or the county, district, city, or town superintendent or principal, teacher, librarian, assessor, county treasurer, treasurer of county school depository or treasurer of school district depository has refused or failed to make the reports required of him; provided, that this notification shall not be sent by the commissioner of education until at least two written requests have been made for the desired information and until 30 days have elapsed from the time of the first request without the receipt of the information required; in such case the aforesaid monthly salary shall be withheld until a notice is received from the commissioner of education, certifying that the information requested has been furnished by the delinquent person.

(a) All financial reports made by or for school districts, either independent or common, or by their officers, agents or employees, to the commissioner or to the Department of Education, shall be made on forms prescribed or approved by the state auditor.

§ 21.305. Maintenance of Law and Order

§ 21.307. Assistance of Attorney General

In order to help prevent situations which might result in the occupation of public schools by military forces or the closure thereof, the Attorney General of Texas is authorized to assist any public school board which requests his assistance in the defense of any suit in a federal court which seeks to challenge the constitutionality of a statute of this State. This section shall not apply, however, in the event of a controversy between a public school board and an agency of the state which, under existing law, the Attorney General is authorized or required to represent.

(c) The board of library trustees shall organize by appointing a chairman, a secretary, and a treasurer.

(d) The board of library trustees shall call a public meeting for the purpose of presenting to the trustees of the school district and the members of the commissioners court a petition setting forth the need for additional library facilities and the agreement of the board of library trustees to assume the financial obligation of providing and maintaining an adequate public library building upon or adjacent to the school campus or grounds, the building to be used as a county free library and as a school library for the benefit of both the school students and the general public.

(e) The school trustees and the members of the commissioners court, at a joint meeting called for that purpose, shall consider the petition and agreement. If the plan of financing is found to be practicable and feasible and is approved by a majority both of the school trustees and of the commissioners court, a contract in compliance with Section 21.353 of this Code may be executed.

(a) Contracts authorized by this Article shall contain the provisions described in this Section in consideration for the agreement of the board of library trustees:

The conveyance may be conditioned only by reserving to the school district the right to repurchase the tract, in the event of its abandonment for library purposes, at a price not to exceed any outstanding indebtedness against any building constructed thereon by the board of library trustees.

§ 21.354. Construction of Library

(a) The public library building, authorized by the above-described contract, shall be constructed according to the provisions of this Section.

(b) After the execution of the joint contracts and the receipt of conveyance of the tract of land, the board of library trustees, by a majority vote at a meeting called for that purpose, may employ an architect to prepare plans for the construction of a combined library building and assembly hall.

(c) After the approval of the plans by both the board of trustees of the school district and the commissioners court, the board of library trustees may enter into all necessary contracts for the construction of the building and the equipment thereof. The board of library trustees is authorized to mortgage or encumber the building to secure the financing thereof, but the indebtedness so created must be repaid out of revenue funds produced from the rental of the assembly hall or from private contributions and shall never become a debt against the county of the school district. No taxes shall be levied therefor.

§ 21.355. Management of Library

(a) The management and control of the public library building shall be under the supervision and control of the board of library trustees so long as a public free library is maintained therein, subject to the provisions of law as to county free libraries and to the provisions of this Section.

SUBCHAPTER L. BILINGUAL EDUCATION

§ 21.451. State Policy
The legislature finds that there are large numbers of children in the state who come from environments where the primary language is other than English. Experience has shown that public school classes in which instruction is given only in English are often inadequate for the education of children whose native tongue is another language. The legislature believes that a compensatory program of bilingual education can meet the needs of these children and facilitate their integration into the regular school curriculum. Therefore, pursuant to the policy of the state to insure equal educational opportunity to every child, and in recognition of the educational needs of children of limited English-speaking ability, it is the purpose of this subchapter to provide for the establishment of bilingual education programs in the public schools and to provide supplemental financial assistance to help local school districts meet the extra costs of the programs.

§ 21.452. Definitions
In this subchapter the following words have the indicated meanings:
(1) "Agency" means the Central Education Agency.
(2) "Board" means the governing board of a school district.
(3) "Children of limited English-speaking ability" means children whose native tongue is a language other than English and who have difficulty performing ordinary classwork in English.

§ 21.453. Establishment of Bilingual Programs
(a) The governing board of each school district shall determine not later than the first day of March, under regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education, the number of school-age children of limited English-speaking ability within the district and shall classify them according to the language in which they possess a primary speaking ability.
(b) Beginning with the 1974–75 scholastic year, each school district which has an enrollment of 20 or more children of limited English-speaking ability in any language classification in the same grade level during the preceding scholastic year, and which does not have a program of bilingual instruction which accomplishes the state policy set out in Section 21.451 of this Act, shall institute a program of bilingual instruction for the children in each language classification commencing in the first grade, and shall increase the program by one grade each year until bilingual instruction is offered in each grade up to the sixth. The board may establish a program with respect to a language classification with less than 20 children.

§ 21.454. Program Content; Method of Instruction
(a) The bilingual education program established by a school district shall be a full-time program of instruction in subjects required by law or by the student population of the district, which shall be given in the native language of children of limited English-speaking ability who are enrolled in the program, and in the English language; (2) in the comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing of the native language of the children of limited English-speaking ability who are enrolled in the program, and in the comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing of the English language; and (3) in the history and culture associated with the native language of the children of limited English-speaking ability who are enrolled in the program, and in the history and culture of the United States.
(b) In predominantly nonverbal subjects, such as art, music, and physical education, children of limited English-speaking ability shall participate fully with their English-speaking contemporaries in regular classes provided in the subjects.
(c) Elective courses included in the curriculum may be taught in a language other than English.
§ 21.454 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

§ 21.455. Enrollment of Children in Program

(a) Every school-age child of limited English-speaking ability residing within a school district required to provide a bilingual program for his classification shall be enrolled in the program for a period of three years or until he achieves a level of English language proficiency which will enable him to perform successfully in classes in which instruction is given only in English, whichever first occurs.

(b) A child of limited English-speaking ability enrolled in a program of bilingual education may continue in that program for a period longer than three years with the approval of the school district and the child's parents or legal guardian.

(c) No school district may transfer a child of limited English-speaking ability out of a program in bilingual education prior to his third year of enrollment in the program unless the parents of the child approve the transfer in writing, and unless the child has received a score on an examination which, in the determination of the agency, reflects a level of English language skills appropriate to his or her grade level. If later evidence suggests that a child who has been transferred is still handicapped by an inadequate command of English, he may be re-enrolled in the program for a length of time equal to that which remained at the time he was transferred.

(d) No later than 10 days after the enrollment of a child in a program in bilingual education the school district shall notify the parents or legal guardian of the child that the child has been enrolled in the program. The notice shall be in writing in English, and in the language of which the child of the parent possesses a primary speaking ability.

§ 21.456. Facilities: Classes

(a) Programs in bilingual education, whenever possible, shall be located in the regular public schools of the district rather than in separate facilities.

(b) Children enrolled in the program, whenever possible, shall be placed in classes with other children of approximately the same age and level of educational attainment. If children of different age groups or educational levels are combined, the school district shall insure that the instruction given each child is appropriate to his or her level of educational attainment, and the district shall keep adequate records of the educational level and progress of each child enrolled in the program.

(c) The maximum student-teacher ratio shall be set by the agency and shall reflect the special educational needs of children enrolled in programs of bilingual education.

§ 21.457. Cooperation Among Districts

(a) A school district may join with any other district or districts to provide the programs in bilingual education required or permitted by this subchapter. The availability of the programs shall be publicized throughout the affected districts.

(b) A school district may allow a nonresident child of limited English-speaking ability to enroll in or attend its program in bilingual education, and the tuition for the child shall be paid by the district in which the child resides.

§ 21.458. Preschool and Summer School Programs

A school district may establish on a full- or part-time basis preschool or summer school programs in bilingual education for children of limited English-speaking ability and may join with other districts in establishing the programs. The preschool or summer programs shall not be a substitute for programs required to be provided during the regular school year.

§ 21.459. Bilingual Education Teachers

(a) The State Board of Education shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the issuance of teaching certificates with bilingual education endorsements to teachers who possess a speaking and reading ability in a language other than English in which bilingual education programs are offered and who meet the general requirements set out in Chapter 13 of this code.1

(b) The minimum monthly base pay and increments for teaching experience for a bilingual education teacher are the same as for a classroom teacher with an equivalent degree under the Texas State Public Education Compensation Plan. The minimum annual salary for a bilingual education teacher is the monthly base salary, plus increments, multiplied by 10, 11, or 12, as applicable.

§ 21.460. Allotments for Operational Expenses and Transportation

(a) To each school district operating an approved bilingual education program there shall be allotted a special allowance in an amount to be determined by the agency for pupil evaluation, books, instructional media, and other supplies required for quality instruction.

(b) The cost of transporting bilingual education students from one campus to another within a district or from a sending district to an area vocational school or to an approved post-secondary institution under a contract for instruction approved by the Central Education Agency shall be reimbursed based on the number or actual miles traveled times the district's official extracurricular travel per mile rate as set by their local board of trustees and approved by the Central Education Agency.

(c) The Foundation School Fund Budget Committee shall consider all amounts required for the operation of bilingual education programs in estimating the funds needed for purposes of the Foundation School Program.

1 Section 13.01 et seq.
(d) The cost of funding this Act shall, for fiscal years 1974 and 1975, be maintained at the level contained in House Bill 139, 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973.

SUBCHAPTER B. CREATION OF DISTRICT

§ 26.11. Purpose
Rehabilitation districts may be created to provide education, training, special services, and guidance to handicapped persons peculiar to their condition and needs, to develop their full capacity for usefulness to themselves and society, and to prevent them from becoming or remaining, in whole or in part, dependent on public or private charity.

§ 26.12. Creation of District
A rehabilitation district may be established by voters of a county, or a combination of contiguous counties, containing taxable property, the total assessed valuation of which must be not less than $200,000,000, according to the most recent tax rolls of the county or combination of counties making up the proposed district, as described in this subchapter.

§ 26.13. Petition
A petition signed by a number of qualified property-taxpaying voters in each county in the proposed rehabilitation district equal to not less than one percent of the total number of votes cast for governor in such county at the most recent election for governor held therein, must be filed with the commissioners courts of the respective counties. The signatures on the petition must be separated according to the counties in which the signers reside, under appropriate headings indicating the county of residence. If there is more than one county in the proposed district, the petition must be in two or more parts, one part for each county to be included in the district. The name of the proposed district must be set forth in the petition, and must include the words, "Rehabilitation District for Handicapped Persons." The petition must be dated, and must pray for an election, to be held not less than 10 days after the date of the petition, to determine whether or not there shall be created a rehabilitation district for handicapped persons, with power to levy taxes for residence centers and such other facilities, if any, as the board of directors may deem necessary or proper for the training and guidance of handicapped trainees and to maintain and operate said district.

Promptly on receipt of a petition, each commissioners court must order an election to be held in his county on the date prayed for in the petition. The order must designate polling places, appoint election officers, provide supplies for the election, and set forth the name of the proposed rehabilitation district as specified in the petition. The election precincts must conform to the regular election precincts of each county. Each commissioners court must cause notice of election to be published once each week for two alternate weeks in one or more newspapers having general circulation in its county, the first publication to be at least 21 days before the election, and must cause notice to be posted in a public place in each commissioners precinct, and at the courthouse door of its county. If a special session of a commissioners court receiving a petition is not to be held in time to order the election and give notice of it, the county judge of that county must, upon the petition being called to his attention, timely call a special session of the commissioners court for this purpose. Except as herein provided, the election in each county shall be conducted in accordance with the general laws of Texas.

§ 26.15. Proposition to be Voted Upon
The proposition shall be submitted at the election in each county, and the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The creation of the rehabilitation district for handicapped persons, with power to levy taxes for residence centers and such other facilities, if any, as the board of directors may deem necessary or proper for the training and guidance of such persons and for maintenance and operation of said district."

§ 26.16. Voters
Only qualified voters who reside and own taxable property in the county in which they offer to vote and who have duly rendered their property for taxation are eligible to vote.

§ 26.17. Results of Election
(a) Within 10 days after the election, each commissioners court must make a canvass of the returns and declare the results of the election. If a majority of those voting in the election in each county vote for the proposition, the establishment of a rehabilitation district is thereby effected. If the proposition fails to carry in any county, the formation of the rehabilitation district in counties in which it passed is not affected, unless the counties in which it passed are not contiguous, or do not have a total assessed valuation of property of $200,000,000, according to their most recent tax rolls, in which case no rehabilitation district can be established.

(b) If the election does not create a rehabilitation district, no subsequent election for the creation of a rehabilitation district may be had in the affected counties within one year of the date of the election.

§ 26.18. Annexation of New Counties
(a) Any county or combination of counties, contiguous to an existing rehabilitation district may be § 26.18 "Annexation to and becoming a part of it by following the procedures in and meeting the requirements of Subsections (a), (b), and (d) of this section, with the exceptions as described in this section.

(b) The petition in Section 26.18 of this chapter must be signed by a number of qualified property taxpayers in each county in which annexation is desired equal to one percent of the number of votes cast for governor in such county at the most recent general election for governor held therein. The petition must contain the name of the district to which annexation is desired, and must pray for an election to determine whether or not the county shall be annexed to the rehabilitation district.

(c) The proposition shall be voted upon in an election held under this section, and the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition:

"Annexation to [here insert the name of the rehabilitation district]."

(d) The commissioners court election order in Section 26.14 of this chapter, must set forth the name of the rehabilitation district to which annexation is proposed.

(e) Within 10 days after the election, the commissioners court of each county in which there was an election, must canvass the returns and declare the results of the election in that county, and shall forthwith certify the results of such election to the board of directors of such existing district. In each county, if any, in which a majority of those voting at the election vote for the proposition, the annexation of such county to said rehabilitation district shall be thereby effected.

(f) The provisions of this chapter prescribing the qualifications of electors to vote in elections to create rehabilitation districts shall apply to elections for the annexation of counties to such rehabilitation districts; and all of the provisions of this chapter relating to the number and classes of directors of said rehabilitation district in each county; the manner of their initial and subsequent selection; the manner of determining the initial terms of office, and fixing the regular terms of office of directors, as provided for in this chapter concerning the original directors, shall be applicable to each annexed county.

The forms of ballots to be used conformable to general law, may also be determined by the board of directors, and at the discretion of the board of directors, the same ballot for the election of county trustees may be used for the election of directors.

The bond or bond of the bond may, at any time, be increased or decreased by the board of directors, according as they may deem necessary for the protection of the property and funds of the district for which the treasurer is accountable. The premiums, if any, for such bond or bonds shall be payable out of funds of the district.

Such taxes shall be assessed by the tax assessor and collected by the tax collector as other taxes are assessed and collected.

(b) The county tax assessor-collector shall deposit the money as collected from said tax to a separate fund in the county depository to be known as the county vocational school district fund, to be allocated and distributed for the support of area vocational school programs operated by designated school districts or districts in the county. He shall have the same authority and the same laws shall apply as in the collection of other county ad valorem tax.

The tax collector shall place to the credit of the common or other school districts using the county depository such money as is apportioned to them.

(b) No tuition shall be charged any such eligible resident of the county enrolled in the area vocational school program, if the county has voted and collects a countywide tax to support such program.

(c) Any pupil under 21 years of age on September 1 and who has not completed the 12th grade shall be eligible to be counted in average daily attendance (ADA) for Foundation School Program purposes by the designated area school district in accordance with policies of the Central Education Agency. Further, such a pupil shall be eligible to be counted by the designated area vocational school district for purposes of vocational teacher unit allotments pursuant to the policies and formulas adopted by the State Board of Education.

(d) Any eligible child residing in a school district which is under agreement with a neighboring school district designated to operate and accept such in its area vocational school program shall, on timely application of his parents for enrollment in the vocational program, be received by the designated area district free of tuition without the necessity of a formal transfer, any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

(f) Upon certification of the acceptance and vocational program enrollment of such children from one district to another, by the superintendent of the receiving district, the State Department of Education shall adjust its records to pay over directly the state per capita apportionment to the respective district in which such children are received and educated.

§ 28.11. Changing Duties or Powers of School District Trustees

(b) Before a representative may be registered under this Chapter, a bond in the penal sum of $1,000.00 shall be provided by or for each representative for a period running concurrently with that of the school's certificate of approval, and the obligation of the bond shall be that neither a provision of this chapter nor any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto shall be violated, nor shall fraud or misrepresentation in securing the enrollment of a student be committed by the representative. The bond shall be a corporate surety bond issued by a company authorized to do business in the State, conditioned that the parties thereto shall pay all damages or expenses which the State, any governmental subdivision thereof, or any student or potential student may sustain resulting from a violation. The bond shall be to the State for the use and benefit of any student or potential student or governmental subdivision of the State which may suffer expense or damage by breach thereof. The bond shall be filed with the administrator and shall be in such form as shall be approved by the administrator.

(c) In lieu of the corporate surety bond required in subsections (a) and (b) of this Section, the school may, in the alternative, provide any other similar certificate or evidence of indebtedness as may be acceptable to the Administrator, provided that the Certificate or evidence of indebtedness meets all the requirements applicable to the corporate surety bond.

(d) Schools domiciled, or having their principal place of business, outside of the State of Texas, that engage representatives to canvass, solicit, or contract with any person within the State of Texas, shall be subject to the bond requirements for both the school and its representatives.

(e) The administrator, for good cause shown, as recommended by the commission and approved by the State Board of Education, may waive and suspend the requirements set forth in Subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section with respect to schools operating wholly or in part under a federal grant where no tuition fee is charged to the student.

§ 32.39. Refund Policy

(a) As a condition for granting certification each school must maintain a cancellation and settlement policy which must provide a full refund of all monies paid by a student if:

(1) the student cancels the enrollment agreement or contract within 72 hours (until midnight of the third day excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) after the enrollment contract is signed by the prospective student;

(2) the enrollment of the student was procured as the result of any misrepresentation in advertising, promotional materials of the school, or representations by the owner or representatives of the school.

(b) As a condition for granting certification, each school must maintain a policy for the refund of the unused portion of tuition, fees, and other charges in the event the student, after expiration of the 72-hour cancellation privilege, fails to enter the course, or withdraws, or is discontinued therefrom at any time prior to completion, and such policy must provide:

(1) refunds for resident courses will be based on the period of enrollment computed on the basis of course time expressed in clock hours;

(2) the effective date of the termination for refund purposes in residence schools will be the earliest of the following:

(A) the last date of attendance, if the student is terminated by the school;

(B) the date of receipt of written notice from the student;

(C) ten school days following the last date of attendance;

(3) if tuition is collected in advance of entrance, and if, after expiration of the 72-hour cancellation privilege, the student does not enter the residence school, not more than $50 shall be retained by the school;

(4) for the student who enters a residence course of not more than 12 months in length, terminates or withdraws, the school may retain $50 of tuition and fees and the minimum refund of the remaining tuition will be:

(A) during the first week or one-tenth of the course, whichever is less, 90 percent of the remaining tuition;

(B) after the first week or one-tenth of the course, whichever is less, but within the first quarter of the course, 75 percent of the remaining tuition;

(C) during the second quarter of the course, 50 percent of the remaining tuition;

(D) during the third quarter of the course, 25 percent of the remaining tuition;

(E) during the last quarter of the course, the student may be considered obligated for the full tuition.

(5) for residence courses more than 12 months in length, the refund shall be applied to each 12-month period, or part thereof separately;

(6) refunds of items of extra expense to the student, such as instructional supplies, books, student activities, laboratory fees, service charges, rentals, deposits, and all other such ancillary miscellaneous charges, where these items are separately stated and shown in the data furnished the student before enrollment, will be made in a reasonable manner acceptable to the administrator;

(7) refunds based on enrollment in residence schools will be totally consummated within 30 days after the effective date of termination;

(8) refunds for correspondence courses will be computed on the basis of the number of lessons in the course;

(9) the effective date of the termination for refund purposes in correspondence courses will be the earliest of:

(A) the date of notification to the student if the student is terminated;

(B) the date of receipt of written notice from the student;

(C) the end of the third calendar month following the month in which the student's last lesson assignment was received unless notification has been received from the student that he wishes to remain enrolled.

(10) if tuition is collected before any lessons have been completed, and if, after expiration of the 72-hour cancellation privilege, the student fails to begin the course, not more than $50 shall be retained by the school;

(11) in cases of termination or withdrawal after the student has begun the correspondence course, the school may retain $50 of tuition and fees, and the minimum refund policy must provide that the student will be refunded the proportionate portion of the remaining tuition fees and other charges that the number of lessons completed and serviced by the school bears to the total number of lessons in the course;
§ 32.39  TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(12) refunds based on enrollment in correspondence schools will be totally consummated within 30 days after the effective date of termination.

(c) In lieu of the refund policy herein set forth, for programs of instruction not regularly offered to the general public, the State Board of Education may, for good cause shown, amend, modify, substitute and/or alter the terms of such policy due to the specialized nature and objective of the subject school's course of instruction.

(d) If a course of instruction is discontinued by the school and this prevents the student from completing the course, all tuition and fees paid are then due and refundable.

SUBCHAPTER E. APPEAL

Upon receipt of the request for a hearing, the Administrator shall set a time and place for said hearing and then send notice to the school of said time and place. Said hearing shall be held within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the request for a hearing. At said hearing, an applicant may appear in person or by counsel and present evidence to the Administrator in support of the granting of the permit specified herein. All interested persons may also appear and present oral and documentary evidence to the Administrator, concerning the issuance of a certificate of approval to the applicant school. Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the Administrator shall send notice to the school either affirming or revoking the denial of the certificate of approval.

§ 32.42. Appeal

(a) If the results of the hearing affirm the denial of a certificate of approval, the applicant may request a hearing before the State Board of Education. Said hearing must be requested within fifteen (15) days after receipt of notice of affirmation of denial. The State Board of Education shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the request for hearing, set a time and place for said hearing, and send proper notice to the school of this time and place. At said hearing before the State Board of Education, the applicant may appear in person or by counsel and present arguments to the State Board of Education in support of the granting of the certificate of approval specified herein. The State Board of Education shall consider the appeal from the decision of the administrator on the basis of the record made in the hearing before the administrator.

The State Board of Education shall, within ten (10) days of such hearing, issue an order granting or denying a certificate of approval for the operation of a proprietary school and shall state in such order the reasons for its decision.

(b) Upon the granting or denial of a certificate of approval, the State Board of Education shall serve a copy of its order upon the school by registered mail within ten (10) days of the entry of such order by the said Board. Such order may be appealed to any District Court of competent jurisdiction by the filing of a lawsuit within fifteen (15) days after receipt by such school of the copy of such order served by registered mail as herein provided. Venue in such lawsuits shall lie in Travis County, Texas.

(c) Unless stayed by the Court upon a showing of good cause, the Order of the State Board of Education shall not be superseded during such appeal; if the Court is of the opinion that justice will be served thereby.

(d) Upon the filing of such lawsuit, citation shall be served upon the administrator as agent for the State Board of Education. Whereupon, the administrator shall cause to be made a complete record of all proceedings had before the administrator and before the State Board of Education, and shall certify a copy of such proceedings to the Court. Trial before the Court shall be upon the basis of the record made before the administrator and the State Board of Education, and the Court shall make its decision based upon such record. The decision of the State Board of Education shall be affirmed by the Court if the Court finds substantial evidence in the record to justify the decision of the State Board of Education, unless the Court finds such order to be:

(1) arbitrary and capricious, or
(2) in violation of the Constitution or laws of the State of Texas, or
(3) in violation of rules and regulations promulgated by the State Board of Education pursuant to the provisions of the Act.

(e) The decision of the trial court shall be subject to appeal in like manner as any other civil lawsuit under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(f) Appeals concerning revocation of certificates of approval shall be prosecuted in the same manner and under the same provisions as herein provided for appeals from denial of such certificates.

The state treasurer is directed to deposit the receipts, or funds representing such receipts, enumerated herein, in the special depository bank or banks nearest the institution credited with the receipts, so far as is practicable, and is authorized to withdraw such funds on drafts or checks prescribed by the state treasurer. The state treasurer is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to require collateral security for the protection of such funds pursuant to the provisions of Articles 2529 and 2530, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. For the purpose of facilitating the clearance and collection of the receipts herein enumerated, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to deposit such receipts in any state depository bank and transfer funds representing such receipts enumerated herein to the respective special depository banks. Banks so designated as special depository banks are hereby authorized to pledge their securities to protect such funds.

Any general property deposit which remains without call for refund for a period of four years from the date of last attendance of the student making the deposit shall be forfeited and become a part of the student deposit fund. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit refund of any balance remaining in a general property deposit when made on proper demand and within the four-year limitation period. The board may require that no student withdraw his deposit until he has been graduated or has apparently withdrawn from school.

(b) The student deposit fund shall be used, at the discretion of the board, either for the purpose of making scholarship awards to needy and deserving students or for the support of a general student union program, or for both purposes. The board shall administer the scholarship awards for the institution, including the selection of recipients and the amounts and conditions of the awards. SUBCHAPTER C. FACULTY DEVELOPMENT LEAVES OF ABSENCE

In this subchapter:

(1) “Institution of higher education” has the meaning assigned to it in Section 61.003 of this code, except that Texas State Technical Institute is included and the Rodent and Predatory Animal Control Service is excluded for the purposes of this subchapter.

(2) “Governing board” means the body charged with policy direction of an institution of higher education.

(3) “Faculty member” means a person who is employed by an institution of higher education on a full-time basis as a member of the faculty or staff and whose duties include teaching, research, administration, including professional librarians, or the performance of professional services. However, the term does not include a person employed in a position which is in the institution’s classified personnel system or a person employed in a similar type of position if the institution does not have a classified personnel system.

§ 51.102. Legislative Findings and Purpose

The legislature finds that higher education is vitally important to the welfare, if not the survival, of Texas and the United States at this stage in history and that the quality of higher education is dependent upon the quality of college and university faculties. The legislature finds, therefore, that money spent on recognized means for producing an excellent system of public higher education is money spent to serve a public purpose of great importance. The legislature finds further that a sound program of faculty development leaves of absence designed to enable the faculty member to engage in study, research, writing, and similar projects for the purpose of adding to the knowledge available to himself, his students, his institution, and society generally is a well-recognized means for improving a state’s program of public higher education. The legislature’s purpose in establishing the faculty development leave program provided for by this subchapter is to improve further the higher education available to the youth at the state-supported colleges and universities and to establish this program of faculty development leaves as part of the plan of compensation for the faculty of these colleges and universities.

§ 51.103. Granting Leaves of Absence; Procedures

(a) On the application of a faculty member, the governing board of an institution of higher education may grant a faculty development leave of absence for study, research, writing, field observation, or other suitable purpose, to a faculty member if it finds that he is eligible by reason of service, that the purpose for which he seeks a faculty development leave is one for which a faculty development leave may be granted, and that granting leave to him will not place on faculty development leave a greater number of faculty members than that authorized.

(b) The governing board by regulation shall establish a procedure whereby the applications for faculty development leaves of absence are received by a committee elected by the general faculty for evaluation and whereby this faculty committee then makes recommendations to the chief administrative officer of the institution of higher education, who shall then make recommendations to the governing board as to which applications should be granted.

§ 51.104. Service Required

A faculty member is eligible by reason of service to be considered for a faculty development leave when he has served as a member of the faculty of the same institution of higher education for at least two consecutive academic years. This service may be as an instructor or as an assistant, associate, or full professor, or an equivalent rank, and must be full-time academic duty but need not include teaching.

§ 51.105. Duration and Compensation
(a) The governing board may grant to a faculty member a faculty development leave either for one academic year at one-half of his regular salary or for one-half academic year at his full regular salary. Payment of salary to the faculty member on faculty development leave may be made from the funds appropriated by the legislature specifically for that purpose, or from such other funds as might be available to the institution.
(b) A faculty member on faculty development leave may accept a grant for study, research, or travel from any institution of higher education or from a charitable, religious, or educational corporation or foundation, or from any federal, state, or local governmental agency. A faculty member on faculty development leave may not accept employment from any other person, corporation, or government, unless the governing board determines that it would be in the public interest to do so and expressly approves the employment.

§ 51.106. Number on Leave at One Time
Not more than six percent of the faculty members of any institution of higher education may be on faculty development leave at any one time.

§ 51.107. Rights Retained
(a) A faculty member on faculty development leave shall continue to be a member of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas or of the Optional Retirement Program of the institution of higher education, or of both, just as any other member of the faculty on full-time duty.
(b) The institution of higher education shall cause to be deducted from the compensation paid to a member of the faculty on faculty development leave the deposit and membership dues required to be paid by him to the Teacher Retirement System of Texas or to the Optional Retirement Program, or both, the contribution for Old Age and Survivors Insurance, and any other amounts required or authorized to be deducted from the compensation paid any faculty member.
(c) A member of the faculty on faculty development leave is a faculty member for purposes of participating in the programs and of receiving the benefits made available by or through the institution of higher education or the state to faculty members.

§ 51.108. Regulations Concerning Absence
(a) The governing board of each college or university supported in whole or in part by state funds shall issue regulations concerning the authorized and unauthorized absence of faculty members, including teaching assistants and research assistants.
(b) Each governing board shall file a copy of these regulations with the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. Each governing board shall file any amendment to its regulations with the coordinating board not later than 30 days after the effective date of the amendment.

SUBCHAPTER G. OPTIONAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM

§ 51.351. Legislative Findings and Purpose

The legislature finds that higher education is vitally important to the welfare, if not the survival, of Texas and the United States at this stage in history and that the quality of higher education is dependent upon the quality of college and university facilities. The legislature finds, therefore, that money spent on recognized means for producing an excellent system of public higher education is money spend to serve a public purpose of great importance. The legislature finds further that a sound faculty retirement program that provides full and complete retirement benefits to teachers and administrators who have given faithful service to state-supported institutions of higher education is a well-recognized means for improving a state’s program of public higher education. The legislature’s purpose in establishing the retirement program provided for by this subchapter is to improve further the higher education available to the youth at the state-supported colleges and universities and to establish this retirement program as part of the plan of compensation for the faculty of these colleges and universities.

§ 51.352. Definitions

Where a governing board has more than one component institution, agency, or unit under its jurisdiction, it may provide a separate optional retirement program for each component institution, agency, or unit, or place two or more component institutions, agencies, or units under a single program.

(c) In the event that funds received by the board in any fiscal year as repayment of student loans and as interest on the loans are insufficient to pay the interest coming due and the principal maturing on the bonds during the ensuing fiscal year, the state treasurer shall transfer into the interest and sinking fund out of the first money coming into the treasury, which is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, an additional amount sufficient to pay the interest coming due and the principal maturing on the bonds during the ensuing fiscal year.

Interest shall be postponed by the board as long as a student is enrolled at a participating institution and may be postponed at the board's discretion as long as a student is enrolled at any other higher educational institution, provided that the total interest paid is to be equal to that fixed at the time the note evidencing the loan is executed.

§ 54.101. Tuition Scholarships

(a) The governing boards of the several state-supported institutions are hereby authorized and directed to have reserved and set apart in a separate account on the books of the respective institutions an amount equal to the amount levied and collected from students under Section 54.051 of this code an amount to be determined by the legislature for each institution in the biennial appropriation act, for purposes of awarding tuition scholarships to needy resident students enrolled in such respective institutions.

(b) Such tuition scholarships shall be awarded to students with the approval of the president or other administrative head of each such respective institution in accordance with such rules and regulations governing the award of such tuition scholarships as may be promulgated by the governing boards of said respective institutions. (d) Awards shall be based on character and satisfactory scholastic record.

(e) Recipients of such tuition scholarships must be classified as either "resident students" under the provisions of Subchapter B of this chapter 1 or "alien students." This exemption may be granted for any one of the first four regular sessions following the individual's graduation from high school when in the opinion of the institution's president the circumstances of an individual case, including military service, merit the action.

§ 54.202. High School Graduates of State Homes

(1) all nurses and honorably discharged members of the armed forces of the United States who served during the Spanish-American War or during World War I;

(2) all nurses, members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, members of the Women's Auxiliary Volunteer Emergency Service, and all honorably discharged members of the armed forces of the United States who served during World War II except those who were discharged from service because they were over the age of 38 or because of a personal request on the part of the person that he be discharged from service;

(3) all honorably discharged men and women of the armed forces of the United States who served during the national emergency which began on June 27, 1950, and which is referred to as the Korean War; and

(4) all persons who were honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States after serving on active military duty, excluding training, for more than 180 days during the Cold War which began on the date of the termination of the national emergency cited in Subdivision (3) of this subsection.

(b) The exemptions provided for in Subsection (a) of this section also apply and inure to the benefit of the children of members of the armed forces of the United States who were killed in action or died while in service during World War II, the national emergency which began on June 27, 1950, or the Cold War, and to the benefit of orphans of members of the Texas National Guard and the Texas Air National Guard killed since January 1, 1946, while on active duty either in the service of their state or the United States. (c) The governing board of each institution of higher education granting exemptions shall require every applicant claiming the benefit of an exemption to submit satisfactory evidence that he fulfills the necessary citizenship and residency requirements.

(d) The exemption from fees provided for in Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to a person if at the time of his registration he is eligible for educational benefits under federal legislation in effect at the time of his registration. A person is covered by the exemptions if his right to benefits under federal legislation is extinguished at the time of his registration.

(e) The governing board of each institution of higher education may enter into contracts with the United States government, or any of its agencies, to furnish instruction to ex-servicemen and ex-service women at a tuition rate which covers the estimated cost of the instruction or, in the alternative, at a tuition rate of $100 a semester, as may be determined by the governing board. If the rates specified are prohibited by federal law for any particular class of ex-servicemen or ex-service women, the tuition rate shall be set by the governing board, but shall not be less than the established rate for civilian students. If federal law provides as to any class of veterans that the tuition payments are to be deducted from subsequent benefits to which the veteran may be entitled, the institution shall refund to any veteran who is a resident of Texas within the meaning of this section the amount by which any adjusted compensation payment is actually reduced because of tuition payments made to the institution by the federal government for the veteran.

(2) "Disability" means inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration. (b) The governing board of each institution of higher education shall exempt from the payment of all tuition and laboratory fees any person whose parent is an eligible employee who has suffered an injury, resulting in death or disability, sustained in the line of duty according to the regulations and criteria then in effect governing the department or agency in which he was employed. The exemption does not apply to general property deposits or to fees or charges for lodging, board, or clothing.

(c) A person is not entitled to the exemption if he:

(1) does not apply initially for the exemption before he becomes 21 years of age;

(2) does not meet all entrance requirements of the institution; or

(3) does not maintain a scholastic average sufficient to remain in good standing.

(d) A person loses his right to an exemption after eight consecutive semesters, not including summer

(e) A person entitled to an exemption under the provisions of this section may use the exemption:

(1) only at the public senior college or university which he first attends under the provisions of this section; or

(2) only at the public junior college which he first attends, and upon successful completion of four consecutive semesters at the public junior college he may continue to use the exemption for four consecutive semesters only at the public senior college or university which he subsequently first attends.

If the physician decides the injury received has resulted in a disability, he shall certify this fact to the head of the department which employs the employee.

(h) The head of the department which employed the eligible employee at the time he sustained the injury shall file a certificate with the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, on a form prepared by the board for the purpose. (4) proof that he meets all other entrance requirements of the institution.

(c) The governing board of an institution may establish special entrance requirements to fit the circumstances of deaf and blind persons. In order to obtain the maximum vocational benefits of their college training, all deaf students applying for a tuition exemption under this legislation shall cooperate with the Commission for Rehabilitation, and all blind students applying for a tuition exemption under this section shall cooperate with the State Commission for the Blind. The Commission for Rehabilitation and the State Commission for the Blind shall utilize all available and appropriate resources at the institutions of higher education to insure that deaf or blind students receive the maximum benefits from college training for which tuition fee exemptions are claimed under this Act. All the money shall be placed in a depository bank or banks designated by the governing board and shall be secured as required by law. Each year the governing board shall approve for the institution a separate budget for student activities and services financed by fees authorized in this section. The budget shall show the fees to be assessed, the purpose or functions to be financed, the estimated income to be derived, and the proposed expenditures to be made. Copies of the budgets shall be filed annually with the coordinating board, the governor, the legislative budget board, the state auditor, and the state library.

(c) Each bid is also subject to the payment of a special fee equal to one percent of the total sum bid, which special payment shall constitute a special fund from which the board for lease shall defray the expenses of the sale, including the payment for the services of the auctioneer crying the sale and the payment of the general operating expenses in geologizing, oil field supervision, and auditing oil and gas production of university lands, including salaries and traveling expenses of persons employed by the board of regents for those purposes, and for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, and equipping a building in the city of Midland or adjacent area to house the administrative staff of the offices of University Lands, Geology and Land Agent, and such other related agencies necessary for the management and development of university lands in West Texas.

(d) The board for lease may also direct the comptroller of The University of Texas System to transmit to the state treasurer for deposit to the credit of the permanent university fund any unexpended balances remaining in the special fund after reserving a sufficient amount in it for the payment of current expenses as set out in Subsection (e) of this section.

(e) The highest successful bidder shall pay to the commissioner of the general land office on the day the bid is accepted the full amount of bonus bid and the special fee.

(a) If any one of the bidders at the sale at public auction has offered a reasonable and proper price for any tract offered, not less than the price fixed by the board, the land advertised may be leased for oil and gas purposes under the terms of this subchapter and any regulations the board may prescribe, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter. All bids may be rejected by the board.
§ 66.67. Provisions of Lease

(b) If the board determines that a satisfactory bid has been offered for the oil and gas, it shall make an award to the bidder offering the highest price, and a lease shall be executed by the commissioner of the general land office. A duplicate copy of the lease shall be filed in the general land office.

(b) Each lease shall provide that the primary term of the lease, as determined by the board prior to the promulgation of the advertisement, shall in no case exceed five years.

(c) Each lease shall provide that if oil and/or gas is being produced in paying quantities from the leased premises before the termination of the primary term, such lease shall not terminate but shall continue in force and effect as long as oil and/or gas is being produced.

(d) Each lease shall provide that in the event of production of oil or gas on the leased premises, after once obtained, shall cease for any cause within 60 days before the expiration of the primary term of such lease or at any time or times thereafter, such lease shall not terminate, if the lessee commences additional drilling or reworking operations within 60 days thereafter, and such lease shall remain in full force and effect so long as such operations continue in good faith and in workmanlike manner, without interruptions, totaling more than 60 days during any one such operation; and if such drilling or reworking operations result in the production of oil and/or gas, such lease shall remain in full force and effect so long as oil or gas is produced therefrom in paying quantities; or payment of shut-in gas well royalty or compensatory royalties is made as hereinafter provided in this subchapter.

(e) Each lease shall provide that if at the expiration of the primary term or at any time thereafter there is located on the leased premises a well or wells capable of producing gas in paying quantities and such gas is not produced for lack of a suitable market and such lease is not being otherwise maintained in force and effect, the lessee may pay as royalty $1.200 per annum for each well on the lease capable of producing gas in paying quantities, such payment to be made to the commissioner of the general land office at Austin, Texas, prior to the expiration of the primary term of the lease, or if the primary term has expired within 60 days after lessee ceases to produce gas from such well or wells; and if such payment is made, the lease shall be considered to be a producing lease and such well or wells, standing alone, shall be considered a producing well or wells and the royalty payment shall extend the term of the lease for a period of one year from the end of the primary term or from the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which production ceased; and thereafter if no suitable market for such gas exists, the lessee may extend the lease for two additional and successive periods of one year each by the payment of a like sum of money each year on or before the expiration of the extended term. Provided, however, that if, while such lease is being maintained in force and effect by payment of such shut-in gas well royalty, gas should be sold and delivered in paying quantities from a well or wells within 1,000 feet of the leased premises and completed in the same producing reservoir or in any case where drainage is occurring, the right to further extend the lease by such shut-in gas well royalty payments shall cease, but such lease shall remain in force and effect for the remainder of the current one year period for which the shut-in gas well royalty has been paid, and for an additional period not to exceed a combined total of three years from the expiration of the primary term or from the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which production ceased by the payment by the lessee of compensatory royalty, at the royalty rate provided for in such university lease as would be due on an equivalent amount of like quality gas produced and delivered from the well or wells completed in the same producing reservoir from which gas is being sold and delivered and which is situated within 1,000 feet of, or draining, the leased premises on which shut-in gas well is situated, such compensatory royalty to be paid monthly to the Commissioner of the General Land Office at Austin, Texas, beginning on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which such gas is sold and delivered from the well situated within 1,000 feet of, or draining, the leased premises and completed in the same producing reservoir; provided further, that in the event such compensatory royalties paid in any 12-month period are in a sum less than the annual shut-in gas well royalties provided for in this section, the lessee shall pay an additional sum equal to the difference within 30 days from the end of such 12-month period; provided further, that nothing herein shall relieve the lessee of the obligation of reasonable development, nor of the obligation to drill offset wells required by Section 66.75 of this code.

(f) Each lease shall provide that if, at the expiration of the primary term, production of oil and/or gas has not been obtained in paying quantities on the leased premises but drilling operations are being conducted thereon in good faith and in good and workmanlike manner, the lessee may, so long as such drilling operations result in the production of oil and/or gas, extend the lease by such shut-in gas well royalty, gas should be sold and delivered in paying quantities from the premises; provided further, that the lessee may, so long as such drilling operations are being conducted in good faith, make like application and payment during any 30-day extended period for an additional 30 days not to exceed a combined total of 180 days; provided, however, lessee may, so long as such drilling operations are being conducted in good faith, make written application to the commissioner, on or before the expiration of the initial extended period of 180 days for an additional extension of 180 days, such application to be accompanied by a payment of $50 per acre for each acre in the lease, and the commissioner shall, in writing, extend such lease for an additional 180-day period from and after the expiration of the initial extended period of 180 days, and so long thereafter as oil or gas is produced in paying quantities from the premises; provided, that no lease shall be extended under the provisions of this section for more than a total of 360 days from and after the expiration of the primary term unless production in paying quantities has been obtained.

(g) Each lease shall contain a provision enabling the board, at its election, to require that payment of royalty as stipulated in the lease be in kind. Such option may be exercised from time to time at the discretion of the board upon not less than six months' notice to the lessee. The board shall have all powers necessary to negotiate and execute sales contracts or any other instruments necessary for the disposition of any royalty taken in kind. Such other reasonable provisions, not inconsistent with this subchapter, as will facilitate the efficient and equitable preservation of the interest of the state and necessary to prevent economic waste.

Each oil and gas lease issued on university lands under this subchapter shall include any additional provisions and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter, that the board may prescribe to preserve the interest of the state and safeguard the university funds.

§ 66.70. Compensatory Royalties in Lieu of Offset Wells

(a) Subject to the provisions of this section, the commissioner of the general land office may execute agreements on behalf of the permanent university fund that provide for the payment by university oil and gas lessees of compensatory royalty in lieu of drilling offset wells that may be required to protect a university oil and gas lease from drainage from a well or wells located on non-university lands or university lands leased at a lesser royalty situated within 1,000 feet of or draining the university-leased premises.

(b) Agreements providing for the payment of compensatory royalty must be approved by the board for lease of university lands.

(c) Any such agreement must be found by the commissioner and the board for lease to be in the best interest of the state and necessary to prevent economic waste.

(d) Nothing in an agreement shall relieve the lessee of the obligation of reasonable development or of the obligation to drill offset wells as required by Section 66.75 of this code as to other producing horizons.

(e) Beginning on the date fixed in the agreement, the lessee shall pay the compensatory royalty monthly to the commissioner at the land office in Austin.

(f) The agreement with respect to the interest of the state shall remain in force and effect as long as oil and gas, or either of them, is produced from a well located on university or non-university acreage and draining the university-leased premises.

(g) The agreement may contain other provisions the commissioner and the board for lease deem necessary to protect the interests of the permanent university fund.

§ 66.71. Prorated or Reduced Production Contracts

Whenever in the discretion of the board it is to the best interest of the university and its permanent fund that production from any lease for a limited period of time should be prorated or reduced, the board may execute the necessary contract or contracts with the lessee or lessees and their assignees to effectuate the same and to carry out the intention of this subchapter.

§ 66.72. Extension of Producing Lease

If oil or gas is discovered in paying quantities on any tract covered by a lease, then the lease as to that tract shall remain in force as long as oil and gas is produced in paying quantities from the tract, provided that the other provisions of this subchapter are complied with by the lessee.

§ 66.73. Assignment; Relinquishment

(a) All rights purchased may be assigned in quantities of not less than 40 acres, unless there are less than 40 acres remaining out of the tract originally leased under this subchapter, in which case the lesser area may be assigned.

(b) All rights to any entire lease and to any assigned portion thereof may be relinquished to the state at any time by having an instrument of relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area may be situated and filed in the land office accompanied by $1 for each area assigned; and if not so filed and payment made, the assignment shall be ineffective.

§ 66.74. Royalty Payments; Inspection of Records

(a) Royalty as stipulated in the sale shall be paid to the general land office at Austin for the benefit of the university permanent fund on or before the last day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the rights purchased; and it shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the owner, manager, or other authorized agent showing the gross amount of oil produced and saved since the last report, the amount of gas produced and sold off the premises, and the market value of the oil and gas, together with a copy of gas meter readings, pipeline receipts, gas line receipts, and other checks and memoranda of the amounts produced and put into pipelines, tanks, or pools and gas lines or gas storage.
§ 66.74 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(b) The books and accounts, receipt and discharges of all wells, tanks, pools, meters, pipelines, and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale, and marketing of the oil and gas shall at all times be subject to inspection and examination by the commissioner of the general land office, the attorney general, the governor, or any member of the board of regents, or the representative of either.

§ 66.75. Protection from Drainage

In every case where the area in which the oil and gas sold shall be contiguous or adjacent to land not university land, the acceptance of the bid and the sale made thereby shall constitute an obligation on the lessee to adequately protect the land leased from drainage from adjacent lands. In cases where the area in which the oil and gas is sold is contiguous to other university lands leased or sold, at a lesser royalty, the lessee shall likewise protect the land from drainage from the land so leased or sold for a lesser royalty. On failure to protect the land from drainage, the sale and all rights thereunder may be forfeited by the board in the manner provided in this subchapter for forfeitures.

(a) If the owner of the rights acquired under this subchapter fails or refuses to make the payment of any sum due thereon, either as rental or royalty on the production, within 30 days after same becomes due, or if the owner or his authorized agent makes any false return or false report concerning production, royalty, or drilling, or if the owner fails or refuses to drill any offset well or wells in good faith, as required by his lease, or if the owner or his agent refuses the proper authority access to the records and other data pertaining to the operations under this subchapter, or if the owner or his authorized agent fails or refuses to give correct information to the proper authorities, or fails or refuses to furnish the log of any well within 30 days after production is found in paying quantities, or if any of the material terms of the lease are violated, the lease is subject to forfeiture by the board by an order entered upon the minutes of the board reciting the facts constituting the default and declaring the forfeiture.

(b) The board may have suit instituted for forfeiture through the attorney general.

(c) On proper showing by the forfeiting owner, within 30 days after the declaration of forfeiture, the lease may, at the discretion of the board and on such terms as it may prescribe, be reinstated.

(d) In case of violation by the owner of the lease contract, the remedy of the state by forfeiture is not the exclusive remedy, but suit for damages or specific performance, or both, may be instituted.

(e) The state shall have a first lien upon all oil and gas produced upon the leased area and upon all rigs, tanks, pipeline, telephone lines, and machinery and appliances used in the production and handling of oil and gas produced thereon, to secure any amount due from the owner of the lease.

However, no liability shall be incurred by the State of Texas under this subsection.

(b) The board may sell, encumber, or contract with reference to the divesting or encumbering of the title to, any part of the campus or other property of any institution of the system as may be necessary in the construction or acquisition of dormitories. (b) Each easement granted under this section shall be on forms approved by the attorney general and shall include a complete description of the land on which the easement is to be granted, the period of time covered by the easement, the amount of money to be paid by the grantee to the grantor, or other consideration for the granting of such easement. It shall also specify the terms and conditions, penalties for failure to comply with its provisions, and other pertinent information necessary and desirable to effect a complete understanding of the transaction.

(c) The grant of an easement for right-of-way, except an easement for right-of-way for highway or roadway purposes which may be for an indefinite term shall be limited to a term of not longer than 10 years, but any such easement may be renewed by the board.

(d) All income received by the board under the provisions of this section shall be accounted for and used in the same manner as other money available to the part of the system to which the easement is granted.

(e) No person, firm, group, organization, agency, or corporation shall hereafter construct any telephone, telegraph, transmission, or electric line, pipeline, electric substation, tank farm, loading rack, pumping station, irrigation canal or lateral, highway, or roadway of the kind and character enumerated in Subsection (a) of this section, across or on any section or part of a section of land of the character described in Subsection (a) of this section, who has not obtained a proper easement as provided by this section; or continue in possession of any such land without obtaining from the board a grant of a right-of-way easement or other easement across or on such land where the telephone, telegraph, transmission, or electric lines, pipelines, or any other transmission or pipelines, electric substation, tank farm, loading rack, or pumping station, irrigation canal or lateral, highway, or roadway is to be constructed. It may maintain and operate the airports in connection with the teaching of courses in aeronautical engineering and for purposes in cooperation with the national defense program and for other purposes which will not interfere with those uses.

(b) The board may acquire by purchase, lease, gift, condemnation, or otherwise, and may use, operate, and maintain any kind of property or property interest necessary or convenient to the exercise of powers under this section. SUBCHAPTER D. LEASE OF LANDS FOR OIL, GAS, AND OTHER MINERAL DEVELOPMENT

§ 85.51. Authority to Lease
The board may lease for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other mineral developments to the highest bidder at public auction all lands used for experimental stations and all other lands under its exclusive control, or any part of those lands, owned or in the future acquired by the state for the use of the university system.

§ 85.52. Sale of Mineral Ore in Place
Mineral ore located in and on the land may also be sold in place by the board at not less than the fair market value as determined by the same methods as are provided for leasing of lands under this subchapter for development of the minerals in the lands.

§ 85.53. Tracts, Lots, Blocks
The board may cause the lands to be surveyed or subdivided into tracts, lots, or blocks that will, in its judgment, be most conducive and convenient to facilitate the advantageous sale of lease for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals, and may make maps and plats that may be thought necessary to carry out the purposes of this subchapter. The board may obtain authentic abstracts of title to all the lands as it deems necessary from time to time, and may take any steps necessary to perfect a merchantable title to the lands in the State of Texas.

§ 85.54. Placing Leases on Market; Advertising
(a) Whenever, in the opinion of the board, there is a demand for the purchase of oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, or other mineral leases on any tract or part of any tract of land that will reasonably insure an advantageous sale, the board shall place the oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, or other mineral leases on the land on the market in any tract or tracts, or any part thereof, that the board may designate.

(b) The board shall cause to be advertised a brief description of the land from which the oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, or other minerals is proposed to be leased. The advertisement shall be made by inserting in two or more papers of general circulation in this state; and in addition the board may, in its discretion, cause the advertisement to be placed in an oil and gas journal published in and out of the state, mail copies of the proposals to the county judge of the county where the lands are located, and mail copies of the proposals to other persons the board thinks would be interested.

§ 85.55. Public Auction; Bids; Acceptance; Rejection; Payments
(a) The board may sell the lease or leases to the highest bidder at public auction, at Texas A & M University, in College Station, at any hour between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m.

(b) The board may reject all bids. However, the highest bidder shall pay to the board on the day of the sale 25 percent of the bonus bid, and the balance of the bid shall be paid to the board within 24 hours after notification that the bid has been accepted. Payments shall be in cash, certified check, or cashier's check, as the board may direct. Failure to pay the balance of the amount bid will forfeit to the board the 25 percent paid.

(c) A separate bid shall be made for each tract or subdivision thereof. No bids shall be accepted which offer less than the fair market price per ton for the mineral ore or a royalty of less than one-eighth of the gross production of oil, gas, sulphur, and other minerals in the land bid upon, and this minimum royalty may be increased at the discretion of the board. Every bid shall carry the obligation to pay an amount not less than $1 per acre for delay in drilling or development. The amount shall be fixed by the board in advance of the advertisement and shall be paid every year for five years unless in the meantime production in paying quantities is had upon the land or the land is re-leased by the lessee.

§ 85.56. Subsequent Procedure if No Bids Accepted
If no bid is accepted by the board at the public auction, any subsequent procedure for the sale of oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other mineral leases shall be in the manner prescribed by this subchapter.

§ 85.57. Withdrawal of Land Advertised
The board may withdraw any lands advertised for lease or the sale of mineral ore in place.

§ 85.58. Acceptance of Bids; Award of Lease
(a) If in the opinion of the board any one of the bidders has offered a reasonable and proper price for any tract and not less than the price fixed by the board, the lands advertised may be leased for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other mineral purposes under the provisions of this subchapter and any regulations the board may prescribe which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter.

(b) On acceptance of a bid, the board shall prepare a lease contract. The bid and a copy of the lease contract shall be filed in the general land office.

§ 85.59. Exploratory Term; Extension; Other Provisions of Lease

(a) The exploratory term of the lease as determined by the board prior to the promulgation of the advertisement shall in no case exceed five years, and each lease shall provide that the lease will terminate at the expiration of its exploratory term unless by unanimous vote of members of the board the lease may be extended for a period of three years. The lease may be extended if the board finds that there is likelihood of oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals being discovered by lessees, and that the lessees have proceeded with diligence to protect the interest of the state. However, if oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals are being produced in paying quantities from the premises, the lease shall continue in force and effect as long as the oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals are being so produced. No extension under this section may be made by the board until the last 30 days of the original term of the lease.

(b) When, in the discretion of the board, it is deemed for the best interest of the state to extend a lease issued by the board, the board by unanimous vote may extend the lease for a period not to exceed three years, on the condition that the lessee shall continue to pay yearly rental as provided in the lease and any additional terms the board may see fit and proper to demand. The board may extend the lease and execute an extension agreement.

(c) The lease shall include any additional provisions and regulations the board may prescribe to preserve the interest of the state, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 85.60. Discontinuance of Yearly Payments; Termination for Nonproduction

When the royalties amount to as much as the yearly payments as fixed by the board, the yearly payments may be discontinued. If before the expiration of five years oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals have not been produced in paying quantities, the lease shall terminate unless extended as provided by this subchapter.

§ 85.61. Operations under Lease: Effect on Rental Payments, Term of Lease

If, during the term of any lease issued under the provisions of this subchapter, the lessee is engaged in actual drilling and mining operations for the discovery of oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals on land covered by any such lease, no rentals shall be payable as to the tract on which the operations are being conducted as long as the operations are proceeding in good faith; and if oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals are discovered in paying quantities on any tract of land covered by any lease, then the lease as to that tract shall remain in force as long as oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals are produced in paying quantities from the tract.

§ 85.62. Proration or Reduction of Production

When, in the discretion of the board, it is for the best interest of the state to prorate or reduce production of any land, the board may execute the necessary contract to carry out that purpose.

§ 85.63. Interference with Surface Uses

No lease for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals shall be made by the board which will permit the drilling or mining for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals within 300 feet of any building on the land without the consent of the board. A lease on any experimental station or farm shall provide that the operations for oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals shall not in any way interfere with use of the land as an experimental station and shall not cause the abandonment of the property or its use for experimental farm purposes; and the lessee shall drill, mine, and carry on his operations in such a way as not to cause the abandonment of the property for experimental farm purposes, and any such leased property shall be subject to the use by the State of Texas for all experimental purposes and the board shall continue to operate the experimental station.

§ 85.64. Protection from Drainage

In every case where the area in which oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals sold shall be contiguous or adjacent to lands which are not lands belonging to and held by the university system, the acceptance of the bid and the sale made thereby shall constitute an obligation on the owner to adequately protect the land leased from drainage from the adjacent lands to the extent that a reasonably prudent operator would do under the same and similar circumstances. In cases where the area in which the oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals are sold is contiguous to other lands belonging to and held by the university system which have been leased or sold at a lesser royalty, the owner shall likewise protect the land from drainage from the lands so leased or sold for a lesser royalty. On failure to protect the land from drainage as herein provided, the sale and all rights thereunder may be forfeited by the board in the manner provided in this subchapter for forfeitures.

§ 85.65. Rights of Purchaser; Assignment; Relinquishment

(a) Title to all rights purchased may be held by the owners as long as the area produces oil, gas, sulphur, mineral ore, and other minerals in paying quantities.

(b) All rights purchased may be assigned. All assignments shall be filed in the general land office within 100 days from the date of the first acknowledgment thereof, accompanied by 10 cents per acre for each acre assigned; and if not so filed and payment made, the assignment shall not be effective.
c) All rights to any whole tract or to any assigned portion thereof may be relinquished to the state at any time by having an instrument of relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area may be situated, and filed with the chairman of the board, accompanied by $1 for each area assigned; but such assignment shall not relieve the owner of any past due obligations theretofore accrued thereon.

(d) The board shall authorize the laying of pipeline, telephone line, and the opening of roads as deemed reasonably necessary for and incident to the purpose of this subchapter.

§ 85.66. Royalty Payments; Inspection of Records; Report of Land Commissioner

§ 87.205. Fees and Charges
The fact that provision for the establishment of this academy is for the primary purpose of giving students practical and technical instruction in the arts and sciences relating to the foregoing subjects, and the further fact that training in these fields will lead to immediate and remunerative employment for those who have finished the prescribed courses, make it necessary that larger fees be charged those students who enter the academy than is now paid by students enrolled in state-supported institutions of higher education. Therefore, the provisions of Subchapter E, Chapter 54 of this code, do not apply to the students enrolled in the academy. The board is specifically charged with the duty of assessing such fees and charges against the students who enter the academy as may be necessary to provide for the maintenance and support of the academy.

Such courses must have the prior approval of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3348, ch. 1024, art. 2, § 22, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]

No member State or its officers or employees rendering outside aid pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as relieving any person from liability for his own negligent act or omission, or as imposing liability for such negligent act or omission upon any State.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to affect any existing or future cooperative relationship or arrangement between the United States Forest Service and a member State or States.

ARTICLE VII.
The compact administrators may request the United States Forest Service to act as the primary research and coordinating agency of the South Central Interstate Forest Fire Protection Compact in cooperation with the appropriate agencies in each State, and the United States Forest Service may accept the initial responsibility in preparing and presenting to the compact administrators its recommendations with respect to the regional fire plan. (b) The board may obtain authentic abstracts of title to the lands from time to time as it deems necessary and may take necessary steps to perfect a merchantable title to the lands.

§ 104.74. Sale of Leases; Advertisements; Payments

(a) Whenever in the opinion of the board there is a demand for the purchase of oil, gas, sulphur, or other mineral leases on any tract or part of any tract of land which will reasonably insure an advantageous sale, the board shall place the oil, gas, sulphur, or other mineral leases on the land on the market in a tract or tracts, or any part of a tract, which the board may designate.

(b) The board shall have advertised a brief description of the land from which the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals is proposed to be leased. The advertisement shall be made by inserting in two or more papers of general circulation in this state, and in addition, the advertisement shall be placed in an oil and gas journal published in and out of the state. The board may also mail copies of the proposals to the county judge of the county where the lands are located and to other persons the board believes would be interested.

(c) The board may sell the lease or leases to the highest bidder at public auction at the university in Kingsville at any hour between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

(d) The highest bidder shall pay to the board on the day of the sale 25 percent of the bonus bid, and the balance of the bid shall be paid within 24 hours after the bidder is notified that the bid has been accepted. Payments shall be made in cash, certified check, or cashier's check, as the board directs. (a) A separate bid shall be made for each tract or subdivision of a tract.

(b) No bid shall be accepted which offers a royalty of less than one-eighth of the gross production of oil, gas, sulphur, and other minerals in the land bid upon, and this minimum royalty may be increased at the discretion of the board.

(c) Every bid shall carry the obligation to pay an amount not less than $1 per acre for delay in drilling or development. The amount fixed shall be paid every year for five years unless in the meantime production in paying quantities is had upon the land or the land is released by the lessee.

§ 104.77. Acceptance; Conditions and Provisions of Lease

(a) If, in the opinion of the board, any one of the bidders has offered a reasonable and proper price for any tract, which is not less than the price set by the board, the lands advertised may be leased for oil, gas, sulphur, and other mineral purposes under the terms of this section and subject to regulations prescribed by the board which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. In the event no bid is accepted by the board at public auction, any subsequent procedure for the sale of the leases shall be in the manner prescribed in the preceding sections.

(b) No lease shall be made by the board which will permit the drilling or mining for oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals within 300 feet of any building on the land without the consent of the board. In making any lease on any experimental station or farm, the lease shall provide that the operations for oil, gas, and other minerals shall not in any way interfere with use of the land for university purposes and shall not cause the abandonment of the property or its use for experimental farm purposes. The lease shall also provide that the lessee operating the property shall drill and carry on his operations in such a way as not to cause the abandonment of the property for university purposes, and the leased property shall be subject to the use by the state for all university purposes, and the board shall continue to operate the university.

(b) Whenever the royalties shall amount to as much as the yearly payments fixed by the board, the yearly payments may be discontinued.

(c) If before the expiration of five years oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals have not been produced in paying quantities, the lease shall terminate unless extended as provided in Sections 104.80 and 104.81 of this code.

§ 104.80. Exploratory Term of Lease; Extension; Other Provisions

(a) The exploratory term of a lease as determined by the board prior to the promulgation of the advertisement shall not exceed five years, and each lease shall provide that the lease will terminate at the expiration of its exploratory term unless by unanimous vote of the board the lease is extended for a period of three years.

(b) The lease may be extended if the board finds that there is a likelihood of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals being discovered by the lessees, and that the lessees have proceeded with diligence to protect the interest of the state. If oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are being produced in paying quantities from the premises, the lease shall continue in force and effect as long as the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are being so produced. No extension may be made by the board until the last 30 days of the original term of the lease.

(c) The lease shall include additional provisions and regulations prescribed by the board to preserve the interest of the state, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter.

§ 104.81. Extension of Leases

When in the discretion of the board it is deemed for the best interest of the state to extend a lease issued by the board, the board may by unanimous vote extend the lease for a period not to exceed three years, on the condition that the lessee shall continue to pay yearly rental as provided in the lease and shall comply with any additional terms which the board may see fit and proper to demand. The board may extend the lease and execute an extension agreement.

(a) If during the term of a lease issued under the provisions of this subchapter the lessee is engaged in actual drilling operations for the discovery of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals, no rentals shall be payable as to the tract on which the operations are being conducted as long as the operations are proceeding in good faith.

(b) In the event oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are discovered in paying quantities on any tract of land covered by a lease, then the lease as to that tract shall remain in force as long as oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are produced in paying quantities from the tract.

(c) In the event of the discovery of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals on any tract covered by a lease or on any land adjoining the tract, the lessee shall conduct such operations as may be necessary to prevent drainage from the tract covered by the lease to properly develop the same to the extent that a reasonably prudent man would do under the same and similar circumstances.

§ 104.84. Title to Rights Purchased; Assignment; Relinquishment

(a) Title to all rights purchased may be held by the owners as long as the area produces oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals in paying quantities.

(b) All rights purchased may be assigned. All assignments shall be filed in the general land office within 100 days from the date of the first acknowledg-edgment thereof, accompanied by 10 cents per acre for each acre assigned. The assignment shall not be effective unless it is filed and the payment made.

(c) All rights to any whole tract or to any assigned portion thereof may be relinquished to the state at any time by having an instrument of relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area is situated. The instrument of relinquishment shall be filed with the chairman of the board, accompanied by $1 for each area assigned. The assignment shall not relieve the owner of any past-due obligations accrued on the lease.

(d) The board shall authorize the laying of pipeline and telephone line and the opening of roads deemed reasonably necessary in carrying out the purposes of this subchapter.

(a) If oil or other minerals are developed on any of the lands leased by the board, the royalty as stipulated in the sale shall be paid to the general land office in Austin on or before the last day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the rights purchased. The royalty payments shall be set aside in the state treasury as specified in Section 104.71 of this code and used as provided in that section.

(b) The royalty paid to the general land office shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the owner, manager, or other authorized agent showing the gross amount of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals produced and sold off the premises and the market value of the minerals, together with a copy of all daily gauges, or vats, tanks, gas meter readings, pipeline receipts, gas line receipts, and other checks and memoranda of the amounts produced and put into pipelines, vats, tanks, or pool and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, receipts and discharges of all wells, tanks, vats, pools, meters, and pipelines, and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale, and marketing of the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals shall at all times be subject to inspection and examination by any member of the board or any duly authorized representative of the board.

(c) The commissioner of the general land office shall tender to the board on or before the 10th day of each month a report of all receipts from the lease or sale of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals turned into the special fund in the state treasury during the preceding month.

§ 104.86. Protection from Drainage; Forfeiture of Rights

(a) In every case where the area in which oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals sold is contiguous to other lands belonging to and held by the university, the acceptance of the bid and the sale made thereby shall constitute an obligation of the owner to adequately protect the land leased from drainage from the adjacent lands to the extent that a reasonably prudent operator would do under the same and similar circumstances.

(b) In cases where the area in which the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals sold is contiguous to other lands belonging to and held by the university which have been leased or sold at a lesser royalty, the owner shall protect the land from drainage from the lands leased or sold for a lesser royalty.

(c) On failure to protect the land from drainage as provided in this section, the sale and all rights acquired may be forfeited by the board in the manner provided in Section 104.87 of this code for forfeitures.

(2) the making of a false return or false report concerning production, royalty, drilling, or mining by the owner or his authorized agent;

§ 109.64. Sale of Leases; Advertisements; Payments

(a) Whenever in the opinion of the board there is a demand for the purchase of oil, gas, sulphur, or other mineral leases on any tract or part of any tract of land which will reasonably insure an advantageous sale, the board shall place the oil, gas, sulphur, or other mineral leases on the land on the market in a tract or tracts, or any part of a tract, which the board may designate.

(b) The board shall have advertised a brief description of the land from which the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals is proposed to be leased. The advertisement shall be made by inserting in two or more papers of general circulation in this state, and in addition, the board may, in its discretion, cause the advertisement to be placed in an oil and gas journal published in and out of the state. (c) Every bid shall carry the obligation to pay an amount not less than $1 per acre for delay in drilling or development. The amount shall be fixed by the board in advance of the advertisement. The amount fixed shall be paid every year for five years unless in the meantime production in paying quantities is had upon the land or the land is released by the lessee.

In the event no bid is accepted by the board at public auction, any subsequent procedure for the sale of the leases shall be in the manner prescribed in the preceding sections.

(b) No lease shall be made by the board which will permit the drilling or mining for oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals within 300 feet of any building on the land without the consent of the board. In making any lease on any experimental station or farm, the lease shall provide that the operations for oil, gas, and other minerals shall not in any way interfere with use of the land for university purposes and shall not cause the abandonment of the property or its use for experimental farm purposes. The lease shall also provide that the lessee operating the property shall drill and carry on his operations in such a way as not to cause the abandonment of the property for university purposes, and the leased property shall be subject to the use by the state for all university purposes, and the board shall continue to operate the university.

(b) Whenever the royalties shall amount to as much as the yearly payments fixed by the board, the yearly payments may be discontinued.

(c) If before the expiration of five years oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals have not been produced in paying quantities, the lease shall terminate unless extended as provided in Sections 109.70 and 109.71 of this code.

§ 109.70. Exploratory Term of Lease; Extension; Other Provisions

(a) The exploratory term of a lease as determined by the board prior to the promulgation of the advertisement shall not exceed five years, and each lease shall provide that the lease will terminate at the expiration of its exploratory term unless by unanimous vote of the board the lease is extended for a period of three years.

(b) The lease may be extended if the board finds that there is a likelihood of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals being discovered by the lessees, and that the lessees have proceeded with diligence to protect the interest of the state. If oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are being produced in paying quantities from the premises, the lease shall continue in force and effect as long as the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are being so produced. No extension may be made by the board until the last 30 days of the original term of the lease.

(c) The lease shall include additional provisions and regulations prescribed by the board to preserve the interest of the state, not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter.

When in the discretion of the board it is deemed for the best interest of the state to extend a lease issued by the board, the board may by unanimous vote extend the lease for a period not to exceed three years, on the condition that the lessee shall continue to pay yearly rental as provided in the lease and shall comply with any additional terms which the board may see fit and proper to demand. The board may extend the lease and execute an extension agreement.

(a) If during the term of a lease issued under the provisions of this subchapter the lessee is engaged in actual drilling operations for the discovery of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals, no rentals shall be payable as to the tract on which the operations are being conducted as long as the operations are proceeding in good faith.

(b) In the event oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are discovered in paying quantities on any tract of land covered by a lease, then the lease as to that tract shall remain in force as long as oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals are produced in paying quantities from the tract.

(c) In the event of the discovery of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals on any tract covered by a lease or on any land adjoining the tract, the lessee shall conduct such operations as may be necessary to prevent drainage from the tract covered by the lease to properly develop the same to the extent that a reasonably prudent man would do under the same and similar circumstances.

§ 109.74. Title to Rights Purchased; Assignment; Relinquishment

(a) Title to all rights purchased may be held by the owners as long as the area produces oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals in paying quantities.

(b) All rights purchased may be assigned. All assignments shall be filed in the general land office within 100 days from the date of the first acknowledgment thereof, accompanied by 10 cents per acre for each acre assigned. The assignment shall not be effective unless it is filed and the payment made.

(c) All rights to any whole tract or to any assigned portion thereof may be relinquished to the state at any time by having an instrument of relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area is situated. The instrument of relinquishment shall be filed with the chairman of the board, accompanied by $1 for each area assigned. The assignment shall not relieve the owner of any past-due obligations accrued on the lease.

(d) The board shall authorize the laying of pipeline and telephone line and the opening of roads deemed reasonably necessary in carrying out the purposes of this subchapter.

(a) If oil or other minerals are developed on any of the lands leased by the board, the royalty as stipulated in the sale shall be paid to the general land office or counties in the state on or before the last day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the rights purchased. The royalty payments shall be set aside in the state treasury as specified in Section 109.61 of this code and used as provided in that section.

(b) The royalty paid to the general land office shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the owner, manager, or other authorized agent showing the gross amount of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals produced and sold off the premises and the market value of the minerals, together with a copy of all daily gauges, or vats, tanks, gas meter readings, pipeline receipts, gas line receipts, and other checks and memoranda of the amounts produced and put into pipelines, vats, tanks, or pool and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, receipts and discharges of all wells, tanks, vats, pools, meters, and pipelines, and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale, and marketing of the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals shall at all times be subject to inspection and examination by any member of the board or any duly authorized representative of the board.
§ 109.75 TEXAS EDUCATION CODE

(e) The commissioner of the general land office shall tender to the board on or before the 10th day of each month a report of all receipts from the lease or sale of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals turned into the special fund in the state treasury during the preceding month.

§ 109.76. Protection from Drainage; Forfeiture of Rights

(a) In every case where the area in which oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals sold is contiguous to lands which are not lands belonging to and held by the university, the acceptance of the bid and the sale made thereby shall constitute an obligation of the owner to adequately protect the land leased from drainage from the adjacent lands to the extent that a reasonably prudent operator would do under the same and similar circumstances.

(b) In cases where the area in which the oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals sold is contiguous to other lands belonging to and held by the university which have been leased or sold at a lesser royalty, the owner shall protect the land from drainage from the lands leased or sold for a lesser royalty.

(c) On failure to protect the land from drainage as provided in this section, the sale and all rights acquired may be forfeited by the board in the manner provided in Section 109.77 of this code for forfeitures.

(b) Any of the following acts or omissions constitutes a default:

1. The failure or refusal by the owner of the rights acquired under this chapter to make a payment of a sum due, either as rental or royalty on production, within 30 days after the payment becomes due;

2. The making of a false return or false report concerning production, royalty, drilling, or mining by the owner or his authorized agent;

3. The failure or refusal of the owner or his agent to drill an offset well or wells in good faith, as required by the lease;

4. The refusal of the owner or his agent to allow the proper authorities access to the records and other data pertaining to the operations authorized in this subchapter;

5. The failure or refusal of the owner or his authorized agent to give correct information to the proper authorities, or to furnish the log of a new well within 30 days after production is found in paying quantities; or

6. The violation by the owner of any material term of the lease.

(c) The board may, if it so desires, have suit for forfeiture instituted through the attorney general.

(d) On proper showing by the forfeiting owner within 30 days after the declaration of forfeiture, the lease may be reinstated at the discretion of the board and upon terms prescribed by the board.

(e) In case of violation by the owner of the lease contract, the remedy of forfeiture shall not be the exclusive remedy, and the state may institute suit for damages or specific performance or both.

(f) The state shall have a first lien on oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals produced in the leased area, and on all rigs, tanks, vats, pipelines, telephone lines, and machinery and appliances used in the production and handling of oil, gas, sulphur, or other minerals produced, to secure the amount due from the owner of the lease.

§ 130.044. Election of Trustees by the Position Method

(a) The board of trustees of a district may, by a majority vote of the trustees, if a quorum is present and voting, adopt a numbered position system of electing members to the board.

(b) If the board adopts a numbered position system, candidates are voted on and elected separately for positions on the board according to the number of the position to which they seek election. The official ballots shall contain:

1. the phrase "Official Ballot for the Purpose of Electing Trustees";
2. the name of the junior college district;
3. the number of each position to be filled; and
4. the list of candidates under the position to which they seek election.

(c) Within 10 days from the date of adoption of the numbered position system, the trustees shall determine by lot which position each will hold on the board. The members in Class 1 shall draw for positions one and two; the members in Class 2 shall draw for positions three and four; and the members in Class 3 shall draw for positions five, six, and seven.

(d) A person desiring election to a numbered position on the board must, at least 30 days before the election, file with the board of trustees a written notice of his candidacy, designating the number of the position on the board of trustees for which he desires to become a candidate, and requesting that his name be placed on the ballot. Each candidate who files notice is entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot beneath the number of the position designated in his notice. A person who fails to file the notice required by this section may not have his name printed on the official ballot. A candidate is eligible to have his name printed on the ballot under only one position to be filled at the election.

(e) In the election each voter may vote for only one candidate for each numbered position. The candidate receiving the most votes for each numbered position voted on in the election is entitled to serve as a trustee on the board, in the position to which he is elected.

(f) Notice of an election in a district must be given in the manner and for the time required under the law authorizing the creation of the district, except where there is a conflict with the provisions of this section, then this section is controlling.

SUBCHAPTER D. CHANGES IN DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

§ 130.061. Extension of Boundaries of a Junior College District Coextensive with an Independent School District

The district boundaries of an independent school district junior college shall automatically be extended so that the boundary lines of the two districts, independent school district and junior college district, shall remain identical when:

1. the junior college district was created with the same boundary lines as an independent school district;
2. the boundaries of the independent school district are extended by consolidation, attachment of territory, or otherwise; and
3. the board of trustees of the independent school district is also the governing board of the junior college.

§ 130.062. Enlarged District: Creation; Resolution; Order

(a) If the creation of the junior college district and the extension of the boundaries of the independent school district both occurred prior to March 17, 1950, the added territory of the independent school district may be brought into the junior college district in the manner prescribed by this section.

(b) A petition requesting that such territory be added to the junior college district signed by a majority of the qualified property taxpayers of the territory may be presented to the governing board of the junior college district.

(c) The board shall determine whether the petition is signed by the required majority, based upon the latest approved tax rolls of the independent school district, and if such determination is affirmative and if the board shall also determine that the facilities of the junior college district may be extended to cover adequately the scholastic of the added territory, the board shall pass an order admitting such territory. The order shall describe by metes and bounds the junior college district as extended; and a copy of the order shall be filed with the county superintendent. Thereafter, the territory shall be a part of the junior college district for all intents and purposes.

§ 130.063. Extension of Junior College District

Boundaries for Junior College Purposes Only

 Territory consisting of school districts or parts of school districts adjoining or lying adjacent to any junior college district may be annexed to the junior college district for junior college purposes only, by either contract or election.

§ 130.064. Annexation by Contract

If the annexation is by contract, a petition shall be presented to the governing board of any junior college district, executed by all property owners of all property situated in the territory proposed for annexation. The petition shall contain a legally sufficient description of the territory proposed for annexation. The governing board of the junior college district, if it deems the annexation to be in the best interest of the district, may effect the annexation by:

(1) entering its order authorizing the annexation of the territory by contract; and

(2) then entering into a written agreement duly executed and acknowledged by all persons, corporations, and entities owning property within the territory.

§ 130.065. Annexation by Election

(a) If the annexation is by election, a petition signed by five percent of the property taxpaying electors in the territory seeking to be annexed shall be presented to the county school board of the county, or to the commissioners court of the county in case there is no county school board.

(b) The petition shall contain a legally sufficient description of the territory proposed for annexation, and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of an order by the governing board of the junior college district affected approving the proposed annexation of the territory to the junior college district for junior college purposes only.

(c) The county school board, or the commissioners court, shall issue an order for an election to be held in the territory proposed for annexation, not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the date of the order, and shall give notice of the date of the election by posting notices of such election in three public places within the territory proposed for annexation.

(d) Only those legally qualified electors residing in the territory proposed for annexation shall be permitted to vote.

(e) The county school board, or the commissioners court shall canvass the returns at a meeting held not more than five days after the election. If the votes cast in the election show a majority in favor of annexation, the territory shall be declared annexed to the junior college district for junior college purposes only.

(f) The county school board or commissioners court shall cause a certified copy of the order to be transmitted to the governing board of the junior college district.

(g) At the next regular or special meeting of the governing board of the junior college district, the board shall, in the event of annexation by election, enter its order concurring in the order of the county school board or the commissioners court and shall enter an order redefining the boundary lines of the junior college district as enlarged and extended, and shall cause the order to be recorded on the minutes of the board of the junior college district.

§ 130.066. Adding Contiguous Territory to a Junior College District

(a) Any territory may be included within the boundaries of a junior college district, herein called “district,” for junior college purposes, in the manner hereinafter specified; provided, the territory to be included is contiguous to the district in which such territory is to be included and has been laid out by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, as a service area for assisting junior colleges.

(b) Upon presentation of a petition, signed by 50, or a majority, whichever number is smaller, of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed for inclusion in a district, to the governing body of the district requesting that the boundaries of the district be changed to include the territory described in said petition, such governing body may, in its discretion, order an election to be held within the boundaries of the entire district as proposed to be changed on the question of whether the boundaries of the district shall be changed to include the proposed territory. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon “For” and “Against” boundary change. All qualified electors residing within the boundaries of the entire district as proposed to be changed shall be qualified to vote at such an election.

(c) The governing body of the district calling an election hereunder shall give notice of any such election by causing a substantial copy of its order calling the election to be posted in at least three public places within the boundaries of the district as proposed to be changed and published at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation within such boundaries. Provided, however, that if any railroad right-of-way or other property is located within such territory, additional notice shall be given by certified mail, to the railroad company, at the address shown on the latest county tax roll. Such posting, such publication, and such certified mail notice shall be done at least 30 days prior to the date on which the election is to be held.

(d) Except as otherwise provided herein, all elections held hereunder shall be governed by the provisions relating to bond elections held by independent school districts. The order calling the election may provide that the entire district as proposed to be changed shall constitute one election precinct or such order may provide for more than one election precinct.

(e) The returns of any such election shall be canvassed by the governing body of the district and if a majority of persons residing in the district and voting at the election and a majority of the persons residing in the territory proposed to be annexed and voting at the election vote for the boundary change, the governing body of the district shall, in its order canvassing such returns, declare the boundaries of the district changed to include the territory described in the petition theretofore presented to them. Such order may also include the name by which the district as changed shall be known.

(f) At the next regular election held in the junior college district after territory is added to the district under this section, the qualified electors shall elect a new board of trustees. To continue in office, members of the present board of trustees must be re-elected at this election.

(g) This section is cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this section is wholly sufficient authority within itself for the inclusion of territory in the boundaries of a district and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided in this section. However, the governing body of any district may use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this section, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this section.

§ 130.067.  Annexation of County-line Districts for Junior College Purposes

(a) Parts of county-line school districts may be annexed to adjacent county or joint-county junior college districts for junior college purposes only, as provided in this section.

(b) The county or joint-county junior college district as originally created and organized must have included in its boundaries a part of a county-line school district, and the part of the county-line school district to be annexed is not included in any other junior college district.

(c) The county or joint-county junior college districts to which this section is applicable are those where the junior college district as originally created and organized has the same boundaries as a county or as a group of contiguous counties and included all of the territory in a county or group of counties and did not include a part of any county without including the entire territory of such county in such junior college district.

(d) A "county-line school district" as used in this section is any type of public school district created or organized under general or special laws of Texas, which includes within its boundaries territory that extends into or is located in two or more counties of Texas.

§ 130.068.  Annexation of Non-included Parts of Counties

(a) The non-included portion or portions of such county-line districts may be annexed to the county or joint-county junior college district by either of two methods as provided by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) On the petition of 20 or a majority of the legally qualified voters residing in that part of a county-line district not a part of a junior college district as described in Section 130.067 of this code praying for the annexation for junior college purposes only, of that part of the county-line school district to the junior college district in which the remainder of the county-line district is a part, the county judge of that county which has jurisdiction of the county-line school district shall issue an order for an election to be held in the non-included portion of the county-line school district praying to be annexed to the county or joint-county junior college district. The county judge shall give notice of the date of the election by posting notices at three public places in the part of the county-line school district wherein the election is to be held. Only those legally qualified voters residing in that part of the county-line school district shall be permitted to vote. The commissioners court shall at its next meeting canvass the returns of the election, and if the votes cast, in the election, favor a majority in favor of annexation, then the court shall declare that part of the county-line school district annexed to the junior college district for junior college purposes only. The court shall cause certified copies of the order to be transmitted to the commissioners court of every county in which the junior college district and the county-line school district have territory, and each court shall make orders concurring in the order and shall cause them to be entered on the minutes of each commissioners court.

(c) Where a petition, signed by a majority of the legally qualified voters residing in that part of a county-line school district praying for annexation for junior college purposes only, of that part of the county-line school district to the junior college district in which the remainder of the county-line district is a part, is presented to the county judge of that county which has jurisdiction of the county-line school district together with a certified copy of an order by the governing board of the junior college district approving the proposed annexation to the junior college district for junior college purposes only; instead of ordering an election to be held as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the county judge shall certify the filing of the petition and order to the commissioners court. The court at its next meeting shall pass an order declaring such non-included part of the county-line school district annexed to the junior college district for junior college purposes only and cause certified copies of the order to be transmitted to the commissioners court of every county in which the junior college district and the county-line school district have territory. Each such court shall make orders concurring in the order and cause same to be entered on the minutes of each commissioners court.

§ 130.069.  Disannexation of Overlapped Territory

(a) All junior college districts whose boundaries have or may hereafter become established so that they include territory which prior to such establishment lay, and shall continue to lie, within the boundaries of another junior college district shall have the power to disannex such overlapped territory.

(b) Upon certification by the governing board of such a junior college district to the county board of school trustees of the county in which its college is located that such an overlapping condition exists the county board may be resolution disannex the overlapped territory from the district, describing such territory by metes and bounds.

1, 1971.]

§ 130.070. Disannexation of Territory Comprising an Independent School District

(a) The territory of an independent school district which is the only school district that has been an-nexed to a countywide independent school district junior college district in an adjoining county may be disannexed from such countywide independent school district junior college district and constituted as a separate independent school district junior college district in accordance with the provisions of this section, provided that the countywide independent school district junior college district has no outstanding bonded indebtedness which was incurred after the annexation of such independent school district.

(b) The proposed disannexation and creation of a separate junior college district shall be initiated by a petition signed by not less than five percent (5%) of the qualified taxing electors of the independent school district seeking disannexation. The petition shall be presented to the board of trustees of the independent school district seeking to be disannexed, which shall pass upon the legality and genuineness of the petition and forward the petition, if approved, to the coordinating board.

(c) If the petition is found to be in order and all statutory provisions have been complied with, the coordinating board shall approve the petition and notify the board of trustees of the independent school district seeking to be disannexed, of such approval. The board of trustees of the independent school district seeking disannexation shall then order an election to be held in the school district within a time not less than twenty (20) days nor more than thirty (30) days after the order is issued. At the election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Disannexation of the Independent School from the Junior College District, and creation of the Independent School District with boundaries coterminous with the boundaries of the Independent School District" (the blanks to be filled in as appropriate). All expenses incurred in holding the election shall be paid by the independent school district ordering such election.

(d) The board of trustees shall make a canvass of the returns and declare the result of the election within ten (10) days after holding the election and shall enter an order on the minutes of the board as to the result of the election. If a majority of the votes cast are in favor of disannexation and creation of a separate junior college district, such independent school district shall be deemed disannexed and constituted as a separate junior college district.

(e) If the creation of the separate junior college district is approved, it shall be governed by the provisions of this code relating to independent school district junior colleges. The offices of the representatives of the disannexed independent school district on the governing body of the countywide independent school district junior college district shall be terminated, and the remaining members of that governing body shall continue to serve for the terms for which they were elected.

(f) Any petition for disannexation and creation of a separate junior college district may also incorporate a request for the proper authorities, in the event an election is ordered for the creation of a new district, to submit at the same election, either as a part of the disannexation issue or as a separate issue, the questions of issuing bonds and levying bond taxes and levying maintenance taxes, in the event the district is created, not to exceed the limits provided in Section 130.122 of this code.

JUNIOR COLLEGE DISTRICTS

§ 130.081. Governing Board of Junior College of

of this state applicable to the governing board of such independent school district or city school dist-

§ 130.082. Governing Board of Junior College of
Other than Independent School Dist-

(a) Except as provided by Section 130.081 or another section of this subchapter, the governing boards of all junior college districts shall be constituted and chosen as described in the provisions of this section.

(b) The official name of the governing board of the junior college district shall be the board of trustees.

(c) The official name of a junior college district shall be the "Junior College District" and the board shall designate an appropriate and locally pertinent descriptive word or words to be filled in the aforesaid blank (and may change such designation when deemed advisable) by resolution or order; provided that no two districts shall have the same or substantially similar names. All resolutions or orders designating or changing names shall be filed immediately with the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and the first name filed shall have priority, and the district shall be advised of any previous filing of any identical or substantially similar name. The name of any junior college district existing on the effective date of this

code shall remain the same until and unless it is changed pursuant hereto, and no other district shall use the name of any such existing district.

(d) The number of members or trustees of the governing board shall be either seven or nine, in accordance with the laws applicable to the junior college district on the effective date of this code or on the date of the creation of a new district or a new board. Any seven-member board may be increased to nine, and the two additional members shall be appointed by resolution or order of the board for terms of office as prescribed in Subsection (e) of this section. Any vacancy occurring on the board through death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled by appointment by resolution or order of the board, and any person so appointed shall serve until the expiration of the term of office for which the vacating member of the board had been elected or appointed. Each member of the board shall be a resident, qualified voter of the district and shall take the proper oath of office before taking up the duties thereof. Members of a board shall not receive any remuneration or emolument of office, but they shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual expenses incurred in performing their duties, to the extent authorized and permitted by the board. The board shall elect one of its members as president of the board, and the president shall preside at meetings of said board and perform such other duties and functions as are prescribed by the board. The president of the board shall have a vote the same as the other members. The board shall elect a secretary of the board who may or may not be a member of the board, and who shall be the official custodian of the minutes, books, records, and seal of said board, and who shall perform such other duties and functions as are prescribed by the board. The board shall be authorized to elect any other officers as deemed necessary or advisable. Officers of the board shall be elected at the first regular meeting of the board following the regular election of members of the board in even-numbered years, or at any time thereafter in order to fill a vacancy. Said board shall be authorized to appoint or employ such agents, employees, and officials as deemed necessary or advisable to carry out any power, duty, or function of said board; and to employ a president, dean, or other administrative officer, and upon the president's recommendation to employ faculty and other employees of the junior college. Said board shall act and proceed by and through resolutions or orders adopted or passed by the board and the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the board shall be required to adopt or pass a resolution or order, and the board shall adopt such rules, regulations, and bylaws as it deems advisable, not inconsistent with this section.

(e) The basic term of office of a member of the board shall be six years, and one-third of the members of the board shall be elected at large in the district at regular elections to be held on the first Saturday in April in each even-numbered year; provided that with a seven-member board two members shall be elected in two consecutive even-numbered years and three members shall be elected in the following even-numbered year. The members of each board in office at the effective date of this act, and all subsequent members of the board, shall remain in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected or appointed, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified; provided that where any existing board has held its regular elections for members of the board in odd-numbered years prior to the effective date of this act, the board shall nevertheless hold its next regular election on the first Saturday in April of the next even-numbered year following the effective date of this act, and the term of office of each member of the board shall, in effect, be lengthened by one year so as to comply with the foregoing provisions of this act. Upon the creation of a new board, or in any other situation where necessary, the members of the board shall choose by lot the terms for which they shall serve, so as to comply with the foregoing provisions. If a board is increased from seven to nine members, one of the members shall be appointed to serve until the first election at which two members otherwise would have been elected, and the other shall be appointed to serve until the second election at which two members otherwise would have been elected, and three members shall be elected for six-year terms at each election.

(f) Members of a board shall be elected at large from each junior college district at regular elections to be called and held by the board for such purpose, at the expense of the district, on the first Saturday in April in each even-numbered year. Said elections shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code except as hereinafter provided, and all resident, qualified electors of the district shall be permitted to vote. Each such election shall be called by resolution or order of the board, and notice of each such election shall be given by publishing an appropriate notice, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, at least 10 days prior to the date of the election, setting forth the date of the election, the polling place or places, the numbers of the positions to be filled, the candidates for each position and any other matters deemed necessary or advisable.

(g) The board shall designate a number for the position held by each member of the board, from one even-numbered year to another in such manner that the lowest numbers shall be assigned to the members whose terms of office expire in the shortest length of time, provided that any such position number designations on existing boards under existing law at the effective date of this act shall remain in effect. At each election candidates shall be voted upon and be elected separately for each position on the board, and the name of each candidate shall be placed on the official ballot according to the number of the position for which he or she is running. A candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for a position shall be declared elected. If no candidate receives such a majority, then the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall run against each other for the position. The run-off election for all positions shall be held on the last Saturday in April and shall be ordered, notice thereof given, and held, as provided herein for regular elections. Any resident, qualified elector of the district may have his or her name placed as a candidate on the official ballot for any position to be filled at each regular election by filing with the secretary of the board a written application therefor signed by the applicant, not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the date of the election. Such application must state the number of the position for which he or she is a candidate, or the name of the incumbent member of the board holding the position for which he or she desires to run. The location on the ballot of the names of candidates for each position shall be chosen by lot by the board. A candidate shall be eligible to run for only one position at each election.

(h) Notwithstanding anything in this code to the contrary, the provisions of all or any part of the laws of this state in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act and relating to the name of any junior college district or the name of its governing board, or to the number of members of its governing board, or the procedures and times of electing or choosing said members, shall remain in effect under the following conditions. If, at any time before the effective date of this act (but not thereafter), the governing board of any junior college district shall specify by resolution or order the particular provisions of the aforesaid laws applicable to it which it desires to remain in effect, then such particular provisions shall continue to apply to said board and its district; provided that at any time thereafter the governing board may make this section in its entirety applicable to it and its district by appropriate resolution or order, and thereby permanently cancel the effect of the aforesaid particular provisions of other laws. All resolutions and orders permitted by this section shall be filed immediately with the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 3004, ch. 889, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3294, ch. 1024, art. 1, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]

§ 130.083. Governing Board in Enlarged Junior College District

(a) From and after May 22, 1969, those junior college districts which were on May 22, 1969, operating under Chapter 15, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, 1963 (Article 28150–1b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes 1), and to which one, or more, school districts has been annexed for junior college purposes only, may, by a majority vote of the board of regents of the junior college district, choose to operate and be governed by a board of regents.

(b) Each school district which has been annexed to the junior college district for junior college purposes only shall be represented by at least one member of the board of regents. If the assessed tax rolls exceed $67,500,000, the school district shall be represented by one member of the board of regents for each $67,500,000 of assessed value, or a major fraction thereof, on the junior college tax roll, located within the school district. The original junior college district shall be represented on the board of regents by a number of regents arrived at according to the same formula.

(c) The total number of members of the board of regents of the junior college district shall never exceed 14. When the valuation of the enlarged district increases to the point that the number of regents exceeds 14 under the formula described in Subsection (b) of this section then the board of regents of the junior college district shall set a formula, based on proportional tax values, of representation, which will produce a total of 14 members of the board of regents.

(d) The terms of office of the regents authorized by this act shall be six years. Those regents serving as regents on May 22, 1969, shall continue in office for the remainder of their respective terms and then until such time as their successors shall have been elected and qualified, and thereafter in each even-numbered year three regents shall be elected from the area originally forming the junior college district to succeed those regents whose terms are expiring, but if the number of regents becomes more or less than nine, the formula set out in Subsection (e) of this section shall be followed. All new regents added to the board of regents under the provisions of this section shall be appointed by the board of regents which orders the enlargement of the membership of such board, and shall serve until election specified in Subsection (e) of this section. All vacancies on the board of regents shall be filled at one for the unexpired term only by appointments made by the remaining members of such board.

(e) Where additional regent positions are provided under the terms of this section, the board of regents at the time of such authorization shall designate by resolution duly recorded in the minutes of such board the term to be served by each such additional regent, provided that the first regent authorized and appointed shall serve only until the next regular regent election, the second such regent shall serve until the regent election two years after the next regular regent election, and the third regent shall serve until the regent election four years after the next regular regent election, with additional regents which may be authorized to follow the same rotation of terms until all terms of additional regents provided under the terms of this section have been fixed to expire at the next regular regent election, or at the regent election two years after the next regular regent election, or at the regent election four years after the next regular election. Additional regents appointed to such terms and until such times as their successors shall have been elected and qualified, and thereafter the terms of such regents shall be for six years.

(f) Regent elections in all parts of the districts affected by the provisions of this section shall be held at the times and in the manner now provided for public junior colleges by general law. The qualified voters residing in the school district represented shall be entitled to vote in such elections. Each regent to be elected shall be a resident of the school district he is to represent and each regent to represent the original college district shall be a resident of the original college district.

(g) The provisions of this section shall be cumulative of existing laws governing elections of regents in public junior college districts. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3296, ch. 1024, art. 1, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 3007, ch. 889, § 1; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 3298, ch. 1024, art. 1, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1971.]

§ 130.085. Tuition Exemption

(a) The board of trustees of any public junior college may exempt from payment of tuition all students who are residents of the junior college district and who are enrolled for 12 or more semester credit hours, provided that this action will allow the college to participate in and benefit from funds available as provided by Sections 1–7, Title 1, 64 Stat. 1100, as amended, 20 U.S.C. Secs. 236–241-1.

(b) This action by the board of trustees does not affect their authority under Section 130.120 of this code, nor does this section in any way supersede that section. This policy can best be accomplished under the plan embodied in the regional compact entered into by the State of Texas and thirteen other States February 8, 1948, through their respective Governors.

The regional education compact, as amended, reads as follows:

THE REGIONAL COMPACT

(As amended)

WHEREAS, The States who are parties hereto have during the past several years, conducted careful investigation looking toward the establishment and maintenance of jointly owned and operated regional educational institutions in the Southern States in the professional, technological, scientific, literary and other fields, so as to provide greater educational advantages and facilities for the citizens of the several States who reside within such region; and

WHEREAS, Meharry Medical College of Nashville, Tennessee, has proposed that its lands, buildings, equipment, and the net income from its endowment be turned over to the Southern States, or to an agency acting in their behalf, to be operated as a regional institution for medical, dental and nursing education upon terms and conditions to be hereafter agreed upon between the Southern States and Meharry Medical College; which proposal, because of the present financial condition of the institution has been approved by the said States who are parties hereto; and

WHEREAS, The said States desire to enter into a compact with each other providing for the planning and establishment of regional educational facilities; now, THEREFORE, In consideration of the mutual agreements, covenants and obligations assumed by the respective States who are parties hereto (hereinafter referred to as "States"), the said several States do hereby form a geographical district or region consisting of the areas lying within the boundaries of the contracting States, which, for the purpose of this Compact, shall constitute an area for regional education supported by public funds derived from taxation by the constituent States and derived from other sources for the establishment, acquisition, operation and maintenance of educational schools and institutions within the geographical limits of the regional area of the States, of such character and type and for such educational purposes, professional, technological, scientific, literary, or otherwise, as they may deem and determine to be proper, necessary or advisable. Title to all such educational institutions when so established by appropriate legislative actions of the States, and to all properties and facilities used in connection therewith, shall be vested in said Board as the agency of and for the use and benefit of the said States and citizens thereof; and all such educational institutions shall be operated, maintained and financed in the manner herein set out, subject to any provisions or limitations which may be contained in the Educational Acts of the States authorizing the creation, establishment and operation of such educational institutions.

In addition to the power and authority heretofore granted, the Board shall have the power to enter into such agreements or arrangements with any of the States and with educational institutions or agencies, as may be required in the judgment of the Board, to provide adequate services and facilities for the graduate, professional, and technical education for the benefit of the citizens of the respective States residing within the region, and such additional and general power and authority as may be vested in the Board from time to time by legislative enactment of the said States.

Any two (2) or more States who are parties of this Compact shall have the right to enter into supplemental agreements providing for the establishment, financing and operation of regional educational institutions for the benefit of citizens residing within an area which constitutes a portion of the general region herein created, such institutions to be financed exclusively by such States and to be controlled exclusively by the members of the Board representing such States, provided such agreement is submitted to and approved by the Board prior to the establishment of such institutions.

Each State agrees that, when authorized by the Legislature, it will from time to time make available and pay over to said Board such funds as may be required for the establishment, acquisition, operation and maintenance of such regional educational institutions as may be authorized by the States under the terms of this Compact, the contribution of each State at all times to be in the proportion that its population bears to the total combined population of the States who are parties hereto as shown from time to time by the most recent official published report of the Bureau of the Census of the United States of America; or upon such other basis as may be agreed upon.

This Compact shall not take effect or be binding upon any State unless and until it shall be approved by proper legislative action of as many as six (6) or more of the States whose Governors have subscribed hereto within a period of eighteen (18) months from the date hereof. When and if six (6) or more States shall have given legislative approval to this Compact... within said eighteen (18) months period, it shall be and become binding upon such six (6) or more States sixty (60) days after the date of legislative approval by the sixth State, and the Governors of such six (6) or more States shall forthwith name the members of the Board from their States as hereinafore set out, and the Board shall then meet on call of the Governor of any State approving this Compact, at which time the Board shall elect officers, adopt by-laws, appoint committees and otherwise fully organize.
Other States whose names are subscribed hereto shall thereafter become parties hereto upon approval of this Compact by legislative action within two (2) years from the date hereof, upon such conditions as may be agreed upon at the time. Provided, however, that with respect to any State whose constitution may require amendment in order to permit legislative approval of the Compact, such State or States shall become members of the Board (exclusive of the members representing the State of Texas), from and after which time the State shall cease to be a party to this Compact and have no further claim to or ownership of any of the property held or vested in the Board or to any of the funds of the Board held under the terms of this Compact.

If any State shall at any time become in default in the performance of any of its obligations assumed herein or with respect to any obligation imposed upon said State as authorized by and in compliance with the terms and provisions of this Compact, all rights, privileges and benefits of such defaulting
State, its members on the Board and its citizens, shall ipso facto be and become suspended from and after the date of such default. Unless such default shall be remedied and made good within a period of one year immediately following the date of such default this Compact may be terminated with respect to such defaulting State by an affirmative vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the Board (exclusive of the members representing the State in default), from and after which time such State shall cease to be a party to this Compact and shall have no further claim to or ownership of any of the property held by or vested in the Board or to any of the funds of the Board held under the terms of this Compact, but such termination shall in no maner release such defaulting State from any accrued obligation or otherwise affect this Compact or the rights, duties, privileges or obligations of the remainin States thereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Compact has been approved and signed by Governors of the several States, subject to the approval of their respective Legislatures in the manner hereinafore set out, as of the 8th day of February, 1948.
Chapter 161. Compact for Education

§ 161.01. Compact Entered Into: Text

The Compact for Education is hereby entered into and enacted into law in the form substantially as follows:

COMPACT FOR EDUCATION

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE AND POLICY

Section A. It is the purpose of this compact to:

1. Establish and maintain close cooperation and understanding among executive, legislative, professional educational and lay leadership on a nationwide basis at the State and local levels.

2. Provide a forum for the discussion, development, crystallization and recommendation of public policy alternatives in the field of education.

3. Provide a clearing house of information on matters relating to educational problems and how they are being met in different places throughout the Nation, so that the executive and legislative branches of State Government and of local communities may have ready access to the experience and record of the entire country, and so that both lay and professional groups in the field of education may have additional avenues for the sharing of experience and the interchange of ideas in the formation of public policy in education.

4. Facilitate the improvement of State and local educational systems so that all of them will be able to meet adequate and desirable goals in a society which requires continuous qualitative and quantitative advance in educational opportunities, methods and facilities.

Section B. It is the policy of this compact to encourage and promote local and State initiative in the development, maintenance, improvement and administration of educational systems and institutions in a manner which will accord with the needs and advantages of diversity among localities and States.

Section C. The party States recognize that each of them has an interest in the quality and quantity of education furnished in each of the other States, as well as in the excellence of its own educational systems and institutions, because of the highly mobile character of individuals and the fact that the products and services contributing to the health, welfare and economic advancement of each State are supplied in significant part by persons educated in other States.

ARTICLE II. STATE DEFINED

As used in this Compact, "State" means a State, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III. THE COMMISSION

Section A. The Education Commission of the States, hereinafter called "the Commission," is hereby established. The Commission shall consist of seven members representing each party State. One of such members shall be the Governor or his designated representative, and six shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Governor, unless the laws of the State otherwise provide. In addition to any other principles or requirements which a State may establish for the appointment and service of its members of the Commission, the guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the Commission from each party State shall be that the members representing such State shall, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the State Government, higher education, the State education system, local education, lay and professional, public and non-public educational leadership. Of those appointees, one may be the head of a State agency or institution, designated by the Governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the Commission representing the party States, there may be not to exceed ten non-voting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations of professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

Section B. The members of the Commission shall be entitled to one vote each on the Commission. No action of the Commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the Commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the Commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners are present. The Commission shall meet at least once a year. In its bylaws, and subject to such directions and limitations as may be contained therein, the Commission may delegate the exercise of any... of its powers to the steering committee or the executive director, except for the power to approve budgets or requests for appropriations, the power to make policy recommendations pursuant to Article IV and adoption of the annual report pursuant to Article III(j).

Section C. The Commission shall have a seal.

Section D. The Commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, who shall be a Governor, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The Commission shall provide for the appointment of an executive director. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the Commission, and together with the treasurer and such other personnel as the Commission may deem appropriate shall be bonded in such amount as the Commission shall determine. The executive director shall be secretary.

Section E. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party States, the executive director subject to the approval of the steering committee shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the Commission, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel. The Commission in its bylaws shall provide for their personnel policies and programs of the Commission.

Section F. The Commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party jurisdiction, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party jurisdictions or their subdivisions.

Section G. The Commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any State, the United States, or any other governmental agency or from any person, firm, association, foundation, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. Any donation or grant accepted by the Commission pursuant to this paragraph or services borrowed pursuant to paragraph (f) of this Article shall be reported in the annual report of the Commission. The Commission in its bylaws shall provide for the transacting of its business. The Commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

Section I. The Commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The Commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party States.

Section J. The Commission annually shall make to the Governor and legislature of each party State a report covering the activities of the Commission for the preceding year. The Commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.
Section E. The accounts of the Commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party States and by any persons authorized by the Commission.

Section F. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent Commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the Commission.

ARTICLE VIII. ELIGIBLE PARTIES; ENTRY INTO AND WITHDRAWAL

Section A. This compact shall have as eligible parties all States, Territories, and Possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In respect of any such jurisdiction not having a Governor, the term “Governor,” as used in this compact, shall mean the closest equivalent official of such jurisdiction.

Section B. Any State or other eligible jurisdiction may enter into this compact and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same: provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least ten eligible party jurisdictions shall be required.

Section C. Adoption of the compact may be either by enactment thereof or by adherence thereto by the Governor; provided that in the absence of enactment, adherence by the Governor shall be sufficient to make his State a party only until December 31, 1967. During any period when a State is participating in this compact through gubernatorial action, the Governor shall appoint those persons who, in addition to himself, shall serve as the members of the Commission from his State, and shall provide to the Commission an equitable share of the financial support of the Commission from any source available to him.

Section D. Except for a withdrawal effective on December 31, 1967, in accordance with paragraph C of this Article, any party State may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the Governor of the withdrawing State has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the Governors of all other party States. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party State prior to the time of such withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX. CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any State or of the United States, or the application thereof to any Government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any Government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any State participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the State affected as to all severable matters.

§ 161.02. Texas Representatives
The Texas membership to the Educational Commission of the States shall be the governor or his designated representative and six citizens of the state who shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the governor. These seven members shall officially represent Texas on the Education Commission of the States.

§ 161.03. Effective Date
The effective date of this chapter shall be September 1, 1967.

Certain special laws relating to education, many of which were classified to Title 49, Education—Public, of the Civil Statutes, have not been repealed and are not carried into the Education Code. They have been dropped from the Civil Statutes as special laws.

The tabulation below lists these special laws numerically by article number classification to Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes (where so classified), followed by the subject matter and the original and amendatory citations to the General and Special Laws of Texas.

TITLE 2. PARENT AND CHILD

Enactment

Title 2 of the Texas Family Code was added by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1411, ch. 548, § 1, effective January 1, 1974. Section 4 thereof provides:

“(a) This Act takes effect on January 1, 1974, and governs all proceedings, orders, judgments, and decrees in suits and actions brought after it takes effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court its application in an action pending when this Act takes effect would not be feasible or would work injustice. All things properly done under any previously existing rule or statute prior to the taking effect of this Act shall be treated as valid.

“(b) Any action or suit commenced after January 1, 1974, that has as its object the modification of an order, judgment, or decree entered prior to January 1, 1974, but which under this Act would be a suit affecting the parent-child relationship, is governed by the provisions of this Act, and shall be treated as the commencement of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship in which no court has continuing exclusive jurisdiction.”

(4) if the child is under the care and control of an adult other than a parent and (A) neither a managing conservator nor a guardian of the person has been appointed or (B) the whereabouts of the managing conservator or the guardian of the person is unknown or (C) the person whose residence determines the residence of the child under this section has left the child under the care and control of the adult, the child resides where the adult having care and control of the child resides;

§ 11.05. Continuing Jurisdiction

(a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, when a court acquires jurisdiction of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship, that court retains continuing jurisdiction of all matters provided for under this subtitle in connection with the child, and no other court has jurisdiction of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship with regard to that child except on transfer as provided in Section 11.06 of this code.

(b) A final decree of adoption ends a court's continuing jurisdiction over the child, and any subsequent suit affecting the child shall be commenced as though the child had not been the subject of a suit for adoption or any other suit affecting the parent-child relationship prior to the adoption.

(c) A court shall have jurisdiction over a suit affecting the parent-child relationship if it has been informed by the State Department of Public Welfare that the child has not been the subject of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship and the petition states that no other court has continuing jurisdiction over the child.

§ 11.06. Transfer of Proceedings

(a) If venue is improperly laid in the court in which a suit affecting the parent-child relationship is filed, and no other court has continuing jurisdiction of the suit, the court, on the timely motion of any party other than the petitioner, and on a showing that venue is proper in another county, shall transfer the proceeding to the county where venue is proper.

(b) If a petition or a motion to modify a decree is filed in a court having continuing jurisdiction of the suit, the court, on the timely motion of any party, and on a showing that venue is proper in another county or that a suit for dissolution of marriage has been filed in another court, shall transfer the proceeding to the county where venue is proper or to the court where the suit for dissolution of the marriage is pending. However, if the basis of the motion is that the child resides in another county, the court may deny the motion if it is shown that the child has not resided in that county for at least six months. In computing the period of time during which the child has resided in that county, the court shall not require that the period of residence be continuous and uninterrupted but shall look to the child's principal residence during the said six-months period.

(c) For the convenience of the parties and witnesses and in the interest of justice, the court, on the timely motion of any party, may transfer the proceeding to a proper court in any other county in the state.

(d) If a court has continuing jurisdiction over a child but another court has acquired jurisdiction over the child in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship under Section 11.05(c) of this code, the court previously having jurisdiction over the child, on a motion of any party or on the court's motion, shall transfer the proceeding to the court which has acquired jurisdiction under Section 11.05(c) of this code.

(e) A motion under Subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this section must be made on or before the day on which answer is required.

(f) Each party to the suit is entitled to 10 days' notice and a hearing on the transfer which shall be held within 30 days after the day of filing the motion to transfer. Only evidence pertaining to venue shall be taken at the hearing. An order transferring or refusing to transfer the proceeding is not appealable.

(g) The court transferring a proceeding shall send to the proper court in the county to which transfer is made the complete file in the suit affecting the child, certified copies of all entries in the minutes, and a certified copy of any decree of dissolution of marriage issued in a suit joined with the suit affecting the parent-child relationship.

(h) A court to which a transfer is made becomes the court of continuing jurisdiction, and all proceedings in the suit are continued as if it were brought there originally.

(a) A suit affecting the parent-child relationship shall be commenced by the filing of a petition as provided in this chapter.

(b) On the commencement of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship in a court which has not already acquired continuing jurisdiction, the court shall request from the State Department of Public Welfare identification of the court which last had jurisdiction of the child in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship unless the information from the department is attached to the petition. The court shall identify the child by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If another court is determined to have continuing jurisdiction over the parent-child relationship, the court in which the suit was commenced shall dismiss the suit without prejudice. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1411, ch. 543, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 11.08. Contents of Petition

(b) The petition must be verified by the petitioner and must include to the best of the petitioner’s information and belief:

The notice shall be published one time. If the name of a person entitled to service of citation is unknown, the notice to be published shall be addressed to “All Whom It May Concern.” One or more causes to be heard on a certain day may be included in one notice and hearings may be continued from time to time without further notice.

In any other suit under this subtitle, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem. The managing conservator may be appointed guardian ad litem if he is not a parent of the child or a person petitioning for adoption of the child and if he has no personal interest in the suit.

(b) The verdict of the jury is binding on the court except with respect to the issues of managing conservatorship, possession, and support of and access to a child, on which the verdict is advisory only, provided, however, the court may not enter a decree that contravenes the verdict of the jury on the issues of managing conservatorship, possession of, or access to a child.

§ 11.14.  Hearing

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, the clerk of each court having jurisdiction of suits affecting the parent-child relationship shall transmit to the State Department of Public Welfare a copy of the decree entered in each suit affecting the parent-child relationship, together with the name and all prior names, birthdate, and place of birth of the child. The department shall maintain these records in a central file according to the name, birthdate, and place of birth of the child, the court which rendered the decree, and the docket number of the suit.

(b) On entry of a decree of adoption, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the department the complete file in the case, including all pleadings, papers, studies, and records in the suit other than the minutes of the court. When the department receives the complete file, it shall close the records concerning that child; and except for statistical purposes, it shall not disclose any information concerning the prior proceedings affecting the child. Any subsequent inquiries concerning the child shall be handled as though the child had not been previously the subject of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship. On the receipt of additional records concerning a child who has been the subject of an adoption decree, a new file shall be made and maintained as other records required by this section.

(c) On the written request of a court or of an attorney, the department shall identify the court which last had jurisdiction of the child in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship and give the docket number of the suit, or state that the child has not been the subject of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship. The child shall be identified in the request by name, birthdate, and place of birth. The department shall transmit this information within 10 days after the day the request is received and may charge a reasonable fee to cover the cost of this service.

(d) The records required to be maintained by the department are confidential, and no person is entitled to access to or information from these records except as provided by this section or on an order of a district court of Travis County for good cause.

(e) The department may utilize microfilm or other suitable means for maintaining the central record file. A certified reproduction of a document maintained by the department is admissible in evidence as the original document.

§ 11.18. Costs

(a) In any proceeding under this subtitle, the court may award costs as in other civil cases. Reasonable attorney's fees may be taxed as costs, and may be ordered paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order for fees in his own name.

(b) No separate filing fee is required in any suit affecting the parent-child relationship joined with a suit for dissolution of marriage under Title 1 of this code. Additional filing fees shall not be required if more than one form of relief is requested in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship.

proper showing, may permit the order, decree, or judgment to be suspended.

(d) On the motion of the parties or on its own motion the appellate court in its opinion may identify the parties by fictitious names or by their initials only.

1 Section 15.01 et seq.
§ 13.02. Statement of Paternity

The statement of paternity authorized to be used in Section 13.01 of this code must be executed by the father of the child as an affidavit and witnessed by two credible adults. The affidavit must clearly state that the father acknowledges the child as his child, that he and the mother, who is named in the affidavit, were not married to each other at the time of conception of the child or at any subsequent time, that the child is not the legitimate child of another man, and that the child is entitled to support from the father. The statement must be executed before a person authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state.

§ 13.03. Effect of Statement of Paternity

(a) A statement of paternity executed as provided in Section 13.02 of this code is prima facie evidence that the child is the child of the person executing the statement and that the person has an obligation to support the child.

(b) If the father’s address is unknown or he is outside the jurisdiction of the court at the time a suit is instituted under Section 13.01 of this code, his statement of paternity, in the absence of controverting evidence, is sufficient for the court to enter a decree establishing his paternity of the child.

§ 13.04. Validation of Prior Statements

A statement acknowledging paternity or an obligation to support a child which was signed by the father before January 1, 1974, is valid and binding even though the statement is not executed as provided in Section 13.02 of this code and is not filed with the State Department of Public Welfare or with the court.

§ 13.05. Managing Conservatorship, Support, Etc.

In a suit in which voluntary legitimation is sought, the court may provide for the managing conservatorship, possession, and support of and access to the child.

§ 13.06. Birth Certificate.

On voluntary legitimation under this chapter, the clerk of the court, unless directed otherwise by the court, shall transmit a copy of the decree to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. The decree shall state the name of the child. The registrar shall substitute for the original a new birth certificate based on the decree in accordance with the provisions of the laws which permit the correction or substitution of birth certificates for adopted children or children legitimated by the subsequent marriage of their parents and in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Health.

Section

14.01. Court Appointment of Managing Conservator

(a) In any suit affecting the parent-child relationship, the court may appoint a managing conservator, who must be a suitable, competent adult, or a parent, or an authorized agency. If the court finds that the parents are or will be separated, the court shall appoint a managing conservator.

(b) A parent shall be appointed managing conservator of the child unless the court finds that appointment of the parent would not be in the best interest of the child. In determining which parent to appoint as managing conservator, the court shall consider the qualifications of the respective parents without regard to the sex of the parent.

(c) A qualified person or authorized agency designated managing conservator of the child in an unrevoked or irrevocable affidavit of relinquishment of parental rights executed pursuant to Section 15.03 of this code shall be appointed managing conservator of the child unless the court finds that appointment of the person or agency would not be in the best interest of the child.

(d) A person appointed managing conservator who is not a parent of the child shall each 12 months after his appointment file with the court a report of facts concerning the child’s welfare, including his whereabouts and physical condition. The report may not be admitted in evidence in any subsequent suit affecting the parent-child relationship.

§ 14.02. Rights, Privileges, Duties, and Powers of Managing Conservator

(a) A parent appointed managing conservator of the child retains all the rights, privileges, duties, and powers of a parent to the exclusion of the other parent, subject to the rights, privileges, duties, and powers of a possessory conservator as provided in Section 14.04 of this code and to any limitation imposed by court order in allowing access to the child.
§ 14.02

(b) A managing conservator who is not the parent of the child has the following rights, privileges, duties, and powers, subject to the rights, privileges, duties, and powers of a possessory conservator as provided in Section 14.04 of this code and to any limitation imposed by court order in allowing access to the child:

(1) the right to have physical possession of the child and to establish its legal domicile;
(2) the duty of care, control, protection, moral and religious training, and reasonable discipline of the child;
(3) the duty to provide the child with clothing, food, shelter, and education;
(4) the right to the services and earnings of the child;

(6) the power to represent the child in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the child;
(7) the power to receive and give receipt for periodic payments for the support of the child and to hold or disburse these funds for the benefit of the child; and
(8) if the parent-child relationship has been terminated with respect to the parents, or only living parent, or if there is no living parent, the power to consent to the adoption of the child and to make any other decision concerning the child that a parent could make.

c) A person or authorized agency designated managing conservator of a child in an affidavit of relinquishment executed pursuant to Section 15.03 and powers given by Section 14.04 of this code to a possessory conservator until such time as these rights, privileges, duties, and powers are modified or terminated by court order.

§ 14.03. Possession of and Access to Child

(a) If a managing conservator is appointed, the court may appoint one or more possessory conservators and set the time and conditions for possession of or access to the child by the possessory conservators and others.

(b) On the appointment of a possessory conservator, the court shall prescribe the rights, privileges, duties, and powers of the possessory conservator.

(c) The court may not deny possession of or access to a child to either or both parents unless it finds that parental possession or access is not in the best interest of the child and that parental possession or access would endanger the physical or emotional welfare of the child.

(d) The court may grant reasonable visitation rights to either the maternal or paternal grandpar-ents of the child and issue any necessary orders to enforce said decree.

§ 14.04. Rights, Privileges, Duties, and Powers of Possessory Conservator

A possessory conservator has the following rights, privileges, duties, and powers during the period of possession, subject to any limitations expressed in the decree:

(1) the duty of care, control, protection, and reasonable discipline of the child;
(2) the duty to provide the child with clothing, food, and shelter;
(3) the power to consent to medical and surgical treatment during an emergency involving an immediate danger to the health and safety of the child; and
(4) any other right, privilege, duty, or power of a managing conservator expressly granted in the decree awarding possession of the child.

§ 14.05. Support of Child

(a) The court may order either or both parents to make periodic payments or a lump-sum payment, or both, for the support of the child until he is 18 years of age in the manner and to the persons specified by the court in the decree. In addition, the court may order a parent obligated to support a child to set aside property to be administered for the support of the child in the manner and by the persons specified by the court in the decree.

(b) If the court finds that the child, whether institutionalized or not, requires continuous care and personal supervision because of a mental or physical disability and will not be able to support himself, the court may order that payments for the support of the child shall be continued after the 18th birthday and extended for an indefinite period.

(c) The court may order the trustees of a spendthrift or other trust to make disbursements for the support of the child to the extent the trustees are required to make payments to a beneficiary who is required to make support payments under this section. If disbursement of the assets of the trust is discretionary in the trustees, the court may order payments for the benefit of the child from the income of the trust, but not from the principal.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by the marriage of the child, the removal of the child's disabilities for general purposes, or the death of a parent obligated to support the child.

§ 14.06. Agreements Concerning Conservatorship

(a) To promote the amicable settlement of disputes between the parties to a suit under this chapter, the parties may enter into a written agreement...
§ 14.07. Best Interest of Child

(a) The best interest of the child shall always be the primary consideration of the court in determining questions of managing conservatorship, possession, and support of and access to the child. If the child is 14 years of age or older, he may, by writing filed with the court, choose the managing conservator, subject to the approval of the court.

(b) In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider the circumstances of the parents.

(c) The court may interview the child in chambers to ascertain the child’s wishes as to his conservator. The court may permit counsel to be present at the interview. The court shall cause a record of the interview to be made and to be made part of the record in the case.

(d) Terms of the agreement set forth in the decree may be enforced by all remedies available for enforcement of a judgment, including contempt, but are not enforceable as contract terms unless the agreement so provides.

§ 14.08. Modification of Order

(a) Any party affected by an order of the court providing for managing conservatorship or support of a child, or setting the terms and conditions for possession of or access to a child, may file a motion requesting the court to modify its former order. The motion shall allege that the circumstances of the child have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order sought to be modified, set forth the alleged circumstances, and be sworn to by the party seeking modification.

(b) All parties to the suit are entitled to notice and hearing.

(c) After a hearing and on a finding that the circumstances of the child have materially and substantially changed and that modification is in the best interest of the child, any order or part of an order may be modified, except that an order providing for support of a child may be modified only as to obligations accruing subsequent to the motion to modify.

(d) No motion to modify the decree of conservatorship may be made earlier than one year after the date of the initial decree unless the court decides on the basis of affidavit that there is reason to believe that the child’s present environment may endanger his physical health or significantly impair his emotional development. The affidavit shall set forth facts supporting the requested modification and shall be submitted with the motion to modify. The court shall deny the motion to modify unless it finds adequate cause for hearing the motion, in which case the motion shall be set for hearing.

§ 14.09. Enforcement of Order

(a) Any order of the court may be enforced by contempt.

(b) A court may enforce an order for support as provided in Rule 308A of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure or any subsequent version of the rule promulgated by the supreme court.

(c) On the motion of any party entitled to receive payments for the benefit of a child, the court may render judgment against a defaulting party for any amount unpaid and owing after 10 days’ notice to the defaulting party of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order. The judgment may be enforced by any means available for the enforcement of judgments for debts.

(d) A parent may be compelled to testify fully in regard to his ability to support the child.

§ 14.10. Habeas Corpus

(a) If the right to possession of a child is presently governed by a court order, the court in a habeas corpus proceeding involving the right to possession of the child shall compel return of the child to the relator if and only if it finds that the relator is presently entitled to possession by virtue of the court order.

(b) The court shall disregard any cross action or motion pending for modification of the decree determining managing conservatorship, possession, or support of or access to the child unless it finds that the previous order was granted by a court of another state or nation and that:

(1) the court did not have jurisdiction of the parties; or

(2) the child has been within the state for at least 12 months immediately preceding the filing of the petition for the writ.

(c) The court may issue any appropriate temporary order if there is a serious immediate question concerning the welfare of the child.

(d) While in this state for the sole purpose of compelling the return of a child through a habeas corpus proceeding, the relator is not amenable to civil process and is not subject to the jurisdiction of any civil court except the court in which the writ is pending and in that court only for the purpose of prosecuting the writ.

CHAPTER 15. TERMINATION OF THE PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

An agency designated managing conservator in an unrevoked or irrevocable affidavit of relinquishment shall be appointed managing conservator. The order of appointment may refer to the docket number of the suit and need not refer to the parties nor be accompanied by any other papers in the record.

(c) If the court does not order termination of the parent-child relationship, it shall:

§ 21.24. Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction of all proceedings hereunder is vested in the district court. The child shall be identified by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction.

(b) If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of the petition, its certificate, and this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

§ 21.30. Jurisdiction by Arrest

When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the defendant may flee the jurisdiction, it may:

(2) as a responding state, obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process.

The child shall be identified by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction. If it is found that no court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the clerk of the court shall docket the case and notify the district judge or the judge of the domestic relations court, or both judges, of his action.

(b) It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney diligently to prosecute the case. He shall take all action necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to give the court jurisdiction of the defendant or his property and shall request the clerk of the court to set a time and place for a hearing.

(b) If the defendant or his property is not found in the judicial district and the prosecuting attorney discovers by any means that the defendant or his property may be found in another judicial district of this state or in another state, he shall so inform the court; and thereupon the clerk of the court shall forward the documents received from the court in the initiating state to a court in the other judicial district or to a court in the other state or to the information agency or other proper official of the other state with a request that it forward the documents to the proper court. Thereupon, both the court of the judicial district and the prosecuting attorney have the same powers and duties under this chapter as if the documents had been originally addressed to them. When the clerk of a court of this state retransmits documents to another court, he shall notify forthwith the court from which the documents came.

If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction, and that court shall act as the initiating court. If it is found that no other court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the court in which the petition was filed shall proceed as the initiating court.

(c) If the initiating court finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and finds that another court in this state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, the clerk of the court shall send three copies of the petition and a certification of the findings to the court of the judicial district in which the defendant or his property is found. The clerk of the court receiving these copies shall notify the prosecuting attorney of their receipt. The prosecuting attorney and the court to which the copies are forwarded shall then have duties corresponding to those imposed upon them when acting for the state as a responding state.

(d) In a suit under this section, no defense may be raised other than payment and satisfaction of the support obligation or invalidity of the decree or judgment creating the obligation.

(e) If the defendant in a suit filed under this section files a motion to modify a prior order in a court with continuing jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought under Section 14.08 of this code, the proceeding under this section shall be abated.

§ 21.65. Jurisdiction and Procedure

The procedure to obtain jurisdiction of the person or property of the obligor shall be as provided in civil cases. The obligor may assert any defense available to a defendant in an action on a foreign judgment. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Interstate Compact on Juveniles.

§ 25.02. Execution of Interstate Compact

The governor shall execute a compact on behalf of the state with any other state or states legally joining in it in substantially the following form:

"INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

"The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

"That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped, or run away are likely to endanger their own health, morals, and welfare, and the health, morals, and welfare of others. The cooperation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformative, and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected, and dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II. EXISTING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

"That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies, and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III. DEFINITIONS

"That, for the purpose of this compact, 'delinquent juvenile' means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; 'probation or parole' means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; 'court' means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected, or dependent children; 'state' means any state, territory, or possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and 'residence' or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV. RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

"(a) That the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person, or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner, and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custo-
§ 25.02 FAMILY CODE

The circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected, or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

"Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

"(b) That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

"(c) That ‘juvenile’ as used in this article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V. RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABDUCED JUVENILES

"(a) That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

"Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with this legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

"(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible for the payment of the transportation costs of such return.

1 So in enrolled bill; probably should read "his".

ARTICLE VI. VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

"That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV(a) or of Article V(a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped, or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing in writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII. COOPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES

"(a) That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called 'sending state') may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called ‘receiving state’) while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian, or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies, and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian, or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

“(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

“(c) That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceedings to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

“(d) That the sending state shall be responsible under this article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII. RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

“(a) That the provisions of Articles IV(b), V(b), and VII(d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies, and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

“(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency, or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b), or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX. DETENTION PRACTICES

“That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail, or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious, or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X. SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS

“That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment, and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment, and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment, and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment, and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services, and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment, and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) provide for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.
ARTICLE XI. ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

"That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts, and grants of money, equipment, and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm, or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same, subject to the terms, conditions, and regulations governing such donations, gifts, and grants.

ARTICLE XII. COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

"That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII. EXECUTION OF COMPACT

"That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form or execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV. RENUNCIATION

"That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months renunciation notice of the present article.

ARTICLE XV. SEVERABILITY

"That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters."

§ 25.03. Execution of Additional Article

The governor shall also execute on the behalf of the state with any other state or states legally joining in it, an additional article to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles in substantially the following form:

ARTICLE XVI. ADDITIONAL ARTICLE

"That this article shall provide additional remedies, and shall be binding only as among and between those party states which specifically execute the same.

"For the purposes of this article, 'child,' as used herein, means any minor within the jurisdictional age limits of any court in the home state.

"When any child is brought before a court of a state of which such child is not a resident, and such state is willing to permit such child's return to the home state of such child, such home state, upon being so advised by the state in which such proceeding is pending, shall immediately institute proceedings to determine the residence and jurisdictional facts as to such child in such home state, and upon finding that such child is in fact a resident of said state and subject to the jurisdiction of the court thereof shall within five days authorize the return of such child to the home state, and to the parent or custodial agency legally authorized to accept such custody in such home state, and at the expense of such home state, to be paid from such funds as such home state may procure, designate, or provide, prompt action being of the essence."

§ 25.04. Execution of Amendment

The governor shall also execute on the behalf of the state with any other state or states legally joining in it, an amendment to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles in substantially the following form:

RENDITION AMENDMENT

"(a) This amendment shall provide additional remedies, and shall be binding only as among and between those party states which specifically execute the same.

"(b) All provisions and procedures of Articles V and VI of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles shall be construed to apply to any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of a violation of any criminal law. Any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of violating any criminal law shall be returned to the requesting state upon a requisition to the state where the juvenile may be found. A petition in such case shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in the requesting state where the violation of criminal law is alleged to have been committed. The petition may be filed regardless of whether the juvenile has left the state before or after the filing of the petition. The requisition described in Article V of the compact shall be forwarded by the judge of the court in which the petition has been filed."
Juvenile Compact Administrator

Under the compact, the governor may designate an officer as the compact administrator. The administrator, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall adopt regulations to carry out more effectively the terms of the compact. The compact administrator serves at the pleasure of the governor. The compact administrator shall cooperate with all departments, agencies, and officers of and in the government of this state and its subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact or of a supplementary agreement entered into by this state.

Supplementary Agreements

A compact administrator may make supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to the compact. If a supplementary agreement requires or contemplates the use of an institution or facility of this state or requires or contemplates the provision of a service of this state, the supplementary agreement has no force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction the institution is operated, or whose department or agency is charged with performing the service.

Financial Arrangements

The compact administrator may make or arrange for the payments necessary to discharge the financial obligations imposed upon this state by the compact or by a supplementary agreement made under the compact, subject to legislative appropriations.

Enforcement

The courts, departments, agencies, and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall enforce this compact and shall do all things appropriate to effectuate its purposes and intent which are within their respective jurisdictions.

Additional Procedures not Precluded

In addition to the procedures provided in Articles IV and VI of the compact for the return of a runaway juvenile, the particular states, the juvenile, or his parents, the courts, or other legal custodian involved may agree upon and adopt any plan or procedure legally authorized under the laws of this state and the other respective party states for the return of the runaway juvenile.

(c) In each county, the juvenile board, or if there is none, the judge of the juvenile court, shall personally inspect the detention facilities at least annually and shall certify in writing to the authorities responsible for operating and giving financial support to the facilities that they are suitable or unsuitable for the detention of children in accordance with:

§ 51.13. Effect of Adjudication or Disposition

(b) The adjudication or disposition of a child or evidence adduced in a hearing under this title may be used only in subsequent proceedings under this title in which the child is a party or in subsequent sentencing proceedings in criminal court against the child to the extent permitted by the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(c) A child may not be committed or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used primarily for the execution of sentences of persons convicted of crime, except:

(d) Except for files and records relating to a charge for which a child is transferred under Section 54.02 of this code to a criminal court for prosecution, the law-enforcement files and records are not open to public inspection nor may their contents be disclosed to the public, but inspection of the files and records is permitted by:

(1) a juvenile court having the child before it in any proceeding;
(2) an attorney for a party to the proceeding; and
(3) law-enforcement officers when necessary for the discharge of their official duties.

§ 51.15. Fingerprints and Photographs

(2) the person reaches 18 years of age and there is no record that he committed a criminal offense after reaching 17 years of age.

(f) If latent fingerprints are found during the investigation of an offense, and a law-enforcement officer has reasonable cause to believe that they are those of a particular child, if otherwise authorized by law, he may fingerprint the child regardless of the age or offense for purpose of immediate comparison with the latent fingerprints. If the comparison is negative, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be destroyed immediately. If the comparison is positive, and the child is referred to the juvenile court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be delivered to the court for disposition. If the child is not referred to the court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be destroyed immediately.

(g) When destruction of fingerprints or photographs is required by Subsection (e) or (f) of this section, the agency with custody of the fingerprints or photographs shall proceed with destruction without judicial order. However, if the fingerprints or photographs are not destroyed, the juvenile court, on its own motion or on application by the person fingerprinted or photographed, shall order the destruction as required by this section.

§ 51.16. Sealing of Files and Records

(a) On the application of a person who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, or a person taken into custody to determine whether he was engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, or on the juvenile court's own motion, the court, after hearing, shall order the sealing of the files and records in the case, including those specified in Sections 51.14 and 51.15 of this code, if the court finds that:

(1) two years have elapsed since final discharge of the person, or since the last official action in his case if there was no adjudication;
(2) since the time specified in Subdivision (1) of this subsection, he has not been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, and no proceeding is pending seeking conviction or adjudication; and

(g) On the final discharge of a child or on the last official action in his case if there is no adjudication, the child shall be given a written explanation of his rights under this section and a copy of the provisions of this section.

2. There is probable cause to believe the child engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision; and
3. Further proceedings in the case are in the interest of the child or the public.

(b) If it is determined that the person is not a child, or there is no probable cause, or further proceedings are not warranted, the child shall immediately be released and proceedings terminated.

(c) When custody of a child is given to the office or official designated by the juvenile court, the intake officer, probation officer, or other person authorized by the court shall promptly give notice of the whereabouts of the child and a statement of the reason he was taken into custody to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian unless the notice given under Section 52.02(b) of this code provided fair notice of the child's present whereabouts.

The release may be conditioned upon requirements reasonably necessary to insure the child's appearance at later proceedings, but the conditions of the release must be in writing and filed with the office or official designated by the court and a copy furnished to the child.

(b) A child taken into custody may be detained prior to hearing on the petition only if:

§ 53.03. Intake Conference and Adjustment

(a) If the preliminary investigation required by Section 53.01 of this code results in a determination that further proceedings in the case are authorized and warranted, the probation officer or other designated officer of the court, subject to the direction of the juvenile court, may advise the parties for a reasonable period of time not to exceed six months concerning an informal adjustment and voluntary rehabilitation of a child if:

1. advice without a court hearing would be in the interest of the public and the child;
2. the child and his parent, guardian, or custodian consent with knowledge that consent is not obligatory; and
3. the child and his parent, guardian, or custodian are informed that they may terminate the adjustment process at any point and petition the court for a court hearing in the case.

(c) An incriminating statement made by a participant to the person giving advice and in the discussions or conferences incident thereto may not be used against the declarant in any court hearing.

§ 53.04. Court Petition; Answer

(a) If the preliminary investigation, required by Section 58.01 of this code results in a determination that further proceedings are authorized and warranted, a petition for an adjudication or transfer hearing of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be made as promptly as practicable by a prosecuting attorney who has knowledge of the facts alleged or is informed and believes that they are true.

(b) The proceedings shall be styled "In the matter of ________.

(e) An oral or written answer to the petition may be made at or before the commencement of the hearing. If there is no answer, a general denial of the alleged conduct is assumed.

§ 53.05. Time Set for Hearing

(a) After the petition has been filed, the juvenile court shall set a time for the hearing.

(b) The time set for the hearing shall not be later than 10 days after the day the petition was filed if:

1. the child is in detention; or
2. the child will be taken into custody under Section 53.06(d) of this code.

§ 53.06. Summons

(c) The court may endorse on the summons an order directing the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child to appear personally at the hearing and directing the person having the physical custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing. A person who violates an order entered under this subsection may be proceeded against under Section 54.07 of this code.

(d) If it appears from an affidavit filed or from sworn testimony before the court that immediate detention of the child is warranted under Section 53.02(b) of this code, the court may endorse on the summons an order that a law-enforcement officer shall serve the summons and shall immediately take the child into custody and bring him before the court.

(e) A party, other than the child, may waive service of summons by written stipulation or by voluntary appearance at the hearing.

Sections 54.03, 54.04, 54.05, 54.06, 54.07, 54.08, 54.09.

§ 54.07. Service of Summons

(a) If a person to be served with a summons is in this state and can be found, the summons shall be served upon him personally at least two days before the day of the adjudication hearing. If he is in this state and cannot be found, but his address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served on him by mailing a copy by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days before the day of the hearing. If he is outside this state but he can be found or his address is known, or his whereabouts or address can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy to him personally or mailing a copy to him by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days before the day of the hearing.

§ 54.08. Public Access to Court Hearings.

CHAPTER 54. JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Section 54.01. Detention Hearing.
54.02. Waiver of Jurisdiction and Discretionary Transfer to Criminal Court.

§ 54.01. Detention Hearing

(a) If the child is not released under Section 53.02 of this code, a detention hearing without a jury shall be held promptly, but not later than the next working day after he is taken into custody.

(b) Reasonable notice of the detention hearing, either oral or written, shall be given, stating the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. Notice shall be given to the child and, if they can be found, to his parents, guardian, or custodian. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the court shall inform the parties of the child's right to counsel and to appointed counsel if they are indigent and of the child's right to remain silent with respect to any allegations of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

(c) At the detention hearing, the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the detention hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in making the detention decision. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(d) A detention hearing may be held without the presence of the child's parents if the court has been unable to locate them. If no parent or guardian is present, the court shall appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem for the child.

(e) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall order the child released from detention unless it finds that:

1. he is likely to abscond or be removed from the jurisdiction of the court;
2. he needs supervision, care, or protection for him is not being provided by a parent, guardian, or custodian; or
3. he has no parent, guardian, or custodian and is unable to return to the court when required.

(f) A release may be conditioned on requirements reasonably necessary to insure the child's appearance at later proceedings, but the conditions of the release must be in writing and a copy furnished to the child.

(g) No statement made by the child at the detention hearing shall be admissible against the child at any other hearing.
§ 54.01 FAMILY CODE

(b) A detention order extends to the conclusion of the disposition hearing, if there is one, but in no event for more than 10 days. Further detention orders may be made following subsequent detention hearings. Subsequent detention hearings may be waived in accordance with the requirements of Section 51.09 of this code, but each detention order shall extend for no more than 10 days.

(i) A child in custody may be detained for as long as 10 days without the hearing described in Subsection (a) of this section if:

1. A written request for shelter in detention facilities pending arrangement of transportation to his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state is voluntarily executed by the child not later than the next working day after he was taken into custody;

2. The request for shelter contains:
   (A) A statement by the child that he voluntarily agrees to submit himself to custody and detention for a period of not longer than 10 days without a detention hearing;
   (B) An allegation by the person detaining the child that the child has left his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state, that he is in need of shelter, and that an effort is being made to arrange transportation to his place of residence;
   (C) A statement by the person detaining the child that he has advised the child of his right to demand a detention hearing under Subsection (a) of this section; and

3. The request is signed by the juvenile court judge to evidence his knowledge of the fact that the child is being held in detention.

(j) The request for shelter may be revoked by the child at any time, and on such revocation, if further detention is necessary, a detention hearing shall be held not later than the next working day in accordance with Subsections (a) through (g) of this section.

(k) Notwithstanding anything in this title to the contrary, the child may sign a request for shelter without the concurrence of an adult specified in Section 51.09 of this code.

(l) The juvenile board or, if there is none, the juvenile court, may appoint a referee to conduct the detention hearing. The referee shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state. Such payment or additional payment as may be warranted for referee services shall be provided from county funds. Before commencing the detention hearing, the referee shall inform the parties who have appeared that they are entitled to have the hearing before the juvenile court judge or a substitute judge authorized by Section 51.04(f) of this code. If a party objects to the referee conducting the detention hearing, an authorized judge shall conduct the hearing within 24 hours. At the conclusion of the hearing, the referee shall transmit written findings and recommendations to the juvenile court judge or substitute judge. The juvenile court judge or substitute judge shall adopt, modify, or reject the referee's recommendations within 24 hours. Failure to act within that time results in release of the child by operation of law. A recommendation that the child be released operates to secure his immediate release, subject to the power of the juvenile court judge or substitute judge to reject or modify that recommendation. The effect of an order detaining a child shall be computed from the time of the hearing before the referee.

§ 54.02. Waiver of Jurisdiction and Discretionary Transfer to Criminal Court

(a) The juvenile court may waive its exclusive original jurisdiction and transfer a child to the appropriate district court or criminal district court for criminal proceedings if:

1. The child is alleged to have violated a penal law of the grade of felony;

2. The child was 15 years of age or older at the time the child was alleged to have committed the offense and no adjudication hearing has been conducted concerning that offense; and

3. After full investigation and hearing the juvenile court determines that because of the seriousness of the offense or the background of the child the welfare of the community requires criminal proceedings.

(b) The petition and notice requirements of Sections 53.04, 53.05, 53.06, and 53.07 of this code must be satisfied, and the summons must state that the hearing is for the purpose of considering discretionary transfer to criminal court.

(c) The juvenile court shall conduct a hearing without a jury to consider transfer of the child for criminal proceedings.

(d) Prior to the hearing, the juvenile court shall order and obtain a complete diagnostic study, social evaluation, and full investigation of the child, his circumstances, and the circumstances of the alleged offense.

(e) At the transfer hearing the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. At least one day prior to the transfer hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in making the transfer decision. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(f) In making the determination required by Subsection (a) of this section, the court shall consider, among other matters:

(1) whether the alleged offense was against person or property, with greater weight in favor of transfer given to offenses against the person;
(2) whether the alleged offense was committed in an aggressive and premeditated manner;
(3) whether there is evidence on which a grand jury may be expected to return an indictment;
(4) the sophistication and maturity of the child;
(5) the record and previous history of the child; and
(6) the prospects of adequate protection of the public and the likelihood of the rehabilitation of the child by use of procedures, services, and facilities currently available to the juvenile court.

(g) If the juvenile court retains jurisdiction, the child is not subject to criminal prosecution at any time for any offense alleged in the petition or for any offense within the knowledge of the juvenile court judge as evidenced by anything in the record of the proceedings.

(h) If the juvenile court waives jurisdiction, it shall state specifically in the order its reasons for waiver and certify its action, including the written order and findings of the court, and transfer the child to the appropriate court for criminal proceedings. On transfer of the child for criminal proceedings, he shall be dealt with as an adult and in accordance with the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. The transfer of custody is an arrest. The examining trial shall be conducted by the court to which the case was transferred, which may remand the child to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

(i) If the child’s case is brought to the attention of the grand jury and the grand jury does not indict for the offense charged in the complaint forwarded by the juvenile court, the district court or criminal district court shall certify the grand jury’s failure to indict to the juvenile court. On receipt of the certification, the juvenile court may resume jurisdiction of the case.

§ 54.03. Adjudication Hearing

(a) A child may be found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision only after an adjudication hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) At the beginning of the adjudication hearing, the juvenile court judge shall explain to the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem:
(1) the allegations made against the child;
(2) the nature and possible consequences of the proceedings;
(3) the child’s privilege against self-incrimination;
(4) the child’s right to trial and to confrontation of witnesses;
(5) the child’s right to representation by an attorney if he is not already represented; and
(6) the child’s right to trial by jury.

(c) Trial shall be by jury unless jury is waived in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.

(d) Only material, relevant, and competent evidence in accordance with the requirements for the trial of civil cases may be considered in the adjudication hearing. Except in a detention or discretionary transfer hearing, a social history report or social service file shall not be viewed by the court before the adjudication decision and shall not be viewed by the jury at any time.

(e) A child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision need not be a witness against nor otherwise incriminate himself. An extrajudicial statement which was obtained without fulfilling the requirements of this title or of the constitution of this state or the United States, may not be used in an adjudication hearing. A statement made by the child out of court is insufficient to support a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision unless it is corroborated in whole or in part by other evidence. Evidence illegally seized or obtained is inadmissible in an adjudication hearing.

(f) At the conclusion of the adjudication hearing, the court or jury shall find whether or not the child has engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision. The finding must be based on competent evidence admitted at the hearing. The child shall be presumed to be innocent of the charges against him and no finding that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be returned unless the state has proved such beyond a reasonable doubt. In all jury cases the jury will be instructed that the burden is on the state to prove that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct or is in need of supervision beyond a reasonable doubt.

(g) If the court or jury finds that the child did not engage in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, the court shall dismiss the case with prejudice.

(h) If the finding is that the child did engage in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, the court or jury shall state which of the allegations in the petition were found to be estab-
There is no right to a jury at the disposition hearing. Subsection (c) of this section, it may:

(a) The disposition hearing shall be separate, distinct, and subsequent to the adjudication hearing. There is no right to a jury at the disposition hearing.

(b) At the disposition hearing, the juvenile court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the disposition hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in disposition. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(c) No disposition may be made under this section unless the court finds that the child is in need of rehabilitation or that the protection of the public or the child requires that disposition be made. If the court does not so find, it shall dismiss the child and enter a final judgment without any disposition.

(d) If the court makes the finding specified in Subsection (c) of this section, it may:

(1) place the child on probation on such reasonable and lawful terms as the court may determine for a period not to exceed one year, subject to extensions not to exceed one year each:

(A) in his own home or in the custody of a relative or other fit person;

(B) in a suitable foster home; or

(C) in a suitable public or private institution or agency, except the Texas Youth Council; or

(2) if the court or jury found at the conclusion of the adjudication hearing that the child engaged in delinquent conduct, the court may commit the child to the Texas Youth Council.

(e) The Texas Youth Council shall accept a child properly committed to it by a juvenile court even though the child may be 17 years of age or older at the time of commitment.

(f) The court shall state specifically in the order its reasons for the disposition and shall furnish a copy of the order to the child. If the child is placed on probation, the terms of probation shall be written in the order.

(g) In no event may the court commit a child to the Texas Youth Council because the child engaged in conduct defined in Subdivision (2), (3), or (4) of Section 51.03(b) of this code. (h) At the conclusion of the dispositional hearing, the court shall inform the child of his right to appeal, as required by Section 56.01 of this code.

§ 54.05. Hearing to Modify Disposition

(a) Any disposition, except a commitment to the Texas Youth Council, may be modified by the juvenile court as provided in this section until:

(1) the child reaches his 18th birthday; or

(2) the child is earlier discharged by the court or operation of law.

(b) All dispositions automatically terminate when the child reaches his 18th birthday.

(c) There is no right to a jury at a hearing to modify disposition.

(d) A hearing to modify disposition shall be held on the petition of the child and his parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or attorney, or on the petition of the state, a probation officer, or the court itself. Reasonable notice of a hearing to modify disposition shall be given to all parties.

(e) At the hearing to modify disposition, the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the hearing to modify disposition, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in deciding whether to modify disposition. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(f) A disposition based on a finding that the child engaged in delinquent conduct may be modified so as to commit the child to the Texas Youth Council if the court after a hearing to modify disposition finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the child violated a reasonable and lawful order of the court.

(g) A disposition based solely on a finding that the child engaged in conduct indicating a need for supervision may not be modified to commit the child to the Texas Youth Council. A new finding in compliance with Section 54.03 of this code must be made that the child engaged in delinquent conduct as defined in Section 51.03(a) of this code.

(h) A hearing shall be held prior to commitment to the Texas Youth Council as a modified disposition. In other disposition modifications, the child and his parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or attorney may waive hearing in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.
§ 54.06. Judgments for Support

(a) When a child has been placed on probation outside his home, the juvenile court, after giving the parent or other person responsible for the child's support a reasonable opportunity to be heard, may order the parent or other person to pay in a manner directed by the court a reasonable sum for the support in whole or in part of the child.

(b) Orders for support may be enforced as provided in Section 54.07 of this code.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to authorize support payments for a child committed to the Texas Youth Council.

§ 54.07. Enforcement of Order

(a) Any order of the juvenile court may be enforced by contempt.

(b) The juvenile court may enforce its order for support by civil contempt proceedings after 10 days' notice to the defaulting person of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order.

(c) On the motion of any person or agency entitled to receive payments for the benefit of a child, the juvenile court may render judgment against a defaulting person for any amount unpaid and owing after 10 days' notice to the defaulting person of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order. The judgment may be enforced by any means available for the enforcement of judgments for other debts.

§ 54.08. Public Access to Court Hearings

The general public may be excluded from hearings under this title. The court in its discretion may admit such members of the general public as it deems proper.

§ 54.09. Recording of Proceedings

All judicial proceedings under this chapter except detention hearings shall be recorded by stenographic notes or by electronic, mechanical, or other appropriate means. Upon request of any party, a detention hearing shall be recorded.

CHAPTER 55. PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING CHILDREN WITH MENTAL ILLNESS, RETARDATION, DISEASE, OR DEFECT

§ 55.03. Mentally Retarded Child

(a) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be mentally retarded, the court shall initiate proceedings to order temporary hospitalization of the child for observation and treatment.

(b) The Texas Mental Health Code (5547-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governs proceedings for temporary hospitalization except that the juvenile court shall conduct the proceedings whether or not the juvenile court is also a county court.

(c) If the juvenile court enters an order of temporary hospitalization of the child, the child shall be cared for, treated, and released in conformity to the Texas Mental Health Code except:

1. a juvenile court order of temporary hospitalization of a child automatically expires when the child becomes 21 years of age;

2. the head of a mental hospital shall notify the juvenile court that ordered temporary hospitalization at least 10 days prior to discharge of the child; and

3. appeal from juvenile court proceedings under this section shall be to the court of civil appeals as in other proceedings under this title.

(d) If the juvenile court orders temporary hospitalization of a child, the proceedings under this title then pending in juvenile court shall be stayed.

(e) If the child is discharged from the mental hospital before reaching 21 years of age, the juvenile court may:

1. dismiss the juvenile court proceedings with prejudice; or

2. continue with proceedings under this title as though no order of temporary hospitalization had been made.

§ 55.04. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Fitness to Proceed

(a) If it appears to the juvenile court, on the suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be mentally ill, the court shall initiate proceedings to order temporary hospitalization of the child for observation and treatment.

(b) The Texas Mental Health Code (5547-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governs proceedings for temporary hospitalization except that the juvenile court shall conduct the proceedings whether or not the juvenile court is also a county court.

(c) If the juvenile court enters an order of temporary hospitalization of the child, the child shall be cared for, treated, and released in conformity to the Texas Mental Health Code except:

1. a juvenile court order of temporary hospitalization of a child automatically expires when the child becomes 21 years of age;

2. the head of a mental hospital shall notify the juvenile court that ordered temporary hospitalization at least 10 days prior to discharge of the child; and

3. appeal from juvenile court proceedings under this section shall be to the court of civil appeals as in other proceedings under this title.

(d) If the juvenile court orders temporary hospitalization of a child, the proceedings under this title then pending in juvenile court shall be stayed.

(e) If the child is discharged from the mental hospital before reaching 21 years of age, the juvenile court may:

1. dismiss the juvenile court proceedings with prejudice; or

2. continue with proceedings under this title as though no order of temporary hospitalization had been made.
§ 55.03 FAMILY CODE

(b) The Mentally Retarded Persons Act (Article 3871b, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) governs proceedings for commitment of a mentally retarded child except that the juvenile court shall conduct the proceedings whether or not the juvenile court is also a county court.

(c) If the juvenile court enters an order committing the child for care and treatment in a facility for mentally retarded persons, the child shall be cared for, treated, and released in conformity to the Mentally Retarded Persons Act except:

1. The juvenile court that ordered commitment of the child shall be notified at least 10 days prior to discharge of the child; and
2. Appeal from juvenile court proceedings under this section shall be to the court of civil appeals as in other proceedings under this title.

(d) If the juvenile court orders commitment of a child to a facility for the care and treatment of mentally retarded persons, the proceedings under this title then pending in juvenile court shall be stayed.

(e) If the child is discharged from the facility for the care and treatment of mentally retarded persons before reaching 21 years of age, the juvenile court may:

1. Dismiss the juvenile court proceedings with prejudice; or
2. Continue with proceedings under this title as though no order of commitment had been made.

§ 55.04. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Fitness to Proceed

(a) No child who as a result of mental disease or defect lacks capacity to understand the proceedings in juvenile court or to assist in his own defense shall be subjected to discretionary transfer to criminal court, adjudication, disposition, or modification of disposition as long as such incapacity endures.

(b) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court’s own notice, that a child alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision if at the time of such conduct, as a result of mental disease or defect, he lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law.

(c) The court or jury shall determine from the psychiatric and other evidence at a hearing separate from, but conducted in accordance with the requirements for, the adjudication hearing whether the child is fit or unfit to proceed because of mental disease or defect.

(d) The court or jury shall determine from the psychiatric and other evidence at a hearing separate from, but conducted in accordance with the requirements for, the adjudication hearing whether the child is fit or unfit to proceed.

(e) The court or jury shall determine from the psychiatric and other evidence at a hearing separate from, but conducted in accordance with the requirements for, the adjudication hearing whether the child is fit or unfit to proceed because of mental disease or defect.

(f) If the court or jury determines that the child is unfit to proceed, the court or jury shall determine whether the child should be committed for a period of temporary hospitalization for observation and treatment in accordance with Section 55.02 of this code or committed to a facility for mentally retarded persons for care and treatment in accordance with Section 55.03 of this code.

(g) Proceedings to determine fitness to proceed may be joined with proceedings under Sections 55.02 and 55.03 of this code.

(h) The fact that the child is unfit to proceed does not preclude any legal objection to the juvenile court proceedings which is susceptible of fair determination prior to the adjudication hearing and without the personal participation of the child.

§ 55.05. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Responsibility

(a) A child is not responsible for delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision if at the time of such conduct, as a result of mental disease or defect, he lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law.

(b) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court’s own notice, that a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may not be responsible as a result of mental disease or defect, the court shall order appropriate medical and psychiatric inquiry to assist in determining whether the child is or is not responsible.

(c) The issue of whether the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect shall be tried to the court or jury in the adjudication hearing.

(d) Mental disease or defect excluding responsibility must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence.

(e) In its findings or verdict the court or jury must state whether the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect.

(f) If the court or jury finds the child responsible for his conduct the proceedings shall continue as though no question of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility had been raised.

(g) If the court or jury finds that the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect, the court shall dismiss the proceedings with prejudice, and the court shall initiate proceedings under Section 55.02 or 55.03 of this code to determine whether the child should be committed for care and treatment as a mentally ill or mentally retarded child.

(h) A child declared not responsible for his conduct because of mental disease or defect shall not thereafter be subject to proceedings under this title with respect to such conduct, other than proceedings under Section 55.02 or 55.03 of this code.

CHAPTER 56. APPEAL

§ 56.01. Right to Appeal

(a) An appeal from an order of a juvenile court is to the Texas Court of Civil Appeals and the case may be carried to the Texas Supreme Court by writ of error or upon certificate, as in civil cases generally.

(b) The requirements governing an appeal are as in civil cases generally.

(c) An appeal may be taken by or on behalf of the child from:

(1) an order entered under Section 54.02 of this code respecting transfer of the child to criminal court for prosecution as an adult;

(2) an order entered under Section 54.03 of this code with regard to delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision;

(3) an order entered under Section 54.04 of this code disposing of the case;

(4) an order entered under Section 54.05 of this code respecting modification of a previous juvenile court disposition; or

(5) an order entered under Chapter 55 of this code committing a child to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally retarded.

(d) Notice of appeal shall be given to the juvenile court as in civil cases generally.

(e) On entry of an order that is appealable under this section, the court shall instruct the attorney to advise the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem of the child's right to appeal, of the child's right to representation by counsel on appeal, and of the child's right to appointment of an attorney for appeal if an attorney cannot be obtained because of indigency. If the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem express a desire to appeal, the attorney shall file a notice of appeal with the juvenile court and inform the court whether or not he will handle the appeal.

(f) On entering an order that is appealable under this section, the juvenile court, if the child is not represented by an attorney, shall give notice to the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem of the child's right to appeal, of the child's right to representation by counsel on appeal, and of the child's right to appointment of an attorney for appeal if an attorney cannot be obtained because of indigency. Counsel shall be appointed under the standards provided in Section 51.10 of this code unless the right to appeal is waived in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.

(g) An appeal does not suspend the order of the juvenile court, nor does it release the child from the custody of that court or of the person, institution, or agency to whose care the child is committed, unless the juvenile court so orders. However, the appellate court may provide for a personal bond.

(h) If the order appealed from takes custody of the child from his parent, guardian, or custodian, the appeal has precedence over all other cases.

(i) The appellate court may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment or order, including an order of disposition or modified disposition, from which appeal was taken. It may reverse or modify an order of disposition or modified order of disposition while affirming the juvenile court adjudication that the child engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

(j) Neither the child nor his family shall be identified in an appellate opinion rendered in an appeal or habeas corpus proceedings related to juvenile court proceedings under this title. The appellate opinion shall be styled, "In the matter of ..........," identifying the child by his initials only.

Section 55.01 et seq.

§ 56.02. Transcript on Appeal

(a) The attorney representing a child on appeal who desires to have included in the record on appeal a transcription of notes of the reporter has the responsibility of obtaining and paying for the transcription and furnishing it to the clerk in duplicate in time for inclusion in the record.

(b) The juvenile court shall order the reporter to furnish a transcription without charge to the attorney if the court finds, after hearing or on an affidavit filed by the child's parent or other person responsible for support of the child that he is unable to pay or to give security therefor.

(c) On certificate of the court that this service has been rendered, payment therefor shall be made from the general funds of the county in which the proceedings appealed from occurred.

(d) The court reporter shall report any portion of the proceedings requested by either party or directed by the court and shall report the proceedings in question and answer form unless a narrative transcript is requested.

Enactment

Sections 4 to 7 of the 1973 Act provided:

"Sec. 4. Effective date. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1974."

"Sec. 5. Disposition of unrepealed articles." (a) The purpose of this section is to provide for transfer of articles of the Penal Code of Texas,
§ 1.01 PENAL CODE

1925, which are not repealed by this Act to the civil statutes or other appropriate places within the framework of Texas statute law, without reenactment and without altering the meaning or effect of the unpealed articles, so that when this Act takes effect there will be only one Texas Penal Code without the confusion that would result if remnants of the old Penal Code were allowed to continue to exist in that form in the statute books.

“(b) In order to carry out the purpose of this section, the Texas Legislative Council shall prepare and submit to the secretary of state, for publication with the Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, an appendix listing the unpealed articles of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, and prescribing for each unpealed title, chapter, or article a new official citation. The council may include in the appendix any comments that may be helpful to users of the statute books.

“(c) In order that the five-volume Vernon’s Texas Penal Code Annotated may be completely replaced, the council in the appendix authorized by Subsection (b) of this section may also recommend transfer and reclassification of statutes which were not enacted as part of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, but were compiled as articles of Vernon’s Texas Penal Code.

“Sec. 6. Saving provisions. (a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, this Act applies only to offenses committed on or after its effective date, and a criminal action for an offense committed before this Act’s effective date is governed by the law existing before the effective date, which law is continued in effect for this purpose, as if this Act were not in force. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed on or after the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurs on or after the effective date.

“(b) Conduct constituting an offense under existing law that is repealed by this Act and that does not constitute an offense under this Act may not be prosecuted after the effective date of this Act. If, on the effective date of this Act, a criminal action is pending for conduct that was an offense under the laws repealed by this Act and that does not constitute an offense under this Act, the action is dismissed on the effective date of this Act. However, a conviction existing on the effective date of this Act for conduct constituting an offense under laws repealed by this Act is valid and unaffected by this Act. For purposes of this section, “conviction” means a finding of guilt in a court of competent jurisdiction, and it is of no consequence that the conviction is not final.

“(c) In a criminal action pending on or commenced on or after the effective date of this Act, for an offense committed before the effective date, the defendant, if adjudged guilty, shall be assessed punishment under this Act if he so elects by written motion filed with the trial court before the sentencing hearing begins.

§ 1.01. Short Title

This code shall be known and may be cited as the Penal Code.

§ 1.02. Objectives of Code

The general purposes of this code are to establish a system of prohibitions, penalties, and correctional measures to deal with conduct that unjustifiably and inexcusably causes or threatens harm to those individual or public interests for which state protection is appropriate. To this end, the provisions of this code are intended, and shall be construed, to achieve the following objectives:

(1) to insure the public safety through:
   (A) the deterrent influence of the penalties hereinafter provided;
   (B) the rehabilitation of those convicted of violations of this code; and
   (C) such punishment as may be necessary to prevent likely recurrence of criminal behavior;

(2) by definition and grading of offenses to give fair warning of what is prohibited and of the consequences of violation;

(3) to prescribe penalties that are proportionate to the seriousness of offenses and that permit recognition of differences in rehabilitation possibilities among individual offenders;

(4) to safeguard conduct that is without guilt from condemnation as criminal;

(5) to guide and limit the exercise of official discretion in law enforcement to prevent arbitrary or oppressive treatment of persons accused or convicted of offenses; and

(6) to define the scope of state interest in law enforcement against specific offenses and to systematize the exercise of state criminal jurisdiction.

§ 1.03. Effect of Code

(a) Conduct does not constitute an offense unless it is defined as an offense by statute, municipal ordinance, order of a county commissioners court, or rule authorized by and lawfully adopted under a statute.

(b) The provisions of Titles 1, 2, and 3 of this code apply to offenses defined by other laws, unless the statute defining the offense provides otherwise; however, the punishment affixed to an offense defined outside this code shall be applicable unless the punishment is classified in accordance with this code.

(c) This code does not bar, suspend, or otherwise affect a right or liability to damages, penalty, forfeiture, or other remedy authorized by law to be recovered or enforced in a civil suit for conduct this code defines as an offense, and the civil injury is not merged in the offense.

§ 1.04. Territorial Jurisdiction

(a) This state has jurisdiction over an offense that a person commits by his own conduct or the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible if:

(1) either the conduct or a result that is an element of the offense occurs inside this state;

(2) the conduct outside this state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense inside this state;

(3) the conduct outside this state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense inside this state, and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy occurs inside this state; or

(4) the conduct inside this state constitutes an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit, or establishes criminal responsibility for the commission of, an offense in another jurisdiction that is also an offense under the laws of this state.

(b) If the offense is criminal homicide, a “result” is either the physical impact causing death or the death itself. If the body of a criminal homicide victim is found in this state, it is presumed that the death occurred in this state. If death alone is the basis for jurisdiction, it is a defense to the exercise of jurisdiction by this state that the conduct that constitutes the offense is not made criminal in the jurisdiction where the conduct occurred.

(c) An offense based on an omission to perform a duty imposed on an actor by a statute of this state is committed inside this state regardless of the location of the actor at the time of the offense.

(d) This state includes the land and water (and the air space above the land and water) over which this state has power to define offenses.

§ 1.05. Construction of Code

(a) The rule that a penal statute is to be strictly construed does not apply to this code. The provisions of this code shall be construed according to the fair import of their terms, to promote justice and effect the objectives of the code.

(b) Unless a different construction is required by the context, Sections 2.01, 2.02, 2.04, 2.05, and 3.01 through 3.12 of the Code Construction Act (Article 5429b-2, Vernon’s Texas Civil Statutes) apply to the construction of this code.

§ 1.06. Computation of Age

A person attains a specified age on the day of the anniversary of his birthdate.

[Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 883, ch. 399, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

CHAPTER 2. BURDEN OF PROOF

Section
2.01. Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt.
2.02. Exception.
2.03. Defense.
2.05. Presumption.
2.06. Prima Facie Case.

§ 2.01. Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt

All persons are presumed to be innocent and no person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of the offense is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that he has been arrested, confined, or indicted for, or otherwise charged with, the offense gives rise to no inference of guilt at his trial.

§ 2.02. Exception

(a) An exception to an offense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: “It is an exception to the application of . . . .”

(b) The prosecuting attorney must negate the existence of an exception in the accusation charging commission of the offense and prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant or defendant’s conduct does not fall within the exception.

(c) This section does not affect exceptions applicable to offenses enacted prior to the effective date of this code.

§ 2.03. Defense

(a) A defense to prosecution for an offense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: “It is a defense to prosecution . . . .”

(b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to negate the existence of a defense in the accusation charging commission of the offense.
§ 2.04. Affirmative Defense

(a) An affirmative defense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: "It is an affirmative defense to prosecution . . . ."

(b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to negate the existence of an affirmative defense in the accusation charging commission of the offense.

(c) The issue of the existence of an affirmative defense is not submitted to the jury unless evidence is admitted supporting the defense.

(d) If the issue of the existence of an affirmative defense is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge that the defendant must prove the affirmative defense by a preponderance of evidence.

§ 2.05. Presumption

When this code or another penal law establishes a presumption with respect to any fact, it has the following consequences:

(1) if there is sufficient evidence of the facts that give rise to the presumption, the issue of the existence of the presumed fact must be submitted to the jury, unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly precludes a finding beyond a reasonable doubt of the presumed fact; and

(2) if the existence of the presumed fact is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge the jury, in terms of the presumption and the specific element to which it applies, as follows:

(A) that the facts giving rise to the presumption must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt;

(B) that if such facts are proven beyond a reasonable doubt the jury may find that the element of the offense sought to be presumed exists, but it is not bound to so find;

(C) that even though the jury may find the existence of such element, the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the other elements of the offense charged; and

(D) if the jury has a reasonable doubt as to the existence of a fact or facts giving rise to the presumption, the element to which the presumption applies, or any other element of the offense charged, it shall acquit the defendant and say by its verdict not guilty.

§ 2.06. Prima Facie Case

When a statute declares that given facts constitute a prima facie case, proof of such facts warrants submission of a case to the jury with the usual instructions on burden of proof.

CHAPTER 3. MULTIPLE PROSECUTIONS

§ 3.01. Definition

In this chapter, "criminal episode" means the repeated commission of any one offense defined in Title 7 of this code (Offenses Against Property) by the phrase:

§ 3.02. Consolidation and Joiner of Prosecutions

(a) A defendant may be prosecuted in a single criminal action for all offenses arising out of the same criminal episode.

(b) When a single criminal action is based on more than one charging instrument within the jurisdiction of the trial court, the state shall file written notice of the action not less than 30 days prior to the trial.

(c) If a judgment of guilt is reversed, set aside, or vacated, and a new trial ordered, the state may not prosecute in a single criminal action in the new trial any offense not joined in the former prosecution unless evidence to establish probable guilt for that offense was not known to the appropriate prosecuting official at the time the first prosecution commenced.

§ 3.03. Sentences for Offenses Arising Out of Same Criminal Episode

When the accused is found guilty of more than one offense arising out of the same criminal episode prosecuted in a single criminal action, sentence for each offense for which he has been found guilty shall be pronounced. Such sentences shall run concurrently.

§ 3.04. Severance

(a) Whenever two or more offenses have been consolidated or joined for trial under Section 3.02 of this code, the defendant shall have a right to a severance of the offenses.

(b) In the event of severance under this section, the provisions of Section 3.03 of this code do not apply, and the court in its discretion may order the sentences to run either concurrently or consecutively.

TITLE 2. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

CHAPTER 6. CULPABILITY GENERALLY

Section 6.01. Requirement of Voluntary Act or Omission.

6.02. Requirement of Culpability.
§ 6.01. Requirement of Voluntary Act or Omission
(a) A person commits an offense only if he voluntarily engages in conduct, including an act, an omission, or possession, in violation of a statute that provides that the conduct is an offense.

(b) Possession is a voluntary act if the possessor knowingly obtains or receives the thing possessed or is aware of his control of the thing for a sufficient time to permit him to terminate his control.

(c) A person who omits to perform an act does not commit an offense unless a statute provides that the omission is an offense or otherwise provides that he has a duty to perform the act.

§ 6.02. Requirement of Culpability
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, a person does not commit an offense unless he intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence engages in conduct as the definition of the offense requires.

(b) If the definition of an offense does not prescribe a culpable mental state, a culpable mental state is nevertheless required unless the definition plainly dispenses with any mental element.

(c) If the definition of an offense does not prescribe a culpable mental state, but one is nevertheless required under Subsection (b) of this section, intent, knowledge, or recklessness suffices to establish criminal responsibility.

(d) Culpable mental states are classified according to relative degrees, from highest to lowest, as follows:

1. intentional;
2. knowing;
3. reckless;
4. criminal negligence.

(e) Proof of a higher degree of culpability than that charged constitutes proof of the culpability charged.

§ 6.03. Definitions of Culpable Mental States
(a) A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

(b) A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to circumstances surrounding his conduct when he is aware of the nature of his conduct or that the circumstances exist. A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

(c) A person acts recklessly, or is reckless, with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he is aware of but consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that its disregard constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

(d) A person acts with criminal negligence, or is criminally negligent, with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he ought to be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that the failure to perceive it constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

§ 6.04. Causation: Conduct and Results
(a) A person is criminally responsible as a party to an offense if the result would not have occurred but for his conduct, operating either alone or concurrently with another cause, unless the concurrent cause was clearly sufficient to produce the result and the conduct of the actor clearly insufficient.

(b) A person is nevertheless criminally responsible for causing a result if the only difference between what actually occurred and what he desired, contemplated, or risked is that:

1. a different offense was committed; or
2. a different person or property was injured, harmed, or otherwise affected.

CHAPTER 7. CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONDUCT OF ANOTHER

SUBCHAPTER A. COMPLICITY

§ 7.01. Parties to Offenses
(a) A person is criminally responsible as a party to an offense if the offense is committed by his own conduct, by the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible, or by both.

(b) Each party to an offense may be charged with commission of the offense.

(c) All traditional distinctions between accessories and principals are abolished by this section, and each party to an offense may be charged and convicted without alleging that he acted as a principal or accomplice.

§ 7.02. Criminal Responsibility for Conduct of Another

(a) A person is criminally responsible for an offense committed by the conduct of another if:

(1) acting with the kind of culpability required for the offense, he causes or aids an innocent or nonresponsible person to engage in conduct prohibited by the definition of the offense;

(2) acting with intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, he solicits, encourages, directs, aids, or attempts to aid the other person to commit the offense; or

(3) having a legal duty to prevent commission of the offense and acting with intent to promote or assist its commission, he fails to make a reasonable effort to prevent commission of the offense.

(b) If, in the attempt to carry out a conspiracy to commit one felony, another felony is committed by one of the conspirators, all conspirators are guilty of the offense committed in the furtherance of the unlawful purpose and was one that should have been anticipated as a result of the carrying out of the conspiracy.

§ 7.03. Defenses Excluded

In a prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility is based on the conduct of another, the actor may be convicted on proof of commission of the offense and that he was a party to its commission, and it is no defense:

(1) that the actor belongs to a class of persons that by definition of the offense is legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity; or

(2) that the person for whose conduct the actor is criminally responsible has been acquitted, has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or of a different type or class of offense, or is immune from prosecution.

CHAPTER 8. GENERAL DEFENSES TO CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Section 8.01. Insanity.

8.02. Mistake of Fact.
§ 8.01. Insanity
(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that, at the time of the conduct charged, the actor, as a result of mental disease or defect, either did not know that his conduct was wrong or was incapable of conforming his conduct to the requirements of the law he allegedly violated.
(b) The term "mental disease or defect" does not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.

§ 8.02. Mistake of Fact
(a) It is a defense to prosecution that the actor through mistake formed a reasonable belief about a matter of fact if his mistaken belief negated the kind of culpability required for commission of the offense.
(b) Although an actor's mistake of fact may constitute a defense to the offense charged, he may nevertheless be convicted of any lesser included offense of which he would be guilty if the fact were as he believed.

§ 8.03. Mistake of Law
(a) It is no defense to prosecution that the actor was ignorant of the provisions of any law after the law has taken effect.
(b) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor reasonably believed the conduct charged did not constitute a crime and that he acted in reasonable reliance upon:
   (1) an official statement of the law contained in a written order or grant of permission by an administrative agency charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question; or
   (2) a written interpretation of the law contained in an opinion of a court of record or made by a public official charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question.
(c) Although an actor's mistake of law may constitute a defense to the offense charged, he may nevertheless be convicted of a lesser included offense of which he would be guilty if the law were as he believed.

§ 8.04. Intoxication
(a) Voluntary intoxication does not constitute a defense to the commission of crime.
(b) Evidence of temporary insanity caused by intoxication may be introduced by the actor in mitigation of the penalty attached to the offense for which he is being tried.
(c) When temporary insanity is relied upon as a defense and the evidence tends to show that such insanity was caused by intoxication, the court shall charge the jury in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(d) For purposes of this section "intoxication" means disturbance of mental or physical capacity resulting from the introduction of any substance into the body.

§ 8.05. Duress
(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was compelled to do so by threat of imminent death or serious bodily injury to himself or another.
(b) In a prosecution for an offense that does not constitute a felony, it is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was compelled to do so by force or threat of force.
(c) Compulsion within the meaning of this section exists only if the force or threat of force would render a person of reasonable firmness incapable of resisting the pressure.
(d) The defense provided by this section is unavailable if the actor intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly placed himself in a situation in which it was probable that he would be subjected to compulsion.
(e) It is no defense that a person acted at the command or persuasion of his spouse, unless he acted under compulsion that would establish a defense under this section.

§ 8.06. Entrapment
(a) It is a defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the conduct charged because he was induced to do so by a law enforcement agent using persuasion or other means likely to cause persons to commit the offense. Conduct merely affording a person an opportunity to commit an offense does not constitute entrapment.
(b) In this section "law enforcement agent" includes personnel of the state and local law enforcement agencies as well as of the United States and any person acting in accordance with instructions from such agents.

§ 8.07. Age Affecting Criminal Responsibility
(a) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, a person may not be prosecuted or convicted for any offense that he committed when younger than 15 years.
(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, a person who is younger than 17 years may not be prosecuted or convicted for any offense, unless the juvenile court waives jurisdiction and certifies him for criminal prosecution.
(c) Subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to prosecutions for:
   (1) aggravated perjury, when it appears by proof that the actor had sufficient discretion to understand the nature and obligation of an oath;
   (2) a violation of a penal statute cognizable under Chapter 302, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended; or
   (3) a violation of a motor vehicle traffic ordinance of an incorporated city or town.
(d) No person who has been adjudged a delinquent child may be convicted of any offense alleged in the petition to adjudge him a delinquent child or any offense within the knowledge of the juvenile judge as evidenced by anything in the record of the juvenile proceeding.

(e) No person may, in any case, be punished by death for an offense committed while he was younger than 17 years.

(1) in response to verbal provocation alone;

(2) to resist an arrest or search that the actor knows is being made by a peace officer, or by a person acting in a peace officer's presence and at his direction, even though the arrest or search is unlawful, unless the resistance is justified under Subsection (c) of this section;

sary to prevent or terminate the other’s trespass on the land or unlawful interference with the property.

(b) A person unlawfully dispossessed of land or tangible, movable property by another is justified in using force against the other when and to the degree the actor reasonably believes the force is immediately necessary to reenter the land or recover the property if the actor uses the force immediately or in fresh pursuit after the dispossession and:

(1) the actor reasonably believes the other had no claim of right when he dispossessed the actor; or

(2) the other accomplished the dispossession by using force, threat, or fraud against the actor.

A person is justified in using deadly force against another to protect land or tangible, movable property:

(1) if he would be justified in using force against the other under Section 9.41 of this code; and

(2) when and to the degree he reasonably

(A) to prevent the other's imminent com­mission of arson, burglary, robbery, aggrava­ted robbery, theft during the nighttime, or criminal mischief during the nighttime; or

(B) to prevent the other who is fleeing im­mediately after committing burglary, rob­bery, aggravated robbery, or theft during the nighttime from escaping with the property; and

(3) he reasonably believes that:

(A) the land or property cannot be protect­ed or recovered by any other means; or

(B) the use of force other than deadly force to protect or recover the land or property would expose the actor or another to a sub­stantial risk of death or serious bodily injury.

A person is justified in using force or deadly force against another to protect land or tangible, movable property of a third person if, under the circum­stances as he reasonably believes them to be, the actor would be justified under Section 9.41 or 9.42 of

(1) the actor reasonably believes the unlawful interference constitutes attempted or consum­mated theft of or criminal mischief to the tangi­ble, movable property; or

(B) he has a legal duty to protect the third

(2) the actor reasonably believes there is a substantial risk that the person to be arrested will cause death or serious bodily injury to another if the arrest is delayed.

(e) There is no duty to retreat before using deadly force justified by Subsection (c) or (d) of this section.

2. one or more of the coconspirators has been acquitted, so long as two or more coconspirators have not been acquitted;

(b) A person may not be convicted under this section on the uncorroborated testimony of the person allegedly solicited and unless the solicitation is made under circumstances strongly corroborative of both the solicitation itself and the actor's intent that the other person act on the solicitation.

(c) It is no defense to prosecution under this section that:

(b) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under Section 15.02 or 15.03 of this code that under circumstances manifesting a voluntary and complete renunciation of his criminal objective the actor countermanded his solicitation or withdrew from the conspiracy before commission of the object offense and took further affirmative action that prevented the commission of the object offense.

(c) Renunciation is not voluntary if it is motivated in whole or in part:

1. by circumstances not present or apparent at the inception of the actor's course of conduct that increase the probability of detection or apprehension or that make more difficult the accomplishment of the objective; or

2. by a decision to postpone the criminal conduct until another time or to transfer the criminal act to another but similar objective or victim.

(d) Evidence that the defendant renounced his criminal objective by abandoning his criminal conduct, countermanding his solicitation, or withdrawing from the conspiracy before the criminal offense was committed and made substantial effort to prevent the commission of the object offense shall be admissible as mitigation at the hearing on punishment if he has been found guilty of criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy; and in the event of a finding of renunciation under this subsection, the punishment shall be one grade lower than that provided for the offense committed.
