnity upon any single risk, and such attorney shall, whenever and as often as the same shall be required, file with such Commissioner a statement verified by his oath to the effect that he has examined the commercial rating of such subscribers as shown by the reference book of a commercial agency having at least one hundred thousand subscribers, and that from such examination or from other information in his possession it appears that no subscriber has assumed on any single risk an amount greater than 10 per cent of the net worth of such subscriber. [Id.]

Art. 5029. Reserve.—There shall at all times be maintained as a reserve a sum in cash or convertible securities equal to one-half of the aggregate net annual deposits collected and credited to the accounts of the subscribers on policies having one year or less to run and pro-rata on those for longer periods. For the purpose of said reserve, net annual deposits shall mean the advance payments of subscribers after deducting therefrom the amounts specifically provided in the subscribers' agreements for expenses and reinsurance. Said sum shall at no time be less than ten thousand dollars, and if at any time one-half of the aggregate deposits so collected and credited shall not equal that amount, then the subscribers, or their attorney for them, shall make up any deficiency. [Id.]

Art. 5030. Financial report.—Such attorney shall make an annual report to the Commissioner for each calendar year, which report shall be made on or before March 1st, for the previous calendar year ending December 31, showing the financial condition of affairs at the office where such contracts are issued is in accordance with the standard of solvency provided for herein, and shall furnish such additional information and reports as may be required to show the total premiums or deposits collected, the total losses paid, the total amounts returned to subscribers, and the amounts retained for expenses. Such attorney shall not be required to furnish the name and address of any subscriber. The business affairs and assets of said reciprocal or inter-insurances exchanges, as shown at the office of the attorney thereof, shall be subject to examination by such Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5031. Any corporation may exchange.—Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State shall, in addition to the rights, powers and franchises specified in its articles of incorporation, have full power and authority to exchange insurance contracts of the kind and character herein mentioned. The right to exchange such contracts is hereby declared to be incidental to the purposes for which such corporations are organized and as much granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [Id.]

Art. 5032. Certificate of authority.—Each attorney by whom or through whom are issued any policies of or contracts for indemnity of the character referred to herein shall procure from the Commissioner annually a certificate of authority, stating that all of the requirements have been complied with, and upon such compliance and the payment of the fees required by this law, the Commissioner shall issue such certificate of authority. Such Commissioner may revoke or suspend any certificate of authority issued hereunder in case of breach of any condition imposed by this law after reasonable written notice has been given said attorney so that he may appear and show cause why action should not be taken. Any attorney who may have procured a certificate of authority hereunder shall renew same annually thereafter. Any certificate of authority shall continue in effect until the new certificate of authority be issued or specifically refused. Such attorney shall pay as a fee for the issuance of the certificate of authority herein provided for the sum of twenty dollars, which shall be in lieu of all license fees and taxes of whatsoever character in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5033. When insurance law applies.—Except as herein provided, no insurance law of this State shall apply to the exchange of such indemnity contracts unless they are specifically mentioned. [Id.]

Art. 5034. [4943] [3086] Must publish certificate.—Every insurance company doing business in this State, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, shall publish annually, within thirty days after the issuance thereof, a certificate from the Commission that such company has in all respects complied with the laws in relation to insurance.

Art. 5035. [4946] [3082] Publication of notices.—Whenever, by any provision of this title, any notice or other matter is required to be published, it shall, unless otherwise provided, be published for three successive weeks in two newspapers printed in this State which have a general circulation in this State.

Art. 5036. [4967-4868-4944] Unlawful dividend.—No life, health, fire marine or inland insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, shall make any dividend except from the surplus profits arising from its business. In estimating such profits, there shall be reserved therefrom a sum equal to forty per cent of the amount received as premiums on unexpired fire risks and policies, and one hundred per cent of the premiums received on unexpired life, health, marine or inland transportation risks and policies, which amount so reserved is hereby declared to be unearned premiums. There shall also be reserved the amount of all unpaid losses, whether adjusted or unadjusted; all sums due the company on bonds, mortgages, stocks and book accounts, of which no part of the principal or the interest thereon has been paid during the year preceding such estimate of profits, and upon which suit for foreclosures or collections has not been commenced, or which after judgment has been obtained thereon shall have remained more than two years unsatisfied, and upon which interest shall not have been paid. In case of any such judgment, the interest due or accrued thereon and remaining unpaid shall also be reserved. Any dividend made contrary to the provisions of this article shall subject the company making it to a forfeiture of its charter, and the Commissioner shall forthwith revoke its certificate of authority. [Acts 1875, p. 36; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 408.]

Art. 5037. Live stock, etc.—Fire, marine, life and live stock insurance companies may be organized under the provisions of this title. Such live stock insurance companies may be organized with an authorized and paid up capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 292.]

Art. 5038. [4956] Extension of powers.—Corporations may be incorporated under the laws of this State to transact any one or more kinds of insurance business other than life, fire, marine, inland, lightning or tornado insurance business in the same manner, and by complying with the same requirements, as prescribed by law for the incorporation of life insurance companies. No such company shall be incorporated having the power to do a fidelity and surety business or a liability insurance business with a paid up capital stock of less than two hundred thousand dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5039. [4945] [3081] Association of companies.—In the event that any number of insurance companies, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, should associate themselves together for the purpose of issuing or vending policies or joint policies of insurance, such association shall not be permitted to do business in this State until the taxes and fees due from each of said companies shall have been paid and all the conditions of the law fully complied with by each company; and any company failing or refusing to pay such taxes and fees, and to fully comply with the requirements of law, shall be refused permission by the Commissioner to do business in this State.

Art. 5040. What companies may consolidate.—Any two or more insurance companies doing a similar line of business which are and have been substantially owned by same controlling stockholders and which have never been companies actually competing with each other, and where all of them have been previously organized under the laws of this State, may unite or consolidate upon compliance with the terms of this law. Such consolidation shall not be effectuated in violation of the anti-trust and anti-monopoly laws of this State. Before any such consolidation shall take place the parties holding at least two-thirds of the capital stock of each of the companies shall vote in favor thereof at a separate meeting of the stockholders of each company called for such purpose. Such meeting may be called in the manner provided in the by-laws of the respective companies or the laws under which such companies are organized, for calling special meetings of stockholders, except that each stockholder shall be notified by mail of the time and place and object of such meeting. [Acts 1919, p. 97.]

Art. 5041. Consolidation.—Such companies proposing to consolidate may unite their assets or any part thereof and become incorporated in one body under the name of any one or more of such companies or under any other name that may be agreed upon, and issue stock in such corporation to the stockholders of each of the companies consolidated, the actual value of which stock in the new company shall bear the same proportion to the actual value of the stock surrendered by such stockholders as the entire assets of the company surrendering such stock bears to the entire assets of the new company, which value shall be agreed upon by the board of directors of each company; provided, that said stockholders (holding two-thirds of the stock) may at the meeting provided for in the preceding article, delegate the valuation of assets to a committee of stockholders appointed by their respective boards of directors; or

2. One company may take over all the assets of the other companies proposing to consolidate and issue stock to their stockholders in the proportion that the value of their stock bears to the entire value of the assets of the company in which they are stockholders, and for this purpose the capital stock of such purchasing company may be increased, as now or may be hereafter provided by law.

3. In case of consolidation under the first option provided in the first subdivision hereof, the Commissioner shall upon proof furnished of compliance with the terms hereof and being satisfied that the proposed consolidation is for the best interests of the policy holders of the respective companies and made in accordance with law, and upon the filing of articles of incorporation and other due proceedings had as required by the laws of this State, issue and deliver a charter to such new company.

4. Such consolidation shall work a dissolution of the companies absorbed, but shall in no wise prejudice the right of any creditor of any such corporation to have payment of his debt out of the assets and property thereof, nor shall any creditor be thereby deprived of, nor prejudiced in any right of action then pending or existing or which may thereafter arise against said company, and service or summons of the proper officers or agents of such new or reorganized corporation shall be deemed sufficient as to all or any of such companies.

5. All policies of insurance outstanding against all such companies shall by reason of such consolidation be assumed by the reorganized company, and they shall carry out the terms of such policy on the part of the insurer and be entitled to all the rights and privileges thereof and the reserves accumulating on such policy prior to such consolidation.

Art. 5042. [4957] Other laws for certain companies.—No provision of this chapter shall apply to companies carrying on the business of life or casualty insurance on the assessment or annual premium plan, under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5043. [4947] Misrepresentation by policy holder.—Any provision in any contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State, which provides that the answers or statements made in the application for such contract or in the contract of insurance, if untrue or false, shall render the contract or policy void or voidable, shall be of no effect, and shall not constitute any defense to any suit brought upon such contract, unless it be shown upon the trial thereof that the matter or thing misrepresented was material to the risk or actually contributed to the contingency or event on which said policy became due and payable, and whether it was material and so contributed in any case shall be a question of fact to be determined by the court or jury trying such case. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5044. [4948] Notice of misrepresentation.—In all suits brought upon insurance contracts or policies hereafter issued or contracted for in this State, no defense based upon misrepresentations made in the applications for, or in obtaining or securing the said contract, shall be valid, unless the defendant shall show on the trial that, within a reasonable time after discovering the falsity of the representations so made, it gave notice to the assured, if living, or, if dead, to the owners or beneficiaries of said contract, that it refused to be bound by the contract or policy; provided, that ninety days shall be a reasonable time; provided, also, that this article shall not be construed as to render available as a defense any immaterial misrepresentation, nor to in any wise modify or affect Article 5043.

Art. 5045. [4959] Immaterial misrepresentation.—No recovery upon any life, accident or health insurance policy shall ever be defeated because of any misrepresentation in the application which is of an immaterial fact and which does not affect the risks assumed. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5046. [4949] Misrepresenting loss or death.—Any provision in any contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State, which provides that the same shall be void or voidable, if any misrepresentations or false statements be made in proofs of loss or of death, as the case may be, shall be of no effect, and shall not constitute any defense to any suit brought upon such contract or policy, unless it be shown upon the trial of such suit that the false statement made in such proofs of loss or death was fraudulently made, and misrepresented a fact material to the question of the liability of the insurance company upon the contract of insurance sued on, and that the insurance company was thereby misled, and caused to waive or lose some valid defense to the policy. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5047. Forfeiture of beneficiary's rights.—The interest of a beneficiary in a life insurance policy or contract heretofore or hereafter issued shall be forfeited when the beneficiary is the principal or an accomplice in willfully bringing about the death of the insured. When such is the case, the nearest relative of insured shall receive said insurance. [Acts 1919, p. 21.]

Art. 5048. Life insurance beneficiaries.—Any corporation, partnership, joint stock association or any trust estate doing business for profit, may be named beneficiary in any policy of insurance issued by a legal reserve life insurance company on the life of any officer or stockholder of said corporation, joint stock association or trust estate; or any partnership or member thereof may be the beneficiary in any policy of insurance issued by a legal reserve life insurance company upon the life of any member of said partnership; or any religious, educational, eleemosynary, charitable or benevolent institution or undertaking may be named beneficiary in any policy of life insurance issued by any legal reserve life insurance company upon the life of any individual. The beneficiaries aforementioned shall have an insurable interest for the full face of the policy and shall be entitled to collect same. On all policies of life insurance heretofore issued by legal reserve companies in which any of the aforementioned shall have been designated beneficiaries in the policies, said beneficiaries shall have an insurable interest to the full extent of the face of the policy and be entitled to collect same. [Acts 1921, p. 165.]

Art. 5049. [4951] Policies and applications.—Every contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State shall be accompanied by a written, photographic or printed copy of the application for such insurance policy or contract, as well as a copy of all questions asked and answers given thereto. The provisions of the foregoing articles shall not apply to policies of life insurance in which there is a clause making such policy indisputable after two years or less, provided premiums are duly paid; provided, further, that no defense based upon misrepresentation made in the application for, or in obtaining or securing, any contract of insurance upon the life of any person being or residing in this State shall be valid or enforceable in any suit brought upon such contract two years or more after the date of its issuance, when premiums due on such contract for the said term of two years have been paid to, and received by, the company issuing such contract, without notice to the assured by the company so issuing such contract of its intention to rescind the same on account of misrepresentation so made, unless it shall be shown on the trial that such misrepresentation was material to the risk and intentionally made. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5050. [4953] Policies to contain entire contract.—Every policy of insurance issued or delivered within this State by any life insurance company doing business within this State, shall contain the entire contract between the parties, and the application therefor may be made a part thereof. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5051. [4952] Level premium policies.—No level premium policy of life insurance shall be issued or sold by any company in this State which provides for more than one year preliminary term insurance. [Id.]

Art. 5052. [4958] Misrepresentation of policies.—No life insurance company doing business in this State, and no officer, director or agent thereof, shall issue or circulate, or cause or permit to be issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular or statement of any sort misrepresenting the terms of any policy issued by it, or benefits or advantages to be promised thereby, or the dividends or share of surplus to be received thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5053. [4954] Discrimination.—No insurance company doing business in this State shall make or permit any distinction or discrimination in favor of individuals between the insured of the same class and of equal expectation of life in the amount of, or payment of, premiums or rates charged for policies of life or endowment insurance, or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon; nor shall any such company or agent thereof make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as expressed in the policy issued thereon; nor shall any such company, or any officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to insurance, any rebate of premiums payable on the policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue thereon, or any paid employment or contract for service of any kind, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the policy or contract of insurance; or give, sell or purchase, or offer to give, sell or purchase, as an inducement to insurance, or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits to accrue thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the policy, or issue any policy containing any special or board contract or similar provision, by the terms of which said policy will share or participate in any special fund derived from a tax or a charge against any portion of the premium on any other policy. Any company or agent violating the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code; and the said company shall, as an additional penalty, forfeit its certificate of authority to do business in this State, and the said agent shall, as an additional penalty, forfeit his license to do business in this State for one year. The company shall not be held liable under this article for any act of its agent, unless such act was authorized by its president, one of its vice presidents, its secretary or an assistant secretary, or by its board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 5054. [4950] Texas laws govern policies.—Any contract of insurance payable to any citizen or inhabitant of this State by any insurance company or corporation doing business within this State shall be held to be a contract made and entered into under and by virtue of the laws of this State relating to insurance, and governed thereby, notwithstanding such policy or contract of insurance may provide that the contract was executed, and the premiums and policy (in case it becomes a demand) should be payable without this State, or at the home office of the company or corporation issuing the same. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5055. [4960] [3061] [2943] Certificate of authority.—It shall not be lawful for any person to act within this State, as agent or otherwise, in soliciting or receiving applications for insurance of any kind whatever, or in any manner to aid in the transaction of the business of any insurance company incorporated in this State or out of it, without first procuring a certificate of authority from the Commissioner.

Art. 5056. [4961] [3093] Who are agents.—Any person who solicits insurance on behalf of any insurance company, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State or foreign government, or who takes or transmits other than for himself any application for insurance or any policy of insurance to or from such company, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit the same, or who shall receive or deliver a policy of insurance of any such company, or who shall examine or inspect any risk, or receive, or collect, or transmit any premium of insurance, or make or forward any diagram of any building or buildings, or do or perform any other act or thing in the making or consummating of any contract of insurance for or with any such insurance company other than for himself, or who shall examine into, or adjust or aid in adjusting any loss for or on behalf of any such insurance company, whether any of such acts shall be done at the instance or request, or by the employment of such insurance company, or of, or by any broker or other person, shall be held to be the agent of the company for which the act is done, or the risk is taken, as far as relates to all the liabilities, duties, requirements and penalties set forth in this chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to citizens of this State who arbitrate in the adjustment of losses between the insurers and insured, nor to the adjustment of particular or general average losses of vessels or cargoes by marine adjusters who have paid an occupation tax of two hundred dollars for the year in which the adjustment is made nor to practicing attorneys at law in the State of Texas, acting in the regular transaction of their business as such attorneys at law, and who are not local agents, nor acting as adjusters for any insurance company. Any person who shall do any of the acts mentioned in this article for or on behalf of any insurance company without such company having first complied with the requirements of the laws of this State, shall be personally liable to the holder of any policy of insurance in respect of which such act was done for any loss covered by the same. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 32.]

Art. 5057. [4962] [3094] Assessment of taxes.—Whenever any person shall do or perform within this State any of the acts mentioned in the preceding article for or on behalf of any insurance company therein referred to, such company shall be held to be doing business in this State, and shall be subject to the same taxes, State, county and municipal, as insurance companies that have been legally qualified and admitted to do business in this State by agents or otherwise are subject, the same to be assessed and collected as taxes are assessed and collected against such companies; and such persons so doing or performing any of such acts or things shall be personally liable for such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 5058. [4963] Resident agents.—Any fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety, or fidelity insurance company, legally authorized to do business in this State, is hereby prohibited from authorizing or allowing any person, agent, firm or corporation that is a non-resident of the State of Texas to issue, or cause to be issued, to sign or countersign, or to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any policy or policies of insurance on property, person or persons located in this State, except through regularly commissioned and licensed agents of such companies in Texas. This law shall not apply to property owned by the railroad companies or other common carriers. Upon oath made in writing by any person that he can not procure insurance on property through such agents in Texas, it shall be lawful for any insurance company not having an agent in Texas to insure property of any person upon application of said person, upon his filing said oath with the county clerk of the county in which such person resides. [Acts 1903, p. 232.]

Art. 5059. [4964] Affidavit of company.—Before a certificate or license to any fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company is issued authorizing it to transact business in this State, the Commissioner shall require in every case, in addition to the other requirements already made and provided by the law, that each such insurance company shall file with him an affidavit that it has not violated any provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5060. [4965] Commissions to non-residents.—Any person, agent, firm or corporation licensed by the Commissioner to act as a fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent in the State of Texas, is hereby prohibited from paying, directly or indirectly, any commission, brokerage or other valuable consideration on account of any policy or policies covering property, person or persons, in this State, to any person, persons, agent, firm or corporation that is a non-resident of this State, or to any person or persons, agent, firm or corporation not duly licensed by the Commissioner of Insurance of this State as a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent. [Id.]

Art. 5061. [4967] Commissioner may examine.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized and it is made his duty, at the expense of the company investigated, to examine at the head office, located within the United States of America, all books, records and papers of such company and also any officers or employees thereof under oath, as to violations of this law, and he is further empowered to examine person or persons, administer oaths, and send for papers and records, and failure or refusal upon the part of any life, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company, person or persons, agent, firm or corporation, licensed to do business in the State of Texas, to appear before the Commissioner when requested to do so, or to produce records and papers, or answer under oath, shall subject such fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company, person, persons, agent, firm or corporation to the penalties of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5062. [4966] Penalty for violation.—Whenever the Commissioner shall have or receive notice or information of any violation of any provision of this law, he shall immediately investigate, or cause to be investigated, such violation, and if a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company has violated any of such provisions, he shall immediately revoke its license for not less than three months, nor more than six months for the first offense, and, for each offense thereafter, for not less than one year; and, if any person, agent, firm or corporation licensed by such Commissioner as a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent shall violate or cause to be violated any provision of this law, he shall, for the first offense, have his license revoked for all companies for which he has been licensed, for not less than three months, and for the second offense he shall have his license revoked for all companies for which he is licensed and shall not thereafter be licensed for any company for one year from date of such revocation. [Id.]

Art. 5063. [4968] Solicitor deemed company's agent.—Any person who shall solicit an application for insurance upon the life of another shall in any controversy between the assured and his beneficiary and the company issuing any policy upon such application be regarded as the agent of the company, and not the agent of the insured, but such agent shall not have the power to waive, change or alter any of the terms or conditions of the application or policy. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5064. [4969] Who may not be agents.—No corporation or stock company shall be licensed or granted a certificate of authority as the agent or representative of any life insurance company in soliciting, selling or in any manner placing life in-insurance policies or contracts in the State. No life insurance company shall be granted a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, which has or is bound by any valid subsisting contract with any other corporation, by virtue of which such other corporation is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, any percentage or portion of the premium or other income of such life insurance company for any period. No person shall be granted a certificate of authority as the agent of any life insurance company who enters into any contract with any corporation other than such life insurance company, by virtue of which such other corporation is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation earned by him as agent for such life insurance company, or any percentage or portion thereof for any period. [Id.]

Art. 5065. [4970] Certificates for agents.—Each such foreign insurance company shall, by resolution of its board of directors, designate some officer or agent who is empowered to appoint or employ its agents or solicitors in this State, and such officer or agent shall promptly notify the Commissioner in writing of the name, title and address of each person so appointed or employed. Upon receipt of this notice, if such person is of good reputation and character, the Commissioner shall issue to him a certificate which shall include a copy of the certificate of authority authorizing the company requesting it to do business in this State, and the name and title of the person to whom the certificate is issued. Such certificate, unless sooner revoked by the Commissioner for cause or canceled at the request of the company employing the holder thereof, shall continue in force until the first day of March next after its issuance, and must be renewed annually. [Id.]

Art. 5066. [4971] Revocation of agent's certificate.—Cause for the revocation of the certificate of authority of an agent or solicitor for an insurance company may exist for violation of any of the insurance laws, or if it shall appear to the Commissioner upon due proof, after notice that such agent or solicitor has knowingly deceived or defrauded a policy holder or a person having been solicited for insurance, or that such agent or solicitor has unreasonably failed and neglected to pay over to the company, or its agent entitled thereto, any premium or part thereof, collected by him on any policy of insurance or application therefor. The Commissioner shall publish such revocation in such manner as he deems proper for the protection of the public; and no person whose certificate of authority as agent or solicitor has been revoked shall be entitled to again receive a certificate of authority as such agent or solicitor for any insurance company in this State for a period of one year. [Id.]

Art. 5067. [4508] [3060] Revocation of certificate of authority.—Should any insurance company fail or neglect to pay off and discharge any execution, issued upon a valid final judgment against said company, within thirty days after the notice of the issuance thereof, then in that event the certificate of authority of said company to transact business of insurance shall be revoked, canceled and annulled, and said company shall be prohibited from transacting business of insurance in this State until said execution be satisfied. [Acts 1879, p. 159.]

Art. 5068. [4972] Foreign insurance corporations.—The provisions of this title are conditioned upon which foreign insurance corporations shall be permitted to do business within this State, and any such foreign corporation engaged in issuing contracts or policies within this State shall be held to have assented thereto as a condition precedent to its right to engage in such business within this State. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

| Definitions | 5069 | Rate on judgments | 5072 |
| Legal rate applicable | 5070 | Action on usurious rate | 5073 |
| Limit on rate | 5071 | Usury, how pleaded | 5074 |

Art. 5069. [4973-4974-4975] Definitions. — “Interest” is the compensation allowed by law or fixed by the parties to a contract for the use or forbearance or detention of money: “legal interest” is that interest which is allowed by law when the parties to a contract have not agreed upon any particular rate of interest; and “conventional interest” is that interest which is agreed upon and fixed by the parties to a written contract, not to exceed ten per cent per annum. “Usury” is interest in excess of the amount allowed by law; all contracts for usury are contrary to public policy and shall be void.

Art. 5070. [4977-4978] Legal rate applicable.—When no specified rate of interest is agreed upon by the parties, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be allowed on all written contracts ascertaining the sum payable, from and after the time when the sum is due and payable; and on all open accounts, from the first day of January after the same are made. [Acts 1892, p. 4; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 368.]

Art. 5071. [4979-4980] Limit on rate.—The parties to any written contract may agree to and stipulate for any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum on the amount of the contract; and all written contracts whatsoever, which may in any way, directly or indirectly, provide for a greater rate of interest shall be void and of no effect for the amount or value of the interest only; but the principal sum of money or value of the contract may be received and recovered. [Id.]

Art. 5072. [4981] Rate on judgments.—All judgments of the courts of this State shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from and after the date of the judgment, except where the contract upon which the judgment is founded bears a specified interest greater than six per cent per annum and not exceeding ten per cent per annum, in which case the judgment shall bear the same rate of interest specified in such contract and after the date of such judgment. [Id.]

Art. 5073. [4982] Action on usurious rate.—Within two years after the time that a greater rate of interest than ten per cent shall have been received or collected upon any contract, the person paying the same or his legal representative may by an action of debt recover double the amount of such interest from the person, firm or corporation receiving the same. Such action shall be instituted in any court of this State having jurisdiction thereof, in the county of the defendant's residence, or in the county where such usurious interest shall have been received or collected, or where said contract has been entered into, or where the parties who paid the usurious interest resided when such contract was made. [Acts 1907, p. 277.]

Art. 5074. [4983] Usury, how pleaded.—No evidence of usurious interest as a defense shall be received on the trial of any case, unless the same shall be specially pleaded and verified by the affidavit of the party wishing to avail himself of such defense. [Acts 1876, p. 228; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1064.]

Art. 5075. Sale of intoxicating liquor, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to possess or receive for the purpose of sale, or to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for or furnish spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or any other intoxicant whatever, or to possess, receive, manufacture or knowingly sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for or furnish any equipment, still, mash, material, supplies, device or other thing for manufacturing, selling, bartering, exchanging, transporting, exporting, delivering, taking orders for, or furnishing any such liquors, intoxicants or beverages. [Act July 30, 1919, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229, Act Sept. 3, 1921, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 233, Act May 28, 1923, Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 53.]

Art. 5076. Liquor more than one per cent.—It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to possess or receive for the purpose of sale, or to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, or furnish spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters, or any potable liquor, mixture or preparation containing in excess of one per cent of alcohol by volume, or to possess, receive, manufacture, or knowingly sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, or furnish any equipment, still, mash, material, supplies, device, or other thing for manufacturing, selling, bartering, exchanging, transporting, exporting, delivering, taking orders for, or furnishing any such liquors, intoxicants or beverages. [Acts 2nd. C. S. 1919, p. 229, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 233, Acts 2nd. C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5077. Exceptions as to intoxicating liquor.—It shall not be unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, furnish, possess or receive for the purpose of sale, barter, exchange, transport, export, or deliver spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors or medicated bitters for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, or sacramental purposes. [Act Sept. 3, 1921, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 234.]

Art. 5078. Exceptions as to other liquor.—The manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, transportation, exporting, taking orders for, furnishing, and possessing of any of the liquors mentioned in this title, if done for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, or sacramental purposes, shall not be punishable under the terms of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5079. Not an accomplice witness.—Upon a trial for a violation of any provision of this title, the purchaser, transporter, or possessor of any of the liquors prohibited herein shall not be held in law or in fact to be an accomplice, when a witness in any such trial. [Id.]

Art. 5080. Possession prima facie evidence.—Whenever possession or receipt, or possession or receipt for the purpose of sale, is made unlawful by law, proof of possession of mash, or of a still or any device for manufacturing intoxicating liquors, or proof of the possession of more than one quart of intoxicating liquors, shall be prima facie evidence of guilt; but the defendant shall have the right to introduce evidence showing the legality of such possession. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5081. "Intoxicating liquors" defined.—The words "intoxicating liquors," or "liquors" hereafter used in this title shall be held to include and comprehend all liquors referred to in the first and second articles of this chapter, and the said liquors prohibited by said articles will hereafter be referred to herein for convenience as "intoxicating liquors." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5082. Liquors included.—The various liquors described in the first two articles of this title shall be construed to include all distilled, malt, spirituous, vinous, fermented or alcoholic liquors and all alcoholic liquids and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called, which require a federal tax as a beverage, or which contain more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medical properties of the drug contained in such preparation and to hold the medicinal agents in solution and preserve the same. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5083. Lawful use.—The provisions of this title shall not prohibit the possession of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes for use by the owner and members of his family, or bona fide guests, in a bona fide residence, if such liquors were purchased and deposited in such residence before this law goes into effect. Nothing in this title shall prohibit the manufacture, transportation, storage, and sale of denatured or pure ethyl alcohol, or denatured rum for use only in the industrial or mechanical arts or for scientific purposes or in chemical laboratories or hospitals, or to prevent the manufacture, transportation, sale and keeping and storing for sale any medical preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States Pharmacopeia or National Formulary or American Institute of Homeopathy, or of alcoholic, patent or proprietary medicines which do not require the payment of the Federal Tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drug contained in such preparation, and to hold the medicinal agents in solution, and to preserve the same and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, or to prevent the manufacture and sale of bona fide alcohol toilet, or antiseptic preparations and solutions or flavoring extracts which do not require the payment of Federal tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary for the extraction, solution and preservation of the agents contained therein, and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, and upon the outside of the bottle or package of each is printed in English conspicuously and legibly and clearly the quantity by volume of alcohol in such preparation. The manufacturer of flavoring extracts or toilet, medicinal, antiseptic preparations or solutions, patent or proprietary medicines, or preparations permitted to be manufactured by this law shall be permitted to purchase, possess, transport and store alcohol necessary for the manufacture of said article, but not to be sold or given away. Such manufacturer shall secure a permit from the Comptroller and shall make a monthly report to be filed with the Comptroller on or before the 10th day of each month, showing the name and quantity of every such preparation, solution or medicine so manufactured, and the percentage of alcohol contained in each such preparation, solution or medicine. Said manufacturer shall, upon request of the Attorney General, the Comptroller, or the District or County Attorney of the county in which such manufacturer has his place of business, furnish to the officer making such request any information called for by such officer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of any such alcoholic preparation, solution or medicine, and any information with reference to the quantities and dates of sale and transportation of any such preparation, solution or medicine to any person or persons designated in such request. Any of the officers herein above named shall have the right at any reasonable time within business hours to examine the books and records and all data in the possession of such manufacturer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of such alcoholic preparations. Nothing herein shall prevent the storage in United States bonded warehouses in the custody of a United States collector of internal revenue of all liquors manufactured prior to the taking effect of this law or to prevent the transportation of such liquors for purposes not inhibited by law. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5084. Permit to sell or make.—Alcohol for non-beverage purposes and wine for sacramental purposes may be manufactured and sold as follows:

The Comptroller may issue permits to persons, to manufacture and sell equipment for the manufacture of liquor not prohibited herein; to manufacture alcohol and wine; to manufacture alcoholic, patent or proprietary medicine, flavoring extracts and culinary preparations and other nonbeverage alcoholic preparation; to wholesale and retail druggists or pharmacists and to persons permitted to possess alcohol and wine for authorized purposes. Such permits shall not be in conflict with the prohibitions contained herein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5085. Bond.—A permit shall not be issued by the Comptroller to any person who has, within two years next preceding the issuing of the same, been adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this Act, or of any permit, or of any law of this State, or of the United States, prohibiting or regulating the liquor traffic; nor shall a permit be issued for the purpose of selling such liquor at retail, unless such sale be made by a pharmacist designated in the permit and duly licensed by the State Board of Pharmacy, nor until a bond shall be given and approved, and the applicant has filed written application therefor setting forth the qualifications and the purposes for which the permit will be used, together with such other information as the Comptroller may require. The bond herein required of a retailer shall be made payable to the Governor of this State at Austin, in Travis County, shall be in the sum of one thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful observance of this Act; the bond shall be upon such form as may be drawn and prescribed by the Attorney General and for any breach of the same, suit may be brought in the District Court of Travis County to recover the entire amount of same as a penalty for such violation of the law and breach of the bond. Said bond, if signed by personal sureties, must be signed by two solvent sureties, or, if by a surety company, then by a surety company authorized to transact business in the State of Texas. The bond shall be subject to the approval of the Comptroller and shall be filed in his office. The Attorney General shall bring all actions for breach of said bond in the name of the State. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5086. No permit for sacramental wine.—Such permit when issued shall contain date of issue, shall be in writing, signed by the Comptroller, shall name and give the address of the person to whom issued, give location where such liquors, equipment or material is to be manufactured, kept, stored or sold, and fix the maximum quantity of such liquor permitted to be kept or stored and specifically designate and limit the acts permitted, give the name and address of all individuals authorized to do the permitted acts; provided the name and address of the agents, employes and servants of common carriers may be omitted by the Comptroller from such permit, and such permit shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue thereof. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring any priest, rabbi or minister of any religious denomination or sect to have a permit in order to purchase or receive shipments of wine for sacramental purposes; and nothing in this title shall make it unlawful for any priest, rabbi or minister or any religious denomination or sect to purchase, order or receive, wine for sacramental purposes or for any common carrier to ship, transport, carry or deliver same to any priest, rabbi or minister of any religious denomination or sect for sacramental purposes only. Where such shipment or purchase is made a record thereof shall be made and kept and the priest, rabbi or minister making such purchase or shipment shall be identified. Such quantities of wine may be purchased and kept on hand for sacramental purposes as may be necessary for the particular church or religious institution for the use and service of which same is purchased or shipped. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, Acts 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5087. Attach label to container.—All persons manufacturing alcohol or wine, or either, shall securely and permanently attach to any container of such liquor as the same is manufactured, and thereafter, persons possessing such liquor in wholesale quantities shall securely keep and maintain thereon, a manufacturer's label, stating name of manufacturer, kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, with a copy of the permit authorizing the manufacture thereof. Every person having in his possession any intoxicating liquor, purchased after this law becomes effective, for permitted purposes, shall have pasted on or permanently attached to the container a copy of the prescription or affidavit as the case may be, upon which authority it was purchased as is provided for in this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5088. Record of manufacturer.—All persons authorized to manufacture alcohol shall keep a separate record of such liquors manufactured or sold, giving date and quantity of such liquor manufactured and sold, the quantity of such liquor on hand, name and address of persons to whom such liquor was sold, the name and address of all agents in any way connected with such manufacture, sale, or purchase, or the keeping, storing, delivering, consigning, and distribution of such liquor, the name and address of all common, or other carriers, receiving, transporting, and delivering said liquor, and a copy of the application on which the purchase or sale of such liquor was made, and a detailed account of the dispositions of such liquor. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller every third month by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5089. Sale by wholesale druggists.—It shall be unlawful for a wholesale druggist to sell alcohol or wine, except in wholesale quantities, to persons having permits to purchase in such quantities. Such wholesale druggist shall keep an accurate record of all sales and label the containers of such liquor, setting forth the kind of liquor contained therein, by whom manufactured, and the person to whom sold. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller every third month by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. It shall be unlawful for a retail druggist or pharmacist to sell any liquor except alcohol for non-beverage purposes or wine for sacramental purposes. Such druggist or pharmacist shall keep a record giving the name of the doctor issuing the prescriptions containing alcohol, the amount, date of sales, the name and signature of the purchaser, the person making the sale, and a copy of the prescription. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5090. Duty of physician prescribing.—Every physician who issues a prescription for ethyl alcohol, or any alcoholic liquor, shall first secure a permit from the Comptroller, except as herein provided, and shall keep a record alphabetically arranged in a separate book provided by the Comptroller, which shall show: Date, amount, to whom issued, directions for use (stating the amount and frequency of dose), and the druggist to whom addressed. Such physician shall send a copy of such record to the Comptroller not later than the fifth day of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5091. Physician to obey law.—A physician who issues prescriptions must be in active practice, in good standing with his profession, not addicted to the use of any narcotic drug, and have a permit as provided herein for issuing prescriptions. Such physician before issuing any prescriptions must make a careful personal, physical examination of the person to whom the alcohol is prescribed, and in no case issue such prescription to any person whom he has reason to believe will use alcohol for beverage purposes, nor prescribe more than a pint of alcohol to any person at a time. Nor shall such prescriptions be filled at any pharmacy or drugstore in which the physician has any financial interest. For any shift or device by which intoxicating liquors may be improperly prescribed, or for any violation of this article, in addition to the penalty prescribed, for the first offense under this title, the Comptroller may suspend the permit of such physician to issue prescriptions for alcohol for a period of one year, and for the second offense, in addition to the punishment prescribed herein, the permit of such physician shall be deemed revoked forthwith. The revocation of such permit, if revoked by the court, shall be sent to the authority granting the permit and shall act as a ban to the granting of any further permit to such physician to issue prescriptions. [Act 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5092. Carrier to secure permit.—Every railroad company, express company, or other common carrier that transports any liquor shall secure first a permit from the Comptroller and keep correctly at the place of receipt for shipment, in type-writing or in a clear and legible hand, that the same may be easily read, a permanent alphabetically arranged record of the receipt of such liquors and the name and post-office address, street address, or other description of domicile of the consignor and consignee, and the place of delivery. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the transportation of liquor for other than permitted purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5093. Delivery by carrier.—Common carriers may deliver liquor to persons who have permits to manufacture or possess the same in wholesale quantities, upon the presentation of a verified copy of the permits from the Comptroller, and affidavit to the carrier that such liquor will not be used in violation of the law; and the common carrier may also receive for shipment, and ship and deliver, liquor to persons for the uses permitted herein when affidavit is presented to the carrier that such liquor will not be used in violation of the law. The copy of the record hereinbefore mentioned shall be sent by the transportation company to the Comptroller of the State where the delivery was made, not later than the 10th day of the month for the quarter next preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5094. Record of carrier.—The record to be kept by the transportation company at the place of delivery shall show: Name of consignor, consignee, kind of liquor and quantity; the number of permit from the Comptroller; and the signature of the consignee. The affidavits of the consignee to be attached to the above record shall be as follows:

State of _____ } County of _____ } ss

_____ being duly sworn, deposes and says, that my address is _____ (or other definite description, giving street number or hotel); I am not a minor, nor of intemperate habits. I am the owner of a package in the office of a common carrier, to-wit: _____ It contains (giving amount and kind of liquor) _____ which I have ordered in writing the _____ day of _____ upon the authority of permit No. _____; that the purpose for which I ordered such liquor is _____; that I have not received from any carrier or any person, nor have I had in my control at any place or places, more than _____ (amount) of alcohol or wine within the last three days preceding this date, and I do not have liquor on hand except _____; that I will not use any of such liquor nor allow anyone else to use such liquor for beverage purposes or for purposes other than herein stated.

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence _____ day of _____, 19____.

The agent of the common carrier is hereby authorized to administer the oath to the foregoing consignee, who, if not personally known to the agent, shall first be identified before the delivery of the liquor to him. The names and addresses of the person identifying the consignee shall be included in the record.

The affidavit shall be made in the form prescribed, in a permanent record, and if such permanent record has not been furnished the carrier by the Comptroller, after application for the same, then the affidavit of the consignee shall be pasted or permanently attached at the bottom of the record mentioned therein and a copy attached permanently to the container of such liquor. If such container is inclosed in a package with other material, then such copy shall be attached to it or pasted on it when it is taken from such package and before the liquor is so delivered. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 234.]

Art. 5095. Comptroller to furnish form.—The Comptroller shall have printed forms of records, affidavits, and prescriptions, as provided herein, and shall furnish the same at cost to only such persons as are authorized by law to sell, transport, purchase, manufacture or use alcohol. The affidavits or prescriptions to be filed with the druggist shall be printed in book form, numbering such affidavit with a consecutive serial number from one to one hundred. Each book shall be given a number, and a stub in each book shall carry the same number as the affidavit or prescription, showing the copy of the record of such sale. The book containing such stub shall be returned to the Comptroller when the affidavits or prescriptions are used, or not later than six months from the date that such book or affidavits and prescriptions were delivered to such druggist or physician. All unused, mutilated, or defaced blanks shall be returned with the book. No druggist or physician shall make such sale or issue such prescriptions, except on blanks herein provided. The form of such record shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall charge a fee of five dollars for each and every character of permit issued by him under this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5096. Pharmacist cited for violation.—If at any time there shall be filed with the Comptroller a complaint under oath setting forth that any pharmacist, who has a permit to sell alcohol for medical, mechanical, or scientific purposes, or wine for sacramental purposes, is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of this chapter, or is guilty of violating this law, the Comptroller or his agent shall immediately issue an order citing such pharmacist to appear at a place in the State where he resides before the Comptroller, on a day named not more than thirty days, nor fewer than fifteen days, from the issuing of such order, at which time the question of the cancellation of such permit shall be heard. If it be found that such pharmacist is guilty of violating any provision of this law, such permit shall be revoked and no permit shall be granted to such person, firm, or corporation for two years thereafter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5097. Fixing place of sale—Venue.—In case of a sale where a shipment or delivery of such intoxicating liquor is made by a common or other carrier the sale or delivery thereof shall be deemed to be made in the county wherein the delivery is made by such carrier to the consignee, his agent, or employees. A prosecution for such sale or delivery may likewise be had in the county wherein the sale is made or from which the shipment is made, or in any county through which the shipment is made. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5098. Advertising liquor.—It shall be unlawful to advertise anywhere, on land or water, by any means or method, intoxicating liquors, or to advertise the manufacture, method of manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing of the same, or where, how, from whom and at what price the same may be obtained. The manufacturer of alcohol or wine and wholesale druggists having a permit under this chapter shall be allowed to send price lists to those to whom they are permitted to sell alcohol or wine under this law; it shall also be unlawful to permit any sign or billboard containing such prohibited advertisement to remain upon one's premises or to circulate any prohibited price list, order blank or other matter designed to induce or secure orders for such intoxicating liquors. The officers charged with the enforcement of this law are authorized to remove, paint over or otherwise obliterate any such advertisement from any sign, billboard, or other place when it comes to his notice, and shall do so upon the demand of any citizen who has first requested the person in charge of such advertisement, or the owner of the property on which it is located to remove the same and such person fails to remove such advertisement as required by law. Any advertisement or notice containing the picture of a brewery, distillery, bottle, keg, barrel, or box or other receptacle represented as containing intoxicating liquors, or designed to serve as an advertisement thereof, shall be within the inhibition of this article. It shall be unlawful for any newspaper or periodical to print in its columns statement concerning the manufacture or distribution of alcoholic liquors directly or indirectly, for which the said newspaper or periodical receives compensation of any kind, without printing at the beginning and at the close of said statement in type of the same size used in the body of the said article the following statement: "Printed as paid advertising." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5099. Liquor places to clean up.—Every person except licensed pharmacists, wholesale druggists, manufacturing chemists, or hospitals or other places provided for herein to legally possess liquor, shall remove, or cause to be removed, all intoxicating liquors in his possession for prohibited purposes, and failure to do so shall be evidence that such liquor is kept therein for the purpose of being sold, bartered, exchanged, given away, furnished or otherwise disposed of in violation of the provisions of this title. All screens, stained glass, or other obstructions which prevent a clear view of the interior of any room or place where intoxicating liquors were sold as a beverage within one year before this Act becomes operative shall be removed or changed so as to give a permanent unobstructed view of the interior of said room or place, if beverages of any kind are sold therein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 5100. Recipe or formula.—It shall be unlawful to advertise, sell, deliver or possess any preparation, compound, or table from which intoxicating liquor as a beverage is made, or any formula, directions, or recipes for making intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 5101. Concealing nature of shipment.—No person shall use or induce any railroad company, express company, or any other carrier, or any servant or employe thereof, or any person or persons, to carry transport, or ship any package or receptacle containing liquors without notifying the carrier, its servant or agent, or any person who carries the same, of the true nature and character of the shipment. But failure to notify such carrier shall not be a defense for illegal transportation. [Id.]

Art. 5102. Soliciting or giving information.—No person shall solicit, or receive from any person for the purpose of forwarding for the person from whom received, any orders for intoxicating liquors from any person, or give any information how such prohibited liquors may be received, or where such liquors are, or send for such liquors, except for the purposes permitted by this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5103. Order to carrier to deliver.—It shall be unlawful to give to any carrier, or any officer, agent or person acting or assuming to act for such carrier, an order requiring the delivery to any person of any liquor or package containing liquors consigned to a person when the purpose of the order is to enable any person not an actual bona fide consignee to obtain such liquors. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5104. Information on shipped container.—No person shall transport liquor or receive or possess any liquor from a common or other carrier unless there appears on the outside of the package containing such liquors the following information: Name and address of the consignor or seller, name and address of the consignee or persons receiving the liquor; kind and quantity of liquor contained therein and number of permit. Any consignee accepting or receiving any package containing any such liquors upon which appears a false statement, or any person consigning, shipping, transporting, or delivering any such package, knowing that such statement appearing on the outside is false, shall be deemed guilty of violating the provisions of this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5105. No property right in liquor.—No property rights of any kind shall exist in any intoxicating liquors manufactured or sold or kept for sale for beverage purposes in violation of law, and in all such cases the same may be searched for, seized and ordered to be destroyed. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5106. To rent or keep for unlawful purpose.—No person shall rent to another or keep or be in any way interested in keeping any premises, building, room, boat or place to be used for the purpose of storing, manufacturing, selling, transporting, receiving or delivering, or bartering or giving away intoxicating liquors in violation of this title, and any one who knowingly does so shall be guilty of violating this law and shall be punished accordingly as provided in the penal article of this title. [Acts 2nd C: S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5107. Nuisance.—Any room, house, building, boat, structure, or place of any kind similar or dissimilar to those named, where intoxicating liquor is kept, possessed, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or to be transported to or transported from in violation of law, and all intoxicating liquors and all property kept in and used in maintaining such place are hereby declared to be a common nuisance and any person who maintains or assists in maintaining such common nuisance shall be guilty of violating this law and shall be punished accordingly. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5108. May enjoin nuisance.—The Attorney General or County or District Attorney of the county where such nuisance, as defined in the preceding article exists or is kept or maintained, may maintain an action in the name of the State of Texas to abate and perpetually enjoin such nuisance and upon judgment of the court ordering, such nuisance shall be abated, all intoxicating liquor, containers, utensils and instrumentalities used in the maintenance of such nuisance shall be ordered by the court to be destroyed, same shall be destroyed by any officer authorized to execute civil process; the court shall also order that the place where said nuisance is kept or maintained be closed for one year or until the owner, lessee, tenant or occupant thereof shall file bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court making the order in the penal sum of $1,000.00, payable to the State of Texas, at Austin, Texas, and conditioned that intoxicating liquor will not thereafter be manufactured, sold, bartered, stored, transported to or from, or given away in violation of law. In case of the violation of any condition of such bond, the whole sum may be recovered as a penalty in the name and for the State of Texas in the District Courts of Travis County, all suits to be brought by the Attorney General. In all cases where any person has been convicted of a violation of the provisions of this title for acts done in keeping or maintaining the nuisance defined in the preceding article, and such conviction has been final, then a certified copy of such judgment of conviction shall be considered as prima facie evidence of the existence of such nuisance in any action to abate the same. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5109. Penal article.—Any corporation violating any provision of this title shall be subject to a penalty in favor of the State of Texas, which shall be recoverable in an action in the name of the State to be brought by the Attorney General in any district court of Travis County or such action may be brought in the district court of any county where the offense is committed, by the Attorney General or by the county or district attorney of such county with the consent and approval of the Attorney General. In any such action for penalties, the State shall recover the sum of Five Hundred Dollars for any violation of the law, provided that each separate violation of the law shall be considered a separate offense within the terms of this article, or where the offense is of a continuing character, then each day shall be considered a separate infraction of the law, for which the penalty may be recovered. The officers, agents or servants of any corporation against which any such penalty suit may be brought shall not be excused from testifying on the ground that their testimony might incriminate them, but where they are called upon by the State to testify and do testify they shall not be prosecuted for their participation in those acts about which they have testified. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 239.]

Art. 5110. Violating injunction.—In addition to all other remedies now provided by law and provided in this Act, the Attorney General is hereby authorized to enjoin the violation of any article of this title, and suit therefor may be maintained in the name of the State of Texas in any District Court in Travis County. The district or county attorney of any county, where in any of the provisions of this Act, are violated, is authorized to institute and maintain, in the district court of any such county, a suit in the name of the State to enjoin and prevent the violation of any article of this title. This remedy by an injunction given in this article shall be cumulative of and in addition to the other provisions of this Act providing penalties or creating and defining crimes and punishments, and may be maintained with or without prosecutions or penalty suits herein otherwise provided for. Any person violating the terms of any injunction issued under the provisions of this article shall be punished for contempt by fine of not less than One Hundred nor more than Five Hundred Dollars, and by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 240.]

Art. 5111. Witness shall testify.—No person shall be excused from testifying against persons who have violated any provisions of this title for the reason that such testimony will tend to incriminate him, but no person required to so testify shall be punished for acts disclosed by such testimony. [Id.]

Art. 5112. Seizure.—Any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquor as defined in this title is declared to be a public nuisance; and any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used in the presence and view of any peace officer of this State for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquors as so defined, or for the commission of any act made unlawful by this Act, shall be seized without warrant by such peace officer, which officer shall within twenty-four hours after such seizure file with the county clerk a detailed statement of the time when, the place where and the circumstances under which he seized such property, and shall appraise the value thereof. At any time before the trial of the condemnation suit herein provided for, the owner of said property seized or the person in whose possession or under whose control the same was at the time of seizure, may replevy the same by giving bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, or a solvent guaranty or surety company, chartered or authorized to do business under the laws of this State, to be approved by the officer making the seizure or by his successor in office, payable to the State of Texas in an amount equal to the reasonable market value of the property replevied as fixed by the appraisal of said officer seizing same, conditioned that should said property in said action be condemned as a nuisance, the obligors in such bond will pay to the State of Texas the reasonable cash market value of the property replevied at the time it was seized, and all costs. In the event the property seized is not replevied, same shall be stored in a bonded warehouse, provided that if there is not a bonded warehouse in the county where such property is seized and within reasonable reach of the officer seizing same, then such property shall under the direction of the district judge having jurisdiction of said suit be stored in a safe place and be safely kept in good condition, to abide the final judgment of the proper court with reference thereto, the fees for storage to be taxed as costs in any proceeding for the condemnation or recovery of said property. The county or district attorney shall after the seizure of said property institute suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to condemn the same as a public nuisance, and to have the same destroyed if the same is not valuable or useful for some legitimate purpose, and if valuable or useful for some legitimate purpose to be sold under order of said court, and the proceeds of such sale shall be immediately paid into the State Treasury. In cases where the property is destroyed the county or district attorney shall receive fifteen dollars in each case, and the sheriff or other officer making the seizure and sale shall receive ten dollars, to be paid by the county in which said condemnation suit is tried. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5113. "Person" includes corporation.—The word "person" as used in this Act shall be held to include both natural persons and corporations. Where the offense is committed by a corporation, the corporation shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5114. Disposition of intoxicating liquors.—In all cases where intoxicating liquors or any personal property used for the purpose of violating any of the intoxicating liquor laws of this State, shall be seized by an officer with or without a search warrant, such officer shall immediately make a written report thereof, which report shall in detail state the name of the officer making the seizure, the place where seized and an inventory of the property, articles or intoxicating liquors so taken into possession. The report shall be in triplicate and signed by the officer seizing, and one witness, if there be a witness present. One copy shall be given to the person from whom the goods are taken, one copy shall be sworn to by the officer who makes the seizure and immediately filed with the county clerk of the county in which the goods are seized, and one copy shall be retained by the officer who makes the seizure. Said officer, if not the sheriff, shall immediately deliver to the sheriff of the county, the goods seized, and take the sheriff's receipt therefor in duplicate. And such sheriff shall retain the intoxicating liquor or personal property so seized and hold the same until the same shall be disposed of by proper orders of the district court of the county in which said property was seized. The duplicate copy of said receipt shall be immediately filed with said county clerk.

"Whenever any intoxicating liquor is adjudged to be destroyed, the district judge may, instead of having the same actually destroyed, order the same to be delivered to the State Board of Control at Austin, Texas, for use for medicinal purposes in the State eleemosynary institutions. When notified that a district judge has so ordered any intoxicating liquor to be so delivered, the Board of Control shall pay the expenses of transporting and delivering the same to said Board of Control.

"All liquors and property so seized shall be preserved for use as evidence in the trial of any action growing out of such seizure and all officers seizing such liquors or property are hereby required to mark the date of the seizure and the name of the person from whom seized. The sheriff shall be liable on his bond for the safe-keeping of all such property so turned over to him under the provisions of this Act." [Acts 1925, p. 346.]

JAILS.

Art. 5115. [5108-5111] Jails provided.—The commissioners court shall provide safe and suitable jails for their respective counties, and shall cause the same to be kept in good repair. They shall see that the jails of their respective counties are kept in a clean and healthy condition, properly ventilated, and not over-crowded with prisoners, and that they are furnished with clean and comfortable mattresses and blankets sufficient for the comfort of the prisoners. When there is no jail in a county, the sheriff may rent a suitable house and employ guards, the expense to be paid by the proper county. [Act July 22, 1876, p. 52; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 888.]

Art. 5116. [5109] [3133] Sheriff and jailer.—Each sheriff is the keeper of the jail of his county. He shall safely keep therein all prisoners committed thereto by lawful authority, subject to the order of the proper court, and shall be responsible for the safe keeping of such prisoners. The sheriff may appoint a jailer to take charge of the jail, and supply the wants of those therein confined; but in all cases the sheriff shall exercise a supervision and control over the jail. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 268; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1574; Act August 26, 1856, p. 88; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 506.]

Art. 5117. [5112-3] Marshal may use jail.—Sheriffs and jailers shall receive into their jails such prisoners as may be delivered or tendered to them by any United States Marshal or his deputy for any district of Texas, and shall safely keep such prisoners until they are demanded by such marshal or his deputy, or are discharged by due course of law. The marshal by whose authority such prisoners are received and kept shall be directly and personally liable to the sheriff or jailer for the jail fees and all other expenses of the keeping of such prisoners, such fees and expenses to be estimated according to the laws regulating the same in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 5118. Prisoner sent to another jail.—A county to which a prisoner is sent, for want of a safe jail in the proper county, may by suit recover from the county from which such prisoner was sent a sum not exceeding seventy-five cents per day on account of the expense attending the safekeeping of such prisoner.

Art. 5119. [5224] Instruction of inmates.—The Board of Control and the Superintendent of the State Juvenile Training School shall provide for and maintain suitable instruction and training of the inmates of said school. Said instruction shall include common school or agricultural branches, or all as may be deemed desirable by said Board and superintendent. The Board and superintendent shall arrange for each inmate to receive a reasonable amount of instruction in the school of letters and industrial branch each year. Each inmate shall be given definite instruction and training in some useful occupation and shall be given such moral training and discipline as he is capable of receiving. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 7.]

Art. 5120. [5225] The superintendent.—The superintendent shall be a man of high moral character, education and training, and shall have had experience in handling wayward boys. He shall take the official oath and shall give a sufficient bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Governor or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 5121. [5226] Powers and duties of the superintendent.—The superintendent shall: 1. Keep a register in which he shall enter the name of each inmate, date of reception, previous moral character, habits and education, so far as can be ascertained, his conduct and deportment, educational and vocational advancement while in said school, the discharge, death, escape, commutation of time, parolment and punishment of each person admitted to said school.

2. See that the buildings and premises are kept in good and sanitary order.

3. Cause to be kept the books of the institution fully exhibiting all moneys received and disbursed, the source from which received and purposes for which same is expended. All supplies for the school shall be purchased in the same manner as for other similar institutions. Said books shall give a full record of all products produced on the farm, whether sold or consumed, and shall at all times be open for the inspection of the Board or the Governor.

Art. 5122. [5227] Employment of officers, etc.—The superintendent shall employ subordinate officers, teachers and employees necessary to the conduct, administration and maintenance of said institution up to the standards of efficiency and utility essential to accomplish the best results. Any employee who uses tobacco or intoxicating liquor in any form while on duty shall be discharged by the superintendent. The superintendent with the consent of the Board may discharge any employee for cause.

The salaries and compensation of all subordinate officers, teachers and employees shall be fixed by the Board in the form of an itemized account to be sworn to by the superintendent. Such salaries shall not exceed the amounts appropriated for same and shall be paid monthly on the Comptroller's warrants based upon such account. Said account shall contain the name and address of each person and the amount due and for what service. No account for salary shall be presented by said superintendent until the same has been fixed by said Board. [Id.]

Art. 5123. [5228] Religious services.—The Board shall provide for religious services at said institution for the benefit of the inmates thereof, and shall employ a chaplain who shall be an ordained minister of the gospel. The superintendent shall require all inmates in said institution who are physically able to attend at least one religious service on each Sunday. Such chaplain shall, under the direction of the superintendent, devote his time to the religious and moral training and education of said inmates, and to visiting sick inmates whenever necessary, and shall receive an annual salary not to exceed seven hundred and twenty dollars. Such chaplain may also be a teacher, such as is provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1911, p. 211.]

Art. 5124. Conveying male to school.—The officer conveying any male to any State training school shall be paid by the county in which such child was convicted the actual traveling expenses of such officer and child, and five dollars additional. [Acts 1909, p. 100.]

Art. 5125. [5229] Who received.—All male white persons under the age of seventeen years who shall be lawfully committed to the State Juvenile Training School as a delinquent child shall be received as inmates of said training school. [Acts 1909, p. 103, 1st C. S. 1913, p. 10.]

Art. 5126. [5230] Promotion and discharge of inmates.—The Board shall establish and maintain in said school a system of grading and promotion on a basis of the moral, intellectual and industrial advancement of the inmates. When the superintendent is satisfied that any inmate has acquired sufficient self-control, moral habits and industrial efficiency, and suitable employment under a responsible, sober and moral person can be found for said inmate, he shall, with the approval of said Board, grant said inmate "leave of probation." To secure homes and employment for inmates and of visiting and supervising them while on probation, a furlough officer shall be employed who shall, when not engaged with his duties as such officer, assist in teaching and in the general work of the school under the direction of the superintendent. When employment has been secured for any inmate he shall be sent out on a furlough with the condition that the person furloughed and his employer shall send a written report at the end of each month thereafter for a period of twelve months to the furlough officer stating the habits and demeanor of said furloughed person. If each report be favorable the superintendent shall recommend to the Governor that a full release be granted such juvenile and that his term of commitment be terminated. If any monthly report shall be deemed unfavorable, or be not sent as herein provided, and the superintendent should become convinced before the expiration of the said twelve months that said furloughed person should be returned to the school for further training or discipline, the said inmate shall in that event forfeit his leave of probation, and shall be returned to school. If his employer shall fail or refuse to return said furloughed person to said school it shall be the duty of the furlough officer or any peace officer, upon notice from the superintendent, to take such furloughed person into custody, under the same conditions as if he were an escaped inmate, and return him to said school in the manner prescribed in the succeeding article. The Governor shall at any time have power to grant a pardon to any inmate of said school. [Id.]

Art. 5127. [5234] Escape and apprehension.—If any inmate of said school shall escape therefrom, or if on leave of probation or furlough and is ordered returned and the employer of said furloughed person fails or refuses to return him it shall be the duty of the superintendent of said institution or any officer or employe of same, or any peace officer to apprehend him. Any person may lawfully apprehend such escaped inmate and forthwith deliver him to any peace officer. Any such escaped inmate shall be returned to said school by any furlough, probation or peace officer. The cost of his return shall be paid by the county from which said inmate was committed. [Id.]

Art. 5128. [5231] Limitation of term.—Commitments to such school shall be upon the indeterminate sentence plan. No juvenile shall remain or be detained therein or upon parole under the control of the officers of said school after he becomes twenty-one years old. [Id.]

Art. 5129. [5232] [5233] Care of inmates.—The superintendent shall divide the inmates into such classes and shall house, feed and train them in such manner as he deems best for the development and advancement of the child. All inmates shall be provided with shelter, wholesome food and suitable clothing, books, means of healthful recreation and other material necessary for their training, at the expense of the State, except as otherwise provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5130. Punishment of inmates.—Corporal punishment in any form shall not be inflicted upon the inmates of said institution except as a last resort to maintain discipline, and then only in the presence of the superintendent and a resident nurse. At no time shall any inmate be struck more than twenty times, and that only with such instrument and in such manner as will inflict reasonable and moderate punishment, considering the age, size and strength of the culprit and the strength of the person administering such punishment. At no time shall any weapon or instrument of torture be used or any instrument which by its make, coupled with the manner of its use, would be calculated to inflict bodily injury. [Acts 1913, 1st C. S. p. 11.]

Art. 5131. School for negro boys.—There shall be maintained at the Ferguson State Farm in Madison County a school for the education and training of delinquent negro boys, to be named and known as The State Training School for Negro Boys, the government of which shall be vested in the Board of Prison Commissioners. Said board shall manage and control said institution in accordance with the laws, rules and regulations now and hereafter governing the State Juvenile Training School, located at Gatesville, as far as the same are applicable and practical. Said Board shall have the same powers in the management of said institution as are by law conferred upon the State Board of Control and the Superintendent of said Juvenile Training School. The same law, rules and regulations providing for the religious services, care and punishment, pardon, limitation of time, promotion and discharge, and escape and apprehension of inmates as provided in this title for the Juvenile Training School, shall apply to and govern as to the inmates of said school for negro boys, as far as applicable. All negro boys under the age of seventeen years who shall be lawfully committed to The State Training School for Negro Boys as a delinquent child shall be received as inmates of said school for negro boys. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 57.]

Art. 5132. Girls' Training School.—The Girls' Training School for dependent and delinquent girls shall be under the control and management of the State Board of Control which shall provide wholesome and proper quarters and exercise and diversion, and shall make provision for training in all of the useful arts and sciences to which women are adapted, to prepare them for future womanhood and independence, and shall provide instruction in nursing, sanitation and hygiene. [Acts 1913, p. 289.]

Art. 5133. Superintendent and officers.—The Board shall employ as superintendent of such school a woman of previous experience and training in a similar institution, who shall have power to appoint and discharge all subordinate officials and teachers for the school. The Board shall fix the salary of the superintendent and all employees. The Board shall have power to remove the superintendent for cause, and the decision of said Board in such matter shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 5134. Rules and regulations.—The superintendent with the approval of the Board shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the government of the training school, and shall provide that the time of the pupils is properly distributed between the school of letters and the industrial and domestic pursuits, according to the needs of the pupil and the facilities at hand. Provision shall be made for giving diplomas or certificates of proficiency for graduates from the nurses training school or any industrial school that may be established by such Board. [Id.]

Art. 5135. Commitment.—Whenever any girl between the ages of seven and eighteen years shall be tried or brought before any juvenile court upon indictment or information or before the district court on petition of any person in this State or the Humane Society or any institution of a similar purpose or character, charged with being a dependent or delinquent child as these terms are defined in the statutes of this State, the court may, if in the opinion of the judge, the Girls' Training School is the proper place for her, commit such girl to said Girls' Training School during her minority. No girl shall be committed to the Girls' Training School who is feeble-minded, epileptic or insane. Any girl committed to said Girls' Training School who is afflicted with a venereal, tubercular or other communicable disease shall be assigned to a distinct and separate building of the institution and shall not be allowed to associate with the other wards until cured of said disease or diseases. No girl shall be admitted to the institution until she has been examined by the School physician, and such physician has issued a certificate showing her exact state or condition in reference to said qualifications hereinabove enumerated. [Id.]

Art. 5136. Conveying to school.—The court committing any girl to the Girls' Training School, in addition to the commitment, shall annex a carefully prepared transcript of the trial to aid the officials of the institution in better understanding and classifying the girl. The court shall also designate some reputable woman to convey the girl to the institution. The cost of conveying any girl committed to this institution shall be paid by the county from which she is committed, provided that no compensation shall be allowed beyond the actual and necessary expenses of the party conveying and the girl conveyed. [Id.]

Art. 5137. Dismissal of inmates.—No girl shall be discharged or paroled until some suitable home has been found for her and only then upon the written recommendation of the superintendent to the Board, or unless she has become married with the consent of the Board and superintendent. The Governor shall have power to issue a pardon or commute the sentence of any inmate. Any girl who is thus paroled from the school shall be under the supervision and guidance of the superintendent who shall require that she write bi-weekly letters to the superintendent or matron of the school for the first six months and monthly letters thereafter. The person under whose care or employ the girl is placed shall write monthly letters to the superintendent or matron of the school for the first six months and semi-annually thereafter.

The Board, superintendent or any employee of said school may visit the place where the girl is and it shall be the duty of the person having the girl in custody to answer inquiries of said visiting committee concerning the conduct, employment or treatment of said girl. If, in the judgment of the Board, it should be to the best interests of the girl that she be returned to the school, the Board is empowered to have her returned. [Id.]

Art. 5138. Detention homes and parental schools.—All counties in this State may establish detention homes and parental schools for dependent and delinquent juveniles. It shall be lawful for the commissioners court to appropriate from the general fund of the county such sums as may be necessary to establish, equip and maintain such detention homes and parental schools as may be necessary to care for the dependent and delinquent children of the county. In like manner any county in which no such detention home or parental school exists may appropriate such funds as may be necessary to pay for the board and for the proper care and training of its dependent and delinquent juveniles in the detention home or parental school of any county that may agree to receive them and at such rates of board and tuition as shall be agreed upon by the commissioners courts of the counties concerned. When in the opinion of the commissioners court, it is desirable to levy a special tax for establishing and maintaining such detention home or parental school, or for paying the board and tuition of dependent and delinquent children as herein provided the said court may bring the question of levying such special tax to a vote of the qualified voters of the county at a special election held for that purpose, and the said court must submit the said question to the voters when requested to do so by a petition signed by ten per cent of the qualified voters of the county. All elections held under the provisions of this article shall be governed in all respects not herein specified to the contrary by the laws of this State governing elections for the levy of special school taxes. [Acts 1913, p. 218.]

Art. 5139. County Juvenile Board.—In any county having a population of one hundred thousand or over, according to the preceding Federal census, the judges of the several district and criminal district courts of such county, together with the county judge of such county, are hereby constituted a Juvenile Board for such county. The annual salary of each of the judges of the civil and criminal district courts of such county as members of said board shall be $1,500 in addition to that paid the other district judges of the State, said additional salary to be paid monthly out of the general funds of such county, upon the order of the commissioners court. [Acts 1917, p. 27, Acts 1921, p. 273.]

Art. 5140. Powers of Board.—Such Board shall neither have nor exercise judicial power or function. In the event such Board desires to make inquiry as to whether any child should be adjudged either dependent, neglected or delinquent, it shall have power to direct one of the probation officers of said Board to file complaint against such child in some court of such county having jurisdiction to hear and determine such complaint. Such board or the members thereof may be present at such hearing, either in person or by one or more of its probation officers, and make such inquiry concerning such child as may be proper under the established rules of procedure in such court. [Id.]

Art. 5141. Sessions of Board.—Such Board shall hold meetings in accordance with the rules which it may prescribe, and at intervals of not less than once in three months, and shall keep such records as it desires, and shall hear and consider such facts as may be brought to its attention, under such rules as it may prescribe, concerning the welfare of any child in such county or under the jurisdiction of any of its courts. If such child has been adjudged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent by any court of such county, it may make to the court or person having custody of such child, such recommendation in writing as it may think proper as to the care and custody of such child. [Id.]

Art. 5142. Probation officers.—Said Board may appoint not exceeding six discreet persons of good moral character to serve as probation officers during the pleasure of said Board. Such officers shall be paid such salary per month as said Board may recommend and the commissioners court of such county may authorize, not to exceed one hundred dollars per month. Such probation officer shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to make investigation of all cases referred to him as such by such Board; to be present in court and to represent the interests of the child when the case is heard, and to furnish to the court and such Board such information and assistance as such Board may require, and to take charge of any child before and after the trial, and to perform such other services for the child as may be required by the court or said Board. The county court of each county shall have authority to appoint any number of persons of good moral character to serve as probation officers during the pleasure of said court, said probation officers to receive no compensation from the county treasury except as herein provided. The clerk of the court shall if practicable notify said probation officers when any child is to be brought before the court; it shall be the duty of such probation officer to make investigation of such case; to be present in court to represent the interest of the child when the case is heard; to furnish to such court such information and assistance as the court may require, and to take charge of any child before and after the trial, as the court may direct.

In counties having a population of less than seventy-five thousand, one probation officer may be appointed by the commissioners court when in their opinion such officer is needed, who shall receive a compensation of not to exceed one hundred dollars per month. In counties having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand and not more than seventy-five thousand and containing a city of more than twenty-nine thousand population, one probation officer may be appointed by the commissioners court when in their opinion the services of such officer is needed, who shall receive a compensation of not to exceed two hundred dollars per month. Expenses may be allowed such probation officers by the county in a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars a year. The county judge shall select such probation officers from a list of three furnished by a nominating committee composed of three members as follows: The County Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Superintendents or Principals of the two largest independent school districts in such county.

In counties having a population of more than seventy-five thousand, the county judge shall appoint not fewer than two probation officers from lists furnished him by the nominating committee as provided above. The chief probation officer shall receive a salary of not to exceed two hundred dollars per month, and necessary expenses not to exceed two hundred dollars a year. Other probation officers shall receive salaries not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, and all necessary expenses not to exceed two hundred dollars a year.

In the appointment of all probation officers the county judge may upon the nomination of the committee of three select for such office any school attendance officer or officers of the county or of school districts in the county that may be provided for in any compulsory school attendance law as is or may be in force, and the salary and expenses of such joint probation officer or officers and attendance officer or officers shall be paid jointly by the county and school authorities upon any basis of division they may agree upon.

Probation officers receiving a salary or other compensation from the county, are hereby vested with all the power and authority of police or sheriffs to make arrests and perform any other duties ordinarily required of policemen and sheriffs which may be incident to their office. Other probation officers may be vested with like power and authority upon a written certificate from the county judge that they are persons of discretion and good character and that it is the desire of the court to vest them with all the power and authority conferred by law upon probation officers receiving compensation from the county.

Salaries or compensation of paid probation officers shall be fixed by the county commissioners not to exceed the sums herein mentioned, and any bills for expenses not exceeding the sums herein provided for shall be certified by the county judge as being necessary in the performance of the duties of the probation officers. The commissioners court of the county shall provide the necessary funds for the payment of salaries and expenses of the probation officers provided for in this Act. The appointment of said probation officers shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court. Probation officers shall take oath to perform their duties, and file it in the office of the county clerk.

Nothing herein shall be held to limit the power of the county judge to appoint any number of probation officers. Upon a vote of the commissioners court the county judge may appoint as many additional salaried probation officers as the court may direct. As a basis for reckoning the population of any county the preceding federal census shall be used. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 130.]

Art. 5143. Incorrigible boy.—Any parent or guardian of any incorrigible boy under the age of seventeen years, may present a petition to the judge of the juvenile court of the county of his residence, setting forth under oath the age and habits of any such boy and praying that said boy be committed as a delinquent child. The court shall set the case down for hearing and shall take testimony, and if, in his judgment, the child should be committed, said judge may enter an order committing said child to said institution. The parent or guardian shall pay all necessary expenses of carrying said child to said institution and in addition shall pay at least one quarter in advance, the amount necessary for the maintenance of said child at said institution, as estimated by the superintendent of said institution. Said parent or guardian shall also deposit with the superintendent of said institution an amount sufficient to pay the fare of said child from said institution to its home; and, if said parent or guardian shall fail or refuse to make any subsequent quarterly payment for maintenance, in advance, said commitment shall terminate; and the superintendent of said school shall discharge such boy and return him to his home.

The expense of conveying all boys committed to said school shall be paid by the county from which said commitment is made; and the sheriff, probation, or any peace officer, as the court may direct, shall convey all boys committed to said institution to such Training School as the court and said parents or guardians may agree upon. The court may send the boy to school without escort. [Acts 1913, p. 219.]

Art. 5144. [5236] Appointment of Commissioner.—A Commissioner of Labor Statistics, whose office shall be in the Capitol building, shall be biennially appointed by the Governor for a term of two years. The Commissioner may be removed for cause by the Governor, record thereof being made in his office. The Commissioner shall give a good bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Acts 1909, p. 59.]

Art. 5145. [5235-6-7] Duties of Commissioner.—The Bureau of Labor Statistics shall be under the charge and control of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics. The Commissioner shall collect, systematize and present in biennial reports to the Governor, statistical details relating to all departments of labor in Texas, especially as bearing upon the commercial, social, educational, and sanitary conditions of the employees and their families, the means of escape from dangers incident to their employment, the protection of life and health in the factories and other places of employment, the labor of women and children, and the number of hours of labor exacted of them, and, in general, all matters and things which affect or tend to affect the prosperity of the mechanical, manufacturing and productive industries of this State, and of the persons employed therein.

Said Commissioner shall, also, as fully as may be done, collect reliable reports and information from each county, showing the amount and condition of the mechanical, mining and manufacturing interest therein, and all sites offering natural or acquired advantages for the location and operation of any of the different branches of industry. He shall, by correspondence with interested parties in other parts of the United States, or in foreign countries, impart to them such information as may tend to induce the location of manufacturing and producing plants within the State, together with such information as may tend to increase the employment of labor and the products of such employment in Texas. Except as hereinafter provided he shall safely keep and deliver to his successor all records, papers, documents, correspondence and property pertaining to or coming into his hands by virtue of his office. [Id.]

Art. 5146. [5238] Report.—In each biennial report, the Commissioner shall give a full statement of the business of the bureau since the last preceding report, and such information as may be of value to the industrial interests and their employees, showing, among other things, the number of laborers and mechanics employed, the number of apprentices in each trade, with the nativity of such laborers, mechanics and apprentices, the wages earned, the savings from the same, the age and sex of the persons employed, the number and character of accidents, the sanitary conditions of places where persons are employed, the restrictions put upon apprentices when indentured, the proportion of married employees living in rented houses, with the average rental paid, the value of property owned by such employees, and a statement as to the progress made in schools in operation for the instruction of students in mechanic arts, and what systems have been found most practical. Such reports shall not contain more than six hundred printed pages, and the same shall be printed and distributed in such manner as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5147. [5240] Preservation of records.—No report or return made to the bureau under the provisions of this chapter or the Penal Code, and no schedule, record or document gathered or returned by its officers or employees shall be destroyed within two years of the collection or receipt thereof. At the expiration of two years all such reports, returns, schedules, records and documents as shall be considered by the Commissioner to be of no further value, shall be destroyed, if the permission of the Governor therefor be first obtained. [Id.]

Art. 5148. [5241] May enter factories, etc.—Upon the written complaint of two or more persons, or upon his failure otherwise to obtain information in accordance with the provisions of this law, the Commissioner shall have the power to enter any factory, mill, workshop, mine, store, business house, public or private work, or other establishment or place where five or more persons are employed at work when the same is open and in operation, for the purpose of gathering facts and statistics such as are contemplated by this chapter, and for the purpose of examining into the methods of protecting employees from danger and the sanitary conditions in and around such building or place, of all of which the said Commissioner shall make and return to the Bureau of Labor Statistics a true and detailed record in writing.

Art. 5149. [5242] To report violations.—If the Commissioner shall learn of any violation of the law with respect to the employment of children, or fire escapes, or the safety of employees, or the preservation of health, or in any other way affecting the employes, he shall at once give written notice of the facts to the proper county or district attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5150. [5239] To take testimony.—The Commissioner shall have power to issue subpoenas and take testimony in all matters relating to the duties herein required of said Bureau. Such testimony must be taken in the vicinity of the residence or office of the person testifying. [Id.]

Art. 5151. [5243] Expenses.—The Commissioner shall be allowed necessary postage, stationery, printing, and other expenses to transact the business of the Bureau, and he and any employe of the Bureau shall be allowed his actual necessary traveling expenses while in the performance of duties required by this chapter, and within the limits of the appropriations made therefor. [Id. Acts 1919, p. 164.]

CHAPTER TWO.

LABOR ORGANIZATIONS.

Art. 5152. [5244] Right to organize.—It shall be lawful for any and all persons engaged in any kind of work or labor, manual or mental, or both, to associate themselves together and form trades unions and other organizations for the purpose of protecting themselves in their personal work, personal labor, and personal service in their respective pursuits and employments. [Acts 1899, p. 262.]

Art. 5153. [5245] Other rights and privileges.—It shall be lawful for any member or members of such trades union or other organization or association, or any other person, to induce or attempt to induce by peaceable and lawful means, any person to accept any particular employment or to enter or refuse to enter any pursuit or quit or relinquish any particular employment or pursuit in which such person may then be engaged. Such member or members shall not have the right to invade or trespass upon the premises of another without the consent of the owner thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5154. [5246] Organizations excepted.—The two preceding articles shall not be held to apply to any combination or combinations, association or associations of capital, or capital and persons, natural or artificial, formed for the purpose of limiting the production or consumption of labor's products, or for any other purpose in restraint of trade. Nothing herein shall be held to interfere with the terms and conditions of private contract with regard to the time of service, or other stipulations between employers and employes, or be construed to repeal, affect or diminish the force and effect of any statute on the subject of trusts, conspiracies against trade, pools and monopolies. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

Art. 5155. Pay days.—Each manufacturing, mercantile, mining, quarrying, railroad, street railway, canal, oil, steamboat, telegraph, telephone and express company, employing more than ten persons, and each and every water company not operated by a municipal corporation, and each and every wharf company, and every other corporation engaged in any business within this State, which employs more than ten persons, or any person, firm or corporation engaged in or upon any public work for the State or for any county or any municipal corporation thereof, either as a contractor or a sub-contractor, therewith, shall pay each of its employees the wages earned by him or her as often as semi-monthly, and pay to a day not more than sixteen days prior to the day of payment. [Acts 1915, p. 43.]

Art. 5156. If not paid on pay day.—An employee who is absent at the time fixed for payment, or who for any other reason is not paid at that time, shall be paid thereafter on six days' demand. Any employee leaving his or her employment, or discharged therefrom, shall be paid in full on six days' demand. [Id.]

Art. 5157. Penalty for failure to pay.—Every person, partnership or corporation, wilfully failing or refusing to pay the wages of any employee at the time and in the manner provided in this statute shall forfeit to the State of Texas the sum of fifty dollars for each and every such failure or refusal. Suits for penalties accruing under this law shall be brought in any court having jurisdiction of the amount in the county in which the employe should have been paid, or where employed. Such suits shall be instituted at the direction of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the County or District Attorney for the county or district in which suit is brought. [Id.]

Art. 5158. Attorneys fees.—The attorney bringing any such suit shall be entitled to receive and shall receive as compensation for his service therein ten dollars of the penalty or penalties recovered in such suit, and the fees and compensation so allowed shall be over and above the fees allowed to the county or district attorneys under the General Fee Act. [Id.]

Art. 5159. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall inquire diligently for violations of this chapter and institute prosecutions and see that the same are carried to final termination and generally to see to the enforcement of the provision hereof. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

BOND TO SECURE WAGES.

Art. 5160. Bond for wages.—Any person, firm or corporation entering into a formal contract with this State or its counties or school districts or other subdivisions thereof or any municipality therein for the construction of any public building, or the prosecution and completion of any public work, shall be required, before commencing such work, to execute the usual penal bond, with the additional obligation that such contractor shall promptly make payments to all persons supplying him or them with labor and materials in the prosecution of the work provided for in such contract. Any person, company, or corporation who has furnished labor or materials used in the construction or repair of any public building or public work, and payment for which has not been made, shall have the right to intervene and be made a party to any action instituted by the State or any municipality on the bond of the contractor, and to have their rights and claims adjudicated in such action and judgment rendered thereon, subject, however, to the priority of the claims and judgment of the State or municipality. If the full amount of the liability of the surety on said bond is insufficient to pay the full amount of said claims and demands, then, after paying the full amount due the State or municipality, the remainder shall be distributed pro rata among said intervenors. [Acts 1913, p. 185.]

Art. 5161. Creditor may sue.—If no suit should be brought by the State or municipality within six months from the completion and final settlement of said contract, then the person or persons supplying the contractor with labor and materials shall, upon application therefor, and furnishing affidavit to the State or municipality that labor or materials for the prosecution of such work has been supplied by him or them, and the payment for which has not been made, be furnished with a certified copy of said contract and bond, upon which he or they shall have a right of action for his or their use and benefit, against said contractor and his surety, and to prosecute the same to final judgment and execution. [Id.]

Art. 5162. Time to sue.—When suit is instituted by any creditor on the bond of the contractor, it shall not be commenced until after the complete performance of said contract and final settlement thereof, and shall be commenced within one year after the performance and final settlement of said contract, and not later; provided that if the contractor quits or abandons the contract before its consummation, suit may be instituted by any of such creditors on the bond of the contractor, and shall be commenced within one year after abandonment of said contract and not later. Where suit is so instituted by a creditor or by creditors, only one action shall be brought, and any creditor may file his claim in such action and be made party thereto within one year from the completion of the work under said contractor and not later. [Id.]

Art. 5163. Prorating claims.—If the recovery on the bond should be inadequate to pay the amounts found due to all of said creditors, judgment shall be given to each creditor pro rata of the amount of the recovery, subject to the provisions in the first article of this chapter giving to the State or municipality the right of priority in the proceeds of such judgment. The sureties on said bond may pay into court, for distribution among said claimants and creditors, the full amount of the sureties' liability, to-wit: the penalty named in the bond, less any amount which said surety may have had to pay to the State or municipality by reason of the execution of said bond, and upon so doing the surety will be relieved from further liability. [Id.]

Art. 5164. Notice of suit.—In all suits instituted under the provisions of this law notice of the pendency of such suits shall be made by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the county or town where the contract is being performed, for at least three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least one week before the trial of such case. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

HOURS OF LABOR

Art. 5165. Eight hours a day's work.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen or mechanics who may be employed by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality, or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality in any one calendar day, where such employment, contract or work is for the purpose of constructing, repairing or improving buildings, bridges, roads, highways, streams, levees, or other work of a similar character, requiring the service of laborers, workmen or mechanics. [Acts 1913, p. 127.]

Art. 5166. Violating eight-hour law.—All contracts made by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, with any corporation, persons or associations of persons for performance of any work, shall be deemed and considered as made upon the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. The time consumed by the laborer in going to and returning from the place of work shall not be considered as part of the hours of work. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, person, or association of persons having a contract with the State or any political subdivision thereof, to require any such laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons to work more than eight hours per calendar day in doing such work, except in case of emergency, which may arise in times of war, or in cases where it may become necessary to work more than eight hours per calendar day for the protection of property, human life or the necessity of housing inmates of public institutions in case of fire or destruction by the elements. In such emergencies the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed and working to exceed eight hours per calendar day shall be paid on the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. Not less than the current rate of per hour wages for like work in the locality where the work is being performed shall be paid to the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed by or on behalf of the State, or for any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county, or municipality, and every contract hereafter made for the performance of work for the State, or for any county, municipality, or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county, or municipality, must comply with the requirements of this chapter. Nothing in the foregoing article shall prevent any person, or any officer, agent, or employee of a person or corporation, or association of persons from making mutually satisfactory contracts as to the hours of labor, at the rates of pay as herein provided. [Acts 1913, p. 127, Acts 1921, p. 229.]

Art. 5167. Hours of patrolmen.—In all incorporated cities and towns however incorporated, having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or more, according to the preceding Federal census, the patrolmen thereof, or those performing duties ordinarily performed by patrolmen, shall be required to serve on actual duty as patrolmen not longer than eight hours in every twenty-four hours of the day; provided that in case of riot or other emergency, such patrolmen shall perform such duty and for such time as the directing authority of the departments shall require. [Acts 1917, p. 403.]

CHAPTER SIX.

FEMALE EMPLOYEES.

Art. 5168. Hours of work for female employee.—No female shall be employed in any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, hotel, restaurant, rooming house, theater, moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph, telephone or other office, express or transportation company, or any State institution, or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed, for more than nine hours in any one calendar day, nor more than fifty-four hours in any one calendar week. [Acts 1915, p. 105.]

Art. 5169. Hours of female laundry worker.—No female shall be employed in any laundry for more than fifty-four hours in one calendar week; the hours of such employment to be so arranged as to permit the employment of such female at any time so that she shall not work more than a maximum of eleven hours during the twenty-four hours' period of one day. If such female is employed for more than nine hours in any one day she shall receive pay at the rate of double her regular pay for such time as she is employed for more than nine hours per day. [Id.]

Art. 5170. Hours of cotton goods worker.—No female shall be employed in any factory engaged in the manufacture of cotton, woolen or worsted goods or articles of merchandise manufactured out of cotton goods for more than ten hours in any one calendar day, nor more than sixty hours in any one calendar week. If such female is employed for more than nine hours in any one day she shall receive pay at the rate of double her regular pay for such time as she may be employed for more than nine hours per day. [Id.]

Art. 5171. Seats for female employees.—Every employer owning or operating any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, restaurant or rooming house, theater or moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph or telephone or other office, express or transportation company; the superintendent of any State institution or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed as provided in the three preceding articles, shall provide and furnish suitable seats, to be used by such employees when not engaged in the active duties of their employment and shall give notice to all such employees by posting in a conspicuous place on the premises of such employment, in letters not less than one inch in height, that all such employees will be permitted to use such seats when not so engaged. [Id.]

Art. 5172. Exceptions.—The four preceding articles shall not apply to stenographers and pharmacists, nor to mercantile establishments, or telegraph or telephone companies in rural districts and in cities or towns or villages of less than 3000 inhabitants as shown by the last preceding Federal census. In cases of extraordinary emergencies, such as great public calamities, or where it becomes necessary for the protection of human life or property, longer hours may be worked, but for such time not less than double time shall be paid such female with her consent. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

PROTECTION OF FEMALE EMPLOYEES.

| Temperature and humidity..... | Article 5173 | Toilets | Article 5177 |
| Odors and dust..... | 5174 | Immoral influences | 5178 |
| Cleaning and wet floors..... | 5175 | Order to correct conditions..... | 5179 |
| Exits and hand rails..... | 5176 | Suit to set order aside..... | 5180 |

Art. 5173. Temperature and humidity.—In every factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry, or other establishment, adequate measures shall be taken for securing and maintaining a reasonable, and as far as possible, an equable temperature consistent with a reasonable requirement of the manufacturing process. No unnecessary humidity which would jeopardize the health of employees shall be permitted. In every room, apartment, or building used as a factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other place of employment, sufficient air space shall be provided for every employe, and which in the judgment of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics, or of his deputies and inspectors is sufficient for their health and welfare. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 132.]

Art. 5174. Odors and dust.—All factories, mills, workshops, mercantile establishments, laundries and other establishments shall be kept free from gas or effluvia arising from any sewer, drain, privy or other nuisance on the premises; all poisonous or noxious gases arising from any process, and all dust which is injurious to the health of persons employed, which is created in the process of manufacturing within the above named establishment, shall be removed as far as practicable by ventilators or exhaust fans or other adequate devices. [Id.]

Art. 5175. Cleaning and wet floors.—All decomposed, fetid or putrescent matter, and all refuse, waste and sweepings of any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment, shall be removed at least once each day and be disposed of in such manner as not to cause a nuisance. All cleaning, sweeping and dusting shall be done as far as possible outside of working hours, but if done during working hours, shall be done in such manner as to avoid so far as possible the raising of dust and noxious odors. In all establishments where any process is carried on which makes the floors wet, the floors shall be constructed and maintained with due regard for the health of the employes, and gratings or dry standing room shall be provided wherever practicable, at points wherever employes are regularly stationed, and adequate means shall be provided for drainage and for preventing leakage or seepage to lower floors. [Id.]

Art. 5176. Exits and hand rails.—All doors used by employes as entrances to, or exits from factories, mills, workshops, mercantile establishments, laundries or other establishments of a height of two stories or over, shall open outward, and shall be so constructed as to be easily and immediately opened from within in case of fire or other emergencies. Proper and substantial hand rails shall be provided on all stairways, and lights shall be kept burning at all main stairs, stair landings and elevator shafts in the absence of sufficient natural light. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any mercantile establishment having seven female employes or less. [Id.]

Art. 5177. Toilets.—Every factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment, shall be provided with a sufficient number of water closets, earth closets or privies, and such water closets, earth closets or privies shall be supplied in the proportion of one to every twenty-five male persons, and one to every twenty female persons, and whenever both male and female persons are employed, said water closets, earth closets or privies shall be provided separate and apart for the use of each sex, and such water closets, earth closets, or privies shall be constructed in an approved manner and properly enclosed, and at all times kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and effectively disinfected and ventilated, and shall at all times during operation of such establishment be kept properly lighted.

In case there be more than one shift of not more than eight hours each of employes, the average number of persons in the establishment at any one time should be used in determining the number of toilets required. [Id.]

Art. 5178. Immoral influences.—It shall be unlawful for the owner, manager, superintendent or other person in control or management of any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment where five or more persons are employed, all or part of whom are females, to permit in such place of employment any influence, practices or conditions calculated to injuriously affect the morals of such female employees. [Id.]

Art. 5179. Order to correct conditions.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics, or any of his deputies or inspectors, shall have the right to enter any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry, or other establishment where five or more persons are employed, for the purpose of making inspections and enforcing the provisions of this chapter; and they are hereby empowered, upon finding any violation of this law by reason of unsanitary conditions such as endanger the health of the employees therein employed, or of neglect to remove and prevent fumes and gases or odors injurious to employees, or by reason of the failure or refusal to comply with any requirement of this law, or by reason of the inadequacy or insufficiency of any plan, method, practice or device employed in assumed compliance with any of the requirements of this law, to pass upon and to make a written finding as to the failure or refusal to comply with any requirement of this law, or as to the adequacy or sufficiency of any practice, plan or method used in or about any place mentioned in this law in supposed compliance with any of the requirements of this law, and, thereupon they may issue a written order to the owner, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, for the correction of any condition caused or permitted in or about such place or establishment in violation of any of the requirements of this law, or of any condition, practice, plan, or method used therein or thereabouts in supposed compliance with any requirement of this law, but which are found to be inadequate or insufficient, in any respect, to comply therewith, and shall state in such order how such conditions, practices, plans or methods, in any case, shall be corrected and the time within which the same shall be corrected, a reasonable time being given in such order therefor. One copy of such order shall be delivered to the owner, manager, superintendent or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Such findings and orders shall be prima facie valid, reasonable and just, and shall be conclusive unless attacked and set aside in the manner provided in the succeeding article. Upon the failure or refusal of the owner, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, to comply with such order within the time therein specified, unless the same shall have been attacked and suspended or set aside as provided for in the succeeding article, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics or his deputy or inspectors shall have full authority and power to close such place or establishment, or any part of it that may be in such unsanitary or dangerous condition or immoral influences in violation of any requirement of this law or of such order, until such time as such condition, practice or method shall have been corrected. [Id.]

Art. 5180. Suit to set order aside.—The owner or owners, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management, of any place or establishment covered by this law, and directly affected by any finding or order provided for in the preceding article, may, within fifteen days from the date of the delivery to him or them of a copy of any such order as provided for in the preceding article, file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such order and findings in a court of competent jurisdiction against the Commissioner of Labor Statistics. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature, except such causes as are provided for in the statutes relating to the Railroad Commission, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. If the court be in session at the time such cause of action arises, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. Either party may appeal, but shall not have the right to sue out a writ of error from the trial court. Said appeal shall at once be returnable to the proper appellate court at either of its terms, and shall have precedence in such appellate court over other causes of a different nature, except as above provided for. In any trial under this article the burden shall be upon the plaintiff to show that the findings and order complained of are illegal, unreasonable, or unjust to it or them. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT.

CHILD LABOR.

Art. 5181. Permit for child to work.—Upon application being made to the county judge of any county in which any child over the age of twelve (12) years shall reside, the earnings of which child are necessary for the support of itself, its mother when widowed, or in needy circumstances, or invalid father, or of other children younger than the child for whom the permit is sought, the said county judge may upon the sworn statement of such child or its parents or guardian, that the child for whom the permit is sought is over twelve (12) years of age, that the said child has completed the fifth grade in a public school or its equivalent, and that it shall not be employed in or around any mill, factory, workshop, or other place where dangerous machinery is used, nor in any mine, quarry or other place where explosives are used, or where the moral or physical condition of the child is liable to be injured, and that the earnings of such child are necessary for the support of such invalid parent, widowed mother or mother in needy circumstances, or of younger children, and that such support cannot be obtained in any other manner, and that suitable employment has been obtained for such child, which sworn statement shall be accompanied by the certificate of a licensed physician showing that such child is physically able to perform the work or labor for which the permit is sought, issue a permit for such child to enter such employment. Every person, firm or corporation employing any such child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years shall post in a conspicuous place where such child is employed, the permit issued by the county judge; provided that no permit shall be issued for a longer period than twelve (12) months, but may be renewed from time to time upon satisfactory evidence being produced that the conditions under which the former permit was issued still exists, and that no physical or moral injury has resulted to such child by reason of its employment. In every case where a permit is sought for any child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years, the parent, guardian or other person in charge or control of such child shall appear before the county judge in person with such child for whom a permit is sought before such permit shall be issued. There shall be nothing in this Act to prevent the working of school children of any age from June 1 to September 1 of each year except that they shall not be permitted to work in factory, mill, workshop, and the places mentioned in Section 4 of this Act. [Id. page 176.]

CHAPTER NINE.

PROTECTION OF WORKMEN ON BUILDINGS.

Art. 5182. Protection of workmen on buildings.—

1. To prevent workmen from falling.—Any building three or more stories in height, in the course of construction or repair, shall have the joists, beams or girders of each and every floor below the floor level where any work is being done, or about to be done, covered with planking laid close together, said planking to be of not less than one and one-half inches of thickness in buildings that have steel framework, and what is commonly known as one-inch plank in all others where joists are set on two foot centers or less, to protect the workmen engaged in the erection or construction of such buildings from falling through joists, girders, and from falling planks, bricks, rivets, tools or other substances, whereby life and limb are endangered. Where any scaffolding is placed on the outside of any of said buildings, over any public street or alley where persons are in the habit of passing, then said scaffolding shall be so constructed as to prevent any material, tools or other things from falling off and endangering the life of passersby. Such flooring shall not be removed until the same is replaced by a permanent flooring in such building.

2. To inclose elevators and shafts.—If elevators, elevating machines or hod hoisting apparatus are used within a building in the course of construction, for the purpose of lifting materials to be used in such construction, the contractor or owners, or the agents of the owners, shall cause the shafts or openings in each floor to be inclosed or fenced in on all sides, two sides of which must be at least six feet, and two sides where material is taken off or on shall be protected by automatic safety gates.

3. Duty of general contractors.—The general contractor having charge of the erection and construction of such building shall provide for the flooring as herein required, and make such arrangements as may be necessary with the sub-contractor in order that the provisions of this article may be carried out.

4. Duty of owner.—The owner, or the agent of the owner of such building, shall see that the general contractor or sub-contractors carry out the provisions of this article.

5. Owner to see to flooring.—If the general contractor or sub-contractor of such building fails to provide for the flooring of such buildings as herein provided, then the owner or the agent of the owner of such building shall see that the provisions of this article are carried out. [Acts 1919, p. 281.]

| Officers | 5185 | Report to Legislature..... | 5189 |
| Controversies referred to..... | 5186 | Power of Commission..... | 5190 |

Art. 5183. Appointment of members.—There is hereby created an Industrial Commission, composed of five members, one to represent employers of labor, one to represent the employes or laborers, and three to represent the general public. The members of this commission shall be appointed biennially by the Governor, to hold office for a term of two years. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 19.]

Art. 5184. Expenses.—The members of this commission shall serve without pay or salary. The actual expenses incurred during hearings had by or before the commission and railway fare and hotel bills incurred by them shall be paid out of appropriations made to the executive office for the payment of rewards and the enforcement of the law, until such time as the Legislature may make appropriations to cover such items.

Art. 5185. Officers.—This commission shall elect one of their members as chairman of the commission, to preside at all hearings had under the provisions of this law, with power and authority usually exercised by chairmen in such capacity. The commission shall have authority to employ and pay a stenographer to act as secretary of such commission. The salary shall be paid out of the fund or funds described in article 5184. [Id.]

Art. 5186. Controversies referred to.—When the Governor becomes convinced or has reason to believe that controversies between employers and employes are of such nature and character as to be of public concern or interest he shall refer, by proclamation, such controversies to the commission here created for hearing and report. [Id.]

Art. 5187. Hearing and report.—The commission, and the members thereof, shall forthwith proceed to the place where the employes in the controversy may be located, or to such other place as may appear best to said commission for the purpose of making investigation and report. The commission shall make investigation and hear testimony concerning the controversy between the employers and employees. After said investigation is completed a full report shall be made to the Governor, covering the facts established by the investigations made and hearing had. Said commission shall make recommendations to the Governor as to what action should be taken in reference to the controversy or the settlement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5188. Hearing to be public.—All hearings had by this commission shall be open to the public; and the findings and recommendations of the commission shall be furnished to the news agencies and newspapers of the State, to be published by the several papers of this State as news items. [Id.]

Art. 5189. Report to Legislature.—The commission shall also make full report to the Legislature, if in session, and if not in session, then to the succeeding session, setting forth the findings and recommendations, accompanied by a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearings provided for herein. [Id.]

Art. 5190. Power of commission.—The commission shall have power to summon witnesses, to issue subpoenas, to compel attendance of witnesses, to compel production of books and records by witnesses, to punish for contempt, to hold sessions and to take testimony in or out of the State of Texas, and to pay witnesses as paid in felony cases. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN.

STEVEDORES

Art. 5191. "Contracting stevedore".—A contracting stevedore, within the meaning of this chapter, is any person, firm or association of persons, or corporation that contracts with any ship, agent, owners, masters, managers or captains of vessels, or with any other person or corporation, for the purpose of loading or unloading, or of having loaded or unloaded any vessel, ship or water craft. [Acts 1913, p. 153.]

Art. 5192. Bond.—Each contracting stevedore shall make bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, who are residents of this State, or with any surety company authorized to transact business in this State, payable to the county judge of the county in which such stevedore pursues his occupation and to his successor in office, as trustee for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this law; conditioned that said contracting stevedore will promptly on Saturday of each week pay each laborer his wages for labor performed in loading and unloading any such ship, vessel or water craft according to the scale of wages agreed upon, and that all agreements entered into with each of said laborers in respect to the loading and unloading of said water craft, will be faithfully and truly performed. Such bond shall be approved by the county clerk of the county in which said contracting stevedore is pursuing said business or occupation and by him shall be filed and recorded. [Id.]

Art. 5193. Suits on bond.—Suits may be maintained upon such bond by any person to whom wages are due and unpaid for such labor as is hereinbefore mentioned. The same may be sued upon until the full amount thereof is exhausted, or suits sufficient to exhaust the bond are pending, and when so exhausted, said contracting stevedore shall make and file a new bond in amount and conditioned as provided for the first. [Id.]

Art. 5194. License.—Said contracting stevedore shall, before beginning such business, file written application to such county clerk for a license to pursue the occupation of a contracting stevedore for the county mentioned. On approval of the bond and payment of an occupation tax of five dollars the clerk shall issue a license to pursue said occupation, the license fee to be paid into the general fund of the county. [Id.]

Art. 5195. Bond and license.—Such bond shall be made and such license shall be obtained in each county in which said contracting stevedore pursues said occupation. Said contracting stevedore shall be required to execute a new bond and to obtain a new license at the expiration of every year from the issuance of the former license. [Id.]

Art. 5196. [594] Discrimination.—The following shall constitute discrimination against persons seeking employment: Where any corporation, or receiver of same, doing business in this State, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver shall discriminate against any person seeking employment on account of his having participated in a strike. [Acts 1907, p. 142, Acts 1909, p. 160.]

Art. 5197. [595] Discrimination prohibited, etc.—Any and all discriminations against persons seeking employment as defined in this chapter are hereby prohibited and are declared to be illegal. [Acts 1907, p. 142.]

Art. 5198. [596] Foreign corporations to forfeit permit.—Any foreign corporation violating any provision of this chapter is hereby denied the right, and is prohibited from doing any business within this State, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to enforce this provision, by injunction or other proceeding in the district court of Travis County, in the name of the State of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 5199. [597] Liability.—Each person, company or corporation, who shall in any manner violate any provision of this chapter shall, for each offense committed, forfeit and pay the sum of one thousand dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the State of Texas, in any county where the offense was committed, or where the offender resides, or in Travis County; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, or the district or county attorney under the direction of the Attorney General, to sue for the recovery of the same. [Id.]

Art. 5200. [598] Fees of attorney.—The fees of the prosecuting attorney for representing the State in proceedings under this chapter shall not be accounted for as fees of office. [Id.]

Art. 5201. [599] Prima facie evidence of agency.—In prosecutions for the violation of any provision of this chapter, evidence that any person has acted as the agent of a corporation in the transaction of its business in this State shall be received as prima facie proof that his act in the name, behalf or interest of the corporation of which he was acting as the agent, was the act of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 5202. [600] May examine witnesses.—Upon the application of the Attorney General, or of any district or county attorney, made to any justice of the peace in this State, and stating that he has reason to believe that a witness, who is to be found in the county of which such justice is an officer, knows of a violation of any provision of this chapter, the justice to whom such application is made shall have summoned and examined such witness in relation to such violations. [Id.]

Art. 5203. [601] Sworn statement.—Such witness shall be summoned as provided for in criminal cases. He shall be duly sworn, and the justice shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, and such statement shall be delivered to the attorney upon whose application the witness was summoned. [Id.]

Art. 5204. [602] Failure of witness to appear.—If the witness summoned as aforesaid fails to appear or to make statements of the facts within his knowledge under oath, or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in jail until he shall make a full statement of all facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. [Id.]

Art. 5205. [603] Immunity of witness.—Any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of any provision of this chapter about which he may testify fully and without reserve. [Id.]

Art. 5206. [604] Statement of cause of discharge.— Any written statement of cause of discharge, if true, when made by such agent, company or corporation, shall never be used as the cause for an action for libel, either civil or criminal, against the agent, company or corporation so furnishing same. [Id.]

Art. 5207. [2475-2476] Detectives.—Any person, corporation, or firm who shall employ any armed force of detectives, or other persons not residents of this State, in the State of Texas, shall be liable to pay to the State as a penalty not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction in this State. Nothing herein shall be construed to deprive any person, firm or corporation of the right of self-defense, or defense of the property of said person, firm, or corporation by such lawful means as may be necessary to such defense. [Acts 1893, p. 159; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 589.]

| Commissioner may examine..... | 5213 | Injunction | 5220 |
| False advertisements | 5214 | Lockout or strike..... | 5221 |

Art. 5208. Definitions.—The term "Employment Agent" means every person, firm, partnership or association of persons engaged in the business of assisting employers to secure employees, and persons to secure employment, or of collecting information regarding employers seeking employees, and persons seeking employment. The term "Employment Office" means every place or office where the business of giving intelligence or information where employment or help may be obtained or where the business of an employment agent is carried on. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Labor Statistics of the State of Texas. The term "Deputy or Inspector" means any person who shall be duly authorized by the Commissioner to act in that capacity. [Acts 1923, p. 75.]

Art. 5209. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agents who charge a fee of not more than two dollars for registration only for procuring employment for school teachers; nor to any department or bureau maintained by this State, the United States Government, or any municipal government of this State, nor to any person, firm, partnership, association of persons or corporation or any officer, or employee thereof engaged in obtaining or soliciting help from him, them or it when no fees are charged directly or indirectly the applicant for help or the applicant for employment; nor to farmers and stockraisers acting jointly or severally in securing laborers for their own use where no fee is collected or charged directly or indirectly, nor to any association or corporation chartered under the laws of Texas conducting a free employment bureau or agency. [Id.]

Art. 5210. Application and bond.—Application and bond for private employment agency license shall be executed on blank forms prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner. Application for license to act as employment agent may be made in person or by mail to the Commissioner upon blank application form which shall be verified by the applicant. Where the application is made by a firm, partnership or association of persons, it must be verified by each person for whose benefit the application is made, and such application shall also be accompanied by affidavits of at least five credible citizens, who have resided in the county in which such applicant desires to conduct the business of an employment agent, for at least three years, to the effect that the applicant or applicants has or have resided within the county in which such person or persons desires to become an employment agent for at least one year prior to the date of the application, and that such person or persons are of good moral character. The Commissioner may require additional evidence of the moral character of applicants; and no license shall be granted to any person except he be of good moral character. Such application shall be examined by the Commissioner, and if he finds that the same complies with the law and that the applicant is entitled to a license, then he shall issue a license to the applicant for each county for which application is made and shall deliver such license to the applicant upon the payment of a license fee of one hundred and fifty dollars for each county in which an employment office is to be maintained by said agent, and upon the presentation to and approval by the Commissioner of a good and sufficient bond executed by the applicant with good and sufficient surety in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, for each county where an employment office is to be maintained; said bond shall be conditioned that the obligor will not violate any of the duties, terms, conditions and requirements of this law, and that the principal, his agents or representatives, will not make any false representation or statement to any person soliciting any assistance from him for help or employment. Said bond shall further recite that any person injured or aggrieved by any false or fraudulent statement of such agent, or any violation of the provisions thereof by such agent, shall be entitled to bring suit thereon. Not more than one office shall be operated under any one license. Each license issued by the Commissioner shall be for a period of one year. [Acts 1923, p. 75; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 93.]

Art. 5211. Suits on bond.—Any person injured or aggrieved by any action, conduct, false representation or false statement of any such employment agent may bring suit for damages against such agent on said bond in any county where such action, conduct, false representation or false statement was made in any court of competent jurisdiction, without the necessity of making the State a party thereto; Where the bond has become impaired by recoveries thereon to the extent of fifty per cent of the penal sum named therein, the Commissioner may, by a notice in writing, demand the execution of a new bond which, if not executed and submitted to the Commissioner within twenty days, for his approval, such failure to execute a new bond shall ipso facto forfeit and cancel the license issued to the principal named in said bond. [Acts 1923, p. 77.]

Art. 5212. Cancellation of license.—The Commissioner shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty, to cancel the license of any employment agent when it shall appear to his satisfaction, upon hearing, that such agent has been convicted in a State or Federal court of an offense which under the laws of this State is a felony, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, or that the agent had obtained his license illegally or fraudulently or was guilty of fraud, false swearing, or deception in securing his license, or has violated any provision of this chapter. The Commissioner shall not cancel the license of any employment agent until complaint in writing made by a credible person, shall be filed with him, specifying in general terms the grounds of the proposed cancellation, and a full and fair hearing given to him thereon. Upon the filing of such complaint, the Commissioner shall fix a time and place, reasonably accessible to the employment agent complained against, for the hearing of said complaint. The Commissioner shall notify the agent so complained against of the time and place fixed for said hearing by a registered letter addressed to him at his post-office address as the same appears upon his application for license, accompanied by an exact copy of the complaint against him; and mailing of such notice and copy shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of proper service of the procedure upon the agent so complained against. The employment agent so complained against shall have at least ten days after the date of said notice mailed, exclusive of the day of mailing and day of hearing, before hearing upon said complaint shall be had, and shall have the right to file answer, introduce evidence and to be heard both in person and by counsel. The Commissioner shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses before him to testify in relation to any such complaint, and may require the production of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent thereto. Said Commissioner shall also have the power to provide for the taking of depositions of witnesses and evidence may be heard either from witnesses present testifying orally, or by deposition taken under such rules, and in such fair and impartial manner as the Commissioner may prescribe. Said hearing shall be had before the Commissioner and shall be conducted in a fair and orderly manner, and in accordance with rules of procedure to be adopted by the Commissioner. At the conclusion of the hearing the Commissioner shall enter his findings and judgment in writing and the same shall be recorded by him in a permanent record to be kept by him, and a copy thereof furnished to the employment agent complained against. Any employment agent whose license shall be cancelled by the Commissioner may, within thirty days after the cancellation thereof, and not thereafter, have his right of action for reinstatement against the Commissioner in the district court of Travis County. If the agent whose license has been cancelled by the Commissioner shall, within ten days after receiving information of such cancellation, give notice to the Commissioner in writing of his intention to file such suit, the action of the Commissioner in cancelling the said license shall be suspended for a period of thirty days, but unless such suit shall be filed within said time, the action of the Commissioner shall be final. If suit shall be filed against the Commissioner to reinstate said license within said time, the action of the Commissioner shall remain suspended until the validity of the license in question shall be adjusted by the court in said suit. In such suits the burden shall be upon the employment agent to show good cause for reinstatement of his license. [Id.]

Art. 5213. Commissioner may examine.—All the books, correspondence, memoranda, papers and records of every kind and character incident to the business of an employment agent of each agent licensed under this chapter shall be subject to examination at any time by the Commissioner, his deputies, or inspectors, and the refusal of any agent to permit the Commissioner, his deputies, or inspectors, to inspect such correspondence, memoranda, papers and records at any time shall be sufficient grounds for the Commissioner to cancel the license of such agent in accordance with the provisions of the fifth article of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5214. False advertisements.—No employment agent shall publish or cause to be published any false or misleading advertisements or notice relating to his employment agency; nor shall any such employment agent advertise his agency by means of cards, circulars, signs or in newspapers or other publications, unless such advertisements shall set forth the name of the agent and the address of his employment office; nor shall any such licensed person use any letterheads or blanks not containing the name of such employment agent and the address of his employment office. [Id.]

Art. 5215. Overcharging.—Where a fee is charged for obtaining employment, such fee in no event shall exceed the sum of three dollars, which may be collected from the applicant only after employment has been obtained and accepted by the applicant; provided, however, employment agents engaged exclusively in providing employment for skilled, professional or clerical positions may charge, with the written consent of the applicant, a fee, not to exceed twenty per cent of the first month's salary. [Id.]

Art. 5216. Receipt.—A receipt shall be given to the applicant by the employment agent for all fees collected from such applicant. The form of such receipt shall be prescribed by the Commissioner and shall contain the name of the applicant, the amount of the fee paid, the date, the character of the work or the situation secured, the name of the employer, together with his post-office address and the location of the work the applicant is to perform. [Id.]

Art. 5217. To protect female applicants.—No employment agent shall furnish any female for immoral purposes; or send, or cause to be sent any female to enter as servant, inmate, or for any purpose whatsoever, any place of bad repute, house of ill-fame, or assignation house, or any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, the character of which such employment agent could have ascertained by reasonable diligence. [Id.]

Art. 5218. License as evidence.—Any application made by an employment agent for a license, or a certified copy thereof under the hand and seal of the Commissioner, shall be received as evidence in any court in this State without the necessity of proving the execution thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5219. Authority of Commissioner.—The Commissioner and his deputies, or inspectors, shall have the authority of peace officers only in making arrests of any person or persons who violate, in their presence, any provision of this chapter for which a penalty is prescribed, and when such arrest has been made the Commissioner, or his duly appointed deputies or inspectors, may enter any employment office at any time when such employment office is open for business, and inspect the registers and all other records of whatsoever kind and character of such employment agent for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this law are being violated, and the refusal of any employment agent to permit such inspection shall be sufficient reason for the Commissioner to cancel the license of such agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 5212. [Id.]

Art. 5220. Injunction.—Any person who shall engage in the business of an employment agent, or who shall conduct an employment office, without first procuring a license as required and provided for in this chapter may be enjoined from unlawfully pursuing such business or occupation, and the Attorney General shall bring suit for such purpose in the name of the State of Texas in Travis County, and the district or county attorney of any county wherein such person engages in such business or conducts an employment office in violation of the preceding article is hereby authorized to maintain in the proper court of said county a suit in the name of the State of Texas to enjoin and prevent such person from unlawfully pursuing such occupation. In all such cases it shall not be necessary for the attorney bringing the suit to verify the pleadings or for the State to execute any bond as a condition precedent to the issuing of any injunction or restraining order hereunder. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 94.]

Art. 5221. Lockout or strike.—No employment agent shall send any person to a prospective employer who is conducting a “lockout” against all or part of his employees; or whose employees, or a part of them are out on a strike, without first apprising said person of the existence of said “lockout” or strike. [Acts 1923, p. 81.]

Art. 5222. [5475] [3235] Landlord's lien.— All persons leasing or renting lands or tenements at will or for a term of years shall have a preference lien upon the property of the tenant, as hereinafter indicated, upon such premises, for any rent that may become due and for all money and the value of all animals, tools, provisions and supplies furnished by the landlord to the tenant to make a crop on such premises; and to gather, secure, house and put the same in condition for marketing, the money, animals and tools and provisions and supplies so furnished being necessary for that purpose, whether the same is to be paid in money, agricultural products or other property; and this lien shall apply only to animals, tools and other property furnished by the landlord to the tenant and to the crop raised on such premises. This article shall not apply in any way nor in any case where any person leases or rents lands or tenements at will or for a term of years for agricultural purposes where the same is cultivated by the tenant who furnishes everything except the land, and where the landlord charges a rental of more than one-third of the value of the grain and more than one-fourth of the value of the cotton raised on said land; nor where the landlord furnishes everything except the labor and the tenant furnishes the labor and the landlord directly or indirectly charges a rental of more than one-half the value of the grain and more than one-half of the value of the cotton raised on said land, and any contract for the leasing or renting of land or tenements at will or for a term of years for agricultural purposes stipulating or fixing a higher or greater rental than that herein provided for shall be null and void, and shall not be enforceable in any court in this State by an action either at law or in equity, and no lien of any kind, either contractual or statutory, shall attach in favor of the landlord, his estate or assigns, upon any of the property named, nor for the purpose mentioned in this article. If any landlord or any person for him shall violate or attempt to evade any provision of this article by collecting or receiving a greater amount of rent for such land than herein provided shall be collected or received by him upon any contract, either written or verbal, the tenant or person paying the same, or the legal representatives thereof, may, by an action of debt instituted in the county of the defendant's residence or in the county where such rents or money may have been received or collected, or where said contract may have been entered into, or where the party or parties paying the same resided when such contract was made, within two years after such payment, recover from the person, firm or corporation receiving the same, double the full amount of such rent or money so received or collected. [Acts 1874, p. 55; P. D. 7418c; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 57; Acts 1915, p. 77.]

Art. 5223. [5477] [3237] When lien expires.—Such preference lien shall continue as to such agricultural products and as to animals, tools and other property furnished to the tenant, as aforesaid, so long as they remain on such rented or leased premises, and for one month thereafter; and such lien as to agricultural products, if stored in public or bonded warehouses controlled or regulated by the laws of the State within thirty days after the removal of said products from said rented premises, shall continue so long as they remain in such warehouses; and such lien, as to agricultural products and as to animals and tools furnished as aforesaid, shall be superior to all laws exempting such property from forced sale. [Id. Acts 1914, 2nd C. S., p. 33.]

Art. 5224. [5478] [3238] Does not apply.—Such lien shall not attach to the goods, wares and merchandise of a merchant, trader or mechanic, sold and delivered in good faith in the regular course of business to the tenant. [Id.]

Art. 5225. [5476] [3236] Tenant not to remove property.—The tenant, while the rent and advances remain unpaid, shall not without the consent of the landlord remove or permit to be removed from the premises so leased or rented any agricultural product produced thereon, or any of the animals, tools or property furnished as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 5226. [5478a] [3239] Removal not a waiver.—The removal of the agricultural products with the consent of the landlord for the purpose of being prepared for market shall not be considered a waiver of such lien, but such lien shall continue and attach to the products so removed the same as if they had remained on such rented or leased premises. [Id.]

Art. 5227. [5479] [3240] Distress warrant.—When any rent or advances shall become due, or the tenant shall be about to remove from such leased or rented premises, or to remove his property from such premises, the person to whom the rents or advances are payable, his agent, attorney, assigns, heirs or legal representatives may apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the premises are situated, or in which the property upon which a lien for rents or advances exists may be found, or to any justice having jurisdiction of the cause of action, for a warrant to seize the property of such tenant. If a distress warrant shall be issued by any justice, other than the justice of the peace of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated or in which the defendant may reside, such warrant shall be made returnable to, and the affidavit and bond upon which it is issued shall be transmitted by the justice issuing such distress warrant to some justice of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside. [Acts 1881, p. 98; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 190.]

Art. 5228. [5480] [3241] Oath and bond.—The plaintiff, his agent or attorney shall make oath that the amount sued for is rent or advances, such as are mentioned in the first article of this title, or shall produce a writing signed by such tenant to that effect, and shall further swear that such warrant is not sued out for the purpose of vexing and harassing the defendant. The person applying for such warrant shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace, payable to the defendant, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages as he may sustain in case such warrant has been illegally and unjustly sued out, which bond shall be filed among the papers of the cause; and, in case the suit shall be finally decided in favor of defendant, he may bring suit against the plaintiff and his sureties on such bond, and shall recover such damages as may be awarded to him.

Art. 5229. [5481] [3242] Issuance of distress warrant.—Upon the filing of such oath and bond such justice shall issue his warrant to the proper officer commanding him to seize the property of the defendant, or so much thereof as will satisfy the demand. Such warrant shall be returnable to the court having exclusive jurisdiction thereof, but if the amount in controversy is within the jurisdiction of both the county and district courts, the writ shall be made returnable to either court as the plaintiff in such writ may direct. When the writ is made returnable to the district or county court the justice shall transmit all papers in said cause to the proper court on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Art. 5230. [5482] [3243] Duty of officer.—The officer to whom such warrant is directed shall seize the property of such tenant, or so much thereof as shall be of value sufficient to satisfy such debt and costs, and safely keep it in his possession unless replevied, and make due return thereof to the court to which the warrant is returnable at the next term thereof.

Art. 5231. [5483] [3244] Defendant may replevy.—The defendant at any time within ten days from the date of levy may replevy the property by giving bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties in double the amount of the debt, or at his election, for the value of the property so seized, conditioned that if the defendant be cast in the action he shall satisfy the judgment that may be rendered against him or pay the estimated value of the property, with lawful interest thereon from the date of the bond.

Art. 5232. [5484] [3245] Judgment against sureties.—When the property levied on has been replevied and if final judgment is rendered against the defendant, such judgment shall also be against him and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment and interest or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such bond.

Art. 5233. [5485] [3246] Perishable property sold.—If the property is of a perishable or wasting kind, and the defendant fails to replevy as herein provided, the officer making the levy, or the plaintiff, or the defendant, may apply to the court, or judge thereof, to which the warrant is returnable, either in term time or vacation for an order to sell such property; and, if any person other than the defendant apply for such order of sale, the court shall not grant such order, unless the person applying shall file with such court a bond payable to the defendant, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court, that they will be responsible to the defendant for such damages as he may sustain in case such sale be illegally and unjustly applied for, or be illegally and unjustly made, which sale shall be conducted as sales under execution. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5234. [5486] [3247] Citation for defendant.—The justice at the time he issues the warrant shall issue a citation to the defendant requiring him to answer before such justice, if he has jurisdiction to finally try the cause, and upon its being returned served, to proceed to judgment as in ordinary cases; and, if he has not such jurisdiction, the citation shall require the defendant to answer before the court to which the warrant was made returnable, and shall be returned with the other papers to such court. If the defendant has removed from the county without service, the proper officer shall state this fact in his return on the citation; and the court shall proceed to try the case ex parte, and may enter the proper judgment. [P. D. 7418f.]

Art. 5235. [5487] [3248] Petition.—When the warrant is made returnable to the district or county court, the plaintiff shall file his petition on or before the appearance day of the term of court to which said papers are returnable. [Id.]

Art. 5236. [5488] [3249] Rights of tenant.—Should the landlord, without default on the part of the tenant or lessee, fail to comply in any respect with his part of the contract, he shall be responsible to said tenant or lessee for whatever damages may be sustained thereby; and to secure such damages to such tenant or lessee, he shall have a lien on all the property of the landlord in his possession not exempt from forced sale, as well as upon all rents due to said landlord under said contract. [Acts 1876, p. 137; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 973.]

Art. 5237. [5489] [3250] Tenants shall not sub-let.—A person renting said lands or tenements shall not rent or lease the same during the term of said lease to any other person without first obtaining the consent of the landlord, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5238. [5490] [3251] Owners of buildings lien.—All persons leasing or renting any residence, storehouse, or other building, shall have a preference lien upon all property of the tenant in such residence, storehouse, or other building for the payment of rents due and to become due provided that in order to secure the lien for rents that are more than six months due, it shall be necessary for the person leasing or renting any storehouse or other building which is used for commercial purposes, to file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such storehouse or such other building is situated, a sworn statement of the amount of rent due, itemized as to the months for which it is claimed to be due, together with the name and address of the tenant, a description of the rented premises, the date on which the rental contract began and that on which it is to terminate, verified by the person claiming such lien, his agent or attorney, and such statement when so verified shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book to be provided for such purpose. No lien for rent more than six months past due upon any storehouse or other building rented for commercial purposes shall be valid as against bona fide purchasers or unsecured or lien creditors of said tenant, unless said statement shall be verified, filed and recorded as above provided.

Each county clerk shall keep an alphabetical index for the purpose of recording the rental liens above described.

The lien for rents to become due shall not continue or be enforced for a longer period than the current contract years, it being intended by the term "current contract years" to embrace a period of twelve months, reckoning from the beginning of the lease or rental contract, whether the same be in the first or any other year of such lease or rental contract. Such lien shall continue and be in force so long as the tenant shall occupy the rental premises, and for one month thereafter; but this article shall not be construed as in any manner repealing or affecting any Act exempting property from forced sale. [Acts 1889, p. 11; Acts 1919, p. 170.]

Art. 5239. [5491] [3252] Distress warrant.— When any rent shall become due, or the tenant about to remove from such leased or rented buildings, or remove his property therefrom, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rent is payable, his agent, attorney or assignee, to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the building is situated for a distress warrant, which shall be issued on an affidavit and bond; and the same proceedings shall be had on the issuance, trial and return of such warrant and the same rights conferred on the owners of storehouses and residences as is provided in this title in cases of other landlords. [Acts 1879, p. 128; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1428.]

TITLE 85.LANDS—ACQUISITION FOR PUBLIC USE.*1. STATE USE.

Art. 5240. [5247-8] Mode of acquisition.—When any land shall be required by the State for any character of public use, the Governor is authorized to purchase said land, or the right to the use thereof, for such purpose; or, failing to agree with the owner on the price therefor, such land may be condemned for such public use in the name of this State. Upon the direction of the Governor, proceedings shall be instituted against the owner of the land by the Attorney General or under his direction by the district or county attorney. Should the award of damages in the opinion of the Governor be excessive, such award shall not be paid but the State shall pay the costs of the proceedings and no further action shall be taken. [Acts 1903, 1st C. S., p. 10.]

Art. 5241. [5251] State railroad.—If any land is acquired by purchase or condemnation to obtain right of way for any railroad or tram road, to be built or extended and operated in connection with, or for the use of, any of the penitentiaries of this State, or any of the farms of this State, and used in connection with the State penitentiaries, the penitentiary board is hereby authorized and required to pay, out of any money authorized by law to be used for the support and maintenance of said penitentiaries, the damages and costs of condemnation, or the purchase price of said property. [Id.]

2. FEDERAL USE.

Art. 5242. [5252] Authorized uses.—The United States Government through its proper agent, may purchase, acquire, hold, own, occupy and possess such lands within the limits of this State as it deems expedient and may seek to occupy and hold as sites on which to erect and maintain light houses, forts, military stations, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, custom houses, post offices and all other needful public buildings, and for the purpose of erecting and constructing locks and dams, for the straightening of streams by making cutoffs, building levees, or for the erection of any other structures or improvements that may become necessary in developing or improving the waterways, rivers and harbors of Texas and the consent of the Legislature is hereby expressly given to any such purchase or acquisition made in accordance with the provisions of this law. [Acts 1905, p. 101.]

Art. 5243. [5253] Condemnation proceedings.—Whenever the land owner and the authorized Federal agent cannot agree upon the purchase price, then such agent may institute condemnation proceedings against such owner. [Id.]

Art. 5244. [5271] Immediate occupancy.—Upon the filing of the award of the commissioners with the county judge, if the United States Government shall deposit the amount of the award of the commissioners, together with all costs adjudged against the United States, they may proceed immediately to the occupancy of the said land and to the construction of their said improvements without awaiting the decision of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 5245. [5273] [372] [331] State land.—When this State may be the owner of any land desired by the United States for any purpose specified in this title, the Governor may sell such land to the United States, and upon payment of the purchase money therefor into the Treasury, the Land Commissioner, upon the order of the Governor, shall issue a patent to the United States for such land in like manner as other patents are issued. [Acts 1854, p. 102; P. D. 5450; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1546.]

Art. 5246. [5274] [373] [332] To record title.—All deeds of conveyances, decrees, patents, or other instruments vesting title in lands within this State in the United States, shall be recorded in the land records of the county in which such lands, or a part thereof, may be situated, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes and until filed for record in the proper county they shall not take effect as to subsequent purchasers in good faith, for a valuable consideration, and without notice. [Acts 1871, p. 19; P. D. 7693, G. L. Vol. 6, p. 921.]

Art. 5247. [5275-6] Federal jurisdiction.—Whenever the United States shall acquire any lands under this title, and shall desire to acquire constitutional jurisdiction over such lands for any purpose authorized herein, it shall be lawful for the Governor, in the name and in behalf of the State, to cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over any lands so acquired, when application may be made to him for that purpose, which application shall be in writing and accompanied with the proper evidence of such acquisition, duly authenticated and recorded, containing or having annexed thereto, an accurate description by metes and bounds of the lands sought to be ceded. No such cession shall ever be made except upon the express condition that this State shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over every portion of the lands so ceded, so far, that all process, civil or criminal issuing under the authority of this State or any of the courts or judicial officers thereof, may be executed by the proper officers of the State, upon any person amenable to the same within the limits of the land so ceded, in like manner and like effect as if no such cession had taken place; and such condition shall be inserted in such instrument of cession. [Acts 1849, p. 12; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 450.]

Art. 5248. [5277] [376] [335] Exempt from taxation.—The United States shall be secure in their possession and enjoyment of all lands acquired under the provisions of this title; and such lands and all improvements thereon shall be exempt from any taxation under the authority of this State so long as the same are held, owned, used and occupied by the United States for the purposes expressed in this title and not otherwise. [Acts 1871, p. 19; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 921.]

Art. 5249. [4392] [2864] Election.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, hereinafter called the Commissioner, shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years, and shall reside at Austin during his continuance in office. [Const. Art. 4, Secs. 2, 23.]

Art. 5250. [4394] [2866] Bond.—The Commissioner shall give bond with three or more sureties for fifty thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties. All other bonds required by law of employees of the General Land Office shall be executed and approved in like manner. [Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5251. [4396-4397] General duties.—The Commissioner shall superintend, control and direct the official conduct of all subordinate officers of the General Land Office, and execute and perform all acts and things touching or respecting the public land of this State or rights of individuals in relation thereto, as may be required by law, and make and enforce suitable rules consistent therewith. He shall give information to the Governor and Legislature concerning the public lands, or the General Land Office, when required.

Art. 5252. [5389] [4215] Abstract clerk.—The Commissioner shall make it the special duty of one of his clerks to constantly correct the abstract of patented, titled and surveyed lands required to be kept in his office according to errors discovered, changes by cancellation of patents, changes of county lines, and creation of new counties, and to add all new patented surveys at the date of the patent. [Acts 1837, p. 62; P. D. 4090; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1404.]

Art. 5253. [5390] [4216] Report to Comptroller.—During August of each year the Commissioner shall make out and furnish to the Comptroller a supplementary abstract of all patents issued from his office during the year ending on the last day of August. [Id.]

Art. 5254. [5391-5392] May print abstracts.—The Comptroller may have not more than fifteen hundred copies of said supplementary abstracts printed and bound for distribution among those officers of the State and counties whose duties require its use, the surplus copies to be sold at a reasonable price to parties applying for them. The costs so incurred shall be paid out of the general appropriation for printing; and the Comptroller shall pay all money received from such sales into the Treasury to the credit of said appropriation. [Id.]

Art. 5255. [4398-4399] Chief clerk.—The Commissioner shall appoint a chief clerk who shall give bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars. He shall be authorized to perform all of the duties required of the Commissioner in case of his sickness, absence, death or resignation. [Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5256. [4400-4401] Spanish translator.—The Commissioner shall appoint a translator who shall thoroughly understand Spanish and English languages, who shall give bond as required of the chief clerk, and take the official oath. He shall translate into English and record in a book all laws and public contracts relating to titles of lands, and all original titles or papers relating thereto on file in the General Land Office, which are written in the Spanish language. [Id.]

Art. 5257. [4402-3-4-5] Receiving clerk.—With the consent of the Governor, the Commissioner shall appoint a suitable person as receiving clerk for the Land Office. Such person shall give bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The receiving clerk shall:

1. Receive all funds required by law to be paid to the Commissioner and give the person depositing money a certificate of deposit stating the amount, name of party, and character of claim upon which deposited; and if any funds are received of a general character in advance of fees and dues, it shall be so stated; and said clerk shall be responsible therefor to the State or individual.

2. Keep books in which he shall enter each deposit separately, giving name of party, number of claim and situation of land sought to be perfected, and shall keep all letters and other vouchers filed in neat and regular order and number corresponding with his books. He shall report to the Treasurer on the last day of each month all funds in his hands due the State, paying the same in kind and taking the receipt in his own name. He shall keep separate columns in his books, showing the amount of specie or the amount of currency or other funds paid in. Upon his removal or resignation, he shall turn over his books, accounts and money in hand to his successor, when properly qualified, or to the Commissioner, taking a receipt for the same.

3. Furnish the Governor, through the Commissioner, on or before the meeting of the Legislature, a correct report of the condition of his office, the money received, giving character of claim, the money paid out and character of payment. [Acts 1866, p. 161; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1079.]

Art. 5258. [4406] [2879] Examination of books.—The Commissioner shall examine the books and accounts of the receiving clerk and note that they are properly kept, and if any defalcation is found he shall at once report the same to the Governor, who shall suspend said clerk from office until an examination is made, and if found guilty he shall be removed and suit instituted for recovery upon his bond. [Id.]

Art. 5259. [4407] [2880] Draftsmen.—The Commissioner shall appoint a chief draftsman and such number of compiling or assistant draftsmen as authorized by law, who shall make out and complete maps of all surveys made in the several counties from the maps furnished by county surveyors; and they shall plot additional surveys upon the proper county maps as forwarded to the Land Office. They shall perform all drafting and other duties required of them by the Commissioner for the benefit of the State or individuals. [Acts 1841, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 614.]

Art. 5260. [4408-9-10] Conditions of employment.—The Commissioner shall appoint such number of clerks as authorized by legislative appropriation or other law of this state. All clerks and employees of the Land Office shall hold their offices and positions at the pleasure of the Commissioner, and may be removed by him at any time for satisfactory cause.

2. GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

Art. 5261. [5280] [4042] Office established.—There shall be one general land office at Austin, where all land titles emanating from the State shall be registered when not prohibited by the Constitution. The term "land office," as used in this title shall mean the General Land Office of this State. [Const. Art. 14, Sec. 1; Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5262. [5281] [4043] Custody of records.—All books, accounts, records, papers, maps and original documents appertaining to land titles and which were termed archives by law, shall be the books and papers of said office, under the control and custody of the Commissioner. He shall keep in the Land Office a copy of each permit, lease or other paper issued by authority of law. [Acts 1837, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5263. [5283] Filing papers.—The Commissioner shall adopt the most convenient method for filing papers and preserving the records of said office. A list of all papers in each file shall be retained in the file. Each employee who files a paper shall place his own name thereon. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5264. [5284-5285] Public access to papers.—One desiring to examine any paper, record or file shall first obtain the written consent of the Commissioner or the chief clerk, and an order for the detail of a clerk to be present and superintend such examination. After the examination, the clerk shall carefully examine the papers of said file and see that they are all in place. [Acts 1873, p. 180; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 632.]

Art. 5265. [5290] [4053] Removal of papers.—No transfer or deed that may be a link in any chain of title to any certificate on file in the Land Office shall be withdrawn by any one. The Commissioner shall deliver to the interested party on demand certified copies thereof which shall have the same force and effect as the originals. If the genuineness of any such original paper is questioned in any suit, the Commissioner shall deliver the same to the proper party on the order of the court where such suit is pending; and the Commissioner shall retain a duly certified copy thereof, which shall have the same force and effect as the original in the event of its loss. [Acts 1879, p. 40; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1340.]

Art. 5266. [5291] [4061] Receipts for papers.—No paper, certificate, copy or document, other than a patent, shall be delivered to the owner until he has receipted for the same. The receipt shall state his residence and post office, and, if delivered to an agent or attorney, it shall also state his residence and post office. The Commissioner shall file such receipt with the other papers. When the Commissioner has good reason to doubt the genuineness of any transfer, power of attorney, or other paper on file in his office, he shall not permit any one to obtain an official copy thereof until such doubts have been removed. [Id.]

Art. 5267. [5292] [4062] Liability of Commissioner.—The Commissioner and the sureties on his official bond shall be responsible to any party injured by removal, withdrawal or alteration of any record or file in said office, unless said Commissioner can show that such act has taken place by permission of the party owning said file or record. [Id.]

Art. 5268. Board of Examiners.—The Board of Examiners of Land Surveyors shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall be composed of the Commissioner and two reputable land surveyors of not less than fifteen years practical and active experience in the field as land surveyors. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 173.]

Art. 5269. Organization of board.—The board shall organize by electing from their number a chairman and a secretary-treasurer. The concurrence of two members shall be necessary for the adoption or rejection of any question upon which they may be called to pass. The records and books of the board relating to the execution of this law shall be deposited in the Land office for safe-keeping when not in use by the Board. [Id.]

Art. 5270. Duties of board.—The board shall prepare written questions upon the theory of surveying, practical surveying, theory and use of surveyor's instruments, calculation of areas, closing field notes, the law of land boundaries and such other matters pertaining to surveying as the board may deem important. When the questions prepared by the board and the answers thereto shall have been returned to the chairman of the board as herein provided, he shall either convene the board for the purpose of passing upon such answers and the issuance or refusal of the license, or he may transmit the questions and answers to other members of the board for their consideration and action, and shall issue license to the applicant if he shall have passed a successful examination as herein provided. Upon receipt of a written application for license, the board shall forward the same to the custodian of questions for teachers' certificates in the county where such applicant resides, together with the questions prepared by the board, with suitable words on the inclosure indicating the contents. [Id.]

Art. 5271. Examination.—Upon receipt of the questions by the custodian of questions for teachers' certificates as provided herein, he shall hold the same unopened and shall open the same only in the presence of the applicant or applicants at the same time and place as may be required for the examination of applicants for teachers' certificates. Each applicant shall deposit ten dollars with the authority that may be authorized to receive such fees from applicants for teachers' certificates. The authority for conducting the examination for teachers' certificates shall conduct the examination of applicants for license hereunder in the same manner as is provided by law for the examination of applicants for teachers' certificates. When such applicant shall have returned the questions and answers to the source from which they were received, the authority receiving them shall return both questions and answers to the chairman of the Board of Examiners of Land Surveyors, together with eight dollars of the ten dollars deposited by each applicant, retaining the two dollars, which two dollars shall be disposed of as are the fees paid by applicants for teachers' certificates. Such questions and answers shall be deposited in the Land Office and there safely kept for at least one year. If a license be refused an applicant he may take any subsequent examination under the same conditions as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 5272. Seal of licensee.—Each licensed land surveyor shall procure a seal of office. Around the margin shall be the words "Licensed State Land Surveyor," and between the points of the star in the said seal shall be the word "Texas." He shall attest with said seal all certificates and other official acts issued under the provisions of this law. No certificate or other instrument issued by such surveyor shall be admitted in evidence or have any legal effect unless such seal is impressed thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5273. License: term of.—A license issued to an applicant under these provisions shall be valid for life unless sooner revoked by the Board for any of the following causes: That the holder has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction guilty of a felony or adjudged to have committed a theft, or fraud, or to be insane or incompetent, or shall be found by the Board to have unlawfully given information concerning any undisclosed public land or to have been directly or indirectly interested in the purchase or in the acquisition of title to any public land or to have been found guilty of any act or default discreditable to the surveying profession. [Id.]

Art. 5274. Revocation of license.—Before any license issued under these provisions shall be revoked, the holder shall have been advised by written notice from the Board, mailed to him at his last known address, at least thirty days before the day fixed for hearing, of any charge against him, stating the charge, and the time and place for such hearing. The evidence adduced on such hearing shall be reduced to writing. If the Board finds the charges sustained by the evidence, the license of such surveyor shall be revoked. The surveyor whose license has been revoked may appeal from such revocation to any district court of the county in which he resides. Upon such appeal the court shall admit in evidence the written record of the Board together with such other evidence as may be offered on either side in accordance with the rules of evidence in such courts. [Id.]

Art. 5275. Oath and bond.—Before one who receives a land surveyor's license shall be authorized to perform the duties of licensed land surveyor, he shall take the official oath, and shall make a good bond in the sum of one thousand dollars payable to the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully, impartially and honestly perform all the duties of a licensed surveyor, to the best of his skill and ability in all matters wherein he may be employed. Such oath and bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the licensee resides, and after being so recorded shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied with one dollar filing fee, and thereupon the licensee shall be authorized to enter upon the discharge of the duties of a licensed land surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 5276. Authority of licensee.—Land surveyors licensed under these provisions are hereby authorized to perform the duties that may be performed by county surveyors, and shall be subject to the direction of the Governor, Land Commissioner, Attorney General and the courts of the State in matters of land surveying in such cases as may come under the supervision of such authorities. The jurisdiction of such licensees shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. They may hold the office of county surveyor, and if so elected shall qualify as provided by law for county surveyors, but such election for any particular county shall not limit the jurisdiction of said surveyor to such county, nor shall the election of a county surveyor for any particular county prevent any licensed surveyor from performing the duties of a surveyor in such county. All field notes made by one licensed under this law shall be signed by such surveyor, followed by the designation, "Licensed land surveyor." [Id.]

Art. 5277. Field notes to be recorded.—Every survey made by any licensed surveyor shall be recorded in the county surveyor's records of the proper county, and for the purpose of such record, and for all other purposes, licensed surveyors shall have free and unrestrained access to the county surveyor's records. The field notes of all surveys and plats of same made by any licensed land surveyor affecting the lines, boundaries and areas of unpatented land shall be forwarded to the Land Office. All field notes made by a licensed land surveyor in any county in this State shall have the same force and effect and be admissible in evidence the same as field notes made by county surveyors. [Id.]

Art. 5278. Undisclosed land.—If a licensed surveyor shall discover an undisclosed tract of public land he shall not make known that fact to anyone except to such person as may have it enclosed, but he shall forward to the Land Office a report of the existence of such tract and the acreage therein, and its probable value. [Id.]

Art. 5279. Compensation.—A licensed land surveyor shall receive as compensation for his services not to exceed ten dollars per day and other expenses incident to the survey as shall be agreed upon between the surveyor and the interested party, whether the same be a private person, a county, a court, or the State. [Id.]

Art. 5280. Certified copies.—Surveyors qualified under this law and county surveyors may make a certificate of any fact shown by the books, documents and records of any county surveyor's office and may make a certified copy of any document or record or entry shown by record of such county surveyor, and said certificate shall be admissible in evidence as to what said records may disclose. For each such certificate the surveyor may charge a fee of one dollar, and for each one hundred words contained in any certified copy thirty-five cents. When a county has a county surveyor such surveyor alone shall be authorized to make certificates and certified copies and receive the fees therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5281. Disposition of fees.—The sum received by the Board or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used to defray the actual expenses incurred by the members of said

Board in the execution of this law, and the remainder shall be deposited annually in the State Treasury. No appropriation shall ever be made to defray the expenses of said Board or to carry into effect any provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5282. Experienced surveyors.—Any applicant who is a reputable surveyor of fifteen years actual experience in the field as such surveyor shall receive a license without examination when he shall have applied therefor, accompanying such application to the Board with the affidavits of three credible persons to the effect that such applicant is a reputable land surveyor of fifteen years actual experience in the field, and upon the payment of a fee of two dollars to said Board. [Id.]

Art. 5283. [5300-5325-5326] Election.—A county surveyor shall be elected in each county at each general election for a term of two years. He shall reside in the county and keep his office at the courthouse or some suitable building at the county seat, the rent therefor to be paid by the commissioners' court on satisfactory showing that the rent is reasonable, the office necessary and that there is no available office at the courthouse. [Const., Art. 6, Sec. 44; Acts 1858, p. 66; Acts 1876, p. 196; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 938; Vol. 8, p. 1032.]

Art. 5284. [5301] [4069] Bond.—The county surveyor shall first give bond in such sum as the commissioners' court may fix, not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 1081, 4522; Acts 1897, p. 26; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1405]

Art. 5285. [5308] [4076] Deputy.—Each county surveyor may appoint a deputy surveyor as he may deem necessary, and shall administer his official oath and take his bond in the sum of five thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The deputy may do all acts authorized or required by law to be done by the county surveyor. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 4522; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5286. [5309] [4077] Chain carriers.—Each county surveyor may employ persons sixteen years of age or over as chain carriers or markers, and shall administer to each an oath to faithfully perform his duties as such in accordance with the instructions given him. [Id.]

Art. 5287. [5303-5307] Duties.—Each county surveyor shall receive and examine all field notes of surveys made in said county upon which patents are to be obtained, and shall certify to the same according to law and record such field notes in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and he shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law. The commissioners' court shall furnish him all necessary books of record. [Id.]

Art. 5288. [5304] [4072] Inclosed school lands.—He shall report to the commissioners' court on the first Monday in June each year the number of sections of public school lands in his county inclosed during the past year, and the names of the persons controlling same, and the number of sections controlled by each person. [Acts 1879, p. 101; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1401.]

Art. 5289. [5343] [4153] Failure to survey.—If any county surveyor fails, neglects or refuses, when the amount of lawful surveying fees of any location of land may be tendered to him by any person legally entitled to the survey, to make or cause such survey to be made within one month after such tender, he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond to such injured parties in the amount of damages or injury said parties may sustain by reason of such neglect, refusal or failure. [Acts 1837, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5290. [5305] [4073] To record field notes.—Each county surveyor shall record in a well bound book all the surveys in his county, with the plats thereof that he may make, whether private or official. Such record shall be open to the inspection of the public. For such service the surveyor may charge in addition to the fees allowed by law for field work, twenty cents per hundred words for such record. [Acts 1881, p. 71; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 163.]

Art. 5291. [5306-5312] Record of surveys.—Each county surveyor shall quarterly plat upon the map of his county all surveys made during the preceding quarter and transmit sketches and field notes of same to the Commissioner. Such map shall be free to public inspection. [Acts 1858, p. 66; P. D. 1087; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 938.]

Art. 5292. [5328] [4098] Right to examine books.—Any person interested, for himself, or as agent or attorney of another, shall at all times have the right to examine the books, papers, plats, maps or other archives belonging to the office of any surveyor, on the payment of the fee fixed by law. [Id.]

Art. 5293. [5313] [4081] Change of county boundary.—When any county boundaries are changed the surveyor of the county from which territory may be so taken shall furnish the surveyor of the county including such territory with a complete copy of all the field notes of surveys made in the same. [Acts 1840, p. 191; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 365.]

Art. 5294. [5324] [4092] Lost records.—Whenever the maps, field notes of surveys, or other records, or any part thereof of the surveyor's office shall from any cause be lost or destroyed, such surveyor shall obtain from the Commissioner a transcript of such lost records certified to as required by law, and which certified copy shall have the same force and effect as the original. Such surveyor shall receive five cents and the State ten cents per hundred words for such transcript to be paid by the commissioners court. [Acts 1885, p. 92; Amend. Sen. Jour. p. 482, 1895; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 712.]

Art. 5295. [5330-1] Standards of measure.—Each surveyor shall, in some convenient place at the county seat, establish a true meridian by a substantial monument, to be erected at the expense of the county, and shall adjust to the said meridian all compasses or other such instruments before being used; and shall keep in his office a standard chain of the true measurement of ten varas, to which all of his chains shall be adjusted before being used. All surveyors shall be responsible to parties interested for any cost that may accrue in rectifying any errors that may occur in their work by reason of neglect or failure to comply with the requirements of this article. [Acts 1873, p. 173; P. D. 7099; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 625.]

Art. 5296. [5332] [4103] Removal: delivery of records.—Upon removal from office, or at the expiration of his term of office, each county surveyor shall deliver to his successor all records, books, papers, maps and other things appertaining to his office.

Art. 5297. [5333] [4104] Custody of records in absence.—Whenever an organized county from any cause has not a qualified county surveyor, the county clerk of such county shall take charge of all records, maps and papers belonging to the county surveyor's office and safely keep the same in his office. [Acts 1866, p. 31; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 949.]

Art. 5298. [5334] [4105] Bound records.—Whenever the commissioners court deems it necessary it shall order the surveyor's record to be transcribed in good and substantial books, by the surveyor or special deputies sworn to make true copies of the same, for which services they shall be allowed not more than fifteen cents per hundred words, to be paid out of the county treasury. [Acts S. S. 1871, p. 18; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 20.]

Art. 5299. [5335] [4142] Authorized surveys.—All surveys of public lands shall be made by authority of law, and by a surveyor duly appointed, elected or licensed, and qualified.

Art. 5300. [5336] [4144] Field notes; requisites.—The field notes of every such survey shall state:

1. The county in which the land is situated.
2. The authority under or by virtue of which it is made, giving a true description of the same.
3. The land by proper field notes with the necessary calls and connections for identification (observing the Spanish measurement by varas.)

4. A diagram of the survey.
5. The variation at which the running was made.
6. The names of the chain carriers.
7. The date thereof, and the signature of the surveyor.
8. The surveyor shall officially certify to the correctness of the survey, that it was made according to law; that such survey was actually made in the field, and that the field notes have been duly recorded, giving book and page.

9. When the survey has been made by a deputy, the county surveyor shall certify officially that he has examined the field notes, has found them correct, and that they are duly recorded giving book and page of record.

Art. 5301. [5337] [4146] Loss of field notes.—When the original field notes of any authorized survey are lost or destroyed, the owner thereof or his agent, on making affidavit of such fact and filing same in the office of the surveyor where the survey was made, may obtain from him a certified copy of the record thereof. Such copy shall be as valid and efficient in law as the original and shall secure to the party all the rights before the Commissioner that the original would have done. [Acts 1841, p. 293; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1599.]

Art. 5302. [5338-9] Surveys on navigable streams.—All lands surveyed for individuals, lying on navigable water courses, shall front one-half of the square on the water course and the line running at right angles with the general course of the stream, if circumstances of the lines previously surveyed under the laws will permit. All streams so far as they retain an average width of thirty feet from the mouth up shall be considered navigable streams within the meaning hereof, and they shall not be crossed by the lines of any survey. All surveys not made upon navigable water courses shall be in a square, so far as lines previously surveyed will permit. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 4529; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5303. [5340] [4150] Division line: notice.—Before running a division line between two settlers or occupants claiming lands, the surveyor shall give written notice to the interested parties. Any survey made contrary to the true intent and meaning of this article shall be unlawful. [Id.]

Art. 5304. [5341] [4151] Disputed line: trial.—When persons cannot agree to a division line of any land which has never been surveyed agreeably to law, either party may apply to the nearest justice of the peace, and make oath that he has tried and has not been able to settle such dispute, naming the parties thereto; and said justice shall issue a warrant to any lawful officer to summon the parties defendant, together with six disinterested jurors, to meet upon the premises in dispute, together with such witnesses as either party may summon, to give evidence on a certain day, naming the time and place. The justice shall meet the parties, examine all the testimony before the jury, who shall on oath hear and determine the case in dispute and who shall pay the costs. Each juror shall receive two dollars per day for such services, and the other officers such fees as allowed by law for similar services. If the land in dispute is on a county line, a justice of either county in which part of the land lies may act in such case. Either party may appeal to the county court within ten days upon giving bond and security for the costs. [Id.]

Art. 5305. [5344-5-6] Incorrect field notes.—The Commissioner shall cause a plain statement of the errors in any field notes in the land office, with a sketch of the map, to be forwarded by mail, or by the party interested, to the surveyor who made the survey, with a requisition to correct and return the same; and said surveyor shall do so at once without further charge. If the conflict exists only on the map or in the field notes, the surveyor need only officially certify to the facts, and furnish a true sketch of the survey with its connections. [Acts S. S. 1871, p. 11; P. D. 7091; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 13.]

CHAPTER THREE.

SURFACE AND TIMBER RIGHTS

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Art. 5306. [5405] Sale and lease of public lands provided for.—All lands set apart for the benefit of the public free schools, the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the deaf and dumb asylum, and the orphan asylum shall be sold and leased under the provisions of this chapter. All tracts of less than eighty acres shall be sold as a whole for cash. All such lands shall be sold without condition of settlement and residence, but shall not be sold to corporations. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 170, p. 793; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5307. [5406] Duties of Commissioner.—The Commissioner is hereby vested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion of all matters pertaining to the sale and lease of said lands, and their protection from free use and occupancy and from unlawful inclosure, with such exceptions and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the Constitution and laws of this State. He shall adopt such regulations not inconsistent therewith as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, and may alter or amend such regulations so as to protect the public interest; but all such regulations shall first be submitted to the Governor for his approval. The Commissioner shall adopt all forms necessary or proper for the transaction of the business imposed upon him by this chapter, and may call upon the Attorney General to prepare such forms, and said officer shall also furnish the Commissioner with such advice and legal assistance as may be requisite for the due execution of the provisions hereof. The Commissioner shall furnish all available data to the State Board of Education on its request. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 793.]

Art. 5308. [5449] Accounts.—The Commissioner shall retain in his custody as records of his office each application, affidavit, obligation and paper relating to the sales and leases of said lands, and shall cause to be kept accurate accounts with each purchaser or lessee. [Id.]

Art. 5309. Land subject to sale.—On the first day of September, 1925, and the first day of each January, May and September of each year thereafter all of the surveyed public free school land then unsold and portions of same and all tracts theretofore surveyed for which field notes were returned to and filed in the General Land Office and which reverted to the public domain or the public free school fund, and those surveys for which field notes were returned to and filed in the General Land Office and cannot be legally patented under existing law; and such sold public free school and asylum land as may be forfeited or canceled for any cause prior to the sale date for which the land may be advertised and such unsurveyed land as may hereafter be recovered for the public free school fund upon suit by the Attorney General filed prior to the acquisition of rights to purchase the area as unsurveyed land, shall be subject to and offered for sale by the Commissioner of the General Land Office under the regulations and upon the terms and condition provided in this Act.

Art. 5310. [5407] Classification and valuation.—The Commissioner shall from time to time, as the public interest may require, classify or reclassify, value or revalue, any of the lands included in this chapter, designating the same as agricultural, grazing, or timber, or a combination of said classifications, according to the facts in the particular case, and when entry of the classification and the appraisalment is made on the records of the Land Office, no further action on the part of the Commissioner, nor notice to the county clerk shall be required to give effect thereto. No land classed as agricultural shall be sold for less than one dollar and fifty cents per acre, and no land classed as grazing shall be sold for less than one dollar per acre. The land included in this chapter shall be sold with the reservation of the oil, gas, coal and all other minerals that may be therein to the fund to which the land belongs, and all applications shall so state. [Acts 1897, p. 184; Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5311. [5408] Commissioner shall classify and advertise.—In cases where any land included in this Act may be leased and the same may come on the market by reason of the expiration or cancellation of such leases and in cases where land may be sold and become subject to forfeiture or cancellation for non-payment of interest and thereby subject to revert to the fund to which it originally belonged by reason of the forfeiture or cancellation of the sale, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to classify and value same before some sale date thereafter and adopt such means as may be at his command that will give wide publicity and general information as to when such land will be forfeited or canceled, and when it and other land will be on the market for sale together with the regulations, terms and conditions upon which the land may be purchased if past due interest should not be paid. No tract of land shall be subject to sale, except unsurveyed school land, until it shall have been advertised. If there are no other satisfactory or sufficient means at the command of the Commissioner that will give the necessary publicity he shall have printed at the expense of the State, to be paid out of the appropriation for public printing, lists of the land for free distribution to the public. The list shall contain a brief statement of how one shall proceed to buy the land and also state the year to which delinquent interest must be paid to prevent a forfeiture and cancellation. No corporation shall buy any land under this Act.

Art. 5311a. Sold in whole tracts without settlement.—The land included in this Act shall be sold in whole tracts only and without condition of settlement and residence. Any unsold land may be leased subject to sale, at not less than five cents per acre per annum, payable in advance each year and for a term not to exceed five years. All land so leased shall be subject to sale on any sale date for which it may be advertised to come on the market.

Art. 5311b. Validating sales.—In cases where public free school and asylum land has been advertised as being subject to forfeiture for non-payment of interest and to be forfeited and canceled and come on the market for sale at some future sale date and such land was declared forfeited and the sale canceled on the records of the General Land Office and sale awards issued upon applications filed at such sale date, and said sale award has been held by the Supreme Court to be void and all other sale awards which may be void or voidable or the titles to which may have become defective from any cause, are hereby validated, and when the said land shall be fully paid for together with payment of all fees it shall be patented; provided, in cases where the sale award of the land advertised as aforesaid has not stood one year the owner of said land at date of forfeiture shall have the right to apply to the General Land Office for a re-instatement of said former sale upon the payment of all past due interest at any time within six months after the taking effect of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 332.]

Art. 5312. [5409] Application to purchase.— One desiring to buy any portion of such surveyed land shall make separate written application to the Commissioner for each tract applied for as a whole, designating the same, and stating the price offered, and make affidavit that he desires to purchase the land for himself and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase thereof either directly or indirectly, and pay one-fortieth of the aggregate price offered for the land, and submit his obligation in a sum equal to the amount of the unpaid purchase price offered for the land, binding the purchaser to pay to the State at the General Land Office at Austin, on the first day of each November thereafter until the whole purchase price is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price with interest on the unpaid purchase price at the rate of five per cent per annum. Upon receipt and filing of the application, affidavit, obligation and the one-fortieth of the price offered, the sale shall be held effective from that date. [Acts 1895, p. 65; Acts 1919, p. 313.]

Art. 5313. [5410] Application: opening.— The application shall be delivered to the Land Office in a sealed envelope addressed to the Commissioner at Austin, and the envelope shall have indorsed thereon in effect: "Application to buy land," and date when the land will be on the market. Applications received at the Land Office in envelopes not so indorsed shall nevertheless be valid. All such envelopes shall remain unopened and the applications shall remain unfiled and all shall be safely and securely kept by the Commissioner or his Chief Clerk until the day following the day when the land comes on the market and at ten o'clock a. m. on said day one or both of them shall begin to open the envelopes and file all applications; provided, if the opening day should be Sunday or other legal holiday, the opening shall be postponed until the first work day thereafter. Those desiring to be present at such opening may do so. All sales shall be made to, and date from the filing of the application of, the applicant who offers the most for the land, at a price not less than that fixed by the Commissioner, and shall be made by or under the direction of the Commissioner. Should two or more applicants offer the same price for any tract, the same being the highest price offered therefor on any sale date, all bids shall be rejected and the land offered for sale on the next sale date, but a subsequent bid shall not be considered if less than the former price offered. [Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5314. [5416] Individual bids.— Land that is or may be on the market, and not filed on as provided in the preceding article, may be filed on and sold to any one any time upon proper applications filed in the Land Office as provided by law, except the envelope enclosing the application shall not be required to have any memorandum thereon, and, if two or more applications should be filed the same day for the same land, the one offering the highest price shall be accepted, but if two or more applicants should offer the same price, the Commissioner shall proceed as herein provided for in the first filing. [Acts 1905, p. 159.]

Art. 5315. [5411] Cash payments, how remitted.—All such applicants shall transmit with their applications the required first payment in the form of money or remittance collectible on demand in Austin, and convertible at par into money on the order of the State Treasurer, without liability; provided, that, should a remittance be made payable to the Commissioner, such payment shall not be invalid for that reason, but the Commissioner shall indorse it to the State Treasurer without incurring liability and the same shall be treated as if payable to the Treasurer. The application shall be void if the payment is not made as required in this article. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5316. [5407] Notice of sale.—The Commissioner shall notify the clerk of the proper county of the sale of each tract, giving the name and address of the purchaser together with the price of the land. When informed of the sale of any land the clerk shall enter on his books opposite the description of the land sold, the name of the purchaser and the date sold, and the notice of such sale and the books of record and entry shall be considered public records. [Acts 1897, p. 184; Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5317. [5413] Awards.—Notice of awards shall be prepared and issued by the Commissioner, and shall be appropriately numbered and shall be so worded as to constitute a receipt for first payment when signed by the Commissioner. Books shall be prepared containing two copies of the notice of award and a suitable number of coupons to be used by the applicant in making subsequent payments on the land. The notice of awards shall be prepared in duplicate, one to be detached from the book and retained in the Land Office, the other, with the coupons attached, to be sent to the applicant. The coupons in each book shall be prepared in duplicate, each of which shall be numbered with the same number as that on the notice of award. The form of the coupons shall be so prepared as to be suitable for, and shall be used by the remitter in making all subsequent payments on the land, the original to be so worded as to be used as a receipt for remittances when signed as such by the Commissioner. The remitter shall describe each tract of land on which he is making remittance by properly filling in the blanks on both the original and duplicate coupons, and shall enter in the proper blanks the amounts remitted as interest and principal, and both the original and duplicate shall be mailed to the Commissioner with the remittance. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5318. [5415] Purchaser's name to be given.—Persons making payments of interest, principal or lease rentals on land shall give the name of the original purchaser or lessee and sufficiently designate the land. [Id.]

Art. 5319. [5412] First payment accounts.—When an envelope inclosing an application to purchase land is opened and the remittance for the first payment is in the Land Office, the Commissioner shall cause such remittance to be listed in triplicate daily, and in such form as to show the purpose and amount of each remittance, the name and address of the applicant, and transmit the remittance and two of the lists to the Treasurer. On receipt thereof, the Treasurer shall check the remittances with the lists, and, if found correct, he shall receipt one of the lists and return it to the Commissioner and retain the other list; and thereupon the Commissioner shall deliver the third list retained by him to the Comptroller. The Treasurer shall at once collect all collectible remittances and report to the Commissioner and Comptroller all remittances not collectible in Austin. The items not collected shall be returned to the Commissioner. All first payments thus collected by the Treasurer shall be retained by him until he receives notice from the Commissioner of the final disposition of the applications to purchase, and thereupon he shall at once return to each applicant the amount shown to have been paid on his rejected applications. A duplicate of the notice to the Treasurer of accepted and rejected applications and the amount of first payment shall be transmitted to the Comptroller. On the last working day of each month, the Treasurer shall deposit in the Treasury to the credit of the proper fund the sum collected by him on accepted applications during that month. [Id.]

Art. 5320. [5414] Other accounts.—Payments on interest, principal and lease rentals shall be listed and accounted for separate from, but in a similar manner to, first payments. The Treasurer shall deposit eighty per cent of all such remittances received each month to the credit of the probable fund to which they belong, as indicated by the Commissioner; and he shall hold the remaining twenty per cent upon deposit receipts furnished by the Comptroller until receipt of definite notice from the Commissioner of the proper fund, which shall then be credited with the full amount received. The Commissioner shall give such definite notice to the Treasurer and Comptroller immediately after he issues receipts to the remitters. The Commissioner, Treasurer and Comptroller shall each keep an account with each fund according to advices given by them, retaining such advices as permanent records.

Art. 5321. [5429] Timber lands.—Timber on lands shall be sold in full tracts for cash at its fair market value, and the Commissioner shall adopt such regulations for the sale thereof as may be deemed necessary and judicious, subject to the provisions of this chapter. By timbered lands is meant lands valued chiefly for the timber thereon. [Acts 1901, p. 296; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5322. [5430] Timber: sale.—Application to purchase timber shall be made in the manner provided for the filing of applications for the purchase of lands. If two or more persons each apply to purchase the timber and land on the same day, the one who offers more for the timber but less for the land than a competitor shall have an option for thirty days to take the land at the highest price offered by such competitor, or he may be awarded the timber without the land. If the timber is so sold without the land, such competitor shall have an option for thirty days to purchase the land. If such first party buys neither the timber nor the land, then the land and timber shall be awarded to the one offering the highest price for the land, and next highest price for the timber. If two or more applications for timber alone be filed on the same day the one offering the most therefor shall be accepted. The purchaser of timber without the land shall have the right of ingress and egress upon the land for a period of five years after date of award to remove or protect all the timber thereon. After that time the title to the timber shall revert to the fund to which the land belonged and be again subject to sale by the State, unless the land shall sooner be sold and fully paid for and patent issued thereon; and in that event the timber shall revert to the owner of the land. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5323. [5432] Unsurveyed school lands.—The rules governing the sale of unsurveyed school lands are:

1. Application.—One desiring to purchase any portion of the unsurveyed land believed to belong to the school fund shall make a written application of inquiry to the Commissioner. The inquiry shall give the applicant's post-office address, state in effect that he desires to buy the land if it is for sale and sufficiently designate it. If it appears from the records of the Land Office that the area belongs to the public free school fund, or if there be doubt as to the existence of the area as public free school land, the applicant shall be advised and given the name and address of an authorized surveyor with whom he may contract for the survey of the land at the expense of the applicant. The applicant shall file an application with the surveyor accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee. The application shall be filed and recorded and sufficiently describe the land. The survey shall be made and returned to the Land Office within ninety days after the date of the Commissioner's advice as to an available authorized surveyor.

2. Suit to require survey.—If the Commissioner declines to recognize the existence of the area as public school land and refuses to authorize a survey to be made, such person may file suit against the county surveyor in the district court of the county in which the land is located, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, to compel him to make the survey and thereupon the surveyor shall implead the claimant of the land and in such proceedings determine if the area be public land. In such proceedings the surveyor shall not be held for any cost incurred. If the final judgment of the court should decree the area or part thereof to be school land the surveyor shall make the survey, and the application, field notes and one dollar filing fee shall be filed in the Land Office within ninety days from the date of the final decree.

3. Classification.—When the surveyor returns the field notes and a plat of the survey to the Land Office, together with one dollar filing fee to be paid by applicant, he shall report under oath the classification and reasonable market value of the land and also the timber thereon and its value, which may be considered in connection with such other evidence as may be required by the Commissioner in determining the price to be given for the land and timber. If upon inspection of the papers the Commissioner is satisfied from the report of the surveyor and the records of the Land Office that the land belongs to the public free school fund and the survey has been made according to law, he shall approve the same by classifying and valuing the land, and mail notice of such action to the applicant, giving the classification, price and terms.

4. Terms of sale.—Any timber on such land shall be sold for cash at its reasonable market value. No award shall be issued for the land until the timber shall have been fully paid for. The applicant shall file in the Land Office his application for the purchase of the land together with one-fortieth of the appraised value fixed thereon within sixty days from the date of the notice of the classification and valuation, together with the applicant's obligation for the balance of the unpaid purchase price bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the obligation and other conditions of sale shall be the same as that for surveyed land. If such application should not be filed within the time prescribed herein, the Commissioner shall place the land on the market for sale upon the same terms as are herein provided for other surveyed school land. If upon the inspection of any application, field notes and records of the Land Office, there should appear to be a greater area belonging to the school fund than that included in the application and field notes, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require the applicant to include the whole area in his field notes. If it appears that another than the applicant claims an unsurveyed area which belongs to the school fund, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, refer the removal of such claim to the Attorney General before making a sale to an applicant. The Commissioner may sell the area though the Attorney General refuses to institute proceedings for the removal of such claim. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 315.]

Art. 5324. [5434] Sale of gayule and lechuguilla.—The Commissioner may, with the consent and approval of the Governor and Attorney General, sell the gayule or lechuguilla growing or found upon the public free school land, exclusive of timber. The sales may be upon such terms, conditions and limitations as they may deem most advantageous, having in view the protection of the interest of the school fund and the State. They may also enter into such contracts as they may deem wise for the purpose of having determined the commercial properties and value of any and all such material, and for such purpose they may enter into executory contracts of sale; provided, they shall not in such contracts cause the expenditure of public money nor incur any liability on the State. [Acts 1907, p. 251.]

Art. 5325. [5433] Unlawful use of minerals.—If any person who has no authority or right to do so, cuts or removes any mineral, gayule or lechuguilla from the school land belonging to the public free school fund, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant in behalf of the State in a sum of money equal to the value of the substance so cut or removed, which shall be collected as under execution; and when collected, the money shall be remitted to the State Treasurer, and by him credited to the fund to which the land belongs. [Acts 1907, p. 490.]

Art. 5326. [5423] Forfeiture for non-payment of interest.—If any portion of the interest on any sale should not be paid when due, the land shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner entering on the wrapper containing the papers "Land Forfeited," or words of similar import, with the date of such action and sign it officially, and thereupon the land and all payments shall be forfeited to the State, and the lands shall be offered for sale on a subsequent sale date. In any case where lands have been forfeited to the State for the non-payment of interest, the purchasers, or their vendees, may have their claims reinstated on their written request, by paying into the Treasury the full amount of interest due on such claim up to the date of reinstatement, provided that no rights of third persons may have intervened. In all such cases, the original obligations and penalties shall thereby become as binding as if no forfeiture had ever occurred. If any purchaser shall die, his heirs or legal representatives shall have one year in which to make payment after the first day of November next after such death. Nothing in this article shall inhibit the State from instituting such legal proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such forfeiture, or to recover the full amount of the interest and such penalties as may be due the State at the time such forfeiture occurred, or to protect any other right to such land. [Acts 1897, pp. 39, 184; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

SECTION 1. In case any of the public free school lands that have been heretofore purchased from the State have been heretofore forfeited for non-payment of interest and have not been resold, and that which may hereafter be forfeited for the non-payment of interest that may have accrued prior to November 1, 1925, the owner of such land at the date of forfeiture shall have the right for a period of ninety days after the date in the notice of revaluation of his land as herein provided, to repurchase upon the terms and conditions prescribed in this Act, any and all of the land in whole tracts according to the forfeiture.

SEC. 2. When any of the land included in the preceding section has been forfeited for the non-payment of interest, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall forward such list of land to the proper county clerk and include therein such land as may have heretofore been forfeited and remains unsold and within sixty days after the date the list was forwarded to the clerk the owner mentioned in the preceding section who may desire to repurchase such land in whole tracts according to the forfeiture shall advise the Commissioner of the General Land Office of such desire, and transmit with such advice one cent acre for each acre such person desires revalued. As soon as practicable, after the receipt of such advice by the commissioner he shall proceed to ascertain the reasonable value of such land and appraise the same accordingly and shall prepare duplicate notices of the appraisement and send one to each of the forfeiting owners and retain one for the General Land Office. If such forfeiting owner desires to repurchase the land at the appraised value placed thereon, he shall file his application therefor in the General Land Office within ninety days after the date in the notice of appraisement, together with one-fortieth of the appraised value and his obligations for the remaining portion of the purchase price, bearing the same rate of interest per annum as the forfeited purchase bore. The said one-fortieth cash payment shall conform to the requirements now prescribed for the first payment on all applications for the purchase of public free school lands. The one cent per acre received by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be used by him to defray the expenses incident to the revaluation and the remainder, if any, shall be by him deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue.

SEC. 3. If the owner at the date of forfeiture shall not exercise his right to repurchase, the commissioner shall again place the land on the market for sale as is now or may hereafter be provided for the sale of public free school lands. All repurchase under this Act shall be subject to the obligation of interest payments and forfeiture for non-payment of interest that is now provided by law for other purchasers of public free school lands. One-sixteenth of the oil and gas, and all other minerals, in the land included herein, whether known or unknown, are expressly reserved to the public free school fund, in the event the former sale was with mineral reservation.

SEC. 4. Whenever any land affected by this Act is repurchased under the rights of repurchase given herein, any lien, legal or equitable, and any valid contractual right in favor of any person or persons existing against, in and to said land or any part thereof at the time of forfeiture shall remain unimpaired and in full force and effect as if no such forfeiture had occurred. [Acts 1925, p. 267.]

Art. 5327. Lien.—To secure the payment of all principal and interest due upon any sale of public free school land, University land, and the several asylums land, the State shall have an express lien for the use and benefit of the fund to which the land belongs in addition to any right and remedy that it has for the enforcement of the payment of any principal or interest that may become due and unpaid. [Acts 1917, 3rd. C. S., p. 95.]

Art. 5328. Transfer of indebtedness.—If any person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank with the consent of the owner of any lands mentioned in the preceding article, pays to the State the principal and interest due upon any obligation given for such land, the Commissioner shall be authorized, upon written request of such owner duly acknowledged in the manner required for the conveyance of real estate, coupled with an affidavit of ownership, to execute, acknowledge and deliver a written transfer of the indebtedness held by the State to such person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank which shall thereupon be subrogated to all the rights, liens and remedies held by the State to secure and enforce the payment on the amount of principal and interest so paid to the State. If the land claimed by the one representing himself to be the owner should be held under such evidence of titles as the law or rules of the Land Office will not authorize or permit to be filed in said office, then the Commissioner may admit the owner to be such person as the person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank paying the indebtedness shall admit to be the owner, and upon such admission the instrument of transfer shall be executed. Nothing herein shall change in any particular whatever, the law or rules that obtain in the Land Office relative to titles to land and the issuance of patents thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5329. [5435] Transfers.—Owners of public free school land and asylum land purchased from the State may sell their land or a definite portion of the same in any size tract. If in any of the succeeding conditions the land that is desired to be separated from another portion should not be sufficiently designated by metes and bounds in the papers offered for filing, to identify it with certainty, the Commissioner shall require that proper field notes accompany the papers before he files them and separates the land.

1. Personal transfers.—A vendee through personal transfer executed for a whole survey or for a whole portion of a survey purchased from the State as a whole or for a portion of a survey purchased from the State as a whole or in a quantity less than the whole survey, shall have the right to become a substitute purchaser direct from the State in the manner provided herein. With the approval of the Commissioner such vendee may file in said office a complete and valid chain of title through personal transfers which have been duly executed and recorded in the counties in which the land or a part thereof is situated or in the county to which to such county or counties may be attached for judicial purposes, and pay the lawful fees. When said papers have been filed in said office the substituted purchaser shall have his portion of land separated from the other portion, if any, on the records of the Land Office and thereby he shall assume and become liable to the State for all unpaid principal and interest due and to become due the State for the land conveyed in the deeds so filed, together with all obligations and penalties attaching to the original purchase the same as was the original purchaser. The obligation of the original purchaser and the obligation of all vendors of such substituted purchaser shall be enforceable against the substituted purchaser the same as if he were the original purchaser from the State, and the obligation of the vendor or vendors of the substituted purchaser shall be deemed canceled.

2. Other transfers.—One who claims title through a source other than by personal transfer, to a definite portion of a survey less than a whole as it was purchased from the State may, with the approval of the Commissioner, have that portion of land so claimed separated from the other portion of the survey upon the records of said office by filing therein such evidence of claims as may be required by said Commissioner and pay the lawful fees for the papers filed as evidence of the claim or a right to a separation of such area.

3. Liability of vendee.—When a separation of the land has been made upon the records of the Land Office in either manner provided for herein, that portion so separated shall be charged and credited with its pro-rata part of the principal and interest due and paid to the first day of November preceding the date of the filing of the transfers or other papers.

4. Patent.—If any owner or claimant of any land included in this chapter, which ownership or claim is shown on the records of said office, should desire a patent upon a portion thereof less than the whole, such owner or claimant may, with the approval of the Commissioner, file field notes with lawful filing fee for that portion on which patent is desired and obtain a patent therefor when the land is fully paid for with all lawful fees. If the ownership should be evidenced by personal transfers the patent shall be issued to such owner and his assigns. If the claimant claims title through other evidence than by personal transfer, the patent shall be issued in the name of the person and his assigns that holds title by original purchase or in the name of the person and his assigns who appears on said records to hold title through the last personal transfer. If a patent should be issued in the name of one other than the legal owner, such patent and the rights granted therein shall inure to the benefit of the legal owner. Where any land has been purchased from the State on condition of residence, no patent shall be issued until proper proof of such residence either by the vendor or vendee, or both consecutively, has been filed and the Commissioner is satisfied therewith. Every vendee before the completion of the required residence by his vendor shall file in the Land Office an application, affidavit and obligation, such as is required of an original purchaser, together with the partial proof of his vendor's continuous residence to the date of the deed of transfer. On the filing of proof of the required three years' residence, the Commissioner shall issue a certificate of its sufficiency upon the payment of the lawful fees. The said certificate may be recorded in the deed records of the proper county, and when so recorded it shall become a muniment of title. After a certificate has been recorded, neither the sale nor the occupancy of said land shall be questioned by the State nor any person whose rights did not accrue prior to the completion of said residence. The effect of the issuance of said certificate shall include and extend to all land purchased as additional to a home tract on which the said certificate may have been issued. No sale made without condition of settlement shall be questioned by the State or any person after one year from the date of such sale. All purchasers shall have the option of paying the purchase price in full at any time, together with full fees, and obtain a patent for the land. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 316; Acts 1921, p. 118.]

Art. 5330. [5438] Patents for town sites.—Whenever a town shall be located and established upon any lands sold under this or any former law, the purchaser or his vendee shall be permitted to pay the entire balance of principal and interest due the State upon such land and obtain a patent therefor at any time; but no such payment shall be permitted or patent issued until such a purchaser or owner of such land shall file in the land office a certified plat of such town, made by a surveyor, which shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner of such land, corroborated by the affidavit of five disinterested and credible citizens of the county, to the effect that a town, giving its name, has been located and established upon the land, and that there has been erected therein and is being occupied by bona fide citizens, twenty business and resident houses, or either or both. [Acts 1895, p. 66; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 796.]

3. LEASES.

| Application and delivery..... | 5333 | Lessees may remove improve- ments | 5337 |
| Water supply: option..... | 5334 | | |

Art. 5331. Lease of unsold tracts.—Any unsold land may be leased at any time at not less than five cents per acre, payable in advance each year and for a term not to exceed five years, but all land so leased and unsold shall be subject to sale on each succeeding sale date. [Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5332. [5451] To advertise lands.—All leases under the provisions of this chapter may be advertised by the Commissioner in such manner as he deems best, and let to the highest responsible bidder in such quantities and under such regulations as he deems to the best interest of the State, not inconsistent with the equities of the occupant. Any bid or offer to lease may be rejected by him prior to signing the lease contract, for fraud or collusion, or other good and sufficient cause.

Art. 5333. [5452] Application and delivery.—One desiring to lease said lands shall make written application to the Commissioner specifying and describing the particular lands he desires to lease; and thereupon the Commissioner shall notify the applicant in writing who offers the highest price, that his proposition to lease is accepted; and shall execute to the lessee in the name and by authority of the State of Texas a lease on such lands. When the lessee has paid the rent for one year in advance, the Commissioner shall deliver said lease to the clerk of the county in which the land is situated, who shall record in a well-bound book kept in his office, a memorandum or abstract of said lease, showing the number of the survey or surveys leased, the name of the original grantee, the amount leased, the name of the lessee, the date of the lease and the number of years it has to run, and no other record of leases shall be required. The clerk shall be entitled to twenty-five cents for entering said memorandum. Upon payment of said fee, the clerk shall deliver the lease to the lessee. When any such lease is filed for record the clerk shall make the memorandum or abstract above provided for. [Acts 1901, p. 292.]

Art. 5334. [5455] Water supply: option.—Any person desiring to lease any lands on which no permanent water supply exists, shall notify the Commissioner in writing that he desires to lease lands, specifying and describing them, provided he can obtain the necessary supply of water by boring or otherwise, and that he will within ninety days lease said lands, provided such water supply can be obtained; he shall also make and file with the Commissioner his bond, with good and sufficient personal security, to be approved by the Commissioner, in a sum equal to one year's rental of the quantity of land applied for, payable to the State, conditioned that he will diligently and in good faith try to secure water on such land during such ninety days, and if secured will lease the designated lands for the term prescribed herein; and thereupon the Commissioner shall, for such ninety days, withhold such lands from lease to any other person. Within or at the expiration of the said ninety days, and annually thereafter, such applicant shall pay to the State in advance, one year's rental of the land applied for by him; on satisfactory proof of which payment the Commissioner shall execute and deliver to the lessee a lease of the said lands, signed by himself officially, and attested by the seal of the Land Office, together with which he shall deliver up the bond of said lessee, marked, "Satisfied." If said lessee fails to apply for his lease and make the payment aforesaid within said ninety days, and shall also within said ninety days fail to prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioner within that time that he has in good faith diligently used proper means and made proper efforts to secure a water supply on such land and failed, then the Commissioner shall mark said bond, "Forfeited", and shall deliver the same to the Attorney General, who shall at once cause said bond to be sued upon and collected, and paid to the available school fund. The penalty stated in such bond is hereby declared to be liquidated damages, and judgment for that sum shall in all cases be recovered by the State. Proof satisfactory to the Commissioner that proper, suitable and diligent effort has been made by such applicant to secure water, and that sufficient water could not be secured, shall relieve the principal and sureties on said bond from all responsibilities therein, and it shall be marked, "Satisfied", by said Commissioner and delivered to the principal therein. No lease of less than four sections of unwatered pasture lands shall be made, unless such less number includes all unleased land in that vicinity belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter. Lessees or their vendees who shall have at their own expense secured water on their leaseholds in accordance with the provisions of this article, shall at the expiration of their lease contract, have a right to a renewal of their leases for another term of five years at the price then provided by law, by giving sixty days written notice to the Commissioner. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 793.]

Art. 5335. [5454] Expired leases.—When a lease expires, or is canceled for any cause within ninety days from any sale date, the Commissioner shall not consider an application to lease the land within said time. An original lessee, or the assignee of an entire leasehold, who was such at the date of the termination thereof, shall have a preference to another lease of the land at the expiration of the ninety days over another applicant to lease, provided he will pay as much therefor as another, after due publicity. [Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5336. [5456] Forfeiture: lien.—If any lessee fails to pay the annual rent due for any year within sixty days after such rent becomes due, the Commissioner shall cancel said lease by a writing under his hand and seal of office, and filing it with the other papers relating to such lease, when such lease shall immediately terminate. During the continuance of all leases, and after forfeiture, the State shall have a lien upon all property owned by the lessee upon the leased premises to secure the payments of all rents due, which lien shall be superior to all other liens whatsoever. A reservation of such lien in said lease shall not be essential to the preservation or validity thereof. [Acts 1901, p. 29.]

Art. 5337. [5457] Lessees may remove improvements.—All improvements made by lessees on lands leased by them are hereby declared to be personal property, which may be removed by such lessees on the expiration of their lease contracts; and they shall have sixty days after such expiration in which to remove the same. [Id.]

Art. 5338. Permit.—Subject to the terms hereof, permits for the development of oil and gas may be issued to any person, firm or corporation upon the following lands: All surveyed public school, University, asylum land and other public lands, fresh water lakes, river beds and channels, belonging to the State and all of said lands, except public school and asylum lands sold or disposed of by the State or by its authority with a reservation of minerals or mineral rights therein, and lands purchased with a relinquishment of the minerals therein. [Acts 1917, p. 158; Acts 2d C. S. 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5339. Application for surveyed lands.—One desiring to obtain the right to prospect for and develop oil and natural gas that may be in any surveyed area included herein shall file with the county clerk a written application designating it sufficiently to identify it. Such clerk shall, upon receipt of one dollar as a filing fee, file and record the application and note the same on his record of surveys opposite the entry of the proper survey, giving the time of filing. When one has obtained four sections, or the equivalent, eligible to be embraced in one permit, such applicant shall not obtain any more land within two miles thereof, but if one obtains less than four sections eligible to be embraced in one permit, such one may obtain such additional area within two miles of the other area as will equal four sections. One shall not obtain more than one thousand acres within one mile of a well producing petroleum. [Acts 1917, p. 158.]

Art. 5340. Unserved lands: application.—One desiring to obtain the right to prospect for and develop oil and natural gas in any unserved areas named in this law shall file with the county surveyor a written application for each area applied for, designating it sufficiently to identify it, but such areas shall not exceed 2,560 acres. Upon receipt of one dollar filing fee the surveyor shall file and record the application. [Id.]

Art. 5341. Issuance of permit.—When the Commissioner receives an application that was filed with the county clerk or with the surveyor and the field notes and plat, one dollar filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre applied for, which shall also be paid annually thereafter during the life of the permit, and an affidavit by the applicant showing what interest he has in any other permit, lease or patent issued under this law and in good standing, he shall file the same, and if upon examination the application and field notes are found correct and the area applied for is within the provisions of this law, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant or his assignee a permit conferring upon him an exclusive right to prospect for and develop petroleum and natural gas within the designated area for a term not to exceed two years. [Id.]

Art. 5341a. Extension of permits.—All permits to prospect for oil and gas heretofore issued on river beds or channels, fresh water lakes and islands therein which have not expired and on which as much as twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) has been spent in prospecting for oil and gas and on which actual work is now being done, are hereby extended for a period of ten years from date the permit was issued, upon condition that the owner will pay annually in advance the acreage rental due thereon under the law as provided in the permit. This Act shall not be construed to relieve the owner of such permits from the obligations to drill such offset wells as are required by the law under which the permit was issued. [Acts 1925, p. 349.]

Art. 5341b. Extension of oil leases.—All oil and gas permits heretofore or hereafter issued upon lands included herein and which have not expired shall be extended for a term of five years from date thereof, conditioned only upon the payment of the annual rental, as provided by law, in advance and whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual rental money. After production is secured in paying quantities, the owner shall be entitled to a lease which shall run so long as the area covered by his lease produces oil or gas in paying quantities, subject to the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 351.]

Art. 5342. Development work.—Before the expiration of twelve months after the date of the permit the owner thereof shall in good faith begin actual work necessary to the physical development of said area. If petroleum and natural gas is not sooner developed in commercial quantities the owner or manager shall within thirty days after the expiration of one year from the date of the permit, file in the Land Office an affidavit supported by two disinterested credible persons that such actual work was begun within the first twelve months aforesaid, and that a bona fide effort to develop the said area was made during the twelve months preceding the filing of the statement, and showing what work was done and expenditures incurred and whether or not petroleum or natural gas had been discovered in commercial quantities. A failure to file said affidavit within the time specified, or the filing of an affidavit false in material matters shall subject the permit to forfeiture. The owner of a permit shall not take, carry away or sell any petroleum or natural gas before obtaining a lease therefor; provided such quantity as may be necessary for the continued development of the area before obtaining a lease may be used without accounting therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5342a. Permits extended.—All oil and gas permits issued on other than public school or university land, by the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas under date of February 3, 1920, and heretofore extended for three years by act of the Legislature, are hereby renewed and extended for an additional period of two years; provided however, that this Act shall apply only to those permits on which all rentals have been paid and under which, as extended, a well has been drilled to a depth of 3000 or more feet, and on which drilling operations for oil and gas are being actively conducted in good faith. Rights hereunder shall be conditioned on regular payment of annual rentals covering the two year extension period, and also on owner making report to the Commissioner of the General Land Office within sixty days after this Act becomes effective, showing drilling operations and depth of well. [Id.]

Art. 5343. University permits.—The provisions of subdivision 3 of this Chapter, so far as they relate to a combination of permits and extension of time for beginning development and time for development thereunder, shall apply to permits upon University land.

SECTION 1. That all university land now unsold and all of said land that has heretofore been sold with reservation of the minerals therein and that which may hereafter be sold with reservation of the minerals therein, whether known or unknown, shall be included in this Act, and leases thereon conferring upon persons, firms and corporations the right to develop the oil and natural gas that may be in said land shall be subject to sale by the Commissioner of the General Land Office in accordance with the provisions of this Act and under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by said commissioner as may be necessary to the proper execution of its purposes; provided, oil and gas permits and leases outstanding, shall not be affected by this Act except as provided in Section 14 hereof.

SEC. 2. Sales of oil and gas leases on the lands included herein shall be made by the Commissioner of the General Land Office not less than once each month, when there is land in demand, and at 10 o'clock A. M. on the day fixed therefor. Sales of leases shall be for ten cents per acre in advance for the first year and twenty-five cents per acre in advance for the second year and fifty cents per acre in advance each year thereafter until production is secured in paying quantities, but not to exceed five years, and a royalty of one-eighth of the gross production of the oil, or the value thereof, produced and saved from the leased premises delivered into such pipe line as the lessee may connect his well, or wells, and one-eighth of the gross production of gas, or the value thereof, produced and sold off of the leased premises, and in addition thereto such sum, of any, that one may pay therefor as provided herein.

SEC. 3. The commissioner shall advertise the land and the time when the mineral lease will be subject to sale, except as elsewhere provided in the event of tie bids. If there should be no other sufficient means for giving the necessary publicity as to what tracts will be subject to lease and the time when applications may be delivered to the General Land office, the commissioner shall have lists of such tracts printed for free distribution at the expense of the State, which expense shall be paid out of the appropriation for public printing. Such lists shall contain a brief designation of the tracts subject to lease and the terms upon which they may be leased and the time when applications therefor will be opened and filed in the General Land Office.

SEC. 4. Separate applications for each tract, with one dollar for county clerk recording fee, and the first payment of ten cents per acre and the sum offered in addition thereto, if any, for any tract shall be delivered into the General Land Office on or before the day and hour on which the lease will be subject to sale, in sealed envelopes on which shall be endorsed in substance "Application to buy oil and gas," and in addition thereto the time the lease will be subject to sale. All envelopes so endorsed shall be securely kept by the commissioner or his chief clerk unopened until the date on which applications are to be opened and at said hour either or both of them shall begin to open the envelopes in the presence of such persons as may desire to be present. All applications received up to the opening hour, whether open or sealed, endorsed or not endorsed, shall be considered as properly delivered into the General Land office. An application which includes two or more tracts or is for a price less than the fixed royalty and ten cents per acre shall be void. When an application shall have been filed and considered and the land found to be subject to lease, the lease shall be issued for a term not to exceed five years to the applicant that pays the most, if any sum, for the area in addition to the ten cents per acre and the stipulated royalty. If production should not be secured in five years the lease shall terminate and another lease on the land again be subject to sale as in the first instance. A duplicate of the lease shall be kept on file in the General Land Office. All leases shall be forwarded by the commissioner, with one dollar recording fee, to the proper county clerk, who shall record same and deliver the lease to the lessor or his agent. If two or more persons should offer the same price for the same area and the same should be the highest price offered, all shall be rejected and a date fixed within the discretion of the commissioner, but not more than fifteen days after rejection, when a lease on the land will be subject to sale as in the first instance; provided no lease shall be sold for a sum less than the tie bid without the tract having been duly advertised and offered for sale on a regular sale date. All sums paid upon rejected applications shall be returned by the State Treasurer.

SEC. 5. Whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual rental. After production is secured in paying quantities, the owner shall be entitled to an absolute lease which shall run so long as the area produces in paying quantities, subject only to the provisions of this Act. Whenever a lease ceases to produce in paying quantities, or the owner fails to pay to the State the royalty due, it shall be subject to forfeiture by the commissioner, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorize a forfeiture he shall forfeit it, and the area shall be again offered for sale as in the first instance.

SEC. 6. Royalty of one-eighth of the gross production, as herein provided, shall be paid to the General Land Office for the benefit of the University permanent fund on or before the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the lease, and it shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the owner, manager or other authorized agent showing the gross amount of oil produced and saved since the last report and the amount of gas produced and sold off the premises, and the market value of the oil and gas together with a copy of all daily gauges of tanks, gas meter readings, if any, pipe line receipts, gas line receipts and other checks or memoranda of amount produced and put into pipe lines, tanks or pools and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, the receipts and discharges of all lines, tanks, pools and meters, and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale and marketing of the oil and gas shall at all time be subject to inspection and examination by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Attorney General, the Governor or member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, or the representative of either.

SEC. 7. Royalty and all other sums shall be due and payable to the State at Austin, Texas, and shall be paid to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and he shall transmit all remittances in the form received to the State Treasurer, who shall credit the permanent University fund with all amounts received from royalty. All payments shall be in the form of cash, bank draft on some State or National bank in Texas, or post office or express money order, or such other forms as may be collectible in Austin.

SEC. 8. The State shall have a first lien upon all oil and gas produced upon any leased area to secure the payment of all unpaid royalty and other sum or sums of money that may be due and become due under the provisions of this Act and may follow the same and the value thereof into the hands of any purchaser.

SEC. 9. If oil or gas should be produced in commercial quantities in a well on an adjoining area whether privately owned, or covered by separate lease, which well should be within five hundred feet of an area leased under this Act, the owner of the lease on such University area shall, within sixty days after the initial production on such privately owned area, begin in good faith and prosecute diligently the actual drilling of an offset well or wells on the area so leased from the State and such offset well or wells shall be drilled to such depth and under such conditions as may be necessary to prevent the undue drainage of oil and gas beneath such University area. A log of such well, whether producer or non-producer, shall be filed in the General Land Office within thirty days after the well has been completed or abandoned.

SEC. 10. One may transfer his lease at any time or a part thereof in any size tract not less than forty acres, and such transfer shall be recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and the recorded transfer or certified copy of same shall be filed in the General Land Office, accompanied by one dollar as filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre in the transfer, and thereby the assignee shall have his portion separated from the other part and succeed to all the rights and be subject to all the obligations and penalties of the original lessee. The ten cents per acre as a transfer fee shall be deposited into the State Treasury to the credit of the available University fund, and the lease rental and the bonus paid by a purchaser shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the University permanent fund.

SEC. 11. An owner may relinquish his lease to the State at any time by having the relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and the recorded relinquishment or certified copy of same shall be filed in the General Land Office, accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the owner of such lease shall be relieved of any further obligations to the State, but such relinquishment shall not have the effect to release the owner from any obligations or liabilities theretofore accrued in favor of the State. The area so relinquished shall be subject to lease as in the first instance.

SEC. 12. If the owner of a lease should fail or refuse to make the payment of any sum due thereon either as rental or royalty on the production within thirty days after same shall become due, or if such owner or his authorized agent should make any false return, or false report concerning production, royalty or drilling, or if such owner should fail or refuse to drill any offset well or wells in good faith as required by this Act, or if such owner or his agent should refuse the proper authority access to the records or other data pertaining to the operations under this Act, or if such owner or his authorized agent should fail or refuse to give correct information to the proper authority, or fail or refuse to furnish the log of any well as provided herein, such lease shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorized a forfeiture, the commissioner shall forfeit same, and the area shall be subject to lease again after due advertisement; provided, such forfeiture may be set aside and the lease and all rights thereunder reinstated before the rights of another intervene, upon satisfactory evidence of future compliance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations authorized to be adopted for the purpose of executing its provisions.

SEC. 13. Whenever it may be necessary for the owner of a lease to enter the enclosed land of another for the purpose of ingress and egress to and from the area so leased from the State, and such lessee and owner of enclosure or agent of the owner cannot agree upon the terms or place of entry, the lessee or his agent may petition the commissioners' court of the county or counties in which such enclosure may be situated, in whole or in part, for the opening of such way of ingress and egress aforesaid as may be necessary. Upon the filing of such petition it shall be the duty of said court or courts to proceed to lay out and establish in the manner provided for the laying out of third class public roads, such road or roads as may be necessary for the purposes named herein.

SEC. 14. All oil and gas permits heretofore issued upon lands included herein and now in force shall be extended for a term of five years from date thereof, and whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual money rental. After production is secured in paying quantities the owner shall be entitled to a lease which shall run so long as the area covered by his lease produces oil or gas in paying quantities, subject to the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 225.]

Art. 5344. Oil leases.—Upon the payment of $2.00 (two dollars) per acre for each acre in the permit a lease shall be issued for a term of ten (10) years, or less, as may be desired by the applicant, and with the option of a renewal or renewals for an equal or shorter period, and immediately after the expiration of the first year after the date of the lease, the sum of ($2.00) dollars per acre shall be paid during the life of the lease, and in addition thereto, the owner of the lease shall pay a sum of money equal to a royalty of one-eighth of the value of the gross production of petroleum. The owner of a gas well shall pay a royalty of one-tenth of the value of the metre output of all gas disposed of off the premises; provided, however, that the provisions hereof as to the payment of two ($2.00) dollars per acre during the lease period and the life of said lease shall not apply to leases of bays, marshes, reefs, salt-water lakes or other submerged lands containing as much as one hundred (100) acres but not in excess of five hundred (500) acres upon which as many as five wells have been drilled, and upon which an expenditure of as much as one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars has been made. The drilling of said wells and the expenditure of said amount to be established to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the land office. [Acts 1925, p. 348.]

Art. 5344a. Terms of lease.—A lease shall then be issued for a term of ten years or less, with the option of a renewal or renewals for an equal or shorter period, and the owner of the lease shall pay a royalty of one-eighth of the value of the gross production of petroleum. The owner of a gas well shall pay a royalty of one-tenth of the value of the meter output of all gas disposed of off the premises. [Id.]

Art. 5344b. Offset wells.—The permit or lease shall contain the terms upon which it is issued including the authority of the Commissioner to require the drilling of wells necessary to offset wells drilled upon adjacent private land, and such other matters as the Commissioner may deem important to the rights of the applicant or the State.

Art. 5345. Damages to surface.—If the surface of an area included within the operations of this law, has been acquired by one prior to the filing of an application under the provisions herein, such area shall nevertheless be subject to prospect and lease as provided herein, but the owner of the permit or lease shall pay ten cents per acre to the owner of the surface annually in advance during the life of the permit or lease. The sum so paid and accepted by the surface owner shall be full compensation for all damages to the surface. [Acts 1917, p. 158; Acts 2 C. S., 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5346. Statement of holdings.—Whoever applies for a permit or lease shall file with the application an affidavit showing what interest the applicant has in any other permit or lease issued by the State and in good standing at the date of the statement. [Id.]

Art. 5347. Distribution of funds.—The proceeds arising from activities under this law, and chapter five hereof, which affect lands belonging to, the public free school fund and the permanent fund of the several asylums, shall be credited to the permanent funds of said institution. All proceeds paid or collected from activities under this law affecting the lands belonging to the permanent fund of the University of Texas, except the royalties provided hereunder, shall be credited by the State Treasurer to the available fund of such institution, provided that all such funds shall be held by the Board of Regents of the University in a special building fund and shall be expended only for the erection of buildings or for other permanent improvements. All royalties collected under the terms of this law from lands belonging to said University shall be credited to its permanent fund. All proceeds arising from the activities affecting lands other than those belonging to the public free school fund, the University and the several asylums, shall be credited to the game fund. [Id.; Acts 3 C. S. 1920, p. 120.]

Art. 5348. General provisions.—The general provisions in this article shall apply to each foregoing provision so far as applicable.

Surveyed lands within the meaning of this law shall include all tracts for which there are approved field notes on file in the Land Office and eighty acre tracts and multiples thereof of such surveys.

Unsurveyed areas within the meaning of this law shall include all areas for which there are no approved field notes on file in the General Land Office.

All applications for surveyed land shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which the tract or a portion thereof is situated, or with the clerk of the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, and shall be filed in the Land Office within thirty days after it was filed with the county clerk.

All applications for unsurveyed areas shall be filed with the county surveyor of the county in which the area or part thereof is situated. The area shall be surveyed within ninety days, and the application, field notes and plat shall be filed in the Land Office within one hundred days after the date of filing of the application.

A separate written application shall be made for the area desired in a permit. No permit or lease shall embrace the area in two or more applications.

No application, permit or lease shall embrace a divided area.

Whole tracts of surveyed lands may be applied for as a whole or in eighty acre tracts or multiples thereof without furnishing field notes therefor.

The area in each permit shall be developed independently of other areas.

When one desires a lease, any one or more whole tracts in the permit may be abandoned by relinquishment filed in the Land Office as herein provided and thereupon obtain a lease upon the remaining area; provided such remaining area is in a solid body.

An owner may relinquish a permit or lease at any time by having the deed of relinquishment acknowledged, recorded by the proper county clerk and filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar filing fee. The Commissioner shall mail notice to the proper county clerk of the filing of the relinquishment and when said notice has had time through the due course of mail to reach said clerk the area shall be subject to applications as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 5349. Transfer of rights.—The owner of a file or permit or lease under any provision of this subdivision may sell same and the rights secured thereby at any time, also fix a lien of any kind thereon to any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise, who may be qualified to receive a permit or lease in the first instance; provided, the instrument evidencing the sale or lien shall be recorded in the county where the area or part thereof is situated, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, and same shall be filed in the Land Office within sixty days after the date thereof accompanied with a filing fee of one dollar. If not so filed the contract evidenced by said instrument shall be void and the obligations therein assumed shall not be enforceable. A sublease contract need not be filed in the Land Office. [Acts 1917, p. 165.]

Art. 5349a. Transfer of not less than forty acres.—Owners of oil and gas permits and leases that have heretofore been issued and those that may hereafter be issued on University land may sell and transfer same as a whole or in tracts not less than forty acres, and the assignee may have the instruments evidencing such transfer filed in the General Land Office and that portion so transferred separated from the parent tract or parent subdivision of a tract permit or lease on the records of said office upon the payment of one dollar as a filing fee for each transfer and an additional fee of ten cents per acre for each acre in such transfer. The Commissioner of the General Land Office may, when deemed necessary, require field notes before filing a transfer. All transfers shall be recorded in the county or counties in which the area or a part thereof is located before offering same for filing in the Land Office. The one dollar filing fee shall be turned into the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue and the acreage fee shall be turned into the State Treasury to the credit of the available fund of the State University. The provisions of this Act shall apply to permits and leases that may be held singly or in combination with other permits or leases. [Acts 1925, p. 23.]

Art. 5349b. May dissolve combination at wish of owner.—Owners of oil and gas permits, and leases based thereon, that were heretofore issued and those that may hereafter be issued that have been combined under the provisions of existing law and those that may hereafter be so combined, may dissolve such combinations in such manner as may be satisfactory to the owners thereof, and conditioned only upon the payment of the fees prescribed herein when transfers are presented for filing in the General Land Office after having been recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof may be located; provided no acreage fee shall be charged under this Act; when a transfer includes a whole permit or a whole lease or a whole tract in a permit or lease. [Id.]

SEC. 3. When the transfers provided for herein shall have been filed in the General Land Office the assignee or assignees in such transfer shall become substituted for the original permittee or lessee, as the case may be, and thereby assume all the obligations, pains and penalties that the law imposed upon the original permittee or lessee. [Acts 1925, p. 23.]

Art. 5350. Forfeiture of rights.—If a permit or lease should be issued upon a statement by the applicant which is false or untrue in material matters, or should the owner of a permit fail or refuse to begin in good faith the work necessary to the development of the area within the time required, or to proceed in good faith and with reasonable diligence in a bona fide effort to develop an area included in his permit after having begun the development, or to apply for a lease within the prescribed time, or should the owner of a lease fail or refuse to make proper remittances in payment of royalty or other payments, or to make the proper statement, or to furnish the required evidence of the output and market value and material matters relating thereto when requested, or fail to make the annual payment on the area when requested so to do, the permit or lease, shall be subject to forfeiture. When the Commissioner is sufficiently informed of such facts he may declare the permit or lease forfeited by proper entry upon the duplicate thereof in his office; and he shall mail a notice of that fact to the proper county clerk and the area shall be subject to the application of another than the forfeiting owner when the notice has had time to reach the county clerk through due course of mail; provided, the Commissioner may exercise large discretion in the matter of requiring one to develop gas wells. All forfeitures may, within the discretion of the Commissioner, be set aside and all rights reinstated before the rights of another intervene. [Id.]

Art. 5351. Pollution of streams.—All development in water or on islands, or river beds and channels shall be done under such regulations as will prevent the pollution of the water and for the prevention of such pollution the Commissioner may call upon the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner for assistance in the adoption and enforcement of rules and regulations for the protection of the waters from such pollution. The Commissioner of the General Land Office may cancel a permit or lease for a failure or refusal of the owner to comply with such rules and regulations as may be adopted. [Id.]

Art. 5352. Properties taxable.—Rights acquired under this law shall be subject to taxation as is other property. [Id.]

Art. 5353. Lands subject to lease.—All islands, salt water lakes, bays, inlets, marshes and reefs owned by the State within tide water limits, and that portion of the Gulf of Mexico within the jurisdiction of Texas, and unsold unsurveyed public free school lands, shall be subject to lease by the Commissioner to any person, firm or corporation for the production of oil and natural gas that may be therein or thereunder, in accordance with the provisions of this law. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 112.]

Art. 5354. Notice for bids.—The Commissioner shall fix the day and hour when an area or areas will be subject to lease and advertise or readvertise such areas at least thirty days before such lease date, except as provided in case of tie bids. The Commissioner may give such notice by distributing printed lists as provided for sales of surface rights of public lands. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51.]

Art. 5355. Application for lease.—Application for separate areas and the first payment thereon shall be delivered into the Land Office on or before the day and hour on which the area will be subject to lease, in sealed envelopes indorsed, "Application to lease Minerals," with the date the area will be subject to lease. All envelopes so indorsed shall be securely kept by the Commissioner or his chief clerk unopened until the date on which applications are to be opened, and at said hour either or both of them shall open the envelopes in the presence of such persons as desire to be present. All applications received up to the opening hour, whether open or sealed, indorsed or not indorsed, shall be considered as properly delivered. An application which includes two or more areas, or is for a price less than the fixed royalty and price per acre shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 5356. Tie bids.—If the highest bid for the same area is made by more than one applicant, all such applications shall be rejected and a date fixed within the discretion of the Commissioner, not later than the fifteenth day of the following month, when the area will be subject to lease as in the first instance, but no bids therefor shall be considered if the price is less than the former sum offered. The State Treasurer shall return all sums paid upon rejected applications. [Id.]

Art. 5357. Acceptance of bid.—When an application has been filed and considered and the area found to be subject to lease, the lease shall be issued for a term not to exceed twenty-five years to the applicant that pays the most for the area in addition to the fixed price per acre and the stipulated royalty. If production should not be secured in ten years, the lease shall terminate and the area again be subject to lease. [Id.]

Art. 5358. Terms of lease.—The areas included herein shall be leased for one-eighth of the gross production of oil, or the value of same, that may be produced and saved, and one-eighth of the gross production of gas or the value of same, that may be produced and sold off of the area, and ten cents per acre in advance for the first year, and thereafter in advance an additional sum of twenty-five cents per acre for the second year, and fifty cents per acre for the third year, and one dollar per acre for each year thereafter. When production has been secured in commercial quantities and the payment of royalty begins and continues to be paid, the owner shall be exempt from further annual payments on the acreage. If production should cease and royalty not be paid, the owner of the lease shall, at the end of the lease year in which royalty ceased to be paid, and annually thereafter in advance, pay one dollar per acre so long as such owner may desire to maintain the rights acquired under the lease, not to exceed ten years from the date of said lease. [Id.]

Art. 5359. Offset wells.—If oil or gas should be produced in commercial quantities in a well on an area privately owned when such well is within one thousand feet of an area leased hereunder, the owner of the lease on such State area shall, within sixty days after the initial production on such privately owned area, begin in good faith and prosecute diligently the drilling of an offset well or wells on the area so leased from the State. Such offset wells shall be drilled to such depth and such means shall be used as may be necessary to prevent the undue drainage of oil or gas from beneath such State area. A log of each well shall be filed in the Land Office within thirty days after the well has been completed or abandoned. [Id.]

Art. 5360. Forfeiture of rights.—The provisions of subdivision 3 of this chapter governing the forfeiture of rights thereunder and a reinstatement thereof, shall apply to leases under this subdivision, and on forfeiture of such lease, after due advertisement, it shall be subject to lease by another than such forfeiting owner. [Id.]

Art. 5361. Access to lands.—Whenever it becomes necessary for the owner of a lease acquired hereunder to enter the inclosed land of another for the purpose of ingress and egress to and from the area so leased from the State, and such lessee and owner or his agent cannot agree upon the place of such entry, nor the conditions thereof, the lessee or his agent may petition the commissioners courts of the counties in which such inclosure is situated in whole or in part for the opening of such way of ingress and egress as may be necessary. Upon the filing of such petition, said courts shall lay out and establish in the manner provided for the laying out of third class public roads, such roads as may be necessary for the purpose named herein. [Id.]

Art. 5362. Assignments of leases.—One may transfer his lease at any time. Such transfer shall be recorded in the counties in which the area or part thereof is situated and within ninety days after the date of its execution the recorded transfer or certified copy of same shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the assignee shall succeed to all the rights and be subject to all the obligations and penalties of the original lessee. [Id.]

Art. 5363. Relinquishment of lease.—An owner may relinquish his lease to the State at any time by having the relinquishment recorded in the counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and within ninety days after the date of its execution the recorded relinquishment or certified copy of same shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the owner of such lease shall be relieved of any further obligations to the State, but such relinquishment shall not have the effect to release the owner from any obligations or liabilities theretofore accrued in favor of the State. [Id.]

Art. 5364. Disposition of payments.—The State Treasurer shall credit the permanent free school fund with all amounts received from the unsurveyed school lands, and with two-thirds of the amount so received from other areas, and shall credit the general revenue fund with the remaining one-third from said other areas. [Id.]

Art. 5365. Classification of surveys.—To administer this law to the best interest of the State, the Commissioner may recognize or decline to recognize any survey heretofore made of any area included herein. Recognized surveys shall be advertised and shall be subject to lease as a whole. Surveys not recognized shall be deemed, together with all adjacent unsurveyed areas, as one unsurveyed area, and the Commissioner shall advertise the whole or designated portions thereof for lease. The Commissioner may require field notes for unsurveyed areas before issuing a lease therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5366. Pollution of streams.—The development of wells and the development and operation upon the areas included herein shall be done so far as practicable in such manner as to prevent such pollution of the water as will destroy fish, oysters and other sea food. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall enforce such rules as the Commissioner of the General Land Office may prescribe for that purpose. [Id.]

The remaining undivided portion of said oil and gas and its value is hereby reserved for the use of and benefit of the public school fund and the several asylum funds. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 249; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 112.]

Art. 5368. Sale and lease by agent.—The owner of said land is hereby authorized to sell or lease to any person, firm or corporation the oil and gas that may be thereon or therein upon such terms and conditions as such owner may deem best, subject only to the provisions hereof, and he may have a second lien thereon to secure the payment of any sum due him. All leases and sales so made shall be assignable. No oil or gas rights shall be sold or leased hereunder for less than ten cents per acre per year plus royalty, and the lessee or purchaser shall in every case pay the State ten cents per acre per year of sales and rentals; and in case of production shall pay the State the undivided one-sixteenth of the value of the oil and gas reserved herein, and like amounts to the owner of the soil. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 249.]

Art. 5369. Offset wells.—If oil or gas should be discovered in paying quantities on land not included in this law, and within one thousand feet of land that is so included, the owner, lessee, sub-lessee, receiver or other agent in control of such land included herein, shall in good faith begin the drilling of an offset well or wells upon such land within one hundred days after the first discovery, and prosecute same with diligence to completion. Every offset well shall be drilled to the depth necessary for effective protection against undue drainage by other wells on other lands in that locality. [Id.]

Art. 5370. Failure to drill offset.—If such persons fail or refuse to begin drilling such offset wells within the time required, or to drill such offset well or wells diligently and in good faith, or to drill such wells to the depth necessary for the purpose intended, or to use the means necessary to the development of any well or wells thereon within the time required, or to drill such well drilled thereon, thereupon the relinquishment herein granted shall ipso facto terminate and the rights acquired thereunder shall likewise terminate, and the oil and gas relinquished herein shall revert to and become the property of the State's general revenue fund. When the Commissioner is sufficiently informed of the facts which so terminate such rights, he shall, on the wrapper containing the papers relating to the sale of the land, write and sign officially, words indicating such termination. [Id.]

Art. 5371. Sale of forfeited rights.—When the relinquishment granted herein and the rights acquired thereunder have been so terminated, the Commissioner shall take possession of the land and advertise the oil and gas therein for sale. All such sales shall be made at such times as the Commissioner may determine and in the manner provided for the sale of public free school land. The sale shall be made to the person, firm or corporation that will pay the highest price therefor in addition to one-eighth of the oil and gas produced or the value of the same, which shall be reserved to the public free school fund. The sum received in addition to the reserved one-eighth shall be divided equally between the General Revenue Fund and the owner of the soil, after deducting the expenses incident to the advertisement and sale. Purchasers at such sales shall begin the drilling of the necessary offset wells within sixty days after the acceptance of their offer, and the failure to do so and the failure to comply with the provisions of this law relating to the drilling of offset wells shall likewise operate as a termination of the rights acquired thereunder and the substances therein shall again be subject to sale. [Id.]

Art. 5372. Forfeiture of rights.—If any person, firm or corporation operating under this law shall fail or refuse to make the payment of any sum within thirty days after it becomes due, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly make any false return or false report concerning production or drilling, or if such one should fail or refuse the proper authority access to the records pertaining to the operations, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly fail or refuse to give correct information to the proper authority, or knowingly fail or refuse to furnish the Land Office a correct log of any well, the rights acquired under the permit or lease shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner, and he shall forfeit same when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorize a forfeiture, and the oil and gas shall be subject to sale in the manner provided for the sale of other forfeited rights hereunder, except that the owner of the soil shall not thereby forfeit his interest in the oil and gas. Such forfeiture may be set aside and all rights theretofore existing shall be reinstated at any time before the rights of another intervene, upon satisfactory evidence of future compliance with the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5373. Rights of subsequent purchaser.—If one acquires a valid right by permit or lease to the oil and gas in any unsold public free school or asylum land under any other law, a subsequent purchaser of such land shall not acquire any rights to any of the oil and gas that may be therein, but when the rights under such permit or lease terminate in the manner provided in the law under which they were obtained, then the owner of the soil shall become the owner of that portion of the oil and gas herein relinquished, and shall be thereafter subject to the provisions of this law. A forfeiture of the purchase of any survey or tract for any cause shall operate as a forfeiture of the minerals therein to the State. A relinquishment to the State of a lease producing oil or gas in paying quantities shall not operate to relinquish or convey to the owner of the soil any interest whatever in the oil and gas that may be in the land included in said lease. [Id.]

Art. 5374. May combine permits.—Any permits issued upon any land included in this law may upon such terms as the owners may agree, be assigned as a whole into one ownership or may be grouped or combined into one organization, and in one or more groups or combinations not to exceed sixteen sections of 640 acres each, more or less, in one group, for the purpose of developing oil and gas. All such assignments and agreements shall be recorded in the counties in which the land or part thereof is situated and shall be filed in the Land Office within sixty days after the execution of same, with a filing fee of one dollar. [Id.]

Art. 5375. Operation under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits shall have eighteen months from the date or average date thereof in which to begin drilling a well for oil and gas on some portion of the land included therein. The drilling on one permit shall be sufficient protection against forfeiture of all the permits included in a combination. Owners of permits or combination of permits included herein shall have three years after the date or average date thereof in which to complete the development of oil and gas thereon, and if oil and gas should not be found in paying quantities and a lease applied for within said time all rights in such permit or combination of permits shall terminate, and the oil and gas in such land shall become subject to the provisions of this law relating to the relinquishment of oil and gas to the owner of the soil. [Id.]

Art. 5376. Lease under permit.—If oil or gas should be produced in paying quantities upon any land included in this law, the owner of the permit shall report the development to the Commissioner within thirty days thereafter and apply for a lease upon such whole surveys or tracts in each permit as the owner or owners of a combination of permits may desire to be leased, and accompany the application with a log of the wells, and the correctness of the log shall be sworn to by the owner, manager or driller, and thereupon a lease shall be issued without the payment of any additional sum of money and for a period not to exceed ten years, subject to renewal or renewals. [Id.]

Art. 5377. Payments under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits who desires to avail himself of the terms of this law, shall pay the State ten cents per acre, annually in advance, for the second and third years, and shall likewise pay the owner of the soil ten cents per acre for the first year of such permit, before availing himself of the privileges hereof, and a like sum thereafter annually in advance. A failure to make either of said payments shall subject the permit or permits to forfeiture by the Commissioner, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which subject the permits to forfeiture, said Commissioner shall forfeit the same by an indorsement of forfeiture upon the wrapper containing the papers relating to the permits and sign it officially. The payment of ten cents per acre to the owner of the soil may be made to him or to the county clerk of the county in which the land is situated, and said clerk shall deposit such payment as he receives, in some bank at the county seat to the credit of the record owner of such land. If the owner of the soil refuses to accept such payment, said clerk shall withdraw such deposit and return it to the owner of the permit. The payment, or the tender of payment, shall be evidenced by the receipt of the owner or part owner or county clerk filed among the papers in the Land Office relating to such permits. [Id.]

Art. 5378. Relinquishment under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits may relinquish to the State a permit or combination of permits or any whole survey or whole tract included in a permit at any time before obtaining a lease therefor by having such relinquishment recorded in the counties in which the land or part thereof is situated, and by filing it in the Land Office within sixty days after its execution, with one dollar as a filing fee. [Id.]

Art. 5379. Damages to soil.—The payment of the ten cents per acre and the obligation to pay the owner of the soil one-sixteenth of the production and the payment of same when produced and the acceptance of same by the owner, shall be in lieu of all damages to the soil. [Id.]

| Payment of royalty..... | Article 5380 | } Lien | Article 5382 |
| Form of payments..... | 5381 | | |

Art. 5380. Payment of royalty.—All royalties shall be paid to the State on or before the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the lease, accompanied by the affidavit of the owner, manager or other authorized agent, showing the gross amount of oil produced and saved since the last report and the amount of gas produced and sold off the area, and the market value of the oil and gas, together with a copy of all daily gauges of tanks, gas meter readings, pipe line receipts, gas line receipts and other checks or memoranda of amount produced and put into pipe lines, tanks, or pools and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, receipts and discharges of all lines, tanks, pools and meters and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale and marketing of the oil and gas shall at any time be subject to inspection and examination by the Commissioner, the Attorney General, the Governor, or the representative of either. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51.]

Art. 5381. Form of payments.—All payments shall be in the form of cash, bank draft on some State or National bank in Texas, post-office or express money order, or such other form as the law may prescribe for making remittances to the State Treasury, and shall be due and payable to the Commissioner at Austin. [Id.]

Art. 5382. Lien.—The State shall have a first lien upon all oil and gas produced upon any lease area to secure the payment of all unpaid royalty and other sums that may become due hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 5383. Lands included.—Any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise that may desire to acquire the right to prospect for and mine coal or lignite in or under any of the following lands: all unsold public free school land, University land, asylum land or any such lands sold with a reservation of minerals therein, and either of said substances that may be in or upon said land that was purchased with the relinquishment of the minerals therein, and all lands of which the mineral rights therein have reverted to this State as the Sovereign Government, and either of said substances that may be in or upon any other public lands including islands and river beds and channels which belong to the State, may do so by complying with the following conditions:

1. Notice of location.—Date and post up a notice to the effect that the applicant has located a coal or lignite mine, stating the area desired, not to exceed 2560 acres or four sections of 640 acres each, more or less, and give the approximate courses and the approximate distances that the lines shall extend from the point at which the notice is posted.

2. Application for survey.—Within thirty days after the date of such posting, the applicant shall file an application for a survey of the claim with one dollar as a filing fee. The application shall state when the claim was first posted. If an applicant files on whole tracts or upon eighty acres or multiples thereof of surveyed land, the application shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the proper county with one dollar as a filing fee, and after being recorded by the clerk shall be filed in the Land Office without field notes within thirty days after being filed with the county clerk, with one dollar as a filing fee.

3. Boundary line.—The application and survey shall not differ so materially from the original posted notice as to defeat the rights of subsequent locators. Lines of previous surveys need not be regarded by an applicant unless he may desire to do so.

4. Application for permit.—Within ninety days from the filing of the application, the surveyor shall survey the area in substantial compliance with the posted notice, record the field notes and make a plat of the survey. The application, field notes and plat shall be filed in the Land Office within one hundred days after the application was filed with the surveyor, accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre included within the area embraced in the field notes or in the application if no field notes are required, and accompanied by a sworn statement by the applicant showing what interest he has in any other permit, lease or patent issued under this law and in good standing. [Acts 1917, p. 161.]

Art. 5384. Permit and lease.—When the foregoing conditions have been complied with and the application, field notes and plat have been approved by the Commissioner, he shall issue to the applicant or his assignee a separate permit for each area applied for, conferring upon him an exclusive right to prospect for, develop and put out coal and lignite therein upon the following conditions:

1. The permit shall be void after five years from the date of issue.

2. Development work shall commence within the first year and continue until the discovery of such minerals in paying quantities.

3. Within thirty days after the expiration of each year, except the fifth, the owner or manager shall file in the land office a sworn statement supported by the affidavit of two disinterested credible persons, showing a performance in good faith of the development work required in this article, and expenditures thereunder. If the Commissioner is satisfied that such statement is true, the owner shall have the right to prospect the area for another year.

4. During the life of the permit, and within thirty days after the discovery of such minerals in paying quantities, the owner shall apply for a lease to develop and put out such minerals in the area included in the permit, or forfeit all rights under such permit.

5. Such lease may be granted for not to exceed ten years, with right of renewals for the same or less term.

6. Royalty of ten cents a ton on coal, and seven cents a ton on lignite shall be paid monthly on each ton mined under such permit or lease.

7. The owner shall annually pay ten cents per acre in advance for each acre covered by his permit or lease.

8. Each mine shall be kept in reasonably continuous operation, and shall be operated in conformity with rules and regulations prescribed by the State Mining Inspector and the laws relating to such mines.

9. On the termination of the rights under a permit, the area shall again be subject to the prospect and development by another than the forfeiting owner. [Id.]

Art. 5385. Patent.—At any time during the life of a permit but prior to accepting a lease upon any area, the owner of a permit may elect to pay one hundred dollars per acre for the area embraced in his permit and obtain a patent for all the minerals that may be in such area except petroleum and natural gas, in lieu of the payment of the royalty as provided in this law; provided, however, one shall pay the prescribed royalty on all coal or lignite put out and disposed of while developing the area prior to obtaining a patent. [Id.]

Art. 5386. Surface rights.—An owner of any claim may fell and remove for building or mining purposes any timber upon any of the unsold areas included within this law, and shall also have the right to occupy within the limits of his application, permit or lease, so much of the surface thereof as may be necessary for the development of the minerals and substances therein, and shall have the right of ingress to and egress from the area embraced in the file, permit, lease or patent. Ten cents per acre per year in advance shall be paid to the owner of the surface and when accepted by the owner, it shall be deemed full compensation for such damages as may be occasioned to the surface through the occupancy and operation by the owner of the permit, lease or patent. [Id.]

Art. 5387. Laws applicable.—In so far as applicable, the provisions of Subdivision 1 of Chapter 4 governing the sale or transfer of a permit or lease, the forfeiture of rights thereunder for a violation of the conditions of said law, the relinquishment of whole tracts under a permit, and the subjection of rights thereunder to taxation, shall all apply to those operating hereunder.

Art. 5388. Lands and minerals included.—All valuable mineral bearing deposits, placers, veins, lodes and rock carrying metallic or non-metallic substances of value except oil, natural gas, coal and lignite, that may be in any lands included in this chapter shall be subject to development, sale and patenting as provided in this subdivision. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5389. Extent of claim.—A mining claim upon mineral lands hereunder may equal, but shall not exceed fifteen hundred feet in length and six hundred feet in width. Such claims may be of unlimited depth, but shall be bounded by four vertical planes from the side and end lines. All claims shall be in the form of a parallelogram unless such form is prevented by adjoining rights. The locator shall be entitled to the use of all superficial area bounded by the enclosed lines of the claim, and to all minerals therein, upon the terms of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5390. Boundary marks.—The locator of any mining claim shall conspicuously post up at the center of one of the end lines of the claim a written notice giving his name and that of the claim, and date of posting, and shall describe the claim by giving the number of feet in length, width and approximate directions the claim lies, in length from the notice, with the section number, if known, and the county; and shall place temporary posts, or stone markers at the four approximate corners of the claim at the time of making the location. The temporary monuments shall be replaced by permanent monuments at the four corners as given by the county surveyor within one hundred days after the issuance of an award to said claim. The permanent monuments shall be of four inch timber posts or their equivalent of stone or concrete, and shall be not less than three feet high. In all conflicts, priority of location shall decide.

Art. 5391. Application for survey.—Within thirty days after posting the required notice the locator shall file with the county surveyor of the county in which the land or part thereof is situated, a written application for the survey of the claim. Such application shall be accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee, and the application shall be recorded by the surveyor. The application shall give the name of the claim and the locator and such description of the boundary and location as will enable the surveyor to identify the area of the land. [Id.]

Art. 5392. Requisites of survey.—In making the survey, the surveyor shall locate and mark the corners of the claim on the ground as described in the location notice, and he shall determine the direction and distance to a corner of a section on which the claim is located, as well as the direction and distance to some prominent and permanent land mark other than a section corner, which may serve as a mineral monument or marker, and in case of any conflict this direction and distance to said prominent and permanent land mark shall have priority over all other distances and directions in serving to locate the mining claim. The directions and distances herein required shall be incorporated in and made a part of the record of the field notes and plat of the survey. The surveyor shall not charge more than ten dollars per day for his services hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 5393. Issue of award.—Within one hundred days after the application for survey has been filed with the surveyor, the application and field notes of the area applied for shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by the filing fee of one dollar. When the application has been considered and all things have been done in compliance with the law, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant an award for the area. Nothing in this article shall interfere with the right of the locator to proceed with the development and operation of the property after the posting of the location, if such operation does not conflict with the mineral rights of a prior locator or owner. [Id.]

Art. 5394. Development of claim.—After the date of an award the owner shall have the exclusive right to the possession and use of the minerals within the area of the claim so long as he continues to do or causes to be done the annual assessment work for each claim consisting of excavation in the form of a shaft or tunnel or an open cut to the extent of ten feet in depth or length and at least four feet by five feet for the other dimensions. If an award is issued prior to the first day of October of any year the first annual assessment work shall be done before the end of that calendar year, and during the month of January following such owner shall file in the Land Office his affidavit that such work has been done and shall state the extent thereof. Such owner shall during each succeeding calendar year beginning January first next after the date of such award, perform the required annual assessment work and file an affidavit thereof as in the first instance. All the assessment work for a contiguous group of claims may be done on one claim. [Id.]

Art. 5395. Rental and royalty.—The owner of each claim shall pay fifty cents per acre annually in advance after the award and during the month of each succeeding January thereafter; and pay two per cent royalty upon the production of such claim as shown by the net smelter, mill, mint, or refinery returns, or of sums arising from the sale of the ore or products from the claim and received by the owner. Royalty payments arising from the sale of ores, mineral or other products shall be due quarterly in January, April, July and October for the quarters preceding. [Id.]

Art. 5396. Joint claimants.—Any mining claim may be filed upon by one or more persons separately or jointly, and if any one or more of them shall fail to perform his part of the conditions imposed by this law, their right, interest, title and claim shall ipso facto cease, and the same shall revert to the State. The co-owners performing their proportional part of the conditions shall have the prior right within ninety days after such forfeiture to make the delinquent payments and do the work so defaulted, and thereupon they shall have thirty days after the expiration of said ninety days within which to make affidavit to the Commissioner to the effect that all of said conditions have been performed within said time in the same manner as if no location had been made by said defaulting co-owner. [Id.]

Art. 5397. Forfeiture of rights.—Failure of the locator or owner of any claim to comply with any provision of this law prior to receiving patent thereto, shall constitute an ipso facto forfeiture of all his rights in the claim, and the claim shall be open to location by others as prescribed in this law, the same as if no location had ever been made. Any claim which has been forfeited by any locator or owner shall not be relocated either in whole or in part by such forfeiting locator or owner within a period of six months from the time of such forfeiture. [Id.]

Art. 5398. Patent.—At any time after five years from the date of the award, the owner may pay the balance due on the purchase price of the claim and obtain a patent thereto, and after the issuance of the patent no further assessment work shall be required, but the royalty shall be perpetual. The purchase price shall be ten dollars per acre, and the annual payments of fifty cents per acre shall be applied thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5399. Prison and juvenile lands.—All State lands belonging to or under the jurisdiction and control of the Prison Commission or the Board of Control for the State Juvenile Training School, and all other farms belonging to the State and administered by other boards, shall become subject to the provisions of this law; but with the express reservation that in sales of the mineral rights in or under such farms, the annual payments and the royalties shall be made so long as the purchasers of said rights desire to operate their respective claims; and in no event shall a patent issue upon any claim filed upon any such farms belonging to the State, and all rights of the claimant to any land or filings hereunder shall terminate upon permanent cessation by such claimant of operation under such claim. [Id.]

Art. 5400. Surface rights.—The locator or owner of a mining claim shall have the right to occupy within the limits of his claim so much of the surface ground as is strictly necessary for the use and exploration of the mineral deposits and for the building and works necessary for mining operations and for the treating and smelting of the ore produced on such claims and to occupy within and without the limits of his claim the necessary land for right of way, for ingress and egress to and from his claim for roadways and railways. If the locator or owner cannot agree with the owner or lessee of the surface right in regard to the acquiring of same and in regard to the compensation for the injury incident to the opening and the working of such mine and the access thereto, he may apply to the county judge of the county in which such mining claim is located by filing a written petition so setting forth with a sufficient description the property and surface right sought to be taken and the purpose for which the same is to be taken. Such judge shall then appoint three disinterested freeholders to examine, pass upon and determine the damages and compensation to be paid to the owner of such surface right or other property necessary to be taken, and all proceedings thereunder shall be had in accordance with the law regulating the exercise of the right of eminent domain. Nothing herein shall give the prospector or locator any grazing right, or rights to any surface or well water in use for livestock, or to any timber rights either on or off the claim, to the detriment of the surface owner or lessee. [Id.]

Art. 5401. Payments.—All royalties and other payments under this chapter shall be paid to the State through the Commissioner at Austin. All royalty payments shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner or manager showing the number of tons mined, to whom sold, and the selling price, as shown by copies of smelter, mint, mill, refinery or other returns or documents attached to such statement. All books, accounts, weights, wage contracts, correspondence, and other papers in any way pertaining to any mine being operated hereunder shall be open to the inspection of the Commissioner, or his representative and any representative of the State appointed by the Governor or Attorney General.

Art. 5402. Sale of surface rights.—The issuance of an award, permit or lease on unsold land hereunder shall not prevent the sale of such land without minerals under the laws applicable to such land. In case of such sale after an application has been filed with the Commissioner, the purchaser of such land shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of such minerals or mining location nor other compensation, nor shall such purchaser have any action for damages done to such land by or resulting from the proper working of or operation under such award or prospector's location.

Art. 5403. Discovery: right of locator.—If any mineral or substance included in this chapter, other than those included in the permit or lease under which one is operating, be discovered while the area is being worked under such permit or lease, the owner thereof shall have a preference right for sixty days after such discovery in which to file on the area allowed one for such minerals or other substances by complying with the provisions of this law relating to the mineral or substances discovered.

Art. 5404 [5361] [4175] Requisites of patent.—Every patent for land emanating from the State shall be issued in the name and by authority of the State, under the seal of the State and of the land office, signed by the Governor and countersigned by the Commissioner; and before the delivery thereof to the party entitled thereto, it shall be registered in the land office patent book. [Acts 1846, p. 234; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1540.]

Art. 5405. [5363] [4177] Doubtful claim.—Should it appear to the Commissioner from the records of his office or from information on oath given him that there is some illegality in the claim, he shall, if he deems it necessary, refer the matter to the Attorney General, whose written decision shall be sufficient authority for him to issue or withhold the patent.

Art. 5406. [5448] Church and schoolhouse sites.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized to patent in quantities of not less than one nor more than five acres any of the vacant and unappropriated public domain of Texas, or any public school or asylum lands, as sites for cemeteries, churches or schoolhouses. When the land is desired as a location for a schoolhouse, the patent shall issue to the county judge of the proper county and his successors in office in trust for that purpose; and when desired for a church house or a cemetery, it shall be issued to trustees designated by those requesting the patent. If the land has been previously sold by the State and not patented, the owner thereof shall execute a deed therefor to the county judge, or trustees, as the case may be, and cause the same to be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the proper county, and be filed in the Land Office, and shall be entitled to credit on his account with the State for the value thereof. Such land shall be taken from the margin of a tract or section, or of a subdivision thereof, as the case may be. [Acts 1895, p. 68; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 798.]

Art. 5407. [5365] [4179] Patents on surveys in two counties.—The Commissioner shall issue patents upon all surveys of land in two or more counties where no conflict between such surveys and others exist, and to which there is no other objection than that of a division in said surveys occasioned by a county boundary passing through them; provided, the field notes have been recorded in the office of the county surveyor of both counties. [Acts 1846, p. 188; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1494.]

Art. 5408. [5367] [4181] Conflicting surveys.—Where conflicts exist between surveys, the Commissioner shall issue patents to such portions of such surveys as are free from conflicts. [Id.]

Art. 5409. [5374] [4189] Conflicting title:—cancellation.—Where a patent to land through mistake is issued upon any valid claim for land, which is afterwards found to be in conflict with any older title, it shall be competent for the owner of such patent, or of any part of the land embraced therein, and within such conflict, to return the same to the Commissioner for cancellation, or in case the owner of such land in conflict cannot obtain the patent, then he shall return instead thereof legal evidence of his title to such patent, or part thereof. In either case he shall make and file with said Commissioner an affidavit that he is still the owner of the same, and has not sold or transferred it. If it appears from the Land Office records or from a duly certified copy of a judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction before which the title to such land may have been adjudicated, that such conflict really exists, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to cancel the patent, or such part thereof as shall appear to belong to the party so applying.

Art. 5410. [5375] [4190] Cancellation: partial conflict.—In cases where there is only a partial conflict, the Commissioner may, under like circumstances and in like manner as provided in the preceding article, cancel any patent presented to him, and issue a patent to the applicant for such portion of the land covered by his patent as may not be in conflict with the older title, where from the field notes the same may be done. [P. D. 4302.]

Art. 5411. [5378-5404] Purchase money refunded.—Upon proper proof that money has been in good faith paid into the State Treasury upon lands for taxes, lease and purchase money, for which, on account of conflicts, erroneous surveys, or illegal sales, patents cannot legally issue, or upon lands on which patents have issued and afterwards are legally canceled, the Comptroller may issue his warrant in favor of the proper parties for the amounts so paid. Proof of such payments may be made upon the certificate of the Commissioner thereto when such facts are disclosed by the records of the Land Office. This article shall not apply to surveys, the errors in which may be corrected. [Acts 1883, p. 113; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 419.]

Art. 5412. [5372] [4186] Order of issue.—The Commissioner shall patent surveys in the order in which they may be made ready for patenting, without regard to the order of filing in the Land Office or the order of application; but an application made for patent on any claim accompanied by the office fees therefor shall have preference over claims for which no application has been made; provided, such surveys have been regularly mapped, or there is sufficient evidence that no previous survey has been legally filed in the land office covering the same ground as represented on the maps of the office. [Acts 1861, p. 51; Acts 1879, p. 23, S. S.; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 387.]

Art. 5413. [5376] [4191] Issuance and delivery.—The Commissioner shall issue patents when it appears from the books of his office that full payment for the land has been made where payment is required, and all legal fees due thereon have been paid into said office and not withdrawn, including the legal fees for the recording of said patent in the counties in which the land may be located. When one applies for a patent such person, shall, in addition to all other payments required by law, remit to the land office one dollar for each county in which the land may be wholly or partially located and give the name and address of the owner or agent. When the patent is ready for delivery the Commissioner shall send it by registered mail to the clerk of any such county with the receivers check for one dollar for each such county and accompany the same with the name and address of the owner or his agent. Upon receipt thereof the clerk shall record the patent and send the same by registered mail with such name and address and the remaining fees to the clerk of another proper county until the patent has been recorded in each such county, and thereupon the patent shall be delivered to the proper party by registered mail. [Acts 1891, p. 182; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 184; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 119.]

Art. 5414. [5371] [4185] Deceased patentee.—All patents issued in the names of persons deceased at the time of issuance shall convey and secure valid title to the heirs or assignee of such deceased persons. [Acts 1851, p. 21; P. D. 4228a; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 899.]

CHAPTER SEVEN.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

| Asylum fund | 5418 | | |

Art. 5415. [5279] [4036] Public domain.—To bring the provisions of law relating to the public domain together, the following extract is made from the joint resolutions of the Congress of the United States for annexing Texas to the United States, approved June 23, 1845: "Said State, when admitted into the Union, . . . shall also retain all the vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits, to be applied to the payment of debts and liabilities of said Republic of Texas, and the residue of said lands, after discharging said debts and liabilities, to be disposed of as said State may direct," etc.

Art. 5416. [5278-5385] School fund.—All lands heretofore set apart under the constitution and laws of Texas, and all of the unappropriated public domain remaining in this State of whatever character, and wheresoever located, including any lands hereafter recovered by the State, except that included in lakes, bays and islands along the Gulf of Mexico within tide-water limits, is set apart and granted to the permanent school fund of the State. All such lands heretofore or hereafter recovered from railway companies, firms, persons, or other corporations by the State, by suit or otherwise, and constituting a part of said school fund as herein provided, shall be disposed of as other school lands, except as otherwise provided by law. In all cases where said land, or any portion thereof, has been surveyed into tracts of six hundred and forty acres, more or less, and field notes thereof returned to and filed in the Land Office, the same is hereby declared a sufficient designation of said land; and the Commissioner shall dispose of the same by the survey and block numbers contained in said field notes. [Acts 1900, p. 29; Acts 1899, p. 123.]

Art. 5417. [5386] [4253] University fund.—After the payment of the amounts due from the State to the common free school fund out of the proceeds of the sales of that portion of the public lands set aside for the payment of the public debt by an Act approved July 14, 1879, and an Act amendatory thereof approved March 11, 1881, and the payment directed to be made to the common school and University funds by an Act approved February 23, 1883, the remainder of said land not to exceed two million acres, or the proceeds thereof, shall one-half thereof constitute a permanent endowment fund for the University of Texas and its branches, including the branch for the instruction of colored youths. [Acts 1883, p. 71; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 377.]

Art. 5418. [5387] [4254] Asylum fund.—The four hundred thousand acres of land set apart for the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the asylum for the deaf and dumb, and an orphan asylum, in equal portions of one hundred thousand acres for each of said asylums, by the provisions of an act of the legislature entitled, "An Act setting aside and appropriating land for the benefit of asylums," approved August 30, 1856, is hereby recognized and set apart to provide a permanent fund for the support, maintenance and improvement of such asylums. [Const. Art. 7; Acts 1856, p. 76; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 494.]

Art. 5419. [5467] Unlawful inclosures.—If the Governor shall at any time be credibly informed that any portion of the public lands or the lands belonging to any of the several funds named in this title, have been inclosed or that fences have been erected thereon without authority of law, he is authorized in his discretion to direct the Attorney General to institute suit in the name of the State for the recovery of such lands and damages, and a fee of not less than ten dollars for the attorney when the sum recovered is less than one hundred dollars, and, when it is over that sum, the fee shall be ten per cent, to be paid by the defendant for the use and occupancy of the same, and the removal of such inclosure and fences; and such damages shall not be for a less sum than five cents per acre per annum during such occupancy. In suits provided for in this article the court shall issue a writ of sequestration directed to any sheriff of the State, commanding and requiring such officer to take into his actual custody such land and all property thereon belonging to the persons so unlawfully occupying said lands, and hold the same subject to further orders of the court. Such writ of sequestration may be executed by any sheriff into whose hands it may be delivered, and he shall proceed to execute such writ. The defendant in such suit may replevy as in ordinary cases by giving bond as prescribed by law; and such cases and all appeals therefrom shall have precedence over all other cases; and, if judgment is recovered by the State in such suit, the court shall order such inclosure or fences to be removed, and shall tax the costs of the suit against the defendant; and all property found upon the land belonging to the defendant, not exempt from execution, shall be liable to the payment of such costs and damages in addition to the personal liability of the defendant. [Acts 1895, p. 63, amended p. 75; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 793, 805.]

Art. 5420. [5468] Adverse claimant; suit.—When any public lands are held, occupied or claimed by any person, association or corporation adversely to the State, or to any fund, or when lands are forfeited to the State for any cause, the Attorney General shall institute suit therefor, together for rent thereon, and for any damages thereto. For the purposes of this and the preceding article, venue is fixed in Travis County, concurrently with the county of defendant's residence and the county where the land lies. [Acts 1900, p. 29.]

Art. 5421. [5469-70-71-72-73-74] Suits for minerals and timber.—The Commissioner and the county attorneys of the State shall report to the Attorney General semi-annually, or oftener if they desire, the name and residence of each person, firm, association of persons or corporation who has cut, used, destroyed, sold or otherwise appropriated any timber from any public lands or taken any minerals or other property of value therefrom, and such other data within their knowledge, and the county attorneys shall assist the Attorney General in whatever way he requests in relation thereto. The Attorney General shall bring suit for the value of such property in any county where the injury or a part thereof occurs, or in the county where the defendant resides, or he may, with the consent of the Governor, compromise and settle with or without suit any of the aforesaid liabilities. The Attorney General shall pay all sums so collected or received to the permanent funds to which they belong. Of all amounts recovered by suit, the Attorney General shall receive a fee of ten per cent, and the county attorney five per cent, and on amounts recovered by compromise, each shall receive one-half of such fees to be taxed against the defendant as costs. No county attorney shall receive compensation from cases not reported by him to the Attorney General. [Acts 1905, p. 38.]

LEGISLATURE.

| | Article | | Article |
|-------------------------|---------|----------------------------|---------|
| Time of meeting | 5422 | Credentials | 5426 |
| Who may organize | 5423 | If no quorum | 5427 |
| Who shall preside | 5424 | Election of Speaker | 5428 |
| Duties of clerk | 5425 | Election of officers | 5429 |

Art. 5422. [5505] [3271] Time of meeting.—The Fortieth Legislature shall assemble to hold its biennial session on the second Tuesday in January, A. D. 1927, at 12 o'clock m., and shall meet biennially thereafter on the same day and hour until otherwise provided by law. [Const. Art. 3, Sec. 5.]

Art. 5423. [5506] [3272] Who may organize.—Those persons receiving certificates of election to the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislature, and those Senators whose terms of office shall not have terminated, and none others, shall be competent to organize the Senate and House of Representatives. [Acts 1876, p. 311; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1147.]

Art. 5424. [5507-8-16] Who shall preside.—For the purpose of such organization the Secretary of State shall preside at each recurring session of the Legislature. Should there be no Secretary of State, or in case he be absent or unable to attend, the Attorney General shall attend and perform the duties prescribed. He shall attend at the time and place designated for the meeting of the Legislature, and shall appoint a clerk who shall have been chief clerk of the House the preceding session, if he be present, to take a minute of the proceedings.

Art. 5425. [5509-10-11] Duties of clerk.—The clerk, under the direction of the Secretary of State, shall:

1. Call all the counties in alphabetical order. Should returns of election in any county for members of the Legislature not be made to the office of Secretary of State, he shall nevertheless call such county.

2. When the counties are called and the members elect appear and present their credentials, administer to each the official oath.

Art. 5426. [5512] [3278] Credentials.—Any person appearing at said call and presenting the proper evidence of his election shall be admitted or qualified in the same manner as though the return of his election had been made to the office of Secretary of State. [P. D. 5438.]

Art. 5427. [5513] [3279] If no quorum.—If no quorum is in attendance on the day appointed for the meeting of the Legislature, the Secretary of State and clerk shall attend from day to day until a quorum shall appear and be qualified as above. [P. D. 5439.]

Art. 5428. [5514] [3280] Election of Speaker.—When a quorum has appeared and been qualified, the House shall proceed to the election of a Speaker, unless a majority of the members present shall decide to defer said election. [P. D. 5440.]

Art. 5429. [5515] [3281] Election of officers.—When an election for Speaker shall have been had, the Speaker elect shall immediately take the chair, and the House proceed to its further organization by electing the necessary officers, to whom the Speaker shall administer the official oath. [P. D. 5441.]

TITLE 88.

LIBEL.

Art. 5430. [5595] Definitions.—A libel is a defamation expressed in printing or writing, or by signs and pictures, or drawings tending to blacken the memory of the dead, or tending to injure the reputation of one who is alive, and thereby expose him to public hatred, contempt or ridicule, or financial injury, or to impeach the honesty, integrity, or virtue, or reputation of any one, or to publish the natural defects of any one and thereby expose such person to public hatred, ridicule, or financial injury. [Acts 1901, p. 30.]

Art. 5431. [5596] Mitigation of damages.—In any action for libel, the defendant may give in evidence, if specially pleaded, in mitigation of exemplary or punitive damages, the circumstances and intentions under which the libelous publication was made, and any public apology, correction or retraction made and published by him of the libel complained of. The truth of the statement or statements in such publication shall be a defense to such action. [Id.]

Art. 5432. [5597] Privileged matters.—The publication of the following matters by any newspaper or periodical, shall be deemed privileged, and shall not be made the basis of any action for libel without proof of actual malice:

1. A fair, true and impartial account of the proceedings in a court of justice, unless the court prohibits the publication of same, when in the judgment of the court the ends of justice demand that the same should not be published, and the court so orders; or any other official proceedings authorized by law in the administration of the law.

2. A fair, true and impartial account of all executive and legislative proceedings, including all reports of and proceedings in or before legislative committees, and of any debate or statement in or before the Legislature or in or before any of its committees, and including also, all reports of and proceedings in or before the managing boards of educational and eleemosynary institutions supported from the public revenue, of city councils or other governing bodies of cities or towns, of the commissioners' court of any county, and of the board of trustees of the public schools of any district or city, and of any debate or statement in or before any such body.

3. A fair, true and impartial account of public meetings organized and conducted for public purposes only.

4. A reasonable and fair comment or criticism of the official acts of public officials and of other matters of public concern published for general information. [Id. Acts 1919, p. 34.]

Art. 5433. [5598] Construction.—Nothing in this title shall be construed to amend or repeal any penal law on the subject of libel, nor to take away any now or at any time heretofore existing defense to a civil action for libel, either at common law or otherwise, but all such defenses are hereby expressly preserved. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 474.]

Art. 5434. [5600-5601] Organization. The Governor shall, by, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint five persons who shall constitute the Texas Library and Historical Commission. Appointments shall be made for a term of six years, the classification to continue as constituted by law. The Commission shall be assigned suitable offices at the capitol where they shall hold at least one regular meeting annually, and as many special meetings as may be necessary. Each such member while in attendance at said meetings shall receive five dollars per day and the actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings. [Acts 1909, p. 122; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5435. [5599] Purpose.—The Commission shall control and administer the State Library, adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing its administration and control, aid and encourage libraries, collect materials relating to the history of Texas and the adjoining states, preserve, classify and publish the manuscript archives and such other matters as it may deem proper, diffuse knowledge in regard to the history of Texas, encourage historical work and research, mark historic sites and houses and secure their preservation, and aid those who are studying the problems to be dealt with by legislation. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5436. [5602-3] Powers and duties.—The Commission is authorized and empowered to purchase within the limits of the annual appropriation allowed by Act of the Legislature from time to time, suitable books, pictures, etc., the same to be the property of the State. The Commission shall have power and authority to receive donations or gifts of money or property upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper; provided, no financial liability is thereby entailed upon the State. It shall give advice to such persons as contemplate the establishment of public libraries, in regard to such matters as the maintenance of public libraries, selection of books, cataloging and library management. The Commission shall conduct library institutes and encourage library associations. [Id; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5437. Seal.—The style of the Library governed by the Commission shall be "Texas State Library." A circular seal of not less than one and one-half inches, and not more than two inches in diameter, bearing a star of five points, surrounded by two concentric circles, between which are printed the words, "Texas State Library," is hereby designated the official seal of said Library. Said seal shall be used in authentication of the official acts of the State Library. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5438. [5604-5] Custody of records.—The custody and control of books, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementos, flags, works of art, etc., and the duty of collecting and preserving historical data, is under the control of the Commission. The gallery of the portraits of the Presidents of the Republic and the Governors of this State constitutes a part of the State Library. All books, pictures, documents, publications and manuscripts, received through gift, purchase or exchange, or on deposit, from any source, for the use of the State, shall constitute a part of the State Library, and shall be placed therein for the use of the public. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5439. [5606] Exchange of records.—Any State, county or other official is hereby authorized in his discretion to turn over to the State Library for permanent preservation therein any official books, records, documents, original papers, maps, charts, newspaper files and printed books not in current use in his office, and the State Librarian shall receipt for the same. [Id. Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5440. State Librarian.—The Commission shall elect a State Librarian, not of their number, who shall be a man or woman of at least one year's training in a library school and at least three year's administrative experience as head of a free public or institutional library, or as an assistant of high rank in such library. Said Librarian shall serve at the will of the Commission, and shall give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars for the proper care of the State Library and its equipment. He shall be allowed his actual expenses when traveling in the service of the Commission, on his sworn account showing such expenses in detail. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5441. [5606] Duties of Librarian.—The duties of the State Librarian, acting under the direction of said Commission, shall be as follows:

1. He shall record the proceedings of the Commission, keep an accurate account of its financial transactions, and perform such other duties as said Commission may assign him; and he shall be authorized to approve the vouchers for all expenditures made in connection with the State Library.

2. He shall have charge of the State Library and all books, pictures, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementos, flags, etc., therein contained.

3. He shall endeavor to collect all manuscript records relating to the history of Texas in the hands of private individuals, and where the originals cannot be obtained he shall endeavor to procure authenticated copies. He shall be authorized to expend the money appropriated for the purchase of books relating to Texas, and he shall seek diligently to procure a copy of every book, pamphlet, map or other printed matter giving valuable information concerning this State. He shall collect portraits or photographs of as many of the prominent men of Texas as possible.

He shall endeavor to complete the files of the early Texas newspapers in the State Library; and he shall cause to be bound the current files of not less than ten of the leading newspapers of the State and the current files of not less than four leading newspapers of other states, and of as many county papers, professional journals, denominational papers, agricultural papers, trade journals and other publications of this State as seem necessary to preserve in the State Library an accurate record of the history of Texas.

4. He shall demand and receive from the officers of State departments having them in charge, all books, maps, papers, manuscripts, documents, memoranda and data not connected with or necessary to the current duties of said officers, relating to the history of Texas, and carefully classify, catalogue and preserve the same. The Attorney General shall decide as to the proper custody of such books, etc., whenever there is any disagreement as to the same.

5. He shall endeavor to procure from Mexico the original archives which have been removed from Texas and relate to the history and settlement thereof, and if he cannot procure the originals, he shall endeavor to procure authentic copies thereof. In like manner he shall procure the originals or authentic copies of manuscripts preserved in other archives beyond the limits of this State, in so far as said manuscripts relate to the history of Texas.

6. He shall preserve all historical relics, mementos, antiquities and works of art connected with and relating to the history of Texas, which may in any way come into his possession as State Librarian. He shall constantly endeavor to build up an historical museum worthy of the interesting and important history of this State.

7. He shall give careful attention to the proper classification, indexing and preserving of the official archives that are now or may hereafter come into his custody.

8. He shall make a biennial report to the Commission, to be by it transmitted to the Governor, to be accompanied by such historical papers and documents as he may deem of sufficient importance.

9. He shall ascertain the condition of all public libraries in this State and report the results to the Commission. He is authorized in his discretion to withhold from libraries refusing or neglecting to furnish their annual reports or such other information as he may request, public documents furnished the Commission for distribution, or interlibrary loans desired by such libraries. [Id; Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5442. Distribution of publications.—On the requisition of the State Librarian therefor, the Board of Control shall cause to be printed and furnished to the State Library for distribution and exchange the following publications, or such additional number as said Librarian shall request: 150 copies of all annual, biennial and special reports of State departments, boards and institutions, findings of all investigations, bulletins, circulars, laws issued as separates, and legislative manuals, 75 copies of all daily legislative journals, bound journals, bills, resolutions, session laws and compiled statutes, and 150 copies of all other publications, except routine business forms and court reports. All such printed daily legislative journals, bills, resolutions and other legislative documents shall be delivered daily to the State Library, and at the close of each legislative session all daily journals, bills and resolutions in the hands of the sergeant-at-arms of the House and Senate shall be delivered to the State Library to be disposed of at the discretion of the Librarian. No accounts for such printing shall be approved and no warrants shall be issued therefor, until the Board of Control is furnished with the contract printer with the receipt of the Librarian for such publications. [Acts 1913, p. 281; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 154.]

Art. 5443. Sale of archives.—The Commission is authorized to sell copies of the Texas Archives, printed with funds appropriated for that purpose, at a price not to exceed twenty-five per cent above the cost of publishing, and all moneys received from such sale shall be paid into the State Treasury. One copy of each such volume may be distributed free to the Governor, the members of the Legislature, and to the libraries, indicated in the preceding article. [Acts 1913, p. 281.]

Art. 5444. [5608] Legislative reference section.—The Commission shall maintain for the use and information of the members of the Legislature, the heads of the several State departments, and such other citizens as may desire to consult the same, a section of the State Library for legislative reference and information. This section shall possess available for use, explanatory check lists and catalogues of the current legislation of this and other states, catalogues of the bills and resolutions presented in either branch of the Legislature, check lists of the public documents of the several states, including all reports issued by the various departments, boards and commissions of this State, and digests of such public laws of this and other states as may best be made available for legislative use. Such section shall give the members of the Legislature such aid and assistance in the drafting of bills and resolutions as may be asked. [Acts 1909, p. 122; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 155.]

Art. 5445. Assistants.—The Commission shall appoint an assistant librarian who shall rank as head of a department and who in the absence of the State Librarian may sign and certify accounts and documents in the same manner and with the same legal authority as the State Librarian. Said assistant shall give bond to the Governor in the sum of three thousand dollars and shall take the official oath. Other assistants in the State Library shall be appointed by the Commission and be divided into four grades: Heads of departments, library assistants, clerks and laborers. Heads of departments and library assistants shall be required to have technical library training; and heads of departments shall have had at least one year of experience in library work prior to appointment. Clerks shall be required to hold a diploma from a first class high school according to the standards of the State Board of Education or the University of Texas, or to present satisfactory evidence of educational training equal to that provided by such high school, and also to present satisfactory evidence of proficiency in stenography and typewriting or book-keeping. Laborers must present satisfactory evidence of education sufficient to do such elementary clerical work as shall be required of them. The archivist must present satisfactory evidence of one year's advanced work in American or Southwestern history in a standard college and of a fluent reading knowledge of Spanish and French; provided, that the archivist shall not be required to have technical library school training or any library experience. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5446. [5609] Report to Governor. — The Commission shall make a biennial report to the Governor, which shall include the biennial report of the State Librarian. Said report shall present a comprehensive view of the operation of the Commission in the discharge of the duties imposed by this title, shall present a review of the library conditions in this State, present an itemized statement of the expenditures of the Commission, make such recommendations as their experience shall suggest, and present careful estimates of the sums of money necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this title. Said report shall be made and printed, and by the Governor laid before the Legislature as other departmental reports. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5447. [5611-2-3] Abstracts of judgments.—Each clerk of a court, when the person in whose favor a judgment was rendered, his agent, attorney or assignee, applies therefor, shall make out, certify under his hand and official seal, and deliver to such applicant upon the payment of the fee allowed by law, an abstract of such judgment showing:

1. The names of the plaintiff and of the defendant in such judgment.

2. The number of the suit in which the judgment was rendered.

3. The date when such judgment was rendered.

4. The amount for which the judgment was rendered and balance due thereon.

5. The rate of interest specified in the judgment.

Each justice of the peace shall also make and deliver an abstract of any judgment rendered in his court in the manner herein provided, certified under his hand.

Art. 5448. [5610-4-5-9] Recording judgments. — Each county clerk shall keep a well bound book called the "judgment record," and he shall immediately file and therein record all properly authenticated abstracts of judgment when presented to him for record, noting therein the day and hour of such record. He shall at the same time enter it upon the alphabetical index to such judgment record, showing the name of each plaintiff and of each defendant in the judgment, and the number of the page of the book upon which the abstract is recorded. He shall leave a space at the foot of each such abstract for the entry of credits upon and satisfaction of such judgment, and shall enter the same when properly shown.

Art. 5449. [5516-7] Lien of judgment.—When any judgment has been so recorded and indexed, it shall from the date of such record and index operate as a lien upon all of the real estate of the defendant situated in the county where such record and index are made, and upon all real estate which the defendant may thereafter acquire situated in said county. Said lien shall continue for ten years from the date of such record and index; but if the plaintiff fails to have execution issued upon his judgment within twelve months after the rendition thereof, said lien shall cease to exist.

Art. 5450. [5618] Satisfaction of judgment.—Satisfaction of any judgment in whole or in part may be shown:

1. By return upon an execution issued upon said judgment, or by a certified copy of such return, certified by the officer to whom the return is made, such certificate showing the names of the parties to the judgment, the number and style of the suit, the court in which rendered, the date and amount of the judgment, and the dates of the issuance and return of the execution.

2. By a receipt, acknowledgment or release signed by the party entitled to receive payment of the judgment, or his agent, or attorney of record, and acknowledged or proven for record as required for deeds.

Art. 5451. [3293] Federal court judgments.—An abstract of a judgment rendered in this State by any United States Court may be recorded and indexed in the same manner and with like force and effect as provided for judgments of the Courts of this State, upon the certificates of the clerks of such United States courts.

Art. 5452. [5621] [3294] Lien prescribed.—Any person or firm, lumber dealer or corporation, artisan, laborer, mechanic or sub-contractor who may labor or furnish material, machinery, fixtures or tools; (a) to erect or repair any house, building or improvement whatever; (b) for the construction or repair of levees or embankments to be erected for the reclamation of overflow lands along any river or creek in this State; (c) or who may furnish any material for the construction or repair of any railroad within this State under or by virtue of a contract with the owner, owners, or his or their agent, trustee, receiver, contractor or contractors; upon complying with the provisions of this chapter shall have a lien on such house, building, fixtures, improvements, land reclaimed from overflow, or railroad, and all of its properties, and shall have a lien on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith, or reclaimed thereby, to secure payment for the labor done, lumber, material, machinery or fixtures and tools furnished for construction or repair. The word "improvement" as used herein shall be construed so as to include clearing, grubbing, draining or fencing of land, and shall include wells, cisterns, tanks, reservoirs or artificial lakes or pools made for supplying or storing water and all pumps, siphons, and wind mills or other machinery or apparatus used for raising water for stock, domestic use or for irrigation purposes. [Acts 1895, p. 194; Acts 1913, p. 252; Acts 1917, p. 383; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5453. [5622-3] Securing lien.—The lien provided for in Article 5452 may be fixed and secured in the following manner:

1. Every original contractor, within four months, and every journeyman, day laborer, or other person, within thirty days after the indebtedness accrues, shall file his contract in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property is situated to be recorded in a book kept by the county clerk for that purpose.

2. If a journeyman, day laborer or other person has no written contract, it shall be sufficient to file an itemized account of the claim supported by affidavit showing that the account is just and correct and that all just and lawful offsets, payment and credits known to affiant have been allowed.

3. Within ninety days after such indebtedness accrues, each person, firm or corporation who furnished material to or performed labor for a contractor or subcontractor to construct or repair a house, building, improvement or railroad or its properties, shall give written notice to the owner of such house, building or improvement, or to his agent, or to such railroad company or its agent or receiver of each and every item furnished and showing how much there is due and unpaid on each bill of lumber or material furnished or labor performed by such person, firm or corporation, and shall file with the county clerk of the county in which such property is located or through or into which such railroad may extend, an itemized account of his or their claim to be recorded by such clerk in a book kept for that purpose.

Art. 5454. [5634] [3307] Owner to furnish contractor with account.—Whenever any such account shall be placed in the hands of such owner, or his authorized agent, it shall be the duty of such owner, or his agent, to furnish his contractor with a true copy of said attested account; and, if said contractor shall not, within ten days after the receipt of said copy of attested account, give the owner written notice that he intends to dispute said claim, he shall be considered as assenting to the demand, which shall be paid by the owner when it becomes due.

Art. 5455. [5624] [3297] Form of claim on unwritten contract.—If there be no written contract in cases where the labor is performed for or the material is furnished to the owner of the building or improvements, or the owner or receiver of a railroad, the following form or the substance thereof may be used for filing the claimant's account, and will be sufficient to fix the meaning contemplated by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of_____.

A. B., affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed (or material furnished) for C. D. of_____County, Texas, and that the prices thereof as set forth in said account hereto annexed are just and reasonable, and the same is unpaid; that said labor was performed (or material furnished; or both) for said C. D. at the time in said account mentioned, under and by virtue of a contract between affiant (or affiant's principal) and C. D. and that due notice was given by affiant (or his principal) of the labor performed (or material furnished) in accordance with law; and affiant further makes oath and says that he is informed that C. D. was at the time said contract was made and entered into and said labor was performed (or material furnished) the owner of the house (or improvements) described as follows: (Here describe the house or improvements). And the said house (or improvements) is situated upon a certain lot or tract of land which affiant is informed is owned by said C. D. and which is described as follows: (Here describe the lot or lots or the land). And this affiant (or his principal) claims a lien upon said house or improvements and upon said land. (Or if the material was furnished to any railroad company, its agent or receiver, to construct or repair its railroad or other property, then the affiant shall describe said railroad by giving its charter name and the name of the receiver, if any, and the agent of said company, if any, with whom the contract was made, and that affiant or his principal claims a lien on said railroad and its property.) [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1895, p. 194; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5456. [5625] [3298] Form when the debtor is not the owner.—If the labor is performed for, or the material is furnished to, a contractor, builder, agent or receiver, and not the owner of the property, then the following form shall be deemed sufficient to fix the lien provided for by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of_____.

A. B., affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed for (or the material furnished to) C. D., a contractor (builder, agent, or receiver) by affiant (or his principal) and the prices therefor as set forth in the annexed account are just and reasonable, and that the same is unpaid (or the sum of $_____, as shown by said account, is unpaid) after allowing all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits known to affiant; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for (or to) said C. D. to be used in the erection of a house (or building or improvements, or in the repair of the house, building or improvement, or in the construction or improvement of the railroad or its property), owned, as affiant is informed and believes, by E. F., of _____ County, Texas, and that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) to (or for) said C. D. under and by virtue of his contract between affiant (or his principal) and said C. D. (And in case of material furnished, affiant shall further swear that he has given to the owner, his agent or representative or receiver, notice in writing of each item of said account as required in this chapter as the same was furnished to said C. D.) [Id.]

Art. 5457. [5626-7] [3299-3300] Description of property.—In case the contract is filed and recorded as provided for in Section 1 and 2 of Article 5453, a like description of the house, building or improvement, and the lot or tract of land, shall accompany the same, as is required in the foregoing forms, except that the same is not required to be under oath. When a contract or account is filed and recorded, it shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure this lien. [Acts 1889, p. 110.]

Art. 5458. [5627] [3300] What included on property in city and country.—If this lien is against land in a city, town or village, it shall extend to or into the lot or lots upon which such house, building or improvement is situated, or upon which such labor was performed; and, if the lien is against land in the country, it shall extend to and include fifty acres upon which such house, building or improvements are situated, or upon which such labor has been performed; and, if the lien is against a railroad company, it shall extend to and include all of its property. [Acts 1889, p. 110; Acts 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5459. [5628] [3301] Priority of lien.—The lien herein provided for shall attach to the house, building, improvements or railroad for which they were furnished or the work was done, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land upon which the houses, buildings or improvements, or railroad have been put, or labor performed, and the person enforcing the same may have such house, building or improvement, or any piece of the railroad property, sold separately; provided, any lien, encumbrance or mortgage on the land or improvement at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and holders of such liens need not be made parties in suits to foreclose liens herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 5460. [5631] [3304] Lien on homestead.—When material is furnished, labor performed, or improvements as defined in this title are made, or when erections or repairs are made upon homesteads, if the owner thereof is a married man, then to fix and secure the lien upon the same it shall be necessary for the person or persons who furnish the material or perform the labor, before such material is furnished or such labor is performed, to make and enter into a contract in writing, setting forth the terms thereof, which shall be signed by the owner and his wife, and privily acknowledged by her, as is required in making sale of homestead. And such contract shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where such homestead is situated, in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose. When such contract has been made and entered into by the husband and wife and the contractor or builder, and the same has been recorded, as heretofore provided, then the same shall inure to the benefit of any and all persons who shall furnish material or labor thereon for such contractor or builder. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1917, p. 383.]

Art. 5461. [5632] [3305] Notice of sub-contractor or laborer to owner of property.—Every person, except the original contractor or builder, or those claiming under Section 3 of Article 5453 who may wish to avail himself of the benefits of this law, shall give at least ten days' notice in writing before the filing of the lien, as herein required, to the owner or owners, or agent, that he holds a claim against such house, building or improvement, setting forth the amount, and from whom the same is due; and thereafter said owner, or owners, or agent, shall be authorized to retain in his hands the amount claimed until the same is settled or determined not to be owing. [Acts 1889, p. 110.]

Art. 5462. [5633] [3306] Diligence, what is sufficient.—A compliance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix the liability of the owner of such house, building or improvement for the payment of such demand, subject to the subsequent provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5463. [5635] [3308] Contractor to defend suits.—When a lien is filed under a provision of this chapter by any person other than the original contractor or builder, the original contractor shall defend the action brought thereupon, at his own expense; and, the owner may detain the amount of money for which such lien is filed, and in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, he shall be entitled to deduct from the amount due the contractor the amount of said judgment and costs; and, if he shall have settled with the contractor or builder in full, he shall be entitled to recover from the contractor or builder any amount so paid for which the contractor or builder was originally liable. But the owner shall in no case be required to pay, nor his property be liable for, any money that he may have paid to the contractor before the fixing of the lien or before he has received written notice of the existence of the debt. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5464. [5635] [3308] Preference lien.—All sub-contractors, laborers and material men shall have preference over other creditors of the principal contractor or builder. [Id.]

Art. 5465. [5635] [3308] Copy of bill furnished to owner.—A copy of each bill of lumber furnished to the contractor or builder as the same is furnished shall be delivered to the owner of said homestead, said bill specifying each item so furnished, how much is paid thereon, and what is due for lumber or material furnished for said contract prior thereto. [Id.]

Art. 5466. [5635] [3308] Relinquishment entered.—When the debt is paid under the contract for such building or improvements, the party for whose interest the contract was recorded shall enter a relinquishment showing a full compliance of said contract to the extent of all money due them from the original contractor or builder on account of labor done or material furnished; and the money due said original contractor or builder from the person owning or having improvements made shall not be garnisheed by other creditors to the prejudice of such sub-contractors, mechanics, laborers or material men. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5467. [5636] [3309] Accrual of indebtedness.—When labor is performed by the day or week, then the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the end of each week during which labor is performed. When material is furnished, the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the last delivery of such material, unless there is an agreement to pay for such material at a specified time. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5468. [5637] [3310] Equality of liens.—Except as provided in the succeeding article, the liens for work and labor done or material furnished, as provided in this chapter, shall be upon an equal footing without reference to date or filing the account or lien. In case of foreclosure, if the proceeds of the sale of any property described in any account or lien are insufficient to discharge all the liens against the same, such proceeds shall be paid pro rata on the respective liens; provided, such accounts or liens shall have been filed and suit brought as provided by this law. Nothing in this law shall in any manner affect the contract between the owner and original contractor as to the amount, manner or time of payment of said contract price. [Id.]

Art. 5469. [5638] Mechanic's fund.—Whenever any mechanic or artisan shall perform any labor or service for any contractor, sub-contractor, agent or receiver, in the erection or repair of any house, building, fixture or improvement, or as a necessary incident in connection with such work of construction or repair, such owner, agent or receiver shall retain in his hands during the progress of such work and for thirty days after the completion thereof, to secure the payment of said artisans and mechanics, ten per cent of the contract price of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, or ten per cent of the value of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, measured by the proportion that the work done bears to the work to be done thereon, and using the contract price or the reasonable value of the completed building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, as a basis of computation of value. All mechanics or artisans who may file a mechanic's lien upon said building, fixture or improvement so made or erected or repaired in accordance with the law applying thereto, shall have ratably among themselves, a preference lien upon said fund so retained in the hands of such owner, or agent, or receiver. If such owner, receiver or agent refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of this law, the mechanics and artisans performing work thereon and in connection therewith, who may file liens thereon in accordance with law, shall have ratably among themselves preference liens, to be preferred above all other liens and claims whatsoever upon such house, building, structure, fixture, or improvement, and all its properties, and on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith to secure payment for such labor thereon. [Acts 1909, p. 184.]

Art. 5470. [5639] [3311] Release.—All parties who are authorized under this law to file a lien, and have done so, and had such lien recorded, shall, when such lien is paid or satisfied, or have received their proper lienable parts for which the owner of the building would be liable under this law, shall record a relinquishment and satisfaction of such lien. [Acts 1876, p. 91; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 927; Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5471. [5629] [3302] Separate sales.—When the house, building, improvement, or any piece of the railroad's property is sold separately, the officer making the sale shall place the purchaser in possession thereof; and such purchaser shall have the right to remove the same within a reasonable time from the date of purchase. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1895, p. 194; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5472. [5630] [3303] Requisites of sale.—Every sale must be upon judgment rendered by some court of competent jurisdiction foreclosing such lien and ordering sale of such property. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5473. Contractor's lien.—Any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership, materialman, artisan, laborer or mechanic, who shall, under contract, express or implied, with the owner of any land, mine or quarry, or the owner of any gas, oil or mineral leasehold interest in land, or the owner of any gas pipe line or oil pipe line, or owner of any oil or gas pipe line right of way, or with the trustee, agent or receiver of any such owner, perform labor or furnish material, machinery or supplies, used in digging, drilling, torpedoing, operating, completing, maintaining or repairing any such oil or gas well, water well, mine or quarry, or oil or gas pipe line, shall have a lien on the whole of such land or leasehold interest therein, or oil pipe line or gas pipe line, including the right of way for same, or lease for oil and gas purposes, the buildings and appurtenances, and upon the materials and supplies so furnished, and upon said oil well, gas well, water well, oil or gas pipe line, mine or quarry for which the same are furnished, and upon all of the other oil wells, gas wells, buildings and appurtenances, including pipe line, leasehold interest, and land used in operating for oil, gas and other minerals, upon such leasehold or land or pipe line and the right of way therefor, for which said material and supplies were furnished or labor performed. Provided, that if labor, supplies, machinery, or material is furnished to a leaseholder, the lien hereby created shall not attach to the underlying fee title to the land. [Acts 1917, p. 28.]

Art. 5474. Sub-contractor's lien.—Any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership or materialman who shall furnish such machinery, material or supplies to a contractor or sub-contractor, or any person who shall perform such labor under a sub-contract with a contractor, or who as an artisan or day laborer in the employ of such contractor or sub-contractor shall perform any such labor, shall have a lien upon all such property or interest described in the preceding article, including right of way, for which said material and supplies were furnished and labor performed, in the same manner and to the same extent as the original contractor, for the amount due him for material furnished or labor performed. [Id.]

Art. 5475. Priority of lien.—The lien herein provided for shall attach to the machinery, material, supplies and the specific improvements made, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land or leasehold interest upon which the said machinery, material, supplies or specific improvements are placed or located, provided, however, that any lien, encumbrance, or mortgage upon the land or leasehold interest at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and the holders of such liens upon such land or leasehold interest shall not be necessary parties in suits to foreclose the liens hereby created. [Id.]

Art. 5476. Proceedings to fix lien.—The liens herein created shall be fixed and secured and notice thereof shall be given and such liens shall attach and be enforced in the same manner, and the materialman's statement, or the lien of any laborer herein mentioned shall be filed and recorded within the same time and in the same manner as provided for in the preceding chapter. Whenever any person shall remove any such property to a county other than the one in which the lien has been filed, the lien holder may within ninety days thereafter file an itemized inventory of the property so removed showing the amount due and unpaid thereon, with the clerk of the county to which it has been removed, which shall be recorded in the materialman's lien records of such county, and such filing shall operate as notice of the existence of the lien and the lien shall attach and extend to the land or leasehold and other premises, properties and appurtenances to which said properties so removed shall attach, of the kind and character enumerated in Article 5473. [Id.]

Art. 5477. Sale or removal of property.—When the lien herein provided for shall have attached to the property covered thereby, neither the owner of the land, nor the owner of said oil, gas or mineral leasehold interest therein, nor the owner of any gas or oil pipe line, nor the contractor, nor the sub-contractor, nor the purchaser, nor the trustee, receiver or agent, of any such owner, lessor, lessee, contractor, sub-contractor or purchaser shall either sell or remove the property subject to said lien or cause same to be removed from the land or premises upon which they were to be used, or otherwise sell or dispose of the same, without the written consent of the holder of the lien hereby created; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this article, the said lienholder shall be entitled to the possession of the property upon which said lien exists wherever found, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether said debt has become due or not. [Id.]

Art. 5478. Extent of liability of owner.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to fix a greater liability against the owner of the land or leasehold interest therein than the price or sum stipulated to be paid in the contract under which such material is furnished, or labor performed. [Id.]

Art. 5479. Remedy cumulative.—The provisions of this law shall not be construed to deprive or abridge materialmen, artisans, laborers, or mechanics of any rights and remedies now given them by law, and the provisions of this law shall be cumulative of the present lien laws. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

LIENS OF RAILROAD LABORERS.

Art. 5480. [5640-43] Lien prescribed.—All mechanics, laborers and operatives who may have performed labor, or worked with tools, teams or otherwise, in the construction, operation or repair of any railroad locomotive, car or other equipment of a railroad, and to whom wages are due or owing for such work, or for the work of tools or teams thus employed, or for work otherwise performed, shall have a lien prior to all others upon such railroad and its equipments for the amount due them for personal services, or for the use of tools or teams. Such lien shall cease to be operative in twelve months after its creation, if no steps are sooner taken to enforce it. [Acts 1887, p. 17; G. L. Vol 9, p. 815.]

Art. 5481. [5641] [3313] Enforcement.—In all suits for wages due by a railroad company for such labor, upon proof being satisfactorily made that such labor had been performed, either at the instance of said company, a contractor, or sub-contractor or agent of said company, and that such wages are due, and the lien given by the preceding article is sought to be enforced, the court having jurisdiction shall try the same, render judgment for the amount of wages found to be due, and adjudge and order said railroad and equipments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy said judgment. In all suits of this kind, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to make other lienholders defendants hereto, but such lienholders may intervene and become parties thereto and have their respective rights adjusted and determined by the court. [Acts 1879, p. 8; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1308.]

Art. 5482. [5642] [3314] Venue.—Such suits may be brought in any county in this State where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action or part thereof accrued or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

FARM, FACTORY AND STORE OPERATIVES.

Art. 5483. [5644] Lien prescribed.—Whenever any clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, artisan, craftsman, factory operator, mill operator, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or common laborer, farm hand, male or female, may labor or perform any service in any office, store, hotel, shop, factory, mine, quarry or mill of any character, or perform any service in the cutting, preparation, hauling, handling, or transporting to any mill, or other point for sale, manufacture or other disposition, logs or timber, or perform any service upon any wagon, cart, tram, or railroad, or other means or methods of transporting such logs or timber, and in the construction or maintenance of such tram or railroad, constructed or used for the transportation of logs or timber to or for such mills to its owner or operator, or to points for sale, shipment or other disposition, or any farm hands, under or by virtue of any contract or agreement, written or verbal, with any person, employer, firm or corporation, or his, her, or their agent, receiver or trustee, in order to secure the payment of the amount due or owing under such contract or agreement, written or verbal, the hereinbefore mentioned employees shall have a first lien upon all products, machinery, tools, fixtures, appurtenances, goods, wares, merchandise, chattels, wagons, carts, tram roads, railroads, rolling stock, and appurtenances, or thing or things of value of whatsoever character that may be created in whole or in part by the labor or that may be used by such person or persons or necessarily connected with the performance of such labor or service, which may be owned by or in the possession or under the control of the aforesaid employer, person, firm, corporation, or his or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, provided, that the lien herein given to a farm hand shall be subordinate to the landlord's lien provided by law. [Acts 1897, p. 218; Acts 1913, p. 151; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1272.]

Art. 5484. Newspaper office employees.—Whenever any newspaper worker in the editorial or reportorial department of any newspaper, publication or periodical, whether daily or otherwise, also any solicitor, clerk or other employee, in the advertising or business office of any newspaper publication or periodical, whether daily or otherwise, shall labor or perform any service in any of the departments or offices of such newspaper or periodical, under or by virtue of any contracts or agreements, written or verbal, with any person, employer, firm or corporation, or his, her or their agent, receiver or trustee, in order to secure the payment of the amount due by such contract or agreement, written or verbal, the hereinbefore mentioned employee shall have a first lien upon all products, papers, machinery, tools, fixtures, appurtenances, goods, wares, merchandise, subscription contracts, chattels, or things of value of whatsoever character that may be created in whole or in part by the labor of such persons, or necessarily connected with the performance of such labor or service, which may be owned by, or in possession of the aforesaid employer, person, firm, corporation, or his, her or their agent, receiver or trustee. [Acts 1917, p. 324.]

Art. 5485. [5646] Payment of wages.—Under the operation of this law, all wages, if service is by agreement performed by the day or week, shall be due and payable weekly, or if by the month, shall be due and payable monthly; all payments to be made in lawful money of the United States. [Acts 1897, p. 218; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1272.]

Art. 5486. [5645] Liens, how fixed.—Whenever any person, employer, firm, corporation, his, her or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, shall fail or refuse to make payments as hereinafter prescribed in this law, the said clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, farm hand, artisan, craftsman, operative, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or laborer, who shall have performed service of any character, shall make or have made duplicate accounts of such service, with amount due him or her for the same, and present, or have presented, to aforesaid employer, person, firm or corporation, his, her, or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, one of the aforesaid duplicate accounts within thirty days after the said indebtedness shall have accrued. The other of the said duplicate accounts shall, within the time hereinbefore prescribed, be filed with the county clerk of the county in which said service was rendered, and shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book kept for that purpose. The party or parties presenting the aforesaid account shall make affidavit as to the correctness of the same. A compliance with the foregoing requirements in this article shall be necessary to fix and preserve the lien given under this law; and the liens of different persons shall take precedence in the order in which they are filed; provided, that all persons claiming the benefit of this law shall have six months within which to bring suit to foreclose the aforesaid lien; and provided, further, that a substantial compliance with the provisions of this article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure the lien hereinbefore given; provided, that any purchaser of such products from the owner thereof shall acquire a good title thereto, unless he has at the time of the purchase actual or constructive notice of the claim of such lienholder upon such products, said constructive notice to be given by record of such claim, as provided for in this law, or by suit filed. [Acts 1897, p. 218.]

Art. 5487. [5647] Right of assignment.—Any party entitled to such lien may transfer or assign his rights hereunder, and his assignee or assignees shall have the same rights and privileges as are conferred upon him. [Id.]

Art. 5488. [5648] Duration of lien.—The lien created by this chapter shall cease to be operative after six months after the same is fixed, unless suit is brought within said time to enforce said lien. [Id.]

Art. 5489. [5654] [3327] Vendor's security.—All reservation of the title to or property in chattels, as security for the purchase money thereof, shall be held to be chattel mortgages, and shall, when possession is delivered to the vendee, be void as to creditors and bona fide purchasers, unless such reservations be in writing and registered as required of chattel mortgages. Nothing in this law shall be construed to contravene the landlord and tenant law. [Acts 1885, p. 76; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 696.]

Art. 5490. Chattel mortgages. Every chattel mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument of writing, intended to operate as a mortgage, or lien upon personal property, and every transfer thereof which shall not be accompanied by an immediate delivery and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the property mortgaged, pledged, or affected by such instrument, shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor or person making same, as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees or lien holders in good faith, unless such instrument, or a true copy thereof, shall be forthwith deposited with and filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property shall then be situated, or if the mortgagor or person making the same be a resident of this State, then, of the county of which he shall at that time be a resident; provided, that written contracts for the conditional sale, lease or hire of railroad equipment and rolling stock, by which the purchase money is therein agreed to be paid at any time or times after the date of such contract, with a reservation of title or lien in the vendor, lessor or bailor until the same has been fully paid, shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, in a book of records to be kept by him for that purpose; and on payment in full of the purchase money and the performance of the terms and conditions stipulated in any such contract, a declaration in writing to that effect may be made by the vendor, lessor or bailor, or his or its assignee, which declaration may be made on the margin of the record of the contract, duly attested, or it may be made by a separate instrument to be acknowledged by the lessor, vendor or bailor, or his or its assignee, and recorded as aforesaid; and for such services the Secretary of State shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars for recording each of said contracts and each of said declaration, and a fee of one dollar for entering such declaration on the margin of the record.

Art. 5491. Combined with Article 5490.

Art. 5492. [5656] [3329] Duty of clerk.—Upon the receipt of such instrument, the clerk shall indorse thereon the day and hour when the same was deposited in his office for record, and shall keep the same on file in his office for the inspection of all parties interested until satisfaction thereof shall be entered, as provided for in this chapter. If a copy be presented to the clerk for filing, instead of the original instrument, he shall carefully compare such copy with the original, and the same shall not be filed unless it is a true copy thereof, and unless the original has been witnessed by two subscribing witnesses or acknowledged or proven for record and certified as required in case of other instruments for the purpose of being recorded. [Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 479.]

Art. 5493. [5657] [3330] Copy of instrument: evidence.—A certified copy of any such instrument so filed as aforesaid, certified to under the hand and seal of said clerk, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner as the original might be, unless the execution of the original has been denied under oath by the party sought to be charged thereby. The party desiring to use such instrument shall file the same in the papers of the cause before announcing ready for trial, and not afterwards. Such certified copy shall in all cases be received as evidence of filing and entry thereof in the chattel mortgage record according to the indorsement of the clerk thereon. [Id., p. 480.]

Art. 5494. [5658] Chattel mortgage record. The county clerk shall keep a book in which shall be entered a minute of all such instruments, which shall be ruled off into separate columns, with heads as follows: Time of reception, name of mortgagor, name of mortgagee or trustee and cestui que trust, date of instrument, amount secured, when due, property mortgaged, and remarks; and the proper entry shall be made under each of such heads. Under the head of "property mortgaged" it will be sufficient to enter a general description of the property pledged and the particular place where located, and an index shall be kept in the manner as required for other records. When the instrument is the transfer of a lien the county clerk shall enter on the margin, or under the head "remarks" in connection with the original record of registration of such lien, a notation, "transferred by _____ to _____ this _____ day of _____, 19____," filling the blanks with the names of the parties and the date of such transfer, and note the date it is filed for registration. Provided, however, that the failure of the transferee of any note or lien to have the records so noted shall not operate as a release of the lien then in existence in any manner whatsoever to affect the validity of said lien or to operate so as to give the transferee of said note or lien any less rights than those held by the original payee in the note. [Acts 1925, p. 368.]

Art. 5495. [5659] [3332] Satisfaction to be entered.—When the debt secured by any such instrument has been paid or satisfied, the mortgagee, his assignee, attorney or legal representative shall enter or cause to be entered, and attested by the clerk, as aforesaid, satisfaction thereof, in the record book in which the instrument is entered, which may be done under the head of "remarks." Any instrument acknowledging payment or satisfaction need not be recorded at length, but the entry as above provided showing the same has been paid shall be sufficient, and the original instrument or copy thereof on file shall then be delivered to the mortgagor or maker upon demand, or the clerk may mail the same to him. [Id.]

Art. 5496. [5660] [3333] Property not to be removed.—The person making any such instrument shall not remove the property pledged from the county, nor otherwise sell or dispose of the same, without the consent of the mortgagee; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this article, the mortgagee shall be entitled to the possession of the property, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether the same has become due or not. [Id.]

Art. 5497. [5661] [3334] Effect of registration.—Chattel mortgages and other instruments intended to operate as mortgages or liens upon personal property shall not be recorded at length, and all persons shall be thereby charged with notice thereof, and of the rights of the mortgagee, his assignee or representatives thereunder. [Acts 1879, p. 134; Acts 1917, p. 361; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1434.]

Art. 5498. [5661] [3334] Record of chattels on realty.—When any machinery or other manufactured article is susceptible of being attached to the realty in such a way as to become a fixture thereto and is located upon real estate in such manner as the same may be deemed a fixture thereto, and at the time of its location upon such real estate there is a lien or mortgage evidenced by written instrument or any instrument reserving title in such machinery or other manufactured article to secure an indebtedness thereon, executed by the purchaser or owner of such machinery or other manufactured article at the time of its location on such real estate, and the instrument evidencing said lien, mortgage or reservation of title contains a description of said machinery or other manufactured article, as well as the real estate upon which it is to be located or situated, reasonably sufficient to identify said real estate, and such instrument is registered under the provisions of this Act, then the registration of such instrument evidencing said lien, mortgage, or reservation of title as provided for by this Act, shall be notice to all persons thereafter dealing with or acquiring any right or interest in said machinery or other manufactured article, or the realty upon which the same is located or other improvements or property situated on said real estate, of all of the rights of the owners or holders of the indebtedness secured by said instrument the same as if recorded at length in the deed records or records of mortgages upon realty of the county where the real estate is situated, and such lien, mortgage or reservation of title upon or to such machinery or other manufactured article shall be as to such machinery and other manufactured article superior to any lien or rights existing in any one to said real estate or other improvements or other property located and situated thereon existing at the time of the location of said machinery or other manufactured article thereon, but nothing herein contained shall be held to give the holder of such lien, mortgage or reservation of title any right to or claim upon the real estate save and except the right to establish and foreclose his lien, mortgage or reservation of title upon such machinery or other manufactured article, and to enforce his rights thereto under the instrument evidencing his lien, mortgage or reservation of title, as in other cases of liens upon personal property hereunder. All such instruments shall be endorsed on the back thereof, to wit, "Liens on machinery situated on realty," and shall be registered in the county where the real estate is located in the manner as other chattel mortgages except that there shall be kept, indexed and recorded, as now herein provided for chattel mortgages, a separate book to be endorsed "chattel mortgage records on realty." The record thereof shall in addition to the other requirements of this Act contain a brief description of said real estate to which said fixtures are to be attached. [Acts 1879, p. 134; Acts 1917, p. 361; G. L. Vol. 8 p. 1434.]

Art. 5499. [5662] Destruction of chattel mortgages. — All chattel mortgages filed with the county clerks of this State in accordance with law shall be prima facie presumed to have been paid after the expiration of six years from the date of the maturity of the debts such mortgages were intended to secure, unless the owner or holder of such mortgages, his agent or attorney, shall, within three months next before the expiration of said time, file an affidavit in writing with the county clerk stating that such debt has not been paid, and the amount still due thereon. If such affidavit is not filed, the clerk shall, at the expiration of said time, either deliver such mortgage to the maker or destroy the same. [Acts 1907, p. 272.]

| Lien on vessels..... | 5500 | Sale of property..... | 5504 |
| Stock breeder's lien..... | 5501 | Unclaimed proceeds..... | 5505 |
| Livery stables, etc..... | 5502 | Other liens not affected..... | 5506 |
| Mechanics may retain property..... | 5503 | | |

Art. 5500. [5650-51] Lien on vessels.—Every person who may furnish supplies or materials, or do repairs or labor for or on account of any domestic vessel, owned in whole or in part in this State, shall have a lien on such vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture and freight money for the security and payment of the same. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to alter or affect in any way the general law regulating the liens of seamen on foreign vessels. [Acts Feb. 3, 1848; P. D. 4600, 4601; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 22.]

Art. 5501. [5652-53] Stock breeder's lien.—The owner or keeper of any stallion, jack, bull or boar, who keeps the same confined for the purpose of standing him for profit, shall have a preference lien upon the progeny of such stallion, jack, bull or boar to secure the payment for the amount due such owner or keeper for the services of such stallion, jack, bull or boar, and such lien shall exist by reason of the force and effect of the provisions hereof, and it shall never be necessary in order to secure and fix said lien to secure, file or register any contract or statement thereof with any officer, nor shall it be necessary that the owner of such progeny execute any contract whatever, but such preference lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as the statutory landlord's lien is by law enforced; provided, that where parties misrepresent their stock by false pedigree, no lien shall obtain. Said lien shall remain in force for a period of ten months from the birth of said progeny, but shall not be enforced until five months shall have elapsed after such birth. [Acts 1889, p. 115; Acts 1905, p. 24; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1143.]

Art. 5502. [5664] [3319] Livery stables, etc.—Proprietors of livery or public stables shall have a special lien on all animals placed with them for feed, care and attention, as also upon such carriages, buggies or other vehicles as may have been placed in their care, for the amount of the charges against the same; and this article shall apply to and include owners or lessees of pastures, who shall have a similar lien on all animals placed with them for pasturage. [Acts 1874, p. 200; Acts 1895, p. 96; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 202; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 826.]

Art. 5503. [5665-6] Mechanics may retain property.—Whenever any article, implement, utensil or vehicle shall be repaired with labor and material, or with labor and without furnishing material by any carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman in this State, such carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman is authorized to retain possession of said article, implement, utensil, or vehicle until the amount due on same for repairing by contract shall be fully paid off and discharged. In case no amount is agreed upon by contract, then said carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman shall retain possession of such article, implement, utensil or vehicle, until all reasonable, customary and usual compensation shall be paid in full. [Acts 1874, p. 68; P. D. 711a; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 70.]

Art. 5504. [5667-8] Sale of property.—When possession of any of the property embraced in the preceding article has continued for sixty days after the charges accrue, and the charges so due have not been paid, it shall be the duty of the persons so holding said property to notify the owner, if in the State and his residence be known, to come forward and pay the charges due, and on his failure within ten days after such notice has been given him to pay said charges, the persons so holding said property, after twenty days notice, are authorized to sell said property at public sale and apply the proceeds to the payment of said charges, and shall pay over the balance to the person entitled to the same. If the owner's residence is beyond the State or is unknown, the person holding said property shall not be required to give such notice before proceeding to sell. [Id.]

Art. 5505. [5669-70] Unclaimed proceeds.—If the person who is legally entitled to receive the balance mentioned in this chapter is not known, or has removed from the State or from the county in which such repairing was done, or such property was so held, the person so holding said property shall pay the balance to the county treasurer of the county in which said property is held and take his receipt therefor. Whenever such balance shall remain in the possession of the county treasurer for the period of two years unclaimed by the party legally entitled to the same, such balance shall become a part of the county fund of the county in which the property was sold, and shall be applied as any other county fund or money of such county is applied or used. [Id.]

Art. 5506. [5671] [3326] Other liens not affected.—Nothing in this title shall be construed or considered as in any manner impairing or affecting the right of parties to create liens by special contract or agreement, nor shall it in any manner affect or impair other liens arising at common law or in equity, or by any statute of this State, or any other lien not treated of under this title.

TITLE 91.

LIMITATIONS.

I. LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS FOR LANDS.

| | Article | | Article |

| Title by possession..... | 5513 | Lien continued in force..... | 5522 |
| "Peaceable possession"..... | 5514 | Limitation as to deeds of trust, etc..... | 5523 |

Art. 5507. [5672] [3340] [3191] Three years' possession.

—Suits to recover real estate, as against a person in peaceable and adverse possession thereof under title or color of title, shall be instituted within three years next after the cause of action accrued, and not afterward. [Acts 1841, p. 119; P. D. 4622; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 621.]

Art. 5508. [5673] [3341] [3192] "Title" and "color of title" defined.—By the term "title" is meant a regular chain of transfers from or under the sovereignty of the soil, and by "color of title" is meant a consecutive chain of such transfers down to such person in possession, without being regular, as if one or more of the memorials or muniments be not registered, or not duly registered, or be only in writing, or such like defect as may not extend to or include the want of intrinsic fairness and honesty; or when the party in possession shall hold the same by a certificate of headright, land warrant, or land scrip, with a chain of transfer down to him in possession. [Id.]

Art. 5509. [5674] [3342] [3193] Five years' possession.—Every suit to recover real estate as against a person having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, and paying taxes thereon, if any, and claiming under a deed or deeds duly registered, shall be instituted within five years next after cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. This article shall not apply to one in possession of land, who deraigns title through a forged deed. And no one claiming under a forged deed, or deed executed under a forged power of attorney shall be allowed the benefits of this article. [Id., Acts 1879, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1432.]

Art. 5510. [5675-5676] [3343] Ten years' possession.—Any person who has the right of action for the recovery of lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, shall institute his suit therefor within ten years next after his cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. The peaceable and adverse possession contemplated in this article, as against the person having right of action, shall be construed to embrace not more than one hundred and sixty acres, including the improvements or the number of acres actually enclosed, should the same exceed one hundred and sixty acres; but when such possession is taken and held under some written memorandum of title, other than a deed, which fixes the boundaries of the possessor's claim and is duly registered, such peaceable possession shall be construed to be co-extensive with the boundaries specified in such instrument. [Id.; P. D. 4621-24.]

Art. 5511. [5677] [3345] Land surrounded by other lands.—A tract of land owned by one person, entirely surrounded by a tract or tracts owned, claimed or fenced by another, shall not be considered inclosed by a fence inclosing the circumscribing tract or tracts, or any part thereof; nor shall the possession by the owner or claimant of such circumscribing land of such interior tract be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by Article 5510 unless the same be segregated and separated from the circumscribing land by a fence, or unless at least one-tenth thereof be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes. [Acts 1891, p. 76; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 78.]

Art. 5512. [5678] [3346] Possession by adjacent owner.—Possession of land belonging to another by a person owning or claiming five thousand acres or more of lands inclosed by a fence in connection therewith, or adjoining thereto, shall not be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by Article 5510 unless said land so belonging to another shall be segregated and separated by a substantial fence from said lands connected therewith or thereto adjoining or unless at least one-tenth thereof shall be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes or used for manufacturing purposes, or unless there be actual possession thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5513. [5679] [3347] [3196] Title by possession.—Whenever an action for the recovery of real estate is barred by any provision of this title, the person having such peaceable and adverse possession shall be held to have full title, precluding all claims.

Art. 5514. [5680] [3348] [3197] "Peaceable possession."—“Peaceable possession” is such as is continuous and not interrupted by adverse suit to recover the estate. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4621; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5515. [5681] [3349] [3198] "Adverse possession."—“Adverse possession” is an actual and visible appropriation of the land, commenced and continued under a claim of right inconsistent with and hostile to the claim of another.

Art. 5516. [5682] [3350] [3199] Possession by different persons.—Peaceable and adverse possession need not be continued in the same person, but when held by different persons successively there must be a privity of estate between them.

Art. 5517. [5683] [3351] [3200] Right of the State.—The right of the State shall not be barred by any of the provisions of this title, nor shall any person ever acquire, by occupancy or adverse possession, any right or title to any part or portion of any road, street, sidewalk or grounds which belong to any town, city or county, or which have been donated or dedicated for public use to any such town, city or county by the owner thereof, or which have been laid out or dedicated in any manner to public use in any town, city, or county in this State; provided, this law shall not apply to any alley laid out across any block or square in any city or town. [Id.; P. D. 4622-4; Acts 1887, p. 28; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 826.]

Art. 5518. [5684] [3352] Person under disability.—If a person entitled to sue for the recovery of real property or make any defense founded on the title thereto, be at the time such title shall first descend or the adverse possession commence:

1. A person, including a married woman, under twenty-one years of age, or

2. In time of war, a person in the military or naval service of the United States, or

3. A person of unsound mind, or

4. A person imprisoned, the time during which such disability or status shall continue shall not be deemed any portion of the time limited for the commencement of such suit, or the making of such defense; and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this title; provided, that notwithstanding a person may be or may have been laboring under any of the disabilities mentioned in this article, one having the right of action for the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying same, shall institute his suit therefor within twenty-five years next after his cause of action shall have accrued and not thereafter. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4621-4; Acts 1895, p. 35; Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., p. 139; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 765.]

Art. 5519. [5684a] [3352] Action barred in twenty-five years.—No person who has a right of action for the recovery of lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall be permitted to maintain an action therefor against one who holds such lands, tenements and hereditaments by peaceable, adverse claim of right in good faith under a regular chain of title, descending from the State of Texas with all the muniments of such title, duly recorded in the county where the land is situated for a period of twenty-five years prior to the accrual of such cause of action, and one so holding and claiming such lands, tenements and hereditaments under such title shall be held to have a good marketable title thereto. [Id.]

Art. 5520. [5694] Actions by vendors.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action has accrued and not afterward, all actions of the following description:

1. Actions to recover real estate by virtue of a superior title retained by the vendor in a deed of conveyance or purchase money note.

2. Actions for the foreclosure of the vendor's lien on real estate. [Acts 1905, p. 334; Acts 1913, p. 250.]

Art. 5521. [5694] Presumption of payment.—Purchase money or mortgage lien notes relating to real estate shall conclusively be presumed to have been paid after four years from the date of maturity of such notes unless extended as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5522. [5695] Lien continued in force.—When the date of maturity of either debt referred to in either of the foregoing articles is extended, if the contract of extension is signed and acknowledged as provided for in the law relating to the execution of deeds of conveyance by the party or parties obligated to pay such indebtedness as extended and filed for record in the county clerk's office in the county in which the land is situated, the lien shall continue and be in force until four years after maturity of the notes as provided in such extension, the same as in the original contract and the lien shall so continue for any succeeding or additional extension so made and recorded. The date of maturity set forth in the deed of conveyance or deed of trust or mortgage, or the recorded renewal and extension of the same, shall be conclusive evidence of the date of maturity of the indebtedness therein mentioned. Provided the owner of the land and the holder of the note or notes may at any time enter into a valid agreement renewing and extending the debt and lien, so long as it does not prejudice the rights of lien holders or purchasers subsequent to the date such liens became barred of record under laws existing prior to the taking effect of, or under this Act; as to all such lien holders or purchasers any renewal or extension executed or filed for record after the note or notes and lien or liens were, or are, barred of record and before the filing for record of such renewal or extension, such renewal or extension shall be void. [Acts 1925, p. 216.]

Art. 5523. [5693] Limitation as to deeds of trust, etc.—No power of sale conferred by a deed of trust or other mortgage on real estate executed subsequent to the 14th day of July, 1905, and prior to the 1st day of July, 1913, shall be enforced after the expiration of ten years from the maturity date of the indebtedness secured thereby, and no power of sale conferred by any deed of trust or other mortgage on real estate executed on or subsequent to the 1st day of July, 1913, or that may hereafter be executed, shall be enforced after the expiration of four years from the maturity of the indebtedness secured thereby, and any such sale under such powers after the expiration of such times, shall be void, and such sale may be enjoined and the lien created in any such deeds of trust or mortgages as were executed subsequent to the 14th day of July, 1905, and prior to the 1st day of July, 1913, shall cease to exist ten years after the maturity date of the debt secured thereby, and as to all deeds of trust or mortgages as were executed on or subsequent to the 1st day of July, 1913, or that may hereafter be executed, the lien created thereby shall cease to exist four years after the maturity of the debt secured thereby; provided, if several obligations are secured by said mortgage or deed of trust, the same may be enforced at any time prior to four years after the note or obligation last maturing has matured and may be enforced as to all notes and obligations not then barred by the four years statute of limitations; provided, the lien created by such deeds of trust or other mortgages may be extended by an agreement in writing acknowledged by the parties thereto and filed and recorded in the manner provided for the acknowledgment and record of conveyance of real estate.

2. LIMITATION OF PERSONAL ACTIONS.

1. Actions for malicious prosecution or for injuries done to the character or reputation of another by libel or slander.

2. Actions for damages for seduction, or breach of promise of marriage. [Acts 1897, p. 12; Act Feb. 5, 1841; Acts Feb. 2, 1860; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1066.]

Art. 5525. [5686] Survival of cause of action.—Causes of action upon which suit has been or may hereafter be brought for personal injuries, or injuries resulting in death, whether such injuries be to the health or to the reputation, or to the person of the injured party, or for injuries resulting in death, shall not abate by reason of the death of the person against whom such cause of action shall have accrued; but, in the case of the death of either or both, such cause of action shall survive to and in favor of the heirs and legal representatives of such injured party and against the person, or persons liable for such injuries and his or their legal representatives, and may be instituted and prosecuted as if such person or persons against whom same accrued were alive. [Acts 1925, p. 299.]

Art. 5526. [5687-98] [3354-63] [3203-12] Actions to be commenced in two years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within two years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions of trespass for injury done to the estate or the property of another.

2. Actions for detaining the personal property of another, and for converting such property to one's own use.

3. Actions for taking or carrying away the goods and chattels of another.

4. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is not evidenced by a contract in writing.

5. Actions upon stated or open accounts, other than such mutual and current accounts as concern the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents. In all accounts, except those between merchant and merchant, as aforesaid, their factors and agents, the respective times or dates of the delivery of the several articles charged shall be particularly specified, and limitation shall run against each item from the date of such delivery, unless otherwise specially contracted. [Acts 1841, p. 163; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627.]

6. Action for injury done to the person of another.

7. Action for injury done to the person of another where death ensued from such injury; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued at the death of the party injured. [Acts 1897, p. 12; Acts 1841, p. 163; Acts 1852, p. 128; P. D. 4604; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1066; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1006.]

8. Actions of forcible entry and forcible detainer.

Art. 5527. [5688] [3356] [3205] What actions barred in four years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is evidenced by or founded upon any contract in writing.

2. Actions for the penalty or for damages on the penal clause of a bond to convey real estate.

3. Actions by one partner against his co-partner for a settlement of the partnership accounts, or upon mutual and current accounts concerning the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued on a cessation of the dealings in which they were interested together. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4604; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5528. [5689] [3357] [3206] On bond of executor, administrator or guardian.—All suits on the bond of any executor, administrator or guardian shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years next after the death, resignation, removal or discharge of such executor, administrator or guardian, and not thereafter. [Acts 1876, p. 102; P. D. 1375, 3923; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 938.]

Art. 5529. [5690] [3358] [3207] All other actions barred, when.—Every action other than for the recovery of real estate, for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed, shall be brought within four years next after the right to bring the same shall have accrued and not afterward.

Art. 5530. [5691] [3359] [3208] Actions on foreign judgments.—Every action upon a judgment or decree rendered in any other State or territory of the United States, in the District of Columbia or in any foreign country, shall be barred, if by the laws of such State or country such action would there be barred, and the judgment or decree be incapable of being otherwise enforced there; and whether so barred or not, no action against a person who shall have resided in this State during the ten years next preceding such action shall be brought upon any such judgment or decree rendered more than ten years before the commencement of such action.

Art. 5531. [5692] [3360] [3209] Actions for specific performance.—Any action for the specific performance of a contract for the conveyance of real estate shall be commenced within four years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not thereafter. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 87.]

Art. 5532. [5696] [3361] [3210] Judgment revived, when.—A judgment in any court of record, where execution has not issued within twelve months after the rendition of the judgment, may be revived by scire facias or an action of debt brought thereon within ten years after date of such judgment, and not after. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4608; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5533. [5697] [3362] [3211] On motion for returning execution.—Where execution has issued and no return is made thereon, the party in whose favor the same was issued may move against any sheriff or other officer and his sureties for not returning the same, within five years from the day on which it was returnable, and not after. [Id.; P. D. 4608.]

Art. 5534. [5699] [3364] [3213] On actions to contest a will.—Any person interested in any will which shall have been probated under the laws of this State may institute suit in the proper court to contest the validity thereof, within four years after such will shall have been admitted to probate, and not afterward. [Acts 1876, p. 94; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 930.]

Art. 5535. [5708] [3373] [3222] Limitations against infants.—If a person entitled to bring any action mentioned in this subdivision of this title be at the time the cause of action accrues either a minor, a married woman, a person imprisoned or of unsound mind, the time of such disability shall not be deemed a portion of the time limited for the commencement of the action and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this title.

Art. 5536. [5700] [3365] [3214] In forgery or fraud.—Any heir at law of the testator, or other person interested in his estate, may institute suit in the proper court to cancel a will for forgery or other fraud within four years after the discovery of such forgery or fraud, and not afterward. [Id.]

Art. 5537. [5702] [3367] [3216] Temporary absence.—If any person against whom there shall be cause of action shall be without the limits of this State at the time of the accruing of such action, or at any time during which the same might have been maintained, the person entitled to such action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such person after his return to the State and the time of such person's absence shall not be accounted or taken as a part of the time limited by any provision of this title. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5538. [5703-5704] Limitation after death.—In case of the death of any person against whom or in whose favor there may be a cause of action, the law of limitation shall cease to run against such cause of action until twelve months after such death, unless an administrator or executor shall have sooner qualified according to law upon such deceased person's estate; in which case the law of limitation shall only cease to run until such qualification. [Id. P. D. 4606.]

Art. 5539. [5705] [3370] [3219] Acknowledgment must be in writing.—When an action may appear to be barred by a law of limitation, no acknowledgment of the justness of the claim made subsequent to the time it became due shall be admitted in evidence to take the case out of the operation of the law, unless such acknowledgment be in writing and signed by the party to be charged thereby. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 630.]

Art. 5540. [5706] [3371] [3220] Limitation must be pleaded.—The law of limitation shall not be available in any suit unless it be specifically set forth by the party who in his answer invokes it as a defense. [Act Feb. 16, 1852; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1006.]

Art. 5541. [5707] [3372] [3221] Presumption of death.—Any person absenting himself for seven years successively shall be presumed to be dead, unless proof be made that he was alive within that time; but an estate recovered on such presumption, if in a subsequent action or suit the person presumed to be dead shall be proved to be living, shall be restored to him with the rents and profits of the estate with legal interest during such time as he shall be deprived thereof. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 627; P. D. 23.]

Art. 5542. [5709] [3374] 3223] Action against immigrant.—No action shall be brought against an immigrant to recover a claim which was barred by the law of limitation of the State or country from which he emigrated; nor shall any action be brought to recover money from an immigrant who was released from its payment by the bankrupt or insolvent laws of the State or country from which he emigrated. [Id. Sec. 13; P. D. 4618.]

Art. 5543. [5710] [3375] [3224] Debts incurred prior to removal.—No demand against a person who has removed to this State, incurred prior to his removal, shall be barred by the statute of limitation until he shall have resided in this State for the space of twelve months. Nothing in this article shall be construed to affect the provisions of the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 5544. [5711] [3376] [3225] One disability not tacked to another.—The period of limitation shall not be extended by the connection of one disability with another; and, when the law of limitation shall begin to run, it shall continue to run, notwithstanding any supervening disability of the party entitled to sue or liable to be sued.

Art. 5545. [5713] [3378] Agreement shortening period invalid.—No person, firm, corporation, association or combination of whatsoever kind shall enter into any stipulation, contract, or agreement, by reason whereof the time in which to sue thereon is limited to a shorter period than two years. And no stipulation, contract, or agreement for any such shorter limitation in which to sue shall ever be valid in this State. [Acts 1891, p. 20; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 22.]

Art. 5546. [5714] [3379] Notice of claims for damages.—No stipulation in a contract requiring notice to be given of a claim for damages as a condition precedent to the right to sue thereon shall ever be valid unless such stipulation is reasonable. Any such stipulation fixing the time within which such notice shall be given at a less period than ninety days shall be void, and when any such notice is required, the same may be given to the nearest or to any other convenient local agent of the company requiring the same. No stipulation in any contract between a person, corporation, or receiver operating a railroad, or street railway, or interurban railroad, and an employe or servant requiring notice of a claim by an employe or servant for damages for injury received to the person, or by a husband, wife, father, mother, child or children of a deceased employe for his or her death, caused by negligence as a condition precedent to liability, shall ever be valid. In any suit brought under this and the preceding article it shall be presumed that notice has been given unless the want of notice is especially pleaded under oath. [Acts 1891, p. 20; Acts 1907, p. 241.]

Art. 5548. [151] The writ and its requisites—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.)

Art. 5549. [152] Jury summoned.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.)

Art. 5550. [153] Cause docketed, etc.—The cause shall be docketed on the probate docket of the court in the name of the State of Texas as plaintiff, and of the person charged to be insane as defendant. The county attorney shall appear and represent the State on the hearing, and the defendant shall also be entitled to counsel; and in proper cases the county judge may appoint counsel for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5551. [154] Jury impaneled and sworn.—At the time appointed for the hearing or at any other time to which the proceeding may have been postponed, the cause shall be called for trial and a jury of six men impaneled, to whom shall be administered the following oath:

“You and each of you do solemnly swear that upon all the issues about to be submitted to you in the matter of the State of Texas against A B, you will a true verdict render according to the evidence. So help you God.”

Art. 5552. [155] Special issues submitted.—After the evidence is heard the county judge shall submit the matter to the jury upon the following special issues:

1. Is A B, the defendant, of unsound mind?
2. If the defendant is of unsound mind, is it necessary that he should be placed under restraint?
3. If you answer both the foregoing questions in the affirmative, then what is the age and nativity of the defendant?
4. How many attacks of insanity has he had, and how long has the present attack existed?
5. Is insanity hereditary in the family of defendant or not?
6. Is defendant possessed of any estate, and if so, of what does it consist and its estimated value?
7. If the defendant is possessed of no estate, are there any persons legally liable for his support? If yea, name them.

[Acts 1876, p. 138.]

Art. 5553. [156] Verdict.—The jury shall return plain answers in writing to the issues named in the preceding article, but, if they find either the first or second issues in the negative, they need not determine further, and the defendant shall be discharged.

Art. 5554. [157] Judgment.—“Upon return of a verdict finding that the defendant is of unsound mind and that it is necessary that he be placed under restraint, judgment shall be entered adjudging the defendant to be a person of unsound mind and ordering him to be committed for restraint and treatment to any insane asylum operated by the State of Texas in which there may be available room, or delivered into the custody of the United States Veterans' Bureau, or to any other agency or department of the United States Government required or authorized by law to furnish care or treatment to such person of unsound mind in those cases where such agency of the United States will accept such person.” [Acts 1925, p. 234.]

Art. 5555. 158-9] Reimbursement to the State.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 214.)

Art. 5556. [160] County attorney to represent State.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.)

Art. 5557. [161] Warrant to convey lunatic to asylum.—“Immediately after any person is adjudged a person of unsound mind, the county judge shall communicate with the superintendents of the insane asylums within this State, and if it is ascertained that there is a vacancy in any of such asylums, or that the patient may be accommodated therein, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff or to some other suitable person directing him to convey the person of unsound mind to the asylum designated in such warrant, which warrant shall also prescribe the number of guards to be allowed, not to exceed two, and the same shall be executed with all convenient dispatch, provided, that in any case where the United States Veterans' Bureau or any other agency or department of the United States Government will accept such person of unsound mind for care or treatment, that he shall be delivered into the custody of such bureau or department of the United States instead of to the insane asylum of the State; provided further that the State of Texas shall not in any event become liable for any expense in connection with the care or treatment of those persons delivered to the United States Government as provided herein.”—[Acts 1925, p. 234.]

Art. 5558. [162] Relative or friend may give bond, etc.—No warrant to convey a lunatic to the asylum shall issue if some relative or friend of the lunatic will undertake, before the county judge, his care and restraint and will execute a bond in a sum to be fixed by the county judge, payable to the State of Texas, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that the party giving such bond will restrain and take proper care of the lunatic so long as his mental unsoundness continues or until he is delivered to the sheriff of the county or other person, to be proceeded with according to law, which bond shall be filed with and constitute a part of the record of the proceedings, and may be sued and recovered upon by any party injured, in his own name. [Id.]

Art. 5559. Record of proceedings and notice.—“The proceedings in any inquisition to determine whether a person is of unsound mind shall be entered of record in the probate minutes of the county court by the clerk thereof; and before any patient is sent to any asylum or is delivered to the United States for care and treatment as provided in Sections 1 and 2 hereof, the county judge shall cause a complete transcript of the proceedings to be made up and certified by the clerk of the county court under the seal of said court, which transcript he shall forward by mail to the superintendent of the asylum or to the medical officer in charge of the United States Government hospital to which such patient may be sent.” [Acts 1925, p. 235.]

Art. 5560. [164] Clothing to be provided.—Before sending any patient to the asylum, the county judge shall take care that the patient is provided with two full suits of substantial summer clothing and one full suit of substantial winter clothing.

Art. 5561. [165] Officers' fees.—In such cases the officers and jurors shall be allowed the same fees upon conviction, as are now allowed for similar services performed in misdemeanor cases in the justice courts, to be paid out of the estate of the defendant if he have an estate, otherwise by the county on accounts approved by the county judge. [Acts 1903, p. 110.]

Art. 5562. Appointing Board.—The Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture and the Banking Commissioner shall constitute a board which with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint biennially a suitable person as Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses to fill such office for a term of two years. Said Commissioner may for cause be removed at any time by the board. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 5563. The Commissioner.—The word "Commissioner," as used in this title, shall mean the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas. He shall be furnished proper quarters to be selected by the Governor, to meet the requirements of his department. He shall give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Governor and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 5564. Employees and expenses.—The Commissioner with the consent of said Board may employ a chief clerk, and such other help as may be necessary. Such help, other than the chief clerk, shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by the Commissioner and approved by the board. The Commissioner and such employees when traveling on official business shall receive actual necessary expenses. All expenditures, including expenses of administering this department shall be paid by a warrant drawn by the Comptroller on the State Treasurer, on accounts approved by the Commissioner or on his authority. [Id.]

Art. 5565. May examine affairs.—The Commissioner and each person appointed by him shall have authority to administer oaths for the purpose of this law, and under the direction and at the instance of the Commissioner, such persons may, upon their warrants, examine into the affairs of any gin or corporation licensed under this Act. [Id.]

Art. 5566. Statistics.—The Commissioner shall collect, from every source available, information concerning stocks on hand and the probable yield of farm and ranch products, and disseminate the same. [Id.]

Art. 5567. To establish agencies.—The Commissioner shall establish agencies for the sale of farm, orchard, and ranch products, wherever it may be deemed advisable, in which event he is empowered to prescribe all regulations for the conduct of such agencies as may be found necessary. [Id.]

Art. 5568. [7819] "Public Warehousemen" and "Warehouse".—Any person, firm, company, or corporation who shall receive cotton, wheat, rye, oats, rice, or any kind of produce, wares, merchandise, or any personal property in store for hire, shall be deemed and taken to be public warehousemen.

A warehouse, within the meaning of this law shall be a house, building, or room in which any of the above mentioned commodities are stored and are protected from damage thereto by action of the elements. [Acts 1901, p. 251, Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 93, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 138.]

Art. 5569. [7820] Certificate and bond.—The owner, proprietor, lessee or manager of any public warehouse, whether an individual, firm or corporation, before transacting any business in such public warehouse shall procure from the county clerk of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, a certificate that he is transacting business as a public warehouseman under the laws of the State of Texas, which certificate shall be issued by said clerk upon a written application, setting forth the location and name of such warehouse or warehouses, and the name of each person, individual or a member of the firm, interested as owner or principal in the management of the same, or, if the warehouse is owned or managed by a corporation, the name of the president, secretary and treasurer of such corporation shall be stated, which application shall be received and filed by such clerk and preserved in his office, and the said certificate shall give authority to carry on and conduct the business of a public warehouse and shall be revokable only by the district court of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, upon a proceeding before the court, by written petition of any person, setting forth the particular violation of the law, and upon process, procedure and proof, as in other civil cases. The person receiving a certificate, as herein provided for, shall file with the county clerk granting same, a bond payable to the State of Texas, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said clerk, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as a public warehouseman, which bond shall be filed and preserved in the office of such county clerk. [Acts 1901, p. 251, Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 93.]

Art. 5570. [7821] Receipts and duplicates.—On application of the owner or depositor of the property stored in a public warehouse, the warehouseman shall issue over his own signature, or that of his duly authorized agent, a public warehouse receipt therefor, to the order of the person entitled thereto; which receipt shall purport to be issued by a public warehouse, shall bear the date of the day of its issue, and shall state upon its face the name of the warehouse and its location, the description, quantity, number and marks of the property stored. Where such receipt is for cotton it shall state the class and weight, and the date on which it was originally received in warehouse, and that it is deliverable upon return of the receipt properly indorsed by the person to whose order it was issued, and on payment of all charges for storage, and insurance, which charges shall be stated on the face of the receipt. All such receipts shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their issue. A correct record of such receipts shall be kept in a well bound book, which shall be at all reasonable hours, open to an examination by any interested person. No two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during the same year, nor shall any duplicate receipts be issued, except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case the new receipt shall bear the same date and number as the original, and shall be plainly marked on its face, "duplicate." No such duplicate receipt shall be issued by the public warehouseman until adequate security acceptable to the warehouseman be deposited with or to the order of said warehouseman, to protect the party or parties who may finally hold the original receipt in good faith and for a valuable consideration. [Acts 1901, p. 251; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 94.]

Art. 5571. Cotton under lien.—If there is any incumbrance or lien of any kind on said cotton at the time of its storage the nature and amount of same shall be clearly set out and it is hereby made the duty of the public warehouseman or his authorized agent issuing the receipt, to have said blank filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton before issuing a negotiable receipt against same. Such statement need not be made if a non-negotiable receipt is desired, but in such cases the public warehouseman issuing said receipt shall write or stamp across the face thereof the words "not-negotiable." [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 95.]

Art. 5572. Exchange of receipt.—If a person holding a non-negotiable receipt for cotton as is herein provided for, shall desire to obtain a negotiable receipt in lieu thereof, he shall return said non-negotiable receipt to the public warehouse issuing same and thereupon shall comply in every respect with the provisions of this chapter relating to negotiable receipts, and upon compliance therewith a negotiable receipt shall be issued to him.

in lieu of said non-negotiable receipt, and said negotiable receipt thereupon shall be canceled, and the word "canceled" plainly marked in ink across the face thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5573. Delivery must precede receipt.—No public warehouse receipt shall be issued except upon the actual previous delivery of the goods in the public warehouse or on the premises, and under the control of the public warehouseman by whom it purports to be issued; and the name of the warehouse shall invariably be specified in such receipt. [Id.]

Art. 5574. Delivery from warehouse.—On the presentation and return to the warehouseman of any public warehouse receipt issued by him and properly indorsed, and the tender of all proper warehouse charges upon the property represented by it, such property shall be delivered immediately to the holder of such receipt; but no public warehouseman who shall issue a receipt for goods shall, under any circumstances or upon any order or guarantee whatsoever, deliver the property for which receipts have been issued, until the said receipt shall have been surrendered and canceled except in case of lost receipts. In default of strict compliance with the provisions of this article, he shall be held liable to the legal holder of the receipt for the full value of the property therein described, as it appeared on the day of the default, and shall also be liable to the special penalty herein provided. Upon delivery of the goods from the warehouse, upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked in ink across its face with the words "Canceled" with the name of the person canceling the same, and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put in circulation. [Id.]

Art. 5575. Cannot limit liability.—No public warehouseman shall insert in the public warehouse receipt issued by him any language limiting or modifying his liabilities or responsibilities as imposed by the laws of this State, excepting, "not accountable for leakage or depreciation," or words of like import and meaning. [Id.]

Art. 5576. Receipt negotiable.—The receipt issued against property stored in a public warehouse, as herein provided for shall be negotiable and transferable by endorsement in blank or by special endorsement; and delivery in the same manner and to the same extent as bills of exchange and promissory notes now are, without other formality; and the transferee or holder of such public warehouse receipt shall be considered and held as the actual and exclusive owner, to all intents and purposes, of the property therein described, subject only to the lien and privilege of the public warehouseman for storage and other warehouse charges; provided, however, that all such public warehouse receipts as shall have the words "not negotiable" plainly written or stamped on the face thereof, shall be exempt from the provisions of this article; and provided, further, that no public warehouseman shall issue a warehouse receipt against his own property in his own warehouse; but, upon sale of such property in good faith may issue to the purchaser his public warehouse receipt in form and manner as herein provided, which issue and delivery of the receipt shall be deemed to complete the sale, and shall constitute the purchaser full owner, as aforesaid, of the property therein described. Nothing in this last clause shall be construed to exempt the issuer of said receipt for his own goods in his own public warehouse, from complying with and being subject in all respects, to all other articles of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5577. Exceptions.—Nothing in this law shall be construed to apply to private warehouses or to the issue of receipts by their owners or managers under existing laws, or to prohibit public warehousemen from issuing such receipts as are now issued by private warehousemen under existing laws. Such private warehouse receipts issued by public warehousemen shall never be written on a form or blank indicating that it is issued from a public warehouse, but shall, on the contrary, bear on its face, in large characters, the words, “not a public warehouse receipt.” [Id.]

Art. 5578. Application for charter.—Any number of persons, not less than ten, at least sixty per cent of whom shall be engaged in agriculture, horticulture, or stock-raising as a business, and not less than three-fourths of whom shall be resident citizens of Texas, may apply to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses for a charter to permit them to organize and operate as a co-operative association, under the provisions of this chapter. In cities of a population of forty thousand or over, the above provisions shall not apply. The application for such charter shall contain the information required by the general corporation laws, and also state the number of its directors, which shall not be less than three, nor more than twenty-five and the name and residence of those selected for the first year.

The application shall be accompanied by the affidavit of three of such applicants, showing that no less than fifty per cent of the capital stock is actually paid in, which capital stock shall be, in no instance, less than five hundred dollars, divided into shares of five dollars each. If the same has been paid in otherwise than in cash, then a detailed statement as to the kind, character, and value of the property in which paid shall be made a part of the affidavit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 5579. Powers of corporation.—Corporations chartered hereunder shall have the right to act and do, and perform generally, all things which may be done and performed by warehousemen. Such corporations may sell in the market all products of the farm, ranch or orchard, on a commission basis, or such other basis as may be agreed upon by them with their customers. They may purchase, construct or lease all such warehouses, landings and buildings, as may be necessary for their business. They may employ such other instrumentalities and agencies as may be necessary for the storage, preservation and marketing of farm, ranch, and orchard products, to the best advantage of the members and customers. They may loan money upon products placed in their warehouses; provided, that the amount loaned thereon shall not exceed seventy-five per cent of the market value of the property so placed with them. They may loan money upon chattel mortgages, to their members only, for the purpose of enabling them to make and mature their crops, but such chattel mortgages shall always be upon property of at least double the value of money loaned thereon. They may loan money on crop mortgages, but such crop mortgages must always be the first mortgage thereon, exclusive of the landlord's lien, and shall always be secured by an acreage, which, under ordinary general conditions, would produce double the amount loaned thereon. They may invest their capital stock and surplus in a home office building, and may also invest such capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits in United States bonds, Texas State bonds, county, city district, and municipal bonds, and road bonds in the State of Texas; provided, such bonds are issued by authority of law, and interest upon them has never been defaulted. Such corporations shall never receive deposits, nor discount commercial paper generally, but may make such character of loans and investments as are herein provided for; provided, such corporations shall never be permitted to loan money upon chattel mortgages, crop mortgages, or personal security, except to their members, and then only to enable them to make, mature, and gather their crops, or market their farm, ranch or orchard products. They may erect, purchase or lease, and operate warehouses, buildings, elevators, gins, storage tanks, silos, and such other places of storage and security as may be necessary for the storage, grading, weighing and classification of cotton, and all farm products, and for the purpose of preparing such products for the market.

Art. 5580. May issue bonds.—Such corporations shall have authority to contract debts, as have other business corporations, and may issue special bonds, to be known as "sinking fund bonds" as follows: They may invest all or any part of their capital stock in such securities as are herein designated for the payment or investment of their capital, which, when approved by the Commissioner, shall be deposited in the State Treasury. The interest on such investments shall be annually paid into the State Treasury, and be placed to the credit of the sinking fund for the liquidation of bonds of such corporations, and the interest shall be invested from time to time by the Commissioner in similar securities, which in turn shall be deposited in the State Treasury. Such securities, when so deposited in the State Treasury, shall remain there as the sinking fund out of which the principal sum of the bonds herein provided for shall be paid, and said securities shall not be used for any other purpose than to liquidate the bonds herein provided for, unless, and until, such sinking fund bonds have been paid; in which event, the securities herein provided for shall be returned to the corporation owning same, and shall become a part of the general assets of the corporation. After the investment in such securities has been made, the Commissioner shall grant authority to the corporation to issue bonds in double the amount of such original capital stock, to bear not greater than six per cent interest, and to run not exceeding thirty years. When said bonds have been issued and signed by the proper officers of the corporation, they shall be registered by the Commissioner. Said bonds shall show on their face that the principal thereon is secured by the securities herein required to be deposited in the State Treasury, and shall have plainly written, printed, lithographed, or engraved, on their face the words, "Sinking Fund Bonds of _____ State Bonded Warehouse," with the post-office address of the corporation, the blank space to be filled in with the name of the corporation. Said bonds shall show on their face that the interest contracted to be paid therein is secured to them by the general assets of the corporation. After said bonds have been issued and registered by the Commissioner they shall be returned to the proper officer of the corporation issuing them, and may then be by such corporation placed on the market and sold; but they shall never be sold at less than ninety per cent of their face value. [Id.]

Art. 5581. Fees and certificate.—When such an application for charter is filed with said Commissioner, and approved by him, the Secretary of State shall, upon notice of such filing and approval, and the payment of the following fees: Five dollars for five thousand dollars, or less; ten dollars for ten thousand dollars, or more than five thousand dollars; and twenty-five dollars for all over that amount, issue a charter to the applicants; and thereupon the Commissioner shall record said charter, and furnish the corporation a certified copy thereof; and he shall issue to the corporation a certificate of authority showing that it has complied with the laws of the State of Texas, and is authorized to do business until the last day of April of the succeeding year. No charter fee shall exceed twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5582. Bond.—Before said charter is delivered to the corporation, and before said certificate is furnished, the corporation shall execute, by its proper officers, a bond, payable to the State of Texas, the amount of such bond to be determined by the Commissioner. The amount of any such bond may be changed from time to time, in accordance with the volume of business done or to be done by the corporation; and such bond shall be approved by the Commissioner before it is filed. Such bond shall be conditioned that the corporation will observe all provisions of this law, and the rules of the Commissioner, in so far as its business is regulated and controlled by them; and that the corporation will exercise ordinary care in the storage, preservation, and handling of all farm, ranch, and orchard products intrusted to it for storage or sale, or both; and shall also guarantee the classification, weights, grades and measures made by the corporation, or under its authority, as approximately correct. [Id.]

Art. 5583. Breach and new bond.—The bond herein provided for shall indemnify any person who may be damaged by any statement made by the corporation, or under its authority, in any certificate it may issue for such product stored with it. Such bond may be sued upon by any person sustaining damage by reason of any breach of its condition, growing out of any fault or dereliction of duty by said corporation, or any person authorized to act for it. If any such bond shall become impaired from any cause, the Commissioner may require the maker to furnish a new and sufficient bond, by written notice, and if such impairment is not made good within thirty days after notice, the Commissioner shall have authority to proceed to close the doors of the corporation, liquidate its affairs, and discharge its debts, as is provided for in this chapter. In the event the Commissioner shall take charge of such corporation, he is empowered to collect by suit, or otherwise, the full amount of the bond, or so much thereof as is necessary, which taken with the other assets of the corporation, may be found sufficient to discharge its obligations. [Id.]

Art. 5584. Directors and meetings.—The property and business of corporations chartered hereunder shall be controlled and managed by a board of directors of not less than three, nor more than twenty-five in number, who shall be members of the corporation, and bona fide citizens of Texas, and no member of the board of directors of one such corporation shall be a member of a board of directors of any other such corporation. The directors shall be elected annually, at a general meeting of the directors of such corporation, which meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation. The notice of such meeting shall be mailed to each member at least two weeks before the date set for the same. Each member of the corporation, at all general and special meetings of the same, shall have one vote, and no more. The directors may appoint, or remove any officer or employee at pleasure. [Id.]

Art. 5585. Statement of affairs.—The Commissioner shall, also, at least twice each year, and more if deemed necessary, require each such corporation to file in his office upon forms prescribed by him, a statement of its affairs, showing the condition of its reserve fund, its assets and liabilities, and such other information as he may deem advisable. Such statement shall be made upon the oath of one of the managing officers of the corporation, and shall be attested by at least a majority of its directors. [Id.]

Art. 5586. Examination of affairs.—Every bonded warehouse corporation chartered under the laws of this State shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner, and he shall make, or cause to be made, an examination of the affairs and dealings of each such corporation, at its expense, at least once each year, and at such other times as the Commissioner may deem necessary. If, upon examination, any such corporation is found to be insolvent, or has exceeded its powers, or its business is being conducted in an unsafe manner, or it has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter within a reasonable time, not to exceed, in any event, thirty days, the Commissioner shall report the condition of the corporation to the Attorney General, who may bring such action as the necessities of the case and law may require.

Art. 5587. Expense of examination.—The expense of each regular and special examination of corporations chartered under this chapter shall be paid by the corporation examined, in such an amount as the Commissioner shall certify to be just and reasonable. Such expense shall be paid in proportion to the capital stock of the various corporations, as follows: Those with a capital stock of less than twenty-five hundred dollars shall not pay more than five dollars; those with a capital stock of two thousand five hundred dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, not exceeding ten dollars; those with a capital stock of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not less than ten thousand dollars, not exceeding twenty dollars; those with a capital stock of one million dollars or more, shall pay not exceeding two hundred dollars, for each examination. All money collected as examination fees shall be paid by the Commissioner directly into the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. [Id.]

Art. 5588. Amenable to general laws.—Every corporation organized under this chapter shall be amenable to and subject to all laws of this State governing corporations generally. [Id.]

Art. 5589. Limitation of authority.—No officer or employee shall have power to indorse, sell, pledge, or hypothecate any bond, note or other obligation received by such corporation, or any property deposited with it as warehousemen, until such power and authority shall have been given such officer or employee by the board of directors, in a meeting of the board, regularly called and held, a written record of which proceedings shall have first been made upon the minutes of the corporation; and all such acts of any officer or employe, indorsing, selling, pledging, or hypothecating any such pledge or property, shall, without the authority of the board of directors, as herein provided, be null and void. [Id.]

Art. 5590. Division of profits.—Every corporation organized hereunder may divide its profits among its members, in proportion to the amount of business transacted for each said member, after having paid dividends to each member, on the amount which each of said members has paid into the capital stock of the company, subject, however, to the following provisions: Twenty per cent of the net profit on each years business shall annually be paid into the reserve fund, until the reserve fund shall equal twice the amount placed in the capital stock at the time the corporation was chartered; the balance of the net profits shall be divided in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation; provided, that the subscribers to the capital stock shall first be entitled to a ten per cent dividend, or such less amount as may be stated in the by-laws for each year, before the remainder thereof is divided among the members in proportion to the amount of business transacted for each member. [Id.]

Art. 5591. Failure to obey law.—If any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter shall refuse to submit its books, and papers, and correspondence, for inspection, to the Commissioner or any of his authorized examiners; or, if any officer or directors of any such corporation shall refuse to be examined on oath touching the business and property of the corporation; or, if it shall be found to have violated its charter, or any law of the State binding upon it, the Commissioner shall report the facts to the Attorney General, who shall institute such proceedings against such corporation as is authorized to be instituted against insolvent corporations. [Id.]

Art. 5592. Certificate of qualification.—Before any such corporation shall be permitted to open its doors for business and in order for it to continue to transact business, the employe or officer in active management shall obtain a certificate from the Commissioner, certifying that he is qualified and authorized to perform the duties of said corporation. In order to receive such certificate such person must present satisfactory evidence to the Commissioner that he is competent to discharge the duties of such position. Upon receiving satisfactory evidence of qualification, and upon the payment of a filing fee of one dollar, the Commissioner may issue to any applicant therefor a certificate showing that such applicant is qualified. The life of any such certificate shall not exceed two years, at the expiration of which time the applicant must obtain a new certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5593. Unsafe corporation.—Whenever, after examination, the Commissioner shall have reason to believe that the capital stock of any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter is impaired, he shall, by written notice, require the corporation to make good the impairment. Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner, from any examination made by an examiner, that such corporation is conducting its business in an unsafe, and unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal, direct the discontinuance of such unsafe and unauthorized practice, and shall require a strict compliance with the requirements of the law. If wrong entries are made in the books of a corporation, or if wrong or unlawful uses of its funds have been made, the Commissioner shall require that such entries be corrected and such sums as were unlawfully paid out shall be restored to the corporation by the person or persons responsible for the wrongful use thereof. If any corporation shall refuse or neglect to make any such report as hereinafter required, or to comply with any such order as aforesaid, or whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that it is unsafe or inexpedient for any such corporation to continue to transact business, by reason of neglect or mismanagement, or that any officer or director has abused his trust, or has been guilty of misconduct, or of malversation of his official position, injurious to the institution, or that it has suffered a serious loss by fire, repudiation, or otherwise, the Commissioner shall communicate the facts to the Attorney General, who shall institute such proceedings as the nature of the case may require. [Id.]

Art. 5594. Forced liquidation.—The court, or judge, in term time or vacation, before whom such proceedings may be instituted, shall have power to grant such orders as may be necessary to grant such relief as the evidence and the situation of the parties may require. If, from any examination made by the examiner, it shall be discovered that any such corporation is insolvent, or that its continuance in business will seriously jeopardize the interest of its stockholders or its creditors, the Commissioner shall immediately close such corporation, and shall take charge of all its property and effects. Upon taking charge of any such corporation, the Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable, ascertain by a thorough examination into its affairs, its actual financial condition. If the Commissioner shall become satisfied that such corporation cannot resume business or liquidate its indebtedness to the safety of its shareholders and its creditors, he shall report the fact of its insolvency to the Attorney General. Upon receipt of such notice and information, the Attorney General shall institute proper proceedings, for the purpose of having a receiver appointed to take charge of such corporation, and to wind up its affairs and business for the benefit of its creditors and members; and the court, or judge thereof, in term time or vacation, after such notice and hearing, if it appear necessary, shall appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and effects of said corporation, for the purpose of winding up the business thereof. The Commissioner may appoint a special agent to take charge of the affairs of any such insolvent corporation, until a receiver is appointed. The special agent so appointed shall qualify, give bond, and receive compensation, the same as regularly appointed warehouse examiners; such compensation to be paid by the corporation out of its assets, when allowed by the court as costs in the case of the appointment of a receiver. In no case shall any corporation continue in charge of such special agent for a longer period than sixty days. [Id.]

Art. 5595. Voluntary liquidation.—Any such corporation may place its affairs and effects under the control of the Commissioner, on notice to him, and by posting a notice on its front door as follows: "This institution is in the hands of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas." The posting of this notice, or a similar notice, by the Commissioner, or under his direction, that he has taken possession of any corporation, shall be sufficient to place the property and assets of the corporation, of whatever nature, in possession of said Commissioner and shall operate as a bar to any and all attachment proceedings. [Id.]

Art. 5596. Warehouse examiners.—The Commissioners shall, from time to time, appoint such number of State warehouse examiners as he may deem necessary to make examination of public warehouses, and corporations chartered under this chapter, which number shall at no time exceed one examiner for each fifty corporations and public warehouses subject to examination under this chapter and laws of this State. As full compensation for the performance of the duties of examiner, each person so appointed shall be entitled to receive a salary of not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, and all reasonable necessary expenses, including hotel bills. An itemized and sworn account of such expenses shall be presented to the Commissioner for approval. Every warehouse examiner appointed by the Commissioner shall be a cotton grader and classer, and a competent book-keeper. Such examiner shall first make and file with the Commissioner an affidavit that he will make fair and impartial examinations; that he will not accept directly or indirectly any gift or pay for any service done in the line of his duty other than the pay fixed by law, and that he will not reveal the condition of any corporation or public warehouse examined by him, or give out any information secured in the course of any examination to any one except the Commissioner and except when requested to do so in court. [Id.]

Art. 5597. Appointment of examiners.—No such examiner shall be appointed who is, at the time, an officer or stockholder in any warehouse company or corporation, or who owns any interest in any warehouse; or in any firm or corporation engaged in the purchase or sale of farm, ranch or orchard products, on commission or otherwise. No such examiner shall be appointed receiver of any State bonded or public warehouse company whose papers and affairs he shall have examined. Each such examiner shall give a bond payable to the State of Texas, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Commissioner, conditioned that he will faithfully perform his duties as such examiner. [Id.]

Art. 5598. May deny or revoke permit.—The Commissioner shall have power to deny a permit to do business under this chapter and to revoke a permit when in his judgment there are sufficient warehouse facilities at the point where a new corporation may desire to do business. [Id.]

Art. 5599. Safety first.—The Commissioner shall have power to prohibit the storage of cotton or other inflammable commodities in an unsafe building, or require a storage house to be remodeled within certain specified dates, so as not to unduly hamper the conduct of the business and the convenience of the public. [Id.]

Art. 5600. Fire insurance.—The Commissioner shall require fire insurance by blanket policies or individual policies, in some solvent insurance company chartered under the laws of this State or having a permit to do business in the State, to be carried by all public warehouses and all warehouse corporations operating under this chapter, and to require such other means and methods of protection from fire and weather, or depreciation of warehouse property, as the Commissioner may deem necessary in each case. No fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company, doing business in this State shall expose itself to any one risk, either upon buildings of any character, or their contents, except when insuring cotton in bales, and grain, in an amount exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate of the paid up capital stock, and surplus, unless the excess shall be reinsured by such company in some other solvent insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5601. Charge for storage.—All charges for storage in warehouses operating under the provisions of this and the preceding chapter, shall be subject to limitation and regulation by the Commissioner to the extent of fixing a minimum charge therefor. The charges so fixed need not be the same at all places or at all times, but the Commissioner may take into consideration the local conditions, and the volume of business of each warehouse. In fixing charges for gin compressed cotton, consideration shall be given to the size of the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5602. Standards of weights and measures.—The standards of weights and measures of this State shall be the standards of weights and measures used under the terms and provisions of this chapter. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to establish standards of classifications of cotton, corn, and other farm and ranch products, of whatever kind and character, which may be subject to classification, and originals of such standards so established shall be maintained, subject to public inspection, in the office of the Commissioner at all reasonable times; and duplicates of such standards as well as the standards of weights and measures, shall be furnished by the Commissioner to all persons who may apply therefor, under the payment of the necessary cost thereof. It shall be the duty of each public warehouse company to keep a duplicate of said standards, as well as the standards of weights and measures, at its warehouse, subject to inspection and comparison of grades and classification by persons storing products therein; provided, that the standards of classification shall always be the standards established by the Government of the United States, or of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5603. Liability of corporation.—The liability of a corporation chartered and operating under this chapter for warehouse purposes, shall be that of a public warehouseman, and it shall have the same rights as a public warehouseman, including a lien for storage, insurance, and other warehouse charges, as well as for charges for any service performed by it. [Id.]

Art. 5604. Lien of corporation.—Such corporation shall also have a lien for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, cooperating, and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; and also, all reasonable charges and expenses for notice and advertisement of sale of goods, where sale has been made in satisfaction of the warehouseman's lien. [Id.]

Art. 5605. Satisfaction of lien.—A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as provided in the succeeding chapter. No publication fee shall be charged in excess of the rate now allowed by statute for the publication of legal notices. One notice of sale shall be placed at the court house door of the county in which the warehouse is located. If any goods are delivered to any person paying for the same and the warehouseman desires it, he may require a bond of indemnity as protection from claims of other persons. [Id.]

Art. 5606. Landlord's lien.—The landlord's lien on cotton or other farm products shall continue so long as the same are on storage in any warehouse, whether the same be a warehouse operated under this law or a private warehouse, provided a negotiable receipt has not been issued therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5607. Delivery of goods.—Upon the presentation and return to the warehouse of any warehouse receipt issued by its manager, and properly endorsed, and the tender of all proper warehouse charges upon the property presented by it, such property shall be delivered immediately to the holder of such receipt; but the manager of such warehouse shall not, under any circumstances, or upon any other guarantee, deliver the property upon which said receipts were issued until such receipts have been delivered and cancelled, except in case of lost receipts. Any such receipt, when returned and cancelled, shall be kept by the manager in his office, until ordered destroyed by the directors, for one year from date of cancellation. Upon delivery of the goods in a warehouse, upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked, or stamped in ink, across its face, with the word "cancelled," together with the name of the manager cancelling the same; and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put into circulation. [Id.]

Art. 5608. Forms.—The Commissioner shall prescribe all the forms of receipts, certificates and records, of whatsoever description necessary in the conduct of warehouses under this chapter, but all such receipts, certificates and forms shall be drawn in accordance with the terms of this title. All warehouse receipts shall be of uniform character, in the same class as prescribed by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5609. Negotiable receipt.—A negotiable receipt issued against goods or products stored in a warehouse under this chapter shall be negotiable and transferable by endorsement in blank, or by a special endorsement and delivery in the same manner and to the same extent as bills of exchange and promissory notes now are, without any formality. The transferee or holder of such warehouse receipt shall be considered and held as actual and exclusive owner, to all intents and purposes, of the property therein described, subject only to lien and privileges of the warehouse for storage, insurance, and other warehouse charges. All such warehouse receipts with the word “non-negotiable” plainly marked or stamped on the face thereof shall be exempt from the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 5610. Receipts.—All receipts shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their issuance, and a record of such receipt shall be kept at the office of the company. No two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during the same year, nor shall any duplicate receipt be issued, except in case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case a new receipt shall be issued, which shall bear the same date and number as the original, and shall be plainly marked on its face “Duplicate.” In addition to the other provisions, each receipt shall have a blank form on the back thereof, to be filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton or other products for which it is issued, showing whether a pre-existing and unsatisfied lien of any kind exists against it. If there be a landlord’s lien, or such unsatisfied lien, or incumbrance, or lien of any kind, on said cotton, or other products, at the time of its storage, the amount of the claim shall be clearly set out; and it is made the duty of the manager issuing the receipt to have said blank filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton, or other product before issuing a negotiable receipt for the same; provided, however, such statement may not be made if a non-negotiable receipt is desired. When cotton grown on rented or leased premises is tendered for storage in a State warehouse, in addition to the foregoing instruments, all receipts issued therefor shall be issued jointly, in the name of the owner and the landlord, showing their respective interests in such cotton, unless the tenant or person storing the same presents authority from the landlord, or from the tenant, as the case may be, requesting the issuance of a receipt in the name of the one or the other, which request shall be in writing, and filed with the manager of the warehouse. If the person holding a non-negotiable receipt desires to obtain a negotiable receipt in lieu thereof, he shall return the non-negotiable receipt to the warehouse issuing the same and thereupon shall comply in every respect with the provisions of this Act, relating to negotiable receipts, and upon compliance with which a negotiable receipt shall be issued to him in lieu of the non-negotiable receipt. When the non-negotiable receipt is surrendered or canceled, the word “canceled” shall be plainly marked or stamped in ink, across the face thereof. No warehouse receipt shall be issued except on the actual previous delivery of the goods in the warehouse or on the premises under the control of the manager thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5611. All warehouses included.—All warehouses now or hereafter operating under an Act passed by the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, and known as the "Public Warehouse Act," are hereby placed under the management and control of the Commissioner, and all chartered warehouses for the storing of farm, ranch or orchard products, not incorporated under this Act, may, by a majority vote of its stockholders, upon application to the Secretary of State, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars, amend their charter so as to come under this Act. Such warehouses shall make such bonds as the Commissioner may require, and such warehouses shall issue such receipts as are authorized by the Commissioner. [Id.]

SECTION 1. The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas is hereby abolished, and the authority, duties, powers, functions, rights, and liabilities, heretofore vesting in said commissioner, shall hereafter vest in and be had and performed by the Commissioner of Agriculture. The Markets and Warehouse Department and the Weights and Measures Department of the State of Texas are hereby abolished, and the duties and functions of the same shall hereafter vest in the Commissioner of Agriculture.

SEC. 2. The board, consisting of the Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture, and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, created by Chapter 5, of the General Laws enacted at the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, for the purpose of appointing a Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, is hereby abolished.

SEC. 3. The Board of Supervisors of Warehouses, consisting of the Governor, Commissioner of Agriculture, and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, created by Chapter 5, of the General Laws enacted at the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, is hereby abolished, and any authority, duties, powers, functions, rights, and liabilities of said board, existing under the law, shall hereafter vest in and be had and performed by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

SEC. 4. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall hereafter have and perform all the authority, duties, powers, rights, and liabilities heretofore vesting in the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, or the Banking Commissioner of Texas or the Commissioner of Insurance, if any, relative to warehouses, except such as are conferred upon said Commissioner of Insurance and Banking by the provisions of Chapter 3 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature of this State.

SEC. 5. The power and authority to administer the provisions of Chapter 5 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature; Chapter 41 of the General Laws of the First Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and Chapters 116 and 126 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature and such powers and duties as are conferred upon the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses by Chapter 22, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature and Chapter 38 of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature shall hereafter vest in the Commissioner of Agriculture, and it shall be his duty to administer said laws, or so much of same as may be in force.

SEC. 6. All appropriations heretofore made for the Markets and Warehouse Department and the Weights and Measures Department shall hereafter be available to the Commissioner of Agriculture to expend, as provided by law, in the execution of the work and the performance of the duties herein transferred; provided that the Commissioner of Agriculture shall be authorized to re-apportion and rearrange the duties of the office and of the employees and fix the salaries of said employees, where not fixed by law, and shall be authorized to discontinue any duties, work, or employees, in order to prevent a duplication of work already being performed, or authorized to be performed by the Department of Agriculture. [Id. p. 35.]

The above chapter abolishes the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses and confers some, if not all, of his powers and duties on the Commissioner of Agriculture. Chapters 1, 2 and 3 of Title 93 are retained herein in order that it may be ascertained therefrom what are the powers and duties of the Commissioner of Agriculture under said Chapter 13.

Art. 5612. Issue of warehouse receipts.—Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman. [Acts 1919, p. 215.]

Art. 5613. Form of receipt.—Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms:

1. The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored.
2. The date of issue of the receipt.
3. The consecutive number of the receipt.
4. A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order.
5. The rate of storage charges.
6. A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.
7. The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent.

8. If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and

9. A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

10. When a negotiable receipt is issued under the terms of this Act for cotton or other agricultural products stored in any warehouse operating under the terms of this Act, it shall, in addition to the other conditions mentioned herein, state the weight, grade, and condition of the same and shall state plainly whether such agricultural products are insured or not. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 5614. Conditions of receipt.—A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

1. Be contrary to the provisions of this chapter.
2. In any wise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods entrusted to him, which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 5615. Non-negotiable receipt.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 5616. Negotiable receipt.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted shall be void. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 5617. Duplicate receipts.—When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word “duplicate” shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damages caused by his failure so to do to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 5618. Non-negotiable receipt.—A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it, “non-negotiable,” or “not negotiable.” In case of the warehouseman’s failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable. This action shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 5619. Bound to deliver goods.—A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this law, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with:

1. An offer to satisfy the warehouseman’s lien.
2. An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and
3. A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is required by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 5620. Justified in delivery.—A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to the provisions of the three following articles, to:

1. The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent.
2. A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a non-negotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled either endorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or
3. A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been endorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee. [Id. Sec. 9.]

Art. 5621. Delivery to wrong person.—Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by Subdivision 1 and 2 of the preceding article and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivisions he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either:

1. Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property in or possession of the goods, not to make such delivery, or

2. Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods. [Id. Sec. 10.]

Art. 5622. Failure to cancel receipt.—Except as hereinafter provided, where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he has issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 5623. Partial delivery; failure to cancel.—Except as hereinafter provided, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 5624. Alteration of receipt.—The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was immaterial, authorized or made without fraudulent intent. If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration. Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 5625. Loss of receipt.—Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient securities to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The Court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs. The delivery of the goods under an order of the Court shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 5626. Effect of duplicate receipt.—A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability. [Id. Sec. 15.]

Art. 5627. Title in warehouseman.—No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. [Id. Sec. 16.]

Art. 5628. May make claimants interplead.—If more than one person claims the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead. [Id. Sec. 17.]

Art. 5629. Adverse claim.—If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. [Id. Sec. 18.]

Art. 5630. Failure to deliver.—Except as provided otherwise in this chapter, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. [Id. Sec. 19.]

Art. 5631. Relying on labels.—A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the non-existence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that the packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor. [Id. Sec. 20.]

Art. 5632. Must exercise care.—A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care. [Id. Sec. 21.]

Art. 5633. Care of goods.—Except as provided in the following article, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited. [Id. Sec. 22.]

Art. 5634. Mingled goods.—If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole. [Id. Sec. 23.]

Art. 5635. Care of mingled goods.—The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and re-delivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate. [Id. Sec. 24.]

Art. 5636. Surrender of receipt.—If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they can not thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. [Id. Sec. 25.]

Art. 5637. Rights of creditor.—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from the courts, by injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. [Id. Sec. 26.]

Art. 5638. Lien of warehouseman.—Subject to the provisions of the second succeeding article, a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of sale, and for sale of goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien. [Id. Sec. 27.]

Art. 5639. Lien enforced against goods.—Subject to the provisions of the second succeeding article, a warehouseman's lien may be enforced:

1. Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, and

2. Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted if such person has been so entrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in the good faith for value would have been valid. [Id. Sec. 28.]

Art. 5640. Loss of lien.—A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods by surrendering possession thereof, or by refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this law. [Id. Sec. 29.]

Art. 5641. Lien for charges.—If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of this law, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 5642. May refuse to deliver goods.—A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied. [Id. Sec. 31.]

Art. 5643. Collection of charges.—Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 5644. Satisfaction of lien.—A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows: The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain:

1. An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claims, showing the sum due at the time of the notice and the date or dates when it became due;

2. A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists;

3. A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claims as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail; and

4. A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

In accordance with the terms of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or, if such place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place. After the time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the depositor has elapsed, an advertisement of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose account the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the place where such sale is to be held. The sale shall not be held less than fifteen days from the time of the first publication. If no newspaper is published in such place, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before such sale in not less than six conspicuous places therein. From the proceeds of such sale, the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien, including the reasonable charges of notice, advertisements and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds shall be deposited with the county clerk of the county in which the warehouse is located and shall be delivered, on demand, to the person to whom the warehouseman would have been bound to deliver, or justified in delivering the goods, for which the receipt was issued. At any time before the goods are so sold any person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving notices and advertising and preparing for the sale up to the time of such payment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of this Act, to the possession of the goods on payment of charges thereon. Otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the original contract or deposit. [Id. Sec. 33.]

Art. 5645. Perishable or dangerous goods.—If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature, will be liable to injure other property, the warehouseman may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods, and to remove them from the warehouse, and in the event of the failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertising. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof. The proceeds of any sale made upon the terms of this article shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sales made under the terms of Article 5644. [Id. Sec. 34.]

Art. 5646. Remedy not exclusive.—The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the property. [Id. Sec. 35.]

Art. 5647. Effect of sale.—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature, the warehouseman shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable. [Id. Sec. 36.]

Art. 5648. Negotiation and transfer of receipts.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery:

1. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

2. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer or when a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee. [Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 5649. Negotiation by indorsement.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner. [Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 5650. Non-negotiable receipt.—A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A non-negotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such receipt gives the transferee no additional right. [Id. Sec. 39].

Art. 5651. Who may negotiate receipt.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the owner thereof or by any person to whom the possession or custody thereof has been entrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted, or if at the time of such entrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery. [Id. Sec. 40.]

Art. 5652. Title by negotiation.—A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

2. The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him. [Id. Sec. 41.]

Art. 5653. Title acquired by transfer.—A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferrer, the title of the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferrer. If the receipt is non-negotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt. Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferrer or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferrer, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferrer or a subsequent purchaser from the transferrer of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferrer. [Id. Sec. 42.]

Art. 5654. Who may compel indorsement.—Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferrer is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferrer to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made. [Id. Sec. 43.]

Art. 5655. Warranty.—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

1. That the receipt is genuine;
2. That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it;
3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and
4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby. [Id. Sec. 44.]

Art. 5656. Liability of indorser.—The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 5657. Implied warranty.—A mortgagee, pledgee or holder for security of a receipt who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described. [Id. Sec. 46.]

Art. 5658. Innocent purchaser.—The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was induced by fraud, mistake, or duress to entrust the possession or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress. [Id. Sec. 47.]

Art. 5659. Subsequent negotiation.—Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage, or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation. [Id. Sec. 48.]

Art. 5660. Purchaser for value.—Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right or stoppage in transit shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transit. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller, unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation. [Id. Sec. 49.]

Art. 5661. Who may become public warehouseman.—Any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association of persons, may become a public warehouseman under the provisions of this chapter by filing with the county clerk of the county in which he is located and proposes to do business, a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand dollars conditioned that he will conduct his business in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon the filing and approval of such bond with the county clerk, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to immediately certify such fact to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. Any one injured by the violation of the terms of the bond, and the provisions of this chapter may recover damages to the extent of said bond. Should said bond become impaired by recovery, or otherwise, said Commissioner may require such public warehouseman to file an additional bond, but in no event shall such additional bond be for a greater amount than five thousand dollars. The bond required hereunder shall be good for the term of one year from the date of filing and the right to continue as a public warehouseman shall be conditioned upon the renewal of said bond from year to year, according to the terms of this chapter. The form of the bond required hereunder shall be prescribed by said Commissioner, and the bond may be made by any surety company authorized to do business under the laws of this State; or by two solvent sureties to be approved by the county clerk of the county in which such public warehouseman may desire to do business. [Id. Sec. 56.]

Art. 5662. Commissioner to supervise.—The Commissioner may exercise a general supervision over all private warehouses operating under the provisions of this chapter, and may, in his discretion, prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of same not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 57.]

Art. 5663. Interpretation.—In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall govern. This law shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [Id. Secs. 59 and 60.]

Art. 5664. Definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise requires:

“Action” includes counter claim, set-off, and suit in equity.

“Delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

“Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is from its nature or by mercantile custom, treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

“Goods” means chattels or merchandise in storage, or which has been or is about to be stored.

“Holder” of a receipt means a person who has both actual possession of such receipt and a right of property therein.

“Order” means an order by indorsement on the receipt.

“Owner” does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

“Person” includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To “purchase” includes to take as mortgagee or as pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee.

“Receipt” means a warehouse receipt.

“Value” is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a receipt is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

“Warehouseman” means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods for profit.

A thing is done “in good faith” within the meaning of this law when it is in fact done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not. [Id. Sec. 61.]

Art. 5665. Citation of Act.—This Act may be cited as the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. [Id. Sec. 63.]

Art. 5666. “Ginners.”—All persons, partnerships, joint stock companies or corporations operating in this State any gin ginning cotton for commercial purposes shall be known as ginners, and shall be charged with the public use. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 5667. To obtain license.—All such ginners shall be required to obtain a license as a licensed ginner, from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, which license shall be renewed each year, upon the payment of an annual fee of one dollar. Application for such license shall be made to said Commissioner stating the location and amount of capital of the gin, by whom owned, by whom conducted, and the post-office address of the owner and operator. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond prescribed by the board. [Id.]

Art. 5668. Bond.—Such bond may be that of a bonding company authorized to do business in Texas, or may be a personal surety bond. In the event of a personal surety bond, such bond shall be renewed once each year. In no event shall a bond less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars be required of any ginner for each gin he may own. Said bond shall be payable to the State of Texas, for the use and benefit of all who may have a cause of action against the maker thereof under the provisions of this chapter and shall be conditioned that the cotton ginned by the ginner designated in the bond and in the application for license has been carefully ginned, and that no foreign matter or substance has been placed in the cotton, nor has any water nor anything that would increase the weight thereof been placed therein during the process of ginning or thereafter while the cotton was in the possession of the gin; and that the ginner will separate the dirt from the seed; and that any sample of cotton taken from the bale during the process of ginning, is a fair and true sample of the cotton in the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5669. Suit on bond.—Suit may be brought against the maker thereof on such bond in the name of the aggrieved party, without the necessity of binding the State in the suit. Said bond shall not be void on first recovery but repeated suits may be brought on one bond until the amount of same has been exhausted. When the bond has become impaired by reason of any judgment thereon, the maker thereof shall be required to give a new bond, or make good the impairment; otherwise the board shall cancel his license as a public ginner. [Id.]

Art. 5670. Ginner to take sample.—Each licensed ginner shall take from each bale of cotton ginned by him one fair, true, and correct sample of cotton, unless requested in writing by the owner of the cotton, not to do so. When a sample of cotton is taken, such sample shall weigh not less than four nor more than six ounces; and the ginner shall wrap the same tightly in a sample wrapper, to secure a reasonable degree of compactness. Such sample shall be taken in three draws, as nearly as practicable, representing three parts of a bale. Any ginner who takes a sample from a bale of cotton, under the provisions of this Act, may, at his option, take and file a like sample from such bale for protection under the bond given by such ginner. [Id.]

Art. 5671. Certificate with sample.—With each sample of cotton there shall be placed a certificate, under the signature of the ginner, that same is a fair and true sample, as far as said ginner may be able to determine; and that the ginner guarantees no fraud was practiced in taking such sample; and that it was taken from the bale in such manner as to secure a correct sample of the cotton in the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5672. Certificate of guarantee.—Whether or not a sample of the bale of cotton so ginned shall be requested and taken by the ginner, the ginner shall nevertheless, place with each bale of cotton ginned by him a certificate guaranteeing under his bond that during the process of ginning, or thereafter, while the cotton was in the possession of the ginner, no water or foreign substance of any nature had been placed with such cotton, with intent to defraud. Such certificate shall bear the name and address of the person for whom the cotton was ginned, the number of the bale on the books of the ginner, and the weight of the bale at the gin. [Id.]

Art. 5673. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall have power and authority, and it shall be his duty to enforce all provisions of this chapter relating to ginner and to regulate and control them in all matters relating to the performance of their duties as such. [Id.]

Art. 5674. Cotton Board.—All matters relating to the issuance of a ginner's license, and all rules and regulations pertaining to gins, ginning, and ginner, as authorized and required by any provision of this chapter shall be subject to review for affirmation, modification or rejection, by a board hereby created to be known as the Cotton Board, which Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of Agriculture, Banking Commissioner, and the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. The last named Commissioner shall be chairman of the said board, and shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to convene said board at all reasonable necessary times, to hear and decide all questions properly coming before it for review and decision. All rules, regulations, and acts of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, or of said board, pertaining to gins, ginner, and ginning, shall be subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5675. Marking cotton.—Each licensed and bonded ginner shall place in letters and figures, on one side of each bale of cotton ginned by him, in appropriate and distinct letters, the following: "B....." and "B. G....." The manner of marking for identification may at any time be changed or regulated by the Commissioner. The first blank above indicated shall be filled in by the ginner by placing the same number, numerically, as that of the bale, as shown on the books of the gin ginning the same; and the letter "B", shall stand for "bale". The second blank shall be filled in by the ginner, by inserting the number of the gin license assigned to it by the Commissioner; and the letters "B. G.", when so used, shall stand for "Bonded Gin." [Id.]

Art. 5676. Wrapping cotton.—Each bale of cotton ginned by a licensed and bonded ginner in this State shall be so wrapped that the bale will be completely covered when compressed and that the ends of the bale shall be closed and well sewed. The quality of the bagging shall at all times be such that the markings thereon will, under ordinary conditions, remain intact and visible. [Id.]

Art. 5677. [1322] Baling of cotton regulated.—Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, owning or operating a compress in this State, and their agents and employes, are hereby required, in compressing, recompressing, baling or rebaling cotton bales, to so bind and tie every bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, that no such bale shall be delivered to any railroad company, or other common carrier, by such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, their agents or employes, unless such bale of cotton shall be free from all or any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale of cotton. Any such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, who shall fail to bind or tie any such bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, in the manner above provided, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered, any such bale of cotton to any railroad company, or other common carrier, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, which may be recovered in a civil suit brought in the name of the State.. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 118.]

Art. 5678. [1323] Liability.—Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, receiving for storage, loading for transportation, or transporting, any such compressed bale or bales of cotton, in this State, containing any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton, shall be liable in damages for injury to any person in the employ of such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, occasioned by reason of such dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles, or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton while in the discharge of the duties of such employment. The duty of inspection of such bales of cotton shall be on the employer and not the employee. [Id.]

Art. 5679. [1324] Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall see that the provisions of the two preceding articles are observed and enforced. He shall obtain and collect evidence of any violation thereof upon the part of any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons engaged in the business of compressing cotton, who shall fail to comply with said provisions. Said commissioner shall file annual statements with the Governor, showing in detail all expenses incurred by him in connection with his duties under this law. [Id.]

Art. 5680. "Public weigher" defined.—Any person engaged in the business of public weighing for hire, or any person, who shall weigh or measure any commodity, produce or article, and issue therefor a weight certificate or weight sheet, which shall be accepted as the accurate weight upon which the purchase or sale of such commodity, produce or article is based, shall be known as a public weigher, and shall comply with the provisions of this chapter. The provisions of this article shall not apply to the owners, managers, agents or employees of any compress or any public warehouse in their operation as a warehouseman. This exemption shall not apply in any manner to any Texas port. [Acts 1919, p. 168.]

Art. 5681. [7828] [4308] Appointment.—The Governor is authorized and required to appoint five persons as public weighers in every city which receives annually one hundred thousand bales of cotton on sale or for shipment. In all cities and towns which receive as much as fifty thousand bales of cotton, twenty-five thousand tons of cotton seed; one hundred thousand bushels of grain or rice, one hundred thousand pounds of wool; five thousand barrels of sugar, or any other commodity in large quantities, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint a sufficient number of public weighers for such city or town to carefully and accurately weigh all produce tendered for the purpose of weighing for shipment. [Acts 1883, p. 83; Acts 1899, p. 264; Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5682. Recommendation for appointment.—No man shall be appointed as such weigher unless he shall receive the endorsement of the senator and a majority of the representatives from the senatorial district where such appointee would hold such office. [Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5683. [7828] [4308] Election.—In all counties in which there are no city or cities in which the Governor is authorized to appoint public weighers, there shall be elected at each general election a public weigher for each justice precinct in the manner and form governing the election of other precinct officers. The commissioners court at the regular February term preceding the election may unite two or more justice precincts for the purpose of electing such public weighers. [Id.]

Art. 5683a. Office—in cities not less than 25,600 population.—In and for all counties in this State having a population, according to the United States census of 1920, of not less than 25,600 people and not more than 25,700 people, there is created the office of public weigher, whose official headquarters shall be at the county seat of such county and who shall discharge and perform at the county seat only, all the duties required by law of any public weigher, and whose qualifications shall be the same as required by law of public weighers elected in precincts, and who shall appoint a sufficient number of deputies to enable him to discharge his duties.

2. Such public weigher shall take the oath required by the Constitution of public officers, and shall give a bond in the sum of $2,500.00, payable, conditioned and to be approved as required in cases of bonds of precinct public weighers, and shall procure a like certificate of authority from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. The deputies of such public weigher shall take such oath and give bond in like manner, which bond, however, shall in the case of such deputies be in the sum of $1,000.00.

3. At the first regular term of the commissioners' court of such counties, following the passage of this Act, such commissioners' court shall appoint a public weigher for its county, who shall serve until the next general election when his successor shall be elected.

4. This Act shall not be construed to suspend the operation of the present law, providing for the election of precinct public weighers, in the counties effected by this law.

Art. 5683b. Office—in cities not less than 55,700 population.—In and for all counties in this State having a population according to the United States census of 1920 not less than 55,700 and not more than 55,800 people, there is created the office of public weigher to be filled by two officers of equal rank, whose official headquarters shall be in the county seat of such county and who shall discharge and perform at the county seat only, all the duties required by law of any public weigher and whose qualifications shall be the same as required by law of public weighers elected in precincts, and who shall appoint a sufficient number of deputies to enable them to discharge their duties.

SEC. 2. Each of said public weighers shall take the oath required by the Constitution of public weighers and give a bond in the sum of $2,500, payable, conditioned and to be approved as required in cases of bonds of precinct public weighers, and shall procure a like certificate of authority from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses.

SEC. 3. Such public weighers shall be elected by popular vote of the entire county as other county officers. One of said weighers shall fill a place called Place No. 1 and the other shall fill the place called Place No. 2.

SEC. 4. This Act shall not be construed to suspend the operations of the present law, providing for the election of precinct public weighers, in the counties affected by this law except precinct in which the county seat is located, and it shall not disturb the present public weighers but shall take effect December 1, 1926.

Art. 5684. [7828] [4308] Qualifications of weigher.—No person shall be appointed or elected public weigher unless he is a qualified voter in the city or precinct for which he is appointed or elected and is of a good moral character and unquestioned integrity. He shall have a fair education and be able to keep an accurate set of books as required by this law. No person shall be appointed or elected public weigher, or deputy public weigher who is interested in the buying or sale of cotton, wool, sugar or grain to be weighed, either as principal, agent, factor, commission merchant or employee. [Id.]

Art. 5685. Term and removal.—All public weighers appointed by the Governor or elected for any precinct shall hold their office for the term of two years. [Id.]

Art. 5686. Abolishing elective office.—When the people of any subdivision of a county that has an elective weigher may wish to abolish said office of public weigher, the commissioners court of said county shall, upon petition to abolish said office signed by qualified voters at least one-third in number of the whole vote cast for Governor at the last preceding election in the weigher's precinct, order an election to decide whether such office of public weigher of the subdivision named in the petition, shall be abolished or not. Said election shall be held in the same manner as other elections. If a majority of the votes of the subdivision of the county ordering said election shall be cast in favor of abolishing any office of public weigher, the commissioners court shall declare such office to be abolished within thirty days after the election; and another election for this purpose shall not be held for two years.

Art. 5687. Bond of appointed weigher.—Every public weigher appointed by the Governor, shall file a bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will accurately weigh, or measure all produce tendered to him for weighing or measuring, and that all certificates of weights issued by him shall represent a true and accurate weight of the produce so weighed and that he will comply with the laws governing public weighers, and that he will not permit any one to molest, mutilate or destroy any article, produce or commodity while in his possession. Such bond shall not be void on first recovery, but may be sued on by any person injured by such public weigher. All bonds given by such public weighers or their deputies shall be subject to approval by the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. [Acts 1919, p. 122.]

Art. 5688. [7829] Bond of elective weigher.—Each public weigher elected for a precinct shall execute a bond payable to the county judge in the sum of five thousand dollars to be approved by the commissioners court, conditioned upon the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of his office. The bond of a weigher for a precinct where not over five thousand bales of cotton are received for sale or shipment shall be two thousand five hundred dollars. [Acts 1903, p. 216.]

Art. 5689. Filing bond and oath of office.—Each public weigher, whether elected or appointed, before entering upon his duties as such, shall take and subscribe to the official oath and file said oath and his bond with the county clerk of the county in which he resides. [Id.]

Art. 5690. Certificate of authority.—All public weighers or deputy public weighers, appointed or elected shall obtain from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses a certificate of authority to carry on the business of public weigher or deputy public weigher within the city, town, precinct or shipping point for which he was elected or appointed. [Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5691. Deputy weighers.—Each public weigher, appointed or elected, shall have the right, and it shall be his duty to appoint a sufficient number of deputies in each precinct, to weigh all produce tendered for the purpose of weighing, at any and all points within such precinct. He shall require of each of said deputies to file a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, under the same terms and conditions as the bond which he filed with the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, before he shall be permitted to engage in the business of deputy public weigher; such bond so filed, shall be payable to the State of Texas, and shall be subject to the approval of the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, and certified to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, before such deputy public weigher shall be entitled to engage in the business of public weighing. Such public weigher shall have the right to appoint a sufficient number of deputies to serve at will of the public weigher, to aid him in weighing or measuring any commodity that is tendered to him for weighing.

Art. 5692. Special weighers.—In all counties of this State in which there are two or more cities, towns or shipping points that receive as much as fifty thousand bales of cotton, or twenty-five tons of cotton seed, or one hundred thousand bushels of grain, or two hundred thousand bushels of rice, or one hundred thousand pounds of wool, or five thousand barrels of sugar, or any other commodity in large quantities, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint a sufficient number of weighers for such county to carefully and accurately weigh all commodities tendered for the purpose of weighing for shipment, sale or purchase. This article shall not apply to Galveston and Nueces counties. All such appointments shall be made by the Governor on the recommendation of the Senator from whose senatorial district such appointment is made, together with a majority of the representatives in the Legislature from such senatorial district. No man shall be appointed unless he shall receive the endorsement of the Senator and a majority of the representatives from such district. Every public weigher so appointed shall file a bond payable to the State of Texas, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will accurately weigh, or measure, all commodities tendered to him in said county for weighing or measuring, and that all certificates of weight issued by him shall represent a true and accurate weight of such produce so weighed, and otherwise complying with the law governing the conditions of bonds required of public weighers. Such bond so given shall not be void upon first recovery but may be sued on successively by any and all persons who are injured by such public weigher. Such public weigher shall have the right to appoint a sufficient number of deputies to aid him in weighing or measuring any commodity that is tendered to him for weighing. All bonds given by such public weighers or their deputies shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, and all bonds and oaths of such public weighers or their deputies shall be filed with said Commissioner. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 35.]

Art. 5693. Must comply with law.—No one shall be allowed to pursue the business of weighing for the public or grant a certificate or weight sheet upon which a purchase or sale is made unless he comply with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5694. Commissioner to supervise.—All public weighers in this State as provided for in this chapter, shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses and all weights made by them shall be subject to his approval. In any case where any discrepancy arises as to weights or measures of cotton or other farm products, made between public weighers in different sections of this State, or between public and private weighers, the difference shall be subject to review by the Commissioner; and any party who may be dissatisfied with the weights or measures of any public or private weigher, may appeal to the Commissioner, and have such cotton or other farm products re-weighed or re-measured, for the purpose of ascertaining and deciding the correct weight and measure thereof. The scales of all public and private weighers weighing cotton and other products shall at all reasonable times be subject to inspection by the Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative. Compliance with this article shall be absolute prerequisite to the right to institute and maintain any action concerning the subject matter hereof, in any court of this State. The authority herein conferred upon the Commissioner, to review the weights, shall not be construed as in any manner affecting the selection of public weighers or of fixing the charge to the public of such public weighers. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 68.]

Art. 5695. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses shall issue a certificate of authority to all persons engaged in the business of weighing for the public; carefully and accurately test all scales, weights, beams and measures, used by such public weighers at least once every twelve months, and charge such public weigher a fee of five dollars for such inspection, which fee shall be paid, by the Commissioner into the State Treasury; such inspection fee to be collected at the time of the certificate of authority is issued to any public weigher or deputy public weigher in this State, and such fee shall be collected annually thereafter from all persons engaged in the business of public weigher. [Id. p. 126.]

Art. 5696. Weight certificates.—The Commissioner shall prescribe the form of weight certificate to be used by all public weighers in this State, which certificate shall be known as a State certificate of Weights and Measures. Such certificate shall state thereon the kind of produce; the number of same, the date of the receipt of the produce, the owner, agent, or consignee, the total weight of the produce, the vessel, railroad, or other means by which the produce was received, and any trade or other mark thereon; and such other information as may be necessary to distinguish or identify the produce from a like kind. No certificate other than the one herein prescribed shall be used by any public weigher in this State, and such certificate when so made and properly signed, shall be prima facie evidence of such weight. All certificates of weights and measures or weight sheets as provided for in this chapter shall contain the accurate and correct weight of any and all commodities weighed when issued by public weighers. [Id. p. 126.]

Art. 5697. Seal.—Every public weigher in this State shall provide himself with a seal, consisting of a star of five points, and shall have inscribed on the outer margin thereof the words, "Public Weigher, Precinct No., County, Texas" or "Public Weigher, city, Texas" which seal shall be impressed upon each weight certificate issued by such public weigher, or deputy public weigher, on all weight sheets made out by them. [Id. p. 125.]

Art. 5698. Record of weights.—All public weighers shall keep and preserve in a well bound book a correct and accurate record of all weights by them, as provided in this chapter, which record shall at all times be open for inspection to the public and to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, his deputies or inspectors. Such record shall be uniform throughout the State, and the form of such record shall be prescribed by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5699. Piled or stored separately.—All amounts, lots, or shipments or consignments of produce, after having been weighed, shall be piled or stored separately as nearly as can be, in order that amounts, lots, shipments or consignments, may be distinguished from other lots, shipments, or consignments of like kind. [Id. p. 127.]

Art. 5700. To tag or mark article.—All public weighers in weighing any commodity, produce, or article, shall immediately tag or mark such commodity, produce or article that has been weighed by him so as to distinguish same from that which has not been weighed. [Id.]

Art. 5701. Re-weighing.—When any doubt or difference arises as to the correctness of the net or gross weight of any amount, or a part of a commodity, produce or article, for which a certificate of weight or measure has been issued, as provided in this State, by the public weigher, the owner, agent or consignee, may, upon complaint to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, have said amount, or part of any commodity, produce or article re-weighed by the Commissioner, or his deputy, or by a public weigher designated by the Commissioner by depositing with the Commissioner sufficient money to defray the cost of re-weighing such article or commodity. If on re-weighing, it is discovered that fraud or carelessness, or any faulty weighing apparatus was the cause of a discrepancy in weights, the cost of re-weighing shall, in all instances, be borne by the public weigher who issued the weight sheet or weight certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5702. Suspension or dismissal.—Whenever any public weigher, or deputy public weigher appointed or elected under the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of malfeasance in office, or who is grossly incompetent in the performance of his duties, he shall be subject to suspension or dismissal from office by the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, or by the Governor, should he be appointed by the Governor. In all cases it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, to file with the commissioners court or the Governor the specific charges alleging malfeasance, misfeasance, dishonesty or incompetency or other cause. Such case may be set down for hearing not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the filing of such charges. The accused shall be furnished a copy of such charges and be notified of the date set for hearing of his case. He shall have the right to be represented by an attorney, to introduce evidence in his own behalf, and to have compulsory process for witnesses and the production of records. If he is found guilty, the commissioners court or Governor shall immediately discharge him as a public weigher, provided, he may have the right of appeal to the district court of his county or to the district court of Travis county. [Id.]

Art. 5703. [7833] [4314] Factor or commission merchant.—It shall not be lawful for any factor, commission merchant, or other person or persons, to employ any other than a public weigher, or his deputies to weigh cotton, wool, sugar, hay, or grain, or other produce, sold or offered for sale in any city or justice precinct having a public weigher duly qualified. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be liable at the suit of the public weigher to damages in any sum not less than five dollars for each bale of cotton, bale or sack of wool, ton of hay, or ton of grain, so unlawfully weighed. [Id.]

from weighing his own cotton, wool, sugar, hay, grain or pecans in person. In places where there are no public weighers appointed or elected, any person who shall weigh cotton, wool, sugar, grain, hay, or pecans for compensation shall be required before weighing such produce to enter into a bond for twenty-five hundred dollars approved and payable as in case of public weighers referred to in this chapter, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office and turn over all property weighed by him on demand of the owner. This article shall not apply to merchant flouring mills. [Acts 1905, p. 117.]

Art. 5705. Commissioner to enforce law.—The Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses shall have power and authority to enforce, or cause to be enforced, any provision of this chapter. He shall appoint a chief deputy, who shall be known as Chief Deputy of Weights and Measures. In the absence or inability of the Commissioner, such deputy may perform any duty required by the provisions of this chapter. The Commissioner shall also appoint such additional deputies from time to time to serve as sealers of weights and measures, as may be provided for by appropriation. He may also designate such inspectors, lecturers, or employes, serving under him as Commissioner, as sealers of weights and measures. [Acts 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5706. Expenses.—Such deputies, together with the chief deputy and the Commissioner, shall be entitled to their actual traveling expenses when traveling on business for the State, and the Legislature shall provide from time to time by appropriation other estimated expenses to fully carry out the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5707. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall investigate conditions throughout the State, and especially in all the cities and towns in the State, with respect to weights and measures, and the sale of goods, wares and merchandise, commodities, food stuff and feed stuff sold in packages or containers, and also all kinds of feed, fuel or ice that is sold by weight or measure. The Commissioner shall annually report to the Governor, and shall, prior to each regular session of the Legislature, file a copy of such report made by him to the Governor, together with his recommendations, with the Legislature of the State. [Id.]

Art. 5708. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner shall issue instructions and make such rules and regulations for the government of all State sealers of weights and measures, deputy sealers, inspectors and local sealers, as he may see proper in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter. All such rules and regulations so issued by him shall have the same force and effect as if they were enacted into law. [Id.]

Art. 5709. Jurisdiction.—The jurisdiction of all State sealers, deputy sealers and inspectors appointed by the Commissioner shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and they shall have a right to inspect weights and measures in any and all districts or localities designated by the Commissioner. The jurisdiction of all local sealers of weights and measures appointed by the governing body of any city in this State shall be co-extensive with the limits of said city. [Id.]

Art. 5710. Same power as peace officer.—The Commissioner, his deputy, sealers or inspectors and all local sealers and their deputies in the performance of their official duties, shall have the same power as peace officers in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5711. Record of acts and reports.—The Commissioner shall keep in his office a complete record of all acts done by him; of all inspections made throughout the State, and a record of all prosecutions for the violation of any provision of this chapter. He shall keep an accurate record of the reports of all the various sealers of weights and measures, deputy sealers and inspectors appointed by him, or under his direction, as well as a record of the inspections of all local sealers of weights and measures appointed by the various cities of the State; such record shall always be open to the inspection of the public. Copies of such record may be had by application therefor, together with the necessary cost of making such copies. [Id.]

Art. 5712. Test of standard.—The standard of weights and measures received from the United States under a resolution of Congress, approved June 14, 1836, and such new weights and measures as shall be received from the United States as standard weights and measures in addition thereto, or in renewal thereof, and such as shall be procured by the State in conformity therewith and certified by the bureau of standards, shall be the State's standards by which all State and municipal standards of weights and measures shall be tried, authenticated, proved and sealed. [Id.]

Art. 5713. To keep and maintain standards.—The standards referred to in the preceding article shall be kept by the Commissioner in a safe and suitable place in his office, from which they shall not be removed except for repairs or certification. He shall maintain such standards in good order and shall submit them, at least once in ten years to the National Bureau of Standards for certification. He shall purchase such apparatus as shall be found necessary to a proper prosecution of the work of the office. [Id.]

Art. 5714. Shall establish tolerances.—The Commissioner shall establish tolerances and specifications for commercial weighing and measuring apparatus for use in this State, similar to the tolerances and specifications recommended by the National Bureau of Standards and he may establish a standard net weight or net count of any commodity, produce, or article, and prescribe such tolerances for same as he may in his best judgment deem necessary for the proper protection of the public. [Id.]

Art. 5715. Copies to cities.—The Commissioner shall, at the request of any city council, town council, city commission or any other such town or city body, furnish to them copies of the standard weights and measures of the State; such copies shall be furnished at the expense of any such city or town requesting the same. He shall, upon request of any such city council, town council, or city commission, test and accurately approve copies of the State's standards of weights and measures procured for the use of any such city or town, to be used by the sealer of weights and measures for such city or town. All copies furnished or copies tested and approved by the Commissioner shall be true and correct; shall be sealed and certified by the Commissioner and stamped with the letter "C." Such copies need not be of the same material or construction as the standards of the State and such copies may be furnished in any suitable materials or construction that the city or town requiring the same may specify, subject, however, to the approval of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5716. Correcting standards of cities.—The Commissioner shall inspect and correct the standards used by any incorporated city or town in this State at least once every two years and compare the same with others in his possession, and keep a record of the state of inspection and character of weights and measures so compared. [Id.]

Art. 5717. Sale of false devices.—The Commissioner shall have general supervision over all weights and measures and weighing and measuring devices sold or offered for sale in this State. If any false weights or measures are being sold, offered for sale, or about to be sold, he shall have full authority to condemn same and prohibit the sale and distribution of such false weights and measures, or weighing and measuring devices in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5718. Certified standard.—All sealers of weights and measures, or deputy sealers of weights and measures appointed under the terms and provisions of this law are prohibited from using for the purpose of comparison or verification in any official capacity any weights or measures, unless same have been certified to by the Commissioner. All expenses incurred in certifying to the correctness of the weights and measures or copies of the same used by any incorporated city or town in this State shall be paid by such city or town for whom the comparison or test is made. [Id.]

Art. 5719. Copies of original standard.—In addition to the standards heretofore referred to, and required to be kept by the State, the State shall also have a complete set of copies of such original standards of weights and measures adopted by this chapter, which shall be used for adjusting municipal standards by the Commissioner or his deputy in the performance of their duties, and the original standards shall not be used, except for the adjustment of this set of copies and for certification purposes. Additional complete sets of copies for such original standards of weights and measures may be purchased by the Commissioner when the same are necessary for use by any State sealer of weights and measures, or deputy State sealer of weights and measures. In all instances where the State shall furnish true and correct copies of weights and measures for the use of any incorporated city or town in this State, such city or town shall reimburse the State for the actual cost thereof, plus such expenses as are necessary to pay the freight, express and cost of certification thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5720. Tests for State institutions.—The Commissioner or his deputy shall at least once annually, or oftener if requested so to do by the Board of Control, or board of supervisors, regents or other governing body of any State institution or penitentiary commission or the governing body of any other penal institution of the State, test all scales, weights and measures used in checking the receipt and distribution of supplies of any such institution under the control of the State, and shall report his findings to the Chairman of the Board, or the superintendent of such institution. He shall also test all scales, weights and measures used for any other purpose by such institution. [Id.]

Art. 5721. Charges against city sealer.—The Commissioner, if he finds that any sealer or deputy sealer of weights and measures appointed by any incorporated city or town in this State, by virtue of the authority given them under the law, is neglecting to perform the duties of his office, or has refused to accept the recommendations and instructions of the Commissioner and be guided thereby, or is guilty of any malfeasance in office, or who is incompetent, he shall present to the governing body or officer who has control or supervision of such city sealer of weights and measures, or deputy sealer of weights and measures, a written charge and accusation based upon and clearly stating the offense of such sealer or deputy sealer and request such officer or governing body to hear and determine such accusation. Upon receipt of such charge and accusation, such officer or city commission with whom the same has been filed, shall make an order setting the same for a hearing at a time which shall be not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of filing of such charge and accusation and shall in such order fix the time and place for such hearing. A copy of such charge and accusation, together with a copy of such order, shall be served upon the accused at least seven days prior to the time fixed for such hearing. At such hearing the accused shall have the right to be represented by counsel and to produce evidence in his defense. If, upon such hearing, he shall be found guilty of malfeasance, or misfeasance in office or adjudged to be incompetent to perform the duties of the office, the officer or governing body before whom such hearing is had must forthwith remove him from office. Whenever it shall become known to the Commissioner or his deputy that any local sealer of weights and measures for any city or town in this State, or deputy sealer of weights and measures, is guilty of accepting any bribe, gift or money from any one who is interested in procuring false weights and measures, as soon as such fact shall become known, or be made known to the officer or governing body employing such sealer or deputy sealer, he or they shall immediately suspend such sealer from office. [Id.]

Art. 5722. To supervise local sealers.—Every local sealer of weights and measures, or deputy sealer, appointed by any governing body of any town or city shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner, and shall be required to report to him regularly and carry out all the instructions of the Commissioner. Failure or refusal to do so shall be grounds for dismissal from the service. [Id.]

Art. 5723. Duty of sealer and inspector.—Each sealer of weights and measures, deputy sealer, inspector, or local sealer shall carefully preserve all copies of the standards of weights and measures used by him in his inspection work, and keep the same safe and in good order, when not in actual use. He shall keep a record of all work done by him showing the inspections made, for whom made, giving the name and post-office address of each party for whom any measurement, test weight, inspection, condemnation or prosecution is made; such record shall be preserved by him, from which he shall compile his reports at regular intervals to the Commissioner when required to make a report. He shall keep a careful record of all violations of the weights and measures law and report in detail to the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5724. Sealing and marking.—Every person, firm or corporation, or association of persons, using or keeping for use, or having or offering for sale, weights, scales, beams or measures of any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, and tools, appliances and accessories connected with any or all of such instruments or measurements within this State, shall cause the same to be sealed and marked by the sealer of weights and measures as to their correctness, and no instrument shall be sold for the purpose of weighing or measuring unless it shall bear the seal of the inspector of weights and measures as to its correctness. [Id.]

Art. 5725. Subject to inspection.—When any weight, scale, beam, measure of any kind, instrument or mechanical device for weighing or measuring; also all tools and appliances necessary or connected with any such instruments of measure have been tested and found correct by any sealer appointed under the provisions of this chapter, the same may be used, kept for use, offered for sale, sold or kept for sale anywhere within this State for one year without being further tested. Any weight, scale, beam, measures of every kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, or appliances and accessories connected with any or all of such instruments or measure, which have been tested and sealed and certified as correct by the National Bureau of Standards may be kept for sale, sold or offered for sale without being tested and sealed by a sealer under the provisions of this chapter, but all such weights, scales, beams, measures or any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring; also all tools and appliances necessary connected with any or all of such instruments or measures shall always be subject to inspection and testing as herein provided, notwithstanding that the same have been tested and sealed, either by a sealer appointed under the provisions of this chapter, or by the National Bureau of Standards. Any scale, beam or mechanical device for weighing or measuring, which, after being sold, and before being used for weighing and measuring, is found necessary to assemble and set up, may be sold, kept for sale or offered for sale without first being tested and sealed, but such scale, beam or measuring device for weighing or measuring, before being used for weighing or measuring, without the consent of the Commissioner, must be tested and sealed as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5726. Testing weights and devices.—All sealers, deputy sealers, inspectors, and local sealers shall inspect, try and test all weights, scales, beams, measures of any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring and all tools, appliances and accessories connected with any or all such instruments or measures kept for the purpose of sale, sold or used by any proprietor, agent, lessee or employee in proving the size, quantity, extent, area, weight or measurement of quantities, things, produce, articles for distribution or consumption, purchased or offered or submitted by such person or persons for sale, hire, or award, and ascertain if the same are correct, and he shall have the power to and shall from time to time weigh or measure packages or amounts of commodities of whatsoever kind kept for the purpose of sale, offered for sale or sold, or in the process of delivery, in order to determine whether the same contains the quantity or amount represented and whether they are being offered for sale or sold in accordance with law and may seize for use as evidence such amounts of commodities or packages which shall be found to contain a less amount than that represented. He shall at least once each year, or as much oftener as may be found necessary, and directed by the Commissioner, see that the weights, measures and all weighing and measuring apparatus, used in any locality to which he is assigned for the purpose of inspection, are correct. All local sealers of weights and measures shall test at least once each year all scales, weights and measures of every kind and device within any such city to which they are appointed, and oftener, if required so to do. Any sealer, or deputy sealer, or inspector for the purposes above mentioned, and in the general performance of his duty may, without warrant, enter, go into or upon any stand, place, building or premises, or stop any vendor, peddler, junk dealer, driver of a coal wagon, ice wagon or delivery wagon or the driver of any wagon containing commodities for sale or delivery, and if necessary require him to proceed to some place which the sealer may specify for the purpose of making the proper tests. [Id.]

Art. 5727. Marking and tagging.—Whenever a sealer, deputy sealer, or inspector of weights and measures compares weights and measures, or weighing or measuring instruments and finds that they correspond, or causes them to correspond to the standards, he shall seal or mark under his name such weight or measure or weighing or measuring instrument with an appropriate device showing that the weight or measure, or weighing or measuring instrument is correct, and the date of the inspection, which device shall be placed so as to be easily seen. He shall condemn and seize and may destroy incorrect weights and measures and weighing and measuring instruments, which in his best judgment are not susceptible of repair, but any weights and measures, or weighing or measuring instruments which shall be found to be incorrect, but which, in his best judgment are susceptible of repair, he shall cause to be marked with a tag or other suitable device with the words "Out of Order." The owner or user of any weights or measures, or weighing or measuring instruments, which have been marked "Out of Order," as in this article provided, may have the same repaired or corrected within thirty days, but until the same have been repaired or corrected and tested as herein provided, the owner or user thereof must neither use nor dispose of the same in any way, but shall hold the same at the disposal of the Commissioner or any deputy or local sealer. When the same have been repaired or corrected, the owner or user thereof shall notify the Commissioner or his deputy or local sealer and they shall again be tested for the purpose of proving the weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument which had been found to be incorrect and marked as in this article, and until such weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument has been re-inspected by the sealer and found correct, the same shall not be used or in any way disposed of by the owner. When any weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument has been repaired and corrected, and has been re-inspected and found correct by the sealer of weights and measures, the sealer of weights and measures shall remove the tag or device with the words "Out of Order" and shall mark such weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument in the manner provided for the marking of same where upon inspection they were found to be correct. [Id.]

Art. 5728. Fees.—The Commissioner shall have the right and power to fix and collect a nominal fee for testing all weights, scales, beams and any kind of instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring; all tools, appliances and accessories connected with all such instruments before they are offered for sale; such fee, however, to be reasonable and to be graduated according to the cost of such instrument, and it shall be unlawful for anyone to sell any weights, scales, beams, measuring instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, or to lease or rent same, unless such instruments have been duly inspected, tested and approved by the Commissioner, or one of his duly accredited deputies. All moneys collected by the Commissioner shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 5729. Definitions.—The word "person," whenever used in this chapter, shall be deemed to include person, firm or corporation and all officers, directors and managers of corporations shall comply with the provisions of this chapter on behalf of their respective corporations. [Id.]

Art. 5730. Legal standards.—The standard of weights and measures adopted and used by the Government of the United States is hereby declared the legal standard of weights and measures of this State; provided, that as to commodities for which the Congress of the United States provided no standard of weights or measures, the standards adopted by this State shall be the standards of weights and measures for such commodities. The unit of standard of length and surface, from which all the other measures of extension, whether lineal, superficial or solid, shall be derived and ascertained, is the standard yard designated in this chapter, which is divided into three equal parts called feet, and each foot into twelve equal parts called inches. For measures of cloth, and other commodities commonly sold by the yard, it may be divided into halves, quarters, eighths and sixteenths. The rod, pole or perch contains five and one-half yards; the mile one thousand seven hundred and sixty yards. The Spanish vara, thirty-three and one-third inches. Where land is measured by the English rule, the chain for measuring land shall be twenty-two yards long and divided into one hundred equal parts called links. The acre for land measure shall be measured horizontally and shall contain forty eight hundred and forty square yards; six hundred and forty acres shall constitute a square mile. [Acts 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5731. Standard of avoirdupois and troy weights.—The units or standards of weight from which all the other weights shall be derived and ascertained shall be the standard of avoirdupois and troy weights designated in this chapter, and avoirdupois pounds shall bear to the troy pounds the ratio of seven thousand to five thousand seven hundred and sixty grains, and the avoirdupois pound shall be divided into sixteen equal parts called ounces. The hundred weight shall consist of one hundred avoirdupois pounds, and twenty hundred weight shall constitute a ton. The troy ounce shall be one twelfth of a troy pound. [Id.]

Art. 5732. Standard for liquids.—The units or standards of measure of capacity for liquids from which all other measures shall be derived and ascertained, shall be the standard gallon and its parts designated in this chapter. The barrel shall constitute thirty-one and one-half gallons and two barrels shall make a hogshead. All other measures of capacity for liquids shall be derived from the liquid gallon by continual division by the number two, so as to make half gallons, quarts, pints, half pints and gills. [Id.]

Art. 5733. Standard for solids.—The unit or standard measure of capacity for substance not liquids, from which all measures of such substance shall be derived and ascertained, is the standard half bushel mentioned in this chapter. The peck, half peck, quarter peck, quart and pint measure for measuring commodities which are not liquid shall be derived from the half bushel by successively dividing that measure by two. The standard bushel measure shall constitute two thousand one hundred fifty and forty-two one hundredths cubic inches; the standard half-bushel measure shall contain ten hundred seventy-five and twenty one-hundredths cubic inches; the standard gallon shall contain two hundred thirty-one cubic inches. All measures for measuring dry commodities shall not be heaped but shall be stricken with a straight stick or roller. [Id.]

Art. 5734. Weight per bushel, barrel or ton.—Whenever any of the following articles shall be contracted for, sold or delivered, the weight per bushel or barrel or divisible merchantable quantities of a bushel or barrel shall be as follows: Wheat flour, per barrel 200 pounds; half barrel sack 100 pounds; quarter barrel sack 50 pounds; eighth barrel sack 25 pounds. Corn meal, per bushel sack 50 pounds; half bushel sack 25 pounds; quarter bushel sack $12\frac{1}{2}$ pounds. Alfalfa Seed, per bushel 60 pounds. Wheat, per bushel 60 pounds.

Whenever any commodity is sold by the cord it shall mean 128 cubic feet, or the contents of a space eight feet long, four feet wide and four feet high. Whenever anything is sold by the ton, it shall mean two thousand pounds avoirdupois. Whenever any of the following articles are sold by the cubic yard, and the same are weighed, the following weights shall govern: Torpedo sand or gravel, 3,000 pounds equal one cubic yard, and 2,500 pounds of bank sand equals one cubic yard. [Acts 1907, p. 244; Acts 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5735. Failure to regard unit of measure.—Whoever in buying any of the articles mentioned in the preceding article shall take any greater number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel or cubic yard, or divisible, merchantable quantity of bushel, barrel, cubic yard, or lineal yard, or in selling any of said articles shall give any less number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel, cubic or lineal yard than is allowed by the laws of this State, with intent to gain an advantage thereby, shall be liable to the party injured in double the amount of the property wrongfully taken, or not given. This article does not apply to cases where the buyer or seller is expressly authorized by special contract or agreement to take more or give less of such articles. [Id.]

Art. 5736. This law to govern contracts.—All contracts hereafter to be executed and made within this State for any work to be done, or for anything to be sold, delivered, done or agreed for, by weight or measure, shall be construed to be made according to the standard weight and measure ascertained as hereinbefore provided, unless there is an express contract to the contrary. In making any adjustment of weights or measures under the laws of this State, the standard given in this chapter shall be taken as the guide for making such adjustment. [Id.]

Art. 5737. Declaration of policy.—In order to promote, foster and encourage the intelligent and orderly marketing of agricultural products through co-operation and to eliminate speculation and waste; and to make the distribution of agricultural products as direct as can be efficiently done between producer and consumer; and to stabilize the marketing problems of agricultural products, this law is passed. [Acts 1921, p. 45.]

Art. 5738. Definitions.—(a) The term “Agricultural products” shall include horticultural, viticultural, forestry, dairy, livestock, poultry, bee and any farm and ranch products; (b) the term “member” shall include actual members of associations without capital stock and holders of common stock in associations organized with capital stock; (c) the term "association" means any corporation organized under this Act; and (d) the term "person" shall include individuals, firms, partnerships, corporations and associations. Associations organized hereunder shall be deemed non-profit, inasmuch as they are organized not to make profits for themselves, as such, or for their members, as such, but only for their members as producers. This Act shall be referred to as the "Co-operative Marketing Act." [Id.]

Art. 5739. Who may organize.—Five or more persons engaged in the production of agricultural products may form a non-profit co-operative association, with or without capital stock, under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5740. Purposes.—An association may be organized to engage in any activity in connection with the marketing or selling of the agricultural products of its members, or with the harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling, shipping, or utilization thereof, or the manufacturing or marketing of the by-products thereof; or in connection with the manufacturing, selling or supplying to its members of machinery, equipment or supplies; or in the financing of the above enumerated activities; or in any one or more of the activities specified herein. [Id.]

Art. 5741. Preliminary investigation.—Every group of persons contemplating the organization of an association under this chapter is urged to communicate with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, who will inform it, whatever a survey of the marketing conditions affecting the commodities to be handled by the proposed association indicates, regarding probable success. [Id.]

Art. 5742. Powers.—Each association incorporated under this chapter shall have the following powers:

(a) To engage in any activity in connection with the marketing, selling, harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling or utilization of any agricultural products produced or delivered to it by its members, or the manufacturing or marketing of the by-products thereof or in connection with the purchase, hiring, or use by its members of supplies, machinery or equipment, or in the financing of any such activities; or in any one or more of the activities specified in this article. No association, however, shall handle the agricultural products of any non-member.

(b) To borrow money and make advances to members.

(c) To act as the agent or representative of any member or members in any of the above mentioned activities.

(d) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own and exercise all rights of ownership in, and to sell, transfer, or pledge shares of the capital stock or bonds of any corporation or association engaged in any related activity or in the handling or marketing of any of the products handled by the association. (e) To establish reserves and to invest the funds thereof in bonds or such other property as may be provided in the by-laws. (f) To buy, hold and exercise all privileges of ownership over such real or personal property as may be necessary or convenient for the conducting and operation of any of the business of the association or incidental thereto. (g) To do each and everything necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any one of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated; or conducive to or expedient for the interest or benefit of the association; and to contract accordingly; and in addition to exercise and possess all powers, rights and privileges necessary or incidental to the purposes for which the association is organized or to the activities in which it is engaged; and in addition, any other rights, powers and privileges granted by the laws of this State to ordinary corporations, except such as are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Act; and to do any such thing anywhere. [Id.]

Art. 5743. Members.—(a) Under the terms and conditions prescribed in its by-laws, an association may admit as members, or issue common stock, only to persons engaged in the production of the agricultural products to be handled by or through the association, including the lessees and tenants of land used for the production of such products and any lessors and landlords who receive as rent part of the crop raised on the leased premises. (b) If a member of a non-stock association be other than a natural person, such member may be presented by any individual, associate officer or member thereof, duly authorized in writing. (c) One association organized hereunder may become a member or stockholder of any other association or associations organized hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 5744. Articles of incorporation.—Each association formed under this Act must prepare and file Articles of Incorporation, setting forth: (a) The name of the association. (b) The purposes for which it is formed. (c) The place where its principal business will be transacted. (d) The term for which it is to exist, not exceeding fifty years. (e) The number of directors thereof, which must not be less than five and may be any number in excess thereof, and the term of office of such directors. (f) If organized without capital stock, whether the property rights and interests of each member shall be equal or unequal; and if unequal, the Articles shall set forth the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed; and the association shall have the power to admit new members who shall be entitled to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule or rules. This provision of the Articles of Incorporation shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by the written consent or the vote of three-fourths of the members. (g) If organized with capital stock, the amount of such capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided and the par value thereof. The capital stock may be divided into preferred and common stock. If so divided, the Articles of Incorporation must contain a statement of the number of shares of stock to which preference is granted and the number of shares of stock to which no preference is granted and the nature and extent of the preference and privileges granted to each. The Articles must be subscribed by the incorporators and acknowledged by one of them before an officer authorized by the law of this State to take and certify acknowledgments of deeds and conveyances; and shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this State; and when so filed the said Articles of Incorporation, or certified copies thereof, shall be received in all courts of this State, and other places, as prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein, and of the due incorporation of such association. A certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation shall also be filed with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. [Id.]

Art. 5745. Amendments to articles of incorporation.—The Articles of Incorporation may be altered or amended at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose. An amendment must first be approved by two-thirds of the directors and then adopted by a vote representing a majority of all the members of the Association. Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation when so adopted shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5746. By-laws.—Each association incorporated under this Act must, within thirty days after its incorporation, adopt for its government and management, a code of by-laws, not inconsistent with the powers granted by this law. A majority vote of the members or stock-holders, or their assent, is necessary to adopt such by-laws. Each association under its by-laws may also provide for any or all of the following matters: (a) The time, place and manner of calling and conducting its meetings. (b) The number of stock-holders or members constituting a quorum. (c) The right of members or stock-holders to vote by proxy or by mail, or by both, and the conditions, manner and effects of such votes. (d) The number of directors constituting a quorum. (e) The qualifications, compensation and duties and term of office of directors and officers; time of their election and the mode and manner of giving notice thereof. (f) Penalties for violations of the by-laws. (g) The amount of entrance, organization and membership fees, if any; the manner and method of collection of the same, and the purposes for which they must be used. (h) The amount which each member or stock-holders shall be required to pay annually or from time to time, if at all, to carry on the business of the association; the charge, if any, to be paid by each member or stock-holder for services rendered by the association to him and the time of payment and the manner of collection; and the marketing contract between the association and its members or stock-holders which every member or stock-holder may be required to sign. (i) The number and qualification of members or stock-holders of the association and the conditions precedent to members of ownership of common stock; the method, time and manner of permitting members to withdraw or the holders of common stock to transfer their stock; the manner of assignment and transfer of the interest of members, and of the shares of common stock; the conditions upon which, and time when membership of any member shall cease. The automatic suspension of the rights of a member when he ceases to be eligible to membership in the association, and mode, manner and effect of the expulsion of a member; manner of determining the value of a member's interest and provision for its purchase by the association upon the death or withdrawal of a member or stockholder, or upon the expulsion of a member or forfeiture of his membership, or, at the option of the association, by conclusive appraisal by the board of directors. In case of the withdrawal or expulsion of a member, the board of directors shall equitably and conclusively appraise his property interests in the association and shall fix the amount thereof in money, which shall be paid to him within one year after such expulsion or withdrawal. [Id.]

Art. 5747. General and special meetings.—In its by-laws each association shall provide for one or more regular meetings annually. The board of directors shall have the right to call a special meeting at any time, and ten per cent of the members or stock-holders may file a petition stating the specific business to be brought before the association and demand a special meeting at any time. Such meeting must thereupon be called by the directors. Notice of all meetings, together with a statement of the purposes thereof, shall be mailed to each member at least ten days prior to the meeting. The by-laws may require instead that such notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published at the principal place of business of the association. [Id.]

Art. 5748. Directors—Election.—The affairs of the association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, elected by the members or stock-holders from their own number. The by-laws may provide that the territory in which the association has members shall be divided into districts and that the directors shall be elected according to such districts. In such a case the by-laws shall specify the number of directors to be elected by each district, the manner and method of re-apportioning the directors and of re-districting the territory covered by the association. The by-laws may provide that primary elections should be held in each district to elect the directors apportioned to such districts and the result of all such primary elections must be ratified by the next regular meeting of the association. An association may provide a fair remuneration for the time actually spent by its officers and directors in its service. No director, during the term of his office, shall be a party to a contract for profit with the association differing in any way from the business relations accorded regular members or holders of common stock of the association, or to any other kind of contract differing from terms generally current in that district. When a vacancy on the board of directors occurs, other than by expiration of term, the remaining members of the board, by a majority vote, shall fill the vacancy, unless the by-laws provide for an election of directors by district. In such a case the board of directors shall immediately call a special meeting of the members or stock-holders in that district to fill the vacancy. [Id.]

Art. 5749. Election of officers.—The directors shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice-presidents. They shall also elect a secretary and treasurer, who need not be a director, and they may combine the two latter offices and designate the combined office as secretary-treasurer. The treasurer may be a bank or any depository, and as such shall not be considered as an officer but as a function of the board of directors. In such case the secretary shall perform the usual accounting duties of the treasurer, excepting that the funds shall be deposited only as authorized by the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 5750. Stock—Membership Certificates.—When a member of an association established without capital stock, has paid his membership fee in full, he shall receive a certificate of membership. No association shall issue stock to a member until it has been fully paid for. The promissory notes of the members may be accepted by the association as full or partial payment. The association shall hold the stock as security for the payment of the note, but such retention as security shall not affect the members' right to vote. Except for debts lawfully contracted between him and the association, no member shall be liable for the debts of the association to an amount exceeding the sum remaining unpaid on his membership fee or his subscription to the capital stock, including any unpaid balance on any promissory notes given in payment thereof. No stock-holder of a co-operative association shall own more than one-twentieth of the issued common stock of the association; and an association, in its by-laws, may limit the amount of common stock which one member may own to any amount less than one-twentieth of the issued common stock. No member or stock-holder shall be entitled to more than one vote. Any association organized with stock, under this law may issue preferred stock, with or without the right to vote. Such stock may be redeemable or retirable by the association on such terms and conditions as may be provided for by the Articles of Incorporation and printed on the face of the certificate. The by-laws shall prohibit the transfer of the common stock of the association to persons not engaged in the production of the agricultural products handled by the association, and such restrictions must be printed upon every certificate of stock subject thereto. The association may at any time except when the debts of the association exceed fifty per cent of the assets thereof, buy in or purchase its common stock at book value thereof as conclusively determined by the board of directors and pay for it in cash within one year thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 5751. Removal of officer or director.—Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the secretary of the association, together with a petition signed by ten per cent of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The removal shall be voted upon at the next regular or special meeting of the association, and by a vote of a majority of the members, the association may remove the officer or director and fill the vacancy. The director or officer against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of the charges previous to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present witnesses; and the person or persons bringing the charges against him shall have the same opportunity. In case the by-laws provide for election of directors by districts with primary elections in each district, then the petition for removal of a director must be signed by twenty per cent of the members residing in the district from which he was elected. The board of directors must call a special meeting of the members residing in that district to consider the removal of the director. By a vote of the majority of the members of that district, the director in question shall be removed from office. [Id.]

Art. 5752. Referendum.—Upon demand of one-third of the entire board of directors, any matter that has been approved or passed by the board must be referred to the entire membership or the stockholders for decision at the next special or regular meeting. A special meeting may be called for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5753. Marketing contract.—The association and its members may make and execute marketing contracts, requiring the members to sell, for a period of time, not over ten years, all or any specified part of their agricultural products or specified commodities exclusively to or through the association or any facilities to be created by the association. The contract may provide that the association may sell or resell the products of its members, with or without taking title thereto; and pay over to its members the resale price, after deducting all necessary selling, overhead and other costs and expenses, including interest on preferred stock, not exceeding eight per cent per annum,^o and reserves for retiring the stock, if any, and other proper reserves; and interest not exceeding eight per cent per annum upon common stock. The by-laws and the marketing contract may fix, as liquidated damages, specific sums to be paid by the member or stockholder to the association upon the breach by him of any provisions of the marketing contract regarding the sale or delivery or withholding of products; and may further provide that the member will pay all costs, premiums for bonds, expenses and fees in case any action is brought upon the contract by the association; and any such provisions shall be valid and enforceable in the courts of this State. In the event of any breach or threatened breach of such marketing contract by a member, the association shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent the further breach of the contract and to a decree of specific performance thereof. Pending the adjudication of such an action and upon filing a verified complaint showing the breach or threatened breach, and upon filing a sufficient bond, the association shall be entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against the member. [Id.]

Art. 5754. Purchasing business of others.—Whenever an association organized hereunder with preferred capital stock, shall purchase the stock or any property, or any interest in any property of any person, firm, or corporation or association, it may discharge the obligations so incurred, wholly or in part, by exchanging for the acquiring interest, shares of its preferred capital stock to an amount which at par value would equal a fair market value of the stock or interest so purchased, as determined by the board of directors. In that case the transfer to the association of the stock or interest purchased shall be equivalent to payment in cash for the shares of stock issued. [Id.]

Art. 5755. Annual reports.—Each association formed under this Act shall prepare and make out an annual report on forms furnished by the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, containing the name of the association, its principal place of business and a general statement of its business operations during the fiscal year, showing the amount of capital stock paid up and the number of stockholders of a stock association or the number of members and amount of membership fees received, if a non-stock association; the total expenses of operation; the amount of its indebtedness, or liability, and its balance sheets. [Id.]

Art. 5756. Conflicting laws not to apply.—Any provision of law which is in conflict with this chapter shall not be construed as applying to the associations herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 5757. Bond.—Each and all officers, employees and agents handling funds or property of the corporation created under the provisions of this chapter, or any property or funds of any person placed under the control of or in the possession of said corporation, shall be required to execute and deliver to the corporation a bond, for the benefit of all members of said corporation, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties and obligations of such person, and further conditioned that such person shall faithfully account for any and all funds, moneys and property coming into his or her hands or possession, by reason of such office or employment, and shall promptly remit to the person, or persons, entitled to receive the same, all moneys which may come into his possession by virtue of being such officer, employe or agent, and in case of sale or failure to sell any products under the care of and in the possession of such officer, employe or agent, that he shall promptly make a true and correct report of said sale, or in case of failure to sell, the reasons why said sale is not made. In case the officers and directors of any corporation authorized to be created under the provisions of this law shall fail to have all officers, employees and agents handling such funds or property, execute the bond provided for herein, each and all of said officers and directors shall be personally liable for all losses occasioned by such failure, and which might have been recovered on said bond. [Id.]

Art. 5758. Interest in other corporations or associations.—

An association may organize, form, operate, own, control, have an interest in, own stock of, or be a member of any other corporation or corporations, with or without capital stock, and engaged in preserving, drying, pressing, canning, packing, storing, handling, shipping, utilizing, manufacturing, marketing or selling of the agricultural products handled by the association, or the by-products thereof. If such corporations are warehousing corporations, they may issue legal warehouse receipts to the association or to any other person and such legal warehouse receipts shall be considered as adequate collateral to the extent of the current value of the commodity represented thereby. In case such warehouse is licensed or licensed and bonded under the laws of this State or the United States, its warehouse receipts shall not be challenged or discriminated against because of ownership or control, wholly or in part, by the association. [Id.]

Art. 5759. Contracts and agreement with other associations.

—Any association may, upon resolution adopted by its board of directors, enter into all necessary and proper contracts and agreements and make all necessary and proper stipulations, agreements and contracts and arrangements with any other co-operative corporation, association or associations, formed in this or any other State for the co-operative and more economical carrying on of its business, or any part or parts thereof. Any two or more associations may, by agreement between them, unite in employing and using or may separately employ and use the same methods, means and agencies for carrying on and conducting their respective businesses. [Id.]

Art. 5760. Associations heretofore organized.—Any corporation or association organized under previously existing statutes, may by a majority vote of its stockholders or members be brought under the provisions of this chapter by limiting its membership and adopting the other restrictions as provided herein. It shall make out in duplicate a statement signed and sworn to by its directors, upon forms supplied by the Secretary of State, to the effect that the corporation or association has by a majority vote of its stockholders or members decided to accept the benefits and be bound by the provisions of this chapter. Articles of Incorporation shall be filed as required in the eighth article of this chapter, except that they shall be signed by the members of the board of directors. The filing fee shall be the same as for filing an amendment to Articles of Incorporation. [Id.]

Art. 5761. Breach of contract or false reports.—Any person or persons or any corporation whose officers or employes knowingly induce or attempt to induce any member or stockholder of an association organized hereunder to breach his marketing contract with the association, or who maliciously and knowingly spread false reports about the finances or management thereof shall be liable to the association aggrieved thereby in a civil suit for damages suffered in three times the amount of actual damage proven for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 5762. Associations not in restraint of trade.—No association organized hereunder shall be deemed to be a combination in restraint of trade or an illegal monopoly; or an attempt to lessen competition or fix prices arbitrarily; nor shall the marketing contracts or agreements between the association and its members nor any agreements authorized in this chapter, be considered illegal or in restraint of trade. [Id.]

Art. 5763. Application of general laws.—The provisions of the general corporation laws of this State, and all powers and rights thereunder shall apply to the association organized hereunder, except when in conflict with the express provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5764. Fees.—Each association organized hereunder shall pay to the Commissioner an annual license fee of ten dollars but shall be exempt from all franchise or license taxes. For filing articles of incorporation, an association organized hereunder shall pay ten dollars, and for filing an amendment thereto, two dollars and fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 5765. [5764] Active and reserve.—The militia of this State shall be divided into two classes, the active and reserve militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of this State, which shall be known as the Texas National Guard; the reserve militia shall consist of all those liable to service in the militia, but not serving in the Texas National Guard. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5766. [5765] Who are subject.—All able-bodied male citizens, and able-bodied males of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens, who are residents of this State and between eighteen and forty-five years of age, and who are not exempted by the laws of the United States or of this State, shall constitute the militia and be subject to military duty. [Id.]

Art. 5767. [5766] Exemptions.—In addition to those exempted by the laws of the United States, the following persons shall be exempt from military duty in this State:

1. The Lieutenant-Governor and the heads of the several departments.
2. The judges and clerks of all courts of record.
3. The members and officers of both houses of the Legislature.
4. Each sheriff, district attorney, county attorney, county assessor, county collector, county treasurer, and county commissioner.
5. The mayor, aldermen, assessor and collector of incorporated cities and towns.
6. The officers and guards of State prisons, houses of correction, and the officers and instructors and attendants of other State institutions; keepers, attendants and assistants of poor houses; superintendents, nurses, and assistants of all hospitals.
7. The members of any regularly organized and paid fire or police department in any city or town, but no member of the active militia shall be relieved from duty because of his joining any such fire company or department.
8. All ministers of the gospel exclusively engaged in their calling; all teachers engaged in public institutions and public schools.

9. All persons who shall have served in the active militia of this State for the term of seven years, and have been honorably discharged therefrom.

10. Idiots, lunatics, vagabonds, confirmed drunkards, persons addicted to the use of narcotic drugs, and persons convicted of infamous crimes.

11. Any person who conscientiously scruples to bear arms; provided he shall pay an equivalent for personal service.

12. All such exempted persons, except those enumerated in subdivision 10, shall be liable to military duty in case of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5768. [5767] Commander-in-chief.—The Governor by virtue of his office, shall be commander-in-chief of the military forces of this State, except such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. Whenever the Governor is unable to perform the duties of commander-in-chief, the Adjutant General shall command the military forces of this State, except in cases where the Lieutenant-Governor, or the president of the Senate, under the laws of this State, is required to perform the duties of Governor. [Id.]

Art. 5769. Expenditures.—All amounts expended from appropriations made for the military forces of this State shall be paid only on itemized accounts sworn to by the party expending the same and showing the time, purpose and for what said amount was expended and by whom, approved by both the Adjutant General and the Governor before their payment. The Comptroller shall not issue warrants upon the State Treasury for any moneys expended under this title until said itemized accounts have been filed in the Comptroller's office. [Id.]

| Drafts | 5774 | Mustering | 5779 |

Art. 5770. [5768] Military duty.—The reserve militia shall not be subject to active military duty, except when called into the service of this State, or of the United States, in case of war, insurrection, invasion, or for the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, tumults and breaches of the peace, or to aid the civil officers in the execution of the law and the service of process, in which case, they or so many of them as the necessity requires, may be ordered out for actual service by draft or otherwise as the Governor may direct. The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted shall be mustered into the service for such period as may be required, and the Governor may assign them to existing organizations of the active militia, or organize them as the exigency of the occasion may require. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5771. [5769] Enrollment.—Whenever the Governor deems it necessary, he may order the county tax assessors or may designate other persons to make an enrollment of all persons liable to military duty, other than members of the active militia. Such enrollment shall state the name, residence, age, color and occupation of the persons enrolled. Enrolling officers may question under oath, which they are hereby authorized to administer, any person deemed liable to perform military duty, but who denies the same; and, if any person refuses to be sworn, the enrolling officer shall enroll his name in the same manner as though he had admitted his liability. Said enrolling officers shall, within such time as the Governor may require, prepare and file three copies of such enrollment, properly certifying that he has enrolled all persons residing in his county, who are liable to perform military duty, one copy to be filed in the office of the Adjutant General, one in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the enrollment was made, and one copy retained by the enrolling officer. Upon filing such lists the enrolling officer shall be paid out of the county treasury eight cents for each person so enrolled and notified as hereinafter set out. [Id.]

Art. 5772. [5770] Notice.—The enrolling officer shall at the time of making the enrollment, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him, or leaving it with some person over fourteen years old at his place of residence, or by mailing such notice at the expense of the county to his last known place of residence or abode. All persons claiming exemption, must within ten days after receiving such notice, file a written verified statement of such exemption in the office of the county clerk. Such clerk shall thereupon, if such person be exempted according to law, mark the word "exempt" opposite his name; and the remainder of all thus enrolled and not thus found to be exempt shall constitute the militia of this State and be subject to military duty. Such clerk shall transmit a copy of such corrected list of enrollment to the Adjutant General within twenty days after the filing of the original list of enrollment for which he shall be allowed two cents for each name on such list, to be paid by the county. The officer highest in rank in the active militia, and the heads of the fire and police departments in each city or town, shall whenever an enrollment is ordered, file within ten days in the office of such county clerk a certified list of the names of all persons in the active militia of such county or in such department. [Id.]

Art. 5773. [5771] Assessment rolls.—Each county assessor shall allow persons appointed to make such enrollment, if persons other than the assessor be appointed, at all times to examine their assessment rolls and make copies thereof. All persons shall, upon the application of any person making such enrollment, give the name of and all other information concerning any person within their knowledge liable to be enrolled, under penalty of ten dollars for every concealment or false information, or refusal to give the information requested, to be recovered in the name of the State of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney in the justice court at Austin, or in the precinct of his residence with costs. The officer making the enrollment shall, within ten days, report to the Adjutant General all persons who fail or neglect to give information. [Id.]

Art. 5774. [5772] Drafts.—Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the reserve militia for active duty, the Governor may apportion the number by draft according to the population of the several counties of the State, or otherwise, as he shall direct. The Governor shall direct his order to the sheriff of each county from which any draft is required, setting forth the number of persons such county is to furnish. Upon the requisition of the Governor being received by the sheriff, he shall immediately personally notify the county clerk, who shall copy by name or number, from the corrected list of enrollment of such county on file in his office, all persons who are so returned as liable to perform military duty; such names or their corresponding numbers, shall be placed on slips of paper of the same size and appearance, as near as practicable, which slips so named or numbered, shall be placed in a box suitable for that purpose, and the number required to fill such draft or requisition shall be drawn therefrom, in the same manner provided by law for drawing jurors. All persons so drawn and liable to perform military duty shall be determined to be legally held to serve, in the manner and for the purpose and time specified in the requisition; and the sheriff shall notify the persons so drafted by registered letter, or personally in writing, at what time and place they shall appear, for which he shall receive expense of postage and five cents each to be paid by the county. [Id.]

Art. 5775. [5773] Drafts: report.—Every member of the reserve militia ordered out, or who volunteers, or is drafted, under the provisions of this law, who does not appear at the time and place so designated by the sheriff, or his commanding officer within twenty-four hours from such time, or furnish a substitute or who does not produce a sworn statement of physical disability from a physician in good standing of his inability to so appear, shall be deemed to be a deserter and dealt with as prescribed by law for deserters. [Id.]

Art. 5776. [5774] Drafts; substitute.—Any person in the reserve militia of this State, who has been drawn to perform military duty, may at any time, be exempt until again required in his turn to serve, by furnishing an acceptable substitute on or before the day fixed for his appearance; but if during any period of service, any man who is serving in the active militia as a substitute for another, becomes liable to service in his own person, he shall be taken for such service, and his place as substitute shall be supplied by the man in whose stead he was serving, or another substitute. [Id.]

Art. 5777. [5775] Civil officers' duty.—Any sheriff, or constable, county assessor or county clerk who neglects or refuses to perform any duty enjoined upon him by this law, in addition to criminal liability, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars to be recovered against him or his bondsmen in the name of the State by suit instituted by a judge advocate or district or county attorney, in the proper court of Travis County, or the county of which such person is the sheriff, constable, assessor or clerk. [Id.]

Art. 5778. [5776] Power of Governor.—The Governor shall have power in the case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot or breach of peace, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the active service of this State any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia of this State, or any part thereof, is called forth under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall order out for service the active militia, or such part thereof as may be necessary; and, if the number be insufficient, he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the militia in the service of the United States, their State designations shall not be given to new organizations. [Id.]

Art. 5779. [5777] Muster.—The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted into the service, as indicated in Articles 5770 and 5774 of this chapter, shall be immediately mustered into service for such period as the Governor may direct, and shall be organized into troops, batteries, companies and such other organizations as may be necessary, which may be arranged in squadrons, battalions, regiments or corps, or assigned to organizations of the active militia already existing. The Governor is authorized to appoint the officers necessary to commence or complete, or to command any organization thus created. Such new organization shall be equipped, disciplined and governed according to the military laws and military regulations of this State. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE.

NATIONAL GUARD.

ORGANIZATION.

Art. 5780. [5778] Strength.—The Texas National Guard shall consist of the existing military organizations, and such others as may be organized hereafter, and such persons as are held to military duty under the laws of this State, or such persons as are exempt under said laws who may accept appointment or voluntarily enlist therein, or of such persons of the reserve militia as may be mustered therein, but at no time, except in case of war, insurrection, invasion, the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, or the aiding of the civil authorities in the execution of the laws of this State, shall the maximum strength thereof exceed seven thousand officers and enlisted men. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5781. [5779] Regulations.—The Governor shall prescribe such regulations as he may see fit for the organization of the Texas National Guard; and he shall, from time to time, as he may deem for the best interests of the service, change such regulations, which shall be in accordance with this chapter, and conform as near as practicable to the organization of the regular army of the United States. He may, at any time for cause deemed good and sufficient by him, muster out of the service or reorganize any portion of the Texas National Guard or the reserve militia, or discharge any officer or enlisted man thereof, and he shall have full control and authority over all matters touching the military forces of this State, its organization, equipment and discipline. [Id.]

Art. 5782. [5780] Publication.—The Governor shall make and publish regulations in accordance with existing military laws, for the government of the military forces of this State, which shall embrace all necessary orders and forms of general character for the performance of all duties incumbent on officers and men in the military service, including the rules for the government of courts martial; the existing regulations to remain in force until the Governor shall have published such regulations. The Governor shall, as he may see fit from time to time, create new regulations, or amend, modify, or repeal existing regulations. [Id.]

Art. 5783. [5781] Governor's staff.—The Governor shall have a staff consisting of the Adjutant General and twelve aides-de-camp. The Adjutant General shall have rank and be appointed as provided by this law; the twelve aides-de-camp shall have the rank of lieutenant-colonel while also serving, and shall be appointed by, and serve during the pleasure of the Governor. Three of the aides-de-camp shall be selected from the officers of the Texas National Guard below the grade of colonel, and nine shall be selected without restriction as to the source of selection; provided, further, that said aides-de-camp shall not be ineligible from holding any office of emolument, trust or honor within this State, nor shall said aides-de-camp be ineligible from serving as chairman or member of any committee of any political party or organization. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1911, p. 25.]

Art. 5784. [5782] Bodies corporate.—Whenever any troop, battery, company, signal corps or band is mustered into the active militia of this State by the authority of the Governor, such troop, battery, company, signal corps or band shall, from the date of such muster in, be deemed and be held in law a body corporate and politic, with power under its corporate name to take, purchase, own in fee simple, hold, transfer, mortgage, pledge and convey real or personal property to an amount in value, at the time of its acquisition, of two hundred thousand dollars (provided that the natural enhancement in value of any property properly acquired by any such company shall not affect the right of such company to hold or otherwise handle such property), and with like power under its corporate name to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to prosecute and defend in the courts of this State or elsewhere; to have and use a common seal of such device as it may adopt; to ordain, establish, alter or amend by-laws for the government and regulation of the company affairs not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States, and the orders and regulations of the Governor; and generally to do and perform any and all things necessary and proper to be done in carrying out and perfecting the purpose of its organization, of which the officers, and in case of a band, the non-commissioned officers, shall be directors, the senior the president. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1911, p. 149.]

Art. 5785. [5783] Discipline.—The system of discipline and exercise of the active militia of this State shall conform generally to that of the army of the United States, as prescribed by the President, and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided by law, or by the regulations issued by the Governor. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5786. [5784] Prohibiting organization.—No body of men, other than the regularly organized militia of this State and the troops of the United States, shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization or parade in public with firearms in any city, or town of this State; provided that students in the educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction, and soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States, and Confederate veterans, may, with the consent of the Governor, drill and parade with firearms in public. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent parades by the active militia of any other State as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 5787. [5785-6-7] Department.—The Adjutant General shall be the head of the Adjutant General's Department, and shall have the rank of brigadier general. He shall be biennially appointed for a term of two years by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if in session. [Id.]

Art. 5788. [5788] Oath and bond.—The person appointed Adjutant General shall first enter into a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties payable to and to be approved by the Governor, which bond shall be in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of said office. [Id.]

Art. 5789. [5789] Seal.—The device upon the seal of the Adjutant General shall consist of a star of five points with the words, "Office of Adjutant General, State of Texas," around the margin. [Id.]

Art. 5790. [5790] Powers.—The Adjutant General shall be in control of the military department of this State and subordinate only to the Governor in matters pertaining to said department, or the military forces of this State; and he shall perform such duties as the Governor may from time to time entrust to him, relative to the military commissions, the military forces, the military stores and supplies, or to other matters respecting military affairs of this State; and he shall conduct the business of the department in such manner as the Governor shall direct. He shall have the custody and charge of all books, records, papers, furniture, fixtures and other property relating to his department; and shall perform as near as practicable, such duties as pertain to the chief of staff, the military secretary and other chiefs of staff departments, under the regulations and customs of the United States Army. [Id.]

Art. 5791. [5791] Duties.—The Adjutant General shall, from time to time, define and prescribe the kind and amount of supplies to be purchased for the military forces of this State, and the duties and powers respecting such purchases; and shall prescribe general regulations for the transportation of the articles of supply from the places of purchase to the several camps, stations of companies, or other necessary places for the safe-keeping of such articles, and for the distribution of an adequate and timely supply of the same to the regimental quartermasters, and to such other officers as may, by virtue of such regulations, be entrusted with the same; and shall fix and make reasonable allowance for the store rent and storage necessary for the safe-keeping of all military stores and supplies; and shall control and supervise the transportation of troops, munitions of war, equipment, military property and stores throughout the State. [Id.]

Art. 5792. [5792] Bids.—The Adjutant General may prescribe rules and regulations to be observed in the preparation and submission and opening of bids for contracts under his department; and at his discretion may require any bid to be accompanied by a good bond in such penal sum as he deems advisable, conditioned that the bidder will enter into a contract agreeable to the terms of his bid, if the same be awarded to him, within sixty days from the date of the opening of the bids, or otherwise pay the penalty. No bid shall be withdrawn by the bidder within said period of sixty days. [Id.]

Art. 5793. [5793] Regulations and duties.—The Adjutant General shall prescribe regulations not inconsistent with law for the government of his department and the custody, use and preservation of the records and property appertaining to it whether belonging to this or the United States, such regulations to be operative and in force when promulgated in the form of general orders, circulars or letters of instruction and shall:

1. Superintend the preparation of such returns and reports as may be required by the laws of the United States from this State.

2. Keep a register of all officers of the militia of Texas, and keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein.

3. Have printed at the expense of the State, when necessary, the military law and regulations of Texas, and distributed to the commissioned officers, sheriffs, clerks and assessors of the counties of Texas at the rate of one copy to each.

4. Issue to each commissioned officer and headquarters one copy of the necessary text books, and of such annual reports concerning the militia as the Governor may direct.

5. Cause to be prepared and issued all necessary blank books, blanks, forms and notices required to carry into full effect the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5794. [5793-94] Report to Governor.—He shall report annually to the Governor the following information to be laid before the Legislature:

1. A statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since his last annual report.

2. An account of all arms, ammunition, and other military property belonging to this State, or in possession of this State, from what source received, to whom issued, and its present condition, so far as he may be informed.

3. The number, condition and organization of the Texas National Guard and reserve militia.

4. Any suggestions which he may deem of importance to the military interests and conditions of this State, and the perfection of its military organization. [Id.]

Art. 5795. [5795-6] Assistants.—The Adjutant General shall have one assistant who shall fill the position of chief clerk, with the rank of colonel, one assistant quartermaster general, with the rank of colonel. All necessary clerks and employees may be employed and laborers hired by the Adjutant General as may be required to carry on the operations of his department. [Id.]

Art. 5796. [5797-8] Assistant Adjutant General.—The Governor shall appoint the Assistant Adjutant General on the recommendation of the Adjutant General. He shall remain in office during the pleasure of the Governor, and shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas National Guard. He shall before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas National Guard, which oath shall be deposited in the office of the Adjutant General. He shall aid the Adjutant General by the performance of such duties as may be assigned him, and shall, in case of absence or inability of the Adjutant General to act, perform all such portions of the duties of Adjutant General as the latter may expressly delegate to him, and shall on application and without compensation therefor, administer oaths of office to officers of the active militia, and to employes of the Adjutant General's office required to be taken on their appointment or promotion. [Id.]

Art. 5797. [5799] To issue certificates.—On the muster-in to the active militia of this State of any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band, the Adjutant General shall issue to such organization a certificate to the effect that such organization has been duly organized in accordance with the laws and regulations of the militia service of this State, and that such organization is entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred by such laws and regulations. Such certificate shall be in such form as the Adjutant General may prescribe. Such certificate shall be evidence in all the courts of this State that the organization therein named is duly incorporated. [Id.]

Art. 5798. [5800] To purchase stores.—The Adjutant General, after the appropriations are made for that purpose, may purchase and keep ready for use, or issue to the military forces of this State, as the best interests of the service may require, such amount and kind of quartermasters, ordnance, subsistence, medical, signal, engineers, and all other military stores and supplies as shall be necessary; he shall see that all military stores and supplies both the property of this State and of the United States are properly cared for and kept in good order, ready for use; and all accounts which may accrue against this State under the provisions of this chapter shall, if correct, be certified and approved by the Adjutant General and paid out of the State Treasury as other claims are paid. Any military stores belonging to this State which may become unserviceable, obsolete, or unfit for further use, may be disposed of in such manner as the Governor or Adjutant General may prescribe by regulations or order; and the Adjutant General may sell or destroy as he may see fit for the best interests of the service, any unserviceable, or obsolete, or unsuitable military stores belonging to this State, the sums realized from the sale thereof to be turned into the State Treasury, or he may in his discretion, exchange such stores for such other military stores as the interest of the service may require, for the use of the active militia of this state. [Id.]

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER GENERAL.

Art. 5799. [5801] Assistant.—The Assistant Quartermaster General shall be appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Adjutant General, and shall remain in office during the pleasure of the Governor. He shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas National Guard. He shall first enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office and disburse and account for all moneys, and to faithfully keep, issue and and account for all military stores, supplies and other property of this State, or of the United States, coming into his possession or entrusted to his care for the use of the military forces of this State. He shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas National Guard. He shall, under the immediate direction of the Adjutant General, perform as near as may be, the duties pertaining to the chiefs of the quartermaster, subsistence, and ordnance department under the regulations and customs of the United States army. Upon assuming his duties he shall receipt to the Adjutant General for all military property of whatever kind belonging to this State, or to the United States, which may be on hand and intended for the use of or issued to the military forces of this State, and receipt to the Adjutant General for such other military property as may be received from the United States or other sources. He shall be responsible for all quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies belonging to this State, or which may be issued to this State by the United States, except such of the above mentioned stores and supplies as may be issued to the officers and organizations of the military forces of this State in accordance with the regulations in force. He shall issue and receive such quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies as the Governor or the Adjutant General may direct; attend to the care, preservation, safe-keeping, and repairing of the arms, ordnance, accoutrements, equipments and all other military property belonging to this State, or issued to this State by the United States, for the purpose of arming and equipping the military forces of this State; prepare such returns of all quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal and other military stores and supplies that have been issued to this State by the United States at the times and in the manner required by the Secretary of War, and render semi-annually to the Adjutant General returns of all military stores and supplies on hand or issued, in such manner as the Adjutant General may require. He shall render to the Adjutant General annually, or oftener, if required, a statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since last report. He shall perform the duties of the quartermaster, commissary, and paymaster of the Ranger force, and such other duties as the Governor or the Adjutant General may require of him. [Id.]

| Retirement | 5809 | | |

Art. 5800. [5802] Term.—All officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor, and shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless sooner retired by reason of resignations, disability or for cause to be determined by a court martial or an efficiency board legally convened for that purpose. [Acts 1905, p. 167; Acts 1917, 1st C. S. p. 3.]

Art. 5801. [5803] Commissions.—All commissions in the military service of this State shall be in the name and by authority of the State of Texas, sealed with the State seal, signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, and recorded by the Adjutant General in a record book kept in his office for that purpose. No fee for issuing such commissions shall be charged, or collected. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5802. [5804] Qualifications.—Staff officers, including officers of the pay, inspection, subsistence and medical departments, shall have had previous military experience. Vacancies among said officers shall be filled by the appointment from the officers of the militia of the State of Texas. All other officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be selected from the following classes: officers and enlisted men of the National Guard; officers on the reserve or unassigned list of the National Guard; officers, active or retired, and former officers of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps; graduates of the United States Military and Naval Academies, and graduates of schools, colleges and universities where military science is taught under the supervision of an officer of the Regular Army; for the technical branches and staff corps or departments, such other civilians as may be especially qualified for duty therein. [Acts 1905, p. 167; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 3.]

Art. 5803. Other qualifications.—All officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be citizens of the United States, over twenty-one and under sixty-four years of age, and shall take and subscribe the official oath, and shall have successfully passed the physical examination as prescribed by the laws of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 5804. [5805] Examination.—Before receiving a commission consequent upon an original appointment or before commissioned to a higher grade as a result of promotion, each officer must pass a satisfactory examination before a board as to his knowledge of military affairs and general knowledge and fitness for the service. No one failing to pass such examination shall be eligible for an office in the militia of this State, or for promotion, for the period of one year from the date of such failure. Judge advocates, medical officers, and veterinary surgeons shall be examined as to their general and professional knowledge and fitness for such service only. The following are exempt from examination: General officers, chaplains and enlisted men placed on the retired list as brevet second lieutenants. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5805. [5806] Boards of examiners.—Boards of examination under the preceding article shall be appointed by the Governor. Such boards shall consist of not less than three officers, and shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court martial. When returns of appointments are received by a board, the persons appointed shall by it be ordered before it for examination, and the result of the examination, with all papers in the case, shall be forwarded to the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5806. [5807] Oath.—Every officer duly commissioned shall, within ten days after his commission is tendered him, or within ten days after he shall have been notified personally or by mail that the same is held in readiness for him by a superior officer, take and subscribe the official oath. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed before an officer authorized to administer an oath, or some general or field officer or an officer who shall hold the assimilated grade of a field officer, who has taken the oath himself, and who is hereby authorized to administer the same. In case of neglect or refusal to take and subscribe such oath within the time mentioned such commission shall be canceled by the Governor, and a new appointment shall be made. Such oath of office shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5807. [5808] Brevet commissions.—The Governor may, upon the recommendation of their commanding officers, confer brevet commissions of a grade higher than the ordinary or brevet commissions ever held by them, upon the officers of the military service of this State for gallant conduct, or meritorious service of not less than twenty-five years. He may also confer upon officers in active service in the military service of this State, who have previously served in the forces of the United States in time of war, brevet commissions of a grade equal to the highest grade in which they previously served. Such commissions shall carry with them only such privileges or rights as are allowed in like cases in the military service of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 5808. [5809] Supernumerary list.—Officers who shall be rendered surplus by reduction or disbandment of organizations, or in any manner provided by this law, shall at the discretion of the Governor, be withdrawn from active service and placed upon the supernumerary list. The Governor may detail supernumerary officers for active duty, in which case they shall rank in their grade from the date of such detail, and he may relieve them from such duty and return them to the supernumerary list at his discretion.

Art. 5809. [5810] Retirement.—Any officer of the active militia who has reached the age of sixty-four years may be placed upon the retired list by the Governor. Any officer who shall have served as an officer in the same grade in the military service of this State for the continuous period of eight years, or as an officer in the military service of this State continuously for ten years, or as an officer in the military service of this State for twelve years or as an officer and enlisted man in the military service of this State for eighteen years may, upon his own request, be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command by the Governor. Any officer who becomes disabled, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be withdrawn from active service and placed on the retired list by the Governor. Any officer who becomes unfit or incompetent, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be discharged upon the recommendation of his commanding officer, or the recommendation of an inspecting officer. Such retirement or discharge shall be by order of the Governor, and in either case, shall be subject to the provisions of this article. Before making such order the Governor shall, at his discretion, appoint a board of not less than five commissioned officers, one of whom shall be a surgeon, whose duty it shall be to determine the facts as to the nature and cause of incapacity of such officer as appears disabled or unfit, or incompetent from any cause, to perform military service, and whose case shall be referred to it. No officer whose grade or promotion would be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Such board is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, shall report such fact to the Governor, stating cause of incapacity, whether from disability, unfitness, or incompetency, and if he approves such finding such officer shall be placed on the retired list or discharged as herein provided. The members of the board shall first be sworn to honestly and impartially perform their duties as members of such board. No officer shall be placed upon the retired list, or discharged by the action of such board, if appointed by the Governor, without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if upon notice he shall demand it, and the Governor in his discretion shall think proper to appoint such board. No case need be referred for the action of such board, under this article, unless the officer designated to be placed on the retired list or discharged shall, within twenty days after being notified that he will be so retired or discharged, serve on the Adjutant General a written notice that he demands a hearing and examination before such board, and the Governor approve such demand. The Governor may withdraw from active service and command and place upon the retired list any officer who has been twenty-five years in the military service of this State, on the recommendation of the commanding officer of the brigade or division. Vacancies created by the operations of this article shall be filled in the same manner as other vacancies. [Id.]

Art. 5810. [5811] Board to examine officers.—The Governor may whenever he may deem that the good of the service requires it, order any officer before a board of examination, to consist of not less than three nor more than five officers above the grade of captain, which is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and such board shall examine into the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of such officer, and record and return the testimony taken and a record of its proceedings. If the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the Governor, he shall be discharged from the service. No officer whose grade or promotion would in any way be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Failure to appear when ordered before a board constituted under this article shall be sufficient ground for a finding by such board that the officer ordered to appear be discharged. [Id.]

Art. 5811. [5812] Bond of officers.—When required to do so by the Governor, any officer of the active militia of this State shall give good and sufficient bond in such sum as the Adjutant General may direct, payable to the Governor conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and faithfully to expend all public money of this State and account for the same, and to account for and safely keep all public property of this State or of the United States issued and intended for the use of the military forces of this State, which he may receive from time to time, and to promptly turn over the same to whomsoever the Governor may direct. Such bond shall be in such sum as prescribed by the Adjutant General, and shall be approved by him and filed in his office; and such bond shall not apply to the reasonable wear and tear of arms, equipments, and other military supplies, incident to the military service. The commanding officer of every troop, battery, company, or signal corps and the chief musician of every band mustered into the military service of this State shall file such bond in the office of the Adjutant General, before the commission of such officer shall be issued for the use of his organization. When required to do so by the Governor, any non-commissioned officer or enlisted man of the military forces of this State shall make and file the bond as provided by this article. Such bond shall provide for the payment of a reasonable attorney's fee, not to exceed ten per cent, nor be less than ten dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5812. [5813] Records admissible.—Copies of all bonds and other papers filed in the office of the Adjutant General, in accordance with the provisions of any law of this State, certified under the hand and seal of office of the Adjutant General, shall be admitted in evidence in all the courts of this State, in the same manner and with like effect as the original would be if duly proven. [Id.]

Art. 5813. [5814] Pay deductions.—The commanding officer of any troop, battery, company, signal corps or band is hereby authorized to deduct from any pay for military service due any officer or enlisted man of his organization such amount as such officer or enlisted man may owe his organization for dues and fines, as provided by the by-laws of such organization. [Id.]

Art. 5814. [5815] Company funds.—The commanding officer of each company shall be the custodian of the company fund, and shall receive, safely keep, and properly disburse, as may be required by the Governor, all money that may be entrusted to his care, and to render on June 30 and December 31 of each year, to the Adjutant General, an itemized statement of all money by him received and disbursed for the preceding six months. [Id.]

Art. 5815. [5816] Absence of commander.—The duties assigned to an officer by title in this chapter shall devolve in case of absence or disability to command of the officer named, upon the line officer next in rank, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5816. [5817] Absence of men.—The officer ordering any military duty may excuse any officer or enlisted man for absence therefrom upon good and sufficient grounds. [Id.]

Art. 5817. [5818] To furnish arms, etc.—Every commissioned officer shall provide himself with the arms, uniforms, and equipments prescribed and approved by the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 5818. [5819] Examination exemption.—Any person who graduates from any college or school of this State, wherein there is a prescribed course of military instruction under the supervision of an officer of the United States army, or an officer of the active militia of this State shall, if he applies for appointment as a commissioned officer in the active militia of this State, in the grade of second lieutenant, within two years after graduation, be exempt from examination in all military subjects, except the militia law of this State, and examination as to personal qualifications and physical condition. In no case shall such graduate be drafted to serve in any capacity other than that of commissioned officer; provided, that when an officer of the active militia of this State is a military instructor, the Adjutant General shall prescribe the course of military instruction to be given, and when such colleges or schools do not follow the course of instructions so prescribed, the graduates thereof shall not be entitled to the exemptions and privileges specified in this article. [Id.]

[5820] Enlistment.—Any male citizen of the United States, or any male who has declared his intention to become such citizen, who is a resident of this State, if more than eighteen or less than forty-five years of age, able-bodied, free of disease, and of good character and temperate habits, may voluntarily enlist in the active militia of this State; provided, persons not within such ages may enlist on the written authority of the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5820. [5821] Three year enlistment.—All enlistments in the active militia of this State shall be for the term of three years. No soldier shall be again enlisted in the active militia of this State whose service during his last preceding term of enlistment has not been honest and faithful. [Id.]

Art. 5821. [5822] Oath.—Every person who enlists or re-enlists in the active militia of this State shall sign and make oath to an enlistment paper, which shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General. Such oath may also be taken and subscribed to before a field officer, or the commanding officer of a signal corps, troop, battery or company, who are hereby authorized to administer such oaths. [Id.]

Art. 5822. [5830] Administering oaths.—No civil or military officer shall be entitled to charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering or certifying any oath administered or certified under any provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5823. [5823] Disqualifications.—No minor shall be enlisted without the written consent of his parents or guardian. One who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from military service of this State or of the United States shall not be eligible for enlistment or re-enlistment, unless he produce the written consent to such enlistment of the commanding officer of the organization from which he was expelled or dishonorably discharged, and of the commanding officer who approved such expulsion, or issued such dishonorable discharge. [Id.]

Art. 5824. Federal laws applicable.—The terms of and requirements for enlistments and the qualifications of enlisted men in the National Guard shall be that prescribed by the laws of the United States. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1917, p. 3.]

Art. 5825. [5824] Officers, how appointed.—Commanding officers of regiments and of batalions and squadrons not part of regiments shall appoint and warrant the non-commissioned staff officers of their respective regiments, battalions, or squadrons, and they shall, in their discretion, warrant the non-commissioned officers of the troops, batteries and companies of their respective regiments, battalions and squadrons from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troops, batteries and companies, respectively. In troops, batteries and companies not a part of a regiment, battalion or squadron, and in signal and hospital corps, the non-commissioned officers shall be warranted by the commanding officer of the brigade or division, in his discretion, to which such organization may be attached, from the members of such organization upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troop, battery, company, signal or hospital corps. To be eligible for appointment as sergeant, first class of the hospital corps, a candidate must be a registered pharmacist. A sergeant of the hospital corps must be appointed from the hospital corps. The officer warranting a non-commissioned officer shall have power to reduce to the ranks for good and sufficient reasons the non-commissioned officers herein named. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5826. [5825] Re-enlistments.—Men who have been discharged by reason of disbandment may be re-enlisted, and shall then receive credit for the period served at the time of such disbandment. A man discharged from physical disabilities shall, if such disability cease, and he again enlists, or a man discharged upon his own request shall, if he again enlists, receive credit for the period served prior to such discharge. [Id.]

Art. 5827. [5826] Second lieutenants.—The Governor may appoint and commission enlisted men, who have served well and faithfully in the active militia of this State for a period of not less than twenty-five years, without examination, second lieutenants by brevet; provided, such enlisted men, so appointed and commissioned, shall be immediately placed on the retired list. [Id.]

Art. 5828. [5827] Physical examination.—No applicant for appointment or enlistment in the active militia of this State will be commissioned or enlisted without first passing a satisfactory physical examination. [Id.]

Art. 5829. [5828] Assignment of pay.—No assignment of pay by any officer or an enlisted man shall be valid, except as otherwise provided by the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 5830. [5831] Governor may call.—When an invasion of, or an insurrection in, this State is made or threatened, or when the Governor may deem it necessary for the enforcement of the laws of this State, he shall call forth the active militia or any part thereof, to repel, suppress, or enforce the same, and if the number available is insufficient he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. [Id.]

Art. 5831. [5832] Impending riot.—When there is in any county, city or town in this State tumult, riot or body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony, or breach of the peace, or to do violence to person or property, or by force to break or resist the laws of this State, or when such tumult riot, mob or other unlawful act or violence is threatened and that fact is made to appear to the Governor, he may issue his order to any commander of a division, brigade, regiment, squadron, battalion, troop, battery or company of the active militia of this State to appear at the time and place directed, to aid the civil authorities to suppress or prevent such violence and in executing the laws; provided, whenever the necessity for military aid in preventing or suppressing such violence and in executing the law is immediate and urgent, and when it is impracticable to furnish such information to the Governor in time to secure military aid by his order, the district judge of the judicial district in which the disturbance occurs, or the sheriff of such county, or the mayor of such city, or town, may call in writing for aid upon the commanding officer of the active militia stationed therein, or adjacent thereto; and the civil officer making the call shall at once notify the Governor of his action. [Id.]

Art. 5832. [5833] Mobilization order.—The officer to whom the order of the Governor, or the call of the civil authority, is directed shall, upon its receipt, forthwith order his command, or such portion thereof as may be ordered or called for, to parade at the time and place appointed, and shall immediately notify the Governor of his action. [Id.]

Art. 5833. [5834] Commanding officer's duty.—When such troops have appeared at the appointed place, the commanding officer thereof shall obey and execute such general instructions, which shall be in writing, if practicable, otherwise verbal instructions given in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, as he may there and then receive from the civil authorities charged by law with the suppression of riot, or tumult or the preservation of the public peace, but such commanding officer shall exercise his discretion as to the proper method of practically accomplishing the instructions received; the kind and extent of force to be used, and the particular means to be employed to accomplish the object specified by the civil authority shall be left solely to such commanding officer. [Id.]

Art. 5834. [5835] Active militia.—The Governor may order the active militia, or any part thereof, to assist the civil authorities in guarding prisoners, or in conveying prisoners from and to any point in this State, or discharging other duties in connection with the execution of the law as the public interest or safety at any time may require. [Id.]

Art. 5835. [5836] Sale of arms.—Whenever any part of the active militia of this State is on active duty pursuant to the order of the Governor, or call of civil authority, to aid in the enforcement of the law, the commanding officer of such troops may order the closing of any place where arms, ammunition, dynamite or other explosives are sold, and forbid the sale, barter, loan or gift of any said article so long as any of the troops remain on duty in such place, or in the vicinity where such place may be located. [Id.]

Art. 5836. [5837] Regular training.—Officers and enlisted men of each troop, battery, and company of the active militia of this State shall assemble for and undergo drill and instruction at company, battalion, or regimental armories (troop, squadron, or battery armories for cavalry or field artillery) or rendezvous or for target practice, not less than twenty-four times during each calendar year preceding the annual allotment of funds under Section 1661 Revised Civil Statutes of the United States as amended. During the same period there shall be at least one inspection of each troop, battery, and company by an officer of the active militia of this State, or by an officer of the regular army of the United States, at such times as the Governor may direct. In addition to such drills and parades, the commanding officer of any organization may require the officers and enlisted men of his command to meet for parade, drill or instruction at such times and places as he may appoint. [Id.]

Art. 5837. [5838] Practice marches, etc.—Each troop, battery or company of the active militia of this State, not especially excused by the Governor, will be required to participate for at least five consecutive days annually in practice marches or camps of instruction, under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe, and under such instructors as he may appoint. [Id.]

All uniforms and other military property issued by this State shall be used for military purposes only, and when issued shall be receipted for, and kept and accounted for in such manner as the Adjutant General may prescribe. [Id.]

ARTICLES OF WAR.

Art. 5858. [5860] Rules.—The military forces of this State shall be governed by the following rules known as articles:

The word "officer" as used therein, shall be held to designate commissioned officers: the word "soldier" includes non-commissioned officers, musicians, artificers, privates and enlisted men; the word, "company" shall be understood to include troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps, bands and detachments, and the convictions mentioned therein shall be understood to be convictions by court martial.

1. Enlistment in the active militia of this State shall be voluntary, and every person who enlists therein shall take and subscribe an oath in the following form:

"I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the State of Texas and to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the Governor of Texas, and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the laws, rules and articles for the government of the military forces of the State of Texas."

2. Every officer who knowingly enlists or musters into the military service of this State any minor over the age of sixteen years without the consent of his parents or guardian, or any minor under the age of sixteen years, or any insane or intoxicated person, or any deserter from the military service of this State or of the United States, or any person who has been convicted of any infamous crime, shall upon conviction, be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

3. No enlisted man, duly sworn, shall be discharged from service without a discharge in writing, signed by a field officer of the regiment to which he belongs, or by the commanding officer when no field officer is present; and no discharge shall be given to any enlisted man before his term of service has expired, except by order of the Governor, the Adjutant General, or by order of a court martial.

4. Any officer who knowingly musters as a soldier a person who is not a soldier, shall be deemed guilty of knowingly making a false muster, and punished as a court martial may direct.

5. Any officer who takes money, or other thing by way of gratification, on mustering any regiment or company, or on signing muster rolls, shall be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military, in the service of the State of Texas, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

6. Every commanding officer shall, in the beginning of January and July of each year, and oftener if required by the Governor, transmit to the Adjutant General's department an exact return of the troops under his command, specifying the names of the officers absent from their posts, with the reasons for and the time of their absence. Such returns shall be made in the form and forwarded in the manner prescribed by the Adjutant General; and any such officer, who through neglect or design omits to send such return shall, on conviction thereof, be punished as a court martial may direct.

7. Every officer who knowingly makes a false return to the Adjutant General's department, or to any of his superior officers authorized to call for such returns, of the state of the regiment or company under his command, or of any arms, ammunition, clothing or other stores thereunto belonging, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

8. Every officer who signs a false certificate relating to the absence or pay of any officer or soldier shall be dismissed from the service, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

9. Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or horse, or who signs, or directs, or allows, the signing of any muster roll, knowing the same to contain a false muster shall, upon proof thereof by two witnesses before a court martial, be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military in the service of the State of Texas.

10. Any officer who wilfully or through neglect suffers to be lost, damaged or spoiled any military stores or supplies belonging to this State, or to the United States, which has been received for use of the military forces of this State, shall make good the loss or damage, and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

11. Any soldier who sells or through neglect loses or spoils the arms, uniforms, equipments, accoutrements, or any other military stores or supplies issued to him for his use or in his charge, shall make good the loss or damage, and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

12. Any officer or soldier who shall strike his superior officer, or offers any violence to him, the said superior officer being engaged in the reasonable execution of his official duties, or any officer or soldier who disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

13. Any officer or soldier who begins, excites, causes or joins in any mutiny or sedition in any regiment, company quarters or guard, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

14. Any officer or soldier, who being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or having any knowledge of any intended mutiny or sedition, does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

15. All officers, of what conditions soever, have power to quell all quarrels, frays and disorders, whether among persons belonging to their own or to any regiment or company, and to order officers into arrest and non-commissioned officers and soldiers into confinement who take part in same, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. Whoever being so ordered refuses to obey such officer or non-commissioned officer, or draws a weapon upon him, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

16. No officer or soldier shall send a challenge to another officer or soldier to fight a duel, or accept a challenge so sent. Any officer who so offends shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

17. Any soldier who absents himself from his company or guard, without leave from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

18. Any officer or soldier who fails except when prevented by sickness or other necessity, to repair at the fixed time, to the place of parade, exercise, or other rendezvous appointed by his commanding officer, or goes from the same, without leave from his commanding officer, before he is dismissed or relieved, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

19. Any soldier who is found one mile from camp, without leave in writing from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

20. Any officer who is found drunk on his guard, party or other duty, shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

21. Any sentinel who is found sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

22. Any officer or soldier who quits his guard without leave from his superior officer, except in case of urgent necessity, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

23. Any officer who, by any means whatsoever, occasions false alarms in camp, command or quarters, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

24. Any officer or soldier who misbehaves himself before the enemy, runs away, or shamefully abandons any place, post or guard, which he is commanded to defend, or speaks words inducing others to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

25. Any officer or soldier who, having been duly enlisted or drafted in the military service of this State, deserts the same shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

26. Every soldier who deserts the military service of this State shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such soldier shall be tried by a court martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried.

27. Any officer who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post or proper duties, without leave and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of the acceptance of the same, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter.

28. No soldier shall enlist himself in any other regiment or company, without a regular discharge from the regiment or company in which he last served, on a penalty of being reputed a deserter and suffering accordingly. And in case any officer shall knowingly receive and entertain such soldier, or shall not, after his being discovered to be a deserter, immediately give notice thereof to the command in which he last served, the said officer shall, by court martial be dismissed.

29. In time of war, insurrection or rebellion, larceny, robbery, burglary, arson, rape or assault with intent to rape, mayhem, manslaughter, murder, assault and battery with attempt to kill, wounding by shooting or stabbing with intent to commit murder, shall be punished by the sentence of a general court martial when committed by persons in the military service of the State; and punishment in every such case shall not be less than the punishment provided for like offenses by the Penal Code of this State.

30. When any officer or soldier is accused of a capital crime, or of any offense against the person or property of any citizen of this State, which is punishable by the laws of this State, the commanding officer and the officers of the regiment or company to which the person so accused belongs are required, except in time of war, upon application duly made by or in behalf of the party injured, to use their utmost endeavors to deliver him over to the civil authority and to aid the officers of justice in apprehending and securing him in order to bring him to trial. If, upon application, any officer refuses or wilfully neglects, except in time of war, to deliver over such accused person to the civil authorities, or to aid the officers of justice in apprehending him, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

31. Any person in the military service of this State, who makes or causes to be made, any claim against this State or the United States, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or who presents or causes to be presented, to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against this State, or the United States, or against any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud this State or the United States, by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State, or the United States, or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing, or other papers knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State or the United States, or any officer thereof, makes or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper knowing such oath to be false; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State, or the United States, or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits or procures or advises the forging or counterfeiting of any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses or procures or advises the use of any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

Who, having charge, possession, custody or control of any money or other property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State, knowingly delivers or causes to be delivered to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Who, being authorized to make or deliver any papers certifying the receipt of any property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State, makes or delivers to any person, such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, or with intent to defraud this State, or the United States; or

Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and wilfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, money or other property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State; or

Who knowingly purchases, or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any soldier, officer or other person who is part of, or employed in, said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores or other property of this State, or the United States, such soldier or officer, or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same shall on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court martial may adjudge, or by any or all of said penalties. If any person, being guilty of any of the offenses aforesaid, while in the military service of this State, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge or been dismissed.

32. Any officer who is convicted of conduct unbecoming to an officer and a gentleman shall be dismissed from the service.

33. All crimes not capital, and all disorders and neglects which officers and soldiers may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, though not mentioned in the foregoing articles, are to be taken cognizance of by a general or regimental, or a summary court martial, according to the nature and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court.

34. Whenever, by these articles of war for the government of the military forces of this State, the punishment or conviction of any military offense, is left to the discretion of the court martial, the punishment therefor shall not be in excess of a limit which the Governor may prescribe.

35. The officers and soldiers of any troops whether active or reserve militia of this State or otherwise appointed, enlisted, mustered or drafted into the military forces of this State, shall at all times, and in all places be governed by these articles, and shall be tried by courts martial.

36. All retainers of the camp and all persons serving with the military forces of this State in the field, though not enlisted soldiers, shall be subject to these rules and articles in the same manner as enlisted men.

37. Officers charged with crime shall be arrested and confined in their quarters or tents, or other place, and deprived of their swords by the commanding officer. And any officer who leaves his confinement before he is set at liberty by his commanding officer shall be dismissed from the service, and suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

38. Soldiers charged with crime shall be confined until tried by court martial, or released by proper authority.

39. Any provost marshal, or any officer commanding a guard, who shall refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to his charge by an officer belonging to the military forces of this State shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct, provided the officer committing shall, at the same time, deliver a statement in writing, signed by himself, of the crime charged against the prisoner.

40. Every officer to whose charge a prisoner is committed, shall within twenty-four hours after such commitment, or as soon as he is relieved from his guard, report in writing to the commanding officer the name of such prisoner, the crime charged against him, and the name of the officer committing him; and if he fails to make such report, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

41. Any officer who presumes without proper authority, to release a prisoner committed to his charge, or suffers any prisoner so committed to escape, shall be punished as a court martial may direct,

42. No officer or soldier put in arrest shall be continued in confinement more than five days, or until such time as a court martial can be assembled.

43. When an officer is put in arrest for the purpose of trial, except at remote stations, the officer by whose order he is arrested shall see that a copy of the charges on which he is to be tried is served upon him within five days after his arrest, and that he is brought to trial within ten days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of said ten days. If a copy of the charges be not served, or the arrested officer be not brought to trial, as herein required, the arrest shall cease. But officers released from arrest under the provisions of this article, may be tried, whenever the exigencies of the service shall permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest.

44. The Governor, or any general, or other officer commanding a division or brigade, may appoint general courts martial whenever necessary. But when any such general or other officer is the accuser or prosecutor of any officer under his command, the court shall be appointed by the Governor; and its proceedings and sentence shall be sent directly to the Adjutant General, by whom they shall be laid before the Governor for his approval or orders in the case.

45. Officers who may appoint a court martial shall be competent to appoint a judge advocate for the same.

46. General courts martial may consist of any number of officers, from five to thirteen inclusive, but they shall not consist of less than thirteen when that number can be convened without injury to the service. A decision of the appointing authority as to the number that can be assembled without injury to the service is conclusive.

47. When the requisite number of officers to form a general court martial is not present in any command or detachment, the commanding officer shall, in cases which require the cognizance of such a court, report to the Governor, who shall thereupon order a court to be assembled at the nearest and most convenient place at or near which there may be such a requisite number of officers, and shall order the party accused, with the necessary witnesses to be transported to the place where the said court shall be assembled.

48. Every officer commanding a camp or other place where the troops consist of different corps, and every officer commanding a regiment, separate squadron or battalion, shall be competent to appoint for such camp or other place, or such regiment, separate squadron or battalion, regimental courts martial, consisting of three officers, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital; but such courts martial shall be appointed and the officers designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable. Such courts martial shall have power to award punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, or forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and in case of a non-commissioned officer, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto.

49. Every commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and the commanding officer of each company at its home station, shall have power to appoint for such place, command or station summary courts martial to consist of one officer to be designated by him, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital, but such summary courts martial may be appointed and the officer designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable; and, when but one commissioned officer is present with a command, he shall hear and finally determine such cases. Such summary courts shall have power to adjudge punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and, in case of non-commissioned officers, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto; provided such summary courts shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, unless the accused shall, before trial, consent in writing to trial by said court; but in case of refusal to so consent, the trial may be had either by general, regimental or by said summary court, but in case of trial by said summary court without the consent as aforesaid, the court shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, or forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine. The officer holding the summary court shall have power to administer oaths and to hear and determine cases cognizable by said court, and when satisfied of the guilt of the accused, adjudge the punishment to be inflicted which shall not exceed the limit prescribed in this article.

50. There shall be a summary court record kept at the headquarters of the proper command in the field, each regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station, for which summary courts martial have been appointed, in which shall be entered a record of all cases heard and determined and the action had thereon. The commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station, for which summary courts martial have been appointed shall, on the last day of every month and oftener if required, make a report to the Adjutant General of the number of cases determined by summary courts, during the period, setting forth the offenses committed and the penalties awarded.

51. The judge advocate of any general or regimental court martial shall administer to each member of such court, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath: "You, A. B., do solemnly swear that you will well and truly try and determine according to evidence, the matter now before you, between the State of Texas and the prisoner to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice, without partiality, favor or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government for the military forces of this State, and if any doubts should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, and the best of your understanding, and the customs in like cases; and you do further swear that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be published by the proper authority, except to the judge advocate; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God."

52. When the oath has been administered to the members of a court martial, the president of the court shall administer to the judge advocate, or person officiating as such an oath in the following form: "You do swear that you will not disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law; nor divulge the sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until it shall be duly disclosed by the same. So help you God."

53. A court martial may punish, at discretion, any person who uses any menacing words, signs or gestures in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder.

54. All members of a court martial are to behave with decency and calmness.

55. Members of a court martial may be challenged by a prisoner, but only for causes stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time.

56. When a prisoner, arraigned before a court martial, from obstancy and deliberate design, stands mute or answers foreign to the purpose, the court may proceed to trial and judgment as if the prisoner had pleaded not guilty.

57. The judge advocate general or some person deputed by him, or by the Governor, or general or officer commanding the division, brigade, camp or other place, regiment, separate squadron or battalion shall prosecute on the name of the State of Texas; but when the prisoner has made his plea he shall so far consider himself counsel for the prisoner as to object to any leading question to any of the witnesses and to any question to the prisoner, the answer to which might tend to criminate himself. Whenever a court martial shall sit in closed session the judge advocate shall withdraw, and, whenever his legal advice or his assistance in referring to recorded evidence is required, it shall be obtained in open court.

58. The judge advocate general and the officers of his department, the judge advocate of court martial and the trial officers of summary courts are hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purpose of administration of military justice and for other military purposes.

59. The deposition of witnesses for the accused residing beyond the limits of the State, or the county in which any military court may be ordered to sit, may be taken and read in evidence as provided by the laws of this State.

60. All persons who give evidence before a court martial shall be examined on oath administered by the judge advocate in the following form: "You swear that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

61. A court martial for reasonable cause shall grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as may appear to be just; provided, that if the prisoner be in close confinement the trial shall not be delayed for more than sixty days.

62. Members of a court martial in giving their votes, shall begin with the youngest in commission.

63. Officers shall be tried only by general courts martial; and no officer shall, when it can be avoided, be tried by officers inferior to him in rank.

64. No officer shall be discharged or dismissed from the service except by order of the Governor, or by sentence of a general court martial.

65. When an officer is dismissed from the service for cowardice or fraud, the sentence shall direct that the crime, punishment, name and place of abode of the delinquent shall be published in the newspapers in and about the State and in the county in which the offender lives, or where he usually resides; and, after such publication, it shall be scandalous for an officer to associate with him.

66. When a court martial suspends an officer from command it may also suspend his pay and emoluments for the same time according to the nature of his offense.

67. No person shall be tried for the second time for the same offense.

68. No person shall be liable to be tried or punished by a general court martial for any offense except for desertion in the face of an enemy, committed more than two years before the arraignment of such person for such offense, unless he shall have meanwhile absented himself from this State, in which case the time of his absence shall be excluded in computing the period of the limitation; provided that said limitation shall not begin until the end of the term for which said person was mustered into service.

69. No sentence of a court martial respecting a general officer, and no sentence of a court martial directing the dismissal of any officer, shall be carried into execution until it shall have been confirmed by the Governor.

70. No sentence of a court martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being.

71. All sentences of a court martial may be confirmed and carried into execution by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being, where the confirmation by the Governor is not required by these articles.

72. Any officer who is authorized to confirm and carry into execution the sentence of a court martial shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by it, except the punishment of dismissal of an officer; and the Governor shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by any court martial.

73. Every judge advocate, or person acting as such, at any general or regimental court martial shall, with such expedition as the opportunity of time and distance of place may admit, forward the original proceedings and sentences of such court to the Adjutant General in whose office they shall be carefully preserved.

74. Every party tried by general or regimental court martial shall, upon demand thereof, made by himself or any person in his behalf, be entitled to a copy of the proceedings and sentences of such court.

75. A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any such transaction of, or accusation or imputation against, any officer or soldier may be ordered by the Governor, or by any commanding officer; but such courts of inquiry shall never be ordered by any commanding officer, except upon a demand by the officer or soldier whose conduct is to be inquired of.

76. A court of inquiry shall consist of one or more officers, not exceeding three, and a recorder to reduce the proceedings and evidence to writing.

77. The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath: "You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you without partially, favor, affection, prejudice or hope of reward. So help you God." After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath: "You do swear that you will according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God."

78. A court of inquiry and the recorder thereof shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to courts martial and the judge advocates thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath which is taken by witnesses before courts martial and the party accused shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine them so as to fully investigate the circumstances in question.

79. A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired of, unless specially ordered to do so.

80. The proceedings of a court of inquiry must be authenticated by the signatures of the recorder and the president thereof, and delivered to the commanding officer.

81. The proceedings of a court of inquiry may be admitted as evidence by a court martial in cases not extending to the dismissal of an officer; provided, that the circumstances are such that oral testimony can be obtained.

82. The foregoing articles shall be read once in every twelve months to every company in the military service of this State, and shall be duly observed and obeyed by all officers and soldiers in said service. [Id.]

Art. 5859. [5861] Evidence.—The rules of evidence in all courts martial shall follow in general, so far as apposite, the common law rules of evidence as observed by the courts of this State in criminal cases; but a certain latitude in the introduction of evidence and the examination of witnesses by an avoidance of restrictive rules is permissible, when it is in the administration of military justice.

Art. 5860. [5862] Privileges of accused.—In all trials before courts martial, the accused shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to be presented with a copy of the charges. He shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both; shall be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor. [Id.]

Art. 5861. [5863] Counsel for defendant.—The officer ordering a general or regimental court martial will at the request of any prisoner who is to be arraigned, detail as counsel for his defense a suitable officer, one not acting as a summary court; provided such request is made within a reasonable time before trial. If there be no such officer available, the fact will be reported to the Adjutant General for his action. An officer so detailed shall perform such duties as usually devolve upon counsel for defendant before civil courts in criminal cases. [Id.]

Art. 5862. [5864] Reporter.—The judge advocate of a military court shall have power to appoint a reporter, who shall record the proceedings of, and testimony taken before such court, and may set down the same, in the first instance in shorthand. The reporter shall, before entering upon his duty, be sworn faithfully to perform the same. [Id.]

Art. 5863. [5865] May issue process.—The president or judge advocate of every general or regimental court martial shall have power to issue like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify, which courts of criminal jurisdiction within this State may lawfully issue; and such process shall be issued in the same style and manner and executed by the same officers as when issued by such court. [Id.]

Art. 5864. [5866] Process generally.—The president of any court martial, and any summary court officer, shall have authority to issue, under his hand, in the name of the State of Texas, directed to any sheriff or constable, whose duty it shall be to serve or execute the same in the same manner in which like process is served or executed when issued by a magistrate, all necessary process, subpoenas, attachments, warrants of arrest and warrant of commitment. [Id.]

Art. 5865. [5867] Penalty.—Every person, who being duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a regimental or general court martial, who wilfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or produce documentary evidence which such person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and prosecuted in the proper justice court, and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars; provided, such witness may plead as a defense that he was not tendered or paid one day's fee and mileage for the journey to and from the place of trial, as provided in this chapter, such amounts to be paid by the Adjutant General's department out of any appropriation of funds available for that purpose; provided, that no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself, or to answer any questions which may tend to incriminate or degrade him. [Id.]

Art. 5866. [5868] Witnesses expenses.—Persons in the employ of this State, but not belonging to the military forces thereof, when traveling upon summons as witnesses before military courts, are entitled to transportation from their place of residence to the place where the court is in session and return. If no transportation be furnished they are entitled to reimbursement of the cost of travel actually performed by the shortest usually traveled route. They are also entitled to reimbursement of the actual cost of meals and rooms at a rate not to exceed two dollars per day for each day actually and unavoidably consumed in travel, or in attendance upon the court under the order or summons. No allowance will be made to them when attendance upon court does not require them to leave their place of residence. [Id.]

Art. 5867. [5869] Compensation of.—A person not in the employ of this State and not belonging to the active military forces thereof, who has been duly summoned to appear as a witness before a military court, will receive one dollar and fifty cents per day for each day actually in attendance upon the court, and six cents a mile for going from his place of residence to the place of trial or hearing, and six cents a mile for returning. Civilian witnesses will be paid by the Adjutant General's department. [Id.]

Art. 5868. [5870] Account.—The charges for return journeys of witnesses will be made upon the basis of the actual charges allowed for travel to the court, and the entire account thus completed will be paid upon discharge from attendance without waiting for completion of return travel. [Id.]

Art. 5869. [5871] Attachment for witnesses.—If a witness has been subpoenaed and fails to attend, attachment shall issue, and he shall be liable for the costs of such attachment unless good cause be shown to the court why he failed to obey the subpoena, which cost may be recovered by civil suit. [Id.]

Art. 5870. [5872] Witness fees.—No fees shall be allowed to a person as witness fees, unless such person has been subpoenaed, attached, or recognized as a witness in the case.

Art. 5871. [5873] Governor may order arrest.—When charges against any person in the military service of this State are made to the Governor, or any officer authorized to order a court martial for the trial of such person, and the Governor or such officer, believes that such charges can be sustained, and has reason to believe that the person so charged will not appear for trial, or intends to flee from justice, the Governor, or such officer, may issue a warrant of arrest to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the person so charged resides, or wherein he is supposed to be, commanding the sheriff or constable to take the body of the person so charged and confine him in jail until such time as his case may be finally disposed of; and the sheriff or constable, on the order of the Governor, or officer ordering the court, shall bring the person so charged before the court martial for trial, or turn him over to whoever the order may direct; the Governor, or the officer issuing the warrant of arrest, shall indorse thereon the amount of bail to be required; and it shall be a violation of duty on the part of any sheriff or constable to permit a person so committed to remain out of jail, except that he may, when such person desires it, permit him to give bail in the sum indorsed on the warrant, conditioned for his appearance, from time to time, before such court martial as he may be ordered for trial, and until his case is finally disposed of, or until such time as he may surrender to the sheriff or constable as directed by the reviewing authority of the court martial before which he may be ordered for trial. [Id.]

Art. 5872. [5874] Suit on bonds, etc.—Upon the failure of any person, who has been admitted to bail conditioned for his appearance for trial before a court martial, or upon the failure of any person admitted to bail to appear as a witness in any case before a court martial, as conditioned in the bail bond of any such person, the court martial shall certify the fact of such failure to so appear to the officer ordering the court martial, or to the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be; and such officer shall cause a judge advocate, district or county attorney to file suit in Travis County therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5873. [5875] Laws applicable.—The rules laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure of this State relating to the giving of bail, the amount of bail, the number of sureties, the persons who may be sureties, the property exempt from liability, the responsibility of parties to the same and all other rules of a general nature not inconsistent with this law are applicable to bail taken as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5874. [5876] Warrant of arrest.—A warrant of arrest issued by the Governor, or other officer authorized to order a general court martial, and all subpoenas and other process issued by general courts martial shall extend to every part of the State; but warrants of arrest issued by an officer, other than those named above, and all subpoenas and other process issued by other military courts can not be executed in any other county than the one in which they were issued, except they be indorsed by the Governor, or an officer authorized to order a general court martial, in which case they can be executed anywhere in the State. The indorsement may be "Let this process be executed in any county in the State of Texas." The indorsement shall be dated and signed officially by the Governor or officer making it. [Id.]

Art. 5875. [5877-78] Officers' fees.—Upon conviction of any person by a court martial, all costs including the cost accruing for witness fees and the fees for sheriffs or constables for executing the process, subpoenas, writs of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be taxed against defendant; and any sheriff or constable executing any process, subpoena, writ of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be allowed the same fees as provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure in this State. When the defendant is imprisoned for costs the Adjutant General shall pay said costs out of any fund that may be available. [Id.]

Art. 5876. [5879] Felony.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same in whole or in part, and such sentence as approved exceeds two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which the court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county until taken charge of by a duly accredited agent of the State penitentiary; and such reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall certify a copy of the proceedings, as approved, of the court martial in the case of such person to be confined to the superintendent of the State penitentiary, which shall be sufficient authority for, and such superintendent shall send for and confine such person in said penitentiary for the period named in the proceedings of the court martial as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and the State penitentiary board shall make such provision as may be necessary for receiving from the sheriff as aforesaid and confining such person in such manner as persons are received and confined in the State penitentiary on sentence of district courts in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5877. [5880] Misdemeanor.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same in whole or in part, and such sentence as approved, does not exceed two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which such court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county for the period named in such sentence, as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and such confinement shall be carried out as prescribed for confinement in jail by the Code of Criminal Procedure of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5878. [5881] Fine and costs.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges a fine and cost against any person, and such fine and cost has not been fully paid within ten days after the confirmation thereof, the Governor or officer ordering the court or the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment directed to the sheriff of the county in which the court martial was held, directing him to take the body of the person so convicted and confine him in the county jail; and the sheriff shall take the body of the person convicted and confine him in the county jail for one day for any fine not exceeding one dollar, and one additional day for every dollar above that sum, and one additional day for each dollar of cost. [Id.]

Art. 5879. [5882] Payment of fines.—All fines and forfeitures, imposed by general or regimental courts martial, shall be paid to the officer ordering such courts, or to the officer commanding for the time being, and by said officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, paid to the Adjutant General, who shall disburse the same as he may see fit for military purposes. [Id.]

Art. 5880. [5883] Fines.—All fines and forfeitures imposed by summary courts martial shall be paid to the officer ordering the court, or the officer commanding for the time being, and by such officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, placed to the credit of the company fund of the company of which the person fined was a member when the fine was imposed. [Id.]

Art. 5881. [5884] Sheriff to execute process.—When any lawful process, issued by the proper officer of any court martial, comes to the hands of any sheriff or constable, he shall perform the usual duties of such officer and perform all acts and duties by this chapter imposed or authorized to be performed by any sheriff or constable. [Id.]

Art. 5882. [5885] Jurisdiction presumed.—The jurisdiction of the courts and boards established by this chapter shall be presumed and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 5883. [5886] Exemption from sentence.—No action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against a member of the military forces of this State or officer or person acting under its authority or reviewing its proceedings on account of the approval or imposition or execution of any sentence, or the imposition or collection of any fine or penalty, or the execution of any warrant, writ, execution, process, or mandate of a military court. [Id.]

Art. 5884. [5887] Change of venue.—Any officer or member of the military forces of this State, who is sued for any injury to persons or property done while performing, or endeavoring to perform, any duty required of him by this law, shall have the right, and the court in which suit is pending, upon the application of the person sued, shall remove the venue of such cause to some court of competent jurisdiction in another county not subject to the same or some other disqualification; provided, such application is supported by the affidavit of two credible persons to the effect that they have good reason to believe that the defendant cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such court. Art. 5885. [5888] Appropriations. — Each commissioners court and the council of any city or town in this State are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to appropriate a sufficient sum, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the necessary expenses of the troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps and bands of the active militia of this State located in their respective counties, cities or towns, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per month for such expenses of any one organization. [Id.]

Art. 5886. [5889] Right of way on street.—The commanding officer of any portion of the active militia of this State, parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway, may require any or all persons in such street or highway to yield to the right of way to such militia; provided, that the carriage of the United States mails, the legitimate functions of the police and the progress and operations of hospital ambulances, fire engines and fire departments shall not be interfered with thereby. [Id.]

Art. 5887. [5890] Penalties.—Any person who shall secrete, sell, dispose of, offer for sale, purchase, retain after demand made by a commissioned officer of the active militia of this State, or in any manner pawn or pledge any arms, uniforms, equipment, or other military property issued under the provisions of this chapter, or of the military regulations of this State, or any person who shall wear any uniform or part thereof, or device, strap, knot, or insignia of any design or character used as a designation of grade, rank of office, such as are by law or by general regulations duly promulgated, prescribed for the use of the active militia of this State, or similar thereto, except members of the army of the United States or the active militia of this State; or any person who shall subject or cause to be subjected any other person to the deprivation of any right, privilege or immunity usually enjoyed by the public on account of membership in the army, navy, marine corps or revenue cutter service of the United States, or of the National Guard or naval service of this State, or otherwise in the military or naval service of the United States or of this State, wearing the uniform prescribed for him at that time by law, regulation of the service or custom, on account of his wearing such uniform or of being in such service; or who on account of such membership or the wearing of such uniform shall make or cause to be made such discrimination, shall forfeit to the State one hundred dollars for each offense, to be sued for in the name of the State of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney. All money recovered by any action under this article shall be paid to the Adjutant General, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia of this State. [Acts 1905, p. 167, Sec. 72; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 20.]

Art. 5888. [5891] Gambling, etc.—The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty may place in arrest, during the continuance thereof, any person who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory or other place devoted to such duty, or shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to and returning from any duty. He may prohibit and prevent the holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling within the limit of the post, camp ground, place of encampment, parade or drill under his command, or within limits not exceeding one mile therefrom as he may prescribe. And he may in his discretion, abate as a common nuisance all such sales. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5889. [5892] Insurrection.—Whenever any portion of the military forces of this State is employed in aid of the civil authority, the Governor, if in his judgment the maintenance of law and order will thereby be promoted may, by proclamation, declare the county or city in which the troops are serving, or any special portion thereof, to be in a state of insurrection. [Id.]

Art. 5890. [5893] Foreign troops.—No armed military force from another State, territory or district shall be permitted to enter this State without the permission of the Governor, unless such force is a part of the United States army. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

STATE NAVAL MILITIA.

Art. 5891. Texas Naval Board.—The “Texas Naval Board” shall consist of the Governor, and one other person to be appointed by him, which board shall have power to make, adopt and promulgate all such rules, orders and regulations as may be advisable and necessary to create and maintain an efficient naval militia, and is further empowered to co-operate with the Secretary of the Navy of the United States in putting into effect in the State of Texas, the provisions of an Act passed by the Sixty-third Congress, entitled: “An Act to promulgate the efficiency of the naval militia, and for other purposes.” [Acts 1915, p. 124.]

TITLE 95.

MINES AND MINING.

1 MINING BOARD AND INSPECTOR.

| | Article | | Article |

| Mining Board | 5892 | Compensation of board | 5897 |
| Board to select inspector | 5893 | Duties of inspector | 5898 |
| Qualifications and term | 5894 | Discrimination | 5899 |
| Supervision and removal | 5895 | Bond and liability | 5900 |
| Meetings of board | 5896 | | |

Art. 5892. [5923-4] Mining Board.—The Governor shall biennially appoint for a term of two years a board of seven members to be known as the State Mining Board, who shall make formal inquiry into and pass upon the qualifications and personal fitness of those seeking appointment as State Mining Inspector. Three members of said board shall be practical miners and three shall be mine operators. These six members shall nominate to the Governor a suitable person for appointment as the seventh member. If the said nomination is not made within ten days after their appointment, the Governor shall appoint the seventh. [Acts 1907, p. 331.]

Art. 5893. [5925] Board to select inspector.—The board shall meet biennially in the State Capitol to hear applications for the office of State Mining Inspector, and shall examine thoroughly all applicants who may come before it and select from among them the one who in its opinion is best qualified to perform the duties of said office, and upon their nomination, the Governor shall appoint their nominee. [Id. Sec. 16.]

Art. 5894. [5926] Qualifications and term.—The State Mining Inspector shall be a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in this State for one year, a man at least thirty years old, of good repute, personal integrity and temperate habits, without any pecuniary interest in any mine in this State, and with at least five years experience working in and around coal mines. He shall hold office for a term of two years. [Id. Sec. 17.]

Art. 5895. [5927] Supervision and removal.—The board shall exercise supervision over the acts of said inspector, and in the event of his incompetency or the neglect of his duty being proved to the board, they shall recommend to the Governor that he be removed from office, and his successor shall be chosen as herein provided. [Id. Sec. 18.]

Art. 5896. [5928] Meetings of board.—The board shall meet twice each year at such time and place as the majority may select for the purpose of receiving reports from the inspector and instructing him in the performance of his duties. [Id. Sec. 19.]

Art. 5897. [5929] Compensation of board.—The members of said board shall receive as compensation for their services five dollars a day not exceeding thirty days in any one year, and traveling expenses going to and returning from board meetings. [Id. Sec. 20.]

Art. 5898. [5930] Duties of inspector.—Said inspector under the instruction of said board shall enforce the provisions of this title, and shall make a report to said board at its semi-annual meeting and oftener if required. He shall file an itemized statement showing the number of times he inspected each mine and the actual amounts expended. [Id. Acts 1909, p. 163.]

Art. 5899. [5931] Discrimination.—Neither the instructions of said board nor the acts of said inspector shall ever discriminate in favor of or against any mine or against any owner, operator or employe of any mine, but said acts, either of the board or of the inspector, shall be impartial, fair and just to all persons or corporations subject to this law. [Id.]

Art. 5900. [5932] Bond and liability.—Before receiving his appointment by the Governor, said inspector shall enter into and deliver to the Governor a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful and impartial performance of his duty, which bond shall be payable to and approved by the Governor. His sureties shall make affidavit that they, in their own right, are worth over and above all exemptions the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties. On proof that said inspector has discriminated against and to the injury of any owner, operator or employe of any mine, the said owner, operator or employe may sue upon said bond and shall be entitled to recover such damages as may be proved in such suit. [Id.]

Art. 5901. [5933] Shafts, cages and passways.—Any shaft in process of sinking, and any opening projected for the purpose of mining coal of all kinds, shall be subjected to the provisions of this and the thirteen succeeding articles. At the bottom of each shaft and every caging place therein, a safe commodious passageway must be cut around said landing place, to serve as a traveling way by which employes shall pass from one side of the shaft to the other without passing under or on the cage. The upper and lower landings at the top of each shaft, and the openings of each intermediate seam from or to the shaft, shall be clear and free from loose materials and shall be securely fenced with automatic or other gates or bars so as to prevent either men or materials from falling into the shaft. Every hoisting shaft must be equipped with substantial cages fitted to guide rails running from the top to the bottom. Said cages must be safely constructed, they must be furnished with suitable boiler iron covers to protect persons riding thereon from falling objects, and they must be equipped with safety catches. Every cage on which people are carried must be fitted with iron bars, rings or chains in proper place and in sufficient number to furnish a secure handhold for every person permitted to ride thereon. At the top landing, cage supports, where necessary, must be carefully set and adjusted so as to work properly and securely hold the cages when at rest. In all cases where the human voice cannot be distinctly heard, there shall be provided a metal tube or telephone from the top to the bottom of the shaft or slope through which conversation may be held between persons at the bottom and top of such shaft or slope, and there shall also be maintained an efficient system of signaling to and from the top of the shaft or slope and each seam or opening. Every underground place on which persons travel, worked by self-acting engines, windlasses or machinery of any description, shall be provided with practical means of signaling between the stopping places and the ends of the plane, and shall further be provided, at intervals of not more than sixty feet, with sufficient manholes for places of refuge. [Acts. 1907, p. 331.]

Art. 5902. [5934] Props and timbers.—Every mine shall be supplied with props and timbers of suitable length and size; and, if from any cause the timbers are not supplied when required, the miners shall vacate any and all such working places until supplied with timber needed. [Id.]

Art. 5903. [5925] Abandoned workings.—All openings connecting with worked-out or abandoned portions of every operated mine likely to accumulate explosive gases or dangerous conditions shall be securely gobbed and blocked off from the operated portions thereof, so as to protect every person working in such mines from all danger that may be caused or produced by such worked-out portions of such mines. [Id.]

Art. 5904. [5936] Ventilation.—Throughout every mine there shall be maintained currents of fresh air sufficient for the health and safety of all men and animals employed therein, and such ventilation shall be produced by a fan or some other artificial means; provided, a furnace shall not be used for ventilating any mine in which explosive gases are generated. The quantity of air required to be kept in circulation and passing a given point shall be not less than one hundred cubic feet per minute for each person, and not less than three hundred cubic feet per minute for each animal, in the mine, measured at the foot of the downcast; and this quantity may be increased at the discretion of the inspector whenever in his judgment unusual conditions make a stronger current necessary. Said current shall be forced into every working place throughout the mine, so that all parts of the same shall be reasonably free from standing powder smoke and deleterious air of any kind. The measurement of the current of air shall be taken with an anemometer at the foot of the downcast, at the foot of the up-cast and at the working face of each division or split of the air current. The main current of air shall be split or subdivided so as to provide a separate current of reasonably pure air to every one hundred men at work; and the inspector shall have authority to order separate currents for smaller groups of men, if in his judgment special conditions make it necessary. The air current for ventilating the stables shall not pass into the intake air current for ventilating the working parts of the mine. Whenever the inspector shall find men working without sufficient air, he shall at once give the mine manager or operator notice and a reasonable time in which to restore the current; and, upon his refusal or neglect to act promptly, the inspector may order the endangered men out of the mine. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 5905. [5937] Cut-throughs.—The mine foreman shall see that proper cut-throughs are made in all the pillars at such distances as in the judgment of the mine inspector may be deemed requisite, not more than twenty yards nor less than ten yards apart, for the purpose of ventilation; and the ventilation shall be conducted through said cut-throughs into the rooms and entries by means of check doors made of canvas or other material, placed on the entries or in other suitable places; and he shall not permit any room to be opened in advance of the ventilating current. Should the mine inspector discover any room, entry, airway, or other working place, being driven in advance of the air current contrary to the requirements of this article, he shall order the workmen in such places to cease work at once until the law is complied with. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 5906. [5938] Notice of fire damp.—Immediate notice must be conveyed by the miner or mine owner to the inspector upon the appearance of any large body of fire damp in any mine, whether accompanied by any explosion or not, and upon the occurrence of any serious fire within the mine or on the surface. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 5907. [5939] Mining cage.—Cages on which men are riding shall not be lifted or lowered at a rate greater than six hundred feet per minute, except with the written consent of the inspector. No person shall carry any tools or material with him on a cage in motion, except for use in making repairs; and no one shall ride on a cage while the other cage contains a loaded car. No cage having an unstable or self-dumping platform shall be used for the carriage of men or materials unless the same is provided with some convenient device by which said platform can be securely locked, and unless it is so locked whenever men or material are being conveyed thereon. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 5908. [5940] Powder.—No miner or other person shall carry powder into the mine except in the original keg or in a regulation powder can securely fastened, and the can in otherwise air tight condition. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 5909. [5941] Safety lamps.—At any mine where the inspector shall find fire damp is being generated so as to require the use of a safety lamp in any part thereof, the operator of such mine, upon receiving notice from the inspector that one or more such lamps are necessary for the safety of the men in the mines, shall at once procure and keep for use such number of safety lamps as may be necessary. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 5910. [5942] Endangering life or health.—It shall be unlawful for any miner, workman or other person knowingly or carelessly to injure any shaft, safety lamp, instrument, air-course or brattice, or to obstruct or throw open an airway, or to carry any open lamp or lighted pipe or fire in any form, into a place worked by the light of safety lamps, or within three feet of any open powder, or to handle or disturb any part of the hoisting machinery, or to enter any part of the mine against caution, or to do any wilful act whereby the lives or health of persons working in the mines, or the security of the mine machinery thereof is endangered. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 5911. [5943] Posting mine rules.—Every operator shall post on the engine house and at the pit top of his mine, in such manner that the employees of the mine can read them, rules not inconsistent with this law, plainly printed in the English language, which shall govern all persons working in the mine. The posting of such notice shall charge all employees of such mine with legal notice of the contents thereof. [Id. Sec. 9.]

Art. 5912. [5944] Coal scales.—The owner or operator of every coal mine shall provide adequate and accurate scales for weighing coal; the mine inspector shall examine such scales, and if same are not found to be accurate, he shall notify the owner to repair same; and, if such owner fails or refuses to repair same within a reasonable time, said inspector shall institute proceedings under the law against the proper parties. [Id. Sec. 10.]

Art. 5913. [5945] Check weighman.—The employees in any mine shall have the right to employ a check weighmen at their own option and their own expense. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 5914. [5946] Oil used.—No miner or other person employed in a mine shall use any kind of oil other than a good quality of lard oil for lighting purposes, except when repairing downcast or upcast shafts. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 5915. Insulating live wires.—In all mines where electricity is or hereafter shall be used as a part of the system, power or means of mining and procuring the coal or other mineral from any of said mines, the owners or operators of every such mine shall cause all wires conducting electricity in and about said mine to be carefully and thoroughly insulated or protected in a safe manner, so that the person or animal coming in contact therewith shall not be injured thereby. All wires as aforesaid shall either be thoroughly insulated or placed where persons employed in and about the mines cannot come in contact therewith, or shall be covered, protected or shielded in a safe manner, so as to prevent any injuries or accidents therefrom to those in or about the mines. It shall not be necessary to insulate or cover trolley wires, but they shall all be hung and kept not less than five feet and six inches above the rail, and shall be securely fastened, and not permitted to sag less than said height, where there is sufficient height in existing entries to permit this; but where sufficient height is not available in existing entries, then the trolley wires shall be placed to one side of the entry, six inches outside the rail; and in all such cases the trolley wire shall be placed on the side of the entry opposite from the working rooms, except where there are rooms on both sides of the entry, in which event the trolley wires may be placed over the opening of said rooms, said trolley wires to be safely shielded. Where it is impracticable in existing entries to place trolley wires six inches outside the rail, or five feet and six inches high, and where separate travel way is not provided, then the trolley wire shall be safely shielded. This article shall not apply to entries that are not used as travel ways for workmen or work animals, nor to mines in operation on January 1, 1902, and prior thereto, and which have developed until there is at least two thousand feet distance from the shaft to the face of the coal being operated, except as to extensions of trolley wires made in such mines. [Acts 1911, p. 196.]

Art. 5916. Duty of inspector.—The State Mining Inspector shall see that the provisions of this title are complied with and shall report all violations hereof to the State Mining Board and to the proper district or county attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5917. Map of mine.—Every operator of a coal mine in this State shall make a map of the underground workings of every mine in his charge. Said map shall be drawn on a scale of one inch to one hundred feet, and shall indicate the surface land lines as well as the rooms, entries or openings underground. It shall be brought up to date at least once each month, covering operations for the preceding month. The original of said map shall be on file at the office of the operator at or near said mine. Said map shall be extended or brought up to date at any time requested by the State Mine Inspector, at least every three months. If, for any reason, a mine should be closed, then a final map shall be made and filed; but maps existing may be continued on the same scale as begun, if not smaller than one-half inch to one hundred feet. [Id.]

Art. 5918. Animals in mines.—It shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, corporation or receiver, owning, operating or managing any mine in this State to permit any work animal under his control to remain in any mine longer than ten consecutive hours, or to feed or permit to be fed any work animal in said mine, or to store or keep any feed for such animals in said mine. Each person, company, corporation or receiver who shall in any manner violate any provision of this article shall for each offense committed forfeit and pay to the State a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and the district or county attorney shall institute suit in the name of the State for the recovery of same. [Acts 1911, p. 205.]

Art. 5919. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply when the stables in which work animals are kept are equipped with fireproof doors at each opening, with door-frames of concrete, stone or brick, laid in mortar, and which door is kept closed during working hours, and where not more than twenty-four hours' supply of grass, cane, hay or other like inflammable feed, except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats, is taken down in any mine in any one day, and where no such feed, except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats, is taken down in the mine until after the regular day shift is out of the mine, and where no open light is taken into any underground stable in any mine. [Id.]

Art. 5920. Bath facilities.—The operator, owner, lessee or superintendent of every coal mine in this State employing ten or more men shall provide a suitable building convenient to the principal entrance of such mine, for the use of persons employed in and about said mine, for the purpose of washing themselves and changing their clothing when entering or leaving the mine. Such building shall be provided with proper light and heat, with a supply of hot and cold water and shower baths, and with properly constructed individual lockers for the use of such employees. The employees shall furnish their own towels, soap and locks for their lockers, and shall exercise control over and be responsible for all property by them left in such house. The baths and lockers for negroes shall be separate from those for whites, but may be in the same building. No operator, owner, lessee or superintendent or company, its officers or agents, maintaining such a bath house at his or its mine as required herein shall be liable for the loss or destruction of any property left at or in said house. The Commissioner of Labor Statistics of the State of Texas shall enforce the provisions of this article. [Acts 1915, p. 100.]

TITLE 96.MINORS—REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES OF.

Art. 5921. [5947-5949] Requisites of removal.—Minors above the age of nineteen years, where it shall appear to their material advantage, may have their disabilities of minority removed, and be thereafter held, for all legal purposes, of full age, except as to the right to vote. [Acts 1881, p. 16; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 108.]

Art. 5922. [5947] [3499] Petition and hearing.—The petition for such removal shall state the grounds relied on, whether the parents of the minor are living or dead, and the name and residence of each living parent. Such petition shall be sworn to by a person cognizant of the facts, and shall be filed in the district court of the county where the minor resides, and a hearing had on any day of any term of said court. [Id.]

Art. 5923. [5948-50] Citation and procedure.—A copy of the petition shall be served upon the father of the minor, if living within the State. If the father be dead, or living without the State, then such service shall be had upon the county judge of the county in which the petition was filed, in which event the trial court shall appoint a special guardian, who shall in connection with the county judge, represent the true interests of the minor in aiding or resisting his application. The judge shall make an allowance to such guardian, which shall be paid out of the estate of such minor, and shall, if the petition be granted, order a certified copy of the decree to be recorded in the deed records of the county where the estate of the minor is situated, the fee for recording to be paid out of the estate of the minor. If the court grants such petition the decree shall specifically adjudge the minor of full age for all legal purposes except as to the right to vote. [Id.]

Art. 5932. Form and interpretation.—

Sec. 1. An instrument to be negotiable must conform to the following requirements:

1. It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer;
2. It must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money;
3. Must be payable on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time;
4. Must be payable to order or to bearer; and
5. Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

Sec. 2. The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of this Act, although it is to be paid:

1. With interest; or
2. By stated installments; or
3. By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment or of interest, the whole shall become due; or
4. With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or
5. With costs of collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.

Sec. 3. An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this Act, though coupled with:

1. An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or
2. A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the instrument; but an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

Sec. 4. An instrument is payable at a determinable future time, within the meaning of this Act, which is expressed to be payable:

1. At a fixed period after date or sight; or
2. On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or
3. On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event, which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be uncertain.

An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.

Sec. 5. An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:

1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
2. Authorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantages or protection of the obligor; or
4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

Nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

Sec. 6. The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that;

1. It is not dated; or
2. Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given therefor; or
3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or
4. Bears a seal; or
5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.

Nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.

Sec. 7. An instrument is payable on demand;

1. Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or
2. In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted, or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting, or indorsing it, payable on demand.

Sec. 8. The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of;

1. A payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee; or
2. The drawer or maker; or
3. The drawee; or
4. Two or more payees jointly; or
5. One or some of several payees; or
6. The holder of an office for the time being.

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

Sec. 9. The instrument is payable to bearer;

1. When it is expressed to be so payable; or

2. When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer ; or
3. When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or non-existing person, and such fact was known to the person making it so payable; or
4. When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or
5. When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

Sec. 10. The instrument need not follow the language of this Act, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements hereof.

Sec. 11. Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is prima facie evidence of the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance, or indorsement as the case may be.

Sec. 12. The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is ante-dated or post-dated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

Sec. 13. Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him, the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

Sec. 14. Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

Sec. 15. Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

Sec. 16. Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery, in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional, or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him is conclusively presumed. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

Sec. 17. Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, reference may be had to the figures to fix the amount;

2. Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof;

3. Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued;

4. Where there is a conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail;

5. Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or note, the holder may treat it as either at his election;

6. Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign he is to be deemed an indorser;

7. Where an instrument containing the words "I promise to pay" is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.

Sec. 18. No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. One who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

Sec. 19. The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose; and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.

Sec. 20. Where the instrument contains or a person adds to his signature words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity, he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character, without disclosing his principal, does not exempt him from personal liability.

Sec. 21. A signature by "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

Sec. 22. The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.

Sec. 23. When a signature is forged or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be, it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto, can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party, against whom it is sought to enforce such right, is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority. [Acts 1919, p. 190.]

Art. 5933. Consideration.—

Sec. 24. Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable consideration; and every person whose signature appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

Sec. 25. Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing debt constitutes value; and is deemed such whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.

Sec. 26. Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who became such prior to that time.

Sec. 27. Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for value to the extent of his lien.

Sec. 28. Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against any person not a holder in due course; and partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto, whether the failure is an ascertained and liquidated amount or otherwise.

Sec. 29. An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser, without receiving value therefor, and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such a person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, notwithstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument knew him to be only an accommodation party. [Id.]

Art. 5934. Negotiation.—

Sec. 30. An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof. If payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder completed by delivery.

Sec. 31. The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.

Sec. 32. The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An indorsement which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.

Sec. 33. An indorsement may be either special or in blank; and it may also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.

Sec. 34. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom, or to whose order, the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument. An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer, and may be negotiated by delivery.

Sec. 35. The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

Sec. 36. An indorsement is restrictive, which either:

1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or
3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some other person.

The mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.

Sec. 37. A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right:

1. To receive payment of the instrument;
2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring;
3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

All subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.

Sec. 38. A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

Sec. 39. Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition, and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated, will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

Sec. 40. Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially, it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery, but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

Sec. 41. Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorseees who are not partners, all must indorse, unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

Sec. 42. Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person as "Cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer; and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation, or the indorsement of the officer.

Sec. 43. Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled, he may indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he thinks fit, his proper signature.

Sec. 44. Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

Sec. 45. Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected before the instrument was overdue.

Sec. 46. Except where the contrary appears, every indorsement is presumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instrument is dated.

Sec. 47. An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or otherwise.

Sec. 48. The holder may at any time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

Sec. 49. Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee such title as the transferor had therein, and the transferee acquires, in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the transferor. But for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in due course, the negotiation takes effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Sec. 50. Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party, such party may, subject to the provisions of this Act, reissue and further negotiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally liable. [Id.]

Art. 5935. Rights of the holder.—

Sec. 51. The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name and payment to him in due course discharges the instrument.

Sec. 52. A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument under the following conditions:

1. That it is complete and regular upon its face;
2. That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was the fact;
3. That he took it in good faith and for value;
4. That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.

Sec. 53. Where an instrument payable on demand is negotiated an unreasonable length of time after its issue, the holder is not deemed a holder in due course.

Sec. 54. Where the transferee receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has paid the full amount agreed to be paid therefor, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount theretofore paid by him.

Sec. 55. The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of this Act when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.

Sec. 56. To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

Sec. 57. A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon.

Sec. 58. In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were non-negotiable. But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument, has all the rights of such former holder in respect of all parties prior to the latter.

Sec. 59. Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as holder in due course. But the last-mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title. [Id.]

Art. 5936. Liabilities of parties.—

Sec. 60. The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor, and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

Sec. 61. The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to endorse; and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negating or limiting his own liability to the holder.

Sec. 62. The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance; and admits;

1. The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and

2. The existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

Sec. 63. A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor, is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

Sec. 64. Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery he is liable as indorser, in accordance with the following rules:

1. If the instrument is payable to the order of a third person, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.

2. If the instrument is payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.

3. If he signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

Sec. 65. Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement, warrants:

1. That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be;

2. That he has a good title to it;

3. That all prior parties had capacity to contract;

4. That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.

When the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.

The provisions of subdivision three of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporation securities, other than bills and notes.

Sec. 66. Every indorser who indorses without qualification, warrants to all subsequent holders in due course:

1. The matters and things mentioned in subdivision one, two and three of the next preceding section; and
2. That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting.

In addition, he engages that on due presentment, it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

Sec. 67. Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument negotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indorser.

Sec. 68. As respects one another, indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which they indorse; but evidence is admissible to show that as between or among themselves they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees or joint indorsees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally.

Sec. 69. Where a broker or other agent negotiates an instrument without indorsement he incurs all the liabilities prescribed by section sixty-five of this Act, unless he discloses the name of his principal, and the fact that he is acting only as agent. [Id.]

Art. 5937. Presentment for payment.—

Sec. 70. Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument; but if the instrument is, by its terms, payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay it there at maturity, such ability and willingness are equivalent to a tender of payment upon his part. Except as herein otherwise provided, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 71. Where the instrument is not payable on demand, presentment must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on demand, presentment must be made within a reasonable time after its issue, except that in the case of a bill of exchange, presentment for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable time after the last negotiation thereof.

Sec. 72. Presentment for payment, to be sufficient, must be made:

1. By the holder, or by some person authorized to receive payment on his behalf;
2. At a reasonable hour on a business day;
3. At a proper place as herein defined;
4. To the person primarily liable on the instrument or if he is absent or inaccessible, to any person found at the place where the presentment is made.

Sec. 73. Presentment for payment is made at the proper place:

1. Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument and it is there presented;

2. Where no place of payment is specified, but the address of the person to make payment is given in the instrument and it is there presented;

3. Where no place of payment is specified and no address is given and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business or residence of the person to make payment;

4. In any other case if presented to the person to make payment wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known place of business or residence.

Sec. 74. The instrument must be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded, and when it is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it.

Sec. 75. Where the instrument is payable at a bank, presentment for payment must be made during banking hours, unless the person to make payment has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, in which case presentment at any hour before the bank is closed on that day is sufficient.

Sec. 76. Where a person primarily liable on the instrument is dead, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment must be made to his personal representative if such there be, and if, with the exercise of reasonable diligence, he can be found.

Sec. 77. Where the persons primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment may be made to any one of them even though there has been a dissolution of the firm.

Sec. 78. Where there are several persons, not partners, primarily liable on the instrument, and no place of payment is specified, presentment must be made to them all.

Sec. 79. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge the drawer where he has no right to expect or require the drawee or acceptor to pay the instrument.

Sec. 80. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge an indorser where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation and he has no reason to expect that the instrument will be paid if presented.

Sec. 81. Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 82. Presentment for payment is dispensed with:

1. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment as required by this Act cannot be made;

2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person;

3. By waiver of presentment, express or implied.

Sec. 83. The instrument is dishonored by non-payment when:

1. It is duly presented for payment and payment is refused or cannot be obtained; or

2. Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdue and unpaid.

Sec. 84. Subject to the provisions of this Act, when the instrument is dishonored by non-payment, an immediate right of recourse to all parties secondarily liable thereon accrues to the holder.

Sec. 85. Every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday, or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day. Instruments falling due (or becoming payable) on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment before twelve o'clock noon on Saturday when that entire day is not a holiday.

Sec. 86. Where the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date, after sight, or after the happening of a specified event, the time of payment is determined by excluding the day from which the time is to begin to run, and by including the date of payment.

Sec. 87. Where the instrument is made payable at a bank it is equivalent to an order to the bank to pay the same for the account of the principal debtor thereon.

Sec. 88. Payment is made in due course when it is made at or after the maturity of the instrument to the holder thereof in good faith and without notice that his title is defective. [Id.]

Art. 5938. Notice of dishonor.—

Sec. 89. Except as herein otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment, notice of dishonor must be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any drawer or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged.

Sec. 90. The notice may be given by or on behalf of the holder, or by or on behalf of any party to the instrument who might be compelled to pay it to the holder, and who upon taking it up would have a right to reimbursement from the party to whom the notice is given.

Sec. 91. Notice of dishonor may be given by an agent either in his own name or in the name of any party entitled to give notice, whether that party be his principal or not.

Sec. 92. Where notice is given by or on behalf of the holder it enures for the benefit of all subsequent holders and all prior parties who have a right of recourse against the party to whom it is given.

Sec. 93. Where notice is given by or on behalf of a party entitled to give notice, it enures for the benefit of the holder and all parties subsequent to the party to whom notice is given.

Sec. 94. Where the instrument has been dishonored in the hands of an agent, he may either himself give notice to the parties liable thereon, or he may give notice to his principal. If he give notice to his principal, he must do so within the same time as if he were the holder, and the principal upon the receipt of such notice himself the same time for giving notice as if the agent had been an independent holder.

Sec. 95. A written notice need not be signed, and an insufficient written notice may be supplemented and validated by verbal communication. A misdescription of the instrument does not vitiate the notice unless the party to whom the notice is given is in fact misled thereby.

Sec. 96. The notice may be in writing or merely oral and may be given in any terms which sufficiently identify the instrument, and indicate, that it has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. It may in all cases be given by delivering it personally or through the mails.

Sec. 97. Notice of dishonor may be given either to the party himself or to his agent in that behalf.

Sec. 98. When any party is dead, and his death is known to the party giving notice, the notice must be given to a personal representative, if there be one, and if with reasonable diligence he can be found. If there be no personal representative, notice may be sent to the last residence or last place of business of the deceased.

Sec. 99. Where the parties to be notified are partners, notice to any one partner is notice to the firm even though there has been a dissolution.

Sec. 100. Notice to joint parties who are not partners must be given to each of them, unless one of them has authority to receive such notice for the others.

Sec. 101. Where a party has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, notice may be given either to the party himself or to his trustee or assignee.

Sec. 102. Notice may be given as soon as the instrument is dishonored; and unless delay is excused as hereinafter provided, must be given within the time fixed by this Act.

Sec. 103. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same place, notice must be given within the following times:

1. If given at the place of business of the person to receive notice, it must be given before the close of business hours on the day following.

2. If given at his residence, it must be given before the usual hours of rest on the day following.

3. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to reach him in usual course on the day following.

Sec. 104. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in different places, the notice must be given within the following times:

1. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if there be no mail at a convenient hour on that day, by the next mail thereafter.

2. If given otherwise than through the post office, then within the time that notice would have been received in due course of mail, if it had been deposited in the post office within the time specified in the last subdivision.

Sec. 105. Where notice of dishonor is duly addressed and deposited in the post office, the sender is deemed to have given due notice, notwithstanding any miscarriage in the mails.

Sec. 106. Notice is deemed to have been deposited in the post office when deposited in any branch post office or in any letter box under the control of the post-office department.

Sec. 107. Where a party receives notice of dishonor, he has, after the receipt of such notice, the same time for giving notice to antecedent parties that the holder has after the dishonor.

Sec. 108. Where a party has added an address to his signature, notice of dishonor must be sent to that address; but if he has not given such address, then the notice must be sent as follows:

1. Either to the post office nearest to his place of residence, or to the post office where he is accustomed to receive his letters or

2. If he live in one place, and have his place of business in another, notice may be sent to either place; or

3. If he is sojourning in another place, notice may be sent to the place where he is so sojourning.

Where the notice is actually received by the party within the time specified in this Act, it will be sufficient, though not sent in accordance with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 109. Notice of dishonor may be waived, either before the time of giving notice has arrived, or after the omission to give due notice, and the waiver may be express or implied.

Sec. 110. Where the waiver is embodied in the instrument itself, it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser, it binds him only.

Sec. 111. A waiver of protest, whether in the case of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument is deemed to be a waiver not only of a formal protest, but also of presentment and notice of dishonor.

Sec. 112. Notice of dishonor is dispensed with when, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, it can not be given to or does not reach the parties sought to be charged.

Sec. 113. Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, notice must be given with reasonable diligence.

Section 114. Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawer and drawee are the same person;
2. When the drawee is a fictitious person or person not having capacity to contract;
3. Where the drawer is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;
4. Where the drawer has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will honor the instrument;
5. Where the drawer has countermanded payment.

Sec. 115. Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract, and the indorser was aware of the fact at the time he indorsed the instrument;
2. Where the indorser is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;
3. Where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation.

Sec. 116. Where due notice of dishonor by non-acceptance has been given, notice of a subsequent dishonor by non-payment is not necessary, unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.

Sec. 117. An omission to give notice of dishonor by non-acceptance does not prejudice the rights of a holder in due course subsequent to the omission.

Sec. 118. Where any negotiable instrument has been dishonored it may be protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, as the case may be; but protest is not required except in the case of foreign bills of exchange. [Id.]

Art. 5939. Discharge of negotiable instruments.—

Sec. 119. A negotiable instrument is discharged:

1. By payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal debtor;
2. By payment in due course by the party accommodated, where the instrument is made or accepted for accommodation;
3. By the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder;
4. By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for the payment of money;
5. When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instrument at or after maturity in his own right.

Sec. 120. A person secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged:

1. By any act which discharges the instrument;
2. By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the holder;
3. By the discharge of a prior party;
4. By a valid tender of payment made by a prior party;
5. By a release of the principal debtor, unless the holder's right of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly reserved;

6. By any agreement binding upon the holder to extend the time of payment, or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the instrument, unless made with the assent of the party secondarily liable, or unless the right of recourse against such party is expressly reserved.

Sec. 121. Where the instrument is paid by a party secondarily liable thereon, it is not discharged; but the party so paying it is remitted to his former rights as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out his own and all subsequent indorsements, and again negotiate the instrument, except:

1. Where it is payable to the order of a third person, and has been paid by the drawer; and

2. Where it was made or accepted for accommodation, and has been paid by the party accommodated.

Sec. 122. The holder may expressly renounce his rights against any party to the instrument, before, at or after its maturity. An absolute and unconditional renunciation of his rights against the principal debtor made at or after the maturity of the instrument discharges the instrument. But a renunciation does not affect the rights of a holder in due course without notice. A renunciation must be in writing, unless the instrument is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon.

Sec. 123. A cancellation made unintentionally, or under mistake or without the authority of the holder, is inoperative; but where an instrument or any signature thereon appears to have been cancelled the burden of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation was made unintentionally, or under a mistake without authority.

Sec. 124. Where a negotiable instrument is materially altered without the assent of all parties liable thereon, it is avoided, except as against a party who has himself made, authorized or assented to the alteration, and subsequent indorsers.

When an instrument has been materially altered and is in the hands of a holder in due course, not a party to the alteration, he may enforce payment thereof according to its original tenor.

Sec. 125. Any alteration which changes:

1. The date;
2. The sum payable, either for principal or interest;
3. The time or place of payment;
4. The number or the relations of the parties;
5. The medium of currency in which payment is to be made;

Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payment is specified, or any other change or addition which alters the effect of the instrument in any respect, is a material alteration. [Id.]

Art. 5940. Form and interpretation.—

Sec. 126. A bill of exchange is an unconditional order in writing addressed by one person to another, signed by the person giving it, requiring the person to whom it is addressed to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time a sum certain in money to order or to bearer.

Sec. 127. A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the funds in the hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and the drawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts the same.

Sec. 128. A bill may be addressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether they are partners or not; but not to two or more drawees in the alternative or in succession.

Sec. 129. An inland bill of exchange is a bill which is, or on its face purports to be, both drawn and payable within this State. Any other bill is a foreign bill. Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill, the holder may treat it as an inland bill.

Sec. 130. Where in a bill drawer and drawee are the same person, or where the drawee is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract, the holder may treat the instrument, at his option, either as a bill of exchange or a promissory note.

Sec. 131. The drawer of a bill and any indorser may insert thereon the name of a person to whom the holder may resort in case of need, that is to say in case the bill is dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. Such person is called the referee in case of need. It is in the option of the holder to resort to the referee in case of need or not as he may see fit. [Id.]

Art. 5941. Acceptance.—

Sec. 132. The acceptance of a bill is the signification by the drawee of his assent to the order of the drawer. The acceptance must be in writing and signed by the drawee. It must not express that the drawee will perform his promise by any other means than the payment of money.

Sec. 133. The holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may require that the acceptance be written on the bill and, if such request is refused, may treat the bill as dishonored.

Sec. 134. Where an acceptance is written on a paper other than the bill itself, it does not bind the acceptor except in favor of a person to whom it is shown and who, on the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Sec. 135. An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before it is drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person who upon the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Sec. 136. The drawee is allowed twenty-four hours after presentment, in which to decide whether or not he will accept the bill; but the acceptance if given, dates as of the day of presentation.

Sec. 137. Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance destroys the same, or refuses within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the bill accepted or non-accepted to the holder, he will be deemed to have accepted the same.

Sec. 138. A bill may be accepted before it has been signed by the drawee, or while otherwise incomplete, or when it is overdue, or after it has been dishonored by a previous refusal to accept, or by non-payment. But when a bill payable after sight is dishonored by non-acceptance and the drawee subsequently accepts it, the holder in the absence of any different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as of the date of the first presentment.

Sec. 139. An acceptance is either general or qualified. A general acceptance assents without qualification to the order of the drawer. A qualified acceptance in express terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn.

Sec. 140. An acceptance to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance, unless it expressly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not elsewhere.

Sec. 141. An acceptance is qualified, which is:

1. Conditional, that is to say, which makes payment by the acceptor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated;
2. Partial, that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the amount for which the bill is drawn;
3. Local, that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular place;
4. Qualified as to time;
5. The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees, but not of all.

Sec. 142. The holder may refuse to take a qualified acceptance, and if he does not obtain an unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dishonored by non-acceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken the drawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill, unless they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to take a qualified acceptance, or subsequently assent thereto. When the drawer or an indorser receives notice of a qualified acceptance, he must, within a reasonable time, express his dissent to the holder, or he will be deemed to have assented thereto. [Id.]

Art. 5942. Presentment for acceptance.—

Sec. 143. Presentment for acceptance must be made:

1. Where the bill is payable after sight, or in any other case, where presentment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the maturity of the instrument; or

2. Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented for acceptance; or

3. Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee.

In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary in order to render any party to the bill liable.

Sec. 144. Except as herein otherwise provided, the holder of a bill which is required by the next preceding section to be presented for acceptance must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it within a reasonable time. If he fails to do so, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged.

Sec. 145. Presentment for acceptance must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable hour, on a business day and before the bill is overdue, to the drawee or some person authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on his behalf, and;

1. Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees who are not partners, presentment must be made to them all, unless one has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which case presentment may be made to him only.

2. Where the drawee is dead, presentment may be made to his personal representative.

3. Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, presentment may be made to him or to his trustee or assignee.

Sec. 146. A bill may be presented for acceptance on any day on which negotiable instruments may be presented for payment under the provisions of sections seventy-two and eighty-five of this Act. When Saturday is not otherwise a holiday, presentment for acceptance may be made before twelve o'clock, noon, on that day.

Sec. 147. Where the holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of business or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment on the day that it falls due, the delay caused by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment is excused and does not discharge the drawers and indorsers.

Sec. 148. Presentment for acceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonored by non-acceptance, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is dead, or has absconded, or is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract by bill.

2. Where, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, presentment cannot be made.

3. Where, although presentment has been irregular, acceptance has been refused on some other ground.

Sec. 149. A bill is dishonored by non-acceptance:

1. When it is duly presented for acceptance and such an acceptance as is prescribed by this Act is refused or cannot be obtained; or

2. When presentment for acceptance is excused and the bill is not accepted.

Sec. 150. Where a bill is duly presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the prescribed time, the person presenting it must treat the bill as dishonored by non-acceptance or he loses the right of recourse against the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 151. When a bill is dishonored by non-acceptance, an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers accrues to the holder and no presentment for payment is necessary. [Id.]

Art. 5943. Protest.—

Sec. 152. Where a foreign bill appearing on its face to be such is dishonored by non-acceptance, it must be duly protested for non-acceptance, and where such a bill which has not previously been dishonored by non-acceptance is dishonored by non-payment, it must be duly protested for non-payment. If it is not so protested, the drawer and indorsers are discharged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a foreign bill, protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary.

Sec. 153. The protest must be annexed to the bill, or must contain a copy thereof and must be under the hand and seal of the notary making it, and must specify:

1. The time and place of presentment;

2. The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof;

3. The cause or reason for protesting the bill;

4. The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

Sec. 154. Protest may be made by:

1. A notary public; or

2. By any respectable resident of the place where the bill is dishonored, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses.

Sec. 155. When a bill is protested, such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor, unless delay is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly noted, the protest may be subsequently extended as of the date of the noting.

Sec. 156. A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business, or residence of some person other than the drawee, has been dishonored by non-acceptance, it must be protested for non-payment at the place where it is expressed to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to, or demand on, the drawee is necessary.

Sec. 157. A bill which has been protested for non-acceptance may be subsequently protested for non-payment.

Sec. 158. Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, before the bill matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better security against the drawer and indorsers.

Sec. 159. Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, the bill must be noted or protested with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 160. When a bill is lost or destroyed or is wrongly detained from the person entitled to hold it, protest may be made on a copy or written particulars thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5944. Acceptance for honor.—

Sec. 161. Where a bill of exchange has been protested for dishonor by non-acceptance or protested for better security, and is not overdue, any person not being a party already liable thereon, may, with the consent of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor of any party liable thereon, or for the honor of the person for whose account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for the part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn; and where there has been an acceptance for honor for one party, there may be a further acceptance by a different person for the honor of another party.

Sec. 162. An acceptance for honor supra protest must be in writing, and indicate that it is an acceptance for honor, and must be signed by the acceptor for honor.

Sec. 163. Where an acceptance for honor does not expressly state for whose honor it is made, it is deemed to be an acceptance for the honor of the drawer.

Sec. 164. The acceptor for honor is liable to the holder and to all parties to the bill subsequent to the party for whose honor he has accepted.

Sec. 165. The acceptor for honor, by such acceptance engages that he will on due presentation pay the bill according to the terms of his acceptance, provided it shall not have been paid by the drawee, and provided also, that it shall have been duly presented for payment and protested for non-payment and notice of dishonor given him.

Sec. 166. Where a bill payable after sight is accepted for honor, its maturity is calculated from the date of the noting for non-acceptance and not from the date of the acceptance for honor.

Sec. 167. Where a dishonored bill has been accepted for honor supra protest or contains a reference in case of need, it must be protested for non-payment before it is presented for payment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need.

Sec. 168. Presentment for payment to the acceptor for honor must be made as follows:

1. If it is to be presented in the place where the protest for non-payment was made, it must be presented not later than the day following its maturity.

2. If it is to be presented in some other place than the place where it was protested, then it must be forwarded within the time specified in section one hundred and four.

Sec. 169. The provisions of section eighty-one apply where there is delay in making presentment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need.

Sec. 170. When the bill is dishonored by the acceptor for honor it must be protested for non-payment by him. [Id.]

Art. 5945. Payment for honor.—

Sec. 171. Where a bill has been protested for non-payment, any person may intervene and pay it supra protest for the honor of any person liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose account it was drawn.

Sec. 172. The payment for honor supra protest in order to operate as such and not as a mere voluntary payment must be attested by a notarial act of honor which may be appended to the protest or form an extension to it.

Sec. 173. The notarial act of honor must be founded on a declaration made by the payer for honor or by his agent in that behalf declaring his intention to pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays.

Sec. 174. Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor of different parties, the person whose payment will discharge most parties to the bill is to be given the preference.

Sec. 175. Where a bill has been paid for honor, all parties subsequent to the party for whose honor it is paid are discharged, but the payer for honor is subrogated for, and succeeds to, both the rights and duties of the holder as regards the party for whose honor he pays and all parties liable to the latter.

Sec. 176. Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment supra protest, he loses his right of recourse against any party who would have been discharged by such payment.

Sec. 177. The payer for honor, on paying to the holder the amount of the bill and the notarial expenses incidental to its dishonor, is entitled to receive both the bill itself and the protest. [Id.]

Art. 5946. Bills in a set.—

Sec. 178. Where a bill is drawn in a set, each part of the set being numbered and containing a reference to the other parts, the whole of the parts constitutes one bill.

Sec. 179. Where two or more parts of a set are negotiated to different holders in due course, the holder whose title first accrues is as between such holders the true owner of the bill. But nothing in this section affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or pays the part first presented to him.

Sec. 180. Where the holder of a set indorses two or more parts to different persons he is liable on every such part, and every indorser subsequent to him is liable on the part he has himself indorsed, as if such parts were separate bills.

Sec. 181. The acceptance may be written on any part and it must be written on one part only. If the drawee accepts more than one part, and such accepted parts are negotiated to different holders in due course, he is liable on every such part as if it were a separate bill.

Sec. 182. When the acceptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requiring the part bearing his acceptance to be delivered up to him, and that part at maturity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course, he is liable to the holder thereon.

Sec. 183. Except as herein otherwise provided where any one part of a bill drawn in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole bill is discharged. [Id.]

PROMISSORY NOTES AND CHECKS.

Art. 5947. Promissory notes and checks.—

Sec. 184. A negotiable promissory note within the meaning of this Act is an unconditional promise in writing made by one person to another signed by the maker engaging to pay on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time, a sum certain in money to order or to bearer. Where a note is drawn to the maker's own order, it is not complete until indorsed by him.

Sec. 185. A check is a bill of exchange drawn on a bank payable on demand. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this act applicable to a bill of exchange payable on demand apply to a check.

Sec. 186. A check must be presented for payment within a reasonable time after its issue or the drawer will be discharged from liability thereon to the extent of the loss caused by the delay.

Sec. 187. Where a check is certified by the bank on which it is drawn, the certification is equivalent to an acceptance.

Sec. 188. Where the holder of a check procures it to be accepted or certified the drawer and all indorsers are discharged from liability thereon.

Sec. 189. A check of itself does not operate as an assignment of any part of the funds to the credit of the drawer with the bank, and the bank is not liable to the holder, unless and until it accepts or certifies the check.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Art. 5948. General provisions.—

Sec. 190. This act may be cited as the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Sec. 191. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Acceptance” means an acceptance completed by delivery or notification.

“Action” includes counter-claim and set-off.

“Bank” includes any person or association of persons carrying on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

“Bearer” means the person in possession of a bill or note which is payable to bearer.

“Bill” means bill of exchange, and “note” means negotiable promissory note.

“Delivery” means transfer of possession, actual or constructive, from one person to another.

“Holder” means the payee or indorsee of a bill or note, who is in possession of it, or the bearer thereof.

“Indorsement” means an indorsement completed by delivery.

“Instrument” means negotiable instrument.

“Issue” means the first delivery of the instrument, complete in form, to a person who takes it as a holder.

“Person” includes a body of persons, whether incorporated or not.

“Value” means valuable consideration.

“Written” includes printed, and “Writing” includes print.

Sec. 192. The person “primarily” liable on an instrument is the person who by the terms of the instrument is absolutely required to pay the same. All other parties are “secondarily” liable.

Sec. 193. In determining what is a “reasonable time” or an “unreasonable time,” regard is to be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or business (if any) with respect to such instruments, and the facts of the particular case.

Sec. 194. Where the day, or the last day, for doing an act herein required or permitted to be done falls on Sunday or on a holiday, the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day.

Sec. 195. The provisions of this Act do not apply to negotiable instruments made and delivered prior to the taking effect hereof.

Sec. 196. In any case not provided for in this Act the rules of law and equity including the law merchant shall govern.

Art. 5949. [6002] [3503] Governor shall appoint.—The Governor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Senate, a convenient number of notaries public for each organized county, and not to exceed six notaries public for each unorganized county in this State, who shall hold their office for two years from the first day of June after their appointment at a regular session of the Legislature. The Governor, with such advice and consent may also appoint additional notaries public at any special session of the Legislature, who shall hold their office until the first day of June succeeding the next regular session of the Legislature after their appointment. [Acts 1881, p. 94; Acts 1885, p. 17; G. L., Vol. 9, pp. 186, 637; Acts 1903, p. 158; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 2.]

Art. 5950. [6014] [3515] List furnished county clerk.—The Secretary of State shall furnish each county clerk a printed list of all notaries public so appointed and qualified; and said clerk shall preserve said list for public inspection and post a copy thereof on the courthouse door. [Acts 1881, p. 84, Sec. 12; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 186.]

Art. 5951. [6015] [3516] To qualify.—When a notary is appointed, the Secretary of State shall forward the commission to the county clerk of the county where the party resides. Said clerk shall immediately notify said party to appear before him within ten days, pay for his commission, and qualify according to law. If said party be absent from the county, or sick at the time of the reception of said commission by the clerk, he shall have ten days from his return to said county in which to appear and qualify. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 5952. [6016] [3517] Clerk to notify Secretary of State.—The clerk receiving the commission shall indorse thereon the day on which notice was given, and, if the party pay the State fee for commission and qualify according to law, the said clerk shall notify the Secretary of State of his qualification, giving date of same, and remit the fee to said officer. If the party fails to qualify and pay the fee within the limited time, the appointment shall be void, and the clerk shall certify on the back of the commission that the party has failed to qualify, and return it to the Secretary of State. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 5953. [6003] [3504] Bond and oath.—Any person appointed a notary public, before entering his official duties, shall execute a bond for one thousand dollars, to be approved by the county clerk of his county, payable to the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, with the certificate of the officer administering the same; said bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk, and deposited in said office, and shall not be void on the first recovery, and may be sued on in the name of the party injured from time to time until the whole amount thereof has been recovered. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 5954. [6008-6010-6012] Authority of notary.—Notaries Public shall have the same authority to take acknowledgments or proofs of written instruments, protests instruments permitted by law to be protested, administer oaths, and take depositions, as is now or may hereafter be conferred by law upon county clerks. [Acts 1881, p. 94; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 186.]

Art. 5955. [6011] [3512] Notaries' records.—Each notary public shall keep a well bound book, in which shall be entered the date of all instruments acknowledged before him, the date of such acknowledgments, the name of the grantor or maker, the place of his residence or alleged residence, whether personally known or introduced, and, if introduced, the name and residence or alleged residence of the party introducing him; if the instrument be proved by a witness, the residence of such witness, whether such witness is personally known to him or introduced; if introduced, the name and residence of the party introducing him; the name and residence of the grantee; if land is conveyed or charged by such instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be kept, and the county where the land is situated. The book herein required to be kept, and the statements herein required to be entered shall be an original public record, open to inspection by any citizen at all reasonable times. Each notary public shall give a certified copy of any record in his office to any person applying therefor on payment of all fees thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5956. [6013] [3514] Copies of records.—Copies of all records, declarations, protests, and other official acts of notaries public may be certified by the county clerk with whom they are deposited, and shall have the same authority as if certified by the notary by whom they were originally made. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 5957. [6004] [3505] Removal.—Any notary public who shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of duty or malfeasance in office may be removed from office in the manner provided by law. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 5958. [6005] [3506] Office to become vacant.—Whenever any notary public shall remove permanently from the county for which he was appointed, or an ex officio notary public from his precinct, his office shall thereupon be deemed vacant. [Id.]

Art. 5959. [6007-6009] Effect of vacancy.—Whenever the office of notary public shall be vacated by resignation, removal or death, the county clerk of the county where said notary resides shall obtain and deposit in his office the record books and all public papers belonging in the office of said notary. The seal of any notary vacating his office may be sold by the owner thereof to any qualified notary public in the county. [Id.]

Art. 5960. [6006] [3507] Seal.—Each notary public shall provide a seal of office, whereon shall be engraved in the center a star of five points, and the words, “Notary Public, County of _____, Texas”, around the margin (the blank to be filled with the name of the county for which the officer is appointed), and he shall authenticate all his official acts therewith. [Id. Sec. 5; Acts 1889, p. 121; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1149.]

Art. 5961. [6017] [3518] By impeachment.—The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Comptroller, Commissioner of Insurance, Banking Commissioner, Judges of the Supreme Court, of the Court of Criminal Appeals, of the Courts of Civil Appeals, of the district courts, of the criminal district courts, and all other State officers and heads of State departments or institutions of any kind, and all members, regents, trustees, commissioners having control or management of any State institution or enterprise, shall be removed from office or position by impeachment in the manner provided in the Constitution and in this title, the remedy by impeachment as herein provided for being cumulative of all other remedies with respect to the impeachment or removal of public officers. [Const. Art. 15, Secs. 1, 2; Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 102.]

Art. 5962. Impeachment.—The power of impeachment shall be vested in the House of Representatives. If the House shall be in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature when it is desired to present articles of impeachment, or to make any investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment, it may proceed without further call or action at its pleasure and may continue to meet and proceed for such purposes until such time as the matters under consideration, pertaining to impeachments, may be disposed of. If the House shall be in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature, at the time it undertakes any investigation pertaining to impeachments, and the legislative session shall expire by limitation, or it shall in conjunction with the Senate, decide to adjourn in so far as legislative matters are concerned, before said investigation has been completed and before such impeachment matters have been finally disposed of, it may continue such investigation through committees, or by itself, and may continue in session for such purposes, or may adjourn the House to such time as it may desire for reconvention for the final disposition of such matters, and, in the meantime, it may continue such investigations through committees or agents. The members of such committees and the members of the House and Senate, when either shall be sitting for impeachment purposes, and when not in session for legislative purposes, shall receive the per diem fixed for members of the Legislature during legislative sessions or out of the contingent funds of the respective Houses, and the agents of the House or Senate or of such committees shall be paid as may be provided in the resolutions providing therefor, out of said contingent funds.

If the House be not in session when the cause for impeachment may arise or be discovered, or when it is desired to institute any investigation pertaining to a contemplated impeachment, the House may be convened for the purpose of impeachment in the following manner:

1. By proclamation of the Governor; or
2. By proclamation of the Speaker of the House, which proclamation shall be made only when petitioned in writing by not less than fifty members of the House; or
3. By proclamation in writing signed by a majority of the members of the House.

Such proclamation shall be published in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation, and a copy thereof shall be furnished in person or by registered mail to each member of the House who may be within the State and accessible, by the Speaker of the House, or under his direction, or, in case the same is issued under the authority of subparagraph 3, as above, by the members signing the same or some one or more of them designated by such signers for such purpose. Such proclamation shall in general terms, state the cause for which it is proposed to convene the House, and shall fix the time for the convention thereof. Two-thirds of the members of the House, upon such convention, shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members. The House, when so convened, may proceed in the manner, and shall have all the powers, pertaining to impeachments and investigations with respect thereto given it by the Constitution and by the terms of this law. The members of the House when so convened, shall receive the same mileage and per diem pay as is provided for members of the Legislature when in legislative session, and the members of the committees of the House, when so convened and serving upon such committees when the House itself is not in session, shall receive the said per diem pay, to be paid out of the appropriations then existing, or which thereafter may be made, for the per diem pay of members of the Legislature, and the agents of the House so convened or of such committees acting when the House itself is not in session shall receive such pay as may be provided for in the resolutions of such House out of the appropriations then existing, or thereafter to be made, to defray the contingent expenses of the House or to pay the mileage and per diem of members.

The House, at any time when considering impeachment matters or making investigations pertaining thereto, shall have the power itself, or through committees, to send for persons and papers and to compel the giving of testimony, and to punish for contempt, to the same extent as the district courts of the State.

Any committee of the House, acting under the terms of this law, shall have and exercise all the powers which may be conferred upon it by the House. [Id.]

Art. 5963. Trial by Senate.—All officers, agents or employes against whom articles of impeachment may be preferred by said House shall be tried by the Senate sitting as a court of impeachment in the manner provided by Article XV of the Constitution of Texas.

If the Senate be in session, at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment are preferred against any officer, agent or employee by the House, it shall receive such articles from the House and as soon as practicable, organize a court of impeachment and dispose of such matters. If the session in which such articles are preferred and presented shall, for legislative purposes expire by limitation, or by adjournment in so far as legislative purposes are concerned, before the matters presented by such articles shall have finally been disposed of by the Senate, the Senate shall continue in session, for such purpose, so long as may be necessary to dispose of such matters, or may adjourn to some day certain, when it shall reconvene for the purpose of disposing of such matters and thereupon such matters shall be considered and disposed of as expeditiously as possible.

If the Senate be not in session at a regular or called session of the Legislature when articles of impeachment may be preferred by the House, the House shall cause a certified copy of such articles of impeachment to be delivered, by personal agent or registered mail, to the Governor and each member of the Senate who may be within the State and accessible, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Lieutenant Governor and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Thereupon the Senate shall be convened for the purpose of considering and disposing of such articles of impeachment in the following manner:

1. By proclamation of the Governor; or if the Governor shall fail to issue such proclamation within ten days after such articles of impeachment are preferred by the House then,

2. By proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor; or if the Lieutenant Governor shall fail to issue such proclamation within fifteen days from the date upon which articles of impeachment were preferred by the House then,

3. By proclamation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate; or, if the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall fail to issue such proclamation within twenty days from the date upon which such articles of impeachment were perferred by the House then,

4. By proclamation in writing signed by a majority of the members of the Senate.

Such proclamation, in either case, shall be in writing, shall state in general terms the purpose for which the Senate is to be convened, shall fix the date for the convening thereof for such purposes, which shall not be later than twenty days from the issuance of the proclamation, and shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State as a public record. Such proclamation, in either case, shall be published in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation, and a copy thereof shall be sent by registered mail to each member of the Senate by, or under the direction of the author or authors thereof. Upon the day fixed for the convening of the Senate for such purposes it shall be the duty of each member of the Senate to be in attendance thereupon, and upon such date the Senate shall convene. Two-thirds of the members of the Senate, upon such convention, shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members, and the Senate at such a session may compel the attendance of any absent member whether a quorum is present or not .

The Senate so convened shall continue in session until such matters are finally disposed of, or it may from time to time, adjourn to a day certain when the consideration of such matters shall be resumed and disposed of.

The Senate, at any time, shall have and exercise all the powers itself, or through committees or agents, which is or may be conferred upon it by law as in other cases when it is in session. It may send for persons, papers, records, books, etc., and compel the giving of testimony, and punish for contempt to the same extent as the district courts.

Members of the Senate when so convened, and the Lieutenant Governor when acting, shall receive the same mileage and per diem as is provided for members of the Legislature; the same, together with the pay of all agents, appointees, employees and other expenses incident to such impeachment trial, shall be paid from such appropriations as have been or shall be made for the contingent expenses of the Legislature or for the mileage and per diem of members. [Id.]

Art. 5964. [6018-19-20-21] Removed by address. — The judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals, Courts of Civil Appeals, district courts and criminal district courts, the Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Insurance, and Banking Commissioner shall be removed from office by the Governor on the address of two-thirds of each house of the Legislature, for wilful neglect of duty, incompetency, habitual drunkenness, oppression in office, breach of trust, or other reasonable cause which shall not be sufficient ground for impeachment. The cause for such removal shall be stated at length in such address, and entered on the journals of each house. The officer so intended to be removed shall have notice of the cause assigned for his removal, and shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defense before any vote for such address shall be heard. The vote in all such cases shall be taken by yeas and nays and entered on the journals of each house respectively. [Acts 1876, p. 226; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1062.]

Art. 5965. [6022-3] Judges removed by Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court may remove any judge of the district court or of any criminal district court who is incompetent to discharge the duties of his office, or who shall be guilty of partiality or oppression, or other official misconduct, or whose habits and conduct are such as to render him unfit to hold such office, or who shall negligently fail to perform his duties as judge, or who shall fail to execute in a reasonable measure the business of his court. [Const. Art. 15, Sec. 6.]

Art. 5966. [6024-5-6] Jurisdiction of Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine the cases aforesaid when presented in writing, upon the oaths taken before some judge of a court of record, of not less than ten lawyers practicing in the courts held by such judge, and licensed to practice in the Courts of Civil Appeals. Such presentment shall be founded either upon the knowledge of the person making it, or upon the written oaths of credible witnesses as to facts. The Supreme Court may issue all needful process, and prescribe all needful rules to give effect to the preceding article. Such cases shall have precedence and be tried as soon as practicable.

Art. 5967. [6027] [3528] State officers appointed by Governor.—All State officers appointed by the Governor, or elected by the Legislature, where the mode of their removal is not otherwise provided by law, may be removed by him for good and sufficient cause, to be spread on the records of his office, and to be reported by him to the next session of the Legislature thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 5968. [6028] [3529] Convictions work removal.—All convictions by a petit jury of any county officers for any felony, or for any misdemeanor involving official misconduct, shall work an immediate removal from office of the officer so convicted. Each such judgment of conviction shall embody within it an order removing such officer. [Id.]

Art. 5969. [6029] [3530] Appeal supersedes order of removal.—When an appeal is taken from such judgment by the officer removed, such appeal shall have the effect of superseding such judgment, unless the court rendering such judgment shall deem it to the public interest to suspend such officer from the office pending such appeal; and in that case the court shall proceed as in other cases of the suspension of officers from office as provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 5970. [6030] By district judge.—All district and county attorneys, county judges, commissioners, clerks of the district and county courts and single clerks in counties where one clerk discharges the duties of district and county clerk, county treasurer, sheriff, county surveyor, assessor, collector, constable, cattle and hide inspector, justice of the peace and all county officers now or hereafter existing by authority either of the Constitution or laws, may be removed from office by the judge of the district court for incompetency, official misconduct or becoming intoxicated by drinking intoxicating liquor, as a beverage, whether on duty or not; provided such officer shall not be removed for becoming intoxicated when it appears upon the trial of such officer that such intoxication was produced by drinking intoxicating liquors upon the direction and prescription of a duly licensed practicing physician of this State. [Acts 1923, p. 235.]

Art. 5971. [6031] [3532] [3391] Cause to be in writing.—In every case of removal from office for the causes named in the preceding article, the cause or causes thereof shall be set forth in writing, and the truth of said cause or causes be found by a jury. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 24.]

Art. 5972. [6032] [3533] [3392] “Incompetency.”—By “incompetency” as used herein is meant gross ignorance of official duties, or gross carelessness in the discharge of them; or an officer may be found to be incompetent when, by reason of some serious physical or mental defect, not existing at the time of his election, he has become unfit or unable to discharge promptly and properly the duties of his office. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5973. [6033] [3534] [3393] “Official misconduct.”—By “official misconduct,” as used herein with reference to county officers, is meant any unlawful behavior in relation to the duties of his office, wilful in its character, of any officer intrusted in any manner with the administration of justice, or the execution of the laws; and includes any wilful or corrupt failure, refusal or neglect of an officer to perform any duty enjoined on him by law. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5974. [6034] [3535] [3394] Articles apply to cities.—The two preceding articles shall apply also to mayors and aldermen. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5975. [6040] [3541] [3400] Failure to give bond.—All county officers who are required to give official bonds, who shall fail to execute their bonds within the time prescribed by law, or who, when required in accordance with law to give a new bond or additional bond or security, and shall fail to do so, may also be removed from office for such failure by the district judge, on the matter being brought before him in the manner hereinafter provided for bringing such matters before the court. [Id.]

Art. 5976. [6041] [3542] [3401] Proceedings.—The proceedings for the removal of said officers may be commenced, either in term time or vacation, by first filing a petition in the district court of the county where the officer resided, by a citizen of the State who has resided for six months in the said county where he proposes to file such petition, and who is not himself at the time under indictment in said county. [Id.]

Art. 5977. [6042] [3543] [3402] Requisites of petition.—The petition shall be addressed to the district judge of the court in which it is filed, and shall set forth in plain and intelligible words the cause or causes alleged as the grounds of removal, giving in each instance, with as much certainty as the nature of the case will admit of, the time and place of the occurrence of the alleged acts; the petition shall in every instance be sworn to at or before the filing of the same by at least one of the parties filing the same, and the proceedings shall be conducted in the name of "The State of Texas," upon the relation of the person filing the same. [Id.]

Art. 5978. [6043] [3544] [3403] General issue submitted.—In these cases, the judge shall not submit special issues to the jury, but shall, under a proper charge applicable to the facts of the case, instruct the jury to find from the evidence whether the cause or causes of removal set forth in the petition are true in point of fact or not; and, when there are more than one distinct cause of removal alleged, the jury shall by their verdict say which cause they find sustained by the evidence before them, and which are not sustained. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5979. [6044-5-6-52] Citation.—After such petition is filed, the person or persons so filing the same shall make a written application to the district judge for an order for a citation and a certified copy of the said petition to be served on the officer against whom the petition is filed, requiring him at a certain day named, which day shall be fixed by the judge, to appear and answer to the said petition; and until such order is granted and entered upon the minutes of the court (if application is made during term time) no action whatever shall be had thereon; and, if the judge shall refuse to issue the order so applied for, then the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the relator, and no appeal or writ of error shall be allowed from such action of the judge. If the application for said citation is made to the judge in vacation, he shall indorse his action, whatever it may be, on such petition, and shall order it spread on the minutes of the court at the next ensuing term. Upon the order being granted during term time, also spread upon the minutes, the clerk shall issue the citation, accompanied with a certified copy of the petition. The clerk may demand of the relator security for costs as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 5980. [6047] [3548] [3407] Time to answer.—In no case whatever shall the period fixed by the judge in his order in which the officer is to answer, be less than five days from the date of such service, to be computed as time is computed in other suits. [Id.]

Art. 5981. [6048] [3549] [3408] How trial conducted.—The trial and all the proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted as far as it is possible in accordance with the rules and practice of the court in other civil cases. [Id.]

Art. 5982. [6049] [3550] [3409] How suspended.—At any time after the issuance of the order for the citation, as herein provided, the district judge may, if he sees fit, suspend temporarily from office, the officer against whom the petition is filed, and appoint for the time being some other person to discharge the duties of the office; but in no case shall such suspension take place until after the person so appointed shall execute a bond in such sum as the judge may name, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, and on such conditions as the judge may see fit to impose, to pay the person so suspended from office all damages and costs that he may sustain by reason of such suspension from office, in case it should appear that the cause or causes of removal are insufficient or untrue. [Id.]

Art. 5983. [6050-51] Appeal or writ of error.—An appeal or writ of error to the Court of Civil Appeals may be sued out by either party from the final judgment in these cases as in other civil cases. If the party has not been temporarily suspended from office, no other bond when an appeal is taken or writ of error sued out by him, shall be necessary than a bond for all the costs that have or may accrue in the district and Courts of Civil Appeals. [Id.]

Art. 5984. [6053] [3554] Against district attorneys.—Proceedings under this title may be commenced against any district attorney either in the county of his residence or the county where the alleged cause of removal occurred, if in a county of his judicial district. [Id.]

Art. 5985. [6054] [3555] Criminal district attorney.—Under the name of "district attorney," as used in this chapter, is included any criminal district attorney and the judge of each criminal district court shall have the same power as to his removal and proceed in the same manner as the district judges of the State have in reference to all county officers. [Id.]

Art. 5986. [6055] [3556] [3415] Not retroactive.—No officer shall be prosecuted or removed from office for any act he may have committed prior to his election to office. [Id.]

Art. 5987. [6056-7] Precedence on appeal.—In these cases, an appeal may be taken or writ of error be made returnable to the Court of Civil Appeals, and such cause shall have precedence of the ordinary business of the court and be decided with all convenient dispatch. When so decided, unless the judgment be for some cause set aside or suspended, the mandate of the court shall issue within five days after the judgment of the court is rendered. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5988. [6058-9] Notary public.—Any notary public indicted for and convicted of any wilful neglect of duty or official misconduct shall be removed from office. The order for his removal shall in each instance be embodied in the judgment of the court. [Acts 1876, p. 29.]

Art. 5989. [6060] [3561] [3420] Public weigher.—Any public weigher who is incompetent or shall be guilty of official misconduct shall be removed by the Governor, who shall keep a record of such removal, and report the same with his reasons therefor to the next legislature. [Acts 1875, p. 162; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 534; Acts 1919, p. 126.]

Art. 5990. [6063-4] District clerk removed.—The clerk of the district court may also be removed by information or by indictment and conviction by a petit jury. When so removed, the order for his removal shall be embodied in the judgment of conviction. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 9; R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5991. [6065] [3566] [3425] Mayor and aldermen.—The mayor and aldermen of any incorporated town or city may be removed from office for official misconduct, wilful violation of any ordinance of such town or city, habitual drunkenness, incompetency, or for such other cause as may be prescribed by the ordinances of such town or city. [Acts 1875, p. 63, G. L. Vol. 8, p. 435.]

Art. 5992. [6066-7] Alderman.—When written sworn complaint charging any alderman with any act or omission which may be cause for his removal shall be presented to the mayor, he shall file the same and cause the alderman so charged to be served with a copy of such complaint, and shall set a day for the trial of the case, and notify the alderman so charged and the other aldermen of such town or city to appear on such day. The mayor and aldermen of such town or city, except the aldermen against whom complaint is made, shall constitute a court to try and determine the case. [Id.; Sec. 2.]

Art. 5993. [6068-9] Against mayor.—When any such complaint is made against the mayor of any incorporated town or city it shall be presented to an alderman of such town or city, who shall file the same, and cause such mayor to be served with a copy thereof, and shall set a day for a trial of the case, and notify the mayor and other aldermen to appear on such day. A majority of the aldermen shall constitute a court to try and determine the complaint against the mayor, and they shall select one of their number to preside during such trial. [Id.]

Art. 5994. [6070-1-2] Procedure.—The rules governing other proceedings and trials in the courts of justices of the peace shall govern. If two-thirds of the members of the court present, upon the trial of the case, find the defendant guilty of the charges contained in the complaint, and find that such charges are sufficient cause for removal from office, the presiding officer of the court shall enter judgment, removing such mayor or aldermen from office and declaring such office vacant. If the defendant be found not guilty, judgment shall be entered accordingly. Any municipal officer so removed shall not be eligible to re-election to the same office for two years from the date of such removal. [Id.]

Art. 5995. [6073] [3574] Not to apply to all cities.—The provisions of this title as to municipal officers shall not apply to any town or city except such as are incorporated under the general laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5996. [6074-75] Nepotism.—Whoever violates any provision of the Penal Code relating to nepotism and the inhibited acts connected therewith shall be removed from his office, clerkship, employment or duty, as therein mentioned. Such removal from office shall be made in conformity to the provisions of the Constitution of this State concerning removal from office in all cases to which they may be applicable. All other removals from office under the provisions of this law shall be by quo warranto proceedings. All removals from any such position, clerkship, employment or duty aforesaid shall be summarily made, forthwith, by the appointing power in the particular instance, whenever the judgment of conviction in a criminal prosecution in the particular case shall become final; provided, that, if such removal be not so made within thirty days after such judgment of conviction shall become final, the person holding such position, clerkship or employment, or performing such duty, may be removed therefrom as herein provided with reference to removal from office. [Acts 1909, p. 85.]

Art. 5997. [6076-77] Suits by Attorney General.—All quo warranto proceedings mentioned shall be instituted by the Attorney General in any district court of Travis County or in the district court of the county in which the defendant resides; the district or county attorney of the county in which such suit may be filed shall assist the Attorney General therein whenever he shall so direct. [Id.]

Art. 5998. Sureties.—The official bond of each officer shall be executed by him with two or more good and sufficient sureties or a solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State.

Art. 5999. Depository of bonds.—The bond of each officer who is required by law to give an official bond payable to the Governor or to the State shall be deposited with the Comptroller by the officer who approves the same, except that of the Comptroller which shall be deposited with the Secretary of State.

Art. 6000. [6078] [3575] [3434] Bond to be recorded.—All official bonds of county officers that are required by law to be approved by the commissioners court, and which have been so approved, shall be made payable to the county judge and safely kept and recorded by the county clerk in a book kept for that purpose.

Art. 6001. [6079-80-81-82] Sureties relieved.—Any surety on any official bond of any county officer may apply to the commissioners court to be relieved from his bond, and the county clerk shall thereupon issue a notice to said officer, with a copy of the application, which shall be served upon said officer by the sheriff or any constable of the county, and said officer so notified shall upon such service cease to exercise the functions of his office, except to preserve any records or property in his charge, and in case of a sheriff or constable, to keep prisoners, preserve the peace and execute warrants of arrest, and his office shall become vacant unless he give a new bond within twenty days from the time of receiving such notice. If a new bond is given and approved, the former sureties shall be discharged from any liability for the misconduct of the principal after the approval of the new bond. [Acts 1876, p. 132; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 963.]

Art. 6002. [6083-4-5] Requiring new bond.—When the commissioners court becomes satisfied that the bond of any county officer which has been approved by said court is from any cause insufficient, they shall require a new bond or additional security to be given. Said court shall cause said officer to be cited to appear at a term of their court not less than five days after service, and shall take such action as they deem best for the public interest, and their decision shall be final and no appeal shall lie therefrom. [Acts 1876, p. 54; G. L. Vol 8, p. 890.]

Art. 6003. Suit on bond.—No official bond shall be void upon first recovery but may be sued upon in separate actions until exhausted.

Art. 6004. [7847] Casing.—The owner or operator of any well being drilled for oil or gas shall, before drilling into the oil or gas bearing rock, incase such well with good and sufficient wrought iron or steel casing, in such manner as shall exclude all surface or fresh water from the lower part of such well from penetrating the oil or gas bearing rock. Should any well be drilled through the first into a lower oil or gas bearing rock, the same shall be cased in such manner as will exclude all fresh water above the last oil or gas bearing rock penetrated. [Acts 1899, p. 68.]

Art. 6005. [7848] Abandoned wells.—The owner or operator of any such well, when about to abandon or cease operating the same and before drawing the casing therefrom, shall securely fill such well with rock, sediment, or with mortar, composed of two parts sand and one part cement or other suitable material, to the depth of two hundred feet above the top of the first oil or gas bearing rock, and also in such manner as shall prevent the gas and oil from escaping therefrom. If the owner or operator of any such well shall fail to or shall inefficiently comply with the provisions of this article, then the owner of the land upon which the well is situated shall forthwith comply therewith. If all the persons hereinbefore named shall fail to or inefficiently fill such well in the manner hereinbefore described, then it shall be lawful for any person, after written demand therefor to any of said persons, to enter the premises where such well is situated, take possession thereof and fully comply with the provisions of this article. The reasonable cost and expenses thereof shall forthwith be paid by the owner or operator of the well, and on his default by the owner of the land. The amount of such reasonable cost and expense shall forthwith be a lien upon the fixtures and machinery and leasehold interest of the owner and operator of said well, as upon the title and interest of the land owner in the land upon which said well is situated, and may be recovered and enforced against said owner or operator, in the order named, in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 6006. [7850] Illumination.—No person, co-partnership or corporation shall use natural gas for illuminating purposes by what are known as flambeau lights. Nothing herein shall prohibit the use of "Jumbo" burners or any other burners consuming no more gas than such "Jumbo" burners, but the person, co-partnership, or corporation, consuming such gas and using such burners in the open air, shall inclose the same in glass globes or lamps; and any one using such gas in the open air, or in or around derricks, shall turn off said gas not later than eight o'clock in the morning of each day such lights are burning or used, and shall not turn on or relight the same between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m. [Id.]

Art. 6007. [7851] Penalties.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action in the name of the State of Texas, in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of the State of Texas, without security or liability of cost. [Id.]

Art. 6008. [7849] Gas to be confined.—Any person, co-partnership, or corporation in possession, either as owner, lessee, agent or manager, of any well producing natural gas, in order to prevent the said gas from wasting by escape, shall within ten days after penetrating the gas bearing rock in any well, shut in and confine the gas in said well until and during such time as the gas therein shall be utilized for light or fuel or power; provided, that this shall not apply to any well that is operated for oil. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty of not less than three hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action in the name of the State of Texas, in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted. Each day such violation continues shall be a separate offense. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of this State without security or liability of cost. [Acts 1899, p. 68; Acts 1913, p. 212.]

Art. 6009. [7849-7851] Disposition of penalty.—The amount of any penalty recovered under any preceding article of this title when collected shall be paid, one-half into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought, and one-half to said person at whose instance such suit shall be brought. [Id.]

Art. 6010. [7852] Water in wells.—If any person or persons in this State, in boring any well or wells, for oil or gas, shall pierce any cap-rock or other geological formation in such manner as to cause a flow of salt water or fresh water injurious to any oil well already bored, or to any oil or gas deposits, and which shall or may probably result in the injury of such oil or gas field, or to such gas or oil wells already bored, such person or persons shall, if the flow of water cannot be cased off, immediately abandon all work upon such well and plug and fill the same in such manner and with such materials as will stop the flow of said water; and it shall be unlawful for any well owner, or person boring any such well, to remove the casing from the well drilled until the flow of water shall be stopped, either by casing off or plugging such well. The provisions of this article shall only apply where such cap rock or other formation is pierced at a depth below the horizon at which oil or gas has already been discovered. [Acts 1905, p. 228.]

Art. 6011. [7854] Suits and penalties.—Any person or persons, co-partnership, corporation or association of persons, violating any provision of the preceding article, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, to be recovered with the costs of suit in a civil action brought in the name of the State of Texas in the county in which the act complained of shall have been committed or omitted. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of this State, without security or liability for costs. The amount of said penalty when collected shall be paid into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought. Such suit may be brought at the instance of either the district attorney or the county attorney of the county in which the act was committed or omitted. [Id.]

Art. 6012. May plug or shut in.—If the owner of any such well shall neglect or refuse to cause said well to be plugged, or shut in, as herein provided, for a period of twenty days after a written notice to do so, which notice may be served personally upon such owner, or may be posted at a conspicuous place at or near the well, it shall be lawful for the owner or operator of any adjacent or neighboring lands to enter upon the premises where said well is situated and cause the same to be plugged if it be an abandoned well, or shut in if not abandoned, pursuant to the provisions hereof. The reasonable cost and expense incurred in so doing shall be paid by the owner of said well, and may be recovered as debts of like amount are by law recoverable. [Acts 1913, p. 212.]

Art. 6013. Petition to restrain waste.—In addition to the penalties provided in this title, it shall be the duty of any district judge, whether in term time or vacation, to hear and determine any petition which may be filed to restrain the waste of natural gas in the violation of this law, and to issue such mandatory or restraining orders as may in his judgment be necessary. Such petition may be filed by any citizen of this State, and the same need allege no further financial interest than the petitioner possesses in common with all citizens of the State in the natural resources thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6014. "Waste."—Natural gas and crude oil or petroleum shall not be produced in this State in such manner and under such conditions as to constitute waste. The term "waste" in addition to its ordinary meaning shall include: (a) escape of natural gas in commercial quantities into the open air from a stratum recognized as a natural gas stratum; but this is not intended to have application to gas pockets in high points in strata recognized as oil strata; (b) drowning with water of a gas stratum capable of producing gas in commercial quantities; (c) underground waste; (d) the permitting of any natural gas well to wastefully burn; (e) the wasteful utilization of such gas; (f) burning flambeau lights except when casing head gas is used in same; provided not more than four may be used in or near the derrick of a drilling well; and (g) the burning of gas for illuminating purposes between eight o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m. unless the use is regulated by meter. [Acts 1919 p. 285.]

Art. 6015. Prevention of waste.—All operators, contractors, or drillers, pipe line companies, or gas distributing companies, drilling for or producing crude oil or natural gas or piping oil or gas for any purpose shall use every possible precaution in accordance with the most approved methods to stop and prevent waste of oil and gas or both, in drilling and producing operations, storage or in piping or distributing, and shall not wastefully utilize oil or gas, or allow same to leak or escape from natural reservoirs, wells, tanks, containers or pipes. [Id.]

Art. 6016. Confining gas in wells.—Whenever natural gas in such quantities, in a gas bearing stratum known to contain natural gas in such quantities, is encountered in any well drilled for oil or gas in this State, such gas shall be confined to its original stratum until such time as the same can be produced and utilized without waste and all such strata shall be adequately protected from infiltrating waters. [Id.]

Art. 6017. Penalty.—Any person, firm, corporation or any officer, agent or employee thereof directly or indirectly violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars to be recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas by any district or county attorney on the direction of the Railroad Commission. Every day that such violation continues shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6018. Pipe line carriers.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited partnership, joint stock association or association of any kind whatever;

1. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line within the State of Texas for the transportation of crude petroleum to or for the public for hire, or engaged in the business of transporting crude petroleum by pipe line; or

2. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line for the transportation of crude petroleum, to or for the public for hire, and which said pipe line is constructed or maintained upon, over or under any public road or highway, or in favor of whom the right of eminent domain exists; or

3. Owning, operating or managing any pipe line or any part of any pipe line or pipe lines for transportation to or for the public for hire, of crude petroleum, and which said pipe line or pipe lines is or may be constructed, operated or maintained across, upon, along, over or under the right of way of any railroad, corporation or other common carrier required by law to transport crude petroleum as a common carrier; or

4. Owning, operating or managing or participating in ownership, operation or management, under lease, contract of purchase, agreement to buy or sell, or other agreement or arrangement of any kind whatsoever, any pipe line or pipe lines, or part of any pipe line, for the transportation from any oil field or place of production within this State to any distributing, refining or marketing center or reshipping point thereof, within this State, of crude petroleum bought of others;

Is hereby declared to be a common carrier and subject to the provisions of this law. The provisions of this law shall not apply to those pipe lines which are limited in their use to the wells, stations, plants and refineries of the owner and which are not a part of the pipe line transportation system of any common carrier as above defined; nor shall such provisions apply to any property of such a common carrier which is not a part of or necessarily incident to its pipe line transportation system. [Acts 1917, p. 48.]

Art. 6019. Control of.—It is declared that the operation of common carrier pipe lines is a business in which the public is interested, and is subject to regulation by law. The business of purchasing, or of purchasing and selling crude petroleum, using in connection with such business a pipe line of the class subject to this law to transport the crude petroleum so bought or sold, shall not be conducted, unless such pipe line so used is a common carrier within the purview of this law, and subject to the jurisdiction herein conferred upon the Railroad Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6020. Powers of carrier.—The right to lay, maintain and operate pipe lines, together with telegraph and telephone lines incidental to and designed for use only in connection with the operation of such pipe lines along, across or under any public stream or highway in this State, is hereby conferred upon all said common carrier pipe lines. Any person, firm, limited partnership, joint stock association, or corporation may acquire such right by filing with said Commission a written acceptance of the provisions of this law expressly agreeing that in consideration of the rights so acquiring it shall be and become a common carrier pipe line, subject to the duties and obligations conferred or imposed by this law.

Art. 6021. Injury to roads, etc.—The right to run pipe lines, telegraph and telephone lines along, across or over any public road or highway can only be exercised upon condition that the traffic thereon be not interfered with, and that such road or highway be promptly restored to its former condition of usefulness, and the restoration thereof to be subject also to the supervision of the commissioners court or other proper local authority. In the exercise of the privileges herein conferred, such pipe lines shall compensate the county or road district, respectively, for any damage done to such public road. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant any pipe line company the right to use any public street or alley of any incorporated or unincorporated city or town, except by express permission from the governing body thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6022. Eminent domain.—Every person, firm, corporation, limited partnership, joint stock association, or association of any kind whatsoever owning, operating or managing any pipe line, or any part of any pipe line within this State for the transportation of crude petroleum that is declared by this title to be a common carrier, shall have the right and power of eminent domain in the exercise of which he, it or they may enter upon and condemn the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation necessary for the construction, maintenance or operation of his, its or their common carrier pipe line; and shall have the right to lay his, its or their pipes or pipe lines under any railroad, railroad right of way, street railroad, canal or stream in this State; and along and under any street or alley in any incorporated city or town in this State with the consent and under the direction of the governing body of such city or town; and across and under any public road, provided that no pipes or pipe lines shall be laid parallel with and on any public highway closer than fifteen feet from the improved section thereof except with the approval and under the direction of the commissioners court of the county in which such public highway is located; and such other rights in the matter of laying pipes and pipe lines as are conferred by Article 1497, subject to the conditions, limitations and restrictions therein stated. [Acts 1919, p. 273.]

Art. 6023. Jurisdiction.—Power and authority are hereby conferred upon the Railroad Commission of Texas, over all common carrier pipe lines conveying oil or gas in Texas, and over all oil and gas wells in Texas, and over all persons, associations or corporations owning or operating pipe lines in Texas, and over all persons, associations and corporations owning or engaged in drilling or operating oil or gas wells in Texas; and all such persons, associations and corporations and their pipe lines, oil and gas wells are subject to the jurisdiction conferred by law upon the Commission, and the Commission is authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules and regulations for the government and regulation of such persons, associations and corporations and their operations, and the Attorney General shall enforce the provisions of this title by injunction or other adequate remedy and as otherwise provided by law. The word "Commission," as used in this title, shall mean the Railroad Commission of Texas. The word "Commissioner" shall mean any member of the Railroad Commission.

Art. 6024. Powers.—In all matters pertaining to the discharge of its duties and the enforcement of its powers and authority as provided by the terms of this title, the Commission shall institute suits, hear and determine complaints, require the attendance of witnesses, pay their expenses out of the fund herein created, and sue out such writs and process as may be necessary for the enforcement of its orders, and punish for contempt or disobedience of its orders as the district court may do.

Art. 6025. Attendance of witnesses.—If any witness fails or refuses to obey a subpoena from the Commission, or a Commissioner, the Commission or Commissioner may issue an attachment for such witness as in civil cases, and compel him to attend before the Commission or any Commissioner thereof, and give his testimony upon such matter as may be lawfully required of him, and to bring with him and produce on examination such records, books, vouchers, memoranda, true copies thereof, prints and such other matter as may be required, if any, in such subpoena.

Art. 6026. Criminating testimony.—If a witness fails or refuses to attend on being summoned, or to answer any question propounded to him, or to produce any record or data required to be produced by such subpoena, the claim that any such testimony may tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse such witness from testifying or producing such records and data, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding.

Art. 6027. Witness fees.—Each witness who shall appear before the Commission or a Commissioner at a place outside the county of his residence shall receive for his attendance three dollars per day and three cents per mile traveled by the nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said Commission or Commissioner, which shall be ordered paid, upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness and approved by the Commission or chairman thereof, provided, that no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in any public utility involved in or concerning which, in any way, the investigation or hearing on account of which he is summoned, shall relate, or who is in anywise interested in any stock, bond, mortgages, security or earnings of any such utility, or who shall be the agent, attorney or employee of such utility, or any officer thereof, when summoned at the instance of such utility. No witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may have traveled on such free transportation.

Art. 6028. Officer's fees.—The sheriff or constable executing any process issued by the Commission or any Commissioner thereof under the provisions of this title shall receive such compensation as the Commission may allow.

Art. 6029. Rules and regulations.—The Commission shall make and enforce rules and regulations for the conservation of oil and gas :

1. To prevent the waste of oil and gas in drilling and producing operations and in the storage, piping and distribution thereof.

2. To require dry or abandoned wells to be plugged in such way as to confine oil, gas and water in the strata in which they are found and to prevent them from escaping into other strata.

3. For the drilling of wells and preserving a record thereof.

4. To require such wells to be drilled in such manner as to prevent injury to the adjoining property.

5. To prevent oil and gas and water from escaping from the strata in which they are found into other strata.

6. To establish rules and regulations for shooting wells and for separating oil from gas.

7. To require records to be kept and reports made by oil and gas drillers, operators and pipe line companies and by its inspectors.

8. It shall do all things necessary for the conservation of oil and gas whether here especially enumerated or not, and shall establish such other rules and regulations as will be necessary to carry into effect this law and to conserve the oil and gas resources of the State. [Acts 1919, p. 285.]

Art. 6030. Supervisor and employees.—The Commission shall employ a pipe line expert who shall be the supervisor for the Commission in enforcing its rules and regulations. The Commission may appoint such deputy supervisors as may be necessary and may increase the salary of the supervisor to a sum not exceeding $5,000.00 per annum and may fix the salaries of the deputies at not exceeding $3,600.00 per annum, and shall employ such other assistants as may be necessary.

Art. 6031. Duties of supervisor.—The supervisor and his deputies shall supervise the plugging of all abandoned wells and the shooting of wells and conform to the rules and regulations of the Commission, dealing with the production and conservation of oil and gas. The supervisor shall gather information, and assist the Commission in the performance of its duties under this title. [Id.]

Art. 6032. Tax.—There is hereby levied a tax of one-twentieth of one per cent of the market value of crude petroleum produced within this State, which shall be in addition to and collected in the same manner as the present gross receipts production tax on crude petroleum. Producers of crude petroleum are hereby required to make reports of production in the same manner and under the same penalties as for the gross production tax. The tax thus collected shall be paid into the State Treasury as other revenue, and shall be paid out on warrants as other State funds. Any yearly excess of the tax over and above the requirements of the Commission shall become a part of the general revenue of the State and any deficiency shall be made up out of the general revenue of the State.

Art. 6033. Certificate of compliance.—Owners or operators of gas wells shall, before connecting with any oil or gas pipe lines, secure from the Commission a certificate showing compliance with the oil and gas conservation laws of the State and conservation orders of the Commission. Pipe line companies shall not connect with oil or gas wells until the owners or operators thereof shall furnish certificates from the Commission that the conservation laws of the State have been complied with, provided this law shall not prevent a temporary connection with any well or wells in order to take care of production and prevent waste until opportunity shall have been given the owner or operator of said well to secure certificate showing compliance with the conservation laws of the State. [Acts 1919, p. 285.]

Art. 6034. Books and records.—All owners and operators of oil and gas wells shall keep books, showing accurately the amount of stock sold and unsold and amount of promotion money paid, amount of oil and gas produced and disposed of, with the price for which the same was sold, together with the receipts from the sale or transfer of leases or other property, and the disbursements made in connection with or for the benefit of such business; which books shall be kept open for the inspection of the Commission or any accredited representative thereof, and of any stockholder or shareholder or royalty owner in said business, and shall report such information to the Commission for its information when required by the Commission to do so. [Acts 1919, p. 287; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 79.]

Art. 6035. Report to Commission.—Any person, firm, partnership, joint stock association, corporation or other organization, domestic or foreign, operating wholly or partially within this State, acting as principal or agent for another, for the purpose of drilling, owning or operating any oil or gas well, or owning or controlling leases of oil and mineral rights or the transportation of oil or gas by pipe line, shall immediately file with the Commission the name of the company or organization, giving the name and post-office address of the organization, the plan under which it was organized, and the names and post-office addresses of the trustee or trustees thereof, and the names and post-office addresses of the officers and directors. [Id.]

Art. 6036. Penalty.—Any person, firm, corporation or any officer, agent or employe thereof directly or indirectly violating any provision of the three preceding articles shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars to be recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas by any district or county attorney on the direction of the Commission. Every day that such violation continues shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6037. Rates and charges.—The Commission shall establish and enforce rates of charges and regulations for gathering, transporting, loading and delivering crude petroleum by such common carriers in this State, and for the use of storage facilities necessarily incident to such transportation, and prescribe and enforce rules and regulations for the government and control of such common carriers in respect to their pipe lines and receiving, transferring and loading facilities, and it shall also exercise such power upon petition by any person showing a substantial interest in the subject. [Acts 1917, p. 48.]

Art. 6038. Hearing, notice.—No order establishing or prescribing rates, rules and regulations shall be made except after hearing and at least ten days and not more than thirty days notice to the person, firm, corporation, partnership, joint stock association, or association, owning or controlling and operating the pipe line or pipe lines affected. [Id.]

Art. 6039. Reimbursement, when.—If any rate shall be filed by a pipe line and complaint against same or petition to reduce same shall be filed by a shipper, and such complaint be sustained, in whole or in part, all shippers who shall have paid the rates so filed by the pipe line shall have the right to reparation or reimbursement of all excess in transportation charges so paid over and above the proper rate as finally determined on all shipments made after the date of the filing of such complaint. [Id.]

Art. 6040. Exchange of facilities.—Every common carrier as above defined shall exchange crude petroleum tonnage with each like common carrier and the Commission is authorized to require such connections and facilities for the interchange of such tonnage to be made at every locality reached by both pipe lines whenever a necessity therefor exists and subject to such rates and regulations as may be made by the Commission; and any such common carrier under like rules and regulations shall be required to install and maintain facilities for the receipt and delivery of crude petroleum of patrons at all points on such pipe line. [Id.]

Art. 6041. Grades of oil carried.—No carrier shall be required to receive or transport any crude petroleum except such as may be marketable under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commission, and the Commission shall make rules for the ascertainment of the amount of water and other foreign matter in oil tendered for transportation, and for deduction therefor and for the amount of deduction to be made for temperature, leakage and evaporation. [Id.]

Art. 6042. Powers not limited.—Particular powers herein granted to the Commission shall not be construed to limit the general powers conferred by law, and until set aside or vacated by some order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, all orders of the Commission as to any matter within its jurisdiction shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of their validity. [Id.]

Art. 6043. Publication of tariffs.—Such common carriers of crude petroleum shall make and publish their tariffs under such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe, and the Commission shall require them to make reports, and may investigate their books and records kept in connection with such business. [Id.]

Art. 6044. Monthly reports.—The Commission shall require of such common carrier pipe lines duly verified monthly reports of the total quantities of crude petroleum owned by such pipe lines and of that held by them in storage for others, as also of their unfilled storage capacity, but no publicity shall be given by the Commission as to stock of crude petroleum on hand of any particular pipe line; but the Commission in its discretion may make public the aggregate amounts held by all pipe lines making such reports, and of their aggregate storage capacity. [Id.]

Art. 6045. Discrimination prohibited.—No such common carrier in its operations as such shall discriminate between or against shippers in regard to facilities furnished or service rendered or rates charged under the same or similar circumstances in the transportation of crude petroleum; nor shall there be any discrimination in the transportation of crude petroleum produced or purchased by itself directly or indirectly. In this connection the pipe line shall be considered as a shipper of the crude petroleum produced or purchased by itself directly or indirectly and handled through its facilities. No such carrier in such operations shall directly or indirectly charge, demand, collect or receive from any one a greater or less compensation for any service rendered than from another for a like and contemporaneous service; provided, this shall not limit the right of the Commission to prescribe rates and regulations different from or to some places from other rates or regulations for transportation from or to other places, as it may determine; nor shall any carrier be guilty of discrimination when obeying any order of the Commission. When there shall be offered for transportation more crude petroleum than can be immediately transported, the same shall be equitably apportioned. The Commission may make and enforce general or specific regulations in this regard. No such common carrier shall at any time be required to receive for shipment from any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, exceeding three thousand barrels of petroleum in any one day. [Id.]

Art. 6046. Rules for prevention of waste.—The Commission, when necessary, shall make and enforce rules and regulations either general in their nature or applicable to particular oil fields for the prevention of actual waste of oil or operations in the field dangerous to life or property. [Id.]

Art. 6047. Penalty.—Any common carrier as herein defined who shall violate any provision of this law, or who shall fail to perform any duty herein imposed, or any valid order of the Commission when not stayed or suspended by order of court, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, recoverable in the name of the State. Such penalty may also be recovered by and for the use of any person, corporation or association of persons against whom there shall have been an unlawful discrimination as herein defined; such suit to be brought in the name of and for the use of the party aggrieved. [Id.]

Art. 6048. Transportation of crude petroleum.—Subject to the provisions of the law and the rules or regulations which may be prescribed by the Commission, every such common carrier shall receive and transport crude petroleum delivered to it for transportation and shall so receive and transport same and perform its other duties with respect thereto without discrimination. [Id.]

Art. 6049. Salary of expert and other expenses.—The salary of the expert for the Commission and all other employees shall be paid out of the fund created under Article 6032, by monthly warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the State Treasurer. All other expenses incurred in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this subdivision shall be paid out of the same fund by like warrants issued upon duly verified statements of the persons entitled, with the approval of the chairman.

Art. 6050. Classification.—The term “gas utility” and “public utility” or “utility,” as used in this subdivision, means and includes persons, companies and private corporations, their lessees, trustees, and receivers, owning, managing, operating, leasing or controlling within this State any wells, pipe lines, plant, property, equipment, facility, franchise, license, or permit for either one or more of the following kinds of business:

1. Producing or obtaining, transporting, conveying, distributing or delivering natural gas: (a) for public use or service for compensation; (b) for sale to municipalities or persons or companies, in those cases referred to in paragraph 3 hereof, engaged in distributing or selling natural gas to the public; (c) for sale or delivery of natural gas to any person or firm or corporation operating under franchise or a contract with any municipality or other legal subdivision of this State; or, (d) for sale or delivery of natural gas to the public for domestic or other use.

2. Owning or operating or managing a pipe line for the transportation or carriage of natural gas, whether for public hire or not, if any part of the right of way for said line has been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired by the exercise of the right of eminent domain; or if said line or any part thereof is laid upon, over or under any public road or highway of this State, or street or alley of any municipality, or the right of way of any railroad or other public utility; including also any natural gas utility authorized by law to exercise the right of eminent domain.

3. Producing or purchasing natural gas and transporting or causing the same to be transported by pipe lines to or near the limits of any municipality in which said gas is received and distributed or sold to the public by another public utility or by said municipality, in all cases where such business is in fact the only or practically exclusive agency of supply of natural gas to such utility or municipality, is hereby declared to be virtual monopoly and a business and calling affected with a public interest, and the said business and property employed therein within this State shall be subject to the provisions of this law and to the jurisdiction and regulation of the Commission as a gas utility.

Every such gas utility is hereby declared to be affected with a public interest and subject to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the Commission as provided herein. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 18.]

Art. 6051. May enjoin gas pipe line.—The operation of gas pipe lines for buying, selling, transporting, producing or otherwise dealing in natural gas is a business which in its nature and according to the established method of conducting the business is a monopoly and shall not be conducted unless such gas pipe line so used in connection with such business be subject to the jurisdiction herein conferred upon the Commission. The Attorney General shall enforce this provision by injunction or other remedy. [Id.]

Art. 6052. Utility office. — Every gas utility as defined herein shall have an office in one of the counties of this State in which its property or some part thereof is located and shall keep in said office all books, accounts, papers, records, vouchers and receipts which the Commission shall require. No books, accounts, papers, records, receipts, vouchers or other data required by the Commission to be so kept shall be at any time removed from this State except upon such conditions as the Commission may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 6053. Regulation of utilities.—The Commission after due notice shall fix and establish and enforce the adequate and reasonable price of gas and fair and reasonable rates of charges and regulations for transporting, producing, distributing, buying, selling and delivering gas by such pipe lines in this State; and shall establish fair and equitable rules and regulations for the full control and supervision of said gas pipe lines and all their holdings pertaining to the gas business in all their relations to the public, as the Commission may from time to time deem proper; and establish a fair and equitable division of the proceeds of the sale of gas between the companies transporting or producing the gas and the companies distributing or selling it; and prescribe and enforce rules and regulations for the government and control of such pipe lines in respect to their gas pipe lines and producing, receiving, transporting and distributing facilities; and regulate and apportion the supply of gas between towns, cities, and corporations, and when the supply of gas controlled by any gas pipe line shall be inadequate, the Commission shall prescribe fair and reasonable rules and regulations requiring such gas pipe lines to augment their supply of gas, when in the judgment of the Commission it is practicable to do so; and it shall exercise its power, whether upon its own motion or upon petition by any person, corporation, municipal corporation, county, or commissioner's precinct showing a substantial interest in the subject, or upon petition of the Attorney General, or of any county or district attorney in any county wherein such business or any part thereof may be carried on. [Id.]

Art. 6054. Orders, etc. reviewed.—All orders and agreements of any company or corporation, or any person or persons controlling such pipe lines establishing and prescribing prices, rates, rules and regulations and conditions of service, shall be subject to review, revision and regulation by the Commission on hearing after notice as provided for herein to the person, firm, corporation, partnership or joint stock association owning or controlling or operating the gas pipe line affected. [Id.]

Art. 6055. To refund excess charges.—If any rate or charge for gas or for service or for meter rental or any other purpose pertaining to the operation of said business shall be made or promulgated by any person, firm or corporation owning or operating any gas pipe line, or in the event of an inadequate supply of gas or inadequate service in any respect, and complaint against same shall be filed by any person authorized by the preceding article to file such petition and such complaint is sustained in whole or in part, all persons and customers of said gas pipe line shall have the right to reparation or reimbursement of all excess in charges so paid over and above the proper rate or charge as finally determined by the Commission from and after the date of the filing of such complaint. [Id.]

Art. 6056. Operator's reports.—The Commission may require of all persons or corporations operating, owning or controlling such gas pipe lines sworn reports of the total quantities of gas distributed by such pipe lines and of that held by them in storage, and also of their source of supply, the number of wells from which they draw their supply, the amount of pressure maintained, and the amount and character and description of the equipment employed, and such other matters pertaining to the business as the Commission may deem pertinent. [Id.]

Art. 6057. Discrimination.—No such pipe line public utility shall discriminate in favor of or against any person, place or corporation, either in apportioning the supply of natural gas or in its charges therefor; nor shall any such utility directly or indirectly charge, demand, collect or receive from any one a greater or less compensation for any service rendered than from another for a like and contemporaneous service; provided this shall not limit the right of the Commission to prescribe different rates and regulations for the use of natural gas for manufacturing and similar purposes, or to prescribe rates and regulations for service from or to other or different places, as it may determine. [Id.]

Art. 6058. Appeal from city control.—When a city government has ordered any existing rate reduced, the gas utility affected by such order may appeal to the Commission by filing with it on such terms and conditions as the Commission may direct, a petition and bond to review the decision, regulation, ordinance, or order of the city, town or municipality. Upon such appeal being taken the Commission shall set a hearing and may make such order or decision in regard to the matter involved therein as it may deem just and reasonable. The Commission shall hear such appeal de novo. Whenever any local distributing company or concern, whose rates have been fixed by any municipal government, desires a change of any of its rates, rentals or charges, it shall make its application to the municipal government where such utility is located and such municipal government shall determine said application within sixty days after presentation unless the determination thereof may be longer deferred by agreement. If the municipal government should reject such application or fail or refuse to act on it within said sixty days, then the utility may appeal to the Commission as herein provided. But said Commission shall determine the matters involved in any such appeal within sixty days after the filing by such utility of such appeal with said Commission or such further time as such utility shall in writing agree to, but the rates fixed by such municipal government shall remain in full force and effect until ordered changed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6059. Appeal from orders.—If any gas utility or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied utility or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause of objection thereto in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County against the Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may have the right of appeal; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to the appellate court, and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court of all causes of a different character therein pending. If the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days notice. In all trials under this article the burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff, who must show by clear and satisfactory evidence that the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id.]

Art. 6060. Utility tax.—Every gas utility subject to the provisions of this subdivision on or before the first day of January and quarterly thereafter, shall file with the Commission a statement, duly verified as true and correct by the president, treasurer or general manager if a company or corporation, or by the owner or one of them if an individual or co-partnership, showing the gross receipts of such utility for the quarter next preceding or for such portion of said quarterly period as such utility may have been conducting any business, and at such time shall pay into the State Treasury at Austin a sum equal to one-fourth of one per cent of the gross income received from all business done by it within this State during said quarter. [Id.]

Art. 6061. Report to Governor.—The Commission shall on December 1st of each year make a full detailed report to the Governor, who shall transmit the same to the next succeeding session of the Legislature, showing:

1. The proceedings of said Commission to such time with respect to the gas utilities defined herein.

2. The receipts of gross income taxes from all sources, indicating the sources.

3. The expenditures made under and in accordance with this subdivision, the nature of such expenditures, including in addition to other items of expenditures, the names, titles, nature of employment, salaries of and payments made to all persons employed for any purpose under the terms of this subdivision with statement of traveling and other expenses incurred by each of said persons and approved by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6062. Penalties.—Any public utility as herein defined violating any provision of this subdivision or failing to perform any duty herein imposed or to comply with any valid order of the Commission when not stayed or suspended by order of the court, shall be subject to a penalty payable to the State of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, each violation to constitute a separate offense, and each day that such failure continues shall constitute a separate offense. An additional penalty of a like amount together with reasonable attorney's fees may also be recoverable by and for the use of any person, corporation or association of persons against whom there shall have been unlawful discrimination as herein defined; such suit to be brought in the name of and for the use of the party aggrieved. [Id.]

Art. 6063. Receiver.—Whenever any person, firm or corporation, owning, operating or controlling such gas pipe line shall violate any provision hereof or any rule or regulation of the Commission, the Commission shall, whenever in its judgment the public interests require it, apply to any court of this State having jurisdiction for a receivership of such concern guilty of such violation. Such receiver shall control and manage the property of such gas pipe line under the direction of the court as provided by law in receivership matters. The grounds for appointment of receiver provided for in this article shall be in addition to other grounds provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6064. Duties of pipe line expert.—The supervisor shall likewise assist the Commission in the performance of its duties under this subdivision under the direction of the Commission, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe. [Id.]

Art. 6065. Employees of Commission.—The Commission may employ and appoint, from time to time, such experts, assistants, accountants, engineers, clerks and other persons as it deems necessary to enable it at all times to inspect and audit all records or receipts, disbursements, vouchers, prices, pay rolls, time cards, books and official records, to inspect all property and records of the utilities subject to the provisions hereof, and to perform such other services as may be directed by the Commission or under its authority. Such persons and employees of the Commission shall be paid for the service rendered such sums as the Commission may fix. The number of employees and appointees employed or appointed under this subdivision and the sums of money paid to them for their services shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Control, and no employment or appointment hereunder shall be valid without such approval. [Id.]

Art. 6066. Expenditures limited.—The salary and expense of the expert and his assistants, and the salaries, wages, fees and expenses of every other person employed or appointed by the Commission under the provisions of this subdivision, and all other expenses, costs, and charges, including witness fees and mileage, incurred by or under authority of the Commission or a Commissioner, in administering and enforcing the provisions of this subdivision or in exercising any power and authority hereunder shall be paid out of the gas utilities fund provided for by Article 6060, by the State Treasurer on the warrants of the Comptroller of Public Accounts on order or voucher approved by the Commission or the chairman thereof. If the amount or total of such gross receipts charge collected shall not be sufficient, during any quarterly period, to pay such salaries, costs, charges, fees and expenses, then the deficit shall be paid by the State Treasurer out of the general revenue not otherwise appropriated. Any surplus remaining in the gas utilities fund, after paying all such salaries, costs, fees and charges after deducting such amounts as may be contracted to be paid and incurred and such as may be reasonably estimated by the Commission for its use, shall be paid over to the general revenue fund at the end of such quarterly period. The expenses authorized in this article shall never exceed in any one calendar year the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

TITLE 103.PARKS.*1. STATE PARKS BOARD.

Art. 6067. Creating Board.—There is hereby created a State Parks Board of five members to be appointed by the Governor, whose terms shall be six years from date of appointment, but in appointing the first board he shall appoint one member for two years, two for four years and two for six years. They shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling expenses and hotel bills out of State funds, except where localities pay such expenses. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 58.]

Art. 6068. To solicit park sites.—The said Board shall solicit donations to the State of tracts of land, large or small, to be used by the State for the purpose of public parks, and said board is hereby authorized to accept in behalf of the State the title to any such tract or tracts of land, subject to the approval of the Legislature. [Id.]

Art. 6069. Duty of Board.—Said Board shall make investigations of any tract or tracts of land, of any size whatsoever, in the State with a view of determining whether the same is suitable for public park purposes, and, the terms on which it can be acquired; and shall report the result of their investigations, together with their recommendations and findings to each regular session of the Legislature, for such action as the Legislature may take. The purpose of this law being to initiate a movement looking to the establishment eventually of a system of State Parks for the benefit of the people, secured either by donation or purchase, or established on any land owned by the State available for such purpose. The said Board is especially directed to inspect the Davis Mountains in Jeff Davis County, to determine the feasibility of same as a park that might be made a National Park. If said Board should conclude that the Davis Mountains area is feasible as a great park, they are hereby authorized to outline the said park; take options or easements and outline a policy to finance the said Davis Mountains area as a park. Any options, easements or tentative deals that are made in regard to said Davis Mountains Park shall be subject to the action of the Legislature and shall not be binding on the State until the Legislature shall approve of the action of said Parks Board. [Id.]

Art. 6070. Traveling expenses.—Any locality desiring to do so may pay the expenses of said Board on any trip to such locality to inspect land and investigate in such locality in order to ascertain whether there is a suitable site there for a State Park; but if the expenses of the Board are so paid, no money shall be paid out of the State Treasury for traveling expenses or hotel bills of said board for such trip. [Id.]

2. SAN JACINTO STATE PARK.

Art. 6071. [6395] Establishing State Park.—The lands owned and acquired by the State, called the San Jacinto battlefield, shall be known and styled, "The San Jacinto State Park," and, with the exception, reservations and limitations herein mentioned, the said San Jacinto State Park shall be under the care and direction of the State Board of Control. Said Board and the commissioners shall jointly endeavor to improve, preserve and protect the lands and property within and connected with said San Jacinto State Park. [Acts 1907, p. 104.]

Art. 6072. [6396] Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint three resident citizens of the State, who shall be known as "San Jacinto State Park Commissioners," who shall serve without compensation and whose duties shall be to advise with and assist the Board of Control in the improvement, care and preservation of the lands now owned and hereafter acquired by the State, known as the San Jacinto battlefield. One or more of said commissioners may, in the discretion of the Governor, be selected from the patriotic organization known as San Jacinto Chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, or from any kindred organization. [Id., Sec. 6.]

Art. 6073. [6397] Duties of the commissioners.—It shall be the duty of said commissioners, acting with the advice and consent of the Board of Control, to cause to be erected upon a site by them selected a keeper's cottage and other necessary buildings; to arrange for or employ a keeper who shall reside upon the grounds and who shall be clothed with all the powers and authority of a peace officer of the county for the purposes of caring for and protecting the property of the State; to provide the necessary teams, implements and other utensils for the use of such keeper and other employes in the work of beautifying, improving and protecting said grounds; to cause to be erected around, about and upon said grounds such fences as shall, in the judgment of the commissioners and the Board, serve the best interests of the State in the care and protection of its property; to provide for and outline a plan, diagram and design of the work to be done from time to time, copies of which shall be kept in the office of the Board for reference, and to do any and all things necessary to be done, with the intent and purpose of beautifying, improving and protecting the State's interest therein. [Id., Sec. 7.]

3. GONZALES STATE PARK.

Art. 6074. Establishing park.—The State accepts title to the ground tendered by the City of Gonzales, and dedicates it as a public State park in commemoration of the historic events that have occurred at Gonzales, and agrees to beautify and protect the same; which said ground shall be under the care and direction of the State Board of Control, and shall be styled "Gonzales State Park." [Acts 1913, p. 242.]

Art. 6075. Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint three resident citizens of the State, who shall be known as “Gonzales State Park Commissioners,” who shall advise with and assist the Board of Control in the improvement, care and preservation of the said land. One or more of said commissioners may, in the discretion of the Governor, be selected from the patriotic organization known as Gonzales Chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, or from any kindred organization. Said commissioner shall serve without compensation. [Id.]

4. WASHINGTON STATE PARK.

Art. 6076. Washington State Park.—The lands situated in Washington County and which were acquired by the State and on which the first capitol of Texas stood, shall be known as “The Washington State Park.” [Acts 1923, p. 123.]

Art. 6077. Commissioners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint for a term of two years five resident citizens of this State, who shall constitute “The Washington State Park Commission.” The duties of said commissioners, acting with the advice and consent of the Board of Control, shall be the same as that provided by law for the San Jacinto State Park, as far as applicable. [Id.]

5. COUNTY PARKS.

Art. 6078. Tax for parks.—Each commissioners court is authorized to levy and collect a tax not to exceed five cents on each $100 of assessed valuation of the county for the purchase and improvement of lands for use as county parks which shall consist of not more than one hundred acres, and shall not exceed more than four in any one county. No such tax shall be levied and collected until the proposition is submitted to and ratified by the property tax-paying voters of the county at a general or special election called for that purpose, provided, a two-thirds majority of the property taxpaying voters of such county, at an election held for such purpose shall determine in favor of said tax. If said court desires to establish two or more of such county parks they shall locate them in widely separated portions of the county. Said court shall have full power and control over any and all such parks and may levy and collect an annual tax sufficient in their judgment to properly maintain such parks and build and construct pavilions and such other buildings as they may deem necessary, lay out and open driveways and walks, pave the same or any part thereof, set out trees and shrubbery, construct ditches or lakes, and make such other improvements as they may deem proper. Such parks shall remain open for the free use of the public under such reasonable rules and regulations as said court may prescribe. [Acts 1915, p. 102.]

Art. 6079. Privileges and concessions.—No person, firm or association of persons shall have the right to offer for sale or barter, exhibit anything or conduct any place of amusement where a fee is charged within said parks without first obtaining the consent of the commissioners court or its duly authorized agent, paying for such privilege or concession the sum agreed upon with said court or its duly authorized agent. All revenue from the sale of such privileges or concessions shall go into a fund for the maintenance of said parks. [Id.]

6. CITY PARKS.

Art. 6080. City parks.—The governing body of any incorporated city may purchase, improve and maintain land for use as city parks. Such parks shall not exceed two in number for each two thousand inhabitants. If such body establishes more than one of such parks, it shall locate them in widely separated parts of the city. Such body is authorized to levy and collect a tax not to exceed five cents on each one hundred dollars of its assessed valuation for the purchase and improvement of lands for use as such parks, and may levy and collect a like annual tax to properly maintain such parks. Said body shall have full power and authority over all such parks, and may build and construct such building as they may deem necessary, lay out and open driveways and walks, pave any part thereof, construct ditches or lakes, set out trees and shrubs, and make such other improvements as they may deem proper. Such parks shall remain open for the free use of the public under such reasonable rules as said body may prescribe. [Acts 1917, p. 149.]

Art. 6081. Concessions in city park.—No person, firm or association of persons shall have the right to offer for sale or barter, exhibit anything or conduct any place of amusement where a fee is charged within said parks without first obtaining the consent of the governing body, or its authorized agent, paying for such privilege or concession the sum agreed upon with said body or its agent. All revenue from the sale of such rights, privileges or concessions shall go into a fund for the maintenance of said parks. [Id.]

Art. 6082. [6096] [3606] Joint owner may compel.—Any joint owner or claimant of any real estate or of any interest therein or of any mineral, coal, petroleum, or gas lands, whether held in fee or by lease or otherwise, may compel a partition thereof between the other joint owners or claimants thereof in the manner provided in this chapter. [Acts 1917, p. 295.]

Art. 6083. [6097] [3607] [3466] Petition.—Such joint owner or claimant may file his petition in the district court of the county in which the real estate, or any part thereof, sought to be partitioned, is situated, which petition shall state:

1. The names and residence, if known, of each of the other joint owners, or joint claimants, of such property.

2. The share or interest which the plaintiff and the other joint owners, or joint claimants, of same own or claim so far as known to the plaintiff.

3. The land sought to be partitioned shall be so described as that the same may be distinguished from any other and the estimated value thereof stated.

Art. 6084. [6098] [3608] [3467] Citation and service.—Upon the filing of a petition for partition, the clerk shall issue citation for each of the joint owners, or joint claimants, named therein, as in other cases, and such citations shall be served in the manner and for the time provided for the service of citations in other cases.

Art. 6085. [6099] [3609] Where defendant is unknown.—If the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, at the commencement of any suit, or during the progress thereof, for the partition of land, shall make affidavit that an undivided portion of the land described in the plaintiff's petition in said suit is owned by some person unknown to affiant, the clerk of the court shall issue a citation to the proper officer, which shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the suit, and a description of the interest of the unknown owner or owners, commanding such officer to summon such unknown owner or owners by making publication of the citation in some newspaper in the county where the writ issued, if there be a newspaper published in said county, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, for four successive weeks previous to the return day of such process. When such notice is given, and no appearance is entered within the time prescribed for pleading, the court shall appoint an attorney to defend in behalf of such owner or owners, and proceed as in other causes where service is made by publication. It shall be the special duty of the court in all such cases to see that its decree protects the rights of the unknown parties thereto. The judge of the court shall fix the fee of the attorney so appointed, which shall be entered and collected as costs against said unknown owner or owners. [Acts 1879, p. 46; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 1346.]

Art. 6086. [6100] [3610] [3468] Court shall determine, what.—Upon the hearing of the cause, the court shall determine the share or interest of each of the joint owners or claimants in the real estate sought to be divided, and all questions of law or equity affecting the title to such land which may arise.

Art. 6087. [6101] [3611] [3469] Appointment of commissioners.—The court shall determine before entering the decree of partition whether the property, or any part thereof, is susceptible of partition; and, if the court determines that the whole, or any part of such property is susceptible of partition, then the court for that part of such property held to be susceptible of partition shall enter a decree directing the partition of such real estate, describing the same, to be made in accordance with the respective shares or interests of each of the parties entitled thereto, specifying in such decree the share or interest of each party, and shall appoint three or more competent and disinterested persons as commissioners to make such partition in accordance with such decree and the law, a majority of which commissioners may act. [Acts 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6088. [6102] [3612] [3470] Writ of partition.—The clerk shall issue a writ of partition, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding such sheriff or constable to notify each of the commissioners of their appointment as such, and shall accompany such writ with a certified copy of the decree of the court directing the partition. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6089. [6103] [3613] [3471] Service of writ of partition.—The writ of partition shall be served by reading the same to each of the persons named therein as commissioners, and by delivering to any one of them the accompanying certified copy of the decree of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6090. [6104] [3614] [3472] May appoint surveyor.—The court may, should it be deemed necessary, appoint a surveyor to assist the commissioners in making the partition, in which case the writ of partition shall name such surveyor, and shall be served upon him by reading the same to him. [Id.]

Art. 6091. [6105] [3615] [3473] Return of writ.—A writ of partition, unless otherwise directed by the court, shall be made returnable to the first day of the next term of the court from whence the same issues; and the officer serving it shall indorse thereon the time and manner of such service. [Id.]

Art. 6092. [6106] [3616] [3474] Shall proceed to partition.—The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed to partition the real estate described in the decree of the court, in accordance with the directions contained in such decree and with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6093. [6107] [3617] [3475] May cause survey.—If the commissioners deem it necessary, they may cause to be surveyed the real estate to be partitioned into several tracts or parcels. [Id.]

Art. 6094. [6108-9] Shall divide real estate.—The commissioners shall divide the real estate to be partitioned into as many shares as there are persons entitled thereto, as determined by the court, each share to contain one or more tracts or parcels, as the commissioners may think proper, having due regard in the division to the situation, quantity and advantages of each share, so that the shares may be equal in value, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the respective interests of the parties entitled. The commissioners shall then proceed by lot to set apart to each of the parties entitled one of said shares, as determined by the decrees of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6095. [6110] [3620] [3478] Report of commissioners.—When the commissioners have completed the partition, they shall report the same in writing and under oath to the court, which report shall show:

1. The property divided, describing the same.
2. The several tracts or parcels into which the same was divided by them, describing each particularly.
3. The number of shares and the land which constitutes each share, and the estimated value of each share.
4. The allotment of each share.
5. The report shall be accompanied by such field-notes and maps as may be necessary to make the same intelligible. [Id.]

Art. 6096. [6111] [3621] [3479] Property incapable of division.—Should the court be of the opinion that a fair and equitable division of the real estate, or any part thereof, can not be made, it shall order a sale of so much as is incapable of partition, which sale shall be for cash, or upon such other terms as the court may direct, and shall be made as under execution, or by private sale through a receiver, if the court so order, and the proceeds thereof shall be returned into court and be partitioned among the persons entitled thereto, according to their respective interests. [Acts 1905, p. 95.]

Art. 6097. [6112] [3622] [3480] Objections to report.—Either party to the suit may file objections to any report of the commissioners in partition, and in such case a trial of the issues thereon shall be had as in other cases. If the report be found to be erroneous in any material respect, or unequal and unjust, the same shall be rejected, and other commissioners shall be appointed by the court, and the same proceedings had as in the first instance. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 6098. [6113] [3623] [3481] Partition not prejudicial.—When a partition is made between a joint owner who holds an estate for a term of years or for life with others who hold equal or greater estates, such partition shall not be prejudicial to those entitled to the reversion or remainder of such estates. [Id.]

Art. 6099. [6114] [3624] [3482] Each party shall hold in severalty.—When any partition is made, each party to whom a share has been allotted shall hold the same in severalty under the same conditions and covenants that it was held before such partition was made. No warranty, lease or right whatsoever shall be impaired or affected by such partition. [Id.]

Art. 6100. [6115] [3625] [3483] Decree shall vest title.—The decree of the court confirming the report of the commissioners in partition, when a partition has been made shall vest the title in each party to whom a share has been allotted, to such share as against the other parties to such partition suit, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, as fully and effectually as the deed of such parties could vest the same, and shall have the same force and effect as a full warranty deed of conveyance from such other parties and each of them. [Id.]

Art. 6101. [6116] [3626] [3484] Part owners may compel partition.—Part owners of personal property may be compelled to make partition between them in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts Dec. 24, 1851, p. 20; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 898.]

Art. 6102. [6117] [3627] [3485] Suit begun in what court.—Suit for partition shall be commenced in the court having jurisdiction of the value of such property, in the same manner as other civil suits are commenced, and the several owners or claimants of such property shall be cited as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6103. [6118] [3628] [3486] Value ascertained.—The separate value of each article of such personal property, and the allotment in kind to which each owner is entitled, shall be ascertained by the court, with or without a jury. [Id.]

Art. 6104. [6119] [3629] [3487] Decree of court executed.—When partition in kind of personal property is ordered by the judgment of the court, a writ shall be issued in accordance with such judgment, commanding the sheriff or constable of the county where the property may be to put the parties forthwith in possession of the property allotted to each respectively. [Id.]

Art. 6105. [6120-21] Property sold.—When personal property will not admit of a fair and equitable partition, the court shall ascertain the proportion to which each owner thereof is entitled, and order the property to be sold, and execution shall be issued to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the property may be, describing such property and commanding such officer to sell the same as in other cases of execution, and pay over the proceeds of sale to the parties entitled thereto, in the proportion ascertained by the judgment of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6110. [6126] [3583] Limited partnerships authorized.
 —Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or other business, except banking or insurance, may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities herein prescribed. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 279; P. D. 4717 et seq.; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1585.]

Art. 6111. [6127] [3584] General and special partners.—Such partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called the general partners, and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners now are by law; and of one or more persons who shall contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners, and who shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund so contributed by him or them to the capital. [Id.]

Art. 6112. [6128] [3585] General partners only to act.—The general partners only shall be authorized to transact business and sign for the partnership and to bind the same. [Id.]

Art. 6113. [6129] [3586] Formation of such partnerships.
 —The persons desirous of forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain:

1. The name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted.
2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.
3. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their respective places of residence.
4. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.
5. The period at which the partnership is to commence, and the period at which it is to terminate. [Id.]

Art. 6114. [6130] [3587] Certificate to be acknowledged.—The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same, before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments for record, and such acknowledgment shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgment of the conveyances of land. [Id.]

Art. 6115. [6131] [3588] Filing and recording certificate.—The certificate so acknowledged and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal place of business of the partnership shall be situated, and shall also be recorded by him at large in a book to be kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. If the partnership shall have places of business situated in different counties, the certificate and acknowledgment thereof shall be filed and recorded in like manner in the office of the county clerk of every such county. [Id.]

Art. 6116. [6132] [3589] Affidavit of general partner.—At the time of filing the original certificate with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as before directed, an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners, to the common stock, have been actually and in good faith paid in cash. [Id.]

Art. 6117. [6133] [3590] Prerequisites indispensable.—No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed and recorded, nor until an affidavit shall have been filed as above directed; and, if any false statement be made in such certificate or affidavit, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners. [Id.]

Art. 6118. [6134] [3591] Terms to be published.—The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership when registered for at least six weeks immediately after such registry, in such newspapers as shall be designated by the clerk in whose office such registry shall be made; and if such publication be not made the partnership shall be deemed general. [Id.]

Art. 6119. [6135] [3592] Publisher's affidavit.—An affidavit of the publication of such notice by the publisher of the newspapers in which the same shall be published may be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be evidence of the facts therein contained. [Id.]

Art. 6120. [6136] [3593] Renewal of partnership.—Every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice given in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued shall be deemed a general partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6121. [6137] [3594] Certain alterations a dissolution.

—Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership according to the provisions of the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 6122. [6138] [3595] Firm name.—The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a firm in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, without the addition of the word “company,” or any other general term; and if the name of any special partner be used in such firm, with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. [Id.]

Art. 6123. [6139] [3596] Suits by and against.—Suits in relation to the business of the partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners, in the same manner as if there were no special partners. [Id.]

Art. 6124. [6140] [3597] Capital of special partner.—No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him, or paid or transferred to him in the character of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if, after the payment of such interest, any profits shall remain to be divided he may also receive his portion of such profits. [Id.]

Art. 6125. [6141] [3598] Reduction of special partner's capital.—If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the capital, with interest. [Id.]

Art. 6126. [6142] [3599] Powers of special partner.—A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management. [Id.]

Art. 6127. [6143] [3600] Partners to account.—The general partners shall be liable to account to each other, and to the special partners, for the management of the concern, both in law and equity, as other partners are by law. [Id.]

Art. 6128. [6144] [3601] Assignments by partnership.—Every sale, assignment or transfer of any property or effects of the partnership made by such partnership when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of insolvency of any partner, with the intent of giving a preference to any creditor of such partnership, or insolvent partner, over other creditors of such partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partnership under the like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6129. [6145] [3602] Assignments contemplating insolvency.—Every such sale, assignment, or transfer of any of the property or effects of a general or special partner made by such general or special partner when insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, or after, or in contemplation of the insolvency of the partnership, with the intent of giving to any creditor of his own, or of the partnership, a preference over the creditors of the partnership, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, by any such partner under like circumstances and with like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of the partnership. [Id.]

Art. 6130. [6146] [3603] Concurrence by special partner.—Every special partner who shall violate any provision of the two preceding articles, and who shall concur in or assent to any such violation of the partnership by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner. [Id.]

Art. 6131. [6147] [3604] Partnership creditors preferred.—In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the partnership, no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as creditor until the claims of all other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied. [Id.]

Art. 6132. [6148] [3605] Dissolution before time agreed on.—No dissolution of such partnerships by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded and published once in each week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in each of the counties where the partnership may have a place of business, if there be such papers, and if there be no newspapers published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the nearest county where there is one. [Id.]

Art. 6133. [6149] Suit in company name.—Any unincorporated joint stock company or association, whether foreign or domestic, doing business in this State, may sue or be sued in any court of this State having jurisdiction of the subject matter in its company or distinguishing name; and it shall not be necessary to make the individual stockholders or members thereof parties to the suit. [Acts 1907, p. 240.]

Art. 6134. [6150] Service of citation.—In suits against such companies or associations, service of citation may be had on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such unincorporated companies. [Id.]

Art. 6135. [6151] Judgment.—In suits by or against such unincorporated companies, whatever judgment shall be rendered shall be as conclusive on the individual stockholders and members thereof as if they were individually parties to such suits. [Id.]

Art. 6136. [6152] Joint liability.—Where suit shall be brought against such company or association, and the only service had shall be upon the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such company or association, and judgment shall be rendered against the defendant company, such judgment shall be binding on the joint property of all the stockholders or members thereof, and may be enforced by execution against the joint property; but such judgment shall not be binding on the individual property of the stockholders or members, nor authorize execution against it. [Id.]

Art. 6137. [6153] Individual liability.—In a suit against such company or association, in addition to service on the president, secretary, treasurer or general agent of such companies or association, service of citation may also be had on any and all of the stockholders or members of such companies or associations; and, in the event judgment shall be against such unincorporated company or association, it shall be equally binding upon the individual property of the stockholders or members so served, and executions may issue against the property of the individual stockholders or members, as well as against the joint property; but executions shall not issue against the individual property of the stockholders or members until execution against the joint property has been returned without satisfaction. [Id.]

Art. 6138. [6154] This chapter cumulative.—The provisions of this chapter shall not affect nor impair the right allowed unincorporated joint stock companies and associations to sue in the individual names of the stockholders or members, nor the right of any person to sue the individual stockholders or members; but the provisions of this chapter shall be construed as cumulative merely of other remedies now existing under the law. [Id.]

Art. 6139. Protecting the flag.—Whoever shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place or cause to be placed, any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag of the United States of America or State flag of this State, or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag upon which, after this law takes effect shall have been printed, painted or otherwise placed, or to which shall be attached, appended, affixed or annexed any word, figure, mark, picture, design or drawing, or any advertisement of any nature, or who shall, after this law takes effect, expose to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale, or to give away, or for use for any purpose, any article or substance being an article of merchandise, or receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which, after this law takes effect, shall have been printed, painted, attached or otherwise placed, a representation of any such flag to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed, or who shall publicly mutilate, deface, defy, or defile, trample upon or cast contempt, either by words or act, upon such flag, shall forfeit a penalty of fifty dollars for each such offense. Such penalty shall be recovered with costs in a civil suit brought by and in the name of any citizen of this State. Such penalty when collected, less the reasonable cost and expense of suit and recovery, to be certified by the county attorney of the county in which the offense is committed, shall be paid into the State Treasury. Two or more penalties may be sued for and recovered in the same suit. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 81.]

Art. 6140. Definition.—The word “flag,” as used in this title, shall include any flag, standard, color, ensign or any picture or representation of either made of any substance or represented on any substance, and of any size, evidently purporting to be, either of, said flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States of America, or a picture or representation, of either upon which shall be shown the colors, the stars and stripes in any number of either, or by which the person seeing the same without deliberation may believe the same to represent the flag, colors, standard or ensign of the United States of America. [Id.]

Art. 6141. Prima facie evidence.—The possession by one, other than a public officer, as such, of any such flag on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time, by this title, or of any article or substance or thing on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time by this title, shall be presumptive evidence that the same is in violation of this law. [Id.]

Art. 6142. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to any act permitted by the statutes of the United States, or by the United States Army and Navy regulations, nor to any newspaper, periodical, book, pamphlet, circular, certificate, diploma, warrant or commission of appointment to office, ornamental picture, article of jewelry, or stationery for use in correspondence, on any of which shall be printed, painted, or placed said flag, disconnected from any advertisement. [Id.]

Art. 6143. State tree.—The pecan tree shall be the State Tree. [Acts 1919, p. 155.]

Art. 6144. Home Guard.—Whenever a state of war shall exist between the United States and another nation there may be organized and maintained without expense to this State, with the consent and under the direction of the county judge of any county, a Home Guard composed of adult citizens of the United States and of such county. Such Guard shall be organized to conform as nearly as practicable to the organization of military units, and shall at all times be subject to call to duty and to orders of the sheriff of such county. Each Guard shall be authorized to carry on and about his person pistols and other weapons as may be necessary when called to actual duty by the sheriff. Counties, cities and towns may through their lawful governing bodies appropriate from their public treasuries moneys to provide arms and ammunition for such Guard under such rules as they may prescribe, and those receiving arms from the county shall return all guns and ammunition to the county judge when not on duty. Such Guard may engage in drill at such time and place as the community officers may prescribe, and may be uniformed so as not to conflict with Section 125, Act of Congress, approved June 3, 1916. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 79.]

Art. 6145. Texas Historical Board.—The Governor shall appoint five patriotic citizens of this State, to serve without compensation, who shall constitute the Texas Historical Board. Two of the members of said Board shall serve for a period of two years and three shall serve for four years from the date of their qualification by taking the official oath. The Governor shall, at the time of making the appointments, designate which members shall serve for two years and which shall serve for four years. The Board shall select one member as chairman and another as secretary and may adopt such rules and regulations for its control and guidance as may be necessary to carry out the purposes for which it was created, and shall hold such meetings at such times and places as may be designated by it. Said Board shall gather data relating to the history of Texas from the earliest time to the present and submit to the Legislature at each regular session, for such action as it may deem necessary, such data and such recommendations as it may see fit looking to the preservation of historic relics, and marking of historic spots, the purchase of historic grounds and the erection of fitting monuments in memory of the heroes and the heroic achievements that consecrated, sanctified, and made immortal the glorious and resplendent pages of Texas history. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 62.]

TITLE 107.

PAWNBROKERS AND LOAN BROKERS.

1. Pawnbrokers.

Art. 6146. [6155] [3636] [3494] Pawnbroker.—A pawnbroker is one who pursues the business of lending money upon interest and receiving upon deposit any personal property as security for the payment of such loan and interest.

Art. 6147. [6156-7] Bond.—No person shall pursue the business of a pawnbroker without first having given bond, with at least two good sureties in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, and approved by and filed with the county clerk of the county in which such person proposes to pursue said business, conditioned that he will faithfully comply with each requirement of the law governing such business. A new bond shall be given in the same manner as the first every twelve months during the continuance of such business. Such bond shall be recorded and safely kept in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such pawnbroker pursues such business, the recording fee to be paid by such pawnbroker. [Acts 1874, p: 153; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 155.]

Art. 6148. [6158] [3639] [3497] Register.—Each pawnbroker shall keep a well bound book, to be kept open for inspection in which he shall register all his transactions as a broker at the time the same occurs. Such register shall show—

1. An accurate description of the article pawned.
2. From whom received.
3. The time and the amount for which the article is pawned; its probable value and the rate of interest agreed upon.
4. The final disposition made of such property, and if sold to whom sold and the amount for which each article was sold. [Id.]

Art. 6149. [6159] [3640] [3498] Pawn ticket.—The broker shall give to the party pledging a ticket corresponding to the entry on the book of registry. [Id.]

Art. 6150. [6160] [3641] [3499] Failure to redeem.—If any article deposited with such broker as a pawn shall not be redeemed at or before the time agreed upon, the broker shall sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at his usual place of business, after giving at least five days' notice of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6151. [6161] [3642] [3500] How notice given.—Such notice of sale shall be given by posting or written or printed advertisements at not less than three public places in the county where such sale is to take place, one of which places shall be the courthouse of such county. [Id.]

Art. 6152. [6162] [3643] [3501] Advertisement.—Such advertisements of sale shall state the time and place of such sale, and shall contain a full description of each article to be sold, and the name of the person depositing the same, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where such sale takes place. [Id.]

Art. 6153. [6163] [3644] [3502] Hours of sale.—All sales made by a pawnbroker shall be made between the hours of ten o'clock A. M. and four o'clock P. M., and no sales shall be made upon Sunday or upon a legal holiday. [Id.]

Art. 6154. [6164] [3645] [3503] Report of sales.—When a sale has been made the pawnbroker shall, within five days thereafter, file with the county clerk of the county where such sale was made, a report in writing and under oath, showing—

1. The time and place of such sale.
2. The notice given thereof.
3. A full description of the property sold and by whom deposited.

4. By whom purchased and the amount for which each article was sold.

5. The amount due the broker, principal, interest and expenses upon each article sold.

6. The amount of surplus of the proceeds of sale of each article, if any, after deducting the amount due the broker of principal, interest and expenses. [Id.]

Art. 6155. [6165] [3646] [3504] Expenses.—The expenses shall be such expenses as have been agreed upon by the parties to the contract, or if there be no agreement in regard thereto, then the reasonable expenses of the sale only, such as reasonable auctioneer's commissions, shall be allowed and deducted. [Id.]

Art. 6156. [6166] [3647] [3505] Owner entitled to surplus.—The owner or depositor of the property so sold shall be entitled upon demand to receive from such broker the surplus of the proceeds of such sale at any time within thirty days after such sale, and if no demand therefor be made within thirty days after such sale such surplus shall become the property of the county where such sale was made. [Id.]

Art. 6157. [6167] [3648] [3506] Payment to county treasurer.—Should there be any surplus of the proceeds of any sale made by a broker, he shall, at the expiration of thirty days from the day of such sale, pay such surplus to the county treasurer of the county where such sale was made, or he shall file with such county treasurer the receipt of the owner or depositor of the property sold, for such surplus, at the expiration of said thirty days. [Id.]

Art. 6158. [6168] [3649] [3507] Suit for surplus.—Suit may be brought upon the bond of the pawnbroker by the county, or by any party entitled to the surplus of any sale made by him, and upon recovery judgment shall be rendered against such pawnbroker and the sureties upon his bond for the amount of such surplus, together with ten per cent per month on such amount for each month or fraction of a month that such surplus has been illegally withheld by such pawnbroker. [Id.]

Art. 6159. [6169] [3650] [3508] Suit upon bond.—Any person injured by the failure of a pawnbroker to comply faithfully with his contract, or with any requirement of law governing the business of pawnbrokerage, may sue upon the bond of such pawnbroker and recover such damages as he may prove himself entitled to, not to exceed the penalty of such bond. [Id.]

Art. 6160. [6170] [3651] [3509] May sue officer.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any provision of the law governing pawnbrokerage, shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such failure, refusal or neglect. [Id.]

Art. 6161. [6171] [3652] [3510] Common law shall govern.—The rules of the common law shall govern the civil liability of pawnbrokers, except when inconsistent with any statute. [Id.]

2. LOAN BROKERS.

Art. 6162. "Loan broker".—A "loan broker" is a person, firm or corporation who pursues the business of lending money and taking as security for the payment of such loan and interest an assignment of wages, or an assignment of wages with power of attorney to collect the same, or other order for unpaid chattel mortgage or bill of sale upon household or kitchen furniture. [Acts 1915, p. 48.]

Art. 6163. Register.—Each loan broker shall keep a well bound book in which he shall register all his transactions as a broker at the time same occur, which shall be kept open for inspection, and the broker shall give to the borrower a ticket showing the amount of cash actually received and the amount paid back by the borrower to the loan broker on each payment, such tickets to correspond with the entry on said register. Said register shall show:

1. The articles of property securing the loan, if the same be secured by chattel mortgage or bill of sale on household or kitchen furniture;

2. The assignment of wages, or the assignment of wages with power of attorney to collect the same, or other order for unpaid wages given as security, giving the name of the person receiving the money, and the person by whom such person is employed, or by whom it is expected that he will be employed, and in whose service it is expected that he shall earn the salary or wages;

3. The amount of money received by the borrower;

4. The amount to be received back by the loan broker, and the time in which he is to receive back such payment; and

5. The rate of interest or discount agreed upon. [Id.]

Art. 6164. Wife to join.—Each assignment, mortgage, power of attorney to collect or other transfer of the salary or wages of a married man, and each bill of sale or chattel mortgage upon furniture of a married man shall be void unless the same be made and given with the consent of the wife, and such consent shall be evidenced by the wife joining in the assignment, mortgage, power of attorney to collect or other transfer of salary or wages, and the signing of her name thereto and by her separate acknowledgment thereof, taken and certified to by a proper officer, substantially in the mode provided by law for the acknowledgment by the wife of a conveyance of the homestead. [Id.]

Art. 6165. Usurious contract.—All contracts for usury or unlawful interest collected and received are contrary to public policy and shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6166. [6173] Prison system.—The prison system of this State, as referred to in this title, shall include the State penitentiary at Huntsville, which is designated as the headquarters of the prison system, and such other penitentiaries as may be established, and all farms or camps where State prisoners are or may be kept or worked, together with all property of every character belonging thereto or connected therewith. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6167. [6172-4] Policy of prison system.—The prison system shall be so managed and conducted that the convicts therein shall have humane treatment and shall be given opportunity, encouragement and training in the matter of reformation. No convict's labor shall be sold to any contractor or lessee nor shall he be worked on any farm not owned or leased by the State, or otherwise upon shares. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 49.]

Art. 6168. [6175] Prison commissioners: appointment.—The Board of Prison Commissioners, hereinafter called the Board, shall be composed of three members, who may occupy free of rent the residence houses belonging to the State at Huntsville, and shall reside in said city. With the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall biennially appoint one commissioner to serve for a term of six years, the classification to remain as constituted by law. [Const., Art. 16, Sec. 58.]

Art. 6169. [6176] Oath and bond.—Each commissioner shall first take and subscribe to the official oath, and within ten days after his appointment execute a bond with two or more sureties, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars payable to the Governor, and conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. The Attorney General shall prepare the form of such bond, and the Secretary of State shall determine the sufficiency of the sureties thereon. The Attorney General, upon notice of default or failure to perform the duties of such commissioner as contemplated by law, shall bring suit in Travis County for the forfeiture and collection of said bond. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6170. [6177] Salary.—Each member of the board shall receive as compensation for his services three hundred dollars per month, to be paid at the end of each month; and in addition thereto he shall be allowed all reasonable and necessary traveling expenses actually incurred when traveling on business of the prison system, to be paid, together with said salary, out of the funds of the prison system. Such expense accounts shall be itemized and sworn to in duplicate and approved by the Board, and one copy shall be kept with the records of the Board, and one copy filed with the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 6171. [6178] Acts forbidden.—Each commissioner shall devote his entire time to the discharge of the duties of said office, and shall not engage in any other occupation or business during his term of office, nor be directly or indirectly connected with or interested in any contract, sale or purchase of any property or thing whatsoever which may be made during his term of office, and in which either the State or the prison system is interested. A violation of any provision of this article shall be sufficient ground for his removal from office. [Id.]

Art. 6172. [6179] Powers.—Said board shall be vested with the exclusive management and control of the prison system, and shall be held responsible for the proper care, treatment, feeding, clothing and management of the prisoners confined therein, and at all times for the faithful enforcement of the spirit, intent and purpose of the laws and rules governing said system. The Board shall be held responsible for maltreatment of prisoners, and, if permitted, it shall be grounds for removal from office. [Id.]

Art. 6173. [6180-1-2-96] Organization.—The commissioners shall select one of their number as chairman. Minutes of all proceedings shall be kept in a well bound book. The Board shall appoint all necessary officers, physicians, chaplains, teachers, and clerical help needed in conducting said prison system, including a secretary of the Board; and shall require all appointees charged with handling any funds of the system or State to execute bond in such amount as it may fix payable to the Board for the use and benefit of the State, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties. All guards shall be at least twenty-one years old, of good moral character and not addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, and able to read and write and speak English, and shall have such other qualifications as the Board may fix. The Board shall require all officers and employes to take and subscribe to the official oath. The Board shall fix the salaries of each officer and employe upon such a basis as his labor and ability entitle him to, such salaries to be paid at the end of each month. It shall pay to guards not less than forty nor more than sixty dollars per month, and shall promulgate an equitable schedule of salaries between said amounts, based on the length of service, efficiency and ability of such guards; and shall furnish such guards free board and lodging. The Board shall have the authority at all times to discharge any officer or employe for any dereliction in duty, or whenever it may deem it for the best interests of the service. [Id. Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 153.]

Art. 6174. [6183-87] Prison properties.—The board shall have power to purchase with such funds as may be at their disposal, any machinery, tools or supplies needed for the benefit of the prison system; and may establish such factories as they may deem practicable and that may afford useful and proper employment to the convicts, under such regulations, conditions and restrictions as may be deemed best for the welfare of the convicts and the State. The Board shall have power to sell and dispose of all farm products and the products of all factories connected with the prison system, and all personal and movable property, at such prices and on such terms as it may deem best; and with the approval of the Governor it may lease any real estate or other fixed property and appurtenances belonging thereto upon such terms as it may deem best. In the purchase or sale of any machinery or equipment exceeding in value five thousand dollars, the Board shall advertise in the manner it may prescribe, for bids for such property in at least three daily papers in this State having a general circulation, and shall give all such bids received to the public press at least thirty days before any such contract is let. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143; Acts 1919, p. 260.]

Art. 6175. [6191] Inventories.—On the first of each January the Board shall cause to be made a full and complete inventory of all lands, buildings, machinery, tools, live stock, and all other property of every description, belonging to the prison system, setting opposite each item the book and actual value of the same. They shall keep an accurate account with each industry and farm separately and for the prison system as a whole, showing the losses, profits, and net earnings of each industry and farm; and on the first of each January they shall report the same to the Governor. Such report shall include the rules and regulations in force for the management of the prison system and the methods of dealing with the convicts, and the Governor shall have a sufficient number of copies of such report published to give general publicity thereto. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6176. [6188-92] Accounts.—The board shall cause to be kept correct and accurate accounts of each financial transaction of the prison system, including all receipts and disbursements of every character. One of the members of the Board shall receive and receipt for all money paid to the Board from every source whatsoever, and shall sign all vouchers or warrants authorizing the payment or disbursement of any sum on account of the prison system; and no money shall be paid out on any account of the prison system except upon a warrant or voucher signed by him. He shall keep full and correct accounts with each industry, department and farm, and with all firms, persons or corporations having financial transactions with the system. He shall have power to require all necessary reports from any department, officer or employe at stated intervals. On the first Monday of each month the Board shall remit to the State Treasurer, to be deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund, all money received by it as such from whatever source during the preceding month and belonging to the prison system. [Id.]

Art. 6177. [6193] Auditor.—The Comptroller, the Attorney General and the State Treasurer shall annually appoint a permanent auditor for the prison system, who shall hold his office for a term of one year, subject to discharge as herein provided. He shall audit all accounts, vouchers, payrolls and all other business transactions of the prison system, and check all property, material and supplies received and disposed of by or distributed within the prison system, and shall make a full report thereof to the Governor on the first day of each January. During the term of his services, he shall be paid monthly a salary of two hundred dollars per month and all actual and necessary traveling expenses, to be paid at the end of each month, such traveling expenses to be evidenced by an itemized sworn statement by the auditor filed with the Board. Said auditor may be discharged at any time by one or a majority of the officers who appointed him, for any incompetency, neglect, failure or refusal to perform the duties of his office, or for any wrongful conduct that said officers deem to render him unfitted for said office. If he is discharged or resigns, his successor shall be appointed by a majority of said officers. [Id.]

Art. 6178. [6194] May examine witnesses.—Each member of the Board in the performance of his duties is authorized to administer oaths, to summon and examine witnesses, and take such other steps as he deems necessary to ascertain the truth of any matter about which he may have the right to inquire. [Id.]

Art. 6179. Suits for debt.—The Board is authorized, subject to the approval of the Governor, to bring and maintain suits for the collection and enforcement of all demands and debts owing to said Board. Such suits may be maintained in the county in which the residence of members of said Board is fixed by law. In such suits the defendants are authorized to plead and urge by way of offset and counter-claim any valid and lawful claims and demands which they may have against the Board. No bond for costs, appeal bond, supersedeas bond, writ of error bond or other bond or security shall at any time be required of the Board or any member thereof in any civil suit of any kind filed or brought by or against it or them, in its or their official capacity as such, except such suits as may be brought against it or them by the State. Nothing in this article shall authorize any civil suit of any kind whatsoever to be brought or prosecuted against said Board or any member thereof as such, except by way of offset or counter claim as herein provided. [Acts 1st C. S., p. 53; Acts 1923, p. 167.]

Art. 6180. [6195] Removal of commissioners.—If any member of the Board shall be guilty of malfeasance or non-feasance in office, or shall become incapable or unfit to discharge his official duties, or shall wilfully fail, refuse or neglect to discharge the duties of his office, such member may be removed from office in either of the following ways:

1. By the Governor in the manner provided by law.
2. By suit brought by the Attorney General in the name of the State on the relation of the Governor in the District Court of Travis or Walker County, or in the county of residence of the defendant. The Attorney General shall bring such suit when directed by the Governor to do so, provided the Governor accompanies such direction with charges and evidence showing the defendant is subject to removal as provided herein. Upon the application of the Attorney General, in the name of the State, the district judge before whom such suit is pending may immediately suspend the defendant from office, and such order of suspension shall be effective until set aside by the court on the motion of the defendant. Such motion of the defendant, on his demand, shall have preference over all other causes pending in such court. But if the judgment of the trial court be one of removal from office, the defendant shall be forthwith suspended from office pending any appeal of the case. If so suspended, and the suit finally results in his favor, the defendant shall be entitled to recover all the compensation which would have accrued to him had he not been suspended from office, and in such case judgment shall be rendered against the State that the defendant recover such compensation, determining the amount thereof. On receipt of a duly certified copy of such judgment, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant upon the Treasury for the full amount of such judgment. Whenever the defendant is so suspended, the district judge at the time of making such order of suspension, shall appoint for the duration of such suspension some other qualified person to perform the duties of the officer suspended, and such appointee shall receive the same compensation as his predecessor. The suit shall be a civil action to be tried as other civil cases with the right to appeal and review as in other civil cases. The courts shall have authority to issue all necessary writs to effectuate any judgment of removal or order of suspension rendered hereunder. Such suits shall have precedence over all other cases in trial courts and in appellate tribunals. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 61.]

Art. 6181. [6216] Intent of law.—The various provisions of this title, are designed to secure to the convicts humane treatment, suitable moral instruction, to provide for their health, and to extend to them such comforts and privileges as may be consistent with their situation, and at the same time to require of them a due attention to their various duties and a strict observance of the discipline, rules and regulations of the prison. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6182. [6189] Board may make rules.—The board may at any time issue such orders and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government of the prison system, not inconsistent with the law, as it may deem proper, or to provide such details not embraced herein, and for such contingencies as may at any time arise concerning the management of the prison system, or its proper and effective operation. Such rules and regulations shall be made with a view of carrying out the general principles on which the penal laws are founded, and for which the prison system is established, and shall be binding on all under-officers, employes, and all persons whomsoever in any way connected with the State prisons, or its management, or its prisoners within and without the walls. The Board shall have all laws, rules and regulations of the prison printed in pamphlet form for the information and guidance of all connected with the management of the prison system; and such parts of said rules as relate to the duties of subordinate officers and prisoners shall be printed in suitable form and posted in conspicuous places about the prison, or wherever prisoners may be confined, for the information of all concerned. All officers, employes and guards having supervision of prisoners shall be furnished with a copy of the law, rules and regulations governing the prison system, and shall give a receipt therefor; and the Board shall from time to time require examination of such officers, employes and guards as will ascertain their knowledge of such law, rules and regulations; and any such officer, employe or guard who shall fail to familiarize himself with the law, rules and regulations of the prison system shall be dismissed from the service. [Id.]

Art. 6183. [6201-22] Admission of convicts.—The board shall make proper provisions for the safe and speedy transportation of convicts from the county where convicted to the prison system, at the least expense to the State, by the sheriffs of the respective counties, or by other reliable and competent parties under the direction of the Board. The Board may order that convicts be sent direct to a State farm or to Huntsville. On the arrival of a convict at the prison system, he shall be required to make a brief statement of his life history, showing where he has resided, the names and post-office address of his near relatives, and such other facts as will tend to show his past habits and character. The Board shall verify said statements as far as practicable by correspondence or otherwise, and shall preserve the record and information so obtained. The prison physician shall examine each convict as to his mental and physical condition to determine the character of labor of which he is capable, and to detect and restrict infectious or contagious diseases, and file said report with the Board. Each convict shall be furnished with a copy of the prison rules and such other information and encouragement as will enable him to conform to the rules. Each convict shall be carefully searched, and if money be found on his person or received by him at any time, the Board shall take charge of same, placing it to his credit, and the same may be expended for the convict's benefit on his written order, under such restrictions as prescribed by law or the prison rules. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 50.]

Art. 6184. [6208] Classification of convicts.— Convicts shall have every opportunity and encouragement for moral reform, the Board, in addition to the requirements of this title, shall provide every reasonable and practicable means for the encouragement of such reforms. To this end they shall provide for the classification of all convicts as follows:

1. Young men, first offenders, those appearing to be corrigible, or less vicious than others, and likely to observe the laws and maintain themselves by honest industry after their discharge.

2. Those appearing to be less corrigible, or more vicious, but content to work and reasonably obedient to prison discipline so as not to seriously interfere with the productiveness of their labor, or with the labor or conduct of those with whom they may be employed.

3. Those appearing to be incorrigible or so insubordinate or so vicious in their nature as to seriously interfere with the labor and moral development of those with whom they must come in contact.

The Board shall make rules for the promotion and reduction of the convicts from one class to another, and shall transfer them from one class to another, from time to time, as they may seem to merit promotion or reduction. The convicts in each class shall be kept in or upon different or separate prisons or farms. Any prisoner, upon entering the prison system, shall be assigned to one of its institutions according to his class, as hereinbefore provided, and shall be entered in said institution in a neutral grade which shall be known as grade No. 2, and in which he shall be furnished with a suitable uniform designated for that grade. The Board shall adopt rules for a higher grade which shall be known as grade No. 1, as a reward for obedience to prison discipline and good conduct, and shall provide a suitable uniform for this grade; and they shall provide for a lower grade as a punishment for misconduct and violation of prison discipline, which grade shall be known as No. 3, and in which the prisoner shall be clothed in stripes. The uniforms for grades Nos. 1 and 2 shall not be stripes. The Board shall provide rules for promotion of prisoners from any grade to another for good conduct and obedience to prison discipline, and for demotion of prisoners for misconduct and violation of prison discipline. The Board shall provide specifically for the extension or denial of privileges for the various grades herein provided. White and negro convicts shall not be worked together when it can be avoided, and shall be kept separately when not at work. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6185. [6209-10-11-12] Female convicts.—The board shall provide reasonable rules for the government of female convicts, and shall:

1. Keep them separate and apart from the male convicts, and where practicable, at a separate farm or prison.

2. Separate the white and negro female convicts, and select and place over them matrons who shall give their personal attention to the welfare of such convicts. Such matrons shall reside at the place where the female convicts are kept.

3. Provide such labor for them as they can reasonably perform, as the prison physician shall determine, or in his absence the matron shall pass upon their physical condition.

4. Employ none but married men as guards, and provide houses for such guards and their families.

5. Permit any child born in the penitentiary or infant admitted with its mother, to remain with its mother until three to six years of age, in the discretion of and as prescribed by the Board. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 51.]

Art. 6186. [6203] Instruction and recreation.—The board shall provide at each prison, farm and camp where convicts are kept or worked, schools for instruction of prisoners in elementary branches of the English language and industrial education, and such other instruction as they may prescribe, and shall provide suitable recreation for the convicts at reasonable hours, including music; and they shall employ such number of competent teachers to instruct the convicts as they may deem necessary. The Board shall make reasonable rules and regulations whereby the convicts may attend such schools, and shall prescribe and furnish them suitable books and other reading matter, and may establish and operate among the convicts a circulating library, and may adopt such other means of distributing among the convicts good and wholesome literature as in their judgment will best enable the convicts to avail themselves of the same. All teachers herein provided for shall, as far as practicable, be taken from the convicts, and such teachers may be excused from further labors. The chaplain shall be ex officio librarian of the penitentiary, passing upon all library books, and direct such other work as may be prescribed for such library management. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6187. [6204] Religious services.—The board shall provide for religious services at prisons, farms and camps where convicts are kept or worked. They shall employ such chaplains as may be necessary to afford all convicts an opportunity to attend at least two religious services each month, said chaplains to devote their entire time to religious and moral training and education of the prisoners under their care, teaching them the principles and practice of every Christian and moral duty; provided, that chaplains may also be teachers as provided for in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6188. [6205-19] Food and clothing.—Suitable clothing of substantial material, uniform make and reasonable fit, and such footwear as will be substantial and comfortable, shall be furnished the convicts; and no convict shall be allowed to wear other clothing than that furnished by the prison authorities, except in case of extra meritorious conduct only, the Board may allow the convict to wear citizen underwear. Sufficient food of wholesome quality and variety and wholesomely prepared shall be furnished to all convicts, and such provisions shall be made for serving the food to convicts as will tend to encourage and elevate them. Every officer charged with the preparation and serving of food to the convicts shall post in the dining room each Monday morning for the coming week the bill of food for that week, and the rules promulgated by the Board shall prescribe the quality, kind and variety of food to be furnished. Convicts shall not be allowed spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, except upon the prescription of the physician. The Board shall provide for training convicts as cooks. [Id.]

Art. 6189. [6221] Physical condition.—Convicts who have been reported by the physician or other officer in charge as in a condition of health which requires their removal to some other place shall be accordingly removed. [Id.]

Art. 6190. [6225-6] Medical and dental attention.—The Board shall provide for competent medical attention for all convicts, and shall establish rules whereby all physicians shall be required to keep a record of all cases of sickness, accident or injury which they treat. The physicians so employed shall be reputable practicing physicians of not less than two years experience in practice. Each physician employed in the prison system shall, at the end of each month, file with the Board a written sworn report stating the name, race and sex of each convict treated or examined by him during said month, the malady or disease with which each was afflicted, and, if any shall be suffering with wounds or injuries inflicted by accident or some individual, he shall state the nature and extent of said injuries, by whom and by what means inflicted, or how the same occurred, and all such other information concerning said matters and the condition of each convict treated or examined by him during said months, as he may possess. The Board shall also provide a competent dentist or dentists, whose duty it shall be to care for the teeth of the convicts. Such dentist or dentists shall, at the direction of the Board, visit the various places where convicts are kept or worked, at such intervals as may be prescribed. [Id.]

Art. 6191. [6206] Monthly reports to Board.—The board shall require, at the end of each month, reports showing fully the condition and treatment of the prisoners, and the changes in prison population during the month, including itemized statements of all different items of food, clothing and utensils used and on hand in each of the units of the prison system, and such other matters as they may require. [Id.]

Art. 6192. [6223] Death record.—The board shall make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and proper regarding reports of death of convicts to relatives and friends, and with respect to the delivery of the bodies to relatives and friends. The Board shall cause to be kept a record of the deaths of the convicts and the disposition of the bodies. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 52.]

Art. 6193. [6214-15-20.] Conditions of labor.—Convicts shall be kept at work under such rules as the Board may fix. No greater amount of labor shall be required of any convict than his physical health and strength will reasonably permit, nor shall any convict be placed at such labor as the prison physician may pronounce him unable to perform. No convict upon his admission to prison shall be assigned to any labor until having first been examined by the prison physician. No prisoner shall be required to work more than nine hours per day, except that the Board shall be authorized to work the prisoners on the farms of the prison system in accordance with the following plan:

During the months of December, January, and February, nine hours; during March, April, July, August and November, ten hours; during May, June, September and October, eleven hours.

The Board is further authorized to work convicts on the farms such time in addition to that stipulated above, as may be agreed on by convicts who are desirous of shortening their terms.

No convict shall be worked on Sundays except in cases of emergency or extreme necessity; provided the Board shall be authorized to work convicts on Sunday at labor that is necessary to be performed, such as cooks, waiters, lot men, and men attending to stock, and men engaged in the necessary operation of machinery.

In addition to the commutation for good behavior allowed by law, convicts shall be allowed the following deductions from their sentences: for each hour worked in excess of nine hours a day, an equal amount of time; for each nine hours of over time, one day; and for each Sunday or each hour on Sunday, two days for one day or two hours for one hour; provided, the Board may forfeit such deductions in whole or in part for misconduct or violation of the prison rules. The hours of labor shall be computed from the time of arriving at the place of work, where the distance is not greater than one mile and a half from the prison building, till the time for stopping work, exclusive of the intermission allowed for dinner, which shall not be less than one hour.

Life term convicts who are worked over or extra time, who by reason of the nature of the sentence can not earn commutation, shall have entered and shown on their records as a credit the amount of over time worked, which shall be counted as time served on their sentences in addition to the actual time served, on the same rate as convicts serving a term of years, which shall be reckoned in the consideration of their cases when applying for pardon or parole.

Any officer or employe violating any provision of this article shall be dismissed from the service. [Id.]

Art. 6194. [6217] Commutation and parole.—In order to encourage prison discipline, a distinction may be made in the treatment of convicts so as to extend to all such as are orderly, industrious and obedient, comforts and privileges according to their deserts. The rewards to be bestowed for good conduct shall consist of such relaxation of strict prison rules and extension of social privileges as may not be inconsistent with proper discipline. Commutation of time for good conduct shall be granted by the Board, and the following deductions shall be made from the term or terms of sentences when no charge of misconduct has been sustained against a convict, viz: two days per month off the first year of sentence; three days per month off the second year of sentence; four days per month off the third year of sentence; five days per month off the fourth year of sentence; six days per month off the fifth year of sentence; seven days per month off the sixth year of sentence; eight days per month off the seventh year of sentence; nine days per month off the eighth year of sentence; ten days per month off the ninth year of sentence; fifteen days per month off the tenth year and all succeeding years of sentence. A convict under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence. For each sustained charge of misconduct in violation of any rule known to the convict, in any year of the term, the commutation allowed for one month of such year may be forfeited; for any sustained charge of escape, or attempt to escape, mutinous conduct, or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of the convict up to that day shall be forfeited, unless in case of escape the convict voluntarily returns without expense to the State, such forfeiture may be set aside by the Board. For extra meritorious conduct on the part of any convict, he shall be recommended to the favorable consideration of the Governor for increased commutation or pardon; and, if any convict has escaped and been captured, part or all of his good time thereby forfeited may be restored by the Board, if in their judgment his subsequent conduct entitles him thereto. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6195. [6218] Commutation of life sentence.—Life or long term convicts who have actually served fifteen years and have no sustained charges of misconduct, and have a good prison record, and who shall be favorably recommended to the Governor, may receive at the hands of the Governor a reasonable commutation of sentence; and, if a life sentence is commuted to a term of years, then such convict shall have the benefit of the ordinary commutation, as if originally sentenced for a term of years, except as the Governor shall otherwise direct. [Id.]

Art. 6196. [6227] Discharge of convicts.—When a convict is discharged, he shall be furnished with a written or printed discharge from the Board, signed by the chairman with the seal of the Board affixed, giving his name, date of sentence, from what county sentenced, the amount of commutation received, the trade he has learned, his proficiency in same, and such other description as may be practicable. He shall be furnished with a suit of clothing of good quality and fit, two suits of underwear, one pair of shoes and a hat, one shirt, $5.00 in money in addition to any money which he may have to his credit with the Board, and redeemable and non-transferable railroad transportation to the place from which he was sentenced or to such place as he may desire, provided, that the same be not a greater distance from the place where he is released than the place from which he was sentenced. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 50.]

Art. 6197. [6207] Prison register.—The board shall keep a register of all convicts, showing the number of each, giving the aliases, name, age, height, color of hair, color of eyes, complexion, marks on person, sex, nativity, residence, county where convicted, offense of which convicted, date of sentence, date of receipt, previous occupation and habits, if known, and may adopt such other means of identification as they may deem proper and necessary. They shall keep a record of the general conditions and conduct of each convict, noting all punishments, forfeitures, bad conduct, changes and incidents of importance that may occur during his confinement; and, to the end that complete records may be kept, they may require from all under-officers such monthly and other reports as they may deem proper. They shall issue discharges to such convicts as are entitled thereto by expiration of sentence or otherwise. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 143.]

Art. 6198. [6229] Reward for escaped convict.—The board, with the Governor's approval, may offer such reward for the apprehension of an escaped convict as may be fixed by the Board, to be paid as directed by it. [Id.]

Art. 6199. [6230] Gambling forbidden.—No gambling shall be permitted at any prison, farm or camp where convicts are kept or worked. Any officer or employe engaging in or knowingly permitting gambling at any such prison, farm or camp shall be immediately dismissed from the service. [Id.]

Art. 6200. [6231] Employed on public works.—The board, by and with the consent of the Governor, shall have the power to work convicts on public works, when they can not employ them on the State farms or within the walls by reason of some unforeseen calamity, such as failure of crops, or the destruction of crops by wind or flood. When convicts are worked on public works owned by the State, or a subdivision of the State, the humane provisions of this title shall be strictly complied with. Convict labor may be utilized in construction or maintenance work on any road designated by the State Highway Department as forming a part of the system of State highways, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by said Department and the Board and approved by the Governor. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 421.]

Art. 6201. [6228] Visitors admitted.—The Governor and all other members of the executive and judicial departments of the State, and members of the legislature, shall be admitted into the prisons, camps and other places where prisoners are kept or worked, at all proper hours, for the purpose of observing the conduct thereof, and may hold conversation with the convicts, apart from all prison officers. Other persons may visit the penitentiary under such rules and regulations as may be established. [Id.]

Art. 6202. Supervising board.—The Penitentiary Supervisory Board shall consist of three persons, citizens of this State over thirty years of age, one of whom shall be a woman. The Governor shall biennially appoint one such member with the advice of the Senate, to serve for a term of six years, the classification to remain as constituted by law. The Supervisory Board shall meet once every three months at a place to be selected by the chairman, and shall visit the main penitentiary and the State prison farms at least once every three months. It shall not be necessary for all of the members to pay such visit, but a visit by any member shall be sufficient. On such visit to the penitentiary system, they shall make an investigation of the treatment of the convicts in said prison with reference to the character of punishment inflicted, food, clothing, sanitation, health, spiritual and educational training, segregation and classification, and such other matters concerning the general welfare of the convicts as they deem necessary. They shall make a quarterly report to the Governor and the Prison Board as to conditions as they find them in the penitentiary system, together with their recommendations, and they shall report all prison officials or employes who are found to be derelict in their duty, or who have acted in the handling of said prisoners in violation of law. Such reports shall be furnished to each session of the legislature, and they may be printed through such media as the Supervisory Board may see fit. They shall have access to the main penitentiary or any farm or camp at any time and shall not be required to give any notice of any proposed visit, and shall be admitted upon their request, and shall have the right to inspect any part of the system. They shall have power to administer oaths and take testimony of prison officials, employes, and convicts and such other persons as they deem necessary. They shall have the right to engage the services of a stenographer at the expense of the State to take such testimony, and to make out reports. The members of the Penitentiary Supervisory Board shall each receive five dollars per day and necessary traveling expenses while actually engaged in the performance of their duties hereunder. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 228.]

Art. 6203. [6086-7-8] Board of Pardons.—The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint two qualified voters of this State, to be known as the Board of Pardon Advisors, who shall perform such duties as he may direct, consistent with the Constitution, as he may deem necessary in disposing of all applications for pardon. Said Board shall be given a room in the Capitol, properly furnished with necessary furniture and file cases, and provided with such stationery and other appliances which may be necessary for the speedy and proper dispatch of the business for which it is organized. Said Board shall make a thorough examination of each application which the Governor may refer to it, and report its recommendation thereon to him. It shall spend such time each year as may be necessary in personally looking into the condition of such convicts as it may desire, or as may be designated by either the Governor, the superintendent of penitentiaries, or either of his assistants, or by the prison physician, or by the prison commissioners, giving special attention to the cases of those of long service who may be so designated and who have no means for getting a proper petition before the Governor, to the end that the Board may have before it such data as will enable it to judge the condition of such convicts. All cases shall be taken up, considered and acted upon by said Board in the regular order of reference by the Governor, except when it appears to said Board there is extraordinary emergency in any case. Said Board shall be required to keep a record in which shall be entered every case sent it by the Governor, giving the docket number of the convict, his name, when and where convicted, his sentence, his offense, when received from the Governor, the action taken by said Board, and the date of said action. [Acts 1905, p. 68; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 25.]

Art. 6204. [6267] Tax.—There shall be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time that other taxes are levied and collected for the year 1925, and annually thereafter, an ad valorem tax of seven cents on the one hundred dollars valuation thereof on all property owned in the State on the first day of January of the year 1925, and of every year thereafter and on all property sent out of the State prior to the first day of January of any of said years, for the purpose of evading the payment of taxes thereon, and afterwards returned to the State, except so much thereof as may be exempted by the Constitution and laws of this State or of the United States which valuation shall be made in the manner prescribed by law for the assessment, levy and collection of other State and county taxes, which said tax so levied and collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the State of Texas, in the same manner as other State taxes, and shall constitute a special fund for the payment of pensions provided for in Section 51 of Article 3 of the State Constitution, in the manner and under the rules and regulations prescribed herein and prescribed in existing law not repealed hereby and as may be hereafter prescribed by law. Which said fund is hereby expressly appropriated by the Legislature of the State of Texas for the purpose herein stated. This Act shall not affect or release the liability of any person for taxes, penalties, interest or costs accruing under prior laws or the right to collect or enforce collection thereof by suit or otherwise. [Acts 1925, p. 222.]

Art. 6205. [6267a] To whom granted.—Out of the fund to be created under the provisions of Article 6267 as amended there shall be paid an annual pension of twenty-five dollars per month, the same to be paid quarterly on the first day of September, December, March, and June of each year to every indigent or disabled Confederate soldier or sailor who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1910, and to their widows, in indigent circumstances and who have been bona fide residents of this State since January 1, 1910, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors prior to January 1, 1910, and to indigent and disabled soldiers who under the Special Laws of the State of Texas during the war between the states served in organizations for the protection of the frontier against Indian raiders or Mexican marauders and to indigent or disabled soldiers of the militia of the State of Texas who were in active service during the war between the states and to the widows of such soldiers who are in indigent circumstances and who were married to such soldiers prior to January 1, 1910, provided that the word "widow" as used in this article shall not apply to women born since the year 1861, and all soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors eligible under the above conditions shall be entitled to be placed upon the pension rolls and participate in the distribution of the pension fund of this State under any existing law or laws hereafter passed by the Legislature; and the fact of remarriage since the death of the soldier or sailor shall not bar his surviving widow from receiving a pension hereunder if she be now a widow and in indigent circumstances, if she shall have been the wife of such soldier or sailor at the time of his death and left by him as his widow; and provided that in the event such fund provided for in Article 6204 shall prove insufficient to pay in full said pension there shall not thereby be created a deficiency outstanding as a valid claim against the State of Texas, and each pensioner shall receive, except as herein or in other law or laws otherwise provided for, his or her pro rata according to the amount of such fund collected for the year. [Id. p. 222.]

Article 6206 and 6207 embraced in previous articles.

Art. 6208. [6268] Application requirements.—Persons entitled to a pension under this title shall make application for same in writing and under oath to the county judge of his or her county. Such application shall state the name, age, residence of the applicant, and occupation, if any, his or her physical condition, and every fact necessary to entitle the applicant to the pension. If the applicant is such a soldier or sailor as is prescribed herein, he shall state in his application the company and regiment in which he was enlisted; if he served in an organization for the protection of the frontier against Indian raids or Mexican marauders, he shall name and identify such organization; if he were an officer commissioned by the President of the Confederate States or by the Governor, or other proper authority of this State, in the army, navy, militia or frontier organization, he shall state the date of his commission and his rank therein; and if detailed directly under the provisions of the conscript law for duty in the armories or shops of the Confederate Government or for any other labor necessary for the maintenance of the army in the field, or if he served in the Confederate Navy, he shall state the time of service in each case. Each applicant shall state in his application what property and income he possesses, and furnish the testimony of at least two credible witnesses who personally know that he enlisted in the service and performed the duties as claimed by him. If he cannot secure the testimony of two witnesses, he may furnish documents or other evidence of his service. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, p. 413.]

Art. 6209. [6268] Proof, how made.—Proof shall be made under oath and in writing before the county judge of the county where the applicant resides. Should the applicant or witnesses, because of circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, be unable to appear before the county judge, then such proof may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths. When the proof is made before any other officer, the county judge shall certify that the applicant and witnesses are of trustworthy character and entitled to credit and that the officer before whom the proof is made is duly qualified and authorized by law to administer oaths and take affidavits; he shall also certify to the citizenship of the applicant, and that the applicant has been a bona fide resident of the county for a period of six months next before the date of said application. The officer taking the proof shall administer the oath to each applicant and witness before they sign the affidavit. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6210. [6268] Out of county.—If it is necessary for the applicant to go outside of the county and State for proof to establish his application, such proof may be submitted in the form of affidavits and accompanied by certificates from the county judge of the county where made, that the witnesses are of trustworthy character and entitled to credit. [Id.]

Art. 6211. [6268-69] Widow's application.—No widow shall be entitled to a pension should her husband, if living, be for any reason debarred. If the applicant is the widow of a soldier or sailor, who, if living would be entitled to a pension, she shall make oath that she is in fact the widow of such soldier or sailor and, as near as possible, state the facts showing her to be entitled to receive a pension under the provisions of this title in the same manner as required of a soldier or sailor. In case such widow cannot make such proof, she may comply with the provisions of the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 6212. [6270] Proof by affidavit.—The widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, entitled to a pension may make affidavit to the county judge:

1. That she is in fact the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor.

2. That her said husband rendered valuable service to the Confederacy, as such, that he did not desert, and was either killed or died, or was honorably discharged from the army.

3. That she has made diligent search for information as to the number of regiment and company in which her deceased husband served, and has been unable to secure the same.

The affidavit shall be filed with the county clerk, and the county judge may take such other evidence as he may deem necessary; and, if in his judgment he finds that she is the widow of a Confederate soldier or sailor, that all witnesses to the said fact are dead, or their whereabouts unknown to said widow and are unascertainable, he may upon his own motion, recommend to the Comptroller the grant of a pension to such widow; and, if he is satisfied that she is entitled to a pension under the provisions of this title he may grant it. [Id.]

Art. 6213. [6271] Soldier must have served honorably.—Every Confederate soldier applying for a pension under this title shall have served honorably from the date of his enlistment until the close of the war, or until he was discharged or paroled in some military organization regularly mustered into the army or navy of the Confederate States until the surrender. The county judge shall reduce the evidence of witnesses examined by him to writing at the expense of the applicant at the rate of five cents per hundred words. The applicant may have such evidence written by his attorney, or such person as may be employed to secure the pension; and the county judge shall certify to the written statement of the evidence when taken before him. The application, affidavit and certified statement of the evidence shall be forwarded to the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 6214. [6272] What constitutes indigency.—To constitute indigency within the meaning of this title, neither the applicant, nor his wife if married, nor both together, nor the widow, if the applicant be a widow, shall own property, real or personal, exceeding in value one thousand dollars, exclusive of homestead, and if its assessed value be not in excess of two thousand dollars, and exclusive of household goods and wearing apparel; and such applicant shall not have an income, annuity, or emoluments of office or wages for services in excess of three hundred dollars per year, nor in receipt of aid or of a pension from any State of the United States or from any other public source, nor an inmate of the Confederate Home or other public institution at the expense of the State. Only the indigent under the foregoing definition, shall be entitled to a pension under this title. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, p. 412; Acts 1923, p. 202.]

Art. 6215. [6273] Payments; affidavit; warrant. — The payment of such pension shall begin on the first day of March and September of each year, payable at the end of each quarter and on and after the first of each quarter. The pensioner shall make affidavit, or, in case of old age, infirmities, or physical disabilities, preventing him or her from appearing before some one authorized to administer oaths, make statement in writing as to his or her claim or rights, in the presence of two credible witnesses who are in no wise related to the applicant, stating the county of his or her residence, postoffice address, and that he or she is the identical person to whom a pension has been granted under this law, and that the conditions which existed at the time of making his or her application and on which the pension was originally granted, still exist, which affidavit shall be supported by the affidavit of some other credible person to the same fact, and shall be filed with the Comptroller who shall draw his warrant to the amount of such pension on the Treasurer, to be paid out of money in the Treasury appropriated to this purpose. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1915, p. 158.]

Art. 6216. Proof in case of disability.—If the pensioner, on account of old age, infirmity, or physical disability, shall make a statement in writing in the presence of two credible witnesses, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be sufficient for one of such witnesses, in whose presence the statement was made, to make affidavit stating that said statement was made and signed in his or her presence and that the statements contained therein are within the knowledge of affiant, true and correct, and when such affidavit has been made by such proven person and approved by the Comptroller, he shall draw his warrant for the amount of such pension in the same manner as if the oath had been made by the pensioner. [Id.]

Art. 6217. [6274] Pensions denied to whom.—No application shall be allowed, nor shall any aid be given or pension paid, to any soldier or sailor, or the widow of any soldier or sailor under the provisions of this title, where any such soldier or sailor deserted his command or voluntarily abandoned his post of duty, or the said service during the said war, nor shall any application be allowed, nor any aid given, nor any pension paid, to any widow of a soldier or sailor who has been divorced from such soldier or sailor, nor to any widow who voluntarily without cause abandoned such soldier or sailor, being her husband, and continued to live separately from him up to the time of his death, nor to a soldier or sailor who served as a substitute for another, nor to the widow of a substitute. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6218. [6276] Fees limited.—No person shall receive a greater fee than five dollars to secure a pension for another, and any contract for a larger sum shall be unlawful. [Id.]

Art. 6219. [6277] Fees of county judge.—A county judge shall be allowed a fee of two dollars for hearing an application and taking proof therein, said fee to be paid by the applicant, and before hearing of application is had thereon; and all fees received by such county judge shall be reported as other fees of office and be otherwise controlled by the law regulating the fee of county judges. Said fee of two dollars shall be the only fee allowed to the county judge for all the work performed by him in securing a pension. [Id.]

Art. 6220. [6278] Persons not entitled to.—No person shall, while confined in any asylum of this State, at the expense of the State, or while confined in the State penitentiary, receive a pension, and any person having been granted a pension who shall afterwards be confined in an asylum of this State, at the expense of the State, or who shall be confined in the State penitentiary shall, while an inmate of such asylum or penitentiary, forfeit his pension, and no pensioner who leaves this State for a period of over six months shall draw a pension while so absent; provided, that any person who has been granted a pension under this law, and who is thereafter admitted as an inmate of the Confederate Home or is thereafter admitted as an inmate of the Confederate Womans' Home of this State, shall thereafter be entitled to receive pension payments of the amount of one-half of the pension that such person would be entitled to receive if not an inmate of such Home, [Acts 1921, p. 144.]

Art. 6221. [6279] Appropriation, how allotted.—On the first day of September and on the first day of March of each year, the Comptroller shall first allot to each blind, maimed, and totally disabled soldier or sailor or the blind and totally disabled widow of a soldier or sailor the sum of eight and one-third dollars per month for each year, and the remainder of said appropriation shall be equally prorated among the pensioners who are in indigent circumstances only, and whose claim to pensions have been established and filed; and the Comptroller shall issue his warrants for the amounts due said pensioners in the manner provided by law at the end of each quarter. All such pensions shall begin on the first day of the quarter next succeeding the filing and establishment of such application. After the apportionment is made, the Comptroller may fill any vacancies created by death or other causes, at any time between the first day of March and the first day of September each year. [Acts 1909, p. 231; Acts 1913, p. 282; Acts 1917, pp. 387-411.]

Art. 6222. [6280] Perpetuation of evidence.—Any Confederate veteran, soldier, or sailor, who may be entitled to a pension under the pension laws of Texas, who may be desirous of establishing such right by the evidence of any person who may be cognizant of such facts as would prove and establish such right, may cause such person to go before the county judge, or any notary public of the county of his residence of such person, and make affidavit to such fact. [Acts 1909 p. 215.]

Art. 6223. [6281] Statement filed.—Such affidavit shall be filed with the Secretary of State, and by him recorded in a book to be kept for such purpose, a properly certified copy of which shall be admitted and used in evidence at any future time, to prove and establish the right of the soldier or sailor in whose behalf, or at whose instance, the same may have been made to such pensioner as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6224. [6282] Widow may establish identity.—The widow of any soldier or sailor who may be entitled to a pension as such, under the laws of this State, shall be entitled to establish her identity and right to such pension in the same way and manner as herein provided for soldiers and sailors. [Id.]

Art. 6225. [6283] Examination of record.—The Comptroller shall examine and pass on all pension claims, keep a correct record of all approved claims, with the name, disability, service, residence and amount paid, and furnish the county judge with suitable blanks for use of claimants. He shall make a written report to the Governor on the first day of September of each year, showing the number of pensioners, the number of claims allowed for the past year, and the amounts paid, together with such other information as the Governor may ask. All records, books, claims or other matters pertaining to pensions shall be kept open to inspection and under the charge and direction of the Governor, and all rulings made by the Comptroller shall be subject to revision and change by the Governor. [Acts 1909, p. 231.]

Art. 6226. [6284] Shall strike from roll.—When it comes to the knowledge of the Comptroller that any person has been granted a pension through fraud or perjury, or that any one on the pension roll has acquired property or annuity, emolument or favor of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased pensioner had such conditions existed at the date of said application, he shall strike the name of such person from the pension roll. [Id.]

Art. 6227. Mortuary warrant.—Whenever any pensioner who has been regularly placed upon the pension rolls under the provisions of law relating thereto, shall die and proof thereof shall be made to the Comptroller within forty days from the date of such death, by the affidavit of the doctor who attended the pensioner during the last illness, or the undertaker who conducted the funeral, or made arrangements therefor, the Comptroller shall issue a mortuary warrant for an amount not exceeding sixty-five dollars, payable out of the pension fund, in favor of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased pensioner, or in favor of the person or persons owning the accounts (proof of the existence and justice of such accounts to be made to said Comptroller under oath and in such form as he may require) for the purpose of paying the funeral expenses of the deceased pensioner. In such cases where a warrant for the pension for the quarter during which the pensioner died has been issued, the same shall be returned to the Comptroller, who shall mark the same "canceled" and file it before the mortuary warrant herein provided for shall issue. Where such warrant for the pension has not been issued, the same shall not be issued, but the mortuary warrant herein provided for shall take the place thereof. [Acts 1923, p. 26.]

Art. 6228. Mothers' pension.—Any widow who has been a bona fide resident of this State for five years, and who is the mother of a child or children under the age of sixteen years, and who is unable to support them and to maintain her home, may present a sworn petition for assistance to the commissioners court of the county wherein she has resided for the preceding two years. Such petition shall show:

1. Her name, the date of the death of her husband, the names of her children, their sex, the dates and places of their birth and the time and place of her marriage.

2. Her residence and the length of time that she has been a resident of this State, the length of time she has lived at said residence and the address of her place of abode for the previous five years, and the date as near as possible, when she moved in and when she left said place of residence.

3. All the property belonging to her and to each of her children, including any future or contingent interest which she or any of them may have.

4. The efforts made by her to support her children.

5. The name, relationship and addresses of all her husband's relatives that may be known.

A copy of said petition and a notice of the time and place it will be presented to said court must be served on or mailed to the county judge of said county at least five days before the time the court shall be requested in said petition to meet and consider the same. When service is complete, said court shall examine under oath all who desire to be heard, and may, in its discretion, issue subpoenas for witnesses; or the court may refer said matter to a commissioner to be appointed by it to hear said witnesses. Said commissioner shall make a report to the court setting forth the facts as proven before him. If the court concludes that unless relief is granted the mother will be unable to properly support and educate her children and that they may become a public charge, it may make an order directing a payment to her, monthly, out of the county funds for the support of said children, twelve dollars for one such child; eighteen dollars for two children; and four dollars additional for each other child. Said allowance shall be discontinued as to any said child who reaches the age of sixteen. Said court shall have the right to refuse any application for allowance under this article, and its action in so doing shall be final. Said court shall see that any widow receiving any such allowance is properly caring for her children, and that they are sufficiently clothed and fed. When it is found that she is not properly caring for her children or that she is an improper guardian for such children, or when the court shall find that she no longer needs such relief, it shall thereupon revoke at any time with or without notice, any order made pursuant to this article. [Acts 1917, p. 313.]

Art. 6229. Board of trustees.—In all incorporated cities and towns having a population of over ten thousand according to the preceding Federal census, having a fully or partially paid fire department or police department, the mayor, two aldermen or commissioners, two citizens of said city or town to be designated by the mayor, the chief of police, the chief of the fire department and their successors, shall constitute a board of trustees of the Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operator's Pension Fund, to provide for the disbursement of the same and to designate the beneficiaries thereof. The board shall be known as the Board of Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operator's Pension Fund,

Trustees of _____, Texas. The board shall hold its office until the next general election in such city for municipal officers. Said board shall organize by choosing one member as chairman and by appointing a secretary. Such board shall have charge of and administer said fund and shall order payments therefrom in pursuance of the provisions of this law. It shall report annually to the governing body of such city or town the condition of the said fund and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same with a complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund and the amounts paid them. [Acts 1919, p. 10.]

Art. 6230. Membership in.—Each fully paid fireman, policeman and fire alarm operator and other persons herein designated as members of either of said departments, in the employment of such city or town, who desires himself or his beneficiaries, to participate in said fund, shall file a written statement with the city clerk of his desire to participate in said fund, and authorize said city or town to deduct one per cent of his wages each month to form a part of the fund known as the Firemen, Policemen and Fire Alarm Operators' Pension Fund. [Id.]

Art. 6231. Payments to fund.—There shall be deducted for such fund from the wages of each fireman, policeman and fire alarm operator, and other persons herein designated as members of either of said departments, one per cent of the wages earned by such employes when they have filed application therefor. Any donations made to such fund and rewards received by any member of either of said departments, and all funds received from any source for such fund shall be deposited in like manner to the credit of such fund. [Id.]

Art. 6232. Conduct of meetings.—The board shall hold regular monthly meetings and other meetings upon call of its chairman. It shall issue orders signed by the president or chairman and secretary to the persons entitled thereto, of the amount of money ordered paid to such persons from such fund by said board which order shall state for what purpose such payment is to be made; it shall keep a record of its proceedings, which record shall be a public record; it shall at each monthly meeting send to the city treasurer a written list of persons entitled to payment from the fund, stating the amount of such payment, and for what granted, which list shall be certified to and signed by the president or chairman and secretary of such board, attested under oath. The treasurer shall enter a copy of said list upon the book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be known as the Record Fireman, Policeman and Firm Alarm Operator's Pension Fund Board of _____, Texas, and the said board shall direct payment of the amounts named therein to the persons entitled thereto out of said fund. No money of said fund shall be disbursed for any purpose without a vote of a majority of the board, which shall be a no and yes vote entered upon the proceedings of the board. [Id.]

Art. 6233. Custody of fund.—The treasurer of said city or town shall be ex-officio treasurer of said fund. All money for said fund shall be paid over to and received by the treasurer for the use of said fund, and the duties thus imposed upon such treasurer shall be additional duties for which he shall be liable under his oath and bond as such city or town treasurer, but he shall receive no compensation therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6234. Who may share in fund.—Any person who at the establishment of said fund, or thereafter shall have been duly appointed and enrolled in the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any such city or town, to which application is made for participation in said fund by such person and who has filed his written application within thirty days after the organization of such board, or who shall file his application within thirty days after becoming a member of either of such departments and who shall have allowed said deductions from his salary, as well as the beneficiaries hereinafter named, shall be entitled to participate in said fund. [Id.]

Art. 6235. Retirement pensions.—Whenever any member of said departments who shall have contributed a portion of his salary, as provided herein, shall have served twenty years or more in either of said departments, he may be entitled to be retired from said service upon application, and shall, if the board approves, be entitled to be paid from such funds a monthly pension of one-half of the salary received by him at the time of his retirement. [Id.]

Art. 6236. Disability pensions.—Whenever any member of the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any such city or town, and who is a contributor to said fund as provided, shall become so permanently disabled through injury received, or disease contracted, in the line of duty, as to incapacitate him for the performance of duty, or shall for any cause, through no fault of his own, become so permanently disabled as to incapacitate him for the performance of duty, and shall make written application therefor approved by a majority of the board, he shall be retired from service and be entitled to receive from said fund one-half of the monthly wages received by him as a member of either of said departments, at the time he became so disabled, to be paid in regular monthly installments. [Id.]

Art. 6237. Death benefits, widow, etc.—In case of the death before or after retirement of any member of the fire department, police department or fire alarm operator's department of any city or town, resulting from disease contracted, or injury received while in the line of duty, or from any other cause through no fault of his own, and who at the time of his death or retirement was a contributor to said fund, leaving a widow or child or children under sixteen years of age, the widow shall be entitled to receive from said fund an amount not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly wages received by such member immediately preceding his death, and the children of said deceased under sixteen years of age shall receive in the aggregate one-fourth of such monthly wages to be equally divided between them. When any child shall reach sixteen years of age, then such child shall no longer participate in the division of said wages of said deceased, but the same shall be paid to his remaining children, if any, under sixteen years of age, in equal parts, until they respectively become sixteen years of age. In no case shall the amount paid to any one family exceed the amount of one-half the wages earned by the deceased immediately prior to the time of his death. Upon the re-marriage of any widow or the marriage of any child granted such pension, such pension shall cease. No widow or child of any such member resulting from any marriage contract subsequent to the date of retirement of said member, shall be entitled to a pension under this law. [Id.]

Art. 6238. Death benefits, father, etc.—If any member of the fire department, police department, or fire alarm operator's department dies from injuries received or disease contracted while in the line of duty, or from any cause through no fault of his own, who was a contributor to said fund and entitled to participate in said fund himself, leaves no wife or child, but who shall leave surviving him a dependent father, mother, brother or sister, wholly dependent upon said person for support, such dependent father, mother, sister and brother shall be entitled to receive in the aggregate one-half of the wages earned by said deceased immediately prior to his death, to be equally divided between those who are wholly dependent on said deceased, so long as they are wholly dependent. The board shall have authority to determine the facts as to the dependency of said parties and each of them, and as to how long the same exists, and may at any time upon the request of any contributor to such fund, reopen any award made to any of said parties and discontinue such pension as to all or any of them as it may deem proper, and the findings of said board in regard to such matter and as to all pensions granted under this law shall be final upon all parties seeking a pension as a dependent of said deceased, or otherwise, until such award of the trustees shall have been set aside or revoked. [Id.]

Art. 6239. Investigations.—The board shall consider all cases for the retirement and pension of the members of the fire, police and fire alarm operator's department rendered necessary or expedient under the provisions of this law, and all applications for pensions by widows and children and of dependent relatives, and the said trustees shall give written notice to persons asking a pension to appear before said board and offer such sworn evidence as he or they may desire. Any person who is a member of either of said departments and who is a contributor to said fund may appear either in person or by attorney and contest the application for participation in said fund by any person claiming to be entitled to participate therein, and may offer testimony in support of such contest. The president or chairman of said board shall have authority to issue process for witnesses and administer oaths to said witnesses and to examine any witness as to any matter affecting retirement or a pension under the provisions of this law. Such process for witness shall be served by any member of the police, fire and fire alarm operator's department and upon the failure of any witness to attend and testify, he or she may be compelled to attend and testify, as in any judicial proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 6240. Medical examination.—Said board may cause any person receiving any pension under the provisions of this law, who has served less than twenty years, to appear and undergo a medical examination, as a result of which the board shall determine whether the relief in said case shall be continued, increased, decreased or discontinued. If any person receiving relief under the provisions of this law, after due notice, fails to appear and undergo such examination, the board may reduce or entirely discontinue such relief. [Id.]

Art. 6241. Who are members.—All fire, police and fire alarm operators and superintendents in the employ of any such city or town, who have filed their application for participation in said fund, and have contributed a portion of their salary, as provided for other members of such departments, are hereby declared to be members of the fire, police, and fire alarm operator's department of such city or town, and they and their beneficiaries shall have the same rights and privileges as are herein granted to other members of such departments of such cities. [Id.]

Art. 6242. Use of public funds.—No funds shall be paid out of the public treasury of any such incorporated city or town, in carrying out any of the provisions of this law, except on a majority vote of the voters of such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 6243. Awards exempt.—No amount awarded to any person under the provisions of this law shall be liable for the debts of any such person; shall not be assignable and shall be exempt from garnishment or other legal process. [Id.]

Art. 6244. [6329] [3811] May require suit brought.—Any person bound as surety upon any contract for the payment of money or the performance of any act, when the right of action has accrued, may require by written notice, the creditor or obligee forthwith to institute suit upon such contract. [Acts 1858, p. 112; P. D. 4783; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 984.]

Art. 6245. [6330] [3812] Discharged by failure to sue.—If the creditor or obligee, not being under legal disability, shall fail to bring his suit to the first term of the court thereafter, or to the second term showing good cause for the delay and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety giving such notice shall be discharged from all liability thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6246. [6331] [3813] May have question of suretyship tried.—When any suit is brought against two or more defendants upon any contract, any one or more of the defendants being surety for the other, the surety may cause the question of suretyship to be tried and determined upon the issue made for the parties defendant at the trial of the cause, or at any time before or after the trial or at a subsequent term. Such proceedings shall not delay the suit of the plaintiff. [Id.]

Art. 6247. [6332] [3814] Levy first on property of principal.—If the finding of such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff before he levies on the property of the surety to first levy the execution upon the property of the principal situate in the county in which the judgment was rendered, if so much property of the principal can be found as will in the opinion of the sheriff be sufficient to make the amount of the execution; otherwise the levy shall be made on so much property of the principal as may be found, if any, and upon so much of the property of the surety as may be necessary to make the amount of the execution; and the clerk shall make a memorandum of such order on the execution. [Id.]

Art. 6248. [6333] [3815] Rights of surety.—When any person, being surety in any undertaking whatever, shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, the said judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of such surety, and shall be considered as assigned to such surety, together with all the rights of the creditor thereunder to the extent of such payment with the interest thereon; and such surety shall be entitled to have execution thereon in the name of the creditor for the use of such surety against the principal debtor for the full amount of such payment, interest and costs, which execution shall be issued upon the application of such surety to the clerk, or court, as the case may be, and shall be levied, collected and returned as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6249. [6334] [3816] Execution against a co-surety.—If there be more than one surety and one or more of them has failed to pay his proportionate part of the judgment, execution may issue, as provided in the preceding article, against the principal for the use of the surety who has paid more than his proportionate part for the whole amount paid by him and interest thereon, and also against his co-sureties, for their proportionate part of the excess so paid by him and interest thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6250. [6335] [3817] Officer has same rights as surety.—If an officer shall be compelled to pay any judgment, or any part thereof, by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over any money collected, or for wasting property levied on, such officer shall be entitled to have execution therefor against the principal defendant in such judgment as provided in the case of a surety. [Id.]

Art. 6251. [6336] [3818] Surety not to be sued alone.—No surety shall be sued, unless his principal is joined with him, or unless a judgment has previously been rendered against his principal, except in the cases otherwise provided for in the laws relating to parties to suits. [Id.]

Art. 6252. [6337] [3819] Who is surety.—The remedy provided for sureties by this title extends to endorsers, guarantors, drawers of bills which have been accepted, and every other suretyship, whether created by express contract, or by operation of law. [Id.]

Art. 6253. [6398] [4343] Quo Warranto, when.—If any person shall usurp, intrude into or unlawfully hold or execute, or is now intruded into, or now unlawfully holds or executes, any office or franchise, or any office in any corporation created by the authority of this State, or any public officer shall have done or suffered any act which by law works a forfeiture of his office, or any association of persons shall act within this State as a corporation without being legally incorporated, or any corporation does or omits any act which amounts to a surrender or a forfeiture of its rights and privileges as such, or exercises power not conferred by law; or if any railroad company doing business in this State shall charge an extortionate rate for the transportation of any freight or passengers, or refuse to draw or carry the cars of any other railroad company over its lines as required by the laws of this State, the Attorney General, or district or county attorney of the proper county or district, either of his own accord or at the instance of any individual relator, may present a petition to the district court of the proper county, or any judge thereof in vacation, for leave to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto in the name of the State of Texas. If such court or judge is satisfied that there is probable ground for the proceeding, he shall grant such leave and order the information to be filed and process to issue. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 43; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 75.]

Art. 6254. [6399] [4344] Joinder of parties.—When it appears to the court or judge that the several rights of divers parties to the same office or franchise may properly be determined on one information, the court or judge may give leave to join all such persons in the same information in order to try their respective rights to such office or franchise. [Id.]

Art. 6255. [6400] [4345] Citation to issue.—When such information is filed, the clerk shall issue citation as in civil suits, commanding the defendant to appear at the return term of said court to answer the relator in an information in the nature of a quo warranto. If the information is filed in vacation, the citation shall be returnable on the first day of the next succeeding term; if in term time, it may be made returnable on any day of the same term, not less than five days after the date of the writ, as shall be directed by the court. [Id.]

Art. 6256. [6401] [4346] Proceedings as in civil cases.—Every person or corporation who shall be cited as hereinbefore provided shall be entitled to all the rights in the trial and investigation of the matters alleged against him, as in cases of trial of civil cases in this State. Either party may prosecute an appeal or writ of error from any judgment rendered, as in other civil cases and the appellate court shall give preference to such case, and hear and determine the same as early as practicable. [Id. Sec. 4, Acts 1921, p. 220.]

Art. 6257. [6402] [4347] Judgment of court.—If any person or corporation against whom any such proceeding is filed shall be adjudged guilty as charged, the court shall give judgment of ouster against such person or corporation from the office or franchise, and may fine such person or corporation for usurping, intruding into or unlawfully holding and executing such office or franchise and shall give judgment in favor of the relator for costs of the prosecution. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 43; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 75.]

Art. 6258. [6403] [4348] Remedy cumulative.—The remedy and mode of procedure hereby prescribed shall be construed to be cumulative of any now existing. [Id.]

Art. 6259. [6405] [4350] [4099] Incorporation.— Any number of persons, not less than ten, being subscribers to the stock of any contemplated railroad, may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating such railroad by complying with the requirements of this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6260. [6406] Who may build.—No corporation, except one chartered under the laws of Texas, shall be authorized or permitted to construct, build, operate, acquire, own or maintain any railways within State. [Acts 1903, p. 90.]

Art. 6261. [6407] [4351] [4100] Stock, subscription and payment.—No railroad corporation shall be formed until stock to the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of the road intended to be built shall be in good faith subscribed, and five per cent of the amount subscribed paid to the directors of such proposed company. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6262. [6408] [4352] [4101] Articles of incorporation.—The persons proposing to form a railroad corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain:

1. The name of the proposed corporation.
2. The places from and to which it is intended to construct the proposed railroad, and the intermediate counties through which it is proposed to construct the same. Local suburban railways may be constructed for any distance less than ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town, in addition to such mileage as they may have within the same; and in such case the general direction shall be given from the beginning point.
3. The place at which shall be established and maintained the principal business office of the proposed corporation.
4. The time of the commencement and the period of the continuation of the proposed corporation.

5. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation.
6. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation.
7. The names of the members of the first board of directors, and in what officers or persons the government of the proposed corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested.
8. The number and amount of shares in the capital stock of the proposed corporation. [Acts 1889, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1045.]

Art. 6263. [6409] [4353] [4102] Shall be submitted to Attorney General.—The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the Attorney General, and, if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and not in conflict with the laws of the United States, or of this State, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect. [Acts 1876, p. 141; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 977.]

Art. 6264. [6410] [4354] [4103] Shall be filed.—When said articles have been so examined and certified, the same shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, accompanied by an affidavit signed and sworn to by at least three of the directors named in such articles, which affidavit shall state that the amount of one thousand dollars for every mile of such proposed road has been in good faith subscribed, and that five per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the Secretary of State shall cause such articles, together with said affidavit, to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles and return the same to such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6265. [6411] [4355] [4104] Beginning of existence.—The existence of such corporation shall date from the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State, and the certificate of the Secretary of State under the seal of the State, shall be evidence of such filing. [Id.]

Art. 6266. [6412] [4356] [4105] May proceed to act.—When the articles of incorporation have been so filed and recorded, the persons named as incorporators therein shall thereupon become a body corporate, and authorized to carry into effect the objects of such articles, in accordance with the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 6267. [6413] [4357] [4106] Period of existence.—No railroad corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time for periods not longer than fifty years. [Id.]

Art. 6268. [6414] [4358] [4107] Manner of renewing.—The manner of renewing a railroad corporation which has expired by lapse of time shall be as follows:

1. By a resolution in writing adopted by a majority of three-fourths of the stockholders of the company at a regular meeting of the stockholders, specifying the period of time for which the corporation is renewed.

2. Those desiring a renewal of the corporation shall purchase the stock of those opposed thereto at its current value.

3. The resolution, when adopted, shall be certified to by the president of the company; and he shall state in his certificate thereto that it was adopted by a majority vote of three-fourths of all the stockholders of said company at a regular meeting of such stockholders, and that the stockholders desiring such renewal have purchased the stock of those who oppose such renewal, and such certificate shall be attested by the secretary of the company under the seal of the company.

4. Said resolution and certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and the renewal of said corporation shall date from said filing. [Id.]

Art. 6269. [6415] [4359] Sale or conveyance under special law.—Whenever a line of railway or any railway properties within this State are by special law authorized to be sold and conveyed, the persons contemplating the purchase thereof may be formed into a corporation for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating such railway by complying, as far as applicable with the requirements of this chapter. In the formation of such corporation, the requirements of Article 6261 and so much of Article 6264 as relates to the affidavit may be dispensed with, and words applicable to the case of a purchaser may be used and substituted when necessary or proper, in the articles of incorporation or elsewhere, in lieu of words applicable to the building or construction of a railway. When such corporation has been formed it shall have the power to purchase, acquire, own, maintain and operate such railway and the properties pertaining thereto, and all other rights, powers and privileges given by the laws of this State to railway companies. Any proposed extension or branch lines may be provided for and included in the original articles of incorporation, or the same may, by amendment thereto at any time thereafter, be projected and provided for by such company. [Acts 1891, p. 128; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 130.]

Art. 6270. [6416] [4360] Shall take subject to lien.—Any company organized under the preceding article shall take the property so purchased subject to all incumbrances, judgments, claims, suits, claims for damages and for right of way against the old company and subject to all debts and claims for damages accruing against any receiver who may have been appointed for the old company to the same extent that such property would have been liable in the hands of the railroad company from which it was purchased; and such new company may be made a party to every suit pending against the company from which it is purchased, or which may be pending against any receiver of such company, to enforce any right against such new company; and the new company may be sued to enforce any such rights, without joining the old company, or the receiver; and, in case any judgment has been rendered against the old company, or against a receiver for such company, and for which the property is liable, execution may be issued on such judgment against such property in the possession of the new company without any suit therefor. When a corporation is formed under the provisions of the preceding article, service of process may be had upon any agent of such corporation in any county where suit may be pending. Such service shall bind each railroad operated or owned under such charter, in the same manner as if it were one railroad. [Id.]

Art. 6271. [6417-18-19] [4108] May amend articles, etc.— Any railroad corporation may amend or change its articles or act of incorporation in the manner following:

1. Such amendment or change shall be in writing and signed by the president and board of directors of the corporation and attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation.

2. It shall be submitted to the Attorney General as in the case of original articles of incorporation and examined and certified by him in the same manner.

3. It shall then be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

4. In the case of a corporation created by a special act of the legislature, the said amendment or change, together with the original charter and such amendments and changes as have been made by special act of the legislature, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

5. Such amendment or change shall be in force from the date of the filing of the same in the office of the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6272. [6420] [4364] [4111] When shall not amend.— Where, by the special act or articles of incorporating any railroad company, any privileges, rights or benefits are conferred upon said corporation, such as it could not claim, exercise or receive under this title or the general laws, then the said corporation shall not be permitted so to amend or change its charter or articles of incorporation as to relieve it from any of the requirements of such special act or acts conferring said privileges, rights or benefits. [Id.]

Art. 6273. [6421] [4365] May project, etc., by amendment.—Any railroad company may, by its original articles of incorporation or by its amendments to its charter, project and provide for the location, construction, owning and operating of branch lines from any point on its main line, or from points on its branch line, constructed or projected, to other points making an angle of at least twenty-five degrees in the general course from the main line, if the branch commence from the same, or from the branch line, if it commences at a point on the same; provided, that the same may commence at the terminus of a branch line and continue in its general course; and, may by amendment to its charter, provide for the continuation in its general course of the main line. [Id. Acts 1901, p. 258.]

Art. 6274. [6422] [4366] [4114] Branch line requirements.—Any such corporation making such amendment to its charter shall complete and put in good running order at least ten miles of its said branch line in said amendment proposed within one year from the filing of such amendment, and an additional extent of at least twenty miles each succeeding year until the entire extent of the projected branch line is completed. [Id.]

Art. 6275. [6423] [4367] To keep offices in Texas.—Every railroad company chartered by this State, or owning or operating any line of railway within this State, shall keep and maintain permanently its general offices within this State at the place named in its charter for the location of its general offices. If no certain place is named in its charter where its general offices shall be located and maintained, then said railroad company shall keep and maintain its general offices at such place within this State where it contracts or agrees to locate its general office for a valuable consideration. [Acts 1889, p. 130; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1158.]

Art. 6276. [6423] [4367] Where no contract.—If said railroad company has not contracted or agreed for a valuable consideration to maintain its general offices at any certain place within this State, then such general offices shall be located and maintained at such place on its line in this State as said railroad company may designate to be on its line of railway. [Id.]

Art. 6277. [6423] [4367] Shops, etc.—Such railroads shall keep and maintain their machine shops and roundhouses, or either, at such place or places as they may have contracted to keep them for a valuable consideration received; and if said general offices and shops and roundhouses, or either are located on the line of railroad in a county which has aided such railroad by an issue of bonds in consideration of such location being made, then said location shall not be changed; and this shall apply as well to a railroad that may have been consolidated with another as to those which have maintained their original organization. [Id.]

Art. 6278. [6424] [4368] Officers to keep offices in Texas.—Railroad companies shall keep and maintain at the place within this State where its general offices are located the office of its president, or vice-president, secretary, treasurer, local treasurer, auditor, general freight agent, traffic manager, general manager, general superintendent, general passenger and ticket agent, chief engineer, superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, master of transportation, fuel agent, general claim agent; and each one of its general offices shall be so kept and maintained by whatever name it is known, and the persons who perform the duties of said general offices, by whatever name known, shall keep and maintain their offices at the place where said general offices are required to be located and maintained; and the persons holding said general offices shall reside at the place and keep and maintain their offices at the place where said general offices are required by law to be kept and maintained. If the duties of any of the above named offices are performed by any person, but his position is called by a different name, said railroad company shall maintain said offices at the place where its general Texas offices are kept and maintained, as required by this chapter. The name of the general offices shall not be understood to allow the railroad company to have any of the offices usually known as general offices at any other place than the one at which it is required to keep its general offices; and each railroad is hereby required to have and maintain its general offices at the place named herein. Where the principal shops of a company are situated on its line in the State, at a place other than where its general offices are located, the superintendent of motive power and machinery, master mechanic, either or both, may have his office and residence at such place where such principal shops are located; provided, that the Railroad Commission of Texas, where it is made to appear that any officer, other than the general officers of any company, can more conveniently perform his duties by residing at some place on the line in Texas other than the place where the general offices are situated, may by an order entered on its record, authorize any such officer to so reside and keep his office at such place. [Id. Acts 1899, p. 177.]

Art. 6279. [6425] [4369] Forfeiture.—Each railroad company chartered by this State, or owning, operating, or controlling any line of railroad within this State, which shall violate any provision of this chapter shall forfeit the charter by which it operates its railroad in Texas to the State of Texas. The Attorney General shall, upon the application of an interested party, or on his own motion, proceed at once against every offending railroad company owning, operating or controlling any line of railway within this State and violating any provision of this law, by quo warranto to forfeit the charter of such railroad company. In addition to forfeiting the charter to that part of the railroad situated within this State, such offending railroad company shall be subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars for each day it violates any provision of this chapter; such penalty to be recovered by suit in the name of the State of Texas to be filed by the Attorney General. Any money recovered from any railroad company under the provisions of this law shall be paid into the State Treasury and become a part of the available public free school fund. A judgment of the court forfeiting the charter of a railroad company shall allow six months from the date of the judgment within which to comply with this law, and if it shall comply, within said time no forfeiture shall occur; but if it fails to so comply, then the judgment shall be final.

Art. 6280. [6426 to 6428] To do repair work in Texas.—All railroad corporations operating in, and having their repair shops within this State, are required to repair, renovate or rebuild in this State all defective or broken cars, coaches, locomotives or other equipment owned or leased by said corporation in this State, when such rolling stock is within this State, and shall be prohibited from sending or removing any such rolling stock out of this State to be repaired, renovated or rebuilt, when the same is in a defective or broken condition, and within this State, when such railway shall have, or be under obligation to have proper facilities in this State to do such work. This article does not apply to companies having less than sixty continuous miles of railroad in operation in this State, nor in case of strike, fire or other unforeseen casualties and emergencies; and is not to be construed to require a violation of the Federal safety appliance law; and no railway shall be required to haul such disabled equipment a greater distance for repairs at a point within this State than would be necessary to reach their repair shops in another State. [Acts 1909, p. 73.]

Art. 6281. [6429] [4370] Books.—The principal business of said corporation shall be conducted, and stock transferred and claims for damages settled and adjusted at the public or general offices of said railroad companies in Texas, established as provided for in this chapter, by duly authorized officers and agents of said corporations. At said offices there shall be kept for the inspection of stockholders of such corporation, books in which shall be recorded:

1. The amount of capital stock subscribed.
2. The names of the owners of the stock and the amounts owned by them respectively.
3. The amount of stock paid and by whom.
4. The transfer of stock with the date of the transfer.
5. The amount of its assets and liabilities.
6. The names and places of residence of each of its officers.

[Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6282. [6430] [4371] President shall report.—The president or superintendent of every railroad company doing business in this State shall report annually under oath to the Comptroller or Governor the true status of said railroad and such other matters and things as may be inquired about by said Comptroller or Governor. [Id. Const. Art. 10, Sec. 3.]

Art. 6283. [6431-2] Books open to inspection.—The books of such corporation, kept at its public office shall at all reasonable business hours be open to the inspection of each stockholder, and to any officer or agent of the State whose duty it may be to inspect such books. The legislature may, by committee or otherwise, examine the books of any railroad corporation at such times and as often as may by said legislature be deemed necessary. [Id.]

Art. 6284. [6433] [4374] Penalty for failure.—If said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with any provision of the three preceding articles, it shall be liable to pay to the State of Texas, the sum of one thousand dollars for each month that said railroad or other corporation shall fail or refuse to comply therewith, said sum to be recovered by the State. An honest mistake in the entries in its books shall not subject a railroad company to such penalties. [Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6285. [6434] [4375] Duties of Attorney General.—The Attorney General shall bring suit against said corporation, and prosecute it to judgment for any violation of any provision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 6286. [6435] [4376] Change of general offices prohibited.—No railroad company shall change the location of its general offices, machine shops or roundhouses, save with the consent and approval of the Railroad Commission of Texas, and this shall apply also to receivers and to purchasers of the franchises and properties of railroad companies and to new corporations formed by such purchasers or their assigns. The Commission shall not consent to, or approve of, any removal or change of location in conflict with the restrictions of the first article of this chapter. No consent or approval of the Commission shall be required before the return of general offices, machine shops or roundhouses to previous locations when ordered or required under judgments in suits now pending in trial or appellate courts. [Acts 1915, p. 35.]

Art. 6287. [6437] [4378] [4120] Domicile of the corporation.—The public office of a railroad corporation shall be considered the domicile of such corporation. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986.]

| Board of directors | Article 6288 | False dividend | Article 6291 |
| Election of directors | 6289 | False representation | 6292 |
| Other officers elected | 6290 | By-laws | 6293 |

Art. 6288. [6338-39-45] Board of directors.—All the corporate powers of every railroad corporation shall be vested in and be exercised by the legally constituted board of directors. Every such corporation shall have a board of directors of not less than seven nor more than nine persons, each of whom shall be a stockholder in said corporation. A majority of said directors shall be resident citizens of this State, and shall so remain resident citizens during their continuance as such directors. [Acts 1876, p. 144; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 980.]

Art. 6289. [6440-41-42-43-44] Election of directors.—These rules shall govern the election of the board of directors:

1. It shall require a majority in value of the stock of such corporation to elect any member of such board.

2. Such board shall be elected by the stockholders of the corporation at their regular annual meeting in each year, in the manner prescribed by this title and the by-laws of such corporation, and shall hold their office until their successors are elected.

3. In all such elections, each stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy for the number of shares of stock owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate such shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he may see fit. Such directors shall not be elected in any other manner.

4. The by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe the manner and time of electing directors, and the mode of filling a vacancy in such office. Such provisions in such by-laws shall not be changed except at a regular annual meeting of the stockholders, and by a majority in value of the stockholders of such corporation.

5. If an election of directors shall not be made on the day designated by said by-laws for such purpose, the stockholders shall meet and hold an election for directors in such manner as said by-laws shall provide. [Id.]

Art. 6290. [6446-47] Other officers elected.—There shall be a president of the corporation who shall be chosen from and by the board of directors, and such other officers as said by-laws may designate, who may be appointed or elected, and who shall perform such duties and be required to give such security for the faithful performance thereof as required by said by-laws. It shall require a majority of the directors to appoint or elect any officer of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6291. [6448] [4389] [4133] False dividend.—If the directors of any railroad company shall declare and pay any dividend when the company is insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, they shall jointly and severally be liable for all debts of the company then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted so long as they shall respectively continue in office. If any of the directors shall be absent at the time of making such dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall within thirty days thereafter, or after their return if absent, file a certificate of their absence or objection in writing with the clerk of the company and with the clerk of the county in which the principal office of said company is located, they shall be exempt from said liability. [Acts 1853, p. 55; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1339; P. D. 4886.]

Art. 6292. [6449] [4390] [4134] False representation.—If any certificate or report made, or public notice given, by the officers of any such company, in pursuance of the provisions of this title, shall be false in any material representation, all officers who signed the same shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company contracted while they are officers or stockholders thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6293. [6450-52] By-laws.—Every railroad corporation shall have the power to make such by-laws as it may think proper for the government of such company, the same not being inconsistent with the charter of such company or the laws. In the enactment of a by-law, the stockholders of the corporation shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by them, and a stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy. No by-laws shall be enacted, altered, amended, added to, repealed or suspended, except at a regular annual meeting of the stockholders and by a majority vote of two-thirds in value of all the stock of the corporation. [Acts 1857, p. 25; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 897; P. D. 4911.]

Art. 6294. [6453] [4394] [4138] Railroad stock is personal estate.—The stock of a railroad corporation shall be deemed personal estate, and transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation; but no such transfer shall be valid until the same shall have been made on the stock and transfer books of the company; nor shall any share be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been paid. [Acts 1876, p. 145; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 981.]

Art. 6295. [6454] [4395] [4139] Directors may require payment.—The directors of such corporation may require the subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation to pay the amount by them respectively subscribed, in such manner and in such installments as the directors may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 6296. [6455] [4396] [4140] Sale of unpaid stock.—If any stockholder shall neglect to pay any installment as required by a resolution or order of the board of directors, the said board shall be authorized to advertise said stock for sale by publication once a week for thirty days in some newspaper published on the line of said road, if there be one, and, if not, in some newspaper published in the State having a general circulation in the State; which notice shall name the stock to be sold and the time and place of such sale; and all stocks so sold shall be sold at the public office or place of business of such company, and between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. and to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of such sale to be credited to the delinquent stockholder. [Id.]

Art. 6297. [6456] [4397] [4141] Books accessible.—All stockholders shall at all reasonable hours have access to and may examine all books, records and papers of such corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6298. [6457] [4398] [4142] Use of corporate funds.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad corporation to use any of the funds thereof in the purchase of its own stock, or that of any other corporation, or to loan any of its funds to any director or other officer thereof, or to permit them or any of them, to use the same for other than the legitimate purposes of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 6299. [6458] [4399] [4143] Liability of stockholders.—Each stockholder of a railroad corporation shall be held individually liable to the creditors of such corporation to an amount not exceeding the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for all debts and liabilities of such corporation until the whole amount of the capital stock of such corporation so held by him shall have been paid. [Id.]

Art. 6300. [6459] [4400] [4144] Who are not liable.—No person holding stock in any railroad corporation as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, and no person holding such stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stockholder of such corporation; but the estate or person owning such stock, shall be considered as holding the same and liable as a stockholder accordingly. [Id.]

Art. 6301. [6460 to 6464] Increasing capital stock.—If the capital stock of a railroad corporation shall be found insufficient for constructing and operating its road, such corporation may increase its capital stock from time to time, subject to the following conditions:

1. Such increase shall be sanctioned by a vote in person or by written proxy of two-thirds in amount of all the stock of such corporation at a meeting of such stockholders called by the directors of the corporation for such purpose.

2. Written notice of such meeting shall be given to each stockholder, served personally or by depositing same in a post office directed to his post-office address, postage prepaid; and also by advertising the same in some newspaper published in each county through or into which the said road shall run, or be intended to run, if any is published therein. Such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting, the object thereof, and the amount to which it is proposed to increase such capital stock, and shall be served or published at least sixty days prior to the day appointed for such meeting.

3. The stock may be increased to any amount required for the purposes mentioned in this article, not exceeding the amount mentioned in the notice so given.

4. Every order or resolution increasing such stock shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and such increase shall not take effect until such order or resolution has been so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6302. Decrease of capital stock.—A railroad corporation may, in the same manner prescribed in this chapter for an increase of capital stock, decrease its capital stock in any amount which shall not reduce the same to less than one thousand dollars for every mile of its road as planned and described in its charter. But no such decrease shall prejudice the rights of any creditor of such corporation in any claim or cause of action such creditor may have against the company or any stockholder or director thereof. If such decrease relates to or affects any part of the stock that has actually been subscribed or issued, then such decrease shall not become effective until full proof is made by affidavit of the directors to the Secretary of State of the financial condition of such corporation, giving therein all its assets and liabilities, with names and post-office addresses of all creditors and amount due each, and where the proposed decrease affects any part of the subscribed or issued stock as aforesaid the Secretary of State may require as a condition precedent to the filing of such certificate of decrease that the debts of the corporation be paid or reduced. [Acts 1915, p. 262.]

Art. 6303. [6465-6] Statement to stockholders.—At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders, the president and directors shall exhibit a full, distinct and accurate statement of the affairs of the corporation to the stockholders. Such president and directors shall furnish similar statements at any special meeting of stockholders when they may require the same. [Acts 1876, p. 145; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 981.]

Art. 6304. [6467] [4408] [4152] Loans and interest.—At any regular annual meeting of stockholders, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, the stockholders may, by a majority in value of all the stock of such corporation, determine the amount of loans which may be negotiated by such company for the construction of its railway and its equipment, and fix the rate of interest which may be paid, and provide for the security of such loans. [Id.]

Art. 6305. [6468] [4409] [4153] Removal of officers.—The stockholders may, by a two-thirds vote in value of all the stock, at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, remove the president or any director or other officer of such corporation, and elect others instead in accordance with the by-laws of such corporation and this title. [Id.]

Art. 6306. [6469] [4410] [4154] Issuance of stock.—No railroad corporation shall issue any stock except for money, labor or property actually received and applied to the purpose for which such corporation was organized; nor shall it issue any shares of stock in said company except at its par value and to actual subscribers who pay or become liable to pay the par value thereof. [Id. P. D. 4921.]

Art. 6307. [6470] [4411] [4155] Fictitious dividends void.—All fictitious dividends and other fictitious increase of the capital stock or indebtedness of any such corporation shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6308. [6471] [4412] [4156] Penalty.—Every officer or director of a railroad company, who shall violate or consent to the violation of either of the two preceding articles, shall become personally liable to the stockholders and creditors of such company for the full par value of such illegal stock, or for the full amount of such fictitious dividends, increase of stock, or indebtedness. [P. D. 4921.]

Art. 6309. [6472] [4413] [4157] Annual meeting of directors.—The directors of every railroad company shall hold one meeting annually at their office in this State, public notice of which shall be given at least thirty days before said meeting, said notice to be published in some daily newspaper published in this State. [Const. Art. 10, Sec. 3; Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6310. [6473] [4414] [4158] Annual meeting of stockholders.—The stockholders of every railroad corporation shall hold at least one meeting annually at the public office or place of business of such corporation in this State; and the board of directors shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of such meeting for thirty days previously thereto as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1876, p. 144; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 980.]

Art. 6311. [6474] [4415] [4159] Joint meetings.—Said annual meeting of the board of directors and of the stockholders may be called to meet and may be held at the same time and place, in which case one notice shall answer the purpose of both meetings; provided, it be so stated in such notice. [Id.]

Art. 6312. [6475] [4416] [4160] Quorum.—A majority of the directors of any railroad corporation shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and a majority in value of two-thirds of all the stock owned by such corporation shall constitute a quorum of the stockholders to transact business. [Id.]

Art. 6313. [6476-7-8] Special meetings.—A special meeting of the stockholders may be called at any time during the interval between the regular annual meetings of such stockholders by the directors, or by the stockholders owning not less than one-fourth of all the stock of such company. Notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given for at least thirty days prior to the time fixed for such meeting, in the same manner as is required in the case of a regular annual meeting; and such notice shall specify the purpose or purposes for which the said special meeting is called; and no other business shall be transacted at such special meeting, except that specified in such notice. If at any such special meeting so called a majority, in value, of the stockholders, equal to two-thirds of the stock of such corporation shall not be represented in person or by proxy, such meeting shall be adjourned from day to day, not exceeding three days without transaction of any business; and if within said three days two-thirds in value of such stock shall not be represented at such meeting, then the meeting shall be adjourned and another meeting called, and notice thereof given as heretofore provided. [Id.]

Art. 6314. [6479] [4420] [4164] Proxy dated.—Every proxy from a stockholder shall be dated within six months previous to the meeting of the stockholders at which it is proposed to vote by virtue thereof, and if not dated within such time, shall not be voted. [P. D. 4908.]

Art. 6315. [6480] [4421] [4165] What stock shall not vote.—Stock issued within thirty days before any stockholders meeting shall not entitle the holder to vote thereat except at the first stockholders meeting under their articles or act of incorporation for organization; nor shall any stock be voted upon except in proportion to the amount paid thereon, or secured to be paid by good security in addition to the subscription and stock.

Art. 6316. [6481] [4422] [4166] Right to construct.—Any railroad corporation shall have the right to construct and operate a railroad between any points within this State, and to connect at the State line with railroads of other States. [Const. Art. 10, Sec. 1.]

Art. 6317. [6482] [4423] [4167] Right of way over public lands.—Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any lands belonging to this State, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land.

Art. 6318. [6483] [4424] [4168] Lineal survey.—Every railroad corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed railway to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purpose may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damages that may be occasioned thereby. [Acts 1876, p. 147; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 983.]

Art. 6319. [6484] [4425] [4169] Width of road.—Such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its railway, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing the railway, making compensation as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6320. [6485] [4426] [4170] Streams of water.—Such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across, along, or upon any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal when the route of said railway shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal thus intersected or touched, to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossing in repair.

Art. 6321. [6486-87] Crossings.—All railway corporations in this State, which have or may fence their right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through their fence and over their roadbed along their right of way every one and one-half miles thereof. If such fence shall divide any inclosure, at least one opening shall be made in said fence within such inclosure. Such crossings shall not be less than thirty feet in width, and shall be made and kept in such condition as to admit of the free and easy passage of vehicles and domesticated animals. [Acts 1887, p. 39; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 837.]

Art. 6322. [6488-89] Where made.—Such crossings shall be made at such times and places as may be demanded by any two or more citizens of the State who either live or own land within five miles of the place where such crossings may be demanded. Such demand shall be made in writing, of the nearest local agent of such railway company to the place where such crossing or crossings are demanded, and shall state when and where such crossing is desired. [Id.]

Art. 6323. [6490] [4431] Thirty days for completion.—No railway company shall be required to complete such crossing as may be demanded under this chapter in a shorter time than thirty days from the day on which such demand is first made, nor shall they be required to make any crossings where they have already left such crossings, in each one and one-half miles of their road, except inside of inclosures, as provided in Article 6321. [Id.]

Art. 6324. [6491] [4432] Distance from place.—Any railway company, upon such demand, shall be deemed to have complied therewith upon making such crossings within four hundred yards of the place where they are demanded, within the time herein allowed. [Id.]

Art. 6325. [6492] [4433] Failure, etc.—Whenever any railroad company shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this chapter, after demand is made in accordance therewith, such railway company shall pay to each person who made such demand the sum of five hundred dollars for each month they shall so fail or refuse to comply with such demand, the same to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 6326. [6493] [4434] Intersections.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the law requiring railroad companies to provide proper crossings at intersection of all roads and streets. [Id.]

Art. 6327. [367-6494] Crossings of public roads.—Every railroad company in this State shall place and keep that portion of its roadbed and right of way, over or across which any public county road may run, in proper condition for the use of the traveling public, and in case of its failure to do so for thirty days after written notice given to the section boss of the section where such work or repairs are needed by the overseer of such public road, it shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars for each week such railroad company may fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of this article. Such penalty shall go to the road and bridge fund of the county in which the suit is brought; and the county attorney, upon the making of an affidavit of the facts by any person, shall at once institute against the company violating any provision of this article suit in the proper court to recover such penalty or penalties, and his wilful failure or refusal to do so shall be sufficient cause for his removal from office, unless it is evident that such suit could not have been maintained. The proceedings under this article shall be conducted in the same manner as civil suits. The county attorney attending to such suits shall be entitled to a fee in each case of ten dollars, to be taxed as costs; provided, that when two or more penalties are sought to be recovered in the same suit, but one such fee shall be allowed. Such suits shall be conducted in the name of the county, and if the county be cast in the suit no costs shall be charged against it. [Acts 1885, p. 45; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 665.]

Art. 6328. [6495] [4436] [4171] Culverts or sluices.—In no case shall any railroad company construct a roadbed without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary draining thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 147; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 983.]

Art. 6329. [6496] [4437] [4172] Navigable waters.—This chapter shall not be construed to authorize the erection of any bridge or any other obstruction across or over any stream or water navigable by steamboats or sail vessels at the place where any bridge or other obstruction may be proposed to be placed so as to prevent the navigation of such stream or water. [Id.]

Art. 6330. [6497] [4438] [4173] Streets, etc.—This chapter shall not be construed to authorize the construction of any railroad upon or across any street, alley, square or highway of any incorporated city or town without assent of the governing body of said city or town. [Id.]

Art. 6331. [6498] [4439] [4174] Other cases.—In case of the construction of any railway along the highways, plank roads, turnpikes, or canals, such railroad corporation shall either first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having control or jurisdiction of the same or condemn the same under the provisions of law. [Id.]

Art. 6332. [6499] [4440] [4175] May cross other railways.—Such corporation shall have the right to cross, intersect, join and unite its railway with any other railway before constructed at any point on its route and upon the grounds of such other railway corporation, with the necessary turnouts, sidings and switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its connection. [Id.]

Art. 6333. [6500-01] Intersections. — Every corporation whose railway is or shall be intersected by any new railway shall unite with the corporation owning such railway in forming intersections and connections and grant to such new railway facilities therefor. If the corporations cannot agree upon the amount of compensation for any such crossings, intersection or connection, or the points and manner of the same, their differences shall be adjusted in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6334. [6502] [4443] [4178] May take material.—Any railroad corporation may enter upon and take from any land adjacent to its road, earth, gravel, stone or other materials, except fuel and wood, necessary for the construction of its railway, paying, if the owner of such land and the corporation can agree thereto, the value of such material taken and the amount of damages occasioned to any such land or appurtenances, and, if such owner and corporation cannot agree, then the value of such material and the damages occasioned to such real estate may be ascertained, determined and paid in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 6335. [6503] [4444] [4179] Value and damages to be paid.—The value of such material and the damages to such real estate shall in all cases be ascertained, determined and paid before such corporation can enter upon and take such material. [Id.]

Art. 6336 [6504] [4445] [4180] When corporation and owner disagree.—If any railroad corporation shall at any time be unable to agree with the owner for the purchase of any real estate, or material thereon, required for the purpose of its incorporation or the transaction of its business, for its depots, station buildings, machine and repair shops, for the construction of reservoirs for the water supply, or for the right of way, or for a new or additional right of way, for change, or relocation or road bed, to shorten the line, or any part thereof, or to reduce its grades, or any of them, or for double tracking its railroad or constructing and operating its tracks, which is hereby authorized and permitted, or for any other lawful purpose connected with or necessary to the building, operating or running its road, such corporation may acquire such property by condemnation thereof. The limitation in width prescribed by Article 6319 shall not apply to real estate or any interest therein, required for the purposes herein mentioned, other than right of way, and shall not apply to right of way when necessary for double tracking or constructing or adding additional railroad tracks, and real estate, or any interest therein, to be acquired for such other purposes, or any of them, need not adjoin or abut on the right way, and no change of the line through any city or town, or which shall result in the abandonment of any station or depot, shall be made, except upon written order of the Railroad Commission of Texas, authorizing such change. No railroad corporation shall have the right under this law to condemn any land for the purposes mentioned in this article situated more than two miles from the right of way of such railroad corporation. [Id. Acts 1901, p. 46; Acts 1919, p. 280.]

Art. 6337. [6505] [4446] [4181] Entry only for survey.—No railroad company shall enter upon, except for a lineal survey, any real estate whatever, the same being private property, for the purpose of taking and condemning the same, or any material thereon, for any purpose whatever, until the said company shall agree with and pay the owner thereof all damages that may be caused to the lands and property of said owner by the condemnation of said real estate and property, and by the construction of such road. [P. D. 4922.]

Art. 6338. [6531] [4472] Practice in case specified.—When any railroad company is sued for any property occupied by it for railroad purposes, or for damages thereto, the court in which such suit is pending may determine all matters in dispute between the parties, including the condemnation of the property, upon petition or cross bill, asking such remedy by defendant, but the plea for condemnation shall be an admission of the plaintiff's title to such property. [Acts 1889, p. 18; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1046.]

Art. 6339. [6532] [4473] [4206] Right of way construed.—The right of way secured by condemnation to any railway company in this State shall not be construed to include the fee simple estate in lands, either public or private, nor shall the same be lost by forfeiture or expiration of the charter, but shall remain subject to an extension of the charter or the grant of a new charter over the same way without a new condemnation. [Acts 1861, p. 12; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 348.]

Art. 6340. [6533] [4474] [4207] Right of way reserved.—The right of way is hereby reserved to any railroad company incorporated by the laws of this State, to the extent of one hundred feet on each side of said road, or roads that cross over or extend through any lands granted, or that may be granted to any railroad company by the Legislature, with the right to take from the lands so granted such stone, timber and earth as such road may need in the construction of its line of road.

Art. 6341. [6535-6-7-8-41-43] Some rights.—Railroad corporations shall have the following other rights:

1. To have succession, and in their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded.
2. To have and use a seal, which it may alter at pleasure.
3. To receive and convey persons and property on its railway by the power and force of steam, or by any mechanical power.
4. To regulate the time and manner in which passengers and property shall be transported, and the compensation to be paid therefor, subject to the provisions of law.
5. Of eminent domain for the purposes prescribed in this title.
6. To purchase, hold and use all such real estate and other property as may be necessary for the construction and use of its railway, stations and other accommodations necessary to accomplish the objects of its incorporation, and to convey the same when no longer required for the use of such railway.
7. To take, hold and use such voluntary grants of real estate and other property as shall be made to it in aid of the construction and use of its railway, and to convey the same when no longer required for the uses of such railway, in any manner not incompatible with the terms of the original grant. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6342. [6539] [4480] Shall alienate lands, etc.—All lands acquired by railroad companies under the provisions of this chapter, or any general laws, shall be alienated by said companies, one-half in six years and one-half in twelve years, from the issuance of patents to the same, and all lands so acquired by railroad companies, and not alienated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the State and become a part of the public domain and liable to location and survey as other unappropriated lands. All lands purchased by or donated to a railroad corporation, except such as are used for depot purposes, reservation for the establishment of machine shops, turnouts and switches, shall be alienated and disposed of by said company in the same manner and time as is required when lands have been received from the State. [Id.]

Art. 6343. [6540] [4481] [4214] Apply to all companies.—The two preceding articles shall apply to such corporations as are prohibited by their acts of incorporation from purchasing or receiving donations of land, as well as those corporations that are not so prohibited. [Id.]

Art. 6344. [6542] [4483] [4216] Right to erect buildings, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right to erect and maintain all necessary and convenient buildings and stations, fixtures and machinery for the accommodation and use of passengers, freights and business interests, or which may be necessary for the construction or operation of its railway; but no railway company shall have the power, either by its own employes or other persons, to construct any buildings along the line of their railroad to be occupied by their employes or others except at their respective depot stations and section houses, and at such places shall construct only such buildings as may be necessary for the transaction of their legitimate business operations, and for shelter of their employes, nor shall they use, occupy or cultivate any part of the right of way over which their respective roads may pass, with the exception aforesaid, for any other purpose than the construction and keeping in repair their respective railways. [Id.]

Art. 6345. [6544] [4486] [4219] Right to borrow money, issue bonds, etc.—Such corporation shall have the right, from time to time, to borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for constructing, completing, improving or operating its railway, and to issue and dispose of its bonds for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage its corporate property and franchise to secure the payment of any debt contracted by such corporation for the purposes aforesaid, subject, however, to other provisions of law. [Id.]

Art. 6346. [6645-6] Mortgage by resolution.—No mortgage by such corporation shall be valid, unless authorized by a resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the stock of such company, after notice in the manner provided in this title for increasing the capital stock of such corporation. When any such resolution has been so adopted it shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and no such resolution shall take effect until so recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6347. [6547] [4489] [4222] May pay bonds with stock.—The directors shall be empowered, in pursuance of any such resolution, to confer on any holder of any bond for money so borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal of such bond into the stock of such corporation at any time not exceeding ten years after the date of such bond, under such regulations as the by-laws of such corporation may provide. [Id.]

Art. 6348. [6548] [4490] Terminus on coast destroyed.—Any railway company in this State having a terminus on the coast, the said terminus being a county site, and the same having been destroyed by storms and cyclones, and when said county site has been removed back from the coast near the line of said railway, it shall be lawful for said railway to remove and take up its track from its original terminus on the coast to a point opposite or near said new county site; provided, said railway company make its terminus at and build its road to said new county site. [Acts 1887, p. 6; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 804.]

Art. 6349. Abandonment, change, or relocation of line.—When any railroad in this State whether incorporated under State or Federal charter desires to abandon, change or relocate any portion of its line of railroad within this State adjacent to but not within an incorporated city of fifty thousand or more inhabitants according to the preceding Federal census, it shall present a petition therefor to the Railroad Commission of Texas showing that portion of its line sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned and the situation of the new relocated line, with the reasons justifying the same; thereupon said Commission shall set down said application for hearing and give public notice thereof of not less than ten days in the locality where such change is desired by publishing notice in a newspaper of general circulation published nearest thereto, setting out substantially what such contemplated change may be; and if after such hearing said Commission shall be of the opinion that it is to the public interest to permit such change, relocation or abandonment of said line, it shall enter its order approving same and thereupon said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall be empowered to make such change, relocation or abandonment; provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize said Commission to permit any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to abandon such substantial part of its line as shall amount to impairment of its charter contract or deprive any city or town of railroad facilities. Provided, said Commission shall not exercise the power herein granted unless and until said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have obtained the permission of the commissioners court of the county for such change, relocation or abandonment, which permission shall be evidenced by the duly authenticated order of such court which shall accompany the petition of such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to said Commission. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 45.]

Art. 6350. Change in city.—When any railroad corporation or receiver of any railroad in the State desires to change, relocate or abandon any part of its line within any city containing fifty thousand or more inhabitants, according to the preceding Federal census, it shall present its petition therefor to the governing body of such city, said petition to be also supported by the names of not less than five hundred resident citizens who shall be property owners in said city, showing the reasons therefor, the part of the line sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned, and the new location or arrangements proposed for operation; whereupon such governing body if of the opinion that the same is for the public interest, shall enter its order permitting such change, relocation or abandonment of said line. Thereupon the said railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall present its petition to the Railroad Commission of Texas praying for authority to make such change, relocation or abandonment, with a description of that portion of its lines; providing that no change shall be made that will seriously affect the charter obligations of any railroad company sought to be changed, relocated or abandoned, together with a description of the changed or relocated line, or arrangement for the new operation, which petition shall be accompanied by the order of the governing legislative authority of the city as aforesaid approving same; whereupon said Commission shall set down such application for public hearing upon not less than ten days' notice, and if upon such hearing said Commission shall be of the opinion that the public interest will be conserved by the granting of such petition, it shall enter its order to that effect and thereupon such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have full power to make such change, relocation or abandonment of its line. No application to alter, change or relocate railway tracks, as contemplated by this article, shall be acted upon by the governing body of such city until thirty days after the petition of citizens provided for herein shall have been filed with said body and publication thereof has been made for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the limits of said city, prior to action had thereon. [Id.]

Art. 6351. Eminent domain.—When any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad shall have been empowered under the provisions of this law to change, relocate or abandon its line of railroad in this State, it shall have full power to acquire by condemnation or otherwise all lands for right of way, depot grounds, shops, roundhouses, water supply sites, sidings, switches, spurs or any other lawful purposes connected with or necessary to the building, operating or running of its road as changed, relocated or abandoned; provided, however, that all property so acquired is hereby declared to be for and is charged with public use so far as the same may be necessary. [Id.]

Art. 6352. Certain changes validated.—All changes, relocations and abandonments of parts of their lines by railroad corporations or receivers of any railroad in or adjacent to any city having a population according to the preceding Federal census of fifty thousand inhabitants or over, heretofore made with the permission of the Railroad Commission of Texas and authorized by its written order, are hereby validated and made legal as fully as if made hereunder, and such permission or written order of the said Commission, given prior hereto, shall be full power and authority to a railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad to make such change, relocation or abandonment of parts of its line; providing that this law shall not affect any right or rights for damages that any person, firm or corporation may have, or may have had or shall have for damages caused by any such removal, change or abandonment. [Id.]

Art. 6353. Hearing of application.—Whenever the governing body of any city containing fifty thousand inhabitants or more shall present to the Railroad Commission of this State its application for any change or relocation of any tracks of any railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad in such way as to better serve the public interest, said Commission shall set down such application for a hearing after giving ten days notice to such railroad corporation or receivers of any railroad, whose tracks are sought to be changed or relocated and after such a hearing may make its order directing such change or relocation if in the opinion of said Commission such change or relocation would be to the best interest of all parties concerned. No application to alter, change or relocate railway tracks, as contemplated by this article shall be determined upon by said governing body until thirty days after publication of the proposed change or relocation of said railway tracks shall have been made in the official newspaper of said city. [Id.]

Art. 6354. [6549] [4491] [4223] Road to pass through county seat.—No railroad hereafter constructed in this State shall pass within a distance of three miles of any county seat without passing through the same and establishing and maintaining a depot therein, unless prevented by natural obstacles, such as streams, hills or mountains; provided, such town or its citizens shall grant the right of way through its limits and sufficient ground for ordinary depot purposes. [Const. Art. 10, Sec. 9.]

Art. 6355. [6550] [4492] [4224] Shall survey twenty-five miles.—Every railroad company organized under this title shall make an actual survey of its route or line for a distance of twenty-five miles on its projected route, and shall designate the depot grounds along said first twenty-five miles before the roadbed is begun. No railroad company shall change its route or depot grounds after the same have been so designated. [Acts 1876, p. 142; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 978.]

Art. 6356. [6551] [4493] [4225] Subsequent mileage.—Every such corporation shall, on completion of the first twenty-five miles of its roadbed, make a survey of the next twenty-five miles, and of each subsequent twenty-five miles as the preceding twenty-five miles shall be completed, and every subsequent twenty-five miles shall be controlled by the provisions applicable to the first twenty-five miles of the road. [Id.]

Art. 6357. [6552] [4494] [4226] Train regulations.—Every such corporation shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such passengers and property, as shall, within a reasonable time previous thereto, offer or be offered for transportation at the place of starting and at junctions of other roads and at sidings and stopping places established for or receiving and discharging way passengers and freight and shall take, transport and discharge such passengers and property at, from and to such places, on the due payment of the tolls, freight or fare legally authorized therefor. Failure on the part of railroad companies to comply with the requirements of this article shall be deemed an abuse of their rights and privileges and such abuse shall at once be corrected and regulated by the Railroad Commission. No railroad corporation nor any manager or receiver of any railroad shall ever abandon operation of its trains over said railroad or any part thereof, and if any railroad corporation, manager or receiver has or may hereafter abandon operation of its trains over its said railroad, or part thereof, the Railroad Commission of Texas shall at once issue its order directing said railroad corporation, manager or receiver to at once resume operation of its trains over said road or part thereof, in accordance with the orders, rules and regulations of the said Commission. [P. D. 4893; Acts 1st C. S. 1903, p. 21; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 189.]

Art. 6358. [6552] [4494] [4226] Action on abandonment.—If any railroad corporation, manager or receiver shall attempt to abandon any railroad, or part thereof, by failing to operate its trains or to resume operation of its trains over its said road, or part thereof, if the operation of trains has been abandoned, the Railroad Commission shall report the same to the Attorney General who shall at once file a suit in behalf of the State against said railroad corporation, manager or receiver in any district court of Travis County, or of any county through which said railroad may pass, for the purpose of determining whether or not said railroad corporation, manager or receiver has failed or refused to carry out the purpose of this law, and if the court shall determine that said corporation, manager or receiver has so failed or refused, said court shall appoint a receiver for the purpose of operating said railroad and carrying out the purposes of this law. The said receiver shall have no connection directly or indirectly with said railroad corporation, manager or receiver prior to the time of his appointment, but shall be a good business man well qualified to perform the duties of said receiver.

Said receiver shall collect freight and passenger rates as prescribed by said Commission and shall do and perform any and all things necessary in the operation of said trains over said road and shall report to the said court at such times as the decree of the court may prescribe, all his acts as such receiver. [Id.]

Art. 6359. Effect of preceding articles.—This law shall be considered cumulative of all laws of this State now in force on this subject when not in conflict herewith, but when in conflict herewith, this law shall control; but the provisions hereof shall not apply to railroads to which the right of eminent domain is not granted under the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 6360. [6554] [4496] [4227] Refusal to transport.—In case of the refusal by such corporation or their agents so to take and transport any passengers or property, or to deliver the same, or either of them, at the regularly appointed time, such corporation shall pay to the party aggrieved all damages which shall be sustained thereby, with costs of suit; and in case of the transportation of property shall in addition pay to such party special damages at the rate of five per cent per month upon the value of the same at the time of shipment, for the negligent detention thereof beyond the time reasonably necessary for its transportation. In suits against such corporation under this law, the burden of proof shall be on such corporation to show that the delay was not negligent. [Acts 1887, p. 116; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 914.]

Art. 6361. [6555] Double-decked cars for animals.—All railroad companies operating any railroad, or any part thereof, within this State, are required to provide cars with double decks for the shipment of sheep, goats, hogs and calves; the said cars must be in every way as large as those now in use upon the respective roads of this State; the distance between the floor and the second deck shall be the same as the distance between the second deck and the roof; the floor of the second deck shall be so constructed as to protect the animals beneath; and said cars must be furnished by the railroad company to any person who shall offer to ship at one time, hogs, sheep, goats or calves, in carload lots. [Acts 1887, p. 57; Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 483; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 855.]

Art. 6362. [6556] Rates of freight; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company to charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, goats, hogs or calves than is charged for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses the same distance, and in the same direction; and any railroad company that shall fail or refuse to furnish double-decked cars of the dimensions prescribed in the preceding article to any person who may wish to ship as much as a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, or shall charge more for shipping a double-decked carload of sheep, hogs, goats or calves, than for shipping a carload of other cattle or horses for the the same distance and in the same direction, shall be liable to pay to the owner or shipper of said sheep, hogs, goats, or calves, the sum of five hundred dollars as liquidated damages; provided, that if any railroad companies shall transport sheep, hogs, goats, and calves, on single-decked cars at one-half the price per carload charged for shipping horses, or other cattle, then the penalties prescribed in this article for failure to provide double-decked cars shall be inoperative. [Id.]

Art. 6363. [6557] Overcharge.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company in this State, its officers, agents or employes, to charge and collect or to endeavor to charge and collect from the owner, agent or consignee of any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, a greater sum for transporting said freight, goods, wares and merchandise than is specified in the bill of lading. [Acts 1899, p. 70.]

Art. 6364. [6558] Delivery on payment of charges.—Any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes, having possession of any goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, shall deliver the same to the owner, his agent or consignee, upon payment of the freight charges, as shown by the bill of lading. [Id.]

Art. 6365. [6559] Refusal to deliver freight.—If any railroad company, its officers, agents or employes shall refuse to deliver to the owner, agent or consignee, any freight, goods, wares and merchandise, of any kind or character whatsoever, upon the payment, or tender of payment, of the freight charges due as shown by the bill of lading, the said railroad company shall be liable in damages to the owner of said freight, goods, wares and merchandise, to an amount equal to the amount of freight charges, for every day said freight, goods, wares and merchandise is held after payment, or tender of payment, of the charges due as shown by the bill of lading. [Id.]

Art. 6366. Confiscating or converting freight.—No railroad company or receiver thereof, in this State shall confiscate, or otherwise convert to its own use, any carload shipment or substantial portion of any such carload shipment of any article or commodity of freight traffic received by it, or them, for transportation and delivery, without the express consent of the owner or consignee thereof, and the acts of the agents, officers and employes of such carrier or receiver within the apparent scope of their duties or authority with respect to such conversion or confiscation shall be deemed to be the acts of such railway company, receiver or other carrier. The provisions of this article shall not apply to conversion of freight where the same has been damaged or intermingled with other freight in wrecks, nor to refused or unclaimed freight, the delivery of which the railroad is unable to effect. [Acts 1917, p. 386.]

Art. 6367. Penalty.—In addition to all other remedies or penalties that may be provided by law therefor, the violation of any provision of the preceding article shall subject the railway company, or receiver or other common carrier so offending to a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars in favor of the State of Texas, and a further penalty of twice the amount of the purchase price of the converted shipment in favor of the owner or consignee thereof. [Id]

Art. 6368. [6560-1] Badge.—Every conductor, baggage master, engineer, brakeman or other servant of such railroad corporation employed in a passenger train, or at its stations for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office and the initial letters or the style of the corporation by which he is employed. No conductor or collector without such badge shall demand or be entitled to receive from any passenger any fare, toll ticket, or exercise any power of his office, and no other of the said officers or servants, without such badge, shall have any authority to meddle or interfere with the passengers, their baggage or property.

Art. 6369. [6562] [4505] [4230] Baggage.—A check shall be affixed to every package or parcel of baggage when taken for transportation by the agent or servant of such corporation, and a duplicate thereof given to the passenger or person delivering the same on his behalf; and, if such check be refused on demand, the corporation shall pay to such passenger the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt; and further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger; and, if such passenger shall have paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the train.

Art. 6370. [6563] [4506] [4231] Signs at cross-roads.—Such corporation shall erect at all points where its road shall cross any first or second class public road, at a sufficient elevation from such public road to admit of the free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railroad and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for the cars; and any company neglecting or refusing to erect such signs shall be liable in damages for all injuries occurring to persons or property from such neglect or refusal. [P. D. 4890.]

Art. 6371. [6564] [4507] [4232] Bell and whistle.—A bell of at least thirty pounds weight and a steam whistle shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and the whistle shall be blown and the bell rung at a distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, and such bell shall be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such public road, or stopped; and each locomotive engine approaching a place where two lines of railway cross each other shall, before reaching such railway crossing be brought to a full stop; and the corporation operating such railway shall be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of any such neglect. The full stop at such crossings may be discontinued when the railroads crossing each other shall put into full operation at such crossing an interlocking switch and signal apparatus and shall keep a flagman in attendance at such crossing. [Acts 1883, p. 28; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 334; Acts 1893, p. 87; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 517.]

Art. 6372. [6565-6] Headlights.—Every railroad corporation or receiver or lessee thereof, operating any line of railroad in this State, shall equip all locomotive engines used in the transportation of trains over said railroad with electric or other headlights of not less than fifteen hundred candle power, measured without the aid of a reflector. This article shall not apply to locomotive engines regularly used in the switching of cars or trains. Any railroad company or the receiver or lessee thereof doing business in the State of Texas, which shall violate any provision of this article, shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such suit may be brought in the name of the State in Travis County or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General, or by the county or district attorney in any county in or through which such line of railroad may be operated; and such suit shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1907, p. 54.]

Art. 6373. [6567] Switch lights.—Every railway corporation operating any line of railway in this State shall place and maintain good and sufficient switch lights on all their main line switches connected with the main line, and keep the same lighted from sunset until sunrise. This article shall not apply to railways which have all their locomotives equipped with electric headlights, nor on railroad lines or divisions on which no trains are regularly run or operated at night. [Acts 1905, p. 77.]

Art. 6374. [6568] Derailing switches on sidings.—Every railroad corporation operating any line of railway in Texas shall place and maintain good and safe derailing switches on all of their sidings connecting with the main line of such railway and upon which siding cars are left standing. No derailing switches shall be required where the siding connects with the main line on an upgrade in the direction of the main line of one half of one per cent or over, nor on inside tracks at terminal points where regular switching crews are employed. [Id.]

Art. 6375. [6569] Penalty. — Any railway corporation which shall wilfully violate any provision of the two preceding articles shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suits therefor be brought by the Attorney General, or under his direction, in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county through which such railway may run or be operated, and such suits shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1905, p. 77.]

Art. 6376. Using tracks to make or repair cars.—No firm, corporation or receiver operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in repairing or manufacturing cars within this State, shall use any tracks not equipped with derailing devices upon which to repair or manufacture cars; such derailing devices to be provided with private locks, to be kept locked at all times when tracks are in use. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit temporary repairs to cars on tracks other than where cars are regularly repaired or manufactured. Any firm, corporation or receiver operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in repairing or manufacturing cars in this State, who shall violate this law shall forfeit and pay a penalty to the State of Texas of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day such violation shall exist shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1913, p. 334.]

Art. 6377. [6570] [4508] [4233] Forming passenger trains.—In forming a passenger train, baggage or freight, or merchandise, or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of passenger cars; and if they or any of them shall be so placed and any accident happen to life or limb, the officer or agent who so directed or knowingly suffered such arrangement and the conductor and engineer of the train shall each be held guilty of intentionally causing the injury, and be punished accordingly. [P. D. 4896.]

Art. 6378. [6571] 4517] [4234] Brakes and brakemen.—Every such company shall have a good and sufficient brake upon the hindmost car on all trains transporting passengers and merchandise, and also keep stationed there at all times a trusty and faithful brakeman, under a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State. [P. D. 4907.]

Art. 6379. Air brake inspection.—The air brakes and air brake attachment on each train in this State must be inspected by a competent inspector before such train leaves its division terminal. This article shall not apply to tram roads engaged in hauling logs to saw mills, nor to railroads under forty miles in length. Any corporation or receiver who operates or causes to be operated any such train without such inspection shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit. Each operation of any such train without such inspection first having been so made shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1911, p. 106.]

Art. 6380. [6572 to 76] Full crew.—No railroad company or receiver of any railroad company doing business in this State shall run over its road, or part of its road, outside of the yard limits:

1. Any passenger train with less than a full passenger crew consisting of four persons: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and one brakeman.

2. Any freight train, gravel train or construction train with less than a full crew consisting of five persons: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and two brakemen.

3. Any light engine without a full train crew consisting of three persons: one engineer, one fireman and one conductor.

4. The provisions of this article shall not apply to nor include any railroad company or receiver thereof, of any line of railroad in this State, less than twenty miles in length; and nothing in subdivisions one and two hereof shall apply in case of disability of one or more of any train crew while out on the road between division terminals, or to switching crews in charge of yard engines, or which may be required to push trains out of the yard limits.

Any such company or receiver which shall violate any provision of this article shall be liable to this State for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Suit for such penalty shall be brought in Travis County or in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General, or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any county in or through which such railroad may be operated. Such suits shall be subject to the provisions of Article 6477. [Acts 1909, p. 179.]

Art. 6381. [6577 to 6580] Ash pans.—No common carrier engaged in moving commerce in this State by railroad shall use in moving such commerce in this State any locomotive not equipped with an ash pan which can be dumped or emptied and cleaned without the necessity of any employe going under such locomotive. This article shall not apply to any locomotive upon which an ash pan is not necessary by reason of the use of oil, electricity or other such agency in such locomotive. Any such common carrier which shall violate the provisions of this article shall be liable to this State for a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of this State in Travis County or in any county into or through which such carrier may be operating a line of railroad. Such suit may be brought by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the county or district attorney in any such county. The same compensation shall be allowed the attorney bringing such suit as provided in Article 6477. "Common carrier" as used in this article shall include the receiver or other person or corporation charged with the duty of managing and operating the business of a common carrier. [Acts 1909, p. 67.]

Art. 6382. [6709] Brakes.—No railroad engaged in intrastate commerce within this State shall use on its lines in moving intrastate traffic within said State any locomotive engine not equipped with a power driving wheel brake and appliances for operating the train brake system, or run any train in such traffic that has not sufficient number of cars in it so equipped with power or train brakes that the engineer on the locomotive drawing such train can control its speed without requiring brakemen to use the common hand brake for that purpose, nor run any train in such traffic that has not all of the power or train brakes in it used and operated by such engineer, nor run any train in such traffic that has not at least seventy-five per centum of the cars in it equipped with power or train brakes; and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect the objects of this and the five succeeding articles, the Commission may from time to time, after full hearing by public order, increase the minimum percentage of cars in any train which shall be equipped with power or train brakes; and after such minimum percentage has been so increased, it shall be unlawful for any common carrier to run any train in such traffic which does not comply with such increased minimum percentage. [Acts 1909, p. 64.]

Art. 6383. [6710] Improved couplers.—No common carrier engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall haul or permit to be hauled or used on its line of railroad within this State, any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle employed in moving intrastate traffic within this State which is not equipped with couplers, coupling automatically by impact, and which can be coupled and uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the ends of locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles. [Id.]

Art. 6384. [6711] Drawbar of engine.—No common carrier engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall use in moving intrastate traffic within this State any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle, any drawbar of which, when measured perpendicularly from the level of the tops of the track rails upon which such locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle is standing to the center of such drawbar more than thirty-four and one-half inches in height. [Id.]

Art. 6385. [6712] May refuse rolling stock.—When any person, firm, company, corporation or receiver engaged in commerce as aforesaid shall have equipped a sufficient number of its locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles so as to comply with the provisions of this title, it may lawfully refuse to receive from connecting lines of road or shippers, any locomotives, tenders, cars, or similar vehicles not equipped with such power or train brakes as will work and readily interchange with the brakes in use on its own locomotives, tenders, cars and similar vehicles as required by law.

Art. 6386. [6713] Rolling stock.—No common carrier, engaged in commerce as aforesaid, shall use in moving intrastate traffic within this State any locomotive, tender, cars, or similar vehicle which is not provided with sufficient and secure grab irons, hand holds and foot stirrups. [Id.]

Art. 6387. [6714] Penalty.—Every such common carrier, whether a co-partnership, a corporation, a receiver or an individual or association of individuals, violating any of the provisions of the five preceding articles shall be liable to the State of Texas for a penalty of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. Such penalty shall be recovered and suit brought in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such line of railroad may run, by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the County or district attorney in the county in which the suit is brought, and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected, to be paid by the State, and the fees and compensation so allowed shall not be accounted for under the general fee law.

Art. 6388. [6646] No risk assumed.—Any employe of any common carrier engaged in any intrastate commerce, as provided in the six preceding articles who may be injured or killed shall not be held to have assumed the risk of his employment, or to have been guilty of contributory negligence, if the violation by such common carrier of any provision of said articles contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Id.]

Art. 6389. [6581-2-3] Provision for employes.—Every person, corporation, or receiver, engaged in constructing or repairing railroad cars, trucks or other railroad equipment, shall erect and maintain a building or shed at every station or other point where as many a five men are regularly employed on such repair work, the building or shed to cover a sufficient portion of its track so as to provide that all men regularly employed in the construction and repair of cars, trucks, or other railroad equipment shall be sheltered and protected from inclement weather. The provisions of this article shall not apply at points where less than five men are regularly employed in the repair service, nor at division terminals, nor other points where it is necessary to make light repairs only on cars, nor to cars loaded with time or perishable freight, nor to cars when trains are being held for the movement of said cars. Any person, corporation or receiver who shall violate any provision of this article shall pay to the State a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. Each ten days of such failure or refusal to so comply shall be considered a separate infraction authorizing the recovery of a separate penalty. Suit for recovery of penalty hereunder shall be brought by the Attorney General or by the county or district attorney of the county in which suit is brought, and the county or district attorney, as the case may be, shall receive a fee of ten per cent upon each penalty recovered and collected by him, and said fee shall be over and above the fees allowed under the general fee bill. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 123.]

Art. 6390. [6584] Sixteen hours.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, operating any line of railroad in whole or in part in this State, or any officer or agent of such railroad company or receiver to require or permit any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours; and whenever any such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours, he shall be relieved and shall not be required or permitted again to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty; and no such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty. [Acts 1909, p. 180.]

Art. 6391. [6585] Penalties.—Any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad, operating a line of railroad in whole or in part in this State, or any officer or agent of such railroad or receiver who shall violate any provision of the preceding article shall be liable to a penalty to the State of not to exceed five hundred dollars for each violation. Suit for such penalty shall be brought in the name of the State in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such railroad may run, and may be brought either by the Attorney General, or under his direction, or by the county attorney or district attorney of any county or judicial district into or through which such railroad may pass, and such attorney bringing any such suit shall be entitled to one-third of any penalty recovered therein. In all prosecutions under this and the preceding article against any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad company, such company or receiver shall be deemed to have had knowledge of all acts of all of its officers and agents. The provisions of this and the preceding article shall not apply in any case of casualty or unavoidable accident, or the Act of God; nor where the delay was the result of a cause not known to the carrier or its officer or agent in charge of any conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman at the time such conductor, engineer, fireman or brakeman left a terminal, and which act could not have been foreseen; nor to crews of wrecking or relief trains. [Id.]

Art. 6392. [6588] [4518] [4235] Carrying mail.—Every such corporation shall, when applied to by the Postmaster General, convey the mail of the United States on its road or roads; and in case such corporation shall not agree as to the rate of transportation therefor, and as to the time, rate of speed, manner and condition of conveying the same, the Governor shall appoint three commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after fifteen days written notice to the corporation of the time and place of meeting, shall determine and fix the prices, terms and conditions aforesaid; but such price shall not be less for conveying such mails in the regular passenger trains than the amount which such corporation would receive as freight on a like weight of merchandise transported in their merchandise trains and fair compensation for the post-office car; and if the Postmaster General shall require the mail to be carried at other hours, or at a higher speed than the passenger train be run at, the corporation shall furnish an extra train for the mail, and be allowed an extra compensation for the expenses and wear and tear thereof and for the service, to be fixed as aforesaid. [P. D. 4903.]

Art. 6393. [6589] [4519] [4236] Freight depots.—Railroad companies shall erect at each depot, station, or place established by such company for the reception and delivery of freight, suitable buildings or inclosures to protect produce, goods, wares, and merchandise and freight of every description from damage by exposure to weather, stock or otherwise; in default of which such railroad company shall be liable to the owner of such produce, goods, wares or merchandise for the amount of damages or loss sustained by reason of such improper exposure, together with all costs and expenses of recovering the same, including necessary attorneys' fees. [P. D. 4923.]

Art. 6394. [6590] [4520] [4237] Storage.—Railroad companies shall in no case be allowed to charge storage upon freight received by them for delivery, unless the owner or consignee thereof neglect to remove it from the depot of the company within three days after notice of its reception; which notice may be given by posting the same on the depot door; and, after the expiration of such time, the company may remove and store said freight at the expense of the owner or consignee, and said freight shall be held liable for the freight and charges due thereon. [P. D. 4923.]

Art. 6395. [6591] [4521] [4238] Passenger depots.—Every railroad company doing business in this State shall keep its depots or passenger houses in this State lighted and warmed, and opened to the ingress and egress of all passengers who are entitled to go therein, for a time not less than one hour before the arrival and after the departure of all trains carrying passengers on such railroad; and every such railroad company, for each failure or refusal to comply with any provision of this article shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas, the sum of fifty dollars, and shall be liable to the party injured for all damages by reason of such failure. [Acts 1891, p. 29; Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 483, No. 89; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 31.]

Art. 6396. [6592] Water closets.—All railroad and railway corporations operating a line of railway in this State for the transportation of passengers thereon are required to construct and maintain, and keep in a reasonably clean and sanitary condition, suitable and separate water closets or privies for both male and female persons at each passenger station on its line of railway, either within its passenger depot or in connection therewith, or within a reasonable and convenient distance therefrom, at such station for the accommodation of its passengers who are received and discharged from its cars thereat, and of its patrons and employes who have business with such railroads and corporations at such stations. [Acts 1905, p. 324; Acts 1909, p. 175.]

Art. 6397. [6593] Separate closets.—They shall keep said

water closets and depot grounds adjacent thereto well lighted at such hours in the night time as its passengers and patrons at such stations may have occasion to be at the same, either for the purpose of taking passage on its trains, or waiting for the arrival thereof, or after leaving the same for at least thirty minutes before the schedule time for the arrival of its train and after the arrival thereof at said station. [Id.]

Art. 6398. [6594] Penalties.—Any railroad or railway corporation which fails, neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of the two preceding articles shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas the sum of fifty dollars for each week it so fails and neglects. The county attorney of the county in which such station is located, and in case there is no such county attorney, then the attorney of the district including said county, shall, upon credible information furnished him, institute suits in the name of the State of Texas against such defaulting railroad or railway corporation for the recovery of said penalties; and, in case of said recovery, the said attorney shall be entitled to one-fourth the amount thereof as commission for his said services, and the remainder thereof shall be paid into the road and bridge fund of said county. The State shall in no event be liable for any costs in such suit. [Id.]

Art. 6399. [6595] [4522] [4239] Switch cars.—When a company constructs a switch on its road for the accommodation of freighters, they shall be bound to furnish a sufficient number of cars for the transportation of freight therefrom when requested to do so, and in default shall be subject to the same penalties as in other cases of neglect of the like character.

Art. 6400. [6596 to 6600] Cattle-guards.—Every railroad company whose railroad passes through a field or inclosure, shall place a good and sufficient cattle-guard or stop at the points of entering such field or inclosure, and keep them in good repair. If such field or inclosure shall be enlarged or extended, or the owner of any land over which a railway runs shall clear and open a field so as to embrace the track of a railway, such railroad company shall place good and sufficient cattle-guards or stops at the margins of such extended inclosures or fields or such new fields and keep the same in repair. Such cattle-guards or stops shall be so constructed and kept in repair as to protect such fields and inclosures from the depredations of stock of every description. If such company fails to construct and keep in repair such cattle-guards and stops, the owner of such inclosure or field may have such cattle-guards and stops placed at the proper places and kept in repair, and may recover the costs thereof from such railroad company, unless it be shown that said enlargement or extension was made capriciously and with intent to annoy and molest such company. If any company neglects to construct the proper cattle-guards and stops and keep the same in repair as required in this article, such company shall be liable to the party injured by such neglect for all damages that may result from such neglect, to be recovered by suit. [Acts 1860, p. 64; G. L., Vol. 4, p. 1426; P. D. 4925.]

Art. 6401. [6601-2] Johnson grass and thistle.—If any railroad or railway company or corporation doing business in this State shall permit any Johnson grass or Russian thistle to mature or go to seed upon any right of way owned, leased or controlled by it, any person owning, leasing or controlling land contiguous to said right of way shall recover twenty-five dollars by suit from such company or corporation, and any additional sum as he may have been damaged by reason of said grass or said thistle being permitted to so mature or go to seed; provided that any person owning or controlling land contiguous to said right of way who permits any said grass or thistle to mature or go to seed upon said land shall have no right to such recovery. [Acts 1901, p. 283.]

Art. 6402. [6603] [4528] [4245] Killing stock.—Each railroad company shall be liable to the owner for the value of all stock killed or injured by the locomotives and cars of such railroad company in running over their respective railways. Such liability shall also exist in counties and subdivisions of counties which adopt the stock law prohibiting the running at large of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle. If said company fence its road it shall only be liable for injury resulting from a want of ordinary care. [Acts 1905, p. 226; P. D. 4926.]

Art. 6403. Report of animals killed.—Whenever an animal is killed or found dead upon the railroad or right of way of any railroad company in this State, the section foreman of the railroad where said animal is killed or found dead, shall make a description of such animal, stating its kind, the marks and brands, color and apparent age, and any other description that may serve to identify said animal, which description must be made before said animal is buried or otherwise disposed of, and shall send same to the county clerk of the county in which said animal is found or killed within ten days from the date of finding or killing, which description shall be by said county clerk filed and kept of record in his office without exacting any fees from said section foreman for filing same. A certified copy of said report so filed may be introduced in evidence in any case wherein the killing, death or value of said animal is in question. [Acts 1915, p. 126.]

Art. 6404. [6604-5-6] Consolidation of railroad corporations.—“Railroad corporation,” or “other corporation,” as used in this article shall mean any corporation, company, person or association of persons, who own or control, manage or operate any line of railroad in this State. No railroad corporation or other corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any railroad corporation, shall consolidate the stocks, property, works or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the stocks, property, works or franchises of any railroad corporation owning or having under its control or management a competing or parallel line; nor shall any officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of such railroad corporation act or become an officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of any other corporation in leasing or purchasing any parallel or competing line. No railroad company organized under the laws of this State shall consolidate, by private or judicial sale or otherwise, with any railroad company organized under the laws of any other State, or of the United States. [Acts 1887, p. 137; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 935; Const. Art 10, Sec. 6.]

Art. 6405. [6607] [4532] [4248] Map and profile of road.—Every such corporation shall, within a reasonable time after their road shall be located, cause to be made:

1. A map and profile thereof, and of the land taken or obtained for the use thereof, and file the same in the office of the Railroad Commission. Every such map shall be drawn on a scale and on paper to be designated by the Railroad Commission and certified and signed by the president of the corporation.

2. A certificate specifying the line upon which it is proposed to construct the railroad and the grades and curves, certified and signed and filed as aforesaid.

3. Any railroad company failing or refusing to comply with any provision of this article shall forfeit to the State of Texas any sum not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; and each day such railroad company fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1893, p. 169; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 599.]

Art. 6406. [6675] [4579] Contract of connecting lines.—Any two connecting railroads may enter into a contract whereby any part or all the passengers, freight or cars, empty or loaded, hauled or transported by one and destined to points on or beyond the line of the other, shall be delivered to, received and transported by the other, which contract, however, shall be submitted to the Commission for examination and approval, and when so approved shall be binding, but if said contract be not approved by the Commission, the same shall be void. Any connecting line delivering freight to the owner or consignee of such freight may be sued by the owner thereof in the county where the freight is delivered for any damage that may be done to such freight in its transportation. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6407. [6608] [4535] [4251] Freight and passengers from connecting lines.—All railway companies doing business in this State shall be and they are hereby required to receive from all railway companies with which they may connect at the State line of this State, or at any place within this State, or at any or all places where they may cross the line of any other railway doing business, or operating a line of railway in this State, all freights and passengers coming to it from such connecting line, and destined to points on its line, or to points beyond its line or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the next connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against the line from which such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such line for like or similar service against any other railway in or out of this State with which it does business; provided, however, that the words "without delay or discrimination," as used herein, are hereby declared to mean that the freight received for transportation as herein required shall be shipped in the order in which it is received, giving preference in all cases to live stock and other perishable freight in the order received; and the charges for the business required by this article to be interchanged shall be no greater pro rata per cent per mile for freight, and no greater rate per mile for passengers and baggage, than is charged to any other line for transporting like freight and passengers and baggage, or than it accepts for itself when transported wholly on its own line, no matter on what part the line or in what direction the transporting is done. [Acts 1887, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 908.]

Art. 6408. [6609] [4536] [4252] What are connecting lines.—Whenever any two or more railroads doing business in this State shall connect with each other by crossing each other's tracks or otherwise so as to form a continuous or connected line from one point in the State to another point in this State, such lines so crossing are hereby declared to be connecting lines; and when such connecting lines receive from any other railway or transportation line passengers or freight for transportation over the combined line at a rate or division agreed upon between themselves and such other railway or transportation line from which the business is received as aforesaid, then, in every such case, it shall be the duty of such connecting railways forming such through line, and of either or both of them, to receive from every other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them may connect by crossing of track or otherwise, all passengers or freight that may be destined to points on either of the lines making up such combined line, and transport the same to the point of destination, if on such combined lines, or either of them, or to the next connection or crossing in the direction of the destination of such freight or passengers, without delay or discrimination, and at no greater rate than is paid, and on the same conditions as is or shall be required by such combined line for like or similar services from any other railway or transportation line with which they or either of them shall interchange business. [Id.]

Art. 6409. [6610] [4537] [4253] Terms, etc.—Every railroad, or person, or corporation, operating a railway for the carriage of freight and passengers in this State shall receive freight, passengers and baggage for transportation to or into this State, or through any part thereof, from every other connecting railway, upon the same terms and conditions as to the division of charges for carrying or transporting the same upon a mileage, or any other basis, and upon terms and conditions as to bills of lading, way bills, tickets, coupon tickets and baggage checks, that any such person or corporation or transportation line may receive or contract to receive from any other person or corporation engaged in like business in this State; and, where railroads within this State receive goods for transportation into their warehouses or depots, they shall forward them in the order in which they are received, the first received to be the first forwarded, without giving the preference to one over another; and in case of failure to do so they shall be liable for all loss occurring while the goods remain, and for all damage occasioned or in anywise resulting from delay; provided that the trip or voyage shall be considered as having commenced from the time of the signing of bill of lading, and as having ended upon the arrival of freight at point of destination, and written notices served upon the consignee that it is ready for delivery upon payment of freight and charges. If the consignee of the goods fails to receive them promptly after such notice is served, the liability of the railroads thereafter shall be the same as that of warehousemen. [Acts 1885, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 687.]

Art. 6410. [6611] Water craft freight.—Each railway company doing business in this State shall be required to receive from all steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, at their usual places for receiving such freights at the several ports on the coast of Texas, and on the inland waterways in this State, all freights and passengers coming to it from such steamships, steamboats and other water craft and vessels, and destined to points on its line or to points beyond its line, or any other line of railway with which said line may connect or cross, and shall transport the same over its said line to destination, if on its line, or to the connecting or cross line in the direction of destination, if beyond its line, without delay or discrimination in favor of or against such steamship line, steamboat owner or company, or the owner of any other water craft or other vessels from whom such freight or passengers are received, and upon the same terms and conditions with those made by such railway company for like or similar service with any other person, steamboat company, steamship company or owners, or any other water craft or vessel, with which it does business at such points or stations as aforesaid. [Acts 1899, p. 101.]

Art. 6411. [6612-13] Penalty.—If any railroad company doing business in this State shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any steamship line or company or with any steamboat line or company, or any other water craft or vessel on the same terms and conditions, or for the same compensation or pro rata that it interchanges business with any other steamship line or company, steamboat line or company, or any other water craft or vessel, it shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this chapter; and shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, to be collected in the manner and in the courts as prescribed for the collection of other penalties in Article 6477, and in addition thereto shall forfeit and pay to the corporation, person or persons aggrieved thereby, the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each act of discrimination or violation of this law which may be recovered in the name of the corporation, person or persons so suing. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any damages by an aggrieved person, firm, or corporation accruing by reason of the violation of this article. This and the preceding article shall not have the effect to relieve or waive any right of action by the State, or any other person, firm or corporation for any right, penalty or forfeiture which has arisen, or may arise, under any law of this State. All penalties accruing under said articles shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Id.]

Art. 6412. [6414] [4538] [4254] Trustee for connecting lines.—Every railway which may interchange business with any other connecting railway under the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise, is hereby declared to be a trustee for such connecting railway to the extent of all sums of money received by it for the joint business interchanged between them, and which may properly belong to such other railway. Such sums of money shall be due and payable from one connecting line to the other once every ninety days; and each connecting railway shall have a lien upon the property and franchises of the connecting railways to the extent of the balance due each quarter, which lien shall be superior to all other liens upon said property and franchises, save and except laborers liens as already provided by law, and may be enforced in any court of this State having jurisdiction by law of the subject matter and the parties. [Acts 1887, p. 110; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 908.]

Art. 6413. [6615] [4539] [4255] Refusal to interchange.—If any railway company doing business in this State shall fail or refuse to interchange business with any other railway company, or shall fail or refuse to interchange business on the same terms or for the same pro rata that it interchanges business with any other railway company in this State, or shall fail or refuse to honor or receive the tickets, coupon tickets, way bills or baggage checks of any connecting railway upon the same terms and conditions that it receives or honors the tickets, coupon tickets, way bills, or baggage checks of any other railway company, or shall violate in any manner any other provision of this and the three preceding articles, such railway company shall be deemed guilty of discrimination within the meaning of this title, and shall forfeit and pay to the person or corporation aggrieved thereby the sum of one thousand dollars as penal damages for each act of discrimination or violation of this law, which may be recovered in the name of the person or corporation so suing. Nothing in this article shall be so construed as to prevent the recovery of any other damages by any aggrieved person, firm or corporation, occurring by reason of the violation of this or the three preceding articles. [Acts 1887, p. 112; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 910.]

Art. 6414. [6616-17] Service for express business.—Every railroad company operating a railroad within this State shall furnish reasonable and equal facilities and accommodations, and upon reasonable and equal rates, to all corporations and persons engaged in the the express business, for the transportation of themselves, agents, servants, merchandise and other property, and for the use of their cars, depots, buildings and grounds and for exchanges at points of junction with other roads. Any railroad company which shall fail to comply with the provisions hereof shall be liable to the aggrieved party, in an action for damages; and such railway company, in addition to liability to said action for damages, shall be subject to a writ of mandamus, to be issued by any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel compliance with the provisions of this article. The said writ of mandamus shall issue at the instance of any party or corporation aggrieved by a violation hereof, and any violation of said writ shall be punishable as a contempt. [Id.]

Art. 6415. [6637-38] Ticket agent.—Each railroad company doing business in this State, or the receiver of any such railroad company, through their duly authorized officers, shall provide each agent who may be authorized to sell tickets, or other evidences, entitling the holder to travel upon any such railroad, with a certificate setting forth the authority of such agent to make such sale. Such certificate shall be duly attested by the corporate seal of such railroad company, or the signature of the receiver, if any there be, of such railroad company, or by the signature of the officer whose name is signed upon the tickets or coupons which such agent may be authorized to sell. Each such ticket agent shall keep said certificate posted in a conspicuous place in his office, and upon demand shall exhibit it to any person desiring to purchase a ticket, or to any officer of the law. [Acts 1893, p. 97; Acts 1903, p. 162; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 527.]

Art. 6416. [6618] [4542] Passenger fare.—The passenger fare upon all railroads in this State shall be three cents per mile, with an allowance of baggage to each passenger not to exceed one hundred pounds in weight; provided, however, that, where the fare is paid to the conductor, the rate shall be four cents per mile, except from stations where no tickets are sold, and that the minimum charges in no case shall be less than twenty-five cents; and provided, further that when the passenger fare does not end in five or naught, the nearest sum so ending shall be the fare; provided, that in no case shall children under ten years of age be charged a higher rate of fare than two cents per mile. Railroads shall be required to keep their ticket offices open for half an hour prior to the departure of trains, and upon failure to do so they shall not charge more than three cents per mile. [Acts 1883, p. 70; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 376.]

Art. 6417. [6746 to 6753] Separate coaches.—

1. Every railway company, street car company, and interurban railway company, lessee, manager, or receiver thereof, doing business in this State as a common carrier of passengers for hire, shall provide separate coaches or compartments, as hereinafter provided, for the accommodation of white and negro passengers, which separate coaches or compartments shall be equal in all points of comfort and convenience.

2. "Negro" defined.—The term "negro" as used herein, includes every person of African descent as defined by the statutes of this State.

3. "Separate coach" defined.—Each compartment of a railroad coach divided by good and substantial wooden partitions with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this law, and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart; and each compartment of a street car or interurban car divided by a board or marker placed in a conspicuous place, bearing appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart, shall be sufficient as a separate compartment within the meaning of this law.

4. Penalty.—Any railway company, street car company, or interurban railroad company, lessee, manager or receiver thereof, which shall fail to provide its cars bearing passengers with separate coaches or compartments, as above provided for, shall be liable for each failure to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State; and each trip run with such train or street car or interurban car without such separate coach or compartment shall be deemed a separate offense.

5. Exceptions.—This article shall not apply to any excursion train or street car or interurban car as such for the benefit of either race, nor to such freight trains as carry passengers in cabooses, nor be so construed as to prevent railroad companies from hauling sleeping cars, dining or cafe cars or chair cars attached to their trains to be used exclusively by either race, separately but not jointly, or to prevent nurses from traveling in any coach or compartment with their employer, or employes upon the train or cars in the discharge of their duty.

6. Law to be posted.—Every railroad company carrying passengers in this State shall keep this law posted in a conspicuous place in each passenger depot and each passenger coach provided in this law.

7. Duty of conductor.—Conductors of passenger trains, street cars, or interurban lines provided with separate coaches shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach or compartment in which they are not entitled to ride under the provisions of this law, and the conductor in charge of the train or street car or interurban car shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to remove from a coach or street car, or interurban car, any passenger not entitled to ride therein under the provisions of this law. [Acts 1891, p. 44; Acts 1907, p. 58; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 46.]

Art. 6418. [6633-4] Failure to build and equip.—If any railroad corporation organized under this title shall not within two years after its articles of association shall be filed and recorded as provided in this title, begin the construction of its road, and construct, equip and put in good running order at least ten miles of its proposed road, and, if any such railroad corporation, after the first two years, shall fail to construct, equip and put into good running order at least twenty additional miles of its road each and every succeeding year until the entire completion of its line, such corporation shall, in either of such cases, forfeit its corporate existence, and its powers shall cease as far as relates to that portion of said road then unfinished, and shall be incapable of resumption by any subsequent act of incorporation. The provisions of this article shall not apply to or in any manner affect railway companies incorporated for the construction and operation of urban, suburban and belt railroads for a distance of less than ten miles, as provided in Chapter 1 of this title; provided, that all such companies shall, within twelve months from the date of their charter, complete a portion of their road and commence and continue the running of the cars thereon. This article shall apply as well to branch lines as to main lines of railroads. [Acts 1876, pp 143, 149 G. L. Vol. 8, pp. 979, 985; Acts 1879, S. S. p. 47; G. L. Vol 9, p. 79; Acts 1889, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1045.]

Art. 6419. [6636] [4560] [4280] Neglect to make annual report.—Any railroad corporation which shall neglect to make the annual report required by this title to the Comptroller or Governor and which has been notified by the Comptroller or Governor of such failure and shall still neglect to make such report within three months after such notice shall forfeit its charter.

Art. 6420. [6619] [4543] [4259] Subject to execution.—The rolling stock and all other movable property belonging to any railroad company or corporation shall be considered personal property. Its real and personal property or any part thereof shall be liable to execution and sale in the same manner as the property of individuals, and no such property shall be exempt from execution and sale. [Const. Art. 10, Sec. 4.]

Art. 6421. [6624] [4549] [4260] Road sold for debts.—In case of the sale of the property and franchises of a railroad company, whether by virtue of an execution, order of sale, deed of trust, or any other power, or by a receiver acting under judgment heretofore or to be hereafter rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, and associates, if any, shall acquire full title to such property and franchises, with full power to maintain and operate the railroad and other property incident to it, under the restrictions imposed by law; provided, that said purchaser or purchasers, and associates, if any, shall not be deemed to be the owners of the charter of the railroad company and corporations under the same, nor vested with the powers, rights, privileges and benefits of such charter ownership as if they were the original corporators of said company, unless the purchaser or purchasers, and associates, if any, shall agree to take and hold said property and franchises charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and for personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company, and by any receiver thereof, and for loss of and damage to property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the company and by any receiver thereof, and for the current expenses of such operation, including labor, supplies and repairs; provided that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of said property and franchises or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed or when the sale was made, in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within the two years; such agreement to be evidenced by a written instrument signed and acknowledged by said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Such charter, together with the powers, rights and privileges and benefits thereof, shall pass to said purchaser or purchasers and associates, if any, subject to the provisions and limitations imposed and to be imposed by law. The amount of stock and bonds which may be held against said property and franchises, after the sale thereof, as well as the manner of issuance of such stock and bonds shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas at its discretion save that the total incumbrance secured by the lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by Article 6521. [Acts 1910, 4th C. S. p. 120.]

Art. 6422. [6625] [4550] New corporation, how formed.—
In case of a sale of the property and franchises of a railroad company within this State the purchaser or purchasers thereof and associates, if any, may form a corporation under the first chapter of this title, for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating the road so purchased, as if such road were the road intended to be constructed by the corporation; and, when such charter has been filed, the new corporation shall have the powers and privileges then conferred by the laws of this State upon chartered railroads, including the power to construct and extend. The property and franchises so purchased shall be charged with and subject to the payment of all subsisting liabilities and claims for death and personal injuries sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold out company and by any receiver thereof and for loss of and damage to the property sustained in the operation of the railroad by the sold out company and by any receiver thereof and for the current expenses of such operation including labor, supplies and repairs, provided that all such subsisting claims and liabilities shall have accrued within two years prior to the beginning of the receivership resulting in the sale of such property and franchises, or within two years prior to the sale, if said property and franchises be sold otherwise than under receivership proceedings, unless suit was pending on such claims and liabilities when the receiver was appointed, or when the sale was made; in which event claims and liabilities on which suits were so pending shall be protected hereby as though accruing within two years; and provided, that by such purchase and organization no right shall be acquired in conflict with the present Constitution and laws, in any respect, nor shall the main track of any railroad once constructed and operated be abandoned or moved. The amount of stock and bonds which may be issued by said new corporation, as well as the manner of their issuance, shall be fixed, determined and regulated by the Railroad Commission of Texas at its discretion, save that the total encumbrance secured by lien on said property and franchises shall not exceed the amount allowed by Article 6521 of the Revised Statutes of Texas. This and the preceding article shall not be construed to in anywise repeal or impair the provisions of Chapter 12 of this Title except in so far as the same may be changed thereby. [Acts 1889, p. 19; Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 120; G.L. Vol. 9, p. 1047.]

Art. 6423. [6626] [4551] Jurisdiction.—No railway company availing itself of any of the privileges herein provided shall claim to be under the jurisdiction of the Federal courts by reason thereof; and any railway company which may avail itself of the said privileges which shall claim to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal courts in pursuance of this article shall ipso facto forfeit its reorganization and be remanded to the same condition as it was prior to said reorganization. [Id.]

Art. 6424. [6627] [4552] [4261] Sale under deed of trust.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights and privileges of any railroad company is made by virtue of any deed of trust or power the same shall be made at the time and place mentioned in the deed of trust or power and in accordance with the provisions of the same as to notice, and in other respects; and if the same be not specified, such sale shall not be made as hereinafter provided for sales under execution or order of sale. [P. D. 4913.]

Art. 6425. [6628] [4553] [4262] Judgment, execution, etc.—Whenever judgment is rendered against any railroad company, execution shall issue thereon and be levied and collected as in other civil causes, except that when the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of said railroad company is levied upon, the levy and sale must take place in the county where the principal office of such company is situated, and the entire roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of such company shall be levied upon and sold. The provisions of this article shall be observed so far as they are applicable in all cases where, by any decree of a competent court, a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges of any railroad company is directed to be made. [P. D. 4914.]

Art. 6426. [6629] [4554] [4263] Unpaid stock subscriptions.—The sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered rights, as herein provided, shall not be held to pass or convey to the purchaser any right or claim to recover from the former stockholders of said company any sums which may remain due upon their subscriptions of stock, but the said stockholders shall continue liable to pay the same in discharge and liquidation of the debts due by the sold out company, as hereinafter provided. [P. D. 4915.]

Art. 6427. [6630] [4555] [4264] Old directors to be trustees.—Whenever a sale of the roadbed, track, franchise and chartered powers and privileges is made as hereinbefore provided (unless other persons shall be appointed by the legislature or by some court of competent authority), the directors or managers of the sold out company at the time of the sale, by whatever name they may be known in law, shall be trustees of the creditors and stockholders of the sold out company, and shall have full power to settle the affairs of the sold out company, collect and pay outstanding debts, and divide among the stockholders the money and other property that shall remain after the payment of the debts and other necessary expenses; and the persons so constituted trustees shall have authority to sue by the name of the trustees of such sold out company, and may be sued as such, and shall be jointly and severally responsible to all creditors and stockholders of such company, to the extent of its property and effects that shall come to their hands. [P. D. 4916.]

Art. 6428. [6631] [4556] [4265] Suits not to abate.—No suit pending for or against any railroad company at the time that the sale may be made of its roadbed, track, franchise and chartered privileges shall abate, but the same shall be continued in the name of the trustees of the sold out company. [Id.]

Art. 6429. [6632] [4557] [4266] Law not to apply to State loans, etc.—The provisions of this law shall not apply to any debt, execution or deed of trust held by the State against any railroad company because of any loan made by the State to any company under the provisions of the Act to provide for the investment of the special school fund, or any other law which authorizes the loan of money to railroad companies, nor shall any creditor of any railroad company be allowed to make the State a party to any suit brought for the enforcement of any debt, mortgage or deed of trust or lien on any railroad, or permitted to require the State to foreclose any lien which it may have had upon any road, but the lien of the State and its right to enforce the same shall continue as if this law had never been passed, and as if no sale had been made under the provisions of the same. [P. D. 4917.]

Art. 6430. [6620-1-2] Reducing wages.—All persons in the employment of such railway company shall receive thirty full days notice from said company immediately prior to the day upon which a reduction is to take effect before their wages shall be reduced. In all cases of reduction the employe shall be entitled to receive from such company wages at his contract price for the full term of thirty days after such notice is given. Said notice may be given by posting written or printed handbills, specifying the parties whose wages are to be reduced and the amount of such reduction, in at least three conspicuous places in or about each shop, section house, station, depot, train or other place where said employes are at work; provided, such employe shall, within fifteen days from the date of such notice, inform such railway company, by posting like notices as given by such railway company, whether or not he will accept such reduction; and, if no such information is given such company by such employe, then such employe shall forfeit his right to such notice and such reduction shall take effect from the date of such notice, instead of at the expiration of thirty days. Any railway company violating or evading any provision of this article shall pay to each employe affected thereby one month's extra wages. [Acts 1887, p. 20; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 818.]

Art. 6431. [6623] [4547] Discharged employe.—When a railroad company shall discharge an employe, or when the time of service of such employe shall expire, or when a railroad company shall be due and owing an employe, such railroad company, upon discharge, or upon the termination of the term of such service, or upon maturity of said indebtedness, shall, within fifteen days after the demand therefor upon the nearest station agent of said railroad company, pay to such employe the full amount due and owing him. If said railroad company fails or refuses to pay such employe, then it shall be liable to pay to such employe twenty per cent on the amount due him, as damages, in addition to the amount so due, in no case the damages to be less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1887, p. 72; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 870.]

Art. 6432. [6640] Injury to fellow servant.—Every person, receiver, or corporation operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this State, shall be liable for all damages sustained by any servant or employe thereof while engaged in the work of operating the cars, locomotives or trains of such person, receiver, or corporation, by reason of the negligence of any other servant or employe of such person, receiver or corporation, and the fact that such servants or employes were fellow-servants with each other shall not impair or destroy such liability. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 14; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1454.]

Art. 6433. [6641] Who are vice-principals.—All persons engaged in the service of any person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, the line of which shall be situated in whole or in part in this State, who are intrusted by such person, receiver, or corporation with the authority of superintendence, control or command of the other servants or employes of such person, receiver, or corporation, with the authority to direct any other employe in the performance of any duty of such employe, are vice-principals of such person, receiver, or corporation, and are not fellow-servants with their co-employes. [Id.]

Art. 6434. [6642] "Fellow-servants".—All persons who are engaged in the common service of such person, receiver, or corporation controlling or operating a railroad or street railway, and who while so employed are in the same grade of employment and are doing the same character of work or service, and are working together at the same time and place, and at the same piece of work and to a common purpose, are fellow-servants with each other. Employes who do not come within the provisions of this article shall not be considered fellow-servants. [Id.]

Art. 6435. [6643] Contract limiting liability void.—No contract made between the employer and employe based upon the contingency of death or injury of the employe and limiting the liability of the employer under the preceding articles of this chapter, or fixing damages to be recovered, shall be valid or binding. [Id.]

Art. 6436. [6644] Contributory negligence.—Nothing in the preceding articles of this chapter shall be held to impair or diminish the defense of contributory negligence when the injury of the servant or employe is caused proximately by his own contributory negligence, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Art. 6437. [6645] Assumed risk.—The plea of assumed risk shall not be available as a bar to recovery of damages in any suit brought in any court of this State against any corporation, receiver or other person, operating any railroad, interurban railway or street railway in this State for the recovery of damages for the death or personal injury of any employe or servant caused by the wrong or negligence of such person, corporation or receiver; it being contemplated that while the employe does assume the ordinary risk incident to his employment he does not assume the risk resulting from any negligence on the part of his employer, though known to him.

Where, however, in any such suit, it is alleged and proven that such deceased or injured employe was chargeable with negligence in continuing in the service of any such corporation, receiver or person above named in view of the risk, dangers and hazards of which he knew or must necessarily have known, in the ordinary performance of his duties, such fact shall not operate to defeat recovery, but the same shall be treated and considered as constituting contributory negligence, and if proximately causing or contributing to cause the death or injury in question, it shall have the effect of diminishing the amount of damages recoverable by such employe, or his heirs or representatives in case of the employe's death, only in proportion to the amount of negligence so attributable to such employe. [Acts 1905, p. 386; Acts 1921, p. 195.]

Art. 6438. [6647] Double header trains.—Employes of railway companies employed by said companies in the operation of trains within this State, propelled by two or more engines, shall not be held to assume the risk, if any there be, incident to their employment; provided, they be injured while engaged in the operation of such trains and that such injury was occasioned by reason of the operation of two or more engines on such train instead of one. [Acts 1900, S. S. p. 15.]

Art. 6439. [6648] Liable for injury or death of employe.—Every corporation, receiver, or other person, operating any railroad in this State, shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is employed by such carrier operating such railroad, or in case of death of such employe, to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow and children, or husband and children, and mother and father of the deceased, and, if none, then of the next kin dependent upon such employe for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents, or employes of such carrier; or by reason of any defect or insufficiency due to its negligence, in its cars, engines, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, wharves, or other equipment. The amount recovered shall not be liable for debts of deceased and shall be divided among the persons entitled to the benefit of the action or such of them as shall be alive, in such shares as the jury, or court trying the case without a jury, shall deem proper. In case of the death of such employe, the action may be brought without administration by all the parties entitled thereto, or by any one or more of them, for the benefit of all, and, if all parties be not before the court, the action may proceed for the benefit of such of said parties as are before the court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 279.]

Art. 6440. [6649] Contributory negligence.—In all actions brought against any such common carrier or railroad under or by virtue of any provision of the foregoing article and the three succeeding articles to recover damages for personal injuries to an employe, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employe may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employe; provided, that no such employe who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violations by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employes contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Id.]

Art. 6441. [6650] Assumed risk. In any action brought against any common carrier under or by virtue of any provision of the two preceding articles to recover damages for injuries to or the death of any of its employes, such employe shall not be held to have assumed the risks of his employment in any case where the violation by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employes contributed to the injury or death of such employe. [Id.]

Art. 6442. [6651] Contract changing liability void.—Any contract, rule, regulation or device whatsoever, the purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any common carrier to exempt itself from any liability created by the three preceding articles shall to that extent be void; provided, that, in any action brought against any such common carrier by virtue of said articles, such common carrier may set off therein any sum it has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief benefit or indemnity that may have been paid to the injured employe, or the person entitled thereto, on account of the injury or death for which said action was brought. [Id.]

Art. 6443. [6652] Articles of this chapter construed.—Nothing in the provisions of the four preceding articles shall be held to limit the duty or liability of common carriers, or to impair the rights of employes, under other articles of these Statutes, but, in case of conflict, these articles shall prevail; and nothing in said articles shall affect the right of action under any law of this State. [Id.]

Art. 6444. Terms defined.—The term "Commission" as used in this title means the Railroad Commission of Texas, and the term "Commissioners" means the members of the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Art. 6445. Power and authority.—Power and authority are hereby conferred upon the Railroad Commission of Texas over all railroads, and suburban, belt and terminal railroads, and over all public wharves, docks, piers, elevators, warehouses, sheds, tracks and other property used in connection therewith in this State, and over all persons, associations and corporations, private or municipal, owning or operating such railroad, wharf, dock, pier, elevator, warehouse, shed, track or other property to fix, and it is hereby made the duty of the said Commission to adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations, to govern and regulate such railroads, persons, associations and corporations, and to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination in the rates, charges and tolls of such railroads, persons, associations and corporations, and to fix division of rates, charges and regulations between railroads and other utilities and common carriers where a division is proper and correct, and to prevent any and all other abuses in the conduct of their business and to do and perform such other duties and details in connection therewith as may be provided by law. [Acts 1891, p. 55; Acts 1911, p. 157; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6446. Power to enforce rules, etc.—The Railroad Commission of Texas is hereby vested with full power and authority to do and perform each act and duty authorized, directed or imposed upon it by the provisions of this title, and all railroads, persons, corporations, and associations subject to the control of the Commission shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with the rules, orders, directions or requirements of said Commission as severally provided in this title. [Id.]

Art. 6447. [6653] [4561] The Commission.—

Election.—The Railroad Commission of Texas shall be composed of three members, one of whom shall be elected biennially at each general election for a term of six years.

Qualifications.—The members shall be resident citizens of this State, and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws, and not less than twenty-five years of age. No member shall be directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of any railroad, and should a member voluntarily become so interested his office shall become vacant; or should he become so interested otherwise than voluntarily, he shall within a reasonable time divest himself of such interest; failing to do this, his office shall become vacant.

Shall hold no other office, etc.—No railroad commissioner shall hold any other office of any character, while such commissioner, nor engage in any occupation or business inconsistent with his duties as such commissioner.

Oath, etc.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each commissioner shall take and subscribe to the official oath and shall in addition thereto, swear that he is not directly or indirectly interested in any railroad, nor in the bonds, stock, mortgages, securities, contracts or earnings of any railroad, and that he will to the best of his ability faithfully and justly execute and enforce the provisions of this title, and all laws of this State concerning railroads, which oath shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Organization.—The commissioners shall elect one of their number chairman. They may make all rules necessary for their government and proceedings. They may appoint a secretary at a salary not exceeding $2,000.00 per annum, and not more than two clerks at salaries not exceeding $1,500.00 per annum each, and such other experts as may be necessary. They shall be known collectively as the "Railroad Commission of Texas," and shall have a seal, a star of five points with the words "Railroad Commission of Texas" engraved thereon. They shall be furnished with an office at the Capitol, and with necessary furniture, stationery, supplies and all necessary expenses, to be paid for on the order of the Governor.

Secretary's duties.—The secretary shall keep full and correct minutes of all the transactions and proceedings of the Commission, and perform such duties as the Commission may require of him.

Expenses.—The Commissioners and their employes shall receive from the State their actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on the business of the Commission, which shall include the cost only of transportation while traveling on business for the Commission, upon an itemized statement thereof, sworn to by the party who incurred the expense, and approved by the Commission.

Sessions.—The Commission may hold its sessions at any place in this State when deemed necessary. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6448. [6654] [4562] Duties.—The Commission shall:

1. Adopt all necessary rates, charges and regulations, to govern and regulate freight and passenger traffic, to correct abuses and prevent unjust discrimination and extortion in rates of freight and passenger traffic on the different railroads in this State.

2. Fairly and justly classify and subdivide all freight and property of whatsoever character that may be transported over the railroads of this State into such general and special classes or subdivisions as may be found necessary and expedient.

3. Fix to each class or subdivision of freight a reasonable rate for each railroad subject to this title for the transportation of each of said classes and subdivisions. Such classifications shall apply to and be the same for all railroads subject to the provisions of this chapter. It may fix different rates for different railroads and for different lines under the same management, or for different parts of the same lines if found necessary to do justice, and may make rates for express companies different from the rates fixed by railroads.

4. Fix and establish for all or any connecting lines of railroads of this State reasonable joint rates of freight charges for the various classes of freight and cars that may pass over two or more such lines of such railroads.

5. When two or more connecting railroads shall fail to agree upon a fair and just division of the charges arising from the transportation of freights, passengers or cars over their lines, fix the pro rata part of the charges to be received by each connecting line.

6. From time to time, alter, change, amend or abolish any classification or rate established by it when deemed necessary. Such amended, altered or new classification or rates shall be put into effect in the same manner as the originals.

7. Adopt and enforce such rules, regulations and modes of procedure as it may deem proper to hear and determine complaints against the classifications or the rates, the rules, regulations and the determinations of the Commission.

8. Make reasonable and just rates of charges for each railroad subject hereto for the use or transportation of loaded or empty cars on its road and may establish for each railroad or for all railroads alike, reasonable rates for the storing and handling of freight and for the use of cars not unloaded after forty-eight hours' notice to the consignee, not to include Sundays and legal holidays.

9. Make and establish reasonable rates for the transportation of passengers over each railroad subject hereto, which rates shall not exceed the rates fixed by law. The Commission shall have power to prescribe reasonable rates, tolls or charges for all other services performed by any railroad subject hereto.

10. Require each railway subject to this title to provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at its several stations for the accommodation of passengers; and to keep them well-lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public; and keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for the receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freight handled by such roads and such railway, and to obey the requirements of the Commission in respect thereto.

11. See that all laws of this State concerning railroads are enforced and that violations thereof are promptly prosecuted and penalties due the State therefor are recovered and collected; and report all such violations with the facts in its possession to the Attorney General or other officer charged with the enforcement of the law. It shall investigate all complaints against all railroad companies. Suits between the State and a railroad shall have precedence in the courts. [Id.]

Art. 6449. [6655] [4563] Notice.—Before any rates shall be established, the Commission shall give each railroad company to be affected thereby ten days' notice of the time and place when and where the rates shall be fixed; and said railroad company shall be entitled to be heard at such time and place; and it shall have process to enforce the attendance of its witnesses, which shall be served as in civil cases.

Art. 6450. [6655] [4563] Rules for hearing, etc.—The Commission may adopt rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings of railroad companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, orders, charges, and other acts required of it under this law; and no person shall be denied admission at such investigation.

Art. 6451. May administer oaths, etc.—Each Commissioner, for the purposes mentioned in this chapter, shall have power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents and testimony, and to punish for contempt as fully as is provided by law for the district court.

Art. 6452. [6656] [4564] Rates conclusive.—In all actions between private parties and railway companies brought under this law, the rates, charges, orders, rules, regulations and classifications prescribed by the Commission before the institution of such action shall be held conclusive, and deemed and accepted to be reasonable, fair, and just, and in such respects shall not be controverted therein until finally found otherwise in a direct action brought for the purpose in the manner prescribed by the two succeeding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6453. [6657] Appeal.—If any railroad company or other party at interest be dissatisfied with the decision of any rate, classification, rule, charge, order, act or regulation adopted by the Commission, such dissatisfied company or party may file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such decision, act, rate, rule, charge, classification, or order, or to either or all of them, in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, against said Commission as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. Either party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause; and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court at either of its terms; and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate Court of all causes of a different character therein pending; provided, that, if the court be in session at the time such right of action accrues, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. Provided further that no preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the opposite party and that no temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice to the opposite party unless it shall clearly appear from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified petition that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before notice can be served and a hearing had thereon. Every such temporary restraining order shall be enforced with the date and hour of issuance, shall be forthwith filed in the clerk's office and entered of record, shall define the injury and state why it is irreparably and why the order was granted without notice, and shall by its terms expire within such time after entry, not to exceed ten days, as the court or judge may fix, unless within the time so fixed the order is extended for a like period for good cause shown, and the reasons for such extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice in the contingency specified, the matter of the issuance of a preliminary injunction shall be set down for a hearing at the earliest possible time and shall take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the same comes up for hearing the party obtaining the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction, and if he does not do so the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. Upon two day's notice to the party obtaining such temporary restraining order the opposite party may appear and move the dissolution or modification of the order, and in that event the court or judge shall proceed to hear and determine the motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice may require. [Acts 1925, p. 668.]

Art. 6454. [6658] [4566] Burden of proof.—The burden of proof shall rest upon the plaintiff to show the rates, regulations, orders, classifications, acts or charges complained of are unreasonable and unjust to it or them. [Id.]

Art. 6455. [6659] [4567] Schedule of rates.—The Commission shall, when the classifications and schedule of rates herein provided are prepared and adopted, furnish each railroad affected thereby which is subject to the provisions of this title with a complete schedule in suitable form, showing the classification of freight made by it and the rates fixed to be charged by such road for the transportation of each class of freight, and shall cause a certified copy of such classification and schedule of rates to be delivered to each of said railroads at its principal office in Texas, or to any agent of said company in this State; which schedule, rules, and regulations shall take effect at the date fixed by the Commission, not less than twenty days after the date of service. [Id.]

Art. 6456. [6659] [4567] Schedule to be printed and posted.—Each of said railroad companies shall cause said schedule to be printed in type of a size not less than pica, and shall have the same posted up in a conspicuous place at each of its depots, so as to be inspected by the public. [Id.]

Art. 6457. [6659] [4567] May abolish or alter regulations.—The Commission may at any time abolish, alter, or in any manner amend any such regulations; and in that event certified copies of the schedules, rules or regulations, showing the changes therein, shall be delivered to each road affected as herein specified. In all cases where the rates shall not have been fixed by the Commission, no changes shall be made, except after ten days' notice to and with the consent of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6458. [6660-1-2] Emergency freight rates.—The Commission may prevent interstate rate wars and injury to the business or interests of the people or railroads of the State, or in case of any other emergency, to be judged of by the Commission, it shall temporarily alter, amend or suspend any existing freight rates, tariffs, schedules, orders and circulars on any railroad or part of railroad in this State, and fix freight rates where none exist. Said rates so made, shall take effect at such time and remain in force for such length of time as the Commission may prescribe. [Acts 1899, p. 311; Acts 1897, p. 51; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1105.]

Art. 6459. [6663] Temporary tariffs.—The Commission shall have power to make temporary freight and passenger tariffs, to take effect at such times as said Commission shall fix whenever an emergency arises, the sufficiency of which shall be judged of by said Commission. In order that justice may be done or injury prevented any person, place or locality, said Commission shall have the power at once to suspend temporarily any existing freight or passenger tariffs, rules and regulations for temporary use, to have immediate effect where none exists. [Acts 1907, p. 220.]

Art. 6460. [6664] [4568] Complainants.—Any person, firm, corporation, or association, body politic, or municipal organization, complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any railroad subject hereto, in violation of any law of this State, or any provision of this title, for which penalty is provided, may apply to the Commission under such rules as the Commission may prescribe. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6461. [6664] [4568] Procedure.—If there shall appear to the Commission any reasonable grounds for investigating such complaint; (1) it shall give at least five days' notice to such railroad of such charge and complaint, and call upon such road to answer the same at a time and place to be specified by the Commission. (2) It shall investigate and determine such complaint under such rules and modes of procedure as it may adopt. (3) If the Commission finds that there has been a violation, it shall determine if the same was wilful. (4) If it finds that such violation was not wilful, it may call upon said road to satisfy the damage done to the complainant thereby, stating the amount of such damage, and to pay the cost of such investigation; and if the said railroad shall do so within the time specified by the Commission there shall be no prosecution by the State. (5) If said railroad shall not pay said damage and cost within the time specified by said Commission or if the Commission finds such violation was wilful, it shall institute proceedings to recover the penalty for such violation and the cost of the investigation. [Id.]

Art. 6462. [6664] [4568] Complaints, how framed.—All such complaints shall be made in the name of the State of Texas upon the relation of such complainant. All evidence taken before said Commission in the investigation of any such complaint, when reduced to writing and signed and sworn to by the witnesses, may be used by either party, the State, complainant, or by the railroad company, in any proceeding against such railroad involving the same subject matter. [Id.]

Art. 6463. [6664] [4568] Testimony taken.—The Commissioners may require the testimony taken before them to be reduced to writing when they deem necessary, or when requested to do so by either party to such proceedings; and a certified copy, under the hand and seal of said Commission, shall be admissible in evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such railroad, involving the same subject matter and between the same parties. No provisions of this and the three preceding articles shall abridge nor affect the rights of any person to sue for any penalty that may be due him under the provisions of this title, or any other law of the State. [Id.]

Art. 6464. [6665] [4569] May inspect books, etc.—The Commissioners or either of them, or such persons as they may authorize in writing under the hand and seal of the Commission, shall have the right at any time to inspect the books and papers of any railroad company and to examine under oath any officer, agent or employe of such railroad in relation to the business and affairs of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6465. [6665] [4569] Penalty.—If any railroad shall refuse to permit such examination of its books and papers, such railroad company shall, for each offense, pay to the State of Texas not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars for each day it shall so fail or refuse. [Id.]

Art. 6466. [6666] [4570] Shall ascertain cost of railway, etc. The Commission shall ascertain as nearly as practicable:

1. The amount of money expended in construction and equipment per mile of every railway in Texas;

2. The amount of money expended to procure the right of way, and the amount of money it would require to reconstruct the roadbed, track, depots, and equipment, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the railroad.

3. The outstanding bonds, debentures and indebtedness, and the amount respectively thereof; when issued, and the rate of interest; when due, for what purpose issued, how used, to whom issued, to whom sold, and the price in cash, property or labor, if any, received therefor.

4. Disposition of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, and the amount purporting to be due thereon.

5. The floating indebtedness of the company, to whom due and his address, and the credits due on it.

6. The property on hand belonging to the railroad company.

7. The judicial or other sales of said road, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid and in what manner paid therefor.

8. The amounts paid for salaries to the officers of the railroad and the wages paid its employes.

For the purposes in this article named, the Commission may employ sworn experts to inspect and assist them when needed, and from time to time, as the information required by this article is obtained, it shall communicate the same to the Attorney General by report, and file a duplicate thereof with the Comptroller for public use. Said information shall be printed from time to time in the annual report of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6467. [6667] [4571] Blanks for information.—The Commission shall as often as necessary furnish each railroad company suitable blanks with questions formed so as to elicit all information concerning such railroads. Any railroad company receiving such blanks shall cause them to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and if they are unable to answer any question therein propounded, they shall give satisfactory reason for their failure; and the answers duly sworn to by the proper officer of the company, shall be returned to the Commission within thirty days from the receipt thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6468. [6667] [4571] Refusal to answer.—If any officer or employe of a railroad shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks as above required, or fail or refuse to answer any questions therein propounded, or shall give a false answer to any such questions where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or shall evade the answer to any such questions, a penalty of five hundred dollars shall be recovered from the company by the State when it appears that such persons acted in obedience to its direction, permission or request in his failure, evasion or refusal. Said Commission shall have the power to prescribe a system of book-keeping to be observed by each railroad subject hereto, under the penalties prescribed in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6469. [6667] [4571] Annual reports.—The Commission shall make and submit to the Governor annual reports containing a full and complete account of the transactions of their office, together with the information gathered by such Commission as herein required, and such other facts, suggestions and recommendations as it may deem necessary, which report shall be published as the reports of heads of departments.

Art. 6470. [6667] [4571] Through freights.—The Commission shall investigate all through freight rates on railroads in Texas; and when same are, in the opinion of the Commission, excessive or levied or laid in violation of the interstate commerce law, or the rules and regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the officials of the railroads shall be notified of the facts and requested to reduce them or make the proper corrections, as the case may be. When the rates are not changed and the proper corrections are not made according to the request of the Commission, it shall notify the Interstate Commerce Commission and apply to it for relief. [Id.]

Art. 6471. [6668] [4572] Witnesses.—In any examination or investigation provided in this chapter, the Commission is authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses, and may issue subpoenas for witnesses by such rules as they may prescribe, and such process shall be served by the officer to whom it may be directed. Each witness who shall appear before the Commission by order of the Commission, at a place outside the county of his residence, shall receive for his attendance one dollar per day and three cents per mile traveled by the nearest practical route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of the Commission, which shall be paid by the Comptroller upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by the witness, and approved by the Commission.

No witness shall be entitled to fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested in a railroad, or who is in anywise interested in any stock, bond, mortgage, security or earnings of such road, or was an officer, agent or employe of such road when summoned at the instance of such railroad. No witness furnished with free transportation shall receive pay for the distance he may travel on such free transportation. The Commission may issue an attachment as in civil cases, for a witness who fails or refuses to obey a subpoena, and compel him to attend before the Commission and give his testimony upon such matter as shall be lawfully required by them. If a witness, after being duly summoned, shall fail or refuse to attend or to answer any question propounded to him, and which he would be required to answer if in court, the Commission may fine and imprison such witness for contempt, in the same manner that a judge of the district court might do under similar circumstances. The claim that any such testimony might tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse a witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 6472. [6668] Depositions.—The Commission may in its discretion issue proper process and take written or oral depositions instead of compelling personal attendance of witnesses. The fees of an officer executing any process issued under the provisions of this title shall be such as the Commission may allow, not to exceed fees as prescribed by law for similar services. [Id.]

Art. 6473. [6669] [4573] Extortion.—If any railroad company, subject to the provisions of this title, or its agent or officer, shall charge, collect, demand, or receive a greater rate, charge or compensation than that fixed and established by the Commission for the transportation of freight, passengers or cars, or for the use of any car on the line of its railroad, or any line operated by it, or for receiving, forwarding, handling or storing any such freight or cars, or for any other service performed or to be performed by it, such railroad company and its agent and officer shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a sum not less than one hundred nor more than five thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 6474. [6670] [4574] “Unjust discrimination”.—Unjust discrimination is hereby prohibited and the following acts or either of them shall constitute unjust discrimination.

1. If any railroad subject hereto, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device, shall charge, demand, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by it than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service, or shall give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, firm or corporation, or locality, or to subject any particular description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice, delay or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

2. If any railroad company shall fail or refuse, under regulations prescribed by the Commission, to receive and transport without delay or discrimination the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line of railroad, and every railroad which shall, under such regulations as the Commission may prescribe, fail or refuse to transport and deliver without delay or discrimination any passengers, tonnage or cars, loaded or empty, destined to any point on or over the line of any connecting line of railroad; provided perishable freights of all kinds and live stock shall have precedence of shipment.

3. If any railroad company shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of like kind of property or passengers for the shorter line than for a longer distance over the same line; provided, that upon application to the Commission any railroad may in special cases, to prevent manifest injury, be authorized by the Commission to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for transporting persons and property, and the Commission shall, from time to time, prescribe the extent to which such designated railroad may be relieved from the operation of this provision. No injustice shall be imposed upon any citizen at intermediate points. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the commission from making what are known as "group rates" on any line or lines of railroad in this State.

4. Penalty.—Any railroad company guilty of unjust discrimination as hereinbefore defined shall for each offense pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

5. Exceptions.—Nothing herein shall prevent the carriage, storage or handling of freight free or at reduced rates, or to prevent railroads from giving free transportation or reduced transportation under such circumstances and to such persons as the law of this State may permit or allow. [Id.]

Art. 6475. [6671] [4575] Damages; penalty.—If any railroad subject to this title shall do, cause or permit to be done any matter act or thing prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing herein required to be done by it, such railroad shall be liable to the person or persons, firm or corporation injured thereby for the damages sustained in consequence of such violation; and in case said railroad company shall be guilty of extortion or discrimination as by this chapter defined, then in addition to such damages such railroad shall pay to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby a penalty of not less than one hundred and twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars. Such road may plead and prove as a defense to the action for said penalty that such overcharge was unintentionally and innocently made through a mistake of fact. A recovery as herein provided shall in no manner affect a recovery by the State of a penalty provided for such violations. [Id.]

Art. 6476. [6672] [4576] Penalty not otherwise provided.—If any railway company doing business in this State shall violate any provision of this title, or shall do any act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided by law or shall fail, neglect or refuse to obey any lawful requirement, order, judgment or decree made by the Commission, for every such act of violation it shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars. [Id; Acts 1901, p. 265.]

Art. 6477. [6673] [4577] Suits for penalty.—All of the penalties herein provided, except as provided in Article 6475, recoverable by the State shall be recovered and suits thereon shall be brought by the Attorney General or under his direction in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county into or through which such railroad may run; and the attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee to be paid by the State of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected. In all suits arising under this chapter, the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the State under this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury; provided suits brought under Title 66 for recovery of penalties, may be brought in any county:

1. Where an act violative of any provision thereof is committed.

2. Where such company or receiver has an agent or representative.

3. Where the principal office of such company is situated, or such receiver or receivers, or either, reside. One-half of all moneys collected under the provisions of said title, less the commission and expenses allowed by law, shall be paid into the State Treasury; the remainder thereof shall be paid into the treasury of the county where such suit or suits may be maintained and constitute a part of the jury fund of such county. [Acts 1891, p. 55. G. L. Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6478. [6674] [4578] Evidence.—Upon application of any person, the Commission shall furnish certified copies of any classification, rates, rules, regulations, or orders; and such certified copies, or printed copies published by authority of the Commission shall be admissible in evidence in any suit and sufficient to establish the fact that any charge, rate, rule, order, or classification therein contained and which may be an issue in the trial, is the official act of the Commission. A substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter shall be sufficient to give effect to all the classifications, rates, charges, rules, regulations, requirements and orders made and established by the Commission, and none of them shall be declared inoperative for any omission of a technical matter in the performance of such act. [Id.]

Art. 6479. [6676] Definitions.—The terms, “road,” “railroad,” “railroad companies,” and “railroad corporations,” as used herein, shall be taken to mean and embrace all corporations, companies, individuals and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, that may now or hereafter own, operate, manage or control any railroad, or part of a railroad, in this State, and all such corporations, companies and associations of individuals, their lessees or receivers, as shall do the business of common carriers on any railroad in this State.

1. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed to apply to and affect only the transportation of passengers, freight and cars between points within this State; and this chapter shall not apply to street railways nor suburban or belt lines of railways in or near cities and towns, but shall apply to the transportation of passengers and freight by electric or gasoline motor cars over steam railroads subject to this Act.

2. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to see that, upon every railroad and branch of same carrying passengers for hire in this State, shall be run at least one train a day, Sundays excepted, upon which passengers shall be hauled, and the commission shall have no power to relax this provision, and shall further regulate passenger train service by requiring all passenger trains carrying passengers for hire to stop for a time sufficient to receive and let off passengers at such stations as may be designated by the commissioners; provided, that four trains each way, carrying passengers for hire, if so many are run daily, Sundays excepted, be required to stop as aforesaid at all county seat stations; and if such railroad or branch of same shall operate a gasoline or electric motor car over its line carrying passengers for hire in this State, such motor car shall be deemed a train within the meaning of this article and shall be subject to and included within the requirement that at least one train be run every day, Sundays excepted, and the requirement made by the commission as to stopping for a time sufficient to receive and let off passengers at designated stations. [Acts 1925, p. 365.]

Art. 6480. [6677] [4581] Law cumulative.—Any provision of this title which may be inconsistent or in conflict with Title 66 shall be void and inoperative, but to that extent only. The provisions of any foregoing article of this title shall not have the effect to release or waive any right of action by the State, or any person, for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen or may hereafter arise under any law of this State; and all penalties accruing under this title shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for or recovery of one shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other penalty. [Acts 1891, p. 55; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 57.]

Art. 6481. [6678-79] Railroad to furnish cars.—When any person, firm or corporation, desiring to ship any freight of any kind shall make written application to any superintendent, agent, or other person in charge of transportation, to any railway company, receiver or trustee operating a line of railway at the point the cars are desired upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railroad company, receiver, trustee, or other person in charge thereof, to supply the number of cars so required, at the point indicated in the application, within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed six days from the receipt of such application, and shall supply such cars to the persons so applying therefor, in the order in which such applications are made, without giving preference to any person. If the application be for twelve cars or less, the same shall be furnished in three days; and provided further, that, if the application be for fifty cars or more, the railway company may have ten full days in which to supply the cars. Said application for cars shall state the number of cars desired, the place at which they are desired, and the time they are desired. The place designated shall be at some station or switch on the railroad. [Acts 1887, p. 133; Acts 1899, p.67; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 23.]

Art. 6482. [6680] [4499] Penalty.—A railway company failing to furnish cars applied for under the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit to the party or parties so applying for them the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car failed to be furnished, and all actual damages that such applicant may sustain. [Id.]

Art. 6483. [6681] [4500] Deposit.—Such applicant shall deposit with such agent, superintendent or other person one-fourth of the amount of freight charges for the use of such cars, and shall load said cars within forty-eight hours after they have been duly delivered; and upon failure to do so, he shall forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars for each car not used. Where applications are made on several days, all of which are filed upon the same day, the applicant shall have forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the first application, and the next forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the next application, and so on; Sundays shall not be included in computing the time. The penalty prescribed shall not accrue to any car or lot of cars applied for any one day, until the period within which they may be loaded has expired. If the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him, and shall notify said company or its agent, he shall forfeit and pay to the said railroad company, in addition to the penalty herein prescribed, the actual damages that such company may sustain by the failure to use said cars. [Id.]

Art. 6484. [6682] [4501] To deliver loaded cars.—When cars have been supplied and loaded, the railway company shall deliver them to the consignee within a reasonable time; and the consignee shall unload the same within forty-eight hours after delivery and notice, Sundays excepted, or forfeit and pay to the company the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each car not so unloaded. [Acts 1887, p. 133; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 931.]

Art. 6485. [6683] [4502] Proof necessary.—Parties bringing suit against a railroad company under the provisions of this law shall show that such cars if furnished, would have been loaded within the time specified by this law. The provisions of this law shall not apply in cases of strikes or public calamity. [Id.]

Art. 6486. Not to affect demurrage regulations.—The provisions of this law shall not forfeit or annul the demurrage regulations provided by the Commission, and all penalties accruing to the carrier hereunder shall be cumulative of and additional to all demurrage charges prescribed by said Commission. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 24.]

Art. 6487. [6684] Duty to furnish cars.—Each railroad company incorporated under the laws of this State and doing business in this State, under the limitations and regulations prescribed by the Commission, shall equip and provide sufficient motive power and rolling stock to handle all passenger and freight traffic expeditiously and without delay. [Acts 1907, p. 297.]

Art. 6488. [6685] Commission to require mortgage.—The Commission shall require each railroad corporation chartered under the laws of this State, holding itself out as a common carrier, to provide and equip itself with sufficient motive power and rolling stock, or other equipment necessary, to handle all passenger and freight traffic, expeditiously and without delay, and it is vested with full power to require of such common carriers the purchase of such rolling stock and motive power as will properly equip such common carrier, and facilitate the movement of all traffic, passenger and freight, and that will supply transportation accommodations which it offers to perform as an inducement to the public to travel or ship via the lines of such railroad company, or common carrier. The Commission is authorized and empowered to approve liens or mortgages that may be given by such railroad companies and common carriers to secure the purchase or lease price of any equipment or motive power which may be deemed by the Commission necessary for the proper discharge of its duty as a common carrier. If in the judgment of the Commission any railroad company in this State which now has an excessive issue of bonds and stocks outstanding, has not sufficient passenger and freight equipment and motive power to handle the passenger and freight business of such common carrier and railroad company, the Commission after not less than five days' notice and hearing shall issue an order requiring the purchase of such rolling stock as in the judgment and discretion of the Commission may be deemed necessary for the prompt, expeditious and comfortable transportation of freight and passengers over the line of such railroad company and common carrier; and in such case, the Commission is authorized to approve contracts or liens for the purpose of securing the purchase or lease price of such rolling stock, motive power and equipment. [Id.]

Art. 6489. [6686] Penalty.—Any railroad company or common carrier failing to comply with any provision of the two preceding articles, or to obey the orders of the Railroad Commission, made in pursuance of any provision thereof, shall be deemed guilty of an abuse of their rights and privileges, and, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars payable to the State of Texas. Each day that such railroad company or common carrier neglects, fails or refuses to comply with such orders shall constitute a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6490. [6687] Facilities, interchange cars, etc.—Every railroad company operating a line of railroad within this State shall provide sufficient tracks, switches, sidings, yards, depots, motive power, cars and all other needful facilities and appliances, for receiving and delivering freight, to enable it with reasonable dispatch to perform all of its duties as to all traffic which with ordinary foresight and diligence could be anticipated, as a common carrier; and furnish all necessary and suitable cars and vehicles of transportation for all freight offered or tendered to it for shipment within a reasonable time after demand therefor made by a shipper; and supply within a reasonable time, at its station or stations, spurs, sidings, switches, or other places, at which it receives freight for transportation, and from which such shipper gives notice to such railway company that he desires to ship such freight at the time designated by the shipper, where it is within reasonable time, sufficient suitable cars within which to load the same; and as to all services to be performed within the limits of the State, as to such freight and cars shall transport same within a reasonable time to destination, when destined to a point upon the line of such railway receiving such freight, and, if destined to a point beyond the line of such railroad, then transport and deliver within a reasonable time such freight in such loaded car or cars to the connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such shipment is made, for the purpose of transportation by such connecting carrier on to the destination of such freight, or for delivery by it to the connecting line or lines forming any part of the route over which same is to be transported to its ultimate destination; and each connecting line of railroad engaged in such transportation, as to all such service to be performed, as to all such freight and cars in which the same is carried within this State, shall receive and transport within a reasonable time such loaded car or cars tendered to it, if in suitable condition for movement, and deliver the same at destination thereof, if destined to a point upon its line of railroad, and, if destined to a point beyond its line of railroad, then to its connecting carrier forming any part of the route over which such car or cars are to be transported, subject to the same duties and obligations as if such freight had originated upon such line of railroad.

Where such freight forms less than a carload, or where it may be necessary to unload the same because of any accident or injury thereto, or to the car in which the same is being transported, or where such freight is unloaded at the request of the shipper en route, or where by reason of any accident or unavoidable cause, or in order to comply with any law or regulation provided by law, such freight is unloaded, or it is reasonably necessary to do so, or where it is for any other reason necessary to unload such freight in order to forward, or before it can be forwarded, in any such cases, where suitable cars may be supplied, and when the freight is carried wholly within this State, the Commission shall make all needful rules and regulations for unloading cars at junction points, or otherwise forwarding cars, furnishing cars for forwarding or reloading and the exchange of cars and forwarding of such freight in the same or other cars. Whenever by reason of any accidental or unavoidable cause which cannot be provided against by the use of reasonable foresight or diligence, such railroad company fails to so furnish cars and shall use reasonable diligence to do so promptly after the happening of such accidental or unavoidable cause, it shall not, on account of such failure, be liable to the penalties of attorney's fees or as otherwise herein prescribed. But nothing in this article shall in anyway affect the right or remedy of any shipper or other person as same may exist at common law or under any statute to recover on account of the failure, delay, or refusal to furnish cars for transportation of any freight, or other failure to perform any other legal duty, nor to in any wise exempt any such railroad company from any provision of the statutes of this State, or other duties imposed by law. [Acts 1907, p. 343.]

Art. 6491. [6688] To interchange cars at junction points.
—To facilitate the movement, preservation and exchange of freight, every railroad company in this State, whose line of railroad connects with the line of any other railroad company in this State, shall exchange at such connecting or junction points, the loaded and empty cars used in or for transportation of freight carried upon such lines of railroad forming any part of the route over which said freight is carried or to be carried; and a railroad company forming any part of the through or joint route over which any freight is carried or to be carried, or having or participating in the joint rates on which such freight is carried or to be carried, on demand of any such connecting line delivering to it any such loaded car or cars of freight at junction points within this State shall furnish to such delivery line within a reasonable time after such loaded cars are so received, at such junction point in this State, as many cars suitable for the carriage or transportation of similar freight as may be so delivered to it loaded, by such connecting line; and upon the demand of the owner thereof, or the railroad company entitled thereto, or to the use thereof, every such railroad company so receiving the cars of another shall return the same at the place where they were received, or at such place as may be by said railroads agreed upon, within a reasonable time after demand thereof; and as to cars exchanged in transporting freight wholly within this State within the time and according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6492. [6689] Commission to make rules.—As to all freight carried wholly within this State and the cars used therefor, the Commission shall make and establish all needful rules and regulations, general and special, which may be different according to the circumstances and conditions to different railroads and localities and for different kinds and classes of freight and cars, providing for the time, place and manner of demanding cars for or giving notice of shipment of such freight and the time, place, manner and order in which the same shall be furnished to shippers for the purpose of shipping freight between points in this State; and prescribe rules and regulations for the furnishing, exchanging and interchanging of cars, loaded and empty, by railroad companies as between each other; the time, place, terms and conditions upon which such cars shall be furnished and such interchange shall be made, and in the absence of an agreement of such railroad companies, the reasonable compensation to be paid by each railroad company for the use, loss, injury or destruction of the cars of another railroad company in the transportation of such freight; the time within which, and the manner by which railroad companies shall give notice or make demand upon each other for cars to be furnished by one railroad company in exchange for loaded cars, or to have its cars returned, the reasonable free time to be allowed the shippers for the loading of such car or cars without incurring liability for demurrage; the free time which shall be allowed to the shipper or consignee in which to unload such freight without incurring any liability for demurrage; a schedule of reasonable demurrage charges, reciprocal or otherwise, for the use of cars, irrespective of damages or penalties herein provided, which may be different for different railroads and different traffic and localities, to be paid by shippers for the detention or use of cars either in loading or unloading, or by the railroads for failing in a reasonable time to furnish cars, or to make delivery of loaded cars, subject to the penalties and damages herein provided, and the rules and regulations with respect thereto. Said Commission, whenever it may deem same necessary in order to secure the prompt transportation of freight and preservation of the property, shall be authorized to prescribe the minimum speed at which freight shall be moved when being transported between points within this State, including the time for transfer and delivery as between connecting railroads. Every such railway company shall conform to each rule, regulation and order of the Commission made in accordance with the two preceding and three succeeding articles; and failure to observe the rules and regulations of the Commission, or to comply with the provisions of this law, as to freight carried wholly within this State, shall be deemed an abuse subject to correction by the Commission, and shall subject such railroad company to the penalties hereinafter provided. [Id.]

Art. 6493. [6690] Liable for damages, when.—Every railroad company which shall fail to furnish cars as provided herein for the shipment of freight within a reasonable time, or in case of the shipment of freight between points within this State, within the time prescribed by the Commission, or shall fail to receive and forward any loaded car or cars or to exchange cars as provided herein, shall be liable to the shipper or other person injured or damaged thereby for all such injury or damages as may result to such shipper, and all special damages of which such railroad company had notice at the time of the shipment, or which shall occur after written notice thereof, and shall be liable in addition thereto for an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for the recovery of such damage. If any railroad company in this State shall fail or refuse to furnish within a reasonable time after demand therefor, any car or cars for the shipment of live stock, green fruit, vegetables or other perishable freight, such railroad company shall be liable to the shipper for the damage caused thereby, and a reasonable attorney's fee in case of suit to recover the same. Any railroad company which shall fail to furnish or exchange cars as required by the provisions of this law, or by the rules and regulations of the Commission as provided for herein, shall be liable to the railroad company injured thereby for all such damages as may result to it, and in addition thereto an amount equal to a reasonable attorney's fee in case suit is brought for the recovery of any damage. Every railroad company using cars of another railroad company, or which have been delivered to it by such railroad company, shall be liable to pay to the party entitled thereto the value of the reasonable use and hire thereof, and for injury or damage thereto, or destruction thereof, while in its possession or under its control, for the amount of such injury; and, in case of cars in the shipment of freight between points wholly within this State, the amount for the use or hire thereof may be prescribed by the Commission, unless the owners of such cars and such railroad companies agree upon such compensation. Where any such railroad company, or owner of any such car or cars, shall be dissatisfied with the amount fixed by the Commission for such use, hire, loss or destruction, or damage to such car, or where the railroad company liable therefor shall fail to pay for the same, the Commission or person entitled thereto, or which is liable for the use, hire, loss, injury or destruction of such cars, shall be entitled to establish the reasonable value thereof by suit. [Id.]

Art. 6494. [6690] Not to furnish cars, when.—No railroad company shall be compelled to furnish its own cars to any other railroad company which is involved, except upon reasonable security furnished to it to protect it from loss of or damages to or destruction of such cars and compensation for the use thereof, and in no event shall any railroad company be required to furnish any cars to any connecting line, except to exchange for other cars reasonably suitable for the transportation of freight. [Id.]

Art. 6495. [6691] Other penalty.—A railroad company which shall willfully, by its gross negligence, or by the gross negligence of its agents having charge and management of the matter of furnishing cars, fail or refuse to furnish or exchange cars as herein provided for, or to transport or deliver the same within the time prescribed by the Commission, as to freight carried between points wholly within this State, or if not so prescribed, then within a reasonable time, shall in addition to the other liabilities herein provided for, forfeit to the State of Texas, for each of such violations, not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense; and each day of such failure or neglect as to each car which it, by such willful or gross negligence, shall fail or refuse to furnish or exchange shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 6496. “Shipper”.—By the term “shipper” as herein used, is meant any person, firm or corporation tendering freight for shipment, and any consignor or consignee of any bill of lading, or other person, firm or corporation having the right of consignor or consignee. [Id.]

Art. 6497. [6692] “Reasonable time.”—It shall be deemed prima facie a reasonable time within which to order cars that any shipper shall give written notice thereof to the station agent at the place of shipment, or in his absence, to the nearest station agent of the railroad company to which such application is made, three days before such shipment of five cars or less, and five days for less than ten or more than five cars, and eight days for ten cars or more. The railroad companies shall furnish their station agents with printed blanks upon which shippers may make application for their cars. Nothing in this and the five preceding articles shall be construed to exempt any railroad company from the obligation to furnish cars for shipment without such written notice, but it shall only be subject to the penalties of this law for failure to furnish cars to shippers where notice thereof shall be given in writing, or in case of shipment of freight wholly between points in this State, then in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6498. [6693] Suitable depots.—Each railroad company in this State shall provide and maintain adequate, comfortable and clean depots and depot buildings at their several stations for the accommodation of passengers, and keep said depot buildings well lighted and warmed for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public. They shall keep and maintain separate apartments in such depot buildings for the use of white passengers, and keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots and buildings for receiving, handling, storing and delivering of all freight handled by such roads, and the Commission shall require railroad companies to comply fully with the provisions of this law under such regulations as said Commission may deem reasonable. [Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 401.]

Art. 6499. [6695] Union depots.—Where two or more railroad companies reach the same city or town in this State, if the Commission shall deem it practicable for such railroad companies to use a joint or union passenger depot or to join in the construction and use of a passenger depot, then it shall give notice to such railroad companies and after investigation and public hearing, may require the construction and maintenance of such union passenger depot by such railroad companies, if it appears to the Commission that the construction and maintenance of such union passenger depot are just and reasonable to the railroad companies involved, and demanded by the public interest. The Commission may specify the requirements of such union depot as to kind and character and may apportion the cost of construction and maintaining the same to each railroad company where the companies cannot agree. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 399.]

Art. 6500. [6696] Penalty for failure.—Failure upon the part of any railroad company to observe and obey the orders of the Railroad Commission, issued in compliance with the two preceding articles shall subject such railroad company to the fines and penalties prescribed by law for failure to obey the lawful requirements, order, judgments and decrees made by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6501. [6697 to 6700] Right to lease another road.—A railroad whose total mileage in this State does not exceed thirty miles in length, which connects at or near the State line with any other railroad, may be leased by the company owning such other railroad, subject to the following provisions:

1. Such lease shall be made on such terms and for such time, not exceeding ten years, as may be approved by the Commission. At any time before or after its expiration the lease may be renewed or another executed subject to the provisions and limitations of this title.

2. During the term of such lease the lessor company shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and shall be liable for any and all things occurring on or in connection with such road. The lease shall not operate to exempt or release either the lessor or lessee company from any liability that would otherwise exist against it.

3. The lessee company shall be exempted from the laws of this State requiring general offices to be maintained and general officers to reside in this State, except as required by provisions of the Constitution of this State and by the orders of the Commission.

4. In a suit against the lessor company the officers and agents of the lessee company shall be the officers and agents of the lessor company for the purpose of serving process.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to any railroad whose total mileage in this State may exceed thirty miles in length, although the part of its line connecting at or near the State line does not exceed thirty miles in length. [Acts 1899, p. 73.]

Art. 6502. [6701 to 6705] Railroad crossings.—Any company, corporation or receiver or person operating any railroad in this State shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penal sum of five hundred dollars per week for each week of refusal or neglect to comply with any order made by the Commission in pursuance of the following provisions of this article:

1. When necessary for the track of one railroad company to cross the track of another, the Commission shall ascertain and define by its decree the mode of such crossings which will occasion the least probable injury upon the rights of the company owning the road to be crossed; and, if the Commission decides that it is reasonably practicable to avoid a grade crossing, said Commission shall by its order prevent the same.

2. Where the tracks of two or more railways cross each other at a common grade in this State, such railroad companies shall protect such crossing by interlocking or other safety devices and regulations to be designated by the Commission, to prevent trains colliding at such crossings.

3. When a railway company seeks to cross, at grades with its track or tracks, the track or tracks of another railroad, the one seeking to cross at grade shall be compelled to interlock, or protect such crossings by safety devices to be designated by the Commission, and to pay all cost of appliances together with the expense of putting them in. This law shall not apply to crossings of side tracks.

4. When interlocking or other safety devices are constructed and maintained in good order to the satisfaction of the Commission, the engines and trains of such railroads may pass over such crossings without stopping. [Acts 1901, p. 255.]

Art. 6503. [6706] Double-header trains.—Where an unreasonable degree of hazards results to its employes, it is hereby declared to be an abuse of its franchise and privileges for any railroad company, or receiver, operating a line of railroad in this State to run or operate more than one working locomotive at the same time in propelling or moving any one train of cars, except in moving trains up steep grades, or where a locomotive propelling the train becomes temporarily disabled after leaving the terminal; the Railroad Commission shall investigate such abuses and see that the same are corrected, regulated or prohibited as hereinafter provided. [Acts S. S. 1900, p. 15.]

Art. 6504. [6707] Use regulated by Commission.—Should the Commission decide to regulate or forbid the practice of using more than one working locomotive at the same time in the operation of any train on any railroad, or part of railroad, within this State, then it shall make and record an order fully setting forth its decision and clearly designating the railroad, or part of railroad, on which such practice is forbidden or regulated and how regulated. Notice of such order shall be served upon said railroad affected by it. Said notice shall contain in full a copy of said order, and shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the general offices of such railroad are located; and a copy of the same shall be delivered by the officer executing the same to any general officer of said railroad in this State residing in said county. Said officer executing said writ shall make his return on the original, and deliver the same with his return forthwith to the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6505. [6708] Penalty. — Any railroad corporation which shall at any time after ten days after service of such notice violate the order of the Commission, shall be liable to the State for a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 6506. Maintenance; powers of Commission.—The Commission shall see that each railroad corporation owning or operating a line of railroad in this State shall maintain its roadbed and track in such condition as to enable it to perform all of its duties as a common carrier with reasonable safety to persons and property carried by it and its employes and with reasonable dispatch. The Commission is vested with full power to require any railroad company to purchase or secure for installation in its roadbed or track all ties, rails, ballast and other material and equipment as may, in the judgment of the Commission, be necessary for the proper maintenance of the whole or any designated portion of such track and roadbed so as to put the same in safe condition and enable such railroad to adequately perform its duties to the public and to transport freight and passengers with safety and dispatch. [Acts 1915, p. 201.]

Art. 6507. Penalty for failure to comply.—When the Commission has made such order as authorized by the preceding article, each railroad company subject thereto shall promptly comply with the terms thereof, and for failure or refusal to do so, such company or its receiver shall become liable to the State of Texas, for a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. In addition to such penalties, any court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Attorney General shall issue writs of mandamus and mandatory injunctions and other proper writs to compel the compliance with such orders. [Id.]

Art. 6508. Improvement bonds.—When the Commission shall make an order as authorized by the provisions hereof for the improvement of any line of railway, it may in its discretion at the same time make an order permitting said railroad corporation to issue bonds sufficient to raise the money necessary to make such improvements; and authorize such railroad corporation to secure the same by proper mortgage upon its property, and designate such bonds and mortgages as "Improvement Bonds and Mortgages"; provided, the entire amount of bonds of said railroad company shall not exceed the assets of the said company. The Commission shall also see that the funds arising from the sale of such bonds are applied to the making of the improvements ordered by it to be made, and shall regulate the same in the proper manner and any sale of such "Improvement Bonds and Mortgages" at less than par value thereof, must in order to be valid, be approved by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6509. [6715] Sidings, etc.—All railroads in Texas shall build sidings and spur tracks sufficient to handle the business tendered such railroads, when so ordered by the Commission. [Acts 1903, p. 93.]

Art. 6510. [6716] To enforce compliance.—Power is conferred on the Railroad Commission to require compliance by railroad companies with the provisions of the preceding article, under such regulations as said Commission may deem reasonable; and all railroad companies shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for failure to comply with the requirements of the Commission as provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 6511. Switch connections.—Any railroad company or receiver upon application of a shipper tendering traffic for transportation sufficient to justify it, shall construct, maintain and operate upon reasonable terms, a switch connection with any private sidetrack or spur track constructed by such shipper, to connect with its railroad where such connection is reasonably practicable and can be put in with safety and will furnish sufficient business to justify the construction and maintenance of the same; and shall furnish cars for the movement of such traffic to the best of its ability and without discrimination in favor of or against such shipper. [Acts 1915, p. 66.]

Art. 6512. Application.—If any railroad company or its receiver shall fail to install and operate any such switch connection, on application therefor by any shipper, such shipper may make application to the Commission, and it shall enter such orders as may be necessary governing the construction, maintenance and operation of said switch connection, if reasonably practicable and safe and will furnish sufficient business to justify the construction and maintenance of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6513. To fix rates, prevent discrimination, etc.—The Commission shall fix just and reasonable rates to be charged by railroad companies or their receivers for traffic moved and handled over private sidetracks or spur tracks extending to private industries, and it shall adopt such rates, rules, and regulations as will prevent any discrimination in the operation of such tracks or the handling of such traffic. Whenever any railway company or receiver thereof shall operate any private sidetrack or spur track without charge, the Commission shall have authority to compel the operation without charge of any private sidetrack or spurtrack similarly situated. [Id.]

Art. 6514. To regulate private sidetracks, etc.—The Commission shall prescribe reasonable rates, rules and regulations for the operation of all private sidetracks or spur tracks constructed either by the railroad companies themselves or by individuals or corporate interests, or jointly by such railroads and individuals or corporations, when such private sidetracks or spur tracks are operated by railroad companies or the receivers thereof; and shall have power and authority to order and compel the operation of said private sidetracks or spur tracks whenever the railway company or receiver thereof is operating other private side tracks or spur tracks similarly situated, to prevent discrimination therein. [Id.]

Art. 6515. No discrimination.—Whenever any railroad company shall construct or maintain or contribute to the construction or maintenance of any private sidetrack or spur track to any private industry, the Commission shall order such railway company or receiver to construct or maintain or contribute to the construction or maintenance of a sidetrack or spur track to any private industry similarly situated on the same terms and conditions. [Id.]

Art. 6516. Failure to comply.—Should any railroad company or receiver thereof fail to obey the orders of the Commission issued in compliance with the five preceding articles, such failure shall subject such railroad company to a penalty of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 6517. Action for damages.—Any person injured by a violation of the terms of the six preceding articles shall have the right to bring suit for his actual damages and for the enforcement of his rights thereunder. [Id.]

Art. 6518. Re-arrangement.—The Commission shall investigate proposed or existing arrangement of railroad tracks, switches and depot buildings at railroad stations to determine whether or not proposed or existing arrangements of such tracks, switches and depot buildings are or may be dangerous to the public and to determine whether or not the public interest demands a re-arrangement or relocation of such tracks, switches and depot buildings to be made, and to determine whether or not such re-arrangement or relocation can be made upon terms and conditions reasonable and just to the person, firm, corporation or receiver owning or operating such tracks, switches and depot buildings, and the Commission may if the question can, under the facts, be resolved affirmatively, thereupon give notice to such persons, firm, corporation or receiver, and after public hearing and investigation, may require the person, firm, corporation or receiver, owning or operating such tracks, switches and depot buildings at such points to arrange, or re-arrange, or re-locate the same in accordance with the specifications made by the Commission. No such arrangement, re-arrangement, or relocation, shall be authorized or required within the limits of any incorporated city or town without the express consent of the governing body of such city or town. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 196.]

Art. 6519. Suits for penalties.—All penalties and forfeitures provided for by this chapter for a violation of any provision hereof by railway companies recoverable by and payable to the State or any municipal subdivision thereof shall be determined by a direct suit in a proper court instituted by or under the direction of the Attorney General in Travis County or in any county into or through which the line of the offending railway company may run. The attorney bringing such suit shall receive a fee of fifty dollars for each penalty recovered and collected by him, and ten per cent of the amount collected to be paid by the State; and the fees so allowed shall be over and above the fees allowed such attorney under the provisions of law. In all suits arising under this chapter, the rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the State under this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury.

Art. 6520. [6717] Regulating stocks, bonds, etc.—Among other things, the power and authority of issuing or executing bonds, or other evidences of debt, and all kinds of stocks and shares thereof, and the executions of liens and mortgages by railroad corporations in this State are special privileges and franchises, the right of supervision, regulation, restriction and control of which has always been, is now, and shall continue to be vested in the State government, to be exercised according to the provisions of this and other laws. [Acts 1893, p. 56; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 486.]

Art. 6521. [6718] Incumbrance above value of road.—No bonds or other indebtedness shall be increased or issued or executed by any authority whatsoever, and secured by any lien or mortgage on any railroad or part of railroad, or the franchises or property appurtenant or belonging thereto, over the reasonable value of said railroad property; provided, that in case of emergency, on conclusive proof shown by the company to the Commission that public interests or the preservation of the property demand it, the Commission may permit said bonds, together with the stock in the aggregate, to be executed to an amount not more than fifty per cent over the value of said property. [Id.]

Art. 6522. [6719] To ascertain values, etc.—The Commission shall ascertain, and in writing report to the Secretary of State, the value of each railroad in this State, including all its franchises, appurtenances and property. After it shall have prepared said report the Commission shall give the company interested ten days notice in writing by registered letter to the president, treasurer or receiver of said railroad, to the effect that said report is ready to be made, and that if it has any objections thereto it must file them in writing within forty days after said service, or the same will be so deposited with the Secretary of State as correct. If the company files with said Commission any objections to said report, the Commission shall duly investigate and pass on same, and if it concludes that its report of value is too low or too high, then it shall make the necessary correction before filing it. If no objections are filed within the time permitted, or being filed and on examination found without merit, the Commission shall forthwith file its said report in the office of the Secretary of State, where it shall remain as a public record, as a limitation for the issuance of indebtedness under the limitations prescribed in this title. To promote public interests and protect private rights, the Commission, after due notice under the rule herein prescribed, may correct its report of the value of any railroad at any time it may deem proper. [Id.]

Art. 6523. [6720] Effect of sale of road.—Every judicial or other sale of any railroad in this State which shall have the effect to discharge the property so sold from liability in the hands of purchasers for claims for damages, unsecured debts, or junior mortgages against such railroad company so sold, shall have the effect to annul and cancel all claims of every stockholder therein to any share in the stock of such railroad; and it shall not be lawful for said purchasers, or for any railroad company to operate said railroad, to issue any stock in lieu of the old stock or to allow any compensation therefor in any manner whatever, nor shall all or any part of the debt to satisfy which such sale is made be continued or held as a claim or lien on said property. [Id.]

Art. 6524. [6721] Purchasers may issue bonds, etc.—The purchaser of said property who procures it clear of incumbrance, or any company organized by his consent to operate said railroad under and in pursuance of the laws of this State, may issue stock and bonds in the proportion that he may deem advisable, subject to the rules and limitations prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 6525. [6722] Authority to issue bonds.—Should any company or corporation authorized to construct, own or operate a railroad in this State desire to issue bonds or other indebtedness, to be secured by lien or other mortgage on its franchises and property in advance of the completion of the said railroad, it shall make application to and first procure the consent of the Commission thereto. In said application, it shall exhibit to the Commission its contract with the construction company, if it have any, the profile of its completed road or part of road, the evidence of its right of way, depot grounds, terminal facilities, the extent and value of work done or in the process of completion, the amount of property received, the amount of stock subscribed and the amount paid in, and all other necessary facts showing the value of the franchise and property proposed as security for said contemplated debts. If, on investigation, the Commission is satisfied that the company is acting in good faith, and that its contract with the construction company is reasonable and fair to the public, then it shall authorize the execution of said indebtedness and a lien to the extent necessary for the demands of the work, at no time to be fifty per cent over the value of the whole property and franchises. In executing said bonds, the company shall comply with Article 6526, and have them registered as required in Article 6527. [Id.]

Art. 6526. [6723] Certificates of stock.—Each railroad company now existing, or which shall hereafter be organized, or which shall be re-organized under the laws of this State, or which shall increase its stock under the laws of this State, shall issue certificates to the subscribers to its said stock under the following regulations: A majority of the board of directors shall meet in person in this State, at the principal office of such company, and shall cause to be made a list of the subscribers to such stock, showing the number of shares subscribed by each, the amount of stock represented by each share and the amount actually paid, labor done or property received on each share of stock, and shall cause to be affixed to each name on said list a number, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any certificate previously issued. The president of the board, or presiding officer of the meeting at which the issuing of such certificates of stock is authorized, shall make a certificate signed by him in person to said statement to the effect that the same is correct, and that the amount of money paid, labor done and property received as stated is correct. Such statement shall thereupon be entered at large upon the minutes, and, after having the seal of the company affixed thereto, shall be attested by the secretary of the company, and deposited with the Commission, and by it filed and preserved in its office. The secretary of the company shall then be authorized to make out and deliver to each stockholder in said list a certificate corresponding with said statement in number, name, number of shares, amount of stock represented by each share, and the amount of money or its equivalent paid upon each share; which certificate shall be signed by the president of the said railroad company, attested by the secretary, with the seal of said company affixed. No railroad company shall increase its stock unless all existing shares of stock shall have been paid in full, or all unpaid shares of such stock have been sold out as forfeited under the law. When the certificates to be issued are for increase of stock, the statement herein required to be made by the board of directors shall state that all existing shares of stock have been paid in full, or that all shares not paid in full have been sold out or forfeited under the law. In no event shall the stock exceed the value of the railway property, and the correct aggregate amount of stock so issued by each railway company shall be certified to and registered in the office of the Secretary of State by or at the instance of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6527. [6724] Prerequisites.—When any railroad company in this State desires to make, issue, and sell any bonds, or evidences of debt, which are to become a lien on its property, it shall comply with the laws of this State regulating the same, and in addition thereto shall have said bonds prepared, signed by the president of the company, and attested by the secretary, with the seal of the company attached thereto. Each bond shall be numbered, beginning with number one, or the next highest number of any preceding bond issued by it, and continue consecutively until all are numbered. The bonds shall be dated, made payable at a time not exceeding thirty years from date and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. Said bonds, when thus prepared, shall be presented to the Commission, with a written statement, signed and sworn to by the president of said company, showing the amount of the stock of said company and the amount of outstanding bonds, if any, of said company. If said bonds are such as are permitted under this law, and the Commission shall be so satisfied, it shall approve said bonds, and shall issue to the Secretary of State a direction to register said bonds, specifying the numbers, dates, and amounts thereof. Said Commission shall keep in its office a correct record of the bonds so approved by it, giving the name of the company, the numbers, dates of execution and maturity of the bonds, the amount and rate of interest of each, and the date of approval. This provision shall not apply to receiver's certificates where the amount does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 6528. [6725] Registering bonds.—When such bonds shall be presented to the Secretary of State with said direction to register, he shall register said bonds by entering a description thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall show the date, number, amount, when due, the rate of interest on each bond, and also the date when the same is registered. The Secretary of State shall indorse on each bond, under the seal of his office and his official signature, together with the date thereof, as follows: "This bond is registered under the direction of the Railroad Commission of Texas." No bond or other evidence of debt, hereafter issued by or under the authority of any person, firm, corporation, court, or railroad company, whereby a lien is created on its franchise or property situated in this State, shall be valid or have any force until the same has been registered as required herein. [Id.]

Art. 6529. [6726] Forfeiture of charter.—If any railroad company owning or operating a railroad in this State shall issue or consent or cause to be issued any bonds or other evidences of debt to be or become a lien on its railroad property so owned or operated, or shall issue any stock not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, such action shall work a forfeiture of its charter. [Id.]

Art. 6530. [6727] Certificates, bonds, etc., void.—Every certificate of stock in any railroad company, and every bond and other evidence of debt operating as a lien upon the property of such railroad company, which shall be made, issued or sold without first complying with the provisions of this chapter shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6531. [6728] False statement.—Each railroad director, president, secretary or other official, who shall knowingly make any false statement upon which to secure the registration of any bond or other evidence of debt as aforesaid, or who shall by false statement knowingly made procure of the Commission direction to the Secretary of State to register the same, and which shall be by the Secretary of State registered, or shall with the knowledge of such fraud negotiate, or cause to be negotiated, any such bond or other security issued in violation of this chapter, shall be liable to any creditor of such company for the full amount of damages sustained by such wrongful conduct. [Id.]

Art. 6532. [6729] State not liable.—Nothing in this law, and no act done or performed under or in connection with it shall be construed to make the State of Texas liable to pay or guarantee, in any manner whatsoever, any obligation, debt or claim executed or assumed under or by virtue of its provisions. [Id.]

Art. 6533. [6730] Construction of branch lines.—Any corporation incorporated for the purpose of constructing, owning, maintaining and operating a railroad under the laws of this State, which has outstanding stocks and also outstanding bonds secured by a mortgage lien upon its property, or by any other character of lien, may amend its charter in the manner provided in this title, and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, and may provide by such amendment for the making of any extension or extensions, or branch line or lines that it may desire to construct, and may issue stocks and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable value of such extension or extensions, or such branch line or lines, and such terminal properties as it may acquire, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The Commission is hereby empowered to authorize the execution and issuance of such stocks and bonds, or bonds, and in determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, said Commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock or indebtedness, or bonds previously issued and secured by a lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed; provided, that any existing mortgages or liens upon the property of such corporation constructed or owned prior to the time of making such amendment of its charter and to the construction of such extension or extensions, or branch line or lines, or to the acquiring of such terminal properties, shall not attach to or become a lien upon the extension or extensions, branch line or lines, or terminal properties constructed or acquired under such amended charter. This article shall not be so construed as to in any wise repeal or impair any other provision of this chapter or of the existing laws of this State except in so far as the same may be changed by the provisions of this article. [Acts 1901, p. 257.]

Art. 6534. [6732] May issue for double tracks.—Any railroad company chartered under the laws of this State, whenever the Commission shall find it advisable to authorize it to do so, may construct, own and operate an additional line of road upon its right of way, together with all necessary sidings, switches and turnouts, and may issue stock and bonds, or bonds, in an amount equal to the reasonable cost of such improvements, the same to be issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; and the Commission may authorize the execution and issuance of such stock and bonds, or bonds. In determining the right to issue such stock and bonds, or bonds, the Commission shall not consider the amount of outstanding stock, indebtedness or bonds previously issued and secured by lien upon the property of such corporation theretofore constructed. [Acts 1903, p. 131.]

Art. 6535. [6733] Eminent domain. — All corporations chartered for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, maintaining and operating lines of electric railway between any cities and towns in this State for the transportation of freight or passengers, or both, shall have the right of eminent domain with all the rights and powers as fully as are conferred by law upon steam railroad corporations, and shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, rights of way, easements and property of any person or corporation whomsoever for the purpose of acquiring rights of way upon which to construct and operate their lines of railways and sites for depots and power plants. [Acts 1907, p. 23.]

Art. 6536. [6734] Right of way.—Such corporation shall have the right and power to lay out rights of way for their railways not to exceed two hundred feet in width, and to construct their railways and appurtenances thereon, and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of their said railways, and to cut down any standing trees or remove any other structure that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing such railway, compensation being made therefor in accordance with law. Such corporation may have such examination and survey of their proposed railways made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purposes may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation subject to responsibility for all damages that may be occasioned thereby. [Id.]

Art. 6537. [6735] Streams, streets, etc.—They may construct their railways along, across and over any stream of water, water course, bay, navigable water, arm of the sea, street, highway, steam railway, plank road, turnpike or canal which the route of such railway shall touch, and erect and operate bridges, trams, trestles, or causeways over, along or across any such stream, water course, navigable water, bay, arm of the sea, street, highway, plank road, turnpike, or canal. Such bridge or other structure shall be so erected as to not unnecessarily or unreasonably prevent the navigation of such stream, water course, bay, arm of the sea or navigable water and nothing herein shall authorize the construction of any such railway upon or across any street, alley, square or property of any incorporated city or town without the assent of said corporation of said city or town, and before constructing an electric railway along and upon highways, plank roads, turnpikes or canals, such interurban electric railway company shall first obtain the consent of the lawful authorities having the jurisdiction of the same. [Id.]

Art. 6538. [6737] Rights over other electric railway tracks, etc.—The right of condemnation herein given to interurban electric railway companies shall include the power and authority to condemn for their use and benefit, easements and rights of way to operate interurban cars along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company owning, controlling or operating such track or tracks upon any public street or alley in any town or city of this State for the purpose herein-after mentioned, subject to the consent, authority and control of the governing body of such town or city. [Id.]

Art. 6539. [6738] Proceedings to condemn.—Any interurban electric railway company, seeking to avail itself of the benefits of this chapter shall have the right to condemn an easement along and upon the track or tracks of any electric street railway company for the purpose only of securing an entrance into and an outlet from a town or city upon a route to be designated by the governing body of the city or town. In any proceeding to condemn an easement or right of way for the purposes above mentioned, the court, or the jury trying the case shall define and fix the terms and conditions upon which such easement or right of way shall be used. The court rendering such judgment shall be authorized upon a subsequent application or applications by either of the parties to the original proceedings, or any one claiming through or under them, to review and reform the terms and conditions of such grant and the provisions of such judgment, and the hearing upon such application shall be in the nature of a retrial of said cause with respect to the terms and conditions upon which said easement shall be used; but the court shall not have power upon any such rehearing to declare such easement forfeited or to impair the exercise thereof, and no application for a rehearing shall be made until two years after the final judgment on the last preceding application. [Id.]

Art. 6540. [6739] “Interurban railway company.”—An interurban electric railway company, within the meaning of this chapter, is a corporation chartered under the laws of this State for the purpose of conducting and operating an electric railway between two cities or between two incorporated towns or between one city and one incorporated town in this State; and the rights secured under this chapter by any interurban company shall be inoperative and void if the road to be constructed under the charter of said company is not fully constructed from a city or incorporated town to some other city or incorporated town within twelve months from the date of the final judgment awarding to said company said easements and right of way. Any interurban company availing itself of the privileges conferred in this chapter is hereby prohibited from receiving for transportation at any point on that portion of the track or tracks so condemned, without the consent of the company over whose track or tracks the easement is condemned, any freight or passengers destined to a point or points between the termini of the track or tracks so condemned; and a wilful violation by the company of the provisions of this article shall operate to forfeit such easements or rights of way. [Id.]

Art. 6541. [6740] To sell light and power.—Interurban electric railway companies shall also have the right to produce, supply and sell electric light and power to the public and to municipalities. [Id.]

Art. 6542. [6741] Provisions cumulative.—No provision in this chapter shall be construed to have the effect to confer the power of eminent domain, or any power herein conferred, except that conferred in the preceding article, upon any interurban railroad or interurban railroad company, or upon any person, firm, association, or corporation or to add to the powers already possessed by any such railroad or railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation so as to enable or authorize it to condemn any land or ground occupied by any portion of its line or track, already constructed March 5, 1907, or to condemn any land or ground for the purpose of changing the location of any track or line already constructed at said date. Nothing in this article shall be construed to take from any interurban railroad company, person, firm, association or corporation, any power of eminent domain already possessed by it. [Id.]

Art. 6543. Merger.—Any corporation organized under the laws of this State authorized to construct, acquire and operate electric or other interurban lines of railway in this State, commonly known as interurban railways, may acquire, lease or purchase the physical properties, rights and franchise of any other railway corporation having and possessing like power, or may lease or purchase physical properties, rights and franchises of any suburban or street railway corporation, the lines of whose railway are to be operated in connection with the lines of the interurban railway, and may sell or dispose of the physical properties, rights and franchise by such corporation or person owning the same, to such corporation, acquiring, leasing or purchasing same hereunder. Such acquisition or purchase may be made upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the respective boards of directors and authorized or approved by a majority of the stockholders of such corporations, respectively. Corporations owning and operating said street car railways before making sale of its properties hereunder, shall obtain the consent of the governing body of the city where such street car line may be located; and, in cities and towns operating under any charter which provides for the right of qualified voters to vote on the granting or amending of franchise to street railways or interurban railways, this right shall still exist. Any corporation authorized to construct, acquire and operate electric or other interurban lines of railway in this State, commonly known as interurban railways, shall also have the power to make and enter into trackage or lease contract with any corporation owning and operating street railways, so as to procure continuous passage into or through such city or town; provided, the governing body of the city or town shall consent thereto; in such case, the owner of such street railways is also authorized to enter into such trackage or lease contract. No corporation named in this article shall ever be permitted to acquire, own, control or operate any parallel or competing interurban line. No such corporation shall be permitted to purchase, lease, acquire, own or control, directly or indirectly, the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights or the physical properties or any part thereof, of any other corporation, if the same will violate any provision of the law commonly known as the anti-trust law. [Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 31.]

Art. 6544. [6742-45] Street railway fares.—All persons or corporations owning or operating street railways in or upon the public streets of any town or city of not less than forty thousand inhabitants are required:

1. To carry children of the age of twelve years or less for one-half the fare regularly collected for the transportation of adults. This law shall not apply to street cars carrying children or students to and from schools, colleges or other institutions of learning situated at a distance of one mile or more beyond the limits of the incorporated city or town from which said cars run.

2. To sell or provide for the sale of tickets in lots of twenty, each good for one trip over the line or lines owned or operated by such person or corporation, for one-half of the regular fare collected for the transportation of adults, to students not more than seventeen years of age in actual attendance upon any academic, public or private school of grades not higher than the grades of the public high schools situated within or adjacent to the town or city in which such railway is located. Such tickets are required to be sold only upon the presentation by the student desiring to purchase them of the written certificate of the principal of the school which he attends showing that he is not more than seventeen years old, is in regular attendance upon such school and is within the grades herein provided. Such tickets are not required to be sold to such students and shall not be used except during the months when such school is in actual session and such students shall be transported at half fare only when they present such tickets.

3. To transport free of charge children of the age of five years or less when attended by a passenger of above said age.

4. To accord to all passengers referred to in this article the same rights as to the use of transfers issued by their own or other lines as are or may be accorded to passengers paying full fare. [Acts 1903, p. 132.]

Art. 6545. Street and suburban railways.—All street and suburban railways engaged in the transportation of freight within and near cities and towns, shall be subject to the control of the Railroad Commission. No street railway company shall be exempt from payment of assessments that may be legally levied or charged against it for street improvements. Any corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under the general laws of this State, and which owns or operates with electric power any street or suburban railway or belt line of railways within and near cities and towns for the transportation of freight and passengers within Texas shall be authorized to supply and sell electric light and power to the public or municipalities, and to acquire or otherwise provide the necessary appliances therefore, and may, by proceeding in the manner provided by law, amend its articles of incorporation so as to expressly include such authority. When the Railroad Commission shall decide that any corporation created under chapter one of this title for the purpose of operating a local suburban railway not exceeding ten miles from the corporate limits of any city or town in addition to such mileage as it may have within the same, is not for any reason subject to the control of said Commission in reference to the issuance of stocks and bonds or either under the provisions of Chapter 50, Acts 1893, after such decision of the Commission, said corporation shall have the right to issue its stocks and bonds or either and also to increase its stocks and bonds or either without the control of the Commission and without complying with the Act aforesaid in reference thereto, and when so issued said stocks and bonds shall in all respects be valid and binding. [Acts 1897, p. 189; Acts 1903, pp. 29, 62; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1243.]

Art. 6546. Freight interurbans.—All electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol or naphtha interurban or motor railways incorporated as such, which shall engage in transporting freight, shall be subject to the control of the Railroad Commission. No such corporation shall ever be exempt from the payment of assessments that may be legally levied or assessed against it for street improvements. Such interurban railways shall have the same right of eminent domain as are now given by law to steam railroads, and may exercise such right for the purpose of acquiring right of way upon which to construct their railway lines, and sites for depots and power plants, and shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as are now granted by law to interurban electric railway companies. Any such interurban company shall have the right and authority to acquire, hold and operate other public utilities in and adjacent to the cities or towns within or through which said company operates. No property upon which is located a cemetery shall ever be condemned by any such interurban railway, unless it shall affirmatively be shown, and so found by the court trying such condemnation suit, that it is necessary to take such property, and no other route is possible or practicable. [Id. Acts 1903, p. 204; Acts 1897, p. 188; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S., p. 396; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 1242; Acts 1917, p. 390.]

Art. 6547. Plants and buildings.—Any corporation heretofore organized under any law of this State, and which now or may hereafter operate a line of electric, gas or gasoline, denatured alcohol, or naphtha motor railway, within and between any cities or towns in Texas, is authorized to own and operate union depots and office buildings, and to acquire, hold and operate electric light and power plants in and adjacent to cities or towns within or through which said company operates. Such existing corporation, or one heretofore organized under subdivision 68 of Article 1302 may, by proceeding in the manner provided by law, amend its charter so as to expressly include any or all powers herein authorized. [Id.]

Art. 6548. Jitney lines.—Any corporation operating a street or suburban railway or interurban railway, and carrying passengers for hire, is hereby authorized to maintain and operate motor trucks or jitney lines in connection with their said business for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire on the public roads, streets, squares, alleys and highways within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town under such regulations as may be prescribed by any such city or town, and on the public roads and highways within five miles of the corporate limits of any such incorporated city or town, under such regulations as the commissioners court of such county may prescribe. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 97.]

Art. 6549. Terminal railways.—Terminal railways shall have all the rights and powers conferred by law upon railroads by Chapters 6 and 7 of this title, and when such railway is adjacent to any inland navigable stream or water body, it shall have the right and power to construct, erect, operate and maintain all necessary and convenient facilities to accommodate and expeditiously handle the exchange of freight and passenger traffic with all steamship and other vessels and water craft using such waterways; and shall have the right to issue bonds in excess of its authorized capital stock under the direction of the Railroad Commission of Texas, in accordance with the stock and bond law regulating the issuance of stocks and bonds by railroads. Said commission shall fix the values of the property, rights and franchises of such railway company; and its stocks and bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by said Commission in which jurisdiction over the issuance of the bonds herein authorized is hereby vested. No such terminal company shall have the right to charge any railroad company, steamship, vessel or water craft for terminal facilities a greater amount than may be from time to time designated and established by said Commission, which shall have authority to establish and prescribe such rates and rules for the operation of all such terminal companies as will prevent discrimination by them against any common carrier with respect to either charge or service. The provisions of Articles 6452, 6453 and 6454, shall apply to any and all orders, rulings, judgments and decrees of said Commission made, entered or held under the provisions of this law in respect to such terminal railway companies. [Acts 1897, p. 188; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1242; Acts 1905, p. 211; Acts 1907, p. 300; Acts 1917, p. 134.]

Art. 6550. Road to mines, etc.—Corporations created to build, maintain and operate a line of railroads to mines, gins, quarries, manufacturing plants, and mills, shall have the right to condemn land necessary for the right of way for such road from and between such mines, gin, quarry, manufacturing plant or mill and the nearest line of railroad, provided, that no such corporation shall have said right of eminent domain until it shall declare itself a public highway and common carrier, thus placing said road under the control of the Railroad Commission. [Acts 1897, p. 192; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1246.]

Art. 6551. [1243-4] Union depots.—Corporations formed for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining and operating union passenger depots in any city or town in which any two or more railroad companies own or operate a railroad, shall have power and authority to acquire, own or lease, maintain and operate railroad tracks in any city or town for the purpose of enabling railroad companies to run their trains to and from the union depot; such tracks not to extend to a greater distance than three miles from such union depot. Such corporations may also add additional stories to their depot buildings and rent the same for offices or other purposes; and may also provide on their property buildings for express purposes, and rent the same to express companies. The Railroad Commission of Texas shall have the same supervision and control over said railroads and tariff rates and depots that it has over any other lines of railroad and depot buildings in Texas. [Acts 1895, p. 187; Acts 1897, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 10, pp. 917, 1096.]

Art. 6552. [1245] Finances.—The provisions of Chapter 12 of this title shall govern and control the issuance of stock and bonds of such corporations as far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6553. [1246] Interest in railways.—Railway companies existing under the laws of Texas, whether under general or special law, and railway companies incorporated under any general or special law of the United States, are authorized and empowered to subscribe to the stock, and purchase and own stock and bonds of any depot company formed under the authority of this law. [Id.]

Art. 6554. [1247-8] Condemnation.—Corporations created for the purposes contemplated herein may secure by condemnation such land or real estate as may be necessary for the business and purposes of such corporation, including all lands necessary for depot buildings, passenger sheds, yards or tracks requisite to the convenient use of the depot. Such corporations, by such condemnation, may acquire the fee simple title. After the award by the commissioners, and pending further litigation, the corporation may enter upon and take possession of the land sought to be condemned, by complying with the terms and conditions of any general laws of this State authorizing any corporation having the right to condemn to so enter upon and take possession of such land or real estate. Art. 6555. Certain cities may contract.—All cities acting under special charters granted by the legislature are hereby granted all necessary rights and powers to carry out and comply with existing contracts or to hereafter make contracts with railway companies owning or operating tracks in such cities, to erect and complete by such railway companies, all necessary viaducts, the construction and completion of which shall be at the expense of such railway companies, according to plans and specifications agreed upon between such companies and such cities. [Acts 1911, p. 235.]

Art. 6556. May close streets.—All such cities are hereby given authority to abolish and close such portions of any highway, street or alley crossed by railroad tracks, as such cities have or may agree to close and abolish, in consideration of procuring the erection and completion of any viaduct by any railway company or companies. [Id.]

Art. 6557. May issue bonds.—Such cities are hereby given full power and authority to issue improvement bonds to be designated "viaduct bonds" to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to pay for the right of way for a viaduct, over such property or may not be owned by such cities or by any of the railway companies affected, and to pay such damages, if any, which may be sustained by abutting property owners. The question of issuance of said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the property tax paying voters, and shall be carried by a majority vote of said voters, such election being called as is provided for on other questions in the charters of cities desiring an election on said bonds. In addition, such cities are hereby given authority to give railroad companies the use of any portion of its streets, highways and alleys as may be necessary for a right of way for viaducts. [Id.]

Art. 6558. Condemnation.—All such cities are hereby given the right of eminent domain and the power and authority to condemn all land necessary for right of way purposes for viaducts and approaches to same forming a necessary part of such viaduct. [Id.]

Art. 6559. May enforce contracts.—All such cities are hereby given the right and power to compel the construction and completion of such viaducts as railway companies have by contract agreed with any such city to construct and complete or which any railway company or companies may hereafter agree to construct and complete, by mandamus proceedings in the district court of the county where such viaduct or viaducts are to be completed or through any other lawful means. | Term of service | 6565 | Regulations | 6572 |
| Purchase of supplies | 6566 | Qualifications of members..... | 6573 |

Art. 6560. [6754] Organization.—The ranger force authorized to be organized by the Governor is for the purpose of protecting the frontier against marauding or thieving parties, and for the suppression of lawlessness and crime throughout the State, and to aid in the enforcement of the laws of the State. [Acts 1901, p. 41; Acts 1919, p. 263.]

Art. 6561. [6755] Companies.—The Ranger force shall consist of not to exceed one headquarters company and four companies of mounted men, except in cases of emergency, when the Governor shall have authority to increase the force to meet extraordinary conditions.

The headquarters company shall consist of one captain, who shall be designated the senior captain of the force, one sergeant, and not to exceed four privates.

Each separate mounted company shall consist of not to exceed one captain, one sergeant and fifteen privates. The captains and the quartermaster shall be appointed by the Governor and shall be removed at his pleasure; unless so removed by the Governor they shall serve for two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

The enlisted men and non-commissioned officers of each company shall be appointed by the Governor, acting by and through the Adjutant General, who shall pass upon the qualifications of such men, and so far as practicable shall make such appointment upon the recommendation of the captain, under whom such men are to serve. The enlisted men and non-commissioned officers shall serve for two years, unless sooner removed by the Governor or the Adjutant General for cause. [Id.]

Art. 6562. [6756] Compensation.—The pay of officers and men shall be: Captains $150.00 each per month; sergeants $100.00 each per month; and privates $90.00 each per month, except as herein otherwise provided. The payment shall be made monthly at such times and in such manner as the Adjutant General may prescribe. The officers and enlisted men on the ranger force shall receive in addition to their regular salary an increase of five per cent after the first two years of continuous service and five per cent for each additional year not to exceed in all twenty per cent of their salary as above provided. For the violation or breach of such rules and regulations for the governing of the ranger force as may be prescribed by the Adjutant General and approved by the Governor, officers and enlisted men shall forfeit their right to participate in the increase or longevity pay, or any portion thereof provided for herein. [Acts 1901, p. 41; Acts 1917, 1st C. S. p. 57; Acts 1919, p. 263.]

Art. 6563. [6757] Quartermaster.—The Governor shall appoint a quartermaster for the ranger force who shall discharge the duties of a quartermaster, commissary and paymaster, and shall have the rank and pay of a captain. [Id.]

Art. 6564. [6758] Governor in command.—This force shall always be under the command of the Governor; to be operated under his direction in such manner, in such detachments, and in such localities as the Governor may direct, acting by and through the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 6565. [6759] Term of service.—The Governor is authorized to keep this force, or so much thereof as he may deem necessary in the field as long as in his judgment there may be necessity for such a force; and men who may be enlisted in such service shall do so for such term not to exceed two years subject to disbandment in whole or in part at any time and reassemblage or reorganization of the whole force, or such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary by order of the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 6566. [6760] Purchase of supplies.—The quartermaster, when directed by the Adjutant General shall purchase all supplies for the ranger force, and shall make a certificate on the voucher of the party or parties from whom the supplies are purchased to the fact that the account is correct and just, and the articles purchased were at the lowest market prices. [Id.]

Art. 6567. [6761] Equipment.—Each officer, non-commissioned officer and private of said force shall furnish himself with a suitable horse, horse equipment, clothing, etc. If his horse is killed in action it shall be paid for by the State at a fair market value at the time when killed. [Id.]

Art. 6568. [6762] Arms and equipment.—The State shall furnish each member of said force with one improved carbine and pistol at cost, the price of which shall be deducted from the first money due such officer or man, and shall furnish said force with rations of subsistence, camp equipage and ammunition for the officers and men, and also forage for horses. [Id.]

Art. 6569. [6763] Subsistence and quarters.—In addition to the pay allowed to each officer and man of this force, they shall be allowed not to exceed $30.00 per month for subsistence when at their station, and when on duty outside of his district each member of said force shall be allowed his actual necessary expenses for subsistence and quarters, to be paid on a sworn account showing the actual amount expended, not to exceed $3.00 per day. In addition thereto, each member shall be allowed his actual railroad expenses when traveling under orders. When any company of said force furnishes motor transportation without expense to the State, they shall be allowed $50.00 per month per company for repairs and upkeep for said motor vehicle. [Id.]

Art. 6570. [6764] Powers of peace officers.—The officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of this force shall be clothed with all the powers of peace officers, and shall aid the regular civil authorities in the execution of the laws. They shall have authority to make arrests, and to execute process in criminal cases, and in such cases shall be governed by the laws regulating and defining the powers and duties of sheriffs when in discharge of similar duties; except that they shall have the power and shall be authorized to make arrests and to execute all process in criminal cases in any county in the State. They shall, before entering on the discharge of these duties, take an oath that each of them will faithfully perform his duties in accordance with law. To arrest and bring to justice men who have banded together to prevent the execution of the laws or to commit robbery or other felonies, the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of said force may accept the services of such citizens as shall volunteer to aid them; but while so engaged such citizens shall not receive pay from the State for such services. [Id.]

Art. 6571. [6765] Arrests.—When said force, or any member or members thereof, shall arrest any person charged with a criminal offense, they shall forthwith convey said person to the county where he or they so stand charged, and shall deliver him or them to the proper officer, taking his receipt therefor. All necessary expenses thus incurred shall be paid by the State. [Id.]

Art. 6572. [6766] Regulations.—The Governor and Adjutant General shall cause to be made such regulations for the government and control of the organization herein provided for, for the enlistment and employment of non-commissioned officers and privates as they may deem necessary, so that the force so provided for shall be as effective as possible. When any complaint is made to the Adjutant General charging any ranger with misconduct or violation of the law, the Adjutant General will have the right to institute proceedings before any magistrate in the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed. Upon application of the Adjutant General said magistrate shall issue process for witnesses to appear and testify under oath, which testimony shall be reduced to writing by a stenographer and transmitted by the court to the Adjutant General, who shall take such action as the facts warrant. The cost of such proceedings including fee of $3.00 of the magistrate and fifteen cents for each one hundred words of testimony so taken and transcribed shall be paid by the Comptroller upon approval by the Adjutant General out of funds appropriated for enforcement of law. Any citizen who knows of any such misconduct or violation of the law on the part of any member of the ranger force shall at once notify the Adjutant General in writing of misconduct, and the Adjutant General shall at once conduct such examination and take such action thereon as the facts make necessary and without delay submit all of such evidence and his actions thereon to the Governor for his approval or disapproval. [Id.]

Art. 6573. Qualifications of members.—No person shall be appointed to the ranger force who is not a citizen of the United States and of Texas, and preference shall always be given to discharged soldiers holding certificates of honorable discharge from the United States Army. All officers and men selected shall be sober men of good moral character and sound judgment, shall furnish satisfactory evidence thereof, and shall conform to such qualifications as the Governor shall prescribe for appointment. All applications for appointment to the ranger force shall be made to the Governor, who shall pass upon the qualifications of each applicant. [Acts 1919, p. 263.]

Art. 6574. [6767-8] [4585] [4281] Old records transcribed.
 —When any of the records or indexes of a county become defaced, worn or in a condition endangering their preservation in a safe and legible form, the commissioners court of such county shall procure necessary, well bound books and require the officer having the custody thereof, to transcribe such records into such new books so as to perfectly conform to the original record as indexed. The designation of such new records, whether by letter or number, shall not be changed from the original. Such transcribed records shall be carefully compared with the originals by the officer who transcribes them, assisted by a sworn deputy. [Acts 1876, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 920.]

Art. 6575. [6769] [4587] [4283] Correctness certified to.
 —When such records have been correctly transcribed, the officer with his deputies who transcribed and verified them, shall officially certify at the conclusion of the record to the correctness of the same with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page, stating the number of pages contained in the book from one to the highest number. [Id.]

Art. 6576. [6771] [4589] [4285] Records of county surveyor.—Where the records of the county surveyor's office have been so transcribed, the surveyor shall certify the correctness of such transcribed records and make affidavit thereto before the county clerk of his county who shall impress thereon the seal of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 6577. [6770] [4588] [4284] Original books preserved.
 —The original books transcribed according to the provisions of this title shall be carefully kept and preserved by such clerk, as other archives of his office. [Id.]

Art. 6578. [6772-3-4] Records of new county transcribed.
 —The commissioners court of a county which has been created, either in whole or in part from the territory of another county or counties, or to which may have been added since its creation, the territory of another county or counties, shall require the county clerk to transcribe from the record of said other county or counties in substantial well bound record books to be furnished him by the commissioners court, each deed, mortgage, conveyance, incumbrance and muniment of title affecting or in anywise relating to all lands and real property embraced in the territory so acquired from such other county or counties, which deeds, mortgages, conveyances, incumbrances and muniments of title appear of record in the county or counties from which said territory may have been taken. When the territory acquired was from more than one county, then the clerk shall use a separate book for each county, and such records shall be indexed and arranged as is provided by law. Said records shall be legibly transcribed, and when so transcribed shall be carefully compared with the original record by the said clerk or his deputies who transcribed them. When said record or records have been correctly transcribed, the county clerk and his deputies who transcribed and verified them, shall certify the correctness of such records under their official oath of office at the conclusion thereof with the impress of the seal of said court affixed on the same page. [Acts 1879, p. 105; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1405.]

Art. 6579. [6775] [4593] Pay for making transcript.—The county clerk or person making such transcript shall receive not exceeding fifteen cents per hundred words for transcribing, comparing and verifying said records, the amount to be fixed by the commissioners court in the order directing the transcribing of such records; said compensation to be paid out of the county treasury upon warrant issued under the order of the commissioners court of the newly created county. [Acts 1917, p. 88.]

Art. 6580. [6776] [4593] Translation.—Any commissioners court may require the county clerk of its county to have translated into English all or any part of the archives and records of their offices which are in Spanish and which relate to titles to land, and copy said translations in a well bound book or books, but they shall not contract to pay more than fifteen cents per hundred words for both the translation and recording. [Acts 1893, p. 168; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 598.]

Art. 6581. [6777] [4593] Effect of such translations.—When such Spanish archives and records are translated and recorded, said records in English shall have the same force and effect as if the archives and instruments were originally made and recorded in the English language, and certified copies may be used as evidence and otherwise, for like purposes and with like effect as the originals are and certified copies of records of the originals can now be used; and said record books hereinbefore provided for shall be permanent archives and records of the county clerk's office of the counties when so translated and recorded. [Id.]

| | | Copies of records | 6590 |

Art. 6582. [6778] [4594] [4286] Lost records supplied by proof.—All deeds, bonds, bills of sale, mortgages, deeds of trust, powers of attorney and conveyances which are required or permitted by law to be acknowledged or recorded, and which have been so acknowledged or recorded, which have been lost or destroyed, and all judgments of courts of record in this State, where the record of the court containing such judgment has been lost, destroyed or carried away, may be supplied by parol proof of the contents thereof; which proof shall be taken in the manner hereinafter provided. [Acts 1876, p. 45; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 881.]

Art. 6583. [6779] [4595] [4287] Proceedings to establish lost records.—Any person having any interest in any such deed, instrument in writing, or any judgment, or order or decree in the district court, the record or entry of which has been lost, destroyed, or carried away, may, in addition to any mode provided by law for establishing the existence and contents of such record, file with the district clerk of the county where such loss or destruction took place, his written application setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought; whereupon such clerk shall issue a citation to the grantor in such deed, or to the party or parties interested in such instrument, or to the party or parties who were or may be interested adversely to the applicant at the time of the rendition of any such judgment, or the heirs and legal representatives of such parties to appear at a term of the district court to be designated in said citation, and contest the right of the applicant to have such deed, writing, or judgment substituted and recorded. Service shall be as provided for process in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6584. [6780] [4596] [4288] Judgment.—On hearing said application, if the court shall be satisfied from the evidence of the previous existence of such deed, instrument, order or decree, and of the loss, destruction or carrying away of the same, as alleged by the applicant, and the contents thereof, an order shall be entered on the minutes of the district court to that effect, which order shall contain a description of the lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record, and the contents thereof, and a certified copy of such order may be recorded in the records of the proper county. [Id.]

Art. 6585. [6781] [4597] [4289] Proceedings in the county court.—Whenever any judgment, order or decree duly entered in the county court of any county has been or may be lost, destroyed or carried away, any person interested therein may file his written application with the clerk of the county court to which the original record belonged, setting forth the facts entitling him to the relief sought, when the same proceedings shall be had and the court shall enter a like judgment as provided in the two preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6586. [6782] [4598] [4290] Effect of judgment.—Whenever such judgment, order or decree rendered in the district or county court shall be duly entered, it shall stand in the place of and have the same force and effect as the original of said lost deed, instrument in writing, judgment or record; and when duly recorded may be used as evidence in any court of this State with like effect as the original thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6587. [6783] [4599] [4291] Certified copies may be recorded.—All certified copies from the records of such county, where the records have been lost, destroyed or carried away, and all certified copies from the records of the county or counties from which said county was created, may be recorded in such county; provided, the loss of the original shall first be established. [Acts 1876, p. 45; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 881.]

Art. 6588. [6784] [4600] [4292] Originals recorded again.—When any original paper mentioned in the first article of this subdivision may have been saved or preserved from loss, the record of said originals having been lost, destroyed or carried away, the same may be recorded again, and this last registration shall have force and effect from the filing for original registration; provided, said originals are recorded within four years next after such loss, destruction or removal of the records. [Id.; Acts 1879, p. 35; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1335.]

Art. 6589. [6785] [4601] [4293] Force of substituted judgment.—Judgments, orders and decrees, when substituted as hereinbefore provided, shall carry all the rights thereunder in every respect as the originals, especially preserving the liens from the date of the originals, and giving the parties the right to issue executions under the substituted judgments as under the originals. [Id.]

Art. 6590. Copies of records.—All transcribed records and all translations of Spanish archives, and all judgments supplying lost records or other instruments in writing, and all re-recorded deeds or other instruments in writing required by law to be recorded, when made and recorded in accordance with the provisions of this title and certified copies of such instruments shall have the same force and effect as the original record thereof.

[6789] [4605] [4297] Memorandum and receipt. —When any instrument of writing authorized by law to be recorded shall be deposited in the county clerk's office for record, if the same is acknowledged or proved in the manner prescribed by law for record, the clerk shall enter in a book to be provided for that purpose, in alphabetical order, the names of the parties and date and nature thereof, and the time of delivery for record; and shall give to the person depositing the same, if required, a receipt specifying the particulars thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6595. [6790] [4606] [4298] Shall record without delay.—Each recorder shall, without delay, record every instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, which is deposited with him for record, with the acknowledgments, proofs, affidavits and certificates thereto attached, in the order deposited for record by entering them word for word and letter for letter, and noting at the foot of the record the hour and the day of the month and year when the instrument so recorded was deposited in his office for record. [Id.]

Art. 6596. [6791] [4607] [4299] Considered recorded when deposited.—Every such instrument shall be considered as recorded from the time it was deposited for record; and the clerk shall certify under his hand and seal of office to every such instrument of writing so recorded, the hour, day, month and year when he recorded it, and the book and page or pages in which it is recorded; and when recorded deliver the same to the party entitled thereto. [Id.]

Art. 6597. [6792] [4608] [4300] Alphabetical indexes.—Each county clerk shall keep in alphabetical order a well bound index to all books of records wherein deeds, powers of attorney, mortgages or other instruments of writing concerning lands and tenements are recorded, distinguishing the books and pages in which every such deed or writing is recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6598. [6793] [4609] [4301] What they shall contain.—It shall be a cross-index and shall contain the names of the several grantors and grantees in alphabetical order; and, in case a deed is made by a sheriff, the name of the sheriff and defendant in execution; and, if by executors, administrators or guardians, their names and the names of their testators, intestates or wards; and, if by attorney, the name of such attorney and his constituents; and, if by a commissioner or trustee, the name of such commissioner or trustee and the person whose estate is conveyed. [Id.]

Art. 6599. [6794] [4610] [4302] Index of other records.—Each shall, in like manner, make and keep in his office a full and perfect alphabetical index to all books of record in his office, wherein all instruments of writing relating to goods and chattels, or movable property of any description, marriage contracts, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office are recorded; and in a like index of all the books of record wherein official bonds are recorded, the names of the officers appointed, and of the obligors in any bond recorded, and a reference to the book and page where the same are recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6600. [6795] [4611] [4303] Shall give attested copies.—The county clerk shall give attested copies whenever demanded of all papers recorded in his office; and he shall receive for all such copies, such fees as may be provided by law. [Acts 1836, p. 155; P. D. 4979; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1215.]

Art. 6601. [6796] [4612] [4303] Mortgages, etc.—All deeds of trust, mortgages or judgments which are required to be recorded in order to create a judgment lien, or other instruments of writing intended to create a lien, shall be recorded in a book or books separate from those in which deeds or other conveyances are recorded.

Art. 6602. [6797-8-9] [4613-14-15] [4305-6-7] Before whom acknowledgments made.—The acknowledgment or proof of an instrument of writing for record may be made, within this State before:

1. A clerk of the district court.
2. A judge or clerk of the county court.
3. A notary public.

Without the State, but within the United States or their territories before:

1. A clerk of some court of record having a seal.
2. A commissioner of deeds duly appointed under the laws of the State.
3. A notary public.

Without the United States before:

1. A minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States, resident and accredited in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.
2. A consul-general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice-commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States, resident in the country where proof or acknowledgment is made.
3. A notary public. [Acts 1871, p. 77; P. D. 7418; G. L. Vol. 6, p. 979.]

Art. 6603. [6800] [4616] [4308] Acknowledgment, how made.—The acknowledgment of an instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by the grantor or person who executed the same appearing before some officer authorized to take such acknowledgment, and stating that he had executed the same for the consideration and purposes therein stated; and the officer taking such acknowledgment shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his seal of office. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5007; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6604. [6801] [4617] [4309] Party must be known or proven.—No acknowledgment of any instrument of writing shall be taken unless the officer taking it knows or has satisfactory evidence on the oath or affirmation of a credible witness, which shall be noted in his certificate, that the person making such acknowledgment is the individual who executed and is described in the instrument. [Id.]

Art. 6605. [6802] [4618] [4310] Acknowledgment of married woman.—No acknowledgment of a married woman to any conveyance or other instrument purporting to be executed by her shall be taken, unless she has had the same shown to her, and then and there fully explained by the officer taking the acknowledgment on an examination privily and apart from her husband; nor shall he certify to the same, unless she thereupon acknowledges to such officer that the same is her act and deed, that she has willingly signed the same, and that she wishes not to retract it. [Acts 1846, p. 156; P. D. 1003; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1462.]

Art. 6606. [6803] [4619] [4311] Certificate of officer.—An officer taking the acknowledgment of a deed, or other instrument of writing, must place thereon his official certificate, signed by him and given under his seal of office, substantially in form as hereinafter prescribed.

Art. 6607. [6804] [4620] [4312] Form of certificate.—The form of an ordinary certificate of acknowledgment must be substantially as follows:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me _____ (here insert the name and character of the officer) on this day personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument and acknowledged to me that he executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed.

(Seal) “Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D., _____.”

Art. 6608. [6805] [4621] [4313] Form by a married woman.—The certificate of acknowledgment of a married woman must be substantially in the following form:

“The State of _____,

“County of _____.

“Before me, _____ (here insert the name and character of officer) on this day personally appeared _____, wife of _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and having been examined by me privily and apart from her husband, and having the same fully explained to her, she, the said _____, acknowledged such instrument to be her act and deed, and declared that she had willingly signed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed, and that she did not wish to retract it.

(Seal) “Given under my hand and seal of office this _____ day of _____, A. D., _____.”

Art. 6609. [6806] [4622] [4314] Proof by witness.—The proof of any instrument of writing for the purpose of being recorded shall be by one or more of the subscribing witnesses personally appearing before some officer authorized to take such proof, and stating on oath that he or they saw the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing subscribe the same or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his or their presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein stated; and that he or they had signed the same as witnesses at the request of the grantor or person who executed such instrument; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, sign and seal the same with his official seal. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5008; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6610. [6807] [4623] [4315] Witness must be personally known.—The proof by a subscribing witness must be by some one personally known to the officer taking the proof to be the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a witness, or must be proved to be such by the oath of a credible witness, which fact shall be noted in the certificate. [Id.]

Art. 6611. [6808] [4624] [4316] Form of certificate.—The certificate of the officer, where the execution of the instrument is proved by a witness, must be substantially in the following form:

“The State of.....,

“County of.....

“Before me,..... (here insert the name and character of the officer), on this day personally appeared....., known to me (or proved to me on the oath of.....), to be the person whose name is subscribed as a witness to the foregoing instrument of writing, and after being duly sworn by me stated on oath that he saw....., the grantor or person who executed the foregoing instrument, subscribe the same (or that the grantor or person who executed such instrument of writing acknowledged in his presence that he had executed the same for the purposes and consideration therein expressed), and that he had signed the same as a witness at the request of the grantor (or person who executed the same.)

(Seal) “Given under my hand and seal of office this..... day of....., A. D.,.....”

Art. 6612. [6809] [4625] [4317] Handwriting may be proved, when.—The execution of an instrument may be established for record by proof of the handwriting of the grantor and of at least one of the subscribing witnesses in the following cases:

1. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are dead.
2. When the grantor and all the subscribing witnesses are non-residents of this State.
3. When the place of their residence is unknown to the party desiring the proof, and cannot be ascertained.
4. When the subscribing witnesses have been convicted of felony, or have become of unsound mind, or have otherwise become incompetent to testify.
5. When all the subscribing witnesses to an instrument are dead or are non-residents of this State, or when their residence is unknown, or when they are incompetent to testify, and the grantor in such instrument refuses to acknowledge the execution of the same for record.

Art. 6613. [6810] [4626] [4218] Evidence must prove what.—The evidence taken under the preceding article must satisfactorily prove to the officer the following facts:

1. The existence of one or more of the conditions mentioned therein; and,

2. That the witness testifying knew the person whose name purports to be subscribed to the instrument as a party, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,

3. That the witness testifying personally knew the person who subscribed the instrument as a witness, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,

4. The place of residence of the witness testifying.

Art. 6614. [6811] [4319] [4319] When grantor made his mark.—When the grantor or person who executed the instrument signed the same by making his mark, and when also any one or more of the conditions mentioned in Article 6612 exists, the execution of any such instrument may be established by proof of the handwriting of two subscribing witnesses and of the place of residence of such witnesses testifying. [Acts 1863, p. 26; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 614; P. D. 5009.]

Art. 6615. [6812] [4628] [4320] Proofs how made and certified.—The proof mentioned in the three preceding articles must be made by the deposition or affidavit of two or more disinterested persons in writing; and the officer taking such proof shall make a certificate thereof, and sign and seal the same with his official seal; which proofs and certificates shall be attached to such instrument. [Id.]

Art. 6616. [6813] [4629] [4321] Officers authority.—Officers authorized to take the proof of instruments of writing under the provisions of this chapter are also authorized in such proceedings:

1. To administer oaths or affirmations.

2. To employ and swear interpreters.

3. To issue subpoenas.

4. To punish for contempt as hereinafter provided.

Art. 6617. [6814] [4630] [4322] Subpoena to witness.—Upon the sworn application of any person interested in the proof of any instrument required or permitted by law to be recorded, stating that any witness to the instrument refuses to appear and testify touching the execution thereof, and that such instrument cannot be proved without his evidence, any officer authorized to take the proof of said instrument shall issue a subpoena requiring such witness to appear and testify before such officer touching the execution of such instrument. [Acts 1860, p. 75; P. D. 5020; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1437.]

Art. 6618. [6815] [4631] [4323] May compel attendance of witness.—When a witness shall fail to obey a subpoena, said officer shall have the same power to enforce his attendance and to compel his answers as a judge of the district court has to compel the attendance and answers of witnesses; but no attachment shall issue unless the same compensation is made or tendered to each witness as is allowed to witnesses in other cases; and no witness shall be required to go beyond the limits of the county of his residence, unless he shall, for the time being, be found in the county where the execution of such instrument is sought to be proved for registration.

Art. 6619. [6816] [4632] [4324] Record of acknowledgment.—All officers authorized or permitted by law to take the acknowledgment or proof of any deed, bond, mortgage, bill of sale or any other written instrument required or permitted by law to be placed on record shall procure a well bound book, in which they shall enter and record a short statement of each acknowledgment or proof taken by them, which statement shall be by them signed officially. [Acts 1874, p. 155; P. D. 7418b; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 157.]

Art. 6620. [6817] [4633] [4325] Contents of statement.—Such statement shall recite the true date on which such acknowledgment or proof was taken, the name of the grantor and grantee of such instrument, its date, if proved by a subscribing witness, the name of the witness, the known or alleged residence of the witness and whether personally known or unknown to the officer; if personally unknown, this fact shall be stated, and by whom such person was introduced to such officer, if by any one, and the known or alleged residence of such person. [Id.]

Art. 6621. [6818] [4634] [4326] Shall further recite.—Such statement shall also recite, if the instrument is acknowledged by the grantor, his then place of residence, if known to the officer; if unknown, his alleged residence, and whether such grantor is personally known to the officer; if personally unknown, by whom such grantor was introduced, if by any one, and his place of residence. If land is conveyed or charged by the instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be mentioned, and the county where the same is situated. [Id.]

Art. 6622. [6819] [4635] [4327] The book a public record.—The book herein required to be procured and kept, and the statements herein required to be recorded in the same shall be an original public record, and shall be delivered to his successor, and the same shall be open to the inspection and examination of any citizen at all reasonable times. [Id.]

Art. 6623. [6820] [4636] [4328] Action for damages.—Any person injured by the failure, refusal or neglect of any officer whose duty it is to comply with any provision of this chapter shall have a right of action against such officer so failing, refusing or neglecting, before any court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of all damages resulting from such neglect, failure or refusal. [Id.]

Art. 6624. [6821] [4637] [4329] Patents and grants.—Letters patent from the State of Texas, or any grant from the government, executed and authenticated pursuant to existing law, may be recorded, without further acknowledgment or proof.

Art. 6625. [6822] [4638] [4330] Copies of archives.—Copies of all deeds, transfers, or any other written evidence of title to land, which have been filed in the general land office, in accordance with law, or copies where the originals remain in the public archives, and were executed in conformity with the laws existing at their dates, duly certified by the officers having lawful custody thereof, shall be admitted to record in the county where such land lies. [Acts 1839, p. 52; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 52.]

Art. 6626. [6823] [4639] [4331] What may be recorded.—The following instruments of writing, which shall have been acknowledged or proved according to law, are authorized to be recorded, viz, all deeds, mortgages, conveyances, deeds of trust, bonds for title, covenants, defeasances or other instruments of writing concerning any lands or tenements, or goods and chattels, or movable property of any description. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5004; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6627. [6824] [4640] [4332] When sales, etc., to be void unless registered.—All bargains, sales and other conveyances whatever, of any land, tenements and hereditaments, whether they may be made for passing any estate of freehold of inheritance or for a term of years; and deeds of settlement upon marriage, whether land, money or other personal thing; and all deeds of trust and mortgages shall be void as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, unless they shall be acknowledged or proved and filed with the clerk, to be recorded as required by law; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to all subsequent purchasers, with notice thereof or without valuable consideration, shall be valid and binding. [Acts 1840, p. 154; P. D. 4988; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 328.]

Art. 6628. [6825] [2322] [2265] Located lands have priority.—Titles to land which may have been deposited in the general land office subsequently to the time when the land embraced by such titles had been located or surveyed, by virtue of valid land warrants or certificates, shall not be received as evidence of superior title to the land against any such location or survey, unless such elder title had been duly recorded in the office of the county clerk where the land may have been situated prior to the location and survey, or unless the party having such location or survey made had actual notice of the existence of such elder title before he made such location or survey. [Acts 1866, p. 32; P. D. 5825; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 950.]

Art. 6629. [6826] English language used.—No deed, conveyance or other instrument, whether relating to real or personal property, if in any other than the English language, shall be admitted to record; provided, that all such instruments executed prior to the twenty-second day of August, 1897, may be filed and recorded if accompanied by a correct translation thereof, the accuracy of which is sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. Such translations shall be recorded with the original, and if correct shall operate as constructive notice from and after the date of its filing, if the original be authenticated in the manner required by law. [Acts 1897, p. 11; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1065.]

Art. 6630. [6827] [4641] [4333] Deeds, etc., recorded.—All deeds, conveyances, deeds of trust, or other written contracts relating to real estate, which are authorized to be recorded, shall be recorded in the county where such real estate, or a part thereof, is situated; provided, that all such instruments, when relating to real estate situated in an unorganized county, shall be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, in a well bound book, or books, to be kept for that purpose, separately from the records of the county to which it is attached and from other unorganized counties; and the clerk or other officer having the custody of such books, when such unorganized county shall be organized, or has been detached therefrom and attached to another county for judicial purposes, shall deliver such book or books, without charge, to the proper officer of such newly organized county, or of the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes when demanded by him; and, where such records have been heretofore kept in separate books, they shall also be delivered in like manner as above, and in each case the same shall become archives of the county to which it is so delivered. Where such records have not heretofore been kept separately, upon the organization or attachment of such unorganized county to another organized county, a certified transcript from the records of such instruments so recorded shall be obtained by such new clerk or officer; and when so made the same shall in like manner become archives of such newly organized county, or county to which such unorganized county may be attached, as the case may be. [Acts 1887, p. 94; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 892.]

Art. 6631. [6828] [4642] [4334] Deed, etc., valid against subsequent creditors.—Every conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage or certified copies of any such original conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage copied from the deed or mortgage records of any county in the State where the same has been regularly recorded, although the land may not have been situated in the county where such instrument was recorded, and which shall have been acknowledged, proved or certified according to law, may be recorded in the county where the land lies; and when delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded shall take effect and be valid as to all subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to all creditors from the time when such instrument shall have been so acknowledged, proved or certified and delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only. All certified copies filed and recorded under the provisions of this article shall take effect and be in force from the time such certified copy was filed for record. Nothing herein shall be construed to validate an invalid instrument. [Acts 1895, p. 157; P. D. 4994; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 887.]

Art. 6632. [6829] [4643] [4335] Marriage contract.—No covenant or agreement made in consideration of marriage shall be valid against a purchaser for a valuable consideration, or any creditor not having notice thereof, unless such covenant or agreement shall be duly acknowledged or proved and recorded in manner and form as provided by law for deeds and other conveyances. [Acts 1887, p. 94; P. D. 4987; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 892.]

Art. 6633. [6830] [4644] [4336] Recorder shall record, etc.—Each county clerk shall record in books to be provided for that purpose all marriage contracts and powers of attorney, and all official bonds required to be recorded in his office, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office, which shall be proved and acknowledged according to law and delivered to him for record. [Acts 1846, p. 236; P. D. 5005; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6634. [6831] [4645] [4337] Copies from land office.—County clerks shall record all copies of titles recorded in the general land office presented for record; provided, such copies are attested with the seal of the general land office. [Id.]

Art. 6635. [6832] [4646] [4338] Judgments recorded.—County clerks shall record all judgments and abstracts of judgments rendered by any court of this State presented to him for record when attested under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court where such judgment was obtained. [Id.]

Art. 6636. [6833] [4647] Transfers of judgment.—The sale of a judgment, or any part thereof, of any court of record, or the sale of any cause of action, or interest therein, after suit has been filed thereon, shall be evidenced by a written transfer; which, when acknowledged in the manner and form required by law for the acknowledgment of deeds, may be filed with the papers of such suit, and when thus filed the clerk shall make a minute of said transfer on the margin of the minute book of the court where such judgment of said court is recorded; or if judgment be not rendered when transfer is filed, the clerk shall make a minute of such transfer on the court trial docket where the suit is entered, giving briefly the substance thereof; for which service he shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying therefor; and this article shall apply to any and all judgments, suits, claims and causes of action, whether assignable in law and equity or not. When said transfer is duly acknowledged, filed and noted as aforesaid, the same shall be full notice and valid and binding upon all persons subsequently dealing with reference to said cause of action or judgment, whether they have actual knowledge of such transfer or not. [Acts 1889, p. 103; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1131.]

Art. 6637. [6834] [4648] Judgment in justice courts.—Whenever land is sold under execution or order of sale issuing out of a justice court, upon the application of any party interested in said land, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace having the custody of the execution and judgment upon which said execution issued to make from said records a complete transcript of said judgment and the execution issued thereon and levied on land, together with the levy and return of the officer executing the same thereon indorsed, and to certify to the correctness thereof officially; then said transcript shall be admitted to record in the county where the land is situated in the same manner in which deeds are recorded and with like effect; said transcript or certified copy thereof, under the hand and seal of the county clerk of the county where said transcript has been recorded, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner and with like effect that the original judgment and execution with indorsements thereon would have if offered. [Acts 1889, p. 133; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1161.]

Art. 6638. [6835] [4649] Partition to be recorded.—Every partition of land made under an order or decree of a court, and every judgment or decree by which the title to land is recovered shall be duly recorded in the office of the county clerk in which such land may lie; and until so recorded, such partition, judgment or decree shall not be received in evidence in support of any right claimed by virtue thereof. [Acts 1860, p. 75; P. D. 5023; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1437.]

Art. 6639. [6836] [4650] [4340] Decree may be abbreviated.—It shall not be necessary to record the proceedings or the decree rendered in such cases in full; but a brief statement by the clerk of the court in which the same is made, under his hand and seal, setting forth the case in which the partition or decree was made, and the date thereof, and the names of the parties in the suit for partition, and the particular land or lot lying in the county in which the record is made and the name of the party to whom the same is decreed, shall be a sufficient record of such partition, judgment or decree. [Id.]

Art. 6640. [6837] Suit for land; notice to be filed.—During the pendency of any suit or action, involving the title to real estate, or seeking to establish any interest or right therein, or to enforce any lien, charge or encumbrance against the same, any party seeking affirmative relief therein, may file a notice of the pendency of such suit with the county clerk of each county where such real estate, or any part thereof, is situated. Such notice shall be signed by the party filing the same, his agent or attorney, setting forth the number and style of the cause, the court in which pending, the names of the party thereto, the kind of suit and description of the land affected. [Acts 1905, p. 316.]

Art. 6641. [6838] Record of, how made.—The county clerk shall record such notice in a well-bound book, to be styled, "Lis Pendens Record," and at the same time index the same, both direct and reverse, under the names of each and all parties to the suit. For which the clerk shall be allowed a fee of fifteen cents per hundred words recorded, not to be less than fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 6642. [6839] Transfers without notice, valid.—The pendency of such suit or action shall not prevent effective transfers or encumbrances of such real estate to a third party for a valuable consideration and without other notice, actual or constructive, by a party to the suit as against a subsequent decree for the adverse party unless such notice shall have been properly filed under the name of the party attempting to transfer or encumber in the county or counties in which said land is situated. [Id.]

Art. 6643. [6840] Effect of notice.—Such notice of pendency shall not be deemed constructive notice, but merely a memorandum that shall refer all intending purchasers and encumbrances to an examination of the court records and pleadings to determine whether there is in fact a lis pendens concerning the real estate in question, and it shall be effective for such purpose from the time of its filing. [Id.]

Art. 6643a. In lieu of lis pendens.—In any suit or action of which a notice of pendency thereof has been filed, and in which it shall appear to the court, upon motion made by any party to the suit or other person having an interest in the property affected by the action or in the result of such suit or action, that adequate relief can be secured to the party plaintiff or defendant seeking such affirmative relief therein, by the deposit of money, or in the discretion of the court, by the giving of an undertaking, the court may, at any stage of the proceeding, upon notice to all of the parties to the suit or action to be affected thereby, direct, by order made either in term time or in vacation, that the notice of the pendency thereof be cancelled upon the payment into court of the amount of the judgment sought to be recovered in such action, and such sum in addition thereto as the court may deem sufficient to cover interest likely to accrue during the pendency of the action, and costs.

In lieu thereof, the court may, in its discretion, order that an undertaking be given in a sum double the amount of the judgments sought to be recovered, with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, conditioned that the party or person applying therefor will pay the judgment or judgments sought to be enforced against said property, with interest and costs, in the event that a final judgment shall be entered in favor of the party to such suit filing such notice to the effect that such real estate was, at the time of the filing of such notice of pendency of action, legally and equitably therewith charged. A copy of such undertaking with notice of the filing of same shall be served upon the attorney for the party filing such notice of pendency of suit not less than two days prior to the submission of the same to the court for its approval. Upon the approval of such undertaking by the court, the court may direct that the notice of pendency of action or suit be cancelled of record in the manner above provided. [Acts 1925, p. 353.]

Art. 6644. Federal Lien Record.—The county clerk of each county is authorized to, and shall either file, or file and record, as is or may be provided by the laws of the United States, every notice, abstract or statement of any lien or claim, or release or discharge thereof, in favor of the United States or of any department or bureau thereof, when any such notice, abstract or statement prepared in conformity to the laws of the United States, is presented to him for filing or filing and recording. The county clerk shall number such notices, abstracts or statements, in the order in which they are filed, and if they are required to be recorded, he shall record them in a well bound book to be styled, "Federal Lien Record," and in either case he shall index them alphabetically under the names of the persons named therein or affected thereby, such index to be kept in a well bound book styled, "Index to Federal Liens," and for the performance of these services he shall not charge a fee, but shall be compensated by the county, as provided for in Article 3931. His failure to file, record or index properly any such notice, abstract or statement as herein required, or to be compensated therefor, shall not affect the validity or legality of any such lien or claim, or release or discharge thereof. [Acts 1923, p. 18.]

Art. 6645. [6841] [4651] [4341] Titles to chattels, where recorded.—Every deed, mortgage, or other writing, respecting the title of personal property hereafter executed, which by law ought to be recorded, shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court of that county in which the property shall remain; and if afterwards the person claiming title under such deed, mortgage, or other writing, shall permit any other person in whose possession such property may be to remove with the same, or any party thereof, out of the county in which the same shall be recorded, and shall not, within four months after such removal, cause the same to be recorded in the county to which such property shall be removed, such deed, mortgage, or other writing for so long as it shall not be recorded in such last mentioned county, and for so much of the property aforesaid as shall have been removed, shall be void as to all creditors and purchasers thereof for valuable consideration without notice. [Acts 1897, p. 209; Acts 1840, p. 156; P. D. 4993; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1263; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 330.]

Art. 6646. [6842] [4652] [4342] Record of a grant, etc.—The record of any grant, deed or instrument of writing authorized or required to be recorded, which shall have been duly proven or acknowledged for record and duly recorded in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such grant, deed or instrument.

Art. 6647. [6844] [4654] [4344] Property of married women.—All property, real and personal, which may be owned or claimed at the time of marriage by any woman, or which she may acquire after marriage by gift, devise or descent, shall be registered as herein directed. [Acts 1846, p. 153; P. D. 4995; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1459.]

Art. 6648. [6845] [4655] May present and prove schedule.—A married woman may prepare a schedule of all the real and personal property which she owned at the time of her marriage, and make her statement under oath before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments that the property described in the schedule is her separate property; and upon such statement being made, such officer shall annex a certificate of the fact under his hand and seal of office; which certificate shall be sufficient evidence for the recorder of any county to record the same. [Id.]

Art. 6649. [6846] [4656] [4346] Acquisition after marriage.—A married woman upon coming into possession of any property, real or personal, to which she had claim at the time of her marriage, or which she may afterward acquire by gift, devise or descent, may have a schedule of the same recorded in the same manner as prescribed in the foregoing article. [Id.]

Art. 6650. [6847] [4657] Where registration made.—The registration of the wife's separate property herein provided for, if real estate, shall be made in the county or counties in which the same, or a part thereof, is situated; if personal property, in the county or counties where the same remains; and in case such personal property be removed out of the county, the registration must also be made in the county in which the property is removed within four months after such removal. [Id.]

Art. 6651. [6848] [4659] [4349] Subsequent creditors, etc.—The registration of a schedule of a wife's separate property, made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be conclusive as against all subsequent creditors of and purchasers from her husband. [Id.]

| | | Attachments recorded | 6662 |

Art. 6652. [6849] [4660] [4350] Penalty for failing to record.—If any county clerk to whom any instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, and proved or acknowledged according to law, has been delivered for record, shall neglect or refuse to make an entry thereof, or give receipt therefor, as required by law, or shall neglect or refuse to record such instrument of writing within a reasonable time after receiving the same, or shall record any instrument of writing affecting the same property, or any part thereof, before another first deposited in his office and entitled to be recorded, or shall record any such instrument incorrectly, or shall neglect or refuse to provide and keep in his office such indexes as required by law, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered on motion in the district court, one-half to the use of the county, and the other half to the use of the person who shall sue for the same, such clerk having three days' notice of such motion, and shall also be liable to the party for all damages he may have sustained thereby, to be recovered by suit on his official bond against such clerk and his sureties. [Acts 1846, p. 236; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1542.]

Art. 6653. [6850] [4661] [4351] Conveyances governed by then existing law.—The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form or record of any conveyance or other instrument heretofore made, executed, acknowledged, proved or recorded, shall not be affected by anything contained in this title, but shall depend for its validity and legality upon the laws in force when the act was performed.

Art. 6654. [6851] [4664] [4352] Prior records; evidence.—All conveyances of real property heretofore made and acknowledged or proved, according to the laws in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence, and may be recorded in the same manner and with the like effect as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of this title.

Art. 6655. [6852] [4663] [4353] May correct imperfect certificate.—When the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of any instrument in writing may be properly made, but defectively certified, any party interested may have an action in the district court to obtain a judgment correcting the certificate.

Art. 6656. [6853] [4664] [4354] Judgment of proof of instrument.—Any person interested under any instrument in writing entitled to be proved for record may institute an action in the district court against the proper parties to obtain a judgment proving such instrument.

Art. 6657. [6854] [4665] [4355] Effect of judgment.—A certified copy of the judgment in a proceeding instituted under either of the two preceding articles, showing the proof of the instrument, and attached thereto, shall entitle such instrument to record with like effect as if acknowledged.

Art. 6658. [3702] Land in Archer County.—Certified copies of deeds, mortgages, trust deeds, and all other instruments in any manner affecting titles to lands in Archer County which were recorded in Jack County from August 10, 1866 to August 10, 1870, made under the hand and seal of the County Clerk of Shackelford County, shall be admitted in evidence in all suits where secondary evidence is admissible. [Acts 1897, p. 143.]

Art. 6659. [6855] [4666] [4356] Record of certain titles confirmed.—Any grant, deed, or other instrument of writing, for the conveyance of real estate or personal property, or both, or for the settlement thereof in marriage, or separate property, or conveyance of the same in mortgage, or trust to uses, or on conditions, as well as any and every other deed or instrument required or permitted by law to be registered, and which shall have been prior to the ninth day of February, 1860, registered or recorded, shall be held to have been lawfully registered, with the full effect and consequences of existing laws; provided, the same shall have been acknowledged by the grantor or grantors before any chief justice, or associate justice, or clerk of the county court, or notary public in any county within the late Republic or the now State of Texas, or judge of the department of Brazos, or any primary judge, or judge of the first instance in 1835 or 1836, or proven before any such officer by one or more of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and certified by such officer, whether such acknowledgment or proof shall have been made before any such officer of the county where such instrument should have been recorded or not. [Acts 1860, p. 75; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1437; P. D. 5021.]

Art. 6660. [6856] [4667] [4357] Shall be evidence, when.—All such instruments which shall have been acknowledged or proven before any officer named in the preceding article, and which shall have been afterward recorded in the proper county, or certified copies thereof, shall be evidence in the courts, as full and sufficient as if such acknowledgment had been taken or proof made in accordance with existing laws; but this article and the article preceding shall not be construed so as to affect or bind, in any manner, any person or party with constructive notice of the existence of any deed or other instrument, except after the ninth day of February, 1860, and in the future. [Id.]

Art. 6661. [6857] [4668] [4358] Old registration operative.—Where an instrument in writing has been duly registered in the proper county, and any property conveyed or incumbered by such instrument shall fall within another county subsequently created, the prior registration shall not be deemed to be thereby invalidated or in any manner affected, but shall still continue to be equivalent to an actual notice of its contents to all persons whomsoever; and it shall be the duty of the county court of the new county (and at the expense thereof) to cause a transcript of the record of all such instruments to be made and duly certified and deposited in the recorder's office of said new county, for public inspection, and indexes of the same to be made. [Id.]

Art. 6662. [6858] [4669] Attachments recorded.—Whenever an attachment is levied upon real estate, the officer levying the writ shall immediately file with the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate so levied upon is situated, a copy of the writ, together with a copy of so much of his return as relates to the land in said county. Said clerk shall enter in a book, to be kept for that purpose, the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in attachment, the amount of the debt and the return of the officer in full. Should the writ of attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated, the court in which the attachment suit is pending shall cause a certified copy of said order to be sent to the county clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate levied upon is situated. The clerk shall, upon the receipt of the same, enter in the book aforesaid the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and record the order of the court in full. If the real estate levied upon is situated in any county other than the one in which the suit is pending, then, in case of failure to make the record aforesaid, the attachment lien shall not be valid against subsequent purchasers for value and without notice and subsequent lienholders in good faith. Each county clerk shall keep a well bound book for the record of the matters aforesaid, and shall keep a direct and reverse index thereto in which shall be entered the names of all the plaintiffs and defendants in the various attachments recorded by him; and the order of the court aforesaid shall be indexed in the same manner. [Acts 1889, p. 80, G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1108.]

| Qualifications of engineers..... | 6668 | Operating expenses | 6674 |

Art. 6663. Department.—The administrative control of the State Highway Department, hereinafter called the Department, shall be vested in the State Highway Commission, hereinafter called the Commission, and the State Highway Engineer. Said Department shall have its office at Austin where all its records shall be kept. [Acts 1917, p. 416.]

Art. 6664. Commission.—The Commission shall consist of three citizens of the State. With the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall biennially appoint one member to serve for a term of six years, the classification to continue as constituted by law. The Governor shall designate one such member as chairman. Each member shall execute a bond payable to the State in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. The premium on such bonds shall be paid out of the State Highway Fund. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 325.]

Art. 6665. Organization.—The Commission shall hold regular meetings once each month. They shall attend the same and such special or called meetings as they may provide by rule or the chairman may call. They shall formulate plans and policies for the location, construction and maintenance of a comprehensive system of State highways and public roads. They shall biennially submit a report of their work to the Governor and the legislature, with their recommendations and those of the State Highway Engineer. A quarterly statement containing an itemized list of all moneys received and from what source and of all money paid out and for what purpose shall be prepared and filed in the records of the Department and a copy sent to the Governor. These records shall be open to public inspection. [Id.]

Art. 6666. Rules.—The Commission shall establish and make public proclamation of all rules and regulations for the conduct of the work of the Department as may be deemed necessary, not inconsistent with the provisions of law. They shall maintain a record of all proceedings and official orders and keep on file copies of all road plans, specifications and estimates prepared by the Department or under its direction. [Acts 1917, p. 416.]

Art. 6667. To aid road officials.—The Department shall collect information and compile statistics relative to the mileage, character and condition of the public roads in the different counties, and the cost of construction of the different classes of roads in the various counties. It shall investigate and determine the methods of road construction best adapted to the different sections of the State, and shall establish standards for the construction and maintenance of highways, bridges and ferries, giving due regard to all natural conditions and to the character and adaptability of road building material in the different counties. The Department may, at all reasonable times, be consulted by county and city officials for any information or assistance it can render with reference to the highways within such counties or cities, and it shall supply such information when called for by city or county officials; and it may in turn call upon all such officials for any information necessary for the performance of its duties hereunder. Upon request of the commissioners court of any county, the Department shall consider and advise concerning general plans and specifications for all road construction to be undertaken from the proceeds of the sale of bonds or other legal obligations issued by a county, or by any subdivision or defined district of a county; and such information and advice shall be so obtained before any of the proceeds from such bond issues are expended by or under the direction of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6668. Qualifications of engineers.—The Department shall adopt such rules as are found necessary to determine the fitness of engineers making application for highway construction work. Upon the formal application of any county or organized road district thereof, or of any municipality, the Commission may recommend for appointment a competent civil engineer, and graduate of some first class school of civil engineering, skilled in the knowledge of highway construction and maintenance. [Id.]

Art. 6669. Engineer.—The Commission shall elect a State Highway Engineer who shall be a competent civil engineer and graduate of some first class school of civil engineering, experienced and skilled in highway construction and maintenance, who shall hold his position until removed by the Commission. He shall first execute a bond payable to the State in such sum as the Commission may deem necessary, to be approved by the Commission, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. He shall act with the Commission in an advisory capacity, without vote, and shall quarterly, annually and biennially submit to it detailed reports of the progress of public road construction and statement of expenditures. He shall be allowed all actual traveling and other expenses therefor, under the direction of the Department, while absent from Austin in the performance of duty under the direction of the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 6670. State road map.—The Highway Engineer shall cause to be made and kept in form convenient for examination in the office of the Department, a complete road map of the State as represented in the road construction of the various counties, and such map shall be regularly revised as construction proceeds in the different counties. He shall also prepare, under the direction and with the approval of the Commission, a comprehensive plan providing a system of State highways. [Id.]

Art. 6671. Laboratories.—The laboratories maintained at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and at the University of Texas shall be at the disposal and direction of the Highway Engineer for the purpose of testing and analyzing road and bridge material, and those in charge of said laboratories shall co-operate with and assist said Engineer to that end. [Id.]

Art. 6672. Federal aid.—Any funds for public road construction in this State appropriated by the Federal Government shall be expended by and under the supervision of the Department only upon a part of the system of State Highways. [Id.]

Art. 6673. Control of highways.—The Commission is authorized to take over and maintain the various State Highways in Texas, and the counties through which said highways pass shall be free from any cost, expense or supervision of such highways. The Commission shall use the automobile registration fees in the State Highway Fund for the maintenance of such highways, and shall divert the same to no other use unless the Commission shall be without sufficient funds from other sources to meet Federal aid to roads in Texas, and in such case the Commission is authorized by resolution to transfer a sufficient amount from such fund to match said Federal aid. [Acts 1923, p. 161; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 71.]

Art. 6674. Operating expenses.—The legislature shall make appropriations for the maintenance and running expenses of the Department, fix the compensation of the Highway Engineer and all other employes of the Department, and determine the number of such employes; and shall fix the compensation of the members of the Commission at not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars per annum. The Board of Control shall make contracts for equipment and supplies (including seals and number plates) required by law in the administration of the registration of licensed vehicles, and in the operation of said Department. All money herein authorized to be appropriated for the operation of the Department and the purchase of equipment shall be paid from the State Highway Fund, and the remainder of said fund shall be expended by the Commission for the furtherance of public road construction and the establishment of a system of State highways as herein provided. [Acts 1921, p. 102; Acts 1923, p. 325.]

Art. 6675. Registration.—Every owner of a motor vehicle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer, or motorcycle used on the public highways of this State, and each chauffeur, shall annually file in the office of the county tax collector of the county in which he resides or in which the vehicle to be registered is being operated, an application for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him, or for a chauffeur's license. The county tax collector shall not issue a license to any person until such application has been filled out in full and signed by the applicant, and until the requisite fee for the number of unexpired quarters for the calendar year is paid. [Acts 1917, p. 423; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 158; Acts 1919, p. 174; Acts 1921, p. 253; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 166; Acts 1923, p. 155.]

Art. 6676. Vehicles exempt.—Road rollers and other road building equipment owned and operated by municipalities, counties or subdivisions of counties; street sprinklers, fire engines or apparatus, patrol wagons, ambulances owned by municipalities or counties; and motor vehicles owned and operated under the direction of and exclusively in the official service of the United States Government, State of Texas, or any county or city thereof, shall not be required to pay the fees herein required for motor vehicles, but application shall be made for and a registration number and distinguishing seal secured for such motor vehicles. [Acts 1917, p. 423.]

Art. 6677. Registration dates.—The registration for all vehicles and chauffeurs hereunder shall begin with the first day of January and end with the 31st day of December of each year. All applications for such registration filed during the first quarter ending March 31st shall be accompanied by the annual fee; all applications except for chauffeur's license, filed during each succeeding quarter shall be accompanied by three-fourths, one-half and one-fourth, respectively, of the annual fee. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 160.]

Art. 6678. Fees: passenger vehicles.—The annual registration fee of a motorcycle shall be five dollars. The annual fee for registration of a passenger motor vehicle shall be based upon the weight of the vehicle and upon the N. A. C. C. horsepower rating, as follows:

| Weight of vehicle in pounds. | Fee per 100 lbs. or fraction thereof. | Fee per horsepower. |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Class 1 1000-2000 | $.40 | $.17½ |
| Class 2 2001-3500 | .50 | .17½ |
| Class 3 3501-4500 | .60 | .17½ |
| Class 4 4501 and up | .75 | .17½ |

The minimum fee, based on horsepower, shall be four dollars for a full year. [Id.]

Art. 6679. Fees: trucks.—For each motor vehicle designed or used for the transportation of property, the annual license fee shall be based upon the gross weight of the vehicle including the body, plus its net carrying capacity, the tire equipment and the N. A. C. C. horsepower rating as follows:

| Gross weight in lbs. | Fee per 100 lbs. or fraction thereof of the carrying capacity, plus the weight of the vehicle: | | Fee per horsepower. |
|-----------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|---------------------|
| | If equipped with pneumatic tires. | If equipped with solid rubber tires. | |

Art. 6681. Fees: tractors.—The word “tractor” as used in this title shall mean any self-propelled vehicle designed or used as a traveling power plant or for drawing other vehicles, but having no provision for carrying loads on its own structure.

For each tractor used upon the highways of this State the annual license fee shall be based upon the weight of the tractor as follows:

| | | |
|--------------------|-------|-----------------|
| 1,000- 4,000 lbs. | | $.25 per cwt. |
| 4,001- 6,000 lbs. | | .50 per cwt. |
| 6,001- 8,000 lbs. | | .60 per cwt. |
| 8,001-10,000 lbs. | | .75 per cwt. |
| 10,001-16,000 lbs. | | 1.00 per cwt. |
| 16,001-20,000 lbs. | | 2.00 per cwt. |

[Id.]

Art. 6682. Basis of power fees.—For all purposes of this law, the horsepower of any motor vehicle, except electric or steam driven vehicles, shall be determined by the formula commonly known as the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce Formula, being as follows: Square the diameter of the bore of the cylinder in inches, multiply by the number of cylinders, and divide by two and one-half. The horsepower of any steam driven vehicle shall be computed by the system of horsepower rating adopted by the United States Government. For vehicles propelled by electricity the rating shall be the normal horsepower designated by the manufacturer of the electric motor or motors used therein. [Id.]

Art. 6683. Basis of weight fees.—In the computation of the fees for all passenger motor vehicles and tractors the actual weight shall be the weight of the vehicles in pounds, fully provisioned and equipped for use on the highways. For commercial motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers, the gross weight shall be determined by adding the actual weight of vehicles, including body, to the carrying capacity of the vehicle. The Department shall compile and furnish to the tax collectors a schedule of weights of the various makes and models of motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers, to be ascertained from the actual weighing of the vehicles fully provisioned with water, oil and fuel and equipped with the manufacturer's standard equipment, or from certified statements of the manufacturers of the various vehicles or vehicle bodies. No applicant shall be permitted to register any such vehicle upon a declared weight less than that shown for the vehicle to be registered in said schedule. [Id.]

Art. 6684. Disputed classifications.—The Department shall have authority in disputed cases to determine the classification in which any vehicle belongs and the amount of fee which shall be paid therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6685. Transfer fees.—When any person, other than a dealer, sells a vehicle subject to registration hereunder, he shall indorse upon his certificate of registration a written transfer of the same. The purchaser of such motor vehicle shall pay to the county tax collector of the county of his residence a transfer fee of one dollar, with his full name and address, and he shall then be regarded as the owner thereof and amenable to the provisions of this law. [Acts 1917, p. 423.]

Art. 6686. Dealer's license.—Any manufacturer of, or dealer in motor vehicles in this State may, in lieu of registering each machine he may wish to show or demonstrate on the public highways, apply for registration and secure a general distinguishing number which may be attached to any motor vehicle or motorcycle he sends temporarily upon the road. The annual fee for such dealer's registration of a general distinguishing number shall be fifteen dollars, and additional numbers desired by any dealer, not exceeding five, will be assigned and registered for a fee of five dollars each. All the other provisions of this law shall apply in case of dealer's registration. [Id.]

Art. 6687. Chauffeur's license.—A "chauffeur" is one whose business or occupation is operating a motor vehicle for compensation, wages or hire. Each chauffeur shall pay an annual fee of three dollars for the whole or part of any year he is so engaged. The Department shall prescribe the form of application for chauffeur's license, and shall require the same to be sworn to by the applicant, indorsed and vouched for by two reputable citizens of the place where the applicant lives or resides when making application, setting forth that they have known or been acquainted with the applicant for a period of not less than sixty days prior thereto, and that he is trustworthy, sober and competent to operate motor vehicles upon the highways of this State. No license shall be issued to an applicant unless he is over eighteen years old. He shall be issued a certificate and a metal badge with a distinguishing number, free of charge. Said badge shall at all times be prominently displayed on his clothing while engaged as a chauffeur, and shall be valid only during the term of his license. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6688. Number plates and seals.—A license number plate or pair of license number plates, in the discretion of the Commission, such plates to be designated as State license numbers, bearing the license number assigned therefor, shall be issued for every motor vehicle being registered for any year a re-numbering is ordered by the Commission, or being registered for the first time in Texas subsequent to the last year a re-numbering is so ordered. If one such plate is issued, it shall be securely attached to the rear of the motor vehicle for which it is issued, and if two are issued, the extra plate shall be securely attached to the front of such vehicle, and shall remain attached thereto during the existence of such vehicle or until such time as the Commission shall order a re-numbering of all motor vehicles in the State.

A numbered registration seal shall be issued for every motor vehicle registered in Texas for each year subsequent to the last year a re-numbering is so ordered. Such seal shall be attached to the front of the motor vehicle for which issued, to evidence payment of the license fee thereon for the year for which said seal is issued. In any year a re-numbering is so ordered, no such seal shall be issued, and the new number plate shall be prima facie evidence that the license fee due on said vehicle has been paid for that year. Said seals shall be of distinctly different colors each year. If the Commission deem it advisable, they may use a plate or pair of plates annually in lieu of said seals. The Department shall prescribe the form, size and color of all plates and seals. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 146.]

Art. 6689. Replacement license.—If a license number plate, seal or chauffeur's badge is lost or destroyed, the owner of a registered vehicle, or a chauffeur, may obtain from the Department through the county tax collector a replacement number plate, seal or badge by filing with said collector an affidavit showing the fact, and by paying one dollar for each replacement number, seal or badge. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6690. License receipt.—Upon filing an application for license the applicant shall pay said collector the amount of the license fee required by law, and said collector shall issue a receipt therefor showing the name of the holder, the make of his car, the model and the number of the engine of same, or the number of the chauffeur's badge and his name. Such receipt shall be a protection to the holder against prosecution under any provision of the Highway Law regulating the registration of motor vehicles until the receipt by him of the number plates and seals, or badge and certificate. Such receipts shall be issued in triplicate, one to be delivered to the licensee, one forwarded to the Department by the collector, and one retained by him. Said receipts shall be numbered consecutively for each county. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161.]

Art. 6691. Apportionment of funds.—On Monday of each week each county tax collector shall deposit in the county depository of his county to the credit of the road and bridge fund of that county an amount equal to seventeen and one-half cents per horsepower of every vehicle registered in such county, such amount to be deducted from the gross registration fees collected during the preceding week, and transmit the balance of such fees to the Department. Each county may use the tax so apportioned to it on any county roads that it may deem necessary or expedient. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 156.]

Art. 6692. Duty of tax collector.—Said tax collector shall forward to the Department the copies of receipts issued to applicants for license, together with the State's part of the remittances therefor. He shall keep a record of all transfers and report same weekly to the Department. Tax collectors in counties having five thousand or more motor vehicles shall receive for such services a two per cent commission on all amounts so collected; and collectors in counties having less than five thousand motor vehicles shall receive a four per cent commission on all money so collected. Such compensation shall be used exclusively to pay salaries of deputies or other employes appointed in accordance with law, and any fees so collected remaining after paying such salaries shall be accounted for as fees of office as provided by law. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 81.]

Art. 6693. Registration supplies.—Upon receipt of such receipts and remittances, the Department shall assign registration numbers to the persons whose names appear thereon, and shall at once forward, charges prepaid, to the collector the required number plates, seals or badges and certificates corresponding thereto, which shall be delivered by the collector, without expense to him or to the county, to those entitled thereto upon application therefor by the owners. The Secretary of the Department shall on or before January first of each year forward to each county tax collector, carrying charges prepaid, registration blanks and receipts, and a number of seals corresponding to the number of motor vehicle and motorcycle registrations in their respective counties for the previous year, which shall be delivered by said collector to the registrants upon the payment of the license fee for the ensuing year. The number of seals so sent out shall be charged to the respective collectors in a book kept for that purpose by the Department, and upon receipt of notification by the said collector, together with the remittance therefor, he shall be credited with the seals so distributed. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 161.]

Art. 6694. State Highway Fund.—All funds coming into the hands of the Commission derived from the registration fees or other sources provided for in this subdivision, as collected, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of a special fund designated as "The State Highway Fund," and shall be paid only on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon vouchers drawn by the chairman of the Commission and approved by one other member thereof, such vouchers to be accompanied by itemized sworn statements of the expenditures. [Acts 1917, p. 424.]

Art. 6695. Misrepresenting weight.—If any person shall operate, or permit to be operated, any motor vehicle licensed under this law of a greater weight than stated in his declaration or application, he shall be liable to pay the tax collector of any county through or into which he shall operate, or cause to be operated, such vehicle, the full license fee provided for the class to which such motor vehicle properly belongs. [Acts 1923, p. 156.]

Art. 6696. Unsafe vehicle.—If the Department shall determine at any time that a motor vehicle is unsafe or improperly equipped, or otherwise unfit to be operated upon the public highways, it may refuse to register such vehicle, and may for a like reason revoke any registration already issued. [Acts 1917, p. 475.]

Art. 6697. Delinquent registration.—The registration fee required to be paid upon a motor vehicle shall become delinquent when the owner of any such vehicle operates or permits the same to be operated upon the public highways without first having applied for registration and paid the registration fee therefor. In addition to all other penalties, if at the expiration of thirty days after any registration fee becomes delinquent such fee has not been paid and registration applied for, a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the fee shall be added thereto, and both shall be a lien upon such vehicle. The Department shall collect said fee and penalty by foreclosure upon and by sale of such vehicle in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property by the county tax collector for collection of taxes due on personal property. [Id.]

Art. 6698. Municipal regulation.—The certificate of registration and numbering for purposes of identification, and the fees herein provided for shall be in lieu of all other similar registrations heretofore required by any county, municipality or other political subdivision of this State, and no such registration fees or other like burdens shall be required of any owner of any motor vehicle or motorcycle by any county, municipality or other sub-division of the State. This provision shall not affect the right of incorporated cities and towns to license and regulate the use of motor vehicles for hire in such corporation. Nothing herein shall in anywise authorize or empower any county or incorporated city or town in this State to levy and collect any occupation tax or license fees on motorcycles, motor vehicles or motor trucks. [Id.]

Art. 6699. County traffic officers.—The commissioners' court of each county, acting in conjunction with the sheriff, may employ not more than two regular deputies, nor more than two additional deputies for special emergency to aid said regular deputies, to be known as county traffic officers to enforce the highway laws of this State regulating the use of the public highways by motor vehicles. Said deputies shall be, whenever practicable, motorcycle riders, and shall be assigned to work under the direction of the sheriff. They shall give bond and take the oath of office as other deputies. They may be dismissed from service on request of the sheriff whenever approved by the commissioners court, or by said court on its own initiative, whenever their services are no longer needed or have not been satisfactory. The commissioners court shall fix their compensation prior to their selection, and may provide at the expense of the county, necessary equipment for said officers. The pay of said deputies shall not be included in the settlements of the sheriff in accounting for the fees of office. For the purposes of this law, the commissioners courts of counties whose funds from the motor registration fees provided herein amount to thirty thousand dollars or over, may use not exceeding five per cent of said funds; and not to exceed seven and one-half per cent of such funds in counties receiving a lesser amount from such registration. Said deputies shall at all times co-operate with the police department of each city or town within the county, in the enforcement of said traffic laws therein and in all other parts of the county. [Acts 1919, p. 228.]

Art. 6699a. Salaries of deputies.—Deputies shall be paid a salary out of the general county fund not to exceed one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars per month, the salary to be fixed by the commissioners' court, and in addition thereto the commissioners' court is hereby authorized to provide at the expense of the county such necessary uniforms, caps and badges, such badges to be not less than two inches by three inches in dimensions, and other necessary equipment, to include a motorcycle and its maintenance, as is necessary for them to discharge their duties. The salaries paid to said deputies acting as such highway officer shall be paid direct to said deputies by the commissioners' court, and such salaries shall be independent of any salary or fee paid to the sheriff and all of his deputies not so acting as highway officers, and the sheriff shall not be required to account for the salaries provided for herein as fees of office or as salary to the sheriff or his other deputies. Such deputies as are provided for herein shall be appointed by the commissioners' court and be deputized by either the sheriff or any constable of the county in which they are appointed, and no other officers shall make arrests in this State for violation of laws relating to highways now in effect in this State. Such deputies as provided for herein shall at all times when in the performance of their duties wear a full uniform with a cap and badge, the badge to be displayed on the outside of the uniform in a conspicuous place. Such officers shall remain in and upon the highway, and at all times patrol the same while in the performance of their duties, only leaving the highway to pursue any offender whom such officers were unable to apprehend upon the highway itself. No arrest by any such officer shall be binding or valid upon the person apprehended if the officer making such arrest was in hiding or if he set a trap to apprehend persons traveling upon the highway. No fees or charges whatever shall be made for the service of such officers provided for herein, nor shall any fee for the arrests made by such officers be charged and taxed as costs or paid to such officers in any case in which such officers shall make an arrest. Such officers shall perform all their duties and make arrests for violation of any law of this State appertaining to the control and regulation of vehicles operating in and upon any highway, street, or alley of this State. The district engineer in whose district the county in which such officers operate shall advise with such officers as to the enforcement of the various State laws pertaining to control and regulation of traffic upon the highways, and in case such officers shall not perform their duties in enforcing such laws, the district engineer may complain to the commissioners' court, and upon the filing of such complaint in writing duly signed by the district engineer, the commissioners' court shall summons before them for a hearing the officer or officers so complained of, and if such hearing develops that such officer or officers are not performing their duties as required of them, then such officer or officers shall immediately be discharged from all of their duties and powers as herein provided for, and other officers shall forthwith be appointed. Should any portion or section of this article be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other portion of this article, and all other portions not held invalid or unconstitutional shall remain in full force and effect. [Acts 1925, p. 202.]

Art. 6700. Disposition of fines.—Fines collected for violations of any highway law as set forth in Chapter 1 of Title 13 of the Penal Code, shall be used by the municipality or the counties in which the same are assessed and to which the same are payable, in the construction and maintenance of roads, bridges and culverts therein, and for the enforcement of the traffic laws regulating the use of the public highways by motor vehicles and motorcycles, and to help defray the expense of county traffic officers. [Acts 1917, p. 484; Acts 1919, pp. 228, 310.]

Art. 6701. Width of wheels.—No person, firm, association or corporation shall sell or offer for sale in this State any wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than two thousand pounds and not exceeding four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than three inches in width; or any such wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than four inches in width. This article shall apply to all persons, firms, associations or corporations engaged in the sale of road vehicles, either at wholesale or retail, but shall not apply to individuals selling or offering for sale road vehicles purchased for their individual use. Any firm, association or corporation violating the terms of this article shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, to be collected for the benefit of the county in which such violation may occur. [Acts 1917, p. 139; Acts 1919, p. 284; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 61.]

[Additional legislation, Acts 1925, pp. 135-145.]

SECTION 1. Wherever used in this Act the following terms shall have the meaning ascribed to each as follows:

(a) "Motor Vehicle" shall include all vehicles propelled otherwise than by muscular power, except motorcycles and vehicles that run exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(b) "Tractor" shall include any motor vehicle used as a traveling power plant or for drawing other vehicles, but having no provisions for carrying loads independently, other than the operator of such tractor.

(c) "Trailer" shall include any vehicle without motive power constructed for carrying passengers or property wholly on its own structure and for being drawn by a self-propelled vehicle, except those running exclusively on tracks or rails.

(d) "Semi-trailer" shall include a vehicle designed and constructed for use in conjunction with a self-propelled vehicle so that some of the weight of its load rests upon and is carried by the towing vehicle, but not including those running exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(e) "Motorcycle" shall include any motor vehicle constructed to travel on not more than three wheels in contact with the ground or public highway, but not those that run exclusively on rails or tracks.

(f) "Bicycle" shall include any vehicle propelled by human power while the person or persons furnishing the power ride such vehicle, except those running exclusively upon tracks or rails.

(g) "Public Highway" shall include any road, street, way, thoroughfare or bridge in this State not privately owned or controlled, for the use of vehicles, over which the State has legislative jurisdiction under its police power.

(h) "Night-time" shall mean the time between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise.

(i) "Person" shall include, wherever applicable, a person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or other concern by whatever name known or howsoever organized or created.

(j) "Headlighting Device" or "Device," when used in the provisions relative to lights on motor vehicles, tractors, or motorcycles, shall include the integral and complete headlamp or a device intended to modify in any manner the beam of the ordinary type of headlighting equipment.

(k) "Ordinary Type of Headlighting Equipment" shall mean a headlamp composed of a lamp housing, plain parabolic reflector, plain glass front or bare reflector, and a clear-glass incandescent lamp or bulb.

(l) "Lens" shall include any headlight lens, cover-glass or front-glass other than a plain glass front.

(m) "Reflector" shall include any reflector other than a plain parabolic reflector.

(n) "Headlight Control Device" shall have the same meaning as that assigned to "Headlighting Device" and "Device."

(o) "Spotlight" shall mean any light or lamp, the direction of the beam from which is controllable from the front seat of a motor vehicle or from the seat or side-car of a motorcycle.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer or bicycle upon any public highway in this State during the night-time if such motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, semi-trailer or bicycle be not equipped with lights complying with the following requirements applicable to any such vehicle.

(a) Every motor vehicle and tractor shall, during the night-time, have two lighted headlamps of approximately equal candle-power attached to the front end thereof, one of said headlamps shall be located to the right of the car axis and the other to the left of said axis. Every motorcycle shall, during the night-time, have one lighted headlamp attached to the front thereof. Each of said headlights of motor vehicles, tractors, and motorcycles shall be visible from the front of the vehicle.

(b) Every motor vehicle, motorcycle, tractor, trailer, or semi-trailer shall, during the night-time, have attached one lighted lamp displaying a red or yellow light visible from the rear of such vehicle; provided, that when more than one of such vehicles are operated while fastened together, one behind the other, only the last of such vehicles toward the rear shall be required to carry such a tail light. Such rear tail light on all such vehicles mentioned in this subdivision shall be so arranged and constructed as to illuminate during the night-time the number plate showing the registration number of the vehicle so that the number plate shall be visible from the rear of such vehicle. Where the construction or use of a motor truck makes it necessary to separate the tail light and the number plate for the purpose of protecting either or both, it shall not be necessary for the tail light to be so placed as to illuminate the number plate.

(c) Every bicycle shall, during the night-time, have attached to it in front a lighted lamp which shall be visible from the front of such bicycle, or a reflex mirror, and attached to it in the rear a reflex mirror or a lighted lamp exhibiting a red or yellow light which shall be visible from the rear of such bicycle.

SEC. 3. No headlight shall be used upon any motor vehicle, tractor or motorcycle operated upon the public highways of this State unless such headlight is equipped with a lens, reflector or headlight control device which has been approved by the State Highway Commission in accordance with the provision of this Act, and which is adjusted as prescribed in the certificate of approval issued by the State Highway Commission to the manufacturer of such lens, reflector or headlight control device or his agent within this State.

SEC. 4. The University of Texas is hereby designated as the official testing agency for the State of Texas, said tests to be carried on under the supervision of the Experiment Station of said institution. In the event that said institution is unable to carry on the tests herein prescribed, the State Highway Commission shall have the authority to designate a new testing agency. Said testing agency, in either case, shall carry on the tests in laboratories equipped to carry on photometric tests according to the best practice, recognized as such by the National Bureau of Standards and other states requiring tests similar to those required herein.

SEC. 5. Any person, firm or corporation may submit to the State Highway Commission a lens, reflector or headlight control device intended to make a headlight comply with the provisions of this Act, and make application that the same be tested as to conformity with the requirements of this Act. Upon such application being made, the State Highway Commission shall, upon notice to the applicant, submit such lens, reflector or headlight control device to the testing agency as herein designated with the request that such device be tested as to conformity with the requirements of this Act. Each such applicant shall, upon the filing of his application, pay to the State Highway Commission a fee of fifty dollars. All such fees shall be paid by the State Highway Commission into the State Treasury, and they shall be deposited in a fund to be known as the Highway Light Test Fund, and the State Treasurer shall keep such fund separate. The moneys in such fund, or so much of them as may be necessary, shall be used to meet the expense of the tests as herein provided, and for such use they are hereby appropriated, and the balance thereof, if any, shall be paid into the State Highway Fund. Moneys in the Highway Light Test Fund shall be spent under the direction of the State Highway Commission, and may be spent only to defray the expenses of testing by the testing agency herein provided for.

SEC. 6. The testing agency shall conduct an exact scientific test of every device submitted to it as herein provided, and shall report thereon to the State Highway Commission its findings and instructions as to the candlepower lamp or bulb and any particular adjustment to be used with such device.

The sample submitted to the testing agency shall be representative of the device as manufactured and as marketed. They shall be accompanied by printed instructions for their use as issued by the manufacturer of the device. The samples submitted shall include as much of the accessory equipment peculiar to the device (except batteries) as is necessary to operate the device in its normal manner.

In the case of devices to be used in connection with standard parabolic reflectors, the reflectors used in making the laboratory tests shall be of standard high grade manufacture of 1.25 inch focal length, with clean and highly polished surfaces and as nearly truly paraboloidal in form as possible, and as approved for this purpose by the National Bureau of Standards.

The incandescent lamps used in connection with the laboratory tests shall be of standard manufacture and as approved for this purpose by the National Bureau of Standards. In case of devices involving the use of special incandescent lamps, such lamps, together with any necessary accessories, shall be submitted.

Each device submitted must bear a distinctive designation prominently and permanently indicating the name and type of the device. Special incandescent lamps submitted in connection with devices shall bear the manufacturer's normal clear-bulb rating.

The testing agency shall adjust the device in accordance with the printed instructions issued by the manufacturer, which instructions must be adequate for practical purposes. An exact description of the adjustments made for test shall be given in the report.

SEC. 7. The following designations of the focal adjustments of the incandescent lamp in the parabolic reflector are hereby adopted:

Principal Focus. The beam, with bare reflector, or plain front glass, is nearly parallel and of the smallest possible diameter.

Rear Focus. The beam, with bare reflector or plain front glass, diverges as much as possible without having a dark center.

Front Focus. The beam, with bare reflector or plain front glass, converges and crosses near the lamp, and then diverges as much as possible without having a dark center.

Special Focus. A special focal adjustment shall be allowed only when it can be clearly defined and described.

SEC. 8. (a) The testing agency shall make the following photometric tests:

Tests of devices used in pairs. A pair of testing reflectors, mounted similarly to the headlamps on a motor vehicle, shall be set up in a dark room at a distance of not less than sixty feet nor more than one hundred feet from a vertical white screen. If a testing distance of one hundred feet is taken, the reflectors shall be set twenty-eight inches apart from center to center, and if a shorter testing distance is taken, the distance between reflectors shall be proportionately reduced. The axis of the lamps shall be parallel and horizontal, or tilted in a vertical plane in accordance with manufacturer's adjustment. The intensity of the combined light shall then be measured with each pair of samples in turn, with the reflectors fitted with a pair of incandescent lamps of the gas-filled type, six to eight volts, 21 spherical candlepower rating. The lamps shall be such as will give their rated candlepower when operated at their rated efficiency. They shall be operated at their rated candlepower.

Measurements shall be made at the following points at the surface of the screen:

A. In the median vertical plane parallel to the lamp axis, on a level with the lamps.

B. In the median plane one degree of arc below the level of the lamps.

C. In the median plane one degree of arc above the level of the lamps.

D. Four degrees of arc to the left of the median plane and one degree of arc above the level of the lamps.

PL and PR. One and one-half degree of arc below the level of the lamps and three degrees of arc to the left and to the right, respectively, of the median plane.

QL and QR. Three degrees of arc below the level of the lamps and six degrees of arc to the left and to the right, respectively, of the median plane.

(b) All pairs of samples tested under the conditions prescribed above shall conform to the following specifications for observed apparent candlepower:

Point A. Not less than 1,800 candlepower nor more than 6,000 candlepower.

Point B. Not less than 7,200 candlepower, and there shall not be less than 7,200 candlepower at any point on the horizontal line through B, one degree to the left and to the right of B.

Point C. Not over 2,400 candlepower, and not less than 800 candlepower.

Point D. Not over 800 candlepower.

Points PL and PR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 5,000 candlepower.

Points QL and QR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, but less than 2,000 candlepower.

SEC. 9. Test of devices used singly. Where a device is to be used singly, only one reflector shall be used, and the specifications for the observed candlepower for the test stations in 8 (a) shall be as follows:

Point A. Not less than 1,800 candlepower.

Point B. Not less than 3,600 candlepower, and there shall not be less than 3,600 candlepower at any point on the horizontal line through B, one degree to the left and to the right of B.

Point C. Not more than 2,400 candlepower.

Point D. Not more than 800 candlepower.

Points PL and PR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 2,500 candlepower.

Points QL and QR. At each of these points and at every point on the line between them, not less than 1,000 candlepower.

SEC. 10. The testing agency shall recommend to the State Highway Commission that any device submitted be not given a certificate of approval, even though it passes the photometric tests herein prescribed, if such device has one of the following defects:

Unnecessary loss of light due to absorption or diffusion.

Abnormal or unduly complicated adjustment.

Unstable or bad mechanical construction.

Unduly bright or dark areas or excessive contrast in the illuminated field.

Irregular or badly defined cut-off line.

SEC. 11. In the case that the design or construction of any device is changed in any way which alters the characteristics by which it is ordinarily identified, a new name or type designation must be given, and the device may then be submitted for approval on the same basis as a new device.

Any alteration in the design of any approved device which does not affect its distinctive appearance, but which is made for the purpose of improving its performance or to correct for alterations made in the standard of construction of incandescent lamps or reflectors, may be allowed under the original approval of such device, provided that due notice of such alteration is given to the State Highway Commission and verification tests made to the satisfaction of the commission that the device as altered complies with the specifications herein given.

SEC. 12. As a safeguard against deviations in the design and construction of an approved device from that on which approval was originally based, the State Highway Commission shall have the right to submit from time to time samples of the approved devices to the testing agency for a verification of their performance or to require the submission at suitable intervals of certified copies of reports of such verification tests, satisfactory to the testing agency, made by a person or an organization fulfilling the requirements of a testing authority. In case copies of verification tests are not submitted as required, or in case the verification test shows failure of any device to conform to the specification herein prescribed, the State Highway Commission may suspend or withdraw approval of such device.

SEC. 13. Whenever the State Highway Commission shall receive from the testing agency a report that a particular device has been tested and found to comply with the provisions of this Act, together with instructions as to the candlepower lamp or bulb and any particular adjustments to be used in connection with such device, the commission shall issue to the applicant a certificate of approval, together with a copy of the instructions of the testing agency relative to the use of such device. The State Highway Commission may refuse approval to any device which in its opinion will be, in actual use, unsafe or impractical due to any one or more of the defects detailed in Section 10 of this Act, but upon any such refusal must furnish the applicant a detailed statement setting forth the reason for such refusal.

Upon receipt of said certificate of approval, the applicant may stamp on or attach to, or cause to be stamped on or attached to, all devices identical in design and construction with the device for which the certificate of approval was issued, the following words: "Approved by the Texas State Highway Commission." Should any person stamp upon or attach to or cause to be stamped upon or attached to any such device or equipment the words: "Approved by the Texas State Highway Commission," or any words meaning that such device has been approved by the Texas State Highway Commission when such device or equipment has not been approved by the State Highway Commission, or should any person knowingly sell or offer for sale in this State any device or equipment so marked which has not been approved by the State Highway Commission, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be confined to the county jail for not less than one year, and not more than two years, or by a fine of not less than $100.00 and not more than $1,000.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment; or should any corporation cause or knowingly permit such offense to be committed, the offending corporation shall forfeit to the State of Texas as a penalty the sum of one thousand dollars, and the Attorney General shall sue or cause such corporation to be sued in the district court of Travis County for such penalty.

SEC. 14. Each and every county commissioners' court in this State shall, under the technical supervision of the State Highway Commission, establish and maintain county test stations in the various counties for the purpose of testing and adjusting the headlights on motor vehicles and motorcycles. Said county test stations shall test and adjust the headlights of motor vehicles and motorcycles for proper tilt, proper focal adjustment, and general efficient operation. Proper tilt, proper focal adjustment, and general efficient operation shall mean the tilt, focal adjustment, and proper mechanical condition as prescribed for the various devices by the State Highway Commission upon the recommendation of the testing agency heretofore referred to. The establishment of county test stations shall mean the designation of any place which shall comply with the requirements for a test station as determined by the State Highway Commission. The number and location of county test stations shall be determined by the county commissioners' court in accordance with the number and geographical distribution of motor vehicles and motorcycles in the county.

SEC. 15. The county commissioners' court shall require the county test stations to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for the test and adjustment of headlights of each motor vehicle and motorcycle. Said court shall require the issuance by the county test stations of a certificate of test and adjustment which shall show the make of the motor vehicle or motorcycle, the registration number, the date of the adjustment, and the official designation of the station making the test. Said certificate shall bear the signature of the person in charge of the test station, and shall be kept by the owner of the motor vehicle or motorcycle for which the certificate was issued until replaced by the certificate for the next year, or by a certificate issued at a later date in the same year. These certificates shall be issued to the county commissioners' court upon requisition to the State Highway Commission, and the county commissioners' court shall issue them to the various test stations. A duplicate of each certificate issued by each county test station shall be forwarded at the end of each month to the county commissioners' court together with as much of the total fee charged for such test as the court may require. The portion of the total fee, if any, to be allowed the county test station for making the test and adjustment for such motor vehicle and motorcycle shall be determined by the county commissioners' court before the designation of any county test station under this Act, but may be changed at any future time as necessity may require.

SEC. 16. Before any county tax collector shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a motor vehicle or motorcycle as now provided by law, he shall require the presentation of a certificate showing that the headlights of such motor vehicle or motorcycle have been tested and adjusted at some one of the county test stations referred to, and that said test and adjustment have been made within the thirty-day period preceding the date of application for registration.

SEC. 17. The expense of the administration of this Act in the various counties shall be paid out of the fees received from the county test stations. At the end of each year any moneys so received and not expended as herein provided shall be paid into the road and bridge fund of the county.

SEC. 18. Upon designation of a county test station, the county commissioners' courts shall appoint the party or one of the parties making the request for designation, or some person satisfactory to both the court and the party or parties requesting the designation, as the official representative of the county. This representative shall sign each certificate issued by the county test station, and he shall be responsible to the county commissioners' court for the proper conducting of the county test station. If the county commissioners' court finds that the business of any county test station is being badly or poorly conducted, it shall be the duty of the court to revoke the designation of said test station. Before the final designation of a county test station by the county commissioners' court, said court shall require of the person who is to be the official representative, as above provided for, such bond and in such amount as the court may deem necessary for the proper safeguard of the funds to be handled.

SEC. 19. County test stations shall re-test and re-adjust the headlights of any motor vehicle without charge upon the presentation by the owner of said motor vehicle or motorcycle of a certificate of test adjustment issued for the current year. No such re-test and re-adjustment shall be made during the period from December 1 of any year to February 1 of the following year, unless so ordered by an officer who has arrested a person for a violation of the provisions of this Act, and who is acting under the provisions of Section 25 hereof.

SEC. 20. The State Highway Commission shall have published and sent to each county commissioners' court in this State a sufficient number of lists of devices approved for use, as hereinbefore provided. These lists shall be distributed by the county commissioners' court to the various county test stations and to individuals upon request. This list of approved devices shall show the required tilt of the headlamp, the candlepower limit of the lamp or bulb to be used with the device, and any other special adjustment required by the State Highway Commission in order to make the device, whole headlamp or portion thereof, comply with the requirements of this Act.

SEC. 21. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association to sell or offer for sale any lens, reflector, or headlight control device which has not been approved by the State Highway Commission as herein provided.

SEC. 22. It shall be unlawful for any operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle to use a spotlight when a motor vehicle or motorcycle, approaching from the front, is in sight. Upon sight of a motor vehicle or motorcycle approaching from the front, it shall be the duty of the operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle upon which a spotlight is being used to immediately extinguish said spotlight, and it shall not be turned on until the approaching motor vehicle or motorcycle has passed. In case the headlights of a motor vehicle or headlight of a motorcycle should fail to function, and the operator of said motor vehicle or motorcycle is without sufficient driving light, the use of a spotlight shall be permissible at all times, but when so used the beam from said spotlight shall be so directed that it strikes the road not more than fifty feet ahead of the motor vehicle or motorcycle upon which it is being used. The provisions of this section prohibiting the use of spotlights under certain conditions shall not apply to police or fire department vehicles.

SEC. 23. Any motor vehicle, tractor, or motorcycle equipped with acetylene headlamps shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Act, concerning headlights, anything to the contrary notwithstanding, if such vehicle has two acetylene headlamps attached to the front portion thereof, of approximately equal candlepower, which shall be lighted during the time specified in Section 2 of this Act, and are fitted with plain glass fronts, bright six-inch spherical mirrors, and standard acetylene five-eighths foot burners.

SEC. 24. Upon the day this Act becomes effective the State Highway Commission may begin to receive applications for the approval of lenses, reflectors or headlight control devices as herein provided, and the commission shall immediately begin submitting the various devices to the testing agency as provided in this Act. Action shall be taken on all applications as soon as the report of the testing agency is received.

No person shall be arrested and prosecuted under this Act until after September 1, 1925, by which time the State Highway Commission shall have distributed, as provided in Section 20, copies of its list of devices which have been approved for use. This list of approved devices may be supplemented from time to time as applications are received and approved by the State Highway Commission.

SEC. 25. Each headlamp of motor vehicles, tractors or motorcycles, including the lens, reflector, or headlight control device used in connection therewith, shall be kept in adjustment according to the certificates of approval of said lens, reflector or headlight control device issued by the State Highway Commission. Any person operating a motor vehicle, or motorcycle which is equipped with a lens, reflector or headlight control device which is approved for use by the State Highway Commission, and who shall be arrested upon a charge that such headlamps or headlamp is equipped with a lamp or bulb not approved for use with such lens, reflector or headlight control device by the State Highway Commission, or that such headlamps or headlamp is not focused or adjusted as directed by the State Highway Commission in its certificate of approval of the lens, reflector or headlight control device, used therewith, shall be immediately released from custody by the officer making the arrest, and said person shall have seventy-two hours in which to have his headlamps or headlamp tested and adjusted or re-tested and re-adjusted by some one of the county test stations and for this purpose the officer making the arrest shall issue to the person arrested a permit to have the lights of said automobile or motorcycle re-tested and re-adjusted at any one of the county test stations without charge to the party arrested. The officer making the arrest shall instruct the person so arrested to appear before the justice of the peace or other authority designated by the officer within the seventy-two hour period immediately following the arrest, and, if said person presents to the justice of the peace or other authority designated by the officer making the arrest, a certificate of test and adjustment or re-test and re-adjustment issued by a county test station within the seventy-two hour period immediately following his arrest, the charge shall be dropped and the person arrested released.

SEC. 26. If any section, provision or part of this Act should be held invalid for any reason, it is the legislative intent that the remainder of the Act shall remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 27. If any person violates any provision of this Act, except any provision setting forth a specific penalty, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for the first offense, and not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars for the second or any subsequent offense after the first.

SEC. 28. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Art. 6702. [6859] [4670] "Public roads."—All public roads and highways not discontinued that have heretofore been laid out and established agreeably to law are hereby declared to be public roads. [Acts 1876, p. 64; G. L., Vol. 8, p. 905.]

Art. 6703. [6860-1-2-76-6902] Commissioners courts: powers.—The commissioners court shall order the laying out and opening of public roads when necessary, and discontinue or alter any road whenever it shall be deemed expedient. No public roads shall be altered or changed except to shorten the distance from end to end, unless the court upon a full investigation of the proposed change finds that the public interest will be better served by making the change; and said change shall be by unanimous consent of all the commissioners elected. No part of a public road shall be discontinued until a new road is first built connecting the parts not discontinued; and no entire first or second class road shall be discontinued except upon vacation or non-use for a period of three years. Said court shall assume and have control of the streets and alleys in all cities and incorporated towns in Texas which have no defacto municipal government in the active discharge of their official duties. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 556; Acts 1885, p. 25; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 645; Acts 1889, p. 21; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 1049.]

Art. 6704. [6871-2-3-4] Classes of roads.—The commissioners courts shall classify all public roads in their counties as follows:

1. First class roads shall be clear of all obstructions, and not less than forty feet nor more than sixty feet wide; all stumps over six inches in diameter shall be cut down to six inches of the the surface and rounded off, and all stumps six inches in diameter and under cut smooth with the ground, and all causeways made at least sixteen feet wide. No first or second class road shall be reduced to a lower class.

2. Second class roads shall conform to the requirements of first class roads except that they shall be not less than thirty feet wide.

3. Third class roads shall be not less than twenty feet wide and the causeways not less than twelve feet wide; otherwise they shall conform to the requirements of first-class roads. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 20; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 553.]

Art. 6705. [6875-6-85] Petition.—The commissioners court shall in no instance grant an order on an application for any new road, or to discontinue an original one, or to alter or change the course of a public road, unless the applicants have given at least twenty days notice by written advertisement of their intended application, posted up at the court house door of the county and at two other public places in the vicinity of the route of such road. All such applications shall be by petition to the commissioners court, signed by at least eight freeholders in the precinct in which such road is desired to be made or discontinued, specifying in such petition the beginning and termination of such road, provided an application to alter or change a road need not be signed by more than one freeholder of the precinct. [Id.]

Art. 6706. [6877-9] Preliminary survey.—All roads ordered to be made shall be laid out by a jury of freeholders in the county, to be appointed by the commissioners court. Said jury shall consist of five persons, a majority of whom may proceed, with or without the county surveyor, as ordered by the commissioners court, to lay out, survey and describe such road to the greatest advantage to the public, and so that the same can be traced with certainty. They shall make written report of their proceedings to the next term of said court, and the field notes of such survey or description of the road shall be included therein, and, if adopted, shall be recorded in the minutes of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6707. [6886-7-8] Notice of appointment.—When juries of view are appointed, the clerk of the court shall make out and deliver to the sheriff duplicate copies of the order appointing them within ten days after such appointment was made, indorsing on such copies the date of such order. The sheriff shall serve the same upon each juror in person, or by leaving one of said copies at his usual place of abode. The sheriff shall make such service within twenty days after he receives said copies, and shall make his return to the clerk on the duplicate copies, stating the date and manner of service, or the cause of his failure to make the same. Any juror of view, summoned as such, who fails or refuses to perform the service required of him by law as such juror, shall forfeit and pay for every such failure the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by judgment on motion of the district or county attorney, in the name of the county. [Id.]

Art. 6708. [6878] [4689] Oath of jury.—Said jurors shall first take the following oath: “I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will lay out the road now directed to be laid out by the order to us directed from the commissioners court, according to law, without favor or affection, malice or hatred, to the best of my skill and knowledge. So help me God.” [Id.]

Art. 6709. [6880] [4691] Notice to owner.—Said jury shall issue a written notice of the time when they will proceed to lay out such road, or when they will assess the damages incidental to the opening of the same. Such notice shall be served upon each land owner, his agent or attorney, through whose land said road may run, at least five days before the day named therein. If such owner is a non-resident of the county the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and the road may be established after four weeks publication, the cost of publishing to be paid as directed by the judgment of the court. [Id.]

Art. 6710. [6881-2-3-4] Damages to land.—Any such owner may, at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, but not in any event thereafter, present to the jury a written statement of the damages claimed by him, incidental to the opening of such road, and thereupon the jury shall proceed to assess the damages, returning their assessment and the claimant's statement with their report. If the commissioners court approves the report and orders such road to be opened, they shall consider the assessment and damages by the jury and the claimant's statement thereof, and allow to such owner just damages and adequate compensation for the land taken.

When same are paid or secured by special deposit with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner and after notice of such payment or deposit to the owner, and if no objection is made to the jury's report, said court may proceed to have such road opened, if deemed of sufficient importance. Said owner may appeal from such assessment as in cases of appeal from judgment of justice courts, but such appeal shall not prevent the road from being opened, but shall be only to fix the amount of damages. [Id.]

Art. 6711. [6889-6900] Neighborhood roads.—Any lines between different persons or owners of lands, any section line, or any direct line through an inclosure containing twelve hundred and eighty acres of land or more may be declared public highways upon the following conditions:

1. Ten freeholders, or one or more persons living within an inclosure, who desire a nearer, better or more practicable road to their church, county seat, mill, timber or water, may make sworn application to the commissioners court for an order establishing such road, designating the lines sought to be opened and the names and residences of the persons or owners to be affected by such proposed road, and stating the facts which show a necessity for such road.

2. Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall issue a notice reciting the substance thereof directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon such land owners, naming them, to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners court and show cause why said lines should not be declared public highways. Said notice shall be served in the manner and for the length of time provided for the service of citations in civil actions in justice courts, and shall be returned in like manner as such citation.

3. At a regular term of the court, after due service of such notice, if the commissioners court deems said road of sufficient public importance, it may issue an order declaring the lines designated in the application to be public highways, and direct the same to be opened by the owners thereof and left open for a space of fifteen feet on each side of said line, but the marked trees and other objects used to designate said lines, and the corners of surveys, shall not be removed or defaced. Notice of such order shall be immediately served upon such owners, and return made thereon, as before provided.

4. The damages to such land owners shall be assessed by a jury of freeholders, as for other public roads, and all costs attending the proceedings in opening neighborhood roads, if the application is granted shall be paid by the county.

5. The commissioners court shall not be required to keep any such road worked by the road hands as in the case of other public roads. [Id.]

Art. 6712. [6899] [4710] Gates.—The owners of land across which a third class or neighborhood road may be run, when the right of way therefor has been acquired without cost to the county, may erect gates across said road when necessary, said gates to be not less than ten feet wide and free of obstructions at the top. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 23; G. L., Vol. 9, p. 555.]

Art. 6713. [6901] [4712] Road supervisors.—Except when road commissioners are employed, the county commissioners shall be supervisors of public roads in their respective counties, and each commissioner shall supervise the public roads within his commissioners precinct once each month. He shall also make a sworn report to each regular term of the commissioners court held in his county during the year, showing:

1. The condition of all roads and parts of roads in his precinct.
2. The condition of all culverts and bridges.
3. The amount of money remaining in the hands of overseers subject to be expended upon the roads within his precinct.
4. The number of mile posts and finger boards defaced and torn down.
5. What, if any, new roads of any kind should be opened in his precinct, and what, if any, bridges, culverts, or other improvements are necessary to place the roads in his precinct in good condition and the probable cost of such improvements; also the name of every overseer who has failed to work on the road, or in any way neglected to perform his duty.

Said report shall be spread upon the minutes of the court, to be considered in improving public roads and determining the amount of taxes levied therefor. [Id.; Acts 1913, p. 255.]

Art. 6714. [6903] [4714] Reports.—Said supervisor's report shall be submitted together with all contracts made by said court since its last report for any work on any road, to the grand jury, at the first term of the district court thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 6715. [6904] [4715] Across public lands.—No public road shall be opened across lands owned and used or for actual use by the State, educational, eleemosynary, or other public State institutions for public purposes and not subject to sale under the general laws of the State, without the consent of the trustees of said institution and the approval of the Governor. The roads heretofore opened across such lands may be closed by the authorities in charge of any such lands whenever they deem it necessary to protect the interests of the State, upon repayment to the county where the land is situated with eight per cent interest, the amount actually paid out by said county for the condemnation of said lands as shown by the records of the commissioners court.

Art. 6716. Damage to roads.—The county commissioner of any precinct, or county road superintendent of any county, or road supervisor, whose road is affected, may forbid the use of highways or parts thereof when from wet weather or recent construction or repairs they cannot be safely used without probable serious damages to same, or when the bridge or culverts on same are unsafe, under the following rules:

1. Such officer shall post notices on such highways, stating the maximum load permitted and the time such use is prohibited, and same shall be posted upon the highway in such places as will enable the drivers to make detours to avoid the restricted highways or portions thereof.

2. If the owner or operator of any such vehicle feels himself aggrieved by such action, he may complain in writing to the county judge of such county, setting forth the nature of his grievance. When such complaint is filed, the judge shall set the same down for a day certain not more than three days later, and shall give written notice to such official of the day and purpose of such hearing. The judge shall hear testimony offered by the parties thereto, and upon conclusion thereof, shall render judgment sustaining, revoking or modifying such order or notice, and such judgment shall be final as to the issues raised.

3. The owners, operators, drivers or movers of any vehicle, object or contrivance over a public highway or bridge shall be jointly and severally responsible for all damages which said highway or bridge may sustain as the result of negligent driving, operating or moving of such vehicle, or as a result of operating same at a time forbidden by said road officials. The amount of such damages may be recovered in any action at law by the county judge for the use of the county, and such recovery shall go to the benefit of the damaged road. The county attorney shall represent the county in such suit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 133; Acts 1923, p. 160.]

CHAPTER THREE.

MAINTENANCE OF ROADS.

1. OVERSEERS AND HANDS.

| 6725 | Summons | 6735 | Pay of overseers |
| 6726 | Complaints against hands | 6736 | Road and bridge funds |

Art. 6717. [6905] [4716] Road precincts.—The commissioners courts of the several counties shall lay off their respective counties into convenient road precincts and shall number each precinct; and in the order establishing the same shall specify as definitely as practicable the boundaries thereof. [Acts 1876, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 899.]

Art. 6718. [6906-7] Road force.—At the first regular term of said court in each year, or, if not done then, at any subsequent regular or called term, said court shall appoint an overseer for each road precinct, and designate all the hands liable to work on public roads and apportion them to the several overseers. Hands shall as nearly as practicable be apportioned to work on the road precincts nearest to their place of abode. The supervisor of public roads shall at any time apportion any hands in his precinct who from any cause may not have been apportioned as otherwise provided in this subdivision. [Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 556.]

Art. 6719. [6909-10-11-17] Appointment of overseer.—All orders appointing overseers shall embrace the designation of hands liable to work under such overseer, as far as known, and shall specify the boundaries of such overseer's road precinct as laid off by the court. The clerk of said court shall make out duplicate copies of all orders appointing overseers, inserting thereon the duties required of overseers in regard to their non-acceptance of such appointment, and deliver the same to the sheriff of the county within ten days after any such order is made, indorsing on such copies the date of the orders of appointment. The sheriff shall, within twenty days after receipt of such copies, deliver to or leave at the usual place of abode of such overseer, one of such copies, and return duplicate of such copy to the clerk of the county court, indorsing thereon the date and manner of service, or the cause of his failure to serve the same. [Id.]

Art. 6720. [6908-12] Term of service.—The term of service of a road overseer shall be from the time of the service of the order of appointment until the first regular term of the commissioners court in the succeeding year, and during such time he shall be exempt from jury service. If any road overseer dies, removes or is unable to act, the county judge, immediately upon information of the fact, shall appoint an overseer to fill such vacancy, and notify him of his appointment. [Id.]

Art. 6721. [6913-14-15-16] Persons exempt from serving.—No person shall be compelled to serve as an overseer who is lawfully exempt from road duty, nor shall any one be compelled to serve as overseer more than one year in every three successive years. Such person shall notify the clerk of his non-acceptance within ten days after notice of his appointment, and the clerk shall forthwith report the same to the county judge, who shall immediately appoint another overseer for said road precinct. If such exempt person fails to so notify the clerk, it shall be considered an acceptance of the appointment, and he shall not be permitted thereafter to plead his exemption from road duty as a defense against any neglect or failure to perform any of the duties of such overseer. [Id.]

Art. 6722. [6918] [4729] List of overseers.—Each county clerk shall post up in the court house on the first day of each term of the district court held in his county, a list of the names and road precincts of all overseers in the county. [Id.]

Art. 6723. [6919-26] Road duty.—All male persons between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years shall be liable to work on, repair and clean out the public roads under the provisions of this title, subject to the following conditions:

1. Ministers in the active discharge of their duties, invalids, members of volunteer fire companies in the active discharge of their duties, and persons who have not been residing in the county in which they are summoned to work for fifteen days immediately preceding such summons, shall be exempt.

2. Any person so liable who has been summoned to do such duty may furnish an able bodied substitute to work in his place. The overseer shall not accept such substitute if he is incapable of performing a reasonable amount of work.

3. Any person so liable, by paying to his road overseer before the day appointed to work, one dollar for each day he is summoned to work, shall be exempt for each day paid for.

4. Each person summoned to work on a road shall take with him an axe, hoe, pick, spade or such tool as the overseer directs, or if he has no such tool then such other suitable tool as he may have.

5. Each road hand shall perform his duties as such in accordance with the directions of his overseer. No person shall be compelled to do such work more than five days of eight hours efficient service each in each year. [Acts 1876, p. 63; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 899; Acts 1883, p. 22; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 329; Acts 1895, p. 160; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 890.]

Art. 6724. [6927-8-9] Call for hands.—Each overseer shall cause the roads through his precinct to be worked twice in each year; and he may call out all or some of the hands at any time he deems it necessary, or when ordered by the commissioners court or other competent authority. If any hand has not ben apportioned by the commissioners court, the overseer nearest such person's residence shall summon such hand. [Acts 1876, p. 66; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 902; Acts 1889, p. 21; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1049.]

Art. 6725. [6930-31-32] Summons.—Each overseer shall give three days previous notice, by summons in person or in writing, to each person within his road precinct liable to road duty, of the time and place such person is required to appear to work on the road, and the number of days such person shall be required to work. A written summons may be served by leaving the same at the usual place of abode of the person summoned, with some person residing at such place who is not less than ten years of age, or by posting it on the door of such abode. The overseer may appoint some one to summon the hands and such person shall be exempt from road duty as many days as he was actually so engaged. [Acts 1889, p. 21.]

Art 6726. [6933-45] Complaints against hands.—Within ten days after he has had his road worked, the overseer shall file with the county attorney or the justice of the peace a sworn complaint against each person so summoned who has failed to work and who is not entitled to exemption from road duty. Overseers shall dismiss from the road any hand who fails to do efficient work, or who hinders other hands from doing their work properly, or dismiss any hand who may be intoxicated, or who shall refuse to obey any reasonable order of the overseers; and the overseer shall also file complaints against such hands. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1884, p. 24; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 556.]

Art. 6727. [7013] [4791] Bridges.—Overseers of roads shall cause bridges to be erected across all such water courses and other places as may appear to them to be necessary and expedient; and should there be a water course or other place that requires a bridge, dividing any two road precincts, the overseer of each of such precincts, together with their hands, shall meet at the same time and place to construct such bridge, and the overseer chosen by a majority of the hands present shall superintend the building of such bridge until finished. [Acts 1876, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 903.]

Art. 6728. [6934] [4744] Road material.—If an overseer deems it expedient to make causeways and build bridges, or to gravel any public road, the timber, gravel, earth, stone or other necessary material most convenient therefor may be used. In such case the owner of such material shall be paid out of the county treasury a fair compensation for the same, to be determined by the commissioners court upon the application of such owner. [Acts 1876, p. 66; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 902; Acts 1897, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1138.]

Art. 6729. Condemnation of road material.—The commissioners court may use either timber, earth, stone, gravel, or other necessary material most convenient therefor to build, repair, or maintain any public road or any part of any public road in the county without regard to the location or extent thereof or the funds from which such repair or maintenance is paid. In such case the owner of any such material shall be paid a fair and just compensation therefor as may be agreed upon by the owner or his agent and the commissioners court. Should the owner and the commissioners court fail to agree upon the compensation to be paid for the material required, then the county, upon the order of said court, shall proceed to condemn the same. If such material is needed for the general system of county highways, then payment shall be made from the road and bridge fund of the county, or from the proceeds of any county issue of bonds. If such material is to be used for the benefit of any defined district or political subdivision of the county, then the cost of such material shall be paid from funds of such defined district or subdivision arising through sale of bonds or the collection of special taxes. The commissioners appointed to condemn the property shall receive two dollars for each day that they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties, to be paid out of the same fund from which payment is made for materials on the order of the commissioners court. Compensation awarded by said commissioners for material shall be paid to the owner or deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of such owner, and when so paid or deposited the county shall have the right to enter upon and use said material. If the owner or the county is not satisfied with the compensation awarded, he or said county may appeal therefrom as in condemnation cases; provided, the commissioners appointed to condemn such road material shall, after due hearing, fix a fair and reasonable value for such material; and if it has a market value, then such market value shall be determined and the market value fixed thereon as compensation to the owners, or if the material has no market value, then its value shall be fixed at such sum as the evidence shows the material to be reasonably worth for the purpose for which it was used. The value may be fixed either as a whole or in quantities, by the yard for earth, for sand, or broken stone, or by the perch for stone, and per tree, or per post, or per foot where trees are suitable for lumber or for timbers in such quantities as may be needed upon estimates secured by the commissioners court. [Acts 1901, p. 277; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 44; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 46.]

Art. 6730. [6935] [4745] Drains.—The earth necessary to construct a causeway shall be taken from both sides, so as to make a drain on each side thereof. Whenever it is necessary to drain the water from any public road, the overseer shall cut a ditch for that purpose, having due regard for the natural water flow, and with as little injury as possible to the adjacent land owners. In such cases the commissioners court shall cause the damages to such premises to be assessed and paid out of the general revenues of the county, and in case of disagreement the same may be settled by suit as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 6731. [6936] [4746] Wagons and scrapers.—When it may be necessary to use a wagon for any purpose in working a road, or a plow or a scraper, the overseer may exchange the labor of any hand for the use of wagons, plows or scrapers, and the necessary teams to operate the same, at reasonable rates, to be employed as aforesaid. [Acts 1876, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 903.]

Art. 6732. [6937-40] Mile posts and signs.—Each overseer shall measure such parts of such roads in his precinct as are in continuation, and set up posts of stone or good lasting timber at the end of each mile leading from the courthouse or some other noted place, and mark on said posts in legible and enduring figures the distance in miles to said courthouse or other noted place. He shall place conspicuously and permanently at the intersection of all first and second class public roads in his precincts, index or sign boards, with directions plainly marked thereon, stating the most noted place to which each of said roads leads. The commissioners court may enter into contracts with persons, firms or corporations to mark or designate road intersections as herein provided for, by the use of advertising schemes and devices, and the correct marking of road intersections by such devices shall be deemed a compliance with this law, provided such sign boards are properly maintained. When a mile post or index board is removed or defaced by any means whatever, the overseer shall cause the same to be replaced immediately by another marked as the original one. The overseer may exchange the labor of any hand for the marking of index boards or mile posts. [Id. Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 57; Acts 1923, p. 59.]

Art. 6733. [6941] [4751] Expenditures.—Each overseer shall impartially apply all money coming into his hands as such to the improvement of roads, by repairing or building bridges, hiring hands or teams to work on the road, or in such other manner as he may deem best. He shall pay to the commissioners court any such funds remaining in his hands, when he makes his report thereto. [Act 1876, p. 68.]

Art. 6734. [6942] [4752] Report to commissioners court.—Each overseer shall make written sworn report to the commissioners court at the first regular term thereof in each year, giving the number of hands and their names in his precinct liable to work on the roads; the number of days he has caused his road to be worked; the condition of such road; the amount of funds received by him for his road, from whom received, and for what purpose, and to whom and for what purpose said funds have been paid out, and the amount of such funds in his hands. [Id.]

Art. 6735. [6943] [4753] Pay of overseers.—Overseers shall retain out of money that may come into their hands as such ten per cent thereof as compensation for their services.

Art. 6736. [6944] [4754] Road and bridge funds.—All moneys appropriated by law, or by order of the commissioners court, for working public roads or building bridges, shall be expended under the order of the commissioners court, except when otherwise herein provided, and said court shall from time to time make the necessary orders for utilizing such money and for utilizing convict labor for such purposes. [Const., Art. 16, Sec. 24.]

2. ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Art. 6737. [6946] [4756] Employment.—Each commissioner court may employ not exceeding four road commissioners, who shall be resident citizens of the district for which they are employed, and when more than one is employed, the district that each road commissioner is to control shall be defined and fixed by the court. Such road commissioners shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon by the court, not to exceed two dollars per day for the time actually engaged. Each road commissioner shall first execute a bond, payable to the county judge of the county and his successors in office, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. [Acts 1889, p. 134; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1162.]

Art. 6738. [6947] [4757] Powers and duties.—A road commissioner shall have control over all overseers, hands, tools, machinery and teams to be used upon the roads in his district; and may require overseers to order out hands in any number he may designate for the purpose of opening, working or repairing roads or building or repairing bridges or culverts in his district. He shall see that all roads and bridges in his district are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction and control of the commissioners court, inaugurate a system of grading and draining public roads in his district, and see that such system is carried out by the overseers and hands under his control, and shall obey all orders of the commissioners court; and he shall be responsible for the safe-keeping and liable for the loss or destruction of all machinery, tools or teams placed under his control, unless such loss is without his fault, and when he shall be discharged he shall deliver them to the person designated by the court. [Id.]

Art. 6739. [6948] [4758] Expenditures.—He shall expend such money as may be placed in his hands by the commissioners court under its direction in the most economical and advantageous manner on the public roads, bridges and culverts of his district; and all his acts shall be subject to the control, supervision, orders and approval of the commissioners court. He shall work the convicts and such other labor as may be furnished him by the commissioners court. When he has funds in his hands to expend for labor on the roads, and when it shall be necessary for any overseer in his district to work more than five days during any one year upon the public roads, he may employ such overseer to continue his duties as such for such length of time as may be necessary, and pay him for such services not more than one dollar and fifty cents per day for the time actually employed after the five days; provided, that the hands shall not be required to work when there shall be on hand, after building and repairing bridges, a sufficient road fund to provide for the necessary work on the roads. Said road commissioner shall report to the commissioners court at each regular term under oath showing an itemized account of all money he has received to be expended on roads and bridges and what disposition he has made of the money, and showing the condition of all roads, bridges and culverts in his district, and such other facts as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports and at such time as the court may desire. [Id.]

Art. 6740. [6949] [4759] Expenditure of road fund.—The commissioners court shall see that the road and bridge fund of their county is judiciously and equitably expended on the roads and bridges of their county, and, as nearly as the condition and necessity of the roads will permit, it shall be expended in each county commissioners precinct in proportion to the amount collected in such precinct. Money used in building permanent roads shall first be used only on first or second-class roads, and on those which shall have the right of way furnished free of cost to make as straight a road as is practicable and having the greatest bonus offered by the citizens of money, labor or other property. [Id.]

Art. 6741. [6950] [4760] Powers of court.—The commissioners court may make and enforce all reasonable and necessary rules and orders for the working and repairing of public roads, and to utilize the labor to be used and money expended thereon, not in conflict with the laws of this State. Said court may purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools or teams, and hire such labor as may be needed in addition to the labor required of citizens to build or repair the roads. [Id.]

Art. 6742. [6951] [4761] Donations.—Commissioners court or road commissioners may accept donations of money, lands, labor of men, teams or tools, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building roads in their counties, and may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road for the purpose of draining his land, and require the person draining his land to do such work under the direction of the road commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 6743. [6953-4-6] Appointment.—The commissioners court of any county subject to this law may appoint a competent person as road superintendent for such county, or one such superintendent in each commissioners precinct, as it shall determine by an order made at a regular term thereof. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of such court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance with the provisions of this subdivision shall be sufficient. Every road superintendent shall be a qualified voter in the county or precinct for which he is appointed, and shall hold his office for two years or until removed by the commissioners court for good cause. No county shall be under the operation of this law whose commissioners court does not appoint a road superintendent or superintendents. [Acts 1891, p. 149; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 151.]

Art. 6744. [6955] [4765] Oath and bond.—Each road superintendent shall within twenty days after his appointment take and subscribe the oath required by the Constitution, and give bond payable to and to be approved by the county judge in such sum as the commissioners court may fix, conditioned that he will faithfully perform all the duties required of him by law or the commissioners court, and that he will pay out and disburse the funds subject to his control as the law provides or said court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6745. [6957] [4767] Salary.—Each road superintendent shall receive such salary as the commissioners court may fix, to be paid on the order of said court at stated intervals. In counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants the county superintendent's salary shall never exceed one thousand dollars per annum, and in counties of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants it shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The salary of precinct superintendents in counties of less than fifteen thousand inhabitants shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and in counties of over fifteen thousand inhabitants it shall never exceed four hundred dollars per annum. Said court may suspend the salary of any superintendent whose continued services are not needed. [Id.]

Art. 6746. [6958] [4768] Powers.—Subject to the orders of said court, each superintendent shall have general supervision over all public roads of his county or precinct, and shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making, changing, working and repairing of roads, and the building of bridges except where otherwise contracted, and over all county convicts worked on such roads, but this shall not prevent the commissioners court from employing a person to watch and manage such convicts and direct the work to be done by them. Said road superintendent shall take charge of and be responsible for the safe-keeping of all tools, machinery, implements and teams placed under his control by the commissioners court and execute his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the county clerk. He shall be liable for the loss, injury or destruction of any such tools, teams, implements or machinery unless such loss occurred without his fault, and for the wrongful or improper expenditure of any road funds coming into his hands. On leaving office, he shall deliver all such money and property to such person as the commissioners court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6747. [6959] [4769] Duties.—Each superintendent shall see that all roads and bridges in his county or precinct are kept in good repair, and he shall, under the direction of the commissioners court, inaugurate and carry out a system of working, grading and draining the public roads in his county or precinct. He shall act as supervisor of the roads in his county or precinct, and perform all the duties of supervisor devolving on the county commissioners in counties not adopting this law, and he shall do and perform such other service as said court may require. [Id.]

Art. 6748. [6960] [4770] Road districts.—When said court so directs, each superintendent shall divide his county or precinct into road districts of convenient size, to be approved by said court, and define the boundaries thereof and designate the same by number. Such boundaries shall be recorded in the road minutes of the commissioners court. He shall ascertain the names of all persons subject to road duty in each district and keep a record thereof and report the same to the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6749. [6961] [4771] Road hands.—Each superintendent shall call out all persons liable to work on the public roads at any time and in such numbers as he deems necessary, under the provisions of subdivision 1 of this chapter. No person shall be compelled to work outside of his road district. He may contract with any such person to discharge his road duty by the use of a double team, but he shall not allow more than two dollars a day for any team, nor more than three dollars for any hand and double team. [Id.]

Art. 6750. [6962-71] Accounts and reports.—Each superintendent shall make a sworn report to said court at each regular term thereof showing an itemized account of all money belonging to the road fund he has received, from whom received, and what disposition he has made of the same, the condition of all roads and bridges in the county or precinct, and such other matters as the court may desire information upon, and shall make such other reports at such times as such court may require. Within ten days after collection of any money on account of the road or bridge fund he shall pay the same over to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, and shall keep an accurate account thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6751. [6963] [4773] Powers of court.—The commissioners court of any such county is authorized to purchase or hire all necessary road machinery, tools, implements, teams and labor required to grade, drain, or repair the roads of such county, and said court is authorized and empowered to make all reasonable and necessary rules, orders and regulations not in conflict with law for laying out, working and otherwise improving the public roads, and to utilize the labor and money expended thereon, and to enforce the same. [Id.]

Art. 6752. [6964-5] Extra road force.—Each road superintendent shall employ a sufficient force to enable him to do the necessary work in his county or precinct, as the case may be, having due regard for the condition of the county road and bridge fund and the quality and durability of the work to be done, and shall buy or hire such tools, teams, implements and machinery as the commissioners court may direct, and he shall work such roads in such manner as the commissioners court may direct, and such work shall at all times be subject to the general supervision of the commissioners court. He shall make the best contract possible for such labor or machinery, and in payment therefor he shall issue to the person entitled thereto his certificate showing the amount due, the purpose for which it was given, and upon approval by the commissioners court, a warrant shall issue therefor to the holder thereof on the county treasurer, to be paid by him out of the proper fund as other warrants. All such certificates shall be dated, numbered and signed by the road superintendent, and he and his sureties on his official bond shall be liable for all loss or damages caused by the wrongful issue of any such certificate or any extravagance in the amount thereof. [Id.]

Art. 6753. [6966] [4776] Contracts for road work.—The commissioners court may, when deemed best, construct, grade, gravel or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract, and advertise for bids, and may reject any bid. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall enter into bond with good and sufficient sureties payable to and to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as said court may determine, conditioned for the faithful compliance with such contract. At the time of making such contract said court shall direct the county treasurer to pass the amount of money stipulated in such contract to a particular fund and to keep a separate account thereof, and the same shall be used for no other purpose and can only be paid out on the order of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6754. [6968] [4778] Donations.—The commissioners court may accept donations of money, land, teams, tools, or labor, or any other kind of property or material to aid in building or keeping up roads in the county, and said court or any road superintendent, with the concurrence of the commissioners, may authorize any person to make a drain along any public road, the same to be done under the direction of the road superintendent or such other person as said court may direct. [Id.]

Art. 6755. [6969] [4779] Overseers.—The commissioners court may retain the system of working hands under road overseers as provided by general laws, and place such overseers under control of a superintendent, under such lawful regulations as said court may prescribe, or may work with the overseers without any superintendent, as may be deemed best. [Id.]

Art. 6756. [6970] [4780] Road duty: exemptions.—The commissioners court of any county in which a special tax for the maintenance of the public roads is levied and collected, as provided in Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution, shall not be compelled to require persons subject to road duty to work on the roads, but in such counties the roads shall be worked wholly by taxation, or by taxation in connection with road service, as such court may deem best. [Id.]

Art. 6757. [6972] [4782] Injuring property.—Any person who shall knowingly or wilfully destroy, injure or misplace any bridge, culvert, drain, sewer, ditch, signboard or mile post or anything of like character, placed upon any road for the benefit of the same, shall be liable to the county and any person injured for all damages caused thereby. [Id.]

Art. 6758. [6973] [4783] Delinquent poll tax payers.—The superintendent shall obtain from the tax collector as soon after the first day of January of each year as practicable and before the first day of May thereafter, a full list of the delinquent poll tax payers of such county for the previous year, and those appearing on said list who are such delinquent poll tax payers shall be subject to road duty for three days during such year in addition to the five days required by law. All the provisions of law governing persons liable to road duty shall apply to persons subject to such duty hereunder. Any such person summoned to road work may satisfy such summons and be relieved from such duty by paying to the road superintendent three dollars, one-third of which shall go to the free school fund, and the balance to the road and bridge fund. [Id.]

Art. 6759. [6974] [4784] Definitions.—As used in this subdivision, “road” includes roadbed, ditches, drains, bridges, culverts, and every part of such road, and “work” and “working” includes the opening and laying out of new roads, widening, constructing, draining, repairing, and everything else that may be done in and about any road. [Id.]

Art. 6760. [6975] [4785] Law cumulative.—This law shall be cumulative of all other general laws on the subject of roads and bridges not in conflict herewith, and where not otherwise provided herein such general laws shall apply; but in case of conflict with other general laws the provisions of this chapter shall govern. [Id.]

Art. 6761. [6976] Counties exempt.—The counties of Angelina, Aransas, Blanco, Bowie, Calhoun, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Comal, Dallas, Delta, DeWitt, Fayette, Franklin, Galveston, Gillespie, Grayson, Gregg, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Hill, Hopkins, Houston, Jack, Jackson, Jasper, Lamar, Lavaca, Limestone, McLennan, Milam, Montgomery, Morris, Nacogdoches, Newton, Panola, Parker, Rains, Red River, Refugio, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Tarrant, Titus, Travis, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Victoria, Washington, and Wood are exempted from the provisions of this subdivision; provided that the commissioners court of Dallas and Collin counties may accept and adopt the provisions of this law in lieu of the special acts for Dallas, Collin, Grayson and other counties, if in their judgment, its provisions are better suited to Dallas and Collin counties than the said special laws. [Acts 1911, p. 234.]

Art. 6762. [6977] Ex-officio commissioners.—In all counties of this State, as shown by the preceding Federal census to contain as many as forty thousand inhabitants, the members of the commissioners court shall be ex-officio road commissioners of their respective precincts; and under the direction of the commissioners court shall have charge of the teams, tools and machinery belonging to the county and placed in their hands by said court. They shall superintend the laying out of new roads, the making or changing of roads and the building of bridges under rules adopted by said court. Each commissioner shall first execute a bond of one thousand dollars payable to and to be approved by the county judge for the use and benefit of the road and bridge fund, conditioned that he will perform all the duties required of him by law, or by the commissioners court, and that he will account for all money or other property belonging to the county that may come into his possession. [Acts 1901, p. 277.]

Art. 6763. [6978] Powers.—The commissioners court shall adopt such system for working, laying out, draining and repairing the public roads as they deem best, and from time to time, said court may change their plan or system of working. Said court may purchase such teams, tools and machinery as may be necessary for the working of public roads; and construct, grade, or otherwise improve any road or bridge by contract in the manner provided in the preceding subdivision of this chapter. Said court may employ any hands and teams on the public roads under such regulations and for such prices as they may deem best. [Id.]

Art. 6764. [6979] County convicts.—The commissioners court may provide the necessary houses, prisons, clothing, bedding, food, medicine, medical attention and superintendents and guards for the safe and humane keeping of county convicts. Said court may provide such reasonable regulations and punishment as may be necessary to require such convicts to perform good work, and may provide a reward not to exceed ten dollars, to be paid out of the road and bridge fund, for the recapture and delivery of any escaped convict to be paid to any person other than the guard or person in charge of such convict at the time of his escape. [Id.]

Art. 6765. [6980] Overseers.—Each commissioner shall have control of all road overseers in his precinct, and shall deliver to each of them such teams, tools and machinery necessary in working the roads therein as have been supplied to him by the commissioners court, taking a receipt therefor, specifying each item and giving its value, which receipt shall be a full answer for the liability of the road commissioner, and shall fix the liability of the road overseer. The commissioner or overseer who shall have been intrusted with any teams, tools or machinery belonging to the county, shall be liable for all damages that may occur to the same while in his possession caused by his negligence or want of due care of same. When the overseer has finished work on his road, he shall return to said road commissioner all teams, tools and machinery received from him and take up the receipt given therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6766. [6981] To direct work.—Each county commissioner, when acting as road commissioner, shall inform himself of the condition of the public roads in his precinct, and shall determine what character of work shall be done on said roads, and shall direct the manner of grading, draining or otherwise improving the same, which directions shall be followed and obeyed by all road overseers of his precinct. [Id.]

Art. 6767. [6982] Road hands.—The road commissioner may require each road overseer in his precinct to call out the hands in such numbers as may be sufficient to perform the work. All road hands in a particular road precinct shall as far as practicable be worked a uniform time. Each road overseer shall have full control of all road hands in his precinct. The overseer may, when he deems it expedient or when directed to do so by the road commissioner, and at the time of notifying any hand to work upon the road, also summon such hand as may be the owner of a team suitable for road work, to bring such team with him to be used in working upon the public roads during such time as the hand may be notified to work upon the public roads. Any hand for so doing shall be credited with and allowed two and one-half days upon his time for which he is liable for road duty for each day he may work in connection with and while furnishing such team, and one and one-half days for his team without such hand. [Id.]

Art. 6768. [6983] Road duty: exemptions.—A person liable for road duty who shall, on or before the first day of February of any year, pay the county treasurer the sum of three dollars, shall be exempt from road duty for such year beginning on the first day of February. The county treasurer shall receive and receipt for all money so paid him and place the same to the credit of the road and bridge fund, and he shall keep a separate account for each precinct from which it was received.

The county treasurer shall, on the third day of February, or as soon thereafter as practicable, furnish to each road commissioner a list of all persons in their respective precincts that have paid said sums. [Id.]

Art. 6769. [6988] Law cumulative.—The provisions of this subdivision shall be cumulative of all general laws on the subject of roads, when not in conflict therewith, but in case of such conflict this law shall control. This law shall not be in operation in any county unless the commissioners court thereof in their judgment may deem it advisable, and then only by an order of said court when all the members are present, made at some regular term thereof, accepting the provisions hereof. Such order shall be entered on the minutes of said court, and shall not be void for want of form, but a substantial compliance of the provisions hereof shall be sufficient. [Id.]

Art. 6770. [6989] Certain counties excepted.—The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the counties of Fannin, Lamar, Grayson, Collin, Hunt, Dallas, and Bell. [Id.]

Art. 6771. [6990] Powers.—For the purpose of this subdivision, all public roads and highways that have been or may be laid out and established agreeably to law, and all roads and highways that have been opened to and used by the public for a period of ten years prior to March 25, 1897, and which have not been discontinued or closed to the use of the public agreeably to law, are hereby declared to be public roads.

The commissioners court at any regular session thereof may cause to be constructed and maintained, as hereinafter provided, ditches, drains and water courses, hereinafter called ditches, on and within the exterior lines of all public roads situated within the county sufficient in capacity to carry off and into the natural waterways of the county, all surface water reasonably adjacent and liable to collect in said ditch from natural causes, or by means of the construction of private lateral ditches as hereinafter provided for, and shall also have power to construct, in connection with such ditch any side, lateral, spur or branch ditch or watercourse necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of this law. No ditch shall be constructed along any public road unless at the same time an outlet is constructed to a natural waterway, sufficient in capacity to carry off all water that may collect therein. [Acts 1897, p. 66; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1120.]

Art. 6772. [6991] Culverts.—No road overseer, or any court, shall, on petition or otherwise, have the power to change the natural course of any branch, creek or stream, but such volume of water shall always enter and cross said road at its natural crossing; and overseers shall always, in draining their roads, provide a culvert sufficiently broad and tall to permit said stream to flow at high tide, from its intersection with said road, across its natural outflow at the opposite natural channel. [Id.]

Art. 6773. [6992] Petition.—A petition shall first be filed with the county clerk, signed by at least one hundred tax payers and voters of said county, setting forth the necessity and availability for such drainage system, and the number of miles of public roads within such county, as accurately as the same may be known, and as near as practicable the width and depth required for the ditches to be constructed along the first class roads of the county. Said petition shall also separately state the name and location of each natural waterway of such county crossed by each of the first class public roads of said county, and the distance of said natural waterways one from the other along said road. Said petition shall also state the names and residences, if known, of the owners of the lands adjacent to each of said first class public roads, and within one mile thereof, and, if unknown, shall so state. [Id.]

Art. 6774. [6993] Notice of hearing.—Upon the filing of said petition, the clerk shall issue five notices in writing, containing a brief statement of the contents of said petition, commanding all persons interested to appear at the next regular term of the commissioners court and contest the same. One of said notices shall be posted at the courthouse door of such county, and one each at four other public places in such county, no two of which shall be in the same town or city, for twenty days prior to the first day of the next regular term of the commissioners court after the issuance thereof. Said notices shall be posted by the sheriff of the county, who shall make due returns to the clerk of said court of such notices, on or before the said first day of the term; and for such services the sheriff shall receive three dollars, and the clerk one dollar and fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 6775. [6994-7000] Hearing.—At the time specified, said court shall hear and determine the petition in connection with all protests, remonstrances or objections thereto; and, if they find that the adoption of the drainage system provided for herein is necessary, advisable or for the public benefit, or for the best interest of the county, the court shall so order, and the order shall be entered at length upon the minutes of the court and become a part of the record thereof, and the same shall recite the time, character and manner of service of notice. If it appears therefrom that notice has been given as provided for herein, the said order shall be final. If said court refuses to adopt said drainage system, no other application therefor shall be heard for one year thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 6776. [6995] Survey.—At the same or any succeeding term of said court after the entry of such order, said court shall employ a competent surveyor, who shall be an engineer, to run a line of levels along the public roads of the county, and to measure the same from the beginning to the terminus of said road, and to measure the distance of each waterway crossed by said roads from the beginning point. Said survey and the drainage system shall be first applied to the first class roads of such county, and thereafter to roads of the second and third class. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit said court from constructing one or more ditches at the same time, as the financial condition of the county will permit. [Id.]

Art. 6777. [6996] Survey: report.—The surveyor shall, as soon as practicable after his employment, proceed to make such survey and system of levels, and shall cause stakes or monuments to be placed along said line at intervals of one hundred feet, with such intermediate stakes as may be necessary, numbered progressively, and shall establish permanent bench marks along said lines at intervals of one mile or less, as may be necessary, and shall establish by stake or monument of a different character and appearance from all other stakes or monuments, the highest point upon said road between each of the natural waterways crossed by the road; and said surveyor shall also measure and establish by suitable marks, the frontage of each tract of land abutting on said road; and if there be a natural waterway adjacent to the line of said road and ditch and the same is necessary to be utilized as an outlet for the water at any point on said ditch, the surveyor shall measure the distance to same, and run the line of levels thereto, at the nearest practicable point on said road and ditch. He shall prepare a map showing the location of said ditch or ditches, together with the position of stakes or monuments with numbers corresponding with those on the ground, and the position of bench marks, with their elevations referred to an assumed or previously determined datum. Said map shall also show the lines and boundaries of adjacent land, and the courses and distances of any adjacent watercourse, together with a profile of the line of the ditch which shall show the assumed datum and the grade line of the bottom of the same, and the elevation of each stake, monument, or other important feature along the line, such as top of banks, and bottom of all ditches or watercourses, and surface of water, top of rail and bottom of tie, foot of embankment, and bottom of borrow pits of all railroads. Said map, or the explanation accompanying same, shall in tabular form give the depth of cut, width at bottom and width at top, at the source, outlet, and at each one hundred feet stake or monument to said ditch; and shall show the total number of cubic yards of earth to be excavated and removed from said ditch between each natural waterway into which the water is to be conveyed, and an estimate of the cost of each portion of the said ditch or ditches lying between natural waterways crossed by said road, together with an estimate of total cost of the whole work. He shall also prepare detailed specifications for the execution of such project. Whenever in his opinion it may be advantageous to run said ditch underground through drainage tiles, he shall so state in said report, map and specifications, together with the statement of the locality of said underground ditch, and length thereof, and the dimensions or character of tiling or other material required therefor. As soon as completed, he shall file said survey, report, map, explanation and estimate with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 6778. [6997] Jury of view.—At any regular or called session of the commissioners court after the filing of said report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate, the court shall appoint a jury of five freeholders of the county who shall meet at a time and place to be specified by the said court in the order appointing them. The county clerk shall thereupon issue to said viewers a certified copy of the petition and order of the court, together with the original report, map, explanation, specifications and estimate of the surveyor; and, if said jury of viewers shall fail or refuse from any cause to perform the duties required under such appointment, or if their report, from any cause, should not be adopted, the court may at any succeeding term appoint another jury of viewers, whose appointment and duties shall be the same as required in the first instance. Said jury shall proceed at the time and place so specified, after giving notice to each abutting land owner, and owner of land within one mile of said ditch, as hereinafter provided, and after viewing the line of the proposed ditch and after hearing all protests, claims and remonstrances offered, they shall take the several partial estimates, and the surveyor's estimate of the total cost of the work as a basis, and shall have lines run parallel to the lines of said ditch at a distance of one mile on either side thereof, and shall set apart and apportion to each parcel of land abutting on said road and ditch, or within said parallel lines, and to each person, firm or corporation owning the same, its proportionate share of the one-half of the total cost of said ditch, taking into consideration the relative amount of benefit derived by said land from the construction thereof. They shall assess the amount of damages or compensation due to each land owner through whose land any spur, branch or lateral ditch, is or may be constructed under the order of appointment. Before such ditch is opened said sum shall be paid on the order of the commissioners court out of the county treasury from the fund set aside for the construction of said ditch. Said jury shall make a sworn report to the commissioners court as soon as practicable after their meeting, signed by at least three of said jury, and shall return with their report an accurate and full description of each tract of land assessed by them, with the number of acres and the name of the owners thereof, and the amount assessed against each tract and the owner thereof. The jury shall also return with their report the map, profile, explanation and estimates of the surveyor, together with a copy of the specifications; and the same shall be filed with the clerk, and shall become a public record and be preserved as such. The court shall act upon said report at the next regular or called term, and approve or reject the same; provided, that the court may appoint separate juries of view for each road and ditch to be constructed, if deemed desirable or advantageous to the public. [Id.]

Art. 6779. [6998] Oath of viewers.—Said jury shall first take the following oath: “I do solemnly swear that I am not directly interested in the construction of the proposed ditch, either as the owner or otherwise, of adjacent land lying within one mile thereof, and that I am not of kin to any person who is so interested. I further swear that I have no bias or prejudice toward any person directly interested in said ditch, and that I will assess the amount of expense due on and by all adjacent lands lying within one mile of said ditch, according to law, without fear, favor, hatred or hope of reward, to the best of my knowledge and ability. So help me God.” [Id.]

Art. 6780. [6999] Notice of assessments.—The said jury shall issue a written notice to the land owner of each abutting tract along said ditch, and to each land owner, any part of whose land lies within one mile of the line of said ditch, or to his agent or attorney, of the time and place when they will assess the one-half of the expense incidental to the construction of the ditch or ditches specified in the order of appointment; which notice shall be served at least five days before the day named therein, by any person competent to testify; and a duplicate of said notice, together with the returns of said service, shall be returned and filed with the report of the jury of viewers. If such owner is a non-resident of the county, and has no resident, agent or attorney therein, the notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the county, as notices are required to be given to non-resident defendants in actions in the district courts; and said notices shall be complete after four weeks publication thereof prior to the date named for the meeting of the jury of view, and at any time thereafter the jury of viewers may proceed to assess the proportionate part of such expense against said non-resident land owner, and the land owned by him subject thereto. The cost of such publication shall be paid by the county, on an order of the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 6781. [7001] Claims.—Any person whose land may be affected by such ditch may appear before said viewers and freely express his opinion on all matters pertaining to the assessment of expense against him. The owner of any such lands may at the time stated in such notice, or previously thereto, present to the jury a written statement of any objections to, or dissatisfaction therewith, and any claim for damages which he may have sustained by reason of making said ditch or drain; and a failure to so make such objection or claim for damages or compensation shall be deemed a waiver of all claim or right thereto. All such claims or objections shall be returned to the commissioners court in connection with the report of the viewers. Any adjacent land owner may appear before and be heard by the commissioners court on his protest or remonstrance or claim against the action of said jury. [Id.]

Art. 6782. [7002] Appeals.—Any person, firm or corporation, aggrieved by any such assessments, may appeal from the final order of the commissioners court approving the report of said jury to any proper court within the county by giving notice of appeal in open court and having the same entered as a part of the judgment of the court, and by filing within ten days thereafter, a transcript of the proceeding had in the commissioners court, with the justice or clerk of the court to which appeal is taken, together with an appeal bond, with at least two good sureties, to be approved by such clerk or justice, in double the amount of the probable costs to accrue, conditioned that the appellant will prosecute his appeal to effect, and pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in said court. Appeals from an assessment of expense shall be heard upon this issue: whether the assessments made against the appellant for the construction of such ditch are in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom. Appeals from an assessment of compensation shall be heard upon this issue: whether the assessment of compensation made by the jury is adequate to the injury occasioned and to the value of the land. [Id.]

Art. 6783. [7003] Trial on appeal.—In the trial of all such appealed cases the burden of proof shall rest upon the appellant; and the court or jury trying the cause shall state the correct amount of expense chargeable to appellant, or the correct amount of compensation due to appellant as found by them, and the same shall be entered as the judgment of the court thereon, and from such judgment no further appeal shall be allowed to either party. If the verdict of the jury shall find the appellant chargeable with a less amount of expense, or that the appellant is entitled to a greater amount of compensation as damages, than was found by the jury of viewers, the costs shall be adjudged against the county; otherwise the same shall be adjudged against the appellant. Within five days after the entry of such judgment, the clerk or justice shall issue and return to the commissioners court a certified copy of such judgment, to be filed with the papers pertaining to such ditch, and the same shall be entered by the commissioners court as the judgment of said court, and thereafter the appellant shall be held for, or claim, the amount specified in said judgment. [Id.]

Art. 6784. [7004] Appropriation: construction.—The commissioners court of such county may, at the next term thereof, after the filing of the report of the jury of viewers and the entry of the order approving the same, if the report be approved, make an order setting aside such portion of the road and bridge fund, and such portion of the special road and bridge fund as may be necessary for the construction of the ditch described in the report of the jury of viewers, and shall also enter an order to the overseers of the road adjoining said ditch or to the supervisors of the road, or to the road commissioner, commanding him to construct such ditch in accordance with the specifications of the surveyor, which shall be turned over to him for his information, and that the earth taken therefrom shall be used in making a raised road adjoining said ditch. The court shall further order that all the road hands apportioned to said road, and that any teams, tools or materials, belonging to the county, and necessary to the execution of such work, be apportioned to said overseer, supervisor or commissioner, for the completion thereof; and shall authorize such overseer, supervisor or commissioner to employ such additional labor and teams, and to purchase tools and implements as may be necessary, to be paid for out of the road and bridge fund set aside therefor, on the order of the commissioners court, and said order shall also show the amount of compensation to be allowed to said overseer, supervisor, or road commissioner for his services. [Id.]

Art. 6785. [7005] Special overseer.—The commissioners court may employ some suitable and competent person, other than the overseer, road commissioner or supervisor, if to the best interest of the county, and such person shall have the same powers, duties and responsibilities as provided for overseers, road commissioners, and supervisors in the preceding article, and the court shall enter an order showing the amount of compensation to be paid him for his services. [Id.]

Art. 6786. [7006] List of assessments.—At the same or at any succeeding term after the entry of such order for the construction of the ditches and roadway, the commissioners court shall make and enter upon the minutes of the court a list showing the names of the owners, amounts due, the tract of land, original grantees, number of acres covered by each assessment of expense, as made and reported by the jury of viewers and approved by the court; and the county clerk shall issue a certificate against each person on said list showing the amount of each assessment and for what ditch or road the same was issued, and the tract of land on which said amount was assessed. Such certificate shall be signed by the county judge in open court, and attested under the hand and seal of the county clerk, which fact shall be noted upon the minutes of said court. [Id.]

Art. 6787. [7007-8-9] Assessments: collection.—All assessments, sums, and charges by said viewers, or order of court, assessed against any land and the owner thereof, shall be a lien thereon, unless prohibited by the Constitution of this State. The county judge shall deliver the certificate to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, which shall be filed with the papers and archives concerning such ditch; and the county treasurer shall collect the sums due on such certificates, and deposit the amount so collected to the credit of the road and bridge fund. If any person against whom any such certificate may be issued fails or refuses to pay the same to the county treasurer on demand therefor, such treasurer shall turn same over to the county attorney, who shall at once file suit thereon, and have the lien on said land foreclosed, or for a personal judgment as may be lawful. [Id.]

Art. 6788. [7010] Compensation.—The jury of viewers shall each receive three dollars per day for their services for each day so actually engaged; and said surveyor shall receive such sum as the commissioners court may allow. [Id.]

Art. 6789. [7011] Private ditch.—Any owner of lands or tracts of land abutting on said road or ditch, or the owner of any tract of land lying wholly or partially within one mile of such road or ditch, may construct at his own cost lateral drainage ditches and connect the same with such main ditch or ditches as shall be constructed under the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR.

SPECIAL ROAD TAX.

|----------------------------|---------|--------------------------|---------|
| | Article | | Article |
| Election | 6790 | Result of election | 6792 |
| Election, conduct of | 6791 | No bonds to issue..... | 6793 |

Art. 6790. [7042] Election.—The commissioners court shall order an election upon presentation to it at any regular session of a petition signed by two hundred qualified voters and property tax payers of the county, or a petition of fifty persons so qualified in any political subdivision or defined district of the county, requesting said court to order an election to determine whether said court shall levy upon the property within said territory a road tax not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, under the provisions of the amendment of 1889 to the Constitution of the State of Texas, adopted in 1890. Said court may act on such petition without notice, and may make an order for such election, fixing the amount to be levied, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, the election to take place at any time thereafter, not less than twenty nor more than ninety days from the date of making the order therefor. Upon a petition signed by a majority of the qualified tax paying voters of any portion of any county or of any political subdivision of any county, to said court requesting that such portion of said county or political subdivision shall be created as a defined district, the said court shall declare such territory a defined district and spread the order for same upon the minutes of said court; provided the petition aforesaid shall define by metes and bounds the territory desired to be so incorporated in such defined district. [Acts 1891, p. 51; G. L., Vol. 10, p. 53; Acts 1913, p. 30.]

Art. 6791. [7043-4] Election, conduct of.—No formal notice need be given of such election, but the county judge shall issue his election proclamation; and the fact that such election is to be held shall be published in the newspapers of the county or political subdivision or defined district as fully as practicable. Tickets for the election shall be printed by the county and sent to each voting precinct by the county judge before the election opens, and as long before such time as practicable. The tickets printed and to be voted shall have written or printed on them the words: "For the Tax" and "Against the Tax," and those who favor the tax shall vote the ticket "For the Tax," and those who oppose the tax shall vote the ticket "Against the Tax." The expenses of the election shall be paid for by the county. An election ordered within ninety days of a general election shall be held on the day of the general election, and as elections on other questions are held, but otherwise the commissioners court shall order a special election which shall be conducted as other elections. The officers to conduct the same shall be appointed as in other cases. Only qualified voters who pay a property tax in the county or political subdivision or defined district shall be permitted to vote at such election.

Art. 6792. [7045] Result of election.—If at any such election a majority of the qualified voters voting thereat shall vote for such tax, it shall not be necessary to make further proclamation of that fact than to count the votes, as in other cases, and officially announce the result, and the commissioners court shall thereby be authorized and required to levy a road tax in the same manner that other taxes are levied in the amount specified in said order for such election, never to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property. Such levy shall be made at the same time other county taxes are levied, if such election is held in time therefor, but otherwise it may be made at any time before the rolls are made out. If at the election, the proposition for said tax shall carry, no petition for its repeal shall be granted in less than two years. But if it fail to carry, another petition may be granted in one year, but not sooner; and the order granting the second or any subsequent petition may fix a greater or less rate of levy, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, and if no greater rate is levied for any one year the commissioners court may lower the rate for the next year without a petition therefor. An election to repeal the levy may be ordered and held as in other cases, but there must be satisfactory proof presented to said commissioners court that there is great dissatisfaction with such tax and that it is probable that a majority of the citizens of the county or political subdivision or defined district who are authorized to vote for said tax would vote for the repeal of the law, and unless such proof be made the petition to repeal shall be denied. [Id.]

Art. 6793. [7046] No bonds to issue.—No bonds shall ever be issued under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

| Commissioners court: powers..... | Article 6794 | Boundary bridge | Article 6796 |
| Toll bridges | 6795 | Tolls assessed to pay bonds..... | 6797 |

Art. 6794. [7014] [4792] Commissioners court: powers.—The commissioners court shall have full power and authority to cause all necessary bridges to be built and kept in repair in their respective counties, and to make necessary appropriations of money of the counties therefor. [Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 888.]

Art. 6795. [7015-16] Toll bridges.—When it is inexpedient for the road force to build bridges over large creeks or water courses, the commissioners court may contract with a proper person to build a toll bridge, for which the court shall lay the toll to be levied on all persons, cattle, horses, vehicles, etc., passing over the same, to be granted to the contractor for such a number of years as said court may think proper, not to exceed ten years; and the builder and his successors shall keep the bridge in constant repair during the term of the contract, and in default thereof shall forfeit all right and claim to the toll of such bridges. Before granting a license to any person to build a toll bridge, the commissioners court shall take bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that the contractor shall build and keep in constant repair the bridges so contemplated for the term of years agreed upon. If any person shall sustain damages in consequence of the owner or keeper of any toll bridge not having complied with the conditions of his bond, the person so damaged may bring an action of debt against the owner or keeper of such toll bridge on his or their bond, in the county in which such license was granted, and recover judgment for the damages so sustained. [Acts 1836, p. 162; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1222.]

Art. 6796. [7017] [4795] Boundary bridge.—Whenever any stream constitutes either in whole or in part the boundary line between two or more counties, or when two or more counties are jointly interested in the construction of a bridge, whether over a stream or elsewhere, it shall be lawful for the counties so divided or interested to jointly erect bridges over such stream or over any other stream, upon such equitable terms as the commissioners court of each county interested may agree upon. [Acts 1871, p. 42; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 44; P. D. 5883; Acts 1923, p. 273.]

Art. 6797. [7018] [4796] Tolls assessed to pay bonds.—Whenever any county bonds are issued to build bridges, the commissioners court may assess and collect tolls on said bridges sufficient to pay the interest on bonds so issued; and, if thought proper, sufficient to pay the interest and create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity, all of which shall be done under such rules as said court may prescribe. [Acts 1871, p. 42; P. D. 5884; G. L. Vol. 7, p. 44.]

2. FERRIES.

| Excessive rates | 6804 | Unlicensed ferry | 6812 |
| Duties of ferryman | 6805 | | |

Art. 6798. [7021] [4797] Right to maintain.—Every person owning the land fronting upon any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, shall be entitled to the privilege of keeping a public ferry over or across the same. If he owns the lands on both sides or banks he shall be entitled to the sole and exclusive right of ferriage at such place; if he owns the lands on one side only, he shall have the privilege of a public ferry from his own shore, with the privilege of landing his boat and passengers on the opposite shore, with the consent of the owner of the land on said shore. If such consent cannot be obtained, he may apply to the commissioners court for the establishment of a public road from said opposite shore; and said court shall act on such applications as in other cases. Acts 1850, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 505; P. D. 3841.]

Art. 6799. [7022-24-29-39] License.—No person shall keep any such ferry for hire without first procuring a license from the commissioners court of the county in which such ferry is situated. If the applicant for such license shows that he is the lawful owner of such land as the ferry is sought to be established on, and satisfies the court that the public convenience will be promoted thereby, such court shall grant such license for one year from the date thereof, when the applicant makes bond and produces his receipt from the county treasurer for the payment of the annual license tax, which said court is authorized to assess and collect from each such ferryman, not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum. Such license shall be renewed annually. [Id.]

Art. 6800. [7028-37] Bond.—The owner of each ferry shall annually enter into bond payable to and to be approved by the county judge, in such sum as the commissioners court shall direct, not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned that such owner will at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and will also keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank, and that said ferry shall be well attended at all times, and that he will comply with the laws relating to or governing ferries. Any person injured by breach of such bond may sue thereon in his own name. Such bond may be sued on until the whole penalty is recovered. [Acts 1850, p. 67; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 506; P. D. 3846, 3847.]

Art. 6801. [7025-6-30] Rates of ferriage.—When a commissioners court shall establish a ferry, they shall state in their record the rate of toll or ferriage which may be demanded for ferrying such property as is usually transported by ferries; and may, at their first term in each year, and shall at any other term, upon the petition of twenty respectable citizens of the county, revise, and, if deemed expedient, change the rates of toll or ferriage at all ferries in their county. The county clerk shall record all rates of ferriage and changes therein and deliver copies thereof, under his hand and official seal, to the owners of ferries affected. No change of rate shall take effect until the expiration of thirty days from the day on which said change may be made. [Acts 1854, p. 5, G. L. Vol. 3, p. 1449.]

Art. 6802. [7041] [4817] Swimming cattle.—The commissioners court shall not authorize a charge of more than one cent per head on cattle or horses swimming rivers at licensed ferries, including the use of pens and boats necessary for the control of such stock. [Acts 1862, p. 31; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 475.]

Art. 6803. [7031] [4807] To post rates.—Every owner of a ferry license shall keep a list of the rates of toll or ferriage established for his ferry posted up at either the ferry or ferry house, for the inspection of all persons. If any such owner shall fail or neglect to do so, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of four dollars for every such neglect, which may be recovered before any justice of the peace of the county on the complaint of any person, one-half of said amount to go to the county and the other half to the prosecutor. Every week that he shall so fail or neglect shall be deemed a separate offense for which he shall be liable as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 6804. [7034] [4810] Excessive rates.—If any licensed ferryman shall charge and receive from any person a higher rate of toll or ferriage than has been established for his ferry by the commissioners court, he shall forfeit and pay to such person five dollars for every such offense, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is established, with costs of suit. [Id.]

Art. 6805. [7033] [4809] Duties of ferryman.—Every licensed ferryman shall at all times keep good and sufficient boats for the use of such ferry, and shall keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair, and so graded and leveled that the rise shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank; and shall give ready and due attendance on all passengers, horses, wagons, and other property. [Id.]

Art. 6806. [7032] [4808] Delays.—If any person licensed to keep a ferry shall, on being tendered his lawful fees, refuse or neglect without a reasonable cause, to cross any person or property usually transported by such ferry, he shall, for every delay of thirty minutes, forfeit and pay to the person injured the sum of two dollars, to be recovered by action before any justice of the peace of the county in which the ferry is situated, with costs of suit. [Id.]

Art. 6807. [7027] [4803] Refusal to operate.—Where any owner of a ferry shall refuse to keep up the same at the rates allowed by the commissioners court, said court may issue a license to any one who will do so. In such case the party receiving such license shall be bound to take the ferry boat in use at said ferry, if desired by the owner, at such valuation as two respectable citizens of the vicinity, one to be chosen by each party, shall place upon it. [Id.]

Art. 6808. [7036] [4812] Recovery from sureties.—In all cases where a recovery shall be had against the ferryman for violation of this law, if after judgment, execution shall be returned that no estate of such ferryman can be found whereon to levy and make the money demanded in such execution, the justice to whom such execution is so returned shall cite the sureties of such ferryman to appear and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for the amount of the execution that is not satisfied, and unless such cause is shown, judgment shall be entered and execution issue therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6809. [7038] [4814] Temporary license.—One wishing to establish a public ferry between the regular terms of the commissioners court may obtain a temporary license for such ferry from the county judge, which shall authorize him to keep such ferry until the next regular term of the commissioners court for the county, and to charge and receive for such time such rates of toll or ferriage as are charged at other ferries on the same water course, stream, lake or bay. [Id.]

Art. 6810. [7040] [4816] County boundary stream.—If the banks of any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay lie in different counties, the application for a license to operate a ferry between such banks shall be made to the commissioners court of the county wherein the applicant resides or has his ferry house, and upon the granting of such license by the said court, the person so licensed shall have the right to own and operate a ferry upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as are provided by this subdivision for the owners or keepers of ferries operated exclusively in one county, and no county tax shall be assessed and collected upon a ferry by any other commissioners court than the one granting the license therefor. [Id.]

Art. 6811. [7023] [4799] State boundary stream.—When a water course, navigable stream, lake or bay forms a part of the boundary line of this State, if any tax or charge shall be assessed or collected by any such adjoining State for the privilege of a ferry landing on the shore or bank of such State from this State, then the same tax or charge may be assessed and collected by the commissioners court for the like privilege of landing on the bank or shore of this State. [Id.]

Art. 6812. [7035] [4811] Unlicensed ferry.—If any person shall keep any ferry over any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay, for which he shall charge any person any money or other valuable thing, without complying with the provisions of this subdivision in relation to paying the tax, obtaining license and entering into bond, he shall forfeit and pay to every other person having a licensed ferry on the same water course, stream, lake or bay in the same county five dollars for every person so ferried, and the same sum for every wagon or other article so transported which may be subject to a separate charge, to be sued for and recovered before any justice of the peace of the county, with costs of suit; and shall forfeit and pay a like sum in like manner to the county, which may be sued for and recovered in like manner by the county treasurer. [Id.]

[Acts 1919, p. 164.]

Art. 6815. Eleemosynary institutions.—The superintendents of the Blind Institute, the Deaf and Dumb Institute, the Epileptic Colony, State Lunatic Asylum, Southwestern Insane Asylum, North Texas Hospital for the Insane, Northwest Texas Insane Asylum, Hospital for Negro Insane, Colony for the Feeble Minded, State Juvenile Training School, State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, and the Head Physician of the State Pasteur Institute shall each receive an annual salary of $2,500.00; the superintendents of the Confederate Home, the Confederate Woman's Home, Girls Training School, and the State Orphans' Home shall each receive an annual salary of $2,000.00; the superintendent of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute for Colored Youths shall receive an annual salary of $1,800.00; and each of said superintendents or physicians shall receive provisions not exceeding in value $500.00 per year, and fuel, lights, water, laundry and housing for himself and immediate family. The secretary to the Superintendent of the Confederate Home shall receive an annual salary of $720.00. The store-keepers and accountants of the various eleemosynary institutions shall receive an annual salary to be fixed in the general appropriation bills from year to year, not to exceed $1,200.00. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 241; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 61.]

Art. 6816. Perquisites.—The Governor shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture. The Attorney General shall receive such fees as may be prescribed by law, not to exceed $2,000.00 annually. The Commissioner of Insurance shall receive an annual salary of $500.00 for his services to the State Insurance Commission. Said Commissioner shall receive $50.00 per annum for services as a member of the State Insurance Commission for services as to workmen's compensation insurance, and each of the other members of said Commission shall receive $100.00 per annum for such services.

Art. 6817. [7055] Lieutenant Governor.—The Lieutenant Governor shall, while he acts as president of the Senate, receive for his services the same compensation and mileage allowed to members of the Senate, and no more; and when acting as Governor, the same compensation which the Governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office, and no more. [Const. Art. 4, Sec. 17; Acts 1907, p. 10.]

Art. 6818. [7056] Legislators.—Members of the Legislature shall receive as compensation for their services and attendance upon any session of the Legislature, five dollars per day for the first sixty days of each session, and after that, the sum of two dollars per day for the remainder of the session. They shall receive as mileage for attendance upon any regular or called session of the Legislature five dollars of every twenty-five miles in going to and returning from Austin, to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel by land, regardless of railways or water routes. The Comptroller shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat, by which such mileage shall be computed and paid, the calculation to be based in each instance upon the distance to the county seat of the county in which such member resides. No member shall be entitled to mileage for any extra session of the Legislature that may be called within one day after the adjournment of any regular or called session. [Const. Art. 3, Sec. 24; Acts 1907, p. 10.]

Art. 6819. Courts.—The Judges of the Supreme Court, Commission of Appeals, and the Court of Criminal Appeals shall each be paid an annual salary of $6,500.00. The judges of the several Courts of Civil Appeals shall each be paid an annual salary of $5,000.00. The Judges of the District Courts shall each be paid an annual salary of $4,000.00. The clerks of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall each receive an annual salary of $3,000.00, and may employ a deputy at an annual salary of $1,500.00. Each stenographer to each Court of Civil Appeals shall receive $1,500.00 per annum. The reporter of the Supreme Court and the reporter and the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals shall each receive an annual salary of $3,000.00.

Art. 6820. Judicial district expenses.—All district judges and district attorneys when engaged in the discharge of their official duties in any county in this State other than the county of their residence, shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of such duties, not to exceed four dollars per day for hotel bills, and not to exceed four cents a mile when traveling by railroad, and not to exceed twenty cents a mile when traveling by private conveyance, in going to and returning from the place where such duties are discharged, traveling by the nearest practical route. Such officers shall also receive the actual and necessary postage, telegraph and telephone expenses incurred by them in the actual discharge of their duties. Such expenses shall be paid by the State upon the sworn and itemized account of each district judge or attorney entitled thereto, showing such expenses. In districts containing more than one county, such expenses shall never exceed in any one year $100.00 for each county in the district; provided that no district judge or attorney shall receive more than $600.00 in any one year under the provisions of this article. The account for said services shall be recorded in the official minutes of the district court of the county in which such judge or attorney resides, respectively. [Acts 1923, p. 50.]

Art. 6821. [7061-65] Special judges.—The salaries of special judges commissioned by the Governor in obedience to Section 11, Article 5, of the Constitution, or elected by the practicing lawyers or agreed upon by the parties as provided by law, shall be determined and paid as follows:

1. Each special judge shall receive the same pay as district judges for every day that he may be occupied in performing the duties of judge, and those commissioned by the Governor shall also receive the same pay as district judges for every day they may be necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the place where they may be required to hold court.

2. The amount of such salary shall be ascertained by dividing the salary allowed a district judge by three hundred and sixty-five, and then multiplying the quotient by the number of days actually served by the special judge.

3. A judge so commissioned shall, in order to obtain his salary, present his sworn account to the Comptroller, showing the number of days necessarily occupied in going to and returning from such place, accompanied by evidence that he was duly commissioned. Such account shall be certified to be correct by the judge of the district, or by the clerk of the court in which the services were performed.

4. A judge so elected or agreed upon shall be paid for his services on presentation to the Comptroller of the certificate of the clerk of the court in which such services were performed, showing the record of such election or appointment and services, and accompanied by the sworn account of such judge showing the number of days actually served by him as such special judge. [Acts 1876, p. 140.]

Art. 6822. Salaries of employes.—Any deputy, assistant clerk or any employe authorized by the laws of this State to be appointed by the head of any department of the State Government, shall, when his salary is not fixed or provided for by law, receive such salary as the Legislature shall from time to time appropriate.

Art. 6823. Traveling expenses.—The traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the various officers, assistants, deputies, clerks and other employes in the various departments of the State Government, in the active discharge of their duties shall be such as are specifically fixed and appropriated by the Legislature in the general appropriation bills providing for the expenses of the State Government from year to year. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 241.]

Art. 6824. [7086] [4853] Change in salary.—The salaries of officers shall not be increased nor diminished during the term of office of the officers entitled thereto.

Art. 6825. Salary of women.—All women performing public service for this State shall be paid the same compensation for their service as is paid to men performing the same kind, grade and quantity of service, and there shall be no distinction in compensation on account of sex. [Acts 1919, p. 145.]

Art. 6826. [7087] [4854] How paid.—Annual salaries provided for in this title shall be paid monthly on warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the Treasurer.

Art. 6827. [7088] [4858] Evidence of qualification.—Upon demand of any citizen of this State, the Comptroller, Treasurer, commissioners courts, county treasurers and all other officers of this State or of any municipal division thereof, who are authorized or required by law to audit, pay or order to be paid, claims due from the State, or any county or municipal division thereof, to any person as salary, fees, compensation, perquisites or emoluments for official services rendered by such person as an officer thereof, before auditing, paying or ordering payment of such claim, shall require such claimant to produce the certificate of his election or appointment to such office directed by the laws of this State to be issued to such officer, or if his claim be founded upon the judgment or decree of a court of this State authorized by law to hear and determine the claims of persons to office, then a copy of the record of such judgment or decree certified under the hand and seal of the legal custodian of such record to be a true copy thereof. [Acts 1881, p. 7; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 99.]

Art. 6828. [7089-90] Unauthorized officers.—It shall be unlawful for any officer or court of this State, or of any municipal division thereof, to allow, audit, pay or order to be paid, the claim of any person for salary, compensation, fees, perquisites, emoluments or services, as an officer of the State or of any municipal division thereof, except to such person as has been duly elected such officer by the qualified voters of this State, and whose election has been ascertained and certified or declared in the manner required by law, or who has been appointed such officer by the lawful appointing power under the Constitution and laws of this State, or who has been adjudged entitled thereto by a State court of competent jurisdiction, and has qualified as such officer in accordance with law. Any person not so elected, appointed and qualified shall not be entitled to receive pay for services as such officer, or to exercise the powers or jurisdiction of such officer. The official acts of any person claiming a right to exercise such power or jurisdiction contrary to the provisions of this law shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 6829. [7091] Other salaries.—The enumeration of various officers and their salaries in this title shall not operate to repeal or affect provisions of law found elsewhere in the statutes, or in any appropriation bill permitting or authorizing the existence, or prescribing the compensation of other officers.

| Election: Board of Inquiry | 6834 | General laws to govern | 6839 |

Art. 6830. [5585] Commissioners' court may construct levees.—The county commissioners' court of all counties, and the municipal authorities of all cities, bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, shall have the power and are authorized from time to time to establish, locate, erect, construct, extend, protect, strengthen, maintain, and keep in repair and otherwise improve any sea wall or breakwater, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to improve, maintain and beautify any boulevard erected in connection with such sea wall or breakwater, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to incur indebtedness therefor, the payment of which may be provided for either with or without the issuance of bonds. And said commissioners' courts and municipal authorities shall also have power and are hereby authorized to levy taxes not to exceed in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars of taxable values of said county or city for the payment of said indebtedness, provided that when the taxes are levied as herein provided for, will not pay off said indebtedness within five years, then the payment of said indebtedness shall be provided for by the issuance of bonds as hereinafter provided.

Art. 6831. [5586] May use streets and alleys.—Said county commissioners' court, and municipal authorities, shall have the power to impose such additional uses and burdens upon all streets, alleys, public highways and other public grounds as they may deem necessary for the location, erection, construction and maintenance of seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to license, regulate or grant such additional uses of said seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways or drainways as will not impair their efficiency.

Art. 6832. [5587] Eminent domain.—Said counties and cities shall have the power to take and appropriate such land and other property as may be deemed necessary for the establishment, location, construction and maintenance of said seawalls, breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways, and to define the area of land needed, and to acquire, take, hold and enjoy the same for the purposes aforesaid, and to that end shall have the right to exercise the right of eminent domain and to condemn lands for the uses and purposes aforesaid, in the manner and under the conditions provided by law in case of railroad corporations; provided, nevertheless, that said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall be empowered to take the fee simple estate to the land condemned or acquired hereunder, whenever deemed necessary for the purposes of this Act; and, provided, further, that before exercising the power of eminent domain hereunder said county commissioners' court, or said municipal authorities, shall, by order, ordinance, or resolution duly entered on the minutes of the county commissioners' court, of the city council, define and describe lands needed, and determine whether an easement or fee simple estate in said land shall be taken. [Acts 1925, p. 270.]

Art. 6833. [5588] Bonds: election.—Before issuing said bonds the commissioners court or governing body shall prescribe the amount to be issued, the rate of interest thereon, and provide for an election to vote for or against the proposed taxation. [Acts 1881, p. 7; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 99; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 3.]

Art. 6834. [5589] Election: Board of Inquiry.—For the purpose of ascertaining whether two-thirds of the tax-payers of said county or city have voted in favor of the proposed taxation, the county judge, the county assessor and the county collector, or three members of their own body selected by the governing body, as the case may be, are hereby constituted and appointed a Board of Inquiry. Whenever an election is ordered hereunder, said Board shall make out from the latest completed assessment rolls of said county, or city, a list of all taxpayers of said county or city, who are qualified voters and taxpayers entitled to vote hereunder; and from the date of the notice of said election until five days before the day thereof, said Board shall sit daily for the purpose of making additions to and corrections of said list. All tax payers who are qualified voters shall, during said period, have the right to apply to said Board and to have their names entered on said list. During the period of five days before said election, said Board shall make out under certificate and file with the county or city clerk as the case may be, a complete alphabetical list of all tax payers who are qualified voters at said election, and shall furnish printed copies of said list to the officers at each poll at said election. Said printed list furnished by said Board, and the returns and poll lists of said election, shall be returned to the county, or city clerk as the case may be. The ballots at said election shall contain the words, in substance, "In favor of the proposed tax," or "Against the proposed tax." Said election may be held on thirty days notice thereof at any time fixed by the commissioners court, or governing body. The proposition to levy a tax hereunder may be renewed until the power to tax hereunder shall have been exhausted. [Acts 1st C. S. 1901, p. 23.]

Art. 6835. [5590] Result of election.—The commissioners court or governing body as soon as practicable after said election shall meet and canvass the returns thereof, and with the aid of the returns and lists herein provided for, together with such other evidence as may be required, ascertain and record in its minutes, the total number of taxpayers of said county or city who were qualified voters on the day of said election, the number of said taxpayers voting in favor of and the number voting against the proposed taxation. If two-thirds of the taxpayers of said county or city, who are qualified voters therein, shall have voted in favor of the proposed tax, the said county or city shall thereupon have power to issue its bonds for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters. [Id.]

Art. 6836. [5591] Sinking fund.—Whenever bonds are issued under this title, the commissioners court, or governing body, shall annually levy, assess and collect, in the mode prescribed by law for other county or municipal taxes, a tax on the real estate and personal or mixed property in said county or city, sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund of not less than two per cent of the principal of all of said bonds. All taxes collected by virtue hereof shall be held in trust by said county, or city, as a special and inviolable fund for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds; provided, that any surplus above the amount required to meet the annual interest may be invested for the benefit of the sinking fund in the bonds issued hereunder, or in the bonds of the State of Texas, or of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 6837. [5592] Cession of State lands.—The right to the use and control for the purposes prescribed by this title, of so much of the land and sea bottom below high tide as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners court or governing body, is hereby ceded by the State of Texas to counties and cities availing themselves of the provisions herein. [Id.]

Art. 6838. [5593] Custodians of funds.—All funds, revenues and moneys derived from the sale of the bonds herein authorized and from the sale or rent of reclaimed or other lands acquired under this title and from additional uses of said works as herein authorized, shall be deposited with the county or city treasurer, as the case may be, and shall be held in trust exclusively for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters, including the purchase of the right of way therefor. All moneys derived from the assessment and levy of taxes as aforesaid are declared to be a trust fund for the payment of interest and principal of bonds to be issued under this title. [Id.]

Art. 6839. [5594] General laws to govern.—All bonds issued hereunder shall be issued under and subject to the provisions of the laws regulating bonds issued by cities and counties, in so far as said laws do not conflict with the provisions of this title. The provisions of this title shall apply to all cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, whether incorporated by general or special laws. [Id.]

Art. 6840. [7094] [4864] [4489] When to be issued.—Judges and clerks of the district and county courts, and justices of the peace shall, at the commencement or during the progress of any civil suit, before final judgment, have power to issue writs of sequestration, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. When a married woman sues for divorce, and makes oath that she fears her husband will waste her separate property, or their common property, or the fruits or revenues produced by either, or that he will sell or otherwise dispose of the same so as to defraud her of her just rights, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

2. When a person sues for the title or possession of any personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy such property, or remove the same out of the limits of the county during the pendency of the suit.

3. When a person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien upon personal property of any description, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will injure, ill-treat, waste or destroy, or remove the same out of the county during the pendency of the suit.

4. When any person sues for the title or possession of real property; and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of his possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the fruits or revenue produced by the same.

5. When any person sues for the title or possession of any property from which he has been ejected by force or violence, and makes oath of such fact.

6. When any person sues for the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien on real estate, and makes oath that he fears the defendant or person in possession thereof will make use of such possession to injure such property, or waste or convert to his own use the timber, rents, fruits or revenue thereof.

7. When any person sues to try the title to any real property, or to remove cloud upon the title to such real property, or to foreclose a lien upon any such real property, or for a partition of real property and makes oath that the defendant or either of them in the event there be more than one defendant, is a non-resident of this State. [Acts 1866, p. 120; Acts 1887, p. 30; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1038; Vol. 9, p. 828.]

Art. 6841. [7095] [4865] [4490] Applicant's affidavit.—No sequestration shall issue in any cause until the party applying therefor shall file an affidavit in writing stating:

1. That he is the owner of the property sued for, or some interest therein, specifying such interest, and is entitled to the possession thereof; or,

2. If the suit be to foreclose a mortgage or enforce a lien upon the property, the fact of the existence of such mortgage or lien, and that the same is just and unsatisfied, and the amount of the same still unsatisfied, and the date when due.

3. The property to be sequestered shall be described with such certainty that it may be identified and distinguished from property of a like kind, giving the value of each article of the property and the county in which the same is situated.

4. It shall set forth one or more of the causes named in the preceding article entitling him to the writ. [Acts 1848, p. 88; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 88.]

Art. 6842. [7096] [4866] [4491] Petition.—If the suit be in the district or county court, no writ of sequestration shall issue, unless a petition shall have been first filed therein, as in other suits in said courts. [Acts 1866, p. 120; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1038.]

Art. 6843. [7097] [4867] [4492] Applicant's bond.—No writ of sequestration shall issue until the party applying therefor has filed with the officer authorized to issue such writ a bond payable to the defendant for a sum not less than double the value of the property to be sequestered as stated in his affidavit, with two or more good sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the payment of all damages and costs in such suit in case it shall be decided that such sequestration was wrongfully issued. [Acts 1848, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 89.]

Art. 6844. [7098] [4868] [4493] On claim not due.—When any person has a mortgage or lien upon personal property of any description, and makes affidavit and gives bond as required by law, the writ of sequestration may issue, although the right of action upon such mortgage or lien has not accrued. The same proceeding shall be had thereon as in other cases of sequestration, except that no final judgment shall be rendered against the defendant until such right shall have accrued. [Id.]

Art. 6845. [7099] [4869] [4494] Requisites of writ.—The writ of sequestration shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of any county wherein the property is alleged to be situated, which allegation may be made either in the original or in a supplemental affidavit. It shall command the sheriff or any constable to take into his possession the property, describing the same as it is described in the affidavit, if to be found in the county, and keep the same subject to the future order of the judge, court or justice of the peace who issued the writ, unless the same is replevied according to law. [Act Nov. 9, 1866, p. 121; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1039.]

Art. 6846. [7100] [4870] [4495] Duty of officer.—The officer executing a writ of sequestration, while he retains custody of the property sequestered, shall take care of and manage the same in a prudent manner, and if he confides the same to the custody of other persons he shall be responsible for their acts in regard thereto, and shall be responsible to the party injured for any neglect or mismanagement by himself, or by those to whom he has confided the custody or management of the property. [Id.]

Art. 6847. [7101] [4871] [4496] Compensation of officer.—The officer retaining custody of property by virtue of a writ of sequestration shall be entitled to receive a just compensation and all reasonable charges therefor, to be determined by the judge or justice from whose court the writ issued, to be taxed in the bill of costs against the party cast in the suit, and collected in the same manner as the other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 6848. [7102] [4872] [4497] Officer expending money.—If the officer be compelled to expend any sum in the security, management or care of the property, he may retain possession of said property until said money be refunded by the party offering to replevy said property, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 6849. [7103] [4873] [4498] Defendant may replevy.—When property has been sequestered, the defendant shall have the right to retain possession of the same by delivering to the officer executing the writ, his bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such officer, in an amount not less than double the value of the property to be replevied. [Act Feb. 8, 1860, p. 70; G. L. Vol. 4, p. 1432.]

Art. 6850. [7104] [4874] [4499] Bond for personal property.—If the property to be replevied be personal property, the condition of the bond shall be that the defendant will not remove the same out of the county, or that he will not waste, ill-treat, injure, destroy or sell or dispose of the same, according to the plaintiff's affidavit, and that he will have such property, with the value of the fruits, hire or revenue thereof, forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, or that he will pay the value thereof and of the fruits, hire or revenue of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 6851. [7105] [4875] [4500] Bond for real estate.—If the property be real estate, the condition of such bond shall be that the defendant will not injure the property, and that he will pay the value of the rents of the same in case he shall be condemned so to do. [Id.]

Art. 6852. [7106] [4876] [4501] Return of bond.—The bond provided for in the three preceding articles shall be returned with the writ to the court from whence the writ issued. In case the suit is decided against the defendant, final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally, for the value of the property replevied, and the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof as the case may be; and the value of the property replevied shall be proven either as of the time of the execution of the replevy bond or as of the time of the trial, as the plaintiff may elect. [Id. Acts 1923, p. 28.]

Art. 6853. [7107] [4877] [4502] Defendant may discharge judgment.—Within ten days after the rendition of the judgment provided for in the preceding article, the defendant may deliver to the sheriff or constable of the court in which such judgment is rendered, the property or any part thereof, which the defendant has bound himself to have forthcoming to abide the decision of the court, and which property has not been injured or damaged since the replevy. Such officer shall receipt the defendant therefor, and shall immediately deliver such property to the plaintiff. Upon filing such receipt with the papers in the cause, the defendant shall be credited by the clerk or justice of the peace upon such judgment with the value of the property so returned.

Art. 6854. [7108] [4878] [4503] When property has been injured.—If the property tendered back by the defendant has been injured or damaged while in his possession under such bond, the sheriff or constable to whom the same is tendered shall not receive the same, unless the defendant at the same time tenders the reasonable amount of such injury or damage, to be judged of by such officer.

Art. 6855. [7109] [4879] [4504] Execution.—If the property be not returned and received, as provided in the two preceding articles, execution shall issue upon said judgment for the amount due thereon, as in other cases.

Art. 6856. [7110] [4880] [4505] Plaintiff may replevy.—When the defendant fails to replevy the property within ten days after the levy of the writ, if such defendant, his agent or attorney is present in the county, or within twenty days if absent from the county at the time of such levy, the officer having the property in possession shall deliver the same to the plaintiff upon his giving bond payable to the defendant in a sum of money not less than double the value of such property, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such officer, conditioned for the forthcoming of such property, together with the fruits, hire, revenue and rent of the same, to abide the decision of the court. [Acts 1866, p. 122; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1040.]

Art. 6857. [7111] [4881] [4506] When bond forfeited.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned with the writ, and in case the suit is decided against the plaintiff, final judgment shall be entered against all the obligors in such bond, jointly and severally for the value of the property replevied, and for the value of the fruits, hire, revenue or rent thereof as the case may be; and the value of the property replevied shall be proven either as of the time of the execution of the replevy bond or as of the time of the trial, as the defendant may elect. The same rules which govern the discharge or enforcement of a judgment against the obligors in the defendant's replevy bond shall be applicable to and govern in case of a judgment against the obligors in the plaintiff's replevy bond. [Acts 1923, p. 28.]

Art. 6858. [7112] [4882] [4507] Defendant need not account for hire, etc.—In suits for the enforcement of a mortgage or lien upon property, the defendant, should he replevy the property, shall not be required to account for the fruits, hire, revenue or rent of the same, but this exemption shall not apply to the plaintiff in case he shall replevy the property.

Art. 6859. [7113] [4883] [4508] Perishable goods.—If after the expiration of ten days from the levy of a writ of sequestration the defendant has failed to replevy the same, if the plaintiff or defendant shall make affidavit in writing that the property levied upon, or any portion thereof, is likely to be wasted or destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, and if the officer having possession of such property shall certify to the truth of such affidavit, it shall be the duty of the judge or justice of the peace to whose court the writ is returnable, upon the presentation of such affidavit and certificate, either in term time or vacation, to order the sale of said property or so much thereof as is likely to be so wasted, destroyed or depreciated in value by keeping, but either party may replevy the property at any time before such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6860. [7114] [4884] [4509] Order of sale for.—The judge or justice granting the order provided for in the preceding article shall issue an order directed to the officer having such property in possession, commanding such officer to sell such property in the same manner as under execution. [Id.]

Art. 6861. [7115] [4885] [4510] Return of order.—The officer making such sale shall, within five days thereafter, return the order of sale to the court from whence the same issued, with his proceedings thereon, and shall, at the time of making such return, pay over to the clerk or justice of the peace the proceeds of such sale. [Id.]

Art. 6862. [7116] [4886] [4511] Sale on debt not due.—If the suit in which the sequestration issued be for a debt or demand not yet due, and the property sequestered be likely to be wasted, destroyed or greatly depreciated in value by keeping, the judge or justice of the peace shall, under the regulations hereinbefore provided, order the same to be sold, giving credit on such sale until such debt or demand shall become due. [Acts 1848, p. 88; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 88.]

Art. 6863. [7117] [4887] [4512] Purchaser's bond.—In the case of a sale as provided for in the preceding article, the purchaser of the property shall execute his bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer making the sale, and payable to such officer, in a sum not less than double the amount of the purchase money, conditioned that such purchaser shall pay such purchase money at the expiration of the time given. [Id.]

Art. 6864. [7118] [4888] [4513] Return of bond.—The bond provided for in the preceding article shall be returned by the officer taking the same to the clerk or justice of the peace from whose court the order of sale issued, with such order, and shall be filed among the papers in the cause; and, in case the purchaser does not pay the purchase money at the expiration of the time given, judgment shall be rendered against all the obligors in such bond for the amount of such purchase money, interest thereon and all costs incurred in the enforcement and collection of the same; and execution shall issue thereon in the name of the plaintiff in the suit, as in other cases, and the money when collected shall be paid to the clerk or justice of the peace to abide the final decision of the cause. [Id.]

Art. 6865. [7119] [4890] Election and term.—The qualified voters of each county at each general election shall elect one sheriff for a term of two years. [Const. Art. 5, Sec. 23; Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5108; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1571.]

Art. 6866. [7121-2] Oath and bond.—Every person elected to the office of sheriff shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, for such sum as may be directed by such court, not less than five thousand nor more than thirty thousand dollars payable to the Governor and his successors in office, conditioned that he will account for and pay over to the persons authorized by law to receive the same, all fines, forfeitures and penalties that he may collect for the use of the State or any county, and that he will well and truly execute and make due return of all process and precepts to him lawfully directed, and pay over all sums of money collected by him by virtue of any such process or precepts, to the persons to whom the same are due, or their lawful attorney, and that he will faithfully perform all such duties as may be required of him by law, and further conditioned that he will pay over to his county all moneys illegally paid to him out of county funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, and said sheriff shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same. When any person elected or appointed sheriff, in accordance with this article, shall have given bond and taken the official oath, he may enter at once upon the discharge of his duties, and his acts shall be as valid in law before receiving his commission as afterward. [Acts 1846, p. 265; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1571; Acts 1923, p. 23.]

Art. 6867. [7123] [4894] Neglect to qualify.—When any person elected sheriff shall neglect, refuse or fail from any cause whatever to give bond and take the official oath within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant. [Acts 1885, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 709.]

Art. 6868. [7124] [4895] Failure to give new bond.—Whenever any of the sureties of a sheriff shall die, remove permanently from the State, become insolvent, or be released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners court shall deem the sheriff's bond insufficient, said court shall cite said sheriff to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation and give a new bond with good and sufficient security; and, if such sheriff shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond on or before the designated time he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts 1836, p. 178; P. D. 5110; G. L. Vol. 1, p. 1239.]

Art. 6869. [7125] [4896] May appoint deputies, etc.— Sheriffs shall have the power, by writing, to appoint one or more deputies for their respective counties, to continue in office during the pleasure of the sheriff, who shall have power and authority to perform all the acts and duties of their principals; and every person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the official oath, which shall be indorsed on his appointment, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same; and such appointment and oath shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk and deposited in said office. The number of deputies appointed by the sheriff of any one county shall be limited to not exceeding three in the justice precinct in which is located the county site of such county, and one in each justice precinct, and a list of these appointments shall be posted up in a conspicuous place in the clerk's office. An indictment for a felony of any deputy sheriff appointed shall operate a revocation of his appointment as such deputy sheriff. [Acts 1889, p. 23; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 1051.]

Art. 6870. [7126] [4897] Responsible for their acts.— Sheriffs shall be responsible for the official acts of their deputies, and they shall have power to require from their deputies bond and security; and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and sureties as any person can have against a sheriff and his sureties. [Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5113, G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1571.]

Art. 6871. [7127] [4898] May employ guards.— Whenever in any county it may become necessary to employ guards for the safe keeping of prisoners and the security of jails, the sheriff may, with the approval of the commissioners court, or in case of emergency, with the approval of the county judge, employ such number of guards as may be necessary; and his account therefor, duly itemized and sworn to, shall be allowed by said court and paid out of the county treasury. [Id.]

Art. 6872. [6393] [3835] Control of courthouse.— Sheriffs shall have charge and control of the courthouses of their respective counties, subject to such regulations as the commissioners court may prescribe; and the official bonds shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this article.

Art. 6873. [7130] [4901] Shall execute process.— Each sheriff shall execute all process and precepts directed to him by legal authority, and make return thereof to the proper court, on or before the day to which the same is returnable; and any sheriff who shall fail so to do, or who shall make a false return on any process or precept shall, for every such offense, be liable to be fined by the court to which such process is returnable, as for a contempt, not exceeding one hundred dollars at the discretion of the court, which fine shall go to the county treasury; and such sheriff shall also be liable to the party injured for all damages he may sustain. [Id. P. D. 5115.]

Art. 6874. [7131] [4902] Legislative process.—Sheriffs are required also to execute all subpoenas and other process issued by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or the President of the Senate, or chairman of a committee of either house of the Legislature, to them directed, under like pains and penalties as are incurred by failure to execute process issued by a court; and for such services they shall receive the fees prescribed by law for similar services in the courts, to be paid on the certificate of the authority issuing such process. [Acts 1873, p. 19; P. D. 7102a et seq. G. L. Vol. 7, p. 471.]

Art. 6875. [7134] [4905] Shall indorse all process.—Every sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable shall indorse on all process and precepts coming to their hands the day and hour on which they received them, the manner in which they executed them, and state at what time and place the process was served as well as the distance actually traveled in serving such process, and shall sign their returns officially. [Acts 1846, p. 265; P. D. 5121; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1571; Acts 1903, p. 81.]

Art. 6876. [7135] [4906] May summon posse comitatus.—Whenever a sheriff or any of his deputies shall meet with resistance in the execution of any legal process, they shall call to their aid the power of the county; and any person who shall neglect or refuse to aid and assist any sheriff or deputy in the execution of any legal process when summoned so to do shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered on motion of such sheriff or his deputy and proof of such neglect or refusal before the court from which such process issued, three days' notice of such motion being given to the party accused, and in addition thereto may be punished criminally as prescribed in the Penal Code. [Id. Sec. 10; P. D. 5117.]

Art. 6877. [7136] [4907] Unfinished business.—When any sheriff or any constable shall from any cause vacate his office, all unfinished business whatsoever in his hands shall be transferred to his successor, and be completed by him in the same manner as if commenced by himself. [Acts 1846 p. 265; P. D. 5122; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1571.]

Art. 6878. [7137] [4908] Election.—The qualified voters of each justice precinct at each general election shall elect a constable for such precinct for a term of two years. [Acts 1885, p. 17; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 637; Acts 1897, p. 194; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 1248.]

Art. 6879. [7138] Appointment of deputies.—When in any such justice precinct there may be a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint no more than two deputies who shall qualify as required of deputy sheriffs; and provided, that, when in any such justice precinct there may be a city of forty thousand or more inhabitants, such constable may appoint five deputies and no more, who shall qualify as required of deputies; provided, such constable shall first make written application to the commissioners court of his county, showing the necessity therefor, giving the name of each proposed appointee, for the approval and confirmation of said court. In justice precincts which do not contain a city of eight thousand or more inhabitants, said constable may appoint no more than one deputy who shall qualify in such manner as is required by law. [Id. Acts 1921, p. 131; Acts 1923, p. 348.]

Art. 6880. [7139] [4909] Unorganized counties.—The commissioners courts of the several counties to which unorganized counties are attached for judicial purposes shall have power to appoint a constable for each unorganized county attached to said counties for judicial purposes, in accordance with the laws governing such appointments in organized counties. [Acts 1879, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1389.]

Art. 6881. [7141] [4911] Bond and oath.—Each person who may be elected to the office of constable shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the commissioners court of his county, for such sum as said court may direct, not less than five hundred nor more than fifteen hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties required of him by law; and shall also take and subscribe the official oath, which shall be indorsed on said bond, together with the certificate of the officer administering the same. [Acts 1846, p. 261; G. L. Vol. 2, p. 1567.]

Art. 6882. [7142] [4912] De facto constable.—Whenever any person is elected or appointed to the office of constable and has given bond and taken said oath, he may enter at once upon the duties of the office, and his acts shall be as valid in law as if he had been duly commissioned.

Art. 6883. [7143] [4913] Neglect to qualify.—Whenever any person elected constable shall neglect or refuse to give bond and take the official oath within twenty days after notice of his election, the office shall be deemed vacant. [Id.]

Art. 6884. [7144] [4914] Failure to give new bond.—Whenever any of the sureties of a constable shall die, remove permanently from the State or become insolvent, or are released from liability in accordance with law, or whenever the commissioners court shall deem the bond of any constable to be insufficient, said court shall cite said constable to appear at a time to be named in such citation, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after issuing such citation, and give a new bond, with good and sufficient security. If such constable shall neglect or refuse to appear and give such bond at the designated time, he shall cease to exercise the functions of his office, and shall be removed from office by the judge of the district court in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Id. Sec. 3; P. D. 982.]

Art. 6885. [7145] [4915] Duties in general.—Each constable shall execute and return according to law all process, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, attend upon all justice courts held in his precinct and perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law. [Id. P. D. 987.]

Art. 6886. [7146] [4916] May summon posse.—When any constable shall meet with resistance in the execution of any lawful process, or in the arrest of offenders, he may call to his aid any citizen of the county who may be convenient; and any person who shall fail or refuse to obey such call may be fined as for a contempt by any justice of the peace, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, on motion of such constable, three days' notice thereof having been given to the party accused. [Id. P. D. 986.]

Art. 6887. [7147] [4917] Failure to execute or return process.—If any constable shall fail or refuse to execute and return, according to law, any process, warrant, or precept to him lawfully directed and delivered, he shall be fined for a contempt, on motion of the party injured, before the court from which such process, warrant or precept issued, not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, with costs; which fine shall be for the benefit of the party injured. Said constable shall have ten days' notice of such motion. [Id. P. D. 990.]

Art. 6888. [7148] [4918] Failure to pay.—If any constable shall receive from any person any bonds, bills, notes or accounts for collection, and shall give his receipt therefor, in his official capacity, and shall fail to pay to such person, on demand, any amount he may have collected on the same, such constable and his sureties shall be responsible on his official bond for all such amounts as he may have collected on such bonds, bills, notes or accounts not paid over. [Id. P. D. 991.]

Art. 6889. [7149] [4919] Jurisdiction.—Every constable may execute any process, civil or criminal, throughout his county and elsewhere, as may be provided for in the Code of Criminal Procedure, or other law. [Id. Sec. 14; P. D. 993.]

[Acts 1883, p. 76; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 382.]

Art. 6892. [7153] [4923] Owner may use county brand.—
The owners of all horses and cattle, in addition to their private brand, may place said county brand upon the neck of all horses and cattle owned by them. [Id.]

Art. 6893. [7154] [4924] Stock removed from county.—
Whenever any horses or cattle branded with the county brand are removed to another county, the owners of such stock may counterbrand with said county brand, and a bar under said county brand shall be used and known as the "County brand," and when so counterbranded the brand of the county in which said stock may be newly located may be placed on said stock. [Id.]

Art. 6894. [7155] [4925] To furnish lists.—The Secretary of State shall furnish a printed list of the county brands to the county clerks of this State, who shall securely post the same in their office. [Id.]

Art. 6895. [7156] [4926] Brands of minors.—Minors owning cattle or hogs, separate from that of the father or guardian, may have a brand and mark, which shall be recorded. The father or guardian shall be responsible for the proper use of such mark and brand of any such minor. [Acts 1848, p. 156; P. D. 4660; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 156.]

Art. 6896. [7157] [4927] When branded.—Cattle shall be marked with the ear mark or branded with the brand of the owner on or before they are twelve months old; hogs, sheep, and goats shall be marked with the ear mark of the owner on or before they are six months old. [Id. P. D. 4656.]

Art. 6897. [7158] [4928] Disputes settled.—If any dispute shall arise about any ear mark or brand, it shall be decided by reference to the book of marks and brands kept by the county clerk, and the ear mark and brand of the oldest date shall have the preference. [Id. P. D. 4657.]

Art. 6898. [7159] [4929] Marks and brands recorded.—The clerks of the county courts in their respective counties shall keep a well bound book, in which they shall record the marks and brands of each individual who may apply to them for that purpose, noting in every instance the date on which the brand or mark is recorded. [Id. P. D. 4658.]

Art. 6899. [7160] [4930] Unrecorded brands as evidence.—No brands, except such as are recorded as provided in this chapter, shall be recognized in law as any evidence of the ownership of the cattle, horses, or mules, upon which the same may be used; provided, that this shall not apply in criminal cases. [Acts 1848, p. 156; P. D. 4659; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 156; Acts 1913, p. 129.]

CHAPTER TWO.

PROTECTION OF LIVE STOCK.

Art. 6900. [7161] [4931] Glanders.—If it comes to the knowledge of any county judge, by affidavit of any credible citizen of his county, stating that affiant has reason to believe and does believe that glanders or farcy exists among any horses, mules, jacks or jennets in said county, naming owner or owners of such animal or animals so infected, if known, if unknown, so stating, such county judge, upon the filing of said affidavit, shall immediately appoint three disinterested and intelligent citizens of said county, who shall carefully and minutely examine said animal or animals so reported to be diseased with glanders or farcy; said three citizens, before entering upon the duties required of them by this chapter, shall take an oath that they will discharge their duties as prescribed by this chapter in a fair and impartial manner. [Acts 1st. C. S. 1892, p. 11; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 375.]

Art. 6901. [7162] [4932] Report as to disease.—If, after carefully and minutely examining each animal so reported to be affected with glanders or farcy, said three citizens shall be of the opinion that said animal is diseased with glanders or farcy, they shall condemn the same; and appraise each animal so condemned, at their just and full value at the time of such examination and condemnation, forthwith reporting their action in writing to the county judge, stating the number of animals condemned, the owner of same if known, and if unknown so stating it, with the appraised value of same. If the said citizens have any reasonable doubt as to the diseased animals being affected with glanders or farcy, before condemning as above provided for, they shall require the owner or owners to have said diseased animals separated from contact with all other animals subject to contagion, for a reasonable time. When they are fully satisfied that the disease is glanders or farcy, then they shall proceed to condemn and destroy said animals as provided for in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6902. [7163-4] Condemned animals killed. — The county judge upon the receipt of said report shall issue his order to the sheriff or any constable of his county commanding him to seize said diseased animals and take same to some secluded place and kill them and bury or burn the carcass. After said animals are killed, the owner thereof may present his claim to the commissioners court of the county where the same were killed, for the value, if any, of each animal at the time the same was killed. The amount of such claim, or so much thereof as may be allowed by said court, shall be paid out of the general revenue of the county, as other claims against such county. The sheriff or constable killing, burying or burning said animal or animals shall be paid by the county such sum as the commissioners court thereof may determine the service worth. [Acts 1899, p. 303.]

CHAPTER THREE.

SLAUGHTER AND SHIPMENT.

Art. 6903. [7170-1-2] Bill of sale.—Upon the sale or transfer of any horse, mare, mule, gelding, colt, jack, jennet, cow, calf, ox, or beef steer by any person in this State, the actual delivery of such animals shall be accompanied by a written transfer to the purchaser from the vendor, or party selling, giving the number, marks and brands of each animal sold and delivered. Upon the trial of the right of property in any such animal, the possession of such animal without said written transfer shall be prima facie illegal. Persons may dispose of stock animals of any said kind as they run in the range, by the sale and delivery of the brands and marks; and in every such sale the purchaser, in order to acquire title thereto, shall have his conveyance or bill of sale of such stock, recorded in the county clerk's office, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and such sale or transfer shall be noted on the record of original marks and brands in the name of the vendee or purchaser. [Acts 1866, p. 223; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1141.]

Art. 6904. [7173] [4943] Butchers to report.—Each person in this State engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market shall make a regular sworn report to each regular meeting of the commissioners court of the county, giving the number, color, age, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered by him since the last term of said court, to be filed with and kept on file by the county clerk. Each said report shall be accompanied by the bill of sale or written conveyance to the butcher for every animal that he has purchased for slaughter. If any of the animals slaughtered have been raised by himself it shall be so stated in the report. Said report so made to said court may in the discretion of said clerk be destroyed after a period of five years. [Acts 1907, p. 239.]

Art. 6905. [7175] [4944] Recorded before driving. — Any person who shall purchase animals of any class named in Article 6903, for the purpose of driving to market out of the county where purchased, or out of the State, shall, before moving the animals out of the county where purchased, deposit with the county clerk for record, a bill of sale and correct list of the number, marks, brands and kind of animals, signed and acknowledged by each vendor, which, together with the address of the vendee, shall be recorded in the book kept by the clerk for that purpose, and with his certificate of record under seal shall be returned to the purchaser upon payment of the recording fees. [Acts 1866, p. 223; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 1141.]

Art. 6906. [7176] [4945] Sworn descriptive lists.—Persons intending to drive their own stock raised by themselves to market out of the county where raised, or out of the State, shall, before so driving, deposit with the county clerk for record a correct list of such animals, with a particular description of their marks and brands, verified by their own affidavit; which list said clerk shall record and certify and return to the owner. [Id.]

Art. 6907. [7177-8] Register of cattle.—The commanders or agents of all vessels and the agents of all railroads on which cattle are exported from the State, and the proprietors or agents of all establishments for the slaughter of cattle within the State, shall keep a register of all cattle shipped or slaughtered, with the marks, brands and general description of such animals, and the names of the persons shipping or selling the same, the dates of their shipments or purchase, and the county from which they were driven. Such register on the first day of each month shall be deposited with the county clerk of the county where the cattle were shipped or slaughtered. Said clerk shall at once copy the same in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose, and return the original to the party depositing it. [Acts 1850, p. 27; G. L. Vol. 3, p. 809; P. D. 460.]

Art. 6908. [7179] [4948] Bond of butcher.—Every person, before he shall set up and carry on the trade or occupation of a butcher or slaughterer of cattle in this State, shall file a bond to be approved by the county judge of the county in which he desires to carry on the business, in a sum not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, conditioned that he shall keep a true and faithful record in a book kept for that purpose of all cattle purchased or slaughtered by him, with a description of the animal including marks, brands, age, color, weight, and from whom purchased and the date thereof; that he will have the hide and ear of such animal inspected by the inspector, or some magistrate of the county, within twenty days after it is slaughtered, and that he will not purchase any cattle that has been slaughtered by another unless the hide and ears of such slaughtered animal accompany said animal offered for sale, and that he will not purchase any animal that has been slaughtered by another when the ear marks, or brands on the hide accompanying such animal, when offered for sale, have been changed, mutilated or destroyed. Any butcher or slaughterer of cattle who shall violate any condition of said bond may be sued upon his bond at the instance of the county or district attorney of the county where such bond is given. All sums recovered by suits upon said bonds shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the available school fund of such county. [Acts 1893, p. 38; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 468.]

Art. 6909. [7183] [4952] Inspector's record.—The inspector or magistrate shall keep a record of the marks, brands, color and general description of such hides, and for whom inspected, with the date of inspection, and return a copy of the same to the county clerk of the county in which it was inspected within thirty days after said inspection. Said inspector or magistrate shall be entitled to receive ten cents for each hide so inspected, to be paid by the party having the hide inspected. [Id.]

Art. 6910. [7184] [4953] Counties exempt.—The provisions of the two preceding articles shall not apply to the following counties: Anderson, Angelina, Austin, Bandera, Bastrop, Bell, Bexar, Blanco, Bowie, Brazos, Burleson, Caldwell, Calhoun, Camp, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Clay, Collin, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Dallas, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Ellis, Falls, Fannin,

Fayette, Franklin, Freestone, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gonzales, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hays, Henderson, Hill, Hopkins, Houston, Hunt, Jasper, Johnson, Karnes, Kaufman, Kendall, Kerr, Kimball, Lamar, Lavaca, Lee, Leon, Liberty, Limestone, Llano, Madison, Marion, Mason, McLennan, Milam, Montgomery, Morris, Nacogdoches, Navarro, Newton, Palo Pinto, Panola, Polk, Rains, Robertson, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, Shelby, Smith, Sutton, Tarrant, Titus, Travis, Trinity, Tyler, Upshur, Van Zandt, Walker, Waller, Washington, Williamson, Wood. Art. 6911. [7185-90] Who may take up.—When any stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet, or work ox shall be found on the land of any citizen or his lessee for one year or more, such citizen or his lessee may forthwith advertise the same, describing the animal's color and specifying the marks and brands, if any, also giving the age and flesh marks of every kind, at three public places in the county in which he resides, one of which notices shall be at the courthouse door, for at least twenty days, and shall also deliver to the county clerk a copy of said notice which shall be by him securely posted up in his office; after the expiration of which time, if no owner apply, the taker-up of said animal or animals shall appear before some justice of the peace in said county and estray the same. No animal so taken up shall be used for any purpose until the party shall have given bond as required by the succeeding article. [Acts 1866, p. 54; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 972.]

Art. 6912. [7186-92-93] Appraisalment and bond.—Any citizen so entitled to estray any animal shall make affidavit before said justice of the peace that the animal which he proposes to estray was taken upon his plantation, or on his lands adjoining the same; that the marks and brands thereof have not been altered or disfigured since the same was taken up; that notice has been given as the law requires, and that no owner has been found; whereupon the said justice shall file said affidavit and shall cause to appear before him, by summons or otherwise, two disinterested householders of his county, who are in no way related to the person estraying, commanding them, after being sworn, to value and appraise the same and certify under oath attested by said justice the valuation, together with a particular description of the animal, including height, marks, brands, color and age. Said justice shall thereupon require of the taker-up a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in double the value of such animal or animals, payable to the county judge of the county, conditioned that the taker-up shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, which bond, affidavit and appraisal shall be sent by such justice to the county clerk within twenty days thereafter, for which said justice shall receive the same fees that are allowed for similar services by law. Said clerk shall record said papers so sent to him in a separate book to be kept for that purpose, for which he shall be entitled to collect the same fees allowed by law for similar services to be paid in all cases by the taker-up. When two or more animals are taken up at the same time by the same person, they shall be included in the same entry, and said justice and said clerk shall receive no more fees including posting and advertising, than for one such animal. [Id.]

Art. 6913. [7187-8] Proof of ownership. — At any time within twelve months, and before the sale of any estrays, it shall be lawful for the owner of any such stray to prove his property by the affidavit of any respectable witness, which shall specify a particular description of the animal claimed, including the kind, marks, brands, height, color and age of the same. This affidavit shall be delivered to the taker-up and by him filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, and on the delivery of such affidavit and the payment of all costs incurred in posting such stray to the taker-up, such owner shall be entitled to demand and receive the animal. When the respectability of said witness is not known to the officer administering the oath, the party claiming the stray shall produce satisfactory evidence of the respectability of such witness, certified to by a notary public, county clerk or county judge of the county in which such witness resides. [Id. P. D. 6812.]

Art. 6914. [7189] [4958] No pay for taker-up.—If the owner of any animal which has been so duly estrayed, be a resident citizen of the county in which it has been estrayed, and shall have had his mark and brand recorded in said county, and the animal so estrayed shall be in the mark and brand of the owner at the time it was taken up, then and in that case the taker-up shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for expense incurred in estraying said animal. [Id.]

Art. 6915. [7191] [4960] Commissioner to return.—If any estrays of any kind shall be found running at large and not estrayed, and the owner of the same be unknown, any county commissioner shall return the same, with a full description thereof, to the county clerk of his county, who shall advertise the same as specified in this chapter. If such animal shall not be proven away by the owner within the time allowed by law the commissioner returning the same, or his successor in office, shall proceed to sell such animals and report the sale thereof to said county clerk, and after paying the clerk's fee and retaining twenty per cent of the proceeds of such sale, he shall pay the remaining sum into the county treasury. [Id. P. D. 6813.]

Art. 6916. [7194] [4963] Advertisement.—The county clerk shall cause a statement of the appraisement and a description of the animals so estrayed to be advertised at least three times in some newspaper published in the county where such animal was estrayed, if there be one; and if none, then the clerk shall cause the same to be advertised in the newspaper nearest to the county, and also by posting up notices at three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door thereof. The printer of such notice shall furnish the said clerk with a copy of the paper containing said notice. For such publication the printer shall be entitled to receive two dollars from the party estraying the same. Said clerk shall file and preserve said copy in his office. [Id.]

Art. 6917. [7195-6] Property in estrays.—The property of every stray horse, mare, gelding, filly, colt, mule, jack, jennet or work ox taken up as aforesaid and not proven away within twelve months after such appraisement shall be deemed vested in the county wherein such stray or estrays may have been posted, and the taker-up shall immediately thereafter proceed to sell the same for cash to the highest bidder at the courthouse door of the county, after giving notice of the same as required in the case of sheriff's sale. Within ten days after such sale, he shall, after deducting the expenses incurred in estraying said animals, pay into the county treasury seventy-five per cent of the proceeds of the same, and retain the other twenty-five per cent for his own use. Whenever a sale of an estray shall be made according to the provisions of this article, the taker-up shall make a return of such sale, duly sworn to by him, to the county clerk of the county in which the sale was made, who shall file the same in his office. [Id.]

Art. 6918. [7197] [4966] Sale day.—All sales of estrays, horses, mares, fillies, geldings, colts, mules, jacks, jennets, or work oxen shall be made on the first Monday in the month, and between the hours of one and three o'clock p. m. of said day. [Id.]

Art. 6919. [7198-9] Other estrays.—Any citizen taking up any stray hogs, sheep, goats or cattle, other than work oxen, shall proceed in the same manner as is required in the case of horses, etc., except advertising in a newspaper; and any person estraying the same, at the expiration of six months from the day of appraisement, shall proceed to give notice as in the case of sheriff's or constable's sales, and sell such estrays where they were taken up; provided, there be not less than three adult bidders in attendance at said sale, beside the family of the taker-up. No animal enumerated in this article except work oxen, shall be subject to be estrayed, unless the same shall have been known to the taker-up as being an estray for at least four months previous to the time of estraying the same. [Id. Acts 1899, p. 234.]

Art. 6920. [7200] [4969] Returns of sales.—In making the returns of sales under this chapter, when the sale has been made at the residence of the taker-up or other place than at the courthouse door of the county, the taker-up shall, in all cases, give the names of at least three of the bidders who were present at said sale, who were not members of his family. [Acts 1866, p. 54; P. D. 6817; G. L. Vol. 5, p. 972.]

Art. 6921. [7201] [4970] Taker-up liable.—If any person estraying an animal enumerated in this chapter shall send or take away the same out of the county in which the same was taken up and estrayed, or sell or otherwise dispose of the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon their bond in an action for damages in favor of the party injured. [Id. P. D. 6818.]

Art. 6922. [7202] [4971] Taker-up may use.—The taker-up of an estray may use the same in moderation, after having executed bond as provided in this chapter, but should he abuse or injure the same, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his bond in damages for such abuse or injury, and may be sued therefor by the owner for his own use, or by the county judge for the use of the county.

Art. 6923. [7203] [4972] If estray dies.—Whenever an estray animal shall be found dead, or shall escape, the taker-up shall without delay, make a written sworn report thereof to the county clerk; which report shall be recorded by said clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose. Any person who shall make a false report shall be liable on his bond, together with his sureties, for the value of the animal or animals estrayed. [Id. P. D. 6819.]

Art. 6924. [7204] [4973] Proceeds of sale.—All moneys arising from the sales of estrays, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall be by him applied exclusively to the jury fund of the county. [Id. P. D. 6820.]

Art. 6925. [7205] [4974] If taker-up refuse to deliver.—If any person having in charge an estray shall refuse to deliver the same to the owner thereof, on his complying with the provisions of this chapter, such owner shall be entitled to action therefor with damages. [Id. P. D. 6821.]

Art. 6926. [7206] [4975] Owner may reclaim money. At any time within twelve months after the sale of any estray made under the provisions of this chapter, the owner of such estray may apply to the county treasurer of the county in which such estray has been sold, and upon proof of such ownership shall be entitled to receive from said treasurer the amount deposited on account of such sale, after paying such costs as may be necessary to establish his right thereto. [Id. P. D. 6822.]

Art. 6927. [7207-8] Notice of estray.—Whenever any person shall stray any animal on which any county brand may be found, the county clerk of the county in which said estray may be shall immediately send a notice containing a full description of said animal, together with the marks and brands, to the county clerk of the county to which the county brand may belong; and the county clerk of said county brand shall record said notice in a book kept for that purpose, and post the same on the courthouse door; and shall ascertain from his record of brands to whom said animal may belong, and notify said owner by letter or otherwise. For such services he shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner; and the county clerk furnishing the notice shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar from said owner. Any county clerk who shall fail to send a notice as required by this article, shall become liable to the original owner of said estray in an amount equal to the value of said estray. [Acts 1883, p. 78; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 384.]

CHAPTER FIVE.

STOCK LAW AND LIMITED RANGE.

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

|--------------------|-----------------|-------------------|-----------------|
| General provisions | Article 6928 | Combined election | Article 6929 |
|--------------------|-----------------|-------------------|-----------------|

Art. 6928. General provisions.—The following rules shall govern any election held under any provision of this chapter for either of the purposes named in this chapter:

1. If the election be for a subdivision of the county, the county judge, at the time he issues the order for such election, shall appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks.
2. Said election shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts if the election is ordered for the whole county; but if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened.
3. Only persons who are freeholders and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws shall vote at said election.
4. On or before the tenth day after any said election, the persons holding such election shall make due returns to the county judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against the proposition or propositions submitted at said election. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986; Acts 1919, p. 149.]

Art. 6929. Combined elections.—When an election is called for any county or subdivision thereof for the purpose of voting upon the question of the adoption of the stock law or any part thereof, under the provisions of this chapter, if such county or subdivision has not already in operation the stock law or any part thereof under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be lawful to submit at the same time and at the same election

the question of the limited period of free range for hogs, as provided for in this chapter, but said proposition must be submitted and voted upon as a separate proposition, and the votes cast therein, and the returns thereof, and the judge's proclamation thereon, must be separate and distinct from that of the stock law proposition voted on at such election. [Acts 1919, p. 149.]

Art. 6930. [7209] [4978] To order election.—Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of a county, the commissioners court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision, on some day named in the order, for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs, sheep or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision. [Const. Art. 16, Sec. 23; Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986; Acts 1909, p. 164.]

Art. 6931. [7210-7234] Territory between subdivisions.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted a stock law, or when there is territory adjoining a subdivision which has adopted a stock law, and in such territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on a petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. If there be less than twenty freeholders in such intervening or adjoining territory, then on the petition of a majority of the owners of the land to the commissioners court, the said commissioners court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision; in cases where there are no freeholders on such intervening or adjoining territory, then on the petition of the owner or owners of the land to the commissioners court, the said court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision; and any person or persons who own lands adjoining any other lands which have been added to territory in which a stock law prevails, shall have the same right, and, on petition of the owner or owners of such lands to the said court, the said court shall issue an order extending the stock law to said territory, and the same shall be included in the territory of such adjoining subdivision. [Acts 1899, p. 80; Acts 1907, p. 150; Acts 1915, p. 206.]

Art. 6932. [7211] [4980] Requisites of petition.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the preceding articles which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county or subdivision. If the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6933. [7212] [4981] Election ordered.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court, at its next regular term thereafter, shall order an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order. [Id.]

Art. 6934. [7213-14] Order and notice.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notice thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county; but if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6935. [7218] [4987] Manner of voting.—All votes at any such election shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing such animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the stock law."

Art. 6936. [7220] [4989] Returns of election.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the commissioners court of the county in the same manner as provided for all general elections in this State. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 150.]

Art. 6937. [7221] [4990] Proclamation of result.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within the limits designated any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6938. [7222-23] Stock impounded.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated land of any person, other than the owner of such stock, without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this subdivision have become operative in the manner provided in the preceding articles, the owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound said stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him. No animals shall be impounded unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or shall be found roaming about the residence, lots, or cultivated land of another; and whenever any stock is impounded notice thereof shall at once be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Acts 1887, p. 56; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 854.]

Art. 6939. [7224-5] Fees and damages.—Any owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of inclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: Ten cents per day per head for hogs, ten cents per day per head for goats, and five cents per day per head for sheep. The damages done by such stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall upon the application of the taker-up of the stock be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. Where said justice shall fail or refuse to make such appointment, or where the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this law has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due to the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees, in writing, and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders, to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with said justice, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days' notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision, and one at the door of the courthouse of the county; and provided, further, that nothing in this law shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken for the payment of the same under the provisions of this law. After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in this article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale as in constable's sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like services in civil cases. [Acts 1895, p. 84; G. L. Vol. 10, p. 814.]

Art. 6940. [7226] [4995] Stock sold.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, the taker-up may make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to affiant, which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice, to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such assessment, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case where the owner is known; and, if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the county clerk, and pay the same over to the county treasurer, to be received and disbursed by him, as in case of sales of estrays; or the taker-up may at his option, after the expiration of five days, stray such stock, according to the laws regulating estrays in this State. [Id.]

Art. 6941. [7228] [4997] Subsequent elections.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this law for any county or subdivision, and the proposition for a stock and fence law, as herein provided, is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter. But the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county; nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Acts 1876, p. 150; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 986.]

Art. 6942. [7227-29-31] Lawful fence.—Should any stock not permitted to run at large enter any inclosure of any owner or lessee of land, entitled to the benefit of this law, without his consent, it shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of said inclosure to impound said stock; and it shall be the duty of the owner or lessee of said land to give notice immediately to the owner of said stock of their impounding and detention; and the owner of said stock shall be entitled to the possession of his stock on payment of expenses incurred in impounding and keeping said stock; provided, that in such county or subdivision said owners or lessees shall not be required to fence against the stock not permitted to run at large; and any fence in said county or subdivision which is sufficient to keep out ordinary stock permitted to run at large under this chapter shall be deemed a lawful fence. Three barbed wires with posts not more than thirty feet apart, and one or more stays between them or pickets four feet high and not more than six inches apart, shall constitute a lawful fence. If boards or rails are used, then three boards to be not less than five inches wide and one thick, or four rails shall constitute a lawful fence; provided, that all fencing built under the provision of this chapter shall be four feet high. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the freeholders of any county or subdivision of a county where the stock law prevails from deciding by a majority vote whether or not three barbed wires without a board shall constitute a lawful fence in such county or subdivision thereof; the election for such purpose to be conducted in the same manner and under the same rules as elections provided for in this chapter governing the passage of the stock law. [Id. Acts 1879, p. 66; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1366; Acts 1901, p. 290.]

Art. 6943. [7230] [4999] Stock not to be injured.—If any person whose fence is insufficient under this law shall, with guns, dogs or otherwise, maim, wound or kill any cattle, or any horse, mule, jack or jennet, or procure the same to be done, such person or persons so offending shall give full satisfaction to the party injured for all damages by such person or persons sustained, to be recovered as in other suits for damages; provided, that this article shall not be so construed as to authorize any person in any event to maim, kill or wound any horse, mule, jack, jennet or cattle belonging to another. When a trespass has been committed by any cattle or horses on the cleared or cultivated land of any person who has complied with the provisions of this chapter, in the erection of a lawful fence, such person may complain thereof to the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such trespass shall have been committed; and such justice is hereby authorized and required to cause two disinterested and impartial freeholders to be summoned, who shall on oath view and examine whether such complaint be sufficient or not, and what damages have been sustained by said trespass, and certify the same in writing; and, if it shall so appear that said fence be sufficient, then the owner of such cattle or horses shall make just satisfaction for the trespass to the party injured, to be recovered before any tribunal having proper jurisdiction. In case of a second trespass by the same cattle or horses, the owner or lessee of the premises upon which the trespass is committed may, if he deem it necessary for the protection and preservation of his premises or growing crops thereon, cause said stock to be penned and turned over to the sheriff or constable, and held responsible to the person damaged for all damages caused by said stock and all costs thereof. It shall be lawful for the owner or lessee of such inclosures as are contemplated in this law to charge twenty-five cents per day per head for impounding such stock as referred to in this law. [Id.]

Art. 6944. [7232] No election within two years.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county or subdivision, no election under the preceding articles shall be held within the same prescribed limits in less than two years after an election under this law has been held therein; but at the expiration of that time the commissioners court of each county in the State, whenever petitioned to do so by a majority of the freeholders, who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, or by a majority of the freeholders who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of the subdivision of a county which has formerly adopted the stock law, shall order another election to be held by the freeholders who are qualified voters under the constitution and laws of such county, or subdivision, to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county or subdivision, which election shall be ordered, held, notice thereof given, the votes returned and counted in all respects as provided by this law for a first election. [Acts 1899, p. 81.]

Art. 6945. [7233] Proclamation issued.—If, in a county or subdivision which has formerly adopted the stock law, a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be “Against the stock law,” the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of one hundred and eighty days from its issuance it shall be lawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation; if a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be “For the stock law,” he shall so state in his proclamation, and the operation of the law shall be in no way affected by such election. [Id.]

Art. 6946. Elections validated.—All elections held in any county in this State for the purpose of determining whether or not hogs, sheep, or goats shall be permitted to run at large in such county or subdivision as provided in this chapter, wherein the petition was filed, orders of the election made by the commissioners court, notice thereof given, such election held and a majority of the freeholders voting at such election, voted in favor of the same, and such election may have been invalidated by the failure of some ministerial officer to perform the duties required of him, the same is hereby in all things validated, and shall be by each court of this State held to be valid elections just the same as if the officers charged with the duty of opening, tabulating and counting the votes, had complied with the law, as provided in this chapter. [Acts 2d C. S. 1919, p. 150.]

3. FREE RANGE ELECTIONS.

| | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------|-----------------------------|--------------|
| Limited free range | Article 6947 | Returns | Article 6951 |
| Order by court | 6948 | Declaration of result | 6952 |
| Order by judge | 6949 | Second election | 6953 |
| Ballots | 6950 | | |

Art. 6947. Limited free range.—Upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any county, or upon the petition of twenty freeholders of any subdivision of any county, which county or subdivision has heretofore adopted, or may hereafter adopt, the hog law under the provisions of this chapter the commissioners court of such county shall order an election to be held in said county or subdivision on some day named in the order for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county or subdivision to determine whether hogs shall have a free range in said county or subdivision from the fifteenth day of November to the fifteenth day of February, of each year. Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the hog law, and in such intervening territory there is less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory, and the election shall be held for the purpose named herein. If the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated in the same manner as when originally established. [Acts 1919, p. 149.]

Art. 6948. Order by Court.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court, at a regular or special meeting thereof, shall order an election to be held throughout the county or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6949. Order by judge.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notices thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; if no newspaper be published in the county then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door, and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if such election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. The order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall have the limited period of free range.
3. The time in which said animals are to have the limited period of free range.
4. The territorial limits to be affected.
5. The day of election.
6. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6950. Ballots.—All votes at an election held under the provisions of this Act, shall be by ballot; and voters desiring to permit hogs to have a limited period of free range in hog law counties or districts as designated in the order, shall place upon their ballots the words, "For the limited period of free range for hogs," and those against the limited period of free range for hogs shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the limited period of free range for hogs." [Id.]

Art. 6951. Returns.—The returns shall be opened, tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or two respectable freeholders of the county. [Id.]

Art. 6952. Declaration of result.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the limited period of free range for hogs," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of ten days from its issuance, it shall be lawful to permit hogs to run at large within the limits designated for the period of time between the fifteenth day of November of each year and the fifteenth day of the following February of each year, both days inclusive. [Id.]

Art. 6953. Second election.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this law for any county or subdivision, no other election for such purpose shall be held within such county or subdivision for the space of two years, but the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county, nor shall the defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter, for the entire county. If, in a county or subdivision which has formerly adopted the limited period of free range for hogs, as provided for under the terms of this law, a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be "Against the limited period of free range for hogs," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result; which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and after the expiration of ten days from its issuance, it shall be unlawful to permit hogs to run at large within the limits designated; if a majority of the legal votes cast at such election shall be, "For the limited period of free range for hogs," he shall so state in his proclamation, and the operation of the law shall in no way be affected by such election. [Id.]

[Acts 1925, p. 277.]

Art. 6955. Exceptions.—The provisions of the preceding article shall not apply to Wharton County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivision thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to Jefferson County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivision thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to Hudspeth County as a whole, but shall apply only to such subdivisions thereof as may be designated in the manner herein provided. [Id. p. 277.]

Art. 6956. [7237] Intervening territory.—Whenever there is territory between two subdivisions of a county which have adopted the stock law, and in such intervening territory there are less than fifty freeholders, an election shall be ordered on the petition of a majority of the freeholders residing in such intervening territory; and the election shall be held as provided by law in other cases relating to the adoption of the stock law. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6957. [7238] Requisites of petition.—Such petition shall set forth clearly the class or classes of animals enumerated in the first article of this chapter, which the petitioners desire shall not run at large in such county, or subdivision, as the case may be; and, if the petition be from the freeholders of a subdivision of any county, such subdivision shall be particularly described and the boundaries thereof designated. [Id.]

Art. 6958. [7239] Order of court.—Upon the filing of such petition, the commissioners court at the next regular term thereafter shall pass an order directing an election to be held throughout the county, or the particular subdivision thereof, as the case may be, on a day to be designated in the order, not less than thirty days from the date of such order; which election shall be held and conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general elections, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

Art. 6959. [7240-1] Order by judge.—Immediately after the passage of an order for an election by the commissioners court, the county judge shall issue an order for such election and cause public notices thereof to be given for at least thirty days before the day of election, by publication of the order therefor in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one, if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting copies of such order at the courthouse door and at some public place in each justice's precinct, if the election be ordered for the whole county, or at three public places in the subdivision, if the election be ordered for a subdivision. Said order of the county judge shall specify:

1. The petition and the action of the commissioners court.
2. The class of animals it is proposed shall not run at large.
3. The territorial limits to be affected.
4. The day of election.
5. The places at which polls are to be opened. [Id.]

Art. 6960. [7242 to 7246] Election.—The following rules shall govern any election held under any provision of this chapter:

1. If the election be for a subdivision of the county the county judge, at the time he issues the order for such election shall appoint proper persons as managers of said election, all of whom shall be freeholders of the county and qualified voters; and such managers may appoint their own clerks.

2. Said election shall be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts if the election is ordered for the whole county; but if the election is ordered for any particular subdivision, the county judge shall designate the particular places in such subdivision at which the polls shall be opened.

3. Only persons who are freeholders and qualified voters under the Constitution and laws shall vote at said election.

4. All votes at any election, in pursuance of this chapter, shall be by ballot, and voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the order from running at large shall place upon their ballots the words "For the stock law," and those in favor of allowing animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words, "Against the stock law."

5. On or before the tenth day after any such election, the persons holding such election shall make due returns to the county judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against said proposition submitted at said election. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6961. [7247] Effect of election.—The returns shall be opened tabulated and counted by the county judge in the presence of the county clerk and at least one justice of the peace of the county, or of two respectable freeholders of the county, and an order showing the result shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court in the said county. The order showing the result of said election this determined, certified and recorded, shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law have been complied with in presenting the petition, the action of the court thereon ordering the election, the giving of notice and holding said election, and in counting and returning the votes and declaring the result thereof, and, if said election be then declared to be in favor of the stock law, then after thirty days from said date, it shall be prima facie evidence that the proclamation required by law has been made and published as required by law. [Acts 1907, p. 124.]

Art. 6962. [7248] Proclamation.—If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For the stock law," the county judge shall immediately issue his proclamation declaring the result, which proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door, and, after the expiration of thirty days from its issuance, it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large, within the limits designated, any animal of the class mentioned in said proclamation. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6963. [7236] Election to repeal law.—Upon the written petition of two hundred freeholders of any of the above named counties, or upon the written petition of fifty freeholders of any subdivision of the above named counties, if the law be in force in that subdivision only, the commissioners court shall be authorized and required to order an election on the date therein named to determine whether or not said law be repealed; provided, such petition be signed by at least twenty-four freeholders from each justice precinct in such county. But if this law becomes operative over any of the above named counties, as prescribed, it can in no case be repealed by any subdivision, except by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the freeholders of such counties, at an election held in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 121.]

Art. 6964. [7255] Second election.—Whenever an election is held under the provisions of this chapter for any county or subdivision, and the proposition of a stock law as herein provided is defeated, no other election for such purpose shall be held within that locality for the space of twelve months thereafter; but the defeat of the proposition for a county shall not prevent another election from being held immediately thereafter for any subdivision of such county, nor shall a defeat of the proposition for any subdivision prevent an election from being held immediately thereafter for the entire county. [Acts 1899, p. 220.]

Art. 6965. Duty of officers.—It shall be the duty of any sheriff or constable of any county, or subdivision thereof, within this State, where the provisions of this chapter are or may hereafter become operative, to seize any stock which may become known to him to be running at large on any outside premises where the provisions of the stock law are in force, and impound the same in some place provided for that purpose, and immediately notify the owner thereof, if such owner is known to such officer, who may redeem the same on the payment of an impounding fee of one dollar per head, and an additional fee of twenty-five cents per day per head for each day such stock is so kept. [Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6966. [7249] May impound.—If any stock forbidden to run at large shall enter the inclosed lands, or shall, without being herded, roam about the residence, lots or cultivated lands of any person other than the owner of such stock without his consent, in any county or subdivision in which the provisions of this chapter have become operative in the manner provided in this chapter, the owner, lessee, or person in lawful possession of such lands may impound such stock and detain the same until his fees and all damages occasioned by said stock are paid to him; provided that no animals shall be impounded except as provided in the preceding article, unless they have entered upon the inclosed lands or be found roaming about the residence, lots or cultivated land of another, and, whenever any stock is impounded, notice thereof shall be given to the owner, if known, and such owner shall be entitled to their possession upon payment of fees and damages. [Acts 1899, p. 220; Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6967. [7251] Fees for impounding.—Any owner, lessee or person in lawful possession of inclosed lands shall be entitled to the following fees for impounding stock, to-wit: twenty-five cents per day per head for horses and mules, fifteen cents per day per head for cattle, and ten cents per day per head for jacks and jennets. The damages done by such stock, if any, and the fees due to the taker-up of such stock, if any, may be assessed by any three disinterested freeholders of the subdivision in which said stock is taken up, who shall, upon the application of the taker-up of the stock, be appointed by the justice of the peace of the precinct in which such subdivision is situated. When such justice shall fail or refuse to make appointments, or when the stock law has been adopted by an entire county, said freeholders shall be appointed by the county judge of the county. Said freeholders, after being duly sworn to discharge with impartiality the duties devolving upon them by said appointment, shall proceed after hearing the evidence to determine whether or not any trespass prohibited by the provisions of this chapter has been committed, and to ascertain the damages, if any, occasioned thereby, and the fees due the taker-up of the stock by reason of said trespass, and shall make an assessment of damages and fees in writing and signed by said freeholders, or two of them, and verified by the affidavit of said freeholders to the effect that said assessment is just and that they have no bias in favor of or prejudice against any party interested therein, and shall file said assessment with the justice of the peace, which shall be final; provided, that the owner of the stock, if known, shall have five days notice of the time and place of the meeting of said freeholders, and if the owner is unknown, then a written notice thereof shall be posted in two public places in said subdivision and one at the courthouse door of the county. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to deprive the taker-up of the stock to enforce, by suit, any claim he may have for such fees and damages, and to subject the stock so taken up for the payment of the same under the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1899, p. 220, Sec. 16.]

Art. 6968. [7252] Sale of impounded stock.—After the filing of the assessment, as provided for in the preceding article, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale, as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like service in civil cases. [Acts 1899, p. 220, Sec. 17.]

Art. 6969. Sale if not redeemed.—When any stock shall have been impounded as provided in the third preceding article, and after five days' notice has been given to the owner of such stock, such officer shall sell such stock at public auction for cash, after having given notice of such sale, as in constables' sales of personal property, and apply the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the expenses thereof, to the satisfaction of said fees and damages, and shall pay the balance, if any remains, to the owner of such stock. The justices and constables shall receive for their services the same compensation as is allowed for like service in civil cases. [Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6970. [7253] Unknown owners.—If no owner can be found of stock so impounded, such officer or other person taking up any such stock shall make affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, describing the stock impounded by him, and that the owner is unknown to the affiant; which affidavit shall be forthwith delivered to the county clerk by such justice to be kept in his office for inspection. After the filing of such affidavit, the constable of the precinct shall sell such stock as in case when the owner is known; and if anything remains after satisfying the expenses of said sale and the fees and damages due to the taker-up, he shall report the same under oath to the clerk of the county court and pay the same over to the county treasurer to be received by him and placed to the credit of the road and bridge fund of the county. [Acts 1899, p. 220; Acts 1915, p. 146.]

Art. 6971. [7254] Lawful fence.—After the adoption of the stock law in any county, or subdivision, any fence within such county or subdivision shall be deemed a lawful fence if it be sufficient to keep out the classes of stock not affected by the provisions of this chapter. [Acts 1899, p. 220, Sec. 19.]

Art. 6972. [7256 to 7259] Inspector.—Each organized county, not expressly excepted herein, shall constitute an inspection district for the inspection of hides and animals; and at each general election an officer to be styled, "Inspector of hides and animals" shall be elected by the qualified voters of such county, and in each unorganized county the Governor shall appoint such inspector. The word, "inspector," as used in this title, shall mean the inspector of hides and animals. Such inspectors shall hold their office for the term of two years. Until any vacancy in such office is filled by appointment, the sheriff of the county shall discharge the duties of the office. [Acts

1876, pp. 217-295; Acts 1879, p. 89; G. L. Vol. 8, pp. 1053-1131-1389.]

Art. 6973. [7260] [5006] Bond.—Each person elected to the office of inspector, before entering on the duties of his office, shall enter into a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioners court of the county constituting his district, payable to the county judge, in a sum to be fixed by said court, not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform the duties of his office. A sheriff acting temporarily as inspector, pending a vacancy in such office, shall not be required to give additional bond, but his official bond as sheriff shall extend to and include the faithful and proper performance of his duties as inspector ad interim. [Acts 1876, p. 295; G. L. Vol 8, p. 1131.]

Art. 6974. [7262] [5008] Seal of office.—Each commissioners court shall furnish to the inspector for such county a seal of office, having upon it the words, "Inspector of hides and animals, _____ county, Texas" (the blank to be filled with the name of the county), and each inspector and his deputy shall certify their official acts with the impress of such seal. The inspector upon retiring from office shall deliver such seal, together with the books, papers and records of his office to his successor. [Id.]

Art. 6975. [7263-4] Deputies.—Every inspector shall have power to appoint in writing and under his seal as many deputies as shall be necessary to perform the duties imposed on them by this chapter. The inspectors shall require bond and security of their deputies for the faithful performance of their duties; and the said deputies shall take and subscribe the official oath. The inspectors shall be responsible to any person injured thereby for the official acts of each of their deputies and they shall have the same remedies against their deputies and their sureties as any person can have against the inspectors and their sureties. [Id.]

Art. 6976. [7265] [5011] Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the words "deputy inspector" shall mean the "deputy inspector of hides and animals," and the words "county," "district," or "inspection district," shall include each organized county in this State not herein excepted, together with any unorganized county that may be attached for judicial purposes to any such county. [Id.]

Art. 6977. [7266] [5012] Take acknowledgments.—Every inspector shall have authority to authenticate bills of sale of animals, and give certificates of acknowledgment of the same under his hand and seal, and shall be allowed to collect fifty cents for every acknowledgment so taken. [Id. p. 302.]

Art. 6978. [7267-8] Inspections and record.—The inspector, in person or by deputy, shall faithfully examine and inspect all hides or animals known or reported to him as sold, or as leaving or going out of the county for sale or shipment, and all animals driven or sold in his district for slaughter, packeries or butcheries; and shall keep a record, in a well bound book, in which he shall record a correct statement of the number, ages, marks and brands of all animals inspected by him, and the number, mark and brand of all hides inspected by him, and whether the same are dry or green, and the name or names of the vendor and of the purchaser thereof. He shall return a certified copy of all entries made in such record during each month to the county clerk on the last day of each month, which report shall be filed among the records of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 6979. [7629] [5015] Exemption from inspection.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to include sheep, goats, swine, or hides of either, nor to involve the re-inspection of salted hides in packeries or other slaughter houses taken from animals previously inspected and returned as provided in the preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 6980. [7270] [5016] Shall not certify.—No inspector shall grant any certificate of inspection of any unbranded hides or animals, or of hides or animals upon which the marks and brands cannot be ascertained, and he shall prevent the same from being taken or shipped out of the county unless they are identified by proof or by a duly acknowledged bill of sale signed by the owner of such hides or animals. [Id.]

Art. 6981. [7271-2] Seizure.—Every inspector may seize and sequester all unmarked or unbranded calves or yearlings, and all calves or yearlings freshly marked or branded, and on which the fresh marks or brands are unhealed, which are about to be slaughtered, or driven or shipped out of the county, unless such animals are accompanied by the mother thereof, or are identified by the presentation of a bill of sale from the person proven to be the owner thereof, signed by him or his legally authorized agent, and acknowledged before some officer authorized to authenticate instruments for record in this State. Every inspector may seize and sequester all unbranded animals or hides, and animals and hides upon which the mark or brand cannot be ascertained, which are about to be taken or shipped out of the county, or which animals are to be slaughtered, unless such animals or hides are identified as provided in this article. [Id.]

Art. 6982. [7273] [5019] Procedure as to seizure.—When an inspector has seized any hides or animals as provided for in the preceding article, he shall report the fact to some judge of the district or county court, or justice of the peace, according as the value of the property seized may come within the jurisdiction of either of said courts; and said judge or justice shall issue or cause to be issued a citation addressed, "To all whom it may concern," setting forth a seizure of said property with a description of the same, commanding them to appear at a day named in said citation to show cause why said property should not be forfeited to the county wherein the same was seized, and sold for the benefit of said county. Said citation shall be directed to the sheriff or to any constable of said county, who shall cause certified copies of the same to be posted in three public places in said county for a period of ten days before the day mentioned in said citation. Upon the proof of the posting of said citation, said judge or justice issuing said citation shall proceed to condemn the property mentioned in said citation, unless satisfactory proof shall be made of the ownership of said property, or other sufficient cause be shown why the same should not be condemned. In case of condemnation he shall order the same to be sold by the inspector at public auction to the highest bidder. The inspector shall be entitled to retain one-fourth of the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting therefrom all expenses connected therewith, and he shall immediately pay the remaining three-fourths thereof into the county treasury; and all sums so paid in shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of such county. [Id.]

Art. 6983. [7274] [5020] Bill of sale taken.—Each person who shall buy or drive any animal or animals for sale or shipment out of any county, or who shall buy or drive the same for slaughter, shall, at the time of purchasing and before driving the same, procure a written bill of sale from the owner or owners thereof, or from his or their legally authorized agent. Said bill of sale shall be properly signed and acknowledged. Such bill of sale shall distinctly enumerate the number, kind and age of animals sold, together with all marks and brands discernable thereon; and said animals before leaving the county in which they have been gathered shall be inspected by the inspector of such county or his deputy. [Id.]

Art. 6984. [7275] [5021] In sale of hides.—The purchaser of any hides of cattle at the time of purchasing same shall obtain from the owner thereof, or from his legally authorized agent, a written bill of sale duly acknowledged, which shall recite in full the marks and brands of each hide, the weight thereof, and whether the same is dry or green. [Id.]

Art. 6985. [7276-7] Certificate of inspection.—Whenever an inspector shall have inspected any animal or animals, as herein provided, he shall, on the presentation of a written bill of sale or power of attorney from the owner or owners of such animal or animals, or his or their agent duly authorized in writing, duly signed and acknowledged, and on payment to said inspector of his legal fees, deliver to the purchaser of the animals mentioned in such bill of sale or power of attorney, or his agent, a certificate setting forth that he has carefully examined and inspected such animal or animals, and that said purchaser has in all respects complied with the law, which certificate shall not be complete until the same and the bill of sale herein provided for shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county, and be certified to by said clerk under his hand and seal. Such certificate shall be then delivered to the purchaser and shall protect him from the payment of inspection fees in any other district for the animals therein described, except from the county from which the same may be exported; provided that any person driving cattle in his own mark and brand shall be entitled to the certificate of inspection provided for herein, on payment of fees to the inspector, and on presentation to the inspector of the certificate of the county clerk of the county where such mark and brand is recorded, to the effect that the mark and brand named therein is duly recorded in his office as the mark and brand of the person so driving such cattle. [Id. Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 484.]

Art. 6986. [7278] Road brand.—Any person who shall drive any cattle to market beyond the limits of this State shall, before removing such cattle from the county where same are gathered, place upon each animal so to be driven a large and plain road brand, composed of any device he may choose, which shall be branded on the left side of the back behind the shoulder; and each person using or causing to be used any road brand shall place the same on record as in the case of other brands, in the county from which the animals are to be driven, and before their removal from such county. [Id.]

Art. 6987. [7279] Export to Mexico.—Any person may drive or ship any animals to Mexico from any point on the coast of Texas, or may drive or ship them across the Rio Grande River at any point where a custom house of the United States is located, but not from any other point; and he shall cause all such animals to be inspected by the inspector of the district in which the point of shipment or place at which they are to be driven across said river is situated before shipment from the State or passage across said river of said animals. [Id.]

Art. 6988. [7280-1] Herds in transit.—Whenever a drove of cattle may be passing through any county, the inspector, if called upon to do so by any person, shall stop and inspect said drove without any unnecessary detention of the same; and he shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in the inspection of such cattle as are prescribed above. If any cattle be found in said drove not included in the certificate of the inspector of the county in which the drove may have been gathered, the fees of the inspector shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said cattle; but if no cattle shall be found in said drove except those covered by the inspector's certificate, then the inspector's fee shall be paid by the person at whose instance said drove was inspected. [Id.]

Art. 6989. [7282] Hides from Mexico.—The hides of all cattle imported into this State from Mexico shall be inspected by the inspector of any county or district into which the same may be imported. If the importer of said hides fails or refuses to place such hides in a position where the same may be inspected by said inspector, or if said hides are found by said inspector to be folded or booked in such a manner as that the same may not be inspected without injury to said hides, said inspector shall take possession of such hides and have the same treated in such manner as will enable him to unfold the same without injury thereto. Such inspector shall not be held liable for any damage which may accrue to such hides by reason of the treatment thereof for the purpose of enabling him to inspect the same, and such treatment as may be necessary to enable the inspector to unfold and inspect such hides shall be wholly at the risk of the importer or person in whose possession such hides may be found. In addition to the inspection fees allowed such inspector for the inspection of said hides, there shall be paid by the importer or the person in whose possession said hides may be found after importation, all expenses incurred by said inspector in the treatment of said hides, for the purpose of enabling him to inspect the same as herein provided, such expenses to include drayage and freight charges and all expenses for handling and treatment of said hides. If the importer or the person in whose possession said hides may be found after importation, fails or refuses to pay said expenses for retreatment, or if he fails or refuses to pay the inspection fees as required by law, the inspector may retain possession of said hides and sell a sufficient number thereof, after three days public notice, to the highest and best bidder, to pay said inspection fees and all necessary expenses in connection therewith. [Acts 1876, p. 295; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1131; Acts 1917, p. 325.]

Art. 6990. [7283] Animals imported.—Horses, mules and cattle imported from Mexico into this State shall be inspected in accordance with the provisions of Article 6978, and with like authority to retain and sell as provided in the preceding article for a failure to pay the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 6991. [7284-5] Notify if stolen.—If an inspector finds among hides or animals imported from Mexico any hides or animals which from the brand or from other evidence, he has reason to believe have been stolen from the lawful owner, he shall separate said hides or animals from others undergoing inspection and take possession of the same and notify any person he believes to be interested therein to come forward and institute suit for the recovery of the same. If no person appears to claim said hides or animals, the inspector shall within twenty-four hours, make oath before the district judge, the county judge, or any justice of the peace of the county, according to the value of the property involved, that he has reason to believe that said hides or animals have been stolen; whereupon said judge or justice shall issue a citation directing the importer or party claiming the same to appear before him at his office within a time specified, not to exceed twenty-four hours, to show cause why said property should not be condemned. [Id.]

Art. 6992. [7286] [5024] Importer to recover.—If said importer or claimant makes proof that he is the lawful owner of said hides or animals by showing a bill of sale from the owner of same, or his legally authorized agent, and by showing complete chain of transfer of title from the original owner of the brand to himself, or his firm, such judge or justice shall direct the same to be delivered to said importer or claimant upon his paying the inspection fees. [Id.]

Art. 6993. [7287-8] [5025] Hides or animals sold.—If the importer or claimant of said hides or animals fail to establish his claim as the lawful owner of the same, or to any number of hides or animals so seized, the district judge, county judge or justice shall direct that said property be sold at public auction by the inspector, after a notice of ten days, published in a newspaper, should there be one published in said county, or if no newspaper be published in the county, then by written notice, posted at the courthouse door and two or more other places in said county, and the said hides shall be sold to the highest and best bidder. The inspector shall retain twenty-five per cent of the purchase money, after having deducted and paid all necessary expenses incurred by reason of said sale, and he shall deposit the remainder of said purchase money with the county treasurer, and take his receipt therefor. Said treasurer shall place one-half of said sum of money to the credit of the school fund and the other half to the credit of the jury fund of said county. [Id.]

Art. 6994. [7289] [5027] Property delivered to owner.—If any person appears and claims any hides or animals imported from Mexico at any time before the same shall have been sold as above directed, and should said claim be established before such judge or justice of the peace of said county, such property shall be delivered to the claimant, and all costs accruing therein shall be paid by the importer; provided that at any time before proceedings shall have been commenced as above directed the importer may be permitted to pay the lawful owner, his agent or attorney, for any hides or animals imported by him from Mexico and presented in any county of this State for inspection, and upon such payment and the fees for inspection such hides or animals shall be released. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 325.]

Art. 6995. [7291] [5029] Brand recorded once.—In all cases where application for registration of any mark or brand shall be made, the county clerk shall receive and record the same, unless an examination of the recorded list of marks and brands shows that a similar mark and brand is already upon record in such county, in which event he shall refuse to register or give any certificate for the same; provided, that if such applicant shall have previously had such mark and brand recorded in some other county, and shall have a certificate from the clerk thereof, stating that such brand and mark had been recorded in said county at some time anterior to the time of the registration of the similar mark and brand in the county in which the applicant may desire to have his brand recorded, then said brand and mark shall be recorded; and the clerk shall make a minute on the record setting forth said facts. [Id.]

Art. 6996. [7292] [5030] In county of range.—All marks and brands of cattle shall be recorded in the county or counties in which they usually range. When cattle are gathered near the county line, the bills of sale of the same shall be recorded in both counties. When any stock or cattle is sold, the fact shall be noted on the record opposite or near the record of its mark or brand, giving the name of the vendor and vendee and date of sale, and this shall be done as often as there is a sale. The inspector shall procure certified copies of the marks and brands of this county for himself and his deputies, and monthly have added thereto the marks and brands that may be recorded. [Id.]

Art. 6997. [7293] [5031] Only one to be used.—No person owning and claiming stock shall, in originally marking and branding animals, make use of more than one mark and brand. Any person may own and possess animals in many marks and brands, the same having been acquired by him by purchase; and written bills of sale, properly acknowledged from the previous owner or owners shall be sufficient evidence of such purchase, but the increase of such animals, or of any animal counterbranded by such person from other stocks of cattle owned by him, shall be branded or counterbranded by one and the same brand; and when marked by such person shall be marked in one and the same mark. [Id.]

Art. 6998. [7294] [5032] Counterbranding.—In all cases where the counterbranding of any cattle shall be deemed necessary or expedient, the person so counterbranding shall counterbrand the existing brand of the animal by which the owner thereof is then known, or by which it is then claimed and owned, by branding below the said brand its facsimile, that is, similar letters, characters or numbers, as the case may be; and he shall also place on said animals the brand of the then owner thereof; but no person shall change or alter the ear marks of any animal, but in counterbranding shall leave the ears bearing the same mark or marks as before counterbranding. [Id.]

Art. 6999. [7295] [5033] Authority to gather, etc.—Any person having marks and brands recorded in the office of the county clerk may file with the inspector a list of his recorded marks and brands, certified by the clerk under his seal, to which certified lists shall be attached the names of any person or persons whom the owner of said stock may wish to authorize to gather, drive or otherwise handle his stock. The filing of said list with the inspector shall be deemed sufficient authority to the person or persons named in such list to gather, drive or otherwise handle any animals of the marks and brands therein described. [Id.]

Art. 7000. [7296-7] Inspections personal.—In making inspections, the inspector shall not trust to the statement or representations of any persons, but he shall in person carefully inspect and examine each animal or hide separately so as to identify the marks and brands, and in case of animals, the ages and sexes. He shall also carefully examine the bills of sale and lists of brands and marks for the cattle inspected by him; and, if satisfied that the person claiming the cattle inspected has correct bills of sale or chain of transfer in writing from the record owner, or is the owner himself in whole or part of the mark and brand of each animal in his drove or herd which should be inspected, and that he has none other in said herd or under his control to be carried with it, he will then, and not until then, make out a certificate, which he shall first enter in his record, under his hand and seal containing the number of cattle in each mark and brand, with their respective ages and sexes, thus inspected, and that they appear to be the property of the person for whom they were inspected, naming him, as appears by bills of sale from recorded owner of the marks and brands on the cattle inspected by him, or the owner of the brand and mark himself, and that he has none other in his herd or under his control that should be inspected; and that he intends to drive or ship them, naming the place in the State for sale or slaughter; or if out of the State, he shall then name the place on the border of the State through which it is proposed to drive or ship such stock. [Id.]

Art. 7001. [7298] [5036] Inspection before export.— Whenever any person shall be about to drive or ship any stock out of the State, if the inspector shall believe or is informed by any credible person that said person has other stock in his herd than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly attested by proper bill of sale, the inspector at said point of shipment or border county where said person leaves the State, shall be authorized to inspect said stock in the same manner as in the original inspection; and, if any stock is found in said herd other than those covered by his original certificate of inspection, or by subsequent purchase duly and properly authenticated by bill of sale, the fees of said inspection shall be paid as provided in Article 6988, provided that said inspector shall in no case be authorized to receive or demand more than three cents per head for each head of cattle inspected; but if not, then said fees shall be paid by the person at whose instance said inspection was made; and if said inspection is made by the inspector at his own instance, and no stock is found in said herd, except those properly accounted for under the provisions of this article, then said inspector shall receive no fees for said inspection. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 19; G. L. Vol. 9, p. 51.]

Art. 7002. [7300] [5038] Seizure of other cattle.—If the inspector at the point of destination shall find upon inspection that the owner of the herd or person in charge has in his herd other cattle besides those inspected originally in the county from which said herd was driven, he shall seize said cattle and take them into possession, and thereupon the same proceedings shall he had as are prescribed in Article 6981. If the person in charge of any such cattle refuses to deliver the same into the possession of the inspector, such inspector may obtain a writ of sequestration from any justice of the peace, county judge or district judge, according as the value of such cattle may come within the jurisdiction of either. Such writ may be obtained upon the affidavit of the inspector, stating that he believes such cattle have been unlawfully acquired, shall issue without bond, and be forthwith executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county; and thereupon said proceedings shall be had before the officer issuing the writ, either in term time or in vacation. [Acts 1876, p. 302; G. L. Vol. 8, p. 1138.]

Art. 7003. [7302-3] Proceeds into treasury.—The net proceeds of the sale of cattle condemned under the preceding article, save one-fourth of such proceeds retained by the inspector for his compensation, shall be paid into the county treasury, subject to the claim of the true owner of such cattle. If no claim be set up and established thereto within one year from the date of its deposit, such proceeds shall pass into the general fund of the county, and all claims thereto shall thereafter be barred. At the time such proceeds are originally deposited in the county treasury the inspector shall accompany such deposit with a certified statement, under his hand and seal, of the number of cattle sold, the mark and brand of each animal, with the amount for which sold. [Id.]

Art. 7004. [7304] [5042] Change of destination.—If the owner of the inspected herd desires to sell, slaughter or ship the cattle, or any of them, at any place other than the destination named in the original certificate of inspection, he may do so by first having his herd inspected at the point of destination therein named and a new certificate of inspection issued to him at that point, naming the new point of destination or shipment; and upon his arrival at such new point of destination, like proceedings shall be had in the way of inspection, comparison and return of the certificate of inspection, as are prescribed for the original point of destination. [Id.]

Art. 7005. [7305] [5043] Counties exempt.—The counties of Anderson, Angelina, Aransas, Archer, Armstrong, Atascosa, Austin, Bandera, Bastrop, Baylor, Bee, Bell, Bexar, Borden, Bowie, Bosque, Brazoria, Brazos, Brewster, Briscoe, Brown, Burleson, Burnet, Caldwell, Callahan, Calhoun, Cameron, Camp, Carson, Cass, Chambers, Cherokee, Childress, Clay, Cochran, Coke, Collin, Collingsworth, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Cottle, Crockett, Crosby, Dallam, Delta, Denton, DeWitt, Dickens, Donley, Duval, Eastland, Ellis, El Paso, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Fayette, Floyd, Foard, Fort Bend, Franklin, Freestone, Frio, Galveston, Gillespie, Goliad, Gonzales, Gray, Grayson, Gregg, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hall, Hamilton, Hardeman, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hartley, Hays, Hemphill, Henderson, Hidalgo, Hill, Hockley, Hood, Hopkins, Houston, Howard, Hunt, Irion, Jackson, Jack, Jasper, Jeff Davis, Jefferson, Johnson, Karnes, Kaufman, Kendall, Knox, Kinney, Lamar, Lamb, Lampasas, Lavaca, Leon, Liberty, Limestone, Lipscomb, Live Oak, Llano, Loving, Lubbock, Lynn, Madison, Marion, Mason, Maverick, Medina, McLennan, Midland, Milam, Mills, Mitchell, Montague, Montgomery, Morris, Motley, Nacogdoches, Navarro, Newton, Oldham, Orange, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Pecos, Polk, Presidio, Rains, Reagan, Red River, Refugio, Robertson, Rockwall, Rusk, Reeves, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, San Patricio, Schleicher, Shelby, Smith, Shackelford, Somervell, Starr, Scurry, Stephens, Sterling, Tarrant, Terrell, Terry, Throckmorton, Titus, Tom Green, Trinity, Tyler, Uvalde, Upshur, Upton, Val Verde, Van Zandt, Victoria, Walker, Ward, Washington, Wharton, Wheeler, Williamson, Wilson, Wise, Winkler, and Young are hereby exempted from the provisions of this chapter, and from all laws regulating the inspection of hides and animals. [Acts 1921, pp. 43-83.]

Art. 7006. [7306] Local option election.—Whenever twenty-five of the qualified voters of each justice precinct in any county, or a majority thereof, shall petition the commissioners court for an election to determine whether such county shall have a hide and animal inspector, said court shall, either at a general or special term, order such election to be held after thirty days notice having been given by posting such notice in each of such justice precincts and by publishing same in some newspaper published in said county, if there be one so published. The clerk of said court shall prepare said notices and the sheriff shall post same and make and file with said clerk return of such posting showing time and place thereof. [Acts 1909, p. 127.]

Art. 7007. [7307 to 7311] Result.—At the time of ordering said election said court shall appoint two judges, designating one of such as presiding judge, and two clerks, who shall hold said election in the same manner as general elections are held. All qualified voters shall be entitled to vote. The ballots shall have written or printed on same "For inspector," or "Against inspector." The presiding judge shall deliver or cause to be delivered one copy of the result of said election to the county clerk within five days after said election, and retain one copy himself. Within five days after such delivery of such returns to said clerk, the commissioners court shall count the votes and declare the results and enter the same on the election record. The county shall pay the expenses of holding such election. No election shall be held oftener than every two years under this law. If at such election a majority of the votes cast be "For inspector," then the persons holding such offices shall retain same to the next general election until his successor is elected and qualifies. In counties having no inspector, the commissioners court shall appoint one to serve until the next general election. [Id.]

Art. 7008. Fees of inspector.—Each inspector or deputy inspector provided for in this chapter, shall be entitled to receive ten cents for each hide or animal inspected, but if more than fifty hides or animals are inspected in the same lot, then ten cents each for the first fifty, and three cents each for all above that number. [Acts 1909, p. 127.]

Art. 7009. [7312-13] Commission.—The Governor with the consent of the Senate shall biennially appoint for a term of two years a Live Stock Sanitary Commission of the State of Texas, composed of three members. Each commissioner shall give a bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of ten thousand dollars to be approved by the Comptroller. Each Commissioner shall be a bona fide resident of and a practical live stock raiser in the community from which he may be appointed, and shall have been actively engaged in said business for at least five years next preceding the date of his appointment. One of said Commissioners shall be appointed from the West, one from the South, and one from the Eastern portion of Texas. The word "Commission" as used in this chapter shall mean the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of the State of Texas. [Acts 1893, p. 70.]

Art. 7010. Repealing clause.—The following Acts be, and same are hereby, repealed, viz: Chapter LX of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XII of the General Laws of the First Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter IV of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XLIV of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XXVII of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter XXXVIII of the General Laws of the Third Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter X of the General Laws of the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature.

Art. 7011. Tick defined.—The word "tick," as used in this Act, is defined to mean the fever-carrying tick (Magararopic Anulatus) and no other species of ticks; and the word "cattle," as used in this Act is defined to include horses, mules and asses.

Art. 7012. Prevention.—It is hereby made the duty of the commission provided for in Article 7312, Revised Civil Statutes, to protect the domestic animals of the State from all malignant, contagious or infectious diseases, whether said diseases exist in Texas or elsewhere; and, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, said commission, for said purposes, is hereby authorized and empowered to establish, maintain and enforce such protective measures and quarantine lines and sanitary rules and regulations as may be necessary whenever it shall determine upon proper inspection that such diseases exist. It shall also be the duty of said commission to co-operate with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and officers of other states, and with the United States Secretary of Agriculture in establishing such interstate quarantine lines, rules and regulations, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, as shall best protect the livestock industry of this State against the fever-carrying tick (Magararopic Annulatus) and other malignant, contagious, infectious or other communicable diseases of livestock. It shall be the duty of said commission to quarantine any district, county, or part of county or premises within this State when it shall determine, upon proper inspection, the fact that cattle, sheep, or other livestock in such district, county or part of county or premises are infected with any malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable disease, or with the agency of transmission of such disease, and to give written or printed notice of such quarantine to the proper officers of railroad and express companies doing business in or through such quarantine district, county, or part of county within this State, and to publish notices of the establishment of such quarantine in such newspapers in the quarantined district, county, or part of county as the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may select, or to give notice in such other ways as it deems necessary and adequate for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a quarantine service, and no railroad or express company shall receive for transportation, or transport from any quarantined district, county, or part of county within this State into any other district, county, or part of county within this State any cattle, sheep or other livestock except as hereinafter provided for; nor shall any person, company or corporation deliver for transportation to any railroad or express company any cattle, sheep or other livestock from a quarantined area except as hereafter provided; nor shall any person, company or corporation drive on foot, or cause to be driven on foot, or transport in private conveyance, or cause to be transported in private conveyance, or drive, or permit to be driven or permit to go, whether driven or not, from a quarantined district, county, or part of county or premises in this State any cattle, sheep or other livestock except as hereinafter provided. It is hereby made the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas to make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the inspection, disinfection, certification, treatment, and handling and method and manner of delivery and shipment of cattle and other livestock from and into a quarantined district, county, or part of county or premises and into any other district, county, or part of county or premises in this State, and said Commission shall make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the movement and shipment of cattle and other livestock from or into a quarantined district, county or part of county or premises into any district, county, part of county or premises in this State, and said rules and regulations shall permit cattle to be shipped from all quarantine areas to State markets, without other condition, for immediate slaughter on being cleaned of ticks under official inspection, and shall permit cattle to be shipped from quarantined areas into non-tick infested areas otherwise than for immediate slaughter upon such cattle being dipped until they are cleaned of ticks and inspected by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and it is hereby made the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to promptly furnish official inspection of all cattle tendered for shipment from quarantined areas upon application to it for such inspection by the owner or caretaker of such cattle. It is hereby made the duty of Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas to give notice of all of its rules and regulations by proclamation issued by the Governor of Texas and to furnish to any owner of live stock who applies therefor a printed copy of all such rules and regulations. The said Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas is hereby empowered to employ a State veterinarian and assistant State veterinarian in times of emergency, and inspectors or other persons as it may deem necessary for the performance of the duties imposed upon said commission and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission; the State veterinarian, assistant State veterinarians and inspectors acting under authority or direction of the commission are hereby empowered and it is made their duty at their discretion to enter upon the premises of any person or persons, company or corporation within this State for the purpose of inspecting, quarantining or disinfecting premises or livestock thereon.

Art. 7013. Sale of biological products.—It is hereby provided that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall have the power to control the sale and distribution of all veterinary biological products within this State, and it is hereby made its duty, subject to the limitations herein prescribed, to destroy and eradicate the fever-carrying tick; also to eradicate and eliminate the scabies, sheep scab, hog cholera, glanders, and all other malignant, contagious, infectious and other communicable disease of livestock. For this purpose it is empowered and directed to establish special quarantine districts where such disease or infections of such diseases are known to exist, and notice of the establishment of such special quarantine districts shall be given as provided in Article 7314, Revised Civil Statutes, and in Section 3 of this Act. Said commission shall have the power to quarantine premises or pastures located in said special quarantine districts and the domestic livestock thereon situated in such quarantined districts or elsewhere when such pasture or quarantined premises or livestock located thereon are infected with or have been exposed to malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable disease or infection thereof; and no livestock shall be moved to or from such special quarantined district or from any pastures or premises located in such special quarantined district in a manner, method or condition other than those prescribed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and by this Act. It shall be the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to prescribe methods for dipping livestock or otherwise treating or disinfecting said premises and the livestock thereon, as in their opinion are necessary and adequate for the eradication of the disease or the infection of the disease for which they are quarantined.

Art. 7014. Duties of commissioners' court.—It shall be the duty of the county commissioners' court to co-operate with and assist the Live Stock Sanitary Commission in protecting the livestock for their respective counties from all malignant, contagious and infectious or communicable diseases, whether such diseases exist within or outside of the county, and otherwise to protect the livestock interests of their counties. It shall be the duty of the commissioners' court in these counties which adopt compulsory tick eradication work under the local option provisions of this Act to co-operate with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and the officers working under the authority or direction of said commission in the suppression and eradication of ticks and all malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable diseases of livestock; provided when it becomes necessary to disinfect any premises, county or subdivision of the county infected with anthrax, hog cholera, glanders, foot and mouth disease, bovine tuberculosis, or contagious abortion, under orders of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, the county judge of the county where said premises are located shall have such disinfection done at the expense of the county and according to the rules and regulations of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and said commissioners' courts are hereby authorized and empowered and directed to appropriate moneys out of the general fund of their counties, to incur indebtedness by the issuance of warrants, and to levy a tax to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the payment thereof, for the purpose of purchasing, constructing or leasing necessary public dipping vats within their counties. Said warrants shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum and shall run not exceeding twenty years from the date hereof.

Art. 7015. Quarantine.—It shall be the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, whenever they have reason to believe or shall receive notice that any malignant, contagious, infectious or communicable diseases exist among any domestic animals in the State, to immediately investigate, and if such disease is found to exist, or if they have reason to believe such disease exists, to immediately quarantine such animals and premises and land upon which they are located. If glanders or anthrax is found, the State veterinarian or assistant State veterinarian shall make a thorough investigation and shall notify the county judge of the county wherein such animals are located of the number and description of the animals so infected.

Art. 7016. Appraisers to be appointed.—It shall be the duty of the county judge of any county in the State, whenever any horse, mule or ass within their counties is found infected with glanders and have been quarantined by order of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, to appoint three disinterested parties who shall act as appraisers and fix the value of such animals at their actual value at the time of such appraisement, and make a sworn written report of said appraisement to the county judge, whereupon the commissioners' court shall pass upon such written report, and pay to the owner of the animals their appraised value. The county judge, on receipt of a report of the appraisers, as provided for in this article, shall issue an order to the sheriff, deputy sheriff, or any constable of the county, commanding him to seize said diseased animal or animals, and take same to some secluded place and kill them and burn their carcass or carcasses, and said appraisers and officers shall be paid for their services as provided for in Article 7320, Revised Civil Statutes.

Art. 7017. To be burned or buried.—It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation of this State to burn to ashes or bury at a depth of not less than two and one-half feet and to cover with quick lime the carcass or carcasses of any domestic animal or animals dying from any infectious, contagious or communicable disease of any malignant character that may be found upon their premises within twenty-four hours after the death of such animal or animals.

Art. 7018. Election to be ordered.—It shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts of every county in Texas where systematic tick eradication work is not being conducted at the State expense, whenever they deem it expedient, or when petitioned to do so by seventy-five resident land owners and qualified voters in the county, to order an election for the purpose of determining whether the county shall take up and prosecute the work of tick eradication in said county. Said election shall be ordered and held not less than sixty days after the filing of the petition. At said election the ballots shall have printed upon them "For tick eradication in _____ County," and "Against tick eradication in _____ County." The officers of said election shall hold said election and make return thereof as provided by law in cases of other elections, as nearly as may be. Said returns shall be made to the county judge of the county. The commissioners' court shall meet and canvass said returns as soon as practicable after such election, and if they find that a majority of all the votes cast were in favor of tick eradication, under the direction of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, they shall so certify to said commission and cause publication of the result of said election to be made in a newspaper published in said county, which publication shall be certified to by the county judge of said county, and said certificate shall be filed with the county clerk of said county, which said certificate shall be admissible in evidence in any court of this State. The county judge of the county shall immediately so notify the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and upon receipt of such notice from the county judge of the county so holding the election, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall cause to be issued a supplemental proclamation signed by the Governor of Texas, and the citizens of said county in co-operation with and under the directions of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall begin work of tick eradication within thirty days of the issuance of said supplemental proclamation. Should the commissioners' court find that a majority of the votes cast were against tick eradication, then the county judge shall so notify the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7019. County Inspectors.—The commissioners' court of every county within this State where tick eradication is carried on under the provisions of this Act may nominate for appointments by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission the number of county inspectors found by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to be necessary to carry on the work of active tick eradication in such county, and when so nominated said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall appoint them. In the event of the failure or refusal of the commissioners' court to nominate said county inspectors the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to appoint the number of county inspectors deemed by them to be necessary. Said county inspectors shall be residents of said county, shall work under the direction and orders of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and shall be subject to discharge by said Commission, and shall be paid their salaries out of the State Treasury of Texas, their compensation to be fixed by said Commission.

In the event the commissioners' court should nominate any persons who are thereafter appointed such county inspectors and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission find or conclude that the commissioners' court of said county are trying to retard tick eradication or that they are nominating men who are incompetent or negligent in the performance of their duty, then in that event said Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to ignore in the future nominations or recommendations by said commissioners' court of county inspectors. In any event, county inspectors must be residents of the county in which they are appointed to work.

Art. 7020. Inspector and clerk.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby empowered to appoint a chief inspector, chief clerk, and such supervising inspectors as they deem necessary to carry on active, systematic tick eradication, and they are authorized and empowered to employ such clerical help as may be deemed necessary to maintain their office, and to appoint a chief veterinarian and such assistant veterinarians as they may deem necessary.

Art. 7021. Scabies.—Whenever, any district, county or part of county shall be quarantined by order of the Live Stock Sanitary commission on account of scabies or scab in sheep, every individual premises and the lands of every individual, firm or corporation within such quarantined area shall be quarantined separately, and no cattle or other livestock shall be shipped, driven, drifted, or permitted to be shipped, driven or drifted from any premises where located when such quarantine is declared, without a written permit from an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas.

Art. 7022. Order to dip.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, is hereby authorized and empowered to direct in writing any person or persons, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for any cattle which are subject to be dipped under the provisions of this Act in the prosecution of the systematic tick eradication work, to dip said cattle under the supervision of an authorized inspector of such Commission in an arsenical solution of a strength not less than seven and one-half pounds, and not more than eight and one-half pounds, of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the said solution for the purpose of destroying, eradicating and removing said fever-carrying tick or exposure, subject to the provisions of this Act. Said dippings shall be administered at regular intervals, but the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall not require the dipping of cattle at more frequent intervals than every fourteen days.

Art. 7023. Instructions.—The written direction issued by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, requiring the dipping of cattle, as provided for in this Act, shall be dated, showing the date of its issuance, the name of the person, company or corporations to whom the said directions are given, the approximate location of the premises on which the said livestock are located; the name of the county in which said premises are located, and it shall state in clear and intelligible language that the said cattle, which the said person is therein directed to dip, have the fever-carrying tick upon them, or that they are exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or are on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist, or that they have sometime during the nine months next preceding the date of the issuance of said written direction hereinbefore provided been exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or been on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist; and it shall direct the said person, company or corporation to dip the said livestock under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, in an arsenical solution of a strength of not less than seven and one-half pounds, nor more than eight and one-half pounds of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the dipping solution in which the said livestock are to be dipped, and it shall designate the place, date and time that said dipping is to be done, and it shall be signed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its chairman.

Art. 7024. Dipping directions to be delivered.—The said dipping direction, provided for in this Act, shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation owning controlling or caring for said cattle required to be dipped at least fourteen full days before the date and time said dipping is to be administered. The person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for said cattle required to be dipped under the provisions of this Act may file with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, a written affidavit at any time within five days after receiving said written direction and not later, denying that said cattle are subject to being dipped under the provisions of law, or that for good and sufficient reason set out in said affidavit the said person, company or corporation is entitled to have said dipping direction rescinded, or to have said dipping postponed, and requesting that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, withhold the enforcement or said dipping direction and grant him or them a hearing on said matter, or make necessary investigation to determine the correctness of the statement contained in said affidavit. Upon the receipt of said affidavit, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, shall within five days after receipt of such affidavit grant said affiant a hearing in the office of the chairman of said commission if the affiant so desires it, and give such affiant notice of such hearing, by telegram or registered mail, and which hearing shall be set not less than four days after the service of such notice and the commission shall consider such ex parte affidavits as such owner or caretaker may file with the commission in said hearing, and the commission and its chairman shall make such investigation in person or through its authorized representatives, in reference to such statement as the commission, or chairman thereof, deem necessary, and if such statements are found to be correct, the dipping direction shall be rescinded by the commission or its chairman; otherwise, the dipping direction shall be enforced on the day and at the time specified in said written direction. The commission, or its chairman, after having granted such hearing, or made investigation, shall notify the person, company or corporation in writing of its findings, which notice shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation at least four full days before the day and time he or they are required to dip said cattle by virtue of such written direction. Any person, company or corporation who has been directed to dip the cattle as hereinbefore provided for who shall be dissatisfied with the findings of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, he or they may apply to a court of proper venue and jurisdiction for injunctive or other relief, which application for injunction upon proper allegations and verification shall be granted and the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall not enforce the dipping order until the final disposition of such suit.

Art. 7025. Presence of fever tick to be ascertained, how.—The ascertaining of the presence of the fever-carrying tick on any premise, place or livestock, or the ascertaining of exposure of premises, places or livestock to the said fever-carrying tick, shall be done by authorized representative or inspectors of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or by the commissioners.

Art. 7026. Commission may adopt rules.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to make, adopt and promulgate rules and regulations in conformity with this Act for the carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Act.

Art. 7027. Quarantine.—Whenever the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall have determined the fact that cattle, or other livestock, are infected with or exposed to splenetic tick fever, bovine tuberculosis, anthrax, glanders, contagious abortion, hemorrhagic septicaemia, scabies, hog cholera, malta fever, or other similar or dissimilar contagious, infectious or communicable disease, or to the agency of transmission thereof, recognized by the veterinary science as being contagious, infectious or communicable, the said commission shall designate the district, county, or part of county or premises necessary to be quarantined, and notice of such quarantine shall be issued by the said commission, or chairman thereof, as provided herein. Publication of such quarantine orders may be made in any newspaper within such area, or if no newspaper is published in such area, then the nearest newspaper thereto. In lieu of such publication the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may give notice of such quarantine by posting a copy of such quarantine notice at the county courthouse door of the county in which said quarantine is to be effective. A written notice of such quarantine delivered to the owner or caretaker of livestock to be quarantined shall be sufficient notice of such quarantine, in lieu of notices above provided. The owner and caretaker of milch cows or dairy cows shall not be required to dip such cattle unless upon examination by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission such cattle or a part of them are found to have the fever-carrying tick upon them, or are exposed to said fever-carrying tick, and if the said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall so find, then said quarantine shall be effective as to the premises of such owner and said person shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act, provided the term milch or dairy cows shall include only such cattle as are actually used for domestic or dairy purposes and does not include stocker or breeding cattle for other purposes.

Art. 7028. Shipment by carriers.—Any railway company, or receiver or receivers of any railway company or other common carrier, who shall receive for shipment or who shall haul or transport into any county in this State any cattle, horses, mules or asses, in violation of any quarantine established by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, or who shall receive for shipment, or who shall transport from any county in this State that is under quarantine to any other county in this State any cattle that have not been certified to by a regular inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this Act, and in any suit brought in a court of competent jurisdiction by the district or county attorney, either in the county where such shipment was received by said railroad company, receiver, or other common carrier, or in the county to which or through which said shipment may be moved, such county attorney or district attorney is hereby authorized to recover, for the benefit of the State, penalties against said railway company of not more than fifty dollars per head for such cattle so received, hauled or transported.

Art. 7029. Shipping from quarantine district.—The owner, caretaker or person in charge of any cattle located in any quarantine county, district, area, premises or land, may move said cattle to shipping pens, and may ship same to market for the purpose of immediate slaughter upon one dipping, provided that in the driving or otherwise moving said cattle to the shipping pens, they shall not be moved or transported over or into any land or premises belonging to another that has been declared clean of the fever tick by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or over or into any land or premises upon which systematic tick eradication is being carried on by Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry.

Art. 7030. Moving from quarantine district.—Any owner or person in charge of any cattle located in quarantined counties in this State may move or ship said cattle to any other quarantined county in this State upon one dipping under official inspection of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry and so certified as having been inspected by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission or said Bureau of Animal Industry, provided the county to which said cattle are shipped is not engaged in systematic tick eradication, and provided further that in moving said cattle to the shipping pens in the county from which they are shipped and in moving cattle from the shipping pens in the county to which they are shipped they do not go into, through or over any clean land or premises, and provided further that said cattle shall not be unloaded en route in clean pens and shall not be unloaded at the point of destination in any clean pens. Said cattle shall be shipped within forty-eight hours from the time they are dipped. Said cattle shall be dipped in a solution of not less than $8\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and not more than $9\frac{1}{8}$ pounds of arsenic to each 500 gallons of water. Cattle may be driven from one quarantined county to another quarantined county, and when so driven pass through quarantined territory in which no systematic tick eradication is being carried on, and do not pass through or along side of any clean territory, said cattle may be driven without dipping.

Art. 7031. Boundary of districts.—Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall make out and certify to the Governor of Texas, a list of all counties and portions of counties in Texas which have tick infested territory, land or premises that lie west of the following line, beginning at the mouth of the Brazos River thence with said river to the northwest corner of Robertson County, and a list of all counties lying north or west of the hereinafter described line; commencing at the northwest corner of Robertson County on said Brazos River; thence in an easterly direction with the north lines of Robertson and Leon Counties to the northeast corner of Leon County in the west line of Anderson; thence in a southerly direction, following west line of Anderson County to the southwest corner of said county and the northwest corner of Houston County; thence in an easterly direction with the dividing line between said counties of Anderson and Houston, to the southeast corner of Anderson County; thence in a northerly direction, following the east line of Anderson County, to the northwest corner of Cherokee County, same being the southwest corner of Smith County; thence in an easterly direction, following the north line of Cherokee County to the northeast corner of same, being the southeast corner of said Smith County in the west line of Rusk County; thence with the west line of Rusk County, in a northerly direction, to the northwest corner of same, said point being the southwest corner of Gregg County; thence in an easterly direction following the north line of Rusk County to where the same intersects the south line of Harrison County; thence with the south line of Harrison County and the north line of Panola County; thence with the south line of Harrison County to the southeast corner of said Harrison County on the Louisiana State line.

Art. 7032. May designate counties.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall designate from time to time, the counties and portion of counties in said area west of said Brazos River and north and west of a line running from the northwest corner of said Robertson County to the southeast corner of Harrison County as set out above in which systematic tick eradication work will be commenced, and the Governor shall thereupon issue his proclamation requiring systematic tick eradication work to begin and be prosecuted in said counties and portions of counties so designated by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and thereafter, from time to time, said Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall make out a list of additional counties or portions of counties in which they will carry on systematic tick eradication, if any, and thereupon the Governor shall issue his proclamation requiring systematic tick eradication work to begin in said counties or portions of counties so designated by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. The expense of said work to be borne as follows:

Art. 7033. Salaries and expenses.—The salaries of all supervising inspectors and such county inspectors as the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may deem necessary, shall be borne by the State of Texas, and the expense of purchasing the necessary dip shall also be borne by the State of Texas. The expense of buying or leasing and maintaining the necessary dipping vats shall be borne by the respective counties in said territory, and said counties shall also bear the expense of constructing and maintaining such necessary pens and other facilities incident to the proper dipping of livestock; and said work of tick eradication in said counties and portions of counties shall be prosecuted until the fever ticks therein are destroyed and said territory is released from quarantine by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7034. Certify to Governor.—Immediately after this Act becomes effective the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas shall make out, and certify to the Governor of Texas, a list of all counties and portions of counties in Texas which have tick infested territory, land or premises, whereupon the Governor shall issue his proclamation declaring a quarantine in all of said counties or portions of counties so designated by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and no cattle shall be moved from any quarantined area, land or premises within said quarantined counties or parts of counties except as is provided for in this Act, or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Art. 7035. State to bear expenses of dipping.—In all counties in this State, east of the Brazos River and south of said line running from the northwest corner of Robertson County to the southeast corner of Harrison County, who shall, at an election held for that purpose under the provisions of this Act, declare in favor of tick eradication, the expense of supervising inspectors and county inspectors, as well as the purchase of all necessary dip to carry on the work of tick eradication, shall be borne by the State of Texas, and the buying or leasing and maintaining the necessary dipping vats, shall be borne by the respective counties, the said counties shall also bear the expense of constructing and maintaining such necessary pens and other facilities incident to the proper dipping of livestock.

Art. 7036. Expense by owner.—In all counties and parts of counties in this State in which tick eradication work is being prosecuted under the provisions of this Act, or by virtue of any local option election, it shall be the duty of the owner, owners, or caretakers of such cattle or other livestock within such territory, to gather same, at his or their own expense, and drive, or cause them to be driven, to the dipping vat, and to dip same for the purpose of eradicating said fever ticks.

Art. 7037. Definition of premises.—Premises, as referred to in this Act, is hereby defined as being any lot, block, tract, subdivision, subdivisions, surveys, grants, part or parts thereof, of any kind situated within this State.

Art. 7038. Carrying arms.—No inspector provided for in this Act shall be permitted to carry on or about his person, saddle or in his saddle bags, or automobiles any pistol, dirk, dagger, slung shot, sword, cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, bowie knife, or any other knife manufactured or sold for the purposes of offense or defense.

Art. 7039. Carrying arms.—In case any inspector secures appointment as deputy sheriff or deputy constable, or any other office that will permit him to carry arms, he shall be at once discharged by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and in case they refuse to discharge such inspector, the county judge of the county where such inspector is employed shall discharge him.

Art. 7040. Clean land, etc., defined.—By the term clean land, clean premises, clean area, clean pens and non-tick infested area, is meant those areas, premises, pens or land that have been declared free of the fever-carrying tick by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. [Acts 1925, p. 310.]

Art. 7041. [7349] Board constituted. — The Governor, Comptroller and State Treasurer are constituted a board to calculate the ad valorem tax to be levied and collected each year for State and public free school purposes. [Acts 1907, p. 464.]

Art. 7042. [7350] Certificate to Comptroller.—Each tax assessor shall make a statement to the Comptroller on or before July 15th of each year showing as nearly as can be ascertained from his inventories or assessments the total amount of property in each county subject to taxation; provided, that the tax for State and public free school purposes shall not be calculated and carried out upon said rolls. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 371.]

Art. 7043. [7351] Ascertain tax rate.—Within five days after the Comptroller has received such certified statements from every assessor within this State, said board shall meet for the purpose of calculating the ad valorem rate for taxes to be collected for the State and public free school purposes. In calculating said rates the board shall calculate the same by the following rules and upon the following basis; they shall find by adding together all the property subject to taxation in all the counties as shown by the certified statements returned by the assessors, the total valuation of all property within this State subject to ad valorem taxes. They shall find by adding together the sums appropriated by the Legislature, which will or which may become due by the State during the following fiscal year, the total sum which will or which may become due by the State, during the following fiscal year. They shall find, by adding all sums paid into the State treasury as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than as ad valorem taxes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the preceding calendar year, the total sum paid into the State treasury from said sources during said time. They shall find by subtracting from the total sum which will or which may become due by the State during the succeeding fiscal year the total sum which was paid into the State treasury as taxes for State purposes during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the preceding calendar year, the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes. They shall add to such remainder twenty per cent of said remainder. They shall divide the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes added to twenty per cent of such total sum by the quotient of the total valuation of all property within this State divided by one hundred. The quotient shall be the number of cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to be collected for the current year for State purposes; provided, that said quotient shall not be run to more than three decimals. The rate for State purposes shall never exceed the rate fixed by law on the one hundred dollars valuation of property. In calculating the rate to be collected for public free school purposes, said board shall take into consideration the number of children in the State within the scholastic age, to be determined from the most recent official school census; and shall fix a rate that will yield and produce for such fiscal year four dollars per capita for all the children within the scholastic age, as shown by said scholastic census; provided, the rate so fixed for any year shall never exceed the rate fixed by law. [Acts 1st C. S. 1907, p. 464.]

Art. 7044. [7352] Certify rate to tax assessor.—The Comptroller shall certify to the tax assessor of each county through registered letter, the rate of taxes for State purposes and for public free school purposes for the current year, and shall also publish immediately such rate for thirty days in some newspaper published in the State and having a general circulation therein; and as soon as such tax assessor has received notice of such rate he shall calculate the taxes due the State for State purposes, and also the taxes due for public free school purposes, on all taxable property within his county as set out in the preceding article, and shall carry the same out upon the copies of the tax rolls of the county to be delivered to the tax collector and to the county clerk, and to be returned to the Comptroller. After he has so completed the said copies of the tax rolls, he shall return to the Comptroller a copy of the same. [Id.]

Art. 7045. [7353] County rate.—The commissioners courts of the several counties, all the members thereof being present, at either a regular or special session, may at any time after the tax assessors of their respective counties have forwarded to the Comptroller the said certificate and prior to the time when the tax collector of such county shall have begun to make out his receipts, calculate the rate and adjust the taxes levied in their respective counties for general purposes to the taxable values shown by the assessment rolls. [Id.]

Art. 7046. [7354] [5048] Poll tax.—There shall be levied and collected from every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, resident within this State on the first day of January of each year (Indians not taxed, and persons insane, blind, deaf or dumb, or those who have lost one hand or foot, or are permanently disabled, excepted), an annual poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents, one dollar for the benefit of the free schools, and fifty cents for general revenue purposes. Said tax shall be collected and accounted for by the tax collector each year and appropriated as herein required. No county shall levy more than twenty-five cents poll tax for county purposes. The poll tax due from citizens of unorganized counties shall be paid in the county to which the unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 11.]

Art. 7047. [7355] [5049] Occupation taxes.—There shall be levied on and collected from every person, firm, company or in the following numbered subdivisions of this article, an annual association of persons, pursuing any of the occupations named occupation tax, which shall be paid annually in advance except where herein otherwise provided, on every such occupation or separate establishment, as follows: [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

1. Itinerant merchants.—From every merchant who may remove from place to place and offer for sale “bankrupt stocks” of goods, or advertising “fire sales” or “water and fire damaged stocks for sale,” for a limited period of time, there shall be collected one hundred dollars per month for the first month, or less than a month, for each place where such business is located; and for each additional month that such sales are continued at any given place, said merchant shall pay an additional sum of twenty dollars. Where they remain for six months or more in any place, in addition to the one hundred dollars charged for the first month, they shall pay an additional sum of ten dollars per month. [Id.]

2. Traveling vendors of patent medicines.—From every traveling person selling patent or other medicines, fifty dollars, and no traveling person shall so sell until said tax is so paid. This tax shall not apply to commercial travelers, drummers, or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade for merchants engaged in the sale of drugs or medicines by wholesale. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49; Acts 1917, p. 335.]

3. Itinerant physicians, etc.—From every itinerant physician, surgeon, oculist or medical or other specialist of any kind, traveling from place to place in the practice of his profession, except dentists practicing from place to place in the county of their residence, an annual tax of fifty dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 57.]

4. Peddlers.—From every foot-peddler, five dollars in each county in which he peddles; from every peddler with one horse or one pair of oxen, seven dollars and fifty cents in the county in which he peddles; from every peddler with two horses or two pair oxen, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued; from every peddler with sail or other boat in streams, along coasts or bays of this State, ten dollars in each county in which said occupation is pursued. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to include traveling vendors of literature or traveling vendors of poultry, vegetables, fruits or other country produce exclusively, or fruit trees exclusively. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]

5. Clock peddlers.—From every person or firm who peddles out clocks, agricultural implements, cooking stoves or ranges, wagons, buggies, carriages, surreys, and other similar vehicles, washing machines and churns, an annual tax of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid in each county in which said occupation is pursued; provided, that a merchant shall not be required to pay this special tax for selling the articles named in this subdivision when sold in his place of business. [Id.]

6. Auctioneers.—From every auctioneer, ten dollars. [Id.]

7. Selling on commission.—From every person, firm, or association of persons selling on commission, ten dollars. [Id.]

8. Brokers.—From every person, firm or association of person selling on commission, if in a city of more than ten thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; if in a city or town of less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars. This article is intended to cover every person, firm or association of persons selling on samples only, and who do not carry any stock or merchandise or anything else on hand. This tax shall not apply to commercial travelers or salesmen making sales or soliciting trade from merchants. [Id.]

9. Ship brokers and agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of ship brokers or ship agents, ten dollars. [Id.]

10. Insurance adjusters and general agents.—For each person acting as a general adjuster of losses, or agents of fire and marine insurance companies, who may transact any business as such in this State, an annual occupation tax of fifty dollars. By "general agent" as used in this law, is meant any person or firm, representative of any insurance company in this State, or who may exercise a general supervision over the business of such insurance company in this State, or over the local agency thereof in this State, or any subdivision thereof. [Id.]

11. Lightning rod agents.—From every person, firm or association of persons, dealing in lightning rods, an annual tax of thirty-six dollars to the State and eighteen dollars as a county tax to the county in which such business is carried on; and from every person canvassing for the sale of lightning rods, an annual tax of one hundred dollars to the State and fifty dollars as county tax, in each county in which such canvassing is done. [Id.]

12. Cotton brokers and commission merchants.—From every person, firm or association of persons following the occupation of cotton broker, cotton factor, or commission merchant in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or over, thirty-five dollars; and in all cities and towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, an annual tax of eighteen dollars. A "commission merchant," in the meaning of this article, is every person, firm or association of persons, receiving country produce, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, grain, corn, hay, lumber, shingles, wood, coal, goods, wares and merchandise, or anything else for sale, to be accounted for to the owner when sold, and charging a commission therefor. [Id.]

13. Pawnbrokers.—From every pawnbroker, an annual tax of one hundred and fifty dollars. [Id.]

14. Loan brokers.—From loan brokers, as that term is defined by the laws of this State, an annual tax of one hundred and fifty dollars for each place of business. [Acts 1915, p. 50.]

15. Money lenders.—From every person, firm or association of persons loaning money as agent or agents for any corporation, firm or association, either in this State or out of it, an annual occupation tax of one hundred and fifty dollars for the State, for the principal office, and a county tax of fifteen dollars from each agent for each county in which he may do business, and no additional occupation tax shall be levied by any county, city or town in this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 49.]
